DR. ALEX. MARCY DIES IN 75th YEAR

Practiced Medicine Here Nearly Half a Century. Active in Local Affairs

A busy life, which for more than half a century has been closely identified with the lives and interests of Rivertonians, came to a close last Tuesday morning in the death of Dr. Alexander Marcy, Jr.

He died at his home, 406 Main street, after a brief illness, which was a sequel of a severe and prolonged illness a decade ago.

As physician, as business man, as churchman and as benefactor, Dr. Marcy figured in local and county affairs. His high standing in medical circles also brought him statewide prominence in former years. He served for a term as president of the New Jersey Medical Society.

Dr. Marcy was a member of a family which numbered many well-known medical men in South Jersey. His grandfather, Dr. Samuel Sumner Marcy, early in the nineteenth century rode horseback from the original Marcy home in Connecticut to Cold Spring, N. J., near Cape May, to take up the practice of medicine there. Dr. Virgil Marcy, Samuel's son, who practiced for a long period in Cape May, was a graduate of Yale University, and rowed in the first racing shell which Yale ever entered in competition.

Born in Cape May and spending his boyhood there, Alexander Marcy, Virgil's son, chose the University of Pennsylvania instead of his father's Alma Mater, and received his degree of M.D. in the year 1881. In his class were several who attained national reputations as physicians and surgeons and who remained his fast friends in later life. Among them were: Dr. George E. de Schweinitz, Dr. Charles P. Grayson, Dr. A. Judson DaLand and Dr. Daniel Longacre.

Dr. Marcy came to Riverton in 1882. Of sturdy physique and magnetic presence, and a close student of his profession, he made rapid progress in the development of his practice and concerned himself actively also with the affairs of the growing town. He had been married to Miss Mary Marcy, a cousin, and brought her as a bride to Riverton, soon afterward moving to the house at 406 Main street, which they made their home throughout their married life.

Many of their summers in later years were spent at their cottage on Washington street, Cape May.

Mrs. Marcy died in 1928. In 1907 prominent residents of Riverton, of whom Dr. Marcy was one, organized the Cinnaminson National Bank.

Its first president was Charles W. Nevin, with vice presidents, Dr. Marcy and Joseph Morgan, and E. L. Williams, cashier.

In May 1916, Dr. Marcy was elected president, serving until January, 1922. Besides his manifold duties in this capacity and as practicing physician, he found time to maintain active participation in the affairs of the Calvary Presbyterian Church, of which he was long a trustee; in various borough improvement projects, and to give frequent personal assistance to householders that were in need. Many a resident of Riverton can look back upon a benefaction from Dr. Marcy, which at one time or another, helped him in a time of stress, and of which only he and the physician were aware.

About ten years ago, Dr. Marcy's vigorous constitution which had never suffered illness, though he had spent his life in contact with it, received a serious blow from an attack of encephalitis or "sleeping sickness." Though he made a remarkable recovery, he never fully regained his robust health, and his practice was taken over by his assistant, Dr. Harry L. Rogers.

Dr. Marcy, who was a member of Covenant Lodge of Masons, No. 161, of Palmyra, is survived by two daughters, Mrs. F. Raymond Wad-

UNKNOWN MAN FOUND DROWNED

Charles Reidenbaker, Sr., Discovers Corpse on Bank of Creek Near Fork Landing

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Charles Reidenbaker, Sr., notified Officer George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township, that he had found the body of a man along the bank of the Pennsauken creek south of Fork Landing road bridge.

Coroner Cunningham was called and the body was brought ashore and taken to the Cunningham funeral parlors, in Riverside, to await identification.

It is thought that the body had been in the water about ten days or two weeks. The theory is that the man had wandered into a cove at the point at which the body was found, and sank into the mud which is about waist deep. Even had he cried for help no one would have heard him as there are no residences nearby.

The man was between 45 and 50 years of age, about six feet tall and weighed between 155 and 160 pounds. He wore a sheep-skin coat, coat sweater, blue shirt, dark pants and dark shoes.

No identification of the body has been made.

ECONOMY IN RIVERTON SCHOOL

Elimination of Part-time Teacher and Classroom Teacher Will Save $1900

The educational committee of the Riverton board of education has made a careful study of the teaching department of the Riverton public school. The school stands high scholastically in the state rating, and its pupils are given the advantage of a progressive far-sighted and well-planned curriculum.

While the school building has long been overcrowded, necessitating the use of a temporary annex for the past seven years (two years in the Flanagan house and five in the portable building), the number of teachers remains what it was when the enrollment of pupils was at its height, before the parochial school opened.

The educational committee recommended to the board of education that one class-room teacher and one part-time teacher should be dropped from the staff. This could be done without lowering the standard of the school, as the remaining staff would be able to carry on the full course.

This recommendation met with the approval of the board, of Mr. Kaser, county superintendent of schools, and of Miss Staman, as the efficiency of the school would not be lessened and the pupils would receive the same education as heretofore. It would effect a saving of approximately $1900 a year to the borough. The committee was authorized to proceed along these lines.

NEW CARS FOR PAL-RIVER CHEVROLET, Inc.

Shiny new Chevys fresh off the assembly belt in Ohio arrived Friday in the latest development in automobile freight cars, the "Evans Auto-Loader." The automobiles, slung one over the other, are shipped completely assembled and are removed by a rapid and simple system of lifts and jacks built into the freight car.

The shipment received Friday marks the first freight car load of automobiles consigned to Riverton in many years.

Riverton's new agency, the Pal-River Chevrolet, Inc., has sold 55 new cars since January 1, 1934.

CO. EMPLOYMENT BOARD OUSTED

Director Darnell Asks Freeholders to Provide New Quarters for His Department

William E. Darnell, head of the national employment office for Burlington county, asked the Board of Freeholders, in session on Friday, to provide new quarters for him and his clerical force, as the building he had been occupying 13 Brainerd street, Mount Holly, has been rented as the district headquarters for the federal emergency relief organization. The emergency relief offices in various districts in the county are to be consolidated.

The federal government, Mr. Darnell said, pays the salaries of the clerks, but not the rent, light and heat, which is provided by the county. The request was referred to Director of Buildings Adams, with power to act.

Delegations representing the county fire police, county firemen's association and fire chiefs' association, asked the freeholders to pay oil and gasoline and stationery and postage of Fire Marshall Smith, whose salary is only $500 a year. The request was referred to Solicitor Wells to ascertain if the law creating fire marshals permits payment of other than salary to that official.

Mrs. C. E. Lord, of Mount Holly, head of the Woman's League, asked permission to install one or two tennis courts in the court house yard, where other playground equipment is located. The request was referred to Director Heisler, with power to act.

The State Highway Commission sent word that the road and bridge program for Burlington county this year had been approved.

The People's National Bank, Pemberton, was designated as depository for almshouse funds.

Departmental bills were read and ordered paid for the following amounts: Finance $24,636.54, roads $11,175.53, bridges $3,569.89, public buildings $9,128.16, public affairs $4,486.75; total $52,906.87.

OFFICER ROBINSON MAKES TWO ARRESTS

Two arrests were made by Officer John Robinson last week.

On Thursday, April 26, John E. Brenhuber, of 5234 Sydenham street, Philadelphia, was arrested for violating a Borough ordinance. He was tried before Recorder Bowers and posted a bond of $300.

Sunday, April 29, Frank Cascella, of 358 Carlisle avenue, Riverside, was arrested for disorderly conduct, tried before Recorder Bowers. His fine was remitted but he paid the court costs.

The foreign leaders have their heads together like coconuts in one basket.—Ibid.

Memorial Park Playground Baseball Dope

By Bill Schopp

April 30—True to their 1933 form, both the Chevys and the Laundry this night beat their opponents; the Chevys, the Champs, defeating the Knights of Columbus 10-4, and the Laundry, formerly the Lamplighters, nailing out the YMCA 17-14. And maybe it wasn't cold!

The Champion Chevys arrived at the field in a flotilla of 1934 Chevys, preceded by the Riverton police car, and accompanied by Ray and Win on the saxophone and banjo. The Chevys played in new green jerseys and their roots in green caps formed a procession to march onto the field. The other three teams arrived more inconspicuously, but still they arrived. The Laundry team wore their orange jerseys, and the YMCA their new gray ones.

The Champs jumped on the Knights of Columbus for twelve runs in the first two innings; thereafter, the result of the game was never in question. In this game, Brouse topped the Chevys batters with four for six and a stolen base. Brennan and Roedig had two hits each for the K. of C.

Walt Beddow and Bill Baker for the Y made five hits each, Bill Anderson, Brouse, Stockton, and Shuck scored three safeties apiece for the Riverton Laundry. Features of the Y-Laundry game were Split-Shirt Dick Woodward's slow-motion running (7) on a triple, a ten hit, eleven run rally by the Laundry in the sixth, Jimmy the Lamplighter's collision with Shuck who was capturing a fly, and some deft bunting by the Laundry.

Spectators are asked to bring gloves to the next games; it's for their own good.

LOCALS TO CLASH

The Riverton Memorial Park tennis team and the Riverton Country Club tennis team has reserved Saturday, May 26, as a tentative date for a match between the two tennis units.

The committee is working out the details which will be announced at a later date.

TIPS ON GROWING

Annually there is much boasting among the Delphinium enthusiasts as to the size of the immense stalks and large flowers of their Wrexham Hybrids, DeLuxe Hybrids and other new Hybrid forms, as by the Isaac Watsons when they forget to tell about the size of the fish that "got away." But these present-day high-hats of the Larkspur family should not be permitted to completely overshadow the little dwarf Chinese type. For an intense dark blue in the garden and for cutting this should not be overlooked, nor its pure white companion, Chinese alba. If the flowers are not permitted to go to seed a second and even a third crop may be had.

A clear blue type of Chinese is now being offered in seed which if sown early will flower the first year. This is said to be more brilliant than Belladonna. It is D. Chinese Cambridge Blue. Another seed offering in a dwarf one-foot high rock garden variety is Blue Butterfly Improved, a rich ultramarine blue.

By careful disbanding so as to permit the plants to grow bushy, the necessity for giving dahlias plants an artificial support is somewhat obviated, yet severe electrical storms in late summer will soon make the dahlias section of the garden a twisted jungle, and the plants had best be staked. Instead of any old piece of lumber of indiscriminate size or shape, stout round tapering stakes or square stakes, painted bright green, may be procured at a reasonable cost and add considerably to your garden dahlia display.

Black Leaf 40 has always been considered one of the best insecticides on plants, and poultry raisers in recent years have used it for ridding fowls of lice. A new use has been found for it in spraying on evergreens and shrubs to repel dogs. The canines detect the odor of nicotine and avoid the plants sprayed with the Black Leaf 40, which at the same time keeps red spider and other insect pests in check.

An exchange carries the report that in Calcutta, India, a scientist has discovered a method for making a power spirit or gasoline from the water hyacinth (Eichhornia crassipes major) which can be sold for ten cents a gallon.

As grown here in outdoor pools this lovely little aquatic only requires to be placed on the surface of the water and allowed to drift at the whim of the breeze. To secure bloom, however, the plants should be confined in some shallow portion of the pool with a string or wire drawn beneath the surface.

Something entirely new and different is Hollyhock Orange Prince, a beautiful shade of orange, something different in Hollyhocks, and the flowers are double at that; procurable in seed only. Triumph is another new double that is branching in form. It flowers ten days earlier than other varieties. Comes in a wide range of colors, blooms waved and fringed.

Separate spraying schedules for apples, grapes, peaches and pears (Extension Bulletins 113, 115, 116 and 117 respectively) may be obtained without cost by writing to the Bulletin Clerk, N. J. Agricultural Experiment Station, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

P.W.A. ASKS FOR ADDITIONAL DATA

Latest Borough Financial Statement Required in Application for School Loan

At the meeting of the Riverton Board of Education Monday night, Mrs. Marion B. R. Elwell, president reported that a request for additional information as to the financial standing of Riverton had been made by PWA authorities at Newark with reference to docket 8211 concerning the Riverton School Board's application for a loan for the reconstruction of the present school building.

The request embodied the suggestion that the desired information be secured from the borough tax collector and the district clerk.

Mrs. Elwell reported that the information had been gotten together and would be forwarded May 9. Collector Davis and District Clerk Hemphill were delegated to go to Newark and meet with the PWA authorities as soon as a date could be arranged.

This matter is in the hands of Mr. Day who was at the Newark headquarters for a few days after which he went to Washington. When Mr. Day returns to Newark the matter will be laid before him.

President's Action Approved
On motion of Mr. Woolman the action of the president was approved and on the suggestion of Mr. Latch, one of the new members of the board, Mrs. Elwell, was appointed to accompany the borough collector and the district clerk to the conference.

Mrs. Elwell suggested that it might be a good idea to have a set of rules and regulations governing the activities of the board prepared and a copy given to each member. She said that many boards had done this, and it was found quite helpful, especially to new members.

Will Prepare Rules
The suggestion met with general approval and on motion of Mr. Botter the president appointed a committee to prepare such a set of rules and regulations, consisting of William H. Botter, Mrs. Grace M. Yost and Karl W. Latch.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for 100 tons, more or less, of anthracite coal, chestnut size, to be delivered in 25 ton lots as required. The bids will be opened at a meeting of the board to be held on May 28.

A motion was passed to make a second payment of $25 to the Calvary Presbyterian Church for the use of its gymnasium for physical training purposes this year, and an additional $10 for janitor service.

The gymnasium has been used four days a week for twenty-six weeks, which was more than double the time it was used last year.

William Steele appeared before the board on behalf of the Citizens' Forum to ask permission to use the school auditorium for a non-political meeting to be addressed by Charles R. Stout, member of the Board of Freeholders, Wednesday evening.

Permission was granted with understanding that he would take care of the customary janitor's fee of $2.00.

Recommendations
Miss Staman, acting supervising principal, in her report requested the purchase of furniture for seventh and eighth grades, which had been previously requested and action deferred. After some discussion the supply committee was directed to make a survey of the furniture situation and report with recommendations at the next meeting.

A resolution was passed endorsing Miss Staman's suggestion that free diphtheria immunization be offered again this year under the direction of Dr. Rogers, school physician.

REMINDER OF THE "GAY NINETIES"

Philadelphia Bicycle Club Makes Annual Pilgrimage to Mount Holly

The "Hardly Ales," a bicycle organization dating back to the gay '90's and organized under the name of the Century Road Club of America, with A. C. Vickery, secretary, 2438 North Twentieth street, Philadelphia, made its annual pilgrimage from the City of Brotherly Love to Mount Holly, the historic seat of Burlington County, last Sunday.

When they passed through Riverton the line seemed to contain about 150 or more on bicycles and a liberal following of automobiles.

The men a-wheel apparently represented three generations of "pedal pushers" with the granddads in the vanguard, the dads in between and the youngsters bringing up the rear with many flourishes and much fancy riding.

CROWDS THROG
TO LAKEVIEW PARK

Motorists in Increased Numbers Enjoy Hour of Vocal and Instrumental Music

Lakeview Memorial Park, the "Mecca" for Sunday motorists who are seeking an hour of music in beautiful surroundings, is becoming more and more attractive to the people of South Jersey.

The delightful memorial cemetery, situated on the Burlington Pike, one-half mile north of the Moorestown-Riverton Road, rapidly becoming clothed with the first green mantle of spring, is the scene of a larger gathering of people with each succeeding Sunday.

Beginning at 3.00 p.m., the choir of the Embury Methodist Episcopal Church of Collingswood will broadcast a half hour of religious songs and anthems, which, in addition to being transmitted over the air through Station W.C.A.M., will be re-broadcast over the beautiful Sings Tower on the park property.

The choir of twenty voices will be led by F. Feille, director of music, and will be accompanied by Miss Grace Borer, the choir organist. The choir will render two anthems "Be Thou Exalted, O God" by Edwards, and "King All Glorious" by Vail. The two religious songs which the choir will also sing are "Wonderful Grace of Jesus" and "Old Rugged Cross."

The Rev. R. D. Coward, pastor of the Embury Methodist Episcopal Church, will give a short address, the subject of which will be "Keeping in Tune."

Following the radio broadcast an hour of music will be heard from the Singing Tower. Fifteen selections in all will be heard and they include a variety of media such as the organ, orchestra, Glee Club, chorals, and vocal selections by McCormack, Tibbitt, Talley and Galli-Curci.

More words cannot describe the impressive beauty of the park or effect of the true tones of music emanating from the Singing Tower as the notes are echoed and re-echoed from the hillsides. Such a picture cannot be described. One must be present to feel the thrill of nature at its loveliest and music at its best.

If you are not numbered among the regular visitors at the park, plan now to drive with your family to the park this Sunday. A cordial welcome awaits all—and ample parking space is available.

STOUT ADDRESSES CITIZENS' FORUM

Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry and Mayor Hahn Also Speak to Local Group

Freeholder Charles R. Stout was the first speaker at a meeting of the Citizens' Forum held in the auditorium of the Riverton public school on Wednesday night. Mayor J. Elmer Hahn, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry and Freeholder Palmer Adams also addressed the group.

Horace Finney, Jr., president of the Citizens' Forum, opened the meeting and briefly told of the aims and efforts of the group. He stated that the forum is made up of civic-minded young men who are anxious to learn about the system of government and its relation to society.

Charles R. Stout went into the early history of the county which had its beginning in 1681 and has grown to a population of 93,000 people, covering an area of 828 square miles. He briefly told of the old system of county government with a board of chosen freeholders consisting of 38 members. He explained that Mrs. Elizabeth G. Terry and Freeholder Palmer Adams also addressed the group.

LAWRENCE MINGIN MAKES STATEMENT

Gives Reasons Why He Asks
Support for Renomination
As County Clerk

At the time that I publicly announced my candidacy for re-nomination and re-election to the office of County Clerk, I promised a more detailed statement of the manner in which I have conducted the business of the County Clerk's office and attempted to fulfill the trust placed upon me by the people of Burlington County, in 1929.

During my campaign in that year, I pledged to the people of Burlington County that if elected I would exert my best efforts to give faithful, economical and efficient service in the office. In offering my candidacy at this time, I do so in the belief that I have entirely fulfilled this pledge.

I have been faithful to my duty, to the extent that I have from the time of taking office been on the job every day and at all times. The work of the office has been so exacting that I have felt it my duty to forego the two weeks' vacation that is permitted me during each and every year. In addition to that, I have remained on duty sufficient hours after the office closing time in order that the records would always be up-to-date.

Paid $6,000 to County

Regardless, however, of faithfulness to my job and to the trust imposed in me by the voters, I believe that the people today are interested more than anything else in whether or not their officials are doing their work economically and at the smallest possible cost to the taxpayer. I cite herewith, for the benefit of the public, some of the office economies that have been effected by me during the past 4 years. First, I would state that the office is not only self-sustaining, but in the past 4 years has turned over to the county the sum of $6,000 over and above running expenses. This money has been legally diverted by the Board of Freeholders into other channels and departments, thereby relieving the taxpayer to an equal extent in whatever department the funds were diverted.

The salaries of the employees have at all times been kept at a minimum and I can conscientiously say to the taxpayer that the clerical force in my office is as efficient and at the same time the lowest paid force of employees in any County Clerk's office in the State.

Many New Duties

During the past 4 years, at the instance of the taxpayers, there have been added to my duties, several functions in addition to those which the office already had. These duties were taken over at a sacrifice to myself but at a large saving to the taxpayer. Of the additional duties taken over were that of Court Crier, including the opening of court, looking after the law library, and waiting on the judiciary. At the request of the Taxpayers' Association and with my consent, Justice Perskie placed the duties of the Court Crier on my office after the death of Mr. John M. Huff, last August. The assuming of these duties provided a saving to the taxpayers of an annual salary of $1,400. Another new duty placed on my office in the past 4 years is that of assuming the clerkship, and care of the records of the District Court, under an act of the Legislature which became effective July 4th, last. Under the old system where the District Court was a distinct and separate branch of county government, it was costing the taxpayers of Burlington County from $4,000 to $5,000 annually in excess of the fees received. Today the court is being operated at a profit. From my knowledge of the office and the fees collected by this court, I feel safe in saying that in addition to eliminating all funds raised by taxation for the support of the District Court, the fees of the court will not only pay the expenses but show a profit of several hundred dollars.

More Money Saved

Another branch of the work of the office, in which I have been able to save thousands of dollars for the taxpayers, is that of handling elections. The law provides that the County Clerk's office shall prepare and furnish all the District Boards of Registry and Election with the necessary affidavits, transfer forms, and materials that are necessary in conducting the election.

It also provides that the County Clerk shall prepare and print the General Election ballots for the entire county. It is in this branch of work that I believe I have effected the greatest savings to the taxpayer. The majority of the counties of New Jersey buy their election supplies from a stock printing company, paying approximately $65 per district for such supplies. There are 90 election districts in Burlington County which at the above cost, would have totaled $5,850, if I had been willing to place Burlington County's order with the same kind of printing house, done entirely by Burlington County. However, the work has been done at a cost that does not exceed $500, thereby effecting a saving of $5,000 annually, when compared with the method used in the majority of the counties throughout the state. The cost of printing ballots in Burlington County is the lowest in the State. My interest in effecting savings to the taxpayers, is not confined to Burlington County. I have been repeatedly sought by taxpayers' organizations and individuals from other counties for advice concerning the institution of reforms. As the result of information furnished by me to the State Taxpayers' Association, thousands of dollars have been saved in other counties.

There are numerous other economies that have been effected in my conduct of the County Clerk's office, which I would be glad to enumerate to any persons bringing me their questions. None of the above economies have interfered with the efficiency of the office.

If the taxpayers and voters of Burlington County re-nominate and re-elect me, I pledge a continuance of the faithful, economical and efficient service proven by the record of the past four years.

INVITATION TO CHORAL CONCERT

Fellowship Choral Club Will Celebrate 1st Anniversary,
May 21

On Monday evening, May 21st, the Fellowship Choral Club will present a general invitation concert in the parish house of Christ Church, Riverton, assisted by artists from Curtis Institute—Miss Jean Spitzer, violinist, and Eugene Helmer, pianist. A musical program has been prepared which is certain to afford a delightful evening's entertainment.

This concert, which celebrates the Choral Club's first full year's activity, marks the culmination of a series of outstandingly successful performances presented locally, in Philadelphia and elsewhere. The reputation of the group for fine musicianship and well-balanced programs is rapidly building for it a substantial place among men's choral groups in the state.

To the inspiring directorship of Alfred S. Van Osten, whose able conducting of the club's rendition of "Olivet to Calvary" will long be remembered by the crowds that packed the Methodist Church to hear its Lenten presentation, is due a large measure of the Fellowship's success. Supported by Lee Mitten, accompanist, whose familiarity with English choral tradition is a splendid asset, the leadership of the group is in unusually competent hands.

In presenting an invitation concert, the Fellowship Choral Club hopes that everyone who enjoys good choral singing and fine instrumental music will attend. Admission will be by ticket only, as the capacity of the parish house auditorium is limited to 350 seats. These tickets may be obtained free of charge and will be ready for distribution on and after Friday, May 11th. Apply to Nathan Lane, 305 Highway, Riverton, phone 108; or Ernest L. Woodcock, 739 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, phone 433.

Remember the date—Monday, May 21st. The place, Christ Church parish house, Riverton. The time, 8.30 p.m., daylight saving time.

GUILD NEEDS MORE SEWERS

At the regular all-day sewing meeting of the Needlework Guild, which will be held as usual in the Porch Club on Monday, May 14th, a special unit of garments for the Burlington County Hospital will provide work for every woman who can give her time and efforts to this most worthy cause. Don't feel that because you are not an expert seamstress there will be nothing for you to do. The work is so organized that every willing pair of hands is kept constructively busy and not a minute of valuable time need be lost.

A small, faithful group of sewers has attended these monthly meetings of the Guild all winter, and, considering their numbers much has been accomplished.

But the need—immediate and urgent for garments in local charitable agencies has far outstripped the ability of these few women to meet it. Unless more can come to help this splendid work for which Riverton has stood so long must be discontinued.

So keep the date in mind, May 7th, a day a month or a part of a day, if a whole day cannot be given up, is not too much to devote to this cause which comes so close in its claims to our support.

To repeat, the day is Monday, May 7th, the place, the Porch Club, the time 10 o'clock in the morning. Luncheon in charge of Mrs. Fink

BURLINGTON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"Don't you ever run out of ice cubes?
How do you manage?"

"My dear, you must be thinking of

OURS IS A FRIGIDAIRE '34"

The Frigidaire '34 makes it utterly old-fashioned ever to run out of ice cubes. In fact, the Frigidaire '34 makes all of yesterday's notions about electric refrigerators seem entirely out-of-date. No longer must you remember to turn on the current after defrosting. No longer must you limit your food supply because of insufficient space! And look at these additional advantages of the Super Series Frigidaire '34: double capacity Hydrators—adjustable shelves—Frigidaire Servashelf—Sliding Utility Basket—and Lifetime Porcelain inside and out. Until you see the Super Frigidaire '34 you really can have no idea of what's happened in electric refrigeration. Come in and see it during our special Spring Showing. And ask us to tell you about the Frigidaire '34 Standard Model that uses less current than one ordinary lamp bulb.

Put Your... X Where it will do the Most Good The Riverton Republican Club, Inc. HEARTILY ENDORSES—

☒ HAROLD G. HOFFMAN

New Jersey's brilliant young Motor Vehicle Commissioner, whose long record of public achievement is familiar to everyone. His rigid enforcement of motor vehicle laws without fear or favor have won universal respect. His experience as newspaper man, soldier, banker, legislator and executive has provided a remarkable equipment fitting him to become the Chief Executive of our State.

☒ D. LANE POWERS

As Congressman from the 4th Congressional district, D. Lane Powers has served his constituents well. His untiring effort in behalf of the people he represents and his background of experience in the present chaotic muddle at Washington would seem to mark his return to office "a good investment in the future for Republicans."

☒ MARCUS W. NEWCOMB

Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, a Republican candidate for re-election to the General Assembly, has long enjoyed the confidence of the voters of Burlington County. His record of achievements while serving his constituents needs no special emphasis. The fact that he polled the highest vote on the ticket at the last election is sufficient indication of the high esteem in which he is held. The voters of Burlington County will do well to re-elect a man enjoying such widespread approval in the execution of his duties.

☒ LAWRENCE G. MINGIN

A faithful public servant who has put his whole heart into the economical and efficient execution of his work. Much can be, but little need be, said for the man whose conscientious application to his work has built his office into one of the most efficient in the State.

cient in the state. The duties of a County Clerk impose a serious responsibility, and the office should not be taken lightly by the voters of the County. A wealth of experience and a record of clean administration should overbalance any tendency to make a change "just for the sake of making a change," as recent elections have shown.

☒ ALBERT COLLIER

Albert Collier, Bordentown resident, and candidate for Freeholder at the coming Primary Election, is well known throughout the County. Having served six years on the Bordentown Township Committee, Mr. Collier refers to his record of tax reduction as the best recommendation for his election. His efforts have always been along the line of reduced cost of Government operation, and he promises if elected to strive for a reduction in the cost of County government.

☒ CHARLES R. STOUT

A candidate for re-election to the Board of Chosen Freeholders, whose long record of economy in the transaction of County business especially fits him for the position he seeks. Stout's judgment, based on years of experience coupled with a sincere desire to effect every economy that is consistent with sound business principles in the conduct of County affairs, make it especially desirable to return him to the Board at this time.

☒ J. HORACE EATON

J. Horace Eaton, of Bordentown, long identified with Republican politics, is candidate for State Committeeman. Eaton seeks the post not for the honor, but was prompted to run because of the neglect of duties by the present State Committeeman, who was not sufficiently interested in his party to attend a meeting in the past 12 months. He promises activity if elected, and he deserves the support of all loyal Republicans.

ises activity if elected, and he deserves the support of all loyal Republicans.

☒ ALMA EVANS

Alma Evans, of Riverton, candidate for State Committeewoman on the Republican ballot is the logical candidate for the office. Few women in the County have devoted so much time to the advancement of Republican politics in Burlington County. Her loyalty to the party has never been questioned, and much of the success of Republican politics both locally and in the County can be traced to her untiring efforts.

☒ E. K. MERRILL

E. K. Merrill, president of Riverton Borough Council, and seeking re-election as a member of that body, has completed three years of faithful service to the Borough of Riverton. Mr. Merrill, past commodore of the Riverton Yacht Club, has always displayed a keen interest in Riverton's welfare and should be returned to the post he seeks.

☒ GORHAM P. SARGENT

Gorham P. Sargent, also running for re-election on the Republican ticket for Borough Council, has maintained an active interest in the general welfare of Riverton, and has served consistently and efficiently every duty that the office imposes.

☒ JOHN L. STROHLEIN

John L. Strohlein, running for the unexpired term of Frank J. Holvick, has served several months on the Riverton Borough Council and as the present Chairman of the Borough Property Committee, is perfecting a well-organized plan of activity at Memorial Park this summer. His efficient service and devotion to the work he has undertaken should by all means ensure his return to the office he holds.

A Tribute to Mother

Youngest of a family of seven girls and a boy, younger than most of her classmates, and an honor student, fourteen-year-old Esther Elwofsky achieves a new distinction. And that by putting down in a few simple words all that she feels for her mother.

Esther is a Brooklyn high-school girl, the daughter of Mrs. Pauline Elwofsky.

"MOTHER'S DAY"

"One day in the year set aside for mothers—how strange a custom! Like setting one day aside to grasp the beauty of the sun, the moon, the stars—all the lovely, natural things that bring warmth, light, comfort.

"Many times I have longed to set my thoughts down upon paper. Not in the flowery language of greeting-cards, but in the simple language of love. I write the words, 'Dear Mother'—lovely tender words—and grow silent beneath the weight of thoughts and memories that, lying buried like precious jewels beneath the dust of years, arise clear and glowing in my hand.

"Impossible to describe the homely beauty of these thoughts: warm kitchen filled with the scent of bread, sunlight dappling a clean white cloth, touching the rosy apples in their copper bowl; tender memories of loving acts and dreary tasks done smilingly while the sun shone and the years marched swiftly past, and youth, perhaps secretly mourned, passed with it.

"How describe the broad, deep-bosomed earth, symbol of maternity—awakening in the spring of the year, lying fruitful beneath the summer sun, resting from its labors in the autumn and dreaming peacefully wrapt in snowy mantle? Dwelling upon these thoughts we hear borne strong on the wind the galloping hoofs of Time astride the ceaseless cycles of the years, drawing nearer and nearer. Then caught by a vague fear, we say or we think or we write, 'Dear Mother.'"

SHORT WAVE MUSINGS

BY T. O. M.

We are wondering what has happened to the old dial twisters and brass pounders of wireless days, around 1910—Bob Biting, Bill Cook, Ned Fielding, Howard Powell and Preston Sharp, who were active at that time, followed a few years later by Roy Hardy, Lew Sharp, Albert Smith, Fred Jones, Biddle Atlee, Dick Reed, George Welkel, Watson Mervine, and a chap named McClosky who resided in the house now occupied by the American Legion in Palmyra.

The coming of the World War broke up their activities, the majority of the fellows entering their country's service. The cessation of hostilities and the lifting of the ban on amateur radio was followed by renewed interest on the part of the old timers who were joined by a new crop of "young squirts."

Around 1920 the two outstanding Boy Scouts who received their amateur licenses from the government were Gil Palphreyman and Ed Hoepfner. Chris Davis and Joe D'Autrechy received their amateur licenses a few months later.

From this time on the hectic expansion of broadcasting programs, with the attending set building for the reception of commercial programs overshadowed, in the news, amateur activities and achievements.

The dyed-in-the-wool amateur continued in quest of "new worlds to conquer," with the result that short wave reception around the world was an every-day occurrence. Commercial interests are stressing extensive publicity at the present time in the short wave field to give new impetus to sales, resulting in increased employment in the radio industry. If they can repeat a revival of interest in "dial twisting" and "burning the midnight oil," which is quite possible, we can look forward to renewed activities in set building among the "broadcast listeners."

In receiving short wave programs success cannot be assured unless certain fundamental principles are followed, the first essential being a properly constructed and installed antenna system.

The OM has found, in his travels around the vicinity, a growing interest in short wave reception among broadcast listeners. This column, by the OM, is inaugurated for the express purpose of being of service to anyone interested in short wave reception.

All communications addressed to The OM, c/o The New Era office, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope, will be answered by a technician who has had years of contact and experience with the radio industry. If these communications are of general interest they will be discussed each week in this column.

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Life is, always has been, and ever will be independent of matter; for Life is God, and man is the idea of God, not formed materially but spiritually, and not subject to decay and dust. Shortcuts to the Dinner Table

BY VERA A. SCHNEIDER

Your question, Mrs. Walters, "What does the body need that food contains" is a timely one, and I shall answer it briefly in this small space allotted to me. First, the body needs proteins, fats, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals, and the foods in which these nutritive materials are found most abundantly are:

Proteins: Milk, vegetables, fish, meat, eggs, nuts and cheese.
Carbohydrates: Starchy foods such as rice, macaroni, flour, potatoes, and in sugary foods, such as candy, sirups, and cooked foods, where sugar has been added in large quantities.
Fats: Cream, butter, olive oil, sausage, bacon, etc.
Minerals: Milk, eggs, fruit and leafy and green vegetables.
Vitamins: Milk, eggs, leafy vegetables, raw fruits and vegetables.

If you will regulate your menus to include each day plenty of milk, at least one cooked leafy vegetable, raw fruit and raw vegetables, you may plan the remainder of your menus for the day to suit your individual taste.

I hope with this information you will balance your meals more uniformly and avoid too many starchy foods, as you have been wont to do. And now to our column menu planning:

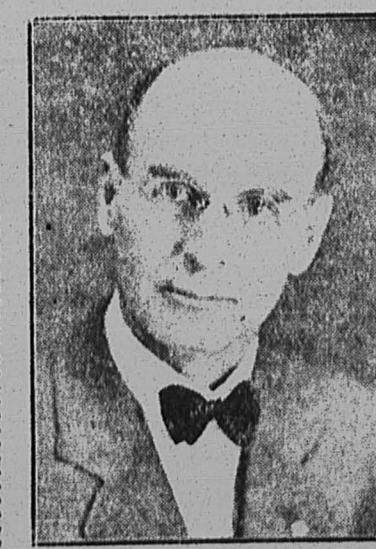

Friday's Dinner

Prizes Offered for Community Gardens

Emergency Relief Administration Will Supply Ground,
Seeds and Fertilizer

The Community Garden program conducted last year by the Emergency Relief Administration, was such a beneficial success to many people throughout the State, it was decided by Newark Headquarters to again furnish this most worthy assistance to Relief clients.

Burlington County will have a most generous program this year and 1,243 gardens have already been allotted in every section of the County, both urban and rural. There is no discrimination in the allocation of these gardens, as any needy and worthy Relief clients may avail themselves of this service. The gardens are of two sizes, namely 50 x 50 and 50 x 100; in many cases where the clients do not have available space, more fortunate neighbors or public spirited citizens or even the township officials, will donate pieces of ground for the season.

The seeds and plants come in unit packages and comprise an assortment of twelve different common vegetables; 1,243 of these sets have already arrived; they are a quality product from reputable houses. To augment this State donation of seeds and plants, the Stokes Seed Company, of Woodbury, voluntarily contributed 88,000 cabbage plants to Burlington County for this program, which have already been shipped. This was a splendid spirit of cooperation and the results will be far-reaching. In the latter part of May, the following plants will be available for these gardens, consisting of 17,145 peppers, 28,575 tomatoes and 34,290 cabbage plants. Seven tons of fertilizer will also be furnished, to be used in sections where needed.

In the neighborhood of 1,243 families have already signed up for these gardens. Mr. George DuBell has been appointed Garden Supervisor, who will have full charge of this program in the entire County and who will cooperate in every way possible. We are asking the cooperation of the various local organizations to offer prizes to the clients producing the best gardens in each municipality.

Charles J. Krugg, Jr.,
Deputy County Director.

Lighting System Under Discussion similar manner by cooperation between the Borough and the Public Service Company.

Mr. Dold stated that by reducing the Borough's 17 600-watt lights to 400-watts, the year's expenditures could be brought within the budget at once.

Mr. Dold then presented a new style of gas light, which has been scientifically evolved by lighting engineers, to take the place of Palmyra's present street fixtures, which he said he believed would solve all the town's lighting difficulties. The new light has a crinkled globe instead of the clear glass ones now used, the effect being to give a diffused light, evenly distributed over the area served by the lamp, instead of the glare caused by the present style.

The Public Service, Mr. Dold stated was willing to install the new gas lights all over Palmyra without additional cost. The new lights were approved by Mr. Powell and most of the other citizens present, except for the fact that they provided no place for the street names such as are carried on the present gas globes.

After much discussion no definite action was taken except to authorize the Public Service to proceed with the reduction of the 600-watt lights to 400-watts, as suggested by Mr. Dold, to bring the costs within this year's budget.

The merits of the various lighting plans will be taken up further at an executive meeting of council to be held Monday, May 21, just previous to the regular Tuesday meeting on May 22.

An amended ordinance on gas tanks was passed on first reading.

Youth Week

Starting Saturday, April 28th, a week was set aside for boys and girls. Saturday there was a treasure hunt. Sunday a service was held at the Presbyterian Church. A Guidance Meeting was held at the Palmyra High School on Monday evening which was very helpful especially to those about to graduate. Tuesday afternoon all children of 12 years and under entered the Palmyra movies free to see Ken Maynard in "Drum Taps." That evening a musical concert was held at Palmyra High School. This was enjoyed by the youth, parents and friends. A mutt parade starting in Riverton was held on Wednesday, and a hobby exhibition took place at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday was a night at home. On Friday because of rain, the boys and girls did not

CLIFFORD SUTTER TO OPPOSE ALONSO

Exhibition Tennis Match to Be New Feature of Cinnaminson Home Fete

The best exhibition tennis ever staged in South Jersey will be played on the grass courts of the Moorestown Field Club on Saturday afternoon, May 19th, for the benefit of the Cinnaminson Home for convalescent women and children.

Clifford Sutter, of New Orleans, No. 4 ranking player, has accepted the invitation to compete with Manuel Alonso, of New York, former captain of the Spanish Davis Cup team, while Mrs. John B. Jessup, of Wilmington, will oppose Anne B. Townsend. It is possible that a mixed doubles contest will also be arranged.

Sutter acquitted himself with distinction in major competition last year, carrying off the Pan-American, Bermuda, and North and South championships. He also showed to advantage in Davis Cup tie with Mexico.

Alonso is well known to Philadelphia and vicinity tennis devotees. He is the flashy type of player, who has made innumerable friends because of his aggressiveness.

Mrs. Jessup and Miss Townsend were keen rivals last year. They clashed in two major championship matches. Mrs. Jessup annexed the Pennsylvania and Eastern laurels, while Miss Townsend emerged triumphant in the Delaware grass courts championship.

In charge of the exhibition tennis matches is a committee consisting of Mrs. S. Emlen Stokes, Mr. Z. John Norris, and Mrs. Francis W. O'Dell. Grandstands will be erected to care for the spectators.

Mrs. Lloyd Heulings, of Moorestown, chairman of the Fete, has a score of committees working on other features of the day and evening. A supper under the direction of Mrs. Howard G. Taylor, Jr., of Riverton, will be served on the lawn cafeteria style.

Carola Cyarvide to Dance
Carola Cyarvide, better known among the Burlington county younger set as Carola Collings, will be the principal feature of the Floor Show which the dance committee, headed by Miss Marion Scull Biddle, of Riverton, is planning for the evening.

For over thirty years this Fete has been the outstanding event of the spring, and this special charity holds a warm place in the hearts of the whole community.

see the A's play the Boston White Sox in baseball, but they saw the game with Cleveland on Monday. Saturday a trip was taken to Wilmington, Delaware, on the Wilson liner. The children of this school are very grateful to the Y. M. C. A. and Mr. Mount for this enjoyable week.

CODES

Editor The New Era:

Since the topic of the hour seems to be "codes" for everybody, I thought your readers might be interested in the following clipping I ran across the other day.

Subscriber.

CODE FOR MOTHERS

What if a code should be fixed for mother?

Suppose she were allowed to work but forty hours a week.

She rises with the mocking birds in the morning, wakes the family, gets father off to work, washes six or eight necks and twice as many ears and starts the youngsters off to school.

After the breakfast dishes are polished, she gathers up the family linen—or cotton—for the wash. She indulges in both suds and song and soon the line of garments is bulging in the breeze. Before she knows it, a hurricane of children bursts into the house for lunch at noon.

Then she straightens up the house, looks after several thousand odds and ends until it is time to go to market for meat and vegetables for dinner. She is chief chef, dishwasher and nurse girl for the evening.

Along about midnight Billy wakes up with the croup or something and mother gets the cold compress, the camphor and vaseline. Father saws wood all night without thought of a code!

Next day is ironing day—and the next is mending day—then comes cleaning day—and Saturday she has to get ready for Sunday. And so on and on and on and on and on.

Mother puts in sixteen to eighteen hours a day and uses up her code in a trifle over two days with five more to go.

What to do! Father roars around about the NRA and wants his competitor yanked up for not putting on more workers and giving shorter hours.

But how in heck could we put more mothers on the job?

—Los Angeles Times.

Trade in Canada is said to be 31 per cent ahead of a year ago. Now the question is, what would it have been had Canada possessed a Brain Trust?

The Student Council of the Riverton public school will present a magician, Raymond Scheetz, on Monday, May 7th, at 3:30 in the school auditorium. The price of admission is to be ten cents. The profits will be used for helping to supply the costumes on Field Day so we trust that you will attend this entertainment and spend a pleasant and profitable afternoon. In addition to being a great illusionist, Mr. Scheetz is a splendid entertainer, a likeable human being with a fine personality and stage presence and a keenly developed sense of humor.

IN APPRECIATION

I desire to express my deepest appreciation to the citizens of Burlington County who signed my petition for member of Board of Chosen Freeholders. It is a pleasure to feel I have so many good friends, and I can assure them that their efforts in my behalf will always be an inspiration to me.

The Bicycle Stages a Comeback

The increasing popularity of bicycles and their use on the public highways will add to the hazards of motorists unless both cyclists and drivers show a proper regard for the rights of each other. Trade journals and other periodicals are stressing a revival of bicycle popularity and while this may be a boon to bicycle manufacturers, it should be remembered that the streets today are not the same as they were in grandfather's time.—News Item.

When Grandpa climbed up on the pump
To mount his high-wheeled bike,
Poor Grandma's fears dashed on ahead
To perils of the pike.

Her spouse might meet a balky mule
Or fractious steed that would Kick Grandpa to fields Elysian, and Herself to widowhood.

But Grandma might have spared herself
Her jitters and her tears,
For Grandma lived to lie about
His speed full ninety years.

When Pop and Mom on tandem wheel
Scorched down the thoroughfare,
The citizenry stopped its walk
And upright rose its hair.

"SO IT SEEMS"

By Alfred Biggs

A Weekly Review of the World's News—spiced with a personal opinion.

"Bad Citizenship"

Upon certain aspects of life this column is not alone in its views. A popular writer in a great New York daily, complains that too much thinking upon economic injustice is not good for one's peace of mind. He says: "It sets a fellow to wondering how many days you would have to lay off a railroad brakeman with a family to support, and maybe wanting doctors to save enough money to operate the big Vanderbilt yacht one day on a cruise in the Mediterranean. You don't want to get into habits of thought like that. It leads to bad citizenship, and eventually, if you don't watch out, to bohemism and forfeiture of the precious privilege of working on burning feet in the 5 and 10 while Princess Barbara Mdivani tours the world with half an ocean liner to herself." The Barbara he refers to is the heiress to the Woolworth millions.

"Industrial Savagery"

Speaking of unearned wealth it is reported that on April 4th the 28-year old Mr. Reynolds inherited about $25,000,000. He is one of the family of the Mr. Reynolds who built a cigarette fortune estimated at $100,000,000. In justice to young Mr. Reynolds, however, it must be said that if he suddenly decided to obey the dictum of Jesus, sell all he has and give it to the poor, his $25,000,000 would be lost in the shuffle. The system which fosters such inequities is wrong. The slow decay of that system marks the beginning of the end of a period in world history which future ages will refer to as a period of industrial savagery.

Recovery's Progress
While President Roosevelt's recovery activities during the first year of his administration have been devoted largely to preparing for future progress, actual progress has been achieved. Professor Fisher's Index of Business Conditions shows that the lowest point of the depression was reached in February 1933. Business then was 54.1 per cent below normal, based on five years average. Today, the same index shows business to be 47.9 per cent below normal. Clearly we have yet a long way to go, but we are on our way. Will the President make the grade? It is the opinion of this writer that he will not, without instituting such further drastic and far-reaching changes as will bring the greatest shock of their lives to powerful obstructionists and the old guard of a now effete system.

Half Way Back

Fisher's figures indicate that we are now about half way back to normal. Under so-called normal conditions many millions of people have to live down to a very low standard; they have to get along without comforts and decencies to which they are entitled as self-respecting human beings. If in result of Mr. Roosevelt's splendid efforts we get back only as far as normal, we shall still have far to go. No doubt he knows this, for he is a most humane and forward-looking man. He must know that the time is approaching when he will have to face the fact that "normal" conditions merely imply fat times for the fortunate but fat times for the rank and file.

Sunshine and Shadow

Neither the sun nor the seasons have gone on strike, nor has the earth ceased to yield of its fullness. Nature has plenty for all. And we have established production machinery which, if properly controlled and aided by new effective distribution processes, could bring the fullness of nature within the reach of all. What is wrong is our old money-price system is no longer able to carry the peak load of advancing civilization; it has broken down so badly that a patch-up job will not turn the trick. It is now a drag on the wheels of progress. Mr. Roosevelt is trying to inaugurate a new system without tearing the old one out by the roots; without destroying those who live and have their being in those roots. In this, so it seems, he is acting the part of wisdom. But among his many other involved and intricate calculations he has also to figure out how much longer the rank and file of the people will stand for an obsolete system which favors the merely acquisitive and frowns upon those whom nature has not endowed with swinish ability to grab. And these are the majority of the population.

HEAVY DEMAND FOR McALLISTER COAL

Richard McAllister, president of his Company, reports that due to the very severe winter and cold spring, demand this year on the part of customers for enough coal to underwrite them against next fall and winter has been unusually heavy.

Mr. McAllister, desiring to cooperate with his customers, has just announced through newspaper advertising a special opportunity for them to order coal now and receive six months' time in which to pay for it.

The offer applies to May, June, July, August, September and October, so that those who order their supply of coal for next winter during May will have it paid for fully by the end of October.

He announced, too, that coke can be purchased on the same easy terms.

Of Chicago, Mrs. Rachel Powers, of Yonkers, N. Y., Mrs. Blanche Roberts, of Albany, N. Y., were guests at the home of Mrs. A. M. Bowker, last week.

To The

DEMOCRATIC VOTERS of Burlington County

A Chance for House Cleaning in the Democratic Party of Burlington County

Yes, the party is divided, each of the two groups stubbornly fighting for control—William Vandegrift and Benj. R. Faunce fighting for reform—Richard Hughes and George Hillman fighting to keep in control for lifetime, perhaps. The Vandegrift group held a county rally in Burlington on the 19th of April. With the exception of four or five districts the entire county was represented in a group of between 150 and 175 persons.

Mr. Vandegrift opened the meeting, stating in a few words the intentions of the group, then he called upon the different districts for comments. He then introduced Mr. Faunce who told the audience how and why Mr. Vandegrift became a candidate for State Committeeman. He told his listeners that Joseph Wolf from and himself had gone to Jersey City to inform the Chief of the "doings" of the Burlington County Democratic leaders. How on the way home they discussed the advisability of a thorough house-cleaning because of the very apparent lack of sincerity on the part of the present Democratic leaders at the Fall election and the general feeling throughout the county, that the Democrats did not receive the more worthwhile jobs provided by the CWA of which Mr. Hillman was Federal Employment Agent.

Mr. Faunce went on to say that many also believe that one political job is sufficient for one person. When President Roosevelt requested Postmaster General Farley to drop the National Chairmanship of the Democratic Party he had a perfectly good reason for doing so. The following letter and clipping should speak for themselves. What does the candidate for State Committeewoman expect to do if she receives the nomination—resign in favor of some other in the same clique—and thus cheat the voter?

YMCA STAMP CLUB of Palmyra and Riverton

The Palmyra-Riverton Junior Stamp Group, that meets at the Y. Broad and Garfield avenue, every Tuesday night, plans a stamp exhibition, open to Juniors only, for its next meeting. This will be Tuesday, May 15, at 7.30 p.m. All young collectors, regardless of whether they are members of the club or not, are invited. There will be no exhibition or membership fee; in other words, it won't cost you anything, and you may win one of the prizes. One of the older collectors will act as judge. EARL R. BLYLER

Republican Candidate for Member of

Board of Freeholders

Primary Election
May 15, 1934

Two years ago I ran for office as Edgewater Park Township Committeeman on practically the same principles which now actuate me to seek the office of Freeholder—namely the adjustment of public affairs and other expenses to conform with the changed economic situation of the average taxpayer. The people elected me. My pre-election promises of economy were fulfilled 100 per cent.

For the past sixteen months I have studied the picture both from the viewpoint of a Township Committeeman and as a local Director of Municipal Relief. What I have seen at first hand has convinced me beyond the shadow of a doubt that taxes upon real estate must be reduced in order to conform with the average taxpayer's ability to pay. To attempt to continue on our present course will mean wholesale confiscation of private property and reduction of many formerly independent and self respecting property owners to the status of peasants and paupers.

I owned and operated a large farm in Willingboro Township for ten years and I fully understand the problems of those who have to wrest their living from the soil.

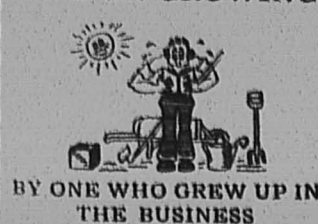

As a director of a building and loan association I have come in close contact with the financial distress of home owners in all walks of life. Excessive taxation of real estate is responsible for many people losing title to their homes.

If elected Freeholder I will do my utmost to bring about a substantial reduction of the county tax rate. I favor the reduction of the present compensation of Freeholders by approximately 25 per cent, making the annual salary $3,000. If elected I will not accept compensation in excess of this amount.

TIPS ON GROWING

A water plant with an entrancing fragrance is the Water Hawthorn, (Aponogeton). The bloom, as the name implies has the true scent of the Hawthorn. This differs from most aquatics in that it does not require still warm water for success. Just the opposite rather, it likes cold water, even such pools and streams that springs and their source in cold springs and the plants will continue to grow as long as the water does not freeze over. The flowers are small, pretty and white in color.

Grow your own Chinese Lantern Bells for next Halloween decoration, setting out plants, which may be purchased at a reasonable cost from the plant growers. The plant is of very easy culture but if set out in rich soil be sure not to plant in close proximity to other perennials as in very fertile ground it spreads rapidly by underground roots.

A new innovation in this year's catalogue of at least one of the Seedsmen who nationally advertise is noting the Health value in caries, Vitamins, Proteins, etc. of the various vegetables such as Peppers, Tomatoes, Pumpkins and even the lowly Spinach which, believe it or not, seems to use as many letters of the alphabet in its Vitamins. At The New Deal Administration, well, anyhow, A, B, C and G. Suppose the sand is considered as roughage.

The Yucca has always had a peculiar interest to me, for a very inconsequential reason—because the name is usually the last in the list of perennials in the plant catalogues and among the first in the indexed popular names "Adam's Needle." Now another queer thing I have just read about it is that the flower of this plant is said to be fertilized pollin brought to it only by the Yucca moth and the moth's larvae are fed by food produced by this plant. This plant seems ageless. Some old plants bearing their drooping white bells on their tall spikes have been growing on the grounds of old River Bank properties for many many years. Very handsome at flowering time in mid-summer.

The Garland Flower (Daphne genkwa) is probably the best of the evergreen dwarf shrubs for the rockery and for fronting the shrubbery border, bearing its beautiful Arbutus-like bright pink flowers, sweetly-scented, in early May. The plant grows bushy from six to eight inches high.

Up to date Admiral Byrd has not been asked to keep a sharp lookout for Dillinger.

Athletics 15—Artisans 6

The hay-pitching Athletics, the ferocious team from Cinnaminson, tonight pitched into the Artisans, scoring fifteen runs to the Artisans six. The unique father and son battery of Alloway Sr. and Alloway Jr. could not silence the heavy bats of the Farmers who slammed out nineteen safe bingles. The Artisans themselves made eighteen hits, but they didn't count for as much.

Several nice stops were made during the game. Art Terrell, the State Teachers' College flash, made two of them at short. Swain of the A's snared one while running backwards (that is, he was running backwards, not the ball; can you imagine a ball running backwards?), and Hunter of the Artisans picked one out of the setting sun. There was a rumor around that the sun resented having a ball picked from it, but there is no foundation for it; we have known the sun for a great many years and have never known it to resent anything.

D. Oliver and J. Schaefer with five and four hits "respectfully" were at the head of the Apple-knockers, while Terrell, Wenger, Windhovel, and Taylor swatted off three good ones apiece for the Artisans.

MAY 8—
Bankers 15—YMCA 4

Behind terrific slugging and before screwy fielding, the Bankers (darn few of whom are Bankers) subdued the YMCA team, 15-4. On the Bankers' offensive Bill Enskat led with five hits, including two roundtrippers, the second with the bases saturated in the big sixth inning rally. Cahill, Carl Landgraf, and Bill Baker tried for the Y batting honors, each poking two legal hits.

The Y fielding, as you probably deduced from our "lead," left much to be desired; one of the most needed things is somebody less statu- esque on the hot corner. The Bankers' catching, presided over by Rocky Bonatelli, while not brilliant, was picturesque. In the sixth inning, pursuing one of Hubbs's wild ones (Wild? This one was positively un- civilized!) he tried to walk sideways up the backstop and in so doing caused one the spectators standing behind it to topple over backwards. Bankers 042 107 100—15 22 4

The Athletics tonight defeated the Tak-About by 17 to 7, the Tak-About taking the boost as graciously as possible under the circumstances. F. Schaefer, Phelan and D. A note on the edge of the score-book says that Flagg stole two bases and caught eleven flies, and that Kessler did good work in the field.

SOCIETY EDITOR "COVERS" COUNCIL

Enjoys Experience of Reporting
Doings of Borough Fathers
at Monthly Session

(By the Society Editor)

(Note: The editor was tied up at the office with some election stuff, and the advertising manager had a "heavy date," so it befell the lot of the society editor to "cover" the council story. It's a little out of my line, but I'll do my best, and if there are any errors of commission or omission, I hope the Borough Fathers and our readers as well, will be lenient in their judgment.—M.B.)

After the meeting had been called to order by Mayor J. Elmer Hahn (he's very particular about the initials) the treasurer's report was read, accepted and spread upon the minutes as was the report of the finance committee.

The finance report was read by the chairman, who was not sure they could pay all the bills, so the Mayor just told him to hold up on something until some money came in.

John Strohle, new member to fill the unexpired term, and chairman of the borough property committee, felt very deeply about the damage which has been done at the Park. Baseball benches stolen, new grass torn up, flag pole cord cut down and other things which do not help the appearance of Riverton's show place.

Councilman Merrill was very sympathetic and said that was most disheartening, but that there was nothing that could be done about it.

C. Kenneth Davis, borough collector, who was sitting beside the S.E., said that the kids had even come in his backyard and cut down his aerial from a 40 foot pole. Some nerve.

Requests Ignored

The local paper came in for a left-handed compliment when Mayor Hahn suggested that an appeal to the boys' good nature be put in the local paper, and Officer William Gootee said that this had been done several weeks ago, and more complaints had come in than ever before.

At this point Acting Captain William Gootee said he had found out who five of the boys were and had written letters to their parents. Two of the family heads were very glad to know that their young hopefuls were out of bounds but the other three said that their little "Willie" boys wouldn't do such a thing.

A communication was read from Miss Maxine Meitner, former play-ground instructor, saying that she was very sorry that owing to press of business she was not able to accept the position again this summer. She made several suggestions as to girls who might fill her place, but Mayor Hahn said that we should use home talent, and suggested Miss Grace Sippel, who trained in the same school as Miss Meitner, and would probably carry out the work along the same lines.

The building committee reported one permit issued, for tearing out partitions in Roberts Hall to the extent of $500 to $700.

Committee on the Fourth

Mayor Hahn then appointed a committee to work with the committee appointed by the Riverton Town Meeting to see what could be done about improving the Fourth of July celebration. The committee is as follows: John Strohle, chairman, McIlvaine Biddle and E. K. Merrill.

A letter of resignation from the former amiable Director of Public Safety, Edward R. Williams, stating that owing to the press of business he must give it his whole attention. He further stated that he had enjoyed serving his fellow townsmen and appreciated working with such a splendid group of men.

The question of unsightly properties came up and Recorder Cecil A.

VISITORS ENJOY SPRING MUSICAL

Treated to Musical Program
By Boys and Girls

Friday of last week, several PTA members, who had heard of the event, visited the school, where a joint spring musical was presented by pupils from both schools.

After the performers and visitors had been seated, the Primary Band marched in, playing as it came, assisted by the piano.

Mourning the stage in perfect rhythm, they took their places and rendered three selections, "Returning Spring," "March Militaire," "Le Secret," and also sang a cheerful little song.

The third and fourth grades sang "Morning Glory," "Robins Rain Song," and "The Woodpecker."

From School Number Four, the lower grades sang "Spring Is a Lovely Season," "Mother," and a couple of encores, while the seventh and eighth grades from the same school, who have formed a glee club, sang a couple of spirituals, "Trouble Don't Last Allway," and "Steal Away," ending with a "Morning Song." The PTA is asking these older singers to sing for the next meeting, on the twenty-third.

The play, "The Magic Fiddle," is to be given June first, and those who saw the "Magic Beanstalk" presented last year, will want to hear this, so keep the date in mind.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB CONCERT, MAY 21

Elaborate Program Will Mark
End of First Season of New
Musical Club

The general invitation issued last week through the columns of this paper to a concert to be given by the Fellowship Choral Club in Christ Church Parish House, Riverton, Monday evening, May 21st, has already met with most flattering response. As the capacity of the auditorium is limited to 350, only that number of tickets-of-invitation have been issued, and all anxious to attend are urged to secure their tickets promptly to avoid possible disappointment. Apply to Nathan Lane, 205 Highway, Riverton, phone 105, or Ernest Woodcock, 739 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, phone 433.

The Fellowship Choral Club, under the directorship of Alfred S. VanOsten, has been most generous of its musical services on local organization programs during the past winter. The concert which is to be held Monday night marks the termination of its first full season's activity, during which brief time it has grown into a musically group of more than thirty voices.

Of the numbers to be presented by the men's group, two are perhaps most worthy of special mention, "Greeting to Spring" by Strauss, which appears third on the program, is an exceptionally fine arrangement of the composer's famous "Blue Danube Waltz," adhering closely to the original orchestral score. And "Walk Together Children," one of the two final numbers, is an entirely new transcription of a traditional negro melody arranged by Rosamund Johnson. It is a spiritual marching song of strongly marked rhythms and primitive emotional appeal.

Supporting the choral numbers, the executive committee of the Club is honored to present artists from the Curtis Institute of Music. Miss Jean Spitzer, violinist, began the study of her instrument at a very early age under prominent New York teachers. Four years ago she was accepted by the Curtis Institute to study under Madame Lea Luboshutz, well-known concert artist, since when she has frequently represented the Institute on programs in and around Philadelphia with marked success.

STOUT ROTARY GUEST SPEAKER

Director of Road Department
Tells Service Club About
County Government

Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians listened to Freeholder Charles R. Stout talk about County Government at their Thursday meeting. This well-known public officer emphasized the highway program, started in Burlington county fourteen years ago, and now brought to a state of completion that, each year, attracts many highway engineers from all parts of the country. The general excellence of the roads, plus their extremely low maintenance and improvement cost (6c per square yard) makes them noteworthy. This figure includes resurfacing, modified penetration construction, surface treatment, patching, construction of shoulders, drainage, ditching, snow removal, warning and direction signs, and other incidentals.

Mr. Stout further explained Burlington County's "pay as you go" plan, which makes the tax rate higher than in some other counties, but keeps the total indebtedness well down. He closed his remarks with the observation that there must be some new method provided for equalizing taxes so that real estate no longer bears the majority of the burden.

Burlington county, said Mr. Stout, is the largest county in the state, and situated so that all north and south traffic must pass through it. This fact made the need for good roads imperative, particularly because the seashore travel is unusually heavy. Slowly, over a decade and a half, wide highways have been constructed, and hazards removed, an efficient force of men trained, and modern equipment purchased. Stone-asphalt roads were built at $20,000.00 per mile, as contrasted with $60,000.00 per mile for reinforced concrete. Maintenance costs are higher, but at that, far below what the interest charges would have been on the bonds necessary to finance concrete construction. In five or six years the county will be debt free because of this far-sighted plan.

Mr. Stout stressed the difficulty of serving in public office at the present time. He has been an official for many years, yet never before felt the strain as much. It now takes all the nerve and backbone a man has to weather the attacks upon his policies.

Following Mr. Stout's address, President-elect Hulse reported on the recent district convention in Philadelphia. He was particularly impressed with the talk made by Mr. Head, chairman of the International Committee of Rotary International. General Malone and Dean Carruthers of Lehigh University also gave worthwhile discussions about the N.R.A.

APPECIATION

In appreciation of the vote of confidence given me in the past Primary election and as County Committeewoman in the second district I will work for the best interests of the Democratic party as I have in the past.

COLLINGSWOOD CHOIR TO SING

Address by Rev. Eric A. Oesterle
on "Personal Pentecost" Part
of Afternoon Program

Thirty beautiful voices blended in to sweet harmony of sacred music, will be the feature of the radio broadcast transmitted from Lakeview Memorial Park this Sunday afternoon over Station WCAM.

The program beginning at 3:00 p.m. will be given by the First Baptist Church Choir of Collingswood. Sacred music, composed of well-known hymns, will be sung by the choir of thirty voices and led by John McLees, choir organist.

The Rev. Eric A. Oesterle, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Collingswood, will address the radio audience on the subject of "Personal Pentecost."

The entire program will be re-broadcast from the stately Singing Tower on the park property, for the benefit of thousands who gather at the park weekly to feast their eyes upon the natural beauty of the park and enjoy an hour and a half of music.

The flowering spirea and lilacs bordering the beautiful lake are expected to be in full bloom this weekend, and will present a picture which mere words will be inadequate to describe. Flower beds are being planted throughout the park which will create a scene of vividly beautiful colors, artistically arranged, so that all summer flowering plants will bloom and enhance the natural beauty of the landscape.

Snow-white swans, leisurely floating upon the silvery surface of the lake, are a new addition to the park's whole scheme of beautification, and add a picturesque touch to the lake feature at the park.

Plan to visit Lakeview this Sunday, and, from the comfortable interior of your car, enjoy the program and the beauties of the most delightful spot of any Sunday tour in South Jersey.

The Prince of Wales' radio address brought disillusionment to many. His accent bore little resemblance to that of Hollywood's English movie actors.—Los Angeles Times.

STOUT GETS BIG VOTE IN COUNTY

Merrill and Sargent Defeated
Roberts and Bell in
Local Contest

Harold G. Hoffman, New Jersey's popular Motor Vehicle Commissioner and now Republican nominee for Governor, outdistanced his three opponents with a state majority of 23,699. His plurality over his nearest opponent State Senator Emerson L. Richards exceeded 13,500 votes in Burlington county. In the state returns his nearest opponent was Judge Robert Carey, of Jersey City, who polled 96,035 against Hoffman's 249,945.

Hamilton F. Kean for the United States Senate, walked away to an easy victory over James G. Blauvelt on the county ticket with a majority of 8,694 votes. Kean will oppose Governor A. Harry Moore the unopposed Democratic nominee at the general election in the fall.

D. Lane Powers, Congressman from the Fourth District, defeated his Republican opponent Benjamin Cierosko by an eight-to-one majority in Burlington county.

County Officers

Dr. Joseph W. Bowley, Burlington chiropractor, was unable to dislocate Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, in the "battle of doctors" for member of the General Assembly, however, he did surprise the dopesters by clipping 7,000 out of Newcomb's usual 17,000. The actual count was Bowley 7,163 and Newcomb 11,342.

Lawrence G. Mingin, present county clerk, easily took the Republican nomination to succeed himself over his opponent J. Lloyd Wright. This popular county official polled 13,262 votes while Wright polled 4,998.

The freeholder race, decorated with a line-up similar to a football game, looked like anybody's fight previous to election. Campaign speeches, doggers, folders, circulars, corner gossip and other campaign methods were put to use. The freeholder line-up dominated the whole ballot for space, as well as interest in the election.

Stout's Large Majority

Freeholder Charles R. Stout, running to succeed himself, led the ticket with a huge plurality over his nearest opponent, Albert C. Jones, of Mount Holly. The actual count was Stout 9,257, while Jones polled but 4,732 to lead the other ten "also rans."

Freeholder Palmer L. Adams, who at his first sitting with the board of freeholder last January, found that everything with the county government was wrong, took up the yugel in behalf of Jones and flooded the county with the last-minute attack upon Charles R. Stout, timed to be too late for a reply.

But the timing, like his judgment in some cases, was short, and a reply was printed and distributed in time to reach the voters before election. However, the voters of Burlington county were not so easily ballyhooed into removing from office a man of proven ability and worth to the county, by the mere circulation of a vicious last-minute attack.

Popularity Increased

Rather, the figures show an increased measure of confidence in Freeholder Stout, when the election figures of 1931 are compared with Tuesday's election. In 1931, with five opponents, Stout led the field with a plurality of but 767 votes over McCormick, his nearest competitor, while in 1934 with twelve candidates in the field, he shows a plurality of 4,525 votes over Jones his nearest competitor.

J. Horace Eaton, of Bordentown, candidate for state committeeman, gave George deB. Keim, incumbent, a fairly good run for his money. Eaton polled 6,469, while Keim polled 9,212.

The unique father and son battery of Alloway Sr. and Alloway Jr., could not silence the heavy bats of the Farmers who slammed out nineteen safe bingles. The Artisans themselves made eighteen hits, but they didn't count for as much.

Several nice stops were made during the game. Art Terrell, the State Teachers' College flash, made two of them at short. Swain of the A's snared one while running backwards (that is, he was running backwards, not the ball; can you imagine a ball running backwards?), and Hunter of the Artisans picked one out of the setting sun. There was a rumor around that the sun resented having a ball picked from it, but there is no foundation for it; we have known the sun for a great many years and have never known it to resent anything.

D. Oliver and J. Schaefer with five and four hits "respectfully" were at the head of the Apple-knockers, while Terrell, Wenger, Windhovel, and Taylor swatted off three good ones apiece for the Artisans.

MAY 8—
Bankers 15—YMCA 4

Behind terrific slugging and before screwy fielding, the Bankers (darn few of whom are Bankers) subdued the YMCA team, 15-4. On the Bankers' offensive Bill Enskat led with five hits, including two roundtrippers, the second with the bases saturated in the big sixth inning rally. Cahill, Carl Landgraf, and Bill Baker tied for the Y batting honors, each poking two legal hits.

The Y fielding, as you probably deduced from our "lead," left much to be desired; one of the most needed things is somebody less statuette on the hot corner. The Bankers' catching, presided over by Rocky Bonatelli, while not brilliant, was picturesque. In the sixth inning, pursuing one of Hubbs's wild ones (Wild? This one was positively uncivilized!) he tried to walk sideways up the backstop and in so doing caused one of the spectators standing behind it to topple over backwards. Bankers 042 107 100—15 22 4

Athletics 17—Tak-Abost 7

The Athletics tonight defeated the Tak-Abost by 17 to 7, the Tak-Abost taking the boost as gracefully as possible under the circumstances. F. Schaefer, Phelan and D. Oliver smote four safe blows apiece for the Farmers, while Cooper did three for the Tak-Abost. A note on the edge of the score-book says that Flag stole two bases and caught eleven flies, and that Kessler did good work in the field.

SOCIETY EDITOR "COVERS" COUNCIL

Enjoys Experience of Reporting
Doings of Borough Fathers
at Monthly Session

(By the Society Editor)

(Note: The editor was tied up at the office with some election stuff, and the advertising manager had a "heavy date," so it befell the lot of the society editor to "cover" the council story. It's a little out of my line, but I'll do my best, and if there are any errors of commission or omission, I hope the Borough Fathers and our readers as well, will be lenient in their judgment.—M.B.)

After the meeting had been called to order by Mayor J. Elmer Hahn (he's very particular about the initials) the treasurer's report was read, accepted and spread upon the minutes as was the report of the finance committee.

The finance report was read by the chairman, who was not sure they could pay all the bills, so the Mayor just told him to hold up on something until some money came in.

John Stroblein, new member to fill the unexpired term, and chairman of the borough property committee, felt very deeply about the damage which has been done at the Park.

Baseball benches stolen, new grass torn up, flag pole cord cut down and other things which do not help the appearance of Riverton's show place.

Councilman Merrill was very sympathetic and said that was most disheartening, but that there was nothing that could be done about it.

C. Kenneth Davis, borough collector, who was sitting beside the S.E., said that the kids had even come in his backyard and cut down his aerial from a 40 foot pole. Some nerve.

Requests Ignored

The local paper came in for a left-handed compliment when Mayor Hahn suggested that an appeal to the boys' good nature be put in the local paper, and Officer William Gootee said that this had been done several weeks ago, and more complaints had come in than ever before.

At this point Acting Captain William Gootee said he had found out who five of the boys were and had written letters to their parents. Two of the family heads were very glad to know that their young hopefuls were out of bounds but the other three said that their little "Willie" boys wouldn't do such a thing.

A communication was read from Miss Maxine Meitzner, former playground instructor, saying that she was very sorry that owing to press of business she was not able to accept the position again this summer. She made several suggestions as to girls who might fill her place, but Mayor Hahn said that we should use home talent, and suggested Miss Grace Sippel, who trained in the same school as Miss Meitzner, and would probably carry out the work along the same lines.

The building committee reported one permit issued, for tearing out partitions in Roberts Hall to the extent of $500 to $700.

Mayor Hahn then appointed a committee to work with the committee appointed by the Riverton Town Meeting to see what could be done about improving the Fourth of July celebration. The committee is as follows: John Stroblein, chairman, Melvaine Biddle and E. K. Merrill.

A letter of resignation from the former amiable Director of Public Safety, Edward R. Williams, stating that owing to the press of business he must give it his whole attention. He further stated that he had enjoyed serving his fellow townsmen and appreciated working with such a splendid group of men.

Mayor Hahn instructed the clerk to write Mr. Williams accepting his resignation with regret.

The question of unsightly properties came up and Recorder Cecil A.

VISITORS ENJOY SPRING MUSICAL

Treated to Musical Program
By Boys and Girls

Friday of last week, several PTA members, who had heard of the event, visited the school, where a joint spring musical was presented by pupils from both schools.

After the performers and visitors had been seated, the Primary Band marched in, playing as it came, assisted by the piano.

Mounting the stage in perfect rhythm, they took their places and rendered three selections, "Returning Spring," "March Militaire," "Le Secret," and also sang a cheerful little song.

The third and fourth grades sang "Morning Glory," "Robins Rain Song," and "The Woodpecker." From School Number Four, the lower grades sang "Spring Is a Lovely Season," "Mother," and a couple of encores, while the seventh and eighth grades from the same school, who have formed a glee club, sang a couple of spirituals, "Trouble Don't Last Away," and "Steal Away," ending with a "Morning Song." The PTA is asking these older singers to sing for the next meeting, on the twenty-third.

The play, "The Magic Fiddle," is to be given June first, and those who saw the "Magic Beanstalk" presented last year, will want to hear this, so keep the date in mind.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB CONCERT, MAY 21

Musical Club

The general invitation issued last week through the columns of this paper to a concert to be given by the Fellowship Choral Club in Christ Church Parish House, Riverton, Monday evening, May 21st, has already met with most flattering response. As the capacity of the auditorium is limited to 350, only that number of tickets-of-invitation have been issued, and all anxious to attend are urged to secure their tickets promptly to avoid possible disappointment. Apply to Nathan Lane, 305 Highway, Riverton, phone 105; or Ernest Woodcock, 739 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, phone 433.

The Fellowship Choral Club, under the directorship of Alfred S. VanOsten, has been most generous of its musical services on local organization programs during the past winter. The concert which is to be held Monday night marks the termination of its first full season's activity, during which brief time it has grown into a musically group of more than thirty voices.

Of the numbers to be presented by the men's group, two are perhaps most worthy of special mention, "Greeting to Spring" by Strauss, which appears third on the program, is an exceptionally fine arrangement of the composer's famous "Blue Danube Waltz," adhering closely to the original orchestral score. And "Walk Together Children," one of the two final numbers, is an entirely new transcription of a traditional negro melody arranged by Rosamund Johnson. It is a spiritual marching song of strongly marked rhythms and primitive emotional appeal.

Supporting the choral numbers, the executive committee of the Club is honored to present artists from the Curtis Institute of Music. Miss Jean Spitzer, violinist, began the study of her instrument at a very early age under prominent New York teachers. Four years ago she was accepted by the Curtis Institute to study under Madame Lea Luboshutz, well-known concert artist, since when she has frequently represented the Institute on programs in and around Philadelphia with marked success.

STOUT ROTARY GUEST SPEAKER

Director of Road Department
County Government

Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians listened to Freeholder Charles R. Stout talk about County Government at their Thursday meeting. This well-known public officer emphasized the highway program, started in Burlington county fourteen years ago, and now brought to a state of completion that, each year, attracts many highway engineers from all parts of the country. The general excellence of the roads, plus their extremely low maintenance and improvement cost (6c per square yard) makes them noteworthy. This figure includes resurfacing, modified penetration construction, surface treatment, patching, construction of shoulders, drainage, ditching, snow removal, warning and direction signs, and other incidentals.

Mr. Stout further explained Burlington County's "pay as you go" plan, which makes the tax rate higher than in some other counties, but keeps the total indebtedness well down. He closed his remarks with the observation that there must be some new method provided for equalizing taxes so that real estate no longer bears the majority of the burden.

Burlington county, said Mr. Stout, is the largest county in the state, and situated so that all north and south traffic must pass through it. This fact made the need for good roads imperative, particularly because the seashore travel is unusually heavy. Slowly, over a decade and a half, wide highways have been constructed, and hazards removed, an efficient force of men trained, and modern equipment purchased. Stone-asphalt roads were built at $20,000.00 per mile, as contrasted with $60,000.00 per mile for reinforced concrete. Maintenance costs are higher, but at that, far below what the interest charges would have been on the bonds necessary to finance concrete construction. In five or six years the county will be debt free because of this far-sighted plan.

Mr. Stout stressed the difficulty of serving in public office at the present time. He has been an official for many years, yet never before felt the strain as much. It now takes all the nerve and backbone a man has to weather the attacks upon his policies.

Following Mr. Stout's address, President-elect Hulise reported on the recent district convention in Philadelphia. He was particularly impressed with the talk made by Mr. Head, chairman of the International Committee of Rotary International. General Malone and Dean Carruthers of Lehigh University also gave worthwhile discussions about the N.R.A.

COLLINGSWOOD CHOIR TO SING

on "Personal Pentecost" Part
of Afternoon Program

Thirty beautiful voices blended in to sweet harmony of sacred music, will be the feature of the radio broadcast transmitted from Lakeview Memorial Park this Sunday afternoon over Station WCAM.

The program beginning at 3:00 p.m. will be given by the First Baptist Church Choir of Collingswood. Sacred music, composed of well-known hymns, will be sung by the choir of thirty voices and led by John McLees, choir organist.

The Rev. Eric A. Oesterle, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Collingswood, will address the radio audience on the subject of "Personal Pentecost."

The entire program will be re-broadcast from the Singing Tower on the park property, for the benefit of thousands who gather at the park weekly to feast their eyes upon the natural beauty of the park and enjoy an hour and a half of music.

The flowering spirea and lilacs bordering the beautiful lake are expected to be in full bloom this weekend, and will present a picture which mere words will be inadequate to describe. Flower beds are being planted throughout the park which will create a scene of vividly beautiful colors, artistically arranged, so that all summer flowering plants will bloom and enhance the natural beauty of the landscape.

Snow-white swans, leisurely floating upon the silvery surface of the lake, are a new addition to the park's whole scheme of beautification, and add a picturesque touch to the lake feature at the park.

Plan to visit Lakeview this Sunday, and, from the comfortable interior of your car, enjoy the program and the beauties of the most delightful spot of any Sunday tour in South Jersey.

STOUT GETS BIG VOTE IN COUNTY

Merrill and Sargent Defeated
Roberts and Bell in
Local Contest

Harold G. Hoffman, New Jersey's popular Motor Vehicle Commissioner and now Republican nominee for Governor, outdistanced his three opponents with a state majority of 23,699. His plurality over his nearest opponent State Senator Emerson L. Richards exceeded 13,500 votes in Burlington county.

The state returns which turn him his nearest opponent was Judge Robert Carey, of Jersey City, who polled 96,035 against Hoffman's 249,945.

Hamilton F. Kean for the United States Senate walked away to an easy victory over James G. Blauvelt on the county ticket with a majority of 8,694 votes. Kean will oppose Governor A. Harry Moore the unopposed Democratic nominee at the general election in the fall.

D. Lane Powers, Congressman from the Fourth District, defeated his Republican opponent Benjamin Cieroski by an eight-to-one majority in Burlington county.

County Officers

Dr. Joseph W. Bowley, Burlington chiropractor, was unable to dislocate Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, in the "battle of doctors" for member of the General Assembly, however, he did surprise the dopesters by clipping 7,000 out of Newcomb's usual 17,000. The actual count was Bowley 7,163 and Newcomb 11,342.

Lawrence G. Mingling, present county clerk, easily took the Republican nomination to succeed himself over his opponent J. Lloyd Wright. This popular county official polled 13,262 votes while Wright polled 4,998.

The freeholder race, decorated with a line-up similar to a football game, looked like anybody's fight previous to election. Campaign speeches, dogfights, folders, circulars, corner gossip and other campaign methods were put to use. The freeholder line-up dominated the whole ballot for space, as well as interest in the election.

Stout's Large Majority

Freeholder Charles R. Stout, running to succeed himself, led the ticket with a huge plurality over his nearest opponent, Albert C. Jones, of Mount Holly. The actual count was Stout 9,257, while Jones polled but 4,732 to lead the other ten "also rans."

Freeholder Palmer L. Adams, who at his first sitting with the board of freeholder last January, found that everything with the county government was wrong, took up the cudgel in behalf of Jones and flooded the county with the last-minute attack upon Charles R. Stout, timed to be too late for a reply.

But the timing, like his judgment in some cases, was short, and a reply was printed and distributed in time to reach the voters before election. However, the voters of Burlington county were not so easily ballyhoed into removing from office a man of proven ability and worth to the county, by the mere circulation of a vicious last-minute attack.

Popularity Increased

Rather, the figures show an increased measure of confidence in Freeholder Stout, when the election figures of 1931 are compared with Tuesday's election. In 1931, with five opponents, Stout led the field with a plurality of but 767 votes over McCormick, his nearest competitor, while in 1934 with twelve candidates in the field, he shows a plurality of 4,525 votes over Jones his nearest competitor.

J. Horace Eaton, of Bordentown, candidate for state committeeman, gave George deB. Keim, incumbent, a fairly good run for his money. Eaton polled 6,469, while Keim polled 9,212.

EXHIBITION TENNIS AT "HOME" FETE

Four National Net Stars Will Appear at Moorestown F. C. May 19th

Plans are now complete for the Cinnaminson fete and exhibition tennis which is scheduled for this Saturday, May 19th, at the Moorestown Field Club.

Tennis fans eagerly await the opportunity to see for the first time in this territory such national stars as Manuel Alonso, Clifford Sutter, Marion Zinderstein Jessup and Anne B. Townsend. The grass courts are being worked into tournament form, and grand stands will be erected to comfortably take care of spectators. Cars may be parked within the grounds.

While the matches, which begin at 3 p.m. are in progress, there will be amusements for the children. Pony rides, movies, whoop-la, and other games will be available. In fact, all arrangements have been made to interest all ages from the beginning of the match to the end of the day.

For years the best cooks of the vicinity have sent delicious candy, cakes and delicatessen to be sold at the fete. Home-made cottage cheese, cinnamon bun and nut bread tempt the eye. The supper will be served on the lawn, with hostesses drawn from the whole county presiding.

From Beverly, Mrs. Franklin W. Thacher and Mrs. George Walter Holloway will welcome the guests from their vicinity. Mrs. Clarence W. Rodman, Mrs. Percy A. Ransome, Mrs. Bradford Stetson, Mrs. Charles Carpenter will preside over the Riverton tables, while Mrs. W. R. Dunn will represent Palmyra. Mrs. Carlton Ebb, of Haddonfield, and Mrs. Ray Jost, of Mount Holly, will serve from those towns. The Moorestown hostesses will include Mrs. Thomas W. Elkinton, Mrs. B. Kendall Archer, Mrs. Louis F. Paret, Mrs. F. T. Adams and Mrs. James M. Stokes.

A new feature this year will be the floor show in connection with the dance which always concludes the day's program. This year under the direction of Miss Marion S. Biddle and a committee of twelve of the younger set of the county, many innovations have been planned. At 9:30 and again at 11:00 Carola Cyarvide will be featured in a floor show. A dancer of Spanish ancestry, Miss Cyarvide, will also give some rare depictions of character. A five-piece orchestra will play during the evening.

With the blossoms in full flower, the farms freshly ploughed, and dogwood and shrubs bursting into bloom, South Jersey should be at its best on May 19th.

CERTIFICATES

RIVERTON PTA TO ELECT OFFICERS

The regular meeting and election of officers of the Riverton Parent-Teacher Association will be held Monday, May 21st, at 3 o'clock in the auditorium.

As this is the last meeting of the year, no doubt many members will make special effort to turn out.

OLD RECORDS SEND SCOUTS TO CAMP

Troop Members Will Collect Victrola Records and Sell Them to R. C. A. Victor Co.

Housecleaning time in Burlington county finds the Boy Scouts alert to a new form of revenue for their summer camping "hope chests." The R. C. A. Victor Company has made it possible for a number of Scouts to raise funds for their annual stay at Camp Mahalala who would otherwise be denied that high spot in the year's activities.

Among the executives of the R. C. A. Victor organization are a number who are interested in Scout activities, and between them they developed a source of revenue for the boys, through collection of old Victor records in each community. Each such record, even the broken one, when returned by a Scout troop, has a redemption value of two cents.

In nearly every garret and cellar there may be found a pile of discarded records, and the housecleaning season is an ideal time, the boys find, to secure them from housewives who are glad to be rid of such accumulations. They must, however, bear the Victor label and be cleared through the troop organization.

Probably few people know that the record industry made a composition of clay, shellac and gums, with a lint binder and colored with lamp black. Fewer still know that the R.C.A. Victor Company exports thousands and thousands of pounds of the record material to all parts of the world in the form of "blanks," from which, for instance, Japanese or Brazilian records are fabricated.

The shellac in the old records is extracted and the price allowed the Scouts for them is just about the value of the raw material redeemed. When you buy new records, therefore, you will remember that you pay for the artist, the copyright, the recording and the royalty, rather than the little disc of clay and lamp black.

And when the Burlington County housewife runs across that discarded pile of Victor Records in her housecleaning this spring, if she will lay them aside it won't be long before some hopeful lad will be asking for them. To her they are only old records, but to him they are a trip to camp.

"PLAY DAY" AT PARK THURSDAY

"Play Day," to be observed by the Riverton school and Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday, May 24th, at Memorial Park, will be the final event of the school year.

The children are presenting a historical pageant "Our Country" in which each child will have a part. As usual, the P.T.A. have arranged to serve a picnic supper at modest prices. Good things to eat such as home-made cakes, potato salad, sandwiches, "hot dogs," ice cream, coffee and candy will be on sale.

POPPY CONTEST POSTER DISPLAY

Contestants Will Exhibit Their Entries at Legion Home Saturday Night

The poppy poster contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary has been closed, and plans have been completed to have these posters on display in the Legion Home on Saturday evening, May 19th. The public is most cordially invited to visit the Legion Home that evening and see what splendid work has been done by the pupils in the schools of the two towns. There will be an award for the winning poster from the grammar and parochial schools and the high school.

Awards will be presented at the commencement exercises of the schools, as was done last year.

AUXILIARIES TO VISIT PALMYRA

American Legion Auxiliary to Entertain Auxiliaries of Burlington County, May 18th

Plans have been completed by Unit No. 156 for entertaining the Auxiliaries of Burlington county in the Legion Home on Friday evening, May 18th. All members are urged to make a special effort to attend this county meeting as it is the most important one of the year inasmuch as the nomination and election of county officers will take place.

Members of the local Unit are especially urged to attend and welcome our guests. It is hoped to be able to start the meeting at 8 p.m. sharp. Won't you help by being on time?

FLOWER MART

The second annual Flower Mart, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Palmyra and Riverton Y.M.C.A., will be held on the "Y" grounds, Broad street and Garfield avenue, Saturday, May 26th, beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing throughout the day and evening.

It is, to a large extent, the support given by the townspeople to this Mart of the Auxiliary that enables it to do so much in advancing the useful work of the "Y." Mark this date on your calendar and watch for further announcements of particulars.

APPRECIATION

POPPY SALE TO AID VETERANS

Annual Poppy Memorial by the American Legion and Auxiliary, May 18 and 19

The American Legion and Auxiliary have completed plans for the annual Memorial to the World War dead which will be held this year on Friday evening, May 18th and Saturday, May 19th. The mayor has designated these dates for this purpose and it is the hope of these organizations sponsoring this Memorial that all citizens of the two towns will do their very best in giving of their support. When you are asked to give a donation for the little red poppy which the Legionnaires and the members of the Auxiliary will have for sale, will you not remember that it is for a most worthy cause? Every penny taken in from the sale of these little red poppies is used for the rehabilitation and child welfare work by the Legion and Auxiliary. This work increases each year, as more and more veterans and families need assistance, and the rehabilitation fund depends upon the generosity of interested persons and citizens for its replenishment.

The fire siren will blow at seven o'clock on Friday evening, May 18, at which time Legionnaires will leave the Legion Home and visit every home in Palmyra and Riverton. Mr. and Mrs. Citizen, won't you make your donation as generous as possible when they call upon you? Do not say that you have one from last year. Take a new poppy and renew your support of such a splendid cause. Remember not only those who never came home—but those who continue to pay every day for their sacrifice of home, friends, loved ones, prosperity, health—everything that a man holds dear. They need your help now more than ever before. The little red poppy offered you is made by a veteran in a hospital—the veterans who are able to do so, make a few pennies in this manner, as they are paid for every one they make. And, it does do a man's heart good to be able to feel that he is earning even a penny.

Remember the message of this little red poppy—"BUY ME—WEAR ME." In this way, you can pay your tribute to the ones who gave their all.

MEN'S CLUB

The regular meeting of the Palmyra and Riverton Men's Club will be held on Monday evening, May 28th. Ross B. Davis, chief of the Philadelphia fire department, will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Davis will tell of methods of fighting fires and ways of preventing them. We have invited the firemen from the Independent Fire Co., Riverton Fire Co., and Parry Fire Co. to be our guests for that evening, and we hope a large number of men will come out to hear this unusual address.

John B. Mickle, Cor. Sec. these days.

Whitsunday, one of the three great festivals of the church year, finds the rebuilding of the organ at Christ Church, Riverton, virtually completed. With the juxtaposition of the great feast and the completion of the organ, there will be a special musical setting of Holy Communion at the eleven o'clock service. The rector will preach on "The Meaning of Whitsunday in Our Lives."

The organ will be rededicated on Trinity Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock, at which time there will be an organ recital and special music by the choir. Full details of the service and of the new organ will be given in next week's issue.

I desire to thank my friends in Riverton who gave me such a handsome vote on Tuesday.

YMCA STAMP CLUB of Palmyra and Riverton

The first exhibition of the Palmyra Junior Stamp Club was held last Tuesday night at the Y building. The judge, Mr. Haley, a well-known Palmyra stamp collector, awarded the first prize to Robert Cooper, who chose a set of beautiful Persian Airmail stamps as the prize. Second prize went to Edgar Schopp who received a packet of Greek stamps. These prizes were donated to the club by Mr. Haley. He is here publicly thanked. A third prize went to President Granville Dare.

At this meeting, instead of the leader proposing the questions in the contest as heretofore, each boy present put a question. This contest was won by Bob Haley, his prize was a Braddock first day cover. Second prize was another first day cover, won by Granville Dare. Melvin Cooper and Edgar Schopp tied for third place in this contest and were each awarded a small prize.

The club welcomed a few new members at this meeting: Melvin Cooper, Bob and Frank Haley, and Robert Bishop. Robert Cooper was elected auctioneer in place of the former one who has not been coming to meetings.

At the next meeting, Tuesday evening May 22, at 7.30 at the Y building, Broad and Garfield, the club will hold an auction. All young collectors are invited. There are no dues of any kind, but it is suggested that you bring a few pennies for the auction.

The Y.M.C.A. Stamp Club, at its last meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, C. R. Beegle; vice president, C. P. Mayfield; secretary-treasurer, Frank Haley; sales manager, Joseph J. Siddall and assistant sales manager, H. F. Johnston.

It is planned that the meetings hereafter will be pointed more directly toward the interests of adult collectors, although junior members will be welcome at all times. The juniors are already holding separate meetings under competent leadership.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 20.

The Golden Text is: "As we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly." (1 Corinthians 15:49).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Colossians 3:1,2).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Covers" Council

Bowers stated that he had a copy of a new law (which he had left home) permitting the governing body to clean up the unsightly mess and charge it against the property to be paid with the taxes (which are not paid anyway, according to Collector Davis.)

CWA and Caterpillars

Another suggestion was made as to how CWA labor could be used by the borough to burn out the tent caterpillars which have infested vacant properties as well as occupied ones. Councilman Biddle said that to burn them out would ruin the trees, and that the tents should be opened and a teaspoonful of kerosene poured into it; then the caterpillars would fold up and die. How this idea would strike the workers is another problem.

At this point the governing body went into executive session, putting out the S.E., and as to what happened you guess is as good as mine.

BY T. O. M.

T.O.M., in his wanderings around this vicinity, has come across some more s.w. fans other than those mentioned in last week's column. Benjamin Jacobs, of East Riverton, has been very successful in bringing in a.w. programs from abroad, in the past year, with a Seara-Roebeck all-wave set. He has received verifications from several foreign countries and is a member of the International Short-Wave League.

Stanley Carthy, with a Kolster s.w. receiver, has brought in South America as well as a goodly number of European stations.

Philip Mingle, some time ago built a s.w. converter for his Brunswick broadcast band receiver, with which he did some very successful DX-ing. Grude Goodenow is the proud possessor of a National SW5, which he re-wired for electron coupling, with new type tubes. He has, with the aid of this set, virtually traveled around the world. After he settles in his new home, Grude promises very interesting reports which will be used in collaboration with this column.

Schillinger, Palmyra's satisfier of the "sweet tooth," built himself a s.w. receiver with which he has had interesting reception.

George Bornet, of Second street, Riverton, constructed a s.w. receiver with parts and diagrams from M and H, which he praises very highly. He compares this set to the "Magic Carpet."

William Washington, of Main street, takes great pleasure in fishing for hair-raising police reports. It is said that the reason is that he dislikes curly hair.

El Hoepner, referred to in this column last week, is still quite active in 5 meter "ham" transmission and reception.

Bill Cook, if he would be satisfied to leave a set together for five minutes, could give T.O.M. some extremely interesting DX reports.

Maynard Bowen, one of the younger s.w. devotees, has also had some interesting reception on the amateur bands with an Atwater Kent long and short-wave set.

T.O.M. has found that in the past few years best s.w. reception can be had in the spring and fall months. Another element entering into successful s.w. DX-ing is the time of day you wish to receive the stations. The successful amateur DX'er will calibrate his dials so as to be better able to judge where to listen for the station he wishes to hear. Another factor concerning s.w. reception is knowledge of call letters of different countries. These call letters are assigned by the International Conference. A list of these call letters follows:

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

Play Day Pageant

"My Country," a pageant, will be given by the pupils of the Riverton Public School for Field Day on May 24th at six o'clock at Memorial Park. Groups of children will represent scenes in the history of the country that they have studied. Before each episode there will be a short prologue written by pupils. George Devitt will take the part of "Father Time," who will show the dates of each section. The pageant will open by "The Landing of Columbus" which the children from the third and fourth grades portray.

In the second scene, Miss Evald, Miss Parker, and Miss Paulding are to have several incidents representing the "Coming of the Pilgrims." Mrs. Murgatroyd's room will do the "Virginia Reel" and the "Minuet" which will give an idea of the Colonial period. The thirteen states will be shown by them, also.

International dances will be given by Mrs. Williams' and Mrs. Bush's rooms and the upper grade girls. These will illustrate the "Growth of the Century." The fifth episode will be the story of the "Strife Within the Country," which will be acted by some of the children of seventh and eighth grades.

The pupils of Mr. Sloan's room will express their ideas on the "Growth of Civilization," by giving symbols showing progress in manufacturing, commerce, education, science, music and sculpture.

In the seventh episode, Miss Lippincott's room will portray "Humanity Calls." Each nation will enter pleading her cause to Uncle Sam to come to their aid.

Peace among the nations will be illustrated by a ball and scarf dance, and a balloon dance. These dances show the happiness throughout the country when the armistice was signed.

The whole school joins together in the last scene entitled, "We Must Carry On."

THE ROCKERY

No matter how small nor how elaborately contrived is a most charming and interesting adjunct of the home grounds.
Informality lends to loveliness in the construction of such a

MAY 10—
Chevys 17—Wesleysans 7
Dreers 20—Artisans 10
These are the scores of this night's games. The scorekeeper stayed home so he wouldn't get wet and warp in the rain; hence, no official score was kept; nevertheless, the scores were so decisive that no disputes dare arise. The only information available is that they played the first five innings in the rain and that Hyton threw 'em up for the Chevys.

Bankers 14—Chevys 13
The Pal-River Chevys tonight went down to their first defeat in a long time, bowing to the Bankers in the late innings, 14-13. The Chevys missed a point after touchdown. Without a doubt, it was the best ball game of the year, so far, being full of tense moments and all that. In the end, the teams folded their tents like the Arabs and silently stole home.

Not for a long, long time has Ike Hyton been pounded around the way he was tonight. Whether he was tired from his work last night in the rain, or not, we don't know, but he certainly was pounded. Hubbs, Sr., and King of the Bankers each knocked four hits off his deliveries, Enskat, Eiseley, and Bennett garnering three each. The twenty-two hits made by each team were distributed throughout both batting orders. On the Chev side, the road, Duck Spear, Daly, Yearly, Brouse, and Pat Steedle paddled three juicy ones apiece.

Clay Weikman, shortstopping for the Bankers did some clever fielding work at his position. Vince Daly, supposedly playing first for the Chevys, not only played that base, but covered second and home several times to the guardians of those sacks wandered afield in search of four-leaf clovers, or something.

MAY 14—
Bankers 6—Wesleysans 2
The Bankers tonight became inflated, what with our inflated currency, and defeated the lackadaisical Wesleysans by a score of six to two. The most colossal thing about the game was that Clay Weikman made four of the Bankers' sixteen hits; this should give him grounds for asking for a raise in salary. The most potent slugger on the sluggish Wesleysans' was Bill Kersey who poked two baseballs out of his team's total of nine.

MAY 14—
Laundry 17—K. of C. 4
With lots of heavy artillery the Riverton Laundry team defeated the Knights of Cloumbus by seventeen runs to four. The Laundry's biggest inning was the second when they crossed the platter seven times. Many thanks to the scorekeeper who kept track of things and stuff.

League President Conway says that the management of the Palmyra movie will give a pass to every player hitting a home run in the playground league. We wonder a bit if the management would also give a pass to this reporter for each free plug we give their movie? (The address is 711 Lincoln.

MAY 16—
Firemen 12—Tak-Aboust 3
The Firemen easily counced the Tak-Aboust team tonight, defeating them 12 to 2. Three hits each were made by Lockowitz, Buts Carhart and Sherman (Gootee) of the Firemen, whereas Reynolds and B. Hubbs smote two baseblows each for the losing Tak-Aboust.

Two nice one-handed stops were made by Perkins and Kessler. President Conway asks that all managers be reminded that their complete list of fifteen players must be in by June first.

MAY 16—
YMCA 13—Athletics 8
Coming from behind with the aid of a heroic grand slam from the bat of pitcher and manager Dick Woodward, the YMCA team won their first decision of the season at the expense of the hay-shaking Athletics from Cinnaminson, the final score being 13-8. Up till that colossal six inning rally, the Y had been trailing, but then with three men on base, Woodward loomed this one over for a home run (free movie ticket for Dick). Before the inning was finished Buchholz had also crashed for the circuit with Baker aboard. After this stanza the Y was never in danger.

The Y team clicked better than ever, but there is still room for improvement. Notable among the improvements was Walt Beddow, who did a much better job of left gardening than he ever did at third base. Some clever base running was displayed by Al Stocker in the eighth inning when the Athletics went to sleep with the ball. Al stole home.

Baker, Buchholz, Beddow and Landgraf had two hits apiece for the Y and Williams, Lynch, Plagg and F. Schaefer had three each for the Athletics.

BRIDGE BONDS
FOR $225,000

Board to Issue Six-year Bonds to Finance Riverside-Delanco Bridge

In order to finance the construction of the bridge over the Rancocas Creek between Riverside and Delanco, William H. Heisler, director of the Board of Freeholders and head of the department of finance, offered the resolution at the meeting of the board last Friday that six-year bonds for $225,000, in denominations of $1,000 each be issued.

The resolution was adopted with Freeholder Adams voting in the negative. These bonds will mature in 1940 at which time, according to present calculations, the other bonded indebtedness of the county will be paid off, and these temporary bonds will then be refinanced for a longer period.

The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 5 1/2% and will be purchased at par by H. Boland and Company, of New York City.

Louis J. Kaser, county superintendent of schools, reported the drinking fountain in the county building, occupied by his own and other county departments, to be in need of repairs. The matter was referred to Freeholder Adams, director of public buildings.

In reply to a question asked at a previous meeting, Hon. Harold B. Wells, solicitor for the board, rendered an opinion that since there was nothing in the law creating the office to prohibit it, the board could pay the expenses of the county fire marshal, providing there were sufficient funds in the budget to cover this item.

At the last meeting of the board a delegation representing firemen's associations in the county, appeared before the board stating that the $500 salary of William Smith, of Bridgeboro, county fire marshal, was not sufficient to cover the operation of his automobile, the purchase of stationery and other necessary expenditures.

S. B. Lippincott and Sons addressed a letter to the board inquiring about their bid for shingles for the roof of the hospital for the insane at New Lisbon, stating that they had not been advised as to whether or not their bid had been accepted and that the check accompanying the bid had not been returned. Director Heister asked Freeholder Adams, director of public buildings, what he had to say in the matter. Mr. Adams replied that since it was uncertain whether or not CWA labor could be secured to place the shingles, as had been anticipated, he recommended that they be bought in units as needed, if the Lippincott folks would agree to supply them in this way at the price quoted for delivery of the total order at one time.

Department bills were ordered paid as follows: finance, $469.39; $14,372.34; bridges, $2,294.56; buildings, $10,523.49; affairs, $16,550.46, totalling, $44,210.24.

PARRY CUBS VS. FOREST HILL

The Parry Cubs nosed out the Forest Hill aggregation Sunday. Both sides gave exhibitions of fine pitching and Spector held the Parry batsmen to four hits, while Higgins held the visitors to five hits. Higgins was in good form, striking out seventeen opposing batsmen. Natal and L. Kaufman stood out at bat for the visitors, each connecting for two hits, one of Kaufman's being a circuit clout in the sixth.

Williams, of the Cubs, connected for two timely singles which helped the score. Higgins' long fly to right in the eighth with Williams on third accounted for the winning run.

A big celebration of Memorial Day, sponsored by Post Frederick
M. Rodgers No. 156, American Legion, has been planned, starting at two o'clock, when a big parade leaves the fire house in Riverton, with Palmer L. Adams as parade marshal.

Those who have been invited to participate in the parade with the Legionnaires are: the school children of the Riverton public school, the children of the Sacred Heart parochial school and the children of the Palmyra public schools, and the Columbus Grotto Corps of the local
K. of C. organization.

Appropriately enough, Oscar Harroun, Civil War veteran, of Riverton, will occupy a place of honor in the parade, and with him is expected to be Nathan Adams, another Civil War veteran who resides in the rural district in Cinnaminson township.

Spanish-American War veterans, too, have been invited to occupy a place of honor in the parade formation.

The Post Drum and Bugle Corps and the Palmyra High School band will furnish the music for the marchers.

The fire companies of both Riv-erton and Palmyra in their natty blue uniforms will make up a unit of the parade, and the police departments of both towns have been invited to participate.

Mayors to Speak
Mayor J. Elmer Hahn, of Riv-erton, and Mayor Walter D. Lamon, of Palmyra, together with borough officials from both towns will add their official presence to the parade, and make short addresses.

The Riverton troops of boy and girl scouts, the boy and girl scouts from Palmyra and Parry, Washington Camp No. 23, P. O. S. of A. have been invited to participate in the day's program.

The members of the boards of education in both Riverton and Palmyra have also been invited.

Special cars will be available for the gold star mothers, fathers or next of kin of the deceased World War heroes, as well as widows of
G. A. R. veterans.

All Invited
The committee of Legion men appointed by Post Commander Charles H. Yost, with Legionnaire Palmer
Adams as chairman, met last Wednesday evening, May 16, to complete plans for Memorial Day. It was the desire of the committee to arrange a program that would be simple yet impressive, and at the same time permit all who wished to do so, to join with the Post in the observance of this day. The program will be confined to Riverton and Palmyra as usual.

This announcement is made due to rumors which resulted from an invitation received from the management of Lakeview Memorial Park, that a portion of the program be conducted at that site. The committee, in discussing this invitation, reasoned that the children, who are naturally interested in the program, and whom the Post wishes to take a most active part, could not be properly transported to the Lakeview site, and that an extension of the local program would materially affect some portion of the ceremonies. It is with regret that the committee finds it necessary to decline this invitation to conduct services

WINNERS IN POPPY POSTER CONTEST

Posters Judged at Legion Home, Palmyra, Saturday Evening, May 19th

The "poppy poster" display in the Legion Home last Saturday evening sponsored by Unit 156, American Legion Auxiliary, attracted many interested visitors. There were approximately four dozen posters submitted for display.

The originality of the posters was in itself, most astonishing. One poster in particular, though not a winner, deserves special mention for its originality. This poster, "The Charge of the Poppy Brigade," submitted by John Conlow of the sixth grade Parochial school, represented a brigade of pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, half dollars and dollars, led by a bright red poppy, driving out three huge bugs—poverty, sickness and hunger. The thought behind this idea was indeed notable.

The judges, Ralph A. Fisher and Nelson Ross, were indeed "out to it" to make their decisions. In the case of the grammar school entries, there was a tie for first place and it was, therefore, decided that an equal award should be given each of these students. The judges then announced the winners:

Palmyra Grammar School—Comly Randall, seventh grade.

Riverton Grammar School—Mildred Cook, seventh grade.

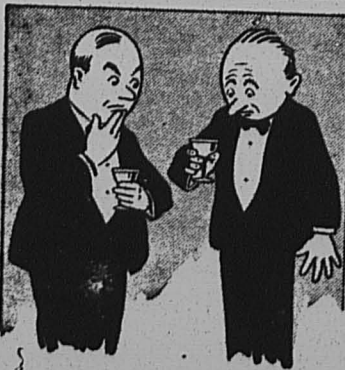

Palmyra High School—Rose Giampolo, of Palmyra, who won the high school prize last year.

Honorable Mention—Bessie Hulings and George Mattis of the Riverton grammar school, Virginia Schweizer and John Faunce of the Palmyra high school.

The winning posters will be taken to the contest to be conducted by the Burlington County American Legion Auxiliary in Burlington on June 6th, 3 p.m., at the armory. If one of these posters wins the county award, it will be entered in the state contest to be held at the time of the department convention in Belmar.

The posters were judged as follows:

- (1) Force with which poster drives home the message of the veteran-made poppy, 40 points.
- (2) Artistic ability, 20 points.
- (3) Attention value, 20 points.
- (4) Neatness, 10 points.
- (5) Originality, 10 points.

VICTOR RECORDS TO HELP SCOUTS

The people of Palmyra are asked to donate their old Victor Records to the Scouts of Palmyra and Riverton, who are collecting them with the idea of adding to their camp fund so that all the boys desiring to attend camp may be enabled to do so.

It is planned to have a collection to cover the two towns next Saturday morning. Starting at 9:30 a.m. the boys will assemble at their troop headquarters and be assigned to a territory to cover.

The residents are asked to cooperate by having any records they might wish to give ready when the collectors arrive.

By a special arrangement with the RCA-Victor Company these records will then be turned in as scrap material and the troops' camp fund materially increased by the money resulting from this effort.

POPPY MEMORIAM

The American Legion and Auxiliary held their annual Poppy Memorial last Friday evening and all day Saturday, and while all returns have not been received from the members, to date the organizations feel that it is most successful, considering the times through which the two towns have passed during the past season. To all who contributed to this most worthy cause, the American Legion and Auxiliary extend their most sincere thanks and appreciation.

LADIES' AUXILIARY HOLDS LUNCHEON

Interesting Program and Attractive Menu Mark Popular Auxiliary Monthly Event

The luncheon of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Palmyra and Riverton YMCA last Thursday, May 17th, at the Baptist Church was attended by 65 members and friends.

The Rev. Mr. Lockett, pastor of the church, opened the meeting with prayer, followed by brief remarks by the representative of Mrs. Bradley's Advertising Luncheon Co., who furnished the delightful luncheon.

Wilton Mount, secretary of the local YMCA, gave the meeting the last minute news of Camp Ockanickon, outlining the plans of the camp for the summer.

Mrs. Charles Yost, president of the Auxiliary, introduced Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Boughton, and turned the program over to them. Mrs. Boughton sang three numbers which were beautifully interpreted by her excellent renditions: "Estralla," or "Little Star," sung in Spanish; "In a Luxembourg Garden," followed by an encore, "Shortnin' Bread."

Mr. Boughton gave a very inspiring and appropriate address, on the rearing of youth, in homely, everyday words that could not be misunderstood.

Mrs. Boughton brought the meeting to a close by singing the old favorite, "Mighty Like a Rose."

He had joined a golf club, and on his first round he hit the ball a mighty swipe which by some miracle landed it in the hole in one.

At the second tee came another miracle. Again he did the hole in one, and as the ball disappeared into the hole he turned round, white and trembling.

"Gosh!" he breathed. "I thought I'd missed it that time."—Judge.

Enlists at Fourteen

This was too much for the young patriot, whose red blood flowed 100 per cent American, and while he knew little of the real reason for the war, the grave concern expressed by his grandfather made Harroun decide upon a quick exit from home to take part in holding the Union together.

Harroun's service in the Union army carried him into parts of Tennessee, Kentucky, and North Carolina, where he engaged in many "warm" (as he termed them) conflicts.

In those days a soldier's equipment consisted of a muzzle-loading musket, knapsack and dog tag. The soldiers put up with many hardships, the greatest of which was the lack of proper food. Their main diet consisted of hard tack and "sow belly" (the side of old hogs, which Harroun described as most distasteful).

Out to Get the Bacon

One incident during his term of service which Harroun describes as "worse than all of the enemy bullets put together," was when a party of three Union soldiers sallied forth on a foraging trip in Southern territory.

The Union boys, desperate for food, came upon a farmhouse and enquired of the woman of the house if there was any food about. She informed the men that they didn't know where their next meal was coming from.

Harroun, who had spied a log smokehouse some little distance from the house, and believing that his nostrils caught the scent of meat, did a little private snooping. Once within the smokehouse Harroun discovered that it was packed with hams, bacon and shoulders of meat.

Locked in Smoke House

The farmer's wife, however, saw him enter the smoke house and running to the door she quickly shut it and snapped the padlock, with Harroun on the inside.

Harroun then found an opening near the top of the smokehouse and climbed up to the rafters and threw out enough hams for the three of them to carry.

But in so doing he had upset a nest of bees, and in a massed attack the bees set to work on the unwelcome intruder. Harroun shouted for aid from his companions and they, in order to save their comrade from a horrible death, upset the farmer's wife and took the key to the padlock away from her.

Harroun was released, but not until his hands and face were swollen to about twice their original size and his eyes closed tight.

The battle tactics in Civil War times were very different from those employed in the late war. Battle tactics were not so systematic as they are today.

War Then and Now

Asked about his thoughts of war as it is fought today, Harroun said that it is nothing short of wholesale murder. In the old days, he said, it was a face-to-face conflict with the man with the best eye and best hand-to-hand fighting ability coming out the winner. Today, with gas, machine guns, airplanes, long range artillery, etc., little of the individual ability element enters into the picture.

Harroun lost a part of his right foot from a gun wound, and his services in behalf of the North were brought to a close near the end of the War.

Asked about the possibility of future wars, Harroun replied, "It's like this, you're a country, and I'm a country, along comes the munition maker and sells you a box of bullets, then he comes to me and tells me that you have more bullets than I have. I buy more bullets and he goes to you and tells you I just bought some more bullets—and then you buy some more. This keeps up until we both have so many bullets we have to shoot them at each other."

World War for Money

Harroun believes that the men in the Civil War were fighting for their country, while the men in the World War were fighting to save the moneyed interests in Wall Street. He feels that the Allies were licked when America stepped into the fight, in order to protect our investment, and that there was no other course we could pursue, without losing our money.

Harroun, one of the few remaining veterans of the Civil War, has resided at 609 Cinnaminson street, Riverton, nearly three years. Although he has seen 85 years come and go and his eyesight is about expended, anyone who can catch him sunning himself on the front porch can be sure of an interesting half-hour with this warrior of the old school.

YOUTH SERVICE AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

The special Youth Service held a month ago in the First Lutheran Church was so successful that a similar service has been planned for next Sunday morning. As this is the Sunday before Memorial Day, the service will have a partly patriotic nature.

The following young people will take part in the service: the hymns will be announced by Bobby Stavelly; Frances Cook will lead in the Responsive Reading; the Scripture lesson will be read by Margaret Hobson; prayers will be offered by Edith Feldman, Margaret Farrell, James Wynkoop, and Lewis Franklin; and the ushers will be Earl Jensen, Edgar Schopp, Wesley Stavelly, and Fred Henzler.

A short sermon will be delivered by the pastor on the theme, "Heroes of the Past and of the Future."

There will also be special music by a young people's chorus. A special Young People's service will be held next Sunday morning, with all features except the sermon in the hands of the boys and girls. The message will be on the theme "Heroes of the Past and of the Future."

At the evening worship the series of studies in the prophet Elijah will be continued, with a sermon on "A Prophet of Righteousness." Light Brigade Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B. D., Pastor
At the 11 a.m. service this Sunday, Pastor Lockett will have as his subject "The New Birth." The choir will be special music by the senior choir, and the junior choir will sing the offertory. They agreeably surprised the congregation last Sunday by rendering a regular anthem, and it is their ambition to continue with this at every morning service. In the evening at 7:45 Frederick M. Rodgers, Post 156, American Legion, will make their annual visit. During the service, the Post will conduct their Ten o'clock Ritual, a memorial service to their departed buddies. The subject of the sermon will be "Memorial Day." The senior choir is arranging appropriate music for this service.

MORAVIAN CHURCH

Albert J. Harke, B. D., Pastor
Services observing the seventy-first anniversary of the organization of the Palmyra Moravian church will be held next Sunday, Dr. Paul de Schweinitz, of Bethlehem, Pa., will be the guest speaker. At 10:40 a.m. Festival service with the "Te Deum Laudamus." The choir will sing, "Sing Aloud and Rejoice," Adams. Dr. De Schweinitz will preach the anniversary sermon. At three in the afternoon the Anniversary Lovefeast. Other Moravian churches will be represented, and their pastors will bring greetings. Dr. De Schweinitz will give the address. The choir will sing, "O Be Joyful," Hughes, and "The Heavens Declare Thy Glory," Giff. At 5:30 p.m. a free lunch will be served by the ladies of the church to all remaining for the evening service.

Seven thirty in the evening. Closing service. Dr. De Schweinitz will speak on Moravian Missions. Visiting pastors will participate in the service. Choir anthem: "Blessing, Honor, Thanksgiving, and Power," Eichborn. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

From a small beginning of 19 communicant members on the day of organization, May 17, 1863, this country church has steadily grown to a membership of more than 200. It is one rural church of which it cannot be said that it is "dying."

The present pastor, the Rev. Albert J. Harke, has just completed nine years as pastor, during which time the congregation has steadily increased in membership, and the Sunday School has almost doubled in attendance.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 27.

The Golden Text is: "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Thessalonians 5:23).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called sons of God" (1 John 3:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal. The identity of the real man is not lost, but found through this explanation; for the conscious infinitude of existence and of all identity is thereby discerned and remains unchanged" (p. 302).

CHRIST CHURCH ORGAN REBUILT

Remodeled by Company Which Built It in 1916 from G. L. Ridley Specifications

The rebuilding of the organ in Christ Church, Riverton, is virtually completed and it is anticipated that the final voicing of the organ will be accomplished shortly. This will be under the personal supervision of Richard Whitelegg, of the M. P. Moeller Company.

Mr. Whitelegg was formerly associated with the Willis Company, of Liverpool, one of the most outstanding cathedral organ builders of England.

The contract for rebuilding the organ was given the original workers, M. P. Moeller, Inc., of Hagerstown, Maryland, and they have carefully maintained the unusually fine tonal quality and balance of the instrument.

Several changes were decided upon which have enhanced the beauty of tone, and the organ has been enlarged by the addition of a trumpet in the great organ.

This lovely red stop is of a very bright quality and adds great fire and brilliance to the full ensemble. The wind pressure has been increased by 3/4" affording greater volume potentiality and added brilliancy to all the reed stops.

A gem of unusual sweetness has replaced the clarinet in the great organ, providing an additional string tone in this division.

New tremolos have been placed in both the swell and great organ. A resultant bass has been obtained by wiring the Gedackt and Bourdon in fifths, giving a deep and heavy 32' tone in the pedal organ.

New windchests have been placed in the pedal organ, relieving the strain on the swell chests, which formerly fed the pedal chests, and distributing greater evenness of wind distribution, particularly desirable during grand crescendos.

The console of two manuals and pedals has been moved to the south side of the chancel, directly opposite the organ itself. This has been made possible through the electrification of the instrument, which has also greatly increased the speed of the action.

The old pedal keyboard of 30 notes has been replaced by a new 32 note keyboard to conform to the new standard of the American Guild of Organists.

In electrifying the action, no change was made in the extension of the console, as it was particularly desired to maintain the traditional ecclesiastical design as originally built. This simple, yet beautiful, construction is replacing the theatre type so prevalent in the console building of the last decade, and is of a type which all builders of church organs today are striving to attain.

The front pipes of the organ which are exposed to view have been restored to the natural metal, removal of the gilt with which they formerly were painted, and now present a very lovely contrast to brass of the church furnishings.

The general specifications of the organ which was built in 1916 by the M. P. Moeller Company are very largely the genius of the late George L. Ridley, for many years a loyal and devoted member of Christ Church Parish.

The splendid tonal quality and balance represent the experience of years of interested study and an un-

"FRESH AIRS" ARE COMING JULY 3rd

Riverton Hostesses to New York Children Preparing for Summer Visit

The outlook of a life in the tenements in a large city is not a very pleasant one.

Through the efforts of the New York Herald Tribune some of the dubiousness has been alleviated by a visit to the country for two weeks or longer for a number of children.

For several years Riverton has been a "Friendly Town," meaning that families here have embraced the opportunity to serve their fellowman by showing the children a little of the country fresh air and sunshine.

Mrs. Gardner Crowell has taken the chairmanship this year, and already has a number of families who would like to aid in this worthwhile project.

The time of arriving this year is July 3. The children stay for at least two weeks and longer if wanted.

The Tribune folks take full responsibility for any debts incurred by the child being taken sick, and for their transportation back home, if the child should become homesick or for any other reason should it be necessary for the return trip before the end of the two weeks.

A thorough physical examination is given each child before he or she is allowed to come.

The "foster" parents are allowed to select the sex and age of the child they want.

Here is an interesting item showing just how necessary it is for these children to be given this advantage.

"There are twelve in this poor family—ten children and the father and mother. They are living in four dingy rooms of a downtown tenement. They sleep together in two large beds placed in the two largest rooms, which are without windows."

"In the winter, this huddling together is necessary, for there is no heat. But in the sticky, stifling discomfort of the summer, it is well-nigh unbearable."

"So Andrew, who is 14, and Nick, who is 13, sleep in the cellar. It is cooler down there they have discovered. They lie on old sacks, and other materials soft enough for pillows on the cement floor, and that is their bed. The others, brothers and sisters younger than they, manage somehow through the hot nights in the congested apartment above."

These youngsters have not yet known a night of comfortable sleep, with pure air to breathe, and the bright promising sunshine of the early morning playing on their small faces.

One small boy who visited Riverton last year, when asked by his hostess what he would like to do, said that he would just like to roll and sit on the grass.

Those who would like to share in this "friendly" work may get in touch with Mrs. Gardner Crowell, Riverton 202.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB CLOSES SEASON

Invitation Concert in Christ Church Parish House Monday Night Largely Attended

The Fellowship Choral Club closed its first full season last Monday night with an invitation concert held in the Parish House of Christ Church, Riverton. Assisted by artists from the Curtis Institute of Music—Miss Jean Spitzer, violinist, and Eugene Helmer, pianist—the members of the choral group gave an evening of unusually fine musical entertainment to their friends, of whom some 375 packed the main floor of the auditorium.

The importance of Monday night's performance, however, excellent as it was, does not begin or end with Monday night. Its beginnings go back months into the past, when a very small group of men decided to create for themselves and as many others as shared their ideals, a recreational project in tune with the then economically depressed times that would have all the elements essential for growth and permanence. The end—which is now well on the road to realization—is an established choral organization permanently entrenched in the social and cultural life of our community.

Monday night's performance was outstanding for the precision and fine musicianship feeling which characterized it throughout. The program had been built with a nice regard to the widely varying musical tastes represented in any audience. The direction was spirited, sensitive and intelligent; never intrusive; the choral tone amazingly flexible and expressive considering the comparatively small number of singers and the ambitious character of some of the numbers. Lee Milton, accompanist, at all times gave chorus and director exactly what each required.

The Fellowship is especially to be congratulated on the calibre of guest artists presented Monday night. Miss Jean Spitzer, violinist, played with a brilliance, a perfection of technique and nicety of feeling that held the audience literally spellbound. Eugene Helmer's piano numbers were most enthusiastically received, and his work as accompanist for Miss Spitzer was more than usually fine.

The Fellowship Choral Club will soon disband for the summer months. When rehearsals begin in the autumn, plans for the season's activities will already have been laid by the executive board. No saner, sounder hope for the organization's future could be expressed than that it may continue to develop along the lines indicated by its first season.

"SO IT SEEMS"

By Alfred Biggs

A Weekly Review of the World's News—spiced with a few personal opinions

Capital Must Yield
The gap between capital and labor, over which the Government has attempted to construct a bridge of compromise, is widening. Throughout the country strikes and impending strikes are the order of the day. The great corporations which control our industrial destiny are openly or covertly opposed to the principle of collective bargaining. Labor, on the other hand, is getting tired of compromise and is becoming more insistent that the big employers recognize their unions. In the steel industry alone over 200,000 organized workers threaten to strike in June unless their demands are acceded to. Capital in the end, will have to yield or face the prospect of bringing the country into a condition verging upon anarchy.

Labor Needs Statesmanship
It is to be hoped that the workers, as they come to realize their power when organized for self-protection, will exercise discretion. The younger element among them are inclined to be hot-headed and impetuous. With such vast issues at stake, and the present fate of the country in the balance, it will require nothing less than statesmanship of the finest kind to bring order out of the present chaos. So, far, the leaders of the unions have not earned too many laurels for statesmanship. If labor gets the upper hand as it probably will, the country generally will not benefit if the tyranny of a decadent capitalism is supplanted by an equally tyrannical overlordship of labor.

The Weak Link
No chain is stronger than its weakest link. The weakest link in Mr. Roosevelt's recovery program, so far, is the failure of consumers' purchasing power to rise sufficiently to meet increased production. Manufacturers' inventories, speaking generally are beginning to pile up and some industries are faced with a probably early shut down. Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers undoubtedly know perfectly well how the Gordian Knot could be cut but it would necessitate such unprecedented action that they fear to do it. They are, apparently, deferring direct action in the hope that things will come out right in the end. They are taking a long chance, but even at that they might win. We all hope so.

NRA Slipping
The NRA, which caused so much enthusiasm at the outset, is definitely waning in public interest. Nothing, so it seems, is more than a nine days' wonder. Many attacks upon NRA by prominent leaders of thought have been made. Their motive obviously, is to the New Deal on the defensive. General Johnson, however, believes that the best defense is attack. He announces that in thirty to sixty days he will start a revival campaign. The printers are no doubt already hatching a new brood of Blue Eagles to night in every store window in the land. During the last ballyhoo this writer observed that some of the Blue Eagles actually had the nerve to perch in the front windows of the great New York banks. With them appeared the legend, "We do our part." It should have read: "We did our part in bringing untold misery to millions of inoffensive citizens."

Porgiving Our Debtors
An anomalous situation now arises with regard to those countries which owe us sums of money. There is not enough cash in the world at their disposal to pay these debts. The only possible way for them to be paid is in goods. But we raise tariff barriers restricting the importation of goods of which we already have a surfeit of our own. When a creditor makes it impossible for debtors to repay their debts it is no time for him to complain of defaulters. The obvious but seemingly impossible thing to do is to let as many international debts as possible cancel each other and then write off the balance. It will have to be done eventually, why not now?

"Stuffed Shirts"
Heywood Brown, the capable and much-loved columnist of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, was commenting recently upon the current tendency of political and revolutionary factions to affect various colors in shirts. We have, he said, in effect, red shirts, black shirts, green shirts, silver shirts, etc. He voted for a new group to be known as "stuffed shirts," and nominated the D.A.R. for charter membership. The National Defense division of these ladies devises another qualification for membership. In the map they are exhibiting at Washington they indicate that there are 1500 centers of communism in the country. Bearing in mind that the Communist party now numbers 25,000 members, each center, according to the D.A.R., must comprise sixteen and two thirds persons. Much ado about nothing.

Children Starve
In New York, the world's greatest and richest city, the Health Department states that one in every four children attending school is undernourished. From another source it is reported that last year in America six million children were undernourished because their parents were out of work. Children in their later years rarely recover from early malnutrition. The sins of our purblind stupidity will be visited upon our children unto the third and fourth generation. We can find money for armaments but we can't find out how to feed helpless innocent children.

Who Makes Wars?
A recently published book, "Merchants of Death," throws authentic light upon the methods of war munition manufacturers. They form an international ring whose stranglehold on society is as merciless as that of the international banking ring. The authors of this book show very definitely that, "An alliance of governments with war industries threatens to make the arms makers supreme in economic life and after that in government." They promise that the world eventually will be completely dominated by the armament industry. In Europe, and probably in this country too, the very politicians and statesmen who most loudly protest their desire for peace have large sums of money invested in munition manufacturing concerns and draw substantial dividends from their investments.

Cannon Fodder Failing
With the declining birthrate the world is threatened with a shortage of cannon fodder. This brings the international manufacturers of diabolical death-dealing devices face to face with a dilemma. Munitions makers must be assured of long-continued profits, or else, what is the world coming to? The problem is realized by certain aggressively

ANNIVERSARY NEWS

If you could make a visit behind the scenes to find out the preparations which are necessary to get ready for a sale like the Anniversary Event of a large store you would be astonished at the tremendous scope of such an undertaking. It would have to be a long visit because it takes many months to make the plans and have them carried out.

Merchandising

Take the merchandise preparations, for instance. In the Strawbridge & Clothier store there are 137 selling departments. The head of each department must talk over with the management what he is going to do in the sale—How much can he sell? How much must he buy to sell that amount? What will be the items in which the greatest number of customers will be interested? Where can he buy these items at the lowest prices so he can offer real bargains?

In some departments such plans are started six months ahead—sometimes a year. This is particularly true of goods which come from abroad. Strawbridge & Clothier have buying representatives in London, Paris, Brussels, Florence, Shanghai and Yokohama. Of course only a small part of the total stock—less than 5%—comes from abroad and only such things as American cannot supply. The greater part of our buying is done in Philadelphia, New York City and Chicago. The careful store must not only look out for low prices, but make sure that the goods are of proper quality; and remember, these buying activities are going forward in over 100 departments on thousands of items which range from pins to pianos.

Advertising

After the merchandising division knows just what it is going to offer, the plans are turned over to the advertising department so that the merits of the sale can be brought to the attention of the public. In the publicity department, booklets, circulars and newspaper announcements must be written, posters and store cards printed, windows and interior decorations arranged for; radio programs made ready; store attractions planned and many other publicity wheels put in motion.

Service

When the goods have been bought and the advertising arranged for, the operating division of the store must make its plans. A store like Strawbridge & Clothier has thousands of employees, with hundreds of diversified duties. As a shopper, you see the selling force and others who are on the front line, but back of each salesperson it takes approximately two non-selling employees to meet the service requirements—every minute of every hour of every day there are people at work in the big stores, taking care of the last day's business and getting ready for the day to come. The reduced working hours

IMPORTANT

Please remember this is an advance notice to the readers of this paper. The Sale does not start until next Monday morning, May 28, at 9 o'clock—none of the Anniversary items will be ready before that time. Mail or telephone orders for the goods mentioned in this advertisement may be sent at once and will be filled on Monday.

Beginning Monday, all charge purchases will go on June bills payable in July.

Under new N.R.A. requirements mean that a store like Strawbridge & Clothier is carrying several hundred more people than last year, and when the expanded business of a big sale event like the Anniversary Sale comes, this staff must be still further augmented.

66 Years in Business

The business of Strawbridge & Clothier was started in 1868 by Justin C. Strawbridge and Isaac H. Clothier, in the same location where the present building stands. So this is the 66th birthday of this firm. Today five sons of the founders are on the Board of Directors and three grandsons are in the business. Several hundred of the employees belong to the Quarter Century Club, which means they have been employed for more than 25 years, and there are several Half Century Club members—men who have been continuously with this same concern for 50 years or more.

The history of the Strawbridge & Clothier store, its policies and growth, are well known to most readers of this paper. The business has grown steadily for 66 years and the present splendid Philadelphia building—one of the finest retail edifices in the world, was completed three years ago. In addition to the Philadelphia store, a very fine suburban branch was built at Ardmore in 1930 and another at Jenkintown in 1931.

A Store That Never Stops Growing

In a recent talk to the store employees the President of Strawbridge & Clothier said: "In the 66 years of the firm's history we have grown from a little store at the corner of 8th and Market Streets to this great modern structure—a building which is an inspiration toward greater achievement and the beginning of a new era of progress. This store must never stop growing and the opportunity for more forward strides is immediately before us. Our Anniversary Sale can be made and shall be made the largest in many years. Our faith has inspired us to make very much larger purchases of merchandise and to offer inducements that will be unmistakably recognized by the public as very unusual. We have definitely arranged for a very much reduced average profit to insure the greatly increased volume of sales that will come to us in this Anniversary."

Some Interesting Facts

It has been previously mentioned that the merchandising scope of an event like this Anniversary Sale is tremendous and perhaps you can get a better idea of this by reading about some of the definite merchandise preparations.

40,000 Women's and Children's Dresses have been bought for the Anniversary Sale.

Hundreds of motor and freight cars are bringing goods to Philadelphia and putting them all together. They would make the longest freight train you have ever seen. Of furniture alone, 28 carloads were recently unloaded from the siding at our Poplar Street Warehouse and nearly double that number will be in the Sale.

50,000 pairs of men's, women's and children's shoes will be included at special prices.

Nearly 5,000 men's suits have passed through the receiving room to get their sale tickets.

Literally miles of dress fabrics have been purchased.

50,000 pairs of women's silk stockings of one make and many more from other mills.

We could go on with columns of similar details, but it would be tiresome to describe them here—every one of the 137 selling departments has its full quota of Anniversary Sale bargains.

This is one of the
the Strawbridge & Clothier Anniversary Sale, which Starts Monday, May 28

81 x 99 Sheets 69c each

From the Basement Store

Pillow Cases 4 for 77c

This is one of the most sensational items in the Anniversary Sale. It is offered by the Strawbridge & Clothier Basement Store and is typical of the exceptional values you will find there. The Sheets are of a famous make, standard quality, extra length—81 x 99 inches. Such a price is possible only by the cooperation of the manufacturer in furnishing us a special value and by a decided lessening of our own profit.

The Pillow Cases to match are in two sizes—42 x 36 inches or 45 x 36 inches.

Remember, these are first-quality goods and we believe the price to be absolutely unequalled anywhere.

The Anniversary Sale brings values as good as these in every one of the 137 selling departments of the Strawbridge & Clothier store. Come next Monday—you will be well repaid. If you cannot come, order by mail or telephone.

PHILADELPHIA

nationalistic governments. Italy and Germany, for instance, are offering bonuses to mothers of large families, or other equally encouraging inducements. The problem of starvation in the midst of plenty is one to be faced with equanimity; but the prospect of being armed to the teeth with fewer young men to kill is enough to disturb any conscientious government or munitions manufacturer.

War Clouds

The war-cloud which has been gathering over the Pacific basin assumes a darker hue. Recent protestations of a desire by the Japanese Government for a better understanding with this country can not obscure the fact that Japan has issued a flat challenge to this and other countries in regard to China. All attempts to aid China to become strong and self-dependent will be frowned upon by the Mikado. His government will, if necessary, fight to maintain its self-appointed right to be the judge of what shall constitute legitimate trade with China. Will the Roosevelt Administration accept the challenge? Inasmuch as the trump cards are, for the time being, in Japanese hands, Mr. Roosevelt will no doubt find a way of postponing the inevitable showdown by one of his happy compromises.

Economic Pressure vs. Guns

Neither the United States navy nor the British navy could successfully cope with the Japanese navy which would operate from convenient home bases. Possibly a world alliance could force Japan to its knees through economic pressure. This may be the outcome of the present impasse. Due to the failure of the capitalistic money-price system to meet the demands of advancing civilization, all of the great industrial countries are hoping that China can be developed into a suitable dumping ground for the products which their own people want but cannot have. They all have a potential or actual stake in China, and sooner or later they will quarrel among themselves about it. Meanwhile, Japan being on the spot, will help herself to all the plums on the China plate.

Japan Was Apt Pupil

A broader issue than this, however, is before the world today. Through science and invention inaptly applied, the white races of the earth became dominant. The theory that might is right they have assumed a superior attitude to the Asiatics. The Japanese, having learned to play the white races at their own game, now become the champions of Asia and challenge the supremacy of the whites. After all people of the earth have suffered sufficiently, their eyes will open to the fact that human nature, whether under white, black or yellow skins, is essentially the same. How long will money-blindness arising out of the profit motive obscure our vision? Future generations will marvel at our stupidity.

Fosdick Renounces War

An encouraging sign of the times is the unquestionable growth of anti-war sentiment which is about to be crystallized in New York in a mighty parade. Speaking at a Conference on War, Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick voiced this growing feeling of millions of people. He said: "I renounce war because of what it does to men. I've seen it. I renounce it because of what it forces us to do to the enemy. I renounce it and will not sanction it because of its consequences and the undying hatred it nourishes. I renounce it and never again will I be in another war. That war demands courage, faith and fidelity as a tragic paradox. The noblest qualities of human life, which could make earth a heaven, make it, in war, a hell."

Herring Most Important Fish

It's interesting to know that the herring is the world's most valuable fish, in money value with the cod taking second place.

They tell us that the top of the dome of the National Capitol at Washington is covered with pure gold leaf. Wait until Dillinger finds that out!

BY T. O. M.

Mrs. A. Perkins, of 633 Linden avenue, Riverton, has a Carlton all-wave receiver which she has had for about two years. Mrs. Perkins has received police, airplane, amateur and foreign broadcasts with an unusual degree of success.

John Higgins, 323 Morgan avenue, Palmyra, has purchased a Philco all-wave receiver, from which he has received no end of enjoyment.

C. H. Westcott, of 421 Linden avenue, Riverton, is the proud possessor of a Zenith five-band receiver which brings in Europe and South America as clearly as local programs.

In the realm of amateurs Chris Davis reports that he will be back on the air by fall.

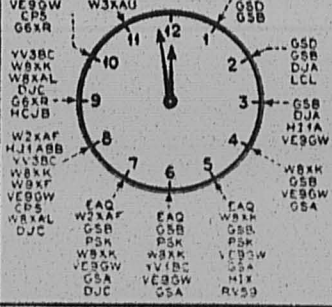

A former Palmyra amateur, Freddy Bickle, W3CWP, now a resident of Pitman, has been quite active in s.w. transmission in the past year.

T. O. M. is wondering if Gerald Hatch is still punching holes in the ether, in that his signals have not been heard at the listening post recently. If he is still transmitting, word from him would be appreciated.

T. O. M. wishes to extend his congratulations to Buddy DeLaney, for his stick-to-it-iveness. Buddy reports that he has a s.w. receiver and is studying at present for his government license. If Buddy will write and tell T. O. M. more specifically what information he desires about s.w., T. O. M. will be only too glad to be of assistance.

In addition to last week's list of call letters, T. O. M. is including this week a time chart showing at what time some of the more prominent stations throughout the world may be tuned in.

WORLD SHORT-WAVE TIME TABLE

The I. D. A. "Globe Cirler" offers a list of stations to try for. This list is passed along for the benefit of those who wish to try their hands at trans-Atlantic reception. The hours given are Central Standard time, and indicate the time at which these stations start their daily broadcasts, except LR4, which starts at this hour on Sunday morning only.

T. O. M. appreciates the many commendations on this column that he has received. However, more letters and questions from 'Hams' and fans would tend to create a still greater interest than has already been shown.

All communications should be addressed to T. O. M., c/o The New Era, Riverton. If an answer by mail is desired, a self-addressed, stamped envelope should be enclosed in the letter.

Well, 73 and do-dee-do.

... use a G-E for 30 days in your own kitchen ... if you are not entirely satisfied your money will be returned to you.

We know that once you use a General Electric in your own home its matchless convenience and economy will quickly demonstrate to you that it can more than pay its own way.

The big roomy quick freezing chamber is of stainless steel that cannot chip or rust. A convenient temperature control permits fast or slow freezing speeds and defrosting is automatic. There is a large removable container for keeping vegetables fresh and crisp. Interior lighting automaticlosed. Sliding shelves are adjustable in height. An auxil-

It operates so quietly you can scarcely hear it, uses less current, has ample power for even unusual demands, and requires no attention ... not even oiling.

In addition to the standard 1 year warranty you

Shortcuts to the Dinner Table

BY VERA A. SCHNEIDER

Did you ever have friends visit you who wanted to see your interesting town from beginning to end? It's been my pleasure to have some friends with me who want to do just this thing before going home (and home to them is abroad) and I'll tell you, friend homemakers, it's a good thing these visits happen once in a while, for I'm afraid many of us would forget just what a wonderful city we live in if they didn't, don't you? You know, they say it takes visitors from out of town to make us realize our historical background.

Well, when I do a job, I do it thoroughly, and I'm going to see to it that there isn't a stone left unturned when it comes to showing these friends every nook and corner in Philadelphia. The other day we went to the Art Museum and, of course, my individual interest centered around the Pennsylvania Dutch kitchen, and while looking around that room with its huge fireplace and fittings, its long table, with what seemed to me very narrow benches on either side, I rather congratulated myself on my good fortune in having the equipment of this day and age with which to work. The array of more or less crude utensils mounted on legs or tripods was simply appalling.

There were pots, frying pans and grilles, not to mention the enormous kettle hanging on the crane directly over the spot where the fire would be, and a lot of other utensils, the use or purpose of which I could not imagine.

I have always admired the spirit of the pioneer woman, and my admiration has been rising ever since that visit to the Art Museum. I'm going to tell you more about that kitchen next week. I'd do it now, but I must get down to the business of a few request recipes. Our first request is for Mrs. L. R. Ransom.

Creamed Apricot Delight
1 cupful apricot pulp
2 cupfuls marshmallows, cut in quarters
½ cupful chopped nuts
1 cupful heavy cream—whipped
Combine pulp and marshmallows. Let it stand in refrigerator for one hour or more, then fold in stiffly beaten cream. Pile lightly in sherbet glasses and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Return to refrigerator until ready to serve.

Honey Meringue (Cooked)
(For Mrs. M. R. Branson)
Heat one cupful of honey until it spins a thread when dropped from a spoon. Pour honey slowly into the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, beating all the while. Continue beating until meringue is fluffy and will hold its shape.

Mother: "Well, son what have you been doing all afternoon?"
Son: "Shooting craps, Mother."
Mother: "That must stop. Those little things have just as much right to live as you have."—Clipped.

"What's the Matter Mummy?"

THERE'S nothing the matter with "Mummy"—it's the FURNITURE.

How can mother have the heart to jump into her house-cleaning and dress up the home for spring when the bottom is falling out of the big easy chair by the fireplace and the rung is broken on the Windsor chair.

Here's a tip for you, Father! Call Will Bowen and have those needed little repairs made to the furniture NOW. It won't cost much and you'll see how quickly Mother responds to the treatment.

She'll pitch in and make your home shine like a new dollar—and she'll be humming some gay little tune while she's doing it, too.

B. & O. RAILROAD
AIR-CONDITIONED

Will Have in Operation More Air Conditioned Cars Than Ever Before

Following a program of expansion, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad announces that it will have in service this Summer, air-conditioning equipment to handle more than 1,000,000 passengers.

Practically all of its principal through trains will be completely air-conditioned, including coaches, parlor cars, sleeping cars, club cars, observation cars and dining cars, between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Chicago. More air-conditioned cars will be added to other trains over the system.

The popularity of Baltimore & Ohio's air-conditioned service last year and the expected increase in travel to the World's Fair, in Chicago and to the National Parks this Summer, have influenced the expansion, which will give Baltimore & Ohio the largest fleet of air-conditioned trains in its history.

The salt water fish called the "torpedo" is said to have two electric batteries in its head, one on each side. No doubt it belongs to the piscatorial Brain Trust.

The international influence is having a bearing on our domestic affairs.

A chap out in Milwaukee, who owes $1384 in alimony payments, has just offered to make a $2 token payment on it.

BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

Roses at this time of the year are supplied by nurserymen as potted plants, and there is no set method by which roses can be kept healthily dormant so late. The roses are supplied with balls of soil attached to the roots and in paper pots. The pots should be removed when setting out the plants and the pieces of broken pot, used for drainage purposes, removed from the bottom. If the soil ball is intact and seems hard, the top and surface may be loosened just a trifle, but do not break the ball if it can be prevented. The ball may be immersed in a pail of water for a few minutes before planting but not so long that the soil disintegrates. Set the plant in the ground so that it will be about two inches deeper than in the pot. Leave a shallow basin at the surface after filling in the soil so that surface water may be retained, and keep the plants well watered until they start.

For a grand smashing color effect in midsummer and early fall nothing compares with the Canna, and considering space occupied by the single plant in the garden and rapidly in multiplying, it is also one of the cheapest of all bedders. Dig the soil deeply, incorporate a goodly lot of well-decayed stable manure or commercial fertilizer such as Bon-vog, setting the plants about two feet apart or a trifle closer, watering in periods of dry weather, and the Canna will give you a colorful run for your money.

Yellow King Humbert, bright yellow with petals dotted, flaked and streaked red. An occasional flower all yellow with one petal pure red makes this probably the most interesting. Mary Thilow, rosy salmon, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, watermelon pink, and San Diego are all good.

A bed of gorgeous Cannas bordered with the Purple Fountain Grass, centering an emerald lawn makes a beautiful midsummer show.

An English horticultural trade journal speaks of the granting of an Award of Merit at the Royal Horticultural Show to Camellia Japonica "Kimberley," of which the director of the Kew Gardens says "Surely one of the most beautiful of single-flowered Camellias, the clear scarlet flowers having a large central boss of yellow stamens." And the photograph in another British paper, "The Gardener's Chronicle," shows it to be an extremely beautiful new plant which some day we hope to have the pleasure of viewing on this side of the big pond.

Horticultural papers report the existence at last of a pink daffodil, long sought by plant hybridizers and in double and cactus forms.

CARD OF THANKS

Through the press I wish to express my appreciation of the Republican voters of Burlington County for the fine support I received at the recent primary election. This is especially gratifying on account of the many attacks made upon me. If elected in November, I shall continue to work for the best interests of the people of our County and State.

for thirty days

WE WANT you to see for yourself how convenient an automatic gas water heater is, thus our thirty days' free trial offer. We will install the heater and you may use it for one month. That will give you time to become acquainted with its advantages and time to prove how little it costs to operate.

Once the heater is installed, the thermostat regulates the temperature of the water, shutting off the gas when the water is heated, turning it on again when cold water replaces the warm water that has been drawn off.

A month will give you time to judge it. Then pay only a small sum down and the balance in small amounts each month.

MAY 17—
Bankers 12—K. of C. 4

Nine hits, a bunch of walks, and a flock of errors enabled the Bankers to score twelve runs and defeat the Knights of Columbus team, who made eleven hits, by the score of twelve to four. Jack Easley hit three safe ones to lead the Bankers with the warblers. For the Knights, Martin Casey, the mighty Casey, made the same number of hits, but in addition snared seven outs in left field, some of them with daring catches.

Firemen 9—Wesleys 1

The "up and at 'em" Riverton Firemen tonight extinguished the Wesleys' flames by a score of nine to one. While the Wesleys were nicking Johnny Lockowitz for but seven safeties, the Fire Laddies were pounding Horace Finney, Jr., for seventeen. The Wesleys' only run was scored on an error in the sixth inning.

Koppenhofer topped the Wesleyan hitters with two safe blows, whereas Al "Silas" Micucci, King, Sherman, Wallace and Charlie Trego had the same number each for the Firemen, with "Trooper" Small topping them all (note nifty poetic effect) with four safeties to his credit.

In the seventh inning the Wesleys almost pulled a triple play on the Firemen. With Small on third and Trego on second and both playing off for the "hit and run" play, King at the bat laced a liner to Kersy, who made a spectacular catch and throw to Koppenhofer to double Small off third. Koppenhofer's throw to Bill Oliver at second was a bit wild and Trego remained safe.

MEMORIAL DAY GAME AND DRILL

Riverton Nine to Play Tioga
A. C. at Park; Drum
Corps to Drill

The Riverton baseball team, under the leadership of Blandon Cook, have planned an interesting schedule for next week. The game on Wednesday (Memorial Day) in the afternoon will be played against the Tioga A. C. at Memorial Park, and upon the appearance of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps an intermission will be declared to allow for the 15-minute exhibition drill.

In the morning on Memorial Day the Riverton nine will cross bats with the Vincetown nine, at Vincetown.

Saturday, June 2nd, Riverton will play Drexel Hill at Memorial Park, and will return the engagement with them at Drexel Hill on Sunday.

Last Saturday Riverton handed the Philadelphia Professionals an 11 to 8 trouncing in the opening ball game on the home diamond.

Reeves, Foulke, Kevans, Harper, Baker and Weikman starred for the locals with 2 hits apiece. Harper topped the heap with a homer in the opening of the seventh inning.

Riverton scored in the first inning with three runs, three in the third, one in the seventh and four in the eighth.

The Philadelphia Professionals staged a rally in the eighth and drove in four runs, but failed to overcome the big lead set up by the locals in the early stages of the game.

In tonight's game, Weikman, Bennett, King and Hubbs, Jr., made four safe hits apiece for the Bankers. Bennett's including a base-clearing home run in the titanic ten-run third stanza. Reeves of the Laundry had three hits.

One for the books occurred in the first of the fourth; a double play without a man touching the ball. It happened this way: Bonatelli on second and Hubbs, Sr., on first attempted a double steal and succeeded, but the ump said they both had left the base prematurely, and so they were out.

A bundle of orchids (in the moonlight) to Umpire Carhart for changing his decision on a "hit-a-leaf" play. The way I understand it, a ball that hits even the tip of a leaf is dead! Another bundle of orchids (and two helpings of moonlight) to the Laundry for taking their licking standing up; it's a good example.

The ten-run rally of the Bankers in the third frame was aided by the crowd's razzing of Laundry Pitcher Bill Anderson. They mimicked the characteristic grunt which he emits when he bears down on the ball.

TOWN MEETING JUNE 8 JULY 4th QUESTION

LEGION MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

Post Rodgers Sponsors Celebration Ending With Drill
at Memorial Park

The Memorial Day parade sponsored by Post Frederick M. Rodgers No. 156 of Palmyra and Riverton, was well attended along the line of march and at stopping places where services were held.

The parade started at the Riverton fire house, and the line of march was as follows:

Mayors Walter D. Lamon and J. Elmer Hahn, of Palmyra and Councilmen from Riverton and Palmyra.

Members of the Palmyra Board of Education.

Boy Scouts from Palmyra and Riverton.

The Columbus Cadets.
Children from the Riverton and Palmyra schools.

From Riverton the line of march was down Broad street to Garfield avenue, where children from the Palmyra schools joined the marchers.

Turning left on Cinnaminson avenue the parade went out to Morgan cemetery where the Rev. George Lockett offered a prayer at the graves of soldiers. Children from the schools placed flowers on the graves and the firing squad gave the usual three-volley salute.

The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps played taps and then the parade moved back Cinnaminson avenue to the Methodist cemetery where the same ceremony was repeated with the exception that the Rev. Ira S. Pimm offered the prayer.

Following services at the Methodist cemetery, speakers were heard from the band stand in the Palmyra grove.

Charles H. Yost was master of ceremonies and the services in the grove were opened by an invocation by the Rev. Charles T. Bates.

The whole assemblage joined in singing "America." Mayor Walter D. Lamon, of Palmyra, gave a short address appropriate to the occasion.

The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps played one of their new corps numbers.

J. Elmer Hahn, mayor of Riverton, was the next speaker and his brief address was well received.

Oscar Harroun, Civil War veteran, was introduced by Mr. Yost and he told all present that he was very glad for the opportunity of joining in the day's ceremonies.

The Columbus Corps Cadets rendered a drum and bugle selection before marching out of the grove.

The Rev. James F. Boughton, of the Delanco M. E. Church, was the principal speaker and his talk was deeply impressive.

Rev. Charles F. Craeger pronounced the benediction and every one present sang the first verse of the Star Spangled Banner to bring the services in the grove to a close.

Immediately following the exercises in the grove, the Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps went to Riverton's Memorial Park where a ball game between Riverton and Tioga was in progress. The game was halted and the Corps put on a fifteen-minute exhibition drill which drew much applause from the hundreds assembled at the ball park.

The Memorial Day ball game was a walk-over for Riverton, who resuming the game after the exhibition drill polished off the Tioga nine with a score of 15 to 2.

ELECTRICITY TO HELP THE FARMER

P. S. Manager Plans Practical Demonstration of Power and Appliances

G. T. Dold, manager of Public Service for Burlington county, has just purchased from J. W. Davis, of Burlington, a farm located on Burr road and Oxmead road, Westhampton township. It is now occupied by Herbert Johnson, who will continue to operate it as a dairy farm.

It is intended to restore the property and build a new cow barn with all modern equipment. After alterations are completed to the house, Mr. Dold will move there from his home in Riverton. The Dolds live at 608 Elm Terrace and have two daughters, Elsie and Harriet.

In his connection with Public Service he has been very much interested in furthering the use of electricity on the farm, not only as a labor-saving force but to bring to the farmer the same comforts that his city cousins enjoy.

During the last ten years he and his organization have extended their electric lines so that now practically the entire area in which Public Service serves in this county is now covered.

Mr. Dold's having been raised on a farm in Monroe county, Pennsylvania, and knowing farming from the dirt farmer's angle, now intends to carry on his promotion work more extensively. He will use his farm for the display and demonstration under actual operating conditions the many electric devices that it is believed will go far towards assisting in bringing back the farmer to a prosperous era, for it is a recognized fact that the labor problem on the farm and in the farm home can best be solved by the use of electricity.

The haughty senior girl sniffed disdainfully at the tiny Freshman cut in. "And just why did you have to cut in when I was dancing?" she inquired nastily.

The Freshman hung his head with shame. "I'm sorry, ma'am," he said, "but I'm working my way through college and your partner was waving a five-dollar bill at me."—Northwestern Purple Parrot.

"Depression" in Our Schools

Speaking of school boys, this writer has recently been assigned to visit certain New York High Schools. Experienced teachers are unanimous in reporting that since the full force of the depression has hit the families of students, they have applied themselves much more seriously to their studies. They have no money for counter-attractions; but beyond this, they also realize that great changes are taking place and that it is up to them to be better equipped to meet coming new conditions. Instead of meeting them half-way by inculcating more modern and suitable ideas into the rising generation we are stultifying their opportunities. We are curtailing educational expenditures that surely would prove to be a re-insurance on our future national well-being. In this respect we are not so far seeing as the Germans, Russians and Italians who are devoting great efforts in inculcating their ideas, right or wrong, into the rising generation.

STATE MONEY NOW AVAILABLE

Funds for Borough and Township Roads Will Give About $700 to Each Municipality

Freeholder Charles R. Stout announced at the meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday that the $25,000 due the county for borough and township road maintenance is now available. The county will apply at once for the funds from the State Highway Commission and distribute them in accordance with an arrangement made last Winter, which will give about $700 to each municipality. County Solicitor Harold B. Wells was instructed to institute condemnation proceedings for a plot of ground, 50 by 50 feet, which was taken as part of the right of way for Keim Boulevard, the connecting link between Route 25 and the approach to Burlington-Bristol Bridge. Instructions to that effect were issued by the board of freeholders yesterday after Jacob Ellis, Burlington, owner of the land, notified the board he would reduce his original price for the ground from $4,000 to $2,000. The board offered him $1,000 and will not increase that amount. A first payment of $19,704.60 to Kolyn Construction Company, of Trenton which is building a new drawbridge between Riverside and Delanco, was approved. The freeholders granted the use of a county car to the supervisor of the almshouse because the car he has been using has been junked.

J. Paul Allen, forest supervisor in the State Department of Conservation and Development, was granted permission to string a 110-volt electric line over Route S-40 near Four Mile Colony to furnish light and power to the Four Mile Ranger Station.

Adams Makes Report

Freeholder Palmer Adams, director of public buildings, reported that he was not following specifications exactly in the matter of the heating plant for the new home for the steward of the almshouse, but was installing one similar to that used in the hospital for the insane, at very little additional cost.

Mr. Adams also asked permission to substitute brick for frame construction in the erection of the new milk house at the county farm at New Lisbon, which he said would cost very little more. He also advocated lining it with asbestos sheeting, but the other members of the board thought a suitable glazed tile lining would be both more durable and effective. The board was agreeable to the change if the cost was not too high. The matter was finally left in the hands of Mr. Adams, Frank McIlvaine, the new steward of the almshouse, and H. B. Smith, the county engineer.

Mr. Adams also asked authorization to purchase a water cooler for the county building occupied by the superintendent of public schools and other offices, at a cost not exceeding $250. On motion of Mr. Stout the desired permission was granted.

Solicitor Harold B. Wells reported the collection of $219.42 for the board of a patient in the hospital for insane, who had been admitted to purchase a water cooler for the county building occupied by the superintendent of public schools and other offices, at a cost not exceeding $250. On motion of Mr. Stout the desired permission was granted.

Department bills were ordered paid as follows: Finance, $1,874.00; roads, $24,773.56; bridges, $1,629.90; buildings, $2,753.38; affairs, $1,040.53. Total $39,071.47.

MECHLING CAR STOLEN

A brand new Pontiac coach belonging to Benjamin S. Mechling, of 303 Bank avenue, Riverton, was stolen in Camden on Monday. Police throughout South Jersey were immediately notified.

"I am a woman of few words," announced the haughty mistress to the new maid. "If I beckon with my finger, that means come."

"Suits me, mum," replied the girl. "I'm a woman of few words myself. If I shake me head, that means I ain't comin'."—Sidmouth Observer.

CINNAMINSON P. T. A.

A pleasing number of PTA members attended the business meeting last week.

Several objectives of considerable importance, discussed by the executive board beforehand, acted upon. The move from which most is hoped, was the resolution to cooperate with the school by furnishing units for the filing case in which to keep information concerning the patrons of the school that will be of use to both school and PTA.

Reports of committees were given. All have tried to be of service. The Study group, especially, was felt to have been of the greatest importance. Four members were present at the county council.

The Glee Club of School Number Four, where the girls wore their neat uniforms of blue skirts and white blouses, sang three spirituals, and ended with a gay little song.

Their willingness to oblige and the selections so sweetly sung pleased every one.

Leaving immediately, before they could be thanked, a letter of appreciation was ordered sent.

School and PTA are both interested in the operetta, "The Magic Fiddle," advertised in last week's paper. Don't forget the date, June first, at eight p.m. Silver offering. Publicity.

BIG HEARTED

As the train pulled into the depot a travelling man stuck his head out of the window, and calling to a boy standing near said: "Here, sonny, bring me a sandwich, and here's another dime, get on for yourself." New Deal's Acid Test

The opinion often aired in this column, namely: "There will be no satisfactory solution of the present economic chaos until some way is found of getting the things we make by scientific mass production into the hands of the millions who want them and can use them," finds a striking endorsement in the recent report of an impressive list of leaders of public thought. They advise the President as follows: "The acid test of the New Deal lies in its effect on the actual distribution of the wealth which the machine age creates but which we have yet to find the way to spread out and use. . . . With wages lagging behind profits, and production already beginning to grow beyond the power of the wage-earning market, we consume, the weakness of the NRA set forth in the registered in price practices which jeopardize the whole recovery program."

Darrow's Report

Meanwhile the National Recovery Review Board, under the direction of Clarence Darrow, that fearless old fighter for the forgotten man, flings a bomb into the Recovery camp at Washington. Undoubtedly the Administration is severely shocked by the report which throws the issue into sharp relief. "The choice between monopoly sustained by government, which is clearly the trend in the National Recovery Administration and a planned economy which demands socialized ownership and control, since only by collective ownership can the inevitable conflict of separately owned units for the market be eliminated in favor of planned production. . . . To give the sanction of government to sustain profits is not a planned economy but a regimented organization for exploitation. . . . All competition is savage, wolfish and relentless and can be nothing else. One may as well dream of making war ladylike as of making competition fair." So speaks Mr. Darrow, the aged warrior, for what he believes to be the truth. No wonder General Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, fulminates against the Review Board and recommends that it be abolished!

Overlords Still Rule

As before stated in this column, the main problem the solution of which is racking the best brains in the country, can be stated basically and simply. We have built up an amazingly wonderful mass production machine. Should this machine function fully we should produce billions of dollars worth of goods which the people want, but cannot have. To restrict the production of this vast machine while the goods are actually wanted by the people, would be silly. Under the present 'money-price' system the people will never be able to get the goods. A new way of putting purchasing power, or an equivalent, into the hands of the people must be devised. Several alternative ways of doing this are known to Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers, but no way is known to them which will not blow up the entrenched positions held by those who control finance and industry. The financial and industrial overlords still rule the roost. By attempting to conciliate them while instituting reforms of a much-needed nature, the President has brought about an impasse. It is reasonable to suppose that he has the necessary ingenuity to meet the situation. But he had better hurry up.

"Our Doubts Are Traitors"

The Literary Digest is polling the people's opinion of the New Deal. Its returns thus far indicate beyond the doubt that the President still has enough following among the people to support him in any attack he may choose to make upon entrenched interests. If he defers making a definite stand his popularity and the people's faith in him will wane. Mr. Roosevelt undoubtedly knows his Shakespeare. He should read again these words: "There is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries. On such a full sea are we now afloat and we must take the current when it serves, or lose our ventures."

Bath Tubs

The basic trouble is realized by Miss Frances Perkins, a member of the Roosevelt cabinet. The complaint is heard that industry is suffering from lack of trade. In her book, the Secretary of Labor says of bathtubs: "It is estimated that 90 per cent of farmer's homes are without them, and 60 per cent of the homes in villages, and 30 percent of the homes in cities. It would take from seven to ten years of steady production to make the supplies which would bring these homes up to the American standard. What stands between these homes and their bathtubs? The inability to purchase." King gold says that we can't have a bath. Are we, living in an age of plenty, to stand for that?

"Murder Machinery"

The League of Nations Disarmament Conference enters into session in the immediate future. It will be no more than an empty gesture; the whole world is arming to the teeth. The munitions makers in every country are making money hand over fist. All the nations suspect and fear each other; more armament, not disarmament, is the order of the day. Certain anti-war organizations in England have recently insisted upon the publication of the names of stockholders in munition concerns. In consequence, some members of the British Cabinet hurriedly disposed of their holdings. Dignitaries of the Church also were implicated. What would be the result of a similar disclosure in this country? It would be interesting to see how many who preach the commandment: "Thou shalt not kill," are feathering their nests from the proceeds of manufacturing murder machinery.

CHURCH NEWS

Petition Against Grayhound Racing Tracks in Palmyra

We, the undersigned of the Borough of Palmyra, in the County of Burlington, in the state of New Jersey, do hereby petition the Borough Council to refuse permission to establish a grayhound racing track in the Borough of Palmyra.

While the Borough would receive a financial return from granting such permission, we feel that it would attract an undesirable class of people and would encourage gambling and other vices with an inevitable and demoralizing result that Palmyra would lose its reputation as a desirable place for home-loving people.

THEREFORE, we feel that the money thus gained by the Borough could not in any way compensate the taxpayers for the loss through the devaluation of the town and property. The above petition is being circulated from door to door, thus giving every resident a chance to protest against this vice. It will be presented to the Palmyra Borough Council Tuesday evening, June 12, at which time a public hearing on the application of the racetrack promoters will be held.

ANNOUNCEMENT

On Friday evening, June 8th at 8 o'clock, Miss Jennie June will become the bride of Mr. Tom Thumb. The wedding will take place in the Temple of the Methodist Church, Palmyra.

The production is being given by the Junior Epworth League. Mrs. R. K. Coward is the coach, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Hubbs. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Junior League, adults 25c, children 15c.

MUSICAL SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

The annual musical festival of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church Choir will be held on Sunday evening at 7:45. Under the direction of Paul Grant, director, with Mrs. Rachel Lord at the organ, the choir will render some of the great music of the church. The guest artist will be a harp soloist. The choir will be accompanied in some of their numbers by a sixteen piece orchestra.

Among the numbers to be sung are: "The Heavens are Telling" from the Creation by Haydn. "Souls of the Righteous" by Noble; "The Omnipotence" by F. Schubert; "Come O Thou Traveler Unknown" by H. Alexander Matthews; "Psalm 150" by Cesar Frank. The solo parts will be sung by members of the choir.

The instrumental part of the program lists an organ and piano duet by Mr. Rachel Lord and Herbert Baugh, selections by the sixteen piece orchestra and the unusual harp soloist.

A welcome awaits you at the Bible School which convenes at 10 o'clock. The evening service at 7:45 will be preceded by a song feast. "What is Religion" will be the subject of the sermon.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday School will hold their annual outing and business meeting at Camp Oceanick on this Saturday afternoon. All those who can are urged to swell the crowd.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Harold L. Creager
At our worship service next Sunday morning the sermon theme will be "The Spirit of Love and Service." In the evening service we will start a series of studies on Gideon, the sermon topic being "A Gallant Crusader."

The Ladies' Aid will hold their regular monthly meeting next Tuesday at the Church, starting with a covered dish luncheon at 12:30.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, June third.

The Golden Text is: "Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins" (Psalms 7:9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All we correctly know of Spirit comes from God, divine Principle, and is learned through Christ and Christian Science. If this Science has been thoroughly learned and properly digested, we can know the truth more accurately than the astronomer can read the stars or calculate an eclipse. This Mind-reading is the opposite of clairvoyance." (p. 84).

MRS. MARY ALTHOUSE LUNCHEON GUEST

The Calder Bible Class of the Epworth M. E. Church gave a covered dish luncheon Friday in honor of Mrs. Mary Althouse. Mrs. Althouse who is one of the oldest members of the class, was presented with a purse of money as a small token of appreciation for the splendid and faithful services she has given since becoming a member of the class. She will leave Palmyra in the near future to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Elvin Hickman, of West Chester, Pa.

Shortcuts to the Dinner Table

BY VERA A. SCHNEIDER

From time to time requests come to me asking whether one should do this or that, for instance, one homemaker asks "Should water be boiling before adding rice," and my answer is that it should not only be boiling but it should also be salted before adding rice. And this same procedure applies to noodles, macaroni and spaghetti alike.

Questions, such as this one, have prompted me to devote our column with helping our homemaker friends with problems which are so easily and simply solved. They're just little suggestions which may help to add a finished touch to the dishes we are serving. Let's take meringue, for instance. In order to serve this so it looks appealing to the eye, let's remember to dip the knife with which we cut it into hot water.

Then there is the question of sugar syrups. Rather than add granulated sugar to fruit punches, it is well to make a sirup of it by boiling the water and sugar together. The old question of how to test a baked custard comes up time and again, and the more experienced cook, of course, knows how to do this, but to our young homemakers, I want to say that we test a baked custard by inserting a silver knife into the custard, and if it comes out clean, the custard is finished. In the case of a boiled custard, if the custard coats the spoon it is finished. Another point to keep in mind is to rinse molds in cold water before putting gelatin mixtures into them. And while I'm speaking of rinsing molds, it might be well right here to suggest that you rinse a pan with cold water before scalding milk in it. This will prevent the milk from sticking to the pan.

A clove of garlic added to many dishes makes for a delicious flavor, and this is particularly true of French Dressing. And, if you are in need of sour milk, and find there is none on the larder shelf, a quick and sure way of producing it is to add two tablespoons of lemon juice to each cupful of sweet milk.

There are several other things that have just occurred to me, one of which is to grease the cup in which molasses is to be measured, also grease the pan in which chocolate is to be melted.

If space permitted, I could give further suggestions to facilitate cooking problems. I think all these little tips are most helpful, and especially so to the little June brides who are about to embark on this serious, but nevertheless happy, business of pleasing "The Lord of the Manor."

who has appealed to the Honorable Robert Fechner, Director of the Emergency Conservation Work, asking that the CCC men in the Central and Southern part of the State be assigned to elimination of insect tree pests under direction of the County Farm Agents.

Congressman Powers' plan is for the CCC men to work to eliminate pests on public, as well as private, property. This would be in addition to the present reforestation work being done by the CCC and would be of direct benefit to orchardists in the affected sections of the State.

MEN'S CLUB

The last meeting of the season was held on Monday night. The speaker was Mr. Ross B. Davis, Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia Fire Department. Mr. Davis told us some of his experiences in fire fighting during his forty years of service. He also told us a number of stories in connection with training new members of the fire department.

ENJOY THE SHOW IN COMFORT

Seashore Breezes and Mountain Top Coolness Brought to Broadway Theatre

With the thermometer taking a decided upward climb the past week, the management of the Broadway theatre, Palmyra, started its mammoth cooling plant to assure the comfort of its patrons.

At this popular playhouse, tons of machinery was put into motion to manufacture really pure, cool, healthful air.

From a well seventy-six feet in the ground, clear, cool water at a temperature of forty-two degrees is pumped up to a height of sixty feet where a large centrifugal pump forces it through a battery of needle-point sprays. Giant fans then draw in fresh air through this battery of needle-point sprays where the air is not only cooled, but all impurities are removed before it enters the auditorium of the theatre through an elaborate arrangement of ducts or channels.

The Broadway theatre is the only theatre in this county having an air-conditioned cooling plant, and only one other theatre in this section of New Jersey can boast of such an ideal arrangement of pure, cool, healthful air entering every corner of the theatre where movie fans can enjoy their entertainment. With the temperature being from fifteen to twenty degrees cooler inside the theatre than on the street.

LEGION PRESENTS FLAG

On Monday evening, May 28th, Post Frederick M. Rodgers No. 156, American Legion presented an American flag to Girl Scout Troop No. 2, of Palmyra, which meets in the First Lutheran Church. Post Commander Charles H. Yost presented the flag which was accepted by Mrs. Mary Gingham, captain of the troop. This troop has a membership of approximately 32 girls, all of whom were present when the flag was presented.

It is remarked that anyone who makes a garden has many friends. The bugs are very friendly, the boys feel very affectionate when the grapes get ripe, and the neighbors are apt to call about the time when you have that surplus of green corn and tomatoes.

Seeks Modern Service to Shore

the two States facing the Delaware could justify the tremendous invest- ment required for a river tunnel, the low cost of operating Diesel- electric trains will justify the far smaller investment in an elevated structure, whose easy grade of 1.4 per cent from the Reading Termi- nal viaduct and 1.58 per cent form the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines viaduct, at Tenth and Carmen streets, Camden, will make possible the utilization of the bridge for REAL high speed, not merely to the Philadelphia-Camden suburbs, but to all parts of PRSL rail lines, in Jersey.

No Change of Cars

The present and prospective resi- dents of New Jersey, between Phila- delphia and the seashore, naturally desire that railroad trains operate without change of cars, between one of the Philadelphia rail termi- nals and all points of the PRSL lines and up to Bordentown.

There is a growing realization that the advocates of the alleged "high speed" rail line over the Philadelphia-Camden Bridge, to a dead end in Camden, are claiming and expecting too much from it.

It is no secret that bankers, mort- gage holders, real estate owners, merchants and politicians want commuters and transient travelers to change cars in Camden in the Broadway shopping district.

Anyone familiar with the habits of commuters and other travelers, knows that no one will scramble for seats three times, climb up and down stairs three times and change cars twice, in a ride to or from the business or shopping center of Philadelphia.

Those who advocate the connection of the Eighth Street subway with the tracks of the PRSL at Broadway, Camden, overlook the electrical, financial and operating difficulties.

First, The Eighth Street subway uses 600 volts direct current. Only the rails through Woodbury, New- field to Millville are electrified for direct current.

Second, If the remainder of PRSL rails were electrified, like the Pennsylvania and Reading lines in Philadelphia, alternating current of 11,000 volts would be used, thereby eliminating Eighth Street subway cars, excepting to Millville.

Third, Subway cars are geared low so as to climb the nearly 5 per cent grades. Consequently, they are limited to about 45 miles per hour, which is not high speed, necessary to satisfy and attract commuters and transient travelers throughout PRSL territory.

Fourth, The investment, conse- quent carrying and operating charges required for electrification of PRSL are so enormous, in relation to present or immediately prospective traffic, that electrification cannot be expected.

Fifth, The recent rapid, success- ful development of lightweight stainless steel trains, driven at gen- uine high speed by Diesel-electric self-contained power, answers all of the foregoing objections.

Low Cost Operation

All of the cost of electrifying PRSL would thereby be avoided. For less than the cost of electrify- ing the rails alone, all of the Diesel-electric power and trailer cars need, could be bought.

Such light trains can be operated for so much less than steam or ordinary electric trains, that the investment can be amortized out of the operating savings.

Those who have advocated the use of subway trains have ignored the tremendous cost for electric power to raise each train from the subway level to the bridge level and from the Camden subway level to the PRSL track level. This extra cost must be paid by passengers through higher fares.

When I advocated, nearly four years ago, the use of aluminum al- loys to lighten multi-unit electric cars, so that they could climb from the Reading Terminal elevated structure, over the 1.4 per cent grade to the crest of the bridge to an elevated structure along Main street, Camden, to connect at Tenth and Carmen streets, Camden, with the Pennsylvania and the Reading tracks, the consolidation of those

PUBLIC HEARING ON DOG RACING

Palmyra Borough Council Will Hear Arguments on Both Sides Tuesday Night

Palmyra Borough Council will hold a public hearing Tuesday eve- ning, June 12, on the proposal to es- tablish a greyhound racing track within the borough west of State Highway S-41.

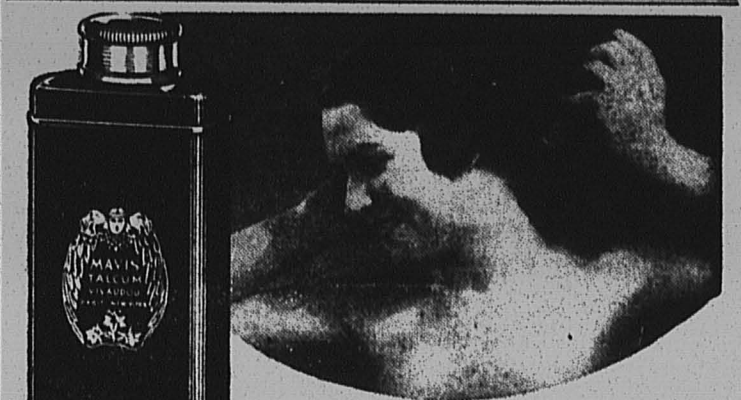

It is reported that petitions are being circulated against the race track because of the betting feature. Ludwell J. Sachrey, promoter of the track, urges all citizens to view the matter dispassionately and to consider what the racing plan would mean to the Borough in the reduc- tion of taxes.

Mr. Sachrey asserts the revenues from the race track would make pos- sible a reduction of some 25 to 40 per cent in local taxes and that the year's income of the Borough from the track would be from $40,000 to $60,000.

A similar race track has been es- tablished in Pennsauken Township, and it is reported that if Mr. Sach- rey's proposal is turned down in Pal- myra, he will seek a location in a nearby municipality which would receive the revenues now offered Palmyra.

Mr. Sachrey urges everybody to attend the meeting Tuesday evening and freely speak his mind for or against the proposal, so that council can be guided by the opinion of the majority.

many pupils prettily dressed as immigrants from Sweden, Ireland, Holland and Scotland each came and bowed before the Statue of Liberty. Pupils from the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades participated in this episode under the direction of Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Williams, and the dances were directed by Miss Lucas.

Episode V, dated 1863, depicting strife within the country, and the emancipation of the slaves was ably rendered by students of the 7th and 8th grades. Robert Stover, in Lincoln-like attire ably delivered the immortal Gettysburg Address. This act was directed by Miss Emory.

March of Progress

Episode VI, dated 1870, showed the growth of civilization and the march of progress. A goddess labeled "progress" stood upon her pedestal while pupils each bearing a symbol of progress came and knelt at her feet. Commerce, education, manufacturing, music, science, painting and dancing each were represented. Mr. Sloan directed this group which was made up of pupils from the seventh grade.

Episode VII, dated 1916, showed the call of humanity and was played by students of the eighth grade under the direction of Miss Lippincott. Children dressed to represent Belgium, Japan, Italy, France, England, Scotland and Ireland, each came before "Uncle Sam" and presented their petition for aid.

Episode VIII, dated 1918, represented the peace and happiness to follow the World War. Pupils from grades 1, 2, 7 and 8 participated under the direction of Miss Justice and Miss Gardner.

"Carry On"

Episode IX was dated 1934, and carried the title "Now we must carry on." This episode represented the grand finale and all who had participated in the pageant came to the fore and saluted the flag and sang one stanza of America, bringing to a close the program.

The prologues to each episode were written by students of the eighth grade, and all properties and costumes were made in the school and financed by the Student Council.

The electrical amplification system engaged for the occasion broke down just before the beginning of the program and the school victrola was pressed into service.

The music and folk dances were directed by Miss Lucas.

Notwithstanding high winds, overcast sky, slight drizzles and broken amplifier, many adjudged it the best ever, and hastened to congratulate Miss Staman, supervising principal, for the work that she and the faculty had put into the production of the pageant.

Of special note is that all properties and costumes (except a few borrowed) were made in school and financed by the Student Council.

The P.T.A. Supper

Individual tables with gay covers and chairs were set up on the green (thanks to Mrs. M. Simons and Robert Clelland who hauled them) so that those who came for the picnic supper served by the P.T.A. could enjoy it in comfort.

There is always a splendid spirit of cooperation on this day, and the P.T.A. wishes to thank all those who contributed so generously of time and effort as well as liberal buying.

Chairmen in charge, all ably assisted were:

Mrs. B. Cook, hot dogs; Mrs. E. Hahn, ice cream; Mrs. D. Symon, milk; Mrs. E. Zimmerman, coffee; Mrs. G. Weir, cake; Mrs. G. Steedle, candy.

LEGION MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Post Frederick M. Rodgers No. 156, American Legion, of Palmyra and Riverton, will be held in the Legion home in Palmyra, on Tuesday evening, June 5th, at 8:30. All Legionnaires as well as ex-service men are requested to attend this meeting.

Audit for Clerk's Books

On motion of Mr. Wolcott the president was requested to ascertain the cost of having the borough auditors to audit the books of the district clerk, as of June 30.

On motion of Mr. Latch the clerk was instructed to secure copies of the school law and amendments to date for each member of the board of education, to be the property of the board.

The president and Miss Staman were appointed to attend the meeting of the Federation of District Boards of Education to be held in Trenton, June 8.

Commendation

Mrs. Yost offered the following motion, which was unanimously passed:

"That the Board of Education express to Miss Staman, the teachers and pupils of the Riverton school its appreciation of the exceptionally fine play day exercises, which were original, instructive and excellently performed."

Mayor Says "Fine Work"

The following letter of appreciation of the fine showing made at the play day exercises from Mayor Elmer Hahn was read:

Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, 4th and Main streets, Riverton, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Elwell,

I feel that the exhibition which the children of Riverton School gave last evening was very creditable and portrayed a lot of work on the part of both the teachers and the children.

I have heard a lot of fine compliments pertaining to the work that is being done in our school, and one had only to visit the exhibition to be assured that our children are getting the very best that is possible to give them.

I will appreciate it if you will extend to your board as well as your teachers, my congratulations for what they have been and are accomplishing.

Very truly yours,

J. Elmer Hahn.

Following a discussion of the report of the education committee by the board as a committee of the whole, the board reconvened and the following report of the committee was accepted and ordered spread upon the minutes, Mr. Hemphill voting in the negative.

To Reorganize Faculty

"The education committee reports that after conference with Mr. Kaser (county superintendent) we find it impracticable, due to the Tenure of Office Act, to make the suggested reduction of a full-time teacher in the faculty at this time without injury to the system."

"We approve Miss Staman's recommendations for the reorganization of the faculty as follows:

"In the reorganization for the term 1934-35 there be an unassigned teacher who have fallen behind their group and who need assistance in subjects such as reading, arithmetic and spelling."

"This work has been done in the past in addition to regular class work by teachers who had low enrollments. During the past term 61 children have been assisted in this manner."

"An unassigned teacher could also do substitute work, eliminating the need of employing strangers who were used 27 days this year."

"E. O. WOLCOTT,

"Chm. Ed. Com."

Merchantville Choir to Sing

they have built to a point of excellence where it holds an enviable position in the music life of South Jersey.

The chorus is headed by Irvine Donahue, as president, and has for its director, Fredrick Homer, both of Merchantville.

A program appropriate to a Sunday concert has been selected and is as follows: "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Shelly; "Contemplation," by Widor; "Bless Thou the Lord," a Russian Choral by Ivanos; "Green Cathedral," by Carl Hahn and "The Rosary," by Nevins.

The solo parts in the concert will be carried by Mrs. Irvine Donahue, soprano soloist, and Mrs. Marie Baldwin, alto. Walter L. Flexon is accompanist for the chorus.

Two cantatas for the rendition of which the chorus is particularly noted are of "The Messiah" from Handel, given at Christmas time and "Olivet de Calvary" given at Easter. Hundreds of people are expected to visit Lakeview Memorial Park this Sunday afternoon where from the comfortable interior of their own cars, parked amid a wealth of fresh spring beauty, the whole concert will be brought to them through the silver tone of the "Singing Tower."

Ample parking space is available on the park property, and the managing director of Lakeview, Roy A. Ramey, extends a cordial invitation to everyone to visit the park this Sunday afternoon to hear this group of splendid singers.

WATER USED

Imperial Rome used some fifty gallons of water per capita daily. Medieval Paris used but one quart. Today, Naples uses about twenty gallons. Paris, Berlin and London about forty-five, and larger American cities range from about forty-eight gallons daily, at Fall River, to 430 gallons at Tacoma, averaging some 140 gallons.—Scientific American.

"You don't hear people speak of 'Robin Hood's barn' any more, do you?"

"No, I suppose it's been turned into a garage."

FAULTY HEADLIGHTS BRING ARREST AND FINE

Driving with faulty headlights 1:30 Saturday morning caused the arrest of John McGarrigle, of 124 Jefferson street, and Milford Dorsey, of 216 Cleveland avenue, Riverside. Chief Gootie and Officer Robinson arrested the pair at the intersection of Broad street and Thomas avenue, and took them before recorder Cecil A. Bowers who fined McGarrigle $3.00 and costs and Dorsey $2.00 and costs.

TIPS ON GROWING

BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

When arranging the Perennial border or bed, it is well not to strive for too formal an effect such as a circle or oval. Beds of Hardy Perennials fringing the shrub line or the outskirts of the garden or paralleling the walk down the yard—long and narrow—make the most satisfying appearance. An undulating edge adds to its attractiveness. Try for a balance in the different sections of the border in height, time of flowering and color. When the border has a background of a fence, wall or high plants, set the taller plants in the back rows, those of medium height in the middle and the more dwarf ones in front. As a general rule plants which grow to a height of two feet or less may be planted twelve inches apart; others space equal to one-half their height when developed. The ultimate height is usually noted in the catalogues.

Also in a long border set some of the taller plants in the center and near the ends to break monotony of height outline. It is wise to plant in masses of several plants in a clump. All Perennials have but a limited flowering time, so a well-balanced border should contain spring, summer and autumn flowering items and spotted so that some plants representing each flowering season will be in each section.

Color harmony in comparison is not of so great importance, as there is seldom a clash of colors in plants approaching the same height and time of flowering in close proximity. Leave an edge of say six inches to a foot and also a space in the front row of plants to sow seed of quick growing and all season flowering annuals such as Alyssum, Petunias, Phlox, Drummondii, Portulacas, Marigolds, etc.

Start your border now.

There is no vine that clings of its own accord to stone, brick and stucco without artificial support as does the Boston or Japan Ivy, and no vine is so beautiful at all seasons of the year.

It is extremely healthy and can be used also for covering dead trees, stone work, wooden buildings, is absolutely hardy and the foliage exhibits many bright tints in the fall.

Still, if we were choosing a vine for covering a rock pile or an unsightly outcropping of any kind, we would select a trailing Rose such as Wichuraiana, bearing a single, yellow stamened white flower. The leaves are almost evergreen and the canes bear bright red fruit in the autumn. Another good Rose for this purpose in the single yellow-flowered form of Wichuraiana, Gardena. Phyllis Bide and Dorothy Perkins may also be used. Set the vines about three feet apart.

SCOUTS OFFER

Troops Nos. 5 and 9 Express Their Gratitude to Those Aiding Minstrel Show

The Boy Scouts of Troops Nos. 5 and 9 wish to thank all who supported the minstrel, either by taking part or coming to see it presented. Those who were actually in it enjoyed it as much as those witnessing it.

The specialty act presented by Joseph Seal and James Weat kept the audience puzzled, not knowing whether to listen to the jokes or try to solve the way the act was being presented.

The piano solo by Dr. LeFavor was much enjoyed.

A solo by Miss Denise Johnson and a tap dance by Jack Matthews were also accepted with delight by the audience.

Harry Horner presented his solo as if he were singing over a radio. The end men, Hayes Brady, Lawrence Schweizer, Harry Turner and Buddy Bauer, with their interlocutor, Carl Wilcox, proved good in their clowning.

STOUT LEADER OF REPUBLICANS

Popular County Chairman Will Enter Thirteenth Consecutive Year of Party Service

Freeholder Charles R. Stout was elected chairman of the Burlington County Republican Committee for his 13th consecutive term at the reorganization meeting in the court house Monday night.

Mrs. Effie Philippino, of Maple Shade, was elected first vice chairman of the Republican committee to succeed Mrs. Pearl Bridgman, of Hainesport, who was elected to the state committee at the primary election. Mrs. Bridgman succeeds Mrs. Elizabeth C. Verga, of Camden, as vice chairman of the State committee.

Other officers elected are: Miss Martha Venable, of Marlton, second vice chairman succeeding Mrs. Evelyn Belcher, of Medford; Mrs. Alma Evans, of Riverton, secretary, replacing Philip S. Irons, Jr., of Mt. Holly; Alphonza Adams, Florence, assistant secretary, and Daniel R. Lemon, of Browns Mills, treasurer, succeeding Garfield Brown, of Mt. Holly.

Sheriff George N. Wimer served as temporary chairman during the nominations.

Stout, in a brief address, stressed necessity for unity in the Republican ranks for the November election. He announced that the Associated Republican Clubs of Burlington county and members of the county committee would be guests of the Young Republicans of Burlington county at a pre-campaign "pep meeting" June 11 in Mt. Holly High School.

Democratic Officials

Richard B. Hughes was re-elected chairman of the Democratic County Committee. Miss Elizabeth R. Cowperthwaite, Medford, vice chairman; Miss Edna Pettery, Hartford, secretary; Harry S. Lytle, Riverside, treasurer, and Frank S. Ab-salom, Florence; Mrs. Louise Ramish, Maple Shade; Walter W. Van Sciver, Beverly; Joseph A. Wolfrom, Mt. Holly; James D. Magee, Bordentown; Frank J. Mulraney, Moorestown, and Mrs. Florence Wills, Rancocas, executive committee.

The speakers included George M. Faunce, Riverside, freeholder candidate.

Would Promote Town's Growth

Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the Public Service Coordinating Transport Company for a better and closer service. The service now rendered is unfit and unsatisfactory for a town of its size.

In the event that the Public Service does not grant our plea I am prepared to take my appeal to the Public Utilities Commission.

River Pollution

This petition is to be presented to Hugh S. Cummings, Surgeon General U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C.

We, the undersigned taxpayers of Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the United States Government for relief from pollution of the Delaware River which is nothing more than a huge cess pool. We ask that the United States Government give us a river free from pollution and this petition is to be presented to the Delaware Valley Utilities Company in the Packard Building in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Government to prosecute all offenders that pollute this stream.

Lower Water Rates

We, the undersigned taxpayers of Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the Riverton-Palmyra Water Company for a substantial reduction in rates, and to eliminate the service charge as the rates and service charge are unreasonable and unfair.

Lower Gas and Electric Rates

We, the undersigned taxpayers of Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the Public Service Gas and Electric Company for a substantial reduction in rates, as the rates now charged are unreasonable and unfair.

If the plea for lower gas and electric rates which will be presented first by George T. Dold, manager at Burlington, are not recognized, Mr. Powell proposes to lay the situation before the Public Utilities Commission, and if necessary, take the matter to Washington. The same course will be taken in reference to the water rates and request for lower bridge tolls, and in view of the fact that each petition bears nearly 800 names, he believes he can secure a hearing.

Extend Bridge Line

We, the undersigned taxpayers of Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the Joint Bridge Commission to extend its line to Palmyra, New Jersey, as the town is in need of a fast and efficient service.

Reduction in Bridge Tolls

We, the undersigned taxpayers of Palmyra, New Jersey, do hereby petition the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge officials for a substantial reduction in rates and elimination of foot toll, as the rates now charged are beyond reason and retard the growth of the Borough of Palmyra and surrounding towns.

The petition to the Joint Bridge Commission is to be presented to Matlack Stackhouse, Moorestown, N. J., who is the Burlington County member of the Commission, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mayor Killam E. Bennett, of Riverton.

YMCA 11—K. of C. 9

The YMCA team clustered more clusters of runs at the park tonight and as a consequence, beat the K. of C., who put up a game fight, by the score of 11-9. Bill Baker and Eddie Buckholz of the Y had three hits apiece, Baker's including two triples and Friberg's one. Martin Casey and Jack Barr, of the Knights had two hits each. The most outstanding feature of the game was a wonderful running backward, leaping, one-handed stop of Beddow's long fly by Tony Prisco, of the K. of C., in the third frame.

Laundry 12—Artisans 2

The Riverton Laundry team, recovering from last week's setback, came back tonight and defeated the Artisans by the lopsided score of 12-2; that is, it looks lopsided, but really it wasn't so, for the Laundry did most of their scoring in the late innings. In the eighth, for instance, Phil Stiltz's home run with the bases clogged accounted for four of the five tallied that stanza.

Stiltz, of the Laundry, accounted for three of his team's total, while Coles, of the Artisans, bagged two safe hits to lead his gang.

SZABO WILL MEET SAVOLDI TONIGHT

Szabo, Recent Victor, Will Face Savoldi, Leading Contender for World Title

Sandor Szabo, Hungarian heavy-weight wrestling star, and "Jumping Joe" Savoldi, of Notre Dame grid-iron fame, will clash in the feature attraction of the Twin City Sporting Club's weekly mat bill at the Camden Armory Thursday night.

Szabo, recent conqueror of Abie Coleman, and Savoldi, recognized as one of the leading contenders for the world's title, are scheduled to battle it out over the two-out-of-three falls route. A 90-minute time limit is attached.

The Hungarian, an outstanding championship contender for the past four years, has compiled a splendid record in Camden during the past eight months. Sandor's colorful style has made him a tremendous attraction, and his appearance in the windup with such a prominent opponent as Savoldi is expected to pack the Armory to the rafters.

This will be the last match of the season at the drill shed. The following week the Twin City promoters, Frank and Ray Hanly will move over to Charlie Grip's Pennsauken Arena, where they will stage shows during the summer months.

Ted Christie, of California and Joe Dusek, Nebraska Caveman, will square off in the semi-final which is booked for one fall, with a 45-minute time limit attached. Two thirty minute bouts will make up the rest of the card. Marshall Blackstock, of Georgia, will oppose Henry Graber of Germany, in the second contest. Andy Rascher of the University of Indiana, will take on Bobby Stewart University of Alabama, in the curtain raiser.

RYC PLANS FOR BUSY SEASON

Many New Boats at Anchor,
May Have Three Classes
Compete This Year

The warm days are bringing out something besides electric fans, as anyone who drives or walks along the river bank will notice, for the Yacht Club is fast getting into full sail for a cruise into a long and successful season. Many new boats are now at anchor and from all indications more may be expected. It seems that the public is fast realizing the enjoyment to be derived from boating in any of its phases.

A steward has been engaged to take care of interests of the club and its members, so those who have been hesitant in bringing their boats to anchor may now do so with a feeling of safety.

Many sail-boat races have been scheduled for this year and with the possibilities of three classes you may be sure they will be interesting. They will be fully covered in this column in the future.

The Club extends an invitation for all persons with or without boats to join.

Eighth Inning Rally by Locals
Upsets Strong Burlco
League Nine

The Riverton baseball team traveled to Vincentown Memorial Day in the morning and in an early-season surprise, knocked off the strong Vincentown farmers, 9-5. An eighth inning rally by the locals upset a one-run lead the Burlco League team had on Riverton, and put them five runs to the good as six men came prancing across the home plate.

Riverton led off with a run in the opening frame when Reeves crossed the home plate on a single smacked out by Foulke. They next skipped an inning and then brought in another run when Terrill crossed the home plate when the catcher let one go over to second to catch Foulke.

Vincentown then came back with a run in the fourth frame, their first in the game. They followed it up with three more in the next inning when Worrell, Hanson and Powell of Vincentown each garnered a run. Riverton skipped two more, and then in the sixth Baker scored one run off the bat of Conway.

Both teams chalked up a zero in the seventh, and with Baker leading the batting order for Riverton in the eighth, six Rivertonians crossed the home plate with each man batting once.

Vincentown tried to make it up but garnered only one run, and with two zeros in the ninth, the game ended 9 to 5.

A WORD FROM THE UMPIRE

Umpire-in-chief Carhart wants it thoroughly understood when one of his umpires suspends a player, it is then up to the league to reinstate him. A player can be put out of a game, and be eligible for the next game, but he cannot be suspended and play without action by the league.

President Conway has been requested to issue an order making it permissible for all players to use gloves in accordance with the new rules of the National Playground Rules. Mr. Conway is very anxious to hear from the executive committee on this new rule.

The President has dashed off the manuscript of a new book on government, as a man has to have something to do in his afternoons.

Why It's Called 'Rosemary'

It's interesting to know that the flower rosemary has nothing to do with a rose and nothing to do with a girl named Mary. It gets its name from the Latin "ros," meaning dew, and "marinus," marine, sea.
