and latticed with nail heads or combined with satin.
Black Tricotine embroidered with blue floss—a French idea being shown for the first time.
Tricotee-and-Paulette combinations, with long flying panels and distended pockets.
Plain-tailored Duvelines with narrow belts and the daintiest of lace collars and vestees.
Oxford Cloths modeled on coat lines, particularly the redingote effects, and some finished with high standing collar.
Serges with clusters of accordion platings, and serges embroidered in metal thread.
Satin-and-serge in many combinations, some with soft touches of lace at the neck.
Velveteens on straight lines or with saucy little peplums, some embroidered or braid-trimmed, some with dainty lace collars.
Tricotees slender of line and easy-fitting, with a slender belt, or a low wide girle.
Marquissettes, new and so attractive, some with embroidery.

Dresses for Afternoon Wear,
$25.00 to $150.00

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.
In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention.
The army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

BELOGRADE—The University of Belgrade is one of the institutions aided by the American Red Cross in Serbia. For the reopening of the university, after being closed five years, the Red Cross furnished a quantity of furniture and materials of various kinds, and also made possible the maintenance of the college "mess" by furnishing certain American food products to supplement the limited amount of food that could be purchased locally.

Women Glad Edwards Won.
This morning's mail we received from the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association a long letter for publication in which the following was the first paragraph:

"The election results are very satisfactory to the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association," announces its President, Mrs. E. F. Feickert. "We have more than the necessary votes pledged to win the Federal Suffrage Amendment in both Houses of the Legislature, and with Edward L. Edwards as Governor we see no possible chance of failure."

Wednesday morning some of the disappointed Republicans hereabouts declared that the defeat of their candidate was not due to the "ewe" alone, but that the women of the State had aided in the election of Edwards, owing to his stand on the suffrage question. We were loath to believe this. Since remote history man has been prone to blame all his woes and disappointments on the "ewe woman." Just that the womanhood of New Jersey could give their approval to a man who openly appealed to the worst element in the State for the vote to elect him to the highest office in the Commonwealth, was unthinkable. Nothing short of a direct statement from the woman leader of the women could have convinced us.

When women can join hands with such forces as backed Edwards, what reason is there to expect politics will be "purified" by their advent into the arena? Can they be expected to be any less scrupulous in the exercise of the franchise once they have secured it, than they have been in their efforts to get it?

Woman's Auxiliary.

The Diocesan fall meeting is to be held in Riverton and will be of great importance, as reports of the Triennial will be made. Opens with 10:30 service. Church of the Holy Trinity, Luncheon in parish house from 1 to 2, followed by afternoon session.

Cuthbert Plays Good Golf.

Playing over the local course last Saturday with Dr. C. S. Mills, F. W. Lockwood, and his brother David Cuthbert, who is professional at Grand Merc, P. Q. Canada, Duncan Cuthbert, the professional at the Riverton Country Club, broke the record of the course. Out-Far 4 3 4 5 4 4 4 5-37. Cuthbert 4 3 4 5 4 4 5-37.

In-Par 4 3 5 4 5 4 4 5-37. Cuthbert 4 3 5 3 5 5 4 5-37.

This is considered a very good score, Riverton having one of the hardest courses in the country. The best score done before Cuthbert was 79, by Edward Cliney, one of the best players around Philadelphia.

The war activities of the Young Women's Christian Association, such as hostess houses, social centers, etc., are well known, but the splendid peace plans of the organization are accomplishing as much good, and are as far reaching, helping millions of women and girls at this critical time with girls' clubs, recreation centers, and above all, holding before them the highest Christian ideals. Burlington County has had a Y. W. C. A. for the past two years, the interest in which is growing steadily.

Miss Eleanor Mercer Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. MacLean Jones, made her debut at a tea given by her uncle and aunt, Mrs. Frank Jones, which was held Monday afternoon at their residence, 2043 Spruce street, Philadelphia.

The annual meeting of the Riverton branch of the Needlework Guild of America for the collection and distribution of garments was held in the Porch Club Wednesday. The money collected amounted to over $60, and 1,200 garments were taken in.

An automobile belonging to R. W. Rogers took fire in Clinton Woolston's garage from a short-circuited wire, Monday night, and was slightly damaged. The Riverton company turned out, but attendants at the garage put the fire out before the apparatus arrived.

The Roosevelt Memorial Fund collection was continued during this week in order to give some of the collectors time to finish their territories. Up to last night the amount on the books of the treasurer was nearly $800, with some contributions still to be heard from, which may bring it up to $1,000.

The campaign in Burlington county was brought to a close on Monday with a tour of the principle towns of the county by gubernatorial nominee Bugbee. State Treasurer William T. Read and Congressman Isaac Bacharach besides nearly all the county candidates and a number of other Republicans. The stop at Riverton was made at 11:40. A long literary was arranged and frequent speeches were made by Mr. Bugbee, Treasurer Read and others. The campaigning party put in a full day and made every stop on scheduled time. Ex-Mayor Flagg, of Riverton, had the tour in charge and William J. Haines, of Mount Holly, acted as his assistant. The trip was made under the auspices of the Republican County Committee, a number of the members of which body went along. About eighty automobiles were in the line.

Only by being and doing do we bring about what we wish. Many dreams and never gets.—H. A. Price.

Bag Pipes at the Hut.

Tuesday, November 11th, Armistice Night, will be the opening of the Hut and will be a big feature. There will be no entertainment, but dancing will begin promptly at eight o'clock and the committee expects a great night, with attendance limited so that dancing will be a pleasure.

The following Tuesday night, November 18th, the famous Caladonian Pipe Band in full Highland costume will entertain. These men served overseas with the "Ladies from Hell" as the German called Highland Regiments. This is a band of pipers with accompanying instruments, who will give a genuine Highland musical consisting of instruments, music, solos and band, solos and choruses of Scotch ballads and some of Harry Lauder's best pieces. Highland dances including the Highland Fling, sword dance, fies, reels, etc. Detailed announcements of the program will be made the coming Tuesday night.

Discharged Revolver in Schoolroom.

At the meeting of the Board of Education Monday night the principal reported that one of the twelve-year-old pupils had carried his father's revolver to school and fired it off in one of the rooms—accidentally, the boy claimed. Mr. Turner took the weapon from the boy, but returned it to him after school. The same lad and another of about the same age, had also been found smoking cigarettes in the school grounds. When questioned he said he had bought the cigarettes in Riverton, but refused to "give way" the dealer's name.

The Board was disposed to take both of these matters seriously, as it should. The clerk was instructed to acquaint the boys' parents with the facts of the revolver episode, calling their attention to the law which prohibits carrying concealed deadly weapons, and advise them that they were responsible for the actions of a minor child. He was also instructed to write a letter to all dealers in cigarettes in Riverton, calling their attention to the fact that they were violating the law when selling cigarettes to children under sixteen years of age.

The medical committee reported that a case of scarlet fever had been discovered in the kindergarten last week, and that the school building had been fumigated over Sunday.

The medical inspector reported that he had just completed a physical examination of the pupils in the school and that conditions generally were satisfactory. He recommended that the Simon-Binet test be applied to some of the children to ascertain their mental capacity.

The principal reported that the seventh grade had an attendance record of 98.2 last month, the best in the school.

The request of the Parent-Teacher Association for the use of the auditorium and piano for its meetings was granted.

The Boy Scouts made a request for the use of the auditorium one night a month, which was granted.

The report of attendance of pupils from Riverton in the Palmyra High School caused considerable discussion. Some of the pupils during the year had been absent more than half of the time, and it seemed to be the general opinion that regular attendance should be insisted upon and secured, or the privilege of attending high school be withdrawn.

The use of the auditorium was granted to the Christian Endeavor for a play on November 21.

The following bills were ordered paid:

Teachers' salaries $1040 50
Janitor's salary 83 33
Attendant officer 7 50
District Clerk, salary 92 71
Telephone 5 70
Supplies 65 15

"Wets" Elect New Jersey's Governor

Edward L. Edwards, Democrat, won the governorship of New Jersey by a majority of about 14,000 over the Republican opponent, Newton A. K. Hughes. Edwards based his campaign on his appeal to the "wet" element and received a 35,000 lead in Hudson and Essex counties. There is still much need for Red Cross work and your dollar and your influence are needed.

Bugbee received splendid support in Burlington county, where he carried the counties, making big gains in some cases. His losses in Atlantic and Camden Counties were not nearly so heavy as feared.

In Riverton the vote was: Bugbee, 333; Edwards, 105. In Palmyra it was: Bugbee, 283; Edwards, 75. Edwards carried West Palmyra by 80 to 77. The Republican total was considerably below normal here and it is said a lack of interest was manifested. Some Republicans evidently voted the "wet" ticket.

Blanch White received in Riverton 335 against 85, and carried all the Palmyra districts against Tom Shreve for State Senator, 379 to 203. In Riverton, Reeves, for county clerk, won over Abasalom by 297 to 145, and in Palmyra by 372 to 217.

George Rogers, for Freeholder, was strongly supported by his own town, beating Sheddaker, his chief opponent, by 509 to 115. In Riverton Rogers' vote was 331; Sheddaker, 90.

John M. Day, township chairman, was re-elected to the committee over Waller by 376 to 210. Waller's showing was rather unexpected.

The Republican county ticket, including the five freeholder nominees, was victorious. Bugbee's lead was 2,400 and the record of the ticket was down to the clerkship, which was closest, Reeves beating Abasalom by about 600. Abasalom's best showing was in the riverfront town.

Township Candidates A. H. Ruduck, for collector; John W. Shade, assessor; and George J. Spencer, clerk, were unopposed.

There was no contest for the local offices in Riverton. Mayor Bennett received 337 votes; J. W. Attee 348; John C. Geiss, 362; for Council; F. P. Hemphill, clerk, 392; O. H. Mattis, assessor, 379.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. wife of Edward Backwell, died early Saturday morning at her home, 207 Milway, after being ill for several months. Funeral services were held at her late residence, Tuesday morning, conducted by Dr. N. F. Stahl. Interment was made at Hightstown. The deceased leaves a husband and small daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Backwell moved to Riverton from Hightstown about seven years ago.

Patience.

The best things usually require the most patience for their development. A tent may be put up in an hour, but a strong and sturdy building calls for long and careful work. We have seen of patience not only with others, but also with ourselves in the building of character into what we would have it.

Not Necessary.

It isn't absolutely necessary to say something silly to the girl at the cigar counter. The proprietor doesn't require it of customers and the girl isn't paid for listening to senseless chatter.—Edna B. Biddle.

Riverton Wins In Rain.

Despite the rain and heavy down-pour of rain Riverton went over the top with another victory when they defeated the strong Fairview High team, of Gloucester. The boys showed old-time form and looked like real gridiron warriors when they were caked with mud. Lloyd, our only E. F. star, is a tower of strength in the line. Sharp, Jamison and Tees made long runs before the line. Little Tommy Kalmar is holding down left-end like an old vet.

Much credit is due Manager Sonny Wright, getting the team in such fine condition. The boys need your support. To run a first class team and secure good fast teams takes money, so we appeal to you to come out to the game and give them encouragement.

Next week we play Riverside, the team that held us off in the beginning of the season.

Special.

Manager Sonny Wright has received a challenge from a local team which calls itself the Riverton-Holmesburg team. Sonny has not set any date for this game, but will consider it if it comes on. The object of this game will be to get money to help the boys out. We do not mention any names as yet, as the manager, Be Corneer, wishes to keep this a secret, but there will be some of Riverton's old stars in the game and will share the youngsters how the game should be played.

ROOTER.

Started South on Seventy-five Cents, Grand at Riverton.

Robert Hickens, aged eight years, of 528 Lombard street, Philadelphia, decided on Monday that he would spend the chilly season in the sunny Southland. Robert's cash and his winter started were, he said, seventy-five cents and unlimited nerve. He braved the dangers of the Market Street ferry; the bright lights surrounding the sign at the gate of the 437, as well as the aristocratic appearance of the crowd, and he was the first to get on the boat. Unfortunately, perhaps, Robert could produce no part of the seventy-five cents when a representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad demanded fare, and he was indignantly dropped at Riverton. Officer Miller took charge of the youngster, tried to find the boy's parents, but Robert for a time managed to conceal the facts by cheerfully changing his address whenever asked.

Dinner time came. Robert had a royal feed and was then entertained while he waited for his family, which was finally located, but Mrs. Hickens was with much difficulty persuaded that there was such a place as Riverton and induced to take the journey. All of her three hundred pounds arrived at 11:17 with promises of a still warmer reception for Robert when home was reached.

"I am glad, goodness, mister officer," she said, "that you have found my son. I am a mother, I been to Camden, Jersey, but I never heard tell of a Riverton-Jersey before."

Robert assured Officer Miller that he would endeavor to return some time and make his "party call," as he was much impressed with Riverton's hospitality.

K. of C. Masquerade Dance.

A masquerade dance was given in Collins Hall Friday evening by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the K. of C. The room was beautifully decorated and a large number of guests were present. Prizes were given for best costume. Miss Keller, of Camden, received a cut class roll tray for the prettiest; Mrs. King, of Palmyra, best costume; Mrs. Arthur Haines, of Palmyra, a fancy pumpkin head filled with candy for the comic prize. Miss Vinters and Joseph Keating received a beautiful bouquet and a box of candy as the awards in a prize dance.

The patronesses and entertainment committee were Mrs. W. Conlow, Mrs. George Cline, Mrs. Arthur Haines, Mrs. H. H. Haines, Mrs. J. W. Lynch, Mrs. J. Larkin, Mrs. J. Miller and Mrs. Charles MacCrossan, Miss Eleanor Connell.

WORKERS NEEDED TO FIGHT WHITE PLAQUE

National Tuberculosis Association, Which Sponsors Red Cross Seal Sale, Is Conducting Intensive Educational Campaign.

A call for volunteers to fight under the standard of the National Tuberculosis Association and its 100,000 affiliated bodies throughout the country against tuberculosis—humanity's most vicious foe—has been sounded.

A recent health survey, made by the experts of the National Tuberculosis Association, brought to light some startling statistics with regard to the prevalence of the disease. The findings of this survey have revealed a national menace which must be eradicated. The figures show that each year 150,000 persons die of the disease and that there are approximately 2,000,000 cases of tuberculosis in the United States today.

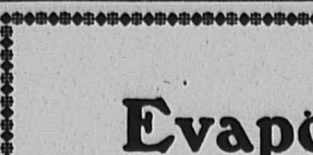

The untold human misery—one who does not know the rules of health, is an indefatigable spreader of the disease. Wherever he goes, he leaves behind him a trail of death.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated bodies have entered upon an intensive nationwide educational campaign. The campaign will be localized and within a short time there will be ample work for many thousands of volunteers.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated bodies are financed largely by the annual sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals. To make possible the carrying out of this campaign, more than 650,000,000 seals will be offered for sale during the holidays. State and local tuberculosis associations have at hand valuable local data regarding the disease and actual conditions in the communities where they are located. The officers of these bodies eagerly welcome inquiries.

Tested 250,000 Miles Three-Point Cantilever Springs Greatest Improvement Since Pneumatic Tires

OVERLAND 4 has been put through the most thorough and severe test possible. 250,000 miles of mountain trails, desert sand, heat, cold, mud and dust, demonstrated the quality of every part of the car long before we began manufacturing.

This remarkable test showed conclusively that Three-Point Cantilever Springs, exclusive with Overland, are the greatest improvement in riding comfort since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

They protect the car from road shocks and prolong the life of every part. They enable the wheels to hold better to the road. They give greater comfort under all road conditions. They do away almost entirely with side sway and rebound which twist and rack the car.

Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Springs at both ends of a 130-inch Spring-base gives the steadiness and smooth riding of the heavy car of long wheelbase.

Equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System to Marshall Divan Spring Upholstery.

SETS THE PACE
22nd Year

The "THOROBRED"
7-passenger Touring Car

THE trend of automobile engineering points to the 8-cylinder car. And good buying judgment points to the Oldsmobile.

We aimed higher than simply pioneering the "eight." We aimed to produce one of moderate price and low maintenance costs, —that had the flexibility, smoothness and abundance of power inherent in the 8-cylinder car.

—that cost as little to buy and operate as the majority of "sixes" and many "fours."

—that would be smartly distinctive, yet characteristically Oldsmobile.

Our aim is attained in the "THOROBRED"—the only popular priced "eight" in which mechanical excellence is combined with rare riding comfort and up-to-the-minute body lines. Oldsmobiles have been the history-makers of motordom; the "THOROBRED" is well worthy to perpetuate the name.

Descriptive literature will be sent upon request, or a demonstration gladly arranged.

RED CROSS SEALS ARE HEALTH AGENTS

Idea Was Originated in This Country in 1908 by Miss Emily P. Bissell, of Wilmington, Del.

FIRST SALE YIELDED $3,000

National Tuberculosis Association, Which Sponsors Sale, Will Place 650,000,000 Seals on Sale to Finance the Fight Against Tuberculosis.

The Red Cross Seal—as millions of Americans know it to day, is an agent of happiness and health. It was originated in 1907 by Miss Emily P. Bissell, of Wilmington, Delaware, who learned through Jacob Rills of somewhat similar seals that were sold in Norway for the purpose of raising funds with which to fight tuberculosis.

Miss Bissell persuaded the American Red Cross to take up the idea with the result that seals were sold in a limited number of communities in 1908. The sale yielded a revenue of approximately $3,000. The Red Cross, then decided to issue the seals each year and to turn the proceeds over to the National Tuberculosis Association, and its affiliated societies for the purpose of financing the campaign against tuberculosis. The number of seals sold in America increased by leaps and bounds until in 1917 the total reached 180,000,000.

This year the seals are again on sale beginning December 1. More than half a billion seals have been printed for distribution to state and local agents. In addition to the seals "Health Bonds" in denominations ranging from $5.00 to $100.00 are to be sold in lieu of seals to large contributors, who do not send out a sufficient quantity of mail in December to make use of all the seals they would like to purchase. The combined quotas of all the state organizations call for more than $6,500,000 to carry out the intensive educational campaign being conducted by the National Tuberculosis Association and its 1,000 affiliated societies.

The intensive sale of these seals represents a practical demonstration of every lesson that has been learned regarding scientific distribution. Experts of the highest standing in sales management have co-operated to the extent of assuring those interested that every resident of the United States will have an opportunity to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Clever Engineering Feat.
Dissecting long boats so that they could be taken through the Welland canal was considered an interesting feat a short time ago, but this has been surpassed, according to the Popular Mechanics Magazine. The Charles B. Van Hise, a 10,000-ton boat, was wanted for Atlantic service. It had a 50-foot beam, whereas the canal is only 44 feet wide. The boat was cut in two and each half was turned on its side in order to be taken through the locks. Floating in this position each section cleared the lock sides by just 8 inches.

Greedy for Wasps.
The common green frog has been discovered to possess an insatiable greed for wasps. This extraordinary appetite does not seem to be in the least checked by an occasional sting. The protecting color of the frog, which sits motionless upon leaves, no doubt deludes the most wary of insects into sense of security. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

Perverse Critics.
"I can't help thinking sometimes," said the discouraged farmer, "that the worse you treat your hens the more eggs you will get from them. I remember an old joke where one man asked another: 'How do you get so many eggs?' 'Why,' said the other, 'I treat my hens so unmercifully, they're all laying for me.'"

Trolley Dirigible.
Trolley dirigible system, electric motor driven, is proposed for the carrying of mails, particularly for over sparsely settled territory. The pipe from car to gas bag carries electrically heated air for regulating the buoyancy. The trolley cable is wound on a drum, allowing adjustment of altitude. —Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Perfection's Price In Tire Building

A tire-maker's first problem is to decide how much he can give for the money. This, and every other question in tire building, depends upon policies.

A super-tire, such as The Brunswick, can be made only by a concern which knows well and appreciates that there is nothing exclusive in the tire industry except high standards.

Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has held first place in every line it entered. Brunswick Tires, as more and more motorists come to know them, will certainly be awarded that coveted place held only by the superline.

Motorists who buy one Brunswick usually adopt it for complete equipment. Yet this is not strange, since the first one so completely proves its superiority.

If the name of Brunswick certifies to you, as to most men, an extraordinary tire, at no higher price, would it not be good business to test one or two Brunswick Tires?

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 9

PETER'S GREAT CONFESSION.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 16:13-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."—Matt. 16:16.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 8:27-30; Luke 9:18-21; John 6:68-69.
PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter confessed.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—What it means to confess Christ.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The Messiahship of Jesus.

The time has now come for the King to take account of his ministry. This confession in some sense marks the turning point in Christ's ministry. Hereafter it is more restricted to his disciples. Two reasons are sufficient why this should be (vv. 13-15): (1) The Pharisees and Sadducees show their attitude towards him in their demand for a sign. His answer is that none shall be given save that of his death and resurrection, as symbolized in the experiences of the Prophet Jonah. (2) The disciples show their inability to understand the spiritual nature of his teaching. When he warned them of the heaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees they understood him to refer to bread, when he meant their doctrine, it was at this crisis when Christ turned from the nation which had rejected him, that Peter made this great confession. It was made in the borders of Caesarea Philippi, practically Gentile territory.

I. Peter's Confession (vv. 13-16).
Two questions of Christ provoked this confession:

1. The question as to the opinion of the people concerning him.

They recognized him as a teacher of power. Today, as then, there is a diversity of opinion among the people as to Jesus Christ. Some think he is only a man; others, that he is a great teacher, but nothing more. Had he been content with this he would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged him as more than a human teacher. It was his persistent claim to be the God-man, the Son of God, that sent him to the cross.

2. The second question involved the personal opinion of the disciples concerning him. To be able to tell what others think of Jesus is not enough; there must be definite, correct, and personal belief in him.

II. The New Body, the Church, Announced (vv. 17-20).
Peter had made a noble confession of Christ, so now Christ confesses him. If we confess Christ he will confess us (Matt. 10:32, 33). Christ declared his intention of bringing into existence a new body to the members of which he will give eternal life, and to whose hands he will entrust the keys of the Kingdom. Peter was to have a distinguished place in this body. The keys entrusted to him were used on the day of Pentecost, and again in the case of Cornelius. Association in this new body cannot be broken by death.

for the gates of hades shall not prevail against it. This body, the church, is of a heavenly origin, a heavenly calling, and a heavenly inheritance.

III. The Cross the Way to the Throne (vv. 21-33).
This was, no doubt, startling to the disciples. They did not realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion of the cross. So unwelcome was this announcement that Peter cried, "This shall not be unto thee." Peter later saw through this darkness to the glory on the hill-top beyond. A new hope then filled his breast (1 Peter 1:3, 4). Victory through death is yet the stumbling block of many. Many are stumbling over the doctrine of salvation and redemption through the suffering of the cross. All such are under the control of the devil (v. 23). Salvation by blood, the devil hates.

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (vv. 24-27).
To follow Christ means suffering. To follow him is to turn one's back upon the world. Life can only be saved by losing it. If we are going to be Christians we must share Christ's suffering. We cannot go to heaven on flowery beds of ease.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 24). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. Self-denial is practiced everywhere by all people, but only the disciples of Christ or Christian people deny self. Christ takes the place of self.

2. "Take up his cross." This cross is the suffering and shame which lie in the path of loyalty to God. To do our duty will mean suffering (2 Tim. 3:12).

3. Follow Christ. This means to have the mind of Christ, to do like Christ. All such shall be rewarded when Christ comes in glory.

Col. D'Olier National Commander of American Legion

Riverton has the distinction of having one of its leading citizens elected the first national commander of the American Legion. This honor was conferred upon Col. D'Olier at the first annual convention held in Minneapolis on Thursday, October 30, 1919. Col. D'Olier received 366 votes, and his nearest opponent, Mr. J. W. Lockwood, received 245 votes. There were three, received 245.

Burlington claims the Colonel because he was born there; Philadelphia claims him because he is in business there, both of which circumstances were due largely to chance. But Riverton has the best claim on him, because he has elected to live and raise his family here.

When Col. D'Olier returned from France last June, where he served in the quartermaster's corps with distinction, he devoted himself to the organization of the American Legion and with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, the younger, gave up his entire time to seeing that the legion should have a right start.

When the United States entered the war Mr. D'Olier promptly volunteered his services. He was commissioned a captain and sent to France to organize the salvage system, whereby he saved hundreds of thousands of dollars to the American government, in the opinion of military experts. For this he was promoted successively to major and to lieutenant colonel. The distinguished war record was awarded to him by the United States and he was made an officer of the Legion of Honor by the French Government.

Mr. D'Olier has lived all his life either in Burlington, N. J., where he was born, or in Riverton, N. J., where he now has his home. He is a descendant of John Woolman, the Quaker preacher and reformer, and his great uncle was Robert T. Conant, the first Mayor of Philadelphia under the consolidation act of 1854.

Colonel D'Olier was married to Miss Helen Roberts Kitchen, daughter of Theodore Kitchen, president of the Central National Bank of Philadelphia, November 11, 1903. They have three children, Franklin Woolman, Anne Kitchen, and Helen Kitchen. Colonel D'Olier has one sister, Mrs. Walter H. Lippincott, wife of the banker.

A Novel Motor Car
Date Filler's new "land yacht" has excited much comment among all who have seen it. He will bring it to Riverton next week.

Designed for touring, hunting and fishing trips, it appears to combine luxury and comfort of the ordinary touring car with the conveniences of a ship's cabin.

Mounted on a chassis similar to those used in army ambulances, the car presents the appearance of a light, of an extra-large, well-turned out limousine.

The equipment includes everything from a kitchen range to a special electric lighting system. In one corner, arranged above the aluminum plate which lines the rear of the car, are labeled cans to hold provisions.

The color scheme is a combination of natural gray-brown, with trimmings of battle green and the roof and rear panels of clay-brown drab. The interior is upholstered in gray art-leather.

Mr. Fitter will be at the wheel when the "Twentieth Century land yacht" makes her trial trip today. Next week Mr. Fitter and friends will point her "nose" for the State of Maryland on a hunting trip. Later in the season Mr. and Mrs. Fitter expect to go to Florida.

Committee From the Hut Waits on Borough Council With Architect's Plans and Proposed Scheme of Financing It

Last night a committee from the Hut waited before the Borough Council in session at its regular monthly meeting, and submitted a plan for a memorial to our soldiers in the shape of a community building, to cost about $23,000; the cost of erection, and of maintenance, to be met by taxation. The proposed location is the lot at Birch and Howard streets, where the old school building formerly stood. The building as shown in the pictures presented was a very attractive one-story cement. It is to contain a gymnasium in the basement, together with shower baths, pool tables, billiard room, etc., while on the first floor there will be a memorial hall, a council chamber, a consulting room, and an auditorium having a seating capacity of 400, with 140 additional in the galleries.

The Hut Committee was headed by S. L. Warren, who introduced the subject. Mr. Wanger elaborated on the project and submitted the plan and drawings, while Mr. Meyer spoke on the need of such a building in the community. He said that a suitable place for social gatherings was one of the best antidotes for Bolshevism. The James H. Hays Post of the American Legion, just organized, he pointed out, had no place to meet. He thought, too, that Riverton, which had been honored by having one of its leading citizens, Colonel D'Olier, made national commander of the Legion, should not be backward in doing its share in recognition of the services of our boys "over there." He also pointed out how easily it could be financed by bond issue. Mr. Meyer said that judging from the enthusiastic reception the Hut had met with in the past, it would be most truly a memorial if a part of the cost be raised by popular subscription.

The Community Hut opened its doors again Tuesday evening, and was in every way a success. The attendance was excellent, the floor in fine condition and the orchestra in splendid trim.

During the evening H. E. Meyer, president of the Hut Committee, made a brief address of welcome and outlined the general plans for the season; fourteen dances at least and ten evenings of entertainment only. These latter are to be of exceptional character, and will include the best of the local talent.

Meyer stated that the executive committee of the Hut had agreed to offer the room for the use of the American Legion, and the offer was then formally made.

Next week the Hut will be entertained by the Caledonian Pipe Band. This will be something quite out of the ordinary as will also be the entertainment, and every person who enjoys the inspiring music of the bagpipes and accompanying instruments, will be present. The Highlanders in full costume will arrive in Riverton on Wednesday evening, November 20, and will begin at eight-fifteen.

The seventh annual reception, drill and dance of the Riverton, N. J. Tail Cedar of Lebanon, will take place in the Third Regiment Armory on Wednesday evening, November 20, and will be the most elaborate of its kind ever given in the State of New Jersey. In years past this affair has had the reputation of being the greatest social event given between New York and Washington, and it gives promise this year of surpassing all others in the kind of entertainment, and the best music obtainable, produced by the expert musicians makes the dancing feature particularly attractive.

Curtis Forest, which for the past twelve years has had Hon. E. H. Flagg, Jr., of Riverton, as its Grand Tail Cedar, never does things in a commonplace way. The social event, which will be in the nature of a victory celebration in honor of the members of the Forest who served in the war, will feature, and will feature the men who served their country. Special arrangements for guests who come in automobiles will be made by the co-operation of the Camden Police Department, whereby several streets nearby will be roped off for the parking of cars, and the cars will be parked near a checking station, making the theft of a car impossible.

The secretary of the committee, David W. Doan, of 513 Vine street, Camden, has received requests for tickets from New York, Newark, Trenton, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Pittsburgh and Washington, as well as from Philadelphia and other nearby Pennsylvania towns, showing the scope of the affair. Cards of admission are $3.50, admitting one lady and one gentleman, while extra tickets for ladies are $1.50 each, and are obtained from the committee, or the secretary at the above address.

The visitors' book at the Epworth Sunday School contains addresses from all over the United States. Recently there were visitors present from California, Wisconsin and several other distant States the same day.

Several of the independent grocers of Palmyra held a meeting Thursday evening to discuss the matter of closing on Wednesday afternoon. The decision was to abandon the Wednesday afternoon closing, not only in the fall and winter, but also in the summer.

Wednesday evening a Ford, driven by Mr. Horton, of Moorestown, ran into a truck owned by Edward Comfort, which was standing in front of W. A. Major's. Horton and his assistant were thrown through the windshield, and the boy cut on the arm. The car was taken to Clinton Woolston's for repairs.

Have none of our readers considered the great desirability of a home built on Cleveland avenue opposite the beautiful home properties of Mr. William P. J. Purnell and Mr. Edward B. Hays? There are a few lots in this section, and it would seem that now is the time to buy, for it certainly would pay to secure one of these lots at today's price. A few, though it was not improved for two or three years.

At a well-attended meeting of the Saint Joseph Council, Knights of Columbus, last week the out-of-town speakers were the Reverend Father Larkin, of Jersey City, and Francis J. Smith, Esq., of Beverly. At the regular meeting the Palmyra-Silverton Knights will exemplify their "First Degree." Generous offering to the building fund, have been received from Messrs. M. Hollingshead and John Armitage, of Riverton.

The second eighth grade section in the public school has not yet begun work owing to the failure of the furniture to arrive. Several of the parents have offered to lend tables so that the class could begin its sessions. The school board is considering this suggestion. The missing desks have been ordered since mid-September. The first section of the class now meets from 8 to 12 and the second section from 12:15 to 4:15, thus getting in as much time as possible.

Members of central committee of the Women's Benefit Association of the Massachusetts held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Anna H. Hayes. About twenty-two members were present. The Women's Benefit Association of the Massachusetts is the largest fraternal society exclusively for women in the world, having a membership of over two hundred thousand, with over twelve million dollars in their funds. The association was organized in 1922.

The Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular monthly meeting in the High School auditorium next Tuesday evening and an interesting program is planned. Miss Josephine McDonald will be the soloist and a general musical and literary program will be presented. The delegates who are attending the convention at Newark, N. J., H. Abell and Mrs. I. U. Kershner, will make reports. The lunch room, which is planned to add to the health and efficiency of the students by providing hot lunches, was opened at the High School Thursday, and the first reports of its operation will be made at the meeting.

Highland avenue is the main entrance from the Burlington Pike into the Palmyra-Riverton section. Some day in the not far distant future this ought and should be a beautiful and scenic thoroughfare. Water pipe is already in this avenue and the other improvements will soon follow. Have any of our readers given a thought to the great enhancements the future holds in store for this particular section of that elegant residential part, Morgan Heights? Adv.

Deaths

Joseph C. White was knocked down by a trolley car in Camden Monday afternoon. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital, where he died Tuesday morning from his injuries. Interment at the Camden cemetery.

White was 49 years of age, was the husband of Sarah E. White (neé Sapp) and a brother of Mrs. L. C. Bowker, of Palmyra.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late residence, 624 Penna street, Camden. Interment private at Arlington cemetery.

Final Arrangements for Banquet to Service Men

The Palmyra Welcome Home Committee held its final meeting Thursday evening, previous to the final banquet which will be tendered the returned service men. All arrangements for the banquet, entertainment and speaking were completed.

Miss Ethelene Terry, perhaps the most popular soprano ever heard in Palmyra, will sing. The address of the evening will be delivered by the Hon. James Mercer Davis, of Mount Holly. A feature of the evening will be the presentation of the engraved silver rings which have been provided for every man who went from Palmyra.

The acceptance to the invitations sent the service men have not been coming in as rapidly as the committee expected, and it is desired that the boys respond promptly, as the time is short and the committee must know how many to provide for at the banquet.

The reception will be held in the Epworth Temple. About 8 o'clock, when the banquet is over, the doors will be thrown open to the public, so that all who desire may enjoy the entertainment and join in the welcome to the boys. Each service man is requested to bring his banquet ticket with him.

High School Football

Palmyra High School's football team continues its fine record. On Friday, last, they swamped the Riverton team by 22 to 0. Graham made two touchdowns and one each was made by Shreve, Patman and Abdl. Shreve kicked one goal and Brown kicked one.

On Tuesday the boys played Colingwood, which early in the season put all over the local pretty badly. This time, however, there was another story, and despite the rain, which made the field muddy and the ball slippery, Palmyra won, 7 to 0. Graham made the touchdown with a 40-yard run, assisted by Jackson's interference.

The school spirit at Palmyra High has developed wonderfully this year and big crowds are coming out to see the games.

The boys play Burlington this Friday.

Independents Wallop Hog Island

The Palmyra Independents had their best game of the season last Saturday when they defeated a strong team from Hog Island by 7 to 0. Incidentally the crowd was the largest yet. Tony Boehm put across the ball.

The visitors outweighed the locals 16 pounds to the man and they had one 235-pounder. The locals, however, were the speedier and kept the crowd up on its toes all the time.

Anderson, the former college star from Bridgeboro, played the great footballer in Saturday's game and even more talent is promised by Manager Saar.

The Palmyra Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold its yearly meeting Thursday, November 20th, in the Baptist Church. There will be a business meeting of directors at 11 a. m. The public is invited at 3 p. m. to view garments on exhibition and hear a good speaker. The needs of the Guild are greater than ever this year. Anyone not a member may become one by the contribution of two new articles, suitable for home or hospital. Any donation will be gladly received by Mrs. William P. Purnell, president, or Mrs. Frederick Blackburn, secretary.

Five Points

Miss Elizabeth Frank, of Cinnamond, is in charge of the Red Cross Roll Call at Parry and vicinity. She was assisted by Mrs. Charles Shaffer, of Trenton, and Mrs. George Dorworth. Thirty-four members were enrolled by their efforts.

Rev. R. Riemer has been appointed pastor of the New Jersey Rural Survey Advisory Council of the Interchurch World Movement and attended a meeting of the organization at Trenton last Monday afternoon.

Application has been made with the Public Service Electric Company for an extension of electric light service to Parry.

Miss Gertrude Schiele and Mrs. R. Riemer represented the Moravian Sunday School at the State Convention in Trenton on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dorworth entertained Messrs. Turner and Frederick of Philadelphia, last Sunday. Mrs. Emma Summers, of Philadelphia, visited at the home of Charles Vandegrift over Sunday.

New Zone Passes Next Sunday

Public Service Railway will put into effect Sunday the modified fare rates of five cents for two zones with one cent for each additional zone, as suggested by the Public Utility Board in notifying the board of its acceptance of the company's proposal that it had expressed the view that the zone system as applied to its property was a failure, adding that this conclusion had been reluctantly reached. It went on to say, however, that it had no right of opinion in the matter and was willing out of deference to the Commission to try the zone plan with modified rates for a limited time in the hope that the public will cooperate to make the trial so thorough and complete that there will be no room for differences of opinion.

Camp 3, P. O. of A. initiated twelve new members Thursday evening.

Donation Day

St. Joseph's Home, an institution located at Beverly, N. J., and conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis, will be the annual donation day on Thanksgiving.

This institution has been in existence for over thirty-five years, caring for the aged poor of the vicinity. It is generally of good repute. There are several of the few institutions that do not make the having of money a necessary prerequisite to secure refuge under its protecting arms. This being so, they necessarily must call for public assistance. The institution is in need of money, food and clothing.

Visitors are welcome at the institution at all times.

The twins, Harry and Henry, have always had toys exactly alike. The other morning as father gave Harry a new doll, he was heard saying, "Oh, come upstairs and see your new brother." As Harry was looking at his new brother, Henry came in, crying, "Daddy, where is my new brother?"

Isn't it so?

EDWARDSTONAME MEN FOR BIG JOBS

Important Officials in Judicial and Civil Branches to Be Appointed During Term.

WILL SELECT SIX JUSTICES

Governor-elect Believes Voters of Jersey Spoke Emphatically Against Dry Law—Program Not Ready—Will Stick to Pledge.

Trenton.—Viewing his election as an emphatic expression of the popular will in New Jersey, Governor-elect Edward I. Edwards proposes to follow the letter and spirit of his campaign pledge with respect to prohibition. At no time during the long and eventful campaign did he depart for an instant from the plank of the party platform which pledged all legal action possible to overcome the law to which such serious objection was made by large numbers of the people of the State. Senator Edwards looks upon the huge vote of his home county of Hudson and that in Essex county, to say nothing of the verdict in other less populous counties, as a clear and unmistakable evidence of the feeling of the majority. He points to the results in counties usually depended upon by the Republicans for large majorities as further proof of what is mapped out for him.

In a statement made at his office in Jersey City, where there is a great mass of congratulatory telegrams and letters from all over the United States, the governor-elect said that he had not formulated his idea as to what is to be done in the situation, but that he would certainly use every lawful means for checking prohibition, just as he had pledged himself to do. "For its enforcement by the federal government I shall not be responsible," he said. "I construe my election as an indication of the feelings of the people of this state concerning national prohibition. They are unqualifiedly opposed to it. Holding their mandate, I shall use all the lawful methods to preserve inviolate the sovereignty of the people."

"What I shall do will depend on subsequent legislation. This congress has determined that one-half of one per cent of alcohol makes a drink intoxicating. The next congress may decide on 10 per cent. I shall ask for the best legal advice as to the power of New Jersey in concurrent legislation."

Friends of the governor-elect say he realizes that the next legislature will be Republican in both branches, but he also knows very well that the considerable number of the Republican assemblymen-elect are not in sympathy with their party's attitude upon the prohibition question and could not have been elected if they had not openly opposed it. This is especially true of some members from Passaic, Morris and others from other counties. Indeed, it is generally believed that the governor would have sufficient Republican support in the legislature to put through any reasonable legislation he decided was best qualified to meet the demands of the people. Some of the Republican leaders in the state, it is known, have come to realize that the influence of the Anti-Saloon league, to which they have been catering for several years, was the most serious obstacle to their success in the recent hot battle.

Edwards Harvests Juicy Plums

During his term of three years, Governor Edwards will have the appointments of some of the most important officials in the state, judicial as well as civil. In the number will be six of the nine Justices of the supreme court, including a successor to Chief Justice Gummere; five of the eight circuit court judges; three lay judges of the court of errors and appeals; and sixteen district court judges throughout the state.

He will have the naming also of fourteen prosecutors, eight to succeed Democrats and six to take the place of Republicans. One of the latter is J. Henry Harrison, of Essex county, whose term will be concluded in 1922.

Mr. Edwards, as governor, will make his first appointments to the supreme court bench during his second year, when the terms of Justices Trenchard and Parker, Republicans, and Bergen, Democrat, terminate. In the government's year he will have the naming of successors to the chief justice and Justices McInturn and Black.

The term of Judge Carrow of the circuit court will expire in 1923; those of Judges Lloyd and Campbell in 1921 and of Judges Elzer and Speer in 1922. Judges Williams and Taylor, of the court of errors and appeals, will end their present appointments in 1921 and Judge Gardner in 1922.

Five of five Democratic prosecutors will expire in 1920 and of three more in 1921. In 1922, the governor will have the opportunity of replacing men appointed by Governor Edge. These are Mr. Harrison, these are Prosecutors Eugene C. Cole, of Cape May county; O. B. Redwood, of Gloucester; Harry J. Able, of Hunterdon; R. C. Mimmer, of Ocean, and Lewis Van Harsen, of Essex.

The Democratic prosecutors whose terms expire in 1920 are Thomas J. Harkin, of Bergen county; Jonathan H. Kelley, of Burlington; Charles F. Betts, of Monmouth; D. V. Sumner, Jr., of Salem, and A. M. Beckman, of Somerset. The Democrats whose terms end in 1921 are Joseph E. Stricker, of Middlesex; Michael Dunn, of Passaic; and William A. Striker, of Warren.

Other Judges to Be Named.

District court judges whose terms expire in 1920 include Frederick L. Johnson, of Newark; Charles B. Clancy, of Hudson county; Joseph H. Hinchman, of Morris; W. F. Vossler, of Somerset; C. C. Homann, of Perth Amboy; E. H. Foster, of the first district of Bergen county; F. H. McCauley, of the first district of Hudson county; and J. A. Montgomery, of Trenton.

Terms which will end in 1921 include those of Judge D. A. Dugan, of Orange; W. C. Cabell, of Passaic;

Freeman Woodbridge, of New Brunswick; Peter Stillwell, of Bayonne, and Frank Smathers, of Atlantic City. In 1922 successors will be named to Judge Harry H. Reeves, of Montclair; J. H. Crane, of Plainfield, and Garfield Hancock, of Camden.

Of the lay offices to which the next governor will appoint successors to the incumbents, one of the most influential is that of secretary of state, now held by Thomas F. Martin, Democrat, who was appointed by Governor Fielder. Mr. Martin's term will expire April 5 next. While the assistant secretary of state—who is also state motor vehicle commissioner—is theoretically named by the secretary, the appointment may be made in conformity with the desire of the governor.

It is possible that Mr. Martin may be re-named, but it is practically a foregone conclusion that Motor Vehicle Commissioner William L. Dill will be displaced.

Kendall's Term to Expire.

The term of the state commissioner of education, Calvin N. Kendall, will terminate July 1, 1921, and the new governor will have the appointment. The term of John P. Murray, of the state board of education, will expire next year, and that of Oscar W. Jeffrey in 1922. Percy H. Stewart, who is filling an ad interim appointment, completing the term of Representative Ernest R. Ackerman, which expires in 1921, can be replaced by appointment of the new governor.

President Slocum, of the board of public utilities, will complete his term in 1921. In view of the campaign by the Anti-Saloon league, which will make the board, it will be interesting to see what will happen in connection with the appointment and with the board itself. It is assumed that in his inaugural message the new governor will recommend the abolition of the existing board, but whether the legislature—which will be controlled in both houses next winter by Republicans—will concur is a matter of doubt.

In his second year, the new governor will have the naming also of a commissioner of banking and insurance to succeed Frank H. Smith, Republican. This is one of the most important places in the state administration by virtue of the nature of the work over which the commissioner has supervision. Besides supervising the operations of state banks and trust companies, as well as insurance companies, his office superintends the condition of the numerous building and loan associations in all parts of the state.

Overland

As It Is

As It Seems

The Road—In New Overland 4 on Three-Point Cantilever Springs

YOU expect a bad road to ride as it looks. It did, until the introduction of the Overland 4 Springbase.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of dis-comfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

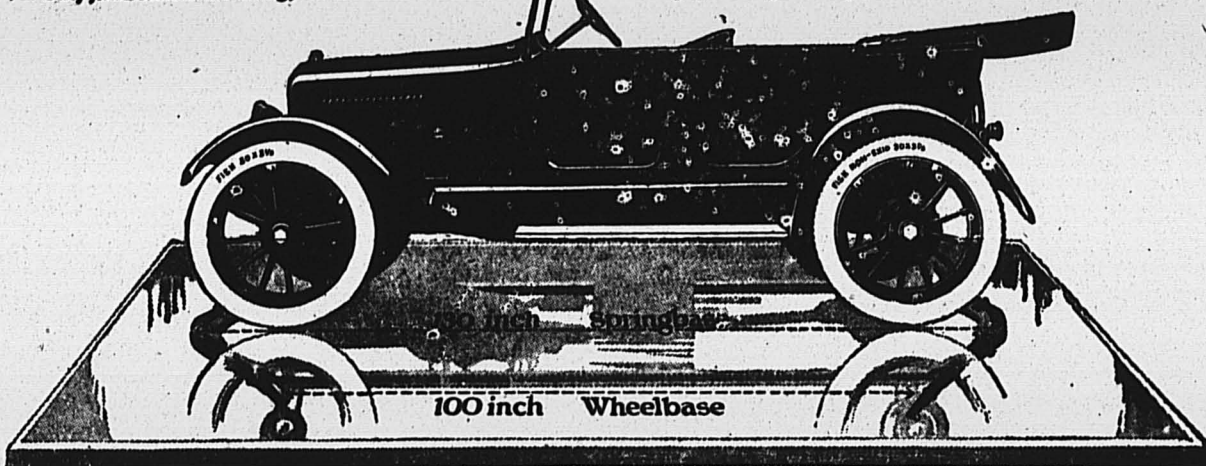

The Diagonal attachment of Three-Point Cantilever Springs at the ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives long wheelbase road steadiness. Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase.

This means an altogether new standard of riding comfort, a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessens the efficiency of a car. The new springs give longer life to every part and thus minimize upkeep and replacement costs.

Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims.

Come in and see this remarkable car. Ask for booklet. Overland 4 Touring, $845; Roadster, $845; Coupe, $1325; Sedan, $1375. Prices f. o. b. Toledo.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. P. E. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Copyright, 1919, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 16

WITNESSES OF CHRIST'S GLORY.

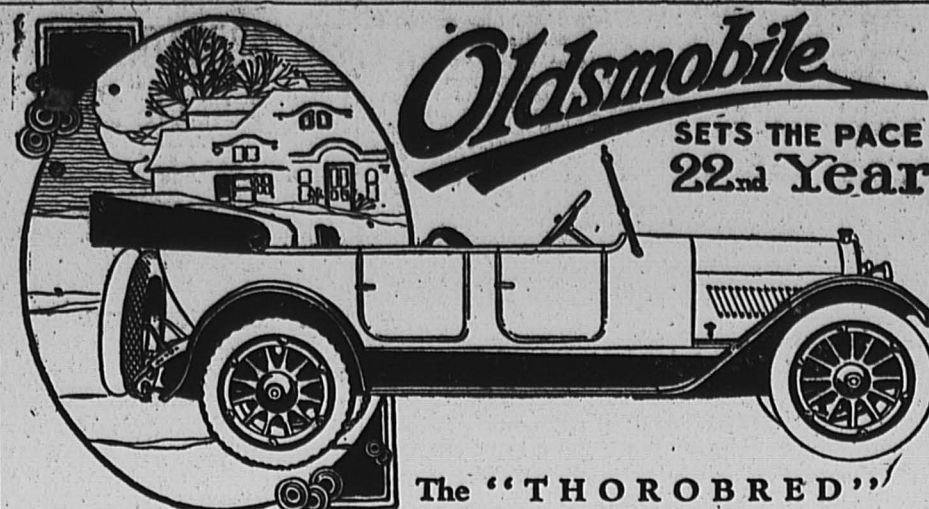

LESSON TEXT—Luke 9:28-36.
GOLDEN TEXT—This is my beloved Son; hear ye him.—Mark 9:7.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Matt. 17:1-13; Mark 9:2-13; Luke 9:28-36.
PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter and Jesus.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The glory of Jesus Christ.

While it is true that in this lesson the disciples are witnesses of Christ's glory, the full truth is that the manifestation of Christ in glory was to give to the discouraged disciples a fore-glimpse of the Messianic Kingdom. The hopes of the disciples were crushed when Christ announced his death on the cross. They were unable to see how victory could issue from death.

Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and went into the mountain to pray. His chief aim in retirement was to get the disciples apart into a state of receptivity so that he might show them the method of the Kingdom.

Before going to the mountain he declared that there were some standing in his presence who would not taste of death till they should see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom (Luke 9:27; Matt. 16:28). That their drooping spirits might be revived and their confidence restored, he is transfigured before them. Two men from the upper world are sent to converse with him about his approaching death in Jerusalem (v. 31)—the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk.

Then, too, God's own voice was heard in words of approval of Christ's course, directing them to hear the Master. Surely they cannot doubt his ability now to carry into execution his kingdom plans. The purpose, then, of the transfiguration is to give the disciples a fore-glimpse of the coming Kingdom, to enable them to see the Kingdom in embryo. That this is true is not only shown by the context and circumstances, but by the inspired interpretation of one who was with him and knew all that happened. Peter said: "For

The "THOROBRED" 7-passenger Touring Car

THE trend of automobile engineering points to the 8-cylinder car. And good buying judgment points to the Oldsmobile.

We aimed higher than simply pioneering the "eight." We aimed to produce one of moderate price and low maintenance costs, —that had the flexibility, smoothness and abundance of power inherent in the 8-cylinder car.

—that cost as little to buy and operate as the majority of "sixes" and many "fours." —that would be smartly distinctive, yet characteristically Oldsmobile.

Our aim is attained in the "THOROBRED"—the only popular priced "eight" in which mechanical excellence is combined with rare riding comfort and up-to-the-minute body lines. Oldsmobiles have been the history-makers of motordom; the "THOROBRED" is well worthy to perpetuate the name.

Descriptive literature will be sent upon request, or a demonstration gladly arranged.

LESTER S. FORTNUM
At the Bridge Bridgeboro, N. J.

The "PACEMAKER" 4-passenger Touring Car

we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye witnesses of his majesty, for he received of God the Father, honor and glory when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory. This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard come out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts (2 Peter 1:16-19 R. V.). To those who believe in the inspiration of the Bible these words are final. Let us therefore note the outstanding features of the Kingdom as displayed in the transfiguration.

I. Jesus Christ the Glorified King on Mount Zion (v. 29).

The glorified King on this Mount was intended to symbolize the Messianic Kingdom when Christ returns to the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem (Zech. 14:4-17). This is still in the future, and will be literally fulfilled.

II. The Glorified Saints With Christ (vv. 30, 31).

1. Moses, who was once denied an entrance into Palestine, appears now in glory, representing the redeemed of the Lord who will pass through death into the Kingdom. Many thousands of the redeemed have fallen asleep and at the coming of the Lord shall be awakened to pass into the Kingdom.

2. Elijah, now glorified, represents the redeemed who shall pass into the Kingdom through translation. Many shall be living upon the earth when the Lord shall come, and shall without dying be changed and thus pass into the Kingdom (1 Cor. 15:50-53; 1 Thess. 4:14-18).

3. They talk of the very thing which the disciples refused to believe, namely, the death of Christ.

III. Israel, in the Flesh, in Connection With the Kingdom, Represented by Peter, James and John (v. 28). Israel shall be called from their hiding place among all nations of the earth and shall be gathered to Jesus Christ the King, as the central people in the Kingdom (Ez. 37:21-27).

1. Peter proposes to build three tabernacles (v. 33). The Feast of Tabernacles looked forward to the glorious reign of Christ. Peter caught a glimpse of the significance of the transfiguration. His proposition showed that he thought of the Feast of Tabernacles, and therefore of the Millennium.

2. The divine voice (v. 35). At this time God himself uttered his words, assuring them that this one in glory was his Son Jesus Christ.

IV. The Multitude at the Foot of the Mountain (vv. 37-43).

This is representative of the nations which shall be brought into the Kingdom which shall be established over Israel (see Isaiah 11:10-12). The people here were grievously oppressed by the devil. There are times when the devil is especially active in his oppression of men. About the time of Christ's first coming he did his best to harass men. Just before Christ's coming again he will be especially active, for he knows that his time is short.

Marie's American Anthem.

In far away France little Marie, aged six, visited the Red Cross hospital near her home every day, and became very popular with the convalescent American soldiers there. She soon became very good friends with the soldiers and they delighted to teach her scraps of English. When they sang she joined them in their American songs. One day, in Marie's school, teacher asked her class the title of America's national anthem. The class looked blank, until Marie, with a flash of inspiration, jumped to her feet and announced, "Hail! Hail! the Gang's All Here," in quaint, rolling English.

These Tires Are a Revelation

The Brunswick is frankly a combination of the best in tire building.

There is one tread that's supreme beyond question. And that is now on Brunswicks.

There is one side-wall construction, which, by every test, holds the summit place for endurance. And that one was adopted for Brunswicks.

Fabrics differ — up to 30 per cent — in their strength tests. On Brunswicks the maximum long-fiber is the standard.

There are certain additions, each one expensive, which add vastly to tire mileage. The Brunswick embodies all these extras.

There are no patents, no secret formulas to prevent any maker from building the best. It is simply a question of knowledge and skill—cost plus care.

Brunswick standards are known the world over. The very name certifies an extraordinary tire. Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Buy ONE Brunswick. It will prove that a better tire cannot be bought, regardless of price.

ROBERT L. BLACKWELL,
Private, Co. K, 119th Infantry.
Robert L. Blackwell (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near St. Souplet, France, October 11, 1918. When his platoon was almost surrounded by the enemy and his platoon commander asked for volunteers to carry a message calling for reinforcements, Private Blackwell volunteered for this mission, well knowing the extreme danger connected with it. In attempting to get through the heavy shell and machine gun fire this gallant soldier was killed. The address of his father is James R.
Blackwell, R. F. D. No. 2, Hindles,
N. C.

CLAYTON K. SLACK,
Private, Company D, 124th M. G. B.
Private Slack received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous intrepidity in action near Consenvoye,
France, October 8, 1918. Observing German soldiers under cover fifty yards away on the left flank, Private Slack, upon his own initiative, rushed with his rifle, and single-handedly captured ten prisoners and two heavy machine guns, thus saving his company and neighboring organizations from heavy casualties. His home is with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Mae Slack, Lampton, Wis.

HOWARD E. MADSEN,
Sergeant, Co. D, 115th Infantry.
Sergeant Madsen was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Bais-de-Consenvoye, France, October 22, 1918. When the platoon which he was commanding was held up by an enemy machine gun nest, Sergeant
Madsen, taking an armful of grenades, advanced alone over ground swept by machine gun fire, put the machine gun out of action, routed the enemy and permitted the platoon to advance without casualties. His mother, Mrs. Mary
V. Madsen, lives in Baltimore, Md.

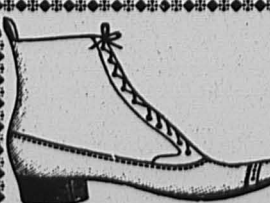

Chicken on a Jag.
A chicken owned by a woman living near Jeffersonville, Ind., got on a "jag" a day or two ago but it was the owner's fault, the chicken might plead.
She had some whisky put away, used on physician's prescription for her heart. The chicken was sick and she diagnosed the case as heart trouble so thought she would try the same remedy. She gave it "the tiniest drop," but the chicken did not need much.
Neighbors say they are satisfied the chicken was cured, but it immediately began a furious war dance, exclaiming the different steps of all the different redskin tribes, passed from these to the waltz, two-step, one-step and other dances not yet invented, and according to the faithful narrator tried to sing "The Star-Spangled Banner," but this is probably an exaggeration, even if not actually untrue.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1919

The Palmyra Independent football team plays Pennsgrove here this Saturday afternoon.

The lunch room which was opened in the High School last Thursday has met with much success.

Mrs. George Hogen is seriously ill with influenza-pneumonia and her son, Lincoln Roden, is suffering with the influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Baker this week moved from 915 Vanamansons avenue to their new home on Farry avenue.

Mrs. J. C. Hoepfer has been entertaining her cousin, Miss Esther Calk, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the past three weeks.

The Misses Helen Taylor and Mildred Duncan and Everett Abdiel and Newton Morton attended the Penn-Fit football game last Saturday.

The lunch committee, instituted last week at the Palmyra High School, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association, is proving a great success.

The annual meeting and roll call of the Central Baptist Church will be held Monday evening, November 24. There will be a supper at 6.30 p. m. Every member is urged to be present.

The Philatelic Bible Club will hold their regular monthly business meeting next Friday, November 28, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Beahm, on Fourth street. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

The court of errors and appeals at Trenton last Monday upheld the action of the Supreme Court in declaring the victory of the drys at Palmyra's local option election void, because of failure to comply with the soldiers' voting act.

Walter Woods, of Oregon, one of the Marines who was wounded at Chateau Thierry and who is just recovering complete health, spent two days this week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Letford before leaving for his home on the West Coast.

A mass meeting in the interest of the national drive being made by the Episcopal churches will be held in Palmyra Christ Church Parish House next Tuesday evening. The Rev. Mr. Griffiths, of St. Wilfred's, Camden, will speak. Everybody invited.

A committee of High School girls attend to serving the food at the counter from which it taken by the divisions on the cafeteria plan. The girls also attend to the cashier end of the business. The project has proved self-sustaining from the beginning.

The Riverton Library is urgently in need of financial support and sincere efforts are being made to raise sufficient funds to meet the great increased current expenses. Do your part by sending in a contribution to Harry F. Jones, or leaving it at the library.

The Knights of Pythias will hold their first annual dance on Thursday evening, December 4. Music will be furnished by Letford's Orchestra. This is the first time that a kind of event planned by the Knights and their many friends wish them all success.

Miss Ethel C. Morton left Philadelphia this morning for the Philippines Islands, where she will visit her brother, Captain Edward Perry Morton, who is stationed at Fort Wainwright, Alaska. She will not return until next summer.

Resident commuters who have had the experience of arriving at the station from the same side just as trains for Philadelphia have come to a halt across Cinnaminson avenue are starting an agitation to have the railroad construct a tunnel under the tracks both for the sake of convenience and safety.

Both eighth grades of the grammar school are now in session despite the fact that the desks and benches in the last week, was operated upon Saturday for the removal of a globe, which proved to be much larger and heavier than the one which was anticipated. The operation, however, was a success, and she is recovering as rapidly as possible, but is still very ill.

Delegates from the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor, the Baptist Epworth League and the Methodist Epworth League met at the home of the Rev. E. A. Robinson to make plans for a big union social of the three societies on December 18. Miss Marian Robinson was elected chairman.

Tag Collector Rudduck wishes to emphasize the fact that the final bill of the 1919 taxes must be paid by December 1. Taxes not paid when due draw interest until paid to be collected with tax and cost. Taxes not paid when due will be returned to the County Clerk along with the name of the party assessed and filed as a first lien against the property.

On Thanksgiving Day there will be a union Thanksgiving service at the Baptist Church at 10.30 a. m. Members of the Calvary Presbyterian, Epworth Methodist and Central Baptist Churches joining. The service will be presided by the Rev. E. A. Robinson. The collection as usual will be for the benefit of the New Jersey Children's Home Society.

Lottie "Buster" McAllister was struck by Arnold Beckenbach's Olver Thursday and knocked down, a front wheel passing over his legs before Mr. Beckenbach brought it to a stop. Fortunately, "Buster" was not hurt at all as far as could be ascertained. He was roller skating, holding to another boy, and was swung in front of the car when the accident occurred.

The physicians of Palmyra are much in favor of the purchase of the proposed service truck for which donations are now being solicited. The truck is to be an emergency and hospital ambulance, equipped with pulmotor and general surgical kit. It will also be equipped for service at fires and will carry emergency fire extinguishers. At present there is no ambulance service for Palmyra of any kind.

Miss Edith Wallace and her brother, Joseph Wallace, gave a surprise party in honor of the birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. Mary E. Wallace, at the West End Hotel Thursday evening of last week. Fifty guests were present from Camden, Hightstown, Riverton, Riverside, Beltsville and Palmyra, and all had a most enjoyable evening. The scene of the party was tastefully decorated and there was a three-piece orchestra for the dancing. Refreshments were served.

On the occasion of the Saint Joseph Council, Knights of Columbus, "first degree" many visitors from Burlington county, Camden and Philadelphia were present. The new Council was highly complimented by their visitors for the remarkable showing made in their short existence. A pleasing entertainment was provided by the lecture, followed by the always-popular "eat." District Deputy McCann, of Burlington, was present and installed the officers who will serve from the ensuing year. Judging from the sounds heard on Main street in Riverton the Knights will soon win a reputation as the best of the program included one of those American songs.

On November 25 the P. O. S. of A. Hall will be the scene of what promises to be one of the best entertainments for sometime past. The Lady Minstrels of San Domingo Council, Philadelphia, will be the chief feature. This is the identical organization that has pleased the boys during wartime in Camps Dix, Merritt, Mills and Meade. Following the entertainment will be a dance to the accompaniment of good music. Tickets, which include the possibility of winning either a gold piece or a reputation as the slursy of the night, will be secured from any member of the Knights of Columbus of Palmyra or Riverton. Proceeds will be applied to the building fund of the P. O. S. of A. and will be remembered as one of the best minstrel shows to appear before the local public.

The second annual evening entertainment of the Palmyra High School Literary Society will take place on Monday evening, December 8, at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium. The society will present "Dickens' Christmas Carol" and Halevy's "In a Summer." Mr. Louis R. Richards will be the violinist of the evening. Mr. Donald Clark, '20, will be the presiding officer and Miss Laura Jones, '22, the secretary. Tickets at 50 cents and 35 cents are now on sale. The proceeds will be for the purchase of musical instruments for the children of the grades and the High School. The society is making an unusual effort, the public and the alumni in particular are asked to patronize the entertainment. The proceeds from the sale of candy after the performance will go to the College Settlement to which the High School has made a Christmas contribution for a number of years.

Miller-Cassell

The wedding of Miss Esther Ella Cassell, Philadelphia, and Palmyra, N. J., and Mr. William Thornton Miller, of Palmyra, will be quietly solemnized at the home of the bride, Mrs. J. D. Cassell, 740 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, at six o'clock Saturday evening, November 23.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Roberts Bakewell-Green, of the Norwood Episcopal Church. Mrs. Carl J. Jefferson, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor and her little daughter, Anne Cassell Jefferson, will be ring bearer. Paul J. Miller, brother of the bridegroom, will best man.

Only the immediate families will be invited to the wedding, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miller will leave on a wedding tour through the South.

P. T. A. Growing Rapidly

The Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association is showing increased interest in the High School Auditorium last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. M. Beeton read a paper on the alma mater and the organization and Mrs. A. C. Gibson reported on the highly successful opening of the new school building. At her request, the purchase of a $60 cocoa urn was approved. The membership committee reported that the membership had increased to 140 members.

Miss Mabel MacDonald, of Holy Trinity Choir, Philadelphia, rendered several beautiful soprano solos and was repeatedly cheered.

Mrs. J. H. Abdlit and Mrs. I. U. Kershner, who attended the State convention at Newark last week, reported on the success of the important meetings. These reports showed that the P. T. A.'s had proved a wonderful success all over the State, and had accomplished much in the way of school improvements.

A State movement is under way to get children back to school and keep them there till they graduate. It was pointed out that statistics proved a high school education with $2000 a year to be over what one who stopped at the eighth grade would make.

Vocational training and scholarships are being advocated.

The work of the P. T. A. in increasing teachers' salaries was recommended, but despite this there are now only 1400 teachers training at compared with 2500 three years ago.

State Commissioner Kendall told the Newark convention that at one time he had thought the P. T. A. "loaded with dynamite," but that now he thought it full of power for good instead of destruction. He found that schools had been transformed wherever the P. T. A. had been at work.

Mr. Kendall said the schools were now facing a grave crisis and that unless teachers' salaries were raised to a minimum of $1000 the State would be 1900 teachers short next year.

After reading the reports the association adopted a motion by Mrs. Kershner that prizes be given the school rooms whose pupils were represented by the greatest number of parents at the P. T. A. meetings of the P. T. A.

Sidewalk Ordinance Repealed

At the meeting of the Palmyra Township Counciling Wednesday evening of last week, the ordinance repealing the recent measure providing for the laying of sidewalks on lower Cinnaminson avenue was passed on first and second readings. The repeal is the result of the request of the Moorestown Trust Company, administrators of the estate of Joseph Morgan, whose property was chiefly affected.

It is understood a new ordinance will be introduced later for the sidewalk of the Morgan estate, and in addition the west side of Garfield, this arrangement being more satisfactory to the Morgan estate as price of $1200 a year. The committee did not know just what to do about the proposition and are very anxious to hear the opinion of citizens in general on the question of the township employing a contractor for this purpose.

Sewer plans are still being developed and it is expected that things may reach the digging stage by spring.

The first census of the United States was taken in 1790, during the administration of George Washington. It related solely to population.

Banquet and Signal Rings for Service Men

Seventy-three of the Palmyra men who served their country in the World War were present at the final banquet and reception given last Tuesday evening in the Epworth Temple. The banquet was held in the basement and the boys declared it was "home feed." The service men then adjourned to the auditorium, where a large crowd of their friends and fellow citizens were awaiting them to enjoy the entertainment and ceremonies of the evening.

Township Chairman John M. Davies gave the address of welcome. There was music by the Epworth Orchestra and Epworth Quartet, and several delightful solos by Miss Ethelvade Terry, of Philadelphia, and by Augustus L. Wilson, of Riverton.

The address of the evening was delivered by James Mercer Davis, of Mount Holly, who told the boys how their country needed them now just as much as in 1917-18, for the great work of reconstruction and to fight Bolshevism and the I. W. W.'s.

A silent tribute was paid those who never returned from camp.

The signal rings, a gift from the townspeople to each service man, were presented by Messrs. Davies, Weart and Davidson.

Engaged certificates which the Riverton Hut Committee had prepared for presentation to all the service men of both towns in recognition of what they did for their country were also given to the seventy-three men present.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. E. A. Robinson and the benediction by the Rev. C. W. Williams.

The banquet winds up the services of the Palmyra Welcome Home Committee, which was formed last April. The committee in the course of its career raised $2000 or more by entertainments and a house-to-house canvass to finance its program, which consisted of the two banquets, with provision for all the more than 200 service men, for each of whom a gold signal ring was purchased, and an elaborate Fourth of July celebration, including the erection for that occasion of a 100-foot flagpole, costing $450. The flagpole is a permanent memorial to those who entered the service from this township.

A Big Day for the P. H. S. Team

When the High School team defeated the Burlington High at football last Friday afternoon, the pupils of the Palmyra schools were so elated that they gave vent to their joy by a demonstration on Broad street that drew the walk-in fairly rince. Boys and girls, from the High School and the grades, danced and sang and romped about in the abandon of pure delight. The score was 34-0.

Patriotic Order Sons of America

At the meeting of Washington Camp, No. 23, on last Monday evening, it was decided to make a movement for 1000 members by the end of the term, June 30, 1920. The camp had over 1000 members at one time, but took reaction took place, the active workers ceased their efforts, and the membership fell back to about 850. They are going to attack again to show that it can be done, and, incidentally, to win the State prize flag. A degree team will be formed to occupy an active campaign to 50 guests at 300 yen a head. The caterer, however, at a loss to know how to "go the limit," provided a "zeishin" for each guest, engaging all the most expensive members of the profession who were available.

A Kobe "marklin" entertained some guests to dinner at a Japanese restaurant the other day, the cost per head being 100 yen. A "fun-marklin," during a stay at Ikao, ordered by telephone from a Tokyo restaurant two dishes of "marklin" on condition that the food should arrive at a loss to know how to "go the limit," provided a "zeishin" for each guest, engaging all the most expensive members of the profession who were available.

On Monday evening, December 15, Past President's night will be held in the camp room. Every Past President of the camp is expected to be present. An entertainment will be provided and refreshments served. The affair is in the hands of a committee consisting of the Past Presidents: Winward and Horner.

Those who have not sent in their twenty-five cents to the financial secretary for the Thompson Memorial Fund are asked to do so at once.

An interesting letter was read in the camp room last Monday evening. It was from the Rev. William H. Chapman, one of our members who was overseas. He had expected to get to the service men's reception, but being disappointed he wrote us a letter which was appreciated.

One application was received on last Monday evening. This is a forerunner of many that will be received in the next few weeks. Get busy, brothers.

The Good of the Order Committee will have something on hand for next Monday evening. If you stay away you will miss it.

Hough-Yerkes

A wedding was quietly solemnized at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 19, when Miss Matilda Hough of Palmyra, N. J., became the bride of Mr. Harry Hough of Philadelphia, Pa. Recently returned from service in France, in the presence of both families at the home of the bride's mother.

Dr. E. H. Woolston, D. D., of the past Baptist church, of Philadelphia, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gown of white crepe de chene embroidered and beaded. Her tulle veil was caught in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Beater Cleaver, of Conshohocken, Pa., was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink organdie. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Warren Whitwates, also of Conshohocken, acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. C. H. Woolston.

Among the guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Williams, of the Central Baptist Church, of Palmyra.

Fall Gedeas Reception

After a recess of two years the Fall Gedeas of Lebanon will resume the annual reception, drill and ball on Wednesday evening of next week, in the armory in Camden. Great preparations have been made for this event. Former Mayor Flagg, of Riverton, is at the head of the celebration and he is enthusiastic over the prospect of its being the largest event in the life of the Gedeas. Governor Ruxton and his staff will be guests of honor and will make the trip from Trenton in automobiles. At Burlington they will be met by the reception committee in gaily-decorated automobiles and will be escorted to Camden in great style. On arrival at the armory the Governor will touch a button and there will be a general fire featuring which will surprise all who are present. The decorations will be the most handsome that have ever been seen on an occasion of this kind.

There will be dancing to music furnished by a band of 50 pieces and there will be special features, including a fancy drill by the rangers of the Gedeas. Arrangements have been made to mark automobiles under the supervision of the Camden police.

FLAUNT WEALTH DUE TO WAR

Extravagance indulged in by Japan's "Newly Rich" Have Drought Forth Bitter Censure.

Mr. Shiomi, a Tokyo barrister, in the Horitsu Shimbun (Law Journal) has written an article on the example of the extravagance indulged in by certain "marklin." It is said that a well-known mine owner in Kyushu gave a dinner party in Tokyo recently to 50 guests at 300 yen a head. The caterer, however, at a loss to know how to "go the limit," provided a "zeishin" for each guest, engaging all the most expensive members of the profession who were available.

A Kobe "marklin" entertained some guests to dinner at a Japanese restaurant the other day, the cost per head being 100 yen. A "fun-marklin," during a stay at Ikao, ordered by telephone from a Tokyo restaurant two dishes of "marklin" on condition that the food should arrive at a loss to know how to "go the limit," provided a "zeishin" for each guest, engaging all the most expensive members of the profession who were available.

On Monday evening, December 15, Past President's night will be held in the camp room. Every Past President of the camp is expected to be present. An entertainment will be provided and refreshments served. The affair is in the hands of a committee consisting of the Past Presidents: Winward and Horner.

Those who have not sent in their twenty-five cents to the financial secretary for the Thompson Memorial Fund are asked to do so at once.

An interesting letter was read in the camp room last Monday evening. It was from the Rev. William H. Chapman, one of our members who was overseas. He had expected to get to the service men's reception, but being disappointed he wrote us a letter which was appreciated.

One application was received on last Monday evening. This is a forerunner of many that will be received in the next few weeks. Get busy, brothers.

The Good of the Order Committee will have something on hand for next Monday evening. If you stay away you will miss it.

Hough-Yerkes

A wedding was quietly solemnized at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 19, when Miss Matilda Hough of Palmyra, N. J., became the bride of Mr. Harry Hough of Philadelphia, Pa. Recently returned from service in France, in the presence of both families at the home of the bride's mother.

Dr. E. H. Woolston, D. D., of the past Baptist church, of Philadelphia, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gown of white crepe de chene embroidered and beaded. Her tulle veil was caught in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Beater Cleaver, of Conshohocken, Pa., was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink organdie. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Warren Whitwates, also of Conshohocken, acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. C. H. Woolston.

Among the guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Williams, of the Central Baptist Church, of Palmyra.

Fall Gedeas Reception

After a recess of two years the Fall Gedeas of Lebanon will resume the annual reception, drill and ball on Wednesday evening of next week, in the armory in Camden. Great preparations have been made for this event. Former Mayor Flagg, of Riverton, is at the head of the celebration and he is enthusiastic over the prospect of its being the largest event in the life of the Gedeas. Governor Ruxton and his staff will be guests of honor and will make the trip from Trenton in automobiles. At Burlington they will be met by the reception committee in gaily-decorated automobiles and will be escorted to Camden in great style. On arrival at the armory the Governor will touch a button and there will be a general fire featuring which will surprise all who are present. The decorations will be the most handsome that have ever been seen on an occasion of this kind.

There will be dancing to music furnished by a band of 50 pieces and there will be special features, including a fancy drill by the rangers of the Gedeas. Arrangements have been made to mark automobiles under the supervision of the Camden police.

TRENTON EXPECTS LIVELY SESSION

Republican Legislators Anticipate Political Contest With Democratic Governor.

SOME FORECASTS OF EVENTS

Suffrage, Public Utility Board's Fate and State Highways Viewed as Three Cleavage Points Between Incoming Executive and Senate.

Trenton.—Facing a conflict of views they feel certain will result during an administration of a Democratic governor, the Republican members of the next legislature will hold a conference at which plans for legislation in the coming session will be discussed. No date for the meeting has yet been set.

Because of the strenuous primary campaigns of gubernatorial candidates in both parties and the equally strenuous general election campaign that followed unusual interest has been aroused in the legislative programs, and there are indications that activities in the state house this winter will be watched closer than they have been since the regime of Governor Wilson.

The Republicans have decided that every effort must be made to guard against the making of Democratic capital out of the 1920 session. Inasmuch as Governor Edwards will be in a position to advance his ideas in argumentative messages, they realize that they must offer equally strong defenses in the event of a refusal to meet his requests.

With a majority of the legislative members and the governor agreeing that there should be no ratification of the national prohibition amendment, interest turns to woman suffrage, the fate of the public utilities commission, the question of policy in handling the state highway improvement program and other matters.

Three Points of Difference.

On at least three points the views of the incoming governor and the stand of the majority lawmakers are at radical variance. Mr. Edwards is pledged to the immediate ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the national constitution, while the Republicans in their state platform advocate recourse to a referendum election for the guidance of legislators not already pledged on the subject.

To restore confidence in state regulation of public utilities Mr. Edwards would oust the present board of public utilities commissioners and substitute an elective body, while the Republicans in their state platform contented themselves with a recommendation that the utility properties be independently appraised for rate-making purposes and a declaration for a return to a flat trolley fare in lieu of the present zone system on the Public Service lines.

The state highway system opens the way for the third clash. Mr. Edwards favors the declaration for a permanent highway commission and the appointment of a single commissioner who would be in direct charge of the development. The Republicans, backing the program of Governor Edge, insist that the present commission is long on accomplishment and that it should be continued.

Won't Be Ratified.

Election of a solid delegation of twelve Democrats from Essex county to the house of the 1920 legislature has apparently removed the possibility of favorable action by the house on a resolution proposing that the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution be ratified. The senate is "wet" by a substantial majority, so that ratification in the upper house is out of the question.

The positively and unalterably "wet" votes in the house are twelve Democrats from Hudson, twelve from Essex, five "wet" Republicans from Passaic and two from Atlantic. These four counties furnish thirty-one anti-ratification votes, one more than enough to defeat any attempt to pass a ratification resolution. Besides these known "wet" votes in the house, there are certainly many others, but even if there should be no more, these thirty-one will be in a position to check any favorable prohibition move.

In the senate it is certain that not more than half a dozen senators are for ratification and among these known "drys" are Bunyon, Allen, Reeves and Bright. There may be a couple more, but even at that there are left six "wet" Democrats and nine "wet" Republicans, giving the "wets" a senate working majority of nine.

An effort will be made by the New Jersey Women's Suffrage Association to have the national suffrage amendment ratified in the legislature. The lineup of members on this question is close. There appears to be a safe majority for ratification in the senate, and it is likely that suffragists will have a margin of two or three votes in the house.

Senator Case For President.

The fifteen Republicans did not linger many minutes over their state-making and the logical choice for president went to Senator Case, of Somerset, with Senator Mackey, of Bergen, as runner-up. It is too, that there will be enough votes in the new senate to assure the passage of any reasonable resolution or measure aimed at prohibition as among the Republican leaders there seems to be lurking the suspicion that the managers of the Anti-Saloon League jockeyed them into a yawning trap and the sooner they wriggle out the better it will be for the party which plans to do something handsome in the campaign next year.

Former Governor Stokes, the state chairman, is said to have given voice to the sentiments of the other leaders in his scorching broadside upon Samuel Wilson, the league officer, who gloated over the defeat of Comptroller Bugbee, to which they dry voters contributed in no small degree. Thus, the new governor, Senator Edwards, although of the opposite political faith, may have strong support in the legislature for his program on liquor legislation, whatever that may be.

One of the outstanding features of the present political situation in the state is the absence of any one point personality in the leadership of either Republicans or Democrats. It was evident at the conference of Republican senators that they were directed by no single leader, or even set of leaders, and that unusual conditions were almost as visible in the gathering of Republican assemblymen-elect. A year ago it did not seem as though the then Governor Edge was in command of the Republican organization insofar as legislative state-making was concerned, and former United States Senator Baird and former Governor Stokes, with Comptroller Bugbee and one or two others, were in powerful influence; but this year it looks like a catch-as-catch-can wrestle.

The Baird men, it is said, acquiesced in the plan to pick North Jersey men for the more important posts in both houses in the belief that there would be distinct advantage to be gained in hearkening to the cry that South Jersey has been "hogging things." But to the ordinary observer of political moves it looks very much as though both the senators and assemblymen are freer than they have been for years in the choice of their principal officers.

Ever since the election there has been a casting up by party leaders and workers, each blaming the other for the defeat of Comptroller Bugbee, but all apparently agreeing that it was due to the attempt to straddle important issues of the campaign. It is also agreed that such a course can never bring victory in a state where the people have become accustomed to casting their ballots upon personal convictions rather than as followers of any party leaders. There were so many marked demonstrations of this independence in the recent election that leadership became almost a misnomer.

High Cost of Candidacies.

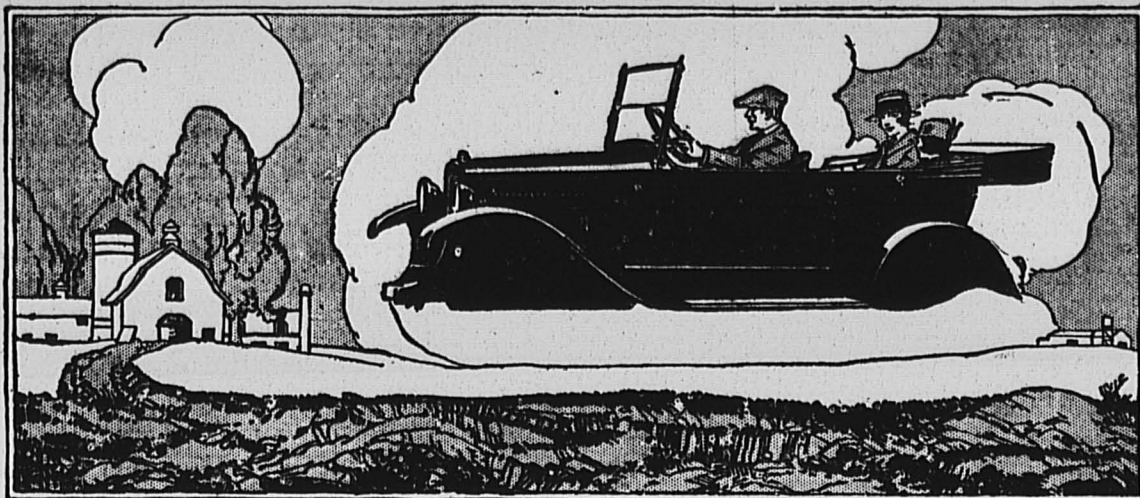

One other phase of political conditions in New Jersey is the high cost of candidacies, and there is indication of some action by the incoming legislature looking to the removal of serious obstacles to the selection of the best men for public office. Under the state-wide primary law candidates for governor and United States senator are obliged to make two long and costly campaigns, one for the nomination and another for the election. No poor man can hope to combat for the honor of such offices. Senator Edwards is not blessed with a superabundance of rocks, and he felt the strain keenly. His loyal friends rallied to his support with financial succor or he would have been swamped.

Three years ago upward of a quarter of a million of dollars was spent in the campaign for governor and United States senator, but under the present law such expenditures are now limited. In the old days the blue sky was the limit, and when the legislature elected U. S. senators the political atmosphere was thick with rumors of scandals. The rigorous laws for the preservation of the sanctity of the ballot have put a lasting check upon dishonest outrages of money in such contests, but the legitimate expenses have grown to such proportions as to cause men to stop and think. Just what can be done in the premises has not yet developed, but many of the foremost men of both parties are casting about for ways and means of meeting the situation. As at present arranged it becomes necessary for a candidate for governor or United States senator to open his campaign for nomination early in the spring and then if successful at the primaries, keep everlastingly at it till the leaves fall. It is a heavy tax upon his physical and mental powers, to say nothing of the financial drain, and there is strong demand for a radical change.

Governor-elect Edwards is not worrying over the coming session of the legislature or the appointments he will have to make. From his vacation ground in Virginia he sends word that he will meet the Republicans in charge of the legislature with the utmost cordiality, but intimates that he can fight if fight is the word. He will have his own troubles, of course, but he has a strong personality and mind of his own, which combination ought to carry him through a successful administration.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

Try one Brunswick Tire. Learn how good a tire can be built. And remember, it costs no more than like-type tires.

MOTHERS GO TO SCHOOL TO LEARN DRESSMAKING

Where Philadelphia Grown-Ups are Taught Dressmaking

A surprisingly large number of women in Philadelphia, as in other big cities, don't know how to make dresses or trim hats. One of the activities which Community Service has started in the Pennsylvania metropolis is a series of night classes where women can learn these things together with other domestic arts.

The women meet in a public school, sit at the desks like regular pupils and find the blackboard a great help in the study of patterns.

Simple garments for the children form the first objects of study for the beginners. With a little girl as model, with the blackboard patterns, a tape measure, and an efficient teacher, the class is making rapid progress.

"So that's the way to cut out a shoulder!" sighed one mother in relief when the first demonstration ended. "I never could make 'em come together right under the arm."

"And that's a button-hole, is it?" said another. "Well, it won't ever bother me again, for sure."

It looks as though any number of Philadelphia children were going to be dressed more inexpensively and more prettily—and more easily—than ever before.

Home Service.

RECRUITING STATION

One of the most constructive activities of the American Red Cross in the war was Home Service in the United States, the friendly connecting link between the soldier far from home and his loved ones. This branch of the work which under the peace program of the Red Cross will be expanded to benefit all who need the assistance it can provide, is directed by scientifically trained social workers. Since instituted Home Service has assisted 800,000 soldiers' and sailors' families. This photograph shows one of the innumerable Home Service information bureaus where service men and their families could bring their problems for solution.

Snakes.

It is known that some species of serpents lay eggs, as farmers often plow them up, and upon opening them they find the embryo snake within the leathery covering. The eggs of the same species vary in size and shape, but are always oval. As a rule it is the con-stricting snake, or those which kill their prey by squeezing it, that lay eggs; such as the black snake, box constrictor, etc.

Great Enthusiasm for Y. W. C. A. Drive

The evening service at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday was given over to a Y. W. C. A. rally, which was largely attended.

Miss Bowman, of the publicity department of the National headquarters, New York City, spoke on what women are doing in the world today, referring particularly to the work done over seas by the Y. W. C. A.

The musical program was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Samuel W. Collins rendered a solo, and the choir sang two anthems. The prelude by Miss Sterling, the church organist, was excellently executed.

The local committee was very much gratified to see the large representation from the various churches in response to the invitation.

It is the aim of the county Y. W. C. A. organization to enroll 5000 members during the Y. W. C. A. week.

Those desiring to become members may communicate with Mrs. Alexander Marcy.

Porch Club Notes

Members and friends of the Porch Club were given an unusual and entertaining afternoon by Mrs. Charles B. Darborow, chairman of the entertainment committee.

The Pansy Film Co., very limited, of Riverton, featured "Wild Nell, or Her Final Sacrifice," with great success.

The Pansy Sextet illustrated the wonders of the human-voiced phonograph, a discovery of Mrs. C. H. Tolt.

Madame Marcia deMach was heard for the first time on any stage in her big song hits, "Oh! How She Can Sing" and "You'd Be Surprised."

The Pansy Club closed the afternoon with another one-act play, entitled "A Widow's Worries," in which the help problem was almost solved.

At different times the readers of these columns have been advised not to postpone the day of their purchase at Morgan Heights, for if they do, they are likely to suffer disappointment.

There are only a limited number of lots in Morgan Heights, and as ground will not stretch, only a limited number of people can be accommodated.

An Invitation

Through the courtesy of Mrs. H. C. Boden, chairman of Food and Home Economics of the Civic Club, Philadelphia, a cordial invitation is extended to the women of South Jersey to attend an all-day conference on the high cost of living and thrift, to be held at the City Club, 313 South Broad street, December 4, from 10.30 to 12.30, and 2 to 4.30. A buffet luncheon will be served for fifty cents.

The conference will be divided into four divisions: (1) The farmer's and producer's viewpoint; (2) The retailer's viewpoint; (3) Clothing and shoes; (4) Roundtable on thrift and a household budget.

On so important a question it is hardly necessary to urge the women of this vicinity to take advantage of this opportunity.

Time for discussion will be allowed after each speaker.

Mrs. Howard Armstrong is spending a week with Mrs. J. M. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall expect to leave for California next Tuesday.

J. P. Campbell is occupying the L. W. Collings property on Main street.

Stanley Craft entertained at a family dinner party on Thanksgiving Day.

George Riley, of Bordentown, was the Thanksgiving guest of John S. Bradley.

Charles M. Biddle and family have gone to Hot Springs, Va., for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark will attend the Army and Navy football game in New York Saturday.

Thinking of having some painting done? Call W. J. Keane, painter and decorator, phone 297-M.

Mrs. Marjorie DeMotte, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ross Elliott, has returned to Alexandria, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Armstrong, of Wilmington, spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Armstrong.

Mrs. William Cumpston left on Monday for Loray, Va., where she will join her husband, who has a charge there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wheeler, of New Brunswick, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden H. Mattie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strong, of Wilmington, Del., spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Elsie.

Mrs. Nellie Cavanna, Miss Augusta Cavanna and Mrs. Henrietta Pfeiffer spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adam at Mt. Airy.

The forty-fifth annual meeting of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society will be held at the Chalfonte, Atlantic City, December 1, 2 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Flanagan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitner Rogers for the week end last week, at their home at West Chester, Pa.

Mrs. Schull entertained on Thanksgiving her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton, of Bethlehem, also her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Philadelphia.

It is now reported that the trolley company will fill the excavations it made with the intention of changing the course of its track on Broad street and thereby making this improvement until spring.

Colonel and Mrs. Franklin D'Olier spent Thanksgiving at their home in Riverton, having just returned from Minneapolis, where they were the elected National Commander of the American Legion.

Have you thought of a phonograph for a Christmas present—for yourself or your friends? McAllister, Palmyra, has the Sonora. For terms see ad in this issue. He also sells records, sheet and roll music.

Miss Katharine Durham, of Pine street, Philadelphia, will make her debut on Saturday at a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford, followed by a theatre party. Miss Augusta Cavanna will be one of the guests.

Harry Biddle, of St. David's, who has been spending a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. H. C. Biddle, will leave on Saturday for Hibernia, Florida, on a gunning trip, and will be accompanied by Dr. Alexander Marcy.

Don't miss the Forester's bazaar and dance Monday evening, December 8, Collins building, Riverton. Splendid dolls and many other novelties suitable for Christmas presents.

Dale Filler's new "land yacht" arrived in Riverton last Saturday, and has been the cause of much admiration. It is quite equalled or surpassed the descriptions that were published about it in the daily papers.

Cinnamon Lodge, No. 201, L. O. O. F., will give a moving picture benefit at the Broadway Palace next Wednesday evening, December 3, tickets 25c, including war tax. The film will be "Florence Reed in 'The Woman Under Oath'."

Mrs. Paul A. Houghtaling surprised her guest, Mrs. Adam Keller, of Belleport, Long Island, and her son, Dr. Witt Houghtaling, with a party Saturday evening. The occasion was Dr. Witt's birthday anniversary. Dancing and singing was the rule until midnight.

The women of the visiting board of the New Jersey Colony for Feeble-minded Males at Four Mile, are making their annual appeal for the maintenance of the colony. The girls are now eighty boys in the colony, and those who desire to add a bit to their Christmas cheer may send their contributions to Mrs. C. C. Miller, 101 Lippincott avenue, Riverton.

The second payment of taxes will be due next Monday, December 1, and Collector Fred P. Hemphill will sit at the fire house from 1 to 4, and 2 to 5, for the purpose of receiving payments. Those who did not pay the first installment when due June 1, will be charged interest at the rate of six per cent, on the amount that should have been paid at that time.

A pageant entitled "The Flame of the Spirit of God" will be given in Christ Church, Riverton, on Sunday, November 30, at 11 o'clock service, under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Shreve. This pageant, which demonstrates the reason for the nation-wide campaign, has been authorized by the Bishop of the Diocese for use at the public worship of the church on that date.

Another boost in the gas rate, approved the Public Utility Commission, will permit the Public Service Gas Company to charge the greater number of its consumers, $1.15 per thousand cubic feet, commencing December 1. This is an advance of 18 cents per thousand over the wartime rate of 97 cents, which in itself represents an increase of seven cents over the rate formerly in effect.

Murray C. Boyer and Fred P. Hemphill will represent the Riverton Board of Education at the meeting of the State Federation of District Boards of Education, in Trenton, on Saturday. One of the important subjects to be discussed is the salaries of teachers. An address by Dr. Frank Crane will be one of the attractive features of the afternoon session.

Camden City Council has taken steps toward securing a memorial and convention hall for the boys, which has been talked of for a long time. A committee has been appointed to look into the matter of site, and the candidates are quite optimistic over the prospect of a fine building soon. If our memory serves us right, the same project was some time ago.

The Women's Burlington County Historical Society desires to complete its collection of genealogical records of this county.

Will families having such records either send a copy to Mrs. Benj. Meehling, Highway, Riverton, before December 15, or notify her so that a copy may be made and placed on file. The society is also glad to receive any papers or letters of historical interest which their owners wish to preserve for future generations.

The annual Thanksgiving entertainment of the pupils of the Riverton public school was held Wednesday afternoon, and despite the inclement weather, the auditorium was filled.

The program contained twenty-two numbers, all of which were rendered in a manner reflecting credit on both the faculty and the pupils. A most interesting number was a play, "Thanksgiving in 1623," written by Estella Myers, a girl in the sixth grade, and given by eleven of her classmates, under the direction of the playwright, assisted by her teacher, Miss Frances Fogg.

The seventh annual reception, drill and dance of Camden Forest, No. 5, Fall Cedars of Lebanon, held in the Third Regiment Armory Wednesday evening, eclipsed all former occasions of its kind. Governor Runyon and his party of fourteen, including Adjutant General Gilkison and State Treasurer William T. Read, were guests of honor.

The Forest presented to each of its members who had been in the service, a certificate and a gold knife and chain. There were over two hundred couples in the grand march, which was led by Grand Tall Cedar Edward H. Flagg and wife. Nearly a hundred were present from Riverton and Palmyra.

When Calvin Clark, aged 10, was arraigned before the county court this week charged with a long list of crimes, including the burning of a barn, without a friend in the courtroom, and with no one to represent or defend him, he presented a spectacle indeed.

A lawyer, George M. Bacon, of Riverside, who was in court on other business, heard of his case and offered to look after his interests. After brief conference with the lad, in which he learned that he was born in the Philadelphia slums, and that his father, who he had no care, Mr. Bacon said that if it was satisfactory to the court he would take the boy home and give him a decent upbringing.

By this time it was dark. Palmyra elected to kick. It was a fiasco, but events that quickly followed were a decided success as far as breaking up the game was concerned. The kick went into the crowd, which was surging onto the field, and someone threw in an extra ball, which certainly stunned the game.

Each side failed to have a recovery, the ball and the crowd rushed onto the field in a mass, milling around and each offering his own version of how, when and where. This kept up so long that it became too dark for further play and the game was called, making it an 0-0 score. Had there been ten more minutes of play Riverton probably would have scored.

The game as a whole was a decided disappointment in all but one respect, and that was the cleanliness of the play. Without a doubt, Riverton and Palmyra have never staged a holiday battle that could touch this one for clean football. This no doubt was due as much to the efforts of "Sonny" Wright, ardent advocate of good sportsmanship, and the using of efforts of Umpire Holvick as to any other factor. Holvick was repeatedly on the job for fair play and in so, he was highly commended for his efforts. Russell Blackburne's decisions were always impartial despite numerous howls to the contrary.

About the game there is little more to be said, at least nothing that would make pleasant reading, and guided by the best of intentions, we will not pull the cover on the old Underwood and let it go at that. Persons desiring further detail may hear the game played over at "Bill" Strimble's, or on Pine's sidewalk any night for the next several days.

Features of the Game

The playing of Andrews, Boehme, Stack and "Bucky" Wallace.

Charles Bates' "through centre" tackle of Sharpe.

Joe Stock's "no stop" recovery of a fumble.

Jameson's line plungings.

It is understood that another game, probably Saturday, December 6, will be arranged between the two teams.

Palmyra is scheduled to play at Riverside, claimants of the South Jersey championship, this Saturday.

For more than ten years the Anti-Tuberculosis Association of the United States has been using the Double Red Cross as a symbol or emblem which should indicate the fight against the disease in which they are engaged.

It was first adopted for this purpose as a symbol of the International Anti-Tuberculosis Association in Berlin, October, 1901. Its proposer was Dr. C. S. Sisson, of Paris. The shape was taken from the Croix de Lorraine and the cross of the Croix de Lorraine Church. In 1912 a special committee was appointed by the National Tuberculosis Association to consider the standardization and permanent design of the double cross as an emblem for all tuberculosis associations of the United States.

One of the first emblems to be further removed from any design of religious significance and because further removed from the well-known emblem of the American Red Cross—the Cross of Mercy, and its widespread use has made it familiar to the public and associated it with the tuberculosis movement and better health.

The approaching national campaign for the sale of the Liberty Bonds Christmas seal will mean the largest work of prevention and the furthering of the great fight against the greatest foe to mankind. One hundred and fifty thousand die every year of tuberculosis. Be ready for the seal campaign and help save a life.

Opposed to Memorial Building

Editor New Era:

In reference to the article in the New Era, November 14, entitled "New Plan for Memorial" I note it proposes a building to cost $25,000 to be located on the lot now owned by the borough at Fourth and Howard streets, and at least $50,000 more to be added to the cost, to the borough, at least $25,000. The maintenance will cost perhaps $2000 more so it would appear that the interest charges on this $25,000 at 5% would be $1250, plus the $2000 cost of maintenance, plus a sinking fund of $2000, making the total per year paid off each year to liquidate the $25,000 cost; this would be $4250 more, making the total amount to be raised per year by taxation, some $4600.

I also learn that one member of Council has quite an elaborate memorandum which will necessitate spending many thousands more, and at a time when abnormal labor conditions will suggest the current month in bold legible type, give the Calendar of the preceding and succeeding month in smaller type in the margin. It is a rich and practical piece of work.

GREAT GAME SPOILED

BY DARKNESS

The Annual Battle Between Riverton and Palmyra Stopped by Early Darkness With Riverton About to Score

By "Hap" Mathews

Previous to Thursday afternoon the annual clash between the two local eleven looked a soft proposition. Fifteen minutes before the game started, Blackburd had started the festivities. It was evident that Palmyra had an exceedingly busy afternoon staring them in the face.

Neither team at this stage of the battle were playing their real game, though Riverton by upsetting the dope in such a startling manner, appeared to be much stronger than the home boys.

As the game slowly passed into history it became plain that Palmyra's line was composed of large car-sized holes through which the yellow section of the game, Riverton breezed without touching either side.

Several times on an attempt to forward pass, Flynn was hurled back to wicked losses without having the opportunity to hurt the oval and compete the history of the game. The first quarter ended with Palmyra's enthusiasm below par and the dope badly jacked.

The second period was productive of its members who had been in the service, a certificate and a gold knife and chain. There were over two hundred couples in the grand march, which was led by Grand Tall Cedar Edward H. Flagg and wife. Nearly a hundred were present from Riverton and Palmyra.

When Calvin Clark, aged 10, was arraigned before the county court this week charged with a long list of crimes, including the burning of a barn, without a friend in the courtroom, and with no one to represent or defend him, he presented a spectacle indeed.

A lawyer, George M. Bacon, of Riverside, who was in court on other business, heard of his case and offered to look after his interests. After brief conference with the lad, in which he learned that he was born in the Philadelphia slums, and that his father, who he had no care, Mr. Bacon said that if it was satisfactory to the court he would take the boy home and give him a decent upbringing.

By this time it was dark. Palmyra elected to kick. It was a fiasco, but events that quickly followed were a decided success as far as breaking up the game was concerned. The kick went into the crowd, which was surging onto the field, and someone threw in an extra ball, which certainly stunned the game.

Each side failed to have a recovery, the ball and the crowd rushed onto the field in a mass, milling around and each offering his own version of how, when and where. This kept up so long that it became too dark for further play and the game was called, making it an 0-0 score. Had there been ten more minutes of play Riverton probably would have scored.

The game as a whole was a decided disappointment in all but one respect, and that was the cleanliness of the play. Without a doubt, Riverton and Palmyra have never staged a holiday battle that could touch this one for clean football. This no doubt was due as much to the efforts of "Sonny" Wright, ardent advocate of good sportsmanship, and the using of efforts of Umpire Holvick as to any other factor. Holvick was repeatedly on the job for fair play and in so, he was highly commended for his efforts. Russell Blackburne's decisions were always impartial despite numerous howls to the contrary.

About the game there is little more to be said, at least nothing that would make pleasant reading, and guided by the best of intentions, we will not pull the cover on the old Underwood and let it go at that. Persons desiring further detail may hear the game played over at "Bill" Strimble's, or on Pine's sidewalk any night for the next several days.

Features of the Game

The playing of Andrews, Boehme, Stack and "Bucky" Wallace.

Charles Bates' "through centre" tackle of Sharpe.

Joe Stock's "no stop" recovery of a fumble.

Jameson's line plungings.

It is understood that another game, probably Saturday, December 6, will be arranged between the two teams.

INTERESTING NEWS BITS in and around Palmyra

Buy It At Home.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1919

The High School Literary Society is planning to publish a bi-weekly school paper.

The new knitting mill in West Palmyra is expected to begin operation in about two months.

Mrs. Smith, of Flatbush, Pa., is visiting with her brother, C. H. Pascoe, on Melrose street.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bowker. All members urged to attend.

Thomas Taylor, of Lehigh University, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Taylor.

Mrs. Dorothy Parrott, nee Brown, and children, of Virginia, spent Sunday with Mrs. William and Elvin Powell.

The enlarged photos of the late members of the Township Committee, James E. Russell and C. Harry Hill, have been placed in City Hall.

Collector of Taxes Rudduck sat at the Fire House Wednesday evening to receive taxes and will also be at the same place next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. W. Field and daughter, Margaret, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Helen Field at Pennsylvania State College.

In the case of George Atkinson, indicted for assault and battery upon Margaret Witcox, Palmyra, the Mount Holly court on Monday imposed a fine of $50.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tees, of Massachusetts, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tees, of Morgan avenue.

The Independence Fire Company's new truck has been painted in regulation fire truck hues and is expected to be ready in a few days. They say it's a beauty.

Freeholder Land has opened up Lincoln avenue and graded it as far as Golf road. Mr. Land also has repaired the sidewalk at the end of the boulevard.

Don't forget the Forester's bazaar and dance, Monday evening, December 8, Collins Building, Riverton. Splendid dolls and many other novelties suitable for Christmas.—Adv. 2

Mrs. George Roden continues very seriously ill with pneumonia and influenza. Lincoln Roden, a recent influenza sufferer, now has a badly infected hand, which was injured in opening oysters.

More than twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCrossen surprised them with a party at their home last Saturday evening. The old-fashioned square dances were a feature of the evening.

The Calder Class will hold their regular social and business meeting next Friday evening, December 5, at the home of Mrs. Agnes Harrison, 704 Highland avenue. Meet at station at quarter of eight.

The "quartermaster" Bible Class will hold their monthly meeting next Christmas social, at the home of Mrs. William Russell. Every member is requested to bring a present in exchange for another one.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell gave a family party Thanksgiving Day, entertaining Howard Powell and children, of Merchantville; Mrs. Betty Longfield, of Bridgeboro; Mrs. Corolla Cann, and Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Powell and children.

The new school furniture for the eighth grade has arrived and will be ready for use by Monday. The school authorities are very grateful to the patrons who loaned tables and chairs for the use of the children before the desks arrived.

The agitation in favor of a commission form of government is being revived in Palmyra. George N. Wimer has received some letters from other towns where the commission plan is in effect, giving details of its advantages.

A huge crowd attended the minstrel and dance given Thursday evening by Deen's Peerless Ones. The minstrels certainly demonstrated that there is a lot of talent in the two old towns, and the dancing was followed continued till after midnight.

A district meeting of the Castles of the Knights of the Golden Eagle from Beverly, Burlington and Florence will be held in the hall of Palmyra Castle, No. 22, E. G. E. West, Wednesday, December 3. It is earnestly requested that every Sir Knight of Palmyra Castle attend this meeting. Luncheon will be served.

The Artisans celebrated Elmer Wade's night last Tuesday evening, and there was a big turnout in honor of the popular former sky-pilot. A visitation from the next Most Excellent Master Artisan, Harry Jackson, and his Assembly, Girard, was entertained and there was a most interesting program, consisting of acrobatics, boxing, singing and refreshments.

A new Board of Trade has been organized in Riverton, which is one of the leading men of the town, and a booster campaign for the town will be launched January 1. One of the first aims of the new association will be to improve the housing situation, and the board will also seek to develop a strong community spirit, encouraging home buying and local patronage. Why not a Board of Trade for Palmyra?

Collector of Taxes Rudduck reports a slow evening Wednesday, which he spent at the fire house to receive payments. It seemed that many property owners were ignoring the advance of the time for payment, and in other cases it seemed that recent exchanges of real estate caused confusion as to who was to pay the taxes. The collector will sit at the fire house all day and evening Monday, the last day for payment.

The annual meeting of the Palmyra Branch of the Needlework Guild of America was held in the Baptist Church last week on Thursday. Over 600 garments and about $17 in cash was contributed. Mrs. Jeannette Holmes, of Tacony, spoke along the various lines of work of the Guild. Mrs. Arthur M. Boyer was appointed treasurer in place of Mrs. Ira C. Monach, who has moved away. Three new directors were elected: Mrs. John C. Westway, Mrs. Theo. L. Morris and Mrs. Forrest MacCorkle.

In the county court this week George W. Shaner & Sons were awarded judgment in the sum of $277.94 against Mrs. Ida Bonnell and her husband, Henry Bonnell, for repairs made to their house. The contractors sued for a lien against the property, but this was denied by the court, as the husband's share in the property is held by his brother, Edward Bonnell. The Bonnells have not lived together since 1912, and the order for the repairs was given by Mrs. Bonnell after the separation.

Lad Killed By Train

Another name was added to the list of tragedies that have occurred on the railroad along West Broad street Wednesday afternoon, when little James McCaffrey, seven-year-old son of Cornelius McCaffrey, of 423 West Broad street, was killed by the third section of the Nelligan, Atlantic City bound, about 4 o'clock.

The lad had been watching a football game at the Field Club grounds and had started home. He crossed the tracks immediately behind an east-bound train and had almost cleared the rails in front of the speeding locomotive when he was not seen.

The bumper on the engine caught him in the back of the head. The train stopped and the crew gave the alarm. Chief of Police Beck took charge of the situation, but could not get in touch with the county authorities to get permission to move the body until nearly seven o'clock.

The McCaffreys moved here from 2621 East Adams street about a month ago. Several persons have been killed on the railroad between Palmyra and West Palmyra stations in the last few years, usually after crossing behind a moving train without waiting long enough to be sure that another is not coming from the other direction.

It is not often that persons have the opportunity to buy lots in a fine residential section with a fair number of fruit trees on it; yet this rare opportunity is offered to our readers by a moving train without waiting long enough to be sure that another is not coming from the other direction.

Baptist Church Elects Officers

The annual supper, roll call and business meeting of the Central Baptist Church was held on Monday evening, November 24. An excellent supper was prepared and served by the Ladies' Aid Society and was greatly enjoyed by a large number of members of the church, after which the roll was called. Encouraging reports were made by all the organizations of the church, showing all bills paid and the balance in each of the treasuries. Over $2000 in benevolences have been paid out during the year. A substantial addition was made to the pastor's salary. The salaries had been increased since the last annual meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Clarence T. Yorkes; clerk, Henry A. Stiles; treasurer, Robert S. Golden; trustees, Walton Taylor, Leslie W. Ropes and Howard R. Elliott; deacons, J. Otto Thilow, Charles C. Green; deaconesses, Mrs. Charles C. Green, Mrs. Walton Taylor, Mrs. Ada Bard, Mrs. Sarah Wiggins, Mrs. William H. Green; music committee, J. Brooks, T. S. Branson, A. C. Roray, Miss A. Mae Brown and Mrs. Charles W. Williams.

Another one of our townspeople, Mr. D. W. Johnson, has taken advantage of the opportunity to locate on Morgan Heights, having purchased property on Columbia avenue near Franklin avenue. A feature of the Morgan Heights sales (which is going to add to its permanent beauty and comfort of living) is the fact that most of the purchasers are buying 75- and 100-foot fronts. Adv.

Washington Camp, No. 23, P. O. S. A. The camp is making preparations to take a large delegation to the district meeting to be held at Hainesport, December 3. We would impress upon each member the necessity of his attendance at this meeting. Come out and meet your brothers of the county. Help build the district. Meet at the camp room 7:30 sharp.

In fact, why not attend every meeting night at your own camp? Preparations are made for a feature every Monday night.

Seventy-five members of the camp attended patriotic Thanksgiving service at the Episcopal Church last Sunday evening. The Rev. Mr. Robinson preached a special sermon in honor of the occasion.

Two Plans for Garbage Disposal The proposition made to the Township Committee last week by Mr. McNail, when he asked for the contract for the removal of ashes and garbage from the town for a sum of $1200 a year, is receiving considerable attention.

Real estate men who know what people planning to buy homes expect to find in a town of this size declare that ash and garbage removal would be a great aid in the development of the town. It is figured that residents now spend a great deal more than $1200 altogether for this purpose, and in addition are put to considerable trouble in finding somebody to do it regularly.

Some doubt was expressed as to whether Mr. McNail could afford to do it for $1200 owing to the size of the job. He planned, however, to store the ashes and sell them for the many uses to which they are put and to feel the garbage to his own hope, of which he raises a great many.

Township Chairman Davies has another solution of the ash and garbage problem which is meeting with a good deal of approval. He expects the sewers to be in operation within a year, leaving all properties with one large sewer or more in the yards to be filled up. Mr. Davies suggests that these wells be filled gradually by each household dumping his ash and other refuse into them, thus saving both the expense of hiring them filled and that of hiring the refuse hauled away.

Penns Grove Wins by One Point Palmyra's defeat last Saturday at the hands of Penns Grove by a single point was something of a heart breaker. Penns Grove had a speedy and heavy aggregation and outplayed the locals in the first half, scoring one touchdown and kicking goal.

The "Palmyraites" got going in the second half and gained ground rapidly by several brilliant forward passes, as well as by successful line plunging. When within ten yards of the goal line, the locals pulled off a fine trick play and "Tony" Boehme carried the ball over in a flash. The joy of the Palmyra football players was dashed by the referee disqualifying this touchdown owing to one of the locals holding.

Palmyra was not disheartened and soon was within striking distance again. This time Anderson plunged forward in the scoring line. Owing to the disqualification, Palmyra failed to tie the score by kicking goal and the game ended with the count 7-5. Anderson suffered a badly injured ankle shortly after scoring, and it is feared he will not play any more this season.

We have been informed that one of our townspeople, Mr. J. Horace Finney, has purchased a good sized lot of ground on Morgan Heights, and that it is his intention to build there at an early date. Adv.

Temple Girls Lose One and Win One

Before a large crowd the Temple Girls basketball team lost and won from the St. Simons team, of Philadelphia, Monday night. The girls played a good fast game. Miss Fox and Miss Gorman were stars for Temple, while Miss Hilda Fritz and Miss Hemmings held up St. Simons' end. Hemmings was referee.

I. O. O. F. Moses MacCready represented Cinnaminson Lodge, No. 201, at the Odd Fellows' Convention held at Newark on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Highland avenue in a few years undoubtedly will be the main and most attractive entrance to the Palmyra and Riverton districts. Wise is the man who makes his selection and buys his lot at this time. Adv.

Five Points Mrs. Buck, Miss May Vandegrift and John Vandegrift spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Newark. Paul Eichfeld had his wrist sprained at the Westfield school on Tuesday.

Builder Davis has made himself quite at home on Morgan Heights, and is going ahead with his development, feeling confident that Morgan Heights has a great future. Adv.

MUST ADVANCE TEACHERS' PAY

New Jersey Commissioner of Education Advocates Minimum Salary of $1,200.

WORK IS BADLY HAMPERED.

May Have to Increase State School
Tax, but Necessity is Pressing—Every Institution and Department Needs More.

Trenton.—An increase in the state school tax and a minimum salary of $1,200 a year for teachers will be recommended by State Commissioner of Education Kendall in his annual report, he stated in an address at a conference of county superintendents at the State Normal School. Shortage of teachers, Dr. Kendall said, has created a serious situation in the state's educational system and there are no prospects of an improvement during the next few years. More than 200 schools in the state are being taught by teachers who are not qualified for the duties, said Dr. Kendall, and the number of young women and young men who are taking up the profession is steadily decreasing because of the low standard of salaries.

There are at present 1,400 students in the teachers' colleges in the state, declared Dr. Kendall, must be remedied to save the educational system from deterioration. He proposed upon the county superintendents and teachers the new duty of inducing promising high school pupils to take up the teacher's course.

The cost of maintaining the schools of the state has doubled since 1910, Dr. Kendall pointed out. Last year the expenses of the department amounted to $25,000,000 and for the current year there will be an expenditure of $30,000,000.

The commissioner warned against the danger of allowing the spirit of unrest that is characterizing the social, industrial and political life of the nation to affect the interests and activities of the state's teaching force. Notwithstanding the fact that there may be dissatisfaction concerning their present salaries, he urged the teachers to keep clear heads, and continue their work regardless of the disturbing influences abroad.

"Bolshevism is abroad with a red hand," said Dr. Kendall, "but with the aid of the teachers, the children will be prevented from becoming prey for the red-handed Soviets." An alarming condition of illiteracy has been brought to light by the war, he said, but expressed the belief that material benefit would result from the passing by Congress of the Americanization bill, carrying with it an appropriation of $1,200,000.

Of this amount, New Jersey gets $400,000, provided that the state makes available a similar appropriation. The size of this amount, however, offers a serious obstacle in so far as New Jersey is concerned, Dr. Kendall said.

Suffrage was warmly endorsed by Dr. Kendall and he expressed the opinion that the extension of the right of franchise to women would have a substantial effect toward counteracting the effects of red-handed propaganda throughout the country.

When the legislature convenes it will be called upon to consider the most stupendous demands for money ever made by a law-making body in the history of New Jersey. Every institution, penal, charitable and correctional, and every department in the state government is calling for money, and during the coming winter the legislature will be asked to make lavish appropriations.

This is indicated definitely in the plans of the State Board of Control of Institutions and Agencies, which has just completed a tentative approved recommendations of its budget committee for maintenance appropriations for eight institutions in its control. For these eight the total appropriations will be approximately $310,673, and this increase will represent only a part of the increased burdens for maintenance, as such institutions as the Morris Plains Hospital for the insane, the Trenton Hospital, the state prison at Trenton and the Rahway Reformatory, are not included, and these are the largest. Added to the increase for maintenance, the State Board will ask for approximately $1,000,000 for new buildings, which are considered to be immediately necessary.

Another item that will be asked for as soon as the legislature convenes will be an appropriation of $500,000, needed to meet increased salaries and other maintenance costs for the balance of the current fiscal year. The estimate for this item is now being prepared by State Comptroller Newton A. K. Bugbee. Every indication points to the fact that New Jersey within the next few months will be called upon to bear its peak load of financial burden.

Thought Prices Reached Peak.
During the session of the last legislature the tremendous size of the appropriation bill created great comment, and it was anticipated at that time that prices had reached the top. This did not prove the case, however, with the result that departments and institutions are now confronted with a very serious problem in their efforts to "make ends meet," and most of them will not be able to do this unless a supplemental appropriation is received from the incoming legislature.

Then there will also be a further provision for the Hudson river tunnel and the Delaware river bridge projects, and the plan is to ask for an additional $1,000,000 for work on these projects during the coming year. It is now said to be the plan of the state comptroller to suggest that the bridge and the tunnel be financed by a bond issue, but this will necessitate ratification by the voters of the state, and the funds would not be available very soon.

The State Board of Control of Institutions and Agencies has made rather definite plans for the expenditure of its money and for its future operation. It will strongly recommend the removal of the state prison from Trenton to the site of the Rahway Reformatory. It will further ask that the reformatory be removed to Annandale on the site of the State Farm there, and that a new farm of about 400 acres be purchased for occupancy by the quiet, able-bodied insane. The original plan called for the use of the Annandale farm for insane patients. The board has agreed upon the following work as being absolutely essential:

State Hospital at Trenton, $250,000 for a mess hall and living quarters; $400,000 to complete the new hospital building, and $35,000 for extraordinary reconstruction and repair of old buildings.

Feeble-minded colony at New Lisbon, $120,000 for two dormitories, $21,000 for an infirmary, $30,000 for the construction of a new road from New Lisbon to the colony, and $6,350 for 40 acres additional farm land.

Home for Feeble-minded at Vineland, $100,000 for a building to house idiots of the lowest grade and a sufficient amount for sewage, lighting and heating.

Glen Gardner Sanatorium, $50,000 for an employees' building, $35,000 for an engineer's house, $4,000 for a play pavilion for tubercular children and $3,000 for a building to store alfalfa.

State Home for Girls, $80,000 for a reception hall, quarantine building, $15,000 for an addition to the infirmary and $45,000 for a promotion cottage.

State Home for Boys, $45,000 for a reception cottage, $30,000 for a segregation cottage and $25,000 for a superintendent's home and staff building combined.

The appropriations for maintenance recommended by the board are as follows:

Clinton Reformatory, $63,117, an increase of $7,455.

New Lisbon Colony, $44,078, an increase of $5,593.

Clinton Reformatory, $63,117, an increase of $7,455.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. F. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 30

JESUS TEACHES PETER TRUE GREATNESS.

LESSON TEXT—John 13:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Matt. 20:28.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Washing the Disciples' Feet.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Taking the Place of a Servant.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The Dignity of Common Tasks.

I. Christ's Amazing Love for His Own (vv. 1-3).
Jesus was fully conscious of what was upon him. He knew that the blood with all its anguish was just before him. He knew that his disciples would shamefully forsake him in a few hours. He knew that one of that number would be the instrument of his betrayal. He knew that all things were in his hands; was fully conscious of his duty. Notwithstanding all this, he displayed patient and unflinching love. He did not withdraw his love from them because of their weakness and the shameful failure which he knew would soon be manifest.

II. Christ Washing His Disciples' Feet (vv. 4-11).
This act is symbolic of his amazing love for his disciples. Jesus did not regard his hands as too holy to do this menial service. The true Christian does not allow his rank in society to keep him from acts of lowly service.

1. Steps in this service: (1) He rose from supper, (2) laid aside his garments, (3) took a towel and girded himself, (4) poured water into a basin, (5) washed his disciples' feet, (6) wiped them with a towel where he was girded. These steps symbolize Christ's entire work of redemption. His rising from supper represents his rising from his realm of only man to the heavenly glory; his laying aside his garments, his putting aside his vesture of majesty (Phil. 2:7, 8); his girding himself, his taking the form of a servant (Phil. 2:7); the water in the basin, his cleansing blood; his washing of their feet, his actual cleansing of men through his Word (John 15:3; Eph. 5:26); his taking his garments again, his return to his place and position of glory.

2. Peter's Impetuous Ignorance. He goes from one extreme to another. In his failure to understand the significance of this service that caused him to behave so strangely.

3. The significance of this service to those who participate in it. (1) It is a spiritual cleansing (v. 8). Fellowship with Jesus is only possible as we are continually cleansed from our sins. "He that is washed needeth not to wash his feet, but is clean every whit" (v. 10). The cleansing here is not the washing of regeneration, but that of sanctification. Even regenerate men need the continual cleansing of Christ's blood in order to have fellowship with him. He that is regenerated—washed in the blood of Christ, symbolized by baptism—does not need the cleansing of sanctification, symbolized by the washing of the feet. As we go through this world after regeneration we are contaminated by its sins. He is willing always to cleanse us of our sins if we allow him to. A badge of brotherly affection. This act showed his abandonment to the service of his own. This is a lesson that is much needed today. We need more and more the fulness of brotherly love. This love needs to be manifested so it may be seen and realized. True love can only be proved by the service it renders. (3) A proof of humility. This is a lesson much needed by us all. The disciples have just been disputing as to who should be the greatest in the kingdom; their selfish ambition was expressing itself. Today, on every hand, we see expressions of pride, vanity, and even arrogance on the part of those who are professed followers of the lowly Jesus. If the Son of God was not ashamed to stoop to lowly service his disciples should not regard it beneath their dignity to follow in his steps. (4) Equalization. As they would thus stoop to serve each other in the name of Christ there would be sure destruction of caste among them. The Spirit of Christ in this service is the great leveler of humanity.

III. An Example for Us (vv. 12-16).
The disciples of the Lord are under obligation to do unto each other as he did unto them. This obligation rests upon his Lordship (v. 14). All who call him Lord in sincerity will obey him. To refuse to obey him is to put one's self above his Lord.

Bearing the Burden.
As to the burden, be content to bear it, until thou come to the place of deliverance; for there it will fall from thy back of itself.—Bunyan.

JAMES A. SHERET,
Sergeant, Company F, 104th Infantry.

Conspicuous gallantry in action near Remonville, France, September 29, 1918, when he saved his life dearly, won the Distinguished Service Cross for Sergeant Sheret. During the operations against the Hindenburg line this soldier displayed exceptional bravery in several single-handed attacks on enemy positions. After rushing two hostile posts and killing the occupants with his revolver, Sergeant Sheret attacked four of the enemy in a machine gun position, killed one of them before he was himself surrounded and killed by the other three. Sergeant Sheret's mother lives at 23 West Park Street, Albion, N. Y.

BEDFORD B. LUNSFORD,
Corporal, Company M, 117th Infantry.

Corporal Lunsford (deceased) was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action near Bellcourt, France, October 7, 1918. When the line was held up by enemy machine gun fire Corporal Lunsford strapped an automatic rifle to his shoulder and advanced in the face of machine gun fire. Firing as he went forward, he killed four of the enemy before he fell dead, riddled with bullets. Thomas Lunsford, his father, lives in Mount Vernon, Tenn.

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING

War Council Tells How Millions
Contributed by Public Were Used for Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED

In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000, in the United States.

Washington, (Special.)—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows:

"The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the war. The report is being sent to the war council in the form of a book, which will be distributed to the public. The war council was appointed May 10, 1919, and went out of existence February 28, 1919.

"A statement of the work of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this disconnected form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success.

"A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control will be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that the war council was only a temporary body, should be carefully noted."

Following are certain round figures covering American Red Cross participation in the war, as revealed by the war council's report:

Some Outstanding Figures.
Contributions received (material and money), $400,000,000.
Red Cross members:
Adults, 11,000,000
Children, 11,000,000
Relief workers, 8,100,000
Total, 29,100,000

Refreshments served by volunteer workers, 371,577,000
Home service in U.S., 500,000
Nurses enrolled for service with army, navy or Red Cross, 28,822

Kind of comfort articles distributed to soldiers and sailors in U.S., 2,700
Knitted articles given to soldiers and sailors in U.S., 10,000,000
Tons of relief supplies sent to Europe, 101,000

Foreign countries in which Red Cross operated, 25
Patient days in Red Cross hospitals in France, 1,155,000
Material aid sent to soldiers and sailors in U.S., 3,780
Gallons of nitrous oxide sent to Europe, 294,000

French hospitals, 4,340,000
Men served by Red Cross canteens, 15,374,000
Refugees aided in France, 1,720,000
Soldiers attending Red Cross movies in France, 3,110,000
Soldiers attending Red Cross ambulances in Italy, 148,000

Children by Red Cross in Italy, 155,000
Of the $400,000,000 in money and supplies contributed to the American Red Cross during the twenty months of the war, $223,000,000 was allotted to national headquarters, while $177,000,000 went to the chapters to finance their activities. Expenditures in the twenty months of the war were as follows: By national headquarters, in France, $57,000,000; elsewhere overseas, $64,000,000; in the United States, $48,000,000; by chapters in France, $43,000,000; cost of chapter-produced articles, $22,000,000; in France, $25,000,000; elsewhere overseas, $38,000,000; in the United States, $28,000,000, making total expenditures in France, $82,000,000; elsewhere overseas, $72,000,000; in the United States, $119,000,000.

JACKSON D. BURKE,
Sergeant-Major, 1st Battalion, 28th Infantry.

Sergt. Maj. Burke was decorated for the display of extraordinary courage, bravery and loyalty to duty at Cantigny, France, May 23 to 30. At one period in the fight, it was necessary to send a message of great importance to the regimental commander. It was considered impossible for a runner to reach regimental headquarters, because of the intensity of the enemy fire. He, nevertheless, volunteered to carry the message; and, by crawling several hundred yards through machine gun fire, he successfully executed his mission. Sergt. Maj. Burke's home is at Malomont, Ky.

ARTHUR J. FORREST,
Sergeant, Co. D, 354th Infantry.

Sergeant Forrest received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action with the enemy near Remonville, France, November 1, 1918. While the progress of his company was held up by a rain of fire from six enemy machine guns, Sergeant Forrest alone went forward, working his way to within fifty yards of the nest before being discovered. Charging the nest, he drove out the entire company in disorder, killing one with his rifle. His home is in Hannibal, Mo.

KELAND BROWN,
Corporal, Company B, 61st Infantry.

Corporal Brown, whose home is at Iowa Falls, Ia., was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action near Bellcourt, France, November 22, 1918. He attacked a machine gun nest single-handed and in the face of heavy fire reduced the nest, capturing one prisoner. Later in the same day he patrolled alone under heavy fire in advance of his company and attacked another machine gun position, capturing the gun and four prisoners.

PARKER C. DUNN,
Private, First Class, 1st Battalion, 312th Infantry.

Private Dunn (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near Grand-Pre, France, October 23, 1918. When his battalion commander found it necessary to send a message to a company in the attacking line and hesitated to order a runner to make the trip because of the extreme danger involved, Private Dunn, a member of the intelligence section, volunteered for the mission. Among the thousands of American soldiers who were awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conwhose feats were of such an unusual character as to stand out above the notable cases of bravery on the part of the fighting Americans, and a few of them are given below. They present only a few of the thousands of acts of heroism that are given recognition in the official records of the war department.

OSCAR F. MILLER,
Major, 361st Infantry.

Maj. Miller received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Gemes, France, September 28, 1918. After two days of intense physical and mental strain, during which Maj. Miller had led his battalion in the front line of the advance, through the forest of Argonne, the enemy was met in a prepared position south of Gemes. Though almost exhausted, he energetically reorganized his battalion and ordered an attack. Upon reaching open ground, the advancing line began to waver in the face of machine gun fire from the front and flanks and direct artillery fire. Personally leading his command group forward between his front line companies, Maj. Miller inspired his men by his personal courage and they again pressed on toward the hostile position. As this officer led the renewed attack he was shot in the right leg, but he nevertheless staggered forward at the head of his command. Upon reaching the enemy line he was shot in the right arm, but he continued the charge, personally cheering his troops on through the heavy machine gun fire. Just before the objective was reached he received a wound in the abdomen, which forced him to the ground, but he continued to urge his men on, telling them to push on to the next ridge and leave him where he lay. He died from his wounds a few days later. Maj. Miller's widow lives at 1327 West Fifty-first street, Los Angeles, Cal.

HENRY G. COSTON,
Private, Company H, 15th Infantry.

Conspicuous gallantry resulting in wounds which caused his death won the Distinguished Service Cross for Private Coston. Near Bois de Consenoye, France, October 8, 1918, when the advance of his platoon had been held up by machine gun fire, and a squad was unable to charge the nest, Private Coston was the first to volunteer. Going forward with his team under rifle fire from enemy artillery, machine guns and trench mortars, he and his comrades had become casualties and he himself had received serious wounds. He operated his gun until he collapsed, but he was resulted in the capture of 100 prisoners and several machine guns. He died shortly after from the effects of his wounds. Private Coston's widow lives at 615 Mason avenue, Cape Charles, Va.

JESSE N. FUNK,
Private, First Class, Co. L, 354th Infantry.

Private Funk received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Bois de Banville, France, October 31, 1918. During the daylight patrol he had been caught out in No Man's Land and was unable to return. Private Funk and another stretcher bearer, upon their own initiative, made two expeditions into No Man's Land, under constant machine gun fire and rescued two wounded officers. His father, Martin Funk, lives in Calhan, Colo.

JOSEPH A. BUFFALO,
Private, Company F, 25th Infantry.

Private Buffalo, who lives with his mother, Mrs. Pearl E. Buffalo, at Box 7, Okla., was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action near Feys-Haye, France, September 12, 1918. Although he was seriously wounded early in the action, Private Buffalo remained the fight throughout the day, leading small parties of men against machine gun emplacements, killing two of the enemy himself and refusing to be captured until late at night, unable to fight further.

CLIFFORD E. MELLIN,
Private, Company A, 104th Infantry.

Disregard of his own safety in an effort to save his comrades won the Distinguished Service Cross for Private Mellin. The act was performed in the Bois Haumont, France, October 15, 1918. Private Mellin, an officer, and eight other soldiers, were surrounded by the enemy in a shell hole, into which an enemy grenade was thrown, landing directly in the midst of the group. Disregarding his own safety, this soldier seized the grenade and attempted to throw it out, but he was killed before he could do so. He was killed by the enemy's grenade.

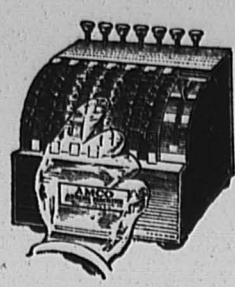

NELS WOLD,
Private, Co. I, 138th Infantry.

Private Wold (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near Cheppy, France, September 28, 1918. Private Wold rendered most valiant service in aiding the advance of his company which had been held up by machine gun nests. He advanced with one other soldier and silenced the gun, bringing with him upon his return 11 prisoners. Later the same day he jumped from a trench and rescued a comrade who was about to be shot by a German officer, killing the officer during the exploit. His actions were entirely voluntary, and it was while attempting to rush a fifth machine gun nest that he was killed. The advance of his company was mainly due to his great courage and devotion to duty. His home address was Kelly Lake, Minn.

Anyone who can read figures can operate the AMCO at once. Simplicity of operation is the key note of the AMCO Desk Adding Machine.

Its Size
The AMCO is small in size and light in weight, and truly portable—weighing only 6½ pounds. It can be placed on a man's ledger, taken from desk to desk, on a trip, or home wherever there is figuring to be done.

Durability
The AMCO is built very strongly. It is constructed of the most durable steel tested to endure the hardest kind of use. Every machine is absolutely guaranteed for one year during which period all repairs and adjustments will be made, gladly, free of charge.
