REPORT ON SOUTH JERSEY TRAFFIC

S. J. Transit Commission Makes Recommendations to Governor and Legislature

The South Jersey Transit Commission, composed of one member from each of the eight southern counties of the state, and in which Mayor William E. Bennett, of Riverton, represents Burlington county, has submitted its annual report to Governor Moore and the Legislature, with its recommendations as to the best plan for providing a comprehensive scheme for rapid transit in South Jersey, important points of which are as follows:

The Commission, having designed the accepted plan for rapid transit between Philadelphia and Camden via the Delaware River Bridge, as Step No. 1 in the scheme, is strongly recommending that the Legislature, as soon as financing can be arranged, should authorize the construction of this plan.

An important feature of this plan is the possibility of its extension to sections which are now suburban to Camden, the operation of such extension being either in connection with or independent of existing railroads.

To realize full benefit from the proposed transit, it is necessary that the operation of railroads in South Jersey, at least a union station in the immediate vicinity of the present Broadway Station of the W.J. & S. Railroad in Camden, is necessary. In the complete solution of the problem, the Transit Commission's Step No. 2, which includes an under-river tunnel with subway approaches from Pennsylvania terminal in Philadelphia and the proposed union station in Camden, is advocated for future construction, with cooperation of the Commonwealth of New Jersey in the financing, if necessary.

It is expected that rapid transit over the bridge can be completed at about the same time preliminary arrangements and incidental new construction, involved in joint operation of the railroads in South Jersey, can be accomplished.

A comparison between the services rendered by the two railroads operating in South Jersey shows that the W.J. & S. Railroad has been doing from 70 to 75 per cent. of the business in the area and earning a reasonable net return to its stockholders, while the A.C.R.R. has recently been operating at a considerable net loss.

The Physical Plan of joint operation of railroads, heretofore developed by the Transit Commission, has been made public in a report from the Public Utility Commission of New Jersey. The plan is an agreement to have the Pennsylvania Railroad take over the equities of the Reading Railroad in South Jersey, consolidate the various railroads and ferries and operate them as an integral part of the existing Pennsylvania Railroad system. This involves an agreement to have the routing of the Reading's passenger and car-load freight business into and from the South Jersey area, and probably means service over the Delaware Bridge until such time as the under-river tunnel and connections can be completed.

An alternate plan for consolidation is through the forming of a new corporation to lease and operate all South Jersey companies of the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroads.

For a general basis of consolidation it is proposed that physical values be appraised or depreciated to equalize differences in earning power and to allow for distinct advantages, of either property, such as will be highly beneficial, if not essential, to the success of consolidation operation.

The report indicates a large saving in the cost of operation and heavy decrease in the capital account of the proposed consolidation; it stresses the importance of increased gross earnings and emphasizes that elimination of any break in through transit, electrification and increased speed of trains, improved schedule arrangements, modern terminal facilities and lower rates of fare are indispensable in the realization of early and extensive development of the seashore resorts.

Illustrations in the report show the proposed rapid transit system between Philadelphia and Camden, the physical plan for consolidation of railroads in South Jersey, together with plans of the areas of United States which are served by the Pennsylvania and Reading systems.

Palmyra Girl Is Wed to Riverside Park Man in Pretty Ceremony at Father's Home Saturday Afternoon

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday afternoon when Miss Margaret Mae Jenkins, daughter of William Jenkins, of Palmyra, became the bride of Lawrence Wignore, son of Mrs. Jeannette Wignore, of Riverside Park.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's father on Elm avenue and the Rev. George Lockett, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra, performed the ceremony.

Miss Margaret Holvick, of Riverton, attended as maid of honor, and Charles Roselle, of Riverside, obliged as best man.

The bride wore a charming creation of blue lace with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Holvick was attired in a lovely model of pink lace with hat to match and carried pink roses.

A reception for members of the immediate family followed the ceremony. The Jenkin residence was tastefully decorated with palms and pink snap dragons. Pink was the predominating color.

The happy young couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Those present at the reception were: The Rev. and Mrs. George Lockett, of Palmyra; Mrs. Jeannette Wignore, of Riverside Park; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams, of Hemstead, L. HERMAN WEBER DIES SUDDENLY

Resident of Riverton and Dreer Employee for the Past Forty-two Years

Herman Weber, 70 years old, died suddenly at his home 411 Linden avenue, Sunday morning. Mr. Weber had been a resident of Riverton for the past forty-two years.

He was born in Germany in the year of 1862 and came to America in 1890. He and Mrs. Weber settled in Philadelphia on their arrival in this country. August H. Weber, their only child and now a building contractor in Riverton, was born in Philadelphia. Three months later they moved to Riverton where Mr. Weber entered the employ of Henry A. Dreer. The moving was done on one of the river boats that plied the Delaware, and which method of travel was generally used in those days.

The Webers first lived on Cinnaminson street, and twenty-two years ago moved to their present home on Linden avenue. He was a charter member of the Riverton Parents of America and belonged to several horticultural societies in his younger years. Mr. Weber was a thoroughly proficient nurseryman whose interest in the work knew no bounds. He studied floriculture in a German University at Freiburg.

Mr. Weber has been an employee of Henry A. Dreer with an unbroken service record of forty-two years. At the time of his death he had charge of the hardy plants at the nursery.

His wife, Amelia J. Weber, died fourteen years ago at their home on Linden avenue.

Funeral services were held at the Sacred Heart Church with the requiem high mass celebrated by Rev. Joseph R. Rigney, pastor, Wednesday morning, and interment was made in the Holy Cemetery, Philadelphia, under the direction of Frank A. Snover.

WELFARE MEETS WITH FARMERS

Plans Discussed for Work for Unemployed This Spring; Helpers Supplied

On Monday evening, February 29, representatives of the Welfare Association and sixteen farmers of Cinnaminson Township met at the Cinnaminson school to discuss problems relative to unemployment and social conditions in the community.

A splendid spirit of cooperation and interest was shown by everyone and tentative plans were made for a program which will gradually bring better standards of living, housing and health to the community.

More meetings of this type will be planned from time to time and the fact that each feels free to express his opinion on the various subjects discussed will undoubtedly create a better understanding of the problems which both the farmer and the welfare association face.

Spring will soon be here and there must be a lot of cellars which need whitewashing, as well as painting and carpentry work. Why not let the welfare furnish you with reliable men? House cleaning time will also arrive before long and there are a number of experienced women who need jobs. It is the unusual type who will make a good houseman and chauffeur, but a man who is ideally suited for such a position can be supplied. Experienced women who wish full or part-time jobs as maids are also available. All of these people will work for a reasonable wage.

The welfare association acknowledges with appreciation a pledge of $100 from the faculty of the Riverton school.

SAVE MONEY ON TAXES

Under an act just passed by the New Jersey Legislature taxpayers who pay in advance are entitled to a discount of one-half of one per cent. per month on taxes paid in advance of the date they are due.

PALMYRA MAN IS FATALLY INJURED

William McConnell, Old Palmyra Resident, Succumbs at Phila. Hospital

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for William McConnell, of Highland avenue, Palmyra, who died in the Philadelphia General Hospital, Philadelphia, early Friday morning.

Mr. McConnell died of injuries received when he was struck by a car driven by a West Philadelphia physician while crossing at the intersection of 33rd and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Neal Alcott Funeral Parlor, 3404 Federal street, Camden. Mr. Alcott is a personal friend of the McConnell family. The Rev. George Lockett, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra, officiated at the services and interment was made in Morgan Cemetery, Palmyra.

Mr. McConnell, who was more than sixty years old, came to Palmyra about thirty-six years ago. He was a very active member of the Central Baptist Church and had been a member of the Board of Trustees for over thirty years. At the time of his death he was the president of the Baraca Class. He was a past president of the Palmyra-Riverton Men's Club, a director of the Palmyra-Riverton Y.M.C.A. for more than thirty years and a member of the Artisans Order of Mutual Protection.

Mr. McConnell is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna E. McConnell, two sons, William Horace McConnell, of 2919 Westfield avenue, Camden; John C. McConnell, who is now in Honolulu, and three daughters, the Misses Anne and Helen McConnell and Mrs. Roy T. Hardy, all of Palmyra.

In accordance with what the family knew Mr. McConnell's wishes would be many of his flowers were taken to the Philadelphia General Hospital, where he was treated following the accident and given every consideration. They were distributed in the children's ward and the men's surgical ward.

Marjorie Barclay Burr

Marjorie Barclay Burr, 28-year-old wife of Dr. Marvin V. Burr, died last Monday morning of pneumonia, at her home in East Orange, after an illness of two days.

While Mrs. Burr was not so well-known locally, Marvin, son of Paul C. Burr, lived in Riverton until his graduation from Swarthmore College in 1925. He is at present principal of the Elmwood Public School in East Orange, where the Burrs have made their home for the past two years.

The Burrs met in college, graduated in the same class and were married four years ago. They returned last September from an extensive tour of Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper, of Riverton, were visiting with the Burrs last Saturday and Sunday and reported that Mrs. Burr was not feeling well on Saturday as a result of a cold. Her condition became worse on Sunday as the Harpers were returning to Riverton and a doctor was called. She died ten o'clock Monday morning.

Funeral services were held from her mother's home in Mount Vernon, New York, on Wednesday.

She is survived by her husband and mother, Mrs. J. F. Barclay.

THE PEOPLES COLUMN

"Frightened" Issues Challenge

Editor The New Era, dear sir:

I cannot but help join with the rest of Riverton in laughing at Fair Play's recent attempt to lower the standard regarding the local bus situation, and at the stinging words with which it flays me for not signing my name to my communications, then fails to do the same thing himself.

In his next paragraph, he accuses me of having some selfish interests behind my criticism of Public Service, and I hasten to admit that I have a very selfish interest in the matter: the protection of the money I have invested in my property and the provision for adequate commuter service.

And now it is fair for me to ask Fair Play what selfish interest he has in writing his letter? I want to know if the author of that letter lives in Riverton, owns property in Riverton, is interested, financially or otherwise in Public Service and I challenge Fair Play to answer these questions!

I admit that Fair Play scored one little triumph when he attacked Atlantic Stages for allowing uncancelled tickets to remain in public hands, but I challenge him to prove that the public is holding hundreds of dollars worth of these tickets as he states, and that the Stages refused to redeem these tickets within ninety days of their withdrawal. I personally sent four tickets in to Atlantic Stages and promptly received eighty cents in stamps in payment for them.

I stated previously that Atlantic Stages brought us reduced rates and I challenge Fair Play to prove that at the time the Stages began selling strip tickets at reduced rates, Public Service was doing the same thing.

I stated previously that Atlantic Stages brought us new buses, and I challenge Fair Play to prove that Public Service was operating new buses on the route at the time the stages were refused admission to the Delaware River Bridge because of their dangerous, dilapidated condition. I challenge Fair Play to make a similar statement about Atlantic Stages' equipment.

I stated that if Public Service's monopoly of the bus situation continued, we were gravely threatened by a more inferior service because of the proposed Camden rail-bus joint depot, seemingly inspired by Camden business and political circles with apparent hopes of making Camden another 60th street, and forcing upon us higher fares, less comfortable riding, less convenience.

Consequently I challenge Fair Play to prove:

1. That bus fare to Camden, under the new plan will be 15 cents; rail fare to Philadelphia, 10 cents, MAKING THE TOTAL THE SAME AS NOW!

2. That standing on the P.R.T. operated bridge line will be prohibited.

3. That a seat will be guaranteed by Public Service for every passenger between Camden and Riverton.

4. That walking to Locust street, riding a subway to Camden, changing to a subway bus will provide faster service than Atlantic Stages will provide—or could provide—direct from the heart of Philadelphia.

5. That without changes it will be possible for us to be delivered directly to the Reading Terminal, Shellenbarger, Wanamaker's, and Broad street station, without walking two or three blocks, or changing from bus to subway in Camden and from the 8th Street subway to the Market Street subway in Philadelphia. A convenience that Atlantic Stages could provide if we are sensible enough to renew their franchise.

6. That P.R.T. will guarantee a free change at 8th street.

7. That Public Service is not already violating its franchise rights in Riverton and elsewhere by operating a greater number of local buses to Camden and Philadelphia and lesser number to the old trolley terminus at the Market Street Ferry in Camden, than is legally provided and in delivering newspapers and movie films in an inter-state business.

8. That an immediate hook-up will be made by the proposed Locust Street-Broad line, and Broad street station, and that we instead of our children will benefit by this "proposal."

9. That Public Service buses now make as good time between Philadelphia and Riverton as before they started doing an inter-state business, and that they will make as good time as Atlantic Stages with their exclusive inter-state service, if permitted.

10. That buses such as the Public Service seven hundred type are adequate or healthy, have sufficient ventilation for the comfort of passengers and sufficient speed to afford good service.

TOWN BEAUTIFUL WINS APPROVAL

Riverton Civic Association Formed; Many Members Already Enrolled

Certainly the idea of beautifying Riverton's "front door," as one member of the Civic Association so aptly puts it, seems to be decidedly well received by those who live in this progressive community. Although little more than a week old the Civic Association especially formed to interest all residents in the importance of this project has received a surprising number of member and many sizable donations to assist in getting the work underway. Many more will be needed, however, and will not be long in coming if the cooperative spirit already shown is any indication of the general feeling.

Among those who have become members of the new Civic Association are: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, Mrs. Sarah Deacon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Miss Jane E. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Elwell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Evans and daughter, Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Kieckhefer, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Meckling, Mrs. Bessie Morgan, Dr. Alexander Marcy, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Skelenger, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Dr. F. J. Stoddard, Mrs. Joseph B. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woolman.

Many of those listed above have, in addition to paying the regular dues, also made special donations to help the good cause along. Several youthful pupils of the Riverton School have contributed from their small weekly allowances. Other gifts have been received from donors who failed to send their names along with their remittances.

Every man, woman and child in Riverton will want to participate in this worthy movement. All are invited to do so, as an acknowledgment of last week's papers, contributions will be received by the treasurer, Mrs. Herbert M. Kieckhefer, 100 Park avenue.

MRS. A. C. WOOD, JR. SPEAKS AT Y.W.C.A.

Stresses Need for More Funds and Careful Planning at Delanco Meeting

"The accomplishments of the Y.W.C.A. in the past fifteen years can be felt much more easily than talked about," said Mrs. Alexander C. Wood, Jr., of Riverton, in speaking at a Y.W.C.A. membership meeting, on Thursday afternoon, February 25, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Cross, of Delanco. Mrs. Wood spoke of the work of the association, especially through its clubs and camps, in all parts of our large country. She asked that as members of the Y.W.C.A. we use great care that today all of our decisions shall be for the strengthening of our work. Our work is needed more today than it has ever been and we must secure the necessary funds during the coming week.

TENNIS COURT AT MEMORIAL PARK

Additional Court Being Built by Property Committee; Fans Happy

The tennis court at Memorial Park, Riverton, built last year met with such evident success that the borough officials have decided to build another.

Work has been started under the supervision of Robert H. Clelland, who has had considerable experience in tennis court construction. He started the work early this week in order that the courts may be ready for use as soon as the weather permits.

Chairman Elmer Hahn is considering the advisability of reversing the position of the courts to relieve glare from the late afternoon sun, so objectionable to the players last year.

The property committee has struck a popular chord in its decision to add another court.

The cost of the new court is expected to be about half of what was paid last year, due to the fact that the work is being done by labor supplied by the Welfare Association.

PERSONAL GIFTS TO RELIEF FUND

Members of Board of Freeholders Agree to Contribute 10% of Salaries

The members of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders announced that they would accept a voluntary pay reduction in the form of contributions to the emergency relief work of the county, at the meeting of that body last Friday.

A resolution presented by Freeholder William Heister regarding a voluntary cut in the form of contributions from salaried county officials equivalent to the requested reduction of 10 per cent, was seconded by Freeholder James McCormick and unanimously passed.

The fund created from these donations is to be used in the municipalities of the county where the greatest need presents itself. Director Howard Russ appointed Freeholders Heister and McCormick and Clerk Alonzo Adams a committee of three to look after the administration of the contributions.

The board received a communication from Chester Township stating that the second voting district in Maple Shade had been divided into two districts to be known as the second and fourth districts, and requested three new ballot boxes, two for primary elections, and one for general elections. The communication was received and referred to the election board.

A communication was received from Edward L. Katzenbach, of Trenton, president of the State Board of Children's Guardians, stating that the board was making an investigation of the work done in caring for state wards and looking for every possible chance to reduce expenses. Several suggested reductions were mentioned in the letter. The communication also asked the county to conduct an investigation of their own and use unemployed men, capable of such work, to carry out the inquiry.

The following departmental bills were ordered paid:

Finance, $53,552.05; Roads, $6,500.51; Bridges, $1,771.40; Buildings, $13,579.63; Affairs, $1,698.22; Total—$77,101.82.

Mr. Bradley, who was widely known and a highly respected citizen of the community, had been ill for the past two years, suffering from a complication of diseases. He underwent an operation about a year and a half ago, and another as recently as last week.

BRIDGE COMPANY PAYS $10,000 IN ADVANCE TAXES

Checks Tendered to Assist Palmyra Borough in Financial Stress

PRAISES MANAGEMENT OF TOWN'S AFFAIRS

Many Citizens Invest in Tax Revenue Notes at Palmyra Bank

Checks for $10,000, a part payment in advance of taxes due June first, were handed to Mayor Walter D. Lamon at a special meeting of Palmyra Borough Council Tuesday evening by representatives of the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge Company.

The checks were presented by Bridge Superintendent Cone, who was accompanied by Henry J. Sherman, of Moorestown, secretary and treasurer of the Bridge Company.

Needless to say, the Borough officials were deeply appreciative of the bridge company's action, since the financial depression has caused much difficulty in municipal financing.

The $10,000 in advance taxes from the bridge company, coupled with the proceeds of the tax revenue notes which are now being sold by the Borough through the Palmyra National Bank, will do much to relieve present difficulties and it is hoped the Borough's activities will no longer be hampered by lack of funds.

Numerous citizens have been purchasing the tax revenue notes at the Palmyra bank. They are issued in amounts of $100 or more and mature in from six months to two years. They are tax-free and afford perfect security for investors, inasmuch as taxes are a first lien on all properties.

Superintendent Cone read the following letter when he made the advance payment on bridge taxes:

To the Honorable Mayor and Council, Borough of Palmyra:

Palmyra, N. J.

Gentlemen:

We are handing you herewith checks in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), as a partial payment on the first installment of our 1932 taxes due June 1, 1932.

Being familiar with municipal financing methods in New Jersey, the directors of this company realize that on account of the prevalent banking conditions throughout the country, it might be difficult for the Borough to secure the cash necessary for salaries and other expenses incident to running the Borough government until payments for taxes are due next June. We are, therefore, willing to prepay a portion of our first installment of taxes in order to assist the Borough in this crisis.

The directors of this company feel that it is fitting and proper to aid a well-managed municipal government, especially in times of stress, and they are pleased to cooperate with the Borough officials in the interest of an efficient government.

Very truly yours,

TACONY-PALMYRA BRIDGE CO.

TOUGH GREEK MEETS CARDINER

Ex-Champion to Meet Conqueror at Camden Convention Hall

The last round of Charlie Grip's sensational light-heavyweight wrestling tournament to establish the main event, thoroughly qualified to oppose Champion Cardiner has been fought, and the man who emerged from the mass of star grapplers is none other than the very man who held the title before the Schenectady Sheriff gained it. In other words, ex-champion John Kilonia, the gentle one from Greece, who lost the world's light-heavy crown to Pinkie Cardiner some six weeks ago, has come through the other top fighters and will face the new king next Monday night with the world's title again at stake, just as was the case in their first meeting, save only that this time the Greek will be fighting to gain, and not to retain, the crown.

This, however, will not be the first attempt John has made at Pink since the title changed hands, for two weeks later they again came to grips, with Pinkie coming off winner by the narrowest of margins. In fact, it was only due to an accident which resulted in referee Bob Jones being knocked cold for several seconds that saved Pink his new crown, for just as a wild mix-up found the referee on the mat, out like a light, John settled pink down to a three point landing and held him there several seconds, only to have the Sheriff get from under and pin the Greek just as Jones regained his senses of direction and arithmetic. So this, the third tangle between the Greek and the Sheriff, should be a hectic affair.

In the semi-final number, Johnny Carlin, the Swedish heavy, who has been coming back, will try to continue his ways against Nick Boinia, a Greek gentleman from the old country, via mid-west wrestling mats, while in the second number Al Baffert, the French 200 pounder who trimmed Joe Montana last week, tackles bigger game in the person of 220-pound Alan Eustace, the Kansas Box Constrictor of scissor hold fame. This is for 30 minutes, as is the first scrap, between Jim Mitchell, Phila., and Birger Roel, Norway, a pair of light-heavies.

The Prince of Wales' auto broke down while he was in the country and he had to hike 10 miles to Craven Lodge.

PROGRESS MADE BY PHS BOXERS

Fourteen Fighters Becoming Proficient Under Tuition of J. P. Hughes

Boxing was introduced into the sports curriculum at Palmyra High School in November 1931 when a group of eleven boys under the direction of J. P. Hughes, history instructor, began regular training in the afternoon after school.

The board of education generously voted an appropriation for equipment and supplies.

In December when the call for candidates for winter sports was sounded, the squad was increased to twenty, but later dropped to fourteen, its present size.

The first three weeks were used as a preliminary training and instruction period, when the boys were taught the fundamentals of the sport.

By early December each member of the squad was sparring two rounds each of three afternoons a week.

Many of the boys were regular in practice and faithful in their training and showed marked ability in boxing, so it was decided to hold an intramural meet between two teams chosen from the squad.

A preliminary exhibition was given by Martin Casey and George Levine between halves of the basketball game between Palmyra and Mount Holly on Friday, January 22nd.

On Saturday night, February 13th, the intramural meet was held between the Red and White teams. Every one of the five bouts was closely contested and the crowd of over one hundred persons seemed well-pleased with the performance.

The bouts were refereed by J. P. Hughes, the instructor in boxing.

It is hoped that the squad will be able to stage one more meet before the boxing season closes in March.

The object of introducing boxing as a sport into Palmyra High School is to get more boys to take an active part in athletics during the winter months when basketball is the only sport in which the boys can engage.

Boxing teaches the boy to be more self-reliant, gives him self-confidence and makes him better able to take care of himself.

The use of heavy gloves, good physical condition, and close supervision have made the chances for injury very slight.

Next season the Palmyra boxing team hopes to have an opportunity to compete with a team representing some other school.

The coach of the team, J. P. Hughes, received his training under "Spiker" Webb, the boxing coach of the U. S. Naval Academy and coach of the U. S. Olympic boxing teams of 1924 and 1928. Mr. Hughes organized the first boxing team at Bucknell University and was captain of the Freshman team of 1928. Mr. Hughes boxed in the featherweight class.

KEATING STARTS POOL TOURNEY

Twenty Players Enrolled in Two Classes to Compete for Suitable Prizes

The Riverton News Agency, owned and operated by L. L. Keating, is forming a pool tournament. The contestants are to be divided into two classes, the better pool players will be placed in class one and those less experienced in class two. Handicaps will also be given.

To date fifteen men have registered for the first class and fourteen for the second. Entries will be received up until Saturday night.

The tournament will start on Monday night, March 7th. Names of contestants in their respective classes will be written on cards and placed in a box to be drawn in pairs. The tournament will continue until all but the winners have been eliminated.

The proprietor, L. L. Keating, will give a suitable prize for the winner in each class.

The interest in pool has grown so rapidly that the proprietor sponsors this tournament for all pool fans. Everyone is eligible to compete.

PALMYRA LOSES TO BURLINGTON

Chalk Up 29-19 Triumph Over Red and White in League Scrap

Winning every home game of the season, Burlington upheld this record by chalking up a 29-19 triumph over Palmyra in a Burlington County League scrap on Saturday.

Burlington experienced little difficulty in its conquest over Palmyra. At the conclusion of the first period the home contingent sported an 8-4 lead and at the termination of the half, Burlington was leading by a 14-5 score.

Earl Beilela stripped the cords on five occasions for field goals to lead the attack for the winners. Burlington donated a half-dozen points to the Burlington score.

ROTARIANS HEAR ABOUT CHINESE

R. E. Simpkin, 26 Year Resident of China, Tells of Experience in Orient

Robert E. Simpkin, graduate of Haverford College in 1903 and twenty-six years a resident of China, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club last Thursday.

The occasion was ladies' night, and under the chairmanship of El. Thumum the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Simpkin, relating his experiences and opinions on Chinese affairs and life, held the strict attention of his audience. He is a professor in a West China University, teaching the Chinese language. He is a representative of the Friends Association of Colleges and Universities, and has been in America only three times out of his twenty-six years of service in China.

The university in which Mr. Simpkin teaches is situated some 2500 miles inland and it requires fifteen weeks to negotiate the distance, there being no rail connections.

The enrollment at the university is 350 students. Teachers are hard to get for the university. Even Chinese students who become sufficiently educated in the university to qualify for a position on the teaching staff at a salary equivalent to $1,500, are reluctant to accept the appointment. This was explained by Mr. Simpkin as being due to an ancient Chinese custom that as soon as a Chinese comes into wealth or position all of his relatives immediately stop whatever work they are doing and come to live with the successful relative without ever working again.

Since the Chinese live one family to a room in the middle classes, and as high as three families to a room in the lower classes, one could hardly blame a Chinaman for not wishing to become too prosperous, especially if he had a healthy collection of relatives.

Mr. Simpkin further explained why China should be free from foreign domination. He said that the Chinese are gradually becoming educated and recent foreign intrusion, which means that rights and privileges are usurped by the foreigners.

At the conclusion of Mr. Simpkin's talk he was besieged on all sides and questioned about China.

Music by Joe Conway's orchestra provided the necessary inspiration for dancing and everyone seemed to enjoy the ladies' night program.

Riverton School Notes

On the 6th bulletin board there are quite a number of Lincoln's pictures. These give a view of his life when he was a little boy and later as a soldier, man and president. Other pictures are of Washington's life.

Their chart of teeth shows great improvement in the habit of cleaning teeth. Their American Junior Red Cross chart contains the names of the entire class.

The following original paintings are exhibited: "A Swiss Church" by Marie Zimmerman; "A Swiss Peasant" by Gertrude Gray, and a "Swiss Scene," which was painted by Yvonne Pennington.

Some of the pupils drew scenes of Switzerland and Holland, which were placed on the bulletin board. Pupils are also making salt maps.

Every physical training period, the boys are taught wrestling and boxing. First, Mr. Eyle teaches the different holds and then there are bouts between the energetic ones.

Two of the bouts were as follows: Edward Smith vs. Robert Coe, in which Coe was victor. Edward Hebrew vs. Frank Alloway, in which Alloway was victor. Lately such things as running, javelin throwing, shot putting and pole vaulting have been introduced. On First Day every boy is expected to compete in every event; so there will be plenty of enthusiasm shown. High jumping is very popular among the boys, the highest mark being reached was 4 feet, 7 inches made by Dudley King and Edward Hebrew.

The girls have been playing basketball and have become very interested in the game. One game was between the 7A and the 8A. 8A won by a very close margin. The final score was 17-16. The 7A players were as follows: Margaret Stucker, Dorothy Walcott, Helen Schmidt, Mary Turner, Olivia Steiner, Gene Stover and Jerry Michner. The 8A players were: Virginia Nicola, Dorothy Vaughn, Weston Barker, Eleanor Gordon, Olive Jones and Katherine Schneider. Friday, February 26, the Blue and Gold teams played. The Gold team came out on top with a score 13-12. With every game played the girls are taking more interest in the standing of their team. Some of the girls are becoming very good basketball shooters.

Mrs. Mary R. C. Reeve

Mrs. Mary R. C. Reeve, 61 years old, died at her home on East Main street, Moorestown, on Friday.

Funeral services were held from her late residence on Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Reeve was the widow of Benjamin C. Reeve, and she formerly resided in Camden. She is survived by a son, Herbert E. Reeve, of Moorestown, and a daughter, Mrs. Rachel C. Spear, of Marquette, Miss.

By request of C. H. Parker, of Hull, Eng., all black was avoided at his funeral and the mourners wore bright colors.

11. That in five out of ten cases he can, in rush hours, get aboard one of these seven hundred type buses and arrive in Riverton without at least one new bus passing him.

12. That just because the Quaker City Lines and the Stammer lines have experienced financial difficulties, it is any measure for other independent companies, notably the Wood Lines and Zimmermann.

13. That Public Service bus revenue is also as high as it was two years ago and that they, too, have not felt the depression.

14. That Public Service should not post a bond for continued service as it has recommended that we require Atlantic Stages to do.

15. That Trenton is not a bigger city than Haddonfield, and consequently that inter-city buses of the finest type do not belong first on the Philadelphia-Trenton route, instead of the Philadelphia-Haddonfield route as they are now being operated.

16. That if 20 cents is a fair price from Philadelphia to Haddonfield, it would also be a more equitable fare from Riverton to Philadelphia.

AND I GUARANTEE TO ADMIT MY FAULTS AND TO WITHDRAW MY CRITICISMS OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE LINES, IN FACT TO ASK THE NEW ERA TO PUBLISH MY APOLOGIES FOR MISSTATEMENTS AS FAST AS FAIR PLAY CAN PROVE THAT THESE FACTS ARE WRONG! WILL FAIR PLAY DO THE SAME THING FOR ME?

"FRIGHTENED"

Good Advice

Editor The New Era:

On the part of the great mass of residents hereabout there has been little change in the manner of living in recent months. If incomes have dropped, expenses likewise have come down, so that many tables are as well spread and many homes are as well provided as ever.

While it is true that numerous workers have lost their positions, it is also true that not a few families have members who are doing as well as ever or a little better. It is rather seldom that every member of a household has no income. Frequently the income of one member is made to spread over more persons than it did before, but there are yet untouched resources in many a family.

That is why Riverton may be considered fortunate, because it is in better condition than most towns.

In this connection I recall two stories studied in my childhood history books. They are worth repeating, in deciding what might be done if necessary.

It was recorded that one day General George Washington found himself the host of a number of British officers. How or when or where is of no importance just now, but the tradition is that when lunch time came a menu of baked potatoes was served. No money, no less, The British officers returned with the remark that if the Americans could live on that sort of food, there would be no virtue in trying to defeat them.

It was Benjamin Franklin, who conducted a printing office in Philadelphia, and was threatened by rivals that they would put him out of business. He responded by inviting them to lunch. He and his wife ate liberally of mush and milk. The guests waited for a second course, but there was none. Franklin observed, "My wife and I can live on fare like this and thrive upon it. If you think you can put me out of business, go ahead and try it."

This is merely to illustrate that Burlington county has the ability to take up a few holes in her belt and go ahead. She can win, and she is going to do it, just as soon as all the people decide to turn in and make the best of conditions and show the rest of the world how.

There are some people who at present are making sacrifices and smiling, because they know there are better times ahead, but there are also others who have not learned what the word "sacrifice" means. Unselfish action is the great thing to be desired, that every emergency may be met and overcome in the wisest way.

My hat is off to Mr. Charles Krug, Jr., and his Riverside United Welfare Association. Riverton could well take a lesson from our neighbor.

THE NIGHT WIND.

"Do you fear the force of the wind. The lash of the rain? Go face them and fight them, Be brave, against the storm, Go hungry and cold like the wolf. Go wade like the crane: The palms of your hands will thicken. The skin of your cheek will tan. You'll grow rugged and weary and swarthy. But you'll walk like a man!"

CINNAMINSON P. T. A.

Yes, perhaps the cars were a bit crowded, but what of that? No one objected, and when twenty-five first graders, their teacher, and the Parent-Teacher drivers all tucked into three autos for a visit to the library in the Community House at Moorestown; no one felt that space was lacking.

Such a happy lot of children, and four more pleased grown-ups would be hard to find.

The librarians were more than kind, and when, after looking around, asking questions and enjoying books and pictures, the children were told a story by Miss Severns, in her happy way with the little ones, they responded with a hearty "Yes" when invited to come again.

These trips are a delight to those privileged to take the well-behaved little citizens.

Thursday, Miss Prentice and three friends visited the school, Miss Stewart's room being one of the attractions. These small persons are surely being grounded in social contacts and courtesy.

GIRL RESERVES IN CONFERENCE

'Creating World Friendship' and 'Responsibility of International Relationships' Discussed

"By erecting the bridges of understanding in small things through books, music, art and friendship, we, as citizens of the world, create World Friendship," reported one discussion group at the Junior Girl Reserve Conference held at the Moorestown Community House on Saturday.

Mrs. Carlton Tillinghast, of Haddonfield, in a talk on "World Friendship" told of the gifts which youth can bring to the new world. The Junior conference suggested that by peace, unity and friendship world understanding could be brought about and as members of the international organization the groups must recognize its world citizenship.

Mrs. Helen Redies, of Pemberton, took the conference on a fanciful trip to China and Japan. The customs, geographical, economic and social aspects of life in these countries were delightfully related, as the Girl Reserves were introduced to two members of their world family.

About two hundred and fifty Girl Reserves and advisors and Y. W. C. A. people attended the Junior conference on Saturday.

Ros Adelle, of Lenola, president of the Junior Council, extended greetings to the conference delegates who were from Burlington, Roebbing, Indian Mills, Lenola, Delanco, Mount Holly, Beverly, Riverside, Maple Shade, Pemberton, Willingboro, Medford and Jobstown. Miss Dorothy Burr, of Pemberton, was the conference registrar.

The conference program included a worship service conducted by the Roebbing Girl Reserves, the conference talks, with discussion groups led by Mrs. Charles Collins, of Moorestown; Mrs. Stanley Heibron, of Mount Holly; Miss Harriet Severns, of Burlington; and Miss Harriet Howe, of the county Y. W. C. A.

The afternoon program opened with music conducted by Mrs. William Grobler and Miss Elizabeth Lane, of Moorestown. A play, "The World Circle," was presented by the Captain Lawrence Club of Burlington, under the leadership of Miss Lucy Reeve.

Handcraft demonstrations were conducted by Miss Helen Redies, of Pemberton; Miss Esther Sharpless, and Miss Belle Taggart, of Moorestown, demonstrating some club projects in crayon work, poster making and first aid.

A conference group discussing Girl Reserve club devotions was led by Miss Margaret Lippincott, of Jobstown. Money making projects were discussed under the leadership of Mrs. Edna Tillery, of Riverside. Miss Edith Eshelator, of the Burlington County Y. W. C. A., had a group in program making, and Mrs. William Grobler conducted the music project discussion group.

The conference closed with a ceremony presented by the Willingboro club as the Burlington County Girl Reserves joined hands in a friendship circle.

BURLINGTON CO. SENDS FOURTEEN DELEGATES TO 2nd Y.M. CONGRESS

Fourteen delegates from Burlington County were among the 200 which assembled at Elizabeth Saturday and Sunday, February 27 and 28, for the second annual state-wide young men's congress. Delegates from here were distributed among the various commissions where questions of vital importance and concern to young men were considered.

The following delegates and their names are: Mr. Charles Krug, Jr., and his Riverside United Welfare Association. Riverton could well take a lesson from our neighbor.

One of the big values of the Lenten season is to concentrate attention on the Christ. Too much tendency exists in our ordinary course of life to push Him off into a corner, out of the center of our minds and wills. We need to have Him very much in the middle of things. This thought will engage our attention next Sunday morning, the sermon theme being "The Central Place of Jesus." In the evening the theme will be "The Healing Touch."

"MAN" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 6, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee: be strong, yea, be strong" (Daniel 10:19).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson sermon is the following from the Bible: "Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?" (Malachi 2:10-15).

The lesson sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man is not absorbed in Deity, and man cannot lose his individuality, for he reflects eternal life; nor is he an isolated, solitary idea, for he represents infinite Mind, the sum of all substance" (p. 209).

"EMMA" COMES TO WHITMAN THEATRE

"Emma," Marie Dressler's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle, will be the attraction starting Sunday at the Walt Whitman Theatre. The picture, in which Miss Dressler appears in her first straight dramatic role since "Min and Bill," is an intimate story of modern family life which rises to a stirring climax when Miss Dressler is placed on trial for her life.

As the old family housekeeper in the home of a rich inventor, Miss Dressler is given every opportunity to present her inimitable talents in both the fields of comedy and tragedy. The story is believed to contain one of the most dramatic climaxes ever presented on the screen, the situation centering on the marriage of the millionaire to his housekeeper which turns the children against her and subsequently results in a notorious and bitter will contest.

Plenty of room is left in the story for comedy moments, as for example an hilarious episode in which Miss Dressler visits an airport and is persuaded to sit in the machine which tests aspirants for dizziness. In sheer nervousness, she accidentally pushes a lever and is promptly whisked around in the revolving contraption. One can well imagine what Miss Dressler looks like when she is finally released from the machine.

Miss Dressler is supported by a strong cast which features Richard Cromwell, who will be remembered for his outstanding portrayal in "Tobacco David," and Jean Harlow, who recently scored in "Private Lives" and "The Sin of Madelon Claudet." Prominent roles are also filled by Myrna Loy, John Miljan, Purvill B. Pratt, Lela Bennett, Barbara Kent and Kathryn Crawford.

BUNNIES TO ROUT DEPRESSION?

Let rabbits end the depression, is the slogan of the various promoters of one of America's newest and oldest industries.

The sudden popularity of Br'er Bunny as a commercial proposition is a little disconcerting to the grandfathers who used to raise rabbits for fun. In those days one got his stock by setting a trap in the woods, or else purchased foreign "Belgian Hares" from a neighboring lad for about 50 cents each.

Nowadays, promoters offer to set you up in business for an initial investment of several hundred dollars, sell you all necessary equipment, and, moreover, buy all the rabbits you raise.

It is said to be the last proviso that conceals the chief "hook" of dishonest concerns. Rumors have it that many of the rabbit promoters quietly fade away by the time their customers become producers on a large scale, leaving the individual rabbit raiser without a dependable market.

Others say, however, that rabbit meat is in such demand as a table delicacy that plenty of markets for the producer exists. Even the fur has a value and is used extensively under camouflaged names for women's coats.

At any rate, if the rabbit boom continues, Bunny may replace poultry to a certain extent for eating purposes, and afford a profitable sideline for many families.

The reliable old hen is expected to hold her own in the egg market, as rabbits, we are reliably informed, do not lay eggs, except, of course, at Easter time.

CINNAMINSON TO HOLD PAGEANT

School Children to Celebrate
Bicentennial of George Washington's Birth

The entire nation is paying homage to the name and fame of George Washington during these bicentennial days, so the boys and girls of grades four to eight in the Cinnaminson school have planned and written a pageant in their history classes commemorating his life, as their part.

The fifth grade took the boyhood and young manhood days, the seventh grade, the French and Indian and Revolutionary War periods, the eighth the period following the Revolution to Washington's death. Each grade was divided into groups. The members of each group decided upon the scenes they would work up, then read references, looked up pictures and found newspaper clippings. There were four costume committees in each group, costumes, stage property and play. The costume committee found pictures of the way the people in their scenes were dressed. The stage committees planned the arrangement of properties and people on the stage and made drawings of their plans. The property committees made lists of the things needed, making some and finding out where others could be obtained. The play committees wrote the dramatizations. All four committees in each grade needed to consult and discuss together a great deal during the planning period.

The children made some of the costumes and painted the scenery under Miss Bryan's supervision. Some of the equipment was made in the manual training department with Mr. Biase. The dramatizations were worked up in the English department and coached by Miss Egan. Miss Emory supervised the making of the program covers in the Continental colors, blue and buff, and took charge of all music connected with the pageant including the minute dance at the close of the reception at Mount Vernon. The sixth grade pupils make up the chorus and a few of the sixth grade boys are ushers.

The pageant, using about 80 different characters, consists of eleven acts, partly dramatization and partly tableaux and pantomimes, introduced by a herald. Her introductory speeches were composed by a committee of eighth grade girls. Another eighth grade committee wrote the program.

LEAP YEAR CHILDREN CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Two Palmyra children, both girls, and attending the third grade, celebrated their second birthday Monday, in spite of the fact that each of them is eight years old.

The little tots are Thury B. Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson, of 829 Morton avenue, Palmyra, and Ruth Yerkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yerkes, of 511 Delaware avenue, Palmyra.

Thury celebrated her birthday with a party for fifteen of her friends from four until six o'clock in the afternoon, and Ruth's party started at seven o'clock and continued throughout the evening.

Kull — Brandiff

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mary Brandiff, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Brandiff, and a sister of Dr. Merwin Hummel, of Merchantville, formerly of Salem, to Robert Kull, of East Orange.

The ceremony took place on February 20 in the East Orange Presbyterian Church. Miss Hummel, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and a brother of the groom was best man. Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the Palmer Hotel. Only members of the immediate families attended the affair.

Mrs. Kull and Miss Hummel are members of the teaching staff of the Madison public schools. Mrs. Kull was a former resident of Palmyra.

The stopping of Malcolm H. Mowrey's massive hall clock in Endinburgh resulted in the discovering of a burglar hidden there.

TRI-HY NOTES

The Tri-Hy girls met at the Epworth M. E. Church on Thursday evening of last week at 7:30 o'clock.

The members of the group played basketball in the church gym for an hour and the business session was opened at 8:30 by Ella Buswell, who read the scripture and led the group in prayer.

Elna Buckingham, secretary, made a report concerning future programs, which are expected to prove most interesting.

Miss Ida Harmon, one of the advisors, gave the girls a talk a most interesting book review of "Opal." Following Miss Harmon's review, the girls spent a very pleasant discussion period, and looked, with much enthusiasm, at the illustrations in the book.

At the meeting this evening Mrs. George Ellis will tell us about the opportunities for girls in a large department store.

Musical Production, Coached by Miss D. Helene Johnson,
Proves Huge Success

The "Sweetheart Revue" presented Friday and Saturday evenings in the Sunday School room of the Central Baptist Church by the members of the Junior Philathea Class and their friends was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience on both nights.

Too much praise cannot be given Miss D. Helene Johnson, who gave so much of her time and effort in coaching the production, which was a musical revue of "Sweetheart Days."

Much could and should be said of the way in which these old-time songs were sung by those taking part. Much talent, which has heretofore gone unnoticed was discovered and should be a great asset to productions which will be staged in the future by the class.

Each and every person, man, woman and child, taking part in the event is to be congratulated on the way he or she held the audience.

PEACOCK OUT FOR CONGRESS AS WET

Judge Wells Urged to Oppose
As Dry in New Fourth District

Assistant Attorney Robert Peacock, Mount Holly, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the new Fourth Congressional District.

Mr. Peacock announced that he would run on a wet platform. Friends of Judge Harold B. Wells, Borden-town, are urging him to become a counter on a dry platform. State Senator Clifford R. Powell has taken a public position in the contest, and is expected to announce his candidacy soon. Former Coroner Benjamin P. Farmer, Burlington, who was defeated for the nomination three years ago by Sheriff Roscoe C. Shinn, is said to have tossed his hat in the ring for the nomination.

Other aspirants are Under Sheriff Charles R. Carlisle, Deputy Sheriff Edwin C. Davis and John Chant, president of the Burlington County Board of Taxation. Chant is Riverside's assistant and hopes for the endorsement of the organization of leaders. Freeholder Charles R. Stout and Senator Clifford Powell, Chant is president of the First National Bank, Riverside.

Sheriff Shinn has announced his candidacy for the nomination of freeholder. Freeholder William H. Heiser, Pemberton, will also seek renomination. Assemblyman Marcus W. Newcomb, Browns Mills, has announced his candidacy for renomination. Harry Ziegler, Riverside, has also announced he desires another term as county auditor.

The Democrats have agreed on an entire ticket, party leaders have announced. Their ticket follows: Assembly, Frank S. Abasalom, Florence, member of the county election board; Sheriff, Francis H. Reed, Mount Holly; auditor, C. Craig Tallman, Mount Holly; freeholder, Frank C. Cook, Medford. Cook was defeated by a close margin for freeholder in a three cornered fight with Stout and James C. McCormick, Burlington.

CO. COMMITTEE IS ENTERTAINED

Post Frederick M. Rodgers Will Attend Wesleyan Men's Bible Class

A large delegation from the Burlington County Committee entertained the Post Frederick M. Rodgers, American Legion, Palmyra, Tuesday evening in the Legion Home.

Approximately fifty members of the Palmyra Post were in attendance to help entertain the guests. Brief outlines of county work were given by County Commander Thornburg and a word of commendation was given George M. Durkin, chairman of the Membership Committee of the Palmyra Post, for his splendid accomplishments during the recent drive.

Post Rodgers was the first in the county to go "over the top" with 100 per cent. membership and a total of 98 paid up to date against 84 last year.

State Commander W. Rex McCrosson, a member of the Palmyra Post, gave an outline of state activities and called the attention of the Palmyra men to the visitation of the National Commander at Camden tomorrow evening.

A rally will be held in the Convention Hall, Camden. The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps will be the official escort at this affair.

The delegation attending tomorrow night's rally will leave the Palmyra Legion Home at 7:15 o'clock, in a body.

On Sunday the members of Post Rodgers will meet at the Legion Home at 8:45 a. m. and proceed to the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, where they will attend the session of the Wesleyan Men's Bible Class at ten o'clock.

Every Legionnaire and ex-service man is asked to make an effort to attend this class.

PALMYRA B. & L. ISSUES NEW STOCK

Will Issue 45th Series in P. O.
S. of A. Hall, Palmyra,
Monday, 3 to 9 P. M.

Not many communities such as Palmyra and Riverton, in fact, even larger cities, can boast of a Building and Loan Association showing a greater profit in 1931 than in 1930.

The Palmyra Building and Loan Association has just concluded its fiscal year and has issued a report which will bear the scrutiny of even the most critical persons.

Every person will surely agree that this condition has been the result of the application of the most conservative business principles, particularly in the present crisis.

It is natural to assume that building and loan associations have had properties placed on their hands. To offset any loss in depreciation that might be effected, a reserve, according to law, must be set up.

There, the Palmyra association has again excelled itself by adding $5,000 in this reserve fund in excess of the amount provided by the law as a double cushion measure. These properties have all been placed, and are kept in good condition and for the most part, rented to reliable tenants.

During the fiscal year, 777 shares were matured, totalling $155,400 in cash, cancelled mortgages and loans. Again, the Palmyra association has kept its record by maturing the series on time, something that many other associations are unable to do.

Such an institution of over a million dollars in assets which has proven to the public its reliability and security should be the subject of much praise from the public-spirited citizens of both Palmyra and Riverton.

The association invites each and every person in Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson to become a stockholder on Monday, March 7, 1932 in the P. O. S. of A. Hall, when the 45th series will be opened.

The hours for meeting are from three to nine o'clock, thus giving everyone an opportunity to pay dues or take out new shares.

SCOUTS' DRIVE BIG SUCCESS

$1,115 Collected With a Few More Reports Due; Over the Top by $300

The annual drive for funds of Riverton Troop No. 50, Boy Scouts of America, has come through with great success thanks to the untiring efforts of every member of the Committee.

Mr. Stuart B. Clark, chairman of the Advanced Cliffs Committee, and Mr. C. F. Mayfield, chairman of the House-to-Home Solicitation Committee, report a total of $1,115.00 collected to date with some few sources unreported. This is more than $300.00 over the assigned quota for Riverton and more than $200.00 above the total collected in last year's campaign. This is a splendid record and one of which Riverton can well be proud.

The Riverton Troop wishes to thank everyone who contributed time or money or both to make this campaign a success; the team captains who so diligently followed every prospect in their territories; Mr. Walter L. Bowen, editor of Riverton New Era, who printed without charge the circular which was distributed to every house in Riverton by the members of the Troop; and every contributor to the fund.

The money raised in Riverton will go to promote better boyhood in Riverton and in other parts of the county. As was stated in the circular referred to above, it is more than ever necessary to further such movements as the Boy Scouts in times like these, because the Boy Scout program teaches loyalty to American ideals and does much to combat communism and other "isms" which seek to tear down the things that America stands for.

Scouting in Riverton has been further strengthened by the augmenting of the Adult Organization of the Troop. At a meeting held at the home of Mr. L. L. Unland last week the Troop Committee was reorganized to include more members of the Parents Association. The reorganized committee is as follows: Rev. A. S. Lewis, chairman; Mr. H. L. Unland, vice chairman; Mr. Walter E. Blyler; Mr. Frank Haley; Mr. John D. Follett; Mr. William M. Shoemaker, Jr.; Mr. A. B. Garwood, Scoutmaster; Mr. E. N. Cooper, and Mr. Gilbert A. Coe.

The troop meeting last Friday night was held in great secrecy. It was not held at troop headquarters. Just where it was held has not been disclosed by the members of the troop. All that is known is that the patrol met separately and then were conducted under sealed orders to a designated rendezvous.

The meeting this week will be held in the troop headquarters room as usual.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club of Palmyra will hold its regular meeting Monday afternoon in the club room, Society Hall, Palmyra.

The regular business session will be preceded by luncheon at one o'clock. Those who will be in charge of Mrs. Everett F. Wiggins.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made until tomorrow morning through Mrs. William A. Branson. Mrs. Perry MacNellie, state chairman of education, will address the women at the luncheon.

The meeting promises to be a very excellent one and it is hoped that all members will make an effort to be present.

FLOWER SHOW TO OPEN ON MONDAY

Famous Philadelphia Exhibit
Will be Held in Commercial Museum

Philadelphia's famous Flower Show will officially open Monday, March 7th and will continue for one week. As usual it will be held in the Commercial Museum, which permits Philadelphia to show under one roof the greatest collection of spring flowers ever assembled in this country. Every indication points to a bigger and more beautiful show than that of last year. At attendance of a hundred thousand is again expected, and being prepared for.

Among the new exhibitors this year will be a celebrated rock garden expert from England who has a surprise rock garden that will be exceptional in its size and arrangement.

The Dreer Nurseries are exhibiting the greatest mass display of roses ever assembled. There will be fifteen hundred plants, each bearing from five to ten flowers—a collection of more than ten thousand gorgeous roses—the new "Olympiad," especially grown for the Show.

Conard and Pyle are making an equally pretentious display of their new tea rose named in honor of Edison. Both of these will contest for the Flower Show's special award for new roses.

$10,000 Cash Prizes

As an extra inducement to growers to exhibit complete gardens ten thousand dollars will be awarded in cash in ten special classes.

A rock garden to include perennials and Alpine plants, an exhibit of cacti and plants generally known to the desert, a group of azaleas not to exceed 1000 square feet, a garden of azaleas, a garden of foliage or flowering plants, a garden of Delphinium hybrids, A. or border. Prizes will also be awarded for artistic window boxes that are open to all. A major prize of a thousand dollars will be awarded to the most outstanding exhibit of the Show.

The year the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society with the cooperation of the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania will also give a number of prizes of a variety of classes for flower arrangements in vases, pitchers and metal containers, also fruits and vegetables, for outdoor supper tables, for enclosed porches, and foundation planting around doorways.

Special prizes will also be awarded by the County Florists Association and by the Settlements Garden Clubs for flower arrangements prepared by children.

$15,000.00 Represented

For months the great greenhouse establishments that furnish this city and many other centers, as far south as Miami, Chicago on the west, and east to Boston, whose investment in grounds and greenhouses is over $15,000.00 have been preparing for this grand exhibition. Magnificent cut roses in the finest varieties, on stems six to eight feet in length, carrying enormous blooms, have been brought to a perfection seldom obtained.

The large private conservatories in the suburbs are also competing for honors with their choicest specimens. The Widener Estate, whose famous collection of Azaleas valued at $100,000 were so admired at last year's show are in even better flower this season and will be among the beautiful groups at the Show.

An interesting feature too, of all Philadelphia Flower Shows are these beautiful collection of rare plants and blossoms from the big private estates which enter into a friendly rivalry for the prizes thus bringing millionaires and humble sons of the soil together from a common impulse—their ardent love of flowers. Many of these collections can be seen but once a year by the public, and only at the Flower Show.

Among some of the other attractive displays which will compete for prizes, are miniature gardens, formal gardens, patio or cloister gardens, gardens featuring tea houses, dinner table decorations and economy luncheon table displays, flower "pictures," palms and foliage plants, ferns, bulbs in flower, cut flowers of all varieties.

Four Large Gardens

Four large gardens arranged with the latest in landscape effects with forced roses, shrubbery, azaleas and quantities of bulbous flowers will be greatly admired features. The lawns are of real grass grown in greenhouses especially for these gardens.

All the progressive growers of the vicinity have been making great preparations. Their exhibits, in which flowers are shown grouped decoratively for weddings, dinners and other social functions, each artist giving in his own, are always fascinating to the visitor and in the many elaborately planned spaces, possibly the most interesting feature of the exhibition.

The immense museum building will be elaborately decorated with southern palms from Florida and woods snailx completely transforming the interior into a tropical landscape, a most appropriate setting for the show.

Sacred Heart P. T. A. Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart P.T.A. will be held on March 10th in the school auditorium at three o'clock.

The executive body will meet at 2:30 prior to the regular meeting.

TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will L. Lindhorst

HOW TO DIP HAND INTO WATER AND TAKE IT OUT DRY

Here is one that Ripley has missed in his Believe It or Not cartoons. It is possible to dip a hand into a bowl of water and take it out dry. The secret is that the hand is rubbed thoroughly with stearate of zinc powder, which prevents water from clinging to the hand.

YMCA NOTES

Swim at Pool

The regular County Y. Swims under the direction of Associate Secretary Clifford Eragood, will be resumed in the Moorestown Community House Pool on Tuesday, March 10th. As in the past the trip will be open to Y. members of Palmyra Riverton for the small cost of a dime. The first hour will be reserved exclusively for the local swimmers. It will aid Mr. J. L. Metzgar, chairman of the Boys' Work Committee, who provide transportation, if follows register early if they are going. Parents may rest assured that the boys will be adequately supervised while in the pool.

Dr. Grafflin Speaks

Tuesday evening of this week, Dr. Samuel Grafflin spoke to the leaders of the Burlington County Y. Groups and interested friends at the Boy's Church in Mount Holly. Dr. Grafflin was asked to speak on Leadership. He gave a summary of what youth are asking of leaders, and from his lecture tour of this county, Palmyra Riverton were represented with four present.

Men Vie With Boys

The so-called "Has Beens," for the most part younger members of the Board of Directors of the local Y. have been very busy meeting, a turn basketball games that have been very interesting for men and boys alike. Tuesday evening the Day played the Black Hawks at the Lutheran Church. Little has been said about the score.

Mr. Woodward's group, the Gra-Y, defeated the men the other evening. With a coming of spring no doubt there will be some interesting baseball games between Dads and their sons.

The Rev. G. A. Studder-Kennedy, of London, declared that "one does not meet a reasonable man in 10,000 and women are worse."

HELP THE P. T. A. TO HELP THE CHILDREN

This winter the Riverton Parent-Teacher Association has been doing a bigger job than ever before in providing free milk at school for those underweight children, designated by the school nurses as needing the extra nourishment, and who would otherwise go without the morning milk. In many cases it makes all the difference between under-nourishment bringing dullness and weariness, and the energy necessary for good work and interest. It is so hard to study with a hungry pain in one's stomach.

The P. T. A. gladly assumes this worthwhile task, and so far this winter, over 450 half pint bottles of milk have been given at the Riverton school. With several months left of the school year, the bill is mounting fast, and to meet the obligation a sale of dairy-made candy, cocoa and chocolate will be held. Each child will bring home an order blank on Friday, and parents and friends of the school are requested to fill them out, return the orders and money to school on Monday the 7th. The candy will be delivered the end of the week. Those who bought the dairy-made products last year know their excellent quality, pureness and flavor. Give yourself a treat and help the P. T. A. to carry on!

Mrs. G. Harold Baker, Phone Riverton 197 or Mrs. F. B. Elwell, Phone Riverton 235 will gladly take orders if you do not receive a blank.

RIVERTON, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1932

RCA IS RECEIVING FINE COOPERATION

Membership Growing, Plans Being Perfected; School Will Help

Within a month of its initial organization, Riverton's Civic Association, briefly and popularly known as the RCA, is well advanced on its program of constructive improvement. Judging by the support which the idea is receiving from all sides, our citizenship is in a most receptive mood for endorsing just such an enterprise as that projected by the Association.

Mr. Cooper, principal of the Riverton Public School, expressed himself in a recent interview as most enthusiastically in accord with the Association's program as so far outlined.

"It is impossible to state at this early date," Mr. Cooper said, "just where the school children's activities can be dovetailed with the plans for a Riverton Beautiful, but as matters develop, ways in which we can cooperate will certainly open up; and as they do you may count on our support."

Nature Conservation

Then, opening a drawer of his desk, Mr. Cooper drew out a pamphlet, "In fact, I believe we've got a tie-up right here," he said, and he proceeded to outline a program for Nature Conservation Week which our school children in common with those of the entire state of New Jersey will celebrate April 4th to 8th. Special exercises will be held each day, and a special phase of nature conservation presented in such a way as to impress its importance on the students' minds.

"That week should certainly be a splendid opportunity for bringing these important lessons right home to the children of Riverton for Riverton's betterment," continued Mr. Cooper, "and a further tie-up could be made through our courses in Civics and our Citizenship programs."

In this connection, and to present the plans and aims of the Association to the school children directly, Mrs. Francis B. Elwell will address them in their assembly period Friday morning, March 11th.

Last Thursday, March 3rd, at a meeting of the Civic Association, chairmanships were filled, committees formed and initial plans discussed. It had been previously decided that the first project would be the landscaping of the railroad embankment on both sides of the station, and a planting plan prepared by Dr. Francis Stoddard presented and adopted subject to the approval of the Landscape Committee.

Letter to P. R. R.

Miss Ellis, secretary, read a letter which had been sent to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company asking for permission to encroach at various points on its property in the landscaping development; also pointing out the drab appearance of the company's buildings and asking for cooperation with Riverton's plans to beautify the main approach to the town to the extent of repainting the stations.

Mrs. Joseph Beck Tyler, president, led an animated discussion of ways and means. The income of which was the election of Dr. Francis Stoddard to the Finance chairmanship, and Mrs. Joseph Morgan as chairman of the Membership Committee; and Mrs. A. E. Warnick was put in charge of publicity.

In the intervening week since that meeting, tremendous strides have been made toward putting the machinery of the Association in motion. The Landscape Committee has adopted, with a few minor changes, Mr. Skelenger's planting plan, and actual work will go forward as soon as weather permits. The Membership and Finance Committee report to date fifty-four new subscribing members, three juniors and twenty-four contributors. A very gratifying showing!

Your are urged to join the RCA—every loyal Rivertonian is urged to join, not only as a member but as an active worker, for the benefit and betterment of the Association. For the Riverton Civic Association is for all of us—for everybody living in Riverton—to make Riverton a finer, pleasanter, cleaner, more beautiful town to live in.

It isn't enough to be SATISFIED with your town—make it a town to be PROUD of! Join the RCA. Adults, 50 cents; children under fourteen years 5 cents each.

LEGION SPONSORS FINE PRODUCTION

Show Will Be Staged in Palmyra High School Auditorium March 18 and 19

The merchants of Palmyra and Riverton have responded in fine style to underwriting the sale of the tickets for the show being sponsored by Post Frederick M. Rodgers, American Legion, Palmyra.

The production, "Gudgravia," is being given in the Palmyra High School auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings of next week, March 18 and 19, for the benefit of the Riverton and Cinnaminson Welfare Association and the Palmyra Welfare Association and Post Rodgers.

The Legionnaires are sparing no effort to make this one of the best shows ever staged in this vicinity, and the merchants have done much to show their willingness to cooperate. A list of stores where tickets may be purchased has already been printed. Additional names of business places where they may be procured are: Green's Barber Shop and Romm's Department Store in Palmyra; and Kent's Drug Store, Wolfsmat's Barber Shop and the Blankenbush Drug Store in Riverton.

It is earnestly requested that the public give this production their hearty support in order to help make the event the financial success that it should be.

The stores having tickets on sale can be identified by the star and poster displayed in the window. A phone call to Riverton 339-W or Riverton 405 is also a means of procuring tickets.

Help the Welfare and the Legion! Patronize this show.

HOW RIVERTON WELFARE WORKS

Careful Planning Provides Food For Family of Six for $2.75 Per Week

A great deal of interest has been aroused by the splendid work being done at Riverside for its unemployed. The people of Riverton and Cinnaminson will undoubtedly like to know how their own Welfare Association carries out its plan for direct relief in families where illness or old age makes work for the man impossible.

The food budget for a family of six where there are four small children averages $2.75 per week. As far as possible the tastes of the family are considered and an effort is made to give variety from week to week. As is the case in Riverside, the amount spent does not include milk or potatoes. The latter is bought wholesale for 70 cents per bushel.

A typical order for a family where there are four pre-school children consists of: 2 lbs. prunes, 2 lbs. lima beans, 5 lbs. sugar, 2 lbs. quick oats, 2 lbs. rice, 3 cans milk, 3 lbs. spinach, 2 bunches carrots, 3 lbs. stewing meat, 3 cans tomatoes, 2 cans baked beans, 3 cans vegetable soup, 3 lbs. onions, 1 lb. lard. A local store supplies left-over bread to most of the families except in one or two cases, where flour, yeast and lard are provided with which to make bread.

During the month of February, five families were given weekly orders and 12 others were helped with one order apiece. In the case of the latter, five orders took the place of the weekly wage which the men would have received for work done for the Association, but because of illness the men could not work. Three orders went to families in which the men had obtained jobs but because of long unemployment their savings were exhausted and it was necessary to give temporary relief. Four orders were given, pending complete investigation of family conditions.

All of the above data has to do only with direct relief. The Welfare Association feels that its method of giving employment to the men who are able to work is superior to direct relief, because it undoubtedly stimulates independence and avoids the evils of the dole system. This method, however, does cost slightly more, averaging $3.50 per week for a family of six. The Association is always glad to receive any suggestion or constructive criticism which contributors to the work may have. Various plans are being worked on which we hope will be of benefit both to the Welfare Association and to the families with which it works.

FAMOUS CHORUS IN PHILADELPHIA

The Brahms Chorus, Directed by N. Lindsay Norden, Assisted by N. C. Solists

The Brahms Chorus of Philadelphia and Reading Choral Society, N. Lindsay Norden, conductor, will present the "Pavane According to St. Matthew." Bach, in the Baptist Temple at Broad and Berks streets, Philadelphia, on Friday evening, March 17, at 8:15 o'clock.

The double chorus of three hundred voices will be assisted by Ailie Ronka, soprano; Lillie H. Fraser, alto; Frank Ogelsby, tenor; Wilbur Evans, bass; soloists, with Rolo Maitland at the organ and Roma Angel at the piano.

BEITZ DELICATESSEN TO AID WELFARE

Five per cent. of the money derived from all purchases made during the Eighth Anniversary Week of the Beitz Delicatessen Store in Palmyra will be turned over to the Welfare Association of Palmyra and Riverton, 2½ per cent. to each organization.

Almost every article in the Beitz Store has been reduced in price, but the same high quality still exists. Big specials at unheard-of prices are being offered.

For a more detailed account of these real bargains see the Beitz Delicatessen advertisement in this issue. Remember, you are not helping the proprietor of the store on this occasion, but the people in Palmyra and Riverton who are less fortunate than yourselves.

You can now buy in a large stock of canned goods and non-perishable foods, thus, not only helping yourself, but also the Welfare Associations, which are doing such fine work.

PHI NU CLASS

"Jesus Comforts His Disciples," will be the subject for discussion on Sunday, March 13.

Jesus reveals to the disciples the wonders of the life beyond. He comforts them and answers their questions. There is quite a bit of material for discussion in Jesus' long discourse which took place at the last supper.

Your opinion on the six phases will be welcome. The regular monthly meeting was held Monday, March 7. Arrangements were made to provide the extra cot for the choir. After the business, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Harvey Fisher, and her aid, Mrs. Robert Cowell.

3 HOMES BURN IN E. RIVERTON

High Wind Retarded Efforts of Firemen Who Fought Blaze For Four Hours

Three bungalows on Pear avenue, East Riverton, were destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. A bitter cold wind, sweeping across the Delaware with a high velocity, hampered the efforts of the firemen and endangered many other homes in the immediate vicinity.

The fire started in the unoccupied dwelling belonging to Albert McCombs, and the entire building was a mass of flames before firemen reached the blaze. Two other bungalows, belonging to Walter Harris and Isaac Harris, and both lying in the direct path of the wind, offered excellent fuel to the already raging house next door.

These buildings became ignited in rapid succession and were destroyed after giving the firemen a four-hour battle.

Riverton, Palmyra and Riverside volunteer fire companies responded to the alarm and the flying sparks and live fire brands kept them busy snuffing out new fires and protecting the properties across the street.

The total damage to houses and contents is estimated close to $10,000.

Had the wind shifted its direction during the course of the fire, very probably many of the other homes nearby would have been destroyed. The high wind, cold and water made very disagreeable fire-fighting conditions and the boys of the fire company are grateful to Mrs. Lezenby and Mrs. Goodwin, who prepared hot coffee for them upon their return to the fire house.

FOUR HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

Three-Car Smash at Delanco; Edward J. Bowers, of Riverton, Slightly Injured

Edward J. Bowers, of 510 Broad street, Riverton, driving a Ford roadster belonging to John Goodwin, of 614 Thomas avenue, figured in a three-car collision at Delanco last Saturday noon, in which four persons were injured.

Bowers, accompanied by Pete Aladonna, age five, was driving on St. Michel drive, Delanco, when a Chevrolet truck driven by George Baggs, of 311 Center avenue, Delanco, swung into the street making a right-hand turn. Bowers clipped the rear end of the truck and glanced off to the left side of the road in front of a car driven by Eugene R. Scattergood. The two met in collision and both cars were badly damaged.

Scattergood was accompanied by his son Eagle, age 15, and Betty Sutton, age 13. Betty Sutton lives in Florence and the Scattergoods reside on Columbus road near Burlington. The Sutton girl suffered severe cuts to the lower lip when her feet were forced through from the impact. Eagle Scattergood received a lacerated nose. Betty and Eagle were taken to the Zurburg Hospital in Riverside, where they were treated by Dr. Shipp.

Chief of Police Lindt took Bowers and Aladonna to the same hospital for treatment. Aladonna received a concussion of the eye and Bowers received treatment to the leg. No arrests were made by the Delanco police.

DREER EXHIBITS ROSES

The Philadelphia Flower Show being held this week at the Commercial Museum includes a gorgeous exhibit by the Henry A. Dreer Nurseries. The local nursery has on display fifteen hundred rose plants, on each of which are from five to ten blooms. The exhibit includes the new and popular "Olympiad" variety.

Miss Ruth Carhart was tendered a surprise birthday party Saturday in honor of her eighteenth birthday. About 50 guests were present from Riverton, Riverside, Palmyra and Burlington. Miss Carhart was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The house was daintily decorated in pink and white, and music for the evening was furnished by the Merry-makers, of Palmyra.

Evanson, Ill.—Slipping on ice, Miss Ruth Cazen threw herself between the tracks as the train approached and escaped injury while the cars passed over her.

CAPT. H. M. POWER DIES SUDDENLY

Former Rivertonian Succumbs To Heart Attack at His Home in Baltimore

Captain Hannon M. Power, 59 years old, former prominent citizen of Riverton, died suddenly at his home, 3517 Carlisle avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, last Tuesday morning.

The Powers family moved to Riverton from Germantown, Pa., in 1908 and built their home at 416 Linden avenue where they resided until 1917. Captain Power was a sea-faring man of considerable ability, having been in his younger years captain of both the St. Louis and the St. Paul of the United States Lines. These ships were at that time the Leviathans of the American passenger service.

Concluding his active sea duty, Captain Power became a steamship inspector with the United States government, which position he held for fifteen years.

When the World War involved America, Captain Power was among the first to offer his services to his country, but his knowledge of ships rendered him more valuable to the business of emergency ship construction. Two other firms, the Pusey and Jones Shipbuilding Corporation, at Gloucester, New Jersey, and Miners Line for a short time and then left for Baltimore, where he became a member of the firm of the Baltimore Steamship Company.

This company prospered for several years but American shipping interests began to wane and the Baltimore Steamship Company was sold to a New York company. Captain Power then established an insurance office in Baltimore and in which business he was engaged at the time of his death.

Captain Power is survived by his widow, Mrs. H. M. Power, a son, Redford H., and a daughter, Marion L., all of Baltimore.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD APPEALS FOR HELP

Riverton Branch Needs Additional Women to Sew at Porch Club Next Monday

Monday, March 14, the Needlework Guild will hold its regular monthly all-day sewing in the Riverton Porch Club. It is strongly urged that every one able to help with any branch of the work come out and lend a hand. The winter has been one of almost unprecedented difficulty for thousands of needy people, and the suffering and deprivation is taking heavy toll of the health of a certain class of our poorer dependents. The consequence is an ever more insistent call for warm, serviceable clothing, particularly hospital garments and supplies which must be supplied without cost to those who simply cannot afford to pay for them.

It is true that perhaps all of us have felt the pinch of general conditions this winter, but all of us who have anything above actual bare necessities have something to give the needy. The Needlework Guild, which does such splendid work among the poor and needy, asks only that you give your time and the work of your two hands. That's not too much to ask, is it?

Please notify Mrs. W. A. Hendrickson that you will be at the all-day sewing next Monday. She'll see that there's a place at luncheon for you—the charge is only 25 cents per person.

THREE HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

Wet Pavement Causes Auto to Skid Into Bus at Parry in Last Sunday's Storm

Three women and a man were injured at Five Points last Sunday morning as a result of the storm raging in this vicinity. A Chrysler coach, owned and driven by James H. Carberry, of West New York, New Jersey, was proceeding towards Camden on the Burlington Pike when a car stopped short in front of him. He applied the brakes suddenly and skidded on the slippery pavement directly into the path of a Quaker City bus proceeding in the direction of New York. The driver of the bus attempted to swerve out of the way but was unable to make it, and struck the car.

Considerable damage was done to the Chrysler coach but little to the bus. Three ladies riding with Mr. Carberry were injured. Mrs. Elizabeth Hollywood suffered possible fracture of the ribs. Mrs. Annie Hollywood had a badly cut arm and possible fracture of the ribs, and Mrs. Mina Carberry suffered from shock. John Hollywood, another occupant of the car, was badly shaken up.

All are from West New York. They were taken to the office of Dr. LeFevre at Palmyra, for treatment. Joseph Keating, of Riverton, and George F. Dorworth, Jr., of Parry, pointed police officer for Cinnaminson Township, investigated the accident but no arrests were made.

Liverpool.—Haled into the debtors' court, George Maruden said he owned only half a shirt, and when his wife washed it he had to go to bed.

ROTARY ATTENDS BAPTIST CHURCH

More Than 70 Per Cent. of Membership Hear "Bishop" Lockett Sunday Night

The Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians really held two meetings last week, one on Sunday at "Bishop" Lockett's church in Palmyra, and the regular get-together. The attendance on Sunday evening, over seventy per cent, must have given the club chaplain a bit of encouragement, and made him realize that his fellow-members do appreciate his efforts to pep up the meetings.

"Joe" Low was welcomed back from Florida, where he enjoyed a very pleasant sojourn.

The program for the evening was a Board and Council meeting. In addition to such routine matters as the adoption of minutes and the reading of the Governor's letter, ten dollars was appropriated to both the Palmyra-Riverton Y.M.C.A. and to the Boy Scouts. The latter donation is to be divided between Palmyra and Riverton.

The president was instructed to appoint a delegate and an alternate to the approaching Atlantic City convention, to which the club hopes to send a good-sized delegation. The splendid spirit of our caterers was again demonstrated, when on Sunday night the service of the professional musical talent at no extra charge. No Rotary Club anywhere can match our meals!

AN OPEN LETTER

The following letter, the contents of which are self-explanatory, was received by Mrs. Joseph L. Thomas, president of the Riverton Porch Club, this week from Grace C. Watrous, chairman of the college committee of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs:

"Dear Madam President:

"There is to be an important hearing before the Appropriations Committee in the Assembly Room at the State House, Trenton, on Monday morning, March 14, at eleven o'clock, when the appropriation for the New Jersey College for Women will be considered.

"It is very important that a large representation from the Federated Club should be present. Will you send a delegation from your Club to support the policy of the Federation as outlined below? We need your help at this critical period in the life of the College.

"The activities of the Federation in reference to a College for Women in New Jersey, extending over a period of twenty years, have placed the Federation in a position of responsibility to safeguard the interests of the College. The asking budget of the College for approximately $431,000 (approved by the Rutgers Trustees) has been reduced by approximately $58,000 by recommendation of the State Board of Regents. By this reduction the Regents directed specific changes in policy of administration and academic courses, thus affecting the autonomous management and development of the College.

"The Board of Regents is an appointed body serving without compensation and capable of rendering distinguished service to higher education in New Jersey. Therefore the Federation Board opposes the principle of the bill which would abolish the Board of Regents, while at the same time they have voted to support the asking budget of the College.

"Please give us your cooperation. A delegation from your Club at the hearing will be an evidence of our continued interest in this institution with whose development we have for so long been actively concerned."

RAILROADS PROTEST

Those affected by transportation facilities within the State of New Jersey will be interested in an advertisement which is appearing in this week's issue.

The advertisement treats with the subject of taxation as affects railroads and motor truck businesses operating in New Jersey.

The ad is sponsored by the associated railroads of New Jersey and vigorously protests the operation of freight trucks and motor buses without adequate taxation.

HIGH AVERAGES AT RIVERTON SCHOOL

E. N. Cooper, Supervising Principal, Exhibits Chart Showing Progress

At the meeting of the Riverton Board of Education last Monday night, E. N. Cooper, supervising principal, gave a report on school activities and other matters of interest to not only the members of the school board, but to the public as well.

Mr. Cooper reported on the mid-year standard tests and exhibited a chart showing the achievements of each class. The total average for the school being considerably above the "norm."

In explaining the chart, Mr. Cooper said that while a number of classes were recorded as just above the average, there were high places and low places in the sections into which these classes were divided, and that special attention was being paid to pupils who were below normal in achievement, in order to bring them up to the standards so far as possible.

School Activities

Among school activities Mr. Cooper referred to the recent trip to the new Philadelphia Art Museum by a number of pupils accompanied by Miss Stamen and Mrs. Gillfillan. He said that the results had been gratifying and, he felt, warranted another trip later in the year. Mr. Cooper exhibited several free-hand drawings of vases, of dordays, and other subjects sketched by the pupils from the objects themselves, and which showed considerable talent.

The Science Club has completed a radio transmitter, which, in connection with a receiving set built some time ago, is a source of much interest. The set is capable of sending and receiving messages when separated by the height of the building, the transmitter being located on the top floor and the receiving set in the basement.

Trip for Airplane Club

The airplane club has completed a number of models which have flown successfully, and it is planned to take the members of the club to the semi-monthly contest at the armory in Philadelphia for further inspiration.

The annual school census of children of school age is being taken by the eighth grade and a complete report will be made when the work is finished.

The tentative date set for field day is Thursday, May 26, with Friday the 27th as an alternate date in case of bad weather.

Attendance Increasing

Speaking of the attendance in the Riverton school, Mr. Cooper pointed out that there is a slow but steady increase in enrollment, and submitted the following table of attendance covering the past two years and a portion of 1932. He added that if the parochial school had not opened, the public school would be seriously crowded owing to the largest enrollment for many years.

THE PEOPLES COLUMN

Congratulations to the Riverton Firemen

Ever since the beginning of American civilization, it has been the tradition or custom for us, as fellow citizens, to give flowers to the ones who have passed into the valley of the shadow of death. But I personally prefer to give mine to the living. So I deem it a great pleasure to take my pen and write a few lines in tribute to our Fire Department. I dare say we have one of the greatest volunteer fire companies of any small town in the United States.

And speaking on behalf of the colored race, words are inadequate for me to express how much we appreciate your help, and such prompt and efficient service to us. I take this space to thank you, one and all, for your prompt reply to our two recent misfortunes, namely our church and the three residences in East Riverton. It would be absurd for me to distinguish any individual fireman as to his ability or service. So I congratulate you all. You all labored very arduously and endangered your lives in endeavoring to save our church and everyone of you merit medals for your greatness.

It takes real men with grit and backbone to come out of warm beds at 2 a. m. in zero weather to fight a fire under adverse conditions. That's what you did and you deserve all the honors that your fellow citizens may bestow upon you.

In conclusion may I state that the Riverton Fire Department has one of the finest groups of men in the state, who are willing to serve any cooperative with the Borough, under the leadership of their capable chief, Walter Armstrong. And we, the members of the colored race, are in back of them and will continue to support them. And it is up to us as citizens of Riverton, to support our firemen in any affair which they sponsor.

Moorestown Friends Sponsoring Discussion of Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment

"Resolved, that the Eighteenth Amendment should be repealed," is the topic which will be debated at a public meeting in Moorestown High School, Tuesday, March 22, under the auspices of a joint committee of the Moorestown Friends.

Prominent speakers for the "Wets" include Mrs. Marion Booth Kelly, Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, New York City. Mrs. Kelly is recognized as one of this country's most talented opponents of prohibition.

Defense of the 18th Amendment will be made by Dr. James K. Shields, of Newark, and Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, New York state president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Dr. Shields, who is well known here, is New Jersey's leading "dry" debater. He says of Mrs. Colvin, "You couldn't get any woman in the country who would give a better account of herself than Mrs. Leigh Colvin."

The Washington Conference

In reporting on his attendance at the Washington convention he noted that the central thought running through all the sessions was that, the purpose of public schools today is to train for citizenship, and quoting John Dewey as follows: "Only in respect to methods of thought and judgment should the earlier individualistic aim be retained; there it should be intensified. Democracy will be a force unless individuals are trained to think for themselves, to judge independently, to be critical, to be able to detect subtle propaganda and the motives which inspire it. Mass production and uniform regimentation have been growing in the degree in which individual opportunity has waned. The current must be reversed. The motto must be: 'Learn to act with and for others while you learn to think and judge for yourself.'"

Mr. Cooper also stated that there was a growing realization that almost 5 per cent. of high school graduates went on to college, the curriculum should be revised to more completely meet the needs of the other 95 per cent., instead of imposing upon them many things which are required only if a college course is to follow high school.

Teachers to Attend Lectures

Mr. Cooper concluded his report by stating that he would like to send some of his teachers to the University of Pennsylvania, March 9 to 12, and was given permission to do so. He added that he planned to attend a number of the sessions himself.

The application for entrance to Palmyra High School by Mervil Haas was granted by the board.

Lewis Sharp was given a contract for installing electric lights in school building No. 2 at a cost of $48. The other bidder was Stately & Reilly, whose price was $49.

Heating Plant More Efficient

The American Heating and Ventilating Company reported that a survey of the heating plant had been made on February 7, at which time the janitor had been instructed in the operation of the boilers, and George D. Steedie, chairman of the property committee, reported that better results were being secured. He said it had been possible to keep the school at a comfortable temperature even during the cold weather the first of the week.

No Pay for Election Officials

Mr. Steedie offered a resolution that the clerks and tellers who conducted the election at the annual school meeting be paid for their services, but after some discussion as to the advisability of establishing such a precedent and also of the legality of taking such action, the motion was defeated.

Victor Ritschard, retiring member of the board, expressed his appreciation of the opportunity of working with his fellow members, even though it had been a short time, and said he hoped that when there was a change of settlement in Riverton, would have a new school building, as he felt that even with the improvements made and contemplated the present plant was inadequate to Riverton's requirements.

JEWISH WOMEN IN BURLINGTON

Hear Splendid Report on State Conference by Mrs.
Phillip Popkin

The annual Mother and Daughter meeting of the Burlington County Section, Council of Jewish Women was held Tuesday evening at the Burlington synagogue in conjunction with the Junior Section.

A very splendid report was read and compiled by Mrs. Phillip Popkin, of Mount Holly, delegate to the New Jersey state conference held in Newark, February 29 and March 1. A fine report of the junior conference was submitted by president and delegate, Miss Rita Krupnick, of Mount Holly.

After a brief business session by both sections and the annual contribution of linens to Haddasa, hospital work in Palestine, a delightful playlet, "Dust" was then presented by the juniors. The play was written by Miss Rita Rosenfeld, of Mount Holly.

A social hour followed with a surprise planned for Mrs. Sol Pollack, of Riverside, a very loyal and dearly beloved member who will be leaving this community shortly to make her home at Morristown, N. J. A decorative floral piece was presented to Mrs. Pollack by Mrs. Saltzman, president of the council.

The hostesses were Mrs. Maurice Schreiber, Mrs. I. Silderman, Mrs. Samuel Sachs, of Riverside; Mrs. M. Puro, of Beverly, and Mrs. Sclar, of Delanco.

CINNAMINSON P. T. A.

Stanley Winans, of Glassboro Normal School, will speak on "The Challenge of Parenthood," at the evening meeting of the Cinnaminson Parent-Teacher Association, March 16.

Don't fail to be there. Buses will make the usual stops in time for the meeting at eight o'clock.

The primary band will be present to add to the pleasure of the evening and possibly the boys' chorus also.

The social hour will be in charge of the hospitality committee. Try to interest a friend.

It is needless to say that the school, Parent-Teacher Association, and indeed, all concerned, were very happy to have the Press Conference held at Cinnaminson on the second. It is to be hoped that the visitors enjoyed the day as much, and found it as satisfactory as did the local members.

The pupils in school number four at Cinnaminson are doing fine work. The seventh and eighth grades are preparing a debate, "Resolved that the Radio is More Educational Than the Movies." The sixth and seventh grades are arranging for a Puppet Show, where dolls made by themselves and dressed in different fabrics will be exhibited.

This project arose from their interest in the lessons on clothing.

The seventh and eighth grades visited the Walt Whitman House. This was in connection with their English studies.

On March seventh the sub-primary held a one-cent sale, under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Keech.

Mrs. Nelson's room has begun a little spring cleaning. They painted their library, and put posters, and now they are trying to see who will read the most books before June.

Items furnished by Pearl Henry, Publicity Chairman, Cinnaminson.

PUBLIC SERVICE VEHICLES TRAVEL 110,000,000 MILES

During 1931 Public Service street cars, buses and taxicabs operated approximately 110,000,000 miles and carried nearly one-half billion passengers without the loss of a single life because of an accident. Public Service maintains a bonus plan under which operators of street cars and buses are rewarded for their safety efforts. Since the plan was put into effect several years ago, operators have received more than three-quarters of a million dollars in no-accident bonuses.

LOYAL OHDNER SPEAKS TO LADIES

Women Hear Talk on "Blossom Time in South Jersey" at Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club of Palmyra was preceded by a luncheon, very efficiently served by Mrs. Everett Wiggins and her committee, at the club room, Society Hall, Palmyra, Monday afternoon.

Loyal D. Odhner, secretary of the Camden Chamber of Commerce, was the speaker of the occasion. His topic was "Blossom Time in South Jersey."

Mr. Odhner explained in a very interesting manner just in what way the seven counties in South Jersey are unique—the glories of orchard after orchard in blossom each spring.

And how, when the efforts of interested folk in Atlantic and Burlington counties, along with the Chamber of Commerce of Camden, an organization has been formed to give to South Jersey the publicity and honor due her by means of radio advertising, brochures containing pictures, not only of the flowering orchards, but also of the many historical spots in this vicinity, and maps showing the best roads to take in order to visit these spots which will be distributed throughout neighboring states.

Mrs. Clement Haas gave a splendid report on the legislative luncheon in Trenton recently and was given a rising vote of thanks.

The next meeting of the club will be held on the evening of March 21 at which time the club and invited guests from other clubs in the district will be entertained by members of the Lester Ensemble. It is hoped that all Palmyra club members will attend this splendid meeting and will bring guests.

Guest cards may be obtained from either Mrs. William Miller or Mrs. Herbert Trout.

EXCHANGE OF PASTORS

The Baptist, Lutheran and Methodist Churches of Palmyra have arranged for an exchange of pastors on Sunday evening. Services will be held at the usual time in each church with one of the other ministers preaching the sermon.

NEW ENGINEERING SERVICE OFFERED

H. B. Williams Made Study of Coal Heating Problems to Better Serve Patrons

H. B. Williams, local coal dealer, has taken a special course in heating engineering dealing with the multiplicity of problems confronting the average home owner in the matter of securing maximum heat from coal.

The course also goes into the subject of chimney construction, draft control and other heating engineering points that vitally affect the efficiency of any heating system, be it hot water, steam, vapor or hot air.

Mr. Williams felt that a broad knowledge of these subjects would enable him to render a service to anyone desiring it, which would help them to correct any deficiency in the heating plant which may be robbing the owner of the heat he is entitled to when using good domestic anthracite coal.

Users are prone to blame the coal for lack of efficiency in a heating system, whereas an inspection by one trained to "spot" trouble may reveal some faulty construction that can be easily corrected and maximum service restored.

Mr. Williams offers this service to anyone, free of charge. Phone 1109 and he will make an appointment to thoroughly check your heating system.

Will be Guest of Honor at Reception Next Thursday Evening

The Rev. Ira S. Pimm, widely known and greatly admired pastor of the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, was returned for his second year by the Methodist Conference held in Atlantic City last week.

Thursday evening next week he will be the guest of honor at a reception to be held in the church.

It is being tendered him by the members of the church as a visible evidence of the fact that they are pleased to welcome him to Palmyra for a second time.

Leo N. Guest, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangement for the event, a committee meeting was called last evening to make further plans for the affair, which is expected to be one of the best and most elaborate of its kind ever held at the church.

Luncheon was served by women of the Moorestown P.T.A. in the school auditorium.

Addresses in the afternoon were delivered by Judge Connor French, of Trenton; Mrs. Herbert Longaker, of Moorestown; Miss Marie Kelly, of Camden, and Mrs. George W. Yard, of Trenton. Dr. Martin Collur was to have spoken but was called away by the illness of his mother.

An elaborate program was presented by children of Our Lady of Good Counsel School. Mrs. Kobus expressed gratification at the large attendance and announced acceptance of the invitation of Holy Name Church, Camden, for the next meeting, June 2.

Those who attended the meeting from the Sacred Heart parish, Riverton, were Mrs. R. F. Sanford, Mrs. William McCamy, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. Arthur Haines, Mrs. John Hallinan and Mrs. Charles Delancy.

Robert Colvin, of Belfast, reported to the police that thieves had taken his 300-pound safe and all its contents.

CO. PUBLICITY MEETING HELD

Sixty Members Attend Fine
Conference at Cinnaminson
School March 2

A desire to furnish the public with more inspiring news of Parent-Teacher activities brought approximately sixty members to the Burlington County Parent-Teachers Association publicity meeting held at the Cinnaminson school, Cinnaminson, Wednesday, March 2.

Words of welcome were spoken before the business meeting by Mrs. W. Henry Johnson, county P. T. A. chairman; Miss Eloise Bryan, Mrs. C. T. Shaw and Mrs. Benjamin Lippincott, on behalf of the school board, the P. T. A. and as hosts.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Charles G. Morison, county publicity chairman, and a discussion on publicity was led by Mrs. Walter L. Bowen, of Riverton, state publicity chairman. Mrs. Elias Toy, president of the Palmyra P. T. A., requested the ladies and all organizations represented to attend the regular P. T. A. meeting in Palmyra, Tuesday, April 19, at which time Mrs. William F. Little, state president of New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be the guest speaker.

The meeting was called at 10.30 and at noon a most delightful luncheon was served by the girls of the domestic science department. Miss Bryan, the school principal, Miss Charlotte Rogers, the domestic science teacher and Miss Dorothy Stewart, the kindergarten supervisor were in charge.

Napkins and favors for the luncheon were made by Girl Scouts of the Cinnaminson troop.

Following the luncheon the ladies made a tour of the school visiting the dental clinic and infirmary, both of which were furnished by the P. T. A. of the school.

During the meeting Mrs. Pharo, of Moorestown, and Mrs. Stanley Lippincott of Palmyra, rendered beautiful vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Robert Sim, of Cinnaminson.

Members of the various P. T. A. throughout the county returned to their respective communities feeling that they had been well repaid for a day spent at such an excellent meeting.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"SUBSTANCE" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 13, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him" (James 5:15).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The highest prayer is not one of faith merely; it is demonstration. Such prayer heals sickness, and must destroy sin and death. It distinguishes between Truth that is sinless and the falsity of sin" (p. 161).

GROWER ASSOCIATION PLANS 1932 BUSINESS

Beverly Cooperative Association Discusses Plans With New Manager

The Board of Directors of the Cooperative Growers' Association, of Beverly, met in the office of the association at Beverly last week with the following members present: Paul Burk, president; W. K. Hookstra, secretary; Charles Colline, J. Z. Walton, John W. Heal, Edgar Busby and William A. Donald.

It was the first regular meeting with the new manager, R. C. Wiggins, and many items of business were discussed.

Many of the former commission firms of New York were reported already signed up for 1932 and representatives of the balance of the firms will either visit Burlington county growers or will be interviewed in their New York offices by the new manager.

In order to assist members who have suffered heavy losses because of the poor prices during the past two years, the association is planning a crop sales agreement. Plans for conducting the fast growing action business of the association were also made and it is hoped this year's patronage will equal that of last season.

The nine New Jersey railroads submit 3 timely questions to the other property owners of the State

1. Why are the property owners of New Jersey required to contribute $86,249,471 annually for the maintenance and improvement of New Jersey's highways, when ALL the motor vehicle owners of the State pay only $26,794,757?

Those figures do not include the heavy annual expense of policing the highways or the yearly cost of the activities of our Courts in highway cases. $26,794,757 is the annual highway tax contribution of ALL motor vehicle owners in the State. But the records show that less than 5% of the State's total automobile registration is represented by motor trucks of the size usually operated for profit on our highways.

2. Why should the property owners who are footing 75% of the State's annual highway bill hand over the entire New Jersey highway investment to the motor truck carriers for their free use in an unregulated, almost untaxed and purely profit-making enterprise?

In order to carry on their business, the railroads of the State have had to make a total investment of nearly $600,000,000, on which they are paying annual taxes of $23,468,371. Of this sum, $12,336,335 is used for educational purposes, $1,485,477 for highways and $9,646,559 for all other purposes; whereas virtually all the money paid as taxes by the motor trucks is definitely earmarked for the highways. Moreover, though New Jersey ranks 43rd in the amount of taxes levied on motor trucks operating for profit, it collects in taxes from the railroads two and one-half times as much per mile of railroad as any other State.

3. Is it fair that the railroads of New Jersey, operating a semi-public enterprise which is vital to the welfare of our citizens, should be regulated strictly and taxed more heavily than the railroads of any other State, when their competitors — the motor trucks operating for profit — are absolutely unregulated, relatively untaxed and heavily subsidized?

These motor truck carriers are free to charge what they will; they can skim the cream of the freight business and laugh at the rest; they are unrestricted as to the wages they pay and the hours of service they require; they run where they please and at their own convenience, and they can hammer and pound away on the costly highways of the State secure in the understanding that the taxpayers foot all bills for road maintenance and replacement!

Make no mistake about the viewpoint of the railroads. It is not their desire that unnecessarily burdensome taxation, regulations or restrictions should be imposed on their competitors. What they do seek, and what they feel they deserve as a matter of plain justice is an equality of opportunity to compete in the transportation field which they have developed and in which they are and always will be indispensable to the welfare of the State and its people.

WIMER FOR SHERIFF

The campaign for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Burlington county is now well under way.

The latest announcement of candidacy for the office is made by Republican State Committeeman George N. Wimer, former Mayor of Palmyra.

Mr. Wimer has been one of the outstanding Republican leaders of Burlington county for more than forty years and has held many political positions of high responsibility and trust, but never one with a worthwhile salary attached.

The State Committeeman is recognized throughout the county as a man whose personality and experience are particularly adapted to the office to which he aspires. He is a man of great strength of character and his integrity has never been questioned.

Everywhere among the voters and political workers Wimer is regarded not only as a logical candidate for the office of sheriff, but also a candidate who richly deserves fitting reward for a lifetime of activity in support of the highest ideals of public service.

THE BOY'S VIEWPOINT

After hearing a lot about the waywardness of children of the present, it occurred to the Rev. Clinton D. Cox, of Chicago, to get the viewpoint of the youngsters themselves, which he did through asking 175 boys to write freely their ideas on "What's wrong with the home?"

Among the answers given by these boys, who ranged from 14 to 16 years of age, were the following:

"A boy wants a mother who can keep a secret and not tell the neighbors everything about him."

"The girl's word is always taken and the boy's word is always doubted."

"Home is a court room and every member in the family tries to take a hand in raising the boy."

"Parents never admit it when they are wrong."

"People who led the wildest life before they were married are the strictest parents."

"Mothers try to hold other boys up as models too much."

These are only a few of the answers, but they indicate that boys believe there are a good many faults on the parents' side of the case, and doubtless that is true.

Young persons will usually acknowledge their shortcomings and accept reproof without resentment if they feel that the parent is right and fair. But it is often difficult for parent and child to see things from the same angle.

To deal with children firmly when necessary, yet without apparent harshness, is not always easy.

SCHOOL TEACHERS TO PRESENT PLAY

"Three Live Ghosts" Will be Given in P. H. S. Auditorium March 22-23

Ten teachers of the Palmyra Public Schools are at present busily engaged in rehearsal for a play to be given in the High School auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, March 22 and 23.

The play "Three Live Ghosts" deals with the complications that arise on the return to England from a German prison camp of three soldiers, two British and one American, who are legally dead. Two of them, Jimmy Gubbins and William Jones, the American, have good cause for remaining dead.

The other, Spoofy, who has every inducement to be alive, must remain dead, for shell shock has robbed him of his reason and memory. Jimmy Gubbins cannot come back to life, for his mother, an old cockney, has collected his insurance.

William Jones, the American, is wanted by the police for the conversation of his father's bonds to pay gambling debts. Nobody knows anything of Spoofy, but he is evidently an artist at who has developed kleptomania.

Jimmy Gubbins brings his two pals to his home in London. "We are three ghosts," he said, "and one of them is out of commission."

But the poor mentality of Spoofy, after causing most of the troubles of the three comrades, is the means of bringing all to right. If you would know whose baby he kidnaps, whose house he robs, whose jewels he steals and what lady he meets, all through his endeavors to repay his friends, you are referred to the play itself.

The cast of characters is as follows: Mrs. Gubbins, Jimmy's mother, Miss H. Egan; Peggy Woofers, Jimmy's sweetheart, Miss G. Dugan; Mr. Bolton, an American detective, A. N. Palmer; Jimmy Gubbins, the first ghost, Mr. Wolfe; William Jones, the second ghost, Harold Schaeffer; Spoofy, the third ghost, Mr. McCollom.

Rose Gordon, Jones's sweetheart, Miss Ermyr Jewell; Briggs, Scotland Yard detective, K. C. Dimond; Benson, a plainclothes man, Mr. Haines; Lady Leicester, one of nobility, Miss Crouch.

B. Y. P. U. TO PRESENT MUSICAL PROGRAM

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of the Central Baptist Church will give a musical program and rural sketch on Thursday, March 17 at 8:15 in the Sunday School auditorium.

Prof. Robert Radack, of Burkholme, well known violinist and instructor, will have charge of the music, consisting of a 22-piece orchestra, violin solos and duets.

Beside the music and rural sketch there will be a surprise for those who attend—something different in the way of entertainment.

A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the building fund.

PALMYRA P. T. A. PLANS BIG MEETING

Debate by High School Students Will be Feature of Program

A debate will be one of the features of the program at the regular meeting of the Palmyra Parent-Teachers Association to be held in the Palmyra High School auditorium, Palmyra, on Tuesday evening.

The topic of the debate will be: Resolved: "That the Five-Year Plan of Russia Should be Adopted by the United States."

The debate is being given under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Ziegler, a member of the faculty of the school.

Affirmative: Carrie Bates, Katherine King and Ruth VanSeiver. Negative: Lionel Klevan, Carl McAllister and Lloyd Griscorn.

Miss Kay Green, school nurse, will award certificates to the members of the "Little Mothers' League."

This league is composed of girls from the seventh and eighth grades of the school who have made a special study of child care under Miss Green's leadership.

Another feature of the evening's program will be an exhibition in modern and German technique by Miss Mildred Marriott and Dominique Prisco.

The first number to be given by them will be "Tans-Modern", a dance displaying grace and strength. The second number of Mr. Prisco, "Tans-Tod", is a dance of the world entering into death and their last number will be a whirling tango.

The association will hold talent day at the school on March 19, Saturday following the regular meeting. Everyone is urged to buy or make a cake, or to donate some article of wearing apparel, such as a smock, apron, or other garment.

For information in regard to the "Talent Day" activities call Riverton 833, Mrs. J. C. Mallory.

Your contribution will be called for, or your cake delivered.

P. H. S. BOXERS VISIT U. OF P.

On Saturday, March 5, the Palmyra boxing squad in charge of J. P. Hughes, boxing instructor, were guests of the University of Pennsylvania at the Freshman boxing meet with Valley Forge Military Academy and at the varsity wrestling meet with Lehigh.

Both meets were greatly enjoyed by the squad, the members of which are grateful to the university authorities for their courtesy.

At the termination of the meets the boys had dinner and attended a theatre.

The squad reached Palmyra by eight-thirty in the evening and it was agreed that a good time had been had by all.

PALMYRA CORPS PLANS ACTIVITIES

Outfit is Complimented by National Legion Commander, Henry Stevens

The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps was complimented on the Camden Convention Hall, when it was official escort to National Commander Henry Stevens and State Commander W. Rex McCrossan, of Palmyra.

The Corps was the outstanding musical unit of the South Jersey rally held in honor of the national commander, who spoke of them to the corps' business manager as being one of the snappiest outfits he has seen in thirty-three states he has visited since last November.

Commander Stevens addressed approximately eight thousand people assembled in Convention Hall. The ovation he received at the end of his talk from the Legionnaires and the public was proof of his nation-wide popularity and of his ability as an inspiring speaker.

The points stressed in his talk were: "The Legion's War Against Depression," "Child Welfare," and "National Preparedness."

The third annual Legion Military Ball will be held in Moose Hall, Riverside, St. Patrick's night, March 17. Admission 50 cents. The Corps would appreciate the co-operation of everyone.

New and elaborate drills were rehearsed at the Corps rehearsal in the Camden Armory last Thursday night, under the leadership of Corps Commander Buck Truman. The Corps expects to be ready for keen competition by April.

A series of "Nights in Monte Carlo" will be introduced in Palmyra within the next month, offering splendid entertainment for all who enjoy playing cards.

SCHICK TESTS WILL BE GIVEN SCHOOL AND PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN

Today is the last day that Schick tests will be given to either pre-school or school children in Palmyra. Toxoid injections for immunization against diphtheria will be given today and each Thursday following during March.

Dr. H. W. Bauer, the school physician, has also expressed his willingness to examine for possible physical defects, all children who will enter kindergarten in September. This is in accordance with the Summer Round-Up Campaign of the Parent-Teacher Association to send the entering class to school in September as free as possible from defects.

It is a wonderful opportunity for parents to learn whether or not their children may need certain care or treatment to make them physically fit to begin their school life, and it is hoped that every child whose parents expect to send him or her, to school in September, will be brought to the Delaware avenue school at 2 o'clock today.

Two injections of toxoid are necessary at intervals of a week so that the last opportunity to begin this treatment is March 17th, but examinations and the second injection will continue on March 24th.

Credit is due the Board of Health and the Palmyra School Board who are supplying material for Schick tests and toxoid to the pre-school children and school children respectively.

Summer Round-Up Chairman.

It is estimated that there are 752,000 school teachers in the United States.

Pesek "Nebraska Tiger Man" Returns To Camden To Wrestle Al Baffert, at Convention Hall on Monday Night

It has been a good many months—since last June, to be exact—since John Pesek, the "Nebraska Tiger Man", did his stuff on a Camden mat, and on that occasion he was held to a draw by Big Jim Browning. So it is that his initial appearance this year, on next Monday evening, will be the attraction for all the mat fans throughout this section, when he tangles with French Al Baffert. Baffert is a comparatively new face hereabouts, but his sensational work in trimming Joe Montana two weeks ago, and drawing big Alan Eustace last Monday, spots him enough ranking to merit a shot with any of them. Furthermore, when we consider that Eustace ranks fully the equal of Browning, and that Pesek suffered a broken leg during recent months, the cards are somewhat in favor of the Frenchman coming through to give the Tiger Man an embarrassing evening of it.

This will be a match, doubtless, such as many talk about but few actually see, with each man the master of countless holds, and willing to use them instead of the rough business. It should become a match of skill, speed and cunning, much on the order of the Pejello-Zarynoff tilt, and those who really love the ultimate in scientific work should turn out in droves when these two boys clash.

In the semi-number, of 45 minutes duration, Eustace will make another bid for further recognition in tackling big Lee Wykoff, the Wyoming pretzel bender. Alan will have about five or ten pounds pull in the weights, which means nothing at all to the far Westerner. This may be, also, a wonderful wrestling session, but on the other hand, should either forget and start getting Munny, a pitched battle will surely be the result, as each man is known for his ability to give and take it.

Two new faces are in the second bout, Hardy Kruekamp, Ohio, 205-pounder meeting Adolph Sandow, 225 Hercules from the Nebraska corn-fed sector. Kruekamp is an ex-footballer with a tackle that is a tackle, while the farmer has strength plus. This expert is picking, therefore, no winner in this one. The first bout will see two lightweights at it, Camden Sergeant Roy Haldeman tangle with Greek Nick Bozinas over the half-hour route. Nick got a draw with Johnny Carlin last week. The Sergeant drew the Popeyed One several months ago, so a good, even battle of strength versus skill looms in this number.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR GROUP VISITS YOUNG PEOPLES' AIR CHURCH

Those who weren't in the group of Christian Endeavorers who went to the Albert Barnes Memorial Church, at Seventh and Spruce streets, Philadelphia, Sunday, to attend the Young Peoples' Church of the Air, missed a treat. Twenty-one members and friends left Calvary Presbyterian Church at 4:30 Sunday afternoon and arrived in the city at about 5:15. The services started at 5:30 and lasted until 6:30. We arrived in Riverton about 7:30 and had a song service before going to church.

Those who missed the trip this time will have another chance as we are planning to go again in the near future.

The Christian Endeavor Society is the eleventh group to start a song service after church in the evening, sponsored by the Young Peoples' Church of the Air. Those who would like to join are heartily welcome.

TRI-HI GIRLS HEAR MRS. GEORGE ETRIS

The Palmyra Tri-Hi Girls met at the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, Thursday evening of last week. The business meeting, which was opened at 8:30 o'clock was preceded by a basketball game in the church gym.

Jeanette Cardwell opened the business session with the reading of the scripture. Mildred Goodwin led the singing.

The speaker of the occasion was Mrs. George Etris, of the personnel department of Gimbel Brothers. She gave the girls a very interesting talk on the opportunities offered girls in a large department store.

Following her talk the girls spent a very pleasant discussion period. A conference will be held at Moorestown on Saturday and the Palmyra girls will meet at the Palmyra station at 9:30 o'clock. Transportation is in charge of Miss Marie Jander.

A truck driven by Roger Shiner and a touring car driven by Edward McGinnis, of Delair, sideswiped each other on Broad street at the Morgan avenue crossing Saturday afternoon and McGinnis' car ran into a Public Service pole, tearing off a front wheel and causing considerable other damage to the car. Despite the stormy weather on Sunday several Moorestown residents joined the throng of sight-seers at Penningsgrove, the scene of the big fire last week. The ruins were still smoldering. Most of the homes which were partially damaged had been vacated, but some of the unfortunate people were still trying to gather together bits of furniture which could be repaired. So far as could be seen there was only one home on which any effort had been made to start repairs.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Cora B. Brown, of Mount Holly, and John E. Bridgum, of Hainesport. Miss Stone is well-known to Eastern Star members in Moorestown as she is the marshal of Mount Holly chapter.

During the storm Sunday evening and early Monday morning much damage was done to the Bell telephone system as well as to the electric light and fire alarm systems in Moorestown. On Main street, east of Zelle avenue, a cedar tree was blown over, tearing down all the neighboring wires but not damaging any homes. A pole was broken off at West Moorestown station. On the Albert Haines farm, near Hainesport, a large tree was uprooted causing damage to overhead wires. BLOOD FOR TROOPER

Transfusion Needed by Rohner Before Amputation

A call for volunteers to give blood to State Trooper Rohner who has been in Millville Hospital since May 8, 1931, was issued Sunday.

The transfusion is necessary, physicians said, prior to amputation of Rohner's left leg. He has been kept in the hospital in the hope medical science could save the member.

State troopers attached to the various South Jersey barracks reported at the hospital Monday for blood heat.

tests. Captain William J. Carter, of the South Jersey headquarters, said. Rohner was injured when his motorcycle was struck by a motorist who made a left-hand turn on the highway in front of the Leesburg Prison Farm. He was formerly stationed at Delanco.

By request of C. H. Parker, of Hull, Eng., all black was avoided at his funeral and the mourners wore bright colors.

BOROUGH TO AID R.C.A. PROGRAM

Riverton Council Will Cooperate With Freeholders in Getting Rails Removed

The Riverton Borough Council took steps at its meeting last Thursday night to cooperate with the Riverton Civic Association in its plans to beautify Riverton.

Permission was granted to the Association to plant shrubs and low trees along the railroad tracks on Broad street, and the request of the Association that Council take steps to have the trolley tracks removed and the roadway widened on Broad street, resulted in the unanimous passage of the following resolution which was introduced by Councilman E. K. Merrill:

"Whereas, it is the desire of the Board of Chosen Freeholders to widen and improve Broad street in the Borough of Riverton, and

"Whereas, it is necessary before said improvement can be made that the rails of the Palmyra Service Railway Company be removed from the highway of said municipality through which the said street passes, therefore be it

Resolved that said rails on Broad street in the Borough of Riverton be removed, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Board of Freeholders of Burlington County."

Must Make Request
In speaking on the subject of removing the tracks Mayor Bennett said that he had been in conference with Freeholder Charles R. Stout, director of the road department, who had assured him that when all the municipalities between Palmyra and River side had requested the Board of Freeholders to remove the tracks, the board would act. There is an agreement between the trolley company and the Board of Freeholders and the municipalities in the county that the company will remove its tracks upon request. When the tracks have been removed the county will pave the space thus vacated with material to match the adjoining roadway. When this improvement is made it will be necessary to widen the bridge over Pompton creek at East Riverton.

The proposed planting by the Association would occupy four feet of borough property and two feet of railroad property, and the association asked for the construction of a suitable curb along the edge of the planting, to protect it from damage by automobiles and other vehicles.

The Association will raise by private subscription funds for the plantings. If the borough will secure the removal of the trolley tracks, the paving of the vacated space, and the construction of the curb.

Mayor Bennett said that Council was very glad to grant the request of the Association, and that Council appreciated the fine civic interest shown by the Association.

Already Prohibited
The ordinance for the promotion of law and order in the borough, which was presented at the February meeting, came up for final action. The only objection to its passage was raised by Charles Hawke, Jr., who said that if it is enforced it will prevent him from ringing the bell on his ice cream truck during the summer. The mayor replied that this practice was already prohibited by a state law. The ordinance was passed to third and final reading and unanimously adopted.

Councilman J. Elmer Hahn, chairman of the borough property committee, reported that work had already been started on an additional tennis court at Memorial Park. It having been decided to construct only one this year. The cost, he said, would be considerably less than last year owing to the fact that the labor will be performed by men supplied by the Welfare Association.

Mr. Hahn also reported that Miss Maxine Melzer will be employed again this year as play director for the girls at Memorial Park during the summer months. Mr. Snyder will not be available for the boys, he said, owing to the fact that he will attend summer school.

Mr. Hahn submitted plans and specifications for the proposed borough garage, but recommended that its erection be postponed until it is learned how well the money from taxes comes in.

William H. Weicker, of the firm of Griffith, Hickey & Co., borough auditor, submitted the annual audit, which was accepted and filed.

Discount Advance Taxes
Councilman Francis B. Elwell, member of the finance committee, presented the following resolution, which was unanimously passed:

"Be it hereby resolved that the Borough Treasurer be authorized to receive taxes in advance of due date, at a discount at the rate of one-half of one per centum per month, as provided by a supplement to an act in Griffith's Laws 1922, adopted February 16, 1922; and also be it hereby resolved that the Borough Tax Collector be instructed to notify all taxpayers of this privilege, and that such payments may be made on basis of taxes levied for preceding year."

Collector C. Kenneth Davis submitted a list of tax delinquents, and a list of uncollectable tax accounts which he asked to have remitted by Council. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

COOPER TELLS OF N.E.A. CONVENTION

Supervising Principal of Riverton Public Schools Talks on Modern Schools

E. N. Cooper, supervising principal of the Riverton Public Schools, was the speaker at the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club last Thursday night.

Mr. Cooper read the following paper on the annual meeting of the Department of Superintendence, of the N. E. A., held in Washington, which he attended:

SCHOOLS MUST CHANGE
During the past month, I was sent by the Riverton Board of Education to the annual meeting of the Department of Superintendence of the N. E. A., held this year in Washington, D. C. I have reported at some length on the sessions, to both the Board of Education and the teachers, so that this paper represents a condensation of ideas already expressed.

I shall attempt to give you, by quotations and original matter, what I regard as the main theme of the recent convention. Briefly stated it is this: "The function of the school is to maintain the solidarity of the group, and also to elevate and direct the progress of the social order."

Changes Are Inevitable
We live in a dynamic world, time and space are shrinking; today does not know what new scientific marvel tomorrow may bring forth. Everything is changing, including our social life, not always, we fear, for the better. Only by some unpremeditated catalyst, which would destroy the foundations of our civilization, can the manner of life of our great-grandparents return to this earth. We can expect, rather, an increasingly dynamic existence, as man gains added control over the forces of nature. If their change is inevitable, must we not take steps to see that this change elevates society rather than makes it lower? Our instrument for bettering social life is the school.

A Look Backward
To facilitate our explanation of the proposition, we shall hastily survey conditions during several periods of the world's history. Perhaps H. G. Wells will lend us his "time machine," which, if you sit, upon it, and move a lever, will transport you backwards or forwards through the ages, as you wish. We shall stop at 1400 A. D. on a hill-top at the far side of a valley.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Matthias Sontheimer announces that he will be a candidate for nomination for the assessor, in the Borough of Riverton at the primary election on May 17, 1932.

CAUGHT AFTER 16 YEARS OF FLIGHT

Leader of Gang Who Murdered Cranberry Grower Will Stand Trial in Burlington County

Behind a simple request of Prosecutor Howard Eastwood to the Board of Freeholders last Friday that the sum of $500 be added to his expense account to cover the cost of a trip to California to bring back to Burlington county for the trial one Luigi Pinto, lies a thrilling tale of murder, escape, adventure, pursuit by the long arm of the law and the final capture of the leader of the gang which, sixteen years ago shot to death a cranberry grower and robbed him of a bag of coin containing the week's payroll.

Henry D. Rider, a cranberry grower living at Hummington, had been to the bank to get money for the payroll and was on his way home, accompanied by Andrew Rider, Mrs. Kile Smathers and John Rigby. When they reached a lonely spot in the road they saw ahead of them what seemed to be five men and three women. As the Rider party approached, the group ahead turned about and ordered them to stop. Rider attempted to drive by but the bandits opened fire and Rider was killed. His brother and Mrs. Smathers were also injured.

One Pays Penalty
Giuseppe Traca was captured, convicted and sentenced to death. Before the date set for his execution, however, he escaped from the Mount Holly jail, but was recaptured and electrocuted.

Rafelle Piccinotti evaded the police dragnet and sailed for Italy. The news of his participation in the crime was cabled to the Italian authorities and when the fugitive stepped off the boat he was arrested. He was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Antonio Traca, another member of the murder party, remained at liberty until June 1, 1931, when he was arrested at Brownsville, Pa., and is now in the Burlington county jail awaiting trial.

Luigi Pinto, the leader of the gang, fled to South America, thence to Spain and Italy, finally returning to San Jose, California, where his trail was lost. Several months later he turned up in the police court in Stockton, California, charged with passing worthless checks, for which he was sentenced to a term in jail. His sentence expired this week, and Prosecutor Eastwood, accompanied by Clifford D. Cain, one of the county detectives, crossed the continent to bring him back to the scene of his crime to stand trial for murder along with Traca.

To Widen Bridge
Consideration was given the proposition to widen the drawbridge over the Rancocas creek at Hainesport, on the Marne Highway, from Camden to Mount Holly. This has been talked about since the widening of the road bed from Mount Holly to the Camden county line in Maple Shade, but the freeholders realize this will be an expensive job.

Phi Nu Class
The lesson for Palm Sunday will be "Jesus Dies on the Cross," John 19: 17-22 and 25 to 30.

We must climb Calvary's hill again, not to jeer with the mob, but to stand where we may hear Him pray "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

Our generation is in danger of crucifying Christ again. We find strangely like those Hosanna crying crowds—pagan love and shallow thinking, willing to crown Christ King if he will give us prosperity, but ready to crucify him if he demands too much sacrifice and humility.

What is the true doctrine of the second coming of Christ? Can Christians fully understand the purpose of the death of Christ, without connecting it with the resurrection?

COMMUNION SERVICE
The Burlington County Council of Religious Education is planning a Communion Service and Religious play for Holy Thursday, March 24.

All the young people of the county, church members or not, are urged to attend this service especially for them. The service will be held in the Burlington Baptist church, and will start at 7:45.

Everyone is welcome. Publicity Committee

BRUNTS HOST TO NOTED PHYSICIAN

Dr. Hiroshige Shioda, Japanese Imperial Surgeon, Is Guest in Riverton

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Brunt entertained Japan's most noted surgeon, Dr. Hiroshige Shioda, during his short stay in Philadelphia on Wednesday and Thursday, March 2 and 3.

Dr. Shioda's nephew, Hideo Mori, secretary to John Barton Payne, head of the American Red Cross in Washington, was also the guest of the Brunts.

Dr. Shioda, at the time of his visit with Mr. and Mrs. Brunt, was making a tour of the leading hospitals in America and Canada, making notes of the best features in each. Upon his return to Japan he expects to build at Tokyo the finest hospital in the world and incorporate in it fine points of the hospitals he has visited.

Dr. Shioda is at present surgeon to the Japanese Imperial family and surgeon-general of the Japanese army. He will head the new hospital in Tokyo when completed.

Dr. Shioda startled the world with his surgical prowess when in 1920 he performed a blood transfusion at the railway station and then had the Premier removed to a hospital where he performed an operation and lived for eleven months, but finally died from a cause not attributed to the bullet wound. Dr. Shioda also performed an operation on the Crown Prince of Japan just previous to his recent visit to America with his wife.

Harry Brunt, member of the graduating class of 1915 at the University of Pennsylvania, arranged for Dr. Shioda's visit to the University hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. Brunt accompanied him on his tour of inspection.

Dr. Charles Frazer, noted brain surgeon, for the benefit of the distinguished visitor performed an operation slightly ahead of schedule on one of the patients, removing a tumor from the base of the brain, necessitating the removal of a part of the skull and brain to reach the tumor. The Brunts also witnessed the operation.

Wednesday and Thursday evenings were spent with the Brunts at their new home fronting on the golf course. Dr. Shioda was pleased with American home life as demonstrated by the Brunts, since his stay at their home was his first contact with American habits of living, he having previously stopped at hotels.

Dr. Shioda had a number of moving pictures taken in hospitals during his American tour, and which were exhibited for the first time on the Brunts' projecting machine. These pictures were especially interesting to the Brunts since Mrs. Brunt is a member of the board of directors at the new Zehrer hospital being constructed in Riverside.

Dr. Shioda upon leaving the Brunts presented Mrs. Brunt with a beautiful four foot square piece of Japanese embroidery picturing two doves.

A total of $175,000 was involved in the retirement of the series. This amount included mortgages, stock loans and five shares.

R.C.A. PLANS MAY BE FAR-REACHING

Riverton's Work for Town Beautiful May Start Similar Efforts in Other Towns

That nearby communities are watching with interest the development of the new project of Riverton's recently formed Civic Association, and that some of these may "follow suit" in the inauguration of similar plans and activity, is the consensus of opinion of a number of prominent citizens interviewed during the past week.

"Those who have discussed the matter with friends in other towns," said one, "must realize, as I do, that Riverton has started something which is rapidly attaining much more than a purely local significance. Others are congratulating us upon the progress we have taken in the direction of town betterment."

Others are now viewing the members of our Civic Association in the light of pioneers in movement worthy of the support of good residents of all communities.

"This attitude is gratifying to all R.C.A. workers. It is an inspiration, and it is also something in the nature of a challenge. It means that the successful culmination of the proposed program is of vital importance not merely as a matter of civic pride, but because of the encouragement which our success will give to others."

A well-known business man, who makes his home in Riverton, had this to say: "When a retail merchant wishes to impress the public with the quality of the merchandise he has to offer, he dresses up his window. Window dressing is a good thing for a business and a good thing for a town. We know Riverton just as the merchant knows his stock. But would the railroad passenger passing by be able to place a true valuation on our community by the appearance of our 'show window' as it now is? I should say not. Riverton is one of the outstanding communities of South Jersey. Let's make it look the part!"

"It would be interesting," said a prominent club woman, "to offer some kind of a prize for the best essay by a pupil of the Riverton School on the subject, 'Why Beautifully Riverton?' There are so many reasons why such beautification should appear with equal force to individuals of varied viewpoints. The nature lover or man or woman with a definite degree of artistic appreciation will see in the project of the R.C.A. an opportunity to change a strip of barren land into a thing of loveliness. The practical business man with properties to rent or sell will see in the idea the means of attracting more people to Riverton and thus enhancing real estate values. The woman with small children will be influenced by her appreciation of the effect of environment upon her growing family."

This week the R.C.A. reports additional progress on the part of all committees, and a gratifying number of new and enthusiastic members. Best week may be shown in these columns illustrations which will give a very excellent idea of how the planting of trees and shrubs will appear when the actual work is completed.

FATHER THWARTS KIDNAP ATTEMPT

Claude J. K. Anderson Rout's Intruder About to Lift Son from Crib

Riverton was stirred last Friday morning by a report that an attempt had been made to kidnap the three-year-old son of Claude J. K. Anderson, prominent Riverton artist. In the early morning hours Mr. Anderson was awakened by a noise in the child's nursery, and saw in the darkness the form of a man standing by the crib. He made a flying tackle for the man's knees.

The intruder, who was evidently surprised, stepped aside, and it is supposed he stuck out his leg, tripping Anderson and sending him sprawling across the room.

After throwing Anderson, the intruder dashed through the bathroom and down the servants' stairway, leaving the house through the laundry door.

Intruder Escapes
While this was taking place Mrs. Anderson rang the bell in the servants' quarters and put through a telephone call for the police, who responded immediately, but the intruder had apparently made his escape. The police on their arrival found the door to the laundry open with the light latch on.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, as well as the four servants who sleep on the third floor, located the intruder, who was completely locked before retiring that evening.

After inspecting the house the police made a thorough search of the town for any suspicious-looking character, but were unsuccessful. Soon after Officer Goetze and Robinson left the house in search of the notorious intruder, the Andersons and three of the servants heard a noise similar to footsteps on the first floor. This led to the supposition that the man did not leave the house immediately for fear of capture by the police.

Familiar With Home
One of the incidents of this strange case which seemed to indicate that the intruder was familiar with the property was the fact that Anderson's dog, a thoroughbred German Pointer, was apparently doped. The Andersons and friends of theirs who were on the porch on Thursday evening noticed a strange odor about the dog and further noticed that the dog's actions were unusual.

After the first excitement had subsided, Mr. Anderson located the dog and found him in the upstairs living room with the door closed and a towel taken from the bathroom laid across the door. The dog had been kept in that room at night but the door had always been left half open, as it had been on the night of the attempted kidnapping. A local veterinarian was called to examine the dog and he stated that the dog had a peculiar chemical odor and acted queerly but was unable to say what drug might have been used. The dog did not retain his usual faculties and habits until Saturday.

Chief of Police Miller conducted an investigation Friday morning and later notified County Detective Ellis Parker, who dispatched Detective Zeller to the Anderson home. Zeller stayed until late Saturday night.

Fingerprint Found
One fingerprint, one heel print on the porch and a stranger apparently taking photographs on the Riverbank Tuesday morning are the only clues at present.

Four previous attempts are said to have been made to enter the Anderson home and on one previous occasion the dog had been doped.

An no evidence of a forcible entrance to the house was found, it is supposed that the intruder had a key that fitted one of the doors. The day following the attempted kidnapping, a locksmith was employed by the police to change all the locks in the house. He said that the carpenter who installed the lock on the carriage entrance door had made a poor job of it, and that the door could easily have been pushed open even when locked.

Mr. Anderson is quoted as saying that he has at all times been entirely satisfied with the service the Riverton police had given him, and that they have always been extremely prompt in answering calls from his home.

A. H. LIPPINCOTT NEW MEMBER OF PALMYRA COUNCIL

Legion Man Appointed to Succeed Late Alfred R. Bradley

DISCOUNT ON ADVANCE PAYMENT OF TAXES

Legion Authorized to Conduct Campaign for Welfare Contributions

Alfred H. Lippincott, 903 Morgan avenue, was appointed member of Palmyra Borough Council to succeed the late Alfred R. Bradley at the regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The appointment, announced by Mayor Lamon, was unanimously confirmed.

Mr. Lippincott is a member of Post Rodgers, American Legion, and has been a resident of Palmyra since 1921. He is 33 years old and is division manager of the Philadelphia and Baltimore offices of the Neidich Process Company, of Burlington, with headquarters in the Drexel Building, Philadelphia.

Prayer for Bradley

At the meeting of Council opened, Mayor Lamon called for a moment of silent prayer for Councilman Bradley, who died last week, and all members of Council and visitors took part.

A motion by Councilman Spahr that a resolution of sympathy be sent Mrs. Bradley was adopted.

The Italian-American Club sent an expression of regrets at the death of Mr. Bradley and Councilman Fisher, who also died recently. Christopher Peditto, president of the club, also congratulated Council on the choice of Messrs. Mervine and Lippincott, who succeeded the deceased members.

Beautification Urged

The Riverton Civic Association addressed a letter to Council asking Palmyra to cooperate in a movement to have the abandoned trolley tracks removed. Broad street widened and trees planted along the railroad to give Broad street a boulevard effect.

Councilman Wimer replied that the Public Service could not be compelled to remove the tracks unless all the municipalities in the county through which the tracks pass join in the request and that two communities, Beverly and Riverside, were opposed to the move because it would deprive them of the franchise tax now paid.

Can't Spend Now

Palmyra receives $540 annually from this source, but the amount, which is based on trolley revenues throughout the state, is getting smaller each year.

Mr. Wimer said the improvement of Broad street would mean more to Palmyra than the franchise tax.

Councilman Lippincott's motion was adopted that Council notify the Port of Palmyra would cooperate in the movement to remove the tracks, but that the expenditure of money for the beautification of the street could not be contemplated at this time.

Discount on Taxes

A resolution was adopted authorizing Tax Collector Grison to give a discount of one-half of one per cent. per month on all taxes paid in advance.

The plan of the Field Club to lease the tennis courts to Edward Bells so they can be opened to the public on an hourly fee basis will be decided upon by Borough Council at an adjourned meeting next Tuesday. It is necessary for Council to concur because the borough has an agreement of sale to purchase the ground on which the courts are located.

The proposed peddler's ordinance also will be taken up Tuesday.

Plan Welfare Drive

Councilman Wimer called attention to the need of funds to continue the town welfare work. Funds are in sight only for a few more weeks and Mr. Wimer stated that positive action must be taken toward raising more money if the unemployed in town are not to be left destitute.

He pointed out that only about 10 per cent. of the people in Palmyra have contributed to the relief work and that these same people have helped time and again, the other 90 per cent. contributing nothing.

Mayor Lamon suggested a drive be made to obtain pledges of payments of 25 cents per week per family for the rest of the year. This amount, if contributed by all who can afford to do so, would solve the problem very easily.

Councilman Lippincott announced the American Legion would be glad to undertake this work, so it was decided to leave the matter in Post Rodgers' hands. It is expected the campaign will be started at once.

"Y" AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Rebout, of Summit, Gives Helpful Suggestions to Palmyra Women

Mrs. Rebout, member of the State Executive Board of the Y. W. C. A. Auxiliary, was a guest at the meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton YWCA Auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Voorhis, of Fourth street and Morgan avenue, Palmyra, Wednesday, March 9.

The meeting was presided by a very enjoyable covered dish luncheon at one o'clock, at which fifteen members and three guests were present.

Miss Standinger, of Summit, N. J., and Miss Edith Hunter, secretary of the County YWCA at Mount Holly, were the other guests.

Wednesday's meeting was a very profitable one, as Mrs. Rebout gave some very helpful suggestions in regard to successfully carrying on the organization work and spoke of the method used in her home auxiliary at Summit. Miss Standinger is treasurer of the Summit auxiliary.

Plans are now being made to have Charles R. Scott, state secretary of the Boys' Y. W. work, address a meeting in the community during April.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Auxiliary and all persons interested in the work of the Y. W. will be welcome, particularly the mothers.

On May 11, there will be an open meeting held by the Auxiliary, at which time, mothers of boys in the community will have an opportunity to join and help in this splendid work.

The Auxiliary members will serve the dinner to the men participating in the YMCA drive in April. This dinner will mark the opening of the annual drive for funds to carry on the Y. W. work in this section.

The Auxiliary secretary was authorized to send a letter to Governor A. Harry Moore protesting against cutting of the $25,000 appropriation to the New Jersey State College for Women at New Brunswick.

The group for young business women will meet for the first time this week.

Any young woman interested in joining may call Miss Kay Green, who will give any information desired.

Police accommodated 88 night lodgers.

PALMYRA LOCAL TAX RATE IS $4.64

Decrease of Only Two Cents, Due to Lowering of Valuations

Palmyra's tax rate for 1932 is $4.64, a decrease from last year of only two cents.

It had been hoped that a much larger decrease would be effected, but lowered valuations both here and throughout the county and state made it impossible.

The Palmyra municipal rate is $1.10 and the school district rate is $1.844. Throughout the county, eleven municipalities have increased rates, compared with 1931. The most pronounced is Chester, which this year is $7.08, a rise of $1.22. Mount Laurel is increased 48 cents; Beverly City, 33 cents; Riverside, New Hanover and Woodland, 22 cents each. Other increases are considerably smaller.

Mount Holly's tax rate is 16 cents less, being $4.78. The greatest decrease is in Mahanesh, which dropped from $5.88 to $5.28. Decreases in other townships vary from 4 cents to 32 cents.

The amount to be raised for county purposes is $237,742.63, as compared with $239,219.20 last year.

There is a decrease in total valuations of real and personal property in the county this year, which is $68,063,281. The 1931 total is $71,631,570. This, of course, makes the county rate higher than it would have been on the old valuations. Then, too, there is a falling off in the county's share of bank stock tax, from $21,782.33 last year to $15,696.29 this year.

The county rate this year is $1.202. Last year it was $1.193. District school is 29.2 cents; last year, 27.4 cents. District court is .005 cent; last year, .004 cent. Soldiers' bonus is .014 cent; last year, .013 cent. State roads, 10 cents, same as last year.

TRI-HY GIRLS HOLD REGULAR MEETING AT M. E. CHURCH

The Palmyra Tri-Hy girls met at the Epworth M. E. Church on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Florence Harding opened the business session with the reading of the scripture and singing of songs. The purpose of the meeting was to make arrangements for the conference which was held at Moorestown last Saturday.

This conference was a great success and many girls attended it. The Palmyra group conducted the devotional services and enjoyed the various discussions.

Friday evening, March 18, the Tri-Hy girls will give a dance in the Y. M. C. A. building at 8:30 o'clock.

At the next meeting the girls will play basketball with the Bordentown girls in the Palmyra High School gym at 7:30 o'clock.

"PASSIONATE PLUMBER" AT WHITMAN THEATRE

A stellar comedy trio, composed of Buster Keaton, Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante and Polly Moran does its share to attempt to lift the current depression blues in "The Passionate Plumber," which, heralded as M-O-M's latest laugh riot, will open Sunday at the Walt Whitman Theatre for seven days.

The three are said to have side-splitting adventures in a story which depicts the diverging careers of a plumber who becomes the guardian of a Parisian beauty and is involved in a series of riotous experiences in his attempt to prevent the girl from succumbing to the charms of a two-timing fop.

The romantic affair between the long-haired Durante and the belligerent Polly Moran also holds its share of laughs and the note of high-keyed merriment is carried through various scenes which reach topmost pitch in a furious domestic battle in which crockery and glassware are hurled about in the manner of the highly amusing quarrel sequence of "Private Lives."

Irene Purcell, who scored opposite Robert Montgomery in "The Man in Possession," has a prominent part in the comedy proceedings and the cast also includes Gilbert Roland and Mona Marie, Edward Sedgwick directed.

FOR CORONER

WILLIAM O. CUNNINGHAM
"I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for Coroner of Burlington county, and would appreciate the support of the Republican voters at the Primary Election on Tuesday, May 17th, 1932."

The Coroner's office is a very important one and the interests of the public will be better served when one familiar with the duties and requirements is charged with its administration.

As a Funeral Director, I feel that I am qualified to bring to the office the benefit of many years intimate knowledge.

300 ATTEND BIBLE CLASS MEETING

Wimer's Resignation Is Unanimously Refused by Members of Organization

The resignation tendered by George Wimer, as president of the Burlington County Federation of Men's Bible Classes, was unanimously refused at the meeting of the organization on Sunday.

Wimer tendered his resignation due to the fact that he is running for the office of sheriff in the county of Burlington. Mr. Wimer stated that he did not wish to retain the position as president of the Bible Class organization during the campaign. The members were heartily opposed to his resignation for that reason.

Sunday's meeting was held at the Beverly Baptist Church with more than three hundred members in attendance. The Rev. A. C. Turkington, pastor of the church, gave a very splendid address.

The Wesleyan Men's Bible Class of the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, had forty-eight members in attendance. The Baptist Church, Palmyra, was represented by 24 members, the Lutheran had 19 present, and the Presbyterians, one.

The next meeting of the organization will be held in the Riverside M. E. Church on April 10.

The president asks all members to make an effort to be present at the April meeting.

PALMYRA FIRE CO. TO BUY NEW SIREN

The members of Independence Fire Company of Palmyra feel that the present fire siren is dangerous and a siren should be protected to the efficiency of the Palmyra company.

On several occasions recently the whistle has failed to respond and it was only the quick action on the part of the members that saved time and loss of property.

The fire company has sent out letters to different concerns asking for bids on a modern type whistle.

Each company has agreed to send a modern whistle for trial. On Saturday at three o'clock these whistles will be tried out.

Men will be posted in various parts of the town in order to decide which is the best.

Remember the whistles will be tried out at three o'clock on Saturday. That will not be a fire alarm.

Publicity Chairman, P.F.D.

CONSERVATION OF N. J. RESOURCES

Garden Department of Palmyra Woman's Club Takes Active Part in Program

The Garden Department of the Palmyra Woman's Club in conjunction with the New Jersey State Conservation Committee, representing the Garden Club of America, the Federated Garden Clubs of New Jersey, and the Garden Department of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs, is urging all persons in this vicinity to observe "Conservation Week," April 4 to 8, 1932.

Governor A. Harry Moore has set aside this period as a time to especially concentrate on the conservation of New Jersey's wild flowers, soil, birds, fish and streams and trees.

The various and several organizations and clubs suggest that teachers in the schools of the state plan to take up various phases of the subject on each day of the week, not attempting to replace the regular program of the school, but to fit into the usual work such suggestions as will illustrate the day's study.

Monday is set aside for the study of wild flowers; Tuesday, soil; Wednesday, birds; Thursday, fish and streams; and Friday, trees.

The Garden Department of the Palmyra Club, which is very active in this work, asks all persons to take notice and heed the slogan for the entire week: "Be Proud of the Natural Beauties and Resources of Our Own New Jersey."

LAWNS SHOULD BE PROTECTED AGAINST "JAP" BEETLE GRUBS

Lawns in localities where the Japanese beetle, Asiatic beetle or Asiatic garden beetle were troublesome last summer should be protected this spring against damage from young beetle grubs, advises Edgar G. Rex, Trenton, supervisor of Japanese beetle suppression for the State Department of Agriculture.

The grubs hatch from eggs deposited in the turf by adult beetles during the summer and spend approximately ten months of their existence in the soil. With the advent of spring they move toward the surface of lawns and feed upon grass roots. Their continued feeding destroys grasses through the destruction of the roots.

Commercial dry lead arsenate should be applied to lawns at the rate of five pounds per thousand square feet in cases where there are between eight and 20 grubs per square foot. Rex advises, where there are less than 20, 10 pounds of the arsenate should be applied per thousand square feet.

It has been the aim of the Corps to sponsor a competition in this section. This would bring at least fifteen of the best outfits in the east here.

Preliminary plans are being made with the hope of being able to put on a good pageant. Those who have never seen these units at their best will derive much pleasure from such a competition.

Alleged to have eaten a $30 bogus check when police attempted to arrest him, Lester Byrl, of St. Louis, was sentenced to 30 days imprisonment.

For further information call Mrs. J. C. Mallory, Riverton 835.

K. OF C. ENTERTAINS VISITING DELEGATION

St. Joseph's council, K. of C., headed by Grand Knight Andrew J. Pfaff played host to the Burlington County Chapter K. of C. at the council chambers in Palmyra Tuesday. Delegations were present from Moorestown, Mount Holly, Riverside, Burlington, Bordentown and San Domingo council of Philadelphia.

After the regular meeting conducted by Joseph F. Yearly, President of the Chapter, Lecturer Thomas McCrosson presented a varied and very entertaining program which was enjoyed by all. Among the various acts presented were Thomas Callahan and Harry Buchanan of San Domingo with popular song hits of the day. The dance team of Shea and Davis, local talent, was roundly applauded with their specialty dance numbers, while Jack Dugan, "The Daffy-Dill" comedian of San Domingo council, was really funny in his own inimitable way of putting it across, and made a big hit with those present. John McFie of the same troupe was Master of Ceremonies and what a master he was with his comic songs and monologues. William Connors was very interesting with his "Mae and Houdini" act, while Uncle Leo of radio fame ever W. L. I. T. Kiddle's Hour accompanied on the piano, and also rendered several fine piano solos.

The address of the evening was given by Grand Knight William Lennox of San Domingo council and was received with enthusiasm. At the conclusion of the program, Lecturer Thomas McCrosson invited all to the floor below where refreshments were served by his assistants, and all voted that a good time was had by all.

First Lutheran

Palm Sunday brings the memory of the Triumphant Entry of Christ into Jerusalem, and the hope of his complete triumphal entry into all the world. The progress of that triumph is marked by the acceptance of Christ as Saviour by individual souls, and the dedication of their lives to His Service.

It is accordingly fitting that the Confirmation service for the young people who are entering His Church and His Kingdom should be held on this day. Next Sunday we will conduct a class consisting of five girls and eight boys. The sermon to be preached on the occasion will be on the theme, "Confessing Christ."

In the evening the first of a series of sermons on the Parable of the Prodigal Son will be preached. The theme will be "The Straying Life." The series will be continued through Holy Week, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Good Friday afternoon; no services Monday night.

Good Friday night the choir will sing the cantata, "Penitence, Pardon, and Peace." Holy Communion next Thursday night, as well as Easter Sunday morning.

NEW EASTER DATE

Many times it has been proposed to establish a more nearly uniform date for Easter Sunday, but tradition and custom are hard to overcome, so the old method of calculation, established by the Council of Nice more than 1,600 years ago, still prevails.

Under this system Easter may fall as early as March 22 or as late as April 25 and all moveable feasts of the church are governed by the date of Easter. Easter is unusually early this year, falling on March 27.

The British House of Commons once passed a bill proposing that the legal date of Easter be the first Sunday after the second Saturday in April. It was not intended that the British should try to put this proposal into effect alone, but the idea was to call a world conference to consider joint action of the nations on the subject.

There are many reasons, business and social, to commend the new plan, but inasmuch as such an innovation would clash with long established religious custom it is doubtful that it will be able to command support in ecclesiastical circles. Without such support it could not be given practical effect.

FROM POVERTY TO POWER

That American boys have no monopoly of the opportunity to rise from humble origins to places of power is pointed out by a recent writer, who names several world figures who began life in poverty.

Lloyd George, former British premier, was an orphan brought up by a cobbler.

Ramsay MacDonald, the present premier, rose from abject poverty.

Aristide Briand, several times premier of France, began life as a waif.

Pierre Laval, the present French premier, was once a butcher's boy.

President Masaryk, of Czechoslovakia, was the son of an ignorant peasant blacksmith.

Benito Mussolini, Italian premier and dictator, was also a blacksmith's son, and himself worked as a common laborer.

And as an American parallel to the two last named it may be mentioned that President Hoover, too, was a blacksmith's son, changing the methods are slowly changing, greater and greater provision is being made for the development of social consciousness. The school is becoming more like the life outside. It is beginning to resemble the environment in which children will have to live when their formal education is finished. But while we creep, forces which are disintegrating our nation, seem to gallop.

Education is but a step ahead of catastrophe: unless something is done quickly to make Americans politically conscious, we shall become a kingdom of morons, ruled over by racketeers and gunmen. Get behind your schools, insist that they do make provision for training citizens, that their teachers "are more than drill masters," that they are physically equipped to offer the curricula necessary. Take every opportunity to impress upon your equals and those less fortunate than you, that what this country must have is not curricula of educational opportunities, but their immediate expansion, so that they are available to an increasingly larger percentage of the population.

An Appeal to Rotary

The schoolmen of America need the support of Rotary, they have a right to count upon the sympathetic interest of its members, for both are working to make the United States a better nation. The fact that Rotary International gives us the privilege of joining its ranks is deeply appreciated. It implies that one of the world's outstanding organizations respects our efforts to maintain a high standard of service.

Schools Well Administered

Dr. Edwin C. Broome, superintendent of Philadelphia schools, puts the matter fairly when he says, "Instances of actual extravagance in school expenditures are rare, and instances of the improper use of school funds are still rarer. A nation whose people spend more on chewing gum and tobacco than on schools for their children cannot be said to have an extravagant system of public education."

We owe no apology to the taxpayers. They are getting good schools but not too good, and at a cost that is reasonable in comparison with the cost of other forms of public services. Also, the returns for money invested in schools are greater and of more lasting benefit to the community than the returns for any other enterprise. School people are human and err, but could they have the same standards of honesty and a similar desire to serve the public at some sacrifice to self, be as common among other public officials, as it is usual with us, the expenses of government would be vastly less.

To Preserve Liberty

In conclusion, remember that either our schools must get down to the brass tacks of training citizens, or we too "shall be one with Nineveh and Tyre." Nothing stands still, hence society goes either forwards or backwards.

The yoke of tradition holds the schools of America at a snail's pace, and retards the awakening of civic interest. Help us to throw it off, so that "this government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Hasten the time when on the "Julliard" above the town shall stand, not a castle signifying fear and oppression, but a splendid school, reflecting from its many windows the opportunity of a nation which believes that all men are created free and equal, and that liberty and justice are the birthright of every child.

P. T. A. NOTES

The chocolate sale held at Riverton School for the benefit of the free milk fund was a great success. Mrs. O. Harold Baker, Mrs. Frederick Blair, Mrs. W. H. Bottinger and Mrs. Francis Brown were in charge of the sale, and filling the orders brought in by the children. The cooperation of the teachers and the mothers has produced gratifying results, and the committee wishes to express its appreciation of their efforts.

The next activity of the Association will be the regular meeting on Monday, the 21st. Mrs. Ira B. Pimm, of Palmyra, will speak on the "Spiritual Development of the Child." This attractive young speaker will lead up to this subject through dealing first with the physical and mental development of the child. She is coming early to be present at the study group held in Miss Parker's kindergarten room at 230, as usual. Mrs. George B. Wilson will be in charge of the group with the topic of "Truthfulness."

Added attractions for the March meeting will be a demonstration of the manuscript writing now taught in the school. Miss Caroline Staman will be in charge, and Miss Elsie Enval's children will demonstrate. Mrs. Bradford Stetson will have some music for us with the P.T.A. chorus.

Altogether no mother of a Riverton school child can afford to miss this meeting. There will be some constructive thought for each and everyone to take home.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Blyer, of Riverton, announced the engagement of their daughter Miss Edith Amy Blyer and Mr. Harry Edson Hicks, of Riverton.

"THEO" SCHNEIDER IS HERO!

"Pete," the crooning canary, owes his life today to Theobald Schneider, his genial master. The story of the bird's heroic rescue follows.

Last Thursday morning, just as old Sol was pecking over the horizon in the vicinity of the old gas works, Taylor, the "paper man," was percolating about the station preparing to deliver news to snoozing Rivertonians.

Taylor, alert little fellow, noticed he could not see the clock on the wall of the News Agency when he looked thru the front door—as was his usual custom. A second glance told him that the store was full of smoke.

Now Taylor had been told that "where there is so much smoke there must be some fire," so he forthwith rushed for the assistance of Officer Robinson.

Robinson, Riverton's high speed cop, dashed to the scene of the trouble and likewise observed signs of fire. He thought he heard the crackle of flames and the ripping and splitting of wood, which later proved to be the respiratory exhalations of the slumbering Theobald in the apartment above.

Robinson needed no further urge. He soon had "Walt" Armstrong, Riverton's fire chief, at the scene of the blaze. "Walt" aroused the sleeping Schneiders on the floor above and dashed into the smoke-filled store muzzled with a smoke mask.

He reached the cellar door and was about to descend when a terrific rumble froze him to the top step. Thinking the entire building was about to collapse "Walt" rushed to the front of the store in time to see our hero, "Theo," clad only in a fancy patterned night shirt, descend the narrow stairway six steps at a stride and emerge to the front porch.

"Theo," with one eye watering and the other half closed, stood blinking on the porch, and grasped firmly in his right hand was a guided bird cage housing "Pete," the family pet.

Just then an icy morning blast of wind whistled around the edge of the porch and raised the goose pimples on "Theo's" unprotected nether extremities.

"Theo" cleared the porch in one leap and tore across Broad street still holding the bird cage in his protecting grasp, and in fluttering nightie trailing in the breeze behind him.

Our hero sought the comforting shelter of the station waiting room, listening to "Pete" whistle "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight," whilst the firemen braced themselves with extinguishing the blaze which was confined to the cellar.

WILL K. BOWEN TALKS TO SCOUTS

Woodcraft Subject of Local Upholsterer at Regular Scout Meeting

At the regular Friday meeting of the Riverton scouts, Mr. Will K. Bowen gave the scouts the most interesting talk on wood finishing. Wood finishing, like many other forms of handicraft, is a part of scout activities and Mr. Bowen handled his subject in a most interesting and instructive manner. The scouts were particularly interested in a piece of wood he showed them which was dug up from the Philadelphia subway excavation and which scientists estimate to be centuries old.

The troop also was put through a stiff semaphore drill by Assistant Scoutmaster William Cook and a short close-order drill by Assistant Scoutmaster Washington.

It is planned in these columns from week to week to tell about the qualifications of each officer in turn of the local scout organization in order that the parents of Riverton boys may become fully informed as to the ability of the officers of the troop to assist in the great work of training their boys to be upstanding and honorable men.

The Riverton troop is most fortunate in its lineup of officers. Every officer in the troop has had wide experience in the subject for which he is responsible. The executives of the troop, Assistant Scoutmaster William deH. Washington, is in charge of troop administration and programs. To prepare him for this duty he has had wide experience. He started scouting as a boy in Troop 1, of Riverside, New Jersey. He has been assistant scoutmaster of the Riverton troop practically since its organization in 1926.

Although the Boy Scouts of America is a non-military organization, many of the features of Army organization are incorporated in the Boy Scouts; because the Army method of doing certain things has been proved to be the most efficient. Thus the Boy Scouts wear a uniform because in this way every boy is put on the same footing and he is recognized as a scout wherever he is seen. In the same way Army methods are used to a certain extent in troop administration. For instance, a properly functioning scout troop is required to have a definite program of troop activities. In other words it must have an objective and a plan to reach that objective, must be on its way somewhere and have a course to that place thoroughly mapped out in advance.

This planning of a program is almost identical in method to the planning of a program for the training of

N.E.A. CONVENTION

—And Barons Held Their Sway—

Across the valley and high on the rocky hillside, rise the towers and battlements of a great castle; dark, forbidding, it glowers upon the peaceful settlement that seems to shrink from its very shadow. Moat, drawbridge and portcullis, add to the picture of sullen might and oppression.

Beneath the thatched roofs live a simple peasant folk, uneducated, with few problems of citizenship to concern them. The "quality" in the castle rule with an iron hand, but they, too, are ignorant; not of the ways of culture, but in general knowledge. The earl has no need to be otherwise, for does he not hire a monk to do his reading and writing for him? Great days for those on top, but almost slavery for the common man.

The Rise of Education

A movement of the lever sends us forward 300 years. Knighthood is no longer in flower, but the hand of aristocracy still lies heavy on the land. Nevertheless, the great middle class has come to be a power and the state of all people is improved. The nobility are educated; they patronize learning. To be successful in polite society, your Beau Brummel must have dabbled in the classics, mathematics, and that fascinating new study, science. His education is "a little of this," plus "a little of that." He lived over two centuries ago, yet the subject matter taught to make him socially acceptable, still throws a deep shadow over that given to the young democrats of our time.

Look now across the ocean, America is growing. These hardy men and women, whose pioneering spirit launched them forth into the barren wilderness, are established. No longer is there a question as to whether they will survive in this new land. The smoke ascending from their firesides makes prominent the steeple of the village church, and close beside it, the school, where every child may learn.

Education for the Masses

The Revolution of 1776 launched the outstanding republic of all time. Read in 1932 what George Washington said of public education in 1783, "Promote, then, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge. In proportion as the structure of a government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened."

The above quotation is typical; it represents the almost unanimous opinion of the founders of our nation, that the success of the United States depends upon an intelligent and educated populace. They conceived of schools as places for making citizens who could cope with governmental problems that were bound to arise. Schools were not to build up an aristocracy, but to aid in making that equality of opportunity for which our constitution stands.

Radical Changes Imperative

As our nation has grown in size and prosperity, the public school system has been altered, but it needs a complete remodeling to keep pace with the dynamic social life of our era. The last vestiges of the static society of our ancestors have been swept away by the introduction of scientific method. We travel at a pace heretofore unknown to man. Problems of personal conduct, social usage and governmental policy arise daily, which were unheard of one hundred years ago. The times are different.

Schools Have Not Kept Pace

The public school, on the other hand, has retained much of its early procedure. It still does out "a little of this" and "a little of that"; it still concerns itself with the past to the exclusion of the present and of the future. For the static social life of two centuries ago, it may have been adequate, but it has failed miserably to prepare citizens for the kaleidoscopic world of change that they now inhabit.

Some progress has been made, but it is insufficient. In the words of John Dewey, who, so to speak, is the Plato of the public school, "Traditions form our collective beliefs; they are the intellectual cement of society. Certain traditions in religion, morals, economics, and politics are still nominally held by the mass of adults, men and women, and they are taught in schools."

But the actual movements of social life are contrary to these traditions. They contradict and undermine them. We believe one thing in words, and to a considerable extent in sentiment. We believe another in our deeds. The split prevents the older traditions from giving us guidance, while they retain enough hold on people's minds so that they are not replaced by any other collective ideas."

Training for Citizenship

We emphasize, then, the point-of-view that education is not hastening towards some new aim, but is rather returning to the fundamental idea of our forefathers, that the school shall train efficient citizens. To curb crime, to set up intelligent party government, to inculcate respect for law, and foster fair standards of competition must be numbered among its aims. Should we fail to adjust our curricula to these and similar ends, the realm of the knighthood will continue to expand.

What goes into the training of a citizen, what objectives shall we specifically strive for? Above everything else we must develop ability to think reflectively. Everyone seems to agree that our schools have failed in this respect; and, why not? The school of the past generation actually discouraged thinking, by placing a premium upon the memorization of facts, many of which were of a dogmatic nature.

At one stage in our history it may have been possible for a pupil to learn everything he needed to know by this method, but who can tell what facts must be memorized today, to meet situations arising tomorrow? Boys and girls must be trained to seek out information about vital problems from the available sources, to sift and classify the data found, and finally to draw their conclusions on the basis of the facts which apply.

Education Is Hope of Future

We must go farther. Education is being forced to plunge into the consideration of respect for law, government, and international affairs. Future inhabitants of the United States will have to take firm stands on other basic policies, many of which will result from the continual shrinkage of time and space. Mrs. John K. Norton, Associate Director of Research of the N. E. A., says, "The good curriculum will center in the social studies (history, geography and civics), since these attack the problem of how people may best live together as individuals."

The modern social studies course will be concerned not merely with ancient civilizations, but with contemporary issues, and plentiful control of the future. The cue for the teacher is not to dodge controversial issues, but to face them. The challenge to the school is to help move the world up from bad and good, to better."

Must Teach Cooperation

Dr. Frank N. Freeman, of the University of Chicago, states, "The school can do at least two things to educate children for a better social order. First it can give them a true conception of human society, as a living organism in which each individual plays but a small part and profits by the activities of all the rest. In the second place the school can set up conditions of school work so that the child will be encouraged to take the cooperative attitude and engage in cooperative activity, instead of learning chiefly to follow his own selfish interests or get his chief satisfaction in competing with somebody else."

Broader Vision Needed

Dr. Arthur I. Gates, of Columbia University, a real authority on reading, whose books we use in the Riverton schools, expresses the same idea in different words. "Leaders in education," writes Dr. Gates, "agree that the most conspicuous defect in the work of the schools is the failure adequately to prepare persons to participate abundantly in the social, economic, civic, religious, artistic and literary life of the time."

The cause of this deficiency is not primarily ignorance, disinclination, or incompetence of teachers, but the magnitude of the burden of teaching the conventional subjects — reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, composition, etc. The teaching of these subjects takes so much time and energy, that relatively little is left for broadening the broader purposes of education. The remedy is not to minimize or neglect the instrumental skills —, but rather to effect improvements in instruction which will produce an optimum degree of skill in a fraction of the time now required."

Real Purpose of Schooling

Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president of the Carnegie Foundation of New York, is even more forceful. He says, "The purpose of schooling is to develop the effective social person rather than the successful individual. The satisfactions of cooperation will gradually displace the motivations of competition, and the whole artificial machinery of marks and promotions which leaves the many with a sense of half-failure and decreased intellectual energy, will gradually disappear."

"The curriculum will continue to be enriched until it covers the whole of American civilization. The gap between educational valuations and social valuations will be closed. This means not more school subjects, but fewer and more inclusive ones, larger organizations of subject matter which represent fundamental approaches to life, rather than minute academic subdivisions of knowledge."

According to Dr. Frank P. Graves, head of the New York State public schools, "We are thoroughly convinced not only that education is essential to the endurance of democratic society, but that even the prosperity of a democracy is indissolubly connected with the efficiency of our public schools, since the degree to which they provide for the development of skills, information and character traits in pupils, largely determines the wealth, culture, and influence of our country."

Sacrifice for Good of Group

Dr. George Strayer, a leader in the field of the business administration of schools, is in agreement. He contributes, "It is seriously proposed that we cannot afford the program of education already established."

There seems to be little appreciation of the fact that the bulk of the hour is for a richer education to be provided for an increasing percentage of the total population. We must have schools that do much more than provide opportunities for individual initiative and achievement.

We must develop a curriculum which, while it adjusts educational opportunities to the needs and capacities of individuals, has for its objective the development of men and women who love liberty, who seek justice, who are willing to sacrifice personal advantage to the well being of the whole group."

One could go on and on, piling up evidence from the pens of the greatest American educators, but sufficient has been quoted to make clear the major theme of the Washington convention. The schools have a duty which reaches out and beyond the formal training in the usual academic subjects, namely the development of a society which is ever changing for the better. This must be done if our democracy is to survive the demands made upon it, by the dynamic world in which it functions.

Growing Demand for Change

Citizens of the United States are growing dissatisfied with their schools; the great force of public opinion is beginning to swing into line to change them. At present it is halting, and uncertain in direction, but when it fully realizes that what the United States needs is good citizens, and that schools can be run so as to produce them, public opinion will not be denied.

Darius, the Persian king, stretched chains across an arm of the sea, and ordered slaves to flow the water with whips because the waves had wrecked his galleys; the world laughs at his colossal conceit. No more can any person or organization stem the rising tide of popular demand, now gathering strength, for schools that produce results.

To be sure, the curricula are slowly

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"MATTER" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 20, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted in the earth" (Psalms 46:10). Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him" (1 John 2:15).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we learn in science how to be perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect, thought is turned into new and healthy channels—towards the contemplation of things immortal and away from materiality to the Principle of the universe including harmonious man" (p. 276).

Joseph C. Kingdon

The funeral of Joseph C. Kingdon, Jr., justice of the peace and former newspaper editor, who died in his sleep Saturday, was held at 11 a. m. Tuesday at his late home, 13 Brainerd street, Mount Holly.

Mr. Kingdon, who was 81 years old, was born in Mount Holly and with the exception of three years spent in Burlington as a boy, lived there all his life. As a boy of 14 he got a job on a weekly paper and continued in the newspaper business until his retirement ten years ago. He was editor and part owner of the Mount Holly News when he retired.

Mr. Kingdon was completing his ninth year as a justice of the peace. He was for eight years a recorder, but was not reappointed by the township committee at the beginning of this year.

He was for 22 years a member of the board of education and served at various times as a member of the Mount Holly township committee, township clerk, county board of taxation and the county board of elections. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William Cooper.

WIMER ENDORSED FOR SHERIFF BY MANY CITIZENS

Former Mayor Receives Hearty Support and Cooperation of Palmyra People

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE FORMED AT MEETING

Declare Nomination Would Mean Recognition of Palmyra in County

More than fifty of Palmyra's citizens met in the P.O.S. of A. Hall, Palmyra, Monday evening to endorse George N. Wimer, former mayor, for the office of sheriff of Burlington county. The inclement weather did not in the least dampen the spirits of the enthusiastic men and women in attendance.

The meeting had been called by and was in charge of a campaign committee composed of Mayor Walter D. Lamson, George J. Spencer, and Palmer L. Adams.

The former mayor and state committee man was not in attendance at the meeting.

All factions in Palmyra were represented and the campaign in Mr. Wimer's home town is going forward with great strides.

It was unanimously agreed to name the campaigners "The Wimer for Sheriff Committee." Walter D. Lamson was elected chairman, and Miss Sara E. Garrison, Mr. Wimer's secretary, was chosen secretary of the committee.

Following the naming of the committee and officers, the chairman gave a brief address, in which he cited many requests in favor of Wimer as sheriff of the county. Mayor Lamson stated that Mr. Wimer had given forty years of his life serving the people of this county and is known for his integrity and his sterling qualities. The chairman also said that Mr. Wimer was particularly fitted for the job due to his long experience in business and public affairs.

Mayor Lamson then asked for suggestions and carried out the same. Many persons made remarks similar to those which had already been made and all were very enthusiastic in their praise for the former mayor of Palmyra.

J. Horace Finney made the statement that he thought Mr. Wimer would carry Palmyra and Riverton by a very large majority, but that work should be done in other parts of the county. All present heartily agreed with Mr. Finney.

A motion was made by Borough Solicitor Joseph A. Low to appoint an executive committee of at least eight to assist the chairman in furthering the "Wimer for Sheriff" campaign throughout the county.

Mayor Lamson then asked for volunteers and the following offered to aid with the campaign throughout the county: J. Horace Finney, Charles B. Marple, Carroll Kirkhead, Carl Lutz, Palmer L. Adams, Herbert H. Parsons, George J. Spencer, Robert Young, Joseph S. Low, C. Nevin Buchholz, Charles Flynn, George McCord, Harry Shaffer, A. G. Casper and Russell C. Haines.

An executive committee will be appointed by the chairman within the next few days.

"The Wimer for Sheriff Committee" will hold its next regular meeting on Monday evening, April 4, in Society Hall, at eight o'clock. Each member of the committee will bring a co-worker to the meeting with him on that occasion.

Martha M. Weygand

Martha M. Weygand (nee West), wife of Charles W. Weygand, 21 Elm avenue, Riverton, died in the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, Monday afternoon, March 21.

Mrs. Weygand was a member of the Riverton Porch Club, Covenant Chapter Order Eastern Star, and of Christ Church, Riverton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Snover Funeral Home, the Rev. Arthur S. Lewis, officiating. Interment will be made in Harleigh Cemetery, Camden. P. A. Snover, funeral director.

Mrs. Weygand is survived by her husband, Charles W., a son, Wesley T., and three brothers, Dr. B. R. West, and Dr. Richard E. West, of Riverton, and Dr. Charles W. West, 826 North Sixth street, Camden.

Friends may call at the Snover Funeral Home, Friday evening.

RADER INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Key Road Cause of Collision Last Monday Morning at East Riverton

William Rader, of 412 Linden avenue, Riverton, suffered three broken ribs and body bruises in an automobile crash Monday morning.

The accident occurred in front of the Pyramid Building, in East Riverton, at 8:45 a. m.

Joseph Taylor, son of Howard G. Taylor, Jr., of Taylor's Lane, Cinnaminson Township, was driving his father's Dodge sedan, taking the three Taylor children to school. He was proceeding west on River road behind a bus. The bus stopped short in front of Taylor and he skidded into east-bound traffic directly in front of Rader, who was traveling towards Burlington.

In the collision that followed the Taylor children received slight cuts, and Rader, whose car was badly damaged, was taken to the Zuerbrugg Hospital, in Riverside, by a passing motorist.

Officer Dorworth, of the Cinnaminson Township police, and Chief of Police Miller, of Riverton, investigated the accident.

Monday's bad weather produced other auto crashes of a minor character in this vicinity.

A delicious luncheon, in a most attractive place, with bridge, 500 or any game preferred, with a prize for each table, afterwards.

The Porch Club, wishing to show its cordial interest in the P.T.A., has hospitably opened its doors, without charge of rental. The luncheon will be entirely home-cooked by skilled hands and, as much as being donated, a delightful meal will be served for the modest sum of 35c, at one o'clock. The card party will be at 2:30, at a cost of 25c each player, and groups may make up their own table, or not, as preferred. There will be plenty of extra players to make up even tables. The executive board will have the tickets to set, may buy one for 60c to cover both the luncheon and card party, or you may buy separately; 25c for cards or 35c for luncheon. We hope you will come to both.

Unfortunately, this is a school day and the association cannot have luncheon with us, but an early luncheon will be served at 12:30 for the teachers.

HEALTH TALK AND TEA AT MOORESTOWN

Importance of Proper Diet Stressed at Meeting of Women's Auxiliary of Medical Society

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Burlington County Medical Society gave a very interesting lecture and tea at the Moorestown Community House, Monday, the 21st of March.

Miss Cornelia S. Coale was sent from Riverton to represent the Visiting Nurse Association; Mrs. John Douglas Clark and Mrs. Gogham P. Sargent, the Porch Club; and Mrs. Harry L. Rogers, the Parent-Teacher Association.

Dr. E. J. G. Beardsley, associate professor at Jefferson Medical College, stressed the importance of the physical, mental and moral life of the present generation upon whom the coming generations are dependent.

One of the greatest menaces of childhood, now that diphtheria and typhoid are so well controlled, is rheumatic heart conditions, caused by tonsillitis, adenoids and teeth.

We must guard against tuberculosis, a condition which might become very serious in the next five or ten years if children are improperly fed, due to the depression, and restricted diet, when parents can buy only a loaf of bread to fill empty stomachs, instead of milk and fruit juices which growing children need.

Dr. Beardsley also stressed the importance of teaching young people self-control, and that straight, clean living is the greatest road to happiness in life, in no way comparable to the so-called happiness of measuring life by wealth acquired or by financial success.

The afternoon was concluded with music and tea. Mrs. Hartman, of Maple Shade, the president, announced that the auxiliary was eager to furnish good speakers on all medical subjects and health propaganda, and would like to be called upon by Women's Clubs, Parent-Teacher Associations and all organizations desiring a meeting of this kind in their annual program.

TAKE STAND FOR LAW OBSERVANCE

Republican League Formed to Fight Lawlessness of Underworld

The New Jersey Republican League was organized Saturday, March 19, 1932, in the office of Attorney John B. Brown, 810 Broad street, Newark.

This organization is the result of a prolonged discussion of a group of civic leaders, who had come together from different parts of the state to discuss the present chaotic political situation.

The new organization makes the following statement:

"The New Jersey Republican League has come into existence in answer to the challenge of the underworld and its sympathizers and abettors. The best minds of the nation are endeavoring to reconstruct the national financial system which was unable to avoid collapse in the crisis that swept over the world. The necessity for such rebuilding has brought sharply to the minds of the American public the fact that hand in hand with the reconstruction of our financial system must go reconstruction of our political and social life, which were never at a lower ebb.

"The general disregard for law—not one law, but many laws—and the breakdown in the enforcement of many of our laws, have aroused the thoughtful people to the fact that the laws which were made for their protection can be so easily ignored and nullified by those who have been chosen to administer them, and who have taken a solemn oath to support them, then our basic laws are in great danger of being undermined, and the ultimate result will be chaos and the destruction of our government.

"The subject of the utterance of many of our public officials—the rampant vice which is winked at by them, and, in many instances, the collusion of officials themselves with criminals, justify the statement of our judges, 'that gangsters control the country.'

"The obstacles thrown in the way of law enforcement—the easy road to wealth by graft as evidenced by the unexplained bank accounts of many public officials—the system, or lack of system, in handling the people's money, even in honest, but poorly advised public business enterprises—are responsible for the crushing taxation which is now loaded upon the shoulders of the people.

"The spinelessness of many officials who seek and hold office with no thought of serving the public, but who are interested solely in the social and pecuniary advantages of the office, is chiefly responsible in bringing about the present conditions.

"An aroused public demands the reconstruction of our political and social life, and we believe the time has no longer willing to be merely rubber stamps under the present leadership. Such conditions will not long be tolerated. The New Jersey Republican League demands the honest enforcement of all law, and the election to office of those whose real motives will be sacrifice and service in the sole interest of the public."

Buses and Railroads

Editor The New Era:

In last week's communication by "Frightened," one finds a most admirable, sane, and timely analysis of the community's transportation requirements by the writer's emphatic, but constrained, statements which do not contain such vulgarisms as "ham-and-eggers" freely, bitterly and almost offensively written into "Fair Play."

My "Frightened" has omitted from his letter one or two subjects which deserve consideration: The appropriateness of many residents becoming members of that fortunate class who, forced by unnecessarily crude and uncomfortable transportation, have become "former residents of Riverton."

Each of us who remain, sorely miss and could scarce afford to lose. Due to general indifference of those in authority, it is probable that the only solution to this problem, if we do not care to also remove from the community, would be a well and strongly organized, competitive political body—local, of course, and possibly of the Democratic persuasion, due to this organization's ability to cooperate with us in remedying such conditions as now exist.

One also notes that Frightened has said nothing regarding our railway transportation. Is it not quite possible that his forceful and illuminative remarks on this subject would be of interest? Surely, more adequate railway transportation would preserve our interest and investment in local property.

WETS AND DRYS IN SPIRITED DEBATE

M. H. S. Auditorium Crowded To Hear Arguments on 18th Amendment

Approximately five hundred people were gathered in the Moorestown High School auditorium Tuesday night to hear a debate on the 18th amendment, sponsored by a joint committee of the two Moorestown Friends organizations.

Resolved: "That the 18th Amendment should be repealed," was the subject of the debate. Howard G. Taylor, Jr., of Riverton, introduced the speakers and before the start of the debate and gave the reasons for the meeting.

He said that the subject has become one of momentous consideration by everyone. Much has been said, repeated and argued by people everywhere with little real knowledge of the facts. The Friends felt that the only way in which to consider the subject fairly would be to hear with an open mind what proponents of both sides of the question had to say.

That the best authority for both sides be obtained, the Friends went to the top of the respective ladders and invited the following noted speakers to defend their respective views.

The debating teams

Representing the negative, or dry, side were, Dr. James K. Shields, superintendent Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey, and Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, president New York State W.C.T.U.

Representing the affirmative, or wet, side were, Joseph S. Clark, Jr., executive commander of the Pennsylvania Crusaders, and Representative Maria Carson Booth Kelley, National Prohibition Reform Movement, New York.

Hon. Emmor Roberts, former state senator, acted as moderator.

Each of the four speakers was given twenty minutes, with a ten-minute rebuttal period, and in that long session much was said for both sides of the question. One outstanding fact was that the wet speakers conceded that liquor, saloons, etc. were an evil influence, but believed that the 18th Amendment was not the proper way to bring about a total abstinence on the part of the majority of the people.

They felt that temperance was a matter of individual opinion, and that the schools and churches were the proper weapons for the final destruction of the liquor traffic, and not Federal policemen. They stated that great strides were made toward the final solution of the drinking question before the prohibition amendment was passed, and that the last twelve years of prohibition had done more damage to the cause than the good that had been accomplished in fifty years of slow but sure progress prior to its adoption.

RIVERTON MAN KILLED BY TRUCK

Cooper Thomason Meets Death In Accident at West Palmyra

Cooper W. Thomason, 54 years old and resident of Riverton for the past forty-five years, was instantly killed last Saturday morning when he stepped in front of a five-ton Mack truck at Broad and Arch streets, Palmyra.

It is said that Thomason had attempted to cross the street twice before he was struck. The truck, the back wheel of which crushed Thomason's head, was owned and driven by Roscoe Mohs, of 121 McBride avenue, Paterson.

Officer Nelson Wallace, of the Palmyra police, had Thomason's body removed to the Snover Funeral Home at 313 East Broad street, Palmyra, and arrested the driver of the truck.

Mohs was arraigned before Recorder William L. Richter and was released under $1000 bond on a technical charge of manslaughter.

The truck was loaded with heavy cardboard sheets destined for the Kleckhefer Container Company, of Delaware.

Thomason was born in Philadelphia and moved to Riverton in 1887 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Thomason, who made their residence at 711 Main street.

Cooper was the second oldest of four brothers, and some of the old-timers who were fond of football well remember that Cooper was one of the best fullbacks in the country at the time. He was noted for his long range kicking, and was excellent as a line plunger and hurdler and was good at tackling.

In the old days Connie Mack had a professional football team, and Thomason was the only man from Riverton on the team. He followed this team for two years, playing in Phoenixville, Pa.

Funeral services were held at the Snover Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, with the Rev. Arthur S. Lewis officiating. Interment was made in Morgan Cemetery.

Thomason is survived by two brothers, William J., Jr., of Riverton, and Howard M., of Buckingham Valley, Pennsylvania.

Our Streets

Editor The New Era:

I'd like to join the People's Column by publicly asking for information on the present status of the highway bill matter which was so vehemently discussed about a month ago.

So far as I can find out, there was some sort of agreement suggested to the general effect that the contractor would repeat this treatment of our streets at no extra charge to the borough.

But has this agreement been made? Have we paid anything on the work which was so unsatisfactorily performed? Will we be taxed again for this? What is the status of this affair? And has it been definitely settled?

I am out of town a great deal, so I cannot personally attend the hearing of the final solution of this question. But that's another reason why I should call myself

BUCKNELL GLEE CLUB AT RIVERSIDE

The Bucknell University men's glee club is busily engaged at Lewisburg, Pa., putting the finishing touches on the new concert which they will present in Riverside at the High School auditorium, the evening of Friday, April 1, under the auspices of the Baxter Men's Bible Class.

The club this year is giving an entirely new program of ensemble, solo, and group numbers. In addition, the club will carry a violin soloist, a reader. Their program is one of the most varied in college music circles. It is popular as well as classical.

The Baxter Men's Bible Class is fortunate to secure this college group for a concert at Riverside and a capacity crowd should hear the concert.

PORCH CLUB NOTES

On the 29th of March at 2:30, the club will have one of the outstanding entertainments of the year.

The music department has arranged for the club to hear Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dengler (soprano and tenor), who are frequently heard over the Columbia network, accompanied by Lawrence Curry.

MRS. PIMM SPEAKS ON "CHILDHOOD"

Riverton P. T. A. Hears Able Address on Home Influence on Children

In spite of bad weather, Monday's meeting of the Riverton P.T.A. was well attended. The usual study group met at 2:30 in the kindergarten, under Mrs. George B. Wilson's leadership.

She chose "Truthfulness" as her subject, dealing primarily with the young child. This was most interesting and created much discussion among the mothers. Mrs. Wilson added a bit of color to her program by speaking of her travels in China, but unfortunately the time was much too short.

The regular meeting was called at 3:30 and Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, president of the Riverton P.T.A., spoke of the splendid response to requests for donations, generous buying and the excellent work of Mrs. Wolcott and her committee for talent day. This was indeed a success and the proceeds will be used for dental work as recommended by the school nurses, expenses of meetings, dues to state, donation to the library and wherever else there is need.

Another word of thanks was extended to those who helped make the recent chocolate sale a success. Mrs. Baker had this in charge and it was a big job well-handled, and most successfully, due to the cooperation of the school children, teachers, parents and friends. There have been 450 bottles of milk furnished to needy children up to March 1st, at a cost of $18.36. Such items will be paid out of this fund.

Membership Increasing

Mrs. H. K. Rutherford reported a steady increase in membership, making a total of 197, but she would like to see it go over the 200 mark.

Mrs. Elwell then asked Mrs. E. Blackwell to read a letter from the Riverton Civic Association, after which it was agreed that the P.T.A. would contribute a tree to commemorate Washington's Bicentennial Celebration and also in this way do its share toward making Riverton's highway more beautiful.

Mention was made of the efforts of the Palmyra Women's Club to put more suitable movies for youngsters on Fridays and Saturdays in Palmyra, and this received the hearty endorsement of Riverton mothers.

Mrs. Pimm on "Childhood"

Mrs. Ira S. Pimm, of Palmyra, was the speaker of the afternoon and no mother who heard her could fail to gain encouragement and inspiration.

Mrs. Pimm dealt primarily with the spiritual development of the child, and by "spiritual" she meant not the child's religious life, important as that is.

"Childhood," said Mrs. Pimm, "is like a beautiful sunny lane with the future veiled in golden haze. Its success will be measured by what our standards of successful living are. The finest goal for us to build for its future happiness, a happiness that will build up a content in him too deep to be carried away by any future misfortune or sorrow. To help him toward this richness of life there are definite ways; to call his attention to beauty and to correlate beauty with God. Today, when the unrest of the world without creeps into the home, we are prone to feel freedom of thought and action are of primary importance in bringing up a child. There is danger of too much "hands off" with our children that results from this theory and we must be on guard to help build up the secret of inner happiness.

There was a demonstration of manuscript writing by Miss Evald's class, after which the children's papers were passed among the mothers. Considering that these children are only in the second grade, the legibility and neatness of this writing certainly proves its superiority over the old style.

Mrs. B. Stetson and her chorus led the singing of several songs. Tea was served and so ended a very interesting afternoon.

Mrs. Emma L. Rahn

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Emma L. Rahn, of Burlington, mother of Mrs. Alfred H. Lippincott, of Morgan avenue, Palmyra, who died Sunday.

The services were held at the Trappe Lutheran Church, Trappe, Pa. Interment was made in the Lutheran Church Yard.

Besides Mrs. Lippincott, Mrs. Rahn is survived by her husband, Warren R. Rahn; and three other daughters; Miss Jessie and Miss Marguerite Rahn, of Burlington; and Mrs. William Hewitt, of Watertown, N. Y.

MOVE TO OUST MOTOR VEHICLE DEPARTMENT

Proposition Is to Divide Work Between State Police and New Bureau

ACTION OPPOSED AS BLOW TO EFFICIENCY

Taxpayers Association and Keystone Club Among Opponents to Bill

There is a movement afoot to abolish the New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles, and to partition its functions between the State Police and a newly created Bureau of Motor Taxes.

The proposal was ridiculed by D. Frederick Burnett, counsel to the Abell Commission, and during the course of the hearing, before the state Judiciary Committee on Monday, a telegram was read from G. L. Bardo, of Camden, president of the New Jersey Taxpayers' Association, protesting against the proposed change, and stating "the responsibility for the safety of the public on the highways should be definitely located and coupled with complete and final authority in all matters relating to highway safety."

One of Best in U. S.

Dr. Hubert Stack, of Rutgers University, educational director of the Bureau of Underwriters, and chairman of the Safety Committee of the Department of New Jersey American Legion, said that he regarded the New Jersey Department as "one of the three best departments of its kind in the United States."

The only ones to speak in support of the measures were Assemblyman Elmer Brown, sponsor of the bills, former Assemblyman William George, of Hudson county; Assemblyman Charles Hood, of Essex county, and Assemblyman Charles T. Downing, of Sussex county. They claimed that economies could be effected by a reorganization of the department, a charge that was immediately denied by Assemblyman Grimm and the opponents of the measure.

Economical and Efficient

The New Jersey Taxpayers' Association does not approve of the consolidation of the Motor Vehicle Bureau with any other state agency." Mr. Bardo said. "The department has been efficiently and economically handled and the interests of the public have been well served."

Keystone Opposes Change

Strong arguments for retention in fact of the Department of Motor Vehicles were presented by the Keystone Automobile Club of New Jersey. The club's executive committee, representative of the Club, who presented the arguments, said:

"In support of our position, I believe we vote the opinion of all motorists that the centralization of control as now established in this state is ideal from every standpoint. We can see no logical purpose served by the proposal to set up in place of the present co-ordinated organization a Department of Taxation which would include some of the duties now performed by the Motor Vehicle Department."

Would Impair Efficiency

"Under such a plan motor vehicle administration would become a mere incident, its importance and significance totally submerged in the exaltation of revenue collecting. Motorists, we believe, are not ready to accept a situation in which they are considered only from the standpoint of how much they can be made to contribute to the State Treasury."

Mrs. Emma L. Rahn

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Emma L. Rahn, of Burlington, mother of Mrs. Alfred H. Lippincott, of Morgan avenue, Palmyra, who died Sunday.

The services were held at the Trappe Lutheran Church, Trappe, Pa. Interment was made in the Lutheran Church Yard.

Besides Mrs. Lippincott, Mrs. Rahn is survived by her husband, Warren R. Rahn; and three other daughters; Miss Jessie and Miss Marguerite Rahn, of Burlington; and Mrs. William Hewitt, of Watertown, N. Y.

PEACOCK ENTERS CONGRESS RACE

Mount Holly Lawyer Outlines His Platform to Voters of Two Counties

Robert Peacock, counselor-at-law, of Mount Holly, makes the following announcement:

To the Voters of Burlington and Mercer Counties—

I am a candidate for Congress, to represent the new Fourth District comprising Mercer and Burlington counties. For the information of the voters:

I am a resident of Mount Holly, Burlington county, and have served in the Legislature for 3 years; I was County Solicitor for 10 years, and at present am Assistant Attorney General of New Jersey, in which office I have served for the past two years.

I desire to submit to the people of this District the platform upon which I will stand and it will not be a "pussyfoot platform," but open and above board, and I intend to stand by the promises that I make to the people, upon which I ask their suffrage.

I am a World War veteran and have never yet made application for a bonus.

I am in favor of the Soldiers' bonus for the following reasons: Assuming that the "bonus" or adjusted compensation, was a matter of simple justice to the veteran, Uncle Samuel does not appear as a sort of Shylock in the manner he has arranged the loan and interest provisions affecting this compensation. Where he pays only 2 per cent, simple interest on his own loans, he exacts 4 1/2 per cent, "compounded" interest from the veterans, and for loaning the veteran half of his own money. By the year 1944, the remainder of his certificate will have been all but eaten up by the interest. The question of financing the payment of the balance may be an important one just now, but so is the need among many of the veterans. They should have a square deal.

On the question of National Defense I am in favor of a standing Army and Navy and a sufficient air force so that this Nation may be prepared to defend itself at all times, and I quote the words of Washington on this subject: "I desire to avoid insult we must be able to repel it; if we desire to secure peace, one of the most powerful instruments of our rising prosperity, it must be known that we are ready at all times for war."

I am against any increase in taxes and believe that the present levies should be lowered, especially the income tax. I believe that less taxes and more trade are essential alike to the emancipation and to the prosperity of the unprivileged masses.

I am in favor of a tariff that will protect American labor and American-made goods.

I am in favor of a continuance of a Farm Board and advocate Government aid to the farmers.

I am personally dry and do not use liquor, but I believe the Eighteenth Amendment should be repealed and there should be substituted therefor an amendment restoring to the several States the power to determine their policy toward the liquor traffic, and vesting in the Federal Government the power to protect dry States from the invasion of such traffic from wet States. I favor constitutional procedure to accomplish this purpose, believing that Prohibition does not have the support of public opinion in this country.

I am in favor of Congressional action for the detection and punishment of crime, and for the elimination of the gangster and racketeer.

I recognize the principle of equal rights to all citizens without regard to race or color, continuing a program of fair play and justice to all, and am against any legislation that has for its object or purpose the segregation of persons on account of color, race or creed.

I am in favor of legislation for old age dependency relief, so that aged couples may enjoy their last days together, and not be committed to institutions and separated in their declining years.

I recognize the heavy obligations that rest at this time upon all men and women, and pledge my efforts to work for legislation to bring this country back to normal conditions.

I pledge to work for an economical and business-like administration in Government affairs, and to work for the interest of all the people.

ROBERT PEACOCK.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ira Pimm Are Given Very Cordial Welcome

Approximately 200 members of the Epworth M. E. Church attended the reception of welcome given the Rev. and Mrs. Ira B. Pimm on Thursday evening of last week.

The welcoming address was given by Leon C. Guest, chairman of the pastor's relation's committee.

Mrs. Pimm was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers by the members of the church and the Rev. Mr. Pimm was the recipient of three fine bouquets.

Mrs. Pimm also received a lovely shoulder bouquet from the members of the Friendship Circle and the Girl Scouts sent her a charming corsage.

Alfred VanOsten, well-known Palmyra vocalist, rendered some selections which greatly pleased the audience and Miss Esther Shooker gave two excellent and entertaining readings.

The sketch, "Mrs. Jenkin's Brilliant Idea," presented by members of the Friendship Circle Bible Class was also a source of great delight and much entertainment to those present.

The sketch was coached by Mrs. Myrtle Henderson.

Following the entertainment refreshments were served by a committee composed of members of the Women's Guild, which was headed by Mrs. J. C. Mallory. The decorations were also in charge of this same committee.

TRI-HY NOTES

The Palmyra Tri-Hy girls met in the F. B. B. gym on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

There was no meeting, as the girls played basketball with the Bordentown girls, who were victorious by a large score.

The dance which was held in the Y.M.C.A. Building on Friday night, March 18, was a great success. The hall was decorated with green and white streamers for St. Patrick's Day.

About sixteen couples danced to the music of the high school Electrola. Tak-About was served.

HEISLER IN RACE FOR FREEHOLDER

Asks Renomination from Republicans on Record of Economy, Progress

To the Voters:

Prompted by the encouragement given me by many taxpayers and citizens of Burlington county, who have expressed their confidence in my ability to manage its financial affairs, I have decided to announce my candidacy for renomination for Member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders on the Republican ticket at the coming Primary election.

It has been my constant endeavor to serve our growing county in an economical, business-like way, along the lines of progress. My record is an open book and speaks for itself.

While serving as Director of Finance, the gross debt of our county has been reduced about $1,500,000 and there was an estimated surplus in our County Treasury at the end of 1931 of over $100,000.

When I first took over the Finance Department, our county had about the highest percentage of gross debt in proportion to ratables in the whole State; in fact, it had almost reached the limit of its borrowing capacity, while today, there are only two counties with a lower percentage of gross debt to assessed valuation. This statement can be verified by the Department of Municipal Accounts at Trenton. I take pardonable pride in these accomplishments, not assuming entire credit, however, for these results could only have been brought about by the co-operation of my colleagues on the Board and the other county officials.

My experience as Director of Finance should make me qualified to bring about even better results if I were re-elected.

I also want to express my appreciation to the banks of this county for the splendid co-operation they have given my department in financing our county affairs.

The business of the county is increasing rapidly and amounts to approximately $2,000,000 a year. Mandatory legislation has added greatly to the work of the county officials and to the burden of the taxpayers and it is my conviction that the taxpayers and citizens of the county should have some voice in matters of added expenses rather than have this legislation forced upon them by the State.

Keen, honest, business judgment is required in the management of county affairs, especially in these days of stress, and as I have so often stated in speeches that I have made, it has always been my sincere wish that more citizens of our county would interest themselves in obtaining first-hand information regarding the conduct of this business, rather than accept the statements, often misleading and untrue, of over-zealous partizan workers, and so I want to express by appreciation to the Burlington County Taxpayers' Association for the fine work it has already done, believing that even greater results can be accomplished as its committees become more familiar with the business of the county and the municipalities, and understand the problems that confront their officials, and I believe that kindly co-operation rather than knocks will accomplish the most good. I have always welcomed constructive criticism, believing that any other kind is harmful to the best interests of the county and leads nowhere.

I have many friends among the taxpayers, who have complimented me upon the conduct of the financial affairs of our county and who feel that

William H. Heisler, Jr.

I have fairly and faithfully discharged the duties of my office, and it is because of their confidence in me that I am seeking renomination.

I will, as heretofore, conduct a fair, clean, dignified campaign, dealing with facts, not misleading propaganda, and, if nominated and elected, will strive to the utmost of my ability to perform the duties of the office in such a way as best to serve all the people of Burlington county.

SCOUTS OF PALMYRA TO HOLD STUNT NIGHT, PARENTS ARE INVITED

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of Palmyra, will hold stunt night in the Scout room at the Epworth M. E. Church Tuesday evening.

The Boy Scout Counsellors and the Scout mothers are cordially invited to be present at that time.

Each patrol is putting on a special stunt. Some will be comical, while others will be along the lines of actual scout activity.

There will be an investiture service which will be quite different from any service ever held in Palmyra.

This performance is one of a series of events being planned by the Scouts in an effort to bring their parents together in order that they might see what scouting is and what fine work their boys are doing.

VOCAL ARTISTS ENTERTAIN CLUB

Lester Ensemble Provides Entertainment on Annual Guest Evening

Members of the Palmyra Woman's Club and their friends were entertained by the Lester Ensemble at the annual guest meeting of the club held Monday evening in the club rooms, Society Hall.

The artists participating in the program were: Frank Oglesby, tenor; Joseph Wissow, pianist; and Virginia Snyder, accompanist.

These men are artists of rare ability and their numbers were most enthusiastically received by the large audience. They were encored frequently and were most generous in presenting extra numbers.

Mr. Oglesby accompanied himself in all his encore numbers, proving himself a talented pianist, as well as a vocal soloist.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held April 4, and will be known as "Talent Day."

All members are asked to contribute something in the way of cakes, candies, pastry, or any foodstuffs they may care to make. Aprons, smocks and fancy goods are also acceptable. These will be sold by the committee in charge of the event.

Entertainment on that occasion will be furnished by club members in charge of the various departments.

THANKS

The "Talent Day" sponsored by the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association on Saturday of last week proved very successful.

The members of the association wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who in any way helped make the event the success that it was.

The entire proceeds from the event will be used to benefit needy school children.

I have fairly and faithfully discharged the duties of my office, and it is because of their confidence in me that I am seeking renomination.

EASTER PAGEANT AT M. E. CHURCH

Fifty Young People to Take Part in Fine Program Sunday Evening

Another of the fine pageants for which the young folks of the Palmyra Epworth Methodist Church are becoming famous will be presented on Sunday evening at 7:45.

The presentation of the Easter Story is entitled, "The Dawning," by Lyman Baynard. The cast includes fifty characters who will be in traditional costume. Special lighting effects are being arranged for the setting.

Few Christians of the Twentieth Century can imagine the feelings and thought-experiences of those Christians of the First Century who were called to be witnesses to the world concerning the life and death and the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

For those who attend this service, the centuries will turn backward, and the Gates of the Past be unlocked, and a Pageant of the Resurrection will be unfolded. They shall stand outside the gate of Jerusalem, near the sepulcher of Jesus, and watch those of old time pass back and forth between the city gate and the tomb.

They shall see Peter and John and Thomas and the other disciples. They shall behold the faithful women go sorrowfully to the tomb and anoint the body of Jesus. They shall see Joseph of Arimathea, and Nicodemus, and the Centurion of Calvary, of whom early Christian tradition says that his name was Longinus, and that he became a Christian bishop and a martyr for the faith. They shall tarry a while with the Jerusalem Children; and at last we shall see the procession come back from the glorious scene of the Ascension to face the task of conquering the world.

For weeks the cast has been rehearsing and every indication is that it will be even more beautiful than the Christmas pageant witnessed by so many.

The cast of characters includes: John, Cecil Guest; Peter, Grey Schwartz; James, George Long; Andrew, Harry Glover; Bartholomew, Harold Zayoff; Thaddeus, George Sharp; Matthew, Paul Guest; Thomas, Clifton Taylor.

James the Less, Ernest Barkie; Simon Zelotes, Doctor Lord; Longinus the Centurion, Rev. Pimm, Cleopas, Al. Illingworth; The Other Traveller, Douglas Kersey; Jesus and Roman Soldiers; The Lame Man, Douglas Kersey; Nicodemus, Elwood Johnson; Joseph of Arimathea, Herbert Baugh; Mary Magdalene, Mary Coward; The Other Mary, Thelma Finner; Salome, Ruth Brown; Joanna, Carry Bates; Women of the Sepulcher, Elizabeth Stein; Mildred Goodwin; Burial Haines; Rhoda, Ruth Lutz; Jerusalem Women, Mildred Mickle; Mrs. Johnson; Mary Lord; Roman Soldiers, Jerusalem Boys and Girls and others.

This pageant will be repeated on April 3 at the evening service.

Former J. S. Collins & Son Employee Charged With Theft of $1560

Irving R. SHEMELEY, formerly of Moorestown, was committed to the Burlington county jail at Mount Holly by Recorder Joseph W. Johnston, Monday, in default of $2,000 bail.

SHEMELEY, who is being held for grand jury action, is charged with embezzling $1560.78 from J. S. Collins & Son, Inc., Moorestown.

He was arrested Monday at Fairview, near Riverside, by Officer Charles

J. Erickson, of Moorestown police department.

SHEMELEY, according to police, was employed by the Collins firm for several years, acting as salesman and collector in the farmers' supply department. Just what period the defalcations covered was not revealed by the authorities. SHEMELEY has not been employed by the Collins firm for several months, police said.

Before moving to Fairview, SHEMELEY made his home in Moorestown, where his family now resides.

Warrant for SHEMELEY's arrest was issued after complaint had been made by a member of the Collins organization and A. W. Halliet, investigator for National Surety Company.

Large Audiences Enjoy Presentation
of "Gudgravia", Three Act Romantic
Farce, on Friday, Saturday Evenings

"Gudgravia", the romantic three-act farce, written and coached by the Hon. Frank A. Mathews, Jr., was presented before large audiences on both Friday and Saturday evenings in the Palmyra High School Auditorium.

Judge Mathews is to be congratulated on such fine work, as author and as coach.

The leading roles were portrayed by the author as a Doctor of Dental Surgery, and Mrs. William J. Zeller, as Lady Olga Monna Petrovski. Mrs. Zeller was charming as the royal lady who claimed the throne of "Gudgravia" as her own, and the Judge, who was "thought" to be the rightful heir to the throne, kept his audience amused from beginning to end with his usual witty and clever remarks.

Miss Muriel E. Burmann, as Lola Thompson, the dentist's secretary, in her own clever way exposed the deceiver and gives the throne to the rightful heir.

Clark R. Johnson, as Henry Parham, M. D., in love with Lola Thompson and the rightful heir to the throne of "Gudgravia" delighted his audience with his portrayal.

Others in the cast who also did remarkably well were: George Perkins, Joseph G. Seel, Joey Jack Mathews, Miss Dazzer, Helen Young, Seidherman, lawyer, Marvin L. Roberts, Baron Gaine, James M. Weart, Louis, a manservant, Raymond L. Bailey, General Motors, Drexel P. Patterson, Peg Kennedy, of "The Amalgamated Press," Edythe Kilpatrick, Grand Duke, Dr. K. K. Frost, of Baurapplies, Chris Davis, Lady in Waiting to Lady Olga, Gertrude Moulton, Corporal, John A. Althouse, Jr., Soldier, Frank B. McCormick, Nurse, Helen Young.

Chorus of "Gudgravia," Harry Hodson and Wilmer P. Ripka; Pages, Caroline, James and Dorothy Stanton; Crown Bearers, Evelyn Kates, Horrids, George B. Weigand and Charles A. King.

Ladies of the Court, Dorothy Wise, Bernice Kates, Maude Freeman and Alice Kase, Officers of the Court, Henry H. Black and Clinton P. Cubbon; Royal Body Guard, Carl Thomsen, Palmer Adams, Frank B. McCormick and Billy Mathews. Soldiers of Baurapplies, Frank B. McCormick and Harry Hodson.

Frank A. Kates, as stage manager, and Charles A. King, as stage carpenter, are to be complimented on the fine scenery and effects.

It is estimated that approximately 1,100 people were in attendance at the two performances.

Large Audiences Enjoy Presentation
of "Gudgravia", Three Act Romantic
Farce, on Friday, Saturday Evenings

"Gudgravia," the romantic three-act farce, written and coached by the Hon. Frank A. Matthews, Jr., was presented before large audiences on both Friday and Saturday evenings in the Palmyra High School Auditorium.

Judge Matthews is to be congratulated on such fine work, as author and as coach.

The leading roles were portrayed by the author as a Doctor of Dental Surgery, and Mrs. William J. Zeller, as Lady Olga Mona Petrovski. Mrs. Zeller was charming as the royal lady who claimed the throne of "Gudgravia" as her own, and the Judge who was "thought" to be the rightful heir to the throne, kept his audience amused from beginning to end with his usual witty and clever remarks.

Miss Muriel E. Burmann, as Lady Thompson, the dentist's secretary, in her own clever way exposed the dentist and gives the throne to the rightful heir.

Clark R. Johnson, as Henry Parnham, M. D., in love with Lady Thompson and the rightful heir to the throne of "Gudgravia" delighted his audience with his portrayal.

Others in the cast who also did remarkably well were: George Perkins, Joseph G. Seel, Joey, Jack Mathews; Miss Dazzer, Helen Young; Scotland, a lawyer; Marvin L. Roberts; Baron Gahne, James M. Wozel; Louis, a manservant; Raymond L. Bailey; General Motors, Drexel P. Patterson; Peg Kennedy, of "The Amalgamated Press"; Edythe Kilpatrick; Grand Duke, D'Eau Froid, of Bismarck; Chris Davis; Lady in Waiting to Lady Olga, Gertrude Monhot; Corporal John A. Altman; Jr., Soldier; Frank B. McCormick; Nurse; Helen Young.

Guards of Gudgravia, Harry Hodson and Wilmer P. Bishop; Pages, Caroline Hales and Dorsey Stanton; Crown Bearer, Evelyn Kates; Herald, George H. Weigand and Charles A. King.

Ladies of the Court, Dorothy Wise, Bernice Kates, Maude Freeman and Alice Kates, Officers of the Court, Henry R. Black and Clinton P. Gibson; Royal Body Guard, Carl Thom as, Palmer Adams, Frank B. McCormick and Billy Mathews. Soldiers of Smerapples, Frank B. McCormick and Harry Hodson.

Frank A. Kates, as stage manager, and Charles A. King, as stage carpenter, are to be complimented on the fine scenery and effects.

It is estimated that approximately 1,100 people were in attendance at the two performances.

Phi Nu Class

"The Resurrection" will be the subject for the discussion this Sunday, from the Gospel of St. John. What new meaning will Easter have for the Christian Church of 1932? Many points of view may be brought forward on this subject and a standing welcome is open to those who would like to join our class.

PUBLCITY COMMITTEE.

BIG HORSE ROUND-UP

George W. Rogers' saddle horse broke out of its stable during the snow storm in the early hours of Monday morning and Palmyra police braved the blizzard hunting old Dobbin, who was found wandering along Wallace street about an hour later.

MOTION PICTURES
AT MEN'S CLUB"Ghost in the Crucible" to be Shown at Tonight's Meeting

A special feature of the regular motion picture show at the Palmyra Men's Club will be the showing of the motion picture in play form, "Ghost in the Crucible". The officers of the club feel that they have been very fortunate in being able to offer this showing. In the past, the club has won favor with local audiences and in view of that fact this meeting will be open to all men in the community.

Many men have been asking about membership. Every man in the community is invited to attend a meeting then to decide for himself whether or not he desires to join the club. The officers of the club feel that this meeting will be open to all men in the community.

Considering the type of program offered this is very reasonable. In fact about 20c per meeting. If it were not for the "Y" meeting, the building free of expense this small charge would not be adequate.

The musical features have been secured by Captain Sidney Albertson and the plans for this meeting are a bit unusual. George Heber will be in charge of the refreshments and that feature alone should attract many.

Announcements have been sent to various organizations in the community and it is hoped a fine crowd will respond to support the president, Floyd W. Spahr and the other officers in their attempt to afford the men of the community a worthwhile program once each month.

Men that attend Holy Thursday services in the churches will be welcomed if they are late. Expressions as to the type of program desired are always welcome.

The deceased is survived by one sister, Clara Walz, of 603 Bank avenue, Riverton.

Men of the Community, we welcome you.

VISITED MILK
PLANT THURSDAY

Other Trips Planned by Sacred Heart P.T.A. As Part of Educational Program

A group of fifty-two members of the Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association of Riverton were guests last Thursday of the Supplee-Willis-Jones Milk Company in Philadelphia.

The trip, which included a tour of the company's main milk and ice cream plants, was arranged by Mrs. Edward Barr, of Riverton, vice president of the association and was the first of a series of similar trips which the organization plans to make as part of its educational program.

Miss Helen Beverle, director of the Supplee Home Institute, acted as hostess and gave a talk, illustrated with motion pictures, showing how milk is produced. The picture carries milk through all its stages, from the farm to the wagon, emphasizing the progress which has been made during recent years in insuring a product of the utmost purity.

THE PRESIDENT'S BUSY-NESS

An average of 22 conferences a day, on topics ranging all the way from postmasters to the war in the Orient.

In five weeks shaking hands with 20,000 people.

More telephone calls than any President has ever handled in the history of the Government.

Longer office hours than any other President.

No vacations except an occasional week-end in the summer time.

Only seven trips outside the Capital in three years and then on strictly official business.

That is the sort of schedule President Hoover can look back upon as he rounds out the third year of his first term, and he may well be congratulated—as the country may well be congratulated—that he has come through the ordeal in good physical condition, thanks to steady adherence to daily exercise taken early in the morning and to good dietary habits. That he has been able to see so many people and at the same time accomplish so much in the way of working out the great measures which have made up his foreign and domestic program is due to his unusual powers of mental concentration which makes it possible for him, after any interruption, to take up the problem he was considering where he left off and go on with his thought.

And how many problems he has to consider! First a special session of Congress almost immediately following his inauguration with all the questions it brought for his determination. Then the Wall Street crash marking the beginning of the economic crisis which swept in upon us from all the world, to the solution of whose problems all the world seemed to look to the American President. Then one international conference after another in which the American government always played a conspicuous role, with the President, of course, deciding what that role should be, all the way from the conference for the limitation of steps to be taken to bring peace in the Far East. And during all this time domestic problems becoming ever more acute and perplexing, with all interests looking to the President for leadership in finding a way out.

Little wonder that a great business executive, who knows himself what it is to be busy, as he came away from the White House after a visit with the President, should have exclaimed: "How does he stand it? It would kill me in a week!"

THE INSANITY OF HOARDING
Cincinnati Times-Star

In calling a national conference to tap the reservoir of hoarded dollars in the United States, President Hoover attacks a dangerous menace to the nation's economic life. In two terse phrases, he analyzes the evil: "Every dollar hoarded means a destruction of from five to ten dollars of credit. Restriction or destruction of credit cripples the revival and expansion of agriculture, industry and employment."

The fact that hoarded money has reached the staggering total of $1,300,000,000 reflects no credit on the economic intelligence of the American people. The other day we heard of a man, presumably sane, who sold a large holding of government securities and salted the currency away in his safety deposit box. In other words, he exchanged interest-bearing securities, backed by the Federal government, for non-interest-bearing paper backed by the same government. Let such hysteria grow common and the national economy will come to a dead halt. What the President proposes is a national effort to prevent many people from committing economic suicide.

Happily, this campaign coincides with the launching of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. That agency for easing credit in American industry and agriculture offers one inviting channel of usefulness for hoarded dollars. Within the next few months, corporation debentures will be put on the market. They will bear interest and will be backed by the United States Treasury. The credit of the government, upon which the credit of every business enterprise ultimately rests, will stand behind them. They will be as sound as the American dollar.

The man who would choose to hoard dollars in a safety deposit box or in a cupboard at home, when he might be drawing interest on an investment in the economic future of the country, would be—the word is not too strong—a fool.

COMPASS CLUB
SPONSORS PLAY

"The Womanless Wedding" Will be Presented at P. H. S. on April 7 and 8

"The Womanless Wedding" will be staged in Palmyra on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 7 and 8, in the Palmyra High School auditorium for the benefit of the Palmyra and Riverton Welfare Associations.

This production is being sponsored by the Palmyra-Riverton Compass Club, Inc. Eighty Palmyra and Riverton business men are expected to take part and much real enthusiasm and interest is being displayed by those in the cast.

A very capable director of the Symphonie Production Company, of Bardonia, Kentucky, will arrive in Palmyra the first of next week to direct this popular production.

The play is a clever, wholesome bit of old-fashioned humor that makes the old laugh young again, and the young laugh until their sides ache. Many beautiful costumes will be worn by the business men and everyone is urged to plan to see the funniest thing ever witnessed in Palmyra. There will be no women in the production.

"The Womanless Wedding" has been staged in many towns and cities in this vicinity recently, and glowing reports come from other towns that packed houses greeted the performance on both nights. In Frankford, Pa., a few weeks ago, 1,500 people saw this play.

WILL CALL RECTOR TO CHRIST CHURCH SOON

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Paul Matthews addressed a meeting of the wardens and vestry of Christ Church, Palmyra, in the Parish House Saturday afternoon.

The Bishop was agreeably surprised to learn that all bills were paid and that the only indebtedness was a small bank loan incurred when the rectory was enlarged a few years ago. This note is gratefully being repaid. Bishop Matthews recommended a rector be called at an early date. The vestry informed him that they would do so as soon as a proper budget could be established.

The vestry and wardens expect to report favorably on the budget in the very near future.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"REALITY" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 27, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard nor received by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, nor hath the heart conceived, nor hath been revealed unto man, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him" (Isaiah 64:4).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, beheld a man full of leprosy; who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him" (Luke 5:12, 13).

The lesson sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It must be clear to you that sickness is no more the reality of being than is sin. This mortal dream of sickness, sin, and death should cease through Christian Science" (p. 418).

TRICKS of MAGIC
EXPLAINED by WILL LINDHORST
HOW TO TELL CARD TAKEN FROM PACK BY TRICK
"SPIRIT WRITING"

1. Secretly select playing card from deck and place it on bottom.
2. Lateral the initials of the card on back of left hand with sharp-pointed piece of soap. For instance, the initials of the Jack of spades would be J. S.
3. Appear before audience, and ask some one to divide the deck of cards in two parts. Place a blank piece of paper on top of half which does not contain the selected card, and place other half of deck on top of paper. The selected card will then be above the paper.
4. With your back turned, ask some person to write the initials of the card on the piece of paper, and burn it.
5. Take ashes from burned paper and rub them on back of hand containing invisible soap initials. The ashes will stick to the soap and the initials will mysteriously appear to trick "spirit writing."

LOCAL CHURCH NEWS

Moravian Church
(Albert J. Harke, Pastor)

The Church School last Sunday had the largest attendance for a regular season this year, if not the largest in its history.

The church was filled to the last seat for the Palm Sunday Confirmation service. The confirmands were: Bertha E. Kaefer, Mary B. Morris, Lillian P. Huggins, Gertrude Eckert and Ruth D. Schuck. Julius M. Huggins, formerly a member of the Calvary Moravian Church, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was received by the right hand of fellowship.

An electric cross on the platform featured the evening service. There is a service in the church every day this week except on Saturday.

Maundy Thursday at 8:00 p. m. Holy Communion.

Good Friday at 2:30 p. m. A solemn service commemorating the death of Christ.

SCOUT MOTHERS MAY ORGANIZE

Meeting to be Held at Home of Mrs. Ross Wednesday Evening

Attention! Mothers of Girl Scouts. Will all mothers of Girl Scouts in Troop No. 1, Palmyra, please make an honest effort to attend the meeting being called at the home of Mrs. Horace Ross, 913 Washington Avenue, Wednesday evening, March 30, at eight o'clock.

The primary purpose of this meeting is to organize a Troop Committee, but discussions in regard to other phases of Girl Scouts and their work and play will be held. Plans will also be made for sending Girl Scouts to camp this summer.

The Girl Scout camp this year will be carried on and supervised by a group of trained counselors. This will be the first year of its kind ever to be held in South Jersey.

All of Camden and Burlington county troops are combining to make this undertaking the huge success that it should be.

Register Names

All mothers who are desirous of sending their Girl Scouts must register their names through Mrs. Walter S. Hanson, on or before March 29. Phone, Riverton 533-R.

Only a limited number from Palmyra are to be sent, since the area to be drawn from is so large. It is very necessary to act PROMPTLY! Mothers, please attend this meeting at Mrs. Ross' home next Wednesday evening.

For many years, we might even say since the beginning of time, girls have always been the neglected ones. Boys are always getting the deserved and even more than the deserved recognition, from one source or another.

Even in a small town like Palmyra, the boys certainly have many advantages, some of which we will attempt to enumerate here.

Boys Have Program

Each year a "Boys' Week" program is held. A "Boy Scout Week" is also observed.

The Boy Scout Counsellors' Association is always planning something for the boys of the community. They even go as far as to send some of the poorer lads to camp with their own money, and let that boy repay it as he earns it, let us say 25 cents per week.

The year the Boy Scout Counsellors' Association sponsored Scout Week in Palmyra, at its little cost. They gave awards to boys who had done something special in scoutcraft and sponsored a father and son banquet. What do the girls get out of all this?

The Y.M.C.A. has a paid worker, whose only work is to get and keep the boys of the community interested in Y.M.C.A. work. They have a board of directors, whose only claim to fame is working in the interest of the boys of the community. Mothers of Y.M.C.A. boys have recently organized a Y.M.C.A. auxiliary. The mothers can show that they are interested in the boys, but what about the girls?

The Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club once each year takes some of the lads of the community to see one of the big league baseball games, and they also do other things for them. What is being done for the girls?

It is time to do such wonderful work for the boys of the community, and we are glad that the men and some of the women take such an interest, but we would also like to see some interest displayed in girls' work.

We sometimes wonder if the mothers of the community realize that their little daughters will, some one of these days, be grown-up women, just as their sons will be grown-up men. They need the guidance of older folk the same as the boys, but do they get it? Emphatically, we say NO!

We ask, urge and recommend that the mothers of Girl Scouts in Palmyra make an effort to be present at the meeting next Wednesday night.

Just try it this once, we beg you, and we think you will find it an evening well spent in the interest of your daughter.

Publicity Committee.

ROTARY OBSERVES ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Shamrocks, Green Ties and Irish Songs Prominent in Saint's Day Program

St. Patrick's day was properly celebrated at the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club. Four pots of Shamrocks, songs of Ireland, and talks about the saint, not to mention green neckties, were reminiscent of the "auld sod."

The program was under the direction of "Bishop" Lockett, who led the club singing along Irish lines. Dr. LeFavor played several sparkling ballads before he had to leave, giving to them that true lilt which we connect with the jigs of Erin. The "Bishop" accompanied by Stan Stewart, sang several Irish songs, including "Kathleen," "The Last Rose of Summer," and "The Wearing of the Green."

Joe Low gave a serious talk about St. Patrick, which traced his life and experiences in the Emerald Isle; and Jim Weart topped off the evening with a batch of Irish songs, properly censored by the "Bishop."

The routine business included the appointment of a nominating committee, and the selection by the president of "Bishop" Lockett, as delegate to the approaching 60th district convention at Atlantic City, with Charles Gowan as his alternate.

The Economic Damage

The economic damage caused by prohibition was also stressed by Mrs. Kelley, who stated that billions of dollars had left legitimate circulation and passed into the hands of bootleggers and racketeers to carry on their nefarious activities.

Mrs. Kelly further stated that the membership of the National Prohibition Reform Movement was growing in leaps and bounds. Women in every walk of life are flocking to its cause, believing that the 18th Amendment is not a proper angle from which to fight the evil.

Mrs. Colvin, prominent W. C. T. U. worker and an ardent supporter of the dry movement, advanced some very interesting figures. She stated that Canada, often pointed to as a shining example of Government-controlled liquor, had increased its output of liquor by three hundred per cent, since it had passed under Government supervision. She stated that the farmers would not benefit as well under a return of liquor as is often stated. She said that grain and cattle fodder now to care for the growing demand for milk, since the advent of prohibition.

Speaks for Nation's Youth

Mr. Clark, speaking for the youth of the nation, stated that the 18th Amendment was put over on them when they were too young to vote or while they were overseas fighting; that policemen were not needed to tell them what was the right thing to do. Men on the sinking ship have always unconsciously and without legislation made way for the women and children first. He claimed that the rising tide of public opinion would result in the repeal of the 18th Amendment "as sure as shooting."

"Greatest Boon to Mankind"

Dr. Shields spoke last and pointed out that the passing of the corner saloon was the biggest boon to mankind, and incidentally, that the "women and children first" had made it necessary for the adoption of the 18th Amendment, and that until its inception the women and children were last. That the youth of the nation were committing wholesale treason by drinking heavily was denied by Dr. Shields, and he charged his young opponent to show him evidence of many drinking resorts. He said that he had been offering that challenge for two years and it had never been accepted. Dr. Shields in no uncertain terms stated that they (the Anti-Saloon League) had fought hard for prohibition and that they would fight just as hard and harder for its retention "as sure as shooting."

The Rebuttal

The rebuttal was short and the young attorney made a jump into the audience when he accepted the challenge of Dr. Shields and offered to take him to his home town and buy him liquor in seventeen speak-easies where before prohibition there had existed but one legalized saloon. The young attorney blamed the Lindbergh kidnapping case on the 18th Amendment and drew the withering fire of Dr. Shields in denial.

At the conclusion of the debate no decision was made since it was held only for the purpose of hearing the arguments for both sides, and not to make an award to either side. Remarks overheard from the audience would seem to indicate that both sides presented good arguments while still others claimed that all of the arguments would not change their personal opinion.

Mrs. R. Lowber Temple

Mrs. Mary Ella Temple, widow of the late R. Lowber Temple, former Palmyra Township Committeeman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. App, in Germantown, last Monday.

Mr. Temple was credited with being responsible for many municipal improvements in Palmyra, among them being the institution of street lighting. The new boulevard from Cinnaminson avenue to the Palmyra bridge, was named after him, having been known for years before its completion as Temple boulevard.

Funeral services were held this morning at the Kunsig parlors, 2003 West Tross street, Philadelphia, with interment in Palmyra.

LAUNDRY EMPLOYEE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Gunner Johnson Suffered Broken Leg, Shoulder, Finger and Ribs When Struck at East Riverton

Gunner Johnson, 27 year old employee of the Riverton Laundry, East Riverton, was severely injured Saturday afternoon when he was struck by a car driven by Joseph E. Tanner, 23, of Pensauken avenue, Parry.

Tanner and Johnson were hauling coal for the laundry from Riverton. Tanner was on his way back for another load. Johnson parked his truck and started down the road to join Tanner and help him load. He ran in front of Tanner's truck and was struck.

Johnson was taken to the Zurbrugg Hospital, Riverside, where it was learned that he suffered a broken leg, shoulder, finger and possible fractured ribs.

Chief of Riverton police, Walter G. Miller investigated the accident and later had Tanner post a bond of $500 to await the outcome of Johnson's injuries.

Riverton School Notes

The boys and girls of the fifth grade have been especially interested in the study of the Revolutionary Period. They have made a very realistic scene of the "Winter at Valley Forge," and are still working on books, pertaining to this part of their contract. These books contain such original work as scenes of historic events, cut-out pictures of people of that time and designs for patchwork quilts.

In spite of their interest in their work, they have not forgotten the members of their class who have been ill this month, but have remembered them with cards or flowers, bought with the money from the Club treasury. Natalie Evans is still absent due to the attack of quinsy. Jean Holvick has been very unfortunate. She had just returned from an attack of chicken pox when she had the misfortune to fall and break her arm. This is the second time this year she has had her arm broken.

Mary Elwell, Emily Perkins, and Arthur Beethorst have, also, been absent on account of illness.

In Arithmetic, March 3, the following children of the fourth "A" reached the goal of forty-four long division examples: Carlisle Semmler, Robert Cochran, Leroy Kaurer, Harold Shobe, William Taylor, and Elmer Vaughn.

These children have received gold stars on the Arithmetic chart. They are now working on special credit examples.

Four A studied the names and abbreviations of the months in spelling. The class made one hundred per cent. The children decorated the bulletin board with pictures, showing the events which happened in early history of our country.

The children have been reading stories of King Arthur and his knights. They have designed shields like those the knights used. Many of the boys have got the inspiration to be strong after reading about Sir Lancelot and Sir Boe.

Last Friday, in the auditorium, Mr. Clark, who was very interesting program. The program was given by the lower classes of the school.

SPECTACULAR DRAMA AT WHITMAN THEATRE

"Hell Divers," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sensational romance of naval aviation, which will open Sunday at the Walt Whitman Theatre, combines the most remarkable airplane maneuvers ever staged by the navy with a dramatic plot that, with all its romantic qualities, has something heroic in it.

The picture co-stars Wallace Beery and Clark Gable. The latter having risen to stellar rank as a result of his outstanding popularity in "Susan Lennox," "A Free Soul" and other films. Prominent supporting roles are filled by Conrad Nagel, Dorothy Jordan, Marjorie Rambeau, and Millicent Beery.

Cliff Edwards and John Milton Beery, a government licensed aviator, actually participate in some of the unusual flying stunts shown in the picture.

Filmed at Panama during the naval maneuvers, aboard the aircraft carrier Saratoga, and at North Island, "Hell Divers" has all the sensations of the great naval concentration in which the entire battle fleet figured. Hundreds of planes wheel and dive through breath-taking stunts in formation. The bombing planes, known as "Hell Divers," hurt themselves had existed but one legalized saloon. The young attorney blamed the Lindbergh kidnapping case on the 18th Amendment and drew the withering fire of Dr. Shields in denial.

At the conclusion of the debate no decision was made since it was held only for the purpose of hearing the arguments for both sides, and not to make an award to either side. Remarks overheard from the audience would seem to indicate that both sides presented good arguments while still others claimed that all of the arguments would not change their personal opinion.

Miss Hannah A. Marter

Miss Hannah A. Marter, 92 years old, who until recently was a resident of Moorestown, and who was the oldest member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Hannah Marter Fisher, of Lakeville, Conn., on Saturday.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from the Henry A. Ransome funeral parlor, East Main street, Moorestown, with the Rev. Frederick B. Morley, pastor of the Moorestown Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Interment was made in Colestown cemetery.

Miss Marter was the daughter of Thomas and Lydia Ann Marter, who lived on a farm located on East Main street, at Borton's Landing road, Moorestown. She lived here at 213 East Main street, until three years ago, when she went to make her home with her niece.

She joined the Methodist Episcopal church in 1860 and was always active in its work while her health permitted. Her father was a trustee of the church, and also active.

Miss Marter is survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins.

NEW PLYMOUTH ON APRIL 3RD

C. R. Sweeney, Inc., to Sell and Service New Car in This Territory

Announcement of the new and finer Plymouth will be made on April 3 at which time all models of the Plymouth cars will be on exhibit in the showrooms of the Palmyra and Riverton Dodge dealer, according to an announcement made here today by C. R. Sweeney, Inc., who sells and services the Plymouth car in this territory.

"At the request of Plymouth factory officials," the local dealer says, "we are not yet announcing the specific features of this new Plymouth. However, at this time we can say that the new Plymouth is a big car—it has a wheelbase of 112 inches. It is, moreover, a beautiful car, skillfully designed to combine the most popular beauty and style elements of much higher priced cars."

"It has greater horsepower and more brilliant performance. It has patented Floating Power engine mountings, of course, which eliminate all vibration from body and passengers and it has the other great features that have made the present Plymouth so popular with the more than 100,000 owners in all parts of the country."

"In addition, it has a host of important new features that will establish it definitely as the outstanding low-priced car."

While not confirmed by the local dealer, rumors from Detroit are persistent in the statement that the new Plymouth will feature, besides floating power, an automatic clutch, free-wheeling, easy-shift second transmission; all-steel body, and a 65-horsepower engine among its important points.

Cinnaminson P. T. A. Notes

An inspiring speaker at the March 16th meeting, Seymore Winans, of the Cinnaminson Normal School, brought to the Cinnaminson Parent-Teacher Association as his message, "The Challenge of Parenthood."

From the time the baby arrives, bringing the challenge of care and nurture, come in quick succession, education, including obedience, religion, social contacts and reverence for the law. These and many other vital points, unless properly guided during the first seven years, when the child is absorbing more knowledge than he ever will again during his life, can never be corrected, and he will be handicapped in taking his place.

The earnestness with which Mr. Winans gave the all too short talk made it most impressive.

Preceding the address, the primary band rendered several numbers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Haines, the music teacher. In their smart new uniforms of white ducks trousers, blue jackets with blue and gold epaulettes and perky caps, blue with gold cockade, they were very good looking, and the rhythm and precision with which they performed was a credit to Mrs. Haines and her assistants, Miss Stewart and Mrs. Githens.

The eighth grade, in three cars, visited the Walt Whitman House in Camden on Tuesday, and came home delighted with the reception given by the caretaker, who revels in memories of Whitman's life and home.

A meeting of the executive committee of the P.T.A. on Friday cared for the business that could not be brought up at the meeting Wednesday evening.

Fifteen dollars was handed in as the result of the food sale held two weeks ago. It was proposed, when the pre-school clinic is held, to provide free toxin anti-toxin for those whose parents feel that they cannot afford it themselves.

ORIGIN OF FIRE AT RUSS HOME UNKNOWN

The origin of the fire which broke out in the home of DeWitt Russ, 109 Morgan avenue, Palmyra, on Monday, is still unknown.

The blaze, which started in the cellar, was first noticed by Mrs. Charles Davidson, who notified Mrs. Harold Marshall, who called the Palmyra and Riverton fire departments.

The firemen arrived at the scene and in a very short time had the flames under control, although they had started to get into the walls of the house.

Considerable damage was done, although the exact amount is not known. The Russ family is residing temporarily with Mrs. George Hunt, of 205 Elm avenue, Riverton.

Montana and Kilonis to Wrestle at Convention Hall, Camden in Feature Bout; Eustice, Van Wurden on Card

"The one we have been waiting for," That is what nearly every fan in Camden's Convention hall exclaimed last Monday night when announcer Archie McNew passed out the good news that Camden's vitriolic Latin and Ohio vicious Greek had been signed up to meet in the feature bout on next Monday night's card.

The match will be a catchweights, with the Italian having ten or twelve pounds pull in the weights, at about 192, to the Greek's 180 or so. But it will be a real scrap, with generous interpretations of the rules to prevail when those two bad boys of the mat game come to grips. Montana is a bit the favorite to annihilate the Greek at Gentle John's own game, which is exactly what everybody has been craving since the first time the couple one did his stuff in South Jersey.

But it goes without saying that Kilonis is not going to prove any Easter present for Montana, for he knows enough of the inside stuff of the game to give any man in the game a nightmare session.

This bout will be for 80 minute limit, best two out of three falls to win, and there doesn't seem much likelihood of the affair going near the limit.

The card has not yet been completed, but it is assured that Alan Eustance will appear in the semi-final, probably against Dan Koloff or another man of equal rating. The Kansas box constrictor has had things pretty much his own way with every man he has thus far met in Camden, and Promoter Grip is trying to line up a more difficult evening's work for him. If Grip signs up Koloff, his success will be assured. The second bout will bring together Nick Boninis and Carl Van Wurden, for half an hour. Nick is the only lad to get a win over rugged George Romanoff in ages, while Carl pinned Joe Kogut last week for the right to meet Sheriff Pinkie Gardner for the light-heavy title of the world. Pinkie couldn't make the date next week, so Carl will now have to pass the Greek before getting to Pinkie.

As a real indication of community cooperation, the Moorestown Community House will rent its fine newly-equipped pool to the Palmyra-Riverton "Y" on Tuesday, from 2 until 4 p. m.

The customary charge for county swims of ten cents each will be made for Y. group members. Fellows that are not members of the Y. are welcome but will be charged fifteen cents. The difference in cost is a part of the privilege of belonging to the Y.

Many of the fellows will wish to ride their bikes so a group will leave the Y. at 1 p. m. on Tuesday. Others will no doubt go in cars. To be sure of a ride or room in the pool, every fellow must register at the Y. and pay his fee in advance.

Because of the busy activities of the Community House upon its reopening on Monday, March 28, after having been closed all winter for improvements, Wilton E. Mount, the local Y. Secretary, will be the chief life guard on duty during the swim. The pool will be supervised all the while.

Mothers of boys that will drive cars please call Riverton 154-W, and ask help in getting lads over to Moorestown will be appreciated. Come on fellows, here is the first group to swim at Moorestown in a long time. Don't forget to sign up.

COUNTY OFFICIALS' PAY CONTRIBUTIONS PLEASE BARNARD

When Franklin B. Chambers, director of Emergency Relief in Burlington county, had a conference with State Emergency Relief Director Chester I. Barnard last week he made a report that some Burlington county officials had made up voluntary contributions of $300 from their salaries and presented the money to him for distribution according to his own judgment.

This action of the county officials proved to be very pleasing to Mr. Barnard and he was very forceful in his statement that worthy of particular notice was the confidence shown by these officials in the emergency relief plan and method of operation.

The committee handling this voluntary contribution idea among the officials is composed of Freeholder William H. Helsier, Jr., County Clerk Lawrence G. Mingin, and Freeholder Clerk Alfonza A. Adams.

The accounts were found to be correct and in the proper form subject to the following comments:

THE NEW ERA

Vol. 44, No. 18.

RIVERTON, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1932

BURLINGTON CO. IS WELL FINANCED

Passed First Three Months of New Year Without Having To Borrow Money

Burlington county enjoys the enviable record, believed to be shared by very few if any counties in the state of having negotiated the first three months of the year without having to borrow money in anticipation of the payment of taxes to meet current bills. This fact was brought to light at the meeting of the board of freeholders last Friday, when William H. Heister, Jr., director of finance, introduced a resolution which gives County Treasurer Joseph S. Bright power to borrow money on tax anticipation notes for the purpose of meeting the bills of the county. In other years it has been necessary to borrow money long before three months had elapsed.

The resolution authorized the director and treasurer to borrow up to $420,719.61, but Freeholder Heister, chairman of the finance department, said he believed it would not be necessary to take up more than $150,000 at this time.

Fox Bounty Burdensome
Already this year the county has expended $840 in paying bounties for killing foxes, the bounty being $3.50 on each fox. This matter was called to the attention of the freeholders by J. Lloyd Wright, who felt that it was an imposition to ask the taxpayers to pay these bills, inasmuch as the county realized nothing from the hunters' license fees and other income of the State Fish and Game Commission. Wright stated that more foxes were killed in Burlington county than any other county in the state.

A resolution was introduced requesting Senator Clifford R. Powell to endeavor to secure legislation forthwith which would transfer the payment of fox bounties from the counties to the State Fish and Game Commission, and which would provide for a refund to Burlington county of the money already expended this year. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Under a resolution introduced by Freeholder Stout the Public Service was given permission to erect one pole on the Mount Holly road at the intersection of Dressler avenue, Burlington township.

Mrs. Dora Grubb, of Edgewater Park, was given permission to move a building over the Burlington pike, which is a county road, providing she furnishes help for directing traffic and assumes all responsibility in case of accident.

Request to Remove Tracks
A communication was received from the Borough of Riverton enclosing the following resolution, which was referred to the department of roads:

"Whereas, it is necessary before said improvement can be made that the rails of the Public Service Railway Company be removed from the highway of said municipality through which the said street passes, therefore be it

Resolved that said rails on Broad street in the Borough of Riverton be removed, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Board of Freeholders of Burlington County."

The following bills of the various departments of the county were ordered paid: Finance, $21,318.44; roads, $5472.46; bridges, $1913.72; buildings, $5973.89; public affairs, $782; making a total of $35,400.61.

Strang — Horton
A quiet early spring wedding took place in the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Lydia Sofia Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Horton, of 436 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, became the bride of Harry Kemmerle Strang, son of Mrs. Nellie Strang, 520 Garfield avenue, Palmyra. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ira S. Pinn.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Elwood Johnson, of Palmyra, as matron of honor.

The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with shoes, stockings and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

The matron of honor was also dressed in a dark blue traveling suit and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Rachel Lord, of Palmyra, and Miss Mary Coward, Riverton, sang "Because."

The best man was Elwood Johnson, of Palmyra.

The ushers were four members of Mr. Strang's Sunday School class, namely, Leon Guest, Jr., of Riverton; Herbert Parsons, Kenneth Snow and Wilson Schriener, of Palmyra.

After a trip to Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Strang will reside at 613 Washington avenue, Palmyra.

CANDIDATE

ROS COE C. SHINN
Burlington County Sheriff who this week announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for freeholder.

SHERIFF IN RACE FOR FREEHOLDER

Roscoe Shinn Announces Candidacy for Republican Nomination

Sheriff Roscoe C. Shinn this week announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for freeholder.

Sheriff Shinn cannot succeed himself as sheriff, the state law limiting sheriffs to one term at a time.

There is but one freeholder vacancy this year, the term of William H. Heister, of Pemberton, expiring. Freeholder Heister announced his candidacy to succeed himself last week.

Sheriff Shinn's announcement follows:

To the Republican Voters of Burlington County, N. J.:

I desire to announce that I am a candidate for the Republican nomination to the office of Freeholder of Burlington County at the primary election, May 17, 1932, and I wish to assure you that if elected I shall devote my every energy and entire time to the duties of the office.

In requesting your support, I do so with the feeling that I am well qualified from a business standpoint, and furthermore by my six years of experience, November 1926 to 1932, as Under-Sheriff and Sheriff of Burlington County. I feel I may lay claim to qualification as a public servant.

If elected, I shall as before give up all other business and devote my entire time to the duties of the office, and use my best endeavors to carefully guard the interests of the citizens and taxpayers of our county.

Some of my friends have asked me why I am not a candidate for re-nomination to Sheriff. Under the state law no sheriff can succeed himself. Since it is impossible for me to be a candidate for Sheriff this year, I feel I can best serve the interests of the taxpayers by representing them on the Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

I would feel indebted to you if you would carefully consider my qualifications for public office, and would investigate my record as a public servant. I am ready and willing at all times to answer any questions concerning my stewardship for the county taxpayers.

I would appreciate your support.

ROS COE C. SHINN.

TO BE MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth S. Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, of 2120 East Clearfield street, Philadelphia, to Samuel I. Handle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Handle, of 913 Highland avenue, Palmyra, will take place on Saturday, April 16.

The ceremony will be performed at Valley Forge. The couple plan to take up their residence in their own home at 913 Highland avenue, Palmyra.

STRANGER GONE, ALSO $11
A stranger rented a room at the home of Mrs. Rudy, 403 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, last week, and then disappeared the same day. After he left, another roomer discovered $11 missing from his room. Palmyra police are investigating.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to express our appreciation of the sympathy and assistance extended in our bereavement and to thank those who sent flowers and cards to the funeral.

C. W. WEYGAND and SON.

NEW 'R. C. A.' IS DOING THINGS

Tangible Results Already Accomplished and Further Plans Being Pushed

To those who have the best interests of Riverton at heart, the progress already made by the comparatively infant organization, the Riverton Civic Association, is encouraging in the extreme. Practically no one, except those actually involved, knew of an informal meeting held last Thursday morning between representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the RCA president and secretary.

But everyone must have noted and approved the immediate outcome of that meeting—the transformation of the company's property at Broad and Main streets adjoining the gateman's house. At the expenditure of time and labor only, this location has been completely transformed; the dilapidated fence put out of its place; many broken-back trellises torn down; overgrown shrubs pruned into sightliness; the turf raked clean of accumulated rubbish and debris.

In a word, the whole forlorn aspect of the place changed to one of pleasing neatness and order. And note: the miracle is one of cleanliness only, the cost of labor the only expense involved. Yet the result is the first step toward real civic comeliness, if not actual beauty.

Cleanliness First Requisite

And cleanliness we can all afford—or rather, can we afford anything less? And that it may be a concrete cleanliness, the RCA has chosen the week of April 11th to 15th as Town Clean-Up Week, following Governor Moore's appointment of Nature Conservation Week to be observed by school children and organizations all over the state of New Jersey.

Home owners are urged to take this opportunity to treat their grounds to a spring cleaning. There's something infectious about this kind of community work; if your neighbor sees you putting in a few thorough-going rounds with Old Bugaboos Dirt and Disorder, he'll get up his rake and broom and start a campaign of cleanliness of his own.

Owners of unoccupied real estate are urged to put the grounds of such properties in spring order—to make them so inviting-looking they will prove an attraction to prospective tenants, a potential source of individual revenue and real town pride.

Owners of vacant lots within town limits are particularly urged to operate with this town-wide movement by clearing such grounds of encumbering accumulated rubbish and cutting down or burning off overgrown vegetation.

Steps Toward Beautification

The things that have been happening on the railroad company's property at Broad and Main streets are only a beginning. The company's representatives were most substantially impressed with the value of Riverton's plans for civic improvement; were even convinced of their soundness to the extent of offering—but that's another story, of which, we hope, more may be told later.

Meanwhile, here's the big news! Work on the landscaping of the railroad embankment from Cedar to Elm avenues is to begin immediately. Twenty-seven hundred feet of greenery and bloom instead of barrenness and dirt!

The landscape committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. Stanley P. Stewart, has worked out a delightful plan involving flowering shrubs accented by low-growing poplar trees. The combined efforts of the finance and membership committee have placed funds at the disposal of the association sufficient to cover the cost of the project, the actual work of which will be in charge of Mr. Skelenger, master forester. And the local Welfare Association has volunteered to contribute available labor.

James B. Coale, of the Shade Tree Commission, has made a large individual donation of bone meal, to assure the success of the planting.

School Children Will Help

Under the very inspiring leadership of Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, junior chairman, the school children are not only joining the association in gratifying numbers, but are assuming an active part and responsibility in this scheme of beautification.

Three classes have already collected sums for the purchase of individual "class trees," to be suitably and permanently marked. And the older students are participating in a lively prize contest for the best answers to the all-important question: "What can be done to beautify Riverton?"

Not to be outdone by their juniors, the Parent-Teacher Association as an organization has made a contribution toward the purchase of a group of shrubbery to receive permanent mark of its donorship.

Do we have anyone else offering to follow these splendid leads?

Every Citizen a Member
Last week the town was pretty thoroughly circulated for members. This effort will be augmented by personal solicitation, for the RCA is an every-citizen organization, founded for the benefit of all of Riverton, with all Riverton helping make it a success. THE PEOPLES COLUMN

The Inside of Baseball

By Lefty Schneider

Well folks, here we are with the 1932 campaign staring us in the face with a lot to be done and a little time to do it in.

I'm going to let you in on a little story: Baseball, as you know, is the national pastime, being one of the cleanest and best sports a young man can play; and whether you know it or not, you, the people of Riverton, have the best equipment and ball park in all South Jersey.

To put a baseball team on the field last year cost close to $1,000, a lot of time and some darn good headaches. Baseball in Riverton is at the beginning of its second big baseball year.

A long time ago, about 1880 to 1910, Riverton was known for its baseball and when it came into its own with a paid team and home-talent, and to some extent it succeeded, but when the Riverton juniors organized three years ago, things began to lull and now the Riverton boys, having stuck together and with one year of league experience under their belts, are ready for action this year and are being watched far and wide.

It is our aim to send in the future some boys from Riverton to the big leagues, therefore we will again organize a junior team under the management of Jimmie McConnell, and believe me folks, pull with him, for you won't regret seeing boys you know out there on that ball diamond.

These boys will play at home when the senior team travels, thereby giving Riverton plenty of baseball, and as for the senior team, we have three or four players in our fold now who, in a year or two, will be stepping up in faster company. They have benefited by the help given them through Russ Blackburne and the steady "never-say-die" spirit and tutoring of Benny Edge, an old master at the game.

Jack Coombs, of the famous old A's and now head coach at Duke University, has his eyes on Riverton and will make a stop here in June to view our boys in action. He is much impressed by the work of these lads, and he told me himself that he is interested in several of them, having seen them play last year.

This is a great benefit to Riverton, but without your cooperation it will be in vain, for to make support financially and mentally. Don't expect big things overnight, but pull with them and any donation at all will be appreciated to help us get started this year in a big way.

There will be a dance at the Riverton Fire House, Wednesday, April 6, featuring Basil Lewis and his Knights of Rhythm, something new in dancing for the benefit of the Riverton A. A. Official practice Saturday afternoon. All who are interested come out.

Praise for Firemen

To the People of Riverton:

I would like to draw your attention to a few instances of which I have taken notice in the past four years concerning the activities of our local firefighters. These men are not paid and stationed firemen, but in response to many calls they get out of a warm bed at an early hour in the morning, as in the recent case at 303 Third street just last week, and give action which I have not seen surpassed "even by the best trained firemen of many large cities." They fear nothing and risk their lives to save the property and lives of others, and in many cases come home with frozen hands and wet or frozen bodies.

I lived in Philadelphia for nineteen years and saw many large fires, but even with the third best equipment in the country, the Philadelphia firemen do no better work than our own little outfit. So let us have a warm spot in our hearts for our "men who leave their beds and also for our chief, Walter Armstrong, who is responsible for the coolness in which the situations are handled."

I am very sorry for the life lost in our last fire, but it would have been suicide for anyone to enter the house before they did. I can say nothing too good for the men who gave first aid in their vain attempt to restore respiration to the unfortunate victim, but in all let us remember that we have one of the best little volunteer outfits in the country.

(Signed)
JOHN J. ROBINSON.

WIMER-SHERIFF MEETING MONDAY

Palmyra Man's Campaign Gaining Headway Throughout the County

"The Wimer For Sheriff Committee" will hold its second regular meeting in Society Hall, Palmyra, Monday evening, at eight o'clock.

The committee, which is composed of Palmyra citizens, numbers almost one hundred at the present time and more members are being added daily.

The executive committee met last Thursday evening in the P.O. at A. Hall, at which time plans were discussed for campaign work throughout Burlington county. This committee, which is composed of men and women of Palmyra who are well-known in different communities in the county, has been appointed to keep in touch with the leaders in the other places and aid with the work locally.

According to one of the members who has been doing a great deal of work himself, and in that way meeting many persons interested in Mr. Wimer's campaign, the sentiment developing for the Palmyra candidate is marked throughout the county.

Members of the "Wimer for Sheriff Committee" are working constantly and diligently in an effort to reach all the voters. Contacts have been established by key men in all sections and reports from these sources are most encouraging. All present indications point to Mr. Wimer carrying the county by a large majority.

Members of the Committee are asked to bring a co-worker to Monday evening's meeting and any person in the community who is interested in the campaign and has not already been invited, is asked to be present on Monday.

K. OF C. CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

St. Joseph's Council, 1984, Observes National Event With Big Program on 29th

St. Joseph's Council No. 1984, K. of C., of Palmyra and Riverton, celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Order Tuesday of this week with an entertainment lasting well into the night.

Andrew J. Pfaff, Grand Knight, opened the exercises with an address depicting the various stages in the organization and formation of the Order from its beginning until the present, also giving a short history of the local Council through the several administrations and the part the Ladies' Auxiliary had in helping wherever needed.

Christopher J. Davis acted as master of ceremonies in the absence of Thomas McCrossen, lecturer of St. Joseph's, who was confined to his home by illness, and who prepared the fine program.

A sketch, "King Tut and Princess Padueah" was presented by the Boys' Club. Solos were rendered by Francis Brennan, and J. Vanderstock, accompanied at the piano with Mrs. W. Rex McCrossen and Miss Carbury accompanied by Miss Perry. A duet by Charlotte Nelling and George Buehlman was accompanied by Miss May Niles.

The dance team of Howard Davis and Miss A. Shea rendered two specialty numbers, Irving Hall, with his "Wee Bit Scotch" received much applause, while J. Sultzer, comedian and banjoist extraordinary, seemed to win the hearts of all with his interpretations and comedy. Interspersed throughout the program were short addresses by Mrs. J. Sandoz, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary and Mrs. R. E. Sanford, past president, and the following past grand knights, Michael J. McDermott, August E. Conlow, Joseph P. Leary, Harry C. Blinn and Adolph J. Strohm.

The exercises of the evening ended with refreshments and dancing with music furnished by the Davis orchestra.

Stutler — Brown

Miss Lettie L. Brown, of Camden, and Harry L. Stutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stutler, of Highland avenue, Palmyra, were married at the Episcopal Chapel, Valley Forge, Pa., on Saturday at two o'clock.

Only the members of the immediate family were present at the ceremony. Following a honeymoon trip to New York City, the happy couple will be at home in Camden after April 1.

"Night In Monte Carlo"

The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps is sponsoring a "Night In Monte Carlo" to be staged at the Legion House, Palmyra, on Friday evening, April 8.

A big night is planned for everyone. Ladies are especially invited to be present at the event. Valuable prizes will be given.

The Corps enters the first competition of the season on Saturday, when it journeys to Paterson to compete against a number of North Jersey Legion Corps.

APPRECIATION

We desire to thank those who have extended sympathy and assistance since Mr. Rader's accident Monday of last week.

WILL TRY AGAIN

FRANK COOK
Medford man who seeks the Democratic nomination for Freeholder.

The candidate, who formerly lived in Burlington, made a strong bid for the office last year. He is expected to be unopposed for the nomination and will contest the issue with the Republican nominee in the fall election.

BLOSSOM TIME IS TOPIC AT ROTARY

Details of Campaign Outlined at Club Meeting by Geo. C. McKann, Jr.

The report of the nominating committee of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club for the selection of candidates for next year's offices was read at the meeting on Thursday, March 24.

The following are the men nominated: President, Rev. George Lockett; vice-president, R. D. Barclay; secretary, Joseph Beel; treasurer, R. E. Matlis, and for Sergeant-at-Arms, George Rogers. Since the submission of a name is tantamount to election, the club is assured of the same strong leadership which it has enjoyed during the past year.

The speaker of the evening was George C. McKann, Jr., secretary of the Burlington Chamber of Commerce. Mr. McKann spoke in behalf of the Blossom Time policy which will be inaugurated this year in South Jersey. The plans for calling attention to the beauties of our fruit orchards, as well as the excellence of their products, came from an association of business men from all parts of the lower half of the state. They desire to get the tourist off the main highways to the shore, and on to the good roads that go through the fertile fields of the southern counties. All the means known to advertising will be employed to achieve this end.

Radio stations will run short programs on the subject; road maps will be available to pilot travelers through the thickest orchard areas; newspapers will cooperate by running unusual stories on the theme, and as the climax to the campaign will be the Blossom Time when the blossoms are at their best. A selected young lady will present wreaths of fruit blossoms to President Hoover, and to the governors of the neighboring states.

That New Jersey is fifth among the states in the production of peaches will not be overlooked, nor will the high quality of all the fruit produced, be left unemphasized. Of local interest is the fact that Burlington county has one million of the three million fruit trees in the state.

It is believed that this campaign to make known to the neighboring metropolitan areas, what we have to offer in the way of unusual beauty and utility, will result in more business for the fruit growers of South Jersey.

Mrs. Ellen E. Wyman

Ellen Elizabeth Wyman, wife of Charles Wyman, died at her home on West Second street, Moorestown, Monday evening. She had been in poor health for nearly a year.

Funeral services will be held from her late residence on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with William Grobrier, funeral director, in charge. Interment will be made in Colestown cemetery.

Mrs. Wyman is survived by her husband, one son and two daughters.

RIVERSIDE MAN HUNT

Thomas Stayton, 320 Taylor street, Riverside, was badly cut on his elbow at a Camden plant Saturday when the belt on a power saw he was operating flew off the pulley. Stayton attempted to drive home, but was stopped in Palmyra for speeding. The Palmyra police noticed his elbow was bleeding badly, so that took him to Dr. LeFavor, who gave him first aid and instructed him to see his family physician at once.

Phi Nu Class

All through April we again study the old testament, beginning on April 3rd, with "God and Creation." Genesis 1-1 to 2-7.

There are many theories concerning creation. Does it make any difference what theory of creation we believe? Has the Darwinian theory of evolution injured Christianity?

As there are many topics for discussion in this very interesting lesson and new opinions are always welcome, let us have yours.

On April 4 the class will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Laura Reiger, 207 Elm avenue, Riverton.

MAN KILLED IN RIVERTON FIRE

Burns and Suffocation Fatal to Alonzo Ray; Fire Almost Out Before Body Is Found

Alonzo Ray, 45 years old, was suffocated in a fire that destroyed the home of Charles Payne, 303 Third street, Riverton, last Friday at two o'clock in the morning.

The fire, which had its origin in the rear of the frame two-story house, spread rapidly before the firemen arrived and it was not until the blaze was fairly well checked that it was learned that Ray was sleeping in the house.

"Ned" Bowers and Fire Chief Armstrong, equipped with smoke masks, entered the still burning second floor and found the body of Ray sprawled on the floor beside his bed, in the front bedroom. The firemen carried his lifeless body across the street and placed it on blankets where artificial respiration was used by the firemen.

Dr. Harry L. Rogers and the Palmyra ambulance were summoned and they stood by ready to assist while the company continued their efforts to resuscitate the victim. After forty minutes of hard work with no apparent results, Ray was rushed to the Zurbrugg Hospital, where he was pronounced dead. Had he recovered from the results of the smoke and fumes he probably would not have survived the burns, which were described by hospital authorities as third-degree burns.

The fire had spread so rapidly in the Payne property that the home of Peel Pindexter next to it became ignited from the intense heat and the whole side of his house was ablaze when firemen arrived.

Peel discovered the fire and turned in the alarm and then shouted for Ray but received no answer and believed that he had not come home as yet. The heat and smoke made it impossible to enter the burning building.

The Payne house is located directly in the rear of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, which was recently damaged by fire. It is supposed that Ray put too much wood in the furnace before retiring and overheated the flue pipe.

The Ray tragedy marks the first of its kind in the history of Riverton. Funeral services were held for Ray at one o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Bowers Funeral Home, where the Rev. Seymour H. Barker, officiating, interment was made in the cemetery at Wrightsville.

Ray is survived by his wife Kathryn and a twelve-year-old son.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Meta P. Shirra will lecture. Her subject, "Fairies in the Garden," is an interesting colored picture talk about the familiar insects and creatures found in our gardens.

30 PASS DRIVING TEST AT HOLLY

Only Two Prospective Motorists Turned Down at New Examining Point

The first examination of prospective automobile drivers was held in Mount Holly last Friday, and there were 32 who took the tests and 30 passed.

There were five motor vehicle inspectors in charge of Anderson Shinn, of Burlington, motor vehicle inspector. The written test and oral examination was held in the Mount Holly Armory on Grant street, and the road test given on Broad street. The inspectors will be in Mount Holly every fourth Friday of the month to conduct examinations.

One prospective driver was turned down for two weeks after it was found he had practiced turning around on Broad street where the driving test was being given.

FINE PROGRAM AT MEN'S CLUB

Motion Pictures, "The Ghost in the Crucible", De- lights Members

At the regular meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton Men's Club, of the Y.M.C.A., there was a fine crowd of members and friends present. The gathering of over sixty men were well pleased with the evening's program.

Prof. Robert Houdak's orchestra entertained with musical numbers. Miss Eleanor Houdak, six years old, delighted her audience with the rendering of several difficult violin solos. The feature of the evening was a four-reel motion picture, "The Ghost in the Crucible". It was the story of the making of gas from the very beginning when it was first discovered in Holland while heating powdered coal in a laboratory. The concluding reel gave views of industrial uses of gas in the production of foods. Namely showing views of the Philadelphia Bakery, American Stores Coffee Roasting Plants, and the ranges in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. The final scene was the average home heated by a coal furnace and the gas method, with very intimate and human touches portrayed.

This feature was secured through the efforts of the president of the club, Floyd W. Spahr, and the courtesy of the U. O. I. in Philadelphia. The reels were produced in Philadelphia and displayed by a commercial photographic house.

The business session was held following the movie. A number of new members were voted in and welcomed to the club. The club reminds all men in Palmyra and Riverton they are welcome. There may be a necessity of limiting the membership a little later on in the year.

Refreshments of hot cross buns, doughnuts and coffee were served and the men lingered to chat and play a few games of checkers and chess in the lobby.

The next regular meeting will be the fourth Thursday of April, the 28th, in the "Y" building.

Wesleyan Men's Bible Class

A beautiful Easter service was enjoyed by 125 men last Sunday. This gathering represented the largest attendance ever and was an increase of 40 over that of last year. The average attendance during March was 112.

The organization is continually growing and the good fellowship among the members is unusual.

Mr. Poinsett's talk and the solo by Dane Philie were enthusiastically received. At the conclusion of the talk, "Dad" Davidson was presented with a beautiful potted plant, a token of the appreciation of class members for his faithful support. R. Z. Poinsett was also the recipient of a plant for his earnest endeavor in behalf of the class.

Next Saturday a representation from the class will attend the annual convention of the State Federation of Men's Bible Classes to be held in East Orange, N. J.

COMPASS CLUB SPONSORS PLAY; AIDS WELFARE

Production Will be Presented By Cast of Eighty Business Men

TO BE PRESENTED ON APRIL 7 AND 8

C. A. Buehl Will be Bride;
Groom's Identity to Remain Unknown

Nothing short of hurricanes or earthquakes can keep the fun-loving persons of Palmyra, Riverton and vicinity away from the Palmyra High School on Thursday and Friday nights, April 7 and 8, at which time eighty Palmyra and Riverton business men will present "The Womanless Wedding," which is guaranteed to cause more laughs in one hour than you have holes in your last winter's overcoat.

This production is being staged under the auspices of the Compass Club and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Compass Club of Palmyra and Riverton for the benefit of the Welfare Association.

Old Man Oloom and his wife, Dame Depression, have not been invited and it's likely there will be a bit of rough house if they try to get in, so don't take your Sunday face to see this farce.

There's much shopping about town for evening gowns, high-heeled slippers, picture hats, feather fans and French lingerie. Merchants are at their wits' end trying to fit a number eleven foot into a triple A size three shoe, and to find dresses to fit mainly shoulders.

Lipsicks are at a premium and a ladder has been ordered for Miss Ruth Hall, director of the farce, to use when she applies the proper shade of pallor to bride's cheeks.

Imagine, if you can, C. A. Buehl dressed in satin and tulle, walking down the aisle to the slow strains of Lohengrin to become the bride—yes, bride is what we said—of an unknown man, while fond parents and relatives sob strenuously as they rub shoulders with stage and screen notables in their efforts to be among those seen at "The Womanless Wedding."

The groom? This person has thus far declined to reveal his identity—so persistently, in fact, that there are some invited guests who believe he may yet desert the fair bride at the altar. The Bishop, Maurice Gerhard, promises to be on deck to say the words, groom or no groom.

The dignity of the butler, Dan Clifton, may be sadly strained as he announces the relatives and friends who are guests at the wedding, but there will be nothing strained about the laughter of the audience.

The cast, which is not yet complete, includes: Arthur N. Palmer, George W. Rogers, C. E. Jobe, Joseph G. Seal, Eugene Bush, Mayor Walter D. LaMont, C. A. Buehl, Howard Conover, C. R. Sweeney, James M. Weart, Charles B. Marple, George Friday, Jr., Karl Latch, Edgar Liming, Raymond Warner, J. Horace Finney, Francis Zink, Dr. R. W. Dunn, Dr. J. Richard Dev, Charles Delaney, George Rivel, H. L. Parsons and Leon Evald.

EASTER DRAMA IN LUTHERAN CHURCH

Beautiful and Inspiring Story of Crucifixion and Resur- rection Sunday Evening

Sunday night at 8 o'clock an Easter drama entitled, "He Lives," will be presented in the First Lutheran Church by the Dramatic Club, with the cooperation of the choir.

This is a beautiful and inspiring story of the Crucifixion and Resurrection, and a striking presentation of the power of the Christ. A number of familiar gospel hymns and other musical selections are interspersed through the play, adding greatly to its interest and effectiveness.

With a reverent use of the imagination, the author takes one of the most appealing figures in the Gospel story, the Rich Young Ruler who came to Jesus and turned away from the greatness of the challenge which He presented; this lovable character is again brought to the Christ, and yields Him his devotion.

The other central figure is a blind girl of fine spiritual sensitiveness and responsiveness. Her attitude and influence and eventual blessing form a most attractive development. These parts are played by Mrs. W. W. Howe and S. B. Buchholz.

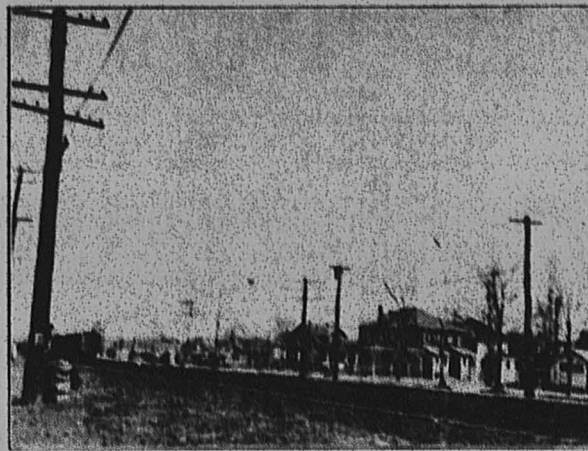

Other characters are the disciples Peter and John, played by J. H. Ingram and Hayes Brady; a Roman Soldier, Harry Storicks; an Angel, Addison Chandler; a Maid-Servant, Mrs. Wolfshmidt; Mary Magdalene, Mrs. Raymond Walling; other women, Miss Eleanor Bauer and Miss Florence Harding.

Friends of the church in the community are cordially invited to witness this production and share in the enjoyment of its splendid message and inspiration.

RAID ARCADIA GRILL

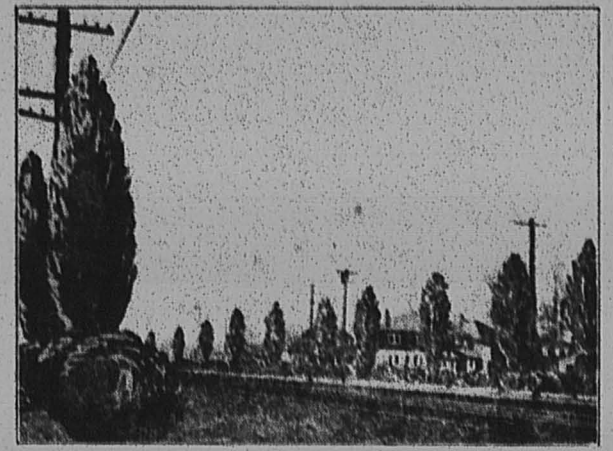

Federal agents raided the Arcadia Grill in Cinnaminson Township last Friday, arresting Warren Eckstein, of 8 Lejeune road, and William J. McIntyre, 1127 Cinnaminson avenue, on a charge of sale and possession of intoxicating liquor. The federal agents who made the raid were Alex G. Crispanik and Joseph A. Lyons, of Camden.

TIRES IN COLORS, NEWEST WRINKLE

William Kraus Tells Also of Low Pressure Product by Goodrich

New developments in the rubber industry this year parallel closely those of the automotive industry in general, according to William Kraus, of the Lester Fortnum Agency, who has just returned from a tire dealers' conference in Philadelphia sponsored by the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company.

"Utility safety, comfort and beauty characterize the 1932 tire lines," Mr. Kraus said. "The Goodrich Company has just introduced colored tires to match one's car. They are made in fifteen shades of red, green, brown and silver and are custom-built in large sizes."

"Low pressure tires for small cars are another innovation by Goodrich. These tires carry only fifteen pounds of air pressure and smooth the roughest road. They are durable and can be placed in small cars with no mechanical adjustments and without interference with ordinary driving conditions."

The Goodrich Company, which recently introduced its Safety Silver-town tires, is sponsoring similar conferences throughout the country. Short merchandising and product talks made up the morning session and a three-act merchandising play, said to be the most instructive and entertaining presentation of its kind, comprised the afternoon program.

More than 300 tire dealers and merchandising executives in this district attended the conference.

SUMMER ROUND-UP WORK TO CONTINUE IN PALMYRA DURING APR.

Parents of Palmyra children are asked to please take note that beginning next week the day for pre-school physical examinations and toxoid injections for diphtheria prevention will be changed to Friday instead of Thursday, as heretofore.

Dr. H. W. Bauer, the school physician, has already devoted much extra time to this very important work. Diphtheria immunization requires two injections of toxoid, the second being given three weeks after the first, so it is imperative for those who have not already received their first injection to come to the Delaware avenue school at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

This work must be completed during the month of April. Parents of all the children in Palmyra who will be old enough to enter school in September, have been notified by mail or otherwise, of the advisability of physical examination before their school life begins, in order that existing defects may be discovered and corrected before September.

The Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association is sponsor of this summer round-up movement and benefits resulting throughout the country have been very gratifying.

Don't forget to take your child to the Delaware avenue school tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

P.O.S.A. SPONSORS ESSAY CONTEST

Award of Ten Dollars to be Given for Best Paper

Camp No. 23 P.O.S.A., Palmyra, is sponsoring an essay contest among all high school students of Palmyra. The subject is, "George Washington." The rules for this contest and further details will be presented to the student body after the Easter holidays. The winner will receive an award of ten dollars from the Camp. Anyone interested may obtain this information from the camp secretary, Leslie W. Reeves, or from the High School. It is hoped that as many of the high school pupils as possible will enter this contest.

Monday evening, May 11, members of Camp No. 23 will have a chance to hear six of the high school pupils debate on the following subject, "Resolved, That the Five-Year Plan of Russia Should be Adopted by the United States."

This debate was given by the same team at the last P.T.A. meeting. Much interest was shown at that time and it will be interesting to hear it again.

The young men and women on the teams are: Affirmative—Carrie Bates, Catherine King and Ruth Vansilver; negative—Lionel Klevan, Lloyd Grismom and Carl McAllister.

The debate was coached by Miss Edna K. Ziegler, of the high school English department. Miss Ziegler has been asked to be present at the debate as much of its success was due to her untiring efforts, her enthusiasm and coaching. Every loyal American is interested in this subject and it is hoped that the camp rooms will be packed on that night. Come out and hear this important subject discussed by the young people. It will be time well spent.

Initiation of new members will be held Monday evening, April 4. Members are urged to come out and support the degree team and to see them in their new uniforms.

STATEMENT SAYS KLAN ISN'T DEAD

"Taking Active Part in Public Affairs in Future," Communication States

An article, addressed "To the citizens of Burlington County" and signed "Loyal Body Klan, 77, Burlington County, W. H. V. Moorestown, N. J. R. 3, Box 155," follows:

"How often we hear people say, especially the politicians, that the Ku Klux Klan is dead. I sometimes wonder why, if they are dead, that the newspapers and politicians go to so much trouble to write and tell about its being dead.

"I would like to say for the benefit of those who hear us, we are dead that we are still alive and keeping a pretty close watch on some of our public officials, as well as the Public School situation in Burlington County.

"Would also like to state that we are taking an active part in public affairs in Burlington County in the future."

HUGHES ANNOUNCES INTENTION TO SEEK SEAT IN CONGRESS

Richard P. Hughes, prominent Burlington insurance broker who now makes his home in Trenton, announces this week his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the Fourth Congressional District.

The Fourth District was recently created and embraces Mercer and Burlington counties.

Mr. Hughes was until recently a member of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. He is a former Democratic state committeeman from Burlington county and has been active in political circles for many years.

Throughout the southern section of the state Mr. Hughes has also gained numerous friends through his affiliation with the Elks' Lodge, of which he is a state officer.

Another whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for the congressional office is Hiram Carter Gilbert, Bordentown business man and World War veteran. It is said friends are now circulating petitions for Mr. Gilbert.

FAMOUS SHAKESPEARIAN PLAYER

JAMES HENDRICKSON AS "BRUTUS" will make his appearance at Palmyra High School on April 9th in "Julius Caesar."

SHAKESPEARE IS VERY MUCH ALIVE

Famous Players to Present "Julius Caesar" in Palmyra High School

When this newspaper recently interviewed the manager of the Shakespeare Players we asked the stock question as to whether or not Shakespeare was a dead one in the theatre and were answered with an emphatic "No!" and were offered some striking information to substantiate this statement.

Fritz Leiber has been installed in a beautiful new theatre in Chicago devoted entirely to the Swan of Avon. In the course of four months not less than twelve of the plays were brought to life and when the Chicago season was finished the company packed up and went to Philadelphia, Boston and New York, where they were greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences.

The Stratford-on-Avon Company has just completed a second trans-continental tour. Eva La Gallienne, last season played Romeo and Juliet to standing room in her playhouse in the poorer section of New York City.

It is announced that Lillian Gish will do Desdemona on the Broadway stage next season and June Cowl is to do Viola in Twelfth Night. Shakespeare has even crashed the fallows with Mary Pickford and Doug Fairbanks, Walter Hampden, Mrs. Fiske and Otto Skinner, George Arliss, Genevieve Hammer, Frederick Lewis, and others have each in turn rescued the Bard from oblivion and the Shakespeare Players last year in the course of a long season of more than fifty weeks carried Julius Caesar and Macbeth into cities, towns and villages in twenty-two states from New York to Texas and from the Iron Range of Northern Minnesota to the Mexican gulf.

As if this were not sufficiently convincing, attention is called to the magnificent ten million dollar Folger Shakespeare Memorial now nearing completion in Washington, which will house the most complete collection of Shakespeareana in the world.

For their appearance in Palmyra, the Shakespeare Players will offer Julius Caesar. The performance will be given at the high school auditorium at 8:15 o'clock on April 9. Tickets may be obtained from students. The local authorities have arranged for unusually low admission prices here and special prices have been made for students. Out-of-town groups are urged to make early reservation.

Miss Prickett is survived by her sister and several cousins.

WILLIAM E. WIMER MARRIED IN N. Y.

Brother of Palmyra Councilman Takes Miss Lillian Pullins as Bride

William E. Wimer, Jr., Republican leader in Benshook Township, and brother of State Committeeman George N. Wimer, a resident of Palmyra, and Miss Lillian M. Pullins, of Merchantville, were married in New York City on Saturday.

The ceremony was performed in the Madison Avenue Baptist Church at four o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. George Caleb Moore, pastor of the church, officiating.

The couple's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Banyard, of 2241 Browning road, Merchantville.

Wimer, who gave his age as 53, and his address as 130 Westminster avenue, Merchantville, was born in Cincinnati.

Miss Pullins, who assumed her maiden name after divorcing Isaac B. Stew, also of Ben Hook, last year, gave her age as 29, and her address as 2241 Browning road, Merchantville, the same address as the Banyards.

Wimer's first wife was a member of the Knicht family, a descendant of the founders of Collingswood. She died in 1927.

Wimer has been very active politically and was named to succeed Theodor Kausal as the manager of county institutions at Lakeland, N. J., some time ago.

The couple are enjoying a honeymoon trip through New York state and Canada.

NEW BANK WILL OPEN IN MERCHANTVILLE AS $320,580 IS PLEDGED

The Merchantville National Bank and Trust Company, a new institution to be formed through consolidation of the closed Merchantville Trust Company and the First National Bank and Trust Company, will open its doors for business in April.

That announcement was made last week by E. E. Shumaker, chairman of the Merchantville Citizens' Committee on Consolidation, at a public meeting in Merchantville Borough Hall.

This revelation that the $300,000 in stock pledges necessary to organize the new bank had been over-subscribed by $20,580, came a few hours after the reopening of the First National Bank, Ocean City, closed since last October. This is the first closed bank in New Jersey to reopen.

NUMBER P. S. STOCKHOLDERS

The number of stockholders in Public Service Corporation of New Jersey reached a new high record at the end of February when 90,250 separate accounts were listed on the corporation's books. At the end of 1931 the corporation had 89,450 stockholders.

MUSEUM ASKS FOR LINCOLN RELICS

Lincoln Historical Research Foundation Sends Out Call For Lincoln Curios

What have you in the way of Abraham Lincoln relics in your home? Dr. Louis A. Warren, director of the Lincoln Historical Research Foundation, Fort Wayne, Indiana, asks the editor of this paper to help in locating any really genuine Lincoln curios in this section.

In the Foundation's museum and library and in many other historical institutions all over the country, he states, there are innumerable priceless mementoes of the Great Emancipator, yet he feels that treasured away in many a home or office there must be manuscripts, newspaper and magazine articles, books and pamphlets, pictures, medals and other Lincoln items that are every bit as valuable. He seeks the aid of this newspaper and its readers in bringing these to light.

Sometime next summer, at Fort Wayne, according to Dr. Warren, the Foundation will dedicate a massive bronze statue of the "Youthful Lincoln" done by the famous sculptor Paul Manship. In connection with this dedication there will be held a two-day "open house" in the Foundation's museum and library.

For this "open house" Dr. Warren is planning a special exhibit of Lincoln relics collected from individual owners and not heretofore shown in public. Each of the displays will give full credit to the owner, and perhaps the more important ones will later be purchased by the Foundation. Dr. Warren promises that all items submitted for the special exhibit will be returned.

Local people who feel that they have something of unusual interest should communicate immediately with Dr. Louis A. Warren, Lincoln Historical Research Foundation, Fort Wayne, Indiana, or Mr. C. A. Wooster, Lincoln National Life Insurance Company, Philadelphia, giving full details concerning the articles in their possession. Dr. Warren will then decide whether an article is worthy of special exhibition and make arrangements for sending it to Fort Wayne.

In the four years since its establishment, the Lincoln Historical Research Foundation has become the center of Lincoln information in America. Under Dr. Warren's direction there has been assembled the largest private collection of literature ever gathered about one man, Biblical characters excepted.

After Mrs. George West, of Romeo, Mich., testified in court that she and her six children had been locked in their apartment by her husband she was given a divorce.

COUNTY RED CROSS TO CONTINUE LIFE SAVING

At its last regular meeting Burlington County Chapter of American Red Cross voted to continue its life saving swimming program the coming summer, making the fifth year it has carried on this activity.

In connection with the campaign, an examiners' institute will be held from April 4 to 7, in the pool of the Moorestown Community House, under Herbert Young, Jr., of the National Red Cross Life Saving staff, who conducted a similar institute in the county two years ago.

All examiners should attend at least one training course a year, and the purpose of this institute is to give all examiners an opportunity to review under Mr. Young, and learn the newest life saving methods.

The class will be conducted from 7:45 to 9:30 o'clock and be followed by the swimming demonstration.

All county life savers will be welcome.

Speaking of a sales tax, why wouldn't it be a good idea to put one on house-to-house canvassers?

CAMDEN MISS IS BLOSSOMTIME GIRL

Commissioner Hanna's Daughter to Reign as Queen at Bridgeton Festival

Because she "possesses all the characteristics of the typically American girl," Miss Betty Thompson Hanna, seventeen-year-old daughter of City Commissioner Frank B. Hanna, of Camden, has been selected as the South Jersey Blossomtime Girl.

A decided brunette, with deep brown eyes and curly brown hair which she wears in a long bob, the blossom queen will reign over the Blossomtime Festival to be held at Bridgeton on April 16.

The festival is being sponsored jointly by the city of Bridgeton and the South Jersey Blossomtime Association.

Miss Hanna, who is a freshman at the Glassboro State Normal School at Glassboro, will hold court during the all-day carnival in a natural amphitheater almost in the heart of the historic South Jersey city. Her court will be composed of seven young women, representing the seven orchard growing counties of southern New Jersey—Camden, Cumberland, Cape May, Burlington, Salem, Atlantic and Gloucester counties.

The Blossomtime Girl's Court of Honor is being selected by civic and women's clubs in the seven counties, and these young women, in turn, will each be attended by four small page boys and girls clad in the colorful costumes of Colonial days.

The celebration itself is the largest of its kind ever planned in southern New Jersey and is expected to rival the famed apple blossom carnival held in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia each year. Thousands of school children will take part in the exercises that precede the crowning of the Blossomtime Girl by Governor A. Harry Moore.

Bridgeton is preparing to receive thousands of visitors for the gala festival, a mile long parade, in which civic, patriotic and fraternal organizations from every part of southern New Jersey will take part, will open the celebration and the city will don holiday dress for the occasion.

"I Wish I Had...."

follows every mistake in life. After every trying circumstance, every pitfall, every misdoing, there comes a time when a person, reflecting the results, arrives at a preventative solution by stating—"I wish I had done this" or "I wish I had done that." But the remedy was too late.

People the world over are now lamenting over the misapplication of their savings.

The only "I wish I had's" among the stockholders of the

Palmyra Building & Loan Association

are those who have said "I wish I had started earlier in life to save the 'Building and Loan Way'."

It's better not to wish, if you only wish you had.

MACHINERY A CURSE?

A Riverside man in 1894 wrote a series of articles to The Riverside Press entitled "Machinery Becomes a Curse", in which he ascribed the economic ills of that day to machinery and declared that within twenty-five years the laboring man would not be able to maintain a human-like existence.

Many people of today believe the present depression due to machinery and assert that the masses will never again enjoy prosperity.

And when power machinery was first introduced on a large scale, just prior to 1800, more than 132 years ago, there was suffering among the laboring classes in England with widespread industrial disorders and many believed the ordinary man would never again be able to make a decent living.

But greater prosperity, shorter hours and higher standards of living, followed the so-called "industrial revolution" of that age. And the greatest prosperity America ever knew followed the depression of 1893-94.

Instead of men twenty-five years later being reduced to less than human state of existence, the year 1919 saw some of the highest wages in history being paid. The "less than human" existence of that day included an automobile for the average family, bathroom in nearly every home, electric household equipment, telephones, the beginning of radio, and various luxuries that kings could not have a hundred years before.

Machinery does not destroy prosperity. The trouble is that machinery creates prosperity with such a lavish hand that the country goes on an economic spree every so often and then has to suffer a few years of the morning after headache.

The best insurance against depressions is the proverbial "saving for a rainy day". If everybody saved more during boom times, prosperity might not ride so high, but neither would there be such a sickening thud at the end. The savings of the masses would tide things over until industry could get going again.

The French people are noted for their thrift and France is the one nation today which has escaped the worst effects of the depression.

Americans, on the other hand, are known for their extravagance, "Easy come, easy go", and as long as this is true the nation will continue to have its extreme ups and downs.

MERIT BADGES TO BE AWARDED

Riverton Troop, B.S.A. Already
the Highest Award

The Riverton Troop, B. S. A., is holding a Court of Honor on Friday night for the purpose of awarding merit badges and other awards. The regulations of the Boy Scouts of America provide that before a Boy Scout can be awarded any badge he must take an examination before an expert in the particular subject for which the badge is to be awarded. His qualifications must then be approved by a Board of Review, and only then is he entitled to be awarded a badge by the Court of Honor.

In Riverton the Board of Review is headed by a former scoutmaster of the troop, John D. Follett, and the Court of Honor is headed by the first scoutmaster of the troop, William M. Shoemaker, Jr.

A Boy Scout after he becomes a First Class Scout is entitled to receive as many merit badges as he is able to qualify for. These merit badges cover specialized knowledge in practically every occupation, profession, hobby, and art, from agriculture, at the head of the alphabet, down to woodworking at the bottom. In this way Boy Scout merit badge work often assists the Scout in choosing his life work.

When a Scout has obtained any five merit badges and has shown that he is trying to live up to Scout principles, he becomes a Star Scout and is entitled to wear a special badge in this accomplishment. Upon passing ten merit badge tests which shall include First Aid, Physical Development or Athletics, Personal Health, Public Health, Life Saving or Pioneering, he becomes a Life Scout and receives a badge for this higher award. Finally, upon winning twenty-one merit badges, eleven of which are prescribed, he achieves the highest grade in Scouting, namely Eagle Scout. The Riverton troop already has four Eagle Scouts: Assistant Scoutmaster William M. Shoemaker, 3rd; Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Patton Kivney, Senior Patrol Leader Henry M. Naisbitt, and Edward Hunt.

A number of merit badges are to be awarded on Friday night as well as Life and Star awards. It is customary to make the Eagle Scout awards at the annual Boy Scout church service held each February.

WELFARE PLANS DONATION DAY

Organization Particularly Desires Contributions of Food and Money on April 8

The Palmyra Borough Welfare Association will hold its second bi-monthly donation day on Friday, April 8.

At this time the association is asking for food and money particularly, although donations of clothing will be appreciated.

Contributions may be left on the porch of the Wimer office at 15 East Broad street at any time during the day. Each and every person throughout the town is asked to contribute something, be it ever so little.

All kinds of non-perishable foods, canned goods, etc. are being solicited. The school children are also asked to help make this second day even more successful than the first.

The Welfare Association wishes to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of forty Easter novelties from Miss Marjorie Atkinson. These things were distributed to needy kiddies adding much to their enjoyment of Easter day.

The organization also wishes to publicly thank Mrs. George DuBell for her kindness in mending the men's trousers.

Since the last report in the newspaper, the only contribution received by the Welfare has been fifty cents, which was a payment on a pair of shoes which a needy man had been given some time ago.

PLANE TALKS

By L. H. H. LONGAKER
Founder, Burlington County
Aero Club

On Saturday, April 2, the Fifth National Aircraft Show will open in the million dollar hangar at the Detroit Municipal Airport. We have described both the hangar and airport for you in previous years and as usual for the next two weeks this column will be written at the show. We will try to inform you of the very latest developments in aviation and give you interesting sidelights on the show.

There is plenty of activity at the plant of the Bellanca Aircraft Corporation, New Castle, Delaware, this week. Finishing touches are being put on the three ships to be shown at the National Aircraft Show and two demonstrating planes are being tuned up for use on the field.

On Friday evening, April 15, the Woman's Club of Moorestown, will present Amelia Earhart Putnam at the Moorestown Community House. Mrs. Putnam will speak on her experiences in aviation. The meeting is open to the public and an admission of fifty cents will be charged for non-members of the Woman's Club.

A new world's record for sustained flight over a closed course was recently made by two French fliers, Lucien Bossontrot and Emil Rossi. Flying a Bleriot high wing monoplane equipped with a 500-horsepower Hispano-Suiza engine, they covered 6,028 miles in 26 hours and 36 minutes. Their average speed was 86 miles an hour.

The Philadelphia district will be well represented at the National Aircraft Show. The Pictet and Kellogg Companies will display the latest in auto-giros, Jacobs Engine Company, located at Central Airport, Camden, will show their engines, and of course, Bellanca Aircraft Corporation and Keystone Aircraft Corporation will come in for their share of attention.

THE MAKING AND CARE OF THE LAWN

Lawns have such an important place in the exterior decoration of the home that more attention should be given them, says Mr. W. O. Hird, of I. N. Simon & Son, 438 Market street, Philadelphia. A well-kept lawn, besides enhancing the beauty of the home, makes a fine setting for hardy borders and flower beds. To keep an established lawn in good condition is a matter of systematic feeding which should be started when the frost is leaving the ground. The lawn should be thoroughly raked and all bare spots resodded and sheep manure, bone meal or a well-balanced plant food applied at the rate of 4 pounds to each 100 square feet. Water freely to eliminate all danger of burning as well as to make plant food available. As lawns are heavy feeders, applications of plant food should be given in early June and later in August or early September as producing a vigorous, healthy lawn you will discourage the growth of weeds. In making a new lawn the ground should be raked fine, removing all stones, roots, etc., so that a smooth, level surface is obtained and at the same time thoroughly incorporating a liberal amount of plant food to the depth of not more than two inches as fertilizers below that depth are wasted. Good seed is of the greatest importance and next to the preparation of the soil as on this depends the life of the lawn. If a high-grade mixture of the fine-seeded grasses is used one may be reasonably sure of a deep green, velvety turf so much desired by lovers of fine lawns. Grass seed should be used at the rate of 5 bushels to the acre or 1 quart to each 200 square feet. After sowing, the seed should be lightly raked into the soil and packed down either with a light roller or the back of a spade. After the grass has become established frequent feedings of plant food is advisable. In conclusion, proper feeding and high-grade seeds are essential if one would have a perfect lawn.

TRY TO STEAL FLOAT

Two men were discovered trying to steal a float from the Riverton wharf late last Thursday. Dick Hollingshead notified the Palmyra police, who gave chase in a motor boat, but the men abandoned the float at the old Palmyra ferry slip and disappeared down the river in the darkness.

Grimsby, Eng.—Francis Glaven, inmate of the almshouse, left $79 on his death to buy a radio for the other paupers.

Edward Phillips, of Deri, Wales, was buried in the second coffin he had made for himself, the first having been used for his wife.

GARDNER MEETS CANADIAN CHAMP

Carl VanWurden Clashes With Pinkie at Convention Hall

It all started a few moons ago when the then light-heavy king, Gentle John Kilonis, agreed to meet a logical challenger, Pinkie Gardner, of Schenectady, for the title on the Camden mat. With one fall each on the books, Kilonis got too generous with his rough stuff and was disqualified for the title as well as the match, and the handsome New York sheriff became light-heavyweight champion of the world.

Right away challengers popped up as if by magic, so Promoter Grip proceeded to run an elimination tournament to determine a logical opponent for the new king. Two men, VanWurden and Joe Kocut, both Canucks, came down the home stretch in fine shape, only to run afoul of the rough stuff of the Greek, and Kilonis was who finally faced Gardner as a result of having won the tourney. But he was not equal to the task of overthrowing the Sheriff, and another opponent had to be found.

Inasmuch as the Greek's rough tactics had had much to do with his successes over both Kocut and VanWurden, popular demand brought these two boys from "up there" to get together two weeks ago, with the prize of victory a match with Gardner. That was a wrestling epic, with VanWurden, who rates as the champion of Canada, coming through to win the bout and the title shot. The big chance was to have been given him last Monday, but Champion Gardner was unable to fill the date, so it was postponed until next Monday.

In the meantime, VanWurden consented to meet Greek Nick Boyatz last Monday over the half-hour route, and in spite of the handicap of a bad ankle he came through to win the nod. Actually, the going was about even, but the Toothless Terror did so much rough stuff that the official of the match could do nothing but call it a no-contest. Thus it is that the Canadian and the Schenectady Sheriff will meet on equal footing in Camden next week, with the world's light-heavyweight title at stake. The route is 90 minutes, best two out of three falls to win.

In the semi-finals, Ed. Simon, Litchman 210-pounder who gave Ed. Simon an awful job, last week, tangled with Bohemian Stanley Plinto for 45 minutes, while in the second round, for half an hour, well liked Charley Hansen takes on Dr. Fred Meyer, Jewish heavy. Birge Roel, Norway, and Andy White, the New Yorker with the bad knee, remnant of Japan's most famous jockey, open the card in a light-heavy tussle.

GAME LEAGUE TO MEET ON APRIL 14

President Marcus W. Newcomb, of Browns Mills; Secretary H. Maurice Stevenson, of Columbus; Chairman Alex. Dubel, Detective Ellis H. Parker and C. Stanley Townsend, of Mount Holly; Edward M. Members of the Fish and Game Commission will be present as guests of honor. Senator Clifford R. Powell and Assemblyman Newcomb will advise the members about the progress of legislation that has attracted so much of their attention as a result of state-wide discussions that have been in progress for several weeks. Prosecutor Howard Eastwood will be toastmaster.

Some statesmen at Washington want to sidetrack the sales tax and put the tax on the millionaires. The trouble is that in these days there aren't enough millionaires to go around.

GENERAL MOTORS TO INAUGURATE GIGANTIC MERCHANDISING DRIVE

General Motors car dealers over the entire country will hold special displays April 2 to 9 inclusive as part of the corporation's nation-wide merchandising project, "Work for Many Hands," designed to stimulate business and increase employment.

The special dealer showings coincide with national exhibits of all General Motors cars and other products in fifty-five selected cities. These simultaneous gigantic displays constitute what is believed to be the largest merchandising endeavor of its character ever attempted by an industrial corporation.

This action by General Motors has a major economic significance, according to those who have analyzed its extensive merchandising program. It is believed that a move of this magnitude, by one of the strongest industrial corporations of the country, evidences faith in business and should have widespread effect on industry and employment.

Church Notices

The Golden Text is: "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. . . . Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way" (Psalms 119:89,104).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee; he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved" (Psalms 55:22). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" and with Baker Eddy: "Material beliefs must be expelled to make room for spiritual understanding. Riverton School Notes

A new member, Richard Kinsey, has been added to the Art Club. Recently the Art Club made scenery for the Washington play which was given in memoriam to George Washington, the father of our country.

On February 29, Miss Staman and Mrs. Gillilan took the club to the Parkway Art Museum in Philadelphia. They viewed the art gallery from ten o'clock until eleven o'clock. From eleven o'clock until twelve o'clock they drew sketches of the pictures they liked best. Each of the students sketched at least two pictures.

They are now making pictures of their sketches. Froben Schmidt is now at work on a scenery stage, and characters which T.A. are planning to give in English class. This will make the third stage scene that has been made by the Art Club.

The eighth grade gave two plays about Lincoln to celebrate Lincoln's birthday. The first one was "Abraham's First Wish." The characters were: Mother, Eleanor Sordani; Abe, John Linn; soldier, Clifton Mayfield. The second play was "Lincoln, The Boy." The characters were: Mother, Edith Bailey; father, Harold Baker; Lincoln, Harry Turner; Sally, Doris Vaughn; and cousin, Richard Barclay.

An election was held in the Eighth grade, and new class officers were elected as follows: President, Harold Baker; vice president, Robert Guest; secretary, Vivian Nicol; and treasurer, Clifton Mayfield. Due to the leaving of Harry Turner from our school, Robert Guest has succeeded him as president of the Student Council.

Miss Gardner's children are very much interested in the life of George Washington. They have collected pictures of the events of his life, and have drawn some original ones themselves.

The children who are exceptionally good artists and good in other subjects have organized clubs of the same. These clubs are: Spelling, arithmetic, and reading. All the pupils are eager to join these clubs.

Miss Gardner's class, and Miss Clark's class, had a competitive race in arithmetic. Miss Gardner's class won the race. The trophies which they won in their room are being their talk this week so everyone is watching closely. Many of these events are reported in the class newspaper which has just been edited by George Lutz. Those who wrote articles for the paper are: Katherine Knoll, Jeanne Warner, George Lutz, Margaret Schutte, Dora Barclay, and George Wilson.

Mrs. Sarah B. Garnett

Sarah B. Garnett, 49 years old, colored, wife of Marcus Garnett, died at her home on North Church street, Moorestown, about 9:30 o'clock on Sunday evening, after an illness of only one week. Her death was caused by pneumonia.
