STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O, say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the clouds of the fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O! say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation;
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just;
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died, land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side let freedom ring.

My native country, thee, land of the noble, free—thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills, thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills like that above.

I let music swell the breeze and ring from all the trees sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake, let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break, the sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee, author of Liberty, to Thee I sing;
Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might, great God, our King.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE

O Columbia, the gem of the ocean, the home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion, a world offers homage to thee,
Thy mandates make heroes assemble, when liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banners make tyrants tremble, when borne by the Red, White and Blue.

CHORUS.

When borne by the Red, White and Blue, when borne by the Red, White and Blue,
Thy banners make tyrants tremble, when borne by the Red, White and Blue.

When war waged its wide desolation, and threatened our land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia, rode safe through the storm,
With her garland of victory o'er her, when so proudly she bore her brave crew,
With her flag proudly floating before her, the boast of the Red, White and Blue.

The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither, and fill you it up to the brim,
May the wreath they have won never wither, nor the star of their glory grow dim;
May the service united ne'er sever, and hold to their colors so true,
The Army and Navy forever, three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.
