The following game will be with the West Philadelphia High at the West Philadelphia grounds, Tuesday, October 10. It seems too bad that both of these games are away from home but the home season will open at the West End grounds the following week with the Bordentown High, so remember this and watch for opening date.

Field Club Defeats All Stars

For the first time in the history of the Field Club, an advertising deal was handed out to the base-ball lovers of this town, as it was advertised that The Field Club was to play the All Stars.

The All Stars are a team of gathering of stars from the different teams in and around Philadelphia. This team is assembled together by our friend Ed Williams, of Riverton, and every time Ed Williams has brought them to Palmyra a good game has always followed, but in this case Ed Williams didn't even know that his All Stars were scheduled to play the local team and so he is out of the argument, and the blame lies with two or three members of The Field Club. In the first place Ed Williams, who is the pitcher, played if they hadn't seen a game of ball for five or six years—while two other members were none other than J. Paulin and Kuppenhoefer, of Palmyra.

The game itself was one of the greatest forces ever seen on the local grounds and if The Field Club boys had played to the best of their ability they would have made a record in coming getting. But Gibbons and second and third and then stole home just to show them how slow they were. Al. Hardy also stole home while Paulin had home stolen but was called out as the umpire said Gibbons interfered with the catcher during the play, but he just didn't get out of the road, which is legal—as he is not compelled to get out of his box when the pitcher has made a legal pitch. This base running of the locals was very good practice, John Saer, who was playing right field for the locals, went from first to third on two occasions when Schriever made two perfect sacrifices. The team as a whole hit hard and fielded cleanly but to defeat a team that wasn't even strong enough to play the second team is no credit to The Field Club. The Field Club should not be held responsible for one man's doings, as this man is sure to be censured at the next meeting.

Base Hits.
Gibbons and Schriever changed positions and the stop Gibbons made was a corker.

Capt. Keil was playing foot ball out in center during the game. A good thing as it didn't happen to come his way.

Paulin's throwing has improved 50 per cent. Keep it until next year Sonny.

Saer and Stack look like two likely candidates for next year's team. Paulin is also coming out.

Young blood plays.
Mack Mathews could not fathom the visiting pitcher's straight ball as he fanned three times out of four.

Paulin was responsible for the visitors only run when he made a perfect bunt with the bases full.

This is sure the last game of the base ball season as foot ball is now going to start.

ROOTER.

Field Club Foot Ball.

The foot ball candidates put in some of the time Saturday putting, catching of punts, scrimmage, getting down the field on the kick-off and a long signal drill. The material looks very light but as we have some very fast men this should not handicap them much as speed is what counts. Miller and Hemple are fighting it out for the center position but Miller seems to have the call as he is the heavier and experienced, but everyone is going to have a chance to show their ability and the veterans will have to go some.

Gibbons and Hinkle will start the game at the ends. While we have a number of others able to take the burden at any minute, our line is inexperienced, but they can be rounded into a stone wall. The back field will be made up of Calvin Durgin as quarter, Sid Matlack as full, Capt. Durgin as left half and Prickett, Wright, Fry and Bell fighting it out for the other half position.

The first game will take place this Saturday with the Pine Point team, of Camden. A good game should follow.

Don't forget this Saturday at 3:30 p. m. on the West End grounds.

Palmyra H. S. Defeats Cheltenham H. S.

The P. H. S. boys brought home the bacon from Elkins Park by defeating the Cheltenham High School in one of the hardest fought games ever played at Elkins Park, and if Sam Greene had not been high enough to intercept a forward pass the game would have ended in a tie, but considering the fact that this is the Palmyra boys' first game, while the Elkins Park eleven have played three, the local boys made a great showing against their heavier and hardened opponents.

Goldboro, at quarter, played a fairly good game but showed that he is new to the position and as soon as he learns to mix up his plays from every formation he should be a star. Captain Durgin was as good as ever on defense and ran and received forward passes from his position like a veteran, but he was a little slow in running back kicks but in this he should be excused as the ground was in no condition to dodge, as it was very slippery from a recent rain. Too much praise cannot be given "Baldy" Prickett as he is improved 50 per cent. from last year; he can go through the line as well as he can circle the ends; he is also there on defense. Stanley Green was the man that really brought the laurels to Palmyra, as it was he who intercepted the forward pass and ran about fifty yards for a touchdown. Stanley can also hold the forward pass which he did four times, every time of which was legal. This is going some!

Cheltenham players of the local boys in the first half of the game, but when the second half started it could be easily seen that the local boys had got together during the first half and ploughed through and around the home team several times. It seemed as if they were going to score, but lost the ball on a fumble on a forward pass. Exevis, full back on the home team, was a much better player and several times louted the ball over the heads of the Palmyra boys' secondary defense. This fault should be remedied as it might be the means of losing some game. If the quarter back would play back further he could more easily come up on a ball than running with it as he has to turn completely around after receiving the ball.

The local line is there on defense but could be improved on offense, they don't seem able to open up holes, and as this is one of the most important duties of a lineman they should be drilled until they can master it. Flick on the end, while a new man, shows a little class and has enough nerve for two or three men. Walter Greene is another with plenty of nerve and a witty tongue, which turns many frowns into smiles. As a whole the team is there and judging from the first game they should have a very successful year on the gridiron.

The next game will be Tuesday, October 17, at the West End grounds, when they play the Bordentown High. Admission 10c.

Mrs. Mansfield Passes Away.

After an illness of over a year, Mrs. Susan Mansfield passed to the higher life Saturday afternoon, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Way.

Mrs. Mansfield was the younger daughter of William T. Slomum and was born in Philadelphia in 1860. Mr. and Mrs. Slomum lived on Delaware avenue for thirty-eight years. About twenty-three years ago John H. Mansfield, of Germantown, married Miss Slomum and they made their residence at Germantown, where three sons were born. Mr. Mansfield died about fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Mansfield and her sons, John and Harry, returned to Palmyra five years ago and occupied one of her residences on Horace avenue, where they lived until it became necessary for Mrs. Mansfield to go to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

Mrs. Mansfield was very well known, having been a member of the Methodist Church in her girlhood, and of the Presbyterian Church after her return to Palmyra.

Services were held at the home of her sister, Mrs. Way, Tuesday evening at 7:45, conducted by Rev. J. G. Noordewier, and at the home of her son, Clarence S. Mansfield, of Germantown, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was strictly private at the Ivy Hill cemetery.

Undertaker Morton was in charge. John Mansfield will remain with his aunt, and his brother, Harry, returned to school at Mount Hermon, Mass., today.

This team is composed of ex high and manual players and a good game should follow.

Don't forget Saturday, October 14, at the West End Grounds. Admission 15c.

The Field Club boys have organized a Mandolin Club with about thirty instruments—ten guitars and twenty mandolins. The management has been fortunate in securing the services of Weaver, of Philadelphia. Weaver is prominent in this kind of work and should make this a great success.

To Break up Station Loafing.

A determined effort will be made to break up the condition of affairs around the railroad station which has so long disgraced Palmyra. The first step taken arrested Charles Lowden for using profane language, and Squire Hires imposed a fine of $5.00.

Eagle Nest in Western New York.

An eagle's nest, with five little eaglets, is on the Davis farm in the town of Somerset, Niagara county, on the shores of Lake Ontario.

For many seasons past two American eagles have made their headquarters at the Davis farm, but never until this season did they nest, and so far as known it is the first time that a nest has been built in Niagara county. The eaglets are carefully guarded by the old birds as well as by the members of the Davis family. Hunt are forbidden by law to shoot the birds—Rochester Post Express.

The Five Great Races.

In answer to the question, "What are the five great races of mankind?" a Chinese student replied, said Bishop Montgomery at the anniversary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, reports the London Mail, "the hundred yards, the hurdles, the quarter mile, the mile and the three miles." In another paper a Chinese student said that "Out of sight, out of mind," could be explained in two words, "Invisible Insane."

Cause for Grief.

George, aged 34, was very cross and his walls louder than usual one day made his mother ask impatiently "George, what in the world makes you cry?" With an injured catch in his voice George replied, "You would cry, too, if you hit the crazy bone in your head as I did."

Rather Vague.

"Sir, as the chairman of the committee, we ask you please not to have wines or liquors at your society's coming banquet. Will you permit this?" "I promise you the matter shall have my sober thought."

The Return from the Captivity. Ezra 1:1-11:11:16:40.

Golden Text—He retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in mercy. Micah, vii:18.

(1) Verses 1-2—Who was King Cyrus and what were his character and achievements?

(2) Where were the Jews as a people, at the opening of this lesson, and what were the circumstances which took them there?

(3) How do you account for it that Cyrus, immediately when he began to reign over Babylon, decided to release the Jewish captives and to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem?

(4) What reason can you assign for a king, not a Jew, having such a special message from God?

(5) If the religious history of every nation from the beginning of time could be fully known, should we have in essence a repetition of Bible history?

(6) Verses 3-4—What class of people do we depend on chiefly, to build churches and support missionaries?

(7) What motive does Cyrus appeal to, for rebuilding the Temple at Jerusalem?

(8) What good is accomplished by the vast sums of money spent in building and supporting churches?

(9) If all people are obligated to give money to support the cause of religion, what is the least they should give?

(10) Verses 5-6—Are ministers to lead under obligations to take the lead by precept and example in religious enterprises, without waiting for any special spiritual leading?

(11) When persons willingly help in God's cause, are they without exception, "them whose spirit God had raised?"

(12) When we undertake giving or doing for the cause of God, why is it safe to conclude that God specially appoints us thereto?

(13) Verses 7-11—What in brief, were the circumstances which brought the gold and silver vessels to Babylon from the first Temple at Jerusalem?

(14) When a man gives lavishly of precious treasures to the cause of God is that always, or generally, a proof of his love for God?

(15) Chap. II. Verses 64-70—What number of people returned to Jerusalem, and how many of them originally carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar? (See 2 Kings xiv:14.)

(16) What were the religious and financial conditions of the people when they were originally deported, and when they returned?

(17) What general effect had their captivity had upon them?

(18) Which ministers more to the character of the average man, prosperity or adversity? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

The Foundation of the Second Temple. Ezra II:1-16:40.

Golden Text—Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise. Ps. c:4.

(1) Verse 1—How long had they likely been in the land when this general gathering at Jerusalem took place?

(2) Which should have the right of way, or first place, our own business or that of the church?

(3) When the people as "one man," give up their business to attend to religious gatherings, what is the effect upon their general prosperity?

(4) Verse 2—Why is there a special obligation upon individuals and churches to take a leading part in church work?

(5) Verses 3-6—What was the spiritual effect in those days of the observance of the ceremonial law of Moses?

(6) Would God have planned for so much ceremony and ritual for an educated and spiritually enlightened people? (See Isa. i:11-16.)

(7) When and why was the Mosaic ceremonial law abolished?

(8) What is the sacrifice which every Christian is under obligation to offer up daily?

(9) Verse 7—Should money given to build churches be regarded as an investment, and may we expect any financial returns?

(10) Verses 8-9—What practical lessons may we learn from the way these men organized, and from the vigor of the leaders in seeing the organization was effective?

(11) Verses 10-11—What is the practical effect of a proper ceremony for special religious services, such as the laying of a foundation stone, or the opening of a church?

(12) Would it be a good thing for the church to re-establish bad made in its service? Why or why not?

(13) Point out its appropriateness and say what psalm they sang together.

(14) Should there be room and opportunity for spontaneous shouts of praise as in this case, in the most carefully prepared church ceremony?

(15) In political and other meetings, the people are encouraged to show their appreciation and express their feelings; why should it not be the same in religious gatherings?

(16) Verses 12-13—Why did some of these people shout for joy and some for sorrow?

(17) About how many years was it since the former Temple was burned?

(18) Were those that sorrowed and those that rejoiced both right? Give your reasons.

(19) Chap. IV. Verses 15-16—We old these enemies of the Jews after their services to help build the Temple?

(20) Should help ever be received for the church from those who are not religious?

(21) What motive did these people have in trying to frustrate the building of the Temple? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(22) What is our duty when we are opposed in our Christian work?

Evil Enough.
There is evil enough in man, God knows. But it is not a mission of every young man and woman to detail and report it all. Keep the atmosphere as pure as possible and fragrant with gentleness and charity.—Dr. John Hall.

Venison.
The prime Jersey venison is undoubtedly the healthiest, though a shot-ter or neck of venison properly cooked is a very toothsome dish. The loin is best cut up into chops and cutlets, the breast being only suitable for soups, ragouts and pies.

Honey.
Honey has been known from the earliest times. The Scriptures make mention of it, and pagan writers celebrated its virtues. It was called "the milk of the aged" and was thought to prolong life. Honey was also used in the embalming of the body after death.

Coffee.
Caffine, the active principle of coffee, was discovered by Ritze in 1820.
In a pure state it takes the form of long silky needles. In ordinary coffee it is present to the extent of about 1 per cent, but Java coffee contains 4.4
and Martinique has as much as 6.4.

A Brave Mine.
Riley—How about that gold mine you bought last year? Smiley—Why, we've called it the Bulldog.
It's the bravest little mine you ever heard of. Riley (quizzed)—Bravest?
Smiley—Sure! There isn't a yellow streak anywhere in it—Puck.

Remembrances.
"Did any of your ancestors do things to cause posterity to remember them?"
asked the haughty woman.
"I reckon they did," replied Farmer Courtisot. "My grandfather put mortgages on this place that ain't paid off yet."—Washington Star.

A Glass Too Much.
First Salesman—A woman was arrested downstairs this morning. Second Salesman—What for? First Salesman—She was caught in the act of collecting a hand mirror. Second Salesman—Poor woman! That's what comes of taking a glass too much!

A Denby Dale Pie.
Inhabitants of Denby Dale, near Sarnley, England, have had the habit of 100 years past of baking enormous pies to celebrate great events. On one occasion a Denby Dale pie contained a sheep, twenty fowls and half a jack of sheep.

Snake Charmers.
The story of a dealer in animals that most snake charmers are morphia junkies. By the absorption of this poison they become impervious to the poison of all but the most deadly variety of snakes.

A Thousand Dogs.
The followers of Zoroaster have a theory that prior to the existence of man in the world the rose was a thorn-less flower. In the east it is a tradition to this day that the burning bush in which the angel of the Lord appeared to Moses was a rosebush.

Ancient Dogs.
At the time of the Roman occupation of Britain five distinct species of dogs were there, most of which can be identified with those of the present day. These were the house dog, greyhound, bulldog, terrier and slowhound.

Different Sort Next Time.
"Jones must feel terrible over the loss of his wife. She was literary, wasn't she?"
"Yes, he has broken up at first, but now he's cheerful again. It's giving him a chance to try a wife who can cook."—Detroit Free Press.

The Innocent Maid.
"Do you believe in hell, because?"
asked the young man in the parlor scene.
"Well," replied the innocent maid, "I don't believe the license should be high enough to discourage matrimony."— Chicago News.

Napkins.
Napkins became popular in France sooner than in England. At one time it was customary at great French dinners to change the napkins at every course, to perfume them with rosewater and to have them folded a different way for each guest.

POLITENESS.
True politeness is perfect ease and freedom. It simply consists in treating other just as you would be treated yourself.—Chesterfield.

A Sacrifice

By ANDREW C. EWING.

I left St. Petersburg in the afternoon. When the guard closed the door of the compartment I was in I noticed a man sitting opposite me. He was of the middle age, with a high forehead, dark hair, and a serious expression.
He was looking at me, and I was looking at him. He was looking at me as if he were looking at a stranger.
I was looking at him as if he were looking at a stranger.

"What do you think of this?" he said, looking at me. "I am looking at you as if you were a stranger. I am looking at you as if you were a stranger.
I am looking at you as if you were a Reception by The Mothers' Circle.

The first meeting of the Mothers' Circle last evening, in the auditorium of the public school, was well attended. The main object was to have the parents meet Mr. Laynel, the new principal, and the teachers.

Mrs. Corry, president of the Mothers' Circle, and others with Mr. and Mrs. Laynel received until 9 p. m., when the meeting was called to order. Mrs. Corry struck the keynote of welcome. Mr. Laynel then spoke of the importance of physical as well as the intellectual and moral development of the pupils. He stated that the standard of averages had been increased so that to qualify to enter the organized play just inaugurated, the pupils must do better in their studies. With exercise of the play tendency on an organized plan, study becomes easier and conduct improves. Mr. Laynel desires the co-operation of the parents and hopes to meet them often in and out of school hours. His up-to-date ideas met with hearty applause.

Mrs. Herbert M. Morris sang several selections in her inimitable style.

Mrs. Gries discussed authoritatively and intelligently the object of holding Mothers' Circle meetings and how the waste of effort and money in our educational system is being stopped at the "lap." Boys and girls have been drifting to the street corners, control suddenly disappeared, but the method of checking it has been found. He stated that concentrated effort over the entire continent is being directed to secure the just reward for the education given.

Mr. Raymond Hawley followed with a tenor solo "Because" by d'Hordet, and encore "My Roary," both of which were very acceptably rendered.

The meeting closed with "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Refreshments followed. It was past ten o'clock when goodnight was said and everybody had a good time.

Historical Loan Exhibition.

The Historical Society of Burlington County will hold a loan exhibition of historical objects pertaining more particularly to Burlington County prior to 1850, at the Town Hall, Moorestown, Friday, November twenty-fourth, 1911, from three until ten p. m.

To insure the safety of the objects to be exhibited, the committee has arranged for ample police and fire protection at the Town Hall continuously from the morning of the exhibition until noon on the day following. Small objects, books and papers will be placed in glass cases. Articles to be exhibited will be received during the morning of November twenty-fourth at the hall, and will be delivered to the owners upon request the same evening after ten o'clock, and the following day until noon. Cards bearing the description and name of the exhibitor will be attached to all articles displayed. A souvenir catalogue is being prepared which will give the history and description of each exhibit.

Owing to this being the first loan venture of the Society, it will be necessary to request all loaners to pay transportation expenses.

Address all communications to E. Robert Stackhouse, secretary of committee, Moorestown, N. J.

A mid-October wedding was celebrated here Wednesday afternoon in Christ Church when Miss Lillian E. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith was united in marriage to Mr. William R. Hoffman, of Philadelphia. The services were performed at three o'clock by the Rev. R. Bowden Shepherd. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Smith. Her cousin Miss Beatrice Smith, and niece, Miss Emma Smith, were flower girls. The groomsmen were Mr. Raymond Davey, of Philadelphia. The ushers were Mr. Fred Smith, brother, and Mr. John Smith, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine with a satin train and carried a prayer book and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was dressed in yellow French braid, wore a picture hat and carried yellow dahlias. The mother of the bride wore a blue silk gown.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will reside at 612 N. 55th Street, Phila., after their return from a wedding trip.

Rev. R. B. Shepherd Accepts Appointment as Archdeacon.

The Rev. R. Bowden Shepherd, rector of Christ Church, Riverton, has been appointed Archdeacon of the Diocese of New Jersey. This position will require Mr. Shepherd to resign the Riverton parish and move to Trenton so that he can devote his whole time to the mission work of the Diocese, that is the care and oversight under the Bishop of the Mission Churches, the visiting of the parishes in the interest of Diocesan missions and the maturing of plans for definite missionary extension.

Mr. Shepherd feels that this call so unanimously extended must be accepted. He therefore sent his resignation of the rectorship of Christ Church, Riverton, to the vestry at their meeting on Thursday evening, October 19. Said resignation to have effect December 1, by which time Mr. Shepherd hopes to move to Trenton and have full charge of this important work. No one has been selected to succeed to the Riverton rectorship and the vestry will not hurriedly fill the vacancy.

The tenth anniversary of Forest No. 5, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, was fittingly celebrated in Camden last night and notwithstanding the inclement weather over 2,000 Tall Cedars participated in the parade.

At the Third Regiment Armory, following the parade, there was a competitive drill between the uniformed rangemen of the different forests. The assemblage was called to order by Grand Tall Cedar Flagg, who introduced Mayor Ellis, who welcomed the visitors to the city. Then, in the order named, the following were called upon to make short talks:

William L. Blandhard, supreme Tall Cedar, of Newark; C. Fowler Cline, junior deputy supreme Tall Cedar, of Philadelphia, and Charles Bowden, historical committee, Camden. The other supreme officers present were Charles H. Brelsford, senior deputy supreme Tall Cedar, of Philadelphia, John M. Wright, supreme scribe, of Trenton, George A. Foot Ball.

Riverton A. C. triumphed over the strong Stratford A. C., of West Philadelphia, by the score of 16-0. The home team played from the start to finish. The Stratford was a much heavier team than the home team, but it was one of the cleanest games ever played. It looked like a score once when Stratford had the ball on Riverton's 10 yard line and our line broke through their line and took the ball back for 25 yards for a loss.

Riverton's back field was fine. Marcy Brown made some fine tackles, Mattis made a run for 25 yards, one of the best plays of the game, Boehme, the strong man, was there. You can count on him to make some gain, while our old time Bill Faunce, one of the oldest players on the team, is still in the game and he is there all the time; in fact all the players on the Riverton team are there at all times.

This Saturday Riverton will line up against the Winton A. C., of Philadelphia, and they say they will give Riverton one of the best games of the year. The manager of the Winton said he will be pleased to score on Riverton A. A. as the home team has not been scored on for four years.

Riverton's weight is 161 lbs. and the team is not only heavy but fast.

On Saturday, the 28th, we go to Wilmington, where we will line up against the best team of the State of Delaware, the Imperial A. C. It is made up of players from Pennsylvania State, Villanova, Chicago University, Williams and Ursinus Colleges. We will do our best. The Riverton team leave Broad street station at 1:22, so line the merry crowd and help to bring home the long end of the score.

Don't forget to be on hand this Saturday and see the Winton A. C. The game starts at 3:30 sharp. Don't forget the man that brings the hat around. It takes something to play the game.

Looking for Ducks, Found Apples.

Last Friday night James Satterthwaite lost 25 ducks. He notified Chief of Police Mattis, giving his suspicions as to who took them. The local police force were told to look out for them. While in quest of the ducks among the baggage of some Italians who were leaving Riverton for Philadelphia on the Saturday afternoon train, they discovered a considerable quantity of apples, hidden in dress suit cases. It developed that they had been taken from the orchards of J. L. Lippincott by men who worked on the place. Three of them, Mulek Jaune, Fulseo Cunes and Columbus Vandaele were arrested. They were discharged on paying the costs and for the apples.

The meetings will be public and the evening services will be especially enjoyable.

The first service.

The convention will begin on Wednesday evening, October 25th, when the Rev. N. J. Wright, superintendent of the Trenton district, will preach by request the sermon to young people which made such an impression at the Malaga camp meeting this summer. The opening song service will be conducted by the convention chorister, and there will be special musical selections.

Musical.

It is with great pleasure that the choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church announce their annual Fall evening, which will begin Friday evening, October twenty-seventh, in the auditorium of the church. The following talent have very kindly consented to assist the choir at this time:

Mrs. Beatrice F. Collin, soprano; Mrs. Marie Hall Brehm, alto; Messrs. Wilson and Arthur Vaughn, violin and piano; Mrs. Frank Bell, organ; Miss Emily Ruffe, pianist; and Miss Carol Becker, pianist. In addition to the very fine piano playing, the choir hope to be able to announce that Mr. Harry Merican, the well-known Philadelphia tenor singer, will also take a prominent part. This will be positively announced next week.

The above programme should certainly appeal to all music lovers in Palmyra and Riverton as an exceptional opportunity to listen to good music. We are confident that an evening of rare enjoyment is awaiting any who may attend.

Mr. John MacNeill, the director of the Palmyra Choral Society, is particularly anxious to have each member of the Society present at the Monday evening rehearsal. Wants License Refunded.

At the October meeting of the township committee Tuesday night George W. McIlhenny, of Riverton, addressed a communication to the committee asking for the return of a license of $10 which he had paid for the privilege of doing business in Palmyra under an ordinance which he understood had been repealed. The clerk was instructed to advise Mr. McIlhenny that the ordinance had not been repealed, and that his claim would be duly considered.

A revised ordinance imposing a license on places of games, amusements, peddlars, etc., passed first and second reading. The clerk was instructed to notify Contractor May to fill in the trenches recently left by him in a dangerous condition in West Palmyra, and John B. Watson to fill in the hole dug by his men at Second and Market to extricate a wagon which became mired at that point.

The contract for paving, curbing and crosswalks on Garfield avenue, was let to Pugh and Hubbard, of Philadelphia, at the following prices: sidewalks, 13% per square foot, curbing 35c per lineal foot, and crosswalks $54.50 each. There was only one other bid, that of Joseph A. Davis, whose figures were 15c a square foot for pavements, 35c per lineal foot for curbing, and $55.00 each for crosswalks.

The following bills were ordered paid: Public Service Gas Co., $237.50; Cinn. E. L. P. & H. Co., 43.56; J. J. Toney, masonry, 40.00; P. R. Grab, 40.00; James H. Williams, wk on sts., 5.00; Seel Bros., printing, 6.50; H. J. Toney, 4.00; A. M. Beckenbach, 2.65; Jos. Shaffer, 474.25; Wm. Mann Co., 2.25.

Field Club Defeats All Schoolmates.

In a game of foot ball here last Saturday the F. C. demonstrated that they can still play foot ball—both the old and new style. R. Gibbons made four out of the five touchdowns, three of which were from forward passes. Two of these passes were perfect but the other one he had to almost take out of one of the opponents' grasp which he did with the utmost ease, and then ran about 25 yards for the touchdown. The other score was made by George Durgin, who picked up a fumble and ran about 25 yards for another score. Only one point on touchdowns was kicked and this was by C. Durgin. The team was weak in this department last year and should practice at this particular point every time they get a chance. The kick off was also weak, but as Gibbons had an off day in kicking, this does not cause Manager Keene any worry.

The backfield is composed of George C. Durgin, Powell Thatcher and Arthur Wright. The Durgin brothers are veterans and played their usual game, but the surprise of the day was the work of the two new men. Thatcher seems a little weak on defense but makes up for offense, while Wright is just the same. J. Fry took George Durgin's place at all back in the third period and played a creditable game, making a long turn of 50 yards and was only downed on the 10-yard line. Too much credit cannot be given the line as they were matched against a line every bit, if not heavier, than themselves. I. Saar was matched against a man weighing at least 225 lbs. and held him every time, and that his game. Hinkle and Gibbons on the ends can play as well as any on defense, but Hinkle does not seem able to pick his holes as well as his partner in going after the forward passes.

Tony Boehme will be out next Saturday—as he is another fast man he should strengthen the team in all departments. Paul Miller and Seth Matlack are also coming out. Bell was expected out this Saturday but disappointed us. Bell has never been very dependable and if he intends to make a place on the team he will have to hustle.

This Saturday we play the F. C., of Germantown. This is a new team on our list but comes with a long pedigree. The attendance last Saturday was very scarce but hope to have a much better crowd this week.

Don't forget game is called at 3.30 p. m., and the admission is 15c.

ROOTER.

Palmyra H. S. and West Phila. High Fight to a Tie.

The second game of the Palmyra High School was played on alien soil, and, although greatly out-weighted, they held their opponents to a 0-0 score, but it seems as if they should have come out victors. That is as if the team had played anywhere near as well as they played against Cheltenham High. They passed out to get their forward passes off right and the interference was weak and the opposing defense could break it up every time. The local boys only made two end runs of any account. One was made by Dargin, while the other was contributed by Baldwin Prickett. The only way Palmyra could gain was by "Skeets" Goldberg kicking. Skeets gets his kicks off in grand style, and until his ends are well down the field and placing them nicely. The line is still weak, but this could be overcome with persistent work on the part of the coaches.

Field Club Base Ball Team Elects Captain for 1912.

At a reception tendered The Field Club base ball team by ex-Captain Keil at his home, Russell Gibbons was elected captain for the season of 1912. Gibbons is the classy little short stop and should make a fine captain. Thomas Griffenburgh was nominated as manager and he and Gibbons should make some last team out of the squad.

Captain Keil was congratulated on the showing of his team this year and as Manager Plaff was absent little Andy will have to be content with what the fellows tell him. The meeting adjourned after refreshments were served.

Palmyra High Disappointed.

Both the High School and the rooters were disappointed Wednesday when the game between Bordentown High and the local High School had to be called off on account of wet grounds. The game was called off in the morning, but it is a safe bet that the game would have been played had they waited until noon. However it is best not to take any chances on injuring any of the young players on treacherous ground.

The next home game will be with the Burlington High at the West End grounds, Tuesday, October 24th, at 3.30 p. m. Admission 10c.

Cuts White Man, Goes Free.

Frank Johns, of East Riverton, colored, aged 17, was arraigned before Recorder Coddington this morning charged with assault and battery on William Stack.

Stack drives an ice wagon for L. A. Weikman, of Palmyra. On Wednesday, while Stack was driving with a load of ice from the ice plant at East Riverton, in company with William Cook and George O'Neill on another wagon, Johns got on the back of Cook's wagon. Cook put him off. He clambered on again and Stack ordered him off. Johns invited them to put him off. Stack accepted the invitation and got off his wagon. As he did so Johns climbed down from the back of Cook's wagon and O'Neill and Cook both testified that Johns struck Stack in the head with something that looked like brass knuckles. At any rate Stack went down and out.

Johns claimed that he struck with a key, and exhibited to the court a key with the handle wrapped with some material which made it easy to hold in the hand in such a manner that when the end projected between the fingers, it could easily produce such wounds as those inflicted on Stack. Witness Cook fell he was hurried to Riverton by his companions, where he was treated by Dr. Marcy. Harvey Hooks, who drives for Louis Corner, said he saw the fracas, and said that Stack struck the first blow. The lawyer who represented Johns had warrants issued for the arrest of Cook and O'Neill, charged with the assault and battery on his client. He gave the court to understand that if the case against Johns was discharged the others would not be pressed. All three charges were discharged.

Stack, who was detained at his home by his injuries, was represented by his mother.

Palmyra Girl Robbed by Cousin of Beulah Binford.

Miss Lavinia Hart, of Broad street, Palmyra, had the unpleasant distinction of being robbed of $30 by a cousin of Beulah Binford, the woman in the Beattie murder trial. Miss Hart had known the Binford girl, who gave her name as Florence, but a few days when she was invited to dinner at Green's Hotel, where Miss Binford was stopping.

Miss Hart left her pocketbook containing $30 belonging to her employer, in Miss Binford's room. Soon after the son was served Miss Binford excused herself for a minute and left the table. When she did not return Miss Hart became suspicious and went to the room of her hostess. She did not find her, but did find that her pocketbook and $30 were missing. She gave the alarm at once and Miss Binford was arrested at Broad street station just as she was about to take a train for New York. She admitted her guilt, said she was a cousin to the notorious Beulah, and had come to Philadelphia to get a place on the stage. She was committed to prison in default of $400 bail by Magistrate Scott, of the Central Police Court.

Spiritism Said to Be Demoniac.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demonic control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victims, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but ten cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. Enclose five two-cent stamps to the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Now, it happened that Jules that very day did offer the Prussians considerable assistance in the capture of the French army for a consideration. He didn't care if Lucille gave information of the Prussians to the French; but, having a good opinion of the Prussians, he thought it would be better to work to aid them. "Give me a kiss," he said.

"Wait a moment," she said," replied Lucille. The lieutenant looked about him and saw no one else in the room. He waited a long time, but no Lucille came. Then, returning to Jules, who had set down the candle, Boyer let drive a blow, taking Jules under the chin—a boxing feat he had learned from the French. He was so surprised and landed him on the floor. Before Jules knew what had transformed a beautiful girl into such a fury Boyer sprang on him, pulled open his jaws and bit him in the neck. He was so surprised and landed him on the floor. Before Jules knew what had transformed a beautiful girl into such a fury Boyer sprang on him, pulled open his jaws and bit him in the neck.

Jules was now in a position where he could do nothing but wait for the Prussians' movements nor make a noise. The latter mounted his box, his nose to the nuger hole and listened. He heard enough to learn the route that the Prussians were taking, the time of the advance and the dates of their probable arrival at Metz, which was practically what M. de MacMahon wanted.

Unwillingly Jules sat on the floor looking at the object of his love with increasing wonder. He still had no suspicion that his Lucille was a spy, and he was not at all aware of her man. As soon as Boyer had landed him all he cared to know from since he got down from his perch. He had feared that, when seen, needed, some one would come to his aid, but he had gathered an armful, and as he was about to pass out, remembering how Jules had bothered him with his attentions, he took a last look at her with a few stinging kicks, which the fellow could neither resent nor complain of.

Boyer went upstairs, put the wood down in the kitchen, went out of the room and closed the door behind him.

He reached Marshal MacMahon's headquarters, donned his uniform and reported the information he had gathered.

The Mosquito Problem.

"The Mosquito Problem" as presented by Prof. Edward A. Ayers in the auditorium of the public school Tuesday evening before about two hundred interested auditors, was intensely interesting and highly instructive.

By means of a microprojector the speaker showed the breeding places of the mosquito and traced its development from infancy to mischievous maturity. It is a red devil and girls present to make it their special personal duty to see that stagnant water is not allowed to stand about in little hollows, old tin cans, flower pots, etc., for a week or ten days, and thus become breeding places for mosquitoes. For while the egg of the mosquito may hatch in the wet grass, the wriggler must have water in which to develop into a full-grown mosquito.

In a most entertaining manner Prof. Ayers showed how man is inoculated with malaria, yellow and typhoid fever by the mosquito and quoted statistics giving the number of deaths caused by these diseases in the United States—about fifteen thousand from malaria alone in a year. He then proceeded to detail how the war of extermination against the mosquito should be conducted, laying particular stress on the fact that nothing less than complete extermination would avail, owing to the prolific breeding of these insects.

The female lays about four hundred eggs at one time and these hatch out under favorable conditions in a few days, and soon become full-fledged mosquitoes. Contrary to popular belief, mosquitoes live for months, and the female can hibernate through the winter and lay a batch of eggs in the spring which will hatch out. Thus it will be seen that the problem can never be solved piecemeal, for if only a few mosquitoes are left alive and a few places left for them to breed, there will soon be just as many of them as ever. The only way the mosquito will ever be exterminated will be to destroy all of its breeding places of one time. Marshes must be drained, puddles filled or coated with kerosene oil, and all stagnant waters flushed at the same time. The valuable lands that will be opened up to agricultural development through draining it to get rid of the mosquito will alone defray the expenses of the war of extermination. There are seventy-seven million acres of swamp land that could be thus reclaimed. What irrigation is doing for the West, drainage should do for the East.

The problem must be met sometime. With the facts now available concerning the deaths and illness traceable directly to the mosquito it is nothing short of criminal negligence to let the matter drift along, making a futile individual attempt here and there to deal with a problem that can only be solved by concerted action. Such measures will never cost any less than they will now. The matter will be laid before the Legislature this winter and an effort made to so clearly demonstrate the necessity of concerted and immediate action that the requisite legislation will be passed.

Paper Bottles for Milk.

Some of the milk companies are trying out new paper bottles, stiffened and made air and milk tight with refined paraffin, white wax. Paper impregnated with paraffin looks and feels oily and greasy, but handlers of such paraffined paper need have no fear of getting grease even on the most delicate fabric. Of course, if paraffin is heated and melted cloth will take it up, and then it is difficult to get out. Nothing is cleaner or fresher from germs than pure paraffin, and it may be injected right under a man's skin without causing any trouble.

The One-hundredth Anniversary of the Asbury M. E. Church.

Yesterday, October 26, 1911, the one-hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Asbury M. E. Church, of Cinnaminson township, Burlington county, N. J., was held in the church and was an occasion of great interest, being largely attended by people from far and near.

The morning exercises began with a devotional service. The hymn, "God will take care of you," was beautifully rendered, followed by prayer by the Rev. John R. Mason, a former pastor of the church. Just prior to the sermon of the morning by the Rev. J. H. Payran, who many years ago was also pastor there, the present pastor made a few remarks in which he urged diligence in the work, that Methodism may not die out.

The Rev. J. H. Payran, in the beginning of his discourse, which was high class and able, observed that it would be a long time before Methodism would die and that there is no danger. The text was "At midnight behold the bridegroom cometh, so ye go out to meet him." That Christ comes to govern the world and is succeeding, he said, is in the fact that war and slavery are much more depreciated than in the past, and that wonderful moral changes are going on: the indications being that the saloon is to be closed and the reformatory and the prison are to be less and less needed. He told his hearers they need not prepare for death, but prepare to act the admonitions of Jesus and all will be well. Live right! He declared that the Christian has something better than base ball and foot ball, so much in vogue by the masses.

The Rev. W. R. Blackman led the singing, which was a pleasing feature. Dinner and supper were served in the basement of the church.

The afternoon exercises were opened by different pastors citing some of their experiences, among whom were Rev. Paul S. Meiner, pastor of the Moravian Church at Five Points, who said that notwithstanding the difficulty in sustaining a church organization, Christians must work faithfully and stick it out. The presiding elder had charge in the afternoon. Hymn "The Old Time Religion" was sung by the choir and the congregation with much spirit just before the sermon of Rev. John R. Mason, whose text was "Walk about Zion, etc." Mr. Mason told his hearers among many striking things that 400,000,000 people at the beginning of the twentieth century had accepted the Christian religion, and that the church has never turned a deaf ear to the heathen in any land, and that the kingdom of this world will in time become the Kingdom of God. This discourse, delivered by an orator, was a very strong and impassioned plea for Christianity.

School Notes.

Mr. Wendell is unable to attend to his school duties because of a severe attack of bronchitis. He hopes to report again next Monday.

Miss Gertrude Roberts is substituting for Mr. Wendell during his enforced absence.

Several new pupils have been admitted to the schools during the past week.

The boys of the Athletic Association have made a thorough canvass of the town west of the railroad and gathered at least two wagon loads of newspapers which they intend to sell, using the proceeds for the benefit of the Association. The assistance given to the boys in this way is very much appreciated by them.

They expect to visit other sections of the town a week from Saturday, so save your magazines and newspapers and help the school boys.

The members of the foot ball squad are putting up a tackling dummy on the old school grounds and hope to put in considerable time learning how to tackle properly. This practice is needed by every member of the team and it is expected that the playing in the future games will be considerably improved.

Francis Cole, the captain and full back of the team, will be out of the game for a few days because of a sprained wrist.

Leon Harris has been moved from tackle to full back and with more practice will prove a capable substitute to Cole.

The next game will be played with a team representing Villa Nova College, Saturday afternoon, October 28. The Villa Nova boys desire the game played on their grounds, but efforts are being made to have the game transferred to the local field this week.

Next week the team will travel to Beverly and tackle the Public School team of that town on Tuesday afternoon. A return game will be played on the home grounds Friday afternoon.

Russell Hyllon has joined the foot ball squad and is playing a good game.

Wesley Lloyd has been playing so well the last few days that he is likely to displace one of the regulars.

The kindergarten department is again in charge of Miss Parker.

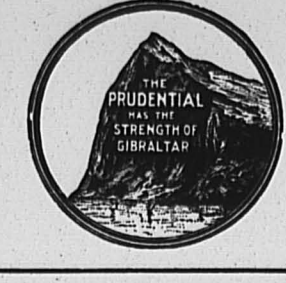

A schedule of the work conducted in this interesting class will be published later.

Foot Ball.

Owing to the heavy rain last Saturday the Winton A. C., of West Philadelphia, called the game off, as the managers could not get the men together, but they hope to set a date later in the season.

The team will go to Wilmington this Saturday. Train leaves Riverton 12.22 to connect with train at 1.22 at Broad Street Station. Riverton will line up against the strong Imperial A. C., of the above town. Capt. Walter Wright has given the team some hard practice three days this week, and some new signals will be used in the game. The team is in fine condition and there is no reason why Riverton cannot bring home the long end of the score. Riverton will take sixteen players along, so that there will be some change in the lineup, but every man on the team knows each one's signals, and each one can play any position.

Wilmington players say that this will be the best game of the season, so come along and enjoy the crowd and everybody will enjoy themselves.

The players will line up and the weight of each man is as follows:

O. Faunce, 125; W. Faunce, 145; F. Holvick, 170; R. Holvick, 145; M. Brown, 155; H. Brown, 163; Hutzell, 160; Lloyd, 170; Wright, 133; Boehmer, 177; Martin, 155; McCulloch, 178; Armstrong, 170; Dumphy, 138; Thomas, 155; Truax, 153. Umpire, Keating; line-man, Kern.

On November 4 Riverton will line up with the strong Camden team that played Riverton 0-0 last year. There will be a large crowd to go with the team from this town, Palmyra and Philadelphia.

The Log Fires in Warwick Castle.

As to Warwick Castle, where I arrived yesterday morning (1884), one enters by the fortress gate. Its aspect is most severe, its courtyard the most somber, its hall the most enormous, its furniture the most gothic and its style the most perfect that you can possibly imagine. Everything suggests the feudal system. A large and rapid river bathes the foot of the great dark battlemented towers. The monstrous noise of the water is interrupted by the crackling of the great fires which burn in the gigantic fireplaces. In the hall huge logs are piled upon the dogs which stand on slabs of polished marble, and each log requires two men to put it on the fire—"Memoria of the Duchess of Dino."

First Normal School.

The first normal school was founded in Rheims, France, in 1825. There was no beating of big drums or flaunting of bunting on that day, and yet it would be difficult to say what contemporary event can compare with it in value to humanity. One of the good old pastors of Rheims found out by questioning the teachers in his parish that they were teaching according to no rule—in other words, were not teaching at all—and he forthwith began talking the steps which were to lead to the founding of a school which would teach the teachers how to teach the children. He little dreamed of the wide reaching results of his action.—New York American.

How to Find Your Soul Mate.

There is an old, old superstition which comes from ancient Egypt, and so interesting is it that it is strange palmists do not more frequently mention it. It is that unless the important lines on the hands of two people resemble one another these two are not really soul mates. Look at the line of the heart—that long line across the palm of the hand beneath the bases of the fingers. Notice the thin and generally broken one that rises toward it from the wrist. These are the two above all others that also "I be" alike in the hands of a betrothed pair. Call it coincidence, what you will, this resemblance will be found in almost every happily married middle aged pair.—Detroit Free Press.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

On Tuesday, October 31st, the Board of Registry and Election will sit in the Fire House from 1 o'clock to 9 P. M., for the purpose of revising and correcting the registry list, and to add any names of voters that have been missed or overlooked when making their canvass. Look up the poll list which you will find hanging in the post office and see that you are registered. If not, go to the Fire House on above date and have your name registered.

In voting on election day (November 7th) be careful to mark the cross X in the square to the right of the person for whom you wish to vote: thus [X]

Any mark outside the square will not be counted.

Do not mark the cross X with a red or blue pencil, as that makes it a marked ballot and will be rejected. Use nothing in marking your ballot but a black pencil.

The fair which was held in Y. M. C. A. Hall last Saturday evening was very successful. The booths were prettily decorated and presented somewhat of an unusual effect. The High School orchestra furnished very creditable music and many favorable comments were heard.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.

Delegates from Fifty Towns Present.
Prominent Speaker from New York Makes Evening Address.

Rev. N. J. Wright, D. D., made the address Wednesday evening at the rally service which opened the twenty-third annual convention of the Epworth League of the Trenton district. Rev. Wright is superintendent of the Bridgeton district and was one of the prominent speakers at the Malaga camp meeting this summer.

Thursday morning the services opened with devotion, led by Rev. E. L. Jewett. This was followed by a study of the Bible, conducted by Rev. Alfred Wagge, D. D. Rev. Samuel Sargent, pastor, and Alfred R. Bradley, president of the local society, welcomed the visitors, and Harry D. Conover, of Trenton, the district president responded. The committees for the new year were then appointed, and Rev. A. Demaris, of Vineland, addressed the audience on "The Bible and the Epworthian," and showed how they had a very important relation. The meeting was then open for discussion, which was followed with the closing devotion led by J. V. Bickford, of Princeton.

Dinner was served to the guests in the basement of the church.

At 1.30 the afternoon session was opened with a short devotional service led by Mrs. I. Lorene Smyth, of Pennsylvania. After this there was a business meeting, lasting until 3 o'clock, when an address was made by Prof. Ernest A. Smith, of Princeton University, on "Mission Study: The Modern Revelation of God's Will," after which he had a model mission study class on the platform.

At the same hour, in the Sunday School room, the Junior League conference was being conducted by Rev. William Stone. Later this was merged into the Junior rally, which was attended by about 200 young people from all the river towns.

Rev. Stone demonstrated definite graded work in child training, which included an object lesson in electricity, and Mrs. I. O. Horner, of Trenton, gave a very interesting and stable object lesson on the twenty-third psalm. Samuel G. Shaw, of Trenton, led the closing devotion.

At 8 o'clock the convention address was made by Rev. William I. Haven, of New York, corresponding secretary of the American Bible Society. He took for his subject "The English Bible and the Life of the English Speaking People." He showed how the English people had been supremely influenced by their own Bible, how they had shared it with other Nations and that it had been the means of carrying civilization wherever it went; how the influence of the Bible was practically incalculable in all their preoccupations, and that without the Bible the Nation would be very much behind their present status.

Rev. Jewett closed the convention with a short consecration service.

The meetings were held in the Epworth M. E. Church, which was attractively decorated with hundreds of red and white pennants. Over the altar a design 6x3 feet was illuminated at night by electricity. This added very much to the general appearance of the decorations and particularly to the beautiful flowers which adorned the altar.

About one hundred and seventy-five delegates attended the services.

Palmyra Choral Society.
The Palmyra Choral Society announced their first concert for the season 1911-1912, Tuesday evening, November 28th at the Lyceum, Riverton. The society will be heard in compositions by Strauss, Piniotti, Panning and Cowen. They will have the assistance at this concert of Marie Stone Langston, contralto, and John K. Witzmann, violinist. Both of these artists are of marked ability and well known in musical circles. Miss Langston having appeared as soloist for the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Philadelphia Operatic Society. Mr. Witzmann, particularly, will be remembered for his connections as assisting concertmaster and soloist of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

This concert will be a rare treat musically, and judging from the numerous applications for associate membership tickets, the list will necessarily soon be closed, owing to the limited capacity of the hall. It is advisable for those not having already renewed their membership for the season, to do so at an early date.

Address all communications to the secretary, Ida M. Rudnick.

Musical.
The choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church expect to give the semi-annual musical Friday evening, October 27th, 1911, at 8.15, in the auditorium of the church. The following talent will assist on this occasion:

Mrs. Beatrice F. Collin, soprano; Mrs. Marie Hall Brethel, mezzo; Messrs. Wilson and Arthur Vaughan, piano and violin; Mrs. Frank Bell, organ; Miss Emily Ruff, elocutionist; Miss Carol Becker, piano; and Mr. Harry F. Merrikon, tenor.

THE ROBIN HOOD OF PENNSYLVANIA.

"Lewis the Robber," Who often stole from the Rich and Occasionally Gave to the Poor.

In the North American of Sunday, October 29, there will appear a story based upon the life of one of the most interesting characters in Pennsylvania criminal history.

This man, "Lewis the Robber," held the state in terror in the early part of the nineteenth century. Yet occasionally he paused in the pursuit of his nefarious business of counterfeiting and highway robbery, cheating when the opportunity presented itself, to fill the role of devoted father and husband and friend of the poor and distressed.

He might be termed the Pennsylvania parallel of "Robin Hood." No Pennsylvanian can afford to miss this fascinating recital of the career of this remarkable man.

Palmyra High Swamps Burlington High, 50-0.

Burlington was supposed to have a pretty good team and the rooters thought that they would at least put up a creditable showing against Palmyra, but as Palmyra was feeling fine they simply played with them, rolling up a score of fifty points while their own goal line was not even threatened—Six Smith went through the entire Burlington team for a touchdown on the kick off, and see him dodging, throwing off tackles and using his straight arm was a sure treat. Of course the rest of the team was there to help him, which they did, but to run through your enemy's whole team is some stunt no matter who the team might happen to be. The team outweighed Burlington a little but Palmyra would have beaten almost any of the school teams in this part of the county from the way they played Tuesday. The new style play was used throughout by Palmyra and in all they must have tied the forward pass about thirty times only five of which were not completed, end runs and trick plays were made in abundance, while line bucking was left for some team with a stronger pair of ends. Goldsboro at quarter is the shining light on the team as he uses his head in every play and as soon as he finds a weakness he shows no mercy. Tuesday he found out that the visitors could not defend themselves from a forward pass as you can readily see by the number of times it was used. Calvin Durgin, Bill Holt and "Wallo," Greene played a star game, but the whole team would have to be mentioned if I took up each one, as I will say that the rest of the boys are there and hope they will keep up their good work.

The next home game will be on Monday, October 30, when they play Mount Holy High at West Palmyra; Bordentown High on the following Wednesday and another game on Friday is a pretty hard schedule for a school team.

Ponts.
The line has improved 50 per cent. since the last game.

Long runs were plentiful Tuesday—about ten gains of twenty yards or more. C. Durgin sure can kick off.

Goldsboro and Smith are about the fastest men on the team.

Prickett, as manager, is a hard one to beat. It is hard to put anything over on him.

Palmyra only had to kick once from scrimmage.

Burlington's line was light, while their backfield was very heavy.

Three games in one week is going some. ONLOOKER.

Rain Prevents Game Field Club and Germantown.

The Field Club foot ball team and rooters were forced to see another Saturday go by without a game of foot ball on account of rain. While it was not raining very hard the ground was in such a condition that to play might have meant injury to anyone of the players on account of the slippery field and it was a wise stunt of Manager Keene to put the game off, but if he had let it be up to the team it is a sure bet the game would have been played as everyone of them are anxious to make good and a little thing like rain would not dampen their fever.

The team are in for some good old time rooting as a large number have purchased Field Club pennants—mostly the female sex of course, but they can make more noise than the stronger sex if they only have the will. If you have not as yet got one see George M. Durgin and he will fill your wants.

This Saturday we are scheduled to play the Mystix team of North Philadelphia. This team has a great reputation and The Field Club boys are going to try and spoil it. We were scheduled to play the Herman F. C. but owing to a misunderstanding had to cancel same. Don't forget Saturday at the West End grounds at 3.30 p. m. Admission 15c. ROOTER.

Christ Church, Palmyra.
Services next Sunday in charge of the Rev. W. H. Brown, of Bristol, Pa. 8.00 a. m., celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

11 a. m., choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist and sermon.

3 p. m., Sunday School

8 p. m., evensong and sermon.

Library for Children.
A library for children is a comparatively new thing in London. A new one in Manresa-road, Chelsea, is a model of its kind. It had its origin in a boys' room, concerning which Earl Cadogan, when he opened it made the fierce joke that "as everyone knows, a boy's room is better than his company." Out of this boys' room grew the children's library, a place of deep silence, where boys and girls meet for the common pursuit of knowledge.

Couldn't Understand It.
A farmer's wife became insane, and to a friend who tried to console him, the farmer exclaimed: "I can't understand what caused her to go crazy. I hope I'll be struck dead if I state telling you the truth when I tell you that she ain't been out of the kitchen a day in 20 years."

(24) Verses 11-13—Is national righteousness always a cause of national prosperity?

Lesson for Sunday, Nov. 5th, 1911. (Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Lincoln, D. D.)
Golden Text—The Lord preserveth all them that love him. Ps. cxi. 20.

(1) Verse 1—In what city did the events of this lesson occur?

(2) What were the circumstances which caused Mordecai to rend his clothes and put on sackcloth?

(3) Why was Haman so angry and so bitter, no matter how awful the calamity, for a man of God in those days to experience or show such great grief as Mordecai and the Jews did?

(4) What are the benefits of prayer and fasting, in the presence of an impending calamity?

(5) How did the actions of Mordecai suggest that we should never give up trying to reach God, to prevent such a condition that to play might have meant injury to anyone of the players on account of the slippery field and it was a wise stunt of Manager Keene to put the game off, but if he had let it be up to the team it is a sure bet the game would have been played as everyone of them are anxious to make good and a little thing like rain would not dampen their fever.

(6) Verse 4—Who was Esther, and how came she to be the wife of this Persian King?

(7) Is it grief as necessary as joy in the life of every person? Why or why not?

(8) Is it always right for us "to weep with them that weep?"

(9) What in substance was the decree which had been issued against the Jews?

(10) From the actions of Haman, what would you say is the strongest passion which makes men cruel and vindictive?

(11) Verses 10-12—What were Esther's reasons for not wanting to go into the king, with the request to save her people?

(12) What were probably the reasons for each of her doubts, especially to all who should enter the king's inner court unbidden by him?

(13) What if any reason is there to suppose that, as Esther had not been called by the king for thirty days, Haman was in the working some scheme to keep them apart?

(14) Verses 13-14—Why was it probable if there had been no interference with Haman's plans, that Esther would have been slain with the rest of the Jews?

(15) In carrying out his purpose has God generally more than one plan with which to do it? If so, give an example.

(16) Was it true that Esther had been, in the providence of God, placed upon the throne for this crisis, and is it also true that God has a special purpose in life for every person? Give your reasons.

(17) Verses 15-17—In what respects did Esther show the spirit of a heroine, a martyr and a wise woman?

(18) Are such noble qualities as Esther possessed possible for every body? Give your reasons.

(19) What is the benefit of getting others to join us in fasting and prayer? When we anticipate a great calamity? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(20) Chap. x. 1-3 What is the difference between a coward and a brave man?

(21) Does God ever disappoint a courageous man?
