RIVERTON—PALMYRA, N. J. THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1939

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MANY ATTEND ART EXHIBITION

Jane Allen Boyer and Claude
J. K. Anderson Show
60 Paintings

Many local residents have afforded themselves of the privilege of viewing the exhibition of more than sixty paintings that are being shown by Jane Allen Boyer and Claude J. K. Anderson at the home of the latter, Rive Gauche, Riverton.

The affair which opened on Monday, of this week will be continued through March 5. The hours are from 3 to 6 p.m. each day and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Subjects

The works of the two artists are hung in seven rooms of the Anderson residence and are excellent examples of the ability of the exhibitors. Each contributed about 30 paintings.

Mr. Anderson is showing a number of still life subjects, with a smaller number of landscapes and portraits. Mrs. Boyer's landscapes predominate, although she is also exhibiting still life and portraits.

Win Acclaim

It is, perhaps, unfair to single out any one of the works of either artist for special mention, since each of the canvases on display reflects, in high degree, the ability of the artist who created the painting.

Of Mrs. Boyer's work, however, many art enthusiasts feel that "Summer" and several of her portrayals of local scenes are the highlights.

Two of Mr. Anderson's paintings, "Summer Balcony" and "Calla Lilies" were particularly admired by those attending.

Talent Call For New S. K. Show

Rehearsals and tryouts for Sigma Kappa's Gala new musical comedy romance "Top o' the world" are scheduled for Tuesday, March 7, at Society Hall, Palmyra.

All are cordially invited to tryout for either a part in the cast or choruses and, as there are over one hundred people in the cast, there will be room for everybody. Many of last years principals and chorus members have signified their intentions of coming out for a part in this year's gay musical.

"Top o' the World" is a fast romantic musical comedy with plot and songs direct from the pen of Walter Stone, world famous playwright noted for his original situations and sparkling dialogue.

The setting is placed among the towering rocky mountains of Northwest Canada, literally the "Top o' the World." The locale, with its demure French-Canadian girls, Royal Mounted Police, Indians, trappers and gold prospectors, lends itself readily to a brand new mode of musical comedy presentation.

WOMAN'S CLUB SPEAKER

Monday, March 6, at 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Eugene H. Barnes will speak to the Palmyra Woman's Club on "Europe as Seen by a Garden Lover."

Mrs. Everett O. Wolcott, of Linden avenue, entertained the literature department at her home on Monday.

NEW LAW FIRM

Edwin G. C. Bleakly, Henry F. Stockwell, Arthur W. Lewis, James D. Stockwell and William S. Zink announce the formation of a partnership for the general practice of law. The new firm will be known as Bleakly, Stockwell, Lewis & Zink and will have its offices in the West Jersey Trust Building, 11th floor, Broadway and Cooper street, Camden, New Jersey.

WILL ANSWER TAX QUESTIONS

All local residents who are having trouble with their income tax return can secure expert assistance free of charge on Monday afternoon of next week, when a deputy collector of the Internal Revenue Department will be at the Riverton post office from 1 to 5 p.m. for this purpose.

Arrangements for this service have been made by Mrs. Mervil E. Haas, local postmaster.

ORATORY CONTEST THIS SATURDAY

Sponsored by American Legion; County Winner to Enter
State Contest

Harry V. Groome, Americanism officer of the American Legion, has completed plans for the county eliminations of the Second Annual Departmental Oratorical Contest in Burlington county which will be held in the Palmyra High School Saturday, March 4, at 8.00 p.m.

The purpose of the contest is to create interest in and respect for the basic principles of our form of government and will, therefore, center around the Constitution of the United States.

All high schools of Burlington County have been asked to enter students in the affair.

Winner in National

The winner will compete with the winners of each county of the state at Toms River High School, Toms River, Friday evening, March 10 at 8.15 p.m. The state winner will then compete with all other state winners in the National Contest.

There will be county prizes for the winner in Palmyra, state prizes for the winner at Toms River and National prizes for the National winner. The National prize is a $4,000.00 scholarship to any university or college of the winner's choice.

Local entries are: Martha Bradway, Thomas Braddock, Emil Bohus, Scott Burger, Richard Deemer, Elizabeth Faunce, George Ford, Ethel Phile, Harry Groome and Robert Waters.

Fashion Show & Card Party

Spring is just around the corner and its early arrival will be heralded by a fashion show and card party under the auspices of the local Y.M.C.A. Auxiliary on Thursday afternoon, March 9, at 2 o'clock in the "Y" building, Palmyra.

In the fashion show, the Spring gowns will be furnished by the Agnes Shop, Palmyra, while the hats will be from the shop of Miss Verna Guest.

There will be a prize for each table of cards.

In addition to having the opportunity of spending a most enjoyable afternoon, those attending will also assist in enabling some worthy local boy to attend the Y.M.C.A. Camp this summer, since the proceeds will be devoted to that purpose.

Reservations for tables should be made as early as possible with either Mrs. W. R. Dunn, phone 817, or Mrs. John Hoepfner, phone 605. Tickets are thirty-five cents.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

Palmyra police recovered a 1930 Buick Saturday which had been stolen the previous day from a jitney driver in Atlantic City.

The machine was abandoned on S-41 near the Tacony-Palmyra bridge by a man and woman who are believed to have committed the theft.

State police from the Hammononton barracks are conducting an investigation.

COUNTY TAX RATE WILL BE HIGHER

Budget Items Less Than 1938; Amount to Be Raised
Is $445,275.94

The new budget for Burlington county that passed first reading at a meeting of the Freeholders last Friday will increase the tax rate 12c over last year. The rate will be 77c as compared with 65c in 1938.

The total of the budget is $35,911.62 less than last year, but the amount to be raised by taxation is greater by $47,712.12. The budget totals $1,297,147.10 and the total amount to be raised by taxation is $455,275.94.

New budget items are $2,000 for tuberculosis treatment, $500 for crippled children and $17,500 for a new water supply system for the county institutions at New Lisbon.

Director Adams stated that the inheritance tax funds last year put the county on a cash basis and while expenditures will be lower, the amount to be raised by taxation will be higher.

Freeholder Albert C. Jones stated that a reduction of $25,000 had been made in the expenses of the road and bridge departments.

Pay Increases

Christopher N. Peditto, county solicitor, rendered an opinion concerning statutory salaries that will increase the pay to the Sheriff, Surrogate and County Clerk by $1,500 each.

Under the law, Peditto stated, these officers were entitled to the increases back to 1931 but is generally understood that no claim will be made for back increase to which they would be entitled.

Each of these officials has been receiving $6,000 annually and now will receive $7,500. Provision has been made in this year's budget to take care of the increases.

A letter from the County Clerk was read in which he recommended continuation of the W.P.A. filing project of County records. The amount thought to be sufficient to carry on the work was $1,000.

Freeholder Price stated that this was a worthy project and made the motion that the proper officers of the Board of Freeholders be authorized to sign the project.

Water in Auditorium

A letter was read from the Tabernacle Board of Education in which they stated that water from a county ditch drained into the school lands and filled their auditorium to a depth of 9 inches in wet weather.

The county engineer was called in and stated that a previous attempt had been made by the county to help correct the situation but adjacent property owners would not grant permission to the county to cut another ditch to help the drainage problem. The matter was referred to the director of roads and county road supervisor for action.

Authorization was made to buy badges for the forty new graduate fire policemen from the Burlington County Fire Police Association.

Louis J. Kaser was authorized to expend $125 for his attendance at the National School Superintendents Convention at Columbus, Ohio.

Building Forms At Stadium Site

There is considerable activity at the site of the new Palmyra High School stadium in the rear of the school building, where a large force of men is engaged on the W.P.A. project.

The entire area to be occupied by the stadium has been graded and work has been started in making the wooden forms for the stadium proper, in preparation for pouring concrete.

SAME ALLOTMENT FOR PROTECTION

The Cinnaminson Township Committee, at a meeting held last Wednesday voted to continue to appropriate $600 to the Borough of Riverton for fire protection during 1939.

Riverton was notified of the step in a letter received last week by Daniel M. Clifton, borough clerk.

The decision of the township governing body culminates a lengthy discussion over the matter and fixes the allotment at the same figure as last year. A reduction of $200 was previously considered.

ANNIVERSARY OF LOCAL ROTARY

Founded Thirteen Years Ago;
Charter Members Present
At Affair Here

The Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club last Thursday celebrated its thirteenth birthday on the thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of Rotary International. Charter members were honored by the club and presented with a red carnation.

They included Dr. C. S. Mills, first president; Joseph S. Low, third president; Joseph T. Evans, who has had a perfect attendance record during the life time of the club, Harry Williams, chairman of the birthday committee, and Luke K. Eberly, chairman of the classification committee. By a stroke of good fortune, Ross T. Mattis, for many years treasurer of the club, who now is a member of Atlantic City Rotary, was a visitor and shared in the ceremony.

The speaker of the evening was Immediate Past District Governor Robert Miller of the 175th district, and but recently made executive secretary of the West Philadelphia Branch of the Y.M.C.A.

200,000 Members

Past Governor Miller after outlining the story of Paul Harris and the founding of Rotary International, which now has almost 5000 clubs and over 200,000 members, stressed the spiritual quality of the organization. According to him the genus of Rotary consists of several things, first, fellowship and friendship, second, the challenge to do a kind thing and a piece of service above the average, third, the desire to raise business and professional standards, fourth, the witnessing of a welcome to all men by lifting the barriers of creed and race. Mr. Miller believes that Rotary lifts men to a comprehension of the vision of service so that they are revitalized against selfishness.

Rotary Clubs do not own property. It is rather their invisible qualities which grip their members and inspire them to greater service. The spiritual experience grows in direct proportion to the attendance of a member, for one cannot see visions or dream dreams unless he shares in the common fellowship.

Next week the Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians will go to Moorestown for their meeting, where will be held the intercity meeting of all clubs in the vicinity.

LITTLE FIRE DAMAGE

Shortly after one o'clock last Thursday morning, the Palmyra Fire Department answered an alarm for a fire in the residence of R. A. Woolson, 305 Garfield avenue, where a partition had become ignited as a result of a defective fireplace.

The blaze was extinguished in short order and with little damage resulting.

near the corner of Race and Third streets. The W.P.A. office has also been erected at this point.

Much of the equipment at the old athletic field has been removed including the fence which enclosed the property. This will be utilized around the new stadium.

YWCA CAMPAIGN OPENS LOCALLY

Mrs. Francis B. Elwell Heads
Committee; Funds Needed
To Continue Work

The Riverton committee is already at work on the annual collection of funds for the Burlington County Y.W.C.A. The drive began March 1 and will continue through the 15th.

During the past year, the Burlington County Y.W.C.A. has maintained two field secretaries, who visit every "Y" group each month, and an office worker. As the county is very large and the groups widely scattered, it is essential to support these three on the staff, in order to carry on the work adequately.

Club Here

A Ford car purchased December 1 has already covered over 4,800 miles. The Y.W.C.A. work in the isolated sections is especially interesting and valuable, bridging the gap for the girls between their parents' narrow experience and the problems presented by the girls' new contacts in high school. Foreign groups, too, are trained to American standards. The summer day camp has been a great success.

In Riverton, a group of high school girls, with Palmyra girls, have a Y.W.C.A. club, and an enthusiastic group was formed recently in East Riverton.

On Local Committee

During the next two weeks, the committee will canvas Riverton as thoroughly as possible, but if anyone is interested in Y.W.C.A. work should not be solicited, will they (continued on page 2)

Parking Drive Has Good Result

The recent drive against overnight parking in the Borough of Palmyra has been productive of splendid results, according to Mayor John F. Ward and Chief of Police C. Morris Beck.

The people have cooperated splendidly, the mayor said, and within a few days over 150 habitual overnight parkers have removed their cars from the borough streets.

The constant checking every night by policemen on patrol to see if the cars parked belonged to residents or not presented a problem and seriously hampered them in their regular patrol work.

The mayor and chief stated that guests of residents might park their cars in the streets overnight if there were no other place for them to park. If this is done however, the resident is asked to phone the police and notify them that a car with license number so and so will be parked overnight or over the week end or whatever the case may be.

DRUGGIST HURT IN CAR SMASH

C. A. Buohl, Palmyra druggist, was painfully injured in an automobile accident shortly before midnight, last Friday and Thomas H. Randall, 610 Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, suffered lacerations of the forehead in the same crash.

The affair occurred when the Buohl machine, going south on Cinnaminson turned left into Parry avenue. The car driven by Randall was travelling north on Cinnaminson and the collision was practically head-on.

Both victims were treated by Dr. Dean H. LeFavor and Mr. Buohl was later taken to Zuerbrugg Memorial Hospital, Riverside. He had a badly lacerated nose, two broken ribs and severe contusions of both knees.

Both cars were badly damaged. Palmyra police conducted an investigation, but no official action was taken.

THE PORCH CLUB

The Art section of the Porch Club under the direction of Mrs. Boyer, visited the exhibition of paintings at the Academy of Fine Arts, on Tuesday.

Most of the paintings at the Academy this year show a very modern trend, the artist bringing to the public his own modern interpretation of a subject rather than the photographic picture that we have been accustomed to seeing.

Garden Section

The Garden Section had another of their interesting meetings. Mrs. Edward Huma, chairman of the section, taught the making of corsages. Quantities of fresh flowers were supplied by the section for the making of at least two corsages for each one present. Tea was served.

"Speech As an Art"

Beginning on Tuesday morning, March 7, at 10.30 a.m. Cora Wilson Greenwood will give a course at the Porch Club entitled "Speech as an Art." There will be five talks on successive Tuesday mornings, and the topics will include instruction in voice, creative speech, pronunciation, the art of conversation, public speaking and the developing of personality.

During the course, Mrs. Greenwood will speak on the new emphasis which has been placed recently on the art of speech through the radio, choral speaking groups and hundreds of speech classes throughout the country.

Cora Wilson Greenwood is well known as an impersonator, writer and raconteur of wide experience. Her delightful personality adds charm to an interesting subject, on which she is authority.

The course of five lectures is free to all Porch Club members, and those not members may join for a fee of $2.00. Please register with Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, chairman. All are requested to bring a note, book and pencil to the first talk on March 7.

Miss Besse Howard will speak on "International Relations" at the club on Thursday, March 9, at 10.30 a.m. Admission for guests of club members is 50 cents.

Annual Election

The annual election of officers will be held on Tuesday, March 7, at 2.30 p.m. After the business session has been called to order the polls will be open for one hour, closing at 3.30 o'clock.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

Safety Patrol Program

The Safety Patrol gave the program Thursday, February 23, in the Riverton School Auditorium. The program was as follows:

Meeting was called to order by Captain Sims. The minutes were read. Then Captain Sims turned the program over to William Cook. Rights and wrongs of traffic rules were acted out by the substitutes and senior patrolmen.

A play entitled "A Fine Subject" was then given. The characters were:

Nan, Laura Yerkes; Ben, Rodney Sims; mother, Margaret Wolf-schmidt; teacher, June Rodman; lawyer, Kenneth Davis; nurse, Barbara Haberern; farmer, Lloyd Major; stenographer, Milton Moreland; pilot, Arthur Hoyt; artist, Kathryn Krantz. There was then a short radio talk on careful driving entitled "C" Men (careful, cautious, considerate); William Cook, Professor Kennedy; Rodney Sims, Eddie Cantor; and Lloyd Major, Announcer Jimmy Wallington.

The traffic meeting was then adjourned.

Friday morning at 11.15 a "Junior Assembly" was held with Third Grade in charge of the program. A

FAILED TO PAY AS PROMISED

Herman Tull, 2409 Federal street, Camden, was given a hearing before Recorder Evans on Thursday night of last week, the charge being careless driving. Tull was found guilty and assessed the sum of $3.00 and costs.

The car driven by Tull collided with a machine operated by Rev. G. A. Mitchell, of Riverton, at Fourth street and Linden avenue on February 3. At the time of the affair, Tull is said to have assumed responsibility and to have promised to have the minister's car repaired. When he failed to do this after 20 days, Rev. Mitchell had the careless driving charge brought against him, and Tull was arrested by Officer Robinson.

Westfield Friends' School

Study Visit

The fifth and sixth grade science classes enjoyed a study visit to the Palmyra-Riverton Water Company plant last week. We appreciated the hospitality of the water company employees. Our visit was very interesting and informative and it promises to be an aid in our science project which is the installation of an outdoor fountain.

Assembly, February 28
On Tuesday at 11.30 a.m. many parents and friends met with the pupils for the regular weekly assembly.

The theme of the meeting was based on the mining of copper. The dramatization of the story of "Ting Ping and the Very Black Kitty" was given with the following cast:

Ting Ping, Carol Ann Mathews; Jao Shi, the teacher, Eunice Vogt; Lao Er, Barbara Stuart; Foo Lan, Virginia Wagner; Very Black Kitty, Doris Lippincott; Chinese children: Gaynor Seither, Mary Goodnow; Donna Lee Bush, Matthew Groff; Gloria Coates, Emma Welsh, Betty Pack, Eleanor Lutta.

Two Chinese songs were sung, "A Chinese Fairy Tale" and "Hop Sing Lee."

Harry Mark, one of the kindergarten boys was five years old on Tuesday. The kindergarten gave him a party that was most successful. The guests included the first and second grades. They all seemed to enjoy the big birthday cake.

First and Second Grade Trip

The trip to the terminal in Camden on Monday afternoon was a great delight to the second grade. After going through the more crowded section of the city the arrival at the terminal was a great awakening. The different features of the terminal were a revelation, but when two men with an acetylene torch offered to demonstrate the workings of it to the group we felt we had seen something most thrilling. To add to this experience the following morning one child arrived with a letter for the men who had "showed us so much."

The nearness of the ferry boats was too great a temptation to miss so when the adults suggested that a ride on the ferry boat was just ahead, the excitement was overwhelming and right in the center of things the group gave two cheers—one for Westfield School and one for the teachers. The few stray workers plus patrons of the Pennsylvania Railroad seemed to enjoy the cheers and the teachers appreciated the spontaneity.

The whole trip was full of interest and we missed nothing. Coming home we took the "un-traffic" way which we learned was the best way.

Bread is the "Staff of Life"
— BUT —
Your "Savings" is a Life Saver!

Good health not only depends upon the food you eat, but your mental attitude. A large percentage of bodily disorders today are due to a break in the nervous system, caused by financial worries. The life of every member of the family can be happier and healthier by avoiding these financial worries if each one will

SAVING GIVES SATISFACTION

Reserve Resources Implants Sense of Protection Against Adversity
By B. THRIFTY

To assume that money gives you all the happiness that one desires in this world is rather facetious. But, on the other hand, we must admit that the lack of funds when one needs them most, promotes a sense of dissatisfaction, discontent and fear, all of which tend to make a family's life miserable.

All we have to do is to look about us—and what do we find? Those friends of yours who seem to be riding the storm of this depression with seemingly little difficulty in meeting the demands made upon them, have fortified themselves against such emergencies by planned and systematic saving. Hence, they are not only reaping the benefits of such planned economy, but their lives are made easier, happier and healthier because of the satisfaction they are receiving by accomplishing their aims.

Who Should Save?

The answer is simple and short—everyone. No one is too young or too old to save. The savings placed in a Building & Loan Association during youth has enabled many a young man or woman to obtain their education, establish themselves in a business, and has made them financially independent today.

The young married couple have more reasons than one to save systematically, while those past middle life are naturally desirous of placing themselves in a financially independent position at the retirement age. Then there are also parents who, realizing their responsibility of caring for their offspring and giving them an education, have saved systematically for every addition to their family so that each one might be spared the reverses that they have experienced.

So, when we look at this from the sensible angle, we find that every boy or girl, mother or father, should consider it his or her duty to preserve their peace and happiness by consistent and planned saving.

Where to Place Savings

For fifty-two years, the Palmyra Building & Loan Association has provided a savings plan for every member of the family. Whether it be for the purchasing or building of a home, an education, a retirement fund for security in old age, a fund for the maintenance of a home or for resources with which to meet any emergency, the Palmyra Building & Loan Association affords you the medium.

Has Always Paid Maturities

For fifty-two years, this Association has paid all maturities in cash when due and has functioned normally as a Building & Loan Association even through the testing time of the past few years. Installment Shares have yielded about 5 per cent compound interest and Income Shares have yielded 4 per cent interest, payable semi-annually. There are not many places where you can place your savings today which are as safe and profitable.

Shareholders Have Increased

Despite the times, the Palmyra Building & Loan Association has sold on an average of eight hundred shares a year for the past seven years at least. This only goes to prove that the public places strict confidence in the management and integrity of the association, based unquestionably on its performance.

Open New Series March 6

The sixty-ninth Series of the Palmyra Building & Loan Association will be opened at the March meeting, Monday, March 6th from three to nine p.m. in P.O.S. of A. Hall, Palmyra.

Everybody should acquire the savings habit, so, "Let Every Member of the Family Become a Member of the Palmyra Building & Loan Association."

YMCA BRIEFS

Ten of the two hundred delegates at the state Y.M.C.A. Young Men's Congress, New Brunswick, Saturday and Sunday, February 25 and 26, were from Burlington county. Isaac Parry, William Morris and Robert Foster represented the Moorestown Phalanx Group. Anthony Akinkas and Frank Applegate were from the Riverside Phalanx Fraternity. Robert McCurdy, from Palmyra, and Ralph Durgin, Calvin Sever and John and Guy Hendry, from Mt. Holly, completed the delegation.

Over a hundred Hi-Y members from various clubs throughout the county went to Princeton the evening of February 26 to see the St. Nicks-Princeton hockey game. Arrangements for the members to be admitted by paying only the 10c government tax was made by Secretary O. H. Emmons, of the Mercer County Y.M.C.A., who resides in Princeton. Secretary "Bud" Reeder looked after ticket distribution throughout Burlington county.

Secretary Guy C. Hendry is chairman of the program planning committee for the eastern regional conference, in New York in April, for town, country and community secretaries along the Atlantic seaboard. March 7, the committee will meet at the National Y.M.C.A. headquarters, New York, to make final arrangements for the April conference.

which will be held at Riverside Church.

At their March meeting in Moorestown, Friday night, the 3rd, the trustees of Camp Ochanichon expect to learn who may be eligible for the position of Camp Director for the coming summer. A committee representing the camp management and the State Y.M.C.A. organization is at work on this problem of selection.

FOUND DOORS OPEN

Early Monday morning, Mrs. Thomas A. Cashin, of Linden avenue, Riverton, heard a noise down stairs and, upon investigation found the front door and storm door open. Riverton police were notified and Officer Robinson made an investigation. Nothing in the house was disturbed, nor were there any marks on the doors that indicated they had been forced. Police are making further inquiries into the incident.

P.T.A. MEETS

The Phyllis Wheatley P.T.A. held a meeting at School No. 4 on Friday, February 24.

The president, Mrs. Fannie Ashby, presided over the business session after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Eleanor Young, chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Young introduced Miss Alice Williams, who is in charge of the Glee Club of School No. 4. The program was as follows:

Vocal selection, Negro National anthem, Glee Club of School No. 4; reading, "Somebody's Mother," Mrs. Town; demonstration of first aid, Boy Scouts of Troop No. 22, under direction of Mr. Wendell Hill; vocal solo, "The Pirates Cave," Mr. Warren Ashby; reading, "Value of Cooperation," Richard Ransome; piano solo, "Bright, Let a Rose," Edna Ashby; reading, "God's Way," Mrs. Florence Murray; selections, "Sleepy Hollow Song" and "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray," Glee Club of School No. 4; reading, "Negro Women in Education," Louise Ransome; remarks by Mrs. Fannie Ashby on the founding and history of the Phyllis Wheatley P.T.A.

Following the meeting the members and guests repaired to the lunch room where a delicious repast was served by the reception committee.

The next regular meeting will be held on March 31, at School No. 4. Publicity Committee.

Next Meeting Of Camera Club

The Burlington County Camera Club has invited Mr. Leslie L. Bender, President of the Philadelphia Photographic Guild to speak on his favorite subject "The Composition of Pictorial Prints" at the next regular meeting, Wednesday, March 8th, at 8.15 p. m. in Hullings store, 202 Broad street, Riverton. Bring along your favorite prints. All are invited.

OBITUARIES

JOSEPH B. FLEETWOOD
Joseph B. Fleetwood, of Mt. Holly, Burlington County sheriff from 1926 to 1929, died Saturday at Mt. Holly after a short illness.

A Republican, Fleetwood was widely known throughout the county. He was the son of the late Joseph and Sarah Rodman Fleetwood, and brother of Mrs. Granville Scholl and Mrs. Charles Parker, both of Burlington.

His wife, Mrs. Mary B. Fleetwood, also survives.
The deceased was a member of the Mt. Holly Lodge of Elks, and also had membership in Burlington Lodge, No. 22, I.O.O.F., Washington Camp, P.O.S. of A., Mt. Holly, and Mt. Holly Lodge, K. of P.

Funeral services were conducted at the home on Wednesday afternoon. Burial was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Burlington.

MRS. JENNIE C. HULSE

Mrs. Jennie C. Hulse died suddenly on Tuesday, February 28, at the home of her son, Dr. P. Conner Hulse, of 600 Highland avenue.

Funeral services will be held on Friday at 2 p.m. at the Hulse Funeral Home, 1401 Princess avenue, Camden. Interment will be made at Harleigh Cemetery.

Mrs. Hulse was active for many years in Broadway M. E. Church, Camden.
The deceased is survived by her two sons, Dr. Hulse, of Palmyra, with whom she made her home, and Homer C. Hulse, of Drexel Hill.

MISS EMILY C. EARNSHAW

Miss Emily Corlies Earnshaw died last week at her home in Villanova, after an illness of several months.

Miss Earnshaw was a noted golfer and for years competed in local tournaments. She played on the women's teams at Riverton and Merion Country Clubs.

She was also interested in ice skating and was a member of the Philadelphia Skating and Humane Society. She was also a member of the Acorn Club and was active in the affairs at All Saints' Protestant Episcopal Church, Wynnewood.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Morris L. Clothier, wife of the chairman of the board of Strawbridge & Clothier, and five brothers, Joseph and John, of Montclair, N. J.; Arthur, Bolton and Allan Earnshaw. She was an aunt of George Earnshaw, former major league pitcher.

Miss Earnshaw was a resident of Riverton for many years, living in the home she stood at second street and Lippincott avenue, recently torn down. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Earnshaw.

Trojans, Artisans, 5 & 10 Win Games in Interborough Court League

It's getting to be a habit—the way the Kaceys lose games in the local court league by the margin of a point or two. Their latest reverse came at the hands of the Trojans on Monday night, the score being 19-17.

Both teams started slowly, seven minutes elapsing before the K. of C. talked from the floor. The Trojans annexed their first marker at the 11-minute mark and the Knights led 7-3 at half time.

Tied Up

This advantage was erased shortly after the second half began with things stalemated at 8, 13 and 15, the latter being the count with five minutes remaining.

Williams got a two-timer to put the Trojans out in front, but Wallace countered with a doubleton for the K. of C. With two minutes left Landgraf looped the deciding basket. Wallace got a shot in the air at the gun, but his effort failed to ring the bell.

The Knights really lost the game from the 13-foot mark, cashing only 5 out of 15.

High Score

The 5 & 10 grenadiers rang up the high score of the season, taking the Palmyra Fire Laddies into camp 58-19. Paul Burke had a gala evening counting seven times from the floor and getting four charity throws for a final computation of 18. Speer had 15 and Bill Baker 11. Moore got eight points for the Firemen.

The winners had a 28-11 bulge at the half.

Artisans Win

The Iron Man Artisan quintet sans substitutes, as usual breezed to a 29-18 decision over the Sigma Kappa aggregation.

The Lodgemen were held on even terms during most of the first semester but ran their string to 29 before the Greek letter boys did much in the final frame. Three of S.K.'s baskets came in the last two minutes of the skirmish.

The Trojans, 5 & 10 and Artisans have each won a pair of games in the second half, which the rest of the entries have lost a similar number.

One team will drop from the select group next week when the 5 & 10 meets the Artisans. Manager Beddow, of the Lodgemen, announced that he will use only five men in this tilt disdaining substitutes.

Chief Little Wolf, Navajo redskin famous for his deathlock which has put many a bonebender out of commission for an indefinite period, has been seeking a bout with Dynamite Joe Cox since last December on the night the Mary W. Kobus Christmas Fund show was staged in the Camden Armory. He sought out the promoters and asked for that match. The Hanlyns have been unable to make the match until now because of the conflicting dates of the two men, with the result that the Indian went around making cracks that the much touted Mr. Cox didn't have courage enough to take him on. CLOSE SEASON
WITH VICTORY

Burlington Fails to Furnish Palmyra Team with Much Opposition Friday

Palmyra rang down the curtain on the regular court schedule last Friday night on the home court when the local hoopsters coined a 29-16 win over Burlington in a listless engagement.

The locals made no effort to run up a score and appeared to be devoting much of their time toward perfecting their passing game. Four minutes of the affair went by without either five connecting, but the Red and White managed to annex seven markers before the period was over. Burlington was blanked in this frame and did not tally until midway through the second quarter. Palmyra led 15-2 at half-time.

Reserves in Action

Sutters replaced Marshall as the second half opened and the remainder of the starters were withdrawn from the Palmyra roster as the final stanza started. Burlington got 10 points in this session and, at one time, narrowed the gap to nine markers.

The affair was especially free from fouls, only eight being called against both teams.

Baker was high gun for the Red and White with five doubletons. The win was the sixteenth of the season for the Dimondmen, who were beaten only once in a scholastic engagement, this reverse being a 27-24 affair at the hands of Moorestown. The Alumni also pinned a loss on the scholastics in the opening encounter of the season.

Itinerant Peddlers

Nearly every day in the year local communities are invaded by swarms of itinerant peddlers from here, there and everywhere who sell everything from furs, oriental rugs, etc., that have been "amugged" into the country, to fruit, vegetables, and shoe laces.

The alleged attractive "bargains" are seldom satisfactory and, in many cases, the purchaser finds that he or she has been left holding the sack, so to speak.

In addition to swindling our citizens, the sales that are made by the peddlers deprive local business houses of considerable revenue. The vendors come and go, pay no taxes, no rent, no anything. If the householder declines to take advantage of the "wonderful" offer, insults are frequently handed out with considerable freedom. Of course, the police can be notified concerning the nuisance, but most people approached in such a manner are hesitant about calling in the law.

A possible remedy to the situation has been offered for consideration by a number of local residents.

This is to compel each peddler to register at police headquarters and to pay a fee for each day that he solicits business locally. This fee could be made sufficiently large so as to discourage the practice. Any one found making a canvass here without a registration card would be subject to arrest.

This plan, on the surface, has considerable merit, the only possible objection being that vendors of the fly-by-night ilk would probably neglect to comply with the formality of paying the fee.

It would be next to impossible for the police to apprehend such violators unless every householder who was approached cooperated. Should a peddler appear at the door without the necessary credentials, such violations should be reported promptly to the police. This situation might not be entirely satisfactory to housewives.

At any rate, the situation has become increasingly acute, and some satisfactory solution appears to be needed without too great a delay.

Outlawed

The United States Supreme Court handed down a most important decision this week when the members of the high tribunal outlawed the notorious sit-down strike.

This vicious practice, which has been condoned by the N.L.R.B., has cost employers hundreds of thousands of dollars in damaged property and, to make matters worse, they were compelled to re-hire the same men that destroyed their plants and equipment.

The only thing regrettable about the Supreme Court decision is that it was not made sooner.

One very significant point about the whole situation is that one sit-down strike came to an end immediately when the Justices made known their verdict.

President Roosevelt calls on those who advocate a balanced budget to show him what items of expense ought to be cut and to what extent. Well, we might begin by saving a few hundred millions by eliminating the expenditure of the taxpayers' money which goes to put Uncle Sam into business in competition with private industry.

The British announce they are not going to levy additional taxes to pay for their new arms. Maybe they are going to buy 'em out of what they owe us.

In Shanghai the other day the Foreign Minister of the Japanese sponsored government was shot by twenty Chinese gunmen. Sounds just like Chicago.

There is to be a World's Fair in New York this year and a World's Fair in San Francisco. Probably the safest place will be Omaha.

YWCA NOTES

Finance Campaign Teas

Teas for workers in the coming finance campaign of the Burlington County Y.W.C.A. will be held in several towns of the county. The campaign opened March 1 and will continue through March 15.

In Columbus, the tea took place Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walter Reeder. Also on Thursday, a tea was held for Riverton workers at the home of Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, 306 Main street, Riverton. Burlington was hostess for Beverly, Florence and Roebing workers at a tea in the Burlington Y.W.C.A. clubhouse Saturday afternoon. Mrs. John Thacher entertained the Moorestown workers at her home Wednesday, March 1. Mrs. Robert Hamilton is chairman for the Moorestown campaign.

QUEST OF HONOR

Miss Mary Graham Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Rutherford, of 623 Elm Terrace, was the guest of honor at a tea and reception given by the French Club of the Moorestown High School on Friday afternoon, February 24, in the high school.

Miss Rutherford, who has recently returned to her home, has been abroad since her graduation from Moorestown in 1933. She has been working for her degree at the Sorbonne in Paris. While abroad Miss Rutherford visited France, Italy, Africa and South America.

Miss Rutherford will return to France shortly where she will finish the plans for her marriage to M. Bernard LeRoux, of Le Havre, France, to take place this summer. M. LeRoux is a French government engineer and is stationed in Paris. Following their marriage the young couple will make their home in French Indo-China where they plan to remain indefinitely.

Local car owners who have obtained their license plates for 1939 have already received notification regarding the date to have their car inspected for the current year.

Income tax returns are due before March 15.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Edward Korowickiewicz, alias Eddie Adamski, who has served less than five years for his part in the murder of Bradley Brown, has made application for a parole.

Richard Hall, 19-year old farm-hand, has confessed to setting the two disastrous fires in Columbus that caused damage amounting to thousands of dollars.

Louis W. Parker, of Bordentown, has announced that he will be a candidate for the state senatorship now held by General Clifford E. Powell.

Mt. Holly citizens are considering the adoption of a Community Chest Plan.

Florence township anticipates a five cent increase in the tax rate.

CELEBRATES 75th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Anna Obert, Pennsauken street, Parry, was tendered a party on Thursday evening of last week, in honor of her seventy-fifth birthday.

Among those present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corish, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cogan, Mr. and Mrs. William Obert and nine grandchildren.

California and Oregon are the only states in which English walnuts are grown on a commercial scale.

ment engineer and is stationed in Paris. Following their marriage the young couple will make their home in French Indo-China where they plan to remain indefinitely.

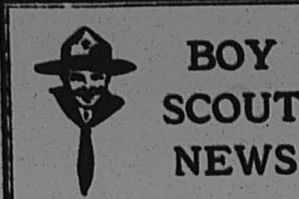

Plan Visit To N. J. Legislature

It has been decided that Monday evening, March 31, will be Burlington County Night at the legislature in Trenton.

The affair will be under the direction of a joint committee appointed by the County Republican Committee consisting of George N. Wimer, Fred Norcross, Joseph Bartlett, and a committee appointed by the Women's Republican Club consisting of Mrs. Frank Sleeper, Mrs. Curtis Flynn, Mrs. Eleanor Donnelly, Mrs. Mae Bosarth, and Mrs. Florence Thompson. Executive Wimer is chairman of the joint committee.

The arrangements so far made consist of a meeting to be held in a room near the Senate Chamber where Senator Powell and Assemblyman Stokes will meet with and talk to their constituents.

After this meeting tickets will be distributed for reserved seats in the Senate and House galleries. Burlington County badges will be provided by the committee.

Nine scouts from troop 50, of Riverton, together with their scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster were recent guests of troop 46, Philadelphia, which is celebrating its 18th anniversary this year. The Riverton boys were entertained by a sound motion picture, "The Covered Wagon," an Indian dance and a first aid demonstration, together with several contests such as knot tying and fire by friction. Troop 50 repaid their hosts with a first aid demonstration and hypnotism act.

No doubt many of the readers took notice of the display of handicraft and scouting in Keating's window during Scout Week.

Troop 50 is glad to welcome four new boys into the scout ranks and will welcome any others who wish to follow their example.

Troop 9

The meeting of troop 9, of Palmyra, opened Thursday evening with the Scout Oath, with Scoutmaster Weigand in charge. Plans for the renovation of the Scout room in Society Hall were discussed.

An Indian Lore program was inaugurated by Earl Whitcraft when the group started making Indian shields. These shields are to be used for decorative purposes on the walls of the scout den. Other Indian objects and ornaments are to be made during the coming spring season.

Members present were as follows: Warren Jensen, Robert Magee, Herbert Leedom, Carl Swain, Junior Swain, William Ulrich, Eugene Diamond, Frank Weigand, Buffy Weigand, Frank Mathews, William Cook, Ernest Stahl, Robert Hayes, and Harry Perkins. The new outlook for troop 9 is extremely promising.

Troop 5

Troop 5 will take their investiture team of 12 members to the Four Mile Colony where they will perform the usual ceremonies which accompany such a service. Scoutmaster A. B. Branson, Assistant Scoutmasters Dages and Branson will conduct the trip and the investiture.

SAFETY NIGHT PROGRAM AT "Y"

A "Safety Night" program was recently presented by the Leaders' Association of the Palmyra-Riverton Y.M.C.A. with sixty boys and girls in attendance.

The program opened with singing of modern songs by the group, and led by "CH" Loane, Mayor Ward, of Palmyra, conducted a short questionnaire for the purpose of finding the interests and needs for youth in the communities of Palmyra and Riverton.

Two safety films were shown by William Johnson, of the Aetna Insurance Company, dealing with the safety features in the home, fire prevention and many other interesting features. Pictures of Camp Ock-nickon, Y.M.C.A. Camp at Medford, were shown by T. Fraul Reeder, of the county Y.M.C.A. staff.

Following this interesting program, pretzels were distributed to all the boys and girls by the leaders. Groups represented were the Lone Eagle, of Palmyra, Twin City Spartans, of Palmyra - Riverton, Unami Gra-Y, of Palmyra, Riverton Gra-Y, Pathfinder Gra-Y of Moorestown, and the Masonville Gra-Y, of Masonville.

Leaders in attendance were Cliff Loane, Robert McCurdy and James Durham.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY
To HENRIETTA J. MEESTER:
By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof in a cause wherein the Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington is complainant and Francis C. Meester and others, including yourself, are defendants, you are required to appear and answer the bill of said complainant on or before the 11th day of April, 1939, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill was filed to foreclose a certain tax sale certificate held by the complainant, namely, certificate made by C. Canastot Davis, collector of taxes, to said Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington, and dated October 17, 1936, recorded in the office of the Clerk of Burlington County at Mount Holly, New Jersey, in Book 297 of Mortgages, page 261, covering lands designated as 601-A Cinnaminson Street, Block 56, Lot 1, on the tax duplicate of said municipality, being situate on the easterly side of Cinnaminson Street north of Seventh Street, in said Borough of Riverton, in the County of Burlington and State of New Jersey.

And you, Henrietta J. Meester, are made a defendant because it is alleged in said bill of complaint that by mortgage dated March 10, 1934, and recorded in said Clerk's office in Book 174 of Mortgages, page 200, Antonio M. Beckenbach said lands to you for $2,000, which mortgage remains alive of record, and because it is charged that any interest which you may have in said lands is subject to complainant's tax sale certificate and to subsequent municipal liens.

WALTER CARSON, Solicitor of Complainant,
West Jersey Trust Building,
Broadway and Cooper Street,
Camden, New Jersey.

CLUB COOKING CLASS MEETS

A meeting of the cooking class was held on Tuesday, February 28, at which time Mrs. Marian Jones, interior decorator for the Gimbel Brothers store, spoke on "Color in the Kitchen." Mrs. Jones stressed the mixing of bright colors in the same room and brought with her a lovely set of various color dishes, of the pastel shades which were on display. Mrs. Jones, is a very charming talker and graciously consented to fill in a last minute disappointment by the Campbell Soup Company who were to show moving pictures at the club. Mrs. Jones was presented with a corsage of violets and roses by the section.

Following this talk, two representatives of the Freihofers Baking Company, demonstrated the making of party sandwiches. Some of the sandwiches had a very attractive outer icing of green, to be used at a St. Patrick's Day party. About forty attended the class at which sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by the Freihofers Company.

CYCLIST INJURED AS DOOR OPENS

James McIlvain, 712 Cinnaminson street, Riverton, suffered painful contusions in an accident that happened last week on Main street near the Carlson Pharmacy.

McIlvain was riding his bicycle south on Main street when Bernard Freedman, 1611 North 33rd street, Philadelphia, stopped his car in front of the drug store. The wheel and rider crashed into the door of the machine just as it was being opened by Freedman.

In connection with the accident, local police wish to call attention to 39-4-65 of the state motor vehicle laws which states that no passengers shall be taken on or discharged on the public highway. In other words, Freedman, in order to comply with the law, should have alighted from the side of his car that was adjacent to the curb.

RIVERTON YACHT CLUB BANQUET

Last Friday evening proved a good start for the 1939 season of the R.Y.C. Celebrating the past year's achievements, and also E. K. Merrill's recent victory in Porto Rico, the members and guests of the club enjoyed a gala evening. The annual banquet was held at Weber's Hof Brau, in Camden, under the able guidance of William Shoemaker III. Entertainment was furnished by dancing, the Hof Brau, along with prominent members of the yachting world, and the awarding of trophies for 1938. This, with the excellent dinner provided, rounded out an outstanding as well as amusing evening for the many guests of the R.Y.C.

DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

HAVE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Oliver W. Powers, Pastor

Sunday, the second Sunday in Lent, has been called from ancient times, Reminiscere, meaning remember. It is thus a day in the Lenten Season to remember God's tender and loving kindness. At the chief service, 11 a.m., the pastor, will preach on the subject, "Patient, Persistent, All Conquering Faith." At the Vesper, 8 p.m., he will discuss "Home Mission Work Among the Mountain Whites of the South."

A series of Lenten meditations on the words from the cross was begun on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Powers speaking on the first Word, "Father Forgive Them" said:

"Not without reason have the words of our suffering Redeemer, uttered while he was dying on the cross, been counted among the most precious legacies left to the church. Death-bed sentences of great persons are generally preserved and dying words of loved ones are always treasured. How much more should these dying words of the Savior be treasured and cherished."

In the first word Jesus prayed for His enemies, but also included is an admonition to his followers. In the sublime example of the Cross He taught us, too, to love our enemies. It is a lesson hard for us to learn, for even after all these years our hearts are hard, hateful and sinful. Yet the lesson of forgiveness can be learned from Him. St. Stephen, the Martyr learned it. St. James, the Less learned it. John Huss, burning at the stake, had learned it. Today the world is weary because it has not learned to forgive. May the example of Jesus inspire all people to that God-given attitude of forgiveness."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Man" is the subject of the lesson-lesson in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 5.

The Golden Text is: "God giveth wisdom, and knowledge, and joy." (Ecclesiastes 2:26).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson is the following from the Bible: "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! What is man, that thou art mindful of him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour." (Psalm 8: 4, 5).

The lesson-lesson also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If we were to derive all our conceptions of man from what is seen between the cradle and the grave, happiness and goodness would have no abiding-place in man, and the worms would rob him of the flesh; but Paul writes: 'The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death' " (p. 244).

TO SPEAK HERE

Paul A. Harsch, C.S.B., of Toledo, Ohio, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, will lecture on Christian Science in the Broadway Theatre, Palmyra, on Sunday afternoon, March 5, under the auspices of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Riverton.

The public is cordially invited to attend the lecture which will begin at 3 o'clock.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor

Services for Sunday, March 5. Bible School, 10:00 a.m. If you will read the biography of the great statesmen who have made the pages of history for their good works, you will find that they have been inspired by their early Christian training, received in the Bible School. "Central Baptist" affords every boy or girl, man or woman, an opportunity of receiving just such training which will bring out the best that is in them. Classes with conscientious teachers for every age. To attend this school is a helpful habit.

Morning worship, 11:15 a.m. Communion will be served following the sermon of the morning. The pastor's subject will be "My Heart's Desire." A full choir will render Turner's inspiring anthem "Great and Marvelous." A solo, selected, will be sung by Edward Hoyt, tenor. Visiting Christians are welcomed to this service and are especially invited to participate in the Lord's Supper.

B.Y.F.U., 6:45 p.m. An interesting hour for the young people of high school age, meeting in the Sunday School room.

Evening worship, 7:45 p.m. In connection with the usual song service and sermon by the pastor, the choir, under the direction of Claude Barto, will present a specially prepared musical program of favorite anthems. The subject for the evening service will be "The Kingdom Prepared for You."

It was announced last Sunday that the choir is preparing to present DuBois' Easter cantata, "Seven Last Words" on Good Friday evening in the church. This pre-announcement is made in order that you may arrange to be present. The public is most cordially invited to enjoy this treat.

HENDRY ON RADIO CONTEST PROGRAM

Four Y.M.C.A. secretaries will be arrayed against four Y.W.C.A. secretaries in the half hour weekly broadcast of "The Battle of the Sexes" program, over WEAF and the red network of the National Broadcasting Company, Tuesday evening, March 7, 9:00 to 9:30 p.m. Representing the Y.M.C.A. will be County Secretary Guy C. Hendry; Dr. Arthur E. Dome, executive secretary.

JONES TO SPEAK AT CINNAMINSON

Paul R. Jones, principal of Palmyra High School, will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Cinnamonson P.T.A. in the school next Wednesday night, March 8th. Mr. Jones' talk will concern present day high school practices and what parents of elementary school children have a right to expect from a high school training, especially along vocational lines. This subject should be of interest to all parents, and a cordial invitation to attend the meeting is extended to everyone in this vicinity.

The Study Group meets at 8:00 and at 8:30 there will be a short business meeting, with Mrs. Warren presiding. The Girls' Glee Club from School No. 4 will sing several Spirituals during the program.

The P.T.A. in sponsoring a luncheon and spring fashion review on Thursday, March 23, in the school. Details will be given at a later date.

THREE RADIOS TO BE GIVEN AT CARD PARTY

All the organizations of the Sacred Heart parish that are sponsoring the annual card party to be held at the parochial school hall, Linden avenue, Riverton, on St. Patrick's Day, March 17th, have agreed that more prizes will be awarded than at any previous party.

Three extraordinary awards, novelty radios, will be made, one each to the pinochle, bridge and radio players, and it does not matter whether the score be high or low, an equal opportunity is afforded each and every player to participate. Three unusual cash door prizes will also be awarded, $5.00, $3.00 and $2.00.

"PICKLES"

The operetta is progressing rapidly and promises to be one of the best operettas given in the Palmyra High School. The production is sponsored by the Tillicum and the proceeds will be turned over to the Tillicum to help finance the Senior year book.

The cast, which has been announced, is as follows: Hans Maier, John Broemme; Louisa, Beatrice Weiner; Captain Kinaki, Harry Grooms; Bumski, Ethel Philie; Rumski, Kaye Espenschied; J. Jennison Jones, Richard Kercher; Jigo, Robert Bacon; Ilona, Martha Bradway; Arthur Crefont, Bob Williams; June Pennington, Grace Horner; Jonas H. Pennington, Alfred Mohrmann; Lady Vman Delancy, Elizabeth Faunce; waiter, Michael Faunce; peddler, Carlette Seemuller.

We trust that you have reserved either March 10 or March 11 as your night to see the Tillicum Operetta "Pickles" in the Palmyra High School auditorium at 8:15. Please come out, we would like your support.

Look for further announcements in your local papers.

COURT TEAM TO RECEIVE HONOR

The Palmyra High School Alumni Association has completed plans to hold a testimonial dinner dance for the members of the P.H.S. basketball team and its coach, Kenneth Dimond. The affair, to be held on Saturday evening, April 1, is being arranged in recognition of Palmyra's great court record this season. The team has won the championship of the South Jersey Group 3 League, and is defending South Jersey Group 3 champion. One one game has been dropped so far this season. The association is working on the affair with the cooperation of the school board, and prominent speakers are being contacted. A feature of the evening will be the presentation of sweaters to the team.

Dinner at 6:30

The price of tickets has been set at $1.25 apiece, and will entitle the holder to the dinner and dance to follow. The dinner will be held in P.O.S. of A. Hall, Palmyra. The dance will take place in the high school gym, and music will begin at 8:30. High school students wishing to attend the dance only are cordially invited to do so. Admission to the dance without a dinner ticket will be 40 cents per couple, 25 cents stag.

The full cooperation of all townspeople and followers of the team is essential to the success of the evening and it is hoped that all interested will make plans to attend. Tickets may be secured now from any executive member of the association, or may be purchased at the door. However, the number of tickets is necessarily limited, making it advisable to buy all them in advance.

BIRTH

Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Orovitz, of Philadelphia, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Marvin Harold, on Wednesday, February 22, at the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Orovitz will be remembered as the former Miss Arline Romm, daughter of Mrs. Helen Romm, of Palmyra.

GOOTEE ASSISTS TOWNSHIP POLICE

Two Philadelphians, one charged with drunken driving and the other with permitting an intoxicated person to drive his car, were held in $225 bail on Monday night by Pennsylvania police for a hearing before Police Recorder George E. Yost. Charles Lockard, 38, of 414 Courtland street, Philadelphia, driver of a car which was halted by Policeman George Kelly at Route 841 and River road, was pronounced intoxicated by Dr. Penrose H. Thompson. Arrested with him was the car's owner, Reinhardt, J. Katz, of 6037 Norwood street, Philadelphia.

Chief William Gootee, of Riverton, was a witness at the hearing since he called the Pennsylvania officer's attention to the erratic manner in which the car was being operated. The chief, who was off duty

Wesleyan Men's Bible Class

FOR THE MEN OF THE COMMUNITY

Do you know of any situation as sad as a dead conscience? When that still small voice within no longer whispers to a man, that man will be filled with fearful dreams and ugly schemes.

Don't you think that a man with a clear, quiet and approving conscience is quite sure of safety and if he has a vigilant conscience that he will be filled with a sense of security. There is a vast difference between "Safety" and "Security."

Perhaps the Wesleyan Class can help you find the kind of security you have been looking for.

Next Sunday Mr. Poinsett will speak on "The Crisis of the Cross," John 12: 23-33, a subject appropriate for the Lenten Season. Guest soloist, Miss Grace Billard.

Hope you are planning to be one of the 100 that are expecting to attend.

Speaking From 27 Years Experience

'JACK' DAWLEY Says:

It's more likely that the small automobile dealer will have a better stock of used cars. That's because the turnover is small and the proprietor has the time to look over the used car he takes in, has the time to see that they are properly conditioned for resale, and is anxious to see that his customers receive first class personal attention after the sale is made.

Here is a selected list of "top quality" used cars. Every one an excellent buy in its price class. It pays to drive a few miles to look them over—come up now!

RUSHING WORK ON NEW SEWER

Palmyra Project Advancing Fast with One More Section Remaining

Workmen on the Palmyra sewer extension project are now engaged in laying a 700-foot section of pipe on the north side of Broad street between Market and S-41. In order to facilitate this phase of the undertaking, the men are being employed on a stagger system with two shifts working at one time. Under this plan, the work periods run without interruption.

About forty-five hundred feet of pipe remain to be laid, according to Edward Jerdon, W.P.A. foreman in charge of the project. This will be placed in the section north of the railroad, since all work south of Broad street has been completed.

Under Railroad Again

Before the sewer is ready for use it will be necessary to run another line under the railroad again. This will lead from the new pumping station to Race street, where it will be connected with the older portion of the system.

The pumping station is complete with the exception of the force main and necessary machinery.

Considerable difficulty has been experienced in the present part of the project since, due to the nature of the ground, it has been necessary to shore up all trenches that go to a depth of over three feet. The ditch near the intersection of Broad and Market is 13 feet deep at present, but will become more shallow as it nears S-41.

Inside Walks

This section is being dug along the front of the various properties on the inside of the walks. Such a procedure was necessary in order to eliminate long leadins from the other side of Broad street. Due to the concrete pavement of this highway it was not practical to dig the line in the street as was possible where only an oiled surface existed. All hedges, shrubs, etc., are being handled carefully and will be replaced on the completion of the work.

Considerable pumping has been necessary to keep the ditch free from water, due to the fact that several springs are located in the vicinity. Thirty-two men are employed daily at the present time.

Car Overtakes Twice In Crash

Paul Gennette, Lower Landing road, Blackwood, had a narrow escape from serious injury last Sunday morning when his car hit a pole and turned over twice. Strange to relate, he was uninjured.

The affair occurred on River road, near Union Landing road when Charles Hughes, 5559 Poplar street, Philadelphia, driving a car owned by Harriet Marsh, 3401 Corky street, Philadelphia, made a left turn from Union Landing to River road and collided with the Gennette machine. Both autos were extensively damaged, but no one was injured. Chief Dorworth, of Cinnaminson, made an investigation, but no action was taken.

HENDRY ON TEAM BEATEN BY Y.W.C.A.

Many local residents listened to the "Battle of the Sexes" radio program on Tuesday night of this week when four Y.M.C.A. secretaries competed against four Y.W.C.A. secretaries.

Guy C. Hendry, county secretary, was one of the contestants, but the local representative was on the losing team, the Y.W. contingent easily taking the verdict.

DATE CHANGED FOR "Y" FASHION SHOW

Due to unavoidable circumstances, it has been necessary to change both the date and location of the fashion show and card party being sponsored by the local Y.M.C.A. Auxiliary.

According to an announcement made this week, the affair will be held on Wednesday afternoon, March 15, in the Porch Club, Riverton, at 2 o'clock.

In the fashion show, the Spring gowns will be furnished by the Agnes Shop, Palmyra, while the hats will be from the shop of Miss Verna Guest.

There will be a prize for each table of cards. In addition to having the opportunity of spending a most enjoyable afternoon, those attending will also assist in enabling some worthy local boy to attend the Y.M.C.A. Camp this summer, since the proceeds will be devoted to that purpose.

Reservations for tables should be made as early as possible with either Mrs. W. R. Dunn, phone 817, or Mrs. John Hoepfner, phone 605. Tickets are thirty-five cents.

CASE AGAINST COUNTY SET BACK

The case of Charles Yoos, of Mt. Holly, against Burlington county has been postponed until March 18, according to a ruling made this week by Supreme Court Justice Perakle. Yoos, a former employee of the county bridge department, bases his claim for reinstatement and back pay on the fact that he comes within the jurisdiction of the firemen's ten-act of 1938.

A similar suit brought by James Goodwin, of Riverton, will be heard on March 25.

How many people took the trouble to read the county budget that was published last week?

ARRESTED HERE FOR CITY POLICE

John Dudley Wanted in New York City; Charged as Murder Accomplice

Four members of the New York City homicide squad and two state troopers from the Bridgeboro barracks came to Palmyra last Saturday with a warrant for the arrest of John Dudley, 18, of 140 Edgecomb avenue, New York City, who was wanted on a charge of being implicated in the murder of Raphael Solomon, also of New York, on February 21.

Captain Joseph Rodgers, Officers Stack and Wallace of the Palmyra police accompanied the outside police to the home of Elizabeth Meyers, 513 Race street, where Dudley was apprehended.

Waived Extradition
He was brought before acting police recorder Mayor John F. Ward and, waiving extradition proceedings, was taken back to New York to face the murder charges and also others for being involved in a series of rent collector holdups.

Solomon, who was a welfare worker, was shot, police believe, by a person or persons who mistook him for a rent collector with a considerable amount of cash in his custody.

BUILDING PERMITS IN PALMYRA

The following building permits were issued in Palmyra during February by building inspector Edward A. King.

Cinnaminson avenue and Rowland street, two family apartment, estimated cost, $2,000.

301 Leconey avenue, new asbestos siding on dwelling, estimated cost, $500.

501 and 503 Cinnaminson avenue, remodel dwelling, estimated cost, $200.

Highland and Wallace avenues, two family apartment, estimated cost, $2,400.

30 Charles street, two family apartment, estimated cost, $1,800.

S-41, remodel present building, new storage room, estimated cost, $3,000.

The total estimated cost of the work is $9,000 and fees collected amounted to $35.00.

HEARING ON BUDGET

The public hearing on the budget of the Borough of Riverton for the current fiscal year will be held in the council chamber, Riverton fire house, this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock.

SCHOOL BOARD MONDAY

The meeting of the Riverton Board of Education, which was postponed from Monday of this week, will be held on March 13. The president, Hilton M. Smith, is expected to name the various committees at this time.

TO GIVE BOOK REVIEW AT CLUB

On Monday, March 20, the Palmyra Woman's Club will hold a covered dish luncheon in the club rooms, Society Hall, Palmyra, at 1 o'clock.

Following the luncheon and business meeting, Effie J. Towner will present a book review and enact the various part taken by the various characters.

There will also be an exhibition of prints which are the work of Hubert Logan, young artist of Palmyra.

Nineteen members of the Garden Department of the club attended the Spring Conference at Moorestown on Tuesday of this week.

OFFICERS NAMED AT PORCH CLUB

Mrs. Francis B. Elwell Is President; Directors Are Elected

At the annual election of The Porch Club held on Tuesday afternoon of this week, Mrs. Francis B. Elwell was named president for the current term.

Other officers elected were: vice presidents, Mrs. Charles H. Carpenter and Mrs. John Douglas Clark; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stuart B. Clark; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond M. Fuller.

The following were named as members of the board of directors: Mrs. John P. Abell, Mrs. Edward C. Hughes, Mrs. C. Singleton Meers, Mrs. Roland Michener and Mrs. William G. Porter.

LIGHT FUNCTIONS PROPERLY HERE

Since the installation of new parts a few weeks ago, the traffic light at the intersection of Broad and Main streets, Riverton, appears to be operating in a satisfactory manner with the exception of the amber light on the south side of Main, which situation, however, does not hinder the proper regulation of traffic.

Unless future trouble develops in the underground wiring it appears evident that the difficulty has been solved, at least for the present.

WEIDMILLER TO DIRECT S. K. SHOW

Rehearsals for Cast and Chorus Started on Tuesday; Much Fine Talent

The local chapter of Sigma Kappa Fraternity has been quite fortunate to secure Irving Weidmiller of the J. B. Rodgers' Producing Co., to direct its 1939 musical romance "Top o' the World," which will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings, March 24, and 25, at the Palmyra High School auditorium.

Mr. Weidmiller will be remembered for several of the highly successful productions he directed for the Tillicum a few years back.

With an all local cast of 16 principals and nearly a hundred in the chorus groups, rehearsals got underway Tuesday at Society Hall. Advance reports indicate that "Top o' the World" will even surpass in sheer entertainment value, last year's production.

Cast
Tillie, a psychic chaperone; Mickey, a mounty sergeant; Babs, an illustrator; Fran, a novelist; Gene, a mounty captain; Mimi, a gown designer; Church, Babs' fiancé; Jack, an aviator; Oakimocow, an Indian chief, and blue flower, an Indian maid.

Specialties
Indian brave ceremonial singer and Indian maid ceremonial dancer.

Chorus
Northwood trappers, Royal mounted police, natives (French-Canadian girls), fashion models, hitch hikers, Indian girls and Indian braves.

Songs
Opening, "Go North"; "Tillie the Terror"; "Humming Bird and the Jay"; "Let's Sing a Love Song"; "A Pretty Girl — a Pretty Gown"; "Thumbs Up"; "Redskin Rhythm"; "Old Fashioned Romance"; "Gotta Have Fun"; "Honest Injun"; "Wide Open Spaces."

With such an impressive array of musical comedy material such as this it would be well to reserve either Friday or Saturday, March 24 and 25, to witness this gay rollicking musical farce which promises to produce the ultimate in fun, songs, dancing and laughter.

Admission tickets are 50 cents and may be secured from any member of the Fraternity, Cast or Chorus Groups.

Caution Advised Crossing R-25

Local traffic authorities urge that motorists who cross Route 25 in this section observe caution in order that a fatal accident at Five Points or the Moorestown-Riverton road may be avoided.

The high speed traffic on the Burlington Pike rarely slows down at these intersections and, therefore, those who cross the through highway artery are sometimes prone to underestimate the speed of approaching cars.

Police point out that a machine going at the rate of 50 miles an hour travels nearly 75 feet per second and, since several seconds are necessary to negotiate a crossing of Route 25, a considerable margin of safety is essential. They advise giving through traffic plenty of leeway in order to avoid an accident.

The state highway department does not advise the installation of control lights at either intersection.

ASKING FOR TROUBLE

Sooner or later, unfortunately, one or more of the boys who ride bicycles after dark, without a light and in a careless manner is going to be struck by an automobile. Why not stop this before it is too late.

New Location Of Taylor-Mathers

Taylor-Mathers, local General Electric appliance dealers, announce the opening of their new office and showroom at 715 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra. Since 1936, this firm has been located at 309 East Broad street.

Six years experience in the field together with training at General Electric's Schenectady, N. Y., plant enable Taylor-Mathers to render expert advice and service on all G. E. appliances.

The full line of G. E. appliances which they handle includes refrigerators, both domestic and commercial, washers, ironers, ranges, water heaters, vacuum cleaners, and Masda lamps. In addition to service on all products sold by them, they also are prepared to repair any make washer or small appliance.

The telephone number Riverton 710 will be continued.

FIRE AT HOUSE IN WRIGHTSVILLE

The home of Noah Hill, Wrightsville, was badly damaged by fire on Wednesday evening of last week. The blaze being caused by an exploding oil stove on the first floor of the two-story dwelling.

Three fire companies responded to the alarm, Parry, East Riverton and Palmyra, the latter with three pieces of apparatus. Riverton was not called.

The Parry firemen used a line of 1½ inch hose in extinguishing the flames. The blazing oil ignited the living room furniture and the fire worked up through the partitions to the second floor.

The loss caused by fire and water amounted to several hundred dollars.

The portable searchlight unit of the Palmyra company was used to good advantage in illuminating the scene. Scores of motorists were drawn to the scene by the three alarms.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Miss Lydia Brown, librarian for the past 38 years at the Burlington Library, died last week.

Mrs. Pearl M. Bridegum, of Hainesport, is reported to have been named to the Burlington County Board of Elections by Governor A. Harry Moore.

Camp Dix will now be known officially as Fort Dix, according to an announcement made last week by the War Department.

The methods of claim collecting as practiced by county justices of the peace will be investigated by the Burlington County Grand Jury the latter part of this week.

Two men recently attempted to steal a 40-foot cedar tree from the property of Brose Johnson, Pemberton. The thieves (acting under a delusion that they were owners) sold the tree to a contractor in Connecticut. The latter has a contract for furnishing trees at the World's Fair.

Burlington merchants sponsored a meeting on Tuesday of this week concerning an organized protest of the contemplated retail gross receipts sales tax.

Comment pro and con over the racing referendum is waxing hot and heavy.

State police at the Bridgeboro barracks are making a number of arrests these days.

The average recorded sickness per individual in the United States was approximately eight days in 1936.

BRIEF ITEMS FROM ABOUT TOWN

The meeting of the Riverton School Board was postponed until next week in order that members could attend the annual dinner of the county association in Mt. Holly on Monday night of this week.

A deep hole in the pavement on Broad street, near Linden avenue, is a source of annoyance to motorists. (The hole was filled in yesterday. Prompt work.)

The Gophers are resplendent in new jackets of green and gold, this addition lending much to the local color scheme.

About twenty golfers braved the bad weather of Sunday to play over the course of the Riverton Country Club.

The Riverton Fire Company burned off the vacant lot next to the post office on Tuesday night.

No recent information has been received here regarding the construction of the new post office.

The no-parking at night ruling in Palmyra is being continued with 100 per cent success.

BAD ODOR FROM ACROSS RIVER

The fish, glue, or what have you plant that operates on the Pennsylvania shore of the Delaware, opposite Palmyra and Riverton is evidently operating at full blast these days since the odor of the raw materials has been particularly objectionable in this section of late.

This condition was especially annoying on Monday night of this week when the high wind wafted the high odors over the river to assail the olfactory organs of local residents.

FOOD PRICES ARE STILL DOWNWARD

A continued decline in retail food prices in February was evident from the report on 83 leading food items surveyed each month by the New Jersey State Department of Agriculture.

The retail price of all foods dropped 1.2 per cent in February as compared to January, 1939, and 3.56 per cent below February a year ago. Outstanding among the lower-priced foods were fresh eggs. During January this important meat substitute dropped 20.45 per cent below the December, 1938, price, and in February the seasonal decline continued, with egg prices 3.57 per cent lower than the preceding month.

FIRE ENDANGERS BUILDING

Shortly after six o'clock on Tuesday evening, the East Riverton Fire Company answered an alarm for a grass fire near the buildings of the Antek Forj, on the south side of River road.

When the firemen arrived the flames had crept close to the foundation of one building, but the blaze was extinguished with brooms before any damage was done.

Impassable condition. This situation existed in the Morgan Heights area where the W.P.A. road project is under way.

FOR THE MEN OF THE COMMUNITY

If you were out Sunday you noted that "rain" is not an excuse for men to stay at home. To tell you how many were there last week might raise a question of doubt, so why not join us this week and see for yourself that men, old and young of this community do not contribute to the thought that "God has gone out of style." Nothing brings more joy to us than music, especially in song that comes from the heart of youth with all its freshness and attractiveness. Miss Billard, we are grateful to you for your splendid contribution to our service. May you go far in developing "God's given Gift."

PALMYRA B. & L. BREAKS RECORD

Reaches New High, 382 Shares Sold on First Night of New Series

By R. THRIFTY

Along with the breaking of this record, was that international record for thrift by the native Scotch. This record was held in the balance, as one witnessed the demand for new shares in the 69th Series of the Palmyra B. & L. which opened on Monday evening last. For a time it was difficult to give the service that was required at the new series tables.

At these tables, before the closing time, 382 shares were subscribed for and many promises were made for the April and May meetings when subscriptions will also be received. The waiving of the 25c entrance fee seemed to be welcomed.

Election

The following directors were balloted for and elected: Frank L. Durgin, Harvey G. Fisher, Edward W. Fry, Edward H. Jessup and Joseph G. Seel, for a three year term. Earnest L. Woodcock, was elected for two years, to fill the unexpired term of Ross E. Mattie.

The re-organization of the board of directors resulted in the re-election of the present officers for the year 1939-1940. They are: president, Clarence T. Yerkes; vice-president, Edward H. Jessup; treasurer, Forrest C. MacCorkle; secretary, Frank L. Durgin; assistant secretary, Harvey G. Fisher and solicitor, Joseph S. Low.

Watch the columns of this paper for the announcement of the next meeting. Plan now to save for it. The Palmyra B. & L. will not be satisfied until, "Every member of the family is a member of Palmyra B. & L."

DELRAN YACHT CLUB

The second bridge tournament and class, conducted by William J. Burgess, of Palmyra, opened Tuesday evening at the club house with a large attendance inspired by the success of the recent tournament just closed. This series will meet each Tuesday evening for six weeks.

The sailing season on the river has apparently opened early. Last Sunday evening three boys tied up at the Delran Pier after battling adverse wind and tide all afternoon. After receiving much needed food and hot coffee, they continued up the river with a favoring tide.

Y.W. CAMPAIGN WORKERS MEET

Workers in the Y.W.C.A. finance campaign now under way throughout Burlington County were guests at a breakfast held at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 8, at "Harmony Hall," the home of Mrs. Alexander C. Wood, Jr., near Riverton.

Mrs. Wood, who is general chairman of the campaign, was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Charles S. Beckwith, of Pemberton, Mrs. Carlton Tillingshast, of Burlington, Mrs. G. Lloyd Cowan, of Edgewater Park, Mrs. John Thacher, of Moorestown, Miss Helen Woolman, of Riverton, Mrs. William Grobler, of Moorestown, and Mrs. Richard Eckman, of Mount Holly.

Mid-way reports of the program of the progress of the finance campaign were received from the workers. Miss Sallie Sumner, former secretary of the Burlington County Y.W.C.A. and now general secretary of the Central Branch Y.W.C.A. in Philadelphia, was the speaker.

"PICKLES" FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Pickles" the musical comedy to be given by the P.H.S. students on March 10 and 11 nears completion. Both the cast and the choruses are working hard to make this opportunity a great success.

The play takes place in Vienna at the present time. Jonas H. Pennington, an American millionaire pickle manufacturer, with his daughter, June, arrives in Vienna amidst preparations for the annual carnival. To his consternation he finds Jones, his advertising expert, advertising Pennington's Peter Piper Pickles too well. An old acquaintance, Lady Vivian, a wealthy English woman, also arrives on her annual quest in search of her daughter, who was lost near Vienna at carnival time when a baby, Kinski, the pompous police chief, plots to substitute the lost child of Lady Vivian and marry her for the fortune.

A band of Gypsies visits the carnival led by Jigo, the chieftain, and his supposed daughter, Ilona. Events lead all to the Gypsies Camp.

Come see how the play turns out. See if Lady Vivian finds her daughter. What happens to Kinski? Be sure to be an eye and ear witness to the very entertaining musical comedy "Pickles" in the Palmyra High School Auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 10 and 11.

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

From mid-February until spring is always a critical time for hardy perennials, and it is especially so this year because the ground is not frozen and heavy rains have packed mulches down. Unless given a little special care, herbaceous plants are apt to start growing and become easy prey for any cold weather during late February and early March.

The strong wind and sun of early March tend to dry evergreens, and will help greatly. The aim is not they may need special care at this time of year. Without protection, many evergreens — especially require more moisture than they can obtain from their roots. It is very beneficial to shade them and especially such plants as Daphne Ulex, and some of the brooms. A light covering of mulch or even burlap to keep out the cold, but to prevent too much loss of moisture and to keep the heat of the sun from promoting growth too soon.

Hardy bulbs which are now starting to grow should be uncovered gradually. Loosen the mulch, and even though the shoots appear yellow, do not take the mulch off entirely. Allow the plants to harden a bit and postpone the removal of the mulch until the plants are green.

It will soon be time to start sowing seeds in the open ground. Seeds of such hardy annuals as poppies, annual larkspurs and coreopsis may be sown directly on the open ground and alternate freezing and thawing will cover them with soil. Most plants of this type resist hot weather and it is wise to start them as soon as there is a place ready for them.

Sweet Peas, which also benefit by an early start, may be placed now in a well-prepared trench. Cover the seeds with sand and place a board over them until they have germinated. It is surprising at what a low temperature these hardy seeds germinate. Cutting a good root system before hot weather means much in growing many annuals.

5 & 10 MAINTAINS PERFECT RECORD

Artisans Are Latest Victims;
K. of C. Drops Close
Tilt to S.K.

The Artisan iron men team met the first reverse of the second half in the Interborough Court League on Monday night of this week, when the flashy 5 & 10 hoopsters coined a 32-22 win over the Lodgemen.

The Merchants began the fracas with a rush and maintained command of the situation until midway through the second half when their opponents staged an intensive rally that brought them to within two points of knotting the count. With seven minutes to play the eventual winners led 23-21 and the count was 24-22 with five minutes remaining.

Get Eight More

The Artisans bogged down completely in this crisis and the 5 & 10 boosted their total by eight markers before the skirmish drew to a close. Baker snared two field goals and a foul, Burke got a charity throw and Jack Easley sank one from the floor to complete the rout.

The Artisans greatly missed the services of their player-manager, Walter Beddow.

S. K. Wins

The Kacey-Sigma Kappa encounter was another of those ding-dong affairs that are characteristic of games in which the Knights participate with the count knotted on various and sundry occasions throughout the foray. Neither team was more than a few points ahead at any stage.

With about three minutes remaining, the fraternity quintet was out in front 19-12, but this gap was soon narrowed as Wallace got a two-timer. Freeman tallied from the floor but the gun cut short any further scoring.

The poor showing of the Kaceys in respect to free throws was one factor in their defeat since they converted only six out of 17.

Trojans Come Through

The Trojans racked up 25 points against the Palmyra Firemen while the Smoke Eaters could make only five. The win kept the Troy men in the unbeaten class during the second semester.

One thing can be written about the Firemen, they may not win, but they are always in there trying and with a little more strength on the offense this outfit should be a strong contender another season.

LOCALS DOWNED IN PRACTICE TILT

In an extra-curriculum game played last Saturday night at Riverside, Palmyra dropped a 37-30 decision to Brown Prep of Philadelphia.

The affair was arranged during the week in order to keep the locals in top form for the tournament.

Palmyra started off in fine style, getting a five point lead in the initial chucker, but this was nullified in the second.

Brown tallied 12 markers during the third quarter and the Red and White could add but four. The final session was played on even terms.

Rothbaum scored seven times from the floor to lead the local offensive.

New Taxes

Retail merchants all over the state are up in arms over the proposal to levy a three per cent gross retail sales tax. This assessment, if made, will add about $35,000,000 to the New Jersey coffers.

Storekeepers assert that business cannot pay this tax and survive and point out that John Q. Public will eventually foot the bill.

On the basis of present expenditures, new taxes are essential in order to balance the budget of the state, BUT, as the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce points out—instant of raising more money by new taxes, why not CURTAIL spending and thus eliminate the need for additional assessments.

How much does the average citizen know about state expenditures? Or, for that matter, how much interest does he show until it is time for him to pay his share. The time for all citizens to protest is RIGHT NOW and not after new tax legislation has been passed. As the situation stands, Burlington county has TWO votes on the matter of the state budget, those of our Senator and Assemblyman. Acquaint yourself with the situation and then let these men know how you stand. They are YOUR representatives.

Aliens to Be Dropped

The recent decision by government officials to drop all aliens from W.P.A. rolls will mean that thousands of jobs will be available to citizens of this country who have been deprived of work because of the fact that there have been insufficient positions to take care of all those eligible.

It is perfectly proper to extend assistance to those who may need it, but this should not be done at the expense of our own countrymen—as in the past. As a matter of fact, aliens should never have been on W.P.A., and dropping them is only taking a step that should have been stopped before it was ever started.

If people from other lands expect to be taken care of in the United States, the least they can do is to become citizens of this country. Thousands have not done this, either through indifference or because they felt that they still owed allegiance to their native land. All well and good, but let them look to the country of their birth for financial assistance.

The United States has been an easy mark in this respect for years. How many citizens of this country, do you imagine, hold jobs similar to W.P.A. in Germany, Italy, Russia, or even England or France? You wouldn't need an adding machine to compute the total.

If aliens can't make a living here, let them go home. The difficulty is that they don't want to go back. They'd rather stay here and be taken care of.

Now that they are out of W.P.A., what next?

The Japanese are demanding that the Japanese army take over the city of Shanghai. In other words they want to shanghai Shanghai.

President Roosevelt assures business there will be no additional new taxes. This must mean that Uncle Sam is going to speed up the issuing of I.O.U.'s.

According to a recent announcement, Prosecutor Howard Eastwood will vigorously oppose the granting of a parole to Edward Adamski who has served five years of a 2-30 year sentence for his part in the murder of Bradway Brown. Mr. Eastwood's action in this matter cannot fail to have the commendation of all those who are familiar with the details of the case. Five years is too short a time to spend in prison after being convicted for such a crime.

HOW TO PREVENT SPREAD OF GRIPPE

To prevent the spread of the grippe, influenza, and colds that are attacking whole families, try and follow out the following suggestion:

1. Don't go into crowded places if you are suffering from a cold.
2. Don't sneeze or cough without covering nose and mouth.
3. Don't expectorate on sidewalks.
4. Don't use linen handkerchiefs when you have a cold. This spreads infection. Use paper handkerchiefs and burn them.
5. Don't fail to wash your hands frequently especially after blowing nose. Many colds are spread through contaminated hands.
6. Don't continue to work when illness develops. At first sign of cold go to bed and call family physician.
7. Don't return to work too early, this applies to school children as well. Wait until advised to do so by your physician.
8. Be very particular about washing dishes. Use plenty of hot soapy water and scald with hot water.

Who Will Help?

Taking a leaf from the history of the development of the Camp Ockanickon property back in 1926-27, the first two years of the camp at Medford, the trustees are again going to ask for volunteers to give a day of labor.

This plan was proposed at the Ockanickon trustees' meeting at Moorestown, March 3, and Saturday, March 25, was set as the first of a series of Saturday dates to invite older boys and men to spend the day at camp and "lend a hand." Camp will provide the noon meal. "There is plenty of work at Ockanickon," declared Heber Sink, camp business secretary "for everyone who comes. One thing I want to know, in advance, is the number who will plan to be with us March 25, so I'll be sure to have plenty of eats that noon."

In line with Mr. Sink's suggestion, anyone who will respond to this call to labor at camp, Saturday, March 25, beginning at 9 o'clock, will please notify Secretary Guy C. Hendry, Mount Holly, not later than the morning of the 25th.

No prize will be awarded to the man who eats the most, but work out in the open, where there's the smell of the pines in the air, is guaranteed to develop an appetite, for which a good meal is a good reward.

The man who knows how will always have a job, but the man who knows why, will always be his boss.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 50

During their Friday night meeting, Troop 50 was entertained a talk from Mr. Whitcraft of the Palmyra Public Schools, on Indian lore, in which he described the living conditions, dress, habits, etc., of the Indians that inhabited this section.

Troop 5

Troop No. 5 had a very interesting program last Monday evening, at which time each patrol had to solve problems concerning first aid. All kinds of confronting tasks added variety to the meeting. Plans are in order to provide a new type of program for the Troop 5 meetings. The scouts will have a choice of attending classes in the following nature work, judging, map work and a group to discuss miscellaneous topics. Sounds very good Troop No. 5.

Troop No. 22

On Monday evening, February 27, Troop 22, enjoyed a talk by Mr. Houghton, of Riverton, about "Scouting and Need for a Healthy Body." Games, tests and patrol discussions occupied the rest of the meeting.

Troop 9

Troop No. 9 has been very busy renovating their scout den in the basement of Society Hall. From present indications it seems as though the room will materialize into a splendid gathering place for this group.

The Indian Lore program is progressing nicely. Indian shields are being completed, they are to be used for side wall decorations. Earl B. Whitcraft has charge of this phase of the program. Things as a whole look very promising for this group.

STATE MUSIC CONTESTS

The sixth biennial contests for student musicians and the thirteenth biennial contest for young artists of the New Jersey Federation of Music Clubs, the state organization of the National Federation of Music Clubs, will take place on Saturday, March 11, at the Music Building of New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick, under the chairmanship of John Earle Newton, head of the Department of Music of the College. The judges will be eminent musicians from outside the state.

The Student Musicians auditions are for young pianists, violinists, violoncellists, organists, and singers between the ages of eighteen and twenty-three. Those candidates successful in the state contests will be eligible to enter the Liberty District contests in Steinway Hall, New York City, on April 14.

Inquiries

The Young Artists contests are for serious musicians between the ages of twenty-one and thirty. Winners in this division may go on to the district contests and, if successful there, to the national auditions in Baltimore on May 20. Mrs. Helen Wyeth Peirce, of Haddonfield, is state president of the Federation. Mrs. Vincent Hilles Ober, of Norfolk, Va., the national president; and Mrs. Ruth Haller Ottaway, of Ithaca, N. Y., the national executive contest chairman. Inquiries and applications should be sent to John Earle Newton, department of music, New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick.

SURROGATE BITTING TO BE GUEST OF REALTORS

The Burlington County Real Estate Board will hold its regular monthly business meeting Tuesday evening, March 14th, at 6:45 p.m., at the Willows in Mount Holly. Committees for the coming year will be named by the new president, Richard M. Woodward. The speaker of the evening will be Surrogate George B. Biting and his subjects will have to do with the functions of his office.

P.T.A. LUNCHEON FASHION REVIEW

Plans are well under way for the luncheon and spring fashion review to be held at the school on Thursday, March 23. The luncheon is called for 1 p.m. in the school lunch room, and the fashion review is to begin at 2:30 in the auditorium. The charge is a covered dish and 25 cents, and anyone interested is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Ivers and Mrs. Austin will be hostesses for the day.

MANY ATTEND DELRAN SHOW

Over one hundred members and guests attended a Talent Night show last Saturday evening at the Delran Yacht Club. The affair, which was the first of this nature held at the club, was voted an overwhelming success and several of the participants received professional offers at the conclusion of the program.

Vice-Commodore G. Frederick Petry acted as master of ceremonies for the occasion and the various numbers included vocal and instrumental solos, several skits and novelty dances.

Supper was served after the show and dancing followed.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY TO THE DEFENDANT HENRIETTA J. MEETER:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof in a cause wherein the Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington is complainant and Francis C. Meeter and others, including yourself, are defendants, you are required to appear and answer the bill of said complainant on or before the 11th day of April, 1939, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill was filed to foreclose a certain tax sale certificate held by the complainant, namely, certificate made by C. Kenneth Davis, collector of taxes, said Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington, and dated October 17, 1936, recorded in the office of the Clerk of Burlington County at Mount Holly, New Jersey, in Book 297 of Mortgages, page 262, covering lands designated as 601-A Cinnaminson Street, Block 35, Lot 1, on the tax duplicate of said municipality, being situate on the easterly side of Cinnaminson Street, north of Seventh Street, in said Borough of Riverton, in the County of Burlington and State of New Jersey.

And you, Henrietta J. Meeter, are made a defendant because it is alleged in said bill of complaint that by mortgage dated March 10, 1924, and recorded in said Clerk's office in Book 174 of Mortgages, page 300, Antonio M. Beckenbach (the then owner) and his wife mortgaged said lands to you for $2,000, which mortgage remains alive for record, and because it is charged that any interest which you may have in said lands is subject to complainant's tax sale certificate and to subsequent municipal liens.

Reduce Tax Exemptions

Rigid scrutiny of all organizations that claim tax exemptions is vitally necessary to protect the rights of taxpaying property owners. Clearly whenever one class of property is permitted to dodge its share of the cost of government, a greater burden of taxes is placed upon the shoulders of those who must pay taxes.

Recently the State Board of Tax Appeals reversed an exemption allowed to a "benefit" society in Bergen county.

In disallowing the exemption, the board declared that "such associations are purely self-helping, mutual aid societies. They are not public in nature, nor do they characteristically partake of a charitable or civic character. Their benefits are restricted to their own members."

To allow tax exemption to every organization that pretends to be charitable in nature would swell the total amount of tax exemptions beyond endurance limits.

Intent of Act

The implied intent of the General Tax Act is to exempt from taxation only those charitable institutions and societies which are operated exclusively for charitable purposes. A thorough check-up of many so-called charitable organizations would probably reveal that many millions of dollars of properties that have been placed on the exempt list is seldom used for charitable purposes.

Present tax exemptions in New Jersey have reached staggering amounts. Total valuation of tax exempt property in this state is more than one billion dollars, while total taxable property is less than six times that amount, $3,667,677,713. Approximately one-third of the tax-free property is owned by governmental units.

This tremendous total of tax exemptions has grown through the liberality of the legislature in granting exemptions. Time after time, the privilege has been extended to include additional favored groups. New Jersey's constitution does not provide for the exemption of any property, and exemptions have been created through legislative enactment.

Carried to excess, tax exemptions are decidedly unfair to taxpayers. Tax-free property enjoys the services of government, such as police and fire protection, streetlighting, etc., while the owners of taxable property must pay the entire cost of these services.

Investigation Needed

The Tax Law Revision Commission which is making a study of New Jersey's taxing situation, would do well to investigate the present status of tax exemptions. Certainly an extensive overhauling of the exemption system could do much to relieve the pressure of taxes upon taxpayers.

For one thing, it is essential that the provisions of the General Tax Act be enforced strictly, so that exemptions will apply only to those properties specifically granted exemptions by the law. Sponsored by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association and the State League of Municipalities, Assembly Joint Resolution No. 2 of 1938 has resulted in an investigation by the State Tax Commissioner of present tax exemptions.

In reporting upon the results of his investigation, the Tax Commissioner pointed out the need for supervision over municipalities in granting exemptions, and a need for a more strict adherence to the law by the assessors. His statement revealed that "the value of taxable property in this State assessed in the last twenty-five years has less than doubled, while the value of reported tax exempt property in the same period of time has increased five times."

Privileges Broadened

While much of this increase in tax exempt property may be attributed to the growth in public property and a corresponding expansion in educational, charitable and religious and benevolent activities, and while much of this increase is unquestionably due to the failure of municipal authorities to properly question the exempt status, it is evident that a great percentage of this

ALCOHOL FIGURES IN CAR DEATHS

Alcohol was a leading factor in one-fifth of the traffic deaths in New Jersey last year, but all the drinking wasn't done by the driver. It was a fifty-fifty proposition between driver and pedestrian, according to Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee.

Drinking drivers were responsible for 86 of the year's 865 casualties but there were 85 cases of intoxicated pedestrians in which the driver was not at fault.

A study of the accidents involving drinking drivers reveals the extent to which innocent parties suffer in crashes of this type. Of the 85 killed but 19 were the alcoholic operators responsible. The innocents included 44 passengers, 21 pedestrians and 2 drivers of other cars.

Further tax exemptions should be stopped by the Legislature, and a reduction of existing exemptions should be initiated. In fairness to those who are compelled to pay the costs of government by paying taxes, tax exemptions should not apply to any property that is not definitely and obviously used to public advantage. Every exemption should be justified by public policy.

Approximately one-third of the operators involved in the fatal accidents mentioned were driving automobiles belonging to some other person. At least, the cars involved were not registered in their own names.

Other outstanding facts in connection with the fatal accidents involving alcoholic drivers were:

More accidents happened on Sunday than any other day of the week. Between 2 and 4 a.m. were the peak hours.

Eighty-six per cent of the accidents happened at night.

Drivers between 30 and 49 years were in more accidents than any other age group.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. George Lockett, B. D., Pastor
Bible School, 10.00 a. m. The open devotional service of last Sunday resulted in the decision on the part of many of the young people to become members of the church. It was a very inspirational meeting, led by Superintendent William Cooper and Pastor Lockett. In spite of the weather, the attendance was good. It is hoped that the occurrences of last Sunday will be repeated. Members of the school are asked to cooperate in getting out those who have been missing and inviting the visitor or new comer, if they have no church affiliations. If they have, it is your privilege and duty to direct them to the church of their denomination.

Morning service, 11.15 a. m. "The Final Authority" will be the pastor's subject for the morning sermon. It will be, as usual, a message full of inspiration and help, so plan to be present. The choir always endeavors to harmonize their selections with the theme of the service to make the morning complete.

B. Y. P. U., 6.45 p. m. This high school young people's group will be addressed by former Sheriff, George N. Wimer, a man who has spent his boyhood days here in Palmyra and who has spent the greater part of his life in the effort of building a community of the type that would nurture the finest of manhood. Come out and hear him.

Evening service, 7.45 p. m. The Sunday services are growing in attendance. Last week was the largest for some time. This has been brought about, no doubt, by the enthusiasm in the evening services by those who do attend. As much attention and effort is put in this service as any other and it makes a fitting way of ending the day. If you are not a "regular" you are invited to try it out yourself. The sermon subject will be "The Spectacular in Religion." The sermon will be preceded by selections and solo by the choir.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
"Substance" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 12.

The Golden Text is: "Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase." (Proverbs 3:9).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Corinthians 5: 1, 17).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When being is understood, Life will be recognized as neither material nor finite, but as infinite, as God, universal good; and the belief that life, or mind, was ever in a finite form, or good in evil, will be destroyed. Then it will be understood that Spirit never entered matter and was therefore never raised from matter" (p. 76).

BETHANY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
Rev. Oliver W. Powers, Pastor

The third Sunday in Lent is called Oculi. The name is derived from the first word of the Introit, Oculi, Eyes. My eyes are ever toward the Lord. It is also called the Day of Scrutiny. It is thus a special day to see oneself in relation to Jesus Christ. At the chief service, 11 a. m., the pastor will preach on the subject "For or Against."

At the Vesper, 8 p. m., Mr. Powers will continue a series of talks on Home Mission Work speaking about "Work with the American Indian."

Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. Pastor Powers spoke on the Second Word from the Cross, "Today Shalt Thou Be with Me in Paradise." He said

"At the last hour of his life a sinful thief made a prayer to his Savior. Nor was this prayer in vain. For note the wonderful and gracious absolution which he received. Full and free forgiveness of all his sins was granted to him without any merit or worthiness. Without a word of reproach the Good Shepherd took up this poor lost sheep and received it again into His fold, sealing His promise with the blessed assurance, 'Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise.' Far greater mercy is here given than the thief ever hoped for. . . . But this word is also for our comfort and guidance. It assures us that the blood of Jesus Christ can cleanse us from all sin. No one needs to despair, not even the worst sinner, if only he will come to Jesus in true repentance, confessing his sins with shame and sorrow of heart. The great astronomer, Copernicus, is said to have composed the epitaph which is inscribed on his own tomb. I hope it will be one of our prayers. 'I ask not such favor as St. Paul received, nor yet such grace as St. Peter obtained. But what, on the cross to the thief Thou didst give O Jesus, I fervently pray, grant unto me.'"

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH TO BROADCAST
The Columbia Church of the Air program under the auspices of the Christian Science Church will be broadcast from Toronto on Sunday, March 12, at 1.00 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, by Frederick William Boorer, a former First Reader of a Christian Science Church, over a nationwide network of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and may be heard in New Jersey over Station WABC.

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH
Rev. William A. Boyd, Pastor
"Numbering Our Days" is the title of the sermon to be delivered by Rev. Boyd, in the Methodist Church, this Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Music will be furnished by the choir.
"The American Girl Scout" is the subject of an address to the Girl Scout Troop of our community, by the Rev. W. A. Boyd, in the Methodist Church this Sunday evening at 7.45. The Troop will attend our church in a body and participate in the service.
Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, the Preparatory Class will meet in the church. This class is for all young people who desire to join our church on Easter Sunday morning. We invite any young people thinking of joining our church to see the minister about it at once and enlist in this class.

In the Lenten Service next Thursday evening, the guest minister will be Dr. B. H. Decker, of the Methodist Church in Collingswood. This is a public meeting and all the people of our community are welcome to come.

The Girl Scout Banquet will be held in our church gymnasium on Friday evening, at 6 o'clock.

OBITUARIES

MRS. ARABELLE STOCKTON

Mrs. Arabelle Stockton, 80, died on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Oliver, of 300 Midway, after being confined to her bed for two years.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Abbott Funeral Home, Beverly, the Rev. Millard Pierce, of Burlington, officiating. Interment was made in Monument Cemetery, Beverly.

The deceased is survived by a son, Harry Homer, of Beverly, and her daughter, with whom she made her home.

ALBERT FAUNCE

Albert Faunce, 81, died on Saturday, March 4, at the home of his son, Ogden Faunce, of East Riverton.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 8 a. m. from the J. J. Zisak Funeral Home with High Requiem Mass at the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock. Interment was made in Morgan cemetery.

The deceased was a resident of Riverton for 75 years, and at one time operated a Shad Fishery along the Delaware River. He was known to his many friends as "Captain Al." His wife, Anna, died ten years ago. The deceased is survived by his son Ogden, and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Bacon, of Camden, and Mrs. George O'Neil, of Delanco; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Truax, of Wildwood.

JOHN O'NEIL

John O'Neil died Wednesday, March 1, at his home 533 Legion avenue.

Funeral services were held on Monday at 9 a. m. from the Snover Funeral Home with High Requiem Mass at the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock.

Interment was made in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Moorestown. The deceased is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Harry R. Stack, with whom he made his home.

TEST OUR WELCOME

At the service of the Young People's Epworth League last Sunday, the attendance reached a total of 28.

The speaker for the service this week will be Douglas Kersey, of Burlington. The service begins at 6.45 p. m. and all young people of high school age and over are invited to attend. The invitation has also been extended to young people to attend the Mid-Winter Institute on Friday evenings. Rev. A. L. Gongloff, of Pennsauken, is dean of the Institute.

Rancocas will be the host at the 50th anniversary rally to be held on May 13. Keep the date open.

LOCKSLEY HALL
By Alfred Tennyson
For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see, Saw the Vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be;
Saw the heavens fill with commerce,
argosies of magic sails,
Pilots of the purple twilight,
drooping down with costly bales;
Heard the heavens fill with shouting, and there rain'd a ghastly dew
From the nations' airy navies grappling in the central blue;
Far along the world-wide whisper of the south-wind rushing warm,
With the standards of the peoples plunging through the thunder-storm;
Till the war-drum throbb'd no longer, and the battle-flags were fur'd

ANNUAL CARD PARTY SACRED HEART PARISH

Father Welsh, of the Sacred Heart parish, is very much pleased with the elaborate preparations that have been made for the annual parish card party. Since all the organizations of the parish have combined their efforts for this event, a huge affair is anticipated. The main attraction will be the awarding of the three novelty radios—one each to pinocle, bridge and radio players. Scores do not enter into the awards. There will also be three cash door prizes of $5, $3, and $2.

The date is St. Patrick's Day, March 17, at the school hall at Fourth street and Linden avenue, Riverton.

ASKING PRICE

It's a rare commission, bureau or board that does not ask for more than it expects to get. This is no less true of federal agencies than of state and municipal ones. It may be quite as true of Presidents of the United States, when facing a Congress inclined to do its own legislating.—Springfield Union.

THE PORCH CLUB

Mrs. Cora Wilson Greenwood gave the first of a series of lectures on "Speech as An Art," at the Porch Club on Tuesday morning. The class was very well attended.

Business Meeting

At 2.30 in the afternoon, a business meeting and the election of officers for the coming year was held. Mrs. Francis B. Elwell was elected president of the club.

During the afternoon a French play was given by the French Class and coached by Mrs. Harold Marshall.

On Thursday morning, March 2, Mr. Charles Goren lectured on the subject of when to and when not to bid after the bidding has been opened by your opponents. The examples he used were taken from the recent tournament in which he played.

Mr. Goren's next and last lecture of the season will be given on Thursday morning, March 16, at 10 o'clock.

The bridge tournament scheduled to be held on March 23 has been changed to Monday afternoon, March 20, at 1.45. Please note the change on your program card and plan to attend.

Please add to your Porch Club program, one meeting for the Garden Section of the club on March 27 at 2.30 p. m. in the Porch Club. This is the only meeting scheduled for this month. Any member is welcome, but those wishing to do the actual work must let the chairman, Mrs. Edward W. J. Hunn know by March 24. This is important so that you will not be disappointed for it will be instructive and interesting to hear and watch but it will be more fun to plant the seeds we will have for you if you reserve your supply. Mr. Clifford W. Mell will lecture on the "Germination of Seeds" and direct us in our work.

POWERS HAS NEW DUTY

Appointment as assistant Republican Whip in the Eastern Region of the United States has been given Congressman D. Lane Powers, representing Mercer and Burlington counties.

The selection came from Congressman Harry L. Englebright, Republican Whip. Powers is assistant to Representative Charles A. Plumley, of Vermont, who is Whip for the Eastern States. The New Jersey Congressman is also Whip for the New Jersey Republican Congressional delegation.

Duties of a "Party Whip" are to keep members informed as to progress of legislation on the floor of the House, to advise them when votes are pending, and to keep them informed when any surprise moves are made to pass controversial legislation.

SAFETY LIGHTING

State Highway Commissioner E. Donald Sterner today renewed agreements pledging State aid to two Burlington county municipalities, Evesham and Bordentown, for the maintenance of safety lighting on highways during 1939.

The Township of Evesham will be reimbursed for part of the cost of three 400 candle power lights on Route 40, and seventeen 400 candle power lights on Route S-41. The State will assist the Township of Bordentown in the operation of eight 400 candle lights at the junction of Routes 25 and 39. Modern highway illumination is advocated by Commissioner Sterner as a means of reducing the hazards of accidents at night.

Automobile Deductions

With the number of automobile owners registering in the millions, the question of deductions for cost of operation and maintenance of a motor car frequently arises. The purchase price of an automobile, whether it is to be used for business or pleasure, cannot be deducted from gross income. If used for business, it is a capital expenditure; if used for pleasure, it is a personal expenditure—both deductions being expressly prohibited by the income-tax law.

Several deductions, however, are allowable in connection with the cost of maintenance and operation of an automobile, used either for business or pleasure. If used exclusively for business, deductions may be taken for the cost of gasoline, oil, repairs, garage rent, and other necessary operation and upkeep expense. Depreciation based on the cost of the car and its estimated useful life, also is deductible.

Other deductible items are as follows: Sums paid during the taxable year for registration fees, drivers' licenses, personal-property tax, and municipal taxes; interest on money borrowed for the purchase of a motor car, either for business or for pleasure; loss sustained by reason of damage while car is being used for business; provided such loss is not covered by insurance or otherwise; damages paid for injury to another, provided that the car was being used for business at the time, and the damage was not covered by insurance or otherwise; and the amount paid for insurance on motor vehicles used for business purposes.

Doc Says:

That is just what should not be done. Unless the dog is so vicious or ill that it cannot be approached with safety, it should be approached with caution and securely tied or penned in a comfortable place away from other dogs and animals and away from humans. The local health department should then be notified. There is a definite reason for keeping the dog alive. It may be rabid (mad). But rabies is not always easy to diagnose in its early stages. The health department may have the isolated dog observed by a veterinarian to determine whether it is rabid. It may be rabid without showing any special symptoms in the early stage of the disease.

Early cases of rabies in dogs are even difficult to diagnose when the brain of the dog is studied under a microscope in a laboratory. In the later stages this method of confirmation is much more accurate.

If a dog bites you have the wound given prompt attention by a physician, but also try to have the dog confined and observed in the interests of your own safety.

METERS ACCURATE IN 1931

GAS INSPECTOR REPORTED

A report by the inspector of gas meters for the State of New York away back in 1931 shows that, even in those early days, the gas meter was regarded as a fair and accurate measuring device. After inspecting 29,277 gas meters used by the gas companies of the State, the inspector made the following report, quoted in part by the New Jersey Public Utility Information Committee.

"I regard the gas meter, as at present constructed, as fair and correct a measure as any other used in commerce; and, if properly adjusted when put in use, it cannot possibly register against the consumer. When out of order a meter may allow a portion of the gas to pass through it unregistered, but in no case can it register a greater quantity than has been used."

MAY ELIMINATE FOREST FIRES

Future New Jersey forest fires may be eliminated, or at least greatly controlled, if favorable action is taken by the Agricultural Sub-Committee of the House Appropriations Committee on the combined request made this week by Dr. C. P. Wilber and Congressman D. Lane Powers.

Powers sent to the House Committee today a brief from Dr. Wilber, who is New Jersey State Forester and Director of the State Department of Conservation and Development, requesting $25,000 additional appropriation for the Allegheny Forest Experiment Station of the U. S. Forest Service, located in Philadelphia. The appropriation will be needed to continue the Station's research project, from the results of which a radical change in fire protection efficiency and technique may be effected. The appropriation would also cover an economic study of the Jersey forest region.

HOME PROTECTION EASY WITH SUFFICIENT LIGHT

"Men love darkness rather than the light because their deeds are evil," runs a passage in the Bible, written centuries ago. It holds good today. More crimes are committed at night than in the daytime because detection is more difficult under cover of darkness. It is easier to gain access to a building and escape unseen.

Eminent police officials have frequently said that a light burning in a dwelling is the most effective preventative against burglary, comments the New Jersey Public Utility Information Committee. The homeowner should also provide a band of illumination around his home, particularly at the back where the shrubbery may afford a lurking place for an intruder. Light, and plenty of it, is the best police protection that can be established, whether it be for the home or the public streets.

RIVERTON ADOPTS BUDGET FOR YEAR

H. A. Walburn Questions Sum Anticipated on Franchise Tax Allotment

The budget for the Borough of Riverton during the current year passed second reading and was also adopted at a meeting of the local governing body held on Thursday last week, with Councilman Robert W. Knight the only member present who voted in the negative on both questions. Councilman Archibald Bush was not present. The only local resident present at the hearing which preceded the vote was H. A. Walburn, a registered municipal accountant, who objected to the amount in the budget as anticipated revenue from franchise taxes.

Should Be Higher

Mr. Walburn contended that the borough was allowed to anticipate, in 1939, at the same rate as the 1938 allocation under authority of the state law. Franchise and gross receipts allocated to the borough in 1938 amounted to $9,001.86, but $4,654.36 was received. Because of this, only $4,650.00 was anticipated in the 1939 budget.

This leaves $8,699.36 still available to be anticipated. In order to maintain the 1939 tax rate at approximately the same figure as last year, Mr. Walburn asked that $4,350.00 of this amount be used, leaving a reserve of $4,349.36. He also stated, "The only possible argument which can be made against the anticipation of this additional revenue is that such revenue may not be realized in cash during 1939, although the legislature apparently thought it would be received when they passed enabling legislation."

Non-Recurring

Mr. Walburn pointed out that, in the event the anticipated money was not received this year, there were three non-recurring items in the 1939 budget which would not have to be provided for in 1940 and these would balance off the larger amount anticipated.

Councilman Knight suggested that adoption be delayed one month until further information could be obtained regarding the franchise tax situation.

Metzgar Leaves For California

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Metzgar, residents of Riverton since 1924, with their two daughters, Geraldine and Dorothy, are leaving this week to take up residence in Long Beach, California, where Mr. Metzgar has accepted a new position. He has been employed by the Keystone Watch Case Company as production manager since 1919.

While living here, Mr. Metzgar has been prominently identified with a great number of civic organizations and has been a most indefatigable worker.

He has held various offices in Post Frederick M. Rodgers, American Legion and served a term as commander. The Christmas Toy Project has been one of his major endeavors for several seasons and the success of the work is a fine tribute to his ability.

Mr. Metzgar has also been most active in Y.M.C.A. circles and, among other things, has headed the annual finance campaign. He has also served as a member of the Riverton Board of Education for several years.

The Metzgars leave this section with the best wishes of their many friends who have evidenced their sentiments at a number of social affairs tendered them during the past two weeks.

FLOODED CELLARS IRK RESIDENTS

East Riverton Citizens Blame Filled-in Ditch; No Solution Apparent

Attendance at the Cinnaminson Township Committee meeting on Tuesday night of this week was large, nearly 50 residents being on hand. A considerable number of these were present to complain about flooded cellars and cesspools in certain sections of East Riverton.

This condition, it was alleged, is growing worse all the time and is caused by the fact that a drainage ditch was filled up several years ago when the river was dredged. This caused the surface water to remain stagnant instead of running off.

Would Dig Ditch

The statement was made that the War Department was willing to dig the ditch again, but that the owner of the property along which the trench runs would not consent to have this done unless a guaranty was named against indemnification should some one fall into the ditch and be injured. This the Department could not do and the situation became deadlocked with the water rising higher in the cellars after every rain.

Health Angle

Dr. Harry L. Rogers, health officer of the township, stated that he had conducted an investigation and that there was no question about the justification of the complaint. He also said that the matter had been taken up with the State Health Department, but no progress could be made unless steps were taken to open the ditch.

Dr. Rogers added that he would do everything in his power to settle the problem, but at present, he could not ascertain how this might be done without legal action on the part of the taxpayers.

Consideration

Walter Carson, township attorney, entered the session at this point and the matter was discussed from several angles with no definite action being taken.

Maurice Conrow, chairman of the committee stated that careful consideration would be given the situation and that every effort would be made to affect a prompt solution to the difficulty.

A resident of Riverton is reported to own the property along which the filled-in ditch runs.

RUNAWAY GIRL FOUND

On Friday of last week, Chief C. Morris Beck, of Palmyra, found Jean Ackroy, 14, 131 South Woodland avenue, Alden, Pa., wandering about in the vicinity of Broad and Market streets.

Upon being questioned she admitted she had run away from home the previous day and was headed for New York.

Her meanderings were cut short when her father came here and took Miss Ackroy home.

ADAMS NAMED TO SCHOOL BOARD

Riverton Organization Accepts Metzgar's Resignation With Regret

At a meeting of the Riverton Board of Education Monday night, the resignation of John L. Metzgar was accepted with regret, and Robert G. Adams was unanimously appointed to fill the vacancy. The clerk was instructed to write a letter of appreciation to the retiring member. Mr. Metzgar's resignation was made necessary by the fact that he is moving to Long Beach, California.

Other Business

The district clerk reported that he had received from the state attorney general's office a request for the names of bidders on school supplies and the amounts of their bids covering the last two years. He said that he had complied with the request.

The clerk also submitted a number of bids he had received for supplying Venetian blinds for the school library room.

On request of Mrs. Yost, the use of the auditorium was granted to the Parent-Teacher Association for a district meeting to be held April 10.

Desire Job Permit Fee for Plumbing Work Done Here By Outside Firms

At the meeting of Riverton Borough Council held last week, a petition signed by the various plumbers in this community was presented for consideration.

This dealt with the subject of an annual registration fee and the matter of job permit fees for out-of-town plumbers who work here, with the exception of those in Palmyra, who would be considered as local artisans.

In Other Communities

The petition stated that, in many other communities in this section, plumbers from here are compelled to take out a job permit every time that they do work. This amounts, in many cases, from $15 to $20. Because of the necessity of obtaining (continued on page 3)

Parents' Night Program Monday

The Riverton Parent-Teacher Association will observe "Parents' Night" next Monday evening, March 20, and according to those in charge, the affair promises to be the outstanding meeting of the year.

The school doors will be opened at 7 o'clock, so that the parents and friends of the children may enjoy the annual exhibition of articles made by the children, in connection with their regular studies. Parents are urged to visit, not only their own child's classroom, but every classroom in the building, as every grade has prepared a special exhibit of their handiwork, which of course, takes in such specialized courses as home economics, manual training, science, etc. The children and teachers are encouraged when the parents show an interest in the school work.

Granville Dare, 12 chickens, $24.00; Robert Hullings, Jr., 5 chickens, $11.50.

Harry Holt, 2 chickens, $4.00.

FIRE TRUCK NOT IN '39 BUDGET

Palmyra Council Questioned About New Pumper; No Action Now

Fire Chief Geddes asked the Palmyra Mayor and Council if it would be possible to include a new pumper for the fire company in this year's budget, at the regular meeting of council held in the Council Chamber, Tuesday night.

The Mayor stated that funds were not available in the budget this year but if the $20,000 "windfall" from the gross receipts and franchise taxes come in, it might be possible to purchase it. Fire Chief Geddes said it was not a question of "keeping up with the Jones", but rather a necessary piece of apparatus to serve in an emergency should their one pumper fail as it has on several occasions lately.

Budget Passed

The new budget for Palmyra Borough as published was adopted after the public hearing. No taxpayer was present to object and the adoption was secured with a unanimous vote.

Assessor James Hartley delivered a very interesting address on the subject of taxation and the methods of assessments for the benefit of the Palmyra High School students present.

The Welfare Directors report showed an increase in the relief load. The number of cases on hand at the end of February were 12 covering 26 persons during the month. The bills for relief in February amounted to $168.

New Stadium

An ordinance was passed unanimously vacating portions of Second and Third streets for the construction of the new Palmyra High School stadium.

The sanitary inspector's report included thirteen cases of chickenpox, one of scarlet fever, two of who

than Lane, chairman of the finance committee made the following explanatory statement regarding the budget for 1939:

"The Borough failed to realize in 1938 the full amount of revenue anticipated, due largely to the loss of gross receipts and franchise taxes and an error by the County Board of Taxation in calculating the tax rate for the year.

"In view of the loss of gross receipts and franchise taxes in 1938, the mayor and council have appreciated the utmost importance of being most careful in estimating these items for the year 1939. The loss in 1938 was due entirely to the failure of the utility corporations to pay their taxes. We have considered it to be in the best interests of the borough for these items in 1939 to be confined to the amounts actually collected in 1938.

Good Financial Condition

"Our borough has been in a healthy financial condition and we have avoided all trouble, because we have maintained a sufficient surplus to pay current bills without borrowing money. In other words, we have decided to continue the policy of 'Pay as you go'.

"Since there is no positive assurance that the borough will actually realize the excess of utility taxes over the amount anticipated in 1939, we have adopted a policy of waiting until the cash is actually received before appropriating the same to reduce the taxes of the borough. In other words, these items are being treated strictly upon a cash basis instead of an anticipation which may not be collected. If, as and when the excess from these utility taxes are received by the borough treasurer, the surplus will be passed on to the people of Riverton. When the budget is prepared in 1940, the mayor and council will appropriate the proper amount as cash surplus to reduce the taxes in that year.

Low Rate

"This will maintain the finances of the borough in a healthy condition, it will prevent a large appropriation for a deficit in the year 1940 and a corresponding increase in taxes, in the event that the corporation taxes are not paid in 1939. Furthermore, it will maintain the financial position of the borough, of which we are very proud, having one of the lowest tax rates in Burlington County.

Other Municipalities

"In order to illustrate the comparison of Riverton's tax rate for 1938 with those of other municipalities, the following is submitted:

Chester Township	$7.72
New Hanover	7.38
Hainesport	6.64
Riverside	6.64

School Budget

Since preparing the budget figures, we have been advised by the Board of Education that there will be a reduction in the school taxes and that the new amount to be raised by taxation for school purposes will be $41,324.07. In the advertisement of the budget on February 16th, the estimated school tax was based on 1938 and the mayor and council therefore, desire to issue a revised statement of the same. This statement supersedes the former announcement.

Membership: Leslie W. Reeves, chairman; Estelle F. Wilkinson, Bert T. Edgar, George F. Ginther, H. Ford Stockwell, Ed. Kashner.

Vigilance: Leslie W. Reeves, chairman; George F. Ginther, William H. Absalom.

Committee members represent the following towns: Cutler, Maple Shade; Lamon, Reeves, Palmyra; Chesley, Absalom, Mount Holly; Bowker, Braddock, Medford; Wilkinson, Riverside; Ginther, Riverton; Kashner, Florence; Knight, Stockwell, Edgar, Cole, Moorestown.

MANY NEW CARS NOW ON ROADS

With Wednesday of this week being the first day that 1939 car license were legal in New Jersey, many purchasers of new cars took delivery and scores of the 1939 models were noted during the day, with one dealer in this section putting 22 on the road.

The reason for the wait was occasioned by the fact that many purchasers did not wish to drive their new equipment until the 1939 tags were available, thus eliminating the need for a change in the 1938 registration.

Borough tax rate is estimated to be $3.94, or the same as it should have been last year, and made up as follows:

BUDGET OF THE BOROUGH OF RIVERTON—1939
	1939
State School (Estimated for 1939)	$ 7,864.00
State Soldiers' Home	$ 7,863.52
Bond (Est. for 1939)	$36.00
County	$35.77
(a) General County (Est. for 1939)	17,525.00
(c) County Library (Est. for 1939)	725.00
Local District Schools (Est. for 1939)	41,324.07
Local Purposes	37,943.21
(a) As shown by Abstract of Estates	$3,637.61
(b) Bank Stock Tax	$300.01
Totals	$105,919.28
	$105,699.08
Tax Rate (Estimated for 1939)	$ 3.94
	$ 3.92

* Later information discloses that the Burlington County Board of Freeholders has adopted a budget increasing the County Taxes to some extent. The final county tax rate will no doubt be announced later.

WILL CONSIDER CURB PROJECT

Riverton Council to Investigate Feasibility of W.P.A. Work Locally

At the meeting of the Riverton Borough Council held last week, J. W. Sylvester, chairman of the highway committee, brought up the possibility of inaugurating a W.P.A. curb project in Riverton.

He stated that the matter had been called to his attention by Ross E. Mattis, a former resident of Riverton, who now lives in Atlantic City, where work of a similar nature is now under way.

Details

Mr. Sylvester remarked that a conference with W.P.A. officials in Trenton concerning the matter and had been advised that such a project could be started from one to two months after application had been made. W.P.A. would furnish all labor and 11 per cent of the labor cost could be used for materials. The cost to property owners is estimated to be about 25 cents per lineal foot of curb.

Since W.P.A. will deal with the municipal body only, it would be necessary for the borough to make the necessary arrangements with the property owners.

Survey

Councilman Sylvester was authorized to make a survey of the situation, this to include the number of local citizens who would be eligible for such work, how many property owners would be interested and other details.

My Sylvester remarked that a similar project was now in operation at Mount Holly and that he would investigate the work being done there.

LUNCHEON, FASHION REVUE BY CINNAMINSON P.T.A.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the luncheon and spring fashion revue to be held at the Cinnaminson school on Thursday, March 23, under the auspices of the P.T.A. announces that plans for a very enjoyable afternoon have been completed and they urge everyone interested to attend.

Dresses, hats and accessories will be shown through the courtesy of Mrs. Schwartz, of Riverside. In addition to the adult models, children's clothes will also be shown. Mrs. Williams, Riverton beautician, will dress the hair of the models.

The luncheon is scheduled for 1 p.m. in the school lunch room and the fashion revue is called for 2:30 in the auditorium. The charge is a covered dish and 25 cents. Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Ivers are co-chairmen for the affair.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

A card party for the benefit of St. Agnes Guild of Christ Church, Palmyra, will be held on Friday, March 17, at Society Hall. Tickets, including refreshments, will be 25c, and may be secured by calling Riverton 631 or from any member of the Guild.

Judge Mathews Guest Speaker

The regular monthly meeting of the Palmyra P.T.A. will be held on Tuesday, March 21, in the Palmyra High School auditorium. Mrs. George Luce, president of the organization will preside at the business portion of the meeting.

Charles Ray, program chairman, has arranged a worthwhile evening's entertainment in keeping with the annual observance of Father's Night. He has been able to procure as a speaker Judge Frank Mathews, of Riverton. Judge Mathews is known over the entire state for his eloquent speeches. We are sure that he will have a message that no one whose interest is in the youth of America can afford to miss.

Musical Program

Miss Dorothy Diener, school music director will also present a musical program with talent from the student body being featured.

The public is cordially invited to attend each P.T.A. meeting with a hope that a better relationship may be created between the parents and teachers of the community. We need your cooperation.—Publicity.

PLUMBERS ASK FOR NEW RULING

such a permit, it is practically impossible for local plumbers to compete with similar contractors from other communities.

On the other hand, when out-of-town plumbers come here to do work, they are required to pay no job fee.

Fees Asked

Local plumbers ask that a $5.00 annual registration fee be assessed all registered plumbers in Palmyra and Riverton. They also requested that a job permit fee of $15.00 be established for all plumbers outside these two communities who desire to do work in Riverton. This, they claim, would afford local plumbers with the same kind of protection that is given to workers of this nature by surrounding communities.

The petition also asked for the establishment of a plumbing code in Riverton.

Committee

Representatives from the firm of H. D. Hullings & Son and George Friday attended the session, answering several questions that were propounded by members of council.

Mayor H. McIlvaine Biddle appointed the following special committee of council to conduct an investigation and report at the next meeting: Earl Strader, chairman; Councilmen David F. Gould and Archibald Bush.

On Tuesday afternoon, February 28th, Dr. Scott took some of us to the sportsmen's show at the Commercial Museum at West Philadelphia.

There were exhibits of all kinds of sports. I liked the water sports best, such as log rolling, canoe tilting, fishing, racing boats, speedboats, yachts, and sailboats.

We saw the log rolling contest. Two people were on a log. They each had a pole with a rubber ball on one end. Each one tried to get the other one off the log by rolling the log around or by pushing it with the pole. I like the show very much.—Jon Krusen, Grade III.

PALMYRA

The following officers of the Palmyra Woman's Club for the ensuing year were nominated at the meeting Monday of last week: president, Mrs. George Shaner; first vice-president, Mrs. James B. Ryan; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond G. Anderson, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph Abdill.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Mathias and Mr. and Mrs. John Rowen, all of Bridgeton, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Horner, of Morgan avenue, on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Virginia Eckel, of Morgan avenue, has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her daughter in Atlantic City.

Judith Kirkpatrick, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Kirkpatrick, is in the West Jersey Hospital suffering from pneumonia.

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1 of the Methodist Church enjoyed a swimming party at the Moorestown Community House Monday evening of this week. The chaperones were: Mrs. Henry DeHoll, Mrs. Gordon Moffitt, Mrs. John Ward and Mrs. Ashmore.

Miss Alice Maier, of 200 Cinnaminson avenue, was last week's winner in the candy club of the Business and Professional Woman's Club.

A marriage license was issued to Ruth Bower and John Scott, both of Parry, last week at Media.

The Shining Hour Class, of Epworth M. E. Church School, will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. William Bolton, of Delanco.

RIVERTON

The Rev. Charles T. Bates, of Calvary Presbyterian Church, is ill with pleurisy.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Golden Hour Circle was held Wednesday of this week, in the Social Hall of Calvary Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Morris Foulk, of Woodbury Heights, was last week's winner in the Miscellaneous Club of the Sacred Heart P-T.A.

Mrs. Frank J. Speer, of Linden avenue, is seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. Alma Evans, vice chairman of the Burlington County Republican Committee, was guest at a luncheon at the Hotel Hildebrecht on Monday, when Mrs. Pearl Bridgum, state vice chairman entertained a number of county officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hullings, of Thomas avenue, entertained a number of friends at cards on Saturday evening.

ENGAGED

Mrs. Martha Brown, of 547 Fairview street, Riverside, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Viola Brown, to Robert B. Hullings, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hullings, of Thomas avenue.

SPLENDID ARRAY OF PARTY PRIZES

The Sacred Heart Parish committee headed by Joseph Dougherty reports excellent progress in the matter of getting together a marvelous array of prizes for the card party that will be given on Friday evening of this week, March 17, in the auditorium of the Sacred Heart School, Linden avenue, Riverton.

Three radios will be given, one to each group of players in pinochle, bridge and radio. These will be awarded without consideration of scores.

In addition, three cash door prizes will be awarded. These are $5, $3 and $2.

ABOUT TOWN

George N. Wimer relates an interesting happening that occurred locally as an aftermath of the blizzard of 1938. It seems that the township meeting was scheduled soon after the snowfall at the usual place, P. O. S. of A. Hall, and, at that time, Palmyra and Riverton were all part of Cinnaminson. Most of the voters in these two sections commuted to Philadelphia and few were usually present at the session, which was held during the day.

After the blizzard, however, the townspeople could not get to Philadelphia, while the farmers, who usually had a majority at the session, could not get into Palmyra. Thus, for the first time, the Palmyra and Riverton residents comprised the bulk of the voters.

TROJANS HANDED FIRST REVERSE

5 & 10 Five Is Only Unbeaten
Team in Second Half;
Artisans Win

The flashy 5 & 10 quintet continued their winning streak Monday night by pinning a 29-12 reverse on the Trojans in an interborough loop tilt. The winners also handed the Trojans their only setback in the first semester.

The losers managed to stay in the fracas during most of the first half by virtue of long shots but the 5 & 10 drew away rapidly after intermission.

Jack Easley paced the merchants with nine tallies, but all members of the team figured prominently in the scoring.

None of the Trojans could loop in more than one from the floor and were guarded closely by the 5 & 10.

Poor Foul Shooting
The Kaceys had 20 charity throws and made good on four. Therein lies the story of their 22-18 reverse by the Iron Man Artisans. As usual in the K.C. tilt, the count was knotted on sundry occasions with the Lodgemans leading 17-16 with five minutes to play.

Carpenter's foul shooting kept the Artisans in the running during the first half and his record in this respect for the evening was seven out of nine.

Beddow High Man
Beddow had a good night ringing the bell for 12 fares, five double deakers being included.

Mitchell accounted for half of the Knights' tallies.

Sigma Kappa and the Firemen battled on even terms for 39 minutes with the fraternity outfit nailing out the smoke eaters 22-20 in a last minute rally.

Weiner, a former S.K. star, was high scorer for the Firemen and Moore was a close second.

MEMORIAL PARK LEAGUE SESSION

All team managers and officials of the Memorial Park Softball League are requested to attend a meeting of that organization on Tuesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock in the Riverton fire house.

President Walter C. Wright requests that all applications for the 1939 season be presented at the session.

Teams expected to be represented are: Oakwood, Broadway, Athletics, Cardinals, Fortnum and others.

BAKER SECOND IN LEAGUE SCORING

Len Baker, one of the sharpshooters of the champion Palmyra court team, attained second place in respect to scoring when the Group 3 loop figures were released last week.

Straub, of Merchantville, topped the local ace by nine points, getting 110 to 101 for Baker.

PALMYRA TAKES CROWN AGAIN

Locals Annex South Jersey Group 3 Title in Win Over Moorestown

Palmyra repeated on Saturday night of last week when the local court aggregation took the South Jersey Group 3 basketball crown for the second year in succession by downing Moorestown in the finals. The score was 30-21.

The Dimondmen won the right to enter the final round by a 30-18 verdict over Gloucester on Thursday night. Their next will be with the winner in Group 3 from the northern section of the state.

In Arrears

Palmyra started the game off in fine style, having a 7-2 edge at the end of the first period. The Quakers put on the steam in the second stanza and led 11-10 at the half.

This condition worried Red and White supporters no little, since it duplicated affairs when the locals lost their only tilt during the regular schedule to the same outfit.

The Dimondmen proved equal to the occasion, however, and came back to garner 10 markers in the third stanza, Moorestown connecting for six, but still making a serious threat.

Decided in Last

The last chukker proved the calibre of the locals, who opened up the gun and sank 10 points before the Quakers had a chance to get their breath. Moorestown got two field goals in the closing minutes of play.

A large throng of local rooters viewed the classic which proved conclusively that Palmyra is, without doubt, the best Group 3 court team in South Jersey.

Gloucester Game

In taking the semi-final round game, Palmyra had to down a determined Gloucester aggregation which made things interesting throughout the entire skirmish.

Lincoln, the star center of the opposition, was guarded closely by Baker, in a new defense especially prepared for this enterprising youth.

This hampered his style to no end and he gathered only seven tallies.

The locals led all the way with Gamble setting the pace for both teams with a record of five goals from the floor.

Help For The Plumbers

Riverton plumbers have asked the local governing body that a job permit fee be established here for all work of this nature done by persons who are not registered plumbers with places of business in either Palmyra or Riverton.

Such a fee, if authorized, would remedy a condition which places local artisans under the most unfair type of competition. The situation is caused by the fact that local plumbers, when doing work in other communities, are compelled to secure a job permit that costs anywhere from ten to twenty dollars. If the job is worth only $20, for example, the result is that they cannot do the work. This condition restricts local plumbers to a limited section as a field for their activities.

This, in itself, might not be so bad were it not for the fact that the same out-of-town plumbers, who are protected from invasion in their own communities, can come here and compete on equal terms with our own residents who are engaged in a similar business, due to the fact that no job permit fee is charged locally.

The legislation asked by the plumbers is one that should be taken care of promptly and a special committee of Riverton Council is already at work on the matter.

Government Reorganization

The present bill for reorganization of governmental departments and agencies may not be perfect, nor may the administration of its provisions, should it become a law, accomplish much good. The basic idea in back of it all is, however, an excellent one, since there is little doubt that the government needs a shake-up and has, for that matter, for a number of years.

The difficulty about the whole situation, however, is to provide the right kind of legislation and then delegate the job to the right people. Whether this has been done remains to be seen.

The one serious drawback to any plan of this nature is that a considerable number of drones would lose their jobs. These range from the "overworked brass hats" to the more humble, but still useless people in the lower brackets who are kept on the payroll because they "know some one."

There is no doubt that a number of governmental agencies are seriously undermanned, particularly in the matter of rank and file workers, who man the guns, so to speak, while their superiors grab off the credit in the snug comfort of their Washington offices.

Reorganization should start at the top and work down. Will it?

What Other Editors Say

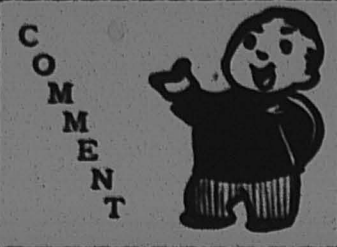

Senator O'Mahoney calls attention to the tremendous and rapidly increasing assets of the insurance companies. Maybe when the New Dealers read his speech they will find that they have been overlooking something.

It is said that the administration will ask Congress to raise the legal debt limit of the United States to $50,000,000,000. Congress can make the debt limit legal but, unfortunately, cannot make it safe.

The New York District Attorney seems fairly on the way to becoming the second national hero by the name of Dewey.

Harry Hopkins is now so busy making up to business that we begin to suspect he is up to some monkey business.

I say to you that the farm-control program of the administration is the most colossal failure in American history.—Rep. Hamilton Fish (R.), New York, Congressional Record.

Whenever inflation is mentioned, don't forget that a thousand dollars isn't a lot of money if it takes that much to mail a letter. The Germans know all about this.

The "replica" of Independence Hall at the World's Fair has aroused a lively storm of controversy in Philadelphia newspapers during the past week.

If current reports concerning Germany's aviation strength are true, perhaps England and France were wise in not calling the "bluff" of Herr Hitler.

Some financial experts express the opinion that the administration's announcement that it will make its peace with business is a bullish development. But to others it indicates that some folks are getting worried about the economic situation which isn't exactly a bullish sign after all.

Mr. Chamberlain says the time has not yet arrived for calling an international conference to settle the world's economic and political grievances. We agree with him. It would be better to wait until human nature has changed somewhat.

The President is trying to make peace between the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. If he succeeds he might try out his system on the Democratic Party.

The Supreme Court got three strikes on the National Labor Relations Board the other day. It's about time now for Congress to call for a new better.

SPRING SETTING AT FLOWER SHOW

The interior of Commercial Museum, Philadelphia, where exhibitions have been held the past fifty years, and covering several acres of floor space, will be transformed into an enchanting floral display the week of March 20 to 25th, with myriads of spring flowers brought to full bloom, according to W. Atlee Burpee, Jr., chairman of the 1939 Philadelphia Flower Show.

Thousands of trees, shrubs and plants are now being forced in a hundred glass houses to make possible this advance picture of spring, with all its floral beauty.

The nation's outstanding floral presentation will be staged as the sixteenth annual display here by the Philadelphia Flower Show, Inc. in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and garden clubs in this vicinity and adjacent districts of the state.

Under the skillful and artistic direction of Walter V. D. Hengel, the predominate architectural scheme for this year's spring display is of the various exhibits will be a gorgeously designed setting, modernistic in its conception. The centre motif will be a fountain and pool surrounded by a group of plants and trees.

Picturesque walks lead in all directions, creating unforgettable vistas for the displays of a million gorgeous spring flowers in full bloom.

FOOD SALE

Why bother to cook and bake when the Fidelis Class of the Central Baptist Church is doing that for you this Friday and Saturday, March 17 and 18? Just phone your order to Riverton 611 or 869 and they will be taken care of. Prices are as follows:

On sale Friday: Fish cakes, 30 cents per dozen; vegetable soup, 25 cents a quart. Saturday: Pies and cakes, rolls, 20 cents dozen, potato salad, 20 cents a pint, baked beans, 20 cents a pint.

OVERLAND DEALER

WILLIAM V. MOORE
of 526 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, Amoco Station proprietor, announces this week that he has been appointed Willys - Overland dealer for this territory.

STATEMENT

Since there seem to be some few people in Palmyra who seek to injure my business at the Unity Shoe Repair Shop at 105 West Broad street, Palmyra, by claiming that I am not a citizen of the United States, I take this means of refuting their malicious statements.

I received my final citizenship papers in 1931 and for those who are sufficiently interested, the number of my certificate is 3520802. I am an owner of real estate in Palmyra, my taxes are paid to date, and I consider myself a good American citizen and am proud to say so.

Decries Use Of Poor Definitions

John Dennis Mahoney, head of the English Department of the West Philadelphia High School and well known lecturer, made a powerful appeal for "Definitions" in a talk last week before the local Rotary Club. Mr. Mahoney took issue with the loose terms we employ in cataloging those with whom we have political, social or economic differences.

Urging his hearers to challenge the man who sweepingly classifies those of differing opinions, Mr. Mahoney suggests the simple question, "What do you mean by . . . ?" as an effective means of combating this destructive practice. What is a radical? What is a Fascist? These terms, and scores like them, mean many things to many people and unless defined in a definite way provoke argument and bad feeling.

What Do They Mean? We have grown in the habit—the childish habit—of calling names without knowing what the names mean and in doing so have set up a great many antagonisms unnecessarily. We find this in political, social and economic life and it has stimulated the growth of bad feeling between groups under each of these classifications in harmful ways.

Mr. Mahoney, a keen student of history, carried his hearers through recorded time to illustrate his point, showing that the greatest of progress has always been made during periods in which there was a minimum of cleavage between men on matters which were not fundamental to their plan of life.

Employment Interview

Maurice Joyce, chairman of the Youth Work Committee, appealed to members of the club to volunteer for participation in practice employment interviews with students at the Palmyra High School. The plan intends to give the boys and girls opportunity to have interviews with employers which will qualify them to make a good showing when later they make application for a position.

The volunteer "employer" will interview them just as he would if he were engaging them for service with his company. After the interview there will be a discussion in which questions raised by the students will be answered and constructive suggestions offered for the improvement of their technique. Several Rotarians who have experience in employment, volunteered to assist in this practical educational work which is typical of the new approaches the school is making to the various problems faced by its young people.

SPRING MUSICAL AT CINNAMINSON SCHOOL

Mrs. Robert Sim, chairman of the music committee of the Cinnaminson P.T.A., announces Thursday evening, March 30th, as the date set for the annual spring musical to be given at the school.

A very delightful program has been arranged, and includes such well-known local artists as Mrs. Elizabeth Lippincott, Mrs. Velma Comery, Mrs. Eric Warnick, vocalists; Mr. Frederick Blair, cellist; and Spencer Atkinson, pianist.

Tickets will be 25 cents and the proceeds will go into the music fund of the association. This fund is being built up with a view to organizing an orchestra at the school in the very near future.

Your attendance would be greatly appreciated.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR E. K. MERRILL

The following letter of congratulation was recently sent to E. K. Merrill, of Riverton, formerly a member of the local governing body: March 9, 1939

Mr. Edward K. Merrill,
Riverton, N. J.
Dear Mr. Merrill:

The Mayor and Council of Riverton hereby extend to you their very sincere congratulations on the occasion of your recent victory in the Comet Class Regatta at San Juan, Porto Rico.

We believe that this is the first time that an International Trophy has been brought to Riverton, and we feel that the Borough has received much favorable publicity thereby.

With best wishes for your continued success in the future,
Very cordially,

Mayor H. McIlvain Biddle and Members of Council

BIRTH

Rev. and Mrs. Robert D. Coward, of Ashley, Pa., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Jeanette Estelle, on Thursday, March 9, in the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Coward was formerly Miss Edna Felten, of Pennsauken.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY TO THE DEFENDANT

HENRIETTA J. MEYER:
By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof in a cause wherein the Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington is complainant and Francis C. Meyer and others, including yourself, are defendants, you are required to appear and answer the bill of said complainant on or before the 15th day of April, 1939, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill was filed to foreclose a certain tax sale certificate held by the complainant, namely, certificate made by C. Kenneth Davis, collector of taxes, to said Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington, and dated October 17, 1934, recorded in the office of the Clerk of Burlington County at Mount Holly, New Jersey, in Book 297 of Mortgages, page 261, covering lands designated as 40-A Cinnaminson Street, Block 51, Lot 1, on the tax duplicate of said municipality, and a dispute on the eastern side of Cinnaminson Street north of Riverside in said Borough of Riverton, in the County of Burlington and State of New Jersey.

And the said Henrietta J. Meyer, are made a defendant because it is alleged in said bill of complaint that by mortgage dated March 10, 1934, and recorded in said Clerk's office in Book 174 of Mortgages, page 260, said defendant, C. Kenneth Davis, did convey and his wife mortgaged said lands to you for $2,000, which mortgage remains alive and in force and effect and that you have an interest which you may have in said lands is subject to complainant's tax sale certificate and is subject to said mortgage.

WALTER CARROW, Esacuria.

MOORE AGENT FOR WILLYS-OVERLAND

William W. Moore, proprietor of the Amoco Service Station, at 526 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, announces his appointment as Willys-Overland dealer for this territory. Announcement in the advertising columns will be found on another page of this issue.

Mr. Moore is a finished mechanic and thoroughly understands the automobile business, having devoted his life to the work. He has had considerable experience in the selling of automobiles and in the service branch of the business.

1939 Model on Display

Mr. Moore brings to these towns the lowest in the low price automobile field. It is truly the lowest price car from the standpoint of original investment and operating cost. The price delivered right here in Palmyra begins at $594 and goes up to $656.

Mr. Moore has the sensational 1939 model on display at his place of business and cordially invites everyone to see it and take a demonstration ride.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Two high pressure canvassers recently came to grief in Bordentown, being arrested on a disorderly charge. They each paid a fine of sizeable proportions.

Work is steadily progressing on the extension of Strawbridge Park in Moorestown, a development of which the community can be justly proud.

The "death," reprieve, etc., of the eight aged Fort Dix army mules has been getting considerable publicity. No one seems to know whether or not they are still alive.

The Burlington Burnt Cork Show, "Britannia Ahoy," will be given April 14 and 15.

The Burlington Daily Enterprise passed into new hands last Saturday, the present owner being John B. Lewis, formerly of New York City.

Little business was transacted at the regular meeting of the Burlington County Board of Freeholders last Friday afternoon.

Ethel Philie, Palmyra High School student, won the South Jersey championship in the oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

A stolen car was found wrecked and abandoned on Route 25, near Union Landing road, early Sunday, by Chief George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson.

The car had skidded, struck a pole and a highway guard rail before overturning. It was badly damaged. The auto was found to have been stolen Saturday night in Burlington and is owned by Harry Stevenson, of Burrs road, Burlington. It was taken from a parking place near a Burlington physician's office. The driver had disappeared when the car was found after the accident.

BETHANY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Oliver W. Powers, Pastor
The fourth Sunday in Lent is called Laetare, and means rejoice. Other days in the season have been marked by sorrow and sadness, but as the name indicates the tone for this mid-Lenten Sunday is rather one of joy. At the chief service on Sunday, at 11 a.m., the pastor will preach on the subject "Refreshment in the Gospel." The anthem for the service, sung by the choir under the direction of Lee Milton, will also have a note of joy. They will sing "Blessing and Glory and Honor" by the eminent Philadelphia composer J. F. Ohl. At vesper, 8 p.m., Mr. Powers will speak about "Home Mission Work Among Immigrants of the Canadian Northwest."

At the Lenten service last night Pastor Powers spoke on the Third Word from the Cross, "Woman, Behold Thy Son, Behold Thy Mother." He said:

"As the life-blood trickled from His pierced hands and side, so the mother's heart was bleeding. . . Had her own forgotten her? Never. . . He directed his glance upon that little group below and sought out His mother and John. To her He said 'Woman, Behold Thy Son,' indicating John who was to be her son in love and to provide for her. She should not be forsaken as a helpless woman to shift for her own support. . . Likewise Jesus turned to John and said 'Behold thy mother.' In this word Jesus bestowed upon John a most precious legacy, a loving mother. He also gave John the most convincing proof of His confidence and love. And though this duty materially increased John's earthly cares, he took it up gladly and discharged it."

This word from the cross also applies to us. It shows us clearly that Jesus sympathizes with us and cares for us in all our griefs and sorrows.

It also teaches us to hold more sacred the tender ties of love. . . The duty of parents to provide faithfully for their children is plainly taught in the scriptures. It is indeed when parents forget their natural love for their children and neglect to discharge their God-given duties toward them; but it is also pitiful to behold when children forsake and neglect their parents, especially in their declining years. . . These shall have their rewards."

This word should impress us also with the duty of holding more sacred the ties of brotherly-love, especially in the cases of the destitute and helpless, the widows and orphans. The Christian Church must do more than ever she has done before in practical religion. So many in these days have forgotten the poor conditions of the brethren. Jesus said 'In as much as ye have done it to the least, ye have done it unto Me.' May this word from the cross and the sublime example of our dying Redeemer impress on us more deeply the great lesson of brotherly love."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Matter" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 19. The Golden Text is: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." (Exodus 20:7).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people." (Matthew 9:35).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If God causes man to be sick, sickness must be good, and its opposite, health, must be evil, for all that He makes is good and will stand forever. . . It is the transgression of a belief of mortal mind, not of a law of matter nor of divine Mind, which causes the belief of sickness" (p. 229).

CHURCH DEDICATED 10 YEARS AGO

The Central Baptist Church will hold special services this Sunday in celebration of the Tenth Anniversary of the dedication of their new building. The public is cordially invited to attend.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B. D., Pastor

Bible School, 10.00 a.m. The spirit that prevails in the school was evidenced last Sunday. In spite of the disagreeable weather, the school enjoyed a fine attendance, even to the Cradle Roll. Several members, who started their Sunday School careers by attending the Cradle Roll, have expressed their desire to become members of the church. A fine compliment to their early training.

Morning Service, 10.00 a.m. This Sunday marks the 10th anniversary of the dedication of the new church building. In celebrating this wonderful event, members are urged to be present and to invite their friends. The pastor's subject will be "Reminiscences of Ten Years." The choir will render appropriate selections, and included in their program will be a solo by one of their members.

B.Y.P.U. 6.45 p.m. High School Group, meeting in the Sunday School room.

Evening service, 7.45 p.m. Although previously stated in this column, the attendance at the evening service has been steadily increasing; too great emphasis cannot be placed on the value of this service. This is being steadily recognized and, as a result, the congregation is increasing. Still there is room for more. Will you invite your friends?

The pastor's subject will be "Strange Words of Jesus." Inspirational congregational singing and anthems by the choir.

Midweek Prayer Meeting, Wednesday at 8.00 p.m.

A building permit has been issued to E. Ochs, of 712 Thomas avenue, Riverton, for the construction of a garage at an estimated cost of $550. Curtis Stavelly is the contractor.

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH

Rev. William A. Boyd, Pastor

"The Temptation of Jesus" is the title of the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. Boyd, in the Methodist Church this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. This is the first sermon in the Easter series. Other sermons during the remainder of Lent will be as follows: "The Transfiguration of Jesus," "The Triumphant King of the Jews," and "The Everliving Hope." In the evenings at 7.45 the following sermons will be given: This Sunday, "The Blackest Plot in History" then will follow "Christ Before Christ," "Christ Faces the Cross" and the Easter Cantata "The Holy City" by our augmented choir. "The Blackest Plot in History" is the title of the sermon to be given by Mr. Boyd this Sunday evening, at 7.45. Music will be provided by the chorus choir. The congregation's singing will be in charge of the minister.

Rev. Steadman Aldis, a native of Canterbury, England, and now an American citizen will speak in the Lenten service in our church this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. He will show pictures of his work and travels in India.

In India, Mr. Aldis' duties take him throughout the Central Province as a district superintendent, touching work in churches, schools, hostels, and mission stations. He is an informed observer of present-day conditions in India, political, economic, social, and religious. He is a missionary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

"The Friendly Choir" consisting of young people between the ages of 10 and 16 has been organized and will appear for the first time on Easter Sunday morning. The choir is sponsored by Mrs. H. B. Henderson and Mrs. M. K. Musser and directed by the minister of the church.

Tickets, including ice cream and cake are on sale at 15c. The public is cordially invited.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS MONDAY

On Monday, March 20, the Palmyra Woman's Club will hold a covered dish luncheon in the club rooms, Society Hall, Palmyra, at 1 o'clock.

Following the luncheon and business meeting, Effie J. Townner will present a book review and enact the parts taken by the various characters.

There will also be an exhibition of prints which are the work of Hubert Logan, young artist of Palmyra.

Sixteen special issues of commemorative coins were authorized by the last session of congress.

YOU PROTECT YOUR FURS AGAINST MOTHS

What About Your VALUABLES?

Do they still repose in envelopes and boxes in your bureau, closet or other supposedly safe hiding place?

If they do—FIRE can search them out and destroy them no matter where they are hidden. Burglars, too, know just where to look for such EASY loot.

Why not put them in a Safety Deposit Box at this Bank and know they are safe against any hazard? It costs less than 1c per day.

CONSERVADOR IS AT ETRIS STORE

The new Conservador electric refrigerator, a Philco product, is now on the showroom floor at the store of John H. Etris, exclusive distributor for Palmyra and Riverton.

This sensationally different refrigerator embodies a new principle in box construction. The new model has two doors, the first giving access to the smaller compartment in the front, and the second to the larger interior space. The first compartment is intended for the storage of foods that are used more frequently. Thus when the first door is opened the second door prevents the quick exodus of cold air from the inner compartment and therefore requires less current to keep the box at the proper temperature. This refrigerator according to Mr. Etris, must be seen to be appreciated and he cordially invites everyone to come in and see for themselves how it operates.

JONES SPEAKS ON SCHOOL COURSES

Paul R. Jones, supervisor of Palmyra Schools, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Cinnaminson P.T.A. last Wednesday evening at the school.

Mr. Jones' talk was very interesting and instructive as to the number and kinds of courses available at the High School, especially as compared with those available heretofore. Palmyra High School offers nine separate courses, all but two of which are planned to prepare a student for some kind of vocation without having to continue his studies after finishing high school.

Describes Courses

Mr. Jones described these various courses in detail and was most accommodating in answering the many questions which the audience had written for him during his talk. Citizenship is one of their most important "subjects," according to the speaker, and the way a graduate has generally conducted himself over a period of four years counts for a great deal when he is trying to get into his particular kind of work after finishing school. Mr. Jones also mentioned the fact that Palmyra is one of the two high schools in the state to have a greenhouse connected with the institution for the use of students taking courses where this type of work is part of their training.

Students Attend

The seventh and eighth grades had been invited to attend the meeting and after hearing Mr. Jones they must certainly have a much better idea of what to expect in the way of the various courses available, and also an idea of how to intelligently choose the course for which they are best fitted.

The study group met at eight with Mrs. Conrow as leader, and was followed by a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Warnick. Reports from various committee chairmen were given and a motion was passed to the effect that the county Parent-Teacher Associations put their efforts toward purchasing an incubator instead of an iron lung, as had previously been talked of, inasmuch as there is a more direct need for the incubator. Announcement was made of the spring musicale on Thursday evening, March 30th, in the school auditorium. The Glee Club from School No. 4, under the direction of Mrs. Young, sang several very enjoyable numbers.

Following the program, refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

FASHION SHOW AT WESTFIELD

There will be a fashion show of unusual interest at the Westfield Friends School on Tuesday afternoon, March 21, at 2.30 o'clock.

Mrs. Miller, of "Style Center," Haddon Heights, will show clothes for women, while the "Ladies and Lassies' Shop," of Haddonfield will present other spring styles for the youngsters.

Tea will be served following the show and the proceeds will be devoted to school purposes. Tickets are 50 cents.

SCENE FROM FIRST ACT

One of the snappy numbers in the John B. Rogers musical hit "Top of the World" to be presented Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25 in the Palmyra High School auditorium.

PORCH CLUB

In the intervening weeks that passed between Miss Besse Howards' talk on current events in February and her talk on Thursday, March 9, at the Porch Club, many events of world interest have taken place.

Miss Howard is a very interesting talker, knowing her subject thoroughly she gives the events as they happen, never predicting what the future will bring forth. As she expressed it, "We have the ingredients no one can predict the outcome."

Miss Howard can be heard Sunday afternoon over station KYW from 4.30 to 5.00 o'clock. The program "Youth and the World," consists of six contestants, three on a side, attempting to answer the questions which Miss Howard has prepared from the current news of the week.

Miss Howard's lectures are free to members. Guests 50 cents. Her next lecture will be on April 13th.

On Tuesday, March 28th, Mr. Walter Hall, president of the Salem Historical Society, will speak to the Porch Club on "Old Jersey Glass." Anyone wishing to display any piece or pieces may do so. Please get in touch with Mrs. Gilbert A. Coe before that date.

The bridge tournament scheduled to be held on Thursday, March 23, has been changed to Monday afternoon, March 20, at 1.45 o'clock.

A meeting of the Garden Section will be held March 27th, at 2.30 p.m. at the club. Any club member is welcome. Please call Mrs. Edward W. J. Hunn before March 24th so that material can be supplied for each one present.

On Tuesday, March 14th, Mrs. Cora Wellson Greenwood, gave the one of a series of lectures on "Speech as an Art," at the club. These are free to members; guests pay the usual fee of 50 cents. Mrs. Greenwood's next lecture will be on March 21. The fourth lecture on Monday, March 27.

DELTRAN YACHT CLUB

Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of Deltran Yacht Club was held Wednesday evening, with the Ladies' Auxiliary holding their business meeting at the same time. At the conclusion of the meetings, the two groups joined in a light supper and general discussion of future plans for the outdoor season.

Bridge Luncheon
Mrs. Charles F. Voorhis, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, announces another of their increasingly popular bridge luncheons at the Deltran Club House Wednesday afternoon, March 22. The St. Patrick's Day motif will be carried out with appropriate decorations.

Preceding the affair, Miss Susan G. Byrd, of the General Baking Company, will present her nationally known Bond Bread demonstration at 12.30 p.m., which promises to be of unusual interest.

Mrs. Voorhis states that over 100 reservations are already in from the Riverton-Palmyra area. She will, however, be pleased to hear from others interested, up to the seating capacity of the Club House, which incidentally, has been recently greatly increased.

GUILDWAY HOMES AND HOME IMPROVEMENTS

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Editor, The New Era:
DANGER

Is threatening our children—our home and our jobs—

Bills now pending in both houses of Congress are threatening our home and our jobs and security.

An open letter to the public at large and you in particular regarding your tax burdens and appealing to your patriotism.

They are known in Congress as: S. J. Res. 64—Introduced by Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York; H. J. Res. 166—Introduced by Congressman Edith Neuhouser; S. J. Res. 167—Introduced by Congressman John D. Dingell, 11th District of Michigan.

Here is short a what the Wagner, Rogers, Dingell resolutions propose to do: Admit immediately 20,000 German refugee children over the legal quota to become permanent residents of the U.S.A. These same children to be admitted to our already over-crowded asylums, institutions, and schools. They are potential employment as be taken care of in the next ten years, churning our own native born out of their birthright, that of social security by normal employment. The admission of these will add materially to our already over-burdened tax system, because we as taxpayers will have to assume the responsibility.

It is true that we heartily sympathize with the oppressed minorities of other Nations, but we must not let our hearts run away with our heads. Here are some grim facts.

Every State in the Union has a tremendous number of children in want of proper food, clothing, medical attention, and better schooling. Starving, half-dressed children of eight million sharecroppers here at home live in hovels. Their tumble-down shacks have no windows and few have doors. Their beds are piles of rags. Their only clothing is rags and tatters and are filthy beyond imagination. They eat thickened gravy and biscuits as a year round diet. They receive no medical care because of this they fall easy prey to sickness and disease. They are uneducated; therefore they are monthly illiterate. From out of these dingy huts of tragedy comes a reeking army of dehumanized humanity, while the false idea of humanitarianism and internationalism is wafted by politicians.

Are we going to care for our own—or shall we bestow our charity on immigrant children?

Again up in filth, squalor and ignorance in the slum districts. Huddled together in poorly ventilated, cramped rooms, these American children of every race and foreign extraction, try for the right to breathe fresh air, eat good food, and have the right to play and live in the typical American way. Are we going to sentence these (our native born) children to a life of crime, poverty, and hopelessness while we import children from a foreign country on whom to lavish the good things?

In all fairness to our youth and their makeable right to the full normal life, we can not, yet we dare not do that of which only shame can be the result.

Before we undertake the care of children from other nations we must first take care of our own.

Here is how you can help defeat these infamous measures. Assert your patriotic prerogative as a voting citizen by spending five minutes of your time and write a demand to your Senators and Representatives in Washington and you will be greatly benefited.

Your only cost will be five minutes time and three cents for a stamp.

(Signed) Horace B. Way, Member of Legislative Committee, County Ass'n P. O. S. of A. Camps of Burlington County.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 50

During their regular weekly meeting on Friday, March 10, the scouts of Troop 50 examined samples of material and proposed patterns for pack sacks and pack board which will be his during his membership in the troop. All materials will be purchased by the troop. This work will be done under the supervision of Scoutmaster Howard S. Morse and Dr. Hayes B. Searcy, both of Palmyra.

On Saturday, March 11, scouts under the leadership of Scoutmaster Richard Kinney went on a country hike through the territory in the northwest of Riverton, turning at 1 o'clock in the morning they hiked until noon. After a campfire lunch they were invited to turn homeward because of the heavy snow.

GIRL RESERVES

S. C. Coleman addressed the East Riverton Girl Reserves last Thursday afternoon at their meeting in the home of Miss Ernestine Robinson. Mr. Coleman is the Educational Adviser of C. C. Camp, C. E. of New Lisbon.

Mr. Coleman spoke on the topic of Negro Youth Advancement and their problems.

A special lecture was given to the girls of teen age. There were 25 girls present.

The Junior G. R.'s gave a five cent party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Lockwood, of Turner avenue, East Riverton. The group was amused by the advent of Ernestine Robinson and Dr. Hayes B. Searcy, who is the assistant secretary. After having played various games, refreshments were served and the little girls left to await another invitation to a G. R. party.

The Senior Girls have planned a

St. Patrick's Day party to be held Saturday evening, March 18, at the home of Mrs. John Robinson on Pompey avenue, East Riverton. Mrs. Robinson is the chairman of the advisory committee.

Mr. Arthur Waples will address the group Thursday, March 23, at the regular meeting. Mr. Waples is a graduate of Willburforce University, Ohio.

TEST OUR WELCOME

In spite of the weather, the members of the Young People's Epworth League are more than enough to attend. The group numbered 25 last Sunday.

Young people of high school age and over, who are not affiliated with any other group are cordially invited to attend.

The 50th anniversary rally of the Epworth League will be held in Riverton on May 23.

Don't forget the district mid-winter institute which meets on Friday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

PARENTS' NIGHT WELL ATTENDED

Hundreds Visit Fine Exhibit of Work Done by Pupils of Riverton School

Last Monday evening the school rooms and auditorium of the Riverton School entertained the largest number of parents and friends of the school in the history of that institution's annual "Parents' Night."

Visitors were amazed by the scope of the school's activities as portrayed by the exhibit, in which every class and department was in close competition to win the plaudits of the visitors, and so far as most observers were concerned, all rooms were tied for first honors.

Wide Scope
On every side visitors were heard to gasp in surprise at the extent of the pupils' activities and interests. One thought was outstanding—that Miss Staman and her teachers deserve the admiration and appreciation of the entire community for having developed a school which so evidently takes second place to none in the State.

Visitors were called from the classrooms at eight-thirty, and gathered in the auditorium, where Mrs. John S. Werner entertained them with piano selections, and then led the audience in group singing.

Play Given
The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Charles Yost, the retiring president of the Riverton P.T.A., and by Miss Caroline Staman, Supervising Principal of the school. Following their greetings, Mr. John S. Werner announced an act play, presented by the Hon. Frank A. Mathews, entitled "Crossword Puzzles." The cast consisted of:

BUDGET HEARING IS POSTPONED

The public hearing on the budget of Burlington county for the current year, which was to have been held on Tuesday of this week, has been postponed, according to an announcement made by Director Palmer L. Adams.

According to present plans, the hearing will be held next week, the date to be announced later.

The change was made necessary because of the action of Walter Darby, state auditor, who shook around the budget as submitted, thus necessitating a change in the tax rate or a decrease in the various expenditures.

The members of the board are hard at work to solve the problem.

JURY DRAWING

The Hon. Joseph B. Perskie, Justice of the Supreme Court, assigned to hold the Circuit Court in Burlington County has fixed April 12, 1939, at 10 a.m., in the court house, Mount Holly, for the drawing by the jury commissioner of the grand and petit jurors for the April term of the courts of Burlington county.

The April Term of Court will open on Tuesday, April 25.

Trials of the Supreme and Circuit issues listed for this term commence on May 1, 1939.

SCHOOL CLOSED

The Riverton Public School will be closed this (Thursday) afternoon so that the teachers may attend sessions at the Schoolmen's Week Conference being held at the University of Pennsylvania.

BANK BUILDING SOLD TO CHURCH

The banking house of the defunct Palmyra National Bank was sold at public auction on Friday of last week, the purchase being made in the interests of the Lutheran Church.

It is understood that the interior of the structure will be altered extensively, after which it will be used as the house of worship for Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, of Palmyra, whose congregation now holds services in Society Hall.

FIRE DESTROYS LOCAL STRUCTURE

Blaze in Two Story Frame Garage Endangers Nearby Houses

Roaring with lightning-like rapidity through the old timbers, fire completely destroyed a two story wooden structure on Fifth street, between Cinnaminson and Leconey, shortly after 1:15 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

The building, which had not been used for some time, had space for two garages on the first floor. The second floor, formerly a carpenter shop was unoccupied.

Torn Down

The flames spread with such speed that another garage adjoining the main building toward Fifth street was also destroyed, while a third garage on an adjacent property had the roof burned off. All were empty.

The Palmyra Fire Department made a rapid run to the scene and laid two lines of 2 1/2 inch hose. Streams from these promptly squelched the flames, but by that time the building was doomed and the tottering framework was later razed by the firefighters.

High in Air

The three pieces of apparatus arrived on the scene a minute or two after the sounding of the siren, but within the short space of time from the discovery of the blaze until the arrival of the firemen flames had completely enveloped the two story section and were leaping high into the air.

Grass in the vicinity of the ruined buildings was burned off for a considerable area.

The property is owned by G. Ellisworth Hall, who resides at 20 Leconey street, and Fifth street.

The loss, in addition to the building, was considerable, since Mr. Hall stated that all the screens and awnings for his residence were stored on the second floor, in addition to porch furniture.

RESPECT MOTOR VEHICLE LAWS

State Inspector Tells Rotary Public Support Is Great Present Need

"Until people support the motor vehicle laws with the same attitude that they do the criminal laws there will be no permanent solution of the automobile accident problem," said Deputy Chief Inspector of Motor Vehicles, Brettell, last Thursday to the local Rotarians and their guests, among whom were Chiefs of Police Gootee, of Riverton, and Dorworth, of Cinnaminson.

The average person accepts law and order as a part of his existence, but not the motor vehicle regulations. There must be cooperation instead of antagonism, and the former can be developed, the inspector thinks, through the schools, moving pictures and other means of adult education. Most automobile accidents are due to carelessness and not to either the cars or the roads, both of which are better than ever before in history.

Big Business

Deputy Chief Inspector Brettell pointed out that the automobile traffic problem was "big business." He gave statistics showing that one out of every seven children is taken to school in a motor vehicle. The 30,000,000 cars now in existence carry 80,000,000 passengers. By 1950 there is anticipated the enormous total of 60,000,000 motor vehicles of all kinds.

With such huge numbers of rapidly moving vehicles the chance for accident is always a threat, but the totals like the 30,000 killed and over 1,000,000 injured in 1937 can be materially reduced by the exercise of reasonable care on the part of drivers.

Problem Cases

"The real problem cases," said Inspector Brettell, "are those people, who when warned for speeding or careless driving, are instantly antagonistic toward law enforcement officers who are only doing their duty. These officers have a unique job, for not only does every one have a part in paying them, but they protect us from criminals and even our own carelessness as well. They deserve our courtesy, cooperation and support."

Following Deputy Chief Inspector Brettell's talk, Inspector Severs of the State Police showed two films, one entitled "The Hit-and-Run Driver," and the other "Maniac Driving." Both drove home the point of the talk and sent Rotarians away resolved to exercise more caution when behind the wheel of their cars.

TEAM DINNER TO BE BIG AFFAIR

Many Prominent Athletes to Be Present at Affair Here April 1

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the dinner to be tendered the championship Palmyra High School basketball team in P. O. S. of A. Hall, Palmyra, on Saturday evening, April 1, at 6:30 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the affair has secured an imposing array of speakers, included on the list being: Frank Long, Rutgers University graduate, a prominent football official and a member of the staff of the Evening Bulletin; Jack Easley, former P.H.S. and Temple court star; Lon Jordan, basketball coach at Penn and Neil Deigan, ex-Eastern League luminary.

To Present Trophies

DREER GARDEN TAKES AWARD

The Henry A. Dreer outdoor rose garden received first prize at the Philadelphia Flower Show in the Commercial Museum, the award being made the first part of this week.

Those who have attended the affair state that the Dreer garden is one of the high lights of the show and heartily recommend a trip to see the display in the few days remaining. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

FEATURE GAME MONDAY NIGHT

5 & 10 Court Team to Engage Palmyra High School Champ Outfit

A delectable offering in basketball will be served to local court fans on Monday night of next week in the Palmyra High School gymnasium when the 5 & 10 court team, champions of the Interborough League will clash with the Palmyra High School All-Stars, a team composed of practically the entire cast of this year's championship aggregation.

The engagement will settle any discussion as to whether the league team or the scholastics is really the better court outfit and will bring the local hoop season to a fitting close. The price of admission is only 15 cents.

To Play

The All-Star team will be composed of such stars as Len Baker, Sam Rothbaum, Elmer Butters, Charlie Gamble, Bill Marshall, etc., etc.

The 5 & 10 will use their regular cast that carried them to 10 straight wins in the local league. The roster includes Jack Easley, Paul Burke, Chick Foulke, Bill Baker, Tom Shields, Duck Spear, Bill Smith and Speed Verner.

Faculty to Play

The main attraction will get under way at 8:30, with a classy preliminary tilt being slated for 7:30.

This will be between the P.H.S. junior varsity and the Faculty five composed of ex-college stars.

Jim Reeves, popular local referee, will officiate at both games.

Urge Action On School Fund Bill

The following letter was sent out this week by the Association of Burlington County School Boards:

To Members of Boards of Education and Citizens of the Sixteen Counties that Do Not Receive Full Quota Allotments as Guaranteed by State Statutes or that Receive Less Than 3c a Day for Attendance.

Senate Bill No. 6, which provides $1,997,999.77 to those counties that were short in their Legal Quotas or that receive less than 3c per day for Attendance, has passed the Senate. This bill will come up in the House of Assembly in the very near future. The bill provides that the State Shortage in each County as listed below be provided for in the general appropriation bill, thus assuring the school districts in the sixteen counties the amount of State Aid as guaranteed to them by State Statute.

Locals Drop Crucial Tilt to Lodi; Charity Throw Decides Contest

The slender margin of a single tally dropped Palmyra out of the picture in the semi-final round of the New Jersey Group 3 basketball tournament when Lodi High took the locals into camp by a 28-27 decision, the affair being played in the Elizabeth armory.

The game was closely contested all the way, there being little to choose between the two outfits. Lodi happened to be ahead at the final bell, but it might just as well have been Palmyra.

Lead Near End
As a matter of fact, Palmyra had an advantage of three points with the fracas rapidly drawing to a close. Unabashed at this, their opponents went to work and sank three doubletons in quick succession to put them out in front by the same margin.

Palmyra was equal to the occasion and pulled up on even terms by virtue of a field goal by Baker and a charity throw by Sutters.

With seconds remaining, a Lodi lad was fouled and he made it good to win the ball game.

Baker High
Baker, with 10 markers, was high man for the locals. He shot five doubletons and made 2 out of 2 from the 15-foot mark.

Lodi went on to win the Group 3 crown on Saturday evening, trimming South River to the tune of 26-20.

SPORTS JOTTINGS

For the second year in succession Palmyra made a valiant bid for state basketball honors in Group 3 circles. During both seasons the locals proved themselves to be the class of South Jersey, but were eliminated in the semi-final round by an opponent from the northern sector, this year by the most slender of margins.

It is too bad that a state title could not come the way of the Red and White, but the fact that it did not should in no way detract from the splendid performance of the Diamondmen during the season that just closed. The locals had a mighty fine outfit.

In view of the fact that practically the entire varsity squad will receive diplomas this June, it will probably be a few years before Coach Dimond will be able to build another quintet of championship calibre.

Coach Dimond, however, is more optimistic over the future. While declining to make any predictions regarding next year, the local mentor, who has a flare for turning out court teams of high ability, smiles knowingly and comments that the fans may be surprised when the records of next season are entered on the books.

We hope he is right!

Wildwood, the only South Jersey team to get into the finals of the state tournament was beaten 28-24 by South Amboy for the Group 2 crown.

A meeting of the Burlington County Baseball League is scheduled to be held on Friday evening of this week in the Mt. Holly court house. Palmyra will be represented at the session.

Finish Season with 10 Straight Wins; Trojans Gain Second Post Both Halves

For a time Monday night it looked as though the 5 & 10 court machine was in for its first reverse of the season, but the stellar cast proved equal to the emergency and eked out a 27-25 verdict over a hard-fighting Sigma Kappa aggregation.

The win enabled the merchants to finish the season with an unblemished record of 10 straight wins and gave them the season's title in the Interborough Court League.

Trail at Half
Sigma Kappa, with Jack Shea back in the lineup, made things rather unpleasant for the 5 & 10 during the first semester and the Greek letter lads were out in front 16-14 at the half.

The merchants gradually forged ahead, however, and were out in the van 25-22 as the whistle blew with five minutes of playing time remaining.

Chick Foulke whizzed in a honey at long range shortly after and S. K. converted a charity throw. Shea sank one just before the gong and the title went to the 5 & 10.

Fifteen Games on Slate for Palmyra High Nine; Several Veterans

Palmyra High School's baseball tossers will engage in a total of 15 games this season, according to a tentative schedule released this week. The opening is slated for Tuesday, April 18, with Camden Catholic providing the opposition on local terrain. Home games will be played on the Palmyra Recreation Park diamond.

The majority of the tilts are with South Jersey Group 3 league rivals, including two games each with Moorestown, Paulsboro, Burlington, Merchantville and Gloucester. Other opponents, in addition to Camden Catholic are Riverside and Haddonfield.

Twelve Veterans
A large squad reported for the first practice session on Wednesday of this week. Although Coach Dimond is well fortified with veteran material, he reports that a wealth of promising youngsters make the letter men hustle to hold down their posts.

Included among the members of the varsity cast are the following: pitchers—Baker, Carhart, Gibson; catchers—McDermott, Karitis; infielders—Rothbaum, Turner, Cole, Brewster and Kemmerle; outfielders—Gamble and Duff.

The tentative schedule follows:
April 18, Tuesday—Camden Catholic, home.

April 19, Wednesday—Burlington, home.

April 21, Friday—Camden Catholic, away.

April 22, Tuesday—Merchantville, home.

April 28, Friday—Gloucester, away.

much better advantage when they pulled the Iron Man stunt.

At one stage the Trojans had an 11 point bubble, but this was reduced appreciably before hostilities drew to a close.

The reverse was the second during the second half by the A. O. M. P., who were also beaten by 5 & 10. The runner-up outfit lost to the champions in each half of the schedule.

Kaceys Take One
After dropping all their tilts in the second half by the narrowest of margins, the K. C. quintet came back and took a 27-12 verdict from the Palmyra Firemen in the third engagement of the evening.

Thus the loop finished another season that was marked by a number of exceptionally good games. As a matter of fact, the program was a complete success, with the exception of attendance. The fans failed to leave the shelter of their fire-sides and the spectators were, without exception, always outnumbered by the players.

Congratulations to the men who composed the teams. They actually had to pay to play.

Gets Total of 206 Points in 23 Games; Average of Team 34 Per Game

According to figures compiled by C. Kenneth Dimond, Palmyra High School basketball coach, Len Baker topped his mates this year in the matter of scoring, his total for 23 games being 206, or an average of nearly nine per game.

The Red and White sharpshooter got 91 field goals and converted 19 out of 38 attempts from the 15-foot line. He was the only man to participate in all 23 engagements.

Rothbaum Second
Sam Rothbaum got the runner-up berth on the offensive, his total being 172. He led the team in respect to the highest percentage of free throw conversions, snaring 31 out of 51 for the fine percentage of .608.

The team average for foul conversions was .491, while the team point average per game was a fraction over 34.

Fine Record
Coach Dimond's record while at Palmyra has been most impressive. Over a period of 13 years as basketball coach, his teams have won 205 engagements as compared with 58 defeats, with only one fracas a tie.

It Could Happen Here

The Hitler machine has again changed the map of Europe, Czecho-Slovakia having ceased to exist as a nation, notwithstanding recent pact at Munich. This "treaty" proved to be the traditional "scrap of paper."

Hitler, boring into the Czech nation from within and without, took what he wanted and when he wanted it.

England and France have been censured for their stand at Munich, perhaps deservedly so, but from all accounts, Hitler's coup was not based entirely upon bluff. He held one high trump card, his air force, which many authorities claim is by far the best in the world.

Many students of international affairs feel that France and England hesitated to stop the advance of Hitler to prevent the wholesale slaughter of their own civilians by the huge Nazi bombing fleets which would have immediately attacked London and France in the event of hostilities.

The German dictator has clearly shown that his lust for territory and power is unsatiable. Thus far, his attentions have been devoted primarily to Central Europe, but no one knows what mad dreams are in his mind.

The United States, although far removed from Europe, should be vitally concerned in the Nazi schemes, not from the foreign standpoint, but from possible implications on this side of the Atlantic. It is a well-known fact that Nazi agents are hard at work spreading their insidious propaganda in many South American countries. While planes from Germany would have a difficult time in attacking the United States, a base for Hitler's airmen in South America would be a more potent threat to our shores.

In connection with this, however, it may be pointed out that no bully, be it an individual or a nation, will ever pick a fight with an opponent who he knows can beat him. The lesson is simple and Congress, fortunately, is already doing much to bolster our armed forces. May the good work continue rapidly! Adequate preparedness is the best assurance of our keeping out of war at the present time.

In addition to the South American angle, there is another factor that endangers our security at present. This is the activity of the German-American Bund and other Nazi organizations that are nurtured by funds and other support from Herr Hitler's henchmen. Such groups are a menace to the United States and NO measures are too severe when it comes to stamping them out until EVERY LAST VESTIGE HAS DISAPPEARED.

We should not be too complacent in our supposed security. The time to prepare is NOW, before it is too late.

Bicycle Riding

Despite a state law which forbids riding a bicycle at night without proper illumination at front and rear, together with another provision that prohibits riding any one on the handle bars, some youngsters in this section are repeatedly violating both rulings.

Wheels without lights and handle bar passengers have been observed on several occasions of late on streets in both Palmyra and Riverton. The practice is a dangerous one and, sooner or later, a serious accident appears inevitable unless it is checked.

Remember, the motorist is not ALWAYS to blame in accidents of this nature. He may not be able to see the child until it is too late to avoid a crash.

If YOUR child is one of those who is violating the law, why not find it out and stop him from endangering his own life and perhaps that of others.

The W.P.A. is going to build an exhibit at the expense of $250,000 at the New York fair to advertise its activities. Wouldn't it be nice to give each visitor to the exhibit a souvenir silver plated shovel with padded arm rest?

COMMENT

Governor James, of Pennsylvania, has cut the budget for the state, next year, in the sum of $100,000,000. We always suspected the Governor was not a New Dealer and now we are sure of it.

Mr. Chamberlain is said to have made himself unpopular in Europe by acting as mediator. Well, if he had interviewed some American baseball umpires he would have known better.

Abraham Lincoln, first Republican President, is now claimed by the Democrats, the Socialists and the Communists. But he is still safe so far as the nazis and fascists are concerned.

The government has filed a suit for damages against eighteen automobile tire concerns, as a result of the anti-monopoly investigation. This might be called an effort to deflate the tire trust.

One thing the matter with all dictators seems to be that they take themselves too seriously.

"I'd rather be a papermill worker here than the King of Italy," said Frank Rositi, naturalized American who would have to return to Italy to claim a legacy. So, probably, would the King of Italy.—Boston Transcript.

Both sides are swinging into action on the question of the horse racing amendment. During the past week a vast quantity of publicity has been issued by opponents of the measure headed by Lester H. Clew, who is chairman of the State Association to Defeat Race Track Gam-

DIRECTOR OF MOTHER CHURCH

The election of W. Stuart Booth, C.S.B., a trustee of The Christian Science Publishing Society, to be a director of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, has been announced by The Christian Science board of directors. Mr. Booth succeeds William R. Rathvon, deceased, and will be nominated for the other positions heretofore occupied by Mr. Rathvon.

Mr. Booth became interested in Christian Science about 44 years ago. Since 1911 he has given all of his time to Christian Science work. He is a member of The Mother Church, also of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Denver, Colorado, which he joined in 1896, and in Booth later served for nine years as Committee on Publication for the State of Colorado. He became a teacher of Christian Science following instruction by the Board of Education in the Normal Class of 1919.

In June, 1925, he was elected a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, which position he resigned in June, 1932, to join the editorial staff of the religious periodicals of the Christian Science organization as an associate editor. Mr. Booth became a trustee of The Christian Science Publishing Society in May 1935, and a member of the trustees for gifts and endowments in September, 1935.

ON HONOR ROLL

William E. Good, 407 Linden avenue, Riverton, is listed on the Dean's honor roll at Lehigh University for high scholastic achievement during the first semester.

Good is a sophomore in the curriculum of Mechanical Engineering.

On the other side of the fence, the Horse Racing Amendment Association, Inc. is going to town with numerous arguments as to why the amendment should be adopted.

The official Daily Treasury Statement of February 24 showed the financial condition of the Treasury since July 1, 1938, to be:

Expenditures	$5,801,573,422.01
Receipts	$3,622,749,189.23
In the hole	$2,178,824,232.78

The gross federal debt on that date was $39,847,114,518.13. Your per capita share of that debt is $306.52.

ATHLETIC HONORS TO MISS WOLCOTT

Miss Dorothy Wolcott, of Riverton has been elected to membership in Delta Phi Rho Alpha, honorary athletic order, at Woman's college of Duke university where she is a member of the sophomore class. Election to this society is based on special interest and outstanding ability in athletics.

Miss Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett O. Wolcott, of 415 Linden avenue, Riverton, is a member of the Nereid club, an honorary swimming club. She is a graduate of the Palmyra high school where she was captain of the swimming and a member of the hockey team. Miss Wolcott was also president of the girls athletic association.

IN COLLEGE PLAY

Miss Eleanor Friday, of Riverton, was a member of the cast of one of a series of one act plays recently presented at Glassboro State Teachers College.

The productions were given by the Drama Club of the college.

ANOTHER "NEW JERSEY"

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Charles Edison is standing firmly behind Senator Barbour, Congressman, I will make every effort again of the New Jersey delegation in efforts to have one of the nation's new dreadnaughts named the New Jersey.

"Not only as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, but also as a Jerseyman, I will make every effort again this year to have one of the new battleships designated the U.S.S. New Jersey," Mr. Edison told Senator Barbour in response to the Senator's request that this consideration be given the Garden State.

Fox Theatre Gives Steel Chrome Utensils

As an extra added treat for the ladies the Fox Theatre announces that on Monday and Tuesday, March 20 and 21, and every Tuesday thereafter, a beautiful set of Everedy Steel chrome cooking utensils will be given to the ladies absolutely free. This is the first time in the history of theatre giveaways that a nationally advertised and valuable piece of merchandise has been given to theatre patrons, according to Manager Charles Wagner.

This set consists of five attractive and useful pieces, each with a value of $2 to $3. They consist of a skillet, plantation chrome griddle, chicken fryer, self-basting dutch oven and a beautiful casserole. Any one of these beautiful and serviceable utensils can be secured for only ten coupons. This is a kitchen utensil set that every lady has wanted and same can be had by regular attendance. They wash perfectly in soap and water. They will not tarnish nor stain. They will not darken with age or use and never have to be polished, states Mr. Wagner.

10 Coupons Needed

Ladies do not have to attend ten consecutive weeks to secure their coupons. They may have their lady friends to get the coupons for them or bring any children in the family with an adult ticket and in this way they can get their desired Steel chrome Everedy Kitchen utensils. As soon as you have accumulated ten coupons present these to the theatre and your special piece will be ordered direct from the factory for you.

All lady patrons of the Fox Theatre and others as well, are urged by the management to visit the lobby of the Fox Theatre and see for themselves the unusual value that is being given away.

Coupons will be given on Monday and Tuesday, March 20 and 21, and every Tuesday thereafter. This plan will give all ladies their choice of either kitchen utensil coupons, Mary Lou Dinnerware or First Love Dresserware, according to Mr. Wagner. An attendant will be on duty every day during show time who will explain this easy way of procuring a nationally advertised set of kitchen utensils that every lady will want.

FOUR INJURED IN CAR SMASH

Ellis H. Parker, Jr., his wife and two other persons were injured early Sunday in a car collision that occurred on Branch Pike, near Five Points.

Parker's car and the machine driven by Malcolm Lewis, 127 Cherry street, Mt. Holly, were reported to have met practically head-on.

The former county detective's son sustained several fractured ribs and lacerations about the face. His wife had a broken wrist and numerous lacerations on face and body.

Lewis is in Zuerbrugg Memorial Hospital, Riverside with a fractured skull and jaw, together with possible internal injuries. Miss Eleanor Pfeiffer, 3666 Frankford avenue, Philadelphia, a passenger in the Lewis car received a broken nose and was badly bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Num, 236 Parker avenue, Upper Darby, Pa., escaped with only minor cuts. Chief George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson, is conducting an investigation of the crash which occurred at 1.15 a.m.

50 cents may be secured from any member of the cast, choruses or fraternity. Don't forget to reserve either Friday or Saturday, for an evening of sheer entertainment.

State Police Functions

New Jersey State troopers conducted approximately 95,000 highway patrols, covering more than five and a quarter million miles, during the year ending last June 30.
More than 29,000 arrests were made, over 22,000 for motor vehicle violations. In addition, 97,000 warnings were issued.
The teletype system of the department sent out 32,826 alarms, 65,959 miscellaneous messages and handled 155,248 information requests.
The detective bureau with a staff of 20 men conducted 1,342 criminal investigations, 769 of the cases being completed and closed at the end of the year and the remaining 573 being still in progress or awaiting trial.
A total of 14,887 photographs were added to the department files.

Other Functions

The figures are from a summary by Colonel Mark O. Kimberling, superintendent, detailing State Police activities over a typical year. Other functions, important but less spectacular, he points out, included safety education work, first aid, registration and tattooing of poultry flocks as a protection against theft, supervision of private detective licensing and the sale of firearms.
Many communities are dependent almost entirely upon the State Police for protection. Without the work the troopers perform, rural areas would be easy prey for criminals and the residents would be subject to numerous hazards. In this respect alone, declares Colonel Kimberling, the cost of the department is more than justified.

Non-Criminal

On the non-criminal side, safety work is an extensive function. There are 429 safety patrols, embracing 10 counties, operating under direction and with the cooperation of the State Police. As a result, fatal accidents and serious injuries involving school children have been virtually eliminated during the periods the patrols operate.
Since the registration of poultry flocks was begun, 671,516 birds have been tattooed. The only expense to flock owners taking advantage of the service is the cost of materials. A quick means of identification in case of theft is established by the markings, which have led to the apprehension of several chicken thieves and undoubtedly have deterred others from attempted stealing.
Established in 1921, the department has a present authorized strength of 280 men. It is divided into four troops, each in charge of a captain strictly accountable and personally responsible to the superintendent for supervision and control of his unit and for police conditions within the limits of his area.

Appointment

Appointment of troopers is made by selective examinations especially designed to determine the adaptability of the candidate for the work. After his mental, physical and temperamental fitness is established, a thorough investigation is made of his character, reputation and standing in the community before appointment to the training school. There he undergoes three months of intensive instruction and upon graduation is assigned to road duty for a six months probationary period.
Members enlist for a two-year period. The last examinations, held in 1938, attracted more than a thousand candidates. From the group approximately 50 were accepted, which indicates the exacting requirements. Already 235 are registered for consideration when the next examinations are held.

Tricks and treachery are the practice of fools that have not enough wit to be honest.—Poor Richard.

CARDS PROTEST ANY SALES TAX

Fifty thousands window cards, protesting against passage of any kind of a sales tax by the 1939 Legislature are being distributed this week by the Retail Merchants' Association of New Jersey, according to announcement made here today by G. Earl Wilson, association president.

"These placards will be distributed among retail merchants in virtually every county of the state" read a statement by Wilson. "Retail stores in various communities will also distribute slips in packages warning of the danger of a sales tax."

"The State Tax Revision Commission has recommended a three percent gross receipts tax on retailers. Since merchants cannot pay this because of short profit margins, the burden of this $37,000,000 new tax will fall upon New Jersey consumers, who cannot afford it."

"Not only are we opposing the gross receipts levy, but we are against any type of sales tax, direct or indirect. Any sales tax will add to the cost of living in New Jersey and thus represents a raid on the pay envelopes of New Jersey wage earners. A two per cent consumers' sales tax will cost New Jersey workers at least a week's wages a year."

"We are urging all consumers to tell their legislators that they are against passage of any type of sales tax and that the present million dollar a day New Jersey tax bill is high enough."

"NO TRAFFIC DEATH" RECORD

There were 274, or approximately one-half the municipalities in New Jersey reporting no traffic accident fatalities for the calendar year of 1938 as compared with 228 municipalities the previous year, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced recently. He considers the record most encouraging to all citizens and particularly to those engaged in traffic accident prevention.

Even heavily populated Essex and Hudson counties had three municipalities each with no deaths while Passaic and Union counties had six each, Mercer five and Camden sixteen.

None of the municipalities on the list are in the higher population brackets although eight are found in the group between 10,000 and 25,000 population. The number of municipalities in the other population groups are:

3,000 to 10,000 population — 20
2,500 to 3,000 population — 35
1,000 to 2,500 population — 109
Under 1,000 population — 102

Following are the Burlington county municipalities that enjoyed a "no traffic death" record last year: Bass River, Beverly, Bordentown City, Chesterfield, Delran, Easthampton, Fieldsboro, Florence, Lumberton, New Hanover, Palmyra, Riverside, Riverton, Pemberton, Taber, Tangle, Shamong, Washington, Westhampton, Woodlands, Wrightstown and Mount Holly.

BETHANY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Oliver W. Powers, Pastor
The liturgical name for Sunday is Judica, meaning Judge. The Sunday is also known as the Lord's Day of the Passion, Passion Sunday; this week and Holy Week have been spoken of as the passionate from very early days. At the chief service on Sunday, 11 a.m., the Rev. Oliver W. Powers, pastor, will preach on the subject "Patience Resisted." At the Vesper, 8 p.m., Mr. Powers will speak about "Home Mission Work in Many Tongues."

Last night at the Lenten service Pastor Powers discussed the Fourth Word from the Cross "My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?" He said:

"As Jesus was hanging on the cross about the noon hour suddenly the people realized a great darkness had come. And for three long hours that weird, mysterious darkness hung a pall over the scene as though hung a pall over the scene as though it. During those three hours Jesus spoke not at all, suffering in silence. Then overwhelmed with anguish He burst out in that soul rending cry, 'My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?' To an extent this word of Jesus from the cross will remain a mystery. Had it been uttered by the dying thief, receiving his just reward, we would understand. But coming from the spotless Son of God this word is difficult. St. Paul long ago expressed the reasonable answer in the familiar words 'God hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.' In other words Jesus had to suffer for our sins. . . . Not that He had deserved any of this for Himself. . . . The crushing burden of the whole world's guilt was laid on Him. . . . No wonder He recoiled in horror, and shuddered before the abyss of guilt that yawned to devour Him."

This word from the cross is also a precious comfort to us. For it reminds us that Jesus was forsaken by Him in all eternity, as we have justly deserved. Jesus has now paid for us the penalty in His own body on the tree. And the debt is paid in full. . . . Nothing remains to be done by us or for us, but to believe it with all our hearts. . . . This word is also an admonition for us to hate sin and evil. For here we have a glimpse of the awful nature of sin whose dreadful curse spared not even God's only Son. Can we treat it lightly and in cold indifference refuse to break with it, thus trampling on the Savior's blood, and crucifying the Lord again. . . . It proves to us how terribly in earnest must God be in judging and condemning sin and pleads with us to forsake it and turn to Him who loved us to the end."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Reality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 26.

The Golden Text is: "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:8).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is unwise to doubt if reality is in perfect harmony with God, divine Principle—if Science, when understood and demonstrated, will destroy all discord—since you admit that God is omnipotent; for from this premise it follows that good and its sweet concord have all-power" (p. 136).

The shortest and surest way to live with honor in the world is to be in reality what we appear to be.—Socrates.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George Lockett, B. D., Pastor
Bible School, 10.00 a.m.—The School very heartily celebrated the tenth anniversary of the dedication of the new church building last Sunday by topping the banner year with about 110 more in attendance. Many visitors were present to assist in the celebration and were greatly impressed by the efficiency of the school and the friendliness accorded them. They found here classes for every age, being taught lessons of inspiration and help, that tend toward character building.

Morning worship, 11.15 a.m. Not only was the Bible School well attended but the church was filled to more than its seating capacity. The congregation enjoyed a very unique sermon by the pastor whose resume of the progress during the last ten years was very appropriately based upon the scripture reading, "Seek First the Kingdom of God."

The choir, under the direction of Claude Barto, with Mrs. Elvin I. Powell at the console, will render several selections.

B.Y.P.U., 6.45 p.m. If you are in high school age, you are invited to this service which is held in the Sunday School room.

Evening worship, 7.45 p.m. "Be of Good Cheer," a subject that should tempt everyone to attend this service, will be dwelt upon by the pastor. Come out and enjoy these meetings where you can enter into good fellowship.

Rev. William A. Boyd, Pastor
"The Transfiguration of Jesus" is the title of the sermon to be given by the Rev. W. A. Boyd in the Methodist Church this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. This is the second sermon in the series "Jesus During Lent."

In the Young People's Service at 7.45 the sermon subject is "Christ Before Pilate." Special music will be given by the choir and the young people of the church will participate in the service.

In the Lenten service on Thursday evening, the Rev. O. C. Apper will be the guest minister. Mr. Apper comes to us from the Methodist Church in Audubon.

Christian Baptism will be administered in our church Palm Sunday morning.

BEATING TROUBLE to the PUNCH!

One reason your telephone service is so dependable is the work done day after day by telephone "trouble hunters" to find and correct faults before they affect the service.

Mile after mile of telephone cable is checked inch by inch to mend cracks that might let moisture in; delicate central office apparatus is vacuum-cleaned to remove all dust; your telephone layout is completely checked whenever repair or change is called for.

"Beating trouble to the punch" is a big factor in making telephone service that enables you to talk with almost any one, anywhere any time quickly, clearly, cheaply.

TALK 16 miles for 15c, 48 miles for 35c any time in New Jersey (standard-rate rates). After 7 week-nights and all Sunday, rates are reduced for calls of 80 miles or over.

think of the action of their legislators in handling the public business.

Air Brakes

The transportation question came up for an airing when the District Clerk read a copy of the new laws requiring air brakes for school busses and the installation of equipment incidental thereto.

Board Member, Leslie W. Reeves, stated that the whole thing was ridiculous and is just a racket to force the little independent bus owners out of business. He cited the present law that prohibits a school bus to travel in excess of twenty-five miles per hour and asked why air brakes were needed to stop a vehicle that travels no faster than that.

He stated that satisfactory, safe and efficient service has been rendered in the past by local taxpayers operating the busses and he could see no reason why they shouldn't be allowed to continue.

The local bus owners contract to transport the school children at a fixed price and then some new law is passed to increase the cost to the bus owner that makes it almost impossible for him to continue under the contract and make a reasonable profit for himself. It was estimated that the installation of air brakes and the other necessary gadgets would cost about $200.

The clerk was instructed to write to the County Superintendent of Schools, Louis J. Kasey, to ascertain if the air brake requirement was actually a law.

A motion was also passed authorizing the district clerk to write to Senator Powell and Assemblyman Stokes urging them to work for the passage of the "deficiency bill" which if passed would net Cinnaminson Township an additional $4,000.

New Entrance Rule

Mrs. Mildred Magowan was given authority to accept children into the kindergarten next September who will have reached the age of five years by the following February. The privilege remains optional with parents, but is thought to be helpful in giving kindergarten children the advantage of a full year's preparation before entering first grade.

Dr. Bradley submitted a written report of health conditions at school No. 4 and among other recommendations he suggested that more frequent check-ups be made during the year.

B. R. Leach moved that a letter be sent to Dr. Bradley inviting him to watch the medical service now being given at school No. 2 and the board would give him offer serious consideration.

An additional appropriation of $24 was made to round out the program of "educational excursions" to points of interest in Philadelphia for certain classes who thus far have not been favored.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR

An improved washout ink for manufacturers to use on flour and sugar sacks to enable thrifty housewives to convert these bags into dish-towels and aprons. . . . A liquid sandpaper eliminating the need for washing and scraping glossy, enameled or varnished surfaces before refinishing. . . . An aluminum alloy softball bat no heavier than customary wooden bats; because it is made of this durable metal it cannot be broken in actual play and it will not sting the hands no matter how hard a ball is hit. . . . Men's shirts made of airplane cloth. . . . A new textile made from soy beans. . . . Bread made with two ounces of grapefruit juice to every pound of dough; though of greenish-yellow color, the bread is said to have more vitamin and food value, and will stay fresh longer than ordinary bread.

LEAGUE MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT

Lawrence G. Mingin, president, announces that there will be a meeting of the Burlington County Baseball League, at the court house, Mt. Holly, Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m.

Notices of the meeting have been sent to all clubs that comprised the circuit last season and to others whom Mingin feels will be interested in franchises for the coming season. The league, last season, according to Mingin, irrespective of the fact that league baseball did not function for several years, was a success and he predicts that the coming season has all the possibilities of surpassing last year in every respect. The meeting will be open to all teams and individuals interested in organizing the league for the coming season and Mingin is hopeful that the representation will be such that organization can be perfected at this meeting.

EIGHT TEAMS IN SOFTBALL CIRCUIT

Memorial Park Circuit Holds First Meeting; Officers to Be Named

The Memorial Park Softball League held the first meeting of the 1939 season on Tuesday night of this week with President Walter C. Wright in charge of the session. A number of loop officials and teams managers were present at the affair. It was voted to limit the league to eight teams this year and the organizations that finished the last half of the 1938 season are considered as members unless notice is given to the contrary.

local tax rate in some communities more than 70 points. (Pemberton Borough, Burlington County).

The Legislature for the past two years has recognized the necessity for providing the deficit. This year the need is greater than ever.

Immediate Steps

Certainly, if large sums of money can be provided to hold special elections to legalize pari-mutuel betting, the money must or can be provided to the various school districts that is guaranteed by State Statutes. The money is needed to provide a minimum education for the boys and girls in the respective counties.

May we urge that you take immediate steps to see your Assemblymen and point out to them what it means to your County and to your district?

May we also suggest that you see or contact your Senator and ask that he endeavor to aid the passage of Senate No. 6 in the Assembly?

TAKE CARE OF ELECTRIC CORD; IT WILL REPAY YOU

Home service department employees of power and light utility companies in New Jersey have learned in interviewing domestic customers and in calling upon them at their homes that an unbelievable number of cords used for connecting household electric appliances are put out of commission by abuse of one sort or another to which they have been subjected.

Most important in proper care is to remember not to pull on the cord itself in disconnecting it, says the New Jersey Public Utility Information Committee. Grasp the connector or plug, thus avoiding strain on the wire and insulation. Don't knot, twist or snarl cords. They are made up of twin wires, each consisting of many fine wires twisted together. Rough usage causes breaking of the thin strands and results in short circuiting the cord. Don't roll up cords tightly and put them away in drawers when not in use. Hang them up, preferably laid across two hooks about six inches apart.

The first machine-made horse-shoes were manufactured at Troy, N. Y., in 1835.

YOUR GARDEN

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK
By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

Signs of an early spring have sent many flower lovers into their gardens with spades, rakes and pruning shears during the last week or two. Although there is still plenty of time to do the early chores of spring, there are definite advantages in accomplishing them early.

Roses, shrubs and perennial flowers all do better if transplanted as soon as the ground is in shape, for they then have a greater chance to become rooted before active growth starts. Much root growth is done when plants are moved, but since root development takes place at lower temperatures than top growth, the sooner transplanting is completed, the better it is for plants.

Among the few herbaceous plants which do not respond well to spring planting or transplanting are early-flowering bulbs, and other early spring flowers, although even these have been held over in cold storage and planted in the spring satisfactorily.

If sweet peas are on the list of annuals to appear in the garden this year, be sure to get them in the ground early. If the ground is in very good condition, the seeds may be covered with about an inch or an inch and a half of soil; otherwise deeper planting in a trench is recommended. With inoculated seed,

POOR LIGHTING ACCIDENT CAUSE

Insufficient illumination of motor vehicles is held by the Keystone Automobile Club of New Jersey to be a contributing cause to many night accidents in cities and towns. The club advocates the uniform use of headlamps, pointing out that when two cars with headlamps lighted approach an intersection the projected beams serve as a warning to the drivers, who are thus enabled to take the necessary precautions. When only cowl lights are used on one or both of the approaching cars, the danger of collision is appreciably increased.

"The hazard is multiplied," said Trevor B. Mathews, manager of the Camden Division of the club, "when cars thus operated are of older type equipped with very small cowl lights. Such lamps are virtually useless, both as a means of affording illumination and of giving warning to other operators and pedestrians.

"Motor vehicle law requires the use of headlamps under conditions where other vehicles, pedestrians and substantial objects are not readily discernible. We believe the police can aid materially in reducing night accidents by stopping motorists whose cars are insufficiently illuminated and instructing them to turn on the headlamps. We also believe the police should pay more attention to 'one eyed' cars. In most cases, drivers are unaware of the condition and appreciate having it called to their attention. Spare bulbs should be carried by every motorist for this emergency."

RIVERTON : CINNAMINSON : PALMYRA

50th Year No. 13

RIVERTON—PALMYRA, N. J., THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1939

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SOFTBALL LOOP NAMES OFFICERS

Walter C. Wright Re-Elected President; Yearly Heads Executive Group

At a meeting of the Memorial Park Softball League held on Monday night of this week, all officers of the organization were re-elected for the coming year. These include: Walter C. Wright, president; F. W. Metzger, vice-president; Lawton J. Steele, secretary and Walter J. Schopp, treasurer.

President Wright named Joseph Yearly as chairman of the executive committee. Other members are Messrs. Fred Conway and Metzger.

Committees

Other committee appointments by Mr. Wright were: Umpire-in-chief, Edson Carhart assisted by Earl Rotenbury.

Chief scorer—Jack Showell. Rules committee—William Anderson, Raymond Coles and Robert Wallace.

Finance—Walter Schopp. Registration—Lawton Steele.

Grounds—John Ruppert, Jack Showell and Lester Yearly.

Five teams have definitely signed up for the season and it is expected that the others will be heard from in the near future.

Official rules for the season were adopted at the meeting and it was voted to conduct all games according to national softball regulations. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

Plans Made For Local Home Fete

The annual Cinnaminson Home Fete will be held at the home this year on Friday, May 26, from five to nine p.m. Patrons are requested to note the change in location and also the fact that Friday is the designated day instead of Saturday, as in previous years.

A hot supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock and this will be followed by an evening of entertainment at the home. A dance will be held at the Riverton Country Club from 9 to 12.

The proceeds will be devoted to ward remodeling the kitchen of the home.

THE PORCH CLUB

The lecture course on "Speech as an Art," by Cora Wilson Greenwood, is being most enthusiastically attended by both members and non-members. Mrs. Greenwood's next and last lecture, at the club, will be April 4th, at 10:30.

On the afternoon of March 27th Clifford Mell spoke to the garden section on "The Germination of Seeds." Each person present was given a box of soil, a package of seeds and 40 small flower pots in which to plant these seeds, and on April 24th the garden section will meet at the club to exchange these small growing plants with each other.

The next meeting of the garden section will be Tuesday April 11, at which time Randolph Ashton will speak on "How to Have Birds in Your Garden" and will also show colored moving pictures of bird life. A great many of these pictures have been taken from Mr. Ashton's living room window.

Tuesday, March 28, Walter Hall, president of the Salem Historical Society, spoke on Old Wistarberg Glass. Mr. Hall brought some very interesting pieces of this old glass with him. These were all museum pieces, of the Salem Historical Society, dating back to 1789.

Thursday, April 13, 10:30 a.m. Miss Bease Howard will again speak at the club on International Relations.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO NAME OFFICERS

At a business meeting of the Palmyra Woman's Club planned for Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in Society Hall, officers for the current year will be elected.

At this session Miss Mary Lee will give an illustrated lecture on the topic "Our Age and Heritage." The Garden Department of the club will hold a tea on Monday, April 17, at 2:30 p.m., at which time Dan McGowan will speak on the subject "Snow Peaks and Flower Meadows in the Canadian Rockies." His talk will be profusely illustrated.

PENN COACH TO SPEAK AT DINNER

Lon Jourdet Here Saturday Night; Notables to Honor School Court Team

The Palmyra High School Alumni Association wishes to remind all townspeople that the testimonial dinner and dance being tendered the high school basketball team and Coach Dimond will be held this Saturday evening, April 1st, at 6:30 at the P. O. S. of A. Hall. The executive committee has gathered together an array of interesting speakers and everything is in readiness for a gala evening.

The main speaker of the evening will be Lon Jourdet, Penn court coach and a leading basketball authority, and it is probable that Larry Kelley, All-American end at Yale will also be present, in addition to the many other celebrities already announced. Judge Frank Mathews will be toastmaster, Carl Thomas will lead the singing, Bob Elder will present the team with a championship trophy, and President Russell Rivers will present the sweaters on behalf of the association.

Tickets

The committee also wishes to announce that tickets will be on sale at the door Saturday night to provide for those unable to get in touch with a member of the committee. The price is $1.25 apiece, and it should be kept in mind that this price must also defray the expenses of the sweaters and the dance which will follow at 8:30 in the high school gym. A dinner ticket will also admit holder to the dance.

The Alumni Association has undertaken a great responsibility in sponsoring this affair, the first of its kind ever given in Palmyra, and it is relying upon friends and followers of the schools for utmost support. It affords an excellent chance for alumni and parents to honor the team which has won league and South Jersey championships for two straight years, and Coach Ken Dimond, who has the enviable record of having won 79% of Palmyra's court games during the 13 years he has been here. Since 1926, his teams have won 211 games, lost 55 and tied 1, a record which few teams in the entire state can equal.

In addition inter-club councils and conferences are held regularly so that girls who carry official responsibility may learn through contact with other girls how to carry out the Young Women's Council includes representation from the Willingboro Y.W.C.A., the Florence Industrial Club, the Moorestown Y.W.C.A. and the Mount Holly Business Girls Supper Club. All of these clubs are for young women and represent three important divisions of contemporary life—agriculture, business, and industry. In addition there is a council for Senior High School Girl Reserves and three for Junior High School clubs.

In Riverton there are two clubs. One is under the leadership of Mrs. Betty Petty with Phyllis Carson as president. The other is a Girl Reserve Club under the leadership of Miss Ernestine Robinson who feared how to be a leader when she was a member of the Girl Reserves under Mrs. Eleanor Young.

SUNRISE SERVICE AT LAKEVIEW

Palmyra Moravian Church to Conduct for Seventh Consecutive Year

The Palmyra Moravian church will conduct its seventh consecutive Easter Sunrise Service on beautiful Lakeview Memorial Park. This service, a tradition with the Moravian church for more than two hundred years, centers in the impressive, historic Easter Liturgy, which is the basic confession of the church's faith.

The service was inaugurated at Lakeview in 1933, and is South Jersey's original outdoor Easter Sunrise Service. Ten thousand people witnessed this first service, and every year it has met with increasing popular response.

Plans for an impressive service have again been made, featuring the Liturgy and chorale. A large group of players from our community have been gathered as a trombone choir, who will lead the congregation, assembled on the terrace, in the chorales, and also introduce and close the service with chorale music. The Rev. Albert J. Harke, pastor of the church will again conduct the service and deliver a brief Easter message. Mr. G. W. Perkins, of Delanco, will be music director, and the Delanco Male Chorus will sing several selections from the altar.

The service this year will begin at 5:15 a.m., with preliminary music beginning at 4:30 a. m. As in former years the entire service will be amplified, so that it can be heard from every part of the Park.

Campaign Goal Nearly Reached

Riverton women, under the leadership of Mrs. Francis B. Elwell, reported returns only $16.85 short of their goal of $450.00 for the work of the Y.W.C.A. If all towns come through the campaign as well as this the continuing fine program of the Burlington County Y.W.C.A. is assured. This organization, through its two secretaries, Miss Katherine Lucchini and Miss Virginia Slim serves 1663 women organized in twenty-six different communities of Burlington county. This is done with no equipment other than two rented rooms and a car on a budget of $6,400.00 which includes the salaries of two full time professional workers, the running of a car which covers within the county approximately fifteen hundred miles each month. Each of the thirty-eight clubs is visited about once a month and the programs of the individual units thus strengthened.

Activities
In addition inter-club councils and conferences are held regularly so that girls who carry official responsibility may learn through contact with other girls how to carry out the Young Women's Council includes representation from the Willingboro Y.W.C.A., the Florence Industrial Club, the Moorestown Y.W.C.A. and the Mount Holly Business Girls Supper Club. STADIUM WORK GOING RAPIDLY

The new Palmyra High School stadium is going up rapidly and the work accomplished each week materially changes the aspect of the terrain where the new athletic field is being constructed.

The concrete sides of the running track are nearing completion and one section of the field has been completely graded. The oval track has the straightaway section at one end extended to permit the running of the dashes without the necessity of going around the bend.

Pouring of concrete for the stands will be begun as soon as the track is finished.

WINGATE HERE FOR MEETING

District Governor of Rotary at "Ladies Night" of Local Club

Fifty-five Rotarians and ladies heard District Governor Thomas B. Wingate tell the story of Rotary at the Palmyra-Riverton Club's annual "Ladies Night" last Thursday. The Porch Club was tastefully decorated with azaleas and ferns, the entertainment consisting of music by Dr. Evald, Keith, Thomas Braddock and Jack Mathews; Gretzel, Dante Mendito; Dr. Randall, William Leidy; Sam, Hilton Smith; Devereaux, Robert Botter; Milhauser, Emil Bohus; Powell, Robert Kelley; Frank, Dorothy Denner; Linda, Dorothy Denner.

Another Local Landmark Goes

The demolition of the old Blorin property on the west side of Main street, Riverton, between Third and Fourth, makes the passing of another local landmark.

The house, which has been unoccupied and closely shuttered since 1905 was one of the older residences of Riverton, having been constructed by George W. Shinn. It was occupied by Mrs. Charles Breen and later by J. S. Breen, a member of a prominent Philadelphia investment house. The furniture remained in the dwelling until a few years ago.

With the razing of this structure, only a single home remains on the west side of Main street in the block in question where three stood in former years. As a matter of fact, there are fewer homes today on Main street, between Bank avenue and Fourth, than appear on the old map of Riverton that is dated 1890.

SHANER RESIGNS H.O.L.C. POST

George B. Shaner, of 802 Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, after having been with the Home Owners Loan Corporation for the past five years in charge of reconditioning and modernizing homes in South Jersey resigned his position this week to return to the firm of George W. Shaner & Sons, of which he is a partner.

At the height of activity in the H.O.L.C. Mr. Shaner had charge of an office in the Post Office Building, Camden, and another, in the Post Office Building, Atlantic City. All district offices were closed about a year ago throughout the country and Mr. Shaner's office has been in Newark since that time.

NO SECRECY

Mayor John F. Ward, of Palmyra, emphatically denied last week that there was any secret planning of a joint Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson contest in respect to a contemplated purchase of the Riverton-Palmyra Water Company. If and when such a purchase is decided upon, the voters will decide the question in a referendum, the Mayor said.

TRAFFIC DEATHS DURING FEBRUARY

Thirteen Counties in State Have No Fatalities in Past Month

Thirteen of New Jersey's twenty-one counties got through the month of February without a traffic fatality, according to Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee, who announced today a state reduction of thirteen per cent in casualties during the first two months of the year.

Deaths this year have totaled 114 as compared with 131 in the same period last year.

The counties maintaining a perfect record in February were Atlantic, Burlington, Camden, Cape May, Gloucester, Hunterdon, Monmouth, Morris, Ocean, Salem, Somerset, Sussex and Warren.

February Safest

Had it not been for the high death rate over the New Year holidays when twenty-one traffic fatalities were recorded, New Jersey would have established a record of sixteen consecutive months in which deaths were lower than corresponding months of the previous year. The New Year slaughter put January's record above the previous January's, the only exception during the sixteen months period.

February was the safest month in the past eight years with but 35 deaths.

By Counties

Following is a two months record of traffic fatalities in the counties during the past two years:

Atlantic	7	8
Bergen	10	9
Burlington	5	3
Camden	12	5
Cape May	3	3
Cumberland	1	3
Essex	21	33
Gloucester	5	2
Hudson	8	15
Hunterdon	7	8
Mercer	5	4
Middlesex	13	8
Monmouth	3	3
Monroe	3	1
Ocean	2	2
Passaic	5	6
Salem	6	3
Somerset	3	3
Sussex	1	1
Union	10	1
Warren	1	1
Entire State	131	114

ACTIVITIES OF CINNAMINSON P.T.A.

A musicale is being given under the auspices of the Cinnaminson P.T.A. at the Cinnaminson School this evening (Thursday), beginning at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Robert Sim has had charge of the arrangements, and an enjoyable evening is promised. Tickets are 25 cents.

Seventy-five mothers and friends attended the luncheon and fashion revue held last Thursday at the school and a delightful afternoon, was had by all those present. The luncheon was held in the school with Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Ivers as the hostesses; and the fashion show, with Mrs. Conrad Friday as chairman, took place in the auditorium. Dresses and accessories were shown through the courtesy of Mrs. Schwartz, whose apparel shop is in Riverside. Hairdressing was by Mrs. Williams, of Riverton.

From start to finish, nothing had been overlooked to make the affair a pleasant one. Mrs. Warnick was "commentator" at the Fashion Revue; Mrs. Carl Thomas played the piano; and the following ladies and girls acted as models—Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Eagens, Mrs. Harder, Mrs. Stow, Helen Haines and Phoebe Roray. Mrs. Seither sang two very pleasing numbers, with Mrs. Gubkin accompanying her. Mrs. Russell Musser, as head of the ways and means committee, was general chairman of the entire program, which, from every angle, was quite a success.

The executive board will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Sim, Burlington Pike, Riverton, next Wednesday evening, April 5th.

GIRL RESERVE NOTES

"It's too easy to quit" were the words of Arthur A. Waples to the East Riverton Girl Reserves last Thursday.

The topic from which Mr. Waples spoke was "What are you doing toward building your tomorrow?" The three phases of which were: health, education and opportunities.

The girls are planning an Easter egg hunt to be held on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ashby of East Riverton, on Easter Monday.

The Patty's Day Social was a great success and the girls appreciate the patronage of their guests.

SQUIRES EXONERATED

Failing to discover any illegalities in practices of county justices of the peace, the December Grand Jury closed its probe of that angle of county affairs, when it filed a report with Judge Frank A. Hendrickson last week.

P.T.A. SPONSORS TEA

The Phyllis Wheatley P.T.A. of School No. 4 sponsored a Saint Patrick's Tea on March 19 at the home of Mrs. Fannie Ashby. A large crowd enjoyed the delightful program and the delicious refreshments served by the ways and means committee. Tea was poured by Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Ross. Mrs. Gladys Rickerts was in charge of the program.

Among those who appeared on the program were: readings, Mrs. Dorothy Congo; piano selection, Miss Pitts; vocal solo, Miss Mary Webb; piano selection, Courtney Houston; recitation, Mrs. Grace Dorsey; vocal solos, Mr. Edward Morton and Mr. William Denby; piano solo, Mrs. Maude McCombs; vocal solo, Mrs. Wallace Ashby; vocal solo, Mrs. Camilla Lockwood; reading, Mrs. Sara Hill; piano solo, Miss Edna Washington; vocal solo, Miss Still; piano solos, Miss Regina Bowe and Edna Ashby.

SUIT DROPPED

The suit of James Goodwin, of Riverton, to recover back pay from Burlington county was dropped temporarily when Judge Frank A. Hendrickson stated that his court was without jurisdiction to hear the case.

In the crypt of Canterbury cathedral, London, there is a French church.

"OPEN HOUSE"

DURING APRIL AND MAY AT ALL NEW JERSEY NURSERIES

... to show you that even modest budgets can afford lovely landscaping plans

Drop in, won't you, at your nearest New Jersey Nursery any time during April and May? It's "Open House" time! We promise you a pleasant, perhaps an inspirational visit—without any "selling" at all.

Yes, we have a purpose in this invitation. We want you to find out that your local New Jersey Nursery is equipped with an amazing assortment of shade trees, flowering trees, shrubs, evergreens and perennial and annual plants (moderately priced) to handle all landscaping problems whether they involve acres or a few square feet.

Most important of all, we want you to learn that there is no mystery about nurseries. New Jersey Nurseries are like any food or clothing store you visit. Different departments for different products. Prices to meet all pocketbooks. Experts to serve you—and advise you, if you wish.

Feel free, when you pay your "Open House" call, to wander about and inspect informally your local New Jersey Nursery. Any questions you may have will be gladly answered—but only upon your request. Your first personal call is much more important than any sale could be.

Buy from your community nurseryman displaying this emblem. He guarantees your complete satisfaction, with his nursery-grown stock and planting service.

Junior Court Tournament

Saturday morning, March 25, the Burlington county junior basketball championship was held at the Mt. Holly Junior High School gym. Willingboro, an aggressive and rangy group of boys, outplayed a fine Mt. Holly group to win the plaque. The semi-finals of the tournament resulted in Mt. Holly barely nosing out the Twin City Spartans group of Palmyra-Riverton, with Willingboro having their own way in defeating a small but scrappy quintet from Columbus. The outstanding players of the tournament were Brown, Hammerly and Trainer of the Willingboro team, Craig of Palmyra, with Jones of Mt. Holly being quite prominent from out past the fifteen foot stripe. Hugh Kilmarin, of Mt. Holly High School faculty and Hi-Y leader and Allan Long, a Gra-Y leader, were in charge of the tournament.

Thursday evening, April 6, at the Mt. Holly Junior High School, the winners and runner up teams of the northern and southern sections of the Hi-Y Basketball Leagues will compete for the County Hi-Y Basketball Championship. The two northern teams are Bordentown and Florence with Burlington and Willingboro winners in the southern division.

NAMED HEAD OF COLLEGE Y.W.C.A.

Miss Mary Taylor, junior at Oberlin College from Riverton, has been elected president of the Oberlin Y.W.C.A., it was announced this week.

The Oberlin organization is affiliated with the National Y.W.C.A. and participates in the national inter-collegiate program including the Geneva Summer Conference at Geneva, Wisc. Among the numerous activities carried on by the local chapter are weekly vespers services; faculty-student discussion groups; and many social leadership projects on the campus and for the community.

Each year the Oberlin Y.W.C.A. sponsors a Religious Conference which brings outside speakers to the campus. In addition to this there are numerous special emphasis conferences held here, and conferences at our schools to which Oberlin representatives are sent. Miss Taylor has held two previous offices in the Oberlin Y.W.C.A. Last year she was secretary, and this year as member of the cabinet. She is Women's Representative on the student council, and an honor

TRUCK RESPONDS TO FIRST CALL

The new Riverton ladder truck responded to the first alarm since its acquisition several months ago on Wednesday night of last week, the call being for a blaze in the living room of the Paul residence, Burlington Pike, near Highland avenue. The fire, which was believed to have been caused by a defective fireplace, was extinguished with little damage. The Parry Company laid a water line from a booster tank to douse the flames.

MRS. A. C. WOOD SHOW CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Alexander C. Wood, Jr., of Riverton, general chairman of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Burlington County Hospital, and Dr. C. Thompson Jones, president of the Burlington County Horse and Hound Association, have announced that the county auxiliary will sponsor the two-day horse show to be held May 6 and 7 on the farm of the English Setter Club, near Medford, and that plans are now in progress to make this show twice as large as the very successful show held on the same grounds last year.

The show, as usual, will be managed by the Horse and Hound Association, a non-profit corporation organized to promote the popularity of horses and sporting dogs, to promote horsemanship and sportsmanship in juvenile equestrians and arrange exhibitions where they may compete. The proceeds of the entire show will be donated to the Ladies' Auxiliary.

HIGHER W.P.A. WAGES

Congressman D. Lane Powers recently urged W.P.A. headquarters in Washington to insist that "prevailing rate of wage" be paid unskilled laborers on W.P.A. projects in Mercer and Burlington counties. Powers' request was supported by a protest from Powell Johnson, secretary of the Associated Unemployed and W.P.A. Workers Unions of Mercer County. Should W.P.A. officials act favorably on the request W.P.A. laborers in the two counties will receive 62½ cents an hour, instead of the 50 cents now being paid.

The Congressman sent his demand to Colonel F. C. Harrington, new W.P.A. Administrator. In his request Powers asserted that W.P.A. workers in North Jersey were receiving the prevailing rate of wage and declared the workers in the Mercer-Burlington district should receive the prevailing rate of wage.

The prevailing rate, at 62½ cents an hour, was set by the Master Builders, a Trenton Union organization.

TRACK SEASON OPENS NEXT WEEK

Twelve Meets on Schedule of Local High School Team; Haddonfield Here

According to an announcement made this week by Coach Melvin H. Kreps, 12 meets have been slated for the Palmyra High School track team during the season that will open on Wednesday of next week in a dual meet with Haddonfield. The affair will be held on the local field and is the first track event scheduled here for several years.

Small Squad
While not unduly optimistic over the prospects of his charges, the local mentor feels that his small nucleus of veterans will make a splendid showing, especially in competition where several schedules are entered. The lack of men to pick up points with seconds and thirds may prove to be a determining factor in dual meets.

At present the squad is composed of the following, in addition to a number of recruits who are expected to show considerable progress as the season goes on.

Distance
Mile—Kerns, Huyett, Willis.
Half Mile—Brown, Fox, Lezenby and Miller.

Quarter Mile—Seemuller and Marshall.
Dashes—Seemuller, Flournoy, Ransome and Conwell.
Jumps—Ott, Marker and Fox.

Weights—Mento, Philie and Chapelle.
Pole Vault—A group of promising underclassmen are working out for this event.

KOVERLY BATTLES ERNIE DUSEK

George Koverly, from the Golden Slopes of California, whose fans were upset promiscuously in two bouts of last week's wrestling show in the Camden Armory, will again be on display Thursday night in the drilled when he backs up against Ernie Dusek, Nebraska's wildcat, in the feature bout of two out of three falls with a 90 minute time limit.

Still another Dusek will show his wares on the same program and he's none other than Rudy, oldest of the Omaha clan. Rudy is stacked up against the fast stepping Len Mazaluso of Colgate, in a match booked for one fall with a half hour time limit.

Rebel Red Russell, rough riding cowboy will be Abe Coleman's foe in the third half hour encounter, while Nick Campofreda, former Western Maryland University student will tackle Ed Strangler White of Alabama, in the second tiff of 30 minutes. The sensational Bob Managoff who a few weeks ago took the fans over by his clever and fast wrestling returns to the drilled with Ed Newman of Chicago, in still another 30 minute scrap.

BASEBALL TEAM WORKING HARD

Daily practice sessions are in order for the members of the 1939 Palmyra High baseball squad and the team is being rapidly whipped into shape by Coach C. Kenneth Dimond, assisted by Arthur Terrill.

In addition to being drilled in various fundamentals, the 40 candidates for this year's varsity have already played a number of practice games with the roster being constantly shuffled in order to give every one an opportunity of showing his wares.

New Material
According to Coach Dimond several new men are showing considerable promise. These include Leonard, a freshman southpaw hurler; Morton, at first base; James, an outfielder and Lelejo, at third.

The local mentor plans to go through the season with two catchers, a five man hurling corps, and a couple of extra infielders and outfielders, about two full teams in all. At the rate things are going, the squad should be in fine shape for the first engagement which comes next month.

GOOD NEWS FOR N. J. FISHERMAN

The State Board of Fish and Game Commissioners has just obtained 12,500,000 flounder fry from the Federal Fish Hatchery at Woods Hole, Massachusetts, it was announced today.

The fish were transported by tank truck to the George Washington Bridge in Bergen County; transferred to the Hackettstown Fish Hatchery trucks and liberated in the Shrewsbury, Shark, Manasquan and Metedeconk Rivers and the tributaries of Barnegat Bay.

The commission announced today that flounder fishing in these waters has shown good results since the first liberation of these fish during the fiscal year 1935-36.

ALL STARS TRIM LEAGUE CHAMPS

Five & Ten Bows 35-26 in Last Tilt of the Season Junior Varsity Wins

The Palmyra High School All Stars, composed of Messrs. Baker, Rothbaum, Rivers, Gamble, Sutters and McDermott proved to be too much for the 5 & 10, champs of the Interborough Court League, on Monday night of this week, the scholastics romping off with a 35-26 verdict.

The first half of the fray was played under intercollegiate rules, while the last semester was governed by eastern league regulations.

Lead All the Way
The All Stars took an early lead and were never headed, being out in front 7-3 at the quarter and 19-9 at the half. The supporters of the merchants believed that the switch in rules at this juncture would benefit their team no end, but the Stars adapted themselves to the new style of play in a most commendable manner.

They continued to bolster their advantage and, at one time, were out in front by 14 markers.

Easley Gets Three
This bulge was reduced considerably as Jack Easley, 5 & 10 guard, swung into vigorous action and rang the bell for three doubletons in quick succession. The time was too short, however, for the rally to do much good.

Easley led both teams on the offense, the ex-Temple star getting five field goals and performing 100 per cent from the free throw mark, on three occasions for a grand total of 13.

Rivers paced the All Stars with five tallies from the floor, while Gamble and McDermott had nine and eight respectively.

Faculty Bows
The high school faculty quintet took it on the chin from the Junior Varsity, the reserves cavorting to a 22-14 decision. The professors started off nicely and were out in front 6-5 at the end of the first quarter.

The J. V. five went out in front soon after and were in the van by three tallies as the half ended. The eventual winners continued to draw away in the third frame and their lead was never in danger.

Callahan and Gering each got three field goals to pace their team, while Henson racked up five from the floor to set the pace for the reserves.

The Value Of A Treaty

International treaties can be a tremendous factor in preserving peace among nations, providing, however, that the signatory powers are sincere in their determination to abide by the provisions or, in the case of violations, there is some method to enforce the regulations.

The Treaty of Versailles, consummated at the end of the World War, was designed to make this planet "safe for Democracy" and to prevent future wars. A study of this interesting document shows that the men who drew up the treaty had wide vision and, on paper, a European war should be impossible. But, within the short space of 20 years, another conflict appears imminent.

Can this situation be attributed to the treaty itself? Not at all! The reason for the present unrest is solely due to Hitler's lust for territory, a complete disregard, by Germany, for the Pact of Versailles, and the lack of a "big stick" to enforce the peace pact.

The treaty makers were wise, they knew of German military ambitions in the past and they determined that the Teutons would have no opportunity to make war for many, many years. They decreed that Germany could not fortify the Rhineland, should have no navy of any size, could have only a small army and no military air force at all.

If these provisions had been strictly enforced do you imagine Hitler would dominate Europe as he does today? And, by the same token, do you believe that the German people would have been any worse off if they had been enforced?

In addition to the limitation of German armament, the treaty created certain buffer states in Europe as a further safeguard of peace. Most of these have been destroyed by Hitler, either through acquisition by force or by disintegration from within, the internal crumbling having been carefully planned by Herr Adolf.

Hitler's entire campaign has been based on propaganda. He has created an unrest among the German people by making them desire things that they did not want at all. His vassals "agree" because the contrary means a concentration camp or even death. How many of us would dare to do otherwise? The cost of the German war machine has burdened the people with taxes, but they dare not complain.

What is the purpose of the Hitler plan? Can any one imagine it is to protect the Reich from aggression? Yet this is the sort of stuff that Hitler pours into the ears of the German people in order to further his personal plan to create a Nazi Central Europe.

The time to have stopped Hitler easily and effectively was when he made his first move in violation of the Versailles treaty. But this time has long since passed and the German menace to the peace of the world now looms ominously over the horizon.

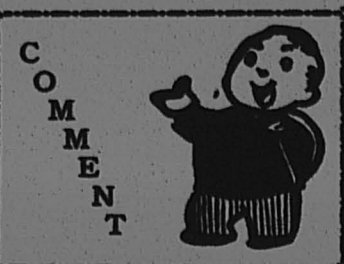

The big league baseball teams are now in training down south for the 1939 pennant race and it won't be long until the Presidential candidates will be in training for the 1940 campaign. In fact, there are signs that some of the boys are doing some preliminary warming up already.

Maybe the Horse and Buggy Days weren't so good for a poor man but we are old enough to remember when we could go into a restaurant and get a crock of beans and a bottle of catsup for a nickel.

Rev. John Haynes Holmes says the democratic nations are gaining and that the dictatorial nations are showing signs of cracking up. Czecho-Slovakian papers please copy.

Whenever the king and queen broadcast over in Canada they will have gold plated microphones. Better not bring 'em to the United States or the gold might be confiscated.

The thrifty man who now sees his income go out mostly in taxes is paying the penalty for taking too seriously, when he was a boy, the copy book maxim that a penny saved is a penny earned.

Most of the major railroads in New Jersey have been contesting their state taxes for the past six or seven years on the ground that the assessments on their properties are greatly in excess of their value. Pending the outcome of the litigation instituted by the railroad companies to contest the validity of the valuations, the companies have paid on account of the taxes imposed for the years in question approximately forty-six million dollars, a large part of which they were compelled to borrow because their net earnings from the properties were not sufficient to meet these payments.

The railroad companies recently suggested to a committee of the Legislature that for the purpose of settling the litigation they would endeavor to raise and pay an additional $12,206,375, so as to bring their payments up to 73 1/2% of the taxes levied, and the question has been raised as to whether such a settlement would be regarded by the public as a subsidy from the state to the railroad companies in the form of preferential taxes. To enable the public to form its own conclusions as to the fairness and justice of the proposal submitted by the railroad companies, attention is directed to the following facts.

Since 1926 the railroads operated in New Jersey have suffered a loss of traffic and revenue of 50 to 60%. This loss of business has seriously affected the value of the railroad properties, but such shrinkage in value has not been reflected in the valuations assessed, while the tax rates applicable to railroad property have steadily increased.

As a result of these conditions the taxes assessed against the railroad companies equal more than 20% of their gross earnings in this state. As the business of a railroad company is only that of selling a service to the public, the taxes levied are the equivalent of a sales tax on freight and passenger gross revenues in excess of 20%, which, however, cannot be passed on to the purchaser in the form of increased rates for transportation.

After the payment of wages and salaries and the cost of fuel and other supplies and expenses of running the railroad, these lines in New Jersey have not had a sufficient balance from their earnings to pay the heavy taxes imposed. In terms of an income tax the New Jersey railroad taxes have averaged for the past seven years more than 100% of the available income, without setting aside a single dollar for interest, dividends or other fixed charges.

Lester A. Drenk, of Riverside, has been appointed associate council for Burlington county in all suits brought by exempt firemen.

MODERN EDUCATION

A young agriculturist, just graduated from college, looked rather scornfully at the old farmer. "Your methods of cultivation are hopelessly out of date," he said with a superior air. "Why, I'd be surprised if you got ten pounds of apples from that tree." "So would I," replied the farmer. "It's a pear tree."—Belleville, Kan., Telescope.

What Is A Realtor?

The question "What is a Realtor?" has been asked so many times by so many people that we offer below the correct definition.

The term "Realtor" was coined to designate members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and its constituent Boards. The exclusive right to the use of this term has been upheld by a score of court decisions.

The term designates those persons in the real estate business who have available to them, the accumulated knowledge of thirty years of experimentation and research in real estate business methods and standards. Realtors are those who, in the judgment of their peers in their business, are persons with personal standards and business competence of sufficient merit to warrant entrusting them with the important fiduciary relationships involved in real estate transactions.

They have voluntarily pledged themselves to a code of ethics governing their business conduct, their relations with each other, and their relations with the public. In 1913 the National Association drafted and adopted a Realtors' code of ethics. In 1916 the association was given by one of its members a coined word to describe members of the association. This word is "Realtor." It is registered, with the emblem of the association, under the trademark laws of more than a score of states.

Organized 1908

The National Association of Real Estate Boards was organized in Chicago, Illinois, in the year 1908, then composed of twenty real estate boards and one state real estate association, with a membership of 120 men. At that time there were forty-five real estate boards in the United States. Today there are approximately four hundred and fifty real estate boards with a total of fourteen thousand realtors in the United States and Canada and growing yearly.

The purpose of the organization was and is primarily to accomplish what the individual could not accomplish for himself. In its 29 years of history the National Association has constantly kept in mind the objectives originally set up. These are: (1) Unity in the real estate business, as such. (2) Compilation of basic information. (3) Establishment of standards of practice.

In 1917 the first Real Estate License Law was adopted by the state of California. Since that time Realtors have obtained the enactment of Real Estate License Laws in 31 states, the District of Columbia, Territory of Hawaii, and four Canadian Provinces.

Code of Ethics

Dwelling for a moment on the code of ethics—it might be well for the public to know the preamble to the code. Briefly it explains why "Realtors" are of such high standards. It follows—

"Under all is the land. Upon its wise utilization and widely allocated ownership depend the survival and growth of free institutions and of our civilization. The Realtor is the instrumentality through which the land resources of the nation reaches its highest use and through which land ownership attains its widest distribution. He is a creator of homes, a builder of cities, a developer of industries and productive farms. Such functions impose obligations beyond those of ordinary commerce, they impose grave social responsibility and a patriotic duty to which the Realtor should dedicate himself and for which he should be diligent in preparing himself. The Realtor, therefore, is zealous to maintain and improve the standards of his calling and shares with his fellow Realtors a common responsibility for its integrity and honor. In the interpretation of his obligations he can take no safer guide than that which has been handed down through twenty centuries, embodied in the Golden Rule. "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye also unto them." Accepting this standard as his own, every Realtor pledges himself to observe its spirit in all his dealings and to conduct his business in accordance with the code of ethics adopted by the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

The members of the Burlington County Real Estate Board hope this article has made clear to everyone just what a "Realtor" is.

OBITUARIES

EMMA FRANCES BISHOP

Miss Emma Frances Bishop, who had been a resident of Riverton for thirty-three years, died at her home, 410 Thomas avenue, Riverton, on Thursday, March 23.
Funeral services were held on Monday at 2 p.m. from the Snover Funeral Home, the Rev. James Randall, of Beverly, officiating, owing to the illness of the Rev. Charles T. Bates, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church, of which Miss Bishop was a member.
Interment was made in Monument Cemetery, Beverly.
The deceased is survived by her sister, Clara L. Bishop, with whom she made her home.

SARAH A. MORRIS

Mrs. Sarah A. Morris, of 207 Elm avenue, died on Tuesday, March 28. She was the widow of the late David C. Morris.
Funeral services will be held on Friday at 2 p.m. from the Snover Funeral Home, Rev. William A. Boyd officiating.
Interment will be in Mt. Vernon Cemetery, Philadelphia.
Friends may call this (Thursday) evening.
The deceased is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Laura Rieger of Riverton; a sister, Miss Laura Williams, of Hampton, N. J.; and a brother W. Bradford Williams, of Washington, D. C.

EDWIN W. SCHMIERER

Edwin W. Schmierer, of Salem Road, Beverly, died on Sunday, March 26.
Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Snover Funeral Home, Rev. J. H. Randall officiating. Interment was made in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Burlington.
The deceased is survived by his wife, Eleanor, and two sons and a daughter, also his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schmierer and a brother, Arnold.
Mr. Schmierer served in the World War and was also a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge at Beverly.

YOUR GARDEN

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK
By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College of Agriculture

If herbaceous plants in the perennial border have not been divided for several years, add this chore to your early spring gardening schedule, for many perennials are strong growers and benefit from division annually, or at least once every three years. This is especially true of perennial asters and phlox, chrysanthemums, coreopsis, gaillardias and other flowers which bloom from late June until the end of the season.

By dividing plants early, they have time to establish themselves so that they can make good growth and bloom well in summer and autumn. Plants which bloom before the first part of June generally do better when divided in summer or early fall. Then they become established before winter. July and August are a good period to divide such plants as irises and pyrethrus.

When clumps become too large and thick, they hinder their own development. This applies particularly to fall-blooming chrysanthemums, which should be split up every spring into single shoots. In addition to benefitting plants, division of the roots is one of the easiest means of propagating nearly all herbaceous perennials.

The first early-blooming gladioli may be planted in the open ground now. Seeds of hardy annuals—poppies, larkspurs and calendulas, for instance—as well as seeds of hardy perennials may be sown in the garden outdoors now. It is much better to get these in the ground now than to wait until the soil and air become warm, probably because the moisture conditions are more

ARTISANS

The Palmyra Assembly No. 65 of the A.O.M.P. held a meeting on Tuesday evening, March 21, in the P. O. S. of A. Hall with a large attendance.

Master Artisan Lindsey Little welcomed a large delegation from Camden Assembly headed by Brother Vissel, Camden's recorder. Camden Assembly came to Palmyra to honor Brother Bob Schiener, Camden's Master Artisan and Palmyra's new deputy.

A delegation from Dorian Assembly, of Philadelphia, also visited the Assembly, led by Past Most Excellent Master Artisan Jack Riley and Brother Bud Cline, recorder.

We were given a talk on who had a right to go to the World's Fair in New York City during the month of July at the expense of the Most Excellent Master Artisan Noel Griver. It was stated that any member signing four new members would be in the honor class. Recorder Becker stated that three junior members had been signed during January and February of this year and that we were expecting a large class of senior members to be admitted in April or May.

A vaudeville show followed the business session.
Monday, March 27, twenty-five members of Palmyra Assembly visited Dorian Assembly.—Publicity.

Health Question: Is the bite of a "banana spider" always fatal?

Doc Says:

Tarantula spiders are occasionally found in bunches of bananas and the American people eat about 60 million bunches of bananas a year.

The famed and feared tarantula spider is found only rarely, however, in bunches of bananas which are brought into this country and sold. The spider is probably rendered inactive from the effect of refrigeration when the bananas are transported. It may, of course, become favorable and the seeds have a chance to germinate before May and June when the surface soil becomes dry.

Coldframes are valuable in the garden, and they need daily care. Do not forget to lift the glass and air the plants every good day. If this cannot be done, it is better to wait until warmer weather and sow seeds in the open ground.

FAILURE TO GIVE RIGHT OF WAY

Drivers who refuse to yield the right of way to cars making left turns are sharply criticized by the Keystone Automobile Club of New Jersey, which in a bulletin issued recently lays responsibility for many accidents on this lack of consideration.

Trevor B. Mathews, manager of the Camden division of the club, said today the Club's investigation shows that numerous accidents are caused directly by the failure, or refusal, of drivers to show common courtesy to fellow operators at street and road intersections.

"It is not pleasant to reflect that a considerable number of motorists think only of their own convenience," he said. "Even at the risk of personal injury they will not yield a few seconds to the driver who has signaled his intention to make a left turn and is in the proper position to complete the turning movement."

"This is especially noticeable when cars are stopped at traffic signals. The man with his arm extended active if the bananas are eventually placed in a warm room. Fruit handlers have been bitten by 'banana spiders' but their bite, though poisonous, is seldom fatal.

This feature is prepared by the Burlington County Medical Society and the Medical Society of New Jersey.

A number of Palmyra streets have been improved of late by the application of cinders in the numerous holes that developed during the winter.

The Palmyra sewer extension on Broad street has reached a point about half way between Legion and Market.

The Palmyra Fire Department was called out for a grass fire on Saturday afternoon, a large vacant lot off Delaware avenue being burned over. There was no damage.

Due to the fact that April comes on Saturday of this week, The New Era feature for this year would be somewhat premature and has, therefore, been regrettably omitted.

Although the deadline for 1938 auto license plates does not come until midnight on Friday, the majority of local car owners have already affixed their 1939 tags. Those who waited until the last minute to procure the plates report a long delay at the various agencies as hundreds stood in line.

A carload of tractors for C. H. Haines & Son was unloaded at the Thomas avenue siding during the early part of the week.

ANNUAL FRIENDS SUPPER
The annual Friends Philanthropic chicken salad supper and fair will be held at the Community House, Crosswicks, on Thursday, April 6th, 1939. Supper will be served at 5 o'clock.

The fair opens at 4 o'clock and the usual variety of domestic and fancy work will be on sale in addition to home made cakes, candies and delicatessen.

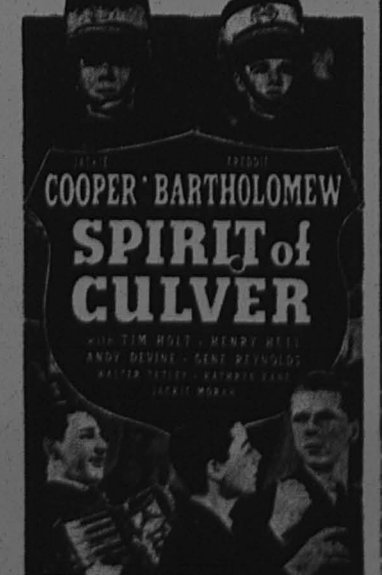

The affair is for the benefit of Orthopedic, McKinley Hospitals, and Florence Crittenden Home, Trenton; Burlington County Hospital, Welfare Work, Tuberculosis League, and Children's Home, Mt. Holly.

SENIORS PLAN ANNUAL TRIP

Plans for the annual senior excursion to the nation's capital are now under way at P.H.S. The dates have been definitely set for May 8, 9, and 10, and, while visiting Washington, the members of the class will live at the New Colonial hotel.

Because an exceptionally large number of seniors are going on the trip, it was thought advisable to have six chaperones. Those chosen are: Charles W. Ray, class adviser; Elizabeth C. McDonnell, the trip business manager; Arthur Terrell, Beatrice Mattison, Laura K. Devore, and Porte A. Wolfe.

TO PROTECT STRIPED BASS

The Burlington County Game Protective League, at its March meeting on Thursday night in Mount Holly, went on record as favoring passage of Assembly Bill 330, designed to protect striped bass by making them game fish.

The League's action followed a lengthy discussion of the protection question participated in by a good part of the one hundred members who attended the meeting. The matter was called to the members' attention by President E. Budd Marter, who said he felt that the League should consider the question thoroughly and discuss its various angles before deciding just what action should be taken.

After the discussion, the following resolution was unanimously approved: "Resolved, by the Burlington County Fish and Game Protective League that it go on record favoring the passage by the New Jersey Legislature of Assembly Bill No. 330 as good sound legislation for the protection of striped bass, which fish in fresh water is known as rock fish; and be it further

"Resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Senator Clifford R. Powell, Assemblymen S. Emlen Stokes, New Jersey Fish and Game Commissioners and the New Jersey Surf Anglers' League, and their support of this bill be earnestly and respectfully solicited."

NEW W.P.A. PROJECT

A W.P.A. project to cost $12,495 and employ eight or nine persons in the Burlington county surrogate's office was approved by the Board of Freeholders last Friday.

The project calls for repairing and restoring all valuable records in the office now held by Surrogate George B. Bittling. The county's share will be about $250. Records between 1759 and 1916 will be restored.

The project is due to last about nine months. The surrogate said the present W.P.A. indexing project was almost complete.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
"Unreality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 2. The Golden Text is: "Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches: feed me with food convenient for me." (Proverbs 30:8).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (Psalms 27:1).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine demand, 'Be ye therefore perfect,' is scientific, and the human

Services for Palm Sunday

Bible School, 10:00 a.m. The school enjoyed a treat last Sunday when they had the pleasure of hearing Miss Marian Beh, of China, as she vividly portrayed the life in war-torn China and brought a challenge to every good American Christian to appreciate more fully their country and its blessings. The school was exceptionally well attended, exceeding last year's figures.

Morning worship, 11:15 a.m. The pastor's subject will be "Jesus, the Conquering King." The sermon will be followed by Communion to which every Christian is invited. The choir, under the direction of their leader, Claude Barto, will render "Palm Branches" by Faure and "Ride on in Majesty" by Creswell. Mrs. Elvin I. Powell will be at the console.

B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p.m. For young people of high school age. Every one is invited to these meetings, which are held in the Sunday School room.

Evening worship, 7:45 p.m. "The Baptism of Jesus" will be the theme of the evening. Following the sermon, the Ordinance of Baptism will be conferred upon several candidates.

dates. "Ride On! Ride On!" by Scott will be the choir's contribution to the evening's praise service. In place of the regular midweek prayer meeting, a church service will be held in the church at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening. Another important event on the church calendar is the rendition of Du Bois' sacred cantata, "Seven Last Words" by the choir on Good Friday evening.

You are invited to any or all of these services, which will be held during Holy Week.

PROTEST AGAINST SALES TAX GROWS

Storm signals were flying this week indicating growing state-wide consumer protest against passage by the Legislature of new taxes which will increase the cost of living in New Jersey.

Charging an effort was being made to revive "some form of the obnoxious sales tax overwhelmingly repudiated by the people in 1935" the Retail Merchants Association of New Jersey renewed its campaign against the $36,000,000 retail sales tax recommended by the State Tax Revision Commission and also protested against Senator Charles E. Loizeaux' plan to raise $18,000,000 in new taxes.

"Both of these next tax plans are in violation of campaign pledges made by both major parties that no new taxes would be levied during

Cannot Absorb Levies

"Either tax will have to be paid by the people of the state for retailers cannot absorb these levies and stay in business" continued Greenberger. "This means that New Jersey wage earners are facing the loss of from four days pay to more than a week's salary annually if either plan is adopted."

"Mass-meetings of protest against new taxes are being held throughout the state. These are indications that New Jersey consumers will not stand by and permit the cost of living to rise many millions of dollars during the next year."

"New Jersey citizens have demonstrated time and again they will not stand for new taxes. Retailers who are fighting to protect their own businesses and the interests of their customers urge that both parties adhere to their platform pledges and solve the state's fiscal problems through use of present income."

"This state's million dollar a day tax bill is high enough. No need exists in New Jersey for new taxes at this time."

TEMPLE GRADUATES MEET

Joe Brown, who bears the unique distinction of coaching boxing and teaching sculpture at Princeton University after several years of experience in those subjects at Temple University, will be the principal speaker tonight at a meeting of the Burlington-Mercer Counties Club of Temple University, to be held at the Hotel Hildebrecht in Trenton.

Brown, who was a member of Temple's boxing team, and a graduate of the university's physical education department, '31, studied sculpture under the late Dr. H. Taite McKenzie, noted sculptor, and operates studios both in Philadelphia and in Princeton. While at Temple he was captain of the boxing team.

More than 100 Temple University graduates resident in Burlington and Mercer counties are expected to attend the dinner.

His desire was nipped in the bud. —Punch.
