MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATED BY POST RODGERS

Palmyra-Riverton American Legion in Impressive Tribute to Soldier Dead

MILITARY HONORS AT BOTH CEMETERIES

Rev. George J. McCormack is Speaker in Palmyra Municipal Grove in Afternoon

Memorial Day was celebrated in Palmyra and Riverton with impressive ceremonies under the auspices of Post Frederick M. Rodgers, American Legion.

The program of the day opened with a parade of military, municipal, civic and fraternal organizations, school children and honored guests. The parade, which started at the Riverton Fire House at two o'clock, was composed of a Police Escort, Marshal and Aides, O. A. R. Veterans and Widows of O. A. R. Veterans, Old Star Mothers and Fathers or next of kin, Mayors and Members of Councils of Palmyra and Riverton, Howitzer Company, 114th Infantry, N. J. N. G., Post Rodgers' Drum and Bugle Corps, Post Rodgers' Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Civil Scouts, Columbus Cadets, School Children, Riverton and Palmyra Fire Companies, Civic and Fraternal Organizations. Both the P. O. S. of A. and the Sons of Italy entered their colors in the parade.

At Morgan Cemetery full military honors were bestowed amid impressive military ceremonies. The salute to the dead was fired by the Howitzer Company, under command of Lt. Harold H. West. The bugle corps played taps. The prayer was offered by the Rev. George Lockett. Similar ceremonies were given in honor of the dead at the Methodist Cemetery.

A large gathering was on hand in the Palmyra Municipal Grove for the rest of the program, which opened with the invocation by the Rev. Mr. Lockett. Selections by the State Champaign Drum and Bugle Corps were a feature of these ceremonies. Community singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Blue and Gray" gave all an opportunity to voice their emotions brought forth by the memories of the day.

A Memorial Plaque to the War Dead of Riverton was unveiled by the Hon. Howard M. Rogers, Mayor of Riverton. Mr. Rogers, in a few well-chosen words, expressed the gratitude.

DELAIR AIR FIELD FAVORED IN REPORT

Kern Dodge Urges Philadelphia to Drop Bias and Join Jersey in Port Plan

Kern Dodge, Philadelphia engineer, is distributing throughout this area a report on the proposed Delair Air Field, which is located on the site of the old Philadelphia and Delaware River Ferry Company's Point area as air terminal sites so that an important air terminal site may not be lost to this region through provincialism or bias.

Dodge complains he has tried in vain to interest Philadelphia civic leaders and organizations in the Fisher's Point plan for a regional air terminal.

The government report, drawn up by A. P. Tallafra, Jr., chief of the airport section of the Department of Commerce, after a survey, considers the Fisher's Point site an opportunity for development of a first-class airport for seaplanes and land machines. The scheme would necessitate filling more than 400 acres in what is known as the Cove between Fisher's dike and the mainland just south of the Pennsylvania Railroad's bridge at Delair.

This site should be acquired as a public-owned airport, Dodge contends, because the only airport now serving this region is Central Airport, "not large enough to be considered an air terminal. It can never have a railroad, so will not bring important industries. It is privately-owned and there is no assurance of its permanence as an airport," according to Dodge.

STILL CAUSES FIRE AT PARRY HOME

A house on Madison avenue, Parry, occupied by Mrs. Mary Antoski, was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. Both the Parry and Palmyra fire companies responded, but the flames had gained such headway as to damage the house so much that it is almost a total loss.

According to those who were on the scene at the time the fire was caused by the explosion of a still being operated in the house. The tenant had been arrested for possession of liquor while living at a nearby address a few weeks before.

Several barrels of maul and other ingredients were strewn about the premises and a strong smell of alcohol was in evidence.

ROTARY SPEAKER

Dr. William L. Hull, of Swarthmore, a recognized authority on international affairs, will address the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club at its regular dinner meeting this evening.

Bridge Has Busy Day: New Boulevard Aids

Last Sunday was one of the busiest days ever experienced by the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge, as more than 12,000 cars crossed during the day.

No difficulty was experienced in handling the heavy traffic as much of it was routed along the newly opened Bridge Boulevard. The new road made the flow of traffic over the bridge more uniform, as it allowed a division of the incoming vehicles and prevented congestion.

Bridge officials are very much pleased with the improvement which results from the use of the boulevard and look forward to even greater benefits in the future. The traffic control lights and safer railroad crossing at Broad street and Cinnaminson avenue are better adapted to handling traffic than the Hilton crossing.

SOLOMON ROMM DIES SUDDENLY

Prominent Palmyra Merchant Victim of Acute Attack
in Broad St. Station

Solomon Romm, sixty-one years old, well known Palmyra business man, died suddenly in Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, last Thursday afternoon.

According to members of the family, Mr. Romm left home at noon on Thursday to hear his son, Milton, who is a Philadelphia attorney, try a murder case. It was the usual custom for Mr. Romm to stop at the station to have his shoes polished. He had been in the station but a short time when he felt ill.

Word was immediately sent to Milton's office, but he was not there at the time. Maurice Horv, a non-in-law, who usually stops in the attorney's office at noon each day, arrived a few moments after the message had been received and went immediately to Broad Street Station. When he arrived he found Mr. Romm feeling better and under the care of a physician.

Mr. Horv, who lives in West Philadelphia, sent for his car to take Mr. Romm to his home to rest for a few hours. Before the car arrived Mr. Romm died.

The Romm family came to Palmyra about twenty-nine years ago, and started what is now known as Romm's Department Store. Mr. Romm has been connected with the Broadway Palace Theatre for sixteen years. He was a member of the Camden Elks, president of the Pennsylvania Independent Order Brothers of Abraham, and a member of the Liberty Beneficial Association, of Philadelphia.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock from Roseneberg's Memorial Chapel, 2000 North Broad street, Philadelphia, with Rabbi Oscar Levin, of Philadelphia, officiating. Interment was made in Montefiore Cemetery, Fox Chase.

Mr. Romm is survived by his widow, Helen; three daughters, Mrs. Philip Schulman, of Milton, Pa.; Mrs. Philip Schulman, of West Philadelphia; and Miss Arlene Romm, of Palmyra; one son, Milton, a Philadelphia attorney; four brothers, David Romm, of Philadelphia; Samuel and Joshua Romm, of New York; and Eli Romm, of Poland; and three grandchildren, Benjamin and William Horv, of West Philadelphia, and Leon Schulman, of Milton, Pa.

St. Mary's Hall was founded in 1897 by Bishop George Washington Doane and is the oldest girl's school in America.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached to the graduates in the chapel of the Holy Innocents by the Rev. Floy Tompkins, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, on Sunday night.

LAMON REASSURES RIVERTON BOARD

Palmyra's Chairman on Faculty Says Supervisor is Being Carefully Considered

In response to the letter sent to the Palmyra Board of Education from the Riverton Board last month, stating that Riverton was keenly interested in the selection of a supervising principal for the Palmyra schools, Walter D. Lamon, chairman of the Palmyra Committee on School Faculty, addressed a letter to the Riverton Board which was read at the meeting of that body Monday night of this week.

Mr. Lamon stated that the importance of selecting a supervisor was fully realized, and that the matter had been given very careful consideration. He believed Palmyra's choice would be mutually satisfactory.

Bids on Coal

Three bids were received for coal: R. McAllister, of Camden, $12.75 per ton; H. B. Williams, Palmyra, $12.33 per ton, less 2% in ten days; J. B. Collins and Son, Inc., Riverton, $12.34, less 50 cents per ton in ten days. The bids were referred to the Business Committee for action.

Mr. Hemphill, chairman of the Business Committee, reported that he had sent out requests for bids on a list of school supplies for next year, but as yet no replies had been received.

Mrs. Blair submitted the report of the school nurse, stating that in the dental clinic 32 children had been examined and corrections made in 23. There will be one more dental clinic before the close of school.

Toxin-anti-toxin treatments were administered to fifty children by the school physician.

Mr. Hemphill read a letter from Miss Mabel Gardner, of Moorestown, accepting a position as teacher in the Riverton School for next year.

It was decided to present books for attendance at a general assembly of the school instead of at the commencement exercises, as heretofore. Mrs. Mayfield, president of the Board, will make the presentation.

Fifty dollars was appropriated for commencement exercise expense.

The chairman appointed Messrs. Barclay, Steele and Hemphill as a Committee on School Information. The standing committees have been reduced to four on recommendation of the New Jersey State Department of Education. The personnel of these committees is as follows:

Committee on Education—Katherine C. Blair, chairman; Earl Shrader and Richard Barclay.

NINE ARE FINED FOR LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

Judge Rigg Assesses $2.45 For Illegal Dispensing of Anti-Volstead Concoctions

Nine Burlington county persons guilty of liquor offenses were fined aggregate of $2475 in county court at Mount Holly Thursday of last week. Only one of the offenders, Andrew Nemchick, of Burlington, received a jail sentence. He was sent to the county prison for six months on charge of sale of liquor, and fined $100 each on charges of maintaining a house where liquor is sold and possession.

Other fines meted out by Judge Rigg were as follows: Andrew Lisiewski, proprietor of the East End Hotel, Riverside, $250 for maintaining a house where liquor is sold; Frank T. Strecher, Riverside, $75 for possession; Samuel Vennell, Pemberton, $250 for maintaining a house; Clara Parker, Mount Holly, $500 for maintaining a house; Katherine Borowski, Burlington, $100 each on charges of maintaining a house and possession; Mary Salkowski, Riverside, mother of six children, $500 fine and probation for one year on charges of maintaining a house and possession; and Charles Lanning, Burlington, $100 each on charges of maintaining a house and possession.

STATE FUNDS TO AID IN PIKE WORK

Commitment Allots Additional $35,000 on Moorestown-Mount Holly Project

Director of County Roads Charles R. Stout, of the Board of Freeholders, and County Road Supervisor Lewis MacFarland, succeeded in securing an additional allotment of $35,000 from the State Highway Commission last week for the purpose of widening the Marne Highway, commonly known as Mount Holly pike, between Mount Holly and the Borton's Landing Road, Moorestown. The improvement will connect at the Mount Holly end with the pavement at Clementon, which extends the entire width of the road, and similarly join the wider pavement at Moorestown.

While it has not been definitely decided by Director Stout and his associates whether the present eighteen-foot asphalt-surfaced road shall be increased to a total width of 36 or 28 feet, it is practically assured that the strip to be laid by the County Road Department is to be either six or eight feet. Work will start on this much needed improvement as soon as the widening of Camden avenue, from the Forks of the Road, Moorestown, to the Camden County line, is finished below Maple Shade.

Operations for widening certain of the bridges on the road also have started, the new steel girders already being on the spot. The cost of this bridge work, which is to be defrayed out of State moneys received by the County, is such an involved figure in the allotment of $35,000 obtained by Director Stout and Supervisor MacFarland.

The improvement to this much traveled road is one of the important operations to be undertaken by the County this year. It is much needed, both because of the badly worn surface condition of the road at this time and by reason of the ever increasing traffic strain imposed upon it, especially during the summer season when the shore travel is heaviest.

TURKEY FIELD DAY WILL BE ANNUAL JERSEY EVENT

That New Jersey will hold an annual turkey field day now seems assured through the recent organization of a permanent committee to make arrangements for such an event.

Saturday, November 1, already has been chosen as the date for the 1930 turkey field day, scheduled for the farm of Samuel Lippincott, Marlton. At that time turkey authorities from New Jersey and other States will appear on the program, which will be planned to stimulate and maintain interest in New Jersey's fast-growing turkey industry.

Edward Douglas, Monmouth County agricultural agent, is chairman of the Turkey Committee. Other members include Samuel Lippincott, Marlton, and Charles S. Thompson, Burlington County agricultural agent.

COLUMBUS SCHOOL TO BE ENLARGED AT COST OF $81,000

THREE INJURED IN TWO CRASHES

Delanco Couple Seriously Hurt in Collision Near Beverly Thursday Night

One of five occupants of a car being driven on the Burlington pike near Fairview, last Thursday night was seriously injured when the steering mechanism went wrong and the car crashed into a pole.

The car, an Essex sedan, owned and driven by Steven Tattar, of Clifton, N. J., was badly damaged and had to be towed to a garage.

Mrs. Tattar's throat was severely lacerated and it was thought at first that her jugular vein was severed.

There were two children and an adult in the car with Mr. and Mrs. Tattar, but they were not hurt.

Samuel Edwards, of Beverly, took the injured woman to the Zabrugga Hospital in Riverside. Trooper McGee, of Delanco, investigated the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goldsborough, of Delanco, were both badly cut and bruised when their car collided with another at the Coopersown Cross Road, on the Burlington pike, near Beverly, last Thursday.

Both Goldsboroughs and his wife were taken to the Zabrugga Hospital in Riverside. He was released Sunday, but Mrs. Goldsborough will remain there for a few days.

Henry Maxwell, of Haddon Heights, driver of the other car, escaped without injuries.

Trooper Drosdick investigated the accident, but made no arrests, as there were no charges made.

On Decoration Day August Sherman, of Beverly, with two friends, William Hatcher, also of Beverly, and Thomas Gilbert, of Riverside, went hunting for snapping turtles along the Rancocas Creek near Centerton. Hatcher and Gilbert started home, but upon looking back when they had reached the road, the men discovered that Sherman was not with them.

After searching the swampy for their companion the men called the State Police. Troopers McGee and Rohrer were detailed on the case and after exploring the lowlands found their man at home getting dressed to go out. He had gone home by a different route.

Miller Simone, 13, of Beverly, was struck by a car as he was riding his bicycle along the Rancocas road last Saturday. The lad was taken to the Burlington County Hospital and is being held there for observation.

No arrest was made as no complaint was entered against the driver of the car, John Bensall, of Rancocas.

Troopers Turnbull and Drosdick investigated the accident.

Merrill Johns, colored, of Palmyra, was arrested by Troopers Turnbull and Drosdick last Saturday for reckless driving. Justice Fichter fined him $5 and costs.

John Johns was also taken before Justice Perkins, of Delanco, and held under $250 bail for further hearing on a charge of adultery.

RIVERTON YOUTH TAKES THE AIR

Three Year Old Jimmy Hamlin Sees Montclair From Plane

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin spent the weekend with Mrs. Hamlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Karins, of Montclair, New Jersey.

One of the features of their visit was a trip to the airport of the Curtiss-Wright Company at Caldwell, New Jersey. On arriving there, they sensed the opportunity of seeing Montclair from the air in the company of their son, Jimmy, who is not yet three years old, anxiously awaited their safe return, when he too decided he would like to get a bird's view of Montclair from the air in the company of his aunt, Miss Betty Karins, of Montclair, who also made the flight, and it was without saying that Jimmy bribed the pilot, as he was taken for a longer ride than his parents, out of which he got a "big kick," evidenced by his delight and enthusiasm, coupled with the fact that he made immediate demand on his daddy for an airplane, and it was without saying that Jimmy is going to have trouble keeping Jimmy's feet on the ground. However, he compromised with him for the time being by providing him with an Amos 'n' Andy taxi cab, and Master Jimmy journeyed back to Riverton seemingly well pleased with his visit to Montclair.

NO ONE HURT AS TRUCK OVERTURNS

Ten Riverton Men Escape Injury When Water Company Machine Is Struck at Palmyra

Lawrence Joyce, 403 Howard street, Riverton, driver of a Riverton-Palmyra Water Company truck, and his father, who was a passenger in the machine, escaped with only minor injuries when the car was overturned at Broad street and Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, about eight o'clock Monday morning.

The truck was going north on Cinnaminson avenue when a car driven by Mrs. Ella F. Ellis, Delanco, struck its rear wheels causing it to overturn.

Much concern was felt for the occupants of the truck, whom witnesses saw were severely hurt, until they crawled out of the wreckage unhurt. Mrs. Ellis' car was damaged so badly that it had to be towed away. The overturned truck was taken to Fortnum's garage.

Both parties were insured to cover their damage, and no arrests were made.

563 ENJOY AIR TRIPS AT AERO CLUB, 1C POUND

Memorial Weekend Bargain Offer Wins Enthusiastic Response

MANY GO UP FOR THEIR FIRST TIME

Emmor Roberts Helps Erdman in Piloting Rush of Passengers

Moorestown, in fact all of Burlington County, became air-minded, air-conscious, yes, air-enthusiastic, as the Burlington County Aero Club carried 563 passengers in its planes over Memorial Day weekend.

And, of course, there was a real reason for the unprecedented interest in aviation. The club volunteered to carry passengers on Friday, Saturday and Sunday for a cent-a-pound, the minimum charge being $1.00.

This scale is a big reduction over the ordinary passenger flying rate of $3.00, and the people showed their appreciation by taking advantage of the unique offer in record numbers.

Sunday 308 passengers were carried, and every afternoon during the three-day period found a large number of people on the airport grounds, Hartford-Westfield road, near Moorestown, either waiting for their turn in the planes or watching their friends enjoy a hop.

Lieutenant H. H. Longaker, field manager, who took an active part in the work of handling the crowds, reports that it was the first hop for 85 per cent. of the persons who took advantage of the low-cost flying offer. "It was great. I wish we could have gone farther!" was the exclamation of virtually everyone upon leaving the planes, reports the lieutenant.

"Scotch" Passengers
One of the most humorous incidents of the weekend was when two young men, with "Scotch" ideas, doffed their coats and vests while being weighed to ascertain the charge.

The passengers came from all over South Jersey and Philadelphia, says Mr. Longaker. Rich, poor, young and old, lean and stout persons helped to make up the crowds. Some offered large notes in payment for their rides, while kiddies and some older folk who are not overly endowed with worldly means, offered small change, evidently savings, to pay for their first airplane rides. The ages of the passengers ranged from two to seventy years and a 220-pound woman was reported as having been the heaviest person carried. A group of nurses from Cooper Hospital, Camden, made up one of the parties that visited the field and enjoyed hops.

Former 8th Senior Emmor Roberts, past president of the club, who several months ago obtained his transport airplane pilot's license, aided the club's chief pilot, "Jim" Erdman, in handling the rush of passengers. The two pilots kept both of the club's planes busy over the weekend.

The club, at its first meeting with the new president, Lieutenant C. Victor Williams, presiding, voted, in the Moorestown Community House Monday evening, to reduce the passenger flying rate from $3.00 to $2.00 a person. The club officials decided that the weekend rush clearly demonstrated that the people wish to take airplane hops, but did not feel that they can afford to fly under the old rate, and that has been the reason for the recent lull in the club's passenger hopping business.

Takes Over S. J. Club
The South Jersey Aviation Club, which has been operating at Camden for the past six years, became a part of the Burlington County Aero Club on Monday evening, the South Jersey unit formally passing out of existence and all members automatically becoming affiliated with the local group.

The club also voted, as a special inducement to enroll more women student fliers, to reduce the rate fifty per cent., offering twenty instruction and solo flying hours to girls and women for $250. Just one-half of the regular commercial rate. This offer, of course, is for a limited time only.

The club officials are now working out a series of air tours to the various towns in the County and it is expected that zones and charges will be made public in the near future.

In addition to the naming of Lieutenant Longaker as field manager, the appointments of Emmor Roberts and James Reynolds, as the Membership Committee, and Frank Johnson and A. R. Linton, as the Publicity Committee, were confirmed at Monday night's meeting.

A statement issued by Chief Pilot "Jim" Erdman follows:
"We wish to express our deep appreciation to the various people and agencies who helped to make a success of the activities over the past weekend. Although some of them were not seen on the field, they did their share, and the Airport management is deeply grateful to the following:
"Moorestown Steam Laundry; J. E. Carlson, Emmor Roberts, R. D. Cole, Walter L. Bowen, Harry E. Middleton, Jr., Rowan Robinson Criterion Theatre and The Moorestown News."

Katie Downs

Katie Downs, 83 years old, died at Haverford, Pa., on Thursday of last week.

Funeral services were conducted from the old home of Dr. Pusey Wilson, now occupied by Dr. Howard Lippincott, on Monday afternoon, in the manner of Friends. Interment was made in the Wilson lot in Colestown cemetery.

Miss Downs had been nurse in the Wilson family for nearly 60 years.

Giant Air Liner Coming to County Airport

Here is the giant Ford tri-motored all-metal monoplane that will visit the Burlington County Aero Club's Airport at Moorestown over the weekend. It will arrive at the airport next Saturday afternoon and from then on until Sunday evening residents of this section will have an opportunity to make flights in the luxurious 12 passenger cabin plane. The plane's visit to Moorestown is being sponsored by Lester S. Fortnum, local Ford dealer.

BIG PLANE HERE THIS WEEKEND

Will Make Trips to Valley Forge With Ray Loomis at the "Stick"

A Ford tri-motored plane will visit Moorestown Airport next Saturday and Sunday under the auspices of the Fortnum Ford agencies of Palmyra and Bridgeboro.

Sight-seeing trips covering twenty-five to thirty-five miles will be made at a cost of $5.00 each for anyone who wishes to take the trip. Special trips to Valley Forge will be made at a rate of $8.00 each. Tickets should be purchased in advance for the Valley Forge trips as the plane has room for but twelve each time. Tickets may be purchased from either of the Fortnum branches or on the field.

The big plane will be piloted by Ray Loomis, World's Champion "Safe Pilot." He has flown thousands of hours without so much as a minor accident and is rated as one of the best pilots in the United States by aviation authorities.

Dimensions of Plane
The Ford Tri-Motored Transport Monoplane, standing more than 12 feet high, with a wing spread of 74 feet and a length of 50 feet, presents an imposing sight on the field. The complete plane, with its 600 horsepower of engines, weighs but a little more than a limousine and yet twenty tons of sand can be supported by the wings as a test load without breaking them down. Duralumin, an alloy of metals, principally aluminum, has been used throughout its construction.

The reason for multi-engine equipment is so obvious that it needs no comment other than to stress the fact that safety is the most important factor in the development of commercial aviation. The question, "What will happen if the engine stops?" has always been on the public mind. Should one engine stop while the plane is in flight with full load, the plane would continue its flight. Should two of the engines stop, the glide of the plane would be extended sufficient to make a safe landing.

Naturally, a three-engine plane carries no greater load than it can climb on two engines. The loads for the Ford plane can be carried with two engines, the third being an insurance policy against forced landing. Of course, all three engines are running at once; however, they are throttled down, except at the take-off. There is a feeling of real security in starting across country with multiple power that cannot be doubted. And running the engines at reduced speed minimizes vibration and lengthens the period between engine over-hauls.

Hydraulic Brakes
The landing wheels on the Ford plane are set wide apart and located just under the side engines, so that maximum control can be had on the ground and in side wind landings. The wheels are also fitted with hydraulically operated brakes so that both wheels can be locked when "running in" the engines or warming them up; one or both wheels can be released for steering on the ground, in taxi work or landing. Without a crew to assist, the big plane can turn around in its own length on the ground, and taxi alone in furious side winds, a thing impossible with previous aircraft.

The shocks are taken by compression rubber discs of a type developed after almost a year of experimentation. Recoil mechanism is incorporated to take all rebound, so that the plane makes contact with the ground softly and with no bounds, even in misjudged landings.

Dual Control
Ford planes are always fitted with dual side-by-side control. This is arranged with an aisle between the two seats which are up forward just to the rear of the front engine—but out in front of the wing, so that vision is clear both up and back.

Passengers can walk about in the plane in the air or up forward to look out. The cabin is ventilated with aiding glass windows, and with a very effective heating system for cold weather or high altitudes. Gasoline tanks are located in the wings, away from the engines, and are fully protected against damage and leakage.

This Ford plane has a high speed of 114 miles per hour, but its usual cruising speed is 95 miles per hour. With present fuel tanks holding 235 gallons, it has a cruising radius of 570 miles, or about six hours' flying time. The weight of the plane itself is 6,100 pounds and it can carry a load of 3,000 pounds. The plane has seats for twelve persons besides the pilot and assistant pilot, and is equipped with baggage storage space and toilet.

Three Wright Whirlwind Motors of the same type as that with which Col. Lindbergh flew across the Atlantic, are standard equipment for this Ford Plane. Each of these motors has 230 horsepower.

FORT MOVEMENT GAINS HEADWAY

Many Prominent County Leaders Back Congressman for Senator

The campaign for Franklin W. Fort, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, is rapidly gaining headway in Burlington County.

Immediately after Mr. Fort's announcement of his candidacy, which followed upon the heels of Mr. Morrow's declaration for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry, of Edgewater Park, State Committeewoman from Burlington County, and George N. Wimer, of Palmyra, State Committeeman, decided they could no longer support Morrow and declared for Fort.

Other prominent political leaders of the County have also joined the Fort movement, which is rapidly developing into a completely organized campaign.

Sheriff Roscoe C. Shinn and County Clerk Lawrence Mingin have thrown their support to Mr. Fort. Both are political leaders of much strength throughout the County. A. Single Haines, former Sheriff, and long an influential figure in Burlington County politics, is likewise active in the Fort organization.

Judge Harold B. Wells, of Bordentown, although his judicial position prevents him from taking an active part in County politics, is known to be deeply interested in the success of the Fort campaign.

Freeholder William H. Heister and former State Senator Emmor Roberts are also known to be sympathetic with the movement.

The churches throughout the County, as well as in the whole State of New Jersey, are almost solid for Congressman Fort.

The Baird Republican organization of South Jersey, with headquarters in Camden and Atlantic City, is backing Dwight W. Morrow for Senator. Following Senator Baird's lead in Burlington County are State Senator Clifford R. Powell and Freeholder Charles R. Stout.

ton, and one in Brainard Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly.

The speakers will be Hon. Franklin W. Fort (in person), Mrs. Miriam Lee Early Lippincott and Hon. Emmor Roberts. All three speakers will address both meetings.

The public is invited.

FORT MEETINGS MONDAY, JUNE 9

Will be Held in Burlington and Mount Holly; Fort at Both Places

Under the slogan of "Fort For Enforcement" the Burlington County League for Observance and Enforcement of Law has arranged for two Fort-for-Senator mass meetings Monday, June 9th at 8.15 p. m.—one in Wilbur Watts High School, Burlington,

Joseph J. Scott, 71 years old, a former resident of Moorestown, died at the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital, Camden, Friday night, following an illness of only a few days. His death was caused by a diabetic condition.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. Frederick B. Morley, were held from the home of his son, Harvey M. Scott, Monday afternoon, with William Grobler as the funeral director in charge. Interment was made in Colestown cemetery.

Besides his son Harvey, Mr. Scott is survived by Lester Scott.

ASSOCIATION TO WAR ON BEETLE

Improvement Body Will Open Crusade Against Pest Next Week

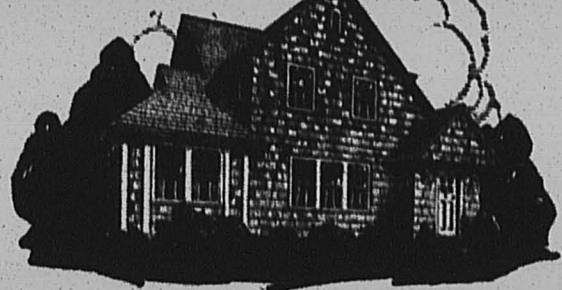

Next week the Moorestown Improvement Association will start its annual crusade against the Japanese Beetle by spraying all the susceptible street trees in town, and in order that everyone who has trees or shrubs they want immunized against the ravages of the beetle, the association, in a statement, asks that all requests be placed in the hands of the secretary, W. E. Parker, of 413 Kenilworth avenue, without further delay.

In accordance with its usual custom, the association has offered to spray on various properties in Moorestown and will charge on a cost basis, making the work much cheaper than can be done by commercial firms.

The statement continues: "Once a year the Improvement Association requests aid in carrying on its good work. Every one interested is cordially invited to become a member. We do not ask for a definite subscription, although the payment of $1.00 enrolls you as a member."

"We hope that everyone will support us as generously as possible. There are very few interested in Moorestown who do not gain from the Association's work, either through spraying, clean-up days, planting, or other activities. If this work is appreciated, send your share to A. W. Luce, 336 Newbold avenue, so that this work may be again carried on next year."

Modernize Your Home

New Floors OVER OLD

The thing that makes an old home look "down at the heels" more than anything else is the old, worn floor. Openings between strips have developed into hiding places for dust and dirt. Nothing will make your home more convincingly new than bright, beautiful floors of oak.

Bright polished oak floors are kept fresh and clean with a minimum amount of effort. Simply go over the floor with a light dust mop, taking up all dust, and it brings the satiny sheen back again.

Let us tell you about the new CROMAR factory finished OAK FLOORING Laid and used the same day.

Protect Your Garments from Mould in a Clean, Fragrant Ceda-Line Closet

You can have a cedar-lined closet at very little expense. It takes but a few hours to put in fragrant Tennessee red cedar over the old unsightly plaster. Then hang furs and fine garments the year round, conveniently accessible at all times.

Every garment within reach when wanted. No more packing and creasing in awkward chests. CEDA-LINE is within reach of your purse and telephone. Just give us the closet dimensions. We'll tell you the price installed.

EPISCOPAL

Rev. G. J. McCormack

Every true advance to fuller understanding is a manifestation of God's Holy Spirit.

White Sunday this year marks the nineteenth hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Christian Church and shows a marvelous advance in the understanding of God's purpose with His people.

We admit all the failures, but cannot forget that this society started with only one, and now numbers over five hundred million, an inconceivable advance.

Where there are failures let each member of the Church ask how much of a failure have I been myself? And then resolve to do better.

Let us at this time joyfully render thanks for all the manifestations of the Holy Spirit; and take the greatest pride in the organization. Every other society pales into insignificance besides this order founded by Christ and ended with His Holy Spirit.

There will be a corporate communion of the different societies at the half-past ten o'clock service. We hope you will make every effort to be present.

A rummage sale by the St. Agnes Guild will be held Saturday morning in the vacant store adjoining the Fire House, Phone Mrs. B. S. Torbett, Riverton 548-R. Sidney Headington

"KONJOLA WENT TO SOURCE OF MY AILMENTS"

Brooklyn Man Freed of Stomach Trouble and Nervousness
by Modern Medicine

MR. SAUL S. FRIEDMAN

"My stomach was so disordered that no matter what I ate, the food caused distress," said Mr. Saul S. Friedman, 888 Hopkinson Avenue, Brooklyn. "Gas formed and often my stomach pained me. Soon my nerves became affected and I always felt tired and worn out. I was in a badly rundown condition. After I started the second bottle of Konjola I noticed a wonderful change, for this medicine went to the source of my ailments. My indigestion was restored and my nerves were quieted. I eat, sleep and feel wonderful. I can hardly realize that there was ever anything wrong with me. I am glad to endorse this medicine that made me feel normal again."

It is logical, sensible, to believe that what Konjola has done for others, it will do for you—for everyone.
Konjola is sold in Riverton at L. L. Kestling's store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

FIRST LUTHERAN

Rev. Harold L. Creager, Pastor

In the celebration of the Pentecostal anniversary, attention is being directed both to Pentecost as the "Birthday of the Church," and to the gift of the Holy Spirit upon that day. In some circles there seems to be major stress laid on the Church; but important as the Church is, there can be no doubt that the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in hearts and lives is far more important. The focusing of attention on the commemoration of the great day of Pentecost should lead to a larger experience of spiritual religion and a larger practice of complete Christianity both in the church and in all of life. Let next Sunday be truly a high and holy day, deeply significant to every follower of Christ, and finely productive of worthy and abiding results. Our worship and sermons at both services will be directed to this end.

At the meeting of the Luther League last Sunday evening, an interesting discussion on the subject of "Leadership" was developed, and will be continued at the meeting next Sunday evening.

The midweek prayer service on Wednesday evening is continuing to offer rich privileges of spiritual fellowship and inquiry into the messages of the Word of God. In just a few more weeks these meetings will be discontinued for the summer months. The weighty words of Paul's Letter to the Ephesians are worthy the study of everyone.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival this Saturday afternoon and evening on the Church Lawn. Tickets are 15 cents. Cakes will also be on sale. The patronage of the public is solicited.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

GOD THE ONLY CAUSE AND CREATOR will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 8, 1930.

The Golden Text is: "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone." (Psalms 86: 9, 10). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created" (Revelation 4: 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God creates all forms of reality. His thoughts are spiritual realities" (p. 512).

THE DEADLY AUTOMOBILE

The cost to the people of the United States of automobile accidents in 1929 was more than $850,000,000, according to the chairman of the traffic accident statistics of the National Street and Highway Safety Conference. Mr. J. H. Parmalee, whose authority we quote, states that 33,060 persons were killed in motor accidents last year, an increase of 8 percent over 1928 and nearly double the number of deaths from that cause in 1920. And so far in 1930 the rate of fatalities is increasing.

These fatal motor accidents are not a peculiarity of any particular section or of any class or size of community. On the whole, there are fewer of them in the large cities than in the country districts, in proportion to population. The temptation to careless driving when out of sight of a traffic policeman, with no signal lights to be obeyed, is much greater than in crowded traffic, as every motorist knows.

Statistics compiled by the Nebraska State Press Association for 1929 show that in all that state, where population is less concentrated than in almost all of the rest of the states and there are only two or three really large population centers, there were 368 motor fatalities last year, besides 128 persons disabled, in 3,636 automobile accidents.

Every victim of a motor accident is a victim of somebody's carelessness. Out of the total number of accidents in Nebraska last year by far the most were collisions between two cars. There is never any possible reason for a collision except carelessness on the part of one driver or both. Sixty-three of the dead in Nebraska were pedestrians, struck by cars. Thirty-nine deaths were of motorists trying to beat a train across a railroad crossing. Twenty-six were killed while speeding. Twenty-four died in skidding accidents. Twelve deaths resulted from trying to pass another car, without swinging wide enough. Blinding headlights forced 127 cars off the road, killing ten persons. Twelve were killed by reckless driving.

The remedy for this increasing toll of death on the highway is partly in improving the roads, eliminating blind curves and dangerous crossings, but mainly in a closer supervision of licenses to drivers. Today in a few states children, mental incompetents, cripples and irresponsible persons are forbidden to endanger the lives of others by driving cars. In most states, however, anybody may commit manslaughter by this means without restraint.

SIX YEARS FOR $500

A few days ago the Mississippi house of representative voted an appropriation of $500 to Moses Walker, a negro who had been pardoned after serving six years in the penitentiary. He had been convicted on charges of shooting into a white man's home and sentenced to life imprisonment.

On his death-bed the white man confessed that he had "framed" the negro because of a grudge, had shot the hole in his own house to substantiate the false charge, and that the negro was entirely innocent of the crime.

It is difficult to understand how anyone could deliberately swear away the liberty of an innocent person merely through spite, but in many cases not only liberty but life itself has been sworn away. That in this case the real criminal's conscience troubled him is evident. At least it began to trouble him when death stared him in the face.

The $500 voted by the state is better than nothing, but it is poor recompense for six years of unjust imprisonment. Persons wrongfully imprisoned, when such wrongful imprisonment can be proved, should be entitled to substantial damages by law, and the severest penalties should be imposed on those who are responsible for willfully bringing about the conviction of innocent citizens, white or black.

HEALTH FAD SKEPTICS

The subject of how to live long is always of interest, which perhaps accounts for the eagerness of the average mortal to seize upon various methods which are recommended for promoting health and longevity, such as doing daily exercises to radio music and the like.

In spite of all the propaganda on the subject, however, there are many who are skeptical regarding the real benefits of strenuous physical activity. One of these wrote a letter to a newspaper, pointing out that Walter Camp, famed athlete and originator of the "daily dozen," died at 65, while he, the writer, had never taken any kind of exercise to speak of and was still in excellent health, although a great-grandfather. He added that "the longest-lived people are the physically lazy but mentally alert."

Commenting on the letter, a well-known editor, declares that several years ago he adopted a vigorous health program, including vegetarianism, cold baths and the daily dozen, with this result: "Acute indigestion led to the abandonment of vegetarianism on doctor's orders. Another doctor recommended discontinuance of cold baths. The daily dozen are still pursued, but faith in them has been shaken by the untimely death of their inventor."

Still, we may find many who swear by the health fads and feel that their lives have been saved thereby. As the proverb has it, "What is food for some is black poison to others."

That New York author who has moved to France because he says America isn't a fit place to live since prohibition can be added to the list of people who never will be missed.

Uncle Si Tinklepaugh says he don't mind people tellin' lies about him but if they ever start tellin' the truth it's goin' to make him pretty sore.

BANKS

A. P. Giannini told a Congressional committee the other day that branch banking would "eventually supersede the present system of independent local banks in the United States, as it has done in Canada and largely in England. Small villages, he said, cannot support a bank with sufficient resources to meet the growing industrial needs of small towns.

Mr. Giannini is probably right. There are good-sized cities in the United States whose progress has been held back by lack of adequate local banking capital and by the narrow outlook of local bankers. The prejudice against "chain" ownership of any kind of business extends to banks as well as to stores, but as in the case of chain stores, the remedy is in the hands of the community. Independent banks, like retailers, can compete with "chain" institutions if they will adopt the modern methods of the chains and provide themselves with sufficient resources to make competition effective.

CRIPPLES

One of the things which we are beginning to learn is that the worst thing we can do for a person who has been disabled by disease or accident is to coddle him or her, and the best thing that can be done is to train the remaining faculties to useful work.

The Veterans' Bureau has finished its rehabilitation work with men who were injured in the World War, and reports that every man who is capable of any sort of productive effort is now at work somewhere. But the Federal Government is co-operating with the States to provide the same sort of rehabilitation training for victims of industrial accidents and of crippling diseases like infantile paralysis. Only a few States are giving co-operation, but in those successful results have been achieved. Leaving out the benefit to society by not having to support the cripple in idleness, there is a definite value to the injured person in the discovery that he is still able to earn a living.

WASHINGTON

The National Capital is rapidly becoming the most beautiful city in America, one of the most beautiful cities of the world. I first went to Washington as a boy, nearly fifty years ago, and have seen it grow from a mudhole ornamented in spots with beautiful structures and monuments, into something which now begins to resemble the harmonious, stately design of the great Frenchman, Major L'Enfant, whom George Washington employed to lay out the city named after himself.

Just now there is being spent in Washington on public buildings and grounds, more money than the like, a total of $314,250,000.

Washington was planned to face East and South from the Capitol and the White House respectively. Real estate speculators of the 1790's bought up the desirable lots and held them at such high prices that the city grew North and West instead and new front had to be put on the White House and the Capitol, the back doors of which faced the city as it is now.

LOWDOWN

Victor V. Green runs what he calls "The Most Low-Down Paper on Earth." Its title is the Coachella Valley Submarine and it is published at Coachella, Riverside County, California, 76 feet below sea level.

Editor Green has a sense of humor, as is evidenced by the sub-title of his paper. He also has a sense of responsibility to his thriving agricultural community, as the local news in the "Submarine" clearly shows.

There are other valleys in California the bottoms of which are even farther below the level of the Pacific Ocean than this one. They are beds of ancient lakes which were once bays of the ocean before some prehistoric earthquake raised the land between them and the sea.

Old ocean beds make good farms everywhere. Holland's farms are almost entirely on reclaimed sea-bottom, and another 300,000 acres of ocean has just been diked off and is being pumped out to add to the agricultural area. Much of Florida's best land has only lately been reclaimed and now a project is on foot to irrigate the Sahara desert and make it the world's garden spot.

Pyrethrum has promise as mosquito repellent
Pyrethrum insect power is the most promising of more than 80 chemicals tested for their mosquito-repelling properties by the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. This was reported by Dr. Willem Rudolfs, of the station, who spent the last four summers searching for a repellent, non-irritating to man, which would make the mosquito give up her biting habits.

STUPIDITY

Customs officials in Seattle recently seized 120 copies of a German medical book, imported by a Seattle dealer for sale to the medical men of the Northwest. The ground for the seizure was that the contents of the book were "indecent." The book is a learned treatise on biology, which word is merely a technical term meaning "life."

Life, apparently, is indecent, in the eyes of the United States Customs. But human life only. Nobody tries to suppress books which deal with the breeding of livestock, dogs or poultry. Only when a book suggests that the life processes of human beings are similar to those of other animals do well-meaning but stupid officials interfere.

felt by himself and his fellow-citizens for the heroic sacrifices made by the sons of Riverton as he unveiled the plaque, which will have its place beside a similar one for Palmyra's soldier dead in the Legion Home.

The names appearing on the Riverton Plaque are: Raymond T. McGivney, Charles J. Kelly, Walter Kennedy, Raymond Pratt and James A. Bradley. The names on the Palmyra Memorial are: Frederick M. Rodgers, E. Harrison Morhman, Royden R. Hubbs and Harry J. Doughty.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor George N. Wimer, who later accepted a flag presented by the Boy Scout Council's Association for the Borough of Palmyra. Ralph Rivers made the presentation on behalf of the Association.

Civil War Veteran
The flag was given over to the keeping of the Scouts and will be unfurled each morning by them on the Palmyra flagpole.

Mayor Wimer introduced the only surviving veteran of the Civil War now living in the community, Frank Bates. Mr. Bates was given a fine ovation as he acknowledged the introduction. He celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday Monday.

Another feature of the program in the Grove was the recitation of Butcher's immortal Gettysburg Address by Wesley Hemphill, a student of the Palmyra High School.

The address of the day was made by the Rev. George J. McCormack, rector of Christ Church, Palmyra. The Rev. Mr. McCormack's address was appropriate to the day and served to call to the thought of his hearers the sacredness of the sacrifices made by those who have given all that we may live and enjoy peace.

Arrangements for the day were ably managed by Post Commander C. Thomas, Master of Ceremonies, and W. Rex McCrosson, Chairman of the American Legion National Executive Committee.

WE CAN'T FIGHT CHANGE

When I was a small boy in the country we had a good old neighbor named Daniel Roe, who owned a cranberry meadow. He brought the water for flooding his meadow through a deep ditch from a lake about a quarter a mile away.

Half of every summer of his life he spent digging out the dirt and stones which had fallen into that ditch.

We kids used to go over and watch him dig. There was a big stone by the side of the ditch which was shaped roughly like an arm chair. There he would sit with his pipe, and smoke his pipe. We called the stone Mr. Roe's chair.

In fullness of time he died. His son sold the meadow, and it was abandoned. My father bought the ditch, most of which ran through our woods, and every summer we fill a little piece of it up with junk and garbage and cover it over with dirt. Last summer I walked through the woods and stopped at Mr. Roe's chair. Already the ditch is half destroyed. In five years more it will be gone.

All his sweat and strain and back-ache for nothing. No trace of his life work left!

In a New York club I talked with an eminent architect, who said that the glorious days had vanished from his profession. The architects of Greece and Rome left monuments that are eternal. The modern architect has no such hope. He himself had designed three houses in New York so magnificent that he expected them to carry his name to future generations. All three have been torn down to make way for apartment buildings.

I talked with a clergyman who had recently visited a city parish where he had labored successfully thirty years ago. That portion of the city has now become a slum. The old families have scattered to the suburbs. The church is closed. "What is left," he exclaimed sadly, "to show for all my labor?"

I told him that people are left—the sons and daughters of the men and women to whom his sermons were preached.

"Your hearers trained their children in righteousness," I said, "and they will train their children."

We can't fight change, and it is well that we can't. How dull life would be if everything were permanent. How wonderful that each new generation has the fun of taking the

Endorsed for Renomination to Office of Freeholder

The two candidates for Freeholder who have the joint endorsement of both leading factions of the Republican party in Burlington County are Howard Russ, of Delanco, and Lloyd Wright, of Medford.

Both men are experienced in the position to which they aspire, as they are already Freeholders and have served many years in that capacity.

Freeholder Russ, who is chairman of the Board, has an unbroken record of twenty-eight years in public office and is dean of all the County Officials.

Surely such a long political life can only be the result of public confidence gained by loyal and honest service.

Resident of Delanco
Mr. Russ is a farmer and has one of the most attractive and efficient farms in Burlington County.

He has been a resident of this County since he was one year old and has lived in the same house in Delanco for more than half a century. Entering politics in 1908, Mr. Russ has spent much of the time since in County office, chiefly as member of the Board of Freeholders, where he has served in various capacities. At present he is the Board's director of Public Buildings, a position of great responsibility, enabling supervision of the County Almshouse, Insane Hospital, Tuberculosis Hospital, jail, and court house, and other County buildings.

Consistent to the last detail, with keen desire to serve well his County and the taxpayers, Mr. Russ is held in high esteem, and it is believed that he will have no difficulty in winning renomination in an appreciative County.

Mr. Russ is also interested in education and is president of the Board of Education at Delanco.

Elected in 1918
J. Lloyd Wright was born, reared, and educated in Medford Township. Elected to the office of Freeholder for 1918 and 1919, Mr. Wright served as chairman of the Board, Commission, having a prominent part in the adoption and building of a progressive road program.

Re-elected in 1920, he held the office of Freeholder until 1928, when he was not a candidate for re-election and William H. Heisler, Jr., took his place. Three years ago Mr. Wright was a candidate for his old office and was elected in a memorable campaign.

As a member of the Board of Freeholders he has held the responsible posts of Director of Finance, Director of Bridges, and Director of Public Affairs.

Trap-shooting and hunting are his favorite sports. In 1924 he was the State champion trap shooter, and now and then he gets up into Canada for some big game hunting. He has headed the Medford Buck Run Club since its inception several years ago.

MOORESTOWN MAN CORONER CANDIDATE

John C. Belton, 2nd, Who Held Office 1924 to 1927, Seeking Republican Nomination

John C. Belton, 2nd, prominent Moorestown man, who was Coroner from 1924 to 1927, is again running for that office and will seek the nomination in the Republican primaries on Tuesday, June 17.

Mr. Belton, who has a wide circle of friends throughout the County, is basing his campaign on the record he made while serving the County. During the three years in office he handled a large number of cases in an expert manner and those who were connected with him officially during that time are well pleased to have him run again.

"Qualified, experienced and efficient" is the slogan being used by the Moorestonian in his campaign, and his remarks at various candidates' meetings indicate he will live up to these qualifications.

Mr. Belton has been elected Republican County Committeeman from his voting district in Moorestown for the past nine years and has long been active in the affairs of his party.

WOMAN'S CLUB CLOSES SEASON

Splendid Growth Marks Second Year of Organizations' Activities

Monday afternoon marked the last meeting of the year for the Woman's Club of Palmyra and it was celebrated by a covered dish luncheon. Seventy-five members were present.

Mrs. Edwin Day was hostess in charge and was assisted by Mrs. Harry Williams and Mrs. Secher. The enrollment of the club at the close of the second year reached one hundred and twenty. This is most gratifying to those who worked so tirelessly in organizing the club. The membership is unlimited and it is hoped that the organization will continue to grow yearly.

The program and year book is being completed now for the coming year's activities and the president, Mrs. Roland Dunn, and the chairman of the various departments are working very hard to bring new interest into the program.

There will be continued events of interest during the coming months in the form of progressive card parties and teas given at the homes of members. Mrs. Voorhis will be the first hostess at bridge and Mrs. William McCamy at five hundred.

The junior members of the P. W. C. entertained with character and living pictures. ## IN THE RADIO STUDIOS

With Albert Zugsmith, Jr.

DID YOU KNOW—

That William S. (Bill) Paley, president of the Columbia Broadcasting company, the largest single chain of radio stations in the world, is but 29 years old?

That Mary Lewis, European grand opera star, who broadcasts during the Atwater-Kent Hour, started in her musical career in a Texas church choir; joined the Greenwich Village Follies; the Ziegfeld's Follies and finally became the prima donna of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company?

That Floyd Gibbons, the NBC Headline Hunter, was a passenger on the ill-fated Laconia, whose sinking by a German submarine precipitated the entrance of the United States into the World War? His 4,000 word cable report of the sinking startled the nation into action.

That Nick Kenny said if the American Radiator had a theme song it probably would be a steam song? Bing on that calloope!

Once a star of the first magnitude, her name blazed in Broadway's brightest lights.

She retained some of the dignity with which once she used to grace the nation's greatest stages when she approached the telephone girl on the thirteenth floor of the National Broadcasting building.

"May I see the president of the company, please?" she asked. He was out of the city. The visitor went down the line learning that the vice-president, the general manager, and so on were not available at that hour.

Silent for a moment, she spoke again this time in a rather wistful and hesitant tone. "I wonder—do you suppose—they could find me a job—something like you're doing?"

Ten years ago, Tommy Christian, now 28, whose orchestra broadcasts over the WABC chain, met his fate. While flying over Georgia, his plane went into a tailspin over a large plantation. Tommy plunged out in a parachute, landed in a pigsty so tangled up in "chute cords" that he would have been trampled upon by the indignant porkers if it had not been for the timely arrival of a ravishing brunette. A few days later the brunette was so flustered that she was saying "positively" instead of "I do" and the minister made them take the wedding ceremony over again.

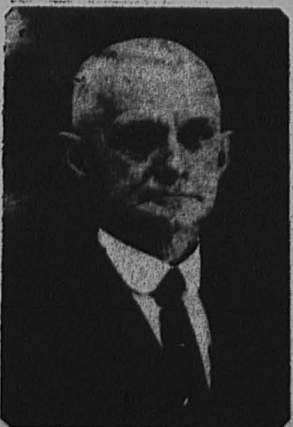

American sport fans had the opportunity to listen in on an account of one of England's football classics, recently, for the first time in the history of radio. The Cup final of the British Football Association was described by the English commentator in much the same rapid, enthusiastic manner as our own McNamee. His accent and rugby football terms may have puzzled the listener over here, but his expressions, "Hurl it," "lashing it up the field," "kills it," and "nooks it" delighted many of the fans.

Lillian Russell once ordered from Mme. Roza Binner the most expensive corset ever made. It had diamond buckles and diamond studded garters. The price was $39,000. Mme. Binner broadcasts during the Home-Makers Hour of the CBS. Not only does she tell of Lillian Russell, but also of the late Empress of Austria, Queen Mary of England, Anna Held, the Vanderbills, all of whom she helped to "form" when wasp-like waists were the fashion.

International Sunday School Lesson Study for June 8
JESUS IN THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

Three things are to be in mind in preparing the lesson study for this week. Two days are being observed. One is Children's Day and the lesson will probably be omitted in the Schools but will be followed as usual by the members of the Home Department, and to them special greetings are extended. Second, the entire series of incidents covering all day Thursday should be followed. Begin with the journey from Bethany for the last time. The Passover was observed in the upper room in Jerusalem, and there are numerous incidents there for meditation. The room used probably belonged to Mary, and her son, John Mark, was the man bearing the pitcher of water who became the guide of those who went in advance to prepare the feast. Note how the disciples avoided the washing of feet an dithis was attended to by Jesus. Judas was given a last opportunity of repenting, but he left before the Lord's supper was instituted. Then there is the wondrous table talk as recorded in John 14-15-16, and followed by the truly called Lord's Prayer in chapter 17.

Thirdly, this very day marks the 1900th anniversary of the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, and the whole Christian Church has been teaching and preaching with reference to this Day for months past. Every experience of the Holy Spirit can be repeated and renewed. The statement is as true as ever, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit," said the Lord of hosts." Zechariah 4:6. The disciples waited in prayer for ten days in that upper room in Jerusalem. Then Peter preached with spiritual power and the record of 3,000 conversions is found in Acts 2.

On the way from the Upper Room in Jerusalem, on that moonlight night, Jesus sought to tell the disciples that awful times for all were close at hand. The crucifixion was again declared, but they were likewise advised of the resurrection. We always have abundant promises in advance of great calamity so that we can be strengthened meanwhile by the assurance of hope.

Peter was over bold in declaring that nothing could check his loyalty, but he failed repeatedly, before the day dawned. First was the experience in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus went for a special season of personal prayer. He invited Peter, James and John to be near in friendly companionship. All three fell asleep three times while Jesus was in the midst of His agony in a deep part of the Garden. The real crisis was met by our Saviour in His lonely vigil rather than when He was helpless in the hands of the soldiers on the way to or on the cross. Our greatest victories are also wrought out when we are alone and fight our way through to a conclusion of "I will" or "I will not," as the case may be.

Jesus was not trying to avoid the cross, but rather was concerned lest He fall physically before the work of Atonement could be completed. Jesus' attitude in prayer must be ours also if we make our petitions safe ones for our own good. In boldness of faith and with full confidence in His Heavenly Father, He said, "Not my will, but Thine be done." One of the most impressive paintings in the whole realm of Christian art is "Christ in Gethsemane," by Hofmann. This should be part of the wall adornment in every Sunday School. Copies can be purchased from a few cents up to as many dollars. In calmness of perfect faith Jesus came for the third time to the sleeping trio and said, "Arise, let us be going; behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me." He had indeed taken man's low place and voluntarily was advancing to pay the penalty for the sins of the world.

GELATINE

Gelatin is one of the housewife's best friends in warm weather. Desserts made with gelatin have a distinct appeal to warm-weather appetites. One day when a hot roast would destroy the over-heated appetite, a jellied meat loaf is tempting and delicious.

Jellied salads, too, are a completely satisfactory mainstay at luncheon in summer.

And the best of all these gelatin dishes is that they can be varied for every day in the week, and still you won't have tried them all.

Lemon jelly is a good foundation for many desserts. You can make it with fresh fruit juice according to the directions that come with any box of gelatin, or you can make it with one of the ready-prepared fruit gelatin mixtures. Then vary it as you wish.

If your family don't like the flavor of lemon jelly, then try something else—raspberry, orange, cherry or any other favorite flavor.

For one always good dessert pre-

Let it harden completely, and then put in the moulds diced orange pulp, pour on the rest of the gelatin, harden, and serve. Individual moulds of any fruit jelly are delicious served with whipped cream or with boiled custard. Or, if you wish, with crushed and slightly sweetened fruit. Orange jelly, for instance, is good served with crushed strawberries, lemon jelly is delicious with raspberries.

Palmyra High School nine is now out of the race for the County championship owing to two defeats administered by Moorestown during the past week.

Palmyra was in a position to win in the regular schedule, but was unfortunate in losing to the Quakers last Thursday and were then in a four-cornered tie for the championship.

The "Pals" played Moorestown again Monday to decide the tie and lost by a score of 6 to 3.

Entering the seventh inning Palmyra held a 3-2 lead over the Quakers when Voeith started the fireworks by working Coles for a pass. Frank Bolton also maintained a solid stance at the plate and drew a walk. Morrison then grounded out, but Bauer sent a screeching double to left center that admitted both Voeith and Bolton. Later Bauer scored the third and Coles walked. Both Moorestown collected its sixth run in the eighth inning, just doubling Palmyra's score.

Thursday's game at Palmyra was a thrilling pitchers' battle between Chassio, of Moorestown, and Micucci, of Palmyra.

Neither team was able to score during the first three innings of play. Palmyra tallied one in the fourth, and the Quakers tied the count in the fifth. The hosts went ahead again in the next frame, but Moorestown again tied it up by sending a runner over the plate in the seventh. Both scored in the tenth, and the visitors came through with the deciding marker soon after the twelfth got under way.

Baker led the "Pals" to the plate in the tenth and connected with a triple, the long distance hit of the game. Kelly's sacrifice sent him home. Chassio batted first for Moorestown during the last half of the frame, and was placed on first by an error in right field. He stole second and third and scored on Wilson's sacrifice. Both teams were blanked in the eleventh. Powers led the batters for Moorestown in the final stanza, and singled. Chassio walked, and Wilson singled. Burk's liner, also good for one base, scored Powers, and the battle was over.

NEW BOULEVARD NOW OPEN FOR BRIDGE TRAFFIC

Mile Long Auto Parade Follows
Ceremonies Opening Another

REMINGTON IS SPEAKER;
SNOVER CUTS CORD

Program Sponsored by Business
Men's Association; Band Concert

Bridge Boulevard, a new route from the center of Palmyra to the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge, was opened by a parade under the auspices of the Palmyra Business Men's Association last Thursday night.

Most every business in Palmyra was represented and there were scores of private cars. The line of parade was over a mile in length.

Brief ceremonies were held at the junction of the boulevard and the Bridge Plaza. The new highway was turned over to the Borough by J. C. Remington, of Remington, Vauxbury and Goff, engineers.

Mr. Remington told of the many difficulties which had to be overcome by the town officials in order to make the fine new boulevard a reality. It was first necessary to secure the necessary property without cost, as no provision was made for purchase of ground.

The contract was awarded to Eugene F. Verga, he being the lowest of several bidders, at a special meeting of Council March 12. Work was started soon thereafter with the hope of having the road finished for Memorial Day, which at that time seemed hardly likely.

Accepts for Borough
The concrete was laid under the supervision of the State Highway and Borough Engineers. Mr. Remington complimented the contractor for his co-operation with the authorities.

Mayor George N. Wimer accepted the new boulevard for the Borough of Palmyra and in turn called upon Councilman Frank A. Snover, chairman of the Roads and Streets Committee, to sever the cord and officially open the road to traffic.

The Mayor pointed out how the route then being opened was the one originally proposed by the Council and recommended as the temporary outlet for bridge traffic instead of the Hill road approach now being used. He mentioned the fact that Bridge Boulevard was opened and ready for traffic two months after the contract was let, while the main route will not be opened until next year, or probably longer.

After the boulevard was opened the parade formed with a police escort leading. An American flag was carried in an open roadster by George MacCord and Philip Collins. The Mayor and Council of Palmyra and Riverton were next, followed by the Lyric Concert Band, of Camden. Bridge officials and guests were next in line.

The parade proceeded along Cinnaminson Avenue to Broad street to Riverton and return. Following this it disbanded and the band played several selections along Broad street and then gave a concert in the Grove, which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

The business men along Broad street, Palmyra, had their windows decorated for the occasion and much favorable comment was heard concerning the demonstration.

The new boulevard demonstrated its usefulness over the past weekend, when it served to lessen the stress of traffic along Market street, and especially at the railroad crossing at Hillton road.

The Palmyra police directed traffic at several important points, the entire force putting in a long day. An officer was stationed south of the Cuthbert road to direct incoming traffic to continue on Cinnaminson Avenue and use the new road.

According to Chief C. Morris Beck traffic was heavier than on any day since the opening of the bridge and was handled without confusion. No accidents of any kind were reported.

Seither — Tallman

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized last evening when Miss Beatrice V. Tallman, daughter of Mrs. Florence E. Tallman, of Columbia, became the bride of Albert B. Seither, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Seither, of 712 Morgan Avenue, Palmyra.

Laurel and rambler roses combined with green formed a very attractive setting. Mrs. Edith G. Feeney, of Elk's Park, was a lovely creation, played the wedding march.

The Rev. George Lockett, of the Central Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride's oldest brother, Franklin Lyman Tallman, gave her in marriage, and she was attended by Esther M. Griffiths, of Woodbury, and Mrs. Grace Erickson, the former Anne Seither, sister of the bridegroom, of Palmyra; Jean P. Mervine, of Palmyra, served as best man, and George Erickson, also of Palmyra, as usher.

The bride wore a lovely creation of white chiffon tulle, and the attendants wore attractive frocks of crepe chiffon. All the gowns were made with long, tight-fitting bodices and full skirts all but touching the floor, with the bridesmaids' frocks featuring a cape effect.

The bride wore a bandeau of tulle and carried white roses, sweet peas and orchids. The maid of honor was attired in a pink frock and carried a bouquet of blue siphonium, pink snapdragons and yellow daisies. The bridesmaid, who wore a blue gown, carried a similar bouquet.

After a reception, which was attended by more than one hundred guests, Mr. Seither and his bride left for a motor trip to Canada and on their return will make their home in Palmyra.

RIVERTON BOARD

file, chairman; Harry Rutherford and S. L. Warren.

Business Committee—F. P. Hemphill, chairman; George Steedle and S. L. Warren.

Committee on Research—Ross Mat- tis, chairman; Harry Rutherford and Katherine C. Blair.

In making these appointments Mrs. Mayfield said, "In line with modern school practice and to carry out the policies and recommendations of the N. J. State Department of Education, I am appointing four standing committees which are essential to the most efficient operation of the Board and the best interests of the school."

These committees are as follows: Committee on Education, Property Committee, Business Committee and Committee on Research. The functions of these committees are to investigate, confer, and report their recommendations directly to the Board as a whole.

"The Committee on Education will consider the recommendations of the Superintendent of Instruction in all educational matters."

"The duties of the Property Committee are to supervise the yearly maintenance and general care of the school buildings and grounds."

"The Business Committee attends to all matters of finance, the ordering of supplies, and, in brief, all business matters of the school."

"In view of the fact that the old eight-four system is rapidly passing, and the State Department has advised a consolidation with Palmyra and Cinnaminson Township with a view to building a Junior High School, it has seemed wise to create a Committee for Research and Investigation which will study the Junior High School system and look thoroughly into the matter of the six-year High School, as furthered by some authorities."

"Under the usual parliamentary practice the president is a member, ex-officio, of all committees."

Pupils May Select High School
George D. Steedle offered a motion that the Board go on record as approving of children attending either Palmyra or Moorestown High Schools as their parents might elect.

This motion was amended by Mr. Hemphill to read as follows, "Resolved, That an applicant for a High School course may attend any High School he or she may select, tuition to be paid by this Board of Education, providing same does not exceed tuition paid to the Palmyra Board of Education, and all transportation be paid by said applicant."

The motion was amended with no dissenting vote.

Commencement exercises will be held on June 11th and school will reopen in the fall on September 8th.

Miss Chew's Report
The highest percentage of attendance was in Grade 8, 99.5%, and next highest in Grade 6, 99.3%.

There was no tardiness in Grades 4A, 6, 7A, and 8.

General health conditions were excellent during the month, as shown by the attendance. Eighteen children were sent to the Medical Inspector for examination as to fitness to attend school.

Dental work is being continued. Diphtheria prevention has been given to all children whose parents so requested by signing the blank sent to the homes.

The Summer Round-Up has been conducted by the P. T. A. and examination made by Dr. Rogers and the School Nurses. Blanks have also been filled out by two of the local physicians, in cases where parents chose to have examinations made by their family physicians, which shows a fine spirit of co-operation in getting the children ready for entering school for the first time in September.

The month's program has been toward closing the year's work. The Field Day exercises, a program of which, together with the names of the winners in the athletic events, I have attached to this report, worked off very successfully, and closed one part of our Physical Education work. I hereby express my thanks to the members of the Board of Education, and to those parents and friends of the school who co-operated to make the occasion one of enjoyment and success.

NEW SUPERVISOR

ent Board of Education there were interviewed, as well as two members who were on the Board at the time but are not at present. Several citizens and other school officials were visited and all were high in praise of their former supervisor.

Want Him to Return
The Board members were unanimous in their desire to have Mr. Dengler return, but were unable to interest him on account of salary considerations. The school system there is somewhat smaller than Palmyra, having an enrollment of some 900 students. Palmyra has about 1,300.

Mr. Dengler feels that since Schick-shinny is a coal mining town and has little chance of growth, he should look for a larger field. It was largely this consideration which influenced him in giving up his position there and returning to college to prepare himself for a better position.

The new supervisor is 39 years of age, married, and has two children, a boy and a girl.

At the meeting Thursday two teachers tendered their resignations, Mrs. Ruth T. Martin and Miss Violet Lippincott. Neither expects to teach during the coming year.

Miss Mary B. Eagan was appointed to succeed Miss Mary E. Patterson as teaching principal of the grammar school. Miss Patterson expects to retire after this term. When it was later found that Miss Patterson had not as yet submitted her resignation officially the action in appointing her successor was rescinded. This was done merely as a matter of form and will again be taken up at the next meeting of the Board.

Letter from Riverton
A motion was made by Walter D. Lamon and seconded by F. L. Durgin that Professor Eckert be granted as much time off as he might wish to look for another position. The motion was approved without dissent.

A letter from the Riverton Board, stating that they were "vitaly interested" in the selection of a new supervisor, was read; also the reply, as follows:

Your letter of May 5th, 1930, was referred to our Educational Committee.

We are mindful that your Board is vitally interested in the selection of a Supervising Principal for the Palmyra School.

Realizing the importance of the duties placed upon us, we have worked diligently on this matter and feel confident that our selection will prove beneficial to our mutual interests.

Letter of Appreciation
A letter of appreciation was received from the secretary of the graduating class of the High School thanking the Board for its contribution of $50 towards commencement exercises.

Following the reports of the committees, President Charles W. Davis asked if anyone present would care to say anything. Ralph Rivers expressed his appreciation of the work of Miss Patterson, who is about to retire, and told of the deep appreciation of the community for her work through her years as teacher in the Palmyra schools.

George B. Clover spoke along the same lines and suggested that a set of resolutions be drawn up and presented to Miss Patterson. It was explained that this was the intention of the Board, but that action would have to be deferred until the next meeting, when she would be officially placed on the retired list.

MAINES ROBBED
Sometime over the weekend the office of Stewart L. Maines and Sons, 315 Chester Avenue, Moorestown, was robbed of more than $100.00 in cash. It is thought that entrance to the building, which is the temporary office of both The Moorestown News and Maines, was made through a small window in the rear of the building.

When the office was opened Monday morning the theft was quite apparent. Desks and filing cabinets in both offices had been left open and showed a thorough ransacking, although nothing but the cash was taken.

P. S. TRIES DIESEL ENGINE
A Public Service bus, equipped with a Diesel engine, using fuel oil instead of gasoline, has just completed a satisfactory trip from Newark to French Lick, Indiana, a distance of 990 miles, in four days. The route chosen necessitated the crossing of the mountains of Pennsylvania.

BEETLE TO ARRIVE IN NEXT TEN DAYS

Investigations Indicate Pest Will Appear on Schedule Time
This Year

"The Japanese beetle will make its appearance on schedule time this year. In about another ten days the beetle will begin to emerge from its winter quarters and within three weeks it will be quite plentiful," reports Loren B. Smith, Principal Entomologist, at the Japanese Beetle Laboratory, Moorestown.

In an interview Mr. Smith stated, "Our investigators have been out in the fields during the last few days and they find that the beetle is almost ready to come out of the ground and start work on the foliage of shade trees and ornamentals. It will take a few more warm days, possibly by June 15, to bring the beetle out in numbers."

"It will not be for another ten days after that time, however, before they will become plentiful, but by that time they will be out in full force. The beetle has wintered over in the ground and despite the changeable weather has made a steady development that will bring him out about the same time as last year."

Spraying Necessary
In reply to a question relative to how severe an infestation we can expect this season, Mr. Smith said, "It is impossible to determine how serious the beetles may become this year, but we do know that there will be enough beetles to warrant every property owner to spray his fruit and shade trees and ornamentals. If he wishes to protect the foliage from injury."

"While in some sections we do not expect the beetle to be any more numerous than in other years, yet the property owners must not neglect to properly spray their plants. In some other sections of New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania, we do have every reason to believe that the beetle may be more destructive this season than in the past. It is in these newer infested towns that the property owners must pay close attention to the spraying in order to save their trees and plants from injury."

"There are no sections of the Japanese beetle territory where spraying has been carried out in the past where the residents can afford not to spray this season, even though there must be fewer beetles this summer than last season," declared Mr. Smith.

Newer Regions Vital
"It is these newer regions where the greatest concern over the proper spraying must be observed," continued Mr. Smith, "because they have never had the beetle in very large numbers and do not realize the necessity of careful protection of their plants and shade trees."

"The beetle territory will be about 6 miles wider this year than last season. In many places the beetles have spread out five miles, while in other sections it has spread but little. It now appears that the outside line of the heavily infested region will extend in a 40-mile circle from the Camden Bridge. It will include Trenton, Lawrenceville, New Egypt, Cratsworth, Homington, Vineland, Bridgeton, Deerfield, Woodstown and Pennsboro in New Jersey; Wilmington, Delaware; and Eastern Pennsylvania as far west as Coatesville, Phoenixville, Doylestown and across to Trenton."

Few Changes in Spraying
"The beetle infestation will be heavier in some localities than in others, depending on the infestation last season, but if the property owners in these sections do not protect their trees and ornamentals from injury they should cover the foliage with the sprays that have been found satisfactory by the experts here at the Laboratory," warned Mr. Smith.

Very few changes have been made in the spraying recommendations for 1930, according to the latest bulletin published by the Laboratory. The feeding period of the beetle will be from June 25 to August 30. For protection of the foliage, plants and trees should be sprayed before June 25, as it is almost impossible to get ahead of the beetle after it once appears in large numbers.

The lead oleate-coated arsenate of lead, 2 pounds to 25 gallons of water, is again recommended for non-fruiting trees and plants, while on commercial plantings of fruits and berries, special sprays have been worked out that will permit the harvesting of the crops with the least amount of trouble. Home owners having fruiting trees and berries should write the Japanese Beetle Laboratory for a chart of the recommendations for the various fruits grown in this section, or to the Japanese Beetle Suppression Office, Trenton. Commercial orchardists are instructed to get in touch with their County agents for spray information.

OLD GLORY TO FLOAT AT COUNTY HOSPITAL
P. O. S. of A. Will Present Banner and Fine Steel Pole on Flag Day

Presentation of an American flag and a fine sectional steel flag pole is to be made to the Burlington County Hospital by the Burlington County Association of the Patriotic Order Incidental to the bestowal of the gift Sons of America, and the exercises will take place on Flag Day, June 14.

A committee representing the fraternal societies sponsoring the presentation is arranging the program, which will center about the flag raising and will include a parade in which it is expected there will be fully 1,500 marchers in line.

President Hoover has signed the bill providing $500,000 for completing the restoration of the famous frigate Constitution, known as "Old Ironsides."

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vois and daughter, Lorraine, of Fox Chase, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruppert.

PLANE TALKS

By LI. H. H. LONGAKER
Founder, Burlington County
Aero Club

Wow! What a busy week-end we had at the Moorestown Airport. Five hundred and sixty three people took advantage of the bargain flying rates offered by the Burlington County Aero Club. All previous records were broken. We flew over three hundred passengers on Sunday. Ninety-five percent were taking their first flight.

Here is some real fresh news. Amelia Earhart has just announced an express passenger service between New York, Philadelphia and Washington to be inaugurated August 15th. Planes will leave every hour on the hour from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. The flying time will be two and a half hours and the cost will be about the same as the railroad fare plus the Pullman rate. We consider this announcement one of the most important the East has ever received.

And here is another announcement of interest to the folks hereabouts. Effective immediately the charge for passenger flights at the Moorestown Airport has been reduced from $3 to $2 per passenger. After our experience of this past week-end, we have decided that the only reason more people were not flying was because of the cost. So we have made this reduction to make flying within the reach of everybody.

The attraction at the Moorestown Airport this coming Saturday and Sunday will be the Ford tri-motor. A special trip will be made Sunday morning to Valley Forge and return. This flight will take about one hour and the extremely low price of $8 per passenger has been set. Phone the Airport and make your reservation now.

This Thursday afternoon officials of the Burlington County Aero Club will take over the entire assembly period at Pensauken Township Junior High School and talk on aviation to the 800 pupils and fifty teachers. Lieutenant C. Victor Williams will talk on "Lighter than air," Emmor Roberts topic will be "Private Flying." Pilot Jim Erdman will speak on "Airplanes Construction and operation" and Lieutenant H. H. Longaker will talk on "Safety of flying and Airports."

Shaw — Hawkey

Miss Frances Randolph Hawkey, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. George R. Hawkey, of York street, Burlington, and Matthew Arnold Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Shaw, of Worcester, Mass., were married in the Presbyterian Manse, Burlington, Thursday morning of last week, at eleven o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Lukens, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Simply marked the nuptials.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Joseph Hoffman as matron of honor, and Kenneth Howe, of Worcester, Mass., was best man to the bridegroom. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left immediately afterward for a wedding trip through New England. They will make their home in Burlington or Moorestown. Mr. Shaw is the Commissioner of the Burlington County Boy Scouts. He has made many friends since he came to this County.

The bride also is popular in a wide circle of friends. She was chosen to represent Burlington at the Woodward Chamber of Commerce party year before last.

EMMOR ROBERTS SUPPORTS FORT

Former State Senator Calls Morrow New Jersey's Wet Opportunity

By EMMOR ROBERTS
Former State Senator from Burlington County

I am too much interested in the cause of prohibition to be able to support Mr. Morrow for U. S. Senator when a man of the principles and ability and experience of Franklin Fort is running.

Mr. Morrow favors the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. He would like to repeal it and offer the liquor problem to the States where it was before the Eighteenth Amendment was passed. His announcement has made his rallying point for the Wets. Morrow is New Jersey's Wet Opportunity. His standing gives a degree of respectability to the wet cause.

His victory would be a great wet victory and would give great impetus to their determination to nominate a wet Republican for President in 1932.

No matter how dry the voter, nor how sincere the intention, a vote for Morrow is a WET vote. It will be so interpreted in New Jersey and in the United States, because the effect of Mr. Morrow's pronouncement has reached national proportions.

Mr. Fort comes from an old Burlington County family of Pemberton. This has already sent two Franklin Forts to the New Jersey Governor. Although a comparatively new man in Congress he was the leader and spokesman of the administration forces against the McNary-Haugen Bill. In his veto of the bill, Mr. Coolidge quoted Mr. Fort. After Hoover's inauguration and calling of the Special Session for Farm Relief, Mr. Fort was again the leader and spokesman for the Administration in the passage of the Farm Relief Act.

He is a strong Hoover man, was for Hoover for President in 1928, and was the Hoover forces in Committee and their spokesman on the floor of the Republican National Convention that nominated Hoover in 1928, and Secretary of the Republican National Convention.

It is unfair to say that Mr. Fort is nominated he cannot be elected. Mr. Fort is running on Mr. Hoover's dry platform, opposing the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. Mr. Fort has run for Congress in the wet Congressional District of Newark on a dry platform for three successive terms and won and led his ticket each time. He has never been defeated.

It is not fair to Mr. Morrow's friends and supporters to assume that they will not loyally support the Republican nominee at the General Election.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE HELD IN RIVERTON

Girls' Friendly Society Convened at Christ Church Saturday; Riverton Entertains

A very delightful time was had by all who attended the annual conference of the Girls' Friendly Society at Christ Church, Riverton, Saturday, June 7.

The event opened with a service in the church in charge of Rev. A. S. Lewis, after which the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Perot, who called on each branch secretary for a five minute report of the activities of their branch during the past year. This was very interesting and helpful to all. The missionary offering was sent to Porto Rico to further the WPS work there.

Lunch was served in the Parish House at noon, after which the children played games and the secretaries held a business session.

The Riverton branch then presented a little musical sketch entitled the "Candy Shop." Each child taking part was fittingly costumed to represent a certain candy.

The program was as follows: Shopkeeper, Helen Reeh; Little Girl, Doris Muller; Miss Sue, Florence Gorman; Lollipop Lou, Marion Hansplant; Candy Cane, Kathryn Schneider; and Dorothy Brown; Dinah Fudge, Mildred Cook; Molasses Taffy, Eileen Mattie; Sea Foam Candy, Marie Zimmerman; Peppermint Sticks, Eleanor Friday; Margaret Wolfshmidt, Marylyn Burr; Anna Sue Wolfshmidt, Irene Kirshaw; Mildred Lowden, Agnes Weber; Doris Steedle, Flora Brouse; Betty Bowers, Jerry Metzger; Margaret Smith, Marjorie Cole; Miriam Gorman, Carlette Seemiller; Ellen Smith, Jane Wolfshmidt and Helen Vile.

The conference brings to a close the Girls' Friendly Society meetings until autumn.

CORRECTION

An obituary appearing in this paper last week stated that Joseph J. Scott, of Moorestown, was survived by two sons, Harvey and Lester, but failed to mention that he left a widow, Almada.

The dog show which is being given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Walton, on the Moorestown-Riverton road, will take place from 3 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 14.

This show is to stimulate interest in the Tail Waggers' Club of America, and local support will be very much appreciated. The show should be an interesting one, especially the tail wagging contest.

Prizes will be awarded for the handsomest dog, the most popular dog, the cleverest dog, and the dog who can wag his tail the fastest.

The spectators will be the Tail Waggers' Club of America (the infant sister, but she will grow) of the Tail Waggers' Club of London.

Captain H. C. Hubbs, the Tail Waggers-in-Chief, and founder of the London Club, prepared the first outlines of the scheme in August, 1928, and worked out all the details. So successfully has the movement been carried forward that now it has members in all parts of the world.

Mrs. Daisy Miller, whose voice is known to hundreds of thousands of radio fans throughout the country, through her talks on dogs, is secretary of the American branch, which was started at the end of last year.

The club always has before it the ideal of a service for dogs and dog owners, which will lack nothing on the score of completeness. The club is non-commercial and non-profit making. All proceeds surplus to management will be devoted to dog welfare.

The London organization has already turned over a fund of 20,000 pounds to the Royal Veterinary College for use in work for dog welfare.

When the American branch has grown a little larger and has a surplus, it is the intention to ask club members to help fund a fund for research on a cure for some of our obscure dog diseases.

Shall we organize a free clinic for the pups of the poor in our cities, or aid those already formed?

Shall we organize shelters where needed, or aid those already in existence?

Shall we turn over a pro rata share to our S. P. C. A's?

In England the club has become very popular and has many members among celebrities and royalty, and it bids fair to be as popular here.

One of the first American members was Fountain Fox, of Toonerville Trolley fame—he is No. 23—he wrote when joining, "After reading your prospectus and more especially the club's motto: 'Fresh, clean water always, right, honest, healthy, comfortable, exercise daily, kindness invariably; I have decided that I don't want to join for my dog; I'd like to join for myself.'"

Many celebrated American dogs have joined and a number of memberships have been enrolled in memory of some loved dog who has gone.

Late Monday afternoon a five-month-old baby was found in the Delaware River, at Beverly, by John Hunt and Llewellyn Baty, both of Beverly.

Hunt and Baty were out on the river in a boat and they noticed a can floating around. They picked the can up and took it to Officer Bud Stevenson, of Beverly. Just before the boys found the can they saw two motor launches come out of the Neshaminy Creek, circle around and then dash back up the creek. It is thought perhaps these boats had something to do with putting the child in the river.

Coroner William Young was notified and also the County Detectives' office.

EDITORIAL

Have the Courage of Your Convictions and VOTE FOR FORT

Thrown into a state closely bordering on consternation by the entry of the Hon. Franklin W. Fort into the contest for United States Senator, "wet" Republicans are offering some queer arguments why Fort should be defeated.

One of them is that to quote from an editorial in The New York Herald-Tribune recently issued in circular form and distributed in Riverton and Palmyra: "The decision of the Prohibitionists to have their own candidates for both the long and short terms would split the dry vote and make more certain the election of Alexander Simpson, winning-wet Democrat, in case Mr. Fort should win the Republican nomination in the primaries. How any reasonable dry can, with any conscience, make himself party to such a result is hard to understand."

Why do they fear a "winning-wet" Democrat more than a wet Republican?

What could be a "wetter" gesture than the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment?

What have the "friends of temperance" to hope for from a return to a legalized traffic in intoxicating liquors under ANY form of regulation?

As a matter of fact, Franklin W. Fort is the only true-blue Republican in the race on the Republican Primary ticket!

The Republican Party in National Convention in Kansas City in 1928 pledged support of the Eighteenth Amendment as a matter of principle. Now New Jersey Republicans have put up wet candidates as a matter of political expediency!

Is it any wonder that the fearless stand of Mr. Fort in defense of the platform of the Republican Party and the Eighteenth Amendment should be met with glad acclaim by men and women who were loyal to the pledges of their party and to the Constitution of the United States?

Is it any wonder these loyal Republicans resented the attempt to force upon them the poor choice of deciding between two candidates pledged to repudiate the promises of their party, and to treat the Constitution as a "scrap of paper?"

As to Mr. Fort's capacity and ability to fill the great office he seeks, there is no question. Even his opponents do not claim that.

You need have no fear that Fort will fall short in doing his bit toward steering the Ship of State.

Men of the kind of courage shown by Mr. Fort, and of his unquestioned ability, are needed in Washington.

If you believe party pledges are made to be kept, and that the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land, have the courage of your conviction and vote for Fort for United States Senator!

Next Tuesday at the Primary Election the voters of Burlington County will select two members to serve on the Board of Freeholders—one of the most important offices in the County.

Last year the Board spent nearly a million and a half dollars of the taxpayers' money.

Outstanding figures in the race are Howard Russ, of Delanco, and Charles B. Jessup, of Riverton.

Mr. Russ is present Director of the Board and Director of the Department of Public Buildings. He has served the people of Burlington County in the capacity of Freeholder for many years and has always stood for economy in County expenditures.

Mr. Jessup served several terms on the Board of Freeholders some years ago, and was Assessor in Cinnaminson Township for twelve years. He has experience and ability, and is known to be independent in thought and fearless in action.

The final hearing on the Zoning Ordinance by the Riverton Borough Zoning Commission was held in the Riverton Fire House last Friday night.

Two citizens appeared before the commission to secure definitions of some of the provisions of the zoning commission. George D. Steedle wanted to know if it was permissible to install a fire station in the business district, and if he could erect a storage warehouse next to his garage on South Broad street.

He was told that nothing in the zoning ordinance would prevent him from carrying out both projects.

Mr. J. Conington wanted to know if he could build his store front out to line with the Williams and Wright building. He was informed that any building in a block could be built out as far as the majority of buildings in that block.

The next hearing on the zoning ordinance will be called by the Riverton Borough council after the ordinance has officially been presented to them by the commission which will probably be done at the meeting of council to be held tonight.

Confident!

Have the Courage of Your Convictions and VOTE FOR FORT

HON. FRANKLIN W. FORT
Republican candidate for United States Senator.

The swing of Republican voters toward Mr. Fort in the last fortnight has been amazing.

In speaking to large audiences in Burlington and Mount Holly, Monday night, Mr. Fort said:

"When I started this campaign three weeks ago, without preparation, without organization, without finances, without newspapers for it without a promise of support from anybody and in the face of the urging of many of my friends that I should not be a candidate, I expected to be beaten."

As I stand here tonight, buoyed up as any man must be with the marvelous experience of the last few weeks of the volunteered help of hundreds and thousands of Jerseymen and Jerseywomen giving of their time and of their effort to the cause for which I am the spokesman, I not only have lost my fears of defeat, but I am absolutely confident that with the continuance of that work I will be victorious not only on the 17th of June but in November and I will be seated."

Mr. Fort said that he always had been a Republican, that he never had tried to get into office until 1924. "And it is because I am a Republican and sincere with the principles of my party that I am a candidate before you now."

Mr. Fort said he was a delegate from New Jersey to the Republican National convention in Kansas City in 1928, and in common with the solid delegation from New Jersey, he voted for the platform of the party.

Mr. Fort said that he believed in standing by the platform of his party and believes in it. "I am also a Republican who supports the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

"I am the kind of a Republican," declared Mr. Fort, "who believes in standing by the platform of his party and believes in it. I am also a Republican who supports the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

FORT'S VICTORY SEEN BY HOWE

Consternation Reigns in Camps of Other Two Senatorial Candidates

That Franklin W. Fort, Republican candidate for the United States Senatorial nomination can be and will be victorious on Primary Day, June 17, is being freely admitted by groups of backers of both leading opponents, according to Albert E. Howe, campaign manager who, in a statement issued at the Fort headquarters in Newark, said:

"Another period of campaigning has come to an end, and with it has come a series of revelations which make it unnecessary for these headquarters to forecast victory for Mr. Fort on the 17th. Our opponent's backers in all parts of the State are doing that for us."

"This may seem strange, I know, and so it seemed to us when the first evidence of it reached our ears. However, the first rumors have been corroborated quite often during the week and we feel free to pass along the good word."

Mr. Howe said that the "backers of one of Mr. Fort's opponents, whose main strength has been accredited to Essex and some of the more rural counties, are predicting that Primary Day will see a turnout at the polls of approximately 300,000 voters in the 21 counties of the State. They further say that, despite the classification of the State as wet sixty per cent. of these 300,000 voters will vote dry. This total, in round numbers, will be 300,000."

"Whether Mr. Fort will get this entire dry vote they will not say, yet they freely admit that past week developments clearly indicate him as the ultimate recipient of the bulk of the vote. Their next admission is in the form of a prediction that their candidate will poll at least 100,000 votes which, if true, will leave a balance, large in itself, yet not of sufficient number to enable a third candidate to overcome the present odds of 4 to 1."

"From various strongholds of another of Mr. Fort's opponents, we have many rumors that something has gone wrong. What it is we cannot say because we do not know, yet the fact remains that all is not quiet on the candidate Fort's lead. Eastern, Southern and Western fronts. This is evident in the actions of the candidates' workers, whose feelings of scornful indifference and unbridled tolerance have given way to doubt, wonder, amazement and finally dismay at the progress Mr. Fort has made. It is making, will continue to make."

"It is difficult to say whether or not these receding emotions are acting as controls of the tongues of this opposition's workers, but there certainly seems to be a hesitating in their vote. A volume of predictions that their candidate would have a plurality in the thousands. Their present slogan seems to be: 'Our man will have to beat only Fort.'"

An amusing yet highly important subplot is the marked change in the betting on the outcome of this Senatorial race. Up to a week ago the betting fraternities, particularly those of the metropolitan area, were offering odds of 3 to 1 against Mr. Fort. A different picture was had today when, according to information brought to us from authoritative sources, the betting had resolved itself into an even money affair with Mr. Fort as the contestant most feared.

"The brotherhood of the betting world still is offering odds of 4 to 1 that the Democratic Senatorial candidate will defeat either of Mr. Fort's opponents in November, yet they offer no odds on the possible race between Mr. Fort and his Democratic rival. They give as their quoted reason: 'Fort is the strong and the dangerous as a November possibility to warrant the placing of the same odds we are willing to wager on either of his Primary opponents.'"

APPEALATION

I wish to thank the Cinnaminson Township officers for appointing me to fill the vacancy in the Township Committee made vacant by the death of Howard G. Taylor. I am a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed myself in this position and will appreciate it very much if the voters will show the same confidence in me as shown by the township officials.

Signed
JAMES DAVIDSON

SEVENTY-THREE BOYS AND GIRLS TO BID THEIR ALMA MATER FAREWELL TONIGHT AT P. H. S. COMMENCEMENT

Lillie M. Reidenbaker Wins First Honor and Will be Valedictorian

H. FORD CARR WILL ADDRESS GRADUATES

George F. Lee is Salutatorian; Howard C. Shaner to Present Class Banner

Seventy-three boys and girls, members of the Senior class of Palmyra High School, will graduate at the annual commencement exercises to be held in the High School auditorium tonight. Baccalaureate services were held last Sunday afternoon, also in the auditorium.

The class this year, while not as large as in some previous years, has a fine record of accomplishment. The Palmyra High School yearbook, to be published in the history of the institution, made its appearance shortly after the opening of the school year. Its editor-in-chief and several members of the staff were seniors, upon whom devolved the responsibility of the success of the publication, which was very assured by the response of the students, alumni and townspeople.

A bigger and better talent was distributed a few days ago, into which went many hours of planning and labor by the student staff. The result has been well worth while, as the accomplishments of the class are chronicled as a guide to those who follow.

Student Council

The Student Council was established during the past year and has served to foster a better understanding and has been the means of working out many vexing problems in school life.

The baccalaureate services Sunday afternoon presented a very pleasing program to the graduates and their parents, relatives and friends, who availed themselves of the opportunity of being present. The services were opened with an invocation by the Rev. J. William Lee, pastor of the Palmyra Methodist Church. Prayers were read by Rabbi Maurice A. Lazewich, of Emanuel Synagogue, Philadelphia, who substituted for Rabbi J. Mortimer.

The Rev. Father Thomas P. Rudden, of Moorestown, was the first speaker on the program. He took as his subject a thought very closely associated with the World War, "Where Do We Go From Here?" and sketched very clearly the war and terminated with it. He told how a great rebuilding and readjustment in the thoughts of men was now going on since the period ending with the war and underlying in considering "Where Do We Go From Here?" to follow the lead of the eternal truth.

A beautiful selection, "The Green Cathedral," was rendered by the Senior quartette, consisting of Marion Pennington, Elizabeth Hudson, Emma Horn and Marie Zimmerman.

Friendly Advice

The second speaker was the Rev. Mr. Lee, who, in his own inimitable manner, delivered a message full of friendly advice to the graduates. His subject, "A Ladder," was well chosen and served admirably to characterize his talk. He admonished the graduates to choose their leader carefully, making the first rung one of Honor, another of Vision, a third of Enthusiasm and a fourth of the Golden Rule. Rabbi Lazewich pointed out the need of higher education and advised the graduates to go to college if possible, saying that the chief value of a college education was to open one's eyes to the need of greater learning. Among the other thoughts offered were "The truly great person is the one who thinks of others first," "the greatest mission in the world today is the perpetration of peace" and "Study carefully the politics of the day in order to be able to vote intelligently." Mr. Lazewich spoke of America "as the only country which gives the Jew an equal chance."

Splendid Lecturer

The graduation exercises tonight will open at eight o'clock in the High School auditorium. The Rev. H. Ford Carr will be the speaker of the evening. The Rev. Mr. Carr is a lecturer of unusual ability and is deeply interested in the work among young people.

The first honor in the graduating class has been won by Lillie M. Reidenbaker, who will deliver the valedictory address. This honor is the highest reward of four years of high school life and is one striven for by the entire class. Miss Reidenbaker's subject will be "Building a Character." She will also be awarded the first prize, offered by the Palmyra-Riverton Lion's Club, for the Senior essay.

The name of the winner of the second prize will be announced tonight.

The second honor goes to George F. Lee, who will deliver the salutatory oration. His subject will be "An Orchestra Career."

The president of the Senior class, Howard C. Shaner, will be the banner orator. He will present the banner to Wesley L. Hemphill, president of the Junior class.

Class Officers

Other class officers are: Walter J. Fletcher, vice-president; M. Elizabeth Hudson, secretary; Helen E. Trudell, treasurer. The class motto is "Quint non profert, delectat." The class flower is the tulip, and the class colors, maroon and gold.

Pictures of the seventy-three graduates appear on another page of this issue. The program follows:

To Address Graduates

REV. H. FORD CARR who will be the speaker at the Palmyra High School commencement exercises tonight, when a class of seventy-three will be graduated.

Shaner, president of Senior Class; acceptance, Wesley L. Hemphill, president of Junior Class; music, High School Orchestra; valedictory, "Building a Character," First Honor, Lillie M. Reidenbaker; piano solo, Evelyn M. Waller; address, Rev. Harold F. Carr; presentation of diplomas, Mr. Charles W. Davidson, president of Board of Education; class song, Class of 1930; announcements; benediction, Rev. George Lockett.

NEW RATES FOR PENSION BILLS

Veterans of Civil and Spanish War Benefit by Acts

New pension bills have recently been enacted, benefitting the veterans and pensioners of the Civil War and the Spanish War. A resume of these acts follows:

The new Spanish War Veterans' Act provides rates ranging from $20 to $80 per month, according to disability, and $12 per month for those who are helpless or blind, or so near as to require the regular aid and attendance of another person. The $60 and $72 rates do not apply to inmates of National or State Soldiers' Homes.

The new rates for disability are: one-half disability, $20; one-quarter disability, $25; one-half disability, $35; three-quarters disability, $50; total disability, $60; on account of age, 62 years, $30; 68 years, $40; 72 years, $50; 75 years, $60.

There is a new provision granting a pension for 70 days' service, ranging from $12 to $30 per month, according to disability, and $50 for those who are helpless or blind, or so near as to require the regular aid and attendance of another person. One-tenth disability, $12; one-quarter disability, $15; one-half disability, $18; three-quarters disability, $24; total disability, $30; on account of age, 62 years, $12; 68 years, $15; 72 years, $24; 75 years, $30.

The increase of pension, if allowed, under the provisions of this act will not be automatic, but will commence from the date of making application with the Pension Bureau. The elimination of the vicious habits clause and the 70 days' service provision are entirely new legislation for Spanish War veterans. As those now receiving $20 and $25 per month for disability are not benefited by this Act, medical examination to determine present degree of disability must be made.

The Civil War Veterans' and Widows' Act, while it has not at this writing been approved by the President, it is expected that he will sign the Act. Every veteran with 90 days' service who is now on the pension rolls, will receive $75 per month. Those who are helpless or blind are entitled to $100 per month. For those residing in any National State Soldiers' Homes, the rate shall be reduced by $25.

The only change affecting widows is that the $40 rate is allowed when the pensioner reaches the age of 70 years instead of 75. Widows entitled to this increase should write to the Bureau of Pensions giving the exact date and year of birth. No application is necessary to be filed by Veterans already on the pension rolls. Application blanks may be had by applying to the Bureau or to Congressman Bacharach.

HEAR YOUR OWN LANGUAGE

IN BIENOS AIRES

Buenos Aires, Arg. — "Strangers' Hall" has been established in the general post office here, and virtually every spoken language is understood by the postal clerks. Among the first to avail themselves of this new service were two Poles, a German, a Chilean, a Frenchman, a Lithuanian and three Englishmen, none of whom could speak Spanish. All came out beaming with satisfaction.

ICELAND'S CITY OF TENTS

Reykjavik, Iceland.—A city of 27,000 tents is rising on the shore of beautiful Lake Reykjavik to accommodate the hosts of visitors who are expected to attend the celebration of 1,000 years of parliamentary rule for Iceland. The Parliament, or Althing, of Iceland dates back to 930, and is claimed to be the oldest in the world.

NINETY DAYS GIVEN RIVERTON YOUTH

Isaac Cotton Wrecks Truck and Makes Getaway; Palmyra Police Locate Him

Sunday morning, about four o'clock, Isaac Cotton, colored, 34, of Riverton, took a truck belonging to C. A. Snyder, a Palmyra, from Steedle's Garage, and crashed into a Public Service light pole at Seventh and Lipincott avenues, Riverton.

Cotton abandoned the truck and escaped to West Palmyra, where he was picked up by Chief of Police Beck about noon. He was turned over to the Riverton police.

Justice of the Peace Coddington gave Cotton a hearing Monday morning and committed him to the Burlington County Jail for 90 days on a drunk and disorderly charge.

The Riverton Police Department was unable to locate Cotton because they did not know where he "hung out" in West Palmyra.

FIVE FOUR-MILE INMATES ESCAPE

Trooper Rohner Captures Two and Solves Robbery at Pemberton

Five inmates of the New Jersey State Colony for Feeble-Minded, at New Lisbon, escaped from that institution Sunday night.

State and local police were immediately asked to conduct a search for the missing inmates.

Four o'clock Monday afternoon, Trooper Rohner, of the Delaware Barren, noticed two suspicious looking persons walking along the Burlington pike, near Burlington, and stopped to question them. In the course of conversation it was learned that they and three others who had escaped from Four Mile Colony had looted a road stand at two o'clock Monday morning, owned by Tyle White, in South Pemberton, and run by Charles Powell, who was asleep at the place at the time. The inmates did not bother the money in the cash register at the road stand, but confined their efforts to cigars, bananas, cigarettes and candy.

The two prisoners, James Jackson, 16, colored, and Raymond Clegar, 23, white, were returned to the institution by Trooper Rohner after they had given a complete description of the robbery. Trooper Rohner was on the road from eight o'clock Monday morning until late Monday night searching for the men.

Troopers McGee and Broadhead searched swamps, woods and other out-of-the-way places in an effort to locate the missing men.

S. G. Atkinson, an official at the Colony, and Nelson Heckman, employees of the Colony, co-operated with the Delaware County Sheriff in calling the escaped persons. They guarded the Bridgeboro bridge, the Delaware Railroad bridge and also the Delaware bridge on River road.

The inmates still at large are Chester McCahey, 23; Samuel McCahey, 27, and Frank Reel, 23.

Catharine R. Brown

Catharine R. Brown, widow of Charles L. Brown, died at the Friends' Boarding Home, in Moorestown, Friday morning. She was eighty-six years old.

LECTURE SUNDAY BY DR. DELANGE

"Christian Science: The Science of Perfection" Was Subject of Speaker

A lecture on Christian Science was given under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Riverton, at the Broadway Palace Theatre, Palmyra, last Sunday afternoon. The lecturer, Dr. Hendrik Jan de Lange, C.S., of The Hague, Holland, is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.; he was introduced by Martin E. Goldman, Dr. de Lange spoke in part as follows:

Jesus' command, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect," has caused profound perplexity to those who believed in an anthropomorphic God, that is, a God after the human form, and in man's natural and inevitably sinful, finite, and imperfect. As a result of such religious beliefs, perfection or salvation was placed in the future, assigned to a place called heaven, to be attained only after undergoing death. This is wholly contrary to the Master's definite words, "Be ye perfect."

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, came to the conclusion that as a result of God's inevitable and fundamental perfection, man—according to the Bible—God's image and likeness (Gen. 1:26)—was and is essentially the same characteristics of perfection as invested in Deity, and no other. God's perfection necessarily implied man's perfection; consequently, that which was imperfect, sinful, finite, and a part of God's creation, but a finite, material concept about God and man.

Teaches Logical Thought

When this understanding, dawned upon the individual, the new birth in Christian Science begins to take place. The command, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect," is then seen not to be superhuman or impractical or untimely, not a question of future attainment or change of locality, but a question of a change in consciousness, here and now. Christian Science teaches how to change one's consciousness by changing one's concepts—it teaches how to think divinely, and logically. This is fundamental, because existence is wholly, not partially, mental. By entertaining the right concept of man, as God's perfect image and likeness, existence becomes gradually changed, and in accordance with original, divine perfection.

Christian Science reveals that Jesus possessed that divine understanding of the perfection of creation whereby he could heal the sick and save the sinners. The Nazarene has a unique place in history, he has been rightly called Jesus the Christ. Happily, the understanding of the healing Truth, or Christ-understanding, is not confined to Jesus. Everyone may acquire and practice it, in the way Jesus did.

Unfolded Gradually

Christian Science has come to this age as the cumulative development of the Christ-idea, which unfolded itself gradually as human history shows, being the result of the innate desire for perfection inherent in humanity. It is not accidental that Christian Science was discovered in the United States of America, and the Christian Science movement there founded, because the American nation had peculiar characteristics, love of liberty and equality, which made it the natural cradle for this important of all discoveries.

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, received her inspiration from the Bible and taught her followers only to accept "an inspired Word of the Bible" as a sufficient guide to eternal Life (Science and Health, p. 497). Her discovery is fully set forth in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." This work she considers rightly a divine revelation, because it bestows the right concepts of God and man whereby numberless people have been healed of all manner of diseases and sins.

In order to bring out in human experience the blessings Christian Science promises, one has to pray in the right way, as has been set forth in the textbook. This prayer is not one of asking God to do something specific or not to do it, but of realizing the perfection of Deity and the consequent perfection of man as God's exact image and likeness. As the Christian Science treatment of healing is nothing else than such a scientific prayer. In the measure that this prayer or realization is made infinite and all-embracing, it has better and wider results, because it approximates the divine Mind. Such realization makes the divine law operative in human experience, and reveals that this law works independent of time or place.

World Salvation

While healing the sick is most important, the ultimate purpose of Christian Science is moral regeneration. In this way, Christian Science saves the individual, and will ultimately mean for world salvation. It does not unavailingly teach the reformation of "the other fellow," as other movements for world reform invariably have done, and thereby proved to be unsuccessful—but it does impress upon everybody the necessity of reformation, primarily, as being the most direct way to universal salvation.

There is no impediment to a perfect state of existence, because Christian Science reveals that there are plenty of the things which make life desirable and enjoyable for every individual, for every nation, for every race, if these things are but conceived of spiritually enough. Christian Science teaches how to acquire this spiritual understanding whereby the limitation of conceiving things as material is replaced by an understanding of the spiritual things as divine ideas. Jesus set a stimulating example when feeding the five thousand with a few

FIRE AT MT. HOLLY

Fire that caused a loss of about $50,000 to the plant of the Mount Holly Textile Company, on Washington street, Mount Holly, was discovered at about four o'clock Monday morning. The loss is thought to be covered by insurance.

Origin of the fire is believed to have been from a fuse box near one of the entrances to the factory.

Practically all machinery in the factory was ruined. It includes six looms for the manufacture of tapestries, three winders and two beamers. One of the heaviest losses was patterns for the looms, all of which were ruined. Another heavy loss is for yarns and manufactured tapestries ready for shipment.

While the building was not destroyed, it is so badly damaged that it will be torn down and replaced by a new structure, construction of which will begin in a short time.

loaves and fishes. This instance is not an isolated one. It can be repeated by the right understanding and demonstration of the practical spiritual truth taught in the Science of perfection, Christian Science.

PALMYRA SCOUTS TAKE TWO PLACES

Troop No. 2 Finishes Second While Newly Reorganized Troop No. 1 is Fourth

Last Saturday afternoon the Burlington County Boy Scout Meet was held at the ball park in Mount Holly. In spite of the inclement weather an unusually large attendance was present there being nineteen Troops, gathered from every section of the County.

Scout Executive M. A. Shaw arranged and conducted the meet, which was in the form of an experiment. The success of this meet was largely the result of his ability.

The following were the events of the meet, together with the possible points awarded to each:

- (1) Attendance, 10 points.
- (2) Tenderfoot Knots, 20 points.
- (3) Scout Laws, 10 points.
- (4) Second Class Bandaging, 20 points.
- (5) Second Class Signaling, 10 points.
- (6) Judging, 20 points.
- (7) Tent Pitching and Water Boiling, 10 points.

Palmyra Boy Scouts, Troops No. 1 and No. 2, participated in all events, and the higher ratings are as follows:

- Troop No. 5, Beverly, first place, 82 3-10 points.
- Troop No. 2, Palmyra, second place, 78 1-3 points.
- Troop No. 2, Moorestown, third place, 71 8 points.
- Troop No. 1, Palmyra, fourth place, 67 9 points.

While the Scouts of Palmyra Troop No. 2 won second place, and did exceedingly well, yet it is a fact that the Scouts of Palmyra Troop No. 1 deserve the utmost commendation, as this Troop has only recently been reorganized with a large number of new boys, and therefore has not had the length of training the other Troops enjoyed.

Being able to secure fourth place testifies to the ability and perseverance of their Scoutmaster, Alfred B. Branson, as well as of the Scouts.

PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL BE EXAMINED

School Physician to Be at Delaware Avenue Building Today and Next Thursday

Dr. H. W. Bauer, Palmyra school physician, will be in the Delaware Avenue School this Thursday and next, June 12th and 13th, to examine children who will enter school in September and also those coming in in February.

Those children eligible to enter in September must be five years of age on or before September 18th; those who will be five after that date will register for the February entrance. However, all of these children may be examined this or next Thursday. To receive this examination free of charge is a wonderful privilege and every parent should take advantage of the opportunity, so that any physical defects that may exist may be found and corrected before school opens in September.

It will then be found that owing to the good health of Palmyra school children attendance will be greatly improved and, in all probability, much suffering prevented.

The Parent-Teachers' Association is particularly interested in having every five-year-old examined at this time and hopes that every parent will show as much interest.

The birth certificate should be brought along, as it will save time later.

VICTOR TO EMPLOY 15,000 MORE MEN

Opening of New Unit Will Bring Need for Thousands More Workers Soon

The RCA Victor plant, in Camden, will be turning out approximately 5,000 complete radio sets and loud speakers daily by August 1.

For, on that date, construction of Building No. 3, RCA Victor's latest unit in its big Camden plant, will have been completed, and a new high daily peak in production will be reached.

This production, according to A. Weiland, vice-president in charge of production, will necessitate an increase in employment from 5,000 to between 18,000 and 20,000 persons.

The important part that the new building will play in the company's increased production can be judged from the fact that the time of completely assembling a set and the manufacture of a loud speaker will be cut from more than four hours, to less than two hours.

This in all probability will result in RCA Victor being able to retail a super product at a slightly lower price than now in effect.

KONJOLA ENDED TWO YEARS OF STOMACH MISERY

Every Meal Caused Distress Until New Medicine Came to the Rescue

MRS. HELMA HALVORSEN

"I am glad to tell everyone how much good Konjola did me," said Mrs. Helma Halvorsen, 217 Tenth street, Hoboken, N. J. "I suffered for two years from stomach trouble. Indigestion, gas formation and a sour condition followed every meal. For two or three days at a time my bowels refused to work and I had to take strong laxatives. It was a discouraging situation, indeed."

"I was advised to try Konjola and it was a lucky thing that I did. Daily my condition improved and by the time I finished the second bottle I could eat what I pleased without the slightest distress. My bowels are as regular as clockwork and all this new health I owe to Konjola."

"Do not expect a medicine to work wonders in a day or a week. Give Konjola a trial of six to eight weeks and you will be surprised at the amazing results."

Konjola is sold in Riverton at L. L. Keating's store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

FIRE COMPANY PLANS CANVASS

Will Visit Every Home in Palmyra in Contributory Membership Drive

The fire siren Monday at 7:30 p. m. will initiate the annual firemen's drive for contributing memberships.

The firemen will gather at the Fire House and at the sounding of the siren will start a house-to-house canvass of the town, as has been their custom for many years.

The firemen ask the support of the townspeople, not for themselves, but for the benefit of the splendid work they are doing for the community.

While the Borough appropriates a certain amount each year, it is not enough to cover all expenses of the department and it is necessary for the men to raise money for certain of their expenses.

The only way they have of doing this is to go to the people of the town and ask their cooperation. The response in the past has been very fine and the firemen fully appreciate the interest of the people whom they serve.

Every home in town will be visited and it is requested that those who can be at home Monday prepared to offer their contributions to the firemen who call. This will prevent knocking of back calls and will greatly facilitate the work.

HOFFMAN OPENS HIS WAR ON "JUNK" CARS

Commissioner Revokes License of Driver of Defective Car Pursued for $10

Driving at the rate of twenty miles per hour brakes were applied, and the car could not be stopped for a distance of 175 feet.

Properly equipped brakes should have stopped this car in less than 25 feet.

Immediately after the accident Lunetta was arrested on a charge of manslaughter and a test was ordered of his car.

Lunetta, while operating a "junk" car, that he had purchased for $10.00, killed nine-year-old Ben Kropp in East Newark on May 27.

Coincidentally, his announcement that "war" would be waged upon the owner of old and defective cars that are a menace to life on the highways of New Jersey, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, Harold G. Hoffman, revoked on Monday both the registration and driver's license of Michael Lunetta, 77 Lake street, Belleville, New Jersey.

Among the distinguished company present for the sensational performance here were Princess Helene of Rumania (mother of King Michael) and Princess Irene of Greece who came to Vienna especially for the event.

TIME'S HEALING BALM

"Time dissolves all things," said Aristotle, the Athenian philosopher, some 22 centuries ago. That time dissolves enmity was once more strikingly illustrated by a recent occurrence at Brunswick, Ga.

There, says the Associated Press, "descendants of the Blue and the Gray hosts of the '60's stood side by side while a Massachusetts delegation returned to its rightful owners an antiquated clock which Yankee sailors carried away from the plantation of Thomas Butler King during the War Between the States."

The ceremony of restitution took place on the King plantation, in a building formerly used as a slave hospital, but now a caddies' clubhouse, in the presence of a distinguished gathering.

Congressman Martin of Massachusetts presented the clock to Senator George of Georgia, both making appropriate addresses. A Massachusetts mayor and editor responded to welcome addresses by Georgians, and the clock was finally turned over to Isaac Aiken, a grandson of Thomas King, original owner of the ancient timepiece.

The ceremony was similar to that witnessed on many occasions which have marked the return of captured battle flags of the Civil War. And during the proceedings the old clock pursued the even tenor of its way by ticking off the seconds as it had done during its long years of captivity.

This graceful gesture by the Massachusetts delegation, received with equal grace by their fellow countrymen of Georgia, again demonstrates how wounds and scars, even those of fratricidal war, may be dissolved by the healing galm of time.

MUMBLING OUR WORDS

Are Americans falling into the habit of mumbling their words? Trained public speakers, teachers, and many citizens who give particular attention enunciation and pronunciation are easy to understand, but there are tens of thousands of people who popularize the word "what" by misspeaking their words.

Plain speech is very important to telephoning, and a lot of people who get the wrong numbers might have better luck if they pronounced their words with as much force as they voice their complaints. Recent investigations of telephone conversations, in which 80,000 words were noted, showed that only 2200, or less than three per cent., were different words. Ninety-five per cent. of these conversations were carried on in 700 words.

Bernard Shaw is reported to have said recently "People drop their vowels and syllables and everything else, and at the present time just make a noise. How on earth they make themselves understood to each other is difficult to know. It is pure laziness, but the language fortunately is being preserved by telephone operators and wireless announcers who have to be distinct and articulate."

MUSCLE SHOALS AGAIN

Some weeks ago the Senate passed the Norris resolution providing for government distribution of power for fertilizer experimentation at Muscle Shoals. On May 28 the House passed the Reece substitute resolution dealing with the same subject, but providing for leasing the Shoals properties to private parties.

The two measures almost diametrically opposite in their provisions, and the efforts to reconcile them in conference will be of interest.

The Reece bill is backed up by the President and the Republican majority in the House, while the Norris plan is supported by Senators of both parties who favor government operation. The Norris adherents will do everything possible to defeat the house bill, and they do not seem disposed to compromise on any sort of measure which provides for leasing the Muscle Shoals property.

Anything may happen, but as this is written it looks very much as though the 10-year-old controversy is still a long way from settlement.

GASOLINE TOLLS

One good way to think of gasoline taxes is to consider them as tolls.

If a car runs 12 miles to the gallon of gas, its owner pays one cent every six miles when a two-cent tax is in effect; one cent every four miles with a three-cent tax; one cent every three miles with a four-cent tax; one cent every 2.4 miles with a five-cent tax and one cent every two miles with a six-cent tax.

A person who drives only 6,000 miles a year must pay $10 to $30 in "gasoline tolls" in addition to license and other levies on his car.

The fact that gasoline taxes are expected to reach $550,000,000 this year and represent 20 to 30 per cent. of the retail price of gasoline, presents a problem for consideration.

The public does not oppose a reasonable gas tax even though it is class taxation, when all the revenue is used for road purposes. But unless motorists resist exorbitant taxes or the diverting of special tax funds for general state purposes, we may look forward to a time not far distant when a gas tax of ten cents a gallon will be proposed.

Why I Am For Franklin W. Fort
For United States Senator

By HON. CHARLES N. FOWLER

Member of Congress for Sixteen Years. Author of the Federal Reserve Banking System and the Flexible Tariff System

I don't believe there is a single loyal Republican in this State who is not tired and heartily sick of the disloyalty and treachery of the insurgent Republicans now in the Senate who have waylaid, beleaguered, be deviled and fought to discredit the Republican administration for now nearly two years.

For my part I am utterly opposed to sending any man from New Jersey as a Senator to further repudiate the National Republican platform of 1928 and who now openly declares that he has already deserted the policies of the Republican administration.

This is the exact position of both Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen. The greater the ability of the candidate may be, the greater is my responsibility to see that he does not go to Washington to join the Democratic party in attacking the President at the most vital point, at the bloody angle, right where the Democrats are concentrating their forces. God forbid that I, too, should stab the President in the back, by cowardly voting for an emissary to do this treacherous work.

Duty to Uphold President

It is my patriotic duty, as a Republican, to uphold the hands of the President, who is loyally, courageously and patriotically supporting the Constitution and carrying out the expressed will of the American people. But what is still more important and more important still, it is my patriotic duty as a citizen of my country, to prevent this Democratic cabal and these insurgent Republicans from uniting in a successful campaign at this vital juncture in our history to take a single backward step in this great world movement to better, to improve, to exalt and greatly to advance the average condition of the American people and all the rest of mankind who are now looking wistfully to America for inspiration and guidance.

America will not sound a retreat at this hour, but order an advance all along the line to crush out crime in every form.

Hoover vs. Morrow
In his acceptance speech, President Hoover said, "I do not favor the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

Mr. Morrow, in his first campaign speech, referring to his plan, whatever it may be in detail, said, "I believe this involves the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the substitution thereof of an amendment which will restore to the states, the power to determine their policy towards the liquor traffic."

This is the exact position of Alfred E. Smith, and must necessarily be diametrically opposed to Mr. Hoover.

The platform of the Republican party adopted at its National Convention at Kansas City contained a plank in support of the Eighteenth Amendment. This plank both Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen now repudiate.

Again in the same breath in which Mr. Morrow demands a repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, he used this language: "The saloon must not come back." But in advocating the plan of Alfred E. Smith, he does not venture to tell us how he will prevent the saloon from coming back. Please observe that by the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment we will be right where we were when it was passed—every corner saloon back again in the same old place the next morning.

The tragedy of this political gesture of Mr. Morrow is in the fact that he throws his reputation and moral influence against the Republican administration at this juncture, although there is not the remotest possibility of any one now living seeing the Eighteenth Amendment repealed.

Mr. Thompson, his manager, assured me that his proposal would be constructive, but it is in fact destructive of all the progress made during the past ten years, and that progress when analyzed and understood, is almost infinitely great in many directions.

Deserted Party Platform

At the time that Mr. Morrow accepted the offer of the political machine to support him, at least 90% of the loyal Republicans of the State confidently believed that he would stand squarely upon the Republican platform of 1928 and square behind the policies of the Administration. Then, how shocking, how sadly disappointed it was when he took a position diametrically opposed to Herbert Hoover on what Mr. Morrow himself has treated as the only question, the only issue he has seen fit to mention up to this time—the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. Therefore I am opposed to Mr. Morrow.

I assert that not one of the many thousands who had resolved to support Mr. Morrow upon that assumption, in which he has so greatly disappointed and so utterly failed them, is bound to support him now; but, on the contrary, every such voter is morally bound to oppose him to the very best of their ability.

I am opposed to the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, therefore I am opposed to Mr. Morrow.

I am opposed to putting the United States Government in the liquor business, and therefore I am opposed to Mr. Frelinghuysen.

I am opposed to the return of the saloon, which will necessarily follow the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, therefore, I am opposed to both Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen.

I am in favor of the policies of Herbert Hoover, therefore, I am opposed both to Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen because they have deserted those policies.

Why He's for Fort

I am for Franklin W. Fort

(1) Because he stands squarely upon the Republican platform of 1928.

(2) Because he stands squarely behind the policies of Herbert Hoover.

(3) Because by equipment, fitness, experience and legislative achievements, in Congress, he is incomparably better prepared to assist Herbert Hoover than either of the other candidates in carrying out the expressed will of the people.

(4) Because, if we are to be tempted at this time by a promise of a future Presidential candidate, we should now support Mr. Fort.

It is a fact that the political gang who buy and sell all political offices, subject to all Republican office holders in the State, offered the United States Senatorship to a man of the highest character and standing on the condition that he would sell his duty to his country by turning over his sacred trust of official responsibility for all Federal appointments to them.

—one of whom was No. 1 Johnson. He refused to enter into this corrupt bargain and sell his soul for the Senatorship. They then went gunning for someone else.

ENERGY

Most people think that the brain needs as much food as the body does. People complain of fatigue after mental effort, and because they feel as tired as if they had been using their muscles they think they must have used up as much energy as if they had been working with their bodies.

Scientists at Wesleyan University have been studying the energy requirements of brain-workers for years, and have announced that all of the energy expended in a solid hour of the most intense mental effort can be replaced by eating half of a salted peanut! Five minutes spent in dusting a desk consumes more energy than an hour of hard mental work at the desk.

Much of the so-called mental fatigue is physical fatigue. The writer who is tired after a day at the typewriter or pen is tired because of the physical effort of writing. Many who complain of brain-fog after a day of business conferences should rather complain of "talk-fog." The physical effort of continuous speaking is a great energy-consumer, as every orator and actor knows.

Most often, so-called mental fatigue comes from the failure to eliminate wastes properly from the body. The one thing the brain-worker needs most is physical exercise in the open air.

Switzerland turned out 23 million watches last year at an average price of about $2.50 each.

These same public enemies now want to capitalize the high character and great reputation of Dwight W. Morrow for their own benefit and political power. Let us beware lest we prove ourselves simple-minded fools playing right into the hands of these conspirators against the public good, now typified by Hague of Hudson County and No. 1 Johnson of Atlantic City.

Editorial Comment

The Case Against Mr. Morrow

The friends of Dwight W. Morrow are working hard to overcome the disadvantage which their candidate placed himself under when he declared himself in favor of the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

They assert that, after all, prohibition is but a minor issue in this campaign and that Morrow's attitude is merely academic, that Morrow really doesn't intend to do anything to bring about the repeal of the amendment.

If prohibition is but a minor feature of the campaign, why has Mr. Morrow's stand been heralded far and wide over the whole United States as the first big break in the stand of the Republican party for prohibition?

If Mr. Morrow doesn't intend to do anything about it, why are the "wets" so jubilant about his anti-prohibition utterances?

Perhaps Mr. Morrow did adopt his repeal platform merely because his campaign backers advised him that that was the way to get votes in a "wet" State.

But the United States Senatorship is too big an office to be won by platform expediences. If Mr. Morrow is sincere, he will be betraying his wet friends, and if he is not sincere, the "dry" will not care for hypocrisy.

The fact is that Mr. Morrow has deserted the Republican National platform, the platform upon which Herbert Hoover was elected, and has chosen for his campaign vehicle the anti-prohibition principles upon which Alfred E. Smith was defeated for the Presidency in 1928.

Back of the whole picture is the fact that Senator David Baird, of Camden, Republican Machine leader of South Jersey, aided by Enoch L. Johnson, boss of the notorious Atlantic County Machine, is trying to clinch the political dictatorship of the State of New Jersey.

It is understood that another up-and-coming Republican State leader was offered Baird's support for U. S. Senator, but he indignantly refused the terms upon which it was offered.

Then Baird picked Morrow, a famous man of high standing, who had had little or no experience with politics and political gangsters.

When asked how to make a success in life, Horace Greeley years ago said, "Go West, young man, go West."

IN PRAISE OF EARTHWORMS

If the earthworms were to publish a magazine, some dramatic success stories would be recorded.

It would tell, for example, the remarkable career of John G. Worm. Born of humble parents, in dark surroundings, he managed by his own effort to push himself up to the surface. There he was spied by Fortune in the form of a robin, which snatched him high into the clouds. His moment of elevation was brief, but while it lasted the vision was splendid.

It was told of Frederick L. Worm, who was working along quietly one day when an upheaval tossed him to fame and glory. Success was attended by pain, as is often the case. He was impaled upon a fishhook and carried away to be immersed in a strange element. There his life ended, but not before he had done the biggest job ever achieved by any member of his family. The fortune he landed devoured him, but it was a big fortune.

To the other worms these stories might be discouraging. "Fame is for the few," they would say. "Nothing ever happens to us. We just stir around awhile and die."

It would surprise them to know that a book was written about worms by the great scientist Darwin. Their surprise would be intensified if they were to learn that this book makes no mention of the exceptional members of their tribe. The few worms that are carried into the clouds, or succeed in landing big fish, are dismissed by him as of small importance.

But the great mass of unknown worms, who spend their whole lives beneath the surface of observation, he hails as the most important creatures in the world.

If for one year they should cease their industrious digestion of the leaf mold and their incessant stirring of the ground, no crops would grow, and animals and men would die. I think that Darwin's book on earthworms should be a part of all education, along with the inspiring biographies of the great. It would tend to teach us humility. We human beings who walk so proudly as monarchs of the world—what are we, anyway? Beneficiaries of the worms, without whose leave we could not live a year.

As for fame, it is stimulating, and lifts the spirit of the crowd. But shall we despair because to most of us it is denied?

Beneath the surface life is carried forward by the sustained loyalty of the mass. And who shall doubt that there are purposes as far beyond our reckoning as our lives—which they make possible—are beyond the vision of the worms?

the State of New Jersey for U. S. Senator, he undoubtedly replied, "Be wet, young man, be wet."

Now Baird evidently aspires to be like Mark Hanna, a maker of Presidents, and apparently the word has already gone out to boom Morrow for President in either 1932 or 1936.

Morrow is a Wall Street man, being one of the executives of the J. Pierpont Morgan banking house of New York.

If he should run for President, two or six years hence, as a wet Wall Street man, the dry agricultural South and West would refuse to support him.

The Democratic party is the Anti-Prohibition party.

The Pennsylvania Democratic State Organization last week, in convention assembled, voted for repeal.

In eighteen other States of the Union the Democratic organizations have gone on record as "wet." The Republican National Party is still on record as supporting the Constitution.

Mr. Morrow may win the nomination. David Baird's recipe for winning votes in New Jersey is based on practical experience and Baird knows the voters who are the bulwark of his own personal organization.

But that Mr. Morrow as a wet Republican can defeat the wet candidate of the official wet party in New Jersey remains to be seen.

The dry candidacy of Congressman Franklin W. Fort, a native Burlington Countyman, has made big strides during the last few days, and whether he wins or loses, he can have the satisfaction of having upheld the principles of his own party and the conviction of thousands of earnest people in both parties.—The Palmyra News.

Compiled Traffic Accident Statistics
Advocated by Hoffman for New Jersey

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Sees State Handicapped in Quest for Street and Highway Safety Without Accurate Reporting and Tabulating System

By HAROLD G. HOFFMAN
Motor Vehicle Commissioner of New Jersey

One of the most important tasks confronting New Jersey traffic authorities is the adoption and application of a comprehensive, thorough, accurate and uniform method of compiling traffic accident statistics. At present, the State, in common with many others, is without an accurate accident reporting and tabulating system and this is fundamentally handicapped in its quest for street and highway safety.

While in Washington recently, I was given an opportunity to study the system in effect there. It is one which has played a prominent part in the National Capital's recently excellent safety record.

I was impressed with the fact that the system showed danger points with such clarity and precision that, almost instantaneously, traffic officials were able to tell the number of accidents, their character, the kind of cars involved, the time of the mishap, and every other significant factor related to it.

Need Definite Information
Clearly such exact factual information on accidents is the one basis upon which their elimination may be attacked scientifically.

What if we in New Jersey were armed with the knowledge of the location and character of every danger point on our street and highway system? Could we not take them, one by one, or in groups, and apply the specific remedy that would alleviate the dangerous condition?

The establishment of such an analytical system seems too important to be retarded by any condition. As soon as appropriations are available, it would seem that no more vital step could be taken than to adopt and apply a system, not necessarily that in use in Washington, but one that serves the same broad safety purpose.

In every line of human activity today, the cry is: "Get the facts." It is not too much to say that research is the largest single factor in our astonishing industrial progress.

nation of street and highway accidents and, clearly, a lack of knowledge is powerlessness. We cannot continue to be powerless in the face of a problem that is taking a toll of 33,000 human lives and resulting in nearly 1,000,000 personal injuries every year.

Something must be done and the place of beginning clearly is finding out every single contributory factor in every accident, tabulating it accurately and uniformly and analyzing it with equal accuracy and uniformity. Then we shall be able to proceed with genuinely scientific corrective processes.

This is not to say that New Jersey is currently without any system of accident reporting. It has such a system but it does not have the degree of adequacy which is essential to substantial application. When this system is supplanted by one whose merit is unquestioned, New Jersey will be further along on the road toward greater street and highway safety.

From Minneapolis comes the story that Irving Myers of that city ate 30 "hot dogs" at one sitting, breaking his own previous record of 16.

MANY SENTENCES
IMPOSED BY RIGG

Defendants in Court Session
Thursday Find Judge's
Penalties Expensive

Judge Rigg sat at the Court House in Mount Holly Thursday of last week mainly for the purpose of passing sentence on several defendants, but incidentally disposed of several Orphans' Court matters.

Defendants before the Court for sentence were as follows:

Harry Russo, of Delanco, who secured $450 through a sleek real estate transaction and who had pleaded guilty to obtaining money under false pretenses, and had agreed to make the amount good, was fined $50 and placed on probation for six months.

William Hill, colored, now residing at Montclair, and George Simmons, also colored, of Palmyra, entered a plea of guilty to assault and battery on Justice John A. Bowers of Palmyra, and were fined $75 each, being given six months in which to pay.

Walter Davis, of Mount Holly, charged with assault and battery on his wife, had the charge changed to non-support, on the suggestion of the Court, to which he entered a plea of guilty.

Placed on Probation

He was placed on probation for one year and must pay $4 a week for the support of his three children.

Thomas Taglier, of Beverly, who led a crowd of boys in breaking and entering the summer home of George Spidel, at Edgewater Park, the gang being rounded up in short order by Detective Arthur Carabine and the Beverly police, had previously entered a plea of guilty, and he was sent home under a suspended sentence, but will be on probation for the next two years.

Independent of the sentence, the Court gave the young man some instructions which, if not adhered to closely, will be the means of his being brought back and sentenced on the original charge.

George Cole, of Burlington, charged with atrocious assault and battery on Carl Turner, both colored, was fined $30 and costs, and given three months in which to pay, after he had pleaded guilty to the charge.

Who Struck First?

However, Cole claimed that Turner struck the first blow in a brawl which took place in the boarding house of Rachel DeVan, on Belmont street, Burlington, on Sunday night, and from the statements of both men concerned, it appeared to be nothing but a negro fight, in which Turner got the worst of the argument.

Rachel DeVan, in whose house the fight took place, was before the Court on a charge of maintaining a house where liquor was kept and also for possession of liquor, a raid on the house having been made by the Burlington police on information furnished by Turner, when seven bottles of beer and a small quantity of liquor were confiscated. She was sentenced to pay a fine of $150, being given six months in which to pay.

Joseph Sylvester, of Beverly, pleaded guilty to assaulting an officer, the complaint against the young man being the result of his being caught on the Keim estate, at Edgewater Park, with a number of flowers which he had picked.

Sylvester claimed that he did not know the man who ordered him off the place and later arrested him was an officer, as he wore no uniform or badge, but this explanation failed to appeal very strongly to the Court and he was fined $30, but was allowed three months to square himself with the Court.

Criminal Matters Settled

Judge Rigg disposed of a number of criminal matters at a short session of the Common Pleas Court on Thursday morning, May 29, the following sentences being meted out:

Clara Parker, Mount Holly, $500 fine.

Andrew Nemchick, Burlington, six months in the County jail and $200 fine.

Andrew Lisiewski, Riverside, $250 fine.

Frank F. Stecher, Riverside, $75 fine.

Samuel Vennell, Pemberton, $250 fine.

Katherine Borkowski, Burlington, $300 fine.

Walter Anderski, Riverside, $200 fine.

PROHIBITION — A Moral Issue

The liquor traffic has always been the insatiable foe of the home, the church, and the state. Its record is one of degradation and death. Always it has produced those social evils which poison life. Rotten politics, commercialized gambling, and organized prostitution are its unclean offspring. It leaves a trail of desecrated homes, starved children, and debased characters. TO LICENSE SUCH A MORAL MENACE IS TO SANCTION IT; AND SANCTIONING A SIN IS THE MORAL EQUIVALENT TO PARTICIPATING IN THE OUTRAGES IT PERPETUATES. Prohibition does not altogether abolish the drink habit, but it does make the liquor traffic an OUTLAW. This organized and ruthless traffic of iniquity must remain an outlaw; and the necessary means to this end is the election of men who believe in and will maintain the legal barriers our Nation has set up to protect society. Therefore, we the undersigned ministers of Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson, do earnestly urge all citizens to go to the polls next Tuesday with a conscience alive to this serious issue, and to vote.

Signed:

ALBERT J. HARKE
HAROLD L. CREAGER
J. WILLIAM LEE
GEORGE LOCKETT

and probation for one year.

Charles Lanning, Burlington, $200 fine.

All of the foregoing sentences were for violations of the liquor laws. Kenneth Andrews, colored, who stole the automobile of his employer, Harvey Emery, of near Columbus, and who had entered a plea of guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and given two and a half years in State Prison.

Charles Schaffer, Ralph Matthews and George Schweizer, all of Burlington, charged with attempting to rob Mrs. Mary Barkowski, of that city, were each fined $150.

Two Civil Actions Heard

Judge Rigg was at the Court House on Monday of last week for the purpose of hearing civil actions, eleven having been set down for the day, but only one was ready to be heard and that was uncontested.

The case heard was that of the Burlington County Trust Company of Moorestown, against John M. Lewis, William H. Orce and Robert I. Bush, and had to do with an unpaid promissory note given to the Rein Motor Company, of Riverside, September 10, 1927, and discounted by the Trust Company. The jury returned a verdict against Lewis for the face value of the note with interest, amounting to $388.04.

Another civil action was disposed of on Wednesday of last week, the case being that of Albert C. Werner, of 121 North Broad street, Philadelphia, against Howard J. Harris and George Johnson, of Roeboling, and was brought to collect commissions claimed to be due as the result of the sale of the Harris daily newspaper business in Roeboling to Johnson.

The verdict of the jury was no cause for action.

RUSSIA'S FIRST "FARM CITY"

Moscow.—The first Soviet "farm city" is to be built in the Khoper region on a "collective farm" comprising 500,000 acres. The city will be built on the model of the new workers' towns, with apartment houses provided with all facilities for communal living, as large common kitchens and dining rooms, nurseries, etc. The "farm city" is designed to have 44,000 inhabitants, all the adults being connected with the collective farming enterprise in some capacity. A large dairy, two brick factories, and other projects will enable the workers to combine industrial and agricultural functions.

SPECIAL TRAINING IN BEETLE WORK

This Year's Inspectors Given Three-Day Course by State Department

A training school for Japanese beetle field inspectors was held last week by Secretary of Agriculture William B. Duryee at the Field Headquarters at White Horse, just outside of Trenton. Three days of intensive training starting Thursday, was given the men who will be in charge of the scouting and inspection activities covering the entire state during the summer months.

The course covered such subjects as elementary botany; elementary entomology; parasites in relation to the Japanese beetle; insecticides and the use of traps; scouting and grubbing for the beetle; actual inspection methods; farm products inspection and certification; precautionary measures and requirements applicable to seed, soil, manure, mixing establishments, etc.; general methods of chemical treatment; and the actual treatment of nursery stock, potting soil, fields of growing plants; fumigation of cars of sand, clay, etc.; the taking of temperatures; the investigation of alleged violations; and general administrative practices.

Among the staff of instructors were such outstanding men as A. J. Jennings, an executive officer of the F. and P. nurseries and an author of books on Plant Culture; R. J. Sim, an authority on the Japanese beetle and other insects of a similar nature; Dr. J. L. King, Fred Metzger, R. W. Sherman, G. K. Handle and others employed in investigational and control work at the Japanese Beetle Offices maintained co-operatively by the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture.

SPRAY FOR CODLING
MOTH IS NOW URGED

Timely and thorough applications of the proper spray materials are essential to the successful control of the codling moth, the most destructive insect enemy of the apple, and one which annually causes losses amounting to millions of dollars. A large majority of the first brood moths have emerged from their winter quarters in central and southern New Jersey and are now busy laying eggs from which small worms will hatch and crawl to the small young fruits. These small worms will continue to hatch and attempt to enter the fruit for a period of at least 4 weeks. During this period, or until the last of June, a thorough coating of spray material should be maintained on both surfaces of the leaves and

DRUNKS ARRESTED AT MOORESTOWN

Moorestown and Lenola Men
Sentenced To Mount
Holly Jail

Two drunks, arrested by Moorestown police last Friday, were sentenced to the County jail at Mount Holly at hearings before Recorder Joseph W. Johnston, in Town Hall, Saturday morning.

They were James Madden, Jr., of East Second street, arrested by Chief of Police John H. Bradshaw and Officer Charles J. Erickson, who was given sixty days, and Earl Smith, Center street, Lenola, arrested by Officer Bruce MacDonald, who was sent to Mount Holly for thirty days.

Four motor laws violators were arrested over the weekend, Saturday, Richard H. Reynolds, 1362 Park Boulevard, Camden, charged by Officer Bruce MacDonald with not having his operator's and owner's cards on his person, was fined $3.00 and costs by Recorder Johnston.

Three other motorists were arrested by Officer Walter A. Erickson on Sunday. They were: Irving I. Brown, 232 Rittner street, Philadelphia, charged with speeding, fined $10.00 and costs; Joseph Cusita, South Church street, Texas, charged with passing the traffic control signal with the light showing amber, fined $5.00 and costs.

ever all surfaces of the fruit, advises Professor A. J. Farley, extension service horticulturist, New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, not only to prevent them from entering the fruit and making it practically worthless, but also to reduce the number of second brood worms which are far more difficult to control than those of the first brood.

Second brood worms are usually not numerous enough north of Burlington county to cause serious injury, but from Burlington county south they are likely to cause severe injury if many of the first brood worms are allowed to enter the fruit and mature.

Now is the time to fight the first brood worms, Professor Farley warns. He urges growers to communicate with local county agricultural agents for information on the most effective materials to use and how to apply them.

LOCAL CHURCH NEWS

EPISCOPAL

Rev. G. J. McCormack

In a fully rounded story of the Gospel of Jesus it is impossible to ignore the doctrine of the Trinity and the many striking suggestions in the Scriptures regarding this teaching. Some would leave the teaching of the Trinity as too mystical and difficult, a rather cowardly way of dealing with the problem.

John MacMurray Grot, a leading professor at London University, says in the New York Times, "The formula of the three persons in one God is sensible and significant when you put it side by side with the meaninglessness of the fundamental formula of scientific faith that one and one makes two."

But apart from all that, we need only remember that Christ said, "I will pray to the Father and He will send you another comforter." Here is all we need to say about the reality of the Trinity. Its value? Well, it is exactly what the Church gives us the long Trinity season for, "to think, to make your religion very real—by spending time on the marvellously suggestive truth contained in even the more statement of belief in the Trinity."

Saturday is visitation day at the Girls' Friendly Holiday House at Island Heights. There will be a short service at noon. Luncheon, to which all are invited, will be served at one o'clock.

The Cooper Hospital Flower Sale was held on Saturday last. The Girls' Friendly Society collected a goodly sum for the object among local residents. Frances Bille, Elsie Rieley and Henrietta Roray were in charge throughout the day.

The Candidates of the G. F. S., under the leadership of Mrs. Anderson and her associates, journeyed to Christ Church, Riverton, and spent a very happy time there. The Riverton branch gave a very excellent play, entitled "The Candy Shop." Nearly a hundred girls were present.

Throughout the summer months there will be no evening service. Next Sunday being the last until further notice.

Services Trinity Sunday:

10:30 a. m. Holy Communion and Sermon, "There Are Three That Bear Record."

8:00 p. m. Evensong and Sermon, "Religious Mysteries."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"God, The Preserver of Man," will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 15, 1930.

The Golden Text is: "Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee. Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles" (Psalms 25: 21, 22).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand and touched him saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him" (Luke 5: 12, 13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To prevent disease or to cure it, the power of Truth, of divine Spirit, must break the dream of the material senses" (p. 412).

FIRST LUTHERAN

Rev. Harold L. Craeger, Pastor

Next Sunday will be the children's own day. The joys of living as a child in the beautiful world our Heavenly Father has given us will be celebrated. The Children's Day program will take the place of both the regular Sunday School session and the usual morning preaching service. It will begin at 10:30 instead of 10:00 o'clock. The little ones will bring their tribute of praise to their gracious Lord. Jesus said: "Except ye turn and become as little children, ye can in no wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven."

Saturday will also be a day of joy—the occasion being the annual Sunday School picnic. Buses will leave the church at 10 and 10:30 a. m. to transport the children to Knight's Park, Collingswood. Every one will take their own basket lunch. A variety of interesting games has been arranged by the program committee, promising lots of fun for all ages. Every member and friend of the Sunday School and Church should find this a very enjoyable outing.

The monthly business meeting and social of the Luther League will be held next Tuesday evening.

The Wolf Cubs of Palmyra and Riverton held their regular weekly meeting in the basement of the Epworth M. E. Church Monday evening. The meeting was very ably conducted by the leader, John Hopfinger and his three assistants, Edward Dages, Edward Rhoades and Edward Orl.

This club is the first of its kind to be formed in Burlington County and consists of boys from ten to twelve years old who are now too young to join the Boy Scouts, but who expect to join when of age. About thirty boys have already joined the pack and are now receiving their first real training, discipline and useful knowledge, outside the home. Any boys who have not joined, but think they would like to do so, are urged to get in touch with leader, or any of his three assistants.

The boys are now earning money, with which they expect to purchase uniforms, which they will wear for the first time on July 4.

The Cubs wish to take this opportunity to thank A. B. Branson, for his very helpful and most useful advice, given them from time to time, and they also wish to thank the Scout Counsellors' Association for the splendid support given them.

Dwight W. Morrow, former Ambassador to Mexico, world famous statesman and popular Jerseyman, swept all local and nearby districts in much the same manner in which he won the County and State in his campaign for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

Mr. Morrow had a clear majority in every district in Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson over his three opponents. Franklin W. Fort was the runner-up, but failed to show the strength even his opponents had granted him in the pre-primary forecasts. Joseph M. Frelinghuysen was a poor third with only fifteen votes in the three communities. John A. Kelly received only ten.

The former Ambassador polled 10,326 in the County, according to incomplete returns late last night. Fort's vote was 5,452; Frelinghuysen's, 232, and Kelly's, 112.

There were no contests for local offices and County Committee members in Riverton.

Some talk was heard that Cecil Bowers was not eligible to run for Justice of Peace owing to non-residence, but it is believed that the objection cannot be sustained. Mr. Bowers has been a resident of East Riverton, in Cinnaminson Township, where he officiated as Justice of Peace for several years. He moved to Riverton the day before election.

CINNAMINSON SCHOOLS HOLD COMMENCEMENT

Thirty Pupils Graduate From School
No. 2; Also Law Class From School No. 4; Many Prizes Awarded

Thirty pupils of School No. 2 at Cinnaminson graduated Tuesday evening.

A short address by Miss Bryan, telling the aims of the school for the individual child, was followed by an earnest address to the class, by the Rev. Mr. Dauerty, of Moorestown, after which the diplomas were awarded.

Preceding the graduating exercises, the class presented a tuncful operetta, "The School Master of Sleepy Hollow." The singing and acting both showed careful preparation on the part of teachers and pupils. Several of the performers showing considerable talent, while the costumes, made in the school, particularly the attractive Dutch wig worn by the girls which they made from last year's swing rope, raveled and plaited, were very ingenious.

The next day the graduates visited Trenton.

School No. 4 graduated a large class Wednesday evening. The address was given by Mr. Lester Granger, of the Bordentown Industrial School, who took for his subject, "The World Prepares a Place for the Man Who Prepares Himself."

Before the awarding of diplomas and gifts, the school gave a musical program, well rendered selections, vocal and instrumental, from Schubert, Grieg, Mozart, MacDowell, Dett and Clark, with a short account of each composer.

Both schools closed on Friday, after putting everything in order for the summer.

RIVERTON YACHT CLUB TO HAVE CELEBRATION

The Riverton Yacht Club, under the leadership of Commodore Robert Knight, has announced a fine program for the Fourth of July. Several regattas are being held at work arranging the details of the various events, and expect to have everything ship-shape when the big day comes along.

The events will include yacht races, outdoor motor races, swimming races for both boys and girls, canoe races and also tilting contests.

These events will be open to all amateurs and a large entry list is expected from Riverton, Palmyra and vicinity.

The outdoor motor races will be run on a handicap basis and it is the desire of the committee to have as many entries as possible, every effort will be made in handicapping in an effort to give each boat an even chance.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the Republican voters of Burlington County for the confidence reposed in me by renominating me for member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders. If elected in November I pledge the continuance of my earnest effort to merit public approval.

HOWARD RUSS.

June 18, 1930.

POPULAR GARAGEMAN ESCAPES DROWNING

Edman Thomas, popular Palmyra garageman, had a narrow escape from drowning last Thursday afternoon when he was thrown from an outboard motor boat about three hundred feet from the Riverton Yacht Club pier.

Thomas was cruising along at a low rate of speed when he decided to give the boat a tryout as to speed and acceleration. He suddenly opened the throttle and the speedy craft shot forward, throwing him, fully clothed, into the water.

He was able to swim to the pier and later was assisted by friends in capturing the runaway boat, which continued to run around in circles.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Riverton, held their first meeting last Friday evening.

The Troop held its second meeting at the home of Mary Rhodes Tuesday evening. This meeting was very well attended.

REV. HAROLD F. CARR MAKES FINE ADDRESS

Honor Students Deliver Valedictory and Salutatory Orations Flawlessly

The graduation exercises at the Palmyra High School last Thursday were very pleasing. Seventy-three students made their farewell appearance to the plaudits of a crowded auditorium, filled with relatives and friends.

The arrangements were carried out in perfect detail and each of the student-speakers addressed the large audience with the poise and assurance of a seasoned lecturer.

Miss Lillie M. Reidenbaker captured the hearts of her hearers with her essay, "Building a Character," which she chose as her valedictory address. The valedictorian, a resident of Cinnaminson Township, was the recipient of the prize offered by the Township Board of Education for the highest average for a student from the district. The prize, $15 in gold, was presented by Howard Taylor, president of the Board.

Wins Second Honor

The second honor of the graduating class went to a Palmyra boy, George E. Lee. He delivered the salutatory address through his discussion of the many perplexities to be confronted by those who choose "An Orchestral Career." His treatment of the subject served to show the many hours of careful thought he had given to its consideration and the very logical way in which he had drawn his conclusions.

RIVERTON POLICE COURT ATTRACTIVE

New Headquarters of Police Department Neatly Furnished and Well Equipped

With the completion of the remodeling of the Riverton Fire House, Riverton has been furnished with something which it has needed for years and never had—a suitable police headquarters. The room used for this purpose is directly back of the apparatus room and adjoins the cell room.

It has been attractively furnished and the floor covered with a linoleum rug.

There is nothing about the appointments to suggest the harshness of a court room—it has more the appearance of a business office. On the oak desk there is a telephone and a steel file for the card index system provided by Director of Public Safety Department for the recording of cases brought before the court. Two three chairs and an easy chair complete the furnishings.

The old cages in the cell room with their lack of facilities have been replaced by cells of modern construction, new beds and bedding and complete sanitary conveniences.

The Riverton Fire Company is to be complimented on the very efficient and attractive manner in which they have handled the remodeling of their building, and the borough is to be congratulated on having been provided with complete council chamber and jail facilities.

THREE ARE SLIGHTLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Frank Holvick's Car in Second Crash

Officers Gootee and Miller investigated the accident but as no complaint was made no arrests were made.

Mr. Holvick is Sergeant-at-arms in Judge Frank Mathew's District Court. He was injured in an automobile crash on Moorestown-Mount Holly road a few months ago.

LEGION CARNIVAL, BIGGER & BETTER, TO OPEN TONIGHT

Open Air Show at Broad

MANY BOOTHS WITH VARIETY OF PRIZES

Ladies' Auxiliary Will Have Stand; Dance Floor May be Feature

The American Legion carnival, bigger and better than ever before, will hold forth tonight, tomorrow and Saturday at the corner of Broad street and Thomas avenue in Riverton.

All the thrills a carnival could give will be on hand in great abundance—not a thing has been overlooked—and all is in readiness for the devotees of the brilliant midway and its many attractions.

There will be stands of many kinds—all presided over by Legion boys, or members of the Auxiliary. There will be at least one large novelty stand, with a wheel for the lucky to spin to the winning number; a candy and sugar stand will offer attractions galore for the possessors of the sweet tooth; while a miniature grocery store will offer gay shoppers a chance to fill their weekend loaders.

Games of Skill

But all will not be left to the hand of chance. There will be games of skill and dexterity. The ever popular game of Beano will afford the nimble brain a chance to show its value. Those tantalizing milk bottles, piled pyramid fashion, will tempt the clever arm and reward its accuracy. A dart game will give a chance for the skilled tossers to pit their talented wings against the law of averages.

The ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. J. William Lee, will take place in the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, at 7.30 o'clock.

The bride, who will wear a lovely creation of white organdie and net, will be attended by Miss Alberta Beresford, of Beverly, as maid of honor. She will wear a pretty frock of blue organdie, with hat and shoes to match.

TAIL WAGGERS CONTEST SUCCESS

First Club of Its Kind in This Section Meets With Public Approval

The Riverton Chapter of the Tail Waggers' Club was successfully launched last Saturday afternoon and proved a great success.

There were 19 dogs entered—being the best of this section. No one will gainsay this; ask any dog lover. "Which is the best dog?" and you will be unhesitatingly answered, "Mine." All of the seventy people who attended will vouch for this—any many of them suggested that another show in the fall would be worth while.

The prize-winners were: Handicapped Dog—"Red," a Chow-Chow, owned by Mrs. Edgar W. Miller, Riverton, and "Red" is a beauty. Most Popular Dog—"Bella," a magnificent St. Bernard, belonging to Mrs. Amy Arndt, Riverside.

The clever dogs were all so clever that the decision was difficult to make. Luke Jones' French poodle, "Dot," finally carried off the honors, with "Mips," Connie Grove's Pekingese "Yang" and "Mip," and Meribah Gardner's, of Moorestown, Cocker Spaniel, "Dan," close seconds; and Mrs. John J. McMulla, Jr., of Riverton, Pekingese, "Wong Hong," third.

The real test came with the tail wagging and Clifton Mayfield's little Boston Bull, "Ritz," had the goods, even if she didn't have much of a tail. When the suggestion of a tie-bit was made to her she just straightened out what little tail she had and wagged—and she could do it.

The second prize went to Mrs. Louis Clelland's Belgian Police dog, "Fritz," an for such a large dog he was a fast wagger. Mrs. Maurice Belknap's "Sonny" Salier, a fine Chesapeake Bay Retriever, was third. His wag was not so fast, but for consistent and persistent wagging he has the world beaten. That eloquent tail just talks all the time.

There are a lot more dogs in Riverton. Do not forget—Life Membership with all Club Privileges, One Dollar.

William Stuart of Los Angeles wants a divorce because his wife beat him with his wooden leg.

START WORK ON BOWLING ALLEYS

Nick Beitz Plans To Have New Venture in Operation Labor Day

Work started Tuesday on a new bowling alley building, which will be completed by Labor Day, according to Nick Beitz, the owner.

The contract was awarded to Eichner and Weber, Palmyra and Riverton builders, who also drew the plans for the structure. The building will be one story high and will be devoted exclusively to the use of the alleys, of which there will be eight.

Brick exterior will be used and the inside completely insulated with a special material guaranteed to deaden all sound caused by the balls striking the pins. No windows will be within fifty feet of the pits, so as to prevent any possible annoyance to neighbors. The manufacturers of the equipment guaranteed Mr. Beitz that the installation will be entirely sound-proof.

Every detail of the new enterprise will be in accordance with the latest developments in the bowling alley business and a strictly first-class recreation center will be operated by Mr. Beitz. Special attention is being given to the convenience of ladies who take up the healthful exercise of bowling. According to Mr. Beitz there are several ladies' leagues now being formed which will use the alleys. A certain time each week will probably be set aside for the exclusive use of ladies.

Arrangements are being made for a refreshment counter for the use of the patrons. This will be on a glass enclosed porch, which will extend about ten feet from the building proper.

The building will be erected just south of the Charles A. Deitz property, at 523 Morgan avenue, which Mr. Beitz recently purchased. The Deitz home is being remodeled by the new owner and will be made into a double house. Calvin Stowe has the contract for this work.

ARTISANS INITIATE CLASS OF FOURTEEN

A class of fourteen candidates were initiated Tuesday evening at the last regular meeting of the season by the Artisans' Order of Mutual Protection, Palmyra Assembly.

Degree Master, William Evans, of St. John's Assembly, Philadelphia, assisted in the initiatory work.

Memorial services were held for Clement R. Clements, a former resident of Palmyra, who lived in Philadelphia prior to his death.

Palmyra Assembly was congratulated for its fine work in securing new candidates during the past year. There were ninety-one producers, giving the Assembly second place in a group of eighty-three.

Union Assembly, with a membership of 1,200, was first with 122 producers. Palmyra Assembly, with a membership of 560, is actually the leader by a wide margin when the results are figured proportionately.

As usual at the Artisan meetings a splendid program of entertainment was provided, through the efforts of "Dad" Wright, chairman of the Entertainment Committee. Four acts of professional vaudeville of the highest class was the feature of the program.

Mrs. Eliza L. Roberts

The Mount Holly boys are to be congratulated on the able manner in which the program was carried through. Details are given in another column. Monday evening twenty candidates composed the County class, which appeared for initiation at the Palmyra Camp. The work was performed in impressive manner by a degree team selected from the various County Camps.

The following Monday nomination and election of officers for the ensuing term will take place. Plans are being worked out to make the visit to Monmouth Battle Ground, June 29, a memorable and enjoyable event.

Kroff — Grau

A very pretty home wedding took place last Saturday afternoon when Miss Pearl Estelle Grau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Grau, of 227 Elm avenue, Palmyra, became the bride of George Malcolm Kropp, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kropp, of Philadelphia.

The ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride, was performed by the Rev. J. William Lee, pastor of the Epworth M. E. Church, of Palmyra.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue chiffon and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. She was attended by Miss Mae Bergoy, of Philadelphia, who wore an attractive model of pink chiffon, and also carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Roy Borgersen, of Philadelphia, acted as best man.

After a reception, which was held at the home of the bride, the newlyweds left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Oak Lane, Philadelphia.

MR. JOHN S. KLERKX

"I had been troubled with a disordered stomach for a long time," said Mr. John S. Klerkx, 97 McLean avenue, Yonkers. "After each meal I was subject to heartburn. A burning, sour liquid came into my throat. I had no appetite and soon I became very nervous. I did not sleep well and was always tired out."

"I have taken eight bottles of Konjola and have obtained splendid results. After the first few days the heartburn disappeared. My appetite returned, my nerves became quieted and in eight weeks my digestion was perfect. I sleep soundly and feel refreshed each morning. In fact, I feel better in every way."

Konjola will bring amazing results when given a fair trial, of from six to eight bottles. Konjola succeeds when all else has failed.

PATRIOTIC ORDER PRESENTS FLAG

Burlington County Hospital Re- ceives Gift From P. O. S. of A. Organization

Flag Day was observed Saturday afternoon with the presentation of a flag to the Burlington County Hospital by the Patriotic Order, Sons of America, of the county. A parade from the lodge building of Mount Holly Camp No. 71, on Buttonwood street to the hospital, with the Mount Holly Community Band leading, preceded the exercises on the lawn in front of the hospital building. The presentation of the pole and flag and the exercises were in charge of Mount Holly Camp No. 71, P. O. S. of A., of Mount Holly.

The flag, 12 by 20 feet, was carried in the parade by seven small girls, Betty Lockhart, Betty Winton, Margaret Schival, Louis Bridge, Florence Cross, Ruth Cross and Betty Morris. Morris E. Fort, Jr., and little Lois Hampton, were dressed as Uncle Sam and Columbia. The all-steel pole, 60 feet high, which was presented to the hospital, had been bladed in its position in a concrete base.

The exercises on the hospital grounds were opened by Frank S. Davis, chairman. The Rev. W. Clarence Wright, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, made the invocation. Howard J. Jarrett, of Bordentown, district president of Burlington county, made a few remarks and called the list of camps of the order of the county. Elmer J. Fort, Jr., Albertus H. Jackson, William H. Stillwell, took part in the lodge ceremonies and the flag was raised to the top of the pole by Mr. Fort, president of the Mount Holly camp. George W. Smith, state secretary of the P. O. S. of A., of Philadelphia, delivered the presentation speech. The flag and pole was accepted on behalf of the Board of Managers of the hospital by Alfred Darnell. Benediction was by the Rev. Mr. Wright.

COUNCIL REJECTS PAVING PROGRAM; VOTE UNANIMOUS

Follows Presentation of Petitions With Majority Against

NO FURTHER ACTION
EXCEPT BY REQUEST

Mayor Not to Grant Soft Drink
Licenses to Roadhouse
Proprietors

The ordinance providing for the paving of four of the principal residential streets was voted down unanimously at a regular meeting of Borough Council held Tuesday evening.

The Council chamber was crowded with citizens who were interested in the proceedings, some in favor of the improvement and some opposed. Those opposed to the paving of the street were, apparently, in the majority.

Earlier in the day a petition protesting against the passage of the ordinance had been presented to Councilman Frank A. Snover, chairman of the Roads and Streets Department. A careful tabulation of the assessed valuations on the four streets represented was just $21,734 short of the two-thirds needed to prevent the approval of the ordinance if Council insisted on doing so.

The total assessed valuation of the streets concerned and the valuation of property represented by the protesting petition was as follows: Lincoln avenue, total valuation, $194,600; petition, $122,500; Washington avenue, total valuation, $225,700; petition, $149,300; Highland avenue, total valuation, $177,000; petition, $123,100; Morgan avenue, total valuation, $198,000; petition, $112,400.

The total valuation on the four streets was $793,400. The total valuation represented by the petitioners was $507,300.

Won't Force Paving
The Mayor and Council did not wish to exercise their prerogative in forcing the paving on the property owners when there was a clear majority represented on the petitions opposing the action.

Attorney Frank A. Mathews presented the petitioners' case after explaining he had been detained only to draft the petition and was not acting in the capacity of attorney at the hearing. He asked that the passage of the ordinance be laid over until next week.

Ralph S. Rivers asked to be heard at this point and said some of the signers wished their names taken from the petition. Mr. Mathews asked if there was anyone present who wanted his name removed.

Fred W. Frei, a resident of Washington avenue, said that he was opposed to the proposition when first approached, but was now satisfied immediate improvements of the streets would be the most economical thing to do and wanted his name stricken from the petition.

He cited the fact that the newly-laid gutters would be chipped off continually if gravel streets were used and said he was heartily in accord with a permanent program of improvement, as he thought it would be the best, cheapest and most economical thing to do.

Will Repair Streets
Mr. Snover said that if the citizens did not want paved streets the Street Department would put these streets in condition, as well as could be done with the present material, but would not apply oil or other dust killer unless same should be petitioned for by a majority of the property owners of a street. He said that if the people could not afford the cost of the paving proposed, they could not afford oiling, as it would cost more in the long run. He also gave as his opinion that the present cost of paving for each fifty-foot lot would be increased to $150 by Labor Day. The present cost would be $130.

E. L. Kelly, of Philadelphia, owner of a lot on Morgan avenue, was present and said he would like to have his name added to the petition against the paving. N. S. Beekly spoke for Fred H. Fitzmaurice, of Highland avenue, who was not present, and said he wanted his name added to the same petition.

The question of increase in assessments due to street improvement was brought up. Mr. Snover said he could say what the Assessor would do, but he knew his policy was not to raise assessments when such improvements were made.

Explains Increase
Borough Solicitor Joseph Low explained why assessments had been raised so much in the past ten or fifteen years. He pointed out that it was done in keeping with the advance in prices of property. He offered the opinion that with the present tendency towards lower prices there need be no fear of higher valuations.

Mr. Snover said taxes could be reduced by giving up rubbish and garbage collections. This work is now being done by the Street Department.

John Griftenberg, of Highland avenue, asked who would pay for upkeep if streets were paved. He was told that the Borough paid for all maintenance and that it would not be necessary for the property owners to do it.

Attorney Mathews said he supposed they would have to take it and like it if the Council decided to pass the ordinance, but he did not like his section of the town having to take the odium of opposing progress. He suggested that Council introduce a similar ordinance covering a similar mileage of streets in another section to determine whether the people living on the streets under consideration were the only ones who would oppose the proposition.

Progressive Section
Mr. Low explained that the part of the town under discussion was one of the most prosperous and progressive in the town and the Council was of the opinion that this was the proper place to start. It was also pointed out that these streets, owing to being on a hill, were more in need of a hard surface.

After the ordinance was voted on and rejected Mr. Snover announced that he would receive petitions for the paving of any one of the streets individually if the citizens wanted it. Mr. Rivers asked that the Council adjourn to meet at a date in the near future so he might present a petition asking for the paving of Lincoln avenue.

Mr. Snover told him it was the intention of the Council to meet again next Tuesday.

At this point Mayor George N. Wimer spoke to the gathering expressing unstinted praise of Mr. Snover in his efforts to work out a satisfactory street plan. He commended him for the many hours of diligent work he had given the Borough and said he was deserving of much credit from the citizens. In closing his remarks Mr. Wimer referred to him as "the best street man the Borough has ever had."

No Collections July 4-5
Councilman Cramer, chairman of the Assess and Garbage Committee, reported that no collections would be made on either July fourth or fifth, but that collections would be made July seventh.

The Mayor called attention to several applications he had received for soft drink licenses and asked the approval of Council in refusing them to persons whom he thought would misuse them.

Mr. Wimer said a road house had just been opened on the old Schwartz farm along the Pensacola Creek at the end of West Broad street, and that another was to be opened in the old Hubbs farmhouse along the new Bridge Boulevard if a license were to be granted.

Stricter enforcement of the prohibition laws in Pennsylvania is expected may roadhouse proprietors to look to New Jersey for locations. Several have been seen on Palmyra Road in the past few weeks looking for locations, but will not rent properties unless they can get licenses for soft drinks.

The Council approved of the Mayor's attitude and further licenses for places of this kind will not be granted.

Fireworks Law
Mayor Wimer also called attention to the new fireworks law recently passed by the State Legislature. Among other things it prohibits the display of fireworks in store windows (dummy packages may be used), prohibits smoking on premises where sold and prohibits the sale to children under twelve years of age. A bond of $3,000 or more is required for anyone making application for public displays.

A letter from the firm which is drawing the zoning plans for Riverton was read, in which the firm wished consent to have a representative appear before the Council and explain the advantages of zoning.

It was decided to wait and see how the proposition works out in Riverton before going into the subject.

A protest against the building of a sidewalk along a narrow strip of property was read and it was decided not to build the walk, as the property was not worth enough to pay the cost of the improvement. This is along the west side of Market street, near the bridge.

MEXICAN POOR GET FARMS
Mexico City.—Allotment of farms to Mexican peasants is provided in a decree signed by President Rubio Ortiz. None of the land so distributed has been expropriated from large land holders due to evidence that large productive holdings were broken up in the past while millions of acres of good land lay idle.

It is the aim of the President to increase employment by colonizing idle lands and at the same time to improve the insufficient farm production of the country.

"POP EYE" CLUB RAIDED BY NJSP

Riverton Youth Fined for Conducting Disorderly House; Turnbull Transferred

The Delanco Barracks of the New Jersey State Police cooperated with Under Sheriff Carlisle in several "run-raids" during the past week.

About midnight, Friday, the 13th, Troopers McGee and Rohner raided the "Twin Pines," a private dwelling in Browns Mills and seized a small quantity of liquor. The proprietor, Nellie Bennet, was arrested on charges of illegal sale and possession of liquor.

Saturday, Troopers Turnbull and Drosdick raided the premises of Herman Miller, at Lion Swamp, near Beverly. A seizure was made and Miller was held under $500 bail for grand jury on charges of illegal sale and possession of liquor and maintaining slot machines.

The premises of Joseph Burns, of Burlington, were also raided by Troopers Turnbull and Drosdick on Friday night. Burns was committed to the County Jail in default of bail. He was charged with maintaining slot machines and gambling devices.

Trooper Turnbull arrested another of the escaped inmates from Four Mile Colony on Saturday in connection with the robbery at the road stand at Pemberton. Frank Reil, the escaped inmate was committed to the County Jail without bail.

Sunday Troopers Turnbull and Rohner raided the "Pop-Eye" Club in Bridgeboro and arrested Roy Wharton, who lives in Riverton, and committed him to the County Jail for 30 days in default of $25 for conducting a disorderly house.

Dorothy Glen, of Westmont, who was also arrested at the "Pop-Eye" Club was committed to the County Jail to await the arrival of her mother.

Morris Lee, of Browns Mills, was arrested Saturday by Troopers Turnbull and Drosdick for speeding. Justice Kingdon fined him $5 and costs.

Benjamin Ellis, of Burlington, paid a fine of $5 and costs before Justice Smith on charges of speeding preferred by Troopers Drosdick and Turnbull.

Theodore Kruse, Jr., of Delair, reported his 25 foot motor launch as missing, to the State Police. Troopers Turnbull and Rohner investigated the case and arrested Ernest Bowker and William Stemmer, of Rancocas, as suspects. These men said they found the boat in the Rancocas Creek and thought it had been abandoned.

When the Troopers attempted to locate Kruse again they could not find him at the Delair address. They are trying to locate Kruse to proceed with the case.

Trooper William "Scotty" Turnbull was transferred to the New Egypt Barracks, Monday night, to take charge of that station. "Scotty" made many friends in this vicinity during his time at the Delanco Barracks and they are all sorry to see him leave.

Although he has not served quite a year in the State Police he has been made commandant at his new post of duty. This in itself speaks very highly.

EXCELLENT STAFF FOR SCOUTS' CAMP

Mechling's Committee Fortunate in Efforts to Protect Health and Safety

The Burlington County Boy Scout Camp Committee, of which Edward A. Mechling, of Moorestown, is chairman, announces a great many features in connection with this summer's camp. Parents of Scouts will all be interested to know that the committee feels particularly fortunate in its efforts to protect the health and safety of the campers.

Avery L. Bennett, of Moorestown, camp director, has a staff well qualified to handle all matters pertaining both to activities, safety and the enjoyment of the great out-of-doors. Six senior life-savers, under the leadership of John Fountain, of Moorestown, will handle the water-front activities.

At the present time a great deal of work is being done by the Hill Construction Company, of Mount Holly, in going over the water-front and bathing beach. When this work is done it is expected that the bathing beach will be one of the safest and most enjoyable in the County.

Particular attention is being devoted to the camp menu and food. Methods of buying and preparing food. A large refrigerator, donated by the Wall Rope Works, will be set up at the camp soon and will enable the officers to purchase a trifle more economically.

Somewhat later, announcements with regard to the program to be carried out will be made public. The staff is complete save for four junior leader positions, which will be filled this week. It is planned to make July, and particularly the first week of camp, of great interest to all Scouts. Special events are being prepared for these periods.

A number of troops have stated that they were desirous of attending camp as a unit, with some of the troop leaders. Several of these troops have not yet turned in applications to Scout Headquarters. As the time for the opening of camp draws nearer, the committee is becoming anxious that all registrations be turned in, since there will doubtless be a last-minute rush and some one's place will be lost through the application not being received in time. Insofar as possible, all troops attending camp as a unit will be given suitable private quarters, but this can be planned for only if the applications are in on time.

Paris tailors have agreed to charge men with more than 43-inch waist measurements a ten percent advance for their suits in future.

Ockanickian Offers Opportunities
With vacation days beginning, girls and parents are thinking more of where and how these days should be spent. There is no finer place for an all round development for girls than at the YWCA camp at Ockanickan, August 6-27. Here in the beautiful out-of-doors, with experienced leaders and counselors and girls from Burlington, Camden, Gloucester and Monmouth Counties, a girl is assured new opportunities and interests. Registrations are being sent in daily to the County YWCA office and girls are urged to send theirs soon. Because of the great number of girls who wish to come for two or three weeks, the Camp Committee is asking girls coming for one week only to register for either the first or the third week. Registration from Burlington County is limited to forty-five girls each week and all registrations must be in by July 12.

Board to Hold Festival
The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Burlington Branch of the YWCA was held on Monday evening, June 9, at the club house. A supper will be served with Mrs. George Rigg in charge, and there will be booths with cakes, ice cream, punch, and candies. The hours are five to nine o'clock.

While the food industries may be keen rivals in the race for the consumer's dollar, they are united in their joy over the decline of "dieting." Speaking at the annual convention of the National Confectioners' Association, A. M. Kelly, president of that organization declared that much of the advertising effort of the candy trade for the past three or four years has been aimed against what he termed "starvation diets."

"Four years ago," said he, "the prevalence of extreme dieting worried the food industries no less than it alarmed the medical profession. The remedy applied by the candy trade was a nation-cooperative campaign of educational advertising, and to this campaign, in part, we attribute the revulsion of sentiment against starvation diets which is now sweeping the country. The national consumption of confectionery products has more than kept up with the increase in population. The Get-Thin fad is dead; the women of America have come to their senses, and the ideal figure now is the normal figure?"

PROSPERITY MEDICINE

The dawn of a new day of national prosperity is shooting its rays over the dark horizon of depression, according to some of our eminent economists and business prognosticators. Their general consensus seems to be toward a definite period of recovery following on the heels of one of the country's gravest declines after the Wall Street crash.

Thousands of business men who went down under the landslide are still suffering from its effects, physically as well as financially. Their health was seriously affected in numerous cases to the point of complete nervous breakdown. Physicians and health directors everywhere were besieged with calls to relieve racked nerves and aching brains. Their prompt response figured greatly in keeping suicide statistics at a minimum. Complete rest instructions as to proper diet, abstinence from all stimulating drinks, even tea and coffee, and excessive smoking.

The success of this general recuperative movement is having a very definite effect, it is reported, on general business conditions, far-fetched as it may seem. Any iota of helpfulness in bringing about a normal trend again is highly commendable, regardless of who may profit, in order at least that the ranks of the nation's vast army of unemployed may be more rapidly mustered out.

MOST GIRLS WOULD WED

Marriage is the final ambition of 82 per cent. of all girls up to age of 35 in the business world, according to a research bureau which has been investigating the subject. It is also disclosed that their activities and earnings in business lead these girls to higher standards of living after marriage.

A survey among 1,500 women employees in New York shows that after three years' employment their average earnings are $33.50 a week, of which $7.56 is spent for clothes, $9.53 is given to dependents and charity, $11.66 goes for other expenses and $4.75 is saved.

Habits of thrift acquired early in the employed woman's life are reflected in increased family income, with better homes, better food, clothing, automobiles and opportunities for travel.

It has been found that of the 572 gainful occupations in the United States, women are employed in all but 35, more than 570,000 being in business in New York City alone.

Yet, in spite of the independence which their employment gives, most of them would look with favor upon matrimony, even though many would have to continue to earn money after marriage. Fortunately for mere man, women are like that.

DOLLAR

Eighty-six years old, owner of a fleet of 50 great passenger and freight ships and one of the world's largest lumber enterprises, Captain Robert Dollar still runs the details of his own great business. He started to work at 11, in his native Scotland, at wages of 60 cents a week. He has made every cent of his great fortune by hard work and still gets to his office in San Francisco at 20 minutes to nine every morning. When he feels like it he calls up Mrs. Dollar, tells her to pack the bags for a trip, and the happy old couple start out on one of his own ships for a voyage to China or around the world. On every such trip Captain Dollar finds new opportunities for American trade and new business for the Dollar ships.

MIRACLES

Nothing but gas and water are needed to make artificial silk, by a new process discovered by Professor Harold Hibbert, of McGill University, Montreal. That is amazing, even to such of us as have got used to the idea of transmission of electric currents through space. Gas-carbon dioxide, produced from coal—is invisible and, to our unaided senses, without weight. Water is a fluid which takes solid form only as ice, in our ordinary experience. But by combining the two to make a permanent, tangible solid which will take the place of rayon fibers produced from cotton or wood pulp, Dr. Hibbert has performed a miracle which seems none the less miraculous when he explains how it is done.

SPELLING

There is a great revival of interest in the old-fashioned "spelling bee." Helen Jensen, a 13-year-old girl of Council Bluffs, has just won a prize of $1,000 and the title of National Spelling Champion in a contest at Washington. Newspaper men, Congressmen, women's clubs and other bodies have been conducting spelling bees in many cities.

This is interesting and more or less important. Correct spelling is an accomplishment which reveals a great deal of the character of the individual. Good spellers are persons who concentrate on details, who have a keen eye and a pictorial memory. Few persons who learn chiefly by ear are good spellers. The "phonetic" method of teaching children to read, a fad which is being abandoned in many schools, is responsible for much of the atrocious spelling which makes so many girls unable to earn more than a bare wage as stenographers. Good spellers remember words as pictures. And that is at it should be. Spelling is of importance only in connection with reading and writing, and reading and writing are a means of expression designed to appeal to the eye only.

RADBURN

Something new in town building has been accomplished in New Jersey. Twenty miles out from New York City, the town of Radburn has been planned and built with an eye first to safety in the streets. It has been laid out so that all streets in the residential districts are "dead-end" thoroughfares. No through traffic rushes past homes, endangering the lives of children. Schools, playgrounds, parks and recreation centers have been located that no child has to cross a street carrying motor traffic to get to any of them. And there are plenty of open spaces. In the midst of which dwellings have been built which house today about 600 people, where there was nothing but a farm a year ago.

Radburn calls itself "Tomorrow's Town." It is certain that new methods of town planning must develop to meet the new tools of civilization.

TEACHERS

One reason why our public schools are not as good as they could and should be is that we do not pay the teacher the same respect—to say nothing of salary—that they do in Europe. To be a school teacher in Germany, for instance, is to achieve at once a degree of social standing equivalent to that of a physician or a lawyer.

Texas set an example years ago of one way of increasing the teacher's self-respect. In 1880 a "teachery" was built in the Blum school district in Guadalupe County—a home for the teacher. Now Texas has 1,330 of these teachers' homes, costing an average of $2,200. One teacher, H. E. Dietel, of Schumannville, taught one school and lived in one teachery for 40 years. He became the foremost citizen of his community.

The rural school without a home for the teacher or teachers is a relic of the dark ages.

DO PEOPLE FEEL BETTER BECAUSE YOU PASSED BY?

I was in a doctor's office by appointment at five-thirty when his telephone rang. A woman's voice at the other end of the wire asked him to call at the house that evening.

His voice betrayed his irritation, but he promised to call. Then he snapped the receiver on the hook and exploded.

"There is a woman who has nothing to do all day but gad about. She might just as easily have called me this morning or early in the afternoon. But, no, she has to put it off and spoil my evening."

"Nobody but a doctor has any idea of how inconsiderate people can be."

On two recent trips with two different men I had an interesting opportunity to contrast their conduct toward their fellow human beings. One of them had made several million dollars in the past few years. Whenever he entered a dining car or a hotel he wanted everybody to understand that he is rich and important. Waiters dislike him, even though he tips liberally. I sometimes felt embarrassed by his critical demands for attention.

The manner of the other man is the exact reverse. You would never guess that he is a power in world industry. He never gives orders, but makes suggestions or very courteous requests. He seems surprised that anybody should want to do him a favor. He can make a waiter or a station porter feel a new sense of self-respect merely by his smile.

A noted preacher once remarked that one of the finest of all the sayings of Jesus is this: "I have compassion on the multitude."

Said the preacher: "Many men can be virtuous. Many can be honest in a hard, self-righteous way. But how many are really considerate? How many feel instinctive respect and sympathy? How many have compassion?"

A lot of twisted standards have somehow grown up in the world. A lot of very righteous people seem to think that a man is good if he does not smoke, does not take a drink, does not do this or that.

These are negative and unimportant. The real mark of a Christian deposit these contents which I have here in the Borough files for safe-keeping. In this connection I desire to publicly thank Mr. Walter C. Wright, chairman of the Citizens' Lake Committee, for the great amount of time and effort he has given to interviewing property holders and getting their permission to create a lake by damming up the water of Poinsett Creek. I wish to pay tribute to the public-spiritedness shown by the following citizens in co-operating with our proposition and granting us the necessary permission to put it through:

Miss Ada E. Price, Mr. Jacob D. Eisele, Mr. F. Stanley Groves, Jr., Mr. Frank Hunter, Mr. Noah E. Kiser, Mr. John E. McVaugh, Mr. Albert J. Williams.

Mr. Brunt's Proposition
You will recall that at the time of the last meeting we were still negotiating with one property owner, Mr. T. Bayard Brunt, who had consented to allow us to flood his marsh land under certain conditions. Mr. Brunt has given a good deal of time and thought to this matter and has gone to the expense of having his lawyer draw up an agreement which would be satisfactory to him. I told Mr. Brunt I would submit this agreement to Council and I would like to do so at this time. In so doing, please understand that the Committee neither recommends acceptance nor rejection, preferring to have Council as a body consider the matter.

Mr. Brunt's Proposition
THIS AGREEMENT made this day of June, 1930, between the Borough of Riverton, County of Burlington, N. J., hereinafter called Borough, and T. Bayard Brunt, hereinafter called Brunt, witnesseth that:

WHEREAS, the Borough is anxious and desirous of making a swimming pool for the benefit of the public;

WHEREAS, Brunt is the owner of a farm in Cinnaminson Township, which farm is situated along Poinsett Creek; and

WHEREAS, Borough, in order to carry out the desire of making a swimming pool for the public, will construct a dam between the location of the property owned by Brunt and the marshland of Brunt; and

WHEREAS, the said dam will flood the land of the said Brunt.

Brunt Sole Judge
NOW THEREFORE, this Agreement witnesseth that for and in consideration of the obligations and rights herein set forth:

(1) Brunt, agrees to allow the Borough to flood a certain portion of the marshland of his property and the Borough, agrees that the flooding of the land shall be at the sole discretion of Brunt, and that the water mark shall be decided on entirely at Brunt's discretion. Borough, agrees that Brunt shall have the right and privilege at any time to give the Borough notice of the change of the water line.

(2) Borough, agrees to police the same and keep the water flood in a sanitary and healthful condition. Borough, agrees that the policing of the territory shall include the prohibiting of people using the land of Brunt as a nuisance. Borough, agrees that the said dam shall be the sole judge of the adequately carrying out of the conditions of this paragraph.

(3) Borough, agrees that at any time at the option of Brunt, his heirs and assigns, the said dam will be removed at the cost of the Borough, within ten days after written notice of the same has been given to the Clerk of the Council of the Borough of Riverton.

(4) Borough, agrees that if the said dam is not removed at the end of the ten-day period that Brunt may remove the same at any time at the Borough, and charge the same to the Borough, and the Borough hereby agrees to pay for the same.

(5) Borough, agrees to hold Brunt, his heirs or assigns harmless from any actions because of the flooding of the marshland and agrees to indemnify him in case of any suit for damages or any suit at law or Equity because of the flooding of the said marshland or resulting from the flooding of any of the marshland.

(6) Borough, specifically waives any right by adverse possession because of the flooding of the said marshland and agrees to defend the said Brunt, for any actions at law or Equity concerning the boundaries and possession of the said flooding. Borough, specifically admits that this is not a dedication of said land.

(7) Borough, agrees that this Agreement shall be passed on at said Council and approved by them and by the Mayor and put on the minutes of the said Council.

It is mutually agreed that this Agreement shall not become binding on Brunt until the said Council and Mayor approve of the same.

Brunt's Proposition Rejected
Mr. Elwell said that Mr. Brunt's document represented the very best terms he was able to obtain after several conferences.

Councilman Joshua S. Bartley, chairman of the Finance Committee, immediately moved the rejection of the Brunt proposition. The motion was seconded by Councilman Henry L. Randall, who said that its provisions were ridiculous and meant that Council would be obliged to abandon the idea of having a lake.

Mr. Bartley said that it was hardly believable that a resident of Riverton could desire to let the Council up to that extent in a matter of public improvement which would be a source of so much pleasure to his neighbors and fellow-townsmen, and Mr. Randall expressed his surprise that a Rivertonian should show so little spirit of co-operation. Mr. Bartley's motion was unanimously passed.

Many Want Lake
Councilman William H. Albertson said that many residents had spoken to him about the development of the park and they all thought that the lake would be the most valuable asset in the people's playground.

Councilman Charles D. DeLaney, Director of Public Safety, said that it was with extreme regret that Council was forced to let the lake. He suggested, however, that Council proceed immediately to make the best of the proposition presented at a previous meeting to develop the lily ponds into a swimming pool.

He said that if the springs in the ponds did not supply sufficient water to keep the pool clean, additional water could be secured by driving a four-inch well and installing a pump, which would cost between $2,000 and $2,500.

In order to convert the ponds into a swimming pool, it will be necessary to remove a considerable quantity of mud, and Mr. Elwell offered a motion, which was seconded by Mr. Randall, and unanimously passed, that bids be asked for dredging the ponds at the same time that bids are asked for the construction of the grand stand.

These bids will be considered at an adjourned meeting of Council, to be held July 1.

Economy in Highway Department
Mr. Bartley complimented Robert H. Clelland, Director of Highways, on the notable reduction in the expenses of his department, particularly in the item of labor. Mr. Clelland was also complimented on the fine appearance of Howard street, which has just been top-dressed with Amelsite.

The following bills were introduced for the improvement of Memorial Park passed second and third readings by unanimous vote.

Stanley Stewart, the architect, who has been working with the Borough Property Committee on the proposition of erecting a grand stand, submitted revised plans which were approved by Council and the Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids to be opened July 1 on motion of Mr. Elwell, seconded by Mr. Randall.

Director of Public Safety Charles D. DeLaney submitted his monthly report of the Police Department as follows:

Police Report
The following covers the activities of the Police Department as reported by Chief Quigley, from May 6th, 1930, to June 10th, 1930.

Several weeks ago certain boys were reported to have broken benches in Memorial Park. The matter was taken up with the parents of these boys, who assured the police that the boys would behave in the future.

On May 9th an automobile owned by Norman Lane was reported stolen in Camden. It was later recovered by the Camden police.

Our officers assisted the State Police, May 11th, in a raid on a disorderly house at Five Points, arresting seven men and four girls. All the defendants pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and were fined $3.00 each, with costs of $3.00. Hearing before Justice of Peace Cecil Bowers.

May 12th, 1930—Alfred Williams, of Philadelphia, was arrested for reckless driving and fined $3.00. Hearing before Justice of Peace Cecil Bowers.

May 13th, 1930—Mrs. Noble, East Riverton, reported her husband, Oran Noble, a World War veteran, missing. He returned home the following day.

May 26th, 1930—Charles Miller, of Riverton, was arrested for reckless driving. In the car with Miller were Elmore Briancone, also of Riverton, and John Ryan, of Palmyra. Officer Miller ordered Miller to drive to the Police Court. As the car approached Howard and Main streets, Briancone was seen to throw a bottle of whiskey from the car, which broke in the street.

Upon arriving at the police headquarters Officer Miller ordered the men out of the car. Briancone became abusive and struck the officer, who grasped with him. At this point of the scuffle Officer Miller ordered the officers in carrying Briancone into police headquarters.

Both Miller and Briancone appeared to be intoxicated. Dr. Mark was called to examine Miller, the driver of the car, and found that inasmuch as he had been drinking, he was not drunk.

Briancone complained of an injured shoulder. He was also examined by Dr. Mark, who suggested that he be taken to Riverside Hospital in the morning to have an X-ray taken of the shoulder.

Miller was fined $4.25 for reckless driving, and Briancone $11.25 for disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. John Ryan, of Palmyra, was discharged. Cecil Bowers took Briancone to the hospital. He suffered a fractured shoulder, was treated and released with instructions from the doctor to report back to the hospital for treatment. The injury was caused by himself in trying to break loose from the officer who was holding him. The man was drunk and did not realize his own strength. If the man had been in a sober frame of mind this unfortunate affair would not have happened.

Officer Miller is to be complimented on not using his black jack to beat the man into submission.

The gas station bandits are still operating in Cinnaminson Township. On May 27th the station owned by the Atlantic Refining Company, at Five Points, was held up and robbed. The bandits obtained $20.00 from the attendant, Charles Bauer. To date the bandits have not been captured.

Harry Hyton, colored, East Riverton, was arrested for drunk and disorderly conduct. Hyton came home drunk and proceeded to beat his wife and child. He was fined $50.00 and $5.25 costs, and taken to Mount Holly in default of fine for sixty days.

Isaac Cotton, colored, was arrested for taking a truck from Steedle's Garage, driving it without a license, and demolishing a street light at Seventh and Lippincott avenues. After the accident he ran away, but was later picked up. He was charged with drunk and disorderly conduct and taken to Mount Holly jail for ninety days.

J. C. Clark of Deere's, reports the theft of ten prize rose bushes. The police are investigating.

Several complaints have been received by the Department of dogs running at large. The owners of said dogs have been requested to assist us in keeping them off the streets unless accompanied by the owner. In some cases, our requests have been ignored, and it has been necessary to take the dogs to the Palmyra police headquarters and have them gassed. We earnestly appeal to the citizens who own dogs to co-operate with us.

During the month we have had four men in jail for night lodging.

J. Wilson Sylvester, member of the Zoning Commission, submitted a final report of the Commission and maps showing the zoned areas.

The ordinance will be officially presented at the adjourned meeting of Council July 1.

The following letter from the Riverton Porch Club was read and ordered filed:

"To the Honorable Mayor and Council of the Borough of Riverton, Gentlemen:

The Executive Board of the Riverton Porch Club wishes to express its approval of the playground proposition being developed at Memorial Park, and also offer its co-operation. Signed, WILHELMINA P. KINSEY.

"Public Welfare Department." The Building Inspector's report showed building operations amounting to $3,800 and fees of $22.50.

The Board of Health report included fees of $5.

A letter was received from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company confirming the verbal assurance of C. M. Wissman, that no more railroad crossings would be raised in Riverton. The letter stated that this included the crossings at Elm and Thomas avenues and Main and Cedar streets.

The Clerk was instructed to acknowledge the letter and spread it upon the minutes.

A letter was received from the Amelsite Corporation stating that a written guarantee would be furnished for the road construction just completed on Howard street.

The meeting closed with a complimentary by the Mayor to the Riverton Fire Company for the attractive window screens and shades with which the Council Chamber had been equipped.

The following bills were ordered paid:

MORROW POLLS

BIG VOTE HERE

AND IN COUNTY

It has been felt for some time that the Judiciary in Riverton should be augmented, and Mr. Bowers has the backing of some of the Borough's most influential men.

Palmyra contests of local interest were those for Republican County Committee in the third and fourth districts. There were no contests in the other two districts. One of the biggest upsets in many years occurred when Mrs. D. M. Wass and Howard Lippincott defeated Mrs. Claire Lippincott and Walter D. Lamon in the third district by large majorities.

The vote was as follows: Mrs. Wass, 245; Mrs. Lippincott, 161; Conover, 248; Lamon, 185.

One of the closest battles was the contest between Mrs. Alice Kilpatrick and Mrs. Mary Kates in the third district. The former won by a vote of 187 to 171. In the same district former Mayor James T. Weart won from George MacCord by a margin of 231 to 143.

As was expected, Freeholders Howard Russ, of Delanco, and J. Lloyd Wright, of Medford, were high in the six-cornered scramble for the two O. O. P. nominations. These two men topped the ticket here, with Charles B. Jessup, of Cinnaminson, running a good third. The County Council for the sixty-seven out of the eighty-seven districts was:

H. B. Earnest, Riverton, 4,176; J. Lloyd Wright, Medford, 7,257; William F. Young, Burlington, 2,939; Charles L. Edinger, Riverton, 712; Charles B. Jessup, Cinnaminson, 3,371; Howard Russ, Delanco, 8,208.

Congressman Isaac Bacharach, State Senator Clifford R. Powell and Assemblyman Marcus W. Newcomb, all unopposed, were given excellent votes of confidence by the voters of the County.

Councilman Unopposed
Palmyra Borough candidates, who were unopposed, were Julius Fisher and Alfred H. Bradley, Council, on the Republican ticket. Both are now members of the Council. There were no Democratic candidates.

John C. Belton, 2nd of Moorestown, one of the three candidates for the County Coroner nomination on the Republican ticket, won with a vote of 5,127. William O. Cunningham, of Riverside, was second with 3,846. Charles Russell, of Mount Holly, finished third with 2,083.

There were no contests of any kind on the Democratic ticket. A detailed account of the results in Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson appears in another column.

The class banner was presented to the president of the Junior class, Wesley L. Hemphill, by Howard C. Shaver, president of the Senior class. The senior president told of the care with which his classmates had kept the emblem that they might hand it, unscathed, to the class which was to follow. The Junior president accepted it with a gracious speech, saying that he and his class would put forth every endeavor to be as worthy as the class preceding that they might pass it on to those following as an inspiration in high ideals.

"Pioneering in 1930" The speaker of the evening was the Rev. Harold F. Carr, who spoke on "Pioneering in 1930." The Rev. Carr admonished the graduates to believe that all the romance of the pioneer had vanished from this modern world and pointed out the many works now awaiting the hands of the pioneer.

The speaker cited the case of Admiral Byrd, who, when asked what he was thinking about as he circled the North Pole, said, "I was thinking of the many, many regions as yet unexplored in the human mind."

The Rev. Mr. Carr continued to tell of the many places in which the modern pioneer could find a place in medicine and science, and, above all, urged his listeners to take heed of the need of exploring their own selves that they might discover that which is good and cultivate it and find that which is bad and cast it out of their lives.

George Lee also was awarded a scholarship prize, being the winner of $5 in gold offered by the Palmyra Parent-Teachers' Association for the highest average among Palmyra pupils. The presentation was made by Mrs. Elias M. Toy, president of the organization.

Presents Legion Medal
The American Legion medal presented each year to the Senior boy who best exemplified those traits which are so desirable in the life of the Republic, was won by Leo C. Colgate. The presentation was made by W. Rex MacCrosson, Departmental Vice-Commander for South Jersey. Mr. MacCrosson called attention to the qualities necessary to win this award and remarked humorously that if he were a Frenchman presenting a medal he would wish the recipient on each check, but being an American he would express his approval by a hearty handshake.

The Legion medal is presented to the boy who excels in three ways, namely—scholastic standing, interest in athletics and general spirit and popularity among fellow students.

Dewees Showell presented Alumni cups to Eugene Bruno and Violet Wallace. These trophies are awarded to the boy and girl each year who does the most to promote athletics.

Howard Shaver, president of the Senior class, was awarded a medal for the highest average in mathematics and science, offered annually by the New Jersey Alumni of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Senior Essay Winner
The prize offered by the Palmyra Riverton Lion's Club for the winner of the Senior essay contest, was presented to Lillie M. Reidenbaker, valedictorian, by David Schwartz, newly-elected president of the club. Second prize went to John Fuller, of Riverton, who expects to enter Ohio State

ATTACKS CORONER

of 15-Year-Old Son

Coroner William P. Young, of Burlington, was attacked by a coronator of the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, Monday, by a frenzied father who temporarily was overcome by the death of his son, and for a time the official had all he could do to keep himself from being injured. At the same time the madly attacked one of the nurses, striking her on the breast.

The two who lost control of themselves were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Regan, of Beverly-Brigden road. The boy who died was Emilio Regan, aged fifteen years. He had submitted to an operation for the removal of his tonsils and had recovered when he was taken strangely ill and died.

Coroner Young was called and an autopsy was performed and it was revealed that the lad had died of an over-developed thymus, a disease gland that ordinarily disappears, but in this instance remained and became enlarged.

It was necessary to secure assistance before the father and mother finally were quieted.

GERMANY BANK COMPULSORY VACCINATION

Berlin.—It has been decided by Germany's Council of Health that the rigidity of the vaccination law should be slackened. The council is composed entirely of physicians of high standing, but they have agreed that the procedure of vaccination under police compulsion is a mistake and out of place. The council advocates the payment of compensation on proof of any deleterious effects arising from inoculation.

LOCAL CHURCH NEWS

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"IS THE UNIVERSE, INCLUDING MAN, EVOLVED BY ATOMIC FORCE?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 22, 1938.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord, how manifold are thy works; in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. The glory of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works" (Psalms 104: 24, 31).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens: God himself that formed the earth; he made it; he hath established it; he created it not in vain; he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45: 18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science Lesson: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Infinite Mind creates and governs all, from the mental molecule to infinity. This divine Principle of all expresses Science and art throughout His creation, and the immortality of man and the universe" (p. 507).

EPISCOPAL

Rev. G. J. McCormack

The doctrine of the Trinity and Symbolic Language? Placed in his later years, was a Christian—before Christ! Philosophy to him was the knowledge of God as supreme reality. Those who are called to this quest must give up their lives to it.

They must be abreast of the latest advances of science—they must think out all these metaphysical problems such as the Trinity. Above all, they must look after their own bodies and bring them into subjection to Christ. For many there is the problem of parasites.

Our Lord tells us that He spoke in parables that the multitude might not understand! Why should our Lord disguise His meaning by cryptic language? Symbolic Language was the common language of Hebrew Prophecy. When one says, "You have not said openly—all you think? You have cards up your sleeve!"

Well, there is always a great temptation to take a season ticket on the line of least resistance, and then call it statesmanship. It is a very real difficulty. I am sure many preachers underrate the intelligence of their hearers. And at least many people think what they do not say openly! The knowledge of God as the supreme reality—is the subject of all through the Trinity Season.

The O. F. S. candidates, in charge of Mrs. R. C. Anderson, and her associates, will hold a picnic on Thursday at Wissinoming Park, leaving the Church at 10:30 a. m.

The Lambeth Conference of Bishops from every part of the earth is meeting in July and August, and your prayers and interest are solicited.

We ask for a special effort from every member of the Church to attend the morning service at 10:30—during the summer months. There is no evening service.

First Sunday After Trinity: 10:30 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon, "The Nature of God."

"To fear God is good. To Love Him is better. To fear Him in Love is best of all."

FIRST LUTHERAN

Rev. Harold L. Cragger, Pastor

Next Wednesday an event of real significance for modern Christianity will be celebrated. It will be the four hundredth anniversary of the first formal creed of Protestantism. On June 25, 1538, the leaders of the Lutheran Reformation presented to the Emperor and his assembly of dignitaries at the city of Augsburg a statement of the doctrines they believed and taught, and of the errors and abuses they criticized and opposed.

This document became known as the Augsburg Confession, and has remained the principal creed of the Lutheran Church all over the world. The creeds of the Presbyterian and Anglican churches were very largely influenced by it also, so that it stands as a great landmark in church history.

In celebration of this important event the Lutheran churches of Camden and vicinity are uniting in a meeting at St. Paul's Church, Collingswood, Rev. H. Hagedorn, pastor. The Rev. Dr. L. Chantry Hoffman, Philadelphia, will be the principal speaker.

The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening, June 25, and it is hoped that it will be largely attended and will serve a useful mission in promoting an understanding and appreciation of the truths of the gospel of Christ.

The sermon in this church Sunday morning will also be devoted to a consideration of this subject.

The Women's Missionary Society will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. William Ott, 739 Cinnaminson avenue.

A feature of the meeting will be the presentation of reports from the spring missionary conference recently held in Norwood, Pa.

Next Tuesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Dramatic League will be held at the home of Mrs. William Ott, 739 Cinnaminson avenue.

Plans are under way for the presentation of a very interesting play next fall.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor

A "Poverty Party" was tendered the Samaritan Class by the Junior Philanthropy Class Monday evening, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Various games were played. Those present appeared in old clothing and a fine was imposed for each article of adornment. A "picnic lunch" was served on uncovered plates.

The weekly meetings of the Grenfell BYPU have been discontinued for the season.

DRUNKEN DRIVER GIVEN SIX YEARS

Trenton Man is Found Responsible for Deaths of Two Persons

Convicted on his confession of guilt in causing the deaths of two persons by automobile addition it Titus, of Trenton, was twice sentenced by Judge Rigg, sitting at the Court House in Mount Holly Thursday of last week.

Titus had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of manslaughter when assigned the person responsible for an automobile accident which happened near Roeboling about a year ago, when his car collided with a truck and Robert Palmer and Maud Edmunds, who were riding with him, lost their lives.

In passing sentence, Judge Rigg made it very clear that he will not condone the practice of drunken men driving automobiles, for it had been shown that Titus was intoxicated when the accident occurred.

He sentenced Titus to three years in State Prison for being responsible for the death of Palmer and the sentence in the Edmunds case, the sentences to run consecutively.

With the pronouncing of sentence, Titus's wife, who was a spectator, along with his mother, fainted and slid out of her seat, and restoratives had to be applied by Court Officer Elizabeth Burroughs.

Samuel S. Peters, of Alton, who gave a Red Lion man two worthless checks and had pleaded guilty to the two indictments, was sentenced to pay a fine of $70 and placed on probation for six months.

Andrew Aroja, a Portuguese from Beverly, who had been tried and convicted on a charge of resisting an officer, was fined $75 and he was given six months in which to pay, during which time he will be on probation.

Arthur Miller, of Mount Holly, sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and $21 costs after he had been convicted in Recorder Kingdon's court in Mount Holly on a charge of drunken driving, and who had appealed from the decision, will pay the fine as the action of the Lower Court was sustained.

Curtis Fritz, of Maple Shade, who had been arrested on order of Probation Officer Frank A. Hendrickson for violation of parole, and who has been in jail, was ordered discharged, on motion of Mr. Hendrickson.

CLUB'S PLANE IN FORCED LANDING

H. F. Stockwell, Jr., Passenger, Says Experience "Wasn't Too Frightening"

H. F. Stockwell, Jr., Moorestown reitor, last Friday had the thrill of making a forced landing in an airplane, but did not find the experience nearly so frightening as it is supposed to be.

Mr. C. A. Camp Ockanekon in a Burlington County Aero Club's plane with "Jim" Erdman, the club's chief pilot, at the controls, and they had started back to the Moorestown airport when motor trouble developed.

And as Mr. Stockwell tells of the experience, "It was all very simple. Jim" merely looked ahead, picked a smooth field on a farm near Indian Mills, and set the plane down, landing just as easily as if we were completing an uneventful hop at the airport. We had plenty of altitude when the trouble developed, and I don't see how anyone could have been frightened."

When asked if his first experience would prevent him from taking plane hops, Mr. Stockwell replied quite emphatically, "No! Why should it?"

The pilot and his passenger had to wait several hours for a car to come from the airport and they found awaiting "rescue" more annoying than the forced landing.

A broken valve stem caused the trouble. The plane was tied down on the farm overnight and after nearly a day's work by the club mechanics it was brought back to the Moorestown late Saturday afternoon.

Tracked by a trail of leaking liquid Harry and John Gardner of Toronto were arrested for stealing a barrel of beer.

PLANE TALKS

By Lt. H. H. LONGAKER
Founder, Burlington County
Aero Club

Some months ago we told you about the "West Point of the Air," Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas, his field, consisting of 2,362 acres, has been under construction since November, 1928, and will not be completed for three more years. It is the largest aviation cantonment in the world and will be used as the Army Air Corps Primary Flying School. When completed Randolph Field will have a population of nearly 5,000, more than half of whom will be military personnel. Formal dedication ceremonies will take place this Friday and Saturday.

Next week a new Waco F. will join the ships at the Moorestown Airport of the Burlington County Aero Club. This ship, just purchased by one of the club officials, will be flown here from the Waco factory at Troy, Ohio, by the new owner, accompanied by Chief Pilot "Jim" Erdman. The color scheme will be Vermillion fuselage and silver wings and tail surfaces, and the ship will be powered with a Warner seven-cylinder 110 horsepower radial engine.

Every city, town and village in the United States should have an airport or landing field because it is fundamentally correct city-planning procedure to provide for the future, as we have learned through observation of the tremendous expenses caused through inability of our fathers to foresee railroad and automobile traffic. The provision of a landing field today is preparation for the present and insurance for the future.

Emmory Roberts, the Flying Apple King, recently took Mrs. Roberts and their two youngsters for a hop over the County. We'll wager the kiddies were thrilled when their first airplane ride was in Daddy's ship with Daddy at the controls.

Lieutenant Apollo Sorek, of the Navy, brought back to this country the world's altitude record when he flew the Wasp powered Wright Apache to a height of 43,166 feet. The former record of 41,794 feet was held by a German. When you take an airplane up in the air for almost eight miles you can surely be called a "high flyer."

Ford Buys Lincoln Furniture
"Springfield, Ill.—Henry Ford, who recently bought the entire car house building in Lincoln, Ill., for his historical museum, has bought a second foray into Central Illinois and bought almost all the original furniture of Abraham Lincoln's Springfield home, the frame house the "Emancipator" left in 1860 for the White House.

The furniture is sound mahogany, upholstered in hareluck. The purchase included a big table, the feature piece of Lincoln's living room, a dozen straight backed chairs, in two sets, a clock, a small book table, two rocking chairs, and part of the furnishings of Lincoln's bedroom—a large mirror and a wash stand.

ROBERTS AND TOMES FLY TO CHICAGO

Make 3,000-Mile Trip to Rotary Convention and Back in Senator's Plane

Former State Senator Emmor Roberts, of Moorestown, and James J. Tones, Editor of The Moorestown News, went to Chicago by airplane to attend the twenty-fifth International Rotary Convention.

Mr. Roberts, who recently won a transport flying license, piloted his own plane. It was the first time he had ever attempted a trip of such distance.

The two Rotarians left Moorestown Airport Sunday morning just as day was beginning to break, at five o'clock. Telegrams received by their friends said they reached Chicago safe and sound at 5:30 p. m., having "sat down" twice at airports along the route for refueling and brief inspection of the plane. No trouble of any kind was experienced during the whole thousand miles of the journey.

The return trip was started late Tuesday afternoon. They planned to spend the night at some point enroute and resume the trip early Wednesday morning, being due in Moorestown the middle of Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Tones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. C. Tones, of Fifth street, Palmyra, and was formerly connected with The Palmyra News.

FIREBUG IS SENT TO REFORMATORY

Rigg Issues Sentence When Defendant Charged by Warden Appears Before Him

Judge Rigg disposed of several final accounts in the Orphans' Court at Mount Holly Thursday of last week and then took up the cases of two young men who came before him on waivers.

Harold Edmunds, who claims Massachusetts as his home, and who had been arrested on complaint of Division Fire Warden John A. Thornburg, of Mount Holly, charged with being a pyromaniac and with setting at least one of the fires on the Wharton estate, near New Gretna, during the serious wood fires which burned over a large territory of the woodlands of the County a few weeks back, was sent to Rahway Reformatory for an indefinite period.

Edmunds pleaded non vult to the one charge placed against him, but the complainant is convinced that more of the fires could be traced to his handiwork, as he was found in a number of different places acting suspiciously while the fires were going on.

On Probation

He has a record of having started a fire in his home State, and it is said to be on probation in that State at the present time.

Frank Reil, whose last place of abode was the State Colony at Four Mile, and who escaped from that institution recently, being located near Vineland, entered a plea of guilty to breaking and entering the road stand of Tyler White, near Pemberton, and stealing cigarettes, candy, etc., to the value of $35.

Superintendent Jones, of the Colony, had reported to the authorities that while Reil had been a resident there but a short time, he had been a disturber, and it was also shown that he had been confined at different times in the State Hospital for the Insane, Jamesburg Reformatory and the Vineland Home for Feeble Minded.

He will spend the next few months in Rahway Reformatory.

Joseph Devine, indicted for manslaughter by automobile, had the charges nolle prossed, on motion of Prosecutor Howard Eastwood.

Slander Suit

Two cases on the Common Pleas list were disposed of last week, the first being a slander suit brought by Samuel Kotlikoff against his brother-in-law, Leonard Greenblatt, both of Maple Shade.

Kotlikoff claimed that back in 1928 his brother-in-law said he was a crook and that he was selling stolen goods.

Although a slander may have taken place, no financial damage was shown and a non-suit was granted.

Another case was that of Jacob Zlotkin, a dealer in cows, of Freehold, against Fred Powell, of Southampton Township.

This suit was brought to recover on several protested notes and checks, and the jury returned a verdict in favor of Zlotkin for $1,453.65.

The third and last case of the day was that of John Klekotka, of Burlington, against John Repece, of Riverton, and was brought to recover for poor workmanship on a plastering job done for the plaintiff by the defendant.

By agreement of counsel, a verdict of $100 was returned in favor of the plaintiff.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor: Will you kindly express through the medium of The New Era my appreciation to the voters of Riverton for their support in the recent election.

Sincerely,
WALTER K. WOOLMAN.

NUUD-MUELLER

MOORESTOWN MAN INJURED IN CRASH

Francis Taylor Pinned Under Car in Collision at Parry

Saturday two Ford coupes crashed at the Five Points corner on Burlington Pike near Palmyra, injuring a Moorestown man seriously when his car overturned.

Francis Taylor, 24 years old, of Moorestown, the owner and driver of one car, was pinned under his machine. He was removed to the West Jersey Hospital with internal injuries, possible fracture of the skull and fractured rib. His condition was serious, but latest reports point to recovery.

Andrew Robinson, of Oaklyn, driver of the other car, was uninjured.

Trooper Turnbull investigated the accident, but no complaint was made by either party.

Another Crash

Cars driven by Joseph H. Woolman, of Burlington, and John McGinnis, of Beverly, crashed at Chant's Corner, on the Burlington Pike above Bridgeboro, Monday night, but no one was seriously injured.

Doris, 9 years old, and Ruth, 13 years old, daughter of Mr. Woolman, suffered slight cuts from broken glass on arms and legs.

Trooper Turnbull investigated the accident, but made no arrests.

The following persons were arrested by Trooper Turnbull for motor vehicle violations over the weekend: Robert Cook, of Media, reckless driving, fined $5 and costs; Walter Lorenz, of Merchantville, reckless driving, fined $10 and no costs.

Thomas Farmer, of Burlington, was arrested by Trooper Drosdick for speeding. He was fined $5 and costs.

A warrant has been issued for Clarence Crowley, of Riverside, on a charge of deserting his wife. State Police are conducting a search for him.

Chicken Thieves

Sunday night renewed activities of chicken thieves in this County were brought to light by a complaint received by the State Police at Delanco from J. Fisher, of Fairview, who reported about thirty of his flock had been stolen.

The Troopers from Delanco, assisted by three from the Columbus Station, conducted an all night search Sunday and continued the search up to Tuesday morning.

When the Troopers first started the investigation they found two Essex cars parked together along the Oyster Shell road between Burlington Pike and Rancocas, near Park road. Upon the arrival of the State Police a colored woman was seen to get out of one of the cars and make a get-away through an orchard.

While investigating chicken coops on nearby farms a box and flashlight were found in one, which gave evidence of the thieves being scared off. Footprints of two men and a woman were also found.

There were nearly 90 chickens found in the cars by the Troopers. Of these 20 were identified and returned to J. Fisher and John Brawbaugh claimed eight of those remaining. About 15 chickens were closed up in the trunk on the rear of one of the cars and had smothered to death.

COMMUNICATED

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE LAKE:

After a most enjoyable fishing trip I returned to the old Home Town to learn that lots of very nice things had been published in an article about me which I have refrained from reading, not wishing to have any feeling of animosity toward anyone. I have come to look upon this affair in more or less of a light vein, as it was handled in such a crude and unbusinesslike manner, and most undiplomatically. My personal attitude is somewhat like a friend who expressed it thus—"Your friends know, and those who are not friendly do not wish to know." However, after persistent requests by friends and neighbors who had only heard the one side of the story, I have consented to tell in a general way the other side of this question.

Although a resident of Riverton, I was called by telephone to my office in Philadelphia and TOLD that the Borough wished to construct a dam, which would flood out in order to form a lake, and I was given to understand that, in the event we did not give our consent, they could take over the land anyway.

We had a meeting the following Sunday morning, when I was again informed that the land could be acquired if I did not consent to the wishes of the Committee. Right then and there I made it very clear that we had bought, paid for and had a deed for the land. Even after this most stupid move on the part of the representative, I stated that we did not intend to stand in the way of their plans, and would permit the flooding provided we were properly protected. The Committee's representative agreed and promised we would have protection. After two subsequent meetings, which consumed a considerable amount of my time, as well as Mr. Ewell's, we outlined the high points of a tentative agreement.

Mr. Ewell submitted this to Council, and they destroyed its value as an agreement by a qualifying clause. Now I do not know if Mr. Ewell was promising something he did not intend to do, or if he was simply trying to have the authority to promise, but I do know that his promise was not fulfilled.

After Mr. Ewell submitted to me the resolution by Council, which did not contain the protection he had promised, I was again informed that we did not have an agreement drawn, which was done at my expense.

I consulted with unbiased minds as to what the Borough was asking of us, and what we had requested in return, and in every instance my judgment was sustained in all its details. We did not believe we were requiring any more than others would under the same circumstances. When the agreement was finally drawn and presented, Mr. Ewell, without digesting its contents thoroughly or considering with others, perhaps more cool and mature mind, he immediately became peeved and allowed his mind to become prejudiced against us, and neither he or anyone else offered a constructive idea for the solution of the problem.

It is simply amazing and amusing to think that men with personal and political ambition, to have acted like the kid who wanted the moon and just would not play when it was not handed over.

Servants of the people should endeavor to find a solution to public problems by following the personal whims, temper, or ambitions of no one. Men in public life should be prepared to submerge themselves.

For the third successive year J. Edward Lippincott has won the Golf Club Championship at the Riverton Country Club this year by defeating Bruce A. Wallace 10 up and eight to play.

The local Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary would like to express, through the medium of the press, its sincere thanks to all friends who responded so generously to the request for ear phones to take to the boys at the Naval Hospital at League Island.

PALMYRA BOYS IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Bernhardt Saylor and Edwin Kreeker Suffer Minor Lacerations and Bruises

Three occupants of an automobile, two of them from Palmyra, received painful lacerations and bruises in an auto accident near Dresher, Pa., last Thursday afternoon.

The car driven by Edwin Kreeker, Garfield avenue, Palmyra. His companions were Bernhardt Saylor, also of Palmyra, and George Winn, of Dresher, Pa.

The machine was forced off the side of a narrow road by an approaching car and skidded into a telegraph pole. All three were treated by a physician in a nearby town and were able to return to their homes.

The car was almost demolished and from its appearance it seemed a miracle that the occupants escaped with their lives.

LEGION LADIES VISIT HOSPITAL

Spend Busy Afternoon Spreading Good Cheer Among Convalescent Veterans

The ladies and friends of the local Legion Auxiliary unit who journeyed to League Island Tuesday had a very pleasant afternoon, despite the day being a humid one.

It was raining when it was time to start but their spirits were not dampened. The boys gave the ladies a very hearty welcome and there were a great many men waiting for them since they remembered with pleasure the last visit the Auxiliary made.

Even though it was hot, they enjoyed the card playing just the same. Tak-About and pinels were served as refreshments and the boys all agreed that the ice cold Tak-About was a quite a treat. Each man received a little gift which was most attractive. Packages of chewing gum, together with several cigarettes were tied on two postal cards with a red, white and blue band of paper.

The cards are a much needed article at hospital since so often the men wish to write just a few words to home folks or friends, and if they have a few cards on hand it is such a help.

A great number of magazines and three decks of cards were an individual donation left at the hospital for the boys.

And weren't the men pleased with the earphones. There were 42 sets taken by the ladies, and the kind friends who donated these sets may feel assured that the appreciation of them is truly hard to express. There will be many men who will be able to enjoy a little music, a little cheer or whatever they like best on the program, which comes over the air each day.

It was a lovely party without a doubt and it won't be so very long before it is time to go again.

VETERAN OFFICIAL DIES IN DELANCO

Charles H. Ellis, Former Township Committee Chairman, Victim of Heart Disease

Charles H. Ellis, 61 years old, Delanco Recorder and former Township Committee chairman, fell dead from heart disease while attending a meeting of the committee in Delanco Town Hall Thursday evening of last week.

Ellis was recommended for office of Justice of the Peace in the primaries. He occupied that office while he was a member of the Committee and the Township chairman. He was on the Committee 4 years and served two years as its head.

He is survived by two sons with whom he made his home, and a daughter. The sons are Harry and George Ellis, and the daughter, Mrs. Estelle Shipp. All live in Delanco. Mr. Ellis' wife, Elizabeth, died six years ago.

Funeral services were held Monday from his late home, Rev. James Doughton, of the Dobbins Memorial M. E. Church, officiating. Ellis was a prominent work in that church. Interment was in Monument Cemetery, Beverly.

The final chapter—instead of the men charged with the responsibility of administering our affairs offering a constructive plan, they went to my friends and came to me with veiled threats intimating that unless we conceded to their wishes, they would have Mr. Bowen publish an article in the future treatment of the taxpayers.

My answer to that is this: I am free born, own my home, pay taxes and feel that perhaps the Borough might have some one not so desirable. This is not a threat, but a statement. Think it over. It may create a little foreboding, in reference to future treatment of the taxpayers.

I am positive that any red-blooded citizen of Riverton would have resented the attitude of the Committee who in this unfair manner, closed the door to any agreement.

It is very fine and easy to play with the other fellow's property, but when it is their own there may be a different story and I wonder if, should I buy playground equipment, would Mr. Bowen be willing to have his front lawn used for a playground?

I am sorry Mr. Bowen has been used for a purpose, and as to the other members of Council, whom I understand were kind enough to add a few remarks. If these men formed an opinion without having heard both sides and not having all the facts before them, they certainly displayed poor judgment, and if our town affairs are being carried on by men of this caliber it behooves the citizens to consider greater things than a lake, to be formed on private property without giving a protection to the owner.

I'll wager that every clear-thinking citizen will agree that it was only wisdom on my part to ask for protection and a means of obtaining it, on the occasion of this affair and the attitude of the men handling it, have given ample and conclusive proof that I certainly needed protection.

Boroughs and Towns are not made merely by lakes, but do progress and grow when the hearts, minds and spirits of men are right, causing them to work for the common good without injury to the interest of the individual.

CITIZENS PETITION PALMYRA COUNCIL FOR ASPHALT STS.

Majority Sign for Lincoln and Part of Morgan and Highland

ORDINANCE FOR WORK PASSED AT MEETING

Councilmen, in Adjourned Session, Take First Step for Improvement

Lincoln avenue and parts of Morgan and Highland avenue will be paved in the near future as a result of favorable action of the Palmyra Borough Council at an adjourned meeting, called Tuesday evening to act on petitions signed by citizens representing more than fifty percent of the assessed valuation of the property affected.

An ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at the meeting, and will come up for further consideration at the next meeting. The ordinance covers the work petitioned for, which is all of Lincoln avenue and Highland and Morgan from Broad street to Spring Garden street.

There were only one or two citizens present who own property on the streets under consideration and there was little discussion. Councilman Buchholz called attention to the fact that the petitions called for an asphalt surface on a macadamized base at a cost not to exceed $130 per fifty feet.

The work for this paving is not expected to cost any more per unit than if the entire four streets had been done, as was at first considered.

The south side of Broad street from Chinnaminson to Morgan avenue is being treated with a coating of shale. A carload of this material was given to the borough by the railroad company with the request that it be used on the street near the station.

POS OF A PLANS MONMOUTH TRIP

Will Make Pilgrimage to Historic Battleground Next Sunday Afternoon

Members of the P. O. S. of A. Camp No. 23, of Palmyra, and their friends, will visit historic Monmouth-battleground next Sunday afternoon, leaving Palmyra Station at one o'clock.

Full details of arrangements are included in a communication from the committee chairman, as follows:

Come with us as we make a pilgrimage to one of the sites where our forefathers fought for freedom's cause, and where many gave that full measure of devotion.

Sunday the organization will take an automobile trip to the old battleground in commemoration of the one hundred and fifty-second anniversary of the Battle of Monmouth. A very interesting and historic meeting is planned at the Presbyterian Church, Freehold, where a patriotic service will be held.

We will then proceed along the line of march of the army to the battle monument, where a flag will be placed with fitting ceremony; thence along the line of march of the army to the old well of Molly Pitcher; thence to the famous old Tennent Church and cemetery, dating back to the year 1731; at this place a historic sketch will be given. This is a great opportunity to visit the section of our State which is so rich in tradition.

If you have a car, you are urged to fill it with members of your family or friends. If you have no car, ask your friend or neighbor to take his.

Those in this vicinity wishing to go are to assemble at the P. O. S. of A. Building at 1:00 p. m. Sunday. If it should happen to be stormy, the outing will be held the next clear Sunday.

GEORGE R. EVANS,
Committee Chairman.

Mrs. Edna S. Heubel

Mrs. Edna S. Heubel, fifty-two years old, died Friday morning at her home, 614 Parry avenue, Palmyra.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the late residence, with the Rev. George Lockwood, of the Central Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made in New Camden Cemetery, Camden, under the direction of Frank A. Shover.

Mrs. Heubel is survived by her husband, Edgar A. Heubel, and three sons, Edgar, Jr., William and John, and a daughter, Mrs. Emeline McLaughlin.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Bailey, of the Evans Home, Bound Brook, N. J., and late of Palmyra and Delanco, died at Island Heights, N. J., Tuesday morning, June 24. Funeral services were held at Christ Church, Toms River, at 11 o'clock this morning. Interment will be made in the Morgan Cemetery, Palmyra. She is survived by her husband, Thomas J. Bailey, of Bound Brook, and a daughter, Mrs. Carl Wahl, of Medford, and a host of friends.

ARRESTS IN PHILA. REVEAL ATTEMPT ON PALMYRA BANK

Accordingly, necessary steps were taken to prevent the outlaws returning and completing their plans.

The men under arrest confessed to robbing a bank at Alpha, N. J., and taking $1,000, and admitted the Palmyra attempt. They are also indicted for several other crimes, one of which is for a murder in Philadelphia.

According to the confessions now in hands of Director of Public Safety Schofield, of Philadelphia, many of the prisoners had been followers of "Blackie" Zuposky, youthful bandit leader, who was captured a year ago. Murdock, one of the men held, started in where Zuposky left off, according to the police, and from the first operation of the reorganized gang in April, 1928, when they stole a motor car to stage a hold-up in a West Philadelphia drug store, until the present time the activities of the band ran the gamut of almost every crime in the criminal calendar.

In addition to Murdock, the others held are: John McDougough, 21; Samuel Barner, 23; Michael Stewart, 25; Anthony Liber, 21; Dominick Barabucco, 30; Harry Rote, 27; Francis Richards, 26; Richard Kay, 24; James Laurenton, 28; William Engle, 30; Herman Zusman, 28, and his brother, Alexander, 28, and Phil Barry, 28, and Teller Phillips, all have no previous record. The members of the gang held in Camden gave their names as John Fisher, 31; James Conitt, 30, and Nicholas Bartilucci, 33, of Eighth and Christian streets, Philadelphia.

The murder charge against the prisoners, which involves Murdock, the two Zusman brothers and Kay, grew out of a hold-up staged in the store of Miss Anna Thummi, at Third and Pike streets, Philadelphia, on March 28. While holding up the woman, one of the bandits fired a shot that struck her in the neck. After the robbers had fled with a small sum from a cash till, police sent the wounded victim to the Episcopal Hospital.

Following an operation in which the bullet was removed, the woman returned home. Later she was taken ill and returned to the hospital, where she died as the result of the wound.

One of the kidnappings charged against the gang was the abduction of David Mario, 25, of Bywood, an official of the company. The woman, who is married, is now in a hospital, where she is recovering from her wounds.

Several other robberies by the gang that just missed becoming a homicide as well as the hold-up of Herman Hassenfuss in a butcher shop at 1830 East Erie avenue on May 24. After taking $500 from a cash register the robbers fled, the butcher in an ice chest. The man held prisoner so long that he was almost frozen when rescued and spent several days in a hospital in a serious condition before his recovery.

BUSINESS MEN HOLD MEETING

Better Conditions Predicted Due to Expansion of Victor and Public Service

Plans for furthering the business interests of Palmyra were discussed at a regular meeting of the Palmyra Business Men's Association, Tuesday evening.

Several matters were discussed and a committee named to work out details of plans which will be put into effect sometime this summer.

George N. Wimer spoke briefly on the improvement which is being shown in business in the community and predicted a very noticeable increase within the next few months.

He pointed out the fact that several building projects were under way, mentioning the new service station of the Standard Oil Company which is to be started soon, the bowling alley building being built by Nick Belts, and the new theatre to be erected in the fall by Jacob B. Fox.

According to Mr. Wimer, Mr. Fox has definitely committed himself on the proposition and fully expects to build on his property at Broad and Morgan.

He called attention to the recent increase in activity at the Victor plant and the building of a $15,000,000 power project by the Public Service Company at Burlington. These, he said, will aid the community very materially, although in some cases the benefits will accrue indirectly.

He also mentioned that the sale of several properties in Palmyra had been made within the past few weeks.

POULTRYMEN URGED TO MARKET INFERTILE EGGS

Poultrymen who cater to markets demanding prime quality eggs may experience difficulty in meeting such a demand during hot weather unless their eggs are infertile. Such is the belief of Prof. Willard C. Thompson, poultry husbandman for the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, who explains that germ development of fertile eggs begins at a temperature of 58 degrees Fahrenheit. Once the breeding season is passed, he adds, there is no reason to continue producing fertile eggs, as the presence of a male bird is never essential to egg production.

There are practically the same number of horses on farms in the United States as there were 40 years ago, but the number of mules has more than doubled during the same period.

INSTALL NEW BLOWER AS AID TO EFFICIENCY

Palmyra Board of Education Makes Improvement to Heating System

An automatic blower designed to greatly increase the efficiency of the heating system, has been installed in the Spring Garden Street School by the Palmyra Board of Education.

The blower is of an improved type and Charles K. Mervine, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee of the Board, who is thoroughly familiar with heating problems, is sure the installation will aid materially in keeping the temperature of the school rooms at the proper point and help the janitor considerably.

The chief advantage of a blowing system is that it will cause the fires to respond more quickly in the morning and have the rooms at the proper temperature when the children come to school. There has been some difficulty in the past during the morning and it is hoped to correct this condition.

The installation is being made largely in the interest of economy, as the cost is less than $200, and it is expected to result in a considerable saving of coal. The same system will be used in the other buildings if it proves as satisfactory as expected.

The contract was awarded to Charles Tainter, of Camden, following a meeting of the Board last week. At the same time, contracts were awarded for the furnishing of coal for next winter.

H. B. Williams was the successful bidder for supplying the Delaware Avenue School with 240 tons of bituminous coal. J. S. Collins and Sons were given the contract for 30 tons of buckwheat at the Spring Garden Street Building, while Beale and Snyder was the successful bidder for 70 tons of stove coal for the same building.

BIBLE CLASS MEN TO HOLD MEETING

County Federation to be Organized at Session in Burlington, Sunday

Sunday afternoon, June 28th, at three o'clock in the Broad Street Methodist Church, of Burlington, there will be a meeting of the men of the Bible Classes of the Sunday Schools of Burlington County.

A stirring message for men will be delivered by a prominent men's leader, Eustace H. Woodbury. An explanation of the purpose and type of organization of the New Jersey Federation of Men's Bible Classes will be presented by Neal Jamieson, of Gloucester, first vice-president of the State Federation.

It is expected that the organization of the Burlington County Federation of Men's Bible Classes will be perfected at this meeting.

It is planned that Burlington County will duplicate the work being done in some of the neighboring Counties where 1,500 to 2,000 men of the Bible Classes meet monthly for inspiration and a helpful message.

Every Sunday School in the County is expected to have a large delegation present in the Broad Street Methodist Church of Burlington on next Sunday afternoon.

Minute men are at work restoring the local Sunday Schools and the men of the local churches of the coming meeting. It is confidently expected that the church will be crowded.

Early Spraying Campaign Against Japanese Beetle Opens This Week

Loren B. Smith, Entomologist at Federal-State Laboratory, Moorestown, Makes Statement in Interview Relative to Work for the Season

"This week marks the launching of a great campaign of spraying against the Japanese Beetle. Tons of lead arsenate and thousands of gallons of water will be used within the next few days by property owners in the heavily infested beetle regions in their usual early summer campaign against the beetle," says Loren B. Smith, principal entomologist in charge of the Federal-State Japanese Beetle Laboratory at Moorestown, in an interview relative to spraying work this season.

"This season, which unofficially opened about June 15, represented the largest attempt ever made in the Pennsylvania-New Jersey area to check the spread of the beetle by spraying. The sprays on the shade trees, the ornamentals, and the valuable house and garden plants this week or next," is the advice of those in charge at the laboratory in discussing the fundamentals of a plan to check the injury to many kinds of foliage caused by the Japanese beetle.

In reply to a question relative to the most certain method of killing beetles and protecting the foliage of the plants that are largely eaten by the beetles, Mr. Smith replied, "In the control of the Japanese Beetle there are more failures due to untimeliness and insufficient or poorly applied sprays than all other combined causes."

In order of their importance, this beetle expert summed up the most important steps for the property owner to follow in his plan of checking the beetle and protecting his plants and trees as follows:

1—Spray the trees and plants before the beetle arrives.
2—Put on enough of the spray to cover all sides of the leaves.
3—More foliage has been ruined by too little spray than with an overdose.

Few New Recommendations

In explaining the latest recommendations for spraying against the beetle, he states that very few changes have been made in the recommendations from last season. Observations made in 1929 show that with very few exceptions it has been impossible to make any improvements on the materials or formulas that have been recommended in the past.

Lead arsenate for fruit trees and the lead oleate coated arsenate of lead for shade trees, ornamentals and non-fruiting trees, constitutes the most important sprays now on the market. A few minor changes in the amounts of material to use on certain kinds of plants have been recommended for this season, continued Mr. Smith.

"Follow the direction on the label of the can or jar which contains the spray poison and satisfactory results can be secured," declared the speaker.

"Buy the spray from a reliable house, follow the directions outlined which are those recommended by the Beetle Laboratory and get it on the bush or tree before the beetle arrives and little trouble need be feared this season," said Mr. Smith, in summing up the spray program for the average property owner to follow. "Tell your readers to get the spray on before the first beetle arrives," emphatically states the representative of the Beetle Laboratory. "It takes no more material to protect a fully foliated tree before the beetle arrives than afterwards and in the meantime they will be able to drive the first beetles away or kill them in their first feeding."

Beetles attract beetles. The four or five beetles that may be found on a tree early in the season may not cause much injury to the foliage, but these few beetles are likely to attract hundreds of others and before many days the damage may be entirely stripped from the tree or plant.

Flowers a Drawback

Flowering plants still continue to be the one drawback to the general recommendations for spraying against the beetle. No spray has as yet been devised that will keep beetles away from the blossoms of our finest plants. The presence of the spray on the leaves or the petals is offensive to the eye and even then does not fully protect the bloom, as it is continually changing from the tightly closed bud to the widely spread petals. Work is being carried out on the development of a repellent for the flower garden which will drive the beetle away and not be offensive to the owner or the neighbors, but that problem still remains unsolved. The entomologists, however, hope to find that solution in the near future. They have been working on it for some time and have found much interesting information about the likes and dislikes of the beetle.

For the home owner who is planning to spray his garden and trees the following recommendations are made by the staff at the Moorestown Experimental Laboratory:

On all ornamental and shade trees, including the Chestnut Oak, Pin Oak, Norway Maple, Japanese Maple, Sycamore, White Birch, Lombardy Poplar, Willow, Elm, Ornamental Plum and Cherry, Linden, Sassafras, Horse Chestnut, Cypress, Larch and Copper Beech; Ornamental Shrubs, Flowering Quince, Spirea, Hawthorne, Althea, Hollyhock, Rose Virginia Creeper, Aster, Camelia, Dahlia, Hydrangea and Barberry; Non-bearing Apple and Cherry trees non-bearing Grape Vines and Blackberry Bushes—apply coated lead arsenate, 2 level teaspoonfuls per quart of water or two pounds to 25 gallons of water.

Berry Spraying

Bearing Cherry, Raspberry and Blackberry should not be sprayed until after the fruit is picked. Apply then coated lead arsenate, 2 level teaspoonfuls per quart of water or 2 pounds to 25 gallons of water.

Spraying is not recommended for varieties of raspberries and blackberries maturing fruit throughout the beetle feeding period.

Grapes should be sprayed from top with one level tablespoonful dry lead arsenate and two teaspoonfuls household wheat flour per quart of water, or 1½ pounds of dry lead arsenate and 1 pound flour to 25 gallons of water. A second spraying is necessary on grapes because of the continued appearance of the new foliage. The fruit need not and should not be sprayed due to the difficulty in removing the residue.

In spraying Peaches it is found that most of the injury to late varieties is confined to the foliage and it is necessary to keep them well protected. An application of dry mix, 12½ pounds lead arsenate, 1½ pounds flour, and water 50 gallons should be given before the 25th of June in a season of normal weather conditions. No sprays have been found effective against the beetle on early ripening varieties.

On late Apples, apply 3 pounds dry lead arsenate, 2 pounds household flour to 50 gallons of water. For further information on spraying consult the County Agent or the Japanese Beetle Laboratory, Moorestown, or the Japanese Beetle Suppression Office, Trenton.

"SMUGGLED BARGAINS"

"Have you met the 'smuggler' who, with mysterious gestures and a secretive air, tries to sell you furs, Irish lace, Oriental rugs, woolens, cigars and other merchandise which he alleges are tremendous 'bargains'?" asks the Philadelphia Better Business Bureau.

Continuing, the statement says, "Keep it dark," says the 'smuggler', for I just got off the ship with this merchandise and I don't want to get caught by the customs. I can sell it to you dirt cheap."

The story sounds plausible and sometimes is emphasized by the smuggler's foreign accent and his clothing — usually the cap or uniform of an officer of a merchant ship, declares the Bureau.

There are also a number of automobiles cruising the streets bearing licenses from Pennsylvania and other states offering fur scarfs and other articles of merchandise at alleged bargain prices. These peddlers surreptitiously approach their victims and lead them to believe that they are afforded an unusual opportunity to buy such goods at great sacrifice.

Many people buy the merchandise because they believe they are getting it at a price much lower than they can get it elsewhere.

"But—before you invest—investigate" warns the Bureau.

Beware of anyone offering 'smuggled' bargains. The goods are not smuggled and may prove to be a costly and disappointing purchase.

THE COMING FOURTH

The Fourth of July will soon be here. And, according to the precedent set in other years, it will leave behind a toll of destroyed lives and property due to carelessness.

Fireworks, except when used under proper conditions by experts, are a great fire hazard. Blindness, lockjaw, mangled limbs, fatal clothing burns, property damage and crippled bodies have always followed Fourth of July celebrations.

Many cities, and a few states, have prohibited the use of fireworks except in supervised public displays under permit from the proper authorities. It is unfortunate that our time-honored manner of enjoying the Fourth must be restricted—but conditions in our modern crowded cities are such that to promiscuously allow the use of fireworks is to court injury, death and destruction of property.

Children, especially, are endangered. Not a single Fourth has passed without a tragic waste of young lives throughout the country.

Make the Fourth "safe and sane." And when fireworks are used every possible precaution should be taken to guard against misadventure.

SHUTTING OFF A BIG NOISE

It has been definitely determined that the SOS call which interrupted the address of former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri when he was pouring vitrol of wrath on the "radio trust," the President of the United States, and the Republicans, etc., was ordered by the Navy Department because of trouble at sea. Only one station—that being the New York station—was cut off. The whole speech came through in Washington and most of the rest of the country, and it was heard by people in the National Capitol very distinctly, except those who prepared to turn it off on their receiving sets.

In all his long record in the National Capitol Senator Reed was famous for spreading the doctrine of hate and distrust. He was usually found attacking someone for either real or imaginary wrongs.

But apparently no intentional attempt was made to deny the speaker the free use of the radio air.

ZEPPELINS

People of the eastern part of the United States have just had another glimpse of that gigantic monster of the air, the Great Zeppelin. In the teeth of terrific storms the great German airship crossed the South Atlantic from Europe to Brazil, then flew northward to New York and east across the Atlantic to its home port on Lake Constance.

This trip, added to its flight around the world last year, has removed the last doubt as to the practicability of aerial navigation, and American capital is rushing in to invest in the manufacture of Zeppelins in this country, and to establish regular passenger and express routes between the great centers of population.

AIR

Air and water do not seem to most of us raw materials of industry. Yet one of the largest industries in America uses nothing else but the air from above and around its factory and the water from the river which flows past it.

This is the plant of the Dupont interests in West Virginia which extracts nitrogen from the air by first compressing the air until it is a liquid, then mixing with it hydrogen gas obtained from the water by electrolytic decomposition. The result is ammonia, which is the handiest form of fixed nitrogen, whether you are going to use it for fertilizer or for the manufacture of explosives.

A similar process is to produce nitrate fertilizer in huge quantities as well as explosives for the Government at Muscle Shoals—maybe.

GAS

The one remaining domestic handicap which makes women discontented with life in the country towns is the necessity of doing their cooking and water-heating with wood or coal, which makes too hot a fire in the Summer, or with electricity, which is decidedly expensive, or over oil-stoves, which are slow. For cooking purposes the gas which city people use is conceded the most satisfactory fuel.

A bank in Indiana, finding itself with a bankrupt gas company on its hands, investigated the possibility of bringing in compressed natural gas from Oklahoma. The experiment worked, and the people of Linton are getting the new gas at the old price, in the old way, while the expensive production plant in the town has been abandoned.

This seems to point a way whereby every community, however small, can have its gas mains and use this handy fuel as well as in the cities.

Mr. Morrow's Victory and What It Means

When the Republican party of the State of New Jersey nominated the Hon. Dwight W. Morrow as Republican candidate for United States Senator it took a long step toward restoring Government by ability in the United States. We all know that for the last quarter of a century men of commanding ability have not been seeking public office in this country, as a general rule. We all know that the names of Aldrich, of Rhode Island; Lodge and Hoar, of Massachusetts; Depew, of New York; Morgan, of Alabama; Daniel, of Virginia; Spooner, of Wisconsin; Knute Nelson, of Minnesota; Forester, of Ohio, and many others then in the Senate, but now dead, are better known than are their successors who sit in the Senate of the United States today. Of the type of men who were in the Senate a quarter of a century ago, and who made the Senate the greatest deliberative body in the world, not one remains, and the Senate today is not regarded as being the greatest deliberative body in the world. It ought to be so regarded at all times, and the States should elect to that great body no man who cannot, by his ability, assist the Senate in being justly so regarded.

There are few higher offices in the world than the office of United States Senator. Senatorships are not offices to be grasped purely by political saltrimming or political sharp practices. A senatorship is so great an office that the man aspiring to it should feel that beyond question he may be able to come up to somewhere near the great traditions of ability that hover about the Senate chamber and enrich the history of our Governmental existence. If the Hon. Dwight W. Morrow does not feel that he can come up to the great tradition of the Senate, it is because of his innate modesty; there certainly is no question in the minds of the people of this State that he can come up to those traditions, and he enters the Senate at a time when the traditions of the Senate are not being lived up to. In the Senate of the United States, to which he will be elected next November, Mr. Morrow will be a commanding figure, not because of his eloquence; not because of his powers of impelling leadership, but rather because of his sincerity, his modesty, his great knowledge that makes his quiet voice the voice of authority. We know of no place on earth where ability and complete sincerity are more quickly recognized than in the Senate of the United States, and Mr. Morrow is amply supplied with both of those qualities he will come into real leadership immediately after his entry into the Senate.

Mr. Morrow, in Washington, will be something more than junior Senator from New Jersey. We recall that years ago the State of Massachusetts instructed the late George Frisbie Hoar how he should vote as Senator. He refused, saying on the floor of the Senate: "I am not here to be instructed by Massachusetts or any State how I shall vote. I am a Senator of the United States, owing a duty to my entire country, and that duty I shall carry out according to the dictates of my oath and my own conscience." We feel certain that the Hon. Dwight W. Morrow will be a Senator of the United States, that he never will put his ear to the ground to determine how he shall speak or vote, but in the great traditions of the Senate will carry out his duty as Senator in accordance with his oath, his own conscience and the best interests, spiritual and material, of the people of the United States.

We salute Mr. Morrow and shall watch his rise to a position of beneficently powerful dignity in the Senate with complete confidence as to the ultimate outcome. We regard this unassuming gentleman as being, from now on, a great factor in raising public service in the United States to its old position of respect and authority and as being, also, the authoritative voice of New Jersey in National affairs and in the affairs of the Republican party in the Nation. Mr. Morrow and the men who will be attracted to him will have much to do with putting New Jersey to the forefront in determining American policies.

—The Jerseyman, Morristown.

EPISCOPAL

Rev. G. J. McCormack

Can you do the comparative? At a particularly difficult time in his affairs, a certain statesman well known to many said: "I am often saved from despair by making comparisons and realizing how things might be much more difficult than they actually are."

This is a common sense method which does not ignore difficulties and realities, but helps us to put on a cheerful courage, and is a very definite help. Difficulties? Surely we remember Jesus Christ, "Who for the joy that was set before Him, endured even the cross, despising the shame." Jesus Christ, the ultimate unity in which all problems are resolved, all discords harmonized.

The Woman's Auxiliary has chosen Eleanor Taylor and the Sunday School Association of Burlington County, Margaret Messenger as respective delegates to the Diocesan Summer School, at St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, from Saturday July 5th to July 12th. We are very happy to know of their appointment and congratulate them. The Rev. C. E. Kennedy is the dean and a splendid faculty has been chosen.

Second Sunday After Trinity: 10.30 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon, "Cast Thy Burden Upon the Lord."

He knows little of himself who is not much in prayer.

He knows little of God who is not much in praise.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 29, 1930.

The Golden Text is: "When the Comforter is come, which I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me" (John 15:26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (Matthew 4:23).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master taught no mere theory, doctrine or belief. It was the divine Principle of all real being which he taught and practiced. His proof of Christianity was no form or system of religion and worship, but Christian science, working out the harmony of Life and Love." (p. 26).

BOARD TO HEAR MANY APPEALS

Requests for Reduction in Assessments to be Considered Next Tuesday

Forty appeals for lower assessments will be heard by the County Board of Taxation when it meets at the Independence Fire House next Tuesday.

This is probably the largest number of appeals ever made to the County Board. One of the singular features is that one man is interested in the properties covered by twenty-five of the appeals.

William R. S. Pluck has asked for reductions on twenty-three parcels of land which he owns and appeals are made for two tracts owned by the Tacony-Palmira Ferry Company, of which Mr. Pluck is a stockholder.

Mr. Pluck asks that assessments on his properties, totalling about $17,900, be reduced to $4,400. The Ferry Company asks reductions from $64,600 to $21,996 on one farm which it owns, and a reduction of $4,300 to $2,400 on another.

Asks Big Reductions
In one case Mr. Pluck asks that an assessment of $2,300 be changed to $100. In several other cases he claims the amount is entirely too high. His claim is expected to be based on the fact that some of his property is worthless, due to the gravel having been removed. The Borough of Palmyra will contend that the gravel was sold by the owner and that since the ground will be filled in by the government dredges the value will not be decreased.

The heirs of the Elmer Wallace estate are again appealing the assessment on the Wallace farm, on Chinnamion avenue. This 88-acre tract was the center of a tax dispute last year, in which the County Board granted the appeal of the heirs, only to have it set aside by the State Board. The Assessor's valuation was approved.

This year the estate is asking for a reduction from $26,600 to $6,808.70.

Remove House
One of the appeals is being made at the Assessor's suggestion. Milton Klotz recently purchased the property at 734 Highland avenue and had the old house torn down. The assessment was $2,700, an amount in excess of its value as a vacant lot. The appeal asks for a valuation of $1,300.

Other appeals are as follows: Walter J. Schopp, from $3,600 to $2,300; Miss Caroline Bergeron, from $1,700 to $1,300; John Whalen, from $700 to $400; John Whalen, from $600 to $175; Benjamin Brown, from $1,000 to $500; C. A. McCombs, from $600 to $150; Louis Luigi, from $2,700 to $2,600.

The Sun Oil Company asks for a reduction in assessment from $200 to $125 for each pump.

The Borough of Palmyra will be represented at the hearing by the Assessor, James H. Hartley, and other Borough officials.

APPRECIATION

The officers and members of Independence Fire Company No. 1, of Palmyra, wish to acknowledge with thanks the generous response of the residents of Palmyra and vicinity during the recent contributing membership drive. Any resident who was not visited by the collectors, or any who were not at home at the time the canvass was made, may have their names placed on the contributing membership roll by mailing their contributions to Dennis Bradley, secretary, Independence Fire Company No. 1, Palmyra, N. J.

PINE BEACH IS GUNNERS' PARADISE

These pictures were taken in and near Pine Beach during the duck hunting season.

Sites for Summer Homes Offered To Our Readers on Easy Terms

Lots at Pine Beach May be Obtained Through Our Subscription Department at Low Price of $250

Through our circulation department any reader of this newspaper may obtain a fine site for a summer home at Pine Beach for $250.

The down payment is the small sum of $25, and the balance may be paid in monthly installments of $12.50 each. Mail us a coupon from the advertisement in this issue for further information.

Pine Beach, noted for its healthful pine wood climate, is located on wide expanse of Toms River opposite Island Heights, providing an ideal location for bathing, boating and fishing. The water is half fresh and half salt and is tinged with healthful cedar. The tide rises less than a foot and the surface of the water is usually calm as a millpond, making it a splendid place for children to bathe and for grown-ups who love a long easy swim.

Near Barnegat Bay
Two or three miles to the east the river spreads out into that paradise of fishermen, Barnegat Bay. Four or five miles across the bay lies Seaside Park and Seaside Heights.

Not only is Pine Beach ideal for summer vacations, but it is also a popular rendezvous for gunners and fishermen in the fall, winter and spring. Migratory water fowl of all description alight on the bay and river, while the woods of New Jersey are close by.

MOORESTOWN POLICE HAVE QUIET WEEK

The Moorestown police department had a quiet week, there being only two arrests made. Both were on Sunday.

Gladys Ricketts, colored, of Walker avenue, had her husband, Albert Ricketts, arrested on Sunday, charging assault and battery. According to her story, an argument between them got so heated that he "punched her in the eye."

Chief of Police John Bradshaw, and Officer Walter Erickson made the arrest. Ricketts was given a hearing before Recorder Joseph W. Johnston and placed under a $300 bond for the September term of court.

The other arrest was also made on Sunday. Richard Hodges, colored, of 2009 Lombard street, Philadelphia, was arrested by Officer Ralph Marks for passing a yellow light, at Main and Church streets. When asked to show his license he was found to be driving a Pennsylvania car with a 1929 New Jersey driver's license.

Hodges was taken before Recorder Johnston, given a hearing, and fined $15.00 and costs.

Carhart — Brece

Miss Millicent Hill Brece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Palmer Brece, of Moorestown, became the bride of Stillwell Carhart, son of Frank Carhart, of Morrisville, Pa., on Wednesday, June 18. The ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Laura Beatrice Brian, of Easton, Pa., cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. Frank Oarman, of Morrisville, was best man. At present, following a reception the young couple left on a wedding trip through New York.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brian, of Trenton. The Brian family is of pioneer pottery manufacturing fame in the East.

Following graduation from Morrisville, Pa., High School, Miss Brece took a secretarial course and held a responsible position with a Trenton concern for some time. At present, she holds a similar office with a State-wide business concern, with offices in Camden.

ATTEND PARTY IN CAMDEN

Miss Beatrice Carly was the guest of honor at a shower given by Miss Vera Van Sicey at the Carly home in Camden Thursday evening. Those present were Miss Meribah Gardner, of Moorestown; Miss Betty Collins, of Merchantville; Miss Marcella Landers, Miss Margaret Albertson, of Riverton; Miss Evelyn Decker, Miss Alma Bilger, Miss Grace Atkinson; Miss Emma Armstrong and Miss Marie Carle, all of Mount Holly.

Pine Beach has a yacht club, public piers, gravel streets, fifty feet wide, gas and electricity.

Titles to all lots are guaranteed.

Legends Abound
The locality abounds with historical associations and interesting legends.

One story is that Captain Kidd, the famous pirate, buried his treasures and spoils on Money Island and that is why it was given that name.

Toms River is supposed to be named after an Indian named Tom and in the novel "Barnegat Pirates," Indian Tom is one of the characters taking an active part in the story.

The charcoal burners were living in Pine Beach when it was first opened and for some time afterward. They built their pits in the ground and lived close by in a tent. As the place built up they moved away, removing a very picturesque adjunct.

Part of the Revolution was fought near Pine Beach. The British destroyed the Block House in Toms River. The saltworks supplying salt for the needs of the patriots, were down in the river and were also demolished by the Redcoats.

It is said that the "Spile" where the bathing beach of Beachwood is now located was used by the Indians in the summer time as a bathing place. They spent their summers on the shores of the river, making Pine Beach their headquarters.

Sheehan — Grork

Catherine Louise Grork's daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Grork, of West Central avenue, Moorestown, became the bride of Vincent DePaul Sheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sheehan, of Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning, June 18, at 9 o'clock, at the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel. The Rev. Father Rudden performed the ceremony in the church, which was attractively decorated with palms, blue delphinium and pink snapdragons.

Mrs. Philip McChesney played the wedding march and Ray Long sang a vocal solo.

The bride was beautifully dressed in a long-sleeved model of ivory satin and lace. She wore a full veil, with the cap secured with pearls. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Margaret Grork was her sister's only attendant. Her dress was of yellow tulle and net. She wore a matching horsehair picture hat and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and delphinium.

Valentine Wyman, of Philadelphia, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Michael Hoffman, of Camden, and Joseph Milnamow, of Philadelphia.

A reception followed the ceremony at Rulon's Hotel, which was also decorated with delphinium and snapdragons.

The young couple left after the ceremony on a wedding trip to Cuba. They expect to be at home on July 1, in their apartment on King avenue, Camden.

Mrs. Sheehan is a graduate of Moorestown High School. Mr. Sheehan graduated from Peirce Business College, Philadelphia.

THANKS FROM "IKE"

My dear Mr. Editor:
May I take this occasion, through the medium of your good paper, to thank the Republican voters of your community who so loyally supported me in the Primary election.

The fact that I received such a splendid vote throughout the District, even though I was unopposed for the nomination, is most complimentary indeed, and because I cannot thank all those who voted for me individually, I am taking this means of collectively expressing my thanks for their continued support.

When a man in public office has such a loyal constituency he cannot fail to give every ounce of energy for the good of the country and the betterment of humanity.

In asking for their continued support through the coming election in November, I can only repeat the pledge which I made to the people when I first became a candidate for office; if elected, I will make every effort to serve them to the very limit of my ability.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC BACHARACH.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, held in the Legion Home, last Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the new year, beginning after the State Convention to be held in Wildwood, September 14th, 15th and 16th:

President, Mrs. Charles A. King; first vice-president, Mrs. Maurice Sandoz; second vice-president, Mrs. George W. Luce, secretary, Mrs. Geo. B. Weigand; treasurer, Miss Mary Frisco; historian, Mrs. A. H. Lippincott; chaplain, Mrs. Stanley Lippincott; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Arthur Smythe; Advisory Council, Mrs. James T. Weart, Mrs. Theo. M. D'Au-trechy, Jr., Mrs. Harold Marshall.

It has been the requirement of the State Department during the past two years, that all elections must take place before the State Convention, but that the new officers do not take their offices until after National Convention. Accordingly, the above-named officers will not begin their duties until October.

States — Berryan

Among the June weddings was that of Edward Henry States, son of Mr. and Mrs. John States, of Cambridge and Miss Edna Ruth Berryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Berryan, of Delanco, who were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents Saturday afternoon. The ring ceremony of the Lutheran Church was used with the Rev. S. M. Wenrich officiating.

The young couple were attended by Miss Susanna Smith, of Delanco, and Hazel Snyder, of Riverside. The bride made a beautiful picture in her blue gown, while the bridesmaid wore pink. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bridegroom's home. The young couple will make their home with Mr. States's parents, at Cambridge.

REPUBLICANS PLAN PLANK FOR REPEAL

State Convention Expected to Follow Morrow in Its Platform

The New Jersey Republican Convention is expected to urge repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the substitution of another restoring to the States the power to control the liquor traffic. That was the chief declaration in the tentative draft of the platform which has been mailed to the delegates who will assemble in Trenton next Tuesday for the final convention session.

The plank embodies the Morrow ideas on prohibition as defined in his opening speech of the primary campaign at Newark. It is understood to have been written by former Governor E. C. Stokes.

In addition to advocating repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and return to States' right, the plank declares:

"The Republican Party of New Jersey is opposed to the adoption in this State of any policy toward the liquor traffic which would bring back the saloon."

Repeal is Urged
"We believe that never has the liquor traffic presented a more vital problem to government," the opening of the platform declaration states. "Never has it been more essential that both the State and the Federal Government co-operate in the solution of this problem. We believe that every operation does not now exist and that it can only be achieved by adhering to the system of government established by the founders of this Republic. In that system the true function of the States is to determine each within its field, the manner in which it will deal with the liquor traffic and the true function of the Federal Government is to secure to every State freedom from interference from without in the enforcement of its laws."

"We believe, therefore, that the Eighteenth Amendment should be repealed and that there be substituted for it an amendment which will restore to the States the power to determine their policy toward the liquor traffic and vest in the Federal Government the power to give all possible protection and assistance to every State which desires to exclude intoxicating liquor from its territory."

Limit U. S. Enforcement
Discussing enforcement, the plank further declares that the Federal Government should use its funds first for that enforcement which is pre-eminently within its jurisdiction.

"This means that the Federal Government should first direct its efforts to keeping liquor from illegally coming into the country and passing into interstate commerce," said the plank. "While there is no doubt of the power of the Federal Government under the Eighteenth Amendment to perform local traffic, experience has shown that the Federal Government has a vast task in the purely Federal field. Until the Federal Government performs that task it might well leave all local police duty with the States who have concurrent power with the Federal Government in the local field. Such a method of enforcement would distribute responsibility where it belongs."

Congressman Franklin W. Fort, addressing the convention Tuesday, declared that he did not believe the sweeping victory of Morrow was an endorsement of his views on prohibition.

On the contrary, former Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, another of the defeated candidates in the Republican primary, told the delegates he regarded the more than 400,000 votes for Morrow and his own 48,000 as a distinct mandate that the people want the Eighteenth Amendment repealed and control of liquor restored to the States.

The meeting of the Burlington County Association, held at Rancocas last Wednesday evening, was a lively event. The hustlers of Camp No. 155 are renowned for their hospitality and good fellowship and their record was maintained.

State Guard Edward Zwick, of White Horse, and the District Presidents of Mercer and Union Counties were interested visitors.

Details of the trip to Monmouth Battlefield are given in another column.

Thought Case Was Hopeless Before New Medicine Came to Rescue

At my age 75, I didn't think any medicine would help me," said Mrs. Susana Smith, 252 1/2 East street, Brooklyn. "I had dreadful neuritis pains for four years. The pains were so bad I didn't think I would be able to stand them. First one place of my body was affected, then another. Finally stomach trouble developed and added to my miseries."

Some friends of mine in Pennsylvania recommended Konjola. I bought one bottle and it helped me so much I continued the treatment. Konjola is the only medicine that benefited me and I feel like I did years ago. The neuritis has been driven from my body and my digestion was restored. I recommend Konjola to everyone because I know what it will do."

It is recommended that six or eight bottles of Konjola be taken to obtain the best results. Konjola was not designed for mere temporary relief. Its goal is far beyond that.

Konjola is sold in Riverton at T. L. Keating's store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

BIG AUTO RACE

The circuit of big-league automobile racing swings back into the East again, with a pretentious program of events, totaling about two hundred miles of racing, scheduled to occupy the whole day of July 4th at the Langhorne Speedway, located on the Lincoln Highway between Philadelphia and Trenton. Many of the famous drivers who made racing history at that track on May 3rd will be back again, all striving to crack the local records that were set up on that day, as well as break the existing national record for the one-mile qualifying mark which Bill Cummings, the winner on May 3rd, came within 9.3-100ths of a second of equalling.

New Miniature Golf Course to be Opened Friday at Moorestown

Receipts for Opening Days Play Are to Go to Community House for Playground Equipment; Exhibitions Morning, Afternoon and Evening

The entire proceeds for the first day's play on Moorestown's new miniature golf course will go into a fund to purchase equipment for the Community House playground.

This announcement has been made by Benjamin P. Rumpeltes, Director of Recreation, and Steward R. Maines, of S. L. Maines and Sons, Inc., owner of the new course.

This Friday will be the opening day on the new eighteen-hole miniature course, located on the Maines' Valley View tract at Pleasant Valley avenue and Haddonfield road, and a gala inaugural program has been arranged jointly by Mr. Rumpeltes and Mr. Maines.

There will be exhibition matches in the morning, afternoon and evening by golf stars to attract the public, which, in turn, will aid the Community House work by patronizing the course on Friday. A special prize is offered for low score for the day.

The tract makes one of the most beautiful miniature courses in the section. In addition to the attractive background supplied by the Valley View section, the course itself has shade and shrubbery and instead of playing on the ordinary gravel or clay courses, patrons here will enjoy miniature golf on a real grass course. The course has been named, the "Robinlawn Golf Club," with "A Cool Beauty Spot for Recreation" as its slogan. The Maines' firm will operate it.

"Joe" Powell and "Jack" Shelmire, local junior golf stars, will play the opening exhibition match on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon Mrs. J. W. Price, Moorestown Field Club women's champion, and Miss Virginia Mitchell, Woodbury links luminary, will meet at 2.30, and the big day's match program will be completed in the evening at 6 o'clock when George Smith, Moorestown Field Club "pro," and Philadelphia P. O. A. champion, and Marty Lyons, Spring Hill Country Club, Maple Shade "pro," play an exhibition.

Those who patronize the course on the opening day will be eligible to compete for the prize, a Spaulding putter, which will be awarded the person making the lowest score.

The charge for an eighteen-hole game will be twenty-five cents.

Miss Helen Many, of Greenwich, Conn., holder of 16 international swimming and diving championships, and the only American girl to compete on three Olympic teams, is engaged to be married to Harry R. Balfe, a New York broker.

Tournament Golf Playing

By "FAIRWAY"

After watching many players in golf tournaments it gives one an insight into the character of the players that can hardly be reached in any other way.

When a number of people get together for a golf match or, in fact, for any kind of sport, the only way to go through the game is in a good humor. No matter what happens try to learn to lose as easily as you win and you will always have the good will of your golf friends and never want for a partner.

On the other hand, if you are a golfer who as long as you are winning, you have a nice disposition and a sweet smile and are jolly good sport, that is good as far as it goes, but should go further. Even when losing, you should try to keep on smiling, and fight to the finish.

Never let your temper get the best of you. You are always judged by the way you conduct yourself in a competition.

Then, too, never think you are too good to be beaten. There is always someone who can equal your playing and maybe play better. A good "trimming" is good for anyone every so often. It keeps you from becoming too self-confident.

Over-confidence often leads one into becoming disliked and into not being able to find a partner.

Be a good sport all the time, even if one does get a partner like this:

"He had joined a golf club, and on his first round he hit the ball a mighty swipe which by some miracle landed in the hole in one. At the second tee came another miracle. Again he accomplished a miracle—another hole in one, and as the ball disappeared into the hole he turned round, white and trembling. 'Gosh,' he breathed, 'I thought I'd missed it that time.'"

—Judge.

MRS. H. N. SHEBLE WINS CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

The Women's Club Championship of the Riverton Country Club was held during the week of June 3rd.

Mrs. Harold N. Sheble won the championship. Miss Charlotte Parry was runner-up. Mrs. Herbert M. Kleckhoffer presented the women with the championship cup, which remains in permanent possession of the club. Mrs. Sheble has the honor of winning it the first time.

An interesting tournament was played on June 17th and 24th. Medal play, 18 holes each day. Prizes were awarded for: Low gross score, 36 holes, won by Mrs. Parry Trusitt, score 208; low net score, 36 holes, won by Mrs. Earl Shrader, score 169; best choice score (gross), 94, won by Mrs. Howard Coe, and best choice score (net), 72, won by Mrs. H. T. Johnston.

The mixed foursome, July 4th, is the last scheduled event for women until Labor Day.

MOORESTOWN LOSES TO BURLINGTON NINE

Receive 5-1 Setback Through Poor Work in the Field and at Bat

Moorestown's baseball team received a setback by the Burlington nine Saturday, the score being 5-1.

"Tom" Tracy pitched good ball for Moorestown, but received shabby backing in the field. The local boys seemed weak at the bat also.

Moorestown and Mount Holly are now deadlocked for second place, while the first place is tied for by R. D. Wood and Medford. Burlington rudely shattered the local hopes for better things Saturday by their win.

This (Wednesday) evening will find Moorestown host to Delanco, while on Saturday the Riverton nine will make its initial appearance on the South Church Street Ground.
