SEVERAL ARRESTS IN CINNAMINSON

Motorists Arraigned for Careless Driving Following Crashes; No One Injured

Careless driving on the part of several motorists that resulted in a number of accidents in Cinnaminson Township during the past week, resulted in the arrest of the offenders by Chief George Dorworth and arraignment before Recorder Cecil Bowers, who meted out the judgments.

The first occurred late last week, at the intersection of the Moorestown-Riverton road, when a truck driven by Walter E. Scott, Emlen avenue, Lawnside, and owned by the Wiley Mission Farms, ran into the rear of a machine owned and operated by Annie Gillespy, 218 South avenue, Bridgeport, Conn. Both machines were going west on the highway at the time of the crash.

Scott, arrested by Chief Dorworth on the charge of careless driving paid a fine and costs. No one was injured, but the property damage injured, but the property damage was considerable.

Another Friday

The second accident occurred on Friday at 8.30 p.m. on Route 25, near Highland avenue. Nathan Boston, of Parry, driving a truck, in attempting to make a left turn into Paul's Market, ran into an auto operated by Robert Murphy, of Quantico, Va., overturning the car of the

There were no injuries, but both drivers were arraigned before the recorder by police and Boston was found to be guilty of careless driving. He paid a fine and costs.

Two Doctors

The third affair happened on Sunday on Route 25, at Five Points. Dr. M. S. Pender, Everglades, Fla., ran into the rear of a car operated by Dr. S. W. Collin, Main street, Toms River, formerly of Riverton.

Both machines were going west and Collins attempted to make a left turn when the crash occurred.

Both drivers were charged with careless driving by Chief Dorworth and both found guilty. They paid the penalty in a fine and costs.

The machines were extensively damaged, but here again, there were no casualties. The third affair happened on Sun-

We Can Keep Out

As every one knows, war has come to Europe. The situation exists and the United States could do nothing to prevent it.

Now this country is faced with the problem of keeping out of the fight, but this should not be impossible if the citizens of this country are firmly united in the opinion that, come what may in the nature of pressure from within and without-as such pressure will SURELY come-we will refrain from becoming in-

Our President has said, "I hope the United States will keep out of war. I believe that it will and I give you assurances that every effort of your government will be directed toward that end."

Other leaders of this country have expressed themselves in

It would appear that we should silence the scoffers who point out that similar ideas were advanced when the great war of 1914 started, but that thoughts of peace were gradually undermined as the conflict wore on.

The fact that we entered the former struggle should be all the MORE reason why we MUST keep out of this one.

The United States helped to win the last World War by vast contributions of men, material and money-"To make the world safe for democracy." A noble experiment, but a futile one. The results of this can still be found in our Veterans' Hospitals.

Europe's problems are age-old and, apparently, cannot be settled without resorting to war. The conflict of 1914-1918, a war to end war, failed signally to achieve its intended purpose.

The United States, since that time, has firmly resolved a "hands-off" policy in respect to European policies and affairs. Let us continue this policy until the end.

As Herbert Hoover said recently, "We MUST keep out." It is difficult to see how a nation that is united in this thought can fail to accomplish its purpose.

Mrs. Britt, who was driving, to-gether with her husband, were rush-ed to the Zurbrugg Memorial Hos-pital, Riverside, in the Palmyra po-lice car. Mrs. Britt was found to be suffering from a broken arm and bruises, while her husband sustained contusions of the body. Mrs. Brian was uninjured.

She was arrested on the charge of careless driving and will be given a hearing on Friday evening of this week before Recorder Mayor John F. Ward.

Captain Joseph Rodgers and Offi-cer Lawrence Betty, of the Palmyra police, investigated the affair.

According to an announcement made this week, the Cinnaminson Public Schools will open on Mon-day, September 18, instead of Sep-tember 11, as originally scheduled.

The postponement was ordered by the Board of Health.

MAGEE URGES GREATER CARE

With school days in the offing, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee today warned of in-creased responsibilities for automobile drivers.

He said that the presence of hundreds of thousands of children on the streets, particularly during the morning hours that coincide with the heaviest volume of traffic, im-the heaviest volume of traffic, imposes upon drivers the duty of exercising extra care to avoid accidents. "Drivers of school buses should, of course, exercise the greatest care," said Commissioner Magee, "although the drivers of these vehicles have set a high standard of safe driving in the past, "Motorists can contribute vastly to this form of transportation, used by so many of our school children today, by being meticulously watchful in overtaking moving buses or passing buses which are loading or unloading their

The corpse which was recovered by officers in that community under the direction of Captain Joseph Rodgers was that of a well-dressed woman, about 28-30 years of age, weight 120 pounds and 5 feet 4 inches in height.

Coroner John Swartz, of Palmyra, who was called to the scene stated that the body had been in the water

RIVERTON SCHOOL OPENING DELAYED

Acting on the advice of the school medical adviser, Dr. T. Bruce Dick-son, the Riverton Board of Educason, the Riverton Board of Education, at a meeting held on Tuesday night of this week, voted unanimously to defer the opening of the school for one week until Monday, September 18, or longer if conditions necessitate, due to the prevalence of infantile paralysis in certain sections of South Jersey.

This follows a similar action in Cinnaminson Township. There have been no cases of the disease in either community, and the postponements are merely of a precautionary measure.

measure.

Dr. Dickson stated that one new case had been diagnosed in Moorestown this week and that the Moorestown Board of Education had deferred opening for two weeks from the date of the last outbreak.

BOTH GAMES TO PALMYRA TEAM

Riverton A. A. Loses Local Title in Double Setback on Labor Day

Palmyra clinched the local base-ball championship for the current season on Labor Day, at Memorial Park, when the charges of Manager Jim Rapp took a pair of games from Riverton A. A. Both outfits pre-viously had one decision. Thus, the fifth game of the series becomes a null and void.

Palmyra had a hard battle in the afternoon fracas, winning a 3-2 verdict only after 10 innings of endeavor. The morning affair was annexed by a 9-4 count in more or less of a breeze. Large crowds were present at both tilts.

Mound Duel

The final fracas of the season at the local park was a pitcher's battle between Baker, of Riverton, and Altadonna, of Palmyra. The former allowed seven hits, two coming in the 10th. He passed six and fanned sight Altadonna, on the other hand, was exceedingly frugal in the matter of bingles, giving only three. He was, however, somewhat generous in handing out free tickets, dishing up nine Oakleys. He also tagged Sutters to put another runner on.

The Rappmen got to Baker in the The Rappmen got to Baker in the third, rapping out three hits for a pair of markers. Altadonna started the rally by a brisk single. This was followed by a walk to Henson, the first Harper's three hits and Ed Humes' resounding double.

Meek Until Tenth

From then until the fatal tenth, Palmyra caused little trouble, although they had runners on first and third in the eighth. The final frame opened with Harper grounding out, Penrose to Rothbaum. The everdangerous Humes varnished a single to left and took second when the

MEETS OLD FRIENDS

Thirty years ago, four young men from England came to Riverton to learn the nursery business at Dreer's. They were of the Bourgaine family—Wilfred, Wallace, Hugh and George. They remained at Dreer's for several years, during which time they lived at the home of Charles Crouts, who kept a boarding house at 414 Main street. After several years they left Dreer's three of them becoming ministers and one a broker. Of the ministers, Hugh is located at Neptune, N. J., George has a charge in the west, and Wilfred is a missionary in Africa. Wallace, the broker, is located in Philadelphia.

BOTH GAMES TO

The big moment for Riverton came in the ninth, when the final chance to put the game away resulted in crowded sachs, but no score.

Baker drove Kemmerle to the stands in left for his long drive, but McDermott strolled. On a hit and run play, Brewster rifled one past Heisler at short, McDermott taking third. Karitis was purposely passed to cram the sacks, but McDermott was forced at the plate on Cole's roller to Heisler.

Sutter ended the sortie for forcing Cole at second and the opportunity was over.

Think This Over

Below are some facts to be studied by the man who is foolish enough to believe what the "demagogue tells" tell him about ting the rich pay taxes to take care of the poor.

Henry M. Champion, spokesman of the Budgetary Emergency nmittee in New York, said at Albany the other day that "labor should be the strongest force in the country for reduced Taxes paid by New York people to State and local governents would, he declared, make up the payroll of a million work ers. These taxes he added, have reached three and a half million dollars a day and come out of the pockets of those who are gain-tally employed in the factory or business or on the farm. If the federal taxes paid by citizens of the Empire State were added the State and local taxes, he said, the sum would take care of he payroll of two million workers, and with taxes now as much as half the amount which labor receives in industry, the result naturally is to discourage industry, retard business and throw thousands of people out of employment.

Speaking of the laboring man Mr. Champion declared:

"Every one has been hit by taxes but no one group more seri-

Ar asly than the worker who pays invisible taxes every time he pays nt, buys food, clothes and other necessities for himself and illy. The average family in New York has a tax bill of more than a dollar a day, or nearly $400 a year, which is equivalent to one-third of the average worker's income.

"A reduction in this heavy tax bill would mean that much ore left in the hands of the worker, the farmer, the housewife the consumer, business and industry to stimulate opportunities for better wages and more real jobs."

What is true in New York is true in every other state in the Jnion. The worker or small property owner who thinks that he E's escaping taxes because he pays little or no national or state and spendome taxes is thinking through the top of his hat. He pays in many ways and there is no escape except economy in governmen hand lower taxes.

Congressman Patrick J. Boland, majority whip of the naonal House of Representatives, says he is contemplating the dis-issal of seven of the sixteen assistant whips in the House beiveause they were disloyal to the President's policies in the last fartession of Congress. But sometimes these purges don't turn out ston well as expected.

Judging from all reports neither the World Fair in New York r the World Fair in San Francisco is making any money. On he contrary both are running at a loss. Hard to explain that in hese "good Roosevelt times"—these "happy days again."—Rockle. Ind., Republican Senator Josh Lee says that now is the time to unleash the s of democracy and set them baying at Wall Street. That's right. They have been baying at the taxpayers long enough.

the aroused hatred of man from destroying mankind.

It is not the hatred of today; the hot indignation at slights of the present can be forgotten, it is the racial hatreds which have been bred in the bone and nurtured at the mother's breast which are back of all this conflict—the fears which have lasted for generations, and the hateful oppressions which are remembered against the ancestors of present enemies. It is the sort of thing which no American has been raised in fear. Why should we fear and hate? we have not suffered from others. But as we cannot understand it, so we cannot render judgment.

No Excuses

We speak glibly of the guilt of rapacious dictators, of the horrors of Nazism, and of the tenets of totalitarian states as causes of this present difficulty. They are not! Please, I am not making excuses for the Simplify things — by putting a modern automatic gas water heater in your home. Then hot water will always be ready when you want it. This hot water is cheap. For instance, a family in Verona, Essex County, pays about $2.97 per month for Automatic Hot Water Service by Gas, based on a comparison of gas bills before and after installing an automatic gas water heater. Ask Public Service or your plumber for a cost estimate based on your hot water usage.

coaves and two small fishes, the hungry multitude was fed with much still remaining; then came the wise command, "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost."

This is a timely message for today! The needless waste of opportunities; the vast waste of money in self-indulgence especially in liquor, makes challenging the words of lesus.

What to do with extra time and mused ability is the serious question low. It is said nature wastes nothing. All things are related and put o use in many forms.

Extra time and resources, when memployed, are the fatal moments in one's life, hence, gather up these ragments, relate them to some practical purpose, thereby greatly easing the burden of others.

Such an admonition of Christ hould influence our appropriation of ur opportunities, such as meeting ith others in Christian fellowship, fow much better to say at the close Sunday, "One more day's work or Jesus," than to be conscious of a asted opportunity.

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

Return County Government to the People This is your chance to kill Bossism!

To the Voters:

On Tuesday, September 19, Republican voters will go to the polls to select their Party Ticket for the General Election. Two slates have been presented for their consideration and preference. One of them is a hand-picked ticket; the other is the Regular Republican group, composed of outstanding men who wear no boss's collar and are opposed to boss rule. They are independent in all that the term implies. No Hague Republicanism for them. Tried and true in their party loyalty, they take no orders except from the sovereign people.

The Regular Republican ticket is the first step toward rescuing the party from the yoke of selfish bossism. The nomination of these candidates will mean certain election and return of public affairs to the hands of ALL the people. They have no private interests to serve. They are fighting your fight. They have no part in the unholy alliance with Frank Hague.

For General Assembly . . . THOMAS D. BEGLEY

Mr. James H. Ingram, announced that plans for Promotion and Rally Day are being made for Sunday, September 24th. He also said that two classes for catechetical instructions will begin after October 1st and will be taught by the pastor.

On Sunday at the chief service, 11.00 a.m., the pastor, the Rev. Oliver W. Powers, will preach on the subject "The Development and Source of Fruit Bearing." The choir, under the direction of Mr. Lee Mitton, will sing.

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH
Rev. W. A. Boyd, Pastor

The Rev. William A. Boyd has returned from his vacation and will occupy the pulpit at both morning and evening services.

The choir will be in their places ready to start the season.

A prehistoric trade route had been traced by geographers, running across Europe from Denmark to services and one of the Board of Freeholders and one of the bacterior that highly important body. His candidacy for County Clerk has been received with enthus-lasm throughout the county.

Mr. Stout did not enter the Clerkship race until he had been urged to do so by many of his friends, of all elements in the Republican party.

For many years he served his party unselfishly as County Chairman and has labored for the advancement of the party in whose principles he believes. His loyality has never been assailed. When candidates other than those whom he had favored, were named, he consistently supported them at the general elections, who will vote for and support him they year, regardless of the combine's efforts to defeat him.

No man possesses a more intimate knowledge of all departments of the county's business, and this will be a valuable asset when the voters give him the advancement which he asset when the voters give him the advancement which he asset when the voters give him the advancement which he asset when the voters give him the advancement of the county's business, and this will be a valuable

For Chosen Freeholder . . . WALTER D. LAMON OF PALMYRA

He incurred the enmity of a small element of self-appointed bosses, who attempted to control his official course in the Board of Freeholders—and failed. In his rage, one of the bosses is said to have declared, "I'll defeat Lamon at all costs."

Under his administration as Director of Finance, the county tax vate was subsequently reduced, and, again, in 1938, he did his full part in bringing the tax rate to .645, the lowest in many years, when nearly all other county rates in the state were upward bound. Compare the county rate of $1.02 under "Good Government" boss rule.

Throughout his tenure in the Board of Freeholders, Walter Lamon was an honest, painstaking official, always responsive to the public will and ever ready to discuss questions of public policy with those whose desired to do so, regardless of their political or factional affiliation.

For Chosen Freeholder . . . LEROY CHURCH OF' BORDENTOWN TOWNSHIP

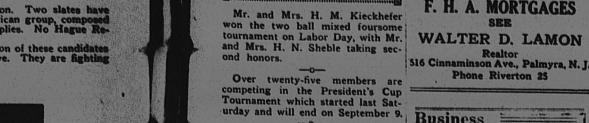

LeRoy Church, stalwart member of the Board of Freeholders, of Burlington county, is a candidate for re-election in response to the people's mandate. His rugged honesty and fearless attitude which have often brought him into conflict with the bosses and their tools, appeals to popular favor. He is out to save the taxpayers' money, not for what he can make. Which is a fine attribute in public office.

He is ever mindful of his official obligations, even in the face of noisy defamation by those who view public office as a private snap. He played his full part in reducing the county tax rate in several successive years and in keeping it pegged at a low figure last year, when the rates elsewhere were soaring. This year he is in the minority in the Board and the county rate has jumped from .645 to $1.02.

Burlington county is fortunate in having Mr. Church in the Board of Freeholders. So are the taxpayers.

Mr. Church is a successful business man, being president of the Church Brick Company. He is also active in civic and church affairs. He has frequently been spoken of as one of Burlington county's most useful citisens.

The matter was finally settled when a motion was made that, in the future, all permits for the staging of carnivals, block parties and similar open-air affairs must be granted by council upon the presentation of a request in writing. Mayor Ward appointed Councilman Huyett to locate and assign a place away from a residential district where such affairs could be held without annoyance to other citizens.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Sixteen years after he slid down a drainpipe and leaped from the wall of the county jail, Mount Holly, James Edwards faces charges that are likely to return him to the counare likely to return him to the county jail. Edwards, who on September 28, 1923, escaped from the county jail is now in Folsom Prison, California, awaiting release from a term there for breaking and entering.

When he walks through the prison gates, Edwards will be met by County Palesting G. Clinton Zeller with ty Detective G. Clinton Zeller, with a warrant issued on an indictment 16 years old in Burlington county.

Although a boy companion made a heroic effort to save him, Harry Buser, 11 years old, was drowned in the Rancocas creek in the rear of Water street, Mt. Holly, last week. Buser, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buser, Sr., fell from a boat while playing in the stream with three other boys.

Charles McGee, 13, of 104 Water street, made a futile effort to save young Buser, while Lawrence Jennings, 11, of Water street, succeeded in bringing the drowned lad's brother, Billie, 10, to shore.

September 12th. Attending from Riverton and Palmyra were Richard M. Woodward, the president of the board, George F. Ginther, George N. Wimer, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Reeves and Dan Mento.

It is quite evident that all committees have been active during the summer months and as the chairman of each committee read his report it was gratifying to note that in most cases the the accomplishments would prove of direct benefits to the general public, which is the chief aim of all Realtors.

The public is always welcome at any of the meetings and should anyone desire to attend any Realtor would be glad to have them as his guest. Meeting dates are always announced one week in advance.

LADIES' LEAGUE TO START

The Ladies' Bowling League will start the current season at the Palmyra alleys on Monday night of next week, with six teams swinging into action. These are the Kools, Camels, Marvels, Luckies, Wings and Murads.

A few vacancies exist at the present time and any lady who desires to bowl in this circuit is requested to see Ed Beitz at the alleys on Monday evening.

Although it is much too early to forecast anything of a definite nature concerning the probable make-up of the Palmyra High School football varsity, Coaches Dimond and Terrill have a good nucleus from Ed. Merrill, (The Silver Fox of Riverton) along with Bob Levine, (Light Air Man from Beverly), and Lynn Hendrickson, of Barnegat Bay, and local fame, sailed in with trailers around Thursday night. And what I mean Skip, they all had that glint in their eye. Activities started off Thursday night with an informal "get-to-gether" includin eats, and movies of the last Puerto Rico Regatta held last February. So with Sunday's race, the deciding factor in the series starring 39 high strung and extremely nervous "Red-Hots" in the face, we found Speer léading by 2 points, over Levine who held a 2 point lead over Merrill.

Don't Stay Home

The length of time required for residents in this section to tooke is so short as to be almost negligible, a mere matter of 10 or 15 minutes at the outside. There are two regular elections each year, thus the period required to cast two ballots amounts to about .00006 of one per cent of the total hours of a 12 month period.

This is an almost infinitesimal portion of the time at every one's disposal and yet, a large percentage of the voters cannot spare it to render their decision as to whom shall represent THEM in administering state, county and local affairs—government that concerns EVERY citizen of these communities.

Think this over and, when election day rolls around, see if YOU can't spare 15 minutes of YOUR time to go to the polls and vote for the candidate of your choice.

Government by honest and capable representatives means money in your pocket. Don't neglect this opportunity!

There is general agreement with the substance of President Roosevelt's radio address that the United States keep out of war. It is to be devoutly hoped that America can do so. But it is not as easy a task as some of us may think. As the war grows older the terrific barrage of propaganda to get the United States in will be fired against the people from Europe and inside our shores. We have only to remember what happened a little more than twenty years ago. At the beginning, President Wilson urged neutrality upon us all and even said that it would be better if the war were brought to an indecisive close.

During the campaign of 1916 those seeking to re-elect President Wilson coined the slogan "he keeps us out of war," with glaring posters set up everywhere about how "he protects me and mine." Yet six months after the election we were in war with Germany.

This is not an effort to cast doubt upon the sincerity of the President in his efforts toward keeping the peace then or now. It is only recalled to show how difficult it is to keep out of trouble, especially when American citizens persist in rushing into the war sones and are otherwise bent on getting a close-up view of the

As the President says, we have a right to our personal opinions as to the ethical and moral problems of the war in Europe But we certainly have no right to behave so that we run the danger of getting our country into a war which will send millions of fine young men into Europe to serve as cannon fodder and perhaps ruin the economic fabric of America to the point where democracy will be an obsolete word here as well as in Europe.

The next time a man insists loudly to you that we ought to get in this war at once, look him over. You may find that he is too old for active service himself, or that there is some other reason why he would be exempt in case of hostilities. The best fighters are those who talk least.

Italy, beginning to enjoy its neutrality, is extending its night life in the big Italian cities. Well, it's better to be able to sit up late and listen even to jazz orchestras, bad as they are, than it is to be awaiting warning sirens preceding an air raid.

With war in Europe and the price of commodities rising, very little is being heard in these parts of Secretary Wallace's plan for paying the farmers not to raise crops. And Henry is probably just as well satisfied that they don't mention it.

Last year, it is said, 7,500 people were drowned right here in the United States. This ought to be a warning to Americans not to trust their luck in the waters of the war zones around Europe.

"Most motorists experience that bug-bear, the wife who issues instructions from the back seat," declares a writer. What is needed apparently, is a sort of chatter-proof lass.—Montreal Star.

Stand the shock incident to the European developments than was the case in 1914. For one thing, events leading up to the tragedy have taken fully two years to unfold, giving business men plenty of time to plan for an emergency. When the World War started, hardly any warning of its likelihood appeared to health and tuberculosis control is invited to attend.

Financially our position seems invulnerable. In 1914 foreigners had large sums invested in this country, which they needed almost immediately after the war began, causing a severe drop in stock market prices and a heavy drain on our gold reserves. The total of European investments here today, plus European owned cash in American banks, is estimated at $4,800,000, a sum which the excess reserves alone of our commercial banks could cover. Moreover, our gold reserves have climbed to the fantastically high figure of $16,600,000,000.

Dr. Charles A. Munro, president of the Burlington County Medical Society, reports that there have been three cases of Rocky Mountain spotted fever in the county within the past few months, of whom only two recovered. Dr. Robert C. Strode, district state health officer, Mount Holly, reports 23 cases throughout the State this year.

Dr. Munro discussed the disease with a representative of the Burlington County Tuberculosis League. Rocky Mountain spotted fever is carried by the common tick—the tick often found on dogs, cattle and other animals. It is transmitted to humans by way of the skin through the bite of an infected tick.

The disease runs a typical course.

The deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Malone and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Pyewell, of Philadelphia, and Effie Malone, of Parry avenue.

Miss Malone was a graduate of Palmyra High School and the School of Industrial Art, Philadelphia.

SPOTTED FEVER

grees, during the second week. The mortality is sometimes as high as 90 per cent, though there is an Eastern type in which the mortality is around 20 per cent.

The disease is no respector of sex or age, though Dr. Munro's cases were all men. Their ages ranged from 12 to 78 years. The best preventive measures is to avoid tick-infested areas during the summer and early fall. Persons exposing themselves to ticks should inspect themselves at least every two hours. When a tick is found it should be removed with a pair of forceps or tweezers, not with the bare fingers. Its careful removal without crushing is imperative. The place on the skin where the tick had fastened itself should be painted with iodine, and the tick should be burned. One attack of the disease confers immunity. A vaccine to protect against the disease is used, but to be effective it must be administered yearly. No serum for treatment of the disease has been perfected as yet.

RISH is in season and in style. It is desired, two tablespoons of boiling water may be added.

Auto Thief Held For Grand Jury

A week ago Saturday night. John Pratt. of Wrighteville, decided to purloin the auto belonging to Samuel Murray, of Parry, while the latter went into a Riverside store to do an arrand. The theft was reported to Chief George Dorworth of the Cimaminson police, who immediately conducted an investigation and learned the whereabouts of Prate.

tion and learned the whereabouts of Pratt.

The car was found abandoned at 13th and Pine streets, Philadelphia, where it had been smashed after a collision with a pole.

Chief Dorworth, upon learning that Pratt was in hiding at his son's home, 1332 Lombard street, Philadelphia, went to the city with Murray and detectives from the Twelfth and Pine streets police station succeeded in arresting the culprit after he had tried to escape by jumping out of a second story window.

Pratt was arraigned before Recorder Bowers on Monday evening and was held without bail for action of the grand jury.

1940 OLDSMOBILE

Following close upon a preparatory program that is reported to be far more extensive than any similar activity in the past five or six years. Oldsmobile's production of 1940 models was officially on the way yesterday, according to a statement issued by C. L. McCuen, general manager of Oldsmobile.

"One hundred and twenty-five Oldsmobiles came off the assembly lines the first day," said McCuen, "and daily increases have been scheduled that will bring the Oldsmobile plant to peak production by the first week in October," he added. "Rehiring of plant workmen is taking place, of course, in accord with the company's production schedule,

"Production of our 1940 cars is approximately three weeks ahead of last year's program. It is our plan to increase production schedules to a volume of 600 cars per day at the Lansing plant with an additional 150 new cars daily at the Southgate, Cal., and Linden, N. J., plants. This volume should be reached in a few days and it is planned to maintain production at this pace throughout the balance of the year."

McCuen added that during the change-over period Oldsmobile spent more than two million dollars in the Lansing plant alone preparing for the 1940 line of cars. For the past few weeks workmen have been busity engaged installing new presses and other equipment of latest type and design; plant retooling and installation of new dies was also completed a few days before the official reopening of the plant.

Health Question: What is the Diphtheria situation in New Jersey?

Doc Says:

lower diphtheria death rates that New Jersey in 1936. In that yea here were 549 cases of diphtheric there were 549 cases of diphtheria and 21 deaths from the disease in New Jersey. This represented a 30 per cent decrease in the number of cases compared with the previous year. The diphtheria death rate in New Jersey in 1936 was 0.5 per 100,000 population. In other words there was one death from diphtheria in New Jersey in 1936 for every 200,000 people.

in New Jersey in 1930 for every 200, 000 people.

The New Jersey rate compares favorably with the national diphtheria death rate which was 2.4 per 100,000 population in 1936,

But the 21 deaths and 549 cases of diphtheria in 1936 in New Jersey need not have occurred. Diphtheria is a preventable disease, Immunization against it wards it off.

MUST CONSTRUCT DISPOSAL PLANT

Riverton Borough Council Has Until November 1, 1941 "to Complete Work

The matter of a sewage disposa brought to the attention of the Riv erton Borough Council through communication received last week by J. Lynn Mahaffey. New Jersey Director of Health.

This stated that such a plant must be in operation not later than November 1, 1941, thus giving the local governing body about two years to make the necessary arrangements.

According to Law

The letter from the state advised that the matter had been brought up at a meeting of the Department of Health on September 12 and unanimous action taken that, "the Borough of Riverton cease the discharge of polluting matter into the Delaware on or before the date mentioned in the foregoing. This is in accordance with the provision of Chapter 146, P. L. of 1939, title 58, of the revised statutes.

Similar notices has been served on Chapter P. Strut Regular Republication.

Assembly

Stackhouse, for Assembly, won over Begley in Palmyra, the former polling 760 votes to 716 for the Regular Republican aspirant. Begley took Riverton, the count there being Begley, 402; Stackhouse, 375. Stackhouse carried Cinnaminson by a large majority having an advantage of 170 votes over his opponent.

County Clerk

Palmer L. Adams, Good Government candidate for County Clerk got what amounted to practically a landslide in all three communities. He carried all 11 districts in the Palmyra-Riverton-Cinnaminson area, with his largest majority coming from Cinnaminson his home communities.

Chapter 146, P. L. of 1939, title 58, of the revised statutes.

Similar notice has been served on Camden, Gloucester and Beverly. Action of New Jersey authorities, officials point out, will have little effect on the situation unless something is done about installation of disposal facilities in Philadelphia, the major offender in this matter.

The Post Frederick M. Rodgers American Legion Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps is shown swinging along the main thoroughfare of Cape May, at the recent state convention of the American Legion. Although a comparatively young organization, the local corps has already acquired an enviable reputation for its musical and marching ability.

An opposite view was taken by Councilmen Robert Knight and Earl Shrader, who asserted that the comparatively small sums spent in the purchase of equipment had paid good dividends in providing amusement and relaxation for a large number of players and spectators. Mr. Shrader said that the Borough spent about $300 each year for fireworks that went up in smoke in a few minutes, while an equal amount spent at the park would provide recreation for an entire sum-Mervine, Landgraf Palmyra Winners The discussion had no bearing on the football appropriation, however, Council being in accord that this matter should be held over.

Although football practice at Pal-myra High School has been somewhat curtailed by the fact that ses sions of school have not begun, Coach Dimond, assisted by Porte Wolf and Arthur Terrell was able to make some progress last week wit

The linesmen have put in some vigorous periods with the new bucking machine, a robot that can absorb all the punishment that the gridders can dish out and then come back for more. As a matter of fact, it has withstood repeated assaults without becoming disconcerted in their men hard at work for a number of weeks and are confident that wise gardener will take advantage of opportunities this month not only to transplant old clumps which require it but also to buy and plant new ones as soon as possible.

After pushing this gadget about, enemy forward walls should be a pushover for the locals.

The object of planting peonies early is to allow them to build up a good root system before the ground freezes. This permits them to start growth as soon as spring arrives, If growth as soon as spring arrives. If delayed, the plants have to make root and top growth at the same time. As with all herbaceous perennials, peony clumps should not be divided into too small pieces when transplanted if bloom is to be enjoyed the part was on Squad

The squad, at the present time, includes about 30 members, most of whom are former school or college stars.

Another precaution to observe when planting peonies is not to plant them too deeply. The eye of the clump should not be any deeper than two inches beneath the soil surface. Plants which have been set too deeply may live, but they will spend so much energy making new eyes or crowns close to the soil surface that they may not bloom.

When purchasing peonies be sure the roots are healthy. There has been considerable trouble recently with Lemoine's disease, nematodes, and Fusarium. Plants affected by these troubles produce top growth but will never bloom.

If the roots show discoloration when divided, it is better to discard them and get new plants. Old pieces

Very soon, hardy annuals may be sown in the open ground for wintering over outdoors, but do not start this too early. Plants which are too big will not winter so well as the smaller ones.

Question: What percentage of women teachers are married?

women teachers are married?

Reply: About 14.8 per cent of all women teachers in the public schools are married according to estimates based on figures compiled in connection with the National Survey of the Education of Teachers. For women teachers in elementary schools the percentage is 17 per cent and in junior and senior high schools 8.1 per cent.

The proportion of married women to all teachers, men and women, in 1 and 2 room elementary rural schools is 18.6 per cent; with 16.5 per cent for all other elementary schools, and 10 per cent and 7.2 per cent for junior and senior high schools respectively. The smaller proportion of married women in high schools is due to the relatively greater number of men teaching in these schools.

The data for these figures was col-

The data for these figures was col-lected in 1931, but it is believed that there has been relatively little change in the percentages since.

The Legion Cadet Corps placed fourth in the State Legion parade held at Cape May recently. Those ranking above the local corps were Morristown, Clifton, and Audubon. This is the first year the local corps has been organized and their first time to parade in a State parade of this kind.

ALL-NIGHT PARKING

Chief C. Morris Beck desires to call the attention of Palmyra residents to the ordinance which forbids all-night parking on the streets in that community since a number of citizens have been rather negligent in that respect of late.

The Chief stated that the law will be strictly enforced and that all violators will do well to mend their ways before they receive a summons to appear before the local residents.

In short, "family service" operates in advance of relief, supplements relief and follows relief, in order, first, that the need for relief may be deferred or avoided; second, that in deserving cases the arbitrary standards of relief may be supplemented, and finally, that the job of maintaining morale and economic independence may be wisely supervised after relief is withdrawn.

"Family Service"

"Family Service"

"Family service" is the work in which the association is primarily interested and yet it gets no publicity, for by its very nature, it must be highly confidential. It presupposes a favorable contact with an individual or with a family under such conditions of confidence that it may anticipate and correct those mental, moral, spiritual, physical and economic maladjustments which, if neglected, sooner or later impose a burden upon the community, a burburden upon the community a burburden upon the community and the decisions affecting to Mt. Even this definition may leave some questions vague in their conception of "family service." The variety of conditions met in this connection by the Welfare Association would in a short while fill a book. Its effectiveness many times lies in intangible fields—of encouragement, of inspiration, of advice. On the, other hand, it also operates in more practical ways, providing much needed things from its private purse and for which it could not disburse public funds.

The New Jersey State Department of Health has recently iled that all municipalities must cease the pollution of the Dela-are River by November, 1941. This means that certain com-unities, Riverton among them, must construct and operate a wage disposal plant.

War Is Costly

Occasionally one hears from a man on the street—usually one tates to enter the war and deal a knockout blow to dictatorship. he remark is proof that the person giving vent to it has not studied the situation carefully.

There are many million people in the United States who still well remember the amount of damage the World War did to usspite of the fact that we were the major factor in winning it. And yet our position is not nearly so secure now as it was then. hen we entered the World War in 1917 our national debt was about one billion dollars. A year and a half of participation in the war ran it up to twenty-six billions.

If we were to enter this newest European folly we would start with a national debt of $45,000,000,000. It is generally adnitted that the war would last two to three years. Taking into sideration our present flair for spending money, coupled with ne necessary war expenditures and loans to foreign nations which rould never be made good, it would be only a few months at best ntil our national debt would exceed one hundred billions and would still be going up.

Now the question is whether we could as a nation stand any uch folly as this. It would spell not the saving of democracy in e but the end of democracy in the United States. Anyon who thinks differently has not studied the situation carefully.

The newest entry into the world situation is Soviet Russia. And Russia, who cares nothing for Hitler, would like nothing better than to see the United States in the war. It would complete the folly of the so-called capitalist nations and hasten the ushering in of a totalitarian government the world over. Here is something to think about. Now is certainly not the time to be rocking the boat.

It is said that clothes make the man, and if this be true then it must be scarcity of them which makes the modern woman.

Another consolation about beginning at the bottom is that you have less distance to skid.—Greensboro, Ga., Herald-Journal.

Well, there is one thing to be said for the nerve of those ntries fighting in Europe. They weren't afraid to get into another war before they had paid for the last one.

The way the public ran into Wall Street to buy stocks after ar was declared indicates that more than one of 'em is born enced at the Primary Election last hat many persons voted for three names, although the ballot express-y stated that only two could be selected.

Other examples of carelessness were evidenced by the fact that some people put a cross before every name on the ballot, voted for two State Senators and otherwise failed to use even a fair degree of intelligence in casting their ballot.

A little advance study of the sample ballot would do much to remedy this deplorable situation.

BUSINESS

Once again the "profit motive" has begun to assert itself strongly, counteracting that "lack of confidence" which has been the chief scapegoat in recent years for failure of U. S. business to blossom forth into full recovery. Risks are present in the stock market as usual, but eagerness for profit has caused investors to pour millions of dollars into it, bidding up the total value of shares listed on the N. Y. exchange a billion dollars in three weeks. The rise was brought about with cash on the line, not borrowed money, bank figures show. This is cash that's long been in "hiding."

APPRECIATION

We hereby express our sincere appreciation to the people of Burling-ton county who at last week's primary election expressed their confidence in us. After our election in November we pledge to continue our policy of economy and efficiency in office.

As it is almost impossible to personally communicate our appreciation we are taking this method of conveying our gratitude.

A company manufacturing steam shovels, which has earned no profit shovels, which has earned no profit in seven years, reports receipt of $1,000,000 worth of orders in ten days since the war started, a sum equal to one-third of the company's total 1938 sales. Railroads, whose dwindling traffic had made them skittish about spending money, now plan to spend upwards of $100,000,000 for repairs to old rolling stock and for rails, new locomotives and freight cars. These examples of money being poured back into the business hopper are being paralleled on a smaller scale in thousands of industries all over the country, and already the ranks of the unemployed are shrinking in miraculous fashion.

Gladiolus—Dahlias

Check gladiolus and dahlias now to make sure that labels plainly mark the variety; then there will be no difficulty in identifying them when they are ready to be put back into the ground next year. Wooden labels may be used. Write plainly with a heavy black lead pencil, and then, to make sure the writing will not rub off while the corms are in storage, give the label a coat of sparvarnish. The varnish will dry quickly and preserve the pencil marks as long as the label lasts.

Early planted gladiolus may be dug by the end of September. This will give them a chance to dry out before they are stored. An easy way to dig the corms is to lift the plants with a fork, cut off the tops, and place them in the sun to dry. It they are taken out of the ground early in the morning they will be ready to store in the evening. For thorough drying, they may be left oustide for two or three days, but care must be taken to see that they are not injured by early frost. Small lots of corms may be placed in labeled strawberry boxes or four quart boxes to dry. Then, when they are not injured by early frost. Small lots of corms may be placed in labeled strawberry boxes or four quart boxes to dry. Then, when they are dry, they can be cleaned and placed in paper bags. Save the small corms around the base of the large ones for planting in the spring.

SLAUGHTER GOES

"We all are horrified by the reports from Europe," said Trevor B. Mathews, manager of the Camden Division of the club. "We shudder at the news of wholesale slaughter of men, women and children, as well we may. But in our concern for the victims of war, we should not lose sight of our responsibilities at home. Our highways are the battlefront on which the American war against sudden death and crippling injury must be fought to a successful conclusion. Discouraging reports showing accident increases for the first part of the year should act as a stimulus to make the remaining months safer for both walkers and riders."

The club official announced that the opening of schools marks the launching of one of the most comprehensive safety educational programs in the Club's history.

High Schools Also

In addition to the primary school program, thousands of high school pupils will be trained in motor vehicle operation, both theoretically and practically, through use of Keystone's Highway Safety Textbook, which has been made a part of the regular curriculum in many high schools during the past few years.

The club's 1939-40 school safety program will carry on former years' accident prevention work by a great variety of promotional methods. Approximately 60,000 safety posters and 15,000 pieces of safety literature will be regularly supplied to 1,600 schools during the scholastic year. White Sam Browne belts and arm bands will also be issued to members of the Club's School Safety Squads. In addition, Keystone will distribute 50,000 copies of the recently published "Safe Cycling" pamphlet and an equal number of safe cycling bronze lapel insignias ir its campaign to curtail the rising bicycle accident toll.

Health Question: What is the typhoid fever situation in the United States?

Doc Says:

In 93 large cities of the United States the death rate from typhoid fever declined from 0.82 per cent per 100,000 population in 1937 to 0.74 in 1938. In 1910 the death rate was 20.54 per 100,000 population.

Twenty-nine of the 93 largest cities reported no deaths from typhoid fever in 1938.

The death rate from typhoid fever in 1938 in cities in the Middle Atlantic States, which include New Jersey cities, was 0.44 per 100,000 population which compares favorably with the national rate.

In 1936 there were 225 cases of typhoid fever in New Jersey with 26 deaths. This was a case rate of 5.2 per 100,000 population.

Practices which would reduce the death rate from typhoid fever still further include: continued emphasis upon sanitation and a pure water supply: immunication of inhabitants of areas under flood conditions; examination of food handlers to detect carriers; immunication of people who travel extensively; and carrying pure water on picnics and outings or boiling water obtained from unknown sources.

Commissioner Sterner said that the dual highway construction will be undertaken as soon as funds are made available. Diversion of automobilists' taxes to purposes foreign to road construction has severely curtailed the construction of vitally-needed highways and reconstruction of existing overcrowded roads, said Commissioner Sterner.

The grading and drainage on Route 39, the Trenton-Atlantic City highway, will be included in the State Highway Department-W.P.A. Work Relief Program as it will enable Commissioner Sterner to obtain wages for labor from the Federal Government. The project will provide 4,422 man-weeks of employment.

HISTORICAL DATA

The Burlington County Historical Society is collecting authentic and interesting data about every part of Burlington county with the hope in promoting greater knowledge of local history.

Material collected will be placed in the schools with the idea of teaching patriotism through knowledge of these historic facts.

A number of citizens throughout the county have been asked to assist in the project by submitting data concerning their respective communities.

If the case did not involve the death of the driver, what was the diagnosis of the illness?

Would, in your opinion, a physical examination at the time the license was issued have revealed the diagnosis?

Would the physical examination have revealed sufficient evidence to warrant a refusal of license on the basis that the driver might constitute a hazard to himself or others?

Jay-Walking

State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Magee has made an analysis of 1938 street and highway accidents that discloses some highly significant facts as to responsibility for the annual toll of death and injury. It shows, among other things, the pedestrian is not without considerable fault. ble fault.

There were 865 traffic fatalities last year and of that number 425, approximately 49 per cent, were pedestrians. In addition, 6,069 pedestrians were injured, some so gravely they may yet die, while others will be crippled for life.

Nineteen per cent of all traffic.

crippled for life.

Nineteen per cent of all traffic accidents, which totals 33,570 involved pedestrians, the average being 17 a day. One of every 15 of the pedestrian accidents resulted fatally, the ratio in other types of accidents being one death in every 62.

Invite Trouble

About two-thirds of the victims in fatal pedestrian accidents committed some unsafe practice or violation of law that contributed to the mishap. Three-fourths of the fatal and 45 per cent of the non-fatal pedestrian accidents occurred during hours of darkness.

cidents occurred during hours of darkness.

Alcohol was a leading factor in pedestrian fatalities. Evidence of being under the influence of strong drink was found in 85 cases.

Most pedestrian accidents occurred between street intersections, mishaps of this type constituting 59 per cent of the total. The number of pedestrian fatalities occurring in the middle of the block or on the open highway was even higher, being 74 per cent.

More pedestrians were killed or injured while crossing the street between intersections, a common practice of jay-walkers, than from any other action. The actual casualties other action. The actual casualties were 152 and 1,737 were injured. Eighty-four per cent of these fatal accidents happened at night.

Second on the list of contributing at unsignalized or uncontrolled in-tersections. Deaths number 66 and 1,392 were injured. Again the ma-jority of the mishaps occurred at night.

Another outstanding fault was stepping from behind parked ve-hicles. There were 1,277 such acci-dents, which took 72 lives and caused

In an effort to reduce these appalling results of jay-walking, Commissioner Magee has called a series of conferences of county and municipal law-enforcement authorities. The first phase of the program is a campaign of safety education. Then, if violations continue, offenders will be arrested and fined.

"The pedestrian needs to know that, contrary to public opinion, the motorist cannot 'stop on a dime,' and that although the roadway at night may appear to be flooded with light, many times the motorist cannot see the pedestrian until it is too late, if he sees him at all," said Loewe. "Again, the pedestrian often thinks he knows it is safer to cross between intersections; however, it is this portion of the roadway upon which the driver does not expect to meet with a pedestrian."

PALMYRA WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Helen Louise Woerner will be the guest speaker at the Palmyra Woman's Club, Monday, October 2, at 2.30 p.m.

Queen Blinsbeth's vanity created a vogue for elaborate hand-embroidered costumes . . . Madam da Barry's interest in oriental teaching led to the development of Chinoiserie decoration . . . Louis XIV's love for pomp and ceremony demanded the establishment of the Goebelins Factory . . . All these romantic facts are interestingly described by Miss Woerner.

But what is the difference between

But what is the difference between needlepoint, petit point and tapestry? Is needlepoint appropriate for all periods of furniture?

tical value of being good reading lamps.

Many of the modern lamps are designed to carry out the theme of period furniture. One particularly beautiful example, appropriate for a colonial living room, has a lovely china base resembling grandmother's flower vase. This lamp carries a flower design in green and gold painted on a white background and the shade is white silk with narrow green trim. The lamp is twenty-four inches high and the shade measures sixteen inches. It has a 100 watt bulb surrounded by a translucent beetleware reflector safety for the eyes.

STYLES change! The drab lamps of yesterday, with dark tasseltrimmed shades have disappeared into attics. Today's lamps are beautiful, stream-lined ornaments designed to give good illumination. The new styles in electric lamps for decorative purposes have been greatly influenced by the standards set by the Illuminating Engineering Society. Lamps may still fulfill their esthetic purpose but have the practical value of being good reading lamps.
