CUPS PRESENTED AT FIRE HOUSE

Riverton Champions of Bat and Racquet Presented With Silver Trophies

Last Thursday night, September 29, the Mayor Bennett Cup was presented to the Ramblers, champions of the Riverton Memorial Park Playground League, at the Riverton Fire House. A crowd of 200 players, managers and visitors, ate, heard and saw.

Mayor Bennett, who offered the cup, presented it to Captain Walter Wright of the Ramblers, who, in turn, presented it to Manager Stanley "Doc" Hytton.

Previous to the main cup presentation, booby prizes were given to managers of the also-rans, the umpires, and the officials. Of these, probably the most appropriate was the box of lead given to Manager George Friday of the Wesleyans.

Umpire Frank Cole was presented with a can of beans, having been cooked on the bean with the proverbial "apple." "Ez" Carhart was given an electric light bulb, mildly suggesting his inability to discern day from night, and still another poor umpire was presented with smoked glasses and a whisk broom.

Each recipient of a prize was supposed to make a speech. Some did and some didn't. However, Eddie Williams, who was given a mop with which to continue to mop up the opposition, responded with a speech that consisted of more than "a few well-chosen words."

J. Elmer Hahn was the toastmaster. While no definite plans have been made, it is hoped that next year will see two eight-team leagues at the park. If this plan is carried out, four more teams will be in the competition.

Also, it has been suggested that next baseball be played, under lights, next year. This would permit the playing of three, or even four games each evening; i.e., one on each diamond before dark, and one or two on the illuminated field after dark.

The Memorial Park tennis champions also came in for their share of glory, and for awhile silver cups were flying thick and fast.

J. Elmer Hahn, chairman of the borough property committee, acting as master of ceremonies, first presented, with an appropriate speech, the women's singles championship cup to Miss Ella Bussell. Miss Bussell, with two straight championships to her credit, has but one more to win, the first leg of the men's doubles cups, at the hands of Elmer Hahn.

"Newie" Cooper, genial ex-supervising principal, better known as E. Newbold, Rotarian, and tennis player de-luxe, was presented with the Rotarian cup by its president, the Rev. George Lockett. The cup, a splendid trophy, was offered by the Rotary Club of Riverton and Palmyra for the Memorial Park singles championship, and, oddly enough, a Rotarian won it. Not only won it, but carried it, as Cooper had to wade his way through some mighty tough competition to get to the top.

"PULL" AND POVERTY PLEA BOTH FAIL

Trio of Philadelphians Obligated to Pay Fines Before Released by Riverton Recorder

Michael Durovski, 432 West Dauphin street, Mrs. Lenora Harris, 2417 North Fifth street, and Mrs. John Martin, 2313 North Third street, all of Philadelphia, were arrested Tuesday night by State Inspector "No. M-86," and given a hearing before Borough Recorder Cecil A. Bowers, who fined Durovski $50 and costs on the charge of reckless driving and resisting an officer. Two women were fined $25.00 each and $10.00 costs for disorderly conduct for aiding and abetting Durovski in his efforts to avoid arrest.

The women claimed to be wives of Philadelphia policemen, and attempted to escape paying their fines by telephoning to the police department there. They were unsuccessful and finally paid up.

Durovski pleaded poverty, claiming he did not have the amount of the fine imposed. The Recorder remanded the prisoner to the lockup and in about an hour he paid his fine from a roll of bills said to contain several "fifties."

It was claimed that the trio had been drinking, but the evidence was not sufficient to hold them on that charge.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to those who sent cars and flowers to the funeral of Benjamin F. Bates and to those who assisted with the funeral arrangements.

MRS. F. B. WARD

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late FRANCES NICKLES wish to express their appreciation for the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended in their recent bereavement.

BENJAMIN F. BATES
90-year-old Civil War veteran, succumbed to a stroke last Thursday at the home of his daughter in East Riverton.

CIVIL WAR 'VET' DIES OF STROKE

Benjamin F. Bates, 90 Years Old, Served in 23rd Reg. of N. J. Volunteers

Benjamin F. Bates, 90 years old, who died last Thursday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. B. Ward, Bellevue, avenue, East Riverton, stepped from the ever thinning ranks of Civil War veterans.

Bates suffered a stroke on September 19th and was confined to his bed until his death. Despite his age, he was unusually active up to the date of the stroke.

Bates enrolled as a private at the age of 21 in Company G, 23rd Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, Infantry. He served for 9 months, from September 13, 1862, until discharge on June 27, 1863.

He was born in Riverside and lived in the vicinity of Palmyra and Riverton nearly all of his life. The last three years were spent with his daughter, Mrs. F. B. Ward in East Riverton, and for thirty years prior to that he lived in Palmyra.

Bates was an honorary member of the Palmyra Lodge, P.O.S. of A. Funeral services were held from his home in East Riverton on Monday, with the Rev. Ira S. Pimm, pastor of the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, officiating. Interment was made in the Ashbury M. E. Cemetery under the direction of Frank A. Snover.

The Palmyra American Legion post had its bugler at the grave and the soft strains of "Taps" another hero of the Civil War was laid to rest.

Besides his daughter, he is survived by one son, Harry Bates of Palmyra, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Frank Storjacks, of Chester, Pa.

TRUCK OF TOMATOES UPSETS AT FIVE POINTS

Two Truck Accidents Since Saturday In Cinnaminson; Officer Dorworth Investigates

A truckload of tomatoes, destined for the Campbell's Soup plant in Camden, was converted into "soup" at Five Points, Cinnaminson, early Saturday morning, in a collision with another truck. The tomato truck, owned and operated by John H. Lawrence, of Ellisdale road, Crosswicks, was hit and upset by a truck driven by Charles Zincker, Crown Point road, Swedesboro. The Lawrence truck suffered considerable damage, both of the drivers escaped injuries.

Tuesday morning a truck owned by the Liberty Cake Co. and driven by Ross Fredel, of Sluce Road, Burlington, ran into the truck owned and operated by James L. James, of East Riverton. The accident happened at 11:15 o'clock, at Broad and Union Landing road, damaging both cars slightly. Since both owners were insured and no injuries sustained, Officer Dorworth made no arrests.

MISS BERTA HENDRICKSON PRESENTED AT TEA SUNDAY

Miss Berta Hendrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hendrickson, of Lippincott avenue, made her formal bow at a tea given by her parents Sunday. The debutante wore white for her coming out, the frock being of crepe and fashioned with a detachable cape, while a belt and slippers of robin's egg blue gave an attractive touch of color. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Hendrickson's gown was of soft velvet in one of the new wine shades and she carried dahlias that blended in tone with her dress.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Anna H. Donnelly, Mrs. H. McI. Biddle, Mrs. Joseph B. Tyler, Mrs. Walter Woolman, Mrs. S. Stanley Groves, Jr., and Mrs. William S. Sherrerd. Assisting the debutante were Peggy Baylis, Louise Clyde, Helen Galey, Margaret Crawford, Nancy Putnam, Jean Cantrell, Anne Donnelly, Louise Smith, Kate Wetherill, Mary Wynne de Mare and Marion Carmichael.

WELFARE OFFICE AT PORCH CLUB

Social Worker May be Seen There Every Morning Except Saturday, 9 to 10

Beginning with October 10, an office for the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association will be opened at the Porch Club, Fourth and Howard streets. Mrs. Cooper, the social worker, will be there every morning except Saturday from nine until ten o'clock. She will see no one at her home except by appointment. Whenever possible telephone calls regarding the work should be made to the Porch Club. The telephone number is Riverton 29-W.

Those who have contributed jars this season will be glad to know that they have all been put to use. The families have taken an unusual interest in the canning, and seem to realize that they must do their part and help themselves prepare for the winter in every way possible. More jars can be used if anyone has a surplus.

There are many capable men and women available for fall house cleaning. With few exceptions our families are willing and anxious to work. A short time ago a twelve-year-old boy came to the social worker's home to ask for work "to help Daddy." This illustrates the remarkable spirit of co-operation which exists in many of the families.

There are a number of young girls who are anxious to get either full time or part time work. They are experienced in handling children and can also do their share of housework. There is a splendid laundress in Riverton who will do the work at her home.

This winter will undoubtedly be a hard one. The splendid help and operation, however, so characteristic of Riverton, will continue to encourage needy families to help themselves. If jobs are not available, they will feel that the sympathy and understanding of the community is back of them.

ANNUAL MEETING NEEDLEWORK GUILD

Riverton Branch Urged to Finish More Garments; First Sewing Day Monday

The regular annual meeting of the Riverton Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held some time late this month, the date to be announced later. But before then, there will be two sewing days for the completion of the Guild's sewing program, a most important phase of the local work. The first all-day sewing will be held Monday the 10th, in the Porch Club as usual, and at that time the date of the next meeting will be decided.

There remains a considerable amount of unfinished work—uncompleted garments for both children and adults that will doubtless be sorely needed before real winter and its attendant rigors sets in. The recognized channels through which Guild garments are distributed have been most urgent in their appeals that every effort be expended not only to maintain the number of garments made, but actually to send, if possible, more garments. The time of stress through which we have been passing is not over, unfortunately, though in many instances burdens have been lightened. Just for this reason, those still in need should receive more generously than the great urgency of the past made possible.

The plan is that every member attend these final sewing meetings of the Guild's fiscal year, that the year's work may be rounded out in a really satisfactory and commendable manner. Luncheon will be served for the nominal sum of 25c per person. Reservations may be placed with Mrs. Hendrickson.

PORCH CLUB NOTES

On October 4, the Riverton Porch Club opened the season's activities. The attendance was gratifying. Everyone enjoyed the excellent food provided by the luncheon committee and appreciated the decoration committee's floral efforts.

A business meeting was followed by some current topics condensed into two minute talks by Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Ellsworth, Mrs. Belknap and Mrs. Yost.

Mrs. Jean Daggett Paul sang several songs accompanied by Miss Alice Herr. This diversified afternoon was brought to a splendid climax by Dr. E. J. G. Beardsley who lectured upon "The Universal Search for Health and Happiness As a Physician Sees It."

CANDIDATES MEETING

A number of Republican candidates will speak at a meeting to be held in the Cinnaminson Public School auditorium on Tuesday, October 18, at 8 p. m. The program will include Senator Clifford Powell, Congressional candidate D. Lane Powers, Prosecutor Howard Eastwood and others. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

BOY SCOUT MEETING

The Riverton Troop will meet in the troop room, Friday, October 7th, at 7:45 p. m.

THE PEOPLES COLUMN

THINGS COULD BE WORSE

Editor The New Era:

I often hear my friends and neighbors say, "We might as well have a change; things could be no worse." Therefore I was glad to hear President Hoover say in his address "Tuesday night":

"Thousands of our people in their bitter distress and losses today are saying that 'things could not be worse.' No person who has any remote understanding of the forces which confronted this country during these last eighteen months ever utters that remark. Had it not been for the immediate and unprecedented actions of our government things would be infinitely worse today."

"Instead of moving forward we would be degenerating for years to come even if we had not gone clear over the precipice with the total destruction of everything we hold dear."

"Let no man tell you that it could not be worse. It could be so much worse that these days now, distressing as they are, would look like veritable prosperity."

Sure things could be worse, and would be worse, a lot worse if a less able man had been in the White House during these terrible four years. In the United States for every man out of work, eight have jobs. In England for every man out of a job, only three are working, and in many of the other countries in Europe the conditions are still worse.

Hoover has started things on the up. Let's give him another term to complete the job.

WORKINGMAN.

MASS MEETING AT BURLINGTON

County Republicans to Hear Noted Speakers Friday Night in Armory

Two of the best speakers on the Republican campaign trail will come to Burlington Friday night to address a mass meeting of Burlington county Republicans in the local armory.

The principal speakers are to be Rheta Childe Dorr, authoress, newspaperwoman, reporter, and international war representative, and former Congressman James H. MacClafferty, of California, personal friend of President Hoover.

Other speakers on the list for Friday night will be United States Senators W. Warren Barbour and Hamilton F. Kean, D. Lane Powers, candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, and Senator Charles R. Stout, freeholder and chairman of the Burlington County Republican Committee, will introduce Howard Eastwood, prosecutor of Burlington county, who will preside at the meeting.

Services of Congressmen MacClafferty and Stout will be obtained by him through Hon. George deBenedictis Keim, secretary of the National Republican Committee.

Mrs. Dorr was a special writer on the Russian Revolution, a foreign correspondent at the Prague, and has recently completed her first novel. Her request to her audiences is to "vote for something, not against something." She is a vivid speaker, intertwining anecdotes from her colorful life among her arguments for President Hoover.

Congressman MacClafferty is also a former Assistant Secretary of Commerce. He is expected to present the personal side of the president, who numbers the congressman among his personal friends.

Representatives from all sections of Burlington county are expected to attend the mass meeting Friday night. It is expected the local armory will be filled. The county candidates who will be present are: Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, for assembly; George N. Winner, for sheriff; William H. Heiler, Jr. for freeholder; Harry J. Ziegler, for auditor; and William O. Cunningham and Russell M. Stoddard, for coroner.

The county Republican committee, under Freeholder Stout's guidance, is also planning a Republican tour of the county on the day before election, Monday, November 7.

Mayor Harold V. Holmes, of Burlington, will give a brief address of welcome. The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. Millard O. Fuire, pastor of the local First Baptist Church and chaplain of the New Jersey Senate.

FUMES ELIMINATED

The citizens of Riverton will be glad to know that the smoke nuisance from factories across the river has commanded the attention of Riverton Borough Council and the Riverton health authorities. Dr. Harry L. Rogers reports that Herbert M. Parker, chief of the Division of Housing and Sanitation in Philadelphia, has located the trouble to be fumes from the Girard Smelting Company, and that equipment is being installed in the offending factory which will eliminate the objectionable odors. The installation will require about thirty days.

BOY SCOUT MEETING

The Riverton Troop will meet in the troop room, Friday, October 7th, at 7:45 p. m.

RIVERTON BOARD BARS POST-GRADS

Action Is Deferred on Four Applications to Await State Decision

The practice of granting permission for post-graduate courses to high school students created considerable discussion at the regular meeting of the Riverton board of education Monday evening.

The new applications for such courses were read by District Clerk Hemphill. Mr. Hemphill said he felt that both applications should be refused on the grounds that one only wanted to take a half-day schedule embracing three courses, while the other had already been given five years at the Palmyra high school.

The district clerk cited the school law, which provides that the municipality's obligation ceases when a student graduates from the twelfth grade, or when the student reaches twenty years of age.

The subject of post-graduate courses is up before the commissioner of education at the present time, and it is expected that he will render an opinion shortly to the effect that state aid will be refused post-graduate cases. If that decision is reached by the commissioner, it would imply that the respective school boards cannot for post-graduate courses.

However, the board decided to delay action on the two new applications, legally assume financial responsibility and passed a resolution suspending the applications of two others who were granted permission for post-graduate courses at a previous meeting of the board.

Applications for attendance at school by Thelma Ridgeway, Charles Ama, Jean Watson and Patience Northrup were granted by the board.

Bids for a new two-inch galvanized wrought iron water service were read by the district clerk, and the contract awarded to Clarence N. Hubbs, low bidder, with a bid of $69.00.

An order amounting to $36.00 for the J. G. Wilson Corporation, for venetian blinds in the office of the supervising principal, was passed by the board.

The question of making up the thirteen school days missed, due to the delayed opening of school, was discussed and Miss Staman was delegated to make up a new school calendar for the balance of the term, to be submitted to the board for their approval at the next meeting.

The report of Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal, showed an enrollment of 308 at the opening of school—152 boys and 154 girls.

The report further read in part as follows:

"Every care is being taken to keep the children in a healthy condition and the school free from any sort of infection. Dr. Rogers addressed the teachers on the nature of infantile paralysis symptoms, and the necessity for extraordinary watchfulness at this time. Seven children were sent to his office for examination, and five were excluded because of colds. The nurses made several calls at the homes of children reported. Parents were asked not to take children to Philadelphia during the weekend. Regular medical inspection will start this week."

"Both pupils and teachers are enjoying the building improvements and are working with a good will in their cheerful surroundings."

"Several teachers have learned to operate the moving picture projector so that full use may be made of our facilities for visual education."

"Miss Justice, Miss Rothbart and Miss Staman attended summer schools. Our school was closed this afternoon to enable the teachers to attend the annual Burlington County Institute, at Burlington."

"A reception to parents and teachers will be given in the school auditorium on the evening of October 17, by the Parent-Teacher Association. Dr. Roscoe West will give the address."

The following bills were ordered paid:
Mellin Sign & Stamp Co., rubber stamp	$2.00
World Book Co., books	3.76
Beckley-Cady Co., books	7.34
Edw. H. Griffith, Jr., filing etc.	6.85

Harry Birkhead

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for Harry R. Birkhead, who died at his home, 419 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, Wednesday evening of last week.

Interment was made in the Cinnaminson Cemetery under the direction of Frank A. Snover. The Rev. Arthur S. Lewis, pastor of Christ P. E. Church, Riverton, officiated.

Mr. Birkhead is survived by his widow, Mrs. Irma Birkhead; a son, Harry, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Birkhead. He was production manager at the R. C. A. Victor plant, Camden.

H. B. WILLIAMS BACK FROM TRIP

Local Coal Dealer and Wife Tour New England and Nova Scotia

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Williams, of 616 Highland avenue, Palmyra, returned on Saturday from a four weeks' motor trip through New England, Canada and Nova Scotia. The itinerary carried them over 4,200 miles of road and touched upon many beautiful and interesting points of travel.

The travelers left Palmyra on September 4th and worked their way through the New England states, stopping several days in the White Mountains. They drove their car to the summit of Mt. Washington, a climb of 6,200 feet. The temperature registered 22 degrees above zero and many persons were vainly trying to keep warm.

Other stops were made in Houlton and Calais, Maine, on the journey northward.

Mr. Williams was impressed with Nova Scotia and toured most every mile of the province, staying in Halifax, Sydney and Glace Bay. Sydney, a city of approximately 25,000 population, ranks next to Halifax in size. Glace Bay is as large as Sydney but is only called a "town." Inquiry revealed that to change to city government would involve considerable cost and the inhabitants were therefore content to be styled a town.

Nova Scotia has a mixture of industries including coal mining, apple growing, gypsum mining, fishing and lobster trapping. Mr. and Mrs. Williams arrived several days after a terrific storm had struck and ruined the apple crop with a loss of $1,000,000 worth of apples, and the sinking of a ship off the coast with a loss of two lives.

The weather was described by Mr. Williams as being delightfully pleasant and the trip most interesting.

The return trip was made down through Maine, over the Bear Mountain bridge, with a stopover at High Point, New Jersey, before coming home.

SACRED HEART PTA TO NOMINATE OFFICERS

Executive Committee Will Meet Prior to Regular Business Meeting

The regular meeting of the Sacred Heart P.T.A. will be held Thursday, October 13, at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the parochial school.

The nomination of officers will take place at this meeting so it is hoped that every member of the P.T.A. will try to be present as several topics of importance are to be discussed.

It is urgently requested by the president, Mrs. R. E. Sanford, that the executive body meet promptly at 2:30.

Following the meeting Mrs. John Strohm and her committee will serve refreshments.

Publicity Committee.

TENNIS CUP WINNERS

The Borough Property Committee wishes to express its appreciation to Miss Ella Bussell, John Fuller and Vincent Hackett for having put up the cups they won last year, in the Memorial Park Tennis Tournament, to be played for again this year.

There was some misunderstanding last year as to the cups being for one or more years. The gracious offer of the above folks eased this situation. However, should any of these cups never be won three times by the same person before they are replaced, they will revert and be surrendered to the original owners.

J. ELMER HAHN.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to those who sent cars and flowers to the funeral of Benjamin F. Bates and to those who assisted with the funeral arrangements.

MRS. F. B. WARD.

TAXPAYERS WILL ORGANIZE UNIT

Riverton, Cinnaminson Townships Will Meet October 17 in Fire House

A meeting was held at the Riverton Country Club Monday evening for the purpose of laying plans for the organization in Riverton and Cinnaminson Township of a local unit of the Taxpayers Association to affiliate with the state and county association.

The meeting was called to order by James S. Coale, who is vice president of the County Association. Mr. Coale outlined the purposes of the Association, pointing out particularly that its work would be along constructive lines, undertaken in a spirit of friendliness and cooperation. Joseph Beck Tyler, who is a member of the local committee appointed by the County Association, said that almost without exception, officials had welcomed the assistance and backing of the Association in bringing about reductions in public expenditures which they had been unable to accomplish single-handed.

Mr. Coale further declared that organization was necessary for the success of any project, and that taxpayers had been unable to check the growing extravagance of governmental operations, local, state and national, because they were not organized.

Open to All Taxpayers

The Association is non-political, is opposed to all increases in taxation, favors reduction in all taxes so far as can be done without impairment of efficiency, and all taxpayers are eligible to membership.

Mr. Coale said that so far as Riverton and Cinnaminson were concerned, there was little need of such an association, as the affairs of these two municipalities were administered by a group of men who had considered their expenditures carefully and spent their money wisely, but, he said, local units are necessary everywhere to strengthen the county and state associations in their fight against waste and extravagance.

Mayor William E. Bennett pointed out a seemingly unnecessary expenditure of public funds in the recent order of the State Board of Education demanding that all school buses be painted yellow. The cost to one municipality, he said, had been $4,000. He said he understood that the County Superintendent of Schools had threatened to withhold state school money from boards of education which did not comply with the order.

Mr. Bennett cited as evidence of the efficiency of concerted effort, the defeat of the project sponsored by the Riverton Board of Education to saddle the taxpayers with a $350,000 school house. He said he had watched the progress of the proposition, hoping some action would be taken to defeat it, but that up until within a few days of the election nothing had been done. Then, he said, four men started an opposition movement which resulted in the defeat of the project.

This, he thought, would have been a proper matter for the local Taxpayers Association to handle, had one been in existence at that time.

Lower Water Rates Sought

Another thing which Mr. Bennett thought would properly come under the jurisdiction of the local Association is the high water rates paid for municipal use and private consumption. He said that for some time he had been gathering material which he would lay before the Public Utilities Commission, but that the backing of an organized local public sentiment would greatly strengthen his position in making the appeal.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS NOW UNDER WAY

Riverton P.T.A. Deviates from Usual Routine of Annual Drive

The membership drive of the Riverton Parent-Teacher Association started this week and will be completed by the time of the reception to parents and teachers on Monday, October 17.

Instead of asking that the dues (fifty cents) be sent to the school as before, this year the room chairmen are taking the opportunity of making the drive the occasion of a friendly call on the mothers.

Each room chairman has a list of parents of the class but there will be no duplication of calls, as the lists have been carefully revised. However, if any parent has been omitted from the lists, please send the dues to the school or notify your chairman. The chairman will be glad to supply extra programs and to answer any questions about the plans for the P.T.A. year.

And, remember, the P.T.A. means the fathers and the mothers and the teachers and those who are interested in the Riverton school, all working together for the children's greatest good. JOIN NOW!

Miss Parker's room is represented by Mrs. George Friday and Mrs. Joseph Turnock; Miss Justice's by Mrs. Lloyd Major; Miss Evans's by Mrs. Stanley Stewart and Mrs. Cunningham; Miss Clark's by Mrs. R. M. Woodward and Mrs. Merle Schaff; Miss Rothbart's by Mrs. Blum; Miss Paulding's by Mrs. Porter Caldwell; Mrs. Murgatroy's by Mrs. Kauffman; Mrs. Williams by Mrs. Grim; Mrs. Bush's by Mrs. Stetson; Miss Lippincott's by Mrs. Howell; Mr. Rank's by Mrs. Joseph Friday and Miss Emery's by Mrs. Hyler.

PALMYRA B. S. HEAR ARMY MAN

C. W. MacAehren Delivers Interesting Address to Troop Members

C. W. MacAehren, of Delaware Gardens, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2, Palmyra, Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. MacAehren is retired at the age of sixty, after serving more than thirty years in the United States Army. He has been active service in every war during that time and has been on duty at practically every army post in this country and abroad.

Mr. MacAehren has been around the world twice and has been in charge of some of the largest United States army prisons. He was Scout Master of two troops in Brooklyn, N. Y., and at the present time is leading and training a Junior Bugle Corps in Delaware Gardens. This corps took first prize in a recent competition held at the Legion Convention, Camden.

The army man's address greatly interested the boys and proved to be helpful to them.

Coming Events

Tuesday, October 11, Meeting of County Executive Board.

Thursday, October 13, Examination of sea scouts for apprentice seaman ratings.

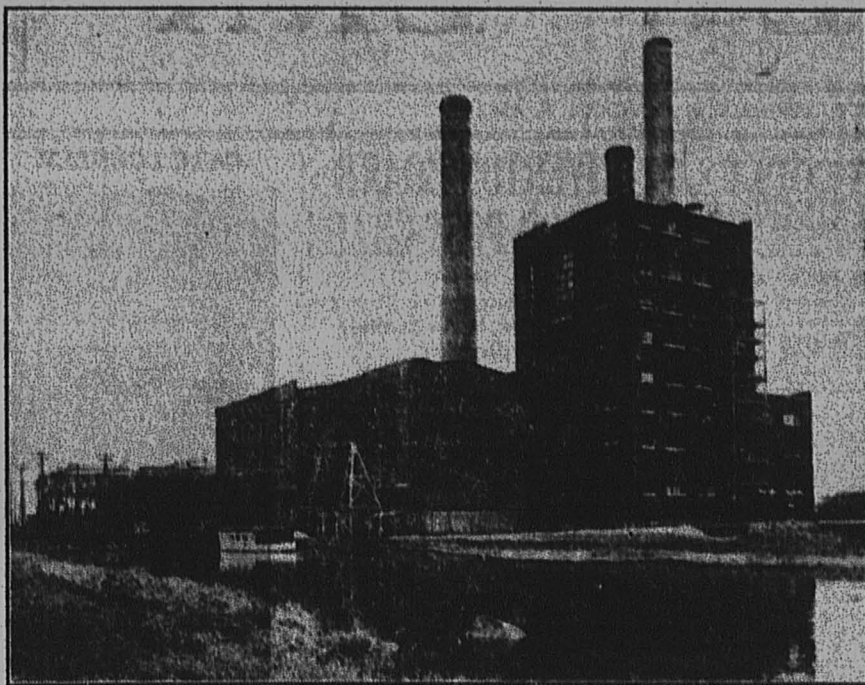

Thursday, October 20, Double investiture service. This service will be held in the Lutheran Church, Palmyra, and the general public is cordially invited to be present.

PRESIDENT

Huge Boiler, More Than 100 Feet in Height, Requires Seven-Story Addition to Burlington Electric Station

TOWERING more than 100 feet above the ground a boiler, which is one of the largest steam making units in the United States, has recently been installed at Burlington Generating Station of Public Service Electric and Gas Company. In order to house the boiler it was necessary to construct a seven story addition shown at the right in the above photograph of the station.

In twenty-four hours this boiler can produce 14,400,000 pounds of steam at a pressure of 675 pounds. This is a greater capacity than the combined output of ten boilers originally installed at the station. Which the new unit displaces.

The boiler is large enough to furnish sufficient steam to heat approximately 10,400 seven room houses.

STROKE FATAL TO REV. JOHN MASON

Former Pastor of Palmyra
Methodist Episcopal Church
Died Suddenly

News of the death of the Rev. John R. Mason, pastor of Pearsonville Methodist Episcopal Church, White Horse near Trenton, a former pastor in Palmyra, was received here last week with genuine regret by the many friends he made during the four and one half years he spent in the community.

The Rev. Mr. Mason was 70 years old. His death was very sudden, following a paralytic stroke on Wednesday of last week.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Pearsonville Church, with Dr. Alexander Edmon, superintendent, of Trenton District, officiating.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ellen Mason, one daughter, Lila Mason, three brothers and two sisters. They are Elias S. Mason, president of the undertaking firm of John Crawford Company, Camden; the Rev. A. H. Mason, of Genesee, N. Y.; Charles T. Mason, chief clerk in the office of the general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad in New York; Mrs. John Perkins and Mrs. O. L. Carr, of South Amboy.

The Rev. Mr. Mason was admitted to the Conference in 1880 and first served as pastor of the Asbury M. E. Church. He was pastor of First Church, Collingswood, from 1900 to 1912. His next charge was at First Church, Millville, from 1913 to 1918. He was corresponding secretary of the Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society from 1920 to 1924. He was pastor at Moorestown from 1925 to 1929. He also held pastorates at Winslow, Mulliken Hill, sea Isle City, Pointville and Wrightstown, New York. He also held pastorates at Kingston, Ranocas and Masonville.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD WILL HOLD ALL DAY MEETING ON TUESDAY

The Palmyra Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold an all-day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Elvin L. Powell, 101 Memorial avenue, Palmyra, Tuesday, October 11, at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Powell is desirous of having a large meeting and it is hoped that everyone will make an effort to come out and lend a hand in this splendid work.

A business meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m.

The annual gathering of garments will be held Thursday, November 2.

I. O. O. F. NOTES

At the regular meeting of Cinnaminson Lodge, No. 201, I. O. O. F., Friday evening in Society Hall, Fred Hendler, Charles Saitner, William Nash, and Harry Fish, were selected prospectors for the Red Arrow Old Rush. These boys will be glad to receive Red Arrow Money stubs at any time.

A doggie roast will be held at Schmierer's farm, Beverly, Saturday, October 15, from 3:00 p. m. until dark.

At the meeting tomorrow evening the degree team will hold rehearsal for initiation work.

The quilt and chess teams are now going strong.

The chess club started last week and members seem very much interested in the game. Pinochle, bridge and table tennis are also greatly enjoyed by the men.

Installation of officers will be held Friday evening, October 14 and initiation will take place on October 21.

While waiting in jail at Charlottesville, Va., to begin a two-year prison sentence for robbery, Marion Gibson, Jr., was married.

Taxpayers Will Organize Unit

As another striking illustration of the effectiveness of organized effort, Mr. Coale referred to the recent attempt to pass in the New Jersey Legislature a bill repealing the mandatory salary and tenure of office laws. He said he understood that everything was all set to repeal these two measures, when the State Teachers' Association swooped down on the legislature 8000 strong and the repeal bills were defeated. One of the legislators afterwards said, "Well, what could we do? Here were 8000 women solidly lined up against the repeal, and not a word from those who favored the bill! Where were you and the others who wanted to see these bills passed?"

Industries Driven from State
In further commenting on the necessity for the organization of taxpayers' associations, Mr. Coale said that New Jersey was one of the highest taxed states in the Union, and that it was having a serious effect on industries, which were actually being driven out of the state, resulting in more unemployment and all the ills that follow in its train.

Quoting from a letter just issued by Norman F. S. Russell, president of the Burlington County Taxpayers Association, Mr. Coale stated that through the efforts of the County Association district school expenses had been cut $21,476.00, and county expenditures $110,812.00. This was in addition, he said, to $50,000 that had already been cut off before the Association offered its cooperation.

Purposes of Association
The aims and purposes of the Association, as set forth in the president's letter, are as follows:

The State Association is opposed to any new form of taxation until every possible means to reduce the extravagant and wasteful expenditure of public funds and unnecessary and superfluous personnel have been exhausted. The State Association will continue and greatly enlarge its campaign for a reduction in the cost of government.

It is working for the repeal of all mandatory laws fixing the tenure of office, personnel, or rate of pay of public employees in counties and subdivisions thereof, including those of Boards of Education.

It is opposed to the continuation of the State mandate requiring counties and municipalities to match State grants in like amount or any portion thereof.

It is urging that all State expenditures of departments, divisions and bureaus be approved by the State Comptroller and paid by the State Treasurer instead of handling their own finances as at present.

This Association is thus not interested in NEW SOURCES OF INCOME, but MORE ECONOMIC government.

Committees Appointed
On motion of Benjamin S. Mechleng, Monday evening, October 17, was set as the date for a public meeting in the Riverton Fire House to effect a permanent organization.

Mr. Coale appointed the following temporary committees to function until the permanent organization is effected:

Attendance: H. H. Murray, chairman, and all those in attendance at the meeting.

Nominations: Joseph Beck Tyler, J. Carl DeLaCour, Harry E. Davis, Charles B. Jousup, Walter S. Woolman, Howard M. Rogers, Edward S. Wood.

By-laws: B. S. Mechleng, W. A. Hendrickson, H. M. Kleckhefer.

Publicity: Walter L. Bowen.

The following were elected: George C. Baker, supervising principal, Moorestown; Maja C. Mathis, supervising principal, Florence; C. F. Dengler, supervising principal, Palmyra.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a new efficiency man took charge of an iron foundry in Ohio lately. He posted a lot of new signs to make the men work harder. One sign said, "Any man caught smoking around this foundry will be fired immediately."

So, one day, as the new efficiency manager was walking in to hang up his hat, he seen a man in overalls smoking a cigarette where some goods was being unloaded.

"Here," says the manager, "you seen that sign over there, didn't you?"

"Sure I seen it."

"Well, I'm going to make an example of you. What's your pay per week?"

"Thirty-five dollars."

"All right, here's a thirty-five cents."

The man stuffed the thirty-five cents into his pocket and said "Thanks."

"Now, go," says the efficiency man. "You're fired. That's the way I dispose of such inefficiency."

"Well, excuse me," says the man, "but I ain't fired that I know of. I work for the express company, and I'm just waitin' here for to get this receipt signed. But I appreciate the thirty-five bucks, anyhow."

Active Campaign for the President

PLAN BIG MEETING
LATER IN MONTH

Ladies' Radio Meeting to be Held in Society Hall, Friday

The Palmyra Hoover Republican Club has been organized with the following officers:

President, Walter D. Lamon; secretary, George M. Rife; and treasurer, Frank A. Shover.

The club has hung a huge Republican banner across Cinnaminson avenue and plans to arrange Republican headquarters, probably in the Schwartz building, on Broad street, in the near future.

More than fifty members have already joined the organization and it is planned to increase the number to more than three hundred immediately.

Plan Big Meeting
A big public meeting is to be held on or about October 26 and the following committee on arrangements has been appointed: Rex McCrosson, chairman; James T. Weart and Carl Thomas.

This Friday evening, October 7, there will be a Republican mass meeting in the armory at Burlington and Friday afternoon at 3:30 a ladies' radio meeting will be held in Society Hall, Palmyra, at which time an address by President Hoover will be broadcast.

A committee to arrange the ladies' meeting was named as follows: Mrs. Florence Saur, Mrs. Mary Klus, Mrs. Kilpatrick and Mrs. Weiland.

Hoover Gaining Ground

Republican nominee for sheriff, George N. Wimer, addressed the club, declaring that Republican prospects had been steadily improving during the past few weeks. He called attention to the fact that both Palmyra and Riverton had benefited from the Hoover R.F.C. through the loans made to the Building and Loan Associations.

Rex McCrosson also delivered a stirring speech, declaring the American people should return President Hoover to office because he is closely acquainted with the difficulties of the nation and therefore better able to cope with them. Much progress also had been made by the Republican administration and the good work should be allowed to continue.

Mr. McCrosson also recommended united support of Senator Barbour for reelection, declaring him a straightforward representative of the people.

The Republican Club will meet every Wednesday evening at P.O.S.O.A. Hall till further notice.

CINNAMINSON SCHOOL NOTES

Fortunately, none of the families in this locality have been visited by the dreaded paralysis, and once more, after an added three weeks vacation, both schools in Cinnaminson are again at work.

The enrollment in school number two is 239. In school number four, 144. Several mothers have preferred to keep their children at home for a short time, feeling that all danger is not past.

Twenty-seven beginners in No. 2, making 100 in the class. Some of these will move to the first grade in a short time. Last year's sub-primary is now doing good work in this grade, having been well fitted for the change by the faithful work of the sub-primary teacher.

The personnel of school No. 2 is unchanged. Miss Stewart and Miss Steese returning as Mrs. Evert and Mrs. Clark, having taken wedding trips as their summer outings. Miss Bryan spent part of her vacation camping in the Poconos. Miss Eagen is bubbling over with the thrills of a trip through the West, where she enjoyed the games at Los Angeles, en route.

Miss Emory divided her time between North Jersey and Maryland. Misses Parker, Rush, Rogers and Mrs. Cithens, resided at home. Miss Bowen, after a tonal operation recuperated in the country.

All are pleased with the manner in which the children came back, and settled down to work, several remarking that their pupils might be returning from a "weekend" instead of a long vacation.

School No. 4, has Miss Turner, who comes from the State Teachers' College at Trenton, in place of Mr. Paul. Mrs. Young received her degree from Rutgers.

All are pleased to have the dependable corps of teachers back again.

RECEPTION TO RECTOR

Invitations have been issued for the reception to Dr. and Mrs. Daniel G. MacKinnon in the parish house of Christ Church tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. MacKinnon came to Palmyra during the past summer to assume the rectorship of the church here.

All members of the church are asked to make a special effort to be present tomorrow evening to greet the new rector and his wife.

Six youths arrested in Plainfield, N. J., posted a spare tire as a bond for their appearance in court to answer traffic violations charges.

MARRIED 50 YEARS

MR. AND MRS. JAMES M. MATHEWS
Moorestown couple who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday. They will be given a dinner Sunday at the Log Cabin Lodge, Medford Lakes. They make their home with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Rae W. Lockwood.

WILL FETE PAIR IN MOORESTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews, Married
50 Years, to be Honored on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Mathews, who celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Tuesday, will be feted by a party of thirty-five relatives and friends at a dinner to be given in their honor at Log Cabin Lodge, Medford Lakes, Sunday.

The happy couple, whose golden wedding anniversary is to be formally celebrated Sunday, enjoyed a quiet day with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. W. Lockwood, of East Main street, Moorestown, on their anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews, who are enjoying excellent health, although Mr. Mathews was seriously ill last summer but has fully recovered, have made their home with the Lockwoods for the past five years, moving to Moorestown from Warren, Pa., where they were married fifty years ago Tuesday.

Mr. Mathews, who is 77 years old, was in oil business at Warren for more than twenty-five years. He retired about twelve years ago. Mrs. Mathews, who was Miss Delphine Young of Warren, before her marriage a half century ago, is 67 years old. The couple have three daughters. They are Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. C. Brook Wallace, East Central avenue, Moorestown, and Mrs. D. T. Lewis of Maplewood. There are ten grandchildren, who are:

Ray Webster Lockwood, Jr., William Dickson Lockwood, James Wallace, Rita Wallace, of Moorestown; C. Brook Wallace, Jr., and Mrs. Lewis Jacoby, the former Miss Bernice Wallace, both of Riverton; David T. Lewis, Jr., Betty Lewis, Carolyn Lewis and William Lewis, of Maplewood.

AFTERNOON TEA ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 10

An afternoon tea will be held Monday afternoon under the auspices of the Garden Department of the Woman's Club of Palmyra in the club rooms, Society Hall, Palmyra.

Mrs. E. H. Barnes, of Haddonfield, will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be "Pools in Our Gardens." Mrs. Ralph Rivers will be the soloist.

Members and their guests are cordially invited to be present at 2:30 o'clock.

A most delightful program has been arranged by the chairman, Mrs. Robert K. Snow, and her committee.

COUNTY HOSPITAL DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Every Citizen Urged to Make Effort to Subscribe
Next Week

The annual maintenance drive of the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, will start on October 9 and will be carried through to October 15.

The organization of the drive is again in the hands of Alfred E. Darnell, of Medford, a member of the Board of Management, who has been connected with the hospital for many years. The county has been carefully organized and apportioned into districts, and each district is under the leadership of a chairman whose interest in the hospital and its work has been shown for some time past.

Districts and chairmen are as follows: Mount Holly, Edward H. Lewis; Walter I. Dill; Burlington, Miss Margaret S. Haines; Columbus, John V. Bishop; Medford, Mrs. Lawrence G. Mingle; Marlton, Joseph Stokes Evans; Tabernacle, Mrs. Marion Snow; Pemberton and Jullustown, Nelson B. Morton; New Lisbon and Browns Mills, Franklin S. Chambers; Burlington township, C. Clarence Deacon; Riverton, James S. Coale; Moorestown, Robert C. Smith and Mrs. J. Blipham Stokes; Wrightstown and Chesterfield township, D. S. H. Crosshaw; Crosswicks and Cookstown, Mrs. Gertrude Brick; Palmyra, Mrs. Arthur Palmer; Bordentown, John H. Hutchinson; Smithville, John Botcher; Florence, George Pfeiffer; Hainesport, Mrs. John Bridgeham; Vincentown, Mrs. Helen P. Cowgill; Chatsworth, Mrs. Maud Applegate; Riverside, Charles J. Krug, Jr.; Lambertown, B. Frank Clayberger; Jobstown, Mrs. Isaac H. Hutchinson.

Beverly, Rancocas, Edgewater Park and Bridgeboro not yet selected. As has been pointed out in previous articles released by the hospital, every effort has been made to keep the cost of operation within the income of the hospital, and notwithstanding the fact that the free work which the hospital must give has increased very much over previous years, the hospital has balanced its budget and is giving to the county a service never before received.

Every citizen of Burlington county should make an effort to subscribe to this drive for although different communities have their interests of high merit, the one county organization in which everyone should be interested is the hospital, standing out as it does, offering its services to rich and poor alike in its great work of alleviation of pain and prevention of disease.

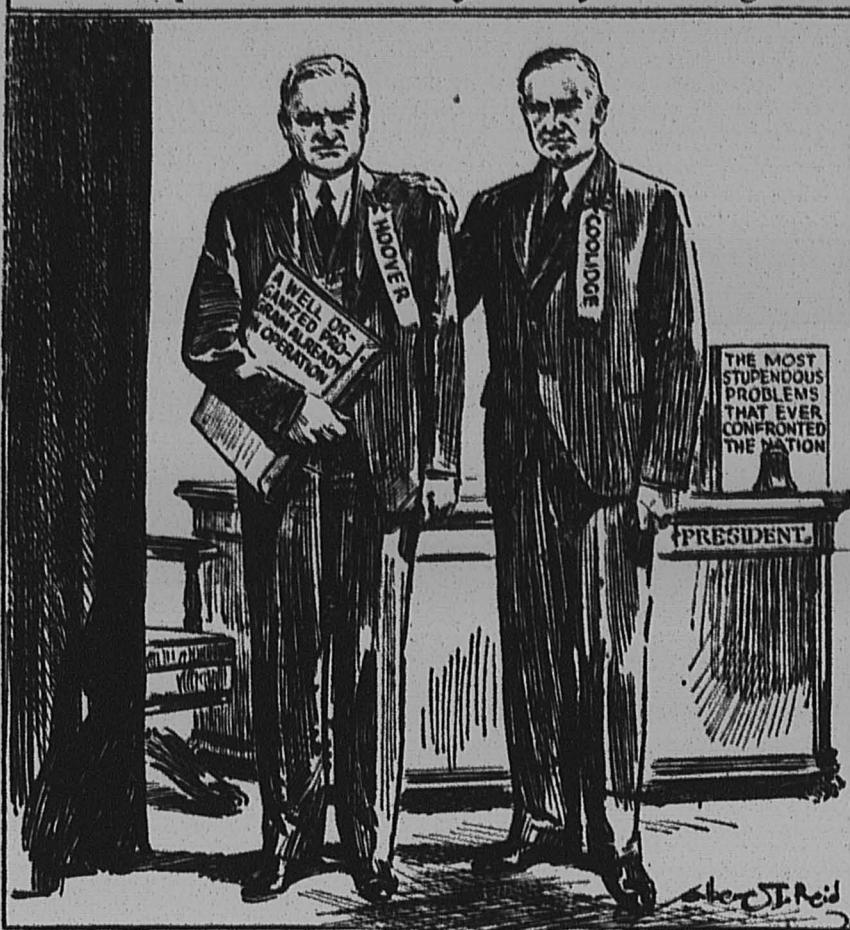

ELIZABETH RHOADS WINS RESPONSIBLE DUAL POST IN PHILA.

Miss Elizabeth Rhoads, of Riverton road, Moorestown, is now holding a dual post, having recently been appointed executive secretary of the Philadelphia Association of Tuberculosis Clinics in addition to being information secretary of the Philadelphia Health Council and Tuberculosis Committee.

She holds the twin position because of the close inter-relationship between the organizations. She is planning to hold a special course of instruction for tuberculous nurses in Philadelphia, to be given later in the season.

Miss Rhoads was for one year a member of the staff of the Philadelphia Visiting Nurse Society.

Riverside Committee Asks
Board of Freeholders to Widen Road

The Riverside Township Committee at its meeting last week requested the county freeholders to remove the trolley tracks from the River road between Fairview street and Chester avenue and widen the road for that distance.

This movement is connected with the plan to have the River road, also known as St. Michel drive, widened all the way from Riverton to Riverside and it is thought that action toward that end will soon be taken.

The Township Committee also decided to rebuild the bridge over the Run, at the end of Polk street near the sewer plant and town dump. The town's unemployed will be used for labor as far as possible.

The Riverside police force has been busy marking out new traffic lines at the school buildings and on Pavilion avenue.

The township is contemplating asking a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. At the board of health meeting it was reported there is no scarlet fever in town and only one case of influenza.

HOOVER'S GREAT ADDRESS

President Hoover's powerful address in Iowa Tuesday has silenced many critics of the Republican administration and gained hundreds of thousands of votes.

As the campaign goes on, increasing numbers of voters are realizing it is not only unjust, but foolish, to blame President Hoover for the depression which started with the stock market crash which occurred before he was fairly settled in the White House.

Mr. Hoover took office March 4, 1929, and the crash came early in the fall of the same year, caused by world-wide economic causes accumulated during the years following the great war.

The sensible patriot can only feel thankful to the Hoover administration that conditions did not become infinitely worse than they did. With the cool guiding hand of a great administrator at the helm of the nation, the United States was saved from the total collapse of its monetary and economic system.

Recovery has already started and the fair minded citizen can but say, "Let the good work continue."

STOP THE "CHISELING"

The following editorial appeared recently in the "National Petroleum News". It was written by the editor, Warren C. Platt, who is also president of the "Association Business Papers".

Now that business seems to be or may be near the upturn, it is time to lend every warranted encouragement to every warranted increase in prices. The climax for lower prices should cease and a serious effort be made by everyone to get prices up. There probably are mighty few instances where higher prices are not directly needed to put industry on its feet.

We have had more than two years of fighting and loud demand from almost everyone for lower and still lower prices. The result is that most businesses are running at a loss. Costs have been cut and recut; salaries and wages have been reduced even many times in a single company; people have been laid off and companies shut, some of them for good.

Certainly we have had about all the weeding out that the mostly unintelligent demand for lower prices has demanded.

It is time for the "chiselers" to stop "chiseling". It is time for the head of the business to go to those in charge of his buying and say:

"Our salesmen are daily up against a lot of 'chiselers' who are getting our prices lower and lower until it is a question whether we eat next week or not. The other man's salesmen are coming in here and I suppose they are subjected to the same 'chiseling' process; at all events I know that the companies that sell us pumps, and tanks, and pipe, paint, barrels and automotive equipment and all the rest of it, are mighty hard up and are laying off a lot of heretofore good gasoline customers. A little bit more off their prices and they will be through, and then it won't make any difference how cheaply we may buy stuff, we won't have anyone we can sell to at any price. So pay the other man a reasonable price—no more than our competitors pay but no less."

Some such message should be given in person by the head of every business in this country. We say this without reflection on purchasing departments. These same heads of business who are bemoaning their lowering and unprofitable sales prices are also demanding of their purchasing departments still more cutting of purchasing expenses. These heads forget that they have a dual role, one as seller and the other as buyer. They have forgotten that if 25,000 important companies in this country are going to sell at a profit, they must buy at a profit to the other man. Because they are all buying and selling to each other.

Industries might well get together and agree to stop "chiseling" and pay fair prices. That would be far more effective than to get together about raising prices, if any of them are. With all companies taking less of a "hard boiled" attitude toward salesmen, there would at once be a change in the business atmosphere. Salesmen would be encouraged and would do a better job of selling. We do not mean that the salesmen should go around and put on a charity sales talk, but that they should be given firm bottom prices, the same to all, and the buyer should recognize such firmness and not try to break it down.

A sympathetic and encouraging attitude toward all price advances today will hurry up our returning industrial health.

AUNT SALLY KEEN

"What, not votin', Annabelle? Bout in Tuff's administration near as I kin remember—twenty-one, aren't you?"

"You're right, Aunt Sally, but why waste my perfectly good time votin' Politics are so rotten—that's what I've heard."

"Un! Politics is just like cookin', I alius sed, and I've seen a heap of rotten cookin' in my day. When you put in good ingredients and handle 'em right, you get good results. Becuz I was wastin' my time 'this mornin', usin' your own words, you're eatin' your third helpin' o' apple pie right this minute."

"Oh, but Aunt Sally, this is such a gorgeous pie I just can't help eatin' it."

"Mebbe so, Child, mebbe so, but, if I'd a choosen steakin', spotty apples that were bad at the core the pie wouldn't a been fit to eat. I do my own pickin', Annabelle, an' it's the same with politics. You get good results when you do your own selectin'."

2000 AT CONCERT OF MEMORIAL PARK

Splendid Attendance Marks Opening Program of Carillon Mautert

An attendance of more than two thousand people last Sunday afternoon heard the opening carillon concert, of a series of six, by Bernard R. Mautert, famous carillonneur, at Lakeview Memorial Park.

Mr. Mautert's program of sacred and classical music included a number of original adaptations of old masterpieces specially arranged for the great carillon at the memorial park, largest of its kind in the world. The mellow tones of the bells coming from the carillon tower overlooking the beautiful memorial park were easily audible from all parts of the grounds and can be heard for miles around the countryside. The carillon console has a keyboard of forty-nine notes.

Perfect weather added to the enjoyment of the program and allowed the large audience to stroll about or sit on the grass of the shady glens and drive through the memorial park. Many of the audience, however, listened from cars parked along the winding avenues threading over the grounds. Visitors came from all the South Jersey counties and from Pennsylvania as well. The concert began at 3:00 p. m. and continued for a full hour.

Next Sunday, October 9, at the same hour—3:00 p. m.—Mr. Mautert will give the second of the series of six carillon concerts. The program will include Chopin's "Vision" and Haydn's "Austrian Hymn" and the Theme from Symphony Number 20, "Let Me Weep," by Handel, and Mendelssohn's "Song Without Words." A number of favorite hymns will also be played, including "I Need Thee Every Hour," by Ball of Our Fathers, by Faber; Newman's "Lead Kindly Light," and "Softly Now the Light of Day," by Doane.

Lakeview Memorial Park is easily accessible from all parts of South Jersey, being located on the Burlington Pike a half-mile north of the Riverton-Moorestown road.

FORD V-8 LEADS NATIONAL SALES

Outsell All Competitors by Wide Margin According to Fortunum Agency

Since June when volume deliveries of the new Ford V-8 cars began, Ford has led all competitors by a wide margin in sales of passenger cars, commercial vehicles and trucks, according to official figures reported by Lester B. Fortunum Agency, of Palmyra, local Ford dealer.

Ford took the lead in national motor car sales in June, increased his lead in July, as production of the new Fords mounted, and maintained the lead throughout August, according to reports for that month already received from 34 states. William J. Kraus declared in addition to the latest reports also reveal that Ford led in sales in the largest cities during the first 10 days of September.

In June, the first month when volume deliveries of the New Ford cars were available, Ford's share of total passenger car sales in the United States reached 35.9 per cent, as compared with 24.9 per cent for its nearest competitor. Ford commercial cars were 50.9 per cent of all such vehicles sold, as compared with 37.8 per cent for its nearest competitor, while Ford trucks represented 56.7 per cent of all truck sales, as compared with 37.6 per cent for the nearest competitor.

Ford sales in July, as revealed by official registrations, mounted over June figures and Ford's share of the business was increased. Ford passenger car sales reached 38.4 per cent of the total business as compared with 34.3 for its nearest competitor. Ford commercial cars were 54.4 per cent of all cars sold, giving Ford a greater percentage of the total business than any other manufacturer. The Ford share of national truck sales was 54.4 per cent as compared with 37.1 per cent for its nearest competitor.

The reporting of registrations in August in the various states is not complete but on the basis of reports thus far received from 34 states, Ford sales again lead the field. Since volume deliveries of the new Fords began in June, Ford has accounted for 35.9 per cent of all new passenger car sales in New Jersey as compared with 24.9 per cent for its nearest competitor, Mr. Kraus added. Ford sold 4,485 of the total of 12,527

GENERAL CARE OF TREES AND SHRUBS

By WINSTON E. PARKER
Landscape Forester

The science of arboriculture has made great strides in the past decade, but it is astonishing how many people still do not have the faintest idea of the needs of their trees and shrubs. Much of the care which should be given them is merely a matter of common sense. In spite of this, however, the actual administering of such care is often best left to skilled train workers, as they are best able to do such work at a minimum of cost and effort. Other care can only be given by those having a technical knowledge of plant life and its enemies.

One of the most commonly overlooked facts is that trees and shrubs, like all other living things, need food and water. It is probably safe to say that the majority of our trees, especially, are suffering from malnutrition in a greater or less degree. The chemical elements essential to plant life become exhausted from the soil as a result either of constant assimilation by the plants or through natural leaching from the soil. When this occurs, these elements must be replaced if our trees, shrubs, and flowers are to make a normal health growth.

Smaller plants generally suffer less than trees because of the fact that we have learned the necessity of fertilization for bioma and because we often broadcast fertilizer on the surface of the ground in a mistaken belief that we are feeding everything. This method benefits the trees little, because most of it is absorbed by the grass and shallow-rooted plants before it can penetrate to the tree roots. To feed trees we must insert the food into the soil.

Many times, even though the essential elements are restored to the soil, they are rendered inefficient due to lack of water. Soil nutrients can be utilized by plants only when in solution. Consequently, lack of water means also lack of food.

The trimming of trees and shrubs is often slighted, if not completely overlooked. By trimming, I mean not only the removal of dead wood, but such thinning, shaping, and training, as may be required from time to time. Since common wood decaying fungi cannot gain access except through dead limbs, injuries, and wounds, it is obvious that if these avenues are closed by care, most of the destructive decay can be avoided. Since it costs little to keep trees especially in good condition, and considerable to undertake surgery, the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" holds true.

Spraying constitutes the last form of general care to which trees and shrubs are entitled. Many insects and foliage diseases seriously weaken and devastate these plants, and in most instances can be controlled or checked by timely spraying. Obviously, this can only be done by those having a knowledge of entomology and pathology.

If you would have your trees and shrubs healthy and attractive in appearance, attention must be given to their proper trimming, spraying, and feeding. It will be well worth your time and money.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD BOY INJURED AS HE IS STRUCK BY AUTO

Henry Staats, 12 years old, who was reported injured when he ran in front of a car driven by Roland Handley, of Mill street, Moorestown, on Thursday, September 22, is suffering from a sprained chest, shattered bones in the chest, cuts about the face and body bruises. He is still under the care of a local physician.

The boy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Staats, of North Church street, Moorestown, ran from in back of a truck which was leaving the North Church street dump, into Handley's automobile.

X-ray photographs revealed the chest injuries received by the boy. Andrew Wisniewski, of Milwaukee, who is the father of 11 children, covered two of them in payment of a $33 debt to a furniture company.

The WORLD at the CROSSROADS

This is one in a series of articles on the world today by the youngest member of the Sherwood Eddy American Seminar, which spent the past summer studying present conditions in Europe under the guidance of over ninety leaders of economic, political, and social life. Questions or reactions will be welcome.

By DAVID S. RICHIE

THE LABOR PARTY

Crushed to the tune of 560 to 461! Who would expect such a party to rise again? From the party in power with 289 seats in Parliament, the 1931 election reduced the Labor representation to a mere handful of helpless critics of the present government from the Opposition benches. Repudiated, discouraged, hopeless, cynical over the betrayal of their leaders—thus the Laborites could have reacted to such a defeat. But they DIDN'T!

Instead, they are coming back stronger and surer than ever! They will not make those fatal mistakes and compromises that the previous minority government felt forced to make. They have learned their lesson and will wait until the time and power comes for them to carry through their constructive program.

But they have to start again from almost the same scratch as the Labor movement in the United States. That is why all those in America who are interested in building a better social order can learn so much from them. Here is an outline of the program of education and organization that they are carrying through right now.

1. They have 8,000,000 men organized as producers in Trade Unions. This, through collective bargaining and cooperation, they are seeking their just share of the material benefits that the Industrial Revolution ought to make available for the whole population.

2. They have 5,000,000 families organized as consumers in great Co-operatives. Thus, through collective action and cooperation, they are seeking their own just share of the material benefits of the Industrial Revolution, with the private profits of middlemen eliminated. Already these Co-operatives have an annual sales turnover of $2,500,000,000 and employ approximately 150,000 workers. And the consumers get all the benefits.

3. They have 20,000 adults organized as students in the British Labor Education Association. Thus, under fine professors from the universities, they are seeking to train a new leadership for the new social order, ready and willing to blaze the way toward social justice.

4. They have 7,000,000 members organized as voters in the British Labor Party. Thus, again, through collective action and cooperation, they are seeking to transform the government into that instrument for the welfare of the whole population that a government can and should be. And there is no talk about throwing away their vote either! Instead, they are in the midst of a campaign for 1,000,000 new members! They know that only by voting steadfastly for the only party with a definite program dedicated to the interests of every worker can they hope to build out of the ruins of last year's defeat a new and powerful enough political instrument to achieve social justice without Revolution. And already they have begun to win back their old seats in by-elections.

It is no wonder they feel the future of their nation lies ahead of them! It is no wonder they feel their Valley Forge is past! It makes me wonder how many Americans will have learned enough by November to vote for the only party devoted to the interests of every worker instead of throwing away their vote on either of the present major parties. Certainly the Labor Party is the hope of Britain! Perhaps it is also the hope of America!

WRITE FOR FREE COPY OF MICHELL BULB BOOK

It takes merely a postal request to get the most interesting, helpful guide to success with spring blooming bulbs and plants which we have seen in many a year. Michell's Seed House, 618 Market street, Philadelphia, will gladly send a copy of their new 1932 Bulb Book, which has 72 pages profusely illustrated, with color plates so natural that you seem to smell the fragrance of many of the blooms.

It is more than a catalog, it is a guide to the best varieties and contains instructions so clear that any amateur flower-lover can assure himself the finest of blooms indoors all through the winter, and outdoors from earliest spring until late May when flowers are rare and costly.

No large garden space is necessary. You can have Paper White Narcissus in bloom by Thanksgiving time by the water and pebble method and in continuous succession until Easter. Pot-ticus Narcissus, Roma Hyacinths, Dutch Miniature Hyacinths and Tulips of various types give you a wide range of color, form and fragrance in the home all winter long.

The 72-page book tells how to grow popular Dutch bulbs, lilies, and all the other gorgeous flowering bulbs, shows what seeds to sow in autumn and early winter, and gives information on flower-lover should fail to have. Send the postal for it today, before there is any chance of the supply being exhausted. Be sure to mention this paper.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 9, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Why are thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42: 11).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people" (Matthew 9: 35).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus established in the Christian era the precedent for all Christianity, theology, and healing. Christians are under no direct orders now as they were then, to be Christ-like, to possess the Christ-spirit, to follow the Christ-example, and to heal the sick as well as the sinning" (p. 138).

All the young people of the congregation are most cordially invited to join in the 7 o'clock meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, in the Church School auditorium.

On Friday at 6:30 p. m. the Golden Hour Circle will have a covered dish supper in the ladies' parlor. As this is the first meeting of the season a full attendance is urged.

RIVERTON ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parker, of 702 Perry avenue, Palmyra, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Remona Dolores Parker, October 3, at Mrs. Reger's Maternity Home, 408 Main street, Riverton.

Mrs. Eben Yennay is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Linton Martin, of Bristol, and several days with her son, Warren W. Yennay, of Ocean City.

Miss Ada James has now made her residence with Mrs. Rachel Rieger, 408 Main street, Riverton.

L. A. Flanagan has returned to his home at 207 Howard street, Riverton, after spending the summer in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Frank Hamlin entertained the NNN Club Tuesday evening.

John Hinkle returned on Sunday from a trip to the mountains of North Carolina, where he spent a month with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Willits and family returned to their home on Thomas avenue after spending the month at Brant Beach.

Mrs. Robert Biddle, 2nd, has returned after spending the summer at Bay-head.

The many friends of Fred G. Brown will be sorry to learn that he is quite sick at his home on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Yard, of Pennington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burr, Saturday.

Tom Brown in "Fast Companions" at the Broadway Theatre, Palmyra, this Friday evening is a picture that will interest both children and grown-ups.

L. A. Flanagan is disposing of a number of pieces of furniture, bedding, etc., at 207 Howard street. Interested persons may see Mr. Flanagan at the above address during the day. Phone 251 or 180. Mr. Flanagan has rented his property to J. R. Natsby, who will take possession October 15th.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

Although the Riverton school was several weeks late in opening due to infantile paralysis, the delay in no way dampened the spirits of the pupils, once they were inside of the school.

One of the first things to be done was the organization of a Student Council. This Council is made up from pupils holding offices in home room organizations. The officers and members of the Student Council are as follows: president, Lloyd Witter; vice-president, Frederick Freeman; treasurer, Warren Hubbs; secretary, Gene Glover; Mary Jane DeCoursey, Francis Cole and William Burgunder.

In the first assembly period a moving picture film was shown, giving a complete description of the production of the materials used in Breyer's ice cream.

The seventh and eighth grades are taking subscriptions for the Curtis publications this week.

Many clubs have been formed in the different home rooms and among them are a "Good Deed Club" in the third and fourth grades.

The sixth grade is making an extensive study of garden flowers.

Original plays are also having their place in the school activities. Among the athletic events, the girls have had three intra-mural hockey games so far, and the boys have organized a soccer team comprised of all the boys in the seventh and eighth grades.

WESLEYAN MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Last Sunday was Reading Z. Poinsett Sunday at the Wesleyan Men's Bible Class, and it was a great inspiration to Mr. Poinsett to have a body of 138 men come out to show him how they have appreciated his talks, efforts, and loyalty during the past two years.

James Davidson, in a very impressive talk, told of the good will and friendship that exists in the class and had words of highest praise for Mr. Poinsett.

A cornet solo was played by Edward Dages, of Palmyra.

Paul E. Grant, of Collingswood, rendered a violin solo. He also favored the class with a vocal solo at the close of the service.

DINNER-DANCE ON TUESDAY EVENING

Young Republicans of Burlington County to Hold First Meeting of Season

The first dinner-dance of the season to be sponsored by the Burlington County Unit of the Young Republicans of New Jersey will be held in the Masonic Hall, Burlington, next Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

An excellent dinner will be served and a brief address by Prosecutor Howard Eastwood, of Burlington, will follow.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Elwood Weideman's orchestra. This is the same band which played on the recent Republican boat ride and which was so thoroughly enjoyed at that time.

Reservations must be made before tomorrow evening through Palmer L. Adams, of Palmyra, president of the organization, or Clarence G. Price, of Beverly, secretary.

All young persons interested in the Young Republican movement in New Jersey are cordially invited to be present at Tuesday's event. Reservations are limited and should be made at the earliest possible moment.

PALMYRA NOTES

The first fall registration of voters will be held in New Jersey on October 18 from one to nine p. m.

The Palmyra Post Office is now open until five o'clock on Saturday evening and on all other days of the week it remains open until 6:30 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid of the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra and Riverton held its regular business meeting and covered dish luncheon Tuesday at the church. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by the members of the organization.

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Palmyra, enjoyed a hike and supper Monday in Taylor's Lane.

Camp No. 3, P.O. of A., will hold an early meeting Thursday evening, October 13. This session will be followed by a card party, to which the general public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

The American Legion Auxiliary of Post Frederick M. Rodgers, Palmyra, will hold a covered dish supper at the next regular meeting Wednesday, October 19. Each person is asked to bring a covered dish and twenty-five cents. Covers will be removed from the dishes at 6:30 o'clock.

Refreshments will be served and excellent prizes given at the card party to be held in Society Hall Thursday evening of next week. This event is being sponsored by Camp No. 3, P.O. of A., Palmyra. The general public is invited to be present. Donation, twenty-five cents.

The Ladies Aid of the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra and Riverton will hold a "Cooty Party" Monday evening, October 10, at the home of Mrs. William Opfer, 15 West Spring Garden street. All members and friends are asked to be present.

A chicken supper and bazaar will be given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the First Lutheran Church on November 11 and 12, in the church basement.

The Boy Scout Mothers of Palmyra will meet at the home of Mrs. Sydney White, 816 Morgan avenue, this evening. All mothers of Boy Scouts are urged to be present.

The Boy Scouts of Palmyra will hold a cake sale Saturday at 13 East Broad street. The general public is urged to visit and patronize the event.

The Women's Club of Palmyra is sponsoring a food sale to be held on Broad street Saturday, October 29. All members and friends of the club are urged to donate or buy.

Mrs. S. Start Buchholz, of Charles street, was the guest of honor at a surprise reception given last week at her home. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. James E. Brown, Miss A. Kay Green, Miss Fannie Green, Lee Green, C. Nevin Buchholz, Carl Buchholz, Mr. and Mrs. Houston Ingram, Mrs. A. Lester Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. S. Stuart Buchholz.

The Women's Guild of the Epworth M. E. Church will hold a Christmas Bazaar November 18 and 19. Many useful articles will be on sale at that time and the general public is invited to visit and buy.

The Burlington County Federation of Men's Bible Classes will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Community Hall, Maple Shade, Sunday afternoon. Members of all men's Bible classes in this section are asked to make a special effort to be present at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kraus and son, of Highland avenue, spent Wednesday of last week in Pleasantville and Ocean City.

The Palmyra Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold an all day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Elvin I. Powell, of Memorial avenue, Tuesday, October 11. The meeting will start at 10:30 o'clock.

Girl Scouts will be held at the Porch Club Tuesday evening, October 11. The first meeting of the Riverton 730 sharp.

YOU, YOUR CAR AND THE MOTOR LAWS

By Mark G. Hadden, Chairman of Motor Vehicle

THE REAL DRIVER

Every car operator likes to call himself and to be considered by others a real driver. How often have we heard a driver brag about his knowledge of the rules of the road and the fact that he has never had an accident?

Fortunately, for you and me, the average driver is a real driver. He may go two, five, or ten years without an accident simply because he has observed the rules and regulations, but let him relax for just one moment some day he is on the road and in the flash of an eye there is a crash. The National Safety Council, that great organization which is doing world-wide work to educate against accidents in the street, the home and in the factory, has some very timely views on what a real driver is and should be. The council says, does more than start, stop and guide his car. He controls his every action. He is at all times alert and he anticipates possible blunders of pedestrians and drivers he meets and passes. The council's formula of the real driver follows:

1. Keeps his mind on his driving.

2. Keeps in the line of traffic.

3. Anticipates what others will do.

4. Watches out for pedestrians, particularly children.

5. Slows down at schools, crossings, and intersections.

6. Signals the car behind when changing his course.

7. Knows the feeling of having his car under control.

8. Obeys traffic regulations, signals and signs.

Has his car inspected regularly.

Everyone of these things is important to the driver who really wants to be classed as "real" or safe but the one that particularly appeals to me is the ninth, "Has his car inspected regularly."

In this connection, let me ask how many times you have read the statement, "Faulty brakes caused the crash." Newspaper accounts use the line frequently.

Be that as it may, I rise to refute the statement, no matter where it appears. No set of brakes was ever responsible for a collision. If the brakes were faulty whose fault was it? Brakes do not suddenly and willfully go wrong. When the trouble develops, it results from wear and tear; hard and often unfair usage. The mechanism rarely gives way all at once. If brakes are weakening, they usually give the driver ample warning. In any event, he should have them tested every six weeks or so.

To Be Married

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Dorothy D. Rogers to H. Kelsey Partridge, Jr., of Merchantville, on Saturday, October 22, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Moorestown, at four o'clock. The Rev. Edgar L. Sanford, rector of the church, will officiate.

Miss Rogers, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins B. Rogers, of Bowling Green, Moorestown, will be attended by her sister, Miss Virginia Rogers, as maid of honor, and her cousin, Miss Betsy Hodgson, daughter of Mrs. J. Royden Hodgson, of Moorestown, as flower girl.

Mr. Partridge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey K. Partridge, of Green-leigh Court, Merchantville. Henry Greene, of Haverford, Pa., will be best man, and Dr. Edward Schellenger, of Merchantville, and Brooks White, of Oak Lane, Pa., will usher.

A reception will be held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, for the bridal party and members of the immediate families. On their return from a wedding trip, the young couple will make their home at the Haddon Manor Apartments, Haddonfield.

Arthur Harwell

Arthur Harwell, an ex-service man and member of William H. Snyder Post No. 42, Moorestown American Legion, died at his home on Wilson avenue, Lenola, Saturday night, after an illness of nearly six years. Death was superinduced by an injury he received while serving in France during the World War.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, from the funeral parlor of W. H. Battersby, Philadelphia, and interment will be made in Green Mount Cemetery, Philadelphia.

Members of the Legion post held services on Tuesday evening and the deceased will be buried with full military rites. Post members, in uniform, were pallbearers and the firing squad was also in uniform.

Mr. Harwell is survived by his wife, Bertha L. Harwell.

Election Information

Voters and election officers will probably be interested in the following data having to do with the coming election, November 8:

October 11: County Clerk Lawrence G. Mingin will conduct a drawing to determine party columns on the general election ballot. County Election Board will return general election register of voters and registry lists to District Election Boards.

October 18: Registration day, one to nine p. m.

October 23: Publication of election notices.

October 25: Challenger applications for general election filed with County Board.

November 2: General election sample ballots to be mailed by District Boards.

November 8: General election day. Polls open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. County Board sits until midnight.

November 14: County canvassers must meet at noon to canvass general election returns.

RACCOON HUNTERS MUST WAIT UNTIL NOVEMBER

Those New Jersey nimrods to whom 'coon hunting is the acme of sport must stay at home with their hands during the frosty, moonlit nights of October, this year, as a change in the game laws adopted by the last legislature sets the open season back one month to November 1. They will find some compensation for this loss, however, in the extension of the closing date to December 31, eliminating the five days of open season for deer.

Advocates of the new law contend that the fur of the raccoons is in better condition and more valuable in the markets if taken during the later season. Opinions of sportsmen in different parts of the state seem divided, some holding that the October nights are the most enjoyable of the year for 'coon hunts. Still others declare that the delay in opening of the season until trees are leafless will make it too easy to kill the raccoons and may deplete the supply of this game animal. The 'coon takes to a tree when too closely pursued by hounds and heavy foliage during October often is its salvation. For the first time the New Jersey law, this year, sets a bag limit on raccoons. An individual hunter is allowed to take a total of 15 during the season. There is no daily bag limit.

For the sake of economy James Sheppard, of Chicago, turned off the light while Robert Hunt was calling on his daughter.

RADIO TEA

The Burlington County Women's Republican Club is giving a radio tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Emma Kuntz, Fork Landing road, Friday, October 7, 3 p. m., to which everyone is invited.

DON'T take chances

when you buy coal!

YOU KNOW 'blue coal' IS GOOD

—because it's trademarked —colored blue for your protection

Now you can SEE that you get the very best coal—every time you order

NO LONGER is all coal black when you buy it. Now when you spend your hard-earned money for quality coal you can see that you're getting it. For the same famous D. L. & W. Scranton and Wilkes-Barre anthracite that has been America's largest selling home fuel during the last fifty years is trademarked. Actually colored blue so that you can tell it at a glance. Its trade-name is 'blue coal'.

'blue coal' is an ideal blend from the richest veins of the Northern Pennsylvania anthracite fields. It's not too hard... it's not too soft. No other coal is prepared more scientifically—inspected more critically. Millions of gallons of rushing water wash it free from wasteful impurities. And what a quick starter 'blue coal' is, even on zero mornings... how little draft it needs to burn evenly for hours. It won't die down when you need it most... it won't require watching every hour of the day. Note, too, how completely 'blue coal' burns. Steady warmth in all your rooms. No lost heat up the chimney. No half-burned coals in your ash pit. You get what you're paying for... all heat!

Play safe this winter. Ask for 'blue coal' every time you order fuel. Identify it by its blue color.

DELANCO LOSES TO RED DEVILS

Palmyra Team Will Play Dooley A. A. at Home Next Week

The Palmyra Red Devils, one of the best independent teams in this section, defeated the strong Delanco A. A., of Delanco, Saturday by the score of 14 to 0, before a large and enthusiastic crowd.

Delanco started off well by holding the Red Devils scoreless in the first period, but soon after the second period started Palmyra blocked a kick and recovered the ball. Frisco then went around right end for a touchdown. Frabricatore failed to kick the extra point.

Delanco then kicked to Palmyra. Pratt, the flashy halfback, caught the ball on his own 10 yard line and ran 80 yards through the whole Delanco team to Delanco's ten yard line. Mooney then hit center for eight yards. Frisco then went around left end for the second and last touchdown of the game.

In the third period Frabricatore blocked one of Delanco's kicks and the ball rolled behind the goal line making the score 14 to 0.

Anderson, Dinn and Gennett played well on the line for Palmyra, while Frisco, Mooney and Pratt starred in the backfield.

Next week the Red Devils play Dooley A. A., champions of Camden County last year. The members of the Palmyra team will have their new uniforms and incidentally this will be their last home game for a month. Your support is solicited and will be appreciated. Admission is only twenty-five cents.

Saturday's lineup:

PALMYRA DELANCO

Each center Jones
Brown right guard Brown
Westcott right tackle Gagle
Brown right end Peterson
Prisco quarterback Grove
Mooney halfback Rommel
Frabricatore halfback Freeman
Pratt fullback Headman

GRUBMIER-M'KAY ON CAMDEN MAT

Scissors Expert Has Tough Assignment on Monday Night

Fred Grubmier, 205, the human python from Iowa, will attempt to wrap his long, wiry legs around that rough and tough Irishman from Boston, Pat McKay, 215, in the windup of Charlie Gripi's first indoor wrestling show of the season, at Convention Hall, Camden, next Monday night.

Grubmier, who has been tossing opponents with monotonous regularity of late, and who is picked as the coming champion, will have his hands full with the Irishman from beantown. McKay, when the going gets rough, does not mind taking a punch or giving one, and has won more than one bout with a right to the jaw, even though such tactics are frowned on by the officials. The bout is for 90 minutes, two out of three falls to win.

In the semi-final, the popular Ernie Dusek, from Omaha, 215, who last week threw Milo Steinborn, will take on Herman Hickman, from Tennessee, 220, for 45 minutes or less.

The second bout brings together the ever-popular English wrestler, Bert Asseretti, 210, and Chafour Khan, Afghani, 215. Thirty minutes, one fall.

Joe Montana, 194, the pride of Camden, will try to flatten Frank Bronowicz, 210, from Poland. Thirty minutes, one fall.

YOUNGSTERS FORM FOOTBALL TEAM

Younger Generation Comes to Riverton's Rescue With New Football Team

More than twenty candidates for a football team representing Riverton, came out Tuesday night, October 4th for practice.

Never before has Riverton gone without a football team, and as the former sponsors of teams in Riverton failed to come out this year, the younger element decided among themselves to make up a team of which we are sure Riverton will be proud.

Russell Trautman, graduate of Palmyra High School, will endeavor to teach the boys what he learned from Kenneth Dimond, noted coach of Palmyra High. Trautman will also occupy the quarter back position.

We will have an exceptionally fine backfield consisting of Anderson, Atkinson, J. Downs, J. Buidas, Scattergood and Russell Trautman and Frank Trautman.

The line is also of fine calibre. C. Perkins, at center; J. McDermott, A. Schuler, A. Buidas and A. Wigmore at guards; L. Yearly, R. Spear, E. Frisco, E. Wallace and H. Borden, tackles; V. Daly, D. Phalen, L. Brennan and J. Yearly at the ends.

Our only drawback is equipment, and contributions toward this in the way of first aid equipment, uniforms or anything else useful to a football team will be accepted with gratitude.

We hope to play at home on Saturdays and away on Sunday. Unless a game is scheduled for this Saturday, practice will be held at Memorial Park.

All those interested in the team Saturday. We also ask the townspeople to help make the team a success by coming out to the games.

CHARLES WENIGER, Manager.

After driving an automobile for 13 years without a license, John Samlone recently was stopped in Lowell, Mass., for the first time.

ARTISAN'S LEAGUE

The Artisans began their 1932-33 bowling season on Thursday of last week, with eight teams, six men on a team.

Porter Caldwell, of the Demons, was high scorer for the evening, topping the maples for 232.

The Pirates team was the only one to win three games.

Palmyra Bowling League

The Palmyra Bowling League rolled its first matches Friday evening. Eight strong teams compose the League.

Art Wright, of the Olympics, rolled 233 in his last game to take high honors.

The Indians, last year's champions, won three games from the Legion.

Fitz Carlton, of Riverside, took the Riverton aggregation over for three games. The White Sox, last year's runner-up, won two games from the Yankees.

MT. HOLLY A. A. STAGES BOXING SHOW ON FRIDAY

On Friday night, October 7, the opening boxing show of the Mount Holly Amateur Athletic Association, in their gymnasium located in Batterton's Chevrolet Sales and Service Station on the Marine Highway, will be staged.

This should be one of the best amateur shows ever witnessed in Burlington county as the county seat association has secured best bouts possible from Philadelphia. Five boys from Dagert A. C. will box five boys from the Shamshau C. C.

Ten of the best amateurs in Burlington county have been selected to make up five of the ten bouts and the fight fans who desire real honest-to-goodness action will sure get plenty.

Boxers who will appear on the initial card are:

Charlie Calderale, Beverly, vs. Walter Eble, Riverside; Harry Goldie, Riverside, vs. Joe Mancuso, Maple Shade; John Thomas, Burlington, vs. Fye Drayton, Medford; Whitely Brown, Beverly, vs. Brownie Leifick, Maple Shade; Roy Foster, Marlton, vs. Mark Lippincott, Vincentown.

The following star amateurs from Philadelphia are also carded:

John Freeman vs. Fred McDermott, Tommy Higgins vs. Frank Brown, Eddie Lewis vs. Tommy Coldron, Joe Sharp vs. Corrie Valenti, Isaac Hilton vs. Nick Spinoso.

UNION SERVICES

The union services held for penitence and prayer will continue during the rest of the week in Palmyra. These services have been well-attended and quite spiritual.

Tonight the service will be held in the Lutheran church with Rev. George Lockett as the speaker. Friday night at the Presbyterian church with Rev. A. J. Harke as the speaker.

Saturday night a Union Communion Service will be held in the Epworth Methodist Church. Everyone is invited to attend the remaining services.

CINNAMINSON P. T. A. HAS FULL PROGRAM

The Cinnaminson P. T. A. dropped the first proposed meeting, owing to the uncertainty connected with school matters, and the absence of the teachers.

Two executive meetings have been held, to discuss the membership drive, and program. The latter will be printed in the school print shop and handed to the public.

Five sectional meetings have been arranged, to be held in different localities. The township is large, and it is hoped that these gatherings, under the leadership of a local member, will reach some who, for various reasons, are not able to attend the regular meetings, and also give the outlook of that particular section.

A meeting of these local leaders was held at the school on Friday, September 30, when a satisfactory interchange of ideas was given.

The program follows:

Regular Meetings for 1932-33
October 5 to 15—Membership drive.
October 19—County council, Columbus.

Highlights in the Life of WILL ROGERS Star of the FOX Film "DOWN TO EARTH"

Copyright, 1931 William Hermann Deppermann

Will Rogers keeps the pot a-boiling while Theodore Lodi watches in this attempt of domestic housekeeping in the Fox film, "Down To Earth".

Chapter V PERSONAL TRAITS

ON November 23, 1908 at Rogers, Arkansas, Will Rogers was married to Betty Blake, who at the time was sister-in-law to the railroad station agent of Oologah, Oklahoma, Will's home town.

The humorist and his wife met at a taffy pull and fell in love at first sight, so both of them testify. However, Will bided his time. It was not till twelve months had rolled by that he plucked up the courage to propose.

The road hadn't been easy for the young couple since the time he met Betty Blake till the day she accepted him. She was a much sought after young lady among the bloods of the district.

Will was for a long while at a loss how to attract her attention. Although he was a fine roper and rider, good horsemanship and lariat play were Oklahoma range commonplaces.

Finally he decided to ride a bicycle. He practised on the sly and astonished the neighbors by riding his wheel down the street in front of Miss Blake's door one afternoon when he knew she would be at home.

He displayed his whole repertoire of tricks. He pedaled by with his arms folded, then came back standing on the seat and wound up his performance by roping his hat as it lay on the ground.

Needless to say the young lady was greatly impressed and Will's suit was very much advanced.

The fidelity which Rogers manifests in his real married life he exhibits toward his cinema wife. In his latest Fox picture "Down To Earth," Irene Rich plays the part of the ex-range rider's helpmate for the third time.

Most people think Miss Rich started being Rogers' wife in his first Fox talkies, "They Had To See Paris" and "So This Is London." The fact is however, that Will gave her the first real chance she had in the movies thirteen years ago at a time when she was just beginning to get a foothold in Hollywood.

He had been signed to make a series of pictures and selected her as his leading woman in seven of them, although she was practically unknown at the time.

Much of Rogers' soundness of character may be due to his excellent home environment as a boy. His mother intended to rear him for the ministry. Strange to say she was dissuaded by her belief that the boy who was later to entertain millions was not of a sufficiently social disposition for a career in the pulpit.

In reality he is the direct opposite of aloof. He learns the names of his fellow workers and remembers them. Every city he visits numbers scores of persons known to him by name.

He has never used a bit of grease paint or other facial makeup in all his years on the stage and screen.

His daughter selects his photographs. He would never go near a photographer unless led, and he keeps no scrapbook of clippings. Nothing can prevail on him to kiss his leading lady, and although he has sung in pictures, he detests doing it. He has a secret ambition to play a screen role in black-face.

He writes his daily humorous column on a portable typewriter which he brings in his car to the studio. He types with his two fore-fingers and cannot make carbons. He writes everywhere, in his car, in his dressing room, at home or in the cabin of a plane. The last is his favorite working place.

Although California is a paradise for golfers and tennis enthusiasts, Rogers plays neither of these two sports, confining his recreations to polo and riding. Strange to relate of a son of the Southwest he has a distinct antipathy to all card games.

Although Rogers lives in the fashionable Beverly Hills section of Hollywood, his home is not the traditional movie star's palace. It is a simple ranch house located in Santa Monica canyon. He calls it "The House That Jokes Built."

Every dollar Rogers has, he has earned, and every one of those dollars represents a joke or a gag, according to the comedian's own testimony.

Before he moved with his family to the home they now occupy, they lived in Beverly Hills proper and as his daughter Mary grew into her teens she wanted a sun parlor all her own.

So Rogers called in what he terms a relative of Jesse James who said he was an architect and told him the family had decided to remedy this deplorable absence of a sun room.

The architect nosed around and finally announced a wall would have to come out in order to make the addition. So, as Rogers tells the story, it was decided while they were about it, to also add a sleeping porch Mrs. Rogers had been wanting.

After work got under way, they thought they might as well lengthen the living room a few feet and while they were about it, why not enlarge the dining room and make the den bigger?

New decisions every day and ripping and tearing went on until, as Rogers puts it, there was nothing left but the kitchen and he thought the kitchen was all right, but standing there, all by itself, it didn't look so good either, and he knocked that down himself, he explains with a grin.

Finally the Rogers family got so disgusted with the result achieved by expert advice that they left what remained of the old home, moved out to the ranch and have been there ever since.

A celebrity himself, Rogers entertains more notable than anyone in Hollywood. Among his recent visitors have been Secretary of War Patrick Hurley, Secretary of Naval Aeronautics David Ingalls, Helen Willis, Aviator Frank Hawks, Fred Stone, the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame and Father O'Donnell, president of that University. One of his most interesting callers was Prince Suvant of Siam, brother of King Prajadhipok, who lately survived a revolution in the land he rules.

The humorist entertained the prince and his consort at his home and later took them to the studio.

The prince was delighted and during luncheon on the studio lot, His Majesty thanked Rogers for his many courtesies and made Rogers promise to visit him in Siam.

"When you come," announced the prince in his most gracious tones, "I shall make you a present of the largest elephant in my herd."

Rogers scratched his head in characteristic fashion and replied to the prince that the trip began to look very doubtful. He was afraid he'd never be able to make it.

BUSINESS GIRLS IN WEEKEND OUTING

Camp Darkwater Scene of Program Arranged by Moorestown Club

A group of twenty-five girls and young women from various county towns attended the annual business girls' weekend outing held at Camp Darkwater, near Medford, under the auspices of the Business and Industrial Girls' Council of the county Y.W.C.A.

The campers arrived Saturday afternoon, and after dinner enjoyed a program of recreation arranged by the Moorestown club. A feature of this was a Chinese party given by Miss Edith Wells, of Philadelphia, a former Y.W.C.A. secretary in China, who told stories of her experiences there and explained something of the system of character writing used by the Chinese. The evening's entertainment ended with a sing around the fireplace.

Horserack riding opened Sunday's program, and at ten o'clock a worship service was held in charge of Mrs. Lester Collins, of Moorestown, who took as her topic "Creative Living."

At the afternoon assembly, which was in the nature of an open forum, Miss Catherine Kerlin, of Moorestown, led a discussion on "Our Place in the World Today—Are We Living Creatively?" Camp closed with tea at 4 o'clock which was presided over by Miss Hannah Severns, of Burlington.

"Miniature Kiaki" will be the topic of the meeting of the Senior Girl Reserves Council, to be held Saturday, October 15, at Palmyra, when girls from Burlington and Camden counties who attended the Girl Reserves conference at the Kiaki school during the summer will have charge of the program. This will be the first council meeting of the year. Bertha Happerett, of Medford; Betty Miner, of Delanco, and Mildred Goodwin, of Palmyra, will report as delegates from Burlington county. Girls from Camden, who were delegates will be guests at the meeting.

Mrs. William C. V. Wells, of Delanco, is the County Girl Reserves Committee sponsor for the Senior Girl Reserves Council.

H. L. Ryan, of St. Louis, went from a cell to his wedding, stopping only in court to pay a $100 fine for intoxication resulting from a bachelor dinner.

MOTOR FATALITY RECORD IMPROVES

Fewer Persons Killed in First Eight Months, Reports Hoffman

New Jersey's 1932 motor vehicle fatality record continues to show a marked improvement over last year, Commissioner Harold G. Hoffman announced this week in making public figures for the first eight months.

So far this year 695 persons have been killed in automobiles against 787 for the corresponding months of 1931, a decrease of 92 victims.

During the month of August the casualties numbered 117 as against 134 in August last year.

"And August, the month of good riding weather and vacation time, has been the peak month for both fatalities and total accidents in previous years," said the Commissioner. "I sincerely hope that the accident situation, particularly with regard to fatal accidents, will continue to improve in the remaining months of the year."

Analysis of last month's fatalities reveals that for the first time in many months there were relatively fewer pedestrians killed than car occupants, pedestrians numbering 52 and drivers and occupants 65.

When Dr. Ivar L. Anser, of Kildeer, N. D., scored an ace with a 100-yard drive while playing golf recently, his wife, playing with him, fainted, but revived quickly.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

Even a Rose Has Its Thorns

By IRVIN S. COBB

SOME time ago in this series, I told the story about the teacher who recognized unborn artistry in one of her scholars and wrote to his mother suggesting that he be allowed to play on the piano. You remember she got back an answer that the folks were afraid that the boy might fall off.

Well this one is about little Jackie Cohen who always came to school with filthy clothing and dirty hands. This teacher sent Jackie home with a note which read like this: "Dear Mrs. Cohen, I am sending your boy home to be bathed. I think you should realize how he smells."

Next day Jackie came to school same as ever with the following note: "Dear Teacher, My boy is a pupil, and not a rose. I sent him to school to be learned and not to be smelled."

WOULD SINK OLD SHIPS TO MAKE COAST FISHING

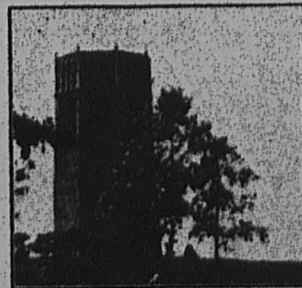

Abandoned vessels now cluttering up the navigable waters of this state can be converted at little cost into a great asset to New Jersey coastal fishing, declared Harry H. Armstrong, of Jersey City, treasurer of the State Fish and Game Commission and chairman of a special committee on salt water fishing conditions. He proposes that the old ships, now annoying navigators, be towed from rivers and harbors and sunk or blown up along the coast within the three-mile limit to create new fishing grounds.

"The most famous deep-sea fishing spots off the New Jersey coast at the present time are the sites of old wrecks," says Commissioner Armstrong. "This wreckage attracts marine vegetable and animal life, which in turn attracts the fish. The old ships now abandoned in our rivers and becoming a serious liability to the state, could be scuttled along the coast in such a manner as to offer no menace to navigation. At each such point we would have created a new paradise for salt water anglers."

There is Another Inspiring CONCERT

SUNDAY AT 3 O'CLOCK

BERNARD MAUSERT, world-famous Carillonneur, will again play on the Console in the Singing Tower a concert of sacred and classical selections next Sunday afternoon. Last week's audience was enthusiastic in its acclaim of this Master of the Carillon. There is real inspiration in hearing the sweet bell tones wafted over the countryside!

VISITING NURSE SOCIETY GIVES ANNUAL REPORT

Much Credit Is Due Nursing Staff for Very Satisfactory Service

ANYONE MAY ASK FOR NURSES' AID

Committee Appreciates Assistance of All Who Help Each Year

The Visiting Nurse Society of Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson in publishing its twentieth annual report feels satisfaction in its administration over such a long period, realizing the place it has filled in doing this work so much needed in the community.

The executive board consists of representatives from the three towns, which are chosen for a term of three years, so arranged that the term of some members expires each consecutive year. In other words, a rotating board. From this board the officers are elected. For the past year the following have served: Mrs. Charles Evans, president; Miss Cornelia S. Coale, vice president; Miss Martha Biddle, treasurer; Mrs. William A. McCamy, secretary.

The nursing staff consists of Miss Helen Blair of the Cinnaminson, Paoli, and much credit is due them for their very satisfactory service, all branches of which are supervised by Mrs. Wagner, Red Cross field representative for New Jersey.

During the year ending October 1, 1932, the following visits have been made:

- 496 to expectant mothers
- 6 deliveries in the home (doctors' orders)
- 337 to mothers with new babies
- 219 to new babies
- 580 to illness outside of contagion
- 122 to cases ordered by doctors, investigated for tuberculosis
- 259 to contagious cases (grippe, pneumonia, chicken pox, mumps, measles, whooping cough, etc.)
- 337 to infants
- 469 to pre-school children
- 1,709 to school children
- 245 social service (investigating welfare cases)

STOLEN AUTO FOUND IN WOODS

Man Breaks Arm in Auto Crash at Five Points; Chimney Fire Extinguished at Ferry

A car was reported to Officer Dorworth of the Cinnaminson police to have been abandoned in the woods along Church road by two passing motorists. Dorworth investigated and found the car to be registered in the name of Dorothy Morek, 110 South 62nd street, Philadelphia. Communicating with her he learned that the car had been in the custody of Lenox Cooper, Cove road, Merchantville, and that it had been stolen from him Thursday afternoon while he was attending the Stanley Theatre in Camden.

Richard M. Roussel, 8223 Stockton avenue, Pennsauken, received a compound fracture of the left arm, when the Ford roadster in which he was driving struck a truck driven by Christfield Herr, of Pittsfield, Maryland. The collision happened in front of Hathaway's Restaurant, Ferry, at 12:40 a. m. Monday. Andrew Durham, of Lincoln avenue, Collingswood, rushed the injured man to the Cooper Hospital in Camden, where his injuries were treated.

A chimney fire broken out in the home of Charles Windstein, Five Points, last Saturday morning about 8:45 o'clock. The Parry Volunteer Fire Company soon extinguished the blaze. Little damage was done.

DR. ROSCOE WEST TO ADDRESS PTA

President of State Teachers' College Will Speak to Riverton Parents October 17

Dr. Roscoe West, president of the New Jersey State Teachers' College, will speak at the reception to parents and teachers, Monday, October 17th, at 8 o'clock, in the Riverton school auditorium.

Each of the P.T.A. meetings this year will deal with some particular phase of "What the Community Owe the Children," and Dr. West is well-fitted by experience to speak on "The School," in relation to the community.

As this is an evening meeting, both fathers and mothers will be able to hear him, and also to enjoy the splendid musical program following.

FORSYTHE'S COW MAKES NATIONAL RECORD

A cow in the herd of H. H. Forsythe, of Medford, has just finished a new official record for production which entitles her to entry in the Advanced Register of the American Guernsey Cattle Club. This animal is Cavalier, Abess of Forsythe 194476 with a production of 5957.7 pounds of milk and 293.3 pounds of fat in class AAA.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

In order for Riverton to do its bit toward the observance of Fire Prevention Week some of the simple rules of fire prevention are listed below. These are old rules but hold good today for the prevention of ordinary household fires.

1. Do not put ashes from furnace in anything but metal containers.
2. Clean all rubbish and unnecessary combustible material from cellar, attic, under stairs and closets.
3. Inspect your electrical wiring, including lamp cords and appliance cords.
4. Be sure all flue pipes and chimneys are tight.
5. Always be careful to extinguish cigarettes and other smoking equipment.

There are many other rules, but these are important and neglect of them has been the cause of many serious fires.

PATRONS ROBBED AT BELLEVUE INN

Armed Bandits Escape With $75 Loot Taken From 5 Men and 2 Women

Patrons of the Bellevue Inn, located at the foot of Zeller street, Bellevue, were treated to the thrills of a real holdup Monday night at ten o'clock when they looked into the muzzles of two automatic pistols and a sawed-off shotgun.

The three bandits with handkerchiefs tied about their faces forced their victims, five men and two women together with the proprietor, Dick Auerbach, up against the wall in the downstairs barroom and proceeded to loot the cash register and relieve the patrons of their cash and jewelry.

The loot totaled $75.00 and four watches together with a slot machine in the cellar. The bandits also smashed a phonograph machine in their search for money.

The bandits left one of their number behind to cover the patrons while they loaded the slot machine into the car and disabled the automobiles of the patrons by removing and throwing away the distributor caps from each machine.

With their car loaded and the possibility of immediate pursuit cut off, the bandits called to their pal in the cellar who was keeping the patrons covered with the shotgun. He was either startled or excited when they called for his finger gripped the trigger and discharged a load of shot into the cellar wall first passing through the trousers of one of the men. No shot entered the flesh, but the knee of slugs narrowly missed his knee cap.

After their departure, police from Riverton, Cinnaminson and Riverside were called but no trace of the bandits could be found. County Detective Ellis Parker is investigating the case.

Fourth district, Mrs. J. Douglas Clark; Fifth district, Walter L. Rogers; Sixth district, J. W. Sylvester; Cinnaminson, Harold Fink.

PROF. COBB IN RIVERTON

Prof. Stanwood Cobb, of Chevy Chase, Md., will speak in the P.T.A. Club Saturday evening, October 29th, at a public meeting.

Prof. Cobb is author of many books, one of the latest being "Discovering the Genius Within You." He is also the founder of the Chevy Chase Country Day School and published "The New Leaven" one of the leading books on the new education.

"Security for a Failing World" will be the subject on which the professor will talk in Riverton.

BLOWS THREE TIMES

Three times down out and a twisted auto frame were the result of a car trying to avoid an accident at Broad and Thomas Rivers, last Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The damaged car was proceeding in the direction of Riverton from Camden at a high rate of speed, and at the Thomas avenue crossing was forced to leave the road and steer for the railroad tracks to avoid hitting a car coming out of Thomas avenue. The car left the road and went across the unprotected rails after climbing the bank.

CHRIST CHURCH GIVES RECEPTION

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel G. MacKinnon Are Given Splendid Welcome

The reception given by Christ Church in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel G. MacKinnon, was held in the parish house Friday evening and was attended by a large number of people of the parish, and others from a distance.

Russell C. Holmes, secretary of the vestry, and lay reader, was chairman of the reception. Mr. Holmes introduced the Rev. Walter D. Lamont, mayor of Palmyra, who made an interesting address of welcome to the new rector of his wife.

The senior warden of Christ Church, Edward W. G. Borer, made an address of welcome. Mr. Borer said, "We of this parish are going to get a great deal of good from Dr. MacKinnon. Dr. MacKinnon is an able man, of great experience, and as a preacher our pulpit is safe under his care, and our spiritual life will be very much enlarged."

"With ableness, honesty, sincerity, and truth in the pulpit, a church school ably conducted by a good leader and faithful assistants, who need not be afraid of the future spiritual life of this parish. Certainly our young people with splendid training, their zeal and enthusiasm, will in future years take care of the things here better than we can ever hope to at this time."

Then again, how nicely and tactfully Dr. MacKinnon went in as a guiding hand in the work of the guilds and other organizations. There are many faithful persons here who are doing their full duty; they love the work, it seems the biggest thing in their life."

William Munro, superintendent of the church school, made a most interesting address of welcome to Dr. and Mrs. MacKinnon, after which, on behalf of the vestry, he presented a beautiful gift to Mr. Holmes, secretary of the vestry, and faithful lay reader.

Greetings and words of welcome were tendered from St. Agnes Guild, in a communication from the president of the guild, Mrs. W. J. Zeller, who found it impossible to reach the reception in time for her address. As president, Mrs. Zeller said, "We pledge to Dr. MacKinnon our continued support and cooperation for the advancement of the church."

The president of the Daughters of Christ Church, Miss Dorothy Heeter, delivered a most interesting address of welcome, and a faithful pledge of the support of the Daughters of the Church.

W. T. Purnell made a brief address of welcome to Dr. MacKinnon, stating this was the voice of the people from the streets of Palmyra.

Beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. Stanley S. Lippincott and John Ward.

The parish house was beautifully decorated with flowers, and delicious refreshments were served. Those in the receiving line were, the senior warden, Edward W. G. Borer, the Rev. Dr. Daniel G. MacKinnon, Mrs. Daniel G. MacKinnon, Mrs. Edward W. G. Borer, Mrs. W. T. J. Purnell, Mrs. W. S. Branson, Mrs. K. A. Montgomery.

Mrs. M. Peterson

Mrs. Martha Peterson, for many years a resident of Palmyra, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Myra Winn, of 815 Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, Monday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at two o'clock with the Rev. Arthur S. Lewis, rector of Christ Church, Riverton, officiating. Interment will be made in the Monument Cemetery, Beverly.

Besides Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Peterson is survived by one son, Frank S. Peterson, of West Philadelphia.

ROTARIANS HEAR PAST GOVERNOR

Speaker Stresses Necessity for Observing "Rotary Code of Ethics"

Another important meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club was held last Thursday night. A dozen guests, in addition to the members, were present to hear past District Governor Puff, of Jenkintown, talk on "Barriers."

The music was particularly good. Dr. LeFavor played several selections on the piano which were much appreciated, and everyone joined in the singing with vigor. "Grandfather's Clock," which seems to be the theme song of the Palmyra-Riverton Club, was feelingly rendered. Past Governor Puff expressed pleasure at meeting the Palmyra-Riverton Club again and said a word in favor of hyphenated clubs; they indicate communities drawn closer together by the powerful forces of Rotary.

He then swung into his main topic of the evening and pointed out how men have overcome many physical barriers by mental processes. The latter has in turn created other barriers, political, social, etc. The higher spiritual forces, such as religion, are striving hard to surmount these barriers, and Rotary must be placed in this category. It is only by the constant use of these barrier-breakers that we shall reach our ideal of civilization.

Past Governor Puff then pointed out how sickness was a feature of early business competition. Trade associations of various sorts, plus the development of the service clubs, placed the individual on show, and made him and his business the focus of all eyes. Competitors proved to be good fellows and everyone began to look for proper practice.

"The Rotary Code of Ethics," said Mr. Puff, is a fine idea, and is of itself a good thing; however, when a crash came many of those who professed it failed to live up to the provisions stated in it under the pressure of unusual circumstances. These barriers were formed and minds and souls were unable to practice what they preached. If critics of Rotary are to be silenced we must do the things we talk about.

Rotarians have the greatest opportunity in that they have overcome before enjoyed. Present barriers must be overcome. If belonging to Rotary means anything we must live the Rotary Code of Ethics. On all sides there are wounds to heal, nerves to be steadied and strong moralities to be boosted, courtesy to be served up, inspiration to be roused and confidence to be restored. Rotarians must solve this problem by not staying down themselves and by helping those who are worse off. Only by doing good can we make the Golden Rule function.

COUNTY COUNCIL TO MEET OCTOBER 20TH

Church school superintendents and workers will be glad to know that the County Council of Religious Education, planning to present some outstanding leaders at the Annual Church School Convention, which will be held in the Burlington Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, October 20th.

The theme of the convention will be "Increase," with emphasis on "Increase in Attendance," "Increase in Working Capacity," and "Increase in Spiritual Life."

Dr. Ralph A. Felton will speak and conduct discussions in both the morning and afternoon sessions. Dr. Felton is formerly president at Cornell, and is now teaching in Drew University, Madison, N. J., in the field of Applied Christian Education. Dr. Felton has done some very outstanding work in Morris county, and is especially qualified to point the way to Christian work in Burlington county.

Rev. C. Melville Wright will speak on the "Development and Value of the Home, 'Increase.'" Mr. Wright, as associate minister of the Munn avenue Presbyterian Church of East Orange, is in the church work among youth, and has made an exceptional contribution to the spiritual life of his community.

Rev. Cary M. Young will meet with the leaders of youth in the afternoon session for discussion of their problems, and is well qualified to help them. Mr. Young was the former superintendent of Young People's Work for the Ohio State Council of Religious Education and is now a member of the staff of the editorial department of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education. Mr. Young has had a wide experience with young people, having worked with them at the Silver Bay School for Boys, at the Farm School for Boys in Asheville, North Carolina, and at the Dorain-Bell School for Girls at Hot Springs, North Carolina.

The subject of the evening address will be "Imperative Need of Better Church School Work."

P.O.S.O.F.A. COUNTY MEET

Saturday evening, October 22, the Burlington County Association of P.O.S.O.F.A. will hold a meeting in the rooms of Camp 186, Marlton.

Marlton Camp will be presented with a prize won at the State Camp last month.

Delegations from Salem and Camden counties are also to be present. All members are urged to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served.

NORMAN THOMAS

Norman Thomas, the Socialist candidate for President of the United States, is an idealist.

As such he appeals to many high-minded people—both men and women.

Advanced thinkers, idealists, have been responsible for all the progress mankind has made.

But it has been necessary to translate their theories into practical application of workable methods before results could be accomplished.

In Herbert Hoover the American people have a man who combines to an unusual degree the vision of an idealist and the wisdom of a man experienced in practical affairs, who knows and uses workable methods to bring his ideals to resultful conclusions.

What finer idealism has been uttered than the following extract from the President's acceptance speech?

"Underlying every purpose is the spiritual application of moral ideals which are the fundamental basis of happiness in a people. This is a land of homes, churches, schoolhouses dedicated to the sober and enduring satisfaction of family life, and the rearing of children in an atmosphere of ideals and religious faith. Only with these high standards can we hold society together, and only from them can government survive or business prosper. They are the sole insurance to the safety of our children and the continuity of the nation."

A vote for Norman Thomas in this time of difficulty is wasted except as a moral gesture, and with the country facing the greatest crisis in its history, at home and abroad, this is no time for "moral gestures."

"Folly is but wisdom spun too fine," and men and women of high idealism, who desire the best for the American people, are respectfully asked to stop and consider a moment before deciding to withhold their vote from President Hoover—"Am I really serving the purpose for which I strive, in endangering the re-election of a man who is pledged to the betterment of conditions, and who is using every practical means to bring this about as far as is humanly possible?"

How much uplift will there be for the American men, women and children in a continuance of the depression, which will inevitably follow a change of administration at this time?

WILL ORGANIZE FOR LOWER TAXES

A. R. EVERTON, Executive Secretary of State Association To Speak at Riverton

A. R. Everson, executive secretary of the New Jersey Taxpayers' Association will be the speaker at a meeting which will be held in the Riverton fire house next Monday evening, October 17, for the purpose of forming a local unit of the association for these two municipalities.

Mr. Everson will bring a wealth of valuable data and information regarding the whys and wherefores of the excessive tax burden under which New Jersey is laboring.

The meeting has been called by the Burlington County Taxpayers' Association which has been organized for the purpose of reducing taxes by eliminating extravagance in governmental expenditures, federal, state, county and local.

It is the purpose of the state and county associations to have a local unit in every taxing district, through which information regarding matters affecting taxation may be transmitted taxpayers.

All taxpayers in both municipalities are invited to be present and become members of the local unit.

The organization is non-political, and its sole object is to deal with matters affecting government expenses and the reduction of taxes.

A board of directors will be elected Monday night. The officers will be elected by the vote from its membership at a later date.

COUPLE CELEBRATE SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Beitz, of 827 Morgan avenue, Palmyra, will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday.

Nearly 100 guests will be present at the celebration from Palmyra, Riverton, Philadelphia, Hopewell, New Brunswick, Perth Amboy, and Maple Shade.

Mr. and Mrs. Beitz were married in Philadelphia on October 12, 1907 and came to Palmyra about 1910. Mr. Beitz has been in business here for over twenty-two years.

They have one son, Edward P. Beitz, who is manager of the Palmyra Bowling Alleys.

NEW POST OFFICE

Allocation of funds for the construction of a new post office in Riverton has been announced by Secretary of the Treasury Mills and Postmaster Brown in Washington. The new post office will be built to a cost not exceeding $67,000. The new building for Riverton was included among many others in the final passage of the Wagner-Garner Bill at the last Congressional session. Active construction may not get under way for several months since the treasury is now swamped by the emergency public works program and has been caught almost completely unprepared as far as architectural work, sites and similar advance details are concerned.

G. O. P. RALLY AT BURLINGTON

Issues of Campaign Discussed in Armory by Prominent Speakers

The Republican campaign is getting under way in Burlington county. A pep meeting at Browns Mills two weeks ago was followed by a mass meeting at Burlington last Friday night, at which state and county candidates made a bow to the assembled voters when called upon by Charles R. Stout, chairman of the Republican committee.

The principal speaker was James R. MacClafferty, former Congressman from California, and assistant to Herbert Hoover when the latter was Secretary of Commerce. He spoke of the President from first hand knowledge gained from three years of personal association. MacClafferty said that Hoover had the biggest brain of any man he ever knew.

Shows Fighting Spirit

It was with much satisfaction that the speaker pointed out that the President had added to his other sterling qualities, the fighting spirit shown in his Des Moines speech. He said that this spirit would instill courage and confidence in the minds of Republicans and spur them to greater efforts in the campaign.

In closing his inspiring address MacClafferty told a "cookoo" story which brought down the house. (Those who haven't heard this "fable" may ask those who did.)

United States Senator W. Warren Barbour, candidate for re-election, stressed the necessity for strenuous effort on the part of every loyal Republican to overcome the fat-headedness of fellow Republicans who have been impressed with the idea that "it couldn't be worse." He pointed out that conditions are much worse in Europe, and that if the Republican administration is not given a chance to carry to completion the plans for reconstruction already set in operation, the depression in this country will reach unimaginable depths.

Mrs. Dorr Speaks

Mrs. Rheta Childs Dorr, authoress, newspaper woman and war correspondent, spoke at length on the work the President and the administration had done to protect the United States against the full effects of the worldwide depression, and made a plea for sober, sane thinking, unclouded by the personal sacrifices and sufferings caused by the difficulties of the last three years.

U. S. Senator Hamilton F. Kean said: "A lower tariff would only build up soup houses. We want to build up and not tear down."

"That our cause is definitely in the ascendency," was the belief expressed by Senator Barbour.

Other Addresses

Other speakers were Rev. Millard O. Pierce, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Burlington, who gave the invocation; Freeholder Charles R. Stout, and D. Lane Power, Republican nominee for Congress.

Guests at the meeting included: Former Governor of New Jersey, Edward Casper Stokes, chairman of the Hoover committee in New Jersey; George DeBennville Keim, of Edgewater Park, secretary of the Republican National Committee; Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry, of Edgewater Park, member of the state committee, and Mrs. Pearl M. Bridgeport, of Hainesport, vice chairman of the county committee and president of the Burlington County Women's Republican Club.

County candidates introduced included: George Wimer, Palmyra, for sheriff; William H. Heister, of Pemberton, for freeholder; Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, of Browns Mills, for assembly; Harry Ziegler, of Riverside, for auditor; William O. Cunningham, of Riverside, and Russell M. Stoddard, of Mount Holly, for coroners.

K. of C. NOTES

Andrew J. Pfaff, grand knight of St. Joseph's Council K. of C., announces that the council is making preparations to take a large delegation of its membership to the Burlington County Chapter rally that will be held at Moorestown, on Friday, October 28.

An attendance prize will be awarded to the council having the largest percentage of its membership at the rally.

Prominent speakers, entertainment and refreshments are on the program, a detailed account of which will be announced at a later date.

The weekly card parties and dances that are being conducted by the council at their hall, Broad and Elm, have proved very popular with the general public, many of whom are attending regularly, not wanting to miss a week, and are having quite a following that are competing for the many fine prizes that are awarded each week.

Those who made the highest scores last week were as follows: Bridgeport first, Mrs. A. S. Kins; second, C. H. Horner. Five Hundred—first high, Mrs. A. L. Miller. Pinochle—first high, George Bliniff; second, Mrs. P. Cogliostro.

CHICKEN SUPPER

The Riverton Volunteer Fire Company is holding its third annual Chicken Supper in the fire house on Saturday evening, October 22. The committee promises this to be the best ever and tickets may be procured from any fireman at 60c each.

DEFEATS ATLANTIC CO.
EDUCATOR IN ELECTION

Fund Supported by State and 27,000 Teachers. Assets
Nearly $40,000,000

A new honor and new responsibilities have been bestowed upon George C. Baker, supervising principal of Moorestown public school, who was elected to the board of the State Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund, on Saturday, defeating Henry Cressman 85 to 46 votes.

Mr. Baker, former president of the New Jersey State Teachers' Association, and first vice president of the National Education Association, is now one of the seven trustees who manage the fund, to which 27,000 of the 28,000 public school teachers in New Jersey belong.

Three of the trustees are elected from the teaching profession and this year two of these trustees were elected, one to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. William Bickett, superintendent of schools of Trenton, and one to take the place of Dr. Charles Boyer, superintendent of schools, Atlantic City, who is prevented from serving longer because of his retirement from active service.

Henry Cressman, county superintendent of schools, Atlantic county, and Mr. Baker were nominated for the post left vacant by Mr. Boyer. The delegates assembled in the Assembly Chamber in Trenton on Saturday from the various counties of the state, and gave the local educator the election by a large margin.

Assets of the Pension and Annuity Fund amount to about $40,000,000. It is supported jointly by the state and the teachers. Each teacher who belongs has a certain percentage of his or her salary deducted each month as his or her contribution to the fund, this percentage depending upon the age of the teachers when they join.

All teachers who have started teaching in New Jersey since 1919 were obliged to become members of the fund. Those who were teaching in the state in 1919 had the option of joining or not.

Two Camden men were injured when the car in which they were riding overturned three times on Mount Holly pike, near Hartford-Westfield road, just beyond Moorestown Township line, about 4:30 Sunday afternoon.

The victims were Thomas Griffin, Arlington street, Camden, who was cut about the left hip, and Albert Christy, 424 Emerald street, Camden, who suffered cuts of the head. They were treated at the office of Dr. Eugene A. Meyer, East Main street, Moorestown.

The car, a Chevrolet coach, owned by Anna Christy, 424 Emerald street, Camden, and driven by a brother, Anthony, of the same address, was badly damaged. Christy told Officer Walter A. Erickson, of Moorestown police department, who investigated the accident, he lost control of the machine as he was passing another car and his auto went off the road.

MOORESTONIAN'S WED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Johnson Showered With Gifts and Cards

With their living-room filled with flowers, gifts and a stack of nearly fifty congratulatory cards on the table, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Johnson were indeed a happy couple as they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home at 281 West Second street, Moorestown, Monday.

They received many floral tributes from friends and relatives in commemoration of their golden wedding anniversary. One friend attempted to put fifty different varieties in a bouquet—and nearly succeeded! Other gifts included a bond, gold and a layer cake decorated with a small doll bride and bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have been residents of Moorestown for 31 years, have resided at their present address for the past 22 years. They have one daughter, Miss G. May Johnson, who makes her home with her parents.

The bride of a half century ago was Miss Kazdah Price before her marriage to Mr. Johnson. They were married at the home of her parents at Broad and Tasker streets, Philadelphia.

Mr. Johnson is 77 years old and his wife 76. The happy bridegroom of fifty years ago is a butcher by trade but has not been employed at it for years. He was employed by Lamson & Newbold, located at Main and Church streets, for several years.

Mrs. Johnson underwent an operation at Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, about a month ago, and is now well on the road to recovery. She returned home two weeks ago today (Wednesday).

MANY FINANCIAL PROBLEMS FACED BY BORO HEADS

Palmyra Citizens Urged to Pay Back Taxes to Ease Situation

RIGID ECONOMIES
FOR 1933 PLANNED

Officials Hope to Avoid Hardships of Another
Tax Sale

The Finance Committee of Palmyra Borough Council makes the following report:

Thursday, October 6, the School Board and Borough Council met in the Fire House to hear a report from the Finance Committee on the many problems of our local finances. There was a full representation and a feeling of real cooperation.

The more important of the facts as shown by the Finance Committee's report are as follows:

The total of delinquent taxes continues to mount and there is at present $117,019.77 in taxes due and unpaid, with the prospect of adding considerably to this amount, when the second half of the 1932 taxes become due in December. Our tax levy for 1932 was $205,851.79 of which $73,390 was for State and County, $81,630.89 for our schools and the balance of $50,920.87 for the expenses of our local government.

The fiscal year starts January 1, and our taxes do not become payable until June 1st. During this five months period school and borough bills must be paid and on the 15th of June the State and County taxes have to be met. Borrowing for these current bills with the continuing rise of tax delinquencies and the much needed relief from the whole tax burden are the major problems confronting council.

There are $97,000 in Tax Revenue and Tax Anticipation notes outstanding. The Palmyra National Bank has given us splendid aid and loaned us on these notes all that the comptroller at Washington will permit. Additional monies have been secured from the Assessment Sinking Fund and Trust Accounts and with these tax claims as security. We have solicited investment bankers in Philadelphia and New York to accept these notes but without success since there is no present market for municipal financing. As a last resort we appealed to our citizens to buy these notes in denominations as low as $100. Our people responded nobly and we soon issued $21,000 Tax Revenue Notes with more of these delinquent taxes as collateral.

Payments to be Met
Before January 1, we must pay the schools $30,000, State and County $36,500 and meet the budget requirements remaining in 1932 of $22,500. To meet these obligations we have on hand $22,000 in cash.

It seems to have been the experience of neighboring towns that tax sales not only work an additional hardship on harassed home owners but the actual results in some cases did not warrant the cost of advertising and often the property had to be purchased by the borough.

We would incur a penalty if we postponed payment of the State and County taxes and might find ourselves embarrassed in the future if we wished to issue bonds.

We trust that the question of collecting or financing these outstanding taxes will not handicap the payment of our obligations or necessitate deciding which bills take priority. If the home owners will make every effort to pay their taxes and the more fortunate subscribe for additional bonds we can cope with the emergency.

The budget for 1933 was discussed in detail and economies in every department will be made. The garbage contract expires early in the year and the new one will be at a lower figure. Our fixed charges, such as $20,000 in interest costs, can not be lowered since bond interest must be paid and 6 percent rate paid for our current loans. The 5-year lighting contract does not expire until August 1934.

Urges 10 Percent Cut

Council stands ready to make a flat 10 percent reduction in the salaries of all borough employees. It is unpleasant to cut wages but the average of our citizens are living under curtailed income. This reduction would reflect a saving in our budget of $1,800. However, Council is reluctant to touch the Borough's payroll of $18,000, and leave the school's payroll of approximately $90,000 intact. If this salary reduction were general the present tax rate could be lowered approximately 250 per $100 assessment. We feel that the Tenure of Office Act is good legislation, but we are not in sympathy with any arrangement that burdens our taxpayers and gives them no means of relief by way of leveling teachers' salaries to meet the changed economic condition under which we are laboring.

The assessments are no doubt high when the market value of real estate is considered and a reduction in assessments would be permitted by the County Board, but under present conditions if the assessments were lowered the rate most certainly would have to be raised. The Council pledges itself to reduce the actual tax cost to the property owner and this, after all, is most important. Our assessor will maintain our assessments in proportion to other municipalities so that our share of State and County taxes will be equitable.

The Finance Committee of Borough Council feels that the townspeople should be conversant with the situation as it exists and for them to realize that we are all trying to adjust ourselves after a period of rather optimistic expansion and free spending. With reduced incomes it must mean stricter economy for the Borough as it does for the individual.

'Y' BUSINESS GIRLS DISCUSS PROGRAM

Week of Prayer Observance First Fall Activity Council Decides

At a meeting of the planning committee of the Business and Industrial Girls' Council of the county Y.W.C.A., held Monday night in Mount Holly, activities to be undertaken in the county during the fall and winter were discussed. The fall program will open with the observance of the world's Week of Prayer, November 13 to 19.

Members of the council are president, Miss Alice Stewart, Willingboro; vice president, Miss Dorothy French, Moorestown; secretary, Miss Beatrice Shadel, Mount Holly; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Shinn, Rancocas; business and industrial committee representative, Miss Ruth Shinn, Rancocas; business and industrial committee chairman, Miss Hannah Severns, Burlington; Business and Industrial Club chairman, Miss Margaret Jones, Moorestown.

Dr. Wilbur H. Norcross, professor of psychology at Dickinson College, will speak on "Character Education in the Face of the Present Financial Crisis," at the Girl Reserve Adult Guidance Council, to be held in Wilmington, Del., October 21-23. Secretaries, club advisors and volunteer workers from throughout this section will attend the conference.

Dr. Norcross's first address will be given Friday evening, to be followed by a second Saturday morning, after which a forum will be held. Work groups will be held later in the morning and in the afternoon there will be laboratory groups in "dramatics, music, handicraft and vocational guidance."

Mrs. Frederic M. Paist, president of the National Board of the Y.W.C.A., will be the guest of honor at the banquet to be held Saturday night. A feature of the Sunday program will be a visit to the Longwood Gardens, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre S. du Pont.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

The Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2, Palmyra, will hold examination of Sea Scouts this evening at the church in preparation for the investiture service to be held next week.

Interested persons in this vicinity are urged to attend the investiture service.

A weekend at camp, near Birmingham, has been planned for October 21, 22 and 23, inclusive. Further details will be discussed at the next meeting of the troop. All scouts are urged to get their applications in early so that transportation facilities can be provided.

O'clock

A reception to parents, teachers and school board members will be a feature of the regular meeting of the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association to be held in the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 18.

Addresses of welcome will be made by the president of the P.T.A., Mrs. J. C. Mallory; C. E. Donahue, supervising principal of the Palmyra schools; and Frank L. Durkin, Jr., president of the Palmyra Board of Education.

The principal speaker of the evening will be the Rev. James F. Boughton, of Delanco. The Rev. Mr. Boughton is very well known in this section and all who have heard him on previous occasions will not want to miss the opportunity of hearing him at that time.

During the past year, he has become one of the most popular speakers in Burlington county and has addressed a number of P.T.A. gatherings during that time. The Rev. Mr. Boughton has spoken before the Palmyra organization before and his talk proved both interesting and instructive.

John Pasquale, baritone, a member of the Philadelphia Operatic Company, will be the guest soloist. Mr. Pasquale has appeared on the P.T.A. programs before and his renditions have been greatly enjoyed by members and friends of the organization who were fortunate enough to hear him.

The High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Mary T. Johnson will render selections. The Child Study Group will meet from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock. Miss M. Kathryn Jewell, one of the high school teachers, will be in charge and the subject under discussion will be "Promoting Good Reading."

Good reading is a very necessary and important part of child training. These child study meetings should be well-attended by any and all parents who are interested in the welfare of their children and who are anxious to help their children choose worthy while reading material.

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association urge all parents to make a special effort to be present at these meetings, which are most worthwhile and very helpful.

"PATTIE"

The annual play for the benefit of the "Tulicum", Palmyra High School's yearbook, will be given in the auditorium of Palmyra High School on November 4 and 5. The title is "Pattie".

Again this year the play is a John B. Rogers production, with a cast of high school students. This year a total of 120 students will take part in the cast and chorus work of the play. Irving Weidmuller will again coach the cast and chorus. Those who saw "That's That" and "Spanish Moon" in 1930 and 1931 can testify for the efficiency of Mr. Weidmuller's coaching, while those who have not will have a rare treat in store for them when they witness "Pattie".

"Pattie" has met with widespread approval and success in every nearby town in which it has been shown, and it is hoped that it will meet with the same success here.

Carbon sparks from an airplane flying low over her house set the roof on fire. Mrs. W. W. Brown told firemen in Kansas City, Kans., when they answered an alarm at her home.

Keep the American Dollar Ringing True

"We decided upon changes in the Federal Reserve System which would make our gold active in commercial use and that we would keep the American dollar ringing true in every city in America and in the world. That we would expand credit to offset the contraction brought about by hoarding and foreign withdrawals. That we would strengthen the Federal Land Banks and other mortgage institutions. That we would lend to the farmers for production. That we would protect the insurance companies, the building and loan associations, the savings banks, the country banks, and every other point of weakness."—President Hoover at Des Moines.

ORATORIO NIGHT AT M. E. CHURCH

Includes Half Hour Program With World's Greatest Religious Music

Sunday evening at the Epworth Methodist Church, Palmyra, will be held an "Oratorio Night." This service is different from most musical services in the fact that practically all of the numbers are taken from some of the great oratorios.

The choir will be assisted by soloists and guest singers. This half-hour of sacred music will precede the sermon, beginning at 7:45. Mrs. Lord will be at the console of our beautiful three manual organ.

The program will be as follows: "Unto the Sea Portals," from "The Redemption," by Gounod—the choir. Women's Trio—"Lift Thine Eyes," from "Elijah," by Mendelssohn. Trio consists of Mrs. Pimm, Miss Mary Coward, Mrs. Ralph Rivers.

Bass Solo, Elwood Johnson—"Rolling in Feasting Billows," from "The Creation," by Haydn. Quartet (Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Harry Straub, Herbert Baugh, George Long)—"God So Loved the World," from "The Crucifixion," by Sulner. Soprano Solo, Mrs. Pimm—"Come Unto Him," from Handel's "Messiah." Mixed Trio (Mrs. D. Grey Schwarz, L. Grey Schwarz, Miss Mary Coward)—"Praise Ye," from "Attila," by Verdi. Contralto Solo, Mrs. Rivers—"Eye Hath Not Seen," from "The Holy City," by Gaul.

CHANDU, The Magician

"Chandu, The Magician," a mystery thriller, will be the feature at the Palmyra Broadway Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Edmund Lowe, Bela Lugosi and Irene Ware will play the leading parts.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLAY IS SUCCESS

Various Chorus Give Able and Delightful Performances Before Large Audiences

A three-act mystery drama, "Ghost House," was presented in the Palmyra High School auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Palmyra.

This drama was directed by Miss Evelyn Kelley, and much credit is due her and the cast, 100 per cent. local talent, for the fine performance given. This play proved to be a most interesting mystery story, and was so full of action that it maintained the interest of the audience from beginning to end.

As for the players it would be difficult to find one that was not suited for the part he played. Each one in his own part held up the entire play.

Added to the drama were the various choruses which gave able and delightful performances. The specialty dances, given by pupils of Mrs. Alexine Tomes, were very pleasing.

The Woman's Club, at this time wishes to thank all who had any part in any way helping to present this play.

Cast and choruses:
Barbara Brown Madelyn Zeller
Martha Brown Martha Hirsch

Paulette Andrews Muriel Burghmann
James Oliver Nelson Randolph
Benton Thompson Joseph Seel
Donald Kent Hayes Brady
Richard Bates Harry Storicks
Mrs. Richard Bates June Price
Ted Wilson Bruce Beahn
Inspector Brooks John McCully
Mandee Washington Evelyn Weart
The Stranger George J. Seel, Sr.
Snack Dance: Edna Memier, Mary Paterson, Carolyn Evans, Jean Stager, Grace Kneibler, Kathryn Broderson, Virginia Ingling.

Ghost Dance: Jean Black, Doris Black, Frances Bradley, Eleanor Horn, Ruth Homer, Catherine McAnulty, Ruth Seebey.

Detective Chorus: Edward Hoyt, D. Grey Schwarz, soloists; Stanley Black, James Seither, George Sharp, Herbert Baugh, Arthur Palmer.

Finale: Anna Cardua, Rae Haberman, Helen Halst, Mildred Speer, Betty Showell, Frances DeVinney, Sue Teeple.

Specialties: Three dances by pupils of Alexine Tomes. Mrs. May Davies Wolcott, pianist.

CLUB LUNCHEON

The Woman's Club, of Palmyra, is having a luncheon Monday afternoon at one o'clock. Mrs. H. B. Williams is the chairman.

Miss Mary Clayton Welles, of Summit, N. J., will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be "New Books on My Table."

Make all luncheon reservations through Mrs. William S. Branson, Leconey Circle. Telephone, Riverton 1151.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

This week has been proclaimed as "Fire Prevention Week".

Well enough, so far as it goes. But every week ought to be a fire prevention week.

With an average of 15,000 persons burned to death and a property loss of half a billion dollars annually in the United States we ought to take fire hazards more seriously.

BACK TO TWO-CENT POSTAGE

It begins to look as if the post office department would have to back up on its first class letter postage recently advanced from two to three cents, and restore the two cent rate. There has been a great protest all over the nation following this advance. The new rate was found to decrease instead of increase returns and many letters that heretofore were mailed, were being delivered by carrier. Thousands of business firms that had postage bills fell back to the postal card for correspondence which was brief and on a general public nature.

So now comes the good news that a beginning has been started to give us back the two cent letter postage. The house post office subcommittee investigating the postal service the other day unanimously voted for restoration of the 2-cent postage rate on first-class mail matter.

The group announced "this action was taken in view of representations made to the subcommittee at its hearings, the falling off in the volume of first-class mail since the 3-cent rate went into effect July 6, and the postmaster general's recent public statement that the 2-cent rate should be restored as soon as the postal business warranted it."

The committee, now holding hearings on postal matters, will report to Congress at the December session.

COLLEGE ENDOWMENTS

It is to the credit of philanthropic rich men that they have given generously of their wealth for college endowments. But in view of the overcrowding of endowed colleges by alleged students who only go to college for the sake of being known as "college men", it is pertinent to ask whether the best results are obtained from these large bequests.

That any young person not possessing the natural qualifications or character to make proper use of a college course should crowd out an earnest and qualified student is shameful. That any who possess the mental and moral capacity for using higher education for the advancement of mankind should be denied it is a tragedy.

Some of the millions which are donated for the general use of colleges might be put to better use by devoting them to the establishment of scholarships, including living expenses, for talented boys and girls who are unable to secure higher education without such aid.

Many scholarships are provided for at present, it is true, but there are not nearly as many as there ought to be. To really educate one exceptionally bright and deserving boy or girl would be more beneficial to society than the turning out of a dozen mediocre graduates, whose college training is of doubtful value to themselves or anyone else.

The Relief has already increased considerably above the cost for August.

Of the total expended for relief during September, approximately $140.00 will be recovered from State Emergency Relief organization. Regular collections turned in by district captains amount to about $100 a week.

With the coming of winter added effort will be required in order to raise this amount to a minimum of $125.00 each week to meet the relief requirements and enable us to obtain the assistance of the state organization.

The Board of Welfare desires to point out that it is not urging the holding of benefits of various kinds for the raising of welfare funds. It is believed that such benefits always involve some expense and considerable effort and frequently place a burden on those who are direct weekly contributors.

You are urged to give to your local block leader even if it is a small amount each week, or an unpledged amount every two weeks or every month. You can be confident that one hundred cents of every dollar thus contributed will be carefully expended for needed direct relief. If no block leader is calling at your home, leave your contribution with the district captain or any member of the Welfare Board.

The clothing committee is urgently in need of additional contributions of clothing. There is particularly a shortage of children's underwear and boys' blouses. Men's clothing, particularly socks, shirts, shoes and trousers are likewise much needed. Call any member of the Welfare Board and arrangements will be made to collect available clothing.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

The Riverton Grammar School instead of giving Columbus Day as a holiday, celebrated the discovery of America with appropriate exercises in the school. The Student Council in cooperation with the teachers arranged a special assembly and a four-reel moving picture entitled "Columbus" was shown, on Monday afternoon.

The Art Club under the direction of Miss Gillfillan is at the present time engaged in drawing, painting and modeling. The 6th grade is making pottery following processes used by early people. Preparing their own clay from clay soil found in Riverton and coloring it with the juice of berries found in and about Riverton. Health posters are being displayed in some rooms to illustrate proper sitting and standing postures.

Room libraries now have books in circulation for home reading. The first and second grades accompanied by Miss Justice and Miss Evald took a walk to gather material for the study of seeds.

The 7th and 8th grades have completed their campaign for Curtis Publishing Company subscriptions and while they did not quite reach their goal (an average of one subscription per pupil) they realized a nice sum for their class treasures. The gold team beat the green team 28 to 19.

BUSINESS GIRLS ENJOY DINNER

Members of Club Plan Masked Party at YMCA Building

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Palmyra and Riverton held a very enjoyable dinner-meeting at Camp Ockanickon on Thursday evening of last week.

The evening's activities were begun with the serving of a very delicious dinner, which was greatly enjoyed by the girls in attendance. After dinner the girls gathered around the glowing fireplace and held a brief business session.

Miss Ruth Laessle gave a very humorous and interesting account of the County "Y" weekend at Camp Ockanickon.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed by playing games and doing stunts under the able leadership and direction of Guy C. Hendry, county secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

Members of the club are to be reminded of the masked party to be held at the "Y" Building, Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, on Thursday evening, October 20, at eight o'clock.

Everyone is urged to mask and an evening of real fun is promised.

VENITE ODORAMUS

By WILLIAM SCHOFF

At the Playground Ball Cup Presentation, at the Riverton fire house the other night, a hilarious outrage was perpetrated and other high-sounding words. The Limburger Cheese Sandwiches were isolated at the top of the dumb waiter shaft.

Did Limburger Cheese ever do anything that warranted its exile from the other sandwiches in the kitchen of the Fire House? The answer is no. Because Limburger is endowed with a peculiar odor as its means of national defense, had Mr. Ulmer the right to chase it to the top of the dumb waiter? Too, was it altogether fair to the dumb waiter? Whereas the waiter was merely dumb before, after the sojourn of the Limburger in its voluptuous midst, it is probably insensible.

Oh, but there are lots of things, Horatio, that smell worse than Limburger Cheese, ay, innumerable things. In one of my previous epics, there was some blot blotted on the lily-white escutcheon of burning feathers.

That hombie who composed the duty about "feathering your nest" probably would not have united in song had his Feathered Nest ever been afflicted with a conflagration.

Some twelve drachmae worth of fleeting fame should be ambushed along the broad and narrow way of burning rubber, too. I am told that people burn rubber to cover up the smell of the home-brew they are making. We often smell rubber burning around Lincoln avenue.

Then there is an animal christened Skunk, James W. At times, skunks have an offensive, if not foul, odor. People who have been contiguous to a skunk at the time of an eruption must bury their respective clothes for forty days and an equal number of nights.

Another pretty wicked smell is decayed cabbage. We had some down our cellar once, so I know whereof I speak. Speaking of cabbage, the smell of stewing sauer kraut is music to my ears—long may they waver!

Ancient eggs have an aroma far from Coty's Parfum, Inc. That aroma bears the noncommittal nomenclature of hydrogen sulphide. The least said about it, the better for all.

However, I must tell you that my Uncle Joe, who has eaten fried egg sandwiches for breakfast since goodness knows when, found a premature chicken in his daily egg the other morning. Needless to say, the foul fowl was hove remorselessly into the discard.

Returning blithely to Limburger, I pretend that I like it. I don't, I believe that the majority of the people who claim they relish Limburger merely pretend that they enjoy it, brave souls. Else they have undeveloped senses of smell and taste.

Yet I have eaten stuff that was worse than Limburger, e.g., goats' milk cheese from Switzerland. The Swiss call their country Helvetia; that is exactly my sentiment about goats' milk cheese.

Taylor's River Side Homestead Farm Has Long and Interesting History

Noted for Food Production Under Management of One Family For at Least Two Hundred Years; Was Once Terminal of Camden and Amboy Railroad

River Side Homestead Farm, at Taylor's Lane, now owned by Howard G. Taylor, Jr., has a record of food production at the hands of the Taylor family and its ancestors for at least two centuries. It is a part of a tract settled by Joseph Wright, which originally extended from Swede's Run to the Union Landing Road and from the "De La War" River to the "Burlington Road," now known as State Highway Route 25.

Many divisions and sub-divisions have been made in two hundred years. River Side Homestead Farm at present comprises 140 acres of land between the River road and the Delaware, and along Taylor's Lane. The river frontage of about 1200 feet is faced with a stone wall for protection from high water. The soil varies from heavy loam along the river to light sand at the railroad.

In 1833 two acres of land were sold to the Camden and Amboy Railroad, which at that time had completed its road from South Amboy to the farm.

Edward Taylor, who then occupied the farm, fed the miles which pulled the stage-coaches bringing passengers from Camden to meet the train arriving daily from New York. Many of the light stage rails to be laid on a wood foundation were brought to the Taylor farm by boat, probably from England, and were there heated and straightened after being bent for loading into the hold of the ship.

"Bag station" on the railroad from this time until recently, when the stop was discontinued. The one member of the Taylor family to take up railroading as a business was the late Edward B. Taylor, of Sewickley, Pa., who, at the time of his death in 1922 was second vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The school problem in the early days was a real one. John Gardiner Taylor, grandfather of the present owner, went to a school on the site of the present Westfield Friends School at Cinnaminson, walking the four miles each way. In winter this meant leaving home about daylight. This may account for his later habit of haste, which led to many neighborhood stories. One of these stories tells of his taking his men to the field to hoe cantaloupes and having to sit on the fence to wait for it to get light enough to see.

Shipped by Sailboat
For many years the products of River Side Homestead Farm, as well as those of the surrounding country, were taken to Philadelphia market by railboat. Watermelons, cantaloupes, peaches, apples, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, etc., were loaded on the boat at the farm, and sold direct from the boat at the dock in Philadelphia. If the wind failed the boat had to be rowed with big oars aided by the tide. J. G. Taylor and, later, on the adjoining farm, sailed the market boat "Gem" and sold their own crops on the wharf.

The marketing of the farm products today includes wholesale shipment direct by motor trucks to distant points. Forty acres of sugar corn, 50 acres of peaches and 30 acres of apples, contribute the bulk of these wholesale lists. Because of repeated requests from many friends for small quantities of fruit and vegetables for their own tables, "Homestead Market" was opened in 1921. This small farm market opens each year about July 4, when the first sugar corn ripens, and continues daily (except Sunday) until after Halloween.

Early apples, cherries, currants, tomatoes, stringless beans, beets and carrots are sold at the stand. During the last week in July "Taylor Standard Pole Lima Beans" are ready to pick, and the interest of buyers is immediately strengthened.

2800 Poles Planted

These are a special bean developed by selection over many years by H. G. Taylor and named by him. This year 2800 poles of these beans were planted and in spite of an unusually heavy crop there has been a shortage at Homestead Market for many days. Weather conditions have much to do with shortages which occur every year for two or three weeks in the latter part of the season, although plantings are made in different locations and at different times. Being very scarce at present, considerable quantities will yet be harvested as the vines are well set with beans ready to pick about October 10.

The first sugar corn for Homestead Market is drilled about April 1 and planting continues weekly until the last of July. There are still three plots of sugar corn to be cut before ending the season of 1932.

Peaches are another specialty on this farm where a succession of varieties extends the ripening period from late July till early October. About 15,000 baskets have been sold this year. Iron Mountain and Krummels varieties.

BENEFIT SHOW FOR PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

"The Trunk From India" Comedy and Dancing Will Be Feature

The general public will have the opportunity of seeing one of the season's greatest comedy successes, "The Trunk from India," in two parts, which will be presented on Friday evening, October 14, at 8.15 o'clock for the benefit of the parochial school, at the school hall of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Fourth and Linden avenue, Riverton, by the Dramatic Association of the Holy Saviour parish of Westmont.

This comedy is well presented, is highly humorous and entertaining and provokes much laughter all through the acts.

In addition to this performance, a fine exhibition of the interpretive dancing art that will bring out the grace and beauty of the performers will also be accomplished, together with several specialty numbers that are sure to make a hit with the audience.

After 10 p. m. dancing, to the music of the Kings of Rhythm orchestra, will be in order.

The pastor, Rev. Joseph A. Rigney, as indeed fortunate in securing this array of talent, and all who see are promised a good show and an evening of entertainment that will be appreciated. The admission will be fifty cents at the door. Thomas McCrosson, of Palmyra, is general chairman of the committee in charge, aided by Chris Davis, chairman of the dance and music committee, and Andrew J. Pfaff, of the property committee. The program will be as follows:

PART FIRST
Opening chorus and dance by the Misses Anna Singer, Dorothy McCrosson, Vera Hitzel, Catherine O'Connor, Irish Jig, Miss Margaret Guerin, Cyrtan Dance, Miss Helen Lyon, Dance, Misses Ann Sinner and Mary McCarthy; Acrobatic Dance, Miss Helen O'Connor; Specialty Dance, Miss Lee Tunney; Tap Dance, Misses Vera Hitzel and Catherine O'Connor; Chorus and dance by the Misses Dorothy McCarthy, Helen Lyons, Mary Kennedy, Eleanor Bach and Irene Kennedy.

PART SECOND
"The Trunk from India," with the following cast: Marion Walsh, Patricia Taylor, Jane Tweedy, William H. Williams, William, Marie, Harry Steintragen, J. J. McCarthy.

After the above rendition, general dancing by the audience.

INNAMINSON SCHOOL NOTES

Should the publicity department of the Parent-Teachers fail to function, it will not be owing to a lack of interest or enthusiasm on the part of the two chairmen whom the Association is favored to have at the head, Mrs. Bowen of the state, and Mrs. Morrison of the county.

The meeting at Burlington on the sixth was interesting, instructive and inspiring, and one chairman, at least, came away with a renewed appreciation of her duties.

Thursday, the twentieth, Mrs. Charles Hammond, of the School of Ethical Culture, in New York City, will talk to the Parent-Teacher Association in the auditorium at 8 p. m. on "A Better Understanding Between the Home and the School." All who are interested are cordially asked to come to hear Mrs. Hammond.

The main object of interest at present is the membership drive now being made.

The visitor, attracted by a clatter of tongues, made her way to the basement on Monday, where two long tables filled with lower grade pupils, some with lunch from home, which many supplemented with a hot dish, some with a tray of food from the kitchen. When seated with bowed heads and folded hands, the talk at the other tables quieted while the little ones, led by their teacher, sang a simple grace before beginning on the contents of box or tray.

It is a privilege to take lunch at the school and see the good table manners, and join in the cheerful talk and subdued laughter. The very little ones were choosing their lunch under the supervision of the teacher, deciding quickly, not to keep the line waiting.

The patrol is doing fine work under the direction of a state trooper. The bus each has a patrol officer. The outstanding work so far has been in the Shea bus, where Bobby Anderson officiates.

These boys have lettered the "No Parking" signs and marked the side of the road in front of the school. All of this work is very creditably done.

The sub-primary visited the railroad station at Riverton last week, and are hoping to see the firehouse this week. These trips are a thrill for the children, and the questions asked can be imagined.

Taylor's River Side Homestead Farm Has Long and Interesting History

Noted for Food Production Under Management of One Family For at Least Two Hundred Years; Was Once Terminal of Camden and Amboy Railroad

River Side Homestead Farm, at Taylor's Lane, now owned by Howard G. Taylor, Jr., has a record of food production at the hands of the Taylor family and its ancestors for at least two centuries. It is a part of a tract settled by Joseph Wright, which originally extended from Swede's Run to the Union Landing Road and from the "De La War" River to the "Bur-lington Road," now known as State Highway Route 25.

Many divisions and sub-divisions have been made in two hundred years. River Side Homestead Farm at present comprises 140 acres of land between the River road and the Delaware, and along Taylor's Lane. The river frontage of about 1200 feet is faced with a stone wall for protection from high water. The soil varies from heavy loam along the river to light sand at the railroad.

In 1822 two acres of land were sold to the Camden and Amboy Railroad, which at that time had completed its road from South Amboy to the farm.

Unloaded Rails There Edward Taylor, who then occupied the farm, fed the mules which pulled the stage-coaches bringing passengers from Camden to meet the train arriving daily from New York. Many of the light strap rails to be laid on a wood foundation were brought to the Taylor farm by boat, probably from England, and were there heated and straightened after being bent for loading into the hold of the ship. "Taylor Station" was well-known "flag station" on the railroad from this time until recently, when the stop was discontinued. The one member of the Taylor family to take up railroading as a business was the late Edward B. If the wind failed the boat had to be rowed with big oars aided by the tide. J. G. Taylor and Edward Hunter, tenant for Charles Haines, on the adjoining farm, sailed the market boat "Gem" and sold their own crops on the wharf.

Cinamminson Bank and Trust Company of Riverton, N. J., executor.

Dated: September 14th, 1932, 419-221011 24

roduced by the energetic county publicity chairman, Mrs. Charles Morison, after which Mrs. Bowen gave one of her clear and instructive talks on the importance of, and the requirements for a good publicity chairman, together with helpful suggestions as to the kind of thing that makes real "news."

Mrs. Bowen also proposed that for the good of the work the office of all publicity chairmen, county and local, should be included in the budget, so that releases of county and state activities may be sent out at regular intervals, thereby keeping both the membership and the public at large informed. This work, being mimeographed, would not be expensive.

Luncheon was served in the basement of the church where, after a very tasty and well-served meal, messages were given by several county officers, and delightful solos by Mrs. Eugene Flaro.

Mrs. Little, the speaker of the day, gave a stirring talk, leaving her hearers hoping that she will visit us often in the future, even if another has taken her office.

Mrs. Arthur Huxton, past county chairman, then presented Mrs. Morison with a token of esteem from the publicity chairmen of the county, and as a gift upon her wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Morison is to be congratulated upon the success of the luncheon.

Press Chairman.

BIBLE CLASSES HEAR REV. TIPTON

Splendid Address by Philadelphia Minister Is Greatly Enjoyed by Members

The Rev. Robert Tipton, of Philadelphia, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Burlington County Federation of Men's Bible Classes in Maple Shade Sunday afternoon.

"Facing the Fact and Keeping the Faith" was the subject of the splendid address given by the Rev. Mr. Tipton. His talk was so thoroughly enjoyed by those in attendance that it was voted he return to speak to the members at the regular November meeting.

Next month's meeting will be held in Burlington on Sunday, the 19th. The place will be announced at a later date.

Members of the Federation are reminded of the Burlington County Sunday School Convention to be held in the Broad Street M. E. Church, Burlington, on Thursday, October 20. An interesting all-day session is planned.

The evening session will begin at seven o'clock and all those who cannot attend the day session are urged to be present.

CLINICS (all patients sent by doctors): Attended—44 pre-natal clinics with 126 patients; 20 tuberculosis clinics with 64 patients; 9 surgical clinics with 13 patients; 3 gynecological clinics with 5 patients; 12 nose and throat clinics with 26 patients; 1 orthopedic clinic with 3 patients.

There were 38 tonsil and adenoid operations done during the year, and 13 X-rays.

At present the nurses are taking a school boy with growth on arm from automobile accident, for X-ray treatments. He has already had 8 treatments. They helped to send 3 babies, malnutrition cases, to the hospital. One baby stayed five months and the other two babies over one month each.

Every Thursday morning the Riverton school children were taken to Dr. W. R. Dunn, Palmyra dentist: 23 clinics, 205 visits, 51 finished, 94 extractions, 7 nerve treatments, 183 fillings, 2 X-rays.

In addition to the Riverton and Cinamminson Public School work the nurses have taken up the work of the Sacred Heart Parochial School.

There has been very complete and satisfactory cooperation between the welfare worker, Mrs. Cooper, and also Cinamminson Home for Convalescents. Anyone in the district may call on the nurses for nursing care. Those who can are expected to pay full fees. Those who cannot pay full fees are expected to pay what they can for the nurses' time. All money received in this way by the nurses is turned in to the treasurer of Society.

Holders of individual policies in the Metropolitan and John Hancock Life Insurance Companies are entitled to nursing service under the terms of their contracts. The bill sent by the nurse to the company at the end of each month is paid by check to the Society.

The Visiting Nurse Committee greatly appreciates the assistance of those men and women who annually help with the collection of funds. But these funds do not cover the cost of maintaining this nursing service; salaries must be paid, supplies purchased, and property upkeep must be maintained. Much work is done free of charge where necessary demands.

MARTHA McL. BIDDLE, Treasurer.

Ernie Dusek to Meet Grubmier on Monday Night in Charlie Grip's Convention Hall Wrestling Show

Champions by their ways sometimes give promoters, in their ways, plenty of headaches. If you don't believe it, ask Charlie Grip, Camden's mat impresario, who has been nursing something approaching a grand headache as a result of the run-around world heavyweight champion Jim Londos gave him over Fred Grubmier.

It came about this way: Several weeks ago Jimmy verbally agreed, via his multipiece-manager, Ed White, to do his stuff in Camden "in the near future, not later than the middle of October," and promised to sign a contract in due time. Accordingly, when Fred Grubmier developed into such a sensation, Charlie saw a good chance to give the Camden fans something to talk about, and when he booked the Snake with McKay last week it was with the idea of pitting the winner against "Jeems" for the seventeenth.

But as soon as this idea was transmittal to the White-Londos combine, the wily Ed opined in no uncertain terms that there'd be no Londos appearance in Camden against Grubmier on October 17. "Why," said White, ably seconded by a nodding Grecian profile, "that's just a lot of hokey, putting McKay with Fred, for the bump pole will take him like Grant took Richmond, and just now I do not feel like letting Jim wrestle such an extremely dangerous man on a few days' notice."

Entreaties and threats availed nothing so Charlie had to turn elsewhere for a scrap. Ernie Dusek accommodated him, so it will be Ernie and Grubmier on Monday night, best two out of three falls, 90 minutes time limit, and Charlie definitely stated that the winner of that bout will meet Londos in the Convention Hall the following Monday, or that Londos will not do any more coin collecting in Camden, and furthermore, that he will try to run him completely out of the entire state of New Jersey. This statement has been given Londos and White, and Charlie has given them until Monday night to okay the plans or prepare for the consequences.

Three strong bouts support the main event, a 45-minute semi and two half-hour prelims. In the semi, Abe Coleman meets Buck Olsen, while Pat McKay tangles with Lou Plummer, of Notre Dame, and Joe Montana meets Wild Bill Nelson, in first two scraps.

It is a suggestion that the referee and first row customers make certain their insurance policies are in shape before this bout gets under way, the first one, we mean.

Autumn Frolic to Be Given Wednesday at Riverton Porch Club

An Autumn Frolic will be held Wednesday evening, October 19, at the Riverton Porch Club.

Music for the event will be furnished by the Delmyrians and dancing will start at 8:30 and continue until late.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or may be had by calling Riverton 621-J or Riverton 599.

This will be the first of a series of dances to be given during the fall and winter season, provided Wednesday's event is a success.

LEAGUE ORGANIZED

The organization meeting of the Professional and Business Men's Bowling League of Palmyra was held at the Palmyra Bowling Alleys Tuesday evening. C. R. Sweeney was elected president of the League, which will bowl each Tuesday evening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 16, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "I and my Father are one" (John 10:30).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8:12).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If we wish to follow Christ, Truth, it must be in the way of God's appointing. Jesus said, 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also'. He who would reach the source and find the divine remedy for every ill, must not try to climb the hill of Science by some other road" (p. 326).

*"What's the matter, don't you know me?" Chandu laughed.Chapter I

ON a high and precipitous cliff, overhanging a deep and desolate gorge of the mighty Himalayas stood a large and awe-inspiring Brahmin temple. The late afternoon sun, peering from behind the lofty peaks slanted its dying rays over the top of a high wall that surrounded the temple, and intruding its shaft of light into the shadow-filled courtyard, sought out the kneeling figure of a man, wrapped in a heavy robe. Before him stood a small group of holy men and to his right a bearded and wizened-faced priest. In the distance the muffled gong of a bell sounded the hour of the closing day and at its last stroke, the priest in a resonant voice said:

"In the three years thou hast dwelt among us thou hast conquered the Ams of the spirit. Thou shalt look into the eyes of men and they shall be as straw in thine hands. Thou shalt cause them to see what is not there, even unto a gathering of twelve times twelve. My son, I proclaim thee one of the sacred company of the Yogi and bestow upon thee the name of Chandu."

Chandu rose, bowed reverently to the old priest, and as the holy man gave way before him his sharp, narrow eyes beheld a flaming bed of live coals that lay between him and the door of the monastery. Stretching himself to his full height he approached the flaming path with a slow measured step, and without the slightest hesitation walked deliberately through it.

"Thou hast done well, my son!" said the priest, entering Chandu's monastery cell. "To few of thy face have the secrets of Yoga been revealed."

"To you, my teacher, I express my thanks," said Chandu reverently. "What more may I learn?"

"Nothing, now! The world needs thee. Go forth in thy youth and conquer the evil that threatens mankind. I have gazed in the crystal and have seen the forces of death and destruction rising from the brain of a madman!" Pointing to a crystal ball on a small velvet covered table, he commanded, "Look!"

It was a moment before the nebulous vapor cleared in the crystal and then Chandu saw the menacing features of an evil face.

"Who is this man?" he inquired quietly.

"Rohor! Last of an ancient family that lived in Alexandria."

"Why am I appointed to fight against this man?"

"It is fate, my son. Fate has thrown thine own family in the path of this human monster!"

"Look," the priest again commanded as Chandu raised his eyes in alarm and this time it was the beautiful face of an English woman in the crystal's haze.

"My sister — Dorothy," Chandu exclaimed.

"Yes," confirmed the priest, "her husband has brought his family to Cairo so that he may be near his friend — Rohor."

And as suddenly as it appeared the woman's face vanished and in the crystal Chandu saw a large experimental laboratory filled with weird instruments. A black robed figure was bending over a small machine.

"This man," continued the priest, "Robert Regent, has a secret and enigmatic power."

"For years my brother-in-law has worked to perfect a death ray strong enough to destroy whole cities," said Chandu, "but he has never found it."

The man in the crystal mounted an iron stairway and on a balcony trained the muzzle of a gun upon a huge stone in the center of the laboratory. Protecting his eyes with a heavy pair of goggles he touched a switch and under the powerful ray of the gun the stone became white hot and then exploded in a cloud of smoke. The man pulled off his goggles, disclosing his look of success. He staggered to a large window

PALMYRA REPUBLICAN CLUB IS GROWING FAST

More Than Two Hundred Members Already Enrolled; Mass Meeting October 25

The membership of the Palmyra Hoover Republican Club is growing rapidly. More than two hundred members have already been enrolled and more cards are being signed every day.

Last week at the regular Wednesday evening meeting, plans were laid to district the town for the workers and this week further details were arranged for the big mass meeting to be held in Palmyra Tuesday evening, October 25.

A definite announcement concerning the mass meeting will be made next week.

PISTOL SHOOT

The weekly police target practice held last Friday afternoon and now several weeks underway resulted in a general lowering of scores. Police from Cinnaminson, Palmyra and Riverton competed in the sand hole on Cinnaminson avenue, next to Steel's Nursery. The contestants and their scores follow:

Police
Lawrence Betty 142
George Dorworth 139
John Robinson 136

Citizens
Karl Latch 127

Dr. James Day 109
The wind was blowing strong enough to make aiming difficult, which resulted in a lower average for all. The police are glad for competition and invite other policemen as well as any citizens who might be interested to participate.

SEES INVENTIONS AS AID TO MUSIC

Lakeview Park Carillon More Easily Played as Result of Science

Modern inventions have aided rather than halted the popularity of music.

So declared Bernard R. Mausert, of Philadelphia, noted carillonneur of the Lakeview Memorial Park electric carillon.

"What is the future of music with electrical inventions rapidly replacing hand instruments?" Mausert was questioned.

"I see a bright outlook for a continued increase in the study of music whether the students of the future use electric or manual pianos," answered Mausert.

Perhaps the most outstanding of late advances in the musical world is the electrically-played carillon.

The carillon, an instrument which had its inception in the Twelfth Century, only made its appearance in the United States a decade or so ago.

Before electricity was applied to its operation, the carillon was a tedious instrument to play. It called for an athletic type of musician, one who could work both his hands and feet to precision and never, never tire.

The use of electric power, Mausert explained, has taken away the strenuous energy required to play a carillon and now a woman could operate the "keyboard"—providing of course that she had studied how to play the bells.

The electric carillon is the direct result of years of study and experiments by RCA Victor Company engineers and carillon experts.

The first carillon of this type was installed last April at Lakeview Memorial Park. There is only one other electrically-operated carillon in the world at the present time and that also was built and installed by RCA Victor Company in the Shrine of the Little Flower Catholic Church of Father Charles E. Coughlin in Detroit.

"How does an electric carillon play music?" Mausert was asked.

"The carillon is played much on the order of a piano. It has a similar keyboard. The finger touching the desired key, causes a miniature hammer to strike a tuned reed. This produces a bell tone which is then picked up by the electrically-operated amplifying system and broadcast from amplifiers in the carillon tower," Mausert explained.

The third of a series of carillon concerts will be held Sunday, October 16, at 3:00 p. m., at Lakeview Memorial Park on the Burlington Pike in Cinnaminson Township.

Last Sunday an attendance of more than 3,500 music lovers heard the second concert.

This Sunday's program by Mausert includes Wesley's "Come Thou Almighty King"; Mendelssohn's "Consolation"; Adams' "Nearer My God to Thee"; the Intermezzo from "Cavaleria Rusticana"; Haydn's "I Love to Tell the Story"; Chopin's "Nocturne in E-Flat"; Wesley's "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling"; Dvorak's "Songs of My Mother"; and Chopin's "Elegy from 'Funeral March'."

An apple a day keeps the doctor away but in the case of the small boy it depends on the color of the apple.

LADIES AUXILIARY OF FIRE COMPANY TO GIVE CARD PARTY ON OCT. 20

The Ladies Auxiliary of Independence Fire Company, No. 1, of Palmyra, is sponsoring a card party to be held in the fire house on West Broad street, Palmyra, Thursday evening, October 20.

The townspeople are urged to lend their hearty support to this worthwhile event and help in any and every way possible to make it the success that it should be.

Admission will be only twenty-five cents. Excellent prizes will be awarded the lucky players and refreshments will be served.

The general public is cordially invited to attend.

I. O. O. F. NOTES

Cinnaminson Lodge, No. 201, will hold its annual "doggy roast" at Schmitt's farm, Beverly, Saturday. All persons planning to be present are urged to notify Eula Roach at the earliest possible moment.

At the meeting of the lodge tomorrow evening installation of officers will be held. District Deputy Williams and his staff will be in attendance. All members are requested to be present.

Initiation of the first fall class will be held on Friday evening, October 21. A good turnout is hoped for.

Everyone is reminded to save all red arrow money stubs and to bring them to the next meeting.

LAKEVIEW MEMORIAL PARK . . . "The Cemetery Beautiful"

Every Sunday at 3 o'clock an inspiring Concert of sacred and classical music is played on the Carillon at Lakeview Memorial Park. Thousands of people are enjoying these concerts each week. You and your friends are cordially invited.

On the Burlington Pike, 1/2 Mile North of the Riverton-Moorestown Road

AN IMPORTANT DECISION YOU SHOULD MAKE NOW...

Secure a Final Resting Place for Your Loved Ones at the Low Cost of Only $5 per Month at Beautiful Lakeview Memorial Park

HOW much better it is to get the things that are inevitable attended to while it is easy to consider them! What assurance to know that the last resting place for you and your loved ones is provided and paid for in advance of need. For as little as $5 per month you can now reserve a burial estate in beautiful Lakeview Memorial Park.

The Cemetery Without Tombstones

Lakeview Memorial Park is a lovely park devoid of tombstones and misshapen monuments. Graves are marked by tablets of imperishable bronze set flush with the turf. The whole presents an aspect of majesty and repose, customary signs of earthly death being supplanted by the consoling natural charm of the place. Here all is beautiful, peaceful and inspiring.

Perpetual Care At No Extra Cost

By reserving a burial estate at Lakeview you have the assurance of knowing that it will be kept forever beautiful at no additional cost to you. The upkeep of the park is guaranteed for all time by a gigantic Perpetual Care Fund created especially for this purpose.

Act While Prices Are Low

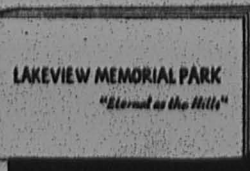

Those who purchase at Lakeview Memorial Park now have the choice of the finest locations and during the construction period lots may be obtained at a mere fraction of their actual value. The amount of cemetery space is limited, of course, so for lowest rates you must act promptly.

Liberal Purchase Plan

Only $5 per month is all you have to pay. You make a nominal initial deposit and pay the balance at the rate of $5 each month. Isn't that easy? You can make provision for four or more members of your family on this convenient

WHAT TO DO WITH THE RIVER BANK?

Riverton's Mayor Appoints Committee of Citizens to Offer Recommendations

The problem of "What to do with the river bank?" which has puzzled each succeeding mayor and council in the Borough of Riverton for many years, appears to be on the road to solution.

At the meeting of the Council last Thursday night Mayor Kilham E. Bennett appointed a committee of twelve citizens to investigate the matter and report to Council with recommendations.

The committee consists of Walter K. Woolman, W. A. Hendrickson, Charles A. Wright, John Strohl, H. H. Murray, Charles C. Miller, Mrs. William Porter, Mrs. S. L. Warren, James S. Coale, Benjamin S. Mechling, R. M. Woodward and Walter L. Bowen.

Councilman Francis B. Elwell, chairman of the fire and water committee, was absent, but submitted his report in writing to the effect that he recommended that the matter of reduced water rents, which was referred to the committee at the last meeting of council, be considered in conjunction with a committee from the newly-organized Riverton unit of the Taxpayers Association.

Will Build Garage

The sum of $900 was included in the budget for the year for the erection of a municipal garage in which to store borough road equipment and other machinery and supplies. On recommendation of Councilman Walter K. Woolman the borough property committee will be asked to consider the advisability of proceeding with the work at once.

Mr. Woolman presented a resolution, which was unanimously passed, empowering the mayor and council to issue a note in a sum not exceeding $10,000 in anticipation of the receipt of taxes.

The building inspector's report showed permits issued for operations amounting to $900 and fees of $7.50.

Police Report

The police report included an arrest for passing the red traffic light at the railroad station, a man found unconscious on the street and taken to the Burlington County Hospital, a robbery of cash and jewels amounting to $450, a colored man arrested on suspicion of prowling about a residence on Fourth street, but later released for lack of evidence, two arrests of women for disorderly conduct in connection with an automobile accident, a bicycle stolen and a garage broken into and a truck tire stolen.

ROTARIANS TOLD OF TAX INCREASE

Club Members Hear Interesting Talks by William Schmieder and Howard Taylor

The regular meeting of the Rotary Club was given over to club service this week. The chairman of the committee in charge was Edward Jessup, who provided the speakers of the evening: William Schmieder and Howard Taylor, both of Cinnaminson Township. Before these gentlemen addressed the club, the president announced an inter-city meeting to be held November 10 in the Riverton fire house. Clubs from Pemberton, Moorestown and Mount Holly are expected to attend in good number.

In line with the suggestions of the new district governor, the club service committee decided to have some tax matters discussed informally. Mr. Schmieder outlined the tax costs of Cinnaminson Township for the past ten years and showed their steady rise. The county tax has more than doubled and the school tax practically so.

Mr. Taylor then outlined how the school tax money was spent. Transportation and teachers' salaries were the big items in the school budget. The Cinnaminson board felt that neither could be cut without sacrificing the pupil. The club members as a whole enjoyed the two discussions and felt better informed about the tax problem of our neighboring township.

SACRED HEART P. T. A.

The Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association is planning a card party to be held on November 4 in the school auditorium.

Due to a uniform election throughout the diocese, the nomination of officers which was to have been held at the regular monthly P.T.A. meeting, October 15, will not take place until May, 1933.

Vacancies made by resignations were filled as follows: Mervil Haas, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Rowan, corresponding secretary, and third vice president, Mrs. Edna Kemmerle.

The book that is given each month by the P.T.A. to the class having the highest percentage of mothers present was awarded to Sister Maria James' room, the sixth grade.

A lucky number ticket will be given with each 25c purchase at the Riverton Electric Shoe Repair. Two turkeys will be donated to holders of the lucky numbers on November 19.—adv.

THE QUESTIONS ON THE BALLOT

Under the provisions of legislation passed in 1932, it is no longer required that notice of public questions to be submitted at an election shall be included in the notices for such elections published in newspapers, nor is it required that any other notice that the submission of such questions is to be made to the voters, shall be given. Neither is it required that any explanation of the meaning or intent of such questions shall be given, other than that which can be gleaned from the text of the questions themselves, which are printed on the sample ballots sent to voters before the election.

This year three questions will be on the ballot. First. The repeal of the Hobart Act. Second. Reduction of authorized bond issue for highway purposes from $3 million dollars to $3 million dollars.

Third. The issuance of bonds in the sum of twenty million dollars for emergency relief.

The full text of the questions is as follows:

1. The Hobart Prohibition Enforcement Act. Shall the act entitled "An act concerning intoxicating liquor used or to be used for beverage purposes," passed March seventh, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, commonly known as The Hobart Prohibition Enforcement Act, be repealed? Approved June 10, 1932.

2. An Act to Reduce the Debt of the State of New Jersey. Shall an act entitled "An act to reduce to sixty-three million dollars the debt authorized to be created by an act entitled 'An act authorizing the creation of a debt of the State of New Jersey by the issuance of bonds of the State in the sum of eighty-three million dollars for the relief of the unemployed and dependents and means to pay the interest of said debt, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof; and providing for the submission of this law to the people at a general election,' approved April eighteenth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty," become a law? Approved June 14, 1932.

3. Emergency Relief Fund. An act authorizing the creation of a debt of the State of New Jersey by the issuance of bonds of the State in the sum of twenty million dollars for the relief of the unemployed and dependents in this State, providing the ways and means to pay the interest of said debt, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof; and providing for the submission of this law to the people at a general election. Approved June 14, 1932.

The meaning of the first question is clear. The voter is given an opportunity to say whether or not he favors the repeal of the Hobart Law, which is the State Act for the enforcement of Prohibition.

The repeal of this law, however, does not mean the return of the sale of intoxicating liquors in New Jersey. It simply means the removal of State machinery for enforcement. This would throw the burden of enforcement (if any) on the Federal Prohibition forces.

The second question is a little involved as to wording and obscure as to meaning.

In the 1930 election the voters authorized a 100 million bond issue, 83 millions of which was for the highway department.

Translated into plain language the purpose of Question No. 2 is to reduce this sum to 63 millions and pave the way for Question No. 3.

The third question, if it receives a majority of votes, will authorize the issuance of bonds in the sum of 20 millions of dollars for emergency relief this winter.

Question No. 3 is of grave importance to taxpayers, and merits more consideration and investigation than could be given in the short time which will elapse between the receipt of the sample ballot and election day.

Chester I. Barnard, State Director of Emergency Relief, claims it is necessary to have the approval of this bond issue in order that his department may function and prevent want and suffering among the unemployed of the State this winter. Governor Moore says that he will stump the State to secure the approval of the bond issue if necessary.

On the other hand, Clinton L. Bardo, president of the New Jersey State Taxpayers' Association, claims the bond issue to be entirely unnecessary and is only proposed as an easy way out for government officials, who would rather saddle another bond issue on the taxpayers, with its heavy burden of interest, than to practice the necessary economies to procure relief funds by sharp retrenchment in expenditures and the utilization of current revenues, which the Taxpayers' Association claims to be quite sufficient to meet the estimated demands of one and a half million dollars per month up to the first of July, 1933.

The voter must make a choice between these two widely divergent views. If he does not vote one way or the other he is virtually voting for the bond issue, since some will surely vote for it, and a majority vote, however small, will insure its adoption.

No taxpayer wants to see his neighbor go cold and hungry. On the other hand, he wants to avoid being saddled with another bond issue unless it is really necessary.

It would be interesting and very much to the point, to have a joint debate on this subject at some central location, say Burlington, before election so that voters could hear both sides presented by those qualified to speak with authority.

BARGE TRIP FOR PORCH CLUB

Reservations for the Barge Party, planned by the Porch Club for October 25, must be sent by Friday, October 21, to Mrs. Joseph Thomas, telephone 648-W or to Mrs. Gilbert Coe, telephone 821-R. The party starts from the Porch Club at nine o'clock. The cab canal boat will be ready at New Hope at ten o'clock and will return there in the afternoon. Each member should take a box lunch. There is a shelter from the sun on the boat, but in case of rain the trip will not be made. The cost is fifty cents.

Buried alive for more than 100 hours, L. Macchett, foreman of a well-digging force in France, was still alive and singing when rescuers reached him.

JOY RIDERS CAUGHT

Five boys, Henry H. Bailey, 14 years old; Lawrence Bellford, 15; Robert Allen, 15; William Hylton, 17, and Arthur Bailey, 10 years, all of Palmyra, borrowed the car belonging to Isaac Harrington, also of Palmyra, last Saturday night and sailed forth on a joy ride.

The youths did not get farther than Fourth street, Riverton, before Officers Gootse and Robinson caught them. They were given a hearing before Police Recorder Bowers and all were released on a suspended sentence upon payment of costs.

A new shipment of Whitman's and Colman's delicious chocolates; 60c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 at the Blenheim Drug Store.

PAROCHIAL P.T.A. HOLDS CONFERENCE

Seventh Annual Meeting Held at Trenton October 12; Officers Elected

The Seventh Annual Conference of the Diocesan Council of Parochial Parent-Teacher Associations was held on Wednesday, October 12, in the Cathedral auditorium at Trenton.

The morning session opened at 10:30 o'clock with a prayer by the Most Rev. John McMahon, D.D., Bishop of Trenton.

Following selections by the Cathedral High School orchestra, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. R. Spillane, V.G., diocesan moderator, gave the members a very inspiring greeting. Msgr. Spillane said, "I am pleased, as each annual meeting comes, to review the reports made by the various officers of our Diocesan Parent-Teacher Association. Rapid strides have been made in this Diocese and the good accomplished cannot be estimated."

Msgr. Spillane also announced that the present diocesan officers had been elected for another year.

The question of uniformity of election to be held in May of each year for Parochial Parent-Teacher Associations was presented for discussion. It was moved, seconded and carried that this procedure be adopted.

Following business, an address was made by Sister M. Christine, S. M., on "Religious Training in the Home." It was such an extraordinary address, a motion was carried to have it printed and distributed throughout the diocese.

At one o'clock the convention adjourned to luncheon.

The afternoon session opened at 2:15 with the singing of the national anthem.

Very interesting addresses were made by the following: Rev. Michael A. Dalton, M. A., superintendent of diocesan schools; Allen G. Ireland, M. D., director of health, state of New Jersey; J. J. McGinnis, education, on "School Health Program"; Hon. Geoffrey W. Schroth, LL.D., judge court of common pleas, on "The Delinquent Child."

Following orchestra selections, the convention attended solemn benediction in the Cathedral.

Dr. Michael Dorias, president of the Diocesan Parochial Parent-Teacher Associations, presided.

LECTURER TELLS OF SOVIET RUSSIA

Dr. Michael Dorias Describes Conditions in Land of Soviets to Forth Club Members

A large audience met in the Riverton Porch Club Tuesday evening, October 18, and listened with great interest to the enlightening talk on Soviet Russia given by Dr. Michael Dorias.

In order that we might grasp the situation, he gave us a list of members: 1. Bourgeois Government. 2. Private Property. 3. Inheritance. 4. Patriotism. 5. Religion. 6. Home Life.

This is the basis of Communism. The 5-year-plan was also discussed and explained, as were agricultural interests in which both men and women work side by side. This is the same in all Russian activities.

These preparatory remarks, so named by Dr. Dorias, were followed by remarkable lantern slides. The Russians were portrayed at home and at work. These included some flatterer portraits of the chief himself. All connected with the school appreciate the pleasure he provided for grade one. These pictures are being used to develop what might be called "Early English" in the little ones.

The seventh and eighth grades, who for several years have sold subscriptions for the Curtis publications, have decided, on account of the times, not to ask for new subscriptions, but to take renewals where they are desired, the commissions to be given to the Welfare work.

SCHOOL CHILDREN VISIT FIRE HOUSE

First Grade of Cinnaminson School Ride to Riverton on Truck for Inspection

Grade one of School No. 2 visited the fire house in Riverton last week, and an excited group of children all tried to tell of the trip at once, when the visitor called. They were evidently permitted to see and to ask questions as they pleased.

The outstanding impression, and the one all tried to tell of, was the ride there and back on the truck. This was provided by the kindly thought of the chief, Walter Armstrong.

Pictures drawn by the little ones, commemorating the event, were on exhibition. These included some flatterer portraits of the chief himself. All connected with the school appreciate the pleasure he provided for grade one. These pictures are being used to develop what might be called "Early English" in the little ones.

Republican Meeting

The Riverton Republican Club, Inc., has completed arrangements for a Republican Mass Meeting to be held in the Riverton Fire House, Thursday evening, October 27th at 8 o'clock.

The speakers will be Hon. David Young, Sr., State Senator from Morris county, and Hon. Clifford Powell who needs no introduction to Burlington county audiences.

The county candidates will also be present and make brief addresses.

PNEUMONIA VICTIM

COLLINS H. HAINES
84-year-old Parry business man died last Sunday after four days illness. Founded C. H. Haines & Sons, Inc., farm supplies, 50 years ago. Was director of Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company, since its beginning in 1907.

C. H. HAINES DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Veteran Dealer in Farm Supplies and Implements Founded Business Fifty Years Ago

Collins H. Haines, 84-year-old Parry business man, succumbed to pneumonia at his home on Burlington Pike, Parry, three o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness lasting only four days.

Mr. Haines was known throughout South Jersey by many farmers through his seed and farmers' supply business, trading under the name of C. H. Haines and Sons, Inc. His death marks the climax to a story of work and resultant success which had its inception over fifty years ago in a little settlement grocery store.

Mr. Haines was born in Mount Laurel, and at an early age took his first position as a grocery store clerk in Marlton. He later became clerk in the Leeds grocery store in Cinnaminson, now operated by John Bohns. This position he left to work with his father-in-law, Timothy Morton, who operated a small grocery store in Parry, which still stands as a part of the present C. H. Haines & Sons buildings.

This business he eventually took over and carried on in the grocery line. At one time, some thirty-eight years ago, the Parry post office was located in the building and Mr. Haines was the postmaster. This, however, passed with the free rural delivery system.

The little grocery business grew and at one time took care of a large percentage of the Riverton grocery trade, branching out as the years passed to include seeds and farmers' supplies.

Twenty years ago the firm changed its name to C. H. Haines and Son and a large warehouse was erected next door to the original building, expanding its products to include farm implements. The firm then consisted of C. H. Haines and his son, T. Morton. T. Morton conceived and sponsored the idea of selling farm implements and the business grew and prospered.

T. Morton Haines' death in 1924 brought another change in the firm name, and the business became incorporated as C. H. Haines and Sons, Inc., which name it carries today.

C. H. Haines & Sons, Inc., have specialized in farmers' trade and now serve farmers in Burlington, Camden, Gloucester and Salem counties, on a large scale. Mr. Haines remained more or less active in the business until stricken last Wednesday.

C. H. Haines was one of the organizers of the Cinnaminson National Bank, back in 1907, and worked diligently among the townspeople for its creation. He served as one of the charter members on the board of directors and held his post on the board until the time of his death without interruption.

Mr. Haines took no active part in local politics, and with the exception of a membership in the Ancient Order of United Workmen, was not active in lodge or local social or civic clubs.

His many friends could always count upon him for good sound advice and carried their troubles to him, affectionately referring to him as "Uncle Coll."

Mr. Haines is survived by his widow and three sons, Raymond M. and Howard P., of Palmyra, and Arthur C. Haines, of Riverton.

Funeral services were held at his home on Wednesday at two o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. George Lockett officiating. Interment was made in the Colestown cemetery under the direction of Henry A. Rambo, funeral director.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR VISITING NURSES

Committee Appeals for Generous Response to That Work May Be Carried On

This is the time of year for the Visiting Nurse drive which is being held this week as a part of the Community Chest collection, and the committee is counting on all its friends to help and so make our work possible.

Through the courtesy of L. L. Keating, who has given us window space in his store, we are able to give an exhibit. We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Alfred Smith for her part, and to H. D. Hullings and Son, for their assistance.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has been most kind in giving us a film entitled "Working for Dear Life."

Mr. Ziaak is showing this for us at the Palmyra Theatre this week. The committee wishes to thank all who have helped and hopes everyone will take advantage of the opportunity offered them.

RIVERTON FORMS TAXPAYERS UNIT

Large Attendance at Meeting Held in Fire House Despite Weather

The Riverton unit of the State Taxpayers Association got off to a good start Monday night in spite of the inclement weather. The fire house was nearly filled, and the address by A. R. Everson, executive secretary of the State Association, was listened to with great interest.

Mr. Everson explained the purposes and methods of the Association, and how it is organized. There is a state office in Trenton, and all but two counties in the state have been organized. The dues are one per cent. of the amount the member paid for taxes the previous year, with a one-dollar minimum and a ten-dollar maximum. Burlington county's quota toward the support of the state organization is $2,500.

Citing instances to prove the rapid increase in cost of government, Mr. Everson referred to the report of the Abel Commission showing that up to 1930 the highway system had cost $114,000,000 more than the original estimate; and that from 1920 to 1930, while the population of the state had increased only 28 per cent., inmates of institutions had increased 51 per cent., employees 103 per cent., payrolls 181 per cent. In the schools student enrollment increased 32.7 per cent., and the cost of education 200 per cent.

Opposed to Bond Issue

The speaker was very strongly opposed to the twenty million dollar bond issue for emergency relief this winter. He said that Director Barnard of the State Emergency Relief has estimated his requirements at one and a half millions per month, with funds available to last until the middle of December. The additional sum for relief work until the first of July next, therefore, is ten million dollars, and not twenty million dollars, said Mr. Everson.

Why, then, a bond issue for twenty million dollars, asked the speaker? He answered his own question by stating that the other ten millions were to be used to pay back sums borrowed from the gasoline tax, $3,500,000; motor vehicle, $3,000,000, and teachers' pension fund, $4,121,566.

His contention was that the repayment of these loans could be deferred until the state is in a better financial condition, and that the ten million dollars actually needed for relief work could be secured from current income from the gasoline tax and motor vehicle tax, since the amount was not needed in a lump sum, but month by month.

Mr. Everson urged his hearers to vote "yes" on the question to appear on the ballots reducing the bond issue to sixty-three million dollars for highways and to vote "no" on the question of issuing bonds in the sum of twenty million dollars for emergency relief. Mr. Mechling proposed that the Riverton unit send out information concerning this issue at once.

The speaker was introduced by James S. Coale, who was chairman of the meeting. Howard G. Taylor, Jr., was elected temporary secretary.

Benjamin S. Mechling, chairman of the committee on by-laws, submitted the form recommended by the State Association, with necessary changes, and they were adopted.

Board of Directors

J. Carl DeLaCour, chairman of the committee on nominations, suggested the following as a board of directors, and they were unanimously elected: James S. Coale, Joseph J. Tyler, Edward S. Wood, Benjamin S. Mechling, Harry E. Moyer, Clement Biddle Lewis, H. M. Kleckhefer, Edwin S. Parry, Stuart B. Clark, Henry L. Randall, Harold J. Fink, Frank M. Strohl, Edgar W. Miller.

Chairman Coale announced that a questionnaire would be sent to all the state and county candidates in the coming election asking them to declare their position on such public questions as the payment of the bonus, mandatory legislation, etc., and that tabs would be kept on their activities after election to see how well their actions squared with their promises.

R. M. Fuller addressed the assembled taxpayers on the subject of water rates. He said that steps were to be taken to confer with the water company after the necessary data had been accumulated, to see if more favorable rates could be secured. It may be necessary, he said, to make a formal appeal through the mayor and council to the Public Utilities Commission.

Meanwhile, he urged those who contemplated putting in private wells to defer action until it is seen what can be done about the rates. The more wells were installed, he pointed out, the more the revenue of the water company would be reduced, which would result in the grant of a higher rate to those who continued to be consumers.

AUTO STOLEN

A Chevrolet sedan belonging to Oscar Wagnery, of 119 Morgan avenue, Palmyra, was stolen from in front of William Harding's residence, 712 Main street, Riverton, around midnight, Saturday night. No trace of the car has been uncovered by police as yet.

PALMYRA P.T.A. HEARS SPLENDID TALK BY PASTOR

Mrs. J. C. Mallory, Organization President, Delivers Address of Welcome

JOHN PASQUALE

Attendance Banner Won by Miss Price's Room; Mrs.
Powell Reads Story

Mrs. J. C. Mallory, president of the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association, delivered the address of welcome at the reception of parents, teachers and members of the Palmyra school board held Tuesday evening in the Palmyra High School auditorium.

Frank L. Durgin, Jr., president of the board of education, and Prof. C. F. Dengler, supervising principal of the Palmyra school system, also gave brief addresses on behalf of the board and the faculty.

The High School orchestra under the able direction of Miss Mary Johnson, music supervisor, rendered several selections.

John Pasquale, member of the Philadelphia Operatic Company, held his audience spellbound with his delightful renditions. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Robert Sim. Those in the audience demanded encores repeatedly until Mr. Pasquale had to refuse owing to lack of time.

The Rev. James F. Boughton, of Delanco, guest speaker of the evening, delivered a most enlightening and interesting address.

The Rev. Mr. Boughton gave some very helpful advice to parents concerning character building in their children. He told those present of the necessity of spending time with their little ones and that any time spent would not be wasted, as the guidance by the parents in the home is even more essential than the guidance by the teachers in the child's school life.

Mrs. Elvin I. Powell, secretary of the P.T.A., read a most unique story, which incorporated the names of the fifty teachers in the Palmyra schools in a very clever and amusing fashion.

The P.T.A. attendance banner was won by Miss Price's room.

BOROUGH COUNCIL FOR ECONOMICS

Palmyra Officials Discuss Ways and Means of Saving Money

Palmyra Borough Council at its meeting Tuesday evening discussed at length the methods of reducing expenditures for next year.

Opinion was general that the only definite opportunity of economies was in reducing salaries, yet if only borough salaries are affected, the saving will be so small as to be almost negligible. School salaries, which are much greater in the aggregate, are protected by mandatory legislation in the tenure law.

All the councilmen agreed that council owes it to the citizens to reduce taxes, but just how to do it remained a puzzle.

The proposed mercantile tax ordinance, assessing each business man $10 per year, will be introduced at a special meeting November 1.

Floyd Spahr, of the lighting committee, announced a complete survey of street lights would be made in an effort to effect savings.

Councilman Lippincott was granted more time for changes in the building code, since little construction is in progress now, and it is desired to have the code thoroughly revised.

An investigation of various police cases in recent months resulted in a clean bill of health being given the police department.

TAXPAYERS TO MEET

Owing to a mix-up the meeting of the Palmyra Taxpayers' Association will be held this evening in the American Legion Home, Palmyra, instead of the fire house.

The meeting will be called to order at eight o'clock, at which time election of officers will take place. All interested persons are urged to be present.

REV. GEORGE LOCKETT, B.D.

ORDINATION TO BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

Rev. George Lockett Will Celebrate 20th Year as Baptist Clergyman

The Rev. George Lockett, pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Palmyra and Riverton, will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of his ordination on Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. William H. Main, D.D., executive secretary of the American Baptist Publication Society. Dr. Main was the moderator of the council which ordained the Rev. Mr. Lockett.

During Mr. Lockett's seminary days he was pastor of the Baptist Church at Sewell, N. J., and on January 1, 1912, he became pastor of the New Beren Church at Fifty-ninth and Pine streets, Philadelphia.

The New Beren Church was newly established when the Rev. Mr. Lockett accepted the pastorate and during his ministry a large modern Sunday School building was completed.

He was minister of the Philadelphia Church for fourteen years and in January of 1928 he resigned to accept the Palmyra charge.

During his pastorage in Palmyra 164 new members have come into the church. He has performed 29 weddings and has officiated at 98 funerals.

The Rev. Mr. Lockett is active in civic affairs. He is chaplain of the Masonic Lodge and the fire department and president of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club.

PEDDLERS' PERMITS

Palmyra Residents Urged to Cooperate With Police

Chief of Police Beck wishes to call to the attention of Palmyra citizens the fact that vendors selling articles from house-to-house should have a police permit. If no such permit is exhibited upon request, the police should be notified at once.

Chief Beck told of a recent case where he found a man selling candy from door-to-door, saying he was trying to raise ten dollars to pay his rent, and pretending to be a resident of Palmyra. This man had with him a small child, for purposes of arousing sympathy. Investigation proved this man was a Camdentite and was simply working a sympathy "racket." The permits issued by the police are dated for certain lengths of time.

CAKE SALE

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Palmyra, will hold a cake sale on ex-Mayor George N. Wimer's porch, at 15 East Broad street, Palmyra, on Saturday, October 22.

Mrs. Walter S. Hansen, captain of the troop, along with the girls, is making every effort to make the event a success.

The townspeople are urged to donate and patronize the sale.

WOMEN PLAN TRIP

The Woman's Club of Palmyra is planning a trip to the Walker-Gordon Laboratory in Plainsboro, on Thursday, October 27.

Lunch will be served at the laboratory. This should be a very interesting and instructive trip, and those wishing to go may get in touch with Mrs. Herbert Trout, transportation chairman, for further information. Phone Riverton 944.

Convicted of libel, Miss Kathleen Moore, of London, refused to say she was sorry, declaring she would rather go to jail.

PRESWELL McLAUGHIN TO DELIVER ADDRESS

D. Lane Powers and County
Candidates Also Will Speak

A great Republican rally will be held in the Palmyra High School Auditorium next Tuesday evening, October 25, under the auspices of the Hoover Republican Club.

The chief speaker of the evening will be the Hon. Preswell McLaughlin, a famous New York editor, essayist and student of political history. The speaker, coming from the national Republican speakers' bureau, has a wide reputation for eloquence and a deep command of the political situation.

D. Lane Powers, Republican candidate for Congress from this district; Republican County Chairman Charles R. Stout; Assemblyman Marcus W. Newcomb; Freeholder William H. Heller, and Republican nominee for sheriff, George N. Wimer, will also speak. Special music will be provided.

The meeting was arranged by W. Rex McCrosson, of Palmyra, former state commander of the American Legion. Mr. McCrosson will preside and introduce the speakers.

All the other Republican county and local candidates will be presented from the platform.

The Palmyra Hoover Republican Club has been growing rapidly and has already attained its original goal of 300 members. Many more are being added daily.

TRIED TO ENTICE TWO SCHOOL GIRLS

Camden Truck Driver Arrested
After Complaints in Palmyra

A truck driver, being held in ball in Camden on the charge of enticing a young school girl to a lonely spot on the River road between Palmyra and Camden, has been identified as the same man who attempted to get two Palmyra school girls, one nine and the other ten, to get into his truck last Thursday.

One of the teachers of the Spring Garden street school learned last Thursday afternoon that a 9-year-old girl pupil had spurned the advances of a man in a cleaning and dyeing truck, who had offered her a dollar if she would let him drive her to school. This was reported to the police at once and later in the afternoon a mother reported to the police that her ten-year-old daughter had been approached the same way.

Palmyra police obtained a description of the truck and surmised it was one making weekly deliveries in Palmyra, and planned to apprehend the driver of any truck which answered the general description.

In the meantime, however, the truck driver, named Mario Fanelli, of Camden, 19 years old, had been arrested on the charge of taking a Camden school girl to a lonely spot near the Mohican Country Club at Morris Junction. This girl had managed to escape and gave an alarm, resulting in Fanelli's arrest.

The two Palmyra children were taken to Camden and identified the prisoner. He will be tried on the Camden charge.

CARD PARTY

The Ladies Auxiliary of Independence Fire Company, No. 1, Palmyra, is sponsoring a card party to be held in the fire house on West Broad street, Palmyra, this evening.

The townspeople are urged to lend their hearty support to this worthwhile event and help in any and every way possible to make it the success that it should be.

Admission will be only twenty-five cents. Excellent prizes will be awarded the lucky players and refreshments will be served.

The general public is cordially invited to attend.

REPORTED PARALYSIS
CASE IS MENINGITIS

Roberta, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weiss, of Hainesport, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Robert F. Storey, formerly of Mount Holly, was found in her bed partially paralyzed when her parents went to awaken her recently. As the child had symptoms of infantile paralysis, health authorities ordered her removal to the Municipal Hospital in Camden, although local physicians were convinced that her ailment was meningitis and not infantile paralysis. It is said that this early diagnosis has been proved to be correct and the child has since been returned to its home. The child is reported to be making progress toward recovery.

TURN ON THE LIGHT!

WHEN a lamp fails it can be replaced easily. When sight fails, it can never be replaced. A few cents will keep every lamp socket in the home filled with an appropriate lamp. A fortune cannot repair sight that has been dimmed through the strain of trying to work or read in poor light.

Your favorite arm chair loses its attraction if there is no light near it. The living room should be so lighted that when all members of the family are gathered in it, every one can see clearly and comfortably.

Mazda lamps are inexpensive. Nearly everyone can have a supply on hand. No need to change a lamp from one socket to another; no need to risk the dangers of unlighted stairs or vestibules.

RED CROSS OPENS YEAR'S ROLL CALL

Crisis of 1932-33 Seen as Comparable to That of 1917

In 1917 the American nation went to war. For the vast majority—soldier, sailor and civilian alike—it was a strange and new experience, but there was no flinching in the face of duty. Four million men in uniform offered their lives. And four-square back of them stood the other hundred millions of Americans. What was asked of them they gave—gladly, generously, quickly. Whether it was money or service that was needed they gave what they could spare, and then more on top of that. No sacrifice was too great.

And now, 15 years later, in 1932, the American nation is again at war. This time the war is on our own soil. It is again want and misery and suffering. Tragedies as grim and on as wide a front as stared at us in 1917 must be faced in the coming year. They must be faced with the same unflinching courage which marked the days of 15 years ago.

Again, just as in that other war, government and people alike turn eager eyes toward the Red Cross, and not in vain. Once more the Greatest Mother in the World, in every battle front, standing shoulder to shoulder with those who are waging the fight against suffering.

You joined the Red Cross in 1917 and 1918. Join now and help the Red Cross in another armed conflict—the war against the ill of depression.

GIRL SCOUTS TO PRESENT PLAY

All Members of Troop No. 1 Will Take Part in Production

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Palmyra, are sponsoring a unique and interesting play, "Convincing Dad," to be presented next Thursday evening in the Epworth M. E. Church.

Each girl in the troop will have a part in the production, which will prove very entertaining to those who attend.

Members of the troop are as follows:

Thelma Cromwell, Eleanor Gamble, Margaret Mount, Cecelia Stone, Elizabeth Evald, Metha Shedaker, Virginia Howell, Ellen Anderson, Margaret Carson, Phyllis Carson, Marcia Durgin, Bertha Hansen, Mary Kirkpatrick, Marjorie Nace, Betsy Ann Lippincott.

Dorothea Trout, Rae Haberern, Jacqueline Haberern, Harriet Wise, Dorothy Mays, Marjorie Mervine, Grayce Sillard, Virginia Schweitzer, Ruth Horner, Yvette Nash, Mildred Garwood, Doris Hough, Justine Lefferts, Betty Huyett and Natalie Elima, Doris Woodcock and Maria Frank.

A silver offering will be taken and all parents and friends interested in scouting and the girls of the community are urged to make an effort to be present.

Following the presentation of the play a Girl Scout Court of Awards will be held. This is a very interesting service and it is hoped that all parents will be present to witness it.

AUXILIARY HOLDS OPEN MEETING

Short Program Proves Very Interesting to Members of Organization

A very enjoyable meeting was held Wednesday afternoon of last week by the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary. This was the first open meeting of the fall and winter season.

A short, but very interesting program was given consisting of a vocal solo by Mrs. Ralph S. Rivers, entitled "Deep River," and the poem, "Creation," was very touchingly read by Mrs. R. Selby Williams.

Mrs. Sherman L. Warren gave a complete and interesting autobiography of Sir George Williams, founder of the Y. M. C. A.

Several mothers joined the auxiliary at the meeting. Tea was served by the committee.

The auxiliary wishes to take this opportunity to thank its many friends for making the card party held at the Riverton Porch Club a success.

PARENTS HEAR FINE DISCUSSION

Miss M. Ermyn Jewell Gives Splendid Talk to Child Study Group

The Child Study Group meeting, which preceded the regular session of the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful ever held.

The classroom was crowded to overflowing. Miss M. Ermyn Jewell, a member of the high school faculty, gave a list of some splendid books which parents should obtain for the benefit and well-being of their children.

Miss Jewell said that regardless of likes and dislikes there are books for each and every child. She pointed out the necessity of beginning as early as possible with nursery rhymes. Miss Jewell stated that many evenings of real enjoyment could be had by a family reading a book together, each one taking a turn reading aloud.

She said books were our best friends, and in later years of life, when our friends have all but forgotten us, books will always be good company.

The librarian at the school may be consulted if one is in doubt about the kind of books to get for the child.

Miss Jewell mentioned the fact that with Christmas close at hand, the giving of books should be encouraged.

SCOUTS WILL HOLD SERVICE TONIGHT

Service Troop and Sea Scout Patrol Members to be Invested

Service Troop, Boys Scouts of Palmyra, will hold a double Investiture Service tonight in the First Lutheran Church.

A number of boys will be invested with the rank of Tenderfoot, marking the admission into and the first step in this movement, the Boy Scouts of America, the greatest movement in the country for boys.

Next will follow the investiture services for the Sea Scout Patrol of the service troop. Sea Scout Commissioner B. Kane, of Beverly, will be present with his staff and conduct this ceremony.

The entire service will be in charge of Troop Committeeman W. Hayes Brady, and he cordially invites everyone interested in boys and boys' work to attend.

These scout affairs are always open to the public, as only by the wholehearted support of the grownups can this great movement render its fullest service to our boys.

Your boys, who in the not far distant future will be men with your problems to solve, your privileges to enjoy—only if given the proper training, which the Boy Scouts of America can give.

CHILD STUDY IS SUBJECT FOR P. T. A.

Mrs. Howard Coc, chairman of Child Study Group of the Riverton P. T. A. and her committee have planned the following interesting program for the year:

October 24, 2:15 p. m.: OBEDIENCE —"Sliding Scale for Obedience."

November 21, 3:15 p. m.: PUNISHMENT—"The Moral Thermometer." A special feature of this meeting will be an address by Miss Sarah Askew, secretary of the New Jersey Public Library in observance of Book Week.

December 5, 2:15 p. m.: FEAR
January 9, 3:15 p. m.: CHILDREN'S RIGHTS
February 20, 2:30 p. m.: LEISURE —"A Balance Wheel for Work."

March 20, 2:30 p. m.: CHARACTER TRAITS
April 2, 3:15 p. m.: WHOLESOME CHILDHOOD—"Allowances."

These are well worth the attendance of everyone interested in childhood and its many problems.

Mrs. William W. Wheeler

Mrs. Anna McDermott Wheeler, widow of William H. Wheeler, of New Brunswick, passed away Saturday night at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gershon H. Wheeler, 11 Llewellyn place, after a long illness.

Mrs. Wheeler was well-known for her work among the American Indians. She was very much interested in their welfare and traveled extensively over the country, giving lectures of an educational nature before clubs, schools and various organizations, to help the Indians. Mrs. Wheeler was very active in the work of the First Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick.

Mrs. Wheeler is survived by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gershon H. Wheeler; one granddaughter, Virginia Matthea Wheeler; one brother, Joseph McDermott, of Freehold, and one sister, Mrs. Norman Foster, of Trenton.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Cordie J. Culp. Interment was made in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Burlington.

Mrs. Wheeler lived at 618 Main street, Riverton, which house she still owned at the time of her death. She moved there about 1905 and left for New Brunswick in 1911, just after the death of her husband.

MARGARET M. CUSTIS
Margaret M. Custis died October 11 at the New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton. Services were held at the Wrightsville M. E. Church on October 14 and interment was made in the Wrightsville cemetery under the direction of Funeral Director Jerome J. Zink, Jr. She is survived by her husband, John Custis.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Probation After Death" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 23, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Behold, now is the day of Salvation" (II Corinthians 6:2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thy word is a lamp path. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart. I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes always, even unto the end" (Psalms 119:105, 111, 112).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is neither place nor opportunity in Science for error of any sort. Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them" (p. 222, 233.)

RIVERTON LOSES IN HARD GAME

New Football Team, Playing Medford, Puts Up Game
Fight in Rain

Despite the fact that they were out-weighed by the strong Medford team, Riverton A. A. playing their first game together, made a good showing last Sunday, even in defeat.

The score was 13-0 in favor of Medford. The first touchdown came as a result of a blocked Riverton kick, the second came after a brilliant 45-yard run by a Medford gridman.

Outside of these two scorings the teams played evenly, Riverton being especially strong on the defense against their much heavier opponents.

Thirteen players made up the squad which, plus a group of spectators, braved the rain to go to Medford. Edward Burkhead supplied the truck which took the group and he generously agreed to take them to our other games.

Because of the rain, spectators were scarce, so it was agreed to play again next Sunday, October 23. Also many Riverton rooters were unable to go because of lack of transportation. This week it is hoped that those who are going in cars and who have extra room will be at the station at 1:30 and fill up their cars before going.

The thirteen players who made up the team Sunday were: F. Trautman, R. Trautman, E. Wallace, C. Perkins, J. McDermott, V. Daly, B. Reynolds, E. Prisco, L. Brenna, H. Borden, A. Wigmore, W. Cardea and R. Atkinson. Kitter Kasky, of Riverton, has agreed to coach the team, and, starting Thursday, October 20, and continuing every Tuesday and Thursday night will hold practice under the arc light by the freight station.

CARL WEINER, Manager.

MOORESTOWN HIGH FAVORITE IN GAME WITH BURLINGTON

Next Saturday, October 22, Moorestown High will play Burlington High in football on the South Church Street field. Due to their recent good showing in the Haddonfield and Collingswood encounters Moorestown enters the game a slight favorite, but the game should be a real thriller.

Burlington is somewhat heavier but Moorestown makes up the difference in speed. Ben Cooper is a first class back and splendid open field runner, while Barton handles the kicking with merit. With Charley Steinmetz throwing the ball, Humes and Tworzydlo, two capable ends, are likely to break loose at any moment with a spectacular catch. With a dry field Saturday afternoon fans should witness a first class exhibition of football.

MOORESTOWN TRIPS HADDONFIELD HIGH IN HOCKEY BATTLE

Moorestown High School's girls' hockey team defeated the Haddonfield team to the tune of 2-1 in a game played on the South Church street grounds, Tuesday of last week.

Both Moorestown scores were made in the first half, one by Captain McPherson and one by Kilpatrick.

The Lineup:
Moorestown Haddonfield
McPherson, right wing, Axfore
Keller, right inside, Taylor
Kilpatrick, center forward, Brown
Barclay, left wing, Lindsay Cline, right half, Hunter
Berger, center half, Fenton
Connor, left half, Patton
Kock, right full, Scattergood
White, left full, Peterson
Chambers, goal, Snyder

The baseball team of the Three Stars and Ten Club of Miami, Fla., is composed of players all of whom are more than 70 years old.

'PALS' DEFEAT C. C. V. SCHOOL

Coach Ken Dimond's Gridders
Win in 13 to 0 Victory
Saturday

By H. SEXTON

With Walt Beddow playing the star role, Coach Ken Dimond's Gridders defeated Camden County Vocational School on the high school field Saturday by a score of 13-0. Beddow was outstanding throughout the whole game and twice crashed over for a touchdown.

Palmyra made its first score in the opening quarter when Taylor, Palmyra's star end, recovered a Vocational fumble on their twenty-five yard line. Beddow then threw a short pass to Davis who took the ball to the 5-yard line, giving them a first down in their favor. Beddow and Carpenter then made short gains through tackle bringing the ball to the two yard line where Beddow then crashed over for a touchdown. The point after touchdown was made by Carpenter on a pass.

The second quarter was a series of line bucks and passes with Palmyra holding its own. In this quarter King, of Vocational School thrilled the crowd by making sensational gains of twenty and twenty-five yards. On more than one occasion this colored flash nearly got away for a touchdown.

Beddow soon scored the second touchdown of the game after Bradshaw had recovered a Vocational fumble on their twenty yard line. He then showed the crowd some perfect open field running by skirting right end for the remaining distance. Vocational then tried a series of passes which were knocked down by the Palmyra backfield men. This quarter ended without further score.

The last quarter showed some good kicking on the part of Beddow, who did the punting when the "Pals" were in danger. King, of Vocational School also made some nice runs and kept the fans excited. In this quarter most of Palmyra's second team saw action and played their part well.

For the "Pals", Bradshaw at end played a beautiful game, breaking up all kinds of plays. Thomas, Sherman, Davidson and Taylor played well on the line for the Red and White, while Mathes, Carpenter and Beddow made many gains in the backfield.

WARREN BARBOUR OPPOSES RUSSIA

Wimer Explains Stand Taken
By U. S. Senator Against Recognition of Soviet

Recognition of Soviet

"New Jersey's champion against Red Russia, and all that the word 'Soviet' implies," is how George N. Wimer, former mayor of Palmyra, pictures United States Senator W. Warren Barbour, who is a candidate to succeed himself.

The Palmyra leader, who is a candidate for sheriff of Burlington County on the Republican ticket and a State Republican Committeeman, declared last Friday:

"I believe Senator Barbour's definite stand against recognition of Soviet Russia is one of the most important in New Jersey's legislative issues."

"By refusing to traffic with the Soviet, by denying Red Russia the opening for propaganda which trade relations would permit, Senator Barbour has shown himself the champion of the Christian Church."

"Knowing the correct and Christian side of the picture," Wimer continued, "let us look for a moment at the reverse surface. Here are the words of Senator Barbour's Democratic opponent, as quoted by a Newark newspaper:

"Even though the United States may not approve of its government," he said, "Russia is a fertile market for export business."

"Russia is the world's customer to-day and the country that refuses to do business with it is doing itself a grave economic injustice."

"I feel confident," Wimer concluded, "that the churchmen of Burlington County will rally to the standard of the man who is their bulwark against heathenistic doctrines, atheistic propaganda, which would surely flood this country were trade relations with Russia resumed."

POWERS PRAISES ISAAC BACHARACH

Probable Successor to N. J.
Congressman Hopes to Continue Splendid Service

Burlington county residents who wonder how the probable successor to Congressman Isaac Bacharach as Burlington County's Representative feels toward his predecessor, found an answer to their question in a statement from D. Lane Powers.

The Congressional candidate from the Fourth Congressional District explained he feels the highest reverence and respect for Congressman Bacharach's knowledge, and the care he has given his constituents in this county.

Burlington County has always given Congressman Bacharach substantial majority in his recurrent campaigns for re-election. The congressman has grown famous in service to the county and has obtained for its residents many legislative benefits.

"I shall endeavor to show toward Burlington County the same care, the same personal representation, which has made Congressman Bacharach so dearly respected by his former constituents here," Powers said today.

"I shall hope to learn from the congressman himself a secret of the correctly representing this section. I shall look to the congressman for advice, and he has promised to give it to me."

Political experts have pointed out that some of Congressman Bacharach's ability as a statesman has been obtained through continued service in the same capacity. When D. Lane Powers was proposed for Republican nomination by former Governor Stokes at the Lincoln's Day banquet in Trenton, February 12 last, he urged his hearers to elect a young man to office, and return him year after year to obtain the best possible representation at Washington for the Fourth Congressional District.

PAY PHONE STOLEN

For the second time within the past few months the pay telephone located in H. E. Williams' service station on S-41 at River road, Palmyra, was stolen. The offenders broke a side window early Tuesday morning and ripped the phone from the wall. Patrolman Stack of the Palmyra police recovered the loss about two o'clock in the morning and reported to Williams.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE

Palmyra High School's football team cancelled Saturday's game with Pemberton High School, but will play Bridgeton High School at Bridgeton, instead. The support of the townspeople is solicited.

"The Church of the Silent Service" is the name given a church at Newcastle, Eng., which has a congregation composed entirely of deaf mutes.

I. O. O. F. NOTES

Last week's meeting of Cinnaminson Lodge, No. 201, I. O. O. F. of Palmyra, was conducted by District Deputy Norman Williams, of the Merchantville Lodge.

Earl Steen was installed as noble grand, and at this time the lodge wishes to take this opportunity to extend best wishes and a promise of cooperation during a happy and successful term.

Every member is urged to be present tomorrow evening. Initiation will be held. A large attendance will be very gratifying to the degree master and encourage the men who are joining the lodge.

CLUB TO HEAR NATIVE INDIAN NEXT THURSDAY

Isaac Greyearth Will Address
Men of Palmyra and Riverton

FLOYD W. SPAHR TO PRESIDE OVER MEETING

Members Urged to Attend; Sessions Opens at Eight O'clock

The first regular monthly meeting of the Men's Club of Palmyra-Riverton will be held in the Y.M.C.A. building at the corner of Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, on Thursday, October 27. A very interesting program has been arranged for that evening.

Floyd W. Spahr will preside at the regular business session, which will take a little longer than the first meeting of the winter season. The fourth Thursday of each month the past year was designated as the meeting time.

Isaac Greyearth, native American Indian, will be the guest speaker of the evening. Mr. Greyearth visited Palmyra two years ago and on Thursday he will speak at the various schools, the Rotary Club and finally at the Men's Club.

Mr. Greyearth, a "Y" secretary on the Indian Reservations, has a humorous tale to tell and is very apt in singing the native Red Skin songs. It is a pleasure to be able to have such a man for the first night.

The local Men's Club is an organization of men who are interested in self-betterment and enjoyment. It is open to any man in Palmyra or Riverton. The local "Y" is the meeting place, but all the traditions of such an organization are being upheld by the officers. There is not any financial deficit to be met, and the dues are very small by the year considering the entertainment and good derived from the group.

A roster of the men sponsoring the group reveals men of integrity in the community who are noted for their accomplishments. Floyd W. Spahr, president; vice president, the Rev. George Leckert; secretary, C. B. Maple; treasurer, C. F. Shaw; chairman of music committee, Captain Sidney Albertson; refreshment committee, George E. Reber. The executive committee includes C. B. Gardener, William T. J. Funnell and A. E. Fowler. All members are urged to be present Thursday, October 27, at 8:00 p. m. in the "Y" building. Visitors for a single meeting or a special program are always welcome.

BRIDGE BY-PASS QUICKLY FINISHED

County Road Department Makes Short Work of Approach to Bridge

Announcement was made by Charles R. Stout, head of the county road department, at a meeting of the Board of Freeholders last Friday that the by-pass from the Mount Holly-Burlington road to the Burlington-Bridgeton bridge, by way of Morris street and Mott avenue, Burlington, has been completed.

The work was done by the county road forces under the supervision of Louis A. Macfarland, of the road department, in about ten days' working time. The cost of the improvement was kept under the appropriation. The by-pass was built with state aid, and eliminates several danger points.

The townships of Mount Holly, Moorestown and Delanco requested the freeholders to secure state aid for the improvement of the county roads in the three townships. Benjamin A. Sleeper, Mount Holly township engineer, made a special request for the improvement of Branch street, in Mount Holly, asserting that the state's 75 per cent. of the cost would not exceed $330. The requests were referred to Stout.

Andrew Shinski, of Indian Mills, requested compensation as the result of an automobile accident. His wife was severely injured when a car in which she was riding ran into the limb of a tree on Mount Laurel road. He charged the county was responsible. The claim was referred to Judge Harold B. Wells, county solicitor.

Riverside Township Committee notified the board that they were ready to have the trolley tracks removed and the roadway paved in conformity with an agreement entered into when the Public Service was granted permission to substitute buses for trolley cars between Camden and Trenton.

The Public Service Electric and Gas Company was given permission to erect a pole on Main street, Medford, and another on King's Highway at Pleasant View avenue, Moorestown. Bills ordered paid as follows: Finance, $51,183.65; roads, $23,146.07; bridges, $18,928.10; buildings, $21,864.77; public affairs, $16,485.49; a total of $131,608.29.

CHINESE MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock, Dr. Karl Felt, who has spent most of his life in China, will be the speaker at the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Felt at present is president of the Pekin University, one of the most influential schools in all China.

This missionary has spent most of his life working among the Chinese and is called by Bishop Birney "The

ELMER LECATES IS REPORTED IMPROVING

Elmer LeCates, 21, of 20 Henry street, Palmyra, is reported to be improving in the Point Pleasant Hospital, Point Pleasant, following a motor accident on Thursday morning of last week which caused the death of his young woman companion, Miss Margaret Eleanor Anders, of Oaklyn Manor.

A car driven by LeCates crashed into the base of a railroad warning light at Hamilton avenue, Seaside Heights, at about 5:30 a. m. last Thursday. Both the car and LeCates were thrown through the top of the automobile. He landed about forty feet from the car, while Miss Anders was hurled about twenty-five feet.

The LeCates family moved to Palmyra a few months ago. LeCates is an engineer for a Philadelphia Coke Company.

ANNUAL RECEPTION OF RIVERTON P.T.A.

Large Attendance Despite Bad Weather; Address by Dr.
Roscoe West

Monday, October 17, marked the sixteenth reception to parents and teachers at the Riverton school, which in spite of bad weather was well attended. Those who did brave the elements were well rewarded by hearing Dr. Roscoe West, president of New Jersey Teachers' College. He remarked that he was "afraid many would feel like the Scotchman who decided he'd stay home and let his mind wander," and he hoped the message he would bring would be good enough to repay those who did turn out.

Dr. West, by virtue of his profession, spoke principally of teachers and their qualifications and of the increase of students in all branches of our schools. "High school attendance alone has doubled every decade. It costs two billion dollars for education a year in our country. This might seem large, but when one realizes that some five billion dollars are expended on such things as tobacco, candy, chewing gum, movies, sporting goods and toys, the figure is small in comparison. Two billion dollars are spent on tobacco alone, annually."

"We have to measure our values in terms like these and particularly the value of our teachers. Buildings and other equipment, while very fine, are nothing if human personalities are not in keeping. Greater progress has been made in the last five or six years than in any other period."

Dr. West then spoke of the particular qualities he would like to see in the people handling our children so many hours daily:

1. Originality and initiative—particularly in this "machine age."
2. Scientific outlook of her job—A willingness to examine everything; to really study the child and perhaps help him choose a vocation.
3. Interest in public affairs.
4. Desire for growth—Many think that when they leave college their education is complete, whereas it has just begun. Interest in public addresses, attending good concerts, and above all, an interest in advancing her own education so that she can be a proper guide to her children. This applies to anyone's education.
5. Above all—a sense of humor, patience and tact.

In humorous comparison, Dr. West spoke of some of the qualifications North Carolina expects: "Have an active interest in all Sunday School work. Abstain from all dancing and immodest dressing. Abstain from going out with any young man, except insofar as it may stimulate Sunday school work. Promise not to fall in love or marry. Sleep eight hours nightly and take every precaution to keep in good health."

Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, president, spoke of the coming P.T.A. convention at Atlantic City, November 2, 3, 4, and hoped that those who could would make it a point to attend on Thursday, the third.

Also, there is a course of lectures to be given at Riverside in the interest of vocational education. These lectures are to benefit a fund to establish a larger library of motion picture films for schools. The series of six lectures costs $250, but anyone may attend only those particularly appealing for a small sum.

For some time thought has been given by the P.T.A. to a fitting memorial to Miss Hanny Chew, principal of Riverton's school for ten years. Many things have been suggested, such as a picture for the auditorium, a bronze tablet, or to establish a milk fund in her name for undernourished school children. As this is something in which everyone should have a voice, it was suggested that it be put to vote at the next meeting in November. It seems most fitting that this be done which Miss Chew is fresh in the minds of the children still in school.

Three classes tied for attendance honors Monday night—Miss Rothbart's, Mrs. Bush's and Miss Justice's—so three plants will be awarded to these rooms.

Miss Caroline Slaman, supervising principal, spoke of reports which would be sent home within two weeks time, and said she would particularly like to see the fathers' signature on these. This splendid meeting was enhanced by a piano solo by Mrs. Ruth Peterson Bell, and a vocal solo by Miss Mary Elizabeth Coward, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Rachel Lord on the piano. Their renditions were beautiful and well appreciated.

Dean of Chinese Missionaries, Bishop Birney further says that Dr. Felt has a wider influence on the missionaries and the natives of his adopted land than any other single worker. Dr. Felt will speak concerning the present situation in this newest republic and tell of his work in training new leaders for the New China. There will be no special offering taken.

"Princess Nadji, you are my prisoner."

Synopsis of Preceding Chapter

After three years of intensive study and self denial among the Brahmin priests, an Englishman conquers the mystery of the Far East, and as a Yogi is named Chandu. In the crystal ball he gets his first glimpse of the outside world and sees his brother-in-law, Robert Regent, inventor of a death ray machine kidnapped by a mad, arch villain, Roxor, who plans to use the machine in visiting destruction upon civilization. Chandu hastens to the aid of Regent, and at the home of Regent's wife, Dorothy, Chandu's sister, he tries to communicate with the inventor's mind through the crystal. Suddenly in the nebulous ball he sees a native snatch his niece, Betty Lou, from an adjoining room. At the same moment Betty Lou's terrified voice rings out, "Help!"

Chapter II

CHANDU dropped the crystal ball, and with Dorothy close at his heels raced into the garden. There, in the dim light of several hanging lamps, he saw Bobby struggling vainly to free Betty Lou from the clutches of a powerful and giant-like ruffian. As a terrified shriek from Dorothy's trembling lips lent the stillness of the night, the startled thug suddenly released his grasp on Betty Lou and made for the high garden wall, which he climbed with the agility of a cat.

But on top of the wall he hesitated, and glancing back to see if he was being pursued, his eyes met the piercing orbs of Chandu, glaring at him from out of the darkness like two burning firebrands and in meek compliance with the hypnotic beckoning of Chandu he lowered himself into the garden again.

"Who sent you here?" Chandu asked in a firm and steady voice.

"Roxor," answered the ruffian, speaking with an effort.

"And where did Roxor speak with you?"

"At the wine cellar of El Bahou".

Chandu said no more. With this information he set off immediately for Roxor's rendezvous. It was in the loneliest and lowest quarter of Cairo, on a narrow, winding street, traversed only by cut-throats, thieves and thugs. Chandu wrapped his long robe more tightly about him as he entered the street, and with very little of his features showing he stepped up to the heavy door of the dilapidated looking building and sounded a loud knock. The small wicket in the door slid open and a grumpy face appeared.

"You have the word, brother?" asked the face.

And Chandu's answer was a concentrating glare which glared the eyes in the wicket.

"Open in the name of Osiris to blind eyes, sealed lips, deaf ears," said a lifeless and mechanical voice from within.

A troubled look crept into Chandu's face as he found himself in a small vestibule, an expression which deepened when the floor began to sink slowly beneath him. And when it finally came to a stop he stepped off into a dimly lighted and smoke filled cafe, crowded with ill-looking Arabs, who were watching a Nautch girl go through the gyrations of a native dance. Cautiously he made his way through them, up a flight of stairs to a small door, where he encountered a second native servant whom he soon overpowered by the mystic magic of his eyes.

From the other side of the door, came a woman's voice, a voice he had heard before and recognized.

"But my people are happy and contented. The great dams have multiplied our crops a hundred fold."

And then another voice, maniacal in sound, which he knew to be Roxor's:

"What if I destroy those dams? Yes, and I can do it with one blast from my death ray! Then where will your people be? More than a billion tons of water will sweep down on them. The greatest flood since the Biblical deluge!"

"So unless my people will join in making you a modern Pharaoh you will annihilate them?"

"Pharaoh!" And Roxor laughed contemptuously. "Why Princess Nadji I shall be greater than a Pharaoh! Civilization and all its works shall be destroyed! Men shall return to savagery knowing only one supreme intelligence—ME!"

YMCA NOTESLeaders' Meeting

The regular Y.M.C.A. Leaders' Training Course will be continued at the county headquarters of the "Y" in Mount Holly on Tuesday evening, November 1. E. W. Barnes, state secretary of the county work, will be the guest leader. Mr. Barnes this past summer was the director of Camp Ockanickon. An effort is being made to have the entire group of ten leaders from this area attend that meeting.

"Y" Day at Princeton

Saturday, November 5, 3,000 Hi-Y members from the state will assemble at the annual "Y" Day held on the Princeton campus every fall. Fellows will be the guests of the University on a campus tour, mass meeting in McCosh Hall and finally, follow the band and be guests at the Lehigh football game in Palmer Stadium. Uncle Sam will once again repeat his dime tax and a nickel charge will be made for the badge that will admit fellows to the game.

This trip is positively limited to fellows in high school who are regular attendants at group meetings and hold their new membership card for this year. Drivers of the cars will be admitted with every five boys on the same basis.

Hallowe'en Party

The "Y" social room is at present in great demand for the annual Hallowe'en parties that are held by the various groups. The Sophomore's will have their night Saturday, October 29. Their guests will be the newly-formed Freshmen Group and the girl friends.

Interesting Program

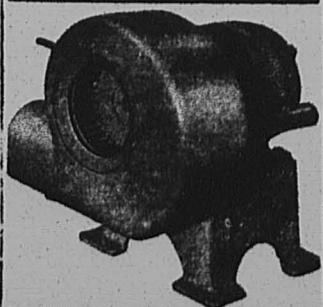

Tuesday night of last week the Senior Club had as their guest Alfred VanOsten, of the local high school faculty. Mr. VanOsten chose as his topic "What Do You Do—When You Have Nothing to Do." The fellows were very much interested in his remarks as he cited case after case of local folks and international figures, who have made themselves useful to mankind through hobbies and their spare time. A very interesting discussion followed this presentation.

Junior Hi-Y

William Thompson, member of the Moorestown High School faculty was the guest speaker at the Junior Hi-Y Tuesday evening. Mr. Thompson, who is remembered as "Bill" by fellows who were in the Senior Area at camp this season, shared with this group of twenty-two boys some of his experiences as a Hi-Y leader in our neighboring community.

Junior Boys' Hike

A group of Sophomores at a recent meeting voted to contribute to the local welfare committee fifty cents each month. This is a small but significant sum when you realize that their dues are five cents a week and boys have numerous uses for their cash like adults.

The Palmyra-Riverton boy center, the Y.M.C.A. building at the corner of Garfield avenue and Broad street, Palmyra, is urgently in need of further equipment for its room and playground. This is an appeal to all to help keep active boys more active and less destructive.

Have you any small tables, chairs, checker sets, chess sets, boxing gloves, pool tables, magazines, carpenter tools, model airplane materials, kite materials, rare or foreign stamps, moving picture reels, or machine that you would loan, yes a blackboard, or what have you.

Outdoors quoits, tether ball or zell ball, paddle tennis, and many other games can be played. If you are interested in donating any of the above will you communicate with Wilton E. Mount, secretary. The "Y" phone is 904-W; his home, 1154-W.

The "Y" also is in need of a new first aid kit.

GIRL SCOUT LIBRARY

A free lending library is being organized by the Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Palmyra.

The headquarters will be the Scout's room in the Epworth M. E. Church. All persons having good books suitable for girls from the ages of 10 to 18 years are asked to give them to the library, if possible.

The books may be taken to the church or a call to Mrs. Walter S. Hansen, captain of the troop, is all that is necessary to have the books called for.

A thief who stole James Brown's watch in Providence, R. I., became conscience-stricken a week later and left it on Brown's doorstep.

A Problem Solved

Taxes have a disconcerting way of becoming due each year at a certain time and it usually happens to be the time when there are so many other things we would like to do with our available funds.

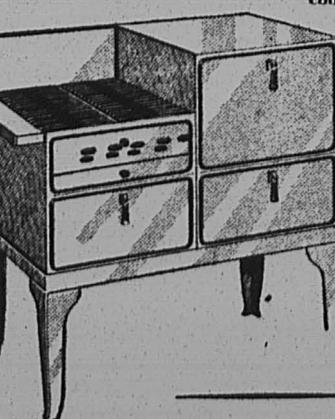

Wouldn't you like to receive from us about the time your tax bill is due, sufficient funds to meet this obligation, and happily solve one of your problems? Here is the simple way in which this can be accomplished.

BRIAN KANE IS SCOUT SPEAKER

William Sprenkel Invested as Tenderfoot by Troop Committeeman Brady

Last week marked another milestone in the history of the Boy Scouts Service Troop of Palmyra.

The Sea Scouts were sworn in as ordinary seamen, the starting grade of sea scouting in the troop. The oath and Sea Scout promise were received by Commodore Brian Kane.

After receiving this promise from the boys, Commodore Kane, who is an Annapolis graduate, spoke very interestingly on the sea and its traditions,
as concerns the sailor and the qualities of a seaman.

After receiving this promise from
the boys, Commodore Kane, who is an Annapolis graduate, spoke very interestingly on the sea and its traditions,
as concerns the sailor and the qualities of a seaman.

Mrs. W. W. Chalmers, secretary of the Association, submitted her report as follows:

In this report it is planned only to indicate the features which have contributed to the success of the work of the Community Welfare Association of Riverton and Cinnaminson.

While there had been much done to relieve the want among some of the people living around us, this last year is the year in which we have had the services of a trained social worker. It is generally recognized, I believe, that a trained worker in her first year can hardly get started, and not too much can be expected. We have been most fortunate in that respect, for Mrs. Cooper has accomplished a great deal—capably and tactfully.

Under the direction of a finance committee funds have been secured by means of contributions from individuals and very many of the local organizations, church, service and others, and by a very gratifying century plan.

The Porch Club committee has rendered able assistance. In November a second hand clothing sale occurred.
A Woman's Exchange, without any commitment to the Porch Club, was profitable to some women who had cooking and sewing to sell. The Christmas baskets were sent out. The Porch Club derived a milk fund from small contributions at the meetings. From December until the middle of April an office was maintained daily in the Porch Club for the registration of the unemployed.

In all this work it is interesting to note how much cooperation there has been on all sides. The Needlework Guild in its annual distribution contributed 200 articles. Someone gave a field of turnips. Someone else made potatoes available at a low price.
Someone contributed the trees in an orchard. In this way men were supplied with labor for which they were paid. The public bought the wood which brought the money. By using the surplus wood as fuel for those in want, the association had the equivalent of fuel costing about $800.00. Miss Phyllis Boyer and Mrs. Hunn gave their services as secretaries to Mrs.
Cooper. A meeting with the farmers brought work to local men in preference to outsiders.

So far mention has been made of what occurred to promote the running of this association. In closing it seems fitting to report some of the things the association has accomplished for the community. Members of the community, when necessary, have been taken to appropriate institutions. State aid and pensions have been secured for others. Some undesirable families, as they have discovered that they do not receive support, have moved away.
The association has donated labor for the care of the borough streets and for planting done in the spring by the Riverton City Association.

Social Workers' Report
Mrs. Dorothy M. Cooper, executive secretary and social worker, gave the detailed report of her activities, which read in part as follows:

"I should like to explain to this group, before I go into any detail of the work we have done, the difference between a family agency and a bureau of unemployment relief. So far as I know, Moorestown and Riverton-Cinnaminson are the only communities in Burlington county which have a family agency in the true sense of the word.

Work with those who are jobless, or whose income has been so reduced as to cause economic distress, is a vital part of a family society's job.
It is, however, only one part. Every social agency, including our own, which deals with problems of the family as a whole, has numerous cases in which there are no financial troubles. But there are needed adjustments which can be made only with the help, encouragement and experience of one accustomed to dealing with such situations.

"This group can be of immeasurable value to our organization if it will help get across to the community that our work is not a temporary project, purely to relieve conditions caused by the depression, but is a family society trying to do constructive work so that present and future conditions of housing, health, morals, as well as economic standards, will be better. I want to repeat that finding employment is absolutely essential to this work, but unless constructive follow-up measures go along with this work the money spent will be of no lasting value to the community or to the families involved.

During the past year there have been 1249 visits made by your Social Worker. There were 498 office interviews. We had 145 registrations in our office. These included the unemployed as well as people who came for advice. At present I am carrying 69 active cases. During the past year
18 cases have been closed. These families either found jobs in other communities, moved to other towns with relatives, were transferred to other agencies, or found jobs here and required no further supervision.

INDIAN SPEAKER

Through Parry's Ministry the affairs of state are placed in the hands of chosen leaders.

Upon the ability and wisdom and the courage and loyalty of these leaders depends to a great extent the safety of the nation.

In the face of the most devastating economic disturbance in the history of the world, when the more powerful nations of the earth tottered, some of them crumbling under the terrific strain, one staunch figure stood out in bold relief and saved civilization from utter demoralization.

Herbert Hoover, to whom the people of the United States had entrusted the executive power of their country a little less than four years ago, bravely faced the emergency that arose within less than a year after he had come into the Presidency, and with characteristic absence of noise and ballyhoo launched the most gigantic program of economic defense and counter-attack in the history of the country.

He directed his energies to safeguarding the fundamental factors of world stability, at the same time initiating measures for checking the conflagration that had swept upon our country from the Old World.

His broad experience has enabled him to steer clear of the quack nostrums of political demagogues, many of whom have risen to high places in the affairs of government and politics.

Herbert Hoover has kept a cool head.

He has performed a task of herculean proportions.

He has led the United States—your United States—safely through the worst storm in its history.

He has been the leader in measures to alleviate the plight of our people.

With the President's unquestioned record of achievement and his success in bringing us again into the pathways of recovery, it is inconceivable that the people of this great nation would hazard a change of administration at this time.

Such a change would precipitate a relapse.

It would retard recovery.

Only through adherence to the program inaugurated by President Hoover can we have assurance of continuance of the improvement which will soon bring the country out of its dark hour and restore the world to peace and prosperity.

The future of this republic is in the keeping of its citizens.

If you value the safety of your country, at home and abroad, and your own prosperity and success, give these things serious consideration when you vote on November 8.

JUDGE'S BROTHER HELD UP, ROBBED

Youthful, Well-Dressed Trio Halt Thomas Shay and Woman Companion

Thomas J. Shay, of Colwick, a brother of Judge Samuel Shay, of Camden, was held up by three young robbers
Sunday evening shortly before ten o'clock.

Shay was robbed of $42 and his hat, and a woman companion lost her purse and $5 when Shay's automobile, a Cadillac sedan, was stopped on Fellowship road, near Lester Collins farm.

Shay said the three bandits were hatted and in their twenties, probably between 25 and 28 years old. They were well dressed.

They drove their lightless car, a small sedan, alongside Shay's automobile and demanded he stop and show his license cards. Thinking they were police, Shay complied. Something he believed to be a revolver muzzle was pressed against his back, and he and his companion were relieved of their money.

Shay protested when the thieves took the keys to his car. They told him he would find them some distance down the road. He recovered them after the robbers disappeared.

Shay reported the theft to Chief of Police John H. Bradshaw, of Moorestown.

TO HOLD DEBATE ON RELIEF BONDS

County Taxpayers Urged to Attend Riverside Meeting
November 8

Taxpayers from all over Burlington county are invited to attend a meeting in the Riverside High School auditorium next Tuesday evening, November 1, at 8 o'clock, when the much-discussed question of the proposed relief bond issue will be debated by two prominent speakers.

The proposal will be decided at the polls on November 8. The State Taxpayers' Association is opposed to the relief bond issue, but the state relief administration declares these funds are absolutely needed to continue relief work after December.

One speaker is to be supplied by the Taxpayers' Association and the other by the relief administration.
Music and entertainment features will be added to the meeting and all citizens and taxpayers from this section are urged to attend so they will be enabled to vote intelligently on this important question.

P. T. A. EXECUTIVES ENJOY LUNCHEON

The executive committee of the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association held a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. F. Dengler, of Parry avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter D. Lamson, Mrs. Herbert H. Parsons, Mrs. C. R. Houchins and Mrs. George J. Mack were guests of the committee.

Members of the executive board are:
Mrs. J. C. Mallory, Mrs. A. C. Gibson, Mrs. Fred Seiber, Mrs. James B.
Mickle, Mrs. Elvin I. Powell, Mrs. Walter S. Hansen, Mrs. Elias Toy, Mrs.
W. A. McCamy, Mrs. Maurice Sandoz,
Mrs. Ira S. Finn, Mrs. Finn and Mrs.

Burlington County Councils Plan Big Rally Friday Night, Dr.
Jennings Speaker

The Knights of Columbus throughout Burlington county will stage a rally at K. of C. hall, Moorestown, Friday evening, October 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

Prominent officials of the Order will make addresses, while the main speaker of the evening will be Dr. Edward J. Jennings, New Jersey state deputy.
The toastmaster will be Joseph F.
Yearly, president of the County Chapter.

Entertainment and refreshments will be provided for the visiting knights, and a prize will be awarded to the council attending with the largest delegation.

The following are the committee in charge of arrangements: Joseph Huber, K. of C. of Moorestown; John G.
Hippinsteel, G. K. of Mount Holly; Antoine Winkelspecht, G. K. of Delan-co; Philip McChesney, G. K. of Moorestown; Richard Devereux, G. K. of Burerton.

TESTIMONIAL TO ISAAC BACHARACH

Postmasters and Friends Join in Paying Homage to Popular Congressman

Congressman Isaac Bacharach, who has served the Second Congressional District in the House of Representatives at Washington for eighteen years, was guest of honor at a testimonial dinner given by the postmasters of Burlington county at Medford Lakes last Wednesday evening.

It was with real affection that the postmasters and their invited guests greeted "Ike," as he is familiarly known to his host of friends in Burlington county, and the respect expressed that the recent rearrangement of Congressional Districts, deprived this county of his representation, was not mere lip service.

The principal speakers of the evening were United States Senator Hamilton F. Kean and Second Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover.
Both lauded the work of Bacharach in the House and urged the reelection of President Hoover.

Charles R. Stout, Republican county chairman, was toastmaster. U. S. Senator W. Warren Barbour and Harold G. Hoffman, state motor vehicle commissioner, sent messages of regret of being unable to attend and commended Bacharach.

D. Lane Powers, candidate for Congress in the new Fourth District comprising Burlington and Mercer counties, said he hoped he could accomplish as much as Bacharach has in 18 years of service.

Kean Lauds Bacharach

Senator Kean said the Congressman was an advocate of high tariff, and urged his reelection from the Second District, which now comprises Atlantic, Cumberland and Cape May counties.

Glover said the problems which confronted Hoover were harder than those before any other president. He said he did not think the American people will turn out an administration which has done so much for them.

Evan Benners, Moorestown postmaster, declared he had been a Republican 50 years. He said Bacharach had not only served the county well but also the nation.

The congressman thanked the postmasters for their tribute and said he would be back on the day before election, to make a tour of the county in behalf of Powers and the entire ticket.

He said the present tariff on agriculture is too low. He pointed out that farming implements and the crops grown by farmers are not taxed. He said he recently toured Cumberland county and learned the glass factories are working 80 per cent. He said the manufacturers predicted they would have to close down December 1 if Roosevelt is elected.

Praises Hoover

He praised President Hoover for conceiving the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and other measures which had helped to check the depression.
State Senator Clifford R. Powell reviewed the 18 years' work of Bacharach as representative. George deB.
Kelm, secretary of the Republican National Committee, sent a letter of commendation.

Others introduced were Judge
Charles A. Riggs, Prosecutor Howard Eastwood, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry, state committee woman; Mrs. Pearl Bridgman, vice chairman of the county committee; George N. Wimer, candidate for sheriff; Dr. Marcus W. New-comb, candidate for Assembly; William H. Heisler, freeholder candidate.

K. OF C. NOTES

St. Joseph's Council has made all arrangements for its annual masquerade party and dance on Halloween, Monday, October 31. Special events for both grown-ups and children have been provided for with many prizes to be awarded for fancy costume, most comic, original, best dressed couple, etc.

William J. Eck is chairman of this affair, and promises all who attend a good time.
The "Kings o' Rhythm" orchestra will dispense the music for the grand march and the dancing that follows.

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF NEEDLEWORK

Mrs. Cooper, Local Welfare Workers, Will Address Riv-erton Branch Nov. 7

The regular annual meeting of the Riverton Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held in the Porch Club rooms Monday, November 7, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon.

This is the time, as everyone knows, when the garments made and contributed by the members and collected by the directors, are displaying before distribution to the various charitable agencies which are helped by the local chapter. So don't, this year, just give your two articles and let it go at that—attend this annual meeting on the seventh, and see what has been accomplished by our combined efforts.

In addition to the display of garments and the transaction of routine business including the election of officers, the meeting this year will be addressed by the local welfare worker, Mrs. Newbold Cooper. Mrs. Cooper will present a cross-section of some of our local problems, illustrating her points with actual cases, and showing where and how the Needlework Guild can and does do a great deal of practical good.

Special Requests for Garments
This year an effort was made to find out just what kinds of clothing were most needed by the various relief agencies. One hospital sent in a request for dresses for girls in 8 to 10 year sizes; and boys' suits, 3 to 6 years. The Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association needs the following garments:

For Girls: Dresses, 1 to 6 years; stockings, all sizes; bloomers, 6 to 12 years; underwear, 1 to 20 years; sweat-suits, 4 to 16 years; underwear, sweaters, gloves, all sizes; blouses, 6 to 17 years.

For Women: Dresses 18 to 46; underwear, 18 to 46; cotton slips and stockings, all sizes.

For Men: Trousers, socks, work shirts and underwear, all sizes.
The above lists give some hint of the extent of the need, and if any member has not already purchased her article, may we suggest a most acceptable contribution.

Efforts are being made that all garments must be at the Porch Club rooms not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning for sorting and arranging. Three o'clock is the hour of the meeting; Monday, November 7, the date.

Members Enjoy Barge Trip

Nearly fifty members of the Riverton
Porch Club motored to New Hope,
Pa., on Tuesday morning, leaving Riv-erton at nine o'clock, crossing the bridge at Burlington and proceeding up the Pennsylvania side. Upon their arrival there they immediately boarded the barge and commenced their voyage, travelling about six miles up the canal; the trees in their autumn attire making a most picturesque and colorful setting. At noon an informal box luncheon added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion; after which
Mrs. Murray G. Boyer drew sketches
of the different members of the party,
the exhibition of which afforded much amusement. The return journey was made down the Jersey side of the river, arriving home about four-thirty, completing what everyone voted to be a very successful outing.

FIRST MEETING ON RIVER BANK PROBLEM

Regional Planning Board Will Be Consulted for Suggestions
As to Methods

The first meeting of the committee of citizens recently appointed by Mayor Killian E. Bennett to consider ways and means of reclaiming the river banks was held at the Riverton Country Club last night.

Richard M. Woodward was elected chairman of the committee and Walter K. Woolman secretary.

As an indication of the necessity for doing something to rehabilitate the river bank it was pointed out that three properties had already been torn down, resulting in a reduction of $30,- 000 in the taxable property in Riv-erton, and that a number were for sale or rent.

Several plans were informally discussed, and the chair appointed Mr.
Woolman a committee of one to consult the Regional Planning Board with a view to getting some suggestions as to what might be done.

P. O. S. of A. NOTES

Members of Washington Camp, No.
23, of Palmyra, who attended the County P. O. S. of A. meeting at Marlton on Saturday were well repaid for the time spent, as the visit proved very enjoyable and most entertaining.

The next county meeting will be held at Chatsworth on November 16 and a large turnout is hoped for.
It is hoped that all members will make an effort to be present at Monday's meeting and an excellent program has been planned.

STOLEN CARS FOUND

Two stolen cars were found abandoned in Cinnaminson Township last Thursday night by Officer Dorworth of the Cinnaminson police. One, a Ford coupe owned by Dr. Richard Anderson, of Burlington, was stolen while the doctor was visiting a patient in Burlington; the other an Austin coupe owned by J. W. Price, of West Central avenue, Moorestown, was stolen from in front of his home. The Ford was found in the vicinity of Dendel-er's store on Branch pike, and the Austin was found on the Moorestown-Riverton road near the Westfield public school.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt appreciation to those who extended sympathy and assistance in our recent bereavement and to thank those who sent flowers and cards to the funeral.

CHILD STUDY GROUP AT RIVERTON P. T. A.

Mrs. Charles Cunningham Leads Discussion on "Obedience" Monday Afternoon at School House

The Child Study group of the Riv-erton P. T. A. held its first meeting in the Kindergarten room last Monday.
"Obedience," being an ever present problem of mothers, drew a large and attentive group, which followed with great interest the well-planned outline of the subject, prepared by Mrs.
Charles Cunningham, leader for that afternoon. The members added their contributions to various points of dis-

Nearly fifty members of the Riverton
Porch Club motored to New Hope,
Pa., on Tuesday morning, leaving Riv-erton at nine o'clock, crossing the bridge at Burlington and proceeding
up the Pennsylvania side. Upon their arrival there they immediately boarded the barge and commenced their voyage, travelling about six miles up
the canal; the trees in their autumn
attire making a most picturesque and colorful setting. At noon an informal box luncheon added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion; after which
Mrs. Murray G. Boyer drew sketches
of the different members of the party,
the exhibition of which afforded much amusement. The return journey was made down the Jersey side of the riv-pike in Cinnaminson township.

Some years ago, Mauert was a church organist in Germantown. He became interested in the study of the carillon—the old-fashioned instrument which had to be played with the hands and feet.

Is It, Anyway?

When asked to vote, that they are going to the polls and performing their civic duties of citizenship! Citizens to realize that this government is theirs to make it.

Through party machinery the affairs of state are placed in the hands of chosen leaders.

Upon the ability and wisdom and the courage and loyalty of these leaders depends to a great extent the safety of the nation.

In the face of the most devastating economic disturbance in the history of the world, when the more powerful nations of the earth tottered, some of them crumbling under the terrific strain, one staunch figure stood out in bold relief and saved civilization from utter demoralization.

Herbert Hoover, to whom the people of the United States had entrusted the executive power of their country a little less than four years ago, bravely faced the emergency that arose within less than a year after he had come into the Presidency, and with characteristic absence of noise and ballyhoo launched the most gigantic program of economic defense and counter-attack in the history of the country.

He directed his energies to safeguarding the fundamental factors of world stability, at the same time initiating measures for checking the conflagration that had swept upon our country from the Old World.

His broad experience has enabled him to steer clear of the quick nostrums of political demagogues, many of whom have risen to high places in the affairs of government and politics.

Herbert Hoover has kept a cool head.

He has performed a task of herculean proportions.

He has led the United States—your United States—safely through the worst storm in its history.

He has been the leader in measures to alleviate the plight of our people.

With the President's unquestioned record of achievement and his success in bringing us again into the pathways of recovery, it is inconceivable that the people of this great nation would hazard a change of administration at this time.

Such a change would precipitate a relapse.

It would retard recovery.

Only through adherence to the program inaugurated by President Hoover can we have assurance of continuance of the improvement which will soon bring the country out of its dark hour and restore the world to peace and prosperity.

The future of this republic is in the keeping of its citizens.

If you value the safety of your country, at home and abroad, and your own prosperity and success, give these things serious consideration when you vote on November 8.

JUDGE'S BROTHER HELD UP, ROBBED

Youthful, Well-Dressed Trio Halls Thomas Shay and Woman Companion

Thomas J. Shay, of Colwick, a brother of Judge Samuel Shay, of Camden, was held up by three young robbers Sunday evening shortly before ten o'clock.

Shay was robbed of $42 and his hat, and a woman companion lost her purse and $5 when Shay's automobile, a Cadillac sedan, was stopped on Fellowship road, near Lester Collins farm. Shay said the three bandits were hatless and in their twenties, probably between 25 and 28 years old. They were well dressed.

They drove their lightless car, a small sedan, alongside Shay's automobile and demanded he stop and show his license cards. Thinking they were police, Shay complied. Something he believed to be a revolver muzzle was pressed against his back, and he and his companion were relieved of their money.

Shay protested when the thieves took the keys to his car. They told him he would find them some distance down the road. He recovered them after the robbers disappeared.

Shay reported the theft to Chief of Police John H. Bradshaw, of Moorestown.

MRS. COOK SAFE IN MANCHURIA

Mrs. N. Thomas Cook, better known in Riverton as Maude Rose Hemphill Cook, a Presbyterian missionary at Simpin, Manchuria, is safe, according to a cablegram just received by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., New York. The late Reverend Lloyd Putnam Henderson, missionary, who was shot by accident in Manchuria on October 15, was also stationed at Simpin.

MRS. HATTIE J. JESSUP

Mrs. Hattie J. Jessup, aged 58, died at her home, 41 Beaver street, Walham, Mass., on Monday, October 24. Interment was made in Westfield Friends Burying Grounds, Thursday, October 27. The deceased was the wife of George W. Jessup, brother of Charles B. Jessup, of Riverton.

TO HOLD DEBATE ON RELIEF BONDS

County Taxpayers Urged to Attend Riverside Meeting November 8

Taxpayers from all over Burlington county are invited to attend a meeting in the Riverside High School auditorium next Tuesday evening, November 8, at 8 o'clock, when the much-disputed question of the proposed relief bond issue will be debated by two prominent speakers.

The proposal will be decided at the polls on November 8. The State Taxpayers' Association is opposed to the relief bond issue, but the state relief administration declares these funds are absolutely needed to continue relief work after December.

One speaker is to be supplied by the Taxpayers' Association and the other by the relief administration.

Music and entertainment features will be added to the meeting and all citizens and taxpayers from this section are urged to attend so they will be enabled to vote intelligently on this important question.

P. T. A. EXECUTIVES ENJOY LUNCHEON

The executive committee of the Palmyra Parent-Teacher Association held a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. F. Dengler, of Parry avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter D. Lamon, Mrs. Herbert H. Parsons, Mrs. C. R. Houchins, Mrs. George J. Mack were guests of the committee.

Members of the executive board are: Mrs. J. C. Mallory, Mrs. A. C. Giber, Mrs. Fred Seiber, Mrs. James B. Mickle, Mrs. Elvin I. Powell, Mrs. Walter S. Hansen, Mrs. Elias Toy, Mrs. W. A. McCamy, Mrs. Maurice Sandoz, Mrs. Ira S. Pimm, Mrs. Finn and Mrs. C. F. Dengler.

The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon and plans for future activities were discussed.

CARD PARTY

The Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association will give a card party for the benefit of the school in the school auditorium Friday evening, November 4, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. William O. Myers, chairman, is planning a good time for all. Exceptional prizes will be given along with a grand door prize. Refreshments will be served. Admission 50c.

KNIGHTS WILL MEET AT MOORESTOWN

Burlington County Councils Plan Big Rally Friday Night; Dr. Jennings Speaker

The Knights of Columbus throughout Burlington county will stage a rally at K of C hall, Moorestown, Friday evening, October 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

Prominent officials of the Order will make addresses, while the main speaker of the evening will be Dr. Edward J. Jennings, New Jersey state deputy. The toastmaster will be Joseph E. Yearly, president of the County Chapter.

Entertainment and refreshments will be provided for the visiting knights, and a prize will be awarded to the council attending with the largest delegation.

The following are the committee in charge of arrangements: Joseph Huley, G. K. of Bordentown; John O. Hippinsteel, G. K. of Mount Holly; Anthony Winklespecht, G. K. of Delanco; John J. Huley, G. K. of Moorestown; Richard Devereaux, G. K. of Burlington; Andrew J. Pfaff, G. K. of Riverton.

TESTIMONIAL TO ISAAC BACHARACH

Postmasters and Friends Join in Paying Homage to Popular Congressman

Congressman Isaac Bacharach, who has served the Second Congressional District in the House of Representatives at Washington for eighteen years, was guest of honor at a testimonial dinner given by the postmasters of Burlington county at Medford Lakes last Wednesday evening.

It was with real affection that the postmasters and their invited guests greeted "Ike," as he is familiarly known to his host of friends in Burlington county, and the regret expressed that the recent rearrangement of Congressional Districts deprived this county of his representation, was not mere lip service.

The principal speakers of the evening were United States Senator Hamilton P. Kean and Second Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Oliver. Both lauded the work of Bacharach in the House and urged the reelection of President Hoover.

Charles R. Stout, Republican county chairman, was toastmaster. U. S. Senator W. Warren Barbour and Harold G. Hoffman, state motor vehicle commissioner, sent messages of regret of being unable to attend and commended Bacharach.

D. Lane Powers, candidate for Congress in the new Fourth District comprising Burlington and Mercer counties, said he hoped he could accomplish as much as Bacharach has in 18 years of service.

Kean lauded Bacharach as an advocate of high tariff, and urged his reelection from the Second District, which now comprises Atlantic, Cumberland and Cape May counties.

Glover said the problems which confronted Hoover were harder than those before any other president. He said he did not think the American people will turn out an administration which has helped to solve these problems.

Evan Benner, Moorestown postmaster, declared he had been a Republican 50 years. He said Bacharach had not only served the county well but also the nation.

The congressman thanked the postmasters for their tribute and said he would be back on the day before election, to make a tour of the county in behalf of Powers and the entire ticket.

He said the present tariff on agriculture is too low. He pointed out that farming implements and the crops grown by farmers are not taxed. He said he recently toured Cumberland county and learned the glass factories are working 80 per cent. He said the manufacturers predicted they would have to close down December 1 if Roosevelt is elected.

He praised President Hoover for conceiving the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and other measures which had helped to check the depression.

State Senator Clifford R. Powell reviewed the 18 years' work of Bacharach as representative. George deB. Keim, secretary of the Republican National Committee, sent a letter of commendation.

Others introduced were Judge Charles A. Rigg, Prosecutor Howard Eastwood, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry, state committeewoman; Mrs. Pearl Bridge, vice chairman of the county committee; George N. Wimer, candidate for sheriff; Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, candidate for Assembly; William H. Heisler, freeholder candidate.

K. OF C. NOTES

St. Joseph's Council has made all arrangements for its annual masquerade party and dance on Halloween, Monday, October 31. Special events for both grown-ups and children have been provided for, with many prizes to be awarded for fancy costume, most comic, original, best dressed couple, etc.

William J. Eck is chairman of this affair, and promises all who attend a good time.

The "Kings o' Rhythm" orchestra will dispense the music for the grand march and the dancing that follows.

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF NEEDLEWORK

Mrs. Cooper, Local Welfare Workers, Will Address Riverton Branch Nov. 7

The regular annual meeting of the Riverton Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held in the Porch Club room Monday, November 7, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

This is the time, as everyone knows, when the garments made and contributed by the members and collected by the directors, are displaying before distribution to the various charitable agencies which are helped by the local chapter. So don't, this year, just give your two articles and let it go at that—attend this annual meeting on the seventh, and see what has been accomplished by our combined efforts.

In addition to the display of garments and the transaction of routine business including the election of officers, the meeting this year will be addressed by the local welfare worker, Mrs. Newbold Cooper. Mrs. Cooper will present a cross-section of some of our local problems, illustrating her points with actual cases, and showing where and how the Needlework Guild can and does do a great deal of practical good.

Special Requests for Garments

This year an effort was made to find out just what kinds of clothing were most needed by the various relief agencies. One hospital sent in a request for dresses for girls in 8 to 10 year sizes; and boys' suits, 3 to 6 years. The Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association needs the following garments:

For Girls: Dresses, 1 to 6 years; stockings, all sizes; bloomers, 6 to 12 years; underwear, 1 to 20 years; sweaters, gloves, diapers.

For Boys: Trousers, 6 to 17 years; suits, 4 to 16 years; underwear, sweaters, gloves, all sizes; bloomers, 6 to 17 years.

For Women: Dresses 18 to 46; underwear, 18 to 46; cotton slips and stockings, all sizes.

For Men: Trousers, socks, work shirts and underwear, all sizes.

The above lists give some hint of the extent of the need, and if any member has not already purchased her article, may we suggest a most acceptable contribution.

Directors are reminded that all garments must be at the Porch Club room not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning for sorting and arranging. Three o'clock is the hour of the meeting; Monday, November 7, the date.

FIRST MEETING ON RIVER BANK PROBLEM

Regional Planning Board Will Be Consulted for Suggestions As to Methods

The first meeting of the committee of citizens recently appointed by Mayor William E. Bennett to consider ways and means of reclaiming the river bank, was held at the Riverton Country Club last night.

Richard M. Woodward was elected chairman of the committee and Walter C. Woolman secretary.

As an indication of the necessity for doing something to rehabilitate the river bank it was pointed out that three properties had already been torn down, resulting in a reduction of $30,000 in the taxable property in Riverton, and that a number were for sale or rent.

Several plans were informally discussed, and it was appointed Mr. Woolman a committee of one to consult the Regional Planning Board with a view to getting some suggestions as to what might be done.

P. O. S. of A. NOTES

Members of Washington Camp, No. 23, of Palmyra, who attended the County P. O. S. of A. meeting at Marlton on Saturday were well repaid for the time spent, as the visit proved very enjoyable and most entertaining.

The next county meeting will be held at Chateaufort on November 16 and a large turnout is hoped for. It is hoped that all members will make an effort to be present at Monday's meeting and an excellent program has been planned.

STOLEN CARS FOUND

Two stolen cars were found abandoned in Cinnaminson Township last Thursday night by Officer Dorworth of the Cinnaminson police. One, a Ford coupe owned by Dr. Richard Anderson, of Burlington, was stolen while the doctor was visiting a patient in Burlington; the other an Austin coupe owned by J. W. Price, of West Central avenue, Moorestown, was stolen from in front of his home. The Ford was found in the vicinity of Denner's store on Branch pike, and the Austin was found on the Moorestown-Riverton road near the Westfield public school.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt appreciation to those who extended sympathy and assistance in our recent bereavement and to thank those who sent flowers and cars to the funeral. Mrs. C. H. Haines and family.

CHILD STUDY GROUP AT RIVERTON P. T. A.

Mrs. Charles Cunningham Leads Discussion on "Obedience" Monday Afternoon at School House

The Child Study group of the Riverton P. T. A. held its first meeting in the Kindergarten room last Monday. "Obedience," being an ever-present problem of mothers, drew a large and attentive group, which followed with great interest the well-planned outline of the subject prepared by Mrs. Charles Cunningham, leader for the afternoon. The members added their contributions to various points of discussion, and all felt the hour well spent, interesting and stimulating.

These group meetings are held once a month. Consult your P. T. A. program and this paper for dates and time. The next will be held on Monday, November 21, at 2:30, with Mrs. Harry L. Rogers as leader on the subject of "Punishment."

To supplement the constructive work of the study group and to help those who have missed the discussion, the Riverton Library has a shelf of books on child training, which give expert advice on the many problems that constantly confront parents.

Program of Coming Events

On November 1, at 2:30 p. m. there will be a short business meeting. Mrs. Joseph L. Thomas, president, presiding. At the conclusion of this meeting there will be a series of two-minute talks on current events by club members. The main feature of the afternoon will be a talk on Old Philadelphia by Mrs. Charles E. Freyer, of Philadelphia, who has a valuable collection and will bring some of her trays to exhibit. Mrs. Murray C. Boyer is in charge of the exhibition, and any club member having any antique shawls, trays, and samplers to display, notify Mrs. Boyer, telephone 99-11.

"Y" AUXILIARIES TO HOLD CONFERENCE

"The Ship" will be the theme of the fifth anniversary celebration and the thirty-ninth conference of Women's Auxiliaries of Young Men's Christian Associations of New Jersey to be held in Atlantic City on Friday of next week.

About twenty members of the Palmyra-Riverton Auxiliary are planning to attend the event which promises a most interesting and inspiring program.

Mrs. Charles Yost, president of the Palmyra-Riverton organization, is urging all members who possibly can to make an effort to attend the Conference.

DRAWING

Keating's Store in Riverton will hold a drawing of numbers in the real contest, Monday night at their store. Ten tickets will be drawn and posted in the store in the order drawn. The first ticket number will be open for claim for one week from date of drawing. Each succeeding ticket will be open for claim for two days until the holder of the lucky number wins the free ton of coal.

"LOVE ME TONIGHT"

Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald, who have taken the movie world by storm in their various starring vehicles, will be seen again at the Palmyra Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday evenings in "Love Me Tonight."

TAXPAYERS UNIT ELECTS OFFICERS

Resolution Passed Opposing an Unnecessary Bond Issue for Relief Work

The first meeting of the Board of Directors of the newly formed Riverton Unit of the New Jersey Taxpayers' Association was held at the Riverton Country Club, Monday night.

Organization was effected by the election of the following officers: President, James S. Conde; vice-president, Stuart E. Clark; secretary, Walter L. Bowen; treasurer, Herbert M. Kleckhefer.

E. W. Miller was appointed chairman of the membership committee with authority to select his own team of workers. Mr. Miller stressed his zeal and efficiency in his office by immediately enrolling as members all those present. The membership fee is $1.00 per year.

After a thorough discussion of the proposed bond issue of $20,000,000 for emergency relief, Mr. Miller presented the following resolution which was unanimously passed:

"Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Unit of the New Jersey Taxpayers' Association hereby recommend to the voters in the coming election, to be held on November 8 to vote in the affirmative on Question No. 2, which provides for a reduction of the authorized debt of the State of New Jersey, and in the negative on Question No. 3 which provides for a bond issue for emergency relief. FINE RALLY HELD BY REPUBLICANS IN PALMYRA H. S.

Full Auditorium Hears Hoover Praised As a Great President

DEMOCRATIC THEORIES UNSOUND AS USUAL

Mrs. R. S. Williams Compares Hoover to Physician of Convalescent Patient

Palmyra Republicans had a big rally Tuesday evening at the high school building.

A fine crowd, which filled the auditorium, was on hand to hear the speakers. Its numbers and enthusiasm demonstrated clearly that the depression hasn't had much effect on the crop of Republican voters in this community.

The visiting speaker, Presswell McLaughlin, from New York, didn't create as good an impression as had been hoped. He showed considerable lack of tact, and his remarks seemed to be of the impression that he was speaking in a backwoods community.

But most of the crowd forgave him, because he seemed quite old. He was thoroughly imbued with the old-time basic Republican principles of sound money, protective tariff, and individual rights. He spoke chiefly of the political conflicts of bygone days, when the Democrats, always radical and unsound in their doctrines, advocated free silver and free trade.

Smith and Hague

Mr. McLaughlin called attention to the utter lack of confidence which ex-Governor Smith and Mayor Frank Hague, of Jersey City, had expressed regarding Franklin Roosevelt before the latter had won the Democratic nomination. He quoted Mr. Smith's editorial in the Outlook in which the former presidential candidate ridiculed Roosevelt's slogan of the "Forgotten Man" and told how Hague had predicted Roosevelt could not carry a single northern state east of the Mississippi.

If the Democrats win, said Mr. McLaughlin, the United States will be governed entirely by two small parts of the country, the "Solid South" and Tammany Hall.

The speaker related how Vice Presidential Candidate Garner had boasted of getting executive positions built in small Texas towns. "Every time a Yankee gets a ham, I'm going to get a whole hog," Garner was reported to have said.

President Hoover has proved his greatness by carrying the nation through one of its worst crises, declared Mr. McLaughlin, and the fact that recovery is already well underway demonstrates better than anything else Hoover's policies have been right.

Mrs. Williams Speaks

Mrs. R. Selby Williams, long a popular resident of Palmyra and Riverton, was then introduced. Mrs. Williams had been a Democrat all her life, as was her husband. She told how her high personal regard for Herbert Hoover, of whom she had known since the days of the Boxer rebellion in China, had caused her to become a Republican in 1928, and now, instead of regretting the change because of the great economic crisis the country had passed through, she was more than ever convinced that Hoover had been the right man to guide the destinies of the nation through that trying period.

Now that things are getting better, she said she felt just like a patient who had passed through a long and serious illness, but was now convalescing. "Who would change physicians at such a time," she asked.

The various county and local candidates were introduced and some made a few remarks.

Mayor Walter D. Lamont presided at the opening of the meeting and introduced W. Rex McCrosson who presented the various speakers.

Post Rodgers Drum and Bugle Corps led the procession to the high school building and presented a splendid spectacle.

MAINTENANCE DRIVE FOR COUNTY HOSPITAL

The maintenance drive for the Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, will begin on November 1, and will be county-wide.

Collectors will call at each home in Palmyra some time during that week and it is hoped that each and every citizen will find it possible to contribute something, no matter how little.

This hospital does a very worthwhile work in the county and the drive for funds is held annually.

HELP THE KIDDIES!

There are many children in Palmyra who are in need of clothing.

The Palmyra Borough Welfare organization is trying to take care of this need and in doing so, is asking the cooperation of the townspeople in this worthwhile work.

Children's underwear and shoes are among the things particularly requested, although other good used clothing is much in demand.

Any persons having same are asked to leave the articles at the Palmyra police station or call Riverton 951 or 805-W and the articles will be called for.

Miss Dorothy Killian Is Bride of Robert S. Kenney in Very Pretty Ceremony at Sacred Heart Church

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Sacred Heart Church, Riverton, yesterday morning at nine o'clock when Miss Dorothy Killian, daughter of Mrs. Lillian R. Martin, of 37 Rowland street, Palmyra, became the bride of Robert S. Kenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kenney, of 131 Webster street, Riverside.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Rigney assisted by Rev. J. Cavanaugh and the Rev. A. Shur-lin.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, A. Stanley Killian, was attired in a gorgeous model of white velvet with high neck line and puff sleeves. Her tulle veil was cap-shaped and she carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley and orchids.

Miss Anne Hanson, of West Philadelphia, was the maid of honor. She was gown in a model of royal blue velvet, fashioned after the bride's gown. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

James J. Kenney was his brother's best man and the ushers were John E. Kenney, brother of the bridegroom and Thomas Kenney, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Martin wore a charming model of black crepe and a corsage bouquet of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lovely gown of brown velvet and wore a corsage of fall flowers.

A wedding breakfast at Iron Rock Country Club, Merchantville, followed the ceremony and the happy couple left immediately on an extended wedding trip.

They will be at home to their many friends after November 15 at 125 Webster street, Riverside.

ROTARIANS HEAR OF HUNTING TRIP

Dr. Mills Tells of Encounter With Grizzly Bears and Other Events

Raymond E. Parker, of Burlington, invited the members of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club last Thursday night to attend the annual Manufacturers and Retailers show at the city of Burlington next week. This affair is held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and is going to be more elaborate than ever before.

President Lockett will soon celebrate his twentieth years of ordination. In honor of this event, the Club passed a resolution congratulating him upon his many years of Christian service and thanking him for his valuable assistance in the local community.

Joseph Low drew up the very clever legal resolution which was highly appreciated.

Following the transaction of the usual business, including the reading of the Governor's monthly letter, Dr. C. S. Mills, first president of the Palmyra-Riverton Club, was introduced as the speaker of the evening.

He told about a hunting trip which he had taken in British Columbia late in the summer of 1919. The topic was inspired by J. D. Eisler's description of his trip from Los Angeles to Vancouver, because it continued up the same coast line. It is impossible to summarize in a few lines all that Dr. Mills said in an hour and a quarter, but it suffices to say that he held his audience almost breathless for the length of time. Everyone was agreed that the talk was one of the most interesting that the Club has listened to.

A few of the outstanding portions of the speech can be included in these paragraphs. Dr. Mills' description of the country at Alert Bay, mentioned mainly by Japs, which takes the raw salmon and transforms it into the canned variety in twenty minutes, was most interesting. The speed of the water is so great in these northern rivers that boats with only a six-inch draft and powerful twin screws are necessary to navigate them. Novel to the Club members was the description of Wrangell, the town that has 365 days of rain in a year.

High spots about the actual hunting trip were the experiences with bugs. Millions of small ones roared right in the camp fire. They were so numerous that it was impossible to lift a cup of tea to one's mouth before it was black with tiny insects. Their activity, however, paled before that of the ground hornets. These large insects stung mercilessly, staminate horses and inflicted damage to the whole party. Only the Indian guides' knowledge of a local remedy for their stings prevented serious suffering.

Finally, the hunters arrived in the mountain goat country. Here the weather was cold. They slept, fully clothed, in sleeping bags. The temperature was so low that their blankets froze on their faces.

Dr. Mills was fortunate to shoot a big ram, and many times saw the goats jumping down the mountain side sixty feet at a leap. Dr. Mills had much to say about Indian marksmanship and related how his guide borrowed a Colt automatic 45 revolver, known to be an inaccurate weapon, and at a hundred yards took the heads off of six partridges and shot the seventh through the body with 7.000 feet above sea level. It was necessary for him and the guide to carry these animals on their backs to camp. The temperature was so low that the latter were frozen when they arrived there.

Quite the most exciting adventure was the hunt for grizzly bears. The doctor killed one and he and his guide were then attacked by three others, of which they were forced to shoot two in self-protection; one stopped 12 and the other 13 feet from the two men.

Dr. Mills' descriptions of the beautiful scenery throughout the trip were excellent, and everyone mentally resolved to see that country as soon as he should be able to do so.

P. O. S. of A. HAS BIG COUNTY MEETING

Much New Activity and Interest Is Being Shown in Patriotic Order

The Burlington County Association P.O.S. of A. met in the rooms of Camp 186, Marlton, last Saturday evening.

Marlton Camp 186 was presented with a silk flag won at the State Camp Session in September for having made second largest percentage increase in membership. The flag was presented by Past State President Ed. Boker of Camden. Brother George Richter, of Marlton, accepted the flag for Camp 186.

Our new district president, Melvin Howell, presided and outlined some of the activities scheduled for this year's work.

There was in attendance nearly 100 members of the camps of Burlington county besides visiting delegations. Leslie W. Reeves, the new district president, addressed the meeting briefly. He spoke of a state-wide initiation night to be held on Saturday, December 10, it being the purpose of each county to hold a class initiation, and each camp in each county is urged to have at least one candidate to be initiated that night.

Brother Gottlieb, state chairman of Americanization, also addressed the meeting regarding his work.

A delegation from Alloway, Salem county, was present under the leadership of their district president, Brother Sewell. The Alloway boys carried off first honors for membership gains last year, and as some of the Marlton boys attended Alloway's prize presentation, the Salem boys returned the visit.

Entertainment was furnished by the "Corn Huskers" Dancers with their "Devil's Fiddle," harmonicas, guitar and accordion.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

ORGANIZE PALMYRA UNIT OF COUNTY TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE

The organization meeting of the Palmyra unit of the Burlington County Taxpayers' Association was held Thursday in the American Legion Home, Palmyra.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Wilbur Crane, president; George M. Durkin, vice president; M. B. Founce, general secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, recording secretary; and Fred C. Young, treasurer.

Plans are being made for a mass meeting to be held in the near future, at which time the county officers are expected to be present and explain in detail what has been accomplished and what the Taxpayers' Association is doing in the county and state.

FOOD SALE SUCCESS

Mrs. Herbert Schrank, chairlady of the food sale held in the auditorium of the Sacred Heart school on Thursday, October 20, wishes to thank everyone for their very generous cooperation in making this event the success that it was. Mrs. Schrank will appreciate very much if all dishes are returned to her.

DEMOCRATS HOLD THREE MEETINGS

John Renshaw, President of Club, Presided at Palmyra Session

Three Democratic mass meetings were held Friday evening at Palmyra, Burlington, and Mount Holly.

The speakers were: Deputy Mayor William H. Smith, of Perth Amboy; Edward Hart, corporation counsel of Jersey City; tax collector of Weehawken, Mrs. Marguerite Callery; Percy H. Stewart, candidate for U. S. Senate, and Monell Sayre, Democratic nominee for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, and J. Bond, of Camden.

The county candidates included Frank S. Absalom, of Florence, for Assembly; Frank Cook, of Medford, for Freeholder; and Joseph Wolfrom, of Mount Holly, for sheriff.

A luncheon and reception was held in the afternoon at the Pigna Whistle Inn, Brown's Mills, and the candidates and officers of the Burlington County Democratic Committee were guests of State Committeeman George Hillman, Jr., of Moorestown, for dinner.

The meeting in Palmyra was presided over by John Renshaw, president of the Palmyra Democratic Club; Francis Goodwin, Mr. Garston and Mr. Holland, and the Relief Fire Company Band, of Mount Holly.

Jacob Stroheim, of Riverton, vice president of the club, was marshal of the parade.

The meeting held in the Palmyra High School was opened by John Renshaw, who introduced Mrs. Merrill E. Haas, state committeewoman of Burlington county, who presided at the meeting.

An enthusiastic and interested audience of about 350 attended and enjoyed one of the finest collections of speakers ever assembled on one platform, and went home well informed on the issues of the campaign.

The Stewart Glee Club of Jersey City entertained at each of the three meetings.

BUSINESS WOMEN HOLD MASKED PARTY

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Palmyra and Riverton greatly enjoyed the masked party held on Thursday evening in the gaily decorated "X" building.

After the grand march during which the girls unmasked, prizes were awarded for the most unusual and comical costumes.

Dancing, ping-pong, stunts and many appropriate games for this occasion furnished a full evening of entertainment.

The customary Halloween refreshments were served and the members agreed that the evening drew to a close all too quickly.

The regular monthly dinner-meeting will be held on Monday, November 7, at 6:30 at the Iron Rock Country Club. All members are urged to attend.

MASQUERADE PARTY

The Junior Girl Reserve Corps of Delanco will give a masquerade party in the town hall, Thursday evening. The Girl Reserve group this year is under the leadership of Miss Mildred Demmeler, of Riverton.

BARBOUR SEES LARGE MAJORITY

Candidate for U. S. Senate Sees Big Swing to Hoover as Campaign Progresses

With Election Day less than two weeks away, United States Senator W. Warren Barbour interrupted his intensive campaigning for reelection long enough to predict certain Republican success at the polls.

"The entire ticket," he prophesied, "from President Hoover down will be swept into office by a decisive vote; the ballots of serious men and women who place the welfare of their country above every other consideration."

"The signs are unmistakable. Within the last few days, during my campaigning I have observed a renewed interest on the part of the voters. They have been weighing the various promises of the Democratic spellbinders against the logical argument and sound judgment of our spokesmen, and have found the opposition pitifully unable to 'make a case.'"

It is interesting to note that Senator Barbour has accepted the offer by 418 veterans of the Spanish-American and World Wars, respectively, to act as challengers at the polls of Union county in his behalf on Election Day. The names of the veteran volunteers—two to be assigned to each of the 209 polling places in the county—were filed on Tuesday of this week with the Union County Board of Elections by Charles J. Ehmling, of Cranford, president of the Republican Veterans Association of Union County.

"It is our wish to do all we can for Senator Barbour," Ehmling said. "We know he is a man of courage, intelligence and justice, and that's all any veteran asks of the man in whom he places his confidence. After a personal interview with Senator Barbour I am convinced that he is the veterans' friend and that he will protect our interests."

BAILEY MASON HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Bailey Mason, of 235 Horace avenue, Palmyra, returned home from the Cooper Hospital, Camden, Monday, after having been a patient there following an automobile accident on the Admiral Wilson boulevard, Camden, Friday evening.

Mason was driving on the boulevard when the front wheels of two other cars locked and caused them to crash into his car. He and his young lady companion, Miss Anna V. Kennedy, of Cooper street, Camden, were both taken to the hospital.

They suffered lacerations and bruises, also shock. Miss Kennedy is still a patient in the hospital, but is not in a critical condition. Mason is under the doctor's care.

MINSTREL SHOW

"Ben's Minstrels" will be presented tomorrow evening by the Daughters of Christ Church in the parish house.

The event is being staged under the direction of B. S. Turbett and is expected to be one of the most successful of its kind ever held in the Parish House.

The show will start promptly at eight o'clock. A silver offering will be taken.

M'ALLISTER'S NOW MAKE ICE CREAM

New Plant Installed in Store of Prominent Palmyra Confectioner

McAllister's confectionery store, 2 East Broad street, Palmyra, has installed a new compact ice cream freezing plant for the production of fresh home-made ice cream in a wide variety of flavors at no greater cost than ordinary ice cream.

The new unit is located right in the store where patrons can see the ice cream made from rich blended cream.

The grade of cream used in the making is claimed to contain twenty-five per cent. more butter fat than is found in most commercial grades.

The unit consists of a freezing plant located on top of the cabinet with a twenty-quart capacity. Directly under the mixing or freezing unit is a storage compartment where raw cream is stored. The balance of the cabinet is devoted to the storage of the finished product, which may be purchased loose or in packages.

The temperature in the cabinet is maintained at ten to fifteen degrees below zero at all times. It requires from six to eight minutes to mix a twenty-quart batch and from one to six hours to freeze it, depending upon

BRIAN KANE IS SCOUT SPEAKER

William Sprenkel Invested as Tenderfoot by Troop Committee

Last week marked another milestone in the history of the Boy Scouts Service Troop of Palmyra.

The Sea Scouts were sworn in as ordinary seamen, the starting grade of sea scouting in the troop. The oath and Sea Scout promise were received by Commodore Brian Kane.

After receiving this promise from the boys, Commodore Kane, who is an Annapolis graduate, spoke very interestingly on the sea and its traditions, as concerns the sailor and the qualities that make for the upholding of these traditions and history. Commodore Kane's talk proved most inspiring to the boys.

William Sprenkel was invested as a Tenderfoot Scout by Troop Committee Chairman W. H. Brady with Scoutmaster Weigand and Star Scout Bauer assisting.

A delegation of Riverton Sea Scouts attended in uniform and witnessed the two ceremonies.

Arrangements have been made by Mr. Taft, of the Troop Committee, with George Bliss, of the U. S. Weather Bureau, Philadelphia, whereby the Sea Scouts of Palmyra will receive, daily, a weather map, similar to the large one in Philadelphia, showing high and low pressure areas and direction of wind and various weather data both graphically and statistically. This map will be displayed in the window of Bowker's Tak-A-Bout Shop, through the kindness of Arthur Bowker.

INDIAN SPEAKER

ISAAC GREYEARTH

Mr. Greyearth, Sioux Indian, was born on the Sisseton Reservation and lived the first ten years of his life in a wigwam. He was educated at the boarding school of his home reservation, the Flandreau Indian School, Haskell Institute, Mount Hermon (Massachusetts), the American Institute (Kansas), and the North Dakota Agriculture College.

During the school year (1919-21) he was a special Indian student secretary under the International Committee of the Y.M.C.A. For the past ten years Mr. Greyearth has been religious work director at Flandreau Indian School (South Dakota) and at Pipestone Indian School (Minnesota), employed by the Home Missions Council and Council of Women for Home Missions.

He is now associated with C. L. Rowe in the National Y.M.C.A. work for American Indians.

Mr. Greyearth will speak at the Palmyra schools and Y.M.C.A. today.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Belmar Woman Dies in Cooper Hospital From Injuries Received as Car Hits Pole

Caroline Gregory, wife of Henry B. Gregory, of 211 Seventh avenue, Belmar, suffered fatal injuries in an automobile accident at the dangerous Five Points intersection, Parry, last Friday afternoon, and died in Cooper Hospital, Camden, at 10 o'clock the same day.

Her husband was driving in the direction of Camden and became confused, losing control of the car and crashing into a pole at the intersection. Both victims of the crash were taken to Cooper Hospital in the Palmyra ambulance, driven by James Malloy and Fred Rogers.

Mrs. Gregory was found to have suffered a double compound fracture of the left leg, below the knee, both arms were broken, several ribs broken, lacerations of the head and was suffering from shock, when admitted to the hospital. Her husband had a fractured ankle, several broken ribs, and lacerations of the face and head, and is still confined to the hospital.

Mr. Gregory is 65 years old and Mrs. Gregory was 59 years old. They were motoring to Florida for the winter when the accident occurred.

I. O. O. F. ADMITS NEW MEMBERS

First Degree to be Given Tomorrow Evening; Large Attendance Urged

The officers and degree master of Cinnaminson Lodge, No. 201, Palmyra, were very much gratified by the large number of members in attendance at the regular meeting last Friday evening.

The officers of the lodge wish to take this opportunity to state that this fine spirit, if continued, and communicated to the rest of the membership will do much to improve the present status of Cinnaminson Lodge.

Standing committees were appointed at the meeting, and they are to continue the same as last year. One of the first things the lodge is interested in is increasing attendance and membership.

Two new candidates were initiated and the degree team did fine work, considering the fact that this was the first initiation of the season.

Tomorrow evening the first degree will be given. The annual indoor sports session will be held.

ROXY'S GANG COMES TO WALT WHITMAN

Sooner or later everyone fulfills a life's ambition to visit New York. Broadway, the Gay White Way. And no such trip would be complete without a visit to the Roxy Theatre, to see, hear and be entertained by the King of Play—Roxy and his theatre ensemble.

The Walt Whitman Theatre has reversed conditions—and instead of going to Broadway to see Roxy and his ensemble the theatre patron has the Roxy Ensemble coming to see him right at the Walt Whitman Theatre.

The cast of eleven persons to appear Sunday at the Walt Whitman Theatre are all members of the world-renowned "Roxy's Gang" and their record is one of brilliant achievement. They are radio favorites, having broadcast from station WJZ on several occasions over a nation-wide hook-up. The screen attraction for Sunday brings Lila Lee and Walter Byron in "Exposure" along with a specially selected bill of short subjects.

LEGION TO HEAR SPLENDID TALK

William McKinley, of Hudson County, to Address Post Rodgers

William McKinley, of Hudson county, well-known Legionnaire, will be the guest speaker at the November meeting of Post Frederick M. Rodgers, Palmyra, in the Legion Home Tuesday evening.

Commander George Durkin not only expects all members to attend, but is using this means to invite all veterans of the World War in the community to hear Mr. McKinley, whose address will prove most interesting and inspiring to the ex-soldiers. He has many close friends throughout Burlington county and his excellent message along with his charming personality will make the evening one which will long be remembered.

All past commanders of Post Rodgers will be guests of honor on that occasion and will attend the meeting in a body.

The past officials wish to take this opportunity to appeal, not only to Legionnaires, but to all citizens, to do their duty on Election Day and VOTE. How one votes is for his or her own conscience and intelligence to decide, but vote.

We all owe America that much, and Post Rodgers urges all to vote on November 8.

PALMYRA NOTES

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1, Palmyra, under the leadership of Mrs. Walter S. Hansen, captain, will visit the Zoological Gardens, Philadelphia, tomorrow afternoon. A special bus will leave Palmyra at 1:30 o'clock. Thirty-four girls are expected to make the trip. Mrs. Herbert Trout will also accompany the scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, of Riverside Park, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Joan Kathryn, at the Zabrugg Hospital, Burlington, on October 21. Mrs. Moore will be remembered as the former Miss Estelle Miller, of Palmyra.

A holiday mart will be held by the Women's Guild of the Epworth M. E. Church, Palmyra, in the church on November 18 and 19. Useful and attractive gifts will be on sale and everyone is invited to visit the Mart and view the display before buying elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin I. Powell and Mrs. Mathilde Vollmer, of Memorial avenue, and Mrs. A. B. Powell, of West Broad street, visited the Powell's daughter, Marjorie, who is a student at Glassboro Normal School, on Sunday. Miss Mildred Michie, who is also a student there, returned to Glassboro with them, after having spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Michie, of East Fourth street.

Mrs. Pauline Patterson left Friday for Glouster, Ohio, where she will spend some time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. LeFavor, of that place.

Mrs. W. B. Sherman and son, Donald, of Scranton, Pa., are spending the week with Mrs. Sherman's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur J. White, of Morgan avenue.

The Cinnaminson Parent-Teacher Association is sponsoring a chicken supper to be served in the school on Thursday, November 10. More details concerning the event will be given in a later issue of this newspaper.

The annual Sunday School meeting of the Central Baptist Church will be held Tuesday evening of next week in the church. A supper will precede the business meeting. All members are urged to attend.

The supper held by the Junior Philatheta Class of the Central Baptist Church on Saturday evening proved very successful. More than 100 persons were served.

Miss Kathryn Hirsch, of New York, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hirsch, of Highland avenue.

Frank S. Day, Jr., of Chicago, Ill., is visiting relatives in Palmyra this week.

A card party for the benefit of the Order of Eastern Star will be given at the home of Mrs. Eckert Ballinger, of Cleveland avenue, Palmyra, October 28.

The Boy Scout Mothers of Palmyra will meet Thursday evening, November 3, at the home of Mrs. D. Grey Schwarz, of 710 Perry avenue. All Boy Scout mothers are invited to attend.

THINK THIS OVER, FOES OF HOOVER

Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, never spoke one word for publication for ten long years. Last Friday night in London he spoke to a group of bankers. His words are worthy of repetition.

He pictured a world helpless in the grip of an economic depression "OUTSIDE the CONTROL of ANY MAN, any government or any country. The difficulties are so vast, so unlimited that I approach the whole subject not only in ignorance, but in humility."

That from a man who probably knows more about world finances than anyone living, who usually says nothing, who studies and observes and directs one of the world's greatest banks, should be given some serious consideration by the critics of Hoover who like to blame the depression on our President.

THE CHILD AT SCHOOL

The problem of encouraging the child to make the most of the opportunities which the school offers again presents itself. It is a problem in which parents should take a keen interest.

Perhaps the most important objective to be sought is to awaken in the child a real desire for knowledge. It should be pointed out that it is possible to derive enjoyment from the pursuit of school studies if one approaches them with a genuine ambition to learn. The child should not be led to feel that going to school is an unpleasant duty. He should be impressed with the fact that it is a privilege to be appreciated, not only as a preparation for after life, but as a means of present happiness and satisfaction as well.

Some children appear to realize this without urging, but others seem to be naturally averse to mental effort, and require patient handling in order to arouse their interest in school work.

Parents should not place the entire responsibility upon the teachers, but should cooperate with them, not only insisting upon punctual attendance, but also in leading the child to adopt a proper attitude toward his studies.

"PATTIE" TO BE STAGED AT P.H.S. NOVEMBER 4-5

Dorothea Thum Will Play Leading Role in Tillicum Production

CAST INCLUDES BOY AND GIRL CHORUSES

Rehearsals Began Monday Afternoon; Excellent Show Is Promised Public

Rehearsals for the 1933 Tillicum play, "Pattie", a three act musical comedy, started on Monday afternoon at the Palmyra High School. "Pattie" is a delightful show, a John B. Rogers production, under the able direction of Mr. Irving Weidmiller which will be given on the evenings of November 4 and 5 in the high school auditorium.

Miss Dorothea Thum, who will be remembered for her fine work as "Peggy" in last year's junior play, "Peg O' My Heart", has been selected to play the part of "Pattie", a rich orphan who has fallen in love with the brother of her roommate.

Janet Koenig as Josie "Pattie's" roommate and chum, and the proud possessor of a handsome brother to whom "Pattie" farms herself out as a ward simply because she has fallen in love with his picture.

Lawrence Bradshaw, as Bob Randall, Josie's brother, Bob is a rising young inventor of a special paint process, but is also known as "Cyclone Williams", the lightweight champion of the world.

Humor and plenty of it will be supplied by Edwin Friberg as "Spike" Maloney, manager of the camp. Esther Shockor and Elizabeth Knight in the roles of real country gossips and Nathan Beckley, a cad country bumpkin, will show their wares as comedians of the first water.

The cast is as follows:

Patricia "Pattie" Monroe

Dorothea Thum

Winnie Richardson

Mildred Goodwin

Sarah Smith

Esther Shockor

Miranda Mathews

Elizabeth Knight

Bob Randall

Lawrence Bradshaw

Fred Saunders

Robert Fry

Spike Maloney

Edwin Friberg

Calvin Harvey

Nathan Beckley

Carl McAllister

Lyman Ross

Lybrand Mathes

Mr. Randall

Lloyd Griscorn

The cast also includes 80 high school girls and 16 high school boys members of the various chorus groups. There are more than a hundred young people of Palmyra High School have combined their efforts on the production of "Pattie" for your entertainment and a delightful performance is assured to the public.

MRS. JAMES HAMMOND SPEAKS TO PARENTS

Pleads for Better Understanding Between Home and School at P.T.A. Meeting

An appreciative audience listened last Thursday evening, to the talk on "A Better Understanding Between the Home and the School" given by Mrs. James Hammond, of the School of Ethical Culture, New York City. Her very pleasing number of the Parent-Teacher members and their friends composed this gathering.

Mrs. Hammond's manner made the talk quite friendly. The earnest call for cooperation was based upon the need of the child, beginners often becoming confused by dual attitudes.

A small boy, just beginning, was told that "big boys" took off their own wraps, which he did willingly as the others did the same. After a week an irate mother appeared, saying her child was being ruined. Investigation showed that coming home, his nurse attempted to take off his overalls, he rebelled, and as his mother declared, was rude to her when she told him "kindly" that "big boys should not rebel when offered attention."

"Big Boy" evidently meant two different things.

A sense of responsibility for their home work is desirable. Help when possible, but do not insist that it is time to learn your lessons. A failure now and then may be an incentive to more attention.

Before the address a short business meeting informed the members of the executive committee. A banner having been provided for the parents present at the regular meetings, there was a roll call of grades. Mrs. Eugene Pharo, of Moorestown, then sang several selections accompanied by Mrs. Robert Sim.

At the end of the meeting, Mr. Lechere, the physical director, led in several games, which were enjoyed by the onlookers as much as by the players. Mrs. Speaker, the hostess, and her aides served sweet cider and crackers.

During this time Mrs. Hammond held an impromptu reception, and an hour elapsed before most of the friends left for home.

Several took the opportunity to pay their dues. The membership now is over eighty.

"CALLING THE SPHINX, PLEASE"

Radio telephone service has now been established with the land of the Sphinx and the pyramids. From your home anywhere in New Jersey you can establish a radio connection with the Sphinx although you are likely to hear the operator say "No answer." The new service includes Cairo, with a population of 1,100,000 and 47,500 telephones, and Alexandria, with a population of 600,000 and about 11,500 telephones. Three cities in South Africa can also be reached.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD WILL HOLD ANNUAL INGATHERING NOV. 3

The Palmyra Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold its annual ingathering of garments in the Y.M.C.A. building, Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, on Thursday, November 3.

Directors are asked to bring their garments between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. The afternoon meeting is open to the public and garments will be displayed at that time.

The session will open at 2:30 o'clock and Mrs. W. B. Scott, president of the Camden Branch of the Needlework Guild will be the guest speaker. An excellent musical program has been arranged.

Tea will be served and the general public is asked and urged to be present to view this worthwhile display.

LADIES SPONSOR BIG FOOD SALE

Event to be Held at 13 East Broad Street; Opens at 10 A. M.

The Welfare Department of the Women's Club of Palmyra is sponsoring a food sale to be held in the vacant store at 13 East Broad street on Saturday.

The sale will open at ten o'clock and all townspeople are invited to visit the sale and either donate or buy.

The following are members of the committee in charge of arrangements for the event: Mrs. L. O. Hanum, Mrs. Richard Hunter, Mrs. John Bucher, Mrs. Edwin B. Day, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. B. C. Horner, Mrs. John Moffitt is chairman of the event.

Anyone wishing to either donate or buy is asked to call any member of the committee and your article will be called for or delivered.

The ladies on the committee have been working diligently and sparing no effort in trying to make this event successful. The support of members and friends of the club is solicited.

CAMPAIGN OF LIFE SAVING COMPLETE

Results Just Received by Red Cross During Summer Months

Owing to the mild weather which has prevailed, the life saving campaign of the Red Cross extended into October, being carried on by the examiners of the county after the instructors had gone off duty; hence final results have just been received at the county office.

The campaign was carried on for two months, for five days of the week, with Clifford W. Erwood as county director and Victor H. Hartshorn as instructor. About 13 examiners were working most of the summer at the various bathing beaches, keeping the water active in between the visits of the instructor.

Through the efforts of Washington W. Watts, a beach patrol was organized in Burlington city and have to their credit 20 rescues from drowning, about 100 first aid cases, from cuts and other accidents among the bathers, and two hospital cases.

Also organized patrols in Delanco and Florence. Sylvan Lakes Patrol was, as usual, always on the job, rendering assistance whenever and wherever needed and also made a number of rescues. This patrol won both the senior and junior county medals.

The expenses of the life saving campaign are paid by the twelve Red Cross branches and contributions from some interested people.

LEGION AUXILIARY ENJOYS SUPPER

Progress Is Reported by Standing Committees During Business Session

The Palmyra American Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting at the Legion Home, Wednesday of last week.

Preceding the meeting a most appetizing covered dish supper was served to the members. The committee in charge, Mrs. Raymond Fichter and Mrs. A. H. Lippincott, were given a great deal of credit for the success of the meal. The affair was not only a success financially but also socially.

A very active and interesting program followed the covered dish supper. Much business was attended to.

Namely, $50.00 donated to the Post to assist in repairing the heater; $2.50 to the Welfare Committee; $1.00 to Needlework Guild, offered assistance to Red Cross to help make garments from cotton material sent to Burlington county, assumed responsibility for repairing and dressing dolls collected by Post for distribution at Christmas, paid county dues.

Reports from standing committees were interesting and showed active work being done. Mrs. Raymond Fichter, membership chairman, is planning an extensive drive for members during November.

The Auxiliary is now starting activities of a new organization year. It has a broad program of activities outlined for the coming twelve months—activities for the welfare of the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead; activities to promote a better understanding of the principles of American democracy and to combat the spread of radicalism in the United States; activities for the improvement of the employment situation, for the maintenance of adequate national defense, for the development of warmer international friendships—and for the betterment of conditions of life in American communities. In this program is a place for the work of every eligible woman.

Every woman who comes into the Auxiliary now gives the organization just that much more strength to carry out its program successfully.

The country needs the devoted services of every patriotic woman this year more than at any other time since the war, and if she is the wife, mother, sister, or daughter of a World War veteran, her place of service is in the American Legion Auxiliary.

Dates of interest for Auxiliary members:

Nov. 6: Cornerstone laying of the Cathedral of Air at Lakhurst.
Nov. 17: Burlington County Auxiliary banquet at Burlington.
Nov. 18: Regular meeting of Auxiliary Unit No. 150.

CINNAMINSON SCHOOL

Friday morning, the twenty-first, Mrs. Hammond, who spent the night with one of the members, visited the school. Some time was spent in the sub-principal's, where she and the principal, Mr. J. H. Hartshorn, collected a number of common flowers and weeds, all named, mounted and covered with cellophane, made a beautiful show, in Miss Turner's department, while last but far from least, in Mrs. Terry's room the work so artistically being done, and two hospital cases.

The school number four was included in the tour. *"Look, Nadj, at last the crystal is clearing."Synopsis of Preceding Chapters

Having conquered the mystical secrets of the Far East and gained for himself the magical powers of Yoga, an Englishman, known as Chandu, is singled out by the Brahmin priests to combat the villainies of the madman, Roxor. Roxor has kidnapped Chandu's brother-in-law, who has just perfected a death ray machine, a machine with which Roxor hopes to destroy civilization. From an Arabian ruffian, who has attempted to steal Chandu's niece, Betty Lou, Chandu learns of Roxor's hiding place, the wine cellar of El Babon. Hypnotizing two guards he gains entrance, just in time to wrest the Princess Nadj, a beautiful young woman whom he met some years ago in Paris, from Roxor's power.

Chapter III

THE early rising sun saw the small caravan well on its way across the outer fringe of the desert. And for the greater part of the day they traveled, on and on, over the hot, dry sands with scarcely a word being passed among the different members of the party. Bobay, riding a large camel, directly behind the head dragonman, was enjoying the most thrilling moments of his young life, while Betty Lou and Dorothy Regent were finding the journey a very tedious one.

At the very rear of the camel train rode Chandu, a worried and painful look of despair spread across his bronzed face. Hour after hour, he rode silently on, with only his troubled thoughts for a companion. Regent, in the power of Roxor, but where? WHERE? The crystal had refused to betray the hiding place. And his own mind, which had never failed him before had been unable to communicate with Regent. He dared not even think what would happen if Roxor tried the secrets of the death ray from his brother-in-law. It was all too terrible, too devastating. Unable to endure the mental anguish any longer he whipped up his camel and was soon beside the beast Nadj was riding.

"I must find Robert before Roxor wrings from him all the secrets of the death ray," he cried in his torment.

Nadj regarded him thoughtfully for a moment and as her eyes softened in pity for him, she whispered:

"I think I can help you, Frank."

"You, Nadj?" Chandu exclaimed in complete surprise.

Nadj nodded her lovely head.

"Some of my people have told me they have seen boats carrying steel in huge cases to Roxor's retreat."

"But where is his retreat?" questioned Chandu despairingly.

"Near the ruins of Meydoun on the Third Cataract."

Had Chandu not been so intent upon what Nadj was telling him he would have seen at that moment a heavily hooded head observing them from behind a huge rock. It was Abdullah, Roxor's chief henchman, and as they passed he whispered to another hooded head, which now came into view:

"Go straight to Roxor and inform the master that the Princess and the foreigner are on their way to rescue Regent. Tell him I will see that the white man goes no further than the houseboat."

Chandu and Nadj leaned idly against the rail of the Princess' houseboat, watching the natives unload the luggage and supplies from the pack camels.

"You never have married?" inquired Nadj, breaking a long spell of silence.

Chandu smiled and shook his head.

"And you?"

"Need you ask?" replied Nadj softly. "My life is not yet mine to give. It belongs to my people."

"But you are so young. Aren't you sacrificing yourself for a lost cause?"

"Sometimes I think so," said Nadj meditatively. "One after another our friends become enemies, and now Roxor."

Chandu remained silent for a moment and then in a weighty voice he asked:

"How long would it take me to go to this retreat of Roxor's?"

STRATTON ASKS HUNTERS TO BUY LICENSES EARLY

"Don't wait until the eve of your gunning trip to procure your hunting license!" is the advice broadcast to New Jersey sportsmen by Protector James M. Stratton of the Fish and Game Commission. Because of the great abundance of game in this state, this fall, a record rush for licenses is anticipated. The protector warns that many sportsmen have been disappointed in past years when some wardens and municipal clerks found even their surplus supply of license cards and buttons exhausted before all late applicants were served. Orders have been issued to all wardens by Protector Stratton for a rigid check-up and enforcement of the license law.

"About one day. It is a labyrinth of secret passages cut in the rock. I have been there several times and I can act as your guide."

Chandu grasped Nadj by the arms and drawing her close to him said passionately, "Nadj, I can't let you go. It is too dangerous."

"Women can face danger as well as men," she told him bravely.

"But if anything were to happen to you,"

"I know the risks and I know I can help you meet them." Pressing closely to him and looking up into his eyes she added, "Please take me with you."

As Chandu gazed into her lambent eyes, misty with a tear, he felt a warm pulsating in his heart. He tightened his grasp on her soft, round arms, and was about to crush her to him when he saw over her shoulder a horseman gallop to the small dock and dismount.

"You have a visitor, Nadj!" he said, releasing his grasp.

Nadj wheeled quickly.

"Oh! it's Abdullah," she said. "He has been coming here very often lately."

"I see," said Chandu frowning slightly. "Then I imagine he would much prefer seeing you alone."

As Abdullah came aboard he took a small vial from his flowing sash and handing it to a servant, whispered:

"For the white man. It is Roxor who commands you."

Chandu, having strolled down the deck, stood watching Abdullah as he kissed Nadj's hand.

"I thought I'd pay you a surprise visit, but I'm afraid I'm rather in the way," smiled Abdullah, with a glance in the direction of Chandu.

"But unfortunately I can only entertain you with a glass of wine. My host is starting up the river."

"And who is the privileged gentleman who is making this romantic trip with you?"

"The trip we are making is a business one," retorted Nadj.

"Oh, come!" laughed Abdullah. "I saw the lower-like way he—"

"His name is Chandu," said Nadj haughtily.

A servant at that moment passed the wine and as Chandu raised his glass the sharp note of the astral bell sounded.

Quickly he grasped Nadj's wrist, preventing her from drinking, and raised his glass again, this time to his quivering nostrils.

"Stop!" he shouted at the servant, now slinking away, and grabbing him roughly by the hand thrust his glass before him.

"Drink," he ordered sharply.

But the trembling native drew back and then breaking Chandu's hold on him, dashed for the rail and jumped into the dark water.

"That wine was poisoned," Chandu whispered to Nadj, and taking her by the hand led her off to a small room in the cabin, unnoticed in the excitement that followed the man's plunge overboard.

There in the dim light of a single lamp he placed his crystal on the table, and gazing intently into it, cried beseechingly:

"Robert Regent, where are you?"

Again and again he repeated his desperate cry, and then slowly the haze in the crystal began to clear. And in vapored depths of the clouded sphere appeared the distorted face of Regent, only to vanish and reappear again. And with each reappearance the tortured features of the face became clearer and clearer, until Chandu, in his excitement grasped Nadj tightly by the arm and exclaimed:

"Look Nadj, at last the crystal is clearing."

And then in the crystal they saw a deep narrow gorge between two high and precipitous cliffs, and on a lofty crag the entrance to a gigantic rock temple, on either side of which sat two huge sculptured forms of the ancient Kings.

The great rock temple at Meydoun!" gasped Nadj.

The New Jersey Farm Bureau and State Grange are recorded as opposing the proposed $20,000,000 state highway bond issue diversion to unemployment relief. A resolution to that effect was adopted at a legislative conference in Trenton last week.

This opposition was voiced in passage of the resolution directed against use of gas-cliff taxes or license fees for other than road purposes. The bond issue would be amortized from gas tax funds.

SAYRE DECLARES STAND ON BONUSDemocratic Candidate Backs Roosevelt's Attitude Toward Ex-Soldiers

Emphasizing his desire to have the voters of the Fourth District analyze and appraise his qualifications to represent them in Congress, predicated on his career in the world of business and finance, Monell Sayre, Democratic candidate, in a statement issued to the press of Burlington and Mercer counties this week declares "a candidate for public office who has not an established record of successful accomplishments and integrity, as well as a constructive program to present to the electorate to overcome existing governmental ills, is guilty of political hokum." Rather than resort to such a policy of guile and hypocrisy, Mr. Sayre avers he would prefer to remain in private life.

In substantiation of his position the Democratic Congressional candidate with unmistakable clarity has revealed the sentiments he entertains on several of the leading issues of the current campaign. Aroused by criticism that he had failed to declare himself on the bonus question Mr. Sayre, in stating his position on this troublesome question, avails himself of the opportunity to endorse the Democratic platform and the views of the party's leaders without equivocation. His statement in part follows:

"The claim that I have no forthright view on the soldiers' bonus question is simply cheap political claptrap. Persons with no constructive theories of government to offer generally seek safety in destructive criticism. On the bonus issue, as in the cases of all other important controversial subjects of the campaign, I stand firmly in support of the Democratic platform and Democracy's peerless leaders, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred E. Smith.

"Now in regard to the bonus. While I am naturally desirous of being elected to Congress, I keenly realize it is my imperative duty as it is the duty of every red-blooded American, transcending in importance any personal ambition, to use my utmost efforts in aiding recovery from this accursed depression, helping to solve the acute unemployment situation and the consequent dire distress of millions of people in the United States and of thousands of people in this Congressional district.

"The number of unemployed veterans and their dependents does not constitute ten per cent. of the total number of unemployed and their dependents. If the government paid the bonuses at this time, amounting in the aggregate to over $2,000,000,000, it would temporarily relieve the distress of some of the veterans but it would seriously retard the recovery and prolong our present depression for a period of time which cannot be definitely determined by any economist.

"As a consequence, ninety per cent. of the people who are in abject distress at the present time would be compelled to endure their sufferings for a much longer period and the veterans who are in distress would likewise be compelled to suffer after their bonuses had been spent.

"If elected to Congress, I propose to seek the restoration of agriculture through better financing of farm mortgages; through recognized farm bank

Urge Dry Law in Japan to Bring Back Prosperity

While the repeal of prohibition is being advocated in the United States to help the return of prosperity, it is interesting to note the following dispatch from Japan:

"Eighty-two villages throughout Japan have agreed to '100 per cent. voluntary prohibition' as an economic measure, the National Temperance Union announced October 22.

"After an appeal by Premier Viscount Saito to the people of Japan to help themselves through the financial crisis, dry campaigners hit upon the idea of obtaining pledges from citizens not to drink spirits until they have paid off all their debts.

"A new society has been formed with the typically Japanese name 'The National Society for Immediate Adoption of a Dry Law in the Face of the National Crisis.'"

Monell Sayre
Democratic Candidate for Congress

ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT—Sayre is pledged to fight against the policy of paternalism in government which has grown in leaps and bounds under Republican Rule and placed an unbearable yoke of taxation upon the American people.

AGRICULTURE—Sayre favors the lightening of the farmers' tax burden and will vote to give agriculture the same protection as has been given industry to stabilize prices of farm products.

PROHIBITION—Sayre believes in outright repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and immediate modification of the Volstead Act. As an economic recovery measure he will vote against appropriating one penny of the people's money for prohibition enforcement.

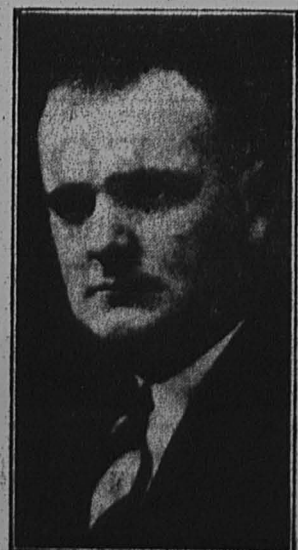

LABOR—To insure Labor's security and solve the unemployment problem Sayre advocates a definite program to shorten the working day and the working week.

BONUS—While an uncompromising defender of the veterans' rights to disability claims and other preferential consideration Sayre believes that under the stress of present economic conditions it is more essential to provide Bread before a Bonus.

"PALS" DEFEAT BRIDGETON, 7-6

High School Team Wins Over Opponent in Season's Poorest Game

In one of the poorest games the school boys have played this season, Coach Ken Diamond's High School gridders just about kept their record clean by defeating Bridgeton to the tune of 7-6 on Saturday afternoon.

The High School boys did a lot of fumbling and gave the Bridgeton team many chances to score. Both teams scored in the opening period but the Pals managed to get their point after a touchdown which decided the game. Elwood Young scored all of the points for the Palmyra team, by virtue of a pass from Beddow after they had recovered a bad kick made by one of Bridgeton's men. Young also scored the extra points by dropping the ball through the posts for the last and deciding point.

The Bridgeton team soon faltered after this score, when they blocked Beddow's kick on his own 35-yard line. This kick was blocked by Ewing, Bridgeton's star quarterback, and covered by the Bridgeton team. On the next play Ewing again pulled a nice play by crashing through right tackle for the remaining distance. The point after touchdown was attempted by running the ball but the Palmyra line held. Incidentally this score made by the Bridgeton team was their first in three years and the crowd certainly went wild with excitement.

The Palmyra boys looked bad in this game but are determined that for the remainder of the season no team will stop them. The boys who played best for the Pals were Bradshaw at end and Fay at guard, while Carpenter made the best gains in the backfield.

The Bridgeton boys played a good game with Ewing and Fisher being outstanding. Gandy and Garrison both played well on the line.

FAIRHILL LOSES TO RED DEVILS

More Than 1,000 Fans Witness 14 to 0 Setback by Palmyra Eleven

With more than 1,000 fans on hand, the Palmyra Red Devils turned in a 14-0 decision over the Fairhill Tigers Sunday at the Fairview Athletic Field. Touchdowns in the second and fourth periods decided the struggle.

Fabricatore heaved a pass to T. Prisco in the second quarter and the latter raced 20 yards for the first six-pointer. The latter then booted the extra point from placement.

In the last period, Hirst's pass was intercepted by Pratt on Fairhill's 30-yard line and the latter placed the ball over after a 30-yard run. Pratt went through center to add the extra point.

The Tigers put up a game fight but were outplayed by the Palmyra eleven. They threatened to score on two occasions but the invaders braced and held.

DAVISCOURT AND GRUBMIER MEET

Ladies Admitted Free at Charlie's Camden Mat Show Monday Night

For the first time in the history of Camden wrestling, ladies will be admitted free, if accompanied by escorts, to next Monday night's bouts at Camden Convention Hall.

Promoter Charley Grip yesterday announced that he would admit ladies free of charge to at least two shows each month and would inaugurate the new system next Monday night, when Dick Daviscourt, of California, and Fred "Empty Face" Grubmier, Iowa "python", clash in the feature match of an all-star show.

Both London and Dusek refused to meet in Camden, after both wrestlers involved had previously agreed to fight it out on local canvas. Grip went out of his way to offer Dusek more money than he would receive in several bouts to meet Grubmier in a return tussle, but the younger member of the Dusek family turned thumbs down on the proposition.

As a result of Dusek's refusal to wrestle Grubmier, Grip went after Daviscourt and should the Californian best "Empty Face" he'll meet London here within three weeks.

One of the toughest bouts ever witnessed here should result in the 45-minute semi-final. "Plastering Pat" McKay, of Altoona, Pa., former railroad fireman, is linked with Henry "Milo" Steinborn, German "strongman", in a one-fall match.

Joe Cox, Toledo, O., takes on Lou Plummer, former Notre Dame football star who has won two straight matches here, in the second bout of 30 minutes. Tom Marvin, of Oklahoma, who pinned Bertie Aserratti, British Hebrew, makes a return bow in the opener. His opponent will be "Tiger Jack" Nelson, a veteran who is about as clean as driven snow covered with coal.

There is a new feature in the match, an off-color grappler and the match should tickle the palates of the fans who have seen both in action. One fall will decide both preliminaries.

MEDFORD TRIPS RIVERTON, 33-0

Victorious Eleven Outweighed Local Team, Proving Handicap to Lighter Rivertonians

The score of 33-0 in favor of Medford falls to tell those who were not at the game, just how close the battle was.

The coaching of "Kidder Kasey" displayed itself in Riverton's offensive which they were unable to penetrate last week, they succeeded in breaking through several times this week. Each time when they brought the ball into a scoring position a fumble or a penalty would wreck their chances to score.

There is no denying the power of the Medford team. Their interference was mechanical. Add to this their weight advantage and they were almost unstoppable. This game might well be compared to the Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech game—good big team against a good little team. Notre Dame won.

The starting lineup was as follows:
Riverton left end..... Brannin
Borden left tackle..... Harriet
Schuler center..... Small
Wallace right guard..... Adams
L. Yearly right tackle..... Miller
D. Phalen right end..... Cosaboon
Trautman quarterback..... Holloway
J. Yearly left halfback..... Barnes
Daly right halfback..... Crain
Briggs fullback..... Robinson

Substitutions: Medford—Shover, Blackberry, Jack, E. Barnes, D. Haines, Llewellyn, Norcross, Haines, Evans, J. Norcross, Shemalla, Drayton, Riverton—Wignome, Prisco, Anderson, Buidas, Perkins, Casey, Cardea, Gladney, Scattergood.

J. Casey, Briggs and J. Yearly starred for Riverton, while Miller, Norcross and Crain sparkled for Medford.

Next Saturday, October 29, Riverton plays the Twin City Bears at Lenola. The game starts at 2:30 o'clock. Let's have a large crowd out.

BURLINGTON MEN ARE HELD FOR COURT FOR ATTACKING HALPERN

Emil Baer, 34 years old, and Morris Plevanski, 24 years old, both of 1327 High street, Burlington, who attacked "Jack" Halpern, proprietor of Philadelphia Market House, 121 West Main street, Moorestown, Wednesday morning of last week, were held in $300 bail each after hearings before Justice of Peace F. G. Furth in Town Hall.

It is understood that the two Burlington men had been operating a meat market in Halpern's store. The arrangement evidently had not proved satisfactory and arguments developed.

Wednesday morning, when "Jack" inspected his green grocery stock, he found it had been sprinkled with kerosene. He complained to Plevanski and his reply was a blow that felled him. Baer, arriving on the scene about that time, is alleged to have shouted, "Kill him!" to his partner.

"Jack," who had already been knocked down, decided things had gone far enough and yelled, "Murder!" His cry brought help and the argument ended.

The Burlington men were arrested by Officer Walter A. Erickson on complaint of Halpern.

Moorestown Eleven Scores First Win Over Burlington in Nearly Ten Years Thrilling Crowd of 1,000 Spectators

With the cheers of nearly a thousand spectators ringing in their ears, Moorestown High School's fighting gridders scored a lone touchdown to defeat Burlington High for the first time in nearly ten years, Saturday afternoon, on the South Church street field.

Although handicapped by the absence of Captain Bud Paulsen from the backfield, Coach Isenberg's team put up one of the greatest fights ever witnessed by local fans and completely outplayed the invaders on every score.

The Quakers scored in the second period with John Barton as ball carrier. Following a long run by Benny Cooper and a quick kick by Barton, the ball was placed on Burlington's two-yard line by a fifteen-yard penalty. Barton scored on an off-tackle play.

In the initial period Moorestown had threatened to score when Cooper ripped off a long run and a fifteen yard penalty placed the ball on the two-yard line. Here the locals lost the ball on downs, but soon after the second quarter got underway, Isenberg's machine placed the winning tally.

With the backfield making brilliant runs and completing passes, and the line giving an excellent performance playing the ball all the time, Moorestown fans were treated to a thrilling football game, and judging from this showing, the Quakers will undoubtedly come through with a victory over the Femberton team on Friday afternoon, on the latter's field.

Announce Reopening For Swimming Pool

According to an announcement by Robert L. King, director of recreation, the Moorestown Community House swimming pool will reopen for the winter season on Monday, November 7.

A new schedule of swimming pools and rates is being drafted and will be announced in next week's papers.

This year the swimming committee is endeavoring to have more adult groups use the pool. With the new rates it is hoped that every member of the family will be encouraged to use this fine type of physical recreation.

On Thursday evening about one-half mile above Delanco on the Delanco-Beverly road the Burlington County Council for Religious Education will hold a masquerade party. The exact spot will be marked by two lighted pumpkins.

Two boys to face judge for Hainesport robbery

Two Hainesport youths, said by police to have been caught leaving the Hainesport Iron Pipe Foundry, carrying $25 worth of "loot," will be arraigned in juvenile court, Mount Holly, before Judge Charles A. Riggs, Thursday. They are Michael Hazyinski, 14, of 23 Albert street, and John Casper, 12, of 18 Albert street. They were arrested by Trooper James Scotland and released in the custody of their parents for appearance in court. The "loot" included brass, plugs, gloves and two brooms, Scotland said.

DINNER DANCE AT MOORESTOWN

Young Republicans of Burlington County Will Meet at Community House

The Burlington County Unit of the Young Republicans of New Jersey is planning its second dinner dance of the season for Saturday evening, November 5, at the Community House, Moorestown.

An excellent program is promised and efforts are being made to secure Albie Booth, famous Yale football star, as the guest speaker. Republican candidates for office will be present and will be introduced to the young people.

The addresses will be brief, interesting and inspiring and the Community House is expected to be filled to capacity. Reservations must be made before Wednesday and tickets procured. They may be had from Edmund Adams, of Palmyra, president of the organization, or Clarence G. Price, of Beverly, secretary.

Dancing will conclude the program. Music will be furnished by Elwood Weidenman and his Royal Commanders.

All young Republicans throughout Burlington county are urged to make an effort to be present.

Seals, beads and pottery modeled after the likeness of the elephant have been dug up in the ruins of Babylon. This may mean that the Republican party started a long time before 1856.

Attractive Array of Prizes Promised at Moorestown Grange Exhibit

Plans for the annual Moorestown Grange Apple Show to be held at the Community House on Thursday, November 3, are rapidly taking form.

The committee in charge has an attractive array of prizes for the producers of fine fruit this year.

While growers have been moving thousands of bushels of apples from the orchard through the packing houses and into storage and to market, they have kept many bushels for exhibition this fall.

The sunshine of September and early October has added the final touch of nature to the fruit, it is exceptionally well finished this year. Deep hues of dark red cover the flesh, tender flesh of the luscious products of the orchard.

There are several new features to the show this year. A commercial display and an ornamental setup will add beauty and attraction to the exhibition.

Further, an opportunity will be provided for visitors to procure specimens of the fruit to enjoy as they examine the exhibit.

There is no charge to visitors, the doors will be open afternoon and evening to the public.

PEMBERTON DRIVER, WHOSE AUTO STRUCK PARKED CAR, NABBED

Mrs. Miriam Rush, of Pemberton, was arrested on Thursday for driving a car which she was riding crashed head on into the rear of a parked car on Camden avenue, east of Cottage avenue, Lenola, Saturday evening about 8:15. The woman was treated at the office of a local physician and then removed to her home.

Wilbur R. Rush, also of Pemberton, owner and driver of the Chevrolet sedan in which the woman was riding, was given a summons by Officer Ralph Marks to appear before Justice of Peace F. G. Furth in Moorestown Town Hall to answer charges of reckless driving.

The car which Rush's machine struck was a Jordan sedan, owned by Miss Helen E. Ravatt, Marter avenue, Moorestown. Both cars were considerably damaged.

FLAT TIRE LEADS TO EARLY RECOVERY OF STOLEN AUSTIN

The Austin coupe owned by Brinkley Price, which was stolen from in front of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Price, 1 West Central avenue, Moorestown, about 9:45 last Friday evening, had been recovered and was returned to the owner before midnight.

The stolen machine was found abandoned on Riverton road, near Westfield School, by Chief of Police Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township. A flat tire is believed to have caused the early abandonment of the small vehicle.

A typewriter and overcoat, which had been left in the car, were also returned.

Upon discovering his loss, Price notified Chief of Police John H. Bradshaw, who telephoned nearby police stations and had the state police send a description of the stolen car over the teletype system.

TWO BOYS TO FACE JUDGE FOR HAINESPORT ROBBERY

Two Hainesport youths, said by police to have been caught leaving the Hainesport Iron Pipe Foundry, carrying $25 worth of "loot," will be arraigned in juvenile court, Mount Holly, before Judge Charles A. Riggs, Thursday. They are Michael Hazyinski, 14, of 23 Albert street, and John Casper, 12, of 18 Albert street. They were arrested by Trooper James Scotland and released in the custody of their parents for appearance in court. The "loot" included brass, plugs, gloves and two brooms, Scotland said.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 30, 1932.

The Golden Text is: "Woe to the rebellious children, saith the Lord, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin" (Isaiah 30:1).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "A righteous man hateth lying; but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame. Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way; but wickedness overthroweth the sinner" (Proverbs 13:5, 6).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let Truth uncover and destroy error in God's own way, and let human justice pattern the divine. Sin will receive its full penalty, both for what it is and for what it does. Justice marks the sinner, and teaches mortals not to remove the waymarks of God" (p. 542).

STAMPAIDE

— By —
W. R. Hoffmann

Hand in hand, they are traveling the world for hard-to-get and rare air mail stamps. Little twelve-year-old Georgiana McDonald Harris and her white-haired grandfather, Dr. George S. Munson, having just completed a tour of the out-of-the-way stamp marts of Central and South America.

Their prize of this trip was the inverted surcharge of a recent Zeppelin Trans-Atlantic air mail stamp. There are only twenty-five of these stamps in existence. The copy of this stamp was picked up in Columbia. Georgiana says the invert makes the stamp rare. She lives in Albany and two years ago she persuaded her grandfather to start her a collection and they decided that it would be air mail stamps. In her huge album Georgiana now has over 4,000 stamps which are valued at thousands of dollars.

At a recent exhibit at the Port Orange Stamp Club the collection was a sensation among the best collections in the East. "Next year after school I want to go to Europe, and try to find the HAWKEL 3-cent brown of 1919, and the De Zimado used on the unsuccessful flight to Rome in 1927. The mail, you know, was saved with De Pimdo," says Georgiana.

Well, we wish her lots of luck and adventure.

New Issues

France—The 75c and 90c have been added to the new postage set. In the old (lower) type the 10c was appeared in a new color, dark ultramarine.

Gabon—In the latter part of September a new series of postage and postage due stamps were placed on sale.

Toumania—Three special stamps are to appear soon in honor of the Medical Congress at Bucharest.

Turkey—Two new values with the portrait of Kemal Pasha have been issued. They are the 2K purple and 10K slate violet.

Uruguay—The recent series is the same as the 1928-29 Artigas issues. However, the colors have been changed, and there are twelve stamps to the set.

Cachets

Niles, Ohio, will dedicate its new post office building on November 1. William McKinley, the 25th president of the U. S., was born at Niles, and an appropriate cachet is to be applied to all covers, and the postmaster states he has a supply of the 7c black McKinley, rotary printing, perf. 11x10's, to apply to all covers sent to him at face value. Also he can supply blocks, pairs, and strips at face value. Send stamps or money order payable to the postmaster, Niles, Ohio.

Send covers to B. R. McIntyre, postmaster, P. O. Box 3, Niles, Ohio.

As chronicled in last week's column the new 3c coil has appeared. No date was set and the first day was at Washington on October 12, and those who got in on it are lucky as the first day cover is now worth many times face if in pairs.

Don't forget your comments. We want your help.

A Chrysanthemum is on the stamps of what country? A first-day cover to the first three correct answers.

FOR SALE

Fine packets for the junior collector from 10 to 50 cents. Also fine U. S. on and off cover. Specials—Canada 3c on 2c at 5c each; U. S. new 6c coil, pair 18c; postage extra. Cumberland Stamp Studio, 17 Greene Ave., Brooklyn.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL WELFARE

"Thirty-eight families last year were given relief through our 'made work' program. Eight families received weekly food orders as there was some reason why the men could not work. Eighteen families received milk and approximately 64 families were given fuel. Thirty-seven families have had no regular relief except an occasional emergency food order, clothing or wood. But all have had problems which required intensive work and supervision.

"Old age pensions have been obtained for 4 people; 2 others are pending. Our organization has taken over the supervision and placing of 2 of these old people who were living under undesirable conditions.

"One boy has been committed to the State Colony at New Lisbon. One family has been committed to the State Board of Guardians. One application for widow's pension is now pending. Twenty-two permanent jobs have been found and 81 temporary jobs. Many of the temporary jobs lasted for the summer.

"The cooperation of the Visiting Nurses, Mr. Bowers, who is overseer of the poor in Riverton, and Mr. Dorworth, in Chatham Township, has been most valuable. Both the Riverton and Chatham schools have been of great help.

"In closing my report I should like to explain my attitude about our method of giving relief this year. I hope that this organization will continue to use the plan of giving relief WORK and paying them in MONEY. It is my job to see that the money paid is spent wisely. While I realize that our method costs a little more, it is money well spent. The cheaper way of having men work and then handing them a basket of groceries, regardless of individual likes and dislikes, is a system which I should hate to see our communities adopt. A little change in a man's pocket goes a long way in boosting his morale, and it would be a real setback to the work should we adopt the other method of relief.

AMBASSADOR EDGE AIDS BARBOUR

Walter E. Edge, Ambassador to France, was host at a luncheon recently given in honor of United States Senator W. Warren Barbour, who aspires to succeed himself in the Upper House of Congress. The Republican candidate was appointed in December, 1931, to fill the unexpired term of the late Dwight W. Morrow, and in that short period has been a leader in the creating and passage of sound and beneficial legislation. Ambassador Edge has endorsed his candidacy. They are shown as they appeared at the Edge luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Evans, Well-Loved Aged Couple, of Moorestown, Quietly Celebrate 59th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Evans, of Chestnut street, Moorestown, quietly celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary on Saturday, and reminisced on a remarkably long record of happily married life.

Mr. Evans passed his eightieth birthday on September 20, and his wife was seventy-six years of age on October 12. Both are in excellent health and when asked for the secret of their happily married career stated, "We never had a battle, although we differed in opinions in many cases."

Both are beloved citizens of this community and have resided in and around Moorestown all their lives. Mr. and Mrs. Evans were married at the Mount Holly Methodist Episcopal parsonage on October 22, 1873, with the Rev. Philip Cline, then pastor of the church, officiating. Mr. Evans was born in Medford and his wife was born in Delaware.

He has been particularly active in the religious affairs of the community, having been a member of the local M. E. church for 61 years, 23 of which he served as superintendent of the Sunday School. Although he has not actively engaged in the work of the church for some time he still holds the title of superintendent emeritus, which was bestowed upon him by the official board in recognition of his valuable services during that time.

He also served nineteen years on the board of education. He is a member of Peabodius Lodge No. 107, Odd Fellows of Moorestown, and has been a member of the local Order of United American Mechanics for over half a century.

There are three children, two daughters and one son. George B. Evans, who resides on Chestnut street, Moorestown, next to his father's home, is one of the leading members of the legal profession in the state. Mrs. Laura Bourcay, the elder daughter, lives on East Main street, Moorestown, and Mrs. Elizabeth Richman, younger daughter, lives in Camden. There are four grandchildren, Edith Bourcay Devlin, Mrs. Dorothy Richman Packard, Miss Virginia A. Evans, and George E. Richman.

PLANTING and MOVING TREES and SHRUBS

By WINSTON E. PARKER
Landscape Forester

The future health and growth of trees and shrubs depends a great deal upon the manner in which they are planted. It is too commonly the belief that all that is necessary is a hole in the ground. It is the purpose of this article to mention briefly the proper handling of plant material and the after care, which is of much importance if they are to do well.

In planting or transplanting herbaceous material, the preparation of the site is of utmost importance. Care should be taken to dig a straight hole, of sufficiently ample proportions to more than accommodate the root system of the plant. In this connection it is well to mention that the topsoil should be separated from the subsoil, which should often be discarded. If the soil is poor it will be well to import rich loam or to build up the native soil by the addition of humus material. Commercial fertilizers and fresh manures are generally to be avoided, as they are apt to cause burning if they come in contact with the plant roots. Bone meal is probably the best plant food to use at the time of planting, as it is safe even when used in considerable quantity.

After placing the plant in the hole, the top soil, or enriched subsoil should be thrown back, taking care that all air spaces are filled either by tamping or soaking. It is essential that the soil be lodged firmly about all the roots. In grading off the soil around the top of the hole, it is best to leave a saucer-like depression so moisture will be collected and allowed to penetrate the soil immediately around the roots.

Deciduous stock, that which loses its leaves, should generally be cut back one-third to one-half of its top after planting. In this manner, many planting fatalities may be avoided. This is necessary to counteract any injury to the roots in digging and handling. In the case of evergreens and larger trees and shrubs which are moved with a ball of earth, this is not usually necessary.

In all cases, the newly-planted material should be thoroughly watered immediately, and frequently rewatered during dry periods for at least the first season. In watering, care should be taken to thoroughly soak the soil and this should be done every three or four days. It is well to mention in this connection that too frequent watering will cause as harmful results as lack of watering.

Moving large trees and shrubs calls for the same care in planting. Additional precautions must be taken in digging and handling to prevent the dislodging of the soil from around the roots. Also, in this case the replanted material will require firm guying so that the new roots may have a chance to become firmly established and not to become dislodged by the swaying of the plant.

Most trees and shrubs may be moved and planted as well in the fall as in the spring. Personally, I prefer fall planting wherever possible, so that the material may have a real chance to become firmly established and not to become dislodged by the swaying of the plant.

SHORE GIRL IS CUT AS CAR HITS TREE

Twelve Stitches Required to Close Gash in Young Woman's Head

Miss Dorothy Haines, of Beach Haven, was badly cut about the head by flying glass when a Buick coupe, driven by her sister, Miss Madeline Haines, also of Beach Haven, struck a tree on Hartford-Westfield road, opposite Moorestown airport, last Saturday morning shortly after nine o'clock.

Miss Haines swerved her car to avoid hitting a Chevrolet sedan driven by Mrs. Elsie M. Fitzgerald, 324 Stanwick avenue, Moorestown, who was backing out the airport road from Garwood road, and the Buick crashed almost head-on into the tree.

The injured girl was taken to the office of Dr. Eugene A. Meyer, East Main street. Twelve stitches were required to close the gash in her head. Officer Walter A. Erickson, who investigated the crash, gave both drivers summons to appear before Justice of Peace F. G. Furth in Town Hall Monday. When it was found it would be impossible to have all witnesses present, the hearing was postponed until Monday, November 7.

The extent of the damage to the front of the shore girl's car is estimated at $200.

Partridge — Rogers

Miss Dorothy C. Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins B. Rogers, of Colonial Ridge, Moorestown, became the bride of H. Kelsey Partridge, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey K. Partridge, of Merchantville, on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Moorestown.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edgar L. Sanford, rector, and W. Lawrence Curry, of Camden, was organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin, made on formal lines with a slight train. Her little veil was worn cap effect and caught on either side with gardenias. Gardenias, lilies of the valley and white roses formed her bouquet.

Miss Virginia Rogers, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her sapphire blue velvet gown was fashioned on princess lines with a high neckline and puff sleeves. A matching turban completed her costume, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Miss Betty Hodgson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a little white crepe de chine frock, daintily smocked in blue, and carried white pom-pom chrysanthemums and blue delphinium in her basket.

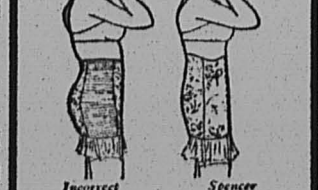

Henry Greene, of Haverford, Pa., was best man and Dr. Edward Schellenger, of Merchantville, and Brooks White, of Oak Lane, Pa., ushered.

Mrs. Rogers appeared in a becoming gown of periwinkle hammered satin, and a brown velvet turban, while Mrs. Partridge was in black velvet with matching hat. Both wore corsages of orchids.

A small reception followed the ceremony for the bride party and members of the immediate families, at the home of the bride's parents.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, the young couple will make their home at the Haddon Manor Apartments, Haddonfield.
