HSR CONSTITUTION - ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

With membership support we can also...

- ◆ Offer public exhibitions, interactive history programs, and educational events which bring Riverton history to life for people of all ages.
- ◆ Publish Gaslight News four issues/yr.
- ◆ Deliver captivating history programs four times a year appealing to members and students.
- ◆ Deliver an updated content-rich website that engages its readers with fresh articles, stories, and historic images. You may enjoy reading the recently added collection of Riverton and Palmyra historical newspapers.
- ◆ Encourage participation by members near and far through social media applications.
- ◆ Develop new Riverton Walking Tours to introduce visitors and young people to Riverton's historic structures and people.
- ◆ Acquire, conserve and grant member access to the Riverton archival collection dedicated to preserving Riverton's past through documents, artifacts, images and period clothing.
- ◆ Enlist partners in erecting relevant interpretive historic markers at key Riverton sites.
- ◆ Strive to become a complete and comprehensive public source of information on Riverton's history.
- ◆ Later this year, make available applications for historic plaques for homes and businesses.
- ◆ Urge members to contribute historical artifacts, photos, ephemera, and above all, their knowledge to the Society, thus adding to this rich community resource.
