ESCAPED LUNATIC CAUGHT IN RIVERTON

At 4 a.m. last Friday morning, Officer John Robinson, of the Riverton police noticed a man trying a door at the Burke Service Station, Broad street and Linden avenue. Upon questioning, the suspect admitted that he had escaped the previous afternoon from the Cumberland County Asylum for the Insane, at Bridgeton, where he had been an inmate for four years.

Further investigation revealed that the man, Nicholas D'Antoni, 34, of Vineland, has escaped on two other occasions. He has no criminal record and the only articles in his possession were five boxes of matches. He was returned to Bridgeton Friday.

Father Coan Leaves For New Parish

The many friends of Rev. Francis P. J. Coan, assistant pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, Riverton, will regret to learn he has been transferred to St. Peter's Parish, New Brunswick, N. J., in accordance with the rule of his Bishop that Assistant Pastors are to serve no more than two years in any one assignment. Father Coan left for New Brunswick last Friday, June 25th.

During his two year's service in the local parish, Father Coan won the respect and admiration of all classes of people. He not only fulfilled his regular duties as a priest in a most faithful manner. His graciousness, his approachability, his willingness always to be helpful endeared him to every one, Catholic and non-Catholic. The children will especially miss him.

Successor Named

Father Coan has been succeeded in the Parish by The Rev. Thomas J. O'Dea, native of Brooklyn, N. Y., and former assistant pastor at St. Anthony's parish, Trenton, N. J. While in Trenton, Father O'Dea was in charge of the Mission Church of Our Lady of Sorrows, Mercerville.

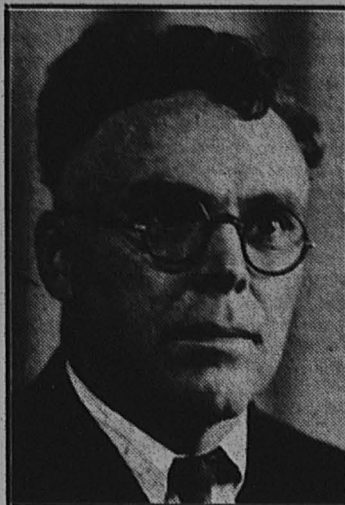

A farewell and reception party will be tendered Fathers Coan and O'Dea next Friday evening, in the Sacred Heart School, at 8:30, by the members of the parish. At that time, a purse, now being raised, will be presented to Father Coan, in appreciation of the work he performed in the parish. The party will be under the direction of a committee of some forty individuals, James J. Goodwin, Chairman. Members of the parish and friends of both priests are invited to participate.

PLAYGROUND OPENS WITH 150 ATTENDING

Riverton's brand new playground at Memorial Park opened for a season of fun on the dot of ten o'clock last Monday morning, when Old Glory unfolded from the flagpole, as Scout Bugler Robert Farrow of the Riverton Troop 50 sounded "To the Colors." It was a well attended opening, no less than 125 of Riverton's children were on hand to see what it was all about. Evidently they were satisfied, for that afternoon 35 more showed up to get in on more fun.

Every day since then, things have been humming along at an even faster pace as Director Taylor Kirby and his assistant, Miss Sarah Lowden, got programs and schedules arranged and working.

But that wasn't all—not by a long shot. Way off in a corner where no one could see them that splendid group of adults who had labored long and hard building so much of the new equipment were carefully watching things to see what more they could do and these last few nights those grownups have been nightly busy making even more and better equipment for the grounds.

EDWIN W. REDFIELD

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's gold emblem for a quarter-century of service has been awarded to Edwin W. Redfield, of 622 Pennsylvania avenue, Palmyra. During the earlier part of his career he was a lineman for eight years. His present position is group leader in the telephone building at Camden. He is a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America, and holder of the President's Medal of the National Safety Council, the Certificate of Merit of the American Red Cross, and the official Citation of the company for the help he gave in reviving by artificial respiration members of a family overcome in a fire at Palmyra in 1929.

Many Happy

Is it paying? You bet it is. Just glance at the grins of 150 happy kids or better yet listen to their laughter and enthusiastic description of all that's happened. Get some of the youngsters of kindergarten age to tell you of the fun they have had around the giant sand box, or the plans they are making when all the handicraft instructions start next week. Or, ask some of the older boys and girls, as they plan athletic events or a tennis tournament. In its very first week of operation, Riverton's Memorial Park playground is paying big dividends in health and happiness.

Of course little things have cropped up, where Mother and Dad can help. For instance, if little sister falls and scrapes her knee, she is to be taught to see Mr. Kirby or Miss Lowden right away for First Aid. And Junior must be told that he is not allowed to skim around the edge of the playground for a forbidden dip in the creek. NO SWIMMING IS ALLOWED, and don't let Junior tell you about that—or his wet hair! The playground authorities cannot and will not accept responsibility for swimming in the contaminated waters of the creek.

But getting back to the playground—the instructors have lined up no less than a hundred new games to teach to the gang during the coming weeks.

The whole thing you know is a community development, started by the Riverton P.T.A., sponsored by a group of citizens, and financed by and approved by the Borough Council. It is open to every child living inside the borough, and every youngster is cordially invited to come on out and play. There is only one requirement. "You must have your registration card completely filled in and signed by a parent. That's all—and of course the grownups are invited to come over and watch the fun anytime they want to. The playground is open from 10 to 4 every clear day, Monday through Friday.

PRICE CEILINGS

The Local Rationing Board of Palmyra has had splendid cooperation from the public. Our district covers Riverside, Cinnaminson, Delran, Palmyra and Riverton—a population of approximately 20,000.

At this time we are confronted with another problem which concerns every one of us, that of Price Ceilings.

Every housewife in the community is perplexed about the prices of commodities. We hear the prices of meat are soaring—to say nothing of points required. Processed foods are at a premium, and the price of fresh vegetables is in some cases too prohibitive for the average citizen to afford, and we are anxious to enlist the interest and cooperation of every householder in this district in helping to stabilize these prices.

The one way to best serve is to state definitely that you will not buy at unreasonable price—question the sales person, and do not hesitate to ask just what the ceiling price is. Every honest grocer will be glad to inform you, and where there is hesitancy, if the case is referred to the Ration Board, we will gladly have a representative look into the matter.

Ceiling prices are getting more and more important each day and the only way we can in any way stabilize prices is to have your sincere interest and assistance. Ceiling prices are on file at the Ration Board.

While our men are in the Service, the women are keeping the home fires burning, and this Ration Board needs suggestions and help from every housewife in the community. We could accomplish much more and perform our services much more efficiently if you and you and you, would feel free to suggest any helpful ideas, and for you to realize that this concerns us one and all. And if you will notify this Board of any excessive charge, we will do our utmost to see that adjustment is made, and that the ceiling prices are adhered to.

Community Service Member,
Helen Andrews.

NEW OFFICERS OF ROTARY CLUB

Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians inducted their new officers for 1943-44 at their meeting last Thursday. They include Carl Thomas as President, Harry Williams as Vice-President, Joseph Seel as Secretary, and Howard Connell as Treasurer. Retiring president Robert G. Adams summarized the year's work pointing out the various activities in which the Club had been engaged and indicating the evident forward movement of the organization. During 1942-43 there was a net gain of four members resulting in a present membership of forty-four.

The attendance record of local Rotarians was outstanding for 1942-43. There were ten 100 percent meetings for the entire Club and sixteen members have perfect records for the period. Nine out of the ten new members have not missed a meeting since their induction. The Club entertained visiting Rotarians from as far away as Okmulgee, Oklahoma, as well as a good many from nearby clubs.

The membership as a whole agreed heartily with President Adams when he pointed out the splendid series of programs throughout the year. The Program Committee was headed by the incoming president, Carl Thomas and throughout the year presented unusual adult education opportunities.

Fine Programs

Typical of some of the finest programs were Mr. Herman A. Lum, of the American University at Cairo; Experience in the Russian Revolution, Mrs. Boris Kastorsky; Vitamins for Victory by V. E. Meadows; Inside Japan and Honolulu before December 7th, Roger W. Burman; Chemical Development for the War and the Future, L. F. Livingston; and the Background of the Present Political Struggle in India, Dr. Douglas H. Forman. Space forbids more than this random sampling of many notable evenings, for instance those in the hands of Reverend Robert Stewart and Reverend K. P. Miller, not to mention such gala occasions as Camden Night and Ladies Night. All in all it was an outstanding twelve months.

Upon receiving the gavel from the hand of Past-president Clement B. Lewis, incoming president Thomas congratulated the retiring officers, particularly Mr. Adams on their notable achievements and pledged that his administration would be one whose goal was progress. He read the list of his Committees and made arrangements for early meetings on their part.

The closing activity of the evening was the presentation of a past president's pin to Mr. Adams which in some small degree expresses the extreme appreciation and approval of his fellow Rotarians whom he has served during the past year so effectively as President.

The staff and counselors entered camp several days previous to the opening and had everything in readiness for the campers. While food is available for the camp in sufficient quantities, it is necessary for the administration to have the ration book of each camper and remove point coupons in accordance with O. P. If the need arises on the part of nearby farmers for pickers to save farm crops, the camp has indicated to the County Farm Agent that it will stand ready to enlist the help of the campers for this important work."

MANY ARRESTED FOR DRIVING VIOLATIONS

Despite the wartime necessity for greater highway safety, 20,260 motorists were arrested for traffic law violations and 263 persons were killed in accidents during the first five months of the year, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced today. During the same period, 4,929 operators had their driving privileges revoked, or a ratio of one in every four drivers arrested.

This year's fatalities compare with 348 in the same period last year, a reduction of 85, or 24 percent.

The situation, in the opinion of Commissioner Magee, is far from satisfactory.

"Not even patriotic, let alone humanitarian motives can induce a certain class of drivers to drive with the care and caution the law expects of every man and woman entrusted with a driver's license," he said. "The only thing they respect is rigid enforcement, otherwise why should there be 7,650 arrests for speeding in a five-month period in which the Federal Government fixed 35 miles an hour as the top speed most conducive to car, tire and gasoline conservation."

Commissioner Magee views as a healthy sign the high ratio of license revocations and adds that from all parts of the state come reports of steeper fines being imposed by magistrates. He deplored the once common practice of two dollar fines or suspended sentences for flagrant traffic violations and added that long years of observation show that these token penalties oftentimes have the same effect in undermining highway safety programs as the vicious practice of ticket killing.

Only five counties failed to reduce traffic fatalities during the first five months.

CANNING Is War Work

NOT SINCE pioneer days has it been so imperative that we raise and preserve our own produce. Huge shipments of food must go to our armies, our allies and to the starving people of invaded countries. Home canning will help to relieve the wartime drain on the nation's food supply. It will make your ration stamps go farther and enable you to have a varied and a balanced diet throughout the year. Ask for a copy of our booklet 'Can It'. It is given away at our Nutrition and Conservation Centers. You will find the directions easy to follow and the canning easy to do on your gas range.

NEWS OF TROOP 50

In accordance with the policy of the Riverton Troop of advancing Scouts who warrant it to Troop officers, Patrol Leader Larry Hewlett was promoted to Senior Patrol Leader. This honor was the result of the outstanding record made by Larry Hewlett, not only as a leader, but also as an individual who showed remarkable initiative and discharged responsibilities extremely well. His new duties will be to help with programming activities, to lend assistance to the other Patrol Leaders, to run Troop Meeting procedure, and to be the connecting link between the Patrol Leaders and the Scoutmaster.

Instead of a regular Troop Meeting last week, the Scouts were mobilized earlier than usual, each one bringing a shovel. They then went to Memorial Park, where they assisted the P.T.A. Committee by digging the broad jump and high jump pits.

At the regular Staff Meeting of the Troop last week, a complete summer program was mapped out. Troop Meetings will continue all summer but will be different and in many

"Sacrament" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, July 11, in all Christian Science Churches and So-

The Golden Text is: "We being for we are all partakers of that one bread." (1. Cor. 10:17)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible:
"And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said,
Take, eat: this is my body." (Matt.
26:26)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science

and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The disciples had eaten, yet Jesus prayed and gave them bread." (p. 32) "Their bread indeed came down from heaven. It was the great truth of spiritual being, healing the sick and casting out error." (p. 33)

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Fifth Street and Maple Avenue
Palmyra

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor
Sunday, July 11, 1943

In the quiet of the night, or in the midst of a storm tossed sea; out in the hot, burning desert, or in a miserable fox-hole, the fighting men all over the war-torn world are turning to the Bible for comfort and peace and are finding courage to carry on. For the things man lives by are found in this book that is the Word of God.

Our job here at home is no mean little task. Let us labor on with cheerfulness and kind faces, never forgetting to trust in God and giving thanks for His mercy and care.

At Central Baptist you are invited to take an active part in its various services. You will find a hearty welcome at "The Home-like Church."

Bible School, 10 a.m. The time a child spends in Sunday School will always be happily remembered and it will be a guide for the years to come.

Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m. The topic for the morning will be, "The Prayer of Adoration." The choir will sing, "More Love to Thee," by Volcott. Mr. Edw. Hoyt will be the soloist.

Vesper Service in the Grove, 7:00 p.m. This service will be in charge of the Baptist Church. Pastor Morgan will have for his subject, "The 4-H Club."

The selection by the choir will be "Bing Aloud Unto God," by Peace. Wednesday, 8 p.m. Mid-Week Prayer and Praise Service. The Daily Vacation Bible School is now in progress. All school-age children are invited to come. Time 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Fourth and Lippincott Ave.
Riverton, N. J.
The Rev. R. B. Stewart, Pastor

Among the basic and fundamental yearnings of the human heart, from which no one of us can ever escape, is the desire for completeness. It may be that we never actualize it on earth, no matter what our faith may be—it may also be that we could approximate the fulfillment of that desire far more perfectly if we had the right faith and exercised it in the right way!

The second petition of the Lord's Prayer is very obviously concerned with the fulfillment of this legitimate human desire. Next Sunday morning, at the eleven o'clock service of Divine Worship, the worship theme will be this second prayer petition, "Thy Kingdom Come." The sermon topic will be, "The Desire for Completeness." Special music will be rendered by our guest soloist.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Dear Editor:

At a time when friends and relatives are fighting and dying on the many battlefronts of this war, it is surprising the number of people who cannot spare a moment to honor our country through the playing of the Star Spangled Banner. Following the parade on the great holiday of our country, the 4th of July, the National Anthem was played on the River bank and during the music many people present did not even look up from what they were doing, continued talking to one another and ignored the song in general.

I suggest that when a person sees another failing to so respect our Anthem to remind him verbally of what is going on and if that is not sufficient to take a more drastic means of reminding him.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR LIFE IN THE ARMY

Last Thursday evening the members of the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club heard a very interesting and instructive address on the subject of "Opportunities in the Army." The speaker was Captain Walter D. Lammon, Jr., of Palmyra, who was home on leave from Fort Bragg.

After declaring that opportunities in the army are unlimited, Captain Lammon went on to prove his contention with many well-chosen illustrations of fact. "Any enlistee can apply for officer training, or even for transfer to another unit. In the army, the man with a goal will reach it." The opportunity for promotion is not confined to those on the home front. A man may engage in overseas combat, and then return home and apply for officer training. "The opportunity," Captain Lammon reminded his hearers, "is not in the Army, but in the man himself."

The speaker then drew a graphic word-picture of the toughening-up army process that is intended to give a soldier confidence in himself, and indicated that excellent technical training is also provided, but of course, the nature of the training itself is a military secret.

Morale
The morale of the men, at least in the artillery, is excellent, as they receive the three basic requirements for high morale, "good food, hard work and fair treatment." Across the ocean, in the combat zone the best morale-builder is a good clean bed!

The army is just as interested in food conservation as are those on the civilian front. Nothing is wasted, and all refuse is sorted out before being taken to the refuse dump. From the "dump" it is collected and sent to the place where it will do the most good.

Captain Lammon had also some very interesting remarks to make concerning the care of equipment by the soldiers. "Equipment cannot be kept in excellent shape," he declared, "it must be superior." Every soldier takes a personal pride in the equipment for which he is responsible, and the army takes care so as to train that he will feel that he is "personally" responsible, not only for isolated units of equipment, but even for a particular part of the larger unit which he uses as part of a team.

Visitors welcomed by President Carl Thomas included Rotarian Guy Rohrbach, Faculty member of Dickinson College and past president of the Carlisle Rotary Club, and Rotarian "Ed" Bryan, Superintendent of Schools of Camden, and member of the Camden Club.

WAVES NEEDED
A three-week campaign to recruit 400 WAVE officers and enlisted women from the Fourth Naval District got underway this week as part of the biggest nationwide drive made so far to obtain members for the Navy Women's Reserve.

Captain T. T. Patterson, USN, Director of Naval Officer Procurement and head of WAVE recruitment for the district, announced that the campaign will run from Monday (July 12) through July 30, first anniversary of the establishment of the WAVES by Act of Congress. The quota of 400 is for Pennsylvania, Delaware and Southern New Jersey.

Although the recruiting drive coincides with the anniversary, it is prompted by necessity rather than sentimentality. Captain Patterson said. WAVES are needed to ease the manpower shortage by freeing Navy men for the crews of new ships.

The Navy Department plans to train 3,800 women for aviation petty officer duties ashore this year alone. They will replace a number of men sufficient to provide aviation petty officers for at least three new aircraft carriers. Other WAVES will serve in a dozen other capacities ashore.

$25.00 reward will be paid by the Borough Council of Riverton, N. J., for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who have in the past, or will in the future, maliciously damage or destroy any gas lamps in the Borough of Riverton, particularly the GAS LAMP located at the intersection of Bank Avenue and Linden Avenue.

NO BATHING IN PENNSAUKEN CREEK

At a meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week, it was voted unanimously to prohibit bathing in Pennsauken creek at Palmyra Extension along the shore adjacent to Public road.

This move was taken following a recommendation made by the State Board of Health that such action be taken. Signs are to be erected along the shore in the area where bathing is banned. The move was taken in order to prevent a possible outbreak of disease as a result of swimming in water which is believed to be badly polluted.

MODERN MEDICINE
AT THE FRONT

These are facts from United States News, the only magazine devoted entirely to reporting, interpreting and forecasting the news of national affairs.

Blood plasma is no insignificant performer in the field of modern miracles. It works hand in hand with the sulfa drugs. The drugs keep down infection. Plasma supplies the strength to withstand shock, puts new life into the veins. Four hundred soldiers badly burned by flaming oil in North Africa, were given plasma transfusions. All but six were saved.

Directly back of front lines, men brought in on litters are given quick transfusions of blood plasma if they have any injury serious enough to cause shock or loss of blood. For men with gaping wounds or shattered bones, it restores bulk and balance to the blood stream, enables the men to withstand the painful trip back to the portable operating hospitals. At these hospitals, plasma is often injected again.

The doctors figure that half the wounded men need plasma and most of these will need more than one dose. To supply it, the American Red Cross is collecting 500,000 gallons of blood this year.

A PINT OF BLOOD MAY SAVE YOUR NEXT OF KIN. Phone your willingness to go to the Blood Donor Center in Phila. The date will be set as soon as we have obtained 25 donors. Transportation will be provided each way.

ABOUT HOME CANNING

State Civilian Defense officials expressed considerable concern over the threatened waste of Victory Garden produce because of the fear of many housewives that canned foods will develop poisons unless pressure cookers are used in their preparation.

Dr. Frank Helyar, Chairman of the Victory Garden Committee and Miss Marie Doermann, Chairman of the Food Conservation Committee at a meeting here with State Civilian Defense Director Leonard Dreyfus, State Deputy Mrs. Richard S. Bethell and area administrators and assistants urged that every effort be made immediately to overcome the fear that has been built up and is constantly growing.

According to Dr. Helyar and Miss Doermann the fear of food poisoning has developed because of canning hints issued by some Federal bureaus that pertained principally to foods grown in mid-west and western soil but were not entirely applicable to similar foods grown in Jersey soil.

"Unless this fear of the housewives who have been canning for years in their own kitchens without any ill effects, can be overcome immediately

COMPLETE COURSE
IN HOME NURSING

Fifteen girls who have recently completed the Standard Course in Home Nursing were awarded certificates and pins at the regular meeting of the Riverton Branch, American Red Cross on Wednesday, by Mrs. Nathan Lane, chairman.

The following girls, under the direction of Mrs. Charles F. Stewart, have had thirty hours of practice and instruction as required by the American Red Cross:

REWARD OFFERED

At the meeting of Riverton Borough Council held on Thursday night of last week it was voted to offer a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who have, or may in the future, damage the gas light at the foot of Linden avenue.

This lamp has been smashed so many times that Public Service has become discouraged in trying to keep it in service. Not only have the vandals broken the globe on numerous occasions, but have even bent the fixture itself. At one time nearly a wheelbarrow load of glass was carried away.

Council wishes it to be known that the offenders, if apprehended, can expect to pay the full penalty provided by law for an offense of this nature.

Petition Presented

A petition was presented by representatives of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company regarding the use of streets for the various equipment used by the utility and asked that certain provisions of an old ordinance dated June 8, 1905, be repealed.

A public hearing on the petition will be held in the council chambers August 12 at 8 p.m.

there will be a tremendous waste of next winter's food supply from the 350,000 Victory Gardens in New Jersey," Dr. Helyar said.

By following a few simple, easily understandable rules in preparing the produce for canning, virtually any housewife will be able to conserve the food necessary for next winter without danger of poisoning. Dr. Helyar and Miss Doermann said.

Giving Assistance
The State Food Conservation Committee, the State Board of Health, the Public Utility Companies, Home Demonstration Agents, and scores of dietitians have been giving all assistance possible, Miss Doermann pointed out, so that housewives may learn to can successfully without the use of a pressure cooker. The supply of pressure cookers is limited and few are being manufactured.

Miss Doermann explained that there is little or no danger of poisoning in non-acid foods such as snap beans, peas, lima beans, broccoli, if the following rules are adhered to: "Be sure the vegetable to be canned is freshly picked; washed and cut then boiled for five minutes; packed loosely in clean, hot jars and seal in accordance with the instructions for the cap to be used; boil for two hours in a covered vessel with the boiling water at least one inch over the top of the jars; when the food is ready to be eaten, it should be cooked ten minutes after it is taken from the jar."

By following these instructions, Miss Doermann said, the danger of poisoning is eliminated, stressing that cooking for ten minutes before eating is important to remember.

POLICE QUELL
FIGHT IN BUS

Police in this section had a busy time shortly before midnight Sunday, when white and colored occupants of a Public Service bus staged a free-for-all just as the vehicle approached Broad and Main streets, Riverton. The affair was terminated before anyone was injured.

According to the driver, the trouble started after the bus left Cambridge where a number of people got on after emerging from a taproom. Marie Shea, white, of Philadelphia, was jostled against Helen Spry, colored, also of Philadelphia, it was alleged. The latter is reported to have made some uncomplimentary remarks about the Shea woman and they both tangled with no holds barred. Others joined in the fray and the driver halted the vehicle at Broad and Main with the situation entirely out of control.

Officer John Robinson, of Riverton, dashed into the conveyance and, seeing that one man could not cope with the melee, ordered the driver to proceed to the police station and keep the door closed. Robinson remained inside until headquarters was reached at which point he phoned for help.

"Have you looked in your Telephone Directory
for that number?"

Starting this week, when an Information operator is called for a local or nearby telephone number, she will ask:
"Have you looked in your directory for that number?"

Information service today is heavily burdened handling calls, thousands of which are unnecessary because the numbers asked for are already available in the telephone directory.

If these unnecessary calls are not made, your wartime telephone service will be helped in two important ways:

• • • Information can give more effective service on calls for numbers changed or added since your directory was printed, and for numbers in areas not covered by your directory;

• • • Telephone lines and switchboards now operating at capacity much of the time will be freed of a large unnecessary load and be better able to handle the rising volume of essential wartime calls.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Citizens of Riverton:

Speaking in behalf of our colored populace of Riverton, we wish to express our appreciation for the excellent manner in which our borough officials handled the disgraceful race disturbances which occurred on the 1 a.m. Philadelphia bound bus Monday, July 12, 1943.

Our chief of police Gootee, Officers Robinson and Carhart and Justice of the Peace Bottger, are worthy of commendation for the fine spirit exemplified by them. Justice was issued fairly on both sides, regardless of color or race.

We are proud of Riverton and its leaders who are governing affairs.

We have never had any racial contention here in Riverton and every fair-minded American citizen of Riverton should take a stand against this sort of thing. Our boys are all fighting side by side, united for the one cause, to perpetuate democracy and further our American way of life.

Mayor Biddle, of Riverton, and Mayor Ward, of Palmyra, are to be congratulated for the interest they showed in this ghastly affair.

Now is the time for all citizens of Riverton and of our State and Nation, to put forth an effort to prevent any repercussions of this horrible and inhuman affair in Detroit. Race riots are a menace to our war effort.

No single act of domestic policy will so resound to the moral credit of the United States abroad, especially in Asia, as the righting of wrongs which have been perpetrated upon our colored citizens throughout the nation.

The American people who believe in one God, as the father of all mankind, must not desire until the basic economic and social problems which lie at the root of these race riots are known and solved.

The lawlessness that is so rampant in certain sections of our country must be regarded as the germs of a disease that seeks to destroy the fruits and blessings of our great government.

What has happened in Detroit, Los Angeles and Beaumont, Texas, is a part of some national disturbance which is being fomented for their own particular interest by certain subversive groups.

The Detroit riot was very good news to the Japanese and Germans. They did not have to twist or garble any facts. They had only to broadcast to China and India the U. S. newspaper stories of what happened to the colored people in Detroit.

Before this problem gets with us in Riverton, it seems expedient that we should take steps now to avert any conflicts, disturbances or ill feelings that might impair or jeopardize the well-being and the peaceful American way of life that exists here.

Enter social, community, religious, political and they are functioning all over our nation.

What about Riverton?
JOSIAH CONWELL, JR.
Teacher of the Camden, N. J. Board of Education.

Stanley I. Russ, Delanco township farmer who has served on the Board of Freeholders under an appointment since last November, this week announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination in the September primary election.

Freeholder Russ, who was appointed to the board to fill the unexpired term of Captain Albert C. Jones, when the latter resigned after entering the army, will be a candidate for nomination for the full three-year term.

Son of the late Howard Russ, prominent farmer and member of the Board of Freeholders several years ago, Russ has been director of the department of public buildings since his appointment. He is a well-known farmer and has been active in civic and political affairs of the county for a number of years.

In announcing his candidacy, Freeholder Russ said:

"After due consideration, I have decided to become a candidate for the Republican nomination to the Board of Freeholders. During the months that I have been privileged to serve on the board, I have found a great interest in the county administration and have developed a sincere desire to do my best to help to insure for the county the best in government."

In reaching a decision to become a candidate in the primary election, Sept. 21, I am fully aware of the war-time restrictions and curtailments necessary to the war effort and of the fact that the interest in activities of the war take a prominent part in the civilian life today. We all must sacrifice if our boys are to have the supplies, food and equipment that they will need to win the war.

Citizens must not forget, however, that it is vitally important to preserve the principles of government which our fighting men value so highly. They are giving their lives to insure such principles, and we at home must work to maintain them.

"All qualified voters should interest themselves in the elections and in the candidates for public office. Public apathy cannot be allowed to hinder, or curtail, the best that there is in government, either national, state or county."

"If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to strive to maintain a businesslike, honest and economical county administration, so that our fighting men, when they return home, will continue to be proud of the country in which they reside."

"Y" CAMPERS HARVEST BLUEBERRIES

More than 100 boys and girls from "Y" Camps Oceanic and Matolionequay have helped in harvesting the counties blueberry crops during the past two weeks, in response to an appeal on the part of the growers to help save the crop. This is in line with the announced policy of the camps to stand ready to give assistance to nearby farmers in case of need, according to a report by Executive Director, Wm. H. Douglass.

Friday night brought the first period of the 1943 season to a close and banquets were held at both camps. Band awards were made to the girls at Matolionequay as follows: Louise Scruggs, Moorestown, a bead each for craft, land sports and riding; Dorothy Sapp, Burlington, a bead for riding; Ann Edgar, Mt. Holly, bead for craft and riding; Marion Read, Mt. Holly, riding; Patsy Kline, bead for craft. In the boys' camp, Blue Feather, highest honor in camp, was awarded to Thomas Edgar, Mt. Holly, with other Blue Feathers going to boys in other counties.

Chapel speakers Sunday were, at Matolionequay, Mrs. Albert Bean, wife of the County Superintendent of Schools in Camden County and at Oceanic, Henry E. Stockwell, Moorestown, President of the Camp Corporation, who spoke on the topic "Salt." The weekend motion picture program at both camps was "Black Beauty."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LaDow, who are in charge of the Nature program at both camps have been running a "What Is It" contest. The winners last week were Bruce Ergood, of Moorestown, twice; Charles Rose, of Bordentown; Wendell Frazier, Moorestown.

A special play day program was held one day last week at Matolionequay with the whole camp divided into two teams. The losers had to clean up the camp. This coming week at the boys' camp, the special feature will be the Gold Rush in the woods. Last year this proved to be the most popular program of the season.

The camp family now numbers in the two camps, around 500 which fills very cabin to capacity.

BRIEF ITEMS from ABOUT TOWN

Miss Christine Ridley, of 401 Main street, Riverton, is one of the nineteen additional WAVES from the Fourth Naval District who have been assigned to study for ratings as aviation machinist's mates at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn., reflecting the increasing role of WAVES in naval aviation.

The group recently completed basic training at Hunter College, New York. Each member holds the rating of seaman, second class, and will become eligible for Navy petty officer ratings upon completing training.

The first summer meeting of the Palmyra Junior Woman's Club will be held Monday, July 19th, at the club house. An auction will be held in an effort to raise funds for an Army Ambulance. All members are urged to come out and join in the fun of this special summer meeting.

Aviation Cadet John W. Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parsons, 103 Memorial Ave., Palmyra, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces, having been graduated from the advanced Navigation School at Selman Field, Monro, La. He now wears the wings of an aerial navigator. Lieutenant Parsons attended Lehigh University before entering the Service.

Katherine C. Graff, Y2c, USNR, of 300 Eighth street, Riverton, has been selected for officer training in the Women's Reserve. She will enter the next officer candidate class entering the Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School (WH) at Northampton July 31.

Miss Graff was assigned to this school September 17, 1942, and after a month's indoctrination, was assigned to the office of the Officer-in-Charge of Midshipmen. She received her second-class yeoman's rating November 1, 1942.

Miss Graff, a graduate of the Friends' School at Moorestown, New Jersey, was formerly secretary and assistant to the publicity manager of the Presbyterian General Assembly at Philadelphia. A previous position which she held took her to all the States in the United States except one—South Dakota. She also had two years of executive secretarial work with Pierce Business School, Philadelphia.

SOLDIER BALLOTS

Brigadier General James I. Bowers, the Adjutant General of New Jersey, solicits the aid of the families of those serving in the armed forces of the United States, in connection with his efforts to see to it that as many persons as possible are offered the opportunity of exercising their democratic right of franchise in the coming Primary and General Elections. In the administration of the provision of Sections 19:54-25 to 40, Revised Statutes of New Jersey, in so far as they apply to his office, General Bowers has found that one excellent means of securing current information concerning the person in service is through his family. Although the person in service may desire to cast an absentee ballot, he sometimes is so preoccupied with other vital and interposing matters that the necessary steps often are not taken to insure receipt of a war ballot.

Although the Primary Election is months away, the requirements of law are such that initial certifications of names must be made in the early part of August. If each family of the person in service will augment the data being secured and compiled through other means, by furnishing The Adjutant General of New Jersey, State House, Trenton, with the following information concerning the person in service, many more husbands, sons and daughters will have their names certified for a War Ballot.

Starting Fall Crops
By Dr. Charles H. Connors,

Planting Crops for Storage

Victory Gardeners are now nearing the end of the planting season. The last sowings of carrots, beets and turnips should be made about July 15, if roots for storage are expected to mature. The turnips referred to are not rutabagas as the sowing of these should have been made about July 1. All of these crops are somewhat resistant to cold and will continue to grow after light frosts.

Harvesting Your Crops

Many persons are experiencing for the first time this year the pleasures of harvesting and eating the fruits of their own labor. Many a bean will be picked too small or left until very mature. Snap beans are left on, usually, until the location of the seeds in the pod just becomes evident. They are then in their most succulent state. However, if the seeds should become well formed and the pods a little tough, shell out these seeds and cook them with the tender pods. Many persons are fond of green shelled beans.

The touch sense is a good guide in harvesting, but the novice must experiment. In harvesting lima beans, for instance, one must judge the maturity by the sense of touch until the eye becomes practiced. By feeling gently of the pods, the maturity of the beans can be determined. If your touch tells you that you think they are large enough, open a pod, and you will be surprised, because usually the seeds will be too small for best use. It is by testing in this way that the gardener will arrive at the proper degree of maturity for his particular taste.

tion is not easy. If the ears are pulled when the kernels are too small they will lack substance and flavor. If left on too long, the kernels may be tough and lack sweetness. Corn should be pulled when the kernels are in the milk stage. First evidence is when the silks turn brown and dry at the outer ends.
The writer, to determine the proper stage of ripeness, since it will vary with varieties, pulls back a small section of the husks to expose the upper inch or two of the ear. The kernels should appear well filled out. Press the flat of the thumbnail into the kernels and in the direction of the tip. If the content of the kernels spurt out with a milky appearance, the ear is probably ready to pull for cooking. If this does not occur, draw the husk back over the opened portion and leave the ear on the stalk.

THEY'RE going to can the yields of their victory gardens. They'll have their shelves lined with jars of home-canned vegetables. This is the way they'll meet the wartime food shortage. In these days of crisis and chaos Christian and non-Christian alike are asking, "What will the end be?" On every hand nation is rising against nation, the rulers and peoples of the earth are rebelling against God. What is or will be God's reaction to this? We are seeking peace and blessing not only for ourselves but also for all nations. How can this be obtained? The second Psalm of David which pictures for us world conditions not only in his day but also in our answers these questions.

On Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock worship service the message growing out of a study of the second Psalm will center around the topic, "Christ, the Triumphant." In the absence of the pastor, who is attending

VISIT PALESTINE

Word has been received from Captain John R. Siddall that he and several other officers and nurses have had the inspiring privilege of walking along the long hard road that Christ had followed on his way to his crucifixion.

The trip was planned while they were still at their headquarters near Cairo, Egypt, and took about two hours by airplane to reach Palestine. Captain Siddall states they stopped at most of the 14 stations and as they reached the "Wailing Wall" they found many weeping. The final stop was at the Sacred Tomb.

It occurs to the writer that many of us may forget the great sacrifices that Christ made for us, but to those who have been privileged to follow along in his footsteps, it is a memory never to be erased from their minds. God willing—may they return to us and fill us with new hope and reverence.

Signed, The doctor's mother.

SOLDIERS RESENT
STRIKES AT HOME

From a letter from Staff Sergeant Donald L. Clement, somewhere in No. Africa, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clement, of Riverton, dated June 6, 1943:

"The past week has brought out a new mood among the boys over here. I thought I had seen them in all moods but this past week has been one which brought out an ugly streak I have never seen, and to my way of thinking, a justifiable mood. You know, a soldier gets used to most anything and events just bring a shrug of the shoulders and a cryptic remark which is usually apropos, but these strikes back home are different. They have caused remarks and a bitterness such as I have seldom seen or heard and I know the newspapers back home are going to be deluged with letters date-lined 'North Africa.'"

That in itself is an indication of their feelings, for the one thing a soldier puts off as long as possible is letter writing. Even the Pay Bill last year didn't cause letters to be written to papers or Congressmen, but this last mine strike has, to most of them, been the straw which broke the camel's back.

My feelings have been more of disappointment than anything else; disappointment in that my own countrymen would QUIT just when we are on the last lap.

It is a stab in the back worse than Mussolini's now famous one, for he at least stabbed a foreign race—not his own people.

We all know it will be ironed out in the end but why does the Government allow such things? Why does it feed fuel to the Nazi propaganda fires?"

DINNER FOR THE REV.

FRANCIS B. DOWNS

The Rev. Francis B. Downs, rector of Christ Church Episcopal, Riverton, was tendered a farewell dinner on Tuesday night of this week by the members of the Riverton Civil Defense Council, of which Rev. Downs has been a most efficient and energetic member. In addition to serving on various committees of the organization, he also organized the communications section and has been chairman of that group.

George Becton acted as toastmaster for the occasion and Colonel Frank Mathews presented a gift to the guest of honor in behalf of the civilian defense personnel. Rev. Downs responded with a few well-chosen remarks.

W. Rex McCrosson, area coordinator of Civil Defense for South Jersey, was also a guest at the affair. Rev. Downs leaves on July 26 to become the rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Providence, R. I.

TEARING DOWN HOUSES

A number of the successful bidders at the Dreer auction held in Riverton have already started work in razing the various structures prior to hauling them away to new locations. Within a few weeks probably little will remain of the once extensive establishment that has long been a Riverton landmark.

"No Trespassing" signs have been posted around the entire grounds.

THREE TERMS EXPIRE

In Riverton, the terms of Mayor H. McLean Biddle, Councilman David P. Gould and Councilman Archibald Bush expire this year. No announcement has been made to date whether or not any of these men will seek re-election.

Such a situation is not rare in Riverton, however, since it is seldom that a candidate files a petition before the last day which, this year, is Thursday, August 12.

ANOTHER TEST

A test blackout was held in New Jersey Tuesday night between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock, there being a brief interval between the red and the second blue signals. Due to a misunderstanding, the first blue signal was not sounded in Riverton, but civil defense forces were out promptly when the red was heard.

W. Rex McCrosson, of Palmyra, who has charge of the South Jersey area was in this section during the period of the test and visited the Riverton control center during the evening.

FUEL OIL RATION APPLICATIONS

All occupants of oil-heated homes should return their applications for next year's fuel oil rations to their War Price and Rationing Boards promptly, if possible within the next 48 hours. T. Curtis Flynn, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board, declared today.

While there is no deadline for filing applications, it is very possible that those who delay may have difficulty in getting supplies before the first cold weather arrives next fall, Mr. Flynn pointed out.

Distribution of the simple renewal application form to householders who received a ration of fuel oil last year was completed several days ago, the Chairman reported. Many of these have been returned, and the board has already processed applications and mailed new rations to a large number of the applicants. These householders are thus able to make immediate arrangements with their dealers to fill their fuel tanks before cold weather sets in. The importance of making these arrangements early was stressed by Mr. Flynn.

"Dealers can give consumers better delivery service throughout the year if they can begin deliveries in the summer," he said. "This helps them solve manpower and truck shortage problems, and it also enables them to add appreciably to the total storage capacity in the rationed area."

"All dealers may not be able, because of lack of supply, to make deliveries immediately in individual cases. But public cooperation in placing orders early will enable dealers to serve their customers ahead of any weather emergency and to use their delivery equipment most efficiently."

Cooperation Needed
"Public cooperation can also help the rationing boards," Mr. Flynn stated.

"The boards, which will be busy with other rationing programs later, are best equipped to handle fuel oil applications now. Customers can be best assured that their applications will be handled promptly if they file them early."

"It is also important that dealers and the government have immediately the information which applicants for renewals will provide about the amount and kind of oil rations that each consumer requires. This information tells dealers and the government how much of each type of oil to bring into each neighborhood throughout next year."

"Consumers were cautioned not to mail their application to district, state or regional offices of OPA, but to the local War Price and Rationing Boards."

YOU CAN HELP

If you have a few hours spare time and wish to help in the war effort why not volunteer to assist some nearby farmer in harvesting his crops that will provide food next winter.

Just let Mr. Perry at Palmyra High School know when you can work. Men, women, boys, girls, all are needed.

PHOTO-ENGRAVING

"How would you feel if the Russians gave you an order for nearly half a million dollars? How would you tell your best customers and business prospects of your good fortune? The answer is advertising," said George T. Becton, in an address to local Rotarians on the subject of Photo-Engraving. "Pictures are the heart of advertising and the photo-engraving industry has made it possible for pictures to be used in the printing arts today."

Stating that photo-engraving is the art of making printing plates, Mr. Becton took the club through an imaginary tour of a modern photo-engraving plant illustrating his description of each operation with pictures of the operation involved.

From the layout, which is to the photo-engraver what a blueprint is to a builder, Mr. Becton traced the operations from the artist's studio to the gallery where the job is filmed through a half-tone screen; to its transference to the metal plate for etching; and finally to the final proof after careful outlining, routing and finishing has been accomplished.

Considerable emphasis was given to the value of the half-tone

Riverton, N. J.

"Truth" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, July 25, in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth." (1 John 5:6)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible:
"I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.
Give me understanding and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart." (Ps. 119:30, 34)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science
and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood." (p. 272)

TWO CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
BROADCASTS JULY 25

Both the National and the Columbia systems will broadcast Christian Science programs on Sunday.
The first will be from Station WEAF at 8:30 a.m. and will be conducted by Mr. Charles William Morse of New York City. The second will be the Columbia Church of the Air program originating from St. Louis, Missouri, at 1:00 p.m. This program will be conducted by Mr. Clinton Bent and may be heard in New Jersey over Station WABC and affiliated stations. Both programs will be under the auspices of the Christian Science Church.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Fifth Street and Maple Avenue
Palmyra

Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor
To all: Visitors, new-comers, unaffiliated, make this your meeting place on Sundays. You will find Central Baptist to be the "Homelike Church."

"You can tell the caliber of a man by the size of the thing that gets his goat." The truth of this old saying is exemplified every day. We see it revealed in our friends, they see it in us. Then we wonder what they find in us. We may be able to rise above great obstacles and temptations only to fall before the simplest and most trivial annoyance.

We are bound to encounter innumerable irritations of the most trivial nature. We can't dodge or hope to put them aside. We would profit and grow if we would keep in mind this morning prayer by Robert Lewis Stevenson: "The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man. Grant us courage to endure the lesser ills unshaken."

Sunday Services
Bible School, 10:00 a.m. Keep your toe on the mark.
Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m. It is just as cool in the spacious church as in any other spot in town. The food for thought is limitless.

The topic for the morning sermon will be "What Are You Hearing?"
The choir selection will be, "The Path of the Just," by Barker. There will be other special music.
The Vesper service in the Grove will be in charge of Rev. Robert Stewart.

Wednesday, 8 p.m. Mid-week Prayer and Praise service. "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."
Thurs., 8 p.m. Daily Vacation Bible School commencement.
Friday, July 23rd. School picnic.

"BRUCellosis" (Undulant Fever)

Although this disease is not as common as measles or chicken pox, its development is so insidious and it is so often mistaken for other diseases, that something should be known about it.

It may be contracted either by drinking raw milk from cows or goats infected with the Brucella organisms, or it may be contracted through handling contaminated carcasses of hogs or cattle. There has never been any record of this disease being transmitted by properly pasteurized milk.

One or two weeks after drinking infected raw milk, fever slowly develops in typical cases. Then chills followed by profuse sweating occurs with pains in the muscles and joints.
All of the symptoms are so indefinite that many other diseases may at first be suspected. Cases of Brucellosis have at times been confused with typhoid fever, rheumatic fever, malaria, sepsis, tularemia, and even tuberculosis. However, there are laboratory tests available which will definitely determine the identity of the disease.

After a period that varies from one week to a month the fever usually subsides only to return again after a short interval. It is this up and down movement of the temperature curve which gave the disease the name of undulant fever. If death does not occur, and depending of course upon the resistance of the patient, the body builds up enough resistance to wipe out the infection.

This same disease in cattle causes many abortions, so that except for tuberculosis, it causes the greatest economic loss of any animal disease.
Veterinarians test cattle for the presence of this disease by injecting a substance under the skin which causes a reaction when infection is present. However, this infection is so readily transmitted from animal to animal and from herd to herd that complete elimination of the disease will take years. Meanwhile, from the standpoint of health of humans, the pasteurization of all milk is the soundest and the most economical preventive measure there is.

Amongst large groups of persons living in rural areas and drinking none but raw milk from childhood right up to adult life, skin tests for Brucellosis have been positive in as high as 15 percent of those tested. A positive skin test does not mean that the individual tested has the disease or has ever had it in a clinically recognizable form. It may merely mean that continuous contact with a small number of the organisms over a period of years has built up not only a sensitivity to, but also an immunity to these organisms.

Here then is illustrated just another of the many health hazards and even dangers to life itself which can be eliminated by the simple process of insisting that all milk be pasteurized.

LUXEMBOURG STAMP
The 5-cent postage stamp for Luxembourg, the fourth of the special series of stamps honoring the Axis over-run and occupied countries in Europe, will be placed on sale at Washington, D. C., on August 10, 1943. The central design of this stamp is a reproduction in colors of the flag of Luxembourg. The stamp will be of the special delivery size, 0.84 by 1.44 inches in dimensions, arranged horizontally, and issued 50 stamps to the sheet.

Patriotism is a blind and irrational

we propose to defend.—Robert Hall.

YMCA BRIEFS

Folk dancing by the girls at YMCA Camp Matollonequay was one of the highlights of last week's program.
Claude Childers of Masonville, a YMCA Group Leader, took his amplifying equipment and folk dance records to camp and led the girls in this feature. Friday night the Oc-canickon Counselors entertained the Matollonequay counselors at a dance.
Other program features were Sunday chapel services at Occanickon addressed by Dr. H. D. Hummer, of Pemberton and at Matollonequay, Dr. Paul Erwin, of Woodbury, on the topic "Being a Person." A swimming meet was held between the Greens and the Whites of Matolly on Friday. The camper counselors,

BRIEF ITEMS from ABOUT TOWN

Naval Aviation Cadet Harry Vincent Grooms, of Riverton, N. J., has completed three months of physical conditioning and ground school work at the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School at Athens, Ga. He has been ordered to the Naval Air Station at Memphis, Tenn., to begin progressive flight training preparatory to joining a combat unit.

Grooms, son of H. J. Grooms, Sr., 417 Linden avenue, graduated from Palmyra High School in 1940. He was transferred here from the CAA War Training Service School, Auburn, Ala.

Grooms ranked among the upper 20 percent of his large class on a basis of military, athletic, and academic work for the three-months pre-flight training.

Pvt. and Mrs. Harvey M. Pace, of Burlington Pike, entertained at dinner at their home on Sunday. Guests included Cpl. Lemar Sweet, of Fruitland, Utah, Miss Nancy Reed, of Lansdowne, Penna., and Mrs. Ada M. Mason and Mrs. Lillian Ward, of Riverton.

Two young men from Riverton have reported to the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School for Pilots at Maxwell Field, Alabama, from the Nashville Army Air Center (AAF CC) Nashville, Tennessee, to begin the second phase of their training as pilots in the U. S. Army Air Forces' expanding program.

These aviation cadets are receiving nine weeks of intensive physical, military and academic instruction at Maxwell Field, preparatory to beginning their actual flight training at one of the many primary flying schools located in the Army Air Forces Southeast Training Center.

BASEBALL GAMES

Riverton plays Palmyra on Thursday night of this week at the latter's field, the game being slated to be called at 6:15 o'clock.

A twin bill with Beverly is slated for Memorial Park on Sunday afternoon. The first will get under way at 1:30 and the second at 3:30.

At present Riverton leads the Burlington County League by the margin of half a game and the locals hope to strengthen their hold on first place by making a sweep of this week's engagements.

Acknowledging a warmly appreciative cable of thanks from Dr. Sergei Kolesnikov, President of the Alliance of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies of the Union of Soviet Republics, Norman H. Davis, Chairman of the American Red Cross, today pledged continuing Red Cross aid to the war sufferers in the U.S.S.R.

In spite of transportation difficulties, more than $10,000,000 worth of medical supplies, surgical dressings, clothing, blankets, soap, and other necessities have been sent to the Alliance through the American Red Cross. With improved shipping conditions, it is expected that aid for the Soviet people will be greatly increased within the next few months. Arrangements are being made for the

More than 11,000,000 surgical dressings made by volunteers in American Red Cross workrooms have gone to Russia for wounded soldiers, together with equipment for making blood plasma and large quantities of hospital and medical supplies.

Of the more than $10,000,000 worth of supplies already forwarded, $3,745,787 represented supplies purchased with government funds for distribution by the Red Cross. The Soviet government provides free shipping space from the United States on ships at its disposal. The Russian Red Cross distributes the supplies with the help of some 400,000 volunteers and reports on their distribution to the American Red Cross representatives now in Russia. According to a recent report, 2,946,000 people had been helped through 285 local distributing agencies, and supplies were also sent to 1,986 hospitals and dispensary units.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN
Starting Fall Crops
By Dr. Charles H. Connors,
N. J. College of Agriculture.

Getting Ready for Storage
Harvesting Onions
Onions from sets are maturing now. They have about reached the end of their growth and are bending over at the neck. As soon as about three-fourths of the plant have done this, run the back of a rake or a broom over them with sufficient force to bend the remainder over. This checks the growth somewhat and permits the bulbs to mature. As soon as the tops have become yellow, which usually takes place in a week or two, the bulbs should be pulled and ripened off.

By allowing the bulbs to reach this stage of growth before breaking them over, the best size for the condition under which they have been growing will be obtained. There is no particular point in breaking them over earlier, unless it is desired to obtain bulbs of small size. For example, the picking onions are grown from seed, sown thick. The thick sowing itself will be effective in holding size down, but an added check on their growth would be to break them over as soon as the desired size is obtained.

Fertilization
The newly set kohl crops—cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower and Brussels sprouts—should not be allowed to slow up in growth. If you set them with liquid fertilizer, it may be time now to apply more nutrients. This is especially advisable if they are planted on land from which a crop has already been harvested. Band dressing of dry Victory Garden fertilizer on each side of the row and about six inches from the plants will be effective because the feeding roots have grown rapidly in search of water and other nutrients and are now at a considerable distance from the main stem of the plant. It must be kept in mind that transfer of water with its nutrients in the soil is up and down and there is little sideways transfer. This is one reason that placing the fertilizer directly under the plant is not an advisable practice. The application at this time should be figured at the rate of one pound of fertilizer to 50 feet of row, divided into two parts, one part to be applied on each side. This is assuming, of course, that the recommended amount of fertilizer was used at the beginning of the planting season last spring.

Preparing for Final Sowing
As soon as crops are harvested the plants should be removed and the soil worked over in preparation for the final sowings of spinach, kale and endive which should be made about August 15.

Sowings of looseleaf lettuce may be made up to August 1 and by that time the seeding of head lettuce should be made so that the plants may be transferred to their final place in the garden about August 15.

Insects Still With Us
Insects that may be called "permanent residents" are still with us. These are the cucumber beetles, onions, thrips, Mexican bean beetles and the potato beetle.

Gardeners can also expect successive generations of the squash bug. This insect is difficult to eradicate and pyrethrum in spray or dust is the most effective control. Nicotine or rotenone will give fairly good results but the applications must be thorough and two or three will be necessary to accomplish control.

The second generation of squash vine borer usually appears about July 20. Damping the leaf petioles and stems with rotenone dust, starting about July 20 and making two or three applications at 10-day intervals will catch the young as they hatch. If any should be missed, the hole made for entrance with the frass or sawdust nearby will indicate where to start the slit with a knife to get the larva. Cover the stem with soil at the cut place to encourage the development of new roots and you won't lose many plants as a result of having this insect in your garden.

Storage of Crops
The Victory Garden has not fulfilled its purpose unless provision is made for the winter by canning, freezing or dehydrating and by storage of crops that can be handled in this way.

"Home Storage of Fruits and Vegetables" is the title of Circular 460, written by Robert H. Daines and C. H. Masley, and recently issued by the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. This illustrates and describes the construction of a cellar storage room and of a bin for use in a garage, together with the precautions to be observed for proper storage. It can be secured by sending a card of request to the Experiment Station, New Brunswick, N. J.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN
Starting Fall Crops
By Dr. Charles H. Connors,
N. J. College of Agriculture.

Getting Ready for Storage
Harvesting Onions
Onions from sets are maturing now. They have about reached the end of their growth and are bending over at the neck. As soon as about three-fourths of the plant have done this, run the back of a rake or a broom over them with sufficient force to bend the remainder over. This checks the growth somewhat and permits the bulbs to mature. As soon as the tops have become yellow, which usually takes place in a week or two, the bulbs should be pulled and ripened off.

By allowing the bulbs to reach this stage of growth before breaking them over, the best size for the condition under which they have been growing will be obtained. There is no particular point in breaking them over earlier, unless it is desired to obtain bulbs of small size. For example, the picking onions are grown from seed, sown thick. The thick sowing itself will be effective in holding size down, but an added check on their growth would be to break them over as soon as the desired size is obtained.

Fertilization
The newly set kohl crops—cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower and Brussels sprouts—should not be allowed to slow up in growth. If you set them with liquid fertilizer, it may be time now to apply more nutrients. This is especially advisable if they are planted on land from which a crop has already been harvested. Band dressing of dry Victory Garden fertilizer on each side of the row and about six inches from the plants will be effective because the feeding roots have grown rapidly in search of water and other nutrients and are now at a considerable distance from the main stem of the plant. It must be kept in mind that transfer of water with its nutrients in the soil is up and down and there is little sideways transfer. This is one reason that placing the fertilizer directly under the plant is not an advisable practice. The application at this time should be figured at the rate of one pound of fertilizer to 50 feet of row, divided into two parts, one part to be applied on each side. This is assuming, of course, that the recommended amount of fertilizer was used at the beginning of the planting season last spring.

Preparing for Final Sowing
As soon as crops are harvested the plants should be removed and the soil worked over in preparation for the final sowings of spinach, kale and endive which should be made about August 15.

Sowings of looseleaf lettuce may be made up to August 1 and by that time the seeding of head lettuce should be made so that the plants may be transferred to their final place in the garden about August 15.

Insects Still With Us
Insects that may be called "permanent residents" are still with us. These are the cucumber beetles, onions, thrips, Mexican bean beetles and the potato beetle.

Gardeners can also expect successive generations of the squash bug. This insect is difficult to eradicate and pyrethrum in spray or dust is the most effective control. Nicotine or rotenone will give fairly good results but the applications must be thorough and two or three will be necessary to accomplish control.

LIGHT BROKEN AGAIN
AT HIGH SCHOOL

According to a report issued by Riverton police, the gas light at Linden avenue and the river bank was again damaged on Thursday of last week, when the glass dome at the top was broken.

This has been replaced with one of galvanized iron and the globe around the lamp has been encased in wire.

A reward of $25 has been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for damaging the light and Riverton Borough Council is determined to show no leniency when the offenders are apprehended.

VACATION DRIVING

Holders of "A" Ration Books may use their gasoline coupons for traveling to and from their summer homes or other vacation places under the following conditions:

Motorists must file an application with their Local War Price and Rationing Board for authorization to make the trip, setting out the time, the starting point and the destination. The board's written authorization for the trip will not constitute an exemption of gasoline. It will be simply a statement for the motorist's use should he be questioned about compliance with the ban on non-essential driving.

The authorization will be granted by the Local Board only if the applicant can show that alternative means of transportation are inadequate. Permission will be granted for one round-trip only.

Before receiving an authorization, an applicant must satisfy his ration board and certify that he has sufficient gasoline purchased on "A" coupons in the fuel tank of his car, or has enough "A" coupons to make the complete trip. He must also give the board his speedometer reading at the time of application. Motorists taking advantage of the vacation travel privilege will travel at their own risk and will not be allowed further rationals should they be stranded along the road.

Holders of supplemental rationals cannot use their "B" and "C" stamps for vacation transportation—only the remaining stamps in the "A" book may be used.

A copy of the authorization will be retained by the Board for future reference. Anyone obtaining an authorization through false representations may face revocation of all gasoline rationals and denial of future rationals. It may also constitute a criminal offense.

For the past two years approximately two million passenger cars per year have been taken off the highways from being worn out, or from inability to secure rubber or gasoline. The depreciation will increase each year as the cars are used more. Passenger cars are essential in providing transportation for war needs, therefore, in planning vacations consideration should be given tires as well as gasoline.

WIN IN CONTEST

Palmyra High School's class in Vocational Agriculture boasts two winners in the Directed Practice Contest, sponsored by the Agricultural Teachers Association of New Jersey.

Harry Chant, of Delanco, and Paul Kendall, of Bridgeboro, won first and second places respectively in the contest, which consists of keeping records of their summer work on farms, listing the number of skills acquired and the different jobs performed.

Middlebury College, Vermont. She also attended Rider Business College and has taken graduate work at Rutgers University. Miss Sturtevant did her practice teaching in Palmyra High School while a student at Rutgers University.

ARTHUR LEWIS
FOR ASSEMBLY

Pledging himself to continue to serve the best interests of Burlington county in the New Jersey Legislature, Assemblyman Arthur W. Lewis, of Riverton, announced this week that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for re-election to the General Assembly. The primary election will take place Tuesday, September 21.

Assemblyman Lewis, who this year is serving his first one-year term in the Legislature, is a member of the Agriculture, Insurance and Federal Relations committees. In his legislative activities during the recent session, he has been active in sponsoring in the lower house legislation introduced by Senator Eastwood, of Burlington.

Time and thought are necessary to successful work as a legislator, Assemblyman Lewis pointed out.

In announcing his candidacy, he said: "After a brief experience as a member of the General Assembly I can frankly say that the work of a legislator, if taken seriously, requires considerable time and thought. It is gratifying, however, to be able to take some part in the affairs of government which are so vitally important to every citizen today."

"In announcing my candidacy for the Republican nomination for re-election to the Assembly, it is with assurance to the people of Burlington county that if they desire to return me as their representative in the House of Assembly next year, I shall accept the responsibility with sincerity and discharge the duties to the best of my ability in the interest of Burlington county."

THANKS

We wish to give our thanks to the many friends of Bob Knight, Jr., and the Knight family who so kindly sent us their words of sympathy. It has been a terrible blow to take. The only consolation so far is the knowledge that Bob had a very happy childhood and youth here in Riverton, and almost a lifetime of ordinary happiness can be condensed into that period.

Bob's ancestors on both sides came over to America on the "Welcome" ahead of William Penn; one, Giles Knight, owned a farm near what is now Bustleton, and the other, Thomas Holme, was the surveyor general of the colony, so we feel proud that Bob has been a descendant that they would have felt proud of.

For many years Bob was a member of the National Guard, and followed their training very faithfully, so that when the war did threaten, he was one of the few who were ready, and fought all through the terrible siege of Batjan and Corregidor, gaining time for the rest of us that may still be important for the final struggle.

We have received the following letter from General Marshall:

My Dear Mr. Knight:

My deepest personal sympathy goes to you in this time of sadness in your home.

There are few words which would be helpful in your sorrow, but I hope you may find consolation in the knowledge that your son, Robert Knight, has made the great sacrifice in order that Americans may continue to live as a free people under a government of their own choosing. Murray, 204 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, left last week to enter active duty as an Aircraft Communicator at the C. A. Airways Communication Station, Millinocket, Maine.

INSIGNIA FOR AIR
POST OBSERVERS

Colonel B. M. Hovey, Jr., commanding officer of the Philadelphia Air Defense Wing, which includes this area has announced that the civilian volunteers of the Army Information and Filter Centers and the Ground Observer Corps will shortly be rewarded for their valuable services to the Army Air Forces by the issuance of wings to all qualified personnel.

The basic award will be a gold wing with the Aircraft Warning Service insignia in the middle and the designations of the wearer enameled across the bottom. Wings will be given by the Army to Observers upon completion of three months duty and will be awarded to three months of duty and will be awarded to Chief Observers, Area Supervisors, District Directors and State Liaison Officers on appointment to their respective offices. Special merit medals showing the air corps emblem, hanging from a bar which bears the words "For Merit" will be granted to all Observers and civilian officers who have performed a special act of service to the Air Corps. These medals will also be presented to those observers who have completed the Aircraft Recognition course and 250 hours of duty, or who have completed 500 hours of duty, in which case a service bar will be attached. Service bars will be added to the medal for each additional 500 hours of service.

Although original shipments have been received from the manufacturers, Colonel Hovey said: "It will take several weeks to sort and investigate the many applications from Chief Observers that are expected at Headquarters. We will, however, do everything possible to expedite the issuance of these wings." The Colonel added, "for this is a real tribute to the many civilian volunteers who are daily aiding the Air Corps in this defense of our country."

IN PALMYRA GROVE
The Sunday evening Grove Services at Palmyra have met with great success. People are vitally interested in Religion and a fine spirit of cooperation is being manifested on the part of the Churches of the Communities. One could not spend an hour which would be more profitable than in the Grove at the religious services of Worship. A cordial invitation is extended to all to the Worship between the hours of 7:00 and 8:00 when the Rev. Richard A. Conover will deliver an address on the theme "The Door of Opportunity." The guest preacher who is a resident of Palmyra is connected with the Board of Penions of the Methodist Church and is rendering what service he can both to the local Church and the Community during the interim while Epworth Church is without a Pastor.

LAWN PARTY-SUPPER
A lawn party and supper, given under the auspices of the members of Sacred Heart Parish, will be held Thursday, August 12, on the church grounds. Supper will be served from 5:30 on and tickets are 50 cents. Games will follow the supper and novelty prizes will be awarded.

LANDS IN SICILY
Word has been received, from an authentic source, that Pfc. Clement A. Haas was among the first paratroopers to land on Sicily in the recent invasion. Pfc. Haas is a member of the now famous 82nd Airborne Division. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Haas, of Riverton.

Wise distrust and constant watchfulness are the parents of safety.—Secker.

SURE! It was nice to talk with Far-away Friends . . .

But now—

War-Busy America is on the long distance lines in a big way . . . There is little room today on the wires for any but necessary calls, especially to war-busy centers.

If you must call and meet with delay because all circuits are busy, please try to limit your conversation to five minutes, as requested by the operator when she gets your connection.

The Golden Text is: "O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee:
... Because thy loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee." (Psalms 63:1, 3)

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible:
"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love . . . No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us." (1 John 4:8, 12)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Chris-

by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Love

exists is in and of God, and manifests
His love." (p. 340)

Sunday

A gift of God—a perfect day
Whereon all men are bid to pray,
The church is waiting on the street
For cars to nestle at her feet,
A bird on overhanging limb
Bursts into song and joins a hymn;
Oh, who would find it irksome duty
To praise the maker of such beauty?
While tourists flock to the abode Where someone sometime wrote an ode.

Or reverence like holy saint A man who sometime learned to paint,
Who would not come at church bell's call

To praise the God who made it all?
The God who gave the poet words,
The God who gave their song to birds,
The God who gave men scenes to
paint,

And breathed a soul into the saint,
The God who waits so patiently
On His own day for you and me?

NOTICE

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY
To the defendants Mary S. Finch Ramsey,
"her heirs, devisees and personal representatives," William Ramsey, her husband, and Nathan S. Finch, "his heirs, devisees and personal representatives;"

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein the Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington is complainant and Mary S. Finch Ramsey and others are defendants, you are required to appear and answer the bill of said complainant on or before the 30th day of August, 1943, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill was filed to foreclose two tax sale certificates, each dated October 16, 1937, made by C. Kenneth Davis, Collector of Taxes, to the Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington, recorded in the office of the Clerk of Burlington County in Book 504 of Mortgages, pages 363 and 379, respectively, which certificates together cover a parcel of land and real estate on the Southwesterly side of Cinnaminson Street, Southeast of Fifth Street, with a combined frontage of 50 feet by a depth of 125 feet, to said Borough of Riverton in the County of Burlington and State of New Jersey.

And you Mary S. Finch Ramsey, your heirs, devisees and personal representatives, are made parties defendant because said Mary S. Finch Ramsey, your wife, has an interest in that part of said real estate now or formerly owned by your said wife and another; and you Nathan S. Finch, your heirs, devisees and personal representatives,

Nathan S. Finch, as one of the devisees under the will of Mary Stelling or Mary Stelling, deceased, is or was one of the owners of part of said real estate; and each of you is made a party defendant because it is charged in the bill of complaint that any interest you may have in said lands and real estate is subject to complainant's respective tax sale certificates and to subsequent municipal liens.

Dated, June 25, 1943.

One of the most pathetic things about the war is the increasing numbeing reported as having died while prisoners of Tojo's gang. Since the Japs are able to get along on practically nothing to eat the food ration of the captives staggers the imagina-of these brave lads of ours suffer a similar fate.

YMCA BRIEFS

The Trustees of YMCA Camp Ockanickon held their meeting Monday evening at the camp, having dinner with the boys and visiting the girls camp during the course of the evening. Reports of the Camp Executive Director, Wm. H. Douglas, showed that enrollments for the season at Camp Matolioneau fill the camp to capacity and at the boys' camp there are just a few more places available during the last period, August 7-21.

Last Saturday the third period of the two camps started at both camps and every available space in the cabins was taken with extra cots provided in most of them. Activities this past week at Ockanickon were: the Gold Rush, a big event in camp with boys hunting "gold nuggets" in the woods and then staking claims. In the afternoon a carnival was held where campers could spend their "nuggets." An old fashioned nickelodeon movie was given in the evening, accompanied on the piano by Wm. Carey, of Mt. Holly, Jr. Area and Music Director. Friday night was the Gold Rush banquet with the Dining Hall appropriately decorated as the "Klondike Hotel." A King's Court will be held where campers entertain the King. If he approves, the camper is awarded with a cookie—if not, punished by a dip in the lake. The Chapel speaker Sunday was Edward Evans, of Woodbury, a member of the Camp Trustees. Wednesday afternoon 15 minute tournaments were a very popular camp program.

At Matolioneau, a main event was the song contest, won by the Middle Area. Songs were written by various campers. On Thursday a Horse Show was held and winners in the beginner's class from Burlington county were—Joan Stockwell, 1st; Suzanne Heyer, 2nd; both of Moorestown; and Mary Berger, Riverton, 3rd. In the intermediate class, Lois Burns, of Riverton, 2nd. Friday a banquet was held in charge of the Middle Area and planned around the theme "Treasure Island." The feature of the evening was a parody on Treasure Island at the lake front. Chapel speaker on Sunday was Miss Mary McNichol, of Camden County. Miss McNichol is a teacher on an Indian reservation in New Mexico and spoke in Indian costume. Results of swimming tests passed are as follows: Beginners, Mary Voorhees, Susan Curtis, and Barbara Heyer, Moorestown; Swimmers, Mary Jane Walton, Beverly; Intermediate, Joan Stockwell and Barbara Shreve, Moorestown.

Regardless of what we may say, we all more or less live the old adage "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." Let us hope that the ones who sit in judgment of the dictators as they fall live this and that they remember what happened to some of the boys who were prisoners of Japan.

Mrs. Bridgegum, who has been active in the Republican party for several years has served as vice-chairman of the State Committee and is a member of the National Republican Committee.

"The women of Burlington county, along with those of the entire nation, face a serious challenge this year," Mrs. Bridgegum said. "War conditions challenge us to take part more than ever before in affairs of the government."

"With thousands of men overseas, the women on the home front must not only perform their war services, but they must maintain their interest in government and the elections. While they are fighting to preserve Democracy, the men look to us to continue the fight on the home front. They expect us to continue the battle for individual and state rights, as compared to dictator government."

"The elections this year are of extreme importance, for many reasons and particularly because of the fact that they will be the last before the United States is called upon to again elect a president. The strength of the Republican party, gained this year, will be a move for success in the future."

"In order to continue my efforts in behalf of the Republican party and the women of the Republican party in New Jersey, I have decided to be a candidate for re-election to the State Republican Committee at the primary election, Tuesday, September 21. I earnestly solicit the support of all Republicans in Burlington county, and pledge myself to continue to give my best efforts in behalf of the party."

CLUB MEETING

The G.A.E.S. (Girls' Auxiliary Evening Section) held their regular meeting at the Porch Club, Tuesday evening, July 20, 1945.

Following a brief business meeting, Mrs. Borger and Mrs. Thatcher, capable authorities on Bridge, explained the rudiments of the game to the group. We played a few hands with Mrs. Borger and Mrs. Thatcher at hand to instruct and advise. It proved most entertaining.

The next club meeting will be held at the Porch Club, Tuesday evening, August 3, at 8 p.m. instead of the usual 8:30 p.m. We will have as our guest, Miss Constance Blaine, Home Demonstration Agent of Burlington County from Mt. Holly, who will instruct in the art of glove making. Publicity.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN Starting Fall Crops

By Dr. Charles H. Connors, N. J. College of Agriculture.
Harvesting and Storing Onions
Last week you were told how to prepare onions for storage. It was recommended that when the tops of the onions begin to bend over the tops should be broken over with the back of a rake or a broom. While this checks the growth somewhat it permits the bulbs to mature. Also that as soon as the tops become yellow, which takes place a week or two after they have been broken over, the bulbs could be pulled and ripened off.

After the tops have turned yellow the bulbs should be pulled and left lying on the ground, usually directly in the rows but spread out. They are left that way in the sun for a day or two so as to continue the drying and curing process that started when the tops were broken over. After a day or two in the sun, or when the tops seem fairly well dried or "ripened off," cut the tops off with a pair of scissors or a very sharp knife. A good way to handle them is to take the neck of each bulb between the thumb and forefinger, both against the bulb, and make a cut just above the fingers. This will leave about one inch of the top attached to the bulb. Place aside those bulbs that have thick necks. These are called "scallions" by old English gardeners and should be used first as they will not save well.

The bulbs should then be placed in slatted crates, loosely woven bags or any slatted container such as a peach basket, to permit good air circulation. These containers are then placed in an open shed or garage. Free air circulation is necessary to allow the escape of the moisture from surface drying and from curing. When cold weather approaches, the containers should be moved to their final storage place which should be fairly dry, dark and cool, but where the temperature will not approach freezing, as onions are easily injured by frost. The onions should be stored apart from any other vegetables that may absorb the odor.

Of course the onions we harvest now are those raised from sets which mature earlier than onions from seed. These onions will keep in storage only until December. Onions raised from seeds which will mature later in the season as we have just described but they come to maturity much later and thus can be stored for a longer period.

Garden Maintenance

The chief tasks in the garden now are keeping the weeds down and watching for insects.

Keep the hoe, rake or scuff hoe working to maintain the dust mulch so that rains that fall can enter the soil readily. This operation should be shallow in order to avoid injury to the roots. The garden should be gone over once a week and as soon after a rain as it is possible to do so without puddling the soil. This will kill the weeds as well as aerate the soil.

Vigilance is the keyword with respect to insect control. If you use dust, it is always ready and quickly applied. Morning or late afternoon, when the air is still, is the best time to apply dust as then the material hovers around the plants and is not blown away. Watch now especially for the squash bug and squash vine borer.

To keep your corn free from ear worm use a specially prepared oil with an insecticide in it. Apply this with a pressure oiler or other instrument that has a dosage regulator, or even a medicine dropper. About one-quarter of a teaspoonful or 20 drops injected in the ear five to seven days after the silks appear will be an effective control.

Make a Compost Pile
You will need all the decayed organic matter you can secure for your garden next year as this is one of the very important constituents of any garden soil. One way to obtain this is to conserve every bit of such matter you can. As you remove your plants after their crop has been harvested, pile them up in some place which will not be too conspicuous. Weeds may be used if they are not in seed. Kitchen waste, grass clippings and succulent hedge prunings, also will help augment the supply.

RIVERTON DIVIDES TWIN BILL WITH BEVERLY

Riverton advanced to a two game lead in the Burlington County Baseball League Sunday by splitting a twin card at Memorial Park as Medford downed Mt. Holly in the runner-up post.

The locals lost the first by the score of 7-6 but came back to take the nightcap by a 5-2 margin. In this engagement Difenbaugh limited the opposition to three hits and fanned 10. He held command of the situation throughout. Van Emburgh and Cole each collected a pair of singles.

Three Riverton hurlers worked in the first game as Beverly scored six times in the third frame. A four-run rally by the homesters in the fifth was Riverton's best effort although Van Emburgh poled a homer in the eighth but poor base running deprived the locals of the run that would have knotted the count.

FIRE DRILL

The members of the Riverton Fire Department held a lengthy drill on Tuesday night of this week under the direction of the chief, Lawrence Downs. All the various pieces of equipment were given a thorough workout.

TIDE IN Yacht Racing

Stan Lippincott, Elmer Heinel and Ted Clelland would do well to read the chapter on "TIDE." It's only a short chapter! But potent! Tom Coe and Bob Lippincott managed to sail where the wind wasn't, thus at the finish found themselves next to last, and last respectively. They did put on a good exhibition of how to luff another boat so far off the course that neither has a chance to win.

Fred Collins would do well to read another of Callahan's books entitled, "How to Sail." After that one has been digested he might tackle "How to Race" by the same author. Incidentally, if Fred manages to read and comprehend both these books he will be blackballed from the Yacht Club for knowing too much. Fred did manage to right his boat and finish third from last, Fourth to you. For which we will suggest that he doesn't need to read the book on seamanship.

Flash!!! G. Kimball did nothing to create any excitement this week. Congratulations George. But how long will this last. At the moment the odds are 17 to 2 1/2 that Kimball will do something spectacular before the week is out. But he did finish last Sunday's race vertical, for which we award him Ye Gobbsoon Bowl of Merit. Take good care of it, George, you only have it one week.

At this time we wish to formally announce that Ye Gobbsoon Bowl of Merit will be awarded weekly to the member we select. The recipient to be chosen by the two best qualified to award a prize of such prestige, since we donated it.

Seems strange that the two top boats in the series finished last and next to last in the last race. This being the culmination of the series, we wish to report that Tom Coe is a new sail won the elimination series to represent the club in the district eliminations for the nationals. We wish to state with pride that the Dusters got off to a 3:00 p.m. start as promised thanks to Lincoln Ridley and his cap pistol. If they get off at 3:00 plus or minus nothing this week a club precedent will have been smashed.

Comet class: Howard Lippincott (four in a row), Bob Lippi, R. Swope, ex-commodore E. K. Merrill fouled out. MISTER Merrill, you should know better!! May we suggest here, George Hills, "The Sailing Rules in Yacht Racing." We regret to say that there are more Comets at the club than have been participating in the racing. What's the matter with this class? Comets used to be the mainstay of the racing fleet. What gives here? Phil Somervell, Bob Levine, Johnny Rogers, Nick Sheble, et al are missing and now is a good chance for some of last year's also rans to get some experience in looking aft to find the fleet. The Women's Auxiliary is to be commended on their fine job of re-furnishing the meeting room. Spent their own money, too, extracted almost painlessly by means of card parties, suppers and dances. More power to the Sail Bags. We will soon be forced to devise a trophy for them!

In view of the present shortage of dances, caused partly by that situation we are not mentioning, it would seem to indicate that bigger and better dances would be in order. In fact we wish to go record as favoring the idea. That is, we are in favor of getting out of any work connected therewith.

EMBLEMS FOR EMPLOYEES OF TELEPHONE COMPANY

Emblems identifying them as engaged in providing wartime telephone service are being presented individually to employees of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company who have more than three months service. There are approximately 12,000 women and 4,000 men in the New Jersey Bell organization. The emblem shows a telephone on a white background, flanked by red and blue bands, and is accompanied by a note of presentation which includes a quotation from a statement by Major General Dawson Olmstead regarding the vital war service of the civilian telephone organization and the Army's reliance upon it to keep open the lines of communication on the home front.

An "Old Timer" Comes Back for Wartime Service

IT'S THE "DESKSTAND TELEPHONE"—retired from active duty in many places when hand set telephones came into popularity.

Fortunately, many of these older instruments were stored for possible emergency use—and today, tested and reconditioned to give clear, dependable reception, they are helping to meet wartime needs for service.

New telephones for civilian use haven't been made in many months—the materials they would use are going into special combat equipment for our armed forces.

With hand sets available only when customers have their service disconnected, the "deskstands" are proving of great help in making existing facilities go as far as possible.
