JOINT SESSION DEFENSE COUNCILS

Members of the Civil Defense Councils of Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson convened in a joint session at Palmyra High School on Tuesday night of last week, when plans were discussed for more effective cooperation in the use of the defense facilities of the three communities.

Mayor John F. Ward, of Palmyra, chairman of the Defense Council in that community, introduced W. Rex McCrosson, head of the South Jersey office of the New Jersey Civil Defense Council, who presided at the forum which constituted the main portion of the meeting.

Fine Reports

Reports were given on the recent test mobilization by J. W. Van Horn, chairman of the air raid precaution committee in Riverton and by James T. Weart, who holds a similar position in Palmyra.

Both stated that cooperation on the part of local residents was practically 100 per cent perfect and told of the effectiveness of the test.

Following these reports, Mr. McCrosson took up several other subjects listed for discussion which included general matters of policy and the question of supplies. He explained what the State Defense Council was doing and gave valuable information on several matters concerning which there was some doubt in the minds of the local council members.

Shrader Speaks

Mr. McCrosson then introduced Captain Earl A. Shrader, Chemical Warfare Reserve, of Riverton, who told of instruction received at an Army School recently on defense against incendiaries.

Captain Shrader volunteered to instruct those present along this line and the first class was scheduled for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when 50 members of the Defense Councils and air raid wardens were given this valuable information by the captain.

Others who were called upon for remarks by Mr. McCrosson included: Dr. Charles F. Voorhis, of Palmyra; Dr. H. B. Mark, of Riverton and George N. Wimer, of Palmyra.

Mr. Wimer especially urged that all local residents cooperate in the civil defense movement and urged that vigilance be maintained at all times, not for a few weeks or months but until victory has been attained.

The Porch Club

The American Home Department of the Club has charge of the first program of the New Year 1942. After the monthly business meeting at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, January 6, Mrs. Esther Cole, Director of Gimbel's Consumer Relations Bureau, will speak on "Fashions."

Mrs. Cole is also a member of the Consumer Council affiliated with the retail merchants committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. She is doing important work with manufacturers, retailers and women's organizations in furthering the cause of the consumer.

Tea will be served after Mrs. Cole's talk.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Bailey, of 273 West Graisbury avenue, Audubon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Preston Bailey, to Gilbert Robertson Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Augustus Coe, of Riverton.

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, Our Country has been viciously attacked and forced into a war of vast proportions, and

WHEREAS, our very existence and that freedom we inherited from our forebears, who fought so gallantly in order that we might enjoy the most desired heritage on earth, life, liberty and our democratic way of life, has been jeopardized, and

WHEREAS, we are going to meet that challenge, and it can only be done by our wholehearted support, and

WHEREAS, The American Red Cross again needs our help in a campaign to raise a war fund of at least Fifty Million Dollars, if they are to carry on the work so vitally necessary to every human call.

THEREFORE, let us resolve, each and every one of us to respond to that call one hundred per cent, as we have in the past in every crisis.

(Signed) H. McIlvain Biddle,
Mayor of Riverton

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lincoln Ridley, of Riverton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Sears Ridley, to Robert Louis Lippincott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lippincott, of Palmyra.

No date has been set for the wedding.

RAINES-STONE

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stone, of 509 Vine street, Palmyra, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Cecelia M. Stone, to Merlins Raines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Raines, of 430 Hillside avenue, Pennsauken, which took place on Saturday, December 27, in the parsonage of the Bethany Lutheran Church, Palmyra, the Rev. Harold Lee Rowe performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Raines will leave shortly for Florida, where they will remain until February.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR TRASH COLLECTIONS

Effective immediately, there will be a more frequent collection of trash in Palmyra according to an announcement made this week by Councilman Wesley P. Huyett.

In the past, trash has been collected once a month, but the new program calls for rubbish to be taken up each week on the same day as ashes are collected.

Collection days are as follows:

North side of railroad to river: Elm both sides to Berkley: Thursdays. Both sides of Horace to creek: Fridays.

South side of railroad to Cinnaminson township line: Tuesdays.

APPRECIATION

In behalf of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association, Mrs. Mary B. Sim, executive secretary of the organization, wishes to express sincere appreciation for the wonderful response on the part of residents and organizations in both communities in providing food, clothing, toys and money for needy families during the Christmas holidays.

Thanks are extended to many individuals for the donations and especially to the following organizations who contributed much toward the holiday project: Sacred Heart School, Riverton, for canned foods and vegetables; Westfield Friends School, for toys and cash; Calvary Presbyterian Church, for cash donation; Riverton Parent-Teacher Association for cash donation; Christ Church, Riverton, for food baskets; Westfield Friends First Day School for candy and clothing; Riverton Public School for toys and canned goods; and to the Broadway Theatre for their special matinee which netted a goodly supply of canned goods.

Cash donations amounted to approximately $105, in addition to the numerous items of food, clothing, games and toys.

The holiday cheer furnished by these communities will long be remembered by the recipients.

CLEAN ATTICS

One of the first precautions to take against incendiary bombs, according to Captain Earl A. Shrader, Chemical Warfare Reserve Officer, is to clean attics of all combustible material as soon as possible.

Captain Shrader, speaking before 50 members of the Defense Councils of Palmyra, Riverton, Cinnaminson and other nearby communities, on Sunday afternoon, gave a most comprehensive lecture on the treatment of various types of incendiaries, together with a demonstration of the action of the magnesium bomb, the type most commonly used by Axis powers.

Complete instructions regarding the handling of such bombs by the public are being prepared by Captain Shrader and will be published in next week's issue of The New Era.

In the meantime, clear out that attic so that there will be room to move about and, at the same time, eliminate material which might readily catch fire.

COURT GAME TONIGHT

This Wednesday night at the Riverton Public School (New Year's Eve) Riverton passes in the American division of the Burlington County Basketball League will be host to Riverside at 8:30, in the Riverton

RED CROSS DRIVE STARTS JANUARY 5

Ten minutes after bombs began to fall on Pearl Harbor the Red Cross was in action, bringing aid to those stricken by the sudden frightfulness of war—America's war—your war and my war. With the news of that disaster, in every spot on the globe where American boys are stationed to defend us, the Red Cross girded for the demands which they well know lay ahead.

Like a general staff, Red Cross Headquarters at once set in motion the machinery to bring to the public its estimate of needs and in every village and hamlet in America today steps are being taken to raise the $50,000,000 it has estimated will be needed at once. America has never failed the Red Cross and America in this hour of crisis will not fail it. For America is you and me—and the boys who are staking their lives on our freedom.

This call is a war call. The Roll Call, collected in December, finances Red Cross peace time activities and provides for floods and other similar disasters. But war time needs are vastly greater. And they are vitally important. The least we at home can do is to make it possible for the Red Cross to carry their ministrations to every victim of the war—not forgetting that we at home too may on any day be deeply grateful for their help, if war comes to our doors.

Quota Here

Here in Riverton our quota is $3,000.00—three times the amount raised for the Roll Call, so it is our obligation to the boys at the Front and to the citizens in the war zones to triple our Roll Call contributions. It is needed immediately.

The drive will open Monday, January 5, and will close Monday, January 12.

Under the able direction of our former Mayor, Howard Rogers, eight men have consented to act as captains in the drive each of whom will recruit a corps of workers to solicit funds from every home in Riverton and Cinnaminson.

The men serving as captains in Riverton are:

R. S. Coale, Charles H. Carpenter, John C. Anderson, Gorham P. Sargent, Walter L. Rogers, Paul Barnhart.

C. Singleton Mears, J. Douglas Clark.

The collector in your district will call sometime during the week of January 5. Have your contribution ready, time is very precious.

If for any reason you are missed, or you do not expect to be at home during that week, mail your check direct to Mrs. Carl De La Cour, 603 Bank avenue, treasurer of the drive. Make your check payable to the American Red Cross.

Public School gym.

Riverton was handed a surprise setback last Tuesday night by Moorestown, at the Moorestown Community House by a 44-40 score. Although on the short end by but four points Riverton held the Quakers scoreless in the last period. Ed Czarsky stood out for the locals with 15 points. Riverton will travel to Moorestown High to meet Maple Shade in another league contest on Friday night.

Also on the New Year's Eve contests Riverton dribblers in the National Division will meet a strong Lumberton outfit in the opener at 7:30 at the Riverton Public School.

Red Cross Call to Service

YOUR RED CROSS NEEDS YOU!

The dramatic poster by James Montgomery Flagg is the first war poster of the new World War. It is an appeal for a $50,000,000 American war relief fund to feed, shelter, clothe and give medical aid to American men, women and children bombed by the enemy. It is an appeal for funds to provide comforts for our American Army and Navy, and for welfare work for our troops at home and abroad, and their families on the home front. President Roosevelt asks you to give. Your dollars will serve humanity. Give through your local Red Cross Chapter.

DEFENSE COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

Just because you aren't a soldier or a sailor, don't think there is nothing for you to do in the war emergency.

In the belief that every man and woman in New Jersey earnestly desires to take an active part in our Nation's war efforts, the State Defense Council suggested today that noncombatants could help most effectively by volunteering their services to their Local Defense Councils.

Every municipality in the State has a Defense Council, and every Council has a real need for volunteers to carry out a well-planned, coordinated program that will provide maximum civilian safety in event of air raids, sabotage, fire, or other contingencies.

There is work to be done by persons in all walks of life.

Here are some of the committees authorized to function under each Local Defense Council—air raid precaution, public relations and education, vulnerability, transportation and evacuation, police reserves, fire reserves, health and first aid, decontamination, supplies, communications, consumer interests, and the committee on demolition, rescue and repair. In many instances, the committees have a sub-committee or committees. Let's examine one by one, the personnel needs and functions of each committee.

Air raid precaution committee.—The chairman of the committee usually is the Chief Air Raid Warden. Under him serve district wardens, and under them post wardens. Wardens, once an air raid alarm is sounded, are charged with seeing that lights are out or properly shielded.

Public relations and education.—Newspaper men, radio men, public speakers and other persons with ability to publicize and arouse interest in defense activities are needed. Ministers, leaders of civic, fraternal, patriotic, labor and other groups can promote forums and round-table discussions, or address groups on local defense topics.

Vulnerability.—Draftsmen and architects can assist in preparation of local maps and charts showing the location of a community's bridges, rivers, ponds, railroads, industries, public utilities, sewers, water and gas systems, and other points of vulnerability.

Transportation and evacuation.—

volunteers for personal service and motor vehicles are needed to effect an evacuation in event of a sudden emergency like an explosion or fire. Experienced drivers, both men and women, can help.

Police reserves.—Men of maturity and judgment are needed for training as reserves to perform regular police duties, should a municipality's regular police force be needed elsewhere or for emergency duty at home.

Fire reserves.—Able-bodied men under 50 are preferable. After training in the rudiments of fire prevention and control, they serve as a backstop to regular fire department members.

Health and first aid.—Physicians, nurses and laymen familiar with health and first aid problems best fill the needs.

Decontamination.—Chemists, and employees of gas and light utilities might be recruited for this committee. They should be expert in detecting and ridding areas of persistent gases, and trained in the elimination of pollution or damage to a sewer system.

Supplies.—Here are needed persons experienced in purchasing supplies and equipment service units in the fields of police work, fire, medical and other defense activities.

Communication.—Existing communication systems, such as the telephone, may be valuable in an emergency. Committee members not only should look to maintaining existing facilities, but to supplementing them with communication methods such as messenger service, wig-wagging, and lantern flashing.

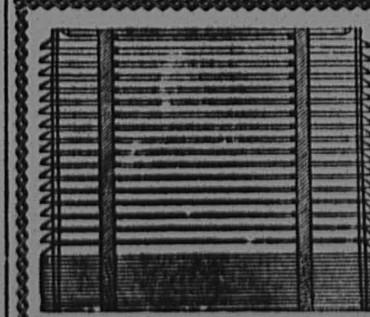

Consumer interests.—Here again the part to be played by women comes to the fore. The committee is concerned primarily with food conservation, promotion of nutritious feeding, elimination of unnecessary price increases, maintenance of quality, and conservation of waste materials such as paper bags, tin, magazines and newspapers.

Demolition, rescue and repair.—Men trained in first aid and rescue methods should work in crews with others skilled in building trades and road repair work.

Navy free balloons rarely carry radio; pigeons are the means of communication with the base.

AN OPEN LETTER

Addressed to the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association

It would seem to me that it would be wise, in the interest of National Defense, for the Welfare Association to make a systematic collection of waste paper and metals from the houses in Riverton and Cinnaminson. Arrangements could be made to get a truck, or a wagon, and make these collections and store them at a central point. The paper manufacturers would be very glad to send a truck at regular intervals to collect the waste paper, and the metals could be disposed of through a government collection agency for this purpose.

The people on relief could readily be employed in this activity. It would serve the double purpose of assisting Should I use my savings to buy U. S. Defense Bonds?

In offering these bonds the Treasury has stated repeatedly that the Series E type, commonly called the "people's bond," should be purchased from current income. The dual purpose of financing defense and curtailing current non-defense buying by consumers is accomplished. Withdrawal of excess savings may be sound in many cases, but it is obviously neither wise nor desirable to dip into your cash reserves to such an extent that you will have to redeem bonds to meet emergencies. By all means buy Defense Bonds — from income.

AS I SEE IT

By FRANK LEE SAYID

As a word-smith spending most of his time stringing words end to end, we have long been much interested in the studies made at Stevens Institute of the apparent relationship between a good vocabulary and material success in life. Briefly the theory, backed by observations and research covering many years, is that since leaders in business, industry, professions and the arts are quite generally men and women of large vocabularies, this asset may be a prerequisite of success.

The studies and tests at Stevens Institute under Johnson O'Connor, in his Human Engineering Laboratory, seem rather conclusive to the layman, although among psychologists there is admittedly a wide difference of opinion. There are, fortunately, only a few schools of medicine and they are reasonably tolerant of one another—but psychology embraces many schools of thought and tolerance is observed only in the breach.

In using vocabulary measurements the O'Connor school says no more than this, in evaluating aptitude: successful engineers (or doctors, or executives in business, etc., as the case may be) show this vocabulary level. The person under consideration measures to this level only. The chances are against his success in this field. Other aptitude characteristics of course are included in the composite picture of his fitness.

Thousands of actual tests have led to the conclusion that vocabulary largely determines the executive rank which a man or woman reaches. Foremen rank higher than workmen, department heads higher than foremen and executives highest of all. The significant thing is that records kept at Stevens, as to vocabulary levels of students, have shown themselves to be records from which advancement may be predicted.

A labored improvement in vocabulary does not alter underlying aptitudes and the evidence seems to point to the fact that the large vocabulary is more of a course of success than a result, for, even if required with difficulty, an increased measure of success seems usually to follow.

It is noteworthy that adding to one's vocabulary after age 21 is beset with difficulty. Up to that age progress is steady but thereafter it requires patient effort. Four laws seem to apply:

First: Each word has a determinable degree of familiarity, which is related to its frequency of appearance in conversation and in print—not in print alone.

Second: Each individual knows more than 99 per cent of all the words in existence up to those of a degree of familiarity at which his vocabulary stops more or less abruptly.

Third: The rate of learning of new words is greatest among that group of words, all having about the same degree of familiarity, which lie just on the borderline of the individual's vocabulary—between the known and those not even vaguely familiar.

Fourth: On the border line of each individual's vocabulary, at that point where the rate of learning is greatest, the common misconception of a word is the exact opposite of its correct meaning.

When one widens his vocabulary, he opens up new avenues of learning, quickens his grasp of reading, widens his interest in the spoken word and thus in many ways fits himself to grasp new and useful concepts. All the usual ways of increasing vocabularies are useful.

Wide reading will improve it. Study of the dictionary will improve it. The keeping of lists will improve it. But back of every method are the limiting influences of the basic laws of learning just given. In each case one should choose words that seem vaguely familiar—whose correct definition just eludes one. If this is done acquisition will be easy—otherwise exceedingly difficult.

Whether or not you can agree with all the conclusions reached by the Stevens' studies and research, you can not fail to find satisfaction and some degree of profit from a widened vocabulary. Particularly if you are subjective in your personality traits, you will find your new power over words will go far to compensate for lack of objective characteristics.

Parents might well give thought to this in connection with the education of their children.

SACRED HEART PASSERS MEET BURLINGTON FRIDAY

The Sacred Heart passers in the American Division of the Burlington County Basketball League will oppose the strong Burlington Recs, on Friday night of this week. Burlington, to date has taken six straight contests while Sacred Heart's record shows two victories and four losses. Records here will show little as the local Sacred Heart dribblers are improving a great deal as the season progresses. A close contest is anticipated.

Last Sunday Sacred Heart was handed their first setback on their own court by Moorestown in a close battle, with Moorestown winning out in the last period 24 to 20. Charlie Gamble again stood out, racking up four field goals and two out of two foul tries for 10 points. Moorestown led by a field goal going into the last stanza, 17-15.

Sacred Heart will travel to Riverside on Sunday, January 4, to meet Riverside at Turner's Hall, at 8 p.m.

In the National Division, Burlington, also league leaders in the National Division, forfeited to Sacred Heart last Sunday. The Sacred Heart basketball squad was not scheduled for a contest in the league Friday night, but Manager Harry Williams is endeavoring to book a non-league contest. The Junior squad will get under way at 7:30 while Burlington will oppose Sacred Heart in the final at 8:30 in the Sacred gym.

On Wednesday, January 7, Sacred Heart, in the National Division, will meet Delanco at the Palmyra High Heart gym.

PHALANX FRATERNITY HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Twenty couples attended the Christmas party given by the local Phalanx Fraternity in the Porch Club, Riverton, on Saturday night of last week, when a fine program of entertainment was presented. The club house was attractively decorated for the occasion.

A minstrel show, with members of the organization comprising the cast, started the evening. This was followed by several reels of movies and dancing. Refreshments were served during the evening.

As part of the holiday activities, Phalanx presented two Christmas baskets to needy families.

The fraternity is planning a New Year's Eve party at the Porch Club on Wednesday evening of this week.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

"Central Baptist" wishes to publicly thank their many friends who have, during the past year, offered or lent their assistance and friendly co-operation in any way. To them, as well as the public in general, they trust, in spite of the present crisis, that the new year will deal kindly with them. The doors of the church are always open for those who need renewed strength and courage, should the way become rough, and to those who find the way brighter, a place where they may express their gratitude in worship.

Services, Sunday, January 7—Bible School, 10:00 a.m.—Carelessness and laxity in the attention of the spiritual seems to follow in the wake of war. However, this is the time when we should reckon with ourselves just what attitude we are taking. The end of the year is a good time to take stock and set a new goal for the year ahead. We may ask ourselves the question: "What am I going to do with the next 52 Sundays of the New Year?" Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m.—The church ended the year with a most satisfactory and encouraging attendance. May the year 1942 witness an increasing interest. Rev. Morgan's subject for the first sermon of the new year will be "Spiritual Defense." There will be the usual anthems by the choir. Following the sermon, the Ordinance of Communion will be observed. This service is open to all Christians regardless of creed. A special invitation is extended them to participate. B.Y.P.U., 6:45 p.m.—All young people are invited to attend these interesting meetings. Here is where a fine spirit of fellowship predominates.

Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m.—Puzzling questions which are often presented today will probably find answers in the sermon of the evening by Pastor Morgan. He will speak on "Why We Are Where We Are." It will be of interest to the young and old alike. Don't forget to bring a friend when you come. He will enjoy it, too. Mr. Claude Barto will lead the choir in appropriate selections.

Wednesday evening, December 31, at 9 o'clock—Prayer service from 9 until 10 o'clock. Social hour from 10 until 11, and from 11 until 12 o'clock, a Watch Night Service.

On Tuesday, January 6, the first of a series of meetings, in keeping with the Universal Prayer Week, will be held in Central Baptist Church, at which time Rev. D. Roe Haney will be the speaker. A fine way to start the new year is by attending these meetings.

EPWORTH METHODIST CHURCH

Fifth Street and Morgan Avenue
Palmyra, N. J.
Rev. D. Roe Haney, B.D., Minister

Extensive preparations have been made for the New Year's Eve service to be conducted in the Church from nine until twelve. The program will include pictures of education, travel and religion shown by the Rev. Richard A. Conover, and a musical program in which local talent will be assisted by the choir from Chalfonte Methodist Church, Chalfonte, Pennsylvania, and the Rev. James Haney, who will give a number of marimba selections. Also there will be a period of social activity preceding the midnight devotional services.

The program will close promptly at twelve o'clock. All will find a welcome.

Sunday's program will begin with Church School in all departments at 9:45. New Year's communion will be administered at eleven o'clock. It is hoped that everyone will avail himself of this opportunity of the means of grace.

The regular meeting of the Senior Youth Fellowship will take place at seven o'clock.

The evening Church Worship will begin at 7:45 with song service and special music when the pastor will preach on "Guidance for the New Year."

A period of Fellowship sponsored by the Young People will be enjoyed in the Wesleyan Men's Bible Class Room at nine o'clock.

The special numbers provided by Mrs. Lord will include:

Morning Worship
Organ Prelude—"Consolation" by Mendelssohn

Anthem—"Cherubim Song" by Bortnyansky

Mrs. Van Dyck has lived in China since 1919, during two hectic decades in the history of that country. The last seven years have been spent in Soochow, Anhwei Province, with the exception of a few months during 1937-1938 when she was "refugeeing" in Kikungshan, Hoihow, and Tsingtao. Mrs. Van Dyck's work in China has been mainly devoted to evangelistic work among women and children, with relief work, both during the famine of 1921-1922, and the more recent chaotic situation resulting from the war.

Mrs. Van Dyck is a native of New Brunswick, New Jersey. Always interested in church work, she served for a time as assistant to the pastor of the Elmendorf Chapel in New York City. After her marriage in 1918, she and her husband were appointed by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions to the Kiangnan Mission, China, and sailed on September 2, 1919. They were first located in Hwaiyuan, but for several years past their work has been in Showchow.

She comes with a vital and interesting message and all the ladies of the community, as well as all those of the Congregation of Calvary

Church, are invited to use this opportunity to learn in this first hand way, more of the situation in China.

OBITUARIES

HELEN E. HYLTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen E. Hylton, 61 years old, of 421 Horace avenue, Palmyra, who died Saturday, December 27, were held today at 9 a.m. from her late residence with solemn high mass at the church of the Sacred Heart, Riverton, at 10 a.m.

Interment will be made in Colestown Cemetery under the direction of the Snoover Funeral Home. She is survived by four sons.

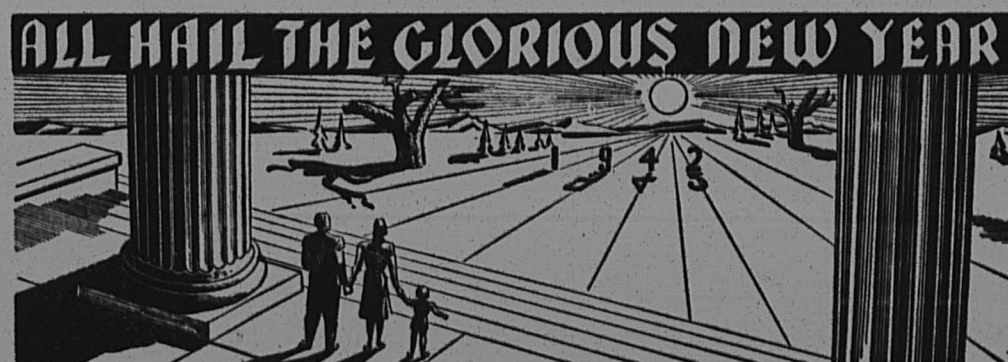

JOSEPH L. OBERT

Cinnaminson Township Committeeman Joseph L. Obert, 47, died Tuesday, December 23, at New Lisbon Sanitarium after a long illness.

Funeral services were held Saturday from the Snoover Funeral Home at 9 a.m. with high mass at the church of the Sacred Heart at 10 a.m. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, Philadelphia, under the direction of the Snoover Funeral Home.

Committeeman Obert, whose term of office would have expired in January 1942 was a warden in the Mt. Holly jail for several years under Sheriff George Firth.

He is survived by his father Louis and two sisters and two brothers.

...and New Year's Greetings to You!

Standing on the threshold of the New Year we look forward with great faith in the future, confident that the important and impressive lessons of 1941 will help light the way for 1942. Every member of this organization joins in wishing for you and yours a full realization of those fine opportunities and blessings of which the New Year is agent and herald.

NEW YEARS AT THE FOX THEATRE

At the Fox Theatre on New Year's Eve (Wednesday) a special show has been arranged with the following two holiday attractions—"The Blonde from Singapore" starring Florence Rice and Leif Erickson in a story amid pulsing mysteries of Singapore—the strange melting pot of the seven seas and the co-feature "Target for Tonight" actually filmed under fire, with the R.A.F. as its cast. Continuous Shows New Year's Eve, 3 complete showings at 7:00, 9:00 and 11:00 p.m. Ring in the New Year at 12:00 Midnight, the late feature will be shown at 12:00 p.m.

On New Year's Day, Thursday, you can start the New Year by seeing two new holiday attractions with continuous showing all day. Holiday hit number 1—"Two Latins from Manhattan" starring Joan Davis and Jinx Falkenburg, as the Cuban bombshells, burn up the hot spots with songs and dances, and for the hit number 2—"Sailors on Leave" with Shirley Ross, William Lundigan and Cliff (Double Talk) Nazarro. Remember to start the New Year with relaxation at the movies.

OFFERS FREE SAND FOR CIVIL DEFENSE USE

The following letter, with the kind offer of Russell W. Ward is self-explanatory: Riverton Defense Council Riverton, New Jersey Gentlemen:

It occurred to me, after last night's Town Meeting, that sand is going to be very important to home defense. Each house should have a bucket of sand on hand in case of emergency, as it is excellent for putting out fires. Sand, used as an extinguisher, presents less possible cause for damage to furniture and clothing than ordinary soil.

We have a mile and a half of exposed sand bank along Route S-41, between River Road and Route 25, and wish to offer this for home use free of charge to anyone who would like to come and help themselves. This, of course, would apply to small quantities required for the above mentioned purpose.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Russell W. Ward,

THINGS TO WATCH FOR

Typewriter parts made of synthetic materials—Dupont chemists are planning to use different plastics in making a number of parts that are presently made of metal... Wall-board made of asparagus—it's the latest material tried for the purpose by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which reports that asparagus stalk fibre can be converted into paneling of good insulating qualities... A lady's handbag equipped with a special compartment for holding a copy of the Reader's Digest... A new film by the Eastman company called "Kodachrome roll," which will enable amateurs to make color photos with ordinary roll film cameras; it should be on the market early in 1942.

"God" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 4, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.
The Golden Text is: "To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever." (Jude 1:25).
Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee." (Psalms 22:27).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself;' (p. 340).

THANKS

I personally wish to thank the girls from Riverton (whoever they may be) who did a big part in helping to make my children happy on Christmas morning.

I would like them to know that I appreciated it more than anyone will ever know and I am very grateful to them all for it.

This is the only way I have of thanking them as their identity is unknown to me.

Most gratefully,
Elizabeth Force and four children.

FRECH—MAYS

Miss Dorothy M. Mays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben F. Mays, of Fourth street and Elm avenue, Palmyra, became the bride of Cornelius W. Frech, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frech, of 33 McCray Lane, Maple Shade, at a 3 o'clock ceremony on Saturday, December 27, in the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra.

The Rev. S. Dan Morgan performed the ceremony and Miss Irma Barto, at the console, played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Lawrence Schweizer, of Palmyra, in vocal solos preceding.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street frock of winter white wool and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Miss Bette Megahan, of Palmyra, as maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore blue crepe and a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Frech served as best man for his son. Ushers were Lt. Col. Howard R. Yocum, of Maple Shade, and Lt. Joseph K. Berry, of Merchantville.

Mrs. Mays selected a gown of powder blue crepe and the bridegroom's mother a darker shade of blue crepe.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Chicago, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Frech will reside at the Palmyra address, where they will be at home after January 1.

PERCIVAL—REYNOLDS

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Reynolds, of 711 Cinnaminson street, Riverton, announce the marriage of their daughter Sylvia, to Lt. Benjamin F. Percival, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Percival, of Ogdensburg, N. J., on December 25 at Christ Church, Episcopal, Riverton.

The Rev. Francis B. Downs, rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynolds, of Thomas avenue, Riverton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were the couple's only attendants.

Miss Reynolds is a graduate of Palmyra High School and Mr. Percival of Penn State College.

A Practical Way to Use That Christmas Check

Put your money into your home! For example, replace old, outworn equipment with modern electric appliances which help make the home a better place for living.

The items illustrated, modest as they are, are important in the daily lives of those who have them. The modern electric coffeemaker brews coffee to perfection and is ready for duty wherever there is an electric outlet. The modern electric clock, available in various beautiful styles, has an essential place in the home. It provides the household with dependable, accurate time always (without requiring an appointed "watchman" to keep it going. Electricity does that, automatically).

Christmas money can do much to bring better living to your home—if you buy "electrically". Visit your nearest Public Service showroom.

DOG REGULATIONS FOR NEW YEAR

Rigid enforcement of the new dog licensing law, purposely intended to eradicate the menace of rabies, was promised today by the State Department of Health, which is charged with supervision of the new 1942 licensing law.

Beginning January 2, licenses will be issued by local authorities for dogs for the ensuing calendar year. Any dog, seven months old, or which possesses a set of permanent teeth, is required to have a municipal license. The Legislature of 1941, by Chapter 151, in revising previous licensing statutes, specified that municipalities, by ordinance, may have a maximum fee of $2, or a minimum fee of $1, for each dog licensed. A fee of twenty-five cents will be added to the local license, which will be turned over to the State Treasurer for State control of rabies. The statute requires that licenses are to be issued during the month of January for the initial registration.

Dog Census
The police in each municipality will conduct a dog census beginning February 1. Those neglecting to obtain licenses for their dogs will be subject to a penalty of $5 to $50 for each offense.

In addition the law also calls for the licensing of kennels at $10 for those accommodating ten or less dogs, and $25 license fee for those accommodating more than ten dogs. Pet shops are required to pay a $10 annual license. No fee will be charged for dog shelters or pounds.

Standardized forms for the licensing procedures have been issued by the State to municipal clerks, or other officials, designated by the local governing bodies, which will perform the licensing duties. Monthly reports of licenses issued will be forwarded to the State Department of Health for checking purposes. Municipal forms heretofore in use will not be accepted by the State Health Department.

Dr. Henry H. Bair, a veterinarian, is in charge of the State supervisory work. He has offices at Room 1004 Broad Street Bank Building, Trenton.

"The Legislature of 1941 enacted the new rabies control law," said Dr. J. Lynn Mahaffey, State Health Director. "Its objectives are the control and eventual eradication of rabies in dogs, a menace to which New Jersey unfortunately has been subjected for several years past."

"We have extended considerable cooperation to local authorities in setting up the machinery for enforcement of the new law. If there is strict enforcement of the statute, we will be a long way toward the eradication of rabies in dogs. The licensing system will be the first step in the compilation of a dog census. The elimination of the stray dog is the problem in breaking the chain of infection of rabies. Also, the Health Department's veterinarian is instructed to ferret out evasions of the law, where there may be laxness on the part of local officials. The meritorious features of the law, however, lead us to the belief that there will be whole-hearted cooperation by local officials, to the end that rabies may be controlled State-wide."

"Local funds from dog licenses are dedicated in the municipal treasuries for enforcement of the act locally, and the 25 cent fee for State supervision is likewise dedicated in the accounts of the State Treasurer for State control purposes."

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Spear, of 1702 Forty-fifth street, Pennsauken, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor L. Spear, to Robert J. Rouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Rouse, of 1004 Highland avenue, Palmyra.

Mr. Rouse is serving with the United States Army and is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.

THE MAGNESIUM INCENDIARY BOMB

By Earl Shrader, Captain
Chemical Warfare Service Reserve

The main protection against incendiary bombs is VIGILANCE.

The principal incendiary bomb used is the Magnesium bomb which weighs about 22 pounds, which is a little heavier than the ordinary box of sugar which the housewife purchases at the store. The bomb is in the form of a cylinder or tube, having a total length of 14 inches and a diameter of 2 inches. From this you can get some idea of the size bomb to expect.

The bomb ignites on impact but does NOT EXPLODE. The starting mixture burns at about 4500° Fahrenheit during 1 minute and this ignites the Magnesium. The pressure of the molten iron of the starting mixture may cause spattering and THE BURNING MAGNESIUM MAY BE THROWN AS FAR AS 50 FEET, so that if you have that distance available from the bomb, you should stay that far away. Explosive material may be added to the bomb which will explode in the second minute. Therefore:

DO NOT APPROACH THE BOMB FOR TWO (2) MINUTES!

If a bomb penetrates a home, the problem to be faced is whether or not all parts of the building are accessible. Thus ready access to the attic or boxed-in areas of the upper floors should be assured, for example, by cutting doors or window openings and providing stairs or ladders for emergency entry.

All loose rubbish or inflammable material should be removed from roof and attic space. Such material not only is a fire hazard but hinders firefighting efforts, and furthermore the products of a slow smoldering fire in the attic or closed space, are gases which may be toxic or explosive. CLEAN UP THE ATTIC.

Have the following readily available for use:

A long-handled scoop or shovel.
A hoe.
A metal container with a 4-inch layer of sand on the bottom in which the burning bomb may be placed to be carried outside.
A supply of dry sand.
An axe or hatchet.
A lantern.
Water in a container in case the water supply is cut off.

The Porch Club

On Tuesday, January 13th, at 2:30 p.m., Mrs. George Emerson Barnes, who is well known to club members and so thoroughly enjoyed by them, will give her second book review of the year. It is anticipated by Mrs. John Abell, chairman of the Literature committee, that Mrs. Barnes will have quite a full program due to the excessive number of books published lately, and the new plays which have recently been produced. Tea will be served by the Committee.

Are you interested in making some pottery? Mrs. Henry Jeffcott, chairman of the Art committee has secured Mrs. Grace Duer, of Huntington Valley, Pa., and art teacher at the Riverton Public School, as instructor in three classes of pottery making and clay modeling. The dates are January 14, 21 and 28. Nominal expenses for materials will be borne by students. Materials needed are as follows: Small bread or cutting board, a small can or utensil for storing clay, small receptacle for water, small sponge. An orange-wood stick and an apron.

To register or for further information please call Mrs. Jeffcott, telephone 1160, by Monday, January 12.

The containers should be kept in a place where they can be reached quickly and care should be taken to keep the sand absolutely dry.

TO HOUSEWIVES

Attention Housewives: "Here's something right down your alley that offers an excellent opportunity for service during the war emergency. The Consumer Interests Committee of the Riverton Defense Council needs assistance to carry out its program."

"Housewives as well as merchants dealing in foods and other commodities can lend their talents to the civilian defense program by working to eliminate waste, to guard against profiteering and quality deception, and to study more nutritious feeding."

SUSPECT MAY BE ENEMY AGENT

On the afternoon of New Year's Day, John Robinson, of the Riverton police, noticed a young man on Broad street whose actions aroused the suspicion of the officer. Upon being questioned he could give no satisfactory reason for loitering and was unwillingly taken to police headquarters for further investigation. It developed that local police had picked the man up here several months ago, but no charges were brought at that time because of lack of evidence.

Robinson ordered him to hand over the contents of his pockets and, after this was done, the officer, upon further search noticed a paper packet concealed under the armpit of the suspect's overcoat. This proved to be a large-scale map of the Philadelphia area on which numerous identification marks in the form of swastikas had been placed at various points. These were believed to be the locations of defense posts and other similar information.

In addition, the man had another document of a highly suspicious nature.

The suspect was booked on the specific charge of having no draft registration although he became 21 years of age last August. He was questioned at length by Chief William Gootie and Officer Robinson.

Police withheld information regarding final disposition of the case, but it is known that a further investigation is being made of his activities by F.B.I. officials.

A REPLY FROM THE WELFARE ASSOCIATION

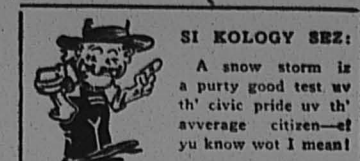

To the Editor:

The conservation of materials is one way in which everyone can assist in National Defense and we are entirely in sympathy with Mr. J. S. Coale's desire to further the cause, as indicated in his letter published in your issue of January 1st. The method which he suggested had previously been given consideration. Several factors appeared to make its adoption inadvisable. In the first place, a notice appeared in this paper a few weeks ago to the effect that the Boy Scouts would collect waste paper and I have been informed that they are active at the work. In the second place, at the present time the Welfare Association does not have the type of personnel available among its clients to do the collecting. There would also be a problem as to storage facilities, since the Welfare headquarters are overcrowded and rented quarters with insurance would make a relatively heavy operating expense.

Conditions may very well change as the year wears on and make this a desirable activity for the Welfare Association. We will be glad to receive any concrete suggestions Mr. Coale may have as to details against such an eventuality.

Respectfully,
D. F. Gould, President
Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association.

GOVERNING BODIES ARE ORGANIZED

The Cinnaminson Township Committee held its organization meeting on New Year's Day in the Parry Fire House, at which time the clerk, Harold R. West, administered the oath of office to those re-elected at the last election, namely: Maurice Conrow, member of the Committee; Leslie W. Reeves, assessor and Joseph Keating, Collector.

After Mr. Conrow had been named chairman of the committee, William E. Grossman, of Parry, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Joseph L. Obert, committee member, who had served efficiently during his tenure of office.

The appointments on the tire rationing board were as follows: Cecil A. Bowers, chairman; Wallis Armstrong, Jr., and Lester Steele.

Appointments

The following appointments were made by unanimous vote:

Treasurer, William Schmierer.
Chief of police, constable and overseer of poor, George Dorworth.

Chairman of police and fire committees, Elmer Mandeville.
Attorney, Walter Carson.

Township engineers, Chedwick and Wills.

Tax search officer, Joseph Keating.

Deputy tax collector, Harry C. Schell.

Police recorder, Cecil Bowers.

Health officer, Dr. T. Bruce Dickson.

Auditor, Albert J. Frohock.

The Parry Company was accorded thanks for the use of the fire house for the session, which was attended by a number of residents of the community.

In Palmyra

At the organization meeting of Palmyra Borough Council held on New Year's Day, the Borough Clerk, George J. Spencer, administered the oath of office to the recently re-elected Mayor, John F. Ward and Councilmen T. Curtis Flynn and Wesley P. Huyett.

Assessor James Hartley also was sworn into office.

Committee appointments follow:

Finance, William S. Engle, Flynn, and John Landgraf; highways, Hu-yett, Flynn and Engle; garbage, Arthur Wright, Landgraf and Engle; Sewers, Flynn, Charles K. Mervine, and Huyett; buildings, Wright, Engle and Landgraf; ordinances, Mervine, Landgraf and Wright; water and lighting, Mervine, Flynn and Wright; park and recreation, Landgraf, Huyett and Wright.

Public property, Flynn, Engle and Mervine; trees, Huyett, Landgraf and Wright; police and fire, Ward, Mervine, and Flynn; health clinic, Caroline Cook, Dr. Dean LeFavor and Mayor Ward.

The following local assistance board was named: Mervine, Floyd W. Spahr, Harry J. Saar, Helen Blair, Joseph L. Stack and Margaret Schocker.

Municipal aides appointed include, Albert McCay, solicitor; Saar, overseer of the poor and welfare director; J. C. Remington, Jr., engineer; Edward King, building inspector; C. Morris Beck, chief of police; R. Strickenbein, superintendent of disposal plant, and William H. Welck, auditor.

Dr. LeFavor was renamed to the board of health.

Mayor Ward named Paul R. Jones chairman of the local tire rationing board. Other members are Spahr, Flynn, Spencer and the mayor as ex-officio.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Wray, of Devon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sarah B. Wray, to Victor L. Doerfel, son of Mrs. Emma Doerfel and the late Edward Doerfel, of Palmyra.

AS I SEE IT

By FRANK LEE SAYID

Why is it so many people find it virtuous to take a walk? Why is it so many of our friends essay to snatch a brand from the burning by dragging us out on one of these futile excursions? We have just come back from such an adventure, but without any of the promised exhilaration of mind or body.

We are told we do not walk like an Indian. Why we should it is hard to see. Furthermore even the authorities do not seem to know how the Indian walked. Once we were greatly intrigued by the Indians in the Leather Stocking Tales who could walk through forests at night without cracking a twig. Five different books described the Indian walk in five different ways and we finally concluded night walking in the woods wasn't for us.

The Indian creeps into this recital because we don't walk like one and so that is why walking tires us. That was the verdict today. It seems we ought not to tire as we do. But our weariness we confess is not all physical. It is even more a mental weariness. Because walking seems to do things to brains.

Take today. Our companion was one who under ordinary circumstances is a stimulating fellow of more than commonplace attainments. Within the comfort of a living room he may be relied upon to keep the conversational ball rolling—drawing freely upon wide reading and experience for interesting treatment of any subject that arises.

But today we went for a walk. With chests out, with robust stride, with arms aswing—we paced the first half mile with alternating comments on the day and the joy of being out walking. Conversation then languished and fell out of line. In its place our once agreeable companion began to read aloud, in rapid tones the signs we passed. This, of course, was because, like our own, his brain had gone to sleep and it was merely his subconscious speaking.

A psychologist, whose name we have long since forgotten, once analyzed this phenomenon in terms something like this: When you start on such an expedition, the brain, with keen anticipation, asks, "Where are we going, and who are we going to see?" To this you have to reply, "Nowhere and to see no one."

"Wait a minute, then," says the brain, "tell me more about this. What are we going to do?" "Take a walk," you say, and the brain immediately asks, "Why?" At this point you become self righteous and explain, "Because it shows the nobility of my character and exhibits my rugged constitution."

The brain sneers, "O.K. Go ahead, but count me out of any such foolishness," and forthwith goes to sleep until the body is safely again indoors. This, of course, accounts for the feeble and vitiated character of conversations on walks. We are sure our readers have observed this in their own experience.

Our contention is that the perpendicular posture is ill suited to an animal hinged in as many places as man—that we would rather have the hinges rust in horizontal positions than in vertical ones. We don't ask anyone else to agree.

Recently there passed away in her ninety-eighth year, a little mite of a gentlewoman known to many in our community. From the time we first knew her, many years ago, we doubt that she exerted herself more than to mount the stairs several times a day. Her longevity may not relate itself to her careful avoidance of exercise. And if it did, it would not prove anything.

But since we no longer seek the secret of the Indians' walk, we like to think the active brain is more important than the active body.

DEAN—FLOYD

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy M. Floyd, of Palmyra, and Robert Turner Dean, son of Mrs. Herman F. Becker, of Camden, which took place quietly on Saturday evening, December 20, in the parsonage of the Pennsauken Baptist Church, the Rev. T. Paul Loraine performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean left by motor for a month's stay at Miami Beach, Florida.

A MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL RED CROSS
Mr. James H. Rendall, Chairman of the Burlington County Red Cross, received the following telegram from Norman Davis, Chairman of the National American Red Cross.
"Bombing of Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, Manila, the invasion of the Philippines, submarine attacks in Atlantic and Pacific have dramatically brought home to us the cruelties of this war. Wherever our heroic soldiers, sailors, airmen are so valiantly defending our soil there also will you find the Red Cross flag unfurled along side the stars and stripes. The enemy respects neither holidays nor weekends. The Red Cross War Fund should be pushed to rapid over-subscription. Give all the people an opportunity to participate. The Red Cross is a people's partnership in time of need. It is partnership."

Why are checks called "automatic receipts?"

You needn't bother about receipts when you pay by check, because your check is its own automatic receipt. It works like this. The person receiving your check will either deposit it or cash it. In any event he will have to indorse his name or the name of his company on the reverse side. Eventually the check will be paid, cancelled and returned to you. It is then legal evidence that the amount has been paid. Huge sums have been saved because of this feature of checking accounts, which is one of many reasons why you should pay by check.

YMCA BRIEFS

The Executive Committee of the Burlington County YMCA met at the home of John W. Thacher, 307 Central avenue, Moorestown, Monday evening, January 5. Edmund R. Tomb, secretary of the Central Atlantic Area YMCA was in attendance and presented information as to the way other associations are meeting the needs of youth in these trying times. Members of the Executive Committee are: John W. Thacher, E. Newbold Cooper and Howard C. Darnell, Moorestown; Louis B. Forsyth, and William H. Wells, Bordentown; S. Roger Oliver, Burlington; C. William Haines, Masonville; Everett H. Haines, Medford; Charles B. Marple, Palmyra and Executive Secretary Clifford W. Ergood.

Service men themselves will have large voice in the conduct of USO centers operated by the YMCA, Clifford W. Ergood, secretary of the Burlington County YMCA, was informed by the National Council to inform. He said Thomas A. Rymer, Senior Executive of the YMCA Army and Navy Department, disclosed a self-government plan whereby Service Men's Councils will aid in the scheduling of activities and the general operation of the USO-YMCA Clubs.

While men in uniform acclaimed the plan as "the finest New Year's present the boys could get," Secretary Ergood commented, "there's nothing extraordinary about it at all. It's merely in keeping with YMCA principles."

Fundamental democratic organization for "Y" groups, including self-government, has been a policy of the YMCA since its inception, he explained. "Each of the 1300 Associations in the United States is fully autonomous and self-governing. We are simply projecting this ideal to the units we operate for the USO."

THOMAS BEGLEY NAMED COUNTY TREASURER

Thomas D. Begley, Burlington lawyer defeated for the Republican nomination for freeholder last September by Clarence G. Price, was named county treasurer by a three to two vote when the Burlington County Board of Freeholders reorganized last Friday.

The post, paying $2500 a year for a three-year term, was held by Frank A. Snover, of Palmyra, chairman of the Burlington County Republican Committee, who supported Price in his successful fight for re-election as freeholder last September and November against Begley.

Snover was nominated by Price and seconded by Freeholder Fred Norcross, Jr.

Albert C. Jones, re-elected director of the Board, announced the following appointments with himself retaining the highway and engineering departments; Church, bridges; Chant, retaining the institutions and agencies, and Norcross, receiving the public affairs relinquished by Church as well as retaining public buildings and grounds; Price, revenue and finance.

SACRED HEART PASSERS

PULL PAIR OF UPSETS
Two leading Burlington basketball squads in the county basketball leagues invaded Sacred Heart last Friday night with undefeated records and later both left with these broken. The Burlington Reds, leading the American Division with seven victories in a row were handed an unexpected beating by Sacred Heart 31-26. Three successive field goals by Johnny Sacca carried Sacred Heart to victory. His goals came at the outset of the final period with the score at 20-18 in favor of the local dribblers.

Sacred Heart was nosed out in the final minutes of play by Riverside 28-25 at Turners Hall, Riverside, last Sunday afternoon.

Friday night of this week Sacred Heart in the American Division will be host to another local club, meeting Riverton. Riverton has lost but two contests this season, in close ball games. Another large crowd is expected to be on hand for a hard fought affair, which will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

In the National loop, the Sacred Heart courtmen administered a close 28-25 beating to the previously undefeated Burlington combination. The smallest member of the Sacred Heart passers, Bill Kemmerle, forward, contributed an even dozen points on six field goals from the floor.

The Sacred Heart five in the National division will play a non-league contest on Friday night at 7:30, previous to the American division contest.

PRIZE WINNERS

Sixteen Palmyra home owners received prizes in the Christmas Home Decorating Contest sponsored this week by the Palmyra Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Palmyra Girl Scouts.

Selections by the judges were not made particularly from the standpoint of quantity. They considered originality, neatness and the amount of effort required in order to judge with impartiality.

The town was divided in several sections and a prize was awarded to each. Chief Judge, Henry Naisby, made the following statement: "It was a source of dissatisfaction among some that the town was divided into districts. Because of the division of the town in that way, a display in one section might have lost a prize, while had the home been in another section it would surpass all others. Therefore, any criticism of the judging should be confined within each district."

The grand prize, a table lamp, was presented by Public Service and awarded to Paul Schneider, of the Atlantic Service Station, at Broad and Morgan avenue. It was felt justified by the judges because of the amount of work required, and because, although it was a business establishment, there was no business motive—purely Christmas spirit behind the display.

The homes as a whole were beautifully displayed. It is well worth the time of the townspeople to drive through the town, particularly the Chestnut street section.

The winners were as follows:

Prizes were donated by Palmyra Pharmacy, McAllister's, Rogers News Agency, Phila. Market House, Walter D. Lamon, Joseph Stack, Shulman's Dept. Store, Koerner's Bakery, Eberly's Drug Store, Schwering's Hardware Store, Lowden's Electrical Store, Etris' Hardware Store, and Public Service Gas and Electric Company.

FINE DINNER

Twenty-five members of the Business and Professional Men's Club of Palmyra and Riverton were the dinner guests last week of the members of the local Boy Scout Troop, of which A. B. Branson is Scoutmaster, at the Scout camp located near Vincentown.

The boys, in a true professional style, cooked and served a full course turkey dinner that was fully enjoyed by the club members.

Colonel C. V. Dickinson, of the 44th Division was the guest speaker and told of the recent army operations in the South.

Following the dinner those present inspected the camp property and showed their appreciation by making a generous donation to the camp fund.

TWO ARRESTED HERE

During the past week two motorists were arrested by Riverton police and given a hearing before Recorder William H. Bottger. Both pleaded guilty and were assessed a fine and costs.

Those taken into custody by officer John Robinson were: W. L. Mc-

Nall, Camden, charged with driving without a registration; Joseph Caruso, of Burlington, charged with careless driving and extended horn blowing up and down several streets.

BUDGET APPROVED

At the meeting of the Riverton Board of Education held on Monday night of this week, the budget for the next school fiscal year was tentatively approved. Final action will be taken at a meeting to be held on Monday, January 19. This will be the last session of the board before the annual school election to be held in February.

As it stands at present, the board has been able to make a slight reduction in the budget from that of the current year, but a larger portion of this will have to be raised by local taxes, since state has been received that the state appropriation will not be more than $6,250 as compared with $7,900 for 1941-42.

Pearl Harbor brought to civilian Red Cross activities changes as radical as those it brought to our armed forces. Gone in a twinkling were those casual activities in which we engaged irregularly as the mood and our convenience permitted.

In its place came an understanding that the activities were not in behalf of some vague future need of some distant and unknown people but were on behalf of our neighbor's boys—our own boys. In its place came a realization that the Red Cross call was close, intimate, compelling—a call that could not be denied. In its place was substituted a determination to serve and to sacrifice.

"What can we do?" was the demand of a suddenly eager nation. These Red Cross notes from week to week answer that question. They tell the current needs and what is being done to supply them—how you can share. Read them. Find out what you can do. For some it is substantial financial assistance. For some it is hard work. It rests with the individual what his share should be. The Red Cross asks only that each one does his part.

The drive for $50,000,000 previously announced by the Press and Radio began in Riverton Monday, January 5, and will continue during the week. Have your contribution ready for the collector in your district or mail it direct to Mrs. Carl J. De La Cour, 603 Bank Avenue, treasurer of the drive. You will never be wholly content if you fail to do your part.

Red Cross sewing days will be resumed at the Riverton School on the regular schedule, the second and fourth Monday of each month with Mrs. William Hendrickson, chairman in charge. Mark these days on your calendar and do not miss the first one of the New Year, January 12. Come and stay all day if possible or any hours during the day. Luncheon for 30 cents will be served for your convenience.

Another Red Cross First Aid Course began Monday, January 5, in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church. If you failed to register before that date you will have to wait until the next class starts. The class begins promptly at 7:00 p.m. and cannot be interrupted by late arrivals. Jerome Yentzer, county chairman, is in charge.

A First Aid Class for colored groups will be started about the middle of January. All men and women interested in joining this class will please register with Mrs. Timothy C. Johnson, Jr. Call Riverton 772 in the evenings.

The Motor Corps with Mrs. Richard Hollingshead chairman in charge has finished its course in mechanics. A new course will be started later; time and place to be announced.

If you have on hand old sheeting or table linen which you can contribute to the Red Cross please bring it to the school on the next sewing day. This is to be used for cutting and rolling three inch bandages.

The County Chapter meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 13. It be used by Americans in America for America.

Palmyra has nearly 100 men, either enlisted or drafted, in the United States Service. For that reason the drive should have a very personal meaning to the people of this community.

Everyone donating anything at all will be given a Red Cross emblem to wear. No amount is too small and, of course, none too large!

Encourage the school children of all ages to give in their class rooms. Encourage the working boys and girls in your family to contribute generously. As to the mothers and fathers, we know you will be generous because you always have been.

Make your family one hundred per cent wearers of the Red Cross Emblem.

Put all contributions into the envelope and have it ready for your solicitor when she calls. The drive will be held from January 7 to January 21, 1942.

Thanking you in the name of our boys in the service,

Goggles for the protection of the eyes.

The Magnesium burns at about 3300° Fahrenheit for a period of time up to 20 minutes, so when approaching it, do so carefully. Cover the burning bomb with sand by means of the long handled shovel, then pull the mass on the shovel with the hoe, place in the bucket having the 4 inches of sand in the bottom, and carry to the yard or street. There it will burn itself out, but you should keep it covered with sand even though outside the house, so that the bright light of the burning Magnesium will not act as a flare for the enemy bombers. SAND DOES NOT EXTINGUISH THE BOMB.

If water is used in combating the bomb, the approach may be made within 15 feet of the burning bomb, which is the distance that an ordinary spray of water will carry. You should hold a damp coat or blanket in front of you as a shield.

DO NOT DIRECT A SOLID STREAM OF WATER AT THE BOMB as this will cause it to explode and scatter the burning magnesium.

If water is used then USE A FINE SPRAY OF WATER which will speed up the burning, and also cool the floor, thereby helping to prevent the spread of the fire. WATER will NOT put out the bomb.

Since ordinary fire extinguishers give the same effect as a stream of water, do not use them on the bomb, but save them for use on fires started by bombs.

DO NOT USE liquid carbon tetrachloride on the bomb as it will produce an anaesthetic vapor or even toxic phosgene.

After you have disposed of the bomb, you should make a careful check up of any cracks or crevices for fire which might have been caused by the molten metal having run down into such places. Such fire in wood or other combustible material can be extinguished by water or other ordinary firefighting extinguishers.

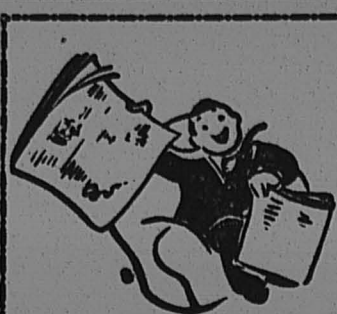

Too much dependence cannot be placed on the water pressure in the house lines or in the use of sink or bathtub adapters and small hose lines in protection against these incendiary type fires; because pressure in the lines may be overtaken by fire apparatus in the vicinity, there may be no pressure on the upper floors, and there is also the possibility that water mains may have been ruptured by high explosives.

COE-SMITH

Mrs. K. L. Smith, of Laramie, Wyoming, announced the marriage of her daughter, Twila Eloise, to A. V. Robertson Coe, 2nd, at Riverton, N. J., January 2nd. The marriage took place at the home of Mr. Coe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Coe.

Mr. Coe will be inducted into the Army on January 9th at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

It is desirable that all chairmen be present. Call Mrs. Nathan Lane, Branch Chairman, concerning transportation.

BRIEF ITEMS
ABOUT TOWN

Captain Earl A. Shrader, of Riverton, gave a lecture and demonstration on the proper manner in which to treat incendiary bombs in Palmyra High School last Sunday afternoon. The talk was attended by more than 100 air raid wardens of Palmyra.

The Air Raid Precaution committee of the Riverton Civil Defense Council is holding a school of instruction for air raid wardens each Monday night in the Riverton Public School. The first instruction was given this week.

Mrs. George Carnie, of Riverton, suffered severe injuries when the car in which she was a passenger was involved in an accident on the Black Horse Pike last week. Mrs. Carnie, who is in the West Jersey Hospital, sustained a broken collarbone, several fractured ribs and a broken ankle.

To date, the Riverton Civil Defense Council, through the fine cooperation of local civil, industrial and religious organizations has had many facilities placed at its disposal. Those who have made generous offers include the Sacred Heart Church and School, Christ Church, The Porch Club, Drexel's, the Riverton Public School and the Riverton Country Club.

Mrs. Mary B. Sim, executive secretary of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association has been named a member of the education committee of the New Jersey State Association of Welfare Directors and Overseers of the Poor.

Local residents who were recently elected officials of the Burlington County Council, Boy Scouts of America, include: James B. Ryan and Henry T. deHoll, both of Palmyra, members of the executive Board.

Private John H. McDermott, of the 207th Coast Artillery (A.A.) Battery "B" Camp Stewart, Georgia, is spending a 13 day furlough with his family of Leconey Avenue, Palmyra.

Our subscribers who are spending the winter in the sunny south may be interested to know that we had snow hereabouts over the weekend, and that the thermometer has been down to 12 degrees, with promise of 5 degrees by tonight. This information may make them appreciate more fully their own good fortune.

CALKIN-PIKE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pike announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Florence B. Pike and Mr. Paul R. Calkin which took place on Tuesday, January 6, at the parsonage of the Garrett Park Methodist Church of Baltimore, Md. The Rev. Lon H. Baughman officiating.

ABOUT TOWN

The Burlington County Young Democrats are sponsoring a Jackson Day dinner on Thursday, January 15, in the German Kitchen, Route 25, at 7 o'clock. The guest speaker for the occasion will be Assemblyman Thomas S. Dignan, of Princeton, who is at present acting director of the New Jersey State Civil Defense Council. Tickets can be obtained from members of the committee, which includes Molly Radcliff and Mary Walter, of Palmyra.

The Sacred Heart P.T.A. will hold its regular meeting on Thursday evening, January 8, in the school hall at 8 o'clock. The executive meeting will convene at 7:30. Mrs. Esther Cole, director of the Gimbel Consumer Relations Bureau will be the speaker. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Coward, of South Shore, Kentucky, visited in Palmyra last week.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce was held at the residence of its president Henry Naisby, of Parry avenue, on Monday night, with a large attendance.

Robert Dunlap, of Garfield avenue, and Walter Smith, of Harrison street, returned to Fort Knox, Ky., last week after spending 15 days with their parents.

An Expert Gives Her Opinion

"Ask the woman who's tried it." Mother, with a wealth of experience along various lines, has the faculty for knowing what's what when it comes to foods. Ask her, and she'll probably tell you the only way she got to know the better values was by trying them. She had been putting higher prices, for flour for instance, until she learned that like in many things the only way to determine its real value is by the results obtained.

"Sacrament" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 11, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.
The Golden Text is: "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth." (1 Corinthians 5:8).

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened; burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required." (Psalms 40:6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Like our Master, we must depart from material sense into the spiritual sense of being." (p. 41).

Saturday, January 10, at 8:30—Pastor Rowe will meet the Confirmation class and members of the Pre-confirmation class together. There will be only one class from now on.

Monday, January 12—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jensen will be hosts to the members of the Church Council at their home in East Riverton.

Tuesday, January 13—The Boy Scout Mothers will meet at the parsonage, 303 Morgan Avenue.

Thursday, January 15—Luncheon meeting of the Women's Missionary Society at the church at 12:30 p.m. Leader, Mrs. Albert Barnes. Hostesses, Mrs. Martha Lenker and Mrs. Thomas Miles.

Sunday, January 18—Bethany Church will welcome to her morning service at 11:00 a.m. Miss Clara Leaman, missionary to India as the guest speaker. The United Lutheran Church is celebrating this year 100 Years of Mission Work in India and Miss Leaman, fresh from the field, will have many inspiring and interesting things to tell of her work there. All are invited.

A leadership training school for teachers and pupils will be conducted in Ascension Lutheran Church, Haddon Heights, beginning January 15, at 8:00 p.m. All who are interested in going should get in touch with Mrs. Raymond Walling or the pastor at once.

Morning Worship, 11:00 a.m.
Girl Scouts, Thursday, 3:30 p.m.
Junior Choir Practice, Thursday, 5:00 p.m.

During this week, January 6 to January 9, this church is uniting with the Baptist, Moravian, Methodist and Lutheran Churches of Palmyra in Union Week of Prayer Services, each evening at 8:00 o'clock. The service on Thursday, January 8, will be held in Calvary Church, with the Rev. Harold Lee Rowe preaching.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor
Services, Sunday, January 11th—
Bible School, 10:00 a.m.—The superintendents of the school were in collaboration with Pastor Morgan this week, discussing methods of making this part of the day's worship more beneficial and attractive. Results of this meeting will probably be evidenced shortly. Come and see.
Classes for all ages.
Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m.—The sermons by the Pastor have been received with much appreciation by his hearers for in them is found the source of encouragement and strength that the average person admits that he needs. The Pastor's subject for the morning will be "Custodians of God." The choir will render two numbers: "The Spirit of God," by Humason, and "By The Waters of Babylon," by Howell.

B.Y.P.U. 6:45 p.m.—Pastor Morgan will address the Young People's Group and will have as his topic, "Going Where You're Looking." Young people will be missing a treat if they do not attend.
Evening Service, 7:45 p.m.—Kingdoms have fallen to the dictators while others are leaning their way. "The Unshakable Kingdom" will be the subject of the sermon by the Pastor. It will interest you. Why not plan to attend? "Something For Thee" by Constance will be rendered by the choir.

On Friday evening, in the Epworth Methodist Church, the last of the series of services of the Universal Week of Prayer will be held. The theme will be "Intercessory Prayer," by Rev. S. Dan Morgan. Everyone invited. The service will begin at 8 o'clock.

EPWORTH METHODIST CHURCH
Fifth Street and Morgan Avenue
Palmyra, N. J.

Rev. D. Roe Haney, B.D., Minister
Epworth will begin Sunday's program with Church School in the various departments at 9:45. Much time has been spent by the executive department in arranging classes and teachers adapted to pupils of all ages from the Nursery Department to the organized men's and women's classes.

Church worship will be at 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. In the morning the minister will preach on "The Source of Christian Character." The Junior Choir will sing "Pilot of Galilee." The Senior Choir will also sing. The subject of the evening's sermon will be "The Voice of God." The Senior Choir will sing. Mrs. Gertrude Turlock will render a solo.
Arrangements have been made in the Nursery room to care for babies and small children of parents desiring to attend church worship.

Monday at 7:30 will be the regular meeting of the Boy Scouts.

Monday at 8 o'clock, the Friendship Circle Class, when a program will be given under the direction of Mrs. Nellie Gilmore.

What's Ahead?

No man knows what lies ahead, what tests of courage and endurance may confront us tomorrow. No man can predict the defeats and victories; but every man can be willing and ready.

A way of life is at stake. It's a way that has permitted American individuals and industries to become great. It is based upon humanity and loyalty to freedom's code. It is worth dying for, and without it, no cause is worth living for. It demands strength and character and ungrudging sacrifice.

The industrial and business life of New Jersey has played a major part in American peace-time economy. It will be called upon to play a greater part in the hours ahead—and it will be found ready. Public Service pledges itself to the common cause, without reservation and without limit. Its great electric, gas, and transportation facilities will be devoted to insuring the ultimate victory and the peace to follow.

OBITUARIES

HENRY B. DUNPHY

Henry B. Dunphy, husband of the late Isabel S. Dunphy, of Marlton, died on Sunday, January 4.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. at the home of William Grobler, 78 E. Main street, Moorestown. Interment will be made in Haddonfield Baptist Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Oliver F. Bowen, of Marlton; and a son, Henry B. Dunphy, Jr., of Arlington, Virginia. Two brothers, Walter S., of Haddonfield and Aubrey G. Dunphy, of Marlton, also survive.

MILICENT S. HEATH

Mrs. Millicent S. Heath, 89, an old resident of Palmyra, died at her home on Horace avenue on January 3.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. from the Snover Funeral Home, the Rev. D. Roe Haney officiating.

Interment will be made in Morgan Cemetery.

The deceased is the widow of the late William C. Heath and the daughter of the late C. S. Leeds, first mayor of Atlantic City.

She is survived by three half-sisters, Miss M. Leeds, of Atlantic City; Mrs. John Melvin, of Mays Landing; and Miss Mabel Leeds, of Salisbury, Md.

HOW TO SAVE YOUR ANTIFREEZE SOLUTION

How to save antifreeze is explained to motorists of the state by the Consumers Interest Committee of the State Defense Council. The advice is given in order to prevent a shortage of the available supply and to reduce use of the preparations so that a price rise may not result. The following recommendations are made:

Check fan and pump belts. The belts should be tight enough so that you cannot turn the fan with your finger without moving the belt. Excessively worn belts should be replaced.

Clean out rust scales from inside the radiator and motor block which cause the engine to overheat, flush cooling system before adding antifreeze. Plain washing soda or other inexpensive flush is suitable. If you haven't flushed your cooling system for several seasons, the radiator and engine should be flushed separately by disconnecting the hose that joins the radiator with the motor. The same is true if you use "hard" water in the radiator, or if the drained water seems to be very rusty. To be sure that flushing mixtures are thoroughly drained, flush clean water through radiator and draincocks on the motor block.

After flushing the cooling system, check it for leaks. Lifeless, over-aged hose connections which may easily develop leaks should be replaced, and leaky pumps should be repaired, or replaced if necessary. Check the water pump particularly carefully, for the grease around it often hides leaks.

Check the level of the water in your radiator frequently after adding antifreeze, and periodically thereafter. The level should always be above upper hose connection to allow circulation from the radiator to the motor. Filling the radiator above the neck means you are using more antifreeze than necessary.

Watch engine heat-indicator for signs of overheating. If your engine overheats, find out why and have it fixed. Always check the strength of the antifreeze after overheating.

Use adjustable type of radiator cover, so it can be opened and closed as the weather dictates. Completely closing up your radiator front causes engine overheating.

Avoid idling the engine for long periods. Since the cooling system is designed to operate efficiently while the car is in motion, idling the engine for a long period is apt to cause overheating—and also wastes gas.

Put the cooling system in order before cold weather catches up on you over night. "Then antifreeze can be added at a moment's notice. Don't put in antifreeze until you need it. And don't use more than you need.

IMPORTANT ADVICE TO HOUSEHOLDERS

Chairman Audley H. F. Stephan, of the New Jersey Defense Council, announced today that after consultation with representatives of gas companies throughout the State, the following will be the official procedure to be followed by household gas users during an air raid.

When the air raid alarm is sounded:

1. Turn off stove burners that are lit, but not the pilot light.

2. If bombs seem to be dropping in your immediate neighborhood, turn off the main gas valve at the meter.

3. If your home is damaged, turn off the main gas valve at the meter.

4. Once the main gas valve at the meter has been turned off, for any reason whatsoever, do not turn it on again yourself. Call your local gas company and they will send a trained man.

5. Do not turn off the main gas valve at the meter during so-called rehearsals of air-raid alarms, or during trial blackouts.

Mr. Stephan explained that these orders are based on expert advice of those best qualified to advise on how home gas service should be handled in air raids. The above orders must be rigidly observed and they supersede, for the State of New Jersey, any previous instructions relating to procedure to be followed during an air-raid.

The Porch Club

Mrs. John Abell, chairman of the Literature Committee, has secured as speaker for the meeting of Tuesday, January 20th at 2:30 p.m., Ken McCormick, chief associate editor of Doubleday-Doran and Company, one of America's largest publishing firms.

Among the writers with whom Mr. McCormick has been especially identified during the six years he has held one of the key editorial posts in the country, are Oscar Levant, Archie Binns, Max Miller, Guyas Williams, Ilka Chase and Sara Ware Bassett.

"A Smattering of Ignorance" was Ken McCormick's idea. He suggested it to Oscar Levant and virtually sat by holding his hand throughout the book's writing and production. He believes that editors should help authors get bookworthiness, help them shape them up, not just sit at a desk reading manuscript.

Ken McCormick was born in Salem, Oregon, the son of a Methodist Minister. After graduation from Willamette University in 1928, he made a grand tour of Europe, visiting England, France, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Turkey, and Palestine.

Upon his return he settled down to writing and produced three novels none of which was published. Determined to learn the book business from the inside, he found a job in a Doubleday-Doran book store as a sales clerk. Then he became a promotion manager and finally transferred to the editorial department. He has held his present post since 1935.

During the summer of 1941, he made a coast-to-coast tour for Doubleday, hunting manuscripts and new authors.

After the meeting, tea will be served by the committee.

CINNAMINSON FIREMEN TO HAVE SCHOOL

APPOINTMENTS MADE

At a meeting of the Riverton Borough Council held on Thursday night of last week, Mayor H. McIlvain Biddle expressed his appreciation for the fine cooperation given him by members of the governing body during the past year. He also made the usual appointments, the complete list being published elsewhere in this week's issue of The New Era. The only change from 1941 was that Richard M. Woodward was named a member of the Board of Health.

J. W. Sylvester was named president of Council by a unanimous vote. The report of the treasurer, C. Kenneth Davis, showed that the Borough finished the year in excellent financial condition, the cash balance on December 31, 1941 being $24,030.32 as compared with a balance of $10,339.58 at the end of the previous year. Part of the increase can be attributed to the fact that arrears of about $13,000 in franchise and gross receipts taxes for 1938, 1939 and 1940 were received during the year.

RIVERTON A. A. IN CRUCIAL GAME

In honor of the team that is tied for first place in the American Division of the Burlington County Basketball League, Riverton A. A. is planning to celebrate an appreciation night for the quintet that has performed so splendidly on Wednesday night of next week in the gym of the Riverton Public School.

One of the feature attractions of the evening will be the court game between Riverton and Burlington, leading contenders for the loop crown.

Among the celebrities expected to be present are Russell (Lena) Blackburn, coach of the Philadelphia Athletics and Hal Wagner, star catcher for the A's.

Two Games

The first of the two games on the card will see the Riverton National League entry opposing the Palmyra Adonis. Riverton's team, which took a 48-28 decision from Delanco last week is composed of John Mustard, Porter Caldwell, Fred Steiner, Fred Foulke, Thalberg King and Leon Ewald.

The American League game is slated for 8:30 and the following players will probably see action against Burlington: Humes, M. Rothbaum, Mitchell, Baker, Nanni and E. Rothbaum.

A capacity audience is expected to be on hand for the occasion.

PHONE INCREASE HERE

According to a statement made this week by officials of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, 40 new stations were installed at the local exchange during 1941. During this period the daily traffic volume rose to 7,111 calls as compared with 6,128 for the previous year.

The company ended the year with a net increase of 52,000 phones in its entire territory, making a total of 825,000 in operation. Its personnel consists of 13,200 employees or 1,400 more than a year ago.

POLICE RESERVE SCHOOL

Chief William Gootee, of the Riverton police, is conducting a school for police reserves of the Riverton Civil Defense Council, the first session being held on Thursday evening of last week, with 14 reservists in attendance.

Chief Gootee states that the course will last for five weeks, with classes being held each Thursday at 7:30 o'clock.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rotenbury, of Riverton, announce the engagement of their daughter Emma, to Charles E. Dorworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township.

SPEAKS HERE

E. Paul Burkholder, of Dover, Delaware, brought a message of confidence and inspiration to the local Rotary Club last week—message of his theme being "If we would be powerful in America, we must believe in America." Mr. Burkholder is Supervisor of Rural Education in Delaware and editor of the Delaware Journal. In 1931-32 he was a District Governor of Rotary. During the period of his administration, Howard B. Conover was president of the Palmyra-Riverton Club and was, appropriately, the one who introduced the speaker last week.

"The totalitarian nations have power and efficiency," said Mr. Burkholder, "because they believe in their organization. And it is this fundamental conviction or belief which goes far to make ventures successful."

Add the Hours

Pointing out that if we take the sum of all the hours spent in the meetings of even the most effective organizations and apply a modest value of that time for each member, a staggering dollar total is represented in the course of a few years. Every organization should check up periodically and ask itself: "What have we done to justify such a total?"

There are three things that nullify effective action in an organization. First, indirection—failure to act on an idea which may be good. Second, indifference—the willingness to let others have all the responsibility. Third, intolerance—chronic jealousy of anyone with energy enough to go ahead and do the thing one is unwilling to do oneself.

Mr. Burkholder concluded his talk with a pungent epigram which is thought-provoking: "If the job you did yesterday still looks big to you—you haven't done much today."

BASEBALL ATMOSPHERE

Russell Blackburn, of Palmyra, coach of the A's and Jack Quinn, American League umpire were the speakers at the meeting of the Business and Professional Men's Club of Palmyra and Riverton, on Tuesday of this week, the program being arranged by Thomas Shorten.

Mr. Quinn told of a number of interesting experiences while he has been calling them and also depicted several World's Series incidents as seen through the eyes of one of the umpires who officiated.

Coach Blackburn described his trip to the south the year that the Athletics trained in Mexico City, his narration of the difficulties experienced in getting the ball field in playing condition being particularly amusing.

TIRE INSPECTORS

At a meeting held last week, the Riverton Civil Defense Council, upon the recommendation of the Tire Rationing Board, appointed the following inspectors for the board: Paul Burke, Texaco Station, Broad street and Linden avenue.

Charles Woolston, Riverton Easo Station, Main and Howard streets.

FIRE WRECKS CAR

A Studebaker sedan owned by H. L. Mason, 418 Horace avenue, Palmyra, was extensively damaged by fire shortly before 10 o'clock on Sunday evening of this week.

The car, which was parked in front of a garage at the rear of the property, was a flaming furnace at the time the Palmyra firemen arrived after a quick run, the fire evidently having smoldered for some time before blazing up.

Due to the quick work of the fire-fighters the blaze was extinguished before the fire had spread to the nearby garage. The inside of the machine was a total wreck, although the engine and tires were not damaged materially.

ANNUAL REPORT COUNTY LIBRARY

The activities of the Burlington County Library were fairly normal during the past year, notwithstanding the unsettled condition of the world and the consequent reaction upon the thoughts and actions of the readers of this county. We still continued to send books to the 120 stations of the County Library and to fill requests for special books or topics by mail. The schools continued to need books to enable them to follow the present courses of study and to provide their pupils with recreational and inspirational reading, and we supplied these requirements. It is true that the demands were not as heavy this past year, but the lessening of demand was, for the most part, in the requests for light reading, not for books of

AS I SEE IT

By FRANK LEE SAYID

A flurry of snow one day recently reminded us of our intention to pass on to the customers some advice on snow cleaning which had come to our eye. It seems there is a special technique which assures a time and labor saving efficiency and which we most master. Unfortunately we can not find the article now.

But out of our years of experience we think we can offer some constructive advice of helpfulness. Let's take shovels first. There is a tool which some one is always taking first—and you might as well get yours. But when you borrow your shovel, consider first your snow. There are, you will recall, two kinds of snow—the light fluffy or powdery snow which will not pile up on a shovel in sufficient quantity to make labor worth the effort and the wet, sticky kind that is too heavy to shovel anyhow. In either circumstance your problem of selection becomes difficult.

If you choose, as well you may, the wooden type for a light fluffy snow, using the push method for clearing your path, you will find the furrow you plow will close up behind you and that the slightest breeze will level it there in pristine purity. But if you elect the steel shovel type and essay to lift your load, your progress will be painfully and pitifully slow. Your best bet under the circumstances is to sacrifice your lady's house broom—first making sure of the direction of the wind so that your neighbor's walk may accumulate your labors and not your own.

In case, however, you are dealing with the wet sticky variety of snow and have ambitions to remove it before it freezes on your walk for the winter (and remember in that event your labors are ended) then you will likely choose the steel shovel for the lifting method. Here you will get a great deal of exercise for in addition to its excessive weight you will have to carry it to the nearest tree. Only by a sharp rap of shovel against tree can the glutinous mass be dislodged. The pushing method with the wooden shovel is even more hopeless for all that is accomplished is the accumulation of a huge ball which must somehow be disposed of by brute force.

From the foregoing it is very easy to see that the borrowing of the implement you will use is not as simple as it first appeared. It requires a good deal of deliberation and we suggest you study its problems from the vantage point of the front window, with frequent check on the thermometer. For after all, with any luck the sun may come to your aid and solve your problem. Just in case all the fates are against you and absolutely nothing

WORLD FEDERATION

Plans for a Burlington County Mass Meeting on World Federation, to be addressed by Robert Lee Humber of North Carolina at 8:00 p.m. on January 23 in the Moorestown Community House, are proceeding apace.

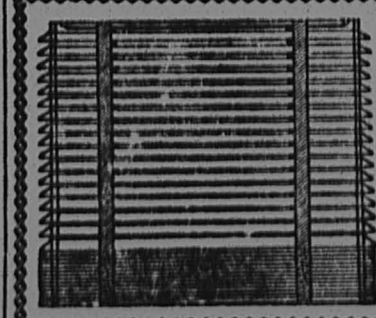

Contributions have been received or promised from the International Relations Department of the Moorestown Woman's Club, the Moorestown Y's Men's Club, the Burlington County Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, the W.C.T.U., and the East Friends Meeting, Moorestown.

Other organizations represented at a preliminary meeting with Mr. Humber at the home of Mrs. Edwin Sumner of Moorestown on Wednesday last, included the D.A.R., the Rancocas Valley Branch of the American Association of University Women, the Y.W.C.A., and the Riverton Porch Club. Representatives attended from Medford, Riverton, Beverly, Edgewater Park, and Mt. Holly. Miss Edith Coale, Mrs. James Roberts and Mrs. C. P. Mayfield coming from Riverton.

Robert Lee Humber is a North Carolina lawyer who lived in Paris sixteen years as representative of an American oil company. He was a second lieutenant in the field artillery during the first World War, but did not go overseas. A Rhodes scholar and special fellow at the University of Paris, he became interested in the reasons for the failure of the League of Nations and came to the conclusion that a world organization to be successful must have the means of enforcing law. After study and consultation with fellow citizens of his state, he stumped North Carolina in favor of a resolution which was introduced into the state legislature under the title, "The Declaration of the Federation of the World." This calls upon the national Congress to ask the President to call an international convention which will draw up a constitution for world federation. The North Carolina Assembly passed this resolution unanimously, the Senate almost unanimously, on March 13, 1941.

seems left but actually to begin the job. We have one useful suggestion to offer: go call up someone and pay him well to handle the whole miserable affair.

Upon invitation, Mr. Humber has addressed 15 communities in New Jersey with a view to introducing a similar resolution into the New Jersey state legislature. A number of New Jersey legislators have expressed willingness to vote for the resolution, provided it attracts popular support.

JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

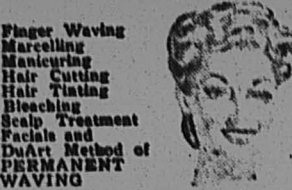

The Palmyra Junior Women's Club will hold its meeting on Monday, January 19, at the Community Center at 8:15 p.m.

The theme for the meeting will be "Home, Sweet Home," under the direction of Mrs. Edward L. Schill, who is first district chairman of the American Home department.

Mrs. Edward Hughes, chairman of the Hospital and Recreational corps of the Palmyra Branch of the Red Cross, will speak on the work of the Gray Ladies.

KNOW YOUR BANK

There is a split opinion on this question. Many economists maintain it can be avoided if we as a nation are willing to meet the problem with courage. Prices and wages must be curbed; individual spending must be curtailed. Each of us can help, for example, if we will put our excess dollars into Defense Bonds or a bank account, instead of buying non-essential goods. Inflation is bad for all of us—let's do all we can to forestall it.

PALMYRA TAKES QUAKER FIVE BY 23-19 COUNT

Coach Ken Dimond's court varsity won its fourth decision of the season on Friday night of last week when Moorestown was dropped 23-19 in a closely contested engagement on the floor of the local gym. The game was the first played this season by the Red and White in the South Jersey Scholastic League.

The first two periods were marked by extremely close guarding on the part of both teams and the half ended with the count reading 6-6.

The same situation prevailed until midway through the third period, with neither team being able to assume the lead of more than a single point.

Start Action

At this stage of the proceedings, the local sharpshooters began to get the range and the quarter ended with the Dimondmen out in front 15-12. This advantage was bolstered by five more tallies before the Quakers scored again.

Palmyra had a six point lead with minutes to go and the best Moorestown could do in this time was to get a brace of markers from the free throw line.

Mitchell and Henson paced the Dimondmen with eight and six points respectively.

Coming Games

Palmyra faces a tough assignment on Friday night of this week in meeting Burlington on the floor of the gymnasium. They also engage Paulsboro away from home next Tuesday, while Merchantville comes here on Friday of the same week. These are all league games.

New Grouping

Palmyra is now officially in Group 2, as far as state athletic circles are concerned, according to a new alignment. The present classification is based on the number of male students, with the exception of freshmen and is as follows:

Group 1: under 175.
Group 2: 175 to 300.
Group 3: 300 to 600.
Group 4: over 600.

At present, Palmyra now has 263 boys in the three upper classes.

The former South Jersey Group 3 League now is the South Jersey Scholastic League, although the personnel is the same. Moorestown, Burlington and Palmyra are now in Group 2, while Merchantville, Gloucester and Paulsboro are in Group 3.

Palmyra, should it be eligible for the Basketball Tournament this year will thus face Group 2 competition which, however, can be plenty tough.

BOARD RECEIVES QUOTA

The Palmyra Tire Rationing Board received the following quota for January:

Passenger cars and motorcycles: 3 tires, 3 tubes.
Heavy trucks and busses: 9 tires, 7 tubes.

William W. Moore, 526 Cinnaminson Avenue, Palmyra, was appointed inspector. Mr. Moore receives no compensation as inspector. However, if it is necessary for him to remove a tire from the car in order to make proper inspection the applicant will pay a fee of 50 cents for such work.

Persons making application for tire should be sure to fill out form with the inspector's approval and bring form to the Police Station at Palmyra each Wednesday, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

GRAND JURY ASKS BAD CROSSINGS BE REMEDIED

In a report made to Judge Frank A. Hendrickson, the Burlington County Grand Jury stated that there are a number of very hazardous road crossings in the county and asked that the Board of Freeholders take action to remedy this situation before April 1.

Included on the list is the target of many other reports, Route 25 and Riverton road, although one equally as bad, the maze at Five Points, was apparently not mentioned.

Local residents hope that something will come of the latest effort to change conditions at these points which are becoming increasingly more hazardous as time goes on.

THE NEW ERA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1942

SOON APPREHENDED

A Delanco youth, aged 12, stricken with the wanderlust, got as far as Riverton one evening last week, when he attempted to ride a train minus ticket or money.

The conductor notified Chief William Gootes, of the Riverton police, who in turn, informed the lad's parents of his plight.

The boy's father came here for him the same evening, thus ending his brief career in search of adventure.

Enlistments in the U. S. Marine Corps last week include two local men. They are Robert Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walla-of Riverton and Jack Shea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shea, of Cinnaminson.

Both are graduates of Palmyra High School, where they were prominent athletes.

The Japanese say they got in the first punch, but in an old fashioned war like this one will turn out to be, the first punch isn't so important as the last one.

ABOUT TOWN

Mrs. George J. Spencer, of 624 Pennsylvania avenue, Palmyra, suffered a broken hip as a result of being knocked to the ground by a dog on Sunday afternoon. The unfortunate accident occurred while Mrs. Spencer was walking along the street near her home. She was taken to West Jersey Hospital for treatment.

Corporal Thomas Cahill, of the Coast Artillery, Fort DuPont, Delaware, is spending a brief furlough in Palmyra.

Prospective candidates are circulating petitions to have their names placed on the ballots for the annual School Board Election which takes place on Tuesday, February 10.

The members of the evening section of the Palmyra Woman's Club have recently donated an aluminum drum to the obstetrics department of the Burlington County Hospital.

Miss Lillian Lepp, of Litchfield, Connecticut and Mrs. H. L. Case, of Germantown, were guests of Mrs. A. B. Powell, of Palmyra, on Monday of this week.

Mounting use of the telephone to speed war effort, and some of the measures by which the industry is seeking to meet an unprecedented demand for service, will be discussed next Thursday evening, January 22, before the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club at the Porch Club by S. D. Page, special representative of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company. Volume of telephone calling has long been considered a measure of industrial and business activity and use of the service in the present emergency mirrors the progress of New Jersey's participation in the war program.

Buddy DeLaney and his fourteen piece orchestra featuring Betty Parker, vocalist, will furnish the music for the dance given for the American and British War Aid, to be held at the Educational Center, Fairview, on Saturday evening.

RIVERTON QUINTET TO MEET BURLINGTON

Riverton increased its hold on first place in the American Division of the Burlington county league last Friday by topping Sacred Heart by 35-16.

One of the best contests this season is expected to take place next Wednesday night at the Riverton Public School when Burlington invades Riverton. Burlington is in second position and if they should set back the local club the standings will again be tied. Appreciation Night is being sponsored by the Riverton A. A. for the local club and a large crowd of fans is expected to be on hand.

In setting back the local Sacred Heart on the losers' floor last Friday, Riverton was forced to come from behind to win as the two rivals left the floor at halftime with the score favoring Sacred Heart 11-6. However, Riverton hit its stride in the last period and secured 16 counters on seven field goals and two for two foul tries. Emanuel Rothbaum racked up four field goals in the last Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m.—"Come and See" will be the sermon subject for the morning service by Pastor Morgan. The sequel to this will be "Come and Hear." The anthems by the choir will be "The Pillars of the Earth" by Rogers, with a tenor solo by Mr. Edward N. Hoyt—"If With All Your Hearts" by Roberts.

B.Y.P.U., 6:45 p.m.—The combined High School and Senior groups meet in the main Sunday School room. Many attended the Hymn Sing held at the Moorestown Baptist Church last Sunday following the evening service. The second Sunday evening of every month has been selected for the monthly Hymn Sing. It will be held in the Beverly Baptist Church next month. On Monday evening, Jan. 19, the Baptist Young People will hold their annual meeting and election of officers in the Social Hall. Supper will be served at 6:30.

Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m.—Members will be admitted into the church by Baptism at this service. The sermon subject preceding the ordinance of Baptism will be "Why Baptism?" "Teach Us to Pray" by Calver will be rendered by the Choir. Every member of the Church is extended the opportunity of attending the Annual Supper and Business Meeting of the Church, which will be held on Wednesday evening, January 21st, when supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. Kindly advise Ernest Woodcock, clerk, of your intentions to be present at the supper, so provisions may be made.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

There is one and only one remedy for a war-torn world, sick from hatred, greed and malice, and that is the teachings of Christianity. A complete disregard for such teachings by some countries and an indifference by many, is the cause of the present conditions. While this is a world war, it is a matter of tolerance, of knowing how to get along with our fellow men. The measure of success from this conflict will be in direct proportion to the knowledge we gain along these lines and its application in everyday life. To be a true patriot, it therefore is the duty of everyone to seek this knowledge. The best place is in the Sunday School or Church where teachings are presented in a most practical way.

CHARTER LUNCHEON OF WOMEN'S CLUB

On January 19 the Women's Club of Palmyra will hold its annual Charter Luncheon at Newlin's, in Moorestown, at 1 p.m.

We shall have as our guests the southern vice president, Mrs. D. Trueman Stackhouse and the first district vice president, Mrs. J. A. Williams. Then too, we are to be honored by the presence of one of our charter members, Mrs. Selby Williams, of Wollaston, Massachusetts.

The guest artist for the luncheon will be Gladys Webster Stimus, dramatic reader, who will present "The Masque of the Seasons" interpreted through the words of the poets and accompanied with music. Members will please make reservations to Mrs. William Rowan, Riverton 364.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR

A Donald Duck short (in the making) in which Donald squawks—as only he can!—upon getting his wartime tax bill; then sees swarms of planes and tanks, and is placated, ending up by concluding he oughta pay even more! . . . a barber chair with an extra seat in which the hair-cutter himself rides around, sitting while he snips . . . lots of black-out lights featuring phosphorescent (glows in the dark) cloth—among them a doll whose glow is designed to give reassuring "company" to its child owner caught in the dark . . . less whiteness in the paper in books and magazines; no chlorine for paper bleaching after February 1.

growled as she came out of her hiding place (the sewer pipe) to scare Nancy away. That dog was not going to let Nancy in for anything. Nancy called Michael Crowell, who was chasing her and when he looked to see the cause of the barking, he discovered some tiny baby puppies curled up among some leaves in the old pipe.

To say we were all excited is saying it mildly. Mr. Haertling, our janitor, came in the nick of time and with the aid of Nancy Gideon rescued the mother and three babies. All are very cute.

We are keeping them in the cellar until the cold weather is over and then we plan to have a real house for them on the grounds. Everyone in school from the youngest to the oldest is very interested in watching and caring for them. I'm sure you would love them too, if you saw them.

Another Class Added

Due to a number of requests for a pre-kindergarten class, the school felt this an opportune time to add this group to the curriculum. Mrs. Burnett Winters has been secured to assist Miss Everett with the new class. Several members of the group enrolled are from Merchantville, the others from Riverton and vicinity. With the spacious grounds of Westfield, no site could be better for little children who need ample room and plenty of sunshine to help develop strong muscles and healthy attitudes of play.

By the way, we haven't heard anything from Mussolini since he declared war on the United States. Wonder when he is coming up for air again?

REPORTS GIVEN

At the meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week, Chief Henry Hathaway, of the Parry Volunteer Fire Company, reported that his organization had responded to 38 fires during the year. These were classified as follows: 4 house, 2 barn, 2 car, 25 grass, 2 woods and 3 chimney.

In his report for the year Chief of Police George Dorworth stated that he had investigated 37 accidents on Route 25 and seven on River Road, together with a wide variety of other cases.

Clerk Harold R. West, who also is chairman of the Civil Defense Council stated that Public Service had offered to install blackout shields for gas lights without cost to the Township and he was instructed to authorize this work done as soon as possible.

The 1942 budget was discussed in detail and approval will probably be given at a special meeting to be held next week.

TIRE RATION

The tire ration for Cinnaminson Township during the month of January is one passenger tire and tube and one truck tire and tube.

DOG LICENSES

Dog owners in Cinnaminson can secure the necessary license for their pets at the residence of Cecil A. Bowers, Route 25 west of Five Points.

Records show that there are sixteen American Indians in the U. S. Navy.

"Life" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 18, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world. The Golden Text is: "How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! . . . For with thee is the fountain of life." (Psalms 36: 7, 9). Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy;" (Psalms 16: 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let us feel the divine energy of Spirit, bringing us into newness of life and recognizing no mortal nor material power as able to destroy. Let us rejoice that we are subject to the divine 'powers that be.'" (P. 249).

NO CIVIC PRIDE

That some residents of this section care little regarding the appearance of Memorial Park is evidenced by the fact that, although a dump is located at the rear of the Park, several thoughtless individuals appear to believe that it is proper to deposit ashes and trash anywhere in the vicinity.
Only this week, three piles of ashes and cans were left on the roadway several hundred feet from the dump itself. Such a situation, it is obvious, adds little to the appearance of any community.

YWCA NOTES

The Burlington County Young Women's Christian Association will celebrate its 25th anniversary at the annual membership dinner to be held Tuesday evening, January 20, at the Moorestown Community House.

Mrs. Henry H. Albertson, of Burlington, a charter member of the association which is the first district association in the entire country, is preparing a historical sketch of the activities and accomplishments of the YWCA in the county during the past quarter century.

One feature of the program will be the lighting of 25 candles, on the birthday cake, each one lighted to symbolize an outstanding event of one year in the association history. The candles will be lighted by a group of Girl Reserves, Junior Members of the Y.W.C.A.

Group singing during the evening will be led by Mrs. Flora Test, of the Moorestown Friends' School. The committee in charge of arrangements for the meeting is headed by Mrs. Albert Andrews, of Marlton.

Mrs. William Tucker, of Princeton, a member of the National Board of the Y.W.C.A. and chairman of the Sub-Committee on Race Relations of the National Public Affairs Committee, will be the speaker at the annual dinner meeting and 25th anniversary celebration of the Burlington County Y.W.C.A., to be held Tuesday, January 20th, at the Moorestown Community House.

Devotions at the beginning of the dinner will be in charge of Mrs. Emmen P. Darlington, of New Lisbon, a past president of the county board of directors. All past presidents of the county association in its quarter century of existence have been invited to be present at the meeting and to give a brief word of greeting.

Girl Reserves from Burlington and Mount Holly will take part in a candle-lighting ceremony around a birthday cake symbolizing the high points in the activities of the association for the past 25 years. An historical sketch of the association has been prepared for the birthday celebration by Mrs. Henry H. Albertson of Burlington and will be read in connection with the ceremonial.

zoning ordinance in the Borough Mayor Ward stated that the time was ripe for such regulation and stated that something should be done about it in the near future. Borough Attorney Albert McCay stated that such an ordinance could be put together in about two to three months. It was agreed that a special meeting on the subject would be held in the near future.

The Council unanimously appointed Stewart S. Buchholz as the Insurance Broker of Record for the Borough for 1942. The members of the council stated that they were well pleased with the efficiency demonstrated by Mr. Buchholz in handling the insurance needs of the Borough. Mayor Ward read a letter in which it was stated that any attempt to require permits for moving the household goods from the Borough was declared unconstitutional by the New Jersey Supreme Court. It was thought that such an ordinance might be passed in order to restrain people from moving out of town before paying their assessed personal taxes.

Announcement was made that the annual budget meeting would be held on Tuesday evening, January 27th and that a meeting of the Palmyra Defense Council would be held on the evening of January 22.

HOW THE CHINESE RESIST JAPAN

Mystery over the amazingly successful five years of resistance to the Japanese aggression on the part of the Chinese was dispelled last Thursday evening when Frank Kai-Ming Su, executive secretary of United China Relief, discussed the "China Incident" with the local Rotary Club. Mr. Su, who is a graduate of Tsing Hua College, of Peking, and who secured his B.A. and M.A. degrees respectively at Wisconsin and Harvard, gave a most encouraging outlook for Chinese cooperation with its new allies. He was introduced by Charles Stickney, chairman of the International committee.

Mr. Su prefaced his discussion of China at war by emphasizing the shrinkage of distance in the world today and the impossibility of any people being unaffected by the course of events in the most distant parts of the world.

Another point given great emphasis by Mr. Su was the fact that China and the United States are allies not merely because of having a common enemy, but rather because both nations are democratic in their fundamental concepts of government by and for the people. Both China and Japan were changed by the impact of Western civilization. Japan chose its worst gifts—China its best. Japan accepted power politics and the doctrine that might makes right—was Prussianized and dominated from the top down. China chose the cultured development of its five thousand year old civilization on an American pattern—was indeed Americanized in its political and social concepts from the bottom up.

When the Japanese launched their attack on China in 1937, they boasted in three months. How the Chinese, without an air force, without artillery or tanks and without other equipment regarded as essential for modern armies, could resist as they have was explained by Mr. Su on (Continued on page 3)

The last Tuesday afternoon in each month is devoted to Red Cross work by members of the club and the date for January is Tuesday, January 27.

Come at 2:30, bring thimble and scissors and be ready to do hand work for the Red Cross in the form of sewing or cutting. Try to stay until 5 p.m. so that as much as possible may be accomplished in this one afternoon.

While the work is going on, a short play entitled "It Is Worth Knowing," will be given by those who have recently finished the Red Cross Home Nursing Course. Those taking part include Mrs. Francis B. Ellwell, Mrs. J. Lyonel King, Mrs. George Borner, Mrs. R. S. Charlton, and Mrs. John P. Abell. Miss Blair, instructress in the course, will present certificates at this time to all those who successfully completed the work.

Tea will be served.

The annual Bridge-Tea for the benefit of the Riverton Library, sponsored by the Riverton Library, will be held on Tuesday, February 17, at 2 p.m. Tickets will be 50 cents plus five cents tax and may be purchased from Mrs. Douglas B. Tyler, chairman, and members of the bridge committee. This is an affair enjoyed and anticipated by everyone each year so mark down the date immediately—February 17.

LIBRARY MEETING
The Riverton Free Library Association will be held on Monday, January 26, in the Library at 8 p.m.
All members are eligible to attend.

NEW RULING ON DRAFT
DATA TO NEWSPAPERS

According to information received this week by Local Draft Board No. 1, of Palmyra, board officials are now permitted to release to newspapers the names of registrants about to be inducted into the service. No information will be furnished, however, regarding the total number of men covered by the quotas and called into service.

The following men from this section will be inducted into the Army on January 27:
H. B. Carruthers, Palmyra.
J. J. Hayes, Palmyra.
J. W. Sacca, Jr., Palmyra.
H. A. Prisco, Palmyra.
R. M. Dougherty, a transfer from another board.

LOCAL PASTOR
DIES SUDDENLY

The Reverend Charles T. Bates, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Riverton, died on Sunday of this week, in Zurburg Memorial Hospital, Riverside, where he was taken on the morning of the same day. His death came as a great shock to residents of these communities, since he had been ill only since the previous evening.

Mr. Bates was born in Pennsylvania. He assumed the pastorate of Calvary Church on April 5, 1925, coming here from the Old Tennent Presbyterian Church, one of the oldest in the country, at Tennent, New Jersey. Prior to that time he was engaged by the Presbyterian Synodical Home Board in organizing churches in various parts of Michigan.

Rev. Bates was a graduate of Princeton University and held degrees from McCormick Seminary and Temple University.

It was during his pastorate here that the new edifice of Calvary Church was dedicated, this being in October, 1927.

Rev. Bates was prominently identified with the Presbytery of Monmouth, the organization which governs the Presbyterian Church in certain sections of New Jersey and in which he had, at various times, held several important offices.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Helen W. Bates.

Funeral services were held at the Church, on Wednesday of this week at 1 p.m., the Rev. J. S. Dauerty, pastor of the Moorestown Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Interment was made in the Old Tennent Church Yard at Tennent, New Jersey, under the direction of the Snover Funeral Home.

TAX STAMPS CANNOT BE AFFIXED TO WINDSHIELD
Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced this week that the Federal use tax stamps which must be attached to all motor vehicles effective February 1, should not be affixed to either the windshield or the front side windows of New Jersey motor vehicles.

They can be affixed to the instrument panel of the vehicle, to the back of the rear-view mirror, rear windows or to any other part of the vehicle where it will be conspicuous and not become mutilated or detached.

Under the New Jersey statutes, no sticker or emblem can be affixed to the windshield or front side windows except that which is authorized by law and the Federal Government is respecting existing state regulations in the matter of the use tax stamps in requesting that no local regulations be violated in the matter of affixing the stamp to the motor vehicle.

PLAN TO ASSIST
LOCAL CENTER

The Junior Chamber of Commerce at their semi-monthly meeting held Monday night at the Community Center passed a motion to contact the secretary of the Community Center committee, Edward Miller, in an attempt to have a joint meeting of the two groups next week. A representative of the Junior Chamber of Commerce has attended several meetings of the Community Center committee held in the past few months in an effort of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to help take care of the Community Center, which may have to close its doors for good within the next two months.

The Community Center not only is the headquarters of many youth activities in this area, but now throughout the week meetings of the Red Cross, Palmyra Civilian Defense Council, First Aid classes, and other organizations working in the interest of National Defense are being held there.

With delinquency being lowered more every day in this area, the Junior Chamber of Commerce feels that every effort possible should be made in the next few months to keep the Community Center open, as it has done a great deal for the youth of our communities.

THANKS!

Our Red Cross Emergency Drive quota of $3,000.00 for Riverton and Cinnaminson has been passed with a good margin, proving that our Community, as in times past, supports worthy causes.

It must be obvious to those who have subscribed that an individual note of thanks means hundreds of letters, and in consequence, we trust that you will accept this notice as our acknowledgment of your generous contributions.

The personal thanks of the undersigned is also extended to the captains and many workers whose time and effort made the drive successful.
HOWARD M. ROGERS,
Chairman.

COLONEL MATHEWS SPEAKS AT CINNAMINSON P.T.A.

The Cinnaminson P.T.A. held its regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium on Wednesday evening, January 14. It being Fathers' Night, an entertaining program was presented.

After a short business meeting at which time it was voted to buy glasses for one of our school children. The following program was presented:

The Girls Bugle and Drum Corps of Palmyra High School, looking very lovely in their red and white uniforms played several selections which were enthusiastically received by the audience.

Mrs. James Seither sang two delightful solos in honor of the Fathers' evening, January 14. It being the speaker of the evening talked on National Civilian Defense in which he outlined the things to do and not to do in case of emergencies. His message was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

PALMYRA WINS
Palmyra took the measure of Paulsboro High on Tuesday night of this week on the enemy's floor, the score being 40-38 in a hotly contested engagement. The win sent the Dimondmen into second place in the South Jersey League, only a half game behind the leading Burlington and Merchantville outfits.

BANK OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED

At the annual meeting of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company held last week, all officers and directors were re-elected for the current year.

Those named were: Dr. Charles S. Mills, president; William A. Hendrickson and George C. Frank, vice presidents; Howard B. Conover, secretary-treasurer; Herbert J. Kemmerle, assistant treasurer; Morris H. De Coursey, assistant secretary; Marie I. Wiseman, trust officer. Directors, Howard B. Conover, George C. Frank, Arthur C. Haines, John F. Hackett, William A. Hendrickson, Charles S. Mills, Henry L. Randall, Howard M. Rogers, James T. Weart.

CAMPAIGN TO AID
PARALYSIS VICTIMS

The drive to raise funds for the prevention of infantile paralysis and the care of its victims began here this week, it was announced by Dr. J. Rowland Dey, chairman of the Riverton committee.

Here, as in all parts of the nation, the drive is planned to coincide with the anniversary of President Roosevelt's birthday, on which date hundreds of birthday balls are staged throughout the land and thousands of people "dance that others may walk."

The campaign in Burlington county is directed by the chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and its proceeds are equally divided between the national organization, whose principal use of it is in the important field of research, and in Burlington county itself.

Using part of the proceeds of other years' campaigns the Burlington county chapter has spent several hundreds of dollars right in the county in helping with the expense of a number of actual cases of the dread disease here. The money spent covered the cost of braces, elevated shoes, x-rays and recuperative care of patients.

Medical records reveal that a large number of cases of this life-taking and crippling disease were reported last year. More than four hundred cases were reported in the state and many persons in Burlington county became the victims of its ravages.

Donation boxes are being placed in all local stores and Dr. Dey asks that residents respond to this worthy cause as generously as they have in previous years.

BUDGET APPROVED

At a special meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week, the budget for the current year was approved by a unanimous vote. The complete budget will be published in next week's issue of The New Era.

The date for the public hearing has been set for Tuesday, February 10, at 8 o'clock, in the Cinnaminson School.

COMMODITIES READY

Mrs. Mary B. Sim, executive secretary of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association, announces that the commodities are now available for all those eligible to receive them.

Distribution will be made at the old bank building, Main street, during the remainder of this week.

Present plans call for regular distribution the first and third Wednesdays of each month hereafter.

quarter and held this advantage until the final gun.

SPORTS SHOW TO HELP POLIO DRIVE

The All-Burlington County March of Sports Program for the celebration of the President's Birthday for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will be held in the Moorestown High School Gymnasium, Monday, January 26th, starting promptly at 7:30 p.m.

The Infantile Paralysis sports program has been arranged by the Burlington County March of Sports chairman, Paul H. Isenberg, Moorestown High School athletic coach. The program embraces a large group of athletes from all corners of the county.

Promptly at 7:30 p.m. the unusual program will begin with the strong Bordentown Military Institute quintet versus the Burlington County High Schools in basketball. The following high schools in the county will be represented in the contest, namely: Burlington, Mt. Holly, Bordentown, Pemberton, Moorestown Friends, Palmyra, Riverside, and Moorestown.

Other Events

Between the halves of the scholastic game the crack Bordentown Military Institute Rifle Drill Squad will put on a demonstration consisting of marching, military tactics, and rifle drill.

Several exhibition wrestling matches will next entertain the crowd. These matches will be staged by Coach Norman Hagen, and his Paulsboro High School South Jersey Interscholastic Champions.

The second half of the program will present the strong Moorestown colored team, The Trojans, and Horace Smith's Ramblers, Moorestown's entry in the strong American Division of the Burlington County League. Between the halves of the Moorestown Championship Game, entertainment will be furnished by Rudy Gambaorta, the World's Champion of muscle control.

The entire amount derived will be turned over to Postmaster of Burlington City, Mr. Richard P. Hughes, the Burlington County Chairman for the Celebration of the President's Birthday for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The cost of admission is Children—25 cents, Adults—35 cents, tax included.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY
MEETS JANUARY 27

The Rev. Daniel Reidy, O.S.B., a Benedictine Priest, of St. Benedict's Prep School and Church of Newark, will be the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of Sacred Heart Parish, Tuesday, in the Sacred Heart School at 8:30 p.m.

Election of new officers will be held at the meeting with delegates named to the county committee. A county committee with delegates from every Holy Name Society in Burlington County is being organized. Following the business meeting addressing the members of the Society along with Rev. Reidy, O.S.B., will be James L. Flood, secretary to Connie Mack, John Quinn, American League baseball umpire, and Chief Bender, the old Indian pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics.

The latest American League baseball film entitled the "9th Inning" will be shown. A large attendance is anticipated at the affair which will be under the direction of its president, William H. Rowan, Sr.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Landgraf, of 411 Thomas avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, David Carl, on Thursday, January 15, at the Zurburg Memorial Hospital, Riverside.

Mrs. Landgraf was formerly Miss Eleanor Sordon.

AS I SEE IT

By FRANK LEE SAYID

From the beginning of the country adventure we flirted with the idea of a dog. Out of the debate five conclusions were reached: First, we would not—positively we would not—tie ourselves down with any kind of live stock; second, if ever we did get a dog it would not be a pup; third, in any event we would not get one during the winter season; fourth, under no circumstances would it be of the larger breeds; fifth, particularly and especially, it should not be a long haired variety.

So, not to violate our resolutions in any half way manner, we transgressed all five rules in a burst of enthusiasm in which reason had no part.

In the cold grey dawn of the "morning after" we reflect on the psychology involved and conclude we were conditioned by childhood experiences. Until we were grown we never had a dog and no doubt suffer yet from this early period of frustration. Our grandparents had raised seven children, with innumerable pets, and when we came along for their care as number eight—it was just too much to resume the cycle of pets.

"Mickey," a bull terrier was our pal of college days—secreted in our room against all law and reason for two years—"Mickey," who chewed up the only dress collar of the only man in college with a size 16 neck, just before he was ready to dress for a dance—"Mickey," who crazily stole, and brought whole to our room, a freshly roasted chicken one Thanksgiving Day—"Mickey," whose final joy of nipping the noses of fire engine horses brought him to an untimely end.

Then when our children came along there were a long succession of dogs of all kinds, culminating in the heart breaking passing of the one closest to us for ten years, "Never again," we said—and thought we meant it.

But last night the old dog box was cleaned out and the ball of fluff which constitutes our latest folly was ensconced therein. We hoped for the best but anticipated the worst. We were not disappointed.

The music started when the light went out and continued until daylight. There were short periods, no doubt, when our pup had to catch its breath, and during some of these perhaps we dropped asleep from exhaustion. The rest of the time we listened with a terrible fascination to the wild concatenation of sound which poured forth from his little throat.

He growled, whined, howled, barked, squealed, and yelped. He bayed, screeched, yapped, snarled, grunted and cried. And in accomplishing each of these effects he ranged up and down the scale with all the stops out. It was a mastery orchestration which would have brought the flush of pride to the cheeks of a radio sound effects man. As we lay there, contemplating the cold dignity with which we would greet the delegation of neighbors we envisioned calling on the morrow, we wondered what penalties the S.P.C.A. would bring upon us if we acted upon the impulse then surging through us. When we came down stairs this morning, ours was yet not the most amiable mood, although the impulse to commit mayhem had passed.

But at the sound of our footsteps the little imp had to come running to tumble at our feet a quiver from head to foot with the ecstasy of reunion and with his tail wagging like a metronome. So what, we ask you, could a fellow do in a case like that—kick the little beggar down the stairs?

Well, somebody just try kicking that pup of ours down the stairs!

PALMYRA LOSES

The Red and White court quintet of Palmyra High School dropped a 59-49 decision to Burlington last Friday night on the floor of the winners, who are now leading the South Jersey Scholastic Basketball League.

The Diamondmen got off to a bad start in the first period, but came back strong in the second and third quarters only to have the opposition stage a spurt in the final frame that carried them through to win.

On Friday night of this week, Palmyra opposes the strong Merchantville five on the local court.

Riverside will be met away from home on Tuesday, January 27.

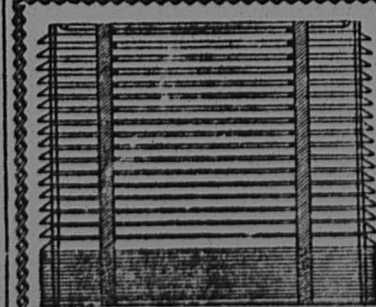

DRIVERS ARRESTED

Arthur Harmon, of Beverly, was arrested by Chief William Gootee, of the Riverton police last week at Broad and Main streets on the charge of careless driving. The offender, in addition, had no registration card in his possession. He was assessed a fine and costs at a hearing before Recorder William H. Bottger.

Op January 16, Officer Robinson arrested another man for disorderly conduct which included unnecessary blowing of his horn and creating a disturbance. This individual was found guilty by the Recorder and paid a fine and costs.

POWERS ANNOUNCES EXAM FOR ANNAPOLIS BERTH

Congressman D. Lane Powers today announced a special examination for Annapolis candidates to be held at the new Trenton Post Office Saturday, February 14th, starting at 9 a.m.

The Congressman asserted the examination was made necessary by creation of an additional vacancy to Annapolis for the 4th Congressional District of New Jersey, as a result of the Navy's program to speed up Annapolis graduations.

Any male resident of Burlington and Mercer Counties, within the age limits prescribed by the Naval Academy, may compete. The examinations will be conducted by the Civil Service Commission.

"In accordance with my usual system," Powers asserted today, "I shall appoint the principal and three alternate candidates for the Annapolis vacancy strictly in accordance with the marks obtained by the candidates in the examination. The young man who receives the highest mark will be named principal and the next three alternates."

"Further, in accordance with my usual system, no political or other preference will be shown. Each candidate will have an equal chance, on merit. Candidates who wish to compete should write me at my Washington office, Room 1440, New House Office Building, and authorizations will be sent them immediately."

On Friday night of this week, Palmyra opposes the strong Merchantville five on the local court.

Riverside will be met away from home on Tuesday, January 27.

Arthur Harmon, of Beverly, was arrested by Chief William Gootee, of the Riverton police last week at Broad and Main streets on the charge of careless driving. The offender, in addition, had no registration card in his possession. He was assessed a fine and costs at a hearing before Recorder William H. Bottger.

Op January 16, Officer Robinson arrested another man for disorderly conduct which included unnecessary blowing of his horn and creating a disturbance. This individual was found guilty by the Recorder and paid a fine and costs.

ROTARY CLUB

the grounds that in China it is not only an army that is resisting but more than 450,000,000 people, unified as never before.

The resistance of an entire people finds expression on the political front, on the military front and on the economic front. So it was in China.

Fight and Retreat

On the military front the army was willing to trade space for time. Time was used to train many thousands of specialized groups for guerrilla warfare. The army strategy was fight and retreat, but always were left behind the guerrilla warriors ever harassing the invader, who is ambushed, stragglers picked off and supply trains demolished. This strategy has demoralized the Japanese.

The fact that 50 million people migrated from their homes ahead of the Japanese advance was at once the greatest problem and the greatest asset on the economic front. Japan destroyed 90 per cent of the modern industry in China, but 50 million people had to be fed and clothed. So, small industries by the hundreds were established in the areas where they found refuge.

It is apparently impossible for the Japanese to find and destroy these little industries which can be moved if they approach. China, in this way, is becoming economically strong.

Schools and universities were moved thousands of miles inland and educated Chinese and those now receiving their education are dedicated to the task of extending that education to the masses.

Mr. Su, in appealing for contributions to the China relief fund, told the amazing results that could be secured from even a small donation and made his appeal not simply as a worthy charity, but as a means of strengthening an ally on the front line of our fight against a common enemy.

Among the guests present were George Durgin, Charles Knight, Peter Bohn, Harvey Moore, Fred Shupik and Ed Sheppard, the latter being stoker on a British ship now docked in American waters.

McDERMOTT-TEIGLAND

The marriage of Miss Anne M. Teigland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Teigland, of 408 Narberth avenue, Haddonfield, and Paul C. McDermott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McDermott, of 729 Cinnaminson street, Riverton, took place on Saturday, January 17 at 10 o'clock in the Sacred Heart Church, Riverton, the Rev. F. J. Coan performing the ceremony. J. Allen Porter, organist, played the wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, designed on princess lines and trimmed with seed pearls at the neckline. Her veil, which extended beyond the long train of her gown, was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Marge Teigland served as maid of honor for her sister, and Miss Helen Buchanan, of Camden, as bridesmaid. Both appeared in aqua gowns fashioned alike, with bodices of silk jersey and full tulle skirts. They wore matching tulle veils and carried bouquets of red roses.

Corporal William J. McDermott, Jr., of Fort Eustis, Virginia, "as his brother's best man, and ushers included Carl T. McDermott, also brother of the groom, Charles Wallace, of Riverton, and Raymond Fichter, of Palmyra.

The bride's mother selected a gown of pale blue silk crepe, with a feather hat and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. McDermott wore wine velvet with matching hat and a corsage of lilies.

A reception at the Birdwood Club, Haddonfield, followed the ceremony, after which the couple left for a wedding trip through the New England states. Mr. and Mrs. McDermott will be at home after February 1 at 818 Highland avenue, Palmyra.

POWERS NAMED TO BOARD OF MILITARY ACADEMY
Congressman D. Lane Powers has been named a member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Military Academy at West Point.

This marks the tenth consecutive year Powers has been on the West Point Board, which operates in the same fashion as the Board of Trustees does in a civilian college. It is believed to be the first time that any Member of the House has served ten times consecutively on the Board.

The appointment of Congressman Powers was based upon his outstanding work as ranking minority Member of the War Department Appropriations Committee.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berridge, of 52 Washington Place, Haddonfield, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred, to Harry Schieble, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schieble, of Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra.

ENGAGED

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bauer, of 515 Maple avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Caroline E., to Donald R. Mount, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Mount, of Plainfield, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding.

CINNAMINSON DEFENSE COUNCIL

The Cinnaminson Defense Council met at the School, Thursday evening, January 15, 1942, the session being attended by a very large group. Harold R. West, chairman, explained briefly the progress made.

Air Raid Warden Dorworth reported that his group was ready to function efficiently, and the men had been reporting faithfully to drills. Mr. William Oliver reported that the First Aid class was progressing rapidly and he feels that with the enthusiasm shown that they will be able to cope with any emergency that may be thrust upon them.

The committee appointed to act as a Clearing House for information is Mrs. Grant, chairman; Mrs. Stowe, and Mr. Whartenby.

Dr. Dickinson and Dr. Bradley are rapidly making progress in setting up emergency hospitals. We need old bed sheets and linen, wrap bandages and etc., for sterilization, and anyone having the material will kindly send it to the school. We also need blankets and coats.

The next meeting will be held at the school. Mr. West would like all citizens in the township to attend. Come out and help us. Mark your calendar—January 27, 1942, 8 p.m.

There is more heroism in self-denial than in deeds of arms.—Seneca. Prove that you can control yourself, and you are an educated man; and without this all other education is good for nothing.—Hitchcock.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of the School District of the Borough of Riverton, in the County of Burlington, that the annual meeting for the election of three (3) members of the Board of Education will be held at the School House, on TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1942 from 7:00 o'clock p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and as much longer as may be necessary, to enable all the legal voters present to cast their ballots.

Three (3) members will be elected 3 years. At said meeting will be submitted the question of voting a tax for the following purposes:

For current expenses	$38,850.00
For repairs and replacements	1,000.00
For manual training	850.00
The total amount thought necessary is	$40,700.00

For bond redemption and interest on bonded indebtedness 5,850.00

Dated This Twentieth day of January, 1942
WILLIAM H. BOTTOEN
District Clerk.

NOTE—The term "current expenses" includes principals', teachers', janitors', and medical inspectors' salaries, fuel, textbooks, school supplies, flags, transportation of pupils, tuition of pupils attending schools in other districts with the consent of the Board of Education, school libraries, compensation of the District Clerk, of the custodian of school moneys and of transient officers, transient schools, insurance and the incidental expenses of the schools.

A member of the Board of Education, shall be at least 21 years of age, a citizen and resident of the school district, and shall have been such a citizen and resident for at least three years immediately preceding his or her becoming a member of such Board, and shall be able to read and write.

Petitions, legally nominating candidates to be voted on at said meeting, must be filed with the District Clerk at least twenty days before the date of the meeting in order to have the names of the candidates printed on the official ballots to be used in voting. In calculating the above-mentioned twenty days either the filing day or the election day but not both may be counted. Blank forms for this purpose may be obtained from the District Clerk.

Persons who may vote in addition to those registered for the last preceding general election and those whose names appear on the permanent registry list of the municipality are those who register at the polling place on the Saturday evening preceding the election between the hours of 7 o'clock and 9 o'clock p.m. Any person may register who is qualified to vote in that district for a member of the legislature.

Warren A. Brown, of Florence, chairman of the Burlington County Council, Boy Scout Finance Committee, announced today that Arthur B. Harris of Moorestown would head the 1942 Scout Council Finance Campaign. Mr. Harris in a statement mentioned that now more than ever before there was a need to carry on the Boy Scout organization. He stated that Scouts were being called upon almost daily and were rendering service to Local Red Cross organizations and Local Defense Councils.

M. M. Klotz and Henry de Holl are chairmen for Palmyra and Riverton.

TIRES ALLOTTED

The following certificates have been given by the Cinnaminson Township Tire Rationing Board up to January 18:

Jacob Schmidt, Jefferson street, Parry, oil dealer, one 30x5 tube.
Clinton Paul, Route 25, farmer, two 60x22 tractor tires. (obsolete)

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

The Junior Basketball League, which plays each Thursday night in the gym of the Riverton Public School is producing some exciting games and rivalry is keen among the six teams that comprise the circuit.

Last week the Lincolns defeated the Pals 30-20 and the Blues nosed out the Farmers 30-26.

Lincoln is leading the loop with a record of three wins and no reverses, while the Blues, in second place, have a standing of 3 and 2. Veitenheimer, of the Pals, is the leading scorer to date.

The league is under the direction of J. Lawton Steele, of Riverton.

NEW MEMBERS WANTED

The Palmyra Drum and Bugle Cadet Corps is seeking new members to replace those who have joined or who expect to join the armed forces in the near future.

Plans are being made for the corps to compete throughout the summer in New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New Jersey.

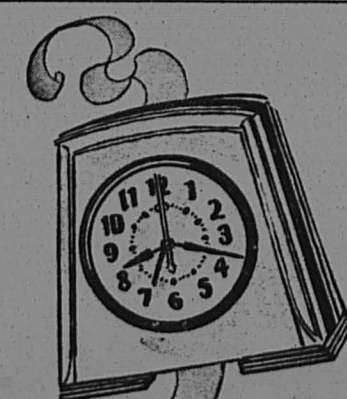

Join now and enjoy an interesting summer. You will get in turn for efforts valuable instructions in music and drilling.

Boys 14 to 17 wanted. Report any Monday night at the Legion Home.

TAKING PICTURES

Two youths were taken into custody on Sunday afternoon near the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge, following their apprehension while taking pictures in the vicinity.

They were given a hearing by Mayor John F. Ward, of Palmyra and their story thoroughly investigated.

Do YOU Keep to Schedule?

Doubtless you are running your home more efficiently than ever, now that you have taken on so many extra activities. Things have to be done by clockwork, if you are to get through the household routine and on to other tasks. . . . Electric appliances can be a big help. Probably you have some that are outmoded and not giving one hundred percent service. Why not have them repaired or replace them with new and up-to-date models? An electric clock is accurate to the second and needs no winding; an electric coffeemaker brews delicious coffee, whether percolated or made by the drip method. Toasters, waffle irons and electric grills all give excellent service. These appliances are moderately priced.

THE "ANGEL" BOOKED ON CAMDEN MAT CARD

Wrestling's outstanding freak, the "French Angel" will be the feature attraction at the Hanly's mat bill scheduled for Monday night in Camden Convention Hall.

This will be Maurice Tillett's (The Angel) third appearance in Camden. The first match he conquered Ernie Dusek and then trailed this with a win over Dynamite Joe Cox. Each of these were spilled with the "bear hug" and he hopes to accomplish the same when he clashes with Leo Numa, the Pacific Coast blond on Monday night. The match is down for one fall to a finish.

Max Krauser will face Ernie Dusek in a match slated for one fall with an hour time limit. Dynamite Joe Cox will oppose Stanley Pinto in a match destined for one fall, with a 30 minute time limit. Another interesting bout is the second fray between

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Thomas Ave. at Seventh St.
Riverton, N. J.

Sunday School, 9:30 a.m.
Sunday Services, 11:30 a.m.
Wednesday, 8:00 p.m.
Reading Room in Church Building, Thomas Avenue and Seventh Street, Riverton, open Tuesday and Friday, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

"Truth" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 25, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "God shall send forth his mercy and his truth." (Psalms 57:3).

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "I will praise thee, O Lord, . . . For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds." (Psalms 57:9, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The question, 'What is Truth,' convulses the world. The efforts of error to answer this question by someology are vain. Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth; yet God is Truth." (pp. 223, 312).

BETHANY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Broad Street and Morgan Avenue
The Rev. Harold Lee Rowe, Pastor
Sunday, January 25, 1942—

10:00—The Church School Session, 11:00 a.m., The Service—The pastor will speak on the Transfiguration Gospel on the theme, "A Glowing Religion." Bethany church is happy at any time to welcome to her worship service visitors and strangers in the community.

6:30 p.m.—The Intermediate Luther League will meet at the church, 8:00, Vespers—At this service the members of the Luther Leagues will present a missionary pageant entitled, "Salaam," which gives facts and figures of the accomplishment of our Lutheran mission in India during the one hundred years of its history. All are invited.

There will be no Fireside hour of the Senior Luther League this Sunday because of this program.

Monday—The monthly meeting of the Church School Officers and teachers will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ingram, 23 E. Charles St.

Wednesday—

7:30—Leadership Training Class at Haddon Heights.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

It is with deep regret that the congregation of Central Baptist Church learned of the death of Rev. Charles Bates, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian Church. Having had a recent experience in which Rev. Bates rendered a faithful Christian service, the sympathy and understanding of the congregation of the Central Baptist Church goes out to the widow of Rev. Bates and the congregation of Calvary Presbyterian Church at this hour.

Services, Sunday, January 25th—

Bible School, 10 a.m.—The school is grateful to Edmund Jones for his services in directing the singing of the school and to Claude Barto who has faithfully accompanied the singing on his violin. Singing is a vital necessity today. In the school, it makes attractive, the opening and closing exercises, and contributes towards the increasing attendance of the school. If you have never visited "Central Baptist," you are invited NOW.

Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m.—"Burden Bearing" will be the topic of the morning sermon. Everyone has, more or less, some individual burdens to bear. Today the world has plenty. How are we going to take them? What means are we going to use to lighten them? These, and many other questions that arise in your mind, will be answered in this morning's message. "Great and Glorious" by Haydn, will be offered by the choir. Mrs. Edward Hughes, soprano, will sing "Consider and Hear Me" by Wooley.

B.Y.P.U., 6:45 p.m.—On last Monday evening the following officers Robert Yerkes; Vice President, Grace Horner; Secretary, Patsy Nash; Treasurer, Charles Weart; Pianist, Anna Mae Yerkes; Assistant Pianist, Irma Barto. On Tuesday evening, January 27th, at 8 o'clock, the County Rally and Hymn Sing of the B.Y.P.U. will be held in the church. Following the meeting, refreshments will be served in the social hall.

Evening Service, 7:45 p.m.—Congregations such as have been attending the evening services are indicative of the interest shown in the service and the good that has resulted. It is most stimulating to a Pastor who endeavors to present to his hearers that impetus that everyone needs in the present day. If you are a stranger here and have no church affiliations, you will find here a very home-like atmosphere and a hearty welcome. "The Wrong Note" will be the Pastor's theme for this service. The choir will sing "Sun of My Soul," by Turner.

Friday at 3:45 the Junior Choir practice and at 7:30 the Senior Choir Practice.

FOOD PRICES ADVANCE ONE PER CENT IN DECEMBER

New Jersey food prices mounted only one per cent in December over the preceding month despite the fact that the country was involved in a fighting war of its own after December 7. The survey of retail food prices issued monthly by the New Jersey State Department of Agriculture showed all commodity groups except eggs and dairy products were higher during the more recent month.

Fresh eggs showed a seasonal decline of 6.37 per cent or a little over 3½ cents per dozen. This is the first decline since March 1941.

—George Jackson.

Dairy products declined 1.13 per cent. This was due to the decline in the average retail price of butter from 42.43 cents to 40.62 cents per pound in December. Cheese advanced slightly from 32.33 to 32.5 cents per pound and fresh milk and evaporated milk remained at 15.55 and 8.15 cents respectively.

SERVICE MEN RECEIVE LOCAL NEWSPAPERS

The Junior Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Robert May, assisted by Alfred Wohlwend and Henry Naisby, has obtained over 150 addresses of the men of Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson who are now serving this great nation. The New Era is being mailed to the Riverton and Cinnaminson men drafted into service. The Junior Chamber of Commerce desire to thank Earl Whitcraft, who has aided the group in obtaining many names of men in the service.

The magazine "Future" which is published and printed by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce at Washington, is mailed to each member of the local unit.

Westfield Friends' School

January 20, 1942

The weekly assembly held last Friday was conducted by Joan Anderson and Jon Krusen. A varied program was presented including songs, reports on books and magazines, and timely announcements.

Jane Carpenter read the list of suggestions for promoting better citizenship, which was compiled by the Upper Groups. The list is composed of the following:

1. Save money and buy Defense Stamps and Bonds.
2. Keep in good health.
3. Don't waste materials of any kind.
4. Know what a democracy means to you.
5. Discipline yourself.
6. Be obedient.
7. Face facts and don't be afraid.
8. Do your share.

The children in the Kindergarten are engrossed in the problem of planning and making furniture for the house, and since the Pre-kindergarten needs lockers, the young carpenters are making these also from orange crates.

The Pre-kindergarten class is having fun playing firemen, policemen, service men and engineers. The entire group is adapting itself nicely to indoor and outdoor activity.

RIVERTON P.T.A.

The Riverton P.T.A. met on Monday evening, January 19, the occasion being "Father's Night" with Dewees Showell in charge of the program.

Miss Bertha Lawrence, Professor of Education and Chairman of Secondary Curriculum, at Trenton State Teachers College, was the speaker. She gave a very interesting talk and said that ideals were very important to all children in their education. Everyone needs someone who believes in him. Good, sound knowledge should be given along with books, she said.

ANOTHER ATLANTIC SERVICE STATION

HAS BEEN ADDED TO THE MANAGEMENT OF

PAUL J. SCHNEIDER

The well-known and conveniently located Atlantic Station at Riverton Road and Route 25 (Formerly Harbeson's) is now under the direction of Mr. Schneider, in addition to his original station at Broad Street and Morgan Avenue, Palmyra.

The same efficient Atlantic Service will be rendered at both Stations.

YOUR PATRONAGE WILL BE APPRECIATED

PAUL J. SCHNEIDER

Manager

Teachers, parents and the church all have to cooperate. Truth must be taught and the home and community must work together.

The plants for attendance were won by Miss Gardner's and Miss Murgatroy's classes. G. Edward McCoursey, Superintendent of Schools, Millville, N. J., was the baritone soloist. His three selections were "Tommy Lad," "Captain Mack," and "Silvia."

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. Don't forget annual Talent Day on February 16th.

OBITUARIES

EMMA BROWN

Emma Brown, wife of the late Eli W. Brown, of 407 Thomas avenue, died on Monday, January 19.

Funeral services will be held today, (Thursday) at 2 p.m., from the Snover Funeral Home, the Rev. Francis B. Downs officiating.

Interment will be made in Morgan Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Robert and Eli, and a brother, Robert H. Clelland, of Riverton.

ABOUT TOWN

A covered dish luncheon will be held at the Sacred Heart School on Wednesday, January 28, at 1 p.m., with Mrs. Kavanagh in charge. The admission will be 25 cents and a covered dish.

A Red Cross knitting party will be held at the Sacred Heart School on Thursday, January 29, at 8 p.m. Knitters are cordially invited.

Mrs. Robert H. Strahan, of 218 Linden avenue, entertained on Tuesday in honor of the fourth birthday of her son, Robert H. Strahan, Jr. Guests were Jack McFeeley, of Had-donfield; Jimmy Fort, of German-ton; Pa., Benjamin Hinkle, of Glen-dora; Billy Mickel and Edward Mil-ler, Jr., of Palmyra; and Gene Mon-tagne, Robert Wright and Ronald and Jack Watkins, of Riverton.

Fred Wiggins, of Washington avenue, reported today to the United States Army at Camp Croft, S. C. He attended the University of Pennsylvania, completing a four year course in R.O.T.C. work and has a rating of a 2nd Lieutenant.

Joseph Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Rogers, of Palmyra, a member of the United States Marines Reserve, will leave in the near future for instruction at an officers' training school.

The directors of the Riverton-Cinnaminson Welfare Association met on Tuesday night of this week in the home of Charles Evans, Riverton-Moorestown road.

ENEMY ALIENS MUST REGISTER IN FEBRUARY

Attorney General Francis Biddle has announced new regulations affecting the conduct of German, Italian and Japanese nationals throughout continental United States. The new regulations, issued under authority of the Presidential proclamation of January 14, 1942, relating to alien enemies, require all German, Italian and Japanese aliens to apply at the nearest first or second class, or county seat, post office for a Certificate of Identification. The requirement applies to all enemy national 14 years of age or over who have not yet taken the oath of allegiance before a Federal judge, the final step in acquiring American citizenship.

All German, Italian and Japanese nationals residing in the Eastern United States are required to file applications at the nearest first or second class, or county seat, post office between February 9 and February 28, 1942, inclusive.

Failure to comply with the new regulations may be punished by severe penalties, including possible internment of the enemy alien for the duration of the war.

The regulations require enemy aliens, in applying for identification certificates, to provide a photograph of themselves (to be attached to the identity card) and to answer a number of questions concerning their current activities. Printed directions for the filing of applications will shortly be available at post offices.

The regulations provide that after a careful check has been made of each application, the applicant will be provided with a Certificate of Identification bearing his photograph, index fingerprint and signature. He will thereafter be required to carry the certificate with him at all times.

LOCAL AIRCRAFT WARNING SERVICE

The Aircraft Observation Post at Palmyra has been on twenty-four hour duty for over seven weeks and the schedule has been arranged to meet the requirements of most of our volunteers. The majority of the shifts are two hours in length, against four hours in some communities. Additional items for the comfort of the workers are being added as money is available. As there is no money appropriated for this work all the equipment has been donated or bought from money contributed.

The spirit of cooperation among the volunteers is practically perfect. Complaints are very few. Everyone who has helped man the observation post, high school students, high school and grade school teachers, adults and the lady volunteers are to be congratulated on their fine spirit of cooperation. It is hoped that in the very near future additional improvements in room and heating will be available.

New Volunteers Welcome

Those in charge state that they are at present equipped to continue with the present set up but new volunteers will be welcome to give some of the men who have served once a week since the opening a rest. On the other hand as many people as possible should learn the duties required and also get a better idea of airplanes and their different characteristics in daylight or at night. It is interesting work and also educational.

The Observation Post was opened by Clinton B. Gardner of the high school and two students, Lloyd Musser and Robert Rowan. Mr. Harold Marshall and Roy Austin were the first two adults to take over. The Post has never been closed and according to the records and those of Army Headquarters very few, if any, planes have been missed that passed within sight or hearing.

Donations

The executive council consists of three Legionnaires—Avery Willis, in charge; Clinton B. Gardner, scheduled; and J. Russell Musser. Volunteers should get in touch with one of the three men. Mr. Willis phone 910-R-3; Mr. Gardner 521-M and Mr. Musser 709-W.

Donation bottles have been placed in the Palmyra post office and the A. & P. Super Market in Palmyra. The contributions given are used for incidental expenses. Anyone wishing to visit the Post may also contact one of the above men. Questions will be answered as accurately as possible.

COUNTRY SQUARE DANCE

Christ Church Parish House is the place, A Square Dance is the party, The time; Friday thirteenth, this year of grace—

The result: laughs, loud and hearty. We hope you'll come and bring your friends, The cost is negligible. And when the fun and dancing ends

You'll say it was worth double. If your dancing days are done And exercise drives you frantic, Come anyway and get your fun Watching our Country Folk's antics.

For information please get in touch with the following ladies: Mrs. Edwin Ochs, chairman of tickets; Mrs. Herbert Kieckhefer, Mrs. Gardner Crowell, Mrs. Francis Downs, Mrs. Ralph Flower, chairman of refreshments; Mrs. Winfield Wilson, Mrs. Henry Randall, Mrs. Douglas Clark, chairman of decoration; Mrs. Edward Hughes, Mrs. Bruce Dickson, Mrs. Lynn Hendrickson, Mrs. Stewart Borger, chairman of dancing; Mrs. C. New Volunteers Welcome

Those in charge state that they are at present equipped to continue with the present set up but new volunteers will be welcome to give some of the men who have served once a week since the opening a rest. On the other hand as many people as possible should learn the duties required and also get a better idea of airplanes and their different characteristics in daylight or at night. It is interesting work and also educational.

The Observation Post was opened by Clinton B. Gardner of the high school and two students, Lloyd Musser and Robert Rowan. Mr. Harold Marshall and Roy Austin were the first two adults to take over. The Post has never been closed and according to the records and those of Army Headquarters very few, if any, planes have been missed that passed within sight or hearing.

Donations

The executive council consists of three Legionnaires—Avery Willis, in charge; Clinton B. Gardner, scheduled; and J. Russell Musser. Volunteers should get in touch with one of the three men. Mr. Willis phone 910-R-3; Mr. Gardner 521-M and Mr. Musser 709-W.

Donation bottles have been placed in the Palmyra post office and the A. & P. Super Market in Palmyra. The contributions given are used for incidental expenses. Anyone wishing to visit the Post may also contact one of the above men. Questions will be answered as accurately as possible.

BUDGET NOTICE

The Budget Notice for Cinnaminson Township is published in full on page 3 of this issue of The New Era. The budget has been approved by the Township Committee and will be considered for final adoption on Tuesday, February 10, at which time a public hearing will be held in the Cinnaminson School at 8 p.m.

COUNTY TAXES UP THREE CENTS

Burlington county's estimated 1942 tax rate is $1.139 per $100 of valuation. This is approximately three cents higher than last year.

The county's 1942 budget was passed by the Board of Freeholders, meeting in special session, last Friday morning.

The amount to be raised by taxation is $648,298.93, as compared to $637,494.32 in 1941.

Inclusion of appropriations for a county home demonstration agent, a down payment on funds to build a new bridge on Pine street, Mt. Holly and for a new heating plant at the Hospital for the Insane at New Lisbon, were the only new items on the budget.

Appropriation of $100,000 in revenues, to be provided from Motor Vehicle Funds due the state, reduced the amount to be raised by taxation.

While the budget was not approved by a unanimous vote of the Freeholders, the measure received a majority of three votes. Director Albert C. Jones, Freeholders LeRoy Church and John M. Chant, voted in favor, while Clarence G. Price and Frederick C. Norcross, Jr., voted against it.

Norcross and Price protested an appropriation amounting to $35,000 for retirement of road bonds, which will have to be raised by taxation this year. For several previous years no road or bridge funds have been raised by direct taxation. The bond issue was made last year to provide funds to reconstruct five county roads. At the time the bond issue was approved, Price said that he favored it because he had been informed that payment of the bonds would come from additional motor vehicle funds to be received this year by the county. These funds are not now available.

Director Jones, replying to Price's protest, said that at the time the bonds were issued legislation had been presented to increase county grants of state funds, but that up to the present time the new law had not been passed by the Legislature.

"If the bond retirement funds were taken from the regular road and bridge budgets, which are now paid by state money, neither department could operate after September," Director Jones is reported to have said. He added that he believed the budget is "fair and the best that could be drawn under the circumstances."

Total appropriations are $1,640,336.43, of which $45,595.82 are state taxes appropriated. Permanent registration, provided in a state law, was vetoed by the Freeholders, who failed to appropriate sums said to be needed to put this into operation.

GROUND HOG ON DISPLAY

We can't tell you now if the Ground Hog will see his shadow next Monday but we can tell you where you can see what a Ground Hog looks like.

A stuffed one is on display at the Riverton Market House, ably by Mr. Charles B. Jessup of Riverton.

Cliff Taylor, the proprietor of the store says that up to now very few people have been able to recognize the animal as the famous Mr. Ground Hog.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS FEB. 10

Annual school board elections will be held in Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson on Tuesday evening, February 10, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

In Riverton, Richard M. Woodward and Thomas R. Taylor will be candidates for re-election. The other incumbent, whose term expires this year, Arthur H. Burns, will not run for another term. Two new candidates have filed petitions with the district clerk, William H. Botger. These are Charles F. Earp, Jr., of Eighth street and W. Brooks Evert, of Thomas avenue. Three candidates will be elected by the voters.

Other Localities

In Cinnaminson the terms of two board members expire this year, these being Mrs. James Davidson and Maurice Conrow. Mr. Conrow has resigned his intention of being a candidate for re-election. Mrs. Davidson will not seek another term and a petition has been filed by Marie M. Haines. With two candidates in the field and two vacancies existing, there appears to be little chance of a contest in the township.

The terms of three board members expire in Palmyra. Those who have filed petitions, all incumbents, are Carl W. Lutz, James B. Henson and George Rivel.

The Porch Club

The monthly business meeting will be held Tuesday, February 3, at 2:30 p.m. in the club. At the conclusion of the session, the Clinton P. Mayfield, chairman of the committee on International Relations will have charge of the program and a sound film "Crisis in the Atlantic" will be shown at this time.

This film will show how the United States is working to keep the sea lanes open to England for shipping; how the coast is being patrolled; the United States-Canada defense efforts and how the country is working to establish bases from the Arctic to the South Atlantic.

RED CROSS NEWS

The scope and intensity of the work of the Red Cross was evidenced at the Board meeting held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Nathan Lane of the Riverton Branch.

Reports from chairmen of 13 volunteer Service Committees, all of whom have been doing real work, were given in full.

There are 87 people completing the First Aid Course, after which an advanced course will be given.

Ten women finished the Home Nursing Course and received their certificates at the Porch Club, Tuesday. Another Home Nursing course will be started shortly. Those interested in taking this course call Mrs. J. P. Abell, Riverton 959.

Production has been slowed up somewhat by lack of materials. Not only are manufacturers having difficulty in filling orders promptly, but transportation is also retarded on the delivery of materials. There is a shortage of wool, so please be patient when material is not available at the moment. The trouble does not lie with the local Branch.

There is still an insufficient number of books at Fort Dix. Look through your book cases and select any that you can give away that will be of real interest to men. They want mystery stories as well as the science books and leave them at the Riverton Library.

The Porch Club and the Sacred Heart School have been designated as canteen centers in case of emergency. In addition to this a course will be given to prepare workers for these centers. This course will be taught by Miss C. R. Pennell, who is employed by the Public Service Company. It will cover a period of 20 hours, probably conducted in two hour classes. Those wishing to take this course call Mrs. E. K. Merrill, Riverton 659-J. The classes will probably start in three weeks, but the exact day has not as yet been determined. If you are interested make your reservations early as there will be volunteers from other towns and the class will not accommodate more than 50 people.

RED CROSS NURSE'S AIDE
COURSE STARTING SOON

The Burlington County Chapter of the American Red Cross will start a Nurse's Aide Course sometime within the next two or three weeks. This course is given for the purpose of training women to relieve the trained nurses in hospitals and to give the simple routine duties and to give the hospitals more trained help in time of emergency.

Any woman who is between 18 and 50, who has had the equivalent of High School education, and who has passed a satisfactory physical examination can take the course. There is a great need for Nurse's Aides in this county, and anyone who is interested please get in touch with Nancy Clark, Golf Road, Riverton, (Tel. Riverton 757) as soon as possible.

Nurse's Aide Chairman,

TELLS CLUB MEMBERS
ABOUT N. J. COURTS

A comprehensive survey of the courts of New Jersey was presented to the members of the Business and Professional Men's Club of Palmyra and Riverton on Tuesday of this week, when the speaker was Linwood C. Lord, former prosecutor of Gloucester county.

Mr. Lord, a well-known South Jersey attorney, told of the functions of each of the courts which operate in this State, together with the number of judges, the salaries they are paid and their various duties.

The highest court of that of Errors and Appeals. Going from the highest to the lowest, those next in order are: New Jersey Supreme Court, Court of Chancery, Circuit Court, of which there are 14 in the state; Court of Pardons, the Court of Common Pleas, of which there is one in each county and the courts presided over by Justices of the Peace which are very numerous.

The Court of Common Pleas, presided over by a single judge, probably has the most varied duties, since it hears cases presented in the Orphans' Court, the District Court and the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

The top salary paid to any New Jersey jurist, according to Mr. Lord, is the sum of $18,500 which is the recompense allotted to the Chief Justice of the Court of Errors and Appeals.

YVCA NOTES

Advisers of the 38 Girl Reserve clubs in Burlington County will hold their first round-table discussion at a supper-meeting at the Friends Meeting House, Mount Holly, Tuesday evening, February 3.

This meeting will bring together the advisers, the county girls' work secretary and members of the Girls' Work Committee of the county YVCA board, all of whom are interested in and working with Girl Reserves in the county. The subject of the discussion will be "Defense and Adolescents." It will center chiefly around two problems—the effect of present world conditions on adolescents and how their needs can best be met by the YVCA.

Discussion leaders will be Mrs. John W. Thatcher of Moorestown, chairman of the county Girls' Work Committee; Mrs. May B. Hendon, chairman of the Girl Reserve Club at the Bordentown Manual Training School, and Miss Martha J. Berry, adviser of the Bordentown High School Girl Reserves. Supper arrangements are in the hands of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Beverly, and Mrs. Frank D. Smith of Rancocas, both of whom are members of the Girls' Work Committee.

With increasing problems confronting the adolescent, the work being accomplished in Girl Reserve clubs becomes even more important and essential, according to authorities in this field. Individuals serving as advisers and as members of committees, these authorities claim, are indeed doing defense work.

DUSEKS FEATURE
ARMORY MAT CARD

Those fans who feast on a rough and ready match will get their fill of this type of wrestling Monday night in Camden Convention Hall as the Hanlys are featuring three of the four Duseks, along with a new giant Polish sensation and other top fight names. The final encounter is a return match between Ernie Dusek and Max Krauser, European champion. The bout is limited to 90 minutes with the best two out of three falls to decide the winner.

Emil Dusek will be seen in the semi-windup pitted against Pat Fraley. Rowdy Rudy will take on Leo Numa in the other bout to round out the Dusek program.

Wladislaw Talon, who tips the scales at 290 pounds and stands six feet and 9 inches, will make his debut with Milo Steinborn. The other match shows Dynamite Joe Cox stacked up with Hans Kamper in the curtain raiser.

Charlie Noble is the sailor's nautical name for the galley smoke pipe.

NEWCOMB REPORTS ABOUT FAIRVIEW

Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb, superintendent and medical director of Fairview Sanatorium, recently submitted his annual report for the year 1941 to the Burlington County Board of Freeholders. Excerpts from this report follow:

During the year, there were 96 admissions, 60 discharges, and 31 deaths.

Of the admissions, 53 were far advanced, 8 were incipient, 14 were for observation, 2 non-tuberculous, 1 tuberculous empyema, 1 far advanced with possible silicosis, and 1 tuberculous abscess and empyema.

Of the discharges, 4 were arrested, 5 were apparently arrested, 7 were quiescent, 1 was arrested-tuberculous pleurisy, 1 was quiescent-minimal, 15 were unimproved, 23 were improved, 1 was apparently arrested with tuberculous spondylitis, 2 were non-tuberculous, and 1 was not diagnosed.

We have had 31 deaths this year. This is five less than last year, and it is an excellent record when we consider that of all our admissions only eight were in the early stages of tuberculosis. We have had some patients admitted that lived only a few hours. It is easy to understand why we have this number of deaths when we have to admit patients in a moribund condition.

Reports

Departmental reports show a vast amount of work accomplished. These are summarized as follows: X-rays, 2,329; clinical, 4,345 treatments; dental, 665 treatments; laboratory, 9,191 tests; surgical, 13 operations.

I wish to call your attention to the increase in work done in our X-ray Department. This is due to the campaign we have been putting on, urging more X-ray pictures among the people who think they are well. This has resulted in finding a number of early cases of tuberculosis. We hope to increase this work during the coming year.

Clinical Report—4,345 treatments. Farm Report—Our farm has been under the direction of William H. Reeves, business manager, and in spite of the extremely dry season, we are able to present a report which shows a net profit of $671.83. We are planning to raise more vegetables during the coming year.

The daily average number of patients for the year was 104.52. Our daily average for Burlington County patients was 65.96. The total number of Burlington County patient days was 21,750. The total number of patient days was 38,153. The daily average of patients and Burlington County patients has increased over last year. At the present time we have 80 patients from Burlington County, which is the greatest number we have ever had.

Financial Report

Spent for Maintenance—$115,809.91. Received from Patients—$52,142.14. Received from State—$20,905.63. Paid County Treasurer—$73,047.77. Cost to Taxpayers—$42,762.14.

In some sections of the country the tuberculosis curve is rising. This is due to the past depression, overcrowding, and insufficient food and clothing. We may expect a further increase due to the present World War. While the examination for soldiers in this war is much more thorough than in the last World War, there will be a number of men that will break down under the hardships of military service. This may tax the capacity of our institution, and may necessitate an addition to our building to increase our bed capacity.

Needs

I desire to call your attention to the over crowded condition in our Nurses' Home. The individual rooms were built for one nurse. At the present time we have several rooms with two nurses in each. This causes a great deal of dissatisfaction. We are having a great deal of difficulty in securing nurses, and the room shortage adds to our problem. As you know, we already have $5,439.23 in bank, given us by Mrs. Ida Cook. This money can be used for nothing except new buildings. I hope the Township Committee has made an appropriation of $500.00 for same. They also need that they should anticipate $10,000.00 of Cash Surplus this year in order to help keep the tax rate down. They also need that they should anticipate $10,000.00 of Cash Surplus this year as above stated your tax rate will be reduced about .32.

SAVE OLD TAGS

With more than 3,000,000 motorists in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the District of Columbia preparing to discard their 1941 license tags, the Keystone Automobile Club announced this week it will serve as a reclamation agency to convert the old tags to war needs.

Every office of the club in the two States and the District will receive tags as they are replaced by 1942 plates and turn them over to the government. Maryland has decided to use the old tags this year. A small corner plate with the numerals 1942 and a serial number will be issued for installation on present tags.

"The need for scrap metals is strongly emphasized," said J. Maxwell Smith, President of the Club, "and the coincidence of the March 31 deadline for old tags will make available at one time a tremendous volume of scrap."

"Under ordinary conditions, discarded tags probably would find their way into junkyards over a period of months. Our plan is to make every club office a receiving station so that rapid accumulations of the defense metal can be made available for early use in the steel mills."

"Some of our members have volunteered to act as collectors in their own neighborhoods, turning over to the nearest club office all the tags thus gathered together."

"It is our hope that all motorists will make sure their old tags are put to patriotic use, and we shall co-operate in every way to make the amassing of this needed scrap as impressive as possible."

Club offices where tags will be received are as follows: Camden, N.J., Frankford, Pa., Philadelphia, Pa., Trenton, N. J.

U. S. Marines used amphibious tanks in the Panama Canal maneuvers at Culebra Island in 1924. These tanks made ten miles an hour in the water and 30 miles on land.

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given to the legal voters of the School District of the Township of Cinnaminson in the County of Burlington that the annual meeting for the election of two members of the Board of Education will be held at the Westfield Public School on TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1942, from 7 o'clock p.m. to 9 o'clock p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) and as long as the legal voters present to cast their ballots. At said meeting will be submitted the question of voting a tax for the following purposes:

For Current Expenses . . . $45,025.00
For Repairs and Replacements . . . 3,000.00
For Manual Training . . . 800.00

The total thought to be necessary is $48,825.00. The following proposition will also be submitted: To transfer the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) from the Current Expense Account to the Repair and Replacement Account.

Dated this 28th day of January, 1942.

BRIEF ITEMS from ABOUT TOWN

Alpha Pi Lambda Sorority will give a dance Saturday evening, January 31, in the Riverton Public School for the benefit of the "March of Dimes" campaign.

A number of local residents are planning to attend the 20th annual Pre-Lenten Ball of the Knights of Columbus, Camden Council No. 439, which will take place on Friday evening, February 13th, at the Walt Whitman Hotel, Camden.

Two thousand invitations have been issued. This annual affair is the outstanding social function of South Jersey, and persons prominent in State, County and City affairs will attend.

Among the guests at the meeting of the local Rotary Club last week were John Ward, Mayor of Palmyra and J. T. Weart and Rev. Francis B. Downs of the Defense Councils of Palmyra and Riverton respectively. Dr. Paul McCray and R. H. Brierly from the Camden Rotary Club were also present.

A number of building and loan association officials from this section attended the meeting of the Camden County Building and Loan Association held on Tuesday night of this week. A feature of the program was the showing of the movie "Burma Road."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doughten, of 603 Linden avenue, attended the wedding of Miss Josephine Masey, of Plainfield, and Carl Weniger, of Bound Brook, last Friday evening at Plainfield. Mr. Weniger formerly lived in Riverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doughten, of Linden avenue, with their young son and daughter, spent Sunday in Atlantic City visiting friends.

Corporal Thomas Cahill, of Palmyra, has been promoted to Sergeant. He is stationed at Fort DuPont, Delaware.

George Bonsal, of Lincoln avenue, is reported improving nicely after an operation at the Zurbrugg Memorial Hospital, Riverside. Mr. Bonwall is expected home this week.

The sewing group of the K. of C. Auxiliary met on Tuesday night of this week at the home of Mrs. Robert Woods, of Columbia avenue, Palmyra, and made garments for the Needlework Guild and the Zurbrugg Memorial Hospital.

Miss Liliane Marshall returned Wednesday to the New Jersey College for Women after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Marshall, of 103 Morgan avenue.

Have you made up your table for the annual Library Bridge, sponsored by the Porch Club? The date is Tuesday, February 17th, at 2 p.m. Tickets are 50 cents plus 5 cents tax. There will be prizes and tea will be served.

Are you planning a vegetable or a flower garden for this summer? The garden section of the club would like to help you in your selection of seeds and is planning an open evening in March to tell you all about it. The speaker and date will be announced later.

At a meeting of the banquet committee of the Riverton Yacht Club, headed by Giles Knight, it was decided to hold the banquet on Saturday, February 21, at 7:30 p.m., at the Riverton Country Club. Those planning to attend are requested to make their reservations early in order that arrangements may be made for the correct number. The cost will be $1.50 per person.

A food sale will be held for the benefit of the Red Cross in the store located at 531 Cinnaminson avenue, Palmyra, on Friday, January 30, starting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. G. Ellsworth Hall, of Palmyra, who has charge of the affair, states that there will be a complete line of home-made baked goods, including rolls, pies, cakes, etc., in addition to baked beans, candy and other items. As the proceeds of the sale will go to the Red Cross, the patronage of local residents will be greatly appreciated by those in charge.

Corporal Nelson J. Ross, of Palmyra, has been promoted to Sergeant. He is stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Buddy DeLaney and his orchestra, featuring Betty Parker and Eddie Ratcliffe, vocalists, will furnish the music for the President's Birthday Ball to be held on Saturday evening at the Germantown Cricket Club, Germantown, Pa.

Dr. John R. Siddall and mother, Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall, spent Saturday in Washington, D. C. Dr. Siddall returned to the Sloane Hospital for Women, New York City, on Sunday, where he is specializing in obstetrics.

PLANTS FOR YOUR GARDEN

By A. C. McLean
Extension Service, N. J. College

HARDY TRUMPET-CREEPER

One of the very showy vines is the hardy Trumpet-creeper or Campsis, which produces masses of tubular orange flowers through many weeks in the summer when showy plants are few in number. This old-fashioned plant sometimes has a bad reputation because of its tendency to become rampant, but as blooms are produced on new wood, it will stand almost any amount of pruning and is fairly easy to keep in shape. Trumpet-creeper is frequently very useful for covering unsightly walls, fences and even old trees and stumps.

Then, there is the even more spectacular and distinctive Chinese Trumpet-creeper, usually listed in catalogues as Campsis or Bignonia grandiflora. This is very showy and has larger flowers than the ordinary kind. In exposed situations, this Chinese species may not be quite hardy, but it may be protected easily. Better still, favor it a little by selecting a situation protected from drying winter winds and in well-drained, porous soil that will encourage thorough ripening of the season's growth.

A hybrid between this Chinese Trumpet-creeper and the American one also has very attractive flowers. This is worth growing, and it is offered by many nurseries at a moderate price. These rapid-growing vines offer attractive possibilities for boundaries and fences enclosing home gardens, particularly when it is understood that they should be pruned hard and kept within bounds. They are well adapted to our climate and will grow in most any well-drained soil.

RELATIONSHIP OF RED CROSS AND CIVIL DEFENSE

The State Defense Council announced this week that it would heartily support a recent policy statement made by the federal Office of Civilian Defense and the American Red Cross governing the relationship between civilian defense agencies and the Red Cross chapters.

According to the agreement, services required in civilian defense activities will be made available by chapters to Defense Councils in accordance with the policies as made in the statement. The statement said, "Chapters will cooperate to the fullest extent and during the period of emergency will operate subject to the authority of the Defense Councils or appropriate governmental officials. Red Cross at all times will maintain administrative and financial control of its immediate operations."

The Red Cross through its national chairman, who is a member of the Civilian Protection Board, has made available all of its services as needed by state and local Defense Councils. Recognizing the basic respon-

REVUE FEBRUARY 13th

The Camden Truck Drivers C. U. of Local 676 have made arrangements for the staging of a unique show, February 13th at the Convention Hall in order to establish a fund for their defense and welfare activities which will include the distribution of gift packages to union members and friends of members who are serving in the armed forces of our country.

The show will be presented by a professional cast and will depict scenes from the various wars that

With only a few minutes to play the homesteaders led 32-31, but the Rees sank two from the floor in quick succession to take a three point advantage. Riverton got another two-point lead, but Burlington countered with a brace of free throws and a brace of doubletons to boost their total to 40. The locals sank their final goal as the whistle ended the affair.

Chapters will expand Red Cross services and training courses within the scope of their responsibility so that they may be prepared to give such services as needed in the local programs of Defense Councils. Chapters will be prepared to furnish disaster relief, first aid training, nurses' aides training and Red Cross home nursing training.

Chapters will assist local Defense Councils in rescue work and emergency medical care and nutrition aides—both service and training.

State Defense Council has urged all County Medical Societies to offer the services of their members to Red Cross Chapters as First Aid Instructors. First aid classes are now being given in 20 municipalities and several counties.

RIVERTON DROPS CLOSE CONTEST, SCORE 40-36

A large crowd attended the "Appreciation Night" festivities staged by the Riverton A. A. last week in the gym of the public school and, in addition, witnessed a hard fought court game between the local outfit and the Burlington Rees, who now lead their division in the Burlington County Basketball League by virtue of their 40-36 win.

Between the halves various prizes were awarded, including a gift to Raymond Callaghan, local physical education instructor who has ably assisted the Riverton A. A. Mr. Callaghan leaves this week to undertake a new position at Scotch Plains.

Albert J. Farrow acted as master of ceremonies, assisted by Coach Russell Blackburne and Hal Wagner, of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Even Terms

Riverton handicapped by the lack of reserves, there being only six men in uniform, held the fast Burlington outfit on even terms throughout most of the engagement, with the diminutive Rothbaum playing a magnificent game against his taller opponents. The half ended with the count deadlocked at 18-all, with neither team being able to forge out in front by more than a point or two.

The third period was a repetition of the first two, with the invaders in the van as the score read 25-24.

AS I SEE IT

By FRANK LEE SAYID

With the apparent need to get automobiles off the road, the powers that be have smartly struck at the root of the problem and thereby avoided a lot of laborious pruning of the branches which would have required organization on a score of fronts properly to police. We need the material going into batteries, brake linings, bearings, etc., for our war effort. Instead of dealing with each one separately the embargo on tires automatically disposes of the others.

The more cars forced off the road by tire restrictions, the less need for rationing boards and machinery of control for all the other items required to keep cars in condition to run. And if rubber proves more plentiful than is now supposed, there is always gasoline to fall back on to accomplish the end. So we might as well make up our minds to less use of automobiles and voluntarily conserve the valuable supplies of which rubber is the chief symbol at present.

Of course this whole question of conservation is a puzzling one. Word gets around that waste paper is valuable and everyone should save newspapers. A leading citizen writes the local newspaper advising the Welfare Association to earn its way by collecting such paper and selling it. The Scouts, however, had thought of that first and are nursing the headache it involves. It quickly develops that newspapers are more or less a drug on the market. What is needed most is heavy bodied papers—that is papers with long strong fibres and that is not found in quantity. So it must be accumulated somewhere until about ten tons are available to make the costly haul to point of sale worth while.

But this kind of paper from householders does not come all nicely folded like a newspaper. So that complicates the storage problem and the fire risk and the nuisance angle. Furthermore it must be baled.

We suspect our own interest in scouting would flag if it involved giving all our Saturdays to excursions in the cellars of our neighbors, overseeing the high spirit of exploration with which a boy of scout age is endowed; giving all our Sundays to efforts to borrow a truck for the next week; giving all our evenings to sorting and baling in our own cellar, where the stuff is stored in violation of all fine print on the back of our fire insurance policy.

Even the Welfare Board might be forgiven a reluctance to so spend its time, although the suggestion presupposed it would be undertaken by recipients of relief. As a matter of fact, however, there are no able bodied available in this category. And somehow we feel devoted public servant though he is, that the Councilman who heads the Welfare Association might spend his time in more profitable ways than in over-seeing the scrap paper business.

We know a good lady that has, for a year or more, been separating tin foil from the paper backing on which it is so generously used. She has quite a pile of it. The theory is it has usefulness and value. But who wants it and for what she hasn't the faintest idea. In fact it was not so long ago prior to World War II that she threw away the collection she made during World War I.

Meanwhile all the scientific genius of America has not found a usefulness for the discarded tin can which desecrates all our public places. There indeed is something on which to work! In the country we mash them flat with an axe and bury them—bestowing $1.16 worth of labor on containers worth 29 cents new-including contents. Here in town we prayerfully hope that the gentleman we have coaxed and paid to take them away does not drop them in the center of Memorial Park.

PALMYRA DROPS CLOSE GAME HERE FRIDAY

Merchantville proved to have something in reserve during the last three minutes of the basketball game with Palmyra played here last Friday night and the invaders left the floor on the long end of a 21-18 count in a fracas that was marked by extremely close guarding throughout. A capacity crowd viewed the proceedings.

Both teams started off cautiously and the net result after eight minutes of pastime was a foul for Merchantville and a two-pointer for Palmyra, the same being coined by Henson.

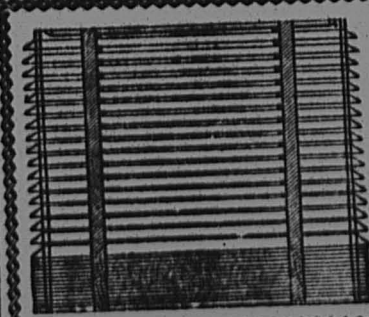

The opposition picked up a brace of field goals in the second stanza and managed to hold the Diamond-men scoreless.

Scoring Picks Up

After the half, Palmyra started to connect, pulled up on even terms at 6-6, then forged ahead with two more from the floor. Merchantville still had plenty of fight and came back strong. Both teams were able to tally now and then and the locals boasted a two point advantage as the quarter ended 13-11. Henson converted two free tosses and followed with a doublet. The enemy got two points back, but the Red and White still had a four point lead with only five minutes of play remaining.

At this stage Palmyra was unable to stave off the final Merchantville rally and the count was soon knotted at 17-all. From there the invaders got two free throws and a field goal while holding Palmyra to one lone point. The Red and White had numerous shots, but failed to connect.

Coming Games

On Friday of this week, the locals travel to Moorestown for a return engagement with the Quakers. Palmyra won the first game of the series.

On Tuesday, the Diamondmen clash with Camden Catholic. This game will also be played away from home.

Watch Defense Contracts

There has been a great deal of talk about cutting down non-defense and non-military expenditures, in this time when the country is spending billions for the protection of the country and its possessions.

That this should be done goes almost without saying. Wherever bureaus, now useless because of changing conditions, which have converted depression into war-time prosperity, can be eliminated, this should be done. The recommendation for this has been made by high officials of the government and statesmen of both political parties. These statements and suggestions should be written into law by Congress.

Since our expenditures for war and defense are so great then we must trim the budget and cut financial corners elsewhere whenever it is possible.

It follows therefore that some attention should be paid to the awarding of defense contracts. In the confusion relative to the speed-up for defense and war it is only natural that some things will get by that are indefensible.

A senatorial investigating committee is on the job and has already made some disclosures which ought to bring a serious contemplative pause to every patriotic American. It is said, according to the disclosures, that one man, a promoter in fact, through contracts has within a few months run a $5,000 stake in an American and British holding company up to millions.

To his original $5,000 it is alleged the promoter added $25,000 borrowed money, as a payment on a broken down steel mill. Enlisting the services of two or three politicians well known at Washington it is said the promoter, adding a small shipyard at Savannah, secured contracts to build twelve merchantmen. It is alleged that the prices allowed for steel were far too high and that the company is scheduled to make something like $1,300,000 profit on the contracts.

It is to be hoped that the senatorial investigating committee will continue its probe of this kind of business. Any war profiteering of this kind if proven, is a stench to the nostrils of patriotic Americans. While the average citizen of the United States is giving his life, his money or his services to the country in its time of need it is certainly distressing to learn of incidents of the kind disclosed by the senatorial committee.

It is up to our statesmen and other public servants to keep a constant check on the expenditure of the public money. This should be conducted not from a political but from a bi-partisan angle. This is a patriotic struggle in which we are engaged and we want no profiteers smudging the picture.

PROGRAM INCREASES NAVAL RESERVE PILOTS

The Secretary of the Navy has approved a program designed to step up the number of Naval Reserve student pilots accepted at the 16 elimination flight training bases to 2500 men per month at the earliest practicable date, an approximate increase of 300 per cent over the number now being handled at these Naval Reserve Aviation Cadets, are now being accepted without restriction as to quota, in order to make available an adequate supply when needed.

The educational requirement of two years' college work has been modified to permit enlistment of sophomores currently enrolled in recognized colleges, provided such men can present letters from the registrars of their respective colleges stating that they have every reasonable expectation of completing successfully the two-year requirement by the end of the session. Before being called to active duty they must present registrars' statements that they have actually done so. Prior to this time applicants for V-5 were not permitted to take their physical examinations before completing all educational requirements.

If a sophomore enlists in V-5 and fails to complete the requisite two years of college, he will be transferred to another class of the Reserve for which qualified, at the discretion of the Navy Department, or ordered to active duty wherever his services may be required. He will not be released or discharged at his own request.

College juniors and seniors, if they so request after enlistment in V-5, may be deferred from call to active duty until the completion of their current college year. Thereafter they will be assigned to the earliest class in which they can be accommodated.

In addition to the educational and physical requirements, candidates for Naval Reserve Aviation Cadets must be unmarried, between the ages of 20 and 27, and citizens of the United States for at least ten years.

Applicants may obtain further information at the office of the Naval Reserve Aviation Cadet Selection Board at the Custom House in Philadelphia, or at the nearest Navy Recruiting Office.

CALLS FOR 20,000 POLICE RESERVISTS

Major Audley H. F. Stephan, Chairman of the State Defense Council, has asked for 20,000 volunteer police reservists to undergo emergency training during the next three months. More than 300 police and fire department officials representing several hundred municipalities are already taking the Instructor Training course and will be available to teach volunteers.

With the danger of Fifth Column activities against the United States highlighted by Navy Secretary Knox's revelations of treachery involved in the attack on Pearl Harbor, the protection of one of the nation's most vital industrial states has taken on added significance. Volunteer police reservists will play an important part in this protection.

Designed to free regular police units throughout the State for specialized service, the reservists will be trained in the proportion of three volunteers to every policeman.

Early phases of the training, which requires a minimum of 20 hours, two hours a week, lays emphasis on courtesy to civilians. In addition to dismounted drill, the course includes instruction in police procedure in handling complaints, crowds and patrolling; searching prisoners and hazards; methods of arrest; elementary investigations; traffic control; accident investigation and marksmanship.

Duties Code word for the reservist is PEPPA used in teaching the five duties for a volunteer. These duties are: preserve the peace, enforce the law, protect life and property, prevent and detect crime, and arrest and bring to justice violators of the law.

Patrolling is expected to be one of the most important duties of the police reservist. He will be required to know his community thoroughly, and his training will stress the best methods of guarding roads without exposing himself as a perfect target.

A far cry from training in sabotage prevention, but nevertheless important to the reservist taking over the beat of the local policeman, is knowledge of the procedure used in handling family difficulties. According to the "Training Manual for Police Reservists" issued by the Defense Council, one of the most common complaints received is that in which a wife telephones headquarters and reports she is being "beaten up" by her husband. "Upon arrival at the scene, everything is quiet and the wife either wants you to let her husband sleep, or take him to jail. The procedure followed in most municipalities is to take the husband to headquarters and confine him there."

Quoting Chief Justice W. H. Gum- mere, of the New Jersey Supreme Court, the manual stresses "the mere fact that a man doesn't stop running or walking because a policeman tells him to, doesn't make him an offender against the law, much less does it legally forfeit his life."

Equipment for the reservist will consist of a prescribed uniform and a badge of authority. In addition to issued equipment, he will carry a notebook and a flashlight.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR

A new kind of school "blackboard," perched on the front of the teacher's desk, which operates by an image-projection system to reproduce, on an illuminated screen, the message that the teacher writes on a cellophane sheet on the desk top (no need for "eyes in the back of the head" as is the case when teacher writes on the traditional blackboard).

A special perfume for use in blackouts, appropriately named "Lady In The Dark"... A campaign promoting the use of safety glass such as used in automobiles, for homes because of its shatter-resistance... Several topical motion pictures upcoming: "Canal Zone," a tale of espionage with a Panama Canal background; a baseball epic dedicated to Brooklyn's National League champions, entitled "Dem Lovely Bums"; a historical movie depicting the history of the Boy Scouts of America; "Bambi" and then "Peter Pan" are next on the Disney schedule of animated epics.

BAILEY-PRINCE

Percy Prince, of Birmingham, Alabama, announces the marriage of his sister, Miss Pearl Prince, formerly of Birmingham, now of Philadelphia, to Charles Henry Bailey, Sr., of Riverton, son of Mrs. Amelia Bailey, of Haddonfield, which took place on Wednesday afternoon, January 21, at 2 o'clock, in Calvary Presbyterian Church, Riverton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. K. Palmer Miller, of Delanco. The bride's only attendant was Miss Lillian Wells, of Palmyra, while the groom's son, Charles H. Bailey, Jr., was the best man.

Following a dinner at the groom's apartment, the couple left on a wedding trip to Washington. Upon their return they will reside in Riverton.

"Love" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, February 1, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love: and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." (1 John 4:16). Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" (Matthew 7:11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Christian Science God is universal, eternal, divine Love, which changeth not and causeth no evil, disease, nor death." (p. 140).

The Sacred Heart P.T.A. will celebrate the 10th anniversary of their organization on Thursday with a dinner at Newlin's, Moorestown. The guest speaker at the event will be Don Rose, columnist of the Evening Bulletin, formerly of the Public Ledger.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor
Services, Sunday, February 1st.
Bible School, 10:00 a.m.—Very few realize the importance of the Bible School. Since it is the foundation of the Church and since the precepts of our Democracy are the foundation of our country, it is readily observed that the fate of our country lies in the attention we pay to these teachings and their application in our dealings with our fellow man from day to day. There can be no permanent peace in our country or in the world, until each and every one is so imbued. "Central Baptist" invites all those who are without church affiliations, and certainly its members, to make it a part of their weekly program to attend the school. Earnest and qualified teachers present the Bible teachings in a practical way for the benefit of all ages.

Morning Service, 11:15 a.m.—This will be the regular Communion Service and Pastor Morgan will have as his subject "He Did It For You." The church will have the pleasure of receiving into their Christian fellowship, eight new members, by letter and baptism. The anthems by the Choir will be "Rock of Ages" by Matro-Miles, and "Christ Beneath Thy Cross" by Stair.
B.Y.P.U., 6:45 p.m.—The young people, both young in years and heart, will find the service very beneficial. Good music and helpful discussions. The topic this week will be "Sources of Power in Prayer." The doors are open for all who wish to attend.
Evening Service, 7:45—Don't miss these evening services. Just ask one who attends to find out what they mean to them. Pastor Morgan always gives a thought-provoking and inspiring sermon. His subject will be "A Peculiar Family." The music program will consist of lively congregational singing and the anthem by the Choir, "I Sought The Lord" by Stevenson.

ing our campaign we would like an early response. If you have any suitable books which you would like to donate, please get in touch with Miss Alice Maier, Mrs. James Devor or any student of Palmyra High School.

The State of New Jersey is leading all other states in book drives up to the present time with the total of 121,000 volumes. Why shouldn't the Tri-Communities help to keep our state in the lead?

EPWORTH METHODIST CHURCH

Fifth Street and Morgan Avenue
Palmyra, N. J.
Rev. D. Roe Haney, B.D., Minister

During the inspiring service last Sunday evening, Miss Carrie Bates, Superintendent of Youth Division of the Church Board of Education installed the following officers for the Youth Fellowship:

Dorothy Wolcott, president; Edwin Hill, vice president; Maude Wells, secretary; Eleanor Sauerwein, treasurer; Commission on Worship and Evangelism, Carolyn Haney; Commission on World Friendship, Richard Mallory; Commission on Social Service, Carol King; Commission on Recreation and Leisure, Peggy Stephenson; Pianist, Gladys Jewett.

Sunday's program in Epworth Methodist Church will begin with Church School in the various departments at 9:45. Church Worship will be at eleven o'clock. Communion will be administered by the Pastor, who believes that in these times this means of "grace" certainly should not be neglected. The Board of Education of the Church will meet at three o'clock.

Youth Fellowship will meet for devotions, song service and discussion at seven o'clock, and will sponsor the Fellowship Hour for young people following the evening church worship.

Evening Church Worship will begin at 7:45. The Pastor will preach on "What Shall I Lean Upon." At the Morning Service the choir will render the anthem "Beautiful Saviour," by Christianson. In the evening the choir will sing "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and Mrs. Elwood Johnson will render a soprano solo.

The Boy Scouts will meet Monday evening, and the Girl Scouts Tuesday.

The Couples' Club will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Woman's Society for Christian Service will meet to sew for Red Cross at 10 o'clock, luncheon will be served at 12:30. Mrs. Henry Ebner will address the afternoon meeting and Mrs. Denise Barkel will sing.

The Junior League will meet at 4 o'clock.

Prayer Meeting will be conducted for all at 8 o'clock. The regular monthly meeting of the Official Board will be at 9 o'clock.

Orchestra will practice Thursday at 7:30.

The Junior Choir practice will be Friday at 3:45, and the Senior Choir practice at 7:45.

VICTORY BOOK CAMPAIGN

In every city and town in the United States the Victory Book Campaign is swinging into action. Across the country civilians are replying to the terse, forceful request "We Want Books." With this call the Victory Book Campaign is seeking to collect 10,000,000 books for the use of the members of the ever-larger Army, Navy and Merchant Marine of the United States.

Officials are asking for suitable books. The books that you cherish are the books that they'll like. Their favorites seem to be adventure, mystery, historical novels, and technical books (of recent date).

The Library Council of Palmyra High School was asked by the New Jersey State Director the Victory Book Campaign to aid in this quest for suitable books for the armed forces. As we are a bit late in starting our campaign we would like an early response. If you have any suitable books which you would like to donate, please get in touch with Miss Alice Maier, Mrs. James Devor or any student of Palmyra High School.

The State of New Jersey is leading all other states in book drives up to the present time with the total of 121,000 volumes. Why shouldn't the Tri-Communities help to keep our state in the lead?

"Remember, the way to make your favorite book live is to have it read, not dusted."

SERIOUS ACCIDENTS MAY CAUSE LICENSE REVOCATION

Declaring the conservation of manpower most vital in the all-out war effort, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced today that henceforth drivers who cause injury or death in accidents that are the direct result of traffic violations will lose their licenses to drive a motor vehicle. He has asked police magistrates and traffic court judges to cooperate by a wider exercise of their powers of license revocation.

The policy will not apply to unavoidable accidents in which the driver is not to blame. It will be invoked however, wherever the crash is a result of speeding, driving on the wrong side of the road, ignoring the traffic signal, disregarding a stop street sign and all other bad driving practices that cause accidents.

"The driver who violates the law and is involved in an accident shows an unwillingness to conserve the nation's assets at a time when the services of every man, woman and child are needed for the successful prosecution of the war," said the Commissioner. "Accidents not only destroy men but they waste time and property, none of which the country can afford to lose in the present crisis."

"The law provides for the revocation of licenses upon any reasonable grounds, and being responsible for inflicting bodily injury or death, as well as destruction of property, justifies the contemplated action."

Commissioner Magee regards the power of license revocation the most potent weapon existing and in order that its widespread use will not be necessary, urges drivers to cultivate the habit of a more general observance of the traffic laws.

The old fashioned Jap who thought American youth isn't as sturdy now as in the days of Valley Forge, Gettysburg and Chateau Thierry, will soon be more than old fashioned. He will be extinct.

The time may come when the nabob will not be the Wall Street operator but the guy who drives on four automobile tires.

Plan a Valentine Party

WHY not plan a party for February? It is an excellent month for entertaining. St. Valentine's Day and Washington's Birthday afford an opportunity for festive decorations.

Here are refreshments easy to make and attractive to serve. What a thrill to eat peppermint ice cream and sweetheart cakes at a Valentine party. Freeze the ice cream in your automatic refrigerator.

Valentine Fruit Salad
1 can (No. 2½) pears
1 cup cinnamon drops
3 tablespoons vinegar
1 can (No. 2½) sliced pineapple
½ cup chopped nuts
1½ cups cream mayonnaise

Drain pears; to syrup add cinnamon drops and vinegar, and bring to boil. Trim each pear half into heart shape and simmer in syrup 20 minutes. Chill. Place pear half, hollow side down, on crisp lettuce arranged on individual plates. Cut pineapple in small sections and arrange around pears. Sprinkle nuts around edge of salad to give lacy effect. Serve mayonnaise in a separate bowl.

Sweetheart Cakes
2 cups sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
3½ cups sifted cake flour
5 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1 cup heavy cream
1 cup sugar
1 cup heavy cream

Cream butter, and sugar and beat until fluffy. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla. Fold in beaten whites. Bake in large loaf pan in preheated oven at 350 degrees for 50 to 65 minutes. When cool, cut into heart shapes and frost top and sides with a creamy frosting. Roll sides in coconut which can be used plain, tinted pink, or toasted.

TO HONOR PRESS

Editors of The New Era, of the Palmyra News and Burlington County newspaper publishers will be honored by the members of the Frederick M. Rodgers American Legion Post 156, of Palmyra and Riverton at the monthly meeting to be held next Tuesday night at the American Legion home.

In recognition of their assistance in cooperating with the Legion the press will receive citation awards from the local post Commander, Horace Rowland. According to Frank A. Mathews, Jr., Past Department Commander of the American Legion and local publicity officer, this will be the first time in the history of the Frederick M. Rodgers American Legion post that a citation award will be given.

A guest speaker at Press night, will be Oscar Magnuson, editor of the American Legion page, of the Courier-Post Newspapers of Camden. Members of the Burlington County American Legion executive committee headed by County Commander Charles L. Herbert, of Bordentown, will attend the event.

CAREFUL DRIVING WAS NEVER MORE NECESSARY
Never before in the history of the automobile has there been greater necessity for cautious driving than at present, the Keystone Automobile Club warns in a bulletin telling motorists their cars "may be immobilized for the duration" if disabled through highway crashes.

"Inability to replace broken parts and damaged tires may accomplish what years of safety propaganda failed to achieve—safe and sane driving," said Edward P. Curran, safety director of the club. "Motorists now are on notice that it is strictly a matter for their own decision whether they 'keep rolling.'"

"Under existing war conditions, with tire rationing a major problem and replacement problems looming on the horizon, the driver who was unimpressed by safety pleas may be actuated by self-interest to drive with due regard to the safety of his vehicle."

"Treacherous highway conditions due to ice and snow will be a constant threat from now until spring. Slower and more cautious driving will aid greatly in preventing accidents. It must be remembered that cars out of control on slippery roads strike with tremendous force. Collisions at intersections which result in nothing more serious than dented fenders may well become major accidents when the glassy surface of highways makes brakes ineffective."

"While highway departments perform a tremendous job in keeping roads clear of snow, changing weather conditions pile up hazards faster than highway workers can keep abreast of them. Motorists should never assume they won't encounter slippery stretches of pavement on even the best of roads."

Ahoy was the dreaded war cry of the Vikings and is, therefore, a distinct nautical hail.

Do you ever cook too much cereal? What will you do with the egg yolks? They will be good in mayonnaise, hollow dressing, cookies, gold cake, yellow frosting, potato stuffing, potato cakes, croquettes or meat loaf.

With sour milk, you can make cottage cheese, griddle cakes, cake, cookies or steamed bread. Cookies and cake may be made with sour cream. You can use it in cole slaw, too.

In preserving foods, it is important to store them in the automatic refrigerator where there is a constant circulation of good cold air. However, there is a right way and a wrong way to store the food.

Milk—Place next to chilling unit on upper shelf for tall bottles.

Butter—Keep in covered container of glass or porcelain. Remove from paper carton before putting into refrigerator. Cheese—Keep wrapped in waxed paper or in covered dish. Place on top shelf, nearest the chilling unit.

Meat—Frozen meat as soon as it comes from the market, scrape or wipe with cold water, drain and store in airtight container. If it is to be cooked, wash thoroughly, inside and out, with cold water, drain and wipe with clean cloth. Do not add salt until just before using.

Poultry—Wash thoroughly, inside and out, with cold water, drain and wipe with clean cloth. Do not add salt until just before using.

Eggs—Remove from paste board carton and keep in wire container or bowl.

Fruit—Soft fruits such as berries, peaches and pears should be spread out on a platter, do not wash until just before using. Firm fruits, such as apples may be washed before putting into the refrigerator.

To chill milk or custards without giving an odor to other foods, wrap in waxed paper and place on top shelf of the refrigerator.

Bananas have a better flavor if left to ripen until the peak. To prevent discoloration of sliced bananas to be used in salads or desserts, dip in fruit juice, orange juice, pineapple or grapefruit juice, then store in refrigerator.

Vegetables—Wash and drain thoroughly. All vegetables, potatoes, spinach, etc., and drain well before putting in vegetable pan. Remove all decayed spots and trim the potatoes.

Left-overs—Remove any hot or warm food from the refrigerator as soon as possible. Do not keep in the refrigerator for more than 24 hours. If it is to be reheated, heat in a saucepan or on a griddle, stirring frequently. Do not reheat more than once.

Refrigerator—Keep the refrigerator clean and free of food. Defrost it regularly. Do not overfill the refrigerator. Keep the door closed as long as possible. Do not leave the door open for a long time.

Freezer—Keep the freezer clean and free of food. Do not overfill the freezer. Keep the door closed as long as possible. Do not leave the door open for a long time.

SALVAGE COMMITTEE WILL BE NAMED HERE

The State Defense Council, opening a statewide Salvage for Victory Program, has asked the 563 local Defense Councils to name a local Salvage Committee chairman. This person should be a member of the council and his committee should carry on a year-round salvage campaign for defense purposes.

The committee will make plans for collecting waste paper, old rags, scrap metal and old rubber, all vitally needed for America's war factories. The program will not upset present methods of collection, but will instead gear such work to the needs of the country.

Present waste materials trade will be utilized to the fullest extent and all charities or organizations now collecting scrap and waste materials will be brought into the program.

The public will be asked to either sell waste materials to collectors, who will put it back in production, or to give them to charities, schools, or organizations which collect such materials and in turn sell them to dealers.

Local committees will include representatives of business, labor, civic, women's, charity and service organizations, municipal officials and representatives of the local press and radio.

The committees will increase and expedite the flow of waste materials from homes, farms, stores and municipal departments. They will determine which materials should be saved in the municipality, taking into consideration local conditions. Advice will be given by the State Committee and the local waste materials trade.

Informational material and printed matter will be distributed by the committees to advance the Salvage for Victory Program in each municipality. The local groups have been asked to establish a headquarters to centralize activities in collection. Persons who have materials could contact the office, and the office could then send a dealer or organization representative to the home to collect the scrap.

Procedure

County and municipal authorities should be urged to recover waste materials normally burned or dumped by local agencies.

The committees have been warned that their enthusiasm for the collection should be tempered so that materials which are still being used or which might have to be replaced should not be collected.

Residents of the municipalities will be asked to flatten out all cartons and boxes, to tie them in neat bundles and to keep them dry and clean. Newspapers and magazines should be piled separately and tied in separate bundles. Rags, metals and rubber should be kept separately, preferably in cartons and bags.

Instructions from the State Committee request that residents sell the waste materials to a collector or junk man or give it to charities, schools, or other organizations which collect them. Some collectors visit neighborhoods regularly and others are listed in the telephone directory or advertising columns of local newspapers.

The suggestion has been made that collectors should not be called until the pile of waste paper has reached 100 pounds or is piled about five feet high. Metals, rags and rubber should be disposed of at the same time.

In those areas where waste materials dealers do not operate, plans should be made for volunteer transportation to the nearest city where there are waste materials dealers.

FOR DODGE, PLYMOUTH AND OTHER MAKES OF CARS

Confidentially— We have been sitting around in our Riverton showroom since the embargo on cars—twiddling our thumbs—looking at each other—and chewing the erasers off our lead pencils. Of course we might get a job in a Shipyard—but then—we are a little too old, too corpulent, and too inexperienced, to go running around on the scaffolding of a ship—or climbing a mast—so we'll let the young fellows do that. Rather than do nothing—and eventually go crazy—we will try to pump gas and open oil cans for our bread and butter. We're going to run a first class service station, as well as our usual Dodge and Plymouth repair service—so we hope you will look us up at our new address and favor us with your continued patronage. "For the duration" . . . we remain . . . at your service.
