The Descent of Man

I point with pride to that old monkey who sired the human race, by hunky. A faulty race both then and now, yet even pessimists allow he started something anyhow. When man first slid down from the trees, sloughed off his tail, unknicked his knees, forsook his safe old forest seat and stood straight up on his hind feet, he was a homely hunky who scorned the weekly cleaning tub and ruled his soul-mate with a club. And when she talked of rights, I ween, he did not fuss nor make a scene but bounced big boulders off her bean. That female of the species bluffed he called it quick and called it rough. He let his hair and whiskers sprout, save when some rival yanked them out. He ate raw meat both hank and hide then crunched the bones for fat inside. We view this caveman with disgust when his rude manners are discussed. In age, in middle life and youth, his roughneck ways were most uncouth. Yet what we think of that old cuss our sons will doubtless think of us. Give me the man whose tools had stoneheads instead of certain modern boneheads. Sleek citizens who fail to vote, buy bottle booze or rock the boat. —BOB ADAMS

Those who have tried the new writing fluid which we advertised last week are delighted with it. There is a bottle for you at the New Era Office. The trolley siding on Broad street near Elm avenue, is being raised to the old grade of the water that stands there after every rain. New ties are being placed under the rails and the space between the roadway and the tracks of the siding will be filled with Belgian blocks laid in concrete. The same paving construction will be used between the rails of the siding, and will be continued to the rear rail of the main track. This improvement will remedy a condition that has been a source of danger ever since the county resurfaced Broad street.

The meeting of the Shade Tree Commission to hear objections to the published schedule of tree removals and plantings was held in the Council Chamber in the Firehouse Friday evening. Were there many kicks? Nary a one! From the loud, long and continued lamentations that have tortured the atmosphere ever since the Commission started to do things to the trees, it might have been supposed that the enlarged meeting place would have witnessed a "capacity house" of irate citizens. Since there were no objections filed, it is to be assumed that the work of the Commission has been entirely satisfactory, and that its program for the immediate future meets with general approval.

"Songs That Live"

A rare treat was enjoyed on Tuesday evening by those who heard the lecture recital by Mrs. Rose Huff Morgan, of Columbia University, New York, on "Songs That Live." The Parent-Teacher Association was most fortunate in being able to secure Mrs. Morgan for the evening.

The speaker said she thought the four best American songs were "America," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Swanee River" and "Nearer My God to Thee," and to these should be added the favorite song of your childhood.

REV. RIEMER COLLEGE HEAD

Chosen President of Moravian Seminary at Bethlehem. Will Take Charge May 1st

The Rev. Reinhold Riemer, for the past four years pastor of the First Moravian Church at Parry, has been elected president of the Moravian Seminary and College for Women at Bethlehem, Pa., one of the oldest and best known institutions of its kind in the country.

The Rev. Riemer is the youngest man ever chosen head of the institution, being just passed 33. He has been very popular and successful in his pastorate at Parry and the congratulations he has been receiving from his host of friends have been tinged with regret at losing him.

The appointment came to Mr. Riemer at quite a surprise. The acting president of the college, Prof. Edgar T. Shields, called upon him two weeks ago, but it was not until the Bishop came to see him later that the original which was in prospect. He accepted the offer of the position Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Riemer attended the Moravian College and Theological Seminary at Bethlehem and graduated in 1912 with the degrees of B. A. and B. D. He then returned to his home in the Canadian Northwest, where his parents live, and accepted the pastorate at St. Mary's, near Edmonton, Alberta.

This is one of the farthest outlying frontier posts of the Moravian Church. In addition to being pastor, Mr. Riemer was postmaster and drove mail stage on a 15-mile trip twice weekly.

In 1915 Mr. Riemer attended the Yale School of Divinity, obtaining the degree of B. D. there and also taking up philosophy and education in the graduate school. He continued his work in the graduate school two years, completing the course required for the M. A. with the exception of the original thesis, which was completed afterwards. His thesis has been somewhat delayed by the strenuous efforts he put into war work and his local pastorate.

During the war the Rev. Riemer spent one year as executive secretary of the Home Service Section of the County Red Cross under the chairmanship of William H. Cook, of Palmyra, and succeeded Mr. Cook as chairman the following year.

One of the features of Mr. Riemer's work at Parry during the past two years has been the development of a program of weekday religious education in connection with the County Y. M. C. A., in which he organized all the boys of the community.

Mr. Riemer expects to assume his new duties on May 1st.

Mrs. Riemer, whose abilities were considered by the trustees when they selected Dr. Riemer, is not yet thirty. She will unofficially play a most important part in reorganizing the household department of the seminary. She will supervise the social life of the students and will direct all changes looking toward a modernization of the seminary family.

Mrs. Riemer was Miss Marie Trickett, daughter of Mrs. Joseph W. Trickett, 208 N. 26th street, Philadelphia. She graduated from the Philadelphia High School for Girls in 1912 and from the Normal School there in 1914. She taught school for several years, meanwhile graduating from the Broad Street Conservatory of Music.

Her father was a vestryman in the Episcopal Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond streets, and was superintendent of the Sunday School.

Boosters Want Garbage Collection
The Palmyra Boosters Club at its monthly meeting Tuesday took up again the question of collection of ashes and garbage. Two estimates from private contractors have been received for the work and in addition the committee handling the subject has obtained the assistance of an expert from the Camden Highway Department.

It is the plan of the committee to gather all the data on the question of the problem and the attitude of the public and then submit the facts to the Township Committee next fall at which time the authorities can make their decision.

The club adopted a new set of by-laws and a constitution, the chief change being the abolition of the due system which had not proved very successful and providing a return to the original system of raising the club's finances by voluntary contributions and a fixed entrance fee.

The speaker of the evening was Walter L. Tushingham, of the Camden Courier, who spoke on the good civic organizations such as the Boosters Club can do. To prove his assertions Mr. Tushingham pointed to the lack of progress shown by towns without such organizations compared to the advancement of towns where the citizens are organized.

Mr. Tushingham also gave details of the management of modern newspapers and presented an interesting account of his recent trip through the South with the Camden Rotary Club.

The Boosters were all entertained with a splendid musical program by an orchestra composed of Edwin Lees, Jr., George Becton, Blair Klepper, Herbert Windsor and Harold Mueller.

Why is a Telephone?
District Manager D. J. Cleary, of the Delaware and Atlantic Telephone and Telegraph Company, with a number of department heads and girl operators, staged a most interesting and instructive demonstration before the Palmyra high school last Friday afternoon.

A complete exchange on a small scale was set up in the auditorium, the material being brought up from Camden on a big truck, and every detail of telephone operation, both local and long distance was shown.

In addition the history of the development of the telephone and the life of Alexander Graham Bell was sketched for the benefit of the students.

In the course of the demonstration, it was explained how errors occur and how the subscriber can help to avoid them. Methods used in locating trouble on the various lines was also elaborated upon.

Several interesting photographic views of the Camden exchange and all its equipment completed the demonstration.

Senaer and Assemblyman Guests of Chamber of Commerce

The program for the regular monthly meeting of the Palmyra Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday evening is crowded with matters of interest.

A new feature will be some entertainment numbers provided by the social committee. There will be music and other numbers and refreshments will be served.

State Assemblyman Powell, of Mount Holly, and State Senator Roberts, of Moorestown, will be guests of the Chamber and each will make a speech. Both legislators were active in the recent session of the legislature and guided the Cinnamon avenue bill safely through both houses despite the governor's veto and other opposition.

The purpose of the Cinnamon avenue bill was to connect the State highway system with the Tacony ferry at the foot of the avenue, and the State plans to improve the street at once, thus benefiting both the town and the ferry.

Interest in the ferry is increasing as the time for it to begin operation approaches and a representative of the ferry company will address the Chamber of Commerce on the latest developments and prospects of the project.

Another matter of timely interest to be discussed will be the tax situation, brought to a head by this year's high rate.

The Chamber has lost its fight to have one of the new Pennsylvania ferry boats at Camden named after this town, it having just been announced that the names Haddonfield and Millville have been chosen.

The officers of the Chamber had pursued this matter closely and had just succeeded in enlisting the cooperation of Senators Frelinghuysen and Edge and Congressman Bachrach, when the question was decided against them.

Greatest Pleasure in Life.
The wearing of a beautiful kimono was stated to be the greatest pleasure of 980 women of Tokyo, in response to a questionnaire sent out by the Hochi, a Tokyo daily. Attending the theater came next with 720 women calling it their greatest joy. One hundred and fifty women answered "visiting friends" as the greatest satisfaction of life. The more simple-minded 100 maidens replied that "good things to eat" are the greatest sources of their heart's delight. The more sophisticated 50 answered "beauty of nature" as affording them the maximum of pleasure. Only 30 women confessed their love for wealth.

Only One Drawback.
A woman writer declares that a good husband may love two women at the same time. We quite agree with her. By all the laws of the Medes and Persians it is not only possible, but altogether the thing to do in this day and age when, more than ever, variety has become the spice of life. We can even go a step further than the woman writer, and declare it not only possible to love two women, but a dozen at the same time. The only trouble experienced so far is that the wife will have none of this new doctrine.—Orin.

The Prison System
In ancient times prisons were private affairs, used to remove rivals or enemies. The first application of the prison system as a punishment for crime came in the establishment of workhouses in London, in 1550. Prisons started as reform institutions in 1704,

AMERICAN LEGION

Post Rodgers Rally

Post Rodgers, No. 156, of Palmyra, held a most enthusiastic and successful rally Tuesday evening at Legion headquarters. Following a brief business meeting an elaborate banquet was served by the members of the Post Auxiliary, under the able leadership of the president, Mrs. Carl Jefferson—everything complete, from soup to nuts, and cigars.

Post Commander Thomas R. Bromley, Post Commander Boehme, Mr. Jacobson, S. V. C., Mr. Knowlton, J. V. C., Adjutant Fox and Harvey Fisher, finance officer, as well as many who carried only the title of "Comrade" made short addresses full of pith, punch and pep.

The officers of Post James A. Bradley, of Riverton, were guests of Post Rodgers and Post Commander Brunt, Dr. Rogers, Post employment officer, and William H. Baker, Post finance officer, also delivered short speeches. Credit for the success of this rally is very largely due to Gordon Hemle and Frank Mathews, who were the originators of the affair, and who had complete charge of the arrangements, in which they were ably and loyally assisted by their comrades.

The next evening of interest to members of the Post will be the third annual reception by Washington Camp No. 23, P. O. S. of A., on Monday evening, April 24th. All ex-service men are requested to meet at the Legion rooms at 745 on that date.

The Palmyra township committee has presented a resolution of thanks to the officers and members of Frederick M. Rodgers Post for the police protection which they recently extended to the local residents. Since the town was raided by bandits the former service men have maintained an auxiliary throughout the night.

Frederick W. Grigg Post, No. 68, Merchantville, is preparing for its second annual show, entitled "The Sheik," which will be given on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 21 and 22. The members will be assisted by fifteen of the leading young ladies of the town. Captain Mahlon F. Ivins is coaching the show.

The borough of Spring Lake recently laid the cornerstone for a $20,000 memorial building, which was the gift of Mayor O. H. Brown. The residents of the resort contributed the remainder.

The annual encampment of the Department of New Jersey, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held in the Assembly chamber at the State House, Trenton, on April 7 and 8. A fund of $1000 is being raised to entertain the visitors. Among the chief speakers will be the National Commander, Robert C. Woodside, and Adjutant General Ruell W. Ellison.

Mainland Post, Pleasantville, held its first meeting last week at its new headquarters recently presented to the Post by City Council. As soon as the home is completely furnished the Legion will entertain the Atlantic County committee. The ladies auxiliary is planning socials to raise funds.

At a lecture given under the auspices of Hightstown Post last week, William Jennings Bryan, former Secretary of State, declared that he favored the soldier bonus and that the war profiteers should be made to pay it out of the fortunes which they made while the soldiers were under arms.

At a meeting of Vanderveer Post, Toms River, plans were submitted for the proposed new home. The members were very enthusiastic over the project. The auxiliary is arranging for a chicken supper to be held in the Legion rooms on Wednesday evening, April 26.

A joint meeting of William Stokes Ronsal Post and its auxiliary was held in the Woodbury parish house Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Olga Ronsal Hendrickson, presented a flag to the Legion, named in honor of her brother.

Commander Baldwin, of Camden Post No. 7, has appointed a committee to arrange a miniature sham ball depicting the great conflict in the Argonne Forest, in which the American divisions figured so prominently four years ago.

Malvern Nabbs Post, Millville, has postponed its annual play to the day after tomorrow, April 25 and 27. More than 100 persons will take part in the production.

The Collingswood Post has organized an auxiliary of fathers.

Song Birds Return and Hungry Cats Await Them

With the return of the migrating millions of song birds, which nest and rear their young in this State, the Fish and Game Commission calls public attention to the importance of guarding these feathered visitors from the half-million or more Jersey cats which are sharpening their claws and licking their jaws in anticipation of the annual feast on soft-meat fleglings. For while New Jersey protects the insect-eating birds from the man who would kill them or rob their nests, the cat is still permitted freely to feed on young robins, thrushes, woodpeckers, orioles, wrens and other songsters.

The commission urges that precautions be taken wherever possible to keep cats out of trees in city and farm gardens during the nesting season. Six-inch collars of tin, set at right angles to the tree-trunk, six or eight feet above the ground, have been found to be a cheap and effective contrivance to keep the cats away from bird-nests, both day and night.

After several years of effort and many near-victories, bird-lovers finally got an anti-cat bill through the last Legislature but it was vetoed by the Governor.

City's Name of Indian Origin.
Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion of Canada, takes its name from the river on which it stands. And the river bears the name of a nation of Indians belonging to the great Algonquin family. The name is said to be derived from the Algonquin word utawa, to trade, to buy and sell, and was applied to this particular tribe because it was noted for its trade in furs, skins, and tobacco.

At the evening service the "Palm" will be sung by Mr. H. W. Dillion, baritone, and the choir will render "Open the Gates of the Temple," and the pastor will preach.

What is Uncle Sam Doing for the Ex-Service Men?
The United States Veterans Bureau is:

1. Paying out over $100,000,000 in cash every day, including Sunday, direct into the hands of the ex-service man or his dependents;
2. Providing, without cost, hospital care and treatment to 30,000 veterans. This care includes board and lodging and represents an expenditure by the Government of $60,000,000 per annum;
3. Giving vocational training without cost, to over one hundred thousand disabled ex-service men at an expenditure for tuition and supervision of $30,000,000 per annum;

4. Mailing out six hundred and fifty thousand checks every month, representing $42,000,000;
5. Conducting an insurance business for over six hundred thousand ex-service men without any cost of administration to them. Insurance in force: Three and One-half Billions;
6. Conducting over fifty thousand medical examinations every month;
7. Giving outside treatment in cases where hospitalization is not required to twenty thousand ex-service men every month;

8. Receiving one thousand new claims every day, in addition to the million two hundred thousand already on file; employing four thousand ex-service men and women in carrying out the work;
9. Requiring for 1922 expenditures in behalf of the disabled ex-service man, $510,000,000—more than the entire expenditure of the whole United States in 1897.

10. The United States of America is already doing more for its disabled veterans than any country in the world, despite the fact that their losses were far heavier than ours.
11. Do these facts indicate that the disabled ex-service man is being neglected?

Senator Frelinghuysen's Stand on the Bonus

The following is a copy of the letter Senator Frelinghuysen is sending out to his constituents in response to letters written him, giving his views relative to the Soldiers Bonus.

I have delayed answering you, communication in reference to the Adjusted Compensation Bill, not because I wished to avoid any responsibility, but because I wanted to personally reply to all the letters which have been addressed to me on this subject. There having been so many letters it has been impossible for me to do so until the present time.

When the so-called bonus legislation was proposed last July, I wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury, asking him what effect its passage would have upon the Treasury and the finances of the country. His reply clearly indicated that it would be disastrous to pay the bonus at that time and this position was endorsed by the President in his message to Congress, in which he stated that he felt its passage would seriously embarrass the Treasury. I then voted to recommend the bill.

Since that time the measure has been proposed again in the House of Representatives and various methods of taxation considered to meet the obligation which would be incurred should the bill become a law. As a member of the Committee in the Senate which was handling such legislation, I have been unwilling to express my opinion in advance of knowing what form the legislation would take and how the funds were to be raised for its payment.

The bill passed by the House provides no ways and means to raise the money necessary for its fulfillment. Ordinarily Congress passes legislation without carrying therein the provision for raising the funds necessary therefor, but the bestowal of the bonus is no ordinary act. I do not know of any other measure which has ever been before the Congress which contemplates taking so large a sum from the public treasury for any given purpose. It is because I believe in a consistent program that I feel that Congress, in distributing so large a public fund, owes it to itself and the country to make a provision for raising that fund. The certificate plan for a cash bonus contained in the House Bill is, in my opinion, unsound and unsafe, and therefore I cannot vote for the measure.

Very truly yours,
J. S. FRELINGHUYSEN,
U. S. S.

COMMONPLACE

By LILLIAN E. CHARLTON

Madge, weary and warm from a long morning's work in the berry patch, was seated in a shady corner of her garden. Opposite her cousin Gwendolyn, cool and dainty in pale-blue muslin, was reclining gracefully in the hammock. To tired Madge, who since her father's death had put all her girlish energies into the running of the farm, it seemed as if cousin Gwendolyn had a monopoly of coolness and daintiness and pale-blue muslins. Perhaps that accounted for her contrary mood, and the snappish replies she gave to her cousin's occasional questions.

"Madge, dear," Gwendolyn's musical voice sounded from the depths of the hammock, "have you read this last beautiful article of Donald Carrington's?"

"No, I haven't," snapped Madge. "But you surely think he is wonderful, do you not? Such originality and such expression!"

"I have my own opinion of him and others like him," she muttered. "He probably has had precious little personal knowledge of that 'Gospel of Work' over which you are raving. I can picture him sitting by a big desk in a comfortable chair, running his lit white fingers through his wavy locks while he passes for fresh inspiration."

Madge, enjoying her cousin's shocked look, was preparing to add fresh color to her imaginary picture, when she spied a dusty figure, in a disreputable dusty machine, trying to climb the hill road.

"There's a poor, hard-working soul to distress!" she exclaimed. "I'm going to see what is the matter. You can stay with Donald. Or," a bit wickedly, "wouldn't you like to come, too, Gwendolyn—and help?"

"I think not," answered Gwendolyn, calmly. "He looks like rather a commonplace sort of man."

Commonplace he certainly looked, and very commonplace was the question he asked.

"Will you please tell me the way to the nearest garage? I'll have to have help here."

Madge looked critically at the machine. "I wonder if it could be the same trouble that Uncle Jim had last week?" she pondered. "We had an awful time, but we fixed it just there, and she pointed with practiced finger to a bit of the machine's mechanism."

"After considerable work on the part of both the little machine was put into normal running order."

"How did you happen to know so much about machines and work in general?" he questioned.

"I've been trying to run this place since father died, four years ago," she answered. "I've had time and need—to learn a good many things."

"And you have learned them well," he said, admiringly.

"But I got horribly tired and impatient sometimes," Madge confessed. "Today I maligned my cousin's favorite author, Donald Carrington. I really like him, but I was cross and tired and made fun of him," and she rehearsed the subject to her laughing auditor.

"I know Carrington a little," he smiled, "and I guess he is a lazy duffer—sometimes."

Leaving, he drew some cards from his pocket with the words, "Perhaps your cousin would like to hear her favorite author. I believe he lectures in Reinbridge next month. Possibly you would come, too. We may meet again."

On the night of the lecture the big town hall was crowded. Madge looked up quickly as the lecturer entered, only to look, horrified, as quickly downward. For, beyond mistake, this Donald Carrington, immaculate in evening garb, was none other than her "Prince Dusty" of a fortnight past.

The lecture was over at last and Carrington was the center of an adoring throng. Yet somehow he was as unassuming as Prince Dusty had been. It was late in the evening when the two found themselves in a quiet corner, and she asked:

"Can you forgive me? I really didn't mean—"

"There isn't anything to forgive," he laughed. "But I want to ask a favor. Your cousin Gwendolyn has invited me to call at your home. Have I your permission to come—not wholly for cousin Gwendolyn's sake?" The honest blue eyes looked into the depths of hers.

"Yes, oh, yes," she said a bit tremulously, "but at all as she said the little word, 'with her whole heart' to her voice six short months later."

Personally.

It is personality that makes for our success or our failure among men, and this personality does not come by chance. Tastes and dispositions we may inherit, and natural talents may have been given us, but out of these we are to shape that strange and wonderfully effective tool—personality.

FIND SHIP IN HEART OF CITY

Mull Buried in San Francisco, Records Show, is a Relic of the Gold Rush Days.

San Francisco discovered an old wooden ship under the streets of its business section recently, relates Popular Mechanics Magazine. Contractors, excavating a deep foundation for a new skyscraper with steam shovels, were hindered in their work by strange massive timbers found 30 feet below the surface. They had accidentally stumbled upon the preserved remains of some strange buried craft.

The bronze-sheathed and copper-bolted hull measured 100 feet in length by 30 feet beam, and great interest was aroused by the puzzling location of the relic a mile from any water. The city's history revealed, however, that it was the Euphemis, a bit of whose historic and romantic existence is as follows:

In the days of '49, when the mad stampede around the Horn to the new California gold fields was on, numerous ships were abandoned by their crews at the end of the journey, and left rot on the mud flats of San Francisco bay. But, in forming the municipal government of the fast-growing city by the Golden Gate, the first town council bought the Euphemis, and converted it into a prison ship. Those were "rough" days in San Francisco and this, the first jail the city could boast, was tied to a wharf, and soon filled up.

An old sketch of the scene at this part of the water front reveals another ship, the Apollo, converted into a saloon and lodging house. As the city grew and forced the waters of the bay back from the spot by filling in the shallows, the novel spectacle was formed of a strange ship sticking up out of the ground in the heart of the city, surrounded by substantial stone and brick structures

SENATOR EMMOR ROBERTS

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
Addresses by Senator Roberts and Assemblyman Powell. Higher Tax Valuations Discussed

Burlington county's two representatives in the State legislature, Senator Emmor Roberts and Assemblyman Powell, were guests of the Palmyra Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Tuesday evening.

Mr. Roberts, in addressing the Chamber, told of having attended earlier in the evening a meeting of the peach growers of Moorestown, where he resides, and vicinity. The peach growers, he said, were organizing an association to promote standard and honest grades and promote co-operation in distribution.

In speaking of his part in having Cinnaminson avenue taken into the State highway system, Mr. Roberts said the State highway officials were convinced that the opening of the Tacony-Palmyra ferry would create a new main artery of traffic in New Jersey and that the new route would become one of the most important branches of the State highway system, with Palmyra as its terminus.

Assemblyman Powell told of having heard from the Chamber of Commerce during the fight for the bill, and said he knew that whenever such an organization got behind a measure it was representing the sentiment of the whole community.

Mr. Powell praised Freeholder George W. Rogers for the part he took in supporting the bill, and said the town owes Mr. Rogers a debt of gratitude for his work. Mr. Powell said that the presence of George N. Wimer at the closing session of the legislature also helped him keep the bill in mind.

Previous to the speeches by Mr. Roberts and Mr. Powell, the tax question was discussed at some length. Albin S. King making a report on the investigation made by the civic committee. Frank Kates explained the increases in assessments made in the last few years. After Assessor Shadle had made increases this year, aggregating $110,000, the county board demanded further increases, which Mr. Shadle refused to make. Thereupon the Township Committee recommended increases of about $70,000 more, which the county board accepted. The total increase in three years, Mr. Kates said, was $425,000.

Attention was called to assessments in Cinnaminson township, adjacent to Palmyra, where it was said the valuation was much less on the average than here. Joseph L. Thomas, a member of the county board, residing in Cinnaminson township, Collector Griscom, when questioned about back taxes, said that a drive was to be made and that tax sales would be held after July 1 to compel the liquidation of about $2,000 of back taxes. A large part of these delinquent taxes are sidewalk accounts on which the township has to pay interest.

Jacob P. Warner suggested that Palmyra follow the example of other towns in getting out taxes to be attached to auto licenses bearing the name of the town.

During a discussion of the move to have the station kept open for the late trains, objection was raised to having the room open unless there was an agent present to preserve order, and it was decided to ask that favor of the railroad.

"CO-OP" TO BUY FARM SUPPLIES

Agriculturists of New Jersey Will Strive for Greater Economy in Costs of Production.

MEET LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

State Bureau of Markets Recommends a Non-Profit Organization Modeled After Grange League Federation of New York State.

Trenton.—New Jersey farmers who are organizing to market their crops collectively are planning another big co-operative movement for organized buying of farm supplies. A farmer's purchasing association, through which county and local groups of agriculturists can place orders for certain staple supplies, is now in the process of formation through a committee of the State Federation of County Board of Agriculture.

The farmers declare they have been driven to seek greater economy in costs of production, by the continued high prices of fertilizer and certain other commodities. The co-operative buying of high-grade fertilizers, it is announced, will be one of the first moves of the organization. Other farm supplies will be added, it is said, as the centralized demand for them develops.

The federation committee has requested the State Bureau of Markets to prepare an organization plan that will meet all legal requirements. The bureau has recommended a non-profit organization, modeled somewhat after the Grange League Federation of New York State, said to have handled over $8,000,000 worth of supplies for Empire State farmers during the last year.

This plan has been approved by the committee, composed of Peter Garrison, president of the Belle Meade Farmers Association; Hendy H. Albertson, director of the Beverly Growers' Association and president of the Burlington Fruit Growers' Association, and William Mount, president of the Mercer County Farmers' Co-operative Association.

Not New in State
The co-operative buying is not entirely new to New Jersey farmers, having been carried on to some extent by the granges and recently developed to a high degree by the Mercer County Co-operative, with an unusual business turnover of a half million dollars. The success of this and a dozen other organizations and the saving in prices as well as the high quality of the supplies secured has impressed unorganized farmers throughout the state, and with these examples before them, the financial depression through which they have been passing is reported to have made the growers eager for a state purchasing association through which all organized groups of agriculturists could place orders on an equal basis. This plan would mean the handling of supplies in great quantities that would insure the lowest quotations, and passing the goods along to the farmers merely at the cost of handling, without profit.

Joy Over Fruit Outlook
Prospects of the greatest fruit crop in years developed when, after a brief period of summer temperatures, peach, cherry and pear trees burst into blossom in Burlington county's fruit belt. Eyes of growers and dealers are centered upon the peach prospects and vision of the strongest set of blossoms ever seen in these orchards will be greeted widely as a harbinger of prosperity.

Orchard owners say the blossoms are thickly set because the trees were not in fruit last year. Frosts that killed the buds, prematurely developed in March and there were thousands of acres of orchards that did not bear a basket of marketable peaches. All the tree energy, that otherwise would have gone into the fruit, went, instead, into new and more vigorous tree growth, which meant more blossoms this spring. Twenty fruit buds on a foot of twig is said to be an average in some of the orchards today, and if these come through the spring without further trouble from frost and insect enemies, it will mean that the fruit will have to be thinned out to bring the best results.

LESSON FOR APRIL 16

EASTER LESSON

LESSON TEXT—John 14:1-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is risen indeed—Luke 24:6, 7.

PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—The First Easter.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why the Church Celebrates Easter Day.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Effect of Belief in the Resurrection.

1. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples, Thomas Being Absent (vv. 14-20).
He appeared to several of His disciples at several different times during that day. This is the first appearance to the disciples as a body. The rumors of His several appearances on that day caused the disciples to assemble to talk over the matter. For fear of the Jews, they met in a private room and barred the door. While they were discussing the strange happenings of the day, the Lord mysteriously appeared before them with the greeting of good cheer, "Peace be unto you." He did not come with censure for their failure and desertion. At His birth the angels announced "Peace." Just before he took His departure, He said: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you" (John 14:27); "Let not your heart be troubled" (John 14:1); and now the first word after His resurrection is "Peace." Having calmed their fears, He gave them an unmistakable evidence of His resurrection. "And when He had so said, He showed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." Their doubts needed to be scattered, and His peace needed to be upon them. Consider:

1. The disciples' commission (v. 21).
"As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." This commission was not simply to a class, as the eleven, but to all Christians. In Luke 24:33 we find that there were others there at that meeting besides the eleven when Jesus showed himself to them and commissioned them, showing that the commission is not confined to a class or order, but is wide as the Christian body itself. All Christians, therefore, are envoys and representatives of Christ. The exercise of this great function is not merely optional with the individual, but is obligatory upon him. The Lord placed it upon a plane with His own commission from the Father—"As my Father hath sent me, so send I you."

2. The disciples' equipment (v. 22).
"He breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost." The mission of the disciple is a very great one, but every one who goes forth in its execution He clothes with the power of a new life by the bestowment of His spirit. No one who has this equipment shall ever fail. The Lord's representatives have His life in them. The barrenness of our efforts is due to our failure to take by faith our equipment.

3. The disciples' authority (v. 23).
"Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained." This authority was not by virtue of office, but by virtue of having the Holy Ghost. This would give the spiritual discernment to know who had or who had not repented, and consequently, to pronounce pardon or not.

4. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples, Thomas Being Present (vv. 24-29).
Thomas was absent at the first appearance of Jesus. His absence deprived him of a vision of the Lord. Absence from the assembly of believers always occasions loss. The other disciples go to Thomas at once with the glad news of the resurrection, but he will not believe. His stubborn disbelief is such that he doggedly declares that unless he sees the prints of the nails, etc., he will not believe. It is right to demand evidence, but to prescribe terms is rank unbelief. Note:

1. The Lord's kindness to those who have difficulties. Thomas deserved rebuke, but the Lord kindly supplied the evidence which he demanded.
2. The revelation of the Lord transforms a doubter into a possessor.
3. The Conclusion of the Gospel (vv. 30-31).
In these verses John's arguments are summarized, and an explanation is given as to why he wrote this Gospel. Many other things could have been written, but these that he wrote he judged adequate to prove his point: To prove that (1) Jesus of Nazareth was the expected Messiah; (2) that He was divine—the very Son of God; (3) that those who believe on Him as God's only Son—the Messiah—would receive eternal life. Eternal life is in Him and only as He is appropriated by faith can men be saved.

What Christ Saw in World.
Christ saw much in this world to weep over, and much to pray over; but He saw nothing if it to look upon with contempt.

Happiness in Our Heart.
The happy heart that we vainly seek the world over is all the time within us, nestled close to our own hearts.—Bruce Calvert.

Our Comforts.
Most of our comforts grow up between our crosses.—Young.

NEW FIRE TRUCK ACCEPTED

Passed All Required Tests, and Is Turned Over to Fire Company

At the meeting of the Borough Council last evening, the committee on the purchase of a fire truck reported that the American-LaFrance apparatus with pump had been received and that it had successfully passed all the required tests. The committee recommended its acceptance by the Borough. On resolution this was done, and the truck placed in the care of the fire company.

The light committee reported the installation of a gas lamp at Park and Thomas avenue.

The police committee made a detailed written report of its activities during the month.

The sewer committee asked for and was given authority to construct a manhole on Main street near Broad. A motion was passed making 8% the rate of interest to be charged on delinquent tax accounts.

Borough Attorney Read submitted a lengthy letter regarding the reasons in detail why the Borough could not, under the law, contribute to the support of the Palmyra Ambulance. The Mayor and councilmen expressed regret that they were unable legally to assist this worthy institution, and the clerk was instructed to send the Association a copy of the letter, and express regret that nothing could be done officially.

A communication was received from O. H. Mattis stating that he would not have allowed the sign to be erected on his lot if he had thought there would be any objection to it, and that he would arrange to have it removed as soon as he could in fairness to the advertising company which had leased the ground. His son, William N. Mattis, was present and briefly explained how the transaction had come about. The clerk was instructed to write to Mr. Mattis, expressing council appreciation of his co-operation in this matter.

The ordinance committee was directed to prepare an ordinance prohibiting the erection of signs in the future.

Harry E. Davis, in whose hands the matter had been placed, presented a handsomely engrossed and framed resolution of appreciation of the services of ex-Councilman W. W. Worrell, for his long years of faithful service, which was signed by the Mayor and councilmen, to be forwarded to Mr. Mattis.

Councilman Geiss brought up the matter of curbing and sidewalks on Main street and Lippincott avenue, which was started a year ago, and on which action was deferred at the time owing to the high cost of labor and materials. The matter was referred to the highway committee for a report at the next meeting.

A communication complaining of the bad condition of two pavements on East Main street was referred to the highway committee.

Councilman Davis said he had received many complaints of the number of unlicensed dogs that are running loose about town. The matter was referred to the police committee for action, and it was suggested that the officers be given a dollar for every unlicensed dog they killed. The Mayor said that in some municipalities owners of dogs who did not have them properly registered were fined $10.

A claim was presented for James Lavery in the amount of $17 for chickens killed by dogs said to belong to C. Cecil Filler, but no action was taken on it, as the law provides that where the owner of the dog is known, the party suffering damage shall take action against him direct.

Fox in County Jail

For the second time in the history of that institution, a fox has been installed in the Burlington county jail as official rat catcher.

Some years ago, someone gave him a young fox, which he kept in the jail yard with no particular purpose in view, but it was noticed that soon after the arrival of Sir Reynard the rats which had overrun the place began to disappear and in a short time not one was to be seen.

Recently the rats have become so plentiful as to be a menace and a nuisance and recalling the former success of the fox treatment, Henry Worrell, brother of the former sheriff, recently secured a young fox from Herbert Small of Shamong township, which he presented to Frecholder Howard Russ, who turned it over to Sheriff Flagg.

PARENTS SEE SCHOOL WORK

Fine Program of Drills, Songs and Dances, and Exhibit of Manual Training and Domestic Science

The school exhibit in physical training and music, held in the public school last Thursday evening was attended by a full house and was most thoroughly enjoyed by spectators and participants alike.

In welcoming the parents and friends, Miss Chew, supervising principal, said that no attempt had been made to prepare an entertainment, and that the exercises to be given were simply portions of the regular school work.

It was a revelation, however, to many of the parents to see just what was being done day after day and week after week, as a regular thing. Such a program would have been considered quite an "entertainment" in the days when they attended school.

"Isn't that fine! Wish they had taught us things like that when I went to school," and "Isn't that well done! Why, I didn't get any work like that until I was in high school," and many similar remarks were heard.

The little folks entered into the exercises and drills with a zest and joy which showed they had been guided by sympathetic hearts as well as efficient minds and hands, and the older pupils showed a growing school spirit, earnestness and responsibility in their work which was most gratifying.

The exhibition was arranged by Miss Mary P. Lucas, director of physical training and music, assisted by all the other teachers.

The smallest children came first, and after each grade had contributed its bit to the program they went to their rooms, where they were cared for by the teachers until the close of the evening, leaving the entire seating capacity of the auditorium for the spectators, except for the space in the middle of the floor where the drills and exercises were given. The stage was used to increase the seating capacity, and many were obliged to stand.

The pupils of the first grade, of which Miss Elsie Eval is teacher, sang "Slumber Boat," "Pussy Willow," "I Had a Little Pony," and gave the folk dances, "Chimes of Dunkirk," and "Shoemaker Dance." Their cute little ways endeared them to the hearts of everyone.

The second grade gave a flag drill which was longer and more intricate than would naturally be expected from such little folks, and did it exceptionally well. They were directed by their teacher, Miss Helen Walker.

The third grade, Miss Margaretta Cunningham, teacher, sang "Dear Little Daisy," "The Wind," "The Wind," followed by the folk dances "Kinder-Polka" and "Klapdansk."

The fourth grade sang "Watchman, What of the Night?" "Indian Lullaby," "The Frog," "He Wore a Woollen Coat," and gave the folk dances, "The Ace of Diamonds," and "Tantoli."

Mrs. Gertrude Williams is teacher of this grade.

Then came a complete change in the nature of the exercises, and the boys and girls of the fifth and sixth grades gave dumb-bell drills which recalled to many of the parents their own schooldays in "The Drill." They were taught by Miss Nancy Agle and Leroy Schneider. The girls were taught by Miss Pauline Phillips and led by Dorothy.

The boys of the seventh and eighth grades gave a wand drill taught and led by Miss Gladys Barrett, and the girls of these grades gave an elaborate Japanese dance, and a gymnastic (barn) dance, taught by Miss Caroline M. Stamen.

The choruses were a lullaby from "Erminie," "Home to Our Mountains," and "The Day After Tomorrow," followed by "The American Creed," the Flag Salute and "The Star Spangled Banner."

After the program was finished and the children had been gathered up from their various rooms, the visitors were piloted about by the enthusiastic little folks to the manual training exhibit, where several specimens were shown of the very real workmanship done under the critical eye of Director Parks, and to the domestic science room where mothers and sisters inspected with great admiration the evidence of skill in cooking and sewing, and the fathers and brothers, and old bachelor uncles, tried to appear as though they understood it all, while furiously looking for a chance to escape. Miss Helen Bozarth is teacher of domestic science and domestic art for the girls.

Every room had something attractive to present or inspect. In some were cleverly constructed and tables, furnished houses, etc., while others displayed specimens of writing, drawing and painting—all regular school work. Close inspection showed results of real study on the part of the pupils in history, geography, and English as well.

The next event of general public interest will be the field meet on Saturday, May 13, on the school grounds and the adjacent highway, starting at two o'clock. Last year the meet was held on Friday, but Saturday has been selected this year so that all who desire to do so may attend, making it a truly community affair.

Many Witness First Aid Work

A large crowd attended the exhibition given by the Champion First Aid team of the Delaware and Atlantic Telephone Company at the high school auditorium Thursday evening of last week.

In addition to a large number of Palmyra citizens, there were present the first aid teams of Burlington and Trenton, and Dr. Downs and his first aid team of Riverside. Members of the Palmyra Township Committee and their wives also were guests.

The exhibition consisted of over twenty illustrations of first aid work. One of the most striking was the rescue and revival of a man overcome by smoke in a burning house. "In carrying this out, a member of the team dashed as though through dense smoke, without a gas mask, to the unconscious victim, whose hands were fastened together and hooked over the rescuer's shoulder, who then dragged the 'victim' quickly to safety and set about the work of resuscitation.

Many other examples of work with broken bones such as might be caused by a variety of accidents, were given. James T. Weart was chairman of the meeting, and along with Committee members Davies, Hartley and Hinchman and George N. Wimer, spoke of the work of the Ambulance Association and praised the citizens devoting their time and effort to it.

After the exhibition, the guests and members of the Association and their friends, to the number of eighty, were entertained at the ambulance house, a splendid "feed" having been prepared by Harry Kemmerle.

It is Worth

Your while to give serious thought to the question of lot and home buying. The Palmyra-Riverton section is beyond question one of the most beautiful spots in this section of the country. Morgan Heights is beyond question the most desirable part of Palmyra as a place of residence. The number of lots are limited, and they are rapidly disappearing from the market. Builder Davis, of 920 Columbia avenue, finds a ready sale for his houses, and if you are interested in purchasing either home or lot, now is the time to take the matter up with him. Do not overlook the fact that Highland avenue is one of the many arteries of travel between the Burlington pike and Palmyra and the Palmyra-Riverton ferry. As stated above, now is the time to give serious thought to this vital subject. Why not have Builder Davis show you the plans and terms today?

Knight Gets Federal Job

Harry L. Knight, of Medford, who has been conspicuous in county and State politics for many years, has been appointed chief distributing officer for the United States Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation, with headquarters on North Broad street, Philadelphia. He assumed the duties of the position on April 1st. The appointment was the result of the recommendation of Senator Frelinghuysen.

Mr. Knight has charge of the payrolls of Hog Island, Bristol, Fairview and Chester, where the shipping board has large interests, and all the housing propositions in New Jersey and in the vicinity of Philadelphia.

Barn and Stock Burned

The barn at the gravel pits of Robert R. Erato, across the Pensauken creek, was destroyed by fire about half past two Tuesday afternoon. Two horses were burned to death.

The Palmyra, Riverton and Bridgeview fire companies responded, but neither of the last two went into action. The barn was too far from a hydrant for water to be used and too far gone when the firemen arrived for the chemical to save it.

About noon on the same day the lot back of the old cap factory at Arch street station caught fire and occasioned another run by the fire company, but little damage was done.

The wind blew a gale all day Tuesday and the fire caused some alarm on that account. The firemen have been paying close attention to field fires during these breezy spring days, as they are likely to spread to nearby properties unless put under control at once.

Barn and Stock Burned

The barn at the gravel pits of Robert R. Erato, across the Pensauken creek, was destroyed by fire about half past two Tuesday afternoon. Two horses were burned to death.

The Palmyra, Riverton and Bridgeview fire companies responded, but neither of the last two went into action. The barn was too far from a hydrant for water to be used and too far gone when the firemen arrived for the chemical to save it.

About noon on the same day the lot back of the old cap factory at Arch street station caught fire and occasioned another run by the fire company, but little damage was done.

The wind blew a gale all day Tuesday and the fire caused some alarm on that account. The firemen have been paying close attention to field fires during these breezy spring days, as they are likely to spread to nearby properties unless put under control at once.

DEATHS

Charles H. Haines, in his eightieth year, passed away at the home of his brother Collins H. Haines, at Parry, on Wednesday, April 12th. Funeral services were held on Saturday, the Rev. E. A. Robinson officiating. Interment was made in Colestown cemetery. The deceased is survived by two brothers, Collins H. Haines and Elwood Haines, both of Parry.

Let us never forget that an act of goodness is of itself an act of happiness.—Maeterlinck.

AMERICAN LEGION

Palmyra Legion to Repeat "Dictator"

Post Rodgers, American Legion of Palmyra, is arranging to repeat the play "Dictator," which was presented last fall. This show has been pronounced by local critics to be one of the best amateur shows ever put on the boards in Palmyra, and the boys are expecting a full house when it is repeated on Saturday evening, April 29th, in P. O. S. of A. Hall. The show will start at 8.15 and will be followed by dancing.

At a rally of the Atlantic County Legionnaires committee was appointed to extend an invitation to both the National and State conventions to hold their annual sessions next year at Atlantic City. It was announced that National Commander Hamford MacNider would be in New Jersey on April 26, 27 and 28, and he will be urged to address a mass meeting of ex-service men of Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester and Gloucester counties on one of the Atlantic City piers.

The members of Mainland Post, Pleasantville, are rehearsing for a minstrel show to be staged the latter part of this month. The proceeds to be used toward installing pool tables, a victrola and piano in the new headquarters at the firehouse. Several new members were enrolled at a meeting Tuesday evening.

F. A. Funston Post, No. 18, Hammon, will supervise the athletic sports in the local park this coming season. A baseball team is being formed and a schedule of games is being arranged with other Legion teams of Atlantic county. The post has leased Park Hall for headquarters.

William Bonnell Post, Woodbury, will again assist General Howell Post, G. A. R., with the Memorial Day exercises. At a meeting of representatives of both organizations, it was announced that Senator William N. Runyon, of Plainfield, will deliver the memorial address from the court-house.

In order that Malvern Nabbs Post, Millville, will not have competition in the sale of artificial poppies for Memorial Day decorations, the City Commission has adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Felmy not to issue permits to vendors of these flowers on May 29 and 30.

The auxiliary of Roosevelt Post, Vineland, conducted a cake sale to provide funds for the purchase of a radio set and wireless phone to be installed in the Legion rooms. At a recent meeting of the post the establishment of a district hospital for disabled soldiers was discussed.

An auxiliary to Elwood P. Tice post No. 89, Westville, has been organized with these officers: president, Mrs. A. M. Plummer; junior vice president, Mrs. Raymond H. Dore; senior vice president, Miss Frances; secretary, Mrs. C. Kathryn Rudmann; treasurer, Miss Henriette Atkinson.

Gloucester City Council has donated a smokestack containing 15,000 bricks to the local Legion, to be used in the proposed new addition to the headquarters on Hudson street. It is estimated that the improvements will cost about $400.

Government officials in charge of hospitalization work for disabled veterans visited Trenton Tuesday and arranged for the care of more than a score of service men at the municipal colony.

News reaches some places quicker than it does others. The American Legion has received a letter from a world war veteran who says: "I understand the government is giving us adjusted compensation with the option of taking land or money. I've just discovered an island in the St. Lawrence river that I want, so tell the government I'll take that."

What Answer Would You Give?

The New Jersey League of Women Voters, in a recent contest, issued ten questions, which had been propounded by prominent people. These questions were answered in a most interesting manner by ten local women, Monday afternoon at a meeting of the local League, held in the parish house of Christ Church, Palmyra.

1. Give your definition of politics. Mrs. John T. Larkin.
2. Quote from the Constitution of the United States its fundamental principle. Mrs. Fred Blackburn.
3. In the State of New Jersey how many judges are there in the Supreme Court, how many representatives, senators? Mrs. Weygand.
4. What is meant by the system of checks and balances in our National government? Mrs. Harry Kenny.
5. Explain city manager plan, short ballot or proportional representation. Miss Amelia Coale.
6. What are the duties and powers of a county committeeman? Mrs. William T. Purnell.
7. What was the chief force that brought about the eighteenth amendment? Mrs. Durell T. Mason.
8. What are the chief advantages and disadvantages of the party system. Mrs. Joseph Morgan.
9. Give your reasons why women should or should not serve on juries. Mrs. E. K. Merrill took the place of Mrs. Fred P. Hemphill who was unable to be present, and Mrs. Merrill presented information which had been gathered by both.
10. What do you consider women's greatest contribution to political life today? Mrs. R. S. Williams.

Miss Amelia Coale, Miss Edith Coale, and Miss A. B. Campbell expect to attend the first Pan American Conference for Women, and the third annual convention of the League of Women Voters to be held in Baltimore April 20 to 27.

Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it.—Abraham Lincoln.

Green Cloud Over Coral Island.
It would be difficult for sailors to locate the low-lying coral islands, or atolls, of the Pacific but for the fact that over each of them there generally hangs a cloud of a characteristic green hue. One of these green "atoll clouds" has been seen, the phenomenon is always easily recognized. The cloud is due to moisture evaporated from the warm water of the shallow lagoon. The smooth surface of the lagoon acts as a mirror and throws a greenish reflection on the cloud.

Figures That Stagger.
It is probable the human population of this earth, itself only a winning atom in sidereal darkness, rises to upward of two billions, and is certainly not less than 1,650,000,000. But how many creatures of all kinds has prolific nature spawned upon this relatively minute speck in cosmos? If Noah took a pair of every living species aboard his ark, how vast an army did he have with him on his great flotilla, and how large must have been that mighty bark?

means more than just doing the work properly.

For instance, we have made an ornamental cornice hanging gutter which looks so much better on bungalows than the ordinary hanging gutter, at no material increase in cost.

Service, with us, means any suggestion that our experience enables us to make.

OFFICIALS STUDY NEW GUARD LAW

Governor Edwards Wins Victory in Controversy Over Reorganization Scheme.

BILL IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Judge Advocate General in Washington Studying Question Whether New Jersey Legislature May Act Without Consulting Federal Authorities.

Trenton.—It has become officially known, although not officially announced, that the Federal Military Bureau, acting upon the advice of the Judge Advocate General of the United States Army, has declined to approve the provisions of the law of the 1922 legislature, which proposes complete reorganization of the New Jersey National Guard.

This decision by the Militia Bureau comes as a complete vindication of the attitude assumed toward the bill by Governor Edwards, who held that the measure constituted an attempt to deprive him of some of his authority as commander-in-chief of the National Guard and accordingly vetoed it. The Republican majority in the legislature, however, passed it over his veto.

Introduction of the bill by Assemblyman Powell of Burlington, a former service man, was an outcome of the controversy that developed in the Guard following the elevation of Howard S. Borden of Oceanic to the rank of brigadier general in command of the state's brigade of infantry. Borden was opposed by many of the guard officers who were in the federal service during the war on the ground that he was not fitted for the post. The bill provided for the retirement of Borden and other officers whom he had placed in positions of importance and also for the restoration of the headquarters of the various units to those localities in which they were originally located. Governor Edwards had issued orders providing for the removal of the headquarters of some of the South Jersey units to cities in the northern part of the state.

The Powell law re-established headquarters of the One Hundred and Fourteenth Infantry Regiment, made up entirely of South Jersey guardsmen, in Camden, and retained the headquarters of the One Hundred and Thirtieth Regiment in Newark. At the time of the bill's passage the governor, in his veto message, questioned its constitutionality, claiming that the legislature could not interfere with the designation of existing military units because the guard is federalized and considered the first line of defense.

The Powell law became effective immediately upon passage February 1. It specified that it should not become "operative" until the consent of the President of the United States had been obtained. The issue was referred by the Militia Bureau to the Judge Advocate General for interpretation of the constitutional questions involved. The formal opinion has not been received by Governor Edwards, although its contents, withholding approval, are known.

Whether the governor, as commander-in-chief, will request the Militia Bureau to re-allot units on the basis existing before the Borden controversy is not known. If such a request is not made, the annual encampment at Sea Girt this summer will witness the One Hundred and Thirtieth and One Hundred and Fourteenth Infantries going into camp as constituted at present.

New Jersey physicians are preparing to take an active part in putting into operation the new medical amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Law, which was enacted at the last session of the legislature. One of the first steps has been the calling together of representatives of the various county medical societies for a conference to discuss various phases of the act.

The call for this conference has been sent out by Dr. Wells P. Eagleton of Newark, chairman of the Welfare Committee of the Medical Society of New Jersey and the committee which drafted the medical amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Law. One of the chief subjects of the conference will be a discussion of a schedule of medical fees to be charged in compensation cases. Dr. Eagleton's committee and the officials of the State Medical Society are anxious to safeguard the public employers and insurance carriers from being overcharged for either medical or hospital service. There will be a minimum and maximum fee for each item.

At the invitation of Dr. Eagleton, there was a conference in Newark between the physicians of the Welfare Committee, insurance carriers, manufacturers, state commissioner of labor and the compensation referees. Interpretations of the law were had. All agreed that it would work to better satisfaction to physicians, workmen and employers than the old act. Quick notification of treatment of industrial cases, simplified report forms and the fixing of fees were considered the main factors.

The medical amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Law, which was the only change made to the act by the legislature last winter, will become effective July 4. It provides for unlimited treatment for the injured workman and assures the physician and hospital of payment for their services. It separates physicians' fees from hospital fees, setting up a maximum of $50 for each in ordinary cases. In cases which require more than the average treatment, notification to the employer and Compensation Bureau is all that is necessary to obtain it. The employer is safeguarded by notification and the right to review and the clause in the law which states, "All fees and other charges for such physicians and surgeons' treatment and hospital service shall be reasonable and based upon the usual fees and charges as prevail in the same community for similar physicians, surgeons and hospital service."

Phones to Aid State Troopers

Wherever the state police may be patrolling their posts in northern New Jersey, residents of each section will be in close touch with the troopers by telephone, through the co-operation of the New York Telephone Company, with the police organization. It was announced by J. A. Hurley, local manager of the telephone company.

"If you want the troopers," Mr. Hurley announced, "just ask your telephone operator for state police. She will connect you with the nearest troopers' zone headquarters, as a regulation telephone toll call, and the troopers will do the rest. Information to this effect will be printed on the front covers of the next telephone directories, along with the notices concerning fire and police emergency calls. The telephone numbers of the troopers' headquarters will be posted on the central office switchboard bulletins before each operator to aid them in handling these emergency calls."

Troopers' zone headquarters in the territory served by the New York Telephone Company are at Netcong, Bordentown, Hammonton and New Brunswick. Certain places in each zone will be used by the state police as substations at which they may reach their troopers by telephone while on patrol. On arriving at a town, they will call at the substation, inquire if "anything is doing," and communicate with headquarters, if necessary. Zone headquarters will have a scheduled route for the troopers' patrols and will know at all times where those guardians can be reached. By this system of telephone contact, the state police will be able to reach any given point in their zones within a short time.

Similar co-operation is afforded the state police in New York state by the telephone company. The troopers' records in that state show that many times the constabulary has been materially aided by the quick work and ready assistance of telephone operators when speedy action was imperative.

Chancellor Retires From Vestry

Chancellor Edwin Robert Walker, highest judicial officer in New Jersey, has retired as one of the vestrymen of St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal Church, because, he alleges, politics has been introduced into the church. He insists the church is no place for politics. The church is attended by the exclusive social set of Trenton.

In accordance with his wish, expressed in a letter to State Comptroller Newton A. K. Bugbee, senior warden of the vestry board, Chancellor Walker was not re-elected at the last election. James E. Galt of the Engineering Department, Public Service Corporation, was chosen in his place.

Chancellor Walker's statement follows a disagreement with other members of the vestry over an address made by Rev. Samuel Steinmetz, rector of the church, at the Republican Club here recently. Rev. Steinmetz told a story and concluded, it is alleged, with the remark that "if he wasn't a Republican he would be ashamed of himself."

Chancellor Walker regarded the appearance of the rector before the political organization and stressing of his partisanship as indecorous and probably offensive to many parishioners, who like himself, were Democrats.

At the annual parish meeting vestrymen chosen besides Galt were Bugbee, Charles H. Baker, Dr. E. H. Gandy, Prof. W. Starr Myers, Walter P. Wilson, Dr. J. E. Stretch, William H. Atkinson, Dr. J. H. Cooper, W. O. Warren and Albert C. Funk. Dr. Steinmetz presided at the election.

Plan County Seat Removal

The voters of Atlantic county may have an opportunity this fall to vote on the proposition to change the county seat from Mays Landing to Atlantic City. At a meeting, plans for moving the county seat were discussed, and it was generally decided that this could be accomplished with the expenditure of about $2,000,000.

However, the saving in time and convenience of those who have to use the courts at Mays Landing would more than compensate for any monetary loss. The present county seat is twenty-two miles away from Atlantic City, but the poor transit facilities between the two places makes it really a day's journey to get to Mays Landing and back.

As most of the business comes from Atlantic City and more than four-fifths of the money of the county is raised there, residents and others believe Atlantic City is logically the location for the county seat.

If the freeholders do not favor the plan, for political reasons, the project may be placed before the voters in November.

State B. P. C. A. Receivership

Claiming that the New Jersey Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has been badly managed and money expended illegally, Mrs. Nettie S. Rowell and eighteen others appeared before Vice Chancellor Fielder in Newark and asked that a receiver be appointed for the organization. The matter was adjourned for two weeks.

G. Wianer Thorne, former president of the society and editor of the Newark Sunday Call, explained that the difficulties of the organization were due to automobiles, as they had taken the place of horses used heretofore.

1. His Age (v. 1). He became king at the age of sixteen.
2. Length of His Reign (v. 3). He reigned fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecholiah, which means "Jehovah is able," or "Made strong of Jehovah."
3. His Character (v. 4). He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord.
4. His Prosperity (v. 5). He definitely sought God while Zechariah lived, and because he sought him God made him to prosper as long as he continued to seek him. He like Josiah before him, turned aside when the influence of the man of God was removed.
2. Uzziah's Achievement (vv. 6-15).
1. He Built Eloth (v. 2). This was a port on the Red sea which had been lost to Judah. No doubt it was the aim of the father to get possession of this port, so the son makes its restoration his first duty. It was an important trading point and the commercial interests of the nation would be greatly increased by its possession.
2. He Had Military Success (vv. 6-8). (1) He conquered the Philistines (v. 6). After subduing them he dismantled their fortified cities and built new cities in their stead. (2) He defeated the Arabians (v. 7). (3) He made the Ammonites across the Jordan pay tribute (v. 8).
3. He Fortified Jerusalem (vv. 9-15). He took advantage of the peace which was now enjoyed because of the subjugation of his enemies to fortify Jerusalem. He placed in the towers great engines of war for hurling stones.
3. His Civic Improvements (v. 10). In the regions south and west of Jerusalem he built towers which served a threefold purpose, namely: observation, defense and shelter for his cattle. This enabled him to carry on his stock-raising enterprises.
4. His Army (vv. 11-15). It numbered 307,500. It was thoroughly equipped and drilled. God was with him, and his fame spread far and wide. The source of his strength was God.
4. Uzziah's Transgression (vv. 16-18).
The prosperity bestowed upon him by the Lord was too much for him—his heart was lifted up with pride. This is always so unless counteracted by divine grace. In his pride he presumptuously intruded into the priest's office. This act was not because of forgetfulness, but of deliberate purpose. Azariah and eighty other priests remonstrated with him, but this only made him angry. This act was a trespass against God.
5. Uzziah's Punishment (vv. 19-21).
While raving in his wrath and about to burn incense he was smitten with leprosy, a dreadful, incurable and unclean disease. This judgment came upon him as a consequence of his overreaching pride and vanity. He was thrust out of the sanctuary—excluded from God's house. Indeed, his own conscience smote him, and he hurriedly went out because he knew that the Lord had smitten him. He not only was excluded from the place of worship, but was dethroned. His son Jotham was made regent. His judgment was:
1. Sudden. The Lord smote him while attired as priest, with censer in hand. Frequently God's judgments are speedy. 2. Severe. The leprosy broke forth upon his forehead. The same judgment befell Miriam for speaking against Moses (Num. 12:10), and Gehazi for lying to Elisha (II Kings 5:27). Great sins demand severe punishment. 3. Conspicuous. Azariah and all the priests looked up and beheld the leprosy (v. 20). The spot on Uzziah's forehead proclaimed him as the object of God's wrath. How many today are bearing about the marks of sin—God's judgment! 4. Humiliating. He was henceforth unclean—cut off from the congregation. This is what sin always does. 5. Fatal. It ended in death. "The wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23).

A beautiful wedding took place in Calvary Presbyterian Church, Riverton, on Saturday afternoon, April 15, at 4 o'clock, when Rev. Dr. Nicholas F. Mr. Davis is a veteran of the World War, having seen overseas service of twelve months in the 28th Division. Sweet harbinger of Spring! The spirit of "clean-up" is in the air. Front yards and back yards are being raked and put in order. One of the most notable improvements in this line is the cleaning up of the back yards on Church lane near Broad street, which adds greatly to the attractiveness of the view of the approach to Riverton by train or trolley. Let the good work go on.

The following have been drawn for the grand jury of the April term of court: Albert H. Hodson, Palmyra; Edward S. Wood and Howard G. Taylor, both of Cinnaminson township. For the petit jury Solomon Romm, Charles MacCrosson and William Vogt, of Palmyra, and Harry E. Moyer, Ezra Perkins and Chas. B. Durborow, of Riverton, and Howard Hunter, of Cinnaminson township were drawn.

Several weeks ago an appeal was published for wash cloths, for the service men in hospitals, which was in response to a call received from the American Red Cross. Riverton has fallen fifty short of its quota. The cloths can be made of dexter cotton, old bath towels, hand towels or table linens, but must be twelve inches square. They may be sent to Mrs. Dais Reed, 716 Main street, Riverton.

The Joseph Campbell Company is installing a large irrigation system on one of its farms near Cinnaminson. The plan consists of a pumping outfit with intake from a pond, thousands of feet of pipe mains and overhead sprinkling lines on poles. Large hot beds, covering acres of ground, have been built to raise the small plants to sell to farmers for tomato growing. E. C. Worrell, of Moorestown, has the contract for the irrigation system.

Early in the week it was reported that the prisoner who escaped from the county jail and was later captured on the banks of the Rancocas creek, was the man who was arrested for assaulting and robbing the driver of a truck on the Burlington pike, near Westfield several weeks ago. This, however, was not correct. The escaped convict was named Denno, and he was committed to jail some time ago for larceny. When it was discovered that Denno had escaped, word was sent broadcast over the county by Sheriff Flagg. At Riverton Chief of Police Geiss and Officer Quigley took up the hunt in the chief's car. They arrived on the scene just after the man had been retaken by Warden Clarence Horner.

Serious Fire Averted

But for the prompt arrival and efficient handling of Riverton's new fire truck at noon last Saturday, when the roof on the office and warehouse of Joseph T. Evans was in danger of being ablaze, that building and several of the adjoining ones would have doubtless been destroyed. The high wind was blowing directly up Main street, and the New Era building and the post office would surely have been burned before a pumper could have reached here from any of the adjacent towns.

As it was, the new truck was on the scene before the flames had gained serious headway, and two powerful streams of water extinguished in a few minutes the flames which were rapidly, notwithstanding the work of the chemical engine and the valiant work of a bucket brigade inside the building, which threw on the burning roof an acid mixture which was kept in a barrel for such emergencies.

It was just before one o'clock that little Billy Steedle saw smoke arising from the roof, and notified Officer Quigley, who turned the alarm.

When the firemen reached the roof they found it to be ablaze in two places, one of them between the two peaks, and hidden from view. The firemen worked swiftly and with precision, and the new pumper behaved admirably, furnishing all the water that was needed and more.

This one incident alone has fully warranted the purchase of the apparatus, for it would be hard to estimate the damage that might have been done had the firemen been using the old equipment.

It is supposed that the fire was started by a spark from a freight train which passed through Riverton about fifteen minutes before the fire was discovered.

All Topsy-Turvy Anyhow

Man's life is full of trouble and temptation. He comes into the world without his consent and goes out of it against his will. His journey through life is full of strange and contradictory experiences.

When he is little the big girls kiss him, and when he is big the little girls kiss him.

When he is little he wants candy but can't have it, and when he is a man he can get it but doesn't want it.

When he is a boy he wishes he were a man, and when he is a man he wishes he were a boy again.

If he raises a large family he is a chump, if he raises a check he is a thief.

If he is a poor man he is a bad manager, and if he is rich he is dishonest.

If he puts forth an effort to collect what is justly due him he is a sausage and ought to be cut up.

If he is in politics it is for graft, and if out of politics you can't place him and he is no good to his country.

If he gives to charity it is for show, and if he does not he is a stingy old cuss.

If he dies young there is a great future before him, and if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling.

If he is affectionate he is a softy, if he isn't he is a cold-blooded proposition.

And there you are!

Device Saves Lives of Birds. Any one who has watched a moth circling round a candle will have noticed that the intensity of the fascination does not prevent the moth from coming at intervals to rest on the rim of the candlestick. In the same way naturalists have discovered that if perches are fitted around the lighthouse beacon a little below the strongest beams the birds will use them as resting places. In Holland these perches are now employed with gratifying success.

The Story of
Our StatesBy JONATHAN BRACE
XXXIV.—KANSAS

WAY back in 1541 in 1541 Coronado, the Spanish explorer, is reputed to have penetrated to Kansas in search of a mythical wealthy Indian tribe. It was not again visited, however, by white men until nearly one hundred and seventy-five years later, when the French in Louisiana sent out an expedition to investigate the remote portions of what was then their territory. Most of the present State of Kansas was a part of the Louisiana Purchase and so passed from French hands to the United States in 1803. A small additional part was later added in 1850, being ceded by Texas.

The Lewis and Clark party traversed this region in 1804, and Lieutenant Pike passed through Kansas two years later. Kansas history really becomes interesting in the middle of the century, when the slavery agitation gave it the name of "Bleeding Kansas." It had been an organized territory since 1821, at which time it had been considered a portion of the Territory of Missouri. According to the Missouri Compromise, if Kansas became a state it could not be a slavery state. The opposition of the South was so strong the Kansas-Nebraska bill was passed in 1854, making this vital question optional with the inhabitants in each proposed state. With this law in force, the two factions actively started colonizing Kansas. Immigrants from the slave states of Arkansas and Missouri immediately founded Leavenworth. The Massachusetts Emigrant Aid society sent out anti-slavery settlers, who founded Lawrence, Topeka and other towns. Conflict between these two parties broke out at once, and it was only put down by the intervention of federal troops. The Northern settlers came in such numbers that they soon were in the majority and in 1861 an anti-slavery constitution was adopted, so Kansas was admitted to the Union in that year.

James S. Halliwell is working energetically to have a sidewalk constructed on the south side of the railroad between Park avenue and Society Hall. He has obtained the support of all property owners concerned, except two, and has high hopes of seeing this important improvement become a reality within a few months.

A big Vim truck hit Powell Thatcher's Ford sedan in the rear on Stenton avenue, Germantown, last week and damaged it considerably. The car then careened over to the other side of the street and smashed another car. At a hearing the next day the Palmyrian was exonerated from blame and the insurance people on both sides have taken up the question of damages.

After the roadbed is laid no openings will be permitted for the purpose of making sewer connections.

Men Who Shot Officers to Be Tried in Burlington County

Three men alleged to be members of the gang which shot Palmyra's two police officers on February 12 were sentenced in Camden last Friday for small robbery offenses for which they had been arrested. At the same time retainers were lodged against the three men so that as soon as they are released in Camden they will be handed over to Burlington county authorities and work will be started at once to convict them of the Palmyra crime.

Two of the suspects, Joseph McDonald and Lawrence Heinrich, were fined $50 and the third, Harry Purs-glove, $100, on petty robbery charges brought against them in Camden. They all went to jail until such time as their fines are paid or served out.

Every member is urged to be present in the lodge room at 7:15 sharp, from which we will proceed in a body.

Three applications were presented last Friday evening showing that some of our members have not forgotten the true spirit of Odd Fellowship. What are you doing to make the lodge meetings interesting and to increase our membership?

If nothing—do something!

Palmyra Sets Philadelphia Example

Monday's Bulletin said editorially: "With the introduction of a motor deck boat on the Tacony-Palmyra ferry, the lower level of which will be given over exclusively to vehicles, Philadelphia will be afforded an object lesson in the advantages of a complete separation of pedestrian and vehicular traffic in ferry service, which may lead to a demand for similar facilities on the central routes, where accidents are too frequent to permit the scramble of loading and unloading."

If each of us would sound one note of helpfulness, the vast discord of selfishness would be largely still.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

AMERICAN LEGION

Post Rodgers, Palmyra

Washington Camp No. 23, P. O. S. of A., will give a reception to Post Rodgers of Palmyra and Post Bradley of Riverton, next Monday evening. Past National President William J. Heaps, of Baltimore, will be the orator. Members will meet at the Post rooms not later than 7:45.

Under the auspices of Post Rodgers American Legion, of Palmyra, "The Dictator" will be repeated by the same cast as played it last fall. The performance will take place at 8:15 o'clock, on Saturday evening, April 29th, in the P. O. S. of A. Hall, Palmyra, and will be followed by dancing.

Saturday, May 27, will be known as Poppy Day in New Jersey, and the American Legion auxiliary units, numbering more than 150, will conduct a sale of poppies on that date, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the opening of several convalescent homes in various sections of the State for disabled veterans of the World War. Last year a poppy sale was conducted by the auxiliary units and all of the money went to France.

The State Executive Committee of the Legion held a meeting in Trenton and made final arrangements for the visit of National Commander Hanford McNider in New Jersey on May 4, 5 and 6. He will arrive at Atlantic City on May 4, where he will be met by a committee of Legionnaires. In the evening he will be the chief speaker at a public meeting to be held on one of the piers. On May 5 he will attend a big demonstration in New York. The commander will be accompanied on his trip through New Jersey by a party of about twelve Legionnaires, including his staff and State officers.

Major A. Elliott Brown, U. S. A., of Railway, has been designated by the War Department to organize the 311th Infantry Reserve in New Jersey. Many Jersey men were members of the 311th Infantry, which trained at Camp Dix and saw service in France. It is the Government's plan to train the reserve of the famous wartime unit recruited in case of emergency. The infantry was originally made up of men from central and South Jersey.

Members of the Gloucester Post of the American Legion are spending their leisure time in dismantling the old filtration plant building and smokestack at the water works, and the material taken from them will be used in the construction of the new two-story addition to the post headquarters on Hudson street. The post was given the building and stack to tear down. The former service men are also doing the work on the new building.

Four Hurt When Steering Gear Breaks

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Halliburton, of Garfield avenue, Palmyra, and Mrs. Halliburton's father, Robert Brown, a Philadelphia policeman, and M. M. Brown's daughter, were all injured in an automobile accident on the Burlington Pike Sunday near Jessup's corner, when their Ford Sedan crashed into the side of the road as the result of the steering gear breaking.

Brown was thrown through the windshield and suffered a severely cut neck. He was taken to the Riverton hospital and at last reports was doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Halliburton suffered a lacerated nose and a cut on the leg. Her husband was badly bruised and Mrs. Brown suffered from shock.

All were treated by Dr. Bauer.

The Milky Way

The rose is red, the violet blue, wise scouts drink milk and so should you. Of all the mean words to say of Minnie the meanest are "She's awful skinny," but milk has vitamins and fats to put the plumpness on her slats. Josephus Spriggs, though lank and lean, built like a stringless greenpod bean, by drinking milk would soon appear as chunky as a roasting corn. Pale and thin and phantomlike but plump and Golden Bantamlike. Consider Cassius, Brutus' chum, who stabbed J. Caesar in the tum. He had a lean and hungry look, and see the wicked course he took. Yea, I will bet you what you dare that Jeremiah was also spare. He makes a grim and grouchy noise that shows his need of avoidance. "Two lack of brindle cows, I think, that put the ancients on the blink. Had they drunk milk so fresh and snappy, they might have been much less unhappy, not half so mean nor half so scrappy."

To Protect Leather Goods from Mold

Leather articles, such as harness, shoes, suitcases and bookbindings, are almost certain to mildew if kept in a warm, dark place. This means that particular care should be taken of leather articles during the spring and summer. Mold will not seriously damage leather unless it remains too long, but it may change the color and in that way do considerable damage to some articles.

The simplest way to keep leather from mildewing is to keep it in a well-ventilated, dry, well-lighted place, preferably one exposed to sunlight.

When mildew has developed it should be wiped off with a damp cloth or washed off with soap and warm water, and the leather oiled lightly with castor or neat's-foot oil and well dried afterward. These simple methods for preventing and removing mold are satisfactory and safe.

King Plans Village of His Own

Albert S. King, of Cinnaminson and Bank avenues, plans a big real estate extension to Palmyra which will consist not merely of building up township land now vacant, but which will add to the township the land upon which the development is to be built.

He plans to have the marsh on the river in front of his farm, the former Joseph Morgan homestead, filled in and made into the site of three or four hundred attractive riverfront homes.

Mr. King explained his plans when he appeared before the township committee Tuesday evening to make a statement concerning his recent acquisition of the riparian rights at the foot of Cinnaminson avenue, a move in which he had met with opposition from the township, but in which Mr. King and his attorney, Frank A. Mathews, Jr., were victorious after a long fight.

Mr. King stated that his purpose in acquiring the land, which is now undeveloped, was to use it in constructing an extension to Cinnaminson avenue to connect with a riverfront boulevard which would encircle his proposed village. He renewed his pledge to the township that whenever the town had good and sufficient reason for possessing the riparian rights at the foot of his half of Cinnaminson avenue, he would be willing to restore them.

It will take two years at least, Mr. King said, for the filling in of the marsh to be accomplished, and that considerable further negotiations with the State Board of Commerce and Navigation would be necessary before any start could be made. Mr. King also plans to sell his farm for real estate development purposes, reserving only six acres for his homestead. Township Committeeman Hinchman offered a resolution to the effect that Palmyra adopt daylight saving, clocks to be moved ahead one hour the night of April 29, in order that there be no confusion caused here by the adoption of the plan in big cities and the railroad on the same date.

A proposal contained in a letter from Lincoln Richter that the town park in front of the Parry avenue school be formally dedicated as Frederick M. Rodgers Square on Memorial Day was reserved for consideration at next meeting.

Listen to Joaquin Miller a minute:

"In men whom men condemn as ill, I find so much of goodness still; in men whom men account divine I find so much of sin and blot; I hesitate to draw the line—between the two—where God has not."

Ball Players, Notice

Manager Harry Nichols, of The Field Club baseball team, Palmyra, requests every man who has any intention of playing baseball this year to be on hand for practice this Saturday afternoon, as the opening of the season is at hand and it is time for organization work of the team to begin.

Owing to a change in schedule, the locals will play Medford here on May 6, the opening game, instead of Burlington.

Palmyra High School

The P. H. S. baseball team travelled to Upper Darby last Thursday and lost an exciting game by the score of 9-8 after 11 innings. Joe Gorman and Bill Wald pitched for the locals. Three hits each were made by H. Shippa and Lester Warner, while one of Mervine's singles drove in two runs. The game was marked by considerable loose playing and hard hitting.

A dual track meet was held here with Collingswood Thursday afternoon.

This Friday afternoon the boys play Bordentown on the home grounds.

Fine Turf Diamond at Delanco

When completed the Delanco Base Ball Club will have one of the best fields in New Jersey. The town's athletic association is spending $10,000 to remodel the park which is in the heart of the municipality. The new stands will seat about 2,000 spectators and the diamond itself will be turfed after the fashion of major league grounds.

The Delanco Athletic Association, which has a membership of 150 of the town's leading citizens, is backing the base ball club, which won the Central Jersey League championship last year.

The base ball team also is the only one in Burlington county belonging to the Philadelphia Base Ball Association.

Besides the base ball diamond, the new field will have a modern running track and other equipment necessary for a recreation center.

T. B. Hayward, president of the athletic association, will manage the base ball team. He succeeds Charley Shippa, who piloted the team for three years.

Delanco officially will open its season at home May 6, with Roehling.

ISAIAH'S SUMMONS AND RESPONSE.

LESSON TEXT—Isa. 6:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Here am I; send me.
—Isa. 6:8.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Gen. 12:1-4;
Ex. 3:1-4:17; Josh. 1:1-9; Jer. 1:4-19; Matt.
10:2-5.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Calls Isaiah to Help Him.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Young Man Who Was Ready.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Our Response to the Call for Service.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Service to Which God Calls Us.

I. Isaiah's Vision of Glory (vv. 1-4).
So definite was this vision that the prophet remembered the very time of its occurrence. It meant so much to him that he could ever look back to it as a day when his ministry took on a new meaning.

1. He Saw the Lord on His Throne (v. 1). Though the death of Uzziah left Judah's throne empty it was made clear to the prophet that the throne of God was occupied. The Lord was high and lifted up, showing that He is above all kingdoms. This was a peculiar preparation of Isaiah for his work. The one who has really seen God can never be the same again; life has a fuller meaning ever afterward.

2. He Saw the Seraphims Above (vv. 2, 3). Just who these beings are we do not know. The word signifies "holy," "burning." They were glorious beings whose business was to wait upon the Lord, to go on errands for Him. They had six wings—two for flight; two to cover their face, showing reverence; and two to cover their feet, showing humility. These three pairs show that reverence and humility are of equal value before God, with activity. The song of the seraphims shows that they saw holiness as God's supreme attribute. The thrice "holy" perhaps refers to the Trinity. The first choir sang, "Holy, holy, holy," and the second choir responded to this by saying, "The whole earth is full of His glory."

3. The Manifestation of Majesty (v. 4). "The posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke." The smoke, no doubt, signified God's wrath against man's sinfulness (see Psalms 18:8; 74:1).

II. Isaiah's Conviction of Sin (v. 6).
The vision of God brought the prophet to see himself. It is only in the light of God's holiness that we see our unholiness. When Peter got a glimpse of who Christ was he begged Him to depart from him, saying, "Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord" (Luke 5:8). The prophet not only realized that he was a sinner, but that the nation was a nation of sinners. What the world needs today above all things is a vision of God.

III. Isaiah's Cleansing From Sin (vv. 6, 7).
The taking of the coal from the altar shows that he was connected with sacrifice. The fire that consumed the sacrifice was holy fire. When a sinner gets a vision of God in Christ, the Holy Spirit applies the merits of Christ's shed blood and cleanses from all sin.

IV. Isaiah's Call (v. 8).
Immediately following his cleansing came the call. Men must be cleansed from sin before they shall be called to God's service. Though God has many angelic beings who willingly go on errands for Him, yet He has errands upon which only cleansed human beings can go. The only ones who can really declare the gospel of God's grace are those who have experienced its saving power. God is asking this same question of men and women. Isaiah readily responded to his call by dedicating himself to the task. He said, "Here am I; send me."

V. Isaiah's Commission (vv. 9-13).
1. The Sending (vv. 9, 10). He had a most discouraging task before him. He is assured that the people will hear his message, but he is unmoved by it. They will even increase in blindness and deafness to the divine warnings—they will neither be converted nor healed. Such a hopeless task would only be undertaken by one who had had a vision of God.

2. The Encouragement (vv. 11-13). Facing this discouraging outlook the prophet raised the inquiry, "Lord, how long?" The Lord in His reply assured him that it would not last forever. The land would be desolate, the cities without inhabitants, and the houses without occupants; but as the oak retains its vital substance even long after it has been cut down, so from Judah shall a remnant be saved. The holy seed is the substance which shall constitute the basis of the kingdom which shall come when David's son shall be king.

Must Look to Jesus.
If I want to repent, if I want to change my mind and get more and more determined to be good, I must look at Jesus Christ. I must notice how perfectly faultless, perfectly loving, perfectly patient, perfectly ready to spend Himself in the service of others, He is.—The Bishop of London.

The Deceitful Tongue.
For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.—Micah 6:12.

ALLOWS TEN CENT TROLLEY FARE

New Jersey Utility Commission Permits Increase as Experiment for Six Months.

COMPANL NEEDED SOME CASH

Big Water Company Loses Appeal for Authority to Increase Rates—It Is Not a Public Utility Under Jurisdiction.

Trenton.—The Public Utility Commission has partly allowed the petition of the Jersey Central Traction Company, operating in Middletown, Highland and Freneau townships and the borough of Keyport, Monmouth county, to increase its rate of fare.

In its report filed in Trenton the board recites that it is of the opinion that the company is entitled to an increase in revenue to meet its financial obligations. It is provided that the plan agreed upon should be an experiment, lasting for a period of six months. Within four weeks the company will be allowed to put into effect a system whereby the company may charge a base rate of 10 cents per zone instead of 7 cents, with a commutation rate, by which tickets are sold for any given number of zones at reduced rates.

The company asked for a rate yielding a total revenue of $400,000. The commission believes, however, that the rate established by it may reasonably be anticipated to increase the revenue to provide the full amount the company showed to be necessary for its continued successful operation. The commission in its report states that its plan is only tentative and would be experimented with for a period of six months before being put into permanent operation.

In a decision filed the Utility Commission eliminates the East Jersey Water Company from a number of applicants for increased rates. This action is taken upon the theory that, even though the East Jersey Company supplies water to retail concerns, it is not a public utility coming under the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Board.

A number of water companies filed a petition with the board for permission to charge advanced rates. The East Jersey wholesaler water to the Acquackanonk, the Kearny, the Montclair and the Passaic water companies, and it has contracts with the cities of Jersey City, Bayonne and other municipalities in north Jersey.

The effect of the board's decision will be to proceed with the hearing on the part of the other companies, but to prevent the consideration of the East Jersey request. The Utility Board held that inasmuch as this company does not supply the public directly it cannot be considered a public utility, nor are its contracts with the municipalities it serves subject to the board's control.

Representing the city of Bayonne, John J. Treacy, former president of the Utility Board, argued that the company could not be considered a public utility, while L. Edward Hermann, former counsel for the board, represented the companies and contended that the East Jersey should be included.

"The mere fact," said the decision, "that the water which the East Jersey Water Company sells to the other companies is ultimately devoted to the use of the public does not in itself give the board jurisdiction over it."

"Squito Knows No Lines"
Refusal of the legislature to grant financial assistance to the state department of conservation and development work has disappointed but not disheartened the department, and notice is served in the annual report, just made public, that solicitation of funds for the work will be persistently continued until its importance is recognized by the legislature and the desired financial aid is granted. The department asked the last legislature for an appropriation of $200,000, but was flatly rejected.

"Year by year," says the report, "the conviction has grown that New Jersey's greatest problem is the mosquito pest and year by year has increased the assurance that that burden can be thrown off at no great cost and within a short time."

"The work already done has been carried on mainly at the cost of 11 county mosquito extermination commissions, whose aggregate appropriations for the work of this year were $273,948. The state appropriation was only $16,500. As most of the county commissions quite properly devote their attention and money largely to local mosquito control, the salt marsh work progresses slowly. At the present rate it will take 15 years to finish the job. Moreover, the task properly is one for the state, not for the counties, because the insects know no boundaries, and those bred in Bergen or Union are likely to trouble the people of Essex or Hudson."

Jersey Bars Fare Rise
Street car patrons should not be obliged to assume the burden of higher fares in order to have a utility company provide a service on a line which is scantily patronized and which operates at a large annual deficit, the State Public Utility Commission held at Trenton in granting the application of the Public Service Railway Company for permission to abandon its tracks and service between Benner's Corner and Amboy avenue, Metuchen.

The board's decision held that if the company was obliged to maintain the line, which carries on an average less than one passenger a trip, the burden would necessarily be reflected in the form of higher fares in other parts of the system, where a lower fare might be enjoyed if this and similar lines were discontinued. The board also disallowed the petition of the borough of Metuchen for approval of the discontinuance of the transfer charge from the Metuchen shuttle car to the Middlesex line.

Plan New High School
Erection of a modern new high school building at Pittman, with 20 rooms and auditorium, to cost approximately $225,000, fully equipped, was recommended by a special committee composed of representatives of the Board of Trade, Board of Education and citizens at the grammar school building.

For several weeks this special committee has been holding meetings and going over plans with Ritter & Shay, Philadelphia architects. Some of the big school contractors were invited to submit bids on the proposed school to give the committee an idea as to costs. These estimates were gone over in detail, figures were compared and the committee worked out the approximate cost of the type of building needed at $225,000. The committee recommended that the Board of Education ask the Board of Trade, Board of Education and citizens at the grammar school building.

The borough now sends about 120 pupils to the high schools at Glassboro and Woodbury. This number will be further increased following commencement this year.

Bad Ice in Jersey
While ice of varying thickness covered pools and the surface of the ground was frozen in south Jersey, fruit and truck growers are divided in opinions as to the extent of the damage done by the cold weather. Fruit orchards have been damaged to some extent, but just how badly cannot be determined for two or three days, the experts say. Growers are hopeful that the damage will not greatly reduce the normal yield. In any event, they say, it is not nearly as bad as a year ago, when virtually the entire season's fruit crop was wiped out in a single night by a sleet storm the last of March after several weeks' warm weather had advanced every growing thing.

Orchardists were surprised to awake and find shallow rain pools frozen solid and the grass stiff with frozen dew and rain. On orchards where there is good air drainage and where the air kept stirring little damage apparently has been done by the freeze. In the lowlands where rain drops froze in the open blossoms the fruit buds have been blighted. Peaches for the most part are already set with fruit, which the growers say, will stand a lot of cold weather without being harmed. Apples are believed to have suffered the most damage, as they are now in full-bloom and at their most tender stage. It will take at least two days of sunshine to show how badly orchards have been hit by the freeze. The blighted blossoms will turn brown and tender green fruit that has been nipped will drop off. There has been such an abundance of blossoms this spring that the growers say a 30 per cent kill by the freeze at this time would hardly be noticeable in the season's matured crop.

Some Camden county farmers declare that they will lose heavily by the heavy frost, while others said their crops are not out of the ground far enough to be affected.

Fake Co-operative Deals
With the rapid developing of the co-operative marketing idea among New Jersey farmers, unscrupulous persons, according to reports that have reached the State Board of Agriculture, are already taking advantage of the trend of the movement to promote visionary or fake schemes at the expense of the farmer. A case in point is cited by the department as an illustration of what the grower must guard against in protecting himself and the legitimate co-operative organizations.

Deacon

I like the saying that Morrill people cannot be divided: ed morally into black and white, but only in various shades of gray. Let's all try to bleach out but not despise too much the man who is a little darker gray than we are.

Laugh

Build for yourself a strong box. Fashion each part with care. Fit it with hump and padlock. Put all your troubles there. Hide therein all your failures. And each bitter cup you quaff. Lock all your heartaches within it. Then sit on the lid and laugh.

Tell no one of its contents: Never its secrets share. Drop in your cares and worries. Keep them forever there. Hide them from sight so completely. The world will never dream half. Fasten the top down securely. Then sit on the lid and laugh.

Riverton Red Cross

The Riverton Branch of the American Red Cross has met every month this winter in the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian Church to make compresses and pads for the Burlington County hospital and the visiting nurse.

The association sent 108 paper-back pads, 660 4x6 compresses, 138 6x6 compresses to the Burlington County hospital and 432 pads to Miss Kraus, the visiting nurse. The Burlington County hospital furnished their own material.

The meetings will now be suspended for the summer and resumed in the early fall, when we look for the hearty cooperation of our members in the continuation of our work.

Busy Day for the Fire Company

The house, occupied by Mary Hill, an aged colored woman, at the Halton gravel pit, was destroyed by fire about half past seven Thursday morning. The Palmyra and Riverton fire companies responded promptly to the alarm but were unable to save the building, owing to the fact that the flames had gained too much headway, and the water was not readily available. The Riverton company took its chemical and the new pumping engine. When it was found that the pump could not be used it was immediately returned to the fire house, so as not to hinder Riverton without protection, and the old apparatus, known as No. 2, was taken down.

About ten o'clock Thursday morning a field back of Frank Hunter's farm was discovered to be on fire and Riverton's three fire trucks responded to the alarm and after three hours of hard work succeeded in checking the flames before they reached the main woods. About twenty acres of dead grass and scrub pine growth was burned and it was only due to the fact that there was a fire hydrant close by, furnishing an ample supply of water, that the woods were saved.

Perkins-Lindley

A very pretty spring wedding took place on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, when Miss Mary Irene Lindley became the bride of Mr. Alfred George Perkins, of Riverton, Conn. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Joseph A. Riney, took place in the rectory of the Church of the Sacred Heart.

The bride, wearing a suit of fawn eponge, with picture hat of blue milan straw, and carrying a bouquet of orange blossoms, sweet peas and forget-me-nots, was attended by Miss Verne Meshaud, of Torrington, Conn., who wore a suit of blue duvetette and blue georgette picture hat. The groom was attended by Mr. Henry H. Perkins, also of Torrington, Conn., immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Freilacher, of 420 Thomas avenue. About forty guests from Torrington, Conn., New York, Philadelphia and Riverton, were present at the reception which followed. Upon their return from a wedding trip, which will be spent in New York State, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will reside at 507 Cinnaminson street, Riverton.

This is the final effort of the county to collect on this claim, all other attempts in the past having proved unsuccessful. Some time ago the department refused the claim, on the ground that the government had the same rights to use the roads as the public.

To the Citizens of the Borough of Riverton:
Inasmuch as Philadelphia and Camden have decided to adopt the Daylight-Saving Schedule on April 30, I recommend that the Borough of Riverton do likewise.

How Can Patrons Improve Postal Service?

Patience while asking for service, when postmaster and assistants are both doing their best to serve.

Look over all mail before taking from office to avoid taking a possible piece for another in their box by mistake.

Carefully tie and pack parcel post packages.

See that letters are securely sealed, stamped, and addressed before placing in letter box, or letter drop at post-office.

Place address long enough on envelope that address won't be cancelled.

Place your return card on all mail matter mailed.

Don't find fault and scold the postmaster or his assistants if parcel ordered the day before hasn't arrived.

Mail early in the day. 75% of the out-going mail is received at the post office between the hours of 3 and 6 p. m., causing a great congestion and probable delay at the terminal post offices.

Keep a supply of stamps on hand purchased from your post office.

Don't ask the postmaster to sell you a stamp five or six times a day. Register all valuable letters, and insure valuable parcels.

Direct all mail matter carefully, and give it the once over before mailing.

Sold $2500 worth of Treasury Saving Certificates last week. We still have a few more left of this 4 1/2%, compounded semi-annually, investment secured by the Treasury of the United States. Help your office make her quota. Ask for pamphlet at the post office.

Peaches or Pines

O woodman spare that tree, refrain from further hacks and do not swing and sling so free von double-bitted ax, but lend a listening ear to me and let your arm relax. Our wood supply is growing scant—we should not chop unless we plant. Ere to Saint Peter's choir I've risen to blend my deep bass voice with his'n, to thumb and strum both flat and sharp on one sixteen left handed harp—ere this, I say, has come to pass, I'll scratch around in leaves and grass to find an oak or maple seed and having stuck it in the mead and covered it with loam and muck, in later years with any luck I'll have a tree beneath whose boughs the woodchucks and the goats may browse. "What does he plant who plants a tree?" the poet asks of you and me. He plants a hope of future good in shade and beauty, fruit or wood. So here and there tree seeds I'll place to benefit the human race. Posterity shall view those trees and pay me compliments. Like these, "If you plant a tree, you plant a friend." "What does he plant who plants a tree?" the poet asks of you and me. He plants a hope of future good in shade and beauty, fruit or wood. So here and there tree seeds I'll place to benefit the human race. Posterity shall view those trees and pay me compliments. Like these, "If you plant a tree, you plant a friend." —BOB ADAMS.

Camp Dix to Be Abandoned

Abandonment of Camp Dix as a regular army post has been definitely decided upon, and arrangements are being made to transfer the First Division to various other localities in the Second Corps area. The artillery branch of the division will go to Annapolis, and the other units to Fort Jay, Hamilton and other eastern posts. Camp Dix will be retained for the training of militia and citizen soldiers during the summer season, and also for storage purposes, with only sufficient detachments of soldiers to care for and guard the warehouses. The movement of troops from the camp is expected to begin on May 1st and continue until all the men who are to be removed have been transferred.

Read every page of the New Era. Local news is now being published on the first and fourth pages as well as on the inside of the paper. Attention was called to this several weeks ago, but it has been found that some of our readers have missed seeing things they would like to know about because they confine their attention generally to the second and third pages. Property owners in Palmyra received their tax bills this week and considerable comment has been caused by the marked increase both in valuations and in the rate. There will doubtless be a great many appeals made when the County Board of taxation sits at the firehouse, Palmyra, on Tuesday, May 23rd, from nine to eleven-thirty a. m. Those intending to appeal their assessments should read carefully the instructions on their tax bills so that the protest may be properly made, otherwise it will not be considered.

Will Revoke License of Game Law Violators

"Twice guilty and out of luck" will hereafter apply to violators of the New Jersey fish and game laws. Apparently no act passed by the recent Legislature has caused more general satisfaction among sportsmen than the law which places a super-penalty upon the habitual poacher. Upon his second conviction for breaking the hunting and fishing code, in addition to the usual penalty, it is provided in the new law that the court shall immediately revoke the violator's license and for a period of two years from the date of the second conviction, he shall be denied the privilege of a license to hunt or fish in this State.

Burlington County Hospital Increases Its Usefulness to the Community

Like the great majority of hospitals in other communities and even in the very largest cities, the Burlington County Hospital has found its resources pretty fully occupied during the past few months.

This crowding of the hospital has been considered due generally to the business conditions of the times, unemployment, under-nourishment and exposure in various ways, increasing the amount of sickness.

The peak of this increased need has apparently now passed to some extent, with improved general conditions, and it now seems possible to resume some of the work which has previously been started. This is particularly true in that it now intends to hold free clinics as formerly, on Thursday morning of each week, at ten-thirty for first examination or general treatment. A person may come at that time on Thursday, or if it is a case which necessitates the removal of tonsils or some minor operation, the person should make application by telephone to the superintendent of the hospital, phone Mount Holly 6, and make arrangements to come to the hospital the night before.

The same necessity of telephoning applies to maternity cases where the superintendent should be telephoned for reservation of time in advance.

The usefulness of the hospital and its necessity as a community institution has been well demonstrated lately in the number of cases of head accidents. Some of these have resulted from automobile collisions. The hospital authorities report that even as compared with last year, the number of cases receiving free treatment have been increasing greatly. It is the desire and intention of the management that as far as it is physically possible the hospital shall, at all times, be especially useful to all such cases.

On the other hand, there are quite a number of private rooms at moderate rates which can be had on brief notice and the organization of the hospital is such that it is believed that all patients and patients now receive as skillful and expert treatment as can be had in hospitals of much greater size.

High School Notes

Captain Mervine, of the baseball team, has resigned and his successor has not yet been elected.

The Junior reception last Friday evening, held in the high school auditorium, was one of the biggest successes of the season, much of which was due to the quality of music rendered by Mervine and Dietz's orchestra.

The high school relay team has been entered in the Penn relay to be held Saturday on Franklin field, Philadelphia. The team is composed of Sack, W. Sullivan, R. Kersey and C. Boal, with R. Batory as sub.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XXXVII.—NEBRASKA

THE Indian name for the Platte river was Nebraska, meaning "shallow water," and from this came the name of the state. A nickname for the state is the Blackwater State.

Of the early Spanish explorations little is known, except that Coronado probably reached the great plains of this region in 1541. More than one hundred and twenty-five years later Father Marquette noted the Platte river on his trip up the Missouri.

In the beginning of the Nineteenth century the Lewis and Clark expedition skirted the boundaries of the present state and in 1805, Manuel Lisa established the first known settlement which was a fur trading post at Bellevue.

This was just after the Louisiana Purchase had brought Nebraska into United States territory.

Omaha was established as a post of the American Fur company in 1825 and Nebraska City the following year.

With the California gold rush in 1849 many pioneers rushed through Nebraska and some stopped and settled there although there was a law forbidding settlements among the Indians. The real colonization boom, however, started with the passing of the Kansas-Nebraska act in 1854, which arranged that these two sections should become free or slave states at the dictate of their inhabitants. The Nebraska territory was then organized and reached from the fortieth to the forty-ninth parallel.

In 1861, the region north of 40th was made into Dakota territory. The Indian territory was also created, which reduced Nebraska to its present size of 77,520 square miles, except for a slight addition in the Northwest which was made in 1882.

In 1867 Nebraska was admitted as the 37th state over the president's veto. It has eight presidential electors.

Painting Coffee Beans.

One of the flourishing industries at Rio de Janeiro is that of coffee painting and polishing. The raw coffee beans being tinted, preparatory to shipment to South Africa, where that tint helps to sell the coffee. While the plain black grain is preferred in Brazil, experts say the polishing and painting are not harmful, because all the graphite, ochre and other materials used are disposed of when the berry is roasted.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Fine Buildings in Buenos Aires.

Although the Teatro Colon, Buenos Aires opera house, is far famed as the largest in the world, the architectural jewel of the city is the magnificent Jockey club, on the Calle Florida, the Fifth avenue of the southern metropolis. Its staircase is wide and pillared of green marble. The furniture of one of the ballrooming rooms was taken over in its entirety from an old French chateau and has a great fencing hall.

Ballroom Dancing.
The earliest form of ballroom dancing was the quadrille, started about 1815. This was followed by the lancers, invented in 1836. The polka was adopted in 1835. The waltz, which came from Germany, in 1795, did not become popular as a ballroom dance till later. The two-step is an American invention.

AMERICAN LEGION

Rumblings from Palmyra Legion last Monday evening, Camp No. 23, P. O. S. of A., were delivered by William J. Heaps, of Palmyra, and Post Rodgers, of Riverton, a reception.

A number of speakers were on the program and splendid addresses were delivered by William J. Heaps, of John Hopkins University; Dr. N. F. Stahl, Calvary Presbyterian Church, Riverton; County Commander of the Legion W. H. Absalom, of Florence; Assemblyman Clifford Powell, of Mount Holly, and Major Stone, of Burlington.

George N. Wimer made the speech of welcome and the Legion men were introduced by Leslie Reeves. Response was made on behalf of Post Rodgers by Commander Harry Brunt and on behalf of Post Rodgers by Commander Lincoln Richter.

A splendid banquet was served following the meeting, during which music was furnished by Eiseley's orchestra. Guy C. Hendry, county Y. M. C. A. secretary, was present.

As the years roll by, the ties which hold the American Legion and the Patriotic Order Sons of America together seem to tighten, bringing to all a closer feeling of love for God, love for country and love for fellow-man, carrying out the principals laid down by the founders of both organizations.

At the start of the war Camp No. 23 worked tirelessly for the boys who went forth to do their duty as they should do in order to earn for themselves the right to say "I am an American." With the close of the war, Camp 23 did not stop its labor, but rather injected more spirit into the welcome home, which was extended to the boys. When the American Legion first started to organize the helping hand was extended and has never since been withdrawn.

On Saturday night, April 28th, Post Rodgers will present the "Dinner Show" starting at 8:15 in P. O. S. of A. building.

An asset to Palmyra—a good American Legion!

Mount Holly Legion Tag Day

Mount Holly Post, American Legion, is preparing for its annual Tag Day which falls this year on Saturday, May 6. Twelve pretty girls are going to patrol the streets and public places of the town, and if any guilty men escape without being "tagged" they will have to be set down as a hard shell, indeed, and fit only to eke out an existence in single misery for the rest of his natural life. The Post members and their fair allies and friends hope to realize enough from the contributions received on that day to purchase needed Post Colors.

The State convention of the disabled American veterans of the World War will be held in Newark next month. Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the Veterans' Bureau in Washington, and other prominent men will be numbered among the speakers. A conference of all organizations of veterans concerning disabled ex-service men will be included in an open session of the convention.

Commander Clarence R. Harbert, of Shaw-Paulin Post, Glassboro, has appointed the following committees: civic, Dr. Charles D. Pedrick; membership, Andrew Y. Uhl; resolutions, Samuel W. Downer; sick, John Anderson; athletic, Thomas Cullen; social, Lawrence G. Haines, Jr.; house, Nicholas Rehm; publicity, Le Roy Supple.

Camden's Memorial Day committee has been organized by selecting James E. Hewitt as chairman; Daniel B. Jester, vice chairman, and Charles M. Curry, secretary.

Oliver Randolph Parry, a Philadelphia architect, has submitted plans and specifications for the proposed new Legion home on Main street, Toms River. The members of Vanderveer Post are making arrangements to entertain David W. Jameson Post, Philadelphia, who will be their guests on Memorial Day.

Three service men, Carroll D. Riley, of Camden; John A. Meagher, Jr., of Trenton, and Warren W. Lokker, of Jersey City, are first on the civilian service list for inspector of power vessel equipment, State Department of Commerce and Navigation.

More than one hundred persons took part in the comedy entitled "Let's Go of 1922" given in the Levoy Theatre, Millville, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings under the auspices of Malvern Nabli Post.

Corporal Matthews-Burnell Post, No. 518, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Camden, opened its new headquarters with an interesting program.

East Side orchestra furnished music for the occasion and the ladies' auxiliary provided a luncheon. Addresses were made by Charles Matthews and Oliver Burnell, fathers of the post, after whom the post was named. The veterans are raising funds to decorate the graves of the dead soldier boys in Bethel, Arlington and New Calvary Cemeteries on Memorial Day.

In honor of the 200 members of the order who served their country during the World War, the Camden Loyal Order of Moose unveiled a bronze memorial tablet in their home on Market street. The chief speaker was Ralph W. E. Donges, Circuit Judge.

Starting simultaneously in every community in the United States on April 30, the international association of Rotary clubs and the American Legion will combine to observe "Boy's Week" with exercises and programs of interest and help to young America.

When a wife of wounded buddy was desperately ill, physicians appealed to jobless service men in the American Legion barracks, Cleveland, O., for blood for a transfusion to save her life. The blood of the unemployed veterans was too thin, it was found, and volunteers had to be obtained from a Legion Post of veterans who have jobs.

The practice of prohibition enforcement officials wearing the army uniform to trap violators of the liquor law caused the American Legion of Norfolk, Va., to register a protest with Secretary of War Weeks, who took immediate action. The Legion alleged desecration of the insignia immortalized by American arms during the world war.

Baseball

Everybody Out for Practice, Asks Manager Nichols

Manager Harry Nichols, of the Field Club baseball team, calls for all players to be on hand for practice Saturday afternoon.

Every man who expects to play is urged to be on hand as it will be the last practice before the opening of the season with Medford on May 6. A large number of players were on hand last Saturday and all showed encouraging form. The team this year is to be composed entirely of home boys and every citizen should feel an interest in their success and come out and support the team.

Throughout the whole league increased interest is being shown in the teams, and all the star players of the up-river towns are sticking with their home-town aggregations. Consequently the league will be able to display the fastest brand of baseball shown in Burlington county for a long time, and there will be a stiff fight for the championship.

The local boys were measured for their uniforms last Monday.

Twilight Games

Further interest is expected to be aroused in baseball locally by an inter-organization league that is being formed to play twilight games during the week. The Baptist and Methodist churches, the Arisians, the K. of P., the American Legion and the Odd Fellows are represented and some rare games are expected.

Palmyra High Wins

Palmyra high school's baseball team defeated the Temple Prep team, of Philadelphia, in a game played here Wednesday afternoon by the score of 8 to 3.

The big feature of the game was a home run by Gorman, Palmyra's pitcher, with the bases full. The was in the first inning when the locals scored in all seven runs.

Clayton Weikman had three hits—Lester Warner two and Howard Shins two. Van Hansberry, of Delaware, showed up well in left field and Carl Lutz, who played two innings also displayed class.

A shakeup in the lineup of the locals, which has been made by Coach Brumbaugh since the Upper Darby game, apparently has had the desired effect.

The colored first baseman of the visitors played a star game and they had a Japanese pinch hitter who attracted considerable attention.

East Riverton Wins

The East Riverton A. C. played its first game last Sunday afternoon, with the Rexall A. C., of Riverside, as their opponents.

William McIlhenny pitched for East Riverton, with George Steedle on the receiving end. For Riverside, Ruth and Grant shared the honors in the box, with Molinski behind the bat.

The 12-9 score was in East Riverton's favor. The home team scored 14 hits and had four errors, while the visitors made 15 hits and had two errors.

The East Riverton team expects to play every Saturday afternoon. This week they will go to Camden and play the Westfield team at 44th street and Westfield avenue.

The boys expect to have their new uniforms in time for next week's game.

The manager is Leon Egan.

Representing himself as the agent of a great co-operative purchasing organization of thirty Atlantic City hotels, a slick talker visited farms in central parts of the state a few days ago soliciting an opportunity to purchase poultry and other products at prices well above the general market quotations. He said his organization would eventually take the entire output of the prospect's farm. The only thing necessary to qualify for participation in this bonanza was the purchase of one share of stock, making the owner a member of the co-operative association.

The stock was offered at $10 a share. When some producers hesitated about making advance payments, the generous solicitor offered to accept an initial payment of $2.50, with a written amendment to the application that the balance could be paid when convenient.

The stranger told of a large refrigeration plant that was to be erected by the co-operative association of hotel men in Atlantic City, of a slaughter house recently purchased in West Virginia and an entire creamery in Pennsylvania. When farmers sought further information of the project from the State Bureau of Markets an investigation made by that department brought to light the fact that the agent solicitor was unknown, at least by the name he used, at the seashore resort and that the Atlantic City Chamber of Commerce could find no trace of the co-operative buying organization he was supposed to represent.

The matter was promptly referred to Colonel Schwarzkopf of the state police and the department has warned farmers throughout the state to withhold their interest and investment from such private marketing proposals until they can investigate their real status.

Character. Character is the hardest problem to solve. Lives of promise easily get silted down to commonplace. When pleasure substitutes for obligation character takes wings for the barren and the future collects scraps from the husk heap. When will-power becomes amuse it takes orders from environment and vies with others in contributing to folly. This "one-of-the-crowd" conduct has left many a well-endowed life wrecked on the rocks of circumstances.

High Seas. The rule of international law is that every country bordering on the sea has the exclusive sovereignty over such sea to the extent of only three miles from its shores. All beyond not within three miles of some other country is open or common to all countries. "High seas" means the open sea, including the whole extent of sea so far as it is not the exclusive property of any particular country.

Hint for Gardeners.

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK IS OBSERVED

May 1 Sees Inaugurated First General Campaign of Kind in Service.

Without the Postal Service, business would languish in a day, and be at a standstill in a week. Public opinion would die of dry rot. Sectional-hatred or prejudice only would flourish, and narrow-mindedness thrive.

It is the biggest distinctive business in the world and it comes nearer to the innermost interests of a greater number of men and women than any other institution on earth. No private business, however widespread, touches so many lives so often or sharply; no church reaches into so many souls, stutters so many pulses, has so many human beings dependent on its ministrations.

"Postal Improvement Week" has been set for May 1, by the Postmaster General. This is the first general campaign of its kind in the Postal Service for several decades. Business men and their organizations, large users of the mail, newspapers, motion pictures, advertisers, and the entire organization of 820,000 postal workers are to be enlisted in this country-wide campaign of interest in postal improvements.

Your help is vital. Address your letters plainly with pen or typewriter. Give street address. Spell out name of State, don't abbreviate. Put your return address in the upper left hand corner of envelope (not on the back) and always look at your letter before dropping in the mail to see if it is properly addressed. This care in the use of the mails is for your benefit and speeds up the dispatch and delivery of mail matter.

If you have any complaints of poor service make them to your postmaster. He has instructions to investigate them and report to the department.

COURTESY

It sticks in human relations like postage stamps on letters. The POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT expects it to be used by its postmasters and employees in dealing with the public.

Help them in its use beginning with POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK, May 1-6, 1922.

THANK YOU

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE XXXVI.—NEVADA

NEVADA is a Spanish name, a descriptive one, meaning "snowy," and is taken from the Sierra Nevada.

Those lofty mountains which separate the State from California. Most of the history of the state centers in this Western section, near the Sierras, and it is here that all of Nevada's principal cities are located.

The first white man to cross the present state was the Franciscan Monk, Father Gares, who made his way across the desert to California in 1775. In 1825 Peter S. Ogden of the Hudson's Bay company discovered the Humboldt river, which is sometimes called Ogden river after him.

The next memorable trip across the state was that by Fremont in 1843, when he went to California at the time of the outbreak of the Mexican war. It was this war which in 1848 resulted in Mexico ceding a large area to the United States, of which Nevada was a part. When this was organized into territories, the Territory of Utah extended to California. The Western inhabitants, however, were left to their own resources and accordingly organized their own government. Resenting the attitude of Utah they petitioned to be annexed to California.

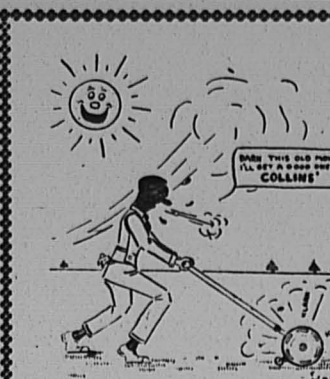

In 1859 the Comstock lode was discovered and Nevada had its own mining boom. Population immediately grew by leaps and bounds and in 1861 Nevada was formed into a separate territory. Later, portions of Utah were added and the lower part of the state was taken from Arizona. Petitions for statehood were made but it was not until 1864 that Nevada became the thirty-sixth state of the Union.

Though Nevada ranks sixth in size with its area of 110,000 square miles, it has the smallest population of any of the 48 states. Between 1800 and 1900 there was a marked decrease in the population due to the falling off of mining industry.

Drowning Man Calls Dog to Rescue. Finding himself in difficulties while swimming in a reservoir with his eight-year-old son on his back, William Hubert Lovick, thirty-seven, land-lord of the Mooreock Inn, Roopley Moor road, Norden, near Rochdale, Lancashire, called for his dog to go to his help. Hearing his master call, the dog jumped in, followed by Mr. Arthur Burrows. The boy was got to the bank, but by then Lovick had sunk. When his body was recovered he was dead.—London Daily Mail.

Does It Pay—

to have your furniture repaired? The cost of having a piece newly upholstered is usually much less than the purchase price of a new piece. Many times the upholstery can be repaired at a slight cost—giving you service for a few more years. Good-bye to the Rubber Sac!

The pen at the left is a rubber sac self-filler—the barrel a mere half full of rubber. It holds only 20 drops of ink.

The pen at the right is the marvelous Dunn-Pen, the Fountain Pen with the Little Red Pump-Handle. It holds several times as much ink as the rubber sac pen of the same size—and you can pump it full in a jiffy.

The marvelous DUNN-PEN

The Fountain Pen with the Little Red Pump-Handle. The Dunn-Pen has no rubber sac. It doesn't leak, clog, or flood, and automatically cleans itself while you are filling it. Absolutely guaranteed.
