ANNUAL REPORT OF SERVICE COUNCIL

In looking over the reports of the last two years, one is struck with the changing nature of the work of the Family Service Council. In 1941-42 before the upswing of war work had taken full effect, 157 families involving 525 individuals came to us for help. This was largely giving relief. In 1942-43 the relief load dropped greatly. Sixty-six families involving 220 persons were helped by us, only a small proportion needing financial assistance. This year with employment at its peak the number of families coming to us is still smaller—a total of 44 families involving 164 persons. We have made 364 house visits this year and have had 1400 other contacts including office visits, telephone calls, letters, etc.

Of nine families where the problem was financial because of old age, we helped seven to obtain Old Age Assistance through our county board. While waiting for this request to be granted, we gave temporary relief such as clothing, food, coal and shoes. (In the case of one elderly lady whose son was earning enough to support her, we prevailed upon him to assume responsibility for his mother—a responsibility which he consistently dodged.) Our one relief case is that of a woman not old enough for Old Age Assistance but not strong enough to work.

Marital Troubles

In our other families, 36 in number, marital difficulties resulting in broken homes, and mental and emotional instability are the main source of trouble. All too often the children are the innocent victims; neglected health, truancy and sex delinquency take their toll. In a small community such as this we dare not neglect such families. Their children attend school with our children and they mingle with us in many ways. We need to help them understand their problems and give them encouragement to work out these problems successfully. This kind of service is far more difficult and takes more time and thought than the simple solution of handing out supplies. Whatever success we are able to achieve in the way of increased family happiness is most rewarding. The help of our many friends in the community, school boards, teachers, doctors, nurses, and the police department have been invaluable; the county and state agencies and the Red Cross all play a constructive part in the functioning of the Family Service Council.

I wish at this point to express my gratitude to the members of the Board whose support and understanding have been of such great help throughout the year. At Christmas time also through their generous contributions of time and money Christmas was made a happy time for many of our children and elderly people. We are grateful also to the Evening Section of the Palmyra Woman's Club, Cinnaminson Public Schools and Cinnaminson Friends' First Day School for their help at this time. Six of our families were given Christmas checks, a policy we hope can be greatly expanded to cover more of our families this year. More than ever Christmas is a time of family participation in family activities. It is so much more fun to have one's own money to plan and buy things suited to individual tastes.

Many Visits

As Social and Health Counsellor for the Local Draft Board we have made approximately 175 visits this past year; we have secured information from schools, neighbors, doctors, Red Cross and the families themselves, in order to assist the Draft Board in making decisions. As our 18-year-old boys continue to be drafted, the available information becomes more complete thanks to better school records. When mustered

SACRED HEART

P.T.A. MEETING

The Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association will hold a regular monthly meeting, Thursday, November 9th, at 8:00 p.m. in the school. Leo P. O'Donnell, of the O.P.A. Rationing Board, of the Camden District, will be the guest speaker. All members are urged to attend. The executive board will meet at 7:30 p.m.

Republican Club Names Committees

At a meeting held last Sunday afternoon in the home of Judge Frank Mathews, Bank avenue, J. W. Van Horn, president of the Riverton Republican Club announced his appointments of members of the executive committee and the personnel of the various committees in the organization.

The executive committee, in addition to the officers is composed of C. B. Woolston, Arthur W. Lewis, Judge Mathews and Blaine E. Capehart.

Committee chairmen are: W. Emory Cheesman, program; Walter L. Rogers, finance; Robert G. Adams, membership and F. W. Metzger, publicity. Each of these committees is composed of a group of enthusiastic workers.

The Club members will be most active on election day and it is anticipated that a record Republican vote will be turned in.

County committee members told of their plans and expressed their appreciation of the efforts of the club toward electing the entire G.O.P. slate.

out the men must report back to their Draft Boards. Frequently they have personal and family problems, and, if they wish it, are referred by their Boards to social agencies. This phase of our work is becoming increasingly important.

As we trace the changes in our work we find that in line with similar organizations, the community is turning to us as a clearing house for many kinds of requests. For example, requests which might be called extra curricular. Can we speak to an evening group of women about our work; can we find the impossible—farm help, nurses or domestic help. An occasional request comes for work also. Do we know of nursing homes for elderly people, boarding homes for babies and young people. County and state investigators come to us for help in these and other problems. Our office was headquarters for the National War Fund and Community Chest Drive last year and will be again this year. Our capable secretary, Mrs. Durgin, has put in order two complete sets of files involving about 2,200 cards. She has sent out all correspondence to captains and workers, has taken charge of money brought in by contributors and sent out follow-up letters to pledges. This has involved many hours of patient and exacting work and we feel that it should be recognized as a substantial contribution to the community. In addition, Mrs. Durgin has brought so much friendly understanding and sympathy to clients coming to the office that our work has been helped immeasurably.

The Future

What of the future of the Family Service Council? Judging by present trends, the State and Federal Governments are assuming more and more long term financial responsibility for old age, widows with young children, unemployment and sickness insurance. As a local group we assume responsibility for short term relief and because many families have such emergencies, this form of help is likely to continue. All of us have basic needs—food, clothing, shelter, etc., but we differ in the ability to adjust to the complex conditions of modern life. Those with little ca-

MAYOR WARD TO HEAD SEAL SALE

John F. Ward, Mayor of Palmyra, and a director of the Burlington County Tuberculosis League, has been appointed chairman of the Tri-Borough Christmas Seal Sale Committee.

Members of the committee, which will assist the League in the local campaign to raise funds to finance its year-round program, are: Mrs. William McCamy, Mrs. R. E. Sanford, Mrs. A. D. McFall, Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew, Mrs. R. O. Young, Mr. Henry Naisby, Mr. Paul Jones, and Mr. Harry Saar, Palmyra; Mrs. Nathan Lane and Mrs. Carvel Sparks of Riverton; Mrs. Maurice Conrow, Cinnaminson.

I accepting the appointment as chairman, Mr. Ward said that he did so in the belief that maintaining high standards of health on the home front was one of the most important tasks confronting the civilians today.

"It is our duty to do everything in our power to prevent the spread of disease at a time when our greatest strength is needed in the prosecution of the war," he said. "The Burlington County Tuberculosis League for years has waged a battle against one of the worst enemies of mankind. Its work, supported by the sale of Christmas Seals, must be continued. I am glad to be able to assist this year in the campaign for funds necessary to support the program in 1945."

The sale will open November 27, and continue until Christmas.

Many often marvel at the scarcity of Democratic votes when Primary Election rolls around and how this party picks up strength during the General Election, particularly in a Presidential year. Another thing to be wondered at is why many voters cast their ballot for a Democratic President and the rest of the ticket straight for the G.O.P. candidates.

capacity are the ones who suffer most. We still have many such families with us and they will always need help.

As a Board and as workers we must do more interpreting of our agency to the community. Too many people still think of the Family Service as a relief agency. We know this is not so when we think of the 78 children in the broken, distraught homes we have visited this year. They and their parents need help so that they will become a normal integrated part of life in this community.

Future Needs

Thinking in terms of long ranging planning which has its effect on Riverton and Cinnaminson, we need a vocational school in this county, a house of detention so that youngsters in trouble will not be sent to Camden, the Burlington county jail, or remain at large to get into more trouble. More and better houses are badly needed and state hospitals for chronic illnesses such as heart disease and cancer.

In these days too race relations are strained and tense, and our agency can do its part in helping to create better understanding in the community. There is need for patience and courage in meeting these problems, but they must be met. Let us remember the old familiar challenge "Unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required, and unto whom men have committed much, of them will they ask more."

CARD SOCIAL ATTRACTS

RECORD CROWD

The card social for the Church School Heating Improvement Fund of the Christ Episcopal Church, Riverton, held in the Parish House auditorium last Wednesday evening attracted a near capacity crowd of 197 persons.

The Heating Improvement Fund was increased by $220.00 net profit from the sale of tickets and chances on attractive prizes all of which were donated by local people and Riverton-Palmyra merchants as well as several of Philadelphia's large department stores.

Highlighting the evening was a special gift donated by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, a beautiful engraved etching of the White House with greetings from the Roosevelts, which was won by Mrs. Loren Thompson, of 4th and Main streets, Riverton.

More than 400 chances were sold on 54 prizes and many folks won two or more of these attractive gifts. In

GENERAL ELECTION

There promises to be a record vote at the General Election next Tuesday when the polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Both parties have been very active during the current campaign and will make every effort to get as many citizens out as possible.

While communities in this section are usually strongly Republican, there usually is a much larger Democratic vote than normal during a Presidential year and G.O.P. workers are urging that members of their party not be too complacent. They request that all Republicans be certain to vote next Tuesday.

Announcements regarding the various candidates are published elsewhere in this issue of The New Era.

WILL HASTEN HONOR ROLL COMPLETION

At the regular meeting of the Riverton Memorial Post held last week it was unanimously decided to throw the entire weight of the Post's program into a swift completion and dedication of the Riverton Honor Roll before adopting other sections of the Post's program for the current winter.

In that connection the Post, together with its affiliated Citizens' Committee wishes to acknowledge receipt of donations towards the Community Honor Roll from The Church of the Sacred Heart, The Porch Club of Riverton, The Riverton Parent-Teachers Association, Benjamin S. Mechling, Clara E. Farrow, S. Robinson Coale, Filson Graff, James E. Roberts, Minnie L. Kimball, R. L. Flower, Mrs. Max Schletter, Helen Scattergood, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blyler, Evelyn Blyler, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Troxell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. French, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Richard Hollerith, Josephine C. Tyler, E. D. Smalley, Wm. O. Henry, Edw. L. Wallace, G. F. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmerman, E. M. Carhart, Jr., John H. Hullings, T. Bayard Brunt, W. W. Chalmers.

Construction of the Honor Roll has kept pace with the contributions of the neighborhood, and further work will be authorized as funds are received. As a matter of interest, the Post was informed that just recently two other New Jersey towns which had heard of the special attractiveness of the Riverton Honor Roll have sent in requests for details in order that they could copy their construction after the local structure.

Citizens wishing to make contributions may mail them to Herbert Evans, Treasurer, 611 Elm terrace or leave their gift at Keating's Store, Broad and Main streets.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley L. Hemphill, of Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a son, Richard Craig, at Doctor's Hospital, in Washington, on October 21.

Mrs. Hemphill was formerly Helen Leidy, of Riverton.

addition to this, there was a prize for every table and 6 door prizes.

After the card playing, the women of the committee, aided by the Girl Scouts, served delicious sandwiches, cakes and coffee, all donated by the women of the parish. The women of the committee were—Mrs. Donald Patterson, Mrs. Edward C. Hoefflich, Sr., Mrs. Frank Matthews and Mrs. Wm. Shoemaker, all of whom worked hard to make the party a success.

260 tickets at fifty cents each were sold for the affair of which 114 were sold by the Church School children. Mr. Patterson, superintendent of the Church School and Mr. Hoefflich assisted in the prize drawings.

Many congratulatory messages were conveyed to the committee by those attending, signifying a well arranged party at which it is felt nearly everybody attending had a pleasant time.

WOUNDED CANDIDATE

Benj. Paul Fauce, of Riverside, candidate for Sheriff of Burlington County on the Roosevelt Coalition Ticket, wears an artificial foot as a result of having been hit by fragments of a Jap bomb when the Nipponese attacked Nichols Field, near Manila in the Philippines on December 31, two days before that city fell to the enemy.

Fauce was on guard duty at the field, and reported approach of Jap planes to his superior officers. He was hit as he aided eight men to get out of a hangar near which several planes were affire. He holds the Purple Heart with two Oak Leaf Clusters and citations for bravery, and was honorably discharged from the U. S. Army in August, 1943, after undergoing three amputations at Tilton Hospital, Fort Dix, and treatment at Philadelphia Naval Hospital. It is predicted that Fauce will receive a large vote of service men and families of men in the service of the Nation.

Lewis Answers Davis

The following reply to the letters of James M. Davis, Jr., is made by Assemblyman Arthur W. Lewis, of Riverton:

October 30, 1944

James M. Davis, Jr., Esq.,
110 High Street,
Mt. Holly, N. J.

Dear Jim:

Your recent letters in which you request my answer to certain questions have been received. You request my answers "receive the attention of the greatest number of people." I trust they will, and I further trust that you will see that they are well published, at least to the extent that you had your inquiry publicized. Your questions are here-with answered:

1st—The Railroad Tax Bill. You know, or as a lawyer you are presumed to know, and as a candidate for public office you are obliged to know before making any public charges, that I was not a member of the New Jersey Legislature in 1942 when the Railroad Tax Bill was passed, so accordingly I did not vote for that bill. The false inferences in your question bespeak your disregard for facts or an intentional effort to mislead.

2nd—As to the "non political purchasing agent" question. The problem of county purchases is exclusively within the jurisdiction of the Board of Freeholders without any direct control by the County Representatives to the State Legislature. I do not propose to dictate to the Board of Freeholders how they should exercise their best judgment but of course I shall endeavor to wield all possible influence with all public office holders to discharge their duty as they see it without fear or favor for the most effective county economy and the best interests of the citizens of the county. My answer to this question is my answer to all your questions relating to appointments by the Board of Freeholders.

3rd—As to your question: "How much of the public funds would you vote to appropriate to effect the referendum on the revision phony?" If you are referring to Senate Bill No. 220, which provided for the submission of the proposed State Constitution to the voters of the State at the forthcoming General Election and appropriating moneys for the purpose of complying with the Act, I wish to advise you that I not only supported that bill but also sponsored it in the Assembly and urged its passage.

The people of this State, at a referendum in 1943, directed the 1944 Legislature to draft a proposed revised Constitution to be submitted to the People at the next General Election for their approval and ratification or rejection as a whole. The 1944 Legislature (Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9) adopted a proposed revised Constitution. If it were not for Senate Bill No. 220 there would not have been any provision for the presentation of this proposed revision to the people for their knowledge, information and study in advance of the election when they would be called upon to vote for or against the revision as proposed. Obviously, therefore, Senate Bill No. 220 was proper, fair and necessary legislation. May I further answer your question by a quotation from Thomas Jefferson, the founder of your original Democratic party who said:

"There is no act however virtuous for which ingenuity may not find some bad motive."

4th—Your next question, trite and trick, as it appears to be, again relates to the aforementioned Railroad Tax Bill, and my answer to your first question fully answers all your questions relating to that piece of legislation.

5th—You inquire as to my intentions with regard to the rehabilitation of returning service men and women. I have always been a staunch advocate that our National Government and every State in the Union should establish a beneficial and workable plan in favor of our returning Veterans whose sacrifice in this war requires our most generous and thoughtful consideration, for to them, we, as well as our posterity, are indebted beyond words.

If you will refer to the Synopsis of State Veterans Legislation of 1944, as compiled by the New Jersey Veterans Commission, and to the report of the State Commission on Post-war Economic Welfare, and to the messages from our Governor Walter E. Edge, you will fully appreciate that the Republican Administration of this State has made and is making every possible and reasonable effort to see that our returning veterans are met with the home cooperation they so well deserve.

6th—You request that I elaborate upon my contention that the Republican representatives should be elected this year in order to curb apparent extravagances and waste. I have always preached economy in government and placing the affairs of the State as well as the Nation upon a sound business basis and to that end I shall always strive.

Surplus in County

Fortunately, in Burlington county, under a Republican Administration, we have a surplus of over $34,000.00; and fortunately, in the State of New Jersey, again under a Republican Administration, we have a surplus of over $25,000,000. Unfortunately, however, under the New Deal Administration, our Federal Government is faced with a National deficit, 79 billions of which is estimated to be a debt incurred without any relation to the War effort, and approximately 200 billions additional as a result of the War Effort. The citing of specific instances of waste and extravagance, which are so apparent, seems hardly necessary. Suffice it to refer you to the many reports of the Democratic United States Senator Harry Flood Byrd which are replete with evidence of waste and extravagance.

Finally, I agree with so much of your concluding paragraph that reads: "Experience has shown that neither Democrats nor Republicans have a corner on brains"; but I thoroughly disagree with the remaining clause of that paragraph "that the taxpayer has always benefited from non-partisan government of the type offered by the Roosevelt Coalition Ticket," particularly do I disagree with such a statement when that Roosevelt Coalition ticket apparently represents a New Deal—Hillman-Browder Coalition, which in my humble judgment is anti-Democratic, anti-Republican and anti-American.

Sincerely yours,
ARTHUR W. LEWIS.

AT SUPPLY BASE

A North African Service Command Base—"Give me a thigmajig with a one eighth inch hole in it, please." That is a typical request that an Air Corps Supply man is asked to grant during duty hours. Off hand it doesn't sound like too much of a problem but when you consider that Air Corps Supply now numbers over 500,000 separate items you can realize the dilemma that any untrained supply man can run into with a request like that.

Take Staff Sgt. Herbert L. Grushcow, 12331 Saywell avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, as a typical Air Corps Supply clerk. He started with the supply section of his Air Service squadron when it was nothing but a small garage full of empty boxes and organized confusion back at Baer Field, Indiana. Claims the sergeant, "I didn't know just what I was getting into then."

The unit was alerted. Boxes, this time full ones, came pouring in and the squadron's equipment for operation in the field was quickly being shipped to them from all parts of the United States. The only trained Technical Supply man at that time in the outfit was Master Sgt. Alfred Sulkowski, 26 Coolidge Place, Freeport, N. Y., and his job was to break all the new men, mostly war recruits from civilian life, into trained Tech Supply men in the short time allotted to him before shipment overseas. The men learned quickly, however, and the raw recruits that started with Sgt. Sulkowski, including Sgt. Grushcow, are all now veterans who can tell you at a second's notice what class any of the 500,000 separate items fall into without batting an eye. "Once you learn the classes and what comprises each class, the rest of the job is simple," states Grushcow.

Thousands of planes, of every size, type and shape have passed through the squadron's Service Command Base and of the many planes grounded for parts at their station, none have remained for any great length of time due to the fine cooperation between the mechanic, warehousemen and administrative sections of supply. As soon as a plane is grounded for a part or parts, the Air Service Command mechanics of the same squadron make a complete check, get the proper nomenclature of the part needed and it is then given to the supply counter where it is routed to Tech Sgt. George S. Mattheis, 202 Seventh St., Riverton. The Sergeant, chief clerk for his administrative section, calls up the next source of supply, almost 200 miles away and the following day, if humanly possible, the part is on its way to the grounded plane.

Since Captain George Noga, 2474 C. Morris Black Place, Cleveland, Ohio, took over Sgt. Grushcow's squadron Air Corps Supply in September, 1943, overwhelming results and achievements have been noted and commented upon by higher authorities who are constantly pulling spot checks and inspections looking for discrepancies for it is these high ranking officers of the USAAF who realize that this war can be won or lost by supply.

RECONVERSION TO FUEL OIL

The Fuel Oil Panel of the local War Price and Rationing Board has been advised by the National Office of an amendment to the Fuel Oil Regulations, relative to the issuance of rations for reinstalled facilities. Rations may now be issued for use in the following re-installed (reconverted) facilities: (1) Central heaters in private dwellings, (2) Central heaters in non-private dwellings where the annual ration would be less than 10,000 gallons, (3) oil space heaters acquired on or before August 23, 1943, converted to the use of an alternate fuel and subsequently reconverted to the use of oil. Rations may also be issued for use in coal or wood stoves, regardless of when acquired, which have been converted to the use of oil.

Personal Experience Backs Smith's Sound Foreign Policy

H. Alexander Smith, of Princeton, Republican nominee for United States Senator, will bring to that office, if elected, a sound knowledge and personal experience in foreign policy gained at first hand. For many years Smith, formerly a member of the faculty of Princeton University, has been recognized as an authority on international affairs.

Long an advocate of international cooperation to maintain permanent peace, Smith says the United States "can no longer live alone and should no longer live alone." His present views on foreign policy grew out of his experience after the last war when he served in the stricken countries of Europe as a member of the U. S. Food Administration and the Commission for the Relief of Belgium. Those agencies saved the lives of millions of starving people.

In the years between World Wars I and II, Smith traveled extensively and studied conditions in Central Europe, in the Scandinavian and Baltic countries, in the Balkans and in the Near East.

Always a liberal and an anti-isolationist, Smith has definite ideas as to the postwar foreign policy. He says: "I recognize the responsibility of the United States to participate in some form of postwar cooperative organization among sovereign nations to prevent military aggression and to attain permanent peace, with organized justice in a free world. This is not a plan; it is a policy."

Smith, who was a student at Princeton University and a pupil of the great Woodrow Wilson, emphasizes that no blueprint or formula can be devised which will be worth the paper that it is written on unless behind it the people of the world "have the will to do justice and the will to peace."

Now campaigning from one end of New Jersey to the other, Smith says that the mothers of America will insist that statesmen find the answer to war. Our boys who are today facing the Siegfried Line, Smith warns, "are not thinking in terms of politics but are asking what we at home propose to do to their sons from a repetition of the present tragic conflict in another twenty-five years."

Smith's thinking on foreign policy is sound. It is backed by personal experience and knowledge. This is one of the assets which will help him, if elected, to do a real job in the United States Senate.

MRS. KATE LOCKETT

Mrs. Kate S. Lockett, mother of the late Rev. George Lockett, former pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Palmyra, died in Philadelphia recently.

Mrs. Lockett, who would have been ninety years of age on January 10, was well known among the members of the Baptist congregation in Palmyra and Riverton, having resided here for a period of about fourteen years.

Mrs. Lockett was born in South America and at an early age went to England to live, later coming to America where she has lived for about fifty years.

The deceased is survived by a son, Walter, of Philadelphia, and by two step daughters who reside in California.

The funeral was held in Philadelphia with interment in Fernwood Cemetery.

MISS DOROTHY BONSAL IS BRIDE OF NAVAL MAN
IN PRETTY CEREMONY

The marriage of Miss Dorothy I. Bonsal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bonsal, of Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, and David A. Dennis, Coxswain, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dennis, of Hazel avenue, Delanco, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, October 21, in the Christ Episcopal Church, Riverton, with the Rev. John R. Crockett, pastor, performing the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, selected a bridal gown of white satin, with a sweetheart neckline, gathered bodice and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her three quarter length net veil was held in place by a heart shaped coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and snow drops arranged in shower effect.

Mrs. Richard Sowers attended the bride as matron of honor and was attractively gowned in ice blue satin and net featuring a fitted bodice with a satin bow at the waist line and a full skirt.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Miriam and Edith Dennis, sisters of the bridegroom and wore similar gowns in dusty rose and Alice blue. All of the attendants carried contrasting bouquets of roses and chrysanthemums and wore coronets of roses.

The best man was Dominic Galli, USN, and the ushers were William E. Friedlander, USN, and John W. Zeust, USN, all of whom served overseas with the bridegroom, who has had eighteen months in foreign service.

The bride's mother wore a gown of royal blue chiffon velvet with a corsage of American Beauty roses and the bridegroom's mother, who was attired in black crepe model and wore a corsage of white roses.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Riverton Country Club after which the young couple left for New York.

The bride is a graduate of Palmyra High School, while the bridegroom was graduated from Burlington High School. He took part in the invasions of Sicily, Salerno, Anzio and Southern France.

HOLLINGSHEAD STARS

Although Coach Howie Odell admitted John Frohlik and West Hansen, the pair of six-foot, four-inch Eli tackles, who have been transferred from Yale were mighty handy boys to have around, he expressed confidence today that Dick Hollingshead and Jim Rosenberger will more than fill the bill.

"I am not worried," he said, "about either of the two replacements. Both are big, strong, capable lads, but the thing that does have us bothered is the lack of depth in these positions which has been created by the transfer of Frohlik and Hansen."

Hollingshead, whose home is in Riverton, N. J., played the majority of both the Columbia and Rochester games and was the standout tackle on the field in both contests.

He is six-feet, two-inches tall, weighs 202 pounds and has proved himself to be an excellent defensive man as well as capable in the department of cutting down defenders when the Elis have the ball. The surprising thing about Holly is the speed he possesses for such a big fellow.

DAVIS SAYS

As a candidate for election to the New Jersey State Senate from Burlington County on the Democratic-Roosevelt Coalition Ticket, I feel that it is fitting that I should lay before the electorate the program that I would sponsor in the event of my election. Second only to the problem of winning the present war and founding a just and lasting peace, is the importance of the speedy absorption of returning service men and women into civilian life in such a manner as to produce the maximum benefit to the veteran and to the public economy. To that end, if I am elected, I shall sponsor a legislative program to accomplish the following results:

1. The retention, and where possible, the liberalization and improvement for the benefit of veterans of World War II of all legislative opportunities heretofore accorded by law to veterans of World War I.

2. The construction of all needed useful public buildings and works with World War II veterans being given preference in employment by law, at the same time taking full advantage of all available Federal grants.

3. The sale or rental to veterans of all state owned real estate not needed for governmental purposes to the end that they may be devoted to homesteading and agricultural development.

4. The establishment of airports throughout the state and a statewide air transportation system or systems to provide adequate public transportation by air throughout the state and to provide gainful employment for men and women now in the service who are already splendidly trained to carry on this type of work.

Such a program would be an asset to public convenience, would foster the general economic welfare of the state and of this county and would provide employment for our men and women now in the service at a comfortable living wage.

COUNTY SCHOOL LEAGUE

On Monday evening, October 23, a meeting of coaches, principals, and athletic directors was held at Mount Holly High School. The purpose of this meeting was to explore the idea of forming a Burlington County Interscholastic League with the purpose of sponsoring football, basketball, baseball, and other athletic activities.

The following schools were represented: Burlington, Pemberton, Riverside, Florence, Palmyra, Mount Holly, and Moorestown.

The following officers were elected to serve during the 1944-45 school year: Warren N. Butler, Mount Holly, president; Harry Owens, Burlington, vice-president; Kenneth Dimond, Palmyra, secretary-treasurer.

The following men were appointed to draw up a set of bylaws for the new organization: James B. Davis, Mount Holly; Kenneth Dimond, Palmyra; Edward Tronone, Florence.

The next meeting of the league will be held on Monday, December 4, at 8 p.m., in the Burlington High School. It was tentatively agreed to sponsor a basketball and baseball league for the 1944-45 school year. Eventually other school sports may be sponsored by the group.

ACCIDENTS TAKE

HEAVY FARM TOLL

DURING PAST YEAR

The accident toll among farm persons in 1943 was 17,200 killed and 1,500,000 injured, according to figures made available to the Office of War Information in connection with a "Stop Accidents" campaign in which a score of Government agencies and the American Red Cross are collaborating.

Of fatal accidents to rural persons, 7,500 resulted from home mishaps, with falls leading the list, due principally to insecure footing and poor visibility. Next come burns, which most often resulted from misuse of kerosene and gasoline. Then came poisonings, poisonous gas, mechanical suffocation, firearms and drowning.

Farm work fatalities numbered 4,500. Farm machinery was involved in most of these injuries because farm workers insisted on unclogging, oiling and adjusting moving machines. Other farmers met death on tractors that tipped over. The startled horse and the bull that everyone thought was tame were responsible for most of the injuries caused by livestock.

Motor vehicles were involved in 800 farm work tragedies. Falling trees, especially trees that were being felled, caused a relatively large number of deaths. Misuse of tools, heat and lightning also took their toll.

Pour gasoline or kerosene outdoors to prevent accumulation of treacherous vapors. Never use them to start or quicken fires. Clearly label medicines and chemicals and keep them out of reach of children.

Don't wear loose and floppy clothes around machinery. Start tractors smoothly and turn corners slowly. Avoid ditch banks and soft ground. Always hitch to the drawbar.

Know how to notch and guide a tree so that it will fall the way you want it to before you start to cut it down.

Keep guns unloaded except when you are using them. Loaded or not always treat every gun as though it were loaded.

Speak to farm animals when approaching. Animals usually cause injury when they are frightened. Keep them calm by being calm yourself.

O.P.A. ACTIVITIES

The Enforcement Division of the Camden O.P.A. District Office is making a survey of all dealers in used washing machines and refrigerators as a result of complaints of overcharges on these commodities, it was announced by O.P.A. District Director, T. Harold Dempsey.

A preliminary investigation has already uncovered a number of overcharges and enforcement action has been taken against the dealers involved. Three dealers, to date, have been required to make refunds to purchasers, totaling $445.50, as a result of overcharges on the sale of used refrigerators and washing machines.

In addition, injunction action has been instituted in the United States District Court to restrain the dealers involved from any further violations in the sale of these commodities above ceiling.

In these cases where injunction actions have been instituted and Judgment Decrees obtained, the effect of this action is that if they violate at any time in the future in the sale of such items, they can be proceeded against for criminal contempt of the United States District Court's Decree.

Mr. Dempsey announced, too, that the Enforcement Division is also making an investigation of the used passenger automobile sales and has secured a Judgment Decree against Abraham Lichtman and Lichtman Motors, Inc., 1701 Broadway, Camden, restraining them from the sale of used automobiles at over-ceiling.

This action was taken as a result of a $40 overcharge in the sale of a used automobile. In addition to the injunction action, the defendant was required to refund the $40 overcharge to the purchaser and pay into the United States Treasury the sum of $80; this representing the settlement of the Administrator's Treble Damage Action which is available to the Administrator where the purchaser, himself, does not bring suit for three times the overcharge within thirty days of the violations.

RIVERTON YOUTH SAVES

MANY LIVES AT SAIPAN
Somewhere in the Marianas—(Delayed)—A former drug store clerk from Riverton, N. J., is now one of the hardest working medical corpsmen in the front lines of Saipan.

He is Navy Pharmacist Mate Second Class Thomas Ford, who used to work at Keating's Drug Store.

During the early hours of the fighting, when his unit suffered many casualties, he was busy saving lives. He made repeated trips back and forth, under fire, between the front lines and evacuation stations over the island's winding roads.

Ford and his dusty little jeep became a familiar and welcome sight to the front-line units.

He is the son of Mrs. Isabelle Ford, of Riverton.

GUINNESS STATES ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL POWERS ARTICLE PLAIN UNTRUTH

There was an editorial in the alleged "official" Army and Navy Journal August 12, 1944, urging the reelection of D. Lane Powers and saying how much he had done for the Army. This item was dressed up for release and would create the impression that some government organ praised his effort. Such is not the case. The so-called Army and Navy Journal is not a U. S. Government Publication. It is a privately owned commercial paper which makes a trade of army news. It is "official" only in the sense it is approved for publishing transfers, promotions and such news. Very few private soldiers ever use this gazette. It is a brass hat publication which devotes little news to the G. I.'s. Its advertising rates are quite reasonable.

This is the second time the magazine, which makes money on a war business, has distorted the facts in Mr. Powers' behalf for political purposes. Now I want to call the public's attention to this double talk in life and death matters. I cite the actual congressional voting record of Mr. Powers on defense matters.

He voted against preparing the Guam Naval base. He voted against increasing our air force. He voted to disband our draft army less than four months before Pearl Harbor. Those are facts. Check them! Do you think he helped prepare us? If Mr. Powers had succeeded in his efforts it would have been a disaster to the nation. Check the record on that!

Now Joseph Martin, one of the chief opponents to our defense program, put this untruthful editorial in the Congressional Record. It is a typical Hamilton Fish operation. Will this political propaganda be mailed under congressional frank with the taxpayers, Democrats and Republican alike, paying the bill?

I would like to know how the surviving Marines and A. F. of L. mechanics of Guam, now prisoners of Japan, feel about Mr. Powers' efforts.

I dare Mr. Powers and the Army and Navy Journal to publish the full minutes and note I say FULL minutes, of the House Military Appropriation Committee while Mr. Powers was on it. It will show Mr. Powers opposed many vital defense needs. Show the facts if you dare!

This nation has paid in blood for the mistakes of men like Powers. Fooling the public by "praise" editorials cannot cover the record. In the Pacific war we are only now back to Guam which we should never have lost. I think the voting record and the report of Admiral Nimitz's of casualties suffered on Guam through August 9—7,214 killed, 7,249 wounded, 329 missing—total 14,792, speak more truthfully to American people than the Army and Navy Journal.

Remember our Guam casualties and the men who refused to prepare the island.

ELLIOTT'S SQUADRON CITED BY GENERAL

The B-24 Liberator Four-engine Bomber Group in which Major Frank B. Elliott, of 402 Fulton street is Lead Pilot, recently was cited by Major General William E. Kepner, commanding 2nd Bombardment Division, "for distinguished and outstanding performance of duty."

The citation in part reads: "The devotion to duty, determination and tenacity of purpose exhibited by personnel of the Group reflect great credit upon themselves, their organization and the United States Army Air Forces."

The Group, which recently completed its 100th combat mission, is commanded by Colonel Luther J. Fairbanks, of Burt, Iowa, and had previously been cited by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, commanding Eighth Air Force, for low-level destruction of a bridge across the Loire near Blois, France. Demolition of the span was ordered "regardless of cost." To achieve visibility necessary for destruction of the bridge it was necessary to descend below clouds to 6500 feet, an altitude usually considered extremely hazardous for four-engine bombers. From this height the target was reduced to a heap of smoking rubble. It was the first low-level bombing ever performed by four motored bombers from England.

Earlier the group had been officially commended by General Doolittle for combat achievement on its first mission, an attack on Berlin and the longest initial assault ever flown in the European Theater. The attack was one of the heaviest daylight bombings of the German capital on record.

During its first 100 missions, "overcoming adverse weather conditions and fierce enemy fighter and anti-aircraft opposition," the group attacked 41 targets in Germany and 59 targets in enemy-occupied Europe. Forty-seven hundred (4700) tons of bombs were dropped on vital enemy installations.

WOOD BACK FAST

Claim for the record time in getting home after being shot down over enemy territory is made for Major James N. Wood, of Elm Terrace, Riverton, West Pointer and an Operations Officer in the P-47 Thunderbolt Group commanded by Lt. Col. Philip E. Tukey, Jr., of Cape Elizabeth, Maine.

The Group took off to strafe German ack-ack at 2:15. Major Wood's ship was nearly shot to pieces by a German A.A. battery which he was trying to silence. He got hits in the belly, one in the left wing, one in the engine, two more in the front fuselage, and his engine cut out at 250 feet altitude. Then it caught and he flew for fifteen minutes with his wingman, Lt. Ben Barnes, trailing right along with him.

Landed Fast
His oil pressure was dropping fast and his cylinder head temperature was rising in the same tempo while he was looking hard for the Belgian border. He just made it and the first field he saw in Allied territory he went down for. He was going at 160 miles an hour which was too fast for that small grass field, so he jerked his wheels up and made a belly landing, skidding across the grass and ending up crashing through a sandbag revetment.

"There were a lot of C-47's parked there, loading wounded for return to England. A ground force Colonel who seemed to be in charge came up to me and asked me if I wanted to go back to England. I said 'sure, they are having a big party back at my base and I want to get back.' He laughed and told me to climb into one of the cargo ships that was just getting ready to take-off. The C-47 landed back at my own base at 6:50 that afternoon, 35 minutes after the last ship of my Group landed."

Smith Who Likes People, Ideal Senate Candidate

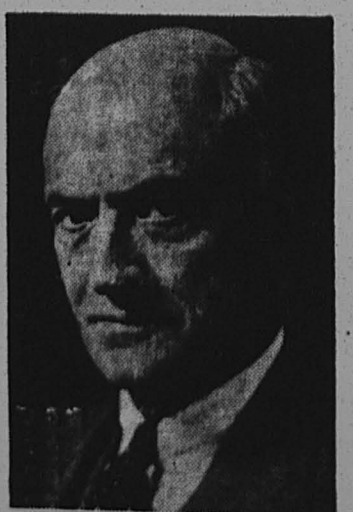

H. Alexander Smith measured by any yardstick is more than the Republican Party's candidate for U. S. Senator from New Jersey. He is the people's candidate, for though his background is impressive, he has the earthy quality which makes people like him. And he likes people, which explains some of the things he has done and what he intends to do when he enters the U. S. Senate.

He was born in New York City on January 30, 1880, descendant of a long line of Jerseyites on his father's side, most of whom were Hunterdon and Sussex County residents; while on his mother's side he descends from Pennsylvania settlers of the Allentown-Easton region. He was graduated from Princeton University in 1901, and received his L.L.B. from Columbia Law School 3 years later.

He lives in a comfortable colonial house in Princeton now, a home built 25 years ago from plans blueprinted by his wife, the former Helen Dominick, of New York. He taught politics and government at Princeton for 7 years—and was personally taught before that by the late President Woodrow Wilson, who was then President of Princeton University. For several years Smith was one of the University's most popular lecturers, and his interest in people kept him at Princeton where hundreds of young men knew and loved him.

Smith has a sound grasp of foreign affairs, gained at first hand. He knows Europe and its peoples intimately. He served here and abroad during World War I as a member of the U. S. Food Administration and the Commission for Relief of Belgium.

Smith has been a member of

the visiting committee of art and archaeology at the University of the National Council of the National Economic League; American Bar Association; Academy of Political and Social Science; American Institute of Mining and Metals Engineers; Princeton Engineering Society; Society of Colonial Wars.

There are three married children, Mrs. Samuel M. Shoemaker, Jr.; Mrs. H. Kenaston Twitchell, Jr.; and H. Alexander Smith, Jr. Although Smith has intimately known many of the great figures of our time, including leaders in the field of science, industry, education and government, he retains the common touch. He likes people. He has the background, training, experience and character which equip him to do a constructive job in the United States Senate for the people of New Jersey.

Why Liberals Should Support Dewey

Recently a liberal thinker stated, so ably, reasons why he would vote for Dewey rather than Roosevelt, that they bear repeating. Raymond Leslie Buell, former president of the Foreign Policy Association, is a man noted for his active participation in international planning, and is also known as a firm believer in the rights of labor unions, minorities and government responsibility for the economic system.

After calling attention to the fact that the next four years would see America come to grips with the all important problems of jobs and world peace, he recorded his belief that the New Deal would make a mess of both. Its foreign policy he regards as even worse than its admittedly poor national policy. His position may be summarized as follows:

I. We Have Solved Nothing

President Roosevelt evidently believes in his personal ability to wheedle Churchill and Stalin into line. Just where they should be marching he doesn't seem to know, which may be one reason why there is so much secrecy about our foreign policy.

Despite the recent international conferences, and despite the fact that important world issues may more easily be solved before than after the peace, nothing definite has been achieved. We have heard platitudes enunciated and idealism broadcast, yet definite accomplishments are very minor. Dumbarton Oaks did not tell us whether the three greatest nations will submit their vast powers to law, or not. This really tough matter was avoided. The State Department, organ of U. S. foreign policy, has been in a more or less continuous state of strife and turmoil. Evidence of its unsettled condition was made known by the resignation of three of its ablest men, Sumner Wells being one.

II. We Have No European Policy

Our failure to recognize the DeGaulle regime, until forced to do so because of popular pressure, is an example of directiveless action. The President did not like the only French leader who could command a real following in his country, so we vainly tried to ignore him.

The problem of dealing with Soviet Russia is a major one. We have again become the object of Russia's suspicions because Mr. Roosevelt committed us thoughtlessly to a "second front" in 1942, long before it was practical. Stalin, with his usual realism, has not been satisfied, and only a new president can talk successfully with him. The Russian premier does not want to break with the United States, but he must become aware of a positive European policy on our part, designed to build up a democratic Europe and international prosperity. We have no such policy.

Ordered and paid for by Burlington County Republican Committee

III. We Need a Statesman

Franklin Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson are very different. The latter made mistakes, but he was morally sincere, and would fight stubbornly for what he believed right. The former is given to hasty improvising to meet new situations, and lacks the penetrating long view of a statesman. His popularity in some quarters keeps him immune from personal criticism, the blame for bungling being placed on less idealized subordinates. Such hero worship is totalitarian, not democratic.

Mr. Roosevelt's cabinet occupies a minor position when it comes to influence on foreign affairs. Decisions by the President do not show the results of careful and prolonged group thinking. Mr. Dewey does not work this way. He has a record of making good appointments and then seeking the advice of the experts selected. He is not easily swayed by lobbies or individuals who bring pressure to bear. He has a much better chance of getting along with Congress, since a new president always enjoys greater success in working with that body. A Republican Congress will certainly give a president of its own party greater support.

IV. We Are Not Ready for Peace

Our foreign policy has been much too secret. Mr. Churchill's talks in Parliament tell us more about the genuine issues than does our own government. Mr. Dewey is much more given to taking the people into his confidence.

We have at present a number of states with liberal-minded Republican governors. Their policies would control under a Republican national administration rather than the ideas of the Old Guard. Only by this kind of a new Washington set-up can we meet the well recognized internal problems, chief among which is the need for freeing private initiative for the job of creating peace-time jobs. International relations would inevitably be attacked in a realistic and wide-awake manner, since it would substitute studied collective judgment for personal fixing.

The vast moral and material resources of the United States can best be released by a fresh, vigorous administration, which will bring new men and new ideas to Washington. A liberalized Republican Party will thus be prepared to work out the gigantic problems of peace and post-war employment in the American way. Faith in the future of our country and its people is part and parcel of Mr. Dewey's philosophy, which will give him courage and direction as he faces our vital future.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Palmyra, N. J.
Rev. E. Dan Morgan, PastorSunday, November 5, 1944
We can't get out to church, you know.

I really grieve to say, we are so rushed that frequently we're forced to stay away. These modern times are so intense, so strenuous—and then when Sunday comes, we're rather worn.

And sleep till after ten. It really is distressing. That duties are so pressing. With theatre and opera and the season at its height; the concert and the lecture and the movie every night; with club and lodge and matinee all following on Monday.

You see just how it is that we can't get to church on Sunday. Rich and full is the life of him who has time to go to church on Sunday, morning and evening. And that serves throughout the week.

Services this Sunday
Church School, 10:00 a.m. Departments for all in their various rooms. Visitors are especially welcome.

Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m. Holy Communion will be observed immediately following a selection by the choir and a short talk by the pastor. The anthem will be, "Thine Is The Kingdom," by Gaul.

Junior and Senior Baptist Youth Fellowship, 6:45 p.m. The inspiration gathered at the conference permeates these meetings and you should be in on it.

Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m. Because each soul has influence and responsibility, each soul counts for something in the world and before God. Our responsibility lies in the leading of others to Christ. Our presence in church as well as our daily conduct can be an influence toward bringing others to know Him. You will receive inspiration and a new lease on life as you join in this evening service. The music by the choir will be, "Let Your Heart Be Troubled," by Foster.

Wednesday, 8:00 p.m.—Mid-Week prayer and praise service.
Thursday, 8:00 p.m.—Choir rehearsal.

ALBERT McCAY
Albert McCay, Republican nominee for election to the General Assembly of New Jersey from Burlington County, qualifies for that office, both on the score of his outstanding legal knowledge and as the head of a family of two boys and girls.

A resident of the county for 41 years, McCay received his elementary schooling at Hedding, Mansfield Township, later graduating from Burlington High School and matriculating at Temple University Law School, Philadelphia, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Laws. For the past 19 years, he has lived in Palmyra, and has been Palmyra Borough Attorney since 1935.

A specialist in Municipal law, he has served several communities in Burlington County as Solicitor, acquiring at first hand an excellent knowledge of the problems confronting townships, cities and boroughs. An attorney and counselor at law, McCay has been connected with the law firm of Powell and Parker, Mt. Holly, since 1934. Before beginning the general practice of law at the county seat, he was associated with the legal department of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia for 14 years.

The old maxim regarding the fact that "it takes a busy man to get work done" holds true in the case of this candidate, for McCay's absorption in the intricacies of law have not prohibited him from serving in other capacities. A member of the Palmyra Board of Education for several years, he has also been active in Church work, Chairman of Selective Service Advisory Board No. 1; has been prominently identified with the Burlington County Municipal Officers Association and various other municipal and county civic organizations.

As a widower, he married the former Grace Stang, who was a member of the nursing staff of the Burlington County Hospital, and practicing Physio-Therapist. Receiving her training at the New Haven and Johns Hopkins Hospitals, Mrs. Mc-

SECTION 5. That the amount of the costs incurred by the said public officer for the repairs, alterations or improvements, or for the vacating and closing, or for the removal or demolition of any dwelling determined to be unfit for human habitation, shall be a municipal lien against the real property upon which such dwelling has been incurred; provided, however, that whenever any such dwelling is removed or demolished by the said public officer, the owner of such dwelling shall be liable for the cost of such removal or demolition, and that any balance of such proceeds remaining after the payment of the costs of such removal or demolition shall be paid to the owner of such dwelling.

SECTION 6. That the said public officer may determine that a dwelling is unfit for human habitation if he finds that the occupants of such dwelling, or the occupants of nearby dwellings, or other residents of the said Borough, are in danger of fire, accident or other calamities; or that the dwelling is in such a state of disrepair, dilapidation, or structural defects, as to be unsafe for occupancy; or that the dwelling is in such a state of disrepair, dilapidation, or structural defects, as to be unsafe for occupancy.

SECTION 7. That the said public officer shall have and exercise such powers as may be necessary or convenient to carry out and enforce the purposes and provisions of this Ordinance and of the Revised Statutes of New Jersey 40:48-2.1 to 40:48-2.12, including the following powers in addition to others vested in said public officer: (a) to investigate and determine whether the dwelling therein are unfit for human habitation; (b) to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses and receive evidence; (c) to enter upon premises for the purpose of making examinations, provided that such entries shall be made in such manner as to cause the least possible inconvenience to the persons in possession of such premises; (d) to appoint and fix the time and place for the hearing provided for in this Ordinance; and (e) to delegate any of his functions and powers under this Ordinance to such officers and agents as he may designate.

SECTION 8. That every complaint or order issued by the said public officer shall be served on the person or persons upon whom such complaint or order is required to be served; provided, however, that if the whereabouts of any such person be unknown and cannot be ascertained by the said public officer in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and the said public officer shall make an affidavit to that effect, then the service of such complaint or order upon such person may be made by publishing the same once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper printed and published in the said Borough or, in the absence of such newspaper, in a newspaper printed and published in the County of Burlington and circulating in the said Borough; and that a copy of such complaint or order shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises affected by such complaint or order, and that a copy thereof shall be filed with the County Clerk of the said County of Burlington.

SECTION 9. That nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to impair or limit in any way the power and authority of the said Borough to define and declare nuisances and to cause their removal or abatement by summary proceedings or otherwise, or to abrogate or impair the power and authority of the said Borough to enforce any other ordinances or regulations heretofore adopted or established, or that may hereafter be adopted or established, or to prevent or punish violations thereof.

FOOTBALL OFFICIAL

Last Thursday evening Palmyra-Riverton Rotarians held their annual Camden Night which was attended by some thirty members of the Camden Rotary Club, sponsors of the local organization in 1926. This affair grows each year and is keenly anticipated by members of both clubs.

Rotarian Arthur (Army) Armitage who is among other things Mayor of Collingswood, former Y.M.C.A. Secretary, and a well-known football official, was the speaker. Preceding him the Palmyra High School choir sang the "Ballad of America," and "Morning" as an encore. This splendid group of girls and boys was led by Miss Mary Laird. Its soloist, a member of the choir, Andrew Winters, was outstandingly good.

Honored guests included District Governor Emmor Roberts, past-District Governor Paul Engle, and Seaman 2nd Class Walter Hanson, son of Rotarian Hanson, of Riverton.

Mr. Armitage spoke on football from the officials' point of view. He has been refereeing games for thirty years and has worked over 650 different contests. It used to be a dangerous job, he said, because of the intolerance of both players and fans, but that today this was no longer true.

As football becomes more of an exact science it is necessary that the officials who are called referees, umpires, head line-men, and field judges be trained more carefully. This job is done by the Central Board of football officials who hand out the assignments to games each week. It is by this group that officials are classified and sent to intercollegiate or professional contests.

Duties
Mr. Armitage spoke for some time about the duty of the various officials. The referee, he said, was primarily responsible for the conduct of the game. He has to keep his eyes on the ball and hence cannot see many personal fouls, although he is the official who steps off the penalties. The fouls which lead to them are mostly called by the other officials.

The conduct of the players is watched by the umpire. He is not supposed to watch the ball and as a consequence does not move around so much since he can see more this way. He is perhaps the most powerful official on the field when it comes to penalties and other infractions of the rules. The head line-man, said the speaker, was once responsible only for the ten-yard mark, but now he has much greater power. He is in the best position to see offside. He has the jurisdiction on out of bounds and fouls of other types which he reports to the referee who walks off the penalties. The field judge is responsible for the timing of the game. On kick-offs and punts he goes down the field and indicates when the ball is dead. He moves around a great deal and also calls the downs. All of these officials are spaced so they have the players blocked in. Some day Mr. Armitage believes there may be a fifth official stationed in the grandstand for from this position it would be possible to see many violations unnoticed by the men at the ground level.

The speaker went to some pains to explain several of the confusing rules which often lead spectators to condemn the officials on the field. He pointed out, for instance, that there is such a thing as legal interference with a forward pass play. If the man jumping for the ball is hit from the front or side it is not illegal interference. The umpire who watches the players instead of the ball is in a much better position to see just how the contact is made.

Clipping
Next in order of confusion are clipping, which is now defined as running into any player in the back and goal line plays, touchbacks, safeties and touchdowns. The necessity for touching the ball down in back of the goal line has long been abolished, but many fans still don't know this. Just as long as you have the ball when you go over the line even though you fumble it or drop it after passing the last chalk line. Touchbacks are made by the offensive side, safeties by the defensive side; in other words from whichever side comes the original impetus of the play.

Although there was great demand for rule changes this has not been made by the official rules committee who decided that there should be no alterations in the rules for the duration.

tion. The Eastern Intercollegiate Football Association, however, took the matter into its own hands and decided upon six changes. Three of these are important and the officials have to be able to include 1, 2, 3, or more of these rules one week and exclude them the next, which is decidedly a tough proposition. The most important changes are: first—the kick-off out of bounds has been abolished as played last year; second—a fumbled ball is no longer dead and lastly—a forward pass may be made from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage.

Mr. Armitage closed his remarks by asking fans to be more considerate of the men who are down there on the field trying to run a fair and square football game.

ENDORSED BY LABOR

Another affiliate of the American Federation of Labor has endorsed the candidacy of Congressman D. Lane Powers for re-election as Representative of the Fourth Congressional District of New Jersey.

The latest endorsement came from the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Ship Builders and Helpers, and was contained in a letter addressed to all local lodges of the Brotherhood in New Jersey. The letter urged the lodges to support Congressman Powers in the present campaign. J. H. Guthridge, International Vice President, signed the letter.

Thus far, Congressman Powers has received endorsements from many American Federation of Labor affiliates and also from the Railroad Brotherhoods.

85th BIRTHDAY

MARKED BY A &amp; P

Eighty-five years as pace-setter in the field of food distribution will be celebrated throughout the nation this week by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company.

Pioneer in modern methods of mass distribution, the A &amp; P was established in 1859, when George Huntington Hartford opened the doors of his first red-fronted store in New York City. Today the stores are familiar sights throughout the country, and, along with the present-day supermarkets, play a vital part in the daily lives of millions of consumers, producers and farmers.

Announcing local observance of the anniversary, V. G. Perrin, sales manager for this area, pointed out that the institution founded by Hartford is a veteran of four wars and has been committed to an important role in the present conflict.

"In its strict observance of the price control and rationing programs, its teamwork with Federal agencies in helping to move surpluses of various commodities, its leadership in the drives to salvage waste fats, metals, containers and paper, and its vigilance against waste and spoilage in the distribution of perishables, the A &amp; P has kept a pledge it made to the American public at the start of the war," Perrin said.

Company's Pledge
The company's pledge, over the signature of John A. Hartford, president of the company and a son of the founder, affirmed its intention to continue efforts to reduce the spread between the consumer and the producer and to continue to farmers in the order of marketing of their products at fair prices, and to maintain high wages and good working conditions for its employees.

Pledged further to hold inventories to the lowest point consistent with good service to customers, because hoarding, whether by wholesalers, retailers or consumers, would cause higher prices, the company published its intention to continue selling food at the lowest margin of profit in the history of the retail grocery business.

Guided by its policy of cutting operating costs and passing on the savings to the consumer, the first A &amp; P store enjoyed immediate success. Young Hartford took a cargo of tea direct from China and, by elimination of all needless in-between handlings and costs, retailed it for a third of the prevailing prices. He subsequently applied the same mass distribution principles to an expanding variety of foods, and public acceptance made it possible to open branches and start America's first chain store company. "Probably our greatest single contribution to a healthful American diet," said Perrin, "was the part we played in making fresh fruits and vegetables available the year round. The A &amp; P, in many instances, was the first to bring southern produce to northern markets during the winter months. The benefits of year-round consumption of these foods have been felt by both farmers and consumers."

Another major step in the company's growth occurred with the advent of "economy stores," clearly demonstrating that consumers wanted more food for their food dollar and were willing to dispense with credit and delivery. More recent developments of the A &amp; P economy store are the supermarket and "superette" which not only operate on the money-saving cash-and-carry basis but enable customers to buy all types of food under one roof and avoid tedious detours in shopping. Doubled consumption of citrus fruits in the past twenty years through speedy delivery of these products to all markets, development of poultry as a daily commodity instead of the traditional "holiday dinner," inland distribution of fresh sea food, and mass production and sale of dairy foods, were cited by Perrin as outstanding examples of how A &amp; P mass merchandising has affected American habits.

"Emphasis upon superior quality, lower cost and wider distribution has also characterized the company's activities in the canned goods field," he continued. "Packing methods have improved considerably in recent years and the company has pioneered grade labeling of canned fruits and vegetables, as advocated by the U. S.

Department of Agriculture, for years. The A &amp; P was the first large concern to adopt this system as a policy and its activity along these lines has the endorsement of leading consumer groups, as well as the government."

Despite A &amp; P's pre-eminence in the business of streamlining the distribution of nutritious foods to millions of American families, the company remains on the alert for developments which will determine the future course of the industry," Perrin added.

As one portent of the future, he pointed to the recent "air cargo luncheon" held in New York under the joint sponsorship of A &amp; P, Wayne University and United Air Lines. All the foods served had been picked when fully tree-ripened and flown overnight from the Pacific Coast to test the practicability of shipping perishables by air to distant markets. A large panel of experts attending the luncheon agreed on the tremendous postwar possibilities of this phase of distribution.

Perrin paid tribute to the more than 25,000 former A &amp; P employees now serving in the armed forces of the United States and Canada, for what he termed "their share in the growth of the nation's leading food distributing system."

HAROLD R. WEST,
Township Clerk.STATEMENT BY MINGIN
Lawrence G. Mingin, of Medford, makes the following statement as to why he accepted the Democratic nomination for the office of Clerk of Burlington county as a coalition or non-partisan candidate and as to his experience and qualifications for the position.

"I am and always have been an independent Republican and have been free to express myself in the conduct of county affairs without fear of political interference."

"The people of this county are not concerned as to whether a candidate for public office is a Republican or a Democrat—they are primarily concerned as to whether he is independent from political domination—free to speak and act in their behalf and has the background of experience and qualifications to give them the best possible administration, at the least possible cost."

"The coalition or non-partisan idea is not new. In every place where the people have chosen non-partisan officials to administer their public affairs, they have been the beneficiaries of good government at the smallest possible cost to the taxpayers. They stand and justly so, on the proposition that taxes for the operation of public affairs are not raised through and paid by the taxpayers within a certain political party, but, by the taxpayers of both parties."

"From a standpoint of observation, I am confident that non-partisan government in the county would be a step in the best interest of all the people. If the taxpayers and voters of Burlington County elect me, I pledge a continuance of the faithful, economical and efficient service proven by my past record."

SUMMARY OF THE Revised Constitution

FOR THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY

To be voted upon as a whole by the voters of New Jersey at the General Election, Nov. 7, 1944

To the People of New Jersey:
The Revised Constitution for the State of New Jersey, which will replace the present New Jersey Constitution which was adopted in 1844, if a majority of those who vote on the question at the General Election, November 7, 1944, vote "Yes".

I have prepared the following Summary of the Revised Constitution, by comparison with the present Constitution of 1844, at the request of the Secretary of State, Hon. Joseph A. Murphy, the President of the Senate, Hon. Howard Eastwood, the Speaker of the House of Assembly, Hon. Dominick A. Caracciolo, who are together charged by law with the duty to inform the people of the contents of the Revised Constitution.

This summary is published at their direction, by the Secretary of State, to further inform voters of the nature and significance of the contents of the Revised Constitution.

Trenton, June 18, 1944

Thomas D. Van Hook, Attorney General

Secretary of the People
The present New Jersey "Bill of Rights" setting forth the basic rights and freedoms of all the people, without distinction of group, class or sex, is carried forward without any change from the Constitution of 1844.

Government and Laws
Briefly, the Revised Constitution can be characterized not by any change in the form of our government, but rather by its important changes in organization of the functions of state government and in the functions of public officials.

All the laws now on the statute books would continue fully effective upon adoption of the Revised Constitution except where they are in conflict with its provisions.

The Revised Constitution continues our present form of state government unchanged, with its powers divided among three distinct branches: the Legislature, the Executive and the Judicial.

The Legislative Branch, just as under the present Constitution, would consist of a Senate and House of Assembly. The Senate would, as now, consist of one senator from each county (making 21 senators) and the House of Assembly would, as now, consist of 60 representatives apportioned among the counties on the basis of population, with each county having at least one assemblyman.

The Legislature
Senators: Term increased from three to four years; salary set at $2,000 a year instead of the $500 fixed in 1844.

Assemblymen: Term increased from one to two years; salary set at $2,000 a year instead of the $500 fixed in 1844.

The Legislature would meet annually in regular session, on the second Tuesday in January, as at present, but a new provision would limit regular sessions to 90 calendar days thereafter. Provision is made for special sessions, to be called for specific purposes if necessary.

Other important changes affecting the legislative process, as compared with the present Constitution of 1844, are these:

- 1) The Legislature would no longer be permitted to appoint various state officers, as it has in the past, except the State Treasurer, the State Comptroller and the State Auditor. These three officers would be required to be appointed by the two houses of the Legislature in joint meeting— which is the way they are now appointed.
- 2) The Legislature would have its power to investigate the members of public institutions— which is now expressly restricted by court decision— broadened and specifically defined. This power would be implemented by requiring members of such institutions to testify on matters relating to their public duties on pain of losing their privilege of holding public office.
- 3) Members of the Legislature would not be permitted to accept an appointive state job while the Legislature is in regular session; and their present disqualification to accept any state job created, or increased in compensation, during the term for which they shall have been elected is retained.
- 4) Lobbying in the Legislative chamber of other houses would be prohibited.
- 5) The organization of the state militia, now fixed largely by the Constitution, would be left for future legislative determination.
- 6) Various legislative provisions relating to the protection of public improvements, routing of land use, and prohibiting private, special or local laws are retained (Art. III, Sec. VI).

The Governor

The office of Governor would be changed by the Revised Constitution from one of limited constitutional authority, under the present Constitution of 1844, to an office of substantial executive powers and duties. Beginning with the new Governor to be elected in 1946, the Governor's term of office would be increased from the present three years to four years, but the present provision which does not permit a Governor to succeed himself would be continued.

The major changes fall into two categories: first, those that reduce the present constitutional relationship between the Governor and the Legislature, and second, those that reduce the present constitutional relationship between the Governor and the various state administrative departments and agencies. These two groups of major changes follow:

A. Governor and Legislature

- 1) The Governor's veto of a bill or appropriation then passed by the Legislature would require a three-fifths vote in each house to override, instead of the present majority vote.
- 2) The Governor is given ten days to act upon a bill while the Legislature is in session and thirty-five days after its adjournment. Pocket vetoes are abolished. If the Governor vetoes a bill and the Legislature has adjourned since then, he must call a special session for its reconsideration.
- 3) The Governor may no longer make so-called legislative recess or adjournment appointments to office, unless authorized by law. Non-legislative appointments by the Governor are confirmed, rejected, or returned by the Senate within 6 weeks after submission.
- 4) The initiative and power to effectuate state administrative reorganization is transferred from the Legislature to the Governor, to be exercised by executive order.
- 5) The Governor's authority for administrative reorganization is checked and balanced by provisions relating to the effective date of an executive order for six weeks, during which the Legislature may by resolution veto any executive order relating to administrative reorganization; and by absolute legislative control over the state's penitentiaries. The Legislature will also retain executive power to create, increase or diminish functions, powers and duties under the state government.

B. Governor and the Executive Branch

- 1) The Governor would be given new responsibility and power for reorganizing the state government into not more than twenty principal departments. He could appoint a cabinet of such state officers as he might designate.
- 2) The Governor's power of administrative reorganization is required to be exercised so as to group "all the executive and administrative offices, departments and instrumentalities of the state government . . . according to major purposes."
- 3) As part of such a reorganization, the Governor might redistribute functions, powers and duties which have been created by law, but he could not create any new or additional functions, power or duty. In any case he would be required to act in such manner as to promote efficiency and economy in the operation of the state government. The present Constitution of 1844 makes no provision for administrative reorganization.
- 4) The Legislature would determine those principal departments which shall be headed by a single executive and those which shall be headed by a board, commission or other body. In either case, the appointment of heads of principal departments would be by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Single executive heads would hold office concurrently with the Governor appointing them. The members of boards and commissions heading a principal department would serve for such term of office as provided by law. Future appointments of chief administrators by boards or commissions heading principal departments could be made only with the approval of the Governor.
- 5) A new constitutional basis would be given the merit system of appointments and promotions in the civil service of the state, as well as in the civil service of all local governments. The Governor's power of administrative reorganization is limited by provision that no person shall be deprived of any right or privilege that may be accorded him by civil service law; and veterans' preference is expressly recognized.

6) Pardons would be granted by a board of pardons with the concurrence of the Governor. Reprieves could be granted by the Governor without the existing 90-day limitation on the time for which a reprieve may be extended.

7) Fees or other compensation paid to an appointive state officer or employee for official services, other than his annual salary, must be paid into the State Treasury unless otherwise provided by the Legislature.

The Courts

The Revised Constitution would replace the present constitutional state and county courts with a unified court system, under the administrative supervision and direction of a chief justice. The chief justice is made responsible for efficient administration of the business of all courts in the state.

Organization of the Courts:

- 1) The present Court of Errors and Appeals of 16 judges, now "the court of a Supreme Court and a Court of Errors and Appeals," is replaced by a new "Supreme Court" with the chief justice and sixteen associate justices serving during good behavior with a compulsory retirement age of 70 years.
- 2) The jurisdiction of all the present constitutional state and county courts, except the court of last resort, is merged in a single statewide court, called the Superior Court, with power to try and fully decide cases of every kind throughout the state. This court would replace the present Supreme Court, Court of Chancery, Probate Court, Circuit Court, orphan's court, common pleas court, courts of oyer and terminer courts of special sessions and courts of quarter sessions.
- 3) At least two Appellate Divisions of the Superior Court, each consisting of three justices assigned for three-year periods, would be constituted to decide appeals from sections of the Superior Court.
- 4) The Superior Court, except its Appellate Divisions, will sit in each county, and each county must have at least one resident justice. Superior Court justices shall be appointed for a term of seven years and upon reappointment shall serve during good behavior with a compulsory retirement age of 70 years.
- 5) The Legislature may create or abolish inferior courts of original limited jurisdiction as at present. These courts may be interpreted with the new court system so far as the Legislature finds practicable. Present constitutional states of function of the Peace is abolished.
- 6) The first justice of the new Supreme Court shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate from among the Chief Justices, the Chancellors, the Justices of the Supreme Court, judges of the Court of Errors and Appeals who are attorneys-at-law of at least ten years' standing, Circuit Court judges and Vice-Chancellors, who are in office under the old Constitution on July 1, 1946. All of the foregoing members of the judiciary who are not appointed to the Supreme Court and the judges of the courts of common pleas in offices when the Judicial Article takes effect (November 1, 1946) shall be justices of the Superior Court, each for the balance of his unexpired term.

Decisions and Appeals:

- 1) The Superior Court will have a law section and an equity and probate section. In cases of conflict between equity and common law, equity will prevail, but every controversy shall be completely determined by the court or justice hearing it.
- 2) Appeals to appellate divisions of the Superior Court may be taken as a matter of right from any final order, judgment or decree of the section of the Superior Court. Appeals to the Supreme Court may be taken as a matter of right only under specified conditions. Upon appeals, the appellate court shall exercise all jurisdiction necessary to do full justice and make final determination of cases before it, unless the constitutional right of trial by jury or the ends of justice shall require a new trial.

Administration of Justice:

- 1) The Supreme Court shall make rules governing the administration of all of the courts in this state. It shall have power, also, to make rules as to pleading, practice and evidence, which may be applicable to all of the courts in this state, and which shall have the force of law unless changed or abrogated by law.
- 2) The chief justice is made the responsible administrative head of the court system, to be aided by an executive director of the courts. There is no comparable authority under the present Constitution of 1844.
- 3) The responsibility of the chief justice will include, in particular, the assignment of judges according to the needs of judicial business, except that each county must have at least one resident judge. The chief justice will also direct publication of reports and precedents, prepare and submit to the Governor the judicial calendar and schedule for the judicial year.

State Finances

Property Taxes: The present requirements of general laws and uniform rules for the assessment of property taxes is continued without any change with the further provision that property shall be assessed "according to standards of value as may be provided by law, but not in excess of true value."

All state revenues are to be payable into a single fund and be subject to appropriation for any public purpose except in the case of trust funds, grants, etc. for restricted use; or funds directly or indirectly payable to, collected or retained by counties, municipalities or school districts as provided by law.

Balanced Budgets: A new requirement designed to prevent expenditures from exceeding revenues would be added by the Revised Constitution. "No general appropriation law or other law appropriating money for any state purpose shall be enacted if the appropriation contained therein together with all prior appropriations made for the same fiscal period shall exceed the total amount of revenues on hand and anticipated which will be available to meet such appropriations during such fiscal period, as certified by the State Comptroller."

There is also a new constitutional requirement that all state expenditures shall be budgeted, so far as reasonably foreseeable, in one general appropriation law covering a single fiscal year. This would prevent the practice of a "highway fund" budget covering a calendar year and "state fund" budget covering a fiscal year ending June 30.

Amending Process

The present amending process would be changed by the Revised Constitution in three basic ways:

- 1) Legislative approval would be given by a 3/5 vote of members of each house instead of the present majority vote requirement.
- 2) But proposed amendments would require the approval of one Legislature instead of two as at present.
- 3) The present 5-year bar against successive submission of amendments is clarified to apply only to submission of the same amendment or an amendment effecting substantially the same change as one previously disapproved by the people.
- 4) Amendments must be submitted to the people only at a general election (first Tuesday after first Monday in November) instead of at a special election as now required.

The Revised Constitution if approved will take effect on the second Tuesday in January, 1946, with the exception of the judicial article, the provisions of which would become effective November 1, 1946.

FOR STATE SENATE

Arthur W. Lewis

Although practicing law and running on the Republican ballot for State Senate keeps him rather well occupied, Arthur W. Lewis, of Riverton, manages to find time to belong to several organizations, engage in hobbies, and watch with paternal pride the development of two future male citizens, namely, his two sons, Robert, aged 7, and Russell, "going on five."

In his own words, Senate candidate Lewis calls himself a "graduate of the School of Hard Knocks," but his clients and legal associates know that he received academic training at Temple University, and graduated from the South Jersey Law School. He has been practicing law in New Jersey for a number of years, and is a member of the Burlington, Camden, New Jersey and American Bar Associations. Until very recently, Lewis devoted a considerable portion of his time to lecturing classes in law at the South Jersey Law School. His real hobby and pet charity is his interest in the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital, of which institution he is a Trustee.

Bank Director
A member of the Board of Directors of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Company, as well as the Fidelity Mutual Savings and Loan Association and numerous Building and Loan Associations, Arthur W. Lewis is still finding time to be an active member of several Riverton organizations, including the Business and Professional Men's Club, the Exchange Club, the Union League of Philadelphia, the Taunton Colony Club and the Good Fellowship Club. When his many civic, legal and political interests permit, this gentleman, who served the county for two years as a member of the General Assembly, handling many legal matters pertaining to the welfare of county residents, enjoys most of all an evening with his family.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
First Church of Christ, Scientist
Thomas Ave., at Seventh St.
Riverton, N. J.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, November 3.
Golden Text: "Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace." (Romans 6:14)

Sermon: Passages from the King James version of the Bible include: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness" (Gen. 1:26)

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The history of error or matter, if variable, would set aside the omnipotence of Spirit; but it is the false history in contradistinction to the true." (p. 521) "With a single command, Mind had made man, both male and female. How then could a material organization become the basis of man?" (p. 524)

The Rev. R. B. Stewart, Pastor

Last Sunday morning our Church School secretary recorded the finest Church School attendance in many years. We are moving in the right direction, but there are still a few vacant chairs in some of our classes. Let us endeavor to have them filled next Sunday morning. The parents of our children are to be commended for the encouragement they are giving.

ing their boys and girls to be found faithful in the study of the Word of God. The Church School assembly convenes each Sunday morning at 9:35 a.m. In addition to the children's and young people's classes there is a morning class for the mothers bringing their children to Church School.

How can we ever reconcile our present actions with the command of the Master that we "resist not evil"? Did Jesus mean that all wars, even those against aggression or in self-defense are altogether wrong in the light of the Christian standard? Next Sunday morning our study of the Sermon on the Mount brings us to the words of the Master recorded in Matthew 5:38-42. The sermon topic will be: "The Big Answer to Life's Little Annoyances." The morning worship commences at eleven a.m. The choir will render the anthem, "The Woods and Every Sweet Smiling Tree," by West. During the hour of worship children will be cared for in the Church Nursery, under the supervision of Mrs. W. J. Zau.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the "University of Life" each Sunday evening, with Bible study or activity groups for young people and adults. The Juniors meet from 6:15 to 7:15 for leadership training and choir rehearsal; the Senior C. E. Men's Bible Class and Women's Bible Class meet from 7:15 to 8:15 in the Church School room, the North Transept and the Ladies' Parlor, while the Westminster Guild meets with Mrs. Stewart at the Manse. All groups, with the exception of the Junior C. E. meet in the Sanctuary for a combined worship service from 7:15 to 7:30. Next Sunday evening Mr. Stewart will conduct the worship service.

On Tuesday evening, November 7, the Evening Group of the Missionary Society will meet at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Bernadette Lamb. Miss Lamb will present the evening program and will display many unique and interesting objects gathered from the far corners of the earth. The session will convene at the time for the regular monthly meeting. Members of Session are also reminded of the special meeting to be held on Sunday morning next in the Pastor's study at 10:40 a.m.

The Women's Society
The regular October meeting of the Women's Society is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, November 8, at 2:30 o'clock. Following the business session there will be an old-fashioned tea party. The hostesses will serve amidst an old-fashioned setting. The Society meets in the Church School auditorium. Members of the Church School Council are reminded that the November meeting of the Council will be held on Monday evening, November 12, at 7:45 p.m. in the Ladies' Parlor. Please keep this evening free.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP CLUB SQUAJS SQUAJS DANCE

Forty-five couples braved the weather to attend the Hill Billy High Jinks, which was held in the Community Center recently.

Wendell Hinkley, the caller, had the squares and circles under control at all times, (or mostly all). The music by Pop Hiltner, Ralph Dages, and Frank Wilkins, was splendid and enjoyed by everyone.

Refreshments were served by the committee and during the intermission humorous skits were staged by some of the members who appeared in clever costumes.

The decorations were in keeping with the Halloween season. Those present voted this evening one of the best in the history of the club, which had its inception four years ago. Meetings are held on the third Friday of each month and at present the membership comprises about 100 couples.

"My new neighbor on the next street got a telephone but I'm still waiting"

Yes, that could happen for any one of several reasons. Your neighbor may have been ahead of you on the waiting list—his service may have been moved from a previous address—service for him may be essential to the war effort, or to public health, welfare and security, and accordingly would be provided promptly—or he may have qualified under War Production rules for preferential treatment because of serious illness or service in the Armed Forces.

Every need for essential service is being met, but with telephone facilities producing a full capacity for war needs, the only facilities there are to care for pending applications are those released by present customers.

Those now waiting for service can be sure that they will be connected in proper turn as fast as disconnections permit.

STATE SENATOR

Arthur W. Lewis

Riverton Republican, who was elected State Senator at the General Election Tuesday. The remainder of the County G.O.P. slate won over their Democratic opponents, with the exception of Royston Engle, the Sheriff candidate who, on the basis of complete but unofficial returns, lost to Benjamin Faunce, of Riverside, by a very narrow margin of 76 votes.

Roosevelt and Truman carried the county, which in non-presidential years goes strongly Republican. Wens, Democrat, nosed out Smith, Republican, in the U. S. Senate race. Albert McCay, of Palmyra, got 19,587 votes as compared with 16,635 for his Democrat opponent, Ryba, running for the General Assembly. Thus, Riverton and Palmyra residents are the county representatives in the State Legislature.

Districts G.O.P.

Of the 11 election districts that comprise Riverton, Palmyra and Cinnaminson, seven went for Dewey and Bricker, these being all three in Riverton, a similar number in Palmyra and the 1st in Cinnaminson.

Roosevelt carried Palmyra, however, by the count of 1214 to 1162. He went over in Cinnaminson 489 to 395 but lost in Riverton 809 to 388. This is one of the few communities in the county to remain true to their usual voting procedure.

All the local candidates, Republicans incidentally, were unopposed and were elected as usual. Evidently the Demo-Republicans are willing to trust the municipal governments to their original party.

Riverton elected three members of council, Albert C. Farrow, S. Robinson Coale and Richard Lippincott. Palmyra named Wesley P. Huyett, Edward Fry and T. Curtis Flynn to members of the local governing body; Edwin Griscom, tax collector and Charles K. Mervine, assessor, the latter to fill the unexpired term of James H. Hartley, resigned.

In Cinnaminson, Maurice Conrow was elected a member of the Township Committee.

Observations
In general, the late vote favored the Democrats, the afternoon vote being fairly even, while the morning voters were strongly Republican.

Most Democrats voted against Revision and the County Question, while G.O.P. members favored both.

A surprisingly large turnout was recorded, it averaging 90 percent in some local districts.

The 3rd Riverton district, with 399 votes completed the tally early. The board members are Frank Hamlin, Joseph Flynn, Lloyd Major and Thomas Taylor. They averaged a tally of 200 per hour.

Much of the Democratic strength came from those who voted for Roosevelt and then a straight Republican ticket, although there was

You won't want to miss any of our meetings if the last two are any criterion of the ones ahead. Mark your calendar now for future meetings making a special note of the January meeting which is our annual Fathers Night. The speaker will be Don Rose, Editor of the Evening Bulletin.

BAND PARENTS CLUB

The members of the Band Parents Club will hold a food sale Friday, November 17th, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the vacant store on Broad and Cinnaminson avenues, Palmyra.

Mr. Wm. Burgess is in charge of the sale, which will include home made cakes, pies and cookies.

JUNIOR RED CROSS ENROLLMENT

The Burlington County Chapter of the American Red Cross has launched its annual Junior Red Cross Enrollment for Service Campaign in all the counties' primary and secondary schools, Mrs. Gordon, Chairman, announced today.

The Junior Red Cross hopes this year to surpass its record national membership in 1943-44 of 18,500,000 boys and girls. Mrs. Gordon said.

"The growing need for comfort and recreational equipment in United States' hospitals for the returning wounded will require the services of every willing young American," she declared.

The Junior Red Cross' national production goal in the coming year, she said, is approximately 15,000,000 articles. These include such items as ping-pong tables and game boards; lamps and bedside tables; canes, bathrobes, and bedroom slippers.

American school children also will be called upon to assist in the rehabilitation of children abroad through projects of their Junior Red Cross National Children's Fund, Mrs. Gordon said. During the current school, Junior Red Cross members will pack gift boxes containing 12-000,000 health and educational articles for shipment to children in the liberated countries of Europe.

some weird cutting along the line.

Voting Early

In a number of local districts the voters turned out early in the day and several had polled 50 percent of their registration shortly after 2 p.m. The 1st district in Cinnaminson led that community in this respect.

There was considerable confusion in certain polling places over the permanent registration system, which made considerable additions work for election officials.

Registration throughout the county was much under previous figures the total being only 46,946 as compared with 60,720 in 1940, showing the negligence on the part of members of both parties.

RED CROSS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Riverton Cinnaminson Red Cross branch will be held on Wednesday, November 15th at the Riverton Porch Club at 2:30. Election of officers for the coming year will take place and the speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Charles C. Hainsbury of Mt. Holly, County Chairman of the Gray Ladies. Tea will be served.

Nominees for office for the year 1944-45 are: Chairman, Mrs. J. D. Clark; Vice-chairman, Mrs. F. W. Metzger and Mrs. J. P. Abell; treasurer, Mrs. Edward H. Merrill and secretary, Mrs. Robert G. Adams. Tea will be served.

WOOD DECORATED

Major James N. Wood, a squadron commander in the P-47 Thunderbolt Group commanded by Lieut. Col. Philip E. Tukey, Jr., of Cape Elizabeth, Maine, has been awarded the Silver Star medal for "gallantry in action against the enemy on May 4, 1944." That was the day when, completing his last mission of combat operations he shot down three FW190's over Germany.

"Woody," as he is known to his friends in Riverton, and Rogers, Ark., where he was born, was recently appointed a squadron commander three days after he was presented with the Silver Star.

"Woody" had only one enemy plane destroyed as he approached the end of his first tour of combat operations. During his 68th mission on May 4 he led his flight of four Thunderbolts on a bomber escort mission to Hanover. He had one of his baby's little knitted booties pinned on his gun sight. And pinned on the bootie were his brother's wings. The Luftwaffe was up that day eager to get at our bombers. He led his flight against a Group of 40 FW190's and before his gas ran low had knocked down three of them himself.

His wife and son live on Elm terrace, Riverton, and his mother, Mrs. Ellen N. Wood, lives at Rogers, Ark. Major Wood also wears the Air Medal and Distinguished Flying Cross.

SET FIRES

One night last week, five high school youths, old enough to know better, decided it would be fun to start out on a cornstalk burning expedition.

They set one fire in Delanco, one in Riverton and another near Route 25. All caused damage and resulted in calls for the fire departments in the respective communities.

An investigation conducted by Officer John Robinson, of the Palmyra police, and Chief Erich Veitenheimer, of Cinnaminson, resulted in one suspect being called in for questioning. He admitted his part in setting the fires and involved the others.

At a hearing before Recorder William H. Bottger last Friday night all five were charged with disorderly conduct and pleaded guilty. They were assessed fines and cost which were paid. They also answered similar charges in Cinnaminson.

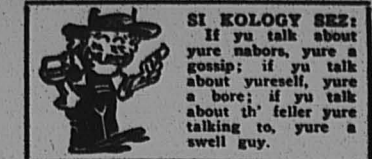

Police officials, hoping that the boys have learned a lesson, withheld their names.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Palmyra, N. J.
Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

There is a feeling among the older men and women that the Bible School is for the youth. On the other hand, there prevails a thought among the youngsters that the Church is solely for the older folks. Hence we have a larger attendance of each at what they may term their particular Sunday service. As a matter of fact, the Bible School teachings apply to groups of any age, and the Sermon subject which is so ably discussed by the Pastor, is brought to the congregation in discernable application that both youth and the oldsters can take the thought away with them with that inward satisfaction that they have learned something which can be applied in their daily lives. This is what "Central Baptist" offers to all who will worship with them. And every one, especially visitors, or those without church affiliations, is always welcome to all services.

Services, Sunday Nov. 12
Bible School, 10 a.m.—You are never too old or too young to start. Morning Worship, 11.15 a.m. "As You Go" will be the subject of the sermon by the Pastor. The music by the choir will be Dickson's "Thanks Be To God."

B.Y.F., 6:45 p.m.—Baptist Youth Fellowship as it is now known, and which still has both the Jr. and Sr. groups, will meet in the Intermediate Department and the Main School, respectively.

Evening Worship, 7:45 p.m.—After a series of sermons on "My Lord and I," Pastor Morgan will have as his subject for the evening, "A Quest for Souls." The choir will render their usual selection.

Monday, 8:00 p.m.—Liaison Committee will meet at the parsonage.

Wednesday, 8:00 p.m.—Mid-week Prayer and Praise service.

Thursday, 8:00 p.m.—Choir rehearsal.

with a plunge off tackle by Russ Mitchell who went over from the 3 yard line. Francis Mitchell kicked for the extra point and the pig-skin sailed over the cross-bar with ten feet to spare, making the score 7-0.

Previous to this there had been no scoring but in the first quarter the Quakers started a drive down the field which netted 5 first downs and if it had not been stopped by some fine defensive work would have been culminated by a touchdown.

There was no more scoring until the last period when the Yellow and Black had the ball deep in their own territory and after 2 straight losses a Moorestown man was tackled behind his end zone for a safety.

Trying desperately to catch up in the waning moments of the last quarter the visitors combined runs with tricky T-formation pass plays in an attempt to score but they were held in check as one of their passes was intercepted by Bill Murray.

When the whistle blew ending the game the Pals were on top of a 9-0 score.

Both teams' passing was poor; the Red and White completing only 1 out of 9 and Moorestown completing 1 out of 14. The visitors had two of their passes intercepted while the home team had none intercepted. Palmyra was far ahead in the first downs column, piling up 13 first downs to Moorestown's 8.

The win was the second straight for the Pals and most fans agree they have finally hit their stride.

RIVERTON SOLDIER GETS SILVER STAR FOR GALLANTRY

Staff Sgt. Charles F. Leusner, of Riverton, has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against the enemy. The award was made by the commanding officer of the 30th Infantry Division.

The citation, read at the presentation, pointed out: "Sgt. Leusner was assigned to duty with an infantry unit engaged in an attack on the enemy. When one of his comrades was wounded by hostile mortar and artillery fire, Sgt. Leusner ran to his assistance and at the risk of his life, in the face of continuous enemy fire from observed position, carried the wounded man to a rear position. This unselfish heroism has been an inspiration to his comrades. Upon his return Sgt. Leusner received orders to withdraw his mortar section and reorganize. This he accomplished in superior manner in spite of the heavy enemy fire. The superior soldierly, courage, and devotion to duty exhibited by Sgt. Leusner reflect great credit on himself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service."

The commanding officer in making the presentation, said, "I am proud to be the commanding officer of units composed of such fine men. You have worked hard and deserve a much greater reward, which will come when our one final task is completed. May God guard you on the continued road to success."

CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Fourth and Lippincott Ave.
Riverton, N. J.
The Rev. R. B. Stewart, Pastor

Next Sunday, in thousands of Protestant churches all over America

"World Order Sunday" will be observed. Great questions will have to be presented, and will have to be answered honestly in the light of the Christian gospel. The supreme question will be, "Is world peace possible?"

If the Church is true to the revelation of Scripture it will have to answer without reservation, "Human nature being what it is, world peace and world order are not possible." Yet if the Church is true to its trust it will have to make clear to this generation that this "impossibility" is no valid ground for pessimism or for despair. There is an answer that is a solid foundation for optimism and real hope and that answer is in the keeping of the Church.

As we continue next Sunday morning our series of studies on "The Life of Man in the Light of God"

we shall face the major question of the possibility of world peace. The sermon topic will be, "Can A Man

Really Love His Enemies?" The text is Matthew 5:43-44.

The morning worship service

commences at eleven a.m. The Choir will render the anthem, "Out of the Deep," by Marks. Mrs. Fisher will supervise the Church Nursery, in which children may be left during the worship hour.

Sunday Evening

The Junior C. E. will meet in the Junior Department room at 6:15, with Junior Choir rehearsal at 6:45.

At 7:15 the joint devotional service in the Sanctuary will be conducted by the Senior C. E. A fine

worship program on the theme

"World Order" has been arranged.

Following the service in the Sanctuary will be conducted by the Senior C. E. A fine worship program on the theme "World Order" has been arranged.

Following the service in the Sanctuary the following groups will meet:

Women's Bible Class in the Ladies'

Parlor, with Mrs. Cummings teaching; Men's Bible Class in the North

Transsept with Mr. McFall teaching;

Senior C. E. in the Junior Department room, with Ruth Mason leading, and the Westminster Guild at the Manse under the direction of Mrs. Stewart. Come out and enjoy

this Sunday evening Christian fellowship with us!

The regular monthly meeting of the Church School Council will be held in the Ladies' Parlor on Monday evening at 7:45 p.m. All superintendents, teachers, officers and members of Sessions Committee on Religious Education are urged to be present.

The congregation of the Hights-town Presbyterian Church extends a very cordial invitation to all Riv-erton and Palmyra Presbyterians to attend a special evening service to be held at Hightstown on Thursday evening, November 16, at 7:45 p.m.

Dr. G. E. Lindquist will be the speaker of the evening.

Good Fellowship Club will be held on the evening of Friday, November

XMAS SEAL GOAL
The Tri-Borough Christmas Seal Sale Committee hopes to raise $2,500 during the 1944 campaign according to an announcement made recently by John F. Ward, Chairman of the Local Committee. The report from last year shows that returns from Palmyra amounted to $794.75, while Riverton and Cinnaminson together contributed $744.24. These communities were the fifth and sixth highest contributors in the county. If, however, the county goal of $15,000.00 is to be reached this year, these contributions must be increased at least 20 percent. This amount is needed to enable the association to carry out its 1945 health program which is being expanded to meet war time needs.
Nelson D. W. Pomyea, treasurer of the Burlington County Tuberculosis League, states that Seal Sale money is conscientiously budgeted

The Public's
Private Opinion

The public has a high opinion of the family in moderate circumstances that will not spend beyond its means for a funeral service. And it feels equal respect for those with ample resources who arrange for higher priced services. Both have been true to their convictions.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH GROUP PLANS ACTIVITIES

The success of the recent card social has stirred quite a bit of interest in the organization of a group of parents and others interested in church work, with activities centered around the development of the children's interest in the Church School.

Present at a meeting last Wednesday evening to discuss the plans for organizing such a group were the Reverend John Crockett, Russell
Bigelow, Paul Musso, Richard Graff, Dewees Showell, Donald Patterson, Aubrey Hewlett and Edward Hoelich.

A mass meeting was decided upon for Tuesday evening at 8:15, November 21st in the Parish house of Christ Episcopal Church. A nucleus for the organization was laid out for submission to the mass meeting and from all preliminary reports this promises to be a very lively association.

Everyone interested in this work is invited to attend the mass meeting, regardless of personal church affiliations. The organizing committee promises a very interesting evening with refreshments and following the meeting, the showing of sound films of the Invasion of the Marshall Islands and the Invasion of Europe, real Signal Corps pictures packed with action. There will be no charge for admission.

GRADUATED FROM BOMBARDIER SCHOOL

Midland Army Air Field, Texas—
The first class of Negro Air Crew members to be graduated from this key bombardier school today finished the toughest 18 weeks prescribed by the Army Air Forces training program, and received their commissions as second lieutenants and flight officers from Col. Charles H. Dow-man, commanding officer. Among the new officers was Benjamin W.
Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Williams, 501 Howard street, Riverton.

Already skilled as aerial gunners, today's graduates are real triple-threat members of the deadly aerial combat teams. In their study and practice of dead-reckoning navigation they have learned its application to the problem of bombing enemy targets and how it can aid in making evasive action more effective.
They have become as familiar with aerial reconnaissance photographs of enemy installations as with the road map of Texas. They have learned camouflage and how to detect it;
they have studied the weak points of enemy ships; they have learned to identify enemy aircraft. They are bombardment experts.

Now these young bombardier-navigators are ready for the final phase of their combat training in which they will take their places as key men in the aerial combat teams of the Army Air Forces.

Pvt. Roy V. Heisler, Jr., of Main street, was inducted into the Army on October 25th, and has reported for basic training at Camp Blanding, Florida.

WOLCOTT TO ATTEND ADVANCED COURSE

1st Lt. John Wolcott, of Riverton, has been selected to attend the Officers' Advanced Course of the Field
Artillery School at this post.

Lieutenant Wolcott, son of W. B.
Wolcott, Moorestown Road, Riv-erton, is a graduate of Yale University and the University of Pennsylvania.
His wife and small daughter, Judith, reside at 235 Windsor Avenue, Haddonfield, N. J. He has reported here from Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Enlisted men and officers are constantly returning to the nation's only Field Artillery School for instruction in the latest artillery tactics and techniques.

The accuracy and effect with which artillery fire has been delivered on the enemy by our troops overseas reflects the value of this training.

PERMIT DENIED

At a meeting of the Cinnaminson Township Committee held on Tuesday night of this week it was brought out that a building permit had recently been denied to a resident of Palmyra Extension who desired to build a garage in which he intended to install one machine to make buttons.

Since such an operation would be in direct violation of the zoning ordinance for this section of the township it was deemed advisable to confirm the action of the building inspector.

It was felt that even though the operation was said to be a small one,
it could easily grow to greater proportions and thus destroy the desirability of the area as a residential community.

manding officer, Major Tracy J.
Peterson, Norris, Montana, and his squadron engineering officer, Captain Alton C. White, Spokane, Washington.

"Shady Lady" has flown on some of the roughest missions over France and Germany. The total tonnage of bombs dropped on enemy targets by the bomber to date approximates 90 tons, or 190,000 pounds in the form of high explosives and incendiaries.

Sgt. Freeman received his training at Amarillo, Texas and Seattle, Washington. He was graduated from high school in Palmyra, in 1938, and later attended Camden Commercial College. Before entering the Army October 17, 1942 he was employed by Kleckhefer Container Company, Delair.

COMMENT

Revision took it on the chin, but most people apparently didn't have the faintest idea why they decided against it. The peculiar part about it is that most of them voted to have the revision submitted at the General Election.

It is understood that there will be a recount on the France-Engle vote.

Army adherents really got a big kick out of the result of the game with Notre Dame last Saturday. It was the first time in many years that they have had a chance to gloat. We wonder when the Republicans will have a similar opportunity.

SENIORS PRESENT

TURKEY TROT

The annual Turkey Trot, which is the first orchestra dance of the season at Palmyra High School, will be given by the Class of '45 in the high school gym Saturday, November 18. The dance will be from 8:30 to 12. Refreshments will be served during the dance.

The orchestra committee has selected the Moorestown "High Haters" to supply the music for the evening.

The decoration committee has made plans to decorate the gym using a combination Halloween and Thanksgiving theme.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to finance a special feature in the Tillicum.

About Town

Petty Officer 2nd Class Arthur H. Burns is enjoying a nine day leave before returning to his ship. He has just completed a four weeks course at a Gunnery School in Washington and is now Gunnery Captain on his ship. Part of his leave has been spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burns, of Thomas avenue.

Miss Marion Burke, of Rutland, Vermont and Washington, D. C., has been the guest for the past few days of Mr. and Mrs. David Gould.

PAUL A. POWELL
NOW BACK IN ACTION

The official casualty lists this week contained the name of Lieutenant Paul A. Powell as having been wounded on July 4, in France.

Lieut. Powell's injury had been previously reported and his mother, Mrs. Clifford R. Powell, of the Riverbank, Delanco, has been informed by letter that her son has been back in action since the middle of September.

The young officer, who is 22 years old, was struck by shrapnel which entered his hip and came out his side.

He is the son of former State Senator "Cliff" Powell, popular Burlington County political leader, who is now a Colonel in the army and is also in France, serving in the Propaganda and Psychological warfare department. His brother, Lieut. Ross

E. Powell, 23 years old, is in England.

WILLE COMMENDED

Pfc. Harry A. Wille, 627 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, has been awarded the Army's Good Conduct Medal "for demonstrated fidelity through faithful and exact performance of duty, efficiency through capacity to produce desired results and behaviour worthy of emulation."

He is a truck driver assigned to Headquarters Detachment, Army Service Forces Training Center, Camp Lee.

Prior to his induction into the Army, March 11, 1943, Pfc. Wille was a truck driver. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Rice, 627 Lippincott avenue.

His wife is the former Miss Given Jane Layman, daughter of Thomas Layman, 24 New Jersey Street, Palmyra.

Pfc. Wille is one of thousands of soldiers trained here in one of the many fields of technical specialization for duty in the vast service and supply system of the Army's Quartermaster Corps.

STRAIGHT TALK

ABOUT THE SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

AS WE MOVE closer to victory, it wouldn't be surprising if you were saying to yourself—"What's the big idea of asking for all this additional money now? Isn't the war almost over?"

No sir, it is not! Not by a long shot. Of course, for many months now you've heard mostly about the war with Germany, where our greatest effort is concentrated. That's why many people have the idea that the war's practically over.

But make no mistake about it—nothing could be farther from the truth! The Japanese war is a tremendous undertaking, and victory will come high. We'll have to fight every inch of the way.

Everything Costs More—
In the Pacific War

The European war is expensive, but almost everything in the Pacific war will cost more. Take transport costs, for instance: Because of the longer distances, the same amount of freight costs 25 per cent more when shipped to the South Pacific than to Europe. And it takes twice as many cargo ships in the Pacific to support a task force of a given size because turn-around time is twice as great!

More Planes...Tanks...Ships...Oil
In addition, we shall need more of everything. More B-29 Superfortresses that cost $600,000 each. More P-47 Thunderbolts that cost $50,000 each. More M-4 Tanks, with bulldozer blades, that cost $67,417 each. More amphibious tanks—more aircraft carriers—more supply ships—more gasoline and oil than it took for the invasion of Europe!

Care for the Sick and Wounded

And lest anyone forget, we shall need more battalion aid stations—more clearing stations—more evacuation hospitals—more convalescent hospitals—more hospital ships.

For many, many years the sick, wounded, and otherwise disabled veterans will require medical attention and care. That's the least Uncle Sam can do in appreciation of what they've done for us.

Maintenance for Millions

Did you ever stop to think how much money it costs to maintain the 11 to 12 million men and women in our army and navy? Whether the men are actually fighting or not, they must be fed, housed, transported from one training center or battle area to another, cared for in a hundred and one different ways. That all costs money and will continue to until the last man demobilized is back in civilian clothes.

In addition, millions of dollars will be required for mustering-out pay, for various benefits and services voted by Congress to help the boys get started in civilian life.

These are reasons enough why patriotic Americans will want to buy heavily during the Sixth War Loan. But here are still more—

Winning the Peace—for Your Country

If we're to win the peace as well as the war, the cost of living must be kept down and the purchasing power of money preserved. A reckless inflation that would necessarily be followed by the catastrophe of deflation—with its unemployment, bankruptcies, misery and heartache—must be prevented at all cost.

Let's make no mistake—a dangerous period lies ahead. The American people have nothing to fear, however, if they show in the future the same common sense they have shown in the past, and continue to put every penny over rock-bottom expenses into the purchase of more and more War Bonds.

Winning the Peace—for Yourself

Want another important reason? Yourself! There isn't a better or safer investment in the world today than War Bonds. In helping your country, you are also helping yourself! Never in our entire history has it been so necessary to save as right now. We'll need money, individually, for education, repairs, replacements, retirement—and we'll need a lot of it.

As you can see there are many reasons, important reasons, why our Government must have the financial support of everyone, and have it for many months to come.

Let all Americans do their part—for their own sake, for their country's.

Miss Blair spoke of letters she and Miss Cook had received unexpectedly from patients or their relatives thanking them for service performed as a part of their daily routine. It gave the committee great pleasure to know that the Visiting Nurses are so well appreciated.

The committee wishes to thank the people of Palmyra for their contributions given so graciously during the recent drive for funds. Mrs. W. A. McCamy and her many aides canvassed the Borough carefully giving all who could an opportunity to give.

VISITING NURSE NEWS

The Visiting Nurse Committee is planning with the other Visiting Nurse Associations of South Jersey a conference for committee members of Public Health organizations to be held at the Walt Whitman Hotel in Camden on December 5th. Mrs. R. V. Mosely, president of the Collingswood Visiting Nurse Association, heads the committee which is preparing for the conference. Mrs. Albert McKay is the representative of the local group on that committee. The idea of forming such a group was conceived by members of Visiting Nurse Associations from South Jersey who attended the bi-annual meeting of the American Nurses Association, the National League of Nursing Education and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing at Buffalo last June. The delegates felt that South Jersey needed its own group to study mutual problems. These women met in Collingswood in October for the purpose of organization. This conference is the first important event leading to better understanding of Public Health problems peculiar to South Jersey.

Morning Session
The morning session is scheduled to last from 10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. There are two speakers—Miss Caroline di Donato, president of state organization of the Society of Public Health Nursing, whose topic will be "State Organization of Public Health Nursing—Its Services to you and your part in its work for the state," and Mrs. James P. Cresce, president of the Lay Section of the National Organization of Public Health Nursing, who will have as her topic, "Function of the Lay Section." Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. From 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. there are to be round table discussions under professional leadership.

At the November meeting of the Palmyra, Riverton and Cinnaminson Committee Miss Blair and Miss Cook were pleased to report that the Family Service Council is cooperating to the fullest extent with them, together

Prompt Delivery Phone Riv. 1100

"There was a telephone in the house when I moved in—but I couldn't just take it over!"

It would be a lot easier to leave the telephone in and connect it for the new occupant of a house or apartment, as we did in normal times, but that would hardly be fair when so many people are waiting for service.

Now—when residence service is discontinued, we take out the telephones, as soon as we can, and put them into a general "pool", from which we fill current applications for essential service, and as many orders as possible from the waiting list.

Every need for essential service is being met, but with telephone factories producing at full capacity for war needs, the only facilities there are to care for pending applications are those released by present customers.

Those now waiting for service can be sure that they will be connected in proper turn as fast as disconnections permit.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Palmyra, N. J.
Rev. S. Dan Morgan, Pastor

Sunday, November 19, 1944

"A friend is the first one who steps in after the whole world stepped out."

When there seems to be no end to hardships and misfortune, and it seems there is no justice and no end to sorrows, to what and to whom can mankind turn? The Christian knows and experiences the love of God, his friend, when all else fails him. Through Him comes peace and joy. The marvelous part about it all is that not only a few have access to that love but it is available to all who seek it.

Central Baptist extends a welcome to all.

Sunday Services
Church School, 10:00 a.m. Classes for all. Friends bring your friends. If you are a visitor in the community you will be cordially met at the door and directed to your particular department.

Morning Worship, 11:15 a.m. "The One Sufficient Refuge," will be Pastor Morgan's sermon topic. Music by the choir will be, "All Thy Works Praise Thee," by Berwald.

There will be a solo by Mrs. George Mack, alto.

Junior and Senior B.Y.F., 6:45—Meet in the Main School room and Intermediate room.

Evening—Worship, 7:45 p.m.—Quiet meditation, music, prayer and fellowship with one another—this is a good recommendation to end a day and to serve as a foundation for the days to come. They sincerely hope that this cooperation will continue and that residents will place their scrap out on the curb on the Saturday that their street is to be canvassed. Scouts will deliver folders to your home prior to the Saturday of collection. The streets from which scrap will be collected will be announced each week in this paper. ## WOMAN ATTACKED

One of the worst cases of assault in several years occurred locally last week when Mrs. Gus Costello, Church road, Parry, was injured by an unidentified assailant as she was sleeping on the second floor of her home at 9:30 p.m.

The intruder, who was not identified by Mrs. Costello, gained entrance to the home by cutting a screen and prying open a window on the first floor, according to Chief Erich Veitenheimer, of the Cinnaminson police, who is in charge of the investigation.

Mrs. Costello, who was alone in the house at the time, with the exception of a seven-year-old daughter, was awakened when the marauder attempted to choke her. She screamed and then was hit over the head with a milk bottle.

The screams aroused neighbors and evidently scared off the culprit, who fled and, for some unknown reason, took the window screen with him. This was found later by the police. Robbery evidently was not the motive for the crime, since nothing was missing from the house, although the telephone wires had been cut.

Mrs. Costello is at her home under the care of a physician, suffering from shock and head lacerations.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC

About 75 guests arrived at the home of Miss Helen Lippincott to hear a piano recital given by Miss Alice A. Herr.

Selections were well chosen from three of the old Masters, Bach, Beethoven and Chopin. Several very descriptive numbers by some of our contemporary composers such as the "Raindrop" by Koplow and "Northern Lights" by Torjussen were adroitly handled in a delightful and delicate manner by Miss Herr.

This very worthwhile program was concluded by the dramatic "Finlandia" by Sibelius. The offering taken was to help defray expenses of the new heating system at Christ Church, and The American Friends Service.

READING-REYNOLDS

Sergeant Carhart, who was decorated for conspicuous bravery has been at a hospital on the West Coast since returning to this country.

New Ruling Bars Free Papers to Service Men

Due to further limitations in the use of newspaper, weekly papers are now restricted from sending copies free to men in the Armed forces.

Under the new regulations, a weekly is permitted to use an amount of paper equal to that previously required for copies "sold to United States Armed Services personnel on a subscription basis."

As a result of this ruling The New Era is compelled to discontinue sending free papers to service men and women. This is a W.P.B. order and we have no choice in the matter.

Due to certain factors, however, it will be possible to accept a LIMITED number of subscriptions for service men at $1.50 per year. First come, first served will be the policy. The new ruling does NOT affect paid subscriptions already in effect. Free papers will be sent this week for the last time.

The Browns resided in Burlington for many years, coming to Riverton about four years ago. Besides his widow and his parents, Sgt. Brown is survived by a daughter, Bonnie Ann, one year old; five sisters, Miss Dorothy Livingston, of Riverton; Mrs. Betty Gaul, and Mrs. Hannah Kerr, of Burlington; Mrs. Alma Hasson, of Rockville Center, Long Island; and Miss Jennie Brown of the Main street address.

LT. R. N. BARCLAY REPORTED TO HAVE DIED IN ACTION

Mrs. Therese Barclay, of 203 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, has been informed by the Navy that her son, Lt. Richard M. Barclay, who was previously reported missing in action by the war department on June 9, is now reported to have been killed in action, while in the service of his country.

Lieutenant Barclay had formerly been stationed on a cruiser operating in the Atlantic area, but was flying with the R.A.F. when reported missing.

The telegram received by Mrs. Barclay came from his ship through regular channels and no further information is available in Washington. Lieut. Barclay, who served in the Naval Air Corps, was the son of the late Richard D. Barclay. He was graduated from Moorestown High School, class of 1936, and Middlebury College, Vermont, 1940.

He enlisted in the air service and graduated from the Jacksonville, Fla., Navy Aviation Station in September, 1941.

He was assigned to the U. S. S. Tuscaloosa during October, 1941 and was stationed in Iceland for 18 months doing shuttle duty to Murmansk. His plane was one of the first two in action at Casablanca.

In May, 1944, Lieutenant Barclay was transferred from his ship to train in Spitfires under the R.A.F. On D-Day he failed to return from his third mission while directing fire for the U.S.S. Texas.

The Lieutenant's wife is the former Miss Patricia Lundrigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lundrigan, of Germantown, Pa.

One of the worst cases of assault in several years occurred locally last week when Mrs. Gus Costello, Church road, Parry, was injured by an unidentified assailant as she was sleeping on the second floor of her home at 9:30 p.m.

The intruder, who was not identified by Mrs. Costello, gained entrance to the home by cutting a screen and prying open a window on the first floor, according to Chief Erich Veitenheimer, of the Cinnaminson police, who is in charge of the investigation.

Mrs. Costello, who was alone in the house at the time, with the exception of a seven-year-old daughter, was awakened when the marauder attempted to choke her. She screamed and then was hit over the head with a milk bottle.

Neighbors Aroused

The screams aroused neighbors and evidently scared off the culprit, who fled and, for some unknown reason, took the window screen with him. This was found later by the police. Robbery evidently was not the motive for the crime, since nothing was missing from the house, although the telephone wires had been cut.

Mrs. Costello is at her home under the care of a physician, suffering from shock and head lacerations.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC

About 75 guests arrived at the home of Miss Helen Lippincott to hear a piano recital given by Miss Alice A. Herr.

Selections were well chosen from three of the old Masters, Bach, Beethoven and Chopin.

Several very descriptive numbers by some of our contemporary composers such as the "Raindrop" by Koppylow and "Northern Lights" by Torjussen were adroitly handled in a delightful and delicate manner by Miss Herr.

This very worthwhile program was concluded by the dramatic "Finlandia" by Sibelius. The offering taken was to help defray expenses of the new heating system at Christ Church, and The American Friends Service.

New Ruling Bars Free Papers to Service Men

Due to further limitations in the use of newsprint, weekly papers using a certain tonnage per quarter are now restricted from sending copies free to men in the Armed forces.

Under the new regulations, a weekly is permitted to use an amount of paper equal to that previously required for copies "sold to United States Armed Services personnel on a subscription basis."

As a result of this ruling The New Era is compelled to discontinue sending free papers to service men and women. This is a W.P.B. order and we have no choice in the matter.

Due to certain factors, however, it will be possible to accept a LIMITED number of subscriptions for service men at $1.50 per year. First come, first served will be the policy.

The new ruling does NOT affect paid subscriptions already in effect. Free papers will be sent this week for the last time.

LT. R. N. BARCLAY REPORTED TO HAVE DIED IN ACTION

Mrs. Therese Barclay, of 203 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, has been informed by the Navy that her son, Lt. Richard M. Barclay, who was previously reported missing in action by the war department on June 9, is now reported to have been killed in action, while in the service of his country.

Lieutenant Barclay had formerly been stationed on a cruiser operating in the Atlantic area, but was flying with the R.A.F. when reported missing.

The telegram received by Mrs. Barclay came from his ship through regular channels and no further information is available in Washington. Lieut. Barclay, who served in the Naval Air Corps, was the son of the late Richard D. Barclay. He was graduated from Moorestown High School, class of 1936, and Middlebury College, Vermont, 1940.

He enlisted in the air service and graduated from the Jacksonville, Fla., Navy Aviation Station in September, 1941.

He was assigned to the U. S. S. Tuscaloosa during October, 1941 and was stationed in Iceland for 18 months doing shuttle duty to Murmansk. His plane was one of the first two in action at Casablanca.

In May, 1944, Lieutenant Barclay was transferred from his ship to train in Spitfires under the R.A.F. On D-Day he failed to return from his third mission while directing fire for the U.S.S. Texas.

The Lieutenant's wife is the former Miss Patricia Lundgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lundgren, of Germantown, Pa.

"Extraordinary wartime conditions face us," Mr. Walker said. "Unless more people buy and mail this month the Postal Service cannot do its job of delivering all Christmas gifts on time."
"It is not pleasing to us to have to ask the American people to mail packages so far in advance of the delivery date. We do so only because it has to be done. The job is a tremendous one, but we are confident that it will be done because we know from experience that given sound reasons Americans cooperate magnificently."

Unprecedented shortages of man power and transportation facilities growing out of the war compel early mailing. The Postal Service has given 50,000 experienced employees to the armed forces and 300,000 railroad workers have gone to war. Equally serious is the fact that rail and other transport facilities are taxed to the limit with the great burden of war traffic which all of us know must take precedence.

"In a great number of our 43,000 post offices the man power situation is critical. The 200,000 extra workers whom we normally recruited to handle the swollen Christmas volume of mail were able to work long hours of overtime and to do heavy work. This cannot be expected from the women and high school boys and girls to whom in large part we must look this year to meet the situation."

"The way in which everyone responded in making it possible for us to handle a volume of 70,000,000 parcels for the armed forces overseas leaves no doubt in my mind that the November Christmas mailing will be equally successful. I ask for the help of the press, radio, business advertisers, civic group and all Americans in making it possible for the Postal Service to do its work."
"We urge everyone to buy now, mail in November and mark gifts 'Do Not Open Until Christmas'."

E. C. RAMSEY IS ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

E. C. Ramsey, well known commentator and world traveler, vividly outlined to the local Rotary Club last Thursday the trend of history in the making behind the scenes on the continents of the globe. Mr. Ramsey, who had spoken the day previously for six hours, held the close attention of his audience for several hours.

Having recently returned from eight months abroad in a capacity which enabled him to see first hand many of the forces at work behind the military scene, Mr. Ramsey spoke with great feeling of the conditions which are already setting the stage for World War III. "And," he said, "so long as men are willing to give up their sons before they give up their prejudices, there will be no peace."

His talk was introduced by a report of the attitude of men in the front lines toward events at home. Until the more recent victories, our men, he said, were very low spirited. Material of many kinds was much scarcer than we believed and word of strikes and production slow-downs affected them deeply. Right now they are thinking most of getting home to their families, their wives and sweethearts and their jobs. Nothing is more important, he said, than to avoid mass unemployment. The returning service men will demand the opportunity as well as the right to earn a living.

German prisoners, he said, are proud, haughty, and arrogant. Their spirit is wholly unbroken and while few of them know the facts of the war's progress, even the doubters believe Germany will stage a comeback. Many of these boast that next time they will avoid their mistakes and win.

France, said Mr. Ramsey, will never regain her place as a first class power. Great Britain is greatly concerned over her empire and is not likely to regain her former prestige. Russia will emerge dominant and is today paving the way throughout Europe and in Asia for an extension of her power and influence in the post-war period. Whether this expansion is for protection, or bargaining at the peace table, or intends the wide extension of her ideology is the problem that confronts the diplomats of America and of the world.
Mr. Ramsey then gave his interpretation of events in Finland, Russia, Bulgaria, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia, in each of which Russia has no maneuvered as to bring into power those attached to the Communist cause. He stressed its implications in the internal affairs of Norway and pointed out how, by allying fears in the Catholic countries, Italy in particular, the acceptance of Russian interests was being furthered.

RIVERSIDE DOWNS

PALMYRA, 12 TO 0
Riverside and Palmyra high schools played their annual Thanksgiving Day football tilt at Riverside before a crowd of more than 3,000. Riverside won, 12 to 0.
The Riverside team tallied the first marker within five minutes after the kickoff. Riverside booted to the opposition's 20 and after a series of yardage plays, the invaders kicked to midfield, where Brown caught the ball and lathered to Wilson, who broke away to score. Horton's conversion attempt went wide.
Play in the last half of the game was almost totally in Palmyra territory. In the final quarter, Riverside again threatened to score, but Palmyra held on their own 9-yard line. Riverside accounted for 12 first downs to five for Palmyra.

The result was a decided upset as the Kirbymen entered the game a decided favorite.

... Help Defeat Japan!

Remember the galling holds of R ships sunk without warning at Pearl Harbor? Remember, too, the men killed during the infamous sneak attack? This is the fight that Japan started... the fight that we've won to finish!

Don't fool yourself—the Japs are enough. It will take long, bitter, costly fighting to blast them out. It will take new and specialized equipment. B-29 Superfortresses... amphibious tanks... airplane carriers... P-47 Thunderbolts and new secret weapons. And a veritable Niagara of oil and gasoline!

Your War Bonds helped train and feed and equip the American units that smashed through at St. Lo... Nancy... Sedan. Yes... your War Bonds are helping to win the Battle of Europe. But now how about the Battle of Japan?

The job is big—so big!

It costs billions of dollars a month to fight the Battle of Japan. The money must come from every patriotic American. It's an investment in America—your future. That's why you are asked once again—in this great battle for final Victory—to buy your extra $100 Bond today.

And here are 6 more reasons for buying up Bonds on extra $100 WAR BONDS in the 6TH WAR LOAN:

1. You are helping to win the war!
2. You are helping to feed and equip the American units that are fighting the Battle of Japan.

Preparatory Service

On the night on which He was betrayed our Master addressed these words to the Disciples in the Garden, "Could ye not watch with me one brief hour?" They were tired and disappointed and tested, but that one hour of quiet meditation was necessary for the nurture of their souls. We all need to pause from time to time to "let our souls catch up with our bodies." An opportunity for spiritual meditation is offered to all communicant members of the Calvary Church on Friday evening, from eight to nine o'clock when we observe our pre-communion preparatory service. The theme of the meditation will be, "The Spiritual Pause." Our spiritual fellowship will be enriched by your presence, and you will be glad that you were led to "come apart for a little while."

Communion

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered next Sunday morning, December 3, as part of the morning service of worship. The theme of the Communion Meditation will be "Roses in December." The Calvary Choir will render two special praise offerings, an anthem, "Jesus, Word of God Incarnate," by Gounod, and a solo, "Pour Out Thy Heart," by Moliere. Mrs. Robert W. Morrison will be in charge of the Church Nursery, in which children will be cared for during the worship hour. The Communion service commences at eleven o'clock.

Church School convenes at 9:30 Sunday morning with Bible study classes for all children and young people between the ages of three and eighteen. An adult class for mothers of children attending Church School and for other ladies who find it difficult to attend the evening class is held each Sunday morning in the Trustees' Room.

On Sunday evening the Junior C. E. meets at 6:15, with Junior Choir.

"LIKE TO SWAP NIGHT CLUBS, PAL?"

"Sorry, chum—no ringside seats. You sit in the mud, see?"

"You got a floor show of lizards and mosquitoes crawling over your face."

"You got a nice little 4-piece orchestra of Jap mortars, Zeros, machine guns, and your best friend screaming in the next foxhole."

"Come any time, pal. The show goes on all night. For a long time. There's never a cover charge. Not even for the flag they put over you when they carry you out."

We're all human.

We all like to go dancing or see a show or buy an extra suit or dress occasionally. But this war still has a long way to go. There are still 75 million Japs who don't believe in surrendering.

So during this 6th War Loan, how about putting all that luxury money into something a little more permanent—an extra $100 War Bond at least—to help get this thing really over and bring those boys of ours home?

It'll hurt. But not as much as the Jap bayonet in your neighbor's stomach. You get something back—in ten years—$4 for every $3 invested. He doesn't.
