MANY BIDS ON RIVERTON SCHOOL

Keen Competition for $85,000 Operation. Board Meets Again Tonight

Friday, March 29th, bids were opened by the Riverton Board of Education for the proposed addition and alteration to the Riverton Public School building.

The architect, Byron H. Edwards, and Walter Joyce, the PWA inspector, were present at the meeting, as well as fifty contractors and sales representatives.

Bids for the general construction drew but four, which were as follows: Pasquale and Schaible, Vineland, N. J., base bid, $58,410; Carl L. Furner, Oaklyn, N. J., base bid, $65,000; William Ehret, Trenton, N. J., base bid, $69,983; George W. Shaner & Sons, Palmyra, N. J., base bid, $71,167.

The three low bidders for the structural, ornamental and miscellaneous iron work were as follows: American Iron Works Co., Camden, N. J., base bid, $5,775; Camden Iron Service Co., Camden, N. J., base bid, $5,987; Samuel J. Cresswell Iron Works, Philadelphia, base bid, $6,265. Three other firms bid on this schedule.

The three low bidders on the heating and ventilating (unit ventilator system) were as follows: Raymond J. Baldwin, Philadelphia, base bid, $6,774; Walter E. Bittner, Trenton, N. J., base bid, $7,418; George H. Orfe, Jr., Riverside, N. J., base bid, $8,319. Eight other concerns bid under this schedule.

The one bid on heating and ventilating (mechanical warm air) was as follows: American Heating and Ventilating Co., Philadelphia, base bid, $9,190.

The three low bidders on the plumbing and drainage were as follows: Raymond J. Baldwin, Philadelphia, base bid, $5,476; Louis Leyman, Audubon, N. J., base bid, $5,781; Walter E. Bittner, Trenton, N. J., base bid, $5,791. Six others bid.

The three low and only bidders on the electrical schedule were: Earnest S. Milligen, Mount Holly, N. J., base bid, $6,343; William E. Snell, Vineland, N. J., base bid, $6,390; John T. Plaskett, Merchantville, N. J., base bid, $7,500.

There were thirty-two bids on various alternates under the five contracts.

The Board of Education moved that the bids be received and filed and spread upon the minutes.

The building committee met on Wednesday evening to discuss the bids and make its recommendations to the Board.

Thursday evening (tonight) the Board of Education will meet to take action on the bids.

SACRED CANTATA ASH WEDNESDAY

"The Seven Last Words of Christ" Will Be Presented in the Methodist Church

Full chorus rehearsals of "The Seven Last Words of Christ," to be presented Ash Wednesday in the Methodist Church, of Palmyra, are being held each Monday night in the Riverton Porch Club. Special rehearsals for the solo ensembles are putting the final touches to a performance that promises to eclipse anything of the sort ever held in the community. The ranks of the chorus are now complete and no singers who have not already reported for rehearsals will be accepted.

"The Seven Last Words of Christ" will be presented under the auspices of the Fellowship Choral Club, augmented by a large chorus of women's voices. All the soloists, whose names have already been announced, are local musicians. Alfred S. Van Osten is director, Lee Mitton, organist.

MUST ACCEPT SEASONAL WORK

State ERA Director Declares Relief Clients Must Find Work If Possible

All county directors of the State Emergency Relief Administration have been called upon by State Director Lewis Compton to apply "extraordinary vigilance in connection with seasonal work opportunities for those on the relief rolls." The admonition is in pursuit of the policy of cooperation formulated between the ERA and the National Re-employment Service with the purpose of modifying as far as possible expenditures for relief.

Mr. Compton explains that not only should every effort be made to provide work opportunities through the Re-employment Service but that all representatives of the administration shall ascertain and report promptly on the employment of clients if they do not do so themselves.

"It will also be very necessary," Mr. Compton wrote, "to take a very definite and firm stand with clients who do not pursue diligently these opportunities for seasonal employment."

MUST KEEP UP PRICE OF MILK

Milk Control Board Denies Right of Company to Cut on Delivered Milk

Housewives of Riverton and Palmyra, in fact, all over the state have the New Jersey Milk Control Board to thank for having to pay a cent a quart more than necessary for milk.

An injunction was served on the Supplee-Wills-Jones Milk Company Monday night of this week by this Board to prevent their cutting the price of milk below that prescribed by the Board. The preliminary injunction proceedings were signed by Vice Chancellor Francis B. Davis, and are returnable on April 9, in the Court of Chancery.

This action was started following an announcement by the defendant concern that on and after April 1, 1935, the retail price of milk would be 14 cents on Grade A and 11 cents on Grade B, which automatically brought the price of milk one cent below that prescribed by the Milk Control Board.

The reduction proposed by the Milk Company would bring the price for door-step delivery down to that of cash and carry stores.

The New Jersey Milk Control Board has always maintained a one cent differential between cash and carry and door-step deliveries. The prevailing price on Grade A Milk, door-step delivery, is quarts 15c, and pints 9c; Grade B milk quarts 12c, and pints 8c, with one cent less on all sales in cash and carry stores.

PLENTY OF POWER P. S. CONTENTS

Capacity of electric generating plants of Public Service Electric and Gas Company is sufficient to meet all estimated requirements at least through 1937 and probably for a longer period. This was the reply of Jacob T. Barron, vice president in charge of electric operation, to a report issued by the Federal Power Commission in Washington to the effect that present plants in the United States will not be able to supply sufficient electric power if industry returns to "normal."

The commission's report was a summary of the first part of an interim report on the National Power Survey ordered by President Roosevelt.

"UNCLE CHARLIE" 87 YEARS YOUNG

Forty Friends Join Riverton's Youngest Octogenarian in Celebration

A most unusual and interesting birthday party took place at the home of Mrs. Mary Haas Robbins Wednesday night of this week when approximately forty men helped "Uncle Charlie" Flanagan to celebrate his eighty-seventh birthday.

Charles M. Biddle, Jr., who was toastmaster, read a tribute prepared by Joshua W. Atlee and signed by those present which read as follows:

Birthday Party
Congratulations

Wishing you may live 100 years, and that

We may live 100 years less one day,

As we would not enjoy this life after You have passed away.

Those who signed the tribute were: Judge Heiligman, John R. M. Showell, Albert C. E. Buob, Charles Miller Biddle, Jr., Harry S. Wyman, H. McIlvaine Biddle, William Cox, Francis B. Downs, Harry E. Moyer, William F. Cline, Robert Biddle, Joshua W. Atlee, Walter St. Clare Knodle, Thomas I. Rogers, Randolph Faries, Gardner Crowell, Francis B. Elwell, Harry F. Jones, E. K. FEDERAL AGENTS IN BRIDGE PROBE

Former Freeholders and County Engineer Asked To Be Present

A special meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders was held Tuesday, lasting from 3 p.m. to after six o'clock. The subject of the prolonged session was the much discussed Delanco Bridge and, like some others with the same topic under discussion, not much progress was made.

Inspector McGinnity, of the Public Works Administration, was present by arrangement, as were former Freeholders Howard Russ and James C. McCormick. Former County Engineer H. Brevoort Smith was also on hand.

The inspector was armed with a questionnaire, previously prepared, pertaining to the whole subject of the bridge, starting with the letting of the contract, on up to the present time. The questions asked were intended to throw light upon the whole much-discussed subject.

The inspector said he would use the information obtained, in preparation of his report to the Public Works Administration.

STRUCK BY AUTO ON RIVER ROAD

Charles Woodington Run Down By Burlington Man Saturday Night

While waiting at River Road and Bellevue avenue, East Riverton, to take a bus for Riverside, last Saturday evening, Charles R. Woodington, of Cinnaminson township, was struck by a car driven by Joseph H. Adams, 26, Camden Pike, Burlington.

Adams took the injured man to office of Dr. Charles F. Voorhis, Palmyra, where it was found that he was not seriously hurt.

Adams then reported the accident to the Palmyra police, who in turn notified Chief of Police Dorworth, of Cinnaminson township, who took Woodington to the home of his nephew, Mr. Stackhouse, in Riverside.

Woodington, who is 78 years of age, is father-in-law of Benjamin Rielley, Melrose and Columbia avenues, Cinnaminson township, with whom he makes his home.

The owner of the car was Nick Morella, 46 Park avenue, Riverside.

With Adams in the car at the time of the accident, were Eloise Adams and Ruth Schmierer, 46 Park avenue, Riverside, and Eleanor Bruno, 416 Middleton street, Riverside.

KIWANIS GIVE BOTTGER DINNER

Joint Board Meeting and Birthday Party at Bottger Home

The Board of Governors of the Camden Kiwanis Club held their regular monthly meeting at the home of William H. Bottger, Linden avenue, Riverton, secretary of the organization, on March 28.

The meeting was preceded by a dinner at which time Mr. Bottger was presented with a beautiful Seth Thomas electric clock in recognition of his ten years of service as secretary of the club, and as a birthday gift.

At the board meeting, contracts were awarded for the building and equipping of one new bathroom for the Sheltering Arms Home and necessary alterations to other sections of the home, purchase of brace for crippled child and ten pairs of eyeglasses approved for underprivileged children in Camden City.

Mr. Bottger was elected delegate at this meeting to attend the Kiwanis International which is to be held at San Antonio, May 16 to 25, with an after-convention tour to Mexico City.

Those attending the dinner were: Hon. John B. Kates, Delaware River Bridge Commission; Theodore Thompson, cashier First National Bank, Camden; J. Alex Crothers, general manager Camden Marine Terminals; Dr. Martin H. Collier, superintendent Lakeland Sanitarium; William Harris, Frank J. Kinsella, Edwin Pearson, James A. Galt, William Chew, Jr., Joseph Tweedy, Nelson Ireton, William Hendricks, Henry Meyer, Joseph H. Bach and Lawrence Verga.

ANOTHER HITCH IN DORRANCE TAX

On Monday New Jersey became officially a party to the Federal Court suit for an interlocutory injunction to restrain this state from collecting $12,183,459.96 inheritance taxes and $4,145,713.70 interest from the estate of Dr. John Dorrance, former head of Campbell Soup Company.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman was served with a bill of complaint and a restraining order to prevent the state from collecting until application for the permanent injunction is adjudicated. The hearing is set for April 12 before the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Trenton.

RIVERTON SCHOOL BOARD ORGANIZES

Mrs. Elwell President, Woolman Vice President. Hemphill Refuses to Quit

At the organization meeting of the Riverton Board of Education last Monday night, Walter K. Woolman was elected temporary chairman and Harry E. Moyer temporary clerk.

Mrs. Marion R. Elwell was elected president and Walter K. Woolman vice president without opposition.

When nominations for clerk were asked for, Karl W. Latch nominated Spencer L. Haines, at a salary of $400 a year, to take office immediately. The nomination was seconded by Everett Wolcott. (Mr. Hemphill had been receiving a salary of $600 a year, which was reduced by 10 per cent at the time other salary cuts were made, making $540 net.) Hilton M. Smith nominated Fred P. Hemphill, incumbent, but there was no second.

Hemphill Refuses to Quit

Mr. Hemphill said that if the board desired to change clerks, that was their privilege, but Mr. Haines could not take office until June 30, of this year, as his (Hemphill's) term was from June 30 to June 30, and that acting on reliable advice he would not relinquish his office until that time.

The president read a section from the New Jersey state school law confirming the power of the board to terminate the services of the incumbent, at any time.

Mr. Hemphill, notwithstanding, reiterated his determination to continue as district clerk until July 1, 1935. On motion of Mr. Wolcott, the contention of Mr. Hemphill was referred to the legal department of the State Board of Education. On this motion Mr. Smith voted "No." Mr. Hemphill present but not voting. Mr. Bottger arrived late, but in time to vote with the majority.

When the ballot was called on the election of Mr. Haines, Mrs. Elwell and Messrs. Woolman, Latch, Wolcott, Moyer and Bottger voted in the affirmative, and Mr. Smith in the negative. Hemphill did not vote, and Mrs. Yost was not present, but came in later.

Haines Well Qualified

Mr. Haines comes to the Riverton board well qualified for the duties of the office he will fill. He spent three years as bookkeeper at the Camden National Bank, one year as paying teller at the American Trust Company, Philadelphia, and was with the Security Trust Company, Camden for twenty-nine years, during which time he was general ledger bookkeeper, note clerk, correspondent, paying teller and receiving teller.

In addition to these activities he was secretary and treasurer of the Endowment Building & Loan Co., Camden; organizer and secretary

SIX COUNTIES TO FIGHT "NUMBERS"

Burlington County is one of the six in South Jersey which will pool their forces in a drive against the numbers racket and other forms of gambling.

Final decision to this effect was reached last night at a meeting in Camden called by Prosecutor Samuel P. Orlando, of Camden County.

Meeting with Orlando were Prosecutors Robert M. McAllister, Atlantic; Howard Eastwood, Burlington; Thomas G. Tusso, of Cumberland; Linwood Lord, of Gloucester, and William A. W. Grier, of Salem.

Sergeant William Kelly, of the detective division of the New Jersey State Police and assigned to the Hammonton barracks, also attended and took part in the planning of the

SUNRISE SERVICE ON EASTER MORN

Four Hundred Voices and Twenty-five Trumpets at Lakeview Park

The third annual observance of the Easter Sunrise Service will be held at Lakeview Memorial Park, Riverton, at 5:00 o'clock, Easter Sunday morning, April 21st.

The services will be under the complete charge of the Rev. Albert J. Harko, pastor of the Moravian church of Palmyra, and it is expected that the record attendance of 25,000 last year will be exceeded this coming Easter Sunday.

Grouped around an outdoor pulpit from which the services will be conducted, 400 mixed voices will unite in one melodious chorus, proclaiming to the world that "Christ is Risen."

Accompanying the huge chorus, a brass ensemble consisting of twenty-five trombones and trumpets is being planned, to be made up of the Marshall Family Band, of Roebing and the Felton Family Group, of Pennsauken.

The huge chorus of 400 voices will have for a nucleus 150 voices from the Sunday School and Church of the Moravians in Palmyra. These voices will be augmented by volunteer singing groups from churches and high school glee clubs throughout South Jersey.

John M. Burgmann, of Palmyra, will act in the capacity of chorus director, using music especially printed for the Easter Sunrise Service.

Programs are being prepared and will be distributed to everyone visiting the park for the services.

Special bus accommodations are being arranged to serve the residents of Riverside, Riverton and Palmyra who plan to attend. Ample parking space is available in the spacious drives throughout the park.

The Easter Sunrise Service has gained in popularity to such an extent that each year brings a greatly increased attendance. The beautiful natural setting of Lakeview, the long hillside furnishing a background for the artistic stone pulpit and large surplised choir, all completely surrounded with an atmosphere of religious observance that reflects the true Easter joy, makes a picture that words are inadequate to describe.

Become a part of the many who will observe this great religious holiday and benefit by the inspiration that it will give. Plan now to attend this great non-sectarian service that on April 21, will be observed for the 203rd successive year.

YMCA AUXILIARY LUNCHEON APRIL 16

State President and Past President of YMCA Auxiliary of N. J.,
To Be Guests

The covered dish luncheon planned by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Palmyra-Riverton YMCA for Wednesday, April 10, has been postponed from that date to Tuesday, April 16.

Mrs. Sherman L. Warren will be the Auxiliary hostess, assisted by Mrs. Reid S. Merley.

Mrs. E. A. Blood, president, YMCA Ladies' Auxiliary of the State of New Jersey, and Mrs. Clifford K. Bebout, past president YMCA Ladies' Auxiliary of New Jersey, will be guests of honor.

A varied program is planned for the afternoon; complete details in next week's issue of this paper.

ENGAGED

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Eleanor Moffet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moffet, of Palmyra, to Claud Buzby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Buzby, of North Main street, Woodstown. Miss Moffet was graduated from Palmyra High School and Rider College, Trenton. She taught at Woodstown and Boonton high schools before joining the faculty of the Riverside High School. Mr. Buzby is a graduate of the Woodstown High School.

Profits are sometimes the main consideration; it is better when one can also contribute to the happiness of humankind.

REV. A. S. LEWIS TO LECTURE AT MOUNT HOLLY

The Rev. Arthur S. Lewis, rector of All Saints Church, Wrentham, formerly of Christ Church, Riverton, will present an illustrated lecture at the regular meeting of the Burlington District of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of Episcopal Church to be held at St. Andrew's Church, Mount Holly, Tuesday, April 9, at 2:30 o'clock.

The subject of the lecture is "The Work of the Diocese of New Jersey."

Mrs. William S. Branson, of Palmyra, president of the Burlington District, will preside for a brief business meeting, preceding the lecture.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Burlington County Tuberculosis League will hold its 33rd semi-annual rummage sale on May 8 and 9, at Browns Mills.

More and better rummage would be very acceptable as last year the demand far exceeded the supply. Every year the poor people of the county look forward to this rummage sale when they are able to obtain bargains in articles of clothing, books, furniture, dishes, food, etc.

Will you help by giving anything at all that has ceased to be of value to you? New articles will be very acceptable.

Rummage will be collected if you will please call the office in Mount Holly, telephone number 37.

As usual, a delicious luncheon and supper will be served on Wednesday.

RIVERTON GIRL CHOSEN COLLEGE PAPER EDITOR

Miss Elizabeth Mayfield, of 611 Fourth street, Riverton, was elected music editor of Campus News, semi-weekly publication of New Jersey College for Women.

Miss Mayfield, who is a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mayfield. She sings in the college choir and last year was her class song leader. In her freshman year Miss Mayfield won academic honors. She is a graduate of George School in Pennsylvania.

HEUBEL-ABDILL

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Abdill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Abdill, of 809 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, to John Heubel, son of Edgar A. Heubel, of 500 Delaware avenue, Palmyra.

The ceremony will take place on Saturday, April 20, at three o'clock in the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra, with a reception following at the Abdill home.

Mr. Abdill will give his daughter in marriage and her attendants will be: Miss Bessie R. Regars, of Burlington, as maid of honor; Mrs. Charles R. Howell, of Adedemia, Pa., and Mrs. Edward N. Hoyt, of Trenton, as bridesmaids and Mary Jane F. Abdill, of Philadelphia, a niece of the bride-elect, as flower girl.

William H. Heubel will be best man for his brother and ushers will include their brother-in-law, Warren McLaughlin, of Riverton; Edward N. Hoyt, Trenton, and the bride-elect's brother, Lieut. Everett W. Abdill, of Philadelphia.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Norristown, Pa., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Abigail Dickinson Wright, at Cooper Hospital, Camden, March 31. Mrs. Wright will be remembered as Miss Mary Dickinson, of Riverton.

Who Suffers Most From Heavy Taxation?

It should be everlastingly emphasized that the tax problem is EVERY citizen's problem—whether he is a millionaire or a worker for wages.

It should likewise be emphasized that the tax problem is of greater significance to the man of small means than to the man with large means. In spite of all the talk about "taxing the rich," government subsists principally from revenue derived from taxes on things bought by the millions of representative Americans. The rich are taxed heavily, it is true—but the revenue from that source barely makes a dent in governmental receipts. The rich are so few and far between, especially in these days, that if government confiscated all their wealth it would soon be bankrupt without additional funds.

It has been reliably estimated that 20 per cent of an annual family income of $2,000 goes for taxes. Little of it is paid in direct taxes—and that fact has led to the erroneous belief that people with small means escape paying for government. That belief should be thoroughly exploded—every bag of groceries, every gallon of gasoline, every pair of shoes you buy, is taxed. If you rent your home, part of the rental represents taxes which the owner must pay. If you take a trip on a train, the heavy taxes paid by the railroads are reflected in the cost of tickets. If you turn on a light, about 15 per cent of your electric bill goes for taxes.

The average citizen eats as much, wears as many clothes and moves about as much, as do people with much larger incomes. As a result, it is this average citizen who is most seriously affected by extravagant or wasteful government. And it is the average citizen who profits most from economical, efficient and thrifty government.

When these facts are realized by the American people, there will be a campaign for tax reduction that will not confine itself to petty speeches, but will get results.

"Business Is Better"

Business is definitely better now than at this time last year. Practically every industry is increasing sales, earning moderately higher profits. Complete figures for January show that the index of industrial production was at the highest January level since 1930.

The fact remains, however, that in the view of many competent observers, fundamental conditions are unchanged, and all that is keeping us going is government spending.

It is true that 10,000,000 men are out of work, are being supported by relief—about the same number that was unemployed two years ago, when the great recovery drive started. That is the most ominous fact the country faces now.

Recently a writer in the Saturday Evening Post explained why men crack.

He said he had been in a position to observe thousands of men who achieved high positions and who cracked. He sums up the reasons in these three paragraphs:

First, careless disregard of the condition of the human machine—its physical and consequently mental fitness.

Second, lack of simplicity—pretentiousness—overconfidence and underconfidence.

Third, lack of faith in other strong men.

"Trying to force recovery by statute is like standing up in a sailboat and blowing on the sails. The speed of the boat is determined by forces outside it."—Neil Carothers, Professor of Economics, Lehigh University.

Bermuda has not had a murder or kidnapping for fifty years. This will enable some diet faddist to prove that onions are a deterrent to crime.

CHURCH NEWS

CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Charles T. Bates, B.D., Pastor
Next Sunday, April 7, morning worship at eleven o'clock and Church School at 9:45; the pastor's Class of Instruction at ten o'clock. The Session will meet at the close of the morning worship.

The Preparatory Service will be held on Wednesday evening, April 10th, at eight o'clock and will be followed by a meeting of the Session, at which time any who may wish to unite with the church, either on profession of their faith or by letters from other churches, are requested to meet the Session. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed on Sunday, April 14th, Palm Sunday.

On Friday, April 12th, from two until six o'clock the Ladies' Aid Society will hold their annual food and apron sale. All ladies of the congregation are asked to help to make it a success.

Calvary Church extends a cordial invitation to all in the community, who have no church home, to join in its worship and fellowship.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Harold L. Creager

At our morning worship service next Sunday, we shall continue the discussion of great Christian truths, the sermon topic being "What Is Atonement?" This great word, so often misunderstood, beautifully expresses the rich graciousness of divine salvation. The evening sermon will deal with "The Christian Spirit of Patience and Modesty."

The Wednesday evening services during Lent have been devoted to the following: the authority of Christ. Next week those studies will be concluded with a message on "The Authority of Christ on the Cross."

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gibson.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Unreality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 7th.

The Golden Text is: "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment" (John 7:24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings" (Psalm 40:1, 2).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "An all-attuned ear calls discord harmony, not appreciating concord. So physical sense, not discerning the true happiness of being, places it on a false base. Science will correct the discord, and teach us life's sweeter harmonies" (p. 66).

LENTEN SERVICES AT CHRIST CHURCH

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion Sunday morning, April 7, at eight thirty o'clock in Christ Church, Palmyra, the Rev. Francis B. Downs, rector of Christ Church, Riverton, will be the celebrant.

The Rev. Hollis W. Colwell, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, will be the officiating clergyman at the Lenten service at Christ Church Friday evening, April 5.

SUCCESS TO YOU

brary, Riverton Fire Company, Riverton Porch Club, Mr. and Mrs. John Strohlein and baby Mary Elizabeth Strohlein, Judge Helligman, Mrs. Eliza Grove, John Showell, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, Mrs. E. J. Bush, Murray Boyer, Walter St. Clare Knodde, John G. Seckel, Harry F. Jones sent a beautiful basket of fruit.

The evening's entertainment was mostly made up of reminiscences started by Mr. Flanagan and carried on by other members of the party. Mrs. Alphonsus Jordan, of Riverside, gave several recitations which were well received.

Mrs. Robbins read a tribute to "Uncle Charlie" which just seemed to fit his personality. It follows:

FOLKS LIKE YOU

Wouldn't the world be nice to live in,

Cheery through and through.

If everyone were just as kind as

Folks like you.

'Course we can't get all we aim for

Every day, it's true.

But there's one thing never fails us—

Folks like you.

Mighty sure when I embark for the Shore beyond our view

I shall find that Heaven is only

Folks like you.

The color scheme of pink was carried out through all the decorations, and the birthday cake was one of twelve pounds made in the pyramid shape with a baseball on top.

"Uncle Charlie," who was an inveterate baseball player and still a great fan, passed several pictures of old teams around the assemblage. One dated back as far as 1873 and the other to 1893. "Uncle Charlie" was in both of these pictures.

One of the stories which made the rounds, was how "Uncle Charlie" got the baseball grounds and club house moved because of a hole in which he was afraid the left fielder would sprain an ankle. It seems that the club house once stood where Ross Elliott now lives, and the diamond extended up to the house now occupied by Harry E. Moyer. This hole bothered Mr.

Flanagan a lot, and with the sandy soil at that section of the town, patches were useless. At just this time the Pennsylvania Railroad was trying to get the Delair bridge built, and a good many people in this section were against it. On the advice of his father, Mr. Flanagan went to the railroad company and told them that Riverton was not opposed, and finally worked it around so that the company sent a special freight car up to Riverton, moved the club house over on the other side of the railroad and thus eliminated a cost of about $1500 which the club would have had to pay.

This story brought out others and the discussion finally developed into a round table yarn contest, each one trying to get his story in. Another reminiscence was told of how at one time Connie Mack asked permission to have several practice games on the Riverton diamond.

Mr. Flanagan is an honorary member of the Riverton Porch Club, one of the earliest members of the Riverton Fire Company, a Library director for a good many years, organized the Riverton baseball and football teams, treasurer of the Republican Club of Philadelphia, and a member of the Union League in Philadelphia.

The menu for the dinner was as follows: fruit cocktail, chicken croquets, mashed potatoes, peas, cole slaw, olives, pickles, celery, coffee, ice cream and cake, nuts and mints.

The War Department espouses legislation that would give the government "absolute control" of the press during war. A few months ago The Globe hooted the idea that the government desired to hamper the freedom of the press. Today we wish to apologize for having hooted.

JONATHAN KELSEY DIES SUDDENLY

Former Prosecutor of Burlington County Has Heart Attack from Overexertion

Jonathan H. Kelsey, 61, former prosecutor of Burlington County, died at his home, 75 Hanover street, Pemberton, Saturday afternoon late. Mr. Kelsey was found dead in the living room of his home by his wife, Reba and daughter, Virginia, who had been shopping. He had been digging in his garden, and had retired to his couch. A physician said death was due to a heart attack superinduced by exertion.

Mr. Kelsey, during his term as prosecutor from 1915 to 1925, figured in 19 murder cases, winning 18 convictions.

One murder of especial interest in this community was that of "Hon. est" John Brunnen. Brunnen, a circus owner, was shot to death while sitting at the window of his Riverside home, on January 19, 1921. George Werner, a cook in the circus with his wife Doris, were convicted. Werner, it was said, resented the attentions his employer showed to his wife.

Mr. Kelsey was a poet of more than local note, many of his poems receiving wide recognition. He wrote under the name of Danny King. His best known poem is his "A Fisherman True," which was printed in several newspapers and magazines. He also was moved to write a "lament," "My Topcoat," upon the discovery of the theft of his coat at a meeting one Winter afternoon. A volume of poetry, "A Tour of Rhyme," written in 1921, describes a trip through most of the United States.

Born in Davenport, Ia., he came to Pemberton at the age of seven. At 20 he became a justice of the peace. A year later he established an insurance brokerage office in Philadelphia. In 1904 he was admitted to the bar. He had been unable to attend college to prepare himself for the law profession because of ill-health, necessitating private tutelage, which led to his admission to the bar.

In 1912 he was an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for state senator, defeated by only 294 votes. On April 1, 1915, Governor James Fielder appointed Mr. Kelsey prosecutor. He was re-appointed in 1920 for another five-year term by Governor Edward I. Edwards.

He was a member of the Mount Holly law firm of Kelsey and Killie. He was also a member of Pemberton Borough Council and of the board of Education. He was one of the founders of the Pemberton People's National Bank and Trust Company, serving as solicitor and director.

Mr. Kelsey was an enthusiastic amateur photographer. Many of his pictures were snapped by a camera designed by himself from a cigar box. He also possessed a valuable collection of Indian relics found in New Jersey.

Among the lodges of which he was a member are the P.O.S. of A. Woodmen of the World, Masons and Elks. He was an active member of the Pemberton Rotary Club.

Surviving Mr. Kelsey besides his wife and daughter, are his son, Franklin; three sisters, Misses Al. berta and Clara Kelsey, and Mrs. Hattie Coleman, of Delaware, and two brothers, Hiram and Elwood, both living in Connecticut.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Wednesday. Interment was made in the Baptist Cemetery. Elk services were conducted Tuesday night

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

THIRST

IT WAS hot that day along the road to Palos in the Spanish province of Andalusia. The dust eddied and swirled around the hoofs of a little white mule and around in a choking cloud around his rider. He was Cristobal Colon. Ahead of him, the mariner saw the walls of a monastery. Santa Maria de la Rabida. Surely the good friars there would give a thirsty traveler a drink of water! They would, indeed! So he drank several cupsful of the refreshing fluid. Between drinks Joan Perez, officiating guardian of the monastery, listened to the stranger's tale of thwarted ambition. He wanted to sail West across the Sea of Mystery. He had sought the aid of Ferdinand and Isabella, rulers of Spain. But they had refused. By and by the disheartened sailor rode away. He did not know that Juan Perez was the confessor of the queen, nor what a deep impression he had made upon the friar with his tale of vast ambitions. But he soon found out. For Perez's eloquent pleading in the Genoese sailor's behalf convinced Isabella. And so it came about that the thirst of Christopher Columbus on that hot summer day along the road to Palos sent him sailing at last across the Atlantic to immortality as the discoverer of America.

BEFORE AND AFTER
The tombs of the dead prophets are built only of the stones hurled at them while living, and thus may we accurately measure the greatness of their daring, the force and truth of their unprecedented utterances.—Horace Greeley, Autobiography, p. 527

It will not do if one nation lays down its arms and others refuse to do so. The nations of the world must concur with each other concerning this supremely important subject, so that all may abandon together the deadly weapons of human slaughter.—Abdu'l-Bahá.

What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?—Micah 6:8. (Said to be the favorite verse of the late William Howard Taft.)

We will have more faith in European newspaper correspondents when they send us a dispatch about the arrest of a female spy who isn't beautiful.

THE WAY TO LIVE LONG
The reason the centenarian crop is so short has been discovered. A Chicago woman, 101, says nobody lives that long except by minding his own business.—Danville, Ill., Commercial-News.

Does the moon flicker at the hound dog's baying? Ask yourself this when envious tongues speak evil of you—and shine on.—Nuggets.

"The only two that can live as cheaply as one, are the flea and the dog."

Attendance officers, Miss Helen Blair and Miss Caroline Cook, salary $90 a year, payable to the Visiting Nurse Society.

The Visiting Nurse Society will supply nursing service at an annual fee of $200 in ten monthly payments. Dr. George J. White was appointed school dentist for the second half of the school year. The remuneration is at the rate of $4.00 per hour, not to exceed $150 a year.

Miss Caroline M. Staman was elected principal at a salary of $2175 per year. It was stated that election as principal at this time would place Miss Staman under tenure in that position. Mr. Hemphill called attention to the fact that he was not voting, and that his failure to do so constituted a vote in the negative, his contention being that the office of principal could be vacated at any time. Mrs. Elwell said she would take it up with the commissioner's office also.

Leon Sloan was elected as teacher of science and mathematics at a salary of $1176 a year, plus $50 compensation for additional services.

Mrs. Grace Cook Gilliland Duer was elected as art teacher, two days a week, at a salary of $704 per year.

Mrs. Julia Haines was elected domestic science teacher, two days a week, at a salary of $675 a year.

Edward Griffith, manual training two days a week, $792.

Resignations
Miss Emily D. Lippincott, who has been teaching English, submitted her resignation, which was accepted with regret.

Miss Jeanne T. Emery, teacher of social studies, guidance and current events, advised the board that she would not apply for re-election.

Applications for positions were received from Mrs. Ethel Reed Cummings, daughter of the late Datis Reed, former president of the Riverton Board of Education, and Miss Mildred Mickle, of Palmyra.

The resignations were received and filed and the applications referred to the education committee.

Hemphill Objects
At this point Mr. Hemphill declared that the Riverton school had enough teachers without filling the two vacancies, and that in his opinion Miss Staman should be returned to the teaching staff. Neither Miss Staman nor the board had made any attempt to reduce expenses, he said, and some effort should be made to save the taxpayers a part of the money being spent for additions to the building.

Mrs. Elwell Replies
Mrs. Elwell replied to Mr. Hemphill that she thought his remarks were rather premature in the absence of a report from the education committee, which had been delayed in submitting its plans by reason of a resignation received so late that there had been no time to rearrange a schedule that had been prepared. Mrs. Elwell further said that this committee was considering an economy program and would have a report to make along that line.

The duties of temporary secretary having been completed, the regular order of business then ensued, with Mr. Hemphill acting as District Clerk, pending legal decision on disputed point above recited.

William A. Donaghy and Victor Berger, members of the Palmyra Board of Education, appeared before the Riverton board to express their appreciation of the courtesy and co-operation extended in the matter of the recent request of the Palmyra board that some way be found to pay the amount for tuition which the Riverton board had been holding back pending the receipt of money from the state.

ERA TAILOR SHOP NOW IN PALMYRA

Relief Clients Busy Making Children's Clothes; Old Clothing Wanted

A new ERA project is entering its second week of work in palmyra. The project is headed by Harry Bates and constitutes a miniature tailor shop. Surplus material from Government middy blouses is made into garments for small children not exceeding six years of age.

Four sewing machines have been installed in the YMCA building, where the work is carried on, and local women who have been aided are working out their relief by making garments.

The completed articles of clothing for both boys and girls are sent to Mt. Holly, where they are redistributed to worthy county clients, through the office of W. Rex McCrosson.

The project is carried on five days a week between the hours of 9.00 and 3.00 p.m., Monday to Friday inclusive.

People having clothing that is discarded and yet with material good enough to be made over into something else, are requested to take it to Mr. Bates.

RE-ROOF for all time
DON'T take chances with an old roof when it is so easy to have Careystone applied right over it. Made of asbestos and cement formed into shingle-shaped units, these roofs have all the advantages of slate or tile without the heavy weight, high cost and tendency to crack.

BEAUTY

A Heritage for Your Children's Children to Share in Lakeview Memorial Park Cemetery

DIFFERING from so many of this Earth's beautiful things Lakeview Memorial Park has lasting beauty. As you stroll through its picturesque walks and find inspiration in its rolling lawns and majestic trees, you should say to yourself, "Here is beauty that will not die. My grandchildren and their grandchildren will be able to enjoy this beauty just as I am enjoying it today!"

The permanence of Lakeview Memorial Park as a place of beauty is guaranteed by a large Perpetual Care Fund, the principal of which can never be touched. This Fund is irreducible in amount and will grow through the years. It will not be affected by the death of any person or the dissolution of any company. It is protected by all the financial and legal safeguards possible under the laws of this state.

It will go on through the centuries caring for the Beloved Dead of this Community, an assurance of perpetuity, a guarantee of permanence. No assessments or charges of any kind for the upkeep and care of private lots in the Memorial Park will ever be permitted.

And all of this you may have for the final resting place of your loved ones by purchasing a burial lot in Lakeview Memorial Park.

Mike Murmurs

By William Cooper, Jr.

Not so long ago we published a story in this column about the swell dance orchestras in the city of Philadelphia. Since that time there is hardly a dancunit in the Quaker City that has not been aired over some broadcasting network. If you have been listening to Philly stations like we think you should, you have no doubt heard LEO ZOLLO and his orchestra from the Ben Franklin Hotel. Zollo has a dance band somewhat on the order of Henry King's.

The dancunit along with that of the VINCENT TRAVERS orchestra feature the smoothness of the violin interwoven with tricky arrangements. But what city would be complete without some of that Lombardo has this also in the melodious music of JIM FETTIS and his orchestra who in the short space of one year have perfected this type of music and we think that this band sounds more like Lombardo than the famous Jan Garber. In the past two weeks another dance band of this smooth type rhythm has arrived in the Quaker City to place melodies in the Arcadia. As you will have probably guessed by now it is GENE MARVEY and his Westchester Society orchestra.

Although his arrangements are not as simple as those of the Fettis ork, they are the type that keeps you on your feet dancing the whole time they are on the air. A few weeks ago Eddie Duchin was playing with his orchestra in Philadelphia and at the same spot where Duchin was tickling the ivories MANNY LAPORTE was playing piano meditations between Duchin's intermissions. LaPorte left this place to organize his own orchestra and a short while ago he opened with his band at the Anchor-age. Believe it or not, we would have sworn that Duchin was at this nite club, but it was Manny LaPorte with a copy of the Duchin arrangements and orchestrations which was hard to beat. In a more central city spot EARL DENNY is supplying the dansapations and using somewhat the same piano style as LaPorte, but not to such a great extent. Anyone with any rhythm at all in their body should tune in the "hot" dansapations of the DEL REGIS musicrew. This outfit is a good copy of the Casa Loma band and believe me they sure can play those arrangements. And while we're on the subject of warm music, one of the most popular of colored orchestras in the Quaker City today is the one under the direction of 'DOC' HYDER. They give you their own savage interpolation of the hottest of the hot numbers which are so popular today. Philly's only ballroom band on the air is the dansapators batoneered by DAVE VANHORN. This unit is a typical ballroom musicrew with brassy arrangements which make it popular with both the dancers and the air audience. Two other bands in the metropolitan area which no list of orchestras would be complete without are those directed by OLIVER NAYLOR, that genial southern gentleman, whose signature "On the Alamo" has made him a figurehead wherever dancers gather; and JOE FRASSETTO whose sweet arrangements built around his own violin solos have brought this orchestra to the front in holstery nite spots where he has appeared. This, my reader friends, completes the list of orchestras playing the dance melodies which you enjoy dancing to which are featured regularly over the following Philly stations: WC-AU, WFIL and WIP.

WCAU will present the "Phatons" radio's newest musical instrument, which was created by the WCAU experimental laboratories, on a coast-to-coast network on Saturday evening, April 6th, at 6.15. The invention has a keyboard somewhat on the order of an organ but on a much smaller scale. When it makes its debut Leonard MacClain will be at the keyboard and he will be assisted by Pete Wolery, popular tenor of both radio and stage.

A new invention in short programs will be heard over WIP every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8.00 p.m. The program is called the

PORCH CLUB NOTES

At a well-attended meeting on Tuesday, J. S. Mattis, of Dreer's, entertained the Riverton Porch Club with a lecture on "Spring, Summer and Autumn in the Flower Garden."

His talk was illustrated by many beautifully colored slides showing the proper grouping and color combinations of garden flowers for all seasons.

The garden section is most grateful to Dreer's for their kindness and cooperation in making these interesting programs possible.

Prize winners for arrangements of spring flowers were Miss Helen E. Biddle, Mrs. John Grove, and Mrs. William G. Porter.

PHILLY NOTES: Listen for the Tempo-Politans, that tuneful dance band over WDAS every Wednesday 7.30 to 8.00. "All Tangled Up In Love" is sure on the road to big money. It has been heard on all three major networks and we are sure that you have liked it if you have heard it. If you haven't you better listen for it. Stoney McLinn veteran sports authority, will inaugurate a new series of sportscasts from the studios of WIP tomorrow, Saturday, April 6th, at 6.30 o'clock. His guests will be Connie Mack and Jimmy Wilson; incidentally McLinn will describe the first in the games between the A's and the Phillies, over WIP. With WPEN'S S.S. All in Fun off the air we heard a rumor that the "Skipper" is angling to get his show on WIP.

YMCA BRIEFS

Young men members of groups affiliated with the Burlington County YMCA will have a get-together meeting at the St. Andrews Parish House, Thursday, April 11, beginning with supper at 6.45 p.m. F. Whalen Potter, a collector of rare coins, will be the speaker, using many of his coins to illustrate his talk. This and other plans were made for the get-together by representatives of young men's groups, at a recent meeting called by J. William Pennell, chairman of the County Group Work Committee.

J. Horace Finney, Jr., president of the Young Business Men's Group of Palmyra-Riverton, will preside at the meeting and the K.G. Group, of Bordentown, will provide special music. This affair will be open to any young man interested from the various parts of Burlington county. Reservation for supper should be made at the County YMCA headquarters.

The executive committee last week decided to have an afternoon meeting on Wednesday the tenth, instead of the scheduled Discussion Class in the evening.

At this meeting, there will be an entertainment by "Home Talent," with a social hour and tea afterward. Be sure to come as this is a friendly get-together meeting.

The members of the P.T.A. were asked to help with the circus planned by the school for the annual play-day, and P.T.A. picnic, in June. It is not too soon to offer suggestions so that they may be worked out.

Come, and try to interest some one who has not been attending regularly to come with you. Publicity.

His Eyes Have Not Been Dimmed by Civilizing Influences

Eyes of man and beast were intended for use in natural light or darkness. During the ages of development of civilization, man has found it increasingly necessary to use his eyes in unnatural light. His reading, his study, his art, his craft, have demanded the use of his eyes under artificial illumination—the fire, the candle, the kerosene lamp, the gas jet, the electric bulb.

Until recently artificial illumination has never closely approximated natural light, and the result—man's eyes became old too soon.

Today we know more of illumination and the ill effects of improper light for close work. We know how to safeguard eyesight by proper illumination during evening hours.

Ask our lighting department to check the illumination in your home. This will be done without charge. It is a part of our endeavor to help our customers to get the most from their electric service.

WESLEYAN TEAM LOSES CO. TITLE

Burlington Scholastics Clinch Crown in Last Minutes on Seven Fouls

The Wesleyans, winners of the Interboro Basketball League title, were defeated in their second game of the play-off series by the Burlington Scholastics, winners of the Burlington City League, in the Burlington High School last Monday evening by the score of 26-24. The contest was bitterly fought from beginning to end and the 3:16 boys seemed to have a little better quality of basketball than the Burlington team. With a 9-9 tie at the end of half time the Wesleyans soon gained a lead of six points which they held until the last five minutes of play. At this point seven fouls were deliberately called on the local boys of which four were made good along with field goals by Parker and Pinto, lead in points scored being credited with 12 and 7 respectively while Cahill, Hagstoz and Sloan gave an excellent exhibition of passing.

In the preliminary game the Artisans took over the Burlington All-Stars, a picked team from the Burlington League, by the score of 35-32. Eisley claimed a total of 20 points which was high for the season in any one game.

These two games marks the close of a successful season for the Interboro League and the players and officials wish to thank all those whose efforts brought success to the new league, especially the local school board whose cooperation made basketball possible.

PLAYGROUND BALL LEAGUE TO MEET

Will Consider Applications, Make Up Schedule Next Monday Night at Fire House

A meeting of the officers and managers of the Riverton Playground Baseball League will be held 8:15 o'clock in the Riverton fire house.

The meeting is for the purpose of considering all applications, to establish a definite starting date and arrange for a schedule of games. Fred Conner, president of the league, states that some new teams are applying for a place and that from all accounts a new season full of thrills can be anticipated by the big crowd of followers that the sport enjoys. Every manager or his representative is urged to be present at the meeting Monday night, as this will probably be the last before the schedule is made up.

TIPS ON GROWING

BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

Lyman M. Forbes in the January "American Home" tells about the "Witch Garden" of a Chicago suburbanite—the eeriest, spookiest, most imaginative of gardens. As described it must be lovely but I would not tread those "haunted" kidney-shaped stepping-stones in the dark of the moon for all the night scents of the Indies.

An extremely interesting and novel garden tool is found in the catalogue this season, shaped somewhat like a golf club and called the Grasswip, for cutting weeds and grass. The tool has a three foot handle of steel, well balanced and is swung like a golf club, cutting the grass on either the forward or backward swing. Wearing of plus-fours not essential... overalls perfectly correct.

One of the best known Dahlia specialists of South Jersey illustrates in colors on the cover of his 1935 catalogue the new informal Decorative Dahlia, Forest Fire, his own origination. This spectacular variety is well named as the petals literally flame in scarlet and yellow. The flowers measure nearly a foot in diameter and a half foot through. Being still a novelty it is high in price, but we believe it is the most colorful variety of the season.

The Berlin "Gartenflora" relates the following legend on the origin of the Chrysanthemum: A poor Chinese woman had an only little daughter, who died. Broken with grief, she buried her, and placed on the grave some brightly colored paper flowers. Her sorrow was so deep and enduring that it awakened the paper flowers to life; and in tending the now living plants, the mother found comfort and solace. These were the original Chrysanthemums!

A very pretty succulent for the home is the Dream Plant (Echeveria Weinbergii). The leaves are fleshy, pale amethyst in color, borne in formal shaped rosettes. Will grow in any soil, especially where there is an admixture of leaf mold. The leaves may be used for propagating fresh stock by simply inserting lengthwise in loose soil. Plants do not require any great quantity of water and may be set outdoors during the summer.

Many new roses annually appear on the floral horizon heralded by a great fanfare of publicity, medals and patents, only to pass over the rim of the rose world in a few years, their places being taken by even more improved sorts. In view of this it is interesting and surprising to note that the beautiful single Brier Rose, Austrian Copper, bearing flowers of a bright copper red with the reverse of the petals golden yellow, has been in existence since 1596. The bud is exceptionally shapely and lovely.

JIM RAPP HEADS BALL COMMITTEE

Practice Game at Palmyra High School Grounds Saturday Afternoon

At the meeting of the Palmyra Athletic Club Tuesday evening plans were formulated to organize the baseball, soft ball and tennis activities for the coming season. Jim Rapp was appointed chairman of the baseball committee, and all players interested in being on the town team are requested to report for practice Saturday afternoon, weather permitting, at the high school grounds.

Arrangements have been made for a twilight league, and entries are solicited from such organizations and groups as the Artisans, Methodists, Baptists, K. of C., P.O.S. of A. or any other group interested in both baseball and soft ball. It is the ambition of the athletic club to have as many as possible actively engaged in organized competition, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to participate.

LONE STARS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Cinnaminson Lone Star Juniors, YMCA, were victorious over Mount Holly at Moorestown by a score of 39-12. This gives Cinnaminson the Burlington County YMCA basketball championship. High scoring honors go to R. Coe with 8 doubleteckers and 3 penalty casts. Stoltz stood out for Mount Holly with 8 points. The Stars also defeated Haddon Grange and Jobstown YMCA.

BEGGARS WITH CAR ARRESTED MONDAY

Clara E. Moody, a widow, of 7002 Camden avenue, and Louis Metzger, of 6700 Westfield avenue, Pennsylvania, were arrested on Monday by Officer Wallace of the Palmyra police for soliciting food contributions from townspeople on a poverty plea and using a car for their operations. When taken before Police Recorder Carl Lutz it was learned that one was getting $18 every two weeks with rent and fuel free from the Camden county welfare, while the other was getting $440 every two weeks with rent and fuel free from the same source.

The Recorder, feeling that it was not exactly just to beg food when they had money enough to own and operate a car, and in addition were receiving help from the Camden county relief agency, fined each $5.00 and costs and suspended sentence. The relief agency was notified and the people released with a warning not to operate in Palmyra again under similar circumstances. The food they had collected was taken from them and given to a worthy Palmyra family.

New Freeholders Set-up Pick at Construction and Method of Financing

At a special session of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday, of which only a few county newspapers and three metropolitan publications were notified, the Adams-Jones-Cook triumvirate launched another attack on Freeholder William H. Heisler, director of Finance, who also held this position on the former board.

Notwithstanding the very efficient service of Heisler as head of this department over a number of years, which are largely responsible for the enviable financial position of Burlington County enjoys today, vicious attacks are made upon his judgment and integrity at almost every meeting of the board.

At the conclusion of Friday, Director Adams, addressing Heisler said: "Your way of financing this project is the most assinine way I've heard of. If this is an example of the way you have been directing finances for the county I wouldn't want to be connected with them."

Later in the meeting Adams charged, "We have not invited you to the meetings with the engineers because we knew you would side in with the engineers instead of in favor of the county."

Mr. Heisler's friends point out that his service to the county and his loyalty to the taxpayers are their own answer to the unwarranted attacks by the ambitious young director of the board.

The ostensible reason for calling the meeting was to further reconsider the financing of the bridge project.

No Surety of Grant
The new county solicitor, Lester A. Drenk, said that $50,000, the amount of a grant promised by the Public Works Administration on the bridge project, should have been included in the original appropriation of the county, and when the $50,000 is received from the PWA it would be in the nature of a refund to the county. "There is no surety the grant will be received," he asserted.

He cut his head on the edge of the desk and was rendered unconscious for several hours. He was taken to the Hahnemann Hospital where it was found necessary to take several stitches to close the wound.

MARSHALL TELLS ROTARIANS OF FHA

Gives Illustrated Lecture on Administration Project and Its Workings

"Business Recovery" was the theme of Harold F. Marshall's talk to Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians last Thursday evening. Mr. Marshall, who resides in Palmyra, is an associate of the Stone & Webster Co., engineers, whose activities lie largely in the field of the durable-goods industry. He stressed the waste which comes from irregular employment and inefficient management, both of which are more destructive than labor union regulations, though these have some effect. A talking film-slide on the Federal Housing Administration concluded the program.

The FHA said Mr. Marshall, is much misunderstood. It insures loans for the modernization of property made by established banks, building and loan associations, etc., up to 20% of the amount loaned at a 5% charge. It does not, as many suppose, loan money itself. Furthermore the FHA acts as a sales-promotion organization to unify the efforts of the construction industry and overcome losses inherent in it. Sixty percent of the projects were cash and involved no loans at all.

The film-slide gave a condensed history of the Federal Housing Administration, and was designed, primarily, to sell the idea in a community. Suggested set-ups to make it effective were outlined, including committee organization, agents, publicity and purchasing. The whole thing was graphic, and portrayed exactly what the FHA is designed for, as well as how it can be made to function. Mr. Marshall's preliminary and concluding remarks explained clearly the design of this interesting Federal experiment.

Chairman George Friday of the attendance committee announced another 100% meeting, thereby completing a perfect month. Last year from July to July, the club had nineteen 100% meetings; so far this year, from July to March there have been seventeen. It seems probable that the remaining three months will see the 1933-1934 standard exceeded.

LAWYERS' MONOPOLY BILL KILLED IN SENATE

The Lawyers' Monopoly Bill, suffered a 13-6 defeat in the Senate Monday night. Only six of the 13 Senate lawyers supported the measure, which was designed to impose further restrictions upon real estate agents, title companies and trust companies in drawing instruments such as deeds, wills, etc., in their capacity as agents. The bill would have authorized a fine of $200 for the first violation and $500 for successive offenses. The opposition was led by Senator Clifford R. Powell.

BURLINGTON CO. CATTLE HEALTHY

Few Tuberculosis Cases Found As Federal Experts Test 185 Herds

The city of Burlington and four nearby townships in Burlington county have been designated as a "modified-accredited" area by the Federal Department of Agriculture in view of the fact that recent tests showed them to be practically free from bovine tuberculosis, the State Department of Agriculture announced. The four townships are: Burlington, Florence, Westampton and Willingboro.

The tuberculin tests recently made by the state and federal departments of agriculture in the newly accredited portion of Burlington county revealed only five reactors, which were promptly slaughtered. One hundred 1616 cattle, or the CON N N and eighty-five herds, comprising 1616 cattle, or the entire known cattle population of the area, were tested. The percentage of reaction was less than the maximum of one-half of 1 percent permitted under federal regulations.

Townships in Burlington county that were previously given the rating of "modified-accredited" areas are Shamong, Tabernacle, Washington, Woodland, Bass River, Beverly, Chester, Cinnaminson, Delran, Evesham, Hainesport, Lumberton, Medford, Moorestown and Mount Laurel.

500 VOICES AT SUNRISE SERVICE

Huge Surplused Choir To Take Part in Easter Service at Lakeview April 21

The impressive Easter Sunrise Service, which will be conducted for the third successive year at Lakeview Memorial Park, Riverton, on Easter Sunday, April 21st, promises to have an even greater attendance than the 25,000 who were present for the services last Easter.

At 4:30 a.m., two groups of trumpets and trombones, located at opposite ends of the Park, begin an antiphonal chorale that will usher in the first rose-tinted rays from the rising sun.

At 5:00 a.m., the regular Sunrise Service begins, with a surplused choir of 500 voices standing before an artistic outdoor altar built of stone, especially for the service. Banked around the altar will be lilies and flowering plants that add the Easter touch to the beautiful natural setting at Lakeview Memorial Park.

The popular non-sectarian service is conducted by the Moravian Church of Palmyra, under the direction of the Rev. Albert J. Hake, pastor. John M. Burgmann is training the choir of 500 voices and will be their chorus director.

Under the supervision of Roy A. Ramey, Managing Director of Lakeview, the park is being prepared for the services down to the minutest detail that will make for the comfort and pleasure of the throng of visitors.

The many spacious driveways throughout the park provide ample space for cars and with the aid of local and state police, and a corps of ushers, a rapid and efficient handling of traffic will be effected.

The park is situated on Route 25 (Burlington Pike) one half mile north of the Moorestown-Riverton road. A huge electric cross, illuminated, atop the "Singing Tower" will light the way to motorists on Burlington Pike.

Plan now for your family and friends to attend this service. Join with the thousands who will derive the full measure of Easter inspiration that the service will bring to every Christian heart, and lend your presence to those who publicly join in proclaiming to the world that "Christ is Risen Indeed."

P. H. S. ALUMNI ELECTS OFFICERS

Dewees F. Showell and Grace Sippel Re-elected as President and Secretary

The annual meeting of the Palmyra High School Alumni Association was held at the High School on April 2nd, and officers were elected for the current year.

Dewees F. Showell and Grace Sippel were re-elected to their respective offices of president and secretary. Ruth Bartley was made the new vice president while Horace Finney, Jr., was made treasurer.

The executive committee was elected and consists of the following: Nell Showell, Walter Poulson, Mary Sanford, Betty Eadon, Art Waters, Helen Landers and Dr. Hayes Brady. With these new and competent officers the association looks towards a successful year.

The president appointed a dance committee to negotiate with the Burlington Alumni Association concerning the annual Burlington-Palmyra alumni dance which is to be held May 25th, at Log Cabin Lodge, Medford Lakes. The orchestra is to be decided on within the next few days and tickets will be on sale the week of April 15th. The price will be the same as last year, $2.00 per couple.

PALMYRA G. O. P. HOLDS DISCUSSION

Legislation, Demolition of Houses, Freeholder Meetings and Council Considered

Despite the inclement weather, an enthusiastic meeting was held by the Palmyra Republican Club in Society Hall Monday evening. President James H. Hartley, presided.

Much of the evening was given over to the discussion of the report of the legislative committee. Christopher N. Peditto, Palmyra attorney, who is chairman of the legislative committee of the club, presented a very interesting picture of the debate in the State Legislature on the Horse Racing bill and Camden lighting bill.

Councilman Arthur P. Wright, was requested to explain to the meeting the action of Council regarding the demolition of various dilapidated properties throughout the borough. He explained this action was necessary due to the hazards from fire and danger to public health, which these properties present.

Another matter of vital importance was brought to the attention of the club by President Hartley. This was the fact that the State Board of Taxation would sit this week and would at that time make a decision on the appeal of the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge Company.

A motion was made to the effect that committees be appointed to attend regular meetings of borough council and the board of freeholders. Sheriff George N. Wimer made a report for the delegates who attended the county Republican meeting held in Moorestown last week.

The next meeting of the Palmyra club will be held May 13. All interested persons are invited to be present at that time.

KASER AGAIN CO. SUPERINTENDENT

Reappointed in Face of Serious Charges Made by State Senator Powell

Louis J. Kaser received reappointment last Saturday as superintendent or schools in Burlington county for three years at a salary of $5000 a year notwithstanding charges brought against him by State Senator Clifford R. Powell, of Burlington county, at a hearing before the Advisory Committee of the State Board of Education.

Senator Powell charged that school duties were neglected by Kaser as a result of engaging in real estate activities.

Many school officials, parent-teachers organizations and members of board of education appeared in Kaser's behalf at the hearing before the Advisory Committee on March 21. They stated that Kaser has always been an active and willing worker in school affairs and that he was on call 24 hours a day when necessary. Many members of the various boards expressed indignation over the charge that Kaser intimidated them.

Kaser also had been charged by Powell with approaching the Mount Holly School Board in the purchase of property for the purpose of erecting a new high school building. Kaser has held the position of county superintendent for approximately 20 years.

BARTLEY TO OPPOSE MACKMEN NEXT MONDAY

Dickinson is depending upon Captain Josh Bartley's hitting and Carl Larson's hurling to make a good showing against the Philadelphia Athletics here Monday afternoon.

Indications are that this pair of collegiate stars will comprise Dickinson's starting battery against Connie Mack's team in the season opener Monday. Bartley, second baseman last season, may be shifted behind the plate to handle the slants of Carl Larson, right hander. Last year Bartley touched the opposition's pitching for the phenomenal season average of .417 while Larson, in his first year, turned in a record of three victories against no defeats.

An interesting sidelight on the game here Monday is the fact that Bartley worked out with the A's last summer and rumor hath it that Connie Mack will offer him a major league contract upon his graduation from Dickinson in June.

Bartley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua B. Bartley, of Riverton.

Governor Harold Hoffman Speaks at Largest Conference Held in South Jersey

A large delegation of the Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association attended the annual spring conference of P.T.A. at St. Joseph's School auditorium, Camden, on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Mary Walsh Kobus, Regent of the Camden District P.T.A., presided. The Rev. Charles G. McCarriston, rector of St. Joseph's welcomed the delegates.

Loyal D. Odhner, secretary of the Camden County Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "Safety in Homes." The attending clergy all made short addresses.

Following this the reports from the officers were made. Luncheon was served in the school auditorium, Mrs. Catherine Schlitz was chairman of the luncheon committee.

The principal speakers of the afternoon session were: The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Strinski, of Camden; the Hon. Harold G. Hoffman, Governor of New Jersey, and Samuel E. Fulton, president of the Camden Board of Education.

At the close of the meeting the school children gave an entertainment.

Approximately 1000 attended the conference which was the largest ever held in South Jersey.

"Y" AUXILIARY PLAN LUNCHEON

Reservations May Be Made With Mrs. S. L. Warren or Mrs. C. P. Mayfield

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Palmyra and Riverton YMCA will give a covered dish luncheon at the "Y" building, Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, at one o'clock, Tuesday, April 16.

Mrs. Sherman L. Warren will be the Auxiliary hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clifton P. Mayfield. The program will include readings by Miss Helene Johnson and vocal solos by Mrs. Leon Guest.

All members, mothers, and friends of the "Y" are very cordially invited to attend and are requested to make their reservations by calling the hostesses, Riverton 266 and Riverton 93-W.

In place of the usual luncheon charge, a silver collection will be taken to be used for a "Kitchen Shower" for the "Y."

Find More Fault With New Bridge

resolution adopted March 23, 1934, which appropriated $225,000 for the reconstruction of the bridge. The Cook resolution appropriated $325,000 to temporarily finance improvements to the span.

The resolution authorized the county treasurer and director of finance to borrow from time to time such sums as become necessary, giving them power to issue temporary loan notes, not to exceed a term of six years, and at 6 percent interest.

Heiler and Freeholder Stout opposed the resolution. Heiler said the matter, when first considered, was taken up with the State Department of Municipal Accounts, and that Mr. Darby's advice was followed.

He continued by saying that resolutions could be passed for additional work if financing was prepared before time of payment, and that when the $225,000 was appropriated it was the intent to adopt the proper legislation if more funds were needed.

At this time Adams remarked the board was adopting this resolution to cover up his move.

Heiler replied, "I'll take full responsibility of anything I've done in my department. You don't have to cover up anything."

Heiler then asked how much money had been spent to date. Freeholder Jones said about $181,000, but that plenty more would have been spent, and probably more than the $225,000 appropriated, had it not been for this entanglement which has brought about the hold up of both the contractor and engineer's fees by the county.

Adams asked Heiler if he financed the $225,000 at once. The latter answered he did.

In reply Adams said "This was a poor method, for interest of 5 1/2 percent must be paid from beginning on lump sum. You should have financed smaller sums at a time."

Violated Resolution

Adams claims Heiler violated the resolution adopted March 23, 1934, which instructed the money to be financed from time to time as needed. He says if the money was financed as instructed it would have meant a saving of approximately $5,000 in interest to the taxpayers, being able to take advantage of the market.

Adams informed Heiler he had just communicated by telephone with Darby and Darby said the way they had just voted on to handle the financing of the bridge project was the proper way to do it.

Heiler then said, "My method was their way in the beginning. If they changed their minds since I cannot help that."

The director of the board claimed the entire bridge situation has been mixed up from the beginning.

In answering Heiler when he said he had been invited to but one meeting in regard to the bridge Adams said, "We have not invited you to the meetings with the engineers because we knew you would side in with the engineers instead in favor of the county."

Heiler retorted, "I don't want to hear you ever again make a statement like that. I will always look out for the best interests of the taxpayers."

A communication from Ash-Howard Needles and Tammen, new consulting engineers on the bridge, recommended that an additional work order be issued to take care of opening of one foot, six inches, between edge of sidewalk and roadway curb in between trunk members. This item of construction was not contemplated in the original contract and plans. A resolution authorizing this work at a cost of $828.55 was introduced by Jones and adopted by a 3-2 vote. The resolution contained a provision that the revised plans were to be adjusted in conference between the board and contractors.

Another communication explained that the fender construction for protection of swing span, and for protection and guidance of navigation through both channels under the bridge was narrower than the swing span. According to consulting engineers certain revisions had been made in the plans, with a number of piles being eliminated from the original plans, and lengths of piles shortened. This particular part of the project is about 20 percent done.

Fault of Engineer

Jones claims the poor design of the bridge is the fault of the engineer in making the original plans. He said it is a good thing there was a contractor on the bridge that understood bridge construction or the county would have probably been put in a very embarrassing situation. The gap left open in the bridge, according to Jones, was large enough for a child to walk through and even a car to run one of its wheels into. Adams said the fenders as now constructed will not protect the bridge, and that the former consulting engineers, Bridgewell Engineering Corporation, authorized the Kohn Construction Company to build the fenders as they are.

NOISE NECESSARY TO PUBLIC SAFETY

Palmyra Fire Chief Says Sirens
Must Sound, Even at Night

At a recent meeting of Independence Fire Company of Palmyra it was reported that several citizens have complained that too much noise was made by the fire trucks when going to fires. These citizens felt that the sounding of the exhaust whistles when going to a night fire was not called for.

In answer to this criticism Chief Joseph L. Stack makes the following reply:

"The sounding of warning signals is just as important in the early morning hours as in the middle of the day, due to the fact that whenever the siren is sounded, there is a certain element that seems to have to follow the trucks, no matter what the hour may be; therefore, the sounding of the warnings must be made a general practice, both for the protection of those citizens, and firemen, as well as the fire apparatus, which is the property of the citizens."

In loving gratitude to the Saviour who gave himself for the sin of the world, this congregation will meet in worship on Friday evening, April 19th, at eight o'clock.

On Easter, April 21, morning worship, with special Easter music at eleven o'clock, and at 4:30 in the afternoon, the choir will sing: "Light Out of Darkness"—Garble. There will be no Midweek Service on Wednesday, April 17th.

On April 12th, from 2 until 6 o'clock, the Ladies' Aid Society will hold their annual food and apron sale in the church school.

The Golden Hour Circle will hold a luncheon for its members on Wednesday, April 17th at one p.m.

Rev. Harold L. Creager

Palm Sunday brings us again its message of the Kingship of Christ. Our confirmation is appropriately held on this Sunday morning. The sermon for the occasion will be on the theme, "Members of Christ."

At the evening service a Palm Sunday message will be preached, on the theme, "Christ the King."

During Holy Week we will have services on Thursday and Friday evenings. On Thursday we will celebrate the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Good Friday evening a service appropriate to the day will be held.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor
Services for Palm Sunday, April 14: 10:00 a.m., Bible School. It just seems that everyone is enjoying the seasons of the school more than ever. The superintendents endeavor to make them interesting and the singing from the new hymnals, accompanied by the orchestra, has added zest to the music. There are still some chairs vacant that could be filled.

11:15 a.m., Morning Worship. Pastor Lockett will deliver a Palm Sunday message entitled "Jesus, the King." Special selections by the choir.

6:45 p.m., B.Y.P.U. The only improvement the "B.Y." might have is larger attendances. The programs are interesting and should be enjoyed by more of the young people.

7:45 p.m., Evening Worship. The ordinance of Baptism will follow the usual service with the sermon by the pastor on "Growth in the Spiritual Life."

At 8:15 on Good Friday evening, Stainer's "Crucifixion" will be rendered by the choir, under the direction of Claude Barto and augmented by members of the Epworth M. E. Choir and the Fellowship Choral Club. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

The sunrise service usually held at 6:30 Easter morning will be held at 6 o'clock and will last until 6:30.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 14th.

The Golden Text is: "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise" (Jeremiah 17:14).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. I, even I, am he that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins."

(Isaiah 43:1,25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God, Spirit, alone created all, and called it good. Therefore evil, being contrary to good, is unreal, and cannot be the product of God. To rid of sin through Science, is to divest sin of any supposed mind or reality, and never to admit that sin can have intelligence or power, pain or pleasure (p. 339).

SPECIAL MUSIC SUNDAY NIGHT

Christ Church Choir Will Give Stainer's Crucifixion
at 8 o'clock

Christ Church choir, Riverton, will render Stainer's "Crucifixion" this Sunday night at eight o'clock in place of the usual evening service. This is an event which has long been anticipated by members of the congregation.

Last winter it was necessary to discontinue the special musical service due to the action of the cold weather on organ pipes during the week. It is impossible to keep any organ up to pitch if the temperature is not constant. In order that the instrument might be at its best for the Palm Sunday and Easter services the organ has been completely gone over by the makers and will be in perfect condition.

The choir, which is conceded to be one of the best in this locality, has been working for some time on the music, and it is expected that this will be one of the musical treats of the season. All seats will be free at this service.

ALLEN-ELLIOTT

Miss Elizabeth R. Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rosa T. Elliott, of 402 Fulton street, Riverton, became the bride of Richard L. Allen, of 410 Main street, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Allen, of Watertown, Conn., in Moorestown, Saturday afternoon.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Allen returned to their home at 402 Lippincott avenue, Riverton. The ceremony was witnessed by the couple's parents and a small group of friends.

OBITUARIES

MRS. AUGUSTA SCHONWEISS

Mrs. Augusta Schonweiss, mother of Mrs. John C. Gless, of Riverton, died suddenly Sunday, April 7.

Funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock from the Snover Funeral Home, the Rev. Charles T. Bates, officiating. Interment will be made in Forest Hill Cemetery.

RUTH V. McCAMY

Miss Ruth V. McCamy died at the home of her parents, William A. and Laura M. McCamy, of 745 Highland avenue, Palmyra, Saturday afternoon.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at the late residence, and high mass was held at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Riverton, at ten o'clock. Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Philadelphia, under the direction of Frank A. Snover.

Miss McCamy is survived by her parents and a sister, Miss Margaret McCamy, and two brothers, Robert and William.

MIKE MURMURS

BY WILLIAM COOPER, JR.

There is still plenty of trouble on the radio "front" in the Philadelphia sector. Everything seems to be going all right with you listeners-inners, but it is far from perfect in the minds of certain radio officials. It seems that (as we have said before) WFIL is paying all sustaining talent. When certain radio entertainers in Philly heard about this they immediately went to WFIL to verify it. After finding that the statement was true the artists tried to get immediate releases to audition at WFIL. The artists bureau of WCAU (because they are the call-letters of the other station in this mix-up) released quite a few of the stars from their contracts but soon stopped this practice and held the other artists to their agreement. Before all of the excitement started in the Quaker City WCAU offered their talent sustainings on the CBS with pay, but now WFIL offers talent sustainings programs over the NBC network and pay in the bargain. It seems a shame that WCAU can't cooperate more with their stars than they are at the present time, because radio artists have to live just as do the officials of that station. Oh well, maybe in the near future the pressure of WFIL will become too great at WCAU and we will see a change of heart of the 'CAU execs.

The other day we happened into the publicity department of WIP and quite a crowd gathered around something or other. Warming our way into the group we saw John Hayes, program head at the station, busily engaged in sending a message to WMCA in New York, via a new teletype machine recently installed at WIP. The object of this machine is to keep WIP in constant touch with the other station of the new two-station network, WMCA. And, incidentally, things are picking up around WIP because the personnel of that station has been increased to include another porter and one more announcer—the latter being Ed. Wallace, formerly with WIGB. This new two-station hookup has four new commercial programs. Three are being pumped from New York and the fourth is being piped from Philadelphia. While we're on the subject of WIP news we might as well tell that Philly's Pioneer Voice will soon install a large house orchestra, and this, by the way, will bring new variety and musical shows into your loud speaker.

PHILLY NOTES: Listen for the baritone voice of Ralph Dorsey in a new series of programs to be aired over WDAS every morning at 11:15 . . . WIP's roster of dance orchestras now includes two more—those directed by Howard Lanin, from the Town Casino, and Charlie Kerr heard from the Golden Gate . . . the Penn Relays will be described by Ted Husing at a WCAU mike over a coast-to-coast Columbia network direct from Franklin Field . . . the Radio Center auditorium at 22nd and Walnut streets has just been equipped with ultra-violet tubes. These tubes give the ballroom a weird effect but also a beautiful one. When you visit one of WPEN's visual shows you will no doubt see this new system of lighting in operation. . . . Allan Scott returns to the WCAU microphone on Sunday, Tuesday and Friday evenings at 11:00 . . . Glenn Barker has just been boosted to night supervisor of WIP . . . tune in on the Morning Review heard every Friday over WIP featuring that station's boy and girl act, Pat and Pattie, the rich baritone voice of Phillip Irving, song interpolations of Gabrielle Hunt and the modern dance rhythms of Clarence Fuhrman's orchestra.

GUILD TO HAVE MUSICAL TEA

Artists From Curtis Institute Will Entertain at Home of Mrs.
Nathan Lane

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Needlework Guild of America. To celebrate this each branch of the organization is asked to do something special. Here in Riverton, a musical tea is planned to be held at the home of Mrs. Nathan Lane, Jr.

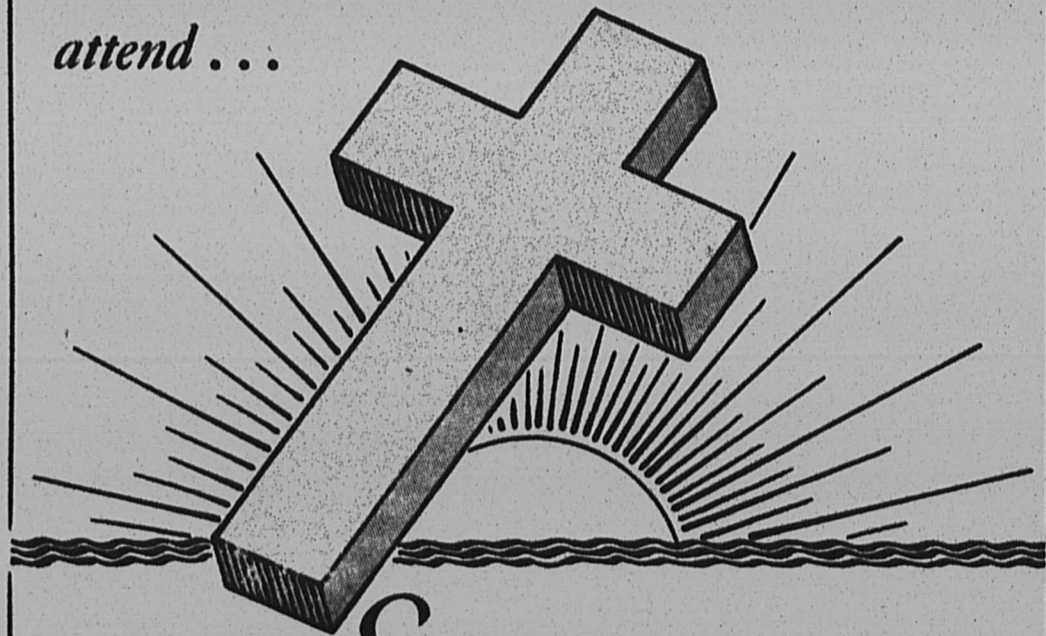

Mrs. Lane has secured from the Curtis Institute the following musicians: Miss Jane Shoof, soprano; Samuel Mayes, cellist, and Elizabeth Bentley, accompanist. It is hoped the directors and their contributors will take advantage of this opportunity. The date is Thursday, April 25, at three o'clock. Tickets at fifty cents are obtainable from Mrs. William G. Porter and Mrs. W. W. Chalmers. From the proceeds, a gift is to be made to the Guild at the biennial convention in Philadelphia, in May.

"A $10 RAISE"

Don't fail to see the side-splitting comedy "A $10 Raise" at the Walt Whitman four days beginning Saturday of this week. Everett Horton and Karen Morley play the leading roles.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

TREMENDOUS STOMACH ACHE
FRANCE was passing through a political upheaval after the fall of the Second Empire during the Franco-Prussian war in 1870. The Monarchists were determined to rule, but sentiment for a republic was strong.

The national assembly which would decide the issue, was almost evenly divided, with a slight edge in favor of the Monarchists. The vote was taken on June 30, 1875. There was no sound in the chamber but the grave voice of the president. He called the name of Monsieur Laurant. There was no answer.

The absurdities that interfere with politics were operating to prevent his response. Deputy Laurant had a stomach ache that morning, a bad one. He managed to sit through the preliminaries, suffering with the griping pains of colic, but finally he could stand it no longer.

The president called his name in vain. Laurant's vote would have been for the Monarchists as he was known to be unwavering in his devotion to this form of government. While he was absent the assembly was deadlocked, 352 to 352. Finally, as was constitutionally provided for in such emergencies, the president cast his vote . . . in favor of the republic.

France might still be a monarchy, if it hadn't been for this stomach ache.

SHORT-WAVE MUSINGS

BY O. M. "C. W."

A special program commemorating the tenth anniversary of the International Amateur Radio Union, and dedicated to the American Radio Relay League, will be broadcast on April 14th by CTIGO, the international short wave broadcasting station of the Radio Club Portugues at Paredes.

It was on April 14, 1925, that representatives of the radio amateurs of twenty-three nations met in the opening session of the First International Amateur Congress in Paris. At this meeting there was organized the International Amateur Radio Union, now a federation of twenty-five national amateur societies with the American member, the American Radio Relay League, acting as the headquarters office.

In dedicating their commemorative program to the ARRL, officials of the Radio Club Portugues are displaying their recognition of the importance of the leadership of the American participants in both this first meeting and in the subsequent international progress of amateur radio.

The program will be transmitted continuously between 7.20 a.m. and 8.30 p.m. EST, on 6198 kc. (48.4 meters), and from 10.00 a.m. to 11.30 a.m., on 12,396 kc. (24.2 meters).

In one of his immortal orations Daniel Webster thus referred to credit: "Credit is the vital air of the system of modern commerce. It has done more, a thousand times more, to enrich nations than all the mines of the world."

RIVERTON

Mrs. J. J. Siddall and Mrs. John Ford returned to Riverton Tuesday after a trip by motor to Washington on Sunday with Mr. Siddall and Dr. Herman Klaus.

Don't forget the cake and apron sale of the Ladies' Aid Society in the Presbyterian Sunday School, Friday, April 12, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

A fashion revue will be given at Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, Friday evening, May 3, under the direction of Mrs. J. Layfield Young. Tickets may be procured for 25 cents.

Miss Betty Hearn, of Merchantville, spent several days last week with Miss Sylvia Reynolds, of Riverton.

Mrs. Clifford Nesbitt spent Wednesday in Merchantville, as the guest of Mrs. John Kelly.

Frank Curzie and Gus Roedig spent Sunday in Valley Forge visiting Mrs. Siert, a relative of Mr. Roedig.

Mrs. Charles DeGrau, of Riverside, is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hullings, of Thomas avenue.

Approximately 200 attended the card party and buffet supper at Old Mill Inn Friday evening, given by the Associated Republican Clubs of Burlington County.

The annual banquet and election of officers of the O.E.S. Covenant Chapter was held Tuesday evening in P.O.S. of A. Hall, Palmyra. The following officers were elected: worthy matron, Mrs. Evelyn Weart; associate matron, Mrs. Ellen V. Smith; worthy patron, James M. Weart; secretary, Mrs. Beatrice A. Nace; treasurer, Mrs. Anna S. Cook; conductress, Mrs. Julia E. Abdlil; associate conductress, Anna Friday; trustee, Mrs. Esther H. Euehrer. Approximately 125 members attended the banquet before the business meeting.

Frank Holvick, of Trenton, spent Wednesday in Riverton visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid S. Merley of 810 Lincoln avenue, have moved to 614 Elm Terrace, the property previously occupied by George C. Baker.

The Golden Hour Circle of Calvary Presbyterian Church is having a turkey dinner for members only, April 17, at one o'clock. The regular meeting will follow.

Dr. Herman T. Klaus, of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Siddall.

Miss Marion Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Evans, of Burlington Pike, Riverton, will be home for her spring vacation from April 13 to 23. Miss Evans is president of the freshman class, and is active in swimming and riding. Miss Evans is attending Linden Hall, Lititz, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Foster Browning and family have moved from Front street to the Leeds property on Moorestown-Riverton road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson, of 311 Bank avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Nancy Lou, Tuesday, April 9th, at the Mary Haas Robbins Maternity Home, 408 Main street, Riverton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. William Schramm have returned to their home on Linden avenue after spending the winter in Eau Gallie, Florida.

Charles G. Cook, of 500 Seventh street, celebrated his seventy-second birthday Saturday, April 6. Mr. Cook has been a resident of Riverton for eight years.

School Board

Mr. Welcher had suggested a bond in the sum of $500 for the clerk, and on motion of Mr. Wolcott, the chairman of the finance committee was instructed to secure this bond.

Mr. Hemphill's surety had consisted of his personal bond for five dollars ($5.00).

Committees
Educational Committee—Everett O. Wolcott, chairman; Mrs. Grace Yost, William H. Bottger.
Property Committee—Karl W. Latch, Hilton M. Smith, Harry E. Moyer.

Supply Committee—William H. Bottger, chairman; Fred P. Hemphill, Mrs. Grace Yost.
Financial Committee—Walter K. Woolman, chairman; Fred P. Hemphill, William H. Bottger.

The educational committee reported that owing to a decrease in enrollment, the two vacancies announced at the last meeting would not be filled, but recommended that a music teacher should be employed for part time at a salary of $500 a year. The present office clerk will be employed only from 8.30 to 12.30 and subject to call during the vacation period, at a salary of $450.

Bids Rejected
Mr. Smith, chairman of the building committee, reported that at a meeting of this committee Wednesday night, it had been decided to recommend that the board reject all bids for improvements to the school building and to readvertise, owing to the fact that the prices submitted, together with other expenses for legal services, architect's fees, etc., exceeded the amount available.

On motion of Mr. Bottger, seconded by Mrs. Yost, a resolution was adopted for the rejection of the bids, which, after the official seal of the board of education had been attached would be submitted to the state engineer for New Jersey of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works for his approval.

This action was taken by the board under a resolution by Mr. Wolcott, seconded by Mr. Smith and unanimously passed.

Refusals to Deliver Seal

The meeting was adjourned to Monday evening, April 8, at which time the president, Mrs. Elwell, reported that she had attempted to secure the seal from Mr. Hemphill, who had refused to deliver it, claiming that he was still district clerk and that the seal would not be used on any school documents unless used by him with his signature as district clerk.

Mrs. Elwell further reported that following this refusal on the part of the clerk, the president, accompanied by Mr. Moyer and Mr. Latch, had interviewed Mr. Strahan in his Trenton office Saturday morning, at which time it was learned that in his opinion their previous action regarding the clerk had been regular and in keeping with the law, that the election of Mr. Haines as district clerk to take effect immediately was valid, and advised the committee as to further proceedings of the board.

Mrs. Elwell further reported that a conference of board members had been held Saturday afternoon to hear a report of the committee's visit to Trenton and an opinion prepared by Frank A. Mathews, Jr., solicitor for the board.

The solicitor's opinion coincided with that of Commissioner Strahan, and the solicitor was directed to make a formal demand on Mr. Hemphill for delivery of all records and other property in his possession belonging to the board of education. Mr. Mathews was authorized in the event of Mr. Hemphill's continued refusal to surrender the property of the board, to immediately start mandamus proceedings. Mr. Mathews was further instructed that if Mr. Hemphill desired an audit before the board would be willing to grant it. At the meeting of the board Monday night Mr. Mathews reported that owing to Mr. Hemphill being out of town he had been unable to contact him during the weekend, but had met him that night and the former clerk had agreed to deliver the warrant book, account book, minute book, the seal upon receipt of an audit, providing the auditor found everything to be in proper shape. The keys to the safe deposit box would be delivered after an inventory of its contents and upon receipt thereof.

Mr. Hemphill requested until May 1, for the delivery of other material such as old records, etc., which was granted.

Previous Action Confirmed

Acting upon advice of Mr. Strahan the board at the Monday night meeting passed resolutions covering action taken at the organization meeting on April 1, subsequent to the election of Mr. Haines as clerk, who was not seated owing to Mr. Hemphill's claim that he would not abdicate the office until June 30.

The motions of confirmation were made necessary because Mr. Hemphill had in fact ceased to be clerk and as Mr. Haines did not function in that capacity, there were officially no minutes of that portion of the meeting.

Mr. Woolman, chairman of the finance committee, was instructed to arrange with Charles S. Rockey Company for an immediate audit of the previous clerk's records.

"YOUTH SERVICE" ROTARY SUBJECT

"Y" Secretary Says Swimming Facilities One of Most Pressing Needs

"Youth Service" was the subject of a very interesting talk by Wilton E. Mount, local YMCA secretary, before the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club. He outlined in brief what the YMCA is doing with its present equipment and how much more could be done if money and adult leadership of the proper kind was available. He pointed out that last summer, 60 boys from the community, went to Camp Ockanickon, a record for the county. One of our greatest needs for youth service he feels, is swimming facilities, for the plentifully supplied with water, we lack a sanitary bathing place for our children.

There are, Mr. Mount related, three types of work, the mass, the group and the individual. Under the first come the youth week program, trips to football games, the electric show, the movies, swims at Moorestown, hikes, hobby shows and the annual marble tournament. Our boys and girls have both enjoyed much of this valuable experience.

Group work is really the backbone of the local YMCA. Directed by competent leaders, social, educational, religious, and athletic activity are shared by ten to fifteen boys, who meet weekly at the Y, or a cooperating church. Some 300 local youths are being influenced for good through these groups.

Work with individuals is the duty and privilege of group-leaders, and secretaries, who often help with vocational and other problems. Many boys have been enabled to meet men who could aid them thru their YMCA contacts. The Older Boys' Conference, held each year in a different part of the state, is also a powerful influence for good.

The general trend of YMCA work, said Mr. Mount, was back to the 18-25 year level, which was the idea of Mr. George Williams founder of the organization. The Young Business Men's Club, recently inaugurated by a wide-awake group under the auspices of the Y furnishes an excellent illustration. These men are holding bi-weekly programs of an educational and cultural variety, which stamps them as above the ordinary.

Many boys have been aided in developing by Mr. Mount; among the latter are astronomy, sketching and archery. Occasionally boys find YMCA buildings in distant cities excellent places to stay when on more or less extended trips for business or pleasure. The year round camp policy at Ockanickon, makes it a favorite destination for hikes and overnight excursions.

The same characteristics of interest, ability, earnestness and knowledge of boys that have won for Mr. Mount a respected place in the community, marked his talk. His fellow Rotarians listened with attention, and expressed their approval of his efforts and activities. It is hoped that the Y drive now under way, will result in sufficient funds to retain his services, else the youth of Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson will be the losers.

Chairman George Friday of the attendance committee reported a 100% meeting the week before, and stated that if the three members absent made up their attendance, the club would have a perfect record for the month.

No man's opinion is entirely worthless; even a five-cent watch tells the right time twice a day.—Nuggets.

Anger, like fire, is soon smothered if not given vent.

BROADWAY OFFERS STAGE ATTRACTION

"Sunshine" Dragonette To Sing in Miniature Radio Revue At Local Theatre

The management of the Broadway Theatre will present from the stage next Monday evening a miniature Radio Revue, with "Sunshine" Dragonette, who will sing her number "Laugh Clown, Laugh" in her own inimitable manner.

This youngster is the cousin of the famous Radio and Broadway songstress, and who will be seen shortly in a current Paramount screen production.

"Sunshine" Dragonette has won several popularity contests in various localities, and Mr. Kees feels most fortunate in being able to secure this child marvel for an appearance on the Broadway stage.

Helen Barry, the personality girl of WFIL, will also render a cycle of songs and dances, and on the same evening will appear Helen Dougherty in impersonations and songs.

The screen portion of the program brings Kay Francis, Warren William and George Brent in "Living on Velvet" a glorious romantic comedy drama, with stunning Kay Francis wearing at different times during the picture twenty-two gorgeous gowns, every one an original creation by different designers.

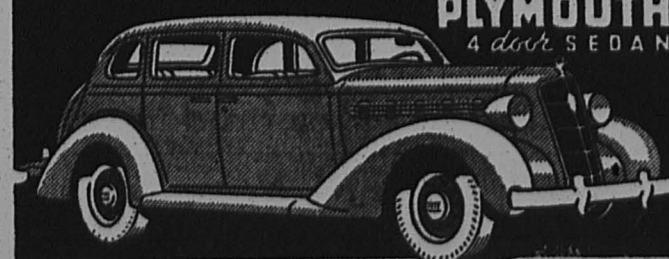

RIVERTON P. T. A.

There will be an exhibition of the children's work in the classrooms preceding the evening meeting of the Riverton P.T.A., Monday, April 15th.

The classrooms will be open for inspection from 7 until 8 o'clock. After the exhibition, Dr. Norman V. Sargent, of Princeton, will give an address on "Facing Present-Day Problems."

The musical program will include Mrs. C. V. Devery, pianist, and the Fellowship Choral.

MUSIC FESTIVAL AT MOORESTOWN

Burlington County Inter-Racial Committee and Others Present Program

The Burlington County Inter-Racial Committee, cooperating with the other agencies throughout the county, are presenting a music festival, to be held in the Moorestown High School auditorium on Tuesday, April 16th, at 8.15 p.m.

Besides using the best of musical talent in the county, the festival is to have the Bordentown Glee Club. This Glee Club is connected with the Bordentown Industrial School and is well known throughout the entire state.

The Bordentown Orchestra, also connected with the school, will be on the program.

This program, which the groups have been working on for the past several months, will present the best in song and literature. Negro Spirituals, instrumental numbers, National Negro Anthem, and selections by the band have been made up into a well-rounded program.

Chorals from Moorestown, Riverton, Bordentown, Burlington and Mt. Holly will have parts. The quartette from the Moorestown Men's Chorus will render selections. It is the earnest desire of the committee that many shall take advantage of this evening of music and song. It has been designed for the best of entertainment.

There will be a nominal charge of 25 cents to cover the cost of the program.

Those desiring further information may call Howard Taylor, Jr., and Albert Johnson, Riverton; David S. Richie, Moorestown; or Horace Finney, Jr., Palmyra.

Mr. Jones will consider "After High School, What?" Try to come. You may get some help to solve the problem that is facing parents and children during these trying times. Publicity.

DINNER DANCE

A dinner-dance, at Medford Lakes Log Cabin, on May 11, is being arranged through the Women's Democratic Club of Burlington County, with the assistance of the Young Democrats and the Men's County Democratic Club as a testimonial to the state committee members, Mrs. Mervin E. Haas and George M. Hillman, Jr., Judge Frank Hendrickson will be the toastmaster.

FOOD SALE

The members of St. Agnes Guild of Christ Church, Palmyra, will hold a food sale, Friday, April 12, at 11 East Broad street, next to the Superior Beauty Shoppe.

INTERBORO ENDS SEASON IN CLEAR

Successful Season With All Bills Paid Is Record of New Two-Town Project

The final meeting of the Interboro Basketball League of Riverton and Palmyra was held at the home of its president, A. Harold Zayotti, on Monday evening, April 8th.

Walter J. Schopp, treasurer of the league, submitted his financial report which was considered very satisfactory. Officers of the league were pleased to learn there was a small balance instead of a deficit which had been expected, and they wish to thank those citizens of Riverton and Palmyra who so graciously offered to underwrite any deficit prevailing at the close of the season.

The franchise fee deposited by each team at the beginning of the season was ordered paid, and checks will be mailed promptly.

The meeting adjourned subject to call from the president in November.

"PICK-UPS" From the Park

The boys in the soft ball league met Monday night, and are all set for a vicious knock 'em down an' drag out season.

Some new faces—correction—some new names have made their appearance in the league.

Perinstance th' Schwering Hardware team, they say, is tough as nails. But they're really the Wesleyans tryin' to live down th' loaded bat.

But that's past history—we won't bring that up now.

Walt Whitman is trying to corner the baseball market by entering two teams in the field of competition.

One represents the Cinema—the other the Cinema-moon. Do yuh get it? ... yuh don't—Skip it.

The YMCA has folded up likewise has the Pal-River. The Artisans, too, have broken camp.

Which may make for even better sport especially with ten men on each team instead of nine as heretofore.

At any rate it's one more to razz!

WOMAN'S CLUB

A lecture and demonstration of unusual interest will be given at the meeting of the Woman's Club of Palmyra to be held Monday afternoon, April 15, by Maulsby Kimball, Jr., well-known artist.

Mr. Kimball's topic will be "The Making of a Picture," and as he explains the processes of painting in oils, he accompanies himself on canvas, developing a picture before his hearers.

The board of directors of the Lester Ensemble announced the closing of their concert season April 11, thereby cancelling the engagement with the Palmyra Woman's Club on April 15.

At Monday afternoon's meeting an eleven-year-old boy from the Institute for the Blind in Overbrook will be the pianist.

Shallowness tends to vanity.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8—the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

RIVERTON RANKS HIGH FINANCIALLY

Auditor Compliments Administration on Large Percentage of Taxes Paid

William Welcker, of Charles S. Rocky Company, borough auditors, paid a high compliment to the borough government at the regular meeting of the Riverton Borough Council Thursday night.

He stated that he had completed the audits of 34 municipalities in the state of New Jersey and that Riverton stood third in the list for excellent financial condition. Riverton in 1934 collected 72% of the amount of taxes assessed, and while it was third on the list, making a fine comparison with those occupying first and second place, Riverton really occupied the first position. First place he stated was held by Florence Township, where two big factories in Florence owned a large portion of the property in the community, and the taxes they paid helped the average of these communities considerably. The town occupying second place did not compare in size to the borough of Riverton.

The lowest amount of taxes collected in the 34 municipalities was 32%; the highest was 90%.

Comments Collector

The mayor was pleased with the report and stated that C. Kenneth Davis, borough collector, deserved credit for the work he has put into his office and the excellent record he has helped to build for the town.

Mr. Welcker stated that the Wolber bill, if it becomes effective, will increase taxes 50%, and each municipality is making a strenuous effort to have this bill defeated.

Riverton at a former meeting protested to the law makers of the state against the passage of this bill. This protest was sent to Senator Clifford R. Powell and Assemblyman Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb. Powell acknowledged receipt of the borough's protest, but they received no acknowledgment from Newcomb. Therefore the council passed a resolution to frame another letter of protest to be addressed to the assemblyman.

By resolution the payment of assessment improvement notes totaling $539.34 was authorized.

E. K. Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, reported that the old siren had been repaired, at a cost of approximately $52 and guaranteed for a year, and is now in operation.

HEARING ON BUS RATES SCHEDULED

H. E. Powell Succeeds in Getting Complaints Before Public Utilities Commission

A hearing on the petitions of Palmyra residents for a reduction in bus fares and improvement in equipment and service will be held April 23, in the State House at Trenton.

This has been announced by Howard E. Powell, of 261 West Broad street, Palmyra, who drew the petitions, secured several hundred signatures and presented them to the State of New Jersey Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

The petitions protested high rates for the bus transportation between here and Philadelphia and complained of the equipment used and service given.

Powell has urged citizens to attend the hearing between "Howard E. Powell, et al. and the Public Service Coordinated Transport" on April 23, in the State House at 11 a.m.

Notice of the hearing's scheduled date was sent to Powell by E. T. Drew, secretary of the Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

PLANS STARTED FOR ANNUAL FETE

Professional Tennis Match Will Be Featured at Moorestown Field Club, May 18

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Cinnaminson Home was held at the home of Miss Edith Coale, Lippincott avenue, last Thursday morning for the purpose of making plans for the annual fete for the benefit of the Home.

The date for the fete has been set for Saturday, May 18th, and will be held at the Moorestown Field Club with a professional tennis match as the principal feature.

The Home is conducted for the benefit of convalescent women and children, for whom it provides rest and a change after a serious illness or operation.

NEW CCC CAMPS FOR SOUTH JERSEY

Two Hundred Men Will Be Assigned to Each Camp, Says Director

The state Board of Conservation and Development has announced that 15 C.C.C. camps will be established in addition to the 22 already in the state. The distribution of the camps is under the direction of Crosby Hoar, regional officer of the United States Forest Service, Amherst, Mass.

Six of the new camps will be in North Jersey and nine in South Jersey.

The camps will be divided as follows: Four state forest camps, 8 mosquito control, 1 for fish and game activities and 2 Dutch elm disease control.

Two hundred men will be assigned to each camp, it was announced. The locations have not been determined.

FELLOWSHIP GIVES LENTEN CANTATA

"Seven Last Words of Christ" Given Before Large Audience at Methodist Church

Before an audience of more than 600 in the Epworth M. E. Church Wednesday evening, the Fellowship Choral Club presented Th. DuBois' "Seven Last Words of Christ." The chorus, numbering 90, was augmented by members of the church choirs in the communities.

For over one hour this vast assemblage was impressed with a sense of spiritual reverence as Alfred Van Osten, in his masterful way, directed this most dramatic of Easter cantatas.

Much of the credit for the success of this beautiful presentation is due the soloists who portrayed their roles in a most realistic manner. They were: Mary Coward, Helen Seel Guldin and Anna McConnell, sopranos; Eric Warnick, bass-baritone; Elvin I. Powell and Albert B. Parker, tenors.

The chorus work was exceptionally well presented and showed the response to the careful training and direction of their leader. It took little imagination to visualize this of our Savior's presence on earth.

Our communities may well feel proud of such local talent as it is quite unusual for such a comparatively small populace to be able to present, in so professional a manner, this difficult masterpiece.

The Fellowship Choral Club received splendid cooperation from the choirs of the churches, the members of which so willingly gave their time and effort. The appreciation of the communities for music of this kind was evidenced by the large attendance from Riverton, Palmyra, Cinnaminson and Parry, also from many adjacent towns.

BOARD DECIDES TO PAY SALARIES

Freeholders Refuse to Pay Smith and MacFarland, Then Reverse Action

A resolution offered by Freeholder Albert Jones at the meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday, which provided for the payment of salaries to H. B. Smith and Louis A. MacFarland, dismissed engineer and road supervisor, amount of $1,488.05 to be borrowed on a note, was defeated.

Jones made the remark that the solicitor stated it would be cheaper to pay their salaries up to April first than to fight certiorari proceedings. Stout seconded the resolution to bring it to a vote and then Stout, Heisler and Cook voted in the negative, defeating the resolution.

Action Reversed

This action was taken in the regular meeting.

A special meeting was held after the regular meeting adjourned and the board voted to pay Smith and MacFarland their salaries from the first of the year up to the time they resigned, thus settling the matter without an emergency appropriation.

Sheriff Shows Fight

A writ of mandamus to show cause why the sheriff should not be paid his salary and which provides for a $1500 increase in his salary, was served on the clerk of the board, signed by Judge Perskie. It is intended that the proceedings will enable the sheriff to collect the amounts which have been withheld by the new freeholder regime without prejudicing the cause of either the county or the sheriff in the court proceedings which are to follow.

Heisler Scores Point

Following the reading of the minutes of the previous regular and special meetings, which consumed an hour and a half, Heisler objected to a phrase in the minutes, to wit: "I have a recollection of a 10% fee which seemed a fair figure." Heisler said that what he really said was, "it did not seem a fair figure." Director Adams insisted, however, that three stenographers took the minutes of the meeting and that the report of all three showed the minutes to be correct. Heisler said that he didn't care to argue with Adams (continued on page 3)

SYLVESTER FILLS SORDON'S VACANCY

Appointed Member of Borough Council at Meeting Thursday Night

J. Wilson Sylvester, of 107 Seventh street, Riverton, was appointed last Thursday night to fill the vacancy in council caused by the resignation of Howard D. Sordon. The appointment received the unanimous confirmation of council. The Mayor stated that Mr. Sylvester will serve on all the committees to which Mr. Sordon had been appointed, with the exception of chairman of the police committee.

Mr. Sylvester has been a resident of Riverton for twenty-six years and served two terms on the Riverton Board of Education about eight years ago.

He is employed as an electrical engineer for the Philadelphia Electric Company.

Mr. Sylvester played on the Riverton football team in '96, '97 and '98 and lived in Riverton two years prior to his twenty-six years of uninterrupted residence.

The demands of business on Mr. Sylvester's time are heavy, and it was only on the urgent solicitation of his friends and as a matter of civic duty that he finally consented to accept the office.

SERUM TREATMENT FOR DIPHTHERIA

Serum Furnished by State Results in Large Increase in Number of Treatments

Continued progress in the inoculation of children with serums to prevent diphtheria and provide immunity against smallpox is reported by Dr. J. Lynn Mahaffey, State Health Director.

During March 1804 children were reported as receiving the free State diphtheria toxoid. This number exceeds the number reported in any month since the distribution of this material was commenced. The number reported during January and February fell below previous months.

Dr. Mahaffey said the supplying of serums gratis by the Legislature resulted in the Health Department undertaking one of its most constructive campaigns in health promotion in recent years.

BOY ROBBERS ARE CAUGHT BY POLICE

Young Philadelphians Pilfer Boathouses for Thrill During Vacation

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock Harry Schuck, of Pennsauken street, Cinnaminson Township, discovered three boys stealing from the boathouses along the creek. Schuck called the police after he had chased the boys.

Officer Rodgers, of Palmyra, Officer Dorworth, of Cinnaminson, and Mr. Schuck, caught two of the boys in the swamps near Community Beach, and Chief Morris Beck, of Palmyra, caught the third boy on Route S-41. They had stolen about $100 worth of articles and two row boats. The articles were placed in the boats ready to be taken to Philadelphia, where the boys lived.

The boys are being held by Recorder Carl Lutz in the Juvenile Shelter for further hearing in the juvenile court.

They gave their names as George Wagner, 2031 E. Russell street, 14; Bronislaw Borowski, 3645 Richmond street, 14; and Thomas Davis, 2914 East Pacific street, 16.

Borowski has a brother who is part owner of one of the boathouses and the three boys had come over to spend the Easter holidays there. Things being rather quiet they decided to do a little stealing on the side to see if they could get away with it.

"ANCHORS AWEIGH" FOR THE MARINERS

Sea Scout Organization for Girls Being Formed in Palmyra. Meet at Ferry Slip

The organization of a Mariner ship, the "Highland Lassie," is now under way in Palmyra and Riverton. Mariner is an organization sponsored by the Girl Scouts and patterned after the Sea Scouts of the Boy Scouts of America. Mariner is girls interested in girl scout work, especially connected with activities in and around water. The leader, or skipper of the group is Mrs. Arthur Chettle, of Palmyra. Meetings are held every Monday evening in the Sea Scout club rooms at the old ferry slip.

The Mariner is planning to study piloting and sailing during the spring meetings. Other studies are those of the compass, knots, and bell time. A cruise down the Chesapeake Bay and a canoe trip have been planned for the summer.

Members of the Mariner are: First mate, Betty Howell; second mate, Susanne Mattis. The group is divided into two watches. Starboard watch, Abby Shoemaker, cook; Ruth Horner, chantyman; Grace Billard, carpenter; Jacqueline

EXPECT MANY AT SUNRISE SERVICE

Elaborate Program of Easter Service

Easter Sunday morning at 5:00 o'clock a trombone choir will sound the opening chorale of the third annual celebration of the Moravian Easter Sunrise Service at Riverton, New Jersey.

The biggest South Jersey non-sectarian religious service ever held is anticipated by Rev. Albert J. Harke, pastor of the Moravian Church of Palmyra, and Roy A. Ramey, managing director of Lakeview Memorial Park.

Special Public Service buses will leave for the Sunrise Service as follows: Market street Ferry, Camden at 4:00 a.m.; Broadway and Market Street, Camden 4:05 a.m.; 26th street, Camden, 4:15 a.m.; 42nd and Westfield avenue, Camden, 4:25 a.m.; Cove Road and Westfield avenue 4:30 a.m.

Another bus leaves Delancey, Maple avenue, East end of Delancey, at 4:30 a.m.; Riverton R. R. station 4:40 a.m.; and Palmyra R. R. station at 4:43 a.m.

A third bus leaves the Riverside R. R. station at 4:30 a.m.; Bridgeboro, Bridgeboro road and State Highway Route 25, at 4:40 a.m.

There will be a number of buses to accommodate those who desire to use them.

The following program will be observed beginning at 5:00 a.m.: Opening Chorale, Easter Hymn, Easter Liturgy, Instrumental Chorales, Address, Prayer, Benediction and Chorale.

The following guest participants will augment the regular Moravian choir, and instrumental groups: Marshall Family Band, Roehling, N. J. James Marshall, Sr., Leader; Felton Family Band, Merchantville, N. J., Allen Felton, Leader; Collingswood Junior and Senior High Schools Glee Clubs, Bess Huey, Director; Gloucester City High School, Glee Club, Marguerite Gerrard, Director; Artisans' Glee Club, Woodbury, N. J., Harry Irons, Director; Palmyra High School, Representatives of Student Body, Dorothy M. Diener, Director; Riverton Public School, Glee Club, Jeanne Emery, Director; Burlington High School, Glee Club, J. Morgan Love, Director; Moorestown High School, Glee Club, Lillian Ingram, Director; and Individual Guest Singers from Surrounding Communities.

Ample parking facilities will be available to drivers of cars; ample police supervision of traffic and many ushers to assist visitors.

Take your family and friends and enjoy the most beautiful spectacle ever viewed on Easter morn.

TO DESTROY DANDELIONS

Experts at a midwestern university have successfully destroyed dandelions by brushing each plant with a solution consisting of iron sulphate, 1½ lbs., and water 1 gallon. While this method requires individual attention for the plants, it does not take much time to rid the average lawn of dandelions if a brush with a long handle is used. A brush made by wedging 15 to 20 fine, stiff wires into a hole drilled in the end of a broomstick is handy.

RIVERTON

The many friends of Miss Betty Hance will be glad to know that she is recuperating after an operation for appendicitis at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Schoff and family are leaving Friday to spend several days in the south.

Miss Gene Stover will spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan W. Stover. Miss Stover is attending George School.

Mrs. Gertrude S. Kline and family are moving from 708 Main street to an apartment in the Maples.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ayres and daughter, Louise, are moving from the Maples apartments to 610 Fourth street.

Paul Guest, of Ursinus College, and Walter Mattis, of George School, will spend the Easter vacation with their parents.

Miss Betty Sloan and Miss Naomi Evans spent Sunday in Washington.

Mrs. Alma Evans attended the installation of the new officers in the New Egypt Chapter of the O.E.S. Monday night.

Mrs. John Blandford and family, of Wilkes Barre, are spending the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Rogers have returned to their home after spending two weeks in Bermuda.

Mrs. Arthur T. Hagstoz and Mrs. Walter L. Bowen attended the PTA Southern Spring Conference held in Vineland last week.

The officers of the Associated Republican Clubs held an executive meeting Monday evening at the home of Christopher Peditto following a spaghetti dinner.

The members of the "Junior Senate" entertained Governor Hoffman and the Senators at a banquet at the Hotel Hildebrecht, Trenton, Monday night.

EXHIBITION OF WORK OF PUPILS

Display at Riverton School on Fathers' Night Indicate Careful Training

The exhibition of the pupils' work in the class rooms of Riverton school on Monday evening, April 15th, must have been a revelation to many parents.

The faculty and student body are to be highly complimented on their endeavors.

The Fellowship Choral gave some fine selections. It was fine to have so many fathers contribute in such a splendid way to the entertainment on "Fathers' Night."

Mrs. C. V. Devery gave a delightful rendition of "Leiberstrom" and "Rolling Stones." Melvin Burr, "a father," introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Sargent of Princeton. Mr. Sargent's father was a former minister of a church in Palmyra and was known by many in the audience.

Mr. Sargent's topic "Present-day Problems," reached everyone in a vulnerable spot. He gave a splendid definition of the problems parents are faced with today, and everyone enjoyed the humor he mingled with statistics.

Following the meeting ice cream and delicious cookies, made by the domestic science class, were served.

Publicity.

EASTER FLOWERS

The display of Easter flowers and plants at the greenhouse of James Kenney and Son in Riverside is probably one of the finest yet produced by the Riverside florist. Never before have so many attractive plants been offered at prices so reasonable.

That is an empty purse that is filled with other men's money.

COLUMBIAN CONSUL ADDRESSES ROTARY

Senor O. Diaz Valenzuela Guest Speaker at Local Club Thursday Night

At the conclusion of an address by Senor O. Diaz Valenzuela, Colombian Consul in Philadelphia, at Pan-American co-operation, Earl L. Williams, president of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company, was elected president of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club for 1935-36. Mr. Williams has served as vice-president during the present year, and is one of the early members of the organization.

Senor Valenzuela, the guest of honor, spoke later at the annual Pan-American program of the Palmyra High School; he was accompanied by Mr. Gardener, instructor in Spanish at Palmyra, whose vision originated the Pan-American celebration. Senor Valenzuela has been 12 years a resident of Philadelphia, and has grown to admire the U. S. very much. He particularly enjoys the good fellowship of organizations like Rotary, which, he said, is lacking in the South American countries. Men do not so readily gather, nor do they cooperate well for public enterprise. The good effects of Rotary are quite noticeable in Bogotá, capital city of Colombia, where many outstanding citizens are members. The consul closed his brief, but very appropriate and courteous remarks, by lauding the growth of Pan-American cooperation.

The election of officers for the year 1935-1936 was held following the program. Since there was no contest, Secretary Seel cast the ballot for the club. The results were as follows: President, Earl L. Williams; vice president, E. Newbold Cooper; secretary, Joseph Seel; treasurer, Ross E. Mattis; directors, Clifton P. Mayfield and A. Eugene Hargett.

The members then went to the Palmyra High School Auditorium to participate in the Pan-American celebration.

FOOD SALE

The Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association will hold a food sale in the school auditorium on Thursday, April 25, from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. Mrs. John McNulty is chairman.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF GAME LEAGUE

Annual Event to Be Held in Moorestown Community House April 25

Sportsmen of the county who attend the annual banquet of the Burlington County Game Protective League at the Moorestown Community House on Thursday night of next week will be treated to one of the finest programs ever arranged for this organization's annual affairs. There will be no less than 450 at this banquet, and this will be the biggest crowd the League ever had at one of its functions.

The principal speaker will be Major Nicholas Biddle, president of the Pennsylvania State Game Commission, noted explorer and lecturer. He will speak on "Big Game Hunting and Fishing in Alaska," and will present motion pictures on wild life of the North woods and territories in which he has hunted and fished. The general direction of the program will be in charge of Senator Clifford R. Powell, who will be toastmaster. This year will be the distribution of door prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Zimmerman, of Beverly, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Elizabeth, to Charles S. Coddington, of Riverton.

about it, but that he merely wanted to be quoted correctly. Adams then laid the three stenographic notebooks before Heisler and asked him if he would like to look at the books. Heisler said, "I don't care to look at anything made by people connected with you." The minutes were corrected as demanded by Heisler.

Additions Authorized

Walter R. Darby, State Auditor, notified the board it was mandatory that the 1934 over-expenditure of $9,065.87 and 1933 Reserves over-expenditure of $7,111 be put in the 1935 budget.

The Burlington County Board of Taxation informed the board the amount to be raised by taxation was increased from $648,043.51 to $657,116.49 because of these additions, and that the changes raised the county tax rate two cents. If these changes were not mandatory the county rate would have been $1.043 instead of $1.063.

A bill of $107.14 for cigars, cigarettes and candy for employees in the asylum, contracted for by Frank McIlvain, former superintendent, was ordered paid on motion of Adams, seconded by Stout and unanimously passed.

Adams offered a resolution ordering Charles B. Yeager to be paid $111.45 for repairs to the county car run by Mr. McIlvain, which was passed.

Old Bills Paid

A bill of H. R. Lindabury and son, of Burlington, for $48.65 for fencing and baskets for a play pen at the residence of McIlvain was ordered paid.

A bill of $178.17 for plumbing and new bathroom at the Fairview Sanatorium was passed. These bills, Adams stated, were contracted without his knowledge and he wanted the board to share the responsibility for their payment.

A resolution was presented by Freeholder Heisler requesting the county board to accept $150 for the county lein on the property at 45 Cherry street, Mt. Holly, which was unanimously passed.

Heisler offered a resolution requesting that the Burlington City Loan and Trust Company be designated as a depository for county funds. He stated that this institution was overlooked in the list of banks in the county so designated. The resolution passed unanimously.

Permission was granted to Public Service for the erection of eight poles on the curb line of the Vincetown-Pemberton road at the intersection of the Buddtown road, as well as one pole on the curb line of St. Michael Drive at Cambridge.

Approve Deeper Channel

Adams presented a resolution requesting that the 25-foot ship channel for Burlington be so plotted as to bring the channel to the Burlington City wharf to provide an outlet for county manufactured products and farm products.

This water channel would benefit the county greatly according to Mr. Adams, and the resolution passed unanimously with the instructions that a copy be sent to the federal and state legislators as well as those in charge of the project.

Additional Insurance

A letter from Stockwell-Knight Company, insurance brokers at Moorestown, was read stating the difference between "general" liability now held by county and "public" liability.

A long discussion followed the reading of the letter, in which the various phases of coverage were made clear to the freeholders.

A binder was ordered placed on a public liability policy pending further information to be supplied by the Stockwell-Knight company.

Jones Rebuffs Township

A communication was read from the Township of Florence in which that body asked for a meeting with the board of freeholders to discuss improvements in the township. It was requested that the freeholders meet with them in Florence. Freeholder Jones stated that they were not going to start running around to township meetings, if they did they would be doing it all year 'round, and the clerk was instructed to inform the Florence Township board to take the matters up at the next freeholder meeting in Mt. Holly.

The State department of Weights and Measures wrote the board requesting them to send Curwen B. Fisher to the national annual convention at Washington, D. C. The conference on Weights and Measures in Washington they felt would be extremely beneficial to the county officials and would keep him informed of the latest developments in weights and measures devices, and the expense of sending him would be justified.

The communication was received and filed and the clerk instructed to write the state department for the estimated cost of sending the county representative.

To Investigate

Adams stated that Fisher received 8c per mile for the use of his personal car. He stated that other officials are receiving but 6c and in a resolution was passed that the matter be referred to the solicitor for an opinion.

The question of whether a bond should be provided for the county engineer was referred to the solicitor by the unanimous action of the board.

A letter was read from Caldwell and Raymond, bond counsel for the county, setting forth the provisions of a new bond act which will take effect shortly, and cited the requirements thereof. The communication was ordered received and filed.

Read Reappointed

A letter was read from Lawrence G. Mingin, county clerk, informing the board of the appointment of Francis H. Read, jury commissioner, at a salary of $750 per year. This constitutes a reappointment and was ordered received and filed.

Adams brought up the question of the operation of county cars on personal business, stating that Sheriff Wimer had had a second accident recently and he (Adams) would like to know, "how long are we going to let it go on." The matter was referred to the solicitor.

Mundorff Breaks Loose

Charles Mundorff, former employee of the Delanco-Riverside bridge, asked to be heard and when the privilege was granted by Adams, launched into a series of complaints aimed at the freeholders. He stated that he had shown defects in the construction of the Delanco bridge to Ash, Howard, Needles and Tammen and nothing had been done about it. He said that Freeholder Jones had in his campaign propaganda advertised, "An engineer for an engineer's job" and he further said, "If he is supposed to be an engineer why hire engineers outside the county."

"And Another Thing . . ."

Another thing he wanted to know was why, under the new regime, one freeholder should control three departments. He said that Adams was controlling more than his department and especially in the bridge controversy. Cook, who is director of bridges, had nothing to say.

Mundorff said, "You told me yourself, Mr. Adams, that you are the boss and that Cook is your 'Yes' man and a good one, too." He characterized Freeholder Cook as a "spineless jelly fish." He did nothing but sit back and say yes to everything proposed by Adams declared Mundorff. At this point Adams broke in and asked Mundorff if his job depended on what he was saying, and Mundorff admitted that it did, whereupon Adams banged his gavel on the table and adjourned the meeting and left Mundorff spluttering at the rail, threatening Adams that while he could shut him off in the meeting, he would take his story to the press.

Department bills were ordered paid as follows: Buildings, $38,136.40; Highways and Engineering, $10,154.82; Bridges, $3,191.89; Affairs, $15,116.70; Revenue and Finance, $8,068.64; Total, $74,668.45.

CARD PARTY

The Fidelity B.V.M. will hold the annual card party at the Sacred Heart school auditorium, on Linden avenue, Monday evening, April 22, at 8:30 daylight saving time. There will be a door prize and many prizes for the highest scores. Refreshments will be served. Admission is 35c.

P. H. S. NEWS

Louis J. Kaser, superintendent of Burlington County Schools, paid a tour of inspection to Palmyra High School Monday afternoon.

Forty students from Palmyra High School will sing in the chorus of 400 voices in the Easter Sunrise Service at the Lakeview Memorial Park on Easter morning.

Two copies of the "Palmyrian," the monthly publication of the students of Palmyra High School, will be placed in the California Pacific International Exposition, which opens in San Diego, May 30. The copies of the school publication will be placed in the Journalism Exhibit in the Palace of Education. This invitation was given to the Palmyrian through the Porterfield Chapter of the Quill and Scroll at San Diego High School.

The Palmyrian is also entered in a contest at Lehigh University.

Adventures of Odysseus, from the Odyssey by Homer, was dramatized by members of the freshman English classes, under the direction of Edwin Moore. The morning and afternoon English class each gave a special performance in six scenes. The two English classes have just finished studying the Odyssey. Members of the cast in the morning performance were: Douglas Mickle, Merritt Sanford, Samuel Rothbaum, Madeline Seibold, Robert Dunlap, Joseph Dooling, John Milroy, Bessie Hulings, Elaine Smith. The cast in the afternoon performance consisted of George Dunham, Marian Allen, Frederick, Henzler, Elaine Horan, John Willis, Gertrude Messenger, Frank Applegate, George Trowten, Robert Gowell.

The negative team of the Palmyra High School debating club will debate the affirmative team of Perth Amboy in the Palmyra School auditorium Friday, April 26, at 3:30 p.m. Members of the team are: Louis Frick, captain; Mervil Haas, Charles Rader, Joseph Phile, alternate. The question for debate is: Resolved, That Federal Aid Should Be Given to the Schools.

The Easter vacation for the school began Wednesday afternoon and will continue to Tuesday, April 23.

A number of business items relating to the Spring Round-Up, and the circus to be given at the combined play-day and PTA picnic in June, were discussed, and volunteers were many for both projects.

Following the business were several monologues by a member, a hilarious skit given by three teachers, and an impromptu play, coached by Miss Florence Eagan, which added much to the mirthful occasion. Delicious home-made cake and tea were served by the hostess and her assistants.

The next discussion is dated the twenty-fourth of the month. Publicity.

REPAINTED

The office and showroom of Clinton B. Woolston, Plymouth and DeSoto dealer, has been painted throughout. The attractive decoration color scheme was designed and executed by R. R. Barrick, local painter.

The finished work greatly improves the appearance of the showroom.

By William Cooper, Jr.

In a previous column we stated that the S. S. All In Fun, heard over WPEN was off the air. And incidentally, the show closed with a bang. The police dropped into the show the other night and just closed things up tight. It seems that the city officials dug up an old law prohibiting a show on the second floor of buildings. This law just about put the finishing touches on the S. S. All In Fun and also another visual audience show at WPEN the Laugh Roundup. Although the Laugh Roundup is still on the air doing their show from one of the studios of WPEN, we cannot say the same for the S. S. All In Fun, which has left the WPEN airwaves completely. This is quite a slap to WPEN because both these shows were big money shows and drew thousands of people through the turnstiles every night. And, incidentally, while we were turning the dial the other night we happened to catch part of the S. S. All In Fun show broadcast over the WCAM (Camden) airwaves. As this column goes to press we understand that no one is admitted to the WPEN building unless on official business.

Cecil Pennyfeather, columnist of a Philadelphia daily, is going on the air waves and bringing to your ears interesting topics about Philadelphia and also things about Philadelphia proper which you might not know. It might be interesting to know that Pennyfeather is not the real name of this columnist, for he was christened Keeney. Keeney won a contest which was sponsored for the newspaper for which he worked as a photographer. The newspaper was looking for a columnist with unusual abilities. Pennyfeather entered and romped off with first honors. Cecil Pennyfeather will be heard over WIP every Thursday and Friday evenings at 8.10.

SACRED CANTATA AT EPWORTH M. E.

Special Services Throughout Day at Methodist Church, Starting at Eleven a.m.

Easter Sunday will be observed in the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church, Palmyra, with special music and sermons. At the morning hour eleven o'clock, the pastor will preach an Easter sermon, "Christ Is Alive!" The choir, under the direction of Mr. VanOsten, will sing three anthems, "As It Began to Dawn" by Warren, "The Magdalene" by Warren, and "The Risen Saviour" by Hammer. The Dulciana Choir, who appeared last Sunday in their new robes, will sing "Alleluiah!" In the evening at 7.45 the choir will sing an Easter Cantata, "Resurrexit" by Adam Geibel. The choir, under the leadership of Alfred VanOsten, with Mrs. Rachel Lord at the organ, has been doing exceptional work. This evening of music promises to be of high merit.

Last Sunday witnessed over-flowing congregations. Nineteen persons united with the church and there were seven baptisms. The services started promptly at the time scheduled and a large attendance is anticipated. Those desiring seats in the auditorium should arrive promptly.

The Church School at ten o'clock will present an Easter program. The junior department and above will meet together. The program as arranged will include the Dulciana Choir, a trumpet trio, solo by Mrs. Pimm, an Easter story told by Miss Elizabeth Stein, and other interesting items. The younger departments will celebrate the day with programs suitable to their age.

PALMYRA MORAVIAN CHURCH

Albert J. Harke, B.D., Pastor
We had a record-breaking attendance in church last Sunday, 271 in number, and ten young people in the confirmation class.

The services for Good Friday will start at 2.30 in the afternoon, commemorating the Crucifixion of Christ; at 3.30 Holy Communion. The services for Easter Sunday will be as follows:
5.00 a.m., Easter Dawn service at Lakeview Memorial Park.
9.30 a.m., Easter Day Session of the Sunday School.
10.40 a.m., Morning Worship, Easter Liturgy, anthem, "O Light Eternal." The sermon will be "The Resurrection of Christ."
7.30 p.m., Easter Evening Service. A short program by the primary department of the Sunday School followed by the cantata, "Jesus Lives," by the choir.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend any or all of these services.

EASTER CANTATA BAPTIST CHURCH

Stainer's "Crucifixion" to be Rendered by Choir and Fellowship Choral Friday Evening

As a part of their Easter Observance, Stainer's "Crucifixion" will be rendered in the Central Baptist Church on Good Friday evening at eight o'clock by the choir of the church assisted by members of the Epworth M. E. Church choir and members of the Fellowship Choral Club. Soloists: tenor, Elvin Powell; baritone, J. Russell Jermon; Ernest Woodcock. Claude Y. Barto will be the director.

A Sunrise Service will be held in the Church on Easter Sunday at six o'clock, lasting one-half hour. Miss D. Helen Johnson will be the soloist and will sing "Open the Gates of the Temple."

"The Gift of Life," an Easter dramatic pageant, will be presented by the Junior Department, under the direction of the Misses Elizabeth Toy and Dorothy Randolph, superintendents of the department, at the Bible School session at 10 o'clock. Pastor Lockett will present "The Easter Message" at the morning service at 11.15 o'clock, at which time renditions will be made by the senior and junior choirs. Anthem, "In the End of the Sabbath," by Oley Speaks, solo part by Mrs. E. Ridgway. Soprano solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Knapp, Mrs. E. Hughes. Anthem, "Lift Up Your Heads," by Ashford, soprano solo by Mrs. Wm. Van Oosten. Miss Grace Horner, who has been confined to her bed for some time and who in the past has been one of the junior choir's soloists, is expected to resume her place among these young singers.

In the evening at 7.45 o'clock, the sermon subject will be "Risen With Christ." The sermon will be followed by baptism of a class of eleven candidates. Special music for this most impressive service will be, anthem, "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," by F. C. Maker; anthem, "Christ Is Risen!" by E. Turner, solo part by Ernest Woodcock.

Many witnessed the Palm Sunday evening service when an entire Bible School Class of six were baptised together with three other associates.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 21.

The Golden Text is: "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation" (Hebrews 9:28).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die" (Ezekiel 18:20, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If Truth is overcoming error in your daily walk and conversation, you can finally say, 'I have fought a good fight. . . I have kept the faith,' because you are a better man. This is having our part in the at-one-ment with Truth and Love" (p. 21).

HOLY COMMUNION AT CHRIST CHURCH, PALMYRA

Holy Communion will be celebrated Easter Sunday morning, at eleven o'clock at Christ Church, Palmyra. The Rev. Walter Marvin, of Germantown, will be the celebrant at this service.

The usual three-hour service will be celebrated Good Friday. The service will begin at twelve o'clock. The Rev. John Hart, of Philadelphia, will officiate.

SHORT-WAVE MUSINGS

BY O. M. "C. W."

THE HISTORY OF AMATEUR RADIO

From Radio Amateur's Handbook (Courtesy of American Radio Relay League)

Amateur radio is one of the finest of hobbies, but this fact alone would hardly merit such wholehearted support as was given it by the United States government at recent international conferences. There must be other reasons to justify such backing. There are. One of them is a thorough appreciation by the Army and Navy of the value of the amateur as a source of skilled radio personnel in time of war. The other is best described by the words "public service."

We have already seen 3500 amateurs contributing their skill and ability to the American cause in the Great War. After the war it was only natural that cordial relations should prevail between the army and Navy and the amateur. Several things occurred in the next few years to strengthen these relations. In 1924, when the U. S. dirigible "Shenandoah" made a tour of the country, amateurs provided continuous contact between the big ship and the ground. In 1925, when the United States battle fleet made a cruise to Australia and the Navy wished to test out short-wave apparatus for further communication purposes, it was the League's Traffic Manager who was in complete charge of an experimental high-frequency set on the U. S. S. Seattle.

Definite friendly relations between the amateur and the armed forces of the government were cemented in 1925. In this year both the Army and the Navy came to the League with proposals for amateur cooperation. The radio Naval Reserve and the Army-Amateur Net are the outgrowth of these proposals.

The public service record of the amateur is a brilliant one. These services can be roughly divided into two classes: emergencies and expeditions. It is regrettable that space limitations preclude detailed mention of amateur work in both these classes, for the stories constitute some of the high-lights of amateur accomplishment. As it is only a general outline that can be given.

Since 1919, amateur radio has been the principal, and in many cases the only, means of outside communication in more than thirty storm and flood emergencies in this country. The most noteworthy were the Florida Hurricane of 1926, the Mississippi and New England floods of 1927, and the California dam break and second Florida hurricane in 1928. During 1931 there were the New Zealand and Nicaraguan earthquakes and the "Viking" explosion disaster in Labrador, and in 1932 the floods at Caliente, California and in the upper Guadalupe valley of Texas.

Outstanding in 1933 was the southern California earthquake. In all of these amateur radio played a major role in the rescue work, and amateurs earned world-wide commendation for their resourcefulness in effecting communication where all other means failed.

It is interesting to note that one of the principal functions of the Army-amateur network is to furnish organized and coordinated amateur assistance in the event of storm and The emergency in this country. In addition, Red Cross centers in various parts of the United States are now furnished with lists of amateur stations in the vicinity as a regular part of their emergency measures program.

Amateur cooperation with expeditions started in 1923, when a League member, Don Mix, of Bristol, Conn., accompanied MacMillan to the Arctic on the schooner "Bowdoin" in charge of an amateur set. Amateurs in Canada and the United States provided the home contact.

The success of this venture was such that MacMillan has never since made a trip without carrying a short-wave set and an amateur to operate it. Other explorers noted this success and made inquiries to the League regarding similar arrangements for their journeys. In 1924 another expedition secured amateur cooperation; in 1925 three benefited by amateur assistance, and by 1928 the figure had risen to nine for that year alone. Each year since then has seen League headquarters in receipt of more and more requests for such service, until now a total of approximately a hundred voyages and expeditions have been assisted.

SHANER APPOINTED HOLC SUPERVISOR

Palmyra Moan Deputy State Supervisor, in Charge of All South Jersey

George B. Shaner, of Palmyra, district reconditioning supervisor of the Home Owners Loan Corporation has been appointed deputy state supervisor, in charge of reconditioning repairs and modernizing in District No. 2 which takes in all of South Jersey and includes the following counties: Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, Salem, Cumberland, Atlantic, Ocean, Cape May.

The reconditioning office of Atlantic City has ceased to function and the territory formerly under their jurisdiction has been turned over to the Camden office under the supervision of Mr. Shaner. This change will greatly increase the activities of the Camden office, and as the procedure has now been approved for re-opening closed loans for necessary repairs of other modernizing this will greatly aid contractors and material houses in this section.

RELIEF CLIENTS URGED TO TAKE TEMPORARY JOBS

Persons receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Administration need have no fear that if they accept temporary seasonal employment they will be removed permanently from the relief rolls. This assurance is given in a statement issued by State Director Lewis Compton of the ERA.

"In fact," says Mr. Compton, "our policy is just the opposite." He proceeds to explain that if clients go off the rolls by reason of taking temporary jobs, they can be returned without trouble when the temporary job ends if they have been honest in reporting their earnings.

The statement is supplementary to insistent efforts the administration has been making that clients take employment, permanent or temporary, whenever it is made available.

VICIOUS AND UNFAIR CLAIMS McCARTER

Charges Roosevelt Policies Have Made Hard Sledding For Public Utilities

About fifty of approximately 88,000 stockholders of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey attended the Corporation's annual meeting today (April 15) in Newark. Four of the Corporation's directors were re-elected for three years and a new director, Ogden H. Hammond, was elected for two years to fill the unexpired term of George H. Howard, resigned.

In his remarks to stockholders, President Thomas N. McCarter, said that 1934 had been the hardest year for utilities of any that he had experienced in his thirty-two years in the business. This was due, he said, to the "unprovoked, vicious and unfair" attacks upon the industry by the Roosevelt administration.

Several stockholders praised the management of Public Service during the present difficult period for utility companies.

RELIEF WORKERS SEEK ADVICE

Administration Asks for Appointment of Representatives From Each Community

In the effort to expedite cooperation from municipal authorities in the activities of the State Emergency Relief Administration, State Director Lewis Compton has issued another call to all County Directors to urge local governments to each select a representative on the municipal advisory committees which are authorized by the State relief administration law. Other members of such local committees are appointed by the County Directors of the ERA.

"The more intimate knowledge these members of local committees may have concerning local conditions can be applied with much effectiveness as an aid in discriminating between worthy and unworthy applicants for help from the ERA. That alone will be a tremendous benefit in our work."

N. J. NOW HAS 3900 VACANCIES IN CCC

Enrollments Will Be Open Until April 30. High Standard To Be Maintained

Authorization for the enlistment of New Jersey members of the Civilian Conservation Corps, for the half year period beginning this month, has been sent from State ERA headquarters to all counties. Formal enrollment, which began last Monday, will be completed by April 30. The enrollees will fill about 3,900 vacancies in New Jersey's quota of about 8,400.

Permission has been given to broaden the scope of enlistment. Heretofore the enrollment conducted by the ERA has been restricted to young men from families on relief, but it has been extended now to include young men eligible for relief. In addition, the bar against former CCC members has been raised. They may now re-enter but must have received honorable discharges and must have been in service between five and thirteen months continuously. However, no preference is to be given to them.

It is directed that in all cases care be taken that proper and needy recruits be enlisted.

"Special consideration," says the ERA order, "should be given to the physical, age, and character qualifications of applicants, so that a high standard of membership may be maintained." The CCC also includes war veterans but with these the ERA has nothing to do. The allotment from Burlington county is 60.

Time discloses all.

OUT AND AWAY!

Out and away from the toils and burdens of keeping her home in order—and before lunch at that!

Such is the lot of those women who have learned to depend upon the never failing convenience of electric service in the home.

Look at the golf links any morning in golfable weather—women here, there, and over yonder; notice the suburban gardening belt, women busily urging blooms to come forth; watch the highways and back roads, women with their children out for a lark—women who learned how to find leisure before lunch.

You, too, can enjoy this leisure by depending upon electricity to do your house work quickly, efficiently and economically—to sweep your carpets, to launder your clothes, to protect your food, to do numbers of other jobs at the click of a switch and at a cost insignificant to the work it does.

FINE DECORATIONS AT CHRIST CHURCH

Polychrome Method by Lewis Carr of Phila., Produces Pleasing Effects

The decorations of Christ Church have been finished and will be presented to the Easter churchgoers in all their new beauty. The plans for the work were under the personal direction of Lewis Carr, of Philadelphia, an ecclesiastical architect and designer. Mr. Carr not only executed the sketches from which the work was done but put in many hours himself doing the medallions on the chancel walls and other parts of the polychrome work.

Polychrome is one of the oldest and most beautiful methods of adding light and color to the interior of a church building and is coming in to more constant use all the time after having suffered a virtual eclipse for several centuries. It consists of the use of the primary colors used in contrast and applied in such a manner as to give depth and height to the building and to add emphasis to the architectural trims.

In the chancel silver has been used on a blue background upon the walls while the corbels and chamfers of the arches have been outlined in red to bring them out. The top of the wainscoting in the chancel has been outlined in narrow stripes of red and blue in such a manner that the eye is led to the altar as the central point of interest.

The walls of the nave have been done over in a cane stone grey to harmonize with the chancel and to add light to the whole. It is expected that the baptistry, which has been painted blue to harmonize with the chancel and to add length to the building as a whole, will be overlaid with scallop shells in silver, as the shell is the traditional symbol of baptism.

Members of the church who have seen the work so far have expressed great admiration and feel that they were indeed fortunate to secure the services of such a competent artist as Mr. Carr. Mr. Carr has studied at the Architectural School of the University of Pennsylvania and the School of Industrial Art, and has lately completed the refinishing of the chapel at Emmanuel Church, Holmsburg.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Borough of Riverton, Burlington County, New Jersey, for the Alterations and Additions to the present Riverton Public School, located on the plot of Ground on the N.E. Corner of Fifth and Howard Streets, Riverton, Burlington County, New Jersey.

Proposals will be opened and read in public in the present Riverton Public School Building, located at Fifth and Howard Streets, Riverton, New Jersey, on April 29, 1935, 8:00 o'clock p.m. Daylight Saving Time, or 7:00 o'clock p.m. Standard Time. Separate proposals will be received for the General Construction; Structural, Ornamental and Miscellaneous Iron Work; Heating and Ventilating; Plumbing and Drainage; and Electrical Work. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

The project is financed in whole or in part by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works and is subject to all of its requirements. The attention of bidders is called to the minimum rates of wages to be paid by contractors, namely: skilled labor $1.20 per hour and for unskilled labor $0.50 per hour.

All contracts and sub-contracts are subject to the approval of the Government Engineer. A separate labor bond is required in an amount equal to the largest estimated monthly payroll. Attention to prospective bidders is further directed to paragraph No. 2 of Construction Regulations included in the specifications. The office of the National Re-employment

Service which may be called upon for lists of qualified workers is at National, State and Local Employment Service, 55 Main Street, Mt. Holly, N. J. (Mr. Wm. E. Darnell, Manager.)

The attention of all contractors is called to the following executive order No. 6646 of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, dated March 14, 1934. "No bid will be considered unless it includes or is accompanied by a certificate in accordance with F.W.A. No. 61 revised March 19, 1934, duly executed by the bidder stating that the bidder is complying with and will continue to comply with each approved code of fair competition to which he is subject, and if engaged in any trade or industry for which there is no approved trade or industry he has become a party to and is complying with and will continue to comply with an agreement with the President (President's Re-employment Agreement) under section 4 (a) of the National Recovery Act."

Without exception, no bid will be considered unless accompanied by the bidder's Certificate of Compliance, U. S. Government form F.W.A. 61, Revised March, 1934, to the effect that the bidder is complying with and will continue to comply with each applicable Code of Fair Competition, or, in the absence of such Code of Compliance, with the President's Re-employment Agreement. Copies of this Certificate will be included with the "Instructions to Bidders."

Proposals must be sealed and addressed to Mr. Spencer L. Haines, District Clerk, Board of Education, Fifth & Howard Streets, Riverton, Burlington County, New Jersey, and made out on a standard proposal form similar to that to be furnished by Architect, and in the manner as designated thereon.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check drawn to the order of the Board of Education of the Borough of Riverton, Burlington County, New Jersey for an amount equal to at least five per centum (5%) of the amount of the Proposal.

The successful bidder, after contract is awarded, will be required to furnish a satisfactory surety bond in the full amount of the contract price to guarantee the fulfillment of the conditions of his contract. Plans and specifications are on file at the office of the Architect, Byron H. Edwards, Inc., 130 N. Broadway, Camden.

Tremendous Trifles

A HISTORIC CIGAR WRAPPER

"HAIL!"
B. W. Mitchell of Muncie, Ind., a private in Company F of the Twenty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry in the Army of the Potomac, heard that command with a feeling of relief. He was tired after the long march that Gen. George B. McClellan had ordered on that hot September day in 1862. Then his eyes sparkled! A prize! Three cigars wrapped in a small piece of paper lay at his feet. He ripped off the paper and started to throw it away. Then he swore softly. A few minutes later the paper was in McClellan's hands.

It was Special Order No. 191, signed by Gen. Robert E. Lee. It revealed how he had divided two wings of his army, and told of the routes over which they were moving. It was addressed to Gen. D. H. Hill, but some staff officer or courier had used it for a cigar wrapper, and lost it. Within two hours McClellan had a division on the march to drive a wedge between Lee's divided force.

Just in the nick of time the amazed Confederate commander learned the reason for the Union leader's swift action, so he changed his plans. The result was that the gray army was forced to the defensive, and there ensued the "bloodiest battle of the whole war," that of Antietam. Lee lost 10,000 men and McClellan 12,140, a total casualty of 22,140, all because of a piece of paper wrapped around three cigars!

POLITICS AND ERA

NOT TO BE MIXED
State Director Issues Orders That All Candidates Must Sever ERA Connections

To maintain the policy of the Emergency Relief Administration that it shall not be used for political purposes, State Director Lewis Compton has sent orders to all counties that persons connected with the ERA who are candidates for election must resign their posts in the ERA at once. The State Director's procedure is in furtherance of action this week by the State Relief Council.

"Department Directors and County Directors," Mr. Compton wrote to them "therefore, will take immediately the necessary steps to enforce the letter and the spirit of the above-mentioned policy." The action also applies to volunteers; that is, those workers in the relief administration who receive no pay from the ERA.

Riverton Ranks

High Financially

D. Sordon, was unanimously confirmed.

Councilman John L. Stroblein, chairman of the borough property committee, reported that the borough this summer is losing the services of Wilton E. Mount, former playground director. He regretted that Mr. Mount would not be available this coming summer, and speaking for council and himself, he wished Mr. Mount much success in his new summer undertaking.

FERRA Playground Supervisors
Councilman Stroblein asked for the approval of council in the appointment of playground supervisors at the park during the summer months in cooperation with the FERRA headquarters at Mt. Holly. He had been in communication with Mrs. Dudley, head of the Leisure Time Division. Applicants from Riverton who desire to work at the park as playground instructors may apply to Mr. Stroblein. The successful candidates will be given a course of instructions in Mt. Holly before being assigned to the work at the park. Young people are wanted for this work, such as college students home for vacations, etc. The remuneration will be approximately $15 per week. The activities will include projects such as handicraft, dancing, dramatics and possibly a leisure time band. These instructors will have daily and weekly supervision of their work from the Mt. Holly office, and the saving on the park supervision this year will be approximately $150.

People applying for this work must be in the unemployed ranks.

One Year's Trial
Mr. Stroblein stated that this type of supervision had been recommended by Mr. Mount and he would like to have the permission of council to try it this year. Mr. Mount was present at the meeting and stated that he recommended this plan because it gives a unified program and closer supervision. The property committee was authorized to proceed as outlined with the leisure time division of the FERRA.

Mr. Stroblein asked for the appointment of George Carney as park caretaker at a wage of $16 per week, which includes the concession for selling candy, soft drinks, etc. Councilman Knight moved that power to regulate concessions at the park be given to the chairman of the borough property committee, which was duly approved and permission to Mr. Carney will be issued by the chairman of the borough property committee. Mr. Carney was also appointed a special officer on the park property without compensation during the time of his incumbency.

Riverton Park for Riverton
Mr. Stroblein stated that he had received a number of applications for the use of the baseball diamond, but felt that he would rather not let it out to outsiders as a commercial proposition. The mayor backed his property chairman and stated that the park is for the people of Riverton and is not a commercial proposition at all. Mr. Stroblein asked for permission to erect signs in the park to the effect that persons using the park do so at their own risk. A former opinion from the solicitor stated that the the property committee may erect such signs but that it is not necessary since the borough could not be held liable for injuries sustained by people using the park.

House Torn Down
Mr. Stroblein reported that the house on the property owned by the Dreer estate, formerly occupied by the Seckels, has been torn down and that the ground will be leveled and planted in grass. He added that the rose trial bed opposite the park had been protected by a new ornamental fence and that Dreers had communicated with the Pennsylvania Railroad asking for the removal of the tool shop at the entrance to Cedar street. Councilman Knight asked that a vote of thanks be extended to Dreers by the borough clerk for council, complimenting the Dreer officials for their efforts to improve the appearance of the entrance to Memorial Park.

Wooden Shingles O.K.
DeWitt Steedle, chairman of the building committee, reported that he had conferred with the solicitor relative to the question of replacing roofs with fire-proof materials as interpreted in the building code. The solicitor rendered an opinion through Mr. Steedle that the ordinance as written was properly interpreted by the present building inspector in the case of the Linden avenue property which was objected to by Hilton M. Smith at the previous meeting. It is the opinion of council that they cannot regulate what material should be used in repairs to roofs, and any attempt to legislate against repairing with wooden shingles would only produce many loopholes which would be ineffectual and force people to deliberately evade the law in the matter of roof repairs.

The matter was referred back to the building committee for further consideration.

Improvements were reported totaling $1700 in building construction with fees amounting to $10.

New Police Plan
Councilman Robert W. Knight, chairman of the police committee, reported that he would like to try a plan that would provide a special officer two days a week. The plan is, he explained, to relieve each of the regular officers one day a week. The schedule of hours as planned will increase the hours of the regular police in some instances but still, according to the chief, give the men one day each week to which he feels they are entitled. This plan will involve no greater expense to the borough. The mayor stated that he thought the plan workable and should be tried. Councilman Knight asked council to confirm the appointment of Edson Carhart in the place of Fred Ulmer as a special officer.

A resolution remitting taxes in the amount of $252.64 as uncollectible, was passed as requested by the collector.

The Police Report
The police report for March included: Two arrests, 2 bicycles found and returned to owners, 18 complaints and reports answered and investigated, 4 complaints on dogs, 7 calls from other police departments, 3 doors found open, 2 dogs gassed, 4 fire alarms turned in by police, 1 garbage complaint, 6 homes closed, 3 night lodgers.

Mr. Knight spoke of the ordinance being effected in Palmyra relative to dilapidated buildings, and stated that such an ordinance might possibly be valuable to Riverton. The mayor referred the subject to the building committee for study.

A letter was received from Howard Eastwood, prosecutor of the pleas of Burlington County, stating that a special meeting of the grand jury was held on April 4 at which time it was decided that the prosecutor should notify each municipality within the county to enforce the laws regarding gambling. Chief William Gootee, who was present, stated that gambling machines in Riverton had been removed and that

THE RIVERTON NEW ERA, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1935

Notified of New Clerk

A letter was received from Mrs. Marion R. Elwell, president of the Riverton Board of Education, stating that Spencer L. Haines, had been elected district clerk for the Riverton school district in the place of Fred P. Hemphill, and that all business would be transacted through Mr. Haines in the future.

A resolution was passed authorizing that the sum of $75 be sent to the County ERA, as the borough's share of the April relief budget which amounts to $300 in all, taking care of fifteen families or sixty-three people.

Ross E. Mattis was present representing the FERRA and stated that relief in Riverton was in a very healthy condition and that the relief load is the lowest in the county.

Prefer Dole to Jobs
Mr. Mattis stated that labor is not being absorbed, since many are content to live on the dole rather than accept a position off the relief roll.

A communication was received from the Citizens' Committee signed by Paul Barnhart, Waynes Ayres, Rev. Charles T. Bates and Wilson Sylvester requesting that a balance of $106.49 incurred in the defense of officer John J. Robinson be paid by the borough. A committee composed of Mayor Biddle, E. K. Merrill and Robert W. Knight will meet with the Citizens' Committee to discuss the matter.

A discussion was held relative to conditions along Broad street in which the opposition to cars being parked in front of the Pal-River Chevrolet was again brought up. Chief Gootee also remarked about the dangerous condition around the Thomas avenue crossing caused by the poplar trees planted along the railroad. The mayor suggested a study of these situations be made and a report made to council at a later date.

Riverton Bank Up Again

Councilman Merrill stated that the road on the river bank should be given serious consideration and stated that it had passed beyond the point of being a poor road to the point where it is now dangerous. Councilman Sargent, chairman of the highway department, said that the age-old question of some property owners not wanting it repaired has kept him from doing anything about it.

The highway committee was authorized to look into the matter and find out what can be done in regard to expense of paving this road and to report to a special meeting within two weeks.

OBITUARIES

HENRY YOST

Henry Yost, 81, of Public road, Palmyra, died suddenly last Thursday. Mr. Yost is Palmyra's oldest resident who was born there. He lived at Broad and Delaware during his youth and when he married Miss Annie Smith, of Riverside, in March 1882, he moved to Broad and Elm, across from the present K. of C. Hall. At that time he farmed a plot of ground extending from his home to the river bank, and on the other side of the street from the K. of C. Hall out as far as Burlington pike. In 1887 Mr. and Mrs. Yost moved to Cambridge where they ran a farm until 1895. They then moved back to Palmyra on Public road.

Mr. Yost is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Julia Caprano, Public road, with whom he made his home, and Mrs. J. W. Tobin, of Cynwyd, Pa., and a granddaughter, Eleanor Caprano. Funeral services were held Monday from the Snower Funeral Home, Rev. Ira S. Pimm officiating. Interment was made in Morgan Cemetery.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

Each year in connection with the Parent-Teacher Association Parent's Night an exhibit is made of work done during the year by the pupils of Riverton School.

More than 250 parents and many friends of the school visited the exhibit of work in the classrooms Monday evening and were both interested and entertained by what they saw. Classes were opened early for the visitors. Girls who took the registration and acted as guides wore either complete dresses or blouses that they had made for themselves. The domestic science room was gay with good things to eat made by girls in grades 5 to 8, and many attractive products from the sewing classes were also displayed.

Metal and wood articles made in the shop were arranged on the stage and were a source of great interest, the file tables and bracket lamps attracting special attention.

In the little building the first grade circus and the Indian camp, "Red Eagle's Home," made by first and second grades, were high spots, showing dramatic comprehension of the stories these children had read. Altho the kindergarten started with a handicap after quarantine destroyed all their early products, their exhibit showed the results of busy days during the last two months.

Interest in the second grade room centered around the store that they are constructing.

Among the many attractive products, on display in the third grade, the paper cut-outs showing summer and winter sports and original stories and poems, probably attracted most attention.

The story of Heidi on the fourth grade sandtable and animal sketches drew visitors to that room, while no one could afford to miss the "stained glass" windows, the cottonfield, the painting of the western immigration in the fifth grades.

The Egyptian apeseries, window draperies and other portrayals of the study of our early ancestry in sixth grade drew their share of admirers. Stories and problems illustrated by friezes or individual drawings, original cartoons, and collections of material showed interested activity in 7th and 8th grade work.

Oil paintings were displayed by some specially talented pupils in the Art Club.

The work exhibited was an expression of the understanding and appreciation of subject matter and demonstrated various individual abilities and acquired skills.

Be frank with your sweetheart: attentions without intentions should be so labeled.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

MUNDORFF TURNS ON NEW DEALERS

Editor The New Era:

It appears to me about time for the people of Burlington county to know just what is going on in the county with regard to our new Freeholders. How are they managing county affairs? How are they saving county money—are they saving as much as they say they are?

At the meeting of the Board of Freeholders last Friday, I requested the floor and was refused. I spoke anyway, and made a detailed statement of conditions that I knew existed. Director Palmer Adams interrupted me and adjourned the meeting, but I continued to speak as I wanted the people to know what I had to say. However, since very brief accounts have appeared in the papers concerning my statement, I am taking this opportunity to place my facts before the people.

On January 2, 1935, when Freeholder Albert C. Jones took office, and Freeholder Frank Cook decided to swing the balance of power to Adams and Jones, it was a sad transaction for the people of this county.

Personal Grudge Charged

Freeholder Jones had a personal hatred for County Engineer Smith, and his election gave him the chance to settle the grudge. I knew in advance, on November 7, 1934, to be exact, that Smith and MacFarland were going to lose their jobs. Freeholder Jones got his revenge under the pretense of saving county money. He also claimed that as freeholder he would act as county engineer and save more money. And he charged that Mr. MacFarland had disposed of the 100,000 gallons of road oil, and that another bill had been paid twice. That was all cheap publicity seeking, and after the need for it had passed, instead of prosecuting Smith and MacFarland as they said they would, they retracted it all and allowed the two men to resign. Not only that, but they will pay them salaries up to April 1st, when they have done no work for the county since January 2nd. This extra salary amounts to $1488, plus interest at 6 percent.

Now Mr. Smith's position is vacant, but Mr. MacFarland's post was taken over by two of the "clique," Clifford Massey and Paul Austin—two for two, making no reduction—but it has cost the county $1488 to settle Mr. Jones' grudge.

The Bridge Squabble

Let's take a look at the Riverside-Delanco bridge investigation. When they started the investigation, they decided to dismiss the Bridgeweld Engineering Company on the false grounds that they were incompetent, and then engaged the Ash, Howard, Needles and Tammen Company, of New York, to replace them. Of course there are very many defects in the bridge, but has the new engineering company made any effort to correct these defects? No. Mr. Paul, one of their engineers, admitted that different things I pointed out to him were wrong and should be adjusted.

Freeholder Jones and Adams discontinued the job of bridge inspector. The bridge difficulties would never have happened if a bridge inspector had been kept on the job. I blame Adams and Jones for the mistakes more than anyone. They allowed the bridge to continue to about 95 percent completion, and if they had kept the Bridgeweld Company on the job till it was finished, it would have cost the county $20,000 for engineering services for the whole job.

High Cost of Engineers

But Adams and Jones decided they must have new engineers, so they hired another company to finish the remaining 5 percent and agreed to pay them 3 percent of the total cost, about $8,000, for it. At any rate, they would be paying the company $160,000 if they had given them the whole job, as against the $20,000 total cost if they had retained the Bridgeweld Co.

I know that the Bridgeweld Company was promised 10 percent of the total cost, originally $200,000, but due to changes which finally jumped the cost to $271,000, that company would have been willing to drop the 10 percent and do the job for 7½ percent, which keeps the figure at about $20,000.

I claim that Adams and Jones abused their power in this matter, and did not act for the best interests of the county.

And now let's consider that other Freeholder, Frank Cook, the spineless member of our Board of Freeholders. I contend that Cook has no knowledge whatever of his duties as a member of the board, and that he takes orders in all things from Jones. He does not even run his own department. Jones runs it, hires, fires, and rules it entirely, according to advice from Adams. Cook is just a "yes" man, he hasn't the "guts" to stand on his own feet or speak his own mind. All he does is mind Adams' directions and collect $4,000 of our money each year, a total loss of $12,000 to the county for his three-year term.

"Only Hope"

When I have complained to Jones or Adams about Cook, they have said "He is just what we need, he is our only hope until our next freeholder gets in; then we'll be able to get along without him."

Another thing: I have had the opportunity of surveying the New Lisbon County House property and I venture you do not know of the existing graveyard under Dr. Darlington's property and the water standpipe. Well, there are more than 300 poor souls buried there, without a single marker. I called Mr. Adams' attention to it after he had been in office one year, and threatened to have a few of our people visit the property and see conditions for themselves. He pleaded with me not to do so and asked my advice. I drew plans for an attractive burial ground and built a sample tombstone, which could have been made for $1 per stone, and yet would have properly marked the graves. When I presented the plans to Mr. Adams he "passed the buck" and put me off, time after time.

The Real Adams

I believe that the people are beginning to see Mr. Adams as he really is, far different from what he appeared to be when he first took office. Those who doubt me should attend the meetings of the board, on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. The meetings are supposed to start at 10:30 a.m., but if they see a crowd of people waiting, they sometimes postpone the opening of the meeting until the people get tired and go home. They may go home, but I wait.

A Challenge

I am probably New Jersey's youngest World War veteran, and I am interested in having the affairs of Burlington county conducted as they should be. I am not owned or controlled by any political boss, but fight for myself and the people of the county. I will thank you for your cooperation. I am not wealthy, nor do I have any important job; to be frank, I have no job at all at present. But I am not disheartened; I am a natural fighter for the right and will keep at it.

In closing, I challenge Freeholders Jones and Adams, and lastly Freeholder Cook, to deny my statements if they dare. They know they are wrong and know I am telling the truth. And there will be more of it later.

SHORTCUTS

to the Dinner Table

VERA A. SCHNEIDER

Custards Should Bake in Slow Oven

I think, Mrs. Wiley, that your difficulty is that you cook custards at too high a temperature, or perhaps too long, either of which would cause them to whey or curdle. This may be prevented by regulating the temperature and time of cooking the custards and baking them surrounded by water slightly below the boiling point. Remove them from the heat when they are done and be sure the milk is sweet. If you'll watch these several points when next you make custard, I think you'll find that the result will be satisfactory.

Here is a good recipe to follow and I hope you will have no further trouble with this particular branch of your cooking.

BAKED CUSTARD

3 eggs—slightly beaten
½ cupful sugar teaspoonful salt
½ cupful milk
Grating of nutmeg

Mix together the slightly beaten eggs, sugar and salt. Add the milk and stir until sugar is dissolved. Pour into custard cups, set in a pan of water (about one inch in depth) and bake in a 325 degree oven until firm—about 40 minutes. Remove at once from the hot water and cool as quickly as possible.

And now shall we plan a dinner for Sunday?

SUNDAY'S DINNER
Cream of Tomato Soup
Celery Roast Chicken Olives
Giblet Gravy
Mashed Potatoes Buttered Peas
Dressed Watercress
Pineapple Marshmallow Whip
Coffee

— PINEAPPLE MARSHMALLOW WHIP

1½ cupfuls crushed pineapple
½ lb. marshmallows—cut in quarters
2 cupfuls heavy cream

2 tablespoonfuls powdered sugar
1 teaspoonful vanilla
Combine the pineapple and marshmallows and let stand six or eight hours. Whip the cream and add powdered sugar and vanilla. Fold in the pineapple mixture and place in refrigerator trays until thoroughly chilled, but not frozen.

PORCH CLUB

Reservations for the charter luncheon at the Porch Club, on Tuesday, April 23rd, must be made with Mrs. S. Reid Merley, Riverton 362, not later than Saturday, April 20th. Tickets are 50 cents.

The pilgrimage to the Art Museum and Planetarium, originally scheduled for April 30th, has been changed to May 1st. Members are asked to meet at the side entrance to the Art Museum on the Parkway at 10:30 promptly. Tickets to the Planetarium are 25 cents. For any further information call Mrs. Claude J. K. Anderson.

On Tuesday, May 7th, at 2:30 p.m., Walter Cox, of Haddonfield, will give a talk on old furniture. Members are urged to exhibit their antique chairs, small tables and small mirrors, and these should be sent to the Club House after ten o'clock on the morning of May 7th.

BUZZY—MOFFIT

Mr. and Mrs. John Moffit, of Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Kathryn, to Claude Thomas Buzzy, of Woodstown, N. J., April 6, 1935, at Halthorpe, Md.

taxpayers foot the bills during the remainder of their lives.

Real Danger Hidden

The Republican Builders believe this power should not be granted to the President. We believe that a free people cannot grant such dictatorial power to their ruler, because if they do they will not remain free. The problems involved in the proposed Banking Act are complex and technical. For that reason they are not understood by the public which believes this to be a banker's problem. We see that it is a vital and personal problem which affects the lives of every wage earner, every property owner, every person who hopes to save for the future.

The Administration is attempting to hurry this bill through Congress. There is no need to hurry. The entire problem should be studied by Congress and held over until the next session. The people of this country should be given ample time to inform themselves on the true significance of this dangerous bill. The plausible explanations given by its sponsors do not reveal its dangers.

HOLC BORROWERS TO PAY IN CAMDEN

Victor King, manager of the Camden District Office of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, has announced that effective at once all persons who have received loans from the corporation may now make their monthly payments at Room 424 in Post Office Building, Camden.

King said: "Heretofore the 3500 borrowers in Camden, Gloucester, Cumberland, Salem and Burlington counties have been making their payments direct to the Regional Office in New York City. The opening of a collection department brings close to the home owner a place to bring his payments. Every payment will be acknowledged by an official receipt.

"If the payments are made by check or money order the borrower should continue the practice of sending them to the regional office."

THE "NEW DEAL"

BY JULIAN MASON

Vice President National Republican Builders

"Coming Back"

This Republican revival is a real thing. We are able to give to this fact direct testimony from the experience of the National Republican Builders during the last few weeks. The Builders membership is reflecting the new life of Republicanism.

I cited last week the three main portents of the Republican return to "the normal processes of political life." They were: The Hoover call for a party rebirth; the Landon announcement of a 10 state Republican conference at Kansas City; the emergence of a definite list of possible Republican nominees for the Presidency.

Active Signs of Life

To this list, the succeeding week has added two equally significant developments:

1. The Republican victory in the state elections in Michigan. There were no outstanding local issues or personalities. The Democrats won Michigan by 132,000 in the national elections of 1932. Five months later, they won it again in the state elections corresponding to those held Tuesday. In 1934, the result was about a half-and-half split. On Tuesday, the Republicans took everything in sight. Because of the absence of the perplexing currents of the local issues, the keenest political observers now put down the result as a sign of discontent with the New Deal.

2. The proposal of a 6-state Republican conference in New England. The conference is not based upon the delegate plan, as is that of the mid-westerners. It will consist of national committeemen, national committeewomen, state chairmen, vice-chairmen and other prominent Republicans. They will be drawn from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island. They will listen to an address by Representative Theodore Christianson, a so-called "liberal" Republican from Minnesota.

Negative Symptoms

To these "positive" symptoms of the week, it might be well to add two "negative" ones. The latter consist of the formulation into brief, true and popularly understandable phrases of the basis for the rising hostility to Mr. Roosevelt and his policies.

The first as to policies from Senator Millard E. Tydings, conservative Democrat from Maryland; "We must stop running this country on hot air!"

The second, as to Mr. Roosevelt himself, is from the pen of Frank Kent, of the Baltimore Sun; "People are beginning to think that Mr. Roosevelt has made a fool of the country."

New Organizations

Such feelings are evident in the suddenly increased mail that has been pouring into the national headquarters of the Builders.

Stephen Bolles, the sturdy editor of the Daily Gazette, in Jamesville, Wis., writes to tell me of the instantaneous success of his articles on a visit to the contradictory and falsely ballyhooed proceedings in the Tennessee Valley. He says that he has had to have his articles reprinted to meet the quick demand for them.

From a Democratic Village of 3,000 in North Carolina comes a demand for information as to how to organize 125 Republican villagers along Builders' lines. They want to make effective their rising anger against the New Deal.

From two young newspaper people in Wyoming, we have received a call to come out and organize the anti-Roosevelt sentiment in the oil, cattle, mining, sugar states that include the long, wide, under-populated strip of territory of Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico. This "strip" of territory, is far different in its traditions and economic background from the Pacific States or the Kansas group. The sentiment, these young editors report, is swinging violently away from Mr. Roosevelt.

Interest Widespread

So runs our mail, originating this week from states as far apart as Texas and New Hampshire and most points between. Through it all is this new note of Republican energy and hope. Another encouraging symptom is that we are beginning to get telegrams again; telegrams of praise, telegrams of anger, telegrams urging plans of action against Roosevelt.

Many of these telegrams come from Pennsylvania. Our organization there is to hold its main rally this month. Massachusetts and New Jersey still bombard us for speakers and advice. But the most intensive and successful organization work has suddenly been forced upon us from the city and state of New York. People, as the phrase goes, "eat it up." In each of the five boroughs of the Greater City, Builders' chapters are either organized or under way. We hope soon to complete our present roster by establishing them in every assembly district in Manhattan. The Kings County Chapter is spreading out daily along that line, across the East River.

How to "Do Something"

Most encouraging of all, perhaps, has been the overwhelming response in renewal membership dues responding to a brief circular giving the past accomplishments, the present activities and the future plans of the Builders. Those Republican "daymen" who want to "do something" about Franklin Roosevelt ought to send in and get that circular from the headquarters of the National Republican Builders, 60 E. 42nd street, New York City.

TIPS ON GROWING

BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

I saw for the first time the other day flowers of the new Viola cornuta Arkwright Ruby, one of the "class" novelties for 1935. It is catalogue-described as "rosy crimson with terra-cotta shadings." I should think the color of rosewood with the aforesaid shadings would be better. The coloring is very rich. The flowers are quite large for a Viola, the plant fine for the rockery, very free, fragrant and easily raised from seed. Something new and different.

There seems to be no end to the possibilities of the "Dennis" Square Garden Stakes. Along with the stake is supplied a stretch of flexible rattan which is laced thru a series of holes in the stake to enclose the plant foliage. Several of the stakes will completely enclose and support a bushy planting of peonies or other heavy foliage plants. But the most appealing feature is that a number of the stakes joined by the rattan may be set out in the form of a low fence for the support of weak-stemmed annuals, climbers or sweet peas.

Years ago the little Fireside magazines used to carry an advertisement of the "Shoo Fly" plant, and we wondered what it could be. A few days ago we saw in an old copy of Bailey's "cyclo" this note, "Shoo Fly Plant, a name given to Physalis is Chinese Lantern or Winter Cherry. The orange-scarlet 'lanterns' are sold by florists at Hallowe'en. May be grown in the garden but likely to encroach on plots of other plants.

In "Garden and Home" Laura Fenner tells of a town (Lakeside on Lake Erie, Ohio) made up of a colony of tree lovers where the houses are built around one or more trees—where only when absolutely necessary trees are cut down to accommodate the houses. She adds "In this day of ruthless tree slaughtering, it is refreshing and reassuring to find that not every tree that comes in the way of so-called 'progress' is sacrificed." Because so many of the trees have been spared in their natural setting, the resort has remained a sanctuary where native birds come to rear their families in peace, and sing their songs of happiness . . . and squirrels cross one's path unafraid . . . The woods-folks know they have nothing to fear. Their instinct seems to tell them that humans who love trees also love the wildlings of nature."

How wonderful it would if all suburban communities would exert the same praiseworthy effort to preserve the old trees and not resort to the ax at the first sign of decay.

McIntyre, the columnist, reports the eclipse of the orchid. "Once the ace of corsages," he says, "it has become the symbol of the chorus girl and has been supplanted by a bunch of white violets centered with a spray of gardenias."

ELIMINATION OF CROSSINGS URGED

Tragic emphasis to the need for railroad grade crossing elimination was given by the appalling crash in which fourteen Maryland high school students lost their lives last week, and officials of the Keystone Automobile Club of New Jersey, urge that no time be lost in getting an elimination program in this State under way.

It is pointed out by Trevor B. Mathews, Manager of the Camden Division of the Club, that New Jersey will receive $6,114,000 for grade crossing elimination under the emergency relief appropriations act of 1935, recently signed by the President.

"This fund," he said, "should be put to use immediately in the life saving program. The fact that the grade crossing horror which shocked the nation occurred in Maryland is no reason for a complacent attitude on the part of the authorities in this State. A similar accident may occur here at any time.

"There should be no temporizing with the problem. It is not a question that safety can be solved 'some other time.' Lives are being lost at our own grade crossings, one or two at a time, but in the aggregate forming a total much greater than the interest compelling tragedy in Maryland. We urge upon the authorities the importance of quick action in the vital task of abolishing these highway death traps."

BADLY BURNED

Thomas Cahill, Jr., is convalescing in his home on Washington avenue, after receiving serious burns on the face and hands from scalding pineapple juice. The accident occurred when Cahill dropped a pot of the juice after lifting it from a stove in a local factory where he is employed. He was treated by Dr. Dean H. LeFavor.

BASKET BALL DOPEBy
An Old Timer

The most important elementary training for the youngster who has the desire to play Basket Ball to any extent, is the adept handling of the ball. This means to learn the "balance," "feel" and other peculiarities that the ball has when thrown or rebounding from almost any position, also acquire the knack of quick throwing with the use of the wrist instead of the whole arm. Find out how to use the finger tips rather than the palm of the hand. Note what certain amounts of spin or "English" make. You can go thru this form of training alone or with not more than one friend who is interested like yourself. Having your own ball is a great advantage.

Do not be concerned about shooting goals at first. If you become proficient in making the ball "behave" for you the scoring of goals will be the least of your troubles. The ball is the main objective in the game. The final score is simply the result. From this it is easily seen that the team that can retain the ball by clever handling, which implies passing from one mate to another, is in line for scoring. All the time your team has the sphere your opponents cannot register points. This proves that a good offense is really the best defense. So learn to handle the ball better than the other team.

It is possible for some players to acquire as much ability to manipulate the ball with one hand as the general run of players can with two hands. To develop one hand dexterity means just about four times the amount of practice as with two paws. You may wonder what advantage is gained by such playing. If the player also learns how to use the "off" hand to good purpose in warding away the opposition, and employ the said aid to balance the body while moving around the floor, he has two tricks worth while.

From the above it may appear that the clever handling of the ball is the whole game. Far from it. But it is a fundamental of play that is absolutely necessary to acquire and keep in tune by constant practice. Most players consider shooting at the basket as the only practice necessary. If they want to develop their "eye" there is nothing better than a goal a few inches less in diameter than the regulation. This is not always feasible, but a 15 inch goal in the back yard will work wonders to help the sharpshooter.

Between the handling of the ball and actually registering the points necessary to win a game there are numerous systems of play, actions and the like. These will not be discussed at this time, but some thought will be given to the shooting of goals. The greater number of players aim the ball for an 18 inch opening that is above the level of their eyes. Some of them just hope it will go thru and it is surprising how often it does happen. You may ask, what is the target? Dragging bowling into this discussion, it is said that the best pin tumbler sight a spot on the alley near where the ball begins its course. Basket Ball marksmen can in the same way pick out their spots on the back board behind the basket. After a few years' play with this in mind, it is remarkable how the figurative marks stand out. This style of shooting really has a three-fold value. First, it is something definite to aim for; second, if the shot falls short there still the possibility of a clean goal, and third, if too hard it gives the shooter the opportunity to judge where the ball is likely to rebound. He should always make the attempt for a second try. This is called "following up your shot."

It usually results in a scrimmage under the basket, and the players who can work the stunt take some risk of bruises but are a great help to their team.

Foul goal shots are of an entirely different nature than those from the field during action. The player shooting from the foul line is entirely unmolested and can take more deliberate aim. It is surprising how many fail. If they would remember the "spot" and loop the ball a bit higher than ordinarily, or apply a bit of reverse spin, they would have more success. A few foul goals have changed the complexion of many a game. Your opponents will have more respect for you if your team makes the foul goals count.

ATHLETIC CLUB TO

Philadelphia Newspaper to Finance Outfits Through Subscription Campaign in Palmyra

The Palmyra Athletic Club has arranged with a Philadelphia newspaper to secure its baseball suits through the medium of subscriptions. These subscriptions will run for six months. It is hoped that those interested in baseball will aid the club by taking one of these subscriptions.

The club is planning a card party to be held on April 25. Pinochle, bridge and radio will be played. Many prizes will be distributed. Baseball practice will be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. All ball players are invited to "work out."

BOY SCOUTS IN MUSICAL COMEDY

Members of Troops 5 and 9 to Present "Mystery Cruise" April 26-27

The Boy Scouts of Troops Nos. 5 and 9 of Palmyra will present a two-act musical comedy, "Mystery Cruise," in the Palmyra high school auditorium, Friday and Saturday evenings, April 26 and 27, under the direction of Miss Helene Johnson.

The dancing is under the direction of Miss Jacqueline Blake. There are 40 members in the chorus. Three of the main songs in the play were written by Mrs. Sidney White, who is the pianist.

Members of the cast are: First mate, Harry Turner; captain, Lawrence Schweizer; chief steward, Nelson Russ; niece, Edna Meiner; first porter, John Schmidt; second porter, William McCamy; cook, Harry Bauer; first passenger, Warren Gilbert; second passenger, Dolly Siddell; third passenger, White; old lady, Virginia Schweizer; nephew, Harry Sedgley; mother, Peggy White; first girl, Carol Bauer; second girl, Doris Woodcock; detective, Charles Christine; assistant detective, Earle Cooper; Mr. Niff, Paul Gibson; Fannie Trent, Jacqueline Blake; Mr. Nutshell, Harry Horner; Crook, Norman Bauer.

RIVERTON BOARD
ASKS NEW BIDS

Revised Prices for Improvements to School Building Will Be Opened April 29

The Riverton Board of Education met Friday night of last week for the purpose of arranging to readvertise for bids on improvements to the school building, and the date set for opening the new proposals was April 29 at 8 o'clock in the school house.

Mr. Woolman reported that the audit of the former clerk's books would be made the following week by Mr. Welcker, of the firm of Charles S. Rockey & Company, and that the material now held by him should be available to the new clerk within a very short time.

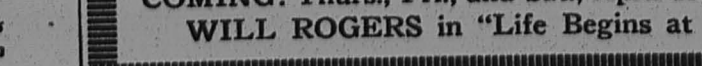

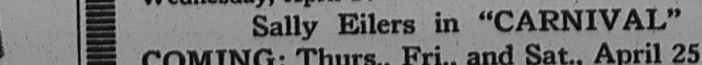

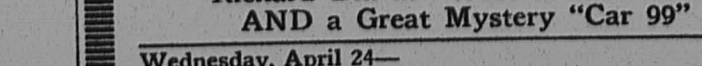

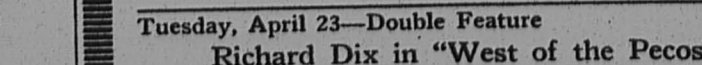

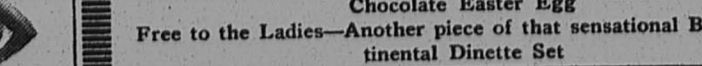

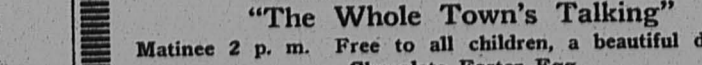

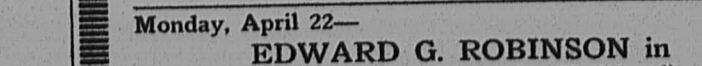

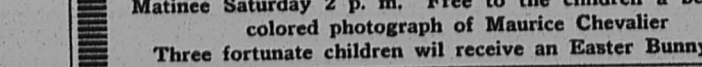

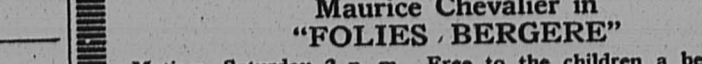

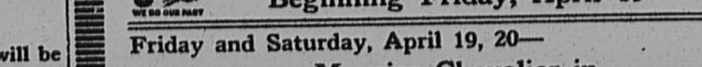

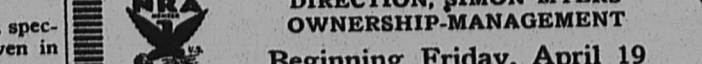

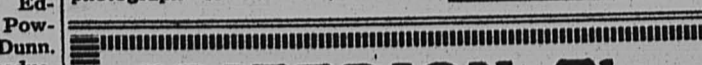

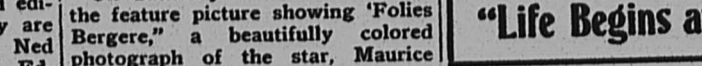

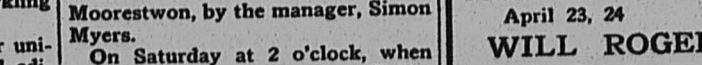

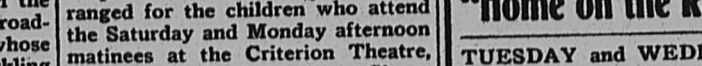

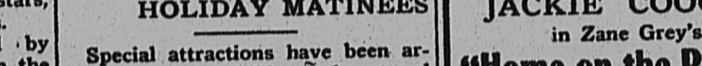

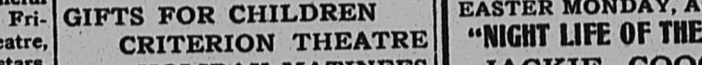

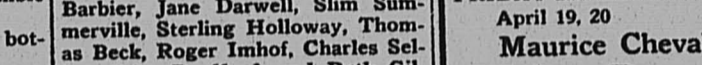

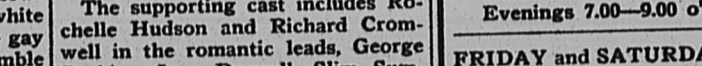

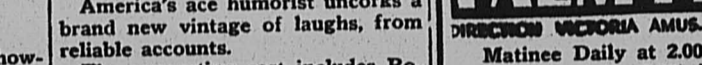

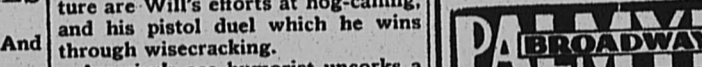

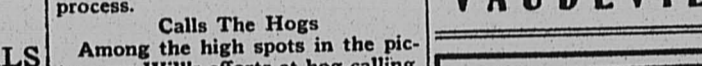

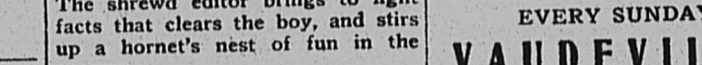

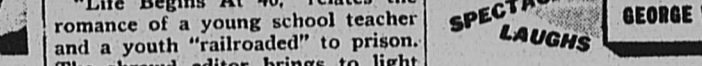

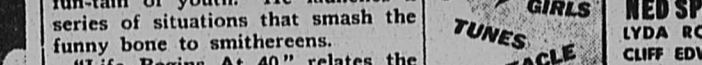

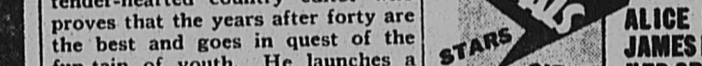

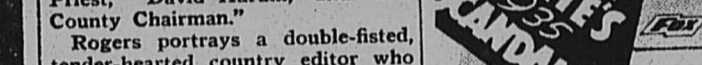

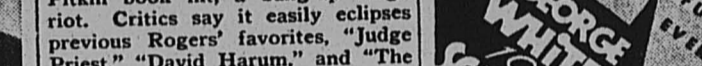

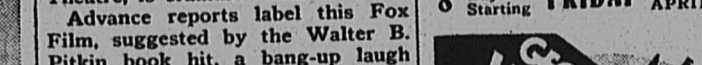

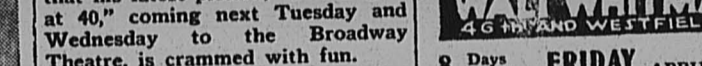

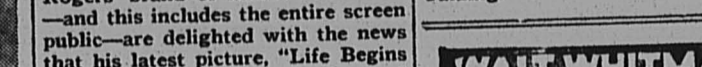

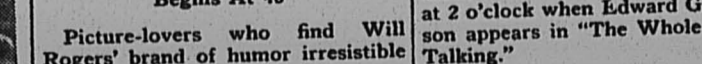

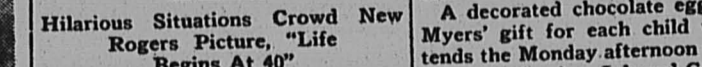

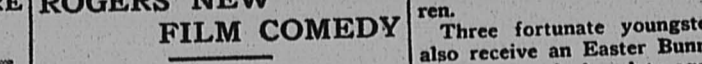

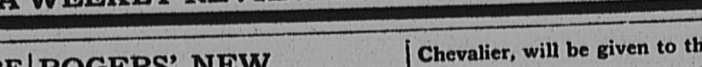

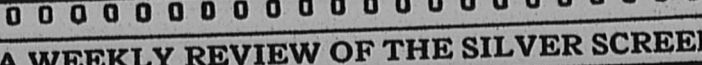

Mr. Smith was authorized to arrange for the return of checks which accompanied the three lowest bids and which were held until it was determined to readvertise.

Ten Big Stars; 200 Beauties And Six Song Hits Coming to Walt Whitman

George White, the master showman, who made the word white stand for something new in "the gay white way," is proud of his humble origins.

He worked his way from the bottom to the top.

At the moment the top stands for "George White's 1935 Scandals," the glamorous, mythical and tenuous spectacle which will start next Friday at the Walt Whitman Theatre, with a galaxy of 10 magnet stars, 200 beauties, and six song hits.

This production, sponsored by Fox Films, is the last word in the career of the man who gave Broadway fifteen smash hits, and whose name is synonymous with sparkling ultra-modern entertainment.

A galaxy of stars bring their unique talents to the 1935 second edition of the "Scandals." They are Alice Faye, James Dunn, Ned Sparks, Lydia Robert, Cliff Edwards, Arline Judge, Eleanor Powell, Benny Rubin, and Emma Dunn.

George White conceived, produced and directed the entire production, and in addition appears in this musical extravaganza.

Comedy, drama, dance, song, spectacle and humor are interwoven in the strong plot.

ROGERS' NEW FILM COMEDY

Hilarious Situations Crowd New Rogers Picture, "Life Begins At 40"

Picture-lovers who find Will Rogers' brand of humor irresistible—and this includes the entire screen public—are delighted with the news that his latest picture, "Life Begins At 40," coming next Tuesday and Wednesday to the Broadway Theatre, is crammed with fun.

Advance reports label this Fox Film, suggested by the Walter B. Pitkin book hit, a bang-up laugh riot. Critics say it easily eclipses previous Rogers' favorites, "Judge Priest," "David Harum," and "The County Chairman."

Rogers portrays a double-fisted, tender-hearted country editor who proves that the years after forty are the best and goes in quest of the fun-tain of youth. He launches a series of situations that smash the funny bone to smithereens.

"Life Begins At 40," relates the romance of a young school teacher and a youth "railroaded" to prison. The shrewd editor brings to light facts that clear the boy, and stirs up a hornet's nest of fun in the process.

Calls The Hogs Among the high spots in the picture are Will's efforts at hog-calling, and his pistol duel which he wins through wisecracking.

America's ace humorist uncorks a brand new vintage of laughs, from reliable accounts.

The supporting cast includes Rochelle Hudson and Richard Cromwell in the romantic leads, George Barbier, Jane Darwell, Slim Summerville, Sterling Holloway, Thomas Beck, Roger Imhof, Charles Selton, John Bradford, and Ruth Gellert.

TAPLINS MARRIED
HALF A CENTURY

Riverton Couple Receive Many Flowers and Messages of Congratulation

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Taplin, of 407 Cinnaminson street, Riverton, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary April 22. They were married in Maywood, N. J., April 22, 1885.

Mr. Taplin was born in England, but came to the United States with his parents while still a small boy, and for more than sixty years has been connected with the florist business in various capacities, beginning at the bottom of the ladder.

For about twenty years he has been one of the executive force at the Riverton nursery of Henry A. Dreer, Inc., and enjoys a considerable acquaintance with members of the florist trade in various parts of the country.

Mrs. Taplin, whose maiden name was Anna E. Voorhis, came from Northern New Jersey and was of the old Dutch family of that name, a family that goes back for several generations in Northern New Jersey and Southern New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Taplin have two daughters, one of whom is Mrs. G. V. S. Ryerson, of Brooklyn, who visited her parents on their anniversary, and a second daughter, Mrs. W. F. Ryerson, who died about seventeen years ago.

There are three grandchildren who are a joy to the family: Garrett V. S. Ryerson, Jr., who graduated from Cornell last June; Miss Ruth Ryerson, who will graduate from Cornell this June, and William F. Ryerson, 3rd who is a student in high school.

The anniversary of the wedding was spent quietly, and the many congratulatory messages and quantities of beautiful flowers were all greatly enjoyed and much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Taplin have both been members of Calvary Presbyterian Church for many years, and have lived in Riverton for two decades.

FETED BY FRIENDS

Employees of Public Service Give Dinner in Celebration of 25 Years of Service

On Wednesday evening of this week the employees of Public Service gave William Albert Major, Jr., of 200 Westminister avenue, Merchantville, a dinner at the Walt Whitman Hotel in celebration of his twenty-five years of service with that company.

Mr. Major started in Riverton in 1910 in the Riverton office. Later he went to Burlington, following which he was made traveling auditor; several years later he was promoted as assistant agent in Camden and then to agent in the same office, which position he now holds.

Mr. Major was presented with a gold button as a token of the esteem in which he is held.

BANQUET MAY 14

A Mother and Daughter Banquet is being planned by the Girl Scouts of Five Points for Tuesday evening, May 14.

The banquet will be held in the Moravian Church and will be prepared and served by the Willing Workers, a woman's organization of the church.

P.R.R. ANNOUNCES
FARE REDUCTIONS

New Rail Rates Within Four Cents of Present Bus Fare to Phila.

The most important development in the efforts of the transportation committee to provide a good rail service for the riverfront towns comes with the current announcement of drastic fare reductions in the occasional rider class.

The new rates are advertised in this issue and become effective April 28th. The return one-day excursion now selling for 71 cents will sell for 58 cents. This will bring the rail rate to 29 cents as compared with 25 cents by bus, per ride. The 25 trip individual ticket, which was good for one person only now selling for $5.60, has been broadened to make it a family ticket good for three months and will sell for $7.15 or 29 1/2 cents per ride. Any number in the family may ride at one time on this ticket.

The committee feels that these rate adjustments now bring the cost of direct-to-Broad Street station service within the reach of everyone, and it is hoped that more riders will result.

On this table blue glassware was used, and in the center stood a huge birthday

One of Largest Series Matures, Releasing Large Sum
in Community

The practical benefits of a Building and Loan Association could not have been more in evidence than in the past week when the Palmyra Building and Loan Association matured their 37th Series of stock. A number of shareholders received the glad tidings that their homes were completely paid for, when $36,200.00 of mortgages were cancelled. A large number of shareholders who were fortunate to have been members of the Association through the period of financial stress and able to obtain stock loans, were given notice that $14,715.00 of such loans were cancelled. Then there were a vast number of shareholders who received $96,485.00 in actual cash as the result of their thrift.

All of this reflects the careful and conservative management of the Palmyra Building and Loan Association which is considered one of the most outstanding in South Jersey.

The total of $147,400.00, representing mortgage and stock loans cancelled and actual cash payments, was an unusually large sum to be distributed in this vicinity, and a fine contribution towards progress in Palmyra and Riverton.

Not only has the Palmyra Building and Loan Association enjoyed the confidence of their shareholders but their ethics and style of management has received the highest commendation of the State Department of Banking and Insurance and the Federal Home Loan Bank of which it is a member.

The 61st Series of Stock which opened at their March meeting will close on Monday, May 6th, enabling those who have not thus far become members of this series to do so at that time.

The savings in the Association which was made available for the shareholders has aided many over their financial reverses. The co-operation and most careful consideration given its members whatever their status in the Association has been, has been recognized and has manifested itself in the number of subscriptions thus far taken in the 61st series.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR ALUMNI DANCE

Johnny Brown's Great White Fleet Orchestra Will Supply Rhythm

The dance committees of the Burlington and Palmyra Alumni Associations have completed arrangements for the annual dance to be held May 25th. Johnny Brown and his Great White Fleet orchestra, who have just completed a long contract at the "Rafers," have been engaged to produce the music. Anyone familiar with this orchestra, and we are sure most of you are, realizes that they can really produce music of the best kind.

The Log Cabin Lodge, at Medford Lakes has again been engaged.

Dancing will be from nine to one, or two or maybe three o'clock, and of the best. The tickets are only two dollars per couple you may get one from any member of the undergraduate body of the high school or from a member of the Alumni executive committee. Or if you wish you may obtain your tickets at the door.

MOVIE BENEFIT

A movie benefit for the Burlington County Hospital is being held at the Criterion Theatre, Moorestown, Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3. The picture playing at that time is Leslie Howard in "The Scarlet Pimpernel."

A special matinee will be on Thursday at 2 o'clock and Friday at 3.30. Tickets, adults 25c, children 10c. Those wishing tickets may procure them from Mrs. Harry L. Rogers, Riverton.

MISS HOPE BROOME BRIDE OF RECTOR

Wedding at Christ Church, Riverton, Monday Morning. Ceremony By Bishop Knight

Miss Hope Broome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broome, of Litchfield, Pa., became the bride of the Rev. Francis B. Downs, at Christ Church, Riverton Monday, April 22 at 10.30 a. m. The Rt. Rev. Albion Knight, Bishop Coadjutor of New Jersey, performed the ceremony. G. Lincoln Ridley, organist at Christ Church, played the wedding march, and accompanied the choir. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a long train and a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas, lilies of the valley and gardenias.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Rogers, of New York, wore a gown of turquoise blue and carried spring flowers. The ushers were Dr. Harry L. Rogers and Murray C. Boyer, wardens of the church.

The best man was Stuart J. Mackintosh, of West Orange.

A reception was held in the Riverton Country Club after the ceremony, where the couple entertained at a wedding breakfast following which they left for a wedding trip to White Sulphur Springs, Southern Pines, Charleston, South Carolina. Rev. and Mrs. Downs will be at home at the rectory after June 15.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and holds a Phi Beta Kappa Key. She attended Bryn Mawr College, University of Chicago, and Cambridge University, England and is a member of the Woman's College Club and the American Association of University Women.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia Divinity School. He is a member of the Philomathean Society, the Delta Sigma Rho Fraternity, the Penn Athletic Club, Riverton Country Club and Riverton Yacht Club.

Pancoast, chairman, ticket committee; Mrs. Alexander Wood, chairman, cafeteria committee; Mrs. Nathan Lane and Mrs. James Davis, chairmen, hot supper committee; Mrs. Stuart Clark, chairman, dance committee; Mrs. Russell Perkins, chairman, amusement committee; Mrs. Edgar Scott, chairman, candy committee; Miss Helen E. Woolman and Mrs. Bishpan Stokes, cake and pantry table; Mrs. C. S. Summerville and Mrs. Joseph Tyler, cold drinks table; Mrs. Joseph T. Evans, Cinnaminson table.

SPENCER HAINES NAMED RECEIVER

Succeeds Cowperthwaite in Maple Shade and Hillman in Mount Holly

Spencer L. Haines, district clerk of the Riverton Board of Education, has been named receiver for two banks, namely the Maple Shade National Bank and the Mt. Holly National Bank. This announcement was made by the comptroller of the currency in Washington, Monday of this week.

Mr. Haines succeeds William D. Cowperthwaite, now Medford postmaster, as receiver for the Maple Shade bank, and will succeed George M. Hillman, Sr., as receiver for the Mount Holly institution.

ARTISTS EXHIBIT AT MOORESTOWN

Exhibitors From Southern New Jersey and Philadelphia at Community House

An exhibition of the work of well-known artists from Southern New Jersey and Philadelphia will be held in the Community House at Moorestown, from April 27th to the afternoon of May 2nd inclusive. This exhibition will be open to the public, admission free from 4 to 6 and from 8 to 10 in the evening, Sunday excluded. The private view, a reception to the artists, will take place on the evening of April 26th. Mrs. William Stroud, of Moorestown, will assist as hostess.

This project is being sponsored by the Art League of Southern New Jersey, a group primarily of art teachers and supervisors from that district. The association's purpose is that of the members own professional improvement along with that of mutual service to the artist and the community.

The committee in charge of the exhibit include: Miss Margaret M. Hall, director of art, Camden, past president; Miss Julia E. Strang, Merchantville, president; Miss Gertrude W. Michel, Riverton, secretary; Miss Edna Hyde, Millville, treasurer; Miss Helen Wallace, Moorestown; Miss Catherine W. Klepper, Philadelphia; Mrs. Helen Umrath, Wenonah and Mrs. Marion Smith, Oaklyn.

The artists exhibiting are John J. McCarthy, John Dull, Wilmer Richter, John Geiszel, Fred Wagner, Mrs. Sue Mae Gill, Yarnall Abbott, Mrs. Fern I. Coppedge, Miss Frances Lichter, Miss Frances Tipton Hunter, Walter Baum, Miss Katherine Sheldon, Miss Dorothy Van Loan, Earl Kirkbride, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Murray C. Boyer and Claude J. K. Anderson, of Riverton; Miss Alice Doughton, Rodman B. Allen, Miss Blanche Gilpin and Miss Caroline Gilpin, of Moorestown; Francis X. Ferg, Penrose Ferg, Leslie Henderson, of Merchantville; Miss Florence Cannon, of Camden; Clement C. Cassell, Millville; Raymond Bancroft, Miss Eleanor Acker, John Bailey and Miss Mary Sturmer Jones, of Collingswood; Mrs. Hannah Groves, Miss Angeline Cristaldi, Herbert E. Leicht, Luigi Spizziri of Haddonfield.

Inadequate space prevents others who do excellent work from exhibiting. The exhibit will include oils, water colors, pastels, etchings and sculpture.

It's often easier to pop the question than to question the pop.

CINNAMINSON P. T. A.

Candidly admitting that he did not know the answer to the question upon which he was asked to speak, "After High School, What?" Paul Reese Jones, supervisor of the Pemberton schools, gave a thoughtful talk upon this most serious subject. The interesting address was enlivened by touches of humor which kept it from being a discouraging affair and the audience and upper grade children, who sang in the glees.

Mistress Mary...

No need to ask her "how does your garden grow?" She sees to it that it grows abundantly and with beauty. She puts time on her flowers and they show their appreciation in gorgeous fashion.

Long ago she got away from the idea that keeping house necessarily meant spending all her time doing this or that; washing this; cooking that; or doing the other.

Long ago she realized the value of utilizing gas service to save time and effort. She learned the tremendous convenience of water heated automatically by gas; the time-saving, labor-saving and nerve-saving advantages of an automatically controlled oven; the delight and satisfaction of automatic gas refrigeration. [How nice to have the cool, refreshing drink after the hot sun of the garden!]

You, too, can follow your hobby more intensely if you depend upon the never-failing automatic gas service in your home.

PRE-SCHOOL CHILD SUMMER ROUND-UP

Schedule of Clinics Published to Aid Parents in Having Child Examined

Educators are constantly laying greater emphasis on the importance of the health of the school child. If the child is well he learns more readily and is better able to adjust himself to his new environment when he enters school.

It is for this reason that for the last five years the Riverton P.T.A. has conducted a Summer Round-Up to check the physical fitness of the children who were to enter school the following fall.

This year the plan is to go one step further and examine all the pre-school children over two years of age so, that the school will have a complete health history of each child.

A further departure is that the doctors in Riverton and Palmyra are cooperating with the school and each one is setting a definite time when his child patients may come to the office for their examination. One of the school nurses will be present to assist. Should a patient prefer using the school doctor or taking a child to a family physician outside of town it is perfectly permissible. The important thing is the health check and the record for the school.

The schedule of the clinic is as follows:

Dr. C. S. Mills, Wednesday, May 1st, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. H. W. Bauer, Thursday, May 2nd, 1 to 2 p.m.
Dr. D. H. LeFavor, Friday, May 3rd, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. H. B. Mark, Monday, May 6th, 10 to 11 a.m.
Dr. H. P. Landis, Jr., Tuesday, May 7th, 1 to 2 p.m.
Dr. H. L. Rogers, Wednesday, May 8th, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. C. F. Voorhis, Thursday, May 9th, 10 to 12 a.m.

New Books at Riverton Library

The following new books are now available at the Riverton Free Library. Carefully selected titles, representative of the best fiction and non-fiction on the publishers' current lists, are regularly added to the Library's shelves. Watch these columns for announcements.

"Memoirs of a Small-Town Surgeon," by John Brooks Wheeler. The story of surgery, rich in anecdote and profound in its understanding of the human elements involved in the world's most thrilling profession.

"Claudius the God," by Robert Graves. A continuation of Mr. Graves' "I, Claudius," but a complete story in itself and a very curious and moving one.

"A Man Called Cervantes," by Bruno Frank. An exciting experiment in fictional biography which brings to life one of the most famous and least-known of literary figures.

"Time Out of Mind," by Rachel Field. An absorbing story of Maine in the days of sailing ships. "The Grass Grows Green," by Hortense Lion. The saga of a Bavarian family's rise from poverty to wealth in the New World.

"Dr. Mallory," by A. L. Hart. The romance of a medical pioneer. "The Lark Legacy," by Alice Hegan Rice. A delightfully ironic comedy by the author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

"Wild Pastures," by Rex Beach. Romance and adventure in the little-known cattle districts of modern Western Florida. "Death in the Air," by Agatha Christie. Another Hercule Poirot mystery.

"The Trail of Fu Manchu," by Sax Rohmer. The brilliant new exploits of the most thrilling villain in fiction.

"Land Spell," by Gladys Hastings Carroll. Mystery on a Maine farm and how it all affects Staphanie. For growing girls.

"The Scoring Play," by Ralph Henry Barbour. A rousing story

THOUSANDS AT SUNRISE SERVICE

Fair Weather Greeted Crowd at South Jersey's Biggest Easter Service

It is estimated that more than 25,000 men, women and children gathered in Lakeview Memorial Park, near Riverton, early Easter morning to witness the third annual Moravian Easter Sunrise Service that began at 5:00 o'clock.

Drives throughout the park were filled with cars, two-deep; for miles on the Burlington pike in either direction cars lined both sides of the road, and thousands of people gathered on the long sloping hillside and the east bank of the lake to enjoy the services.

From a hilly-banked altar in the shadows of the mighty "Singing Tower," the Rev. Albert J. Harke, pastor of the Moravian Church of Palmyra, delivered the Easter Liturgy, prayers and address. Intermittently throughout the service, hundreds in the white surpliced choir raised their melodious voices in songs of Easter origin. The instrumental group added to the impressiveness of the services with trombone and trumpet selections.

The increasing popularity with which each succeeding Sunrise Service is received is evidence of the growing appeal of the largest South Jersey religious demonstration ever held.

Dr. A. P. Lore, Friday, May 10th, 2 to 3 p.m.

Within the next week a visitor from the P.T.A. will call upon parents of pre-school children. Regarding where you plan to send your child to school, it is hoped you will cooperate in this health experiment.

nearby towns hours in advance of the service and walked to the park in order not to miss the spectacle. Beautifully printed programs were given to everyone at the park that the service might be easily followed, and from a microphone at the altar the voice of the Rev. Harke was amplified to every corner of the park.

Police units from Cinnaminson, Riverton, Palmyra, Moorestown and state police barracks directed the long winding lines of traffic that slowly converged upon the scene of the service.

Starting at 4:30 antiphonal music from two units of trombone and trumpet preceded the regular service.

A huge white cross electrically lighted atop the "Singing Tower," served as a beacon to the thousands coming to worship and added an appropriate touch to a beautiful Easter Service.

Following the Sunrise Service an hour of religious music was transmitted from the "Singing Tower" to the slowly disbanding throng.

This great non-sectarian service was sponsored by the Moravian Church of Palmyra in cooperation with Roy A. Ramey, managing director of Lakeview Memorial Park.

Sunday morning.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet on Wednesday, May 1st, at 2:30 p.m. and the Women's Missionary Society on the same day at 3 p.m. Mrs. Clara Sheibley Stradling, from Costa Rica, will speak at the latter meeting. All ladies of the congregation and their friends are cordially invited to attend both of these meetings.

The Midweek Service, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

A Marionette show will be given for the benefit of the Golden Hour in the Church school, Friday evening at 7:45. Tickets 10c.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor
Last Sunday was a big day at Central Baptist Church. From the Sunrise Service until the evening worship at 7:45 great throngs, comprising members and visitors, enjoyed one of the most interesting of Easter celebrations.

The Bible School which convenes at 10 o'clock was attended by 378, an increase of 38 over last Easter's attendance.

On this Sunday at 11:15 a. m. at the morning worship, Pastor Lockett will have as the subject of his sermon "The Position of Jesus." The Junior and Senior choirs will make renditions.

6:45 p. m.—The Senior B. Y. P. U. will be addressed by Mrs. Lockett who has also arranged that the Junior B. Y. P. U. will conduct the meeting.

7:45 p. m.—Evening worship. Subject of the sermon will be "On the Way Rejoicing." Appropriate selections will be offered by the choir.

Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 the Junior B. Y. P. U. will meet, the usual Junior choir rehearsal following.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the regular mid-week prayer service.

Everyone always receives a hearty welcome at Central Baptist Church—the home-like church.

Rev. Harold L. Cresser

Next Sunday falls in National Youth Week, and we are glad to take a share in that special occasion. At the morning service the sermon theme will be "What Does Christ Offer to Youth?"

The evening service will again feature an Open Forum. We are using the last Sunday evening in each month for such informal discussions. We will make this an open night—not suggesting any special topic, but welcoming questions and suggestive thoughts along any line of interest.

This is Missionary Sunday in the Sunday School.

The mid-week Bible study on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Philadelphia conference of the East Pennsylvania Synod will hold their Spring meeting next Monday and Tuesday in Collingdale. The pastor will attend the sessions.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"PROBATION AFTER DEATH" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 28.

The Golden Text is: "God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me" (Psalms 49:15).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live" (John 5:21, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Progress is born of experience. It is the ripening of mortal man, through which the mortal is dropped for the immortal. We know that all will be changed 'in the twinkling of an eye,' when the last trump shall sound; but this last call of wisdom cannot come till mortals have already yielded to each lesser call in the growth of Christian character" (pp. 296, 291).

SPECIAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE AT EPWORTH M. E.

The Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church, Palmyra, will cooperate in the celebration of Youth Week by a special service on Sunday evening. Youth will be in charge of the entire service when the Senior, High School and Intermediate Leagues will attend in a body, together with the Senior Department of the Sunday School.

The subject of the service will be "What Youth Thinks of the Church." Three of the young people will speak on different phases of this theme. Leon Sloan, president of the Senior League, and Lloyd Griscom, together with Miss Patience Northrop of the High School League will speak while Miss Carry Bates, vice president of the Senior League will take charge of the devotional service.

The following Sunday evening the Pastor will speak to the youth of the church on "What the Church Expects of Youth." These two evenings promise to be full of interest for both adults and young people.

Valet (to master): "Sir, your car is at the door."

Master: "Yes, I hear it knocking."—Clipped.

CLEAN UP PAINT UP PLANT

A SECTION OF THE NEW ERA DEVOTED TO A BETTER RIVERTON

PROCLAMATION

TO THE CITIZENS OF RIVERTON:

The "Clean-up, Paint-up and Plant" campaign being publicized in this issue of The New Era has my hearty endorsement. At a time when thousands of communities throughout the United States are dressing up for the summer season, it is highly desirable that Riverton, too, should bend its efforts in the same direction.

Riverton is a town of homes, and the home has been recognized from the beginning of American history to be the inspiration for a lasting liberty and a land of initiative. Let us keep the home on a high pedestal, and may its value as an inspiration to greater heights be kept alive.

During the stress of the existing economic depression many homes have suffered in appearance, and, what is more disturbing, the desire for home ownership has, in some cases, suffered serious setbacks. Sheriff's sales, foreclosures, tax sales and their like have embittered people against the idea of home ownership. Such expressions as "it's cheaper to rent," "I'm through slaving to keep a home," "let the other fellow hold the bag—I'll rent," etc., have crept into conversations with alarming frequency.

Upon those who have been able to keep their homes, the responsibility rests to promote the desire for home ownership. You can best do this by respecting your own home. Keep it clean, well preserved and as modern as your means will permit.

The effect will be contagious, and your example will stimulate others to do likewise.

Your cooperation in this movement may have a far-reaching influence which will not only benefit you but your fellow citizens and the Borough as a whole.

Yours for an attractive Riverton,
H. McI. BIDDLE,
Mayor.

A CANYON HOME From Quaint England

Deucedly charming, quaint, rustic and all that sort of thing, eh what! old chap? No! no! a thousand times no! we haven't gone Oxford on you; it's just this little English cottage having its effect upon us. We do in one of the little closets for that purpose on either side of the entryway. Our first surprise is when we walk down about four steps into the living room. A neat touch! We find ourselves in the center of a large, high ceilinged, studio type of that, you know, when exposed to a delightful example of English architecture, such as this one.

Here is an unusual house—and deceptive too. To look at it, you wouldn't believe there was more than a single room; and when you discover that there are five real rooms and a garage—are you surprised!

Here is an ideal house for a canyon lot in California. You know—the kind that runs along smoothly for a while and then drops, unexpectedly, into several feet or more of pure, unadulterated space. For it's a home of different levels, with a large portion of it below the entrance or grade level. Let's go in. For descriptive purposes, let's assume it is raining so we may park our umbrella, slickers and rubbers thing within reach, and no unnecessary steps required here. Built-in cabinets, work table, sink, and space for refrigerator, all on one side. The stove is on the opposite wall.

Through a convenient door, we go down three steps into the motor-room. Here we find the family car, a heating unit, fuel room, several storage closets, and space for laundry trays. What more could a full-sized basement do? And think of the money you save with this one.

Placing our stamp of approval on this much of the house, we retrace our steps to the front entrance way, and, after a quick peek to see whether our wraps are still there, mount the stairs to the second floor. From the balcony, we look down, through the maze of trusses, beams, etc., to the living room. It still looks good to us.

Besides the balcony, there are two bedrooms and a bath up here; bedrooms with plenty of windows, closets and wall space. Because we're the "nosey" type, we poke around and discover unexpected closets containing linen, wearing apparel, and objects that just should be kept out of sight.

We decide that the British were right, and that everything considered, it is a charming little home. We wish we had it.

It is impossible to estimate the cost, accurately, without complete working drawings. We suggest that you send $1 to the Home Features Service at 84 Mobile ave., N. E., Atlanta, Ga., for the blueprints; and have a reliable contractor give you an accurate estimate of the cost.

Gay Nineties Become Up-to-Date

This house that looks as though Tom Sawyer might have lived in it can be changed at a very low cost into a handsome residence as the architect's sketch proves. Mr. Yerkes of J. S. Collins and Son, Inc., reports that a number of exterior jobs have been done by his concern since the beginning of spring.

Here by changing the front porch, giving the roof more modern lines and making the unused second floor livable by cutting in several windows the whole tone of the house has been altered. Over the old roof Johns-Manville asbestos shingles have been applied, giving the owner a handsome roof and also providing year-round protection against fire and weather. The new J-M cedar grain siding shingles, matching the roof have been applied over the walls, putting an end to maintenance paint costs. These cedar grain shingles are fashioned from wood patterns and look like fine old colonial shingles mellow with age. At the same time, being asbestos, they are durable and fireproof.

Simple touches like shutters at the window, a colonial front door, and a carefully trimmed hedge in front of the house complete the transformation.

SIDING SHINGLES USED THIS YEAR

Local Firm Describes Uses
For Asbestos Shingles
Over Old

A popular trend this spring in home improvement is the use of siding shingles, according to Edward Yerkes of J. S. Collins & Son, Inc., local J-M dealer. Besides reducing maintenance costs to a minimum and eliminating all paint upkeep, siding shingles are applied right over the old surfaces, keeping the house warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

Johns-Manville manufacturers a wide variety of both the fireproof, permanent asbestos siding and the colorful asphalt siding shingles, which come in designs and colors that will match any style of roof. J-M has developed a new feature in siding shingles, cedar grain asbestos shingles. They have all the beauty of texture found in weathered wood shingles mellowed by time, yet they have the fireproof qualities and durability of stone. The irregular butt lines assist in obtaining the desirable colonial effect, while the color is a distinctive shade of gray which does not change except to become richer with age.

Another siding that has been widely used during the past year is the asphalt brick-type siding. This is also applied right over the old surface giving you a double thickness and it looks almost exactly like real brick.

Everyone likes plants and flowers some where in the house. Select a sunny window and mount on brackets several glass shelves cut to measure. Space the shelves far enough apart to allow for growing plants. This makes an ideal resting place for decorative plants and flowers in their gayly colored pots and vases.

Waste Space Made Useful

An attic study or guest room like this can be made from your unused attic and paid for while you enjoy it with the aid of the National Housing Act. Mr. Yerkes of J. S. Collins and Son, Inc., Riverton, will gladly furnish the details.

REDWOOD IS IDEAL FOR LAWN PIECES

From the humid and foggy north coast of California comes the Redwood, that magnificent giant of the forest. Huge and rugged in stature, they have been known to grow to 375 feet in height and as large as twenty-five feet in diameter. The ring count shows many of them to be over 2000 years old. These are the trees travel minded friends send back on postcards showing a road cut through them.

This redwood lumber comes from a comparatively small area, a timbered region of approximately one million acres. Here are found the oldest and largest living things on the face of the globe today. This section, approximately ten to twenty five miles in width and three hundred miles in length, contains the heaviest store of valuable timber per acre in the world.

Commercially known as California redwood, it is ideal for outdoor use. Nature has supplied it with a tannic acid which makes the "heart" wood practically impervious to decay. The heart wood is easily distinguished by its reddish brown color, while the "sapwood" is almost white. In all woods, the sapwood is least desirable, but in many other species it is almost impossible to distinguish it from the "heart" wood.

Because nature has endowed this wood with such lasting qualities, it is ideal for outdoor use. Subjected to constant moisture and dampness, it does not decay and still retains its strength and solid fiber. In selecting outdoor furniture window boxes, plant stakes, or other items for outdoor use, much care should be used in the kind of wood chosen.

There are so many interesting possibilities in lawn furniture—so much that it can add in pleasure and enjoyment of a home during the summer months. Put on some window boxes and shutters, they'll add much to the attractiveness of your home. Get a comfortable lawn chair for that cool, shady spot under the big tree in the back yard. It will return its small cost many times over in pleasure and enjoyment.

INSULATE FOR A COOL HOME

Joseph Yearly Tells of the Value of Insulating Board in Homes

When it's too hot to talk—too hot to think—thousands of families sit around every evening waiting for summer to end—or praying for rain, says Joseph F. Yearly, of the Joseph T. Evans building material firm.

It isn't necessary to swelter in houses which soak up heat all day. You can't sleep in those uncomfortably stuffy bedrooms, and you ought to do something about it.

There is a way—even when the weather-man says, "No relief in sight!" You can't stop the sun and you can't adjust the temperature, but you can keep your house from absorbing all the heat that comes its way.

Insulation retards the flow of heat into buildings, thereby keeping the whole house cooler and more comfortable. Upper floor rooms are less likely to be hot and stuffy.

Insulation gives more than summer comfort—it works all the year. In winter there is a real saving of fuel, as much as 30% in many cases. With extreme outside weather conditions, insulation makes it possible to maintain even temperature inside the house—reduces annoying drafts and adds to health and comfort.

Cane fibre insulation has been used in approximately 400,000 American homes, as well as in many thousands of commercial and industrial buildings all over the world. It is also standard insulation in many modern motor cars, refrigerator cabinets, and railway cars.

In homes already built, insulation is used in the attic. That's the important place because heat rises in the winter and the sun's rays beat down on the roof in summer. So you can benefit from insulation by lining your attic—or by building an extra room there. You may use it for sheathing new buildings. Insulating lath comes in special size units which reduce plaster cracks to a minimum.

EARLY DIAGNOSIS
CAMPAIGN NOW ONBurlington County Tuberculosis League Emphasizes Value of Early Attention

Burlington County Tuberculosis League is emphasizing, as part of the Early Diagnosis Campaign, all child health activities. The campaign is designed to acquaint the public how to fight tuberculosis and other diseases.

During the month, 689 visits were made to people in Burlington County. Of this number, 347 were to tuberculosis patients and their contacts. Ten patients were sent to sanatorium where they are receiving treatment for tuberculosis.

Of 28 children having Mantoux tests, nine had positive reactions, which denotes the presence of infection. In addition to the clinics, tuberculin testing and X-rays, many children were vaccinated, and immunized for diphtheria.

The League expects to send the usual number of children to the Preventorium for the summer months. Doctors, nurses, social workers, and others interested in health are helping to refer patients for this care.

Information concerning the entrance requirements for children to Preventorium will be gladly given if the executive secretary, Daisy S. Hollinghead, is addressed at Mount Holly, New Jersey.

RUTH ABDILL BRIDE OF JOHN HEUBEL

Bride and Groom Residents of Palmyra, Ceremony at Central Baptist Church

Miss Ruth Elizabeth Abdill became the bride of John Heubel Saturday afternoon at the Central Baptist Church in Palmyra.

Miss Abdill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Abdill, of 809 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, while Mr. Heubel is the son of Edgar A. Heubel, of 500 Delaware avenue, Palmyra.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Lockett, who was assisted by the Rev. Charles R. Howell, of the Academia Presbyterian Church, Academia, Pa., a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Rachel Lord played the wedding march and Mrs. R. H. Guldin sang.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, made on princess lines. Her cap-shaped veil of tulle was held in place by orange blossoms. The veil was bordered with lace. She carried a sheath of bridal roses and baby's breath.

Miss Bessie R. Rogers, of Burlington, was her cousin's maid of honor. She was attired in a model of Eleanor blue mousseline de soie, trimmed with organdie ruffles. Her turban was of silver lamé with a nose veil. She carried a bouquet of tea roses and blue delphinium.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles R. Howell, of Academia, and Mrs. Edward N. Hoyt, of Trenton, formerly of Palmyra. They were gowned in peach mousseline de soie with organdie ruffles. Their turbans were also of silver lamé with nose veils and they carried tea roses and blue delphinium.

The flower girl, Mary Jane Abdill, a niece of the bride, wore a gown of organdie in a pastel shade of green. She carried a basket of yellow sweet peas and daisies.

William H. Heubel, of Palmyra, was his brother's best man, and the ushers included Lieut. Everett W. Abdill, of Philadelphia, brother of the bride, Warren B. McLaughlin, of Riverton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Edward N. Hoyt, of Trenton. Mrs. Abdill wore a gown of flowered chiffon in blue and a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

Mike Murmurs

By William Cooper, Jr.

Well the Skipper and his merry crew seem to at last have gotten themselves a spot on the air where they can broadcast and not be bothered by the police. If you happened to glance at the radio time table you will notice that the S.S. FUN FOR ALL is now airing over WC-AM two nights each week while also doing three afternoon spots over the same station. This show is not the same since some of the crew left, but maybe in time they will all be back at the mike with the Skipper.

A new method of auditions will soon be practiced at WTEL. With the return of Jack Wiggins and his dancin' to the WTEL airwaves the future (?) announcers will be invited to announce one of these popular programs. At the end of a certain period the listeners will be asked to write in and select the announcer which they like best, with the result that the person selected will receive a regular berth at this station. This new stunt is also being tried on balladists.

With the opening of the summer parks WDAS is prepared to bring to its listeners several air shows directly from Woodside Park. These shows are the ever-popular Kiddies program which will be heard every Sunday at 2 p.m., and the Woodside

Park Minstrels which will be aired every Wednesday evening at 9:00

A new feature of WIP which has risen to the forefront in early morning musicals is that show titled "Open House with Ted Hale." Ted Hale, staff pianist at WIP, offers for your approval a program of piano melodies interwoven with a vocal chorus or two. This show is pleasing to the musical senses and many of the folks who are home at that hour will always remember to tune in this delightful 10-minute musical program.

HERE AND THERE: WFIL has again moved its studios back into the Strawbridge and Clothier Store . . . Two of Boake Carter's news shows were aired from his bed in the Jefferson Hospital with Boake pulling the sheets over his head to deaden the sound . . . Leslie Marshall, new WIP announcer, tried to open a door at the New Gimbel studios, with his shoulder, with the result that another pane of glass went to the so-called "dogs" . . . Betty Ray, WFIL warbler, has been signed for one year . . . Warwick Sisters leaving WCAU to do an engagement at Atlantic City . . . Vincent Travers and his orchestra entertaining the visitors at the G. M. Auto Show on Steel Pier.

Many a Wednesday nite the radio audience will sit with their ears glued to the loudspeaker drinking in the enchanting strains of the popular dance music as interpreted by Ray Noble and his orchestra. But little do they realize that Noble had to come to the United States to gain radio fame. I know you do not believe this but it is a positive fact that Ray Noble and his orchestra only broadcast for two minutes in their native England. And, incidentally, Noble did not bring his original band with him to the United States but organized an entirely new outfit after he arrived. His American orchestra is composed of many of Joe Haymes musicians. There's one for Ripley.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of all the white discharged C. C. C. men for organization purposes in the office of the Palmyra-Riverton Y.M.C.A., Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The meeting will open promptly at eight.

If you are one of these men, your attendance is urgently requested.

NEW JERSEY BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

50 Years Ago

When the Bell System was started fifty years ago this year the first "long distance" line between New York and Philadelphia had not been built. Today almost the whole world is your neighbor by telephone.

The pioneers sought to enable anyone to talk with anyone else regardless of intervening distance as easily as when face to face. The plan of organization created to work toward this goal is the same today as in 1885:

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, headquarters organization, responsible for plans, policies and financial matters for the entire system.

Regional companies, such as the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, operating local systems.

Long Lines, operated by the headquarters company, interconnecting local systems to provide long distance service.

Bell Laboratories, carrying on research and developing better equipment for all Bell companies.

Western Electric Company, building uniform high-grade equipment and purchasing supplies for the entire Bell System.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Western Electric, and the Laboratories do for the System everything that can be done best when centralized. The regional telephone companies concentrate on giving service in their own areas.

This plan without duplication of effort or expense has developed in a comparatively few years an almost universal telephone service for the use of the American people.

YMCA BRIEFS

Most of the 200 men who are enlisted in the annual County YMCA budget canvass organization will be working this week. Special area get-together meetings have been held in Mount Holly, Burlington, Bordentown, Medford, Moorestown, Riverside and Columbus.

Frank W. Thatcher, who for nearly 30 years has been treasurer of the County "Y", heads the campaign organization.

Mr. Thatcher reported the success attending the plan proposed at last year's final campaign report meeting, to clean up the accumulated indebtedness of the past four years, stating that out of $3000 needed to do that $2500 has been secured, the remaining $500 underwritten and in fact advanced, and that during the past year no notes had been put in bank.

The present campaign is for the budget for the new year which begins May 1st, and is figured on the same restricted basis that has been in effect since the drastic reduction of two years ago.

Howard G. Taylor Jr., is chairman for the Cinnamonation area. His workers met with men of the Moorestown area at the home of Dr. S. Emlen Stokes, Tuesday evening, April 23rd. Judge Harold B. Wells spoke.

THAT DELICIOUS FLAVOR

An Indian up in the northern part of Michigan returned for the third time to buy half a dozen bottles of cough syrup.

Druggist: "Someone sick at your house?"
Indian: "No sick."
Druggist: "Then what on earth is all this cough syrup for?"
Indian: "Mm—me likum on pan-cakes."

BACK TO NATURE

"How did you receive those injuries?" asked an adjuster of a claimant under an accident policy, who had a badly-battered head.

"My wife hit me with an oak leaf."

"An oak leaf?"

"Yes."
"Where did she get an oak leaf that would inflict such injuries?"

"From the dining-room table."

COMPANY REPORT

Rate of Increase of Phones Falls
Off and Net Earnings Decrease

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company reports a net gain of 2,865 telephones in service during the first quarter of this year, the result of installing during the quarter 28,040 telephones and removing 25,175 from service. The gain is 333 less than that recorded during the first quarter of 1934.

Operating revenues for the first quarter this year were 63,124 less than for the corresponding 1934 period, and operating expenses and taxes were $32,117 greater, making operating earnings for the quarter $95,241 less this year than last.

Net income, during the first quarter of this year, totaled $1,159,605, compared with $1,234,262 for the first quarter of 1934. The quarter's earnings this year amounted to ninety-six cents per share of common stock, compared with $1.03 in the same quarter a year ago. Directors of the company at their last meeting voted a quarterly dividend at the annual rate of $4 per share.

HEARING POSTPONED

The hearing before the New Jersey State Board of Public Utility Commissioners in reference to a reduction in rates charged by the bus line along the riverfront towns, was postponed from Tuesday of this week, April 23 to Tuesday of next week, April 30.

Howard E. Powell, of Palmyra, presented petitions signed by several hundred residents of Palmyra, complaining of the fares, types of buses, etc.

DANCING STARS TALK WITH THEIR FEET

One of the sensational dances in "ROBERTA" is the double tap routine by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, to the "It'll Be Hard To Handle" number. In this dance they literally talk with their feet, tapping out repartee which is easily understood. This scene, in the spectacular film version of the Jerome Kern stage success, is supposed to represent a rehearsal spot by cabaret performers. Irene Dunne is co-starred in this RKO-Radio successor to "The Gay Divorcee," playing at Fox Theatre, Riverside, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 28, 29 and 30.

KNEW HIS PAL

Two expert pickpockets were strolling along the road together. Every now and then one of them would stop, take out his watch and look at it.

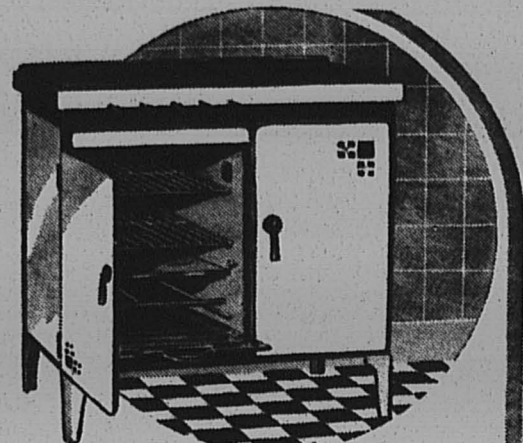

His companion began to get annoyed.

"I say, Jim," he said, "what's up with you? Why d'yer keep looking at your ticker? Ain't it going, or something?"

"I'm not looking at it to see the time," said the other; "I'm looking at it to make sure that it's still there!"—Clipped.

Say not all thou knowest, nor measure all thou seest, if thou wouldst live in peace.

A WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE SILVER SCREEN

COLORFUL HISTORY OF "SCARLET PIMPERNEL"

Novel Was Translated Into 23 Languages; Play Given Over 5,000 Times

To insure absolute historical accuracy in the production of "The Scarlet Pimpernel," in which Leslie Howard and Merle Oberon are currently co-starring at the Broadway Theatre, Alexander Korda engaged John O'Keeffe, son of the Baroness Orczy who wrote the famous best-seller on which the film is based, to act in an advisory capacity.

"The Scarlet Pimpernel" was originally written in 1903 as a tale of adventure in Russia for a newspaper serial. At that time the relations between England and Russia were somewhat strained, and the serial was withdrawn after two installments.

Translated Into 23 Languages
The enormous popularity enjoyed by the book can be gathered from the fact that over three and a half million copies were sold in Great Britain alone, and since it has been translated into twenty-three languages, including Chinese, Tamil and Braille, the total sales must necessarily represent a staggering figure. Duplicating its success as a novel, the stage play of the same name was presented over five thousand times.

HOW ABOUT LOVE AT FIRST CRASH?

Love at first, or even twenty-first sight is the ordinary recipe for romance, whether fictional or cinematic.

Love at first crash—two speed cars—is something else again. It is the impetus that starts a merry mix-up of romance and comedy in the new Fox Film picture, "It's a Small World," which starts its engagement next Saturday at the Walt Whitman Theatre.
