February Sale of Furniture

Our Entire Stock Below Regular Prices

In this, the first week of the Sale, hundreds of customers, after making careful inspection have shown their approval of our Furniture and our prices by selecting Furniture for their homes.

We have never had a more attractive collection of Furniture—a splendid varied assortment of NEW Bedroom, Dining-room, Breakfast-room and Living-room Suits—reproductions of the classic designs of the periods of Chippendale, Hepplewhite, Adam, Queen Anne, Louis XIV, Louis XV, Louis XVI, William and Mary, the Italian Renaissance, and the ever popular Colonial. Also innumerable single pieces or Novelty Furniture, and an unequalled assortment of Sun Parlor
Furniture—all at considerably LESS THAN OUR OWN FAIR REGULAR PRICES.

We hope you will compare our Furniture with that on sale elsewhere. We are reasonably certain that we have gathered the most attractive selection of Furniture in the city for this Sale. We suggest that you do not buy until you have seen our great stock.

Killing Rats Outranks Building Bridges

Editor The New Era:

Many thanks for your kind notice of my work for rat extermination. Your paper has always been most kind and helpful.

I enclose a copy of the Act I sent last week to Mayor Roberts with a request to file it.

Mr. Freylinghuysen, our U. S. Senator, is interested in my bounty idea, as is also Mr. Franklin Dye, for many years Secretary of State Board of Agriculture. Mr. Dye says it is a much more important idea than the Camden Bridge work.

As to the figures issued by the government, they seem colossal, $200,000,000 per year; if we could only cut this in half it would be desirable.

My idea was for the Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Corn Growing Boys and Girls, etc., to be the active workers for the bounties.

I believe many a rat eats daily enough to support a small child. I believe we are behind England in our rat work. With respect,

D. H. WRIGHT.

The Rat Act

An act for a bounty to be paid for dead rats and mice and for the cremation of their carcasses. "Be it hereby enacted: That a bounty of ten cents be paid for each dead rat and ten cents per dozen for dead mice to any person producing the same to the County Clerk of each county of New Jersey, or Secretary of State Board of Agriculture of State of New Jersey on the first Saturday of each month at noon at said county seats. Said carcasses to be cremated within three hours of purchase."

Porch Club

On Tuesday, February 10, at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Lucy E. Shreve will entertain the Porch Club with "Tales From the Northland." It is some time since we have had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Shreve and she is assured of a hearty welcome next Tuesday.

"Bluff" on the Tenth

The long-looked for production of "Bluff" will take place at the Community Hall next Tuesday evening. The curtain will be drawn at 8:15 sharp in order to allow plenty of time for those to come who want to dance is scheduled for 9:30.

The producers of "Bluff" have been asked to repeat the play in several different places as soon as possible, among them the League Island Navy Yard in the large theatre. Every incident in the play is taken from life without exaggeration and the characters are replicas of real people.

There is a lot of fun in "Bluff" and a pretty romance of the stage; yet under it all you will understand the hardships of the player-folk, the unflinching optimism, the true generosity, and above all, their ability to adapt themselves to the situation as occasion demands. Even a chorus girl has the self-assurance to tackle Shakespeare when it's that or go hungry. And half a sandwich does not go far when one has had no breakfast.

Meehan-Kline

Miss Elsie Kline and John J. Meehan, of Philadelphia, were married Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the Sacred Heart Church. The couple were attended by Miss Mary Meehan and Andrew Meehan, sister and brother of the groom. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Rigney, who also performed the ceremony. The Riverside choir assisted with the music, under the direction of Miss Stella Stucker, organist. Mr. and Mrs. Meehan will reside in Philadelphia on their return from an extended honeymoon in the South.

The Constitution of the United States

requires that a census of the United States be taken every ten years. It is by this means that the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives is made as to States.

There is so much sunshine we must all have our share—Myrtle Reed.

WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET

For Riverton and Vicinity

Buy It At Home.

Paul Good has returned from a six weeks' trip through Canada.

Thomas R. Goellin is expected home tonight from his Western trip.

Charles Wanger entertained the Minute Men of the Methodist Church last Friday night at dinner.

G. H. Mealey, of Rochester, is visiting in Riverton and will take up his residence here if he can find a property.

While repairing the steering gear on his truck one night this week, George Steele cut off the index finger on his left hand.

Miss Martha Grove, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Lydia Rogers, of Burlington, were entertained at dinner Tuesday evening by Mrs. S. B. Lisk.

Mrs. George Reed and two children, who have been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sager, for the past two months, have gone to Atlantic City for the balance of the winter.

The school budget for next year's expenses is $21,875.00, an increase of about fifty per cent. The amount required for current school expenses is $20,125, manual training $750, and repairs $1000.

A card party will be held in the Library building February 12 and 23, for the benefit of the library. Those desiring to make up tables may notify Mrs. C. L. Flanagan.

The superintendent of the Burlington County Hospital reported at the monthly meeting of the Board of Managers, February 5, 1920, as follows: number of patients admitted 43, discharged 36, died 5, remaining 13.

In order to learn the sentiment of the residents of Clarksburg township in reference to the building of a new school house, the Board of Education will hold a meeting at the Clarksburg Public School Tuesday evening, February 10, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. George D. Robertson and sister, Miss Matilda Schonvelder, have gone to Detroit, Mich., to visit their brother, and from there will go to Wisconsin to join Mrs. Robertson's husband, where they will make their home. Miss Schonvelder has recently come to this country from Holland.

While starting the gas engine at his wagon and carriage factory last Tuesday, C. T. Woolston lacerated his right hand so badly that it took twelve stitches to close the wound.

Two months ago he suffered the same kind of accident, but was not injured so badly. Dr. Witte dressed the hand.

The annual school meeting will be held this year the last Tuesday in February, the 24th, instead of in March as heretofore. The terms of Mrs. Miller, Mr. Clifton and Mr. Boyer, as trustees expire, and they will all be candidates for re-election. Their services have been efficient and satisfactory, and no mistake will be made in returning them to office.

Heulings Lippincott attended a novel banquet last Monday given at the Hotel Traymore, Atlantic City, by Daniel S. White to the Board of Directors of the Guarantee Trust Company, of which Mr. White is president. The chief feature of the decorations was a camel made of ice, blanketed with sugar decorated with fresh strawberries and lighted by electric lights.

The Sunday service at the Cinnamon Home last week was in charge of Mrs. George H. Sager. Social selections were rendered by S. B. Lisk, bass, and Thomas M. Murphy, tenor, of West Philadelphia. These little services, which are conducted every Sunday throughout the year by volunteers in this community, are greatly enjoyed and appreciated by those in the Home.

While trying to charge a battery last Friday night Worton Vaughn was severely burned about the face. The battery, which had been frozen, was placed in the collar to thaw it. When Mr. Vaughn thought it was properly thawed he attempted to charge it, and the intense heat, together with the ice in the front battery, caused an explosion, throwing the acid into Mr. Vaughn's face. Dr. Rogers is in charge of the case and has suggested that an eye specialist be consulted immediately to combat complications in that direction.

Income Blanks at the Bank

Income Tax Forms have been forwarded to all the banks and trust companies in this district.

Forms have also been mailed by the Collector to each person who filed a return last year.

Income Tax Deputy W. F. Gordon will be at the post office February 18 and 19 to give information and assistance in making out tax blanks.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that a writ of attachment was issued out of the Circuit Court of the County of Burlington on the fifth day of December, 1919, against the rights and credits, moneys and effects, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Maurice A. McVaine, an absent debtor, at the suit of Clinton B. Woolston, for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, returnable on the thirtieth day of December, 1919, and the same has been served and duly executed, and was returned on the sixth day of December, 1919, by the Sheriff of the County of Burlington.

Machine "Stuffs" Newspapers.

A Seattle inventor has patented a newspaper stuffing machine that does the work of 14 men in placing sections of papers together.

With the price of paper more than doubled, and going up all the time, it becomes increasingly necessary that it should be used to the best advantage. The printing on it should be well done. The paper should be selected especially for the use for which it is intended. Sometimes we can save you money by suggesting something from the hundreds of samples we have for your inspection. The next order you have to place, even if it is a small one, let's talk it over. It will cost you nothing to find out.

SMOKE DOORS ALL WRONG

Not According to Order, and Construction Will Add to Fire Risk, It is Claimed

At the meeting of the Board of Education last Monday night, D. M. Clifton, chairman of the property committee, said that he had received blue prints of the proposed fire screens, approved by the State Department of Health, but that they were not according to the plans of construction as he understood them, as arranged with the contractors who are to do the work.

Mr. Clifton said he had asked the contractors to submit the plans to him, today before the school board, instead of doing so, they had sent them to the department, and secured its O. K. The plans as submitted and approved provide for double doors, whereas the instructions as given by Mr. Clifton, called for single doors. This brought up the whole question of the smoke screens, and it was the opinion of many members of the board, that as they are now planned they only convert the stairways into dead ends, and add greatly to the danger, instead of diminishing it, in case of fire.

Mr. Clifton was instructed to go to Trenton and see the State authorities about it.

A resolution was passed granting a bonus of $50 to each of the teachers and to the janitor, to be paid in five monthly payments remaining in the present school year.

It was reported that the school building had been fumigated three times during the past month, owing to scarlet fever having broken out among the pupils. Five cases had been reported up to Monday night.

The use of the auditorium was granted to the Parent-Teacher Association for the mid-winter meeting of the Burlington County Council of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations on February 11. School will be dismissed at noon on that day in order that the teachers may attend the afternoon session.

The Palmyra Board of Education sent a communication giving notice that the price of tuition of high school pupils had been advanced to $75.

The second annual spelling bee for the county will be held in Mount Holly on March 20, and Mr. Turner, the principal, is now giving tests to determine who shall represent the Riverton school. The winner in these tests will be awarded a prize by the Riverton board, whether he or she wins in the county contest or not.

Mr. Turner reported that the deposits in the school bank for the month had been $124.34. The total for the year so far is nearly $500.

A resolution was passed appropriating $10 to the library fund. The State will give a like amount. This money is spent for stereographs, which are used in teaching geography.

"Visit the School" week will start February 16, and Mr. Turner said he should like to see as many of the parents as possible visit the school.

The annual school meeting will be held on February 24, the fourth Tuesday in the month, for the election of trustees and to vote on the budget.

Mr. Turner reported that 133 books from the Riverton Free Library had been read by the pupils of the school during the past month.

J. R. Naisby, chairman of the medical committee, reported that he had received many replies to the letters sent out by the board relative to the condition of the teeth of the pupils, and a vast majority of the answers were to the effect that the necessary work would be done.

The following bills were ordered paid: Teachers' Salaries $1155.00; Janitor's Salary $3.00; Attendance Officer $10.00; W. B. Lynch $11.10; Water Rent $0.25; Interest on Bonds $50.00; Expenses of Supervisor $1.44; Gas and Electric Bill $27.95; Moorestown High School Tuition $180.00; J. S. Collins & Son $21.40; Telephone $3.80; Stereographs $20.00.

Prominent Speakers Coming to Riverton

Miss Sarah B. Askew, State Librarian, Prof. J. M. McCallie, Dr. Maroney, State Instructor in Physical Training, will be among the speakers at the mid-winter meeting of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, to be held in the school auditorium next Wednesday, February 11. The morning session will open at 11 o'clock, and will be devoted to business. The afternoon session will open at 1:15.

Miss Askew will tell of her recent survey of library facilities in Burlington county, with suggestions for school libraries.

Prof. McCallie will talk on mental tests and psychological research work, and Dr. Maroney will give a talk and demonstration on physical training work in the schools.

The public is cordially invited to the afternoon session.

Hunger Knows No Armistice!

You who love children, consider the fact that thousands are dying in the far-off countries to the South of the Black Sea—dying in abject poverty and disease. All throughout Armenia, Serbia, Syria and the Caucasus, orphans and starving women are being miserably and inspired soul together entirely through the efforts of the Near East Relief Committee.

Do you hate the Turks—who you were safe from the unspeakable horrors of their invasions? Give us your help, then, that we may relieve the terrible suffering in the countries who, alone and unaided, withstood the advance of the enemy.

On the evening of Thursday, February 12, an entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Near East Relief. It is fitting that on the birthday of the great emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, everyone should help to make these admirable, though tiny, countries free. You can help the splendid efforts of this committee, as well as enlighten yourselves, by attending.

Mr. Lawrence Lippincott, an eminent Rivertonian, will give a short address, in which he will tell something of the work of the American Friends' Service Committee.

Mr. Lippincott has just returned from six months spent in relief work in Serbia. Then "Arshahala," an Armenian play, will follow, given by a number of the young people.

Mr. R. D. Jenkins, of the Near East Relief Committee of Philadelphia, is coming and bringing with him a young Armenian, Mr. Sourin H. Tashjian, a graduate of the International College at Smyrna, who was forced into the Turkish army and placed as interpreter in the German Imperial Headquarters in Turkey, from which he escaped to the English forces, and who has now come to this country to do all in his power for his native land. His story will be thrilling.

It is your duty to come out—make up your mind about our brothers across the sea, the oldest Christian nation in the world—and feel that when they asked for bread, you have not given a stone!

Courtesy is a shock absorber which saves a lot of life's wall-pops—Uncle Philander.

This Christmas and Next

Many of us strive by hard work and strict attention to business to support our families, ourselves, and our loved ones, and to save certain sums of money for the "rainy days."

Many of us also find the Christmas season at hand without the wherewithal to furnish our families and our friends with the gifts, remembrances, and pleasures, that we had hoped or intended to give. We feel sorry—and yet, after all—we can but blame our own shortsightedness.

For an account in the Christmas Savings Club of this Bank would have insured just the kind of Christmas you wanted to have.

Mrs. Corry Appointed Thrift Vice Chairman

The Savings Division of the Third Federal Reserve District wishes to announce the appointment by Governor E. F. Patterson, of the Federal Reserve Bank, of Mrs. Reuben Corry, of Riverton, N. J., as Vice Chairman of the Savings Division of the nine counties of Southern Jersey. As Vice Chairman of the Federation of New Jersey Women in charge of all activities in the United States of the State, Mrs. Corry has displayed unusual, energetic and active interest and her endeavors have been attended with remarkable success. As Vice Chairman of the Savings Division, Mrs. Corry will assist the Government in spreading and promoting the idea of Thrift and Economy as a direct antidote to the present widespread waste and extravagance and the high cost of living. A direct appeal shall be made to all women's clubs and organizations urging them to practice strict economy in all expenditures, to use the monthly household budget, which will keep track of every cent of the income, and to invest the money realized by the careful supervision of expenses in Government Thrift and Savings Stamps, which are the safest and most profitable securities and which serve as a medium for the inculcation of a most desirable habit for these days: Thrift and Savings.

Special Notice

The Parent-Teacher Association clipping party for the children, which was to have taken place this afternoon has been postponed until Friday, February 20, on account of the weather and bad walking.

The Organ Recital

Were you among the audience at the Organ Recital? If you were, you will join me in thanking the Parent-Teacher Association for such a musical treat. Most wonderful music was played by Mr. Knodde, and Mrs. Collins sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "The Land of the Sky Blue Water." The former was very much enjoyed by the children. Mr. Knodde played some beautiful pieces, among which were "Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana" and "The March of the Toys." Mr. Knodde was at one time choir master and organist in Riverton, as some will remember. It was a great pleasure to have him come and play for us again.

Porch Club

A large and appreciative audience greeted Mrs. Lucy E. Shreve last Tuesday when she made us acquainted with the writings of Selma Lagerlof, the Norwegian poetess, who was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature in 1909. Three or four characteristic selections were given in Mrs. Shreve's charming manner, and those who were fortunate enough to hear her feel that it was one of the most artistic afternoons given to the club in a long time.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Charles E. Mosser desires to extend her heartfelt thanks to the kind friends who tendered sympathy and aid in her bereavement, to the members of St. Joseph Council, K. of C., Palmyra, Assembly, No. 65, A. O. N. P., and to those who sent carriages to the funeral.

WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET

for Riverton and Vicinity

Don't At Home.

Lent begins on Wednesday of next week, February 18.

The Christian Endeavor is giving a "Hoodoo" social this evening.

The Fortnightly Reading Circle will meet with Mrs. Sonthelmer this week.

Miss Alice Graham has been seriously ill with pleurisy-pneumonia since Sunday.

J. Gibson McVain, brother of Mrs. Harry Blidie, died at his home at Woodbine, Pa., Tuesday.

Edward Zisak, of Thomas avenue, is severely ill and has been confined to his home several days.

There were two deaths, three births and no marriages in Riverton during the month of January.

Mrs. James Jackson, of Germantown, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Wiedemann.

Arthur Dorrance has purchased a new Dodge sedan from the Broad Street Garage and Sales Company.

Harold Sonthelmer left on Monday for Yakima, Wash., after having spent several weeks with his parents here.

Mrs. Nellie Cavanna and Miss Augusta Cavanna spent several days this week with Mrs. Padmore, in Wilmington.

Rev. John Rigg was called to Long Island on Wednesday to the bedside of his nephew, who is very ill with pneumonia.

Aubrey S. Worrell, of Mount Hill, nephew of Harry C. Worrell, died on Tuesday, and was buried Tuesday.

Dreer's Minstrels will be the star attraction at an entertainment to be given by the Riverside Masons next Monday evening.

William G. Gootee, the progressive journeyman, has added another car to his service—a Dodge five-passenger touring car, making three in all.

Many of the boys about town have taken advantage of the unusually heavy snowfall, to construct snow forts, which may be seen in both front and back yards.

With an eye to utilizing all available space, the Riverton Bank has had a balcony built on top of the big vault. The balcony henceforth will be the home of the bookkeeping.

Mrs. H. B. Hall has been visiting with the Misses Cooke, of Main street, this week. The Misses Cooke leave on Saturday for Atlantic City, where they will spend two months.

The dog license tags have been received by the Borough Clerk, George K. Clark, and are ready for distribution. The law requires that every dog be licensed and it should be done at once.

The Home and School Association of the Cinnaminson Public School will hold its regular monthly meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 3.45. The school stages will furnish transportation as usual.

William J. Hooker will continue the public business of Charles E. Mosser, who died last week, completing the contracts made by the deceased. Later Mr. Hooker expects to buy the business.

J. Lawrence Lippincott, who has recently returned from Serbia, will give an illustrated talk about the reconstruction work being done there, in the Westfield Friends Meeting-house on February 25, at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Newton A. K. Bugbee was re-elected State Comptroller by the Legislature on Tuesday for a term of three years. Assemblyman Roberts, of Burlington county, introduced a bill providing for the ratification by New Jersey of the eighteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution.

John J. Davis, in charge of the Riverton Entomological Station, has just issued a four-page letter to farmers in this neighborhood, bearing on the efforts being made to control the Japanese beetle pest and pointing out effective co-operation that may be given by the farmers.

The root in the chimney at the home of Councilman J. W. Atlee was discovered to be a fire early last Friday evening. The fire was extinguished by the fire department, and the root was removed. The fire was caused by the root in the chimney.

New Jersey at last passed an amendment and joined the ranks of the pro-suffrage States, when, after a bitter fight, the suffrage amendment was ratified by its passage in the House at one o'clock last Tuesday morning. Anti-prohibition legislation has taken up most of the remainder of the Legislature's time.

Mrs. Wellington Bechtel, of Hadonville, past State president of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, will address the Parent-Teacher Association of the Riverton Public School in the auditorium next Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs. Bechtel is well known and every member is urged to be present and bring a friend.

Senator Runyon has introduced a bill providing for an increase of one mill in the State school tax rate. If the bill should become a law, the additional revenue will be used by the State to duplicate raises in teachers' salaries by boards of education. It is said that Commissioner Kendall approves the bill, which is designed as a substitute for a minimum salary law.

Miss Mary G. Ewing, of Chicago, Ill., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., will lecture on Christian Science under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Riverton, N. J., on Sunday afternoon, February 15, at 3.15 o'clock, in the Fox Theatre, Pavilion avenue, Riverton, N. J. The public are cordially invited.

Worton Vaughan, who was severely burned in the eye by the explosion of a storage battery last week, is improving, and it is now assured that he will not lose his sight. On Monday he was consulted by Dr. E. P. Baer, a specialist in Philadelphia, who said that the left eye would be all right, but that the right eye would be of little service for a time and that it would be advisable for Mr. Vaughan to wear glasses.

Mrs. J. D. Clark was called to New York on Wednesday by the sudden death of her son, William H. Clark, from heart failure. The deceased was widely known in newspaper circles. In 1918 he bought the True American, published at Trenton. He had been formerly associated with newspapers in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Chicago. At the time of his death he was treasurer of the University Society, book publishers, of New York.

NEW MOVE FOR MEMORIAL

Committee of Citizens Appointed to Devise Plans and Means for Suitable Memorial for Service Men

At the meeting of the Borough Council last night, the clerk read the appointments made by Mayor Bennett, in compliance with a resolution passed at the January meeting, instructing him to appoint a committee of citizens to take action in the matter of memorial.

Mr. Carl DeLaCour was present at the meeting, and thanked the Mayor and Council on behalf of the Riverton Free Library for the increase of the appropriation from $100 to $200. He said that the library was badly in need of funds, and that the appropriation would be a great help.

S. Howard Troth, borough recorder, sent a check for $3.00, covering fines imposed on disorderly persons brought before him.

The budget for next year, as published last week, was passed.

A Successful "Blitz"

Rivertonians and others who risked losing rubbers, and their necks as well, wading or skating to the Community Hut Tuesday evening, were well rewarded in witnessing the best amateur production ever staged in this community.

The comedy "Blitz" was written and produced by George K. Clark, assisted by William Shakespeare and the entire original New Jersey all-star cast. Pathos and mirth with many surprises characterized the play.

There was a splendid variety of emotions and the interest of the audience was riveted on the players from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Miss Violet Rigg and Miss Ruth Morris brought down the house with their cleverly executed effort to win promotion from the chorus to stars in the cast of the "Merchant of Venice."

Much credit is due to each individual in the cast, and Mr. George K. Clark is to be congratulated on his selection of talent and for the skillful adaptation. Truly it was a classical production, worthy of the crowded and enthusiastic house.

Mr. Albert Morris, as the Office Boy, in his imitable style, was indeed the joy of the youngsters, while his dignified portrayal of the "Merchant of Venice" revealed his versatility.

Mr. Reuben Corry, as the Old-Time Player, was a perfect scream, in his effort to win a place in the cast; and when he finally got there as Antonio he produced the goods, although he seemed a trifle shy about giving up a pound of flesh from his chest. "Can't blame Ruben," as he is a light-weight anyway.

And after the curtain had fallen "Darius" finally found opportunity to complete his continuously interrupted speech, by poking his head through the curtain and saying "When I was with Booth, Darius always said to me, 'Darius, Darius, the play is the thing.'"

The portrayal of Portia, by Miss Virginia Corry, was indeed superb, beyond all praise, and must have left an instructive imprint on the minds of many High School boys and girls who perhaps never yet received so striking a lesson in the beauties of Shakespeare.

Mr. Don B. Clark, in his quiet way seemed to be the pivot around which the whole play revolved, for his difficult work was handled deftly and inspired the entire cast with confidence.

Mr. George K. Clark, the author, proved himself to be not only a good writer and a producer of originality, but a splendid Shylock as well, to say nothing of the grace with which he executed the "light fantastic" in the early part of the play.

Here's hoping that we shall soon again have the privilege of doing homage to the Community Hut, and the highly beneficial social activities which that management has sponsored.

DEATHS

Charles E. Mosser

Charles E. Mosser died last Saturday morning, about three o'clock, of pneumonia, after a brief illness, and was buried in the Holy Redeemer Cemetery, Philadelphia, on Tuesday.

His Mass of Requiem was held in the Sacred Heart Church at 3.30 a. m. Mr. Mosser was 38 years of age, and had been a resident of Riverton for eight years. He formerly lived at Germantown, but, following a spell of sickness, was advised by his physician to move to the country. He came to Riverton, and for a short time was associated in business with C. J. Hein, of Palmyra, after which he bought out Hein's interest and conducted the painting and decorating business for himself. His straightforward business methods and the high grade of his work soon brought him all the customers he could serve.

During his residence here Mr. Mosser made many warm friends, who admired his sterling qualities, his firm friendship and his unflinching courtesy and straightforwardness. A true friend, a good citizen and a devoted husband, Mr. Mosser will be sadly missed.

Mr. Mosser was born in Germany and came to this country on the death of his father, which occurred when he was nine years of age. He was of a studious disposition, and took two business courses in the Palmyra High School, and was followed up by extensive reading.

He was a member of the St. Joseph Council, Knights of Columbus, and of Palmyra Assembly, No. 65, A. O. N. P.

Nelson Peterson

Nelson Peterson, aged 77, and for many years a resident of Riverton, died at his home, 208 S. Second street, on Tuesday, February 15, at 10.30 a. m.

He was born in Sweden, and had been a resident of Riverton for many years. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was a devout worshiper.

He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Peterson, and by several children. The funeral will be held on Thursday, February 18, at 10 a. m., in the Methodist Church.

To live now as we will wish we had lived when the twilight falls that is success—M. J. McLeod.

COUNTY MOTHERS MEET

Burlington County Council of New Jersey, Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, Held Mid-Winter Meeting in Riverton Luncheon Served by Cinnaminson Girls

The mid-winter meeting of the Burlington County Council of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations was held in the Riverton Public School on Wednesday.

Addresses of welcome were made by Prof. Luther R. Turner, principal of the Riverton school, and Murray C. Boyer, a member of the Board of Education. Response was made by Mrs. Oren H. Brown, of Bordentown, and Mrs. A. P. Meschter, of Woodbury, brought greetings from the State.

Mrs. H. A. Frantz, chairman of the Burlington County Council, presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Walter L. Bowen, county secretary, and Mrs. Edwin H. Cutler, of Maple Shade, county treasurer.

The New Jersey Congress was organized in Riverton in 1900.

Miss Margaret State Librarian, in speaking briefly of her survey of library conditions in this county said that libraries are needed for the Americanization work, not only for the foreign-born, but for natives as well. Books for pleasure must be available, as well as those for instruction. The State will duplicate the sum raised by local school boards for library purposes, and the speaker suggested that in raising the money it be done in a manner that will enlist the interest of as many people as possible. Miss Askew said there were only two public libraries in Burlington county supplying the needs of about 23,000 people, leaving 52,000 without easy access to the books.

Buy It At Home

Schools were closed Thursday in honor of Lincoln's Birthday.

Thomas Bailey is able to be around again after an illness of three weeks duration.

A Valentine dance will be held this Saturday evening at the High School building for the alumni and students.

The High School basketball team defeated the Mount Holly High School team at Mount Holly, Tuesday, by 19 to 18.

A marriage license was granted to James Brown, of Palmyra, and Miss Edith M. Roseboro, of Philadelphia, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hollister, of Los Angeles, the band visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Becton, 707 Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry, of Highland avenue, are moving to New York, where Mr. Henry has a position with the New York World.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Matthews, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lovell and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reid, of New York, over the weekend.

Charles Hagan, advertiser of the "Easy" electric washer in this issue, it may be seen at his show rooms on Broad street next to the post office.

The Harry Kemmerle property on West Broad street will shortly be occupied by a new building of Philadelphia, who will open a market there.

The Home Relief had its hands full this week in caring for families where all or nearly all the members were down with grippe and pneumonia.

Miss Eleanor Day, of Parry avenue, who has been substituting in the kindergarten, was compelled, on account of sickness, to give up her work yesterday.

Dr. Maroney, head of the State Physical Training Department, and county superintendent, will visit the Palmyra schools Wednesday morning.

The Griffenberg Band will give another of their popular dances at the P. O. S. of A. building next Wednesday evening. The band and orchestra will provide music aplenty.

Joe Stack's new truck established a reputation for itself during the bad weather last week by making the trip to Philadelphia and back every day despite the snow which tied up virtually all other traffic.

The firemen have received the thirty-inch wrench for turning the fire plugs on and off which was made for them by the Water Company, and several of the plugs were tested out last Sunday. The new wrench seems to do the turn all right.

On Friday, the 20th, the High School freshmen will give a program under the auspices of the Literary Society in honor of Washington's Birthday. There will be readings and tableaux. All the various grades also will have exercises that afternoon.

Next week is "Visit the School Week" throughout the State, and all parents are urged to support this movement by stopping in at the school rooms. The regular work of the class room will be carried out so that parents may get an idea of just what goes on from day to day.

The Palmyra Parent-Teachers' Association will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday evening in the High School auditorium. A clever little sketch, entitled "How the Stogie Grew," will be given by the members. The meeting will also commemorate the twenty-third anniversary of the National Congress of Mothers.

Big boys should be careful how they throw snowballs. On Wednesday, Robert C. Blitting was struck in the eye by a "water-soaked" snowball by Milton Bonna, and the optic was so badly cut and bruised that the sight was temporarily much impaired. Of course, it was only meant in fun, but when serious injury results, it's poor fun.

The entertainment committee of Post Rodgers met at the home of Forrest Buck this week and plans for the minstrel show got progressed. It is understood that Perry C. Clarke will coach the men. Many novel features are being arranged and a dance will follow the program. Inasmuch as there is much talent among the legionnaires, a most interesting entertainment is expected.

Professor Griffith says he had a hospital on hand in running the local schools this week. A half dozen regular teachers and several substitutes were gripped victims. Miss Brover and Miss Melick, of the High School, and Miss Westcott, Miss Sawyer and Miss Robinson, of the grammar school, were also sick.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Masonic Association of Riverton and Palmyra in P. O. S. of A. building this Friday evening, George A. Wood, of Camden, will give an illustrated lecture on "The Part Photography Played in the World War." He will show photographs taken at the front and behind the lines.

Turnbull's Dance Orchestra, a real jazz band, will provide music for the dance that is to follow the lecture. The new officers of the association are: George W. Rogers, president; William Colsey, vice president; James Hartley, secretary, and W. H. Botger, treasurer.

The township authorities have had their hands full with the snow situation. Most of the important sewers and gutters have now been opened under the direction of Joseph Abdill, some of the "beautiful" has been carried away from the business section of Broad street and the merchants are busy cleaning off the packed ice from their sidewalks.

However, road warnings are in order for the Washington drive. The highway crossings at Broad street as a continuation of the thaw is expected to bring down more water than can be carried off, especially with the street blocked with packed snow as it is.

Y. W. C. A.

Thursday evening, February 19, in the Y. M. C. A. building, Palmyra, a physical training class will be organized under the direction of Miss Ann Wallace, of Riverton. Every other Thursday evening, beginning next week, there will be physical training classes, until the course is completed.

On the intervening Thursday evenings there will be a first aid class under the direction of Dr. Baker. A class club has already been formed, with Miss Helen Stirling in charge.

Work and recreation mix for best results if the work is finished first.

Serbian and Armenian Conditions Show by Play and Address

many more died from typhus, the loss by typhus being greater than that sustained in the war. There are 500,000 orphans, the adult population being greatly reduced. At the opening of the war there were 350,000 men in the army; later they remobilized with 170,000—all that were left.

The United States and England have various relief associations working for Serbia and they are greatly appreciated; but the adult population is now in a position to care for themselves and their families, but the orphan children must be taken care of by people from outside. The government is bankrupt and the currency is almost worthless.

The American Friends Service Committee were looked upon as agriculturists, so they look over a large farm in central Serbia, which they have by the government to operate. It for a year, and the Friends furnished up-to-date equipment. On the property is a large building in which they have more than one hundred children, mostly boys, whom it is expected will acquire modern education in regard to American farming implements.

The Serbian method of life is very primitive, and this has been an important factor in their being so quickly able to recuperate. The harvest of last summer was abnormally heavy. Everything that is needed they make themselves. Women do all the work, as all the able-bodied men are in the army, which is clothed entirely in American uniforms. For the last 500 years all the men have always been in the army and the women have done the outdoor work, which have produced a very high physical condition.

The children are now terribly distressed from tubercular troubles, but this will be relieved by the hospitals. The institutions for child relief in Serbia are now very poor for the most part, as the government will not be in any condition to take over the orphanages during that time.

Mr. Lipkowitz only allowed himself to speak a few minutes, but on the 23d he will give an illustrated talk at the Friends' meeting house, and any child interested will be welcome.

The play "Ararat," which means "the promise of a new day," gave a scene where the pastor in the village of Icedi was trying to help the children forget that they were hungry and cold. He is told by his housekeeper that the last food was eaten and the house is one slice of bread for each child, and if relief from America does not come, there will be nothing left for the children.

The children return from their play-time out-of-doors and are given their allowance of bread. Their meal is interrupted by the arrival of a terrified mountain refugee, who has escaped from the Turks. While telling his story they are interrupted by the arrival of Turkish soldiers. The children have been hidden, but the adults are seized and roughly treated and are saved from death by the arrival of the Turkish soldiers.

DEATHS

Miss Eva VanDeGrift passed away Saturday evening, February 7, at Florence. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from her home at Five Points, Rev. R. Reimer, pastor of the Moravian Church, officiating. Interment was in Moravian Cemetery in charge of Undertaker Morton.

Miss VanDeGrift was born March 18, 1871, at South Ambury, where she attended school, graduating from the Normal School there in 1897. Miss VanDeGrift has taught school several years in South Ambury, Masonville, Hainesport, Florence and other points in New Jersey.

She is survived by two sisters, one at Five Points and one in Newark, one brother in Camden, and her father at Five Points.

County Tax Board Wants Valuations Boosted

With prospects of a big boost in the tax rate due to increased school valuations, residents of Palmyra and Riverton are much concerned over the fact that the County Tax Board has again ordered nearly all the local assessors of the county to raise valuations.

The County Board points to the greatly increased prices at which properties have been sold in the last year or so. Joseph L. Thomas, of Cinnaminson township, chairman of the board, says that all that is demanded is honesty in valuations and that he thinks the citizens of the various districts should take a hand in the matter and urge the assessor to get a fair valuation on all properties.

Mr. Thomas points out that an advantage would be derived from a higher valuation in the case of selling properties, as at present there is a great discrepancy in the price asked and the assessed valuation.

Local real estate men, however, are up in arms about the proposed increase. They point to the already high local tax rate and the fact that it is to go much higher this year. It is feared that in many cases increased valuations, coupled with increased rates, would result in citizens selling out and leaving town, and what is more, the sale of property would be made more difficult.

Nearly everybody admits that if a proportionate increase were made in valuations everywhere throughout the county and State the result would not be so harmful as it would be possible to have a lower tax rate, as in Philadelphia, where valuations are high and rates low. The fear is, however, that assessors may be forced to raise valuations here while the same increase is not made elsewhere.

The Power of Money

JERSEY RATIFIES WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Assembly Accepts the Federal Amendment Already Adopted by the Senate.

4-HOUR FILIBUSTER FAILS.

Mackay Salary Bill Passes Senate—Designed to Check Wholesale Increase in Bills the Assembly Approves.

Trenton.—The woman suffrage amendment to the Constitution was ratified by the house of assembly after a filibuster directed against the measure lasting hours. The vote on ratification was 44 to 24, and the measure adopted was Senator Mackay's resolution passed by the senate the previous Monday night by a vote of 18 to 2. By the action of the house New Jersey becomes the twenty-ninth state to ratify the woman suffrage amendment.

When the house met the Republican leaders, who were intent upon putting over the ratification suffrage amendment to the federal Constitution, found that they were short at least three votes, represented by Hudson county assemblymen who had not yet reached Trenton.

To play for time Majority Leader Hershfield moved a recess of 45 minutes and then called a Republican conference. After the conference it was found that the three absentees from the Hudson delegation, Messrs. Stanton, Donovan and Coppinger, had arrived.

The house was thereupon reconvened, and the women crowding the galleries and lobbies were immediately in a flutter. Then Democratic Leader Hugh Barrett of Essex moved a further recess of ten minutes for the purpose of holding a Democratic conference. Again the house quit business, and again, at 10:15 o'clock, it was called to order by the speaker.

The woman suffrage amendment was at once taken up. The leaders on both sides went into action, with every foot of space in the galleries, aisles and lobbies filled with interested spectators.

Mr. Barrett called up his amendments on various motions in order to delay the vote. Leader Hershfield pressed for a direct discussion of the question. Then the debate settled down.

Mr. Donovan of Hudson county said Governor Edwards ran on a platform pledging woman suffrage and that it was equivalent to a referendum.

"And I call attention to the fact that running on that platform in Essex county Governor Edwards received more votes than did the Essex assemblymen who are opposed to this issue," Mr. Donovan said.

Mr. McAteer of Hudson said he thought it high time the legislature stopped bickering on the question.

"Ratification ought to be accomplished and the question disposed of," he said. "Hudson county stands solidly behind the governor, and we are not going to vote for any substitute."

Mr. Freund of Essex declared that no expression of the voters of the state has been given on woman suffrage since 1915, when the question was defeated.

"We have no evidence that the people have since changed their minds," he said. "The question has not been put to them again and until it is I believe it our duty to stand by the verdict of 1915. We favor a referendum. Let the people decide."

"I believe we are making a mistake if we don't submit this matter to the people," said Mr. Rowland of Camden. "I believe in woman suffrage, but I believe the people should have the opportunity to vote on the question."

"The question is not a political expediency to pass this now, but I doubt its wisdom, and I am not so sure it is good political morality. Political expediency is one of the worst things in our public life."

The Barrett resolution to refer the woman's suffrage question to the presidential primaries in New Jersey on April 27 was defeated by a vote of 38 to 25.

Mr. Barrett then continued his filibuster by introducing a resolution calling upon the secretary of state at Washington for a certified copy of the proposed amendment and other data concerning its submission to the states by Congress.

This was defeated by the same vote. Assemblymen McAteer and Donovan, both of Hudson, spoke in favor of ratification and tried to discredit the actions of Minority Leader Barrett in delaying everything possible to block ratification.

The suffragists went about on the floor of the house lobbying for the resolution, while "antits" pursued the same tactics in trying to get votes to defeat the resolution.

With the support of the twelve assemblymen from Hudson county Governor Edwards was able to fulfill one of the principal pledges he made during his primary and post-primary campaigns. He promised he would do all in his power to bring about ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment.

Senator White put in a bill providing an amendment to the election law, permitting persons who have lived at the same address since voting at the last preceding election to register by affidavit presented to the municipal clerk between June 1 and the Tuesday two weeks previous to election.

Senator Smith introduced a bill providing for boards of education to submit to the people for referendum schedules of proposed salaries to be paid teachers. Senator Filgrim put in a bill to permit appointment of stenographers to juvenile court judge at $2,000 per year, and another providing for appointment of men to municipal fire departments who have not lived within the municipality for two years preceding.

Hearing on Wet Bills. Charges of disloyalty to the Constitution of the United States, counter-assertions of state rights, accusations against the Anti-Saloon League and attempts at "bulldozing" and protestations of loyalty to both state and federal government enlivened the hearing on all liquor and anti-liquor bills before a joint committee of the senate and assembly in the assembly chamber.

Among the speakers were Wayne B. Wheeler, of the Anti-Saloon League, of Washington, D. C.; Attorney General Thomas McCann, former Attorney General Robert H. McCarter and William D. Guthrie, counsel for the United States in the Brown v. Board of Education case.

Among the bills before the committee are: One, defining intoxicating liquors as above 5 per cent; two, defining it above 4 per cent; three, defining it above 3 per cent; and another, ratifying the Eighteenth amendment now in force, proposing a state enforcement act similar to the Volstead act.

The galleries were crowded and the assembly chamber packed. Loud applause interrupted orations of the speakers. The legislators listened attentively.

Mr. Wheeler opened the argument with the warning that the federal Constitution was paramount, that state laws had no right to be termed "prohibition" legislation, and with the exhortation that the state of New Jersey consider only measures to enforce strictly the Eighteenth amendment.

Mr. Wheeler said: "The late decision given by Justice Brandeis for the Supreme Court makes it clear that the legislatures of the states can do nothing but define beverages containing not more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol. The principle of prohibition is settled now in the Constitution. It is the law of the land. All you can legally do is to assist in the enforcement of the amendment."

"You cannot define intoxicating beverages differently from Congress. Congress has the power to fix a standard, and it has done so in this instance. The states, therefore, have no power to fix a standard. A state, even in legally settling within its powers, must always yield to the Constitution and Congress. The concurrent power in the states is a power to enforce, not to destroy or nullify."

Mr. Wheeler claimed that the tendency of the legislation proposed was in the direction of nullification. "To pass laws to defy federal statutes would be a dangerous precedent for you. You should meet the Eighteenth amendment in the spirit of co-operation and legislation to support it and see that it is enforced until it is repealed in an orderly and legal manner."

Mr. Wheeler quizzed Mr. Wheeler. "Does not the Volstead act prohibit the manufacture of beverages that are really non-intoxicating?" he asked. "Yes, because beverages of one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol are really non-intoxicating."

"Then if you thought it necessary you could legislate to prohibit the manufacturing of wines for medicinal purposes?" "I think so."

"If you mean you can exercise the power—in other words, that right is might?" "I think so in a sense," Mr. Wheeler replied, hesitatingly.

"Doesn't the Eighteenth amendment give concurrent power to the states?" "Yes, but only to assist in enforcement—that is my view and the courts uphold it."

"Do you know that the Volstead act is a violation of our state Constitution?" "I have heard your court so held."

"If the line of reasoning you have followed should be followed here, can you say we have a distinction in the amendment between alcohol and intoxicating liquors?" "Because Congress wished to define both in that way."

"I have heard your court so held."

"I am getting $1,000 a year more for master work and that salary is not irregular at all. It's what I'm being paid just while I'm sitting myself to do a better class of work for a considerably higher salary. That was the answer sent back by the graduate. It may sound poor, but times have changed."

Competition has stalked in bravely to tangle up that nice-old custom of course-grown salaries and well-earned with the year's—of getting one's bright young Marys and Johns turned into prodigies of learning at trifling cost.

Here we were able to imbue generation after generation of earnest young women and even a steady number of men for a time, with a willingness to accept the teacher's dole and to live on it, no matter by how much saving and skimping, as a part of their personal sacrifice in a worthy and difficult calling. And now comes the high cost of living, without the courtesy of a warning, and wrecking the whole beautiful structure of salary schedules and pedagogical ideals so carefully created by our canny forefathers and so revered by us.

"Start in teaching at $14 a week! No, you could not notice it," says the business-wise high school girl. "I guess I've got to live—yes!"

That's one of the disagreeable features of the present serious teacher trouble. Competition catches the teacher and goes. Business-wise men know something good when they see it and are willing to pay the price their bidding for those in the teaching profession set up a kind of competition that has put the makers of teachers' salary schedules in considerable of a stew. Business is offering more money—a whole lot more.

It isn't clubby, to be sure, but it isn't hard to do either, because the yearly pay of the average teacher is $39.93 less than that of the lowest kind labor—that of the "roustabout."

Still it fuses up the makers of teachers' salary schedules dreadfully. It has caused different localities in nearly every state to enter into keen competition for competent teachers, and there is even competition as between the states themselves. New expedients are being resorted to to retain teachers and teacher material. One of these is the refusal to give certificates to normal school graduates until they have taught two years in the state in which the school is located.

And with this competition to meet and the fear that their schools will be left without teachers, local school boards, the makers of salary schedules, have to work with an eye on the taxpayers. The kind of work is disconcerting, especially when all taxpayers naturally want the taxes kept down, and not many of them know that unless the teachers' salaries are jacked up with a jolt, and promptly, they will have to teach their children themselves, if any teaching is done hereafter.

The whole trouble is, of course, that the people generally don't know yet about the dangerous plight into which the schools have fallen. The teachers know it, the school authorities know, so do those who have to do with matters of taxation. And, at least in New Jersey, the large task of getting the information over to all the people of the state is being pushed vigorously.

The New Jersey School and Teacher Campaign, which is passing along the facts and figures that explain the existing danger to the schools, is based on the confident belief that the people, once the situation is made clear to them, will insist on the higher salaries which alone can prevent a breakdown of the whole public school system.

A Cat in a Bag

This phrase originated from an old trick sometimes played by farmers on unsuspecting people. The countryman would come to town with what was intended to be a young pig in a bag. This he would offer for sale, and the unwary buyer would sometimes buy it without first looking inside.

The mail order catalog, though not an attempt to trick the buyer, occasionally does so, chiefly because the buyer fails to properly inform himself as to the exact nature of the goods. When they come, they may be entirely as represented but not as expected, and disappointment naturally follows.

Your local dealer places the merchandise before you, lets you see it and handle it. You see what you are buying. Isn't that the safest way to buy? It's only one reason why you should

How Would You Like to Harvest Two Crops of Corn a Year as They Do in the Philippines?

No, reader, this corn was not grown by one of our local farmers! It wasn't grown in the United States, even. It was grown in the far-off Philippine Islands by Filipino schoolboys. Two fine crops of corn a year are produced in the Philippines.

The Philippines are doing some wonderful things in the agricultural line. The Philippine government has fine agricultural schools throughout the islands, and the Philippine legislature, composed entirely of Filipinos, is each year making laws to improve the conditions for this important work.

The staple food of the islands is rice, but corn is coming right along in popular favor. Its use was given great impetus in the last year because of a rice shortage. Other important Philippine crops are hemp, sugar cane, coconuts, coffee, tobacco and pineapples. Lumber is also an important industry.

There are hundreds of thousands of acres of land lying idle in the Philippines, which have a greater area of fertile land than Japan—this in spite of the fact that the population of the Philippines is 11,000,000 while that of Japan is around 55,000,000. There is every reason to believe that some day the Philippines will have a population as large as that of Japan today. The Filipinos are the only Christian people in the Orient, and their young men are working night and day to prepare themselves for the responsibility of citizenship in the Philippine Republic, which they believe to be near at hand.

The conversion of Cornelius broke down the "middle wall of partition" between the Jews and Gentiles (Eph. 2:14).

1. Cornelius (vv. 1, 2). 1. His official position (v. 1). He was a Roman officer over a company of 100 soldiers, perhaps of about the same rank as a captain in the American army.

2. His character (v. 2). (1) A devout, pious man. His heart was filled with godly fear. (2) He was a praying man; he observed the Jewish law of prayer. (3) He was charitable; he gave much alms. (4) He was respected by his family.

The Lord chose Cornelius for the transition of the Gospel to the Gentiles because of his character and position. No Jew could find any fault with him. He was a good man, but not a saved man.

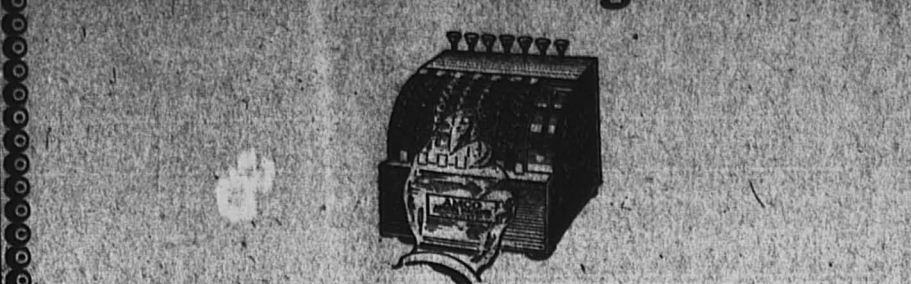

11. The Supernatural Preparation for the Transition of the Gospel to the Gentiles (vv. 2-33).

1. Two visions were given. (1) The vision of Cornelius (vv. 2-5). While engaged in prayer an angel of God instructed him to send to Joppa for Peter, who would tell him what to do. The angel told him that Peter lodged with Simon, a tanner, to show Cornelius that the calling of a tanner was regarded as unclean by the strict Jews, and the tanners were commanded to dwell apart. Cornelius sent at once for Peter. He was living up to the best light he had, so he received mercy. (2) The vision of Peter (vv. 6-16). This took place while Peter was praying (v. 9). If one would receive visions from God, let him pray to God; for the heavens are open to those who pray. He saw a certain vessel containing clean and unclean animals let down from heaven, and heard the command: "Rise, Peter; kill, and eat." Peter protested that he had never eaten any unclean thing. God replied: "What God hath cleansed, call not those unclean." This vessel let down from heaven and taken back indicated that both Jew and Gentile were accepted on high.

2. Messengers from Cornelius (vv. 17-22). Peter was greatly perplexed over what he had seen, but not for long; for messengers from Cornelius made inquiry at the gate for him. The spirit informed Peter of the matter and bade him go, nothing doubting.

3. The meeting of Cornelius and Peter (vv. 23-33). (1) Peter took his witnesses along (v. 28). He had the good judgment to know that on a matter of so great importance he must have witnesses. This was proved at the Jerusalem council in the consideration of the question of the reception of the Gentiles into the church (11:1-18). (2) Cornelius waiting for Peter (v. 24). He called together his kinsmen and near friends. (3) Cornelius

The Amco Adding Machine

The first real, practical, low-priced Desk Figuring Machine that will answer the requirements of a big or little business. It is the biggest improvement in the handling of figures since the introduction of adding machines.

Easy to Operate

YOU depress the keys and the result appears instantly. NO HANDLE TO PULL, therefore unlimited speed. All problems in addition, subtraction, and multiplication performed directly. Anyone who can read figures can operate the AMCO at once. Simplicity of operation is the key note of the Amco Desk Adding Machine.

Its Size

The AMCO is small in size and light in weight, and truly portable—weighing only 8½ pounds. It can be placed on a man's ledger, taken from desk to desk, on a trip, or home wherever there is figuring to be done.

Durability

The AMCO is built very strongly. It is constructed of the most durable steel and tested to endure the hardest kind of use. Every machine is absolutely guaranteed for one year during which period all repairs and adjustments will be made, gladly, free of charge.

The Greatest Opportunity of the Year to Buy Clothing at Reduced Prices

It should be plain to any man that this is a wonderful opportunity for saving money. There is no sign whatever of any reduction in cost of production. We are paying more for clothing for spring than we paid for our winter stocks. This clothing would be an EXCELLENT INVESTMENT AT REGULAR PRICES; but large shipments of our winter stock came late, and, while we know we could sell the entire stock at a profit next autumn, it is our policy to carry over only moderate quantities, therefore, we have planned to—

Sell $160,000 Worth for $100,000

—This week. And there can be little doubt that we shall accomplish our purpose. Think of it—a great stock-clearing movement in pursuance of our regular policy to reduce to the minimum the amount of merchandise to be carried over—marking standard, reliable, up-to-date clothing at an AVERAGE REDUCTION OF MORE THAN ONE-THIRD, while some of the best-informed manufacturers in this country are telling us our stock is as good as gold at the regular prices!

Men's Winter Overcoats, $18.50
Conservative, plain styles—good dark Oxford fabric. Very exceptional value at this extremely low price.

Men's Winter Overcoats, $23.50

Porch Club

Tuesday, February 24, at 8 o'clock, Sergeant Ruth Parham, the only American woman to speak on "Glorious Serbia." Mrs. Parham was a cavalry officer of the Royal Serbian Army and decorated three times by the Serbian Government for valor on the field of battle. Everyone is urged to come and hear Sergeant Parham tell of the things which she saw with her own eyes, and of the sad plight of half a million children, whose fathers gave their lives in the great battle for freedom. A silver offering will be taken for Serbian women and children.

Hurt in Coasting Crash

When the sled on which they were coasting, became unmanageable, crashing into a post, two Palmyra coasters were injured. Porter Caldwell had both bones in his left wrist broken and became unconscious from a blow on the temple. Miss Jeanette Soast received contusions of the forehead. The accident occurred last night, when a party made up of persons residing in Riverton and Palmyra, was coasting on a steep hill leading to the tennis court of the Riverton Country Club. The sled, guided by Caldwell, struck one of the iron posts used to suspend the tennis net.

Mrs. Bechtel Addresses P. T. A.

In addressing the Riverton Parent-Teacher Association yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Wellington Bechtel, of Haddonfield, past State President, covered briefly the three important events that each February brings before the public—the birthday of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers, Visit the School Week, and the election of members of the Board of Education.

In speaking of the Congress of Mothers' work, she said that the organization had grown out of the realization on the part of a few women of the necessity for mothers banding together for work along the welfare lines. The Mother Love is the name in every country, and must be "kept green." One of the best ways to do this is to keep in touch with the Heavenly Father, who keeps Mother Love alive. Mrs. Bechtel told the story of an angel who came down to earth from heaven and found flowers, the smile of a child and Mother Love. The angel returned to heaven, and in his little white robe, with the smile of a child and flowers withered, the smile of the child faded, but Mother Love remained just as when it was first found. Mrs. Bechtel suggested that parents visit the school often, for by doing so the answer may be found to some of the problems affecting the child. Some of the things you have often wondered about will probably have light thrown on them. Why a child became tired before noon and could not concentrate was answered for one mother by a visit to the school room, and her own observation of the conditions there.

Became familiar with the school law, both State and local, urged the speaker. Each home should contain a copy of the school law. The club parents may know what should be done and how.

Teachers everywhere are asking for an increase in salary. If capable teachers they should have it. Women should attend the annual school meetings and vote on the budget, even if their vote is the same as her husband's—it adds just that much weight.

Mrs. Bechtel complimented Riverton on its splendid kindergarten and manual training, and suggested the possibility of a domestic science class in the near future. Above all, said the speaker, Riverton was to be congratulated on having women serving on the Board of Education, together with the men.

First Appearance of Riverton Choral Under the leadership of Mrs. S. W. Collin, the Riverton Choral made a very successful debut at the Porch Club, Tuesday afternoon. The club furnished talent for the entire program, which consisted of duets by Mrs. Collin and Mrs. A. Wilson, contralto solos by Mrs. Collin, soprano solos by Mrs. Wilson and several sections on the piano, beautifully rendered by Mrs. George M. Becker. The vocalists were accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Peterson-Bell. This initial success gives promise of many musical treats for the club in the future, and well rewards Mrs. Collin for the time and effort spent in training the Choral.

There is no mean work save that which is world and selfish—Sardou.

Mrs. Paul Ridley is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Lord, of Brooklyn, Mass., for a week or two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Cuthbert and son, of Canada, visited Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sauters on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sauters entertained at ten in their honor.

Mrs. Casper H. Padmore is ill with scarlet fever at her home in Wilmington. Mrs. C. P. Padmore and Mrs. Neill Cavanaugh are caring for the patient and her infant daughter.

Inquiries have been made this week as to the whereabouts of "William" who was formerly coachman for David Henry Wright, in that an aunt of his, who recently in Colorado leaving him $10,000.

The organ recital held every month under the direction of the Parent-Teacher Association for the children of Riverton, will be omitted this month owing to there being so much illness in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Clark left today for New York, from where they will go to Springfield, Mass., to visit Mr. Clark's parents. Mrs. Clark will return home Wednesday and Mr. Clark will go to Boston on a business trip.

Don't forget that the annual school meeting for the adoption of the budget and the election of members of the Board of Education will be held next Tuesday evening, February 24, and not early in March as in years gone by.

The huge cap of ice, possibly ten or twelve feet high above the smaller of the two water tanks on Morgan's Hill, has been an object of curiosity to many of our residents this week. It is only in very severe weather that the ice in the tank freezes thick enough to be visible from the outside.

Those who had occasion to visit Deputy Tax Collector William F. Gordon, who sat at the post office Wednesday and Thursday to render assistance in making out income tax returns, found him to be most courteous and efficient in the discharge of his duties.

The James Bradley Post, No. 139, American Legion, held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Porch Club, when the constitution and by-laws were drawn up and approved. It was decided to give a moving picture benefit some time in May. It was also decided to form a Ladies Auxiliary along the lines laid down by the National organization. About March 1st an informal smoker will be held.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent on Lincoln's Birthday, when a card party was given for the benefit of the Library. A total of $32 was cleared. Miss Bertha Robertson, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Flanagan, was in charge of the party. Five hundred and bridge were played and each table contributed a small prize. Tables and chairs were furnished by the Porch Club. Another party will be held in the near future, and it is hoped that the proceeds will be even larger, as the Library is greatly in need of funds.

J. Lawrence Lippincott, who recently spent over three months in Serbia as head of the Serbian Relief Commission, will give a talk in the Westfield Meeting House on February 23, at 8 p. m. Mr. Lippincott traveled extensively over the stricken territory and gained at first-hand an intimate knowledge of the sufferings and privations as well as the needs of these suffering people. The talk will be illustrated with slides from photographs taken by himself and they constitute a collection which is unequalled. All are cordially invited.

Exemption from income tax to the amount of $3500 is allowed single and married persons, of either sex, in active service in the military or naval forces. This exemption applies only to compensation received from the Government and not to income earned or received from outside sources. Quarters furnished an army or navy officer is compensation and must be included in the return, subject to tax. Persons who left the military or naval service during the year 1919 and whose income, other than the amount paid them by the Government, equaled or exceeded $1000 or $2000, according to their marital status, must file a return on or before March 15.

So many requests for extending the Near East Relief campaign in New Jersey have reached State headquarters in Newark that the drive originally set for February 1 to 22 will be continued into March. Heavy storms in the suburban and rural sections, and influenza epidemics in the cities, incapacitated many of the volunteer workers. New Jersey has been asked to feed 15,000 orphans at a cost of $60 a year each. Two hundred thousand dollars has already been subscribed toward the $900,000, and Chairman William N. Runyon believes the entire amount will be raised before the campaign ends. Thirty orphans have been adopted for a year by individuals in New Jersey.

Red Cross The Atlantic Division of the American Red Cross is making an appeal for sewing machines to be sent abroad. If any are available in the town please communicate with Mrs. Murray C. Boyer.

Card of Thanks The Refreshment Committee of the R. O. C. Home Association beg to extend sincere thanks to all who helped to make their work successful at the Kuchro and Dance held on February 12th, and particularly to the Habas Bakery for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon the Committee. Adv.

DEATHS On February 9 occurred the death of Gibson Melvain, of Downingtown, Pa., older brother of Mrs. Henry C. Biddle. Mr. Melvain was buried on Friday, February 13, and on the following Tuesday his wife passed away. Funeral services will be held today from her late home in Downingtown.

A PROGRESSIVE NEWCOMER

Mr. King Urges Sidewalks on Both Sides of Streets, and Looks Forward to Amalgamation of Riverton and Palmyra

Palmyra Township Committee held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening, the chief business being to hear any objections that might be heard to the budget.

Nobody seemed to have found anything wrong with the budget. Albert S. King, who purchased the Morgan property at the foot of Cinnaminson avenue some time ago, was present to talk about sidewalks.

The committee some time ago began taking steps to sidewalk both sides of lower Cinnaminson avenue. After the ordinance had been passed, David McKnight appeared and urged that only one side of Cinnaminson be sidewalked, so that one side of lower Garfield could have a sidewalk. At the time Mr. McKnight was told his suggestion was just too late, but a few weeks later the committee decided to repeal the original ordinance and pass one providing for the sidewalking of one side of both Garfield and Cinnaminson. The reason given was that the Morgan estate, represented by the Moorestown Trust Company and upon which most of the financial burden of the Cinnaminson avenue operation would fall, had urged the step.

Mr. King at the meeting Tuesday evening accused the Morgan estate of undue interference with the affairs of Palmyra. The estate has only a financial interest in the town, he said, while his own interest in Palmyra was that of a man who expected to spend the rest of his life here and who expected to spend considerable money improving his property. His share of the sidewalk expense, Mr. King said, was more than that of the Morgan estate.

Mr. King spoke of the great future which lies before Palmyra, especially the two water tanks on Morgan's Hill. He hoped to see Riverton and Palmyra amalgamated at some time in the future, so that the two combined could have a large public building, a hospital, better schools and many other improvements.

He believed that only the older element in the two towns was opposed to amalgamation and that the younger people and the newcomers would be glad to promote the idea.

The proposed sewer system, Mr. King said, was the most important thing for Palmyra to attend to at present.

The committee assured Mr. King that the sidewalking of both sides of lower Cinnaminson avenue had only been postponed, and it was promised that a new ordinance for the completion of the sidewalking would be prepared and passed in the near future.

The budget ordinance will be finally passed at a special meeting next Tuesday evening.

The following bills were ordered paid: C. M. Beck, salary, $54.00; F. R. Grubb, salary, $39.00; T. Windfield Land, street work, $285.50; L. A. Weikman, coal, $14.75; Telephone Company, $3.78; Public Service Company, gas and electric lighting, $74.38; L. Samson, groceries, $2.02; G. W. Schwartz, poultry killed by dogs, $13.50; Douglas Kersey, poultry killed by dogs, $15.00; A. J. Beckenbach, legal services, $11.70; $49.14.

CHURCH COUNCIL ENDORSES N. E. R.

Federal Body Says No More Compelling Need in All the World.

Departing from custom, the Federal Council of Churches has endorsed the work being done by Near East Relief, 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, the former committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief which has essayed the task of caring for 1,250,000 starving people in Western Asia.

Resolutions adopted by the executive committee, as announced by Charles S. Macfarland, general secretary, are as follows:

"Your committee recommends that prayers be offered in all our churches for the suffering children throughout the world, especially those who are in distress and peril as the result of the war."

"They further recommend that we reaffirm and emphasize our interest and co-operation in the plans of Near East Relief. We know of no need in the world that is more compelling than that of the Armenian, Syrian and other peoples in the Levant who have already received and must still receive the generous sympathy of the American people."

About Wood Engraving. Wood engravings of all classes are made almost exclusively of boxwood, and the large blocks are made of small pieces fastened together. The engraving is done across the end of the grain, in the suburban and rural sections, and lengthwise sections of cherry wood parallel to the grain.

Again, Swat the Fly. The number of bacteria capable of being carried by one house fly varies from 550 to 6,000,000. Hence a crusade against this pest which is most numerous during the season of the year when epidemics are likely to occur will play a great part in prevention and spread of any malady.

Tidiness of the Art. No creature is more tidy than an ant. A well-known authority says that ant articles consist of coarse and fine toothed combs, hair brushes, sponges and even washes and soaps. Their combs, however, are the genuine article, and differ from ours mainly in that they are fastened to their legs.

Leading economists of the country agree that there is little hope of bringing prices down to the people in general stop buying the unnecessary things and practice economy in their households. To create a will and to form a habit of regular and systematic savings they unequivocally endorse the plan of the U. S. Treasury Department advocating the purchase of Thrift and Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates.

SOUND BUSINESS BASIS FOR CHURCH

Interchurch World Movement Natural Growth of Tendency to Eliminate Waste.

AVOIDS USELESS COMPETITION Religious Financier Revolutionized by Success of Men and Millions Movement and Co-operation Is Result.

The Interchurch World Movement of North America is an attempt by far-sighted leaders of the various evangelical denominations of the United States and Canada to co-ordinate the resources in men, money and material of Protestant America.

Historically it is the logical outgrowth of a tendency of the national boards in each denomination to form working alliances among themselves, in which each board shall preserve its identity and control its own personnel and treasury.

In former times, the home mission society, the foreign mission society, the church extension society and the various philanthropic and eleemosynary agencies of any denomination conducted their affairs independently of one another. Each surveyed its own restricted territory, prepared a budget of money and workers for its own purposes and made its own appeal to its constituency for support.

This could only mean that these agencies were more or less in competition with one another; that there were waste and duplication of work and money, and that among them all some work was neglected and some denominational resources were entirely overlooked. It was made clear that each constituent board should preserve complete autonomy.

When the board representatives met they found it possible to eliminate a great amount of organization expenses. They ultimately worked out a budget and plan of campaign that was satisfactory to all. This resulted in the famous "Men and Millions Movement" of 1917, which brought in $5,000,000 for a five-year program. The members of the committee were so pleased with this business-like method of conducting affairs that they contributed even more generously than had been expected.

The success of this enterprise revolutionized the whole business of church work. The other great denominations immediately adopted the plan. The denominational associations have come to be known as "forward movements," and some thirty of them are in existence today. Each one has clarified all the information in relation to enterprise within the denomination, and has reduced the business of collecting and spending money to a science.

World-Budget Formed. The Interchurch World Movement is simply a plan to do interdenominational work that the forward movements have done within the various communions. It means that every denominational budget will be made in the light of world needs instead of in the semi-obscure of incomplete information. It means that contributions to one denomination will be in useful competition with contributions to another, because all the fellowships will have worked out their program together.

The functions of the Interchurch World Movement are threefold. First, it collects, by means of world surveys, all the pertinent facts on which denominational programs may be built. Second, it sets up the practical machinery of co-operation. Third, it acts in an advisory capacity whenever its advice is requested.

The movement has nothing to do with organic church union or matters of creed or doctrine. Each constituent unit preserves complete autonomy, and is bound only so far as it wishes to be bound. Financial appeals are made by each denomination to its own constituents. Any funds in undesignated funds, over and above the actual cost of administration, will be prorated among the denominations engaged in a given financial undertaking.

A illustration of one thing the movement can do is to be found in a western community of 1,600 persons in which thirteen denominations have been supporting separate churches with missionary funds, while an adjacent territory of 60,000 persons has only three churches. By seeing that all missionary boards are supplied with information in such cases, the movement will make possible a wise distribution of funds.

Its first goal is to reduce unnecessary duplication and overlapping to a minimum and to bring about an intelligent division of labor in unoccupied fields. The movement is at bottom, an attempt to put church business on the sound, business-like foundations on which the great commercial institutions of America are built.

Just Why Men Become Bald. Each time a man lifts his hat he experiences a sudden change of temperature, and it is this constant heating and cooling of his head, according to a recent medical writer, which causes the hair to drop out in the long run.

It is very seldom that soldiers go bald early, for they do not raise their hats, but salute.

Women, too, never go bald so soon as men; that is because their hats are retained on their heads when they are out of doors, and are only taken off when indoors.

Another reason why men go bald is said to be because they so often wear their hair clipped close.

Stabilizer for Airplane. An airplane manufacturer has, it is reported, invented a new type of electric stabilizer for airplanes, which consists of a pendulum swinging in a liquid bath and controlling the supply of current to a small propeller placed just above the pilot's head.

Would Spare Grandmother's Feelings. The other day my aunt was writing to her mother, and she said to her little boy, who had recently learned a few of his letters at school: "Dear, don't you want to write your letters to grandma and show her how much you have learned?" Gena thought a few minutes and then replied: "O, mother, grandma is so old and it's been so long since she went to school, she probably wouldn't know what they are."—Exchange.

Get After the Pest. Mosquitoes always pass the early part of their life history in water. Adults do not travel very far unless carried by wind. If you are bothered by them, look around for some stagnant water. Put a little kerosene on this and effect a control.—Exchange.

LIMIT NEW BILLS IN BOTH HOUSES

Belief of Legislators Is That Session Will Come to an End
Early in April.

FOR STATE INSURANCE FUND.

Governor Advocates Radical Changes in Liability Laws, in Message to Legislature—Collected Over $17-000,000 in Premiums.

Trenton.—Both houses fixed the end of next week as the limit for the introduction of bills, without unanimous consent, and with the exception of the annual appropriation bills.

It is the consensus among the legislators that the session will close about a week from the first part of April.
Assemblyman Rowland's bill creating an additional district court in Camden county passed the house.

Affects County Registers.
Assemblyman Hansen's bill, permitting county registers to charge fifteen cents per line for recording papers was passed. The bill was intended to particularly affect the large counties where it is hard to keep clerks at the present rate of compensation, which was fixed by law over forty years ago.

Assemblyman McAttee's bill raising the price of legal advertising from ten cents per line to twelve cents per line passed. Mr. McAttee stated that the cost of printing had gone up one hundred per cent in the last year or two and this bill was intended to help cover the high cost of the printing trade.

Daniel Young's bill providing for the purchase by the state of the army building in Morristown for $45-000 for the use of Company M of the Sixth Regiment of the National Guard was passed.

The Bill Passed.
Assemblyman Lattimer's bill increasing salaries of sergeant-at-arms of district courts was passed after Assemblyman Edridge had spoken against it. The bill fixes the maximum salary of $1,200.

Assembly Bill 47, the salary-raising bill for district court clerks, was called up by Mr. Blair for third reading and passed.

The conference of Republican senators took up salary increasing bills in both houses. Some of the bills were ordered put on a black list while others reported for favorable consideration.

For Elective Utility Board.
House Bill No. 3, the Rowland elective utility board bill, was reported favorably in the house by the judiciary committee. Mr. Rowland had been threatening to work the rule of five-teen to get the bill out of committee.

At the last moment the Democratic members of the committee helped him by signing for favorable report, and Republican Leader Herschfield let the report go in. The bill went through on second reading.

The committee on highways reported favorably House Bill No. 70, by Mr. Barrett, providing for a new State Highway Commission. This is the Edwards administration bill. It went to third reading.

The daylight saving bill was reported favorably and went over on second reading.

Among the bills passed by the Senate were the following:
White—Increasing salaries of county school superintendents in first class counties from $3,000 to $4,000. The original bill specified $4,500, but was amended by Senator Mackay.

Whitney—Provides for appropriation of $10,000 from motor vehicle fund for improvement of roads in each county.

Whitney—Providing for office of budget agents in municipalities at salary of $5,000.

Pilgrim—Permits counties to offer
$150 reward for capture of escaped prisoners.

Senator Simpson strenuously opposed the passage of Senator Pilgrim's bill amending the insurance laws, and it was laid over. Simpson said it would mean the letting down of the bars and militate to the injury of policy holders.

Conference of Republican Senators.
At a conference of the Republican senators it was decided to amend the bill introduced by Senator Haines, Republican, calling for an alcoholic content of not more than five per cent in beers and wines, and cut this down to 2.75 per cent by weight, which would mean about three per cent by volume.

The Republicans may be able to shove a 2.75 per cent bill through the senate, but have little chance of putting it over in the house without the assistance of the Democrats, who will fight desperately to get Assemblyman Barrett's four per cent measure through. Barrett's measure is the one favored by Governor Edwards.

The senators decided to get an opinion from Attorney General Thomas McCran as to the legality of the sale of a 2.75 per cent beer, and whether in his opinion it would conflict with the Eighteenth Amendment. The Attorney General will also be asked to state what he believes would be the reasonable and legal alcoholic content which the legislature is able to allow.

Statistics. All the measures dealing with beer, ratification of the prohibition amendment etc., went over for consideration until next week, pending the formulation of a definite program by the Republicans on the wet and dry issue.

G. Howard Munroe, for the Anti-Saloon League, was here and succeeded in securing favorable sentiment among the Republicans on a proposal to give a new hearing on the various wet and dry measures. As the result of his efforts among the Republicans here, it is believed another hearing will be set for one day next week.

Time to Consider Change.
"In view of the fact that such policy
has been in force for nine years and in view of the various amendments of the original act and of the supplementary thereto and of the judicial construction placed upon the same, it seems to me that the time has arrived when we might profitably consider and reflect upon the benefits gained by the state through the institution of such a policy, and we should consider

SOME FACTS AND FANCIES ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES

There Has Been Much Misrepresentation in America About People and Conditions.

By MAXIMO M. KALAW,
Secretary of the Philippine Mission.

A certain lady
at the St. Louis Exposition saw at Baltimore a very well complexioned man in faultless evening dress and escorted him
with the inquiry,
"I suppose, you are Japanese, sir?"

The man addressed replied,
"No, madam."
"Then you must be Chinese," she said.

"No, I am not.
I am a Filipino," he replied.

"Who's that?" asked the lady. "I thought they were all savages living in the woods."

"Well, I'll tell you how I came here," he said. "A month before I left the Philippines I was living in the woods, but the American Governor decided to catch as many wild men as possible,
train them and send them over here.
So here I am, just as you see." And the St. Louis lady actually believed him.

That is what you would call fancies about the Philippines. The fact is, however, that the 11,000,000 Filipinos and their ancestors have been civilized and Christians for 300 years; that the non-Christian population, according to the census of 1918, is only 500,000, and even these are not all uncivilized.

Another fancy is that not until the coming of the Americans were school buildings seen in the islands, roads built, or substantial houses erected.
Do you know that for hundreds of years the Filipinos have had colleges and schools and that the University of Santo Tomas is only twenty-five years older than Harvard? That as early as 1800, out of a population of 4,000,000 people, there were 841 schools for boys and 838 for girls? That in 1892, eight years before the coming of the Americans, there were 2,137 schools?

To grant self-government to Luzon under Aguinaldo would be like granting self-government to an Apache reservation under some local chief? To speak a former President of the United States during the Philippine-American war. Exaggeration could be an excuse at a time when the dignity of the American people demanded the extinction of Filipino opposition, but do you know that the Philippine Republic, before the American occupation of the islands, had the approval of prominent Americans who were on the spot—like John Barrett, Director of the Pan-American Union, who compared it favorably with the Japanese government? That Admiral Dewey considered the Filipinos better fitted for self-government than the Cubans? That they had drafted a constitution at Malolos which elicited the approval of distinguished Republicans like the late Senator George F.
Hoar? That before the coming of the Americans they had produced many heroes like the martyred Jose Rizal, pronounced by a Republican congressman, Representative Cooper, as the soldest victim that has ever fallen into the clutches of tyranny?

And do you know that the Filipinos have not had for hundreds of years any caste system, blood distinction or royal families, and that, unlike their oriental neighbors, they are the only Christian people in the Orient?

People have pictured an ignorant
mass of Filipinos, illiterate, poor, living a life of servitude for a few wealthy land owners and foreigners, with no houses or farms or property of their own. Do you know that 70 per cent of the people above ten years of age can read and write and that this percentage of literacy is almost as high as some of the states of the Union? That it is higher than in any country of South America, higher than the literacy of the Spanish people, and unquestionably above that of any of the new countries recognized in Europe? Do you know that there are a million and a half farms in the Philippines and that 98 per cent of these farms are owned by Filipinos. In other words, that out of the 11,000,000 Christian Filipinos, 8,000,000 of them at least are on their own farms, with houses of their own, independent of any absentee landlord or foreign master? That 91 per cent of the urban property consisting of houses and lands is owned by the natives of the Philippines, and only 9 per cent, is in the hands of foreigners? Yet these are facts cabled by the Acting Governor Francis Emmett Yel-ler to the War Department from the recent census estimates.

Having solemnly promised the Phi-lipines their independence and having gone before the world as the champion of self-determination, the Filipino people cannot understand how America can consistently refuse to make good these promises.

CLIMATE OF THE PHILIPPINES.
The Philippines Islands have a mild tropical climate. The nights are cool and comfortable. The temperature record for the past thirty years shows an average of 80 degrees.

Read the Bible and Think.
"It is a good plan to read a book of the Bible through rapidly at a sitting in a shady garden, or on a cliff looking over the sea; then to close the book and think."—Church Family Newspaper.

Transformed Into New Man.
As iron put into the fire loathes its rust and becomes clearly red hot, so the man who wholly turns himself unto God puts off all slothfulness, and is transformed into a new man.—Thomas a Kempis.

No Need to Repent It.
Raymond had played until he was overly tired, and when he went upstairs to bed his mother called after him not to forget his prayers. Listening, she overheard the following interference in a sleepy voice: "Dear God:
I'm awfully tired; so my prayer tonight is the same as last night and you remember what that was, Amen."

Gave of Today.
The cares of today are seldom those of tomorrow, and when we lie down at night we may safely say to most of our troubles, "Ye have done your worst, and we shall see you no more."
—Cowan.

Ask Investigation.
Governor Edwards goes on to ask that an investigation be made looking to the establishment of an insurance system by the state. He says:
"The figures for 1910 cannot be given,
as returns from only 12 out of 40 companies have been received up to this time, February 9, 1920.

"In my judgment such a result defeats the purpose of the policy. If the policy is worth while, and I assure it is, then we should see to it that the persons for whose benefit it was put in force get all the benefit possible."

"I understand the state of New York
now operates a state insurance fund.
My desire is to suggest the investigation of the creation and operation of that fund, so that if it is found to be practicable a similar fund may be instituted in this state and the present system abolished.

"Such a resolution will be introduced and I earnestly urge its passage."

Cleveland H. Dodge Shows What Near East Relief Can Do In Efficient Purchasing.

Buying in wholesale lots and under the most favorable market conditions,
Near East Relief of 1 Madison avenue,
New York city, with representatives in every state of the Union, has been able to handle the high cost of living so far as relief supplies for the suffering millions of the Near East are concerned.

Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, in a statement shows that the committee is able to provide food for the suffering people of the Near East at prices much lower than the average charge here.

A donation of $5 per month will provide food for one orphan, $10 per month provides not only food, but also clothes and shelter for one orphan, and for $15 per month attendance at school is assured to each orphan in addition to food, clothing and shelter.

In the appeal for funds to save the starving remnants of the Armenians and other western Asia peoples, Near East Relief is inviting the American people to "adopt" an orphan at the rate given here. Over 250,000 homeless children are in need of help in the Near East. Women's organizations, lodges, churches and social clubs are responding to the appeal by adopting groups of orphans for support over a definite period.

Time to Consider Change.
"In view of the fact that such policy
has been in force for nine years and
in view of the various amendments of
the original act and of the supplementary thereto and of the judicial construction placed upon the same, it

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16¢ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.
The freight on it has increased only 5¢ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailor—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5¢ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent
a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

1. It was an intensely earnest prayer. It was more than unceasing prayer; it was the yearning desire of the soul as it stretched itself out toward God.

2. It was definite prayer. They specifically interceded for Peter. Their prayer was concentrated, definite and specific.

3. Peter Delivered by an Angel
(vv. 6-11).

This occurred the night before Herod's plan to make a public display of him.

1. Peter sleeping (vv. 6-7). The angel found Peter asleep. The Lord keeps in perfect peace those whose minds are stayed on him (Isa. 26:3). Again, he gives his beloved sleep (Psalm 127:2).

2. Peter leaving the prison (vv. 7-10).
The heavenly light shone in the prison.
The angel smote Peter on the side,
the chains fell off, Peter put on his clothes, passed by one guard after another, through the iron gate out into the city.

3. The effect upon Peter (vv. 11). Although the event was so wonderful to Peter, and at first he thought it a vision, when he came to himself he was assured beyond peradventure of a doubt that God had miraculously delivered him from Herod's wicked hands.

IV. Unconscious Unbelief (vv. 12-19).
1. The behavior of Peter and the Church (vv. 12-17). Peter went to the house of Mary and knocked. The knock was answered by Rhoda, who was so overjoyed on hearing Peter's voice that she forgot to open the gate and ran in and told them that Peter was at the gate.

2. The behavior of the soldiers (vv.
18, 19). There was great agitation among them over Peter's disappearance. This was a serious matter, since they were responsible for him.
Not being able to account for Peter's escape, Herod commanded that they be put to death.

About 650 people were engaged in taking the first census of the United States. The 1920 census will require the services of 10,000.

The Amco Adding Machine

The first real, practical, low-priced Desk Figuring Machine that will answer the requirements of a big or little business. It is the biggest improvement in the handling of figures since the introduction of adding machines.

Easy to Operate

YOU depress the keys and the result appears instantly.
NO HANDLE TO PULL, therefore unlimited speed. All problems in addition, subtraction, and multiplication performed directly. Anyone who can read figures can operate the AMCO at once. Simplicity of operation is the key note of the AMCO Desk Adding Machine.

Its Size

The AMCO is small in size and light in weight, and truly portable—weighing only 8½ pounds. It can be placed on a man's ledger, taken from desk to desk, on a trip, or home wherever there is figuring to be done.

Durability

The AMCO is built very strongly. It is constructed of the most durable steel and tested to endure the hardest kind of use. Every machine is absolutely guaranteed for one year during which period all repairs and adjustments will be made, gladly, free of charge.

See the Machine at The New Era Office.

NEW WORLD PROGRAM
DEWEED BY CHURCHES

By S. EARL TAYLOR.

DR. S. EARL TAYLOR,

General Secretary Interchurch World

Movement.

If Christ, on the day He was born,

had started on a tour to preach in every village in India, He would still have 30,000 more to visit.

We now believe we have found a way by which the leaders of the Protestant churches can sit around a common table and have the Christian program of the entire world laid before them. By means of the Interchurch World Movement we can see where the Methodists are, and where the Baptists are. We can see the general outline of their forces, their present status in this great world struggle, and may also have some idea of the unoccupied places, and what may be done by all of us to enter these unoccupied parts of the world field which Christ sent us to occupy.

The Weakest Finger.

The finger on which the engagement and wedding rings are worn is anatomically the weaker of the ten. Physicians have to give the third finger twice as much drill as the other. The explanation is that the tendon of the extensor muscle of the third finger is attached by a cross-slip to that of the second.

Glorious Serbia

Sergeant Ruth Farnum gave an intensely interesting description of the Serbian people, their ideals and home life, Tuesday afternoon at the Porch Club, and said that they were very similar to American people in appearance, actions, ideas and love of country. They have never fought a war of aggression, but only for God and liberty.

The sickness and fifth left in Serbia when the German army retreated bred disease so fast that all the dead could not be buried. The hospitals had no medicines nor proper food, many of the patients dying of starvation. Sergeant Farnum assured her hearers that those who work at home on hospital supplies, and give money for medicine, are just as important as those who serve over there, where they are unseen and the people in America keep them supplied with materials.

Early in the war Germany offered Serbia peace, accompanied by the threat that if she did not accept her country would be ruined, her women dishonored, her children crucified. The Serbian people themselves refused this peace, saying that it was "better to die in beauty than to live in shame." The threat was more than fulfilled!

Sergeant Farnum told how she was the first woman of any country to enter reconquered Serbia, and how she came to be made sergeant. She was present at the Peace Conference with a plea for justice for women and children, and she went to America to see conditions at that time. She found 15 per cent of the children afflicted with a curable but contagious eye disease, so torturing that it either kills or drives the victims insane—but they need medicine. In weather so cold that she was chilled, although warmly clothed, she found children out in the snow without enough clothes to cover their bodies. Seventy-two dollars will provide food, clothes and medicine for one child for a year.

There have been fourteen million people in Europe who have died since the armistice of starvation and preventable disease. Is not this any concern of ours?

In closing she showed a cross made of a large white topaz, which was given her by the women and children of Serbia to honorize the peace, and she gave the message which the women had sent to America: "In the Name of Christ help our children." The need is great, and America can help by giving money, which is the least of riches.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

An evidence of the success of Sergeant Farnum, the offering at the Porch Club amounted to $118, and contributions received since have brought the total up to $356, with more subscriptions promised. Money or checks made payable to the Serbian Child Welfare Association, may be sent to Mrs. Melvin Biddle, 212 Thomas avenue.

Urges Fox Hunting on Big Scale to Save Game

Finding that foxes are increasing so rapidly they are exterminating small game and game birds in central sections of the State, Burlington county sportsmen are urging all hunters to take up the mid-winter sport of fox-hunting for profit as well as pleasure. Organized sportsmen will endeavor to have a series of big fox-hunts during the next month, when conditions for tracking the foxes will be at their best.

Rabbits are nearly wiped out in big areas of the pine where the foxes flourish, old gunners say, and the hungry foxes are now encroaching upon cultivated districts and preying upon domestic poultry. Reynard is also killing off quails and pheasants to an alarming extent.

In encouraging fellow-sportsmen to join them, experienced gunners claim that fox-hunting is the most exhilarating sport to be found in the New Jersey woods, while in addition to the present high market value of the pelts, the county pays a $3 bounty for each fox killed.

There are 3400 Savings Societies in the Third Federal Reserve District, 565 of which were organized since January 1, 1920. Twelve thousand savers are reaping the benefits of regular and systematic saving.

The real evil which we are confronting today is the high cost of leisure.—Vice-President Marshall.

MEMENTO FOR SERVICE MEN

Committee Decides to Recommend Some Personal Token of Appreciation, to Be Followed By Permanent Memorial

The citizens committee, appointed by Mayor Killam E. Bennett to decide upon a suitable memorial for Riverton's service men, held its first meeting Monday evening at the Riverton Country Club. The committee immediately got down to business. The following resolution, calling the committee into existence, was read:

"Whereas, it is the desire of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Riverton to bring to definite action the effort to provide a suitable Memorial in honor of those who served their country from the Borough of Riverton during the World War, and

Whereas, the Mayor and members of Council desire that said Memorial should be an expression of the citizens in general, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Mayor appoint a committee of twelve citizens with power to act, to decide just what will constitute a suitable memorial, the cost thereof, and plans for the financing and erection of same.

Organization was effected by the election of ex-Mayor Flagg as chairman, George K. Clark, secretary, and Mrs. N. Myers Fittler, treasurer.

Several plans were discussed, including a municipal building, with room for housing the fire equipment, council chamber, committee rooms, auditorium with stage facilities, club room with games and athletic apparatus, headquarters for the American Legion, a memorial hall or room, where tablets would be placed recording the names of men and women in the service, etc.

Another plan was an athletic field and park, with suitable fields and playground apparatus.

Still another plan spoken of was to combine with the athletic field idea a site for another building, which it was thought would soon be needed. Having the school building adjacent to the park and field would give the children a suitable playground, and so to speak, kill two birds with one stone. It was pointed out that space for a playground for Riverton's youth would become increasingly hard to get as the town becomes more and more built up.

On motion of Mr. Williams the committee was unanimously agreed that the service men should be presented by the Borough Council with some truly personal trophy or souvenir, such as a gold knife, pencil, button, or something of that kind. Charles A. Wright, Mrs. Boyer, Mrs. Fittler, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Williams were appointed a committee to select a suitable memento, and report to the general committee in time for a resolution to be laid before the Borough Council at its next meeting on March 11.

While the members of the committee discussed possible plans, on the assumption that it was the desire of the people of Riverton generally that a permanent memorial be erected, the position of carrier.

LIBRARIANS JOIN FIGHT ON UNREST

American Library Association inaugurates Nation-wide "Books for Everybody!" Movement.

WILL AID FOREIGN BORN.

Social Problems Can Be Solved by Teaching American Ideals and Traditions.

The spirit of unrest that has been sweeping the country indicates that the foreign born, who have flocked to the United States from every corner of the globe have not been given the proper help and encouragement, in the opinion of the 4,000 librarians who make up the American Library Association and who are now enlisted in a "Books for Everybody!" movement.

The effort is a concerted movement to carry out the Enlarged Program which the association has adopted.

There are approximately fifteen millions of foreign born in the United States and of this number six millions do not read or speak the English language. One phase of the Enlarged Program will be to bring the publisher and translator together with the view of furnishing the proper books in sufficient numbers to carry the message of American ideals and traditions to this vast army of uninformed people.

It now has in operation book service to the United States Merchant Marine, Coast Guard, Lighthouse Service and hospitals of the United States Public Health Service. The needs of the 75,000 blind persons in the United States will be cared for. At present the number of books available is woefully inadequate. This will be remedied and the joys of good literature will be brought to the people that are darkened by a veil which will never be raised by any other method.

Not all the work of Americanization lies in the great centers of population. Great sections of the country where industry is carried on by foreign workers do not know public library service. There are important mining states where less than a score of libraries exist. One mining state has but two public libraries.

The Visiting Nurse Association will make its annual collection in Palmyra next week. Personal calls will be made and the committee hopes everybody will be as liberal as possible. The committee for Palmyra is Mrs. John Amittage, chairman; Mrs. C. H. Crowell, Mrs. A. C. Hirsch and Mrs. William F. Letford.

The Y. W. C. A. held its first-aid class in Y. M. C. A. hall Thursday evening. Tonight the physical training class will meet in the gymnasium of the Epworth Temple. On March 2 they will give a moving picture benefit and on the 4th Assemblyman E. M. Roberts, of Moorestown, will lecture on "Citizenship." Members and other women who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

Visiting Nurse
The Visiting Nurse Association has bought the O'Kane property at Broad and Lincoln avenue at a cost exceeding $5000 for use as a home for the Visiting Nurse and her assistant.

The home will be centrally located between Palmyra and Riverton, inasmuch as 50 per cent. or more of the Visiting Nurse's work is done in Palmyra.

To defray the expenses of the purchase, Miss Hattie McEl Biddle, head of the association, has already raised $2700 and has asked Palmyra to raise $1000, which has been agreed to. The balance is expected to be obtained in Riverton.

The campaign to obtain the $1000 here will be under the direction of Jacob P. Warner, whose committee includes Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. John C. Hoepfner, Mrs. J. P. MacFarlane and C. W. Davis.

Assess of the town will be made, but it is suggested that subscriptions be sent voluntarily to members of the committee.

A need for an additional nurse has been felt, and it is hoped that a start may be made on a fund to provide one.

The fund to be raised will be known as the Riverton and Palmyra Visiting Nurse's Home Fund.

DEATHS
Mrs. Wilbur F. Dilks died this morning at 8 o'clock of pneumonia. She leaves a husband and three children, the eldest, Miriam, aged 13, and Mr. Dilks are recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Under the Mortal will be in charge of the funeral.

Exciting Time at School Meeting
The Palmyra school election held Tuesday evening in the High School building was marked by the largest turnout of voters in years.

Compared with the 15 or 20 who have attended such elections for the past several years, there were over 200 people present Tuesday evening.

The big attendance was due partly to the fact that the increased budget and school situation in general had stirred up considerable interest, but chiefly because there were rumors of opposition to the regular school board slate.

Three new candidates were nominated at the meeting. They were Thomas McCrosson, George Carter and Oscar Rutschman, all for the three-year terms. The regular school board candidates, whose names had been announced in advance and printed on the ballots, were Dr. John Lord, Dr. Charles S. Voorhis and George J. Spencer, for the three-year terms, and Fred Truett, George Harvey for the one-year term.

The regular candidates for the three-year term won in a walk, each receiving 148 votes. Mr. McCrosson received 34 votes, Mr. Porter, 30, and Mr. Rutschman, 29. Mr. Truett was elected for the one-year term, being the unexpected part of Edwin S. Klein's term, with 91 votes to Mr. Harvey's 74.

The $25,000 appropriation carried by 1919 to 20.

One of the features of the election was the appearance of a large percentage of the members of the American Legion as voters. These men are to be congratulated for showing such interest in civic affairs.

The tellers for the Board of Education election were Messrs. Trudel and Byrne, and for the appropriation, Messrs. Irvin, Donaghy and C. F. Buchholtz.

The meeting was presided over by A. Harry Ridduck, as chairman, with Charles W. Davison, secretary.

Y. M. C. A. HALL TO BE HOME OF POST RODGERS

Preparations Being Made to Furnish New Quarters—Several Contributions Received—Charter is Closed

The committee on permanent quarters for the Frederick M. Rodgers Post, American Legion, of Palmyra, have concluded negotiations for the rental of Y. M. C. A. Hall, Broad and Garfield avenues, which will be their permanent quarters.

The room available includes a reception room on the first floor, a committee room, a hall and kitchen on the second floor. It is proposed to equip the reception hall as a reading room to be accessible by all Post members every evening.

Since the negotiations for the hall have been made much attention is being directed to the equipment and furnishings. Several voluntary gifts in the nature of furniture and subscriptions to some of the best magazines have already been received.

Should there be other persons in the community who desire to accept this opportunity of helping to furnish the first home of Post Rodgers, either by contributing appropriate articles and gifts or by cash donations, they will be gladly received and much appreciated by the Post.

The flag presentation to the Post by Washington Camp, No. 23, P. O. S. of A., held on Monday evening, last, which undoubtedly will be noted fully in other columns of this paper, was an event to be recorded with much emphasis by the Post Historian.

In mentioning the event, it is the desire of Post Rodgers to publicly thank this Patriotic Order and their most ardent co-workers, the Ladies' Order of Patriotic Americans, for their exceptional hospitality on this occasion, assuring them of their full appreciation of the evening even to the minute detail.

One hundred and twenty names were included on the charter application, which was closed last week and sent to headquarters. Since that time several new members have been enrolled, showing a steady growth and increasing interest in the Post.

Announcement was made during the past week by the Post Commander, Antonio Boehme, of the appointments of Dr. Charles P. Voorhis as Post Surgeon and Frank A. Mathews, Jr., as Post Attorney.

The chairman of the entertainment committee, acting upon several well-comed suggestions, has been enabled to outline a program of events. One of which will take place the early part of April in the nature of an illustrated lecture. Mr. J. Otto Tillow, whom we all know for his renowned lectures, has kindly offered to deliver on this occasion a striking discourse on the customs, habits and business possibilities in Latin America, as he has witnessed them.

Members! Are you as wide awake as these committees who are endeavoring to make a name for your Post? If you are, you will show it by the simple thing—being present on all occasions and meetings of the Post, and lend your support to the best of your ability.

Be on hand at the next monthly meeting, this coming Tuesday evening, in our new quarters. Plenty of business, entertainment and refreshments.

JOSEPH G. STEEL,
Chairman Publicity Committee.

P. O. S. of A. Presents Flag to Legion
Camp 23, P. O. S. of A., which has long had a reputation for pulling off big things, fairly outdid itself Monday evening when an elaborate reception and banquet was held in honor of Post Rodgers, American Legion.

The occasion for the reception was the presentation by the Camp of a beautiful silk flag to Post Rodgers.

The Legion men were greeted by P. O. S. of A. President George N. Wilmer, who, in the course of his address of welcome, expressed the hope that the occasion would mean the beginning of a close association and friendship between the two organizations, whose aims in many respects are mutual.

The presentation speech was made by A. R. Durbin, of Camp 295, of Philadelphia. Mr. Durbin, who enlivened his address with many humorous anecdotes, dwelt on the significance of the flag and the great inspiration to be drawn from it. He said he believed that America has not been discovered in the early ages, partly for the sake of saving the best thing till the last, but chiefly to provide a haven for the oppressed peoples of the world at the time they began to need it most.

The flag, he said, was the result of an artist's dream, red for love, white for purity, blue for fidelity and the stars for faith. He had no hesitancy in entrusting the flag to the care of the legionnaires for they have already shown their willingness to defend it with their lives.

The star was received on behalf of the Legion by Post Commander John Antonio Boehme, who, after explaining that National Commander Col. D'Olier had been unable to be present, to make the speech as hoped, briefly thanked the P. O. S. of A. for their splendid gift and reiterated the hope that the Legion and Camp would have very close relations in the future.

Frank A. Mathews, Jr., on behalf of the Legion, explained the significance of the local Post and pledged that the activities of the organization would always be for the highest interests of the town, State and nation.

The meeting then adjourned to the banquet hall, where covers were laid for nearly three hundred.

The course was served by the Ladies of P. O. S. of A., all garbed in white with sashes of the national colors.

Hilarity reigned supreme at the banquet. Everybody sang and ate with gusto to the music of the jazz orchestra. The eats were not to be surpassed and the spirit of the whole affair would have been a revelation to those who contend that banquets can no longer be jovial now that J. Barleycorn has been laid away.

The entertainment for the evening was furnished by the Jere Shore bureau, and Charlie Hohenschein, of Riverton, favored the assembly with several much appreciated solos.

Possibilities in Honduras
With a population estimated at 600,000 and an area approximately equal to that of Pennsylvania, Honduras has abundant room for development. It has a tropical climate with few of the usual disadvantages. The interior is mountainous and fertile, with considerable rich land suitable for diversified farming and fruit growing, while all of the remainder, even the deep mountain slopes, is used for pasturage.

Dad's Part in the Game
One day when Herbert was riding with his father in his machine, he told Herbert not to forget to remind him of a certain errand. After going a little farther his father thought of another thing he wished to be reminded of. Herbert thought seriously for a moment and then turned to his father and said, "Well, dad, I guess you'll please have to remind me to remind you."

TALE OF SUPREME DEVOTION
Simple Explanation of Reason Why Romance of Abelard and Heloise Will Never Die.

Romance never dies, for lovers are born each springtime and the heart of the world is always young. And so it is that to the modern tongue of the gun-bombarding Solosons, in set the tune of an old, old romance that has spun like a gold-and-scarlet thread through eight changeable centuries, spun and spun, and lost none of its color, none of its appeal. And the story winds about the town of Solosons and ends in a crumbling old tower dropping to its last decay.

And the romance was the tragedy of Abelard and Heloise, lovers who have typified the passion of devotion to all the lovers of the universe. The story itself was not uncommon—the love of a teacher for his beautiful pupil, her winning and her undoing. The tale of Faust has the same harsh note of betrayal. But it is the supreme devotion of Abelard and Heloise that make them types; that, and the setting of the romance which ran through Paris and other towns, and drew to a close in the tower where Abelard was a prisoner of those persecutors who held his writings to be seditious. His marriage to Heloise, his renunciation of her, and the final taking, by both of them, of the vows that sent her to a nunnery and him to a monastery, all of this availed him nothing. There in the town of Solosons, lighted now by the blaze of burning shells, he was compelled to burn with his own hand his book in which was set forth the "heresy" of which he was accused. What a contrast between the feeble light of that burning manuscript and the flare of the battle we are waging for the liberties of the world!

And yet the burning of that book was a momentous event at the Solosons council of ecclesiastics.

But Abelard had been a great teacher, and all the country had thrived and thrived with the serial story of his romance with the beautiful Heloise. And so, in the later years travelers have turned aside from the beaten tracks and sought the old tower on the outskirts of the French town for a glimpse of the prison where he languished. The steps were worn in grooves by the thousands of feet that went on as a pilgrimage to the shrine of a perfect love.

There today the guns roar and the shells take their screaming flight—there at Solosons—but under the curtain of smoke and the hail of lead there spins on and on the gold-and-scarlet thread of the romance that never dies—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

"No Man Alone Can Take a Trench."
"Keep together! Keep together!" shouted a commanding officer overseas. "No man alone can take a trench." "I say: Keep together! Keep together, men of God! No church alone can take a world!"—G. Sherwood Rids.

BUS SEEDS

Take the Guesswork Out of Gardening

No matter how carefully you prepare the soil, despite your skill at planting, and regardless of weather conditions you won't get the right results with the wrong seeds.

And the difference between the garden that will be a high cost of living and the garden that is "just a garden" is principally the difference in the seed. Busi Seeds have produced quick and positive results for three generations of American gardeners. They are the result of over 72 years of scientific selection and development.

Her Bank Account

A good old joke is told of the woman who, when asked by the banker to endorse her husband's check so it could be cashed, wrote on the back: "I heartily endorse this check. Your loving wife, Mary." Whether that incident is true or not, it happens frequently in real life that some woman, left alone by her husband's absence or death, finds herself in woeful ignorance of how to manage her money affairs. Thoughtful farmers and other business men these days are opening bank accounts for their wives—as told in a splendid article in the next issue of

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

This bank encourages such accounts for farm wives, and it is glad at any time to receive them and to give to the women the same careful instruction in the use of all its banking facilities that it gives to their husbands. Many women hardly know what to do with their butter and egg money. Deposit it with us! And incidentally, you may rapidly increase the amount by following the instructions to be found weekly in the poultry and vegetable and dairy and beekeeping and fruit pages of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Let us send in your subscription for a year of the Great National Farm Weekly—52 big, interesting issues for only $1.00—and then watch the bank account grow!
