Delran Seeks Bids Again For New Township Hall

For the third time, Delran township is going to seek bids (plural) for construction of its proposed municipal building.

Twice before the township advertised for bids but each time only one was received to handle the general contract and both times the architect's estimated cost was exceeded.

The governing body in session Thursday night decided to try again, and it was directed that the advertisement be circulated in a wider area. April 24 was set as the date for receiving and opening the bids, if any.

A salary schedule for 1966 was adopted in other business. Under it, the police chief will receive $6880 as he and each member of the force get a $300 raise. A $5000 minimum was established for a beginning patrolman.

Township Clerk Raymond M. Little was voted a $400 raise to compensate to $5200. The office of treasurer was raised $200 to $1700 and the secretary of the board of assessors $150 to $1900.

Laughlin was returned to the board for a 3-year term along with Austin J. Chamberlain, Spilman B. Gibbs and Leslie C. Krusen.

A passenger in Loffredo's car, Frederick A. Heisler of California, charged with interfering with an officer, was found not guilty.

Cinna. Joins Rt. 90 Group; Karakashian Named to Post

Cinnaminson and Moorestown have joined with the five municipalities which originally comprised the Rt. 90 Committee and Mayor John Karakashian has been designated public relations representative for the group.

Karakashian explained that Cinnaminson and Moorestown "are now vitally concerned and affected by the new route known as the 'Green Route' and have agreed to join the other affected communities to determine the merits of the proposed route."

At a reorganization meeting held in Cinnaminson last week the group elected Charles D. Sullivan of Cherry Hill as chairman, Mayor George Senior, Maple Shade, vice chairman and Robert Capron, Pennsauken, secretary. The other towns represented on the committee are Mt. Laurel and Evesham townships.

Karakashian explained that the committee's objective is to formulate alternate alignments to the proposed Rt. 90 "that meets with the objectives of the State Highway Department and which will be the least detrimental to the affected communities as a whole."

"The committee will be composed of no more than three public officials or citizen group representatives from each of the communities of Moorestown, Cinnaminson, Pennsauken, Maple Shade, Mt. Laurel and Cherry Hill. Each community present will be entitled to one vote and will have the power

Cinna. Township Employee Badly Hurt; Official Places Blame on Juveniles

A Cinnaminson sewer worker was injured while cleaning out a clogged line near Merion Inn and the chairman of the sewerage authority placed the blame on juvenile mischief.

Raymond Cooper, 38, of 1217 Broad st., was admitted to Zurburg Hospital after a rod snapped and recoiled into his face.

Chairman Fred Ganther said a crew was dispatched to the restaurant after an emergency call which said water and detergents were backing into the kitchens.

The four maintenance men traced the trouble to a manhole behind the inn, where he said children had removed the cover and filled the 8-foot cavity with rocks and debris, then placed a wheel-barrow over the hole to conceal it.

Some of the rocks worked their way into one of the sewer lines, Ganther said, and when the workmen put a reamer through an 80-foot length the machine became stuck.

It was in trying to dislodge it that Cooper was hurt.

Change in Bank Name Reflects Wider Scope

Broadening horizons and business expansion are behind the decision of Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Co. to change its name to the Garden State Bank effective June 1, it was revealed today by President John C. Brogan Jr.

"We have always felt a great deal of pride in the name Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Co. and in the Indian head we use as part of our corporate identification," Brogan said.

"For this reason, we will continue to emphasize Cinnaminson and the Indian head in our printed matter, wherever practical.

"In spite of the pride we feel in our present name, it was felt that a new name would better serve our future. The decision to change the bank's name to Garden State Bank was accompanied by a desire to identify our progressive bank with an expanding area in a rapidly growing state.

"The name Garden State Bank identifies our institution with the state's nickname, a term that has become as symbolic as it is historic and traditional. It relates the bank with the unique role Burlington county has played in the Garden State concept.

"Burlington county is at the geographic heart of the eight-county area that has been called New Jersey's garden spot. It is this area that gave the state its nickname.

"But agricultural success does not form the sole basis for the state's nickname. New Jersey is also a garden state of industry, of recreational facilities, and of suburban living. All of these factors are well represented in the tri-borough area and in Burlington county.

"The tri-borough area and the county are more than qualified to identify themselves with the larger identity of the Garden State. It is this wider identity which the bank's stockholders sought to achieve when they voted to change the bank's name."

Mental Health Drive Set for May 11; Name Area Fund Chairmen

Date for the 1966 Bell Ringer campaign of the Burlington County Association for Mental Health has been set for May 11, announces Mrs. Mary Scranton, president.

"A large portion of the proceeds, this year, will go to Drenk Memorial Guidance Center", Mrs. Scranton said.

"This will enable the center to qualify for additional state matching funds and will go a long way toward widening the scope of Drenk's program -- especially for emotionally disturbed children who now must wait eight to ten months for treatment.

"The guidance center," Mrs. Scranton explained, "has never been able to secure the total available state funds, because it has never received enough in donations, fees or county appropriation to warrant all of it. Each year it has 'lost' at least $20,000."

Mrs. Scranton named the following area chairmen for the fund drive: Mrs. R. L. Shepherd, Moorestown, Cinnaminson, Riverside, Palmyra, Maple Shade, Delran, Delanco and Riverton; Michael Chant, Roebling, Florence, Bordentown City, Bordentown Township, Fieldsboro, Chesterfield and Mansfield; Charles Kutteroff and William E. Johnson, Medford, Medford Lakes, Evesham, Tabernacle, Southampton, Mount Laurel and Shamong.

Heading the medical committee will be Drs. Edwin D. Harrington and Thomas R. Houseknecht of Moorestown.

Local Students Seek Office In Youth Government Program

The first session of the Burlington County youth and government program was held in the county building recently. The program is sponsored annually by the YMCA, YWCA and board of freeholders to provide high school boys and girls a practical citizen-education experience in which they have an opportunity to explore the various aspects of governmental procedure.

At the first session representatives of the county high schools divided into two political parties, the Burlingtonians and the Countians. Each party then elected candidates for the various county elective offices.

Bruce Martin and Craig Willie of Palmyra High School were chosen members of the election board for the Countian Party, while other nominees on that ticket include Celeste Flourney, Palmyra, for sheriff; Bernadette Haller, Palmyra, Richard Hoey and Edward Marks, Riverside High School, for coroner; Linda Bonnano, Palmyra, for surrogate, and Robert McKenna, Palmyra, for member of board of chosen freeholders.

At the next session in the program Monday the candidates will deliver campaign speeches and elections will be held. Following elections, the youth board of freeholders will appoint all unsuccessful candidates to appointive offices for Government Day, May 4, when the young people will assume office for the day.

Nancy Parker, a graduate of Palmyra High School, has been placed on the dean's list at Union College, Barbourville, Kentucky.

er to veto any committee action.

"The important objectives of the committee at this point is to have a planned course to deal with the proposed route. One such point of the committee is to set up sub-committees within the community within the purview of the planning boards or planning consultants. Their viewpoints on the route will consist of housing and ground area affected and what can be corrected in alignments so as to minimize hardships.

"Additional information will be forthcoming in the weeks to come while the various communities are surveying their immediate areas."

Youth Senators David Drew and Thomas Leonard, Jr., and Assemblymen Wallace Ashby and Wayne Bacon, members of the Electras Hi-Y Club of Palmyra, represented the YMCA of Burlington County at the New Jersey model legislature in Trenton Friday and Saturday.

Senator Drew and Assemblyman Ashby were successful in having a bill passed by both houses of the legislature titled "An act prohibiting the discharge of certain matter or material into the inland tidal waters, rivers, lakes, and canals of the state, and regulating the operation of toilet facilities in certain vessels in said waters."

Senator Leonard served as co-chairman of the committee on judiciary, crime, voting and finance. Drew and Ashby served on the committee on health, welfare and recreation, and Bacon on the committee on transportation, motor vehicles and aviation. Ralph B. Tompkins, associate secretary of the YMCA, served as adult advisor to the Committee on health, welfare and recreation.

The purpose of the youth and government program is to prepare a selected group of young men and women for moral and political leadership in the American democratic process by providing guidance, training, and experience in the theory and practice of determining public policy. United Fund Hails YMCA For 61 Years of Service

The Burlington County YMCA has been building the bodies and character of its youth for more than 61 years and is looking ahead to bigger and better things in the future, according to Theodore A. Shaw of Mt. Holly, as the new president who succeeds Philip E. Scott.

Funds are made available for YMCA projects by the United Fund of Burlington County, and UF President Lloyd H. Williams joined with the new YMCA president to hail the work of the Y "in developing good Christian young people in Burlington county and throughout the world."

"The YMCA has been a modern-thinking organization which has re-tooled its structure to meet the challenging needs of the changing society," Williams said.

"Two examples of the dedicated work of the YMCA are Irving Hollingshead and William Thompson, both of Moorestown, who were honored for their contribution to 'Y' projects at the dinner-meeting last week.

"YMCA projects had 97 special events in 1965 with attendance surpassing the 10,600 figure.

"More than 730 boys and girls from Burlington County attended YMCA Camps Oceanickon, Matolionequay and Day Camp Worth during the past year. Nearly 16% of the YMCA membership is women and girls.

"Attendance surpassed 44,000 for the 227 YMCA groups during 1965. Membership increased 9% over 1964; 2,875 at the end of the year.

"The YMCA is a credit to our society and its work and results are a benefit to our community."

County Raises Salary Of McCamy to $11,500

Fearful of losing another assistant engineer, the county voted William McCamy, former Palmyra councilman, a $1220 pay raise at last week's freholder meeting.

Freholder Fred C. Norcross pointed out Harold Maser of Hainesport had quit his post to go into private practice, and urged that McCamy's pay be boosted from $10,280 to $11,500. His colleagues concurred.

In other action, the board authorized the legal department to proceed to recover $5000 remaining in the county's share in a joint reconstruction project with Camden county on the Park ave. bridge, Cinnaminson.

Bookmobile Schedule Changes; Cinnaminson Role is Defined

The county library bookmobile schedule for Delran Township and Palmyra began yesterday and will continue weekly until June 29. In Bridgeboro, the Bookmobile will be at the Methodist Church from 1 to 1:20 p.m.; at Millside Center, from 1:30 to 1:45; in Palmyra at borough hall from 2 to 2:30; at the Acme Shopping Center, 2:45 to 3; in Delcrest, at Brown and Baylor sts., from 3:10 to 3:30; in Millside Heights, at Hunter and Stevens dr., from 3:40 to 4:10, and at Suburban and Dartmouth drives from 4:15 to 4:45 and at the A & P on Fairview st., from 6:45 to 7:45 p.m.

Mrs. Catherine W. Wetterling, library director, announced that now that the Cinnaminson branch is open to serve residents of the surrounding areas, any books borrowed from bookmobiles of the library headquarters in Mt. Holly may be returned to Cinnaminson. All books borrowed from the bookmobiles will be due April 15. "All library cards issued in the past will continue to be honored," she said. "If you have never had a card, sign an application and your card will be mailed to you. We will be using a machine circulation system and all borrowers must cooperate if the system is to work. A numbered transaction card will be put in each book pocket. This card must stay in the pocket. A fee will be charged for missing cards, because of the extra work involved in canceling the transaction. Books may only be renewed at the library but no fines will be charged the first week a book is over due.

"The branch library will offer the same services previously received from the Bookmobiles. A complete catalog of the adult collection will be available in book form and you may reserve any book listed in the catalog. Books, if still in print, will be available on inter-library loan and will be considered for purchase when not owned by the county library.

"We hope every family will become active library users. Everyone can take an active part in developing the library facilities by joining the Friends of the Library, and working for the development of the best library service."

Hospitals Cooperate For Out-Patient Care

Outpatient psychiatric treatment to discharge Ancora Hospital patients is being rendered at Burlington County Memorial Hospital through a cooperative program recently established by the two institutions.

Staff doctors from Ancora make twice monthly visits to Burlington County Memorial to continue treatment of patients well enough to be returned to their home environment.

In addition to the therapeutic benefit to the former patients of being at home, the program helps to make needed bed space available at the state medical hospital, the hospitals say, while receiving the continuing treatment close to home also is more convenient and time-saving for the patients.

IS A NEW TAX NECESSARY?

Governor Richard Hughes' failure last week to muster enough Senate votes to push through his state income tax bill has not deterred him from attempting to saddle New Jersey residents with a new tax.

Just a day after the governor threw in the white towel on his income tax bill he announced it was up to the Legislature to pass a sales tax bill because New Jersey needs another tax to support its budget expenditures. He could succeed this time because many Republican legislators are in favor of such a tax. They consider the sales tax the lesser of two evils.

The state administration tells us we need more taxes to pay --

-- for new roads (we heard that some $400 million rests in Trenton earmarked for that purpose).

-- for new institutions (it's reported that much of the $90 million in bond issues approved by voters in recent years for new institutions has not been spent).

-- for our schools (local real estate taxes, paid to the municipality, and cigaret taxes have helped, not to mention Federal aid, expand our school systems).

-- for operating the state government (it's reported the state has a $40 million surplus that could be used to support the over-staffed state agencies anxious to hire more drones).

-- for continuing our glorified welfare and relief programs (a more thorough investigation of relief and welfare money applicants could cut the cost of this program considerably).

Then too a more sound business operation of our government to keep within its income could help to eliminate new taxes -- apparently desired only by the administration.

Government is like a growing dog -- the more you feed it the bigger it gets, and the more it wants. Like taxes, the cycle is endless and you just keep paying and paying the bill.

EDUCATION AND THE PROFIT MOTIVE

There's an experimental project going on at the National Training School for Boys in our Nation's capital that we think bears watching. Although this is, in fact, a reform school for dropouts and delinquents who have run afoul of the law, the boys' progress there in getting an education provides food for thought for educators. We therefore call it to the attention of the National Education Association.

To stimulate interest in reading, the boys are given exciting books to read, instead of the saccharine-sweet soliloquies of Dick and Jane. The same idea of providing a stimulus for learning is followed in other subjects. One young man who said he found his classes at school "back home" dull and boring, and who had flunked math, completed an algebra course at the school and scored 90% on his final test. His explanation: "In regular school you get bored, but here you know if you're not doing something you're not going to get anything for it."

Profit motive is the key to the school's success. What the students "get" for scholastic achievement is points, computed in dollars and cents, with which they can buy a variety of things. The stock in trade includes soda pop and candy, but it also includes the privilege of using the library, learning to play chess, or starting a new and different course. Most gratifying is the fact that so many of the students forego some of the sweets they have earned in favor of new courses and library privileges.

Now we're not suggesting that this same system should be used or that it would work in conventional schools. But we think it does demonstrate the old slogan, "Learning has its own rewards." Education for its own sake, or going to school for no other reason than to get a diploma, is almost certain to become dull and boring to many students.

Education and learning are, in fact, two different things. Education is what schools and teachers try to impart, but learning can only be experienced by the student -- at which time it does, indeed, provide its own rewards.

HELICOPTERS FOR PEACE

The war in Vietnam has focused attention on the unique military value of the helicopter. These machines have proven invaluable in transporting troops and material to combat areas.

And the helicopter has highly worthwhile civilian uses as well. For example, one problem with air transportation is the time that is required to reach airports from crowded major cities. The helicopter offers a solution. Now midtown Manhattan and the John F. Kennedy International Airport are only seven minutes apart following the inauguration of helicopter service between the roof of the Pan American Building and the airport. The new service permits passengers to leave the center of the city as little as 45 minutes before their flight takes off -- a substantial time saving as compared with surface transportation.

Outbound passengers drive directly to the check-in area on the ramp of the Building. High speed elevators whisk them to the 58th floor lounge. The helicopter approaches, rests on the roof only four minutes and in that time, arriving passengers alight, departing ones board and baggage is exchanged.

Someday, one hopes, we will have a world in which helicopters are used solely for peaceful purposes.

HOW BIG IS A TRUCK?

Legislators across the nation are scratching their heads on the question: How big is a truck? And its sequel: Are they too big or not big enough?

One state is considering increasing allowable tandem axle weight from 32,000 to 36,000 pounds on all but Interstate System highways. Another state is debating a reduction of maximum weight limit from 73,280 pounds to 66,580 pounds.

Three other states are likely to raise the height limit from 12.5 feet to 13.5 and a fourth would reduce the height from 13.5 to 12.5 feet. One state is considering reducing the allowable length of single units from 40 to 35 feet and combinations from 55 to 50 feet, while seven others have bills pending to increase overall length. In one state, automobile transporters may be extended to 60 feet.

Legislation for such changes, according to Highway Users Conference, is now pending in 32 states. The fact that most of the bills would legalize bigger trucks and heavier loads is attributed to the new "higher-design" highways of recent years.

We wouldn't know how these bills are faring in the various state capitols, but we can hope that the legislators are devoting some study to the question of whether or not the average driver has grown tougher as the concrete grew thicker. Can poor old genus homo also take more of a beating than in the days of eight-inch cement?

Home Economics Notes

by Anna Doerr
Burl. County Home Economist

Plans for the 1966 Homemakers Institute are underway. Members of the Women's Committee of the Farm Bureau and the Home Economics Extension Advisory Council met and selected Mrs. Janet Wainwright as general chairman. The tentative date for the institute has been set for Oct. 18. The committee will meet on April 19 to complete plans. Serving on the committee are Mrs. William H. Wainwright, Bordentown; Mrs. Howard Grovatt, Tabernacle; Mrs. Walter Katona, Trenton; members of the Women's Committee; and Mrs. J. B. Hart, Columbus; Mrs. Charles Walton, Moorestown; Mrs. Maurice Woodward, Columbus; and Mrs. Andrew McFadden, ex-officio members of the Council.

Twelve women have completed the basic clothing leader training course. Mrs. Richard Heeter of Palmyra is planning to conduct a sewing class beginning in April.

It won't be long. The fresh New Jersey asparagus season begins about mid-April and runs until July 1. While waiting for the arrival of the local fresh asparagus look to frozen or canned asparagus for a low calorie vegetable.

Flowers and foliage can be poisoning hazards according to the New Jersey State Safety Council. With the first warm days of spring will come thoughts of roaming through the woods and fields or of plantings for useful purposes. Little thought is given to possible poisoning hazards. Keep pesticides and other garden supplies away from the reach of young children. There are many varieties of plants and weeds in the United States that are risky or poisonous when touched, squeezed or swallowed or whose burning fumes are toxic if inhaled. Warn your children not to touch, or eat leaves and berries of plants, shrubs, bushes or trees because of the poisonous or allergy-producing effects. Avoid touching or burning any three-leaf plant that isn't clover.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

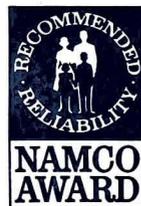

APRIL

April brings a season of contrast. It is spring. If the weather may be unpredictable on a day-to-day basis, we are assured that winter has had its turn and are cheered by the welcome sight of new life a-borning in the fields and forests.

It is easy to feel young at heart. We must resist the urge to become footloose and fancy free. We could leave our cares and responsibilities and contemplate the ramblings of a brook as it courses the meadows, flowing endlessly to the sea.

In this season of new-life, surrounded by the wonders of nature's beauty coming forth in a burst of color and greenery, our thoughts eventually must turn to the higher meaning and the higher purpose of our own existence.

Spring can be for us a time of spiritual re-birth. We have but to turn our thoughts and our steps to the church by the side of the road. There now is being told the story of the example of the life of Christ upon earth. In this lesson of dedication and sacrifice we may rekindle a strong spirit of faith and purpose.

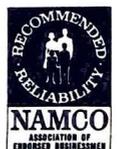

We only give our award to carefully screened local businessmen.

Your local businessman who's got it, proudly displays it in his window, on his trucks, in his local advertising.

The next time you need almost anything: appliances, repairs, clothes, food . . . from any kind of shop to any kind of service . . . look for the NAMCO AWARD. If you don't see it, ask your local businessman to show it to you.

If he hasn't got it . . . maybe he just hasn't got it.

NIPPER, WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS DOG

More than thirty years ago there lived in London, England, a little fox terrier named "Nipper", who although he boasted of no noble pedigree, nor figured in any heroic adventure, came to be known and loved the whole world over.

Nipper was owned by an artist, Francis Barraud, son and nephew of two famous British artists. One day, Barraud noticed his little dog, Nipper, sitting in an attitude of puzzled interest before the horn of the talking machine in use at that time. This sight struck such a responsive chord in him that he set about committing it to canvas. At its completion he titled it "His Master's Voice". Dissatisfied with the ugly black horn of the machine he painted, Barraud took a photograph of his painting to the Gramophone Company, Ltd., and asked to borrow a brass horn which might better suit his purpose. Company officials immediately recognized the value of the painting and bought the completed picture, which was to become a world-wide symbol.

Today, this famous picture of the little dog sitting before the Victrola horn, with quizzically cocked ear, is instantly recognized where the names of even Michel Angelo and Da Vinci are strange. No other picture has been copied and parodied so often and with such piquant force.

Since the advent of that newer entertainment medium, radio, it appeared for a time that Nipper might be overshadowed. But recently news from Camden headquarters of the RCA Victor Company, indicated that Nipper is to come into a new and even greater prominence, not only with his first love, the Victrola, but also with his newer and more spectacular friend, Radio. Nipper is to be pictured listening to the loudspeaker of a modern radio-phonograph instrument, and his likeness is to be emblazoned across the country to let all know that Nipper, a "real" dog, has come back.

A Tack Driving Machine.

A very ingenious machine for automatically driving tacks or nails, says the Providence Journal, has been contrived by Charles D. Rogers of that city. The machine has a reservoir for tacks, and the first effect of depressing the handle is to move a bar endwise, vibrate the agitator and shake the tacks to insure the sliding of the foremost tacks into frictional engagement with the side

Dr. Rich Coming to Riverton 18 Feb'y, 1924.

My dear Mr. Bowen: I have been watching The New Era in its few last issues hoping that mention might have been made coupling Dr. Thaddeus Rich's coming next week for an evening concert with Miss Alice Herr with the "Musical Mornings" over which Miss Herr presided the past season. These "mornings" were held at the home of Miss Lippincott. It is not often that a town the size of Riverton has in its midst as gifted an artist as Miss Herr. She is known by many as a teacher of music. She has proved herself during these morning recitals as not only a teacher but as a most sympathetic interpreter. She has the rare ability to interpret the soul of the composer to the soul of his hearer. With a keen appreciation of the finest and highest in the great art of music, she has been able to get over to her listeners the sense of inspiration that possessed the writer.

The technique is very fine, so fine indeed that one is rarely ever conscious of it. That I realize is a high measure of praise, but our local artist is worthy of it. Music in its uplift appeals so essentially to the spirit of man that when an effort is made such as has been made right here in Riverton this winter to enrich the life of the community it seems not only just but wise to stress it. I have written out of the fulness of my heart for the "mornings" have made life richer for myself and I believe for many others.

OWNERS OF LIBERTY BELL. It Is Not Public Property but Belongs to Four Sisters.

Contrary to general belief the old Liberty Bell is not the property of the nation or of the city of Philadelphia, but of four sisters who are heirs of John Wilbank, the man who made the new bell shortly after the old one was cracked, and who took the oldbell as part payment. According to the Home Magazine, three of the sisters, Mrs. James B. McClosky, Mrs. G. D. Emerson and Mrs. S. B. Coward, live in Philadelphia. The fourth, Mrs. S. W. B. Diehl, lives in Washington, D. C.

By an order of the Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania the Liberty Bell was cast by an English founder in 1751. Soon after arriving in this country, the bell broke, but was recast from the same metal in the same form and with the original inscription, "Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land."

The ownership passed from Provincial authorities to the State, but in 1818 it was purchased by the city of Philadelphia, together with the old State House and grounds. During the celebration over the arrival of Lafayette in 1824 the bell was rung so vigorously it became cracked, and a few months later was ordered replaced by a new bell cast by John Wilbank. The later bell is hanging in the steeple of Germantown Hall.

IMPORTANCE OF SLEEP. The Best, Cheapest and Most Efficacious Medicine.

Sleep is the best and cheapest medicine, and it is within the reach of everybody. We require as much sleep as we can procure. We may work at high pressure if we sleep enough, but if we overwork and under-sleep, irritability, insomnia and nervousness are almost certain to follow. One of the prime causes of ill-health among men and women who have to work with their brains is neglect of sleep. The woman who curtails her sleep begins to worry.

Insufficient sleep, in the first instance, is a common cause of insomnia. Rest and sleep are the only rational cures for brain-fag and nervous exhaustion. It is the highly developed mind that is liable to worry, the alert, highly strung individual who is prone to suffer from sleeplessness. The country yodel can always sleep, and nobody ever saw a neurasthenic cow; but the higher the type the greater need for rest and a sufficient amount of sleep.

Modern sanatoria teach us much about rest that is worth knowing. Disease is combated by putting the patient in such a condition as to enable him to cure himself, as it were, by letting nature do her beneficent work unhindered. One of the unbreakable rules of a sanitarium day is rest—absolute rest—for an hour before and for a short time after meals, says McCall's Magazine. See the common sense of this! How can food possibly do anyone any good if taken into an exhausted frame? How is it to be digested? How can the bodily tissues be refreshed and nourished? In the big shops, at every change of season and at sales, it is terrible to see the crowds of women, fagged and over-excited; who "rush" a meal in some close room, most likely chatting or planning all the while, and then, without a break of any sort, go back to the fever of shopping, many of them with the prospect of a railroad journey back to the suburbs as a wind-up. How many headaches will be the result? What proportion of these shopping ladies will go home too tired to sleep?

Neglect of sleep is, perhaps, the most fatal error made nowadays by busy people. Sleep is the only rational cure of it, as it is the natural safeguard against, brain-fag and nervous exhaustion. It is always the highly developed, energetic individual who is the first to suffer from worry and sleeplessness.

THE SHORTEST INAUGURAL.

Washington's Second Address Only 135 Words Long.

The first president was never given to much speaking. His first inaugural was, however, of average length. This was delivered in New York at the very beginning of our national life under the constitution, and the occasion demanded a more extended utterance than the Father of His Country was wont to give. The second inaugural, delivered four years later in Philadelphia, was more in line with his custom and was exceedingly brief, only 125 words long. In fact, it is believed to be the shortest ever delivered by an elected president. The address follows in full:

"Fellow Citizens—I am again called upon by the voice of my country to execute the functions of its chief magistrate. When this occasion proper for it shall arrive I shall endeavor to express the high sense I entertain of this distinguished honor and of the confidence which has been reposed in me by the people of united America.

"Tretious to the execution of any official act of the president the constitution requires an oath of office. This oath I am now about to take and in your presence; That if it shall be found during my administration of the government I have in any instance violated willingly or knowingly the injunctions thereof I may besides incurring constitutional punishment be subject to the upbraiding of all who are now witnesses of the present solemn ceremony."

ROBBED!

Did You Ever Feel This Way

after buying foot-wear? Did the dealer say you were getting a bargain?—a pair of $3.00 shoes cut to $1.50, for instance. And did you have to take that "bargain" to be half-sold in about three weeks after it was bought?

All shoes will wear out, of course, but the kind sold by the best dealers will wear the longest. We do everything we can to entitle us to be called "the best dealers."

Our special attraction this week is a Ladies' Dongola Kid Shoe at $2.50—either square or opera toe. These shoes are worth $2.50—they are not cut from $4.00, $5.00 or any other figure.

I also have Ladies' Misses' and Children's Shoes from $1.50 up.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Cadette Troop 318 has been keeping busy these past few weeks taking trips, weekend camping, a good grooming course, attending church services during Girl Scout week and preparing for their upcoming rummage sale, all in addition to weekly meetings.

The first trip was to Trenton where they visited the Capitol, the state museum and Holland Mold Co. in conjunction with the ceramics badge on which they had been working. There was a local trip to the Palmyra Fire Co., which completed the requirements for the first aid badge.

Weekend camping was at the college settlement and farm camp near Willow Grove, which 24 scouts attended and concentrated mainly on badge work. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mary Ellen McCurdy and Mrs. Beverly Kusiv, leaders, and Mrs. Madeline McAlpin and Mrs. Nell Egan.

This weekend included Girl Scout Sunday so the troop attended a Catholic Mass. During Girl Scout Week some of the scouts attended the service at Temple Sinai Synagogue and the special service at Covenant Presbyterian Church.

The seventh grade girls in the troop attended a good grooming course, along with members of Cadette Troop 197, under the guidance of Mrs. Eleanor Evans, Mrs. Ruth Stiles and Mrs. Polly Bustraan. From Troop 318 were Patti Egan, Carol Evans, Joann Graham, Debbie McAlpin, Janice Capaldi, Linda Sharp, Tina Lorenz, Beth Nold, Noreen Landis, Ann Marie Pilch and Theresa Isala; Troop 197, Lois Berger, Sue Bustraan, Marie Day, Debbie Gardner, Janet Kearney, Donna Koloski, Noelle Martin, Sue Matteson, Janice McKee, Susan Miersch, Nina Phillips and Sandra Stiles.

Miss Eleanor Evans instructed the girls in the proper ways to sit, stand, walk and stoop, during one of the sessions.

A rummage sale will be held April 7, beginning at 9 a.m., at the American Legion Home, Broad st., and Parker ave., Palmyra. Money raised will be used toward the trip to Washington this summer. There will be the usual articles for sale, clothing for all members of the family, toys, books, white elephant articles, small appliances, furniture, etc. Mrs. Bert Cohen, 210 Georgian dr., is chairman.

Scouts of Cadette Troop 197 spent a rugged weekend camping at Camp Kettle Run. Mrs. Rita Bozar and Mrs. Greenwood accompanied Beth Bishop, Christine Rice, Karen Bozar, Andrea Charpentier, Elaine Davis, Joan Greenwood, Pat Grunigen, Susan Reilly and Pat Phillips. They worked on their emergency preparedness badge, kept an all night fire watch and went on a four mile hike, with packs. Meals were potluck, prepared by the scouts.

Jr. Troop 138 enjoyed a recent evening roller skating at the Riverside Roller Drome, accompanied by Mrs. Ann Wright and Mrs. Dot Phillips, leaders, and Mrs. Barbara Doughty, Mrs. Madeline McAlpin and Mrs. Mary Sharp. The girls are to take skating lessons so that they can complete the requirements for the skating badge.

Cold Water Detergents Effective in Laundry

The new detergents, developed especially for use in cold water, are as effective in laundering as are hot water detergents, says Miss Anna Doerr, county home economist, explaining that by the time water gets to the washer, its temperature is probably only 120 to 130 degrees.

When interviewed recently, Rutgers bacteriologists stated that water temperatures must be higher, 145 to 150 degrees, to do an effective job with soaps or hot water detergents.

Homemakers can now use the convenient new detergents with cold water.

Blueberry Serving As Ornamental Plant

Blueberry plants fit well into the landscape with rhododendrons, azaleas, and laurels, advises Ernest G. Christ, extension specialist in pomology at Rutgers College of Agriculture.

Christ says blueberry plants, which require the same soil conditions as the others mentioned, look attractive all summer and usually have healthy foliage with few pest problems. In the spring, the blossoms are much like those of the Pteris and in the fall the brilliant color of the foliage adds to the landscape picture.

If the plant is used for landscape purposes, the fruit can be sacrificed to serve as feed for birds. But if you hope to enjoy some of the fruit you must cover the plants at least during the time the fruit is beginning to ripen and through the harvest season.

To insure fruit production, at least two varieties should be planted to provide cross-pollination.

Easter Around the World

"He is risen!"

These words, found in St. Mark 16:6, are attributed to the angel of the Lord, speaking to the two Marys on the first Easter Morning. This year, on April 10th, 870 million Christians will repeat the phrase -- in song, sermon, and prayer -- as they celebrate the glory of Easter, symbolic of the rebirth of Christ.

In Jerusalem, swift runners will light torches from a holy fire, bear them back to kindle the torches of the faithful. Many Germans will hold aloft buckets of Osterwasser, Easter water, believed to have curative powers. In parts of the British Isles, some people may rise early on Easter Sunday to see the sun dance...and certain citizens of the American South will listen for the sun to shout!

Almost everywhere around the world Easter Sunday is welcomed with rejoicing, singing, candle processions, and the ringing of church bells. Mexicans literally "dance in" the Easter morn -- streets are jammed with colorfully costumed performers dancing all through the night of Easter Saturday. In Rio de Janeiro and in parts of Cuba, huge floats, numerous bands, noisemaking and fireworks welcome Easter.

In Germanic areas like Austria and Bavaria, a festival preceding Lent, called Fastnacht, is part of Easter preparation; nonsense plays, skits and masquerades are held. And in America's own "Dutch" sections of Pennsylvania, some housewives celebrate Fastnacht by cooking doughnuts all day!

But why the worldwide hilarity, many wonder? How can there be cause for revelry, a feeling of "glory," in so somber and solemn a story as the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus?

Dr. Oswald Hoffmann, whose weekly addresses on radio's The Lutheran Hour are broadcast to more than three million people around the globe, finds the glory of Easter in the fact that "One, just One, made His own way to life through death. He went the way all of us have to go, into the jaws of death. Coming through, as only He could, Jesus Christ opened the door to life. The triumphant Conqueror of death in kingly fashion flung the door back upon its hinges and then turned to the whole world in gracious invitation to follow Him through -- through death to life."

This Easter message has special meaning for our tense and anxious Atomic Age, as it has for every historic epoch. Says Dr. Hoffmann, "We live in a perplexed world that has lost its way. It will not find its way again until it finds the true way. That way is Christ, the only Way." He adds that faith in Christ "takes history seriously because one day history will end. It does not ignore the fact of life, it walks in the light. It does not sweep the taunt of death under the rug; it is on the road that passes through death to life."

As if in affirmation, sounds of joy and merriment ring out around the world. German-speaking peoples actually tell each other special Easter stories (Ostermarchen) designed to produce laughter. A more vigorous demonstration of the belief that Easter is the season of renewed health and hope is in the widespread European custom of "Easter smacks." Men and women exchange good-natured blows to keep each other young and healthy, and to assure good luck for the year.

In Spain the affirmation of Easter is expressed in a riot of spring flowers decorating altars and church facades. This floral celebration is expressed in the Spanish term for Easter, pascua de flores (Easter of flowers).

Everywhere, children hunt for brightly colored Easter eggs, symbols of birth and regeneration. But for Christians, the hopes and prayers for rebirth are captured in the simple yet dramatic message, "He is risen!"

Mosquito Control Has Economic Benefits

"Let no one assume that progress in mosquito control is only nuisance or health-associated. The direct economic benefits of mosquito control are vastly underestimated by most people."

So declared Dr. Leland G. Merrill, Jr., dean of agriculture at Rutgers University, in a speech at the opening session of the N. J. Mosquito Extermination Association convention last week in Atlantic City.

"The agricultural experiment station has a strong responsibility to furnish the county mosquito commissions with the best possible scientific information and operational assistance," he said.

Michael P. Shinkle of the College Entomology Department, described plans for launching a greatly expanded program of mosquito surveillance throughout the State in order to anticipate possible trouble spots and the possibility of danger from mosquito-borne diseases.

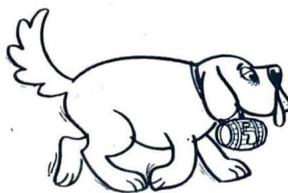

Problems encountered in protecting the health of American troops in Vietnam by controlling the mosquitos, flies and fleas that spread disease, were discussed by David L. Hayden, civilian entomologist for the Disease Vector Control Center at the U. S. NAS at Jacksonville, Fla.

Progress being made on studies of encephalitis in New Jersey were reported by Dr. Martin Goldfield of the State Department of Health.

REMOVING HEEL MARKS

Rubber or composition heels often leave black marks on wood floors, linoleum, or other smooth surface floor coverings. To remove these marks from wood or linoleum rub the area with fine steel wool dipped in a liquid cleaning way. Polish at once with a soft clean cloth. On asphalt tile, rub gently with a clean cloth dipped in self-polishing wax. Then blend the wax over the cleaned area.

223,940 Adult Trout Stocked For Season Opening April 9

New Jersey anglers will find a total of 223,940 adult trout stocked in Garden State waters when the season opens on April 9, Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development announced today.

A complete list of the number and species of trout released pre-season in streams, lakes and ponds open to public fishing was issued by the Division of Fish and Game. The total includes 129,435 rainbow trout, 59,320 brook trout and 35,185 brown trout.

In Burlington County 1100 trout were released in Sylvan Lake, Burlington; 800 each in Strawbridge Lake, Moorestown and Woolman's Lake, Mt. Holly.

Other nearby streams where trout were placed include Doctor's Creek from Allentown to the N.J.

Turnpike; the Toms River from North Branch to Holmansville and two stretches of the Metedeconk River -- one section between Georgia to Greenville and the other from Bennett Mills to Lakewood. Additional trout will be liberated in all these waters several times after the season opens. The total stocking through Memorial Day will exceed half a million fish.

Cinnaminson PAL Joins Riverfront League; Holds Tryouts This Saturday

Cinnaminson PAL will enter a team in the Riverfront League this year. Registration and tryouts will be held at the Cinnaminson High School field on Saturday at 1 p.m. Interested Cinnaminson boys under 20 as of Jan. 1, 1966 are invited to attend.

Scott's Win Crown In Riverside League

Scott's clinched the Riverside Recreation League championship last week by beating Riverfront, 97 to 79, behind a 28-point performance by Bob Vernon. Jody Clause was game high with 32 but it wasn't enough for his team.

Scott's rallied from a 19-20 deficit at the end of the first quarter to build up its victory margin in each of the other three periods.

Legion to Observe Child Welfare Month

Serious problems confronting today's children and youth will be emphasized through the observance of Child Welfare Month during April by the American Legion, William R. Huggard, department commander of the New Jersey American Legion, has announced. Similar observances are being planned in the communities served by more than 16,000 Legion posts and 14,000 Legion Auxiliary units, including some 421 New Jersey posts and 353 Auxiliary units, to bring nationwide attention to this major year-round program of the world's largest veterans' organization.

Commenting upon the accomplishments of the Legion's child welfare program, Commander Huggard pointed out that more than $200 million had been expended for the benefit of children and youth by the Legion, and its affiliated organizations, since 1925.
