SENIOR PLAY TO BE GIVEN AGAIN

"Death Takes a Holiday" Is Well Received; Repeat Show Saturday

The overwhelming popularity of the Senior class play at Palmyra High School has brought numerous requests for a repeat performance and this will be held on Saturday, April 9.

The outstanding performance of Earl Rowe as Prince Sirki and as "Death" won local acclaim last week as the outstanding dramatic piece of this and many past years.

The reader is no doubt familiar with Death's three day holiday. During this time he visits the Lambert villa as a human is the guise of one Prince Sirki.

At no time has the local dramatic group tried such a high calibred play nor in the opinion of many, have they done anything in recent years so successfully.

Rowe is supported very effectively by the other members of the cast.

Outstanding Performances

Outstanding performances were rendered by David Gould as Duke Lambert, Barbara Symon as Grazia, Betty Chambers as Rhoda Fenton, Betty Parker as Alda. George Bonasal gave very adequate support in the role of Baron Cesarea. Other characters were Frank Applegate as the accented English dandy, Vetal Mitchell as Major Whitehead, Sophie DeVinney as Cora.

Long Run in N. Y.

Corrado, the hero opposite Grazia was very effectively performed by William Meyers, while Marie Frank interpreted the part of the Princess of San Luca with Helen Wood as the elderly Duchess Stephanie.

The play ran for months in New York and has been adapted to motion pictures.

The high school promises high class entertainment—amateur work bordering on the professional. The play bids fair to place the characters in the town's gallery of outstanding players.

The cast dedicates for your enjoyment, this much-sought repeat performance Saturday, April 9, at 8.15 p.m.

Another Crash On River Road

Another crash occurred on River road, near Taylors lane, shortly after 4 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, but fortunately no injuries resulted.

A light rain was falling at the time and the highway was in its usual dangerous condition, when wet, as the Ford sedan driven by James P. Kiel, 307 Horace avenue, Palmyra, got out of control.

The machine, which was going west, skidded and left the highway, turning over several times in its erratic course. It finally came to rest off the road in Taylors apple orchard and Mr. Kiel climbed out uninjured.

The top of the car was battered and several windows broken, but safety glass did much in preventing harm to the driver.

Chief George Dorworth, of the Cinnaminson police conducted an investigation and Officer John Carhart, of Riverton also went to the scene to render assistance.

MAYFIELD HEADS LOCAL ROTARIANS

Unanimously adopting the slate presented by the nominating committee, consisting of E. Newbold Cooper, chairman, Rev. George Lockett and P. Conner Hulse, the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club recently held its annual election for the club year beginning July 1, 1938.

Clifton P. Mayfield, will succeed A. E. Hargett as president of the organization, with Nathan Lane as vice president, Joseph Seel as secretary and Ross E. Mattis as treasurer. Two new directors were also elected, these being Charles Stickney and Robert G. Adams.

BOARD PASSES BOND ISSUE 4-1

Freeholder Albert C. Jones Changes Former Vote to End Stalemate

At a special meeting held on Tuesday afternoon of this week, the Burlington County Board of Freeholders voted 4-1 in favor of the much-discussed $251,080 bond issue to provide funds for the erection of a new almshouse.

Passage of the question was made possible when Freeholder Albert C. Jones reversed his former stand and voted for the proposal. Palmer L. Adams remained adamant to the last and cast the only ballot in the negative.

Jones' Statement

Before voting on the question, Mr. Jones stated that he still felt that the almshouse should have been rebuilt from cash surpluses, rather than by a bond issue.

He said, however, that the grand jury had asserted the county wards were being housed in a firetrap and that he could not conscientiously refuse to give his support to the construction of a modern building as a home for the poor of the county.

Mr. Jones went on to say that he had been advised legally regarding the matter and he had been informed the Board might be held guilty of malfeasance in office, unless a proper building were provided.

He concluded by saying that he was going along with the majority because he felt it was the duty of the board to provide an adequate almshouse and that criminal prosecution might result upon failure to do so.

Contracts Awarded

Following the vote on the question contracts for the various construction items were awarded to the low bidders on the basis of proposals submitted on February 19.

The board also voted to renew the lease on the Birmingham Inn on a month to month basis, with a 30-day removal notice, in the event other temporary quarters were found before the new building is completed.

By its decision on Tuesday, the board finally settled a controversy which has lasted many months.

Deadlock Broken

Until Mr. Jones joined with Freeholders Lamon, Church and Stout, the situation was at an absolute deadlock, in that a 4-1 vote was necessary before a bond issue could be authorized. As Freeholder Adams gave no indication of changing his decision, Mr. Jones became the key man on the question.

With the contracts awarded, construction work will probably start in the near future and this will provide jobs for a number of craftsmen throughout the county.

TWO FIRES ON SUNDAY MORNING

Cinnaminson House Destroyed, Off New Albany Road; Other in Parry

Firemen responded to two alarms in Cinnaminson township, on Sunday morning, the first being for a blaze which eventually destroyed the home occupied by Christian Morgan 1500 yards off the New Albany road, on Parry road, shortly after eight o'clock.

Three companies, Riverton, Parry and East Riverton went into action at this blaze, Riverton being summoned when the hose of the others failed to reach the fire, three additional lengths being needed.

Pump from Stream

The structure was located at some distance to the east of the New Albany road and it was necessary to pump water from a small stream hundreds of yards away. By the time water was available the house was doomed and only small parts of the framework were left standing.

The structure was owned by Herbert Quander, Church street, Moorestown.

The fire was attributed to an overheated chimney.

Second Blaze

The second fire started about an hour later, just as the Riverton apparatus was returning to the station from the Parry road blaze. Both other companies, at this time, were at the scene of the first fire and Mrs. George Dorworth, who received the alarm, promptly relayed it to the local company which made a fast run to the location, 1204 Parry avenue, where the roof of the residence of George Rose was on fire.

A chemical line was employed to extinguish the flames and damage was confined to a small portion of the roof.

A high wind was blowing at the time both alarms were turned in.

MRS. C. H. YOST RENDERS REPORT

Attend Meeting of State Federation of District Education Boards

Mrs. Charles H. Yost, vice president of the Riverton Board of Education, reported at the meeting of that body on Monday night, on her attendance at the meeting of the State Federation of District Boards of Education in Trenton. Mrs. Yost was accompanied by Mrs. David Little, fellow board member.

May Day, this year, will be held on May 24 at Memorial Park, with May 25 as rain date.

June 15 was selected as the date for closing exercises of the eighth grade.

Miss Staman's Report

Our attendance has again been lowered by current epidemics of measles, cold, and whooping cough, and quarantine. There have been nineteen new cases of measles this month, and six cases of whooping cough have been reported. We are now struggling to keep cases of whooping cough down to the minimum number.

A note to parents requesting them to keep children at home who had any cold whatever has helped ease the anxiety. Thirty-nine were examined by the school physician, twenty-three of whom we excluded. There has been an attendance of thirty-six at dental clinics.

The eighth grade Domestic Science class is again planning to entertain the Board of Education and have set May 11 as the date if that date is convenient to all members.

URGENTLY NEEDED

The Cinnaminson Home has great need of a filing cabinet. A gift will be very much appreciated.

He plans to resume his studies at Palmyra High School some time this week.

Something of a record is believed to have been established locally, on Wednesday morning of this week, when there was a light snowfall.

Although flakes fell for a considerable period the downfall amounted to little. The temperature hovered around the freezing mark following a sharp drop Tuesday evening.

WORK NEAR SITE PUMPING STATION

With much of the work on the Palmyra sewer extension project completed on the south side of the railroad, workmen are now engaged in digging the deep ditch for the pipes which will lead into the pumping station that will be erected in connection with the new lines.

The site of this station is at the corner of New Jersey avenue on the south side of Broad street. The sewer will go under Pennsylvania tracks near this point.

FATHER OF GOLF ROTARY SPEAKER

Alexander H. Findlay, Guest of Local Club; Has Played All Over World

Probably no one identified with a field of sport has ever listed so distinguished a group of celebrities among his friends as Alexander H. Findlay, known the world over as "the father of golf in America." Non-golfers, as well as golfers, in the membership of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club were keenly interested in the reminiscences of this leading exponent of the Scotch game at the last meeting.

Mr. Findlay, a Scot by birth, made his reputation as a youth in the old country when he lowered the long established score of 74 by two strokes, winning a championship tournament, with the first 72 in the 400 year history of the game, by holing a final 30 yard putt for an eagle three.

First Course in '87

Coming to America to manage a great ranch owned by his father, he was unable to find a golfer in any of the large cities.

Subsequently, there were a few scattered clubs formed but no course was developed until April 4, 1887, when he laid out a course on his ranch, and believe it or not, made the game popular with cowboys and Indians alike.

Decries War

He has played 2250 courses and belonged to 225 clubs all over the world in the sixty-one years of his golfing experience. During this long period he has been the playmate confidant of kings and presidents and notables in every walk of life—has won every honor the game affords.

Exponent of the clean life, Mr. Findlay pledged himself to his father before he left for America:

Never to break an appointment; Always to follow the Golden Rule; Never to borrow; Never to use tobacco; Never to taste liquor.

Binding the contract by accepting a ring from his father which he

Large Ensemble

There will also be a large ensemble of trumpets and trombones who will play several chorales, as well as accompany the singers. Rev. Harke states that he can use more instruments, especially tenor and bass trombones. If interested get in touch with the pastor, by calling Riverton 697-W.

Music from the singing tower will begin at 4:15 a.m. The large illuminated cross will again herald forth the coming services. This is the sixth program held on beautiful Lakeview Memorial Park, situated on Burlington Pike, U. S. Route 25. The service was inaugurated in 1933, and has drawn large crowds of worshippers every year.

Cronin was reviewed and a critical outline of the book by Prof. Lamont of Rutgers College was read by Mrs. Howard Coe. Other worth-while current books were discussed and suggested for reading.

On Tuesday, April 12th, "Flower Arrangements" by Miss Ruth Smith will be presented at 2:30 o'clock.

While returning from the shore last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Yearly and son, Albert, witnessed an automobile accident in which Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gray, of 607 Bridgeboro street, Riverside, were injured. They are the parents of Leon Gray, Harrison street, Riverton.

The mishap occurred on S-40, near Manahawkin. Just after passing a car, Albert, who was driving, glanced into the mirror and saw the car behind him overturn. Quickly turning around, the Yearlys found the occupants jammed in the machine. With the help of other motorists, Mr. Yearly and his son extricated the Grays and brought them to their home in Riverside, where they were treated by Dr. Walter W. Zwick.

Mrs. Gray was badly bruised and cut on one ankle, while Mr. Gray suffered minor lacerations and bruises.

The accident was caused by the blowing out of a rear tire.

We Would Like to Plant a Thought

... right at the season of the year when planting is in order. Spring is here and summer is not far away. These two seasons bring week-end motor trips, vacation days and longer periods when your home is left unoccupied.

The thought we want to plant is this . . . why not rent a safety deposit box right now and transfer all of your valuables and valuable papers before this season of abnormal exposure starts. You will then be free to leave your property and get the most in care-free enjoyment of your leisure time.

It costs but $2.50 per year.

TRAFFIC DEATHS LOWER THUS FAR

Fatalities Decrease 27 Per Cent
As Compared With the 1937 Period

Despite better driving weather which is conducive to high accident frequency, and in the face of a one and one-half per cent increase in motor vehicle registration, automobile traffic fatalities decreased 27 per cent and total accidents 9.7 per cent in New Jersey during the first two months of the year. Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced this week.

Deaths during this period numbered 131, which was 49 fewer than in the corresponding months of last year while the 4,768 accidents reported represents a falling off of approximately 500 collisions.

Grand Start

"It is a grand start for 1938 and whether the downward trend continues throughout the rest of the year, depends entirely on the cooperation of the driving public and pedestrians," said the Commissioner.

"Winter months have fewer accidents and casualties than other seasons of the year for several reasons," he added. "Foremost is the weather which keeps many cars off the highways. Second is that even drivers recklessly inclined slacken speed when the pavement is covered with ice or snow; and third is the fact that many owners put off registering their cars with the motor vehicle department (for economical and other reasons) until the spring or summer months. These three elements—the weather, road conditions and fewer registered vehicles—usually give January and February the best safety records of the year."

Little Snow

"The past season saw none of these conditions usually prevalent in other winters. With few exceptions there was fair weather daily, very few days of ice and snow covered pavement and car registration was higher than last year. Under these conditions, the record shows that drivers were safer and were operating safer cars as the result of motor vehicle inspection in January and February than heretofore."

STRUCK BY CAR ON LOCAL PIKE

Ellsworth Meyers, 16, of 207 Market street, Palmyra, was rushed to West Jersey Hospital, Camden, early Saturday morning after being struck by a car near Five Points, on the Burlington Pike.

Meyers has a fractured foot, together with numerous lacerations and bruises.

The machine which hit the youth was driven by Albert Balassaitis, 21, of Woodrow avenue, Mt. Ephraim, who rushed the victim to the hospital.

He was given a hearing on Monday night of this week before Recorder Cecil Bowers.

Chief George Dorworth made an investigation of the accident.

CHARLES LEE BLACK

has been named by the trustees of the YMCA Camps at Medford, as the director of Ockanickon for the coming summer.

Mr. Black was born in California and is a graduate of Occidental College. He came east for three years graduate study in religious education during which time he had varied and extensive field work in a number of churches and settlements in and near New York City.

Mr. Black has done YMCA work in a Community Association in California. He has served as a counselor at the New York City and Brooklyn YMCA Camps. For two summers he had charge of the program at Camp Madison. He also spent two summers as a counselor at Camp Robinson Crusoe.

Mr. Black's most recent camping experience was that of Director of Camp Jane Addams, at the close of which, in 1937, he and his wife retired to a cottage on Schooley Mountain near Hackettstown, to begin writing a book on their camping experiences.

Mr. Black officially took up his duties in preparation for the coming season the fourth of April. His work in this connection will take him to the four counties which are united in Ockanickon, Burlington, Camden, Gloucester and Monmouth.

COMMENT

The cost of printing government documents, is estimated to be about $20,000,000 per year, according to a recent report. The cost of transmitting government mail, under the franking privilege to about $34,000,000 per year.

Sad, but true, the reconciliation and love fest of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders, as reported in a county newspaper last week proved to be just another April first story.

Judging from the number of accidents, River road, between Riverton and Riverside, is one of the most treacherous highways in the state, during wet weather. Careless driving, under such conditions, is almost certain to result in a smashup.

Clean-up For Safety

Spring clean-up week, which is an annual observance in thousands of American communities and should be in all of them, is in the offing. The week was started primarily as a beautifying movement—old shacks are torn down, vacant lots are cleaned of debris, homes are painted, grass-grown fields are cut and the harvest burned. It's amazing how little is needed in many cases to change a squalid street to one that is pleasant and charming to the eye.

Furthermore, something other than a better looking town results from a clean-up week that is loyally and enthusiastically supported by all citizens. For a sound, thorough clean-up process is one of the best possible ways of getting rid of fire hazards. A town which rids itself of old, unused buildings, and which does away with litter and grass-ridden lots, becomes a far safer place in which to live and work.

Clean-up week should not stop at exteriors. As the National Board of Fire Underwriters points out, everyone should go through his home inside as well as out in search of fire dangers. A congested attic or basement, filled with ancient magazines and broken furniture and clothes that will never be used again, is the perfect starting place for a blaze. Frayed or amateurishly repaired light cords, improperly stored inflammable liquids, dirty or worn heating units—from such things as these come fires that destroy hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property and thousands of lives.

Every town should make this year's clean-up week the most thorough in its history. It's an easy job, if everyone does his bit to help. And it will pay big dividends, in beauty, safety and cash.

More Enforcement

State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Magee and State Police Superintendent Kimberling both have advised the Legislature that more stringent enforcement of present laws is needed to curtail traffic accidents. Both have submitted requests for more officers to patrol the highways.

Compared to other states, Commissioner Magee informs the Legislature, New Jersey "gives woefully inadequate protection to the traveling public. On the basis of registration, we have one inspector for every 10,500 vehicles while a neighboring state has one for every 1,450. Adequate patrols operating 24 hours a day positively will reduce accidents."

Superintendent Kimberling repeatedly has pointed out that nothing will hold back the accelerator foot of a motorist as effectively as the presence of uniformed officers on the highways. Highway accidents, he believes, will decrease proportionately with increases in the number of law enforcement officers on the highways.

The request for more officers merits the most serious consideration.

CHOIR TO GIVE EASTER CANTATA

At 7.45 o'clock on Palm Sunday evening, April 10th, the choir of the Epworth M. E. Church of Palmyra, will present J. H. Maunders' sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary."

The music describes the events of the last tragic days in the earthly life of Christ leading up to his death on the Cross. It offers some particularly fine choral opportunities to the augmented choir group which will be assisted by the following soloists: Howard Haug, tenor; Elwood Johnson, bass; Thalberg King, bass.

"Olivet to Calvary" will be presented under the direction of Eric Warnick, choirmaster; Mrs. Rachel Lord, organist.

Several Available

Included in the pasture personnel we find such heavy ax wielders as Beddow, Conway, Easley, B. Anderson and Sloane.

Although Manager Anderson has designated the preferred positions for his cast a number of the men can play equally well at other stations and therein lies much of the strength of the club.

All in all, we predict that Broadway will be a hard team to stop, and unless the unexpected happens, the first half should find them well up in the first division, if not in the sunburst.

GOLF TEAM HAS PRACTICE HERE

Through the cooperation of the Riverton Golf Club and Walter P. Brickley, local pro, the Palmyra High School golf team is being afforded a fine opportunity of getting into first class shape for the coming season.

The members of the squad have held several practice sessions on the local course and have been receiving expert instruction from Mr. Brickley, who has spent much time in improving the game of the various players.

THERE ARE SOME "IFS"

The 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution found a lot of folks seeking to undermine it. But the same was true at the time the Constitution was adopted. If we are as wise and patriotic as were our forefathers then these subversive attacks will fail. If we have lost our good judgment then we will probably lose constitutional government and deserve our loss.

SACRED HEART CARD PARTY

The members of the Church of the Sacred Heart will hold their annual card party on Friday, April 22, at the school hall on Linden avenue above Fourth street, Riverton.

Elaborate preparations have been made by a large committee appointed by Father Welsh. This group is headed by Edward C. Barr, as chairman.

All the organizations of the parish are coordinating their efforts to make this the outstanding event of the season. Pinchle, bridge, five hundred and other games will be played in the spacious hall. The donation will be 50 cents.

Mr. Barr states that excellent progress is being made in gathering an outstanding array of prizes for the affair.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S EPWORTH LEAGUE

Louis Koppenhoefer will be the speaker this Sunday in the Young People's Epworth League meeting at 7 o'clock.

A feature of the service will be a musical treat, with Eileen Rae and her violin.

Last Sunday the attendance reached 28 and we would like, this Sunday, to bring it up to 35. Bring a friend and do your part.

Those who plan to attend the District Rally at Rancocas, Saturday, should get in touch with J. Edmund Turnock, Jr., for transportation. Meet at the church at 3.30.

ENTERTAINMENT AT A. M. E. CHURCH

A B. and L. project entertainment featuring "The Brown Bomber and His Blushing Bride" will be held in the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, Penn street, Riverton, on Thursday evening, April 21.

Miss Lydia Brown is sponsor of the evening's program and Rev. Alexander White is pastor of the church.

BROADWAY WILL BE STRONG TEAM

Manager Anderson Has Fine Array of Talent Ready For Season

Now that the registration has been completed in the Memorial Park Softball League for the coming season, The New Era will present a weekly analysis of the various teams, in order to give the fans a pre-season view of the outfits that will soon clash for the coveted championship.

Broadway has been selected first, not through any prejudice, but simply because Manager Bill Anderson has his complete roster available.

Strong Aggregation

On paper, the Movie Men appear to be strong in all departments, Colonel Jake Ruppert Anderson having scoured local communities for a high-priced array of ball tossers.

His mound staff consists of the veterans Foulke and Gonteski, with the manager himself declaring that he expects to fill in on the mound, if needed.

Buchholz and Bartley will assume the backstop chores, Sonny Wright being no longer eligible, now that he has become loop president.

Classy Infield

Paul Burke, former Burke & Easley mentor, will hold down the hot corner, "Clayt Weikman, always a flashy performer is slated to occupy the berth at short.

At second, Anderson has Baker and Cahill eager for action. The initial hassock will be taken care of by Vince Daly, a veteran of many campaigns.

As always, the guardians of the outer gardens have been chosen because of the hard hitting and ability to cover ground.

CHEWACKI GETS ANOTHER CHANCE

Chief Chewacki, the big beefy redskin mauler from Oklahoma, who has been given another chance to make good when he pairs off with Danno O'Mahony, Ireland's favorite son and former world's champion, in the main bout of Thursday's wrestling bill in the Camden Armory.

The Oklahoma fell down last week in the Camden drubbing, but blames no one but himself. He had a plan of battle that he figured would outsmart Ernie Dusek, but judging from the results, his plan just didn't work.

This should be the most gruesome battle that Danno has ever encountered since his arrival in this country. The Indian is out to get revenge and will pick his spite on the former champion.

This bout is to be settled by the one fall route with no time limit attached and will follow four scraps which have the earmarks of being plenty hot from start to finish.

Other Bouts

Dynamite Joe Cox, hefty Missourian will face an arch rival in Joe Dusek, of Nebraska, in the semi-windup of 30 minutes. Cox, a pet hate of the Dusek clan should make it interesting for Sir Joseph. Al Bisignano, popular Italian from Des Moines, will return for another victory, when he meets Charley Strack in the third fray. Bibber McCoy collides with Len Macaluso in the second and Lee Yhe Wing, Oriental grappler, will make his debut in the curtain raiser against Harry Finkelstein, of Texas. Each of these bouts are also of 30 minute duration.

WINS MEDAL AT STAMP EXHIBIT

C. R. Beegle, of Thomas avenue, Riverton, was awarded one of the twelve silver medals which were presented at the Atlantic City Stamp Show, held last week.

Mr. Beegle received this honor for his magnificent exhibit of 19th century United States stamps.

Illinois is the third most populous state in the Union.

WILL ENTER TEAM IN COUNTY LOOP

According to an announcement made on Monday night of this week, Riverton will enter a team in the Burlington County Softball League, which is composed of eight teams. The local players were represented at a meeting held in Burlington last week by Joseph Yearly and E. M. Carhart, Jr.

Other entries include: Medford, Florence, Burlington, Mt. Holly, Beverly, Maple Shade and Pemberton.

A meeting will be held in the Riverton Fire House next Monday evening and, at this time each manager in the local softball league will submit the names of two or three players who desire to play on the county team. Each entry is entitled to a roster of 20 men.

The tentative schedule calls for one game a week, the team playing alternate contests on home terrain.

TROUT SEASON TO OPEN APRIL 15

Well stocked streams and good fishing conditions were predicted by George C. Warren, Jr., of Summit, president of the State Fish and Game Commission, for the opening of New Jersey's trout season on April 15, when thousands of rod and reel sportsmen will again take to the outdoors to enjoy their favorite sport.

Tens of thousands of brook, brown and rainbow trout are being poured into every public trout stream in New Jersey by game wardens from huge, specially-designed iced tank trucks loaded at the world famous Hackettstown Fish Hatchery. The re-stocking program ordered by the State Fish and Game Commission got underway on March 1 and since that time approximately 5000 trout a day have been liberated with plans to increase the amount to 10,000 daily as the opening of the season approaches.

The trout season will continue from April 15 to July 15. The season will again be opened from September 1 to 30. The New Jersey law limits the daily catch of the individual angler to ten trout. It is illegal to take trout less than seven inches in length.

GROWERS WATCH IRRIGATION PLAN

Use of orchard terraces for irrigation as well as erosion control, will be attempted for the first time in the northeastern United States soon in a newly-planted peach orchard on the Red Top Hill farm of Byron Roberts, near Moorestown.

Water pumped from Pennsauken creek will flow through irrigation channels formed by terraces on grade which are also intended to arrest erosion. The experiment has been arranged as a Soil Conservation Service demonstration, and will be supervised by Dr. H. C. Lint, manager of the agency's Moorestown project.

The orchard, nine acres in extent, was planted last year. Instead of planting the trees in straight rows, Roberts set them in level lines which curve around the contour of a field which slopes gently to the creek. In each tree row, small terraces will be thrown up by cultivation, being started simply as back furrows the first year.

Orchardists in this vicinity are watching the new "erosion-proof" irrigation system with particular interest because Roberts also has an older established orchard near the new planting and intends to use his pumping equipment to spread water there as well. This orchard has no terrace system to guide the water and prevent erosion, and the trees are in straight rows, so that a good contrast will be shown between old and new.

ELECTRICAL SAFEGUARDS

Electricity is an indispensable necessity for the modern home. It is a servant so familiar that it seldom is treated with the respect it deserves. If not properly safeguarded, however, it offers certain hazards to life and property that may have serious results. It will pay you to observe the following suggestions by the New Jersey Public Utility Information Committee.

Have lightning arrestors on all radio sets and do not have radio aerials near or under high power

NATIONAL SCHOOL ESSAY CONTEST

"Wings Across America" Is Subject; In Connection Air Mail Week

"Wings Across America" is the subject of a nation wide school essay contest announced this week by John F. Sinnott, Jr., state chairman, who has just received the Rules and Regulations governing this contest from Paul R. Younts, executive chairman. The essays are to be based on the progress, dependability and future possibilities of this method of modern communication.

State Chairman Sinnott is sending every post office in New Jersey a supply of the Rules and Regulations governing this contest which will, without doubt, create more interest in aviation than has ever before been known in the nation, as every high school pupil in America has an even chance to win one of more than a hundred valuable prizes, including some fifty air plane trips to Washington, Hollywood or Miami.

Who Are Eligible

Mr. Sinnott states that every high school pupil in New Jersey are not only eligible to enter this contest but are urged to do so. The prizes are certainly worth trying for. Here are the prizes: There will be two prizes for some bright boy or girl in every state in the Union. The first state prize will be an airplane trip from the winner's nearest airport to Washington and return. The second state prize will be a trophy to be presented by the New Jersey Air Mail Week Campaign Committee.

The Grand Prizes

The essays of pupils winning a trip to Washington and return will be entered in a National contest in which the winner will be given an airplane trip with expenses paid for five days from Washington to Hollywood for those living east of the Mississippi river (or to Miami if the winner lives west of the Mississippi river). The second National prize will be a trophy, while the third National prize will be a plaque to be presented by the National Air Mail Week Committee.

Mr. Sinnott states that the basis for judging essays will be on originality of ideas 50 per cent, continuity and construction 25 per cent, spelling and punctuation and neatness 25 per cent. All essays are to be certified by the school principal as to the eligibility of the contestant. Essays must be postmarked not later than midnight, May 1, 1938, and addressed "State Chairman, National Air Mail Week Contest" in care of your local postmaster. All essays winning either in the States or National contests will become the property of the Committee for use in promoting the growth of aviation.

See Postmaster

Mr. Sinnott is very anxious that every school pupil eligible in New Jersey should enter this contest. For further particulars or a copy of the "Air Mail Week Essay Contest Rules and Regulations," see either your school principal or your postmaster at once, for the contest will close at midnight, May 1. It is believed that every ambitious boy or girl eligible in this state will enter this unique contest.

RAMPS ON S-41 AT MAPLE SHADE

In the 77 new projects approved this week by the State Highway Commission upon the application of State Highway Commissioner E. Donald Sterner to reduce local relief rolls, there was included for Burlington county the grading and paving of ramps at the junction of Route S-41 with Maple avenue, Maple Shade, Chester township. This improvement will give employment to 30 men.

The work will be financed jointly by the New Jersey State Highway Department as sponsor and by the Federal Government through WPA. For the entire state, Commissioner Sterner reported, there have now been approved 241 projects, representing $17,764,928, to take 24,764 men from the WPA relief rolls.

YWCA NOTES

A special meeting of the board of directors of the Burlington County YWCA was held Tuesday evening at the county YWCA office, 127 Main street, Mt. Holly. The issues of the 1938 National Biennial Convention were presented by the delegates who are attending the event, held this year in Columbus, Ohio, April 22-23.

The chief emphasis of this convention will be upon the religious purpose of the YWCA and upon its problem of leadership. Basic to the discussion will be the Standard Study, an intensive survey of administrative practices conducted during the biennium 1936-1938.

Miss Katherine Lucchini will attend a pre-convention round table discussion for General and Industrial secretaries at the National Board YWCA, New York on April 8.

NEW SWING PIANO COURSES OFFERED

A modern course in swing piano technique is being offered by Barry Hubbs, well known local pianist. Two courses, one for beginners and one in preparation for orchestra, both embody the styles and techniques of many famous radio and orchestra pianists.

Mr. Hubbs states that the beginners' course is not necessarily a beginners' course for piano, but rather a beginners course in technique of swing piano performance. Although previous experience in piano is not necessary to enroll in either of these courses, it can help to further cut the time of tutelage. Swing piano technique is easy to learn because it is interesting. The "old fashioned" methods of tedious practicing are entirely eliminated.

WHEN you think you have served every available kind of fish, dressed up eggs in every way there could be, why not turn to the ever reliable codfish for some of your Lenten meals? A novel way to serve it is on the half shell, covered with a delicious white sauce.

Shredded Codfish on Half Shell
6 medium size 3 tbs. butter potatoes 1 tbs. chopped
1 cup shredded parsley codfish 1 tbs. grated
1 onion 1 cup soft bread
1/2 tsp. pepper crumbs
1/2 cup melted butter

Scrub potatoes, rub with fat and bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, until done. Cut in half and scoop out the pulp to leave the "half shells" whole. Press the pulp through a sieve into a hot saucepan, add the codfish which has been freshened in cold water, parsley, onion, pepper, butter, and enough hot milk to moisten. Beat well until blended, then pack lightly into the potato shells. Brush generously with a beaten egg. If desired, return to oven until thoroughly heated and browned. A white sauce may be served with this.

Another "different" way of serving codfish is to combine it with rice.

Shredded Codfish and Rice Balls
1/2 cup rice 1/2 tsp. pepper
1 qt. cold water 1/2 cup milk
1 1/2 cups boiling water 1 cup shredded codfish
2 tbs. butter Deep fat for frying
Soft bread crumbs

Put rice in saucepan with cold water, boil rapidly for three minutes, drain and rinse in cold water. Return to the fire in the boiling water and cook until tender and dry. Melt butter, stir in flour and pepper, add milk and stir until thickened. A beaten egg may be added if desired. Add codfish which has been freshened in a little cold water and drained in a sieve or cloth, add the rice to the white sauce. Mix all well, cool slightly and shape into balls, roll in beaten egg and crumbs and fry in hot fat at 400 degrees until brown.

To keep rice from boiling over—grease the inside of the pan or kettle which holds the water about three inches from the top. This precaution will keep the water from boiling over and save you the trouble of cleaning the stove. Boiled rice is a sticky mess to remove, as most cooks know by experience.

In a saucepan melt the butter, add flour and blend, slowly add the milk, salt and pepper, stirring until thick. Put vegetables and bread crumbs in a greased baking dish, pour over white sauce. Arrange asparagus tips on top and sprinkle with grated cheese or paprika. Cover and place in refrigerator until meal time. Remove cover and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees for thirty minutes.

If you are cooking vegetables that have a strong flavor, put a teaspoon of baking powder into the water. This helps to reduce the strong odor given off by the vegetables.

Another casserole dish which fits into this season of the year, is one made of tuna fish. This saves the day, if you have not had time to do the marketing, but have a can of tuna fish on the shelf.

Tuna Fish Casserole
1 large can tuna 3 tbs. butter fish 3 cups milk
2 slices onion 6 tbs. flour
1/2 cup sliced 1/2 tsp. salt green pepper 1 t. cayenne
2 tsp. lemon juice

Melt butter and cook onion and pepper until soft. Remove the pepper and onion. Add flour and stir until well blended. Add seasonings. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly until smooth. Boil two minutes. Add tuna broken into small pieces. Add lemon juice. Pour into buttered casserole and cover with rolled biscuits.

Beitz Store Has 14th Anniversary

E. Beitz and Sons, Quaker Store proprietors, Palmyra, announce in this issue of The New Era their big 14th Anniversary Sale.

Anniversary sales at this progressive store are always marked with big bargain offers in quality merchandise. Read their advertisement in this issue and ask for their big circular which lists additional specials.

Modest Start
 Mr. Beitz began business, in a modest way, fourteen years ago, with delicatessen items as his principal line of merchandise. Over a period of years, his patronage has grown until, in November 1936, he was forced to move into new and larger quarters.

In the larger store, the addition of fresh produce on a larger scale, the Quaker grocery line and the Birds Eye Frosted Food products have all increased his list of satisfied customers.

One hundred and twenty thousand persons every year injure themselves while taking a bath. Slipping rugs kill seventeen persons a year. It costs one family in seven $148 a year in doctor's bills and lost pay because of accidents that need not have happened. wears to this day. Mr. Findlay has never knowingly broken his promise given so many years ago.

Speaking of friends in countries now threatening one another with imminent war, Mr. Findlay described resort to arms in these words: "War is a thief—a cowardly murderer—which bankrupts nations. It is the father of oppression, the mother of hate, the sister of intolerance, the brother of revolution. War brings no solution but takes millions of broken hearts to the burial ground of all hopes."

Nierembergias, members of the Nightshade family, are perennials from South America, but here in the United States most species in the genus are generally cultivated as annuals. Most familiar to most gardeners under the name of cup-flowers, the plants may be raised from seed, and there are available tall kinds which bear a profusion of small, pale violet flowers or low-growing types that are charming for the rock garden. Some gardeners adopt the plan of taking late cuttings and planting the young stock outdoors the following spring.

Lovely Flowers

Nierembergia frutescens may attain a height of two or three feet and it combines lovely flowers with an abundance of stunning foliage. For rock garden bloom in late summer and early fall, the best choice is probably N. hippomanica, a newcomer from the Argentine. Although it is a perennial in its native land, this dwarf trailing type is not hardy and must be wintered over in a greenhouse unless new plants are to be raised from seed each year. N. rivalaris, the Whitecup, is another creeping type. It is hardy in a well drained soil with little protection, but it is not as profuse in its bloom as N. hippomanica.

Any soil in which petunias or annual phlox will give good results may be considered satisfactory abode for the various nierembergias. They can be treated either as annuals or as fall-blooming tender perennials.

Letters From Home

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

Recently there descended on Congress from the folk back home a flood of protests on the so-called Reorganization Bill.

Specifically, many of the messages opposed features of the measure which constituents feared would remove certain brakes on spending of the public funds; would grant to the Executive branch of government powers they felt should be limited to the Legislative branch, and would change the administration of our Civil Service.

But fundamentally, in the opinion of experienced observers, what the public most feared was the possibility of further surrender by Congress of the powers and authority entrusted to it by the Constitution and the people. This apprehension was not groundless. In recent years, in response to pleas of emergency, the public has seen many Congressmen willing to relinquish to the Executive Branch of government and its bureau responsibilities which they were elected to assume. Every surrender of such authority means, of course, a surrender of the power of the people those Congressmen represent.

If enough of that authority is bartered away, our boasted "balance of powers" between the Executive, the Executive and the Judicial branches of government can become an empty phrase.

So long as that authority is retained by the people through their elected representatives, Democracy persists. If it is lost, Democracy falls. The Old World today offers eloquent evidence of what can happen to human freedom and human rights when representative government falls to assist itself.

That is something for Congressmen to remember when they read the mail which urges them to fulfill the responsibilities for which they were elected, and thus keep government close to their constituents, the people.

Westfield Friends School

Westfield resumed classes on Monday, April 4, after a week's vacation. Miss Frohman, of the Interstate Dairy Council presented a most interesting puppet show during the school assembly.

Larry Meers made a resume of his trip to Williamsburg and other interesting places en route. Reports on signs of Spring seen during vacation were also given. Further observations of Spring signs were made yesterday when the upper classes went on a nature walk. Many interesting specimens were collected.

A most complete exhibit on the history of writing is on display this week. This exhibit has been obtained through the courtesy of the Museum at Trenton.

The kindergarten is at present engaged in the textile business, manufacturing rugs and pillows for their house.

NAME DIRECTORY FOR GIRLS' CAMP

Miss Hazel Almy Metcalf, of the faculty of the Burlington High School, has been chosen director of Camp Matolliouquay by the committee of women responsible for the operation of the girls' camp on the upper lake portion of the Ockanickon property, at Medford.

Miss Metcalf is a native of New Bedford, Massachusetts, and is a Mount Holyoke graduate. She has her Masters Degree in education from New York University. Her camping experiences date back to her own high school days, since which time she has served as a counselor, aquatic and sports supervisor, program executive and camp director.

Most of Miss Metcalf's experiences in this field have been in camps in Maine and New Hampshire. The women which constitute the Matolliouquay committee are three each from Burlington, Camden, Gloucester and Monmouth counties. Burlington county's representatives are: Mrs. Charles S. Beckwith, Pemberton; Miss Carolyn Gauntt, Johnstown; and Mrs. S. Roger Oliver, Burlington.

ABOUT TOWN

The whale was ordered out of town by the Board of Health.

Several local yachtsmen spent a busy weekend preparing their boats for an early launching.

Extensive repairs are being made to the Lippincott residence, on Main street, which was damaged by fire during December.

A number of workmen have been employed for several weeks in painting woodwork and other exterior operations at the Collins building, Riverton.

Forsythia has been in full bloom for the past week and the glowing color of this shrub has been particularly brilliant this year.

British bachelors were taxed by parliamentary order in 1695, says London Answers Magazine. The amount payable varied according to the rank of the "victim." It ranged from 1 shilling for a "person" to 12 pounds 10 shillings for a duke.

Spinach Is Ranking Favorite Of Leafy Spring Vegetables

Children Do Like It, Survey Shows; Cultivated Dandelion Is Another Important Spring Green

By Fred W. Jackson
New Jersey Department of Agriculture

CHILDREN really do like spinach, most authorities now claim. When surveys of food preferences are reported from time to time, we usually find spinach ranking high as a favorite.

In a recent survey covering 22,416 boys and girls, 24 per cent of the boys named spinach as their favorite vegetable, ranking it just ahead of sweet corn and potatoes. A similar endorsement was given spinach by 28 per cent of the girls who considered sweet corn and carrots as their next choice.

Greens Are Popular
These figures indicate that green, leafy vegetables have gained a definite place in the American diet. Both raw and cooked greens have become fixtures and are usually considered as the "second" vegetable of the meal. Fortunately, a very wide choice of this class of vegetables is available, particularly at this season.

Each year finds an increasing demand for turnip tops, kale, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, dandelions and scallions. These all contribute valuable minerals, vitamins and bulk to diets. Formerly dependent upon only those vegetables which could be stored for winter use, the housewife now finds that seasons scarcely limit her choice of green vegetable. Today, fresh produce is available all year round and even seasons have but little effect upon prices.

Excellent spinach is now available. When buying, select fresh, dark green, thick, clean leaves. Avoid wilting and keep cool until cooked. Two or three pounds will serve six persons.

Broccoli consists of bunches of undeveloped flower stalks. The flavor is much like cauliflower. A word of caution regarding tenderness is offered because large broccoli heads often prove coarse and tough even after extended cooking.

Cultivated Dandelions
Dandelions are another popular spring green. They are used either cooked as a green or served raw in a salad.

Increased use of leafy vegetables and the protective foods—milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables—attests to their popularity and people must enjoy the foods they eat in order to obtain the most benefit from them.

PALMYRA SCHOOL NOTES

Traveler Gives Lecture

Miss Helen Hiatt, a world traveler and lecturer, gave a most interesting talk to the student body on Tuesday, March 29.

Miss Hiatt's talk consisted of her own personal experiences in Europe during the past few years. In the course of her travels, Miss Hiatt spent much of her time in Italy and Germany. In Germany, boys and girls are forced to spend six months in a labor camp, which is not the same as a concentration camp. Last summer Miss Hiatt spent two weeks working in such a camp. She stated that there were two purposes of these camps: one, to do away with class distinction, and second, to build up the boys and girls physically.

These camps differ from our CCC camps in that the people are not paid for their work.

Miss Hiatt stated in closing that so far this mystery story has not affected us, but that the closing chapters will affect us all most vitally.

MANY INSPECT INDIAN SITE

Field inspection of the excavations made by the Indian Site Survey of the Abbott Farm, just south of Trenton, and on the Crispin Farm, about two miles northeast of Medford, Burlington county, was made by members of the Archaeological Society of New Jersey on Saturday of last week.

Under the supervision of Dr. Dorothy Cross, state supervisor, the Indian site survey, which is sponsored by the New Jersey State Museum and financed by WPA funds, has been excavating for about two years on the Abbott Farm. More than 30,000 important specimens have been unearthed there and much valuable information about the early Indian inhabitants of New Jersey has been brought to light.

The Crispin Farm has not been so widely publicized and is comparatively a new project of the survey. It was originally worked on by the University of Pennsylvania in 1916. The Indian Site Survey has been excavating at this place for about four months and it is reported that many bannestones have been found in peculiar positions and a special study will be made of this site.

YOUR GARDEN

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

Perennial borders are now starting their spring growth, and the gardener will find it a timely precaution to make a careful survey of the condition of the plants, particularly to take stock of those which may require replacing. Divide and replant any that seem to have become too dense in their growth, for overcrowded perennials are no addition to the border. Hardy asters, phlox, most of the daylilies, pyrethrums, eupatoriums, coreopsis, gaillardias and many others give the best results when they are divided at least every other year.

Plant food added to the border at this time will prove a great boon. A fertilizer similar to that used for potatoes—at the rate of one part of nitrogen, two parts phosphoric acid, and one part potash—is fine encouragement for even the sturdiest of perennials. The fertilizer may be applied in water solution, and it has been found that a dilute rather than a concentrated solution is most satisfactory. Do not apply too much of the liquid at one time. An application carrying from 10 to 15 pounds of the dry fertilizer to every 1000 square feet is sufficient. Distribute it evenly and avoid getting it too close to the crowns of the plants. Similar applications may be given again in June and in August. This requires very little of the gardener's time and it will prove one of the best investments he can make in insuring thrifty plants in the border.

Although an application of chemical fertilizer is more convenient to use than manure, the latter is invaluable in the preparation of flower beds because it provides humus as well as a limited amount of plant nutrients.

Garden soil should be tested at this time to determine whether it is deficient in lime. Should it be necessary to add lime, the application is best made immediately. Care must be taken, however, to see that it is not added near rhododendrons, azaleas, Mountain-laurels and other plants that need an acid soil. County agricultural agents will be glad to make soil tests and recommendations for the use of lime.

Do not neglect shrubs and roses in fertilizing the border. They, too, will appreciate additional plant food early in the season before the supply in the soil becomes readily available. The lawn should also be fed liberally, despite the fact that in so doing the gardener may as well resign himself to a few extra tussles with the lawn mower!

"A pretense to great understanding," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "is at first amusing. It becomes dangerous when it requires you to undertake responsibilities you cannot meet."

Worse than Paying

Dead Horse

Few of us can afford to pay a big batch of hospital, doctors' and nurses' bills out of income. Most of us would have to draw on savings, or if we haven't the savings, borrow the money from someone where to pay them.

The big objection to borrowing is that the money has to be paid back. Paying for an injury on the installment plan is worse than paying for a dead horse. You have nothing but a few scars or stitches to show for your expenditure. A Travelers Modern Accident policy would pay these bills for you, and the cost of such a policy is so low that it can easily be met out of income.

ABOUT DOCTORS

Openings and opportunities for the successful practice of medicine are becoming fewer in this state, according to a recent study made by the Medical Society of New Jersey.

The number of physicians practicing medicine in New Jersey increased 13 per cent between 1934 and 1938. In the United States as a whole, the increase in the total number of physicians was three per cent in the same length of time.

The number of persons per physician is taken as a basis for judging of a physician's prospects for a successful practice. The population of New Jersey increased 10.7 per cent during the years 1929 to 1936, according to the study, but during the same period the number of physicians increased 27.8 per cent.

In 1929 there were 4,045 physicians listed in the American Medical Association directory as practicing in New Jersey, an average of one physician for every 944 inhabitants of the state. In 1936 there were 5,171 practicing physicians in New Jersey, an average of one doctor per every 818 persons.

With the number of schools and colleges increasing in the country every year it's a wonder more people don't learn there is no Santa Claus. The Forest service says that the hardest wood found in the United States is black ironwood, which grows in the state of Florida. The scientific name for this wood is Rhamnidium ferreum.

BOARD WILL TRY FOR U.S. FUNDS

May Obtain Aid on Almshouse Project if Additional Funds Available

After adopting a resolution offered by Palmer L. Adams, the Burlington County Board of Freeholders voted to go to Washington on Wednesday of this week, to confer with government officials regarding the possibility of obtaining federal funds for the construction of the new almshouse.

This move was taken in view of the fact that the government proposes to spend large sums of money to finance new projects.

Resolution

The resolution, which was adopted by a unanimous vote follows: Whereas the County of Burlington has gone on record authorizing the building and equipping of an Almshouse, the cost to be approximately $281,000, and

Whereas it now appears that the United States Government is about to appropriate approximately $1,500,000 toward the cost of such projects, and

Whereas it is likely, under the old regulations, that the County of Burlington might be able to qualify for approximately $112,500, being part of the cost of such project, and possibly receive other benefits such as the borrowing of the total amount of the necessary funds from the Federal Government without any interest being paid by the County.

Therefore, be it resolved that the solicitor, the architect and other necessary officials immediately determine what is necessary for Burlington County to do in order to qualify for their proper share of said Federal funds, thereby saving the taxpayers of the County thousands of dollars.

Lighting Roads

Communications were received from several municipalities regarding lights on county owned streets and roads. Each community stated that the burden of meeting the cost of such lighting was too great and (continued on page 12)

CONCERT FEATURE OF MUSIC WEEK

One of the features of Music Week this year will be a concert presented by the Choristers and members of the various church choirs of Palmyra and Riverton, under the direction of Eric Warlick.

The concert will be presented on Thursday, May 12, in the Epworth M. E. Church, and will include selections by Bach, Handel, Mozart and a number of other well known composers.

Mrs. Rachel Lord will be at the organ and Lee Mitton, Chorister accompanist, will be at the piano.

CONTRACT GIVEN FOR STREET OIL

Hilton M. Smith Successful Bidder in Palmyra; Other Business

Bids for 40,000 gallons of slow curing oil for the highway department were opened at the regular meeting of the Palmyra Borough Council held in the council chambers on Tuesday.

The award was made to Hilton M. Smith, of Riverton, on his bid of .0872 per gallon, furnished and applied. The Kingston Bituminous Products Company, of Kingston, N. J., bid .09 per gallon and the Tar Asphalt Incorporated, of New Brunswick, bid .0895 per gallon. Council voted to make the award to Mr. Smith on his low proposal, with Mr. Buchholz voting in the negative. Councilman Buchholz stated that the price this year was 30% higher than last year and that he felt more time should be taken to consider the bids.

What Caused Increase

A representative from the Atlantic Refining Company stated that the Mexican situation, increased railroad freight rates and increased freight rates by boat all contribute to this increase in price. He also pointed out that the Unemployment Compensation Insurance contributed to the rise. He cited where an award had been made that morning in Sussex county for the same type of oil which amounted to .07 per gallon, not applied.

Walking on Benches

A complaint was made that children coming to and from school get in line and walk along the top of the benches at the baseball diamond. It was suggested that council do something to break up the practice. Picking up road oil on their shoes and then walking on the benches would so stain the seats that it would injure the clothing of people sitting on them. Mayor Ward promised that something would be done to correct the situation.

Councilman Wright reported buildings at 117 Market street and 731 Morgan avenue in bad condition and was authorized to have notices sent to the owners to make the necessary repairs.

The building inspector's report showed improvements amounting to $2044 and included fees amounting to $17.

Parks Ready

Councilman Flynn, reporting on the parks, stated that they are in good running order for summer and said that he expected to have more baseball in the parks this year. He (continued on page 9)

THE NEW ERA

RIVERTON :: CINNAMINSON :: PALMYRA

RIVERTON—PALMYRA, N. J., THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1938

PRICE FIVE CENTS

EASTER SERVICE STARTS AT 5 A.M.

To Be Held for Sixth Year at Lakeview; Rev. A. J. Harke in Charge

Plans have been completed for the sixth consecutive Easter Sunrise Service at Lakeview Memorial Park, conducted by the Palmyra Moravian Church. This service, a tradition with the Moravian Church for more than two hundred years, centers in the impressive, historic Easter Liturgy, which is the basic confession of the church's faith. It is so timed that the gathering of people takes place at the break of day, and the service is in progress as the sun rises.

The preliminary music from the Singing Tower will begin at 4.15 a.m. The service proper at 5.00 a.m. will be opened with the playing of two chorales by the brass ensemble under the direction of G. W. Perkins, of Delanco. The greater part of this ensemble is composed of students of Palmyra High School. Chorus to Sing

The Easter hymn, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today, Hallelujah," will be sung by the Delanco Male Chorus, grouped around the altar, Dr. Hammett Shipp directing. The first part of the liturgy, interspersed with chorales sung by the entire group on the terrace and accompanied by the brass ensemble, will follow. The male chorus will again be heard in "Christ Arose." After a short address by the pastor, Rev. Albert J. Harke, the liturgy will be concluded, and following the benediction, the brass ensemble will again be heard in chorale music.

Cross to Be Lighted

The illuminated cross on the Singing Tower will be lighted all Saturday night, and with its ever changing colors will greet the worshippers as they arrive for the service. Amplifiers will carry the voices and music to every part of the park. Boy Scout Troop No. 21, sponsored by the church, will again act as ushers and also assist the police in the parking of cars.

MORE TRAINS TO BE TAKEN OFF

The Pennsylvania Railroad plans to curtail train service between Trenton and Camden by the removal of three trains, effective Sunday, April 24.

Two west bound trains, the 6.05 and 10.24 a.m., will be removed from service as will the 2.07 p.m. train eastbound. All three of these trains are ferry trains.

RUNAWAYS ARE RETURNED HOME

Shortly after 3.30 on Tuesday afternoon, Officer John Robinson, of Riverton, saw four young boys drop off a lumber truck at Broad and Cinnaminson and start toward the river. As the youths were very unkempt in appearance, the officer took them to the police station for questioning and found that they had left their homes in Philadelphia for some undetermined purpose—perhaps to tour the country. The parents were notified and took the boys home in the evening. The wanderers were, William Pell, 11, 208 East Clearfield street, Philadelphia; Thomas Pell, 9, of the same address; Walter Foley, 3024 A street, Philadelphia, and Frank Haus, 504 Wishhart street, also of Philadelphia.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to all those who were so kind in our recent bereavement, especially those who sent cars and flowers to the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kennard.

AUXILIARY WILL GIVE CARD PARTY

The Riverton Branch of the Zurburg Memorial Hospital will give a card party on Tuesday, April 19, at 2 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, 308 Main street, Riverton.

Everyone who is interested in helping the splendid work of the hospital is cordially invited to attend. A charge of 50 cents will be made for cards and 25 cents for those who wish to come for tea, at 4.30.

Reservations may be made through the Riverton Auxiliary president, Mrs. Henry Randall, phone Riverton 287.

TRAFFIC CIRCLE TO BE REQUESTED

Cinnaminson Township Will Ask Construction at Five Points

At a meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week, it was voted to request the state highway department to consider the possibility of constructing a traffic circle at Five Points.

Present plans call for highway illumination at this busy intersection, but traffic control signals are not considered practical due to the multiplicity of turns made by motor vehicles. It is believed that a circle would entirely remove the hazardous condition.

It was also voted to request the State Highway Department to resurface Cinnaminson avenue from the Palmyra line to Five Points, thus eliminating the dangerous condition of the highway in wet weather.

New Lights

The clerk, George C. Frank, was instructed to write the Public Utilities Commission regarding lights on Division street, Parry. The Public Service Co. was requested to install four lights at this location last year, but stated that the work could not be done unless the number were increased to five, due to the cost of equipment.

The present appropriation does not provide funds for this number.

Street Situation

In reply to a number of communications regarding the condition of streets in Parry and East Riverton, Herbert Dinges, chairman of the highway committee, stated that road work is being done as rapidly as possible. The nature of the weather has prevented more rapid progress of these operations.

A communication from the Board of Freeholders stated that the county road schedule for 1938 had been adopted and approved by the state highway department and that no funds were available for lighting county roads in various municipalities.

Relief Load Less

Ross E. Mattis, director of welfare, reported that the relief load will be considerably reduced during the next month.

He also commended Dr. S. Emlen Stokes, member of the Assembly, for his efforts in solving the state problem of raising funds for relief without additional taxation.

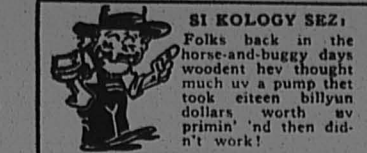

The report of the auditor was received and discussed at considerable length.

The county was requested to repair the River road at Reed street crossing, which is badly eroded.

The report of the chief of police, George C. Dorworth, showed a considerable number of cases investigated during the past month.

A special meeting will be held on Monday, April 18.

"Fear," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "is the more terrible because it makes some humble themselves to ask for mercy, even when there is no danger."

A group of original arrangements for tables laid for various meals was on view, as well as vases of artistically arranged flowers of lovely color combinations.
Tea was served at the conclusion of the program.

There will be services every afternoon at Christ Church at 4:30, during Holy Week. Of course, the greatest devotion service of the week will be the Three Hours Devotions and Meditations on the Seven Last Words of Our Lord. This will be from 12 to 3 on Good Friday. How About Proof?

Last week a county newspaper, in its editorial columns, commented upon the construction of the new almshouse. From this article we quote:

"The heat was turned on from Trenton to Ong's Hat—a bank called a demand note—engineering jobs were manipulated—a private business was squeezed to the verge of bankruptcy—a legislative club was fashioned to hold over the head of an entire political group."

These are serious charges and, if true, should be substantiated by necessary proof. The people of Burlington county are entitled to know what this is all about—it's their money that is being spent.

On the other hand, if the above statement cannot be proved, prompt retraction should be demanded by county officials.

Fire Prevention Easy

Fire loss in the United States is disgracefully high. But it would be far higher were it not for the unending efforts of the stock fire industry, carried on through the National Board of Fire Underwriters, in the interest of fire prevention and control.

Few of us realize what this work means to all business, and to everyone with a home, a job, or an investment. According to the National Association of Credit Men, a saving of a quarter-billion dollars annually in fire waste, means a gain of close to a billion dollars for American business. In other words, the indirect cost of fire is much greater than the direct cost, so that when we prevent a dollar of direct loss we save several dollars of indirect cost.

The efforts of the fire insurance industry have thus saved untold billions that otherwise would have been destroyed. Yet this work cannot produce its maximum benefit without public understanding and cooperation. At the present time, direct fire waste runs to several hundred millions of dollars a year in this country—which means that total waste approaches two billion. Reliable estimates say that about 90 per cent of fires are preventable, and are the result of carelessness or ignorance, individual or civic.

Fire prevention requires little time or money. Periodic inspections of homes and places of business, check-ups on heating and lighting systems, careful storage and disposal of inflammables and waste—it is little things like these that prevent fires. From the community standpoint, an adequate, modern building code, buttressed with good fire department and water facilities, are vital weapons in the war against fires.

A great industry is working day and night to protect you and yours against fire. It asks, needs and deserves your help.

The members of Congress are polite if nothing else. The Senate killed the Supreme Court Bill, and then gave the House a chance to conduct the funeral rites for the Reorganization Bill.

What Other Editors Say

Some folks are criticizing John L. Lewis because he made a radio speech to England stating there are 13,000,000 unemployed in the United States and the country is going to the dogs. Maybe John was only trying to discourage the Britishers from attempting to borrow any more money from us.

The President in his Georgia speech made some reference to the feudal system. But the 11,000,000 out of jobs and the twenty billion dollar debt might indicate that the New Deal is somewhat a futile system.

PENALTIES ARE MOST DRASTIC

Thousand of employers in the First District of New Jersey will file returns during the month of April under the provisions of Title VIII of the Social Security Act, reporting wages paid to more than 200,000 employees engaged in taxable industry in the ten southern counties of New Jersey. The collector has requested the taxpayers in this district to cooperate with the government by filing returns on or before April 15, 1938.

He further advises taxpayers that the law imposes penalties ranging from 5% to 25% of the tax for failure to file returns on time. Penalties are also imposed by the law for failure, to collect or account for, full failure, to keep records or file returns, and for making false or fraudulent returns.

As these penalties are being strictly enforced, all employers are warned that the tax collector will practically own your business if you don't pay promptly.

Easter Attire At Shulman's Store

Shulman's, Palmyra's leading department store, is all ready for Easter with a complete line of wearing apparel for all members of the family, from the youngest to the oldest.

Everyone likes to don new attire on Easter Sunday. This is the one day in the year when more new things are worn than probably any other time in the year.

Equip yourself and family at Shulman's and join the Easter parade.

TRIANGULAR MEET NEXT ON SLATE

After being nosed out in the first meet of the season, Coach Kreps has had his squad in action this week in preparation for the next competition, which takes place on Wednesday, April 20. This will be a triangular affair, the other entries being Collingswood and Haddon Heights.

Seemingly, one of the most dependable of the sprint men will be available for duty, having been out several days with an injured ankle.

The Red and White mentor has two promising candidates in Brown and Miller, both of whom will probably be point winners in the half mile.

With the other members of the team making rapid progress, it appears as though Palmyra will have the necessary talent to give their various opponents plenty of trouble in future competition.

PRESENT CHAMPS WILL BE STRONG

Old Askew Aggregation Has Fine Prospects for Good Record This Year

Last year's champions in the Memorial Park Softball League, the Askew Motorites will play under a different name this year, due to the fact that their former sponsors have gone out of business. The 1938 cohort has not been decided as yet, but all indications are that the former motor boys will present a formidable array of talent.

Most of last year's cast is available for action and several new recruits are being lined up by Manager Wallace.

Knight Back
Iron Man Knight, who assumed practically all of the hurling chores last year, will be back in uniform and present plans call for a relief man or two in this department.

McDermott will be the regular catcher with E. Wallace at first. R. Wallace will occupy the keystone post with Cole at short.

Elmer Sutters will manage the dizzy corner in his usual capable manner.

Outfield
In the outfield the familiar faces of Yearly, G. Sutters, Moorhouse, W. McDermott, J. Allen and others will be seen.

One factor may have an important bearing on the chances of this aggregation, especially in the first half. This is that several members of the cast are also enrolled on the high school varsity.

Coach Ken Dimond is reported not to be over enthusiastic in respect to his balltossers indulging in softball during the scholastic season.

Several Out
Should he enforce this ruling, Cole, E. Sutters, one of the Wallace boys, Allen and McDermott will not be available for action until after the first of June.

Unless these places can be filled, this team may be out of the running in the first half by the time the regulars can report for duty.

Under existing conditions, Askew may be a serious contender during the second half, but the situation is too uncertain to make any predictions for the first part of the race.

PAULSBORO WILL INVADE PALMYRA

Next Wednesday afternoon Paulsboro will provide the opposition in the second game of the season for Coach Ken Dimond's ball tossers. This engagement will be played on the home lot.

On Monday afternoon of this week, the Red and White varsity and junior varsity were pitted against the Yammigans. The irregulars, with LeCates on the mound, made the first and second stringers hustle for several frames.

Baker and Gibson were on the hill for the varsity and both appeared to be in fine fettle for the season which opened yesterday afternoon. Brewster, a new recruit, showed to advantage in the garden, pulling down the apple on several hard chances. Marshall and Gamble also occupied the other pasture berths.

NEW SCHOOL LOOP BEING CONSIDERED

According to a preliminary announcement made this week, a new scholastic league is being considered by officials of six schools in South Jersey.

All are Group III institutions and those who are organizing the circuit feel that the loop will be a decided improvement over the old Burlington County League which had seven members, three in Group III and four in Group II.

The schools that are reported to be considering membership in the new organization include: Palmyra, Moorestown, Burlington, Merchantville, Gloucester and Paulsboro.

Brewster, a new recruit, showed to advantage in the garden, pulling down the apple on several hard chances. Marshall and Gamble also occupied the other pasture berths.

SOFTBALL SEASON STARTS ON MAY 2

All Managers Must Turn in Preliminary List of Players April 25

At a meeting of the Memorial Park Softball League held on Monday night of this week, it was definitely decided to start the season on Monday, May 2. The schedule is being prepared and will be released in the near future.

All managers were notified that the preliminary list of players must be submitted at a meeting one week before the start of the season, this session to be held on April 25.

Ball Adopted

It was decided to adopt the same ball used last season as official for this year.

Rule books were distributed to the various managers present and additional copies are available to all other pilots through the courtesy of Vince Daley.

John Ruppert reported that considerable work has been done on the two diamonds and he stated that both would be in excellent shape when the season officially opens.

CHEWACKI TO VIE WITH MARSHALL

How tough can Chief Chewacki really be? That's the question that will be determined for once and all when he hooks up with Everett Marshall, Colorado cowboy, in the feature bout of the Hanly's next mat show scheduled for Thursday night in the Camden Armory. The Indian's reputation as a killer is widely known, but yet he has failed to show anything in his last two battles in the drishled.

Last week he did try to show his brutality, but it was just a little too much for Referee Doc Gehman who chased the Indian from the ring when it was discovered that Chewacki used pepper to blind Danno O'Mahony.

They are booked to meet in a two out of three fall duel and which is also tagged for a 90 minute limit.

Ex-Fighters

Two ex-fighters will make up the semi-windup and if both boys are right, this bout should surpass the main event in action. The two in question are George (KO) Koverly, the punchin' maniac from California, and Al Bisignano, popular young Italian, from Iowa. Both saw lots of service in the rosin ring and it should really be a slugfest instead of a wrestling contest.

In the remaining bouts also timed for 30 minutes, Bibber McCoy, Boston fat boy will help introduce Everett Kibbons of Oklahoma in the third bout. Andy Rascher meets Joe Maynard and Ralph Garibaldi trades holds and grips with Lee Yhe Wing, Oriental gripper, in the initial fray of the evening.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF GAME LEAGUE

Sportsmen who attend the annual banquet of the Burlington County Game Protective League at the Moorestown Community House on Thursday night of next week will have a thoroughly enjoyable time according to those in charge of the affair. There will be something interesting happening from the opening of the festivity with Joseph Conway's music to the closing excitement that is always attached to the distribution of door prizes.

President E. Budd Marter, banquet committee chairman Harry B. Ulmer and the active committeemen looking after the many details have completed their program for the big time.

Speaker

The principal speakers will be Colonel Nicholas Biddle, president Pennsylvania Game Commission, and Carl D. Shoemaker, secretary United States Senate Committee on Fish and Game. There will be many men of prominence among the honored guests and it is expected that some of them will speak briefly. Senator Clifford R. Powell will again be the toastmaster. President Marter will make his usual snappy address of welcome.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

Assembly Program

The 8 B class gave a very interesting assembly program on April 1, 1938, with F. Woodward as announcer. K. Elwell and R. Brown drew a series of pictures illustrating the people best known to the audience who tried their luck at guessing them. The harmonica class, under the direction of Mr. Peterson, was given by W. Swayne, P. Haberer, R. Fuller, A. Showell and M. Cole. As the second part of their program the class gave three characters which the audience also tried to guess. M. Smith, W. Lezenby, M. Cole and D. Robinson acted them out. W. Fleming and J. Craig celebrating Arbor Day read compositions and gave interesting information about trees. An original shadow play entitled "The Operation" was very well acted out by W. Lezenby, R. Taylor, E. Willis, and J. Craig as sound effects man. M. Smith acted as the announcer, and D. Atkinson, D. Robinson, and W. Lezenby were the stage hands. Donald Robinson, 8B.

Movie Benefit

The Eighth Grade Civic Club held a movie benefit on April 6, 1938, to raise money for a trip to Valley Forge which will be made at the end of the year. A committee consisting of K. Elwell, chairman, M. Smith, S. Reilly and D. Robinson was appointed to select the program. The films selected were: three reels of "The Story of the Navajo Indians," a safety film "We Drivers," a comedy "Oswald the Rabbit," and cartoon "Crown Us." F. Woodward, R. Taylor, R. Brown, H. Smalley, and W. Elwell were ushers. F. Borden, L. Friday, D. Robinson, R. Willis, and M. Smith were ticket collectors, and D. Robinson was business manager.

We want to thank everybody who supported our benefit and helped our class make possible their trip to Valley Forge.

The date for the Indian films will be announced as soon as we are notified of its shipment. Katherine Elwell.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Leadership Training

The Leadership Training Course, which is being sponsored by the Council, was held last Wednesday in the Presbyterian Sunday School, in Beverly. Men were present from several parts of the county. The course was opened by Walter D. Hopkins, Council of the Leadership Training Committee, who gave an outline of the course. County Scout Executive George A. Darlington then took up the matter of programming. County Commissioner Reginald H. Gill discussed with the men the new troop rating forms that were put into effect with the Scout Troops on April 1.

Camp Plans

The camp committee of the Council, under the leadership of F. Wallis Armstrong, Jr., of Moorestown, who is chairman, has made several trips to the camp. Work is starting this week on re-roofing all of the cabins, and later on in the spring the cabins will be painted and put in tip-top shape for summer. A new innovation that will be used in the camp will be canvas cot centers for the cots. The kitchen will be renovated, as well as the mess hall, and many other improvements will be made.

Troop Activities

Troop 21, of Parry, under Scoutmaster Bill Gibson, is making arrangements to send the entire troop to camp for one week this summer. Troop 19, of Delanco, under Scoutmaster Tom Perkins, has signed his troop for camp. Just recently, this troop held a very successful minstrel show and raised their funds for camp. Troop 5, of Palmyra, under Scoutmaster A. B. Branson, put on a Scout Circus this last Monday evening.

Last Friday, Troop 12, of Mount Holly, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Charles R. Smith, held their Third Annual Minstrel Show in the Rancocas Valley Regional High School. Scoutmaster Smith reported that this year's show surpassed all others.

This will be followed by a Court of Honor, at which time awards for Scout progress will be made. Troops 4 and 31 of Moorestown, and 7, of Lenola will take part in a service capacity in the Easter Egg Hunt that is to be held this coming Saturday, in Moorestown. POWERS NAMED TO LEAGUE COUNCIL

Citizens' Organization Gives Support to Bill Lifting Age Limitations

In recognition of his efforts to eliminate age restrictions from all civil service jobs and open public employment to all capable men and women regardless of age, Congressman D. Lane Powers, of the Fourth Congressional District of New Jersey, has been elected a member of the advisory council of the American Citizens' League, Inc., according to an announcement by James V. Yarnall, executive secretary of the organization.

The League endorsed Congressman Powers' Bill to bar age limitations in Civil Service.

The American Citizens' League was incorporated in New Jersey in March 1937 to carry on a constructive campaign to break down employment barriers which artificially prohibit the worker past forty from obtaining employment. One of the main objectives of the League is to eliminate age restrictions against capable, qualified citizens regardless of age from all public and civil service jobs, municipal, county, state and national.

Government Sets Example

"We cannot expect private employers," a statement from Yarnall said, "to change their present age restrictions on new employees when Government agencies themselves set a bad example in erecting age barriers. It is up to all branches of the American Government, particularly the powerful Federal arm, to set a good example in removing age limitations."

"Public-spirited legislators like Congressman Powers deserve the support of all right-thinking Americans of every political party. Legislators not in sympathy with the 'over forty' group certainly do not deserve the support of voters past forty or those in sympathy with them who will be forty some day. "We are happy to welcome Congressman Powers to our Advisory Board as a tribute to his work for the best interests of our membership and 'over forty' persons generally," Yarnall's statement concluded.

YWCA NOTES

Meeting Date Changed

The date of the regular monthly meeting of the Social Workers' Club has been changed from April 25 to April 27 in order to make possible the presence of Miss Edith F. McColly, director of the Morris County Welfare Board. Her topic will be "The Care of the Chronically Ill in Morris County." Accompanying Miss McColly will be Mrs. Wilson, director of the Welfare House in Morris County, one of the institutions under the direction of the Welfare Board.

In modern social work the Welfare House takes the place of the old almshouse. In view of Burlington county interest in its newly voted almshouse this discussion is destined to be of wide appeal.

The supper meeting will be held at the Willows in Mount Holly, at 6:15 p.m. Miss Emma Severns of Mt. Holly and Burlington will preside.

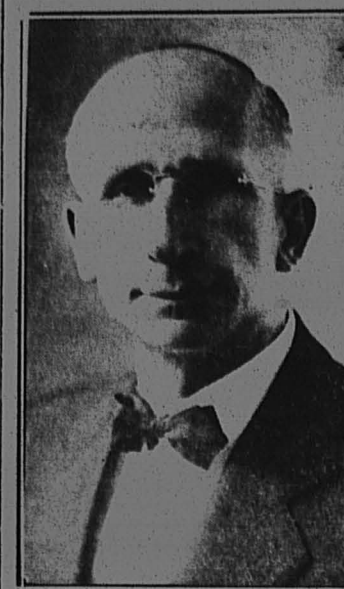

NEW Y GROUP STARTED HERE

A new YMCA group is under way at Palmyra, with Clifford H. Loane, 818 Morgan avenue, as the leader. Earl B. Whitcraft, a teacher in the Palmyra Junior High School, was very helpful in getting the fellows together for this group. During his own high school days, which were spent at Mount Holly, he was president of the Edison Hi-Y Club for four years.

The initial meeting of this group was held at Loane's home, Tuesday evening, April 5. Mr. Whitcraft was present, also Secretary Guy C. Hendry, of the County YMCA staff.

The organization meeting is set for this week. At present, the boys will continue meeting around in the homes of the members.

TO CONDUCT

REV. ALBERT J. HARKE

who, for the sixth year, will have charge of the Sunrise Service at Lakeview Memorial Park, on Easter Sunday. The program will begin promptly at 5 a.m.

YMCA BRIEFS

The latest roster of County YMCA groups places the number at 53.

At the annual meeting of the New Jersey Association of YMCA Secretaries, at Westfield, April 6th, Secretary Guy C. Hendry was elected vice president of this association for the ensuing year. Some two hundred YMCA secretaries are members of this association.

Burlington county was allotted five delegates to the Second National Hi-Y Congress at Berea, Kentucky, June 25-30. The five places are all filled. The first to register was Stuart Chant, president of the county Hi-Y Council. Others now registered are Thomas Braddock, Jr., of Palmyra; William Raff, Beverly; Robert C. Foster, Moorestown, and Secretary "Bud" Reeder, of the Burlington county YMCA staff. The Burlington county delegation

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING MONDAY

The semi-monthly meeting of the Woman's Club of Palmyra will be held in the club room in Society Hall, on Monday afternoon, April 18, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Herbert Taylor of Merchantville will be the speaker. She will have as her subject "Helen Hayes—Diminutive Star of the Stage and Screen" and will render selections from several of Miss Hayes' plays.

On next Monday evening at 8:15, the Senior Club will be the guests of the Junior Club. The speaker will be Mrs. Peg De Hart, well known throughout the clubs of South Jersey. She will speak to us and have an exhibit of Early New Jersey Glassware.

It is the request of our president, Mrs. Harry C. Kennedy that we have a large number to attend the Junior Party which has been planned especially for our benefit.

TROUT SEASON TO OPEN TOMORROW

Streams Well Stocked; Experts Expect Conditions to Be Excellent

One of the finest trout fishing seasons in the history of New Jersey will open April 15, with miles of public trout streams well stocked with hundreds of thousands of brook, brown and rainbow trout awaiting the army of enthusiastic anglers. George C. Warren, Jr., president of the State Fish and Game Commission, announced this week.

Devotees of trout fishing have been planning for weeks to travel to favorite fishing spots along numerous streams in all parts of the State. Game wardens have been busily engaged in stocking the streams since March 1, in preparation for their arrival. Storekeepers report large sales of fishing tackle and other paraphernalia of the trout fisherman. Licenses are being sold by the thousands.

Predicts Good Fishing

President Warren predicts that if the weather holds during the next few days, anglers will find conditions better than average. Streams are now almost normal and the light snow storm last week in the northern counties will assure plenty of water particularly in the smaller streams.

All of the famous trout streams such as the Musconetcong, South Branch of the Raritan, Flat, Wanaque, Saddle, Pequest, Paulinskill and Black River, numerous creeks, runs, brooks, lakes and ponds that meander through the woodlands and are trout stream feeders, located in 19 of the state's 21 counties have been loaded with adult trout.

Westfield Friends' School

The first and second grades are much interested in their garden. They planted the seeds last Monday and are now keeping records of the appearance and growth of the shoots.

On Friday, April 8, Jon Krusen and Russell Lasloky had charge of the assembly. The third and fourth grades presented an original play entitled, "How Parchment Originated." The theme grew out of their study of the history of writing. Miss Passant, the assistant art teacher, who has been discussing Egyptian costumes with the classes, helped them to create very interesting ones for the play.

This number of the program will be repeated this Friday, April 15, at the usual hour, 11.15, at which time a science program will also be given.

Baseball practice began this week. George Conover and David Pittenger are the leading candidates for pitcher.

James Marshall has won the championship in the tennis tournament for the fifth and sixth grades. George Krusen and Richard Hershey hold the doubles title in the third and fourth grades.

Due to the meeting of the Private School Teachers' Association on April 20, the school will be closed at 2.30, so that the members of the faculty may attend the afternoon conferences.

RIVERTON P.T.A. MEETS APRIL 25

On Monday, April 25th, at 2.30 p.m., a Child Study Group will be conducted in the Kindergarten room of the Riverton Public School, under the direction of Miss Esther Rothbart, a member of the school faculty. This discussion will be followed by a regular P.T.A. meeting in the auditorium at 3.30. At this time Dr. Elizabeth Love, of Moorestown, will give a talk on "Health." Dr. Love was formerly county program chairman of the P.T.A.

Mrs. C. V. Devery and Mrs. M. G. Belknap will entertain with piano duets, and tea will be served by the hospitality committee at the conclusion of the meeting.

COMMENT

We imagine that the results of the recent election in Austria must have been a great surprise to Herr Hitler. He probably worried tremendously about the outcome.

Draastic action to wipe out "unfair competition" from peddlers, solicitors and fly-by-night business was planned by the Burlington Trade Association at a meeting held last week. Similar action might very well be taken in this section, in that the situation apparently is becoming worse as the months go by.

As a result of a bill signed this week by Governor A. Harry Moore, motorists will receive a three-months extension for the use of 1938 motor vehicle registration and drivers' licenses. The change, which was designed to ease the strain on motorists' pocketbooks during the holiday season is one which will meet with hearty approval.

It is to be hoped that, during the coming baseball season, the grandstand at Memorial Park will not be monopolized by a crowd of noisy youngsters who take no interest in the games and have discouraged most adults from using the fine seating facilities afforded in the stands.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Walter D. Lamon, director of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Mt. Holly Republican Club, held on Tuesday of this week.

The Soroptimist Club of Burlington County held a meeting last week at the Cinnaminson Home. Dr. R. C. Lippincott, of Moorestown, presided.

Thomas Fitzpatrick, of Delanco, saved three youths from drowning in the Delaware, last Saturday, when he rescued three occupants of a canoe which had overturned in the rough water.

Beverly residents are reported to be much concerned over the pink color of the river at a point where public bathing is allowed during the summer months. The discoloration is said to be caused by a discharge of dye water into the stream.

Happiness is a perfume you cannot sprinkle on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Riverton, N. J., April 12, 1938.
Editor, The New Era,
Riverton, N. J.

Dear Sir:

Won't you please be kind enough to broadcast this appeal for respectable behavior upon the part of a few of those students who ride the second train to Broad street station every morning.

At the present time the conduct of four or five of these children is a reflection upon their home, school and community. In addition, it is driving so many people from the train to the bus that there is real danger of the train being withdrawn because of diminished patronage.

These young hoodlums begin their offensive antics the moment the train leaves Riverton and for the rest of the ride to Pennsylvania station at Thirtieth street, the car sounds like a cattle car with shrieks and shouts, wild bursts of whistling, the tossing of books, tennis racquets and articles of clothing across the aisle—everything to be offensive and betray a total lack of training.

Either this conduct must be stopped or it is the writer's intention to have these boys arrested at the next stop made by the train. There is no doubt that they are creating a disturbance which is against the peace of the community, and there is no reason why many commuters should lose their train through the antics of a few youngsters.

Commutor.

SECRETARY LOCAL WELFARE RESIGNS

Mrs. Robert J. Sim Named to Succeed Mrs. Catherine Blair Locally

Acting on the advice of her physician, Mrs. Catherine Blair has resigned her post as executive secretary of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association effective April 7th.

At a special meeting of the board, held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Murray C. Boyer, Mrs. Robert J. Sim, of Cinnaminson, who has been acting executive since early in the year, was unanimously elected to fill the post.

Widely Known

Mrs. Sim is widely known in the community and the choice is regarded as a happy one. For nearly two years she was an investigator and case worker for the Emergency Relief, following which she was, for nearly a year, case worker with the Moorestown Welfare Association. During the three months she has been in charge of the local association Mrs. Sim has handled a case load which reached the highest peak in the history of the association.

The advantage of intimate knowledge of local conditions is particularly valuable in a community of this type and the board is to be congratulated on the opportunity to fill this important place with a local person of Mrs. Sim's qualifications.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to all those who were so kind in our recent bereavement, especially those who sent cars and flowers to the funeral.

John Nickles,
Mrs. John Althouse.

AMPHITHEATRE TO BE CONSTRUCTED

Construction of an amphitheatre at the Beverly National Cemetery has been approved by the War Department at Washington, on request of Congressman D. Lane Powers, Representative of Burlington and Mercer counties.

The improvement will consist of a Rostrum, stone seats with a capacity of 368 persons, all of which will be surrounded by landscaped shrubs and trees. The rostrum will be wired for a public address system.

Confirmation

Congressman Powers made the original request for allocation by the War Department of WPA funds allotted to the Department some months ago. Official confirmation of the granting of his request was received from General Henry Gibbins, quartermaster general of the army.

The plans for improvement consist also of making repairs and repointing the New Jersey Monument at the Cemetery. The work is being rushed so that it will be almost completed on Memorial Day, when Beverly will dedicate the new addition to the cemetery, funds for which were obtained from the appropriations committee of the Congress, of which Congressman Powers is a member.

BOARD TO TRY FOR U. S. FUNDS

asked that this be assumed by the county.

A motion by Mr. Adams, seconded by Mr. Jones, that these communications be received and complied with was defeated 3-2. A subsequent motion by Mr. Stout that the municipalities be advised that the policy of the county did not permit such an appropriation was passed 3-2.

Letters from Granges
Letters dated March 24 and March 25, identical in tone, were received from the Moorestown, Columbus and Vincentown Granges. These recommended that the cost of the new almshouse be limited to $175,000 and that the cost be met, as far as possible, from current appropriations. As the bond issue had already passed, the letters were somewhat in the nature of an afterthought.

The members of the Board were invited by the City of Beverly to attend the Memorial Day exercises in that place. On this occasion, a ceremony will take place at the National Cemetery, where extensive improvements have been made.

Referred to Solicitor
Beverly also asked that the Board make an appropriation of $200 to assist in meeting the cost of the day's celebration. This matter was referred to the solicitor for a report at the next meeting.

The Board was advised that the charge for children at the Camden County Detention Home would be $1.50 per day, instead of $1.00 per day, the current rate. This matter will be investigated by the Freeholders.

The Board will visit the Birmingham Inn, on Friday afternoon of this week, in order to thoroughly inspect the building.

The Inn has been leased on a month to month basis for another year at a rental of $125 per month. The following bills were approved and ordered paid: Buildings, $26,126.66; roads, $11,425.20; bridges, $4,120.70; revenue and finance, $2,673.68; public affairs, $15,328.42; total, $59,774.17.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

"UNLESS"

"THE department commander places too much confidence in your zeal, energy and ability to wish to impose on you precise orders which might hamper your action when nearly in contact with the enemy. He will, however, indicate to you his own views of what action should be, and he desires that you should conform to them, unless you should see sufficient reasons for departing from them."

It was June, 1876, in Montana. Gen. George Armstrong Custer, riding at the head of the Seventh cavalry in search of a big village of hostile Indians, pondered over these orders from his commander. Gen. A. H. Terry. He knew the plan of campaign—Terry and Gibbon and he were to strike at the same time. And that time was June 26.

But Custer was "in bad" with President Grant. If, unaided by the others, he scored a smashing victory, he might get back into the good graces of the President.

He remembered Terry's orders "—he desires that you should conform to them." And yet—"unless you should see sufficient reasons for departing from them."

So he decided to attack. And on that word "unless" hung his life and the lives of 900 men of the Seventh cavalry. For that many perished, or died later of their wounds, in "Custer's Last Battle."

Canada's system of national parks consists of twenty separate park units covering more than 12,500 square miles.

Jefferson's Birthday

By RAYMOND FITCAIRN

National Chairman
Sentinel of the Republic

"The immortality of Thomas Jefferson does not lie in any one of his achievements, but in his attitude toward mankind."

Again, as we observe the anniversary of his birth, Americans recall that tribute to the author of our Declaration of Independence. What was his attitude? What would it be toward the problems of today? Jefferson's own recorded words answer such questions.

He believed whole-heartedly in the voice of the average citizen in government.

"That government," he said, "is the strongest of which every one feels himself a part."

"I consider the people who constitute a nation as the source of all authority in that nation."

He believed in the constant vigilance of the people over their government.

"Every government," he wrote, "degenerates when trusted to the rulers of the people alone. The people themselves, therefore, are its only safe depositories."

"Whenever the people are well-informed and things get so far wrong as to attract their notice, they may be relied upon to set them to rights. It behooves our citizens to be on their guard, to be firm in their principles, and full of confidence in themselves."

He believed in the American idea of balanced powers in government.

"The principle of the Constitution," he declared, "is that of a separation of Legislative, Executive and Judiciary functions, except in cases specified."

"If the three powers maintain their mutual independence . . . our government may last long, but not so if either can assume the authorities of the other."

"It is not by the consolidation or concentration of powers, but by their distribution that good government is effected."

He believed in the power of Congress as a direct representative of the will of the people.

"The authority of Congress," said Jefferson, "can never be wounded without injury to the present Union." The American people remember those admonitions. They have demonstrated this by protests, both recently and in the past, against usurpations of power, or the surrender of their own or their representatives' voice in government.

And that is as eloquent a tribute to Jefferson as any uttered by great orators.

PALMYRA P-T. A. MEETS APRIL 26

Talks to Be Given by Two Outstanding Leaders in Guidance Field

The Palmyra P-T.A. will hold its regular meeting on April 26 at 8:15 p.m. The prominent features of the program will be talks by two outstanding leaders in the guidance field and the "Delanco Chorus."

The Palmyra High School plans during the week of May 2, to have all members of the incoming freshman class visit the high school and go through through one full day's schedule; while upper classes will take classes as scheduled for next year. The seniors at that time will be on their trip to Washington.

The program as outlined calls for registrations being completed in the near future. Appropriate for these registrations is the P-T.A. Guidance Program, under the supervision of the guidance department.

McCarthy to Speak

Dr. John A. McCarthy, of the State Department of Public Instruction at Trenton, will speak on "Guidance in the Vocations." Dr. McCarthy is in constant touch with the vocational side of education in the State of New Jersey and should prove an interesting and instructive speaker. He has lectured all through the state at prominent educational and lay meetings and has won popular acclaim on all occasions.

College Question

Dr. Rex B. Cunliffe of Rutgers University, an outstanding leader in the guidance field in the State of New Jersey, will speak on "Who should go to college?" Dr. Cunliffe is a very interesting and well-informed speaker, who has broadcast on several occasions. He has participated in guidance work in a number of secondary schools, both in and out of the state and in several colleges. Needless to say, he should have some very valuable information for parents interested in sending their children to college and to parents interested in the further education of their children.

Bank Building Will Be Sold

The last chapter in the history of the defunct Palmyra National Bank will be written on Friday evening of this week when the banking house located on the south side of Broad street, at Morgan avenue will be sold at public auction.

The event, which is slated for 8 p.m., will take place in the bank building, with Joseph A. Day, Inc., in charge of the sale.

Three other properties, also located in Palmyra, which are owned by the bank, will also be offered for sale at the same time.

The affair will be held in conjunction with the disposal, in a similar manner, of the real estate of the Collingswood National Bank, also closed.

The Burlington County Hospital recently purchased a new ambulance. The machine has an 8-cylinder Buick motor and 160-inch wheelbase. It is said to be the latest word in ambulance equipment.

PROTEST BY CLUB OVER SCHOOL BUS

Children Crowded on Return Trip; Reasons Given By Principal

The Cinnaminson Board of Education decided to abandon the practice of graduation exercises for eighth grade students, at its regular meeting held in the school on Tuesday night. Closing exercises will be the designation instead of graduation. These exercises will include demonstrations of school work, principally by eighth grade students.

A request from the eighth grade to the board of education asking for permission to buy class pins from their own funds was granted.

Mrs. William Oliver, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the Delaware Fire Company, East Riverton, was given permission to use the auditorium for a county meeting of the auxiliaries on the second Tuesday in July, without charge.

William Schmierer, custodian of the school funds rendered his report as of March 31.

Bus Overcrowded

A representative of the Civic Club in East Riverton was present to protest overcrowding of colored children in the school bus on the return trip from school. She stated that the children from Union Landing Road are taken in two sections each morning and all are crowded into one load on the return trip, a total of 53 children. She stated that the Civic Club felt that this was a dangerous condition in the event

ROTARIANS HEAR ABOUT EROSION

R. E. Underwood, from State College of Agriculture, Speaks Here

It is only when the inter-dependence of a city and farm is shown in some vivid way by specific illustrations that the subject seems to come close to home. R. E. Underwood, soil conservationist at the N. J. State College of Agriculture, brought just such an illustration to the attention of the local Rotary Club last week—very clearly demonstrating the causes of soil impoverishment in New Jersey and the effect it has upon all of us.

Mr. Underwood said in part: "Soil impoverishment arises from two classes of causes—from the 'mining' of the soil which economic conditions have led the farmer to permit, and from the erosive forces of nature, which are largely the outcome of farming methods brought in by the same economic conditions. Both classes contribute to a progressively decreased soil fertility in our state, with a corresponding decrease in farm income which is reflected in our general economy.

"It is estimated that in New Jersey alone various types of erosion result in a capital loss of five million dollars annually. Fish, small game, birds and natural scenery all suffer in direct relation to this erosion. When nature is out of balance, man very quickly gets out of balance also.

"For most of the two hundred years during which New Jersey lands have been farmed, a high proportion of land was devoted to pasture, hay, and small grain, as livestock farming predominated. In later years, however, there has been less and less livestock; more and more intensively cultivated fruit and vegetable acreage. The natural cover of the land has not only been greatly reduced but the available supply of humus fertilizers has also been sharply curtailed.

Much Soil Carried Away
"The former gives direct rise to erosion, the latter to decreased fertility. More than half of New Jersey's two million acres already show severe erosion and a recent survey indicates that perhaps 25 per cent of the top soil has been carried away. Natural depressions, once carefully left untouched by horse drawn ploughs, so that water could drain naturally without scour, have been tractor plowed with the immediate consequence that ravines have been created, top soil carried away, lands in the rich bottom areas covered with deposits, streams silted and widespread damage to farming productivity incurred.

Many Factors
"Sheet erosion, by which large areas of land slowly lose their rich top soil, through steady drainage and wind, is far wider and more destructive than one would ever suppose. Silting of rivers and harbors, loss of top soil, devastation of rich bottom lands, reduction of farm yields, diminished wild life, removal of water plants necessary to the spawning of fish, intensification of periods of draught, faster run off with dangerous floods, smothering dust storms and damage to roads, bridges and buildings are all chargeable to such erosion.

"County and state organizations, with Government support and aid, are beginning to make some headway in meeting this condition. Much of it is an educational process which must win the cooperation of the farmer and the taxpayer before we can hope to correct these conditions. Land must be improved, check dams, dikes, ponds and ditches must be developed, trees and grasses must be planted, crops must be rotated, certain areas must be retired for forestation and different methods of farming accepted. This will require the cooperation not only of the farmer but of the city man as well."

The Delanco Chorus has won popular approval throughout the county and should render a delightful musical program.

Unusual Occasion
P.T.A. officials feel that parents at large should welcome this unusual occasion to become better informed of the value of a guidance program to the Youth of Today, believing that parents should take a keener interest in what the schools are doing for our children. The program should prove of value to children and to adults. These two speakers have a vital message for those of our children. They have first-hand information and first-hand contacts with vocational and educational trends, having studied and analyzed modern life situations.

To students and parents alike a hearty welcome is extended. Remember: Tuesday, April 26, at 8:15 p.m., in the Palmyra High School auditorium.

PLANTS FOR YOUR GARDEN

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

About Morning-Glories

Morning-glories, suggesting the delicate beauty of Japanese gardens, have had an amazing development in the Orient. The perennial tropical vine has been intensively studied by Japanese horticulturists, and from it they have developed a plant grown as an annual and capable of producing flowers 10 inches in diameter.

Western gardeners will find certain varieties of morning-glories among the most satisfactory of annual climbing vines. Many of them are perennials in tropical regions, and they all demand an abundance of heat and a fairly long season for best results. If large flowers are to be produced, great care must be given to close pinching and to thinning. Usually the plants are grown in pots, and they are pinched back to prevent their attaining a height of more than 18 inches or producing more than two or three flowers at a time. Regular feeding is essential. The plants may also be grown in the open with good results provided they do not get the direct rays of the sun all day. Start them in individual pots in the greenhouse or in a coldframe.

Most reliable seed houses now carry good strains of morning-glory seed. They are rather difficult to start, however, unless some method of breaking the hard shell or seed coat is employed to facilitate germination.

Tests of New York's bad air found the most germs in schools and the least in a park.

The critics made many favorable comments about Miss Gaul's works of the Southwest, alluding particularly to her unusual use of colors and selection of subjects.

Assembly

At our last week's assembly, emphasis was placed upon our science work throughout the school. The first and second grades explained their seed charts and how they were caring for their plants in the flat boxes.

The fifth and sixth grades arithmetic and science are related. One feature of next week's assembly will be the showing of a film on modern book making.

reported that he, together with Chief E. M. Carhart, Jr., had inspected a number of pieces of apparatus similar to the type desired here. He said that he believed a truck could be purchased for much less than the $7500 figure estimated for a LaFrance job.

Mr. Bush stated that a U. S. Fire Co. body could be mounted on a truck chassis at a cost of about $3500 or $4000.

After Councilman Earl Shrader had asked a number of questions regarding the proposed equipment, it was decided that the fire and water committee of council would meet with members of the fire company and present written recommendations at the next session of the governing body.

Traffic Light

As no further word had been received from county officials regarding the traffic light situation at Broad and Main streets, the clerk was instructed to write another letter to the Board of Freeholders inquiring whether anything would be done to remedy the existing condition, which council considers a hazard.

The diagonal crossing lines, at the same intersection will be painted out, since pedestrians walking in such a manner must always meet traffic going in one direction.

Highways

Mr. Sylvester reported that paving work would start within a week or two. Streets to be taken care of first include, Linden avenue, between Harrison and Broad; Fourth street, between Broad and Thomas; Bank avenue, between Penn and the Mechling property.

Additional work will be based on an analysis of a survey of street conditions that was made recently. Mr. Knight, reporting for the borough property committee said that a considerable amount of maintenance and repair work had been completed. He asserted that the park was in better condition than ever before. Mr. Knight went on to say that the National Youth Administration had given considerable assistance. A letter of appreciation for the work of the NYA was ordered sent to H. B. Marshall, who is in charge of this project here.

Building

The building inspector reported the issuance of five building permits, covering operations which totalled $15,700. The locations are: 4 Park avenue, 622 Thomas avenue, Broad street above Main, 309 Highway and 110 Midway.

The girls' tennis team of Palmyra High School was given permission to use the courts at Memorial Park on May 5 and 26.

Title to the old Showell property, at 405 Bank avenue will be acquired by the Borough in the near future and the structure will be demolished. The following bills were approved and ordered paid:

YOUR GARDEN

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

At this time of year the gardener will have little or no trouble in determining exactly how much live wood remains in his roses, for all of the plants have started to grow. Cut out any dead wood, and see that any bushes which have not as yet been well pruned are given prompt attention. As a general rule, the more beautiful and profuse are their flowers. Indeed, rose-growers of the old regime even went so far as to reduce the shoots to three or four buds each if they wished to grow exhibition roses.

Generous amounts of fertilizer are essential in the successful culture of roses. Use a reliable complete fertilizer at the rate of 20 to 25 pounds per 1000 square feet, distributing it evenly and working it well into the soil. Remember that roses will not thrive in an acid soil. It is advisable, therefore, to test the soil and to find out how much lime will be required to give it a pH of 6.5.

Any hardy annuals which have not as yet been started in seed beds should be sown immediately, and those tender annuals which are to be set out early as strong seedlings should be given good care in the coldframe.

It frequently happens that tulips which are not doing well can be given new impetus by the addition of a fertilizer rich in nitrogen. Although it is now too late in the season for the gardener to expect the best results from fertilizing his tulips, a small amount of plant food will aid in the production of sizeable blooms. Make certain that none of the fertilizer touches the tender leaves of the tulips, however, for it robs them of their moisture and they become badly spotted.

Do not fertilize narcissi too heavily. If they look healthy it is wise to leave them alone; overfeeding results in the production of leaf growth at the expense of buds for next year's bloom. If the foliage is turning yellow, a modest amount of fertilizer may be added to strengthen the bulbs and insure good bloom next spring. Narcissis and daffodils that have become too thick should be lifted, separated, and replanted after the foliage has matured. These suggestions are applicable to practically all spring-blooming bulbs.

Fertilizer works spring magic with German and Japanese Irises. The same recommendations relative to electric

NEWSPAPERS AID TRAFFIC CAMPAIGN

Newspapers are credited by the Keystone Automobile Club of New Jersey with a major share of credit for improvement in the highway accident situation. The winter just ended has been remarkable for a drastic reduction in the number of traffic deaths—1800 fewer fatalities being reported nationally—and club officials, in analyzing the causes, find newspaper support of the safety movement a vital factor in life-saving.

"The attitude of the papers," said Trevor B. Mathews, manager of the Camden Division of the club, "is unquestionably responsible for a change in public opinion with respect to traffic accidents. The premise that deaths and injuries are 'unavoidable' under modern traffic conditions has been thoroughly discredited.

Incessant Barrage

"No one factor, of course, is responsible for the marked decrease in fatal accidents. More stringent enforcement, more widespread discussion of proper driving practices, more safety built into automobiles and highways—all deserve their share of credit. We feel, however, that the part played by the public press, dailies and weeklies, in constantly hammering on the safety theme has been the greatest single influence in producing the happy result."

feeding may be followed for both, but it should be kept in mind that the German Iris thrives in a well limed soil and the Japanese requires and acid one.

THOUSANDS AT SUNRISE SERVICE

Several thousand people attended the Sixth Annual Sunrise Service, at Lakeview Memorial Park, on Easter morning. The weather was very close to ideal, this factor contributing much to the impressive occasion. The slight chill in the air was quickly dissipated as the sun rose during the first part of the 200 year old Easter Liturgy.

Rev. Albert J. Harke, pastor of the Palmyra Moravian Church, had charge of the service. Other participants were the Delanco Male Chorus, under the direction of Dr. Hamilton Shipps; a brass ensemble, led by G. W. Perkins, of Delanco, and the choir of the church.

Traffic to and from the services was efficiently directed by a squad of officers from neighboring communities.

Those who attended voiced sentiments that the service this year was the best, in every respect, of those that have been held at Lakeview.

If others don't start to worrying soon, we intend to quit too.

Swimming Pool

A swimming pool in Riverton is a subject which has been discussed from time to time, but—for one reason or another, chiefly financial, there still is no pool.

The suggestion made at the last meeting of the Riverton Borough Council that a W.P.A. project be created to construct such a pool is one which should be thoroughly considered from all angles and, if it is at all feasible, steps should be taken to get such work under way as soon as possible.

On the surface, this appears to be a wonderful opportunity for Riverton to acquire a pool at the minimum possible expenditure of money.

There is no doubt that it is needed and would be enjoyed by people young and old for years to come.

Traffic Circle Needed

Last week, the Cinnaminson Township Committee voted to request the construction of a traffic circle at Five Points by the state highway department. This dangerous intersection, state officials say, is entirely unsuited to traffic control signals, because of the many turns which are made by motorists. Lights are to be installed to reduce the hazard at night, but this step, we believe, will not entirely solve the problem.

Traffic up and down Route 25 travels at a high rate of speed and motorists who desire to cross this highway are compelled, particularly on weekends, to nearly take their life in their hands to get across.

A circle would slow down this through traffic and, in our opinion, solve the problem once and for all. We appreciate that circles are expensive to construct, but they have been built at other locations which are no more important.

The request from the township is worthy of the most serious consideration.

The Falling Womacks

The conviction of eight members of the Womack family recently by a Federal District Court in East St. Louis, Illinois, turns the spotlight on one of our major rackets. The Womacks were liability claim fraud artists par excellence. Pretending to trip over every conceivable object, they staged falls in streets, department stores, taxis and buses. Then they pressed claims for damages against owners or their insurance companies.

The family fell so many times that they became known as the "falling Womacks." According to evidence which put them in the Federal penitentiary, they made 59 fake claims and obtained 39 settlements from insurance companies at a cost of thousands of dollars. How much farther their unlawful operations reached, investigators can only guess.

"Until I heard the evidence in this case," commented Federal Judge Fred L. Wham, "I wouldn't have believed such a thing could have happened." Self-inflicted wounds, "flopping," and feigned injuries with all the other necessary artifices are still a mystery to the public. But to the Index Bureau, an agency established by casualty companies through the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives, to many municipalities, to public utilities and others, the fake accident is an old story.

Prosecuting authorities throughout the country are now awakening to the incalculable damage inflicted by this kind of crime, and there is an increasing number of prosecutions of fraudulent claimants. No longer do we regard the damages caused by the Womacks and their like, as a trifling drain on the resources of insurance companies. We know now that society pays for these frauds in other ways. Because of the abnormal rate of loss, insurance costs to the policyholder go up. Our courts, a heavy item in the public budget, are full of trumped up suits adding greatly to their cost of operation. And when the demoralizing effect on the administration of law is also considered, we approach a better estimation of their actual cost to society. With law enforcement authorities now aroused to the real significance of fraudulent claims, control of the evil can soon be expected.

Church Notices

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation After Death" is the lesson-sermon subject for Sunday, April 24, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live." (John 5:25).

Among the lesson-sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord." (Psalms 118:17).

The lesson-sermon also includes this passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the illusion of death, mortals wake to the knowledge of two facts: (1) that they are not dead; (2) that they have but passed the portals of a new belief" (p. 251).

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor

"Central Baptist" enjoyed one of the largest Easter congregations since the dedication of the new church building. Starting from the sunrise service, at 6:00 a.m., until the evening service at 7:45 o'clock, the church had record attendances, and was, in some cases, filled to more than its capacity. As a sacrificial offering to the church, between the contribution made by the classes and departments of the Sunday School and the individual members, about $500 was raised toward the new building and general expenses. Services this Sunday will be as follows:

10:00 a.m. Bible school. Many who had absented themselves for quite some time, attended last Sunday. It is hoped that they found it sufficiently interesting so that they will have the desire to be regular attendants.

11:15 a.m. Morning worship. Sermon by the pastor on the subject "The Certainty of Faith." A subject which will be interesting to all. Anthems by the choir.

6:45 p.m. B.Y.P.U. The High School Group, which meets in the Sunday School room. The seniors, or any above the high school age, meet in the junior department. In whatever class you belong, you will be welcomed at these meetings.

7:45 p.m. Evening worship. There will be Baptism as a conclusion to the regular service on this Sunday evening. It will follow the sermon by Pastor Lockett, which will be "God Over All." The choir will contribute appropriate anthems to the service.

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH

Rev. William A. Boyd, Pastor

"The Holy Bible" is the subject of the sermon to be presented by the Rev. W. A. Boyd at 11 o'clock this Sunday morning. During the service a memorial Bible and Bible markers will be received and dedicated to the work of the Kingdom of God in our church. The senior and junior choirs will sing. This service will be one hour in length, 11 to 12 o'clock.

The Haddonfield Church orchestra will be present and give a sacred musical. This is a very fine organization and will delight all who hear it. The minister will preach an appropriate sermon and the senior choir will sing. All our church services will be one hour long beginning this Sunday, unless circumstances necessitate a change in the summer schedule.

ORCHESTRA AT CHURCH SERVICE

A feature of the Sunday evening service in the Epworth M. E. Church this week will be the music of the Haddonfield M. E. Sunday School Orchestra, Victor H. Clark, conductor. Ruth Eita Buck, accompanist, and William D. White, cornet.

This orchestra is well known in South Jersey for its splendid performances and will add much to the beauty of the service.

Congregations at local churches were reported to be unusually large on Easter Sunday, many places of worship being filled to capacity.

BLUE EAGLES IN BURLCO LEAGUE

The Palmyra Blue Eagles, under the management of James Rapp, have entered the junior circuit of the Burlington County Baseball League. This outfit compiled an impressive record of wins last season and, with many of the former players already signed up, the local entry is expected to be a serious contender for the loop championship.

A number of new players have been added to provide additional strength in several departments.

ATHLETICS HOPE TO ANNEX TITLE

Farmer Aggregation Always Leading Contender in Local League

Although always a leading contender in the Memorial Park Soft ball League race, the Athletics, also known as the Farmers, have never been able to annex the loop crown.

This year, the agriculturists expect to present a team with added strength, which may be able to finish at the top of the standing. In any event, local fans can be certain of a good game whenever the A's take the field.

Veteran Outfit

Manager Howard Haines will have a considerable sprinkling of veterans available this season and plans to build his 1938 edition around this nucleus.

Shaffer or Lynch will be assigned to the catching department, while Haines and Shivers will compose the other division of the battery. In addition, a new hurler is said to have been signed. This will leave the Farmers rather well off in respect to mound performers.

Infield

At present, the composition of the infield is rather uncertain, but George Swain will be back at the hot corner handling all that come his way.

Headman can be depended upon to take care of shortstop as well as any other pivot man in the loop and Lynch will play second when not doing backstop duty.

Flags will probably hold down the initial hassock.

The outfield will comprise Phelan, Williams and a couple of recruits. Williams, by the way, is one of the hardest hitting outfielders in the loop.

Reserves

With everything taken into consideration, the Farmers appear to have a well-balanced team, with the possible exception of reserve strength.

If a few new players can be developed, the A's should prove to be a leading pennant contender and a good first division club.

LOCAL BOYS WILL BE RUTGERS GUESTS

Several high school students from this area are planning to attend Rutgers University Preparatory School this weekend, on April 29 and 30. Educational conferences for guidance in the selection of courses, will feature this week by Stanley R. March, alumni field secretary.

The boys will be the guests of the university and the 20 fraternities on campus for the two days, and will obtain their meals at the fraternities and college cafeteria.

The high and prep school guests will visit college classes and tour the campus and buildings, including the new million-dollar stadium, on Saturday, and will witness the Rutgers-Maryland inter-collegiate lacrosse game at 2 p.m. Saturday.

engagements announced.

In addition, all pilots are reminded that the preliminary list of players must be submitted not later than Monday evening.

The first games are slated for Monday, May 2, at 6:45 o'clock. Every effort will be made to start promptly.

THREE DUSEKS ON ARMORY CARD

Three of the four Duseks known from coast to coast as the riot squad of wrestling, have been signed by the Hanlys to feature the weekly grappling program in the Camden Armory, Thursday night.

Rudy, oldest of the quartet, is down to mangle with an arch rival in Gino Garibaldi, of St. Louis, and their match is carded for one fall, with no time limit. In pairing these pachyderms, the promoters are reviving the feud which has existed between the families for years. The standing between them is about even in the number of wins and losses.

Bisignano vs. Wally

Al Bisignano, the two-fisted Italian who formerly pushed leather in the mitt-slinging art, will be seen opposed to Wally Dusek, a cousin of the four brothers, in the semi-windup of one fall with a half hour time limit. "Busy" is anxious to beat the relative he believes it will lead up to a match with Ernest Dusek whom he has been most anxious to get on the mat.

Another grappler who hopes to get a match with Ernest is Jack League and he hopes to attain this goal by knocking the daylight out of Joe Dusek, with whom he mixes in the third encounter of 30 minutes.

The other two preliminaries will bring together Len Macaluso and Andy Rascher, while Frank Bruce opposes George Koverly.

VACANCIES IN C. M. T. C. CAMPS

Vacancies remaining open for this summer's Citizens Military Training Camps will permit filing of 500 more applications from young men of New Jersey and Delaware, it was announced last week at the U. S. Army Second Corps Area on Governors Island. Sixty-eight hundred applications are being accepted from New York, New Jersey and Delaware.

All camps operate for thirty days. There is no obligation for future military service of any kind incurred by attendance. The government pays such necessary expenses as transportation to camp and return, wholesome food, uniforms, athletic equipment, laundry service, and medical attention. Age limits are 17 to 24 years for those beginning the C.M.T.C. courses.

It is estimated that the average kitchen uses around thirty-seven tons of water in a year, a minimum amount.

Naming Course

Walter D. Hopkins, Beverly, chairman of the leadership training committee opened the second session of the Training Course for Scout leaders that was held in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian Church, in Beverly, last Wednesday evening. Mr. Hopkins gave an outline of the course to the new men and called on County Scout Executive George A. Darlington who gave a talk on Troop Committees and Sponsoring Institutions.

Commissioner Gill was present at the meeting and gave an outline of camporee plans that are being made. The camporees are to be held in various parts of the county on June 17 and 18.

Scouts Increase

The meeting of the executive board of the Burlington County Council was held at the home of Eugene E. Beyer, Mt. Holly. County Scout Executive George A. Darlington reported an increase of 130 Scouts over last year at this time. The board discussed plans that were presented by chairman of the camp committee, F. Wallis Armstrong, Jr., for the improvement of the camp property. The camp will be put in first class order for Troops this summer.

Troop Activities

Scouts of Troop 4 and 30 of Moorestown, and Troop 7 of Lenola assisted the Y's Men's Club on the Easter Egg Hunt this last Saturday. The Scouts aided in lining the children up and marching them in proper order down to Strawberry Park. Scouts of Troop 21, Parry, acted in a service capacity at the Easter Sunrise Service in helping in parking and ushering.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE PROTESTS BILLS

The executive board of the New Jersey Branch of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom, meeting in Princeton on April 13, passed the following resolutions:

1. Whereas, we deplore the statement that the peace sentiment in this country hampers the State Department, and

Whereas we believe that the ultimate aim of the State Department is to prevent war, therefore, be it resolved by the New Jersey Branch of the Womens International League that this peace sentiment should be recognized as an active constructive force in making it necessary to settle disputes without war. Copies have been sent to Secretary of State Cordell Hull, Norman H. Davis and Miss Dorothy Detzer.

2. Whereas the army appropriation bill passed the House without a record vote, although $32,545,401 in excess of the current army appropriation, and whereas we deplore the lack of interest on the part of the representatives at that session, the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom of New Jersey protests against the constantly increasing budget for the army. Copies have been sent to Senator Carter Glass, chairman of the appropriations committee, and Senators William H. Smith and John Milton.

3. Whereas Senator King and Senator Clark were the only two senators opposing the naval appropriation bill actively from the floor, and whereas Senator King urged the holding of a world conference to cut armament expenditures, be it resolved that the New Jersey Branch of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom commends their action. Copies have been sent to these two senators.

4. The New Jersey Branch of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom endorses the appeal in the "Fellowship of Reconciliation" that clergymen be asked to preach on Memorial Day, May 29, a sermon "Keep America Out of War." Members of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom, New Jersey Branch, will locally urge their clergymen to carry out this theme.

The meeting with the State President Mrs. Hiram Elfenbein of Jersey City, presiding, was attended by representatives from all parts of the state.

Among those present from this vicinity were Miss Helen Lippincott and Mrs. J. L. Lippincott of Riverton.

ABOUT TOWN

With the temperature at 85, or thereabouts, on Friday of last week, summer attire was in vogue here, as local residents actually sweltered under the torrid sun.

The river bank was thronged on Sunday night, as scores of people viewed the huge column of smoke and fire at the Barret plant on the Pennsylvania shore.

The dense cloud of smoke from the forest fire near New Lisbon was clearly visible in this section, on Saturday afternoon.

The ten day period of dry weather was ended by the torrential down-pour on Monday afternoon. The shower was also accompanied by the first thunder and lightning of the month.

MODERNIZATION

START with the equipment you use most of all, which is a range. Select one that has the modern features that make baking and cooking easy and results dependable. We can show you modern gas ranges at reasonable prices. You may purchase any of them on the divided payment plan at a small increase over the cash price. These ranges are all good bakers because the ovens are heavily insulated and the heat is controlled automatically. The broilers are dependable and slide in and out easily. Top burners all light automatically and give different cooking heats from the fastest cooking to as slow simmering as you wish.

COUNTY HOSPITAL ANNUAL REPORT

Many Improvements Made During Past Year. Free Work Costs More

Franklin S. Chambers, president of the board of managers of the Burlington County Hospital, has recently submitted the annual report of the activities of that institution for the year 1937.

Excerpts from this report follow: The hospital has maintained, during its fifty-eighth year, the high standard of efficiency for which it has been noted in recent years.

An unusual opportunity for service occurred the latter part of March following the fire at the Burlington County Almshouse. The facilities of the hospital were immediately placed at the disposal of the Freeholders. Many of the sick and aged inmates were transferred to the hospital. Additional beds were placed in the wards, sunparlors and corridors and the very best medical attention and other care was given to these residents of our County for a period of several weeks.

Improvements

Many persons who visited the hospital the latter part of the year commented on its improved appearance due to the extensive repainting and redecorating program. The Nurses Home was also improved by hardwood floors in the recreation room and painting and decorating various other portions of the Home.

Soundproofing material was installed in the third floor corridors and the delivery room this year. This has greatly added to the quiet and comfort of the patients in the maternity department.

Contributions received during the year included an observation stand for the operating room, an oxygen tent, sewing machine and seventeen blankets for wheel chairs. Materials were also donated to re-upholster the chairs in the sunparlors and private rooms. There were also many gifts of fruit, vegetables and canned goods. For all of these the hospital is sincerely grateful.

Contributions

Many generous contributions have been made directly to the Social Service Department which enabled them to continue the convalescent and therapy care recommended by the doctors. This included one or two weeks additional rest at convalescent homes for some of the adult patients; the seashore home or camp for some of the little patients; glandular medication and insulin for the clinic patients needing this particular type of expensive treatment and surgical appliances which were necessary for post-operative cases.

The women's Auxiliary Committee reports six units or branches, each with local officers. There are two in Beverly and one each in Burlington, Marlton, Moorestown and Mt. Holly, also twelve units organized for sewing service in other towns.

An important service has been rendered by the sewing groups and a goodly number of valuable articles of hospital equipment has been supplied from funds raised by the various auxiliary units.

Income

Income from patients fell off sharply during the last months of 1937, due to the depression, so that the total was several thousand dollars less than had been expected for the year. Free work for the year cost more than $91,000, being the highest in the history of the hospital.

Plans are being perfected for additional class rooms, laboratories and more teaching equipment for use in the Nurses' Training School. These facilities will be ready next fall and will enable the hospital to train a larger number of student nurses than before.

The board of managers wishes to express its thanks and appreciation to the doctors, nurses and other employees for the high standard of efficiency and splendid spirit of co-operation that has been in evidence throughout the year. Every effort has been made to furnish the highest type of service to Burlington county, which it is sincerely hoped may merit the continued support and patronage of this institution.

Any man may be in good spirits and good temper when he's well dressed.—Dickens.

TALKS TO SOCIAL WORKERS CLUB

On Monday, March 28th when Spencer Smith, director of inspection for the New Jersey Department of Institution and Agencies addressed the Social Worker's Club he gave an interesting and challenging presentation of the development of almshouses from the time of New Jersey's first enabling law in 1748 down to the present modern welfare houses. These old fashioned almshouses fulfilled several functions and became veritable catch-alls for persons who, for a wide variety of reasons might be viewed by their neighbors as problem members of the community.

From his own experience as an inspector Mr. Smith gave a vivid presentation of the confusion still existing as people who should be in almshouses are sent to jails and many of the chronically ill who could be maintained in welfare houses are occupying beds in hospitals where costs are high and spaces at a premium. Many aged persons now in almshouses could be maintained in homes at considerably less expense and greater happiness.

FLOWER MART TO BE HELD HERE

POLICE ASSOCIATION CONVENED YESTERDAY

The Burlington County Chapter of the New Jersey Patrolmen's Beneficial Association held a meeting on Wednesday of this week in Legion Hall, Maple Shade.

A considerable amount of important business was transacted.

PALMYRA-RIVERTON STAMP CLUB

The April meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton Stamp Club will be held at 8 o'clock, on Friday evening, April 22, in the American Legion Home, Palmyra.

Business will be laid aside and the entire session will be spent in the social activity of stamp exchanging. Club officials feel that the program should prove profitable to both specialists and general collectors.

In addition, a True and False Test has been planned and prizes are to be given to the four highest scorers. One award is a U. S. 50 cent Zep, on a first flight cover.

The local club is now issuing a bulletin. This is to be a monthly affair and will contain full information regarding plans for future meetings and activities.

WINS PRIZE FOR DENTAL POSTER

Frank Weigand, of Palmyra, won second prize in Class 3, for his poster which was entered in a contest sponsored by the South Jersey Dental Society.

The exhibition of posters was held last week at Mt. Holly.

Included on the membership of the county committee in charge of the contest was Dr. P. C. Hulse, of Palmyra.

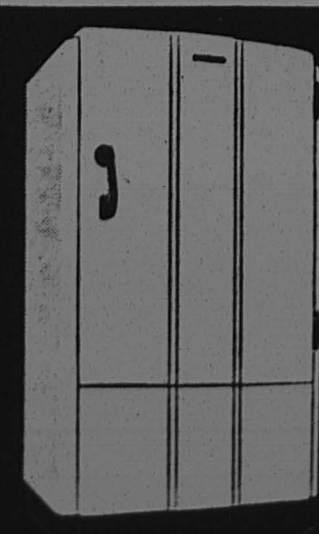

Winning posters will be entered in the contest at the New Jersey State Dental Convention, April 20-22, at Atlantic City.

SURVEYS ON DELAWARE FOR FLOOD CONTROL

The division engineer of the War Department has announced that a survey has been recommended for flood control on the Delaware River. The work will include the degree and extent of local protection work which may be economically justified. Reservoir surveys are not recommended.

FEDERAL GRANT STILL UNCERTAIN

County May Get Funds for Almshouse if Congress Passes Bill

The entire Burlington County Board of Freeholders, accompanied by the solicitor and the architect made a pilgrimage to Washington last week to determine whether or not a federal grant of funds could be secured to finance the construction of the new almshouse.

After a series of conferences with government officials, they learned that the county might receive an appropriation if and when Congress takes action on the latest pumping suggestions made by the President.

 The application for money was made last year and is understood that there are 3000 of a similar nature already on file in Washington.

This application, officials believe, stands a good chance of being granted, providing changes are not made in the manner of qualification. The whole affair, however, hinges on the question of whether necessary funds are appropriated.

Congressman D. Lane Powers, representative from this district spent much time with the members of the county delegation while they were in the capital city.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM OVER CARD PARTY

At the final committee meeting in preparation for the annual card party to be given by the Sacred Heart Parish this Friday night, April 22nd, at the Sacred Heart school hall on Linden avenue, Riverton, it was concluded that this will be the most popular event of the season. All committee chairmen reported the finest array of beautiful prizes has been gathered for this affair.

Father Welsh is very much enthused by the response and interest shown and anticipates a large gathering.

Tables have been arranged for bridge, pinocle, five hundred and other games. Both floors will be used in order to accommodate the players.

Games will begin promptly at 8.30 o'clock, and the donation will be 50c.

DECLINE IN FOOD COSTS MEETS HALT

The sharp decline in retail food prices which began in October, 1937, met its first halt during March when the average cost of 83 food articles in New Jersey was only 0.08 per cent lower than the previous month, according to statistics collected by the State Department of Agriculture.

However, the March, 1938, price was approximately 10.99 per cent below March, 1937. Meat prices mounted 3.46 per cent in March above February while eggs dropped 1.54 per cent; fresh fruits and vegetables, 3.87 per cent; beverages and chocolate, 3.98 per cent, and canned fish, 5.08 per cent. Dairy products remained unchanged and fats, oils, sugar and sweets showed an upward trend.

Round steak increased from 30.75 cents a pound in February to 34 cents in March; sirloin steak from 36.75 cents a pound to 37.50 cents, and loin roast from 22.75 cents a pound to 26.50 cents.

Lamb chuck mounted 3.25 cents a pound to 20.75 cents in March compared to the preceding month, but this price was still .75 cents below the March, 1937, price. Leg of lamb was 3.5 cents higher, reaching 29 cents a pound, in March but was still 1.5 cents below a year ago.

Rib chops climbed 7 cents to 36 cents a pound in March, which was still 6.25 cents below March, 1937.

AIR MAIL STAMP TO BE ISSUED

A distinctive, two-color air mail stamp will be issued by the United States Post Office Department as a special recognition of National Air Mail Week, May 15 to 21. This stamp will be symbolic of the air mail, and should be highly desirable for the many thousands of collectors who will send and receive letters on the special flights that week.

This stamp will be of six-cent denomination, the same size as the commemorative issues. The border, of distinctive air mail design, will be printed in blue and the central design will be in red. This design will depict an eagle with outstretched wings, bearing in its talons a shield, olive wreath and a bundle of arrows.

This stamp first will be placed on sale May 14, at Dayton Ohio, home of the Wright Brothers who built the first successful airplane, and at St. Petersburg, Fla., where the first passenger flight was made. On the following days of Air Mail Week, this stamp will be on sale throughout the United States.

Hundreds of privately-owned airplanes will take to the air, piloted by their owners, on May 19 to provide a special pick-up air mail service which will extend into a great number of communities now remote from the regular transcontinental air mail lines.

Private fliers are co-operating with enthusiasm in the preparations for these special flights. This will be a contribution of their time and service to the Air Mail Week program and by this cooperation, will provide one of the outstanding features of the week.

Through the efforts of Lawrence Betty, of Palmyra, and the contributions of 70 merchants and citizens, the members of the championship basketball team at Palmyra High School have been awarded gold basketballs.

The presentation was made on Wednesday morning to the thirteen players by Mr. Betty.

The members of the team and Mr. Betty wish to thank all those who made the award possible by their generous contributions.

This was the first time in the history of the school that a team ever won the S. J. Group III court title.

from 8.15 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon was a long day and consequently had overloaded his bus on the return trip. However, if the parents are satisfied to have their children spend that many hours on the school property, they would be glad to return them in two trips.

The matter was referred to the transportation committee for immediate action.

A resolution was passed authorizing the rental of a plot of ground 200 feet by 36 feet to Sebastian Manero for the period of May 1 to December 1, at a rental fee of $15.

Dr. Hayes B. Brady was appointed school dentist on the same basis as last year. Dr. Harry L. Rogers was appointed school physician on a new basis, which was felt might reduce the possibility of serious epidemics in the school. He will visit the school three times weekly and thus children coming down with a contagious disease may readily be detected and isolated before the malady has a chance to spread.

Dr. Luther Bradley was appointed physician for school number 4 for the ensuing year at the same rate as heretofore.

The transportation committee was authorized to offer a renewal of bus contracts for the ensuing year at the same rate. This is according to law and, if accepted, will not have to be advertised until next year.

EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING

Effective advertising is "Planned Advertising," advertising to which considerable thought has been given before it is translated in type, paper and ink.

Today's business conditions demand more than ever before the intelligent consideration of advertising campaigns, large or small. Whatever the medium . . . be it newspaper, direct mail, circulars, etc., each should be studied for cost, effective coverage, and effective appeal.

Advertisements should be considered for "eye appeal" by means of appropriate illustrations, type faces and type arrangement. The text of the message, too, should be telling and sufficiently interesting to command the reader's attention through to its finish.

In all of these requirements for effective advertising, The New Era is equipped to render a constructive, helpful service. Within the past year The New Era has added considerably to its selection of new type faces. It has established a complete photographic department that has proved its worth on many pieces of commercial printing as well as newspaper work. Its mechanics are skilled craftsmen with many years of service in the trade to their credit. Literally thousands of stock cuts are available to aid in producing attractive advertising and printed pieces. And last, but by no means least, idea and copy preparation are available for the asking.

The New Era invites inquiry. It is glad to sit down with an advertiser and talk over any advertising problem, large or small. It's our business to help you get business Phone us anytime.

FORTY-THREE CASES OF RABIES SINCE JAN. 1
Rabies is occurring in many parts of the state.

Since January 1, the State Department of Health has examined the heads of 43 dogs shown to have rabies. The distribution by counties was: Atlantic 1; Burlington 2; Essex 1; Hunterdon 1; Middlesex 14; Mercer 2; Morris 10; Salem 1; Somerset 8; Union 1; Warren 2.

Dr. J. Lynn Mahaffey, State Health Director, today appealed to local boards of health to enforce rabies regulations. He also asked the veterinarians to serve as a first line of defense.

"Other cases have been reported," said Dr. Mahaffey, "including some examined in other laboratories and some not submitted for laboratory confirmation. We have made special investigation in certain communities and found that animals suspected of having rabies had died or were killed and buried without knowledge of the local board of health or the State Department of Health."

YWCA NOTES

Camp Director

Miss Grace Whitlock, of Julieton, has been selected by the personnel committee of the Burlington County Young Women's Christian Association board of directors, as director of the Day Camp to be sponsored by the county YWCA again this summer.

Miss Whitlock is principal of the Jobtown school and is active in the Burlington County Council of Religious Education, taking a particular interest in music.

The YWCA Day Camp is planned especially for girls who wish camp experience while living at home. As in previous years, buses will collect the girls each morning and take them to the camp site near Cedar Lake, returning each afternoon.

Mrs. William Matlack, of Moorestown, has accepted the chairmanship of the camp committee this year, and a meeting of the committee will be held at her home Tuesday evening, May 3.

JERSEY "GRASS" EARLY THIS YEAR

First shipments of New Jersey green asparagus available on local markets throughout the state this week are more than two weeks in advance of the usual season, according to George B. Crisp, supervisor of fruit and vegetable marketing, State Department of Agriculture. Mild weather and ideal growing conditions have assured a crop of fine quality succulent "grass" for the opening markets. Mr. Crisp stated, "Proof of the high quality of New Jersey grown asparagus is evident in the annual increased demands from processing plants. Approximately one-third of last year's crop went to the canneries. This year it is estimated that between 35 and 40 per cent of the total crop will be used either in canning or in freezing processes."

COMMENT

Some of the hats worn on Easter by members of the fair sex were original "creations" in every sense of the word.

The advent of the big league baseball season in Philadelphia failed to arouse much enthusiasm among local fans, as both the A's and the Phillies appear to be destined for a permanent berth in the cellar of each league.

The gifts of the Easter Bunny gladdened the hearts and saddened the stomachs of many a youngster before the weekend was over.

Today there are many executives who have cut their advertising appropriations to the bone, called in their salesmen and now sit with long faces waiting for business to come to them.

In good times they went after business—and got it. Now, with business harder to get, they sit waiting for it to come to them. There are, however, business men who are making a success of things today. How? By putting more fire and pep into their advertising efforts.

FLOWER MART AND BAZAAR MAY 14

A number of booths will be erected where flowers, plants, fancy goods, candy, delicatessen and ice cream will be offered for sale.

The 1930 census reported 37 women bootblacks in the United States.

GARDEN STATE ANNEXES TITLE

Garden State won the championship in the second half of the Burlington County Bowling League, by virtue of a two game victory over their arch rivals, Coddington, on Tuesday night of this week, at the Palmyra alleys.

As the Staters also won the first half, no playoffs will be necessary. Both teams battled furiously during the entire year with Garden State having a record of 33 wins in the first half, compared with 31 for the Painters. The final standing of the second semester was 34 victories for the champs and 33 for the Coddington bowlers.

Teams Off Form
Both teams were decidedly off form Tuesday night, but the eventual winners rallied in the second and third games to win by a comfortable margin.

GIRLS TO FORM BASEBALL LOOP

Riverton-Palmyra is to have a team in the Burlington County Girls' Softball League if present plans materialize. The first organization meeting will be held in the Palmyra YMCA on Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock, so that the local girls may send representatives to the county meeting to be held in Burlington next Monday night. All Riverton or Palmyra girls who are interested in softball are cordially invited to be present at Friday night's session.

When the league was first proposed several weeks ago, it was planned to have an eight team circuit, but since then so many towns have expressed enthusiasm for the idea that a Riverton eight team loop and an inland eight team loop will probably be the result.

Among the towns that are already organizing besides Riverton-Palmyra are Bordentown, Robbling, Florence, Burlington, Delanco, Riverside, Mt. Holly, Pemberton, Medford, Medford Lakes, Marlton, Mt. Laurel, Maple Shade and Moorestown.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

The Burlington County Firemen's Auxiliary elected officers for the coming year at their regular monthly meeting held last week in the Florence fire house.

Mrs. Catherine Simpson, of Lenola, was elected president, and Sadie Mitch, of Riverside, first vice president.

Several hundred youngsters participated in the annual Easter Egg Hunt, last Saturday afternoon. The event is sponsored by the Y's Men's Club, of Moorestown.

PUBLIC SERVICE EARNINGS LOWER

Earnings of Public Service, particularly in regard to industrial electric power and in the transportation end of the business, have fallen off the first three months of 1938 as compared with the corresponding period last year and it will be necessary to reduce dividends on the common stock for the balance of the year, Thomas N. McCarter president of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, told stockholders at the annual meeting of the corporation today (April 18). Mr. McCarter said, however, this should not be viewed too seriously because if business conditions should improve the earnings of the company would likely turn upward. What the dividend reduction will be has not yet been determined by the directors.

Valparaiso, Chile, has women drivers on all street cars.

HOUSEKEEPING HINTS From The HOUSE PRACTICAL OF PUBLIC SERVICE

WHEN warm days are here you want food to tempt lagging appetites—meals that are light but nourishing. This spring dinner has been selected with that in mind and all the items, especially the cucumber soup and strawberry ice, have a springtime suggestion.

Candied Sweet Potatoes
6 sweet potatoes 1 cup brown or salt and pepper maple sugar
Butter ¼ cup water

Paré the potatoes and boil until about half done. Drain, cut in lengthwise slices and lay in a shallow greased pan. Spread generously with butter and pour over all the syrup made by boiling sugar and water together. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, basting frequently with the syrup until potatoes are transparent, for about one hour. It may be necessary to add more syrup during the baking.

NOTE:—The sweet potatoes may be baked at the same temperature as the ham; started at 325 degrees and finished at 350 degrees. (See temperature in ham recipe.)

Spring Salad
1 head endive French dressing
1 head romaine " " " "
1 head chicory Watercress
1 cup fresh pine Radishes
apple wedges

Cut endive and romaine separate in one-half inch pieces. Separate chicory in small pieces. Chill greens and toss together with chilled pine apple wedges. Mix with French dressing to moisten. Arrange on salad plates. Garnish with sprigs of watercress and thin slices of radish.

Strawberry Ice
1½ cups sugar 2 cups crushed strawberries
1 cup water ¼ cup orange juice

Boil sugar and water for five minutes. Chill, add to strawberries which have been put through potato ricer or crushed very fine and mixed with the orange juice. Place in trays of automatic refrigerator and freeze as quickly as possible. The ice will be extra smooth if stirred after it is about half frozen. Cherry, raspberry and banana ice may be made in this same manner.

There are ways of economizing in cooking, whatever fuel is used: one is to plan oven-cooked meals and to use the oven to its full capacity. Another is to avoid opening the oven door unless absolutely necessary. Opening the door wastes the heat. A third is to heat just the amount of water needed—not a gallon when a pint will do.

Baked Ham
1 whole ham 2 tbs. flour
1 cup brown sugar Whole cloves
Maraschino cherries

Wipe with a damp cloth. Brown in glassine or the printed wrapper in which ham comes and place fat side up in a shallow pan. Bake at 325 degrees, allowing twenty minutes per pound for hams weighing more than twelve pounds and twenty-three minutes per pound for hams weighing less than twelve pounds.

Remove paper and skin the ham. Score the fat for decoration, dot with slices of maraschino cherries and whole cloves and cover with brown sugar mixed with flour. Bake at 350 degrees for twenty-five minutes.

NEW GIFT SET AT THEATRE

Palmyra's popular Broadway theatre has distributed many free premium sets to the ladies, but none has aroused so much interest and favorable comment as the "First Love Vanity Set" now on display.

The new vanity, or dresserware set, as it is called, is advertised for distribution every Monday and Thursday, starting April 23. It will be given absolutely free to the ladies, two different items a week—one on Monday, and one on Thursday. Ladies who cannot attend the evening performance may obtain the item distributed that day by attending the matinee and paying the evening price. The complete set will be given in 20 gift days.

Patrons of the Broadway are unanimous in their opinion that never before has so beautiful a gift set been offered in any theatre, regardless of admission price, and the fact that this complete set, with retail value of ten dollars may be obtained on 20 gift days, promises a record-breaking attendance on those occasions of the Broadway. The management of the Broadway, which has built up an excellent reputation for the quality of its entertainment, now adds to that reputation by offering its lady patrons what is probably the costliest gift set ever distributed by any theatre.

Know Your Government

The interest shown by the readers of this column is reflected in a number of questions which have been asked concerning certain phases and costs of government, a few of which are answered here. Other questions and answers will be published from time to time. If you have a question, the answer to which would be of general interest, direct your question to the editor of your paper or to the New Jersey Taxpayers Association, Trenton. Questions which are not of general interest will be answered direct by mail.

Exempt Property
Question. How much exempt property is there in New Jersey and what are the classifications?
Answer.

Public school property $255,346,470
Other school property 67,826,043
Public property 382,845,176
Church and charitable property 189,252,091
Cemeteries, graveyards 17,326,445
Other exempt property included in foregoing classification—Real 86,519,865
Personal 31,822,473

Total $1,030,938,563
Net valuation taxable, 1937 5,768,303,601

Q. What percentage of the tax dollar goes toward our public school education?
A. Considering state, county and municipal governments, of the total cost of government education took 26.3% as shown by the Commission to Investigate County and Municipal Taxation and Expenditures in its report No. 1, issued January 30, 1931. The figures since then show very slight variation and those just quoted may be considered as approximately the percentage at the present time.

Q. How much does it cost to run our public school system in this State?
A. The cost of public school education for the fiscal year 1936-37 was $107,995,010.02. This includes administration, supervision, operation, maintenance, fixed charges, capital outlay, debt service, vocational, continuation, manual training, evening schools, etc. Of this amount $75,555,732.58 represents grand total costs of all day schools.

Consolidation
Q. Do you believe the consolidation of local government units would reduce taxes on real estate which now carries most of the tax burden?
A. There are cases where consolidation of contiguous communities would result in material reduction of the tax burden, and there are cases where it just does not seem possible that consolidation would result in substantial savings. This is

BAND CONCERT ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 4

The band concert which is being planned as one of the local events in connection with the national observance of Music Week, will be held in the Palmyra High School auditorium, on Wednesday evening, May 4, according to an announcement made this week by T. Curtis Flynn, of Palmyra.

The affair will be given by the same WPA band which performed in such a splendid manner at the concert in The Grove, last summer.

Further details regarding the program will be announced next week.

YOUTH TO RULE
HERE ON APRIL 30

Fine Program Arranged for Younger Generation of Palmyra-Riverton

The local observance of Youth
Week will officially get under way on Saturday afternoon, April 30, at two o'clock, when high school students will be inducted into all the various municipal offices in Riverton and Palmyra.

The members of both councils will hold meetings, the chiefs of fire and police departments will assume their respective duties and, for several hours, both communities will be in the hands of the younger generation.
This phase of the activities is being arranged by Mayor John F.
Ward, of Palmyra, and James P.
Hughes, member of the Palmyra
High School faculty.

Church Service

On Sunday evening, May 5, a special Interdenominational Youth Week Church Service will be held in the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra, at 7:45. Rev. George Lockett will have charge of the program and there will be special music.

This will not only be a service for youth, but high school students will participate in conducting the service.

Pet and Hobby Show

As in former years, the pet and hobby show will be one of the main features of the week.

This event is slated to take place on Thursday evening, May 5, at the Palmyra High School and is in charge of the Phalanx Fraternity, with Dr. Hayes B. Brady as chairman of the committee.

There will be an extensive list of classes, so that an opportunity will be afforded for a wide variety of exhibits.

Trips on Saturday

Two interesting trips have been arranged for Saturday, May 7, the places selected being the Philadelphia Navy Yard and the Planetarium.

These will be limited to boys from 12 to 18 years of age. Those desiring to go are requested to register at their respective schools.

Transportation will be provided by

Fountain Girl Is Safe At Home

Betty Fountain, 14, of 610 Pennsylvania avenue, Palmyra, a student at Palmyra High School was safe at home on Saturday after a search had been started to locate her.

She did not return home from school Friday afternoon and her parents, becoming alarmed, notified Palmyra police, who immediately started an investigation.

Miss Fountain is reported to have returned to Palmyra late Friday evening, having visited relatives in Camden during the interim.

Authorities at first believed that the case might be similar to the disappearance of Mary Jane Donaghy last September. She is still missing.

FIRE COMPANIES

erton Fire Departments will answer an alarm with Youth Week members of the companies responding

SUMMER ROUND-UP
BY LOCAL P.T.A.

Health Examinations to Be Held
Week of May 10 to 14;
Parent Aid Asked

The annual Summer Round-Up of local children will be conducted from May 10 to May 14. The purpose of the Round-Up is to send to the kindergarten a class of children as free as possible from remediable defects.
The Round-Up includes all children from two years of age, to those eligible for school in September.

Examination Days

Since people accept corrective suggestions from their family physician more readily than from a public agent, the local doctors have co-operated with the P.T.A. and will examine the children in their offices on the following days:

Dr. H. P. Landis, Jr., Tuesday,
May 10, 1 to 2 p.m.
Dr. H. B. Mark, Tuesday, May 10,
10 to 11 a.m.
Dr. C. S. Mills, Tuesday, May 10,
3 to 4 p.m.
Dr. H. W. Bauer, Wednesday, May
11, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. D. H. LeFavor, Wednesday,
May 11, 8:45 a.m.
Dr. T. B. Dickson, Thursday,
May 12, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. H. L. Rogers, Thursday, May
12, 2 to 3 p.m.
Dr. C. F. Voorhis, Thursday, May
12, 1 to 2 p.m.
Dr. J. C. Voss, Daily except Wednesday, 4 p.m.

The doctors are giving their time without remuneration. Will you not make an effort to take your preschool children to your family doctor for a health examination?

under the direction of Mrs. Murray
C. Boyer, will have an exhibition of bers and is the first of its kind ever

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Club of Palmyra will

HITS POLE IN CRASH

On Sunday morning, H. S. Davis, of Edgewater Park, ran his car into a pole on River road. He was taken to the Zuerbrugg Memorial Hospital by Chief George Dorworth, of Cin-naminon. The victim had severe

MANY AT LOCAL BANK AUCTION

Several Properties Sold at Affair Held Here Last Friday Night

The quarters of the defunct Palmyra National Bank were jammed to the doors, last Friday evening, as scores attended the auction of property owned by that institution and the Collingswood National Bank and the Mt. Holly National Bank, also closed.

The sale was conducted by Joseph Day, Inc., auctioneers by order of Charles J. Long and Spencer L.
Haines, receivers.

All bids were subject to the approval of the Federal authorities and the receivers and minimum amounts were established for all parcels that were offered.

No Interest

Although placed on the block twice during the sale, which occupied several hours, the Palmyra bank building proved of little interest to those present, the few offers made being ridiculously low.

An eight room residence located at 216 Garfield avenue, Palmyra, was sold to Dr. Lamb, his bid being $2000.

The two and a half story frame dwelling at 427 Cinnaminson avenue was knocked down to Harry Miller, of Camden. His offer was $1100.

A plot 150 by 217 feet in area at 729 Park avenue, Palmyra, was purchased by Herbert Trout for $375.

A representative of 20th Century-Fox bought the Mt. Holly bank building and a 10 room attached residence for $5500.

Other sales included property in Collingswood, and Mt. Holly. Several parcels were passed when bids of sufficient size could not be obtained.

Prospective buyers were, for the most part, very conservative in making offers. There were seldom raises of more than $100 and $50 jumps predominated. The auctioneer became hard of hearing when $10 increases were made.

ARRESTS MADE
HERE THIS WEEK

Several more drivers were taken into custody in Palmyra, during the past week. The cases which were heard before Mayor John F. Ward, were as follows:

F. M. Patterson, 139 State street,
Camden, passing stop street; Gustav Dingoski, 1470 Louis street, Camden, careless driving; J. K. Lott, 313 Taylor street, Riverside, passing stop street; E. J. Kramer, 105 Johnson avenue, Oaklyn, passing stop street.

Robert Bradley, 807 Chestnut street, Camden, careless driving; H.
S. Weaver, 1325 Virginia avenue,
Charlottesville, Va., passing stop street; Philip Paonesso, 933 Hall street, Philadelphia, passing stop street; Philip Wertz, 816 N. Fourth street, Camden, careless driving.

Women's Guild To

Have you ever been to a Sample Party? According to those who have attended you will surely want to repeat such an amusing experience and, if you haven't been, now is your chance.

The Women's Guild of Christ Church, Riverton, is presenting this novel form of entertainment at the Parish House, on Thursday, May 5, at 3:30 o'clock.

The low price of admission, 25 cents, entitles those who attend to a most amazing collection of articles from various sample tables.

Ice Cream and cake will be served for 10 cents.
Don't forget the date, time and place—May 5, 3:30, at the Parish House.

TOMATO PLANTS
ARRIVING HERE

The tomato planting season is on.
Each day several express cars are spotted on the Thomas avenue siding, Riverton, to supply scores of growers who are desirous of obtaining plants from the south.

Before the season is over, Fred Conway, local agent of the Railway Express estimates that from 60-75 carloads of plants will be distributed here.

BOARD REPLIES
TO P.W.A. QUERY

Answers Telegram Regarding Application for Grant
On Almshouse

At a meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders held last Friday afternoon, a telegram was sent to M. E. Gilmore, regional director of P.W.A., New York City, that the county was very much interested in obtaining a Federal grant of funds for the proposed almshouse.
This was in reply to a wire from P.W.A. regarding the present attitude of the county regarding the application which was filed last year, being similar to ones sent out to some 3000 municipalities.

Bids Received

Bids were received for 698 steel document cases for the surrogate's office. Max Blau & Sons, of Newark, and the Wilkinson Equipment Co., of Philadelphia, submitted identical proposals, both agreeing to furnish the equipment for the sum of $1149. The bids were ordered referred to the solicitor and surrogate for investigation and report.

A lively discussion arose over the proposal of the Keystone Stationery Co., of Camden, which contained no certified check.

Informal

A motion was passed to have this declared informal, after which Freeholder Albert C. Jones moved that the informality be waived and the bid be accepted. He stated that this could be done under the provisions of the legal advertisement and, if the bid was low, it would save the county money.

Other bidders present objected to this, as did Freeholders Church and Stout. The Jones motion was lost by a 3-2 vote.

According to a statement made by Mr. Stout, after the matter had been disposed of, the Keystone bid was not low.

Crossing Repairs

A request from Cinnaminson township that the county repair the crossing at Reed street, East Riv-erton, was referred to the county engineer.

The solicitor, Christopher N.
Peditto, rendered a decision that it would be unconstitutional and illegal for the Board to make a contribution to the Memorial Day celebration at Beverly.

The following departmental bills were approved and ordered paid:
Revenue and finance, $8,070.40;
roads, $6,955.98; bridges, $2,411.09;
public affairs, $11,902.37; buildings,
$16,476.79; a total of $45,816.63.

EARLY MORNING ALARM

The Riverton Fire Department responded to an alarm at 3:30 Wednesday morning for a blaze in a Pennsylvania car, near the railroad station. Little damage resulted, the flames being put out in short order.

MOVE TO RESCIND
BOND ISSUE FAILS

Board of Freeholders Votes
4-1 to Continue with Present Plans

At an adjourned meeting held on Monday afternoon, the Burlington County Board of Freeholders voted not to rescind the contracts for construction of the proposed almshouse.
Freeholder Palmer L. Adams cast the only vote in favor of such action.
Mr. Adams also moved that the authorized bond issue also be cancelled, but this proposal was lost, as there was no second.

The Friday afternoon meeting was adjourned until Monday in order that definite action could be taken on the bond issue, the purpose being to wait as long as possible in order to determine whether Federal funds would be available.

Time Limit Expired

The bond issue was authorized on April 5, but 20 days are required to elapse before it becomes in force.
This time expired Tuesday night.

The resolution was opened when the clerk read a communication from Congressman D. Lane Powers, which stated that he could furnish no definite information about passage of the bill, or what regulations might be included in such legislation, if and when passed.

A wire from the architect, Colonel
Hugh Kelly stated that Colonel
Clark of the PWA had advised him that no one, at present, could tell what the PWA might be able to do. The object of the project (the wire continued) was to help municipalities that were not in a position to finance work. It concluded with the rather cryptic statement that PWA advised the county to award the contracts as planned and file an application for another project.

Asks Solicitor

Mr. Adams then asked the solicitor, Christopher N. Peditto, about various legal phases of the bonds, his thought being that PWA funds would probably not be available if plans for floating the issue were put into effect.

Mr. Peditto replied that the question required considerable research, but remarked that the contractors would probably have the basis for a suit if something were not done about the awards. He said that the successful bidders had complied with the regulations. He added, however, that in the event of a suit, only the judge and jury would be able to determine the outcome.

MOVE TO RESCIND BOND ISSUE FAILS

Provisional

Mr. Adams asserted that the awarding of the contracts was contingent upon passage of the bond issue which provided the necessary funds and inquired why 20 days must elapse between passage and putting the provisions of the resolution into operation.

Mr. Peditto replied that this was done in order that the taxpayers might have an opportunity to question the legality of the move and file a restraining writ if there were objections. He said that in this event, the contractors still might have the basis for a suit.

Wants to Rescind

Adams said that he still was in favor of rescinding the measure and awaiting the outcome of the PWA project, stating that the awarding of contracts was entirely contingent upon the bond issue.

Freeholder Jones said that the board must have some legal reason for such action. He added that the construction might cost more under a PWA project and that the county would take a chance in being involved in several lawsuits.

A representative of Harry Knecht, one of the successful bidders, said that his firm was ready to sue in the event that the awards were not made.

Possible Loss

Mr. Jones remarked that the successful bidders might have turned down bids on other jobs because they assumed they would get the almshouse project. Adams retorted with a statement that they had no right to assume anything.

He then asked that Mr. Peditto render a written opinion regarding the matter.

The solicitor replied that the matter was entirely too involved to give such a statement in 24 hours and that several days might be required.

Asks Solicitor

Adams then asked the solicitor whether the board was within its rights in rescinding the bond issue.

To this, Mr. Peditto said that such a question should be asked in executive session and that a reply might lay open the defense of the county in the event of a lawsuit. He added that the question required a judicial answer.

He further said that Mr. Adams was not putting him on the spot by making the query, but rather that the members of the board would themselves be on the spot.

Questionnaire Answered

A questionnaire from PWA regarding the present status of the project was answered and sent to the proper authorities. This was done in the event the present application is granted.

In summarizing the entire discussion, four members of the board felt that rescinding the bond issue and delaying the awarding of contracts might involve the county in lawsuits and might increase the cost of the work, if it became necessary to obtain new bids.

Against This

In opposition to Messrs. Lamon, Jones, Church and Stout, Mr. Adams felt that all chances of a Federal grant would be lost if the issue were not cancelled and that the county would be in little danger of suits on the part of the contractors.

DELRAN YACHT CLUB

New Float Planned

The regular monthly meeting of Delran Yacht Club was held last week at the club house, Cinnaminson township, with Commodore Charles F. Voorhis presiding. An unusually large attendance disposed of routine business and discussed plans for the coming outdoor season.

The beautiful and spacious grounds are now being put in order, together with a complete resurfacing of the tennis court. Placing of a new float and landing facilities—much of which is already completed—will start within the next week.

Auxiliary Events

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Delran Yacht Club have completed arrangements for a Dessert Bridge and Fashion Show, at the club house, May 25. Eighteen tables have already been reserved for the ladies and their guests. The Fashion Show promises an unusual display on living models of gowns by The Agnes Shop, with hats by Verna Guest, both of Palmyra.

DR. LOVE SPEAKS TO LOCAL P.T.A.

Moorestown Physician Takes "Health" as Subject; Study Group Meets

Another in the series of Child Study Groups was conducted at the Riverton Public School, on Monday afternoon, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. Miss Helen Blair, one of the local Visiting Nurses, was the leader, and read several timely articles by noted physicians, pertaining to Sex Education, and the prevention of social diseases among the young folks. Subsequently the audience discussed the subjects from various angles, including the importance of early instruction.

Speaks on "Health"

At three-thirty, the Child Study Group adjourned to attend a regularly scheduled P.T.A. meeting, at which Dr. Elizabeth Love of Moorestown was principal speaker. Dr. Love spoke on "Health," and discussed the progress being made in the control of disease through preventive measures. She mentioned the success of vaccination and toxin-antitoxin as means of preventing smallpox and diphtheria. She also described the T.B. tests which are now given to children, and told her audience that in many colleges X-ray pictures are taken of the chests of new students.

Many Cases Detected

Many unsuspected cases of T.B. are detected, with such prompt attention usually preventing a spread of the disease. Dr. Love also stressed the importance of prenatal care, and of a clean bill of health for all those contemplating marriage, as well as the sterilization of the insane, to check the rapid increase in the number of births among mentally deficient persons. She believes much can be done for future generations if we take the necessary steps now to prevent the spread of communicable and inheritable diseases.

Mrs. Maurice Belknap and Mrs. C. V. Devery entertained the audience with a delightful piano duet, and at the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by the hospitality committee. Publicity.

Leave at 1:15

Both trips will leave from the Y building, Palmyra, at 1:15 o'clock. There will be no expense involved for the navy based expedition, but a maximum of 30 cents will be needed for the Planetarium.

Paul R. Jones, supervising principal of Palmyra Public Schools and Miss Caroline M. Staman, supervising principal of the Riverton School are cooperating in handling this part of the program.

No Baseball Game

According to E. Newbold Cooper, who is handling many of the details of the week's activities, no trip to a big league baseball game could be arranged this year, so this event must, of a necessity, be eliminated. With such a fine program arranged, this week promises to be full of interest for the younger generation and the committee is desirous that there will be a large participation in the various activities.

Sewage Disposal Plant

There seems to be a unanimous opinion among Riverton citizens that, some time in the not too far distant future, the Borough will have to construct a sewage disposal plant, at a considerable expense.

If the proposed pump-priming policy of the Government is carried out, millions of dollars will be available to municipalities for public improvements and much of this will be in the nature of outright gifts. Thus, a disposal plant could be built for a much lower sum than if the whole project were financed from local appropriations.

In connection with a Federal grant it must be remembered, however, that thousands of communities will be hustling to secure their share of the appropriation. It behooves our local authorities, therefore, to take prompt action in this matter in order to get under the wire before the pump runs dry.

Details regarding work of this nature cannot be worked out over night and every minute lost may jeopardize the chances of a government allotment.

To these groups, as well as those who are intermittent in their attendance, an invitation is extended to attend "Central Baptist" Bible School. It is here that you will become acquainted and it is here you will find real friendships.

11.15 a.m. Morning worship. The pastor's subject for his sermon is "The Conflict Between Good and Evil." Communion will follow the sermon of the morning, to which everyone is most cordially invited. Many new members will be taken into Christian fellowship.

6.45 p.m. B.Y.P.U. High School Group meeting in the Sunday School room, and the Senior Group in the Junior Department. Last week's meeting was led by Miss Charlotte Voss.

7.45 p.m. Evening service. This service will be in keeping with the program for Youth Week. It will be one in which the young people will take part and to which the youth of our communities is invited. Pastor Lockett will have an appropriate sermon and the High School band will furnish several musical selections during the services. This is a Youth service, but the grown-ups should show them just how essential it is to attend by being on hand themselves.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Everlasting Punishment" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, May 1, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?" (Ezekiel 18:23)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty." (Job 5:17)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes this passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Do you ask wisdom to be merciful and not to punish sin? Then 'ye ask anisms.' Without punishment, sin would multiply." (p. 10)

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH

Rev. William A. Boyd, Pastor

"The Bible" is the subject of the sermon to be delivered in the Methodist Church this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. This service was postponed from last week on account of illness in the family of the donors of the new Bible which will be received and dedicated this week. The new Bible markers will also be received and dedicated. Appropriate music will be sung by the junior and senior choir.

"A Springtime Service" will be held in the evening at 7.45. This service will be an interpretation of the religious message of Springtime. The organ music, the mixed quartet, the solos, the anthem by the choir and all the hymns have been chosen with a view to the theme of the evening. The decorations will be made up of spring flowers and spring foliage. We invite the public to come and enjoy this beautiful springtime service from 7 to 8 o'clock. During the rest of the spring and summer our morning and evening services will be one hour in length.

The official board of our church will meet on Tuesday evening in the guild room, at 8 o'clock. This is an important meeting. During the session we shall introduce and receive all the new members who have recently been added to the board. There will also be a surprise feature in which every member of the board will be interested. Every member is urged to be present.

The mid-week church service will be in charge of the minister this Wednesday evening from eight to nine o'clock.

LOCALS TAKE 10 INNING FRACAS

Score 5-4 Win Over Camden
Catholic: Gibson's Hit
Annexes Verdict

Camden Catholic proved to be the stiffest opposition Palmyra High's ball tossers have had to contend with this season, but the locals were equal to the emergency and downed the enemy 5-4, in a 10-inning engagement, last Friday afternoon, at Palmyra.

The deciding tally was produced by virtue of a timely single from the bat of Prisco. This hit followed a one-baser by Rothbaum and a sacrifice by McDermott. The former centered across with the marker. Rothbaum, by the way, got three out of five and appears to be a candidate for local slugging honors this year.

Three Pitchers

Coach Ken Dimond used three hurlers during the encounter, Metucci, Carhart and Baker seeing action. Franks went the route for Camden.

The win was the third straight for the Red and White. It also marked the initial reverse for Catholic.

Both teams tallied once in the first frame and Camden went ahead by racking up another in the second. Palmyra grabbed a pair in the fifth and Catholic followed suit in their next turn at bat.

The locals knotted the count in the eighth when Gibson singled sharply to score Rothbaum from second.

LEAGUE STARTS MONDAY NIGHT

Oakwood Chevy and Fortnum Clash: Athletics Will Meet Millside

With appropriate ceremony, the seventh season of the Memorial Park Softball League will officially open next Monday night, at 6.45.

Mayor H. McIlvaine Biddle, of Riverton, or a member of the borough council designated by His Honor will give a brief talk and open hostilities by throwing out the first ball.

The opening engagements will find the Oakwood Chevrolet outfit (the former champion Askew team) crossing bats with the Fortnum V-8's, a new entry this year.

In the other tilt, the veteran Athletic cast will oppose the Millside Milkmen.

Two games will also be played on Thursday and the schedule calls for the Bankers (former Merchants) to meet the Dodgers, another new aggregation. Also on Thursday's card is the Cardinal-Parry encounter. The Cards will be recognized as the revamped Collins team.

Play Friday
Due to the fact that there are 10 teams in the league this year, it will be necessary to schedule one game on Friday.

The late this week calls for Broadway to meet Sigma Kappa on that evening.

Final arrangements for the opener were made at a meeting of league officials and managers on Monday of this week and President Walter C. Wright announced that everything is set for the ump's to announce "play ball."

An innovation this year is the installation of a contribution box at the scoreboard on the west diamond. This is for voluntary donations and the proceeds will be used to defray the cost of prizes which will be awarded at the end of the season.

League officials hope that many fans will make donations during the season for this purpose. Any amount will be acceptable.

PALMYRA MAKES IT TWO IN ROW

Paulsboro Outclassed as Red And White Tab Eight Runs in First

The Palmyra High School ball tossers made it two in a row last Wednesday afternoon on the local lot by pining a 13-1 reverse on Paulsboro.

The visitors never had a chance, since the locals staged an eight run offensive in the opening frame and breezed along to an easy win.

The Red and White batters combed the offerings of two rival hurlers for a total of 11 bingles, including doubles by Rothbaum and Gamble. Bye, Brewster and Gamble all connected safely on two occasions.

Fans 11

Gibson was on the hill for Palmyra during part of the engagement and fanned 11 during his tenure of office. He issued a brace of passes and kept the Paulsboro hits well scattered.

After annexing a single counter in the first inning, the enemy failed to dent the scoring station during the remainder of this encounter.

Palmyra added a trio of markers in the third, singletons in the fourth and fifth and then called it a day.

The toastmistress will be Mrs. Earl Severs, and the program theme will be "Seeing the Beautiful." An elaborate Mother and Daughter banquet is being planned in Burlington for Thursday evening, May 12. The Burlington City YWCA is sponsoring the affair in cooperation with the Burlington Young Men's Club, which will hold a Father and Son banquet on the same evening. SURVEY STARTED AT ALMSHOUSE

County Welfare Board Will Determine Eligibility For U. S. Aid

Harold B. Cooper, director of the Burlington County Welfare Board, announced last week that two investigators from his office will make a survey at Birmingham Inn, temporary almshouse, to determine how many inmates are eligible for Old Age Assistance.

Work on the survey, which was requested by the Board of Freeholders, will commence on Monday, Cooper stated. The purpose of the investigation is to determine how many of the patients may be moved from the institution and boarded in private houses with home environment.

County Pays All

Burlington county at present is paying 100 per cent of the cost of maintaining the aged patients at the almshouse, while those eligible for Old Age Assistance must be moved to private homes and the county would be burdened with but 12 1/2 per cent of the cost of maintenance. Under this plan, the state would pay 37 1/2 per cent of the cost, and the Federal government would supply the remaining 50 per cent.

A person to be eligible for Old Age Assistance must be a citizen of the United States, must be 65 years of age or over, and a resident of New Jersey for five years within nine years preceding application. When the freeholders discussed the possibility of reducing the patient load at the almshouse by placing those eligible on Old Age Assistance, it was estimated that over 40 patients were 65 years of age or more.

Director Cooper requested yesterday that persons interested in boarding the patients or homes equipped to give nursing care to write to him in care of the Burlington County Welfare Board, Mount Holly.

SHINING HOUR CLASS MEETING

The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Shining Hour Class, of Epworth M. E. Church School, was held on Friday evening at the home of the secretary, Miss Florence Stephens, of 300 Cinnaminson avenue.

There were 23 members of the class present, but we still have not attained our goal of 100 per cent.

The next meeting of the group will be on Friday, May 20, at the home of the president, Miss Dorothy Salmer, of 24 Rowland street.

Girls 20 years of age and over, who are not affiliated with any other class or church school, are cordially invited to attend this class which meets at 9:45 on Sunday morning under the leadership of Mrs. William W. Homan. Publicity.

PALMYRA-RIVERTON STAMP CLUB

Many Attend Meeting

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Palmyra-Riverton Stamp Club held last Friday night, in the Legion Home, Palmyra. A feature of the session was a True and False Test, which was won by C. B. Marple. Second honors were secured by Russell Bigelow, with C. P. Mayfield, third, and A. B. Donaghy, fourth.

Interesting Exhibit

Mr. Donaghy displayed the charred fragment of a letter which was recovered from the ill-fated Hindenburg. This communication was mailed to Mr. Donaghy from Germany and the charred piece identified when the debris was examined. This was returned to the original sender, who transmitted it to Palmyra.

Exchanges

Many of the members spent their time in profitable exchanges with others, a considerable assortment of stamps being brought for this purpose.

COMPLAINS WOODS BEING DESTROYED

Rev. H. S. Fraser, of Medford, Appeals to County Board Of Freeholders

At the meeting of the Board of Freeholders held last Friday afternoon, a letter of protest from Rev. Howard S. Fraser, of Medford, was read. This concerned the alleged destruction of woodland in the county by WPA workers.

A copy of the communication was also sent to Governor A. Harry Moore.

Rev. Fraser asserted that the CCC was setting out thousands of trees while the WPA was cutting as many down.

Wood Sold

He also said that quantities of wood were being sold, but none of it went to the workers. Rev. Fraser questioned as to who was getting the money from the transaction.

Rev. Fraser also stated that the cutting operations were not required for fire breaks and that much needed destruction had resulted which, if allowed to go on, would eliminate many of the beauty spots in the county.

The complaint was ordered referred to a committee composed of Freeholders Adams and Jones.

Mr. Adams said that the matter would be fully investigated.

YOUR GARDEN

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

These are busy days for gardeners! Heading the list of garden chores are maintenance and planting. Roses, shrubs, and various border perennials are in leaf. The familiar green aphid shows signs of activity and should be given a good spraying or dusting with nicotine, pyrethrum or one of the derris dusts. Spraying is usually more effective in controlling plant lice, although many gardeners have achieved excellent results with some of the dusts. If you are in doubt, ask your county agent to recommend an effective control measure.

Bulbs

Gladioli, dahlias and practically all summer blooming bulbs may now be planted. Finish sowing seeds, and see that all perennials needing division and replanting this spring have been moved. For a succession of gladioli bloom, it is well to plant the corms at intervals of 10 days from now until the last of June. See that they are properly spaced—at least three or four inches apart in the rows. The depth at which the corms are planted depends to a great extent upon the soil. Naturally, if the soil is a heavy one the corms will not be planted as deeply as will be necessary if it is sandy. A moderate depth of from four to five inches will help the plants to stand up during severe storms and high winds.

Early Planting

Much has been said on the controversial subject of the early planting of dahlias. The early planting of roots are enabled to make better growth than those planted later, although the plants will need more attention. It will be necessary to prune them back until July to make certain that they do not make top growth to any extent. Pinch back the tops in order to leave room for four or five buds that will produce the best bloom. If the original tops are left on these early planted dahlias the wood becomes hard and it is apt to produce an excess of buds which will give only rather poor flowers.

Give dahlias plenty of room and moderately deep planting. Place the roots horizontally in the holes dug for them and cover them with at least three inches of soil.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Third Session

The third session of the Scout Leaders' Training Course that was held at the Presbyterian Sunday School, in Beverly, was under the leadership of William Evans, Jr., Troop 7, Lenola. He spoke on "The Organization and Activities of Scouting." Howard Andrews, who is assistant scoutmaster to Mr. Evans, lead a twenty minute discussion on this topic. James Moore, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 4, Moorestown, spoke on "Building a Program for a Troop that Will Fit the Boy." The discussion on this was led by Scout Executive George A. Darlington. Following this the 23 men present were divided into three groups which were headed by A. B. Branson, Sr., scoutmaster of Troop 5, Palmyra; Mr. 10th, scoutmaster of Troop 14, Marlton; and Assistant Scoutmaster Howard Andrews. Refreshments were served by Scoutmaster Harry Parsons, of Troop 23, Beverly, and Scoutmaster Robert Commons of Troop 16, of Beverly. The fourth session of the course will be held in the same location on Wednesday evening.

Camporees

Reginald H. Gill, County Scout Commissioner, held a meeting of his staff at the Boy Scout office last Tuesday evening, and discussed the plans for the coming camporees with the men. The committee that is making arrangements for the camporees is headed by Commissioner Gill and is assisted by the following district commissioners: W. T. Walker, Jr., Moorestown; C. B. Davenport, and J. B. Hallett, both of Mt. Holly; C. O. Verner, of Palmyra; W. D. Hopkins, Beverly; D. Goldstein, Burlington, and Field Commissioner Solomon Fuller, Bordentown. The camporees will be held in the various districts in the county over a twenty-four hour period on the 17th and 18th of June.

CHARTER LUNCHEON OF PORCH CLUB

A large number of club members were present at the annual charter luncheon held on April 26th. The club room was decorated with beautiful arrangements of tulips, lilacs and dogwood.

A play entitled "Conquest" by Agnes C. Noel, was presented by the drama committee and was directed by Mrs. H. W. Shreve. Those in the cast were Mrs. Claude Anderson, Mrs. Stewart Berger, Mrs. Richard Graff, Mrs. E. C. Hughes, Miss Alice Parrish and Miss Elinore Hall.

On May 3rd, at 2:30, a business meeting will be held, after which the Garden Section is sponsoring a program entitled "The Garden Calendar." Studies of the painting class will be on exhibit that afternoon.

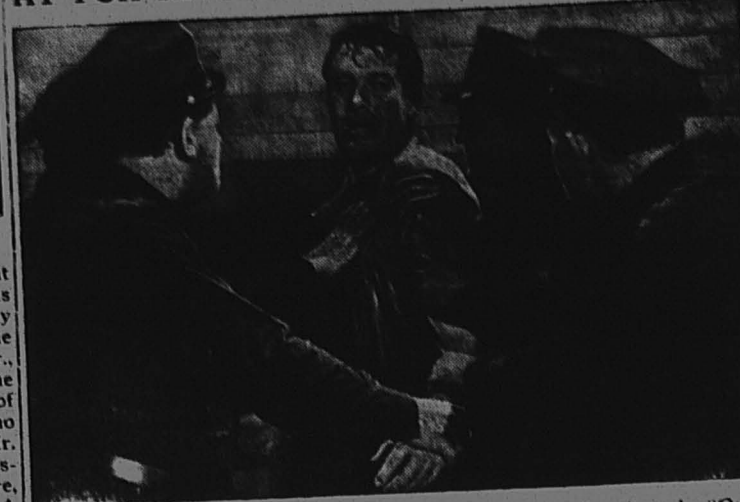

GRUBS OF JAP BEETLE ACTIVE

Japanese beetle grubs have become active in all sections of the state during the past two weeks and already have begun their destructive work on plant roots and turf according to the State Department of Agriculture.

Digging has been done in limited areas to observe activity. Harry B. Weiss, chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, stated, and there are indications that infestations will be somewhat increased in some sections of Union, Essex and adjoining counties. Southern New Jersey will continue at last year's low level of beetle population, experts believe.

It is encouraging to note that a variety of Japanese beetle infestation has been heavy in an area for some years, there is a noticeable decline in following seasons. Mr. Weiss observed "This has been true in southern New Jersey where beetles were most abundant for a time. Last year, that section experienced a heavy drop and the low population is expected to continue this year."

Exhibits must be in place by 11:30 a.m. to allow the judges the time they need. CARE OF ELECTRIC IRON

The electric iron is one of the most frequently used and the most frequently abused appliances, remarks the New Jersey Public Utility Information Committee. Don't leave it turned on while you go about some other business. Pull out the plug at the outlet, not the socket from the iron. Keep the cords dry and don't put heavy things on the cords when they are coiled. You will find that a little care will pay big dividends in efficient performance.

McDERMOTT'S HIT WINS BALL GAME

Palmyra Catcher Bangs Four Master as Locals Win 5-4 in Tenth

Paul McDermott, Palmyra High School catcher, broke up the ball game with Merchantville, on Tuesday afternoon, when he lifted one of Straub's slants out of Palmyra Recreation Park, thus enabling the locals to win by the count of 5-4, in the tenth frame.

McDermott's round-tripper ended a stern pitching battle between Gibson, local ace and Straub, of the opposition.

The former allowed seven hits, fanned nine, and walked one, none of the bingles being more than singles.

Two Homers

Straub gave up nine safeties, two others besides McDermott's being for extra bases. These included an other four-master by Cole, Red and White captain, and a double by Turner.

The enemy dented the rubber first, scoring a tainted run in the fourth. This was nullified as Cole blasted one to the far reaches of center in the fifth. The locals went out in front during the same frame as a result of singles by Wallace and Brewster, these being interspersed with two pilfered bases.

Go Ahead Again

The opposition annexed two more tallies in the sixth on three more one-basers and a pair of errors.

This ended the scoring until the upper half of the eighth, when Merchantville tallied again to lead by a one-run margin. This marker was produced without virtue of a hit.

The count was again deadlocked in the lower half of the same canto as Turner got a life on an error by Pritchett. He promptly stole second and then, crossing the platter when Kemmerle singled briskly through second.

Many Pilfered

Things were quiet during the ninth and Merchantville expired meekly in their half of the tenth. With one away in the Palmyra half, McDermott took a mighty cut and the game was in the bag for Palmyra's fourth straight win.
