RIVERTON REJECTS WPA ROAD FUNDS

Borough Can Do Same Work at One-third of WPA
Estimated Cost

At the meeting of the Riverton Borough Council last Thursday night J. Wilson Sylvester, member of a special committee appointed to investigate the desirability of accepting WPA aid for a road improvement project in Riverton, reported that the borough could have the work done without government assistance for about $100 less than Riverton's share under the WPA estimate.

The WPA engineers estimated the cost to be $31,134; the borough's share to be $10,868.

Work for Riverton Men

Under the WPA setup outside men would be imported to do the work and the borough would have no control over the project. If done by the borough equipment the improvement would supply employment for Riverton men and the construction would be under the immediate direction of the supervisor of streets.

The special committee appointed to investigate the matter was made up of the highway committee composed of Gorham P. Sargent, J. W. Sylvester and Earl Shradet, with the addition of E. K. Merrill, chairman of the finance committee.

After hearing Mr. Sylvester's report council decided to decline the WPA offer, and on motion of Councilman R. W. Knight the clerk was instructed to notify the borough engineers who had been contact men between the borough and the WPA, of council's decision.

Improvements Under Way

Councilman Gorham P. Sargent, chairman of the highway committee, reported that Harrison street between Main and Lippincott avenue had been treated with amesite, and that a number of other streets would be improved in the same manner, the total cost being around $6,000.

Mr. Merrill recommended extra compensation for Robert Clelland, supervisor of streets, owing to the additional labor entailed by the program of street improvement now under way. The sum of $75 was agreed upon to cover the whole project.

Wayne E. Ayres, who lives on Linden avenue between Harrison and Seventh streets, appeared before council with a request that the roadway in that block be improved with amesite, as had been done on Harrison street. His request was referred to the highway committee.

Fire Hazards

The subject of weeds on unoccupied properties was brought up when Councilman R. W. Knight reported that a fire hazard existed on the rear of the old Bioren property on Main street, where there is a heavy growth of weeds and underbrush. In addition to this, there is a liberal sprinkling of poison ivy mixed in with the other growth, which keeps the youngsters in the neighborhood scratching much of the time. The owners had been notified to clean up the property but no reply had been received.

Mr. Knight's report brought on a discussion of the whole weed problem, and the police officers were instructed to make a thorough survey of the town and report all properties where there is an excessive growth of weeds and underbrush.

Hose Rack Constructed

Councilman E. K. Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, reported on the fire on the pike a short time ago in which a tenant house of the farm of the late Benjamin Lippincott had been destroyed by fire.

Mr. Merrill further reported that owing to the bursting of hose at a fire last fall, said to have been caused

KASER DENIES ELECTION CANARD

Brands as "Absolutely False"
"Cut-Throat" Statement
By Eastwood

Louis J. Kaser, Burlington county supervisor of public schools, in his office in Mount Holly on Tuesday, denied that he had made a statement to the effect that he was "out to cut the Senator's throat," as he was accused in a statement allegedly made by Prosecutor Howard Eastwood. Senator Clifford R. Powell's campaign manager.

To this end Kaser sent the following letter to the members of the Boards of Education and teachers throughout Burlington county:

"To Members of Boards of Education and Teachers:

'Under date of May 14, 1936, Mr. Howard Eastwood, prosecutor for Burlington county, and manager of Mr. Clifford R. Powell's campaign for State Senator, sent to Boards of Education of Burlington county a letter stating that I said that I was 'out to cut the Senator's throat.' This is absolutely false. I never made such a statement.

"Mr. Eastwood intimates that I am injecting politics into the public schools. This I have never done. Such statements are made to lead you to believe that I have worked for Dr. Newcomb, the political opponent of Mr. Powell. This I have never done, nor has Dr. Newcomb ever asked, hinted or requested, in any manner or form, that I do such a thing.

"I am indeed surprised that Mr. Eastwood, who holds the responsible position of Prosecutor for Burlington county, should deliberately make such a false statement.

"As to Chapter Laws 361, 409, 428, 432 and 455 of 1933, allegedly putting $17,000,000 of State monies into the school systems of the state, these were with the exception of 432, financial relief and refunding measures concerning the public schools of the state, and did not give any additional revenue to the public schools of the state. Records show that Dr. Newcomb favored all relief and refunding measures. Number 432 outlined a method of changing an elective board of education to an appointive board of education.

"I wish to assure you that I shall continue as County Superintendent, to administer the schools of Burlington county without fear or favor of political influence.

(Signed) LOUIS J. KASER,
County Superintendent."

It is a little amusing that the Senator's campaign manager should be so exercised over the alleged introduction of politics into the school system, when the Senator's own conception of the matter is so clearly indicated by the following letter:

May 5, 1936.

Mr. Karl W. Latch
Riverton, N. J.

My dear Mr. Latch:

Replying to your inquiry, would say that I testified at the hearing before the State Board of Education held at the State House concerning my re-appointment on March 29, 1935, that Senator Powell in 1933 when I protested against the passage of that portion of Senate Bill

DR. MARK TALKS TO PTA MOTHERS

"Care of Contagious Diseases in the Home" Subject
at May Meeting

At the closing meeting of the P.T.A. on Monday, Dr. Harry B. Mark, health officer of the Riverton Board of Health, was introduced by Mrs. H. P. Orlmann, Jr. Dr. Mark's talk on "Care of Contagious Diseases in the Home" emphasized very definite rules to be followed in the care of communicable diseases.

Dr. Mark said that in order to prevent epidemics every illness should be considered contagious until otherwise diagnosed by a competent physician. The duties of the nurse or mother were divided into three classes: (1) nursing care of the ill child; (2) protection of others; (3) maintenance of her own personal health. The two methods of contact, direct and indirect, were clearly defined and the importance of proper disinfection of hands, bed linen, dishes, utensils and toys thoroughly explained.

In closing Dr. Mark disagreed with the old theory that children should be exposed to contagious diseases early in life in order to get them over with and stated that the fewer diseases children have the better are their chances for a healthy adult life.

Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal, Mrs. H. P. Orlmann, Jr., president and her committee chairman read their annual reports of work accomplished during the year.

Lemonade and sandwiches were served by Mrs. G. Harold Baker and

EXHIBITION TENNIS AT HOME FETE

Australian Davis Cup Team to Play at Moorestown
Field Club

By Z. John Norris, Chairman
Tennis Committee, M.F.C.

The Moorestown Field Club in presenting its third annual tennis exhibition in collaboration with the annual lawn fete for the benefit of the Cinnaminson Home for Convalescent Women is indeed proud to bring again to this part of New Jersey tennis players of international renown, namely the Australian Davis Cup Team.

As a team the Anzacs are this year regarded as one of the foremost challengers to wrest the historic and battle-scarred Davis Cup from the claws of the English team. The interzone final matches to be played against the United States on May 30, 31 and June 1 at the Germantown Cricket Club should, it is generally believed, produce in the winner the next successor to this famous Cup.

Captain Jack Crawford, veteran Davis Cup player, of the age of 28, was in 1933 the world champion having annexed the Australian, French and Wimbledon championships. Although in that same year in the nationals at Forest Hills, N. Y., he succumbed to that immitable Fred Perry in the finals, still he was regarded as the No. 1 ranking player of the world by both the United States and England.

Adrian Quist, authorities say, is reaching the peak of his tennis career as may be evidenced by his more recent victories. Only twenty-two years old, he with Crawford, is a co-holder of the Wimbledon doubles crown, which today, with the fine international doubles combination is one of the greatest "wins" in tennis. Also, at this early age, Mr. Quist can boast of many other accomplishments, for this current season has found him victorious in the singles of the Australian, Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland championships.

The youngest member of the Anzacs, Vivian McGrath, just twenty-one, when coming into international fame, was the cause of much speculation because of the unique style of his back-hand game; today he is a sensation wherever he plays. The authorities were gravely concerned over his back-hand because he used two hands. The fineness of his play has, however, overshadowed the gravest doubts about this part of his game, for his back-hand play has been extremely instrumental in enabling him to annex the singles championship of New Zealand and also to be the present holder, with Mr. Crawford, of the Australian doubles crown.

The fourth member of the team is non-playing Manager Clifford Sproule whose ability to keep the players' games sharp, the men mentally keen for the game and well trained has been a great aid in bringing their team to the envious position it now holds.

Mr. Sproule was a school mate of Captain Crawford and in 1932 was a member of the Australian Davis Cup Team in which year he played, perhaps, the greatest match of his

REV. F. B. DOWNS TO PLAY MOSES

Rev. Harold L. Creager and
Rev. Norman Stockett, Jr.,
Will Also Take Part

The Rev. Francis B. Downs, rector of the Christ Episcopal Church, Riverton, will play the leading role, that of Moses, in "The First Commandment," which will be given in the Palmyra High School auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday, May 27 and 28. Moses, ancient Deliverer and Lawgiver of Israel, is one of the most dramatic and dynamic characters in Biblical history. The character Moses plays some of the most impressive scenes in the whole production.

Other leading characters include: Thomas Hettel, as Joseph; Wilton E. Mount, as Judah; Dr. J. Rowland Dey, as Simeon; S. Stuart Buckholz, as Reuben; Joseph Seel, as the Pharaoh; Rev. Harold L. Creager, as Aaron; Rev. Norman Stockett, Jr., as Levi; John Swartz, as Chief Councillor; John Ward, as a King of the Orient; Prof. C. F. Dengler, as Joseph in the Nativity; Richard K. Hunter, as the Grandfather, and Monte Simons as Malchiah.

A large chorus composed of many of the leading musicians of the community, under the direction of Ernest Warnick, will participate. Lee Mitton will be at the piano. Some of the outstanding musical numbers are the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," anthems such as "From Egypt's Bondage Come," and "The Lord Is My Light," and a number of other beautiful and famous anthems and hymns.

Beautiful costuming is an outstanding feature of the production. The costumes were all designed by Mrs. Hermine Wolf, formerly the costume designer for the Freiberg Passion Play.

The setting is furnished by a Grandfather telling Bible stories to his grandchildren. He introduces the various scenes, and offers comments interpreting their messages. The dramatic scenes include incidents in the lives of Joseph and of Moses, concluding with the Nativity Scene. The climax is reached in the giving of the Ten Commandments at Mt. Sinai.

This production of "The First Commandment" is sponsored by the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra. The cast of about 80 prominent local people is drawn from this church and other churches in the community.

by the hose not being properly dried after using, had been constructed a drying rack for the hose which he believed would solve the problem.

Councilman R. W. Knight called attention to the fact that this fire had taken both pieces of Riverton apparatus out of town, and inasmuch as the Palmyra fire department also had all of its equipment, both trucks and hose, without any protection for several hours. He recommended that the Palmyra fire department be permitted to leave the borough at a time. Mr. Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, said he would take the matter up with the chief of the Riverton company.

Chairman Knight of the police committee, reported that the dog census had revealed there are about a hundred canines in Riverton not registered, and he was authorized by council to give notice that owners of dogs had not registered their dogs by June 15 would be cited to appear before the borough recorder and be required to pay a fine in addition to the registration fee of $1.00. The notice is published in this issue of The New Era.

Councilman John L. Stroblin, chairman of the borough property committee, reported that the soil on the park had been badly cut up by boys "chasing rabbits" with an automobile. The officers of the borough had been apprehended by the police. He commended the department for its prompt work in backing up the perpetrators of the mischief with only a very slight clue to work on.

Other Damage

Mr. Stroblin reported that an other group of boys had slashed the tires and cut the rope on the flag pole at the park. He expressed his appreciation of the services of the fire company which took its ladder apparatus to the park and secured the end of the rope which dangled in the air far out of reach.

Mr. Stroblin also expressed his appreciation to Wilton E. Mount, who has charge of the playground situated at the park, for his help in an American flag to be flown from the flag pole.

At a meeting of the governing district of park property, he said, usually occurred after dark, Mr. Stroblin suggested a curfew rule for the park which would require everybody to be off the grounds by 9:30 in the evening. This brought on a discussion of the whole subject of park regulations, during which Mr. Mount said he thought a set of rules would help very materially in the preservation of park property and the promotion of the uses for which the park is intended.

Police to Patrol Park

Following the discussion the police committee was instructed to have the officers pay additional attention to patrolling the park in an effort to break up the vandalism which had prevailed.

Solicitor Walter Carson reported progress on the special highway situation referred to him at the previous meeting, involving the construction of ditches across the roadway on Bank street at both ends of the B. S. McElroy property.

Mr. Carson also reported that he was proceeding with the sale of foreclosures and had six properties under way.

Welfare Report

Rosa E. Mattis, president of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association, reported that the borough for $73 usually sent to the State for relief had been withheld, owing to the unavailability of ERA funds the first of April, and that now the county ERA had asked for a check for $36.50, the amount due from Riverton for the first half of April. Riverton to be reimbursed up to the amount of $65 for relief expenditures for the last half of April. A resolution was passed rescinding the motion of April 9 to pay $73, and to check for $36.50 as requested by the county. Mr. Mattis then asked that a check be drawn for $100 for the Welfare Association, which was ordered to be done.

Mr. Stroblin reported two requests for the use of the park—one by the Riverton Board of Education for play day on May 21, and for one by the Parochial P.T.A. for its annual picnic on June 18. Both were granted.

YMCA STAMP CLUB
Palmyra and Riverton

The Palmyra Riverton Stamp Club will meet at 8 p.m. Friday, May 22, in the YMCA building Palmyra. The feature of the evening will be a talk and exhibition by P. V. Barkeley, of Moorestown. The members of the club feel particularly fortunate in securing Mr. Barkeley for this occasion in that he was the grand prize winner of the Apex show recently held at Atlantic City when his display of early American issues on covers was one of the highlights. At Palmyra, Mr. Barkeley will show many of these valuable stamps and will discuss their interesting features. The popular Bourse will follow the address. A cordial invitation to attend this meeting is extended to all those who are interested in stamp collecting.

Entertainment By Palmyra Fire Co.

BILL TO ABOLISH AGE LIMIT FOR FEDERAL JOBS

A bill abolishing the age limit for Federal Civil Service jobs was re-introduced in the House of Representatives on Monday of this week by Congressman D. Lane Powers, of the 4th District of New Jersey.

The bill was originally introduced in the 73rd Congress by Congressman Powers.

The purpose of the measure is to remove age as a disqualification for civil service employment in the Federal Government if the applicants are otherwise qualified. The bill is backed by some of the labor organizations of Government employees.

Under the present laws, the Congressman said, "if a woman has been a good stenographer for many years and then decides to apply for Federal jobs, she would be a disqualifying factor. My bill would give that woman every opportunity to take the examination on her merits as a stenographer alone."

Of course, in some jobs which require extremely robust physique, such as guards at penitentiaries, and so forth, the question of physical fitness of a man past fifty, let alone sixty, would be considered. My bill would also apply to those in Government service not under Civil Service.

Nothing To Show But Debt

On the authority of no less a personage than Harry Hopkins, Administrator of the F.W.A., the relief fund, it is estimated that the New Deal, which was to lift us out of the depression as soon as it could get its spending part machine working smoothly. The spending part of the program has proceeded with great enthusiasm, but the only thing we have to show for it is a mammoth debt.—Iroquois, S. D. Chief.

Memorial Park Playground Baseball Dope

By "Bill" Schupp

"Soft ball plays older men keep active in athletics."

The above caption was over an article of a full column long in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of May 8th. The entire write up was not specifically on soft ball as it was termed, although playground ball would have been a more correct term.

There were some paragraphs that had the tune of big figures coming out of Washington these days.

A few of the sentences are quoted herewith:

"In 31 states 62,000,000 people played soft ball."

"Throughout the country more than 45,000,000 played hard ball, and basket ball, the really big seasonal sport, had 80,000,000 participants."

The party being interviewed thought that if the other 17 states ever get around to adopting soft ball on a big way, softball will be left in its wash."

Let us look at the above figures again. Basketball 80,000,000. Football 100,000,000. Baseball 100,000,000. Softball 62,000,000.

That means that for every 100,000,000 people there are 62,000,000 who play softball. That is 62 percent of the population.

THE ABOVE PICTOGRAPH should awaken farmers to the danger which wasteful spending of public money is bringing on. In 1931 the value of all farms and farm buildings was nearly three times the public debt. That year, Democrats gained control of the House of Representatives. Since then Democrats have drawn up our revenue bills and our spending bills. Farm values have fallen. The public debt has doubled. It is estimated that next year the debt will exceed the value of all farms and farm buildings. Tobacco taxes, gasoline and other Federal taxes paid by the farmer are increasing. The farmer and his grandchildren will be taxed to pay off this debt. As shown in the pictograph, the debt threatens to overwhelm the farmer before he realizes his danger and demands a halt.

POWERS SECURES AMMUNITION FOR 21-GUN SALUTE

When the American Legion of New Jersey held their big celebration at Locustwood, in Haddonfield, Memorial Day, the National Guard Artillery Units present will be able to fire a twenty-one gun salute for the honored dead, thanks to the efforts of Congressman D. Lane Powers.

The Congressman, as a member of the War Department Appropriations Committee, was appealed to by the chairman of the committee staging the mammoth celebration to obtain permission of the War Department for release of salute ammunition of the National Guard for use in the ceremonies.

Congressman Powers took the matter directly to General E. T. Conley, the Adjutant General of the War Department in Washington, who investigated through the National Guard Bureau and as a result of the investigation and on the Congressman's request, wrote Powers that the New Jersey National Guard could use the salute ammunition for the celebration. He further stated that if the use of that ammunition left them insufficient salute shells for their summer camp, they could requisition additional shells from the War Department in Washington which would be supplied without cost to the National Guard.

Speaker Newcomb in Action

One purpose in going to Trenton that night was to observe Speaker Mr. W. Newcomb in action. It had been anticipated that he would have his severest ordeal of the season, trying to satisfy the numerous visitors who were clamoring for action on the problem of providing relief funds.

And it WAS an ordeal of a sort, but one in which the Speaker from Burlington county acquitted himself with signal credit.

In the early stages of the session, as far back as January and February, there was an unquestioned conspiracy among the doctor's enemies to "smear" him, to discredit him every occasion, no matter how unfair and unportmanteau such a course might be.

One of the early sessions after which the Speaker's hecklers and audacious spread a false cheer throughout the state as to his manner of handling the Assembly. My own observation, however, was that Speaker Newcomb performed his duties courteously and courageously. If there was a dig, it was the Speaker's own doing.

There was no doubt in the Speaker's mind that he was the source of too great consideration for those who sought to embarrass the Chair. Any other man would have had certain recalcitrants put in their seats by the Sergeant-at-Arms or ejected from the chamber. Speaker Newcomb kept his head in the most irritating situations, returned courtesy for backslaps and in the end discomfited his enemies.

I have never been very strong for that Biblical injunction to turn the other cheek toward one's enemy when smitten, but Speaker Newcomb, in his unflinching and always dignified deportment, made his "smearers" look cheap and foolish. Since then these same gentry seem to have subsided. There is very little "smearing" of the Speaker now; that is, not in the open.

Of course, the Speaker is stronger than ever around the county. There is less than two weeks left which to the Speaker's Burlington county Assemblyman in his straight course toward the governorship, and many of those who thought Powell was going to defeat his conferee, and win a FOURTH TERM in the upper house, are now openly convinced that it cannot be done.

But to return for a minute to the invasion of the Speaker's chamber by the "army of the jobless" last week. There wasn't a square foot of standing room. The big assembly chamber. That portion of the floor to which visitors with courtesy cards or other "credentials" were admitted, was packed to suffocation; so were the galleries. The newspaper correspondents were jammed to the point of giving up their work—but like the real knights of the Fourth Estate that they were, they stuck to their posts.

Pretty soon after the session opened, the Speaker's oratory started. On motion, the privilege of the floor was given to one speaker after another. There was much loud talking and thunders of applause at times from the visiting delegates, but always in the Speaker's honor.

The Speaker was unfailingly courteous and patient, giving the unemployed and their visitors every opportunity to be heard. When the accustomed motion to "give the privilege of the floor to Mr. X" was put, and the vice vote vote always seemed to favor the "nays," the Speaker smilingly declared "the ayes have it" and the visitors started off.

The friendly way they were received, however, seemed rather to temper their ardor. The Speaker's words; at least there was no parliamentary language, worth mentioning, until a Somerset speaker applied the sharp and ugly word to Assemblyman Thomas, from Bergen. Instantly a dozen members were on their feet demanding recognition. The Speaker, his smile gone now, held the situation admirably in hand. He told the members they wanted the same thing—to rescind the privilege accorded the visitor who forgot himself and was out of fairly taken and the privilege of the floor withdrawn from the fiery spokesman for the unemployed.

And then the Assembly waited breathlessly for the next move. A

NEW DEAL INCREASES FARM IMPORTS FROM CANADA 10 FOLD

CANADA UNITED STATES

THE AMERICAN FARMER seems shocked at what he sees coming over the Canadian border. Do you blame him?

Here are a few of the increases in Canadian imports for January of this year over January, 1935, which the New Deal Reciprocal Trade agreement has caused:

Wool, 22 fold; pork, 17 fold; cheese, 12 fold; potatoes, 11 fold; poultry, 10 fold; cattle, 1 fold; beef, 6 fold; and horses, 5 fold. The average increase in the imports just listed has been 10 to 1 over January a year ago, thus depriving the American farmer of these sales.

This flooding of the American market with Canadian farm products cannot be balanced by "soil conservation" Government checks or other artificial methods.

his word or an attempt to eject the House. The Speaker's chamber, conceivably might have brought on a riot. Instead, the Speaker, hardly knowing what to do next, just melted into the fringe of spectators and House officers around the Speaker's chair, and Dr. Newcomb, not pointedly forgot him. It was a fine display of tact, and those who have been prone to criticize the Speaker for his lack of "hardness" while in the chair, have not been heard from since.

Throughout the rest of the session I watched the Speaker and his staff, and many of those who thought Powell was going to defeat his conferee, and win a FOURTH TERM in the upper house, are now openly convinced that it cannot be done.

A pageant, "Riverton of Yore," will show various incidents in the development of the town from 1800 to 1900. Some episodes to be depicted by farmers, building summer homes by early residents, various types of transportation and industries, the first church service, schools, and recreational facilities. The recessional will take place before the "Month of May" bids all farewell.

How Did We Get That Way? Every Government policy is being twisted to fit the elections. It reports a special Washington informant. "Whatever policy or pose or statement seems to serve the cause of reelection, is the announced policy of the Government."

One must be unusually credulous or uninformed not to face that as the reality. The question never is, "Is it right?" It is, "Will it work?" That effect will it have on the ballot next November?" The larger question was, "How did we get that way, and how can we snap out of it?"—Spokane, Wash., Spokesman-Review.

THE COERCIVE METHOD
Industry, of course, can't take up the present slack in employment; it never did employ any such number as would be necessary to do what the President insists upon. He knows business can't employ people if it is to be hampered at every turn and taxed to death, but he thinks it is good politics to spread abroad the idea that business and industry are slackers, that those who could employ men and women are holding off just for spite.—Yakima, Wash.,

"Try, Try Again"

In his address last night President Roosevelt gave his formula for meeting an emergency: "Do something. If it works, do something more. If not, do something else." That formula may be adopted as a working plan not only by heads of government but by people who are faced with the responsibility of selecting heads of government—Lawrence, Kans., Journal-World.

HOW IT WORKED

While the A.A.A. planners sought to curtail crops to bring prosperity, they brought us instead huge imports of agricultural produce from abroad, produce which ought to be raised by our own farmers. The tariff traders instead of giving us wider farm markets, have only encouraged the importation of alien goods, both manufactured and agricultural produce.
