LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 6

PAUL'S EXPERIENCES AT JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:18-34.

GOLDEN TEXT—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will we not fear him.—Ps. 46:1, 2 (a).

REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Tim. 3:16; 1 Cor. 13:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How Paul's Nephew Saved His Life.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Boy Tells of a Plot Against Paul.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul and His Enemies.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul Attacked by a Jewish Mob.

1. Paul's Arrest (21:18-40).

The immediate occasion of this was his effort to remove the prejudice which certain ones held against him. His reception by representatives of the church was most cordial. In order that all the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. They recognized that such an act would in no way compromise or involve the Gentile brethren. As to how far this act conciliated the Jews we are not told, but it only enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These maddened Jews, on the basis of a supposition, seized him and dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly, intending to put him to death. Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard, stationed nearby. Paul kept himself under control and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people. When he addressed him in Greek and quoted his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

2. His attitude toward Jesus (vv. 4, 5). "I persecuted this way unto the death"—it was one of hatred, as was that of the Jews.

3. How his attitude was changed (vv. 6-10). It was brought about by the intervention of God.

4. The Lord commissioned him to go to the Gentiles (vv. 17-21). It was not of his own will that he preached to the Gentiles, but by the Lord's direct commission.

11. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (22:1-37).

1. His claim for a rightful hearing (vv. 1-3). (1) His birth (v. 3). He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation. (2) His education (v. 3). He was educated in school under the tutelage of Gamaliel, and instructed "according to the perfect manner of the fathers" (v. 3). His zeal (v. 3). He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His attitude toward Jesus (vv. 4, 5). "I persecuted this way unto the death"—it was one of hatred, as was that of the Jews.

3. How his attitude was changed (vv. 6-10). It was brought about by the intervention of God.

4. The Lord commissioned him to go to the Gentiles (vv. 17-21). It was not of his own will that he preached to the Gentiles, but by the Lord's direct commission.

Election Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday will be election day. The polls open at six o'clock a. m. and close at seven p. m.

Do not let the fact that this is a so-called "off year" influence you in staying away from the polls. Every qualified voter should exercise his or her constitutional right of suffrage.

Stay-at-Homes a Menace

From the New York Times
"The man who can vote and who does not vote is an unworthy citizen. He ought to be made a criminal by law. He is a dangerous citizen. He weakens the City Government. He jeopardizes the high interest of the people. He undermines the foundation of democracy." These are not soft words. Yet they were not uttered impetuously or hastily or in anger. They are the measured words of that valiant but peace-preaching citizen, Dr. Charles E. Jefferson, written into a tract on "Political Duties." And they are made to apply to women as well.

Flag at Half Mast Armistice Day

Mr. Editor:
Would you object putting a line in this week's issue, reminding our citizens of Armistice Day, November 11, and that their flags should be at half mast from sunrise to sunset, and the flag should first be raised to top of pole and immediately to half-mast; also remind them that our flag should never touch the ground.

SUBSCRIBER.

Jane P. Rushmore to Speak on Limitation of Armaments

President Harding has requested communities and churches to hold special meetings on November 11th, the date of opening the conference on the Limitation of Armaments, to increase interest in the subject.

In accordance therewith a joint conference under care of both Friends Meetings, the Moravian Church and the Asbury Methodist Church will be held on Friday evening, November 11, at 8 o'clock, in the Friends Meeting House, Burlington Pike and Moorestown road.

The services will be shared by the representatives of the participating bodies.

Jane P. Rushmore will make the main address on "The Purpose and Hopes of the Conference."

The Danger of Walking in the Road

Last Wednesday evening a motorist narrowly escaped running down a pedestrian who was walking in the road between the bridge and Taylor's Lane. When another car is approaching with headlights burning brightly, it is almost impossible for the man in the car to see anyone afoot.

Pedestrians should use the sidewalks, or paths by the roadside wherever they exist. To encourage this, it is suggested that the township committee have the high weeds cut down along the sidewalk and the low filled in so that it is not full of mud puddles.

If a suitable place is not provided for people to walk they are very likely to take to the road, even at the risk of life and limb.

$14,000,000 Bond Explained

A meeting of The League of Women Voters of Riverton and Palmyra was held at four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon in the Porch Club for the purpose of hearing more about the $14,000,000 bond issue to be voted for or against next Tuesday.

Mrs. Meytrott, assistant director of Parole and Domestic Branch of the Department of Institutions and Agencies in the State, came well qualified to talk about the vital question, having spent years of active service in all branches of institutional work.

There is no doubt in the mind of anyone who listened to Mrs. Meytrott but that this bond issue should be voted "yes" for conditions in the State institutions are appalling.

Seventy per cent of the population of the State is above Treason, yet there is no institution above Morris Plains, where there are 2100 to be cared for, with accommodations for but 1600.

At Jamesburg there are 600 boys with chairs for only 300.

There are approximately 10,000 wards of the State, and from 8,000 to 10,000 more men and women and children need attention but cannot get it because of the inadequate facilities. There are no funds to construct new buildings nor to better equip the present ones.

In order to secure the proper type of people to care for the inmates of these institutions a competitive salary should be paid, and more funds are needed to make this possible. The bond issue will be for a thirty-year term and the carrying cost, including the sinking fund toward liquidating the debt will be approximately only $100,000 more per year than the present appropriation with nothing to show for it.

Porch Club

On Tuesday, November 8, at three o'clock, Mrs. Lucy E. Shreve will lecture at the Porch Club on "The Little Theatre Movement."

Cigarettes build up a boy's body about the way dynamite builds a house.

WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET
for Riverton and Vicinity

Buy It at Home!

J. D. Clark is on a three weeks' business trip through the South.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brown spent last weekend in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Charles G. Davis and son, Melvin, motored to Deerfield Sunday.

Miss Jean Klencklin spent Sunday at Bridgeton with Mrs. Seward C. Tremaine.

Miss Beatrice Richardson, of Atlantic City, has resigned as visiting nurse in Riverton.

A rummage sale was held in the gas office yesterday and today by the Golden Hour Circle.

The Christian Endeavor will give a Halloween social in the Presbyterian chapel this Friday evening.

The school children have had a holiday today, owing to teachers' institute being held at Mount Holly.

Miss Sophia A. Wychulas spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Goodenough, at Mount Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Royer and son, Elmer, Jr., spent last Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ogden Steedle.

Mrs. C. S. Mills fell white in Philadelphia on Wednesday and broke her leg. She was taken to Hahnemann hospital.

William Barr, Jr., was given a surprise party by a number of his friends at the home of his parents, "Locust Farm," on Thursday evening.

Chester M. Wells left on Thursday for a business trip West. He will spend the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Robert Wells, at Sewickley.

A musical service by the choir of Christ Church, Riverton, will be given on Sunday evening, November 6, preceded by a short organ recital.

Another $100 has been subscribed to the endowment fund of the Riverton Free Library. This makes $700 out of the $1000 on which the first offer of $100 was contributed.

How would a nice cabinet containing 250 sheets of paper and 250 envelopes, printed, do for a Christmas present? A very attractive selection may be seen at The New Era office.

The rummage sale at Browns' Mills for benefit of the County Tuberculosis League cleared $475.00. The management desires to thank all who in any way contributed to the success of the sale.

On Tuesday evening the regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the Porch Club. The class in millinery is in charge of Miss Rigby, of Camden, and Miss Grace Evald, of Palmyra, has charge of the dressmaking class.

George Morris, of Beverly, was arrested by Officer Quigley on Tuesday for being drunk. He was given a hearing before Squire Fichter. He told the judge a hard-luck story about a wife and six children at home, and got off with a reprimand. It would have been much more effective had George thought of the family before he spent his money in riotous living.

Hallowe'en was marked by a degree of disorder that has not been seen in Riverton for many years. While the depredations were not very serious, many fences were torn down, and other pranks indulged in that are considered out of date. The iron fence at the Misses Cook property was one of those torn down. While chasing the boys away from the Cook property Officer Miller stepped into the fence and fell, severely straining the ligaments in his right leg. He has been confined to his bed since.

On Saturday evening, November 20th, the Porch Club will give a dance at the Country Club to raise funds for the Riverton Free Library. Cards $2.00 per couple. The expenses of running the Library have steadily increased and if its work is not to be seriously curtailed it will be necessary to raise considerable more money than has been realized from subscriptions and occasional generous donations. Buy tickets for the dance. You will get double value for your money—you will have an enjoyable evening and at the same time assist a worthy institution.

Advertisement

The New Era has been asked to call attention to a back lot that is badly in need of cleaning up, but we don't like to do it. Why should we be the "goat" anyway? Of course, "the town paper ought to do it" and all that, but we hate like the dickens to go poking our nose (or should it be "nose" when the editorial "we" is used) into other people's business, but if the thing isn't attended to we suppose we will have to name the party right out in meeting, and probably get ourselves disliked. That's the worst of being an editor. Will our friend please fix up that lot and rescue us from a most unpleasant predicament?

Rummage Sale for the Cinnaminson Home

There will be a rummage sale for benefit of the Cinnaminson Home, held in the gas office, opposite the railroad station, Saturday, November 12th, from 10 until 5.

The office will be open Friday November 11th, from 10 until 4 to receive rummage. Phone Riverton 84-J if unable to deliver. Those living in Cinnaminson who desire to have their contribution called for may call Moorestown 268-R11.

Mrs. Charles Showell Dies of Appendicitis

Mrs. Charles Showell, who will be remembered as Miss Dorothy Brooks-bank, of Riverton, died in Cleveland, Ohio, this Friday morning of acute appendicitis. The burial will take place in Beverly on Monday, November 7, at 11:25 o'clock in Monument cemetery. The deceased is survived by her husband and one daughter, Dorothy.

Meaning of Dream of Eagle.

To see one foretells success in love and a fortune in commerce. To see one fly through the air at a furious pace denotes success in your present undertaking. To dream that you ride upon an eagle's back, your life is in danger. If an eagle lights upon your head it foretells death to a near relative or friend. To see a dead eagle signifies the death of some prominent person and the success of a poor man. To kill one denotes happiness of short duration. To see one carry off prey foretells loss by theft.

Among the invited guests were the commodore's brother, Frank B. Bower, former commodore of the Corinthian Yacht Club; former commodores of the Riverton Yacht Club, Harry H. Watkins, Jr.; R. M. Hollingshead and George W. Edwards; vice commodore Melvin Biddle; rear-commodore E. K. Merrill; secretary-treasurer C. B. Durbin; F. W. Robertson, D. L. Vaughan, Charles M. Biddle, Jr., G. Rex Showell, R. H. Stackhouse, William H. Baker, Jr., and Ross Elliott.

After a most enjoyable dinner Yacht Club affairs for the coming season were discussed and the new Commodore spoke in favor of the Club being active in all lines of sport. It was decided to bring all the big swimming events here again next season, to have several big inter-league trap shooting matches this winter, to foster sailing and put in a new fleet of sailing boats next summer. Three new boats were pledged to the club at the dinner.

Those present were appointed a committee with the commodore as chairman to go into the matter of securing more befitting quarters for the club. It is anticipated the Yacht Club is bound to become.

A series of races will take place between the Riverton and Corinthian Yacht Clubs this season. The new commodore is an old one time resident of Riverton.

Trapshooting Season Opens

On Saturday the Yacht Club will open the trapshooting season on its new grounds on the end of the Yacht Club pier. It was expected the opening would have occurred last Saturday, but the repairs necessary to putting the place in shape delayed the opening shoot for the week.

"Great Basin" Region.

What is known as the Great Basin of North America is an inland drainage in Western United States, situated between Wahatch mountains on the east and the Sierra Nevada and Cascade ranges on the west. It comprises most of Nevada and portions of Utah, Oregon, Idaho and California, and has a total area of about 210,000 square miles. The basin has a graded slope from the north, where the elevation is 4,000 feet above the sea, toward the south, forming a tilted plateau whose surface is broken by interrupted groups of mountains with a general north and south trend.

Russia, Past, Present and Future

Count Ilya Tolstoy gave a most interesting talk Tuesday evening of last week in the Porch Club on conditions in Russia.

He spoke of the soul of the Russian people, which he said was even more complicated than their language, and that the nineteenth century was the golden age for Russia. Since 1825 the Russians have been struggling for liberty. In 1861, the peasants were liberated from slavery—two years before the freeing of the slaves in America. In the seventies there was an intense struggle for liberty, and in 1905 Russia had its first constitution. 1917 brought the present revolution.

At the beginning of the twentieth century the music, arts, science and literature of the Russians could compete with all the countries of the world. The writers and musicians obtained their inspiration from the common people. Count Tolstoy said that great authors and musicians can only be born in an old country.

Russia has not been developed industrially, but is an agricultural country, with its richness in the land. In industrial pursuits it is very much behind all European countries and cannot be compared at all with America. The war of 1914 struck Russia in her weakest point. She fought about two years and lost ten million men. Count Tolstoy was with the army as a Russian Red Cross representative and told how they could not get supplies. There was one supply train a day and when it brought food it did not bring munitions. The soldiers were always short of guns and had to fight with shovels and their hands. He believes that Russia saved the whole situation, but lost more than she could afford.

The revolution of 1917 could not save Russia. It was born out of the sufferings of the soldiers and the people in the country. Bolshevism, he said, was civil war, destructive and not constructive. Its principle is communism; its ideal, great; its methods, criminal; its belief, no private ownership, everything nationalized. Its hope is to destroy capitalism and build up a new and beautiful edifice of communism. It arouses the lowest instincts of man—greed, hatred and enmity.

The increase in wages has been about one hundred thousand times; the decrease in labor from 600 to 3000 times. Before the revolution, the peasantry for the past half century, was struggling for land. Eighty-five per cent of the people are peasants and they were given the land which the rich owned. The Bolsheviks needed the wheat which the peasants raised, and offered them worthless money, which had no purchasing power. They refused to send the wheat, which was then nationalized, each family only being allowed to keep enough for their own needs. The result was that they would not plant more wheat than they needed for their own use, and now about seventy per cent of the land is idle. The present famine is caused by non-production. The incentive for work has been taken from the factory worker as well as the peasants. The population is dying out, having dropped from 130 million to 118 million in the last four years. Before the war the birth rate was the highest in the world.

Life in the cities is intolerable. There is no definite price for anything, but in general prices are about one hundred thousand times higher than under the old government, with many things that cannot be bought at any price.

The railroads are destroyed. There is one train a week now between Petrograd and Moscow, and it takes three or four days to make the trip.

Count Tolstoy said that he had a letter last week from his sister who is now living in the home of their father. She said last year the peasants helped them, but this year there is nothing except the few vegetables they raised in their own garden, and this winter they are quite likely to starve. He believed that if the sufferings of the people led to some good, they would be excusable, but there is no excuse as the Bolsheviks are not able to build communism. Now private ownership is again allowed, and concessions are being granted to foreign capital. The only difference between the old and new government is the name; the other things are becoming the same. He feels the Bolsheviks have cut in pieces the living body of Russia for experimentation, and now are trying to put the pieces together; and that history will never forgive them.

Count Tolstoy believes that Russia can and will soon return to normal conditions, as the souls of the peasantry and educated classes are alive. In Russia they recognize the aristocracy of mind, but not of money. The intellectuals are not business men. Business is considered something which you may do, but you don't talk about. America has been developed along business lines on account of the necessity to strive for existence and the survival of the fittest of the pioneer days. He says in Russia they will talk about science, music, etc., but never about business. He thinks that in America if a man does not obtain large sums of money his friends ask what is the matter with him—he has not enough money? While in Russia when a man gets much money his friends ask what is the matter with him—he has too much money.

There are more than two million intellectuals living in Europe and America, who are learning the newest methods of business and housekeeping, and soon the opportunity will come to return to Russia and work for its upbuilding, when he expects to see the United States of Russia with a democratic government.

Count Tolstoy is lecturing for benefit of the Russian Aid Society, of New York, and the audience present ed him with $32 and $32 more was made by the sale of books and pictures.

In conclusion the Count told a little of the teachings of his father, Leo Tolstoy, who until he was fifty was a writer only, then he became a philosopher. He died at the age of 82. As a writer he believes his father would soon be forgotten, but as a philosopher will live in the hearts of mankind forever. The crisis in his life was when he questioned himself concerning the existence of God. After investigating the Greek Orthodox Church and philosophy, he found his answer among the peasants, who each knows God—a living conscience which he carries within his own heart. Then his father wanted to know what was the will of God, and he found this answer in the New Testament in the teachings of Christ, which he believes are based upon love—not violence—and should be understood literally. His father applied these teachings in every phase of life, and believing it a crime to live the life of an idle gentleman, began to work on the land in the summer, and cobbler shoes in the winter, although people told him they would rather read his books than wear his shoes. Count Tolstoy says that love has four stages of development—first, selfishness; second, family love; third, patriotism; fourth, universal brotherhood. He believes that the League of Nations cannot save the world as it is based upon violence; that the only way to salvation is one great country of free individuals, when there will be a United States of the World.

Football

Riverton was again victorious last Saturday, winning from the Frankford Indians by the score of 21 to 0, in a good fast game which was played in the most sportsmanlike manner of any game that has been played in Riverton for a number of seasons. Many members of the Riverton team said after the game that the visiting eleven was the cleanest and fastest football team they ever played against.

The game was featured by the improved work of the Riverton backfield especially during the first quarter in which they tore through their opponents for two touchdowns, also the perfectly executed forward pass thrown by Arthur Coe and received by J. Hylton who made a spectacular run of 60 yards for a touchdown.

The line plunging of Baker and their short forward passes deserve mention for the visitors.

Raymond Fichter suffered a split collar bone and more than likely will be out of the game for the balance of the season.

Touchdowns—Wright, Hollingshead, J. Hylton. Goals from touchdowns—A. Coe 3. Time of periods—12 minutes. Referee—L. Keating. Umpire—T. Schneider. Timekeeper—J. Durgan.

This week Riverton will have as their opponents the strong Bolton Club, of West Philadelphia, and their manager assures us that he is going to bring a team up here to beat our local eleven, so don't fail to be on hand and see us try to disappoint their manager.

High School Football

Palmyra High School went to West Chester last Saturday and met the team of that place which proved to be somewhat out of their class, inasmuch as the husky Pennsylvanians outweighed the local eleven very considerably. The final score was 33-3, Palmyra's only points resulting from a difficult field goal kicked by Jean Mervine.

On Tuesday the situation was somewhat reversed when Bristol High School played here. The locals rolled up 26 points on the Pennsylvania invaders. Raphael made two touchdowns, Hubbs and Worth one each and Hoepfner kicked two goals.

Next week there will be two home games, Gloucester on Tuesday afternoon and Mount Holly on Friday afternoon.

Auxiliary Entertains Knights of Columbus

The Ladies' Auxiliary entertained the Knights of Columbus in Collins Hall Wednesday evening, after their regular meeting. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the program, which consisted of a recitation in costume and the song "Aint we got fun," by Andrew J. Pfaff, of Palmyra. Miss Mary E. Steedle sang a solo, "Dreams." The duet, "Just One Word of Consolation," and the solos, "Peggy O'Neill" and "There Is One Girl" were rendered by John Fallon, of Moorestown, and William Barr, Jr., of Camden. Two solos, "Forgotten" and "Gray Days" were sung by Charles Cusick, of Camden, accompanied by Miss Eleanor J. Connell, of Palmyra. Recitations were given by Mrs. George Porter, Joseph Dunn, of Palmyra, was violinist, while Jacob Stroheim, of Riverton, played the traps. Mrs. Dunn at the piano accompanied by Mr. Dunn on the violin also rendered several quadrille selections. After the completion of the musical program refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. The committees in charge are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

Delanco Wins Pennant

The first annual banquet of the Central Baseball League of Burlington County was held in the Masonic Temple, at Mount Holly, last Friday evening. Sheriff Flagg was toastmaster and Judge Wells was the principal speaker.

Manager Botter, of the Field Club, and other club managers also made addresses. The guests numbered 175. Delanco, winner of the League championship, was presented with the pennant with appropriate ceremony.

Among those present from Palmyra and Riverton were J. P. Warner, Norman Schriver, William Donaghy, Geo. W. Rogers, Herbert Kemmerle, James T. Weart, Clinton Gibbon, Russell Gibbon, Charles Davison, W. H. Davison, Andrew Pfaff, Robinson MacMullin, Joseph Stack, Edward Hoyt, Don Knowlton, Samuel Rogers, Edward Bennett, G. Sargeant, Larry Fells, John Saar, W. H. Botter, L. Taylor and Gus Feldman.

Phenomenal Growth of Building and Loan Association

There are comparatively few people who have interested themselves in Building and Loan Associations and have taken the time to investigate and learn of their methods of assisting people who are anxious to secure a home.

A few facts will enable the reader to see how very popular they have become in the State of New Jersey. A little more than ten years ago they were boasting of having seventy millions of assets. In many sections they have introduced new features and Associations have been multiplied until the present time. The annual State report shows for the year ending 1920 an enrollment of 426,000 members, carrying nearly four million shares; 96,000 members had borrowed money. There was paid in sixty-two millions for dues and interest in one year; 215 millions represented the equity of the shareholders for dues paid in on stock not yet matured. The gross assets have reached about 240 millions; over 71,000 new members were added in one year. Hundreds of homes are being secured each year. The above will give us some faint idea of the combined financial strength of these Associations in New Jersey.

The Cinnaminson Association is not the least of these great organizations. During its 43 years of continuous service many have been helped, homes have been secured and families made comfortable and happy.

At this time there are over one thousand shareholders, holding over eleven thousand shares of stock. Of this number 446½ shares will mature in March, which represents about $89,000. It will require about $50,000 in cash to mature these shares; the balance will be utilized for the liquidation of mortgages. The annual report, which has just been issued, shows that our assets have reached nearly three-quarter million of dollars.

The Association has opened the forty-fourth series, and over 1274 shares were issued the first week. There will still be opportunities for securing stock for four months at par. New members will be required to pay back to October when the new series started, and there is an entrance fee of 25c. per share charged the first month.

The next meeting will be held on the second Monday in November, at which time new stock will be issued to those who desire to subscribe, or applications may be made to the secretary, Joseph H. Smith, 211 Lippincott avenue.

Red Cross Report

The annual meeting of the Riverton Branch American Red Cross was held on Monday afternoon, October 17th, 1921, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Murray Boyer presiding. The secretary, Mrs. Charles F. Allen, said that the society still intends to be active in emergencies and to help wherever assistance is needed. During the past year the girls of the Y. W. C. A. made twelve layettes for the Visiting Nurse. The girls furnished half of the money needed to purchase materials, the Red Cross giving a check for the remainder. The loan closet was built in the nurse's home last spring to hold the loan supply of linens. Our society co-operated with Palmyra in filling the same.

Mrs. Ginther reported for the knitters that the only work done was in finishing up wool on hand. During the year the following articles were made: 25 pairs children's stockings, 14 pairs bed socks, 2 sweaters. The stockings were sent to the American Red Cross Bureau of supplies in New York, and six pairs bed socks given to the District Nurse for the supply closet. There were on hand 8 pair bed socks, 2 finished and 1 unfinished sweater. Upon motion it was ordered these be given to the Needlework Guild.

It was voted that the Visiting Nurse Committee be given a check for $100 from our treasury to help carry on their work this winter.

A letter was read from headquarters asking that the officers and five other delegates be sent to the Chapter meeting luncheon to be held in Burlington on Thursday, October 27.

The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: chairman, Mrs. Alex. Margy; vice chairman, Mrs. Datis Reed; secretary, Miss Helen Wood; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Ellsworth.

Carelessness

"I am not much of a mathematician," says Carelessness, "but I can add to your troubles, I can subtract from your earnings, I can multiply your aches and pains, I can take interest from your work and discount your chances for safety. Besides this I can divide your thoughts between business and pleasure and be a potent factor in your failures. Even if I am with you only a small fraction of your time, I can lessen your chances for success."—The Kansas Official.

President's Address Will Be Heard from Ocean to Ocean

The largest audience that ever listened to one voice will hear the address of President Harding over the body of the unknown American soldier at Arlington National Cemetery on Armistice Day, for in addition to the distinguished gathering in front of him, there will be throngs in New York, Chicago and San Francisco who will be able to hear every word.

This is to be accomplished by means of Bell Loud Speakers connected with a transcontinental telephone circuit. Not only will the several audiences be able to hear President Harding and the representatives of the allied governments including Marshal Foch, but the music of the "Star-Spangled Banner," played by the Marine Band, also will be carried across the continent.

Storm Sewer Started

The actual laying of pipes in the construction of Palmyra's sewer and drainage system began on Wednesday when the Kelly Construction Company, of Camden, put a force of twenty men and a steam shovel to work below Fourth and Morgan.

The big 30-inch pipes of the Morgan avenue drain are being laid first. It is expected that this work will take about two months, provided the weather holds out. The drain is to extend from below Fourth street to Broad street south of the railroad from which point 20-inch pipes will be extended eastward as far as Lincoln avenue.

There will be openings for storm water at Fourth and Fifth streets, Highland, Morgan, Washington and Lincoln avenues. The main object of the drain is to relieve the flooded condition along Broad street that has occurred during every big rain for the last several years.

The work on the sanitary sewer is to be started within a short time. This is to be composed of 8-inch pipes for the most part, with smaller pipes putting out in front of each property for the house connections. A big Austin digger will arrive in a few days to dig the trenches for this work.

About sixty men are to be employed when the work starts in full blast and all except the specially trained men are to be recruited in Palmyra.

A year's time will be needed to complete the operation. Remington and Vosbury, township engineers, are overseeing the work.

Must Make Deposit to Open County Roads

At the regular weekly meeting of the Board of Freeholders held on Friday, an important resolution was adopted to the effect that: Any person desiring to open any of the improved roads in the county of Burlington must make written application to the Board of Freeholders of the county of Burlington, and when said application is received that it be referred to the director of roads, the supervisor of roads and the county engineer, who shall make an investigation at the expense of the applicant, and if the director of roads, the supervisor of roads and the county engineer approve said opening that the applicant shall deposit such sum as the engineer deems sufficient to open said road and place it in repair the same as before the opening, and in such case the opening be under the supervision of the county engineer, who shall repair said road and apply the deposit for repairing said road.

A resolution was adopted authorizing that a portion of the county farm at New Lisbon be set apart for use of the tuberculosis sanatorium there. The section comprises about fourteen acres.

Crusts with a cheerful companion give keener pleasure than "soup to nuts" seasoned with discord.

Arbitration and Disarmament

The conference on the limitation of armament, which will convene in Washington, November 11, recalls some words of Abdul Baha in 1911 to C. C. Phillips, the secretary of the Mohawk Conference on International Arbitration. Among other things he said:

"About fifty years ago Baha'Ullah commanded the people to establish the universal peace and summoned all the nations to the divine banquet of international arbitration, so that the questions of boundaries, of national honor and property, and of vital interests between nations might be decided by an arbitral court of justice; and that no nation would dare to refuse to abide by their decisions. If any quarrel arise between two nations it must be adjudicated by this international court and be arbitrated and decided upon like the judgment rendered by the judge between individuals. If at any time any nation dares to break such a treaty all the other nations must arise to put down this rebellion."

Following are some extracts from a conversation when Abdul Baha was asked his opinion concerning disarmament:

"By a general agreement all the governments of the world must disarm simultaneously. It will not do if one lays down the arms and the other refuses to do so. The nations of the world must concur with each other concerning this supremely important subject, thus they may abandon together the deadly weapons of human slaughter. As long as one nation increases her military and naval budget, another nation will be forced into this crazed competition through her natural and supposed interests."

Mrs. Maria G. McCullough

Mrs. Maria G. McCullough died in her seventieth year at the McKisley hospital at Trenton last Friday, October 28. The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elias Toy, on Cinnaminson avenue, Monday with interment at Fernwood cemetery, Philadelphia, Frank A. Snover, director. The deceased was a member of the Eastern Star.

Republicans to Tour Burlington County

Burlington county Republicans will join in a big automobile tour of the county on Monday next, the day before election. The County Committee has the annual parade in charge and it is expected that upward of a hundred cars will be in line, all gaily decorated with small flags and filled with enthusiastic Republicans, showing that the party is up and doing, even though this is termed by many as an "off year" in politics.

It is announced that United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen is expected to get away from his duties at Washington long enough to accompany the party on its round of the county and that former Governor William N. Runyon will be on hand to speak to the waiting audiences at the various stopping places. Other speakers will include State Treasurer William T. Read, Congressman Bacharach, Mrs. Lillian Feickert, President of the New Jersey Women's Republican Club, and the county candidates. Two bands will be taken along.

The start will be made from in front of the Court House, Mount Holly, at eight o'clock a. m. Luncheon will be served to the party at noon in Moose Hall, Riverside. Everybody, irrespective of party, is cordially invited to participate in the tour. The following itinerary is announced:

Jersey Farmers Benefit by New Freight Rates

Reductions in freight rates effective November 1st, include several schedules that New Jersey farmers declare will prove a stimulus to agricultural interests in this State. Of big importance to the farmers at this season is a 25 per cent reduction of transportation costs on manure, ground limestone and soda products, the latter being extensively used in commercial fertilizers, and dealers predict that as a result of the new rate hundreds of carloads of these supplies will start moving toward the farms within the next few days.

Other items on the list of reductions, which especially interest farmers in this State include all fruit and vegetable classifications. This will mean, agricultural officials say, bigger markets for farm products through a lowering of prices to consumers. Another reduction of importance to consumers and indirectly to the growers, covers all canned goods. Hundreds of carloads of canned Jersey fruits and vegetables are now awaiting shipment from plants in this State.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodruff, of Chicago, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kennedy, of Washington avenue, Wednesday. Mr. Woodruff is Mr. Kennedy's cousin.

Overseer of Roads and Streets Land has just completed the work of resurfacing Pennsylvania avenue to the end with cinders, having graded and otherwise improved the street.

The Masonic Association held a meeting Wednesday evening, and talked over plans for the new Masonic temple that is to be erected on their lot at Broad and Maple next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Purnell and William F. Morgan, who spent the month of October at Atlantic City, returned home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buck were their guests at the shore last week.

Grading of the ferry approach at Bank avenue was halted this week by Overseer of Roads Land in instructions from Township Chairman Davies, pending the fixing of a grade by the township engineer.

St. Agnes Guild of Christ Church, Palmyra, will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the parish house. The Halloween party given by St. Agnes Guild last Friday evening proved a great success, 100 guests attending.

A contract was awarded to George W. Shiner and Sons for the erection of a new brick garage for the Palmyra Motor Company. Plans and specifications were prepared by Herbert O. Ziegler, architect, of Riverside.

Thirty Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Lutz and Field Secretary A. W. King enjoyed a hike Tuesday evening, a feature of which was a doggie and marshmallow race at the Hyton sand banks. The boys were taught how to build a fire with wet wood.

The Ladies of the Eastern Star gave a masked dance last Saturday night for their husbands and friends. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Howard Alloway, Mrs. D. M. Clifton, Mrs. George W. Corneal and Mrs. Horace Houser. An attractive Halloween luncheon was served.

J. Edwin Lees, of Washington avenue, president of the Boosters' Club, will enter the American Stomach hospital on Saturday for treatment. Mr. Lees has had several serious attacks of illness of late and it is the hope of his many friends that he may return with improved health.

A gold watch, which was highly prized as a keepsake, was lost by a Bristol boy at the high school football game Tuesday, and it would be much appreciated if the finder would report the same to Professor Griffith at the high school. The watch bore the initials "M.G.H."

A masquerade party was given Saturday evening at the home of Louis Krauss, on Highland avenue. Many splendid costumes were worn by the guests and a prize was awarded C. B. Greenough as the best interpretation of a "vamp." Dancing and games were the order of the evening. Covers were laid for thirty-five.

Election Next Tuesday
The regular Republican ticket is expected to win throughout the county without difficulty and the only local contest is for Township Committee.

The question of increasing the pay of the Township Committee from $250 a year is also to be voted upon.

Physicians May Now Prescribe Wine and Beer
Under a ruling by the Secretary of the Treasury promulgated on Monday, beer and wine may now be prescribed by licensed physicians for medicinal purposes. Not more than two quarts of wine or two and a half gallons of intoxicating malt liquor is to be taken internally and for the use of the same person. The regulations place no restrictions on the frequency of the issuance of such prescriptions calling for beverages of the classes mentioned. The new regulations include the existing restrictions for spirituous liquor, that is not more than a pint may be prescribed for the use of the same person within any period of ten days or by one or more physicians.

Foot Ball
This Saturday, the Big Red team of Palmyra meets their old rivals of the gridiron, the Big Green team of Riverside.

Those Palmyrians who witnessed last Saturday's game with the Hobart aggregation know that this fair old burg has a football team to be proud of. The score was 7-6, in favor of Hobart, when the game was called four minutes before time was up, and it certainly looked as if Palmyra would have added another touchdown if darkness had not interfered.

The home boys had the ball on Hobart's 30-yard line and were running time to form when the whistle blew, ending hostilities. Our old friend, Russell Blackburne, was referee.

WORK ON BRIDGE

the entire floor space of the five rooms. When this excavation is extended under the side walls, or practically when the earth under the side walls is loosened by picks, and the support of the walls is undermined and the whole box will settle. If it settles out of level, too much at one side, then the workmen can bring the box to a level position by stopping work on the low side and continuing to dig under the high side. If the friction between the outside of the box and the sides of the excavation becomes too great for the weight of the box to overcome, then the box must be weighted.

Reinforced Roof
The weight required to continually force the box down into the excavation is conveniently and economically secured by the construction of the masonry pier directly on top of the box. As the lower part of our imaginary pier may best be composed of concrete, it is evidently necessary to reinforce the roof so it will safely carry the weight of the soft concrete and also to build a strong exterior wall or form to shape and support the concrete and incidentally to arrange so that the holes through the roof are not closed by the concrete. These requirements are met by a structure placed on top of the working chamber (or box), which in the language used by the workmen, is known as the crib.

The crib includes four exterior walls of heavy timbers forming the sides and ends within of which the concrete will be placed, connected to the roof and to each other by four longitudinal trusses, much like old fashioned timber bridge trusses, running the full length of the pier, and twelve short trusses running across the pier (serving to stiffen the roof), and also there should be many cross timbers connecting the side walls and many longitudinal timbers connecting the end walls, all tending to stiffen the outside walls and the roof.

Entering the Lock
If the lower door is closed, men can first enter the lock from the outside through the upper door; secondly, close the upper door, and, thirdly, open a small valve admitting compressed air until the pressure in the lock equals the pressure in the working chambers; fourthly, open the door and finally pass through the lower door and the shaft into the working chamber. At no time has there been a direct open passageway for the movement of air between the working chamber and the outside atmosphere. Men leaving the working chamber go through the lower door into the lock (the upper door being closed); secondly, close the lower door; thirdly, allow the compressed air in the lock between the two doors to escape until the pressure in the lock equals the outside or atmospheric pressure, and finally, when the pressure inside the lock is equalized to the outer pressure, they open the upper door and are free to climb out of the lock into the natural atmosphere. Again there has been no time at which there was a direct passageway for the compressed air to escape from the working chamber. The operation of the lock specially arranged for passing the excavating tubs is the same in theory, but in the type of excavating lock generally used (known as the Moran lock), the upper door or doors close tightly around the wire rope which carries the tub for excavated material. The operation is as follows:

The lower door being closed, the tub is lowered into the lock, the upper doors are closed around the rope (the tub being held in suspension by the rope), the lock is then filled with compressed air until the pressure equals that in the working chamber, when the lower door can be opened and the tub lowered into the working chamber to be filled by the workmen. When filled the tub is hoisted into the lock, the lower door closed, the air pressure of the lock reduced to atmospheric pressure, permitting the upper door to open and the hoisting of the tub out of the lock. When the bottom of the wall of the working chamber is only a few feet below water level the air pressure need be only sufficient to balance the slight water pressure. As the depth increases, the air pressure increases correspondingly. For each foot of depth below the surface of the water the air pressure must be increased approximately four-ninths of one pound per square inch, equivalent to the weight of a cubic foot of water on each square foot of area, or for fresh water say sixty-two and one-half pounds per square foot. In other words, the total pressure exerted by the air must equal the weight of the water displaced by the descending pier. With the proper air pressure in the working chamber, the water is driven out of the soil being excavated and the men work in dry or nearly dry sand, gravel or clay, as the case may be.

Leveling the Surface
When rock is reached the surface is leveled or beached so as to afford a support for the pier. Any rotten rock is removed by blasting, if necessary. Finally, the entire space in the working chamber and shaft openings has to be filled with concrete up to the under side of the roof, so as to complete a masonry pier of solid concrete and masonry from bedrock to and above the surface of the river.

New Files Filed.
A fly cannot directly eat solids, but must first excrete a drop of salivary liquid to dissolve the sugar or other substances it may desire to eat. This salivary liquid passes out through the split tubes and is drawn back through them with the food in solution. At the base of the pad near where it joins the upright stem, are several rows of horny teeth. These teeth scratch up the particles of a solid like sugar, and the saliva exuded through the tongue dissolves them, and the sweetened liquid is drawn back.

Language of Jars in China.
In some parts of China jars are placed on the roof of houses as matrimonial advertisements. A jar turned upside down means that the daughter of the house is too young to marry. A jar laid with its mouth to the street indicates that the maiden is of age. When the girl is married the jar is removed.

Pinochle Smoker Big Success
The pinochle smoker which was held last Friday evening in the Post Rooms was a big success, not financially, as we only cleared our expenses by 46 cents, but as we published once before the idea of giving these smokers was not to be for a source of income, but to give the men in the town a night's fun, and I feel safe in saying that all of those who attended, some 60 men, enjoyed the fried oysters, potato salad, rolls, coffee, cigars, cigarettes and the evening's fun. We look for even a bigger crowd next time.

Frederick M. Rodgers Post has not made any special arrangements for Armistice Day because it seems to be the attitude of the Legion through-out the State to make Decoration Day the day for the celebration. However, the Burlington county entertainment will be held in Burlington on November 11th.

Tickets for the show will be out in the near future.
I thank you all.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Some County Census Statistics
According to the census figures for 1920, just made public by the Census Bureau at Washington, there were 21 Indians in Burlington county, nearly twice as many as in any other county in New Jersey. The Chinese, which is less than in 1910, and 3 Japanese. The population of the county is placed at 81,770, of which 43,595 were males and 38,175 females. The percentage of native-born population for the county was 95.1, of which 11, and of Negroes 5.5. The number of illiterates in the county is stated to be 3,596, and the percentage of the illiterates is proportionate to the total population 5.4. This is an improvement of 3-10ths per cent over the census report of 1910. The dwellings in Burlington county number 17,618 and the families 15,938, an average of a little less than four persons to a family. There were 12,754 pupils between the ages of 7 and 20 years attending school.

Community's Archives

"Can you tell me the date the Baptist church burned—I mean, of course, the famous fire that all the old inhabitants talk about?"

The librarian looked up from her work. "No, I can't tell you the exact date, but I think I can find it for you quickly, for we have the files of the local paper since it was started. My impression is that the fire—the big fire, as they call it—was about 1873, and it won't be a very long job to look it up."

She went to the stacks in the rear of the library, pulled out a dusty bound volume marked "Herald, 1873," and spread it open on the table. "Ah, here it is," she said, after a minute spent in turning over the yellow leaves.

The person who had inquired for the date, a member of the woman's club of the town, sat down and read the article. "This gives me exactly the information I wanted," she said.

"I thought it would," said the librarian. "I fear most people do not appreciate how valuable is the local newspaper from the viewpoint of local history. In fact, it seems to me that it is about our only source. Only when an event gets into print is it officially recorded and filed for reference. Finally as it is, the printed word of today is the counterpart of the ancient stone inscriptions that give us records of a long ago yesterday. I consider the bound volumes of our local papers perhaps the most valuable possession of this library."

There's at least one librarian who is giving. "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week," which will be observed November 7-12, the most hearty backing she can give.

A Community Servant.

The local newspaper is the servant of the community in which it is published, but to be a good and efficient servant it must be fed by the people it serves. It is an institution of the town quite as much as are the schools and the churches, and quite as much entitled to support.

Random Observations.
This isn't a country publisher talking, but the editor of a farm paper. The metropolitan daily will bring to me a doerpest news of the world seen through the spectacles of the city editor, but it is the editor who lives in the heart of the community who is able to reflect the sentiment of the local group. He alone is the true interpreter of events as they affect the small town and the farming community that immediately surrounds the town.

JAMES H. HARTLEY
or
WILBUR F. CRANE

The townspeople are now confronted with an important question which they will decide upon next Tuesday, at the polls.

If one of our family had Diphtheria where would you buy your Antitoxin and other medicines which your doctor would prescribe? He would insist upon the Antitoxin being fresh—that's where we shine, likewise all our other drugs are fresh. You probably would wisely choose us as your drugist.

Our CITRATE OF MAGNESIA is PREPARED FRESH DAILY and we sell it at the old pre-war price of 25c, including the bottle.

CRANES' ICE CREAM is better than ever. We have two new flavors for this month—BANANA and COFFEE NUT. Same price as the other flavors, 45c a quart.

We get OUR WHITMAN'S CHOCOLATES fresh from their factory every week. Try their wonderful Chocolates in the Plain Package at $1.65. We are as near to you as your Telephone. We deliver ANYTHING. ANYWHERE. ANYTIME Free. Call Riverton 171.

We sell the Genuine MASTIN'S YEAST (sold under the TABLET). We are particular about our stock being fresh, as yeast deteriorates with age and the tablets should be fresh in order to be active. Our entire stock is new and consequently priced and sold at the NEW (low) PRICES.

Historic Dead Sea.
The Dead Sea, a lake in Asiatic Turkey and lying near the southern extremity of Palestine, probably got its name because its atmosphere was formerly supposed to be fatal to life—an erroneous idea, for the people who live on its banks are said to be in the enjoyment of good health. But fish cannot live in its waters, which are especially nauseating. The Jordan and six other rivers flow into the Dead Sea, which has no outlet, but gets rid of its surplus by evaporation. In the Bible this baneful body of water is called the Salt Sea, of the Plains and Sea of the Arabs.

Severe but Effective.

The Miami Herald says that in some parts of Tibet they are using a device at the wedding feast. That's certainly a severe but effective way of getting rid of the mother-in-law difficulty.

Take the Guess out of your "Gas" Tank

IN cold weather or hot you know just what your motor will do on a diet of "Standard" Motor Gasoline. You don't have to wonder whether she'll start promptly. You know she will. There's no guesswork about how far you can go on five gallons.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline doesn't just happen to be good. Scientific selection of crude oils, perfected refining processes, and tests throughout every manufacturing stage produce the uniformity and excellence of every gallon of "Standard" Motor Gasoline.

In every property that affects motor operation—volatility at low temperatures, freedom from corrosive acids, cleanliness and burning qualities—"Standard" Motor Gasoline is an improved gasoline, a balanced motor fuel that assures the utmost economy and efficiency.

Drive in where you see the familiar "S. O." sign. Get a tankful of "Standard" Motor Gasoline to-day. Notice how quickly your car starts, how easily she takes hard hills. Measure your mileage. You'll soon take the guess out of motoring and cut the costs down.

P. S.—Good oil is fully as important as good gasoline. You can save repair bills by using POLARINE.

It is a known fact that diseases have been traced back to the unsanitary condition of floors, where germs found an unrestricted field to breed and to spread out their black menace against human health. For your own sake and for the sake of the health of your community, don't let the small cost of floor installation or repair hinder you from doing your share towards

HUMANITY.

We shall help to co-operate with you by offering first class quality of material, modern workmanship and excellent service at surprisingly low figures.

The First Mahogany Table

Sir Walter Raleigh, returning from the Spanish Main in 1597, entertained Queen Elizabeth aboard his ship. The Queen exclaimed upon the rich beauty of the wood with which the ship's deck had been repaired. Sir Walter explained that it was "Mahogany."

After the Queen had retired, he caused the Ship's Carpenter to tear out the timbers and from them construct a table which he presented to the delighted Queen. This was the first piece of furniture made of Mahogany—a gift to a Queen!—Mahogany Association.

Our method of finishing Mahogany or other Woods of which Furniture is made insures the preservation of the natural beauty of the wood and a surface of great durability—it is not damaged by sun or water

Election Very Quiet

Tuesday's election was very quiet as contrasted with the sharp fight on primary day. There was no excitement of any kind. There were 642 votes polled in the three districts.

The $14,000,000 bond issue, which lost out in the State, received 280 votes for, and 116 against in Riverton.

From the latest returns available before going to press it appears that the Democrats gained fifteen seats in the Assembly and one in the Senate. The new Assembly will have forty-four Republicans and sixteen Democrats; the Senate sixteen Republicans and five Democrats.

Mrs. Jennie C. Van Ness, author of the stringent State prohibition enforcement measure, which was the principal Democratic issue in the campaign, was defeated for re-election.

The Legislature being Republican on joint ballot assured the re-election of Colonel William T. Read, of Camden, as State treasurer.

Senatorial candidate Emmor Roberts, Assemblyman candidate Clifford R. Powell, surrogate candidate Micajah E. Matlack, Freeholder candidates Fred Lippincott and Howard Russ and Coroner candidates J. Elden Ridgway and Richard A. Glover were all elected with big majorities.

The tabulated summary of the vote in Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson township will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Riverton 14—Bolton A. A. 0

At the start of the game last Saturday it looked as though Riverton was going to have an easy time in defeating their opponents, but the Bolton team always managed to stiffen up their defense as Riverton would threaten to score, and up until the last quarter they repeatedly held off boys for downs when we had the ball inside their 20-yard line, but as the end of the game drew near, the Riverton team seemed to realize that they had to get going and keep going if they wanted to win, which they did, and after a series of off tackles, plays, S. Hylton carried the ball over for the first touchdown. D. Hylton kicking the goal. After the kickoff, Riverton again used the same tactics, and after repeated gains by Holvick, Hylton and Hollingshead, Hollingshead carried the ball across for the second score. D. Hylton again kicking the goal. While all the members of the Riverton team played creditable football, special mention should be made of the playing of Holvick, J. Hylton, J. Wallace and Hollingshead, while the visitors, Grogan, Powell and Wells featured.

Have You a Heart—And a Dollar?

The annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will be held November 11 to 24. Representatives of the local branch will call at every house during the coming week. The Riverton organization has been retained intact and is ready for any emergency. It extends assistance to ex-service men and others in distress, and is assisting the Visiting Nurse Committee. Such work is being done all over the United States, and in Europe the Red Cross is continuing the relief and reconstruction work which it did during the war.

Of every dollar contributed 25 cents comes back to the local branch, 50 cents goes to the County Red Cross and 25 cents to the National headquarters.

Have your dollar ready when the solicitor calls.

Riverton has a proud record in Red Cross work to maintain, and your help is needed.

Last Saturday evening, Joseph Kern, formerly of Linden avenue, was pleasantly surprised by his relatives and friends at his home in Riverside, in honor of his seventieth birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent by those present.

N. J. DEMOCRATS LOSE WET ISSUE

Republicans Retain Control of Legislature, With Large Majority in Assembly.

MRS. VAN NESS DEFEATED

Author of Prohibition Act Sinks in Essex—Senate Remains Republican. Liquor Issue Clearly Defined, With O. P. Taking the Dry Side.

Trenton.—Election returns indicated a Republican victory in New Jersey by majorities greatly reduced from those in the landslide of a year ago. This was due in part to an unusually light vote in most of the counties, indicating a lack of interest, traceable to the fact that the legislative ticket alone was to be voted for, except where purely local offices were to be filled.

With the wet and dry issue clearly defined, the Democratic candidates supporting the wet side, a strong Democratic drift was evident in early returns from Essex county, New Jersey.

Returns in Newark

In Newark 210 out of 225 election districts gave the Democratic ticket a total of 23,545 against 18,240 for the Republicans, while 58 out of 108 districts in the county outside of Newark gave the Republicans 6,627 and the Democrats 8,620. The Republican leaders admitted that the Democrats had carried the city of Newark, but they declared that if the proportion of votes in the county keeps up the same as in the early returns they will elect their county ticket.

Mrs. Jennie C. Van Ness, running for re-election as a member of the assembly, was about 4,000 behind the rest of the Republican ticket and her defeat was indicated. Mrs. Van Ness was the sponsor of the New Jersey prohibition enforcement law, and the liberal Republicans apparently scratched her and voted for her Democratic opponent, Mrs. Margaret B. Laird, another Republican member of the assembly from Essex who voted for the bill, but not so far behind as Mrs. Van Ness. The vets seem also to have beaten George S. Hobart, who supported the bill.

In Hudson county, with one-third of the votes reported by midnight, the Democratic majority on the vote for assembly was estimated at 55,000. This margin held also for freeholders, coroner and surrogate. Jersey City voted 2 to 1 in favor of a municipal gas and electric light plant. Mrs. Catherine Brown of Jersey City was elected to the assembly and is the first woman Democratic assemblyman in the county.

Of the seven state senators elected, four were apparently Republicans and three Democrats. Of the fourteen holdover senators, eleven are Republicans and three Democrats, giving the Republicans an apparent majority of fifteen to six in the new senate. The senators elected are: Burlington, Emmor Roberts, Republican; Cape May, William H. Bright, Republican; Gloucester, Horace N. Forder, Republican; Hunterdon, David H. Agans, Democrat; Middlesex, Fred W. Devoe, Democrat; Passaic, Albin Smith, Republican; Sussex, Henry T. Kays, Democrat.

The closest senate contests were in Cape May, where Senator Bright was pitted against Maj. E. O. Howell, Jr., an overseas veteran, and in Hunterdon and Middlesex.

Republican control of the next assembly seemed certain from the earlier returns, depending upon the doubtful result in Essex county, where the "wet" Democrats, particularly in Newark, were supported by thousands of Republicans. Outside of Newark, however, the tables were partly turned, the "dry" Republicans receiving a measure Democratic support.

How House Will Stand

Should final returns show a Republican victory in Essex the house will stand approximately Republican 45, Democrat 15. With Essex Democratic the indicated result is Republicans 33, Democrats 27. In either event the Republicans will have a majority.

Peculiar Accident

Jean Mervine, one of the high school foot ball stars and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Mervine, 509 Lecony avenue, was badly injured Saturday evening in a peculiar automobile accident. He was attending a dance given at the high school and wished to go uptown to get a violin string. Byron Lewis offered to take him in his car, which was parked facing the building. Mervine cranked the engine, which turned out to be in gear. The car started forward and pinned him to the wall, a front spring catching the calf of his leg. The muscles were virtually torn from the bone. Mervine was taken to a hospital where the injury is being given the best of care and it is hoped that no permanent injury will result.

Train Strikes Milk Truck

The dangerous Morgan avenue crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad was the scene of a serious accident Saturday evening when the 5:25 train for Camden struck Ezra Carhart's milk truck.

Mr. Carhart suffered a badly broken arm and both he and his 17-year-old son, Aloysius, were terribly cut about the face and head by glass from the windshield. A lad named Slater was riding on the running board, but jumped in time to escape injury.

Mr. Carhart and his son started to drive across the tracks while another train was standing at the station headed east and apparently gave all their attention to that train and failed to see the westbound train bearing down upon them.

The train struck the rear half of the truck and hurled it violently against the signal post at the side of the tracks. The two occupants were hurled out through the wreckage and their escape from death seemed miraculous. The signal post was broken off.

Mr. Carhart and his son were taken to a doctor as quickly as one could be found. The elder man was removed to a hospital yesterday so that measures could be taken to save him the use of his arm which was badly splintered.

Chamber of Commerce to Entertain Boosters' Club

Despite the excitement of election night the Chamber of Commerce held an interesting and well attended session Tuesday evening.

Plans were laid for the December meeting on Tuesday evening, the 13th, at which time the Chamber will entertain the Boosters' Club with a little feed and at the same time the two organizations will discuss matters in which both organizations are interested.

The Chamber brought up the building code matter again and urged that its passage by the township committee be expedited.

The fire protection committee, through its chairman, Mr. Snover, reported on an investigation of proposed pumping apparatus. A small 300-gallon pump to be attached to the present firetruck can be bought for between $1250 and $2000, but experts advise against such a machine as insufficient. A big truck and pumping apparatus combined such as Riverton is planning to get would cost $10,000 to $12,000. Mr. Snover said insurance officials are now making a general survey of the fire protection needs of various towns and suggested delaying action until this is completed.

Al Hendricks told of how other towns cooperated with their fire companies and made them leading organizations of the municipalities. He urged that every man in Palmyra get back of Independence Company No. 1, and help it become what the firemen want it to be.

A movement was also started to get in touch with the local committee which has been working on the ambulance proposition and to offer the Chamber's cooperation in this matter. It was pointed out that there had been two accidents in a day last Saturday where an ambulance was needed.

A committee to call upon Ezra Carhart, a member of the Chamber who was hurt in Saturday's accident, was appointed as follows: A. S. King, F. W. Frei and George W. Rogers.

The following new members were elected: George L. Anderson, Frank L. Durgin, Alfred E. Fowler and Frank N. Johnson.

P. H. S. Football

Palmyra High School won another big victory Tuesday when it defeated the strong Gloucester High School football team by the score of 12 to 2. Worth and Hubbs both made touchdowns. Worth's line plunging and Hecton's defensive work were features of the game.

This Friday afternoon the boys play Mount Holly on the home grounds, while next Tuesday another big game with Burlington in the K. G. E. cup contest will be staged at the Field Club park.

The Democrats will have between seventeen and twenty of the seats in the assembly, and the remainder of the sixty places will be filled by Republicans.

Four of the seven seats in the senate will be filled by Republicans, giving the Republicans fifteen seats out of twenty-one. In the joint ballot of the two houses these safe majorities will prevent the Democrats from carrying their programs into effect.

Newark went Democratic by 7,200, with 210 out of 225 districts counted, but the Republican vote in the other cities and towns in the county gave early indications of wiping out this lead and handing the delegation over to the Republicans. Fifty-six out of 158 districts gave a Republican plurality of about 8,000 votes.

Jersey City's heavy Democratic vote turned over the Hudson county delegation of twelve members to the Democratic party, and there was no possibility of change from the early returns.

Eight women were seeking seats in the legislature on the tickets of both parties in New Jersey.

Ready to Finish Pike

Appearing before the State Highway Commission John J. Albertson, county engineer of Camden, and Charles T. Wise, chairman of the Road Committee of the Camden Freeholders, stated that the county is prepared to carry out the suggestion of Governor Edwards to finance construction of uncompleted sections of the State highway system within their territorial limits, subject to reimbursement by the State when funds become available.

The particular work which Camden county is willing to undertake on the reconstruction of about 12 miles of the White House pike, between the Camden city limits and Berlin, at an estimated cost of $705,000. This is part of the route between Camden and Atlantic City, one of the most frequently traveled highways in the State. It is necessary, the Camden representatives told the commission, that the county bear the expense of maintaining adequate detours during the work of construction.

No action will be taken by the commission until the completion of a series of hearings at which all the counties will be invited to outline their program of road construction.

Locked Up on Sewage

Failure of the city of Hackensack to comply with orders of the State Department of Health requiring the erection of a municipal sewage disposal plant has been due to financial problems; Mayor Baldwin told members of the State Board of Health. Appearance of Mayor Baldwin before the board was in response to a notice requiring the municipality to explain why the plans for the disposal plant, which had been approved by the board, had not been carried out. The lowest proposal received by the municipality, Mayor Baldwin said, was $1,250,000, or $400,000 in excess of the maximum amount for which Hackensack can be bonded. Mayor Baldwin was authorized by the board to formally apply for a brief extension of time within which to start work.

Failure of Trenton to comply with an order of the board, issued about five years ago, to erect a sewage disposal plant, will probably be referred to the Attorney General. Preliminary to this step, the engineering department of the board will conduct tests to determine the amount of sewage: emptied into the Delaware river by the city and to obtain other necessary evidence. President Price declared that the board's continued toleration of the failure of Trenton to comply with its orders constitutes an injustice to Philadelphia, which has been required to install a disposal plant.

Disarmament is Urged

President Harding was urged to do his utmost to bring about general disarmament among nations in a resolution adopted by the New Jersey State Organization of Public Health Nursing and the New Jersey State Nurses' Association here, which met in joint session. The resolution was forwarded to the President by Mrs. L. J. Gommel of East Orange, who presided.

More than two hundred and fifty nurses attended the meeting and the disarmament vote was unanimous.

The Oldest Industry

When the pioneer farmer began to sow and reap, the development of America had begun. The world has moved forward since Colonial days, but it has not left the farmer behind, and today a new generation tills the same fields under conditions never dreamed of by the early settlers.

Gasoline and electricity have made the farmer more of a business man and less a laborer. He reaches a wider market and reaches it more quickly than ever before.

The telephone was among the first improvements to come to his aid. It puts him in quick communication with his neighbors and with the buyers of his produce. It takes him to the city and in a measure brings the city to him. The farm has been robbed of its isolation and loneliness.

The Bell System has kept pace with the State's progress, and often has been the advance guard of a community's development. The growth of every section may be measured by the extension of its telephone service.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Do you remember when infantile paralysis was so bad a few years ago? Do you remember the panic of fear that clutched at every parent's heart if one of the children developed symptoms even remotely similar to those of the dread disease?

And do you remember how devoutly thankful you were when the epidemic passed and your little ones were unscathed?

Some of the children died in homes where everything money could buy was done for them, others were taken from firebrands where their own sunny little lives were about the only treasure.

And some were spared—if spared it was—to live out a tortured, crippled existence.

It was pitiful, it was heartbreaking to see the poor little dears in homes where wealth could secure for them attention, service and care; but in the other homes where after the bare necessities of life were provided there was nothing, absolutely nothing left for doctors and surgeons and hospitals which might give the child a chance, it was tragic.

Such a case has just been brought to our notice, and knowing the generous heart of Riverton we pass the story on.

He was about ten years old when he was taken sick. He got well—that is, he did not die. But there was something wrong with one foot. It didn't stand up right. Still he could manage to hobble about on it. He went back to school as soon as he was strong enough. He took part in the play of his companions when he could—and looked on wistfully when the games were too strenuous for him. He did not complain. With that infinite patience of childhood which has been the marvel of the world since a human heart first beat in sympathy with suffering, he accepted his fate, glad that he was still able to get about and to go to school.

But the foot grew worse. There was some talk of sending him to a hospital, but there was an inevitable delay. The boy did not lose hope.

From their meagre funds his school companions raised $3.00 toward getting him into a hospital. Small sums were given by kindhearted friends, until at last the day for which he had been waiting and hoping arrived.

One of the "helping teachers" in the county, who had been in charge. She succeeded in getting him into a hospital. The foot can be restored to its usefulness. But it will take money.

And money is so cheap when measured by the many, many things have that money cannot buy—shall this little foot be allowed to remain useless, and shall this young life which should be joyous and happy and vibrant, be clouded with helplessness and tortured with pain for the want of a little of the money we can so much better spare than this child can spare his foot?

This wall does not live in Riverton, nor in Palmyra, nor in Cinnaminson township. He is not "one of our own" by geographical boundaries.

He has no claim on the people of this immediate neighborhood except that claim which the helpless, the distressed, the needy and the unhappy have on the heart of the world everywhere.

We owe him nothing except that love and compassion and help that the favored, the well, the strong and the happy always owe to the unfortunate.

And yet the good people of this community are responding in the way they always do. Enough has been pledged to pay his expenses for a few weeks.

We do not ask anyone to give anything. But if you feel that you really WANT to help gladden the heart of this boy, and cheer his Christmas with the hope of having his foot back again, so that he may run and jump and play with his fellows and be glad in the sunshine and in the great out-of-doors, as your little ones are doing, The New Era will be glad to receive your gift to him and see that it reaches the proper hands promptly.

This is not an impertinence; it is an opportunity.

The Fire Company opened bids last night for the enlargement and improvement of the fire house to accommodate the new fire apparatus which the borough expects to buy.

Be a sport. Wave a pennant at the big football game when the Riverton team plays at Riverside Thanksgiving Day. Schneider has laid in a fine lot of pennants for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Whitner Rogers, of Norristown, Pa., had as their guests for the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Flanagan, of Riverton, and entertained them at a theatre party in honor of their wedding anniversary.

When you buy silverware, watches or jewelry for Christmas gifts at Bertrams you need feel no concern about the quality. At the same old stand 22 South Second street, Philadelphia, where he has been giving satisfaction for over a quarter of a century.

Hubert Bedoes, of Florence, S. C., was the guest of A. William Schreiner on Sunday. His mother and sister, Miss Olivia, are in the West where they went for the sister's health, and her many friends here will be glad to know that she is now entirely well.

Herman Ennis Jones, of Delanco, has been appointed manager of the Delaware Avenue office of the Franklin Trust Company. Mr. Jones was formerly with the Philadelphia Trust Company, on the staff of Matthew C. Brush, president of the American International Corporation. He is also a member of the Beverly township Board of Education, the vestry of Christ P. E. Church and chairman of the P. H. A. committee.

The New Jersey State police, 80 in number, who have been training at Sea Girt, will go on duty on December 5th, when they will be distributed in various parts of the State. There are two troops of the police, to be divided into four units, one unit and three mounted. Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf is superintendent of the organization. Additional troops will be given training early in January at Oakland Farms, Trenton Junction.

The Bell Telephone has inaugurated a new policy in advertising which is interesting and unique. It is advertising on a higher plane than simple commercialism, though in the end of course, the object is to acquaint the public with the service the Bell Telephone is rendering, to point out ways in which it can be used to advantage and to stimulate its larger use by subscribers, as well as to secure new installations.

Senator and Mrs. Emmor Roberts, of Moorestown, left on Tuesday for the Pacific coast via the northern route to Washington and Oregon, where they will visit the apple growing districts in those states, after which they will go to San Francisco and Southern California, returning via the Grand Canyon, which they will also visit. They expect to be home in time to attend the meeting of the New Jersey Horticultural Society, to be held next month in Atlantic City, of which society Mr. Roberts is president.

In a jury trial before Judge Donnes in the Burlington County Court Wednesday, Francis Keating, who was suing the Haddonfield National Bank and the Borough of Haddonfield for $10,000 damages for illegal arrest and detention, was awarded a verdict of $750.00. It will be recalled that several months ago Keating took a colored man to the bank in his fitzy to make a deposit. The bank officials became suspicious of the man's actions and had him arrested, and Keating as an accomplice. Notwithstanding he gave the officials information by which they could easily have established his identity, he was kept in jail all the afternoon. The jury exonerated the bank which was made a co-defendant in the suit.

The supper in the parish house Tuesday evening was a most gratifying success, socially as well as financially. Over a hundred covers were laid, and a considerable sum was realized by the sale of tempting food-stuffs left over after all present had been graciously supplied. There was music during the evening and dancing after the supper. H. E. Jones, of Delanco, was toastmaster, and an interesting feature of the evening was the suddenness with which he called on the unsuspecting diners for impromptu speeches. Rev. D. A. Parce, of Christ Church, Palmyra, was one of the guests of honor, and made a few remarks. L. A. Flanagan was the auctioneer for the sale of food at the close of the evening, and the prices he got would put a war profiteer to shame. Altogether it was a great time, and those present are looking forward with much pleasure to the next event.

Porch Club

The Porch Club will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 22, at 3 o'clock. There will be vocal solos by Miss Miriam Diehl and Mrs. Samuel W. Collins, piano solo by Mrs. Lee Hulett, and reading by Miss Abigail Ellisworth.

"When a feller needs a friend" it's that friend.

Are Riverton's Shade Trees Doomed?

At the October meeting of the Borough Council the Shade Tree Commission submitted a detailed report showing the needs of the shade trees in Riverton and asking for $2000 with which to start the work, $2000 of which was wanted to finance operations this fall. At the November meeting last week a letter was read from the borough solicitor stating that under the law no such sum could be appropriated for this work, the levy allowed one-tenth of one per cent of a mill on the dollar, raising only a little over $200 a year. Unless the citizens generally are willing to care for the trees in front of their own properties, at their own expense, in a few years many of the older trees will die. Not only do the old trees need attention, but many new plantings should be made. The Shade Tree Commission will superintend the work, but the expense will have to be borne by the property owner. This much is provided for in the law, but the general trimming, all over town, cannot be done for the sum which may be raised under the law. Some guests will have to be found to pay for this very necessary work.

The fire and water committee reported that a fire hydrant had been installed on Thomas avenue between Midway and Harrison street.

The bids for the new fire apparatus were opened. The bid of the Stutz concern was $11,995.00, and the LaFrance Company, $12,400.00. Both bids and the specifications were referred to the committee for comparison.

The ordinances providing for money to finance the fire apparatus and the memorial park passed final reading.

He also spoke of the clean and sanitary condition of the school building owing to the very efficient service of the janitor.

In the report of Miss Chew, supervising principal, a recommendation was made relative to exempting pupils from examinations under certain conditions. The requirements will be further developed at District Boards of Education, to be held at the State House, Trenton, Friday morning, December 2.

County Y. W. Fair

Entertainment has been provided for the men as well as the women and children, and the head of the house is especially invited to come and see just how fine an affair of this kind can be. Golden Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. George L. Miller celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Wednesday evening, November 16th, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Bobs.

Mr. Miller, who is 72, and Mrs. Miller, who is 67, were born and have spent their lives within a few miles of their present home. Super was served to about 120 guests, among whom were Rev. and Mrs. Paul S. McInert, of Nazareth, Pa., the former pastor of the Moravian Church, and the present pastor, Rev. R. Reimer and wife.

The house and tables were decorated with yellow crepe paper and many yellow chrysanthemums, which were given by friends. Large sums of money, gold and other gifts were received.

Miss Chew Speaks on "Health"
The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, held in the Public School Auditorium, on Thursday afternoon, was well attended. After the regular business meeting, Mrs. L. E. Carpenter reported on the State Convention of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations held in Trenton on November 9th and 10th. Miss Chew then talked on "Health," prefacing her subject with the remark that Riverton ranked second in the county in attendance. Miss Chew urged mothers to co-operate with the teachers in making the average attendance higher. Parents were also urged to visit the school at any time and see what the children were doing.

The second grade had the largest percentage of mothers in attendance, and will therefore, receive a Victoria record suitable to their grade.

Big Farmers Day at Burlington
The annual meeting of the Burlington Board of Agriculture is scheduled for November 29th and will be held at the Auditorium in Burlington. An interesting program has been arranged, starting at 9:30 a. m.

Riverton School Notes

Domestic Science
Domestic science is the largest and best addition to the school this year. Our Domestic Science room is divided into four small kitchens, each one having all the equipment of an up-to-date kitchen.

So far we have canned tomatoes, creamed toast and have learned several different ways of cooking eggs. We have been taught the best way to make the most delicious cocoa and muffins, which was proved by the way the teachers enjoyed them.

Our Domestic Science room is open to visitors every Thursday and whoever comes will not regret it for they will be treated.

Good English Week
Good English week was observed in the Riverton school the week of November 6th to 12th. The first number on the week's program was a play given by the eighth grade. This play was very interesting and it taught the pupils how to use better English, and what helped good English.

The remainder of the week the pupils tried to use better English. The lower grades criticized sayings that they had heard that were incorrect. The seventh and eighth grades made posters. On these posters were slogans pertaining to Good English. Several of these were sent to public buildings in the town.

At the close of this important week the seventh grade gave a play. In this play the pupils crowned Good English. This was the last number in the week's program. Most of the children unmounted ones; make English, not only in school but at home.

Class Pictures
Tuesday, October 25, a photographer took pictures of the different classes and also of the football team. He offered a fifteen percent discount to the eighth grade fund. Different pupils from the eighth grade visited the other rooms and took orders. The pictures cost twenty cents unmounted and twenty-five cents mounted. They have arrived and are well liked.

There were orders for one hundred eighty-eight mounted pictures and for thirty unmounted ones; making a total of two hundred pictures. The discount was $7.95.

Belleau Woods
Monday, November 7, Miss Coale came to school and spoke in assembly about the reconstruction of the French village, Belleau Wood, France, which the American soldiers tore down when keeping the German Army away from Paris. All over the United States the schools are people are making a drive for money to rebuild this village. All the girls and boys seemed anxious to do their part.

By Thursday afternoon, November 10, the money was collected and amounted to $24.00. Miss Coale was very well pleased.

What Has the Red Cross to Do Now?
The war is over, what does the Red Cross find to do, and what does it need so much money for? This question is the most natural one for those who have not kept in touch with the work of this organization.

In the first place, the United States the Red Cross is helping the ex-service men in a hundred different ways. The number of disabled soldiers is increasing at the rate of a thousand a month as hidden or undeveloped disabilities assert themselves. This number has reported to hospitals for treatment. Many more are scattered all over the country, and these are being sought out by the Red Cross and advised of the help the government desires to give them. Its work is not confined to hospital cases. Last year the Red Cross handled 148,032 allotment, compensation and insurance claims, and delivered 63,655 allotment checks to men who had moved from the addresses furnished to the War Risk Insurance Bureau.

Abroad the American Red Cross is still feeding the hungry, caring for the aged and sick. Last year 1,317,528 surgical dressings, 56,486 layettes and 551,680 garments were made and sent to Europe.

It is impossible to give any adequate idea of the work being done, but it is tremendously worth while. And you are asked to assist in this noble work to the extent of one dollar when the Red Cross solicitor calls on you.

Have you a heart and a dollar.

Kid Orcutt, the Palmyra lightweight, will have a bout with Bebe Southworth champion, at the Bijou theatre in Philadelphia next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Henry A. Stiles and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunt attended the first annual banquet of the Z. E. A. G. O. T. on Thursday evening in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford.

Fred Schroeder was home over the weekend from State College, having motored to and from with two companions to witness the Penn State-Navy football game.

The Artisans' Gun Club will have its opening shoot Thanksgiving morning at the foot of Market street. There will be live ducks, prizes, with open events for non-members.

Era Carhart, whose arm was badly injured in the crossing accident at Morgan avenue two weeks ago, underwent an operation Thursday and it is hoped that the arm will now rapidly improve.

The annual Union Thanksgiving services will be held on Thursday, 10.30 in the Central Baptist Church. The sermon will be delivered by Dr. N. F. Stahl. The offering will be for the New Jersey Children's Home, at Trenton.

The school meeting at which the public will be asked to vote an additional $30,000 for the construction of the new high school, will be held next Monday evening at the Delaware avenue school. Everybody interested in the public schools should be on hand.

Rev. and Mrs. P. S. Meinert, of Nazareth, Pa., were guests of friends at Five Points this week. They were among the guests at the fifteenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Miller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohs, on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Asa D. Cross, 28 West Broad street, nee Miss Anna May Tighe, a graduate nurse from St. Francis hospital, of Trenton, returned to the hospital on Tuesday to take care of one of her old patients who is seriously ill. Mrs. Cross also was a Red Cross nurse at Camp Dix during the war.

The minstrel show given by the Masonic Association last Friday and Saturday evening was most successful, crowded houses enjoying both performances. All the numbers made great hits and the local jokes got a cross nicely. While the receipts have not been fully tabulated, it is certain the financial returns will be fully satisfactory.

Oscar Rutschman has broken ground for his service station to be located at the new ferry landing. The work on the ferry itself is coming on rapidly. The actual erection of the ferry house is soon to start. Most of the grading has been completed and the rock is being placed in position to protect the roadway from the action of the water.

A minstrel show and dance is to be given in P. O. S. of A. Building on Thanksgiving evening under the auspices of Dreer's Beneficial Association. A highly entertaining minstrel troupe has been secured for the occasion and a splendid orchestra will supply music for the dancing. The entertainment will provide an enjoyable way to spend the evening of the holiday.

The condition of West Broad street has aroused many complaints by motorists. George Stoer reports breaking two automobile springs there in a week's time. In addition to racking a machine, the condition of the street makes it very uncomfortable riding in the center and most motorists use the trolley tracks, where it is somewhat smoother. This, it is feared, may lead to serious accidents.

Mrs. Evelyn D. Roach, of Palmyra, was one of the women members of the jury which was out all night and finally agreed to disagree in the case of Joseph Pullen, of New Egypt, against Dr. Howard Allen, of New Egypt, for alleged neglect of professional duty in the treatment of a broken arm. The jury retired for deliberation at 11.30 Tuesday morning and did not report until the same hour Wednesday morning.

On the occasion of the celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary of Palmyra Castle, K. G. E., recently, a roll call of the fifteen original officers who assumed their duties when the lodge was instituted, were that two, Fred Blackburn and George N. Wimer were present; ten, William T. Slocum, James H. Hartley, Theo. Ely, John Scheidel, Lethrop Jackson, A. Louis Gibson, Edward T. Stager, Charles F. King, Joseph E. Bowers and John F. McMillan, were dead, while Charles V. Patriotic Order Sons of America

Monday evening, the 21st, will be donation night in Camp 23 for the Home and Orphanage at Chalfont, Pa. Members are requested to bring such things as are listed in the circular letter sent to them, or to make donations of money. It is a worthy charity and should be encouraged. We will also have with us to give an address the newly elected Assemblyman, Clifford Powell, a member of Camp 71 of Mount Holly. Mr. Powell aided in the formation of Post Rodgers of the American Legion, and has many friends in Palmyra. A large attendance should greet him. The Good of the Order committee will take care of the inner man.

The Camp will attend their annual Thanksgiving service this year on Sunday evening, November 27. The visitation will be to the new Lutheran Church.

Camp 3 of Phillipsburg will celebrate their 40th anniversary on November 25th. They expect to receive 250 candidates on that night in celebration. They have sent word to Camp 23 that they were after them this year, but expect to be not only the oldest camp in New Jersey, but also the largest camp. We hope the old-time spirit of 23 will be sufficient to strike back and maintain the lead they have always had. Let us get busy, "in the Palmyra way," and keep our camp and town at the head of the procession.

Artisans' Bowling

Palmyra Assembly No. 65, A. O. M. P., rolled their seventh weekly preliminary series on Fehrl's Riverside alleys, last Monday night.

"Clint" Gibbon, who lost the lead last week, was out for revenge, and by rolling high average of the night, with 165 pins for six games, jumped back into first place, dropping "Doc" Craig to third, which put Glen Snyder in second place.

Don't Knowlton with an average of 156 pins, and "Ministril" Alloway with an average of 152 pins, showed to advantage.

The outstanding feature of the night's games, however, was an average of 152 pins by Horace Finney, who was in excellent form and raked in all the cigars in sight. Horace's pockets were bulging with time for the night to leave for home, when it was discovered that some culprit had lifted the spoils. Genial Oscar denied any allegations that he had tried to regain his losses, and volunteered a donation to Horace of $1.00 for each perfect that might be found in his possession, but when the search was over there was consternation in the camp of Babenzien, for it was discovered that ten beautifully banded stogies reposed in the pocket of Oscar. Oscar now thinks that "Wealth begets by proxy is oft-times embarrassing."

Beginning the first Monday of December it is intended to start the Five-Men Teams on their way, and it is requested that all members of the squad who wish to roll with these teams be out on the two Monday nights intervening.

Averages to date are as follows:

Palmyra P. T. A. Wins State Prize

Mrs. J. H. Abell, Mrs. Wimer, Mrs. J. C. Hoepfner and Mrs. I. U. Kershner were delegates to the twenty-first annual meeting of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations held at the Stacy Trent Hotel, Trenton, on November 9th and 10th.

The Conference was the largest ever held by the association whose membership in the State totals 21,000. Palmyra won the $10.00 prize offered by the State organization for increase in membership. The local association now numbers over 500.

The regular monthly meeting of the association was held last Tuesday evening. Reports from the State Convention were given and several interesting articles from the Child Welfare magazine were read. There followed a most enjoyable piano selection by Mr. Jacobson.

A plea was made for games, books and toys for the Children's Home in Trenton. Those desiring to contribute are asked to bring their donations to the next meeting that the committee may forward the same in time for the Christmas holidays.

A motion was carried that the Association pay one week's expense for a case needing hospital attention.

Foot Ball

Owing to weather conditions the game with the Metro Club scheduled for last Saturday was called off, but this team will probably be entered for a game for the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

This Saturday the Wildwood A. A. will be the attraction. This is a very strong team and the game should be close and exciting. The game will start at near 3 o'clock as possible.

On Thanksgiving Day Riverton will play Riverside at Riverside in the afternoon.

Work on Sewer Started

Work on the sanitary sewer system has now begun. The big Martin trench digger which excavates on the endless chain principle, began work on Lincoln avenue Thursday morning.

Township Committee Men Hinchman and Engineer Vossbury wish to call the attention of property owners in the sewer district to the fact that they must at once decide where they wish the sewer inlets for their properties to be placed and be ready to inform the contractor's representative when he calls.

Arrangements to pay the first bill presented by the sewer contractors were made by the township committee at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The amount involved was $6,930, on account of materials already delivered by the contractor.

Committee man-elect James H. Hartley was present to get a line on his new job.

Father and Son Banquet

Guy C. Hendry, County Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., got together a few men from the various churches of Palmyra and Riverton a few Sundays ago, and spoke to them on the subject of giving a "Father and Son" banquet. Other meetings were held and an organization effected with Charles W. Wanger, chairman, and E. Perry Morton secretary, and it was resolved to hold such a banquet in the Epworth Temple on Friday evening, December 2nd.

Representatives of the various churches are as follows:

Methodist—A. H. Rudduck, Augustus L. Wilson, E. Perry Morton.

Presbyterian—Doris Reed, Harvey Fisher, Eugene J. Bush.

Riverton Episcopal—S. L. Warren, H. E. Moyer, John Seckel.

Palmyra Episcopal—Wm. T. J. Parnell, Joseph Richards, William Colsey.

Baptist—Ralph W. Gibbon, George N. Wimer, Wm. McConnell.

Moravian—John Burghman, George Dorworth, Samuel Griffith.

Lutheran—Dr. H. W. Bauer, Norman Schriver, C. F. Buckholz.

The sub-committees are divided as follows: Supper—Wanger, Bush and Warren; Motions—Rudduck, Seckel, Richards, Gibbon, Moyer, Bauer, Dorworth; Publicity and Tickets—Wimer, Rudduck, Parnell, Fisher, Griffith, Schriver, Seckel; Music and Entertainment—Wilson, McConnell, Buckholz, Colsey, Morton, Burghman.

The speaker of the evening will be the New York Stock Exchange, and aid by Judge Wells to the effect of the finest speakers he ever listened to. The tickets will be 60 cents each, and the idea is that the son will bring his father with him, or that the father will bring his son, or that one for the occasion. The tickets are limited by the capacity of the hall to 225 and they will be apportioned to the several churches in accordance with their membership.

Five Points

Thanksgiving service will be held in the Moravian Church Thursday morning at 9.30.

The union meeting at the Friends meeting-house last Friday evening was opened by Charles Evans. Rev. W. Reimer read the Scriptures, and Rev. Reimer made a prayer, after which the address was given by Miss Jane Rushmore on the purposes and hopes of the limitation of armament conference.

William E. Good

William E. Good died at his home on Linden avenue, Sunday, November 14th, in his seventy-sixth year. Mr. Good was born in Hagerstown, Md., February 27, 1845. He lived at York, Pa., for a short time. Later the family located at Reading, Pa., where he received his education and entered the employ of the Reading Railroad Co.

During the Civil War Mr. Good enlisted twice in the Pennsylvania Militia.

He became superintendent of the Reading Railroad Company's shops at Reading, which position he held until 1888. While in the employ of the Reading Railroad he made many notable improvements in the shop methods and in their locomotive designs. The attainment of the higher locomotive speeds was a problem to which he devoted a special study with the result that the Reading road produced the highest speed locomotives that were in use at that time. They were first used for the express trains between Philadelphia and New York City, and between Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Their ability to maintain the highest speeds of which the road, as then constructed, would permit was a surprise to the engineers of the day. The Westinghouse system for locomotives of the Reading system was developed under his supervision and soon became the standard type of construction for the locomotives of that road.

He was also a member of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. and was shown by the large number now in use on the Reading and also on the Lackawanna roads.

As early as 1885 Mr. Good advocated the construction of steel passenger coaches similar to those now in use on account of the greater degree of safety they would insure, but the railroad officials would not consent to their adoption, as they thought such construction would meet with opposition from the public.

In 1888 he associated himself with James C. Brooks of the Philadelphia and Southwark Foundry and Machine Co., Fifth street and Washington avenue, Philadelphia, until he retired from active business in 1894, shortly after the death of his wife, Emma R. Good.

At the Southwark Foundry and Machine Co. he made many improvements in their products of manufacturing, particularly in high duty pumping engines, in rolling mill engines and in blowing engines used for blast furnaces and Bessemer converters in steel works engineers of the Pittsburgh district and throughout the Eastern States.

After retiring from active business Mr. Good came to Riverton where he lived twenty-seven years. He served several terms as member of the borough council and was chairman of the sewer disposal plant committee. He was also superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School and a member of the board of trustees of that church.

He is survived by two sons, two daughters and a brother, the Rev. James S. Good.

The funeral services were held at his late residence Wednesday evening and interment was made at Reading on Thursday.

Tall Cedars Dance

Camden Forest No. 5, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, will hold their ninth annual reception drill and dance in the Third Regiment Armory, Camden, on Wednesday evening, November 23rd, "Thanksgiving."

This is without doubt the most elaborate social event attempted anywhere between New York and Washington. There is some talk to the effect that General John Pershing, also Governor Edwards and his staff, may be guests of honor at this function, but this is not given out as a positive fact at present.

Members of the Masonic fraternity generally, are getting their dress suits in order and requesting their wives and sweethearts to arrange to look their best for the occasion.

As usual a splendid band and orchestra of twenty-five pieces each will furnish the music, while the armory by aid of the most artistic decorations will be modeled into a bower of beauty.

New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and as far west as Pittsburgh contribute to the success of this affair. The police department of Camden will again assume charge of the automobiles as in the past, thus obviating any chance of error or threat.

Members of the committee are most enthusiastic as to the outcome and say that no pains or expense will be spared, in order that the affair this year may surpass any previous effort.

One thing that frequent brushing won't wear out—the teeth.

The Gasoline That Delivers the Goods

Delivery service, with its innumerable stops and starts, puts motor fuel to a severe test, especially in cold weather. Unless the gasoline is quick firing, valuable time is frittered away every time the motor has to be started. The alternative of allowing it to idle every time a call is made means wasting a lot of gasoline.

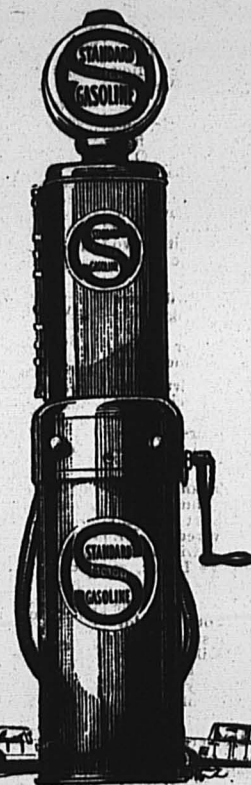

But there are other qualities that are desirable in gasoline besides the "pop" that proper volatility assures. There must be sturdy pulling power for heavy grades, combined with big mileage per gallon. The motor fuel must burn up so completely that there is practically no half-burned residue to foul the moving parts of the motor and dilute the lubricating oil.

These properties of a well balanced motor fuel are all possessed by "Standard" Motor Gasoline. It is an improved article which leads other gasolines in every important quality that makes for efficient and economical operation.

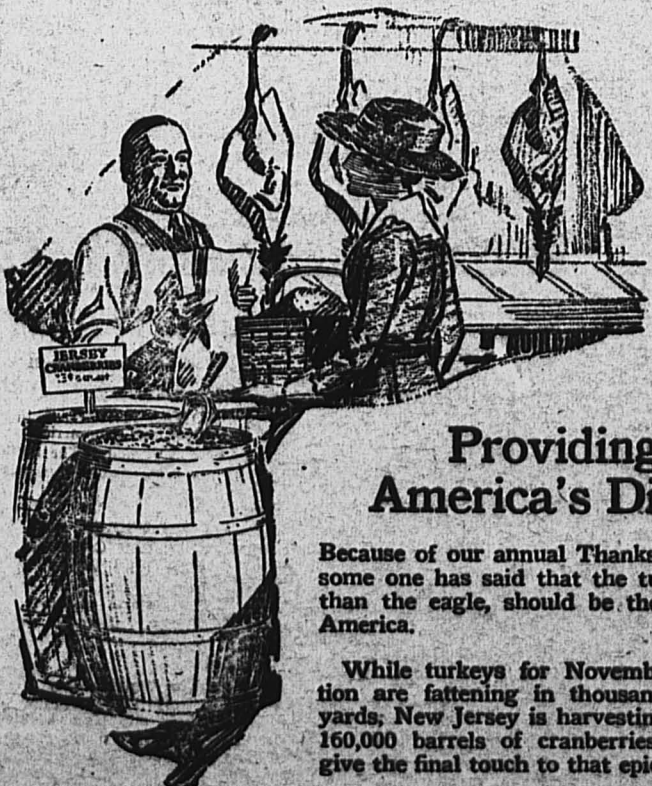

Work with your engine, not against it. Give it "Standard" Motor Gasoline for power and Polarine Oil for lubrication.

Providing America's Dinner

Because of our annual Thanksgiving feast, some one has said that the turkey, rather than the eagle, should be the emblem of America.

While turkeys for November's celebration are fattening in thousands of farmyards, New Jersey is harvesting more than 160,000 barrels of cranberries which will give the final touch to that epicurean event.

Native thrift and industry have capitalized what was once considered waste marsh land and made it yield substantial revenue.

Tying the farms and the cities of the State together are thousands of miles of telephone lines, where once communication was dependent on the sailboat or the stage coach. The grower and the shipper can keep in touch with each other and with the big market centers, eliminating time and distance.

The men and women who maintain and operate the Bell Telephone Lines in New Jersey are ambitious to keep pace with the growth of its industry, and to give their fellow citizens in this State the best telephone service possible.

CHAIRS MADE TO FIT

the persons who will occupy them the most, are a specialty that is proving very popular. A chair that is comfortable for a large person is usually out of proportion for a small one, and the chair that means real comfort to the small occupant, would be impossible for the larger one.

We have a supply of Davenport and Chair frames which are being made up to fill your requirements, and the cover is of your own selection. We also have a less expensive line. Both grades will make ideal Christmas gifts.

Treasurer Pine Resigns

The resignation of Warren C. Pine as treasurer of the county was presented to the Board of Freeholders at its weekly session last Friday, and was accepted. For over a year past Mr. Pine has been in ill health and for some time was in a hospital. His wife, too, is in bad health. These were the reasons for the resignation.

Joseph S. Bright, of Riverside, who has been acting as treasurer during Mr. Pine's illness, was elected for the unexpired term of two years, from January 1st, next.

A communication from the grand jury requested the board to provide more conveniences for the comfort of jurors—that are compelled to remain out all night. Recently a jury composed of men and women had an all-night session, and discomforts of the room in which they were placed was quite appalling to the women. It also was suggested that a mattress accompany juries of which ladies are members, to act somewhat in the capacity of a constable and attend to the wants of the female members. The board will comply with the requests made. The matter was referred to the department of public buildings.

Porch Club

There will be a meeting of the executive committee on Tuesday at 2 p. m. At 3 o'clock Miss Kershaw, of the Shakespeare Club, Philadelphia, will lecture on "Jazz in Literature."

MARRIED

Miss Elizabeth R. Chafey and Mr. Howard A. Cooper were married on Wednesday, November 23, 1921, at Westmont, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will be at home at 105 Stoy avenue, Westmont, N. J., after December 1st.

SCHOOL NOTES

Manual Training
The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys are making many interesting and useful articles in the manual training shop.

The fifth and sixth grades are making small articles such as button boxes and toy animals. The seventh grade boys are making taboretts. Some of the boys are keeping them at school until Christmas. Then they will give them as a Xmas gift to their mothers. The eighth grade boys are making medicine cabinets. A number of new tools were purchased at the beginning of the school term and are being put to good use.

Sewing
At the beginning of the term the teacher decided to let the girls finish their cooking uniforms from last year before starting anything else.

Some girls did not make any last year and so had to make theirs this term.

The cooking uniform consists of four pieces: the hat, apron and sleeves. Most all the girls have finished their uniforms and are working on their own personal pieces. Wednesday we started to use the sewing period for working on Christmas gifts. We also made a fannel spoon-holder for spoons and have made dish towels both for washing and drying.

Halloween Party in the First Grade
At two o'clock Friday afternoon, October 28th, the first grade had a Halloween party. The room was decorated with pumpkins with candles inside of them. The children did not have costumes but wore masks which they made themselves. They had a fine time playing games, and listening to stories the teacher told.

For refreshments they had cakes and peanuts.

The Riverton public school received from the parish house several plaster casts.

They are very beautiful and some are of the old writers and discoverers. There are a few animals among them.

The different casts will be distributed among the rooms considered suitable for them.

The larger scrolls and designs were put over the doors in the hall.

Too Few Civil Service Applicants

The Civil Service Commission invites attention to the fact that in examinations held recently in Camden and other cities throughout the United States for domestic science teachers, Indian Service, for apprentice fish culturists, Bureau of Fisheries, and for telegraph operators, Departmental and Field Services, applicants were not secured in the number desired, and that the examinations will again be held on December 7.

Persons interested in these or other examinations should apply to the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board at the local post office for detailed information and application blanks.

The annual parish meeting of Christ Church, Riverton, for the elections of wardens and vestrymen will be held at five o'clock, November 28, following divine service at 4.30.

The Cinnaminson National Bank of Riverton N. J., will be open on Thursday evening, December 8, 1921, from seven until nine o'clock, for the purpose of giving out Christmas Club checks.

The educational authorities of the county plan to publish a four-page monthly newspaper, devoted entirely to the activities of the school and school organizations of the county. There will be ten issues a year and the subscription price will be 25c.

This week the teachers of the Riverton public school raised $31.75 for the little boy who is in the hospital for the correction of a crooked foot, referred to in our last issue. This is only a starter. More money will be needed. One operation has been performed. Another will be necessary later.

Miss Lippincott invites all interested to meet Mrs. Henry Colton, of Wortendyke, N. J., Wednesday evening, November 30, at 8 o'clock, Second and Lippincott avenue. Mrs. Colton, a member of the State Board of Time of Women Voters, is coming on behalf of the League, and may have something of interest to report from the Limitation of Armament Conference in Washington, where she has recently been.

J. Henry Yeager's house was broken into last night and ransacked. Mr. Yeager was away all day and when he returned about eleven o'clock they found everything topsy-turvy. The method of operation seems to have been very similar to that used in the robbery of the Woolman and White homes a short time ago. As nearly as can be ascertained the robbery was committed between five and six o'clock, as a neighbor saw the shades drawn down about that time. Entrance was gained through a window, which was jimmied open. They went out by a rear door which they left open.

Petty thieving has become so prevalent in Riverton that the business men have joined in a concerted effort to break it up. In this issue is published a notice giving fair warning that all offenders who are caught will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Recently one dealer lost goods to the value of $30 within two weeks—that is, $30 worth that he knew of. Most of the offenders are children—largely boys, but with a sprinkling of girls—and even a few adults are not above "stealing" things when they think no one is looking. If the adults are arrested and made an example of, they will get scant sympathy. But the children ought to be looked after, and it behooves parents to inquire closely into the habits of their offspring. It may avert some embarrassing situations later.

Christmas Fair and Reception

On Saturday afternoon and evening, December 3, the Burlington County Y. W. C. A. will hold a Christmas fair and reception at the home of Mrs. F. Wallis Armstrong on the Riverton-Moorestown road. This will be the time to buy your Christmas gifts. There will be offered for sale fancy articles, bags, knitted goods, children's clothing and toys, cakes and candies. Tea will be served to guests. Entertainment has been provided for the men as well as the women and children, and the head of the house is especially invited to come and see just how fine an affair of this kind can be. It is guaranteed they will not be "bored." —Advertisement.

FOOTBALL

Last Saturday Riverton met its first defeat of the season when the strong Wildwood A. A., of Frankford, managed to score a touchdown against them in the last two minutes of the game, thereby putting Riverton on the short end of a 6 to 0 score. The game was one of the best to witness that we have had this season, and although the visitors had Riverton on the defensive during most of the game, the score can be attributed more to the growing darkness than to any other cause as Riverton had repeatedly shown their ability to prevent them from scoring during the early part of the game.

The features of the game were the line plunging of the visitor's backfield and the splendid defensive work of the Riverton linemen, especially that of J. Wallace.

Thanksgiving day the Riverton foot ball team accompanied by several hundred loyal rooters and Irons Band of Burlington, traveled to Riverside, where amidst the rain and mud the Big Green Team of our neighbor town defeated the Riverton team 20 to 0 in a hard fought contest. Riverside, although clearly and squarely the victors, would have been held to a closer score if it had not been for the unfortunate casualties that the Riverton team suffered during the game. A. Coe was injured and compelled to leave the field leaving Riverton without a weight kicker and decidedly weakening their defense.

The rain and mud made it impossible for either team to play any open football so old style line plunging was resorted to, and what Riverton proved the stronger but were made to fight for every foot of ground they gained and were several times held for downs when their scoring seemed inevitable by the fierce aggressive defense that the Riverton team displayed.

The features of the game were the line plunging of the Riverton team for Riverside and the defensive playing of the whole Riverton team in which Holvick, Bowers, Faunce and S. Hyllon deserve creditable mention.

Edwards Will Defend Primary

Trenton.—Any attempt that may be made in the 1922 legislature to bring about a repeal of the present direct primary system and restore the old convention plan for the nomination of candidates will meet with the vigorous opposition of Governor Edwards.

Anti-Runyon Plan

Assemblyman William A. Moore of this city will introduce in the 1922 legislature a bill to repeal the direct primary voting system as well as a companion measure to restore the discarded plan of nominating candidates by the old convention method. For some weeks there have been persistent rumors that old machine leaders were being encouraged by the wets to jam through a bill restoring the convention plan at once in order to bring about the defeat of Senator William N. Runyon for the Republican nomination for governor. Governor Edwards has refused to join the wets in the fight, however, and has declared war against any attempt to wipe out the primaries.

Moore incurred the opposition of the wets by voting with the Democrats in the legislature for Moore and ran more than 2,000 behind his party ticket in the recent election.

Mr. Moore prefaced his announcement with a declaration that he is not a candidate for further political honors. His decision to introduce a repeal of the progressive election machinery is based upon his conviction that restoration of the old convention nominating plan will result in a yearly saving of at least $1,500,000 to the state and counties. He also said that he would offer the bill to the legislature in the belief that a higher type of candidate can be secured through the convention system.

Road Program Assured

The co-operation which is being offered the State Highway Commission by the counties throughout the state in its plan to continue building the state system of roads almost positively assures the fulfillment of the entire 1922 program of construction, which will be about equal to that of the present year. Because the Commission's appropriations for next year had been pledged to work already planned, consideration of new construction next year had been abandoned until Governor Edwards suggested having the arrangement for reimbursement by the state.

In accordance with the governor's suggestions, a large and conference have been held with officials of a number of counties, with the direct result that 13 counties have requested authority to proceed with work under the proposed arrangement. Essex, Passaic, Monmouth, Morris, Middlesex, Cumberland and Mercer have laid before the Chairman of the Committee on the Road Committee, their plans for the improvement of sections of the highway system. Atlantic, Burlington, Cape May, Ocean, Camden and Warren have placed themselves on record as being favorable to the plan.

Cumberland proposed to construct eight miles of roadway from Bridgeton to Millville on Route 15 and six miles from Bridgeton to the Salem county line on Route 6. Mercer has a mile on Route 2 in Trenton to build. In all the counties heard from to date have offered to build more than 60 miles of highways.

Worry—A Menial

There was a man who worried because he feared he would die before he could make adequate provision for the future of his wife, to whom he was passionately attached. He carried his worry with him night and day. It made him so melancholy and irritable that his wife, unable to bear his sad, dull company any longer, ran away with another man, and he never saw her again! Worry often does things like that!

Wesleyans Win First

The basket ball season was ushered in last Friday night by the Wesleyan teams in the Temple gym. Burlington sent a strong team down and led the home team 20 to 11 at half time.

The Wesleyans woke up, however, in the second half and the two pointers mounted fast. The final score was 36 to 30 in favor of the locals.

Vogel's sterling work at center featured, while Capt. Richman, Schwoerer and Steedle played fine games on the defense.

The second team was defeated by the fast-moving Delanco second team, but were in the game all the time. Truman and his team were together for the first time and can be expected to show great improvement the next time.

Crowded House at Scout Rally
Last Friday night the Palmyra troop of Boy Scouts, backed by the troop committee of Troop 1, held a rally in P. O. S. of A. hall for the purpose of raising money for the community. The boys proved themselves good advance agents as well as salesmen for they had the hall so packed that there was not even standing room left and many were turned away.

The music for the parade was furnished by Troop 3 of Philadelphia. This troop has a sixty-piece band of field music. The band arrived on the 743 train and the discipline was so good that the parade was moving in two minutes. A novel feature was added by having the local troop of Girl Scouts strung across Cinnaminson avenue to receive the band as it swung into Broad street.

Scout Executive Etter, of Camden, made the speech of the evening, outlining the objectives of the scout movement and explaining the scout method of character development. A moving picture showing the work of some British Scouts during the war was shown to the enthusiastic applause of the boys and girls in the audience.

A picked detail from the Collingswood troop gave an exhibition of various scout activities such as first aid to the injured, signaling and scout games for character training.

After the rally the Girl Scouts served a camp-fire lunch which the boys had prepared on the lot at Broad and Garfield.

$30,000 More Voted for New High School
The $30,000 additional appropriation asked by the Palmyra school board for the construction of the new high school building was voted last Monday night almost unanimously, the vote being 84 for and three against.

The Parent-Teacher Association and citizens in general supported the increase in order that the new school building not be shamed in any way.

In opening the meeting, James Weart, president of the school board, explained that it was now possible to borrow money for the improvement of 5%, instead of the 6% that was originally counted on, so that the entire interest cost, even with the $30,000 additional, would be the same as that heretofore estimated.

For the first two years only the interest is to be paid. The third year's cost, Mr. Weart estimated, will be $16,200, of which $9,000 will be interest and $7,200 applied to paying off the bonds. The interest will decrease each year as the bonds are paid off.

Bids have been advertised for again. The entire appropriation is now $180,000.

New Homes Taxed More Than Old

Members of the County Board of Taxation were in town last Tuesday and as a result Assessor John W. Shade requested the township committee to hold a special meeting that evening to consider the situation and also to take up complaints that have been made of inequalities in assessments.

J. Edwin Lees, representing seventeen property owners on Washington and Lincoln avenues, was invited to present the case of the taxpayers. All but one or two of the seventeen are owners of homes recently built.

Mr. Lees cited the assessments levied on these properties and compared them with assessments of older properties, some of which had been sold recently at prices equal to those paid for the new property. Mr. Lees' chief point was that the new homes appeared to be assessed on the basis of war-time values, while the older properties were assessed on the basis of pre-war values.

Mr. Shade defended his valuations on the basis of his knowledge of construction and also contended that an assessor could not be expected to make an elaborate inspection both inside and out, so as to take into account flooring, fixtures, heating systems, etc. However, in view of the dissatisfaction and also the interest being taken in the situation by the county board, Mr. Shade requested the township committee to appoint a man or group of men of the district to go over all the valuations as fixed and to make changes wherever inequalities appeared.

The township committee took the matter under advisement and will meet under advisement.

There was some disposition among older property holders to accuse Mr. Lees of attempting to have valuations all over town raised. Mr. Lees denied this vigorously, declaring that the new home owners only wanted fair play and to be placed on the same footing with others.

Least of all, he said, did he want to see outside tax authorities set into town and start a general raising of valuations.

There was some disposition among older property holders to accuse Mr. Lees of attempting to have valuations all over town raised. Mr. Lees denied this vigorously, declaring that the new home owners only wanted fair play and to be placed on the same footing with others.

Least of all, he said, did he want to see outside tax authorities set into town and start a general raising of valuations.

The Priceless Ingredient

In the city of Bagdad lived Haksem the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel, which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return. There came to him a young man, who had spent much but got little, and said: "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend?"

Haksem answered, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient."

"But, what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man.

Spoke then the Wise One: "My son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product in the market-place is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

P. H. S. Football
Palmyra High School carried away the honors with a flourish in the deciding football game of the year with Burlington, played on neutral ground at Riverside on Thanksgiving morning. The score was 27 to 7 and the victory gives Palmyra possession of the K. C. E. cup for this year, permanent possession to be decided by winning games of the series to be played next year.

Three games were played this year. The first was a 6-6 tie and Palmyra won the second 13-6.

Thursday's game closed a most successful season for the local eleven. Although the boys had a tough schedule of 14 games, only two were lost, one to West Chester and the second to Lansdale.

In the game at Riverside Isadore Raphael scored two touchdowns, Frank Probsting one and Arnold Hubbs one. Hoepfner kicked three goals. Boal starred at quarter, Beeton was a pillar of defense and Probsting at tackle and Doug Kersey at guard starred on the line.

Burlington's best gains were made by the aerial route, getting away with several forward passes, while Palmyra depended chiefly on straight football. A huge crowd attended and the athletic treasures of the two schools benefited considerably.

Last Saturday the locals tied the strong Bordertown High School 0-0 and on Saturday succumbed to Philadelphia 28 to 7. In the latter game Roy Kersey suffered a badly injured back and is still laid up at the home of relatives in Philadelphia.

Inside of Farned Farmer.
The name "F. Farmer" was discovered chiseled in a rock at the mouth of a cave in Lincoln county, West Virginia. As the forms of the letters correspond with those found in the rocks of Kentucky it is thought that the famed hunter at one time made an expedition into that section of the country.

Suspense.
The moving picture audience was watching a battling beauty scene, and stood it pretty well. A five-year-old girl was also watching and stood it about as long as she could. "Say, mother," she piped, in a voice heard all over the theater, "when are they going to put their nites on?"—Film Fun.

Talking Turkey

WHETHER it's a bird for Thanksgiving dinner or a tankful of gasoline for your motor you will get real satisfaction only through careful selection.

Volatility is important to good gasoline. It largely governs the starting speed of your motor and the richness of the mixture you have to use. For steady power that enables you to creep along in traffic or whirl up steep grades without a lot of gear shifting your motor fuel must have high flame speed and a high rate of pressure development. For economical operation gasoline must give you big mileage per gallon and burn up so completely that it leaves a minimum of carbon behind.

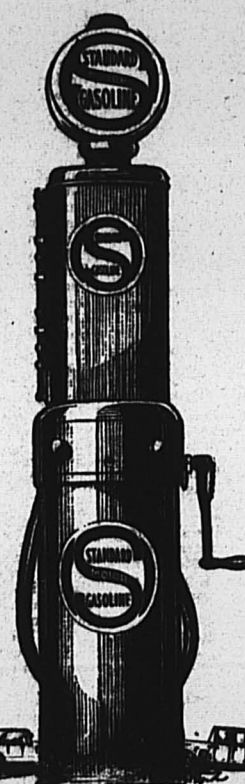

It needed years of refining experience and countless tests to develop a balanced gasoline to meet all these specifications. But it has been done.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline is best not in one or two respects only. Under the most rigid tests covering every feature of motor performance, "Standard" Motor Gasoline stands first.

You can easily prove this. Draw up where you see the familiar "S. O." sign. Test a tankful. Notice the "pop" and power your car has. See how easily it climbs hard hills. Keep tabs on the mileage you get. One quality wherever you buy it, and for sale everywhere.

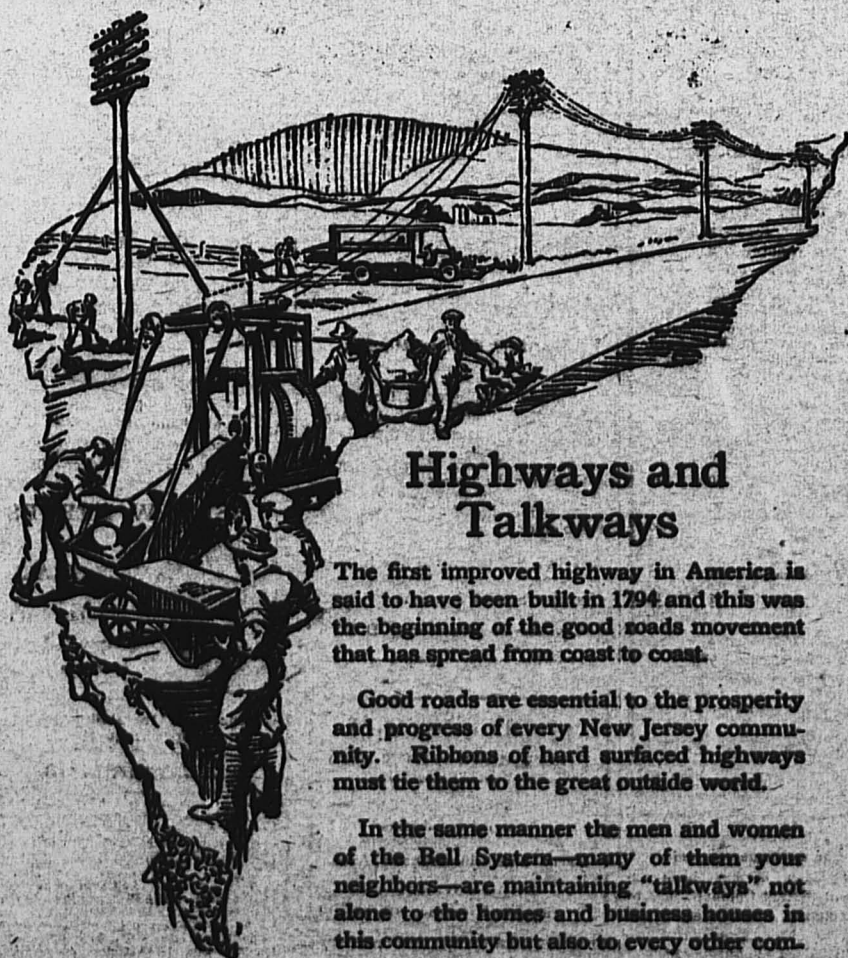

Do you know that your motor is properly lubricated? You can eliminate any doubt by specifying POLARINE.

Highways and Talkways

The first improved highway in America is said to have been built in 1794 and this was the beginning of the good roads movement that has spread from coast to coast.

Good roads are essential to the prosperity and progress of every New Jersey community. Ribbons of hard surfaced highways must tie them to the great outside world.

In the same manner the men and women of the Bell System—many of them your neighbors—are maintaining "talkways" not alone to the homes and business houses in this community but also to every other community in the United States.

Glistening bands of copper stretch from your door to every corner of the country making "talk travel" possible, without regard to season, weather, or road conditions.
