Liberal Contributions for Riverton's Old Home Day

Over $1000 Collected in Monday Night's Canvass; Many Still To Be Heard From; $2500 Needed

When the firemen and boy scouts called forth Monday night to collect funds for the Old Home Day celebration they were met with kindness and generosity on every side. The amount taken in was over $1000, which will be required to carry out the plans of the committee.

Several streets were not canvassed owing to the shortness of the evening, and these were visited the next night, adding $200 to the fund, with Cinnaminson Township still to be heard from.

A meeting of the joint committee of the fire company and the Chamber of Commerce, which is assisting the firemen to stage the celebration, will be held at the fire house Friday night of this week, at which time it is hoped to have a full report of all the collecting teams.

It will then be finally determined whether it will be possible to carry out the program as arranged, or curtail it because of insufficient funds.

The program for the day is originally outlined includes the purchase of silk flags for the children's parade in the morning, prizes for the athletic events for the children to be held on the river bank, a brass band for all day and evening, prizes for the races to be run by Boots Lever, George Hill, Al Leconey and other stars of the All-American team, and a crowd estimated to number nearly two hundred enjoyed the evening's program.

An announcement that Dr. E. J. Cattell, former Philadelphia chief statistician, who was slated for the speaker, would be unable to attend, caused a stir of disappointment, which was soon overcome with the delightful remaining features of the well laid program.

Dr. Cattell was forced at the last minute to notify Richard E. Wilton, secretary of the Club, that he would be unable to attend, being called out of town on business.

Mr. Purcell, president of the club, did not learn until almost Monday of the vacancy on the program, and said he left no stones unturned in his future attempt to obtain a substitute for Dr. Cattell.

Mr. Purcell announced that his experiences in attempting to get a last-minute speaker, and said he even tried to get in touch with Philadelphia's famous police commissioner. But, he said, Butler was wise enough not to answer the phone.

In his opening address Mr. Purcell briefly outlined the Club's program for the year, its ideals and ambitions, touched on its history and its non-sectarian, ideal and democratic views to that of the Y's triangle.

John L. DeMar, the Philadelphia Record's famous cartoonist, was invited to give a short message on the evolution of cartoons and illustrated his talk with many amusing sketches.

The cartoonist's art, like all others, has rapidly advanced in the past hundred years. The hideous, bitterly pharisaic cartoons of the Civil War times, are things of the past, said the newspaperman. Today there are thousands of cartoons daily while years ago there were only a few, and these were not in the public eye, and were not so carefully drawn.

If you did not fill in the blank left at your house with the letter Monday night, or if you have thought of more names, send them to the New Era office at once so that invitations may be sent.

WILD LADY DRIVERS

Two Accidents Over Weekend With Women at Wheel

Two women drivers were in accidents in Palmyra over the weekend. Fortunately, however, for the fair motorists, nothing serious resulted.

Early Saturday evening a Delmar woman, driving one of these famous new drivers, tried to squeeze between machines driven by Councilman Leos and Board of Health President Henshaw at Broad and Garfield. The woman misjudged her distance, bent up one of her shiny new fenders, lost a hub cap and punctured a tire. Mr. Henshaw's machine suffered a badly bent rear fender.

Sunday evening the second feminine offender passed on the wrong side of the traffic light at Broad and Cinnaminson Avenue. Officer Nelson Wallace blew his whistle. At the sound of the whistle, the woman became confused, and before she got her machine under control it had stopped up against a telephone pole. The damages to her car were slight, too.

Drunken Driver Fined and Jailed

Philadelphian Rame Another Machine at East Riverton; Woman Injured

Frank Matulewicz, of 2323 Eastmont street, Philadelphia, was fined twenty dollars and costs for reckless driving and then sentenced to serve fifteen days in the county jail at Mount Holly, charged with operating a vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor, by Justice of the Peace William L. Richter.

Charges were made by Charles Kuhn, of 1915 East Fifth street, Philadelphia, and Chief of Police William Vossell, of the Riverside force.

Harry L. Rogers, of Riverton, testified that Matulewicz was under the influence of liquor and was in no condition to operate a machine.

Kuhn was driving his machine toward Riverside along River Road at East Riverton Sunday morning and stopped his car when the trolley came to a halt. Matulewicz's auto was following and failed to stop, hitting the Kuhn machine with terrific force. Mrs. Kuhn was riding in the back seat and was thrown when their car was raised and suffered severely from what was thought to be internal injuries.

Chief Vossell was called and after turning the two drivers over to the Riverton police, rushed the injured woman to the Suburban Hospital, Riverside, for treatment.

The Riverton police were unable to locate a Justice of the Peace in their own town, so sent for Justice Richter, who tried the case in the Riverton council chamber. Kuhn made a charge of reckless driving against the other driver and on this charge Judge Richter fined Matulewicz $20 and costs.

Just about that time, Chief Vossell returned with Mrs. Kuhn, and declared Matulewicz was drunk and that he had found a bottle of liquor in the offender's machine after the accident.

Dr. Rogers was called to examine the offender and his testimony went out the chief's statement, so Matulewicz received his thirty-day sentence on the second charge.

After the hearing, Kuhn asserted he was not positive Matulewicz was intoxicated, but that he had acted very stupid and that he had been sure of his ground, he said, he had only pushed his case on Matulewicz's recklessness.

WANT PHONE USERS

Company Begins To Advertise For New Subscribers

For the first time since 1916 the Delaware Telephone Company has started to advertise for new subscribers.

Within that time the number of telephones in this state has more than doubled, and the manufacturing and service industries of the Bell System have, for the most part, been kept busy keeping pace with this growth.

Although this increase is continuing and the first eight months of this year showed an increase of 8,438 in the number of telephones in South Jersey, officials of the Bell Company believe that telephone development in this state is still being kept up.

There are in New Jersey but 13 telephones for every 100 population. New York state has 18.7 for every 100 persons, and Ohio has 10.4. Iowa leads the list with 22.4 for every 100 persons. Illinois has 20.4 and Massachusetts 19.2.

For Maryland, including the District of Columbia, the figure is 14.7, while the Pennsylvania figure is 13.1 and that Delaware is 11.1.

The average for the United States is 14.1 telephones per 100 population. In the list of the 48 states, Pennsylvania and New Jersey stand twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth respectively. During the next few months a vigorous effort is to be made to bring the two latter states into the "first division," which would mean a development of about 14.5 telephones per 100 persons.

STEALS SAWS

Bernard Dinn Arrested For Purloining Goods From Dinn's

Bernard Dinn was arrested at his home, Fifth street and Horace avenue, Monday night by Chief of Police C. Morris Beck charged with the theft of forty-one saws from the Dinn Saw Mills, Tacony, where he was employed.

Officials had noticed that saws were disappearing from time to time and on investigation Monday night the suspicion upon the local youth. Before he could be charged with the alleged theft, he left his work for home. Chief Beck was called on the telephone.

Monday evening the chief called at the Dinn home and charged Bernard with the theft. He admitted his guilt and the chief hurried him over the ferry and he was turned over to the Twenty-first district police in Tacony. On the way over Chief Beck questioned the youth and asked him where the loot could be found. He replied his brother William could locate the stolen goods for him.

On his return, the chief questioned the brother, who denied any knowledge of the loot. Chief Beck then searched the home and found all of the saws hidden in some of the handles hidden between the ceiling of the second floor and the flooring in the attic.

William was re-questioned and admitted his brother had given him a tip to dispose of the goods when Chief Beck appeared at his home. He asserted he had not known where the saws were hidden and his quick search only located a few of the handles which he had hidden in the woods. He then took the chief to the woods and the remainder of the handles were recovered.

Bernard was given a hearing in Tacony Tuesday and held under $500 bail for court trial.

20 YEARS SERVICE

Ed Lamon Says Palmyra and Riverton Will Soon Reach Pile

"Palmyra and Riverton will extend to the Burlington Pike within the next few years," predicted Edgar A. Lamon early this week. And no one is in a better position to know, for with his active work in local real estate, Mr. Lamon has kept in close touch with the prospects of the coming, or present boom, and as the saying goes, "has the inside dope" on it.

And the argument advanced by Mr. Lamon carries considerable weight. Within a ten mile radius of Philadelphia's city hall, on the Pennsylvania side, land is worth $5,000 to $7,000 an acre. On the Jersey side, in the same radius, land can be bought as low as $500 and the peak price is about Pennsylvania's lowest mark, $5,000.

With traveling facilities equal, or better than Philadelphia's, why shouldn't there be a steady stream of home seekers to this locality, contends the realtor. Living expenses are moderate, and is cheaper, consequently giving home loving people an opportunity to locate in an ideal community and have a large home, light from all sides and many other advantages instead of remaining in Philadelphia where house are higher in price and they are compelled to live in a "row."

"Do you remember what happened to Brooklyn when their span was completed?" asks Mr. Lamon. Immediately all of Brooklyn and its suburbs underwent a great change and families poured into Brooklyn by hundreds. The same is destined for Camden and its suburban districts. This immediate locality is in the chosen spots for Camden suburban realty and for Camden developers and speculators.

Since this spring Mr. Lamon has sold more than $2,000,000 worth of farm and home land. Many other big deals are pending, and in addition to this, the Palmyra-Riverton Realty Company, of which Mr. Lamon is vice-president and sales manager, has nearly 1000 acres in suburban proximity to Palmyra, Riverton and Moorestown listed.

All of the deals represent absolute sales, states Mr. Lamon. They are substantial propositions, the stability being based on the fact that 40 to 50 per cent. of the land price is down on a settlement. Most mortgages on homes are higher than 60 to 60 per cent. as represented in the farm sales.

The reason why many of Mr. Lamon's sales have not been made public heretofore is because about 35 per cent. of the buyers are local people and they do not care to have their names disclosed at the present time. In a situation like this it is difficult to mention any of the parties involved, asserts Mr. Lamon.

Frequently people come to him and ask "when the bubble is going to burst," says the realtor. From all indication there will never be any break. Mr. Lamon may be spent several months in Miami, Florida, in 1926, and that time people were asking when the Florida bubble was going to break. But, as we all know, millions have been made in Florida real estate since 1919.

SCRAPPERS FINED

Young Dinn Chooses "The Rest," Then Changes Mind

William Dinn and Alexander Wallace were arrested by Chief of Police C. Morris Beck when he caught them fighting in the Grove early Sunday evening. They were taken before Justice of the Peace William Richter, charged with disorderly conduct.

From all appearances, the youths had been having it "hot and heavy," and were battling in dead earnestness, for their clothes were torn and both were well covered with blood when the chief descended upon them and ended the row.

Since it was his first offense, young Wallace was released on paying the court costs, $5.00. Dinn, who has been arrested several times before, was given the preference of paying a fine of $5.00 and costs, a total of $11.25, or spending ten days in the county jail.

At first, Dinn said "Give me the rest," but he evidently changed his mind, for after spending Sunday night in the new lockup, produced the necessary funds for his release Monday morning.

ASSASSIN'S DUTY

President of State Board Calls Attention To Sworn Duty of Tax Officials

THANK YOU!

The Old Home Day Committee extends its sincere thanks for the splendid contribution that was made for the big celebration, and the warm expressions of approval heard on every side.

There was just enough opposition and disapproval to throw into strong contrast the almost universal satisfaction expressed that Riverton was going to have an Old Home Day.

Those who have not contributed, who have not been called upon by some oversight of the committee, or who were away at the time, may still have their part in Riverton's big day by leaving their contribution with Ross Mattis, chairman of the finance committee, or any of the clerks at the post office, with Howard B. Conover at the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company, treasurer, or at The New Era office.

There is still about $1000 needed to put over the whole program of the day and evening as originally planned. And every little bit helps!

Urge Vocational County School

Great Need For Industrial Training Seen by Educators and Manufacturers

The subject of Vocational Educational Schools of Burlington County was discussed at a dinner conference Monday, September 28th, at the Y. W. C. A., Burlington. George G. Neidich, President of the Burlington Industrial Association, presiding.

This Association realizing the great need for trained workmen, and the inability to secure them in our own county, began to investigate Vocational Training for the Boys and Girls of Burlington County.

The fact that a great many of the trained workers in our industries are residents of cities or towns outside of our county, who, when the day's work is done, go to their respective towns, where the money earned in Burlington county is spent for rent, fuel, clothing, food, etc., would seem proof enough that from an economic standpoint alone it would be a benefit to the county.

It is hard to realize just what moral benefit it would be to the youth of our community. There are boys and girls in our County Schools just marking time until they reach the age when working parties may be secured, or, when they are no longer compelled to attend school. These children mostly do not find book learning easy, but could they be given training for a trade, or in other words, an education through the hands, they would acquire at the present time self respect, good citizenship, and a place in society which is every man's right.

A boy or girl with a trade is far less likely to get into mischief and become a public charge than one who is idle and seems to be doing nothing but "drift" along.

John McCarthy, supervisor of Industrial Education, Department of Public Instruction, State of New Jersey, said in a survey made of the factory trainees, not one inmate had ever had training in a Vocational School.

Preholders George W. Rogers, Charles R. Stout and Fred Lippitt, who were present, and expressed their personal approval of such a plan, but also said they were only stewards of the county money, and the wishes of the county people would be carried out. Mr. Rogers suggested that the county next time to investigate what has been done in other counties where such schools have been in operation several years.

A committee consisting of George G. Neidich, John H. Lindsay, Harry Reiffinger, Wesley O'Leary, Assistant Commissioner, and Louis J. Kaser, County Superintendent of Schools, was appointed to prepare a statement to present to the Board of Education at their next meeting, October 9th.

Essex, Middlesex, Atlantic, and Cape May counties have had Vocational Schools for several years, which have proved their value many times over.

The various trades and industries in the county were represented and without exception expressed the opinion that skilled labor is hard to get, and that boys seeking apprenticeships have little chance.

Contractor Hugh B. Miller said a boy has about one chance in twenty-five to learn carpentry, as the trained workman will not bother with the trade.

George Allen, representing Organized Labor in Morris county; John Van Hante, representing the Carpenters' Union; Wesley O'Leary, Assistant Commissioner of Education; John McCarthy, Supervisor of Industrial Education; Louis J. Kaser, County Superintendent of Schools; George W. Shinn, Instructor in Industrial Training, State Prison, and Mrs. Walter L. Bowser, representing the Burlington County Council of the New Jersey Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations were present and spoke on the value of a Vocational School in Burlington county.

The question of Vocational Education was raised at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Burlington Industrial Association over a year ago. George G. Neidich, president of the Burlington Industrial Association, was requested to appoint a committee to study Vocational Education as it related to Burlington county. Mr. Neidich appointed George W. Shinn, chairman of that committee, with power to select the personnel thereof.

After a careful canvass Mr. Shinn

Every Assessor in the state of New Jersey has received the following letter:

TO THE ASSESSOR:

The time has passed when the taxpayers of one taxing district are no longer interested in the assessments of another taxing district. At the present time there are on the statute books of New Jersey the following laws providing for the imposition of State taxes:

Chapter 236, P. L. 1915, Section 503—State School Tax.

Chapter 262, P. L. 1922—Road Tax.

Chapter 352, P. L. 1920—Bridges and Tunnels Tax.

Chapter 159, P. L. 1920—Soldiers' Bonus Tax.

Chapter 178, P. L. 1925—State Institutional Tax.

Taxation, therefore, is no longer a purely local question. With the imposition of State taxes, it becomes one of general State importance, and every taxpayer is vitally interested in the equitable application of all tax laws.

The State Constitution provides that property shall be assessed for taxes under general laws and by uniform rules according to its true value. The duty of the assessor is to the best of his ability and within out favor or partiality, to assess all property liable to taxation at its true value, at such price as in his judgment it would sell for at a fair sale by private contract on the assessment date. Words could not be more explicit. There is no room for doubt or misunderstanding in the interpretation of the constitutional mandate and the duty of the assessor thereunder.

To deliberately undervalue real and personal property in the imposition of the present State taxes is a serious offense. To wilfully undervalue any property is to know, or to have reason to know, that the property is being assessed at a value less than its true value, and to pay a higher amount than he should be obliged to pay. No assessor can, in good conscience, deliberately fix the value of property in his taxing district under its true value without incurring the penalty of conviction in the other taxing districts of the State.

The subject of taxation has become one of the paramount questions of the hour in New Jersey. The imposition of State taxes has focused public attention upon it, and every tax official, including the members of the State Board and the local assessors, is more than ever required to live rigidly up to his oath of office.

Under Chapter 98 of the Laws of 1923, this Board is directed to investigate tax conditions in every county of the State once in every five years. It is the intention of the Board not only to comply with the provisions of this act in the period of time set out in the law, but to continually keep under observation the work of local officials. When occasion arises an investigation will be immediately ordered and a remedy applied.

Drastic action, however, will not become necessary if every assessor in the State lives up to his oath of office. There is no difficulty in practically applying the tax machinery. There should be no hesitancy in equitably distributing the tax burden. The words "true value" are specific and seem to be clear to the ordinary mind. They mean exactly 100% value. It is the desire of the State Board that every assessor devote his time and his efforts to obtaining an equitable and just assessment for the year of 1925, as of October 1, 1925.

Work on Burlington Armory May Be Started Soon

Solicitor Peacock Says Everything Is Ready For Bids, and Ground Should Be Broken Before First of December

According to a report submitted by County Solicitor Robert Peacock at the meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders in Mount Holly last Friday the title to the armory site in Burlington has been cleared up, the sketch of the plans for the building is being examined, and construction of the armory will be under way by November 20.

In his report, which fully covered the armory matter referred to him a few weeks ago, Mr. Peacock said that he had completed the title to the Burlington armory site, that he has seen Ernest Watts, of Burlington, and Mr. Watts and Miss Caroline Haines, former owner of the ground bought for the site, had cooperated in securing the signature to the Mesegor deed.

It was the absence of this signature that caused the state officials to turn back the deed given by the county for correction. The Mesegor signature, Mr. Peacock said, has been filed in the office of the county clerk, Mount Holly.

Sketches Prepared
After receiving the paper from Mr. Watts, Mr. Peacock said in his report, he sent it to the attorney-general's office, where a receipt was given, and the receipt has been filed with Alton Adams, clerk of the county board.

Mr. Peacock says he further took up the matter with Colonel Hill, of the quartermaster-general's office where it was stated that at the meeting of the military board on September 22 sketches of the armory prepared by Henry A. Brown, architect, of Burlington, had been presented, and that Theodore Bachas, assistant attorney-general, had not yet completed his examination of the sketches but would be prepared to give a report at the next meeting of the military board, which will take place on October 1.

Colonel Hill said, according to Mr. Peacock's report, that the sketches made by Mr. Brown would be taken up at the October 1 meeting, and that he thought Mr. Brown would be authorized to submit plans and specifications.

Bids for the armory, Colonel Hill said, probably would be opened at the meeting of the military board on November 1, and that construction of the armory would be under way by November 20.

Freeholder Stout reported that the Public Service had promised to repair and paint the guard rail at the foot of Maple Shade hill.

Dangerous Bridges Closed
J. Lloyd Wright, director of bridges, reported that two bridges on the Wrightstown-Poinville road were in such bad condition that they were dangerous to the traveling public and should be repaired at once. These bridges, Mr. Wright said, were on the road taken over by the Federal Government during the war and he felt that the government should put them in good condition.

He submitted to the board a sheet of letters dated back two years or more in which military officials explicitly admitted a degree of responsibility for the maintenance of the road on which these bridges are located and he thought that the government was just as responsible for the bridges as the county. Later letters, however, repudiated all responsibility.

Mr. Lippincott pointed out that the fact remained the government refused to do anything about it and the bridges were not safe to travel over. A school bus passes over these bridges every day as well as the rural mail carrier and a lot of general traffic. In view of these facts he recommended that the county go ahead and reconstruct the bridges.

Solicitor Peacock, however, suggested that the bridges be closed to travel and on motion of Mr. Lippincott the matter was referred to the department of bridges with instructions to close them at once, and take necessary steps to have them repaired.

State to Take Roads
Mr. Lippincott wanted to know what had become of the petition of Cinnaminson township, submitted some time ago, asking the county to take over about a mile of Church street between the Chester township line and the Cinnaminson township line. He said that if he remembered rightly Cinnaminson township had offered to give $500 toward the maintenance of this stretch of road.

Mr. Stout, director of roads, said that the State was making up a schedule of roads to be taken over, and it was his idea that this would be one of them. He advised that action by the county be postponed a few weeks to see what the State was going to do. There was also some question as to how the $500 offered by the petitioning township could be utilized by the road department. Under the law this money could not be placed to the credit of this department, but would have to go into the surplus revenue fund and any work done on the road this year would have to come out of the road department funds, in which no appropriation had been made for this work. The matter was referred to the solicitor to see what could be done to smooth out the financial tangle.

Another Road for County
While the subject of roads was up, Mr. Lippincott presented a petition from Springfield township asking the Board of Freeholders to take over about three miles of road from Chambers Corner to Jobstown. In speaking on this petition, Mr. Killie, representing the township, said the Springfield township was one of the largest tax-paying townships in the agricultural class in the county, its assessed valuation being about one and a half million dollars. The township, he said, had with State aid spent over $15,000 on this road to which it added another $2500 this spring for oiling. The township found it impossible to keep up this road and its other roads, too. He said that it was highly probable that the State would soon take over this road, relieving the county of the load it was being asked to lift from the shoulders of the township.

C. Craig Tallman, collector of Springfield township, spoke in favor of the county taking over the road and J. Lloyd Wright also made a speech in favor of the petition. Director of Roads Stout said the county was in the same position as Springfield township—had many roads that needed repairs, for which no funds were available. He recommended that in this case, as in that of the request of Cinnaminson township, the matter be deferred for a short time to see what the State was going to do. But he was voted down, all the other members of the board voting to take over the road when the roll was called.

Mr. Lippincott, head of the county building department, reported relative to the proposed sale of wood lots on the county farm at New Lisbon, that the deeds for the almshouse property could not be located, and that there would have to be a search to define the lines before the lots could be sold. Bills to the amount of $38,382.56 were read and ordered paid as follows: Roads, $21,308.53; bridges, $2,208.31; county buildings, $9,100.00; public affairs, $1,422.94; finance, $4,332.84.

GAS CUTS COST OF AUTOS

Absolute control of heat through the use of gas, in melting metal employed in the manufacture of automobiles, has brought about large economies in production. Thousands of spare parts, formerly rough cast and then machined to size, are now turned out by automatic dies with a degree of accuracy impossible under the old process. This averts the waste due to rejection of imperfect casting and saves the expense of machining to size.

New Jersey Big User of Cement

New Jersey, situated at the edge of the greatest portland cement producing district in the world, is among the leading portland cement using states, according to figures issued by the United States Geological Survey. One out of 24 barrels of cement manufactured in this country is used in New Jersey, giving this state a rank of fifth in per capita use.

The three New Jersey plants, one of which is idle, are just across the Delaware river from the world famous Lehigh Valley section of Pennsylvania with its 18 portland cement plants. Here it was that the industry was born in this country in 1872. This Lehigh Valley district, including its extension into New Jersey, produces nearly one fourth of all the portland cement manufactured in the United States.

Portland cement used in New Jersey last year would be enough to supply every citizen of the state with about one and seven eighths barrels each, government figures show. However, the large demand for this building material in New Jersey and other eastern states is still far behind the productive capacity of the eastern cement mills. This is also true of the entire country. Last year shipments from the 124 portland cement plants in the United States totalled about 145,000,000 barrels while the capacity of the mills now in operation is estimated at 185,000,000 barrels. The country's capacity, then, is about one-fifth greater than the record year's demand.

The portland cement used in New Jersey last year, totalling about 6,345,000 barrels, was employed in hundreds of ways. Industrial plants, office buildings, homes, silos, dams, bridges, pavements and farm structures were built of this material. At the end of 1924 New Jersey had completed 690 miles of concrete rural highways. Another hundred miles of this type of highway has been contracted for this season.

It is interesting to recall that the now smoothly paved White Horse Pike is the same road traveled by the early colonist in his post and chaise. Later this sandy and rutted highway was surfaced with gravel for the accommodation of bicycle traffic. And now it has been overlaid with concrete to provide a suitable passageway for the thousands of automobiles which travel its length from Camden to Atlantic City.

YACHT CLUB DINNER

Music, Dancing, Speeches and Decorations Combine to Make Delightful Affair

The Yacht Club dinner last Saturday night was a great success. There were fifty-two members and guests in attendance, and several short addresses were made by members and officers. The decorations consisted of flowers, evergreen and candles tastefully arranged. Singing and dancing were a part of the program, and altogether it was a gala occasion, every one agreeing that these functions shall be held more frequently.

The club has had a most prosperous year. Several new members have been enrolled. In fact, the membership is larger than ever before in the history of the club. Several new boats have been added to the fleet and the prospect for next year is even more encouraging. It is anticipated that on completion of the new bridge a great many Philadelphians will become members on account of the easy access to the club, it being only about twenty minutes from Delaware avenue.

The racing season has been most successful and it may be of interest to Rivertonians that the Yacht Club has as fine a fleet of boats as any club in the country, and also that they own a motor launch. Much credit for the club's success this year should be given to the entertainment, the decorative and the bridge committees which have done excellent work. The steward has provided splendid meals during the season and will continue to do so next year, for the benefit of members living in the house as well as other members and their guests.

RIVERTON RIDING ACADEMY

It will be welcome news to many that a first-class riding academy has been opened in Riverton, where father and mother, and the boys and girls may learn to ride under the instruction of a competent master.

This is another sign of activity in Riverton, which will provide a beautiful evening's recreation for many of our residents, and tend life and color to the community.

There is a lot more to riding than getting astride of a horse and riding it to death. This is in no sense a "heavy stable." The horses at the Riverton Riding Academy are fine animals, and the management will see to it that they are properly treated and handled. Horses will be hired to experienced riders, and those who desire to learn to ride will have the advantage of instruction by a competent teacher who has spent four seasons on the beach at Atlantic City.

For full information communicate with John B. Keating, telephone 165-1.

NAMES WANTED

The Old Home Day committee wants the name and address of every former Rivertonian, and the names and addresses of everyone outside of the town whom residents of the town would like to see here on Old Home Day, so that invitations may be sent to them.

Enclosed with the invitation will be an acknowledgment card, upon the return of which the one invited will be sent a handsome silk ribbon badge with a pin at the top bearing his name and town. This badge will be worn on Old Home Day and will serve both as an identification tag, so to speak, and as a ready means of introduction to others who are guests on that day, and to the townsfolk as well.

Send in the names. Let everybody get together and MAKE this the biggest day in Riverton's history.

It can be done if everyone helps just a little.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Both Church and Sunday School rallied nobly last Sunday at the Rally-Day services. Rev. Frederick Blaser preached two inspiring sermons to congregations which taxed the capacity of the present Church building and a great deal of enthusiasm seemed manifest in the now actively moving program of the church.

Promotions in the graded departments were announced in the Sunday School. Fourteen children were promoted from the Primary to the Junior department and each presented with a fine Bible. These were: Esther R. Blaser, Anna Johnson, Mildred Hirst, Dorothy Clements, Ruth Davidson, Marion Rapp, Howard Elliott, Jr., C. Howard Yerkes, Howard Parkes, Morris E. Wiggins, Melvin R. Mays, Arthur Reeves, William Cooper, Jr., and Olga Koldridge.

Tonight a wedding of widespread interest will take place in P. O. S. of A. Hall when Miss Jill will become the bride of Mr. Jack. The principals as well as their attendants and many of the guests are members of the Primary department of the Sunday School.

Friday evening the C. E. Society will hold their regular meeting. During the period of the contest these meetings of the young people are becoming more and more profitable each week.

Saturday afternoon the W. W. W. Class will hold a cake sale on Mr. Wimer's porch on Broad street.

The regular services next Sunday will consist of Sunday School at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11:30 a. m. at which service there will be Communion and Reception of New Members. "Paid in Their Own Coin" will be the pastor's theme at this service. Evening worship at 7:45 when Pastor Blaser's topic will be "Real Hunger."

EPWORTH CHURCH NEWS

As the fall season comes, interest in church activities is stimulated. Throughout the community the hours of services have been changed. If last Sunday was an indication of the popularity of the change it is very generally approved.

The Church School meets promptly at ten o'clock. There are classes for all ages. Strangers and visitors are always welcome. At the morning service at eleven fifteen the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. This has been designated as "Every Member Communion Service." The entire membership is being urged to attend.

The Epworth League has its devotional service at six forty-five. Young people here find good fellowship and spiritual inspiration. Last Sunday there were fifty-five present.

The evening worship is at seven forty-five. This is a bright inspirational service with the singing of gospel songs and a brief sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Fred B. Morley.

The Women's Home Missionary Society meets on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. R. Bradley, 745 Washington Avenue. Mrs. F. B. Morley has charge of the study program. The topic is "The European Background of the Slave People."

At the mid-week service on Wednesday evening the bible study will begin with 11 Corinthians Chapter eight. The service consists of singing, prayer, bible reading and free discussion.

LUTHERAN NEWS

Rally Day was a glorious one in many ways, but especially it proved the value of the Sunday School in number present. We hope all the pupils enrolled will come regularly and enjoy the lessons in the Christian Life.

This Sunday there will be Holy Communion at the morning service at 11 o'clock. There will be no children's sermon.

In the evening the young people will meet at 8:30 with Miss Rebecca Buchholz as the leader. The topic is "Christian Friendliness to South America." At the evening service, 7:45, the Palmyra Assembly of Artisans will be our guests. The glee club will sing, and the orchestra will accompany the regular hymn singing. Come and enjoy this service with us.

A study of the Letter of Paul to the Romans is being made at the Thursday evening services. After this book has been studied, the Thursday evenings will be occupied by the coming of prominent men as the schedule of last year called for. So plan your Thursday nights now to attend the Lutheran Church.

Calvary Presbyterian Church

Next Sunday will be Rally Day through the church.

Morning Worship will be conducted by the Sunday School at 10 o'clock. All parents and members of the congregation are urged to be present at this Union Service of the church and Sunday School.

As a part of the services there will be baptism of children, and parents desiring to have children baptized will please consult with pastor. Children will meet at the chapel at 10 o'clock and will march into the church.

At 7:15 the Christian Endeavor Society will meet and will be glad to welcome any of the young people in the community to their meeting of inspiration.

Starting next Thursday, October 8, for five consecutive Thursday evenings Dr. Marshall Harrington, spiritual superintendent of even sessions will give studies on the Ministry of Penitence.

Big Picnic For Farmers

N. J. Federation and State Grange Unite For Largest Outdoor Event

The New Jersey Federation of County Boards of Agriculture and the New Jersey State Grange, the two largest farmers' organizations in the state, have scheduled a Field Day and Picnic to be held on the hills near Hackettstown on October 16. Survey of the county and local units of these organizations made in late September indicate local plans well developed and a probable attendance of 2500 or more farmers and their families from all corners of the State. Preceding the program at the picnic grounds, the farmers will make a short automobile tour along scenic routes in northern New Jersey.

As explained in a statement from the New Jersey Federation this week, the plan back of the State-wide Farmers' Picnic is to bring together the membership from the various counties for better acquaintance and for more intimate contact with the important farm problems in New Jersey, such as legislation, education and marketing. The tentative program announced calls for the gathering of the farmers at central points in their own counties, under the general auspices of the County Board of Agriculture, from which they will proceed by automobile to Somerville, N. J., as their assembling point. From there the members will go forward as a unit along a picturesque route to the picnic grounds one mile from Hackettstown. Each county contingent will bear its separate county banner or other insignia.

The farmers will be greeted at the picnic grounds by a band, after which each automobile party will serve its own basket luncheon. A short speaking program will follow early in the afternoon, consisting of an address by a nationally known speaker, Mrs. Ida S. Harrington, President of the New Jersey Home Bureau, will speak on home problems. The address will be made by Mrs. T. W. Bebout, member of the Executive Committee of the Morris County Board of Agriculture.

PLAYING POLITICS WITH COAL

The Portland Oregonian, in commenting on the present coal strike says:

"Anthracite and bituminous coal are sold in distinct markets, but the United Mine Workers, whose members mine both fuels, have ordered a strike in the anthracite field and hold in reserve the threat of a strike in the bituminous field for the purpose of forcing federal intervention between miners and operators in both fields.

"One incident of the miners' strikes might induce the President to intervene with vigor. That is the riots and even murders that have accompanied others. When he was governor of Massachusetts he refused to intervene with the Boston police strike until the city confessed its importance and called for state aid, he then used the entire armed force of the state and quickly crushed the strike. That precedent does not augur well for any men who may attempt a repetition of the massacre that has made Williamson County, Illinois a by-word for mob rule. He has authority to repel insurrection without awaiting a request from a state for aid he will use it if a state proves unwilling or unequal to the task. He would not interfere with the right to strike, but he would make it well understood that this does not include the right to riot and murder."

Helping the Effect

Rose-pink is the present fashion able wear for the bride. The delicate hues of the dress are particularly enhanced if a pale bridegroom is worn hanging on the right arm.

—London Opinion.

At the close of the speaking program, the picnic will disperse, northern farmers returning to their counties, while those from more distant sections of the State may stay overnight in the vicinity. Arrangements have been made with hotels in Hackettstown and other nearby points providing special overnight rates for the visiting farmers. The Committee in charge of the picnic is composed of H. E. Taylor, secretary of the New Jersey Federation and Senator David H. Agans, worthy Master of the New Jersey State Grange.

The Locomotive Engineer

The economical handling of coal in the big storage yards that surround the electric and gas plants of PUBLIC SERVICE Electric and Gas Company, is a necessity to efficient plant operation.

At Essex Station, 100,000 tons of coal are kept on hand; at Marion some 75,000 tons, while the plans for the completed Kearny Station call for a storage capacity of 365,000 tons.

The Locomotive Engineer operates the yard engines that move that part of this supply which is not at once transferred from barge or car to station bunkers.

He belongs to one of the many different classes of workers whose services are essential to the proper functioning of the organization which supplies light, heat and power to PUBLIC SERVICE customers.

Resume Services at Fair Grounds

Sunday Afternoon Meetings To Be Held Regularly Under Klan Auspices

After a lapse of several weeks religious services at the Mount Holly Fair Ground have been resumed and will be continued every Sunday afternoon. The services last Sunday afternoon drew a large audience, and the address of the speaker was very forceful and interesting. These Sunday meetings which start at three o'clock are supervised by James R. Bennett, Kluge of the Burlington and Mercer county Ku Klux Klan, and are of a purely religious order, making no reference to the organization.

The speakers for the services are mostly preachers of the Protestant denominations who are not connected with the Ku Klux Klan, but are glad to have the opportunity to speak of the teachings of Christ and on the lessons of the Bible. Everybody, no matter what religious denomination they belong to, is invited by those in charge, to attend these meetings and join in the singing and the services proper.

The meetings are held in the big hall under the grand stand where there are plenty of seats and a high stage where all can hear and see the speaker plainly.

Hereafter, commencing last Sunday night, services at the Hainesport Baptist Church will be under the supervision of Mr. Bennett, the Klan head.

The Hainesport Baptist Church has been closed for some time owing to poor patronage. Mr. Bennett will take full charge or have another responsible member of the organization at the church every Sunday evening. The services will start at 7:30 o'clock sharp and a cordial invitation is extended to the religious public and others to attend.

FARM CONDITIONS BETTER

No section of this nation is so completely devoted to agriculture as the region west of the Missouri and north of San Francisco.

Reports from banks that make a specialty of loaning on farming lands show that farming industry is more stabilized and on a better business basis than since the war. There is more inquiry for land and that is surely a healthy sign, and agriculture is coming back with a mighty swing of the pendulum in favor of the farmer.

Improved conditions are due to improved prices of farm products and that is helping business on all lines, but farmers like other classes have been living up to it not beyond their incomes in too many cases.

With ready money, pockets they are one of the shining marks for the "get rich quick" operator. It is important, if they wish to protect their profits this year, that before they invest in questionable undertakings they investigate thoroughly through their bank or other reliable agency.

Before you can do what is right, you must learn what is true.

JUNIOR CLUBS IN CONTEST AT FAIR

New Building at Trenton Exposition for Boys' and Girls' County Teams.

Professor A. M. Hulbert of the New Jersey State Agricultural College, who holds the office of assistant director of extension service, expects to have at Trenton Fair this year the most complete exhibit of Boys' and Girls' Club Work ever shown in New Jersey.

"Eight years ago," he said, "all of our exhibits, outside of canning, could have been displayed on a table four feet wide and eight feet long. Through the generous co-operation of the Fair Association the Boys' and Girls' Club exhibits have increased until this year we will require 14,000 feet of floor space. The displays have been of such an impressive character that the Legislature has granted an appropriation of $10,000 for the erection of a new building on the Fair grounds for this feature of the agricultural exhibit."

The new building, he believes, will make the boys and girls proud of the recognition that is accorded them, for sufficient space has now been provided for a display of all their activities.

The United States Department of Agriculture and the Fair Association cooperate with the State College in this practical training in agricultural pursuits and home economics, and the premiums offered for the winners are an incentive for friendly rivalry. In the showing of their live stock the boys and girls have the judging ring of the coliseum thrown open to them, and they demonstrate their skill in picking a valuation upon the animals. In the Home Economics Section the exhibits will include canning, clothing, millinery, baking, home management and food posters. Under the Live Stock Project Section will come junior dairy exhibits, junior swine and poultry. Special awards will also be made for the vegetable and home garden displays. A. Croser Reeves, treasurer of the Mercer County Board of Agriculture, has also donated medals for every ton litter of swine, every 1,500 pound litter and every 1,500 pound litter. The Fair Association provides transportation and free admission during the Fair, from September 28 to October 3, for one team of three members from each county in Boys' and Girls' Club Work.

KEEPING WELL

FRESH AIR DOESN'T

DR. FREDERICK B. GREEN
Editor of "HEALTH"

SEVERAL years ago the superintendent of a large, new hospital invited me to visit his institution. The building had been erected without regard to expense and contained every improvement that ingenuity could suggest and that money could buy.

We went over the building from top to bottom. He showed me the large, sunny wards, the beautiful private rooms, the wonderfully equipped and immaculately clean operating rooms, the sterilizing rooms, the kitchens, the pantries, the storerooms, the heating plant, and all the other wonderful devices which the building contained. Last of all, he took me to the basement to see the ventilating plant. An elaborate and expensive system had been installed, by which the outside air was drawn in, by revolving fans, purified, washed and cooled, and then distributed throughout the building by a system of ventilating pipes.

He said, "With this equipment, we can pump pure air into every room and provide plenty of pure, fresh air for every occupant."

I said, "That's a wonderful system. Is it going to work?" He replied, "Of course, it will work. The company which installed it guarantees it."

Two years later, I visited the same hospital. Going into the first room, I noticed that the window was wide open. I said to the superintendent, "What have you got that window open for?" "To let in fresh air," he replied. I said, "What's the matter with your ventilating system?" He said, "Oh, we gave that up long ago. When we want fresh air, we open a window."

This experience has been confirmed by the New York commission of ventilation, which made a careful study of ventilating systems in school buildings, hospitals, assembly halls and public buildings, and found that the best way to ventilate a room is the old-fashioned way of opening a window. The report says, "While well-devised and controlled systems of fan ventilation with closed windows were found capable of producing excellent results, certain characteristics inherent in this method made them definitely inferior to window ventilation."

Ventilation was not a difficult problem in the early days. The log cabins and primitive frame houses had abundant cracks in the walls, the floors, and around the doors and windows, through which fresh air could come. The large, open fireplace with a roaring log fire created a draft. The fresh air came in at the cracks and the foul air was swept up the chimney.

Modern houses, built of brick and concrete, with tightly-fitting doors and windows, have no such openings.

But the best form of ventilation is still the open window. A screen or a glass reflector in front of the window prevents direct drafts without excluding the air.

DEMOCRATIC TOUR

Round of County Will Be Made
On October 14.

The Democratic organization of Burlington county has made arrangements for a tour of the county on Wednesday, October 14, when an automobile parade, preceded by a band of music will visit the following places: Florence, Roehling, Bordentown, Columbus, Pemberton, Vincentown, Medford, Moorestown, Maple Shade, Palmyra, Riverside, Beverly.

At each of the above places stops will be made and addresses given. Among the speakers will be the following: Hon. A. Harry Moore, candidate for Governor; Hon. Joseph F. S. Fitzpatrick, Assistant Commissioner of Finance; Hon. Edward I. Edwards, United States Senator; Harold Hunt, candidate for Assembly; J. Harry Barklow, candidate for Freeholder; B. Frank Atkinson, candidate for Freeholder.

In the evening, two mass meetings will be held, one at Birch's Opera House, Burlington, and the other at the Court House, Mount Holly. These will be addressed by the same speakers who will talk at the stops on the tour.

All Democrats of the county, men and women, are invited to participate in the tour. There will be plenty of automobiles provided for the occasion.

JR. O. U. A. M. PARADE

Big Demonstration Will Be Held in Trenton, October 14.

The councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of Mercer County have arranged to hold a big parade at Trenton during the session of the State Council of New Jersey, on Wednesday evening, October 14. According to the reports of the committees in charge it will be one of the largest affairs of its kind ever held in the capital city.

Councils from all parts of the state have signified their intentions of taking part and special trainings will be held, one at Birch's Opera House, Burlington, and the will comprise four divisions and will march through principal streets of the city and disband at the State Armory where a ball will be held.

Two bands will furnish music for the dancers and a big time is expected. The State session will occupy two days and will be attended by more than 500 delegates representing 322 councils with a membership of nearly 82,000. It is the largest patriotic organization in the state.

State Councilor Frank R. Stanger, of Glassboro, will preside. William S. Davis, of Hackensack, who is the present State Vice Councilor, will be advanced to the post of State Councilor at the session and there promises to be a lively contest for the other State Offices as well as the place of meeting for next year.

Riverton's History Dates: Back to Year of 1851

Town Has Flourished Since First Homes Were Built on River Bank by Philadelphians

When Riverston was built, out with there was a practically no connection with the Philadelphia by rail, the only utility in this line being a platform on the Dreer property, about where Fulton street now is, at which some of the trains would stop if flagged.

It was necessary to secure better and more convenient means of transportation, so the citizens got together and built a wharf and rented the steamboat Wave, a seventy-foot sidewheeler, to make several trips to and from the city daily.

A strong wall along the river bank was built. About ten years later they built and operated the Rancocas, which was run in connection with the Wave, and the name of the place was changed to Riverston. It was realized that even such transpor-

tion facilities were inadequate, and in order to get better train service a house and station were erected and presented to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. "This was used as a station and home for the station agent, Charles Mattis, father of Ogden H. and William N. Mattis, was one of the early station agents located in this building. It faced the railroad at that time, but has since been

Our improvement begets another, and about 1880 a system of oil street lamps was installed, Lemuel H. Davis being the father of the project. It was supported by popular subscription at a cost of about $250 a year. More than the required amount was

The lamps, which, and the reason for their use, Charles M. Davis, was very able to refund some of the money. The lamps were cared for by Louis J. Turner, who paid his subscription in that way, receiving a small sum in addition to his services. The system was maintained in this way until it was taken over by the municipal authorities, who enlarged it and retained it in service until 1908, when it was supplanted by a system of gas and electric lighting.

To go back a little to the earlier days it might be mentioned that a few years after the original Riverton was founded, the Lippincott and Thomas farms were taken in, extending the line down to where the water works now stand. The old John C. W. Frishmuth property at Bank and Linden was the farmhouse on the Thomas farm, and the Lippincott farmhouse, which stood partly out in the street, was torn down in 1875, to make way for the house now occupied by the family of the late Charles M. Biddle, Bank and Lippinrott avenue. This house was erected by Joseph Wilkins, who sold it to Mr. Biddle.

While there were farm houses in the neighborhood at a much earlier period, Riverton, as a community known by that name, was started in 1851 by the house built by Daniel L. Miller, Jr., who in that year erected the building on the river bank now occupied by Mrs. E. B. Showell. It was in that year that nine gentlemen—Caleb Clothier, Robert Biddle, Daniel L. Miller, Jr., William C. Biddle, William D. Parrish, Dillwyn Parrish,

1. Miller McKim, James Clothier and Rodman Wharton—purchased a tract of land from Joseph Lippincott, laid it out and drew lots for locations on which they would build their houses. The other houses were started immediately or soon after the Miller property and completed in 1851 and 1852. Caleb Clothier built the house now occupied by The Riverton Yacht Club, Dillwyn Parolish built the one in which George W. Crawford now lives, and Rodman Wharton built the Fitter property, the only brick house south of the old Boston Harbor.

In the lot all the others being frame. The Seckels occupied the farm house where the Lawn House now stands. This building was on the tract of ground when purchased. It was owned jointly by the purchasers, who rented it to the Seckels for a boarding house. W. D. Parrish built the house where the daughters of the late General and Mrs. William L. James lived, and Robert Biddle put up the one now occupied by Miss Martha Biddle, the only one of the original houses to remain in the family that built them. The property formerly occu-

About a year later Professor Cleveland erected and for a time occupied the house where Charles A. Wright now lives. James Clothier erected the house that was later known as the Fraser property on Main street, which has recently been purchased and remodeled by Mrs. F. A. Tompkins, who converted it into an apartment house.

At the time these houses were built Riverton as laid out extended from the house where the Riverton Yacht Club now is to the Charles A. Wright property along the river, and pany was created a corporation by the State of New Jersey and approved March 12, 1852. On August 23, of that year, Daniel Miller conveyed Riverton to the Riverton Improvement Company by a deed, in which there appeared a "liquor clause," which read as follows: "Shall and at any time hereafter manufacture or cause to be manufactured, sell or cause, or knowingly permit to be sold, directly or indirectly, in or upon the premises hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, any spirituous, vinous, fermented, or other intoxicating liquors, except as a medicine, or for medical purposes in case of sickness." The properties were then deeded back to their several owners. This foresight on the part of the early settlers has made it impossible to open a saloon in Riverton, a very effective form of local option.

Among the early residents of a period somewhat later than its founders, was George W. Shinn, who built the house now owned by Mrs. Charles Bioren on Main street, and built and

Pay Even Share In Road Bills

All People Pull Equally in Highway Construction Program, Say Road Officials

Washington, D. C.—States are pulling in even harness in Federal highway construction, with an equitable distribution of the financial load.

This is the substance of a statement issued by the American Association of State Highway Officials, upon inquiry into claims made by people in some of the states where great wealth is officially domiciled, that they are paying more than their due share of Uncle Sam's highway bills.

In order to show that there has been an equitable distribution of financial responsibility in road building, and that no one state is being forced to pay more than its just ratio, officials in charge of road building have taken as a group fifteen states having the largest population. These states in ranking order are: New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, California, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, Missouri, Georgia, Indiana, Wisconsin, North Carolina and Kentucky.

The particular point which highway officials stress in their inquiry is that the degree of financial responsibility for each state in the nation-wide program of road building is more equitably traced through a comparison of their percentages in population, basic wealth, total wealth and internal revenue payments. Thus traced, officials in their statement show that fifteen states leading in population and which comprise a total of 43.3 per cent. of the total national population, percentages in total national wealth, basic wealth and internal revenues now almost parallel with that of population.

Highway Officials conclude this phase of their inquiry with the following deductions:

"In total payments into the Federal treasury, the group having the largest population coincides very closely to the fifteen states, highest in actual revenue payments, being 88.66 per cent. over against 88.5 per cent. The group of states having the greatest total wealth follows closely with a percentage of revenue payment of 81.13 per cent. This shows that the fifteen states in population and the fifteen states in total wealth follow very closely the fifteen states in revenue payments."

In their statement, highway officials also call attention to one other point bearing upon the attitude of different states in regard to their revenue payments. New York for instance, paying 28.8 per cent. of the total, considers the amount as having been paid by New York, without regard to either its original source or the amount which is shifted back to the public outside of New York. In explanation of this point, Michigan and North Carolina are taken as examples. Seventy-three per cent. of all the automobile excess tax in the United States is collected in Michigan.

"But that state admits," say state officials, "that this amount is spread out over the entire country per motor car. Therefore, Michigan does not consider that the 73 per cent. which she is credited as having paid into the Federal treasury was actually paid by that state, for 43 per cent. of Michigan's total Federal tax is the excise tax on automobiles."

Likewise North Carolina. Here large revenue payments are made by tobacco interest. In this state 86 per cent. of the total Federal revenue is from tobacco in its manufactured form and the purchaser wherever he may live, pays for the revenue stamp, and so you do not hear North Carolina making any complaint of excess payments to the Federal treasury.

Thus according to the findings of these highway officials, the wisdom of the Federal Aid program, which is now about half complete, is seen to be one of the most far-reaching and evenly distributed construction responsibilities ever undertaken in the United States.

PLAN CITY ZONING FOR BURLINGTON

Chamber of Commerce Committee Report Receives Hearty Endorsement from Directors

After several months of investigation, covering the subject of Municipal Zoning, the City Planning Committee of the Burlington Chamber of Commerce has submitted an exhaustive report on the subject to the Board of Directors of that organization. Included in the report is a section explaining what zoning is, together with several chapters devoted to the effects of zoning on public utilities, the educational system, the housing situation, the industrial community and other civic factors.

The City Planning Committee commenced its efforts as the result of several public discussions on city planning held last year, at which several national prominent city planners were present. These included Morris Knowles, of the Civic Development Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Charles W. Leavitt, of New York City; and Howard Strunk, director of the Committee on Regional Plan for the Philadelphia Metropolitan District. Following these meetings the committee corresponded with every city in the United States in possession of a zoning code, for the purpose of ascertaining the benefits of such a system.

The committee submitted its report to the Board of Directors several weeks ago, since which time it has been the subject of detailed study by the Board. At a special meeting of the Board of Directors held last week the body gave its hearty endorsement to the plan and ordered it printed in pamphlet form and submitted to the membership of the Chamber of Commerce and the citizenry of the city for their information. The report will be submitted within a few days.

Whitney Upholds Coolidge Policies

Gubernatorial Candidate Champions Tax Reduction and Public Economy

The following address was delivered by Arthur Whitney, Republican candidate for Governor, at the third annual dinner of Newark Women's Republican Club, Robert Treat Hotel, Monday evening, September 28.

There are two things which every voter is entitled to know from the candidate for Governor before Election Day.

What is his record and stand on state problems and what in his judgment, is the real issue of the campaign?

I believe that the most important state problem today is tax reduction and public economy. The proper raising and spending of public funds is of vital importance to every taxpayer. Everyone pays taxes, if not directly, then in form of rent and cost of living.

There is a just demand for lower taxes. People need their money for their own homes and families. They rightly resent giving to the government one cent more than it actually needs.

It has been announced that the Republican Administration at Washington will give a Christmas present to the American people of several hundred millions of dollars in the shape of reduced taxes. This will not be of much use to New Jersey taxpayers if the money must go for state and local expenses.

I am opposed to any new state tax. I am pledged to a scientific revision of our taxing system to improve methods of assessment and justly distribute the tax burden. Such a revision combined with rigid economy in state, county and municipal government is essential to bring about lower taxes.

During my nine years in the Legislature, I worked consistently for economy. I urged consolidation of offices and reduction of official employees. I introduced acts changing the fiscal year of the state and regulating transfers of appropriations. I urged amendments to strengthen the Budget Act, fix responsibility and give publicity to expenditures from the Emergency Fund. As Chairman of the Joint Appropriations Committee, I insisted that the bill be introduced in ample time for proper consideration by the Legislature.

If I am Governor, I shall give New Jersey a business-like administration and shall make a determined effort to reduce the expenses of government. I shall give full time service and personal attention to the duties of the office. I shall introduce the Coolidge program of economy in our state.

I believe that the outstanding issue of this campaign is the Coolidge type of government as opposed to a machine spoils system. In other words, Coolidgeism versus Haguelism.

Haguelism is a system which through dictatorship destroys the American principle of representative government, through machine control destroys the American principle of free action, and through political favoritism destroys the American principle of equal justice.

It is a system which flourishes in Hudson county and is the method by which the boss of the Democratic machine is now trying to seize control of the government of our state.

The natural results of such a political system in government are special privileges, padded payrolls, fake tax rates, fraudulent elections, fixed juries, protection of rambler and other criminals, reckless waste and extravagance. These products have been only too frequently found in Hudson county under machine control.

Do we want this condition spread over the State of New Jersey?

Do we want an invisible control behind the head of our state government?

Do we want forty-eight judges and prosecutors from one end of the state to the other named in the next three years by the Hague machine?

This is the people's issue. It is not a manufactured issue. It exists, it is alive, and the people know it. People are not talking of whether the Republican or Democratic party will win in November, they are talking about what majority the Hague machine can roll up in Hudson county and whether the other counties can overcome that lead. It is the Hudson county machine against the State of New Jersey. There are thousands of Democrats today who join with Republicans in repudiating an invisible control for our government and machine rule for our State.

The present Democratic Governor, speaking in defense of the Hague machine before the Democratic convention, said: "It is much better to have a benevolent despot than an intolerant one." I say that the people of New Jersey tolerate no despot, whether benevolent or not.

The power that controls the Democratic machine has selected the Democratic candidate. Is it common sense to think that he could be free to serve the people? Nominated by one man, he would, if elected be controlled by one man, and the real Governor of New Jersey would not be at Trenton, but in the City Hall at Jersey City.

As candidate of the Republican party, I am free to take office unhindered by promises or pledges. I am not the candidate of any selected group or faction. I regard the office as a contract with the people of New Jersey. I propose to fulfill that contract and be Governor in fact as well as in name.

We should have a responsible business government at Trenton. We should make an honest effort to work out a constructive state program of economy. Public activities all cost money. We must meet the just demands of progress and yet keep down our rapidly mounting burden of taxes.

The Republican administration in Washington has met this problem fearlessly and effectively for the benefit of the entire nation. The Republican party in our state is determined to meet it in the same way for the benefit of the people of New Jersey.

KU KLUX SERVICES

Klan Meetings Sunday Afternoons at Mount Holly Fair Grounds

The members of the Burlington County Progressive League, owners of the Mount Holly Fair Grounds, have resumed their religious services on the grounds Sunday afternoons.

Sunday the services were in charge of the Juniors of the Ku Klux Klan, of which the Burlington County Progressive League is a part, and all boys and girls as well as grownups were invited to attend.

The Klan has also taken over the Hainesport Baptist church and has announced that services will be conducted there every Sunday evening. The church has been closed for some time but on Sunday night of last week it was packed to the doors to hear James R. Bennett, head of the Burlington and Mercer Klansmen, and there were about fifty members of the order present in their white robes and caps.

FLAGG SUSPENDED

Former Sheriff's Son Dropped From Revenue Department After Year's Probe

As a result of an investigation that has been under way for a year R. H. Flagg, 3d, son of Edward H. Flagg, Jr. of Riverton, former Burlington County sheriff, has been suspended from the Internal Revenue Department. Flagg was in charge of the income tax bureau with headquarters in Trenton. At the same time two other internal revenue agents were suspended.

For what cause the three have been suspended could not be learned. Mr. Flagg was at the income tax office the latter part of last week, but declined to discuss the case, pointing out that he was still in government service.

Rumors of an impending shake-up in the South Jersey internal revenue service have been in circulation for the past several months. The reports were inspired by the investigations which Agents Hill and Lucas have been making into income tax operations for the intelligence unit of the department. The agents' investigations are said to extend over a period of about a year and the probe was undertaken at the command of David H. Blair, national commissioner of internal revenue.

Flagg has been in charge of the Trenton division, which embraces Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean Counties, for more than a year. He was the successor to John A. Pyle, former zone chief.

This has tended to lengthen the average time per pupil spent in the secondary schools, which was two years and seven months in 1908-09, to three years and five months in 1922-23.

The first conference for leaders of Y. W. C. A. clubs will be held in Mount Holly on Saturday, October 10th, at ten o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. This conference will consist of a technical hour, program building, and Bible work. Dr. M. A. The Visiting Nurse Society

There seems to be a great deal of confusion as to the basis on which the Visiting Nurse Society is operated. For the sake of a clear understanding on the part of the public, we are asking a little space in the columns of your paper to explain the relation of the community to the nursing service.

Anyone in the district (Riverton, Palmyra, Cinnaminson) may call on the nurse for nursing care. Those who can pay full are expected to do so whether they have contributed to the support of the Society at the time of the drive or not. That was a gift to be put down on their income tax returns as "contributions to charity." Those who cannot pay the full fee will be expected to pay what they can for the nurse's time. All money received by any nurse is turned in at the end of the month to the individual of the Visiting Nurse Society.

Holders of individual policies in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company are entitled to nursing care under the terms of their contract if it is a part of their income tax returns as "contributions to charity." The bill sent by the nurse to the Company at the end of each month is paid by check to the Society.

The nurse's hours on duty are from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Emergency calls for treatments under a doctor's orders or for assisting the doctor in a maternity case will be answered as promptly as possible at all hours.

On behalf of the committee Mrs. CHARLES EVANS, Chairman.

KNITTERS, PRESENT ARMS

Red Cross Wants 50,000 Sweaters for Disabled Service Men

The National Organization of the Red Cross is launching the first national campaign conducted solely in behalf of the disabled ex-service men it has ever conducted. The campaign is not for money, but for 50,000 sweaters needed by the men still in hospitals under treatment for disabilities incurred during the World War.

The thousands of women located in every county of the United States, who knitted for the soldiers during the War, and who at that time were called the "Knit two, put two, Brigade," will be urged to report for duty once more to their local Chapters.

Every Chapter will be assigned a definite quota of sweaters and asked to expedite the work. There are 30,000 disabled ex-service men in hospitals every day of the year, and those in need look to the Red Cross to supply them with the same type of sweater as furnished them seven years ago when overseas in the interest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Clark, Francis R. Ehle, and Mrs. S. L. Warren.

LUTHERAN NEWS

On Sunday, October 11, the pulpit of the First Lutheran Church will be occupied at both services by the Rev. Charles L. Venable, of Easton, Maryland. The Rev. Mr. Venable has been a very successful pastor and is a splendid preacher. A treat is in store for those who hear him next Sunday.

This Thursday night the pastor, the Rev. Harry L. Saul, will continue the discussion of Paul's Epistle to the Romans. On Thursday night, October 15, the Rev. J. B. Whitton, our much beloved co-worker of the town, will preach. Rare privileges cannot be stored too often, so come, hear the Rev. Mr. Whitton.

The monthly meeting of the Church Council will be held Monday night, October 12, at 8:30. A full attendance is requested.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

There was a very large attendance last Sunday morning at both the 10 o'clock School session and the 11:15 Communion service. The Sunday School attendance is proving even larger at the 10 o'clock hour than the attendance at the afternoon sessions of last year, thus showing the popularity of the new plan.

Tonight is the occasion of the big men's rally in the North Baptist Church of Camden, to which all men are invited.

Friday afternoon at 3:45, in the Church, will be the time of the Happy Hour for children. The meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society will be held at 8 p. m.

Rev. Frederick Blaser's topics on Sunday are to be as follows:—Morning, "The Ideal Church." Evening, "What's in a Name?" Both of these services will be full of helpful inspiration.

Many Interesting Subjects on Schedule for Discussion at October Session

The Palmyra Chapter of Commerce will hold its October meeting next Tuesday evening at its regular meeting place, Society Hall.

President William E. Jenkins plans to have Mayor Weart and some members of the Borough Council present to discuss with the members of the Chamber various improvements which are going on and in contemplation.

Inasmuch as the question of an improved street system for the whole town remains a paramount question with many citizens, interesting data on the costs and other phases of this proposition may be presented.

Plans may also be taken up for a Halloween celebration. Palmyra set out two three years back to hold a celebration on this date each year and those that have been held to date have always been very successful and enjoyable. Whether the celebration will be attempted again this year will be discussed at the Chamber meeting.

All members of the Chamber have been invited to attend a meeting at the Riverton Porch Club on October 10, Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to hear an address by Judge Wells and other interesting speakers. The Chamber also is invited to attend Riverton's Old Home Day celebration next Saturday.

SCOUT NEWS

It is hoped that the people of Palmyra and Riverton will be present at this court.

Dr. Harold Coxson, Scoutmaster of Moorstown Troop No. 1, was present at a joint meeting of Troops 1 and 2 of Palmyra and gave an interesting talk on practical first aid.

An examining board for merit badge tests is now being formed and it is now possible for a scout to be examined for any merit badge on the list.

The Burlington County Council under the leadership of John R. Tallis, Scout Executive, of Burlington, has made rapid strides in a short time since it was organized.

ANOTHER AUTOMOBILE GOES IN BATHING

Mrs. English's Sedan Don't Even Don a One-Piece Suit Before Taking Plunge

A tremor of fear is felt throughout automobile circles in this locality that we must return to the good old hitching posts. If the number of "runaway" automobiles to increase at the rate they have in the past few weeks, something must be done to check the machines which prove quite a menace to the streets without a driver at the wheel.

Several weeks ago, Coddington's "green bus" blew down Main street, Riverton, and finally lighted in the river. A runaway driver in Mount Holly last week stopped only after it had taken quite a trip through the heart of the town, dodging parked machines and everything, and then piled into a brand new plate glass window.

Not to be outdone by her sister towns, Palmyra now boasts of a runaway bus, which got rarin' to go when it was supposed to be very calm and "stay put" while its owner made a "runaway" response to a Monday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth English, of Garfield avenue, called on Mrs. William Harry Buck, of Bank and Morgan avenues.

The trip to Mrs. Buck's home was made in Mrs. English's Overland sedan. Expecting her machine to act in the customary manner, Mrs. English stopped the motor, took out the key, and left it standing on Morgan avenue, across from Mrs. Buck's home, never dreaming it would venture away without someone at the helm.

Although thoroughly broken in, the sedan evidently had not become accustomed to modern ethics, so after standing patiently for some time, decided to "move on."

It coasted down Morgan avenue, and continuing a course straight as an arrow, failed to turn onto Bank avenue and headed down the bank and over the six-foot fall, took a nose dive into the mud of the river's flats and then turned bottom side up with all four wheels pointing skyward.

The runaway occurred about eleven o'clock and by noon a wrecking crew composed of Mr. Buck, Officer Miller, of the Riverton Police force, several mechanics from the Reia Motor Company, Riverside, and a machinist from the Tacony-Palmyra Ferry Company had salvaged the machine and once more had it on dry land.

The "crew" righted the machine and then pushed it up to Bank avenue along the shore and from there it was brought back to the road which it forsook an hour before.

Considering it was a "runaway" machine was comparatively lucky, far as damage was concerned. It only suffered a stove-in radiator, bent front axle, badly wrenched fenders and a broken windshield.

The main trouble was that Mrs. English had failed to set her emergency brake when she stopped the machine in front of the Buck home.

NO-NOX, THE NEW GULF MOTOR FUEL, PROVES THE GULF CLAIMS

The Gulf Refining Company report an unexpected sale of NO-NOX and customers are lavish in their praise of this new fuel. The Gulf Refining Company have been very conservative in their advertising of NO-NOX as they say they do not wish to "bull" their customers on this gas—they would rather let its merits be discovered by their patrons—they are ready to stand back of the guarantee that NO-NOX will stop carbon knock and that it contains nothing harmful to man or motor. An anti-knock or stop-knock fuel that really accomplishes its mission is worth the price to any motorist, says an officer of the Gulf Refining Company, as the average consumption of gasoline during the year is about five hundred gallons per car which figures, at three cents additional per gallon, the small sum of $15.00 per annum. The added power efficiency is worth that, not to mention the saving in wear and tear on motor and chassis of insufficient combustion, etc. There seems to be no doubt as to the Gulf Refining Company having at last found the real remedy for carbon knock.

LECONY GIVEN VASE

J. Alfred LeCony, Moorestown's star sprinter, has received a valuable Severn vase, a gift from France, which has been pronounced a masterpiece in pottery and decorated by several well-known connoisseurs. The vase was sent to LeCony by the French committee in charge of the Olympic games held in Paris in 1924 as a token of their esteem and a mark of their admiration for his prowess as a runner. The vase is fifteen inches high, and is a rich dark blue and gold, with four medallions of gray and white, depicting the classic figures of ancient times playing the games of the period.

LeCony, it will be remembered, participated in the four hundred-meter race and broke the world's record for that event.

FIREBUG NABBED

"Testing Sincerity of Friends in Spirit Land" Says Barn Burner

Oliver Garrett, colored, and a former student of the Moorestown High School, has confessed that he set fire to several barns in the vicinity of Leno and other places in South Jersey and he says he intended to burn the barns of Senator Elmer Roberts, but that he did not have matches enough.

Garrett visited the Naturalization Court in Camden and it was while loitering about the hallway at the Court House that he entrusted his secret to a newly-made friend, who reported the matter to the police. His explanation for getting into trouble was "that he wanted to test the sincerity of friends in the Spirit Land."

Sanford Landis, of Lancaster, N. J., picked up in Camden county shortly after the burning of the George Beideman barn on the Marlon pike, also signed a confession, but as it has already been ascertained that Landis is mentally deficient. The police feel sure that the confession of Garrett is true.

Chief Clarence L. Ward, of Maple Shade, has quizzed Garrett in his cell in the Camden Jail and he feels certain that he is telling the truth.

MOUNT HOLLY PLANS HALLOWE'EN FETE

Big Parade and Frolic At County Seat November 2

Mount Holly is to have a Halloween celebration of the mammoth type and it will be the biggest thing of the kind ever held in Burlington county.

That is the substance of the statements being made by those who are heading the movement as a result of the initiative taken by the Knights of Pythias order which has decided to give Mount Holly a thorough awakening with a demonstration such as might be expected with King Momo as the guiding influence.

The committee is not any more town under way with its activity, but it has gone far enough to fix Monday night, November 2, as the time for celebration. This time was selected because it was felt that the proper date, Saturday, October 31, might interfere with business, so far as both people and merchants are concerned.

Organizations in the town have been asked to appoint committees to become a part of the general committee that will make up the big working force to put the thing over. Some of the societies have acted on this request and others are expected to make their reports in the near future.

Thus far, although it is rather early, there has developed a fine spirit of co-operation among those who have been asked to assist and it looks as though some of the town's best hustlers are going to roll up their sleeves and plow right into such work as has to be done to early insure the success of the undertaking.

Promoting something of this kind is not new for Mount Holly. Back in the day before wartime prices made such celebrations almost prohibitive, the town gave Burlington county the biggest Halloween demonstration in its history. Two years ago last year, however, when the Business Men's Association had left off and had another fine affair until rain came in torrents before the end of the parade and spoiled the plans.

Nothing was planned last year because Pemberton announced that it wanted to get back to its celebration days, and then it turned out that if it had not been for Mount Holly's representation Pemberton would have fallen somewhat short of its hopes. Now the Knights think that they have taken it up in time to let the rest of the country know that Mount Holly is going to take a turn this year.

It is proposed to invite organizations from outside the county to join in the big frolic, and Camden and Trenton are being counted on to send big delegations because several of the secret societies of these cities have parading groups and are always anxious to get connected with something real like Mount Holly is going to put over. One of the features so far as the Mount Holly knights are concerned will be the appearance of their uniformed rank in entire new outfits. When the Kelsey & Killie property in Mount Holly was destroyed by fire in January the knights lost all of their uniforms, and the new ones they purchased have just arrived. They will be saved for the first public showing at the Halloween demonstration. The committee selected to start the activities sounds like business right from the start. The members are doing considerable talking along the street to feel the public pulse and get the fever working, and the encouragement received thus far makes them feel that they will have no serious stumbling block in perfecting the details.

TROOPER RESIGNS

Well Known State Cop to Become Cranberry and Fruit Grower

State Trooper "Jimmy" O'Rourke, who has made an enviable reputation in Burlington county since being assigned to duty at Medford Chatsworth, and elsewhere, has tendered his resignation to his superior officers, owing to the fact that he has accepted a situation as a manager for Ethelbert Haines, of Vincentown, an extensive cranberry and fruit grower.

Recently, O'Rourke has been stationed at Chatsworth, and he has proven a thorn in the side of evil doers in that vicinity. Of a sunny disposition, he made many friends rapidly and there is scarcely a man, woman or child in this vicinity who does not know the smiling face of "Jimmy."

The state police department will lose a valuable officer, but Mr. Haines is the gainer.

AVERAGE WINTER SAYS PROPHET

George S. Bliss, Philadelphia Weather Man, Hands Out Advance Dope

Weather prophets had better look to their laurels. Formidable opposition has appeared in the person of George S. Bliss, of Philadelphia, the genial weatherman who, taking time by the forelock, rises to remark that the coming winter will be neither severe nor mild.

Just to save yourself the trouble of looking at Mr. Bliss' daily forecast during the winter months, read his advance prediction. Here it is: "The time is near at hand when forecasts for the coming winter will begin to appear from all sides, being based on every conceivable observation from geesebones to caterpillars."

"Heretofore this office has refrained from offering opinions in the matter but this year I have decided to get in the swim and make a forecast all my own."

"The winter as a whole will be neither very severe nor very mild. There will be two or three periods of about a week each when the cold will be rather severe, and zero temperatures may be recorded in the suburban districts of Philadelphia. There will be five or six snowstorms worth considering, and a total snowfall for the winter of about 26 or 27 inches. The ground will be comparatively bare and free from snow about one-half of the time."

"The above forecast is not based upon any special information or foreknowledge of the conditions, but upon the fact that about three-fourths of our winters are of this character, and I should have a fair chance of winning. The fellows who forecast a very severe or a very mild winter will have to divide the fourfold chance between them, and will have little chance of winning."

RECEPTION TO PASTOR

Mount Holly Clergyman Preaches Farewell Sermon to Presbyterian Church

Dr. Robert A. Brotemarkle ended his ministry at the Mount Holly Presbyterian Church on Sunday of last week and there were many people on hand for his farewell service and the reception to him and Mrs. Brotemarkle that followed the religious program. The congregation at both services during the day were large. In the morning there was communion and six members were received into the church by transfer letters. In the evening the annual autumn service of song and flowers was held and the church was filled.

In his address Dr. Brotemarkle expressed regret that the time had come for him to leave Mount Holly and be away from the pleasant associations he has had here during the past seven years that he had been minister of the church. The reception that followed the evening service was largely attended by members of the church and people of the town, among the visitors being Rev. John W. Gummere, Rev. Marple M. Lewis, Rev. Franklin Halsey and Rev. Curwen B. Fisher, representing the other Protestant churches of the town. With Dr. R. S. Clarke as their spokesman the ladies of the church presented Mrs. Brotemarkle a beautiful vase filled with handsome flowers, and there also a presentation of flowers to Dr. and Mrs. Brotemarkle in memory of William Macdonald. The ladies of the church served refreshments.

38,844 laws were proposed in the United States last year, of which 10,809 were actually enacted. Our national sport used to be baseball.—Life.

IMPROVED FORDS ARE POPULAR

Thousands of Orders Waiting to be Filled—Fordson Wins Three Tractor Prizes

Every day new evidence comes in of the popularity of the Improved Ford cars.

It is not only expressed in the crowds which fill dealer show rooms all over the country and the groups which pause to inspect the cars wherever they appear on the streets nor alone in the thousands of orders being booked for immediate delivery, but also in orders entered for future delivery.

Probably the best index to future deliveries of these cars is found in enrollments in the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, which have shown a remarkable increase since the cars made their appearance.

This increase was first noticed the last ten days in August, during which the announcement of the cars was made. In that period enrollments under the plan reached a total of 13,167 and in the ten days following, the first in September, the number of new purchasers under the plan totaled 16,054.

Those enrolled under the plan at the time the improved cars were announced all benefited by the change, for they will receive the new types and will be given preference when they desire delivery of cars.

More than 175,000 are now enrolled under the plan and with others coming in at the rate of 1,500 a day it will not be long before the enrollment lists will exceed 200,000.

Those who are ordering cars under the plan at the present time for the most part contemplate delivery either during the coming holiday season or for early spring next year.

Fordson Tractors captured the three first prizes of the day at the forty-seventh annual Wheatland Plowing Match, held recently at Naperville, Ill., and considered to be the most important plowing contest held annually in the country.

Glenn Wright, of Plane, Ill., representing the Yorkville Motor Company, with his Fordson Tractor and Oliver plow won in the manufacturer's class, with a score of 92 points.

Walter Erickson, of Paperville, Ill., driving a Fordson and Janesville Plow, won first honors and a silver cup in the Farmers Class, with a score of 92½ points. First place was captured in the only other event, the Boys' Class, by Forrest George, 18 years old, scoring 83½ points with a Fordson Tractor and Oliver Plow.

The victory of the Fordsons was well received by the 600 or 700 enthusiastic farmers who cheered the contestants, since by far the great majority of them were owners of that type of tractor.

SCHOLASTIC INTERCHANGE ACTIVE IN BRITISH EMPIRE

Arrangements for interchange of teachers at home and overseas for the coming year have been announced by the president of the Board of Education of Great Britain. The governments of the Dominion of New Zealand; the Provinces of Ontario, Nova Scotia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan; the States of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia, and the Province of the Transvaal participate in the scheme, which was recommended by the Imperial Educational Conference.—School Life.

WYOMING IS PROVIDING FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN

To encourage the formation of special classes for mentally or physically handicapped children unable to do satisfactory work in regular schools, the Wyoming State Board of Education has been enabled by Legislative appropriation to offer a bonus to local school boards which conduct approved special classes.

The cost of educating a special pupil, it is found ranges from $100 to $143, or an average of approximately $115 per year. The cost of a regular grade student ranges from $70 to $100, with an average of $84 per year. So great is the demand for trained special teachers that the school of education of the State university offers summer courses to meet the requirements of the board of education.

BURLINGTON MAN FREED

Case Against Councilman, Charged With Driving Machine While Intoxicated, Falls Flat

Charges of intoxication while driving an automobile preferred against Councilman Charles Lucas, of Fernwood avenue, Burlington, by a Beverly policeman, were not sustained at the hearing in the Beverly City Hall last week, and the case fell flat.

The party into whose car Lucas is alleged to have driven his automobile on the St. Michel Drive on Sunday night of last week failed to make any charge, and the charge preferred by Policeman Stevenson was not pressed. Nor was the physician, Dr. Parry Scott, of Beverly, who examined Lucas on Sunday night, called to the stand.

MOORESTOWN BOOM

Real Estate Becomes Active in Quaker Town—Farm Deals Reported

Two bona fide farm sales were made in Moorestown last week when John Dugan sold his place on the South Church road for $30,000. It contains about 34 acres and of this Mr. Dugan has reserved for himself the house and two acres of ground, so that the purchase price was practically $1,000 per acre. He also sold his other parcel of land about three-quarters of a mile further out the road toward Marlton for $10,000. This latter parcel contains 22 3/4-100 acres.

The buyer of both lots was Frederick H. Egbert, of Philadelphia. It is reported Mr. Egbert expects to erect ten houses on the first tract before January 1st.

Another property sold was the Michael Downs place just to the south of Moorestown. The 15 acres brought $25,500, or about $1,700 per acre. Mr. Downs also reserved his home and a good sized parcel of land around it.

Two of the largest and most desirable properties in Moorestown were sold within the past few weeks by William G. McConey. They are the Joel Cadbury house on East Main street to Robert Z. Collings.

of Riverton, and the Walter H. Tinney property (formerly the Tinney house) at Main street and the Mount Laurel road, to James N. Downey, of Camden.

STUDENT BORROWERS PROVE SAFE RISK

Loans granted to students on a character basis and for purpose of study are reported by the Harmon Foundation to be good pay. More than 40 per cent of the $26,385 loaned to students during the year 1922-23 has been paid, though according to agreement only 29 per cent was due on February 1, 1925. The foundation reports that not a single account is likely to default.

THE QUESTION BOX

Who Has a Silver Dollar?

Collectors, Edgewater Park—I am told there are three "M's" on a silver dollar. I can only find two. Is there more than two or am I being kidded?

Ans. There are four "M's" on the U. S. silver dollar—two on each side. One "M" is indented on the neck of the head and another is indented on the eagle. These two are scarcely visible without the use of a microscope.

He Knows Better Now

Fritz, West Palmyra—On what authority did the ex-kaiser think he ruled by Divine Right?

Ans. On the authority of the Divine Rights of Kings, a seventeenth century dogma implying that kings hold their office by divine appointment and are the earthly representatives of God, but in the Bill of Rights in 1689 the right of the people to depose a monarch is distinctly set forth.

Diamond Fields in U. S.

Jeweler, Merchantville—I wish to ask you if there are any diamond mines in the United States, and if there are will you state where they are?

Ans. The only diamond fields in the United States is a track of about 40 acres in Pike County, Arkansas.

Snakes

Farmer, Delair—Should a person kill all the snakes he can find?

Ans. Only poisonous snakes, particularly the rattlesnakes, should be exterminated. Others like the garter snake, black snake and bull snake are valuable to the farm and should not be killed. They eat insects and bugs which destroy the farm crops.

That's Easy

Worried, Palmyra—If you answer so many questions will you please tell me how I can avoid paying alimony?

Ans. Stay single or stay married.

U. S. Census

Statistics, Beverly—Is the census of the United States taken every five years?

Ans. No. Once every ten years.

Hotter Deeper Down

Curious, East Riverton—Is it true the farther down into the earth the hotter it gets?

Ans. Yes. The average is about one degree every 100 feet. At a depth of 20 miles the heat is sufficient to melt any known substance.

Muckraker

Jimmie—I have never asked a question yet, but would like to know what is a muckraker?

Ans. The word muckraker was first used by Theodore Roosevelt on April 14, 1906, in a speech in which he deprecated sweeping and unjust charges of corruption against public men and corporations. Hence muckraker is the noun to designate one so charged. It was quickly adopted by lexicographers.

No "R's" in Chinese

Mike, Cambridge—Why is it the Chinese can't pronounce the letter "R" when they try to talk English?

Ans. There is no sound of the letter "R" in the Chinese language. Their inability to utter the sound comes from thousands of years of isolation.

Waterloo Fought on Sunday
Student, Riverside—On what day of the week was the battle of Waterloo fought?

Ans. On Sunday.

ROUSING MEETING

Palmyra Legion Post Has Splendid
Speaker at Get-together

The regular monthly meeting of Post Frederick M. Rodgers Tuesday night, October 6th, proved to be a gala night upon the first meeting under the new officers.

With a turnout of forty members, the evening was brought to a fitting climax by an address by the Rev. Jack Hart who is a regular fellow and who has been in charge of welfare work at the University of Pennsylvania for a number of years.

His talk dwelt on "Devotion and mutual helpfulness" to one another in Legion work. He pointed out that the great need in the community and in such work was a loyal desire and love to create and establish an organization for such ideals that the American Legion stands for. At the conclusion of the Rev. Hart's talk he was given a rousing reception and it has been some time since such a speaker has installed a fighting spirit in the Legion.

The evening was also one of music and the air was filled with enticing melodies played by the Royal Commodores. After the closing prayer the members retreated to eats and smokes.

Plans are now under way for the start of the local subscription to the Legion National Endowment Fund. The Post will now take on a war like appearance for the long waited arrival of captured war trophies will be displayed in the Legion rooms. It is hoped by the members that the public will avail themselves of this opportunity to see this collection. You are welcome at any time and any member will be glad to show you around.

The pinchoke of the local Post will begin on Friday night, October 23rd, 1925.

DINN ON PROBATION

Bernard Dinn who was arrested last week by Chief of Police C. Morris Beck, charged with the theft of forty-one hand saws from Diction Saw Mills, Tacony, where he was employed, was released on probation after being tried in Philadelphia Tuesday.

From the time of his arrest until his release was gained at the trial, the youth was confined to the Moyamensing prison. He admitted his guilt when taken in custody by Chief Beck.

"Feather" Says:

It seems as though a law compelling automobiles to come to a complete stop before crossing a railroad might be a safeguard to people who will not take the necessary precaution to protect themselves by being careful. This would be an extreme measure even if it could be enforced, but railroad accidents are so numerous that it seems as though something must be done. It is quite a shock to the engineer as well as to the occupants of the auto, according to an article in a recent issue of the Literary Digest.

Little Lucy felt she was entitled to special commendation and said to her mother, "I must be a very good child. You never keep a maid more than a week or two, but I've been with you ten years."

One time it was my good fortune to work in an office with a girl who was like the sunshine. She had been endowed with a nature that radiated happiness, as the sun sends forth heat and light. No one could grouch when she was near, and neither could one long feel disheartened, for with wide, child-like eyes she would look at you and then give such a winsome smile that you returned it in spite of yourself, and when you smiled, then the cloud just naturally started to disappear.

Of such a smile Longfellow says: Bear through sorrow, wrong and pain, In thy heart the dew of youth, On thy lips the smile of truth.

Oh, that dew, like balsam, shall steal into wounds that cannot heal; Even as sleep our eyes doth seal; And that smile, like sunshine, dart into many a heart that's drear. For a smile of God thou art.

While many of us are not endowed with the same sort of a smile, yet our smile can be used more frequently to help the other fellow bear his load.

RIVERTON'S FIRST OLD HOME DAY IS PRONOUNCED SUCCESS; MANY VISITORS ENTERTAINED

Everybody Enjoys Celebration Despite the Cold, Windy Weather

ALL DAY PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT

Firemen's Parade Is Big Feature of Events During The Afternoon

Riverton's first Old Home Day arranged by the Riverton Fire Company and the Chamber of Commerce, was a pronounced success, notwithstanding the cold, windy weather kept away many who had anticipated the celebration.

Eighty-two guests wrote their names in the registration book at the headquarters established by the Boy Scouts, and it is known that a large number of visitors did not register.

The high wind made it very uncomfortable for the spectators and interfered seriously with the sports for the children in the morning.

However, the spirit of cordiality shown by the townspeople, and the evident pleasure the guests marked the true measure of the success of the undertaking.

Dreer's Nurseries made it a holiday and closed all day.

Starting with the children's flag parade at 9:30, some form of entertainment was provided for every hour of the day until the dancing stopped at 10 o'clock in the evening owing to the cold.

700 children in line. There were nearly 700 children in line, the Riverton and Cinnaminson public schools and a number of visitors. The parade presented quite a different appearance from the usual Fourth of July event, owing to the fact that the children marched in grades, many of which carried banners awarded for attendance and punctuality, and all the children wore the Riverton colors, yellow and blue.

In the line, many of the Boy Scouts came first, followed by the first section of the Riverton band, the Cinnaminson schools, a group of visiting children, second section of the band, members of the board of education, Riverton school children, and the bus carrying the kindergarten tots with their teachers, Miss Parker, which ended the procession.

Owing to the cold wind the line of march was changed so that the turn made at 8th and street instead of continuing down Main street to the river. The march ended at Main and Howard streets, where the Rev. C. T. Bates made a short address.

The children presented a fine appearance and marched well. The whole affair reflected much credit on the supervising principals and the teachers who had it in charge, and the participation of the children in the day's celebration added to the element of interest for the young folks without which such occasions are not complete.

The athletic events for the boys and girls were called off on Main street between Broad and Fifth, under the direction of Louis C. Cleland, chairman of the committee, assisted by Dr. Harry L. Rogers, E. C. Sullivan, Samuel Jones, Robert C. Ayres, Sonny Wright and Ross Elliott.

Prizes Are Awarded. The winners and the prizes were as follows: 50 yard dash for small girls—Elizabeth Shocker, camera; Elizabeth Elliott, pencil; Marlene Lisk, pencil.

50 yard dash for small boys—Bill Shoemaker, first; Ellsworth Crammer, Stanley Powell, knives.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The Riverton and Palmyra League of Women Voters will hold its first meeting of the season next Thursday afternoon, October 22, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. John G. Buehner, Broad and Main streets, Riverton.

Mrs. Nellie R. Russell, of Burlington, will speak for Senator Arthur R. Whitney, in his candidacy for Governor, and Mrs. Florence W. Jacoby, of Edgewater Park, will be the speaker for A. H. Moore, who is the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Harrison Street Ordinance Passed

Only Two Objectors Appeared and They Merely Wanted Extension of Time

At the Riverton borough council meeting last Thursday night, the owners of property on Harrison street were given a hearing before the final passage of the ordinance providing for curbs and sidewalks on that street.

Ross Evans and Clarence Bell were the only ones present desiring to be heard. Mr. Evans stated that he felt the improvement was a good one, but desired an extension of time for putting in his curb.

The mayor informed him that it was not the desire of council to rush anyone, and it would probably be too far into freezing weather after the passage of the ordinance and the elapse of the 30 day allowance, to get the curb in this fall.

Mr. Bell asked for a six-month delay in putting down his walk. The mayor told Mr. Bell that this was a rather long extension to ask and stated that the borough would lay it off and grant him deferred payments.

The matter was finally left in the hands of the highway committee to decide just what walks might be delayed.

Mr. Evans called attention to the bad crossing at Harrison and Lincoln, which is a mud hole, bad for both pedestrians and cars. Councilman Lynch informed him that means of overcoming this were already under consideration.

Both ordinances were passed unanimously.

The report of Dr. Marks, Board of Health Inspector, showed $8.00 collected in fees during the month. The report of the Building Inspector showed $20.00 collected in fees for buildings and alterations amounting to $28,000. Both reports were read.

Will Issue Notes. The mayor called attention to a balance still due the Union Paying Company, the Walter S. French and the parties who had been working for work done, and on motion the finance committee was instructed to secure from the borough solicitor the necessary data for the issuance of temporary improvement notes for the settlement of the amounts due, the same to be included in next year's tax budget.

A communication was read from Washington & Matthews, attorneys, relative to a claim of Thomas Bromley, amounting to $191.80, for broken sewer connections, curb, etc., at his home. Mr. Bromley's original claim was $1500.

Councilman Flinn stated that if there was anything due it should be paid, and if not, the matter should be definitely settled, and on his motion the sewer committee was instructed to refer the matter to the borough solicitor for advice and a draft of a reply.

A communication was read from W. H. Ruckelshaus & Company, certified public accountants, asking for the appointment as auditor of borough accounts, at a salary of $200 a year. Mr. Bartley said the approval of the finance committee and on his motion the offer was accepted.

Mr. Bartley called attention to the fact that there exists a duplication of numbers on houses on Elm avenue, and owing to this condition, an innocent party was recently made to suffer when the Public Service cut off the current from one house when the action was in fact against another.

The finance committee reported favorably on the following bills and they were ordered paid:

PASTOR DIES SUDDENLY

The Rev. Frederick Blaser

REV. BLASER FALLS DEAD AT CHURCH

Baptist Pastor Victim of Heart Attack While Helping Prepare Church Supper

SUCCESSFUL CAREER HAS UNTIMELY END

Was One of Most Popular and Able Ministers in State of New Jersey

The funeral of the Rev. Frederick Blaser, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Riverton and Palmyra, was held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the church.

A large attendance by members of his congregation and many friends throughout Palmyra and Riverton, as well as from towns in which he held former pastorates, paid tribute to Pastor Blaser's life and high esteem in which he was held.

Pastor Blaser died almost instantly of heart trouble last Saturday afternoon while he and a few other men were preparing an oyster supper to be served in the church basement by the Baraca Class that evening.

A few moments before, Pastor Blaser had been in high spirits, leading in singing some hymns as the men worked in the kitchen of the church preparing the supper.

The abrupt death of the beloved pastor caused intense excitement and grief among the workers in the supper who were called off and the food, already prepared, given away to those who arrived.

The Rev. Frederick Blaser was only 44 years old and had been pastor of the local church since January 1, 1919. He was an active member of the church and had been a member of the local church since January 1, 1919.

He was born in Philadelphia on February 19, 1881, was graduated from old Bucknell Academy and entered Crozier Theological Seminary from which he was graduated in 1909. In May of that year he was ordained in Philadelphia.

Pastor Blaser organized the Baptist Church in Pittman, N. J., leaving in 1914 to take charge of the church in Somerville. During the World War he was a popular and active pastor.

WIND DAMAGES TREES

Streets littered With Limbs, Large and Small. Boats Blown Ashore

The cold snap which ushered in Riverton's Old Home Day came with a miniature blizzard which raged for a few minutes about half past four Saturday morning. The snow fell for only a few seconds but the cold wind raged on. Besides making folks most uncomfortable, the wind did considerable damage to the trees about town. Many small branches and a few large limbs were blown off.

At the river several boats dragged their moorings and blew ashore. H. H. Seabrook's boat broke loose and he spent an hour in the chilly waters of the majestic Delaware before he made it fast again. The L. I. boats owned by Robertson, Miller and Showell dragged their moorings and were blown ashore but did not break loose. Merrill's boat broke its mooring chain.

Riverton Downs Palmyra 13-2

Football and Track Exhibitions Features of Saturday Afternoon's Program

Last Saturday afternoon the large crowd that braved the cold weather to participate in Riverton's Old Home Day celebration was well entertained with the athletic events on the program, when Riverton defeated its old time rival, Palmyra, 13-2, on the gridiron and world famous track stars performed at Memorial Park.

Although the cold weather made it far from ideal football weather, both teams put up a dandy game and Riverton earned its victory.

The match was interesting from start to finish and was thoroughly enjoyed by the big holiday crowd.

At the start Palmyra kicked off and after a couple of plays Riverton fumbled and Palmyra recovered. The next play Palmyra fumbled and Riverton in turn recovered.

Riverton then opened with several off tackle plays mixed with some trick plays and took the ball over the line for the initial touchdown. J. Hyllon's boot for the extra point went wide its mark.

Palmyra again took the ball and Riverton continuing with its strong offensive work again took the ball down the field and over for the second six pointer. This time J. Hyllon's kick was successful and at the close of the first quarter Riverton led, 13-0.

The second and third quarters found the teams evenly matched with neither eleven advancing the ball sufficiently to score. Palmyra attempted an aerial attack but Riverton blocked most of the passes.

Palmyra scored its safety when a Riverton kick was blocked and the ball bounced from the 20-yard line into the end zone.

The winners came back strong in the last quarter and were pushing their way deep into Palmyra's territory when a trick play went floozy and a ground pass enabled Palmyra to take up the offensive on its 20 yard line, tried a few plays and then kicked the oval off treacherous ground.

Riverton then got another strong attack under way and was about to score when the goal for another six pointer when the ball whistled end the fracas.

Kink, Pettit, Semple and Reagle featured for Palmyra. Stewart, Hollingshead, quarter, Richman, Hyllon, Wright and Dick Hollingshead were the strongholds of the Riverton aggregation.

Riverton played a brilliant defensive game and held Palmyra to one first down during Saturday's battle. Between the quarters the track luminaries, including Frances Ruppert, captain of the Meadowbrook team and one of the world's foremost football athletes, defeated her team mates, Christine Joseph, and Margaret Jenkins, of Palmyra, in a 50-yard dash. The Riverton girl's time was 8 seconds.

Boots, Lever, former intercollegiate sprint champion, Al Leoney, of Olympic fame, and George Hill, another former college champion, with Bruce Beahn, of Palmyra High, gave some excellent track exhibitions.

Both Lever and Leoney are former track champions. Lever won the 60 yard dash in 7 seconds and Leoney won the 90-yard dash in 9.1 seconds, with Lever close on his heels and Hill third.

JUSTICE LLOYD FLAYS COUNTY OFFICIALS FOR LOW BAIL GIVEN RANOCAS CREEK RUM RUNNERS

Justice Lloyd's Charge to the Burlington County Grand Jury follows:

"I have said that this is an important and serious session of the Grand Jury. You will, of course, have presented to you the usual class of minor offenses which in the best-organized society seem to be ever with us, and which appear to be inseparable from our human weaknesses.

"You will, however, and it is because of this your session is so important, be called upon to deal with two phases of crime which are of paramount importance to the well-being of the State, and it is to these that I now wish to direct your attention.

"On the afternoon of October 1 a large containing a large quantity of intoxicating liquors entered Ranocas Creek. After the box reached the dock of a farmer near Bridgeboro in the night it began to unload its cargo.

"At the landing place a number of trucks were soon gathered and were proceeding to unload and carry away the cargo when a courageous body of State police, numbering less than half a dozen, aided by a private citizen named Carslake, arrived, and by their grit and nerve secured a body of nearly half a hundred armed men into criminal subjection, took them prisoners and seized the barge, the trucks and the liquors.

"Pending the seizure an attempt was made to scuttle and burn the barge.

"This is one phase of law violation with which you will be called upon to deal, and which is especially committed to your care.

"You will note that the enterprise for such it must have been involved infraction of the laws in at least a number of particulars. Unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors, unlawful transportation of liquors, unlawful possession of forbidden weapons, malicious setting fire to a boat, attempt to destroy the evidence of their crime and lastly a criminal conspiracy accompanied by acts in its execution.

"It may also be established that bribery or attempts at bribery were made by some of the alleged offenders to procure exemption from arrest. It may be that there were violations of the laws, and Federal laws with which, however, another tribunal must deal.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen, this is the first branch of this evidence with which you will be called upon to deal. You will have brought to your attention a violation of Federal laws with which, however, another tribunal must deal.

"It involves much more than the violation of prohibition enforcement laws. It involves a direct challenge to civil authority. I therefore commit to you for your earnest investigation and action this phase of the occurrence, with the determination to bring to book the high as well as the low in the transaction.

"There is, however, another phase even more sinister and more subversive of government and of social well-being. It is said that this was not the first time that a similar landing from a boat loaded with intoxicants has been made at the same place but that this landing has been the scene of repeated and successful attempts in the same direction.

"It is said that the actions have been within the knowledge of residents and others in the locality. If this be true, it would at least suggest that the same information could be obtained by those whose sworn duty it is to see to the enforcement of the laws, and who are paid by the county for the express purpose of ferreting out and detecting crime.

"But this is not all. It will be shown to you that officers of the county were apprised of the coming of the barge before it arrived, and of its illegal cargo. It will appear that the prosecutor sent at least two of the officers of the county to the scene to detect and thwart the illegal venture.

"They went and observed the conditions as they have been stated to you. They neither took part in nor called for assistance in suppressing what was apparently an attempt by force of arms at wholesale distribution of illicit liquors, but left the offenders to work their will.

"They left the real work of their office to a few brave State police, headed by Lieutenant Nichols and others. These men, with more regard for their own safety and less concern for their own safety, made the seizure at the peril of their lives and did work which called for equally energetic action on the part of the county force.

"More Than Neglect of Duty. "Such a situation suggests more than mere neglect of duty. Here was prior knowledge of the coming of the barge and its contents, here was information that hereto action probably would be required to prevent its landing, and here was a serious investigation at your hands of the causes for this supreme neglect of duty.

"The whole force of the county and of the State upon which was at the disposal of your officials to meet an emergency such as this and no one could know it better than those who had knowledge of the coming barge. They were expected to act in the criminal law and its enforcement.

"I need not say that corruption in public office is an offense of the

"Corruption, or Plain Stupidity," Grand Jury is Told as Court Opens

CASE LIKE ONE OF ARMED REBELLION

County Detectives Said To Have Looked Idly on While Boozie Was Unloaded

A scathing indictment of Supreme Court Commissioner V. Claude Palmer and Prosecutor George M. Hillman was delivered by Supreme Court Justice Frank T. Lloyd in his charge to the Burlington County Grand Jury Tuesday because of the low bail fixed for the fifty-five rum runners captured recently at Adams Wharf on the Rancocas near Bridgeboro.

Justice Lloyd plainly intimated that the case smacked strongly of bribery and corruption and if it were not the case, the officials involved were guilty of plain stupidity.

The attempt of a force or more than fifty armed men to land liquor was a "conspiracy of gigantic proportions," said Justice Lloyd. "This thing approaches rebellion against the state."

The County Detective force, of which Ellis Parker is head, is under fire in the matter. Justice Lloyd said it would be shown that Hillman and the County Detectives had knowledge beforehand of the plan to land the liquor and that detectives were sent to the scene but merely looked on.

It was not until four state troopers and former prohibition agent Charles Carslake arrived that the rum runners were arrested, the county detectives apparently taking no part whatsoever.

Credit for many of the startling developments in the rum situation is given the Ku Klux Klan which is reported to have been gathering evidence for many months and to have applied the pressure of the conspiracy among the Rancocas.

Sixty thousand cases of liquor are said to have been landed on the Rancocas within the last two months, most of it on Labor Day. A cache of $250,000 worth of liquor was discovered on the Wilmer Ruff farm Tuesday and state troopers and government agents are busily engaged in hunting other portions of the big cache which have been landed recently.

Out of the $14,500 bail of the rum runners, Commissioner Palmer's fees are said to amount to $2,000.

Former Judge Wells, an ardent dry advocate, is foreman of the October Grand Jury and the members include many of the strongest and most highly respected citizens of the county. A thorough probe of the situation is expected.

First magnitude. It strikes at the very foundation of government itself. And it is, if common rumor be true, the avenue through which most of the easy violation of the enforcement acts is made possible.

Demand Exhaustive Probe. "Therefore I call upon you to make the most exhaustive investigation to bring to justice any officials that evidence may show to be guilty of malfeasance or misfeasance in office.

"The problem before you involves no question of the principles of the prohibition of the liquor traffic. It develops that when the persons implicated in the venture on the night of October 3 were brought to court, committing magistrates they were held under bail in sums varying from $200 to $500, and it is said they gave fictitious names, and that they will be difficult to apprehend if indicted.

"With the fact of such evasion of trial if it shall so develop you, of course, cannot deal, but you have a right to investigate and determine this action in a suit of bail in trifling amounts under a h circumstances and prompted by corrupt motives, or simply the stupid blunder due to inability to distinguish between an enterprise of this sort and that of a petty peddle of illicit intoxicants."

The trophies awarded Independence Company were two cups and an electric fire lantern. They were for the best appearing organization, most in line and best equipped.

Tuesday evening the company paid its last respects to the man it had chosen as its first chaplain, the Rev. Frederick Blaser. The pastor quickly made friends with the members and his sudden death came as a severe blow to them. They donned the blue uniform as they called to mind the remains of the one whom they had held in such high esteem. Several members attended the funeral in uniform Wednesday afternoon.

State Trooper in Plain Clothes Easily Picks Up Evidence in Mount Holly Joint

After it became evident there must be an oasis productive of an exhilarating beverage somewhere in the vicinity of John E. Johnson's subway restaurant on Main street, Mount Holly, State Trooper Young, of Medford, and County Detective Carabine and Police Lieutenant Gaskill, of Mount Holly, stepped into the place and found just exactly what they expected last Saturday night.

Trooper Young in civilian clothes, was the first to enter, having no trouble getting by the sentry at the head of the stairway.

When it was certain that he had taken charge of the situation and there would be no chance for Johnson and his assistants to cover up, Carabine and Gaskill made their entrance and then began a thorough search of the place. In a cooling vault in the kitchen they uncovered a gallon of liquor in two containers, some supposed to be good and some perhaps not so high grade.

There was no excitement about it, Johnson could see that they had the goods on him and there was no difficulty in getting him ready to accompany Detective Carabine to the office of Supreme Court Commissioner Clifford R. Powell, who was waiting for the action. A charge of possession was made out, bail was fixed at $500 and Johnson was released upon proper bond being furnished for his appearance at court.

When the officers entered and it became evident that something was going to happen several customers where no good was being served at that particular time quickly decided that they were about through and left by way of the nearest door. It was not long before the restaurant was very unpopular. The sentry did his part toward keeping out prospective customers.

HOW GREAT MEN MAKE LOVE AS REVEALED BY THEIR LOVE LETTERS

By JOSEPH KAYE

(Copyright by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

LOUIS XIV AND MADAME DE MAINTENON

AMONG the celebrated women who have played an important part in the history of France, the Marchioness de Maintenon is in the front rank. She occupies a peculiar position in that while the rest of the famous French salon slatterns turned the picture of virtue to the wall, Mme. de Maintenon, bore the reputation of a saint.

She was born in a prison, to which her parents were committed because of religious differences. Early in life she married the famous wit and intellectual, Mazarin—old and deformed but still very agreeable—and when he died he left her reigning mistress of a brilliant circle to which the genius and fashion of Paris gravitated.

Louis XIV of France was at this time looking for some one to whom he could entrust the education of the children which his mistress, Mme. de Montempan, had presented him with, and Mme. de Maintenon was recommended. So well did the latter accomplish her trust that the king fell in love with her and made her his queen—strange whimsy of fate to supplant one favorite with the guardian of her children!

The following letter is the only one in existence that was written by the king to Mme. de Maintenon, expressing his affection:

"I take advantage of Montchevreuil's departure to assure you of a truth that pleases me too much for me to tire of repeating it. It is that I cherish you always and consider you to a point that I cannot express, and in short, whatever friendship you have for me I have more for you, being with all my heart entirely yours."

The land was sold with restrictions which means it will be developed on high class lines.

Mr. Hollinshead has reserved his ancestral home and some 20 acres of land of which he will continue to grow peonies on a large scale as heretofore. Later he expects to develop this remainder of the farm into one of the best residential sections in South Jersey.

KEEPING WELL COUNTRY VS. CITY DEATH RATE

THE country is the best place to raise children. In spite of the so-called advantages of city life, a child born in the country has a better chance of living than one born in the city. Statistics of large life insurance companies show that a boy born in the country will live on the average seven and three-quarters years longer than a boy born in the city, or, as insurance actuaries say, the country boy has a life expectancy that is seven and three-quarters years longer than a city boy, while the country girl can figure on living six years longer than she would if she were born in the city.

So the country child gets a running start on the city child. If the advantage could be kept up through life, there would be no question of the supremacy of the country over the city. Unfortunately, it isn't kept up. In some very important diseases, the death rate in the country is much higher than in the city. What's the use of being born in the country and having a longer life ahead of you at birth, if you are going to lose this advantage as soon as you come up against the diseases of childhood?

The death rate for whooping cough, for instance, is higher among country than among city children. On the other hand, the country child death rate for measles, scarlet fever and diphtheria is lower than the city child death rate. The tuberculosis death rate shows a curious fact. The only treatment for tuberculosis that is of any value consists of fresh air, sunshine, rest and nourishing food. All these are found easier and more abundantly in the country than in the city. Yet the country tuberculosis death rate is higher than the city rate.

Smallpox kills more people in the country than in the city, probably on account of the neglect of vaccination. Influenza is also more fatal in the country. But heart disease (except angina), Bright's disease and all other kidney diseases, are much more common in the city than in the country. Suicide and murder are much more common in the cities, but deaths by drowning, burning, gunshot wounds, railroad accidents, lightning, and excessive cold are all more common in the country.

ENOUGH WIRE TO SPAN PACIFIC IN AVERAGE TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

Within the four walls of the average telephone central office there are more than five thousand miles of wire. This enormous amount of wire is necessary merely to join together the telephone lines that come into the building. Many of these lines are from local telephones but others are long distance lines that unite the 17,000,000 telephones in the Bell System.

Plan To Build New Hospital

Inadequate Institution To Be Replaced by Modern Structure Within 2 Years

Burlington county is going to have a new county hospital within the next two years to replace the present institution, and "it will be of sufficient size and have ample appointments to take care of all the county's needs for several years to come."

Announcement was made at a meeting of the Women's Board of Managers and the Men's Board of Council at St. Andrews parish building in Mount Holly last week.

There has been talk about building a new hospital for several years, but it has never before been felt that the proper time had arrived for attempting to raise the money. There are now reports that some large contributions have been promised to those who have been more or less forward in the new building movement, but it is not proposed to let a few hand over the funds and not make the people generally understand that it is their duty to provide proper facilities for their sick and injured and have a financial connection with the work.

Every part of Burlington county will be included in the money-raising campaign and everybody is to be made to understand that there is to be no dodging when the time arrives for passing over the money. It is the cash that professional money raisers will go after and it is the cash that they propose to get.

They will make the people know that the hospital they are going to erect is to be their hospital, that it will belong to the people more than it will to the rich, for the greatest interest by those who are in a position to contribute liberally is in the unfortunate who may need hospital attention in the future and will not be financially able to pay for it. The charity side of the work is the big thing that is on the minds of the big men and women.

The question of necessity for a new building does not enter into the matter. It has long ago been demonstrated, in season and out of season, that the present hospital is inadequate and nothing but skillful management is responsible for the fact that the work being done is far in excess of the conveniences provided.

The present building is not looked upon as a credit to Burlington county, because it is ancient and impossible of any better appointments than are now given. For these very good reasons, there is a feeling that no great difficulty will be experienced in raising the money, as there had been a survey of the financial field upon which the burden will fall and the amount mentioned has been fixed as the likely outcome of a drive.

It is too early to even think of definite plans or go into the question of location. Assurance can be given that with the good citizens who are directly interested in the hospital supporting the new building idea no serious mistakes will be made about plans or location. Nothing will be done without most careful investigation and thought, and every contributor to a new hospital will be perfectly satisfied with what is done when the proper time arrives.

IMPROVE FAIR GROUNDS

Klan, New Owners, Making Many Fine Changes to Property
The Burlington County Progressive League, the holding organization of the Ku Klux Klan of the county, is making some fine changes at the old Mount Holly Fair ground property, which it owns. The house that stood at the south west corner of the property for many years has been removed and a new house is being erected along American Legion Highway just beyond the first entrance gate.

This will be occupied by Kluge James R. Bonnet as soon as it is finished and his presence there will enable him to keep in close touch with every activity and development about the grounds.

It is hoped that the League will do some grading at the corner from which the old house was removed and plan for a continuation of the sidewalk on the east side of Main street.

There is a belief that the time is coming when there will be no further use for the trolley track that might be considered an interference with a proper continuation of the sidewalk and it will be well for the owners of the property to consider the future along this line and lay plans accordingly.

COMMUNITY GET-TOGETHER

Medford C. of C. Holds Dinner to Stimulate Civic Enthusiasm

Medford put over one of the best ideas ever developed in the town when it held a community get-together Friday night and had the people interested in the advancement of the town meet on a common ground. The affair was staged by the Chamber of Commerce and it presented as one step toward a greater future for Medford.

The opening number was a dinner served at 6.30 o'clock at the small cost of one dollar a plate. The price was fixed so nobody would have a chance to say that absence was due to high cost. During the serving of the dinner, music was furnished by a snappy orchestra.

The Tomlinsons, Philadelphia honeymooners, boosting the Sesqui-centennial International Exposition on an automobile tour to the Pacific coast, wired on September 21st that they had reached Madeira, California, on their way to San Francisco, having covered 4,800 miles of their 6,000-mile journey.

SAUL-DRYER

Before the pulpit which he has occupied since the church was built, the Rev. Harry L. Saul, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra and Riverton, was married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock by a former college chum.

The church, which made a beautiful setting with its royal decorations, was crowded with members, relatives and friends of the couple as Miss Alice Elizabeth Dyer, beautifully gowned in white, became the bride of the Rev. Mr. Saul. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Venable, of Easton, Maryland.

The bride wore satin, a beautiful veil and carried a bouquet of white rose buds. The best man was Frederick Saul, of Morrisville, Pa., a brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Catherine Suits, of Pottsville, Pa., attired in pink crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of pink rose buds, was matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Anna Last and Miss Eleanor Koch, both of Germantown. They wore yellow and orchid georgette and carried bouquets of pink roses.

The Rev. Harold Redkey, Baltimore, Md., another former classmate, and Herman Saul, of Trenton, a brother of the pastor, were ushers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joseph Paderatz, of Trenton, sister of the Rev. Mr. Saul. The floral display was made up of dahlias, ferns and palms.

Guests were present from Philadelphia, Lansdowne, Trenton, Schuylkill Haven, Norristown, Pa., Haddon Heights, Collingswood, New York.

The nuptials were followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dyer, 725 Garfield avenue, for relatives and intimate friends. Early Saturday evening the happy couple left on their honeymoon and at last report were in Haverburg. They are expected to return early next week and will reside at 323 Garfield avenue.

The pastor has a large circle of friends in the community. He is not only beloved by his church members, but is held in high esteem by all of his town's people. Coming to Palmyra immediately after graduation from Gettysburg Seminary, in the first spring of 1922, Mr. Saul became the first pastor of the newly organized Lutheran Church. He has built up its church roll and it was through his efforts that the church was able to erect its edifice shortly after it was founded.

He takes an active interest in civic affairs and has participated in the work of Post Rodgers, American Legion, where he is post chaplain. His bride is actively interested in the work of the church and is president of the Riverton-Palmyra Y. W. C. A. group.

The Dyer family moved to Palmyra from Philadelphia about a year ago.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

It hardly seems possible! With less than a week passed since the hopes and plans of the Central Baptist Church ran so high in interest and effort, we stand today face to face with death, that final edict from whose judgment there is no appeal.

The Church has lost its leader, yet amid the grief and confusion it is the desire of the members to "carry on."

Last Sunday morning a solemn service of memorial and prayer was held in the Church in charge of the deacons, with the Rev. J. B. Whitton, of Palmyra, as the speaker. Deacon A. J. Brooks expressed the desire that the Church would lose one inch of the progress it has made through the efforts of Pastor Blaser. On behalf of the deacons, Mr. Brooks also expressed the hope that many who Pastor Blaser had been urging to unite with the church would now take that step as a tribute to the pastor's zeal for them.

A special business meeting of the Church was held last evening at the Prayer Meeting.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Esther Dean, superintendent of the primary department, wishes to meet the children for song rehearsal.

Next Sunday the Church will have the Rev. J. Sherman Wallace as the speaker. Dr. Wallace is a resident of Haddonfield and is editor of "Young People's Publications" of the American Baptist Publication Society. He is a big man in the denomination and his message will be helpful.

Do You Like Spiders?

In his early days, you remember, Mark Twain was editor of a Missouri newspaper. A superstitious subscriber wrote him saying that he had found a spider in his paper, and asking whether it was a sign of good luck or bad. The humorist replied:

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin a web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards."

Freeholders Will Consider County Vocational Schools

After Hearing Committee From County's Industries, Resolution
Is Passed to Ask For Survey By State Department

The most important subject that has come before the Burlington County Board of Freeholders in many a year was presented by a committee on Vocational Schools composed of George G. Neidich, the Neidich Process Company; Harry Reilinger, United States Cast Iron Pipe Company; John B. Lindsay, Public Service; and Louis J. Kaser, County Superintendent of Schools, at the meeting of the board last Friday.

Mr. Neidich was spokesman of the committee. He briefly traced the history of the movement for vocational schools in Burlington county which has the backing of such industries as the United States Cast Iron Pipe and Foundry Co., the Neidich Process Company, Harry Reilinger, United States Cast Iron Pipe Company, John B. Lindsay, Public Service, and Louis J. Kaser, County Superintendent of Schools, at the meeting of the board last Friday.

1185, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners; Burlington Kiwanis Club and many individual members of the Burlington Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Neidich said that the industries wanted trained men, and the schools wanted some means of training children who did not progress satisfactorily along academic lines. The vocational school, Mr. Neidich said, met both needs, and gave some statistics showing the results of 5000 questionnaires sent out in the county to ascertain whether or not there was any considerable interest in the county at large. The result was overwhelmingly in favor of establishing such schools.

The apparent demand being ascertained, the next step was to ask the Board of Freeholders to request the State Department of Education to make a survey to see whether or not vocational schools should be established, and a resolution to this effect, introduced by Freeholder Lippincott, was unanimously passed.

In speaking to the resolution, before the vote was called, Mr. Neidich, in answer to a question, stated the present needs, as suggested by his committee, were an agricultural course, which would require a trained instructor, but very little equipment; a domestic science course, with trained instructor and using the equipment already in the county; courses in wood-working, machine work, and electrical work with fully equipped shops, the cost of which would be about $25,000 to the county after deducting State and Federal aid.

Mr. Kaser suggested, however, that it might be advisable to inaugurate all these courses at first in which case the cost to get under way would be less.

Mr. Neidich further explained that the courses named were merely suggestions of the committee based on the replies received to the questionnaires sent out. In order to get the school started, he said, it would be necessary to have the State Department of Education decide whether or not it was needed, then to appoint a county board of education and a board of estimates, the latter being composed of the director of the Board of Freeholders, two other members of the board, and two members of the vocational school board.

State and Federal Aid

Freeholder Stout asked what proportion of the expense would be paid by the State and Mr. Neidich replied that the State gives dollar for dollar up to $10,000, and that there was also some Federal aid which would depend somewhat on the character of instruction given. In agriculture, he said, the Federal government would pay one-half. In other lines it is somewhat less and applies only to salaries of teachers, probably amounting in Burlington County's case to $3000 to $1000.

In answer to a question by Mr. Lippincott, Mr. Neidich said the Board of Freeholders was not in any way obligating itself to go on with the project by asking the State Department of Education to make a survey. In the event of the school being established, he said, the money would be raised by general taxation. The erection of but one building was contemplated in the present tentative plans.

Speaking of the need of a vocational school, Mr. Kaser said that 65 per cent. of the grade pupils enter high school. Of these 37 per cent. finish high school. Of this 37 per cent. but two finish college, and only one of the two have successful or professional careers. The great falling off of pupils after they enter high school, he said, was due to the fact that many of the subjects taught in high schools do not meet the needs of the pupils. It is a great mistake, Mr. Kaser said, to shape the whole school curriculum on the assumption that the pupils will enter college.

Freeholder Lippincott said that this was the most encouraging session he had ever sat in, and was glad to hear the county superintendent admit that high schools are not meeting present-day requirements. He said he heartily believed in the principle of vocational schools, and that their establishment in Burlington county was merely a matter of time and method.

Mr. Neidich said vocational schools take children at 14 years of age, and since the compulsory education act requires them to go to school until they are 16 years old, this would give them two years of training along lines of their capacity and ability.

Russ Opposed

Freeholder Howard Russ was of the opinion that the high schools should put in these courses, instead of having them taught in a school separate and apart. Mr. Russ contended that it would always be necessary to have hewers of wood and drawers of water, and that it was to become trained and skilled and entitled to higher wages, there would be no one left to do the common labor. He did not approve, he said, of the county going into the business of training mechanics. Such a movement had been attempted in Beverly city twenty years ago, but it did not "go over."

Mr. Lindsay, representing the Public Service, said it had been his business for the last twenty years to handle skilled labor. He had under him 1500 to 2500 technical engineers, 80 per cent. of whom had failed in the work they had been educated for in the schools. He said the Public Service gets its best men from those who do not get through high school. He believed that 70 per cent. of the pupils in the schools today would take advantage of the practical things taught in a vocational school, particularly if open in the evenings. In the last few years he had sent sixteen men from Burlington county to the Dressel training school. Mr. Lindsay said that 95 per cent. of a recent graduating class had expressed a preference for clerical positions, while it is a known fact that one good stenographer or book-keeper can take care of the clerical work connected with the labor of ten workmen. He wanted the boys and girls to have an opportunity to decide on their vocation while they were still young enough to train for it, and then have an opportunity to prepare for the chosen work.

Train For Best Jobs

Freeholder Stout pointed out that many important positions in industry were held by foreigners who had in their youth been trained in some of the European countries, and said we should prepare our own boys and girls to fill these better jobs.

Freeholder Wright said that any man who employed labor could very readily appreciate the difference between trained and untrained men, and wanted to go on record as being in favor of establishing vocational schools.

Harry Reilinger, representing the U. S. C. I. P. Co., said that he employed 700 men, less than 125 of whom were trained. More than 100 of these men had tried to enter the foundry trade, but he had been obliged to turn them down because the boys were under 15 years of age.

Freeholder Charles R. Stout said he would like to see a vocational school that a resolution to establish vocational schools was being considered by the Board of Freeholders, and set a time and place where the pros and cons could be publicly discussed. Mr. Neidich explained that a public hearing of this sort was usually a part of the survey made by the State Department of Education.

Judge Slaughter appeared before the Board to ask for some filing cabinets and was told that such cabinets as he required were already available and would be turned over to him. He also asked for half of the vault in the old clerk's office for his office, and wanted the office at the left of the entrance converted into a room for the probation officer, and another room where visiting attorneys could consult with their clients. His requests were referred to the department of public buildings.

Liquor For Hospitals

The Judge said that the disposition of the liquor confiscated in the recent raid, which was the biggest ever made in the county, would have to be handled in a large way, which he believed the county officials would do. He said the Governor had indicated that it might be sent to the hospitals, and, said the Judge, "if anyone comes around and asks any member of the board how they can get some of it, just tell them to go to the hospital and get into bed and wait their turn."

The department of bridge and the county engineer reported that the bridge on the Wrightstown road had been barricaded and marked unsafe for travel, as directed at a previous meeting, but that the barricade had been torn down and use of the bridge resumed. Since there seemed to be no probability of getting aid from the War Department, and as the maintenance of the bridge was a public necessity, the department had ordered it rebuilt at a cost of $390. As this expense was not anticipated when the budget was made up, the director of bridge work asked that an emergency appropriation not be issued to cover the cost. The report was accepted and the request complied with.

Engineer Smith reported that the Department of Institutions and Agencies needed a tractor for some road work, and had asked if the county would rent it tractor for $350 a month, the Department of I. and A. to assume responsibility and pay maintenance costs. Referred to the department of roads with power to act.

County Will Rebuild Bridge

The county engineer further reported that no action had been taken by the Public Service toward bearing its half of the cost of rebuilding the Delanco drawbridge. He said that bids for the cost of this work had been received on the 28th of August and sent to the Public Service, but nothing had been done. When he tried to bring the matter to a head he had been passed from one to another official in the Public Service. The price of lumber and steel had advanced since the bids were received, and the contractor who was the lowest bidder had said he would have to withdraw his quotation unless it was accepted soon. The solicitor and engineer were instructed to "give the Public Service another crack."

The State Department of Forestry sent a communication asking the Board of Freeholders to appoint a county tree commission with a view to planting trees along the highways. Action was deferred until the next meeting to give the members time to look into the matter.

The next meeting of the State Freeholders' Association will be held at Four Mile Corner, October 18, as guests of Burdett G. Lewis, Commissioner of Institutions and Agencies.

Howard G. Taylor, member of the Cinnaminson Township Committee, appeared before the board to urge the acceptance by the county of the mile and a half of township road between the Chester township line and Five Points, where it connects with the State Highway and the road leading to the "Tacony-Palmyra" ferry. He said he had checked in his pocket for $500 which the township had offered to contribute toward the maintenance of the road. After some discussion Director of Bridges Wright made a counter proposition that if Cinnaminson township would pay half the cost the county would take over the road and lay a permanent type of paving. This proposition was agreeable to the road department and Mr. Taylor said he would submit the matter to the township committee at its next meeting.

The following bills were ordered paid: Roads, $18,976.04; bridges, $1,082.73; public buildings, $5,380.52; public affairs, $2,083.20; finance, $2,210.61.

Additional bills were ordered paid

P. H. S. Football Team Wins 51-0

Paulsboro Eleven Defeated in Opening Game by Lopsided Score

Palmyra High opened its home schedule Monday, by defeating Paulsboro in the time of 51-0. Paulsboro High defeated Haddon Heights High last week and they journeyed to Palmyra with championship hopes, but went away with bursted air tires.

Although the score was somewhat one sided the game was somewhat of a thriller. The first touchdown of the day was made by Captain Wagner, who played a fine brand of ball throughout the first half. The high scorer of the day was "Hooke" Mathers who carried the pigskin across the goal line four times. Bucher, the snappy quarter-back, and Bright, who was substituted for Wagner, also rushed the ball for touchdowns.

Palmyra had an offense that would not be stopped. The backfield composed of Captain Wagner, "Hooke" Mathers, Bucher and Atkinson worked like a clock; their interference was excellent and they walked through the line and skirted the ends at will.

The line, composed of Jenkins, center; Hengert and Gillman, guards; Hartley and Pountain, tackles; Hutchins and Goldy, ends, held their opponents at their mercy. They broke up most of the plays before they hit the line of scrimmage and several times the man with the ball was tackled before he could get started.

Paulsboro tried back after back, but found the Palmyra line like a stone wall. Both teams tried aerial attacks but with little success. In the second half many substitutes were made and many of these fellows showed real form.

There was no outstanding star; the victory was due to the eleven men working as one.

Coach Morse was rather pleased with the game, but he expects better results in the rest of the games.

for Paulsboro does not compare with some of the teams on Palmyra's schedule and he has a bag full of tricks to unwork on his strongest rivals. The game was well supported by both the students and the townspeople.

Substitutes—Reeves for Jenkins; Bright for Atkinson; Mueller for Bucher; Dugan for Bright; Myers for Atkinson; McKnight for Goldy; Albright for McKnight; Lytle for Hengert; Johnson for Hartley; McCormell for Lytle; Brecker for Gillman.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The first fall meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening was well attended.

The county secretary, Miss Summers, and Miss Hoff, the secretary of the Girl Reserves, were present. Miss Summers' talk on "Club Activities" gave a host of alluring suggestions for our year's program. The president of the club was surprised by a shower of pretty and useful gifts from members of the "Y" who wish her all happiness in her new home.

The meeting closed with a short choral rehearsal with Mrs. Collins. The "Y" is to devote two weeks to sewing for the Needlework Guild. Mrs. Parnell, president of the local branch of the Needlework Guild, gave a pleasing talk on the work of the organization.

Every member should be present at the next meeting, October 20, and bring an interested friend to join the sewing party.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 27, at 2 o'clock an address will be given at the Porch Club by Judge Wells on the subject of the coming election. An invitation is extended to the "Y" to hear him.

Palmyra Chamber Has Fine Meeting

Mayor Weart Gives Glowing Account of Many Borough Improvements

The Palmyra Chamber of Commerce held an enthusiastic meeting Tuesday evening.

Mayor James T. Weart was the chief speaker of the evening. He told of the many municipal improvements which had been under way during the summer and fall. These included storm sewers, sanitary sewers, and much street work.

Many of these improvements will bring additional revenue to the town as they will pave the way for the building of new homes in the new Warner and Secher extensions.

No further expenditures are contemplated for this year, said the Mayor, as it is hoped to avoid any increase in taxes, but next year several important matters will be undertaken.

Among these are the opening of the south side of Broad street from Clamond to the new Warner and Secher extensions.

The opening of a new street from Broad street to the new school building. Both of these improvements will do wonders toward developing the town.

Post-Roads extended an invitation to the Chamber to hold its meeting in the Post rooms in the future free of charge and this offer was gratefully accepted by the Chamber. The Post is to be complimented for its display of splendid civic spirit.

Regarding the plans for this year's Halloween celebration, the Chamber offered its help and cooperation to the regular citizens' committee which has already begun to formulate plans for the event. The Chamber's committee is:

Thomas McCrosson, E. F. Patterson, Mayor Weart, Charles Davidson and Frank Chambers.

Mr. Davidson called attention to the deplorable condition of the River Road at the Delair Bridge, which has been a menace to traffic for years. All the rest of the road is nicely asphalted, but for half a square at this point it is utterly neglected and its condition has been responsible for many damages and accidents to automobiles.

At the suggestion of Mr. Davidson, the Chamber will invite the cooperation of the Riverton Chamber and the Riverside and Burlington Kiwanis Clubs to bring pressure to bear upon the proper authorities to have the condition remedied.

Councilman Edwin Lees gave a talk in which he praised Mayor Weart and other Councilmen highly for their cooperation with the town's work.

Nowhere in south Jersey, said Mr. Lees, is there a council which is more united and active for the welfare of its town. Despite the fact that there are democrats and republicans, Evans, Enders and Weart, on the Council, all cooperate without the slightest friction, giving wonderful service to the borough.

The Chamber heartily agreed with this praise of Palmyra's Borough Council.

A Well-Earned Rest

"Fellow citizens," said the candidate, "I have fought against the Indians. I have often had no bed but the battle-field and no canopy but the sky. I have marched over the frozen ground till every step has been marked with blood."

His story took well till a dried-up looking voter came to the front.

"I'll say you've done enough for your country. Go home and rest. I'll vote for the other fellow."—The Continental.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT DELANCO CURVE

Speeding Pennsylvania Machine Smashed up at Treacherous Point

A colored party, traveling in two machines, narrowly escaped serious injuries when the car in the lead ran into a tree at the bad curve at Burlington and Willow streets, Delanco, three o'clock Tuesday morning. Both autos were speeding and the second car barely missed the smashed up machine and had to jump the curb and run over a lawn to avoid a double accident.

The passengers, five young men and a girl, had attended a party at Plaza Park, Burlington, and were hurrying to their homes in Pennsylvania when the accident occurred. Being unfamiliar with the road, the drivers did not slacken their speed in Delanco and the accident at the sharp curve was unavoidable.

Clarence Shippen, of 2221 Lombard street, Philadelphia, driver of the car in the lead, was arrested by Chief of Police George Hahner, of Delanco. Elwood Tingle, of 142 Simpson Road, Ardmore, Montgomery County, Pa., the other driver, quickly drove away shortly after the accident occurred.

When Chief Hahner discovered Tingle's escape, he notified the Palmyra police and Officer Rodgers picked the party up at the Tacony-Palmyra Ferry. Tingle claimed he did not think he would be needed, and being anxious to return home, had left the scene of the accident when he found no one had been seriously injured.

Both drivers were tried before Justice of the Peace Elmer E. Shane, of Delanco, who fined them $10 and costs, each, on reckless driving charges. Justice Shane says an examination in court exonerated them of any suspicion of intoxication.

KING INSPECTS FORDS

"Wonderful," Says George After Spending Half Hour at Exhibit

When King George and Queen Mary visited the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley recently the official time card prepared by the King's advisors permitted a five minutes' stay at the Ford Motor Company's exhibit, but when the royal couple reached the exhibit they became so interested that they remained for half an hour.

Each asked eager questions and manifested deep interest both in manufacturing methods and demonstrations of Ford car quality. An assembly line, similar to the one which drew so much attention in New York during the Automobile show season last January, particularly attracted their majesties.

"Wonderful," exclaimed the King as a completed car was driven off the end of the line and skillfully turned around in the narrow space available.

Both the King and Queen asked numerous questions about the welfare of the employees. Working conditions of the men and their living conditions and wages were of particular interest to the Queen, as was the incident of a laborer who started in the Ford plant at Manchester at the minimum wage and rose to a salary of $5,000 a year.

Sighting the 250,000th British made Ford car, which was on display, King George was prompted to inquire the yearly production figures in England. He was informed that 40,000 Ford cars are made in England annually by British workmen.

"No wonder the roads are so crowded," was his Royal observation.

ENGLISH

The English Language
 The language which we now use and is so familiar to us took many years to be shaped into the form we now know it in.
 The development of our language is divided into three periods: Anglo-Saxon, Middle English, and Modern English.
 In 449 the language in England was decided by the Anglo-Saxons coming in and ruling England. These people found a race whose dialect was Celtic. A few words of these people were added to the vocabulary of the Saxons. A man, Saint Augustine, came to convert the people to Christianity, thus the Latin language was added to the Anglo-Saxon vocabulary.
 Another thing that changed and added to the language was the conquest of the Normans. It was in this way that the language grew. Based on the Anglo-Saxons' language the different countries added to it here and changed it there as they conquered these people.
 Though Modern English is based on our language it was very different from ours. Their grammar was very much more complicated. Often simple words come from the Saxons while the more ornamental words that give grace and variety come from the Celts, Romans, Normans and Italians.
 The English language is a combination of foreign and native, and we ourselves have added to it modern elements which accounts for its variety and wealth.

A History of the English Language
 The English language did not come originally from the Britons, but is a mixture of European language. The English language belongs to the Teutonic branch of the Indo-European family. It is customary to divide the development of our language into three periods. The Anglo-Saxon period dating from 449 A. D. to 1066 A. D. Middle English period 1066 to 1500, and Modern English which dates from 1500 to the present time.
 The year of 449 A. D. marks the invasion of the island by the Angles, Saxons, and Jutes, which were tribes from Northern Germany. The Angles were the most powerful, so they took control of the island and called their conquered land Angeland which was later changed to England. These invaders found in Britain a race that spoke the Celtic dialect. The Celtic people offer one hundred and fifty years of hard fighting were driven to Scotland and Wales. The conqueror's speech to which the name of Anglo-Saxon is usually given is the foundation of our language.

 During the centuries before the Norman Conquest, which closes the early period, many one syllable words were taken from the Celtic language such as goat, dog, cat, basket and sat.
 In the sixth century A. D. Saint Augustine came from Rome to convert the people to Roman Christianity, so many Latin words were adopted as a result. A few of these words are altar, mass, psalm, circus, stupor, and example.
 The Danish Conquest of the island was the next important influence through which a considerable Scandinavian element was added to our language.
 The Middle English period began with the conquest of England by the Duke of Normandy, who broke the power of Harold the last of the Saxon Kings. For two centuries after that time French was spoken in the English Courts, but English remained the language of the Britons. The invasion accounts for the French words in our language.
 With the opening of the sixteenth century or the period of the "Renaissance," came the development of modern English. Italian, Greek and Spanish words were adopted as the people began to travel and learn.

GEOGRAPHY

Are the United States and the British Isles Dependent Upon One Another?
 The name United States means a union of States, united after the conflict of the Revolutionary War. The name British Isles in its Latin form "Britannia Major," is an old one used to distinguish the dimly visible island across the channel from Brittany or Britannia Minor, in France.
 Great Britain has many mountains and has a great supply of coal. She also has many rubber trees on possessions. The coast is rugged, which makes shipbuilding easy.
 The United States and British Isles hold about one-third of the area of the globe. More than one-half of the world's business is done by these two commonwealths. A large part of their wealth comes from their control of the world's resources in livestock, fish, rice, wheat, oats, coal, iron, oil, rubber, wool, and eighty per cent of the world's cotton and corn, and one-third of the world's supply.
 The railroads are the island's chief means of transportation. Great Britain has the honor of having possessed the first railway of any importance, which was opened in 1825 and ran from Liverpool to Manchester. Railroads increased rapidly and today the island has over twenty thousand miles of track.
 The United States and British Isles produced ninety-one per cent of the motor vehicles. Indeed, last year the United States and the British Isles manufactured ninety-eight per cent of the world's output of motor vehicles.
 The position of these two countries in the textile trade is shown by the location of the world's cotton spindles within their borders.
 Their means for rapid business communication are indicated by the world's telephones. No wonder that the total annual exports of the British Empire and the United States have passed eleven and one half billion dollars. It is easily accounted for by the possession of such vast supplies of foodstuffs, raw materials, and by the large development of modern means for quick and certain communication and transportation.
 Business depends upon the supply of raw materials, the power for manufacturing, and the means for carrying the finished products to market. United States imports foodstuffs to Great Britain.
 The above facts prove to us that the United States and British Isles are the greatest part of traders in the world and depend upon each other.

HYGIENE

My Home
 My home is pleasant and healthful. It is pleasant because it is full of sunshine. It has proper drainage because it is built on high land. The trees around my home are high which gives us air and sun as well as shade. My home has plenty of windows which let in sunshine and fresh air. I should be a happy and cheerful little girl in such a home.

Moving Pictures at School
 Friday evening was enjoyed very much by the majority of the school children when a moving picture program was held in the school auditorium.
 These movies will be furnished if possible, every month.
 The program was as follows:
 (1) Travelogue: "Yellow Stone Park."
 (2) Aesop film Fable.
 (3) Gang Comedy.
 (4) A feature picture.
 The entertainment was obtained through the Parent-Teacher Association.

The Sixth and eighth Grades are 100% members of the Junior Red Cross for the new school year.
 Other grades may have the same membership but they have not been reported.

A Moving Picture Show Held at Riverton School
 The first of the series of moving picture shows to be held monthly in the auditorium of the Riverton School was held last Friday night October the ninth. The show started at eight o'clock promptly. The attendance was very large almost filling the good sized auditorium of the school.
 The show consisted of an Aesop Fable which was greatly enjoyed and an "Our Gang" comedy that sent the whole audience into laughter. In between these two comedies were two travel pictures one of which showed the geysers of Yellowstone Park and the other one which showed the sights of the Valley of Yosemite. The last picture was a drama called "His Own Law." All of these pictures were shown very clearly.
 The Parent-Teacher Association is giving this series of pictures, and I am sure the school children are grateful for them.

The Minutes of the Eighth Grade Civics Club From First Meeting
 The regular meeting of the Eighth Grade Civics Club was held on Wednesday, September 24, 1925.

Quite a discussion came up as to whether the Seventh Grade should join our Civics Club, but when it came to a vote the majority were in favor of having an independent club and call it the "Civics Club of the Eighth Grade."
 It was voted that the club has a constitution of its own based on the one in the "Everyday Civics" book. The committee appointed to write the Constitution were:
 (1) Charles Sullivan, Chairman.
 (2) Doris Clark.
 (3) Lenore Showell.
 (4) Vincent Hackett.
 (5) Henry Seabrook.
 The slogan adopted is "S. V. C. C." "Serve Your Civics Club."
 The meeting was adjourned and the class handed over to Miss Stamen.

SCHOOL NEWS

Last year the sixth Grade studied about countries of Europe.
 Several members of our class had friends living in Europe. The class wrote a letter and mailed copies of this to these friends. During the summer we received answer to two of our letters. We are hoping to receive answers to the other letters as these make our work more interesting.

A TREAT FOR RIVERTON

The Parent-Teacher Association holds its annual reception for the school teachers on Thursday evening, October 22, at 8 p. m. and offers a real treat for those who attend.

Dr. Forrest Dager, the well known lecturer, will be the speaker of the evening. Anyone who has heard Dr. Dager needs no further inducement to come out on the 22nd.
 The opportunity to meet the teachers who play such an important part in the upbringing of our children is one which should not be overlooked.
 And when it is coupled with an evening of entertainment of such merit as Dr. Dager's lecture is bound to be, the association is justified in expecting a banner crowd.
 Remember the date, October 22nd.

Government may be as dangerous to liberty as they were felt to be by the fathers of this republic and they are never more dangerous than when they set themselves to doing things "for the people" which the people should do for themselves.—Indianaapolis News.

Organize Realty Finance Company

New Investment Concern Is Formed by Realtor Edgar A. Lamon

A new real estate corporation has been formed in Palmyra.

It will be known as Lamon Investments, Incorporated, or by some other appropriate title to be chosen by the Board of Directors.

The stock subscription books of the new concern were opened by Realtor Edgar A. Lamon last Saturday evening at 6:30 and by ten o'clock Monday morning $65,000 of the $120,000 to be paid in was subscribed.

The purpose of the new corporation will be to buy and sell real estate, provide mortgages and general financing. It will have an authorized capital stock of $250,000, of which $120,000 will be paid in and the remainder held in reserve.

All the stockholders will participate in the profits of the corporation. The registered home office of the corporation will be at 15 East Broad street, now the office of George N. Wimer. This office will be remodelled and newly outfitted for the new concern.

The directors are expected to be George N. Wimer, chairman; James T. Weart, W. T. J. Purnell, W. Rex McCrosson, Walter D. Lamon, A. Harry Ridduck, George D. Steadle, Edwin A. Griscom, Thomas R. Bromley and Edgar A. Lamon. The subscription books will be closed this Saturday night, or earlier.

According to present plans the holdings of the new company will be sold through the brokerage office of the Palmyra-Riverton Realty Company which has developed an active staff of experienced real estate salesmen and officers. The officers are George N. Wimer, president; Edgar A. Lamon, vice-president; A. Harry Ridduck, secretary; and Edwin A. Griscom, treasurer. The salesmen are Thomas R. Bromley, Howard P. Schuyler, Leon

Guest, Walter D. Lamon and Frank Chambers.

The gross sales of Realtor Eddie Lamon, whose meteoric success has been the sensation of local real estate circles, has now passed the three million mark since last March and each week he is adding new deals involving hundreds of thousands.

All of Mr. Lamon's operations are maintained on a solid well-financed basis. Settlements on past deals are taking place without interruption.

Through Lamon's aggressiveness and foresight the Palmyra-Riverton Moorestown district has been placed on a par with the great development section along the White Horse Pike.

WINTER MILEAGE IS WORTH MOST

Trusty Car Gives Bigger Measure of Value in Cold, Stormy Weather

"The longest miles that people go are those on wet and wintry days," says Frederick E. Rehn, of Itin Motor Company, Riverside. "And that makes it true that your trusty car gives you a bigger measure of value in the winter than at any other season."

"The man who drives doesn't care a lot whether it's raining, snowing, blowing, or freezing. He just gets into his car and goes to office, theatre, or social affairs without regard for the weather, or the distance, or the time."

"And it's a lot more fun to look through the windows of sedan or coupe than to expose yourself to the mercy of the elements, whether you're going only a few blocks or to the other end of town."

The Perfect Defense
"The traffic officer says you were going forty miles an hour," the judge told the fair prisoner.
"Yes, sir," she admitted. "but you see, I was to meet my husband in five minutes, and I didn't want to keep him waiting."

The judge, being a married man, discharged her. Brooklyn Eagle.

TWO HURT IN BURLINGTON GAME

Lots of Excitement, With Threatening Colored Boys, Attends Moorestown High Battle

Two players were hurt and there was all kinds of excitement at the football game when the Wilbur Watts High School of Burlington defeated Moorestown High, 22-13 at Burlington Friday afternoon.

One of the hurt players was named Faxon, a member of the Moorestown team, who was taken to the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, but recovered and was discharged immediately on reaching that institution.

The other injured man, also a member of the Moorestown team, is said to have been taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden. He is Baylor, the Quaker town's colored streak.

A number of Moorestown Negroes followed their champion to Burlington. While there, it is said, they became quarrelsome and several fights were started. One of the Moorestown Negroes, it is alleged, displayed a razor, and threatened those about him.

All-the-year sessions are proposed for the high schools of Omaha, Neb., following the successful experience of the technical high school with the four-quarter plan. This school has been operating 48 weeks a year for 17 years, and the plan has proved very satisfactory. A 4-year class is graduated at the end of each 12-week quarter. Bright and energetic pupils may complete the entire course in three years. The other three high schools have already adopted an 8-week summer session.—School Life.

Practical experience in book keeping is a part of the curriculum in a number of rural schools in the Province of Ontario. In 16 schools in Wentworth County bees are kept in observation hives in the school room. The study involves little extra work on the part of the teacher, and is valuable as a nature contact and in contributing to the promotion of a great productive industry. The sale of honey in many of the schools has been more than sufficient to cover in one season the expense of installation and upkeep.

Whitney Backed By Doremus

Republican Ranks Closed With Primaries in June Says Judge

Former Judge Cornelius Doremus, president of the Ridgewood Republican Club, and standard bearer of the Doremus State League, Thursday night of last week welcomed Senator Arthur Whitney, the Republican candidate for Governor, at a rousing mass meeting in the Ridgewood Play House. Prior to the rally, which attracted the Republican men and women and only from Ridgewood but also from the adjoining towns, Senator and Mrs. Whitney were dinner guests at the home of former Judge Doremus and Mrs. Doremus.

At 5 p. m. Senator Whitney addressed a rally gotten up by former Judge John Zabriskie at Wyckoff. The Senator also spoke in Cliffside, Closter and Tenafly prior to the Ridgewood meeting.

While the Ridgewood rally was gotten up by the Ridgewood Republican Club, the Doremus State League heartily cooperated. The president of that League, William J. Tonkin, had a seat on the platform.

In opening the enthusiastic mass meeting in the Ridgewood Play House former Judge Doremus, who was the home dry candidate for the Republican nomination against Senator Whitney at last June's primaries, said:

"It is with more than ordinary pleasure that I welcome Senator Whitney tonight as the standard bearer of the Republican party in the gubernatorial campaign for the governorship of New Jersey. The Republican ranks closed when the primaries ended last June, and I feel sure that a united party is now behind Senator Whitney. Republican factionalism ended when the polls closed on primary day. It is now the duty of every true Republican to support the man who is so courageously making the fight on a platform that stands for real economy, opposition to Haegeism and genuine law enforcement."

"A man with the legislative record that Senator Whitney has in his favor stands eminently qualified for the high position of governor. If ever there was a time when President Coolidge was deserving of a vote of confidence in New Jersey, that time is the present. A vote for Whitney is a vote for the maintenance of the Coolidge policies."

"Let none of our wet friends mistake the trend of the times. The beer and light wine cry that our opponents are trying to take us down from the top of the mountain. But we will not be swayed by the cry of the disaffected. The Republican party will remain a dry and sober party and New Jersey will maintain its stand in favor of law enforcement."

Former Judge Doremus went on to urge hearty support for the Republican County ticket in Bergen County. On this point Mr. Doremus said:

"In rallying for Senator Whitney we cannot afford to overlook the splendid County ticket that the Republicans have offered to the voters. We have the privilege of supporting the County candidates in exceptional ability and merit. Senator Mackay whose re-election to the Senate by an overwhelming majority is assured stands high in the list of real statesmen. His work in support of the Hudson River Bridge project is sufficient in itself to entitle him to the support of every man and woman in Bergen County regardless of politics."

"We need constructive statesmanship of the high order exemplified by Senator Mackay. It is with men like him as our leaders that Bergen county has steadily advanced in commercial, industrial and political importance. I trust that the only Senator Mackay but all his associates on the Assembly, Freehold, Sheriff and County Clerk ticket will be enthusiastically supported on Election Day."

POST FINCHES
Weekly Games Renewed—Grand Rally Planned for Next Meeting Night

Post Frederick M. Rodgers Finches Tournament which held an allurement for many during the spring months will be resumed in the Post Rooms this Friday evening.

The ever increasing attendance in the past is evidence of the enjoyment of these gatherings and, wishing to "mark time," Harry Fox, chairman of the committee, is striving to make each affair even more interesting. The social prize will be offered and refreshments will be served.

Although the tournament is in progress, the public is still invited to participate. Those desiring to enter the tournament can share in an evening at cards with all the facilities and will be amply repaid for their presence.

They are off, boys! Harry Schaffer, of Palmyra, and Clarence Carter, of Riverton, leading. But who is going to finish? Close out and see.

The next meeting of the Post which will be held Wednesday evening, November 4th, owing to election falling on Tuesday evening, will be in the nature of a Rally Night. Commander McCrosson has extended invitations to the various Posts throughout the county, and as an additional attraction, the invited guests will be Frankford Post. This Post will bring its celebrated Drum and Bugle Corps composed of sixty members.

Anticipating a large attendance, P. O. S. of A. Hall has been secured for the evening and it is hoped that a 100% attendance of the local Post will be in evidence together with all their families and friends and also one who may be in the Post Rooms.

So on this date down in your diary and "Let's Make It a Big Night."

STROHLIN—CRAMER

Miss Ethel Parker Cramer and Adolph Joseph Strohlein were married with low nuptial mass at the Sacred Heart Church, Riverton, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with the rector, the Rev. John A. Rigney, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florence R. Cramer, of Lecony Avenue, Palmyra. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Strohlein, of Fulton street, Riverton.

The bride was attired in white satin trimmed with satin beads and embroidery and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Florence C. Cusick, of Camden, as matron of honor. Mrs. Cusick wore powder blue and carried a bouquet of roses.

Miss Edith Yansick, of Riverside, was the bridesmaid and wore a gown of gray over orchid and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Cramer, who gave her daughter away, wore brown satin trimmed with lace. Frank Strohlein, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Mr. Robert Woods rendered a soprano solo, "Ave Maria," and Charles Cusick, tenor, sang, "O Lord I Am Not Worthy." Miss Eleanor Connell, the organist played the wedding march.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony on their honeymoon which will be spent at Washington, D. C. Upon their return, they will reside with Mr. Strohlein's parents until their new home at Seventh and Washington Avenues, Palmyra, is completed. Both have a large circle of friends in Palmyra and Riverton.

"Feather" Says:

The weather man turned a cold shoulder to Riverton's Old Home Day but the warmth of the people who participated more than made up for the chill in the air.

The day started with a parade of the school children of Riverton and Channin township, and it seemed to match the "best ever." The courage of the little ones who paraded in such a high wind, and particularly of the various banner bearers, brought an inspiration to the older ones who stood along the streets to watch. It was an assurance that the coming youth would be able to "carry on" in spite of difficulties.

Following this parade there were athletic events on Main street, and although not all won, yet each one gave their best.

After these events for the children were over, there was a lull in the activities for lunch, and for old friends visiting. Many friends of the friends again met in the registration tent or down at the school, and how good it seemed to visit our old school chums!

The afternoon brought the firemen's parade, with its spirit of friendly rivalry; and the football game and the races. Everybody was having a good time, and largely because they were meeting together.

In the evening the same spirit continued in the large crowd gathered at Memorial Park to watch the display of fireworks, and then grouped at Main and Howard streets for a band concert and dancing. True, the dancing was but little indulged in on account of the extreme chill in the air, but the idea was to have a good time.

The residents and business people of Riverton who worked together for Old Home Day have every reason to be happy over the result of their efforts, and to feel assured that they will put something even better over next time they try.

Wouldn't it be a splendid idea if other towns had old home days, or for some other reason had a gathering that drew the nearby towns. Three or four times a year wouldn't be too often and how friendly all the neighboring towns would become.

New Legion Chief Chosen

John Rea McQuigg, of East Cleveland, Elected National Commander

National Commander John Rea McQuigg, of East Cleveland, Ohio, has assumed the duties of the office to which he was elected at the Seventh Annual National Convention of the American Legion at Omaha, Nebraska, on October 9.

Commander McQuigg was elected on the first ballot. Before the vote was announced, Howard P. Savage, Past Department Commander, of Illinois, who was running against him, moved that the election be made unanimous. This motion was seconded by Edward E. Spafford, of New York, the only other candidate. It carried with a shout.

National vice commanders elected by the convention are: Joseph Y. Cheney, Florida; Raymond B. Littlefield, Rhode Island; Hughes B. Davis, Oklahoma; Vincent A. Carroll, Pennsylvania; and James A. Howell, Utah.

Rev. William Patrick, California, was elected national chaplain.

At the meeting of the National Executive Committee immediately following the convention other national officers were re-elected to their former positions. They are: National adjutant, James F. Barton, Iowa; national treasurer, Robert H. Tyndall, Indiana; national judge advocate, Robert A. Adams, Indiana; and national historian, Eben Putnam, Massachusetts.

Commander McQuigg, a lawyer and banker, was a colonel of engineers in the World War. He landed with his regiment at Breast, France, on July 5, 1918, serving in the tactical sector and in the Argonne. He was wounded in the latter operations. Discharged on January 17, 1919, he was made a brigadier general of infantry in 1921.

Beginning as commander of Engineers' Post of the Legion, Commander McQuigg has served on the National Legislative, National Executive and National Finance Committees and as vice president of the Endowment Fund Corporation.

Continuation of the campaign for the American Legion endowment fund for disabled veterans and orphaned and dependent children of veterans of the World War was directed by resolution of the Convention.

"The endeavor shall not be considered as completed," the convention resolution declared, "until every department has had full opportunity to complete its share and until every community in the United States, and especially those in which there are posts of the American Legion, shall have taken part."

Posts and departments were urged to "put forth their best efforts toward raising their share of the fund and to complete it as promptly as possible."

National Commander John R. McQuigg, in his speech to the convention immediately following his election, pledged that one of the major efforts of his administration will be the completion of the fund. The convention committee on the endowment reported that the sum in the hands of National Treasurer Robert H. Tyndall on September 30 was $3,447,990.23. The committee declared that the record indicated that "there has been no failure in this great campaign at any place, but only relative degree of success."

Representatives of many of the departments still carrying forward the work appeared before your committee and reported the determination of their departments to carry forward even beyond the assigned quota and offered evidence of plans indicating a wholly successful result of the work they have had in hand," the committee said.

"Your committee believes that the work needs only to be pursued with like energy and enthusiasm in areas where it is incomplete to make certain that substantially more than the $5,000,000 originally asked for will be realized for this permanent endowment fund."

President's Speech

The speech made by Calvin Coolidge at the Convention has been hailed by the press of the country as "the most revealing and forceful speech Coolidge ever made."

Among other things President Coolidge said at Omaha of particular interest to Legionnaires was the following statement on the selective service plan sponsored by the Legion.

"Undoubtedly one of the most important provisions in the national defense is a proper and sound selective service act. Such a law ought to give authority for a very broad mobilization of all resources of the country, both persons and materials. I can conceive some difficulties in the application of the principle, for it is the payment of a higher price that stimulates an increased production, but whenever can be done without economic dislocation such limits ought to be established in time of war as would prevent so far as possible all kinds of profiteering."

"There is little defense which can be made of a system which puts some men in the ranks on very small pay and leaves others undisturbed to reap very large profits. The laying of taxes is, of course, in itself a conscription of whatever is necessary of the wealth of the country for national defense, but taxation does not meet the full requirements of the situation. In the advent of war, power should be lodged somewhere for the stabilization of prices as far as that might be possible in justice to the country and its defenders."

Urges Tolerance

Tolerance was urged by President Coolidge as necessary to the future integrity and growth of the United States. He said: "If we are to have harmony and tranquility and union of spirit which is the foundation of real genius and national progress, we must all realize that there are true Americans who did not happen to be born in our section of the country, who do not attend our place of religious worship, who are not of our racial stock, or who are not present in our language."

Among others who addressed the convention were Major General J. A. LeJeune, commandant of the United States marine corps; Admiral Robert E. Coontz, of the United States navy; Judge John Barton Payne, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. O. D. Oliphant, past national president of the Auxiliary; John J. Tigert, commissioner of education; Major General Charles J. Summerall; Governor Adam McMullen, of Nebraska; Frank T. Hines, of the veterans' bureau.

COLLECTION OF ASHES WILL BEGIN MONDAY

Municipal collection of ashes will start in Palmyra next Monday, October 26. It was announced by Councilman Wilmer Handel at the meeting of Borough Council Tuesday evening.

The schedule as outlined by Councilman Handel follows:

Monday—Lincoln avenue to Morgan avenue.

Tuesday—Garfield avenue to Cinnaminson avenue.

Wednesday—Cinnaminson avenue to Pennsauken Creek.

Thursday—Elm avenue to Cinnaminson avenue.

Friday—Locust avenue to Race street.

Saturday—Arch Street to Pennsauken Creek.

The north side of the town is between the railroad and the Delaware River and the south side lies toward Moorestown and Merchantville. This information is given because there have always been some citizens who can't keep the directions in mind. A glance at the pole star in the evening now and then would help.

The ashes must be placed on the curb by seven o'clock on the days of collection. After November 1, there must be taken out of the cellar each week as it will be against the rules to allow them to accumulate. It is requested that the contractors be of reasonable size to facilitate handling.

Rubbish Collection

No rubbish is to be included in the ashes. It is planned to make collections of rubbish at frequent intervals on dates to be announced later.

At the meeting of council Mrs. F. C. Young made a complaint about bicycle riding on the sidewalks, which is prohibited by Borough ordinance. Mrs. Young was thrown against a tree by a bicycle rider in September and is still suffering from the effects of her injuries.

Mayor Weart said that the bicycle ordinance would be enforced again as many riders were taking advantage of the leniency of the authorities. Many other similar complaints have been made and it is said that men as well as boys ride the sidewalks at high speed, ignoring the danger to pedestrians. Many do not carry lights at night.

A Morgan avenue citizen made a complaint against the Washing Machine factory burning sawdust, the smoke from which darkens the paint on houses and settles inside the homes in the vicinity.

Mayor Weart said the company had promised to abate this nuisance, but evidently had not done so. Council plans to prepare an ordinance providing fines to end the smoke trouble. It was also reported that the company plans to move its plant soon, which the neighbors said would be a welcome move.

The pile of lumber along the sidewalk and running heavy trucks over the sidewalk were other practices of this same company complained of.

Six New Dwellings

Building Inspector Powell reported permits for six dwellings worth $30,900, five garages and a number of repairs.

Councilman Wimer, in discussing the removal of limbs blown down by a recent storm, said a tree borer was creating havoc among the shade trees of the town. He has written to the Board of Agriculture for advice on the subject.

Fred W. Seiber asked for a fire plug on his Shaffer tract development. Mayor Weart thought two were needed and referred the matter to the fire committee.

A dispute with the Union Paving Company over payment of its bills for the West Broad Street Paving was satisfactorily adjusted.

An invitation to Council to attend the K. K. K. E. cut presentation at the high school this Saturday evening was accepted.

The contract to build an extension to the storm sewer system to take care of the end of Delaware, Horace and Berkeley avenues was awarded to the Forney Company, lowest bidder, at $5138.

LUTHERAN NEWS

The First Lutheran Church of Palmyra and Riverton will celebrate its fourth anniversary on Sunday, October 25th. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Harry L. Saul, will preach and a special sermon to the kiddies will also be on the program. This is a picture in which the whole community can well be interested, and everyone is most cordially invited to attend at 7:45 p. m.

On Saturday, October 24, a church social is going to be held. Better come and enjoy this period of meeting our fellow members and watching Warren Bealin play "Marching to Jerusalem."

The mid-week service is held every Thursday evening at eight o'clock. We are making a thorough study of St. Paul's letter to the Romans. We are looking for you next Thursday.

MOUNT HOLLY MAN FRIEND OF "BIG SIX"

Dr. Bremer Played College Ball With Late Christy Mathewson at Bucknell

Probably few men knew the late Christy Mathewson, world-famous base ball pitcher, better than Dr. Daniel F. Bremer, of Mount Holly. The two were students at Bucknell College away back in 1899 and both played on the college ball team. In later life "Big Six" and the Mount Holly physician had kept up their intimacy and generally managed to meet at least once a year.

Recently the doctor said: "Mathewson was the finest athlete I have ever known. He was an All-American fullback, but toward the end of his college career, he was afraid of injuring his pitching arm in scrimmage and so was not quite as effective on the football field as he might have been otherwise."

"That Bucknell team turned out some famous athletes in those days. In the year that I remember best, because I played second base on the varsity a portion of the season, there was Christy Mathewson, who first broke into professional base ball when he joined one of the minor league teams in Maine. Later he went to the New York Giants where he made baseball history."

Then there were Walter Blair, catcher, who afterwards was a star on the New York Americans; and

"Red" Davis, a Jerseyman, who played first base on several of the majors and later was well known in semi-professional ball; Mike Doolin, for years a star on the Phillies, playing shortstop; Jimmie Greninger, who covered third, was a fine player, but never entered the professional ranks, and Harry Brown, in left field, also fit to travel in any company; "Yank" McCormick, the New York American's most valuable pinch-hitter in after years, and Jimmy Sebring, who later became famous with Cincinnati.

But of them all Christy Mathewson was the greatest. He was absolutely on the level and an honor to the national game."

Dopester Says Man Shaves 75 Days Shaving 20 Miles During Life

If man had been created without beard he would have been saved quite a bit of trouble, time and expense, says an English writer.

The ear to ear measure on the average man's face is 12½ inches, and from where his beard starts on his throat to his chin and hence to the upper lip is 4½ inches.

This area must be shaved every day if a man wishes to be spruce and clean.

In shaving two strokes are made every inch, so that every day he shaves over about 65 inches of space.

In a year this amounts to 24,820 inches, and in a lifetime it totals 20 miles.

If a man takes five minutes daily to shave himself, at 70 he will have spent a total of 75 days in shaving says the writer.

It is becoming quite a distinction to be killed by anything but an automobile.—Columbus Ohio State Journal.

PUBLIC SERVICE Men and Women

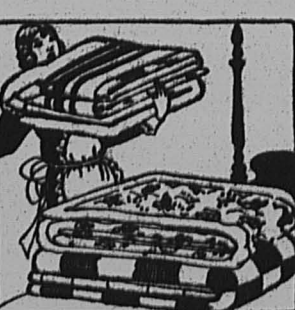

The Armature Winder

To maintain the base schedule of PUBLIC SERVICE Railway Company requires some 1,100 cars. In addition 300 more are in service during the rush hours.

To keep these cars and their equipment in good running order requires a big force of trained mechanics among whom the Armature Winder has an important place.

The armature—an essential part of the motor—has a varying life and on as large a system as that of PUBLIC SERVICE Railway their renewal is a never ending job. Last year more than 1,200 motors were rebuilt.

The Armature Winder is usually a veteran—in the Newark Shops the average term of service of men in this group is more than fifteen years—and he well typifies the small army of men whom street car riders never see but who are essential to good service.

USE PROVED METHOD TO GET SWEET SOIL

Agricultural Experiment Station Finds Old Established Plan Best for Lawn Making

The old established "sweet soil" method of making lawns is best. New methods may in time prove better, but at present it is risky to try them.

Such is the answer of the state experiment station to numerous inquiries regarding the "sour soil" method of lawn management developed in another state and as yet unknown in practical lawnmaking in New Jersey.

The thoroughly tried "sweet soil" method is familiar to many lawn makers. Under average conditions one pound of hydrated lime or pulverized limestone and a quarter to half pound of a complete fertilizer or bonemeal are applied to each ten square feet of lawn. White clover and blue grass are used for seeding. This plan is recommended by the experiment station as especially useful on the lighter soils of the state, where grasses do not thrive as well as clover.

Although not recommended for use at present, the sour soil method may, on further test, prove valuable in New Jersey. By this plan the soil is never limed but is kept sour by the use of ammonium sulfate, together with acid phosphate is necessary. The grass seed mixture does not include white clover, but is made up partially or wholly of bent grasses—some of which at present are scarce and hard to obtain.

The New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station is now conducting experiments in which both methods of lawn management are being tested.

Sequel - Centennial Speaker Will Make Address

Colonel D. C. Collier, Director-General of Philadelphia's Sequel-Centennial Celebration, will visit Burlington on Thursday of next week as the guest of the Chamber of Commerce, at which time he will address the First Fall Forum meeting of that organization at the Masonic Hall, West Union Street.

News of Colonel Collier's acceptance of the Chamber's invitation came as a surprise. The Forum Committee, which has charge of the meeting, has already secured the services of one widely known speaker, Howard Strong, of the Philadelphia Regional Plan Committee. Mr. Strong has been in Burlington on several former occasions and is widely known throughout this locality. He will sound the key note of the meeting with his address on "Burlington's Position in a Developing Territory."

Colonel Collier will be accompanied by Assistant Secretary Summerfield of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting will start at 6.30 p. m. and will be served by the Young Women's Christian Association. It is being arranged by the Forum Committee consisting of Harold V. Holmes, chairman; Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, Mrs. R. G. Dunn, Miss C. H. Haines, Mrs. E. R. Miller, and Messrs. F. L. Cherry, W. C. Jones, C. H. Frickitt, Wm. E. Shull, V. H. Smith, E. R. Sparks, and H. Zelle.

STATE CLUB ANIMALS WIN ALL IN BIG SHOW

Burlington County Contestants Figure Prominently in Affair At Indianapolis

New Jersey Agricultural club boys and girls made a clean sweep on October 13, at the National Dairy Show, Indianapolis, Ind., for the best herds of Holstein, Guernsey, and Jersey dairy cattle. First place was won with each of these breeds by the New Jersey youngsters.

Each herd was composed of five animals and had to meet the competition of entries from all parts of the United States. All animals shown were raised entirely by the boys and girls trained in dairy club work by the New Jersey Extension Service.

Included among the winners were Ruth Lippincott, Donald Polanski and Harold Bowne, of Burlington county.

A 12 months' public school session in Arlington County has been authorized by the Virginia State Board of Education. It is an experiment which may be the beginning of an all-year-round school policy in Virginia.

Court of Honor For Boy Scouts

Eighty-two Merit Badges Presented to Winners From All Over County

The first Court of Honor of the Burlington County Boy Scouts was held Friday evening, October 18, at the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra and Riverton at which time eighty-two merit badges were presented.

The Court consisted of Richard E. Wilson, chairman; Rev. J. B. Whitton, Mayor James T. Weart, Frank Mathews, James Hartley, Charles Davidson and Frank Snover, of Palmyra; Edward W. G. Borer and George Steedle, of Riverton.

The Court was opened by the call to assembly by the bugles at which time the Scouts marched in, headed by their colors and the members of the Court took their places. As bugles played the call to Colors all joined in the salute to the flag after which the Scout Oath was repeated and all present repeated the oath of allegiance.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Rev. J. B. Whitton after which Mr. Wilson made an address in which he told those present the purpose and significance of the Merit Badges. He said in part that the seventy-three merit badges that a scout could obtain represented a training in the fundamental principles of every trade, vocation or profession. He pointed out that the knowledge of these principles caused a boy to be admirably fitted for the emergencies of life.

After the distribution of merit badges His Honor the Mayor spoke on "Good Citizenship." The Mayor told us that good citizenship consisted in doing only those things which we know to be right.

James H. Hartley in speaking on "Playing the Game" brought out the fact that we might win a football game by slugging or we might win a race by beating the gun, and we might make believe we were pleased because we won but we would not enjoy the honors as we should. In the "Game of Life" in any other game the man or boy who wins his honors fairly and squarely is the one who realizes the keenest enjoyment.

The Scouts present received two surprises. The first was when Mr. George Steedle (yes, they call him Pat) told them that about fifteen years ago he had belonged to a Scout Troop. He said that he never received any badges because they didn't give them out at that time, but there was one thing that he had learned and had put to use ever since. He then repeated the Scout Law in order and without hesitation.

The Scouts responded with the American cheer and Steedle three times at the end. They now know the secret of Mr. Steedle's success. Any man who knows the Scout Law as practice them cannot be anything but successful.

Rev. J. B. Whitton then sprung the second surprise by announcing that he was the first Scoutmaster in the State of New Jersey, his first troop being at Blackwood. The meeting then closed with the singing of America.

Besides the two Palmyra Troops there were present Troop No. 1 of Riverton, with William Shoemaker, Jr., Scoutmaster; Benjamin F. Halliwell, Scoutmaster of Troop No. 1.

New Jersey State Briefs

The schools of Gloucester county were closed while the teachers assembled at the normal school, Glassboro, for the county institute.

Bridgeton is promised electric current on December 1. Poles have been erected and electricians are working night and day to be ready.

The body of Joseph Conno was found hanging in his home at Raritan, Alee Troth, a friend, said Conno had been despondent because of ill health.

East Orange officials sent a large corps of men to the municipal watershed at Millburn to fell trees for a possible fuel shortage. Wood will be delivered to homes for $19 a cord.

The body of Mrs. Elsie Kimmer, 55 years old, of Helmetta, was found in the Delaware and Raritan Canal at New Brunswick. She left the home of friends to go for a walk Saturday night.

Allen Crissey of Salem, former secretary of the Salem-Cumberland-Gloucester Holstein-Friesian Association, has been chosen head of extension work east of the Mississippi Valley for the National Holstein Association.

The one hundred and third annual synod of the New Jersey Presbyterian Church closed at Asbury Park with a resolution scoring the recent report of the Federation of Churches touching on prohibition. It also heard Dr. Maria S. Poulson, New Jersey Anti-Saloon League head, score "corrupt politicians."

An award of $4,500 was granted by a jury in the United States District Court at Trenton in the suit instituted by Mrs. Elmo H. Blauvelt of 1922 East Nineteenth street, Brooklyn, against the Breakers Hotel Company, Atlantic City. She asked $25,000 for burns alleged to have been sustained as the result of carbolic acid being used for disinfection purposes.

A motor truck crashed through a fence on the State pike at Deerfield and crushed to death Courtlandt Coombs, 33 years old, who was riding on the machine. Coombs was a storekeeper on the Deerfield pike and was riding to Philadelphia with George Dantinle, driver of the truck. The latter jumped before the truck overturned and escaped with a few cuts and bruises.

Resolutions upholding the Volstead act and denouncing a recent report on prohibition submitted by the Federal Council of Churches and a report by the judicial committee exonerating Rev. Dr. Henry Mellon of the First Presbyterian Church, Atlantic City, of all charges lodged against him by a layman of his church, featured the closing session of the one hundred and third New Jersey Presbyterian Church Synod at Asbury Park.

While the rest of the world is worrying about the coal shortage, the residents of East Orange are cutting down trees from the 3,000 acres of woods owned by the city and eating them to their cellars. The city of East Orange last year planted 135,000 new trees to prepare for such emergencies as the existing coal shortage and for the preservation of the woods. Burglars looted the Hilldale post office of $500 in cash and about $1,000 in stamps.

Christina Rutledge, Jersey City baby, died of strangulation recently as she was being taken to the city hospital in an ambulance. She had swallowed a toy.

Ducks have been flying along the Delaware River for the past few days and several flocks of geese have been heard in flight during the night by Delair residents.

"Dapper Dan" Collins, on trial in the United States court for conspiracy in connection with the running of rum rackets between the West Indies and this country, was acquitted at Trenton by a jury which deliberated only fifteen minutes.

The American Christian Industrial Association, organized for the welfare of the children of Philadelphia and Camden, is preparing to purchase about 200 acres of land in the vicinity of Turnersville or Blackwood for a vacation center.

A value of $300 was set upon a hat in a decision rendered by Judge Myron C. Ernst in Second District Court, Jersey City. But the hat became worth its weight in gold, or more, because it was enclosed in a huckaberry pie alleged to have been baked by the American Pie Baking Company of New York and sold by Samuel Dine to Mrs. Nellie Spheeris.

Annexation to the borough of Merchantville has been asked by the residents of Merchantville Heights and South Merchantville, which are now in Delaware township. Appeal has been made to Merchantville borough council and steps are to be taken to place the matter before the voters for a decision. The petitioners say that they are not able to get needed improvements and that they would all agree if they are taken into a larger municipality.

The new M. E. church at Northmont will be dedicated on Sunday, November 1, with all-day services. There will be special services each night during the following week.

John Canto and his aged wife, who were made homeless when their house and another bungalow were destroyed by fire at Verga, are being assisted by residents. Donations of furniture and clothing are being made and men of the town will assemble at the site of the destroyed home and begin erecting a new one. Money will be raised in various ways to buy the materials.

DRIVING TEST ORDERED

Every driver who has not been examined since January 1, 1925, must take the departmental tests before next May in order to obtain a 1926 driver's license.

The announcement was made last week by Motor Vehicle Commissioner William L. Dill as part of the new motor vehicle regulations. No extra charge will be made for the examinations.

The places designated by the commissioner for the examinations of applicants are as follows: Camden, Third Regiment Armory, every Monday; Bridgeton Armory, second Tuesday; Salem Armory, fourth Tuesday; Cape May Court House, court-house building, first Saturday; Hammonton, Town Hall, third Tuesday.

COMPREHENSIVE REVISION OF PUBLIC SCHOOL CURRICULUM

Five hundred school systems have entered a cooperative plan for curriculum revision, according to Edwin C. Broome, superintendent of schools for Philadelphia, writing in School Life, a publication of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education. The time has come for a comprehensive nation-wide revision of the curriculum. Mr. Broome says, and the department of superintendence of the National Education Association has appointed a commission to take the leadership in the movement. Not only leaders in education but laymen as well are interested, because the growing cost of education demands every possible saving of school funds, and because of the plain need of saving human energy and time by preventing waste of educational effort.

EVERY ADULT SAMOAN CAN READ AND WRITE

Literacy does not exist in American Samoa. The official Government languages of American Samoa are English and Samoan. Every adult Samoan can read and write in one of those languages. The public schools in American Samoa are conducted in English and are rapidly adding to the number of English-speaking children and adults in Samoa.—William W. Edel, superintendent of education.

Slaughter Hears Criminals Cases

County Court Imposes Several Sentences At Regular Weekly Session

Judge Slaughter had some very undesirable cases to handle at the regular weekly session of court last Thursday morning, but it was the opinion of lawyers and laymen alike who were in attendance that he adjudicated impartially and well in passing sentence on the following:

Albert Yansick, of Cambridge, twenty years of age, who had pleaded guilty to carnal abuse, his victim being under the legal age of sixteen years, notwithstanding an able plea by his counsel, Robert Peacock, that his client be placed on probation and fined, was sent to the county jail for the term of one year.

Yansick has married since the affair took place and the girl in the case sent a letter to the Court admitting that she was as much to blame as he, but the Court was not swayed by the "after effects."

James Murray, colored, of Florence, was convicted about six months ago for carnal abuse, his own daughter being the victim, and he, too, went back to jail for a one-year term, to date from the time of his original commitment. This gives him about six months more to serve.

Edward Clinton, a seventeen-year-old boy from Burlington, also charged with carnal abuse, who has been in jail since the first of April last, changed his plea of not guilty to non vult contendere and he also went to jail for a year, the eight months he has been in jail to be deducted.

Russell Serby, of Roehling, pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession and also to having a still for the manufacture of the same, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.

Francis Barkowski, the Burlington boy charged with stealing a bag of rags from a Beverly man, said to be worth about ninety cents, got another week's respite when the complainant failed to appear.

Judge Slaughter announced that owing to the delayed sessions of the Grand Jury, there would be no criminal court next week as previously announced. Prosecutor Hillman being engaged before the Grand Jury.

DELAWARE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATIONS ARE ACTIVE

Thirty parent-teacher associations in Delaware report a 100 per cent enrollment; that is, every tax-paying family in these communities is represented in the membership. In 293 school districts of the State 301 associations have been organized. Of the rural districts, 81 per cent have local associations. White associations to the number of 117, and 45 colored associations, have rounded out four years of continuous activity.

These associations have assisted materially in making school health work a success, in beautifying school grounds, promoting musical education, adding to school libraries, providing school lunches, and in encouraging community interest and cooperation on the work of the schools.—School Life.

WILD FOWL GUNNERS FINED

Game Warden Mathis, of Mount Holly, and Carson, of Tabernacle, arrested seven Italians who were caught gunning after sundown for wild fowl, between New Gretna and Wading River Wednesday of last week. The prisoners employed counsel, Charles Phillips, of Hammonton, and put up a strong defense at the trial which took place before Justice of the Peace Cramer, at New Gretna, but they were convicted and fined $20 and costs each. The convicted men are Peter Caruso, Frank S. Maimone, Samuel and Joseph Siliago, Joe Grillo, Herman Doerschner and Fred F. Ficke.

Senator Whitney Says—

"This election is not between the Democrats and Republicans, but between decent citizenship and the octopus in Hudson county that is trying to put its tentacles about the whole state."—Newark speech Tuesday night.

Tring, Eng.—King George's colt Jovial Monk won first prize at the local agricultural show.

SAMUEL CLEMENS

"The making of all things has been speeded up—the making of everything except friends. It takes the polishing of years to brighten friendship."

SCIENTIFIC study and experience are the valued requisites of our profession—and an equipment that is worthy of a dignified ceremonial.

"Mud Slinging" Says Whitney

Republican Candidate Warns Moore It May Splash Back In His Face

The following is taken from a recent address by Senator Arthur Whitney, Republican candidate for Governor.

I have striven earnestly from the beginning to conduct my campaign for the office of Governor of New Jersey in a dignified and clean manner, avoiding all personalities, and hoping that my opponent would do likewise.

From the newspaper dispatches of his recent speeches in South Jersey, it is noticeable that my opponent avoids any defense of the Democratic platform, and does not attack any of the planks of the Republican platform. He is indulging almost exclusively in personalities and building up false issues, endeavoring to read them into the Republican platform. He is conducting a campaign of misrepresentation and untruth in order to distract the attention of the voters from the problem of economy and tax reduction which is confronting us, and from the outstanding issue of the campaign, which is representative government as opposed to government by a machine spoils system.

One who throws mud should be careful that it does not splash back in his own face. My opponent is endeavoring to make capital by contrasting the amount spent by me in the Primary campaign with the amount he spent. My expenditures are a matter of public record, and were within the amount prescribed by law. The money was honestly and legitimately earned and was honestly and legitimately spent. Of course, he spent nothing for his nomination, because he received it as the gift of a friend and is the hand-picked candidate of the boss of the Democratic Party, Mr. Frank Hague. I am the choice of the Republicans of New Jersey, as expressed in the Primaries. I wish my opponent would reply to the following questions which I regard of real public moment:

1. How much has the Hudson County Democratic machine collected, and how much have they spent; and how much do they intend to spend in an effort to obtain your election?

2. You have been a Jersey City official the past seven years. During this time fraudulent registration and illegal voting have frequently occurred in your city and in your county.

What have you done officially or otherwise to prevent these corrupt acts on the part of illegal voters or on the part of those who induced them to register or vote illegally?

3. In 1923 you personally passed around cards in the Lafayette Reformed Church in Jersey City, asking support for the Anti-Saloon League.

How do you reconcile this insincerity and inconsistency on your part in view of your present stand on the prohibition question?

RAPID EXTENSION OF SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION IN KANSAS

Consolidated schools are increasing steadily in Kansas. From 12 in 1920 they have grown to 172 in 1925, serving an area of 6,106 square miles. Enrollment in these schools increased from 14,239 in 1922 to 25,895 for the school year just closed; teachers increased from 590 to 1,269, and busses for the transportation of pupils from 250 to 455. Buses operated by the 172 consolidated schools travel in the aggregate 9,182 miles a day, or an average of about 20 miles for each bus. The average expenditure per school for transportation is $231 per month, or $2.99 per child transported. The average school tax in consolidated school districts is 9.88 mills, against 16.4 mills in cities of the first class, and 16.38 in cities of the second class.

Ford Reaches Production Peak

The Ford Motor Company reached the highest production peak in the records of the company Friday of last week, when 8,165 cars and trucks went off the assembly lines of domestic branches. Friday's record, however, is expected to be short lived, for production will reach 8,600 daily shortly, making possible a total output of approximately 200,000 for October, the greatest in Ford history.

This information was contained in a statement issued at the company's general offices in Philadelphia Saturday afternoon, which details the remarkable industrial accomplishment effected in producing the improved Ford cars and which at the same time definitely dispels all previous rumors regarding Ford production circulated since the new cars were announced.

"Less than sixty days after discontinuing its former style passenger cars the Ford Motor Company has brought the improved types into normal production in all its assembly plants throughout the United States," it was stated.

"The former type passenger cars went out of production in August during which month 4,616 passenger cars were produced."

"Because of the many changes and improvements made in Ford bodies it was necessary to re-arrange departments in all assembly plants, install considerable equipment, and lengthen paint ovens to permit longer baking and an increase in the number of coats of paint given the cars. This was accomplished and production started in the plants early in September."

Output of the improved cars increased rapidly and for the week ending September 19 the production total showed 22,376 cars and trucks.

"Since that time output has been growing steadily. During the last few weeks the company has been shipping through its branches to dealers more than 7,000 cars and trucks a day, the shipments increasing to the record reached Friday, when 8,165 cars and trucks were produced. Production for October will run close to 200,000, a new high record."

Big Halloween Parade With 2,000 Feet In Line at County Seat

The general committee in charge of the Halloween parade to take place in Mount Holly on Monday evening, November 2, has reported that there will be at least twelve organizations of from forty to one hundred and fifty persons in line and about six bands of music, with more to hear from.

The finances are coming along in fairly good shape, while the list of prizes, the route of the parade and the names of the judges will be announced later this week.

Captain M. E. Matlack will act as marshal and arrange the formation and the route of the parade, and he has selected a committee of hustling aides.

A stand for the judges will be erected at the corner of Garden and Main streets. According to estimates furnished it would appear that there will be at least 2,000 marchers and numerous floats.

Women Boost Whitney Cause

Enthusiastic Luncheon Held in Presbyterian Chapter House at Moorestown

New impetus was given to the Senator Whitney gubernatorial candidacy in the ranks of the young women voters of Burlington county on Friday when a "Work for Whitney" luncheon was held in the Presbyterian Chapter House at Moorestown by the Burlington County Junior Women's Republican Club and 130 active party workers were seated about the tables. It was an affair that left a fine impression of the very able manner in which it was conducted and the real benefit will be reflected in the support that these young women will bring out for Senator Whitney next Tuesday.

In her usual pleasing manner, Mrs. Arthur J. Collins, Jr., of Moorestown, president of the club, directed the program that had been so carefully planned. Mrs. Collins spoke briefly and stressed the "Work for Whitney" slogan as the one thing that should guide the Republicans of the county in the remaining days of the campaign activities.

The first speaker guest presented was Congressman Isaac Bacharach and he was well received. He gave many good reasons why Senator Whitney should be elected Governor of New Jersey, because he stands for the constructive measures that have given the Republican party its good standing before the people of the country, because he is a staunch supporter of President Coolidge, and because Senator Whitney stands on a platform of business administration and has a clean record. Congressman Bacharach talked interestingly about the Mellon tax plan and gave his auditors much valuable information.

Mrs. Nellie C. Russell, of Burlington, one of Burlington county's representatives in the Republican State Committee, said that she considers the Juniors her best assistants in furthering the interests of the party and she told them that they should enlist themselves absolutely as salespeople for Senator Whitney.

Mrs. Miriam Lee Earley Lippincott, of Camden, said that she was much interested in Junior Club work because she had started the first club of that kind in Camden county and it had done some good work under the able leadership that it had been able to enlist since it entered actively into the political field.

Mrs. R. Sullivan Pierpont, of Moorestown, came to the Juniors as one of Senator Whitney's neighbors before he ever got into politics. She told them of Senator Whitney's statement to her at a banquet one night to say that at the age of forty-five he was going to enter politics, and she was curious to know why he had fixed this age limit he advised her that he had received much from the country and it was his purpose to give in return as much service as his means and ability would permit. She was sure that he had kept his promise, and also sure that he is in this kind of man all the way through.

Harry "Red" McCloskey, of Beverly, has resumed the operation of his bus line between Burlington and West Palmyra. There has been some question about McCloskey having proper authority. It is understood that he claims the right to operate under a blanket agreement entered into before the Philburco Coach Line started, and that it is not necessary for him to take out municipal licenses in the town through which he passes. This view is not shared by the municipalities, Riverton and Palmyra have both required McCloskey to secure borough licenses at a cost of $50.00 a year which he refuses to do.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES
This afternoon the business meeting and thimble party of the Philadelphia Class will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence T. Yerkes, 202 Linden avenue, Riverton.
This evening a Bible study class will meet at the home of Mrs. F. N. Johnson, 514 Morgan avenue.

At eight o'clock Friday evening the Christian Endeavor Society will meet with Charles A. Dietz as the leader. The inspiring leadership of Mr. Dietz is well known and the young people spend a profitable hour.

Sunday will be an auspicious day. Special programs at all services are planned to mark the fortieth anniversary of the church. The morning service will be officially in the hands of Dr. Charles E. Goodall, Executive Secretary of the New Jersey Baptist Convention, and J. Otto Thilow, the church's first convert, a former deacon, and superintendent of the Sunday School for twenty-five years, will review the church's history from its beginning.
The evening service is in charge of "Sunday School Night" in styled of Superintendent Van Ooten. It is hoped to have all past superintendents of the Sunday School present, with a few words of commemoration from each.
The Philadelphia Class will have its former teacher, Mrs. Pascoe, to speak at the regular session.
In honor to the church and to Rev. Frederick Blaser, whose heart was set on this anniversary, let us make the occasion one of homage for the future—to further advance the standard of service attained at the end of these forty years.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the World Wide Guild will meet in the church. A large attendance is desired to hear Mrs. Powers, of Merchantsville, who will speak.
Tuesday evening is the time of the annual business meeting of the Sunday School at which the officers will be elected for the coming year and the reports of the various organizations submitted. Supper will be served at six-thirty.

P. T. A. RECEPTION

Dr. Dager Enlivens Occasion With Humorous Address Filled With Pointed Lessons

The annual reception given by the Parent-Teacher Association of Riverton was held in the school auditorium Thursday evening, October 22. The guests were well entertained and given some facts to think over, which, it is hoped, may redound to the benefit of the school children of Riverton.

Mrs. E. W. Collins most generously sang several selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Bell.
Mrs. Clifton Mayfield, President of the P. T. A. of Riverton, gave some interesting facts on the purpose of the Association, showing the advantages accruing to the homes connected with it.
Miss Hannah H. Chew, principal of the Riverton public school, spoke correctly about the crowded conditions existing in the school rooms, recommending that more room be provided if the standard of the school is to be maintained. She showed clearly that the needs justify the plea.

The speaker of the evening, Doctor Forrest E. Dager, delighted his hearers with a talk appropriate to the occasion. He kept the audience laughing with his humorous observations of the practical use we make of the English language, the incon-

MORAVIAN CHURCH NEWS
The Daily Day services held Sunday, October 18, were well attended and very successful. The Sunday School had a record attendance, the largest in many years. The Rev. E. S. Hagen, of Bethlehem, Pa., preached a powerful sermon on "The Every Member Church" at the morning service. At 7:30 p. m. the Christian Endeavor society presented an interesting program, which was well received by a large audience. At this service the Rev. Mr. Hagen again spoke very forcefully on the theme, "We Are Able."

At the opening of the morning service, Harry Andrew Sperber, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Sperber, of Delanco, N. J., was baptized by the pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Alber were the sponsors.

JOHN W. SHADE
John W. Shade, 72 years old, former Palmyra assessor, died Sunday morning after an illness of two years.

Funeral services were held at the Snover Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. E. A. Robinson, of New Brunswick, a former pastor of the Epworth M. E. Church, officiating. Interment was made in the Morgan Cemetery.

Mr. Shade had been a resident of Palmyra for the past forty-seven years. After serving as assessor for nine years, he retired two years ago when ill health forced him to sever all business connections. He was a contractor and builder in Palmyra for thirty-five years and then became affiliated with the American Dredging Company in Philadelphia.

The deceased was a member of Covenant Lodge, No. 141, Palmyra; the Shrine, Washington Camp No. 25; P. O. S. of A., Palmyra; and the Elks Lodge, a Bridgeboro. Covenant Lodge held Masonic services at the Snover Funeral Home Wednesday evening.

A daughter, Mrs. Frank Kates, of Garfield avenue, survives him. Mrs. Shade died Friday, October 16, at the home of her daughter and was buried Tuesday of last week.

HOWARD PAYNTER BISPHAM
Howard Paynter Bispham, 23 years old, died of heart trouble at his home, 307 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, at 10.20 Wednesday morning.

The young man had suffered with this affliction for the past two years, but was not confined to his bed until two weeks ago. The latter part of last week found his condition greatly improved, but he suffered a relapse Tuesday and death ended the fight for life Wednesday morning. He had arranged to spend the winter in Florida in hopes that he would grow stronger in his healthy climate.

His young wife, Mrs. Etta Frambes Bispham, formerly of Moorestown, survives him. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bispham and grandson of the late Captain Paynter. All were well known in the community for many years.

The deceased moved from Palmyra to Moorestown when his parents died several years ago. After marrying, he returned to his hometown where he died. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and had been a brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad for the past six years.

The remains may be viewed at his late residence Sunday evening. Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in Morgan Cemetery.

HARVEY N. HIRST

Mr. Hirst had lived in Palmyra about seven years, moving here from West Philadelphia. He had been in the wholesale grocery business prior to his retirement thirty years ago.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Etta Hirst, and six sons and two daughters. The sons are: Harvey L., Riverton; Edwin P., Arthur N. and Elvin M., of Philadelphia; George C., of Montclair; and Clifford D., of Delaware Gardens. The two daughters are Mrs. F. W. Milling, of Wilmington, and Eleanor G., of Palmyra.

The remains may be viewed by friends Friday evening and the funeral services will be held in the Snover Funeral Home Saturday at one o'clock, with the Rev. William H. Higgins officiating. Interment will be in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

K. G. E. Football Cup Presented

Large Audience Braves Wind and Rain to Witness Exercises

Before an audience which more than half filled the auditorium, Palmyra High School was presented with the long awaited Knights of the Golden Eagle cup Saturday evening.

Although the stormy weather kept many away, it failed to dampen the ardor of those who braved the wind and rain in order that they might witness the presentation which marked the end of a bitter fight for permanent possession of the coveted trophy.

The cup was presented by District Grand Chief George W. Hobbs, of the Eagles, Prof. A. S. Grisham, supervising principal of the Palmyra Schools, accepted the trophy. The Rev. Samuel Steinmetz, of Trenton, delivered the address of the evening. The Rev. Mr. Steinmetz is known the state over for his keen sense of humor and his address was filled with the wit which always makes him popular as a speaker.

In the friendly bit of advice to the large number of students which helped make up the audience, the speaker urged them to continue with their good work and not dwell on past achievements, but to use them for stepping stones toward greater accomplishments.

The Rev. Mr. Steinmetz took "Smiles" as his topic. He emphasized the need of smiles and good humor in a daily life at work and in play, and pointed out the cheer a pleasant word will bring.

Mayor James T. Weart, in a short welcoming address, congratulated the members of the 1921, '22 and '23 football teams which won the cup.

President of the Palmyra Board of Education for many years and always has the interest of the students at heart.

The other folks in the audience joined the students in singing school songs to the tune of popular songs and the auditorium rang out with lusty cheers led by Franklin Deacon and Spencer Davidson, members of the student body.

In 1921 the District Association of the Eagles donated the cup which was to become the property of first football team to win three games in a series between Palmyra and Burlington High.

After battling through the season of '21 and '22, Palmyra was the first to win the third game, clinching it early in the 1923 campaign. Burlington contended it was still in competition, claiming the original agreement stated it was to become the possession of the first eleven to win three consecutive matches.

A break resulted in the ranks of the Eagles. The Burlington lodge had solidly backed their school while the Eagles of Palmyra and Riverside upheld the winners' contention, consequently the cup was presented.

The dispute ended several weeks ago and now belongs to Palmyra High and will safely repose in her well-filled trophy case.

GOOD PENS AT LAST

An order of the Post-Office Department that will be appreciated by the public in general all over the United States was promulgated by Postmaster General New last week when he sounded the doom of the pen that spatters ink all over your envelope, which may be found in ninety-nine per cent. of the post offices throughout the country.

The order says that "good usable pens" shall be provided by postmasters for the desks in the post office lobbies, that ink wells shall be kept clean and that an employee shall be designated to attend to the writing desks, consequently the pen that digs into the paper will be no more—maybe.

The order specifies that none but stub pens be used.

In the reduction of illiteracy. Every State was represented and an intensive study was given to the solution of this national problem.

An outgrowth of the conference was the appointment by the Commissioner of Education, by request, of a representative committee to recommend subject matter and methods of teaching native and foreign-born adult illiterates. The work of this committee is embodied in Bulletin No. 8, 1925, Elementary Instruction of Adults, by the chairman, Charles M. Herlihy, Massachusetts. State supervisor of adult education. It comprises a simple and practical method of instruction in reading, writing, conversation, spelling, and simple arithmetic especially adapted to illiterates.

NASH MOTORS CO. SETS NEW RECORD

September Shows 82 Per Cent. Increase of Previous Years in Production

The Nash Motors Company, in closing its books for September, reports a volume of business greater by 82 per cent. than that of September, 1924.

"The past month," says E. H. McCarty, general sales manager, "was the nineteenth consecutive month to show a substantially material gain over the corresponding period of the previous year."

"The number of cars shipped in September was 10,314. This is but 361 cars less than the August total of 10,675, and August rolled up the biggest monthly volume in all Nash history. September, however, having one less working day than August, actually established itself as the period of greatest daily production since our company was founded."

"During August and September there were produced and sold 20,885 Nash cars. This constituted over 39 per cent. of our entire business for the year 1924."

MAKING GOOD IN A SMALL TOWN

Real Stories About Real Girls

By MRS. HARLAND H. ALLEN

THE "FLOWER GIRL"

A "flower girl" is not always an adjunct to a wedding ceremony. There are just some energetic girls who have turned her fancy for flowers into financial success. Fads and fancies do not always bring returns; but a flair for flowers, if rightly directed, does.

A "flower girl" I ran across the other day became provoked when I used the word "art" in connection with her work, because, she said, "It's all a matter of business." Later on, she admitted that she did indulge her "artistic tendencies" a bit as she worked in her garden, though she sternly repressed them when she marketed her wares.

True garden-craft is market-craft. The stunting block of most country and small town girls in selling flowers is their proneness to set limitations for themselves. A girl is sometimes satisfied to carry a little basket of flowers into the city each day, when she could be shipping out hundreds of dollars' worth of flowers daily during the season.

One step such a girl may profitably take is the making of an arrangement with the hotel proprietor to provide his tables with flowers at a fixed sum per month. The proprietor may agree to display her fresh-cut flowers every morning where people will see and buy them, too.

Furnishing flowers for the town cemetery may be another opportunity for her. She may put up flowers for funerals, too.

A "birthday book," in which is listed birthday and other anniversaries of as many women as possible, is a help. The flower girl who keeps a book may call the woman's husband to remind him of the event, and to suggest that he "say it with flowers."

Of course, there is something else to the flower business than simply going to the right places to sell them. One must have a salable product, and that requires in this case, an artistic instinct.

Now, caring for a flower garden is essentially a work for which many women are eminently suited.

You must be both an artist and a business woman, then, if you are ambitious to succeed as a "flower girl." (© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

SENATOR INTRODUCED "JOKER"

Announcement was made on Friday of last week that Senator Edge of New Jersey, was responsible for the "Joker" law passed hastily in the last session of Congress, which makes automobilists liable to a fine of $500 if they leave motors running while on ferryboats.

Inquiry at the Capitol brought out the fact that Edge was responsible for the law, which he introduced without attaching his name to it, and it was only by consulting the secretary of the Senate that Edge was shown to be the sponsor of the measure.

As the law is very unpopular among motorists every effort will be made to have it repealed, it not being generally known that such a measure had been passed until recent attempts to enforce it had been made.

Just what the Senator will have to say about the measure is not known, for, as usual, he was not in Washington and could not be interrogated by those most interested.

TOURING CARS STILL ARE BEST SELLERS

Despite the growing general tendency toward the closed type of car, the touring car is the biggest selling automobile in America. Severe weather gives closed cars great sales impetus and in the north sections of the country where the climate is rigorous, the closed types are favorites. In "fair weather" districts, however, the preference for open cars of many sorts is sufficiently pronounced to turn the balance for the entire nation.

In this connection reports of the Ford Motor Company show a demand for touring cars which is unusual for this season of the year and which calls for a production of 100,000 of these cars during October.

The touring car always has been the most popular in the Ford line. The exceptional demand at the present time, however, may be accounted for by the new features of comfort and convenience which have been incorporated in the improved types.

Addition of a door at the driver's left, storm curtains which afford complete protection and open with the doors, greater leg room and a more attractive appearance in the general lines of the car have all contributed to bringing increased popularity to the five-passenger open type car.

STUDY AGRICULTURE

Short Winter Courses Offered Free to Residents of New Jersey

"Men well trained in dairy farming can usually find good positions and I have observed that these men operating their own farms are making money," says John W. Bartlett, professor of dairy husbandry at Rutgers University. "Among the successful dairy men of the state," he continued, "are many of the graduates of the twelve-week winter Short Courses in Dairy Farming offered here by the University without charge to residents of the state."

The department of Dairy Husbandry has a herd of nearly a hundred pure bred dairy cattle that are used for such practical work as judging, feeding and testing. It also has in its new building well equipped laboratories for testing milk, making butter, cheese and ice cream. This year the amount of time devoted to these branches of the work will be doubled in order to give the students more actual practice.

Besides the work in actual dairying the students in this course study soils, fertilizers, crops, farm management, machinery and general livestock management so that they are well prepared to undertake the work of a dairy farm. Young men who have already had the practical work on a dairy farm will find good openings upon completing the course which begins November 18 and continues to February 19, 1936. A circular giving complete information about the course may be had by addressing the Director of Short Courses, Rutgers University, New Brunswick.

FRUIT INDUSTRY AIDED

Rutgers Short Course Graduates Making Head in Practical Work

Pruning, spraying and grafting in the large orchards of the College of Agriculture are a part of the work of the twelve-week Short Course in Fruit Growing and Vegetable Gardening offered at Rutgers University. The course is free to residents of New Jersey, 16 years or over, and there are no entrance examinations. It begins November 18th and closes February 18th, 1936.

In an interview, Prof. M. A. Blake, who has charge of all the work in horticulture at the College, said "Through the very practical work given in this course during the past fifteen years the college has turned out many men who are successful fruit growers and vegetable gardeners in New Jersey. The department has often found itself unable to fill responsible positions on large horticultural farms because of a lack of trained men. The successful grower of fruit or vegetables today must know not only how to do the ordinary farm work but he must be well acquainted with the latest methods of improving soil fertility, selection of proper varieties and methods of culture. He must know how to recognize and combat insect pests and diseases and, finally, but not least important, he must thoroughly understand how to market his produce. The Short Course in Fruit Growing and Vegetable Gardening gives the men an intensive but thoroughly practical training in all these branches."

Applications for enrollment or for a circular describing the work should be addressed to the Director of Short Courses at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

STUDY POULTRY FRES

Students at Rutgers Get Very Practical Training in Short Courses

A free course in poultry husbandry beginning November 18 and continuing until February 19, 1936, in which no entrance examinations are required is offered to residents of New Jersey by the Short Courses in Agriculture at Rutgers University, New Brunswick.

"To learn by doing" is the motto of the department of poultry husbandry which gives the work and Willard H. Allen, the acting head of the department, is anticipating great results from the new plan that will go into effect this year. Each student enrolling for the course will be assigned a flock of hens which he must care for and from which he will incubate the eggs and brood the chicks. This work together with practical exercises in judging and culling, captioning, grading and packing eggs and building poultry houses will give the students an excellent training.

Applications for this course, which is open to men and women, 16 years of age or over, are being received by the director of Short Courses at Rutgers University. A very interesting booklet describing the course will be sent on request.

ANOTHER STUDY OF INEQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

Education opportunities in Georgia are unequally distributed owing to the unequal distribution of wealth. Ten counties possess 46 per cent of the assessed value of property, while less than 1 per cent in 10 of the poorest counties.

Three-fourths of the children of the state, considering the white population only, are in counties financially unable to give them proper schooling; so that, while the compulsory school law requires six months of school, many of the counties are too poor to provide it, according to figures compiled by Ralph E. Wager, of Emory University.

On a 5-mill school tax, Fulton County could spend $19.30 annually on the education of each child of school age, but Coffee County would spend only $1.93. Consequently, the State allotment of $4.00 per capita does not begin to meet the deficiency in the poorer sections.

PLATOON PLAN IS MORE WIDELY ACCEPTED

Nineteen cities in 32 States have one or more schools organized according to the work-study-play or platoon plan. Wheeling, W. Va., has nearly completed the erection of a new platoon school building and will start its first platoon school. The platoon form of school organization has just been put into effect in all the grade schools of Ellwood City, Pa. Other cities expecting to organize schools on the work-study-play plan during the coming year are Memphis, Tenn.; Easton, Ohio; Fairmont, W. Va.; and Waltham, Mass. During the past year the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education, has received requests from every State in the Union except three for information about the platoon plan.

DO NOT FORGET

A. Harry Moore

When you go to the polls next Tuesday

A man of the plain people, self educated, well qualified for the office of Governor. HUMANE AND SYMPATHETIC—with a record of achievements unexcelled by any other public official. Never defeated for office. Twelve years as City Commissioner of Jersey City and at the election last May received 70,000 votes out of a total of 80,000 cast.

Established a Park and Playground system for comfort of women and children second to none in the United States; established a school for crippled children so they might become strong in mind and body.

As Commissioner of Revenue and Finance reduced tax rate of Jersey City 17 points. Is pledged to an economical and business administration.

Although a strict churchman is against Prohibition and Anti-Saloon League domination of State affairs.

A man of strict integrity for whom Republicans as well as Democrats can vote with confidence that the affairs of the State will be administered not for any group but for all of the people.

His opponent Senator Whitney declined to meet him in public debate to let the voters decide on their respective records as to which of the two was better fitted for the Governorship.

All through the campaign Mr. Moore has charged Senator Whitney with straddling on Prohibition and inconsistency as well as insincerity. He has shown that Mr. Whitney was either absent from roll call or failed to vote 776 times; that each of the three years that he was chairman of the appropriation committee the budget of expenses was increased hundreds of thousands of dollars in excess of the recommendations of the Governor and that in the session of the legislature of 1925, Mr. Whitney allowed the appropriation bill to be jammed through with nearly $2,000,000 in excess of the amount recommended by the Governor and the Budget Commission. He didn't vote for or against the bill.

When asked for a solution of the controversy over tolls on the Camden-Philadelphia Bridge, Senator Whitney said he had no definite program, no definite ideas on the subject.

Mr. Moore has shown by the records that Senator Whitney in his nine years of service in the legislature has not a single constructive piece of legislation to his credit.

Vote for a man of action, whose life has been devoted to the service of the people and who has the courage of his convictions. He will not dodge, straddle or equivocate.

OBSERVE FATHER AND SON WEEK

Many Affairs to be Held Throughout County Week of November 8 to 14

The particular form of observing National Father and Son Week which has been adopted by the Young Men's Christian Associations throughout Burlington County is the Father and Son Banquet. Already there is much planning under way in a number of communities for such annual affairs.

Last year throughout the County thirteen such Banquets were held under the auspices of the "Y." As a result of the National observance of Father and Son Week, father and son relationships are increasingly good throughout the County because of the year after year educational campaign on this very matter.

Any community or church or organization interested in promoting Father and Son Banquet will receive, upon request at the County YMCA Office, very helpful suggestions for arranging such an affair. Such requests should be addressed to the County Secretary at Mount Holly.

ECONOMY CAUSES DISCONTINUANCE OF COMENIUS INSTITUTE

Comenius Institute of Pedagogy at Prague was closed June 30 by the Czechoslovak Ministry of Education. The Institute was the source of considerable expense, and even more was demanded for the fulfillment of its aims. The Ministry of Education was unable to satisfy its demands and, being urged to economy by the Ministry of Finance, it became necessary to discontinue the Institute.

Riverton School Receives a Gift

The Riverton School was surprised last week by Mrs. Herbert Morris when she presented a number of the Geographic Magazines to the school. We already had some magazines but they dated back only to 1921, and the ones Mrs. Morris gave us dated back as far as 1914. We all appreciate Mrs. Morris's gift for these magazines will help us very much in our Geography and History.

Miss Foulke, the drawing teacher, has decided to have the school work on Nature study this fall until there are no more specimens to get. Then the school will work on those drawings and make designs from them.

Hygiene

In Hygiene we are studying about our home. We have written paragraphs about the site of the home, the foundations, heating, drainage and lighting and we are going to write many others too. We are bringing pictures to illustrate our paragraphs and this makes them very attractive. We are going to make a book with an appropriate cover when we finish writing these paragraphs. One paragraph has already been published in "The Broadcaster" and we hope to see others occasionally.

ELIZABETH ELIOTT, Grade 5.

Our Sand Table

Our teacher read us the story of Columbus. As it was near Columbus Day, we decided to show a part of the story on our sand table. We wanted to show the landing of Columbus on San Salvador.

We used blue blotting paper for water. This was colored with white chalk to represent waves. The boats were made to stand up by having slits cut in the paper. We have two boats with square sails to represent Columbus' ships. Some of the Indian people on the Indian square with papooses on their backs. The boys dressed clothes pins as Indian braves and chiefs. Some of the children made wigwams and colored designs on them. The dishes and fire-pots are made of real clay. Two of the girls made skin stretchers of tooth picks and leather. The palm trees are made of paper. Two of the boys brought some real sod. Other children brought twigs to represent bushes.

Fourth Grade Class Work.

Fire Drills in the School

Every year fire drills are practiced in the school. This season there have been two already, one in October 8 and another October 20. On October 8, the building was emptied in two and one-half minutes. The pupils marched back into the school in two and one-half minutes also, making a total of five minutes. This was improved on October 20 when the pupils reached the playground in two minutes and went back to their studies in two and one-half minutes which was one-half minute better than October 8. We hope to reach an average of four minutes or better, the record set by the school in 1923. We trust we may have no necessity to use them because of a real fire.

Manual Training for 1925

This year the teacher of manual training is A. C. Kenner, of Philadelphia. The first thing he had the boys to do was to put away the large supply of lumber the school bought to use in this department. The majority of the boys started at once to make pelicans.

FLOYD SMITH, Grade 8.

A Great American

Theodore Roosevelt was born October twenty-seventh 1858, and as a boy had very poor health. His father and mother were wealthy and he could have every luxury he wanted. Every chance of being great was his, but health. Theodore Roosevelt as a boy, had a tutor. Soon the doctors found it did not hurt him to take long walks. Therefore he took many walks in the woods and often stayed more than a day. Being among nature so much he soon began to love it. As soon as Theodore Roosevelt graduated from Harvard University he entered New York legislature and rose to a commanding position as reformer. When he resigned from this, he was made president of the Police Commission of New York City. On the outbreak of the Spanish American War he was appointed Assistant Secretary of United States Navy, but resigned after a few months service and organized the first United States Cavalry, known as the Rough Riders, of which he was commander. With this body he rendered distinguished service for the United States in Cuba.

FLOYD SMITH, Grade 8.

In 1898 he was elected Governor of New York and in 1900 Vice President of the United States and upon the death of McKinley, became President. One of his greatest achievements was the securing of the Panama Canal Zone.

After the close of his term as President, Roosevelt spent a year hunting game in Africa. At the present time, two of his favorite sons are in Africa carrying on the work of their father, one of our greatest citizens, so loved.

I'm glad our brave ancestors To escape a king's tyranny, Came over to America A land for the free.

Braving many hardships From Indians bold and cruel Through bleak and dreary winters, Sometimes having no fuel.

The men built rude log cabins To shelter them from harm, Sentinels were always on the watch To spread alarm.

The American Red Cross has Helped the Tornado-Stricken People

The tornado is one of the most dreaded things of the Western part of the United States. One of the reasons why these seem so terrible to the people is because they come upon them so suddenly.

The latest one that has occurred and caused distress is the one that happened last March in Illinois. There was a great deal of damage done by this great wind storm. The tornado was followed by fire which caused a greater disaster.

The American Red Cross sent workers there almost immediately.

The Association sent tools to the boys so that they could make use of their idle moments and forget the thought of the distressful past which haunted their minds all of the time. They made refrigerators for the people who lived in tents and had a hard time to keep their food from spoiling. Other things which they have sent are clothes and toys. The towns are not yet completed and do not look like they are but they are gradually taking shape as they were.

LUTHERAN NEWS

On Sunday, November 1st, it will be just 408 years since the real starting point of the Reformation. This will be the theme of the morning sermon to adults, when the Pastor, the Rev. Harry L. Saul, will take as his subject, "Some Lessons from the Reformation." For the children there will be the first of the month's sermon, and the subject, which will be very interesting, will be "The Broken Yoke."

The subject for the evening sermon will be "The Harvest Basket." At the young people's meeting at 6.30, the subject will be "Stewardship." All young people are most cordially invited.

On Tuesday evening the Ladies' Aid will hold its monthly meeting at the Church. Some very important business is on hand as well as a social hour. All ladies are cordially invited.

The study of the Epistle to the Romans is being continued every Thursday night at eight o'clock.

On Friday and Saturday nights November 6 and 7, there will be presented "The Charn School," a play by the Ladies Aid Society in the high school auditorium. It looks as though there will be great crowds, and a splendid play. Have you your ticket?

The Better Buick is a Man-sized Motor Car

Each Buick model seats its capacity of full-grown people—in relaxed ease—without cramped legs or necks. Tail people, especially, enjoy its extra head-room and leg-room.

American men and women are above the average stature. And a smaller car than Buick is apt to be tight-fitting, low-ceilinged, crowded!

Drop in and try the ample, arm-chair comfort of a car that is right in size. Bring some of your six-footer friends. You will find another big reason why Buick is so widely considered a better motor car—another reason why there are a million and more enthusiastic Buick owners.

Or telephone, and we will send a Better Buick to your home or office for you to try.

It Pays to Buy Good Lumber

The longer service, the greater efficiency, saving of work and neater appearance of the finished job combine to make buying Good Lumber an economical thing to do. We have many different grades of Lumber, each one the best for the purpose intended—but for the usual run of work, our standard grade is the best all-around Lumber to buy.
