CONOVER HEADS NEW BOND DRIVE

Plans are being made for the organization of Burlington county to support the U. S. Treasury's second Victory drive for the sale of thirteen billion dollars of Victory Bonds which will begin April 12.

A meeting of bankers and community leaders was held, at which Treasury representatives explained the Victory bond issue and outlined the campaign for its sale.

Howard B. Conover, secretary and treasurer of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Co., of Riverton, heads the campaign in that community, while Mayor John F. Ward holds a similar position in Palmyra.

The Nation's newspapers have been asked by the Allied Newspaper Council to get behind the Treasury's drive and help bring the war to the earliest possible conclusion.

The council was organized by a group of editors and publishers representing various newspaper organizations after they had met with Secretary Morgenthau and General George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff.

Greatest in History

Describing the victory drive as the "greatest financial undertaking in the history of the world," the council said:

"No matter how much of their money individuals are currently investing in war bonds, it is essential that their buying be stepped up for the period of the drive. Payroll deductions are producing approximately $400,000,000 a month. Additional war bond purchases total approximately $500,000,000 a month. The April goal for non-bank subscriptions is eight out of a total of $13,000,000,000.

"This money can be raised only through investment in more Government bonds by every man, woman and child.

"This war should not be permitted to continue one minute longer than is absolutely necessary if we are to save the needless loss of precious lives and avoid the useless spending of money. If those of us on the home front fail to do our part in every possible respect, the end of this horrible conflict will be tragically delayed."

The council recalled that newspapers "were almost entirely responsible for the success" of last year's campaign to collect scrap metal to meet the urgent wartime needs of steel mills.

Mayor Ward has named the following committee to assist him:

Paul R. Jones, supervising principal, schools; Alfred H. Lippincott, American Legion; Walter D. Lamon, Business and Professional Men's Association; Clare R. Lippincott, Civic and Service organizations; Frank E. Chambers, Publicity; Rev. S. Dan Morgan and Howard Washington.

COLONEL FRANK MATHEWS SPEAKS TO B. & P. CLUB

Colonel Frank A. Mathews, of Riverton, was the speaker at the Palmyra-Riverton Business and Professional Men's Club held on Tuesday of this week.

Colonel Mathews, who has recently been named State chairman of the High School Victory Corps Committee of the American Legion, told of the project being undertaken to introduce basic military training into the third and fourth high school years as part of the Victory program. This move has the backing of National educational leaders.

In speaking of this project, Colonel Mathews urged that adequate military training be continued as a part of the educational system after the war is over. He decried going back to the period of 1919-1940 when most people believed that the maintenance of a small military establishment was a sure way to

HIGH SCHOOL BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT

One of the outstanding events of the Spring season will be the First Annual Spring Concert to be given by the Palmyra High School Band on Friday evening, April 30, in the auditorium.

Under the direction of Kenneth Merrill, the Band has grown not only in size but in importance in the activities of the school. Now for the first time in the history of the school they will give a full evening's entertainment with selections by the entire band as well as several solos by outstanding members. The twirlers will be present (in their new uniforms) to lend color and action. Under the auspices of the Band Parents Club a reception will be held at the conclusion of the musicale.

Tickets are 35 cents and may be obtained from any member of the Band, Junior Band or Band Parents Club.

STORE HOURS ARE DISCUSSED

At a meeting of the local Business Men's Clinic held on Tuesday night of this week, Clifton Taylor, vice-president of the organization reported on a conference held with O.P.A. officials recently. This was attended by retail merchants representing nearly every community in Burlington county.

At this time a uniform set of hours for the various types of stores in the county was drawn up and approved by the representatives present. O.P.A. officials stated that, if this is placed in force it may be recommended as a standard for the entire State.

The schedule is as follows:
For food and general stores (this includes hardware and clothing establishments):

9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesdays.

9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays.

For drug and confectionery stores:

9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. every day except Wednesday and Sunday.

9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesdays.

Open 4 hours on Sundays.

Meeting Next Week

Another meeting of the local Clinic will be held in the ration board headquarters, P.O.S. of A. building, Palmyra, on Tuesday of next week at 8:30 p.m., at which time all merchants present will be asked to sign an agreement in which they will signify their intention of complying with these hours. Those not attending will be visited by members of the Clinic.

Those objecting to the proposed schedule are asked to attend so that they may voice their opinion.

No date has been set when the new hours will go into effect here. They are already in force in Moorestown and Mt. Holly, where practically all merchants have agreed to the schedule, it is understood.

No man can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his company.—Jeremy Taylor.

keep out of war. This failed as is well known and left us unprepared when war came. He also did not favor the creation of a tremendous regular army, but asserted that an adequate army and navy, supported by the regular training of civilians for a limited period was a sure way to prevent the disastrous unpreparedness that has always followed the cessation of hostilities.

The speaker quoted several excerpts from the various addresses of George Washington to this effect and stated that these principles still maintain today, despite the fact that many citizens feel that past experiences mean little or nothing.

TEACHERS NEEDED

"If you can teach science or mathematics, please speak to me at the close of this meeting." This was the invitation extended to the members of the local Rotary Club last Thursday evening by the speaker, Dr. Arnold K. Henry, Dean of Student Affairs at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dean Henry, in the course of an interesting and instructive address sought to explain how the war is affecting the universities and colleges of our country, and particularly the University of Pennsylvania.

Educational leaders are bewildered by the sudden and sweeping changes that have been wrought by the war, Dean Henry admitted, but they are determined to do all in their power to assist in furthering the war effort. They do not want to enroll any students who might be of greater service elsewhere, but they welcome those who have certain talents that might be improved and developed by educational means.

Three Categories

In general, there is no deferment for students simply because they are attending college, but General Hershey's Office has decided to defer those who are studying medical science, and engineering, and who will complete their course by July, 1945. Most of the students in medicine have joined the enlisted reserve, and last February 572 went out from the U. of P. to add part-time army service to their university studies.

The present program of the university, the Dean explained, is divided into three categories. There is the regular civilian curriculum, and in addition there is the V-12 course of the Army and the A-12 course of the Navy. Each course differs in the length of the term and in the duration of the course. The mathematics course is in great demand, and there is such a shortage of teachers in this field that students in their final year of study are already being put under contract to teach when they graduate. "This," the Dean concluded, "is the bottleneck of the program."

The speaker explained the nature of the V-12 and A-12 courses, and listed some of the difficulties that had to be overcome in meeting the requirements of the Army and Navy. Equipment and sleeping quarters are needed for the men already on the campus and for those who are expected in the near future. To meet this need the administration is contemplating the transformation of the Palestra so that it may be used as an additional dining hall. Other problems that have to be faced include the shortage of janitors and the establishment of refresher courses to assist teachers in making the transition necessary to enable them to teach new subjects.

Will Cooperate

In conclusion, Dean Henry said, "The University of Pennsylvania is ready to cooperate in every possible way. It has already taken part in every war since the foundation of our nation, and if necessary it will move every building to do its part in this war."

Next Thursday evening the Rotary speaker will be Head Football Coach George Munger of the U. of P., who will discuss the highlights of sports at the University during the past year. He will also show movies of the university sports program.

PAPER COLLECTED

During the past two weeks over two tons of paper have been collected at the Riverton Salvage Depot, according to John Reinhardt, member of the salvage committee of the Civil Defense Council in that community.

Although people do not have as many tin cans since rationing went into effect, they are urged to save and process what they have for salvage, since every bit of scrap is becoming increasingly important to the war effort.

FIRE DAMAGES CLOTHING

Shortly before 9 o'clock on Saturday morning of last week the Palmyra Fire Company was called to the Witte residence, 634 Highland avenue, Palmyra for a blaze which evidently originated in a clothes closet near the front door.

The flames were quickly extinguished by a line from the booster tank and damage was confined chiefly to garments which were hanging in the closet. The cause was unknown.

The fire was the first since the new cooperative arrangement between Riverton and Palmyra went into effect and the Riverton company responded with one piece of apparatus, but this was not needed.

EQUIPMENT FOR CIVIL DEFENSE

Instead of being "equipped" with large quantities of posters, pamphlets and a large assortment of literature which has been the bane of air raid wardens (who have had to distribute it) the good news reached Riverton today (Thursday) that Civil Defense workers are at last to receive something more tangible in the way of needed equipment.

According to a civil defense official who declined to be quoted, Riverton is slated to receive the following items within the near future:

Helmets for air raid wardens.

Gas masks for all defense personnel.

Gas Detecting Apparatus

Several demolition outfits.

Three mobile fire-fighting units, complete with motor pump, hose, ladders and other accessories.

A mobile ambulance, with hospital and first aid equipment which will augment that already purchased out of borough funds.

A wide variety of articles needed to fully equip each air raid warden post, many of which have only articles donated by the wardens themselves.

After waiting nearly two years for tools with which to work efficiently in the event of an emergency the (Continued on Page 2)

SPRING SPORTS AT LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

Although the spring sports program at Palmyra High School will, of a necessity, be curtailed to a certain extent because of wartime conditions, there will definitely be a track squad and baseball team, according to an announcement made this week.

The track squad is already at work under the direction of Coaches Kreps and Curtis and meets will be arranged with nearby schools, the dates of which will be announced later. There will be no league meets this year, but a local contingent will participate in the Penn Relays.

The loss of last year's stars, Conwell and Flournoy will be felt keenly.

Baseball

Coach K. C. Dimond expects to have his ball tossers on the field in the near future. Present plans call for the formation of a school league with four or five teams participating.

In addition, eight games have been scheduled with other schools. These include two engagements each with Mt. Holly, Moorestown and Bordentown, and single contests with B.M.I. and Florence.

Since many of last year's team graduated and other veterans have left for the Army or Navy the squad will probably be composed largely of underclassmen.

PALMYRA WOMAN'S CLUB

The regular business meeting will be held Monday afternoon, April 5, at 2:30, at which time there will be an election of officers.

The program will be in charge of

Couldn't Give To A Better Cause

"I have seen the Red Cross in action on foreign battle fields, and here is my contribution to help keep it going. I couldn't give to a better cause." Thus spoke a private convalescing from battle wounds.

Must everyone experience the horrors of war to realize the value of the Red Cross?

The War Fund drive is drawing to an end and we are far behind our quota.

Do you know that it cost the Red Cross $5.00 a pint to supply the blood plasma which has already saved so many lives?—or that it cost $16.00 to train a Nurse's Aide whose volunteer services are helping keep our hospitals operating and the clinics open?

Blood Needed

When you consider that the Medical Corps of the Armed Services are asking for 5,300,000 pints of blood, that the hospitals are asking constantly for more Nurses' Aides, that the Red Cross is sending Field Directors wherever our boys are stationed, that the Home Service Workers in every part of the country are helping solve family problems caused by military service, together with many other services to humanity, all of which cost money, you can see how necessary it is for you to give until it hurts.

On Friday and Saturday, Red Cross workers will be at the Red Cross office, at the Cinnaminson Bank, at other prominent places in the town, and will meet the incoming trains to receive your donations.

Even if you have contributed try to give an extra share for this vital cause.

Keep Dogs at Home

With many victory gardens being planted this year, some property owners are becoming apprehensive regarding the possibility of damage caused to their plantings by dogs running at large.

In this connection, Mayor H. McIlvain Biddle, of Riverton, urges all dog owners to keep their pets at home and not allow them to run at large throughout the community, where they may cause damage by digging in gardens.

The Mayor trusts that all will cooperate and thus avoid drastic action that must follow unless the situation is kept under control from the very beginning.

The Porch Club

On Tuesday, April 13, the Porch Club will resume its activities and will be opened for public functions, having been closed for two months due to a shortage of oil.

An important business meeting will be held at 2:30 p.m. The speaker of the afternoon will be Alena D. Kasarsky, a former Russian Countess, now living in this country, who has spoken in Riverton before.

VICTORY GARDEN LECTURE

The fifth lecture in the Victory Garden series being sponsored by the club will be held in the auditorium of the Riverton Public School on Monday evening of next week at 8 o'clock.

At this time the speaker will be Miss Constance Blain, home demonstration agent for Burlington county. Her topic will be "Canning, Preserving and Cold Storage of Fruits and Vegetables."

This lecture will afford a splendid opportunity for all housewives to learn all about the many recent developments that have been made in canning and preserving.

the drama department, which will present a one-act play entitled "Paris Labels."

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

How Much Fertilizer

By Dr. Charles H. Connors,
N. J. College of Agriculture.

After the garden has been planned and the seeds ordered, the next step is to arrange for the materials that will nourish the plants.

The first of these materials is some form of organic matter. All things considered, half-rotted to well-rotted stable manure is the best. Following this would be compost (if you have prepared it), leaf mold, peat moss, dried or dehydrated manure, sewage sludge, even chicken, pig or goat manure if these should be available. If you are raising poultry, it is a good plan (for the garden) to use peat moss, shredded cornstalks or some such material, on the dropping board.

If manure or compost is used, an application of 50 pounds to 100 square feet is advisable. This will give the ground a coating of 2 to 3 inches, not solid but as it is spread. With the dehydrated manures, peat moss, sewage sludge or fresh poultry manure, about half this quantity is needed.

Reason

The reason for using this organic matter is not so much for its fertilizing value as for its effect upon the condition of the soil. It helps the soil drainage and at the same time helps it to retain moisture. It assists in keeping the soil open so that roots can grow as they grow. It aids in releasing fertilizer elements in the soil so they are available to plants and also helps to hold these elements in the soil. It is of value in preventing the surface soil from baking and cracking. It is of great value in the whole range of soils from sandy to heavy clay, provided the soil is sub-soil.

Organic matter used in these quantities is not a substitute for fertilizer. Lime is another material that serves to condition the soil. It also adds calcium and magnesium, elements that the plant uses. Lime helps to make a heavy clay soil more open and better drained. Pulverized limestone is the form recommended for use. Most soils in New Jersey are acid, so an annual application to the soil of the vegetable garden has become a recommended practice.

Test for Acidity

If a garden is to be made on soil that has not been in cultivation for years, it might be wise to have it tested for acidity. Even in such cases, however, lime in an amount equal to 5 pounds for each 100 square feet should prove effective. For example, a garden 25 feet x 25 feet would receive an application of 32½ pounds, but 35 pounds could be used without danger. If the only source of lime available is hydrated lime, use 3 pounds to 100 square feet. Most dealers in garden supplies have ground limestone for sale.

The statement has already been made that manure, in the amounts recommended, will not take the place of fertilizer. The soil should have a complete fertilizer to supplement it. This year only one grade of fertilizer is authorized for the Victory Garden. The gardener may obtain it in uniform packages of 5, 10, 25, 50, and 100 pounds, net weight. It is labeled "Victory Garden Fertilizer—For Food Production Only." This fertilizer contained 3 per cent nitrogen, 8 per cent phosphoric acid and 7 per cent potash. Agronomists agree that this 3-8-7 grade is probably the best formula that can be made available to the Victory Gardener during the wartime emergency.

However, on places where other grades of fertilizer are authorized for use, as on a farm, the grade on hand may be used in the garden. Any other grade on hand prior to September, 1942, may also be used.

Fertilizer requirements for the victory garden will be, on the average, 3 to 4 pounds to 100 square feet. On well established gardens, 3 pounds to 100 square feet will be sufficient. Directions for fertilizer use in establishments

Coal Ashes No Good

Coal ashes have no fertilizer value. Hard coal ashes, however, may be used on heavy soils to help make them more open. Wood ashes contain lime and potash only. As it varies in composition, the only direction that can be given for its use is to spread it on until the soil is covered. Those who like to use bone meal will find that 3 pounds of bone meal to 100 square feet, in addition to either the wood ashes or one-half pound of muriate of potash, will give good results. Where a supply of poultry manure is available, put on a good covering and use 3 pounds to 100 square feet of superphosphate.

or a fertilizer with the analysis 3-14-7.
These figures will give you a basis for calculating your needs. Do not buy more than you need.

CAPITALISM SUPPORTS THE WAR EFFORT

A few lines from the publicity department of Public Service Corporation "jolted" us into realizing that our war program could be in bad shape were it not for the long systematized efficiency of the great capitalist organizations. All of them have been subjects of attack by soap-box orators, by politicians seeking votes through stalling the rich, and by the reformers born of the New Deal, and they wouldn't be here if their opponents had had their way.

The few lines told that Public Service had furnished more gas during the cold days around February fifteenth than at any time in its history. And we wondered what would have happened if Public Service hadn't prepared for the demand. Both people and industry would have suffered in a gas famine if Capitalism had given ground or surrendered to the great army of kickers and class-haters that has been trying to destroy it.

We have no dividends coming from Public Service stock, nor do we defend or champion an advertiser for what he spends. We have, however, a great appreciation of the comforts and conveniences that have come to us from corporations that have grown rich providing them. We never have sympathized with the proposals to turn the utilities over to Government management and operation by politicians instead of by trained people, stimulated by the promise of good salaries.

There are many who do not share this opinion, and they could have grounds for disagreement in normal times; but now they must concede the importance of a strong corporation that has kept ahead of demands and has been able to meet the emergency need of a war. Not only has there been enough gas, but we still enjoy non-rationed electricity. As to the transport branch of Public Service, had it not patiently awaited the wearing out of opposition and bought in weaker lines, to form a near-monopoly, it would be too bad today for everybody who works at a place beyond walking distance.

A socialistic system in which the Government would provide everything could be ideal under honest politicians, but it could not organize or operate until many years had been spent upon its construction. It would be unfortunate if a war broke out during the constructive years. Since the "antis" haven't yet succeeded in greatly damaging the capitalist system, we are using it to win a world war.

Public Service, the Fords, General Motors and many other "capitalist octopuses" have made it possible for this country to excel all other nations in the production of war materials. Which is something for the would-be destroyer of capitalism to write down in his book.

RATION FACTS

The shoe rationing division advised all shoe dealers that they will be required to open a ration banking account beginning April 12. A special bulletin of instructions for retailers, wholesalers, and manufacturers, it was explained, will be available on April 5 at banks throughout the state which have checking account service.

"In order to continue to do business in rationed shoes after April 17, 1943," the ration banking bulletin advises dealers, "you must have a Shoe Ration Bank Account, unless you do not have access to ration banking facilities."

As a guide to consumers during the first week of meat-fats-cheese rationing, the State OPA office issued a group of possible combinations of the rationed foods which housewives can purchase with their 16 points a week per person. It was emphasized that the 16 points a week can be used to purchase any or all the rationed items.

With all fresh meats averaging slightly over 6 points a pound, it was pointed out, the shopper can buy about two and two-thirds pounds of meat a week per person, but only if meat alone is purchased.

A more balanced weekly budget of foods might be made up by buying one and a half pounds of meat (9 points); a quarter pound of cheese (2 points); a quarter pound of butter (2 points); with three points per person remaining for canned fish, canned meat, and other fats and shortening. The purpose of these suggested budgets, it was explained, is to show the housewife that she is not bound to buy set amounts of any particular food; she can use her 16 points a week per person as she sees fit. She can buy all meat, or all cheese, or all butter, or any combination that her family's diet requires.

There were 28 percent fewer tipsy drivers involved in New Jersey traffic accidents last year but the damage they caused, measured in life and economic loss, was considerably greater than in 1941, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee reported today.

Deaths in these accidents increased from 82 to 96, a rise of 14 percent and the economic loss approximated $1,650,000 as against $1,400,000 in the previous year. In all, there were 1,458 accidents involving drivers against whom there was evidence of alcoholic influence.

Drivers in the age group 30 to 39 years were the most numerous and there were 67 operators under 21 years, including one under 17 years. Fifty-two female drivers drank and had accidents.

The leading violation was driving on the wrong side of the road and speeding was second. In addition, there were 114 hit and run drivers.

Three in every four accidents involving alcoholic drivers occurred during the hours of darkness as compared with eight in ten the previous year. More accidents happened on Sunday than any other day of the week.

In addition to the 96 fatalities caused by alcoholic drivers, there were 71 pedestrians killed whose autopsies revealed them to have been under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

SCHOLARSHIP PLAN TO BOOST WARTIME
HARVEST LAUNCHED

Burlington County farm youngsters are eligible to compete this year in a $5,000 wartime food production and marketing contest sponsored by the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, it was announced today.

Registration blanks and details regarding the program in this area may be obtained from George W. Lange of Bordentown, vocational agriculture instructor at Wm. MacFarland High School or from any other vocational agriculture instructor in this area, according to H. O. Sampson, New Brunswick, New Jersey state supervisor of vocational education.

"One objective of the program is to help offset critical shortages of adult farm labor by stimulating actual production of food by workers under draft age," Sampson explained. "The second objective is to help acquaint farm youngsters with efficient methods of marketing, because supplying the nation with food in war or peace depends on moving food rapidly and economically to the right place, at the right time and in the right condition."

National Award
Entries from this county will compete for a $500 grand national award.

Hardly a day has gone by but one or more calls have come in. Palmyra for example, responding to two field fires last Thursday, while Riverton and East Riverton answered two calls of a similar nature on Friday.

Awards, to be made this fall, will be based on grades achieved in a five-unit extension course in production and marketing and a report on project work completed during the year, Sampson said.

Burlington County registrations must be completed within the next two weeks, he said. Registration cards may be turned in to the agriculture instructor or to any member of the northeast regional committee including Dr. A. J. Pratt, extension horticultural specialist at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York; T. A. Leonard, assistant county agent, Farm Bureau Office, South Paris, Maine, and E. H. Nodine, assistant state club leader, Massachusetts State College, Amherst, Massachusetts.

MANY GRASS FIRES
Despite the plea of firemen to local residents to be careful about burning grass, all companies in this section have been busy during the past week running to fires of this nature.

It is an undoubted truth, that the less one has to do, the less time one finds to do it in. One yawns, one procrastinates, one can do it when one will, and therefore one seldom does it at all.—Lord Chesterfield.

YMCA BRIEFS

John H. Morrow, of the New Jersey Manual Training School, Bordentown, was elected as Director of YMCA Camp Osceola, Green Bank, Burlington County, N. J., which is operated by the Central Atlantic Area YMCA. Camp is to operate for six weeks—June 29 to August 10. Mr. Morrow, who is a member of the Burlington County YMCA Board of Directors, and has been related to the camp for colored youth for a number of years, has also been made chairman recently of the Program Committee for the camp this summer. Mr. Morrow is a graduate of Rutgers University, and a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society. He was active in inter-collegiate wrestling and since being at Bordentown, has been the adviser of the Ironsides YMCA Group.

The Director was named at a meeting of the Camp Committee held at Trenton Saturday where Burlington County "Y" was represented by Dr. William R. Valentine, Bordentown; Everett H. Haines, Medford; and Henry Graves, and Clifford W. Ergood, Moorestown. Dr. Charles Gibson, of Burlington, was unable to be present.

Group Leaders of the Burlington County "Y" met at the home of Ernest L. Saul, Mount Holly, Wednesday night, March 24. George R. Keller, Assistant County Secretary, was in charge of the meeting. Mr. Saul spoke on "Qualities of Good Leadership" and a discussion was held following the talk.

Li. Ralph Sterner, a former group leader, of Lumberton, on leave, was a visitor at the meeting. He spoke of some ways he felt "Y" leaders could be of help to boys which he had learned out of his Army experience. Plans were confirmed by leaders for the week-end camping trip to Ockanickon, May 22 and 23. Those in attendance were, from Delanco, George Hansbury, Walter Quigg; from Palmyra, Lawrence Coolbaugh and Robert Emens, Moorestown; Ed Forsythe, Bill Thompson, Henry Graves, Jr., and Clifford W. Ergood, Burlington; J. Howard Whomsley and George R. Keller, Riverside, Fred Barton, and Mr. Saul and Li. Sterner.

PEDESTRIAN DEATHS

The pedestrian fatality problem is so serious in New Jersey today that it demands the undivided attention of enforcement officials and complete cooperation of the walking public.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee, reporting for the first two months of the year, says that although total traffic deaths have dropped from 174 to 163, a 41 percent decrease, 69 in every 100 fatalities have been pedestrians as compared with 52 in every 100 during the same period last year.

"The pedestrian problem lies principally with persons of middle age (over 30) who constituted more than half (56 per cent) of the pedestrian fatalities so far this year," said the Commissioner. "Children of school age under 15 years who have been taught safety in the classroom and by junior safety patrols and consistently have a much better safety record than their elders, accounted for only 11 percent of the pedestrian deaths this year."

Commissioner Magee calls attention to another serious feature of present accident conditions, that relate to war workers killed in traffic. For the entire year 1942 there were 130 war workers killed, or one in every six traffic fatalities. In the first two months this year war worker deaths have totaled 25, or one in every four deaths.

Reporting on total traffic deaths for January-February, the commissioner said that with the exception of Hunterdon and Warren where there was no change in the record, all counties reduced their fatalities this year. The two months record follows:

"POVERTY BREEDS DISEASE"

In a small city in a neighboring state one large industry is in complete control. Labor and management, however, are in complete accord and have been for many years. As a result there is no unemployment. Medical and nursing services are evenly distributed and reach into every home. As a result poverty is practically non-existent. Disease is at a minimum.

In large cities or small towns the place to look for tuberculosis, syphilis, pneumonia, high maternal and infant deaths, and in fact almost any disease, is in the slum areas where sanitation is lacking, nutrition is poor, and medical and nursing services are spread thin.

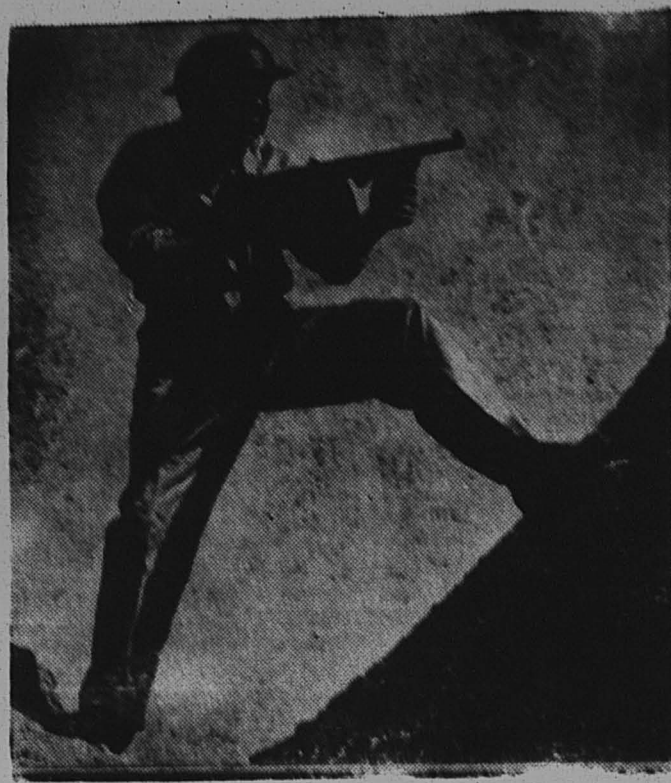

The public school reaches into every type of home for pupils; into the tumble-down shack with its overflowing privy and polluted well, as well as into many beautiful homes on Main Street. Germs from the slum soon transfer to the bus to Main Street, for germs are not politically minded. They are no respecter of persons.

It, therefore, behooves every community, town, township, county, or state to eliminate poverty as much as is possible in order to protect the public health. Where poverty exists adequate medical and nursing services should be provided, as an insurance against epidemics and to keep the victims of preventable disease out of public hospitals and institutions, the cost of which is borne by every taxpayer in a community. Poverty is a preventable social disease which breeds many of our preventable medical diseases.

DR. A. L. CHAPMAN.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The Staff of Riverton No. 50 met last Friday evening to arrange a program of the Troop's activities for the next two months. The program is full of interesting outdoor camping activities arranged in such a manner as to lead up to the Council Camporee.

This Camporee is County wide and is the big camping event in every Scout's life. Each boy who has been trained in camping is privileged to take part with his Patrol. Leadership in the Camporee is limited to boy leaders—in other words, the Scoutmasters and their assistants cannot participate and the patrols of Scouts led by their Patrol Leaders compete with each other in trying to attain perfection.

Naturally such a competition means intensive preparation and for the next two months the Scouts of Riverton No. 50 will be practicing how to care for themselves in the open.

The Troop has grown and is now divided into three active Patrols. The old Beaver Patrol is led by Don Garwood who used to be the Assistant Patrol Leader. His Assistant is Bob Lundstedt. Larry Hewlett who formerly led the Beavers now leads a new Patrol. They have chosen the name of Stag Patrol and the Assistant is Frank Christie. The third Patrol still is led by Russ Phelps, but he has a new Assistant, Francis Huber, and the name of the Patrol has been changed to Cobra.

All three Patrols expect to attend the Council Camporee and in preparing for it they are at the same time competing in their own Inter-Patrol Contest. At the moment the Stag Patrol is in the lead with the Beavers in close pursuit. However, with two months to go anything can happen and the Cobras will be coming up strong for a close finish.

RUTGERS ANNOUNCES DATE FOR SCHOLARSHIP TESTS
Local high school seniors, both boys and girls, planning to enter college this year may qualify for State Scholarships at Rutgers University, including the New Jersey College for Women, by taking a scholastic aptitude test to be given in several centers of the State on Saturday, May 1. Dr. Fraser Metzger, dean of men and chairman of the scholarship committee, has announced that tests will be held in this section at Academic High School, Camden.

It is planned to award 210 scholarships covering tuition and all major fees for a four year period. Awards will be based on character, intellectual ability, leadership, health and financial need, Dean Metzger explained.

In spite of the war, it is expected that the University will have a substantial number of regular students next year, he said. Already over 450 young men have taken the aptitude test for admission.

State scholarship holders, he added, have made outstanding records both in the classroom and in extra curricular activities. Information concerning these scholarships may be secured from the high school principal or by writing Dean Metzger.

number of deaths due to heart diseases, cancer and kidney disease. Many people mistakenly assume that cancer is an inevitable calamity that will always fall on someone else and about which little can be done. This attitude is extremely dangerous and quite often fatal.

Cancers are merely groups of cells that for some unknown reason begin to multiply rapidly. As they multiply they form a lump or mass which, if it can be seen or felt, may be quite easily detected. In the mouth these growths often form ulcerated areas that fail to heal. When people are on the lookout for danger signals, many cancers can be discovered at an early stage when complete cure is possible. If none of the cancer cells have broken loose into the blood stream, complete removal or destruction of the cancer by x-ray, radium, or by surgery will bring about a complete and permanent cure.

In no other disease is the Doctor so dependent upon the understanding and cooperation of the patient, if a cure is to be obtained. Every man and woman over 50 years of age, therefore, should become acquainted with the danger signals of cancer. When these signals appear, a doctor should be consulted and treatment should begin immediately.

Your family doctor or your health department can give you any information concerning cancer that is available.

When dealing with cancer, you can only be helped if you help yourself.

PAY BIG DIVIDENDS.

COMMENT

As a result of frequent observations, it becomes more and more evident that many motorists pay little or no attention to the 35-mile wartime speed limit, going on their way at the former 50 to 60 miles per hour.

This practice not only uses more gasoline and causes greater wear on the tires, but it also results in more difficulties to the driver who obeys the law.

The speeders are the ones who most frequently apply to their ration boards for additional gas and new tires which they would not need if they obeyed the law. This increased demand leaves less to go around.

The motorist who violates the speed law should not be merely fined. He should be deprived of a few of his gas stamps and compelled to get along on what are left. This appears to be the only way that the new limit can be enforced.

MORE WORKERS STILL NEEDED TO MAKE SURGICAL DRESSINGS

It was most gratifying to the Surgical Dressing Committee to have the enthusiastic response from workers met as it was last Thursday night.

A group of 34 came to the Riverton School to help with this much needed work and will continue to meet regularly on Thursday evenings.

This group did excellent work, and the committee was much encouraged. This extra class still, however, is not sufficient to meet the needs.

In Riverton last month 95 workers made a total of 4,505 dressings in 1200 working hours. 4,300 dressings were packed and sent to Chapter Headquarters. This is a good record but not good enough. It is only a little more than half the quota for the Riverton-Cinnaminson Branch.

Many Not Enrolled

There are still many women in Riverton and Cinnaminson who have not tried to do this work. Some, of course, cannot because of other duties, but many could give two or three hours a week and certainly it could not be given in a better cause. Have you tried to plan for those two or three hours?

The Surgical Dressing Committee is giving three full days and one evening each week to supervise, instruct, direct and inspect the making of these dressings. Your time and effort will be greatly appreciated if you will come to any of these sessions.

If, however, it is not possible for any group to come on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, the Committee will arrange for Mondays if they are assured a minimum of 20 workers.

If 20 or more people would like to work as a group representing any special organization, please call Mrs. Joseph Tyler or Mrs. Ralph Flower, who are in charge of this work and who will be glad to arrange for the time.

HUGH MEHORTER TO ADDRESS LEGION POST

Post Frederick M. Rodgers No. 156, American Legion, is to have as its guest speaker at its monthly meeting, Tuesday evening, April 6th, Hugh L. Mehorter, a member of the Gloucester County Board of Freeholders, of the Delaware Bridge Commission and is also president of the Gloucester County Historical Society. In the latter capacity Mr. Mehorter has the reputation of being an authority on the history of that County.

Born in Wenonah and attending the Woodbury Public Schools, he was a leader in football and continued his playing for some years, being considered one of the best quarterbacks in the vicinity.

After an enviable record on the front in World War, Part I, he returned to Gloucester County and became State Agent for one of the large Fire Insurance Companies. He has been quite active in the American Legion.

The business meeting of the Post will be completed by 9:30, at which time Mr. Mehorter is scheduled to speak, and the Post extends a cordial invitation to the wives and friends of the members and to the general public to come into the Post rooms on Broad Street at 9:30 and enjoy Mr. Mehorter's address. Post officials say that not only will you be welcomed but that the Post would consider it an honor to have a large turnout of the citizens of Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson.

Tomorrow is the ambushed walk avoided by the circumspet. Tomorrow is the fatal rock on which a million ships are wrecked.—Walt Mason.

Meat Equivalent Foods

There Are Many Foods Available That Do Not Require the Use of Ration Tickets

THE emphasis will fall on non-rationed foods this year, with homemakers feeding their families more fresh fruits and vegetables. Products from Victory Gardens will be canned at home. Meat equivalents will be popular and served frequently.

Here are recipes for main-dishes that do not contain meat but take the place of meat in the diet. These are called meat equivalents.

Egg Soufflé

2 tbsp. butter 1 cup milk
2 tbsp. flour 1 cup cooked vegetables
1/4 tsp. salt 3 eggs
1/4 tsp. pepper
Juice or onion salt

Melt butter; add flour and seasonings. When flour bubbles, add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook until thick. Add cooked vegetables and well-beaten egg yolks. Cook one minute longer. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Cut and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased baking dish and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes.

Baked Beans

1 lb. dried beans, 1/4 lb. bacon, salt, pea, navy or marrowfat
2 qts. cold water 1 1/2 tsp. salt

Soak beans 12 hours or overnight in cold water. Leave beans in water and bring to boil; cook slowly just below boiling point for about 2 hours or until tender. When beans are tender the skin can easily be blown from them.

Drain beans, reserving liquid, and place in shallow pan uncovered. Press meat; cut into 1 inch squares on top of beans. Add boiling bean liquid, just enough to cover beans. Bake 2 or 3 hours, adding bean liquid or boiling water as needed. The last hour of cooking, do not add liquid so beans will have a crisp brown crust; or they may be browned under the broiler.

Kidney Bean Salad

1 can kidney beans 1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/4 cup celery, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup chopped salt
1/4 cup pickle relish Pepper

Mix all ingredients and add salt and pepper to taste.

Bean Loaf

1 cup cold cooked 1 tbsp. chopped lima, navy or kidney beans Salt, pepper to taste
1 egg, well beaten 2 tbsp. tomato catsup
1 cup bread crumbs

Combine ingredients and shape into loaf pan and bake for 25 minutes at 350 degrees F. Serve with strips of broiled bacon.

Help Our Fighting Men

Those of us in Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson who cannot fight in this war CAN help our men in the armed forces by contributing to the Red Cross War Fund. It is urgent that we give to the utmost if our quotas are to be attained.

Remember:

No matter where our soldiers are, from India to Iceland, from Alaska to Australia, the Red Cross is nearby, ready in sickness and in health, alert for mental as well as physical needs.

Will Red Cross Funds be sufficient to help every soldier and sailor—every stunned and bewildered war sufferer? That depends on YOU—and your generosity.

Church Notices

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Fifth Street and Maple Avenue
Palmyra

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

As Calvin Coolidge once said, "We do not need more material development; we need more spiritual development. We do not need more intellectual power; we need more moral power. We do not need more knowledge; we need more character. We do not need more government; we need more culture. We do not need more law; we need more religion. We do not need more of the things that are seen; we need more of the things that are unseen."

Our boys in the armed forces, because of their Christian training, are standing the test. They expect us to keep pace. Are we here at home going to let them down? We can ill afford to be indifferent. To be concerned is a step forward but to get up and do something about it is what is required of every individual. Your church stands ready to serve you and them. Will you serve through it? At all times, Central Baptist extends a welcome to all.

About Town

Constance and Barbara Evert, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Evert, entertained a number of their young friends last Friday afternoon at a party in celebration of their sixteenth birthday.

Miss Mary Louise Baker, a student at George School, daughter of Mrs. Francis Baker, of Woodside Lane, Riverton, has been spending the spring vacation at her home.

A Philadelphia daily newspaper carried this week a picture of four-year-old Martha Hallowell McCloskey, of Beverly, a direct descendant of Betsy Ross, attesting a Red Cross flag in the Betsy Ross House at 239 Arch street, Philadelphia. Martha is the granddaughter of Mrs. Edwin S. Parry, of Riverton.

The regular meeting of the Palmyra Junior Women's Club will be held Monday evening, April 5th, at the Club House.

The meeting has been arranged by Mrs. Robert Strahan, Chairman of the Drama Department, and Miss Doris Hampton, Chairman of the Music Department.

The program will consist of a play given by the drama class of the Palmyra High School under the direction of Miss Edna K. Ziegler and selections by the Palmyra Junior Women's Glee Club.

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Palmyra and vicinity will enjoy its annual Theatre Party next Monday evening, April 5. Dinner in Philadelphia will precede the evening entertainment.

A dancing class for juniors, taught by Miss Mavis L. Reynolds, at 501 Bank avenue, started last week with eight boys and eight girls at its initial session.

Because of the number requesting admission to the group, Miss Reynolds will hold classes on Wednesday and Friday evenings each week during the next two months.

The class is sponsored by Mrs. Earl Stewart and Mrs. George C. Kimball.

The speaker at the next meeting of the local Business and Professional Men's Club will be W. Rex McCrosson, of Palmyra.

The annual banquet of the Business and Professional Men's Club will be held on the evening of Tuesday, May 4, at a place to be announced later, according to Philip Shulman, of Palmyra, who is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Porter B. Caldwell, Jr., U. S. N., who recently completed his "boot" training at the United States Navy Station at Sampson, New York, is spending a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Porter B. Caldwell, Elm Terrace, Riverton.

BENEFIT DANCE PLANNED FOR WAR FUND CAMPAIGN
Local No. 47, Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers Union of Burlington county is planning a benefit dance on Wednesday evening, April 21, the entire proceeds of which will be turned over to the Burlington county War Fund.

The affair will be held in the Burlington County Labor Association Hall, Union street, Mt. Holly, and Moore's Orchestra of that community will play. This band has a very fine record. Tickets are $1.00 per person, plus tax.

The ballroom of the hall is most spacious and will provide ample room for a large crowd. Those in charge of the affair trust that a capacity number of dancers will attend and promise a thoroughly enjoyable evening, in addition to benefitting a most worthy cause.

MAKE GASOLINE APPLICATIONS EARLY
Motorists can make application for new gasoline ration books within 30 days of the expiration date of their book, according to T. Curtis Flynn, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board.

With this in mind, Mr. Flynn urges that car drivers file their applications for gasoline books well in advance of the time their stamps will be exhausted in order to relieve the serious congestion that takes place in the local board office each Monday night when many who are without stamps attempt to have their applications acted upon at once. With the limited personnel available it is often impossible for the gas panel to take care of the cases presented. As a matter of fact, the law allows the board 10 days to act on such applications.

Mr. Flynn also stated that it is not necessary to appear at board headquarters for renewal of gas books. All that is necessary is to fill out an application form, attach the tire inspection certificate and mail it or leave it at the board office. In the event that the application is granted the book will be mailed as soon as possible.

Anyone who has seen the crowd at the local ration board on Monday evenings will readily appreciate the problem that confronts the officials in charge.

If one would be successful in the future, let him make the most of the present.—Mary Baker Eddy.

LAUNDRIES COMMENDED BY HEALTH OFFICIALS

The vital need of public health on the home front was stressed in a statement today by Dr. J. Lynn Mahaffey, Director of Health of the State of New Jersey. Dr. Mahaffey expressed approval of the recent Manpower ruling making laundries and linen supply services in the State of New Jersey essential to the war effort, declaring that "greater dependence is logically placed on the public laundry" today, and emphasizing that we should "make every effort to maintain our standards of health and cleanliness."

His statement follows:
"During wartime it is vital that public health, as well as public morale, be upheld on the Home Front. There are many factors which contribute to the public health, not the least of which is cleanliness."

"Recently, I understand, the War Manpower Commission declared the laundries and linen supply services in New Jersey to be essential to the war effort. This is one contributing step which all citizens may approve of. Today, with the increase in the number of housewives entering industrial plants, care of the home laundry is becoming a greater problem and greater dependence is logically placed upon the public laundry. We should all make every effort to maintain our standards of health and cleanliness; for clean persons make toward a clean Nation; a clean Nation makes for a strong Nation."

BUY U. S. WAR SAVINGS BONDS AND STAMPS

54th Year, No. 11

SECOND WAR LOAN STARTS APRIL 12

The Second War Loan starts on April 12 and the Government of the United States is asking its citizens to lend it the sum of 13 billion dollars. The campaign in Riverton is being headed by Howard B. Conover, official of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Co., of Riverton, while Mayor John F. Ward is in charge in Palmyra.

In commenting on the need for wholehearted cooperation on the part of local residents, Mr. Conover spoke as follows:

"The first and dominating motive is the patriotic desire to back up the men on the fighting fronts. They are protecting us with their lives; it is part of our civilian job to protect them with our money."

"Investing in United States Government Bonds is the effective way for us to do our share on the home front. You will find that many of your prospects have sons, relatives, or friends in the service, and the appeal to them takes on a deeper significance."

"The second important motive is the fact that purchase of Government securities—safest in the world—provides an excellent opportunity for everyone to build a backlog of buying power to use after the war is won—to buy new automobiles, refrigerators, household appliances, to build homes and complete education programs. It is imperative to save while incomes are large so that we all can enter the post-war reconstruction period with confidence."

Investing Not Giving
"This is Investing, Not Giving. Citizens are being asked to invest their money in Victory, through purchase of the best security in the world—a United States Government Bond. It is a loan. The Government will repay, with interest."

"To Purchase United States Government Bonds up to the Limit of One's Capacity is a Patriotic Duty. It is a privilege and an opportunity. "Every dollar invested in United States Government Bonds enables the buyer to share directly in supplying the money needed to furnish our fighting forces, and those of our allies, with guns and planes; with ships and tanks."

LAST EVENING OF VICTORY GARDEN LECTURES

The last of the Victory Garden lectures, held in the Riverton Public School each Monday evening for the last six weeks, will come to a close next week, April 12.

Constance Blain, Home Demonstration Agent for Burlington County, will be the speaker again and will carry on her theme of this week. Miss Blain will especially emphasize the latest ideas on nutrition and will talk on the different preparations of foods grown at home as well as menus in general.

WAR FUND TOTALS

An accurate total of funds contributed to the Red Cross War Fund in Burlington county has not been possible to date, since a number of branches have not yet made a complete return. Officials expect, however, that information of this nature will be available the latter part of the week.

From such reports as have been turned in to F. Wallis Armstrong, chairman of the drive, it is evident that many branches are doing exceptionally well, while in others the total is far below the quota.

As of Friday of last week, Moorestown reported contributions of over $10,000. The quota there is $12,000. Riverton, one of the smaller communities in the county, but with the third highest quota ($8,000) announced contributions of $5,000.

Reported totals from five branches were as follows:

	Raised	Quota
Moorestown, over	$10,000	$12,000
Riverton, over	6,000	8,000
Burlington, over	6,000	10,000
Mt. Holly, over	5,000	7,000
Palmyra, over	3,750	5,550

Columbus, Medford Lakes, Washington Township, have gone over the top and several smaller communities are very close to their goal.

NEW RED CROSS FIRST AID CLASS

A new Red Cross First Aid Class will be started within the next two weeks under the direction of Richard Oliver.

Instruction will be given in the Cinnaminson Public School at dates and hours to be announced in the near future.

All those interested in taking the course are asked to phone Mrs. R. J. Woods, Riverton 0516, as soon as possible.

WAR CURTAINS TWO SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

At the meeting of the Riverton Board of Education held on Monday night of this week, the supervising principal, Miss Caroline M. Staman, announced that, due to wartime conditions, two usual activities would not be held this year. These are the annual Play Day program at Memorial Park and the annual dinner tendered the members of the Board of Education by the students in the domestic science department.

Several changes in the physical education department have made it impossible to arrange play day activities and the food rationing has made it impractical for the PTA to serve the usual supper. Because the school has no cafeteria it is also impossible to obtain supplies for the board dinner.

The annual school exhibit will also be cancelled. In its place each class will have a parents' day at which time the pupils will demonstrate some phase of their work which they feel will be particularly interesting to parents.

Paul R. Jones, supervising principal of Palmyra High School will meet with the parents of members of the eighth grade on Wednesday night of next week at the Riverton school. At this time he will discuss courses and schedules with those who may be interested.

FIREMEN ANSWER SEVERAL CALLS

Firemen in Riverton and Palmyra were kept on the jump over the weekend as both companies responded to four alarms, there being two fires in each community.

On Saturday afternoon the men battled a large field fire near S-41. This was extinguished without damage after considerable work.

Shortly before noon Sunday the firemen were called for another field fire off Thomas avenue near the country club. This also burned over a considerable area but was stopped by a line from the booster tank before any damage resulted.

A small grass fire on Lippincott avenue, near Highway, was the cause for another alarm in the middle of the afternoon.

The last call came late in the afternoon for a fire in a two story dwelling on Broad street, west of Arch. Dense black smoke was pouring from the entire structure as the firemen arrived and it appeared that a serious blaze was in progress.

The firemen quickly located the source of the blaze which proved to be a defective oil stove in the kitchen at the rear. The fire was extinguished quickly, but considerable damage had already been caused to the interior by smoke. It was necessary to use gas masks to operate inside the house due to the density of the fumes.

Evidently the stove had not been functioning properly for some time before the blaze was discovered.

YOU'LL BE PROUD TO BE A DONOR

The Government is asking for thousands of units of human blood a month to be used in transfusions to save the lives of soldiers, sailors and civilians suffering from shock following injuries, hemorrhage, or burns.

The Red Cross Blood Donor Service is the answer to this request. It is meeting a basic National Defense need. Through this service volunteer blood donors have an opportunity to take a vital part in the war program.

Blood donors must not have history of tuberculosis, malaria during the past fifteen years, peptic ulcer, diabetes or other chronic illness. Women may not weigh less than 110 pounds. Men, 125 pounds. Under 21 must have written consent of parent. Age limit, 60 years.

Donors should eat good meal four hours before appointment, then take nothing during the four hours before appointment except fruit juices, black coffee or tea.

Keep appointment.

NEW ACTIVITY SHOWN AT DEFENSE MEETING

The Cinnaminson Township Defense Organizations were well represented at the Monthly meeting held in the auditorium of the Colored Public School last Monday Night.

Instructional sound films were shown outlining the duties of the various units under actual bombing conditions.

A new first aid class is being organized.

Instructions were given concerning the new All Clear signal to be used during the coming surprise test air raid.

Members of all units are urged to attend the next meeting which will be announced after the coming test raid.

RE-OPENING OF RIVERTON PORCH CLUB

On Tuesday, April 13th, the Riverton Porch Club will again be open for activities and for public functions. On this day, at 2:30 p.m., a most important monthly business meeting will be held.

Following this, Alena D. Kastorsky, a former Russian countess, now living nearby in Jersey, will be the speaker of the afternoon. Having spent earlier years of her life in Russia she is able to bring to her audience an intimate and revealing picture of the situation now existing in that country. Mrs. Kastorsky is no stranger to Riverton and her return here is greatly anticipated.

Mrs. Lemuel N. Burhoe, chairman of the international relations department of the Club, and her committee will serve tea at the close of the afternoon.

SPEEDERS LOSE GASOLINE STAMPS

The teeth in the 35 mile an hour wartime speed limit began to show themselves locally on Wednesday night of last week when the gasoline panel of the local War Price and Rationing Board held hearings on several violations that had been reported to them by State police.

All of those brought before the panel had been given a hearing before a recorder and found guilty of the charge. In such cases, the offender is ordered to appear before the Ration board which has the authority to deprive him of his gasoline book, or books, or remove a certain number of stamps, depending upon the seriousness of the case.

Penalties
In view of the fact that all those given a hearing Thursday night were first offenders, the most severe penalty imposed was the lifting of two stamps from each of several books.

T. Curtis Flynn, chairman of the Board, warned the speeders, however, that a recurrence of the offense would result in the lifting of the entire book. All of those penalized appeared to be aware of the gravity of the situation, with the exception of one smart youth of 17 who swaggered in with a leer on his face demanding to know what it was all about and why had he been bothered.

After being warned by Mr. Flynn that his attitude would probably result in his book being taken away forthwith the wise boy retorted that he didn't have one anyway, since he had already sold the car which he was operating when found guilty as a reckless driver.

Mr. Flynn assured the youth that he had done a wise thing in disposing of the machine since as far as the local board was concerned he would never have obtained fuel with which to operate it in view of his offense and disgraceful demeanor.

TALKS ABOUT VARIOUS STATE INSTITUTIONS

A most interesting talk about several State institutions was given the members of the local Business and Professional Men's Club on Tuesday of this week by W. Rex McCrosson, of Palmyra, who has charge of the Soldiers' Home at Vineland and who was formerly superintendent of the State Prison Farm at Leesburg.

Devoting the major part of his address to the prison farm, Mr. McCrosson stated that this is known as the minimum security type of prison, where the 240-275 inmates have a considerable amount of freedom. Although many are serving long sentences, very few attempt to leave although only three guards are on duty at night and there are no walls.

Large Farm
The men do various jobs about the buildings and many work on the 2,000-acre farm, performing tasks which

The few who attempt to escape, he said, are generally motivated by family troubles at home.

RATION BOARD A BUSY PLACE

Few people realize the tremendous amount of work that is being done every day and evening by the regular and volunteer personnel of War Price and Ration Board, of Palmyra, of which T. Curtis Flynn is chairman.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, April 11, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations." (Ps. 67:1, 2)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "He that is our God, is the God of salvation;" (Ps. 68:20)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sickness, sin, and death, being inharmonious, do not originate in God nor belong to His government. His law, rightly understood, destroys them." "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made." (p. 472).

Mr. Magee makes the following suggestions:
If you find a license plate in the street, don't put it on a pole or fence post. Turn it in to the police department or motor vehicle licensing agency. Better yet, drop a postal card to the Motor Vehicle Department, Trenton, asking for the name and address of the person to whom the tag was issued and have him call for it. He'll be grateful for your thoughtfulness.

Lost plates stuck on poles or fences may fall into the hands of unscrupulous persons.
The cost of a new plate is minor but the conservation of metal is all-important to the war.

BE CAREFUL OF
CAR LICENSE PLATES
Warning that the problem of lost license plates may become critical this year, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee today asked the cooperation of the general public in returning tags that are found in the streets to their rightful owners.

The Commissioner stated that during the past year 11,500 sets of duplicate tags were issued to car owners to replace those lost in traffic. This was not only annoying to the car owner whose vehicle was tied up until the new plates were issued but it was a serious drain on the limited supply of plates on hand with the Department.

Mr. Magee makes the following suggestions:
If you find a license plate in the street, don't put it on a pole or fence post. Turn it in to the police department or motor vehicle licensing agency. Better yet, drop a postal card to the Motor Vehicle Department, Trenton, asking for the name and address of the person to whom the tag was issued and have him call for it. ## YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

By Dr. Charles H. Connors
N. J. College of Agriculture

PREPARING THE SOIL

The hardest job for gardening is preparing the soil, if you have to do it. There are two cautions. One is, don't do the job too soon and don't try to do too much at one time.

Tools to Use

First of all, a spade, or many people prefer a long handled shovel, is the best tool to use where the soil is in sod or hasn't been worked for some time. For a garden that has been dug recently, a spading fork is a good tool. If they would only make them with long handles for long geared people, it would be fine.

When is the Soil Ready?

Of course, you cannot dig when the frost is in the ground, although many inexperienced gardeners will probably try to do so. If the soil is dug before it is in condition to work it may be made unsuitable for growing good crops. Where the soil is sandy, it dries out rapidly, but where it tends to be heavy or clayey, if dug when wet, it cannot be broken up and will form lumps which will dry out and be like bricks.

There are two very simple tests. One is turn over a spadeful and hit it with the back of the spade. If it falls apart readily, it is in condition to dig. Another test is to take a handful and squeeze it in your fist. Then use the thumb of the same hand and try to crumble it. If it crumbles easily, go ahead and dig.

Digging is pretty tough work, because it will bring into play muscles that may never have been used before. Therefore, don't do too much at once, for you will not only have a lame back and sore arms and thighs, but you will not do a good job. The soil must be turned over to a depth of 8 or 10 inches, and when you get tired you may be digging only 5 inches deep, and crops will not do well in soil prepared to that depth. Greater depth permits good drainage and better root penetration. The better the roots, the better the tops.

How to Improve the Soil

When the soil is in fit condition to work, first spread the manure evenly over the surface and then the lime and fertilizer required. There is this caution, however. In case you do not expect to dig the entire garden in one day, apply the lime and fertilizer only to that part you anticipate digging.

Why and How to Dig
As for the technique to follow, that's up to you. The object is to dig the soil to a depth of 8 or 10 inches, breaking up the soil to provide for rapid drainage of excess water, to permit air to enter, and to allow wide range for the roots for food materials. To do these things, soil must be dug to a uniform depth, turned over and the fertilizing and improving materials mixed in as well as you can.

The implement or the cutting part of the implement must at all times be vertical to secure uniform depth. Work in a straight line, otherwise it will not be a workmanlike job. Don't take too big a bite. A 6 or 8 inch bite is enough. If digging sod, cut it first with the spade the width of which you will turn with the spade, throw it into the furrow and chop it with the spade into small pieces.

There are two general methods used in digging. The soil from the first furrow is turned out on the second, later to be placed in the last furrow. Then you can either face the headland or work at right angles to it. Most persons face it. You can take a lesson from the old Irish ditch digger. He did not use his arms and back for the full operation but used his thigh as a fulcrum for a lever, pressing down on the handle. As you lift a spade or fork full of soil, turn it over quickly so that it is inverted. What had been the top is now at the bottom of the furrow, and then hit it a whack with the tool to cause it to break apart and thus assist in mixing the materials added.

After digging, rake thoroughly to fill up depressions and to fine the soil for a seed bed.
(Those desiring additional information or help with their garden problems should consult with their local Victory Garden leader or supervisor. Problems that cannot be solved locally will be referred by him to your County Agricultural Agent.)

After the assembly program there was an art exhibit in the eighth grade room. There were moving pictures shown by the sixth grade which were made by placing rolls of paper in wooden boxes. The pictures represented Greek and Roman art. There were also small ones, made in matchboxes. Pocket mirrors with scenes on them representing Greek and Roman art formed an attractive decoration on the bulletin board. The seventh grade displayed illustrated compositions about people of South America and panoramas of African scenes.

The eighth grade was glad to welcome a few parents, but was genuinely sorry it was not possible for others to come.

7TH GRADE PARENTS DAY

In connection with a unit of work on the early colonization of America, the Seventh grade presented a play "Henry Hudson" in assembly, on March 22nd. The parents of the children in Seventh grade were invited to attend the assembly and also to visit the upper grade classrooms afterward. The children were glad to have seven mothers present, but were sorry that more did not avail themselves of this special invitation to visit their classrooms.

5TH GRADE PARENTS DAY

On Tuesday afternoon, March 30th, the Fifth grade held open house. Fourteen guests were present to watch the work of the class and to hear about the things that have been done during this year.

Two regular classes were held, arithmetic and spelling. In arithmetic some new work was taught. It was subtraction of fractions with borrowing. In spelling, the words for the week were discussed, and help was given with the difficult ones; this was followed by a test.

After these two lessons were finished, the pupils held an oral English period in which they explained to the mothers the various parts of the exhibit. They told about the paintings, maps, charts, victory posters, and other interesting things.

8TH GRADE GIVES PROGRAM

A very unusual assembly program was given by the eighth grade of Riverton School on March 21st. Historical slides of famous buildings, landmarks of New Jersey, and also of Colonial homes, schools, and historical points were shown. These were given by the pupils who made them. The slides were made under the instruction of the Art teacher and were prepared by placing powder between two pieces of glass. After moistening the powder, the pieces of glass were rubbed together to make the surface rough, free hand drawings were transferred, pictures were colored and slides were bound.

After the assembly program there was an art exhibit in the eighth grade room. There were moving pictures shown by the sixth grade which were made by placing rolls of paper in wooden boxes. The pictures represented Greek and Roman art. There were also small ones, made in matchboxes. ## UNNECESSARY USE

OF AUTO HORNS

Stirred by complaints from war workers whose sleep has been disturbed by the unnecessary honking of automobile horns, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee today warned the motoring public that this practice is both unpatriotic and unlawful. Violators can be fined up to $50 for each offense.

Horns should be used for only one purpose and Commissioner Magee quotes Chapter 39:3-69, Revised Statutes, as follows:

"The driver of a motor vehicle shall, when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation, give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway."

Using the horn to attract attention inside buildings is certainly not a legitimate use and it can be especially annoying to war workers living in the area trying to sleep, said the Commissioner. He added that since every block has its quota of war workers, the patriotic thing to do is stop using the horn except in times of emergency, "when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation."

Commissioner Magee calls upon police and magistrates to give special attention to this chapter of the motor vehicle law. Citizens, too, can aid its enforcement by reporting flagrant violations to the proper authorities.

We always have time enough, if we will but use it aright.—Goethe.

KEEP DOGS TIED UP

In order to prevent damage to the many Victory Gardens that are being planted in Cinnaminson Township, Chief of Police Eric Veitenheimer urges that all dog owners keep their pets at home or tie them up so that they will not roam at large and thus do damage by digging in the gardens. The cooperation of all residents in this matter will be greatly appreciated, since no one likes to see a freshly planted bed ruined by prowling canines.

The 2nd War Loan Starts April 12

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building... We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.

For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

There Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Securities—Choose The Ones Best Suited For You:

United States War Savings Bonds—Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Designed especially for the smaller investor. Dated 1st day of month in which payment is received. Interest: 2.9% a year if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2 1/2% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969: Readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated April 15, 1943; due June 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000—also $1,000,000 if registered. "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, April 18, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.
The Golden Text is: "Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father." (Gal. 1:3, 4)
Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father." (John 10:15)
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage." (p. 18)

MORE GRASS FIRES

The weekend again proved a busy one for fire companies in this section the men being called out on four occasions for grass fires. All were extinguished without damage.

The first call came Friday afternoon for a blaze in a yard between Lincoln and Elm terrace on Harrison street. Early Saturday afternoon there was a field fire off Columbia avenue, near Cleveland and this was followed by a grass fire at Fifth and Morgan. The Riverton and Palmyra Fire Companies answered all these alarms.

Shortly after 5 o'clock, the firemen from Parry, Riverton and Palmyra battled a woods fire for over an hour at Highland avenue, near Route 25. Last week apparatus from Riverton and Palmyra went to a location near the Cambridge School where a two-story dwelling was on fire. There was no water in the vicinity and both booster tanks were used. Firemen from Riverside, Riverside Park, and East Riverton answered this alarm.

A test blackout was held on Friday night of last week at 10 o'clock with good results. The sounding of a 10-second siren blast for the all-clear was an improvement over the previous plan. This signal, although short, was heard generally.

Residents are warned, however, that house lights are to be extinguished on the sounding of the first "blue" signal and must not be turned on again until the all clear.

Many homes were lighted after the second "blue" and wardens were compelled to order these extinguished.

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

As erica's banks have felt the impact of war from many sides. They have been called upon to perform numerous war services, such as selling War Bonds, purchasing the Treasury's securities, and financing war production. On the other side of the ledger it is interesting to see what is happening to Banking's man (and woman) power. Of a total of 280,000 bank staff members, 70,000 were lost to war production and armed services in 1942. The American Bankers Association estimates that 100,000 more will go in 1943. The road ahead looks rough, but Banking will "carry on."

HOW TO STRETCH MEAT ALLOWANCE UNDER RATIONING

Despite rationing, you can still have plenty of meat on your table these days if you are willing to mix some of the less desirable cuts with those which are more choice and use all left-overs.

The cheaper grades and cuts of meat, though not so tender, if prepared right are just as full of food value and every bit as tasty as the higher-priced steaks and roasts. The chief difference is that they take more time in cooking and more skill in seasoning.

Here are a few tips for getting the most from your meat allowance:

1. Plan Your Purchases. Plan meals well ahead of time. If you have a cold place for left-overs, you save time and fuel by cooking a larger piece of meat than is needed for one meal. Cooked meat is excellent sliced cold, and every tidbit can go into tasty dishes, hot or cold. You can cut down fuel costs by selecting meat that can be cooked on top of the stove.

2. Save Trimmings and Bones. Preparing a cut of meat for the pan may call for a certain amount of trimming. Save any well-flavored lean tidbits to make a stew or to grind for meat patties.

Save the fat trimmings. If they have a good flavor, melt them down at low heat, strain the drippings, store in a covered container in a dry, cold place, and use the fat for cooking. Return any surplus fat to your fat collection depot.

Tender, well-fatted meat holds its juices, cooks perfectly in an open pan if moderate heat is used.

Tough meat, on the other hand, requires long, slow cooking in a covered pan with water or steam. So turn the less tender cuts into pot roast, stew, or some other braised dish. Or, grind them and cook the same as tender meat. Meat cooked in water or steamed is juicier if cooled in the broth for an hour or longer.

3. Vary The Seasoning. Try new flavors in meat dishes. Many a home-dish has been given added zest at little cost by garden herbs and other seasonings. The following are particularly good with meat: onions, tomatoes, sage, thyme, sweet marjoram, basil, leaf savory, bay leaf, mint leaves, parsley (fresh or dried), celery tops (fresh or dried), celery seed, caraway seed, cloves, pepper, paprika, green peppers, curry, grated horseradish, garlic, and many others. If you can't find all these spices and seasonings at your grocer's, you may grow some of them in your own garden or window box.

4. Cooking Your Meat. Moderate heat cooks meat evenly and makes it tender. Moderate heat also keeps losses through cooking low, so there is more meat left to serve for each pound purchased.

Be Thrifty with Left-Overs. Save all left-over meat, gravy, or drippings. Make broth of the bones. Keep left-over cooked meat cold, and serve as liced meat or in salad. Or use left-over meat with other foods in appetizing hot dishes such as stuffed peppers, chop suey, curry, browned hash, croquettes.

"WORKING MOTHERS"

Before this present conflict is successfully concluded a complete but reasonable mobilization of all human and material resources will be needed.

If this mobilization is not a reasonable one our defense efforts will be hindered and not helped.

There are sufficient women unmarried, or married with grown children, to fill defense jobs without accepting mothers of infants and young children for employment.

One of the chief causes of infant mortality is the lack of a mother's care. There is no substitute for breast feeding. No relative, friend, or hired help will give an infant the care that can be expected from a mother. Accidents and illness will not wait for the five o'clock whistle. A mother on the grave yard shift may result in the grave for her baby.

Long years of poverty and self-sacrifice have whetted the appetites of many young mothers for the luxuries which come with a weekly defense job pay check.

Let these mothers remember that their duty to their children comes before everything else. In these young children lies the future resources of the new world to come. These mothers must remain mobilized at home.

Sixty-seven pieces are to be found in the weekly laundry bundle of the average New Jersey family. The family bundle generally runs between 17 and 20 pounds in weight.

RIVERTON SCHOOL NOTES

On Monday, April 12th, 1943, the Sixth grade took charge of the program for the regular weekly Assembly. The program was opened by a piano solo by Lorraine Davis. After that, different pupils of the class read biographies of famous people but did not give their names and the different classes tried to guess who it was. The program was closed by a piano solo by Joellyn Van Horn.

After Assembly, the mothers went to the class room, and the class conducted a special meeting for them to tell about their work. Since the club conducts literary meetings, book reports were also given. The class was glad to have so many mothers attend the assembly and room meeting.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Communication to The New Era:

I wish to compliment Mayor Ward and all members of Palmyra Borough Council, for the way they are handling the Borough's business.

Also when selecting an agent or broker to handle the Borough's insurance that they have selected a voter in Palmyra, namely, S. Stuart Buchholz, who is a whole time agent and broker, and is a fine man in all his dealings.

I wish to extend my personal thanks to Councilman Wesley P. Huyett, for paying to have snow shoveled off the side walks of the YMCA property.

SCOUT HIKE

Last week-end the Patrol Leaders and their assistants went on an overnight hike as part of the preparatory Scouting for the Camporee. The Scouts hiked with full packs from their headquarters to the camp site which led them across country and provided a good "shakedown" hike. This tested the Scouts' ability to make good packs which would hold together through all kinds of rough treatment.

Five Green Bar leaders attended led by their Scoutmaster. The camp was set up by pairs, each couple having certain prearranged duties to perform. Cooking was done on a patrol basis, the couples taking turns at cooking for the whole group. The food was excellent.

Stalking contests were held and the Scouts did very well, several of them getting to within 25 feet of their objective before being discovered. Sunday morning an exploratory hike was held. After the noon-day meal the Reverend Francis Downs visited the camp and held a service for the Scouts.

Those who attended were Patrol

Leaders Larry Hewlett, Rus Phelps, and Don Garwood. The Assistant Patrol Leaders were Francis Huber, and Bob Lundstedt.

On May 1 and 2 the entire Troop will go on an overnight camp.

Many a victory gardener will be annoyed or completely disabled by ivy poisoning.

The resinous material in the leaf of this plant causes a skin irritation of various degrees of severity in susceptible people. Immunity to poison ivy may appear or disappear at any time.

To prevent poison ivy poisoning a simple but practical cream has been developed. It consists of vanishing cream, 50 grams into which 5 grams of sodium perborate is mixed. This makes a 10 percent cream which should be made up fresh every 2 weeks. It is rubbed into the skin of the hands and face in the morning, washed off with soap and water at a few hours at room temperature.

Cook at once, or wrap in wax paper to keep odor from other food, and sodium perborate almost completely oxidizes the toxin of poison ivy. The cream should be kept away from the eyes.

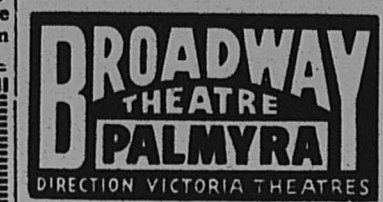

If poisoning occurs, the resin should be thoroughly emulsified and washed off with plenty of soap and hot water. The poison remaining in the skin pores should then be neutralized with rubbing alcohol. After this procedure the skin inflammation may be treated with simple calomine lotion.

All severe cases of ivy poisoning should be seen and treated immediately by a physician.

Don't wash eggs before storing. Water destroys the protective film that keeps out air and odors. Wipe eggs off with dry, rough cloth. Store eggs in open bowl or wire basket in a cool place.

Fish and other sea foods spoil in a few hours at room temperature. Cook at once, or wrap in wax paper to keep odor from other food, and sodium perborate almost completely oxidizes the toxin of poison ivy. The cream should be kept away from the eyes.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

George A. Darlington, for the past eight years Scout Executive of the Burlington County Council, Boy Scouts of America, has accepted a similar position in Dutchess County, N. Y. It represents an advancement both in opportunity for achievement and financial reward over his present location. Dutchess County has a considerably larger population, several hundred more Scouts and greater facilities for program development than Burlington County. Mr. Darlington will work out of Pughkeepsie, a city of some forty thousand inhabitants.

More than ever, it becomes evident what Mr. Darlington has done for Scouting in Burlington County. His hard work, never failing enthusiasm and genial personality have been fundamental to the growth of the Council program, and his many friends wish him every success in his new job.

In order that as little time as possible be lost in the selection of a successor, a committee has been appointed consisting of Mr. Edwin A. Russell, Vice-President of the Council, Commander J. B. Ryan, Chairman of the Camping and Activities Committee, and Mr. V. Larwood Caldwell, Scout Commissioner, to investigate applicants for the position. They will report to the Executive Board of the Council at its approaching meeting on April 20th.

Among Mr. Darlington's achievements during his term of service in Burlington County, may be noted the reorganization of the general service of Scout Units, the development of Salvage activities, the purchase of a new campsite, and an increased growth of the Scouting Program in all of its phases. He has served as president of the Moorestown Rotary Club, has been active on the local Defense Council, and has been a member of numerous committees for growth and community activities.

The mind that is cheerful at present will have no solicitude for the future, and will meet the bitter occurrences of life with a smile.—Horace.

About Town

Mrs. Margaret Weber and son Jack, of Ventnor, and Mrs. Elizabeth Haughey, of Prospect Park, spent several days last week with Mrs. Albert Smith, of West Broad street.

Morris J. Steedle, of Riverton, has received an honorable discharge from the Army to work with an essential war industry.

Robert T. Wright, 2nd Class Seaman in the Seabees, is spending a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Wright, of Linden avenue, Riverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Elliott, of Elm avenue, Riverton, received word this week that their son, Staff Sergeant Howard Elliott, has received his commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Army. Lt. Elliott has been stationed in Australia for some time.

The regular meeting of the Palmyra Junior Women's Club will be held Monday evening, April 19th, at the Club House.

Miss Hilda Grob, Chairman of the International Relations Department, has arranged the program. The speaker of the evening is Mr. Herman C. Lum, of the American University of Cairo, Egypt. He is bringing us a lecture and technicolor film of scenes of life in North Africa.

At this time especially this is a topic of universal interest and a very worthwhile as well as entertaining program has been planned. Come and bring your friends.

Carter Henderson, a student at the Palmyra High School, will take his place as a Boy-Assemblyman in the YMCA Model Legislature in Trenton, Friday, April 16. He will be among 200 Boy-Legislators from all parts of the state who submit, debate and legislate on bills of local and state importance.

The golf season at the Riverton Country Club will be officially opened on Saturday, April 24. While the usual Stag Party will not be held, the committee expects that a considerable number of the members will be on hand for the kickers Tournament.

Mrs. Wilson Nein, of Reading, Pa., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Ewald, of Vine street, Palmyra.

Mrs. Thomas A. Cashin, Elm terrace, Riverton, has recently completed a six weeks' course in the Sister Kenney treatment for infantile paralysis at Camden Municipal Hospital, under the direction of Dr. Joseph Lovett. Mrs. Cashin is a member of the registered nurses group of the health committee of the Riverton Civil Defense Council.

Ensign John H. Yost, who has been stationed at Camp Perry, Williamsburg, Va., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Yost, Thomas avenue, Riverton, prior to his reporting at Harvard on April 19, where he will attend the U. S. Navy Supply School.

The many friends of Miss M. Sallie Coddington, of Cinnaminson street, Riverton, will be glad to learn that she is now able to sit up for the first time in several months.

At the meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week, the annual report of the auditor, Albert J. Frohock, was presented. Mr. Frohock heartily complimented the various township officials for their fine work in handling the financial affairs and stated that the books were in the best condition of any municipality of which he had any knowledge. A summary of the audit is published in this week's issue of The New Era.

A representative of the Public Service Co., was present at the meeting and stated that irregularities in the schedule of bus route 18-56 had been ironed out. This route operates through Parry along Cinnaminson avenue during morning and evening rush hours.

SPEAKS ON BIRD LORE

Mr. Albert Linton, of Moorestown, although an exceedingly busy insurance executive, has found time to peruse the difficult science of ornithology as a hobby and has accumulated, on trips over the Country, one of the finest collections of pictures of bird life to be found in the East. Mr. Linton showed three reels of colored motion pictures and described the birds before the local Rotary Club last week. He was introduced by E. Newbold Cooper.

In his lecture he described trips to the Gaspé Peninsula and the bird sanctuary of Bonaventura Island—a paradise for the bird lover; to central and southern California; to the Florida Coast and the Everglades and to Virginia and New Jersey breeding or feeding grounds. His use of the difficult telescopic lens in motion picture work was the source of keen interest on the part of the camera men present in his audience.

Following the showing, Mrs. Hubbs presented a picture of the day of a blood donor, from the time she is signed up by a Red Cross worker until she returns home following her contribution to the Blood Bank. A number of Rotarians signed up following this appeal by the Red Cross.

VICTORY GARDEN HINTS
A fertile, well-drained site is essential.

Prepare a good seedbed as soon as soil is dry.

Order the leading varieties recommended by your local authorities or seedsmen, but don't be too choosy as seed of some varieties is scarce.

Don't waste seeds by planting too thinly. Neither should you buy more seed than you need. In the case of such things as onions and tomatoes, it will pay to buy sets or plants.

Water in dry seasons if possible.

Kill weeds as soon as they appear.

Thin young plants early and promptly.

Spray or dust promptly to control insects and diseases.

Harvest and use crops when young and tender.

Plant in succession for an all-season supply.

This year it is either grow it or do without.

Don't waste space on freak novelties.

Can and store all surpluses—don't waste food.

Laying Out The Garden and ## Sowing Seeds

After the soil has been prepared begin laying out the garden. Stakes should be played to indicate the rows. Some seeds can be sown at once. However, the danger of frost is past. However, the novice gardener must not be in too much of a hurry. There are some seeds, as beans, that require a higher temperature for germination. There are others that might germinate at relatively low temperatures or during a mild spell and then the young plants would be nipped by frost.

Consider too, the conservation of space that will result through cropping and intercropping. Companion cropping is sowing or planting several kinds of plants in the same row. For example, early cabbage plants are set out 30 inches between rows and 24 inches between the plants in the row. Between the cabbage plants may be placed onion sets for green onions, leaf lettuce or radishes. Some persons will set out the cabbage plants with a leaf lettuce plant midway between each cabbage plant and then fill the remaining spaces with radish seed or onion sets. The last plant to come out would be the cabbage. When several rows of a late maturing crop are set, as cabbage and tomatoes, if the spacing is 30 to 36 inches between rows, an extra inter-vening row of some quick maturing crop, as spinach, onions from set, and lettuce, may be added so as to utilize the space until the late crop requires it.

Crops of which seed may be sown as soon as the soil can be prepared are carrots, beets, onion seeds or sets, peas, radish, Swiss chard, turnip, loose-leaf lettuce, spinach, mustard, collards, kale, endive and broccoli. Plants that may be set, if properly hardened off so they can stand the cold, are cabbage, loose-leaf lettuce and broccoli.

Sow the seeds in straight rows, as it is much easier to keep them cultivated, and do not sow too thick. The percentage of germination of seeds is often given on the packages which, with the spacing table shown in the Victory Garden Manual for New Jersey, will help to determine density of seed sowing.

To make shallow furrows for sowing small seeds, put down the garden line and use the handle of the hoe or a stake to make the furrow. By walking backwards with one foot on the line, it can be easily kept in place. Some seeds, as carrots, are placed one-half inch deep, that is one-half inch below the natural surface; while seeds like beets are sown three-fourths of an inch deep. Keep as even a depth as possible to get uniformity of germination. After the furrow is made, the seeds may be sown by taking a few between the thumb and forefinger and distributing them in this manner. Another method is to open the seed packet and distribute them directly in the furrow by tapping the edge of the package. Try this first on a table top, as a little practice is necessary or too many seeds will come out at once.

To make deeper furrows, as for beans and peas, the blade of the hoe may be used. Again walk backwards with one foot on the line to hold it in place. Draw the hoe toward you with quick, rather short strokes, so that the soil will be drawn out all along the furrow and not mainly at the end.

After the seeds are sown, cover the furrow with soil. One good method is to use a rake. After covering, tamp the soil gently with the back of the rake along the row. The soil must be firmed over and about the seeds in order that moisture will be drawn to them to encourage germination. It is usually not necessary to apply water on seeds sown early. Then rake the space between the rows where you have walked to loosen the soil. It is also a good plan to rake lightly over the unplanted area to prevent the formation of a crust and to kill such weeds as may have started. The best time to kill weeds is just as the seeds are germinating. In cultivating, a rotary motion with the rake is more effective than a straight back and forth stroke.

Next Week—Setting Out Plants.

Life is full of unexpected troubles, call them crosses if you will. How shall we meet them? There are three possible courses that we may take. The way of the coward who runs from them; we may refuse to meet them squarely and pity ourselves and go down in defeat; or we may square our shoulders, accept them as a challenge, an opportunity and a blessing. USE LEAVES

Garden experts point out that much of the ground in this section needs humus and that one of the best ways to relieve this deficiency is to plow or spade leaves into the soil.

Many burn leaves without realizing their value and much valuable material is thus lost forever.

Use them in your garden whenever possible.

"Probation After Death" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, April 25, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. (Ps. 49:15)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot." (Ps. 16:5)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the illusion of death, mortals wake to the knowledge of two facts: (1) that they are not dead; (2) that they have but passed the portals of a new belief. Truth works out the nothingness of error in just these ways. (p. 251)

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Fifth Street and Maple Avenue
Palmyra

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

Easter Sunday, April 25th—

He is risen. (Mark 16:6). Great joy came to the followers of Christ on that Easter morn. On down through the ages the significance and glory of the resurrection of Jesus Christ has been magnified. Let us this day come nearer to God, gather in His house to sing praises and worship our Lord.

A service at sunrise, 6:30 a.m., will be conducted by Pastor Morgan. Mrs. James Seither will sing, "Open the Gates of the Temple." All are welcome to attend this hour of worship as well as other services throughout the day.

Bible School, 10 a.m.—Before an open session of the main school, Miss Francis Teneate, who had been a missionary in India for many years, will give an interesting talk on how Easter is observed in that country. Pastor Morgan will meet with the Primary, Beginners and Cradle Roll departments for a brief Easter program in the church.

Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m.—Visitors are always welcome. You are invited to sign the "Guest Book" in the rear of the church after the service. We hope you will come again and often.

The topic for the morning sermon will be, "The Resurrection Victory." The anthem by the choir will be "The Heavens Are Telling," by Haydn. Miss Anne McConnell, soprano, will sing, "Hosanna," by Granier.

Junior and Senior B.Y.P.U., 7:00 p.m.—It is encouraging to note the enthusiasm and earnestness shown by these young people. Members, each bring a friend. He will enjoy and remember the story as told by Mr. Morgan to "The Church of Tomorrow."

Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m. The Ordinance of Baptism will take place this evening. The choir will render Henry Wessel's cantata, "Calvary," under the direction of Mr. C. Y. Barto.

Wednesday, 8:00 p.m.—Prayer and Praise Service. This is your hour of fellowship.

Friday, April 23rd, 8:00 p.m.—Good Friday evening Communion service. Mr. Edward Hoyt, tenor, will sing "King Ever Glorious," by Stainer. "Rock of Ages" by Buck will be the choir's selection.

MORAVIAN CHURCH

Palmyra, N. J.

Rev. Albert J. Harke, B.D., Pastor

Services for Palm Sunday, April 18: The palm decorated church presented an inspiring sight at the confirmation service last Sunday morning. Seated in front of the altar were the fourteen candidates for church membership; and to the right the parents and sponsors with the children to be baptized. Then every available seat of the church auditorium and Bible class room was occupied, chairs seating the overflow. Only standing room was left. It was indeed an inspiring and memorable service!

We look forward now to a glorious Easter Sunday. The following services will be held.

Maunday Thursday at 8:00 p.m.—

Committee worked at the Baptist Church to serve the 176 people who offered to give blood for plasma.

The committee worked all day and was assisted by the Motor Corps, four Gray Ladies, four Staff Assistants, four Canteen Workers and a trained nurse.

The committee is very grateful to the 115 people who came. Eighteen had legitimate excuses for not appearing, but 43 people failed to appear or give any reason for not doing so. Are you one of those 43? What would be your thought if our soldiers failed to appear at the front, or our airmen had not appeared in North Africa? A word to the wise is sufficient!

CHIEF WILLIAM GOOTEE ADDRESSES PUPILS

On Wednesday afternoon the pupils of Cinnaminson School No. 4 heard a very interesting and educational lecture on the method of fingerprinting by Chief William Gootee, of the Riverton police.

Some of the main points which Mr. Gootee brought to the attention of the children were as follows: Fingerprinting aids in identifying people and each individual's fingerprint is entirely different from any one else's. In order to fingerprint a dead man, a shoe horn is used to get the correct impression.

All volunteer and defense workers are fingerprinted and a copy of each one's fingerprint is sent to Trenton, and to Washington, D. C. One copy is kept on file in Riverton.

Mr. Gootee demonstrated the whole process by using two or three volunteers. He gave every child an opportunity to have his thumbs fingerprinted and worked very patiently with each one.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Mrs. Carvel Sparks, Riverton Porch Club, Riverton, New Jersey, Dear Mrs. Sparks:

Please accept the thanks of Mrs. Allen and myself for the helpful, instructive lectures on Gardening conducted under the direction of the Porch Club.

We found the discussions by the instructors from the Camden Vocational High School and the Palmyra High School to be of special interest to us. These three talks saved us from making many mistakes.

If our gardening efforts are successful this summer, no small measure will be due to the help received. We appreciate the careful thought and planning as well as the time so generously given by those who contributed to the program to make it so successful.

Very truly yours, (Signed) George P. Allen

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN By Dr. Charles H. Connors N. J. College of Agriculture

Setting Out Plants To get a jump on the season and so secure early maturity, plants raised in a hotbed, coldframe or even in the house by the ambitious gardener can be set out in the garden directly from the seed boxes very early in the spring. These plants must, however, be hardened off by gradual exposure to low temperatures so they will not suffer too much of a setback, or even be killed, by the low night temperatures that are bound to occur in early spring.

As soon as the soil can be fitted, after danger of severe freezing is past, the following vegetables may be set out as plants: cabbage, Swiss chard, loose-leaf lettuce, broccoli, kale, endive, onion. Do not set out such plants as tomato, eggplant, and pepper, for three to five weeks, as they cannot stand the cold.

Only good strong, healthy plants should be used. If they have been grown too close together in flats, they will be long and spindling. If starved in the seedling stage, the plants may be stunted. Neither of these conditions is apt to give satisfactory results.

Water Soil It is a good practice to water the soil in which the seedlings have been growing several hours before transplanting, or long enough ahead so that the excess water will drain away, with just enough left to hold the soil together. The soil must not be wet, otherwise a condition will arise that will be explained in the next paragraph. In digging seedling plants, retain as much of the root system as possible, with soil adhering to them.

In planting, make the holes ample large. For seedlings that are small, a pointed stick like a piece of broomstick may be used as a dibble for planting. Dibles may also be purchased. Make a hole with this pointed implement large enough so that the roots can completely spread out. Then jab the dibble into the ground, a few inches from the plant, and press towards it, thus bringing the soil in close contact with the roots. Or, after the plant has been placed in the hole, thrust the fingers of both hands into the soil to press the soil towards the roots and downward to compact it. If the pressure is only downward, an air space may be left around the roots and they will dry out. Here is where the danger comes in planting in too wet soil or having the soil about the roots of the plant too wet. With pressure, the wet soil is compacted and will later dry out in a brick-like mass into which moisture can penetrate only with difficulty. The plant may die.

Trowel Better For setting out larger plants, a trowel is better than a dibble. Grasp the trowel with the fist, the arm at right angles to the trowel, the end of the handle projecting above the thumb and forefinger and the blade below the heel of the hand. Jab it into the soil and draw toward you. Make the hole deep. Place the plant in position and fill the hole half, or a little more with soil. Now two methods may be used. You may use your fingers to compress the soil over and around the roots as previously explained, making sure of good compacting so no air spaces are left. Then draw enough soil in to fill the hole. The other method is to proceed as before, but instead of compressing, pour a pint of water on the soil about the roots. After you have finished setting your row of plants, and the excess water has settled into the soil, fill the hole with loose soil but do not compact it. A slight depression may be left about each plant for later applications of water, should this be necessary.

NOTE—If you scratch your fingernails over a bar of moist soap, so that the space is filled, soil cannot enter and the nails clean easily.

NEXT WEEK—Planting Cabbage and Cabbage Maggot Control.

VICTORY GARDEN HINTS

A half hour a day about the sufficient for the average family size garden, after the garden has been planted.

Plant standard, adapted varieties.

To hold the sweet in corn, peas, and lima beans and to keep snap beans fresh, keep them cold. Let them stay in the pod or husk unless you can store them tightly covered in refrigerator.

In both instances, however, motorists who had been let in on "the ground floor" by some one in the "know," flocked to service stations to have their tanks filled.

Where these rumors start no one seems to be able to explain. They spread with such rapidity, however, that it almost appears that some group is definitely organized to carry the message. It would be interesting to learn who is responsible.

A mound of broken glass around the base of the gas light at Bank avenue and Linden, together with a shattered fixture testifies to the vandalism of those who park in that area during evening hours.

After several attempts to keep the light in operation Public Service has evidently given up the job and no one can blame them, for no sooner than repairs were made a well directed stone nullified the effort.

As a result a dangerous corner remains dark.

Some 15,000 laundry employees in the State of New Jersey work 675,000 man hours per week in the task of keeping residents of the Garden State spic and span. It is estimated that if the housewives essayed the same task, they would have to work more than 2,000,000 hours per week.

Setting Out Plants

To get a jump on the season and so secure early maturity, plants raised in a hotbed, coldframe or even in the house by the ambitious gardener can be set out in the garden directly from the seed boxes very early in the spring. These plants must, however, be hardened off by gradual exposure to low temperatures so they will not suffer too much of a setback, or even be killed, by the low night temperatures that are bound to occur in early spring.

As soon as the soil can be fitted, after danger of severe freezing is past, the following vegetables may be set out as plants: cabbage, Swiss chard, loose-leaf lettuce, broccoli, kale, endive, onion. Do not set out such plants as tomato, eggplant, and pepper, for three to five weeks, as they cannot stand the cold.

SPEEDERS INCREASE

Colonel Charles H. Schoeffel, Superintendent of the New Jersey State Police, today announced that speeding in the rural areas of the State is definitely on the increase and he is reminding motorists that, although the ban on pleasure driving has been officially lifted, the State law under the National Emergency is still 35 miles an hour and will be enforced by his men.

He said that statistics submitted by Lieut. A. M. Sperling, supervisor of the Traffic and Safety Bureau, show an increase of 75 percent in March over February in arrests for speeding and 100 percent over January.

Careless and reckless driving ranked second and third. The increase, the Colonel said, can be attributed to a rise in passenger car driving since autoists were put on the honor system by OPA officials in February, and the lifting of the ban March 2nd. Thoughtlessness of motorists, who are under tension or emotional strain during war times, is also a contributing factor for the violations, he declared.

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

How to invest in "fighting dollars!"

"Lend more money to help carry on the fight!" That's what our Government is asking you and all the rest of us... asking us to lend it 13 billion fighting dollars in the next few weeks! 13 billion extra dollars—over and above all regular War Bond buying!

We can do it... we must do it... we owe it to our boys who are fighting overseas. For their sake...

We've got to build more ships! We broke all records last year when we built 8 million tons of shipping. This year, we're building 13 million tons... but still it is not enough!

We've got to do more fighting! More and more of our soldiers and sailors are going into actual combat... requiring more equipment, and more supplies. We cannot let them down! We've got to buy more War Bonds! To help pay for the things our fighting men need... we've got to buy War Bonds as we never bought them before!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of men and women who are giving their time and effort to the 2nd War Loan Drive. Welcome these patriotic workers if they call... buy from them all the War Bonds you can!

Better still, don't wait for them. Go to your nearest bank, post office, or War Bond booth, and invest more fighting dollars now! It's the least you can do to help those who are fighting and dying overseas!

Among the 7 different kinds of U. S. Government securities is one that exactly fits your own particular purse and requirements. These securities are the finest investment in the world... bar none! For your Country's sake... for your own sake... invest all you can!

THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES... YOU LEND YOUR MONEY!

RATION BOARD HOURS

Effective now, the hours of War Price and Ration Board, No. 4, of Palmyra are as follows:

9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Friday inclusive.

9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

6 to 9 p.m. Monday and Wednesday.

TRUCK DRIVERS ARRESTED

Two truck drivers were arrested on Tuesday morning of this week by Officer John Carhart of the Riverton police, the charge being for littering the highways with gravel.

For several weeks trucks passing along Broad street have been so loaded with gravel that a portion of their contents has continually spilled on the highway. This has necessitated much work by the road department in cleaning up the material which is bad for car tires and creates a hazard to pedestrians. Warnings to drivers have had no effect and the arrests followed as the practice continued unabated.

Several people have been struck by stones left on the pavement in this manner when passing cars kicked them up with the wheels and one window on Broad street was broken in the same manner.

ENLISTS IN SPARS

Miss Doris W. Shivers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clois Shivers, of Cinnaminson, has enlisted in the SPARS, United States Coast Guard Reserve and will report for duty May 8, at the Naval Reserve Midshipman's School, Northampton, Mass., where she will be a member of the Officers' Candidate School. Miss Shivers is a graduate of Moorestown High School and of the Trenton State Teachers College.

BIRTH

BY-PRODUCT WASTE IS GREAT EVIL OF BLACK MARKETS

Wanton waste of by-products is one of the worst phases of the black market in meats. Elements wasted in illegal slaughtering would help farmers meet the acute shortage of fertilizer and high-protein animal feeds needed to produce meats and crops. Strategic materials from which surgical sutures, adrenalin, and vital insulin are derived are also lost through the waste of illegal markets.

Black marketeers of meats, working secretly and in haste, slaughter the animals, often under unsanitary conditions, and keep for sale only the big primal cuts, throwing the rest away. In their haste to sell only the choicest cuts illegally and at skyrocket prices, the black marketeers daily destroy tons of vital foods and by-products, every one of which is sold to be as high in energy producing protein as the regular meat cuts, and all of which would go a long way in stretching America's meat supply. Gelatin for military photographic film, hides for leather, rendering fats for soap, glycerine for munitions, fertilizers, bone meal—all these and other essential by-products are lost.

Fighting Black Markets
What are we doing about it? Four definite steps have been taken against the black market in meats: (1) livestock slaughter and dealer permits went into effect with meat rationing on March 31; (2) a set-aside order has gone into effect, requiring all meat dealers operating under Federal inspection to put away for war requirements designated percentages of their production; (3) wholesale and retail price ceilings have been established; (4) consumer rationing has been set up as the fair way to assure every citizen of his share of meats.

It is up to the average housewife to help stop the black market menace. She must realize that the endangers herself, her family, her friends, and the men in the armed forces when she patronizes an illegal market. Every pound of meat stolen from the normal civilian supply is stolen from some man or woman who is helping to win the war.

Here's How to Tell
You may not realize that you are trading at a black market. Here are some suggestions on how they may be detected; although the existence of any of these circumstances is not conclusive proof that the operations are illegal.
It may be a black market:

1. If prices are higher than the maximums fixed by the Office of Price Administration. Ceiling prices must be posted in every store and market.

2. If the operator refuses to divulge ceiling prices.

3. If a price "premium" above the ceiling for a particular grade of meat is required for any cut.

4. If meat can be bought without ration stamps.

5. If meat can be bought without paying the full number of ration stamps per pound.

6. If meat declared to be "likely to spoil," and therefore offered for sale at reduced point values, is not reduced in monetary price.

7. If the meat operator, upon request of the purchaser, refuses to show the slaughterer's stamp upon wholesale cuts of meat.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR MOTOR CORPS

On and after May 3rd, until further notice please call the Red Cross office during office hours (10:00 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday) for Motor Corps service. Emergency and after-hour calls will be taken by Mrs. Hollingshead, Riverton 0678.

THANKS

Those in charge of the Easter Party at the Fort Dix Community Service wish to express their sincere thanks to all those who so generously contributed to this successful affair.

The Committee.

MANY BLOOD DONORS

Official announcement has been made from the Blood Donor Center in Philadelphia to the County chairman, Mrs. E. S. Hubbs, to the effect that the 508 pints of blood donated by residents of Palmyra, Riverton, Burlington and Beverly, is the largest number of pints ever taken over the same period of time, namely, 4 days of five hour periods each day.

RED CROSS SEWING

The Red Cross sewing group will meet in the Riverton Public School on Monday, May 3, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Who feels injustice; who shrinks before a slight; who has a sense of wrong so acute, and so glowing a gratitude for kindness, as a generous boy?—Thackeray.

SALVAGE MATERIAL

John Reinhardt, member of the salvage committee of the Riverton Civil Defense Council, reports that 4,100 pounds of metal and paper have been collected from the Riverton Salvage Depot since the last shipment.

Riverton has an excellent record in the matter of salvage collections and this is due, to a very large extent, to the faithful work of Mr. Reinhardt.

HOME ENTERED

Five Riverton boys of a tender age can expect serious trouble if they do not mend their ways according to a statement made by police this week. The youthful marauders were apprehended by Officer John Carhart as they were leaving via a window of an unoccupied house on Bank avenue. An investigation revealed that they had done a rather thorough job of disturbing the contents of several rooms and had appropriated a number of articles for their own use. The home had been entered on two occasions.

After a hearing before the local recorder, the lads were given a severe reprimand and paroled in the custody of their parents. The owner of the property very generously declined to press the charges and leniency was granted because of it being their first offense.

RATION FACTS

According to a bulletin sent by State OPA headquarters to rationing boards, a member of the Armed Forces who eats some of his meals in an organized mess, but takes half or more of his weekly meals at home, is eligible to receive both War Ration Books One and Two.

This information was contained in a general bulletin clarifying the status of members of the Armed Forces under the food rationing programs.

Regarding men on furlough, the following rules were outlined:

If he is home on furlough for seven days or more, a member of the Armed Forces is entitled to apply to his local rationing board for certificates permitting the purchase of a half pound of sugar a week, a pound of coffee for five weeks, 16 points per week for processed foods, and 16 points a week for meat, fats, and cheese.

If the furlough period is for less than seven days he is not eligible for any foods except meat, fats, and cheese. If the furlough period is three days or more, but less than seven days, he can be given eight points for meat, fats, and cheese.

A member of the Merchant Marine is not classified as a member of the Armed Forces. Therefore, he is entitled to be given both Ration Books One and Two. However, he must surrender both these books if he leaves the United States for 30 days or more. For coastal voyages of seven days or more he must surrender his books to the proper officer in charge of his ship.

Car Ceilings
Buyers of used trucks and other commercial vehicles including truck tractors, ambulances, hearses, omnibuses, carry-all suburban, sedan deliveries, coupes fitted with pickup boxes, are now protected by price ceilings which limit the selling price to a specific percentage of the original price depending upon the age of the vehicle.

The new regulation, designed to halt the activities of speculators which have resulted in prices as high as 200 percent over normal values, sets prices ranging from 90 percent of the original price for a truck six months old or less, to 26 percent for a truck more than six years old.

Any dealer who reconditions a used commercial motor vehicle in accordance with OPA specifications in the regulation, and guarantees it for satisfactory operation for at least 1,000 miles or 30 days, may add to the maximum prices listed in the regulation, five percent of the price, and also maximum prices permitted by OPA for the parts, labor, and material used in reconditioning.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

TEST ALERT

Another surprise test alert was staged in New Jersey on Tuesday night of this week by State Defense authorities, and the results were considered generally satisfactory.

It is reported, however, that a number of residents still persist in turning on their lights after the second "blue" instead of waiting until the "all clear."

Wardens also reported that lights were left burning in a number of houses where no one was at home. This is in direct contradiction to the law.

Although no arrests for violations of this nature have been made in Riverton, other communities have found it necessary to take drastic action in order to impress violators that the offense must not be repeated.

The alert found many defense workers engaged in the bond campaign and the fire company was engaged in a practice drill at Memorial Park when the first signal sounded. All posts were quickly manned, however.

THE PORCH CLUB

On Tuesday, May 4th, the Annual Meeting of the Porch Club will be held at 11:00 a.m. Election of officers for the coming year will take place at this time.

Bring a box lunch and enjoy the exhibition of ceramics, made by Club members, and skits which will be given by the different departments showing the work done during the year.

Save your old clothes, hats, jewelry, lamps, etc., for Thursday, May 13th. A rummage sale will be held in the Porch Club on this date, time to be announced later, proceeds to be given to the Community Center in Palmyra. The Club will be open the previous Wednesday afternoon so that things may be left there. For details call Mrs. Gilbert Coe, chairman of the Civics Department, tel. 0523.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE
UNITS TO HEAR
ROGER BURMAN SPEAK

The Civilian Defense Units of Palmyra are fortunate indeed in securing for a speaker at the meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, May 5, 1943, Mr. Roger W. Burman, who was an eye witness to the sneak attack by the Japanese at Pearl Harbor on December 7th, 1941.

Mr. Burman has had considerable experience in speaking before similar groups, and will bring to Palmyra many thoughts that will be of great value to all Defense Units.

Also at this meeting many problems will be answered that have bothered our wardens and all other branches.

A cordial invitation is extended to all citizens of Palmyra who are interested in this work.

The meeting will be held in Palmyra High School auditorium at 8 p.m.

SPRING CONCERT

Piano students of the Marjorie Chloe Wilson Music Studio will appear in a Spring Concert Wednesday evening, May 5, at 8:15, at the Riverton Porch Club, Riverton. Twelve students will play their own compositions, and Miss Wilson will play "The Erlking," by Schubert.

We have often heard or used the expression, "Our Sunday best." Sunday observance may give a new meaning to those words; it may make that one day call forth our very best in clothing as well as in thought and action. After six days of hard work, disappointments or worries we can put aside everything, make Sunday a day of rest, of going to church to listen to the Word of God, and coming out renewed and strengthened to meet the problems of the coming week. In most cases Sunday is the one day the whole family can be together. A companion-

"Everlasting Punishment" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, May 2, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "Whoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Gal. 6:7)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered." (Prov. 11:21)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We cannot escape the penalty due for sin." "To cause suffering as the result of sin, is the means of destroying sin. Every supposed pleasure in sin will furnish more than its equivalent of pain, until belief in material life and sin are destroyed." (p. 6)

Cabbage Root Maggot and Cutworm Control

The subject of pests in the garden is one that is often over-emphasized. With so many new gardens this year, and gardens where vegetables have not been grown for a long time, many of the insects mentioned in this series of articles will not be a problem.

However, there are some insects that are sure to appear. Therefore, it is well to be on the watch for all of them, because efficient control is at started when the first insect appears.

Sometimes it seems that insects are a blessing in disguise. Here is a specific animal that likes to eat the same plant we do. If we desire the plant more than the insect does, we shall take appropriate measures to see that we get the fruits of our labor. Looking for the insects brings us into close contact with the plants, and so we learn more about them.

Set Out Cabbage Plants Now
Gardeners may now safely set out seedlings of the various members of the cabbage family such as cabbage, hohl rabi, cauliflower and broccoli.

At the time of setting these plants, we need to take precautions against the first of the insects that may bother our plants—the cabbage root maggot. This may not be present in new gardens, unless cabbage has been grown in the neighborhood. The commercial vegetable growers use calomel (1 part) and starch (3 parts) in a dust on the stems before the plants are set. If seeds are sown, a dust of radish, a suspension of 1 ounce of calomel and 5 gallons of water is used, 1 gallon to each 25 feet of row.

On transplanted cabbage and other vegetables in this family, use one-half cupful to the plant. This mixture must be kept agitated, as the calomel settles.

A simpler control of the cabbage root maggot, and one that involves good garden practice, is cultivation. This insect can be expected to appear about the time sour cherries bloom, when the eggs are laid in the soil close to the base of the plant. When they appear, begin to stir the soil about the plant. Cultivate it to a depth of an inch or so, and do this every three or four days. This is about as effective in control as the calomel.

Watch for the Cutworm
Another insect that is almost sure to appear when sod or neglected land is dug is the cutworm. The larva was hatched in the previous fall and wintered in that stage. When spring comes, it wakes up hungry. Where grass or weeds are present, it has plenty of food, but if the soil is dug, only the plants we set out are there.

Cheerfulness is a friend to grace; it puts the heart in tune to praise God, and so honors religion by proclaiming to the world that we serve a good master.—Be serious, yet cheerful.—Thomas Watson.

DESCRIBES "BAZOOKA"

The famed new weapon of the American forces, the "Bazooka," was described by Col. Charles V. Dickinson at the meeting of the local Business Men's Club held Tuesday noon at the Riverton Country Club.

Col. Dickinson is in the artillery and returned to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Wednesday after enjoying a short leave at home.

Details of the "Bazooka" had been kept quiet for several months, said the Colonel, but the weapon is no longer a military mystery. It is not a gun, but a rocket weapon, and is sometimes called the "Buck Rogers" gun.

The "Bazooka" itself is merely a light tube which can be held and aimed by one man. It is open at both ends and the rear end projects over the user's shoulder, so that the propelling blast from the rocket projectile will be discharged behind him.

The real secret of the weapon is the powerful explosive in the head of the rocket shell. It has the power to shatter the strongest tank armor yet used.

The gun has a range up to 400 yards. The regular anti-tank guns come into play at 800 yards and the "Bazooka-men" hold their fire until the tanks are within half that distance.

The gun uses very little material and can be cheaply manufactured, so that vast quantities of them will be available for tank destruction. Two men form a crew. Both carry ammunition harnessed to their shoulder.

One aims the gun while the other loads. Every man in a unit is taught the use of the "Bazooka."

Col. Dickinson compared the principle of the "Bazooka" to that of a 4th of July skyrocket, which is aimed by laying the missile in a wooden trough and the trough pointed toward the sky.

The effectiveness of the "Bazooka" was illustrated by a recent story from the front in Tunisia. It is said a "Bazooka-man" aimed at a group of five German tanks. He missed, but the shell struck a nearby tree and pulverized it. The Germans saw the terrific effects of the shell and all five tanks immediately surrendered without firing a shot in return. They thought they had been caught in a barrage of powerful anti-tank cannon at close-range.

The Colonel said the soldiers in training camps are buying many war bonds and are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to go into action.

When asked where he thought the invasion of Europe would be made, he said it was his personal opinion that several points would be used at the same time. He thought Turkey would join the Allies as soon as they are ready to strike and that one invasion would be made through Turkey, another through Italy, one through Norway and others at two or three different places in France.

Harmony makes small things grow: lack of it makes great things decay.—Sallust.

YMCA BRIEFS

An important annual program of the Young Men's Christian Association is training civic leaders of tomorrow the function of government and statescraft, believes Senator Howard Eastwood, of Burlington.

The annual Model Legislature conducted by the YMCA, and in which several Burlington county boys participated as Senators or Assemblymen, or other officials of the Legislature, is a valuable function in the program of the association which will next week open its yearly finance drive, Senator Eastwood said in a statement this week.

The Model Legislature closed last week after a two-day Session, and Senator Eastwood, who is Republican majority leader in the Senate, aided Burlington county boys in planning their participation.

"Boys who are members of the YMCA will be our community, county and state leaders a few years from now. In helping to train them for leadership in lawmaking and civic functions, the YMCA is performing a valuable service," Senator Eastwood said.

"Although they may never expect to serve their county or state in official positions, the young men of the YMCA are learning much that will help them to be better voters when they reach voting age. It is just as important to train voters in good government, as it is to train our leaders."

"Well-informed young men will inevitably become seekers for good government. They will realize that it is the duty of every person to vote, with knowledge and common sense. Young men should be taught the value of government and the importance of good voting. Through the Model Legislature, I believe that the YMCA is making rapid strides in turning out real leaders of tomorrow. "Our older boys are overseas fighting to preserve the Democracy that we value so highly. The YMCA is working with them, too, but the county association's most important function today is to train younger boys to appreciate and strive to preserve the Democracy for which their older brothers are fighting," Senator Eastwood said.

GARMEN—LEPESHA

Miss Jean Lepesha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lepesha, New Albany Rd., Riverton, N. J., became the bride of Corp. Raymond L. Garmen, son of Mrs. Aaron Bailey, Daphn, Pennsylvania, on Friday, March 5th, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Chaplain John F. Holmes performed the ceremony.

Miss May Ward, of Riverton, and Pvt. Herman S. Ginder were the couple's only attendants.

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM R. BOARDLEY

William R. Boardley, 52 years old, husband of the late Viola Boardley, of 312 Third street, Palmyra, died last Wednesday.

Services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Snover Funeral Home with interment in Wrightsville Cemetery.

VITAMIN "C"

Orange juice and tomato juice are the two most common sources of vitamin C for infant feeding. No American child should be denied one or the other of them, or a prescribed substitute, from the age of 1 month until adult life is reached. Orange juice may be started at the age of one month by giving the infant one teaspoonful diluted, if desired, with water and a little sugar. This may be gradually increased until at the age of three months a tablespoonful is given. By the age of two years every child should have at least four ounces of orange juice daily. However, in New Jersey tomatoes are so plentiful that tomato juice should double that of orange juice.

Canned tomatoes are the only canned vegetables that retain a large part of their vitamin C content. If then, during the tomato season, tomatoes are canned, they may serve as an excellent source of vitamin C throughout the year. The tomato juice should be drained off from the canned tomatoes and not cooked after being removed from the can or the mason jar.

Fresh cut apple or banana also furnishes a considerable amount of this health giving vitamin. As the child grows older, fresh vegetables, especially tomatoes, cabbages, turnips and potatoes may furnish much of the daily vitamin C requirement. Fresh fruits, of course, are excellent.

Without an adequate daily intake of vitamin C scurvy develops. This most frequently occurs today in infants between the ages of 6 and 10 months when they are being fed entirely on the bottle. Even breast fed infants need vitamin C though.

Early symptoms of scurvy include loss of weight, irritability, spongy bleeding gums, and pallor. Later partial paralysis or weakness of the lower limbs may develop. Complications may eventually prove fatal, pneumonia being the most frequent of these.

A child that does not receive orange juice daily is a neglected child today. Children who are too ill or have some abnormality that prevents them taking either of these juices should be under a Doctor's care. Synthetic vitamin C may then be prescribed.

The annual Model Legislature conducted by the YMCA, and in which several Burlington county boys participated as Senators or Assemblymen, or other officials of the Legislature, is a valuable function in the program of the association which will next week open its yearly finance drive, Senator Eastwood said in a statement this week.

The Model Legislature closed last week after a two-day Session, and Senator Eastwood, who is Republican majority leader in the Senate, aided Burlington county boys in planning their participation.

"Boys who are members of the YMCA will be our community, county and state leaders a few years from now. In helping to train them for leadership in lawmaking and civic functions, the YMCA is performing a valuable service," Senator Eastwood said.

"Although they may never expect to serve their county or state in official positions, the young men of the YMCA are learning much that will help them to be better voters when they reach voting age. It is just as important to train voters in good government, as it is to train our leaders."

"Well-informed young men will inevitably become seekers for good government. They will realize that it is the duty of every person to vote, with knowledge and common sense. Young men should be taught the value of government and the importance of good voting. Through the Model Legislature, I believe that the YMCA is making rapid strides in turning out real leaders of tomorrow. "Our older boys are overseas fighting to preserve the Democracy that we value so highly. The YMCA is working with them, too, but the county association's most important function today is to train younger boys to appreciate and strive to preserve the Democracy for which their older brothers are fighting," Senator Eastwood said.

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM R. BOARDLEY

William R. Boardley, 52 years old, husband of the late Viola Boardley, of 312 Third street, Palmyra, died last Wednesday.

Services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Snover Funeral Home with interment in Wrightsville Cemetery.

VITAMIN "C"

Orange juice and tomato juice are the two most common sources of vitamin C for infant feeding. No American child should be denied one or the other of them, or a prescribed substitute, from the age of 1 month until adult life is reached. Orange juice may be started at the age of one month by giving the infant one teaspoonful diluted, if desired, with water and a little sugar. This may be gradually increased until at the age of three months a tablespoonful is given. By the age of two years every child should have at least four ounces of orange juice daily. However, in New Jersey tomatoes are so plentiful that tomato juice should double that of orange juice.

Canned tomatoes are the only

canned vegetables that retain a large part of their vitamin C content. If then, during the tomato season, tomatoes are canned, they may serve as an excellent source of vitamin C throughout the year. The tomato juice should be drained off from the canned tomatoes and not cooked after being removed from the can or the mason jar.

Fresh cut apple or banana also furnishes a considerable amount of this health giving vitamin. As the child grows older, fresh vegetables, especially tomatoes, cabbages, turnips and potatoes may furnish much of the daily vitamin C requirement. Fresh fruits, of course, are excellent.

Without an adequate daily intake of vitamin C scurvy develops. This most frequently occurs today in infants between the ages of 6 and 10 months when they are being fed entirely on the bottle. Even breast fed infants need vitamin C though.

Early symptoms of scurvy include loss of weight, irritability, spongy bleeding gums, and pallor. Later partial paralysis or weakness of the lower limbs may develop. Complications may eventually prove fatal, pneumonia being the most frequent of these.

A child that does not receive orange juice daily is a neglected child today. Children who are too ill or have some abnormality that prevents them taking either of these juices should be under a Doctor's care. Synthetic vitamin C may then be prescribed.

Doughnut flour and shortening, sufficient to make a million and a half doughnuts for American servicemen in North Africa, are part of a huge shipment of supplies recently cleared from the United States, the Red Cross disclosed today.

Twenty portable pianos for Red Cross clubs and Red Cross hospital recreation rooms established in Tunisia also were in the shipment. Other items were two tons of chocolate bars, one ton of coffee, many tons of comfort and recreational items such as shaving cream, soap, razors and blades, bedside games, table games, and thousands of books and magazines.

The doughnut flour and coffee are chiefly for use in the Red Cross clubmobiles now plying the roads of North Africa to carry comfort to American fighting men in isolated flying fields or other outposts. To maintain supplies for the clubmobiles, the Red Cross expects to ship monthly 300 barrels of doughnut flour, 15,000 pounds of shortening, and several tons of coffee.

An indication of the tremendous quantities of supplies being sent for distribution to United States fighting men by the Red Cross is contained in a shipment recently made to four posts in the South Pacific. This shipment included, among other things, 51,000 packs of razor blades, 50,000 tubes of dental cream, 50,000 toothbrushes, 50,000 combs, 50,000 tubes of shaving cream, 25,000 towels and wash cloths, 50,000 sewing kits, 100,000 bars of soap, 50,000 packs of chewing gum, 34,000 razors, 37,000 saw puzzles and 50,000 chocolate bars.

Such shipments, officials of the Red Cross point out, are only a part of the huge quantities of personal and comfort supplies that are being sent out almost weekly to all parts of the world as gifts to American troops.

AIR RAID SIGNALS IN EFFECT IN NEW JERSEY

"BLUE" (Blackout) Signal—(A steady, two-minute blast on sirens) All lights in homes, offices and business establishments MUST BE EXTINGUISHED. Street lights remain on. Pedestrians and vehicular traffic continue to move.

"RED" (Air Raid) Signal—(A two minute warbling or fluctuating blast on sirens.) All lights are turned off. Traffic ceases. Pedestrians seek shelter.

"BLUE" (Blackout) Signal—(Same as first "blue." It will always follow a "Red." Lights in homes, offices and business establishments MUST REMAIN OFF. Street and traffic lights will come back on. Pedestrians resume walking and vehicular traffic resumes.

"ALL CLEAR" "On this signal all lights may be relighted. The 'All Clear' will be announced over the radio. Radios should be turned on in the homes when sirens first sound. In addition, a ten second blast will be sounded on sirens for the benefit of the Civilian Protective Forces."

REMEMBER Keep your lights OFF from the time you first hear the sirens until you hear the radio all clear announcement.

PLEASE call her only WHEN NECESSARY

SHE is an "INFORMATION" operator, one of hundreds giving important wartime service in New Jersey telephone exchanges, with facilities that cannot be enlarged because of material shortages.

Half of the calls "Information" now handles every day are for numbers that the persons calling could get from their own directories.

If this duplication of service were ended—

"Information" could give still more effective service. ★ ★ ★ An unnecessary burden on lines and switchboards would be lifted. ★ ★ ★ At least 300 trained operators would be freed to devote their time to providing essential telephone service.

You will aid the war effort by calling "INFORMATION" only for numbers that are not in your regular telephone directory.

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building... We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.

For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

There Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Securities—Choose The Ones Best Suited For You:

United States War Savings Bonds—Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Designed especially for the smaller investor. Dated 1st day of month in which payment is received. Interest: 2.9% a year if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2 1/2% Treasury Bonds of 1944-1949: Readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated April 15, 1943; due June 15, 1949. Denominations: $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000—also $1,000,000 if registered. Redemption: Not callable till June 15, 1944; thereafter at par and accrued interest on any interest date at 4 months' notice. Subject to Federal taxes only. Price: par and accrued interest.
