HENRY C. CHENEY

Henry C. Cheney, 69, husband of Mayme M. Cheney, of 421 Horace avenue, Palmyra, died Friday, May 1st.

Interment was made in the United States National Cemetery, Philadelphia.

FIRE DESTROYS TENANT HOUSE

Last Friday morning, May 1, at 3 o'clock a fire of undetermined origin broke out in one of the tenant houses on the farm of Mrs. Benjamin Lippincott, on Burlington Pike. Mr. and Mrs. Oral Berry, occupying the house, were rescued by neighbors who placed a ladder against the side of the house after hearing a cry for help.

The house was completely destroyed and the damage is estimated at $3,000.

Some difficulty was experienced in fighting the fire as 2500 feet of hose had to be laid from the fire plug on the Moorestown-Riverton road through the wooded section to the burning house.

The two-hundred-gallon booster tank on the new Parry fire truck proved to be a great help in checking the fire from spreading to the houses on either side of the conflagration. When the Parry Company arrived the neighbors were endeavoring to keep the flames in check by a bucket brigade.

LINCOLN-ZEPHYR NOW AT FORTNUM'S

Local Firm Appointed Dealer
For Snappy New Middle Priced Automobile

William J. Kraus, manager for Lester S. Fortnum, Ford dealer at 125 West Broad street, Palmyra, announces this week their appointment as the Lincoln-Zephyr dealers for this vicinity.

This sensational car now on display in their showroom is available for demonstration purposes and is the new standard value in the medium price field.

The car embodies the economical resources of the Ford Motor Company and was created by pooling the engineering experience of both the Ford and Lincoln motor companies.

The car is striking in appearance and carries principles of aerodynamic design to a refreshing, logical conclusion.

The stream-lined sweep is not only from end to end but from side to side, yet the grace of its lines means very much more than the expression of a style trend.

It reflects new principles of design and construction. The whole chassis constitutes a radical departure from the old-style frame and embodies the principle of suspension bridge construction.

The car is beautifully appointed and offers a comfortable and roomy interior seating arrangement.

The twelve-cylinder V-type engine develops 110 horse power. The wheel base is 133 inches.

The Lincoln-Zephyr is a practical, economical car and Lester S. Fortnum cordially invites your careful and critical inspection both in the showroom and behind the wheel.

There is much about it to arouse your deep interest.

MOORESTOWN CLUB BACKS NEWCOMB

Assemblyman From Bergen Co.
Tells of Newcomb's Stand
As Speaker of House

Six hundred people crowded the main auditorium of the Moorestown Community House last Thursday night to pay tribute to Marcus W. Newcomb, Speaker of the House, candidate for State Senator, at a dinner given in his honor by the Young Republican Clean Government group of Moorestown.

Frank C. Osmer, Jr., assemblyman from Bergen county, was the guest speaker of the evening. Mr. Osmer said that when he heard of Dr. Newcomb's candidacy he was happy to volunteer to come to Burlington county and speak in behalf of the much respected speaker of the house, believing that sometimes a word from someone outside of the county who has worked in close cooperation with Dr. Newcomb would cast a new light on the accomplishments of the candidate.

Dr. Newcomb Respected

He stated that Bergen county was one of the counties instrumental in electing Dr. Newcomb speaker of the house. He assured the voters of this county that Dr. Newcomb has the respect of the assemblymen of the entire state. He has always placed duty and principles above selfish interests and personal gain.

The speaker was high in his praise of the manner in which Dr. Newcomb handled the delegation from the Workers' Alliance which camped in the assembly chambers. Mr. Osmer stated that had the situation been handled differently from the beginning it might easily have resulted in a tragedy. As it was, the doctor attached no particular significance to their showmanship and permitted it to run its course and finally die out.

Sanatorium Leads

Assemblyman Osmer spoke of the sanatorium situation and assured the people of Burlington county that the head of the Bergen county sanatorium told him that they would take their hats off to but one such institution, and that was Dr. Newcomb's Fairview sanatorium. He closed his remarks expressing the hope that the citizens of Burlington county would elect Dr. Newcomb to the senate with a "thumping" majority.

Dr. Newcomb in his address spoke

MRS. H. McILVAIN BIDDLE

Mrs. H. McIlvain Biddle, wife of Mayor Biddle of Riverton, died Sunday, May 3.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 6, at 2 o'clock from her late residence, 201 Bank avenue; interment private.

Mrs. Biddle was a member of the Riverton Porch Club and chairman of the garden department.

She was largely responsible for the improvements and enlargements to the Porch Club building.

Last winter a forum was held at the home of Mrs. Biddle on topics of the day. These meetings were very interesting and well attended.

Mrs. Biddle was also a member of the shade tree commission for two terms. All the meetings of the committee were held at her home, and she was indefatigable in her work for the preservation and care of the trees of the borough.

Mrs. Biddle was an accredited judge of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and a great lover of and authority on flowers, and her passing will be an irreparable loss to the community.

APPOINTMENTS BY RIVERTON BOARD

Committees for New School Year Named; Three Reports at Meeting

The following committees were appointed for the school year 1936-37 at the regular meeting of the Riverton Board of Education Monday evening of this week: property committee, Everett O. Wolcott, chairman, H. L. Unland and Walter K. Woolman.

Education committee: Mrs. Grace M. Yost, chairman; John L. Werner and Everett O. Wolcott.

Supply committee: Hilton M. Smith, chairman; Mrs. Grace M. Yost, Karl W. Latch.

Finance committee: Walter K. Woolman, chairman; Harry E. Moyer and Hilton M. Smith.

The president of the board is Mrs. Marion Elwell; vice president, Walter K. Woolman and district clerk, William H. Bottger.

A motion was made to advertise for bids for one hundred tons white ash anthracite, buckwheat size, analysis to be supplied with the bid. The bids will be opened at the June first meeting.

"Please Keep Off"

Mr. Wolcott called attention to the fact that people were cutting across the school ground and that already one corner of the grass plot had been tracked down. After the portable school has been removed, Mr. Wolcott said, there will be more traffic. He suggested that some sort of shrubbery be planted from the school building across the lot to the sidewalk as a reminder that the school ground is not a thoroughfare.

The property committee was given authority as renting agents for the school for various occasions.

The district clerk was instructed to write the American Heating and Ventilating Company requesting that they put the guard on the ventilating fan immediately. This request has been made several times before.

A set of instructions prepared by the property committee for janitors on nights when the school is rented was unanimously adopted.

A motion was made and passed that the floors in the library and office be refinished twice a year, Christmas vacation and summer vacation.

Mr. Wolcott, as chairman of the property committee, reported that he and other members of the committee had checked over the exterior and interior of the old school building, and that with some work done by the janitors and painters during the summer the property would be put in good condition.

Teacher Recommendations

The education committee recommended that Miss Florence L. Darnell, of Merchantville, be employed to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Julia Haines' resignation as domestic science teacher and Miss Edna Woolman, of Burlington, fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Marion L. Pennington as music teacher. Both recommendations were passed.

Miss Darnell will graduate this

RIVERTON TEAM OPENS SATURDAY

Opponents Will Be Strong East Phillies of the Quaker City League

The 1936 edition of the Riverton Baseball Club will be on display for the first time this Saturday at Memorial Park. The opposition will be the strong East Phillies of the Quaker City League.

Under the able tutelage of Benny Edge the team has completed its most arduous pre-season training in the history of the club. The promising aspirants have been busily engaged in hitting and fielding practice every week night and Saturdays and Sundays for the past three weeks, and consequently should be at fighting edge for the first game.

Due to college schedules overlapping the local schedule, some of the more familiar faces cannot meet the opening gun; however, there are enough seasoned veterans and new men available to do ample justice to the first game.

Manager Edge has not revealed the starting lineup but the probable starters should be somewhat as follows: Buster Harper or Jimmy Wolf behind the mask; the flinging assignment will probably go to that "ole reliable boss" Clay Weikman, with Leon Coles, Shreve Nelson, and Lefty Burns in reserve. Art Terrell and Bob Bartley, who appear in the lineup as regulars, will probably be such capable men as El Branson, Speed Botter, and Shreve Nelson. Two regulars, Art Terrell and Bob Bartley, will appear in the lineup as regulars, will probably be such capable men as El Branson, Speed Botter, and Shreve Nelson. Two regulars, Art Terrell and Bob Bartley, will appear in the lineup as regulars, will probably be such capable men as El Branson, Speed Botter, and Shreve Nelson.

The team will open up on the recently renovated Memorial Park diamond. The infield has been done over with a new attire of loam which should produce faster and more brilliant infield defense.

The team solicits the same generous support from the local citizenry that it has had in the past. We welcome everyone to Memorial Park next Saturday to witness the best baseball team Riverton has ever produced.

PORCH CLUB NOTES

The annual meeting of the Riverton Porch Club will be held on May 12th at 11 a.m.

There will be installation of officers, annual reports and reports from the general convention.

All club members are invited to be guests of the club for the luncheon. Luncheon reservations should be made to Mrs. S. Reid Merley, Riverton 362, before noon Saturday.

RIVERTON GIRL NAMED COLLEGE DORMITORY HEAD

A Riverton girl, Miss Elizabeth Mayfield, has been named chairman of her college dormitory at New Jersey College for Women. Miss Mayfield, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mayfield, of 611 Fourth street, is a member of the junior class at the college and will be head of her dormitory next year, when she is a senior.

A cottage system at N.J.C. makes it possible for students to live in small groups, and to change their living groups each year. These dormitories make up Douglass, Gibbons and Jameson campuses. Miss Leah Boddie, dean of students, has just selected 42 members of the class of 1937 as house chairmen, of which Miss Mayfield is one.

Miss Mayfield is a graduate of George School, Pa. At New Jersey College for Women she is a member of the college choir and of the staff of Campus News, undergraduate newspaper. She is also a member of Delta Mu, honorary musical society.

NO COURSES FOR C-S EXAMINATIONS

Civil Service Commission Warns Against "Schools for Civil Service Courses"

The United States Civil Service Commission has sent a notice to post offices, warning that misleading information is being given the public by representatives of some of the correspondence schools which sell "civil service" courses.

For a long time, the Commission has been receiving complaints from different parts of the country which indicate that opportunities for obtaining Federal employment have been greatly exaggerated.

It was made clear that no school has any connection whatever with the Civil Service Commission or with any other branch of the Government, and also that the Commission has no agents who solicit applications for civil service positions or who sell "civil service" courses.

No school can "guarantee" Government employment and none is given information regarding examinations, or any other information, which is not available to the general public. The Commission stated that it does not recommend any school, and explained that it is not necessary for anyone to take a course with a so-called civil service school in order to compete in a civil service examination.

A special point was made of the fact that information concerning examinations may be obtained at any time, without cost, from the Secretary of the Civil Service Board at

MANY FEATURES FOR YOUTH AT HOME FETE

Special attention is being paid this year to entertainment for the young folks at the annual fete to be held at the Moorestown Field Club on May 23 for benefit of the Cinnamon Home.

Mrs. E. Russell Perkins with her assistants, Mrs. James Davis and Miss Kathleen Curtis, are putting a great deal of time and thought into the games that the youngsters may enjoy while their elders are enthusiastically cheering the tennis players.

Young Bobby Hathaway has charge of the "movies," and is showing several reels. Some are especially planned for the children during the matches. After that there will be diversion provided by this committee for both young and old.

A cafeteria supper is to be served on the lawn of the Club House. Miss Helen Woolman is chairman of this committee, assisted by:

Riverton: Mrs. Harry L. Rogers, Mrs. J. Carl De La Cour, Mrs. Nathan Lane, Jr., Mrs. Richard D. Barclay.

Haddonfield: Mrs. F. Morse Archer.

Moorestown: Mrs. M. Albert Linton, Mrs. Maurice W. Wiley, Mrs. Samuel Haines, Mrs. Wm. D. Lipincott.

Cinnaminson: Mrs. Mary L. Thomas.

There will be food to buy and take home.

A dance will be held in the club house in the evening. The committee is planning an original and amusing floor show at intervals during the dance. In charge of these arrangements are the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bensen Clark, chairman; Mrs. R. A. Ronsome, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mr. Winfield Wilson, Mrs. Herbert Kieckhefer, Mr. Leo Warner, Miss Alice Parish, Mr. Richard Graff, Miss Dora Parry, all of Riverton.

What Other Editors Say

NOT ALL MEN CAN BE BOUGHT

Lately, a number of Republicans in the county, some small political workers, others not so active but of large family or social connections, have been given, offered or promised employment by the badly scared young New Deal leaders. Some, without funds or employment, have accepted work on the well understood terms. Others are still hesitating between freedom and political servitude. And still others have coolly declined the proffered jobs.

One citizen, who still carries his head up, but admits he has no money, declining a job offered by a New Deal messenger a few days ago, with the usual strings, replied, "You have not named the salary, but you can take back word that it isn't big enough." It was his way of spurning the New Deal effort to buy him and pay off with the people's money.—New Jersey Mirror.

LINING UP FOR THE FRAY

With the Primary Election only a little more than two weeks distant, the forthcoming Powell-Newcomb contest for Burlington County Senator promises one of the bitterest struggles in the history of county politics. As the campaign enters its final stages the opposing lines are becoming more clearly drawn. It is now apparent that we are facing a clear-cut battle between the political interests of the county, ganged up solidly behind the Powell banner, and the independent, free-thinking citizens, who as a matter of principle, object to one-man machine control and dictatorial government.

On the one side we have the county office and jobholders, almost to a man, together with their families, friends, and the usual crowd of adherents who hope for some personal, material gain. As leaders on the opposite side we find hundreds of Burlington County's foremost men and women—citizens of the highest type, who very clearly have no thought of personal advantage, their only object being the general public welfare and the preservation of the American principles of free government, which they see challenged by the Burlington County political machine. This machine, which has given plenty of evidence of its ruthlessness in dealing with anyone who stands in its way, is so firmly entrenched and has such a stranglehold on almost every branch of the county government that to shake it loose seemed, until recently, an almost impossible task.

Now, however, a leader has appeared in the person of Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb who gives every evidence of being the man destined to break the grip of the political octopus and restore control of the county government to the people. Calm and imperturbable, gentlemanly and dignified in the face of calumnies heaped upon him by his now desperate opponents, Dr. Newcomb stands forth in these troublous times as an inspiration. Small wonder that substantial citizens from all walks of life and from all parts of the county are rallying to his support.

—Beverly Banner.

"OR ELSE"

According to the New Jersey Mirror, this is the kind of thing that is going on under the New Deal set-up which was made in order to "take politics out of the institution."

"Frank Thomas, who has been the farmer at Fairview Sanatorium for a number of years, has been discharged by the New Deal administration. The alleged cause of his dismissal is his loyalty to Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb.

"In the shake-up at the institution after the Board of Managers had taken the superintendency at Fairview away from Dr. Newcomb, who had run this branch of the county's institutional life so admirably, Thomas was at first reengaged by the New Deal committee in charge of the Sanatorium farm, at a salary of $60 per month on a yearly agreement. This was an advance of $5 over what he had been receiving. Later, Dr. Tracy, the new superintendent, is said to have sent for Thomas and said, "You are for Dr. Newcomb and we are going to 'clean house' here. You are through." So, going over the heads of his own New Deal committee, Tracy "fired" Thomas.

"Since then, the Sanatorium farm has been given into the charge of Almshouse Steward Ivins Wright, devout follower of the New Deal. The farm equipment was moved over to the almshouse barns, and the moving included two horses, one of which is said to have been sold to an employee for $20. The purchaser shortly afterward boasted that he had sold the animal for $90.

"Francis Douglass, handy man at the institution, who has been acting as night orderly, was called on the carpet and the question put to him, 'Are you for Powell and Adams?' Douglass hesitated in making answer to a question which had no bearing on his services at the sanatorium. Then he was given a short time to make up his mind on pain of being dismissed if he did not promise to go out and work for the New Dealers. He is still on the job, and some people are assuming that the threat had its effect. Douglass is a man of family and dependent upon his job for their support.

There are other interesting stories about the new regime at Fairview which will be coming out in due time, it is said."

TAXES

Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax the dog and tax his howl,
Tax his hen and tax her egg,
Let the bloomin' mudmill beg,
Tax his pig and tax his squeal,
Tax his boots, run down at heel;
Tax his plow and tax his clothes,
Tax his axe and tax his saw,
Tax his house and tax his bed,
Tax the bald spot on his head;
Tax his ox and tax his ass,
Tax his auto, tax his gas;
Tax the road that he must pass
And make him travel o'er the grass;
Tax his cow and tax his calf,
Tax him if he dares to laugh;
He is but a common man,
So tax the cuss just all you can.
Tax the farmer, but be discreet,
Tax him for walking on the street,
Tax his bread, tax his meat,
Tax the shoes clear off his feet,
Tax the payroll, tax the sale,
Tax the road that he must hale;
Tax his pipe and tax his smoke,
Tax the coffin, tax the shroud,
Tax the souls beyond the clouds,
Tax the tax, tax the shroud,
Tax the incomes, tax the stocks;
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed,
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight, if you dare,
Tax them all and tax them well—
And do your best to make life hell.

"PLANNED ECONOMY"

What does "planned economy" mean? Under the heading of "Scientific Communist Planning," the Saturday Review, London, gives some prevailing food prices in Russia (in their equivalents in American cash): Bread, 40 cents per loaf; butter, $2 per pound; coffee, $4 per pound; sugar, $5 cents per pound; cigarettes, $1 per pack of 20.

MAY APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Heirs of the Late John T. Dorrance Still Fighting N. J. Inheritance Tax

A transfer inheritance tax of $12,247,333 upon the estate of Dr. John T. Dorrance, Campbell soup manufacturer, was upheld by the State Court of Errors and Appeals.

An appeal to the United States Supreme Court is considered likely. New Jersey assessed the estate, appraised at more than $115,000,000, in 1932 a year after Dr. Dorrance died. The state contends he was a resident of Cinnaminson township, Burlington county.

The executors represented by former Attorney General William A. Schneider of Pennsylvania, asserted, however, Dr. Dorrance had built a home and established a permanent residence at Radnor, Pa. It was upon that contention that Pennsylvania imposed an inheritance tax of $17,000,000 which the executors paid.

The Court of Errors sustained a ruling by Vice Ordinary Malcolm G. Buchanan holding Dorrance was a legal resident of New Jersey. After the vice ordinary had handed down his opinion a year ago the executors sought relief in the federal courts but were told that nothing could be done for them as they had not exhausted their rights in the state courts.

New Jersey has long sought the money for emergency relief purposes, and once passed legislation directing the State Tax Commissioner to try to get the executors to compromise the tax. Efforts to do so failed.

Although affirmance of the case was unanimous, Justice Clarence E. Case and Judge Walter L. Hetfield filed an opinion in which they contended the State Tax Commissioner should have deducted from the value of the gross estate, on which the tax was evaluated, the $14,394,968 paid to Pennsylvania.

"There is no suggestion that the payment of that large tax to the State of Pennsylvania was the result of a conspiracy to avoid the payment of taxes in New Jersey," Justice Case said. "The estate fought vigorously to avoid the payment of the Pennsylvania tax. Nevertheless the tax was imposed. The United States Supreme Court refused to intervene."

RIVERTON POLICE NOTES

On Tuesday, April 28, the cars of Mrs. Blanche W. Ehle, of Riverton, and William E. Horish, of Camden, collided at Broad and Main streets, Riverton. Horish was found guilty of careless driving and fined $5 and costs by Recorder Probating. Officer Robinson investigated the case.

Wednesday, April 29, Joseph Sanders, colored, was arrested by Officer Carhart for breaking up and carrying away old gas lamp standards at Ninth and Main streets. At a hearing before Recorder Probating, Sanders received a suspended sentence.

On Friday, May 1, the cars of Roy Williams, of Union Landing road, and Joseph Beitz, of 115 E. Broad street, Palmyra, collided in front of the Riverton post office. According to the police, Williams was attempting to make a left turn without signaling. Beitz, who was coming down Main street, crashed into the rear of Williams' car. At a hearing before Recorder Probating, Williams was fined $5 and costs, on a charge of careless driving. The investigation was made by Chief of Police William Gootee.

Saturday, May 2, Mrs. Marion Schwering, of 305 Broad street, Palmyra, collided with one driven by William J. VanSciver, of 610 Broad street, Beverly, at Fifth and Main streets, Riverton. VanSciver was fined $5 and costs for careless driving by Recorder Probating. The arrest was made by Officer Robinson.

Saturday, May 2, Jacob Rothman, of 565 Carman street, Camden, was fined by Borough Recorder Prob-

Winning Again

Palmyra's baseball team defeated the Moorestown High, 12-9, for its second county loop won on May 1. Diffebaugh regained his old form in checking the rivals' hitting.

Captain Scales led the seventh inning rally, when the Pals went for a total of ten runs. Scales had four hits out of five times at bat. Ed. Morton, Palmyra's catcher, celebrated the day by hitting a home run in the fourth.

Palmyra High won its third County loop game on Tuesday, when they gave Riverside another setback. The score, which was 4-0, shows that Len Baker was pitching in splendid style, only allowing three hits. Theurer and Heimach pitched for Riverside. Shea led the "Pals" attack with a double.

Palmyra lost a few runs when some of the players overvalued second, which seemed slippery to them. Schmidt had a brilliant day, scoring from first on a bunt.

Contest

In a short story writing contest conducted by the Palmyran, the school paper, Ethel Clark won first prize with her story, "This Cruel World."

The second prize was won by Marjorie Koenig for her story, "Telephone Friends."

The judges, Ruth Horner, Ann Sprengle and Nelson Russ, chose the stories for their originality.

Best Amateurs

The final amateur program was held on Wednesday and the following people took part: The seniors were L. Rarig, M. White, and A. Williams. The juniors were represented by E. Kuensell and L. McClaichey. The sophomores were E. Parker, G. Stanford. Freshmen who performed were M. Neal, R. Black and D. Mento.

Tillicum

The high school year book, the "Tillicum," will come out on or about May 25. All the engravings have been turned in to the printer, who has already started the printing.

Last Assembly

The last or Senior Assembly will be held on May 20. The program will be staged by the seniors. Class wills will be read and the class song will be sung.

The theme of this year's Tillicum, "Fairy Stories," will be taken as the theme of the final program.

August A. Hoffman, of Branch Pike, Cinnaminson township, hit a dog at Ninth and Main streets, Riverton, belonging to Mrs. G. E. Krusen, of Shrewsbury Yard. Hoffman reported the accident to the police and Mrs. Krusen took care of the dog. Hoffman was exonerated of blame by William Walton, who was an eye witness to the affair. The case was investigated by Chief of Police William Gootee.

body of our citizens, we would appreciate the favor of a prompt reply.
Very truly yours,
(Signed) Joseph Stokes,
Hon. Chairman.

May 1, 1936.

To the Board of Chosen
Freeholders of Burlington County
Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County held last evening a resolution was passed unanimously requesting information as to what action is being taken by your Board to assist in clearing up the complicated situation caused by the action of certain officers in our County in the Wendel case.

We realize that you do not legally have the direct responsibility in this matter, but as the governing body of our County you are morally responsible for doing all you can to help to remove this stain from our County.

As this matter is of acute interest to a large body of our citizens we would appreciate a prompt reply.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Joseph Stokes,
Hon. Chairman.

The Board's "Reply"

On receipt of the letter addressed to the Board of Freeholders, that body was called into special session extraordinary on Wednesday to take action on a three-page typewritten "reply" which had previously been prepared in the offices of Senator Clifford R. Powell.

Only the first paragraph of this epistle had any reference to the question asked and the issue was completely side-stepped.

The first paragraph read as follows:
"Dear Dr. Stokes:
"Your letter of May 1 directs our attention to alleged 'complicated situation caused by the action of certain officers of our County in the Wendel case,' and requests a prompt reply. We have therefore met in special session today. As you state in your letter, we do not have any legal responsibility in the matter, but since you have seen fit to publicly demand information as to what we are doing, beg to advise you that we have told the Prosecutor of the Pleas that he will have our full cooperation."

With an evasiveness which is characteristic when they are confronted by questions they cannot answer, they attempted to throw the public off the track, and the balance of the "reply" was a flamboyant harangue defending the New Deal, supporting its candidates and attempting to further besmirch the character of their predecessors, with a particularly vicious attack on Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, who had been president of the Fairview Sanatorium for many years, until he was ousted the first of the year by a board of managers packed by the addition of two new members appointed by the board of freeholders under the leadership of Palmer L.
Adams, director of the board.

Bluff Called

On receipt of this "reply" the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County issued the following open letter to the freeholders and the public:

May 6, 1936.

To the Board of Chosen
Freeholders of Burlington County,
Mount Holly, N. J.
Replying to your letter of even date the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County note with pleasure your statement that you have assured the Prosecutor of your full cooperation in solving the disgrace brought upon our County by the Wendel Case.

"Full cooperation" is an indefinite term and may mean much or may mean little, so we would ask just how much you mean by it; whether you have directed the Prosecutor to make a thorough and complete investigation of the whole matter, including the reported activities of our County Detective, and whether, as far as the law will allow, you have appropriated any money to finance such an investigation.

The campaign document which constitutes the rest of your letter is being fully answered elsewhere. It is foreign to the particular subject on which we desire full information.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Joseph Stokes,
Honorary Chairman.

June from Drexel and Miss Woolman is a graduate of the School of Music, Trenton Teachers' College. The following were re-elected for two days a week during the school year 1936-37: Mrs. G. C. Duer, as art teacher, and H. H. Hutt, as manual training teacher.

The following teachers were re-elected for the school year 1936-37: Leon Sloan, science and seventh and eighth grades; Miss Esther Rothbart, eighth R; Miss Meribah Gardner, third grade; Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal; Miss Harriet L. Parker, kindergarten; Miss L. M. Justice, first grade; Miss E. B. Evald, second grade; Miss H. M. Paulding, fourth grade; Mrs. M. L. Murgatroyd, fifth grade; Mrs. G. M. Williams, sixth grade; Mrs. N. G. Bush, seventh and eighth grades; and Miss Edna M. Clark coach for special classes.

Play Day, May 21

The annual play day will be held May 21 this year at Memorial Park. The rain date is May 22.

The district clerk was instructed to write to the chairman of the police committee asking the cooperation of the police department in helping to keep the school grounds in good condition. New grass and new shrubbery have recently been planted and the public is requested to keep to the sidewalks.

Dr. George W. White was reappointed dental inspector for the school year of 1936-37.

It was decided to raise the tuition to outside of borough pupils from $60 to $75. This is necessitated by the erection of the new building, and it is not in excess of tuition charged by neighboring schools.

In Miss Staman's report she mentioned that four boys had won prizes in an airplane contest recently. The four boys, Tom Mooney, Fred Snyder, Granville Dare and Burke Jay, were given an airplane ride under the personal supervision of David Little, Riverton aviation man, at Central Airport.

Charles S. Rockey and Company were appointed to audit the books of the district clerk as of June 30. Miss Staman's report follows:

The Summer Round-Up for pre-school children is being conducted by the P-T-A. in the same manner as last year and will start next Monday, May 11th.

The school exhibit in connection with parents' night was successful. More than two hundred visitors attended, more than three-fourths of whom had children in the school.

Our play day will be held Thursday, May 21st, and will again be in the form of a simple pageant.

Following modern educational procedure the State department desires that closing exercises in elementary schools be simple and not designated "graduation," as this indicates the end of a student's school life, while all our efforts should be directed toward keeping him in school. While this applies to Riverton less than to districts that have their own high school, or where many children do not enter high school, we shall simplify ours by not having an adult speaker. The exercises will consist of an assembly, more elaborate than the usual one, conducted by the children, and showing various phases of their work.

As a practical demonstration of the manual and fine arts we are attempting permanent scenery for the auditorium stage. Diplomas and copies of the Constitution will be presented to the class, as required by law. Robert Campbell, State Supervisor of Industrial Education visited our shop Thursday, April 23rd, while it was in operation. He commended Mr. Hutt very highly for his construction and organization of equipment as well as for the standard of workmanship for the classes.

I quote from his letter following his visit, "You have a very excellent shop; it is well lighted and of good size. Will you at your first opportunity express to your Board of Education our appreciation for providing this splendid industrial arts shop? It clearly indicates that they are very much interested in this subject."

The 8th Grade held a very successful moving picture show April 21st. By using a silent film booked from the Museum for school use on that date, renting a block of sound films, and obtaining a commercial

WPA SPONSORS DRAMATIC CONTEST

Moorestown Group Wins Place In Tri-County Contest at Palmyra Hi

Demonstrating the dramatic ability in Burlington county, the five contesting groups which took part in the Burlington County Contest last week in Palmyra presented each of the one-act plays in a manner that brought much praise from the judges and the audience and occasioned two very entertaining evenings.

The judges, Mrs. J. E. Nelson, of Pemberton, and Mrs. S. H. Taylor, Jr., of Merchantville, awarded the first honors to the Little Theatre Group of Moorestown in a most creditable production of the play entitled, "James and John." The portrayal of Mrs. Betts by Mrs. E. Sanford, was especially clever and the characters of the two brothers by Charles Wright, Jr., and Dick Jones, were both very well acted.

Edwin R. Sumner, as Mr. Betts, was a very creditable presentation. The trophy, a beautiful silver loving cup, was the gift of the Hon. Clifford R. Powell and Freeholder Palmer L. Adams.

"Singapore Spider," a one-act tragedy filled with dramatic incident, presented by the Bordentown group, was a close second in the contest. Edwin Clark, in the leading role of Jason Haridew, without doubt presented the most clever bit of characterization in the entire contest, and he was ably supported by the whole cast, consisting of Katherine Kline, Edward Hills, Louise Rose and Theresa Busch.

Only one point behind the Bordentown group in the opinion of the judges, the Mount Holly Community players, in "The Bathroom Door," produced a clever bit of acting. The portrayal of the "Old Lady" by Miss Virginia Lawton deserves special mention. The part of the "Prima Donna," which was to have been taken by Miss Helen Folwell, who was taken suddenly ill, was taken by her sister, Miss Marion Folwell. She deserves great credit for the manner in which she arose to the occasion.

Both the Maple Shade group, presenting "Tonight at Eight," and the Moorestown "Bears" and "Sub-Debs," who combined to produce "Tony Meets a Friend," made a very creditable showing. Their cast was composed of "Juniors" who had never before done any dramatic work and they were in competition with actors like the Little Theatre Group who had already produced their play in the Moorestown Community House Celebration and had considerable other previous experience.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Burlington County WPA Band.

film, they had a full length program with an interesting variety of pictures to offer and cleared $17.23 for their treasury.

The winning of the Burlington county contest carries with it the right to compete in the tri-county contest between Burlington, Camden and Mercer counties, which will probably take place in Camden in the near future.

STATEMENT BY M. W. NEWCOMB

Former Head of Fair View Sanatorium Nails False Statements by Enemies

Although I was in charge of Fair View Sanatorium for sixteen years, my honesty and professional integrity were never questioned until I had the temerity to run for nomination for State Senator. For the benefit of my friends who are outraged at the accusations made against me and of others who do not know me so well, I should like to state a few facts.

In 1912, I obtained a charter to conduct a private sanatorium for tuberculosis, the first charter that had ever been granted in the state for that purpose. I owned and ran this sanatorium for ten years, when I sold it to the Deborah Consumptive Relief Society. After selling it, I had so many calls from private patients who wanted to come to Browns Mills that I asked Mr. Walter Stull, who was running a boarding house at the time, if he would consider turning the house into a nursing cottage to take care of my patients. He agreed, and has continued this work up to the present time.

On August 4, 1919, I was elected Superintendent of Fair View Sanatorium. Shortly after that, I solicited other counties to send their patients there. In time, our beds were filled and we began to have a waiting list. This gave me concern both because the patients needed care and because I feared the counties would make other arrangements if we could not take all the patients who applied for admission. I then asked the Nursing Cottage if they would consider taking county patients, when they had vacant beds, at the regular county rate, which was much less than their private rate. After arranging this with them, I asked officials from those counties that sent patients if this would be satisfactory to them, and they replied that they did not care where the patients were placed as long as they were well taken care of. That was the beginning of county patients coming to Browns Mills. It was started to avoid keeping the patients from waiting for an opportunity to begin their cure and to remove them from homes where they were infecting others.

Patients from other counties making application for admission to Fair View Sanatorium or to the nursing cottages are placed upon the request of the officer or nurse in charge of that county, who often telephone or write directly to the Sanatorium, or to the nursing cottage stating the place where he desires the patient to go. I have not transferred any patients from Fair View Sanatorium to any of the Browns Mills nursing cottages. There have been patients who have requested that they be transferred from the nursing cottages to Fair View Sanatorium and when any such request has been made it has invariably been complied with. I have never diverted patients from Fair View nor have I done anything to deprive the county of Burlington from any fees to which it has been entitled.

At times it might appear that there were vacant beds in Fair View when there was none that could be used for the applicant. For instance, there might be vacant beds in the men's ward and a waiting list for the women's ward, or vice versa. We always keep one bed in each ward for Burlington County patients, as we never refuse admission to a patient from our own county. We must also keep beds vacant in the quiet rooms for patients who become too ill for the wards.

I resent exceedingly the implication that I am exploiting the sick. No physician can work as many years as I have with this dreaded disease without being entirely in-

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF RIVERTON P.T.A.

Through the courtesy of the Porch Club the Riverton P.T.A. again held its annual luncheon in the clubhouse on Wednesday, May 6. About 110 members and friends had luncheon at one o'clock and 64 remained for an afternoon of bridge.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated with flowers by Mrs. C. V. Devery. On each of the individual tables were potted plants trimmed with yellow crepe paper, which were later used for prizes. Luncheon was served to Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal, and her teaching staff at 12:15 p.m. to allow them plenty of time to return to school for afternoon classes.

The luncheon committee consisted of Mrs. H. P. Orlemann, Jr., president, members of her board and the room mothers, who served. The Riverton P.T.A. wishes to thank everyone who helped make the luncheon such a happy and successful affair.

PALMYRA BOROUGH TO GATHER TRASH

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Rubbish Will Be Collected In Clean-up Drive

Palmyra has, by proclamation of its Mayor, John F. Ward, declared Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next week as official clean up days. The borough will haul away any trash deposited at the curb on these days as per the following schedule.

South of the railroad tracks all day Tuesday and up until noon Wednesday.

North of the railroad tracks Wednesday afternoon and all day Thursday.

The Mayor and Council urge Palmyra citizens to pitch in and help clean up the town next week. People living next to vacant lots are asked to cooperate by taking a few minutes to gather any loose rubbish that might be on them and put it on the curb.

The cooperation of every citizen is requested that Palmyra may present a neat and attractive appearance to start the summer season, and for the visitors who will come to town on Memorial Day.

FIRE DESTROYS CAR

An automobile belonging to Gustaf Nelson, employed at the Riverton Laundry, was destroyed by fire at the laundry plant Wednesday morning. Nelson, who lives on the property and keeps his car in the laundry garage, started to back the car out when it backfired and burst into flames. Aided by other employees, Nelson attempted to put out the fire with sand, but did not succeed. The Riverton, Palmyra, Parry and East Riverton fire companies responded to the alarm, and the flames were finally extinguished by the use of chemicals, but not until the car had been practically destroyed.

"COLORED SHOW"

The Independence Fire Company of Palmyra is sponsoring an all colored entertainment in the High School auditorium on June 6, at 8 o'clock. Tickets may be purchased from any fireman.

A winning personality without words doesn't win to stay.

Interested in making as many cures as possible and in making these patients comfortable and contented while they are taking the cure.

Incidentally, I went into politics as a diversion from the depressing work of my profession. I remained in politics because I believed I had a service to render to my County.

PATIENT DECLARES CHANGES HARMFUL

Happy Atmosphere at Fairview Gone Under New Set-up, Writes McCordell

Mr. Walter L. Bowen, Editor The New Era, Riverton, New Jersey

My Dear Friend Mr. Bowen: The finding of supposed cause to warrant an investigation by the Grand Jury of certain phases in the management of the Burlington County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, and the great publicity being given to the subject at this time will be readily recognized by thoughtful taxpayers as a purely political maneuver. Nevertheless, as an old patient of the institution, recently admitted, I feel it my duty in fairness to all concerned to ask that you publish this letter. I sincerely believe that an impartial survey among the patients here will show that ninety per cent or more deplore the insincerity of the motives behind this selfish maneuver which is resulting in the complete dissipation of the former happy atmosphere of Fairview and the disruption of an efficient organization, not to mention the many irritating and harmful results that are now daily taking toll from us, the patients, unnecessarily hampering our progress towards recovery, which in turn increases the cost of our maintenance. Over forty per cent of the patients cared for here come from outside counties and the profit accruing from their maintenance is responsible for the low cost to Burlington County of their own patients. Many of these out-county patients are now fast becoming sufficiently dissatisfied with recent changes in personnel and food, to be considering transfer elsewhere.

The New Jersey State Department of Institutions and Agencies makes periodical inspection of this institution, and these reports will substantiate the records kept here which prove that the number of patients has invariably exceeded the maximum recommended by them, thus exploding one of the most malicious claims of those responsible for this so-called investigation.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Campaign Opened Wednesday Night With Dinner at Porch Club

Responding to the challenge, "What are YOU going to do about it?" fifty or more busy men of Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson assembled at the Porch Club in Riverton for dinner on Wednesday evening to inaugurate the annual finance campaign of the Palmyra-Riverton YMCA. C. P. Mayfield, president of the YMCA, presided.

Mr. Mayfield explained the origin of the question which has been taken as a slogan for the campaign, "What are you going to do about it?"

He said "That is the question a prominent citizen asked at a meeting of a group called together to discuss the financial outline for the Palmyra-Riverton Y." "A. And the answer of the board was, 'What are YOU going to do about it?'"

"If the YMCA had no more justification for its existence in these times than desirable but non-essential activities for boys, its board would have little to stand on in making that reply. But it has more—much more."

"It has the continuing year-in-and-year-out forceful influence of a man who is singularly successful in dealing with youth. It has, through him, a variety of character-building contacts that cannot be

TENNIS STARS AT HOME FETE MAY 23

"Hoop-la" for Growups and Hand-writing Expert Will Be Added Attractions

The plans for the Cinnaminson Fete and Exhibition Tennis are very nearly completed. Matches of unusual brilliance are in store for tennis enthusiasts. Four ace players of the Australian team have accepted the invitation of Z. John Norris to play on the grass courts of the Moorestown Field Club on May 23, at 3 o'clock. The players are Adrian Quist, Captain Jack Crawford, Manager Clifford Sproule and Vivian McGrath. Never before has South Jersey had the opportunity of watching four ranking players from another country on its own courts. It is a special privilege to see these players a week before they take part in the Davis cup matches at Manheim.

The mid-way will be a gay and festive scene this year, with more attractions than ever. Moving pictures, gold fish pond, toy table, "hoop-la," ponies to ride, are a few of the entertainments provided for the children.

Dr. S. Emlen Stokes has charge of obstacle putting. Mrs. B. Hubert Cooper plans to have a special "hoop-la" for the grown-ups. Marked out on the green will be an enormous game of "Derby Day." Lovely young girls will act as horses, of which there will be three sets, colts, yearlings and two-year olds. This is under the management of Edward Curtis Jr.

Mrs. C. Naaman Keyser, of Plymouth Meeting, a handwriting expert of note, will be present to make readings. Here is an opportunity for an expert character analysis. One's actual presence is not required. A paragraph or hand writing may be sent to Mrs. E. Russell Perkins, Moorestown, to be analyzed that day.

Mrs. T. H. Dudley Perkins and Mrs. Alexander C. Wood, Jr., announce the following hostesses for the caterers tables:

Riverton: Mrs. Charles F. Allen, Mrs. William C. Porter, Mrs. William A. Hendrickson, Mrs. Winfield T. Wilson.

Moorestown: Mrs. Louis F. Paret, Mrs. Kendall Archer, Mrs. William L. Bartholomew, Mrs. Alfred H. Burr, Mrs. Charles P. Walnut, Mrs. W. Franklin Stroud, Jr.

Haddonfield: Mrs. Joseph Roberts, Merchantville: Mrs. Edward J. P. Marx.

Delanco: Mrs. Lloyd Cross. Edgewater Park: Mrs. A. C. Ferguson, Jr.

Beverly: Mrs. S. H. Levin. Crosswicks: Mrs. Arthur Brick. As an added feature supper will be served by the aids in the club house from a la carte menus for a small cover charge.

The aids are as follows: Riverton: Miss Alice Lippincott, chairman; Miss Helen Elliott, Mrs. Richard Allen, Miss Bora Barry, Miss Lydia Pary, Miss Betty Eastwood, Mrs. Mary Eastwood, Miss Irene Sappell, Miss Eleanor Hall, Mrs. Charles Barry, Miss Emily Robinson.

Moorestown: Mrs. Albot Pary, chairman; Mrs. Eugene S. Wilson, Jr., Miss Mary Roberts, Mrs. John S. Collins, Mrs. Vincent Bush, Mrs. Heberton Williams, Miss Margaret Barrett, Mrs. F. Morse Archer, Jr., Miss Anne Paret.

Haddonfield: Mrs. Ward Dix Kerlin, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Thomas Synnott, Mrs. Andrew Baird, Mrs. S. Robinson, Coale, Mrs. Ralph Eaton, Mrs. Richard H. Fitzwater, Jr., Mrs. R. Malcolm Kraft, Mrs. Chandler Archel.

DR. H. B. MARK TO ADDRESS P.T.A.

The last monthly meeting of the Riverton P.T.A. will be held on Monday, May 18, at 3:30 p.m. Dr. Harry B. Mark, health officer of the Riverton Board of Health, will talk on "Care of Contagious Diseases in the Home." Plan to attend this meeting to hear the annual reports and find out what your P.T.A. has done during the past year.

FOR CORONER

JEROME J. ZISAK, JR.

Born and raised in Riverton. Candidate for coroner on the Republican ticket. He is a licensed, experienced funeral director and fully qualified for the office he seeks. His candidacy is being well received in all parts of the county, and, of course, Riverton will roll up a big vote for one of her favorite sons.

NO COUNTY FUNDS FOR PRIVATE SANATORIUM

State Administrator Ely of WPA Rules Freeholders Must Own Institution

William H. J. Ely, state administrator of the WPA, informed the freeholders by letter at their session Friday in Mount Holly that the Works Progress Administration cannot consider their application for the enlargement of the Deborah Sanatorium at Browns Mills unless the property is owned by the county. The clerk was instructed to write the officers of the Deborah sanatorium stating that they could not participate in the project due to the ruling of the WPA and will entertain any recommendation that they may offer.

Freeholder Jones offered a resolution authorizing the Mount Holly Water Company to open the Jacksonville road on Broad street to the south of O. M. Thornton's property for a distance of 600 feet to install a six-inch water main to supply the new regional high school. The main will be laid under the shoulder of the road. The resolution passed unanimously.

Mrs. Edna Perry asked for a $25 appropriation to attend the national probation convention in Atlantic City, May 22 to 25. On resolution of Charles R. Stout the appropriation was granted.

Freeholder Jones offered a resolution authorizing Public Service Electric and Gas Company to erect one pole on Cooper street in Edgewater Park. The resolution passed.

A communication was received from the sheriff stating that his county car was in need of repairing and suggesting that the county purchase a new one.

Director Adams offered a resolution commending the sheriff to trade in his old car for a new one not to exceed $700.

Freeholder Jones stated that the county road survey will begin Saturday.

A second reply to the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County in answer to their question as to what was being done in the WPA building had been drafted and was submitted to the board for approval.

The reply did not answer the question asked any more than did the first one, but consisted of a rambling harangue in defense of the New Deal and its policies.

Dr. Tracy, acting superintendent of the View Sanatorium, submitted a report which is published in full elsewhere in this issue.

The following bills were ordered paid: Highway and engineering, $13,321.17; buildings, $5,716.22; bridges, $3,674.44; affairs, $4,628.42; and revenue and finance $1,581.93, totaling $38,322.18.

PORCH CLUB NOTES

The annual meeting of the Riverton Porch Club was held on May 12, at 11 o'clock when the chairmen of all the departments read their reports for the year.

The club room was beautifully decorated with an artistic arrangement of spring flowers for the luncheon which followed the meeting.

A brief monthly meeting was then held and the reports from the delegates to the general conventions were heard.

Park Items

All men and women interested in tennis at the Riverton Memorial Park are asked to meet at the Riverton Park courts tonight (Friday) at 7:30. Your interest and help are needed if you are to have the type of activity that you desire on the courts.

One court will be ready for play on Saturday morning and the other two in a week's time. The emphasis of the N.Y.A. group for the next few weeks will be on the tennis courts.

School Field Day
All soft ball activities and other events will be cancelled for Thursday, May 21st, and Friday, May 22, so as to have the annual school event at the park. The second date is reserved as a rain date.

Baseball Juniors

If there are enough boys who would like to play baseball as a club, or if there are enough who would like a league, they are asked to meet at the grand stand on Tuesday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock. This meeting will decide about a league and the possibility of having a Junior Club to the present Riverton Park team.

If you desire to use the diamond for games you must make reservations with Mr. Mount. Wednesday nights and Saturdays are reserved for the season. Two weeks' notice is required to protect your reservation.

Your Help Is Needed
If you do not ride "bikes," drive cars, or otherwise destroy your park property, there will be more fun for all. We know we can count on you to help.

Golf Playing
Golf is prohibited at the park. This is not a new rule but has been in force always during the busy months. Your observance of this rule will be greatly appreciated.

EASTWOOD REPLIES TO CITIZENS LEAGUE

Pledges to Do Full Duty in All Matters Coming Before Him

In reply to a letter addressed to him by the honorary chairman of the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County, asking what he was doing in the Wendell case, Prosecutor Eastwood issued the following statement:

May 6th, 1936.

Dr. Joseph Stokes, Honorary Chairman, Citizens' Republican League, Moorestown, N. J.

Dear sir:

I beg to acknowledge yours of the 1st, received by me on May 4th, requesting information as to what action is being taken by me to clear up what you term "the complicated and unfortunate situation caused by actions of certain officers of our county in the Wendell case." You may rest assured that any violations of the law in Burlington county, whether connected with the Wendell case or any other case, will be given proper consideration and such action as the facts warrant.

I appreciate the interest your organization has shown in this matter, but I must confess I do not quite understand the purpose of your request for information as to what action I am taking. If I were to make public my specific activities in most matters, prior to jury presentation, it would defeat the ends of justice by giving warning to wrong doers. If information concerning the investigation of alleged misconduct of certain county officials, more specifically referred to Justice Perskie's recent charge to the Grand Jury, had been made public in advance, it would undoubtedly have made it difficult and almost impossible to have obtained the data which has been assembled.

I trust, that I may also have the assurance of your organization's support and cooperation in clearing up "the complicated and unfortunate situation" outlined in Justice Perskie's charge and hope that your organization is equally interested in that matter—although you make no reference to it in your letter.

FEDERAL FUNDS TO REMOVE CROSSING ON ROUTE S-40

Plans have been completed for the elimination of the grade crossing over the tracks of the Central Railroad, Route S-40, in Woodland township, Burlington county, State Highway Commissioner E. Donald Sterner announced last week.

Funds appropriated by the federal government to reduce unemployment will be used for the improvement, which is estimated at $80,000. Under the township and borough aid allotment of highway funds made by the Legislature, Hammon, Atlantic county, was given permission to repair local streets which will give 130 man-weeks of labor to local residents. To permit a saving of $1800, Commissioner Sterner sanctioned the use of asphaltic oil instead of tar for top dressing. The bid of $7555 was $2500 under the estimated cost.

Approval was obtained for the repair of three roads by Upper Freehold township, Monmouth county, under township and borough aid highway funds previously allocated by the Legislature. Work on the Sharan Station road is estimated to cost $10,000; that on the Cream Ridge-Hightstown road, $9000, and on the Ellisdale-Wainford-Allen-town road $5000.

Nearly everything has been explained except why there are more unemployed this year than last year. Lynchburg, Va., News.

I agree with you that the Wendell case is of acute interest to our citizens. I feel that the investigation of the alleged charges against county officials is of equal importance.

I assure you I will do my full duty in both matters.

Sincerely yours,
Howard Eastwood,
Prosecutor of the Pleas.

The Local Candidates

Riverton is fortunate this year in the calibre of men who are willing to assume the task of administering borough affairs. J. Wilson Sylvester is candidate to succeed himself as member of the borough council, and Nathan Lane is candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of John L. Strohelein, who would not accept a return to that body.

The only contest is for the office of collector, for which there are two candidates—C. Kenneth Davis, incumbent, and Alexander C. Shrader. Mr. Davis has served as collector and treasurer under four mayors, and is now rounding out his ninth year in the office. He has been conscientious and painstaking in the performance of his duties, and his work has been unusually well done, as attested by the borough auditors and the various members of the borough council with whom he has worked for nearly a decade.

Jerome J. Zisak, born and raised in Riverton, seeks the office of coroner. Mr. Zisak made a good run for the office last year, and his prospects seem to be very much better at this time. He is a licensed, experienced funeral director and is eminently fitted for the place.

"Unfortunate," Says Dr. Tracy

In his report to the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday, which is published in this issue of The New Era, Dr. George T. Tracy, who signs himself as "acting superintendent" of Fair View, deprecates the fact that "the institution is being used as a football for politics by persons aspiring for public office."

Isn't the doctor a little late in his deploring in view of the fact that he has been a party to introducing politics in the management of Fair View after it had been happily free from this blight for more than sixteen years?

It was Senator Powell, acting through Palmer L. Adams, director of the board of freeholders, and aided and abetted by Dr. Tracy and others, who dragged Fair View into the political arena in an attempt to besmirch and discredit Dr. Newcomb when he refused to withdraw his candidacy for State Senator and leave the field to Powell without opposition.

Dr. Newcomb had refrained from running for Senator twice before in the interest of "harmony," which has always meant letting Powell have what he wanted. This time the doctor decided that if there was any "harmonizing" to be done it was about time for Cliff to do his share, and on the advice of his host of friends he decided to stick.

From then on every attempt has been made to discredit Dr. Newcomb, personally, as Speaker of the House, and as head of Fair View. Trumped up charges included extravagance, manipulation of accounts, diversion of patients from the sanatorium to private cottages in which he had a personal interest, and, finally Adams, during a burst of enthusiasm in which his tongue ran away with his judgment, practically accused Dr. Newcomb of murder when he declared in an article published in the newspapers that if the doctor had spent more time at the sanatorium the death rate might have been lower.

Yes, Dr. Tracy, it is "most unfortunate that the institution is being used as a football for politics by persons aspiring for public office," and you cannot escape your share of responsibility for this disgraceful condition, and if, as you say, all this is having a "detrimental effect on the patients," you must, whether you will or not, shoulder your part of the blame for the unnecessary distress, mental and physical, of these innocent victims of one of the most atrocious pieces of political jobbery ever perpetrated in this county—or elsewhere.

The whole criticism of Dr. Newcomb and his administration of Fair View has been very ably and conclusively answered by the report of the Moorestown Woman's Club, made after a careful investigation of the whole situation.

The Turn of the Tide

In a few days the last shot will have been fired and the battle for the unhorsing of the Powell-Adams political machine in Burlington County will be history.

The thickest of the fray centers around the contest for State Senatorship, in which Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb is opposed by Clifford R. Powell who has already served three terms as a member of that body. During that time Powell and Adams have built up a powerful organization which has cast its blighting shadow over practically every office and institution in the county.

Its most recent assault has been on the Fair View Sanatorium and the Burlington County Free Library, which have for years, and under many administrations, been unmolested. The resentment following the ousting of Dr. Newcomb as superintendent of Fair View, and of Miss Sarah R. Budd as head of the County Library Commission, has re-echoed throughout the county. If Powell and his cohorts thought it would be a nine-day wonder and soon be forgotten, they were mistaken. The manifest injustice and ruthlessness of their action created a growing determination on the part of right-thinking citizens to do something about it, and notwithstanding all the attempts on the part of the machine leaders to discredit Dr. Newcomb, and to justify their action in removing Miss Budd, there were literally thousands ready to flock to the colors of the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County when it was organized in Moorestown less than a month ago. In that short time, and with volunteer workers, who expect and desire no other reward than the satisfaction of redeeming Burlington County for its people, active groups have been formed all over the county to carry on the crusade for "simple honesty and common decency."

The funds upon which the League depends have come from one simple request for financial support. Not one cent has been contributed by the candidates whom the League sponsors. This is unique in political campaigns.

Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, candidate for State Senator against Clifford R. Powell who seeks to succeed himself for a fourth term, is gaining ground rapidly as the day draws near for the voice of the people to be heard.

Dr. S. Emlen Stokes, of Moorestown, candidate for Assembly, is meeting with popular favor wherever he appears, and it is said that the Powell-Adams forces have already conceded his election.

Harold V. Holmes, of Burlington, and a former mayor of that city, is meeting with hearty support for the office of surrogate. LeRoy Church, of Fieldsboro, candidate for freeholder, made a splendid run for that office last year, and is looked upon by both sides as a sure winner this time.

Nelson G. Myers, of Mount Holly, his running mate for this office, is expected to accompany Church as a member of the board.

Notwithstanding their strenuous efforts in that direction, there is said to be a grave doubt in the minds of the Powell machine as to whether or not they can re-elect Palmer Adams to the board of freeholders. The popularity he enjoyed three years ago has received many set backs, and the Budd and Newcomb episodes have not helped him any. Many who were his enthusiastic supporters when he first ran for freeholder, and who believed the fine promises he made at that time, have come to realize that he imposed on their faith and confidence to further his own selfish ends. And this can have but one result.

Every indication points to the failure of the extraordinary efforts of the Powell-Adams machine to stem the rising tide of opposition. Men in high places who have severed their affiliations of many years' standing in an attempt to bolster up the organization which is disintegrating so rapidly, have forfeited the confidence and respect of many of their friends without aiding materially the crumbling cause which they espoused.

History has invariably taught that when a government becomes too arrogant and tyrannical for human endurance, the people rise and destroy it. The Powell-Adams machine has reached that point.

There is only one thing that can now defeat Dr. Newcomb, Dr. Stokes and their splendid ticket—and that is over confidence. There are plenty of men and women in Burlington County who approve of the principles on which the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County is founded to elect every candidate on its ticket, but "interest" and "well-wishing" will not do it. The only thing that really counts is ballots in the ballot box.

If every man and woman who wants to see "simple honesty" and "common decency" in politics in Burlington County will vote and encourage his neighbor to do likewise, the result is assured.

PALMYRA MORAVIAN CHURCH OBSERVES 73rd ANNIVERSARY

Next Sunday, May 17, is the exact date of the 73rd anniversary of the organization of the congregation and the dedication of the first church.

After ten years of intermittent services in the school house at Five Points, the small group of German families, under the leadership of Rev. Philip Gapp, Moravian home missionary in Philadelphia, succeeded in building a stone house of worship. It stood ready to be dedicated free from all debt on May 17, 1863. On that day also the congregation was formally organized with 19 communicant members. From that day on it has steadily grown and prospered in its life and work. Its present communicant membership is well over the 200 mark, and the enrollment of its Sunday School is almost 200.

Our anniversary speaker next Sunday will be the Rev. Paul S. Meinert, pastor of the Moravian church at Nazareth, Pa. Brother Meinert was pastor of the Palmyra congregation from November 1900 to January 1, 1914, and the present church and parsonage were built

OBITUARIES

MRS. MARY VAN M. GRICE

Mrs. Mary Van Meter Grice, who for many years was active in religious, educational and humanitarian movements, died Saturday at her Chula. She was 78.

Services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Episcopal Church of the Saviors, 38th street above Chestnut. Mrs. Grice was president of the Women's Auxiliary of the church, and a lifelong member of its congregation.

Mrs. Grice was a daughter of the late Joseph E. and Katherine B. Van Meter. Among the numerous organizations in which Mrs. Grice was active were the Old Age Pension Fund, to which she was appointed by Governor Pinchot; the Mothers' Assistance Fund, the Vice League, the Emergency Peace Campaign, the Walt Whitman Society, the Birth Control League and the Kingdom of God Movement.

Mrs. Grice was the first state president of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers during the years 1900 to 1904.

She had been writing a book, to be entitled "Tunnels to the Light," and the manuscript was nearly completed. She had given several readings before women's organizations.

Mrs. Grice is survived by two nephews, Earl R. Blyler, Beverly, and Walter T. Blyler, Riverton. Her brother, Rev. Allen Van Meter, who died in 1933, was executive secretary of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania.

In 1890 Mrs. Grice was instrumental in organizing the Riverton Porch Club.

She was also a very active member of the school board. The first time she ran for a position on the board she was defeated. Undaunted, she ran a second time and won her place. This was about 1895. The only reason Mrs. Grice had for wanting to be a member of the board was that she believed that the mothers should be represented in the law-making body which had to do with the education of the children.

Mrs. Grice also organized the Mothers' Circle, which has since developed into the Parent-Teacher Association. At the time of their organization they met in the Presbyterian Chapel which was used at the time for a school by Mrs. Sharp.

Mrs. Grice lived in Riverton approximately from 1886 to 1903, at which time she moved to Philadelphia. After she moved she organized the Home and School League in Philadelphia.

FRANCIS GOODWIN, SR.

Francis Goodwin, Sr., 63, died at his home 614 Thomas avenue, Thursday morning after a short illness.

Mr. Goodwin has been a resident of Riverton for ten years, moving here from Moorestown where he had lived for 35 years.

Services will be held at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Monday morning at 9:30.

Friends may call Sunday evening. Mr. Goodwin is survived by his widow, Grace, Mrs. L. A. Lyons, of Moorestown; John, of Palmyra and Mary, James, Bernard, Francis, Jr., William and Grace and three grandchildren, of Riverton.

Interment will be made in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Moorestown, Philip McChesney, funeral director.

during that time. Three festival services will be held next Sunday. 10:40 a.m., Anniversary service. Sermon by the Rev. Paul S. Meinert, of Nazareth.

3:00 p.m., Lovefeast service. Delegations from the other Moravian churches will attend, and greetings by their pastors will be brought.

The regular monthly meeting of Post Frederick M. Rogers was held in the Post Home Tuesday evening, May 5th. The Post approved the applications for membership of Mark W. Nace, Palmyra; Challis W. Stockwell, Palmyra; and A. S. Riley, Riverton. The membership is well ahead of that of the last few years and much interest is evident in the various activities.

The presentation of the annual school award was commented upon by the Americanism chairman, and the Post approved the necessary expenditure for these awards. This award will be given to the all-round boy and girl in each graduating class in each of the schools of Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson. Presentation was made last year to the Parochial School, Palmyra, grade and high schools. Riverton and Cinnaminson schools refused the award on the basis of having a resolution eliminating all such awards and scholarships from their schools. It is hoped that the Post may be permitted to include these schools this year. The award is made on the judgment of teachers who vote on the boy and girl who, in their estimation, have attained the highest average in courage, honor, service, leadership and scholarship.

Capt. Luther Miktarian, 78th Division, lectured and presented motion pictures of the First Army maneuvers at Pine Camp, N. Y. Capt. Miktarian was an observer during the maneuvers at which time over 36,000 men were in the field. He explained in a most interesting manner how modern armies had perfected their equipment since World War days. This part of the meeting was most interesting to all present.

The carnival committee, under the chairmanship of Drexel Patterson, reported that the annual Post carnival will be held during the week of June 15th to 20th.

POST RODGERS PLANS MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

Hon. John Barbour, President of the Senate Will Speak in Society Hall Grove

The Memorial Day committee under the lead of Palmer Adams, chairman, met in the Post Home on Sunday afternoon and arranged tentative plans for the Palmyra-Riverton ceremonies.

Despite the fact that the State Legion ceremonies are to be held in Locustwood Park on the same day, the Post committee agreed that the local services should be held as before. With the assistance of the Palmyra Corps, in cooperation with the committee and post members, a program of the sincere Memorial Day type has been arranged.

Senator John Barbour, president of the New Jersey State Senate will be the speaker at the services in the grove. The parade, beginning in Palmyra, will take the same route as in former years, proceeding to Morgan cemetery and then returning to the centre of Palmyra and the short speaking service.

Arrangements are being made to have a number of musical organizations in the parade. The services will start at 1:15 and the entire program is scheduled to be completed in two hours. It is hoped that the people of the two towns will join with the Post in the commemoration of this memorial service.

APPRECIATION

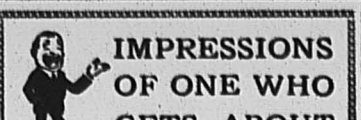

Riverton, N. J. May 9th, 1936.
Riverton Fire Company of the Borough of Riverton Gentlemen:

I take this opportunity to express to you, the Riverton Borough Firemen, my appreciation of the manner in which you handled the slight fire that occurred in my Tailor Shop on the seventh instant.

While much damage could have been done by carelessness and hurry due to care and the use of chemicals instead of water, there was no damage done to either my stock or equipment.

Thank you, men, for your help and good work.

Yours very truly,
Peel Poindexter.

The stage is set! Next Tuesday the curtain will go up on one of the bitterest factional struggles known to Burlington County.

The Powell-Adams machine is sure of victory. If you don't believe it ask any of their henchmen!

The "signs" all indicate it—you know, those big expensive highway billboards. But then, why that worried look behind the smile?

And there is another force that has quietly crept into the picture to throw the proverbial monkey wrench into the Powell-Adams machine.

The Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County is passing out free handbills to the Powell ticket.

That group of citizens who, becoming tired of the "empire builders," have taken off their coats and gone to work in behalf of clean government.

They even go so far as to mention "common decency" in their aims and objectives.

They say where there's smoke there's fire—there must be a good reason why so many people have interested themselves in the "clean government" movement.

great to touch the purse strings of so many people.

And then again—if the tax reduction is so real and convincing—why would taxpayers dig down in their jeans to upset such a set-up?

There must be a joker in the pack.

Those who have found it are contributing.

One County Official in the "know" is supposed to have likened the tax cut to the tramp who drank so much whiskey to keep warm one cold day that he froze to death.

Then there is the subject of patronage—It was getting so bad that they had to throw out such a capable woman as Sarah Budd in order to give one of their workers a position of honor—it must have been honor—because there is no salary attached to the office.

There is a story around about one "simple soul" who desired an appointment that carried a salary. He applied to the Powell-Adams headquarters and was told a contribution to the campaign fund would secure the post for him. The poor chap tendered his check and was all set to officiate when he was promptly ejected. The reason given was—we deal in cold cash only—and anyhow there's no room in the organization for anyone so dumb. This little story is all hearsay and we don't ask you to believe it.

However, there has been no upset in the dog catcher appointments—that may come later—and if it does—it may be based on so much a head.

And there is the Fair View Sanatorium attack. But that is so tragic—it would be decidedly out of place in a column written in the lighter vein—so we'll let the editor comment on that.

Then there is the law enforcement set-up but that is packed with dynamite—and one has to be careful about what he says or its bing—and into the "blitz" you go—so we'll skip that subject altogether.

Now take the Wendel case for instance there's something to chew on—It's even got the Governor "chawin' beef."

There's no use mentioning young Parker—he isn't running for anything—he's running away from something.

SPORTS FLASHES

Thursday, May 7th. Bob Fry's Tak-Abst dispensers made the Bankers stop at 8 drinks while they ran their count up to eleven, and at the same time left the poor umpires stand by with parched throats. Ole Reliable Richard Woodward threw the offerings to the cheap dollar men and one of the reasons that the latter could not connect properly was that the said Dick threw almost as many over the back stop as at the water. When they did go anywhere near the platter, that Rover E. Hubbs, would be parked in just about the right spot on the floor to gather in the sphere with the greatest of ease. This year's rules do not permit a runner to score on a wild pitch and many people think that Mr. Woodward used his influence in having this joker introduced. Horace Finney was elected to serve for the Green-backers, but Horace had his mind more in that steam (gas) roller that was criss-crossing the hard ball diamond at the southeast corner of the park, and when Rarig lined one of his offerings way over yonder and jolted the roller everyone thought that would finish Mr. Finney. Only once did the Bank Softies threaten to declare a run holiday and that was when Realtor Woodward was day dreaming that he was on the Hindenberg. None of the Bankers did anything in particular altho Enskat, as No. 10 or Rover, appeared to know where the X's were spotted on the field. Here is how they progressed.

Bankers 030 000 005—8
Tak-Abst 120 200 158—11
Batteries: H. Finney and Bonatelli; Woodward and E. Mathis.
Umpires: Edson Carhart and Bradley.

The game on the East diamond was called off in the seventh inning when the Evans Bruisers tallied 22 and the weary Knights amassed the grand total of two whole markers. The score book shows that Al Stocker only bunted out three home runs and one single. Just why the single we do not comprehend, unless it should have been an out. Dear reader, if you want to see a flash, just come out some evening when this sensation of Joe Yearly's is playing, and you will see, or may be not, if your vision is not perfect, the fastest thing in this part of the U.S.A. Talk about Ty Cobb stretching an ordinary single into a twobagger, why this Stocker is usually around to third when the first baseman receives the throw from an outfielder and he is across the plate when the Ump says fair ball. Bill collectors have never been known to catch Al, and what is more he never gives quarters to anyone. Of course there were 19 others in the contest. For instance, there was, Stream-line (see hard ball write up in recent issue) Fred Conway, Jr. He is credited with two round trippers which he no doubt stretched out from ordinary doubles. Now it is noted that Paul Burke hit, and he did HIT, one over the trees in left field to the far side of the Lily Pond, without a doubt the longest, mightiest, terrible, powerful, forceful, awful wallop that any soft ball ever received anywhere on this earth. The drop into the cool mud kept the ball from burning up. It took ten minutes to dig out the now flattened object that Wilton Mount once purchased as a perfect sphere. Of course Paul managed to get around the bases and that is how he received the credit for one home run. On the Knights side of the score book there is not the least sign of such a rude thing as a circuit clout. They were perfect gentlemen and the one hit that is noticed was evidently a single which happened when Prisco, by mistake took the bat off his shoulder and accidentally tapped the ball over the infield. We know Prisco felt badly about it because Andy Pfaff had to half trot all the way from third base to home plate to score one of the Knights' runs. It is not easy to figure out how the other run came into being, but we know that it was done in a nice, refined way. Any-

Rubinfoff Holds World Record for Broadcasting

Rubinfoff and his violin—and Chevrolet—are a combination that few, if any, radio listeners in the United States have not received in their homes via the air. The famous violinist and his Stradivarius, stars of the Chevrolet Musical Moments programs, have the distinction of going on the air from more broadcasting stations than any other program in the history of radio. Three hundred and seventy-eight stations broadcast Rubinfoff three times a week, a total of 1134 fifteen-minute programs. That figures out at 263 hours, and if one week's programs were broadcast one after the other, it would require 11 days. The illustration shows Rubinfoff, carrying his precious violin, posing with his car after a special appearance at Detroit.

SHORT-WAVE RADIO

by W. Maynard Bowen and W3CJJ

It often happens that the average listener, when listening to amateur phone transmissions, loses quite a bit of the interesting information and also does not get a complete understanding of what is going on, due to the fact that a lot of the really valuable dope being transmitted is in what sounds like a foreign language. We will endeavor to clear up some of this mysterious wordage and abbreviations so that the transmissions will make sense the next time you hear them.

As an example we will take an actual transmission. You tune in an amateur phone station and hear "W3XYZ calling CQ" and this is repeated over and over. This means: Amateur station W3XYZ is ready to 'work' or operate with any other amateur stations that wishes to do so. Tuning around some more you hear another station and he or (she) says "W9HAM calling W3XYZ" and then after repeating this a number of times finishes up with "W9HAM calling W3XYZ and standing by, K."

This is the method used when a station hears another station calling 'CQ' and wishes to work him. The letter K, used at the end of a transmission, means 'Go ahead and answer.'

The first station, W3XYZ, hears the other station and answers as follows. "W3XYZ coming back to W9HAM. Thanks for the call OM and good evening. Your signals RST 559X here in Onaga Hat, N. J. QRK es QRA. Wotta ye say? W3XYZ by for W9HAM. K."

W9HAM comes back, "W9HAM back to W3XYZ. All OK OM and thanks for the fine business report, your signals here are RST 479 Oskosh, Wis. Say old man will you please QSL and I'll do the same. Well 73 and see you later." A lot of things normally discussed by two stations have been left out, but for the purpose of explaining the abbreviations used in Ham transmissions this will suffice.

We will take the abbreviations as they occur in the previous transmissions and explain them. 'OM' means 'Old Man' and has nothing to do with the age of the operators involved, but is just a handle to tack on to remarks to rob them of bareness and to give a personal tone to the transmission. The phrase "Your signals RST559X" is a system used by Hams all over the world to tell the other fellow how his signals are being received at your location. The letter "R" means readability, "S" signal strength and "T" stands for tone.

The "R" Scale:
1. Unintelligible.
2. Hard to understand.
3. Fairly understandable.
4. Readily understandable.
5. Excellent.

The "S" Scale:
1. Too faint to copy.
2. Weak but copyable.
3. Strong but can't be copied through interference.
4. Good signal.
5. Very good signal. Can be heard all over the house.

The "T" Scale:
1. Extremely rough hissing note.
2. Very rough A.C. note. No trace of musicality.
3. Rough A.C. note. Slightly musical.

4. Rather rough A.C. note. Moderately musical.
5. Musically modulated note.
6. Modulated note. Slight trace of whistle.
7. Near D.C. note. Smooth ripple.
8. Good D.C. note, just a trace of ripple.

9. Purest D.C.
X The X denotes that the signal seems to be crystal controlled. Crystal control is the best method of controlling a transmitter and assures both a good note and a steady signal. It is compulsory that all broadcast stations be crystal controlled and on most amateur bands crystal control or the equivalent is specified.

The tone scale, as you will notice, is based on receivers that are used for code work as will be noticed by the musicality part of the explanation, but it is used also for phone work.

The "S" scale was once prefixed by QSA. QSA means 'The strength of your signals is'.

Well, folks I guess that's about enuf for now so will sign off until next week. So, 73 and cultr.

The Robbins Family

is having a reunion

HOW long since you have had a reunion with the scattered members of your family? Why not have one over a Conference Telephone hook-up, perhaps on some birthday or anniversary? You can all talk together, and hear and be heard easily, no matter how far apart you are. It means so much satisfaction for everyone.

To make a Conference Call simply give the numbers or names and addresses to the Long Distance Operator. The cost is moderate, especially after 7 P. M. and all day Sunday when reduced rates apply.

A South Orange man recently talked from his own home simultaneously with a brother in Fishkill, New York, another brother in Somerville, Mass., and a sister in Boston by Conference Telephone connection. He wrote to tell us how thoroughly they all enjoyed the happy visit with each other.

PUBLIC SERVICE

REPORT OF NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF FAIR VIEW

Dr. Tracy Deplores Fact That Institution Has Been Made Political Football

Dr. George T. Tracy, who became titular head of Fair View Sanatorium when Dr. Newcomb was ousted by a packed board of managers, submitted the following report to the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday.

Beverly, New Jersey, May 8th, 1936.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Burlington County, Mount Holly, N. J.

Gentlemen:

As to conditions existing in Fair View Sanatorium, may I report as follows:

On the resignation of Doctor S. T. Busansky, a committee of the Board of Managers interviewed Doctor Gruenwald who was employed as the new resident. Dr. Gruenwald was graduated from the University of Alabama, and received his medical training and degree in the University of Berlin, Berlin, Germany. He interned at Charité Hospital, Berlin Germany, and also at a private hospital in West Virginia, where he practiced surgery and furthered his studies in tuberculosis. He is an arrested case, himself, and during the time he was suffering, did clinical work in tuberculosis. He came to Fair View with the recommendations of the National Tuberculosis Association and the Superintendent of Ottisville Sanatorium, Ottisville, New York. At the time we employed him, he was doing special interne duty at the Bergen County Tuberculosis Sanatorium. I might add that for the first time in many years full time medical service is available at the institution.

May I also call to your attention that few changes in personnel have been made at Fair View.

As you know, Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb has been retained as medical director and is in complete charge as such.

Concerning allegations that improper food is being served to patients and employees, I beg to report that all food used is wholesome, pure and fresh.

As Acting Superintendent, I have kept the institution from politics and regret that the statement has been made that pressure has been exerted on employees to sign petitions for candidates for primary election. This is an absolute falsehood and I attach to this report a statement signed by every employee of the institution (except one on leave) that none were approached nor has any petition been circulated this year in the institution.

It is most unfortunate that the institution is being used as a football for politics by persons aspiring for public office in this county, and a continuous reference to it can have nothing but a detrimental effect on the patients under our care. It may also lead to a breakdown of the morale of the employees, effect the standing of the institution and cause a reduction in revenues.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) George T. Tracy, Acting Superintendent, Fair View Sanatorium.

"We believe his activities, shared with many organizations apart from the YMCA, constitute a piece of community service which should have community support. We believe there never was a time when the problems of our youth so insistently demanded the sympathetic counsel and guidance of a man trained to meet them—one who wins and holds their confidence."

"This week the YMCA will seek the financial support of the public in raising its budget for the twelve months ahead. If the people of the community can visualize the intangible but none-the-less positive values of the outstanding and unrelenting character-building influence which the YMCA is exerting in its group activities and more particularly through the wide variety of concerning the institution from politics and regret that the statement has been made that pressure has been exerted on employees to sign petitions for candidates for primary election. Patient Declares Change Harmful

As I see it the only bright spot in our outlook now is that this selfish, political maneuver will ultimately prove a boomerang to its sponsors, but unfortunately many of the one hundred odd patients here are suffering the consequences in the meantime, while the Burlington County taxpayers will foot the bill eventually.

Yours very truly,

Charles W. McCardell, Fairview Sanatorium, New Lisbon, N. J., May 2, 1936.

CARD PARTY AT PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

Five Organizations and Group of Individual Workers Preparing for Big Event

What promises to be the biggest card party of the season will take place this Friday evening, May 15, at the Parochial School hall, Fourth and Linden avenue, Riverton. Over 200 beautiful prizes have been gathered according to Mrs. R. E. Sanford, chairlady of the prize committee. As the combined efforts of the best workers in the parish assisted by the Parent-Teacher Association, Knights of Columbus, Dramatic Society, Blessed Virgin Sodality and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the K. of C., are sponsoring this event, every preparation has been made for a large attendance.

Radio players will be taken care of in a large room reserved for the purpose. A door prize of $5.00 will be awarded and the donation will be fifty cents. Refreshments will be served immediately after card playing.

Following are the committee in charge: John L. Stroheim, chairman; Mrs. William Rowan, vice chairman; William Haws, secretary, and Mrs. Harry Gottlieb, treasurer.

tacts its secretary enjoys, then we can be assured of a successful outcome of the campaign."

Dr. Hayes Brady, president of the local Phalanx Society, a national YMCA fraternity of young men, told how his group had organized and subsequently affiliated with the YMCA in developing and holding the interest of young men and boys during these times when they are so frequently at loose ends.

Mayor John F. Ward, of Palmyra, who headed an enthusiastic delegation from Palmyra spoke with great earnestness of the value of the YMCA work and the effectiveness of its secretary as he had observed it, adding that there were many instances where the latter had rendered important service to his community over and above the normal responsibilities of a YMCA secretary. He pledged the cooperation of Palmyra in support of the campaign.

Guy Hendry, well-known secretary of the Burlington County YMCA, gave an interesting account of the history of the organization with particular reference to its development in this area. He, too, paid tribute to the work Mr. Mount has done in the community.

Interesting details of the work itself were given by Mr. Mount who told some of the problems he is called upon to meet in the course of the day's work.

The dinner meeting was concluded with an explanation of the campaign program by J. L. Metzger, chairman of the finance committee. Music was furnished by an orchestra led by George Corner. To him and to the Porch Club, which granted the facilities for the meeting place, the board extends its sincere thanks.

PALMYRA B & L MATURES SERIES

Checks for Actual Cash Payments of $62,180 Mailed Thursday; Mortgages Cancelled

Palmyra and Riverton have been enriched to the tune of $89,200 this week when, through the careful planning and concentrated effort of the Palmyra Building and Loan Association, the 39th series of stock was matured. Out of this vast sum, there was an actual cash disbursement of $62,180. This ready cash has been placed in the hands of its shareholders who number in the combined population of the two communities approximately 8000, an average of $77 to every man, woman or child.

Not only has this astounding cash distribution taken place but $14,100 of mortgage loans and $12,920 of stock loans have been cancelled. This actually means that the people of the two communities have been relieved of $27,020 indebtedness.

Again the Palmyra Building and Loan Association has been an instrument through which the public, by their confidence in the Association and their acceptance of the privileges it offers, has been greatly aided at a most opportune time.

It is highly complimentary to the directors of the Association and a hearty approval of their management when one considers the consistently growing figures in the amount of shares subscribed for during the past couple of years; nearly 300 for the 62nd series last fall and up to the May meeting, 464 for the 63rd series, a large increase over the encouraging figures of a year ago.

In order to give those who have been shareholders of the 39th maturing series and also to many others who have expressed a desire to become members of the 63rd series, the Association has agreed to accept subscriptions during the month of May without exacting fines. In other words, by paying the actual amount on stock for March, April and May, plus the usual 25 cents per share entrance fee, one can be enrolled in the 63rd series.

Payments may be made to the secretary, Frank L. Durgin, 337 Leconey avenue, or the treasurer, Forrest C. MacCorkle, Broad street and Maple avenue, up to the last of May.

There is no fool like an old one—because he has had more time to practice.—Rooks Co., Kans., Record.

What Other Editors Say

THE WENDEL CONSPIRACY

Arrest of the fourth of the group of five charged with plotting and carrying out the kidnapping of Paul H. Wendel for the purpose of blocking justice in the Hauptmann case, is accompanied by the promise of a confession and reiteration of the purpose to "blow the lid off."

Prosecuting Attorney Geoghan, of Kings county, deserves praise and encouragement for his determination. But it will not be enough to blow off the lid. The entire plot ought to be torn to pieces, to discover if there was any false bottom in the contraption, concealing other devices or persons not figuring in the actual operations. New Jersey's disgrace cannot be cleaned up until this conspiracy shall be shaken out to its last shred.

Stands by Tax Vote

"I voted for the luxury tax and will vote for it again," he declared. "I am for a reduction in salaries of highly paid state officials. I generally tell the people what I stand for and where I stand. That's been my record and will be when I get into the Senate."

"I have never walked out on any important issue and never shall. I will not trade bills. I presented a bill for anti-toxin, which was passed. An Assemblyman from North Jersey offered a bill to combat the Dutch elm disease. I voted against that bill. The Assemblyman came to me and told me he voted for the anti-toxin bill but I did not vote for his Dutch elm bill."

"When you have another bill you want passed, look out," he said. "My answer was, 'you compare the life of a tree to the life of a child.'"

"I sponsored the bill to change the primary election during Presidential years to spring and saved the state about $400,000."

Carpenter Held Threatened

"The sanatorium carpenter, Arthur Douglas, was given until 12 o'clock one day to show where he stood on the political situation in this county by Daniel Lemmon, member of the Burlington County Tax Board. The carpenter was threatened with the loss of his job until he turned in for the opposition ticket. I refer to Douglas himself for verification of this charge."

"There are political petitions in Fair View Sanatorium now for the first time since I have been superintendent. We did not mix politics with the health of the people of Burlington county. When you do I believe you are getting well down the scale."

RIVERTON REJECTS WPA ROAD FUNDS

Borough Can Do Same Work at One-third of WPA Estimated Cost

At the meeting of the Riverton Borough Council last Thursday night J. Wilson Sylvester, member of a special committee appointed to investigate the desirability of accepting WPA aid for a road improvement project in Riverton, reported that the borough could have the work done without government assistance for about $100 less than Riverton's share under the WPA estimate.

The WPA engineers estimated the cost to be $31,134; the borough's share to be $10,868.

Work for Riverton Men

Under the WPA setup outside men would be imported to do the work and the borough would have no control over the project. If done by the borough equipment the improvement would supply employment for Riverton men and the construction would be under the immediate direction of the supervisor of streets.

The special committee appointed to investigate the matter was made up of the highway committee composed of Gorham P. Sargent, J. W. Sylvester and Earl Shrader, with the addition of E. K. Merrill, chairman of the finance committee.

After hearing Mr. Sylvester's report council decided to decline the WPA offer, and on motion of Councilman R. W. Knight the clerk was instructed to notify the borough engineers who had been contact men between the borough and the WPA, of council's decision.

Improvements Under Way

Councilman Gorham P. Sargent, chairman of the highway committee, reported that Harrison street between Main and Lippincott avenue had been treated with amesite, and that a number of other streets would be improved in the same manner, the total cost being around $6,000. Mr. Merrill recommended extra compensation for Robert Clelland, supervisor of streets, owing to the additional labor entailed by the program of street improvement now under way. The sum of $75 was agreed upon to cover the whole project.

Wayne E. Ayres, who lives on Linden avenue between Harrison and Seventh streets, appeared before council with a request that the roadway in that block be improved with amesite, as had been done on Harrison street. His request was referred to the highway committee.

Fire Hazards

The subject of weeds on unoccupied properties was brought up when Councilman R. W. Knight reported that a fire hazard existed on the rear of the old Bioren property on Main street, where there is a heavy growth of weeds and underbrush. In addition to this, there is a liberal sprinkling of poison ivy mixed in with the other growth, which keeps the youngsters in the neighborhood scratching much of the time. The owners had been notified to clean up the property but no reply had been received.

Mr. Knight's report brought on a discussion of the whole weed problem, and the police officers were instructed to make a thorough survey of the town and report all properties where there is an excessive growth of weeds and underbrush.

Hose Rack Constructed
Councilman E. K. Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, reported on the fire on the pike a short time ago in which a tenant house of the farm of the late Benjamin Lippincott had been destroyed by fire.

Mr. Merrill further reported that owing to the bursting of hose at a fire last fall, said to have been caused

KASER DENIES ELECTION CANARD

Brands as "Absolutely False"
"Cut-Throat" Statement
By Eastwood

Louis J. Kaser, Burlington county supervisor of public schools, in his office in Mount Holly on Tuesday, denied that he had made a statement to the effect that he was "out to cut the Senator's throat," as he was accused in a statement allegedly made by Prosecutor Howard Eastwood. Senator Clifford R. Powell's campaign manager.

To this end Kaser sent the following letter to the members of the Boards of Education and teachers throughout Burlington county:

"To Members of Boards of Education and Teachers:
"Under date of May 14, 1936, Mr. Howard Eastwood, prosecutor for Burlington county, and manager of Mr. Clifford R. Powell's campaign for State Senator, sent to Boards of Education of Burlington county a letter stating that I said that I was 'out to cut the Senator's throat.' This is absolutely false. I never made such a statement."

"Mr. Eastwood intimates that I am injecting politics into the public schools. This I have never done. Such statements are made to lead you to believe that I have worked for Dr. Newcomb, the political opponent of Mr. Powell. This I have never done, nor has Dr. Newcomb ever asked, hinted or requested, in any manner or form, that I do such a thing."

"I am indeed surprised that Mr. Eastwood, who holds the responsible position of Prosecutor for Burlington county, should deliberately make such a false statement."

"As to Chapter Laws 361, 409, 428, 432 and 455 of 1933, allegedly putting $17,000,000 of State monies into the school systems of the state, these were with the exception of 432, financial relief and refunding measures concerning the public schools of the state, and did not give any additional revenue to the public schools of the state. Records show that Dr. Newcomb favored all relief and refunding measures. Number 432 outlined a method of changing an elective board of education to an appointive board of education."

"I wish to assure you that I shall continue as County Superintendent, to administer the schools of Burlington county without fear or favor of political influence."

(Signed) LOUIS J. KASER, County Superintendent.

It is a little amusing that the Senator's campaign manager should become so exercised over the alleged introduction of politics into the school system, when the Senator's own conception of the matter is so clearly indicated by the following letter:

May 5, 1936.

Mr. Karl W. Latch
Riverton, N. J.
My dear Mr. Latch:

Replying to your inquiry, would say that I testified at the hearing before the State Board of Education held at the State House concerning my re-appointment on March 20, 1935, that Senator Powell in 1933 when I protested against the passage of that portion of Senate Bill

DR. MARK TALKS TO PTA MOTHERS

"Care of Contagious Diseases in the Home" Subject
at May Meeting

At the closing meeting of the P.T.A. on Monday, Dr. Harry B. Mark, health officer of the Riverton Board of Health, was introduced by Mrs. H. P. Orlemann, Jr. Dr. Mark's talk on "Care of Contagious Diseases in the Home" emphasized very definite rules to be followed in the care of communicable diseases. Dr. Mark said that in order to prevent epidemics every illness should be considered contagious until otherwise diagnosed by a competent physician. The duties of the nurse or mother were divided into three classes: (1) nursing care of the ill child; (2) protection of others; (3) maintenance of her own personal health. The two methods of contact, direct and indirect, were clearly defined and the importance of proper disinfection of hands, bed linen, dishes, utensils and toys thoroughly explained.

In closing Dr. Mark disagreed with the old theory that children should be exposed to contagious diseases early in life in order to get them over with and stated that the fewer diseases children have the better are their chances for a healthy adult life.

Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal, Mrs. H. P. Orlemann, Jr., president and her committee chairmen read their annual reports of work accomplished during the year.

Lemonade and sandwiches were served by Mrs. G. Harold Baker and

EXHIBITION TENNIS AT HOME FETE

Australian Davis Cup Team to Play at Moorestown
Field Club

By Z. John Norris, Chairman
Tennis Committee, M.F.C.

The Moorestown Field Club in presenting its third annual tennis exhibition in collaboration with the annual lawn fete for the benefit of the Cinnaminson Home for Convalescent Women is indeed proud to bring again to this part of New Jersey tennis players of international renown, namely the Australian Davis Cup Team.

As a team the Anzacs are this year regarded as one of the foremost challengers to wrest the historic and battle-scarred Davis Cup from the claws of the English team. The interzone final matches to be played against the United States on May 30, 31 and June 1 at the Germantown Cricket Club should, it is generally believed, produce in the winner the next successor to this famous Cup.

Captain Jack Crawford, veteran Davis Cup player, at the age of 28, was in 1933 the world champion having annexed the Australian, French and Wimbledon championships. Although in that same year in the national finals at Forest Hills, N. Y., he succumbed to that immortal Fred Perry in the finals, still he was regarded as the No. 1 ranking player of the world by both the United States and England.

Adrian Quist, authorities say, is reaching the peak of his tennis career as may be evidenced by his more recent victories. Only twenty-two years old, he with Crawford, is a co-holder of the Wimbledon doubles crown, which today, with the fine international double combination is one of the greatest "wins" in tennis. Also, at this early age, Mr. Quist can boast of many other accomplishments, for this current season has found him victorious in the singles of the Australian, Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland championships.

The youngest member of the Anzacs, Vivian McGrath, just twenty-one, when coming into international fame, was the cause of much speculation because of the unique style of his back-hand game; today he is a sensation wherever he plays. The authorities were gravely concerned over his back-hand because he used two hands. The fineness of his play has, however, overshadowed the gravest doubts about this part of his game. For his back-hand play has been extremely instrumental in enabling him to annex the singles championship of New Zealand and also to be the present holder, with Mr. Crawford, of the Australian doubles crown.

The fourth member of the team is non-playing Manager Clifford Sproule whose ability to keep the players' games sharp, the men mentally keen for the game and well trained has been a great aid in bringing their team to the enviable position it now holds.

Mr. Sproule was a school mate of Captain Crawford and in 1932 was a member of the Australian Davis Cup Team in which year he played, perhaps, the greatest match of his game.

REV. F. B. DOWNS TO PLAY MOSES

Rev. Harold L. Creager and Rev. Norman Stockett, Jr.,
Will Also Take Part

The Rev. Francis B. Downs, rector of the Christ Episcopal Church, Riverton, will play the leading role, that of Moses, in "The First Commandment," which will be given in the Palmyra High School auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday, May 27 and 28. Moses, ancient Deliverer and Lawgiver of Israel, is one of the most dramatic and dynamic characters in Biblical history. The character Moses plays come of the most impressive scenes in the whole production.

Other leading characters include: Thomas Hettel, as Joseph; Wilton E. Mount, as Judah; Dr. J. Rowland Dey, as Simeon; S. Stuart Buckholz, as Reuben; Joseph Seel, as the Pharaoh; Rev. Harold L. Creager, as Aaron; Rev. Norman Stockett, Jr., as Levi; John Swartz, as Chief Councillor; John Ward, as a King of the Orient; Prof. C. F. Dengler, as Joseph in the Nativity; Richard K. Hunter, as the Grandfather, and Monte Simons as Malchiah.

A large chorus composed of many of the leading musicians of the community, under the direction of Ernest Warnick, will participate. Lee Milton will be at the piano. Some of the outstanding musical numbers are the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," anthems such as "From Egypt's Bondage Come," and "The Lord Is My Light," and a number of other beautiful and famous anthems and hymns.

Beautiful costumes are an outstanding feature of the production. The costumes were all designed by Mrs. Hermine Wolff, formerly the costume designer for the Freiberg Passion Play.

The setting is furnished by a Grandfather telling Bible stories to his grandchildren. He introduces the various scenes, and offers comments interpreting their messages. The dramatic scenes include incidents in the lives of Joseph and of Moses, concluding with the Nativity Scene. The climax is reached in the giving of the Ten Commandments at Mt. Sinai.

This production of "The First Commandment" is sponsored by the First Lutheran Church of Palmyra. The cast of about 80 prominent local people is drawn from this church and other churches in the community.

by the hose not being properly dried after using, he had constructed a drying rack for the hose which he believed would solve the problem.

Councilman R. W. Knight called attention to the fact that this fire had taken both pieces of Riverton apparatus out of town, and inasmuch as the Palmyra fire department also sent all of its equipment, both towns were without fire protection for several hours. He recommended that only one of Riverton's fire trucks be permitted to leave the borough at a time. Mr. Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, said he would take the matter up with the chief of the Riverton company.

Chairman Knight of the police committee, reported that the dog census had revealed there are about a hundred canines in Riverton not registered, and he was authorized by council to give notice that owners who had not registered their dogs by June 15 would be cited to appear before the borough recorder and required to pay a fine in addition to the registration fee of $1.00. The notice is published in this issue of The New Era.

Councilman John L. Stroheim, chairman of the borough property committee, reported that the sod on the park had been badly cut up by boys "chasing rabbits" with an automobile. The offenders, he said, had been apprehended by the police. He commended the department for its efficient work in tracking down the perpetrators of the mischief with only a very slight clue to work on.

Other Damage

Mr. Stroheim reported that another group of boys had slashed the tennis nets and cut the rope on the flag pole at the park. He expressed his appreciation of the services of the fire company which took its ladder apparatus to the park and secured the end of the rope which dangled in the air far out of reach.

Mr. Stroheim also expressed his appreciation to Wilton E. Mount, who has charge of the playground activities at the park, for the gift of an American flag to be flown from the flag pole.

As a means of preventing destruction of park property, which, he said, usually occurred after dark, Mr. Stroheim suggested a curfew rule for the park which would require everybody to be off the grounds by 9:30 in the evening. This brought on a discussion of the whole subject of park regulations, during which Mr. Mount said he thought a set of rules would help materially in the preservation of park property and the promotion of the uses for which the park is intended.

Police to Patrol Park

Following the discussion the police committee was instructed to have the officers pay additional attention to patrolling the park in an effort to break up the vandalism which had prevailed.

Solicitor Walter Carson reported progress on the special highway situation referred to him at the previous meeting, involving the construction of ditches across the roadway on Bank avenue at both ends of the B. S. Mechling property.

Mr. Carson also reported that he was proceeding with the tax sale foreclosures and had six properties under way.

Welfare Report

Ross E. Mattis, president of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association, reported that the check for $73 usually sent to the State for relief had been withheld, owing to the discontinuance of ERA funds the first of April, and that now the county ERA had asked for a check for $36.50, the amount due from Riverton for the first half of April. Riverton to be reimbursed up to the amount of $65 for relief expenditures for the last half of April. A resolution was passed rescinding the motion of April 9 to pay $73, and to draw a check for $36.50 as requested by the county. Mr. Mattis then asked that a check be drawn for $100 for the Welfare Association, which was ordered to be done.

Mr. Stroheim reported two requests for use of the park—one by the Riverton Board of Education for play day on May 21, and one from the Parochial P.T.A. for its annual picnic on June 18. Both were granted.

Mr. Sylvester reported that it had been brought to his attention by the supervisor of streets that some residents sweep rubbish from their lawns and sidewalks into the street, leaving it for the borough to cart away. This, he said, entailed an unnecessary expense for the borough and at times obstructed drainage. The matter was referred to the police committee.

Parking Problem Up Again

Mr. Merrill brought up the matter of cars being parked on the streets all night without lights. He said it was a very dangerous practice which had been pretty well broken up, but which had been revived to a very large extent recently. After a lengthy discussion, which included a proposal to issue police regulations prohibiting all parking of cars at night without lights, and which was objected to by the chairman of the police committee, it was finally decided to have the police committee make a friendly appeal to owners who leave their cars on the street all night and see if this would not have the desired effect without the necessity for more stringent action.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Harold L. Creager, Pastor
Do you believe in God? Or, do you only think you do? Many people are so neglecting God that it is lowering the whole tone of life. Our morning worship next Sunday will center around this great matter. The sermon theme will be "Everyday Atheism."

The evening sermon will be on "God's Word Our Eternal Standard."

The great Biblical drama, "The First Commandment," which is being sponsored by this church, will be presented in the Palmyra High School auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday, May 27 and 28. A large cast of prominent people from the whole community is cooperating in this production. It portrays several Biblical incidents in a beautiful and impressive manner, and makes a vivid application to modern life. The musical features also contribute greatly to the richness of this entertainment. This is a real community event, which we feel it a privilege to offer. Every one ought to see it.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 24.

The Golden Text is: "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul" (1 Peter 2:11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "This I say, then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh" (Galatians 5:16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We must destroy the false belief that life and intelligence are what is pure and perfect. Paul said, 'Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.' Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in soul, in matter instead of in Spirit" (p. 222).

PALMYRA MORAVIAN CHURCH

Albert J. Harko, B.D., Pastor
Three festival services last Sunday marked the 73rd milestone of the life and work of our congregation. Almost every seat in the auditorium was filled at the morning service, when the Rev. Paul S. Meinert, of Nazareth, Pa., a former pastor, preached an inspiring sermon on "The Unfailing God."

Two hundred people crowded into the church for the anniversary Love-feast at 3:00 p.m. Large delegations from Riverside and Egg Harbor Moravian churches and a number from Philadelphia were present. The pastor presided and four pastors brought greetings from their congregations. The festival speaker, Bro. Meinert, made the closing address. The choir sang several anthems.

At 5:30 p.m. a free luncheon furnished and served by the ladies of the congregation was partaken of by more than a hundred people.

At 7:30 p.m. the closing service opened with a song service. The auditorium was filled to the last seat. And how that congregation did sing. The choir again sang several anthems. Brother Meinert then brought the closing message, heart-searching words from the story of the rich young ruler, "He Went Away Grieved." Thus with this wonderful day of rejoicing we began the 74th year with high resolve.

Services next Sunday, May 24: 9:30 a.m., Sunday School. 10:40 a.m., Morning Service. Sermon: "The Ascending Christ." 7:15 p.m., Christian Endeavor. 8:00 p.m., Evening service of praise.

RATS COSTLY IN POULTRY FARM

Even one rat is an expensive liability on a poultry farm, for besides committing wholesale murder among the chicks it will consume as much as 60 pounds of feed a year, says J. C. Taylor, associate extension poultryman at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.

The first step in controlling rats on a poultry farm, Mr. Taylor points out, "is to establish a definite cleaning program so that the rats will not find suitable conditions for a home. Begin this program by cleaning all the buildings and removing all dumps and rubbish piles."

"Poisonous baits give further protection against the rat menace, but the poison must be selected and used with care. Red squill powder is probably the most satisfactory. It is relatively harmless to human beings and domestic animals, but is sure death to rats. Mix one ounce of the red squill powder with enough water to form a paste and add it to one pound of meat, fish or cereal bait. Put the baits in places where the rats will find them easily."

Farmers planning to use this powder can obtain a copy of the U. S. Department of Agriculture leaflet No. 65, "Red Squill Powder in Rat Control," by writing to the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, D. C.

A Kansas woman has worked 8,000 crossword puzzles in seven and a half years. Why not put her to work trying to solve the new tax bill?

Income taxpayers, who recently hesitated about filling out the green sheet duplicate of their income tax return, frequently asked by what authority of law the Internal Revenue Bureau was compelling this duplicate return. Inquiries made at the Treasury Department brought the information that while the law provides no specific penalty for failure to fill out the green sheet, "the Internal Revenue Bureau will harass you if you don't so the sensible thing is to file it."

Tuesday's Election

One dominant fact was clearly emphasized in Tuesday's primary election. When the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County sprang into being not more than six weeks ago it adopted the following aims and objectives:

1. To become a permanent force for simple honesty and common decency within the Republican Party of Burlington County.

2. To encourage and elect men and women of character and ability to undertake the sacrifices entailed in holding office, and to support and strengthen such office holders.

The people of Burlington County were sufficiently impressed with the need for such an organization to rally to the colors of the league in sufficient numbers to throw consternation into the enemy camp.

The Citizens' League, steered by men unschooled in politics, and hampered by the element of time, did very well to elect two of its candidates for the six county vacancies.

Then, too, the question of money, which, whether we like it or not, plays a very important part in any election, and which was a scarce article in the advancement of the Citizens' cause, was a serious handicap.

The Citizens' League made some mistakes, but the motives behind their efforts were born of honest intentions and grounded on honest beliefs.

The Citizens' Republican League was planned for a permanent organization to keep informed and act as a clearing house throughout the year for authentic information on matters of government.

It was encouraging to note the unusually large vote throughout the county. The interest aroused among so many voters has more than justified the organization of the League and if this interest is maintained throughout the coming year, as we believe it will be, it will inevitably result in a higher tone in the politics of Burlington County and the State.

TWISTER HURLS BIG TREE INTO TAYLOR CABIN

Courtesy of Phila. Evening Bulletin

A violent twister descended upon the Howard Taylor farm at 6.30 Monday night and broke off a tree three feet in diameter, sending it crashing into the cabin on the riverbank. By counting the rings on a cross-cut section the age of the tree is estimated to be 140 years. It took five men all day to remove the tree from the damaged cabin. A tree equally large on the Parry farm next to Taylor's was completely uprooted and narrowly missed striking a cow that was tied to it.

FELLOWSHIP TO GIVE ANNUAL PLAY

Will Present Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest"

Just how earnest was Earnest? Do names really have an important influence upon the lives of those who bear them? If you have ever pondered these important matters and have been baffled by the elusive answers you can set your mind at rest with the problem completely solved by attending the performance of Oscar Wilde's play Friday night in Christ Church Parish House.

"The Importance of Being Earnest" is this year's production of the Young People's Fellowship. For several years this group has been producing one clever comedy a year, and has been steadily improving. This year they seem destined to surpass all their previous efforts. The play is by far the best which they have chosen to display their ability and they have spent three months of work in preparation. In addition they have built new scenery for the interior scenes and made a drop for the famous garden scene. A great deal of effort has been put into procuring authentic costumes of the 1890's and that gay decade will appear in all its beauty and all its fancy exaggerated manners of speech and dress.

If you cannot remember all the silly foolishness of the times you will laugh at its hypocrisies, and if, perchance, you will confess to having lived through it, its pretensions will seem all the funnier to you.

Here is Wilde at his wittiest, his most sophisticated cleverness burlesquing the very affectations of which he was so much a part.

If you want sparkling wit and hearty laughs come to the parish house Friday night at eight o'clock. The Fellowship presents "The Importance of Being Earnest" and invites you to an evening of real entertainment. Committee.

NEWTON LEADER FOR 73 YEARS

Coal Firm Has Pioneered in Delivery Equipment; Developed Automatic Stoker

It takes a lot to be a leader, day after day, for 73 years and more.

Newton pioneered in providing its customers with thoroughly inspected, cleaned, hard coal. So rigid is the inspection at the Newton yards, that sometimes 70 pounds or so of slag, dust, etc., passing as fuel elsewhere are removed by Newton inspectors before the load leaves the yard.

Newton's latest service is automatic heating—with coal of course, for Newton has investigated every heating fuel, every heating device, and at no time has anything been found that can equal the combined safety, dependability, economy and satisfaction of good hard coal heating. That Newton Coal again "answers the burning question" by providing everything that automatic heat can give, plus the safety, dependability and economy of coal, is shown by the unsolicited testimonials being received by Geo. B. Newton Coal Co., 53rd and Baltimore avenue, Philadelphia.

The stoker is truly automatic, taking the coal from bin to the burner, burning it with a uniform heat and removing the ashes to containers without any noise or dust and without effort on the part of the owner. Temperature can be completely regulated by a thermostat—it is not necessary to go in your cellar. Furthermore, it may be idle for hours as it only operates when heat is required.

It can be installed in any heater and is so thoroughly automatic that an electric buzzer can be attached to the coal bin which will notify the householder when it is time to reorder coal.

Buckwheat or rice anthracite coal is used in this stoker which occupies but two and a half feet of floor space.

HIGH GASOLINE TAXES CAUSE OF AUTO ACCIDENTS

Reducing gasoline tax rates to levels sufficiently low to enable motor vehicle owners to afford to maintain their motor vehicles in safe-operating condition was suggested today by E. J. Leary, secretary of the New Jersey Petroleum Industries Committee, as a means of promoting highway safety.

Mr. Leary recommended also that the entire revenue collected from gasoline taxes, and from other special additional levies paid by motor vehicle owners, be used exclusively to finance safe highways.

"Excessive gasoline taxes increase motor vehicle operating costs so materially," said Mr. Leary, "that owners with limited budgets sometimes find it difficult to give their vehicles proper care. In order to keep expenditures low, they may postpone needed work even to the point where highway safety is endangered because their vehicle actually is unsafe. While this may be false economy, it is understandable in view of the fact that the average motor vehicle owner has to pay so much in federal and state gasoline taxes, as well as other special additional levies.

Bicycle Hike Enjoyed

A group of boys under the leadership of Wilton E. Mount enjoyed a bicycle trip to Camp Ockanickon and return on Saturday of last week. All the wheels but one stood the trip and the boys for the most part proved to be veteran riders. While at camp the boys enjoyed the program of the County Marble Championship, the band concert, free boating and light refreshments. Hansen and Shaner Shoot for Y.

"Tex" Hansen and Erwin Shaner were the local representatives in the County Marble Championship. "Tex" survived two fast rounds and then was eliminated by a close margin. Shaner had the luck to meet Anderson in the first round and he out shot him from the start. Andy won the contest and as his prize two weeks at Camp Ockanickon this summer. The contestants were from various districts in the county and the matches were under the supervision of County Secretary Clifford Ergood.

Baseball Trip

Your attention is called to the write up in another part of the paper in regards to the Phillies-Brooklyn baseball trip. This event is for boys and girls over 9 years of age. You will help the Y if you sign up early. Some 40 boys, members of the local Junior Boys' Club, will have an afternoon and picnic outing at Camp Ockanickon on Tuesday, May 26th. Paul Martin and Arthur Faunce will be in charge of the boys. Cars are needed for transportation.

Board of Directors

The regular meeting of the board of directors will be held on Tuesday, May 26th, at 8 p.m., at the Y building. Plans will be made for the annual meeting and the election of the board for the coming year and its officers. A full attendance is anticipated. Final reports of the campaign will be made by J. L. Metzgar, chairman of the finance committee, and Francis B. Elwell, chairman of the initial gift committee.

Employment Service

When you are in need of help of any kind or need a job, don't fail to call the YMCA. The office has at least a call every week in regards to employment. You may be the one qualified to fill the position that is available. Then, too, we have boys who are desirous of earning their way to camp. They will do anything within reason in order to have the privilege of a real vacation. A call to 904-w between 9:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. will be cheerfully cared for at once.

Early Camp Registration

This is just your reminder that you may register for Camp Ockanickon before Monday, June 1st and save a $1.00 per week. Members of the local YMCA can further secure a $1.00 per week making the total cost $9.00 per week. This fee includes all essential activity other than horsemanship.

Winner of Marble Championship

The Burlington County Marble Shooting Contest was won Saturday at Camp Ockanickon by William Anderson, 13 years of age, of Browne Mills School. William defeated Carman Scarfiro, 14 years of age, of Edgewater Park, five games to four in the final match. The Marble Contest was sponsored this year, by the Burlington County YMCA, with Secretary Guy C. Hendry as chairman of the set-up. The champion will enjoy as a reward a two weeks' camping period and the runner-up, one week's camping period, this summer.

The winners in this vicinity were as follows:

Riverton: Winner, William Hansen, Palmyra School; runner-up, Irving Shaner, Palmyra School.

Riverside: Winner, Carlton Ryan, Delanco School; runner-up, Carlton Weilenbeck, St. Peter's School, Riverside.

Ball Game, May 29

Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson boys and girls are invited to be the guests of G. P. Neugent, president of the Philadelphia National Baseball Club, on Friday afternoon, May 29th.

This trip is open to any boy in the community from 9 to 16 years of age inclusive and any girl of 9 years of age and above. The unlimited age for girls is made possible by the guest day at the ball park on Friday.

This trip will be made in double deck busses under adult supervision, and the safety of the handling of the children vouched for by the local YMCA. Wilton E. Mount, local secretary of the YMCA, will be general chairman of all arrangements.

If you desire to go to this ball game you must do two things: first, register at the "Y" before Tuesday night, May 26th and pay 35c which will be the cost of handling and transportation; second, return a form note that you may secure at the office of the YMCA at the corner Broad and Garfield avenue, signed by either parent. Your early registration will greatly help in having the arrangements completed at an early date. Once you register there will be no refunds for any cause previous to the game.

The game will be between the Phillies and Brooklyn, and is the last stand of the club before they start on their trip.

There are a few places for adult supervisors, and any other adults desiring to make the trip will be carried at the rate of 35c per person and can secure their own ticket at the gate.

This event is being held because of the failure of Mr. Shibe to permit us to attend the game during Youth Week.

BILL TO ABOLISH AGE LIMIT FOR FEDERAL JOBS

A bill abolishing the age limit for Federal Civil Service jobs was re-introduced in the House of Representatives on Monday of this week by Congressman D. Lane Powers, of the 4th District of New Jersey.

The bill was originally introduced in the 73rd Congress by Congressman Powers.

The purpose of the measure is to remove age as a disqualification for civil service employment in the Federal Government if the applicants are otherwise qualified. The bill is backed by some of the labor organizations of Government employees.

"Under the present laws," the Congressman said, "if a woman has been a good stenographer for many years and then decides to apply for a Federal job, age would be a disqualifying factor. My bill would give that woman every opportunity to take the examination on her merit as a stenographer alone."

"Of course, in some jobs which require extremely robust physiques, such as guards at penitentiaries, and so forth, the question of physical fitness of a man past fifty, let us say, would be considered. My bill would also apply to those in Government service not under Civil Service."

Nothing To Show But Debt

On the authority of no less a personage than Harry Hopkins, Administrator of the PWA, the relief load constitutes 20,000,000 of the country's population at the present time. And this after three years of the New Deal, which was to lift us out of the depression as soon as it could get its spending part machine working smoothly. The spending part of the program has proceeded with great enthusiasm, but the only thing we have to show for it is a mammoth debt.—Troquois, S. D., Chief.

Memorial Park Playground Baseball Dope

By "Burr" Schopp

"Soft ball helps older men keep active interest in athletics."

The above caption was over an article of a full column length in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of May 8th. The entire write up was not specifically on soft ball as it was termed, altho playground ball would have been a more correct term. There were some paragraphs that had the tune of big figures coming out of Washington these days. A few of the sentences are quoted herewith.

"In 31 states 62,000,000 people played soft ball. * * * Throughout the country more than 45,000,000 played hard ball, and basket ball, the really big seasonal sport, had 80,000,000 participants. We (the party being interviewed) think that if the other 17 states ever get around to adopting soft ball in a big way, basket ball will be left in its wash." Let us look at the above figures again. Basketball 80,000,000. Perhaps that many played since Dr. Nansmith originated the frolic fifty years ago or maybe the total is amassed like New York subway riders, where you count as 100 persons if you drop that many nickels (or slugs) in their coffers during any stated period of time.

Say the 80,000,000 did spill in one season. That means that there were 8,000,000 teams if 10 was the average number on a team, even if only five play at one time in 95% of the games. There could be only half that number of games due to the well-known fact that it takes two teams to make a game in most instances. Taking 100 as the average number of spectators per game, a very modest crowd when we recall some of the ballyhooed college games as drawing 15,000, and with our 8,000,000 teams, playing every other day our slide rule indicates only 20,000,000 rosters per day. This added to the 80 ditto players plus 1 ditto officials and also 100,000,000 inhabitants of this country who are not interested, or in many cases do not know that there is such a pastime, give a total population of only 201 million. Evidently the census reports of some 140 odd is all damp.

You can waffle with any of the above that you care to, but the sum of those not interested is the most nearly correct.

The article then comes back to earth and makes a comparison between the hard and soft breeds of base ball insofar as to actual play is concerned and so on. The head line writer who wrote the title of the column knew his stuff, for he said more in 10 words than 10 sentences in the story. It is not commercialized too much and made too scientific. It is much easier to watch and decidedly more interesting than the hard ball variety. In other words it is more of a recreation than a sport. There is a whole of a difference between these two terms and every day they are becoming farther apart. Soft ball is for the older boys, those with grey hairs or none at all and whose arms, limbs and wind are "not wot they uster be." It is also a very good game for boys and girls in their teens, but for those in their twenties, who wish to be shining lights in the hard species, the large

Speaker Newcomb in Action

Friends of Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, Speaker of the House of Assembly, who may have been disturbed by the reports persistently circulated by his detractors to the effect that he was spineless and incapable of maintaining order, will be interested in the personal observations of the editor of the New Jersey Mirror.

In the May 6 issue Editor Polwell writes as follows: Last week I made one of my rather infrequent trips to Trenton to see the Legislature at work. It was on Monday night, when hundreds of the unemployed swarmed inside and outside of the State House. There was tenseness in the air. Some of the invading host of the jobless, summoned to the capitol by their comrades on the scene, were ready for trouble, I suspected, but it was rather from their sullen countenances than in any acts of violence, that I gathered that. There were state troopers and policemen everywhere. If the milling crowd paused too long in its slow passage through the State House corridor, it was gently urged on by the officers. The latter had evidently been instructed to be good-natured and tolerant, and they were all of that. The crowd, in which shabbily dressed men and women were conspicuous by their number, was not so good-natured, but if it looked hostile, it did not act so.

...PUBLIC DEBT WILL EXCEED FARM VALUES

THE ABOVE PICTOGRAPH should awaken farmers to the dangers which wasteful spending of public money is bringing on. In 1931 the value of all farms and farm buildings was nearly three times the public debt. That year, Democrats gained control of the House of Representatives. Since then Democrats have drawn up our revenue bills and our spending bills. Farm values have shrunk, but the public debt has doubled. It is estimated that next year the debt will exceed the value of all farms and farm buildings! Tobacco taxes, gasoline and other Federal taxes paid by the farmer are increasing. The farmer and his grandchildren will be taxed to pay this debt. As shown in the pictograph, the debt threatens to overwhelm the farmer before he realizes his danger and demands a halt.

POWERS SECURES AMMUNITION FOR 21-GUN SALUTE

When the American Legion of New Jersey hold their big celebration at Locustwood, in Haddonfield, Memorial Day, the National Guard Artillery Unit present will be able to fire a twenty-one gun salute for the honored dead, thanks to the efforts of Congressman D. Lane Powers.

The Congressman, as a member of the War Department Appropriations Committee, was appealed to by the chairman of the committee staging the mammoth celebration to obtain permission of the War Department for release of salute ammunition of the National Guard for use in the ceremonies.

Congressman Powers took the matter directly to General E. T. Conley, the Adjutant General of the War Department in Washington, who investigated through the National Guard Bureau. The General, as result of the investigation and on the Congressman's request, wrote Powers that the New Jersey National Guard could use the salute ammunition for the celebration. He further stated that if the use of that ammunition left them insufficient salute shells for their summer camp, they could requisition additional ones from the War Department in Washington which would be supplied without cost to the National Guard.

One purpose in going to Trenton that night was to observe Speaker M. W. Newcomb in action. It had been anticipated that he would have his severest ordeal of the session, trying to satisfy the unemployed visitors who were clamoring for action on the problem of providing Relief funds. And it WAS an ordeal of a sort, but one in which the Speaker from Burlington county acquitted himself with signal credit.

In the early stages of the session, as far back as January and February, there was an unquestioned conspiracy among the doctor's enemies to "sneak" him, to discredit him on every occasion, no matter how unfair and unsportsmanlike such a course might be. I was present at one of the early sessions after which the Speaker's hecklers and traducers spread false reports throughout the state as to his manner of handling the Assembly. My own observation, and my conclusion, born of many years at the State House, a part of which time, in early life, as House Supervisor of Bills, was that Speaker Newcomb performed his duties courteously and courageously. If there was warranted criticism it was on the score of too great consideration for those who sought to embarrass the Chair. Many another man would have had certain recalcitrants put in their seats by the Sergeant-at-Arms or ejected from the chamber. Speaker Newcomb kept his head in the most irritating situations, returned courtesy for blackguardism—and in the end discomfited his enemies.

I have never been very strong for that Biblical injunction to turn the other cheek toward one's enemy when smitten, but Speaker Newcomb, in his unruffled and always dignified deportment, made his "smearers" look cheap and foolish. Since then these same gentry seem to have subsided. There is very little "smeared" of the Speaker now; that is, not in the open. Of course, the whippers are going stronger than ever around the county. There is less than two weeks in which to overtake the flying Burlington county Assemblyman in his straight course toward the Senatorship, and many of those who thought Powell was going to defeat his confrere, and win a FOURTH TERM in the upper house, are now openly convinced that it cannot be done.

But to return for a minute to the invasion of the Assembly chamber by the "army of the jobless" last week. There wasn't a square foot of standing room in the big Assembly chamber. That portion of the floor to which visitors with courtesy cards or other similar pasteboards are admitted, was packed to suffocation; as were the galleries. The newspaper correspondents were jostled to the point of giving up their work—but like the real knights of the Fourth Estate that they were, they stuck to their posts.

Pretty soon after the session opened, the barrage of oratory started. On motion, the privilege of the floor was given to one speaker after another. There was much loud talking and thunders of applause at times from the visiting delegates, but absolutely no disorder. The Speaker was unfailingly courteous and patient, giving the unemployed and their orators every "break." When the accustomed motion to "give the privilege of the floor to Mr. X," etc., was put, and the vive voce vote always seemed to favor the "nays," the Speaker smilingly declared "the ayes have it" and the visitors started off. The friendly way they were received, however, seemed rather to temper their attitude and their words; at least there was no unparliamentary language, worth mentioning, until a South Jersey speaker applied the sharp and ugly word to Assemblyman Thomas, from Bergen. Instantly a dozen members were on their feet demanding recognition. The Speaker, his smile gone now, held the situation admirably in hand. All the members wanted the same thing—to rescind the privilege accorded the visitor who forgot himself. The vote was fairly taken and the privilege of the floor withdrawn from the fiery spokesman for the unemployed. And then the Assembly waited breathlessly for the next move. A

NEW DEAL INCREASES FARM IMPORTS FROM CANADA 10 FOLD

THE AMERICAN FARMER seems shocked at what he sees coming over the Canadian border. Do you blame him?

Here are a few of the increases in Canadian imports for January of this year over January 1935, which the New Deal Reciprocal Trade agreement has caused:

Wool, 22 fold; pork, 17 fold; cheese, 12 fold; potatoes, 11 fold; poultry, 10 fold; cattle, 8 fold; beef, 6 fold; and horses, 6 fold. The average increase in the imports just listed has been 10 over January a year ago, thus depriving the American farmer of these sales.

This flooding of the American market with Canadian farm products cannot be balanced by "soil conservation" Government checks or other artificial methods.

What Other Editors Say

A LESSON FROM NEW JERSEY

For some weeks the question of relief for the unemployed has been sadly muddled in New Jersey. Available funds were exhausted, and the Governor called upon the Legislature to lay new taxes in order to obtain the $2,000,000 a month required. But personal and party controversies have thus far prevented the raising of the money needed. The result has been to throw back, temporarily, upon the localities the work of caring for those out of employment.

Some of the consequences have been surprising and instructive. The numbers of those on the relief roll at once fell off. In Atlantic City they were reported to have fallen by fully a thousand. The Mayor of Rumson stated that many fewer persons were asking for relief when they found out that it would have to be supplied by their neighbors. Similar effects came to notice in various parts of the State.

Various explanations are offered. It is said by some that jobless men have left New Jersey. Others allege that more work has been found suddenly, or that the unemployed who had scorned casual and part-time jobs have now consented to take them. But the main cause seems clearly to have been the transfer of cases from general or Federal relief to local scrutiny and control. In small towns, particularly where everybody knows everybody else, work tests are apt to be more severely applied, and instances of malingering or imposture more readily detected. It is partly in order to secure this wholesome weeding out of the lists that the breaking up of the huge and sprawling Federal administration of relief has been urged, with an accompanying return of a part of the responsibility to municipalities and counties. What has occurred in New Jersey might be repeated in other States.

A man whom we should once have called a "sturdy beggar" was recently overheard in a near-by village discussing the relative merits of Federal and local relief. He said:

"I never took any stock in this turning it all over to the counties and towns. You never can tell what they will do to you. People will look you over and ask all kinds of mean questions. But with Uncle Sam it is different. His check comes to me regularly without any bother at all about it."

The day may come, however, when these checks of Uncle Sam

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

The annual May Day Festival of the Riverton Public School will take place May 21, 1936, at Memorial Park. The "Month of May," Joan Hoagland, will give the greeting and crown the May Queen.

A pageant, "Riverton of Yore," will show various incidents in the development of the town from 1800 to 1900. Some episodes to be depicted will be the first settlements by farmers, building of summer homes by early residents, various types of transportation and industries, the first church service, schools, and recreational facilities. The recessional will take place before the "Month of May" bids all farewell.

A P.T.A. picnic supper will be on sale.

How Did We Get That Way? "Every Government policy is being twisted to fit the elections," reports a special Washington informant. "Whatever policy or pose or statement seems to serve the cause of reelection, is the announced policy of the Government."

One must be unduly credulous or uninformed not to face that as the reality. The question never is, "Is it right, is it sound?" but "What effect will it have on the ballot next November?" The larger question should be, "How did we get that way, and how can we snap out of it?"—Spokane, Wash., Spokesman-Review.

Water Heated BY GAS Never Fails!

Never failing hot water makes a shower bath a delight, for we know of no more exasperating thing than to be bathing in nice hot water and then have it suddenly turn cold.

Hot water from an automatic gas water heater never turns cold—or scalds. It stays at a constant temperature of 140 degrees, day in and day out.

Hot water service in the finest hotels and clubs is no better, and the beauty of automatic hot water service by gas for the home is that it is cheap.

Ask your plumber or gas company water heating man to estimate the cost of never failing hot water service by gas for your home.

POWELL—STOKES—BITTING—ADAMS—CHURCH ELECTED

NEW DEALERS WIN FOUR; CITIZENS TICKET WINS TWO IN HOT PRIMARY

Powell Wins Four Thousand Majority Over Newcomb
In Heated Contest

DR. STOKES WINS ASSEMBLY TILT

Adams and Church High In Six-Cornered Fight for Freeholder Posts

Clifford R. Powell, candidate to succeed himself for the fourth successive term in the State Senate, won over his opponent Assemblyman Marcus W. Newcomb with a four thousand majority in the primary election on Tuesday. With the returns filtering in much later than ever before and with a larger vote than last year, the last (yet unofficial) report was obtained this morning.

Dr. S. Emlen Stokes, of Moorestown, a new face in the political picture, won by a 1300 majority over Dr. Joseph W. Bowley, the Burlington candidate who has had two successive tries for the office of assemblyman.

George Bitting, of Mt. Holly, was the successful candidate for the surrogate's office by a sweeping majority. Holmes, of Burlington, and Wimer, of Palmyra, together polled less than Bitting alone.

Palmer L. Adams and LeRoy Church were the successful candidates for the office of freeholders (two vacancies). The six-cornered fight fulfilled all of the pre-election predictions. Miss Margaret Warner, of Burlington, who was expected to throw a bomb shell into the freeholder fight, finished in fourth position, and Nelson Myers followed after Church in the count.

John N. Swartz, of Palmyra, headed the ticket in the corner race, followed next by J. Preston Moore, the colored candidate from Burlington.

The only contest in Riverton was that for the election of a tax collector, which office was won by C.
Kenneth Davis with a majority of 533 votes over Alexander C. Shrader.

Nathan Lane and J. Wilson Sylvester received the nomination for borough council unopposed.

The councilman candidates in Palmyra were unopposed and both
Charles K. Mervine and C. Nevin Buckholz received the Republican nomination. Harry Stack and Robert C. Thomas received the Democratic nomination.

The contest for township committee in Cinnaminson Township was won by Herbert Dinges over his opponent William F. Kennard.

W. Warren Barbour won the United States Senate post while D.
Lane Powers easily won the Congressional berth.

Excitement ran high in this primary election, with two definite factional groups opposing each other.
The Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County, a newly organized group, sponsored a ticket headed by Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, while the new deal faction headed its ticket with Senator Clifford R.
Powell. The Powell group won four out of the six county posts while the Citizens' group won two.

The campaign was marked by a voluminous exchange of literature, press stories, movie film and radio, the like of which Burlington county has not seen in many years.

The grim business of settling down to battle it out with the Democratic candidates in the general election next fall is all that remains.

NOMINATED

81% OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES UNDER CIVIL SERVICE IN 1935. 87% IN 1936

RAIDING THE CIVIL SERVICE

Representative
Frederick R. Lehlbach of New Jersey

With cruel directness, the New Deal has raided the Civil Service in every branch of the Government and has systematically evaded all pretense of merit administration in the new agencies created by President Roosevelt's laws and Executive Orders.

Government employees with 10, 15, 20, even 30 years of service have been rooted out of their jobs to make way for party workers. The morale of the whole Federal service has been undermined. Formerly, the Civil Service rules and regulations were a protection to conscientious workers. Now, all these protective rules and regulations are swept aside.

This raiding of the classified Civil Service personnel has been going on systematically, and with great intensity, for more than three years. As a member of the Civil Service Committee of the House, who served 14 years as a chairman, I have seen the Civil Service grow and expand under every administration.

But in March, 1933, the whole process was reversed. The New Deal began to tear down a system of merit administration which had been laboriously built up over a period of 50 years, since the Pendleton Act of 1883.

The New Dealers have added more than 250,000 people to the direct full-time Federal payroll. But the number of Civil Service employees does not equal one to every 100 new payrollers.

In addition, they have added another 200,000 part-time or per diem workers. They have also rooted out approximately 70,000 employees in the older agencies, to make way for political friends of the New Deal dictatorship.

All this means that approximately 300,000 jobs have been made available to the spoils managers of the New Deal.

SHOULD WIND UP PWA

Federal relief in generous measure must be continued; there can be no dispute on that point. But we are convinced that the whole problem of relief needs to be re-examined by Congress, with a view to cutting down a cost that threatens the Government's credit. We believe that Congress should require, if not the immediate liquidation of the WPA and the substitution of a more rational and less wasteful system of relief, at least the taking of steps toward that end.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

President's Report

The report of the president was in part as follows:

During the past year eight meetings have been held at the school, two evening meetings and six afternoon meetings, with an average attendance of 120. The topic of the year was "Our Children's Daily Background—Home and School."

Among the speakers who followed this theme in their talks were Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal of Riverton School; Miss Eloise Bryan, supervising principal of Cinnaminson Schools; H. Paul James, of Mount Vernon School, Camden; Edmond R. Tomb, executive secretary of the Mercer County YMCA and Dr. Harry B. Mark, of the Riverton Board of Health.

Other events were the joint meeting with the Riverton PTA Club, addressed by Miss Clarete Selton, of the Vineland Training School; Founders Day with an appropriate talk by Mrs. Clifton P. Mayfield and the Christmas party.

The Christmas stocking committee cut out material for 830 stockings which were distributed to nearby schools and groups for sewing and filling and delivered them to the boys of the Four Mile Colony at New Lisbon.

The membership committee reports 80 mothers, 27 fathers, 12 teachers (100%) and 29 life members, making a total of 148 members. The Child Study Group has held six meetings during the year with a capable leader, followed by a discussion.

The "Summer Round-Up" committee has completed the spring examinations with the cooperation of local doctors and the visiting nurses.

The Association sent one delegate to the state convention in Atlantic City and your president and other members have attended all Burlington County Council meetings, the southern spring conference and the publicity luncheon.

The association has gladly furnished funds to buy a complete Christmas dinner for a needy family, for children's glasses and free milk for undernourished children; to date 892 bottles of milk have been distributed. Our county dues have been paid, our State dues will be paid this month and a Founders Day gift was sent to the State in February. Amanda Orlmann.

BOONDOGLING DOES NOT CURE UNEMPLOYMENT

MARCH, 1934
UNEMPLOYED

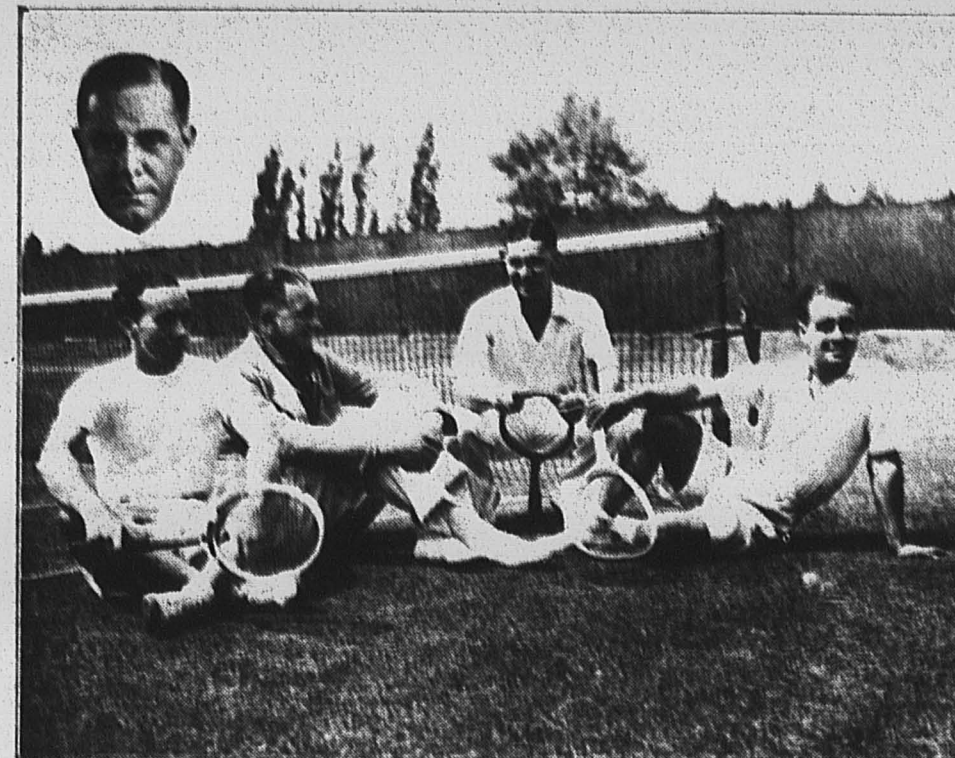

MARCH, 1936
UNEMPLOYED

The failure of the New Deal Boondoggling to cure unemployment is graphically shown by the artist. From March 1934 to March 1936, expenditures totaled 14 billion 968 million dollars, with a deficit of 7 billion 613 million dollars. Unemployment decreased only 236,000.

This deficit meant 22 thousand dollars for each person taken off the unemployment rolls. These billions are gone never to return, unless wrung from present and future taxpayers. Squandering the national wealth on such a gigantic scale cannot be continued indefinitely. Ultimately, it must be felt by the Unemployed as well as by the Taxpayer.

career, when at the Philadelphia Country Club, he had Ellsworth Vines two sets and five-one in games in the last set only after a gruelling fight was forced to fall before some of Vines' greatest tennis. He is still today a great tennis player, though this year inactive in Davis Cup Play.

Indeed the plans are now complete for one of the most brilliant lawn fete that has been held for the Cinnaminson Home. In order that the men may not be neglected, Richard Wood is offering bowling on the green, to start after the tennis and last into the evening. Besides this there is the obstacle putting, arranged by Dr. S. Emlen Stokes.

Mrs. A. M. Stackhouse and Mrs. Norwood Andrews are in charge of the children's gold fish pond. Some of the girls taking part in the huge "Derby Day" game, to be played on the grass are: Betty Cooper, Jane and Betty Grimley, Frances Rendell, Helen Thutcher, Marion Perkins, Betty Davis, Jean Ann Ferrier, Evelyn Roberts, Libby Hathaway, Ella King Russell and Beatrice Powers. Mrs. Edgar Scott and Mrs. Harry F. Jones report that the candy committee has been particularly fortunate in securing large quantities of divinity fudge, plated mints and luscious chocolate fudge.

Altogether one can be assured of a most memorable afternoon. The Moorestown Community House has been engaged for the fete and supper, in case of rain. The tennis players have most generously consented to play on Sunday, or on Monday, if it rains Sunday.

Mrs. Stuart Jensen Clark, chairman of the dance committee, reports that Charles Carpenter and Richard Hollingshead are planning a most entertaining piano and vocal skit for the floor show on Saturday evening at the Moorestown Field Club. There will also be a professional dance team.

SHORT-WAVE RADIO

by W. Maynard Bowen and W3CJJ

Don't Blame the "Kid" How many times have you been listening to a good radio program and had it interrupted by a long string of code for which you blamed "that darn kid" down the street? Don't blame him; it may or may not have been his set, and if it was, the fault was probably with your receiver, and not with his transmitter. An amateur transmitter, as prescribed by the F.C.C., must be properly filtered so as to cause no interference in the section in which he lives.

Learning the Code There are several ways of learning the Morse International Code (used by all amateurs). We think the best way is to break it up into groups of similar characters. The code is composed of combinations of dots and dashes to represent letters of the alphabet, numbers and punctuation. By making combinations we get the Morse International Code. In speaking of code characters one does not say dot or dash, rather he uses dit for a dot and dah for a dash. In learning the code do not try to visualize how the letters look on paper but try to think how they sound. In other words learn the code by heart first then listen to your radio and recognize a letter here and there until finally you get proficient enough so that you can copy what is being sent.

If there any SWL fans who desire to learn this code and do not have a copy of it, write to this column, care of The New Era.

THE COERCIVE METHOD

Industry, of course, can't take up the present slack in employment; it never did employ any such number as would be necessary to do what the President insists upon. He knows business can't employ people if it is to be hampered at every turn and taxed to death, but he thinks it is good politics to spread abroad the idea that business and industry are slackers, that those who could employ men and women are holding off just for spite.—Yakima, Wash. HOW IT WORKED

While the A.A.A. planners sought to curtail crops to bring prosperity, they brought us instead huge imports of agricultural produce from abroad, produce which ought to be raised by our own farmers. The tariff instead of giving us wider farm markets, have only encouraged the importation of alien goods, both manufactured and agricultural produce.

COUNTY DOCTORS ASK RESIGNATION OF FAIR VIEW BOARD OF MANAGERS

Petition Board of Freeholders to Replace Entire Board

"POLITICAL FOOTBALL" IS CHARGE OF DOCTORS

Status of Resident Physician Questioned; Adams to Investigate

The Burlington County Board of Freeholders was petitioned to ask for the resignation of the board of managers at the Fair View Sanatorium in its entirety and appoint a new board of unprejudiced, non-partisan citizens from Burlington county, at its regular meeting on Friday in Mount Holly.

The text of the communication and the resolution is as follows:

Beverly, N. J.,
May 21, 1936.

Board of Chosen Freeholders
Burlington County,
Mount Holly, New Jersey.

Gentlemen:

At the regular meeting of the Burlington County Medical Society held May 14th, the enclosed resolution was presented and voted upon by the Society.

As Secretary, I was directed to forward same to you.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) George T. Tracy,
Secretary.

Dr. George T. Tracy, writer of the above letter, is the "acting superintendent" at the Fairview Sanatorium, appointed recently by the board of freeholders.

The Resolution
Following is the resolution:

Whereas the situation at Fairview Sanatorium has become a matter of concern to a great many of the citizens of Burlington County, and

Whereas the situation has become in the nature of a "political football," and whereas such conditions are detrimental to the morale of both patients and employees and to the best interest of all concerned, therefore be it

Resolved that the Burlington County Medical Society petition the Board of Freeholders of Burlington County to ask for the resignation of all the present members of the Board of Managers of Fairview Sanatorium and appoint a new Board of outstanding, unprejudiced, non-partisan citizens from Burlington County.

And we further request this new Board of Managers to inquire into the status of the new Resident Physician, to determine whether his credentials are of sufficient merit for licensure by our State Board of Medical Examiners. Also whether the experience, training and physical condition of this physician warrant his employment in his present capacity.

Referred to Adams

Freeholder Lamson moved that the matter be referred to the Director of Institutions (Adams) for investigation and report at the next meeting. The motion was passed unanimously.

Following the motion Director Adams remarked: "Now that the political battle is over, we won't hear much more about it," and added "Strange that the Medical Society just found out that politics was in it."

"Taking Out Politics"

Later on in the meeting he came back to the subject and stated "The present acting superintendent is out of politics and is trying to take politics out of the institution." He stated that the secretary, one of the leading lights of the medical association, has been on the board of managers at Fairview for nine years. We are trying to get, he stated, full

ANNOUNCEMENT BY CITIZENS' LEAGUE

Congratulates Winners on Opposition Ticket and Outlines Future Activities

We wish to thank those who supported the Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County through their candidates at the Primary Election last week.

The battle is over and to the successful candidates among the opposition we offer our congratulations.

Our organization was formed by a group of citizens of Burlington County interested in clean government.

Its plan is to create a permanent organization to obtain authentic information in regard to political matters in the county and to acquaint the Citizens with them.

We are happy to note the unusually large vote throughout the county. We feel that the interest aroused among so many voters has more than justified our efforts, and if this interest is maintained throughout the coming year, as we believe it will, it will inevitably result in a higher tone in the politics of Burlington county and the state.

Citizens' Republican League of Burlington County.

PALMYRA
GARDENS

Two large, fertile plots of ground, in close proximity to Palmyra have been offered to Palmyra Borough Council by their respective owners for community cultivation in individual truck gardens, according to an announcement by Mayor John Ward at the borough council meeting held last Thursday night.

The mayor stated that he felt these generous offers presented a splendid opportunity to Palmyra citizens who might wish to avail themselves of the savings in fresh vegetable costs throughout the summer and on the winter's food costs as well, by preserving the surplus products from such a project.

If enough citizens manifest an interest in the project the borough will arrange for plowing and harrowing the ground and provide an attractive assortment of seed. Any citizen is eligible to apply and will receive a plot suitable to his individual need. Application is to be made to George Spencer, borough clerk, in the offices of the borough over the police station.

The project will be known as the Palmyra Community Gardens and will be supervised by a committee of three citizens appointed by the mayor and confirmed by council. They are George DuBell, Joseph L. Stack and Alfred H. Lippincott.

The land is free, the plowing is free and the seeds are free, there remains nothing for the individual but to cultivate the soil throughout the summer. To the industrious people who may take advantage of this offer, the reward is a larger full of fresh, health-giving vegetables and a substantial saving in an overburdened household budget in many cases.

It's yours for the asking, do it now, apply to George Spencer, borough clerk. If you can't appear in person, telephone Riverton 191 during daytime business hours.

PALMYRA COUNCIL TO RECEIVE RENTS

Will Make Arrangement With Owners to Assign Receipts For Unpaid Taxes

A very comprehensive report was made by Councilman Arthur Wright and Tax Collector Edwin A. Griem at the Palmyra Borough Council meeting last Thursday night, relative to properties for which the borough should be receiving rent.

The properties involved are those upon which the borough possesses tax liens.

The properties were discussed individually and in some cases it was decided to have a real estate agent appointed by the owner to collect the rents and pay them to the borough until the tax debt is satisfied. It was decided in other cases to proceed with the appointment of a receiver.

MISS BAUER BRIDE OF DR. H. B. BRADY

Popular Palmyra Couple Wed
Saturday Afternoon in Lutheran Church

Miss Eleanor J. Bauer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bauer, of 515 Maple avenue, Palmyra, became the bride of Dr. Hayes B. Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hayes Brady, 816 Parry avenue, Palmyra, at a very pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Lutheran Church, Palmyra, the Rev. Harold L. Creager officiating.

Miss Bauer was dressed in a gown of white satin, made on princess lines, and wore a net veil trimmed with lace and shaped crown-fashion around the head. She carried a shower bouquet of roses, lilies of the valley and gardenias. She was given away by her father.

The maid of honor was her sister, Florence, who wore a gown of yellow mousseline de soie with slippers to match, and a leghorn hat trimmed with the same material as the dress. Miss Bauer carried a bouquet of orchid sweet peas and yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Louis Heavner, of Palmyra, and Miss Helen Geiss, of Riverton. Mrs. Heavner was dressed in a gown of green mousseline de soie with slippers to match and wore a leghorn hat. Miss Geiss was dressed in a gown of white with slippers to match, and wore a leghorn hat. The flowers carried by the bridesmaids were the same as those of the maid of honor.

The best man was Dr. Albert Haycock, of Connecticut.

The ushers were Dr. Fred Van Istendahl, of Collingswood, and Mr. Louis Heavner, of Palmyra.

Mrs. Bauer was dressed in a gown of pink lace and Mrs. Brady wore blue chiffon.

An unusual feature of the wedding was the fact that the bride and groom knelt on the same pillow that the bride's parents used when they were married.

Dr. and Mrs. Brady are traveling through the New England states and expect to be at home within ten days. They will live in the apartment at Broad and Cinnaminson avenues.

Miss Bauer is a graduate of Palmyra High School, attended Pierce Business School, New Jersey College for Women and is a member of the Alpha Psi Nu Sorority.

Dr. Brady is a graduate of Palmyra High School, Temple Dental College, president of the Phalanx Fraternity and has practiced in Palmyra for nearly two years.

NEW JERSEY WINS DORRANCE TAXES

Supreme Court Decision Brings Victory for State Officials;
Payment Soon

The ruling of the United States Supreme Court on Monday left the executors of the John T. Dorrance estate no other alternative than to pay an inheritance tax of $12,247.333 plus interest and penalties, notwithstanding the payment of a similar tax to the State of Pennsylvania. Legislative leaders and other state officials hailed the decision as a sweeping victory for New Jersey and expressed the opinion the tax, when collected, will be a "substantial contribution" toward solution of the state's relief problem.

The total amount New Jersey will seek to collect, it was learned, is $23,146,265, which includes interest and penalties.

In its decision Monday the U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the ruling of the New Jersey Supreme Court which held the estate must pay the New Jersey tax despite the fact it already had paid one of $15,494,250 to the State of Pennsylvania.

Duane E. Minard, former assistant attorney general of New Jersey, at his home near Newark last night, said the ruling was a "complete victory" for the State of New Jersey. He predicted payment of the tax, with interest and penalties "within a reasonable time."

RECORD CROWD AT ANNUAL HOME FETE

Charity Affair Last Saturday
Sartorial and Financial Success

The Cinnaminson Fete, society's annual festive occasion, brought hordes of the smart folk to the Moorestown Field Club last Saturday. They were particularly evident at the tennis matches in the afternoon which featured exhibitions by the members of the Australian Davis Cup Team, Jack Crawford, Adrian Quist, Vivian McGrath and Clifford Sproule, and at the supper dance in the evening.

The fete, which is the outstanding Burlington County outdoor affair in the spring, attracted a record attendance that did much to swell the proceeds which benefit the Cinnaminson Home for Convalescent Women and Children, the board of managers of which is headed by Miss Edith S. Coale, Riverton.

The affair this year was more of a style revue than ever; its informality only served to heighten the effectiveness of the clothes. This advance showing of the styles denoted a distinct leaning toward the linen suit and the mannish shirt-waist frock among the younger set. The lighter colors contrasted beautifully with the darker tones.

In the afternoon the midway was an attractive picture with gaily striped awnings protecting the various wares at the booths presided over by committee members. Flowers, candy, cakes, novelties, and refreshments were on sale. A gold fish pond, toy table, "hoop-la" and ponies were the chief delights for the children.

Among the attractions were Mrs. C. Naaman Keyser, Plymouth Meeting, a handwriting expert who gave readings during the afternoon, and the "Derby Day" game in which a group of younger girls, Betty Cooper, Jane and Betty Grimley, Frances Randall, Helen Thacher, Marion Perkins, Betsy Davis, Jean Ann Ferrier, Evelyn Roberts, Libby Hathaway, Ella King Russell and Beatrice Powers, took part.

Among the sartorially swank were Miss Coale with a smart tailored suit of homespun in natural shade, matching hat with green

Mrs. T. J. Summey, Moorestown, in a rose sports outfit, Mrs. Donald Powers, in a garnet shantung frock, hat matching, and Mrs. James Davis in an egg-shell beige crepe frock with navy blue picture hat were the height of smartness.

Supper and dancing followed the afternoon's activities. The supper was served in cafeteria fashion on the lawn and a la carte in the club house. The dance, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Benson Clark, Riverton, and held in the club house, featured many new summery informal evening frocks.

NO ONE INJURED WHEN CARS COLLIDE

A car driven by Harry K. Rutherford, of 632 Elm Terrace, Riverton, and one driven by William Kraus, of 226 Morgan avenue, Palmyra, collided at the intersection of Temple Boulevard and Cinnaminson avenue, Monday afternoon. The accident occurred when Mr. Rutherford attempted to turn into the Boulevard which leads to the Tacony-Palmyra bridge.

The accident was unavoidable and no arrests were made following an investigation by Police Captain Joseph Rodgers.

A PREMATURE EPITAPH

The above cartoon was submitted in response to our invitation of last week to "draw your own." It was presented by an ardent Powell supporter, and since it was invited, we don't deny the gentleman his little punch in return. Of course we don't agree with the artist, nor did the vote in Riverton support his idea. Like Mark Twain, we feel that "the reports of our death have been very much exaggerated."—Editor.

ORIENTAL FLAVOR IN JUDGMENT BY POLICE HEAD

On Thursday of last week an out-of-town firm who had tried it once before without success, attempted to beat the Riverton ordinance prohibiting the distribution of circulars from door to door.

This time, apparently thinking to get the jump on the cops and cover the town before the officers caught up with them, the firm put ten men at work bright and early in the morning. The distributors had not gone very far, however, before they were discovered by Officer Robinson who immediately reported to Chief of Police William Gootee.

The chief called Councilman Robert W. Knight, chairman of the police committee, and laid the situation before him.

Chairman Knight figured it out this way: Ten men at a fine of $10 each, equals $100; the distributing firm will probably not pay that amount and it will mean that each of the ten men will spend ten days in jail—at the cost of the taxpayers. What to do, to preserve the dignity of the law and at the same time save ten men the stigma of a jail sentence?

Now the Orientals have a story of a man who slandered his neighbor and was haled before the caliph. The culprit admitted his guilt and was sentenced to lay a feather on every doorstep in the village. When he had finished his task he returned to the caliph and was told to go out and gather up the feathers.

"But, master," said the man, "that is impossible, for the wind has blown them away." "Even so," said the caliph, "it is with evil words; once spoken, they cannot be recalled."

The chairman of the police committee, perhaps having this story in mind, directed Chief Gootee to have the men retrace their steps and gather up the circulars they had distributed, which they did.

SPRING MEETING PTA CO. COUNCIL

Edna Young Bond, State Health Chairman, Speaks on Mental Hygiene

The Spring meeting of the Burlington County Council of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers was held in the Broad Street Methodist church, attending, with 145 delegates at the morning and afternoon sessions and annual reports were presented by the various district vice chairmen.

Miss Edna Young Bond, state chairman of health, spoke on "Mental Hygiene" and stated that the first objective of education is health, which includes physical, mental and emotional health. Miss Bond emphasized the difference between mental deficiency, which is the failure of an individual to reach a certain level of development, and mental disease which is merely a maladjustment and causes great unhappiness.

Mrs. Pharo urged those present to send representatives to the annual county picnic at Browns Mills, on Thursday, June 25. At this time members of the county executive board will hold conferences which will be helpful to local committee chairmen in planning next year's work.

BOYS' ELBOW BROKEN WHEN HIT BY CAR

Four eye-witnesses exonerated Mrs. C. Foster Browning, of Moorestown-Riverton road, of all blame in hitting Arthur Gowell of 307 Midway, with her automobile last Thursday at the corner of Seventh and Main streets.

Gowell, who was riding his bicycle, dashed out in front of the oncoming car. His injuries consisted of a double fracture of the left elbow.

RMS QUEEN MARY ROSE AT DREER'S

Local Firm Will Introduce in U.S. New Rose Produced by Verschuren

When the giant Cunarder "S. S. Queen Mary" docks at New York on June the first, on her maiden voyage, she will bear one thousand blooms of the new Rose "R. M. S. Queen Mary," addressed to Henry A. Dreer, for introduction and exhibition in the United States.

This Rose is a rich glowing blending of salmon-pink, which is so novel and sensational that the Textile Color Card Association of the United States has presented it as a new shade known as "Queen Mary Rose." This color is expected to be high-lighted this fall as a glamorous hue for evening wear.

On the arrival of the boat, a presentation of the Roses will be made to Lady Bates, wife of the president of the Cunard White Star Line. After the arrival of the ship, Lady Bates will go to Washington to present a bouquet of the Roses to Mrs. Roosevelt. Plans are also being made to exhibit the Roses at the Gardens of the Nations in Radio City, shortly after the boat reaches New York.

The "R.M.S. Queen Mary Rose" will be especially featured in the International Style Show to be held in Dallas next September.

The new Rose, which originated with the celebrated Holland rosiarian Verschuren, will be introduced by Dreer in this country in the spring of 1938, and our local firm feels very proud of having the opportunity of presenting this lovely variety to the Rose lovers of the United States.

Palmyra Council To Receive Reports

the meeting and complained of neighbors burning trash every time his wife hung out the family wash. The smoke and soot each time would necessitate the work being done over again. He wanted to know if there was an ordinance that would enable him to have the nuisance stopped.

There was some doubt expressed if such an ordinance existed but the mayor assured him of council's cooperation in settling the matter. Councilman Mervine promised to take the matter up with the board of health. He stated that there should be little need for burning trash when the borough renders the trash removal service that it does.

Wimer Reports on Welfare

George N. Wimer reported on the welfare work and stated that all had not applied as yet, but the relief load was considerably less than heretofore. The mayor stated that the borough would do everything in its power to help the worthy, but all would be expected to help themselves wherever possible.

Mrs. Alfred Lippincott asked if the borough clerk could write to the department of labor to obtain a schedule of wages in order that an equitable wage might be applied locally under the different labor classifications. The clerk was so instructed.

Councilman Mervine objected to the auditors supplying but a part of the councilmen with complete audit reports. He stated that every member of council should have one for his own use and careful consideration. He stated that the borough supplied its workmen with tools to do their jobs and he felt that the audit was a necessary tool for any councilman to properly execute the business of the borough. A motion was passed to ask the auditors for four additional copies of the audit.

Special Payments

A motion was passed to pay $45 interest on baby bonds due on June first.

A motion was passed to pay a $2,800 Emergency Relief Administration note. This the mayor stated was purely a book keeping entry.

A motion was passed to pay salaries for the month with the usual proportion of cash and scrip. A motion was passed to pay the board of education $2,550 in cash to carry them up to June 30th. An amount of $3,100 in scrip was also confirmed.

The bills for local relief purposes were passed and the clerk instructed to submit the receipted bills to the state for reimbursement.

A motion was passed to pay the state and county $10,000 on account of taxes.

A motion to discontinue the insurance on the garage leased by the SERIOUS FIRE CHECKED BY RIVERTON CO.

What might have been a serious fire broke out in the wooded track between Riverton's Memorial Park and Burlington Pike Tuesday evening.

The quick response of the Riverton Fire Company prevented a miniature forest fire. A strong wind was blowing from the pike toward Riverton and only by the use of chemicals and brooms were the firemen able to get the conflagration under control. Due to the long dry spell the creek did not have enough water in it to be of any use to the fire fighters.

The long vines which entwined the trunks acted as tapers and ignited the tops of the trees. The firemen were also hampered in their efforts by the thick growth of underbrush and briars.

A revision in the hold-up insurance and robbery insurance for the tax collector was authorized effecting a $24 saving over a two-year period. The renewal of the policy was authorized.

To Check Speeding

The matter of speeding on the borough streets was brought up for discussion by the mayor who stated that most of the offenders were local people. He already had two complaints about local market house drivers for speeding on the streets.

It was decided to instruct Chief of Police C. Morris Beck to start a safety drive immediately.

Fire Chief Geddeys asked that a fire hydrant on Fourth street west of Market, be removed. He stated that the plug was not needed for fire protection. The matter was referred to the water committee with power to act.

Bridge Plans Fill-in

A letter from the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge Company was read in which the company stated they planned to fill in land near its approach and asked Palmyra to extend its drains. The matter was referred to the highway and sewer committees.

The bridge company plans to fill in the point of land between Market street and Temple Boulevard for a distance of two hundred feet back from the point.

This filled area will be used as a parking lot for employees' cars and for cars of people having business to transact at the administration building, thus keeping traffic lanes on the bridge clear of parked cars at all times.

A letter from the residents of Garfield avenue in the 200 block was read in which they complained of the road condition and asked that the road be repaired. The clerk was instructed to write and advise the residents that the condition would be remedied in the near future.

Councilman Flynn requested that a 60-candle-power lamp be placed on Fourth street between Morgan and Elm avenues. The motion passed.

Mr. Flynn also reported that the WPA park project would be finished in two or three weeks. He stated that he was now working on a maintenance program and would report at the next meeting.

Mayor Ward suggested the National Youth Administration project to aid at the park. Councilman Flynn stated that he was looking into possibilities of its application to Palmyra's park.

HEALTH HINTS

By Dr. Rachel Allemen Wilmeyer

Allergic Diseases

The word allergy is taken from a Greek word and means altered reaction to certain proteins.

Allergy is not a new condition, it has existed down through the ages. Many of us know people, who upon going out in the fields, return sneezing and with their eyes burning, etc., or of persons who after eating strawberries and sea foods, develop hives. These are not the only allergic reactions; the reaction develops largely upon the mode of entrance into the body of the sensitive allergen.

For example: (1) Pollens, dust or epithelium of animals will usually produce symptoms in the respiratory tract; such as asthma, rhinitis, pharyngitis, and hay fever.

(2) Foods usually produce such conditions as migraine, gastro-intestinal symptoms and hives.

It is estimated that from 20% to 25% of the population are sufferers from this form of disease. A very important question is "How do we become allergic?" The greatest percentage of allergic individuals give a family history of allergic disease in either parent or both.

Allergy follows the Mendelian law of inheritance. If a child is born of a union where either of the parents is allergic the child has better than a 50% chance to be a sufferer of this type of disease, but if both parents are allergic the child has better than a 75% chance and that will usually develop before the fifth year. Also people do acquire this condition usually following contact with a large amount of the allergen.

The amount of allergen necessary to produce the allergic reaction varies in the different cases. A person may be able to eat one piece of white bread without developing any symptoms, but if he eats two or three pieces, immediately he develops allergic symptoms.

Many asthma cases are allergic reactions. It may be that the asthmatic patient is sensitive to goose feathers. If he goes into a room where such feathers may be, he immediately develops an asthmatic attack. When this patient learns what is causing his attacks and makes an effort to stay away from the allergen, he will no longer suffer from asthma.

Not all cases of asthma are produced by an allergen.

Sometimes allergic cases have spontaneous cures. These are usually due to one of three things:

(1) The patient moves to a place where the allergen does not exist, or is not present in sufficient amounts to affect.

(2) The sensitiveness of the patient is not always permanent. Sometimes the allergen changes.

(3) The patient may still be sensitive, but may develop a tolerance of larger doses.

One of our city friends went back home the other day to see the old swimmin' hole of which he had such fond memories. He was much disappointed to find that the Government had taken it over as a power site.

RIVERTON BRANCH GFS 50 YEARS OLD

Miss May Slim Recites History of Past Fifty Years of G.F.S. Activities

The Riverton Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society celebrated their fiftieth anniversary on Saturday, May 23.

The exact date of the end of fifty years is July 8, 1936, but owing to the fact that the society disbanded during the summer months the celebration was held last week.

Miss May Slim gave the following account of the fifty years' activities: "On July 8, 1886, a group of ten girls and five women met on the lawn of Mrs. Thomas Roberts, which was on the bank of the river, it being in the afternoon with beautiful sunshine.

"The object of the meeting was to form a Girls' Friendly Society in Riverton.

"From time to time we met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Roberts and happy meetings they were. Mrs. Roberts, who was National President, was also Riverton's first branch secretary and remained in that office for twelve years. During this time Mrs. George W. B. Roberts was a most interesting associate, working and planning good times.

"One of the outstanding memories was when we planned and gave Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works. This is still most vivid in my mind. To see those helpless (or seeming to be) figures carried out, then wound up and do their stunts! If you have never seen these pretending dumb figures you do not realize what fun it must have been.

"Miss Sally Seckel followed as branch secretary, always trying to help others and doing so many things to make the girls happy. These meetings were held in the little Sunday School building then located back of the church on Howard street. Later years this building being the post office building on East Main street, until just a couple of months ago.

"Mrs. William L. James, the next branch secretary, with pleasing manner and cheery disposition, having her meetings in the parish house. Sewing was one of the principal doings. There was no sewing in the schools at that time and it proved to be interesting. An outstanding event was an 18th birthday surprise party for one of the members. Twenty-five were present, and each guest was presented with a prayer book and hymnal.

"In 1895 Mrs. James took several girls to the Holiday House at Cape May. (At this point Miss Slim showed pictures of the group leaving the Holiday House for the beach.)

The next to follow as branch secretary was Miss Elizabeth Campbell with lovable disposition. Some of the outstanding things at this time were darning, millinery and cooking classes. My, what fun! But better still, all the good things we had made, of course it was our good fortune to taste them. Mrs. William Hoffman at this time had a shirt waist class. (Miss Slim showed pictures of the shirt waist and cooking classes in action.)

"Mrs. John J. Reese followed Miss Campbell as branch secretary, just full of fun and such good suppers we had them frequently. We had a lot of fun during her time of office. The branch then gave $50 as a special memorial for Miss Sally Seckel, a scholarship at All Saints Mission at Boutoc. An altar embroidery class working on our Altar hangings was most successful.

"We also had a double shower for two of our faithful members. Mention might be made here of the G.F.S. spoons which have been given to several of our members when they were married.

"Then followed myself (Miss Slim) as branch president, the title being changed during my time, which was from 1918 to 1934, sixteen years. In 1918 the branch donated $133 to the Riverton Branch of the Red Cross, a few years later $51.50 to Washington National Center. Making samplers by learning sewing stitches seemed to be one of the outstanding things. Halloween, Christmas and New Year's parties

CINNAMINSON P.T.A.

Another happy week for the pupils and the members of the P.T.A. who were able to be present.

First a picnic in the woods opposite the school for the kindergarten and first grade; a box lunch, after all were seated and had given thanks for the good things provided by thoughtful mothers.

Then the exploring of part of the woods they had never wandered through before. There the boys discovered "wild horses" (these looked remarkably like crooked sticks), but seldom have ingeniously fashioned toys given more pleasure than these and a vivid imagination provided.

Then the very delightful county council meeting on Wednesday, interesting reports and talks.

The operetta on Thursday evening was remarkably well rendered. Lines perfect, music good, and scenery a credit to designers and makers.

Best of all, was the decorous behavior of nearly fifty performers, grouped for a chorus, when a fuse blew out leaving them in darkness for several minutes. Perfectly quiet, they were ready to proceed when the lights were once more working. Don't forget the annual P.T.A. picnic on the late afternoon and evening of June three. Bring a box lunch, meet socially, and enjoy the games.

BOAT SPLITS, MAN NEARLY DROWNED

Newark Lad, Contestant in Saturday's Marathon Rescued By Spectators

A drowning was narrowly averted last Saturday afternoon in the river off Riverton while the third annual Delaware River marathon was being run over a 65-mile course from Camden to Trenton and back.

When J. Lester Barton, one of the contestants, driving "Red Dust," 1-70, came opposite Riverton the bottom of the boat split wide open and he was obliged to jump for his life. He clung to the overturned boat until rescued and brought ashore by some of the spectators.

W. Maynard Bowen, who had just arrived on the scene in his trusty Ford "Susabella," took Barton to his home and fitted him out with dry clothing, after which he succeeded in locating Barton's buddy at the Faragut Sportsmen's Association at the foot of 25th street, Camden, the starting point of the race, and where he was waiting for Barton's return. The buddy came to Riverton for his hapless companion, and took him to his home in Newark. Barton builds racing motor boats and gliders.

When asked why the boat broke up, he replied, "the old crate was about done for anyway, and it was about time I was building myself another one."

Rosy cheeks should be painted from within.

were given, and three suppers during each working season. "Following me (Miss Slim) came Miss Rena D. Witcraft; sewing and handy work her specialties during her year in the branch, with an attractive Valentine supper.

"I feel special mention should be made of Mrs. Alfred Smith, who has been a most faithful associate since September 1889. Miss Ida Schmoele has also been such a willing and helpful associate since 1903. Mrs. William R. Hoffman, a charter member and now Diocesan Candidate Chairman, also her sister, Miss Edith Smith, have been earnest and faithful workers. So many, many memories of service and work the members and associates have had together. Time permits me to tell of only a few of them.

"The branch has never failed in sending its missionary allotment, also remembering the institutions at Christmas, Valentine and Easter; for many years sending $5 to the Evergreens at Bound Brook. On May 13th, this year, an admission service was held when eight were admitted as members and six as candidates.

"Our Rector, now branch president, gave a very appreciative, inspiring and helpful talk. The service ended with a pageant entitled "Modern Days."

County Doctors Ask For Resignation of Board of Managers

time medical supervision. The matter, he promised, would be thoroughly investigated by the board. Freeholder Lamson said, "It's very peculiar we continually get these requests when we are constantly striving to do the right thing."

No More FEA Funds
A letter was read from the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works stating that since Burlington county had financed its share of the Delanco Bridge project through the sale of bonds, the application of the board of freeholders for an additional grant had been rejected. The letter was signed by C. J. Vels, engineering examiner. The additional grant if it had been awarded would have brought the county $25,000 in additional money on the Delanco bridge.

Protests WPA Treatment
A letter from the Worker's Protective Association, Mount Holly Unit No. 1, was read by the clerk. The text of the letter follows:

Workers' Protective Association of Burlington County
Mount Holly, N. J.

Board of Chosen Freeholders, Burlington County, N. J. Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Mount Holly unit of the Workers' Protective Association of Burlington County, held on April 29, 1935, the association designated me to contact the Board of Freeholders and solicit the help of that body in the effort to secure the cooperation of the state administrator of the Works Progress Administration, Mr. William H. J. Ely, to investigate certain practices among the personnel of the WPA in Burlington County that we claim is unfair to the needy unemployed of this county.

We urgently request that the Board contact Mr. Ely and ask that the following charges made by the Workers' Protective Association be investigated:

1. That numerous single persons, who are in no way directly responsible for the maintenance of their respective families, and who, in some cases were not eligible for relief at the time they were assigned to the WPA, be discharged, and their places be filled with needy unemployed.
2. That any or all members of the WPA leisure time band in Burlington County, who are employed at various night clubs and road houses in the evenings, be discharged from WPA.
3. That the District Director of District 7, Works Progress Administration, explain why grocery clerks, painters, farmers and gas station attendants, were hired to direct both general construction and numerous road re-construction projects, while numerous competent unemployed were available for such work, and would have saved thousands of dollars to the taxpayers, while rendering efficient service at the same time.

Hoping that the Board will cooperate with the Workers' Protective Association in the effort to curb the unfair practices we have listed above, we are,

Respectfully,
Mount Holly Unit No. 1
Workers' Protective Assn. Burl. Co.
(Signed) Alvin D. Sweeney, Chairman,
(Signed) Earl A. Long,
Secretary.

Cites Personal Experience
Alvin Sweeney was present to speak in behalf of the association. He stated that certain practices of the WPA were unfair, that he wanted an investigation of conditions, and that his association stands ready to back up any of the claims made in its letter.

Sweeney stated he knew of other conditions that were not included in the letter to the freeholders, such as employing men who are not citizens of the United States, giving them foreman jobs, the unfair practice of foremen black-listing men for personal grievances.

He was foreman. He told how he had put a large crew of men to work on a road project. The project progressed rapidly, Sweeney stated, up to the point where trucks for hauling were needed. He telephoned headquarters in Trenton for trucks on two occasions, wrote two letters, made one personal visit, and on his last visit to ask for trucks, Sweeney said they ordered him out and told him to stay out. Shortly after that he was dropped from the WPA list.

Will Ask Ely
The freeholders passed a resolution instructing the clerk to write State Administrator William H. J. Ely asking him to investigate conditions in the WPA in Burlington county and that carbon copies of the letter be sent to the governor, state senator and assemblyman.

A letter was read from the Burlington County Unit of the New Jersey State Fire Chiefs' Association requesting the freeholders to enlarge the stand pipe on the Landon-Stone Memorial Bridge to six inches, with a four and one-half inch coupling. This, the letter stated would supply adequate water for fire engine pumps in the event of an emergency.

Permission was given the Atlantic City Electric Company to erect and maintain poles on the Chatsworth-New Gretna road for a distance of 28,310 feet beginning 1300 feet South of the Central Railroad of New Jersey and extending in the direction of New Gretna.

Fire Hazard
A letter from E. LeRoy Grant, city clerk of Beverly, was read in which the city wanted to know what the county was going to do about three properties in Beverly they reported some time ago as fire hazards. The letter stated that one of them had been demolished by the owner but that the other two were in worse condition than when reported.

The matter was referred to the solicitor, and the clerk instructed to write the Beverly City clerk stating that the original notice mentioned in their letter had never been received. Harry Wright, of Mount Holly, presented the board of freeholders with a water-color painting of the Court House in Mount Holly. The board accepted the gift and instructed the clerk to write the board's thanks to the donor.

County Must Fix Property

A letter from Palmyra Borough Council and signed by George Spencer, clerk, was read by Clarence Price, clerk of the board of freeholders. The letter stated that the board of freeholders as possessors of a lien on the property located at 342 West Broad street, were hereby notified to either put the property in a safe condition in accordance with the municipal building code within thirty days, or the borough would proceed to demolish it.

On the suggestion of Freeholder Lamson, the communication was ordered received and filed.

Freeholder Jones reported that bids for the Monmouth road would be opened on June 1st. The work is to be done by the New Jersey State Highway Department with federal funds.

Needs More Lumber
Freeholder Cook reported that his lumber supply is getting low and urged that something be done about it immediately.

It was decided to take up the matter of securing the release of state monies for such materials at the meeting of the Association of Chosen Freeholders to be held in Salem next Tuesday.

The Dorrance Tax Again
Freeholder Adams brought up the subject of the John T. Dorrance estate tax due New Jersey. He stated that the matter had been allowed to slide for the past five years and he felt that now is the time to do something about it. He suggested that the freeholders sit in on the surrogate's hearing to be held in June and force their hand in the situation. He said, "if we can get this money, we won't have to worry about highway funds, relief or anything for at least a year."

A resolution was passed authorizing the board to meet in special session should it be learned that the Dorrance hearing before the surrogate would take place before the 12th of June.

The following department bills were ordered paid: Highway and engineering, $12,193.39; public buildings, $9,300.56; bridges, $3,578.32; revenue and finance, $2,063.85; public affairs, $10,417.99.

THE MAN BEHIND THE FOREST FIRE

Paul Szeze Directs Fighters From Officer in Mount Holly. Five Burned to Death

Far from the scene of blackened and blazing forests, in a small office where telephones jangle and short-wave radio sputters, sits the man behind the scenes of the forest fire that has so far cost five lives and many injured and damaged property and wildlife to the extent of thousands of dollars.

Bent forward in his chair, phoning monotonously, receiving laconic reports and detailing forces out to fight the fires, Paul Szeze, of Mt.
Holly, is carrying on. His chief, Peter Crozer, chief of Division B of the State Forest Service, has been forced out of the running. Lack of food and sleep and general exhaustion has led him to a hospital bed a second time.

Since last Friday Szeze has had little sleep, though he has been relieved at times for a few hours.

The vicarious thrill of being near to, of being kind with, the workers out on the fire front, is experienced as one sits in his cluttered office, the headquarters for territory covering Burlington and Ocean counties, wherein the fires have raged.
This is true although there is nothing to suggest the hellfire beyond except the crackling of the radio and the skippy reports that come in.

Earlier yesterday Crozer arose from a sick bed at New Lisbon Hospital. He had been confined there after fighting the fire for some 48 hours with practically no sleep and food. But he arose again and appeared back in his office. Then his subordinates noted his condition and had Dr. Haldeman send him to Burlington County Hospital. Complete rest is ordered for him.

The hours pass by monotonously for the sleepy-eyed men in the office, just off Main street in the shadow of the spire of St. Andrew's Church.

A report comes in that fire has jumped Cedar Run. One hundred additional men are needed. Szeze details 200 CCC workers from Camp
Dix, some to relieve others.

Lakehurst fire tower reports smoke in Sector 32 or 33 south of it, with visibility limited to ten miles.
Cedar Bridge lookout, south of Lakehurst is called to spy for it, but the man there cannot see it. It is beyond his range of vision.

Later it is determined there is probably a fresh fire at Bamber Lake. Orders go out to have investigation made.

A big map on the far wall, but by numbered lines that run straight down to guide the men in location work shows where the fires have been in recent years. Red spots for last year's fires, disks and other colored portions for those of other years. There is a different color for each year.

From the office comes stories of courage in the face of the fiery column. One worker who came in related how a veteran ranger of the Bass River State Forest had saved eight CCC boys from being burned to death. He came upon them Monday night when they were trapped by their own backfire, and directing the panic-stricken group to a nearby swamp, and had them douse themselves in it and stay alive until the danger had passed.

Another man chose to tell of the death he had seen to wildlife. He relates how a rabbit, flaming like a rocket, was during through the underbrush, vainly trying to shake off its coat of fire, and how a herd of deer stood bewildered in the hot, smoky woods. There was one nearby that lay upon the ground scorched and spent.

Szeze's station, W3XBW, is called by the Trenton office. He takes the receiver off the hook. The red bulb flashes. The calling station wants the names of those burned to death.
Slowly, letter by letter, the names are read off.

"Edward P. Sullivan, New Brunswick.... John L. Le Salle, New Brunswick.... Stanley Carr, Ware-town.... Ira Morey, Stafford Forge
.... Kinsley White, Whitesville."
Then: "These are the five burned to death."
All were from Camp 55, Bass River Forest. The first three only were

BLOW BY BLOW DESCRIPTION

CCC youths, the others just plain fire fighters. Morey, son of a section fire chief, alone survived the sweep of the flames for a time. He

PAGEANT DEPICTS EARLY HISTORY OF RIVERTON

THE ANNUAL "PLAY DAY" of the Riverton Public School this year took the form of a pageant portraying Riverton from 1800 to 1900, entitled "Riverton of Yore." It was held at Memorial Park, Thursday evening, May 21.

The announcer for the evening was Thalberg King.

Sylvia Reynolds was crowned May Queen; Joan Hoagland, portrayed the month of May, the Queen's attendants were Mary Jane Decourcy and Anna Wolfshmidt; the courtiers, Arthur Gowell and James Brown; the court, seventh and eighth grade girls. The May Day dance was done by the glee club.

The announcer introduced the month of May with the following verse:

Month of May!
The May Queen sends you greeting
Her court will now display
Riverton's merry May Day.
In the glad old Riverton way,
The Month of May responded with these words:
Hail! Hail! Our May Queen fair!
We give you joy free from care.
We wish you happiness every day,
And crown you now—our Queen of May.

Long ago this beautiful park was part of a farm which knew not happy voices of children at play.

Winter is over, flowers are appearing, fields are sown and there is a prospect of many happy hours spent in this historic spot.

In the earliest days (1851) Riverton consisted of a small group of lots upon which lived the Clothiers, Biddles, Millers, Parrishes, McKims, and Whartons. These plots had been purchased from Joseph Lippincott and extended from the River Bank to Westfield. It is the happy children of these first homes that now take you back to live the scenes of Riverton of yore.

The program opened with the plotting of the farm land for the first settlers in the town of Riverton. The first grade children portrayed this section of the drama. Before the children did their part the announcer read the following:

Farmers

The first settlers came to Riverton in 1800 as farmers. In order that each one might possess a river front the farms were divided into narrow strips of land. There were four farms fronting on the Delaware, three in Riverton between the Palmyra line and the creek that runs into Dree's nurseries. This division of the land continued until 1850-1851, when the middle farm was sold to the Riverton Improvement Company.

Next came the developments of the Riverton Improvement Company. After the following descriptive narrative by the announcer, the kindergarten enacted the description.

Riverton Improvement Company

The Riverton Improvement Company was organized by Daniel L. Miller and six others with a view to lay out the district for summer residents. Six or eight houses were almost immediately built. An old farm, with some additions, was rented to Mr. John Seckel and family for a boarding house. This was the original "Lawn House" (known as the "Brick House"). Later the old "White House" was bought by the Seckels to afford additional room for summer boarders.

Methods of transportation in the newly organized town came next. The first method of transportation was the river steamers. The steamboat "Wave" was made by the Kindergarten children. A near tragedy was averted when the paddle wheel came off during its progress down the river, but one of the boys picked it up and returned it to its original place. The steamboat transportation was described as follows:

Steamboat Transportation

In order to secure better and more convenient means of transportation, the citizens got together and built a wharf. They rented the steamboat, "Wave," and a seventy-foot side-wheeler, which made several trips to and from the city daily. At this time, the stone wall along the river was built. About ten years later there was built and operated the "Rancocas," which was run in connection with the "Barclay," owned by a man of the same name living in Rancocas.

The first church service came next in the development of the town. The Rev. Wells referred to in the following text was portrayed by Frank Mathews. The children of the third grade took part in the church service.

Church Service

The fourth church service took place the Fourth Sunday in Advent, December 23, 1855, at 7:30 p.m. in the "White House" which was then unoccupied. Great was the delight of the few faithful church people. They invited the farmers and their helpers to the service. The room was prepared with great care; and there was an improvised pulpit. To call the people to worship, the bell of the steamboat, "Wave," was rung. Dr. Weld came from Moorestown and preached the text, "The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Next came the first railroad train through Riverton. The fourth grade children took the part of the passenger train and crew. The inauguration of the train was given in the following words:

Railroad Transportation

The Camden Amboy Railroad was chartered in 1830. Robert L. Stevens, the first president of the railroad, purchased the first locomotive to run in Jersey in 1831. It was the "John Bull" type made in England. It hauled three omnibus bodies mounted on a single truck. In 1834, the track was completed, and passengers were conveyed to within eleven miles of Camden.

The U. S. Gazette of April 27, 1836, printed the following article: "Residents of Philadelphia and New York by the new arrangements of the Camden Amboy, and Trenton R.R. can now proceed to either city, remain two or three hours and return to their families by 11:00 p.m. Riverton station was built in 1860. Then came the boat races for which Riverton has always been famous. The second grade children acted as skipper and crew for the four sailboats. The description of the organization of the Riverton Yacht Club and its activities read as follows:

Boat Races

The Riverton Yacht Club, the ninth oldest in the U. S., was organized July 1, 1865, by a number of yachtsmen who had boats on the river and desired the advantages of a club.

The first boats were of the cat boat class and about sixteen feet long. In 1893 a fleet of fifteen mosquito boats were introduced and for a time served as an interesting diversion. Every Saturday and on all holidays the people of the town would watch the races.

Boat racing was always a leading event of the Fourth of July celebration. The Yacht Club of Beverly would be invited for that day and Riverton would be invited to the Beverly Labor Day celebration.

The old school, which at one time stood on Elm avenue, opposite the railroad tracks, was the next on the program. The sixth grade pupils re-enacted those first school days. A most inopportune gust of wind came along just before school opened and blew down the building. This was soon righted and things progressed according to schedule. The bell used in the school scene was loaned by Miss Elsie Evald, first-teacher. She is not sure where it originally came from but knows that it was the one used in this first school to call the children to class.

School

The first place in which school was held in this vicinity was a little brick building which stood along the railroad opposite what is now Elm avenue. When the railroad was built in 1833 this building was moved, brick by brick, to a nearby lot donated by Elias Morgan. This school was conducted for children living in the territory now occupied by Riverton, Palmyra, and part of Cinnaminson township.

One of the most famous and lucrative industries in Riverton in those early days was shad fishing. The fifth graders portrayed the starting of this industry, the residents going to the river to await the bringing in of the day's haul. In those days a person could buy enough fish for a whole meal for the price of one pound today. The descriptive material which went with this act was as follows:

Shad Fishing

One of the picturesque features of Riverton was the Faunce shad fishery which was started over seventy-five years ago. The hauls were made in great nets, laid by boats and drawn ashore by the horse-power capstan, which was placed on the bank on what was at that time the Cook property. (Now the Miss Helen Woolman property.)

The organization of the Riverton Porch Club in 1890 was enacted by the girls of the fourth grade. The little girls in their old-fashioned costumes borrowed from grandmothers and great-grandmothers, capably carried off this first meeting of the mothers of the town. The announcer gave the following description which went along with this act.

Porch Club

The Porch Club, of Riverton, was first formed as a reading circle for the review of current books in the early spring of 1890. Mrs. Edwin C. Grice was the first president, and in 1895 it was decided to frame a constitution and by-laws.

At all times the Club has taken a keen interest in the spiritual, moral, and material uplift of the community.

Recreational activities in Riverton were enacted by the boys of the seventh and eighth grade. Football was the first organized sport played on Riverton's Memorial Park. Following the portrayal of football came, basketball, hockey, baseball, skiing, sledding, ice skating, swimming, tub races, track, etc.

Recreation

From those early summer resort beginnings Riverton's sport activities have grown with those of the nation. With few exceptions Riverton has been a representative in every known American sport. A landmark in the development of Riverton recreation was the organization of the Riverton Country Club in 1900. The latest and most significant landmark in the recreational development of Riverton was the acquisition of this Memorial Park in 1919.

Retiring President Urges Economy Ahead of Relief Levy

Garret A. Denise, president of the Central National Bank, Freehold, N. J., was elected president of the New Jersey Bankers Association at the closing session of its convention in Atlantic City, Saturday.

"Everybody's money is nobody's money, and the people who represent us in public office spend it in that spirit," Leslie G. McDouall, of Newark, retiring president of the Association, charged.

"There has been entirely too much looking to Santa Claus in this relief business. It is time that local communities shared more of their local burdens. They will find it much harder to spend their own money than what they obtained from the State or Uncle Sam."

McDouall reiterated his insistence upon "genuine economy in New Jersey government before attempting to levy additional taxes for relief."

McDouall maintained that "there is no need in banking so important as to prevent another scourge of excessive bank chartering."

E. L. Williams, president of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company, Riverton and Howard B. Conover, treasurer, attended the convention.

Following all these various enactments of the organization of Riverton was the recessional when the May Queen led her court off the park.

RED CROSS LIFE SAVING PROGRAM

Fifteen Service Medals Awarded at Moorestown Community House, May 20

The life-saving program for the season was opened in Burlington county Wednesday night, May 20, under the direction of Clifford W. Ergood, chairman of the life-saving committee, with a meeting and demonstration at the Moorestown Community House. Life saving examiners, senior life savers and members of the life saving committee were in attendance. One of the features of the meeting was the awarding of 15 service medals for 500 hours of volunteer service, performed in a period of five years. These were presented by Mrs. Guy Nelson, chairman of the county chapter to the following: Mrs. Sara MacComber, New Lisbon; Charles Merris, Jr., Riverside; James Pinto, Robert and William Cameron, Vernon E. Dickerson, Robert Fairhell, Henry Hoyt, Ernest Ingling and Lawrence Hirl, Burlington; Charles Wright, Jr., Moorestown; Edward Ruhlman, Westmont; Katherine Gillam, Howard Barnes and Palmer Sharp, Mt. Holly.

The life saving program has been carried on for eight years in Burlington county. During that time Mrs. Frank Schuyler, of Florence, has been treasurer. Funds for the work are largely secured by contributions from the branches and service organizations. Some men interested in swimming places also contribute. More funds will enable the work to be carried on for longer time during the summer.

Joseph Shields, water safety man for the Camden County Chapter, gave a demonstration in the pool of the use of the surf board in rescue work. It is much quicker and safer than a canoe. Mr. Shields is also an instructor at the National Aquatic School, Annapolis, Md., June 17-27. New Deal Funds in 3 Years exceed spending of 26 Presidents in 124 Years

APPROPRIATIONS
BILLION DOLLARS

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has been given more money to spend in three years than 26 Presidents spent in 124 years, an orgy made possible only through submissive New Deal majorities in the Congress. Out of this Congressional surrender have come the dog pound with shower baths; the Florida ship canal; the "Quoddy" power idea, and other boondoggling devices quite as costly and of as doubtful value. One half of these billions have been borrowed. They will have to be repaid. Children yet unborn will groan under the tax load inherited from the New Deal and its Brain Trust.
