REVISED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL
LESSON

By REV. P. R. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 3

THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 3: 1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.—Matt. 1: 21.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Isa. 7: 14-28;
Matt. 2: 1-12; Luke 1 and 2.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Wise Men Visit
the Child Jesus.

SECONDARY TOPIC—The Child Jesus Escapes from a Wicked King.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
The Coming of the Holy Ghost.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
The King Comes as a Little Child.

Since we now have six months of study in the Gospel according to Matthew, every teacher should grasp the book as a whole and present each lesson in its relation to the central purpose of the book. The central theme of Matthew is Jesus Christ the King—the fulfiller of the Messianic hope.

I. The Birth of the King (1: 18-25).

The Messiah was to be the seed of a woman—the son of a virgin (Gen.

3: 15; Isa. 7: 14). This was fulfilled in the birth of Jesus. The genealogy as given in Matthew 1: 1-17 shows his legal right to the throne; but had he been that only, he could not have been the Savior from sin. He must be both human and divine (Isa. 9: 7). The Messiah was begotten by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary, thus becoming Immanuel, which term means in all its fulness, God for us; God with us; God in us.

II. The Magi Seek Israel's King (2: 1, 2).

The King had a most heartless reception. The kingdom was not ready for him. His advent was heralded by a star which guided souls from a foreign nation to seek and worship him.
These wise men were either Arabian or Persian astrologers, students of the stars.

The appearance of an unusual star attracted their attention. Perhaps they were acquainted with the famous prophecy of Balaam (Num. 24: 17).
Doubtless through the influence of the Jews who remained in Chaldea, or the direct influence of Daniel extending to this time, they had become acquainted with the hope of a Messiah.

The light they had was dim, but they lived up to the best they had. To those who act upon the best light they have, God always gives more. To those who refuse to act upon the knowledge given, God not only refuses to give more, but brings into confusion that which they already possess (Matt. 23: 28).

III. Herod Seeking to Kill the King
(vv. 8-12).

The news brought by the Magi struck terror to Herod's heart. He was not alone in this, for all Jerusalem was troubled with him. The news ought to have brought joy. A glimpse at the social customs in and about Jerusalem at that time, will enable us to understand why this news brought uneasiness to the people. They were living in the greatest of luxury. Fine dresses, sumptuous feasts, fine houses, etc., led to gross immorality. We can thus readily see why Herod and all Jerusalem should be troubled. They did not want a Savior who would save them from their sins; they wanted to continue in them. Herod demanded of the priests and scribes information as to where Christ should be born. They soon were able to tell him, showing that they had a technical knowledge of the Scriptures, but no heart for the Savior set forth therein. The luxuriousness of the wealthy, the frivolities of the fashion-loving, and the gross immoralities to which they lead, make Jesus Christ unwelcome in many quarters today.

IV. The King Found (vv. 13-17).

The Magi having obtained the desired information, started immediately to find the King. As soon as they left the city, the star which had guided them from the East appeared again to lead them on. When they found him, they worshiped him. Note God's overruling providence in all this. Hundreds of years before, the Prophet said that Christ should come forth from Bethlehem (Micah 5: 2). God so ordered that Mary should be brought to the city to give birth to Christ. God ordered that the Magi should depart another way, thereby defeating Herod's wicked purpose. The gifts of these wise men, God put into the hands of Joseph and Mary before going to Egypt. Doubtless they served a good purpose in meeting their expenses during their stay there.

V. The King Protected (vv. 18-19).

To escape Herod's wicked aim, God directed Joseph to take Mary and the child Jesus, and flee to Egypt. In obedience to the heavenly vision, he went and remained until Herod's death.

In Giving Aims.

In giving of these aims inquire not so much into the person, as his necessity. God looks not so much on the merits of him that requires, as to the manner of him that relieves. If the man deserve not, thou hast given to humanity.—Quaker.

Think of Our Own Sins.

So long as we are full of self we are shocked at the faults of others.
Let us think often of our own sins, and we shall be tolerant to the sins of others.—Fosdick.

All the rust of life ought to be scoured off by mirth.—O. W. Holmes

AN OPEN LETTER
Riverton, N. J.
September 30, 1920.

Editor of The New Era:
I desire to publicly express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for the most loyal support given by my friends to my candidacy for the high office of Sheriff of Burlington County. Results show that the large majority given me in my home town helped greatly to turn the result in my favor.
To the ladies, I feel especially indebted for the noble work they accomplished in my behalf and wish to assure all that if elected in November, I will give to the office the very best that is in me.
Sincerely yours,
EDWARD H. FLAGG, Jr.

Salaries Not Raised, After All
As the result of Governor Edwards' signing the Roberts measure, recently passed by the two branches of the Legislature, the population of Camp Dix, which was turned in as something over 5000, is not to be taken into consideration in determining the census of Burlington county, for the purpose of fixing the salaries of the Sheriff, County Clerk and Surrogate. Under the provisions of an act passed last spring, the salaries of these officers would have been raised from $4,500 to $6,000 per annum when the population of the county exceeded 80,000. The new census, taking in the population of Camp Dix, was given at something over 81,000 in the recent preliminary tabulation. Deducting the Camp Dix figures, Burlington county's population is brought under 80,000 once more and the salaries of the three officials named will not be affected by the new population figures.

A Good Fight Fairly Won
Edward H. Flagg, Jr., is to be congratulated on the successful termination of his tireless and plucky fight for nomination for the office of sheriff on the Republican ticket, waged in the face of discouraging circumstances, misrepresentation and treachery. He was deservedly and actively opposed by those who had promised to support him, remarks he had made were distorted, and statements were attributed to him which he never uttered. In the face of all this Riverton's doughty ex-Mayor kept doggedly at it, working day and night, fighting his hardest, but always fighting clean and backed by his loyal friends. In the end came justification.

But a battle as hard, or harder, is staged for November 2, when he will be opposed at the polls by Andrew Jordan, the Democratic candidate, who will be no mean contestant. Just about a month intervenes, and it behooves the friends of Mr. Flagg to be up and doing every minute.

Golf Tournament at Country Club
The championship qualifying round was started at the Riverton Country Club last Saturday. Murdoch was low score, winning the gold medal. Edward Lippincott, 16 years of age, and the most promising player Riverton has produced, was only one stroke behind the winner.

Right additional players withdrawn.

Twenty-seven women appeared for instruction. But on primary election day 245 women in the second district and 207 in the first turned out and voted. Evidently most of them had received private lessons in voting.

William F. Harvey, of Palmyra, a boy who delivers newspapers in Riverton, was arrested Monday by Officer Quigley for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. He was taken before Squire Fichter, at Palmyra, who discharged him with a severe reprimand. It is not the desire of the police department to be unduly severe in the enforcement of the bicycle ordinance, but its violation must and will be broken up, even if many arrests are necessary to accomplish it.

This will be a time for everyone to show a very practical interest in the welfare of the Home by contributing some of the needed things, thereby helping the good work along for another year. Mrs. Alexander Marcy will receive contributions at her residence, 406 Main street, and see that they reach the Home.

Opposition to Ferry Site Grows
When interviewed last night, N. Myres Filler, chairman of the committee of six, appointed at the indignation meeting held last Friday night to formulate plans to prevent the landing of the so-called Riverton-Tacony ferry at the foot of Main street, declined to make any statement further than to say that while the work of the committee was necessarily slow, he considered that satisfactory progress was being made. Petitions circulated this week have been largely signed, and the committee apparently has the almost unanimous backing of the townspeople in their fight.

The feeling in Riverton is that the building of a ferry terminal on the R. W. Rogers property, which has been purchased by the company, would mar the beauty of the river bank, of which the borough is justly proud, and lower the value of properties there; that heavy traffic along Main street at all hours would be undesirable, and that picnic parties from the other side would litter up the river bank.

The history of a Riverton-Tacony ferry dates back many years. At one time it was proposed to land at the foot of Linden avenue, but the influential residents of that section of the bank succeeded in killing the project beyond all hope of resurrection until a few hours in fact, before nightfall of the day on which it was "hatched," it is reported.

More recently, Charles A. Wright and a number of Rivertonians have been working on a ferry plan which contemplated a landing at the foot of Cinnaminson avenue, and at that time there did not seem to be any opposition to it. In fact, it was looked upon rather favorably, and it is understood that the Business Men's Association of Palmyra passed a resolution approving it.

It now develops, however, that Albert S. King, who purchased the Morgan property at the foot of Cinnaminson avenue, is opposed to having a ferry terminus near his property, and believes that the same objection which the Riverton people have raised would be entertained by Palmyra people.

It is understood that the Rogers property was purchased through a local real estate man who was approached by a member of the company who pretended to be wishing to buy a home, and that the real objects of the purchase were not known until the transaction had been completed.

The ferry company intends to go right ahead with its plans, and is said to hope to have boats in operation by January 1, 1921.

According to the claims advanced by both of the companies which have proposed to conduct ferries between Tacony and a landing near this side adjacent to a Riverton and Palmyra, such a ferry would be a great benefit to this section, and it would seem advisable for the two communities to set together and decide upon a location for the terminal which would be reasonably satisfactory to all concerned.

The new company has launched an advertising campaign in the form of a "Bulletin," apparently with the hope of creating sentiment in Riverton in favor of their project. Their advertisement in this issue of The New Era is a sample of their line of argument.

Advice to Tenants
A secretary of the British Guiana Building Association in his annual report included the following advice to tenants: "What is rent? Rent is a monthly reminder that you do not own your own home."

Whenever a landlord gets low in funds he can raise the rent; it is up to the tenant to raise the where-withal.

Payments on a home are an investment. Why not invest now? You may have tried many ways of getting ahead. Why not try this way, and join the Cinnaminson Building and Loan Association of Riverton on October 11, when the forty-third series will be issued. Meetings are held in the Cinnaminson building on the second Monday of each month, from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and 7 to 9 in the evening.

Secretary.

WATCH FOR FUTURE BULLETINS

Magnolia 7, Riverton 0
The 1920 football season opened last Saturday, September 25, when Riverton lined up against the strong Magnolia eleven from Frankford. The game which was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd of both Riverton and Frankford rooters, was certainly a credit to both teams, as they played hard and clean football during the whole game, regardless of the oppressive heat.

Both teams were very evenly matched and as the game progressed it appeared that it was doomed to end with neither side scoring, but toward the latter part of the last period, one of the Magnolia men fumbled and Riverton got possession of the ball on Magnolia's thirty yard line and I think nearly everyone of the Riverton rooters had visions of a sure score being made, but Magnolia's defense was a little too strong for us, and after running three plays and still being short about five yards of the required ten, the Riverton backfield held a hurried conference resulting in the calling of a kick formation. S. Hyllon back, and he made a try for a field goal. The ball from the side line appeared to have been kicked directly over the cross bars, but luck was against us as it missed being a field goal by about a foot to one side.

Magnolia then put the ball in play on their twenty yard line and after trying a couple of scrimmage plays which netted them no gain they attempted to kick the ball out of dangerous territory but made a poor kick and Riverton was again in possession of the ball within scoring distance and knowing that the game was nearly over they tried a couple of plays and then in hopes of being able to score,

We urge all members to get busy and propose one candidate.

The State officers were welcomed on behalf of Camp 23 by Past State Treasurer, George N. Wimer, and each of them was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Business Men's Association Change Membership Rules

A special meeting of the Palmyra Business Men's Association was held Monday evening to consider changing the rules of membership so as to allow Palmyra men with businesses outside of Palmyra to become members.

It had been felt by several members that the rules limiting membership to men with business in Palmyra prevented the organization from ever reaching the size necessary for it to be a big influence for the betterment of the town, and also that many of the best citizens were thereby excluded.

After some discussion all the members at the special meeting agreed that the change would be desirable, and plans were laid for a membership drive to begin at once.

It was also thought that the name of the organization should be altered and the association reorganized along the lines of a chamber of commerce or board of trade. It was hoped that the association soon would be large enough to maintain well-fitted quarters and to undertake many important projects.

A committee composed of P. G. McMahon, Clifton Taylor and Edgar C. Lewis was appointed to visit similar organizations in nearby towns to obtain information as to how they are conducted.

Big Game Invades Palmyra Streets

A rat came promenading up the Garfield avenue sidewalk Monday afternoon, creating some excitement, especially among the ladies. His rashship also got scared and climbed a tree, and W. R. S. (Billy) Fluck got out his trusty shotgun and brought him down.

F. C. Membership Drive

The Palmyra Field Club has started a membership drive with 100 new members as its goal. The drive is under the leadership of Harold Baker, chairman; Alonzo Bonsal, E. A. King, Norman Schriver, Herbert Kemmerly and James M. Wear.

Application will be gladly received by any of the committee and by F. L. Durgin, Sr., president of the club. The Field Club's headquarters in Society Hall will be a very attractive gathering place for the men of the town during the long evenings of fall and winter.

Pool tables, card tables, interesting reading and two big heaters are among the winter attractions.

Pinochles and other social affairs are to be held regularly.

Tennis, base ball and other outdoor sports are summer features. The athletic grounds, owned and supported by the club, are an asset to the town, and citizens should be glad to have a part in the good work which it carries on.

Dog That Bit Child Was Mad

Dr. Drolet has received the following report from Trenton concerning the dog belonging to Harry Ellis, of Cinnamon avenue, which he killed last week:

Mr. Ellis's young son, which was bitten by the dog is receiving the Pasteur treatment.

High School Football

The Palmyra High School football team, which this year is a light but speedy organization, was beaten Saturday by the strong Norristown eleven by 25 to 0, but on Tuesday ran rings around the heavier Bristol, Pa., team and won 50 to 0.

Friday afternoon they played Woodbury.

Leroy Kersey suffered a badly wrenched knee in the first few plays of the Norristown game and was taken to the Norristown hospital where he remained for several days until removed to the home of his grandfather near Norristown. It will be several weeks before he will be back again. Lester Warner sprained an ankle in practice and is about on crutches.

The boys play Bristol here again next Friday.

Lot for School House Wanted

The Palmyra School Board will ask the people to buy a plot 260x300 feet back of the high school building on which to erect a grammar school building in the next year or so. The plot, comprising 26 building lots, will cost $3,000.

A special school meeting will be held in the near future for a vote on the matter.

When the new school is built a central heating plant to heat it and the high school will be built and the high school basement will be used for manual training and other needed features.

The overcrowded condition of the schools makes a new building soon imperative.

A Concurrent Resolution Adopted by the Assemblymen at Last Minute

Prevented Thwarted Break Between Two Houses.

Seventeen bills passed both branches of the legislature and are to go to the governor for his signature. Ten of them originated in the house. These include seven election bills and four housing bills. Briefly they are:

Provisions of Housing Bills.

Senate 823 provides that no taxes shall be levied for a period of five years on any dwelling improvement that may be made in the building of houses between October 1 this year and October 1, 1922.

Senate 824 gives the tax assessor the right to inquire into the amount of rent paid. He shall add to the assessment any excess profit.

Senate 825 provides the tenant shall be given by the landlord three months' notice to move in both monthly and year to year tenancies.

House 551, which provides that suits to dispossess tenants can be brought only in the city or judicial district where the property is located.

Election Law Changes.

Senate 819 appropriates $30,000 to Secretary of State Martin to purchase and distribute election books, blanks, etc.

House 554 fixes the census of 1910 as the basis for determining in what municipalities personal registration is required.

House 555 calls for polling booths to be provided upon the basis of one for each 100 voters who have registered in an election district.

House 556 gives the members of the district election boards an increase in pay of 25 per centum for the election this year.

House 557 provides for an additional poll book in districts in municipalities having more than 15,000 population.

House 559 changes the word "exclusive" to "inclusive" in Article 3, Section 4 of the Election Law, 1920 revision.

House 558 changes from 30 to 25 days before election when political parties must certify the names of the presidential electors.

Only six senators voted for the Bernhard bill, which it had passed and had been signed by the governor, would have permitted municipalities to issue bonds for the purpose of erecting dwelling houses to relieve the housing shortage. Senator Pilgrim bitterly assailed the bill in the debate, but he did not vote on the roll call. The bill passed in the house last May. It contains a referendum clause and must have operate three years from the date of passage.

Another housing bill beaten in the senate was Senate 822, by Mr. Runyon, giving governing bodies the right to pass ordinances and giving municipalities the right to inquire into the renting of properties. President Cass objected to this measure because he believed it gave municipalities the right to enter the house building business. He said it was "passing the buck" to give municipalities legislative authority, and he also thought it would undo the action of the senate in defeating the other bill, introduced by Mr. Herndon, allowing municipalities to enter the business of building houses.

The vote on the bill stood 9 to 6, and Mr. Runyon requested that the measure lie over. The request was granted.

Auto License Measure Up.

Before the senate passed the bill fixing new license fees on pleasure and commercial automobiles the section establishing licenses for jitney buses at $1 per horsepower for vehicles carrying ten persons and less than $1.50 for vehicles carrying ten persons and more was removed. Senator Simpson of Hudson objected to it. The bill was referred back to the Highway Committee, and it was reported again with that section eliminated and also the part making it lawful for an automobile to be operated under a registration certificate for a period not exceeding ten days after the expiration of the certificate. In the house the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee, where it now rests.

No Tenement House Act Change.

Near the close of the session Mr. Simpson offered a bill to take three family dwellings out of the tenement house act, explaining that it would bring relief to the housing shortage in Jersey City, but Mr. Allen objected to any more bills being introduced. He said the senate had been liberal this year in letting new bills in after it was agreed to stop the introduction of them. The president declared the Hudson senator out of order. Senator Machay of Bergen then offered another bill, but he was also declared out of order.

When Mr. Allen offered the resolution fixing the dates for the senate to adjourn every two and three days from now until New Year's Day Mr. Simpson said the resolution was an attempt to exercise powers the majority didn't have. He asked for a ruling, and President Cass said the resolution would stand. The Hudson senator appealed from his decision, and the chair was upheld by a vote of 13 to 1.

See Fear of Governor's Action.

After the vote Mr. Runyon protested against the resolution going through. He declared that there was nothing to hold the senate, and he added that the senators would be "ridiculed" for adopting such a measure. He thought the senate could wind up its business in about one more day's work.

Mr. Simpson said that he couldn't understand what the Republican members were afraid of, except that the governor might appoint "some board that would be unfriendly to the Public Service Corporation." While he didn't cause the board, every one present realized that he was referring to the State Board of Public Utility Commissioners, now on trial before the governor.

"Why don't you pass some legislation and take the power of appointing this board out of the governor's hands?" asked Mr. Simpson.

Senator Whitely of Morris said that he was interested in the $125,000 appropriation bill now before the committee. He wants to study the bill before he reports it out of committee, and that was the reason, he said, he was opposed to adjourning now.

Mr. Allen said he thought it was better to take "three day jumps" until the end of the year than be sorry.

The resolution carried by a vote of 14 to 6.

THE COST OF A SURVEY

is less than it was four years ago. It costs more in terms of dollars and cents to be sure, but the value of the dollar can be measured only in terms of what the dollar will buy—how many pounds of sugar, how many potatoes, how many miles on the railroad. If we measure then the cost of a survey in terms of the purchasing value of the dollar we find the cost surprisingly low.

If you want your work done accurately—and a survey made otherwise is worse than none at all—you will consider the cost reasonable.

Salads New and Old.

During the summer fruit salads of various kinds should be freely used, especially for the picnic lunch. There is such a variety of fruits that one need not repeat.

Tutti Frutti Salad.

Take one quarter of a pound of figs, cut in small pieces, the same amount of stoned and quartered dates, one-half cupful of canned strawberries, the same of canned pineapple, the juice of one-half lemon, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and one-half cupful of orange juice. Serve as dessert.

Italian Salad.

Take four sardines, three large potatoes, three hard-cooked eggs, half a cupful of cooked lima beans. Slice the potatoes, skin and bone the sardines and break into bits, then mix with the potatoes. Put the yolks of two of the eggs into a bowl, add a pinch of mustard, salt and oil enough to make a smooth cream, add one-third as much vinegar as oil. Pour this dressing over the salad and add the shredded whites. Garnish with the whole egg cut in pieces and a few stoned olives. Serve well chilled.

Royal Soup.

This is another fineless cooker recipe. Put a cut-up fowl in a cooker kettle, full of cold water, boil ten minutes, then pack in a cooker for six hours or overnight. Remove the chicken and to the stock add one dozen small onions, two sliced carrots, one turnip also sliced, one cupful of peas, two bay leaves, salt and pepper. Reheat the radiator, bring soup to a boil and repack. Do not strain, but serve with grated cheese and buttered toast. The chicken meat may be used for various dishes later.

Squabs au Casserole.

Saute six squabs in two tablespoonfuls of butter without browning, then cover with broth, add a sprig of parsley, a bay leaf, and cook until nearly tender; then add a dozen and a half of button onions which have been parboiled, two dozen potato balls and two half-inch cubes of fried bacon. When ready to serve, remove the parsley and stir in the yolks of three eggs well beaten and added to half of a cupful of cream; add a tablespoonful of butter or bacon fat. Do not boil after the eggs are added. Serve from the casserole.

One of the nicest ways to serve squabs is boned and stuffed, then roasted. It is not a difficult process to bone a few birds. The small leg bones are left at the end for a more shapely appearance. They may be broiled without stuffing if preferred, adding a bit of celery or a piece of onion to season the inside of the bird.

Miles of Perforations.

Measured in terms of miles according to a calculation of Director James L. Williams of the government printing office, the daily output of holes perforated from stamps when placed side by side and edge to edge, would extend to single file a distance of 600 miles.

Few, indeed! Oliver Wendell Holmes wittily said that the first essential in healthy stock is to choose healthy grandparents. Our young people are proud to marry into distinguished and wealthy families, and this is well, for such families usually imply ancestors with powerful traits of character, but how many today can pick out the qualities in their companions that show that they have descended from grandparents who are mentally, morally and physically strong?—Exchange.

The total votes in the county for sheriff was approximately as follows: Fleetwood, 4454; Flagg, 4829; Stone, 2772; Donnelly, 567. J. Lloyd Wright received the nomination for freeholder with a vote of 5132, about double that of Rigg his nearest opponent who had 2590. Maxwell received 1988 and Lechoy 1394. For Congress, Wright carried Burlington county against Bacharach, but failed to carry his home voting district. Bacharach won out in the whole Second Congressional District composed of Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland and Burlington counties, by a majority of about 6000. Atlantic, Bacharach's home county, gave him a majority of 5087.

In the first district, Riverton, 728 voters were registered and 482 ballots cast, of which 458 were Republican and 24 Democratic. In the second district the registration was 566, and the ballots cast, 352—330 Republican and 22 Democratic. In the first district 251 men voted and 207 women. In the second district, curiously enough, the women voters outnumbered the men nearly three to one—245 women and 85 men.

Notwithstanding the strong opposition in Palmyra, Flagg carried the town by a majority of 14 over Fleetwood.

In the fight for township committee in Palmyra, Charles B. Hinchman, the Community League's candidate for full term, defeated Stephen S. Cook, who was up for re-election, 696 to 305—more than two to one.

In the contest for constable in Palmyra, James Webb, a colored man, was the only candidate who got his petition filed in time to get on the primary ballot, and received a large vote. Two were to be nominated, and Joseph Abdill won out for the other place from a field of three white men. H. A. Stiles won out in the contest for county committeeman in the third district, Palmyra, on the Republican ticket.

In the first district, Palmyra, 423 votes were polled and 18 rejected. Second district, 263 polled, 7 rejected. Third district, 513 polled and 13 rejected.

In Cinnaminson township 768 were registered and only 288 ballots cast, of which 228 were Republicans.

An Indian name from the Leni-Lenape Nation, the original owners of New Jersey, meaning "SWEET WATER SHORE"

The original settlers of this section deserve the credit that is given in history to William Penn, for they made friends with the Indians, and bought from them this section of New Jersey, long before William Penn came over or Philadelphia was established. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago
(© 1919, Western Newspaper Union.)

BAPTISM AND TEMPTATION OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 3: 1-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.—Matt.
3: 17.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Luke 3: 1-17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Planning the Heavenly Father.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Baptism and Temptation of Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Jesus Overcoming Temptation.

Victory Over Appetite, Pride and Ambition.

1. The Baptism of Jesus (3: 1-17).

While the forerunner was discharging his office, the King emerged from his seclusion at Nazareth and demanded baptism at John's hands. The incongruity of this with the purpose of baptism brought from John a protest, but Jesus' explanation was satisfactory, so John baptized him. Touching Christ's baptism, note:

1. Its significance. (1) Negatively. (a) It did not mean his own obedience to the commandment of God, because his entire life had been lived entirely within the will of God. Not a moment in his entire life but what was lived entirely in accordance with the Father's will. (b) Not because he had sin, for he was absolutely sinless, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners. This separation was so complete that even the devil could find no occasion against him (John 14: 30).

(2) Positively. Its significance is found in harmony with the central purpose of his coming into the world, which was to secure for his people salvation through death, burial and resurrection.

2. Approval from the opened heavens (vv. 16, 17). Immediately following his consecration to his work, the heavens were opened and the Spirit came and abode upon him, followed by words of approval from the Father. These all were essential for the work upon which Christ now entered—revelation (heaven opened), inspiration (dove abode upon him), and approval (words from the Father).

11. The Temptation of Jesus (4: 1-11).

This temptation was the opening battle of the dreadful conflict between Christ and Satan. In this struggle, note:

1. The combatants. (1) Jesus Christ, the Divine Man, now entering upon his mediatorial work. He went immediately from the place of anointing and heavenly recognition as the Son of God to meet the arch-enemy of the race. (2) The devil. He was a real person filled with cunning and malice.

2. The battle ground—the Wilderness of Judea. The first man was tempted in a garden with the most pleasant surroundings and failed; the second man was tempted in a bare wilderness and gloriously triumphed.

3. The method of attack. Since as our Redeemer Christ sustains a threefold relationship, Son of Man, Son of God and as Messiah, each one was made a ground of attack. (1) As Son of Man. This was a test of the reality of his humanity to demonstrate as to whether the humanity which he obtained through the Virgin birth was real. The appeal was made to the instinct of hunger. Hunger is natural and sinless. Having been forty days and nights without food, as a normal man, Christ had a craving appetite. While the appetite was not sinful, to have satisfied it in a wrong way would have been sin. (2) Son of God. It was to test as to whether this personality which had taken upon itself humanity, was divine. The devil quoted from a Messianic Psalm to get him to presume upon God's care. God does care for his own, but to neglect common precaution—Son of God and as Messiah, each one was made a ground of attack. (1) As Son of Man. This was a test of the reality of his humanity to demonstrate as to whether the humanity which he obtained through the Virgin birth was real. The appeal was made to the instinct of hunger. Hunger is natural and sinless. Having been forty days and nights without food, as a normal man, Christ had a craving appetite. Women Take Part in State Republican Convention

The Republican State Convention, held at Trenton on Tuesday, was notable in being the first in which women have participated in the party councils.

The convention adopted without opposition the platform reported by the committee on resolutions, including a "dry" plank declaring unqualifiedly for law enforcement. The platform said:

"We pledge ourselves to uphold and enforce the constitution and the laws of the United States and of the State of New Jersey. In the language of the United States Supreme Court the eighteenth amendment is operative throughout the entire territorial limits of the United States and it binds all legislative bodies, courts, public officers and individuals within those limits. We believe that the will of the people as expressed in law must be supreme. The amendment of the United States must be supreme. As stated by our candidate for President, there can be no interference of any kind about honest law enforcement. Neither government nor party can afford to cheat the American people."

Among the outstanding features of the platform adopted by the convention were the following:

Criticism of Governor Edwards for his "unprecedented" ousting of the State Highway Commission.

Depreciation of the Governor's failure to develop and make more effective the budget act but through the Legislature's recommendation of Governor Edge in 1916.

Support for the $28,000,000 bond issue for the bridge and tunnel project, to come before the voters upon referendum at the November election.

Recommendation of the adoption of the veterans' bonus act, also to be submitted at the general election.

Recommendation of an amendment to the civil service act to give veterans of the world war the same preference in public positions now enjoyed by veterans of the Civil War.

Condemnation of closed specifications in letting contracts for public road and a recommendation that the party specifically be against such specifications.

Local representation for women in state and county committees of the party, the method of selection to avoid classes of the two classes of party members.

Commenting on the provision admitting women to membership on State and County Committees, Mrs. E. F. Felcker, chairman of the Board of the Women's Division, said:

"The Women's Division of the Republican State Committee has made good. It has organized all its forces and is now working under its new constitution. It has working under it nearly 2,000 election district leaders throughout the State. The splendid way in which the Republican women turned out in the primary election shows very clearly the good work which has been done. In the general election we will make an even better showing, and our ambition to have New Jersey give the proportionately large women's vote for Harding and Coolidge of any State in the country, is quite easily realized. From the beginning of our work we have had the sympathetic and helpful cooperation of the leaders of the Party. State Chairman C. C. Stokes, Ex-Senator Baird, Mr. Hamilton, and practically all of the State committeemen and county chairmen have done everything possible to facilitate our work. I sincerely believe that New Jersey women who have an interest in clean politics and honest Government will find their best chance of carrying out their ideals in the ranks of the Republican Party."

Walter Rich, who was accidentally killed while watching the demonstration of a machine gun at Trenton Fair last week, was well known in this neighborhood. He was a State road inspector and lived with Charles B. Jessup on the Burlington Pike for about a year.

The Board of Managers of the Cinnaminson Home, invites you to remember that the week from October 11 to 16 is donation week at the Home. Then is your opportunity to send to the Home sugar, flour, coffee, tea, chocolate or cocoa, fresh, canned or dried fruit, potatoes, all kinds of fresh and canned vegetables, canned soups, soap, in fact, any dry groceries will be gratefully received. Two new hot water bottles are also needed. This will be a time for all to show a very practical interest in the welfare of the Home by contributing some of the needed things, thereby helping the good work along for another year. Mrs. Alexander Marcy will receive contributions at her residence, 406 Main street, and see that they reach the Home.

Jesse Hullings was tendered a surprise party last Saturday night on the sixtieth anniversary of his birth. The party was held in Collins Hall in order to accommodate his host of friends, who turned out sixty-five strong from Burlington, Riverside, Camden, Philadelphia, and Riverton to help celebrate the occasion.

Hullings was presented with a gold watch and chain and many other useful and valuable gifts. The evening was closed with an elaborate supper.

The headquarters of the Riverton Republican Club in the gas office was opened to the public Wednesday night. The place has been fitted up with tables and chairs, and there is an abundance of convincing literature for those who desire to read and distribute it. A transparency bearing the names of the National, State and county candidates has been placed on the front of the building above the windows, and illuminated with electric lights.

Howard C. Taylor, of Riverton, secretary of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society, this week appealed to the State Bureau of Markets to aid South Jersey farmers in obtaining better transportation service into Philadelphia. Mr. Taylor predicts an overwhelming majority for the Delaware bridge project at the November election and declares that no one will be fooled by the camouflage campaign for a tunnel. Only a bridge in his opinion will be adequate to the great demands of the traffic at rush hours.

"We haven't learned whether it was a discussion of politics or fall bouquets that so engrossed their attention, or maybe it was the eternal 'him', but anyway Miss Cecelia Becker and Miss Ethel Williamson boarded the Atlantic City train on their way home Tuesday night, instead of the train for Riverton, and did not discover their mistake until they had reached Haddonfield. About seven o'clock their anxious parents received a telephone message from Atlantic City telling of their predicament, and the girls arrived home at ten o'clock. Their hope that the newspaper man will not hear of this has been realized, as you will note.

Additional Riverton News will be found on third page.

Voters May Register Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday the district boards of registry and election will sit at the several polling places between the hours of one and nine o'clock, p.m. for the purpose of revising the registers. Roff, P. Bell, M. N. Sheble, Ed Wood, Y. Graff. Third sixteen—H. Clifton, J. B. Stokes, J. D. Clark, R. L. Flower, S. Levin, H. L. Hirst, C. Seckel.

A most interesting meeting of the Forch Club is anticipated for October 12th, when a day of current events is to be held. Among the speakers will be Miss Helen Lippincott, who attended the Geneva Conference as a delegate and has most enjoyable things to tell of that, and Miss Martha McI. Biddle, who will talk of the Peace Conference which she attended, and also some impressions she received of the conditions of the countries she visited while abroad.

ADELAIDE S. BIDDLE, Chrm'n Study and Art Section.

Many Favor Mail Delivery

Postmaster Stonaker reports that he has received many favorable responses to the inquiry made last week through the columns of The New Era as to how the people of Riverton felt about having free mail delivery instituted in Riverton. It is sufficient to say that the service can be secured.

If you have not already done so, signify your approval to the postmaster. A delivery service would doubtless be a great convenience to those living at a distance from the post office, and to everybody in bad weather.

Parent-Teacher Association Reception

The fourth annual reception to the board of education and teachers by the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school auditorium last evening. The room was given a cosy and attractive appearance by rugs, easy chairs, and a profusion of dahlias, palms, and other plants.

Miss Emma Price gave a piano solo, and vocal solos were rendered by Miss Mary Steedle, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Cornell, and A. L. Wilson. Sewell B. Lile, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Peterson Bell.

A large number of new members were enrolled.

Yacht Club Plans Active Winter

At the meeting of the Riverton Yacht Club, at the home of Commodore George W. Edwards, the following committee chairmen were appointed, each chairman to appoint his own committee: House, William Baker, Jr.; Finance, Swimming and Publicity, Charles B. Durbin; Trap Shooting, Robert Stackhouse; Entertainment, R. W. Knight; Regatta, E. K. Merrill; Ladies, Mrs. E. K. Merrill; G. Rex Showell was elected to fill the newly created office of fleet captain. The Gun Club committee met with the officers and discussed plans for trap shooting this fall and winter. If the cost is not too great it is proposed to move the club house back on the pier between the two sluices, and shoot off the end of the wharf. A stove will be installed in the club house and facilities provided for serving refreshments.

Interesting Election Facts

Some curious and interesting things are revealed by a perusal of the tabulated returns of the primary election in the county.

Out of a registration of 36,951 only 17,039 ballots were cast, of which 241 were rejected. The total number of Republican ballots was 14,939, Democratic 2,391.

William H. Bright, for Congress, received the highest vote of any candidate having opposition—7,788. He was followed by Bacharach, his opponent second with 6,735. J. Lloyd Wright, for freeholder, received 6,604. Flag for sheriff 5,534.

The highest vote in the county was received by Emmor Roberts, who had no opposition for the Assembly. He received 12,176. Next came Elwood Belton for coroner with 11,935, Henry I. Worrell, auditor, 11,789.

C. Wesley McCoy will be the Democratic candidate for coroner to oppose Elwood W. Belton, Republican.

Riverton Hockey Team

The Riverton Hockey team has come to life after hibernating for two years. It has again put its name on the roll of Philadelphia and vicinity Interclub Hockey League in which it played for several years, nearly winning the cup. May it have success this year.

The girls have been most enthusiastic and are sticking to practice with a grim determination, for the first game is on October 11th at St. Martins. Watch The New Era for the others—especially home games.

The team is most fortunate in obtaining Miss Ann Wallace as coach, but less fortunate in losing Miss Marjorie Marcy, who has been chosen one of the eleven to represent the All-Philadelphia team to go abroad and play England and Scotland. She will be gone six weeks. What a feather in Riverton's cap!

The girls who are playing on the Riverton team are Mrs. Harry Rogers, Misses Elsie Coe, Ruth Coe, Grace Coe, Violet Rigg, Lucy Lippincott, Caroline Lippincott, Grace Bennett, Helen Biddle, Belle Clark, all of Riverton; Helen Cox and Kathryn Collins, of Moorestown; Mrs. Foster Reeves, Misses Mary Morgan, Mary McMahon, Helen Crowell, of Philadelphia; Miss Linda Syver, of Norristown.

Any other girls who wish to play report on the field Saturday morning at 9.30.

Come out and support the team at all home games. Help send some more material to England.

Must Pay for Damage to Books

At the meeting of the Board of Education Monday night the principal reported that several of the new books supplied to pupils when school opened this year, had been damaged. (Continued on third page)

To the Voters of Riverton and Vicinity

CONSTITUTION

You will be called upon at the coming election to aid in deciding questions more important and vital to your Country than any that have heretofore arisen since our Constitution was ratified; you will be called upon to decide if that Constitution (which the Dean of Oxford once announced was the greatest document ever emanating from the pen of man), shall remain our fundamental law, or shall it become subordinate to and eclipsed by the League of Nations, and thereby relegated to historical oblivion.

EUROPEAN ALLIANCES

You will be called upon to determine if the sagacious and century old admonition of our beloved Washington portraying the folly and lack of wisdom in entering European alliances, shall be cast aside as obsolete.

MONROE DOCTRINE

You will be called upon to decide if the Monroe Doctrine shall remain our National Policy, or shall it become a scrap of paper.

INTERNATIONALISM

You will be called upon to analyze just what President Wilson's internationalism means, and if you would consent to have the Stars and Stripes flown beneath and made subordinate to an international flag.

GENEVA'S EDICT

You will be called upon to decide if it is your wish that a small body of men in Geneva is to determine how and in what number your sons shall be sent to European wars, or to police Armenia, or guarantee the political integrity of foreign States, with the power of your constitutionally elected Congress stripped from them.

REPUBLICAN RESERVATIONS

All these dire results will accrue should the Versailles Treaty and League of Nations be ratified, as the Democratic Party and President Wilson desires, without those Republican reservations safeguarding and preserving the rights, privileges and American traditions achieved by the sacrifices of our forefathers.

LEAGUE WILL SEND YOUR SONS TO WAR

You have been falsely informed that this Wilson League of Nations, will avoid the necessity of your sons being called to war, and yet it is not as true as the sun will shine on the morrow, that should that League of Nations have been ratified as it was brought from Europe and laid before the United States Senate, hundreds of thousands of your and other American sons would be now waging war in Poland and policing Armenia?

FINANCIAL DEBAUCHERY

Have we not had sufficient demonstration of this awful lavish and incompetent Democratic administration, that administers the affairs of this great Nation with no more sagacity and thought than a drunken sailor his finances on shore leave?

AIRCRAFT FIASCO

One concrete illustration is the spending six hundred ninety millions of dollars ($690,000,000), (250 times the assessed real estate valuation of Riverton) for aircraft production, with little or nothing to show for it.

80 MILES OF MOTOR TRUCKS

Thirty-five thousand motor trucks taken to France eight months after the armistice was signed and sold as junk so as not to derange the motor car industry at home.

SUGAR FOLLY

Twenty million pounds of sugar carried to France after the armistice was signed and sold for three cents per pound to be paid for in ten years, so as the sugar industry at home will not be effected while we pay twenty cents.

PALMER'S FOLLY

The raw sugar crop of Cuba offered to the administration in good faith for six cents per pound, but declined, and Palmer afterwards fixed the price at eighteen cents.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

Innumerable instances could be cited that would convince the most skeptical of the total disregard of business ethics in Governmental affairs with the cost of Government mounting higher and higher until we exceed all past records for the entire world for any age in its history.

G. O. P. THE NATIONAL PANACEA

The surest guide to the future is our mistakes of the past, and the history of America will record every Democratic administration a mistake and after each one there has been a general rejoicing on the part of the people when the Republican Party were returned to power. It was so in 1888, in 1896 and the millions that are now awaiting to start the great avalanche on November 2nd, that will end this fiasco and place our grand standard bearers Harding and Coolidge, and the entire Republican Party at the helm so that we may again enjoy a true Constitutional Government with an honest desire to reduce the Cost of Living and a proper and sagacious concern for the many internal problems that have been so woefully neglected in the past eight years.

Public School Football Team

Wild cheers and shouts of applause greeted the victory of the seventh graders of the Riverton public school over the seventh graders of the Palmyra school in a closely contested game of football last Monday afternoon. The teams were very evenly matched, and the youngsters played such good ball that it is hoped they will receive sufficient support to keep them going.

Another game will be played at Fourth and Linden avenue next Monday afternoon, the 11th.

The bride wore a suit of brown broadcloth, trimmed with fur, and a brown broadcloth hat. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Delaney will reside in Philadelphia.

High School Lunch Room Popular
It would be well worth while for parents interested in the schools to visit the Delaware avenue building at noon to observe the Parent-Teacher Association hot lunch in operation. A visitor Wednesday found the boys in a long line with their trays in one lunch room and the girls likewise lined up in another, the kitchen and serving counter being in a small hall-like room between the two. The ladies in charge of the kitchen, and their young assistants had to work rapidly to supply the demands of nearly 150 students at the short time available, but the task was accomplished very handsomely indeed.

A varied menu of substantial food at small cost is served, but there seemed to be a noticeable demand for cakes.

The lunch room was started as an experiment, but it is now in its second year of successful operation.

High School Notes
Palmyra High School's foot ball team met defeat by 19-0 score last Friday at the hands of Woodbury, a heavy team which also conquered the locals last year.

This Friday the boys play Bristol on the home ground. Bristol was beaten 50-0 earlier in the season.

The girl hockey players have begun to practice.

There will be no school Tuesday, Columbus Day.

The High School orchestra has resumed practice under the direction of Louis Richards.

by careless handling, and that the pupils had been required to pay a fine. If the books are badly damaged at the end of the year, the pupils responsible will be obliged to pay for them.

The attention of parents is called to the fact that books are now very expensive, and the Board of Education has just spent several hundred dollars to the taxpayers' money to provide up-to-date, interesting and attractive text books for the pupils, and their co-operation is asked in seeing that the children use them properly, and do not throw them around or otherwise misuse them.

The principal reported an additional enrollment of fourteen pupils, and requested the installation of a new bell on the third floor in order to properly carry out the fire drills as required by the State law.

The school auditorium was rented to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, for Thursday evening, October 28th.

The salary of William Quigley, attendance officer, was increased to $150 a year. Through the united efforts of the principal and the officer the attendance of the school has been very much improved, and a desire for regular and prompt attendance at all sessions is being fostered among the children.

Teachers for manual training and industrial work have been engaged for one day a week, the work to be started at once. It is hoped to have an instructor in physical training by the first of next week, to assist the boys in their football and other sports and to develop the athletic spirit of the girls.

The following bills were ordered paid:
Teachers salaries $1350.00
Janitor's salary 50.00
Attendance officer 10.00
Books 25.56
Supplies 107.48
Gas and electricity 12.63
Sundries 75.00

Pros and Cons of the Ferry Question
The committee appointed by the residents of Riverton to oppose the location of a ferry terminal at the foot of Main street report "satisfactory progress." It is understood that they have engaged the services of William D. Lippincott, former judge of the Burlington County Court, as counsel.

In the meantime the "new ferry" continues to be the subject of much discussion. Some who were originally opposed to it now appear to believe that it might not be such a bad thing after all, saying that it would bring business to the town, while others profess to see nothing good in the project and predict dire results to property interests and the peace and tranquility of our town if it shall come to pass.

While the "committee of opposition" is not in a position to give out any details of the lines along which they are working, it is understood that they consider the situation satisfactory up to date.

Elect a Republican Sheriff
The Mount Holly News has this to say about the contest for Sheriff: "The contest for the position for Sheriff on the Republican ticket was spirited and close. Former Mayor Haggerty, of Riverton, was the successful man and the contest will be on with former Sheriff Jordan as the Democratic candidate. There is no reason whatever why the good citizens of Burlington should not elect a Republican to the office. The latter is perfectly qualified to fill the place. He is a nice man but is no better than Plang. When it comes to a political issue, he is a Democrat of a strict kind and there is nothing in the situation that calls for a Republican to replace him. He is perfectly qualified to fill the place. He is a nice man but is no better than Plang. When it comes to a political issue, he is a Democrat of a strict kind and there is nothing in the situation that calls for a Republican to replace him."

Accident Ends With Score Tied
Owing to the unfortunate accident to Mr. Smith, of the Victorix team, whose leg was broken during the third quarter in last Saturday's game, the management of both teams decided it was advisable to stop the game and a range to play it at some other time. At the time the game was called off the score was 6-6.

The management of the Riverton team greatly appreciates the generous manner in which all responded to the appeal for financial aid for the injured man, and the following letter shows how it was appreciated by the visiting team:

Philadelphia, October 4, 1920.
Management
Riverton Football Team:
The Victorix Catholic Club greatly thanks you for the wonderful financial aid given by you to one of our football players (Mr. Smith) who was so unfortunate as to meet with an accident while playing against your team.

Your act speaks very well for the good sportsmanship of the Riverton team and its management.

The people who witnessed the game will most likely want to know just why the game was called, but the team was so broken in spirit after the accident, which was the second serious accident in less than a week, that the manager deemed it unadvisable to continue under such a condition.

I might ask you to thank the people of Riverton who so kindly responded to your appeal on behalf of Mr. Smith, and also the doctor who gave first aid on the field, and Mr. Lisk, who took the injured man to the hospital in his car.

Wishing your team every success, believe me,
Very sincerely yours,
VICTRIX CATHOLIC CLUB,

Officials Held Responsible for Law Enforcement
Prosecutor Kelsey has sent a long letter to the several justices of the peace and constables directing them to get busy and enforce the laws. In order to make the matter more emphatic the prosecutor calls attention of the officers that a refusal or neglect to perform their duty shall constitute a misdemeanor. The letter says: "If, after receiving this notice, the officials to whom it is sent neglect or refuse their duty, I shall prefer charges against such officer under the act referred to in this letter."

Military Funeral for Corporal Martin

Corporal George J. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Martin, of Five Points, who died at Brest, France, February 5, 1918, of bronchial pneumonia after having been twice wounded in battle, will be buried in St. Peter's cemetery, Riverside, this Saturday morning.

Post Rodgers, American Legion, of Palmyra, will give the dead hero a full military funeral. The religious services will be in charge of the Rev. Father Rigney, at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Riverton, at 9 o'clock.

The body arrived in Palmyra Tuesday evening under military guard. Corporal Martin went to France June 24, 1917, having joined the colors as a volunteer with his three brothers who all served overseas. He became a member of Co. B, 321st Field Signal Battalion and saw much service at the front. He was in his 25th year at the time of his death.

The soldier who came with the body as the guard was entertained by Post Rodgers until the midnight train and then left for New York saying it was the best treatment he had ever received in any town while on similar missions.

LOOK TO FUTURE OF FOREST
Experts Point Out Folly of Practices Which Prevent the Reproduction of the Tree

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
That young growth in the woods, known popularly as "brush," is something to be rid of, is a prevalent but mistaken conception. Keep a forest cannot maintain itself long without reproduction. For the sake of getting a scattering of green grass in the spring it is the short-sighted practice in hundreds of localities to fire the woods regularly. This results in killing thousands of small trees needed to conserve the forest in the future, and also injures a large amount of marketable timber. Furthermore, such burning destroys a large amount of rich vegetable fertilizer.

Cattle and hogs in hardwood stands, and hogs in long-leaf pines, keep the forest from being restocked. Damage from insects can be reduced by cutting timber at the proper time of year and by utilizing lightning-killed trees without delay, since they harbor destructive pests. Cattle destroy the productive forest which keep a forest growing during long, dry spells. All large openings where light comes through into the forest should be filled with younger trees.

THE COST OF A SURVEY
Is less than it was four years ago. It costs more in terms of dollars and cents to be sure, but the value of the dollar can be measured only in terms of what the dollar buys—how many pounds of sugar, how many potatoes, how many miles on the railroad. If we measure then the cost of a survey in terms of the purchasing value of the dollar we find the cost surprisingly low.

If you want your work done accurately and a survey made otherwise it would cost more at all—you will consider the cost reasonable.

INCREASED GAS RATES GRANTED

Trenton.—Housing is the subject of a conference that has been arranged by the New Jersey Tuberculosis League and the State Conference on Social Work, both of which organizations will meet October 20 and 21 at Lakewood. Details of the program have not been completed, though many speakers have been selected and the program outlined for other sessions. It is stated at the offices of the two organizations.

A comprehensive program treating the subject almost in its entirety, and embracing some of the most complex problems arising in connection with tuberculosis has been arranged," declared Ernest D. Barton, secretary of the league, speaking of that organization's sessions.

Nutrition classes, one of the leading interests in the present work of the league, will be discussed at the afternoon session of the opening day. Dr. Charles H. Hedges, of Bellevue Hospital, New York, will be one of the speakers. His address will be followed with remarks by Mrs. Helen App of the home demonstration department of the College of Agriculture of the State University at New Brunswick, and Miss Laura E. Woodruff of the Hudson County Tuberculosis League.

Among leading members on the opening day will be: Burdette G. Lewis, State Commissioner of Institutions and Agencies, who will lead in a discussion on "The State and County Control of Tuberculosis"; Dr. Gordon K. Dickinson on "The Bearing Effect of Prohibition on the Tuberculosis Work"; and Colonel Frederick E. Albee, formerly chief surgeon of the army hospital at Columbia, who will speak on "The Need of a Hospital for Bone and Glandular Tuberculosis." Dr. Bayard T. Crane, president of the Rutland Private Sanatorium, who will speak of an industrial institution for the reconstruction of convalescent tuberculosis patients. Mrs. Margaret G. B. Pearlstein of the Hudson County Tuberculosis Hospital at Locustville will also take part in the discussion, outlining the New Jersey plan.

To Discuss Finding of Cases. Late in the afternoon Dr. P. Challa Bartlett, chief medical examiner of the Community Health Department, Philadelphia, Pa., will lead a discussion on "Finding Cases." Dr. M. J. Fine, chief of the Health Department of this city, will take part in the discussion by speaking of "Finding Cases Through the Survey and Clinic." Dr. Charles I. Silk of Perth Amboy and Dr. Joseph G. Savannah of Farmingdale will give five-minute addresses on the subject. Several nurses will speak on detection of cases from their viewpoints.

At a Christmas seal luncheon, to which all delegates have been invited, Mr. Barton will lead in a discussion on Christmas seals, speaking of the campaign in New Jersey. Other speakers will follow, telling of the county campaigns.

Governor Edwards is expected to meet the delegates on the morning of October 20, when the general topic of the convention, "The Changing Social and Economic Order," will be presented. The program as nearly completed by the committee is in the hands of the secretary, Rev. Samuel Glover Dunne, at the Episcopal diocesan rooms, 49 Halsey street.

Besides the governor, there will be on the platform and taking part in the opening meeting Rabbi Solomon Foster, president of the conference; Rev. Augustine Elmendorf, canon missionary for social service of the Episcopal diocese of Newark, and Rev. Maurice R. Spillane of the Roman Catholic diocese of Trenton.

Family problems, charities and correction and other social problems will be considered throughout the day and at an evening meeting and on October 22 the delegates will visit the state and private institutions for the feeble-minded at Vineland.

Gas Rates Increased. Increased rates to be charged by the New Jersey Gas and Electric Company, operating in Dover, Wharton and vicinity, and the Atlantic City Gas Company of Atlantic City have been sanctioned by the Public Utilities Commission. The New Jersey Company has been authorized to make effective a base rate of $2.25 per 1,000 cubic feet, applicable to the first 5,000 cubic feet of gas consumed a month, with a rate of $2.20 for the next 4,000 cubic feet, $2.15 for the next 3,000, $2.05 for the next 2,000 and $1.95 for all in excess of 40,000 cubic feet.

In granting these increases, from the present base rate of $1.90 per 1,000 cubic feet, the board pointed out that for a period of one year and five months the company was confronted by a deficit of $20,000 and that its financial losses were such as to impair its credit to an extent which would compel it to discontinue operations unless relief was granted.

The award of the commission in each instance is less than that asked by the gas company, which sought $2.40 for the first 1,000 cubic feet, $2.35 for the next 4,000, $2.30 for the next 3,000, $2.20 for the next 2,000 and $2.10 for the next 40,000. The company also asked a rate of $1.75 per 2,000 cubic feet for all over 50,000.

Residents and representatives of official bodies from Dover protested against the increases at two hearings in Newark. They declared that, while the company was in financial difficulties, it did not need a large increase in rates as those it sought.

The Atlantic City company was authorized to make effective a base rate of $1.50 in place of the present base rate of 90 cents, plus a graduated service charge and an emergency surcharge of 25 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

The Road of Remembrance. In the presence of nearly 5,000 persons the Road of Remembrance, established along Brunswick plus just outside of Trenton by Mercer county in memory of the 308 soldiers and sailors of the county who gave their lives during the war, was dedicated with impressive ceremonies. At the entrance to the road of Remembrance, a marble shaft, surmounted by the figure of an American doughboy, has been erected. On the side of the shaft are carved the names of the fallen heroes. The monument was unveiled by Miss Frances Harrow, a nurse, who served in France. Rev. Othobert F. Newton, an army chaplain, delivered the address, and members of the American Legion and the G. A. R. took part in the ceremonies. In the large audience were members of the families of many of the dead heroes.

Governor Edwards has concluded the hearing of the members of the State Utility Commission upon the charges of neglect of duty entered formally by the Jersey City commissioners early in the year following the strike in trying to force the municipal board of water and sewerage rates of water. Counsel for the municipalities, which joined in the movement against the utility board maintained in the hearing up that the charges had been sustained and that the members had shown their unwillingness to serve longer because of their evident desire to favor the utility concerns. Counsel for the accused members laid stress upon the claim that the governor in proclaiming during his campaign that one of his first acts would be to remove the members of the discredited board had prejudged the case and vitiated his right to sit as judge in the hearing of the charges, a duty devolving upon him under the law.

It has been the current rumor about the state house that the governor would find the charges sustained in the case of three members of the board, but that a fourth might be exonerated upon the ground that the evidence had shown him opposed to some of the objectionable acts. The fifth member of the board resigned some months ago.

It is probable, however, that counsel for the accused members of the board will carry the governor's decision to the supreme court, but a decision there sustaining the action of the board and overruling the judgment of the governor will not aid in the restoration of public confidence to the discredited body. No board or commission attached as part of the state government has ever faced so many bold and open charges as the Utility Commission in the last two years. As originally cast the board enjoyed the confidence of the people, who appeared to regard it as a safe court of appeal from the sinister influences of the utility corporations. Whatever the outcome of the present proceeding, the near future presents certainty of change in the interests of the people.

MUST OBEY DRY LAW

Trenton.—Unless the general disregard of the prohibition law now prevailing can be checked, and the violators of this law can be brought to the bar of justice, the contempt which these violators of this federal law are defiantly showing, will spread to a contempt for all law, federal and state, Federal Judge John Bellahast told the members of the new federal grand jury when they convened.

Judge Bellahast told the jurymen they were assembled at a time when the spirit of lawlessness manifested itself with unusual virulence. A continuation of present conditions, he declared, will result in that class of citizens who, more or less frequently for one cause or another, live on the borderland where virtue meets vice, being drawn into the whirlpool of the latter and become the culture of more aggravated problems in a sociology which will have to be solved by the very conservators of the peace, who were elected to aid in the enforcement of this federal law because it does not meet with their approval.

Judge Bellahast charged that the present widespread disregard of the prohibition law can be accounted for only on the idea that a conspiracy is at work to violate the act. "The evil consequence of such concerted action requires an earnest effort to bring all the participants to the bar of justice, unless we are prepared to say, that on this subject the criminals are our masters. The inordinate gains that are being made and that can be made by the violators of this law have made them bold in their operations, and evidence is not wanting that indicates that hundreds of thousands of dollars, some say even millions, have been made in this district since the prohibition amendment went into effect."

Some of these gains, the judge insisted, have been used to make violations of the law more and more dignified, and to dissuade officials charged with enforcing the law from fulfilling their duty. Judge Bellahast said it was not contemplated by the federal act to provide the entire enforcement machinery and he said there are not enough enforcement officers to properly cover a single one of the more populous counties. He continued that with such handicaps as inadequate federal machinery because of insufficient appropriations to properly police the entire state, and lack of co-operation by those in the state charged with suppression of lawlessness, it is no wonder that prohibition violations are becoming more numerous.

He said that no excuse is offered for any official who may be guilty of aiding the criminal and obstructing the administration of justice, and told the jury that if evidence before it warrants it to indict the officials. He cautioned the jury not to overlook those who are making inordinate gains in selling liquor. "Put in your grasping hands and produce the crooks who are engaged in this nefarious work," said the court, "and remember also that it makes no difference as to the guilt of the participants in this crime, whether they actually traffic in intoxicating liquors or whether they aid or abet the actual traffickers."

The duty of the juror is to honestly and impartially enforce the national prohibition act, so far as it is possible, by trying to the bar every violator of this law, both great and small.

Unlawful Liquor Traffic. Supreme Court Justice Parker recently advised Prosecutor Hart of Bergen county that it was proper and advisable to indict hotel and saloon keepers who are selling intoxicating beverages without a state license, and that it is suitable cause injunction proceed-

BOROUGH OF RIVERTON

Tuesday, the 24 Day of November A. D. 1920 between the hours of 6 A. M. and 7 P. M. for the purpose of electing the following: Electors of President and Vice President of the United States; Member of House of Representatives (Second Congressional District); Member of General Assembly; Sheriff; County Auditor; Corporation; Member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders; Two Members of Council; One Assessor of Highways; One Justice of the Peace.

There will also be submitted the following questions:

1. Shall the act entitled "An act for the payment of bonds to each soldier, or a dependent or dependent thereof, who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the war between the United States and the German Empire and its allies, and providing for the issuance of bonds, and for the payment of interest and principal thereof," be adopted?

2. Shall the act entitled "An act authorizing the creation of a debt of the State of New Jersey by the issuance of bonds of the State in an amount not exceeding twenty-eight million dollars for the purpose of paying the cost of extending the system of State highways by the construction of bridges and tunnels for vehicular or other traffic across the Delaware and Hudson rivers, and providing for the raising of such debt and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof; and providing for the submission of this law to the people at a general election, to be held on May 11, 1920, to be adopted and sanctioned?"

3. Shall the provisions of an Act entitled "An act for the establishment and maintenance of County Free Libraries" be adopted?

ABSENTEE ELECTION

Section 466 of the election laws reads thus: "An absentee elector shall be deemed to be a qualified registered elector who by reason of inability through illness or absence from the county in which he resides is unable to cast his ballot on the day of the general election at the polling place in the election district in which he is registered. Such elector shall make application to the clerk of the municipality in which he resides or to the county board of elections not later than the previous day of the general election for the issuance of a ballot for the general election of the day that absentee electors may make application to the county board of elections for a ballot to enable them to vote on." These sections show clearly what an absentee elector may do to have his vote cast.

The election will be held in the following places:

ings should be brought in the Chancery Court, as authorized by the Volstead act. Prosecutor Hart has therefore taken steps to put an end to the illicit traffic in liquor in his county, and announced that he will not only proceed in accordance with Justice Parker's instructions, but will take advantage of the statute passed about twelve years ago to meet conditions in Atlantic City and take action against the heads of municipalities who fail to do their duty when notified that the law is being violated in their communities.

Following the advice given to Mr. Hart, Prosecutor Wolcott of Camden county raided the saloons in Camden and vicinity and made several hundred arrests under indictments for the grand jury. Nearly 1,000 indictments were returned as the result of evidence presented by the prosecutor following investigations made by his detectives. Most of the parties arrested were put under bail to await trial, and the next term of the Camden County Court is likely to be a busy one unless the defendants enter pleas of guilty.

In Morris and Ocean counties, also, steps have been taken to abate the scandalous traffic from open defiance of the Volstead act and constitutional prohibition. Inasmuch as there can be no "white licenses" issued authorizing the sale of intoxicating liquors for business purposes, every such sale is a violation of the federal law, yet there is not a county and scarcely a municipality in New Jersey in which the trade has not been and is not now being carried on. There is a probability that under Justice Parker's advice an end

Under the crimes act it is a misdemeanor to sell intoxicating liquors without a license, and it is made the duty of the "mayor or other chief executive or the chief of police or other head of the police of any city or other municipality," on being notified by the governor, attorney general, a judge of the county court or the prosecutor, that there is "open, continued or notorious violation of any one or more sections" of the crimes act, to "take immediate and proper and efficient measures by complaint and arrest, or by raid and arrest or otherwise, to prevent a further continuance of such illegal practices," and to bring the offenders to justice.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 17
JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 4:12-23.
GOLDEN TEXT—Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 1:16-20; Luke 4:14.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Chooses Helpers.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching and Healing.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Call of the First Disciples.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus enters upon his mission.

I. The King His Own Herald (vv. 12-17).

1. The reason for (v. 12). The news of the imprisonment of John the Baptist caused Jesus to forsake Judea and go into Galilee. The fate of John he accepted as foreshadowing his own. Because of this, he withdrew from the metropolis and went to the remote regions where his work would attract less attention. When the people willfully reject the truth and attempt to do violence to the messenger, he should turn from them unless specially directed otherwise.

2. To whom the proclamation is made (vv. 13-16). The people in Capernaum. This was done in fulfillment of a prophecy in Isaiah 9:1, 2. These people did not enjoy such privileges as those around Jerusalem. This was one of the darkest and most corrupt of the provinces, and now it is getting the light first. This foreshadowed the present age when the grace of God would reach out to the Gentiles. But this is just like the Lord. He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. It should be our business, like the Master, to go to the most benighted souls with the message of light and life.

3. His message (v. 17). "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This is the same kingdom which John the Baptist and the Old Testament prophets proclaimed. It means the Messianic earth rule of Jesus Christ. This is not our message, for ours is the gospel of the grace of God through faith in the finished work of Christ. We should call upon men to repent and believe the gospel of Christ's death for their sin and resurrection for justification. The time is coming when heralds will again announce the coming of the kingdom, and the King himself will come forth from the heavens to establish his mediatorial kingdom. For this we pray when we intelligently say, "Thy kingdom come."

II. The King Summons Servants to His side (vv. 18-22).

1. His command of authority (v. 18). He did not use arguments, but issued the mandate. The King's voice is authoritative. To command is the King's prerogative, not to argue or entreat.

2. The station of the servants called (vv. 18, 21). They were men of lowly birth—fishermen. God chooses the foolish things of this world to put to shame the mighty, that no flesh might boast before him (1 Cor. 1:26).

3. They were called to definite service (v. 19). "I will make you fishers of men." He had previously called them to be disciples (John 1:36-42). He now called them to service. This call, then, was not the gospel call to sinners, which is always "Believe on me," but the call to service, of those who had already heeded the call to discipleship. The qualities which made them good fishermen—patience, bravery to face the storm and the night, the perseverance which tolled all night though no fish were caught, would make them good fishers of men.

4. Their prompt obedience (vv. 20, 22). They gave up their business and homes, not even inquiring where their salary was to come from. They put their trust in him who called, believing that he was able to supply their needs.

III. The King's Triumphant Progress (vv. 22-25).

He went the whole rounds of Galilee teaching the Scriptures, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of diseases. He did a threefold work:

1. Teaching the Scriptures in the synagogues (v. 23). The revelation of God needed to be explained. This is what he was doing at Nazareth (Luke 4:16-22).

2. Preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom (v. 23). The King who was present and was heralding his own mission was ready to establish his kingdom if they would have been willing to receive him.

3. Healing all manner of diseases (v. 23). There was no form of disease which he could not cure.

Learn the Lesson.

Therefore, let us be patient, patient; and let God our Father teach us his own lesson his own way. Let us try to learn it well and quickly; but do not let us fancy that he will ring the school bell and send us to play before our lesson is learnt.—Charles Kingsley.

Mischief Makers.

I have heard it said that spies and talebearers have done more mischief in this world than the poisoned hyacinth or the assassin's dagger.—Schiller.

Dr. Paul Van Dyke to Speak on League of Nations

In this issue will be found an announcement signed by Mrs. R. F. The Riverton Hockey Team

The Riverton Hockey team has had two chances this past week to show of what stuff it is made. The first game at and a gainst St. Martin's on Monday was comparatively easy to conquer, for Riverton won 5-2.

The line-up:

Goals, Riverton, Morgan 3, Collins 1, Reeves 1; St. Martin's, Hubbs 1, Logan 1, Referee, Miss Porcher.

The second game on Thursday was played in Riverton against Philadelphia, and it was a totally different sort of game, being purely a defensive one, whereas the first had been an attacking game. The result of Thursday's game was 1-2 in favor of Philadelphia girls. Nevertheless the Riverton girls played well and fought hard in spite of fighting a team with more practice and experience behind them.

The line-up:
Riverton: Philadelphia: R. Coe l. wing, Mrs. Diston K. Collins l. inside, Mrs. Grant Mrs. F. Reeves c. f.w'd Miss Strubbing H. Crowell r. inside Mrs. Madeira M. Hall r. wing Mrs. Norris M. Morgan l. half-back Mrs. Graham H. Coles c. half-back Mrs. Carpenter L. Lippincott r. half-back Mrs. Nalle G. Coe l. full-back Miss Valentine E. Miller r. full-back Miss Dixon E. Miller goal Miss Savage Goals, Madeira 2, Diston 1, Grant 3, Norris 1, Carpenter 1, Crowell 2, Strubbing 2, Morgan 1, Crowell 1.

Riverton plays Bryn Mawr College on Saturday morning, and although this opponent is a very stiff one, the Riverton players are going to fight hard for the home town.

There was quite a flurry of excitement in Riverton the first of the week when it was reported that Henry Van Dyke had accepted an invitation to address a Democratic mass meeting here. It turned out that the speaker was Dr. Paul Van Dyke of Princeton University.

At the meeting of the borough council last night Fred P. Hemphill, borough treasurer, reported that all of the real estate taxes for 1919 had been collected, and that only about $60 was unpaid in personal taxes. Some collectors' "Seize us—suppose we should use slang now, but that just slipped out."

During Monday's thunder storm a tree in front of the residence of Fred Hemphill on Lippincott avenue was struck by lightning and set afire. The little blaze that was started was soon put out by the chemical engine of the fire department. A peculiar circumstance is that this tree was struck by lightning in the same place last year.

One of Showell & Fryer's auto trucks took fire on the river bank last Tuesday, from a backfire, but the flames were quickly put out by the equipment carried on the truck, and a large fire extinguisher from the residence of Charles A. Wright. The chemical truck was hurried to the spot, but did not have a chance to get into action.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Riverton Free Library Tuesday evening, the proposed county traveling library was approved and endorsed. The proposal will be placed on the ballot for November 2, and should receive universal support. The traveling library will not conflict in any way with local libraries, but, on the other hand, will be a most welcome assistance. Further details will be found elsewhere in this issue.

The toys are of the animated sort, which perform when a string is pulled or other mechanism put into action. Besides birds, bears, etc., there is a fox chasing a hen, a cat killing a mouse, a butcher crushing the skull of a bullock with an axe, and a man and a woman who bang each other over the head with clubs.

A RARE TREAT

Dr. Paul Van Dyke and George Wharton Pepper to Speak Here, on League of Nations

The political pot has begun to boil in the Borough, and owing to its bubblings, Rivertonians will enjoy two rare treats next week. On Thursday evening, Dr. Paul Van Dyke of Princeton University will deliver an address on the League of Nations for the Democrats, and in order that both sides of this prominent issue in the campaign may be presented, the Riverton Republican Club has arranged to have George Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia, the well known national authority on the League of Nations, speak in Riverton. Mr. Pepper has asked Dr. Van Dyke's permission to debate the question with him jointly on this date. If Dr. Van Dyke declines to do this, Mr. Pepper will speak in the school auditorium the following night, Friday, October 22.

It is to be most earnestly hoped that the joint debate can be arranged, as many voters, particularly among the women, have expressed a desire to hear sides of this subject at one time, so that by means of questions and answers between the speakers themselves, and between the audience and the speakers, a more thorough understanding might be reached.

In the Political Arena

The Moorestown Republican Club has elected these officers: president, Dr. Nathan Thorne; secretary, E. Russell Perkins; treasurer, Maurice B. Comfort; vice presidents, E. Wallis Armstrong, Joshua E. Borton and Irving A. Collins.

The county-committees met and organized last week as follows:
Republican—Chairman, Joseph L. Thomas; vice chairman, Michael E. Matlack; secretary, Harry L. Knight; treasurer, Carleton Haines.
Democratic—Chairman, James M. Davis; secretary, Elmer E. Bogue; treasurer, William McConnell; executive committee, Alfred J. Davis, William Miller, James P. Cunningham, Howard Mathis, John Winkelspecht, Elwood Hart, Frank Absalom.

The Republican electors are as follows: At large John W. Herbert, Louis Colgate, first district, David O. Watkins, Woodbury; second district, Louis Stevens, Cape May; third district, Albert Laon, Perth Amboy; fourth district, Henry D. Thompson, Princeton; fifth district, William B. Boulton, Morristown; sixth district, Theodore Boettger, Hackensack; seventh district, Harry Meyers, Passaic; eighth district, William J. Davis, Harrison; ninth district, George E. Halsey, East Orange; tenth district, Louis F. Dodd, Montclair; eleventh district, Paul Seglie, West Hoboken; twelfth district, George C. Warren, Jr., Jersey City.

How the County Traveling Library Will Operate

Mrs. F. Wallis Armstrong, Robert Biddle, Mrs. Lester Collins, Mrs. H. H. Frank, Mrs. C. Gauss, Rev. J. F. Hendricks, Clifford H. Powell, Hon. Emmor Roberts, Howard G. Taylor, Jr., Frank W. Thacher, and Hon. H. O. Watkins are serving as a committee to promote the county library movement and to get it before the people.

The county library will save a great deal of money that is being spent in Burlington county in duplication of books. In four schools visited, books were standing unused on the shelves in April last year, not having been used since February, while two other schools were badly in need of those same books and were ordering them for their own use. Two of the town libraries had copies of very expensive histories standing idle on the shelves while another town was ordering those same books for their library, although the use would be limited. If this was true of the five or six places casually visited, it must be true also in hundreds of other places.

By voting for the library every citizen of this town gets more books within his reach and aid for his boys and girls, and besides, he helps to give an opportunity for reading and study to that boy or girl in the remote community and all this for far less than he is now spending for books and magazines for himself.

No More "Wet" Candidates?

A Democratic convention, presided over by the Governor, was elected as a wet candidate, refused to put a damp plank in the platform. The women carried the day in the Democratic convention, and the Trenton Times has this in its report: "And so is recorded the first big victory of women in politics. Never again will a candidate for governor of New Jersey seek to annex the liquor vote by publicly calling for a glass of beer; never again will any sensible candidate for Mayor of this or any other city in the State vulgarly boast that he is a common drunkard or other unprintable form of degenerate. Public affairs have already been sent to a higher level by the coming of equal suffrage."

Foot your own horse—blow loud, long, intelligently—make the people know where you are—what you have and why they should buy it—Jabs.

Real Progress by Memorial Committee

The chairman of the special committee appointed by the Mayor to take up the matter of securing ground for an athletic field as a memorial to the service men, reported at the council meeting last night that "good progress" was being made, with an emphasis on the "good" that sounded promising. While the committee was not in a position to make any positive statement at this time, it was understood that a definite report would be forthcoming soon.

The police committee reported that one arrest had been made during the month for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk.

The collector reported that all the real estate taxes for 1919 had been collected, and that only about $60 was outstanding in personal taxes.

The Chief of Police reported that the town flag pole had been found to be in an unsafe condition owing to decay just above the ground, and was instructed to see what could be done to have it fixed.

The chairman of the finance committee reported that the actual cost of the Broad street road improvement had been found to be about $2700 less than the original estimate.

Mr. Geiss brought up the matter of the Public Service Corporation making a charge to consumers for running wires and laying gas pipes so as to furnish their service. He cited one instance where an attempt had been made to charge a man several hundred dollars, and Mr. Mattis told of several who had been obliged to pay $40 for five years in order to get service. The money was to be refunded at the end of five years. Mr. Geiss thought council ought to do something about it, and was instructed by the Mayor to bring a concrete suggestion as to what could be done, and present it at the next meeting.

The following bills were ordered paid:
Penna. Con. Co. 2 voting booths—$18.80
S. Collins & Son, misc. supplies—8.33
Louis Corner, highway repairs, etc.—308.60 Public Service Gas Co., gas lighting—174.72

HOT DEBATE ON NEW FERRY

Some Claim It Would Be a Calamity —Others the Greatest Thing Ever.
Will Thresh It Out in Public Meeting

The Palmyra Business Men's Association was re-organized Tuesday evening as the Palmyra Chamber of Commerce, after the former organization had been formally disbanded on the motion of George N. Wimer.

A committee composed of George W. Shaner, Clement Horn and Albert S. King was named to attend to the details of perfecting the new body and to draft a new constitution and set of by-laws which will be presented at the meeting on November 9th.

In order to proceed with the meeting Tuesday evening, Mr. Shaner took the chair as chairman pro tem. The treasurer and secretary of the old organization, John H. Etris and Frank Chambers, were re-elected. On the motion of William T. J. Purnell, the membership of the new organization will be confined to residents of Palmyra, or non-residents engaged in business in the town.

Then a subject which was very much on the minds of most of those present was brought up—the proposed ferry across the Delaware to Tacony. Albert S. King had had an interview with Mr. Sales of the new company, in which Mr. Sales outlined plans which the company had in mind. These included the development of vacant ground with commercial enterprises, such as a cold storage plant for Jersey farmers, a cannery for Jersey products, and other enterprises to be financed by the men interested in the ferry. In addition to these projects it was expected that other capitalists would establish plants on this side of the river.

A new morsel of information made public by Mr. King and others was the report that some Riverton men connected with the Riverton and Palmyra Water Company, had offered the ferry company a site on the company's property between Garfield and Morgan avenue, and also a rumor that a fund raised by Riverton people owning properties on the bank and nearby, was to be used to buy back the Rogers property on Main street, already purchased by the ferry people, and to defray any added expense that might be entailed in building a landing at the water works.

Mr. King thought that the water works landing would have to be at the foot of Morgan avenue, and he believed that it would be just as objectionable to Rivertonians as any other. Mr. King had suggested that the ferry seek a landing at Eight Mile point, off the foot of Delaware avenue.

John S. Warner, who had represented the ferry company in its real estate purchases deplored the opposition that had arisen, declaring that the ferry would be one of the biggest things that ever came to Palmyra. He said that such factories as would be built would be on the outskirts of town, away from the residential sections, and that properties, instead of being depreciated, would be enhanced in value by the business boom resulting.

A motion was made and carried that a public meeting be held in the next two weeks at which the sentiment of the people of Palmyra in general should be sounded out. A representative of the ferry company, probably Mr. Sales, will be invited to address this meeting, which is to be arranged by a committee composed of Messrs. Purnell, King and Chambers.

Wiggins-Shannon

The wedding of Miss Cathryn M. Shannon, daughter of Mrs. William Shannon, of Morris avenue, Chelsea, and Everett F. Wiggins, son of Mrs. George H. Wiggins, of Washington avenue, Palmyra, took place Saturday afternoon at 1.45 in the Chelsea Baptist Church, the Rev. Thomas J. Cross officiating. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride and groom left immediately on their wedding tour, going to New York, Boston, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. They are expected home Sunday evening.

The Fight Not Yet Won

Commenting editorially on the Republican candidates selected at the primary election the New Jersey Mirror says:

Three years ago Edward H. Flagg, Jr., of Riverton, was a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff. He did not succeed in his ambition but he made an excellent race and after the verdict was rendered, proved himself to be such a good loser that he won many new friends among those who had opposed him in the interest of the present Sheriff. Since then he has worked consistently in the Republican ranks and for the advancement of party interests. In so doing he did not allow the people to forget that he was coming before them this year asking for the nomination which was denied him three years ago. He made an aggressive canvas and won his fight largely through the work which he himself did, in pressing his candidacy. He made an excellent record as Mayor of Riverton for several successive terms and there is every reason for believing that he will make an efficient administrative head of the Sheriff's office, when elected, as he is sure to be.

We agree with all the Mirror says except its conclusion that Mr. Flagg is sure to be elected. The fight between Mr. Flagg and Andrew J. Jordan, who has served a term in the office, will be hotly contested at the November election, and the friends of Mr. Flagg will be doing him a poor service to take his election for granted. Mr. Jordan will doubtless make a strong run, and to assume that Mr. Flagg is going to have a walkover may mean his defeat.

And the same thought may be applied to the whole ticket, local, State and national. "Would be a pity indeed, for the Republicans to lose this election through self-complacency and cocksureness. The battle will not be won until every ballot is cast—and counted.

Community League for Ferry and Against Sewer

The Palmyra Community League met Thursday evening in the high school auditorium and laid plans for the coming election.

A letter is to be sent to all the voters urging them to vote against the sewer proposition and explaining that the League favors waiting until prices recede further before attempting the improvement.

The proposed ferry to Tacony was also discussed, sentiment apparently being rather in favor of the proposition. Milton Faunce took the position that Palmyra should help Riverton protect its river bank from anything that would mar it like a ferry house, and that an effort should be made to have the landing at some point on the Palmyra bank that has not been developed and is not likely to be.

A committee will be appointed to wait on representatives of the ferry company to obtain further information and to arrange for a representation of the League at the public meeting that is to be held.

Grammar School Team Ties Score

A very interesting and well-played game was staged between the grammar school teams of Riverton and Palmyra last Monday afternoon, resulting in a tie score of 7-7. The defensive playing of P. Rigg and running the ball by J. Lochowitz for Riverton, and Sacks, of Palmyra, were outstanding features of the game.

Next Monday, October 18th, the Riverton grammar school team will have as their opponents the Riverside grammar school, and a good game is promised. Turn out and encourage the youngsters, who will be the first-team material in a few years. Game calls at 3.45.

Field Club Directors Meet

The Field Club board of directors held its regular meeting at the home of Harold Baker, Elm Terrace, Wednesday evening.

It was decided to give the members of the past season's base ball team a testimonial dinner in the club rooms in the near future.

Manager Bottger's work in handling the team was highly praised, and a vote of thanks given him for the great success of the base ball season.

Efforts are still being made to put a foot ball team in the field, and practice is being held in the evenings. The material this year will be light, inasmuch as most of these tars of former years are playing with Riverside and elsewhere.

More About Poor Gas

J. H. Abdill has had further conferences with gas company officials concerning the difficulties householders in Palmyra have been having in cooking and lighting with gas recently.

One of the explanations given was that Palmyra is located in a low pressure area and at this season of the year many people are using gas for heating purposes, not having yet started their furnace fires. Mr. Abdill, however, called attention to the fact that the same difficulties are being experienced on very warm days when there is no such consumption of gas for heating purposes.

It is believed by many that the real cause of the trouble is the reduction in the thermal heating unit. The gas company recently applied to the Public Utility Commission for a rate of $1.55 per thousand: The rate granted was $1.40, but permission was also granted to cut down the thermal units from 600 to 525. This reduction is said to have been only about half made up to the present.

The gas company recently advertised that its experts would adjust gas fixtures of its patrons wherever difficulties were being experienced, without charge and their representative told Mr. Abdill that few complaints had been received.

Wherever trouble is being experienced, complaint should be made to the office of the company at Burlington so that they may ascertain the real cause.

Bahai Lecture at Chautauqua

The following is an extract from an article which appeared in a recent issue of the Portsmouth Herald. (N.H.)

Prof. Fazel Mazanderani, a Persian teacher and scholar, now traveling in the United States, delivered an address in the amphitheatre of Chautauqua before several thousand of interested people. Dean Shailer Matthews introduced him as the Persian philosopher and lecturer in the Shah's University in Teheran. The talk was well received and repeatedly applauded. The next day the Chautauqua Daily gave a report as follows:

A most unusual address was that given yesterday morning in the amphitheatre by Mirza Fazel Mazanderani, professor of Philosophy in the Imperial University of Persia. Translated into excellent English by his interpreter, Mirza Ahmad Sohrab, it was an eloquent account of the message of universal love and brotherhood given to the world by Abdul Baha. He said in part:

Love is the cause of the salvation of mankind, which suffers men and women to enter into the kingdom of God. His Holiness Christ epitomized a world of meaning in one sentence by saying: "God is love." Divine spiritual religions have been founded in different circles to establish love in the hearts of men. Consider the power of love emanated from Christ, how in His day and in the apostolic age the various tribes and nations were united with its golden band. It is established beyond the shadow of doubt that in the world there is no greater means of love, unity, brotherhood than religion. The prophets accepted all kinds of persecution and Christ went to the cross in order to create the fire of the Love of God in the hearts of men. Sixty years ago Persia was the scene of many internecine wars and struggles. Religious prejudice and bigotry had reached such a degree that the people thirsted for one another's blood. Under such dark conditions Baha'ullah appeared and instituted divine principles for the guidance of the people. His object was not to establish a new religion or sect, but an eclectic movement which takes the best out of every religion and unites it in one bond of brotherhood. He removed the misunderstandings which were the cause of war and strife. He taught the Divinity of Christ, the Reality of the Trinity, and the authenticity of the Bible, with such clear proofs that thousands have come to believe in these eternal realities, including many Jews, Mohammedans and Zoroastrians. Likewise he formulated the thought that to bring better communication and understanding between the nations we must have an international auxiliary language and equality between men and women. The Tree of Love was planted in primitive times by the early prophets. The great teachers watered this Tree and His Holiness Christ irrigated it with His own blood. This is the day that we must eat the fruit of this Tree, which fruit is the oneness of spiritual conception, of political ideas in the world, of language and brotherhood, amity and comity amongst governments. Baha'ullah watered this Tree for the last sixty years; that is why we see people coming to believe in Christ and eat the fruits of the Tree of His Love. This is an age in which the spirit of Christ must permeate the whole world! His spirit is love and universal fellowship. To know God and to serve men is the highest aim of Christ. This is the age of light, the cycle of the discoveries of the mysteries of nature. It is the era of universal love and unity.

The Bahai teachings are spreading rapidly in all parts of the country. Further information may be obtained by communicating with Box 322, Riverton, N. J. —adv

The In-As-Much Bible class gave a banquet in the Methodist temple Monday evening for their members. Sixty-one covers were laid. Speeches were made by Mrs. E. Griscorn, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Warthman, Mrs. Kershner. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Hardaker and Miss Morton.

Two youths, friends of Frank Bua, the baker on West Broad street, stayed overnight with him last week, got up early and filched $35 from his clothes and departed. Through the efforts of Chief Beck they were apprehended at the ferry and the money recovered. Bua did not press the charges.

The regular October meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held next Tuesday evening. An address will be delivered by Prof. Baker, principal of the Moorestown schools, on "Your Public Schools and My Par." Miss Margue Graham will render piano solo and Miss Anna McConnell will sing.

Thomas Atkins, of 505 East Richmond street, stumbled in front of a motor cycle driven by William Kooker, of Palmyra, Sunday afternoon on the road to Ferry and one of his legs was badly broken. He was picked up by an auto and brought to Dr. Bauer and then taken to Riverside hospital in Dr. Ayer's truck. Later he was removed to Cooper hospital, Camden.

W. T. McAllister expects to get in his new store, adjoining the old stand, next week. From a very small beginning, Mr. McAllister, ably assisted by his wife, has built up a business which has quite outgrown the old store. In the new place they will have a much better chance to serve their customers and contemplate some additions to their stock, among which will be the Sonora talking machine.

Saturday night the usual crap game was in full blast at the grounds of the "Sunday A. C." west of the lower end of Delaware avenue, despite previous warnings given by the chief of police. Consequently Chief Beck approached the scene, quietly and got as many names as possible. When his presence became known, there was quite a scattering. Eleven of them (an appropriate number) were summoned before Justice Roray Monday evening and fined $5.00 and costs. Most of the players were colored. Eight other names were obtained.

The Sunday School Convention, which was held at the Moravian Church, Riverside, Thursday, was largely attended from Palmyra and Riverton. Among those who went were Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Robinson, Mrs. William Wilbraham, Mrs. William Rudderick, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bradley, Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harder, Forrest MacCorkle, Mrs. Hassell, Mrs. John Lord, Mrs. A. C. Giberson, Mrs. F. N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. W. Field, Mr. and Mrs. Dais Reed, Miss Rachel Reed, Mrs. P. A. Houghtaling, Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell, Mrs. J. H. Abdill.

Plans are proceeding for the celebration of Armistice Day and Memorial Sunday, the Sunday after November 11th. On the evening of Armistice Day the handsome Legion banner, purchased by ladies of Palmyra and Riverton, will be presented to the Post with appropriate ceremonies. At the same time Victory medals will be distributed to the members who have presented their discharge papers as applications.

Frank A. Mathews, Jr., and Dr. Preston Sharp have been appointed representatives of the Post on the county committee. Alice Donaghy, Thomas Bromley, William Miller and Frank A. Mathews, Jr., have been appointed a committee to urge the voters to favor the State $100 bonus for soldiers at the coming election.

Azores Population.
The population of the Azores is about 245,000, the number of its inhabitants having changed but little in the last century, and, if anything, having diminished.

Scents Act as Tonics.
According to the latest medical dictum, the man or woman who delights in perfumes is well-advised to indulge this taste, providing they don't use heavy odors. It seems that eau de Cologne, and any fresh flower scent, has a slightly stimulating effect upon people, and in the early spring the use of perfume helps one to throw off the feeling of lassitude that is so often a characteristic of the season. In the summer, too, or whenever one is tired, the rejuvenating effect of a bath pleasantly perfumed is marked.

A Natural Pollaher.
According to the pearl fishers of Ceylon nothing so enhances the luster and sheen of a valuable pearl as lying for a few weeks within the crop of a fowl—Asia Magazine.

Good Word for the Parrot.
Tasty people consider the parrot a nuisance and the loquacious bird has often engendered legal strife, but to the facetious person he is an endless source of amusement. He has an inherent weakness for profanity, which is apt to be embarrassing, but a man who has not tasted spirituous liquors never craves them, and a parrot who has not heard profanity will not long for it as the best medium of expressing his sentiments. In this respect he promotes culture and refinement in the home.

The limitation of this quarantine and the rules and regulations supplemental thereto to the areas in a quarantined State now, or which may hereafter be designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as infested by the Japanese beetle, shall be conditioned upon the establishment and enforcement by the State of such control measures as may be required by the United States Department of Agriculture with respect to the designated infested areas as in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture shall be deemed adequate to effect the control and prevent the spread of the Japanese beetle. Done in the District of Columbia this 30th day of September, 1920. Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture. E. T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture. (Seal)

Certain-teed-Roofing is Spark-Proof

Certain-teed will protect your property against fires due to sparks dropping on the roof from passing engines. It also helps to prevent fires spreading from building to building by means of sparks and burning embers.

Where fires have started in other parts of the building, Certain-teed Roofs tend to smother them and thereby prevent serious damage to other property.

This type of protection is appreciated by all property owners and particularly by those who are outside of the zone of adequate fire-fighting apparatus.

But Certain-teed Roofing is more than an aid in the prevention of fire. It also protects from rain or snow and is guaranteed for five, ten or fifteen years, according to weight.

It costs less to buy, less to lay and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing.

See a Certain-teed dealer about roofing. If he can't fill your entire order from stock, he can get what you want quickly from a nearby Certain-teed distributing center.

Average Life, Thirty-Three Years.
Good authorities give the average duration of human life as about thirty-three years. One quarter of the people on the earth die before the age of six, one-half before the age of sixteen, and only about one person of each one hundred born lives to the age of sixty-five. The deaths are calculated at sixty-seven on a minute, 67,700 a day and $6,659,880 a year. Births are calculated at about seventy a minute, 100,800 a day and $8,792,000 a year.

As the price of other high-grade electric irons advances to $8.25, we continue to save money for our customers by offering a bargain in a high-grade electric iron.

It irons quickly—heat rapidly supplied to all the base. Irons economically—holds heat unusually long; does much ironing with current shut off.

And lasts—sturdily built, has specially anchored cord which will not pull out; nickel plate finish over copper plate for long wear. A laboratory test proved that after 800 hours continuous heating the iron was still in good condition. This test equalled three years ordinary use.

No extra expense has been put on elaborate finish or unnecessary frills. This saving is your saving.

You can buy this iron—which will do as fine ironing as you desire, and economically—at

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 24

WHAT THE KING REQUIRES.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 6:1-4.
GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect—Matt. 5:48.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Lev. 19: 15; Deut. 24: 16; Luke 12: 49-52.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What the Heavenly Father Wants Us to Be.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus Wishes His Followers to Be.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Measuring Up to Christ's Standard.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Character Which Jesus Requires.

The so-called "Sermon on the Mount" is the king's proclamation of the laws which obtain in his kingdom. These laws do not set forth terms of salvation to sinners, but the principles of life which shall obtain when Christ reigns on earth.

1. The Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 1-12).

These characteristics are set forth in the nine Beatitudes.

1. The consciousness of utter spiritual poverty (v. 3). "Poor in spirit" does not mean to be without money (Isa. 66:2), but to come to the end of self in a state of absolute spiritual beggary, having no power to alter one's condition or to make one's self better.

2. A profound grief because of spiritual insolvency (v. 4).

3. A humble submission to God's will (v. 5). The outgrowth of mourning over spiritual insolvency is meekness.

4. An intense longing to conform to the laws of the kingdom (v. 6).

5. Merciful (v. 7). The subjects of the kingdom now take on the character of the king.

6. Purity of heart (v. 8). Since the king is pre-eminently pure, the subjects who enjoy fellowship with him must have heart purity.

7. Peacemakers (v. 9). The one who has received the peace of God through Jesus Christ will diffuse peace to others.

8. Suffering for Christ's sake (v. 10). The world hated Christ, the king, therefore those who reflect his spirit in their lives shall suffer persecution (11 Tim. 3:12).

9. Suffer reproach (v. 11). This means suffering falsely. In such case we should glory in it, for it brings great reward in heaven.

10. The Responsibilities of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 13-16).

Man is corrupt, and the world is in utter darkness. The disciples of Christ are to live such lives as to purify and enlighten. Their responsibilities are set forth under the figures of salt and light.

1. Salt of the earth (v. 13). The properties of salt are (1) penetrating; (2) purifying; (3) preserving. Since salt only preserves and purifies in the measure that it penetrates, so Christians only as they enter into the life of the world can preserve it from decay.

2. The light of the world (v. 14). Light illuminates and warms. This world is cold and dark. The devil has set many pitfalls and snares. As sons of the light we should live so as to prevent the unwary from stumbling and falling.

III. The Laws of the Kingdom (vv. 20-48).

1. As to deeds of righteousness. They must exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees.

2. As to sanctity of life (vv. 21-26). "Thou shalt do no murder," means more than simply to refrain from the taking of life. Rash anger is heart murder (v. 22).

3. As to organized life (v. 27-32). The family is the unit of society. There is no sin that so rots society as that against the relation of the sexes. The two awful sins against the family are (a) adultery (v. 27-30). (There is heart adultery as well as heart murder; (b) divorce (v. 31, 32). Moses, for the hardness of the hearts of the people, permitted a man in case of adultery to put away his wife and give her a bill of divorcement.

4. As to oaths (vv. 33-37). Speech is the absolute test of character. Whatever is more than the simple form of affirmation or denial comes of the Devil.

5. As to behavior toward those who do not recognize the laws of the kingdom (vv. 38-48). (1) Not revengeful (vv. 38, 40); (2) willing to do more than is required (v. 41); (3) charitable (v. 42)—even the borrower should not be turned away; (4) love toward enemies (vv. 43-48). Love to enemies consists (a) in blessing them that curse us; (b) in doing good to them that hate us; (c) in praying for those who despitefully use us.

God is Everywhere.

Let us remember that God is at the seashore and in the mountains just as much as he is in our home town and in our home church. We need to resist the devil of license which is always whispering his evil insinuations into the ears of people away from home. We need religion just as much to summer as we do in winter, perhaps more. So when we are away from home let us not neglect our Bible, and our daily prayer, and attendance upon the house of worship whenever possible.

Dr. Van Dyke Well Received

Dr. Paul Van Dyke, professor of history at Princeton University, addressed a full house in the school auditorium last night on the League of Nations. His pleasing personality secured the sympathetic attention of his hearers from the first.

Dr. Van Dyke was introduced by Mrs. R. F. Corry (who said that it was a strictly educational meeting). After reading his telegram to George Wharton Pepper declining to debate, he gave a brief resume of his reasons for preferring Cox to Harding as a presidential candidate. He said that the new voters, and particularly the women new voters would be more likely to be governed by reason in deciding which way they would vote. He said he was a Democrat because, by and large, that party stood more for the interest of the plain people and less for the interest of the "hangers-on" than the other party. But that he was an independent Democrat and had four times refused to vote for the presidential candidate of that party, and on two occasions had voted for their Republican opponents.

He said he was for Cox in this campaign because he was a straight thinker and a plain speaker, and was a progressive, forward looking man. As an executive he had had more experience than Harding, and in three great trials had made good—the great flood, the war, and the problems of reconstruction. He had instituted four great reforms in Ohio—the reform of the school system, of the finances, the highways and the health department. But while he approved of Cox on all these grounds, their positions on the League of Nations were reversed, he would vote for Harding. He considered it not only the duty but the privilege of the United States to enter the League. He briefly summarized what the League is, and what it really is, as compared with what it is supposed to be. He points out that the League does not touch internal boundaries, does not say there can be no change in existing territorial boundaries, but only that such changes must not be made by war. That it is not a Wilson League, that Wilson did not originate the League idea, nor refuse to accept suggestions concerning it. He pointed out that Root had made five suggestions, all of which were accepted. Root had made seven, five of which were accepted, and Hughes six, of which five were accepted.

As to what the League really is, Dr. Van Dyke said that it is a plan for disarmament, that it proposes an international court of justice, provides for the registration of treaties, without which they are not binding, and substitutes arbitration for war. The speaker was roundly applauded when he said that the League did not contemplate raising the Stars and Stripes below the standard of an international oligarchy, but that the American flag should be carried shoulder to shoulder with the emblems of sister nations in the forward march of humanity.

In answer to a question, the speaker said that Article X was discussed as though it was a thing by itself, whereas it can only be understood when considered in the light of Articles V and XVI, and those three only when taken with the balance of the covenant.

Republican Smoker
The Republican smoker held at the club headquarters Saturday night was well attended and the program of entertainment furnished was much enjoyed. Emmor Roberts, candidate for Assembly, J. Lloyd Wright, the Republican nominee for the Board of Freeholders, and Candidate Flagg for Sheriff were present to meet the voters and make a few remarks.

Attempt Robbery and Some Gun Play

About 2 o'clock Thursday morning, Albert M. Kinsey, chauffeur at the Kitchen Smock, on Park avenue, who was down stairs hunting relief from an attack of facial neuralgia, heard a suspicious noise outside the window. When he peeped out he saw a man who, when he discovered he had been seen, ran toward the D'Olier property. Kinsey went upstairs to get his revolver and started out to investigate. Seeing another man a short distance down the road, he decided he had better get the assistance of Jesse Hullings, who is watchman at the D'Olier property, and started toward the back of the house. He had gone but a few feet when the first man, who had hidden in the bushes, ordered him to halt and opened fire at the same time. The stranger's gun was equipped with a silencer, so that Kinsey heard no report, but could see the powder flashes and hear the bullets zipping through the hedge all around him. He lost no time in seeking the protection of a pole, from which he returned the fire. On the fourth shot the stranger staggered, made a grab for the fence and fell in a heap on the ground. Hullings, who had been aroused by the shots, hastened to the battlefield and together they searched the premises, but failed to locate the wounded man, nor did they find any traces of blood. They did find a handkerchief embroidered with the initial "R".

A Correction
October 21, 1920.
Editor The New Era:
Will you kindly publish the following correction:
The notice of the meeting addressed by Dr. Van Dyke on October 21st was, by mistake, advertised as under the auspices of the League of Women Voters.
Very truly yours,
EFFIE W. CORRY.

How It Is Done
Riverton, N. J., Oct. 19, 1920.
Editor The New Era:
The League of Nations Primer, by George Wharton Pepper, says "Nobody knows" how the representative of the United States will be chosen. This statement made by such eminent authority, if unchallenged, might prove misleading to voters. In the interest of truth and accuracy, may I direct attention to the Constitution of the United States, in Section 2 of Article II, it is declared that the President "shall nominate and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers, Consuls, Judges of Supreme Court and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for."
Very truly yours,
H. E. MOYER.

The Other Half

This issue of The New Era contains about two columns of Democratic advertising for the reason that its columns are open to the announcements of all political parties. These Democratic ads are cleverly written, and convincing—if you go no further in analysis and comparison than they would lead you. Read them carefully and then consider the following:

On the League of Nations issue, for instance, they stop short of admitting that the real reason why the United States is not now functioning in the League is because the president stubbornly refused to accept reservations that would have been entirely satisfactory to the European nations. The United States is held up to ridicule for being out of the League, in company with Russia, Mexico and Turkey. It is generally understood that these three countries are out because they are not permitted to enter. In our case, the American people are not willing to enter without safeguarding their own interests, which Europe is perfectly willing to do. Only Wilson stands in the way. It is futile to claim that Wilsonism is a dead issue in this campaign. Wilson approves of Cox, and the president's well-known aversion to those whose minds do not go along with his, would never permit him to sanction the candidacy of Cox unless he was satisfied Cox would perpetuate the Wilson policies.

We shall not challenge the eulogy of Governor Cox. His record, career and backing are differently viewed by different people. The activity of Tammany, of Senator Taggart and his friends in Indiana, and of the Roger Sullivan group in Illinois, now led by Mr. Brennan, does not recommend itself to some. Franklin D. Roosevelt is a nice young man. His chief trouble is that he is in bad company, and seems to be laboring under the hallucination that he carries the South American republics in his vest pocket—not a very "democratic" conception, using the word in its broad sense.

The Federal Reserve Act is good. But it did not originate with the Democratic party. The act was introduced by Senator Aldrich, who as the head of the Currency Commission for a number of years, introduced a most carefully drawn bill in Congress. The Glass bill was simply the Aldrich bill slightly changed to meet the views of Mr. Bryan, whose support made its passage possible. The Democrats are entitled to full credit for their share in the passage of the act, but it does not all belong to them.

The spectacle of Borah and Johnson, Taft and Root, Lodge and Taft, all pulling every which way cannot be more painful to our Democratic friends than the "spats" between the president and Bryan and Lansing was to the whole country.

"The world's only hope of peace" seems to have laid down on the job in Europe, where wars go merrily on, and conflicting interests and international jealousies prevent the great powers there from doing their plain duty.

It causes just a bit of a smile to hear our Wilsonian friends speak of Harding as a "lightning change artist" when their own president holds a world record for being on both sides of about every important question. His famous "kept us out of war" (for election purposes only) is enough. And did the embalmed beef and unsanitary conditions in the war camps and the lack of preparation deliberately planned to bolster up the "kept us out of war" idea? The American people helped to win that war, not because of the administration, but in spite of it. This same administration, which had to be forced into every war step it took, wants to be returned to office to carry out its pledge to Europe, made by President Wilson, viz., "If the world

UNDER a Republican Administration, we conducted a dinky little war with Spain in 1898.

Can we ever forget the nauseating scandal of the embalmed beef furnished our troops, the graft and inefficiency laid at the doors of administration officials, the needless deaths of thousands from typhoid in unsanitary camps?

Let us all be thankful the G. O. P. did not have the helm in the World War.

County P. O. S. of A. Meeting

The largest and most enthusiastic meeting in the history of the Burlington County Association of Patriotic Order Sons of America was held in the Public School Building at Browns Mills, under the auspices of Camp 163 of that place Thursday evening, the 14th. More than 100 delegates were present from towns throughout the county, as well as a number of visiting members from other counties and from Philadelphia.

The principal address of the evening was made by Rev. Charles H. Elder, Past National Chaplain of the P. O. S. of A., and at present chaplain of the State Prison at Trenton. The speaker declared that "A mailed fist must be used in our fight for the preservation of the American flag and American institutions, for the red flag and its allies are endeavoring to push the American flag off the face of the earth. Bolshevism, I.W.O.-ism and all other isms which are allied to the red flag must be dealt with sternly, for there are men living under the Stars and Stripes who are just as dangerous to American liberty as the German kaiser ever was, or ever wished to be, and the same closed fist that pushed the kaiser back into Holland to eat Dutch cheese must be kept in readiness at all times for the protection of our flag and the principles for which it stands, well."

The next meeting will be held at Ranocas in November.

"What the people of this country thought of the administration's conduct of the war was shown by their response to Wilson's appeal for a Democratic Congress."

"Lafayette, we have quit." What nonsense! The American people are not quitters. They brushed aside Wilson's barricade of "notes and forced him to action and neither Harding nor any man on earth can make them quit when the path of duty is clear before them. And the republicans, party, which has won eleven out of the fifteen presidential elections in the last sixty years is not made up of quitters.

Riverton 21—U. S. N. Receiving Station 14

Last Saturday Riverton and U.S.N. Receiving Station eleven met on our local gridiron and played one of the most interesting games witnessed in Riverton for a number of seasons.

The visitors, by outplaying our boys in the early part of the game, won Riverton on the short end of a 14-0 score at the end of the first half, and the Riverton football enthusiasts were feeling pretty low, but the Riverton team changed the tide of battle starting the second half with such an aggressive offensive that before the half was half over we had tied the score and in the last five minutes of play J. Hynton intercepted one of the visitors forward passes and after a thirty-five yard run scored the winning touchdown.

While every man on each team played a good hard game of football the ones that seem to deserve special mention were McIlhenry, Coe and Jamison for Riverton and Starky, Lock and Davidson for the visitors.

This week Riverton will have as their opponents the strong West Walnut football eleven from West Philadelphia and an A No. 1 game is anticipated. Game starts 3:30, at Fourth and Linden, Riverton.

Last Monday the Riverton Grammar school football team defeated the Riverside Grammar school 19 to 13 in a closely contested game that was witnessed by quite a crowd. Riverton's long forward pass by Lockowitz to Weiman and the clever advantage of the ball by Fisher of Riverside were features of the game.

Riverton Hockey Team

Riverton has had a victorious week. On Monday, October 18 meeting Haddonfield on the Riverton grounds Riverton won 3 to 1.

Thursday, October 21, playing at Merion against that team, the score was better yet in Riverton's favor, 8 to 0.

Riverton goes to Germantown on Monday, October 25, when Riverton plays the last of the teams in the first round.

Thursday, October 28—remember the date!—the girls meet St. Martins at Riverton. Come to it! Everybody come! October 28 at 3 o'clock. Important! Practice for all girls Saturday, October 30, at 10 o'clock. All material must be there when Miss Wallan will be on hand to coach the team. She is hard to get, so make use of your opportunity.

Ferry Meeting Next Week

A public meeting will be held next Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium to consider the proposed ferry.

George T. Sale, one of the organizers of the ferry company, will address the gathering, explaining in detail what has been done, and what the company hopes to accomplish.

Following Mr. Sale's address the meeting will be thrown open to general discussion and an effort made to ascertain the sentiment of the public on the ferry.

The meeting has been arranged by a committee of the Palmyra Chamber of Commerce. Members of the Community League, which has been considering the ferry question, and the public in general are urged to attend.

Pretty Autumn Wedding

At the Methodist Episcopal Church, Palmyra, Saturday afternoon four o'clock, Miss Carrie Doughen Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Baker, became the bride of Mr. Victor Hugo Clymer, of Haddonfield.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Robinson. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, autumn leaves and tall vases of burgundy and yellow chrysanthemums, as was also the house of the bride's brother, Mr. Leonard R. Baker, where a small reception of the two families and the bridal party was held immediately after the ceremony.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a traveling suit of midnight blue with hat to match and carried a large arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Marion Newkirk, of Haddon Heights, was the bride's only attendant. She was gowned in a burgundy broadcloth suit with a large black velvet hat, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Mac Hall Gue, of Riverton, sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Edna Schute Van Meter, of Parkside, who also played the wedding march.

Mr. Ralph C. Van Hart, of Haddon Heights, was Mr. Clymer's best man. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Clymer left for a short wedding trip south. On their return, they will make their home with the bride's brother, Mr. Leonard R. Baker, until their new home in Haddonfield is completed.

Prof. Baker Addresses P. T. A.

On Tuesday evening the P. T. A. had a real live meeting in the auditorium of the Palmyra High School, which was well attended, there being about 250 present. Fifty-eight new members joined the Association.

Mrs. A. C. Giberson, chairman of the lunch room committee, reported that they were feeding from 150 to 200 scholars daily.

The entertainment program consisted of a piano solo by Miss Margaret Grahame and vocal solo by Miss Anna McConnell, accompanied by Miss Helen Seal. Both numbers were well rendered.

Helen Betty Rutan

Helen Betty, 14 months old, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Fowler Rutan, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Fowler, 608 Lincoln avenue, Saturday afternoon, of meningitis, which followed an attack of whooping cough.

Burial took place Tuesday at Wilmington, Del. The Rev. E. A. Robinson, of Palmyra, officiating.

The child's father, Dana Rutan, died at Belfont, Del. July 1st, and Mrs. Rutan has since made her home with her parents.

Big Ballot This Year

The ballots for the general election this year will be among the largest on record, being about the size of a large newspaper page. There are seven party columns, Republican, Democratic, Single Tax, National Prohibition, Socialist Labor, Socialist and Farmer Labor, and a personal choice column in addition. For most of the minor parties only the names of the presidential electors will appear in this county. The long ballot will entail considerable time in marking and an unusually long time in counting. Samples will soon be mailed so that the new voters will have time to figure out the puzzle.

DISMISSES OLD UTILITY BOARD

Jersey Governor Removes Four Members and Appoints
Three New Men.

FINDS THEM ALL GUILTY

Favoritism to Corporations Charged.
Officials Ousted Will Appeal. Members Claim Evidence Did Not Show Neglect of Duty.

Trenton.—Governor Edwards completed the membership of his new Utility Board to take the place of the commission he ordered ousted, and which is defying him by continuing to function despite his order.

The old board is giving hearings just above the chambers where the senators are considering the confirmation of nominations for the new board. In his message the governor calls attention to the fact that the supreme court refused to review his action in ousting the old board.

The nominees for the new board are Congressman Joseph A. Hamill, Democrat, of Jersey City, to replace Commissioner Alfred A. March; Arthur A. Quinn, Democrat, of Perth Amboy and president of the New Jersey State Federation of Labor, to succeed Commissioner Andrew Guhl; Walter F. Whitmore, Republican,
Newton, N. J., to succeed Commissioner George F. Wright; Treadwell Cleveland, Progressive Republican,
Newark, to succeed Commissioner
John W. Slocum; ex-Senator James A. C. Johnson, Democrat, of Englewood, to succeed Commissioner Harry L. Knight.

Senator Allen, Republican, majority leader of the senate, said that the senate ought not take action on the nominations, but should postpone action on the nominations until there had been time to become further acquainted with the records of the new appointees.

Many senators were in favor of delaying confirmation of the new board until the legality of the ouster had been unforgotten by the courts.

Until the ouster was upheld by the courts, it was said, the old board would continue as a de facto body.

Keeps Pre-election Pledge.

The action of the governor fulfills the promises made by the governor in his campaign in 1919. The utility question at that time was one of the important issues, and he promised in his speeches that if elected one of his first official acts would be to summarily dismiss the members of the Utility Board because they had lost the confidence of the people. The governor, however, did not take quick action, and he has been the subject of much criticism because he has allowed the matter to go over a great number of months. In the meantime he has given public hearings in Trenton and Jersey City, and great volumes of testimony have been taken to prove or dis-prove the charges of unfaithfulness made against the commissioners.

Every step in the proceedings to oust them has been fought by the members of the board, and now it is their intention to carry the action of the governor through the courts of the state.

Of the members dismissed, Guhl, Knight and Wright are Republicans, and Slocum is a Democrat. Of the new members appointed Hamill and Quinn are Democrats and Colonel Whitmore a Republican. There will be one more Republican and one more Democrat named, and it was learned that the governor has under consideration for appointment to the board Frank B. Jess, of Haddon Heights, president of the state board of taxes and assessments and a Republican. A place has been tendered City Commissioner Thomas L. Raymond, of Newark, also a Republican. It is understood, however, that he will not accept, and Mr. Jess was suggested. Mr. Jess has been president of the tax board many years and is considered an authority on tax and utility legislation.
He is a former speaker of the assembly.

It is understood that the governor has had several declarations of appointments to the new board. He offered one place to Frank Sommer, former counsel to the board and conceded to be one of the foremost utility lawyers in the county. Mr. Sommer, however, is the dean of the New York Law School, and he refused the honor.

It is also understood that former Mayor Percy Stewart, of Plainfield, declined to serve on the new board.

In his detailed statement the governor discusses the utility case from its inception and disposes of the contention that the governor has no power to sit as a judge on the members of the board by declaring that if he did not do so he would be violating a duty laid upon him by the legislature. He said that he was not willing to take responsibility for declaring unconstitutional that provision of the utility act that gave him the power to remove any commissioner for neglect of duty or for misconduct in office.

Failed in Their Duty.

The real reasons for the removal of the utility commissioners by the governor may be summarized as follows:
They have failed to carry out the duty imposed upon them to fix proper and adequate rates of depreciation for each public utility and to compel such utilities to set aside a depreciation fund and prevent the expenditure of this fund for any purpose other than depreciation, etc.

They have permitted and allowed some companies to divert from the depreciation fund so that large dividends might be paid.

They have not attempted to force such companies to refund said money to depreciation account.

They have shown undue bias and favoritism and discrimination toward subsidiary corporations of the Public Service Corporation and against other smaller similar corporations in other parts of New Jersey by setting for such small corporations a valuation of the companies' properties and limiting the rates so that they will afford not over 6 per cent thereon, while they allowed the Public Service Electric Company to increase rates as to without any valuation to determine whether such stock would be entitled to said return.

That they have delayed over a long period the valuation of the property of the Public Service Railway Company and the Public Service Electric Company, while holding other and smaller companies to a prompt conclusion of their respective valuations.

That in fixing electric light rates for the Public Service Electric Company they have allowed said company to make retroactive the rates so fixed.

ABSENTEE ELECTION

a qualified registered elector who, by reason of inability through illness or absence from the county in which he resides is unable to shall include in the notice published for the general election the fact that absentee electors who are registered for the general election may make application to the county board of elections for a ballot to enable them to vote on." These sections show plainly his vote cast.

Harvesting the Rivers.
According to a group of British engineers, electric power can be produced by harnessing the tides of two rivers in Scotland at two-thirds the cost of that generated by steam.

ON his first return from Paris, President Wilson consulted the leaders of the Senate—Republicans as well as Democrats—as to their ideas on the League of Nations. He obtained the views of Mr. Root, Mr. Taft and other prominent statesmen. When he returned to Paris, he had most of these recommendations incorporated in the Covenant.

Yet what did his opponents do?

Lodge, Penrose and Smoot, who for seven years had fought every constructive measure the President advocated, now sought to discredit him abroad and kill the League he had promised to promote. By destructive nullifications they have deliberately tried to overthrow the world's only hope of permanent peace.

800 Hours Continuous Heating

Our Special Iron Successfully Passed
This Extraordinary Test!

In a laboratory test of our special iron, it was left with the current turned on for 800 hours! It was still in first-class condition, ready for more work.

If you use such an iron five hours a week every week for three years, you would not put the iron to as severe use as did this test of continuous heat.

Moreover, its heat storage capacity saves time and money and the iron is comfortable to hold.

We are sure our Special Iron will give you long and satisfactory service.

We don't claim it is an art object. It's made for work.

The saving made by leaving off unnecessary frills is money in your pocket. This iron is $2.75 cheaper than other irons that give equal service.

LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 31

NEW DOWN THE CORRUPT TREE —WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 7:18-23.

GOLDEN TEXT—Every tree that bringeth forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.—Matt. 7:19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Good Trees and Bad Trees.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Sharp Ax for a Corrupt Tree.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Fruits of the Liquor Traffic. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Complete Destruction of the Liquor Traffic.

The king having completed the enumeration of the laws of the kingdom, makes application as follows:

I. Entrance into the Kingdom Urged. (vv. 13, 14).

There are two ways only before each one—life and death, heaven and hell. The grand incentive held out is that it is the way to life. He just as plainly declares that the gate affording an entrance is straight and the way narrow. But while it is straight and narrow, it is an open gate, and all are invited to enter. Though the gate that leads to eternal life be straight and the way narrow in the beginning, it broadens out in every respect until the fullness of life is realized. On the other hand, the way which at first seems broad and pleasant becomes the way of the most abject slavery and limitation.

II. Warnings Against False Teachers (vv. 15-20).

1. Their real existence (v. 15). Ever since God has had a people, false prophets and teachers have appeared among them. That they appear everywhere need not at all surprise us, for Christ foretold that such should be the case (Matt. 24:11).

2. Their nature (v. 15). (1) They are hypocritical. The Devil does his most successful work by masquerading as an angel of light (II Cor. 11:14, 15). His ministers appear in this way and turn people from the narrow to the broad way. If the evil one would appear as he really is, his success would not be great. From the day when he appeared to Eve in the garden until this present time, his success has been due to his ability to deceive. (2) They are destructive. This is suggested by their being revelling wolves. It is when the wolf is in sheep's clothing that he does his most destructive work. It is so today. False teachers are doing their most deadly work while pretending to be loyal to the Bible and to Jesus Christ.

3. The unfailing test (vv. 16-18). "By their fruits ye shall know them." Every tree bears its own kind of fruit. Nature is inexorable in her laws as to this. One may search the universe in vain for an exception to this law. It is equally true in the spiritual world. There is a vital connection between the faith of the heart and the fruit of the life. That which comes out in the conduct was first in the heart. A right heart is essential to right conduct.

4. Their ultimate end (v. 19). All false teachers shall be finally punished by being cast into the fire. Although God has infinite patience and bears long, he will see to it that this work does not go on forever.

III. The Dangers of Empty Professions (vv. 21-23).

1. Merely calling Christ "Lord" will not answer for doing his will.

2. One may even do supernatural works and not be saved (vv. 22, 23). Not all supernatural works are divine. There is a supernatural work of evil. It is the business of every believer to test the spirits (I John 4:1, 2).

3. Separation from God (v. 23). You may be a Sunday school teacher or preacher, and even perform many mighty works, as casting out devils, healing the sick, and yet hear from Jesus Christ, the King, the awful declaration "I never knew you, depart from me."

IV. The One and Only Safe Way (vv. 24-29).

1. Hear the sayings of Christ (v. 24). To do this you must give attention to reading the word of God. Avail yourself of every means at your command to become acquainted with God.

2. Do what Christ commands (vv. 24-29). One must put to practice Christ's teachings. Hearing and doing the teachings of Christ is building upon the solid rock. Christ Jesus, the Rock of Ages, is the only right foundation upon which to build. Such building can never be destroyed by flood and storm. Hearing and not doing, Christ's sayings is building upon the sand, which in the time of the storm of God's wrath and judgment will be utterly destroyed. Obedience must follow hearing Christ.

A Prayer.

That it may please Thee to wean my affections from all things below; and to fill me with ardent desire after heaven; and finally to make me partaker of all Thy blessings and promises in Christ Jesus; I beseech Thee to hear me, Good Lord.—From Heile's Devotions.

Genius of Christianity.
It is the genius of Christianity to have transfigured sacrifice by displaying it to us as the reverse of the medal called love.—H. R. Haweis.

ADDRESSED TO THOUGHTFUL VOTERS:

On November 2 you will be called upon to decide the most momentous questions that have ever confronted our Country.

It has been difficult for the new voters, both men and women, to distinguish clearly between the claims and counter claims made by the two great parties. The principles involved are too large and too fundamental to be decided in the light of isolated cases or incidents. The decision must be made with the whole field in view—international, national, financial, industrial, economic.

On the League of Nations issue the Democratic platform and candidate stand for the maintenance, by force if necessary, of boundary lines arbitrarily set by the Supreme Council at the Peace Conference, with little regard to the feelings and rights of the peoples affected.

The Republican platform and candidate stand for a condition of peace based on justice, and arrived at by conference, conciliation and arbitration—not exercised under the baleful influence of threatened force—and are pledged to take immediate steps to bring this about, through such an association of nations as will make for peace and not war.

Which plan do you prefer? Which one do you think promises the greater ultimate success?

To which party, based on its past record, do you think it is safer to entrust the problems of this period of reconstruction?

You owe it to your country, to your neighbor and to yourself to consider all these things carefully, and with as little partisan prejudice as possible, for the foreign policy and the domestic well-being of the United States will be determined by the action of the American voter on November 2, and it is vitally important that no mistake shall be made.

Vote early! Nearly 800 voters are registered in the first district and about 600 in the second. To get them all polled means to vote more than one a minute in the first district.

How to Mark the Ballot

A demonstration of how the ballot to be voted on November 2 should be marked will be held at the Porch Club on Monday, November 1, from 10 to 12 in the morning and 2 to 5 in the afternoon. All women voters are invited to come during the hours named.

The ballot is unusually large this year, and besides the names of candidates in seven political parties, it contains three questions to be voted on.

What Is the Soldiers' Bonus Act?

The Act under which it is proposed to pay a sum of money to the soldiers in the world war, reads as follows: Any soldier as defined in this act, who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the war between the United States and the German Empire and its allies, or in the case of the death of a soldier, the dependent or dependents of such deceased soldier, shall be entitled to and shall receive a bonus for each month or fraction thereof, from March twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, to date of discharge; provided, that no such soldier, or the dependent or dependents of such deceased soldier, shall be entitled to receive any amount in the aggregate, under this act, in excess of one hundred dollars.

Legion Smoker

James Bradley Post, American Legion, gave a most enjoyable smoker and entertainment in Collins Hall last night. Entertainment was furnished by the Adelphe Trio, of Philadelphia, and a monologist. Refreshments were served.

Mayor Bennett was among the guests of honor and in a neat little speech presented the Post with the service flag that hung in the triangle near the station during the war.

Colored Republican Rally Saturday Night

A great Republican rally under the auspices of the Riverton Colored Republican Clubs of the Burlington County League will be held Saturday evening, October 30, 1920, in the auditorium of the Riverton public school. The principal speaker will be the well-known orator Rev. John C. Love, of Verona, N. J., president Trustee Board Northern Baptist University. Speaking will begin at 8:00 o'clock.

Vote early! Here in the East where sentiment is overwhelmingly Republican, every vote should be polled, to offset that Middle West.

DON'T FORGET

That on your ballot next Tuesday, one cross (—) or (X) votes for only one man; you must put a mark in the square by the name of every man that you want to vote for, and you must vote for every Presidential Elector (14) for your party.

That to "split your ticket," that is, vote for someone of another Political Party you must omit a mark before the name of the candidate for the corresponding office. For instance, if you are voting the Democratic ticket, but want to vote for Edw. H. Flagg, Jr., for sheriff, whose name is in the Republican column, you must not make a mark by the name of Jordan, the Democratic candidate, but make a mark before Mr. Flagg's name in the Republican column.

That you must not erase or try to change the made in error—get a new ballot.

That ballots must be cast faster than one a minute if everybody in Riverton votes. Therefore, vote early—in the morning rather than afternoon, the early morning rather than late—and you men, get in line as soon after the polls open as you can; get there before breakfast if possible, you will save some other person's time. Ladies, leave your housework and vote first. If each voter arrives at the polls 15 minutes earlier than he or she intended, it will make a big difference at the end of the day. Polls open at six o'clock. Mark your ballot carefully and quickly and make way for the next.

That the poll clerks are prepared to do all in their power to make things run smoothly, but they are human, and six a.m. to seven p.m. is a long stretch—and they are not through then—every vote must be counted—some job.

That it is unlawful for any but officials concerned with the balloting by precinct to be in the polling places than is necessary to vote.

That the election returns will be received by precinct, and the Republican headquarters election night, and—

That everyone is invited.

LAST MINUTE PARAGRAPHS

A vote for Harding and Coolidge is a vote for a strong, sagacious, progressive and enlightened government, the exact reverse of this vacillating "On today, off tomorrow" Wilsonian government that seems to have adopted the policy of penalizing those that are clever and rewarding those that are not—as instanced by the Garrison and Lansing removal from the Cabinet.

Herbert Hoover, Food Administrator, states that he believes that since the Armistice the present administration has made a failure by all the tests that we can apply. Mr. Hoover declares he is against the League of Nations unless it is radically amended.—Harvey's Weekly of October 23.

And, by the way, isn't it significant that since their return from Europe not one of the members of the Peace Commission has said a word in favor of the League of Nations except Wilson? (both directly and through "that other mind that goes along with his.") Gen. Bliss, Colonel House, Mr. White and Secretary Lansing—all as silent as the tomb!—though it is understood that Mr. Lansing will have something to say after November 2.

The Democratic Party, claims the credit of successfully conducting the World War, and yet, strange to say, "President Wilson and Secretary of War Baker were violently opposed to the passage of the Chamberlain Conscription bill, under which our Army was raised, and their reluctant consent was only obtained by certain of our Army officers taking them severely to task."—Editorial in Philadelphia Ledger, signed by William Howard Taft.

Found Too Late

Johnnie, nine years old, had never known his own mother. He was discovered by a social worker in the home of his "aunt." His little body almost eaten up with tuberculosis and the hands so crippled that the hope of driving away the many flies was abandoned by the little fellow, and a weak puff from his mouth was the only means of discouraging the pests.

The hope of recovery had been abandoned by the members of the household, and the mere duties were performed for him that a sick animal might receive. The first aid administered by the county nurse at the first visit and subsequent visits was received by the little chap with an expression of gratitude that would melt the heart of stone, and those last days spent on the snowy white bed at the beautiful little sanatorium of Fairview must have seemed to him like a peep into the "Promised Land."

If Johnnie had been discovered five years ago by the same social worker, interested in every form of prevention of this dreadful disease, he might have been restored to health and been the hope and comfort of the mother who had never made herself known to him.

Does Burlington County know that there are many children and others older to whom the same helping hand should reach, and that prevention is far easier than cure? The means of hunting out such cases, administering relief and comfort and of teaching prevention and the simple rules of health are provided by your own County Anti-Tuberculosis League. Will you not support its work and contribute to the various attempts to enlarge its treasury? The approaching national campaign for the sale of the Christmas seal will need the hearty endorsement and help of the entire county.

SHALL America assume her rightful position in the world?

Or shall America remain aloof—a "little America"—that refuses to keep pace with civilization?

This is the question before us. Vote for Cox and membership in the League of Nations.

National Apple Day October 30

By decree of leading statesmen, By the leaders of your State, For the eating of the apple. They have set aside this date. Jump right in and pay your homage To the king of royal fruits; Join the ever growing army Of the apple-day recruits.

The greatest manifestation of man's weakness for the apple since that demonstration in the Garden of Eden is evidenced in the development of the apple industry in North America. This continent, and particularly the United States, is far and away the greatest apple producing country in the world. From that small nibble in the Garden of Eden man's predilection for this most seductive fruit has grown into a wild and almost continuous orgy. It has been said that man would rather live out of the Garden of Eden and have apples, than inside and be without. How fortunate then are Rivertonians, who living inside "The Garden," are still blessed with apples.

FOOTBALL

Last Saturday Riverton defeated the strong West Walnut football team by a score of 22 to 0 in a good, hard-fought, clean game. The visitors in the last quarter played a couple of very pretty trick plays, for considerable gains which was the only time they threatened the Riverton goal line.

Score—Riverton 22 7 6 3
West Walnut 0 0 0 0
Touchdowns, Coe 1, D. Hylton 1, Jamison 1.
Field Goal, Coe 1, Goals from touchdowns, Coe 1.

Referee—Holvick. Umpire, Leroy. Timekeeper, Durgan. Head linesman, Schneider. Time of quarters, 12 minutes.

This Saturday, October 30th, Riverton will line up against the Woodlynne team from Camden at 3:30 p.m. at Fourth and Linden avenue, Riverton. The Woodlynne team was organized and is managed by Warner Dumphrey, a former resident of Riverton, who played on the Riverton team from 1909 to 1915. A good, fast game is expected.

POLITICS

Those who "have no interest in politics" should avoid this page as they would the plague, for it contains little else. Here will be found a Democratic advertisement and some comment thereon; Harding's attitude on the League of Nations, defined by Congressman Bacharach in an open letter to voters; Cox's statement regarding the sinking of the Lusitania, which has been dragged into the campaign by Cox's paper in an appeal to "our German-American friends"; a letter from Robert Biddle, two letters from Harry E. Moyer, and a discussion of political affairs generally.

HEARD ON THE SIDELINES

"BY THEIR FRUITS"

In his address Friday night Mr. Pepper scored a telling point when he asked his hearers, in considering which party was more entitled to their confidence and support, to write down all the names of men who had been great in the country's history, who had been democrats, and then make a similar list of the great men who had been Republicans, and compare them.

HAS EUROPE CHANGED SO MUCH?

In 1823 the United States deemed it necessary to define its relations with the nations of Europe affecting territorial boundaries by an announcement known as the Monroe Doctrine. It has served well. And is the fact that 42 of these same nations have banded together in a league an argument in favor of our going in, or an argument in favor of staying out? The United States should always stand ready to throw its weight on the side of right, but should retain its absolute freedom of action. "Entangling alliances" rings as unpleasantly in the ears of clear-headed thinkers today as it did in Washington's time.

ARTICLE X NOT ESSENTIAL

Article X, which President Wilson declared to be the heart of the League, is viewed differently abroad. Leon Bourgeois, president of the Council of the League of Nations, in an interview with American newspaper correspondents on Sunday, October 24, said that Article X was not considered by European statesmen as a vital or essential element of the covenant.

It was explained to M. Bourgeois the effect his words would be likely to have on the American election, and he was asked if he intended the interview to be printed in the United States.

M. Bourgeois replied that he fully realized the importance of what he was saying, and was quite willing the interview should be printed.

HOW THEY STOOD ON SURFRAGE

With both parties claiming the credit for giving women the vote, the facts in the case will be interesting. Up to July 14 of this year, the situation stood as follows:

State legislatures that had ratified the amendment—Republican 29, Democratic 6.

Legislatures rejecting the amendment—Republican 1, Democratic 7.

Governors calling special session to ratify amendment—Republican 16, Democratic 9.

CAN A SQUARE DEAL BE "COMPROMISED?"

President Wilson states that he "compromised" the Shantung award. If it is a compromise to first announce in his fourteen-point peace determination doctrine, then hand over to Japan forty thousand square miles of Chinese territory, containing thirty-eight million Chinamen, having within its borders the birthplace of Confucius—if this is a compromise, what must their aims have been originally?

IF YOU DON'T REMEMBER, ASK THOSE WHO DO

You, who are voting this year for the first time, think back upon the days of other Democratic administrations, or ask of those who remember them. Business failures, doublets, and quadrupled, soup kitchens opened from the Atlantic to the Pacific to feed those who had no work. Do you want this condition again? Business depression has always been identified with Democratic rule. It followed Wilson and the Democratic Free Trade, and the usual fearful results were only averted by the calamity of a World War, which automatically killed Free Trade and put gold in the purses of many. We will again experience the stagnation of industry unless we place Harding in the White House. It has already begun.

STILL AT IT!

There goes our petulant president again, scolding those whose minds do not go along with his!

In addressing a group of pro-League Republicans at the White House on Wednesday, he said, in referring to the League as a guarantee of world peace, "There is no other way"—a pretty broad claim! And referring to those who do not accept his dictum on the League question, he said, "The so-called Americanism we hear so much prating about now is spurious and invented for party purposes only."

Wonder if the Americanism of the opponents of the Wilson League doesn't ring as true as that of Candidate Cox in 1918 when he was condemning the submarine outrages, and as it is now when he is bidding for the vote of his "German-American friends" by condemning Beck, Root, Lodge and Knox for protesting these outrages against humanity, and forcing President Wilson to declare war for the protection of American lives?

See other side of this sheet

To the Voters of Riverton and Vicinity

In The New Era, under date of October eighth, there appeared a paid advertisement by the Riverton-Republican Club, embracing fourteen statements obviously intended to mislead the uninformed voter.

These statements appeared under the captions: CONSTITUTION, EUROPEAN ALLIANCES, MONROE DOCTRINE, INTERNATIONALISM, GENEVA'S EDICT, REPUBLICAN RESERVATIONS, LEAGUE WILL SEND YOUR SONS TO WAR, FINANCIAL DEBAUCHERY, AIRCRAFT FIASCO, EIGHTY MILES OF MOTOR TRUCKS, SUGAR FOLLY, PALMER'S FOLLY, COST OF GOVERNMENT, G. O. P., THE NATIONAL PANACEA.

The implied deduction of these sinister statements, of course, is that the League of Nations is a thing of evil—an instrument if adopted by us, would impair our national sovereignty, and that the present party in power has not only wrought much evil, but that if continued in power, even greater evils would result.

Students of History are not surprised at this, for warped and distorted souls have come to the fore in every great epoch in our country's history, and against every great leader of the time—among notable instances of this, was a statement published in a Philadelphia newspaper in 1797, just previous to Washington's retiring from the Presidency:

"If ever a nation was debauched by a man, the American Nation has been debauched by Washington. If ever a nation has been deceived by a man, the American Nation has been deceived by Washington."

And another:

"When a retrospect is taken of the Washington administration for 8 years, it is a subject of the greatest astonishment, that a single individual should have conquered the principles of republicanism, in an enlightened people just emerged from the gulf of despotism and should have carried his designs against the public liberty so far as to have put in jeopardy its very existence."

And another, was the appeal made by John C. Fremont, when opposing Lincoln's re-election:

"If Mr. Lincoln is re-elected, I believe it would be to renew a power which has cost us the lives of thousands, and put the country into bankruptcy."

Now, let us see if there is not another side to this question.

CONSTITUTION

This statement implies, that the Covenant of the League of Nations, supercedes the fundamental law of the 42 nations, signatory to the Covenant and Treaty. Does any sane person believe, that these 42 nations embracing as they do, all the nations of the earth (of any importance), excepting Germany, Russia, Mexico (by the way this is the company we are now in) and the U. S., would sign away their national rights?

Does our federal constitution interfere or take away our state rights or sovereignty? The fundamental basis upon which the League was conceived and established was identical with that set forth in our constitution, establishing the relations between the states and our federal laws.

EUROPEAN ALLIANCES

If in nearly every great war of Europe in the past, we have been unable to keep out of the Broil, should not wisdom point out to us the expediency of joining an aggregation or alliance of nations, under a covenant to prevent these entanglements of strife? This occurred to Thomas Jefferson in 1802 when he wrote to Livingston, our Minister to France, expressing his willingness to "marry ourselves to the British Fleet and Nation," arguing that it would prevent war instead of provoking war, and in 1823 Jefferson advised an offensive and defensive alliance with Great Britain for the same reason.

MONROE DOCTRINE

As one of the foremost minds and Republican Ex-President states, "That the League of Nations is a Monroe Doctrine on a world scale." He further states that "Article X is an application of the principle of the Monroe Doctrine to the world," which cannot be gainsaid. Our own Monroe Doctrine, protects our weaker neighbors against external aggression, so the League of Nations is designed to protect the weaker nations of the earth against external aggression, and the ulterior designs of the stronger.

INTERNATIONALISM

Our internationalism means that World Armaments should be reduced to a minimum—to agencies of non-utility of aggression. That millions of dollars shall be saved to tax payers thereby. That the likelihood of your boys going abroad to fight shall be reduced to a minimum. That there shall be an enduring understanding among the nations of the earth making for peace and liberty based on principles of humanity. Our flag, if associated with other flags of the world can never be "Flown beneath and made subordinate to" any of them, for as America was the pioneer in this great world movement, so will her flag ever float among all others as the brightest and staunchest emblem of right and liberty.

GENEVA'S EDICT

This caption is answered under those of "Constitution" and "League will send your sons to war."

REPUBLICAN RESERVATIONS

As past events have proved, we are not at least likely to have a larger number of our men policing foreign countries in the event we join the League than we have now. The Republican Reservations to the League were made to discredit the Democratic party for partisan advantages and not for any benefit or advantage of the American people.

LEAGUE WILL SEND YOUR SONS TO WAR

If, as this statement asserts, had we ratified the covenant our boys would now be fighting in Poland, and policing Armenia. Why did not some, or all of the 42 nations, (if this were so), which have ratified, send soldiers to fight in Poland? This was positively not done, by any of them, with the exception of France which did not officially send a soldier. A few French officers having individually volunteered to lead the Polish Army, and does the covenant say anything about our policing Armenia? Voters see if you can find this in the covenant—

FINANCIAL DEBAUCHERY

It would appear in this, the grievous error the Democratic administration made, which resulted in this alleged debauchery, was the appointing of so many Republicans as heads of the various war bureaus of activity.

John C. Pershing, Republican, was appointed head of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Admiral Sims, Republican, head of naval operations in danger zones.

Howard E. Coffin, Republican, head of Air Craft production.

E. R. Stettinius, Republican, head of war supplies.

Major Gen. Goethals, Republican, head of shipbuilding.

Major Gen. E. H. Crowder, Republican, in charge of Draft.

Gen. Payton C. March, Republican, Chief of Staff U. S. Army.

Chas. M. Schwab and Chas. Piez, Republicans, in charge of Emergency Fleet Corporation.

H. P. Davidson, Republican, head of Red Cross.

Frank A. Vanderlip, Republican, head War Savings Stamps campaign.

Harry A. Garfield, Republican, Fuel Administrator.
Herbert Hoover, Republican, Food Administrator.
Of eight (8) members of the War Trade Board, five (5) were Republicans, and five (5) out of the eight (8) members of the Council of National Defense were Republicans.

The Riverton-Republican Club says these gentlemen used no more sagacity and thought than a drunken sailor. Indeed a scathing charge against men of their own party.

AIR CRAFT FIASCO

Why should not the Riverton Republican Club ask Howard E. Coffin, Republican, head of this department, why he could not make things move along a little better with $690,000,000. What's Riverton's assessed Real Estate valuation got to do with Mr. Coffin's (Republican) waste of Air Craft fund?

80 MILES OF MOTOR TRUCKS

Were it a fact 35,000 motor trucks were taken to France and sold for junk as stated, so as not to derange the motor industry at home, the Republicans should be the last to protest at this, for Harding is trying his best to renew the old thread bare and obsolete issue of protection for the manufacturer. However, this statement is about as accurate as $690,000,000 for Air Craft which, as a matter of fact, was $640,000,000.

"SUGAR FOLLY" AND "PALMER'S FOLLY"

How easy it is for one to make statements without any foundation in fact, when entertaining the hope that no one will take trouble to refute them. The writer after an exhaustive investigation among sugar brokers and dealers, found that there is positively no record of this Country having sent 20,000,000 lbs. of sugar, or one pound, to France after the Armistice and sold it at 3 cts. a pound.

The Royal Commission purchased raw sugars of Cuba having it refined in this Country under toll contract at a total cost of 9 1/4 cts. a pound. France got her share of this sugar and the records do not show that she got any sugar below this price.

With respect to "Palmer's Folly" which states that the Cuban crop of raw sugar was offered to us at 6c a pound and declined, this was entirely proper. When this occurred the war had ceased. Why should the Government take under control one essential commodity and not all others—why not wheat and all meat products? During the war, all these commodities, including coal, were taken under control as a war measure. The law of supply and demand alone should regulate prices in peace times. The charge that Mr. Palmer afterwards fixed the price of sugar at 18c had nothing to do with Cuban sugar as implied. This price was allowed to the small coterie of Louisiana producers whose cost of production warranted the price.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

This statement is adequately answered in reply to FINANCIAL DEBAUCHERY.

G. O. P. THE NATIONAL PANACEA

This statement admonishes the voter to join the standard of Harding and Coolidge. Why did it stop here? Why not go further and include their reactionary props: namely Penrose, Smoot, Lodge, Bradage, Borah, Johnson and Newberry (now under conviction by the courts for procuring election illegally).

As to getting back to constitutional Government and obviating the high cost of living, everyone knows that after every war, big or little, high prices prevail. Everyone knows then that the administration is not responsible for this. In "getting back to constitutional Government" does our Republican friends mean this or the reactionary and special privilege Government sponsored by the above named gentlemen whose only claim to notoriety is a record severely and collectively to obstruction and destruction.

Let us cite a few "departures" from "Constitutional Government" of the present administration—

1. Destroying of discreditable banking system thereby obviating possibilities of panics.
2. Devising system of taxation, by which those able to pay, bear the burden in form of Income and Excess Profit Tax.
3. Gave to the worker the Anti-Injunction law, the eight hour day. The act for the safety of R. R. employees. The workmen's compensation act. The seaman's law.
4. Gave to the farmer the good roads act, the Rural Credits act. The warehouse act, the Grain-Grades act. The act to prevent gambling in farm products and its Agricultural Extension Act.
5. Passed the Clayton Act to curb the power of trusts, and the act permitting the people to select their senators instead of the State Legislature.

Voters, these are facts which are verified by record. Would you swap a splendid, clear-eyed, straight-limbed, well-kept horse, for a blind, spavined and wabby one?

Didn't Like "The Other Half"

Editor The New Era:

The peculiar advantage enjoyed by the editor and proprietor of The New Era enabled him to gain the attention of his subscribers to his article, "The Other Half" before they had had opportunity to read the "well-written" advertisements that appeared in last week's issue.

In fairness I ask you to even up the disadvantage, which is quite obvious, by accepting comment on the points involved.

Yes! Mr. Editor, the President refused nullifying reservations that would break faith with our associates in the War.

Read Senator Lodge's nullifying on Article X. If the Reservations offered by Lodge were right and honorable, why did twelve Republicans refuse to vote for them? Twenty-three Democratic Senators joined forces with Lodge in order to force the Treaty into the President's hands for decision, even though they had to sacrifice a principle.

Wilson approved Cox, and Cox approved Wilson because both refused to break our pledge to the allied governments and the world.

Mr. Editor, when you criticize the opposition party by referring to Tammany, Boss Taggart and others, be not forgetful that the broom used vigorously upon Lorimer and Newberry would provide a much needed cleaning in the Republican constellation; then too, there are bosses, such as Penrose, Barnes and too many others to mention here.

Never heard of that big vest-pocket in which Roosevelt carries South America, but I feel sure that ex-Secretary Knox could make him look like a "piker" if what the "Latin" tell me has any foundation in fact. Much of this "other half" is puff. Let's get down to brass tacks. If Aldrich was the head of the Currency Commission for years, (I admit it) and introduced a meritorious currency bill, why didn't a Republican Congress and a Republican President put it on the books as a law? Why did he and they wait for that despised Democratic autocrat to do it? I witnessed the debate in the Senate; was there when the bill finally passed and the same reactionary Republicans were on the job opposing it, time as they oppose the present Treaty.

It is refreshing to know that the "antics" of Republican irreconcilables is painful, and I would like to exercise restraint, but why not perform a surgical operation, such as the Democrats performed on Bryan and Lansing? Don't hear much from the latter two, but I can understand the poignant sorrow caused by Johnson and Borah and I can appreciate the relief if you could turn your backs on the "antics" of Lodge, Moies, Taft and other shining lights in the Republican galaxy of statesmen.

Lack of preparation. Let us see—40 cantonments, an army of 4,000,000 out of which 2,000,000 were sent across 3,000 miles of water with food supplies, etc. Never heard much grumbling about "grub" did you? We didn't send a General Shafter to command! We didn't kill our men with rotten beef! No responsible man wrote to Washington, D. C., a letter of complaint such as Col. Theodore Roosevelt sent to the Secretary of War, dated at Camp Wikoff, September 10, 1898. Read it—plus it next week, even if the election shall have been carried by Harding. The Senator from Missouri was proven wrong, and yet you quote from his mistatement about sending armies and fleet on the other side.

The appeal for a Republican Congress resulted in an indictment for some gentlemen in the State of Michigan, and I am sorry to say, included Senator Newberry, without whose purchased election the Foreign Relations Committee would not have been packed with Senators whose unyielding opposition to the Treaty was well known before they were appointed; besides we would have been saved the disastrous consequences of Lodge's Chairmanship of that Committee.

No, Mr. Editor, the people of the United States are not quitters, but you and I can agree that we have knowledge that there are some Senators, Democrats, and Republicans alike, that are quitters.

That's all.
Very truly,
H. E. MOYER.

Mr. Moyer Crosses Swords With Mr. Pepper

Editor New Era:

The back-handed eulogy of President Wilson, by George Wharton Pepper, Esq., in his speech last Friday night brought a round of applause that was at once both unexpected and disconcerting to the distinguished speaker. Unconsciously in building his structure of condemnation he presented unerringly the truth of the monumental task undertaken and accomplished by Woodrow Wilson.

Doesn't it strike you, Mr. Editor, as rather singular that 43 Nations of the World, who have joined the League are quite willing to accept the "settlement in perpetuity of cross-border boundaries" that were matters of dispute?

Mr. Bowen, if Mr. Pepper had chosen to admit all the evidence, he would have stultified himself. He must know that the Covenant provides machinery for changing the "boundaries in perpetuity." Did he mention the Plebiscite—that provision for a vote by universal suffrage? Why not be fair? The League is not an "Alliance" such as we have seen in operation heretofore. It is not a combination of Powers to deprive Nations of their territory, but it is a vigilance committee, to nip in the bud theft or burglary by force, when projected against a weaker nation. Same as a policeman uses his club if a law-breaker resists the remedy provided by law.

And Mr. Editor, was not his analogy dead wrong regarding discipline applied to children? Conciliation and persuasion is all right, but it is always sufficient. I do not see his viewpoint that "conciliation and force won't mix."

The world has had an expensive and harrowing experience depending upon conciliation without coercion—witness the deplorable failure of the Hague to prevent the European and World-wide conflagration.

No, Mr. Editor, able and pleasing as that address is admitted to have been, I do not believe that all who desired to agree with Mr. Pepper found his conclusions satisfying; that is, from a Republican Party standpoint, and I am sure it was disappointing to Democrats and to Independents.

A RINGING APPEAL

Congressman Bacharach Issues Statement to Voters On Important Issues in Campaign

Within the next few days the men and women voters of the country will be called upon to elect a President and Vice President of the United States, one-third of the United States Senate and a full House of Representatives. The Republican Party offers as its candidates for President and Vice President, men who are in every sense one hundred percent Americans.

Senator Harding has very forcefully and clearly set forth to the American people the things which he will do upon taking over the reins of government next March. He has promised in no uncertain terms that he will turn his back upon the so-called Wilson League of Nations and promptly following his inauguration he will call together the members of the country and with them and members of the United States Senate, the constituted body with which the president is directed to advise and consult in the making of peace treaties, he will take up the question of a Treaty of Peace with the countries with which we are technically at war, and an Association of Nations which will have as its ultimate object the prevention of future wars among the nations of the earth. The Republican Party is therefore not opposed to a League of Nations, but in favor of it, but it is opposed to the Wilson League.

There is another important reason—or rather many other reasons—domestic in character, why we should support the Republican candidates for the House and Senate, as well as our Presidential candidates. Our country is passing through very critical conditions at this time. The current expenditures of the National government are much greater than our receipts. Already the country is verily burdened with taxation, and sufficient revenue must be raised to meet our expenditures. This means that our present Revenue Law must be revised and put upon a sound economic and business basis. Our Tariff schedules must be revised in order that not only will we derive more revenue from the vast amount of imports which are now flooding our markets, but that the American industry and American Labor shall be protected against the competition of the cheaper labor conditions of Europe and the Orient, where the rate of wages in similar industries is from 50 to 100% less than the prevailing wages paid to skilled and unskilled labor in this country. These are the material things which are working against the prosperity of our country and which we must meet. The United States is the only country which is financially able to purchase goods in foreign markets, and therefore it is absolutely necessary for the prosperity of our country to put up a wall of protection which will prevent these commodities from coming into the country at prices which will permit American manufacturers to compete with them.

Letter from Robert Biddle

October 26th, 1920.

To the Editor The New Era:

I read the Public Ledger of Saturday last I read the following:

Burlington, N. J., Oct. 22nd—Charging that a series of "non-partisan" political meetings being promoted throughout the State are part of a Democratic plot, the State Republican committee refused to permit speakers in the presidential campaign to participate last night in what had been advertised as a "debate" under the auspices of a committee of Burlington women.

Before reading the above it was thought the Riverton Democrats were original in trying to hide behind a "woman's skirts" policy. Then Thursday night meeting called and presided over by a well known and highly respected resident of our town, but it is evident from this that the Democratic Party is using the "non-partisan" camouflage pretty generally over the State in order to increase the attendance at their meetings.

To show how persistently the "non-partisan" camouflage was carried out the writer was called to the phone an hour before the meeting by a prominent citizen of our Borough (one of the little committee of Democrats who dined the speaker at the Country Club) who insisted "by all that was holy" that the meeting was not Democratic, but a non-partisan, educational, and civic affair. The ladies of our town who were seeking the truth.

Nobody was fooled, I am sure, except the chairman and secretary. There was decided was quite evident by her manifest embarrassment and uneasy manner when the lecturer launched into a pussy footing "hot under the collar" criticism of Republicans, followed by words of praise for the Wilson-Tammian candidates, devoting just one-half hour by the watch to this part of the program before the League of Nations was considered in any of its phases.

The chairman, however, gave the meeting a prestige that brought out a fine audience of thinking Republicans and here there little groups of Democrats who clapped vociferously when the speaker made a "hit". No doubt, the seekers after truth were well paid for attending if they were fortunate enough to hear Mr. Pepper's lecture the next evening, for Dr. Van Dyke, without intending to do so, showed convincingly the dangers lurking in Article X when he pointed out that for years we had sixty thousand troops in the Philippines, so why should we not send our boys into Europe of four or five millions to back up the League of Nations?

"Now come let us reason together"—how far did sixty thousand men go towards licking the Kaiser?

Enough of this, however, as it is not the writer's intention to discuss the League of Nations after Mr. Pepper's magnificent and convincing address, but to say to our Democratic friends that we like competition, but we prefer to fight in the open.

ROBERT BIDDLE.

AND THIS MAN WOULD BE OUR PRESIDENT!

Dayton, O., Oct. 26.—Under the caption "Something to Think About" Governor Cox's newspaper, The News, prints an editorial appealing to "our German-American" friends.

The editorial is more carefully worded than the now famous editorial that appeared in Cox's newspaper during the campaign of 1916, proposing a German-American military alliance and declaring—seven months after the sinking of the Lusitania—"German U-boats have committed no crime against us." It is, nevertheless, clearly a bid for what it terms "German-American" votes.

The editorial begins with a reference to a poll conducted by a national magazine (The Literary Digest), asking Republican newspaper editors to name their choice for Secretary of State in the Harding Cabinet. The poll resulted in 152 votes for Root, 44 for Lodge and 45 for Knox.

Cox's newspaper then reprints an extract from The Congressional Record of March 1, 1919, in which Senator Knox is quoted as saying, "So surely as the sun rises, if the Hun flood again threatens to engulf the world, Germany will be the first to rush once more to the aid of civilization. Then Cox's newspaper says:

"Now we quote from the speech of Mr. Lodge, reported in the same issue of The Congressional Record. Read and study it carefully. It needs no comment. Germany should be 'chained and fettered.' Here are Lodge's words:

"We ought, then, to make this peace with Germany and make it at once. Much time has been wasted. The delays have bred restlessness and confusion everywhere. Germany is lifting her head again. The whining after defeat is changing to threats. The only source of a great war is to be found for the future, as for the past, in Germany. She should be chained and fettered now and this menace to the world's peace should be removed at once."

Cox's newspaper quotes literally from a speech by Elihu Root before the executive committee of the American Society of International Law, in which Mr. Root declared the war established that Germany's real education had been retarded, and that "Germans are only half civilized in all that makes for civilization."

"Our German readers will pardon us for again reprinting these extracts," Cox's paper then goes on to say. "We want our German-American friends to know the views of the men, one of whom certainly will be chosen by Harding, if the latter is elected, to deal with Germany."

Cox's newspaper then calls attention to the fact James M. Beck, former Assistant Attorney General of the U. S., is working for Harding, and that Beck, "was the enemy of Germany from the start," writing many articles in the press and finally a book, called The Case of Belgium.

"No man in the United States was so influential in inflaming the American people against the German people and finally compelling the President to call Congress into session," Cox's newspaper says, adding, "You who complain of Wilson and Cox have no reason for so doing. They stood for peace as long as it was honorable to do so."

"They were denounced as pacifists, and during the campaign the friends of the President were compelled to adopt the slogan, 'He kept us out of the war.' In this campaign Governor Cox is now being denounced as pro-German."

Cox's newspaper reproduces a quotation from an editorial denouncing the Cox newspaper because it had, in 1916, proposed a military alliance with Germany, and had termed the murder of American women and children, the result of a "German matter of no concern to America."

"Are you going to permit yourselves to be lined up behind these four men (Root, Lodge, Knox and Beck) and their fellow travelers, the intense Governor Cox is your enemy?" Cox's newspaper asks. "We think, although you live in the West and many of you are farmers, you will not buy a gold brick to boost a lot of politicians into office."

If Cox and his "German-American friends" are lining up against Harding because he and his supporters condemned the murder of American women and children, where do YOU want to line up?

Vote for the Bridge

Probably nothing more vital to the development of New Jersey has been put up to the voters of this State than the referendum on the Delaware River Bridge and Hudson River Tunnel bond issue which will appear at the bottom of the big presidential year ballots.

There is no doubt that those who understand the issue will vote "Yes" on the referendum, but there is some fear that, due to the size of the ballots and the great number of names (presidential electors and all local candidates) some voters may overlook the all-important last item, even though it is endorsed by both the Republican and Democratic parties in their State platforms.

This bond issue is unique in that it will provide a source of revenue to the State instead of a burden. At the bottom of the referendum appear the words "The net revenues from the bridges and tunnels, constructed under this act are devoted to the payment of the bonds."

The bonds will only be issued as required to meet the bills of the contractors. All that the State will have to do is to meet interest charges on the bonds pending the completion of the bridge and tunnel. This has been estimated at about $5,000,000, over a period of six years. Then the tolls from bridge and tunnel will start to meet interest and sinking fund requirements.

It has been estimated that the income to the State from this source will retire the bonds in less than ten years, and after that give the State a steady income of four or five millions a year. In other words the State will draw as much each year after completion of bridge and tunnel as it advanced over a period of six years while they were building.

Can Always Find a Kicker. And Tunkins says the oldest man he ever met couldn't remember a time when everybody agreed that business was fine and things were as cheap as could reasonably be expected.

MR. PEPPER ON THE LEAGUE

Masterly Address in which He Declares Principles Underlying League Are Unsound

A full house greeted George Wharton Pepper when he spoke in the school auditorium, Friday evening, under the auspices of the Riverton Republican Club. Every seat was taken, all the extra chairs that could be found were filled, standing room was at a premium, and after the windows were filled on the outside by interested listeners, many were turned away.

Ogden H. Mattis, president of the club, presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. Miss Mildred Clelland was pianist, and John M. Davies, of Palmyra, led the singing. Those who came to the meeting expecting to hear something about the League of Nations, were not disappointed, and while the meeting was not advertised as being non-partisan, no narrow partisanship crept into the way in which Mr. Pepper handled his subject.

It would be impossible to adequately report what the speaker said without giving his method of delivery. A brief summary of some of the salient points, however, will give some idea of the lines along which his argument ran. Pepper's address was a masterpiece of logical understanding and spiritual insight to which he elevated his theme cannot be felt and understood without having heard his masterly address.

Mr. Pepper prefaced his talk on the League of Nations by saying that there were many issues in the campaign—industrial, agricultural, social, financial, etc.—but that the importance of which there was much controversy. We may tinker with the tariff, and mend our ways, we might experiment with financial legislation and learn wisdom by our mistakes, we might do all sorts of unwise and foolish things, internally, so to speak, and get off with whatever ill among ourselves which we might incur, but on the issue of the League of Nations we cannot afford to make a mistake, for once the die is cast we may find ourselves in a position where we cannot conscientiously out their differences on domestic issues in the campaigns, but politics should not enter into our determination of how America shall meet the world.

Warning to his subject and launching directly into the League of Nations issue, Mr. Pepper pointed out the problem of disputed boundaries all over Europe which confronted the Supreme Council at the Peace Conference, and how they had tried to meet it. The council, composed of Clemenceau, Orlando, Lloyd George and Woodrow Wilson, set out to remake the map of Europe along lines which they thought to be best, and then endeavored to create a league which would guarantee the permanency of the settlement. The league was not in a single instance satisfactory to both parties, and in many cases were opposed by both parties. He pointed out that in view of the psychology of the peace conference, no other form of league was possible.

When, in speaking of the mental attitude of the members of the council, Mr. Pepper referred to Wilson as the "man of the solitary mind," a titter of amusement ran through the audience, which the speaker was quick to rebuke, saying, "Wilson is the President of the United States and I speak of him with respect." He then went on to say that in referring to Wilson as the "man of the solitary mind" he had no thought of criticism, but was merely stating the fact that Mr. Wilson arrives at his own conclusions without seeking or considering the advice of others.

He said that in order to have a real world peace it was first necessary to have the nations most prone to war, and the groups of nations between which conflicting interests exist, come to an understanding, an agreement, a willingness to arrange their differences in the light of reason and justice instead of by the arbitrament of war. This condition of mind, he said, could never be brought about by means of force, whether military or economic, applied from without. The decrees of one combination of nations against another, or the combination of nations against individual nations, could be carried out by force, if enough force was available, but nothing was settled and settled rightness of mind of men were in accord. Differences over boundary lines are one of the most fruitful sources of war. War over these things may be averted in one of two ways: neutral ways may bring about an adjustment through arbitration, or the neutral nations may force them to refrain from fighting by a threat of combining against them as hostilities are declared. But one method or the other must be used, both cannot be applied at the same time, and any plan or scheme that attempts to combine both principles is foredoomed to failure. The league must be based four-square either on conciliation or on force. It must be either an association of nations for conference, conciliation and arbitration, or depend on force, centralized at the call of the league, or collective force applied by individuals.

The principles of the league, as stated by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, requested the latter to suggest constructive amendments which the President might incorporate in the draft. Lodge refused. At no time has Lodge suggested constructive ideas and he never lost an opportunity to offer destructive criticism. He has been intolerant. He would not consider a compromise proposed by former President Taft, whose broad public experience as Judge, Secretary of War, etc., equipped him to be of practical service in this important matter. Taft's proposal was assured of the support of forty Democratic Senators. Here lies the crux of the whole blame. Think it out for yourselves. Lodge knew he controlled the Senate and that in his own time and way, he could destroy the Treaty.

14.—On March 21, 1920, twenty-three Democrats, setting aside their principles, in order that the Treaty might be placed before the President for action affirmative or negative, thus putting the responsibility upon him, voted to accept the Lodge reservation. What happened? It is history; look it up for yourselves. Here is the record. Defeated because twelve Republicans refused to vote for the reservations brought out and reported by their own leader—Senator Lodge.

At the close of Mr. Moyer's address P. A. Mathews, Jr., made a short plea for the Soldier's Bonus Bill, which had been passed by the Legislature, but which contained a referendum clause making it necessary to place it before the people in an election before it became operative. The bill provides for the payment of $10 a month to every soldier, sailor, marine and nurse for the time they were in the service, the sum not to exceed $100 in any individual case. Mr. Mathews said he would make his remarks like the ladies' skirts of today—"long enough to cover the subject, but not short enough to be interesting." He said that he was not asking for "extra pay" for the service the boys gave, for no money could pay for the dangers and hardships they endured, but only for a small assistance toward helping them bridge over the period between their return from the war and getting back again into civilian life on conditions somewhat similar to those which they left when they left to answer the call to arms. Many of them, he said, had been unable to get the old jobs back again. The cost to the taxpayers will be 25 cents per capita of the population for the next twenty years. About 120,000 men and women in the State of New Jersey will be affected by the passage of the bill.

E. Spencer Miller was introduced by William McConnell, chairman of the meeting, and opened his remarks by saying that he had been a Republican, and was one still, but a Republican who could not swallow the disgrace of the repudiation proposed by his party, of which he was thoroughly ashamed because he had attacked the head of the Democratic party. He said that the Democratic party, in order to elect another partisan president, the Republicans attacked the great measure for civil liberties, the world had ever known—more important than the war itself.

When the call to arms was sounded, he said, America responded with an activity that was incredible, but when it came time to make peace America's reply was to do nothing. He said the League was a thoroughly wise and practical undertaking, and the interest of the United States. Some such arrangement must be made whereby "international law" could be made something definite and binding. In the past what has been known as international law was simply a statement by various authorities of how nations should conduct their relations with each other, but it had no force. If a nation violated a treaty it broke its pledge, but it broke no law, in the sense that law is used as between individuals. The League, he said, was designed to correct this condition, by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as the actual rule of conduct among governments.

Mr. Miller said the League would operate to prevent war by removing the causes of war, and one of the methods was to remake the boundary lines of the small nations that had been swallowed by the larger nations but never digested. Another was the reduction of armaments. Article X was referred to as the "bull's eye" of the League (probably because everybody was taking a shot at it) and that it was not followed by war as the only means of enforcing its requirements. He said that under the provisions of the whole covenant of the league each nation was left to decide for itself what "effective measures" it would take to enforce the decisions of the Supreme Council. Nations nearest to the seat of disturbance would be the first to apply economic boycott. He said that the fear that our boys would be sent to the Balkans to quell disturbances and that from there they would come home with their fingers and toes frost-bitten, was groundless. Republican leaders knew that such arguments were groundless, and only used them to appeal to the minds of people who have not studied the matter.

The "treason of the educated" and the gross sin against the government, he said, was for those who knew better to attempt to put over things which they knew to be false, for the purpose of deceiving the people.

2.—On January 22, 1917, Mr. Miller said that matters of policy between nations must be submitted to the Council, and in case one nation obeys the decree of that body, the other cannot go to war against that nation. He said that while in the Assembly Great Britain and her dependencies had six votes to America's one, it was of no consequence, for, as unanimity was necessary for action, America's vote in the negative could block any action detrimental to our interests. He did admit, however, that in matters that might come before the Assembly, between this country and England, that while the votes of England and America would not be counted because they were interested parties to the dispute, but that the votes of the English dependencies would not be debared until a state of war between the two countries actually existed.

Says Nice Things About Riverton. The Republican papers in the country are vying with each other in saying nice things about Edward H. Flagg, Jr., the Republican nominee for sheriff. Below is given a clipping from last week's New Jersey Mirror, in which it boasts Mr. Flagg and the whole county ticket, and at the same time pays Riverton a neat compliment:

Burlington county Republicans, of whom it is fair to assume a half are new women voters, have good reason to be well pleased with their candidates named at the recent primary election. It is a clean ticket and one that merits the enthusiastic support of those citizens who believe in putting the best available men into office.

An insidious effort is being made even now to secure the re-election of the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, on the ground that he is the sole "dry" man running for that office and that to him only could the enforcement of the prohibition laws be safely entrusted. For the benefit of those who may have been impressed with the specious arguments advanced by the sponsors of former Sheriff Jordan, The Mirror would point to Mayor Flagg's record of several successive terms as the executive head of the borough of Riverton, and the wonderful tribute paid him by his fellow residents, both men and women, at the late primaries. Riverton is a residential town and one of the most desirable in which to live of all the towns in Burlington County. Candidate Flagg has pledged his obedience to the court and the orders of the Prosecutor in the enforcement of law and order in Burlington county in the event of his election and those who know him realize full well that he means just what he says.

MR. MOYER'S MAIDEN SPEECH

Delivers Stirring Address in Defense of Democratic Party and the League of Nations

The meeting held in P. O. S. of A. Hall, Wednesday evening, to be addressed by E. Spencer Miller, the lawyer of Philadelphia, for the advertised purpose of answering the arguments of George Wharton Pepper, made in Riverton on Friday evening of last week, was well attended despite the threatening weather.

The meeting was opened by Harry E. Moyer, who presented fourteen points of fact, and whose evident earnestness won for him the close attention of his hearers and a round of applause at the end of his remarks. The points he presented were as follows:

I feel honored in serving as one of the Vice Presidents at this meeting and appreciate your gracious invitation to address this assemblage. It is the first time in my life that I have attempted to deliver a speech on a political matter in a public meeting and I do so now because my very soul rebels against the misunderstandings and misstatements of facts by "mean" and "sneaky" men. It has been projected, that obscures the vision on the great moral question awaiting decision. It conceals from you the truth, just as the mist hides the sun. The Democratic party has been projected, that obscures the vision on the great moral question awaiting decision. It conceals from you the truth, just as the mist hides the sun. The Democratic party has been projected, that obscures the vision on the great moral question awaiting decision. It conceals from you the truth, just as the mist hides the sun.

1.—The Senate August 28, 1916, by unanimous vote, passed a measure retesting the President to take the lead toward establishment of a League of Nations. 2.—On December 18, 1916, the President addressed an identic note to the Senate, suggesting the League of Nations, stating that the United States is ready and eager to co-operate with every influence and resource at our command. 3.—On January 22, 1917, Mr. Miller said the League would operate to prevent war by removing the causes of war, and one of the methods was to remake the boundary lines of the small nations that had been swallowed by the larger nations but never digested. How the County Traveling Library Will Work

The county will have a collection of books chosen to serve all the people and all the interests of the county. These books will be divided into smaller collections and distributed so that every individual in the county will have easy access to them. Each collection will be kept fresh by constant exchange of books, and one thousand books will be made to do the work of ten thousand.

The county will have a librarian who will be at the service of every individual and every organization in the county to see that they are provided with the necessary books and to find information and advice for them on any problem that may confront them.

A collection of books with a reading room under charge of an assistant can be placed in all large communities.

Collections of books can be placed in grange halls, post offices, general stores, churches, schools, and with all educational, civic, agricultural and commercial organizations to serve small communities and scattered population. By providing the librarian with a Ford car she can exchange the books at small cost, visit each community and organization to see what books they want and get the books they desire to them within a short time. She can serve people living at distances from any centers directly from her car.

As to cost, the law says that if a majority of the votes cast are for a free public library, thereafter one-fifth of a mill on every dollar of assessable property shall be collected each year for its support. That means the library will cost one cent on each $20, two cents on $100, six cents on $300 of the assessed valuation of the property which is about eighty per cent of its value. This is a fixed amount by law, not to be raised without the consent of the people.

The county library will work with and through local libraries and not in competition with them. It will aid them in every way possible.

The Burlington County Executive Committee of the American Legion has adopted a resolution favoring the county library proposition to be voted upon at the general election and calling upon every Post and all members of the Legion to support it. Several of the local Posts have endorsed the library plan.

The traveling library plan has the full approval and co-operation of the Riverton Free Library Association. It has been placed on the ballot for November 2, and should have the support of every voter.

Ferry Coming—Like It or Lump It!

The ultimatum laid down to the people of this vicinity by George T. Sale, promoter of the Riverton-Tacony Ferry Company is:

"We're going to run a ferry across the river from Tacony. If we can get a landing in Palmyra, we'll bring it to Palmyra; if not, we'll take it to Riverton; but there's going to be a ferry. That much is settled."

This was his message to the people of Palmyra at the meeting held in the High School auditorium Tuesday evening.

Charles A. Wright, of Riverton, one of the original advocates of the ferry idea twenty-five years ago, addressed the meeting previous to the arrival of the speakers from the other side. At the end of the meeting, which was attended by 200 or more Palmyra people, with a sprinkling of Rivertonians, a rising vote was taken, 95 per cent of those present favoring the ferry with a landing in Palmyra.

It was explained that the location of the Jersey terminal in Palmyra depended upon the granting of riparian rights. The water company has offered a site and the matter of riparian rights is now before the New Jersey State Commission of Navigation and Commerce; one of the propositions being considered being the transfer to the water works site of the riparian rights which go with the Rogers property in Riverton, already purchased by the company.

Mr. Sale requested all Palmyra people interested in having the ferry come to Palmyra, write to the Commission of Navigation and Commerce at Trenton and urge it to grant the necessary riparian rights in fee simple to the Palmyra site. He assured those present that it would be called the Palmyra-Tacony ferry if the landing is in Palmyra.

The meeting got a late start. Mr. Sale and his party came from Tacony by motor boat, thus trying out the ferry, but were much delayed by engine trouble.

Mr. Sale began by taking quite a fling at the Riverton group who are fighting the people, and then told of the many other projects linked up with the ferry proposition. The Frankford elevated, for instance, is depended upon to provide rapid transit to the heart of Philadelphia from the region of the Tacony ferry terminal. Big farmers' markets are to be developed in the Frankford and Kensington section.

The ferry is expected to have a great patronage from automobilists in the northern section of Philadelphia bound for Atlantic City and shore points because of the saving of distance and avoiding the jam at the Market street ferries. It was declared that the route to Dock street markets for the farmers would be six or seven miles shorter than the Camden route and that the northeast boulevard would be a motorists' "paradise" for people from this side.

Mr. Sale made a great appeal to the "common people," declared that the ferry company was coming to Jersey with clean hands and that all would have a chance to invest in it. The rates which the company plans to charge are 50c for autos, 10c for passengers with 5c strip tickets. They expect to have the aid of the Philadelphia ice boats in keeping the channel clear of ice in the winter.

Mr. Titus, president of the ferry company, and Mr. Miller, an officer of the company, also made speeches.

Mrs. Cordie Stokley entertained her sister, Mrs. John D. McCord, of Conshohocken, on Saturday.

NATION LUMBS THROUGH CHANGE.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—If one were required to name a single factor which is doing more than any other to work toward Republican success in November, he would probably have to say: Determination of the public to have a change and to get away from Wilsonism.

Reports from all quarters tell of this feeling, at once a desire for a change and a determination to bring it about at the polls November 2.

Whether it be from the central west, the far west, the east or the south, the reports tell of this feeling for change. The desire for a change to a new administration, dislike and disgust felt by the voters toward the Wilson administration and the things it has done and left undone.

Mr. Cox is looked on as a man who if he were elected would follow the track of Mr. Wilson. In fact, he has declared himself in "complete accord" with Mr. Wilson.

The public, by all accounts, is not looking for a man who will go along with Mr. Wilson or the Wilson policies.

BAKER'S ADVISOR

OUT FOR HARDING.

Washington.—Major Benedict Crowell, Mr. Baker's former Assistant Secretary of War, warm admirer of President Wilson, is the latest distinguished man to declare in an interview that he is in favor of the election of Harding and Coolidge and a Republican Congress at the polls in November.

Major Crowell goes so far as to say that he is in favor of the league of nations but he prefers to take his chances on getting the league with Senator Harding rather than with Governor Cox.

"Now that President Wilson is retiring from active political life," said Major Crowell, "it is wise for his supporters to pause and take stock of the situation. I have always favored a league of nations but the Democratic party has no monopoly on the league. Indeed, the present Democratic administration has failed on this subject in spite of the fact that 75 per cent of the Senate were in favor of some kind of a league."

"It seems evident that Governor Cox is making many promises regarding the league which he may not be able to fulfill."

Arrested for Assaulting Conductor

Tony Casello, of Ninth and Fitzwater street, Philadelphia, was arrested Tuesday morning by Officer Quigley, charged with assaulting Conductor George Myres, of Florence, in a dispute over fare. The argument had been in progress since the car left Delair, and came to a head at West, Palmyra, where the conductor ejected Casello from the car, using, it is alleged, profane and insulting language. When Myres grabbed Casello the latter hit him a blow that sent him to the Riverside Hospital for repairs. When the car reached Riverton Myres notified Officer Quigley, who went to Palmyra and arrested Casello near the Palmyra station. The prisoner was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Fichter in the afternoon and held in $400 bail for the action of the grand jury. Tony Morello, of Riverside, became his bondsman. Myres was able to appear at the hearing swathed in bandages.

Tire Thief Captured

The police forces of Riverton and Palmyra and a number of citizens participated in an exciting adventure which resulted in the capture of an automobile tire thief Sunday night. Walter C. Wright and Ralston Biddle were sitting on the latter's porch about nine o'clock when they saw two men pass with automobile tires slung over their shoulders. Suspecting the tires had been stolen, the boys jumped into Sonny's car and followed them. They overtook the men at Frishmuth's, and hurried on to Palmyra, where they picked up Chief of Police Beck. When the trio got back the men were in the cornfield in the rear of C. C. Fittler's residence. Beck called to them to halt, and when they started to run, opened fire. They both disappeared, however, and it was thought they were hiding in the shrubbery on Fittler's lawn. While Beck, Biddle and Wright were beating the bush for the fugitives, Mrs. Fittler, aroused by the shots, telephoned for Officer Quigley, who responded on the double-quick, accompanied by Officer Miller. About the time they arrived, a splash was heard in the river, about 300 yards out. Quigley and Sonny Wright jumped into an old sail boat that was moored nearby, and with only a canoe paddle as a propeller, worked their way in the direction from which they had heard the splash. They found their man up to his chin in the water. They hauled him aboard and started ashore. When nearly in, the prisoner stepped on the edge of the boat and upset it, throwing all the occupants into the water. But if he hoped to escape by this ruse, he had mistaken the temper of his captor. Quigley poked the muzzle of an automatic into his ribs and made him wade ashore where he was hauled over the eight-foot embankment by Chief Beck and Officer Miller. After Quigley had landed him in the lockup he went through his pockets and found seventeen pawn tickets aggregating a value of about $200. The prisoner turned out to be Joseph Jones, a former resident of these parts, and well known to the local courts, where he had frequently been arraigned for chicken stealing. Officer Quigley took him to Mount Holly Monday morning, and on Tuesday his case went before the grand jury. The other man escaped, but the tires, which were stolen from E. Mercer Shreve's car standing in front of his home, were recovered. On Tuesday Jones was indicted by the grand jury.

Kipp-Harned

The marriage of Miss Helen Parkerson Harned, of Merchantville, and Mr. Henry Burton Kipp, of Wilmington, formerly of Riverton, was solemnized at half past seven o'clock Wednesday evening, October 27th, in Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, Merchantville. Rev. Harold Morse, rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

Miss Harned was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Frank P. Harned, and was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Harned, as maid of honor, and by Miss Eleanor Johnson and Miss Emma Kipp, as bridesmaids. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse. Her veil of old Point lace and tulle was arranged in cap effect, and held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and roses. The maid of honor was gowned in flesh-colored georgette, with a black lace hat, and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore frocks of pink taffeta, trimmed with tulle and silver lace, and hats of black panne velvet. Their bouquets were of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. David W. Sager, of Harrisburg, was best man, and the ushers included Mr. Frank Harned, brother of the bride, Mr. Samuel B. Jones, Jr., Mr. Casper Padmore, and Mr. Howard G. Marston. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kipp will reside at 428 VanBuren street, Wilmington, Del.

THE VOTE

If by my vote I help my Maker, God, To grow a flower upon some barren sod, To bear the burden of my sister's load, To build for little feet a smoother road— Then let me vote.

If by my vote the world be brought to see The greatness of the thing that lies in me, The woman strong and tender, faithful, true, With love unbounded as the heaven's blue— Then let me vote.

If by my vote I help my country gain The vision of some longed-for, distant main, The august of some far-reaching goal— A star, long cherished, sought for by her soul— Then let me vote.

If by my vote I cause my State to throw Her arms around a weaker till it grow, In loyal trust to wait the bonds that hold The Stars and Stripes within one common fold— Then let me vote.

If by my vote my home become a part Of the great home where beats the Father's heart, If from her window broader shine the gleam Of love until it widens to a stream— Then let me vote.

If by my vote my soul shall keep her faith In all mankind, if even unto death I faithful prove to God and to my land— Then fearless take this ballot from my hand And count my vote.

REPUBLICANS INSURE ECONOMICAL CONDUCT

Washington.—Not one man in ten thousand realizes the enormous expenses run up by the present Government. The disbursements are roughly $18,000,000 a day, more than a year after the war. In 1914 the people expostulated because the daily disbursements by the Treasury had reached $2,000,000. How gladly would the people groaning under the impositions of profiteers and the burden of taxes welcome a return to those halcyon days! Congress and the new Administration will have to deal with the reduction of Government expenditures.

The same party that has swelled them returned to power will never reduce them, because it claims the government is being economically administered. The Republican party will delight in reducing these enlarged expenses for clerk hire, and the insatiable bureau that have been built up into money spending machines. By holding in their hands all lines of expenditures the new Congress and new Executive working together will cut down excessive items and eliminate others to an aggregate of hundreds of millions of dollars.

IT LASTS FOR YEARS
—NOT MONTHS!

VALDURA 99.5% PURE ASPHALT PAINT is offered for permanent protection. You do not have to apply VALDURA every year like you do most paints of its type. VALDURA makes its strongest appeal to the better class users. It sometimes costs a little more than the black tar dopes so generally offered, but it really costs less because a gallon goes further and lasts a great deal longer.

VALDURA 99.5% PURE ASPHALT PAINT should be preferred for all types of roofs, whether rubber, felt, composition, or metal. It is used widely for bridges, also, tanks, farm machinery, etc. You can use it everywhere a water and weather resisting paint is required, whether low, around an above-ground.

It is supplied in popular sized containers from 1 Gallon size up. It is all ready for use and does not have to be heated or thinned with before you use it. Let us send you the VALDURA Booklet and if you wish it, we will include a free sample can for you.

The Delaware River Bridge

WILL LOWER TAXES

—Not Raise Them

Bridge and Tunnel Tolls will pay for the bonds and later return a big revenue to the state, making a LOWER STATE TAX RATE.

These words are on your ballot:—"Net revenues from bridge and tunnel constructed under this act are devoted to payment of the bonds."

A Vote for the Bridge and Tunnel Bond Issue is a vote to enrich the state, not to burden it.

The state has only to pay interest on bonds until completion of bridge and tunnel. Then tolls will each year exceed all interest charges the state advanced during construction.

Bridge and Tunnel Will Benefit All

The farmer to truck to Philadelphia and New York. The manufacturer to make quick deliveries and save freight. The commuter to save time to and from work. The autoist to eliminate ferry delays.

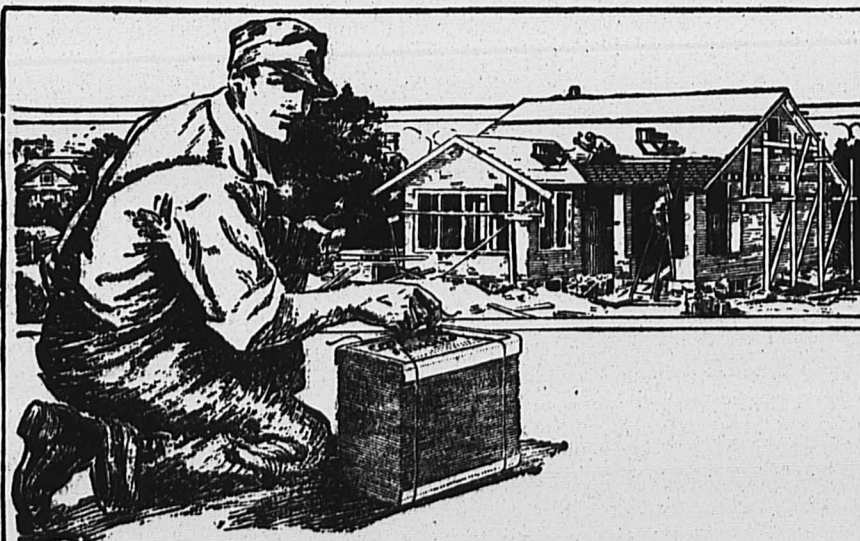

The Taxpayer Who Never Uses Bridge or Tunnel to make New Jersey a better State to live in by bringing more homes, more industries, more farms, and giving the State a new source of revenue.

To make the Penninsular of New Jersey part of the mainland in foul as well as fair weather

VOTE YES! on the Bridge and Tunnel Bond Referendum November 2nd

A Beautiful, Long-lived Roof—Certain-teed Shingles

Certain-teed Asphalt Shingles, in subdued reds or greens, add an attractive touch to the appearance of any home. Their surface does not wear off, wash off or change color and they do not crack or break.

In addition to their beauty, they provide weather protection and are, at the same time, fire-retarding and spark-proof. Their cost is low compared with other equally high grade types of roofing and they are guaranteed for ten years.

In addition to shingles, Certain-teed Roofing comes in rolls, mineral-surfaced red or green—much like the shingles in appearance—and also in the smooth surface staple gray kind.

Like all products bearing the Certain-teed label, Certain-teed Roofings are the highest quality.

See a Certain-teed dealer the next time you need roofing. He can help you select the best kind of roofing for your purposes and sell you what you need at a real saving in cost.
